<sup>11</sup>The rest of the events of Asa's reign, from beginning to end, are recorded in The Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>12</sup>In the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa developed a serious foot disease. Yet even with the severity of his disease, he did not seek the LORD's help but turned only to his physicians. <sup>13</sup>So he died in the forty-first year of his reign. <sup>14</sup>He was buried in the tomb he had carved out for himself in the City of David. He was laid on a bed perfumed with sweet spices and fragrant ointments, and the people built a huge funeral fire in his honor.

Jehoshaphat Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Then Jehoshaphat, Asa's son, became the next king. He strengthened Judah to stand against any attack from Israel. <sup>2</sup>He stationed troops in all the fortified towns of Judah, and he assigned additional garrisons to the land of Judah and to the towns of Ephraim that his father, Asa, had captured.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD was with Jehoshaphat because he followed the example of his father's early years* and did not worship the images of Baal. <sup>4</sup>He sought his father's God and obeyed his commands instead of following the evil practices of the kingdom of Israel. <sup>5</sup> So the LORD established Jehoshaphat's control over the kingdom of Judah. All the people of Judah brought gifts to Jehoshaphat, so he became very wealthy and highly esteemed. <sup>6</sup>He was deeply committed to* the ways of the LORD. He removed the pagan shrines and Asherah poles from Judah.

<sup>10</sup>Then the fear of the LORD fell over all the surrounding kingdoms so that none of them wanted to declare war on Jehoshaphat.<sup>11</sup>Some of the Philistines brought him gifts and silver as tribute, and the Arabs brought 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats.

<sup>12</sup>So Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful and built fortresses and storage cities throughout Judah.<sup>13</sup>He stored numerous supplies in Judah's towns and stationed an army of seasoned troops at Jerusalem.<sup>14</sup>His army was enrolled according to ancestral clans.

From Judah there were 300,000 troops organized in units of 1,000, under the command of Adnah.<sup>15</sup>Next in command was Jehohanan, who commanded 280,000 troops.<sup>16</sup>Next was Amasiah son of Zicri, who volunteered for the LORD's service, with 200,000 troops under his command.

<sup>17</sup>From Benjamin there were 200,000 troops equipped with bows and shields. They were under the command of Eliada, a veteran soldier. <sup>18</sup>Next in command was Jehozabad, who commanded 180,000 armed men.

2 Chronicles 18

Jehoshaphat and Ahab

<sup>1</sup>Jehoshaphat enjoyed great riches and high esteem, and he made an alliance with Ahab of Israel by having his son marry Ahab's daughter. <sup>2</sup>A few years later he went to Samaria to visit Ahab, who prepared a great banquet for him and his officials. They butchered great numbers of sheep, goats, and cattle for the feast. Then Ahab enticed Jehoshaphat to join forces with him to recover Ramoth-gilead.

<sup>3</sup> “Will you go with me to Ramoth-gilead?” King Ahab of Israel asked King Jehoshaphat of Judah.

Jehoshaphat replied, “Why, of course! You and I are as one, and my troops are your troops. We will certainly join you in battle.” <sup>4</sup>Then Jehoshaphat added, “But first let's find out what the LORD says.”

<sup>5</sup>So the king of Israel summoned the prophets, 400 of them, and asked them, “Should we go to war against Ramoth-gilead, or should I hold back?”

They all replied, “Yes, go right ahead! God will give the king victory.”

<sup>7</sup>The king of Israel replied to Jehoshaphat, “There is one more man who could consult the LORD for us, but I hate him. He never prophesies anything but trouble for me! His name is Micaiah son of Imlah.”

Jehoshaphat replied, “That’s not the way a king should talk! Let’s hear what he has to say.”

Micaiah Prophesies against Ahab

<sup>11</sup>All the other prophets agreed. “Yes,” they said, “go up to Ramoth-gilead and be victorious, for the LORD will give the king victory!”

<sup>12</sup>Meanwhile, the messenger who went to get Micaiah said to him, “Look, all the prophets are promising victory for the king. Be sure that you agree with them and promise success.”

<sup>13</sup>But Micaiah replied, “As surely as the LORD lives, I will say only what my God says.”

<sup>14</sup>When Micaiah arrived before the king, Ahab asked him, “Micaiah, should we go to war against Ramoth-gilead, or should I hold back?”

Micaiah replied sarcastically, “Yes, go up and be victorious, for you will have victory over them!”

<sup>15</sup>But the king replied sharply, “How many times must I demand that you speak only the truth to me when you speak for the LORD?”

<sup>16</sup>Then Micaiah told him, “In a vision I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, like sheep without a shepherd. And the LORD said, ‘Their master has been killed.* Send them home in peace.’”

“There were many suggestions, <sup>20</sup>and finally a spirit approached the LORD and said, ‘I can do it!’

“‘How will you do this?’ the LORD asked.

<sup>21</sup>“And the spirit replied, ‘I will go out and inspire all of Ahab’s prophets to speak lies.’

“‘You will succeed,’ said the LORD. ‘Go ahead and do it.’

<sup>22</sup>“So you see, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of your prophets. For the LORD has pronounced your doom.”

<sup>23</sup>Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah walked up to Micaiah and slapped him across the face. “Since when did the Spirit of the LORD leave me to speak to you?” he demanded.

them this order from the king: ‘Put this man in prison, and feed him nothing but bread and water until I return safely from the battle!’”

<sup>27</sup>But Micaiah replied, “If you return safely, it will mean that the LORD has not spoken through me!” Then he added to those standing around, “Everyone mark my words!”

The Death of Ahab

<sup>28</sup>So King Ahab of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah led their armies against Ramoth-gilead. <sup>29</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “As we go into battle, I will disguise myself so no one will recognize me, but you wear your royal robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

<sup>34</sup>The battle raged all that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Arameans. In the evening, just as the sun was setting, he died.

Jehoshaphat Appoints Judges

<sup>4</sup>Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, but he went out among the people, traveling from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, encouraging the people to return to the LORD, the God of their ancestors. <sup>5</sup> He appointed judges throughout the nation in all the fortified towns, <sup>6</sup>and he said to them, “Always think carefully before pronouncing judgment. Remember that you do not judge to please people but to please the LORD. He will be with you when you render the verdict in each case. <sup>7</sup>Fear the LORD and judge with integrity, for the LORD our God does not tolerate perverted justice, partiality, or the taking of bribes.”

<sup>8</sup>In Jerusalem, Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites and priests and clan leaders in Israel to serve as judges for cases involving the LORD’s regulations and for civil disputes.

<sup>9</sup>These were his instructions to them: “You must always act in the fear of the LORD, with faithfulness and an undivided heart.

<sup>10</sup>Whenever a case comes to you from fellow citizens in an outlying town, whether a murder case or some other violation of God's laws, commands, decrees, or regulations, you must warn them not to sin against the LORD, so that he will not be angry with you and them. Do this and you will not be guilty.

11 “Amariah the high priest will have final say in all cases involving the LORD. Zebadiah son of Ishmael, a leader from the tribe of Judah, will have final say in all civil cases. The Levites will assist you in making sure that justice is served. Take courage as you fulfill your duties, and may the LORD be with those who do what is right.”

2 Chronicles 20

War with Surrounding Nations

<sup>3</sup>Jehoshaphat was terrified by this news and begged the LORD for guidance. He also ordered everyone in Judah to begin fasting. <sup>4</sup>So people from all the towns of Judah came to Jerusalem to seek the LORD’s help.

<sup>5</sup>Jehoshaphat stood before the community of Judah and Jerusalem in front of the new courtyard at the Temple of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>He prayed, “O LORD, God of our ancestors, you alone are the God who is in heaven. You are ruler of all the kingdoms of the earth. You are powerful and mighty; no one can stand against you! <sup>7</sup>O our God, did you not drive out those who lived in this land when your people Israel arrived? And did you not give this land forever to the descendants of your friend Abraham? <sup>8</sup>Your people settled here and built this Temple to honor your name. <sup>9</sup>They said, ‘Whenever we are faced with any calamity such as war,* plague, or famine, we can come to stand in your presence before this Temple where your name is honored. We can cry out to you to save us, and you will hear us and rescue us.’

<sup>13</sup>As all the men of Judah stood before the LORD with their little ones, wives, and children, <sup>14</sup>the Spirit of the LORD came upon one of the men standing there. His name was Jahaziel son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah, a Levite who was a descendant of Asaph.

<sup>15</sup>He said, “Listen, all you people of Judah and Jerusalem! Listen, King Jehoshaphat! This is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid! Don’t be discouraged by this mighty army, for the battle is not yours, but God’s. <sup>16</sup>Tomorrow, march out against them. You will find them coming up through the ascent of Ziz at the end of the valley that opens into the wilderness of Jeruel. <sup>17</sup>But you will not even need to fight. Take your positions; then stand still and watch the LORD’s victory. He is with you, O people of Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid or discouraged. Go out against them tomorrow, for the LORD is with you!”

same, worshiping the LORD. <sup>19</sup>Then the Levites from the clans of Kohath and Korah stood to praise the LORD, the God of Israel, with a very loud shout.

<sup>20</sup>Early the next morning the army of Judah went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. On the way Jehoshaphat stopped and said, “Listen to me, all you people of Judah and Jerusalem! Believe in the LORD your God, and you will be able to stand firm. Believe in his prophets, and you will succeed.”

“Give thanks to the LORD;
his faithful love endures forever!”

<sup>25</sup>King Jehoshaphat and his men went out to gather the plunder. They found vast amounts of equipment, clothing,* and other valuables—more than they could carry. There was so much plunder that it took them three days just to collect it all!<sup>26</sup>On the fourth day they gathered in the Valley of Blessing,* which got its name that day because the people praised and thanked the LORD there. It is still called the Valley of Blessing today.

<sup>27</sup>Then all the men returned to Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat leading them, overjoyed that the LORD had given them victory over their enemies. <sup>28</sup>They marched into Jerusalem to the music of harps, lyres, and trumpets, and they proceeded to the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>When all the surrounding kingdoms heard that the LORD himself had fought against the enemies of Israel, the fear of God came over them. <sup>30</sup>So Jehoshaphat's kingdom was at peace, for his God had given him rest on every side.

Summary of Jehoshaphat's Reign

<sup>31</sup>So Jehoshaphat ruled over the land of Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-five years. His mother was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.

with King Ahaziah of Israel, who was very wicked.*<sup>36</sup> Together they built a fleet of trading ships* at the port of Ezion-geber.<sup>37</sup> Then Eliezer son of Dodavahu from Maresah prophesied against Jehoshaphat. He said, “Because you have allied yourself with King Ahaziah, the LORD will destroy your work.” So the ships met with disaster and never put out to sea.*

2 Chronicles 21

Jehoram Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup> When Jehoshaphat died, he was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. Then his son Jehoram became the next king.

<sup>2</sup> Jehoram's brothers—the other sons of Jehoshaphat—were Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariahu, Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Judah.* <sup>3</sup> Their father had given each of them valuable gifts of silver, gold, and costly items, and also some of Judah's fortified towns. However, he designated Jehoram as the next king because he was the oldest. <sup>4</sup> But when Jehoram had become solidly established as king, he killed all his brothers and some of the other leaders of Judah.

<sup>5</sup> Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. <sup>6</sup> But Jehoram followed the example of the kings of Israel and was as wicked as King Ahab, for he had married one of Ahab's daughters. So Jehoram did what was evil in the LORD's sight. <sup>7</sup> But the LORD did not want to destroy David's dynasty, for he had made a covenant with David and promised that his descendants would continue to rule, shining like a lamp forever.

attacked them* under cover of darkness.<sup>10</sup> Even so, Edom has been independent from Judah to this day. The town of Libnah also revolted about that same time. All this happened because Jehoram had abandoned the LORD, the God of his ancestors.<sup>11</sup> He had built pagan shrines in the hill country of Judah and had led the people of Jerusalem and Judah to give themselves to pagan gods and to go astray.

“This is what the LORD, the God of your ancestor David, says: You have not followed the good example of your father, Jehoshaphat, or your grandfather King Asa of Judah.<sup>13</sup> Instead, you have been as evil as the kings of Israel. You have led the people of Jerusalem and Judah to worship idols, just as King Ahab did in Israel. And you have even killed your own brothers, men who were better than you.<sup>14</sup> So now the LORD is about to strike you, your people, your children, your wives, and all that is yours with a heavy blow.<sup>15</sup> You yourself will suffer with a severe intestinal disease that will get worse each day until your bowels come out.”

<sup>18</sup> After all this, the LORD struck Jehoram with the severe intestinal disease. <sup>19</sup> The disease grew worse and worse, and at the end of two years it caused his bowels to come out, and he died in agony. His people did not build a great funeral fire to honor him as they had done for his ancestors.

2 Chronicles 22

Ahaziah Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Then the people of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, Jehoram's youngest son, their next king, since the marauding bands who came with the Arabs * had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah son of Jehoram reigned as king of Judah.

<sup>7</sup>But God had decided that this visit would be Ahaziah's downfall. While he was there, Ahaziah went out with Joram to meet Jehu grandson of Nimshi, * whom the LORD had appointed to destroy the dynasty of Ahab.

Ahaziah's relatives* who were traveling with Ahaziah. So Jehu killed them all.<sup>9</sup> Then Jehu's men searched for Ahaziah, and they found him hiding in the city of Samaria. They brought him to Jehu, who killed him. Ahaziah was given a decent burial because the people said, "He was the grandson of Jehoshaphat—a man who sought the LORD with all his heart." But none of the surviving members of Ahaziah's family was capable of ruling the kingdom.

Queen Athaliah Rules in Judah

<sup>10</sup> When Athaliah, the mother of King Ahaziah of Judah, learned that her son was dead, she began to destroy the rest of Judah's royal family. <sup>11</sup> But Ahaziah's sister Jehosheba,* the daughter of King Jehoram, took Ahaziah's infant son, Joash, and stole him away from among the rest of the king's children, who were about to be killed. She put Joash and his nurse in a bedroom. In this way, Jehosheba, wife of Jehoiada the priest and sister of Ahaziah, hid the child so that Athaliah could not murder him. <sup>12</sup> Joash remained hidden in the Temple of God for six years while Athaliah ruled over the land.

2 Chronicles 23

Revolt against Athaliah

<sup>1</sup> In the seventh year of Athaliah's reign, Jehoiada the priest decided to act. He summoned his courage and made a pact with five army commanders: Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zicri. <sup>2</sup>These men traveled secretly throughout Judah and summoned the Levites and clan leaders in all the towns to come to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>They all gathered at the Temple of God, where they made a solemn pact with Joash, the young king.

Jehoiada said to them, "Here is the king's son! The time has come for him to reign! The LORD has promised that a descendant of David will be our king. <sup>4</sup>This is what you must do. When you priests and Levites come on duty on the Sabbath, a third of you will serve as gatekeepers. <sup>5</sup>Another third will go over to the royal palace, and the final third will be at the Foundation Gate. Everyone else should stay in the courtyards of the LORD's Temple. <sup>6</sup>Remember, only the priests and Levites on duty may enter the Temple of the LORD, for they are set apart as holy. The rest of the people must obey the LORD's instructions and stay outside. <sup>7</sup>You Levites, form a bodyguard around the king and keep your weapons in hand. Kill anyone who tries to enter the Temple. Stay with the king wherever he goes."

<sup>8</sup>So the Levites and all the people of Judah did everything as Jehoiada the priest ordered. The commanders took charge of the men reporting for duty that Sabbath, as well as those who were going off duty. Jehoiada the priest did not let anyone go home after their shift ended. <sup>9</sup>Then Jehoiada supplied the commanders with the spears and the large and small shields that had once belonged to King David and were stored in the Temple of God. <sup>10</sup>He stationed all the people around the king, with their weapons ready. They formed a line from the south side of the Temple around to the north side and all around the altar.

<sup>11</sup>Then Jehoiada and his sons brought out Joash, the king's son, placed the crown on his head, and presented him with a copy of God's laws.* They anointed him and proclaimed him king, and everyone shouted, "Long live the king!"

The Death of Athaliah

<sup>12</sup>When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and the shouts of praise to the king, she hurried to the LORD's Temple to see what was happening. <sup>13</sup>When she arrived, she saw the newly crowned king standing in his place of authority by the pillar at the Temple entrance. The commanders and trumpeters were surrounding him, and people from all over the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. Singers with musical instruments were leading the people in a great celebration. When Athaliah saw all this, she tore her clothes in despair and shouted, "Treason! Treason!"

<sup>14</sup>Then Jehoiada the priest ordered the commanders who were in charge of the troops, “Take her to the soldiers in front of the Temple,* and kill anyone who tries to rescue her.” For the priest had said, “She must not be killed in the Temple of the LORD.” <sup>15</sup> So they seized her and led her out to the entrance of the Horse Gate on the palace grounds, and they killed her there.

Jehoiada's Religious Reforms

<sup>16</sup>Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself and the king and the people that they would be the LORD's people. <sup>17</sup>And all the people went over to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They demolished the altars and smashed the idols, and they killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars.

<sup>20</sup>Then the commanders, nobles, rulers, and all the people of the land escorted the king from the Temple of the LORD. They went through the upper gate and into the palace, and they seated the king on the royal throne. <sup>21</sup>So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was peaceful because Athaliah had been killed.

Joash Repairs the Temple

<sup>1</sup> Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem forty years. His mother was Zibiah from Beersheba. <sup>2</sup>Joash did what was pleasing in the LORD's sight throughout the lifetime of Jehoiada the priest. <sup>3</sup>Jehoiada chose two wives for Joash, and he had sons and daughters.

<sup>4</sup>At one point Joash decided to repair and restore the Temple of the LORD. <sup>5</sup>He summoned the priests and Levites and gave them these instructions: "Go to all the towns of Judah and collect the required annual offerings, so that we can repair the Temple of your God. Do not delay!" But the Levites did not act immediately.

<sup>6</sup>So the king called for Jehoiada the high priest and asked him, "Why haven't you demanded that the Levites go out and collect the Temple taxes from the towns of Judah and from Jerusalem? Moses, the servant of the LORD, levied this tax on the community of Israel in order to maintain the Tabernacle of the Covenant.*"

<sup>7</sup>Over the years the followers of wicked Athaliah had broken into the Temple of God, and they had used all the dedicated things from the Temple of the LORD to worship the images of Baal.

<sup>8</sup>So now the king ordered a chest to be made and set outside the gate leading to the Temple of the LORD. <sup>9</sup>Then a proclamation was sent throughout Judah and Jerusalem, telling the people to bring to the LORD the tax that Moses, the servant of God, had required of the Israelites in the wilderness.<sup>10</sup> This pleased all the leaders and the people, and they gladly brought their money and filled the chest with it.

<sup>11</sup>Whenever the chest became full, the Levites would carry it to the king's officials. Then the court secretary and an officer of the high priest would come and empty the chest and take it back to the Temple again. This went on day after day, and a large amount of money was collected.<sup>12</sup> The king and Jehoiada gave the money to the construction supervisors, who hired masons and carpenters to restore the Temple of the LORD. They also hired metalworkers, who made articles of iron and bronze for the LORD's Temple.

<sup>13</sup>The men in charge of the renovation worked hard and made steady progress. They restored the Temple of God according to its original design and strengthened it.<sup>14</sup> When all the repairs were finished, they brought the remaining money to the king and Jehoiada. It was used to make various articles for the Temple of the LORD—articles for worship services and for burnt offerings, including ladles and other articles made of gold and silver. And the burnt offerings were sacrificed continually in the Temple of the LORD during the lifetime of Jehoiada the priest.

<sup>15</sup>Jehoiada lived to a very old age, finally dying at 130.<sup>16</sup> He was buried among the kings in the City of David, because he had done so much good in Israel for God and his Temple.

Jehoiada's Reforms Reversed

<sup>17</sup> But after Jehoiada's death, the leaders of Judah came and bowed before King Joash and persuaded him to listen to their advice. <sup>18</sup>They decided to abandon the Temple of the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and they worshiped Asherah poles and idols instead! Because of this sin, divine anger fell on Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>Yet the LORD sent prophets to bring them back to him. The prophets warned them, but still the people would not listen.

<sup>20</sup>Then the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest. He stood before the people and said, "This is what God says: Why do you disobey the LORD's commands and keep yourselves from prospering? You have abandoned the LORD, and now he has abandoned you!"

<sup>21</sup>Then the leaders plotted to kill Zechariah, and King Joash ordered that they stone him to death in the courtyard of the LORD's Temple. <sup>22</sup>That was how King Joash repaid Jehoiada for his loyalty—by killing his son. Zechariah's last words as he died were, "May the LORD see what they are doing and avenge my death!"

The End of Joash's Reign

against Joash.

<sup>25</sup>The Arameans withdrew, leaving Joash severely wounded. But his own officials plotted to kill him for murdering the son* of Jehoiada the priest. They assassinated him as he lay in bed. Then he was buried in the City of David, but not in the royal cemetery. <sup>26</sup>The assassins were Jozacar,* the son of an Ammonite woman named Shimeath, and Jehozabad, the son of a Moabite woman named Shomer.*

<sup>27</sup>The account of the sons of Joash, the prophecies about him, and the record of his restoration of the Temple of God are written in The Commentary on the Book of the Kings. His son Amaziah became the next king.

2 Chronicles 25

Amaziah Rules in Judah

<sup>5</sup>Then Amaziah organized the army, assigning generals and captains* for all Judah and Benjamin. He took a census and found that he had an army of 300,000 select troops, twenty years old and older, all trained in the use of spear and shield. <sup>6</sup>He also paid about 7,500 pounds* of silver to hire 100,000 experienced fighting men from Israel.

<sup>7</sup>But a man of God came to him and said, "Your Majesty, do not hire troops from Israel, for the LORD is not with Israel. He will not help those people of Ephraim! <sup>8</sup>If you let them go with your troops into battle, you will be defeated by the enemy no matter how well you fight. God will overthrow you, for he has the power to help you or to trip you up."

The man of God replied, “The LORD is able to give you much more than this!” <sup>10</sup>So Amaziah discharged the hired troops and sent them back to Ephraim. This made them very angry with Judah, and they returned home in a great rage.

<sup>11</sup>Then Amaziah summoned his courage and led his army to the Valley of Salt, where they killed 10,000 Edomite troops from Seir. <sup>12</sup>They captured another 10,000 and took them to the top of a cliff and threw them off, dashing them to pieces on the rocks below.

<sup>14</sup>When King Amaziah returned from slaughtering the Edomites, he brought with him idols taken from the people of Seir. He set them up as his own gods, bowed down in front of them, and offered sacrifices to them! <sup>15</sup>This made the LORD very angry, and he sent a prophet to ask, “Why do you turn to gods who could not even save their own people from you?”

<sup>16</sup>But the king interrupted him and said, “Since when have I made you the king’s counselor? Be quiet now before I have you killed!”

So the prophet stopped with this warning: “I know that God has determined to destroy you because you have done this and have refused to accept my counsel.”

sent this challenge to Israel's king Jehoash,* the son of Jehoahaz and grandson of Jehu: "Come and meet me in battle!"*

<sup>18</sup>But King Jehoash of Israel replied to King Amaziah of Judah with this story: "Out in the Lebanon mountains, a thistle sent a message to a mighty cedar tree: 'Give your daughter in marriage to my son.' But just then a wild animal of Lebanon came by and stepped on the thistle, crushing it!

<sup>19</sup>"You are saying, 'I have defeated Edom,' and you are very proud of it. But my advice is to stay at home. Why stir up trouble that will only bring disaster on you and the people of Judah?"

Amaziah's reign, from beginning to end, are recorded in The Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

<sup>27</sup>After Amaziah turned away from the LORD, there was a conspiracy against his life in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. But his enemies sent assassins after him, and they killed him there. <sup>28</sup>They brought his body back on a horse, and he was buried with his ancestors in the City of David.*

2 Chronicles 26

Uzziah Rules in Judah

<sup>3</sup>Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-two years. His mother was Jecoliah from Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>He did what was pleasing in the LORD's sight, just as his father, Amaziah, had done. <sup>5</sup>Uzziah sought God during the days of Zechariah, who taught him to fear God.* And as long as the king sought guidance from the LORD, God gave him success.

<sup>6</sup>Uzziah declared war on the Philistines and broke down the walls of Gath, Jabneh, and Ashdod. Then he built new towns in the Ashdod area and in other parts of Philistia. <sup>7</sup>God helped him in his wars against the Philistines, his battles with the Arabs of Gur,* and his wars with the Meunites. <sup>8</sup>The Meunites* paid annual tribute to him, and his fame spread even to Egypt, for he had become very powerful.

<sup>11</sup>Uzziah had an army of well-trained warriors, ready to march into battle, unit by unit. This army had been mustered and organized by Jeiel, the secretary of the army, and his assistant, Maaseiah. They were under the direction of Hananiah, one of the king's officials. <sup>12</sup>These regiments of mighty warriors were commanded by 2,600 clan leaders. <sup>13</sup>The army consisted of 307,500 men, all elite troops. They were prepared to assist the king against any enemy.

<sup>14</sup>Uzziah provided the entire army with shields, spears, helmets, coats of mail, bows, and sling stones. <sup>15</sup>And he built structures on the walls of Jerusalem, designed by experts to protect those who shot arrows and hurled large stones* from the towers and the corners of the wall. His fame spread far and wide, for the LORD gave him marvelous help, and he became very powerful.

Uzziah's Sin and Punishment

<sup>16</sup> But when he had become powerful, he also became proud, which led to his downfall. He sinned against the LORD his God by entering the sanctuary of the LORD's Temple and personally burning incense on the incense altar. <sup>17</sup> Azariah the high priest went in after him with eighty other priests of the LORD, all brave men. <sup>18</sup> They confronted King Uzziah and said, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD. That is the work of the priests alone, the descendants of Aaron who are set apart for this work. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have sinned. The LORD God will not honor you for this!"

<sup>22</sup> The rest of the events of Uzziah's reign, from beginning to end, are recorded by the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz. <sup>23</sup> When Uzziah died, he was buried with his ancestors; his grave was in a nearby burial field belonging to the kings, for the people said, "He had leprosy." And his son Jotham became the next king.

2 Chronicles 27

Jotham Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. His mother was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.

<sup>2</sup>Jotham did what was pleasing in the LORD's sight. He did everything his father, Uzziah, had done, except that Jotham did not sin by entering the Temple of the LORD. But the people continued in their corrupt ways.

<sup>6</sup>King Jotham became powerful because he was careful to live in obedience to the LORD his God.

<sup>7</sup>The rest of the events of Jotham's reign, including all his wars and other activities, are recorded in The Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. <sup>8</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. <sup>9</sup>When Jotham died, he was buried in the City of David. And his son Ahaz became the next king.

2 Chronicles 28

Ahaz Rules in Judah

<sup>5</sup>Because of all this, the LORD his God allowed the king of Aram to defeat Ahaz and to exile large numbers of his people to Damascus. The armies of the king of Israel also defeated Ahaz and inflicted many casualties on his army. <sup>6</sup>In a single day Pekah son of Remaliah, Israel's king, killed 120,000 of Judah's troops, all of them experienced warriors, because they had abandoned the LORD, the God of their ancestors. <sup>7</sup>Then Zicri, a warrior from Ephraim, killed Maaseiah, the king's son; Azrikam, the king's palace commander; and Elkanah, the king's second-in-command. <sup>8</sup>The armies of Israel captured 200,000 women and children from Judah and seized tremendous amounts of plunder, which they took back to Samaria.

<sup>9</sup>But a prophet of the LORD named Oded was there in Samaria when the army of Israel returned home. He went out to meet them and said, “The LORD, the God of your ancestors, was angry with Judah and let you defeat them. But you have gone too far, killing them without mercy, and all heaven is disturbed.

<sup>10</sup>And now you are planning to make slaves of these people from Judah and Jerusalem. What about your own sins against the LORD your God? <sup>11</sup>Listen to me and return these prisoners you have taken, for they are your own relatives. Watch out, because now the LORD’s fierce anger has been turned against you!”

<sup>12</sup>Then some of the leaders of Israel*—Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berekiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai—agreed with this and confronted the men returning from battle. <sup>13</sup>“You must not bring the prisoners here!” they declared. “We cannot afford to add to our sins and guilt. Our guilt is already great, and the LORD’s fierce anger is already turned against Israel.”

<sup>14</sup>So the warriors released the prisoners and handed over the plunder in the sight of the leaders and all the people. <sup>15</sup>Then the four men just mentioned by name came forward and distributed clothes from the plunder to the prisoners who were naked. They provided clothing and sandals to wear, gave them enough food and drink, and dressed their wounds with olive oil. They put those who were weak on donkeys and took all the prisoners back to their own people in Jericho, the city of palms. Then they returned to Samaria.

Ahaz Closes the Temple

<sup>16</sup>At that time King Ahaz of Judah asked the king of Assyria for help. <sup>17</sup>The armies of Edom had again invaded Judah and taken captives. <sup>18</sup>And the Philistines had raided towns located in the foothills of Judah* and in the Negev of Judah. They had already captured and occupied Beth-shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages. <sup>19</sup>The LORD was humbling Judah because of King Ahaz of Judah,* for he had encouraged his people to sin and had been utterly unfaithful to the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>So when King Tiglath-pileser* of Assyria arrived, he attacked Ahaz instead of helping him. <sup>21</sup>Ahaz took valuable items from the LORD's Temple, the royal palace, and from the homes of his officials and gave them to the king of Assyria as tribute. But this did not help him.

<sup>22</sup>Even during this time of trouble, King Ahaz continued to reject the LORD. <sup>23</sup>He offered sacrifices to the gods of Damascus who had defeated him, for he said, "Since these gods helped the kings of Aram, they will help me, too, if I sacrifice to them." But instead, they led to his ruin and the ruin of all Judah.

<sup>24</sup>The king took the various articles from the Temple of God and broke them into pieces. He shut the doors of the LORD's Temple so that no one could worship there, and he set up altars to pagan gods in every corner of Jerusalem. <sup>25</sup>He made pagan shrines in all the towns of Judah for offering sacrifices to other gods. In this way, he aroused the anger of the LORD, the God of his ancestors.

did, from beginning to end, are recorded in The Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.<sup>27</sup> When Ahaz died, he was buried in Jerusalem but not in the royal cemetery of the kings of Judah. Then his son Hezekiah became the next king.

Hezekiah Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup> Hezekiah was twenty-five years old when he became the king of Judah, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. <sup>2</sup>He did what was pleasing in the LORD's sight, just as his ancestor David had done.

Hezekiah Reopens the Temple

what was evil in the sight of the LORD our God. They abandoned the LORD and his dwelling place; they turned their backs on him. <sup>7</sup>They also shut the doors to the Temple's entry room, and they snuffed out the lamps. They stopped burning incense and presenting burnt offerings at the sanctuary of the God of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>“That is why the LORD's anger has fallen upon Judah and Jerusalem. He has made them an object of dread, horror, and ridicule, as you can see with your own eyes. <sup>9</sup>Because of this, our fathers have been killed in battle, and our sons and daughters and wives have been captured. <sup>10</sup>But now I will make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, so that his fierce anger will turn away from us. <sup>11</sup>My sons, do not neglect your duties any longer! The LORD has chosen you to stand in his presence, to minister to him, and to lead the people in worship and present offerings to him.”

