Each One Reach One

It is that time again, preparing for a wonderful time with the family. 2009 has been a blessed year regardless of what has happened all around us. Let's get together and give thanks for what we have with each other. Come to play, laugh and enjoy the day. This is a Pot Luck Picnic so we ask that each family participating to bring a meal that is enough for your group, and at the picnic we will put everything on one table and enjoy a feast of different foods.