From the clan of Kohath: Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah.

From the clan of Merari: Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel.

From the clan of Gershon: Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah.

From the family of Asaph: Zechariah and Mattaniah.

<sup>15</sup>These men called together their fellow Levites, and they all purified themselves. Then they began to cleanse the Temple of the LORD, just as the king had commanded. They were careful to follow all the LORD's instructions in their work. <sup>16</sup>The priests went into the sanctuary of the Temple of the LORD to cleanse it, and they took out to the Temple courtyard all the defiled things they found. From there the Levites carted it all out to the Kidron Valley.

<sup>17</sup>They began the work in early spring, on the first day of the new year,* and in eight days they had reached the entry room of the LORD's Temple. Then they purified the Temple of the LORD itself, which took another eight days. So the entire task was completed in sixteen days.

The Temple Rededication

<sup>18</sup>Then the Levites went to King Hezekiah and gave him this report: "We have cleansed the entire Temple of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the table of the Bread of the Presence with all its utensils. <sup>19</sup>We have also recovered all the items discarded by King Ahaz when he was unfaithful and closed the Temple. They are now in front of the altar of the LORD, purified and ready for use."

<sup>20</sup>Early the next morning King Hezekiah gathered the city officials and went to the Temple of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>They brought seven bulls, seven rams, and seven male lambs as a burnt offering, together with seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, for the Temple, and for Judah. The king commanded the priests, who were descendants of Aaron, to sacrifice the animals on the altar of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>So they killed the bulls, and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. Next they killed the rams and sprinkled their blood on the altar. And finally, they did the same with the male lambs. <sup>23</sup>The male goats for the sin offering were then brought before the king and the assembly of people, who laid their hands on them. <sup>24</sup>The priests then killed the goats as a sin offering and sprinkled their blood on the altar to make atonement for the sins of all Israel. The king had specifically commanded that this burnt offering and sin offering should be made for all Israel.

<sup>25</sup>King Hezekiah then stationed the Levites at the Temple of the LORD with cymbals, lyres, and harps. He obeyed all the commands that the LORD had given to King David through Gad, the king's seer, and the prophet Nathan. <sup>26</sup>The Levites then took their positions around the Temple with the instruments of David, and the priests took their positions with the trumpets.

<sup>27</sup>Then Hezekiah ordered that the burnt offering be placed on the altar. As the burnt offering was presented, songs of praise to the LORD were begun, accompanied by the trumpets and other instruments of David, the former king of Israel. <sup>28</sup>The entire assembly worshiped the LORD as the singers sang and the trumpets blew, until all the burnt offerings were finished. <sup>29</sup>Then the king and everyone with him bowed down in worship. <sup>30</sup>King Hezekiah and the officials ordered the Levites to praise the LORD with the psalms written by David and by Asaph the seer. So they offered joyous praise and bowed

<sup>31</sup>Then Hezekiah declared, “Now that you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD, bring your sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings to the Temple of the LORD.” So the people brought their sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings, and all whose hearts were willing brought burnt offerings, too. <sup>32</sup>The people brought to the LORD 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 male lambs for burnt offerings. <sup>33</sup>They also brought 600 cattle and 3,000 sheep and goats as sacred offerings.

<sup>34</sup>But there were too few priests to prepare all the burnt offerings. So their relatives the Levites helped them until the work was finished and more priests had been purified, for the Levites had been more conscientious about purifying themselves than the priests had been. <sup>35</sup>There was an abundance of burnt offerings, along with the usual liquid offerings, and a great deal of fat from the many peace offerings.

So the Temple of the LORD was restored to service. <sup>36</sup>And Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because of what God had done for the people, for everything had been accomplished so quickly.

2 Chronicles 30

Preparations for Passover

<sup>1</sup>King Hezekiah now sent word to all Israel and Judah, and he wrote letters of invitation to the people of Ephraim and Manasseh. He asked everyone to come to the Temple of the LORD at Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>2</sup>The king, his officials, and all the community of Jerusalem decided to celebrate Passover a month later than usual.* <sup>3</sup>They were unable to celebrate it at the prescribed time because not enough priests could be purified by then, and the people had not yet assembled at Jerusalem.

“O people of Israel, return to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel,* so that he will return to the few of us who have survived the conquest of the Assyrian kings. <sup>7</sup>Do not be like your ancestors and relatives who abandoned the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and became an object of derision, as you yourselves can see.<sup>8</sup> Do not be stubborn, as they were, but submit yourselves to the LORD. Come to his Temple, which he has set apart as holy forever. Worship the LORD your God so that his fierce anger will turn away from you.

<sup>9</sup>“For if you return to the LORD, your relatives and your children will be treated mercifully by their captors, and they will be able to return to this land. For the LORD your God is gracious and merciful. If you return to him, he will not continue to turn his face from you.”

Celebration of Passover

<sup>10</sup>The runners went from town to town throughout Ephraim and Manasseh and as far as the territory of Zebulun. But most of the people just laughed at the runners and made fun of them.

<sup>12</sup>At the same time, God’s hand was on the people in the land of Judah, giving them all one heart to obey the orders of the king and his officials, who were following the word of the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>On the fourteenth day of the second month, one month later than usual,* the people slaughtered the Passover lamb. This shamed the priests and Levites, so they purified themselves and brought burnt offerings to the Temple of the LORD. <sup>16</sup>Then they took their places at the Temple as prescribed in the Law of Moses, the man of God. The Levites brought the sacrificial blood to the priests, who then sprinkled it on the altar.

<sup>23</sup> The entire assembly then decided to continue the festival another seven days, so they celebrated joyfully for another week. <sup>24</sup> King Hezekiah gave the people 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep and goats for offerings, and the officials donated 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep and goats. Meanwhile, many more priests purified themselves.

<sup>25</sup>The entire assembly of Judah rejoiced, including the priests, the Levites, all who came from the land of Israel, the foreigners who came to the festival, and all those who lived in Judah.

<sup>26</sup>There was great joy in the city, for Jerusalem had not seen a celebration like this one since the days of Solomon, King David's son. <sup>27</sup>Then the priests and Levites stood and blessed the people, and God heard their prayer from his holy dwelling in heaven.

2 Chronicles 31

Hezekiah's Religious Reforms

<sup>1</sup>When the festival ended, the Israelites who attended went to all the towns of Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh, and they smashed all the sacred pillars, cut down the Asherah poles, and removed the pagan shrines and altars. After this, the Israelites returned to their own towns and homes.

<sup>2</sup> Hezekiah then organized the priests and Levites into divisions to offer the burnt offerings and peace offerings, and to worship and give thanks and praise to the LORD at the gates of the Temple. <sup>3</sup>The king also made a personal contribution of animals for the daily morning and evening burnt offerings, the weekly Sabbath festivals, the monthly new moon festivals, and the annual festivals as prescribed in the Law of the LORD. <sup>4</sup> In addition, he required the people in Jerusalem to bring a portion of their goods to the priests and Levites, so they could devote themselves fully to the Law of the LORD.

heaps continued to grow until early autumn.*<sup>8</sup>When Hezekiah and his officials came and saw these huge piles, they thanked the LORD and his people Israel!

divisions.<sup>17</sup>They distributed gifts to the priests who were listed by their families in the genealogical records, and to the Levites twenty years old or older who were listed according to their jobs and their divisions.<sup>18</sup>Food allotments were also given to the families of all those listed in the genealogical records, including their little babies, wives, sons, and daughters. For they had all been faithful in purifying themselves.

<sup>19</sup>As for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, who were living in the open villages around the towns, men were appointed by name to distribute portions to every male among the priests and to all the Levites listed in the genealogical records.

<sup>20</sup>In this way, King Hezekiah handled the distribution throughout all Judah, doing what was pleasing and good in the sight of the LORD his God.<sup>21</sup>In all that he did in the service of the Temple of God and in his efforts to follow God's laws and commands, Hezekiah sought his God wholeheartedly. As a result, he was very successful.

2 Chronicles 32

Assyria Invades Judah

<sup>5</sup>Then Hezekiah worked hard at repairing all the broken sections of the wall, erecting towers, and constructing a second wall outside the first. He also reinforced the supporting terraces* in the City of David and manufactured large numbers of weapons and shields. <sup>6</sup>He appointed military officers over the people and assembled them before him in the square at the city gate. Then Hezekiah encouraged them by saying: <sup>7</sup> “Be strong and courageous! Don’t be afraid or discouraged because of the king of Assyria or his mighty army, for there is a power far greater on our side! <sup>8</sup>He may have a great army, but they are merely men. We have the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles for us!” Hezekiah’s words greatly encouraged the people.

Sennacherib Threatens Jerusalem

<sup>9</sup>While King Sennacherib of Assyria was still besieging the town of Lachish, he sent his officers to Jerusalem with this message for Hezekiah and all the people in the city:

<sup>10</sup>“This is what King Sennacherib of Assyria says: What are you trusting in that makes you think you can survive my siege of Jerusalem? <sup>11</sup>Hezekiah has said, ‘The LORD our God will rescue us from the king of Assyria.’ Surely Hezekiah is misleading you, sentencing you to death by famine and thirst! <sup>12</sup>Don’t you realize that Hezekiah is the very person who destroyed all the LORD’s shrines and altars? He commanded Judah and Jerusalem to worship only at the altar at the Temple and to offer sacrifices on it alone.

<sup>13</sup>“Surely you must realize what I and the other kings of Assyria before me have done to all the people of the earth! Were any of the gods of those nations able to rescue their people from my power? <sup>14</sup>Which of their gods was able to rescue its people from the destructive power of my predecessors? What makes you think your God can rescue you from me? <sup>15</sup>Don’t let Hezekiah deceive you! Don’t let him fool you like this! I say it again—no god of any nation or kingdom has ever yet been able to rescue his people from me or my ancestors. How much less will your God rescue you from my power!”

<sup>16</sup>And Sennacherib's officers further mocked the LORD God and his servant Hezekiah, heaping insult upon insult. <sup>17</sup>The king also sent letters scorning the LORD, the God of Israel. He wrote, "Just as the gods of all the other nations failed to rescue their people from my power, so the God of Hezekiah will also fail." <sup>18</sup>The Assyrian officials who brought the letters shouted this in Hebrew* to the people gathered on the walls of the city, trying to terrify them so it would be easier to capture the city. <sup>19</sup>These officers talked about the God of Jerusalem as though he were one of the pagan gods, made by human hands.

<sup>20</sup>Then King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz cried out in prayer to God in heaven. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD sent an angel who destroyed the Assyrian army with all its commanders and officers. So Sennacherib was forced to return home in disgrace to his own land. And when he entered the temple of his god, some of his own sons killed him there with a sword.

<sup>22</sup>That is how the LORD rescued Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem from King Sennacherib of Assyria and from all the others who threatened them. So there was peace throughout the land. <sup>23</sup>From then on King Hezekiah became highly respected among all the surrounding nations, and many gifts for the LORD arrived at Jerusalem, with valuable presents for King Hezekiah, too.

Hezekiah's Sickness and Recovery

Hezekiah did not respond appropriately to the kindness shown him, and he became proud. So the LORD's anger came against him and against Judah and Jerusalem.<sup>26</sup> Then Hezekiah humbled himself and repented of his pride, as did the people of Jerusalem. So the LORD's anger did not fall on them during Hezekiah's lifetime.

<sup>27</sup>Hezekiah was very wealthy and highly honored. He built special treasury buildings for his silver, gold, precious stones, and spices, and for his shields and other valuable items.<sup>28</sup> He also constructed many storehouses for his grain, new wine, and olive oil; and he made many stalls for his cattle and pens for his flocks of sheep and goats.<sup>29</sup> He built many towns and acquired vast flocks and herds, for God had given him great wealth.<sup>30</sup> He blocked up the upper spring of Gihon and brought the water down through a tunnel to the west side of the City of David. And so he succeeded in everything he did.

<sup>31</sup>However, when ambassadors arrived from Babylon to ask about the remarkable events that had taken place in the land, God withdrew from Hezekiah in order to test him and to see what was really in his heart.

Summary of Hezekiah's Reign

<sup>32</sup>The rest of the events in Hezekiah's reign and his acts of devotion are recorded in The Vision of the Prophet Isaiah Son of Amoz, which is included in The Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.<sup>33</sup> When Hezekiah died, he was buried in the upper area of the royal cemetery, and all Judah and Jerusalem honored him at his death. And his son Manasseh became the next king.

Manasseh

2 Chronicles 33

Manasseh Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-five years. <sup>2</sup>He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, following the detestable practices of the pagan nations that the LORD had driven from the land ahead of the Israelites. <sup>3</sup>He rebuilt the pagan shrines his father, Hezekiah, had broken down. He constructed altars for the images of Baal and set up Asherah poles. He also bowed before all the powers of the heavens and worshiped them.

<sup>4</sup>He built pagan altars in the Temple of the LORD, the place where the LORD had said, "My name will remain in Jerusalem forever." <sup>5</sup>He built these altars for all the powers of the heavens in both courtyards of the LORD's Temple. <sup>6</sup>Manasseh also sacrificed his own sons in the fire* in the valley of Ben-Hinnom. He practiced sorcery, divination, and witchcraft, and he consulted with mediums and psychics. He did much that was evil in the LORD's sight, arousing his anger.

<sup>7</sup>Manasseh even took a carved idol he had made and set it up in God's Temple, the very place where God had told David and his son Solomon: "My name will be honored forever in this Temple and in Jerusalem—the city I have chosen from among all the tribes of Israel. <sup>8</sup>If the Israelites will be careful to obey my commands—all the laws, decrees, and regulations given through Moses—I will not send them into exile from this land that I set aside for your ancestors." <sup>9</sup> But Manasseh led the people of Judah and Jerusalem to do even more evil than the pagan nations that the LORD had destroyed when the people of Israel entered the land.

foreign gods and the idol from the LORD's Temple. He tore down all the altars he had built on the hill where the Temple stood and all the altars that were in Jerusalem, and he dumped them outside the city. <sup>16</sup>Then he restored the altar of the LORD and sacrificed peace offerings and thanksgiving offerings on it. He also encouraged the people of Judah to worship the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>17</sup>However, the people still sacrificed at the pagan shrines, though only to the LORD their God.

<sup>18</sup>The rest of the events of Manasseh's reign, his prayer to God, and the words the seers spoke to him in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, are recorded in The Book of the Kings of Israel. <sup>19</sup>Manasseh's prayer, the account of the way God answered him, and an account of all his sins and unfaithfulness are recorded in The Record of the Seers.* It includes a list of the locations where he built pagan shrines and set up Asherah poles and idols before he humbled himself and repented. <sup>20</sup>When Manasseh died, he was buried in his palace. Then his son Amon became the next king.

Amon Rules in Judah

<sup>21</sup>Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem two years. <sup>22</sup>He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, just as his father, Manasseh, had done. He worshiped and sacrificed to all the idols his father had made. <sup>23</sup>But unlike his father, he did not humble himself before the LORD. Instead, Amon sinned even more.

<sup>24</sup>Then Amon's own officials conspired against him and assassinated him in his palace. <sup>25</sup>But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against King Amon, and they made his son Josiah the next king.

Josiah

2 Chronicles 34

Josiah Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-one years. <sup>2</sup>He did what was pleasing in the LORD's sight and followed the example of his ancestor David. He did not turn away from doing what was right.

<sup>3</sup>During the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, Josiah began to seek the God of his ancestor David. Then in the twelfth year he began to purify Judah and Jerusalem, destroying all the pagan shrines, the Asherah poles, and the carved idols and cast images. <sup>4</sup>He ordered that the altars of Baal be demolished and that the incense altars which stood above them be broken down. He also made sure that the Asherah poles, the carved idols, and the cast images were smashed and scattered over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.<sup>5</sup>He burned the bones of the pagan priests on their own altars, and so he purified Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>He did the same thing in the towns of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, even as far as Naphtali, and in the regions* all around them.<sup>7</sup>He destroyed the pagan altars and the Asherah poles, and he crushed the idols into dust. He cut down all the incense altars throughout the land of Israel. Finally, he returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup>In the eighteenth year of his reign, after he had purified the land and the Temple, Josiah appointed Shaphan son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of Jerusalem, and Joah son of Joahaz, the royal historian, to repair the Temple of the LORD his God.<sup>9</sup>They gave Hilkiah the high priest the money that had been collected by the Levites who served as gatekeepers at the Temple of God. The gifts were brought by people from Manasseh, Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, as well as from all Judah, Benjamin, and the people of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>He entrusted the money to the men assigned to supervise the restoration of the LORD's Temple. Then they paid the workers who did the repairs and renovation of the Temple.<sup>11</sup>They hired carpenters and builders, who purchased finished stone for the walls and timber for the rafters and beams. They restored what earlier kings of Judah had allowed to fall into ruin.

<sup>12</sup>The workers served faithfully under the leadership of Jahath and Obadiah, Levites of the Merarite clan, and Zechariah and Meshullam, Levites of the Kohathite clan. Other Levites, all of whom were skilled musicians,<sup>13</sup>were put in charge of the laborers of the various trades. Still others assisted as secretaries, officials, and gatekeepers.

Hilkiah Discovers God's Law

<sup>14</sup> While they were bringing out the money collected at the LORD's Temple, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD that was written by Moses. <sup>15</sup> Hilkiah said to Shaphan the court secretary, "I have found the Book of the Law in the LORD's Temple!" Then Hilkiah gave the scroll to Shaphan.

<sup>22</sup> So Hilkiah and the other men went to the New Quarter * of Jerusalem to consult with the prophet Huldah. She was the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, * the keeper of the Temple wardrobe.

<sup>23</sup>She said to them, “The LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken! Go back and tell the man who sent you, <sup>24</sup>“This is what the LORD says: I am going to bring disaster on this city* and its people. All the curses written in the scroll that was read to the king of Judah will come true. <sup>25</sup>For my people have abandoned me and offered sacrifices to pagan gods, and I am very angry with them for everything they have done. My anger will be poured out on this place, and it will not be quenched.’

<sup>26</sup>“But go to the king of Judah who sent you to seek the LORD and tell him: ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the message you have just heard: <sup>27</sup>You were sorry and humbled yourself before God when you heard his words against this city and its people. You humbled yourself and tore your clothing in despair and wept before me in repentance. And I have indeed heard you, says the LORD. <sup>28</sup>So I will not send the promised disaster until after you have died and been buried in peace. You yourself will not see the disaster I am going to bring on this city and its people.’”

So they took her message back to the king.

Josiah's Religious Reforms

<sup>29</sup>Then the king summoned all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>30</sup>And the king went up to the Temple of the LORD with all the people of Judah and Jerusalem, along with the priests and the Levites—all the people from the greatest to the least. There the king read to them the entire Book of the Covenant that had been found in the LORD's Temple. <sup>31</sup> The king took his place of authority beside the pillar and renewed the covenant in the LORD's presence. He pledged to obey the LORD by keeping all his commands, laws, and decrees with all his heart and soul. He promised to obey all the terms of the covenant that were written in the scroll.<sup>32</sup> And he required everyone in Jerusalem and the people of Benjamin to make a similar pledge. The people of Jerusalem did so, renewing their covenant with God, the God of their ancestors.

<sup>33</sup> So Josiah removed all detestable idols from the entire land of Israel and required everyone to worship the LORD their God. And throughout the rest of his lifetime, they did not turn away from the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 35

Josiah Celebrates Passover

Temple, gave the priests 2,600 lambs and young goats and 300 cattle as Passover offerings.<sup>9</sup> The Levite leaders—Conaniah and his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, as well as Hashabiah, Jeiel, and Jozabad—gave 5,000 lambs and young goats and 500 cattle to the Levites for their Passover offerings.

<sup>15</sup>The musicians, descendants of Asaph, were in their assigned places, following the commands that had been given by David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, the king's seer. The gatekeepers guarded the gates and did not need to leave their posts of duty, for their Passover offerings were prepared for them by their fellow Levites.

<sup>16</sup>The entire ceremony for the LORD's Passover was completed that day. All the burnt offerings were sacrificed on the altar of the LORD, as King Josiah had commanded. <sup>17</sup>All the Israelites present in Jerusalem celebrated Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days. <sup>18</sup>Never since the time of the prophet Samuel had there been such a Passover. None of the kings of Israel had ever kept a Passover as Josiah did, involving all the priests and Levites, all the people of Jerusalem, and people from all over Judah and Israel. <sup>19</sup>This Passover celebration took place in the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign.

Josiah Dies in Battle

<sup>20</sup>After Josiah had finished restoring the Temple, King Neco of Egypt led his army up from Egypt to do battle at Carchemish on the Euphrates River, and Josiah and his army marched out to fight him.* <sup>21</sup>But King Neco sent messengers to Josiah with this message:

“What do you want with me, king of Judah? I have no quarrel with you today! I am on my way to fight another nation, and God has told me to hurry! Do not interfere with God, who is with me, or he will destroy you.”

<sup>22</sup>But Josiah refused to listen to Neco, to whom God had indeed spoken, and he would not turn back. Instead, he disguised himself and led his army into battle on the plain of Megiddo. <sup>23</sup>But the enemy archers hit King Josiah with their arrows and wounded him. He cried out to his men, “Take me from the battle, for I am badly wounded!”

<sup>24</sup>So they lifted Josiah out of his chariot and placed him in another chariot. Then they brought him back to Jerusalem, where he died. He was buried there in the royal cemetery. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for him.<sup>25</sup>The prophet Jeremiah composed funeral songs for Josiah, and to this day choirs still sing these sad songs about his death. These songs of sorrow have become a tradition and are recorded in The Book of Laments.

<sup>26</sup>The rest of the events of Josiah’s reign and his acts of devotion (carried out according to what was written in the Law of the LORD),<sup>27</sup>from beginning to end—all are recorded in The Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2 Chronicles 36

Jehoahaz Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Then the people of the land took Josiah's son Jehoahaz and made him the next king in Jerusalem.

Jehoiakim Rules in Judah

<sup>4</sup> The king of Egypt then installed Eliakim, the brother of Jehoahaz, as the next king of Judah and Jerusalem, and he changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. Then Neco took Jehoahaz to Egypt as a prisoner.

<sup>5</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

<sup>6</sup>Then King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and captured it, and he bound Jehoiakim in bronze chains and led him away to Babylon. <sup>7</sup>Nebuchadnezzar also took some of the treasures from the Temple of the LORD, and he placed them in his palace* in Babylon.

<sup>8</sup>The rest of the events in Jehoiakim's reign, including all the evil things he did and everything found against him, are recorded in The Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. Then his son Jehoiachin became the next king.

Jehoiachin Rules in Judah

<sup>9</sup>Jehoiachin was eighteen* years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months and ten days. Jehoiachin did what was evil in the LORD's sight.

<sup>10</sup>In the spring of the year* King Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiachin to Babylon. Many treasures from the Temple of the LORD were also taken to Babylon at that time. And Nebuchadnezzar installed Jehoiachin's uncle,* Zedekiah, as the next king in Judah and Jerusalem.

Zedekiah Rules in Judah

<sup>11</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. <sup>12</sup>He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and he refused to humble himself when the prophet Jeremiah spoke to him directly from the LORD. <sup>13</sup>He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, even though he had taken an oath of loyalty in God's name. Zedekiah was a hard and stubborn man, refusing to turn to the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>14</sup> Likewise, all the leaders of the priests and the people became more and more unfaithful. They followed all the pagan practices of the surrounding nations, desecrating the Temple of the LORD that had been consecrated in Jerusalem.

and his Temple. <sup>16</sup>But the people mocked these messengers of God and despised their words. They scoffed at the prophets until the LORD's anger could no longer be restrained and nothing could be done.

The Fall of Jerusalem

<sup>17</sup>So the LORD brought the king of Babylon against them. The Babylonians* killed Judah's young men, even chasing after them into the Temple. They had no pity on the people, killing both young men and young women, the old and the infirm. God handed all of them over to Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>18</sup>The king took home to Babylon all the articles, large and small, used in the Temple of God, and the treasures from both the LORD's Temple and from the palace of the king and his officials. <sup>19</sup>Then his army burned the Temple of God, tore down the walls of Jerusalem, burned all the palaces, and completely destroyed everything of value.* <sup>20</sup>The few who survived were taken as exiles to Babylon, and they became servants to the king and his sons until the kingdom of Persia came to power.

<sup>21</sup>So the message of the LORD spoken through Jeremiah was fulfilled. The land finally enjoyed its Sabbath rest, lying desolate until the seventy years were fulfilled, just as the prophet had said.

Cyrus Allows the Exiles to Return

<sup>22</sup> In the first year of King Cyrus of Persia,* the LORD fulfilled the prophecy he had given through Jeremiah.* He stirred the heart of Cyrus to put this proclamation in writing and to send it

“The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has appointed me to build him a Temple at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Any of you who are the LORD’s people may go there for this task. And may the LORD your God be with you!”

“The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has appointed me to build him a Temple at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. <sup>3</sup> Any of you who are his people may go to Jerusalem in Judah to rebuild this Temple of the LORD, the God of Israel, who lives in Jerusalem. And may your God be with you! <sup>4</sup> Wherever this Jewish remnant is found, let their neighbors contribute toward their expenses by giving them silver and gold, supplies for the journey, and livestock, as well as a voluntary offering for the Temple of God in Jerusalem.”

<sup>5</sup>Then God stirred the hearts of the priests and Levites and the leaders of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin to go to Jerusalem to rebuild the Temple of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And all their neighbors assisted by giving them articles of silver and gold, supplies for the journey, and livestock. They gave them many valuable gifts in addition to all the voluntary offerings.

silver basins	1,000
silver incense burners *	29
<sup>10</sup> gold bowls	30
silver bowls	410
other items	1,000

<sup>11</sup>In all, there were 5,400 articles of gold and silver. Sheshbazzar brought all of these along when the exiles went from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Exiles Who Returned with Zerubbabel

<sup>1</sup>Here is the list of the Jewish exiles of the provinces who returned from their captivity. <sup>28</sup> The people of Bethel and Ai	223
<sup>33</sup> The citizens of Lod, Hadid, and Ono	725

The family of Jedaiah (through the line of Jeshua)	973

The families of Jeshua and Kadmiel (descendants of Hodaviah)	74

Sotai, Hassophereth, Peruda,

<sup>59</sup>Another group returned at this time from the towns of Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Kerub, Addan, and Immer. However, they could not prove that they or their families were descendants of Israel. <sup>60</sup>This group included the families of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda—a total of 652 people.

<sup>61</sup>Three families of priests—Hobaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai—also returned. (This Barzillai had married a woman who was a descendant of Barzillai of Gilead, and he had taken her family name.) <sup>62</sup>They searched for their names in the genealogical records, but they were not found, so they were disqualified from serving as priests. <sup>63</sup>The governor told them not to eat the priests' share of food from the sacrifices until a priest could consult the LORD about the matter by using the Urim and Thummim—the sacred lots.

<sup>68</sup>When they arrived at the Temple of the LORD in Jerusalem, some of the family leaders made voluntary offerings toward the rebuilding of God's Temple on its original site, <sup>69</sup>and each leader gave as much as he could. The total of their gifts came to 61,000 gold coins, * 6,250 pounds * of silver, and 100 robes for the priests.

<sup>70</sup>So the priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, the Temple servants, and some of the common people settled in villages near Jerusalem. The rest of the people returned to their own towns throughout Israel.

Ezra 3

The Altar Is Rebuilt

<sup>4</sup>They celebrated the Festival of Shelters as prescribed in the Law, sacrificing the number of burnt offerings specified for each day of the festival. <sup>5</sup>They also offered the regular burnt offerings and the offerings required for the new moon celebrations and the annual festivals as prescribed by the LORD. The people also gave voluntary offerings to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>Fifteen days before the Festival of Shelters began,* the priests had begun to sacrifice burnt offerings to the LORD. This was even before they had started to lay the foundation of the LORD's Temple.

The People Begin to Rebuild the Temple

<sup>7</sup>Then the people hired masons and carpenters and bought cedar logs from the people of Tyre and Sidon, paying them with food, wine, and olive oil. The logs were brought down from the Lebanon mountains and floated along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea* to Joppa, for King Cyrus had given permission for this.

<sup>8</sup>The construction of the Temple of God began in midspring,* during the second year after they arrived in Jerusalem. The work force was made up of everyone who had returned from exile, including Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Jeshua son of Jehozadak and his fellow priests, and all the Levites. The Levites who were twenty years old or older were put in charge of rebuilding the LORD's Temple. <sup>9</sup>The workers at the Temple of God were supervised by Jeshua with his sons and relatives, and Kadmiel and his sons, all descendants of Hodaviah.* They were helped in this task by the Levites of the family of Henadad.

<sup>10</sup> When the builders completed the foundation of the LORD's Temple, the priests put on their robes and took their places to blow their trumpets. And the Levites, descendants of Asaph, clashed their cymbals to praise the LORD, just as King David had prescribed. <sup>11</sup>With praise and thanks, they sang this song to the LORD:

“He is so good!

His faithful love for Israel endures forever!”

Then all the people gave a great shout, praising the LORD because the foundation of the LORD's Temple had been laid.

<sup>12</sup> But many of the older priests, Levites, and other leaders who had seen the first Temple wept aloud when they saw the new Temple's foundation. The others, however, were shouting for joy. <sup>13</sup>The joyful shouting and weeping mingled together in a loud noise that could be heard far in the distance.

Ezra 4

Enemies Oppose the Rebuilding

<sup>1</sup>The enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the exiles were rebuilding a Temple to the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>2</sup>So they approached Zerubbabel and the other leaders and said, “Let us build with you, for we worship your God just as you do. We have sacrificed to him ever since King Esarhaddon of Assyria brought us here.”

<sup>3</sup>But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the other leaders of Israel replied, “You may have no part in this work. We alone will build the Temple for the LORD, the God of Israel, just as King Cyrus of Persia commanded us.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the local residents tried to discourage and frighten the people of Judah to keep them from their work. <sup>5</sup>They bribed agents to work against them and to frustrate their plans. This went on during the entire reign of King Cyrus of Persia and lasted until King Darius of Persia took the throne.*

Later Opposition under Xerxes and Artaxerxes

<sup>6</sup>Years later when Xerxes* began his reign, the enemies of Judah wrote a letter of accusation against the people of Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup>Even later, during the reign of King Artaxerxes of Persia,* the enemies of Judah, led by Bishlam, Mithredath, and Tabeel, sent a letter to Artaxerxes in the Aramaic language, and it was translated for the king.

<sup>8</sup>*Rehum the governor and Shimshai the court secretary wrote the letter, telling King Artaxerxes about the situation in Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>They greeted the king for all their colleagues—the judges and local leaders, the people of Tarpel, the Persians, the Babylonians, and the people of Erech and Susa (that is, Elam). <sup>10</sup>They also sent greetings from the rest of the people whom the great and noble Ashurbanipal* had deported and relocated in Samaria and throughout the neighboring lands of the province west of the Euphrates River.* <sup>11</sup>This is a copy of their letter:

<sup>12</sup>“The king should know that the Jews who came here to Jerusalem from Babylon are rebuilding this rebellious and evil city. They have already laid the foundation and will soon finish its walls. <sup>13</sup>And the king should know that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, it will be much to your disadvantage, for the Jews will then refuse to pay their tribute, customs, and tolls to you.

<sup>14</sup>“Since we are your loyal subjects* and do not want to see the king dishonored in this way, we have sent the king this information. <sup>15</sup>We suggest that a search be made in your ancestors’ records, where you will discover what a rebellious city this has been in the past. In fact, it was destroyed because of its long and troublesome history of revolt against the kings and countries who controlled it.

“To Rehum the governor, Shimshai the court secretary, and their colleagues living in Samaria and throughout the province west of the Euphrates River. Greetings.

<sup>18</sup>“The letter you sent has been translated and read to me. <sup>19</sup>I ordered a search of the records and have found that Jerusalem has indeed been a hotbed of insurrection against many kings. In fact, rebellion and revolt are normal there! <sup>20</sup>Powerful kings have ruled over Jerusalem and the entire province west of the Euphrates River, receiving tribute, customs, and tolls. <sup>21</sup>Therefore, issue orders to have these men stop their work. That city must not be rebuilt except at my express command. <sup>22</sup>Be diligent, and don’t neglect this matter, for we must not permit the situation to harm the king’s interests.”

<sup>23</sup>When this letter from King Artaxerxes was read to Rehum, Shimshai, and their colleagues, they hurried to Jerusalem. Then, with a show of strength, they forced the Jews to stop building.

The Rebuilding Resumes

<sup>24</sup>So the work on the Temple of God in Jerusalem had stopped, and it remained at a standstill until the second year of the reign of King Darius of Persia.*

Ezra 5

<sup>1</sup>At that time the prophets Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo prophesied to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem. They prophesied in the name of the God of Israel who was over them. <sup>2</sup>Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jehozadak* responded by starting again to rebuild the Temple of God in Jerusalem. And the prophets of God were with them and helped them.

<sup>4</sup>They also asked for the names of all the men working on the Temple. <sup>5</sup>But because their God was watching over them, the leaders of the Jews were not prevented from building until a report was sent to Darius and he returned his decision.

Tattenai's Letter to King Darius

<sup>6</sup>This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai the governor, Shethar-bozenai, and the other officials of the province west of the Euphrates River sent to King Darius:

<sup>8</sup>“The king should know that we went to the construction site of the Temple of the great God in the province of Judah. It is being rebuilt with specially prepared stones, and timber is being laid in its walls. The work is going forward with great energy and success.

<sup>9</sup>“We asked the leaders, ‘Who gave you permission to rebuild this Temple and restore this structure?’ <sup>10</sup>And we demanded their names so that we could tell you who the leaders were.

<sup>11</sup>“This was their answer: ‘We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the Temple that was built here many years ago by a great king of Israel. <sup>12</sup>But because our ancestors angered the God of heaven, he abandoned them to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon,* who destroyed this Temple and exiled the people to Babylonia. <sup>13</sup>However, King Cyrus of Babylon,* during the first year of his reign, issued a decree that the Temple of God should be rebuilt. <sup>14</sup>King Cyrus returned the gold and silver cups that Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the Temple of God in Jerusalem and had placed in the temple of Babylon. These cups were taken from that temple and presented to a man named Sheshbazzar, whom King Cyrus appointed as governor of Judah. <sup>15</sup>The king instructed him to return the cups to their place in Jerusalem and to rebuild the Temple of God there on its original site. <sup>16</sup>So this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the Temple of God in Jerusalem. The people have been working on it ever since, though it is not yet completed.’

<sup>17</sup>“Therefore, if it pleases the king, we request that a search be made in the royal archives of Babylon to discover whether King Cyrus ever issued a decree to rebuild God's Temple in Jerusalem. And then let the king send us his decision in this matter."

What the Bible Says about
Perseverance

Ezra 6

Darius Approves the Rebuilding

<sup>1</sup>So King Darius issued orders that a search be made in the Babylonian archives, which were stored in the treasury. <sup>2</sup>But it was at the fortress at Ecbatana in the province of Media that a scroll was found. This is what it said:

“Memorandum:

“Let the Temple be rebuilt on the site where Jews used to offer their sacrifices, using the original foundations. Its height will be ninety feet, and its width will be ninety feet.* <sup>4</sup>Every three layers of specially prepared stones will be topped by a layer of timber. All expenses will be paid by the royal treasury. <sup>5</sup>Furthermore, the gold and silver cups, which were taken to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar from the Temple of God in Jerusalem, must be returned to Jerusalem and put back where they belong. Let them be taken back to the Temple of God.”

“Now therefore, Tattenai, governor of the province west of the Euphrates River,* and Shethar-bozenai, and your colleagues and other officials west of the Euphrates River

—stay away from there! <sup>7</sup>Do not disturb the construction of the Temple of God. Let it be rebuilt on its original site, and do not hinder the governor of Judah and the elders of the Jews in their work.

<sup>8</sup>“Moreover, I hereby decree that you are to help these elders of the Jews as they rebuild this Temple of God. You must pay the full construction costs, without delay, from my taxes collected in the province west of the Euphrates River so that the work will not be interrupted.

<sup>9</sup>“Give the priests in Jerusalem whatever is needed in the way of young bulls, rams, and male lambs for the burnt offerings presented to the God of heaven. And without fail, provide them with as much wheat, salt, wine, and olive oil as they need each day. <sup>10</sup>Then they will be able to offer acceptable sacrifices to the God of heaven and pray for the welfare of the king and his sons.

<sup>11</sup>“Those who violate this decree in any way will have a beam pulled from their house. Then they will be tied to it and flogged, and their house will be reduced to a pile of rubble.* <sup>12</sup>May the God who has chosen the city of Jerusalem as the place to honor his name destroy any king or nation that violates this command and destroys this Temple.

The Temple's Dedication

River, and Shethar-bozenai and their colleagues complied at once with the command of King Darius. <sup>14</sup> So the Jewish elders continued their work, and they were greatly encouraged by the preaching of the prophets Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo. The Temple was finally finished, as had been commanded by the God of Israel and decreed by Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, the kings of Persia. <sup>15</sup> The Temple was completed on March 12, * during the sixth year of King Darius's reign.

<sup>16</sup> The Temple of God was then dedicated with great joy by the people of Israel, the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the people who had returned from exile. <sup>17</sup> During the dedication ceremony for the Temple of God, 100 young bulls, 200 rams, and 400 male lambs were sacrificed. And 12 male goats were presented as a sin offering for the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>18</sup> Then the priests and Levites were divided into their various divisions to serve at the Temple of God in Jerusalem, as prescribed in the Book of Moses.

Celebration of Passover

throughout the land because the LORD had caused the king of Assyria* to be favorable to them, so that he helped them to rebuild the Temple of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra

Ezra 7

Ezra Arrives in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Many years later, during the reign of King Artaxerxes of Persia,* there was a man named Ezra. He was the son* of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah, <sup>2</sup>son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub, <sup>3</sup>son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son* of Meraioth, <sup>4</sup>son of Zerahiah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki, <sup>5</sup>son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the high priest.* <sup>6</sup>This Ezra was a scribe who was well versed in the Law of Moses, which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given to the people of Israel. He came up to Jerusalem from Babylon, and the king gave him everything he asked for, because the gracious hand of the LORD his God was on him. <sup>7</sup>Some of the people of Israel, as well as some of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and Temple servants, traveled up to Jerusalem with him in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes' reign.

<sup>8</sup>Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in August* of that year. <sup>9</sup>He had arranged to leave Babylon on April 8, the first day of the new year,* and he arrived at Jerusalem on August 4,* for the gracious hand of his God was on him. <sup>10</sup>This was because Ezra had determined to study and obey the Law of the LORD and to teach those decrees and regulations to the people of Israel.

Artaxerxes' Letter to Ezra

<sup>11</sup>King Artaxerxes had given a copy of the following letter to Ezra, the priest and scribe who studied and taught the commands and decrees of the LORD to Israel:

<sup>13</sup>“I decree that any of the people of Israel in my kingdom, including the priests and Levites, may volunteer to return to Jerusalem with you. <sup>14</sup>I and my council of seven hereby instruct you to conduct an inquiry into the situation in Judah and Jerusalem, based on your God’s law, which is in your hand. <sup>15</sup>We also commission you to take with you silver and gold, which we are freely presenting as an offering to the God of Israel who lives in Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup>“Furthermore, you are to take any silver and gold that you may obtain from the province of Babylon, as well as the voluntary offerings of the people and the priests that are presented for the Temple of their God in Jerusalem.

purchase of bulls, rams, male lambs, and the appropriate grain offerings and liquid offerings, all of which will be offered on the altar of the Temple of your God in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>Any silver and gold that is left over may be used in whatever way you and your colleagues feel is the will of your God.

<sup>19</sup>“But as for the cups we are entrusting to you for the service of the Temple of your God, deliver them all to the God of Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>If you need anything else for your God’s Temple or for any similar needs, you may take it from the royal treasury.

<sup>25</sup>“And you, Ezra, are to use the wisdom your God has given you to appoint magistrates and judges who know your God’s laws to govern all the people in the province west of the Euphrates River. Teach the law to anyone who does not know it. <sup>26</sup>Anyone who refuses to obey the law of your God and the law of the king will be punished immediately, either by death, banishment, confiscation of goods, or imprisonment.”

Ezra Praises the Lord

<sup>27</sup>Praise the LORD, the God of our ancestors, who made the king want to beautify the Temple of the LORD in Jerusalem! <sup>28</sup>And praise him for demonstrating such unfailing love to me by honoring me before the king, his council, and all his mighty nobles! I felt encouraged because the gracious hand of the LORD my God was on me. And I gathered some of the leaders of Israel to return with me to Jerusalem.

Ezra's Journey to Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup> I assembled the exiles at the Ahava Canal, and we camped there for three days while I went over the lists of the people and the priests who had arrived. I found that not one Levite had volunteered to come along. <sup>16</sup>So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, who were leaders of the people. I also sent for Joiarib and Elnathan, who were men of discernment. <sup>17</sup>I sent them to Iddo, the leader of the Levites at Casiphia, to ask him and his relatives and the Temple servants to send us ministers for the Temple of God at Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup>Since the gracious hand of our God was on us, they sent us a man named Sherebiah, along with eighteen of his sons and brothers. He was a very astute man and a descendant of Mahli, who was a descendant of Levi son of Israel.* <sup>19</sup>They also sent Hashabiah, together with Jeshaiiah from the descendants of Merari, and twenty of his sons and brothers, <sup>20</sup>and 220 Temple servants. The Temple servants were assistants to the Levites—a group of Temple workers first instituted by King David and his officials. They were all listed by name.

<sup>21</sup>And there by the Ahava Canal, I gave orders for all of us to fast and humble ourselves before our God. We prayed that he would give us a safe journey and protect us, our children, and our goods as we traveled. <sup>22</sup>For I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers and horsemen* to accompany us and protect us from enemies along the way. After all, we had told the king, “Our God’s hand of protection is on all who worship him, but his fierce anger rages against those who abandon him.” <sup>23</sup>So we fasted and earnestly prayed that our God would take care of us, and he heard our prayer.

24 tons* of silver,

7,500 pounds* of silver articles,

7,500 pounds of gold,

2 fine articles of polished bronze, as precious as gold.

<sup>28</sup>And I said to these priests, “You and these treasures have been set apart as holy to the LORD. This silver and gold is a voluntary offering to the LORD, the God of our ancestors.

leading priests, the Levites, and the leaders of Israel, who will weigh them at the storerooms of the LORD's Temple in Jerusalem.”<sup>30</sup> So the priests and the Levites accepted the task of transporting these treasures of silver and gold to the Temple of our God in Jerusalem.

<sup>31</sup> We broke camp at the Ahava Canal on April 19* and started off to Jerusalem. And the gracious hand of our God protected us and saved us from enemies and bandits along the way.<sup>32</sup> So we arrived safely in Jerusalem, where we rested for three days.

<sup>33</sup> On the fourth day after our arrival, the silver, gold, and other valuables were weighed at the Temple of our God and entrusted to Meremoth son of Uriah the priest and to Eleazar son of Phinehas, along with Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui—both of whom were Levites.<sup>34</sup> Everything was accounted for by number and weight, and the total weight was officially recorded.

<sup>35</sup> Then the exiles who had come out of captivity sacrificed burnt offerings to the God of Israel. They presented twelve bulls for all the people of Israel, as well as ninety-six rams and seventy-seven male lambs. They also offered twelve male goats as a sin offering. All this was given as a burnt offering to the LORD.<sup>36</sup> The king's decrees were delivered to his highest officers and the governors of the province west of the Euphrates River,* who then cooperated by supporting the people and the Temple of God.

Ezra's Prayer concerning Intermarriage

<sup>1</sup> When these things had been done, the Jewish leaders came to me and said, “Many of the people of Israel, and even some of the priests and Levites, have not kept themselves separate from the other peoples living in the land. They have taken up the detestable practices of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites. <sup>2</sup>For the men of Israel have married women from these people and have taken them as wives for their sons. So the holy race has become polluted by these mixed marriages. Worse yet, the leaders and officials have led the way in this outrage.”

<sup>3</sup> When I heard this, I tore my cloak and my shirt, pulled hair from my head and beard, and sat down utterly shocked. <sup>4</sup>Then all who trembled at the words of the God of Israel came and sat with me because of this outrage committed by the returned exiles. And I sat there utterly appalled until the time of the evening sacrifice.

<sup>5</sup>At the time of the sacrifice, I stood up from where I had sat in mourning with my clothes torn. I fell to my knees and lifted my hands to the LORD my God. <sup>6</sup>I prayed,

“O my God, I am utterly ashamed; I blush to lift up my face to you. For our sins are piled higher than our heads, and our guilt has reached to the heavens. <sup>7</sup>From the days of our ancestors until now, we have been steeped in sin.

That is why we and our kings and our priests have been at the mercy of the pagan kings of the land. We have been killed, captured, robbed, and disgraced, just as we are today.

<sup>8</sup>“But now we have been given a brief moment of grace, for the LORD our God has allowed a few of us to survive as a remnant. He has given us security in this holy place. Our God has brightened our eyes and granted us some relief from our slavery. <sup>9</sup>For we were slaves, but in his unfailing love our God did not abandon us in our slavery. Instead, he caused the kings of Persia to treat us favorably. He revived us so we could rebuild the Temple of our God and repair its ruins. He has given us a protective wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>“And now, O our God, what can we say after all of this? For once again we have abandoned your commands!

<sup>11</sup>Your servants the prophets warned us when they said, ‘The land you are entering to possess is totally defiled by the detestable practices of the people living there. From one end to the other, the land is filled with corruption.

<sup>12</sup>Don’t let your daughters marry their sons! Don’t take their daughters as wives for your sons. Don’t ever promote the peace and prosperity of those nations. If you follow these instructions, you will be strong and will enjoy the good things the land produces, and you will leave this prosperity to your children forever.’

<sup>13</sup>“Now we are being punished because of our wickedness and our great guilt. But we have actually been punished far less than we deserve, for you, our God, have allowed some of us to survive as a remnant. <sup>14</sup>But even so, we are again breaking your commands and intermarrying with people who do these detestable things. Won't your anger be enough to destroy us, so that even this little remnant no longer survives? <sup>15</sup>O LORD, God of Israel, you are just. We come before you in our guilt as nothing but an escaped remnant, though in such a condition none of us can stand in your presence."

The People Confess Their Sin

<sup>1</sup>While Ezra prayed and made this confession, weeping and lying face down on the ground in front of the Temple of God, a very large crowd of people from Israel—men, women, and children—gathered and wept bitterly with him.<sup>2</sup> Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, a descendant of Elam, said to Ezra, “We have been unfaithful to our God, for we have married these pagan women of the land. But in spite of this there is hope for Israel.<sup>3</sup> Let us now make a covenant with our God to divorce our pagan wives and to send them away with their children. We will follow the advice given by you and by the others who respect the commands of our God. Let it be done according to the Law of God.”<sup>4</sup>Get up, for it is your duty to tell us how to proceed in setting things straight. We are behind you, so be strong and take action.”

<sup>5</sup>So Ezra stood up and demanded that the leaders of the priests and the Levites and all the people of Israel swear that they would do as Shecaniah had said. And they all swore a solemn oath.<sup>6</sup>Then Ezra left the front of the Temple of God and went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. He spent the night* there without eating or drinking anything. He was still in mourning because of the unfaithfulness of the returned exiles.

<sup>7</sup>Then a proclamation was made throughout Judah and Jerusalem that all the exiles should come to Jerusalem.<sup>8</sup>Those who failed to come within three days would, if the leaders and elders so decided, forfeit all their property and be expelled from the assembly of the exiles.

<sup>9</sup>Within three days, all the people of Judah and Benjamin had gathered in Jerusalem. This took place on December 19,* and all the people were sitting in the square before the Temple of God. They were trembling both because of the seriousness of the matter and because it was raining. <sup>10</sup>Then Ezra the priest stood and said to them: “You have committed a terrible sin. By marrying pagan women, you have increased Israel’s guilt. <sup>11</sup>So now confess your sin to the LORD, the God of your ancestors, and do what he demands. Separate yourselves from the people of the land and from these pagan women.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the whole assembly raised their voices and answered, “Yes, you are right; we must do as you say!” <sup>13</sup>Then they added, “This isn’t something that can be done in a day or two, for many of us are involved in this extremely sinful affair. And this is the rainy season, so we cannot stay out here much longer. <sup>14</sup>Let our leaders act on behalf of us all. Let everyone who has a pagan wife come at a scheduled time, accompanied by the leaders and judges of his city, so that the fierce anger of our God concerning this affair may be turned away from us.”

<sup>16</sup>So this was the plan they followed. Ezra selected leaders to represent their families, designating each of the representatives by name. On December 29,* the leaders sat down to investigate the matter. <sup>17</sup>By March 27, the first day of the new year,* they had finished dealing with all the men who had married pagan wives.

Nehemiah's Concern for Jerusalem

In late autumn, in the month of Kislev, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes' reign, * I was at the fortress of Susa. <sup>2</sup> Hanani, one of my brothers, came to visit me with some other men who had just arrived from Judah. I asked them about the Jews who had returned there from captivity and about how things were going in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>They said to me, “Things are not going well for those who returned to the province of Judah. They are in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem has been torn down, and the gates have been destroyed by fire.”

“O LORD, God of heaven, the great and awesome God who keeps his covenant of unfailing love with those who love him and obey his commands, <sup>6</sup>listen to my prayer! Look down and see me praying night and day for your people Israel. I confess that we have sinned against you. Yes, even my own family and I have sinned! <sup>7</sup>We have sinned terribly by not obeying the commands, decrees, and regulations that you gave us through your servant Moses.

<sup>8</sup>“Please remember what you told your servant Moses: ‘If you are unfaithful to me, I will scatter you among the nations. <sup>9</sup>But if you return to me and obey my commands and live by them, then even if you are exiled to the ends of the earth, I will bring you back to the place I have chosen for my name to be honored.’

<sup>10</sup>“The people you rescued by your great power and strong hand are your servants. <sup>11</sup>O Lord, please hear my prayer! Listen to the prayers of those of us who delight in honoring you. Please grant me success today by making the king favorable to me.* Put it into his heart to be kind to me.”

In those days I was the king’s cupbearer.

Nehemiah 2

Nehemiah Goes to Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Early the following spring, in the month of Nisan,* during the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes' reign, I was serving the king his wine. I had never before appeared sad in his presence. <sup>2</sup>So the king asked me, "Why are you looking so sad? You don't look sick to me. You must be deeply troubled."

Then I was terrified, <sup>3</sup>but I replied, "Long live the king! How can I not be sad? For the city where my ancestors are buried is in ruins, and the gates have been destroyed by fire."

With a prayer to the God of heaven, <sup>5</sup>I replied, "If it please the king, and if you are pleased with me, your servant, send me to Judah to rebuild the city where my ancestors are buried."

<sup>6</sup>The king, with the queen sitting beside him, asked, "How long will you be gone? When will you return?" After I told him how long I would be gone, the king agreed to my request.

<sup>7</sup>I also said to the king, "If it please the king, let me have letters addressed to the governors of the province west of the Euphrates River,* instructing them to let me travel safely through their territories on my way to Judah. <sup>8</sup>And please give me a letter addressed to Asaph, the manager of the king's forest, instructing him to give me timber. I will need it to make beams for the gates of the Temple fortress, for the city walls, and for a house for myself." And the king granted these requests, because the gracious hand of God was on me.

<sup>9</sup>When I came to the governors of the province west of the Euphrates River, I delivered the king's letters to them. The king, I should add, had sent along army officers and horsemen* to protect me. <sup>10</sup>But when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard of my arrival, they were very displeased that someone had come to help the people of Israel.

Nehemiah Inspects Jerusalem's Wall

<sup>11</sup> So I arrived in Jerusalem. Three days later, <sup>12</sup>I slipped out during the night, taking only a few others with me. I had not told anyone about the plans God had put in my heart for Jerusalem. We took no pack animals with us except the donkey I was riding. <sup>13</sup>After dark I went out through the Valley Gate, past the Jackal's Well,* and over to the Dung Gate to inspect the broken walls and burned gates. <sup>14</sup>Then I went to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool, but my donkey couldn't get through the rubble. <sup>15</sup>So, though it was still dark, I went up the Kidron Valley* instead, inspecting the wall before I turned back and entered again at the Valley Gate.

<sup>16</sup>The city officials did not know I had been out there or what I was doing, for I had not yet said anything to anyone about my plans. I had not yet spoken to the Jewish leaders—the priests, the nobles, the officials, or anyone else in the administration. <sup>17</sup> But now I said to them, “You know very well what trouble we are in. Jerusalem lies in ruins, and its gates have been destroyed by fire. Let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem and end this disgrace!”<sup>18</sup> Then I told them about how the gracious hand of God had been on me, and about my conversation with the king.

They replied at once, “Yes, let’s rebuild the wall!” So they began the good work.

<sup>19</sup>But when Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem the Arab heard of our plan, they scoffed contemptuously. “What are you doing? Are you rebelling against the king?” they asked.

<sup>20</sup>I replied, “The God of heaven will help us succeed. We, his servants, will start rebuilding this wall. But you have no share, legal right, or historic claim in Jerusalem.”

Nehemiah 3

Rebuilding the Wall of Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Then Eliashib the high priest and the other priests started to rebuild at the Sheep Gate. They dedicated it and set up its doors, building the wall as far as the Tower of the Hundred, which they dedicated, and the Tower of Hananel. <sup>2</sup>People from the town of Jericho worked next to them, and beyond them was Zaccur son of Imri.

<sup>9</sup>Rephaiah son of Hur, the leader of half the district of Jerusalem, was next to them on the wall. <sup>10</sup>Next Jedaiah son of Harumaph repaired the wall across from his own house, and next to him was Hattush son of Hashabneiah. <sup>11</sup>Then came Malkijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-moab, who repaired another section of the wall and the Tower of the Ovens. <sup>12</sup>Shallum son of Hallohesh and his daughters repaired the next section. He was the leader of the other half of the district of Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>The Valley Gate was repaired by the people from Zanoah, led by Hanun. They set up its doors and installed its bolts and bars. They also repaired the 1,500 feet* of wall to the Dung Gate.

<sup>14</sup>The Dung Gate was repaired by Malkijah son of Recab, the leader of the Beth-hakkerem district. He rebuilt it, set up its doors, and installed its bolts and bars.

<sup>15</sup>The Fountain Gate was repaired by Shallum* son of Col-hozeh, the leader of the Mizpah district. He rebuilt it, roofed it, set up its doors, and installed its bolts and bars. Then he repaired the wall of the pool of Siloam* near the king's garden, and he rebuilt the wall as far as the stairs that descend from the City of David. <sup>16</sup>Next to him was Nehemiah son of Azbuk, the leader of half the district of Beth-zur. He rebuilt the wall from a place across from the tombs of David's family as far as the water reservoir and the House of the Warriors.

supervised the building of the wall on behalf of his own district.<sup>18</sup>Next down the line were his countrymen led by Binnui* son of Henadad, the leader of the other half of the district of Keilah.

one repaired the section immediately across from his own house.<sup>29</sup>Next Zadok son of Immer also rebuilt the wall across from his own house, and beyond him was Shemaiah son of Shecaniah, the gatekeeper of the East Gate.<sup>30</sup>Next Hananiah son of Shelemiah and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section, while Meshullam son of Berekiah rebuilt the wall across from where he lived.<sup>31</sup>Malkijah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired the wall as far as the housing for the Temple servants and merchants, across from the Inspection Gate. Then he continued as far as the upper room at the corner.<sup>32</sup>The other goldsmiths and merchants repaired the wall from that corner to the Sheep Gate.

Enemies Oppose the Rebuilding

<sup>1</sup> *Sanballat was very angry when he learned that we were rebuilding the wall. He flew into a rage and mocked the Jews, <sup>2</sup>saying in front of his friends and the Samaritan army officers, “What does this bunch of poor, feeble Jews think they’re doing? Do they think they can build the wall in a single day by just offering a few sacrifices? * Do they actually think they can make something of stones from a rubbish heap—and charred ones at that?”

<sup>4</sup> Then I prayed, “Hear us, our God, for we are being mocked. May their scoffing fall back on their own heads, and may they themselves become captives in a foreign land! <sup>5</sup>Do not ignore their guilt. Do not blot out their sins, for they have provoked you to anger here in front of * the builders.”

<sup>7</sup> *But when Sanballat and Tobiah and the Arabs, Ammonites, and Ashdodites heard that the work was going ahead and that the gaps in the wall of Jerusalem were being repaired, they were furious. <sup>8</sup>They all made plans to come and fight against Jerusalem and throw us into confusion. <sup>9</sup>But we prayed to our

God and guarded the city day and night to protect ourselves.

<sup>10</sup>Then the people of Judah began to complain, “The workers are getting tired, and there is so much rubble to be moved. We will never be able to build the wall by ourselves.”

<sup>12</sup>The Jews who lived near the enemy came and told us again and again, “They will come from all directions and attack us!”*

<sup>14</sup>Then as I looked over the situation, I called together the nobles and the rest of the people and said to them, “Don’t be afraid of the enemy! Remember the Lord, who is great and glorious, and fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes!”

<sup>15</sup>When our enemies heard that we knew of their plans and that God had frustrated them, we all returned to our work on the wall. <sup>16</sup>But from then on, only half my men worked while the other half stood guard with spears, shields, bows, and coats of mail. The leaders stationed themselves behind the people of Judah <sup>17</sup>who were building the wall. The laborers carried on their work with one hand supporting their load and one hand holding a weapon. <sup>18</sup>All the builders had a sword belted to their side. The trumpeter stayed with me to sound the alarm.

<sup>19</sup>Then I explained to the nobles and officials and all the people, “The work is very spread out, and we are widely separated from each other along the wall. <sup>20</sup>When you hear the blast of the trumpet, rush to wherever it is sounding. Then our God will fight for us!”

Nehemiah Defends the Oppressed

<sup>4</sup>And others said, “We have had to borrow money on our fields and vineyards to pay our taxes. <sup>5</sup>We belong to the same family as those who are wealthy, and our children are just like theirs. Yet we must sell our children into slavery just to get enough money to live. We have already sold some of our daughters, and we are helpless to do anything about it, for our fields and vineyards are already mortgaged to others.”

<sup>6</sup>When I heard their complaints, I was very angry. <sup>7</sup>After thinking it over, I spoke out against these nobles and officials. I told them, “You are hurting your own relatives by charging interest when they borrow money!” Then I called a public meeting to deal with the problem.

<sup>8</sup>At the meeting I said to them, “We are doing all we can to redeem our Jewish relatives who have had to sell themselves to pagan foreigners, but you are selling them back into slavery again. How often must we redeem them?” And they had nothing to say in their defense.

Should you not walk in the fear of our God in order to avoid being mocked by enemy nations? <sup>10</sup>I myself, as well as my brothers and my workers, have been lending the people money and grain, but now let us stop this business of charging interest. <sup>11</sup>You must restore their fields, vineyards, olive groves, and homes to them this very day. And repay the interest you charged when you lent them money, grain, new wine, and olive oil.”

<sup>12</sup>They replied, “We will give back everything and demand nothing more from the people. We will do as you say.” Then I called the priests and made the nobles and officials swear to do what they had promised.

<sup>13</sup>I shook out the folds of my robe and said, “If you fail to keep your promise, may God shake you like this from your homes and from your property!”

The whole assembly responded, “Amen,” and they praised the LORD. And the people did as they had promised.

<sup>14</sup>For the entire twelve years that I was governor of Judah—from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of the reign of King Artaxerxes*—neither I nor my officials drew on our official food allowance. <sup>15</sup>The former governors, in contrast, had laid heavy burdens on the people, demanding a daily ration of food and wine, besides forty pieces* of silver. Even their assistants took advantage of the people. But because I feared God, I did not act that way.

<sup>16</sup>I also devoted myself to working on the wall and refused to acquire any land. And I required all my servants to spend time working on the wall. <sup>17</sup>I asked for nothing, even though I regularly fed 150 Jewish officials at my table, besides all the visitors from other lands! <sup>18</sup>The provisions I paid for each day included one ox, six choice sheep or goats, and a large number of poultry. And every ten days we needed a large supply of all kinds of wine. Yet I refused to claim the governor's food allowance because the people already carried a heavy burden.

<sup>19</sup>Remember, O my God, all that I have done for these people, and bless me for it.

Continued Opposition to Rebuilding

But I realized they were plotting to harm me, <sup>3</sup>so I replied by sending this message to them: “I am engaged in a great work, so I can’t come. Why should I stop working to come and meet with you?”

<sup>4</sup>Four times they sent the same message, and each time I gave the same reply. <sup>5</sup>The fifth time, Sanballat’s servant came with an open letter in his hand, <sup>6</sup>and this is what it said:

“There is a rumor among the surrounding nations, and Geshem* tells me it is true, that you and the Jews are planning to rebel and that is why you are building the wall. According to his reports, you plan to be their king. <sup>7</sup>He also reports that you have appointed prophets in Jerusalem to proclaim about you, ‘Look! There is a king in Judah!’

“You can be very sure that this report will get back to the king, so I suggest that you come and talk it over with me.”

<sup>10</sup>Later I went to visit Shemaiah son of Delaiah and grandson of Mehetabel, who was confined to his home. He said, “Let us meet together inside the Temple of God and bolt the doors shut. Your enemies are coming to kill you tonight.”

<sup>11</sup>But I replied, “Should someone in my position run from danger? Should someone in my position enter the Temple to save his life? No, I won’t do it!” <sup>12</sup>I realized that God had not spoken to him, but that he had uttered this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. <sup>13</sup>They were hoping to intimidate me and make me sin. Then they would be able to accuse and discredit me.

<sup>14</sup>Remember, O my God, all the evil things that Tobiah and Sanballat have done. And remember Noadiah the prophet and all the prophets like her who have tried to intimidate me.

The Builders Complete the Wall

<sup>15</sup> So on October 2* the wall was finished—just fifty-two days after we had begun. <sup>16</sup>When our enemies and the surrounding nations heard about it, they were frightened and humiliated. They realized this work had been done with the help of our

<sup>17</sup>During those fifty-two days, many letters went back and forth between Tobiah and the nobles of Judah. <sup>18</sup>For many in Judah had sworn allegiance to him because his father-in-law was Shecaniah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan was married to the daughter of Meshullam son of Berekiah. <sup>19</sup>They kept telling me about Tobiah's good deeds, and then they told him everything I said. And Tobiah kept sending threatening letters to intimidate me.

Nehemiah 7

<sup>1</sup>After the wall was finished and I had set up the doors in the gates, the gatekeepers, singers, and Levites were appointed. <sup>2</sup>I gave the responsibility of governing Jerusalem to my brother Hanani, along with Hananiah, the commander of the fortress, for he was a faithful man who feared God more than most. <sup>3</sup>I said to them, “Do not leave the gates open during the hottest part of the day.* And even while the gatekeepers are on duty, have them shut and bar the doors. Appoint the residents of Jerusalem to act as guards, everyone on a regular watch. Some will serve at sentry posts and some in front of their own homes.”

Nehemiah Registers the People

<sup>4</sup>At that time the city was large and spacious, but the population was small, and none of the houses had been rebuilt. <sup>5</sup>So my God gave me the idea to call together all the nobles and leaders of the city, along with the ordinary citizens, for registration. I had found the genealogical record of those who had first returned to Judah. This is what was written there:

<sup>6</sup>Here is the list of the Jewish exiles of the provinces who returned from their captivity. King Nebuchadnezzar had deported them to Babylon, but now they returned to Jerusalem and the other towns in Judah where they originally lived. <sup>7</sup>Their leaders were Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah,* Reelaiah,* Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar,* Bigvai, Rehum,* and Baanah.

This is the number of the men of Israel who returned from exile:

<sup>61</sup>Another group returned at this time from the towns of Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Kerub, Addan,* and Immer. However, they could not prove that they or their families were descendants of Israel. <sup>62</sup>This group included the families of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda—a total of 642 people.

<sup>70</sup>Some of the family leaders gave gifts for the work. The governor gave to the treasury 1,000 gold coins,* 50 gold basins, and 530 robes for the priests. <sup>71</sup>The other leaders gave to the treasury a total of 20,000 gold coins* and some 2,750 pounds* of silver for the work. <sup>72</sup>The rest of the people gave 20,000 gold coins, about 2,500 pounds* of silver, and 67 robes for the priests.

<sup>73</sup>So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Temple servants, and some of the common people settled near Jerusalem. The rest of the people returned to their own towns throughout Israel. In October,* when the Israelites had settled in their towns, *

Ezra Reads the Law

<sup>6</sup>Then Ezra praised the LORD, the great God, and all the people chanted, “Amen! Amen!” as they lifted their hands. Then they bowed down and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

Hanan, and Pelaiah—then instructed the people in the Law while everyone remained in their places.<sup>8</sup> They read from the Book of the Law of God and clearly explained the meaning of what was being read, helping the people understand each passage.

<sup>9</sup>Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were interpreting for the people said to them, “Don’t mourn or weep on such a day as this! For today is a sacred day before the LORD your God.” For the people had all been weeping as they listened to the words of the Law.

<sup>10</sup>And Nehemiah* continued, “Go and celebrate with a feast of rich foods and sweet drinks, and share gifts of food with people who have nothing prepared. This is a sacred day before our Lord. Don’t be dejected and sad, for the joy of the LORD is your strength!”

<sup>11</sup>And the Levites, too, quieted the people, telling them, “Hush! Don’t weep! For this is a sacred day.”<sup>12</sup> So the people went away to eat and drink at a festive meal, to share gifts of food, and to celebrate with great joy because they had heard God’s words and understood them.

The Festival of Shelters

<sup>13</sup>On October 9* the family leaders of all the people, together with the priests and Levites, met with Ezra the scribe to go over the Law in greater detail.<sup>14</sup> As they studied the Law, they discovered that the LORD had commanded through Moses that the Israelites should live in shelters during the festival to be held that month.*<sup>15</sup> He had said that a proclamation should be made throughout their towns and in Jerusalem, telling the people to go to the hills to get branches from olive, wild olive,* myrtle, palm, and other leafy trees. They were to use these branches to make shelters in which they would live during the festival, as prescribed in the Law.

<sup>16</sup>So the people went out and cut branches and used them to build shelters on the roofs of their houses, in their courtyards, in the courtyards of God's Temple, or in the squares just inside the Water Gate and the Ephraim Gate. <sup>17</sup>So everyone who had returned from captivity lived in these shelters during the festival, and they were all filled with great joy! The Israelites had not celebrated like this since the days of Joshua* son of Nun.

<sup>18</sup>Ezra read from the Book of the Law of God on each of the seven days of the festival. Then on the eighth day they held a solemn assembly, as was required by law.

The People Confess Their Sins

<sup>5</sup>Then the leaders of the Levites—Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah—called out to the people: “Stand up and praise the LORD your God, for he lives from everlasting to everlasting!” Then they prayed:

“May your glorious name be praised! May it be exalted above all blessing and praise!

<sup>6</sup>“You alone are the LORD. You made the skies and the heavens and all the stars. You made the earth and the seas and everything in them. You preserve them all, and the angels of heaven worship you.

<sup>7</sup>“You are the LORD God, who chose Abram and brought him from Ur of the Chaldeans and renamed him Abraham.

<sup>8</sup>When he had proved himself faithful, you made a covenant with him to give him and his descendants the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Jebusites, and Girgashites. And you have done what you promised, for you are always true to your word.

<sup>13</sup>“You came down at Mount Sinai and spoke to them from heaven. You gave them regulations and instructions that were just, and decrees and commands that were good. <sup>14</sup>You instructed them concerning your holy Sabbath. And you commanded them, through Moses your servant, to obey all your commands, decrees, and instructions.

<sup>15</sup>“You gave them bread from heaven when they were hungry and water from the rock when they were thirsty. You commanded them to go and take possession of the land you had sworn to give them.

<sup>16</sup>“But our ancestors were proud and stubborn, and they paid no attention to your commands. <sup>17</sup>They refused to obey and did not remember the miracles you had done for them. Instead, they became stubborn and appointed a leader to take them back to their slavery in Egypt! But you are a God of forgiveness, gracious and merciful, slow to become angry, and rich in unfailing love. You did not abandon them, <sup>18</sup>even when they made an idol shaped like a calf and said, ‘This is your god who brought you out of Egypt!’ They committed terrible blasphemies.

who inhabited the land, were powerless! Your people could deal with these nations and their kings as they pleased.<sup>25</sup>Our ancestors captured fortified cities and fertile land. They took over houses full of good things, with cisterns already dug and vineyards and olive groves and fruit trees in abundance. So they ate until they were full and grew fat and enjoyed themselves in all your blessings.

<sup>28</sup>“But as soon as they were at peace, your people again committed evil in your sight, and once more you let their enemies conquer them. Yet whenever your people turned and cried to you again for help, you listened once more from heaven. In your wonderful mercy, you rescued them many times!

<sup>29</sup>“You warned them to return to your Law, but they became proud and obstinate and disobeyed your commands. They did not follow your regulations, by which people will find life if only they obey. They stubbornly turned their backs on you and refused to listen.<sup>30</sup>In your love, you were patient with them for many years. You sent your Spirit, who warned them through the prophets. But still they wouldn't listen! So once again you allowed the peoples of the land to conquer them.<sup>31</sup> But in your great mercy, you did not destroy them completely or abandon them forever. What a gracious and merciful God you are!

<sup>32</sup>“And now, our God, the great and mighty and awesome God, who keeps his covenant of unfailing love, do not let all the hardships we have suffered seem insignificant to you. Great trouble has come upon us and upon our kings and leaders and priests and prophets and ancestors—all of your people—from the days when the kings of Assyria first triumphed over us until now.<sup>33</sup> Every time you punished us you were being just. We have sinned greatly, and you gave us only what we deserved.<sup>34</sup> Our kings, leaders, priests, and ancestors did not obey your Law or listen to the warnings in your commands and laws.<sup>35</sup> Even while they had their own kingdom, they did not serve you, though you showered your goodness on them. You gave them a large, fertile land, but they refused to turn from their wickedness.

<sup>36</sup>“So now today we are slaves in the land of plenty that you gave our ancestors for their enjoyment! We are slaves here in this good land.<sup>37</sup> The lush produce of this land piles up in the hands of the kings whom you have set over us because of our sins. They have power over us and our livestock. We serve them at their pleasure, and we are in great misery.”

The People Agree to Obey

38 *The people responded, “In view of all this, * we are making a solemn promise and putting it in writing. On this sealed document are the names of our leaders and Levites and priests.”

Nehemiah 10

<sup>1</sup>*The document was ratified and sealed with the following names:

The governor:

Nehemiah son of Hacaliah, and also Zedekiah.

Harim, and Baanah.

The Vow of the People

<sup>28</sup>Then the rest of the people—the priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, Temple servants, and all who had separated themselves from the pagan people of the land in order to obey the Law of God, together with their wives, sons, daughters, and all who were old enough to understand—<sup>29</sup>joined their leaders and bound themselves with an oath. They swore a curse on themselves if they failed to obey the Law of God as issued by his servant Moses. They solemnly promised to carefully follow all the commands, regulations, and decrees of the LORD our Lord:

<sup>31</sup>“We also promise that if the people of the land should bring any merchandise or grain to be sold on the Sabbath or on any other holy day, we will refuse to buy it. Every seventh year we will let our land rest, and we will cancel all debts owed to us.

<sup>32</sup>“In addition, we promise to obey the command to pay the annual Temple tax of one-eighth of an ounce of silver*
for the care of the Temple of our God. <sup>33</sup>This will provide for the Bread of the Presence; for the regular grain offerings and burnt offerings; for the offerings on the Sabbaths, the new moon celebrations, and the annual festivals; for the holy offerings; and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel. It will provide for everything necessary for the work of the Temple of our God.

<sup>34</sup>“We have cast sacred lots to determine when—at regular times each year—the families of the priests, Levites, and the common people should bring wood to God’s Temple to be burned on the altar of the LORD our God, as is written in the Law.

<sup>35</sup>“We promise to bring the first part of every harvest to the LORD’s Temple year after year—whether it be a crop from the soil or from our fruit trees. <sup>36</sup>We agree to give God our oldest sons and the firstborn of all our herds and flocks, as prescribed in the Law. We will present them to the priests who minister in the Temple of our God. <sup>37</sup>We will store the produce in the storerooms of the Temple of our God. We will bring the best of our flour and other grain offerings, the best of our fruit, and the best of our new wine and olive oil. And we promise to bring to the Levites a tenth of everything our land produces, for it is the Levites who collect the tithes in all our rural towns.

<sup>38</sup>“A priest—a descendant of Aaron—will be with the Levites as they receive these tithes. And a tenth of all that is collected as tithes will be delivered by the Levites to the Temple of our God and placed in the storerooms. <sup>39</sup> The people and the Levites must bring these offerings of grain, new wine, and olive oil to the storerooms and place them in the sacred containers near the ministering priests, the gatekeepers, and the singers.

The People Occupy Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>The leaders of the people were living in Jerusalem, the holy city. A tenth of the people from the other towns of Judah and Benjamin were chosen by sacred lots to live there, too, while the rest stayed where they were. <sup>2</sup>And the people commended everyone who volunteered to resettle in Jerusalem.

From the tribe of Judah:

Athaiah son of Uziah, son of Zechariah, son of Amariah, son of Shephatiah, son of Mahalalel, of the family of Perez. <sup>5</sup>Also Maaseiah son of Baruch, son of Col-hozeh, son of Hazaiah, son of Adaiah, son of Joiarib, son of Zechariah, of the family of Shelah.* <sup>6</sup>There were 468 descendants of Perez who lived in Jerusalem—all outstanding men.

Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Joed, son of Pedaiah, son of Kolaiah, son of Maaseiah, son of Ithiel, son of Jeshaiah. <sup>8</sup>After him were Gabbai and Sallai and a total of 928 relatives. <sup>9</sup>Their chief officer was Joel son of Zicri, who was assisted by Judah son of Hassenuah, second-in-command over the city.

Jedaiah son of Joiarib; Jakin; <sup>11</sup>and Seraiah son of Hilkiyah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the supervisor of the Temple of God. <sup>12</sup>Also 822 of their associates, who worked at the Temple. Also Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pelaliah, son of Amzi, son of Zechariah, son of Pashhur, son of Malkijah, <sup>13</sup>along with 242 of his associates, who were heads of their families. Also Amashsai son of Azarel, son of Ahzai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer, <sup>14</sup>and 128 of his \* outstanding associates. Their chief officer was Zabdiel son of Haggedolim.

Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, son of Bunni. <sup>16</sup>Also Shabbethai and Jozabad, who were in charge of the work outside the Temple of God. <sup>17</sup>Also Mattaniah son of Mica, son of Zabdi, a descendant of Asaph, who led in thanksgiving and prayer. Also Bakbukiah, who was Mattaniah's assistant, and Abda son of Shammua, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun.

<sup>20</sup>The other priests, Levites, and the rest of the Israelites lived wherever their family inheritance was located in any of the towns of Judah. <sup>21</sup>The Temple servants, however, whose leaders were Ziha and Gishpa, all lived on the hill of Ophel.

Nehemiah 12

A History of the Priests and Levites

<sup>1</sup>Here is the list of the priests and Levites who returned with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the high priest:

Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

These were the leaders of the priests and their associates in the days of Jeshua.

Joiakim was the father of Eliashib.

Eliashib was the father of Joiada.

<sup>11</sup>Joiada was the father of Johanan. *

Johanan was the father of Jaddua.

<sup>12</sup>Now when Joiakim was high priest, the family leaders of the priests were as follows:

Meraiah was leader of the family of Seraiah.

Hananiah was leader of the family of Jeremiah.

Jehohanan was leader of the family of Amariah.

Joseph was leader of the family of Shecaniah.*

There was also a* leader of the family of Miniamin.

Piltai was leader of the family of Moadiah.

Uzzi was leader of the family of Jedaiah.

Eber was leader of the family of Amok.

Nethanel was leader of the family of Jedaiah.

when Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua served as high priest. Another record of the priests was kept during the reign of Darius the Persian.*<sup>23</sup> A record of the heads of the Levite families was kept in The Book of History down to the days of Johanan, the grandson* of Eliashib.

Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were the gatekeepers in charge of the storerooms at the gates.<sup>26</sup> These all served in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua, son of Jehozadak,* and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priest and scribe.

Dedication of Jerusalem's Wall

<sup>27</sup>For the dedication of the new wall of Jerusalem, the Levites throughout the land were asked to come to Jerusalem to assist in the ceremonies. They were to take part in the joyous occasion with their songs of thanksgiving and with the music of cymbals, harps, and lyres.<sup>28</sup> The singers were brought together from the region around Jerusalem and from the villages of the Netophathites.<sup>29</sup> They also came from Bethgilgal and the rural areas near Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built their own settlements around Jerusalem.<sup>30</sup> The priests and Levites first purified themselves; then they purified

<sup>40</sup>The two choirs that were giving thanks then proceeded to the Temple of God, where they took their places. So did I, together with the group of leaders who were with me. <sup>41</sup>We went together with the trumpet-playing priests—Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah—<sup>42</sup>and the singers—Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam, and Ezer. They played and sang loudly under the direction of Jezrahiah the choir director.

<sup>43</sup>Many sacrifices were offered on that joyous day, for God had given the people cause for great joy. The women and children also participated in the celebration, and the joy of the people of Jerusalem could be heard far away.

Provisions for Temple Worship

<sup>44</sup>On that day men were appointed to be in charge of the storerooms for the offerings, the first part of the harvest, and the tithes. They were responsible to collect from the fields outside the towns the portions required by the Law for the priests and Levites. For all the people of Judah took joy in the priests and Levites and their work.<sup>45</sup>They performed the service of their God and the service of purification, as commanded by David and his son Solomon, and so did the singers and the gatekeepers.<sup>46</sup>The custom of having choir directors to lead the choirs in hymns of praise and thanksgiving to God began long ago in the days of David and Asaph.<sup>47</sup>So now, in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all Israel brought a daily supply of food for the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Levites. The Levites, in turn, gave a portion of what they received to the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

Nehemiah's Various Reforms

<sup>1</sup> On that same day, as the Book of Moses was being read to the people, the passage was found that said no Ammonite or Moabite should ever be permitted to enter the assembly of God.* <sup>2</sup>For they had not provided the Israelites with food and water in the wilderness. Instead, they hired Balaam to curse them, though our God turned the curse into a blessing. <sup>3</sup>When this passage of the Law was read, all those of foreign descent were immediately excluded from the assembly.

belongings out of the room.<sup>9</sup> Then I demanded that the rooms be purified, and I brought back the articles for God's Temple, the grain offerings, and the frankincense.

<sup>10</sup>I also discovered that the Levites had not been given their prescribed portions of food, so they and the singers who were to conduct the worship services had all returned to work their fields. <sup>11</sup>I immediately confronted the leaders and demanded, "Why has the Temple of God been neglected?" Then I called all the Levites back again and restored them to their proper duties. <sup>12</sup>And once more all the people of Judah began bringing their tithes of grain, new wine, and olive oil to the Temple storerooms.

<sup>13</sup>I assigned supervisors for the storerooms: Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah, one of the Levites. And I appointed Hanan son of Zaccur and grandson of Mattaniah as their assistant. These men had an excellent reputation, and it was their job to make honest distributions to their fellow Levites.

<sup>15</sup>In those days I saw men of Judah treading out their winepresses on the Sabbath. They were also bringing in grain, loading it on donkeys, and bringing their wine, grapes, figs, and all sorts of produce to Jerusalem to sell on the Sabbath. So I rebuked them for selling their produce on that day. <sup>16</sup>Some men from Tyre, who lived in Jerusalem, were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise. They were selling it on the Sabbath to the people of Judah—and in Jerusalem at that!

<sup>17</sup>So I confronted the nobles of Judah. “Why are you profaning the Sabbath in this evil way?” I asked. <sup>18</sup>“Wasn’t it just this sort of thing that your ancestors did that caused our God to bring all this trouble upon us and our city? Now you are bringing even more wrath upon Israel by permitting the Sabbath to be desecrated in this way!”

<sup>19</sup>Then I commanded that the gates of Jerusalem should be shut as darkness fell every Friday evening,* not to be opened until the Sabbath ended. I sent some of my own servants to guard the gates so that no merchandise could be brought in on the Sabbath day. <sup>20</sup>The merchants and tradesmen with a variety of wares camped outside Jerusalem once or twice. <sup>21</sup>But I spoke sharply to them and said, “What are you doing out here, camping around the wall? If you do this again, I will arrest you!” And that was the last time they came on the Sabbath. <sup>22</sup>Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves and to guard the gates in order to preserve the holiness of the Sabbath.

Remember this good deed also, O my God! Have compassion on me according to your great and unfailing love.

<sup>24</sup>Furthermore, half their children spoke the language of Ashdod or of some other people and could not speak the language of Judah at all. <sup>25</sup>So I confronted them and called down curses on them. I beat some of them and pulled out their hair. I made them swear in the name of God that they would not let their children intermarry with the pagan people of the land.

<sup>26</sup>“Wasn’t this exactly what led King Solomon of Israel into sin?” I demanded. “There was no king from any nation who could compare to him, and God loved him and made him king over all Israel. But even he was led into sin by his foreign wives. <sup>27</sup>How could you even think of committing this sinful deed and acting unfaithfully toward God by marrying foreign women?”

<sup>29</sup>Remember them, O my God, for they have defiled the priesthood and the solemn vows of the priests and Levites.

<sup>30</sup>So I purged out everything foreign and assigned tasks to the priests and Levites, making certain that each knew his work. <sup>31</sup>I also made sure that the supply of wood for the altar and the first portions of the harvest were brought at the proper times.

Remember this in my favor, O my God.

The King's Banquet

<sup>5</sup>When it was all over, the king gave a banquet for all the people, from the greatest to the least, who were in the fortress of Susa. It lasted for seven days and was held in the courtyard of the palace garden. <sup>6</sup>The courtyard was beautifully decorated with white cotton curtains and blue hangings, which were fastened with white linen cords and purple ribbons to silver rings embedded in marble pillars. Gold and silver couches stood on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl, and other costly stones.

<sup>7</sup>Drinks were served in gold goblets of many designs, and there was an abundance of royal wine, reflecting the king's generosity. <sup>8</sup>By edict of the king, no limits were placed on the drinking, for the king had instructed all his palace officials to serve each man as much as he wanted.

women in the royal palace of King Xerxes.

Queen Vashti Deposed

<sup>10</sup>On the seventh day of the feast, when King Xerxes was in high spirits because of the wine, he told the seven eunuchs who attended him—Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas—<sup>11</sup>to bring Queen Vashti to him with the royal crown on her head. He wanted the nobles and all the other men to gaze on her beauty, for she was a very beautiful woman. <sup>12</sup>But when they conveyed the king's order to Queen Vashti, she refused to come. This made the king furious, and he burned with anger.

<sup>16</sup>Memucan answered the king and his nobles, “Queen Vashti has wronged not only the king but also every noble and citizen throughout your empire. <sup>17</sup>Women everywhere will begin to despise their husbands when they learn that Queen Vashti has refused to appear before the king. <sup>18</sup>Before this day is out, the wives of all the king's nobles throughout Persia and Media will hear what the queen did and will start treating their husbands the same way. There will be no end to their contempt and anger.

<sup>19</sup>“So if it please the king, we suggest that you issue a written decree, a law of the Persians and Medes that cannot be revoked. It should order that Queen Vashti be forever banished from the presence of King Xerxes, and that the king should choose another queen more worthy than she.<sup>20</sup>When this decree is published throughout the king’s vast empire, husbands everywhere, whatever their rank, will receive proper respect from their wives!”

Esther 2

Esther Becomes Queen

<sup>1</sup>But after Xerxes' anger had subsided, he began thinking about Vashti and what she had done and the decree he had made. <sup>2</sup>So his personal attendants suggested, "Let us search the empire to find beautiful young virgins for the king. <sup>3</sup>Let the king appoint agents in each province to bring these beautiful young women into the royal harem at the fortress of Susa. Hegai, the king's eunuch in charge of the harem, will see that they are all given beauty treatments. <sup>4</sup>After that, the young woman who most pleases the king will be made queen instead of Vashti." This advice was very appealing to the king, so he put the plan into effect.

<sup>5</sup>At that time there was a Jewish man in the fortress of Susa whose name was Mordecai son of Jair. He was from the tribe of Benjamin and was a descendant of Kish and Shimei. <sup>6</sup>His family* had been among those who, with King Jehoiachin* of Judah, had been exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon by King Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>7</sup>This man had a very beautiful and lovely young cousin, Hadassah, who was also called Esther. When her father and mother died, Mordecai adopted her into his family and raised her as his own daughter.

impressed with Esther and treated her kindly. He quickly ordered a special menu for her and provided her with beauty treatments. He also assigned her seven maids specially chosen from the king's palace, and he moved her and her maids into the best place in the harem.

<sup>15</sup>Esther was the daughter of Abihail, who was Mordecai's uncle. (Mordecai had adopted his younger cousin Esther.) When it was Esther's turn to go to the king, she accepted the advice of Hegai, the eunuch in charge of the harem. She asked for nothing except what he suggested, and she was admired by everyone who saw her.

winter* of the seventh year of his reign. <sup>17</sup>And the king loved Esther more than any of the other young women. He was so delighted with her that he set the royal crown on her head and declared her queen instead of Vashti. <sup>18</sup>To celebrate the occasion, he gave a great banquet in Esther's honor for all his nobles and officials, declaring a public holiday for the provinces and giving generous gifts to everyone.

Mordecai

<sup>19</sup>Even after all the young women had been transferred to the second harem* and Mordecai had become a palace official,* <sup>20</sup>Esther continued to keep her family background and nationality a secret. She was still following Mordecai's directions, just as she did when she lived in his home.

Mordecai's Loyalty to the King

heard about the plot and gave the information to Queen Esther. She then told the king about it and gave Mordecai credit for the report.<sup>23</sup> When an investigation was made and Mordecai's story was found to be true, the two men were impaled on a sharpened pole. This was all recorded in The Book of the History of King Xerxes' Reign.

Esther 3

Haman's Plot against the Jews

<sup>1</sup> Some time later King Xerxes promoted Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite over all the other nobles, making him the most powerful official in the empire. <sup>2</sup>All the king's officials would bow down before Haman to show him respect whenever he passed by, for so the king had commanded. But Mordecai refused to bow down or show him respect.

<sup>3</sup>Then the palace officials at the king's gate asked Mordecai, "Why are you disobeying the king's command?" <sup>4</sup>They spoke to him day after day, but still he refused to comply with the order. So they spoke to Haman about this to see if he would tolerate Mordecai's conduct, since Mordecai had told them he was a Jew.

<sup>5</sup>When Haman saw that Mordecai would not bow down or show him respect, he was filled with rage. <sup>6</sup>He had learned of Mordecai's nationality, so he decided it was not enough to lay hands on Mordecai alone. Instead, he looked for a way to destroy all the Jews throughout the entire empire of Xerxes.

<sup>7</sup>So in the month of April,* during the twelfth year of King Xerxes' reign, lots were cast in Haman's presence (the lots were called purim) to determine the best day and month to take action. And the day selected was March 7, nearly a year later.*

your empire who keep themselves separate from everyone else. Their laws are different from those of any other people, and they refuse to obey the laws of the king. So it is not in the king's interest to let them live. <sup>9</sup>If it please the king, issue a decree that they be destroyed, and I will give 10,000 large sacks* of silver to the government administrators to be deposited in the royal treasury."

<sup>12</sup>So on April 17* the king's secretaries were summoned, and a decree was written exactly as Haman dictated. It was sent to the king's highest officers, the governors of the respective provinces, and the nobles of each province in their own scripts and languages. The decree was written in the name of King Xerxes and sealed with the king's signet ring. <sup>13</sup>Dispatches were sent by swift messengers into all the provinces of the empire, giving the order that all Jews—young and old, including women and children—must be killed, slaughtered, and annihilated on a single day. This was scheduled to happen on March 7 of the next year.* The property of the Jews would be given to those who killed them.

<sup>14</sup>A copy of this decree was to be issued as law in every province and proclaimed to all peoples, so that they would be ready to do their duty on the appointed day. <sup>15</sup>At the king's command, the decree went out by swift messengers, and it was also proclaimed in the fortress of Susa. Then the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa fell into confusion.

Esther 4

Mordecai Requests Esther's Help

<sup>1</sup> When Mordecai learned about all that had been done, he tore his clothes, put on burlap and ashes, and went out into the city, crying with a loud and bitter wail. <sup>2</sup>He went as far as the gate of the palace, for no one was allowed to enter the palace gate while wearing clothes of mourning. <sup>3</sup>And as news of the king's decree reached all the provinces, there was great mourning among the Jews. They fasted, wept, and wailed, and many people lay in burlap and ashes.

<sup>4</sup>When Queen Esther's maids and eunuchs came and told her about Mordecai, she was deeply distressed. She sent clothing to him to replace the burlap, but he refused it. <sup>5</sup>Then Esther sent for Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs who had been appointed as her attendant. She ordered him to go to Mordecai and find out what was troubling him and why he was in mourning. <sup>6</sup>So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the square in front of the palace gate.

<sup>7</sup>Mordecai told him the whole story, including the exact amount of money Haman had promised to pay into the royal treasury for the destruction of the Jews. <sup>8</sup>Mordecai gave Hathach a copy of the decree issued in Susa that called for the death of all Jews. He asked Hathach to show it to Esther and explain the situation to her. He also asked Hathach to direct her to go to the king to beg for mercy and plead for her people. <sup>2</sup> So Hathach returned to Esther with Mordecai's message.

<sup>13</sup>Mordecai sent this reply to Esther: “Don't think for a moment that because you're in the palace you will escape when all other Jews are killed. <sup>14</sup>If you keep quiet at a time like this, deliverance and relief for the Jews will arise from some other place, but you and your relatives will die. Who knows if perhaps you were made queen for just such a time as this?”

<sup>15</sup>Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: <sup>16</sup>“Go and gather together all the Jews of Susa and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. My maids and I will do the same. And then, though it is against the law, I will go in to see the king. If I must die, I must die.” <sup>17</sup>So Mordecai went away and did everything as Esther had ordered him.

Esther's Request to the King

<sup>3</sup>Then the king asked her, "What do you want, Queen Esther? What is your request? I will give it to you, even if it is half the kingdom!"

<sup>5</sup>The king turned to his attendants and said, "Tell Haman to come quickly to a banquet, as Esther has requested." So the king and Haman went to Esther's banquet.

<sup>6</sup>And while they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, "Now tell me what you really want. What is your request? I will give it to you, even if it is half the kingdom!"

<sup>7</sup>Esther replied, "This is my request and deepest wish. <sup>8</sup>If I have found favor with the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my request and do what I ask, please come with Haman tomorrow to the banquet I will prepare for you. Then I will explain what this is all about."

Haman's Plan to Kill Mordecai

Then Haman gathered together his friends and Zeresh, his wife, <sup>11</sup> and boasted to them about his great wealth and his many children. He bragged about the honors the king had given him and how he had been promoted over all the other nobles and officials.

<sup>12</sup> Then Haman added, "And that's not all! Queen Esther invited only me and the king himself to the banquet she prepared for us. And she has invited me to dine with her and the king again tomorrow!" <sup>13</sup> Then he added, "But this is all worth nothing as long as I see Mordecai the Jew just sitting there at the palace gate."

<sup>14</sup> So Haman's wife, Zeresh, and all his friends suggested, "Set up a sharpened pole that stands seventy-five feet* tall, and in the morning ask the king to impale Mordecai on it. When this is done, you can go on your merry way to the banquet with the king." This pleased Haman, and he ordered the pole set up.

Esther 6

The King Honors Mordecai

<sup>1</sup> That night the king had trouble sleeping, so he ordered an attendant to bring the book of the history of his reign so it could be read to him. <sup>2</sup>In those records he discovered an account of how Mordecai had exposed the plot of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the eunuchs who guarded the door to the king's private quarters. They had plotted to assassinate King Xerxes.

His attendants replied, “Nothing has been done for him.”

“Bring him in,” the king ordered. <sup>6</sup>So Haman came in, and the king said, “What should I do to honor a man who truly pleases me?”

Haman thought to himself, “Whom would the king wish to honor more than me?” <sup>7</sup>So he replied, “If the king wishes to honor someone, <sup>8</sup>he should bring out one of the king's own royal robes, as well as a horse that the king himself has ridden

—one with a royal emblem on its head.<sup>9</sup> Let the robes and the horse be handed over to one of the king's most noble officials. And let him see that the man whom the king wishes to honor is dressed in the king's robes and led through the city square on the king's horse. Have the official shout as they go, 'This is what the king does for someone he wishes to honor!'"

<sup>13</sup>When Haman told his wife, Zeresh, and all his friends what had happened, his wise advisers and his wife said, "Since Mordecai—this man who has humiliated you—is of Jewish birth, you will never succeed in your plans against him. It will be fatal to continue opposing him."

Esther 7

The King Executes Haman

<sup>1</sup> So the king and Haman went to Queen Esther's banquet. <sup>2</sup> On this second occasion, while they were drinking wine, the king again said to Esther, "Tell me what you want, Queen Esther. What is your request? I will give it to you, even if it is half the kingdom!"

<sup>3</sup> Queen Esther replied, "If I have found favor with the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my request, I ask that my life and the lives of my people will be spared. <sup>4</sup> For my people and I have been sold to those who would kill, slaughter, and annihilate us. If we had merely been sold as slaves, I could remain quiet, for that would be too trivial a matter to warrant disturbing the king."

Haman, however, stayed behind to plead for his life with Queen Esther, for he knew that the king intended to kill him. <sup>8</sup> In despair he fell on the couch where Queen Esther was reclining, just as the king was returning from the palace garden.

The king exclaimed, "Will he even assault the queen right here in the palace, before my very eyes?" And as soon as the king spoke, his attendants covered Haman's face, signaling his doom.

<sup>9</sup>Then Harbona, one of the king's eunuchs, said, "Haman has set up a sharpened pole that stands seventy-five feet* tall in his own courtyard. He intended to use it to impale Mordecai, the man who saved the king from assassination."

"Then impale Haman on it!" the king ordered. <sup>10</sup>So they impaled Haman on the pole he had set up for Mordecai, and the king's anger subsided.

HANG 'EM HIGH

Death by hanging requires a scaffold (or tree limb) only slightly taller than a man's height. But Haman and his wife wanted theirs to be a super-spectacle—never guessing who would actually die on it (see Esther 5:14 and 7:9-10)

*Haman's contraption:
75 feet off the ground*

A normal gallows: Platform/trap door some 9 feet off the ground, sturdy crossbeam with a rope 18 feet off the ground

Esther 8

A Decree to Help the Jews

<sup>5</sup>Esther said, “If it please the king, and if I have found favor with him, and if he thinks it is right, and if I am pleasing to him, let there be a decree that reverses the orders of Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, who ordered that Jews throughout all the king’s provinces should be destroyed. <sup>6</sup>For how can I endure to see my people and my family slaughtered and destroyed?”

<sup>7</sup>Then King Xerxes said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew, “I have given Esther the property of Haman, and he has been impaled on a pole because he tried to destroy the Jews. <sup>8</sup>Now go ahead and send a message to the Jews in the king’s name, telling them whatever you want, and seal it with the king’s signet ring. But remember that whatever has already been written in the king's name and sealed with his signet ring can never be revoked."

<sup>9</sup>So on June 25* the king's secretaries were summoned, and a decree was written exactly as Mordecai dictated. It was sent to the Jews and to the highest officers, the governors, and the nobles of all the 127 provinces stretching from India to Ethiopia.* The decree was written in the scripts and languages of all the peoples of the empire, including that of the Jews.

celebrated the new decree. <sup>16</sup>The Jews were filled with joy and gladness and were honored everywhere. <sup>17</sup>In every province and city, wherever the king's decree arrived, the Jews rejoiced and had a great celebration and declared a public festival and holiday. And many of the people of the land became Jews themselves, for they feared what the Jews might do to them.

The Victory of the Jews

<sup>11</sup>That very day, when the king was informed of the number of people killed in the fortress of Susa, <sup>12</sup>he called for Queen Esther. He said, "The Jews have killed 500 men in the fortress of Susa alone, as well as Haman's ten sons. If they have done that here, what has happened in the rest of the provinces? But now, what more do you want? It will be granted to you; tell me and I will do it."

<sup>14</sup>So the king agreed, and the decree was announced in Susa. And they impaled the bodies of Haman's ten sons. <sup>15</sup>Then the Jews at Susa gathered together on March 8* and killed 300 more men, and again they took no plunder.

<sup>16</sup> Meanwhile, the other Jews throughout the king's provinces had gathered together to defend their lives. They gained relief from all their enemies, killing 75,000 of those who hated them. But they did not take any plunder. <sup>17</sup>This was done throughout the provinces on March 7, and on March 8 they rested,* celebrating their victory with a day of feasting and gladness. <sup>18</sup>(The Jews at Susa killed their enemies on March 7 and again on March 8, then rested on March 9,* making that their day of feasting and gladness.) <sup>19</sup>So to this day, rural Jews living in remote villages celebrate an annual festival and holiday on the appointed day in late winter,* when they rejoice and send gifts of food to each other.

The Festival of Purim

<sup>21</sup>calling on them to celebrate an annual festival on these two days.*<sup>22</sup>He told them to celebrate these days with feasting and gladness and by giving gifts of food to each other and presents to the poor. This would commemorate a time when the Jews gained relief from their enemies, when their sorrow was turned into gladness and their mourning into joy.

So because of Mordecai's letter and because of what they had experienced,<sup>27</sup>the Jews throughout the realm agreed to inaugurate this tradition and to pass it on to their descendants and to all who became Jews. They declared they would never fail to celebrate these two prescribed days at the appointed time each year.<sup>28</sup>These days would be remembered and kept from generation to generation and celebrated by every family throughout the provinces and cities of the empire. This Festival of Purim would never cease to be celebrated among the Jews, nor would the memory of what happened ever die out among their descendants.

authority behind Mordecai's letter to establish the Festival of Purim.<sup>30</sup> Letters wishing peace and security were sent to the Jews throughout the 127 provinces of the empire of Xerxes.<sup>31</sup> These letters established the Festival of Purim—an annual celebration of these days at the appointed time, decreed by both Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther. (The people decided to observe this festival, just as they had decided for themselves and their descendants to establish the times of fasting and mourning.)<sup>32</sup> So the command of Esther confirmed the practices of Purim, and it was all written down in the records.

The Greatness of Xerxes and Mordecai

Job

Prologue

<sup>1</sup> There once was a man named Job who lived in the land of Uz. He was blameless—a man of complete integrity. He feared God and stayed away from evil. <sup>2</sup>He had seven sons and three daughters. <sup>3</sup>He owned 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 teams of oxen, and 500 female donkeys. He also had many servants. He was, in fact, the richest person in that entire area.

<sup>4</sup>Job's sons would take turns preparing feasts in their homes, and they would also invite their three sisters to celebrate with them. <sup>5</sup>When these celebrations ended—sometimes after several days—Job would purify his children. He would get up early in the morning and offer a burnt offering for each of them. For Job said to himself, “Perhaps my children have sinned and have cursed God in their hearts.” This was Job's regular practice.

Job's First Test

<sup>6</sup>One day the members of the heavenly court* came to present themselves before the LORD, and the Accuser, Satan,* came with them. <sup>7</sup>“Where have you come from?” the LORD asked Satan.

Satan answered the LORD, “I have been patrolling the earth, watching everything that's going on.”

<sup>9</sup>Satan replied to the LORD, “Yes, but Job has good reason to fear God. <sup>10</sup>You have always put a wall of protection around him and his home and his property. You have made him prosper in everything he does. Look how rich he is! <sup>11</sup>But reach out and take away everything he has, and he will surely curse you to your face!”

whatever you want with everything he possesses, but don't harm him physically." So Satan left the LORD's presence.

<sup>16</sup>While he was still speaking, another messenger arrived with this news: "The fire of God has fallen from heaven and burned up your sheep and all the shepherds. I am the only one who escaped to tell you."

<sup>17</sup>While he was still speaking, a third messenger arrived with this news: "Three bands of Chaldean raiders have stolen your camels and killed your servants. I am the only one who escaped to tell you."

<sup>18</sup>While he was still speaking, another messenger arrived with this news: "Your sons and daughters were feasting in their oldest brother's home. <sup>19</sup>Suddenly, a powerful wind swept in from the wilderness and hit the house on all sides. The house collapsed, and all your children are dead. I am the only one who escaped to tell you."

“I came naked from my mother’s womb, and I will be naked when I leave.

The LORD gave me what I had,

and the LORD has taken it away.
Praise the name of the LORD!”

<sup>22</sup>In all of this, Job did not sin by blaming God.

Job 2

Job's Second Test

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD asked Satan, “Have you noticed my servant Job? He is the finest man in all the earth. He is blameless—a man of complete integrity. He fears God and stays away from evil. And he has maintained his integrity, even though you urged me to harm him without cause.”

<sup>8</sup>Job scraped his skin with a piece of broken pottery as he sat among the ashes. <sup>9</sup>His wife said to him, “Are you still trying to maintain your integrity? Curse God and die.”

<sup>10</sup>But Job replied, “You talk like a foolish woman. Should we accept only good things from the hand of God and never anything bad?” So in all this, Job said nothing wrong.

Job's Three Friends Share His Anguish

<sup>11</sup> When three of Job's friends heard of the tragedy he had suffered, they got together and traveled from their homes to comfort and console him. Their names were Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. <sup>12</sup>When they saw Job from a distance, they scarcely recognized him. Wailing loudly, they tore their robes and threw dust into the air over their heads to show their grief. <sup>13</sup>Then they sat on the ground with him for seven days and nights. No one said a word to Job, for they saw that his suffering was too great for words.

Job's First Speech

<sup>3</sup>“Let the day of my birth be erased,
and the night I was conceived.

<sup>4</sup>Let that day be turned to darkness.
Let it be lost even to God on high,
and let no light shine on it.

<sup>5</sup>Let the darkness and utter gloom claim that day for its own.
Let a black cloud overshadow it,
and let the darkness terrify it.

<sup>6</sup>Let that night be blotted off the calendar,
never again to be counted among the days of the year,
never again to appear among the months.

<sup>7</sup>Let that night be childless.
Let it have no joy.

<sup>8</sup>Let those who are experts at cursing—whose cursing could rouse Leviathan*— curse that day.

Let it hope for light, but in vain;
may it never see the morning light.

<sup>10</sup>Curse that day for failing to shut my mother's womb, for letting me be born to see all this trouble.

<sup>11</sup>“Why wasn’t I born dead?

Why didn’t I die as I came from the womb?

<sup>12</sup>Why was I laid on my mother’s lap?

Why did she nurse me at her breasts?

I would be asleep and at rest.

whose great buildings now lie in ruins.

<sup>15</sup>I would rest with princes, rich in gold, whose palaces were filled with silver.

<sup>16</sup>Why wasn’t I buried like a stillborn child, like a baby who never lives to see the light?

<sup>17</sup>For in death the wicked cause no trouble,
and the weary are at rest.

<sup>18</sup>Even captives are at ease in death,
with no guards to curse them.

<sup>19</sup>Rich and poor are both there,
and the slave is free from his master.

<sup>20</sup>“Oh, why give light to those in misery,
and life to those who are bitter?

<sup>21</sup>They long for death, and it won’t come.

They search for death more eagerly than for hidden treasure.

and rejoice when they find the grave.

those God has surrounded with difficulties?

my groans pour out like water.

<sup>25</sup>What I always feared has happened to me.
What I dreaded has come true.

I have no rest; only trouble comes.”

Job's Friends

Job 4

Eliphaz's First Response to Job

<sup>1</sup>Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied to Job:

For who could keep from speaking out?

<sup>3</sup>“In the past you have encouraged many people;
you have strengthened those who were weak.

<sup>4</sup>Your words have supported those who were falling;
you encouraged those with shaky knees.

You are terrified when it touches you.

Doesn't your life of integrity give you hope?

When have the upright been destroyed?

<sup>8</sup>My experience shows that those who plant trouble and cultivate evil will harvest the same.

They vanish in a blast of his anger.

<sup>10</sup>The lion roars and the wildcat snarls,
but the teeth of strong lions will be broken.

and the cubs of the lioness will be scattered.

<sup>12</sup>“This truth was given to me in secret,
as though whispered in my ear.

<sup>13</sup>It came to me in a disturbing vision at night, when people are in a deep sleep.

<sup>14</sup>Fear gripped me,
and my bones trembled.

<sup>15</sup>A spirit* swept past my face, and my hair stood on end.*

There was a form before my eyes.

In the silence I heard a voice say,

<sup>17</sup>“Can a mortal be innocent before God?
Can anyone be pure before the Creator?”

<sup>18</sup>“If God does not trust his own angels and has charged his messengers with foolishness,

<sup>19</sup>how much less will he trust people made of clay!

They are made of dust, crushed as easily as a moth.

<sup>20</sup>They are alive in the morning but dead by evening, gone forever without a trace.

<sup>21</sup>Their tent-cords are pulled and the tent collapses, and they die in ignorance.

Job 5

Eliphaz's Response Continues

<sup>1</sup>“Cry for help, but will anyone answer you?

Which of the angels * will help you?

and jealousy kills the simple.

but then comes sudden disaster.

they are crushed in court with no one to defend them.

even when it is guarded by brambles. *

The thirsty pant after their wealth.

<sup>6</sup>But evil does not spring from the soil,
and trouble does not sprout from the earth.

<sup>7</sup>People are born for trouble
as readily as sparks fly up from a fire.

<sup>8</sup>“If I were you, I would go to God and present my case to him.

He performs countless miracles.

<sup>10</sup>He gives rain for the earth and water for the fields.

<sup>11</sup>He gives prosperity to the poor and protects those who suffer.

<sup>12</sup>He frustrates the plans of schemers
so the work of their hands will not succeed.

<sup>13</sup>He traps the wise in their own cleverness
so their cunning schemes are thwarted.

<sup>14</sup>They find it is dark in the daytime,
and they grope at noon as if it were night.

<sup>15</sup>He rescues the poor from the cutting words of the strong,
and rescues them from the clutches of the powerful.

<sup>16</sup>And so at last the poor have hope,
and the snapping jaws of the wicked are shut.

<sup>17</sup>“But consider the joy of those corrected by God!
Do not despise the discipline of the Almighty when you sin.

<sup>18</sup>For though he wounds, he also bandages.
He strikes, but his hands also heal.

<sup>19</sup>From six disasters he will rescue you;
even in the seventh, he will keep you from evil.

<sup>20</sup>He will save you from death in time of famine,
from the power of the sword in time of war.

<sup>21</sup>You will be safe from slander and have no fear when destruction comes.

<sup>22</sup>You will laugh at destruction and famine;
wild animals will not terrify you.

<sup>23</sup>You will be at peace with the stones of the field, and its wild animals will be at peace with you.

When you survey your possessions, nothing will be missing.

<sup>25</sup>You will have many children;
your descendants will be as plentiful as grass!
<sup>26</sup>You will go to the grave at a ripe old age, like a sheaf of grain harvested at the proper time!

Listen to my counsel, and apply it to yourself.”

What the Bible Says about

Weakness

Job 6

Job's Second Speech: A Response to Eliphaz

<sup>2</sup>“If my misery could be weighed and my troubles be put on the scales, <sup>3</sup>they would outweigh all the sands of the sea.

That is why I spoke impulsively.

Their poison infects my spirit.
God's terrors are lined up against me.

Don't wild donkeys bray when they find no grass,
and oxen bellow when they have no food?

Does anyone want the tasteless white of an egg?*

<sup>7</sup>My appetite disappears when I look at it;
I gag at the thought of eating it!

<sup>8</sup>“Oh, that I might have my request, that God would grant my desire.

<sup>9</sup>I wish he would crush me.
I wish he would reach out his hand and kill me.

<sup>10</sup>At least I can take comfort in this:
Despite the pain,

I have not denied the words of the Holy One.

<sup>11</sup>But I don't have the strength to endure.

I have nothing to live for.

<sup>12</sup>Do I have the strength of a stone?

Is my body made of bronze?

<sup>13</sup>No, I am utterly helpless, without any chance of success.

<sup>14</sup>“One should be kind to a fainting friend,
but you accuse me without any fear of the Almighty.*

<sup>15</sup>My brothers, you have proved as unreliable as a seasonal brook

that overflows its banks in the spring

The brook vanishes in the heat.

but there is nothing to drink, so they die.

the travelers from Sheba hope to find it.

<sup>20</sup>They count on it but are disappointed.
When they arrive, their hopes are dashed.

You have seen my calamity, and you are afraid.

<sup>22</sup>But why? Have I ever asked you for a gift?
Have I begged for anything of yours for myself?

<sup>23</sup>Have I asked you to rescue me from my enemies, or to save me from ruthless people?

<sup>24</sup>Teach me, and I will keep quiet.
Show me what I have done wrong.

but what do your criticisms amount to?

<sup>26</sup>Do you think your words are convincing
when you disregard my cry of desperation?

or sell a friend.

Would I lie to your face?

<sup>29</sup>Stop assuming my guilt,
for I have done no wrong.

<sup>30</sup>Do you think I am lying?
Don't I know the difference between right and wrong?

Job 7

<sup>1</sup>“Is not all human life a struggle?
Our lives are like that of a hired hand, <sup>2</sup>like a worker who longs for the shade,
like a servant waiting to be paid.
<sup>3</sup>I, too, have been assigned months of futility, long and weary nights of misery.
<sup>4</sup>Lying in bed, I think, ‘When will it be morning?’
But the night drags on, and I toss till dawn.
<sup>5</sup>My body is covered with maggots and scabs.
My skin breaks open, oozing with pus.

Job Cries Out to God

<sup>6</sup>“My days fly faster than a weaver’s shuttle.
They end without hope.
<sup>7</sup>O God, remember that my life is but a breath, and I will never again feel happiness.
<sup>8</sup>You see me now, but not for long.
You will look for me, but I will be gone.
<sup>9</sup>Just as a cloud dissipates and vanishes, those who die* will not come back.
<sup>10</sup>They are gone forever from their home—
never to be seen again.

<sup>11</sup>“I cannot keep from speaking.
I must express my anguish.

My bitter soul must complain.

<sup>12</sup>Am I a sea monster or a dragon that you must place me under guard?

<sup>13</sup>I think, 'My bed will comfort me,
and sleep will ease my misery,'

<sup>14</sup>but then you shatter me with dreams and terrify me with visions.

<sup>15</sup>I would rather be strangled—
rather die than suffer like this.

Oh, leave me alone for my few remaining days.

<sup>17</sup>"What are people, that you should make so much of us, that you should think of us so often?

<sup>18</sup>For you examine us every morning and test us every moment.

<sup>19</sup>Why won't you leave me alone,
at least long enough for me to swallow!

<sup>20</sup>If I have sinned, what have I done to you,
O watcher of all humanity?

Why make me your target?
Am I a burden to you?

<sup>21</sup>Why not just forgive my sin and take away my guilt?
For soon I will lie down in the dust and die.
When you look for me, I will be gone."

Job 8

Bildad's First Response to Job

<sup>1</sup> Then Bildad the Shuhite replied to Job:

Does the Almighty twist what is right?

<sup>4</sup>Your children must have sinned against him,
so their punishment was well deserved.

<sup>5</sup>But if you pray to God and seek the favor of the Almighty,

<sup>6</sup>and if you are pure and live with integrity,
he will surely rise up and restore your happy home.

<sup>7</sup>And though you started with little,
you will end with much.

<sup>8</sup>“Just ask the previous generation.

Pay attention to the experience of our ancestors.

<sup>9</sup>For we were born but yesterday and know nothing.

Our days on earth are as fleeting as a shadow.

<sup>10</sup>But those who came before us will teach you.

They will teach you the wisdom of old.

<sup>11</sup>“Can papyrus reeds grow tall without a marsh?

Can marsh grass flourish without water?

they begin to wither more quickly than grass.

The hopes of the godless evaporate.

They are leaning on a spider's web.

They try to hold it tight, but it will not endure.

its branches spreading across the garden.

it takes hold on a bed of rocks.

<sup>18</sup>But when it is uprooted,
it's as though it never existed!

<sup>19</sup>That's the end of its life,
and others spring up from the earth to replace it.

<sup>20</sup>“But look, God will not reject a person of integrity, nor will he lend a hand to the wicked.

<sup>21</sup>He will once again fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy.

<sup>22</sup>Those who hate you will be clothed with shame, and the home of the wicked will be destroyed.”

Job 9

Job's Third Speech: A Response to Bildad

But how can a person be declared innocent in God's sight?

<sup>3</sup>If someone wanted to take God to court, *

would it be possible to answer him even once in a thousand times?

<sup>4</sup>For God is so wise and so mighty.

Who has ever challenged him successfully?

<sup>5</sup>“Without warning, he moves the mountains, overturning them in his anger.

<sup>6</sup>He shakes the earth from its place,
and its foundations tremble.

<sup>7</sup>If he commands it, the sun won't rise and the stars won't shine.

<sup>8</sup>He alone has spread out the heavens and marches on the waves of the sea.

<sup>9</sup>He made all the stars—the Bear and Orion,
the Pleiades and the constellations of the southern sky.

He performs countless miracles.

<sup>11</sup>“Yet when he comes near, I cannot see him.

When he moves by, I do not see him go.

Who dares to ask, ‘What are you doing?’

<sup>13</sup>And God does not restrain his anger.

Even the monsters of the sea* are crushed beneath his feet.

<sup>14</sup>“So who am I, that I should try to answer God or even reason with him?

<sup>15</sup>Even if I were right, I would have no defense.

I could only plead for mercy.

<sup>16</sup>And even if I summoned him and he responded,

I’m not sure he would listen to me.

<sup>17</sup>For he attacks me with a storm and repeatedly wounds me without cause.

<sup>18</sup>He will not let me catch my breath,

but fills me instead with bitter sorrows.

If it’s a matter of justice, who dares to summon him to court?

<sup>20</sup>Though I am innocent, my own mouth would pronounce me guilty.

Though I am blameless, it* would prove me wicked.

<sup>21</sup>“I am innocent, but it makes no difference to me—

I despise my life.

<sup>22</sup>Innocent or wicked, it is all the same to God.

That’s why I say, ‘He destroys both the blameless and the wicked.’

he laughs at the death of the innocent.

<sup>24</sup>The whole earth is in the hands of the wicked, and God blinds the eyes of the judges.
If he’s not the one who does it, who is?

It flees away without a glimpse of happiness.

like an eagle swooping down on its prey.

<sup>27</sup>If I decided to forget my complaints,
to put away my sad face and be cheerful,

<sup>28</sup>I would still dread all the pain,
for I know you will not find me innocent, O God.

<sup>29</sup>Whatever happens, I will be found guilty.
So what’s the use of trying?

<sup>30</sup>Even if I were to wash myself with soap and clean my hands with lye,

<sup>31</sup>you would plunge me into a muddy ditch,
and my own filthy clothing would hate me.

<sup>32</sup>“God is not a mortal like me,
so I cannot argue with him or take him to trial.

<sup>33</sup>If only there were a mediator between us, someone who could bring us together.

<sup>34</sup>The mediator could make God stop beating me, and I would no longer live in terror of his punishment.

<sup>35</sup>Then I could speak to him without fear, but I cannot do that in my own strength.

Job 10

Job Frames His Plea to God

<sup>1</sup>“I am disgusted with my life.

Let me complain freely.

My bitter soul must complain.

tell me the charge you are bringing against me.

<sup>3</sup>What do you gain by oppressing me?

Why do you reject me, the work of your own hands,
while smiling on the schemes of the wicked?

<sup>4</sup>Are your eyes like those of a human?

Do you see things only as people see them?

<sup>5</sup>Is your lifetime only as long as ours?

Is your life so short

<sup>6</sup>that you must quickly probe for my guilt and search for my sin?

<sup>7</sup>Although you know I am not guilty,
no one can rescue me from your hands.

<sup>8</sup>“You formed me with your hands; you made me, yet now you completely destroy me.

<sup>9</sup>Remember that you made me from dust—will you turn me back to dust so soon?

<sup>10</sup>You guided my conception and formed me in the womb.*

<sup>11</sup>You clothed me with skin and flesh, and you knit my bones and sinews together.

My life was preserved by your care.

your true intent—

<sup>14</sup>was to watch me, and if I sinned, you would not forgive my guilt.

<sup>15</sup>If I am guilty, too bad for me;
and even if I’m innocent, I can’t hold my head high,
because I am filled with shame and misery.

<sup>16</sup>And if I hold my head high, you hunt me like a lion and display your awesome power against me.

<sup>17</sup>Again and again you witness against me.
You pour out your growing anger on me and bring fresh armies against me.

<sup>18</sup>“Why, then, did you deliver me from my mother’s womb?
Why didn’t you let me die at birth?

<sup>19</sup>It would be as though I had never existed, going directly from the womb to the grave.

<sup>20</sup>I have only a few days left, so leave me alone, that I may have a moment of comfort

<sup>21</sup>before I leave—never to return—for the land of darkness and utter gloom.

<sup>22</sup>It is a land as dark as midnight,
a land of gloom and confusion,

where even the light is dark as midnight.””

Job 11

Zophar's First Response to Job

Is a person proved innocent just by a lot of talking?

When you mock God, shouldn’t someone make you ashamed?

and ‘I am clean in the sight of God.’

<sup>5</sup>If only God would speak;
if only he would tell you what he thinks!

<sup>6</sup>If only he would tell you the secrets of wisdom, for true wisdom is not a simple matter.

Listen! God is doubtless punishing you far less than you deserve!

<sup>7</sup>“Can you solve the mysteries of God?

Can you discover everything about the Almighty?

<sup>8</sup>Such knowledge is higher than the heavens—and who are you?

It is deeper than the underworld*—
what do you know?

<sup>9</sup>It is broader than the earth and wider than the sea.

<sup>10</sup>If God comes and puts a person in prison or calls the court to order, who can stop him?

<sup>11</sup>For he knows those who are false,
and he takes note of all their sins.

<sup>12</sup>An empty-headed person won't become wise any more than a wild donkey can bear a human child.*

<sup>13</sup> “If only you would prepare your heart and lift up your hands to him in prayer!

<sup>14</sup>Get rid of your sins,
and leave all iniquity behind you.

<sup>15</sup>Then your face will brighten with innocence.
You will be strong and free of fear.

<sup>16</sup>You will forget your misery;
it will be like water flowing away.

<sup>17</sup>Your life will be brighter than the noonday.
Even darkness will be as bright as morning.

<sup>18</sup>Having hope will give you courage.
You will be protected and will rest in safety.

<sup>19</sup>You will lie down unafraid, and many will look to you for help.

<sup>20</sup>But the wicked will be blinded.
They will have no escape.
Their only hope is death.”

Job 12

Job's Fourth Speech: A Response to Zophar

And when you die, wisdom will die with you!

<sup>3</sup>Well, I know a few things myself—
and you’re no better than I am.

Who doesn’t know these things you’ve been saying?

<sup>4</sup>Yet my friends laugh at me,
for I call on God and expect an answer.
I am a just and blameless man,
yet they laugh at me.

They give a push to people who are stumbling.

and those who provoke God live in safety—
though God keeps them in his power.

<sup>7</sup>“Just ask the animals, and they will teach you.
Ask the birds of the sky, and they will tell you.

<sup>8</sup>Speak to the earth, and it will instruct you.
Let the fish in the sea speak to you.

<sup>9</sup>For they all know that my disaster* has come from the hand of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>For the life of every living thing is in his hand, and the breath of every human being.

<sup>11</sup>The ear tests the words it hears
just as the mouth distinguishes between foods.

<sup>12</sup>Wisdom belongs to the aged,
and understanding to the old.

<sup>13</sup>“But true wisdom and power are found in God;
counsel and understanding are his.

When he puts someone in prison, there is no escape.

If he releases the waters, they flood the earth.

<sup>16</sup>Yes, strength and wisdom are his;
deceivers and deceived are both in his power.

They are led away with ropes around their waist.

<sup>19</sup>He leads priests away, stripped of status;
he overthrows those with long years in power.

<sup>20</sup>He silences the trusted adviser and removes the insight of the elders.

<sup>21</sup>He pours disgrace upon princes and disarms the strong.

<sup>22</sup>“He uncovers mysteries hidden in darkness;
he brings light to the deepest gloom.

He expands nations, and he abandons them.

<sup>24</sup>He strips kings of understanding

He makes them stagger like drunkards.

Job 13

Job Wants to Argue His Case with God

<sup>1</sup>“Look, I have seen all this with my own eyes and heard it with my own ears, and now I understand.

<sup>2</sup>I know as much as you do.

You are no better than I am.

I want to argue my case with God himself.

<sup>4</sup>As for you, you smear me with lies.

As physicians, you are worthless quacks.

<sup>5</sup>If only you could be silent!

That’s the wisest thing you could do.

<sup>6</sup>Listen to my charge;
pay attention to my arguments.

<sup>7</sup>“Are you defending God with lies?

Do you make your dishonest arguments for his sake?

<sup>8</sup>Will you slant your testimony in his favor?

Will you argue God’s case for him?

<sup>9</sup>What will happen when he finds out what you are doing?
Can you fool him as easily as you fool people?

<sup>10</sup>No, you will be in trouble with him
if you secretly slant your testimony in his favor.

Doesn’t your fear of him overwhelm you?

<sup>12</sup>Your platitudes are as valuable as ashes.
Your defense is as fragile as a clay pot.

<sup>13</sup>“Be silent now and leave me alone.
Let me speak, and I will face the consequences.

<sup>14</sup> Yes, I will take my life in my hands and say what I really think.

I am going to argue my case with him.

<sup>16</sup>But this is what will save me—I am not godless.
If I were, I could not stand before him.

Hear me out.

<sup>18</sup>I have prepared my case;
I will be proved innocent.

<sup>19</sup>Who can argue with me over this?
And if you prove me wrong, I will remain silent and die.

Job Asks How He Has Sinned

<sup>20</sup>“O God, grant me these two things, and then I will be able to face you.

<sup>21</sup>Remove your heavy hand from me,
and don't terrify me with your awesome presence.

<sup>22</sup>Now summon me, and I will answer!
Or let me speak to you, and you reply.

<sup>23</sup>Tell me, what have I done wrong?
Show me my rebellion and my sin.

Why do you treat me as your enemy?

Would you chase dry straw?

<sup>26</sup>“You write bitter accusations against me and bring up all the sins of my youth.

You examine all my paths.

You trace all my footprints.

<sup>28</sup>I waste away like rotting wood,
like a moth-eaten coat.

<sup>1</sup>“How frail is humanity!

How short is life, how full of trouble!

Like a passing shadow, we quickly disappear.

<sup>3</sup>Must you keep an eye on such a frail creature and demand an accounting from me?

No one!

<sup>5</sup>You have decided the length of our lives.

You know how many months we will live,
and we are not given a minute longer.

<sup>6</sup>So leave us alone and let us rest!

We are like hired hands, so let us finish our work in peace.

<sup>7</sup>“Even a tree has more hope!

If it is cut down, it will sprout again and grow new branches.

<sup>8</sup>Though its roots have grown old in the earth and its stump decays,

<sup>9</sup>at the scent of water it will bud and sprout again like a new seedling.

<sup>10</sup>“But when people die, their strength is gone.

They breathe their last, and then where are they?

and a river disappears in drought,

<sup>12</sup>people are laid to rest and do not rise again.

Until the heavens are no more, they will not wake up nor be roused from their sleep.

and forget me there until your anger has passed.

But mark your calendar to think of me again!

<sup>14</sup>Can the dead live again?

If so, this would give me hope through all my years of struggle,

and I would eagerly await the release of death.

<sup>15</sup>You would call and I would answer,

and you would yearn for me, your handiwork.

<sup>16</sup>For then you would guard my steps,
instead of watching for my sins.

<sup>17</sup>My sins would be sealed in a pouch,
and you would cover my guilt.

<sup>18</sup>“But instead, as mountains fall and crumble and as rocks fall from a cliff,

<sup>19</sup>as water wears away the stones and floods wash away the soil, so you destroy people’s hope.

You disfigure them in death and send them away.

or sink to insignificance.

their life is full of trouble.”

Job 15

Eliphaz's Second Response to Job

You are nothing but a windbag.

What good are such words?

<sup>4</sup>Have you no fear of God,
no reverence for him?

Your words are based on clever deception.

Your own lips testify against you.

<sup>7</sup>“Were you the first person ever born?
Were you born before the hills were made?

Do you have a monopoly on wisdom?

<sup>9</sup>What do you know that we don’t?
What do you understand that we do not?

<sup>10</sup>On our side are aged, gray-haired men much older than your father!

<sup>11</sup>“Is God’s comfort too little for you?

Is his gentle word not enough?

<sup>12</sup>What has taken away your reason?

What has weakened your vision, *

<sup>13</sup>that you turn against God and say all these evil things?

<sup>14</sup>Can any mortal be pure?

Can anyone born of a woman be just?

Even the heavens are not absolutely pure in his sight.

with a thirst for wickedness!

17 “If you will listen, I will show you.

I will answer you from my own experience.

<sup>18</sup>And it is confirmed by the reports of wise men who have heard the same thing from their fathers—

<sup>19</sup>from those to whom the land was given long before any foreigners arrived.

Years of trouble are stored up for the ruthless.

and even on good days they fear the attack of the destroyer.

<sup>22</sup>They dare not go out into the darkness for fear they will be murdered.

They know their day of destruction is near.

They live in distress and anguish,
like a king preparing for battle.

defying the Almighty.

<sup>26</sup>Holding their strong shields,
they defiantly charge against him.

<sup>27</sup>“These wicked people are heavy and prosperous;
their waists bulge with fat.

<sup>28</sup>But their cities will be ruined.
They will live in abandoned houses that are ready to tumble down.

<sup>29</sup>Their riches will not last,
and their wealth will not endure.
Their possessions will no longer spread across the horizon.

<sup>30</sup>“They will not escape the darkness.
The burning sun will wither their shoots,
and the breath of God will destroy them.

<sup>31</sup>Let them no longer fool themselves by trusting in empty riches,
for emptiness will be their only reward.

<sup>32</sup>Like trees, they will be cut down in the prime of life;
their branches will never again be green.

<sup>33</sup>They will be like a vine whose grapes are harvested too early,
like an olive tree that loses its blossoms before the fruit can form.

Their homes, enriched through bribery, will burn.

Their womb produces deceit.”

Job 16

Job's Fifth Speech: A Response to Eliphaz

What miserable comforters you are!

<sup>3</sup> Won't you ever stop blowing hot air?

What makes you keep on talking?

<sup>4</sup> I could say the same things if you were in my place.

I could spout off criticism and shake my head at you.

<sup>5</sup> But if it were me, I would encourage you.

I would try to take away your grief.

<sup>6</sup> Instead, I suffer if I defend myself,
and I suffer no less if I refuse to speak.

<sup>7</sup>“O God, you have ground me down and devastated my family.

<sup>8</sup> As if to prove I have sinned, you've reduced me to skin and bones.

My gaunt flesh testifies against me.

<sup>9</sup> God hates me and angrily tears me apart.

He snaps his teeth at me and pierces me with his eyes.

<sup>10</sup> People jeer and laugh at me.

They slap my cheek in contempt.

A mob gathers against me.

<sup>11</sup>God has handed me over to sinners.

He has tossed me into the hands of the wicked.

<sup>12</sup>“I was living quietly until he shattered me.

He took me by the neck and broke me in pieces.

Then he set me up as his target,

<sup>13</sup>and now his archers surround me.

His arrows pierce me without mercy.

The ground is wet with my blood.*

<sup>14</sup>Again and again he smashes against me, charging at me like a warrior.

<sup>15</sup>I wear burlap to show my grief.

My pride lies in the dust.

<sup>16</sup>My eyes are red with weeping;
dark shadows circle my eyes.

<sup>17</sup>Yet I have done no wrong,
and my prayer is pure.

<sup>18</sup> “O earth, do not conceal my blood.

Let it cry out on my behalf.

My advocate is there on high.

<sup>20</sup>My friends scorn me,
but I pour out my tears to God.

<sup>21</sup>I need someone to mediate between God and me, as a person mediates between friends.

<sup>22</sup>For soon I must go down that road from which I will never return.

Job 17

Job Continues to Defend His Innocence

<sup>1</sup>“My spirit is crushed, and my life is nearly snuffed out.
The grave is ready to receive me.

I watch how bitterly they taunt me.

<sup>3</sup>“You must defend my innocence, O God, since no one else will stand up for me.

<sup>4</sup>You have closed their minds to understanding, but do not let them triumph.

so let their children faint with hunger.

<sup>6</sup>“God has made a mockery of me among the people;
they spit in my face.

<sup>7</sup>My eyes are swollen with weeping, and I am but a shadow of my former self.

<sup>8</sup>The virtuous are horrified when they see me.
The innocent rise up against the ungodly.

<sup>9</sup>The righteous keep moving forward, and those with clean hands become stronger and stronger.

<sup>10</sup>“As for all of you, come back with a better argument, though I still won't find a wise man among you.

My hopes have disappeared.

My heart's desires are broken.

<sup>12</sup>These men say that night is day;
they claim that the darkness is light.

and make my bed in darkness?

<sup>14</sup>What if I call the grave my father, and the maggot my mother or my sister?

<sup>15</sup>Where then is my hope?

Can anyone find it?

<sup>16</sup>No, my hope will go down with me to the grave.
We will rest together in the dust!"

Job 18

Bildad's Second Response to Job

Speak sense if you want us to answer!

<sup>3</sup>Do you think we are mere animals?
Do you think we are stupid?

<sup>4</sup>You may tear out your hair in anger,
but will that destroy the earth?
Will it make the rocks tremble?

<sup>5</sup>“Surely the light of the wicked will be snuffed out.
The sparks of their fire will not glow.

The lamp hanging above them will be quenched.

Their own schemes will be their downfall.

They fall into a pit.

A snare holds them tight.

<sup>10</sup>A noose lies hidden on the ground.
A rope is stretched across their path.

<sup>11</sup>“Terrors surround the wicked and trouble them at every step.

and calamity waits for them to stumble.

death devours their limbs.

<sup>14</sup>They are torn from the security of their homes and are brought down to the king of terrors.

<sup>15</sup>The homes of the wicked will burn down;
burning sulfur rains on their houses.

<sup>16</sup>Their roots will dry up,
and their branches will wither.

<sup>17</sup>All memory of their existence will fade from the earth;
no one will remember their names.

<sup>18</sup>They will be thrust from light into darkness, driven from the world.

<sup>19</sup>They will have neither children nor grandchildren, nor any survivor in the place where they lived.

people in the east are horrified.

<sup>21</sup>They will say, “This was the home of a wicked person, the place of one who rejected God.””

Job 19

Job's Sixth Speech: A Response to Bildad

<sup>2</sup>“How long will you torture me?

How long will you try to crush me with your words?

<sup>3</sup>You have already insulted me ten times.

You should be ashamed of treating me so badly.

<sup>4</sup>Even if I have sinned, that is my concern, not yours.

<sup>5</sup>You think you're better than I am, using my humiliation as evidence of my sin.

<sup>6</sup>But it is God who has wronged me, capturing me in his net.*

I protest, but there is no justice.

<sup>8</sup>God has blocked my way so I cannot move.
He has plunged my path into darkness.

<sup>9</sup>He has stripped me of my honor and removed the crown from my head.

<sup>10</sup>He has demolished me on every side, and I am finished.
He has uprooted my hope like a fallen tree.

he counts me as an enemy.

They build up roads to attack me.
They camp all around my tent.

<sup>13</sup>“My relatives stay far away,
and my friends have turned against me.

<sup>14</sup>My family is gone,
and my close friends have forgotten me.

<sup>15</sup>My servants and maids consider me a stranger.
I am like a foreigner to them.

<sup>16</sup>When I call my servant, he doesn't come;
I have to plead with him!

<sup>17</sup>My breath is repulsive to my wife.
I am rejected by my own family.

When I stand to speak, they turn their backs on me.

Those I loved have turned against me.

<sup>20</sup>I have been reduced to skin and bones and have escaped death by the skin of my teeth.

<sup>21</sup>“Have mercy on me, my friends, have mercy, for the hand of God has struck me.

<sup>22</sup>Must you also persecute me, like God does?
Haven't you chewed me up enough?

23 “Oh, that my words could be recorded.
Oh, that they could be inscribed on a monument,

<sup>24</sup>carved with an iron chisel and filled with lead, engraved forever in the rock.

<sup>25</sup>“But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, and he will stand upon the earth at last.

---

PERSPECTIVES

I know that my Redeemer lives, and he will stand upon the earth at last.

JOB 19:25

Fire is the test of gold; adversity, of strong men.

SENECA (4 B.C.–A.D. 65), ROMAN PHILOSOPHER AND DRAMATIST

<sup>26</sup>And after my body has decayed, yet in my body I will see God!*

<sup>27</sup>I will see him for myself.

Yes, I will see him with my own eyes.

I am overwhelmed at the thought!

When Loved Ones Turn Away

<sup>28</sup> “How dare you go on persecuting me, saying, ‘It’s his own fault’?”

<sup>29</sup> You should fear punishment yourselves, for your attitude deserves punishment.
Then you will know that there is indeed a judgment.”

Job 20

Zophar's Second Response to Job

because I am greatly disturbed.
<sup>3</sup>I’ve had to endure your insults,
but now my spirit prompts me to reply.

<sup>4</sup>“Don’t you realize that from the beginning of time, ever since people were first placed on the earth, <sup>5</sup>the triumph of the wicked has been short lived and the joy of the godless has been only temporary?
<sup>6</sup>Though the pride of the godless reaches to the heavens and their heads touch the clouds, <sup>7</sup>yet they will vanish forever, thrown away like their own dung.
Those who knew them will ask,
‘Where are they?’
<sup>8</sup>They will fade like a dream and not be found.
They will vanish like a vision in the night.
<sup>9</sup>Those who once saw them will see them no more.
Their families will never see them again.
<sup>10</sup>Their children will beg from the poor, for they must give back their stolen riches.

their bones will lie in the dust.

<sup>12</sup>“They enjoyed the sweet taste of wickedness, letting it melt under their tongue.

holding it long in their mouths.

a poisonous venom in their stomach.

God won't let them keep it down.

<sup>16</sup>They will suck the poison of cobras.
The viper will kill them.

<sup>17</sup>They will never again enjoy streams of olive oil or rivers of milk and honey.

<sup>18</sup>They will give back everything they worked for.
Their wealth will bring them no joy.

They foreclosed on their homes.

<sup>20</sup>They were always greedy and never satisfied.
Nothing remains of all the things they dreamed about.

Therefore, their prosperity will not endure.

<sup>22</sup>“In the midst of plenty, they will run into trouble and be overcome by misery.

<sup>23</sup>May God give them a bellyful of trouble.
May God rain down his anger upon them.

a bronze-tipped arrow will pierce them.

<sup>25</sup>The arrow is pulled from their back,
and the arrowhead glistens with blood.*

The terrors of death are upon them.

<sup>26</sup>Their treasures will be thrown into deepest darkness.

A wildfire will devour their goods, consuming all they have left.

<sup>27</sup>The heavens will reveal their guilt,
and the earth will testify against them.

God's anger will descend on them in torrents.

It is the inheritance decreed by God."

Job 21

Job's Seventh Speech: A Response to Zophar

That’s one consolation you can give me.

<sup>3</sup> Bear with me, and let me speak.

After I have spoken, you may resume mocking me.

I have good reason to be so impatient.

<sup>5</sup> Look at me and be stunned.

Put your hand over your mouth in shock.

My body trembles.

<sup>7</sup>“Why do the wicked prosper, growing old and powerful?

<sup>8</sup> They live to see their children grow up and settle down,
and they enjoy their grandchildren.

and God does not punish them.

Their cows bear calves and never miscarry.

They celebrate to the sound of the flute.

<sup>13</sup>They spend their days in prosperity,
then go down to the grave* in peace.

<sup>14</sup>And yet they say to God, ‘Go away.
We want no part of you and your ways.

What good will it do us to pray?’

but I will have nothing to do with that kind of thinking.)

<sup>17</sup>“Yet the light of the wicked never seems to be extinguished.
Do they ever have trouble?

Does God distribute sorrows to them in anger?

Are they carried away by the storm like chaff?
Not at all!

But I say he should punish the ones who sin, so that they understand his judgment.

Let them drink deeply of the anger of the Almighty.

<sup>21</sup>For they will not care what happens to their family after they are dead.

22 “But who can teach a lesson to God, since he judges even the most powerful?

<sup>23</sup>One person dies in prosperity, completely comfortable and secure,

<sup>24</sup>the picture of good health, vigorous and fit.

<sup>25</sup>Another person dies in bitter poverty, never having tasted the good life.

<sup>26</sup>But both are buried in the same dust,
both eaten by the same maggots.

I know the schemes you plot against me.

<sup>28</sup>You will tell me of rich and wicked people whose houses have vanished because of their sins.

<sup>29</sup>But ask those who have been around,
and they will tell you the truth.

<sup>30</sup>Evil people are spared in times of calamity and are allowed to escape disaster.

<sup>31</sup>No one criticizes them openly or pays them back for what they have done.

<sup>32</sup>When they are carried to the grave,
an honor guard keeps watch at their tomb.

Many pay their respects as the body is laid to rest,
and the earth gives sweet repose.

All your explanations are lies!”

Job 22

Eliphaz's Third Response to Job

Can even a wise person be helpful to him?

<sup>3</sup>Is it any advantage to the Almighty if you are righteous?

Would it be any gain to him if you were perfect?

<sup>4</sup>Is it because you're so pious that he accuses you and brings judgment against you?

There's no limit to your sins.

<sup>6</sup>“For example, you must have lent money to your friend and demanded clothing as security.

Yes, you stripped him to the bone.

<sup>7</sup>You must have refused water for the thirsty and food for the hungry.

<sup>8</sup>You probably think the land belongs to the powerful and only the privileged have a right to it!

<sup>9</sup>You must have sent widows away empty-handed and crushed the hopes of orphans.

<sup>10</sup>That is why you are surrounded by traps and tremble from sudden fears.

<sup>11</sup>That is why you cannot see in the darkness, and waves of water cover you.

<sup>12</sup>“God is so great—higher than the heavens, higher than the farthest stars.

<sup>13</sup>But you reply, ‘That’s why God can’t see what I am doing!
How can he judge through the thick darkness?’

He is way up there, walking on the vault of heaven.’

<sup>15</sup>“Will you continue on the old paths where evil people have walked?

<sup>16</sup>They were snatched away in the prime of life,
the foundations of their lives washed away.

What can the Almighty do to us?’

so I will have nothing to do with that kind of thinking.

<sup>19</sup>“The righteous will be happy to see the wicked destroyed, and the innocent will laugh in contempt.

The last of them have been consumed in the fire.’

<sup>21</sup>“Submit to God, and you will have peace;
then things will go well for you.

<sup>22</sup>Listen to his instructions, and store them in your heart.

<sup>23</sup>If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored—so clean up your life.

<sup>24</sup>If you give up your lust for money and throw your precious gold into the river,

<sup>25</sup>the Almighty himself will be your treasure.
He will be your precious silver!

<sup>26</sup>“Then you will take delight in the Almighty and look up to God.

<sup>27</sup>You will pray to him, and he will hear you,
and you will fulfill your vows to him.

<sup>28</sup>You will succeed in whatever you choose to do, and light will shine on the road ahead of you.

<sup>29</sup>If people are in trouble and you say, ‘Help them,’
God will save them.

<sup>30</sup>Even sinners will be rescued;
they will be rescued because your hands are pure.”

Job 23

Job's Eighth Speech: A Response to Eliphaz

<sup>2</sup>“My complaint today is still a bitter one,
and I try hard not to groan aloud.

I would go to his court.

<sup>4</sup>I would lay out my case and present my arguments.

<sup>5</sup>Then I would listen to his reply and understand what he says to me.

No, he would give me a fair hearing.

<sup>7</sup>Honest people can reason with him,
so I would be forever acquitted by my judge.

<sup>8</sup>I go east, but he is not there.
I go west, but I cannot find him.

<sup>9</sup>I do not see him in the north, for he is hidden.
I look to the south, but he is concealed.

<sup>10</sup>“But he knows where I am going.
And when he tests me, I will come out as pure as gold.

<sup>11</sup>For I have stayed on God's paths;
I have followed his ways and not turned aside.

<sup>12</sup>I have not departed from his commands,
but have treasured his words more than daily food.

<sup>13</sup>But once he has made his decision, who can change his mind?

Whatever he wants to do, he does.

<sup>14</sup>So he will do to me whatever he has planned.
He controls my destiny.

<sup>15</sup>No wonder I am so terrified in his presence.
When I think of it, terror grips me.

<sup>16</sup>God has made me sick at heart;
the Almighty has terrified me.

<sup>17</sup>Darkness is all around me;
thick, impenetrable darkness is everywhere.

Job 24

Job Asks Why the Wicked Are Not Punished

<sup>1</sup>“Why doesn’t the Almighty bring the wicked to judgment?
Why must the godly wait for him in vain?

They steal livestock and put them in their own pastures.

<sup>3</sup>They take the orphan’s donkey and demand the widow’s ox as security for a loan.

<sup>4</sup>The poor are pushed off the path;
the needy must hide together for safety.

<sup>5</sup>Like wild donkeys in the wilderness,
the poor must spend all their time looking for food, searching even in the desert for food for their children.

<sup>6</sup>They harvest a field they do not own,
and they glean in the vineyards of the wicked.

<sup>7</sup>All night they lie naked in the cold, without clothing or covering.

<sup>8</sup>They are soaked by mountain showers,
and they huddle against the rocks for want of a home.

taking the baby as security for a loan.

<sup>10</sup>The poor must go about naked, without any clothing.
They harvest food for others while they themselves are starving.

<sup>11</sup>They press out olive oil without being allowed to taste it,
and they tread in the winepress as they suffer from thirst.

and the wounded cry for help,
yet God ignores their moaning.

<sup>13</sup>“Wicked people rebel against the light.
They refuse to acknowledge its ways or stay in its paths.

<sup>14</sup>The murderer rises in the early dawn to kill the poor and needy;
at night he is a thief.

<sup>15</sup>The adulterer waits for the twilight, saying, ‘No one will see me then.’
He hides his face so no one will know him.

<sup>16</sup>Thieves break into houses at night and sleep in the daytime.
They are not acquainted with the light.

They ally themselves with the terrors of the darkness.

Everything they own is cursed,
and they are afraid to enter their own vineyards.

<sup>19</sup>The grave* consumes sinners
just as drought and heat consume snow.

Maggots will find them sweet to eat.

No one will remember them.

Wicked people are broken like a tree in the storm.

<sup>21</sup>They cheat the woman who has no son to help her.

They refuse to help the needy widow.

They may rise high, but they have no assurance of life.

<sup>23</sup>They may be allowed to live in security, but God is always watching them.

in a moment they will be gone like all others,

cut off like heads of grain.

Who can prove me wrong?”

Job 25

Bildad's Third Response to Job

He enforces peace in the heavens.

Doesn't his light shine on all the earth?

Can anyone born of a woman be pure?

<sup>5</sup>God is more glorious than the moon;

he shines brighter than the stars.

<sup>6</sup>In comparison, people are maggots;

we mortals are mere worms.”

Job 26

Job's Ninth Speech: A Response to Bildad

How you have saved the weak!

<sup>3</sup>How you have enlightened my stupidity!

What wise advice you have offered!

<sup>4</sup>Where have you gotten all these wise sayings?

Whose spirit speaks through you?

those who live beneath the waters.

The place of destruction* is uncovered.

<sup>7</sup>God stretches the northern sky over empty space and hangs the earth on nothing.

<sup>8</sup>He wraps the rain in his thick clouds,
and the clouds don't burst with the weight.

shrouding it with his clouds.

<sup>10</sup>He created the horizon when he separated the waters;
he set the boundary between day and night.

they shudder at his rebuke.

By his skill he crushed the great sea monster.*

and his power pierced the gliding serpent.

<sup>14</sup>These are just the beginning of all that he does,
merely a whisper of his power.

Who, then, can comprehend the thunder of his power?”

PERSPECTIVES

“God stretches the northern sky over empty space and hangs the earth on nothing. . . . By his power the sea grew calm. . . . These are just the beginning of all that he does, merely a whisper of his power. Who, then, can comprehend the thunder of his power?”

JOB 26:7, 12, 14

It is impossible for that man to despair who remembers that his helper is omnipotent.

Job 27

Job's Final Speech

<sup>1</sup>Job continued speaking:

<sup>2</sup>“I vow by the living God, who has taken away my rights,
by the Almighty who has embittered my soul—

<sup>3</sup>As long as I live,
while I have breath from God,

<sup>4</sup>my lips will speak no evil,
and my tongue will speak no lies.

<sup>5</sup>I will never concede that you are right;
I will defend my integrity until I die.

<sup>6</sup>I will maintain my innocence without wavering.
My conscience is clear for as long as I live.

<sup>7</sup>“May my enemy be punished like the wicked, my adversary like those who do evil.

<sup>8</sup>For what hope do the godless have when God cuts them off and takes away their life?

<sup>9</sup>Will God listen to their cry
when trouble comes upon them?

Can they call to God at any time?

<sup>11</sup>I will teach you about God's power.
I will not conceal anything concerning the Almighty.

<sup>12</sup>But you have seen all this,
yet you say all these useless things to me.

this is their inheritance from the Almighty.

<sup>14</sup>They may have many children,
but the children will die in war or starve to death.

<sup>15</sup>Those who survive will die of a plague, and not even their widows will mourn them.

<sup>16</sup>“Evil people may have piles of money and may store away mounds of clothing.

<sup>17</sup>But the righteous will wear that clothing, and the innocent will divide that money.

<sup>18</sup>The wicked build houses as fragile as a spider’s web,*
as flimsy as a shelter made of branches.

but wake to find that all their wealth is gone.

and they are blown away in the storms of the night.

It sweeps them away.

<sup>22</sup>It whirls down on them without mercy.
They struggle to flee from its power.

and mocks them.

Job 28

Job Speaks of Wisdom and Understanding

<sup>1</sup>“People know where to mine silver and how to refine gold.

<sup>2</sup>They know where to dig iron from the earth and how to smelt copper from rock.

and explore the farthest regions of the earth
as they search in the dark for ore.

<sup>4</sup>They sink a mine shaft into the earth far from where anyone lives.

They descend on ropes, swinging back and forth.

but down below, the earth is melted as by fire.

and the dust contains gold.

<sup>7</sup>These are treasures no bird of prey can see,
no falcon’s eye observe.

<sup>8</sup>No wild animal has walked upon these treasures;
no lion has ever set his paw there.

<sup>9</sup>People know how to tear apart flinty rocks and overturn the roots of mountains.

<sup>10</sup>They cut tunnels in the rocks and uncover precious stones.

<sup>11</sup>They dam up the trickling streams and bring to light the hidden treasures.

<sup>12</sup>“But do people know where to find wisdom?
Where can they find understanding?

for it is not found among the living.

<sup>15</sup>It cannot be bought with gold.
It cannot be purchased with silver.

greater than precious onyx or lapis lazuli.

It cannot be purchased with jewels mounted in fine gold.

The price of wisdom is far above rubies.

It’s worth more than the purest gold.

Where can they find understanding?

Even the sharp-eyed birds in the sky cannot discover it.

‘We’ve heard only rumors of where wisdom can be found.’

<sup>23</sup>“God alone understands the way to wisdom;
he knows where it can be found,

<sup>24</sup>for he looks throughout the whole earth and sees everything under the heavens.

<sup>25</sup>He decided how hard the winds should blow and how much rain should fall.

<sup>26</sup>He made the laws for the rain and laid out a path for the lightning.

<sup>27</sup>Then he saw wisdom and evaluated it.
He set it in place and examined it thoroughly.

<sup>28</sup>And this is what he says to all humanity:
‘The fear of the Lord is true wisdom;
to forsake evil is real understanding.’”

Job 29

Job Speaks of His Former Blessings

when God took care of me, <sup>3</sup>when he lit up the way before me and I walked safely through the darkness.

<sup>4</sup>When I was in my prime,
God’s friendship was felt in my home.

<sup>5</sup>The Almighty was still with me, and my children were around me.

<sup>6</sup>My cows produced milk in abundance,
and my groves poured out streams of olive oil.

<sup>7</sup>“Those were the days when I went to the city gate and took my place among the honored leaders.

<sup>8</sup>The young stepped aside when they saw me,
and even the aged rose in respect at my coming.

<sup>9</sup>The princes stood in silence and put their hands over their mouths.

<sup>10</sup>The highest officials of the city stood quietly, holding their tongues in respect.

<sup>11</sup>“All who heard me praised me.

All who saw me spoke well of me.

<sup>12</sup>For I assisted the poor in their need and the orphans who required help.

<sup>13</sup>I helped those without hope, and they blessed me.
And I caused the widows' hearts to sing for joy.

<sup>14</sup>Everything I did was honest.
Righteousness covered me like a robe,
and I wore justice like a turban.

<sup>15</sup>I served as eyes for the blind and feet for the lame.

<sup>16</sup>I was a father to the poor and assisted strangers who needed help.

<sup>17</sup>I broke the jaws of godless oppressors and plucked their victims from their teeth.

<sup>18</sup> “I thought, ‘Surely I will die surrounded by my family after a long, good life.’*

<sup>19</sup>For I am like a tree whose roots reach the water, whose branches are refreshed with the dew.

<sup>20</sup>New honors are constantly bestowed on me, and my strength is continually renewed.’

<sup>21</sup>“Everyone listened to my advice.

They were silent as they waited for me to speak.

<sup>22</sup>And after I spoke, they had nothing to add,
for my counsel satisfied them.

<sup>23</sup>They longed for me to speak as people long for rain.
They drank my words like a refreshing spring rain.

<sup>24</sup>When they were discouraged, I smiled at them.
My look of approval was precious to them.

<sup>25</sup>Like a chief, I told them what to do.
I lived like a king among his troops and comforted those who mourned.

Job 30

Job Speaks of His Anguish

<sup>1</sup>“But now I am mocked by people younger than I, by young men whose fathers are not worthy to run with my sheepdogs.

those worn-out wretches!

<sup>3</sup>They are gaunt with hunger and flee to the deserts, to desolate and gloomy wastelands.

<sup>4</sup>They pluck wild greens from among the bushes and eat from the roots of broom trees.

<sup>5</sup>They are driven from human society,
and people shout at them as if they were thieves.

<sup>6</sup>So now they live in frightening ravines, in caves and among the rocks.

<sup>7</sup>They sound like animals howling among the bushes, huddled together beneath the nettles.

<sup>8</sup>They are nameless fools, outcasts from society.

<sup>9</sup>“And now they mock me with vulgar songs!
They taunt me!

<sup>10</sup>They despise me and won’t come near me, except to spit in my face.

<sup>11</sup>For God has cut my bowstring.

He has humbled me,

so they have thrown off all restraint.

<sup>12</sup>These outcasts oppose me to my face.

They send me sprawling and lay traps in my path.

<sup>13</sup>They block my road

and do everything they can to destroy me.

They know I have no one to help me.

<sup>14</sup>They come at me from all directions.

They jump on me when I am down.

<sup>15</sup>I live in terror now.

My honor has blown away in the wind, and my prosperity has vanished like a cloud.

<sup>16</sup>“And now my life seeps away.

Depression haunts my days.

which gnaws at me relentlessly.

<sup>18</sup>With a strong hand, God grabs my shirt.

He grips me by the collar of my coat.

<sup>19</sup>He has thrown me into the mud.

I’m nothing more than dust and ashes.

<sup>20</sup>“I cry to you, O God, but you don’t answer.

I stand before you, but you don’t even look.

<sup>21</sup>You have become cruel toward me.

You use your power to persecute me.

<sup>22</sup>You throw me into the whirlwind and destroy me in the storm.

<sup>23</sup>And I know you are sending me to my death—
the destination of all who live.

<sup>24</sup>“Surely no one would turn against the needy
when they cry for help in their trouble.

<sup>25</sup>Did I not weep for those in trouble?
Was I not deeply grieved for the needy?

<sup>26</sup>So I looked for good, but evil came instead.
I waited for the light, but darkness fell.

Days of suffering torment me.

<sup>28</sup>I walk in gloom, without sunlight.
I stand in the public square and cry for help.

<sup>29</sup>Instead, I am considered a brother to jackals and a companion to owls.

<sup>30</sup>My skin has turned dark,
and my bones burn with fever.

and my flute accompanies those who weep.

Job 31

Job's Final Protest of Innocence

<sup>1</sup>“I made a covenant with my eyes not to look with lust at a young woman.

<sup>2</sup>For what has God above chosen for us?
What is our inheritance from the Almighty on high?

<sup>3</sup>Isn't it calamity for the wicked and misfortune for those who do evil?

<sup>4</sup>Doesn't he see everything I do and every step I take?

<sup>5</sup>“Have I lied to anyone or deceived anyone?

<sup>6</sup>Let God weigh me on the scales of justice,
for he knows my integrity.

<sup>7</sup>If I have strayed from his pathway, or if my heart has lusted for what my eyes have seen,
or if I am guilty of any other sin,

<sup>8</sup>then let someone else eat the crops I have planted.
Let all that I have planted be uprooted.

<sup>9</sup>“If my heart has been seduced by a woman, or if I have lusted for my neighbor's wife,

<sup>10</sup>then let my wife belong to * another man;
let other men sleep with her.

<sup>11</sup>For lust is a shameful sin,
a crime that should be punished.

It would wipe out everything I own.

The Danger of Lust

<sup>13</sup>“If I have been unfair to my male or female servants when they brought their complaints to me,

<sup>14</sup>how could I face God?

What could I say when he questioned me?

<sup>15</sup>For God created both me and my servants.
He created us both in the womb.

<sup>16</sup>“Have I refused to help the poor,
or crushed the hopes of widows?

<sup>17</sup>Have I been stingy with my food and refused to share it with orphans?

<sup>18</sup>No, from childhood I have cared for orphans like a father, and all my life I have cared for widows.

<sup>19</sup>Whenever I saw the homeless without clothes and the needy with nothing to wear,

<sup>20</sup>did they not praise me for providing wool clothing to keep them warm?

<sup>21</sup>“If I raised my hand against an orphan, knowing the judges would take my side,

<sup>22</sup>then let my shoulder be wrenched out of place!
Let my arm be torn from its socket!
<sup>23</sup>That would be better than facing God's judgment.
For if the majesty of God opposes me, what hope is there?

<sup>24</sup>“Have I put my trust in money or felt secure because of my gold?
<sup>25</sup>Have I gloated about my wealth and all that I own?

<sup>26</sup>“Have I looked at the sun shining in the skies, or the moon walking down its silver pathway, <sup>27</sup>and been secretly enticed in my heart to throw kisses at them in worship?
<sup>28</sup>If so, I should be punished by the judges, for it would mean I had denied the God of heaven.

<sup>29</sup>“Have I ever rejoiced when disaster struck my enemies, or become excited when harm came their way?
<sup>30</sup>No, I have never sinned by cursing anyone or by asking for revenge.

<sup>31</sup>“My servants have never said,
‘He let others go hungry.’
<sup>32</sup>I have never turned away a stranger but have opened my doors to everyone.

<sup>33</sup>“Have I tried to hide my sins like other people do, concealing my guilt in my heart?

<sup>34</sup>Have I feared the crowd or the contempt of the masses,
so that I kept quiet and stayed indoors?

<sup>35</sup> “If only someone would listen to me!
Look, I will sign my name to my defense.
Let the Almighty answer me.
Let my accuser write out the charges against me.

I would wear it like a crown.

<sup>37</sup>For I would tell him exactly what I have done.
I would come before him like a prince.

<sup>38</sup>“If my land accuses me and all its furrows cry out together,

<sup>39</sup>or if I have stolen its crops or murdered its owners,

<sup>40</sup>then let thistles grow on that land instead of wheat, and weeds instead of barley.”

Job’s words are ended.

What the Bible Says about
Getting Along with God

Job 32

Elihu Responds to Job's Friends

<sup>2</sup>Then Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the clan of Ram, became angry. He was angry because Job refused to admit that he had sinned and that God was right in punishing him. <sup>3</sup>He was also angry with Job's three friends, for they made God * appear to be wrong by their inability to answer Job's arguments. <sup>4</sup>Elihu had waited for the others to speak to Job because they were older than he. <sup>5</sup>But when he saw that they had no further reply, he spoke out angrily. <sup>6</sup> Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite said,

“I am young and you are old,
so I held back from telling you what I think.

<sup>7</sup>I thought, ‘Those who are older should speak, for wisdom comes with age.’

<sup>8</sup>But there is a spirit * within people, the breath of the Almighty within them,
that makes them intelligent.

<sup>9</sup>Sometimes the elders are not wise.
Sometimes the aged do not understand justice.

<sup>10</sup>So listen to me,
and let me tell you what I think.

<sup>11</sup>“I have waited all this time, listening very carefully to your arguments,
listening to you grope for words.

<sup>12</sup>I have listened, but not one of you has refuted Job or answered his arguments.

<sup>13</sup>And don't tell me, 'He is too wise for us.
Only God can convince him.'

<sup>14</sup>If Job had been arguing with me,
I would not answer with your kind of logic!

<sup>15</sup>You sit there baffled, with nothing more to say.

<sup>16</sup>Should I continue to wait, now that you are silent?
Must I also remain silent?

<sup>17</sup>No, I will say my piece.
I will speak my mind.

<sup>18</sup>For I am full of pent-up words, and the spirit within me urges me on.

<sup>19</sup>I am like a cask of wine without a vent,
like a new wineskin ready to burst!

<sup>20</sup>I must speak to find relief,
so let me give my answers.

<sup>21</sup>I won't play favorites or try to flatter anyone.

<sup>22</sup>For if I tried flattery, my Creator would soon destroy me.

Job 33

Elihu Presents His Case against Job

<sup>1</sup>“Listen to my words, Job;
pay attention to what I have to say.

<sup>2</sup>Now that I have begun to speak,
let me continue.

<sup>3</sup>I speak with all sincerity;
I speak the truth.

<sup>4</sup>For the Spirit of God has made me,
and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

<sup>5</sup>Answer me, if you can;
make your case and take your stand.

<sup>6</sup>Look, you and I both belong to God.
I, too, was formed from clay.

<sup>7</sup>So you don't need to be afraid of me.
I won't come down hard on you.

<sup>8</sup>“You have spoken in my hearing, and I have heard your very words.

<sup>9</sup>You said, ‘I am pure; I am without sin;
I am innocent; I have no guilt.

<sup>10</sup>God is picking a quarrel with me,
and he considers me his enemy.

<sup>11</sup>He puts my feet in the stocks and watches my every move.’

<sup>12</sup>“But you are wrong, and I will show you why.
For God is greater than any human being.
<sup>13</sup>So why are you bringing a charge against him?
Why say he does not respond to people’s complaints?
<sup>14</sup>For God speaks again and again, though people do not recognize it.

Personal Gold

Blind Spots

<sup>15</sup>He speaks in dreams, in visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on people
as they lie in their beds.
<sup>16</sup>He whispers in their ears and terrifies them with warnings.
<sup>17</sup>He makes them turn from doing wrong;
he keeps them from pride.
<sup>18</sup>He protects them from the grave,
from crossing over the river of death.

<sup>19</sup>“Or God disciplines people with pain on their sickbeds, with ceaseless aching in their bones.
<sup>20</sup>They lose their appetite for even the most delicious food.
<sup>21</sup>Their flesh wastes away,
and their bones stick out.
<sup>22</sup>They are at death’s door;

the angels of death wait for them.

<sup>23</sup>“But if an angel from heaven appears—a special messenger to intercede for a person and declare that he is upright—

<sup>24</sup>he will be gracious and say, ‘Rescue him from the grave,
for I have found a ransom for his life.’

<sup>25</sup>Then his body will become as healthy as a child’s, firm and youthful again.

<sup>26</sup>When he prays to God,
he will be accepted.
And God will receive him with joy and restore him to good standing.

<sup>27</sup>He will declare to his friends,
‘I sinned and twisted the truth,
but it was not worth it.*’

<sup>28</sup>God rescued me from the grave, and now my life is filled with light.’

<sup>29</sup>“Yes, God does these things
again and again for people.

<sup>30</sup>He rescues them from the grave
so they may enjoy the light of life.

<sup>31</sup>Mark this well, Job. Listen to me, for I have more to say.

<sup>32</sup>But if you have anything to say, go ahead.
Speak, for I am anxious to see you justified.

<sup>33</sup>But if not, then listen to me.
Keep silent and I will teach you wisdom!”

Job 34

Elihu Accuses Job of Arrogance

Pay attention, you who have knowledge.

<sup>3</sup>Job said, ‘The ear tests the words it hears
just as the mouth distinguishes between foods.’

<sup>4</sup>So let us discern for ourselves what is right;
let us learn together what is good.

<sup>5</sup>For Job also said, ‘I am innocent, but God has taken away my rights.

<sup>6</sup>I am innocent, but they call me a liar.
My suffering is incurable, though I have not sinned.’

<sup>7</sup>“Tell me, has there ever been a man like Job, with his thirst for irreverent talk?

<sup>8</sup>He chooses evil people as companions.
He spends his time with wicked men.

<sup>9</sup>He has even said, ‘Why waste time trying to please God?’

<sup>10</sup>“Listen to me, you who have understanding.

Everyone knows that God doesn’t sin!

The Almighty can do no wrong.

<sup>11</sup>He repays people according to their deeds.
He treats people as they deserve.

<sup>12</sup>Truly, God will not do wrong.
The Almighty will not twist justice.

<sup>13</sup>Did someone else put the world in his care?
Who set the whole world in place?

<sup>14</sup>If God were to take back his spirit and withdraw his breath,

<sup>15</sup>all life would cease, and humanity would turn again to dust.

<sup>16</sup>“Now listen to me if you are wise.
Pay attention to what I say.

<sup>17</sup>Could God govern if he hated justice?
Are you going to condemn the almighty judge?

<sup>18</sup>For he says to kings, ‘You are wicked,’ and to nobles, ‘You are unjust.’

<sup>19</sup>He doesn’t care how great a person may be,
and he pays no more attention to the rich than to the poor.
He made them all.

<sup>20</sup>In a moment they die.
In the middle of the night they pass away;
the mighty are removed without human hand.

<sup>21</sup>“For God watches how people live;
he sees everything they do.

<sup>22</sup>No darkness is thick enough to hide the wicked from his eyes.

- <sup>23</sup>We don't set the time when we will come before God in judgment.
- <sup>24</sup>He brings the mighty to ruin without asking anyone,
and he sets up others in their place.
- <sup>25</sup>He knows what they do,
and in the night he overturns and destroys them.
- <sup>26</sup>He strikes them down because they are wicked, doing it openly for all to see.
- <sup>27</sup>For they turned away from following him.
They have no respect for any of his ways.
- <sup>28</sup>They cause the poor to cry out, catching God's attention.
He hears the cries of the needy.
- <sup>29</sup>But if he chooses to remain quiet,
who can criticize him?
When he hides his face, no one can find him,
whether an individual or a nation.
- <sup>30</sup>He prevents the godless from ruling
so they cannot be a snare to the people.
- <sup>31</sup>"Why don't people say to God, 'I have sinned, but I will sin no more'?"
- <sup>32</sup>Or 'I don't know what evil I have done—tell me.
If I have done wrong, I will stop at once'?"
- <sup>33</sup>"Must God tailor his justice to your demands?
But you have rejected him!
The choice is yours, not mine.
Go ahead, share your wisdom with us.

<sup>34</sup>After all, bright people will tell me,
and wise people will hear me say,

<sup>35</sup>‘Job speaks out of ignorance;
his words lack insight.’

<sup>36</sup>Job, you deserve the maximum penalty for the wicked way you have talked.

<sup>37</sup>For you have added rebellion to your sin;
you show no respect,
and you speak many angry words against God.”

Job 35

Elihu Reminds Job of God's Justice

‘I am righteous before God’?

<sup>3</sup>For you also ask, ‘What’s in it for me?
What’s the use of living a righteous life?’

<sup>4</sup>“I will answer you and all your friends, too.

<sup>5</sup>Look up into the sky, and see the clouds high above you.

<sup>6</sup>If you sin, how does that affect God?
Even if you sin again and again,
what effect will it have on him?

<sup>7</sup>If you are good, is this some great gift to him?
What could you possibly give him?

<sup>8</sup>No, your sins affect only people like yourself, and your good deeds also affect only humans.

<sup>9</sup>“People cry out when they are oppressed.
They groan beneath the power of the mighty.

<sup>10</sup>Yet they don’t ask, ‘Where is God my Creator, the one who gives songs in the night?’

<sup>11</sup>Where is the one who makes us smarter than the animals and wiser than the birds of the sky?’

<sup>12</sup>And when they cry out, God does not answer because of their pride.

<sup>13</sup>But it is wrong to say God doesn’t listen, to say the Almighty isn’t concerned.

<sup>14</sup>You say you can’t see him,
but he will bring justice if you will only wait.*

<sup>15</sup>You say he does not respond to sinners with anger and is not greatly concerned about wickedness.*

<sup>16</sup>But you are talking nonsense, Job.
You have spoken like a fool.”

Job 36

For I have not finished defending God!

<sup>3</sup>I will present profound arguments for the righteousness of my Creator.

<sup>4</sup>I am telling you nothing but the truth, for I am a man of great knowledge.

<sup>5</sup>“God is mighty, but he does not despise anyone!
He is mighty in both power and understanding.

<sup>6</sup>He does not let the wicked live
but gives justice to the afflicted.

<sup>7</sup>He never takes his eyes off the innocent, but he sets them on thrones with kings and exalts them forever.

<sup>8</sup>If they are bound in chains and caught up in a web of trouble,

<sup>9</sup>he shows them the reason.
He shows them their sins of pride.

<sup>10</sup>He gets their attention and commands that they turn from evil.

<sup>11</sup>“If they listen and obey God,
they will be blessed with prosperity throughout their lives.

All their years will be pleasant.

<sup>12</sup>But if they refuse to listen to him, they will be killed by the sword*
and die from lack of understanding.

Even when he punishes them,
they refuse to cry out to him for help.

<sup>14</sup>They die when they are young,
after wasting their lives in immoral living.

<sup>15</sup>But by means of their suffering, he rescues those who suffer.

For he gets their attention through adversity.

<sup>16</sup>“God is leading you away from danger, Job,
to a place free from distress.
He is setting your table with the best food.

<sup>17</sup>But you are obsessed with whether the godless will be judged.

Don't worry, judgment and justice will be upheld.

<sup>18</sup>But watch out, or you may be seduced by wealth.*
Don't let yourself be bribed into sin.

<sup>19</sup>Could all your wealth* or all your mighty efforts keep you from distress?

<sup>20</sup>Do not long for the cover of night, for that is when people will be destroyed.*

<sup>21</sup>Be on guard! Turn back from evil, for God sent this suffering to keep you from a life of evil.

Elihu Reminds Job of God's Power

<sup>22</sup>“Look, God is all-powerful.

Who is a teacher like him?

<sup>23</sup>No one can tell him what to do, or say to him, ‘You have done wrong.’

<sup>24</sup>Instead, glorify his mighty works, singing songs of praise.

<sup>25</sup>Everyone has seen these things,
though only from a distance.

<sup>26</sup>“Look, God is greater than we can understand.
His years cannot be counted.

<sup>27</sup>He draws up the water vapor
and then distills it into rain.

<sup>28</sup>The rain pours down from the clouds, and everyone benefits.

<sup>29</sup>Who can understand the spreading of the clouds and the thunder that rolls forth from heaven?

<sup>30</sup>See how he spreads the lightning around him and how it lights up the depths of the sea.

<sup>31</sup>By these mighty acts he nourishes* the people, giving them food in abundance.

<sup>32</sup>He fills his hands with lightning bolts and hurls each at its target.

the storm announces his indignant anger.*

Job 37

It trembles within me.

<sup>2</sup>Listen carefully to the thunder of God’s voice as it rolls from his mouth.

<sup>3</sup>It rolls across the heavens, and his lightning flashes in every direction.

<sup>4</sup>Then comes the roaring of the thunder—
the tremendous voice of his majesty.
He does not restrain it when he speaks.

We can’t even imagine the greatness of his power.

<sup>6</sup>“He directs the snow to fall on the earth and tells the rain to pour down.

<sup>7</sup>Then everyone stops working so they can watch his power.

<sup>8</sup>The wild animals take cover and stay inside their dens.

<sup>9</sup>The stormy wind comes from its chamber,
and the driving winds bring the cold.

<sup>10</sup>God’s breath sends the ice, freezing wide expanses of water.

<sup>11</sup>He loads the clouds with moisture, and they flash with his lightning.

They do whatever he commands throughout the earth.

Stop and consider the wonderful miracles of God!

<sup>15</sup>Do you know how God controls the storm and causes the lightning to flash from his clouds?

<sup>17</sup>When you are sweltering in your clothes and the south wind dies down and everything is still,

We are too ignorant to make our own arguments.

<sup>20</sup>Should God be notified that I want to speak?

Can people even speak when they are confused?*

<sup>21</sup>We cannot look at the sun, for it shines brightly in the sky when the wind clears away the clouds.

He is clothed in dazzling splendor.

<sup>23</sup>We cannot imagine the power of the Almighty; but even though he is just and righteous, he does not destroy us.

All who are wise show him reverence.”

Job 38

The LORD Challenges Job

<sup>2</sup>“Who is this that questions my wisdom with such ignorant words?

because I have some questions for you,
and you must answer them.

<sup>4</sup>“Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?
Tell me, if you know so much.

<sup>5</sup>Who determined its dimensions and stretched out the surveying line?

<sup>6</sup>What supports its foundations, and who laid its cornerstone

<sup>7</sup>as the morning stars sang together and all the angels * shouted for joy?

<sup>8</sup>“Who kept the sea inside its boundaries
as it burst from the womb,

<sup>9</sup>and as I clothed it with clouds and wrapped it in thick darkness?

<sup>10</sup>For I locked it behind barred gates, limiting its shores.

<sup>11</sup>I said, ‘This far and no farther will you come.
Here your proud waves must stop!’

<sup>12</sup>“Have you ever commanded the morning to appear and caused the dawn to rise in the east?

<sup>13</sup>Have you made daylight spread to the ends of the earth, to bring an end to the night’s wickedness?

<sup>14</sup>As the light approaches,
the earth takes shape like clay pressed beneath a seal;
it is robed in brilliant colors.*

<sup>15</sup>The light disturbs the wicked and stops the arm that is raised in violence.

<sup>16</sup>“Have you explored the springs from which the seas come?
Have you explored their depths?

<sup>17</sup>Do you know where the gates of death are located?
Have you seen the gates of utter gloom?

<sup>18</sup>Do you realize the extent of the earth?
Tell me about it if you know!

<sup>19</sup>“Where does light come from,
and where does darkness go?

<sup>20</sup>Can you take each to its home?
Do you know how to get there?

For you were born before it was all created,
and you are so very experienced!

<sup>22</sup>“Have you visited the storehouses of the snow or seen the storehouses of hail?

<sup>23</sup>(I have reserved them as weapons for the time of trouble, for the day of battle and war.)

Where is the home of the east wind?

Who laid out the path for the lightning?

in a desert where no one lives?

<sup>27</sup>Who sends rain to satisfy the parched ground and make the tender grass spring up?

<sup>28</sup>“Does the rain have a father?
Who gives birth to the dew?

<sup>29</sup>Who is the mother of the ice?
Who gives birth to the frost from the heavens?

<sup>30</sup>For the water turns to ice as hard as rock,
and the surface of the water freezes.

<sup>31</sup>“Can you direct the movement of the stars—
binding the cluster of the Pleiades or loosening the cords of Orion?

<sup>32</sup>Can you direct the sequence of the seasons or guide the Bear with her cubs across the heavens?

<sup>33</sup>Do you know the laws of the universe?
Can you use them to regulate the earth?

<sup>34</sup>“Can you shout to the clouds and make it rain?

<sup>35</sup>Can you make lightning appear and cause it to strike as you direct?

<sup>36</sup>Who gives intuition to the heart and instinct to the mind?

Who can tilt the water jars of heaven

<sup>38</sup>when the parched ground is dry and the soil has hardened into clods?

<sup>39</sup>“Can you stalk prey for a lioness and satisfy the young lions’ appetites <sup>40</sup>as they lie in their dens or crouch in the thicket?

<sup>41</sup>Who provides food for the ravens when their young cry out to God and wander about in hunger?

Job 39

The LORD's Challenge Continues

<sup>1</sup>“Do you know when the wild goats give birth?

Have you watched as deer are born in the wild?

Are you aware of the time of their delivery?

and deliver their offspring.

<sup>4</sup>Their young grow up in the open fields,
then leave home and never return.

Who untied its ropes?

<sup>6</sup>I have placed it in the wilderness;
its home is the wasteland.

<sup>7</sup>It hates the noise of the city and has no driver to shout at it.

<sup>8</sup>The mountains are its pastureland, where it searches for every blade of grass.

<sup>9</sup>“Will the wild ox consent to being tamed?

Will it spend the night in your stall?

<sup>10</sup>Can you hitch a wild ox to a plow?

Will it plow a field for you?

<sup>11</sup>Given its strength, can you trust it?

Can you leave and trust the ox to do your work?

<sup>12</sup>Can you rely on it to bring home your grain and deliver it to your threshing floor?

<sup>13</sup>“The ostrich flaps her wings grandly,
but they are no match for the feathers of the stork.

letting them be warmed in the dust.

<sup>15</sup>She doesn't worry that a foot might crush them or a wild animal might destroy them.

as if they were not her own.
She doesn't care if they die.

<sup>17</sup>For God has deprived her of wisdom.
He has given her no understanding.

<sup>18</sup>But whenever she jumps up to run,
she passes the swiftest horse with its rider.

<sup>19</sup>“Have you given the horse its strength or clothed its neck with a flowing mane?

<sup>20</sup>Did you give it the ability to leap like a locust?
Its majestic snorting is terrifying!

<sup>21</sup>It paws the earth and rejoices in its strength when it charges out to battle.

It does not run from the sword.

and the spear and javelin flash.

<sup>24</sup>It paws the ground fiercely and rushes forward into battle when the ram's horn blows.

<sup>25</sup>It snorts at the sound of the horn.
It senses the battle in the distance.
It quivers at the captain's commands and the noise of battle.

<sup>26</sup>“Is it your wisdom that makes the hawk soar and spread its wings toward the south?

<sup>27</sup>Is it at your command that the eagle rises to the heights to make its nest?

<sup>28</sup>It lives on the cliffs, making its home on a distant, rocky crag.

<sup>29</sup>From there it hunts its prey, keeping watch with piercing eyes.

Where there's a carcass, there you'll find it.”

Job 40

You are God’s critic, but do you have the answers?”

Job Responds to the LORD

<sup>3</sup> Then Job replied to the LORD,

<sup>4</sup> “I am nothing—how could I ever find the answers?
I will cover my mouth with my hand.

I have nothing more to say.”

The LORD Challenges Job Again

<sup>6</sup> Then the LORD answered Job from the whirlwind:

because I have some questions for you,
and you must answer them.

<sup>8</sup> “Will you discredit my justice and condemn me just to prove you are right?

<sup>9</sup> Are you as strong as God?
Can you thunder with a voice like his?

your honor and majesty.

Let it overflow against the proud.

<sup>12</sup>Humiliate the proud with a glance;
walk on the wicked where they stand.

Imprison them in the world of the dead.

<sup>14</sup>Then even I would praise you, for your own strength would save you.

which I made, just as I made you.

It eats grass like an ox.

<sup>16</sup>See its powerful loins and the muscles of its belly.

<sup>17</sup>Its tail is as strong as a cedar.

The sinews of its thighs are knit tightly together.

Its limbs are bars of iron.

<sup>19</sup>It is a prime example of God’s handiwork, and only its Creator can threaten it.

<sup>20</sup>The mountains offer it their best food,
where all the wild animals play.

hidden by the reeds in the marsh.

<sup>22</sup>The lotus plants give it shade
among the willows beside the stream.

<sup>23</sup>It is not disturbed by the raging river,

not concerned when the swelling Jordan rushes around it.

<sup>24</sup>No one can catch it off guard or put a ring in its nose and lead it away.

Job 41

The LORD's Challenge Continues

<sup>1</sup>*“Can you catch Leviathan* with a hook or put a noose around its jaw?

<sup>2</sup>Can you tie it with a rope through the nose or pierce its jaw with a spike?

<sup>3</sup>Will it beg you for mercy or implore you for pity?

<sup>4</sup>Will it agree to work for you,
to be your slave for life?

or give it to your little girls to play with?

<sup>6</sup>Will merchants try to buy it to sell it in their shops?

<sup>7</sup>Will its hide be hurt by spears or its head by a harpoon?

<sup>8</sup>If you lay a hand on it,
you will certainly remember the battle that follows.
You won't try that again!

The hunter who attempts it will be knocked down.

<sup>10</sup>And since no one dares to disturb it, who then can stand up to me?

<sup>11</sup>Who has given me anything that I need to pay back?
Everything under heaven is mine.

<sup>12</sup>“I want to emphasize Leviathan’s limbs and its enormous strength and graceful form.

<sup>13</sup>Who can strip off its hide,
and who can penetrate its double layer of armor?*

<sup>14</sup>Who could pry open its jaws?
For its teeth are terrible!

<sup>15</sup>Its scales are like rows of shields tightly sealed together.

<sup>16</sup>They are so close together that no air can get between them.

They interlock and cannot be penetrated.

<sup>18</sup>“When it sneezes, it flashes light!
Its eyes are like the red of dawn.

flames of fire flash out.

<sup>20</sup>Smoke streams from its nostrils like steam from a pot heated over burning rushes.

<sup>21</sup>Its breath would kindle coals,
for flames shoot from its mouth.

<sup>22</sup>“The tremendous strength in Leviathan’s neck strikes terror wherever it goes.

<sup>23</sup>Its flesh is hard and firm and cannot be penetrated.

hard as a millstone.

<sup>25</sup>When it rises, the mighty are afraid, gripped by terror.

<sup>26</sup>No sword can stop it,
no spear, dart, or javelin.

<sup>27</sup>Iron is nothing but straw to that creature, and bronze is like rotten wood.

Stones shot from a sling are like bits of grass.

<sup>29</sup>Clubs are like a blade of grass, and it laughs at the swish of javelins.

It plows up the ground as it drags through the mud.

It stirs the depths like a pot of ointment.

<sup>32</sup>The water glistens in its wake,
making the sea look white.

<sup>33</sup>Nothing on earth is its equal,
no other creature so fearless.

<sup>34</sup>Of all the creatures, it is the proudest.
It is the king of beasts.”

Job 42

Job Responds to the LORD

<sup>2</sup> “I know that you can do anything,
and no one can stop you.

<sup>3</sup> You asked, ‘Who is this that questions my wisdom with such ignorance?’

It is I—and I was talking about things I knew nothing about, things far too wonderful for me.

<sup>4</sup> You said, ‘Listen and I will speak!
I have some questions for you,
and you must answer them.’

<sup>5</sup> I had only heard about you before, but now I have seen you with my own eyes.

<sup>6</sup> I take back everything I said,
and I sit in dust and ashes to show my repentance.”

Conclusion: The LORD Blesses Job

<sup>7</sup> After the LORD had finished speaking to Job, he said to Eliphaz the Temanite: “I am angry with you and your two friends, for you have not spoken accurately about me, as my servant Job has. <sup>8</sup> So take seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job and offer a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer on your behalf. I will not treat you as you deserve, for you have not spoken accurately about me, as my servant Job has.”<sup>9</sup> So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite did as the LORD commanded them, and the LORD accepted Job’s prayer.

<sup>12</sup> So the LORD blessed Job in the second half of his life even more than in the beginning. For now he had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 teams of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys. <sup>13</sup> He also gave Job seven more sons and three more daughters. <sup>14</sup> He named his first daughter Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch. <sup>15</sup> In all the land no women were as lovely as the daughters of Job. And their father put them into his will along with their brothers.

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

Psalms is a songbook.

WHO WROTE IT?

King David wrote most of the psalms, but a great number of other songwriters, many of them anonymous, also contributed. Since the psalms were written to be used in worship, many were written by levitical or priestly poets and musicians.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

The psalms were composed over many centuries. The earliest one was probably written in the 1500s B.C.; the latest in the 500s B.C.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

Most of the psalms come from the era of the United Israelite Kingdom.

THE BREAKDOWN

There are no thematic sections per se, but traditionally the Psalms were divided into five “books”:

Book I: Psalms 1–41

Book II: Psalms 42–72

Book III: Psalms 73–89

Book IV: Psalms 90–106

Book V: Psalms 107–150

KEY CONCEPTS

WORTH MEMORIZING

Where to start? The most familiar—and most memorized—parts of the Bible are here. Choose any of the following to get going:

19:14

May the words of my mouth and the thoughts of my heart
be pleasing to you,
O LORD, my rock and my redeemer.

27:1

The LORD is my light and my salvation—
so why should I be afraid?
The LORD protects me from danger—
so why should I tremble?

119:11

I have hidden your word in my heart,
that I might not sin against you.

119:105

Your word is a lamp for my feet
and a light for my path.

139:23-24

Search me, O God, and know my heart;
test me and know my thoughts.
Point out anything in me that offends you,
and lead me along the path of everlasting life.

Other great passages from Psalms to memorize include:
Psalm 8; Psalm 23; Psalm 51:1-12; Psalm 91; Psalm 100;
Psalm 103:1-5; Psalm 121; Psalm 150

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

PRAISE AND WORSHIP.

Some men think of praise and worship as “for women only.” Yet here’s an entire songbook written by men! As we read this book with open eyes, we see that worship is a man’s most significant activity.

WHAT'S THE POINT OF Psalms?

+ + +

God deserves our greatest passion.

---

Psalm 1

<sup>1</sup>Oh, the joys of those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or stand around with sinners,
or join in with mockers.

<sup>2</sup>But they delight in the law of the LORD, meditating on it day and night.

<sup>3</sup>They are like trees planted along the riverbank, bearing fruit each season.
Their leaves never wither,
and they prosper in all they do.

<sup>4</sup>But not the wicked!
They are like worthless chaff, scattered by the wind.

<sup>5</sup>They will be condemned at the time of judgment.
Sinners will have no place among the godly.

<sup>6</sup>For the LORD watches over the path of the godly,
but the path of the wicked leads to destruction.

Psalm 2

<sup>1</sup> Why are the nations so angry?
Why do they waste their time with futile plans?

<sup>2</sup> The kings of the earth prepare for battle;
the rulers plot together against the LORD and against his anointed one.

“and free ourselves from slavery to God.”

<sup>4</sup> But the one who rules in heaven laughs.
The Lord scoffs at them.

<sup>5</sup> Then in anger he rebukes them, terrifying them with his fierce fury.

<sup>6</sup> For the Lord declares, “I have placed my chosen king on the throne
in Jerusalem,* on my holy mountain.”

<sup>7</sup> The king proclaims the LORD’s decree:
“The LORD said to me, ‘You are my son.*
Today I have become your Father.*

<sup>8</sup> Only ask, and I will give you the nations as your inheritance, the whole earth as your possession.

<sup>9</sup> You will break* them with an iron rod and smash them like clay pots.”

<sup>10</sup>Now then, you kings, act wisely!
Be warned, you rulers of the earth!

<sup>11</sup>Serve the LORD with reverent fear, and rejoice with trembling.

<sup>12</sup>Submit to God's royal son,* or he will become angry, and you will be destroyed in the midst of all your activities—for his anger flares up in an instant.
But what joy for all who take refuge in him!

Psalm 3

A psalm of David, regarding the time David fled from his son Absalom.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, I have so many enemies;
so many are against me.

<sup>2</sup>So many are saying,
“God will never rescue him!”

*Interlude**

<sup>3</sup>But you, O LORD, are a shield around me;
you are my glory, the one who holds my head high.

<sup>4</sup>I cried out to the LORD, and he answered me from his holy mountain.

Interlude

<sup>5</sup>I lay down and slept, yet I woke up in safety,
for the LORD was watching over me.

<sup>6</sup>I am not afraid of ten thousand enemies who surround me on every side.

Rescue me, my God!
Slap all my enemies in the face!
Shatter the teeth of the wicked!

<sup>8</sup>Victory comes from you, O LORD.

May you bless your people.

Interlude

Psalm 4

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be accompanied by stringed instruments.

<sup>1</sup> Answer me when I call to you,
O God who declares me innocent.
Free me from my troubles.
Have mercy on me and hear my prayer.

<sup>2</sup> How long will you people ruin my reputation?
How long will you make groundless accusations?
How long will you continue your lies?

Interlude

<sup>3</sup> You can be sure of this:
The LORD set apart the godly for himself.
The LORD will answer when I call to him.

<sup>4</sup> Don't sin by letting anger control you.
Think about it overnight and remain silent.

<sup>5</sup> Offer sacrifices in the right spirit, and trust the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> Many people say, "Who will show us better times?"
Let your face smile on us, LORD.

<sup>7</sup> You have given me greater joy than those who have abundant harvests of grain and new wine.

<sup>8</sup>In peace I will lie down and sleep, for you alone, O LORD, will keep me safe.

Psalm 5

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be accompanied by the flute.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, hear me as I pray;
pay attention to my groaning.

<sup>2</sup>Listen to my cry for help, my King and my God, for I pray to no one but you.

<sup>3</sup>Listen to my voice in the morning, LORD.
Each morning I bring my requests to you and wait expectantly.

<sup>4</sup>O God, you take no pleasure in wickedness;
you cannot tolerate the sins of the wicked.

<sup>5</sup>Therefore, the proud may not stand in your presence, for you hate all who do evil.

<sup>6</sup>You will destroy those who tell lies.
The LORD detests murderers and deceivers.

<sup>7</sup>Because of your unfailing love, I can enter your house;
I will worship at your Temple with deepest awe.

<sup>8</sup>Lead me in the right path, O LORD, or my enemies will conquer me.
Make your way plain for me to follow.

<sup>9</sup>My enemies cannot speak a truthful word.

Their deepest desire is to destroy others.
Their talk is foul, like the stench from an open grave.
Their tongues are filled with flattery.*
<sup>10</sup>O God, declare them guilty.
Let them be caught in their own traps.
Drive them away because of their many sins,
for they have rebelled against you.

<sup>11</sup>But let all who take refuge in you rejoice;
let them sing joyful praises forever.
Spread your protection over them,
that all who love your name may be filled with joy.
<sup>12</sup>For you bless the godly, O LORD;
you surround them with your shield of love.

Psalm 6

*For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be accompanied by an eight-stringed instrument.**

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, don't rebuke me in your anger
or discipline me in your rage.

<sup>2</sup>Have compassion on me, LORD, for I am weak.
Heal me, LORD, for my bones are in agony.

<sup>3</sup>I am sick at heart.
How long, O LORD, until you restore me?

<sup>4</sup>Return, O LORD, and rescue me.
Save me because of your unfailing love.

<sup>5</sup>For the dead do not remember you.
Who can praise you from the grave?*

<sup>6</sup>I am worn out from sobbing.
All night I flood my bed with weeping, drenching it with my tears.
<sup>7</sup>My vision is blurred by grief;
my eyes are worn out because of all my enemies.

<sup>8</sup>Go away, all you who do evil,
for the LORD has heard my weeping.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD has heard my plea;
the LORD will answer my prayer.

<sup>10</sup>May all my enemies be disgraced and terrified.
May they suddenly turn back in shame.

Psalm 7

A psalm of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning Cush of the tribe of Benjamin.

<sup>1</sup>I come to you for protection, O LORD my God.

Save me from my persecutors—rescue me!

<sup>2</sup>If you don't, they will maul me like a lion, tearing me to pieces with no one to rescue me.

<sup>3</sup>O LORD my God, if I have done wrong or am guilty of injustice,

<sup>4</sup>if I have betrayed a friend or plundered my enemy without cause,

<sup>5</sup>then let my enemies capture me.

Let them trample me into the ground and drag my honor in the dust.

<sup>6</sup>Arise, O LORD, in anger!

Stand up against the fury of my enemies!

Wake up, my God, and bring justice!

Rule over them from on high.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD judges the nations.

Declare me righteous, O LORD, for I am innocent, O Most High!

<sup>9</sup>End the evil of those who are wicked, and defend the righteous.

For you look deep within the mind and heart,
O righteous God.

<sup>10</sup>God is my shield, saving those whose hearts are true and right.

<sup>11</sup>God is an honest judge.
He is angry with the wicked every day.

<sup>12</sup>If a person does not repent,
God *will sharpen his sword;
he will bend and string his bow.

<sup>13</sup>He will prepare his deadly weapons and shoot his flaming arrows.

<sup>14</sup>The wicked conceive evil;
they are pregnant with trouble and give birth to lies.

<sup>15</sup>They dig a deep pit to trap others, then fall into it themselves.

<sup>16</sup>The trouble they make for others backfires on them.
The violence they plan falls on their own heads.

<sup>17</sup>I will thank the LORD because he is just;
I will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

Psalm 8

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be accompanied by a stringed instrument.*

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, our Lord, your majestic name fills the earth!
Your glory is higher than the heavens.

<sup>2</sup>You have taught children and infants to tell of your strength,* silencing your enemies and all who oppose you.

<sup>3</sup> When I look at the night sky and see the work of your fingers—

the moon and the stars you set in place—

<sup>4</sup>what are mere mortals that you should think about them, human beings that you should care for them?*

<sup>5</sup>Yet you made them only a little lower than God*
and crowned them* with glory and honor.

<sup>6</sup>You gave them charge of everything you made, putting all things under their authority—

<sup>7</sup>the flocks and the herds and all the wild animals,

<sup>8</sup>the birds in the sky, the fish in the sea, and everything that swims the ocean currents.

Psalm 9

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be sung to the tune "Death of the Son."

<sup>1</sup> I will praise you, LORD, with all my heart;
I will tell of all the marvelous things you have done.

PRAISING GOD FROM A to Z

You can't tell in English, but several psalms are actually acrostics, with each stanza (or line) beginning with the next letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

• Psalms 9–10, which were one psalm originally

• Psalm 25

• Psalm 34

• Psalm 37

• Psalm 111

• Psalm 112

• Psalm 119

• Psalm 145

<sup>2</sup>I will be filled with joy because of you.
I will sing praises to your name, O Most High.

<sup>3</sup>My enemies retreated;
they staggered and died when you appeared.

<sup>4</sup>For you have judged in my favor;
from your throne you have judged with fairness.

<sup>5</sup>You have rebuked the nations and destroyed the wicked;
you have erased their names forever.

<sup>6</sup>The enemy is finished, in endless ruins;
the cities you uprooted are now forgotten.

<sup>7</sup>But the LORD reigns forever,
executing judgment from his throne.

<sup>8</sup>He will judge the world with justice and rule the nations with fairness.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD is a shelter for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

<sup>10</sup>Those who know your name trust in you, for you, O LORD, do not abandon those who search for you.

Tell the world about his unforgettable deeds.

<sup>12</sup>For he who avenges murder cares for the helpless.
He does not ignore the cries of those who suffer.

<sup>13</sup>LORD, have mercy on me.
See how my enemies torment me.
Snatch me back from the jaws of death.

<sup>14</sup>Save me so I can praise you publicly at Jerusalem's gates, so I can rejoice that you have rescued me.

<sup>15</sup>The nations have fallen into the pit they dug for others.
Their own feet have been caught in the trap they set.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD is known for his justice.

The wicked are trapped by their own deeds.

*Quiet Interlude**

<sup>17</sup>The wicked will go down to the grave.*

This is the fate of all the nations who ignore God.

<sup>18</sup>But the needy will not be ignored forever;
the hopes of the poor will not always be crushed.

Do not let mere mortals defy you!

Judge the nations!

<sup>20</sup>Make them tremble in fear, O LORD.

Let the nations know they are merely human.

Interlude

Psalm 10

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, why do you stand so far away?

Why do you hide when I am in trouble?

Let them be caught in the evil they plan for others.

<sup>3</sup>For they brag about their evil desires;
they praise the greedy and curse the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>The wicked are too proud to seek God.

They seem to think that God is dead.

<sup>5</sup>Yet they succeed in everything they do.

They do not see your punishment awaiting them.

They sneer at all their enemies.

We will be free of trouble forever!”

Trouble and evil are on the tips of their tongues.

<sup>8</sup>They lurk in ambush in the villages, waiting to murder innocent people.

They are always searching for helpless victims.

<sup>9</sup>Like lions crouched in hiding,

they wait to pounce on the helpless.

Like hunters they capture the helpless and drag them away in nets.

<sup>10</sup>Their helpless victims are crushed;

they fall beneath the strength of the wicked.

He has closed his eyes and won’t even see what we do!”

Punish the wicked, O God!

Do not ignore the helpless!

They think, “God will never call us to account.”

<sup>14</sup>But you see the trouble and grief they cause.

You take note of it and punish them.

The helpless put their trust in you.

You defend the orphans.

Go after them until the last one is destroyed.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD is king forever and ever!

The godless nations will vanish from the land.

Surely you will hear their cries and comfort them.

<sup>18</sup>You will bring justice to the orphans and the oppressed, so mere people can no longer terrify them.

Psalm 11

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I trust in the LORD for protection.

So why do you say to me,

“Fly like a bird to the mountains for safety!

<sup>2</sup>The wicked are stringing their bows and fitting their arrows on the bowstrings.

They shoot from the shadows at those whose hearts are right.

<sup>3</sup>The foundations of law and order have collapsed.
What can the righteous do?”

<sup>4</sup>But the LORD is in his holy Temple;
the LORD still rules from heaven.

He watches everyone closely,
examining every person on earth.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD examines both the righteous and the wicked.
He hates those who love violence.

<sup>6</sup>He will rain down blazing coals and burning sulfur on the wicked,

punishing them with scorching winds.

<sup>7</sup>For the righteous LORD loves justice.
The virtuous will see his face.

Psalm 12

The faithful have vanished from the earth!

<sup>2</sup>Neighbors lie to each other,
speaking with flattering lips and deceitful hearts.

<sup>3</sup>May the LORD cut off their flattering lips and silence their boastful tongues.

Our lips are our own—who can stop us?”

<sup>5</sup> The LORD replies, “I have seen violence done to the helpless,

and I have heard the groans of the poor.
Now I will rise up to rescue them,
as they have longed for me to do.”

<sup>6</sup>The LORD’s promises are pure, like silver refined in a furnace, purified seven times over.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, LORD, we know you will protect the oppressed, preserving them forever from this lying generation,

<sup>8</sup>even though the wicked strut about,
and evil is praised throughout the land.

Psalm 13

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, how long will you forget me? Forever?

How long will you look the other way?

<sup>2</sup>How long must I struggle with anguish in my soul,
with sorrow in my heart every day?

How long will my enemy have the upper hand?

<sup>3</sup>Turn and answer me, O LORD my God!

Restore the sparkle to my eyes, or I will die.

<sup>4</sup>Don't let my enemies gloat, saying, "We have defeated him!"

Don't let them rejoice at my downfall.

<sup>5</sup>But I trust in your unfailing love.

I will rejoice because you have rescued me.

<sup>6</sup>I will sing to the LORD because he is good to me.

Psalm 14

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Only fools say in their hearts,
“There is no God.”
They are corrupt, and their actions are evil;
not one of them does good!

<sup>2</sup>The LORD looks down from heaven
on the entire human race;
he looks to see if anyone is truly wise,
if anyone seeks God.

<sup>3</sup>But no, all have turned away;
all have become corrupt.*
No one does good,
not a single one!

<sup>4</sup>Will those who do evil never learn?
They eat up my people like bread
and wouldn't think of praying to the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>Terror will grip them,
for God is with those who obey him.

<sup>6</sup>The wicked frustrate the plans of the oppressed, but the LORD will protect his people.

<sup>7</sup>Who will come from Mount Zion to rescue Israel?
When the LORD restores his people,

Jacob will shout with joy, and Israel will rejoice.

Psalm 15

<sup>1</sup>Who may worship in your sanctuary, LORD?

Who may enter your presence on your holy hill?

<sup>2</sup>Those who lead blameless lives and do what is right, speaking the truth from sincere hearts.

<sup>3</sup>Those who refuse to gossip or harm their neighbors or speak evil of their friends.

<sup>4</sup>Those who despise flagrant sinners, and honor the faithful followers of the LORD,
and keep their promises even when it hurts.

<sup>5</sup>Those who lend money without charging interest, and who cannot be bribed to lie about the innocent.
Such people will stand firm forever.

Psalm 16

*A psalm* of David.*

<sup>1</sup>Keep me safe, O God,
for I have come to you for refuge.

<sup>2</sup>I said to the LORD, “You are my Master!
Every good thing I have comes from you.”

<sup>3</sup>The godly people in the land are my true heroes!

I take pleasure in them!

<sup>4</sup>Troubles multiply for those who chase after other gods.
I will not take part in their sacrifices of blood or even speak the names of their gods.

<sup>5</sup>LORD, you alone are my inheritance, my cup of blessing.
You guard all that is mine.

<sup>6</sup>The land you have given me is a pleasant land.
What a wonderful inheritance!

<sup>7</sup>I will bless the LORD who guides me;
even at night my heart instructs me.

<sup>8</sup>I know the LORD is always with me.
I will not be shaken, for he is right beside me.

My body rests in safety.

<sup>10</sup>For you will not leave my soul among the dead*
or allow your holy one* to rot in the grave.

<sup>11</sup>You will show me the way of life, granting me the joy of your presence and the pleasures of living with you forever.*

Psalm 17

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, hear my plea for justice.

Listen to my cry for help.

Pay attention to my prayer,
for it comes from honest lips.

<sup>2</sup>Declare me innocent,
for you see those who do right.

<sup>3</sup>You have tested my thoughts and examined my heart in the night.

You have scrutinized me and found nothing wrong.
I am determined not to sin in what I say.

<sup>4</sup>I have followed your commands, which keep me from following cruel and evil people.

<sup>5</sup>My steps have stayed on your path;
I have not wavered from following you.

<sup>6</sup>I am praying to you because I know you will answer, O God.
Bend down and listen as I pray.

<sup>7</sup>Show me your unfailing love in wonderful ways.
By your mighty power you rescue those who seek refuge from their enemies.

<sup>8</sup>Guard me as you would guard your own eyes.*
Hide me in the shadow of your wings.

<sup>9</sup>Protect me from wicked people who attack me, from murderous enemies who surround me.

<sup>10</sup>They are without pity.

Listen to their boasting!

<sup>11</sup>They track me down and surround me, watching for the chance to throw me to the ground.

<sup>12</sup>They are like hungry lions, eager to tear me apart—like young lions hiding in ambush.

Stand against them, and bring them to their knees!
Rescue me from the wicked with your sword!

<sup>14</sup>By the power of your hand, O LORD, destroy those who look to this world for their reward.
But satisfy the hunger of your treasured ones.
May their children have plenty,
leaving an inheritance for their descendants.

<sup>15</sup>Because I am righteous, I will see you.
When I awake, I will see you face to face and be satisfied.

Psalm 18

For the choir director: A psalm of David, the servant of the LORD. He sang this song to the LORD on the day the LORD rescued him from all his enemies and from Saul. He sang:

<sup>1</sup>I love you, LORD;
you are my strength.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my savior;
my God is my rock, in whom I find protection.
He is my shield, the power that saves me,
and my place of safety.

---

PERSPECTIVES

“I love you, Lord; you are my strength. The Lord is my rock, my fortress, and my savior; my God is my rock, in whom I find protection.”

PSALM 18:1-2

“God give us men. A time like this demands Strong minds, great hearts, true faith, and ready hands;
Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;

Men who love honor; men who will not lie.”

JOSIAH G. HOLLAND (1819–1881), AMERICAN NOVELIST AND POET

---

<sup>3</sup>I called on the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and he saved me from my enemies.

<sup>4</sup>The ropes of death entangled me;
floods of destruction swept over me.

<sup>5</sup>The grave* wrapped its ropes around me;
death laid a trap in my path.

<sup>6</sup>But in my distress I cried out to the LORD;
yes, I prayed to my God for help.
He heard me from his sanctuary;
my cry to him reached his ears.

<sup>7</sup>Then the earth quaked and trembled.
The foundations of the mountains shook;
they quaked because of his anger.

<sup>8</sup>Smoke poured from his nostrils;
fierce flames leaped from his mouth.
Glowing coals blazed forth from him.

<sup>9</sup>He opened the heavens and came down;
dark storm clouds were beneath his feet.

<sup>10</sup>Mounted on a mighty angelic being,* he flew, soaring on the wings of the wind.

<sup>11</sup>He shrouded himself in darkness,

veiling his approach with dark rain clouds.

<sup>12</sup>Thick clouds shielded the brightness around him and rained down hail and burning coals.*

<sup>13</sup>The LORD thundered from heaven;
the voice of the Most High resounded amid the hail and burning coals.

<sup>14</sup>He shot his arrows and scattered his enemies;
his lightning flashed, and they were greatly confused.

<sup>15</sup>Then at your command, O LORD, at the blast of your breath,
the bottom of the sea could be seen,
and the foundations of the earth were laid bare.

<sup>16</sup>He reached down from heaven and rescued me;
he drew me out of deep waters.

<sup>17</sup>He rescued me from my powerful enemies, from those who hated me and were too strong for me.

<sup>18</sup>They attacked me at a moment when I was in distress, but the LORD supported me.

<sup>19</sup>He led me to a place of safety;
he rescued me because he delights in me.

<sup>20</sup>The LORD rewarded me for doing right;
he restored me because of my innocence.

<sup>21</sup>For I have kept the ways of the LORD;
I have not turned from my God to follow evil.

<sup>22</sup>I have followed all his regulations;
I have never abandoned his decrees.

<sup>23</sup>I am blameless before God;

I have kept myself from sin.

<sup>24</sup>The LORD rewarded me for doing right.

He has seen my innocence.

<sup>25</sup> To the faithful you show yourself faithful;
to those with integrity you show integrity.

<sup>26</sup> To the pure you show yourself pure,
but to the wicked you show yourself hostile.

<sup>27</sup> You rescue the humble,
but you humiliate the proud.

The LORD, my God, lights up my darkness.

<sup>29</sup> In your strength I can crush an army;
with my God I can scale any wall.

All the LORD's promises prove true.

He is a shield for all who look to him for protection.

<sup>31</sup> For who is God except the LORD?

Who but our God is a solid rock?

<sup>32</sup> God arms me with strength, and he makes my way perfect.

<sup>33</sup> He makes me as surefooted as a deer, enabling me to stand on mountain heights.

<sup>34</sup> He trains my hands for battle;
he strengthens my arm to draw a bronze bow.

<sup>35</sup> You have given me your shield of victory.
Your right hand supports me;

your help has made me great.

<sup>36</sup>You have made a wide path for my feet to keep them from slipping.

<sup>37</sup>I chased my enemies and caught them;
I did not stop until they were conquered.

<sup>38</sup>I struck them down so they could not get up;
they fell beneath my feet.

<sup>39</sup>You have armed me with strength for the battle;
you have subdued my enemies under my feet.

<sup>40</sup>You placed my foot on their necks.
I have destroyed all who hated me.

<sup>41</sup>They called for help, but no one came to their rescue.
They even cried to the LORD, but he refused to answer.

<sup>42</sup>I ground them as fine as dust in the wind.
I swept them into the gutter like dirt.

<sup>43</sup>You gave me victory over my accusers.
You appointed me ruler over nations;
people I don't even know now serve me.

<sup>44</sup>As soon as they hear of me, they submit;
foreign nations cringe before me.

<sup>45</sup>They all lose their courage and come trembling from their strongholds.

<sup>46</sup>The LORD lives! Praise to my Rock!
May the God of my salvation be exalted!

<sup>47</sup>He is the God who pays back those who harm me;
he subdues the nations under me

<sup>48</sup>and rescues me from my enemies.

You hold me safe beyond the reach of my enemies;
you save me from violent opponents.

<sup>49</sup>For this, O LORD, I will praise you among the nations;
I will sing praises to your name.

<sup>50</sup>You give great victories to your king;
you show unfailing love to your anointed,
to David and all his descendants forever.

Psalm 19

<sup>1</sup> The heavens proclaim the glory of God.

The skies display his craftsmanship.

<sup>2</sup> Day after day they continue to speak;
night after night they make him known.

<sup>3</sup> They speak without a sound or word; their voice is never heard.*

<sup>4</sup> Yet their message has gone throughout the earth, and their words to all the world.

God has made a home in the heavens for the sun.

It rejoices like a great athlete eager to run the race.

<sup>6</sup> The sun rises at one end of the heavens and follows its course to the other end.
Nothing can hide from its heat.

<sup>7</sup> The instructions of the LORD are perfect, reviving the soul.

The decrees of the LORD are trustworthy, making wise the simple.

<sup>8</sup> The commandments of the LORD are right, bringing joy to the heart.

The commands of the LORD are clear, giving insight for living.

<sup>9</sup>Reverence for the LORD is pure, lasting forever.

The laws of the LORD are true;
each one is fair.

<sup>10</sup>They are more desirable than gold, even the finest gold.

They are sweeter than honey,
even honey dripping from the comb.

<sup>11</sup>They are a warning to your servant,
a great reward for those who obey them.

12 How can I know all the sins lurking in my heart?
Cleanse me from these hidden faults.

Don't let them control me.
Then I will be free of guilt and innocent of great sin.

<sup>14</sup>May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
be pleasing to you,
O LORD, my rock and my redeemer.

Psalm 20

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>In times of trouble, may the LORD answer your cry.

May the name of the God of Jacob keep you safe from all harm.

<sup>2</sup>May he send you help from his sanctuary and strengthen you from Jerusalem.*

<sup>3</sup>May he remember all your gifts and look favorably on your burnt offerings.

Interlude

<sup>4</sup>May he grant your heart's desires and make all your plans succeed.

<sup>5</sup>May we shout for joy when we hear of your victory and raise a victory banner in the name of our God.
May the LORD answer all your prayers.

<sup>6</sup>Now I know that the LORD rescues his anointed king.
He will answer him from his holy heaven and rescue him by his great power.

<sup>7</sup>Some nations boast of their chariots and horses,
but we boast in the name of the LORD our God.

<sup>8</sup>Those nations will fall down and collapse,
but we will rise up and stand firm.

<sup>9</sup>Give victory to our king, O LORD!
Answer our cry for help.

Psalm 21

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>How the king rejoices in your strength, O LORD!
He shouts with joy because you give him victory.

What the Bible Says about Emotions

<sup>2</sup>For you have given him his heart's desire;
you have withheld nothing he requested.

Interlude

<sup>3</sup>You welcomed him back with success and prosperity.
You placed a crown of finest gold on his head.

<sup>4</sup>He asked you to preserve his life,
and you granted his request.
The days of his life stretch on forever.

<sup>5</sup>Your victory brings him great honor,
and you have clothed him with splendor and majesty.

<sup>6</sup>You have endowed him with eternal blessings and given him the joy of your presence.

<sup>7</sup>For the king trusts in the LORD.

The unfailing love of the Most High will keep him from stumbling.

<sup>8</sup>You will capture all your enemies.

Your strong right hand will seize all who hate you.

<sup>9</sup>You will throw them in a flaming furnace when you appear.

The LORD will consume them in his anger;
fire will devour them.

<sup>10</sup>You will wipe their children from the face of the earth;
they will never have descendants.

<sup>11</sup>Although they plot against you,
their evil schemes will never succeed.

<sup>12</sup>For they will turn and run when they see your arrows aimed at them.

<sup>13</sup>Rise up, O LORD, in all your power.
With music and singing we celebrate your mighty acts.

Psalm 22

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be sung to the tune “Doe of the Dawn.”

<sup>1</sup>My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?
Why are you so far away when I groan for help?
<sup>2</sup>Every day I call to you, my God, but you do not answer.
Every night you hear my voice, but I find no relief.

<sup>3</sup>Yet you are holy,
enthroned on the praises of Israel.
<sup>4</sup>Our ancestors trusted in you,
and you rescued them.
<sup>5</sup>They cried out to you and were saved.
They trusted in you and were never disgraced.

I am scorned and despised by all!
<sup>7</sup>Everyone who sees me mocks me.
They sneer and shake their heads, saying,
<sup>8</sup>“Is this the one who relies on the LORD?
Then let the LORD save him!
If the LORD loves him so much,
let the LORD rescue him!”

<sup>9</sup>Yet you brought me safely from my mother’s womb and led me to trust you at my mother's breast.

<sup>10</sup>I was thrust into your arms at my birth.

You have been my God from the moment I was born.

<sup>11</sup>Do not stay so far from me, for trouble is near,

and no one else can help me.

<sup>12</sup>My enemies surround me like a herd of bulls;
fierce bulls of Bashan have hemmed me in!

<sup>13</sup>Like lions they open their jaws against me, roaring and tearing into their prey.

<sup>14</sup>My life is poured out like water,
and all my bones are out of joint.

My heart is like wax,
melting within me.

<sup>15</sup>My strength has dried up like sunbaked clay.

My tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.

You have laid me in the dust and left me for dead.

<sup>16</sup>My enemies surround me like a pack of dogs;
an evil gang closes in on me.

They have pierced my hands and feet.

<sup>17</sup>I can count all my bones.

My enemies stare at me and gloat.

<sup>18</sup>They divide my garments among themselves and throw dice* for my clothing.

<sup>19</sup>O LORD, do not stay far away!

You are my strength; come quickly to my aid!

<sup>20</sup>Save me from the sword;
spare my precious life from these dogs.

<sup>21</sup>Snatch me from the lion's jaws and from the horns of these wild oxen.

<sup>22</sup>I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters.*
I will praise you among your assembled people.

<sup>23</sup>Praise the LORD, all you who fear him!
Honor him, all you descendants of Jacob!
Show him reverence, all you descendants of Israel!

<sup>24</sup>For he has not ignored or belittled the suffering of the needy.

He has not turned his back on them,
but has listened to their cries for help.

<sup>25</sup>I will praise you in the great assembly.
I will fulfill my vows in the presence of those who worship you.

<sup>26</sup>The poor will eat and be satisfied.
All who seek the LORD will praise him.
Their hearts will rejoice with everlasting joy.

<sup>27</sup>The whole earth will acknowledge the LORD and return to him.

All the families of the nations will bow down before him.

<sup>28</sup>For royal power belongs to the LORD.
He rules all the nations.

<sup>29</sup>Let the rich of the earth feast and worship.

Bow before him, all who are mortal,
all whose lives will end as dust.

<sup>30</sup>Our children will also serve him.

Future generations will hear about the wonders of the Lord.

<sup>31</sup>His righteous acts will be told to those not yet born.

They will hear about everything he has done.

Psalm 23

<sup>1</sup> The LORD is my shepherd;

I have all that I need.

<sup>2</sup> He lets me rest in green meadows;
he leads me beside peaceful streams.

<sup>3</sup> He renews my strength.

He guides me along right paths, bringing honor to his name.

<sup>4</sup> Even when I walk through the darkest valley, *

I will not be afraid,
for you are close beside me.

Your rod and your staff protect and comfort me.

<sup>5</sup> You prepare a feast for me in the presence of my enemies.

You honor me by anointing my head with oil.
My cup overflows with blessings.

<sup>6</sup> Surely your goodness and unfailing love will pursue me all the days of my life, and I will live in the house of the LORD forever.

Psalm 24

<sup>1</sup>The earth is the LORD's, and everything in it.
The world and all its people belong to him.
<sup>2</sup>For he laid the earth's foundation on the seas and built it on the ocean depths.

<sup>3</sup>Who may climb the mountain of the LORD?
Who may stand in his holy place?
<sup>4</sup>Only those whose hands and hearts are pure, who do not worship idols
and never tell lies.
<sup>5</sup>They will receive the LORD's blessing and have a right relationship with God their savior.
<sup>6</sup>Such people may seek you and worship in your presence, O God of Jacob.

<sup>7</sup>Open up, ancient gates!
Open up, ancient doors,
and let the King of glory enter.
<sup>8</sup>Who is the King of glory?
The LORD, strong and mighty;
the LORD, invincible in battle.
<sup>9</sup>Open up, ancient gates!

Open up, ancient doors,
and let the King of glory enter.
<sup>10</sup>Who is the King of glory?
The LORD of Heaven's Armies—
he is the King of glory.

Interlude

Psalm 25 *

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, I give my life to you.

<sup>2</sup>I trust in you, my God!

Do not let me be disgraced, or let my enemies rejoice in my defeat.

<sup>3</sup>No one who trusts in you will ever be disgraced, but disgrace comes to those who try to deceive others.

<sup>4</sup>Show me the right path, O LORD;
point out the road for me to follow.

<sup>5</sup>Lead me by your truth and teach me,
for you are the God who saves me.
All day long I put my hope in you.

<sup>6</sup>Remember, O LORD, your compassion and unfailing love, which you have shown from long ages past.

<sup>7</sup>Do not remember the rebellious sins of my youth.
Remember me in the light of your unfailing love,
for you are merciful, O LORD.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD is good and does what is right;
he shows the proper path to those who go astray.

<sup>9</sup>He leads the humble in doing right, teaching them his way.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD leads with unfailing love and faithfulness all who keep his covenant and obey his demands.

<sup>11</sup>For the honor of your name, O LORD, forgive my many, many sins.

<sup>12</sup>Who are those who fear the LORD?
He will show them the path they should choose.

<sup>13</sup>They will live in prosperity, and their children will inherit the land.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD is a friend to those who fear him.
He teaches them his covenant.

<sup>15</sup>My eyes are always on the LORD, for he rescues me from the traps of my enemies.

<sup>16</sup>Turn to me and have mercy,
for I am alone and in deep distress.

Oh, save me from them all!

<sup>18</sup>Feel my pain and see my trouble.
Forgive all my sins.

<sup>19</sup>See how many enemies I have and how viciously they hate me!

<sup>20</sup>Protect me! Rescue my life from them!
Do not let me be disgraced, for in you I take refuge.

<sup>21</sup>May integrity and honesty protect me,
for I put my hope in you.

<sup>22</sup>O God, ransom Israel from all its troubles.

Psalm 26

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Declare me innocent, O LORD, for I have acted with integrity;
I have trusted in the LORD without wavering.

<sup>2</sup>Put me on trial, LORD, and cross-examine me.
Test my motives and my heart.

<sup>3</sup>For I am always aware of your unfailing love, and I have lived according to your truth.

<sup>4</sup>I do not spend time with liars or go along with hypocrites.

<sup>5</sup>I hate the gatherings of those who do evil,
and I refuse to join in with the wicked.

<sup>6</sup>I wash my hands to declare my innocence.
I come to your altar, O LORD,

<sup>7</sup>singing a song of thanksgiving and telling of all your wonders.

<sup>8</sup>I love your sanctuary, LORD,
the place where your glorious presence dwells.

<sup>9</sup>Don't let me suffer the fate of sinners.
Don't condemn me along with murderers.

<sup>10</sup>Their hands are dirty with evil schemes, and they constantly take bribes.

<sup>11</sup>But I am not like that; I live with integrity.

So redeem me and show me mercy.

<sup>12</sup>Now I stand on solid ground,
and I will publicly praise the LORD.

Psalm 27

<sup>1</sup>The LORD is my light and my salvation—
so why should I be afraid?

The LORD is my fortress, protecting me from danger,
so why should I tremble?

<sup>2</sup>When evil people come to devour me, when my enemies and foes attack me,
they will stumble and fall.

<sup>3</sup>Though a mighty army surrounds me, my heart will not be afraid.

Even if I am attacked,
I will remain confident.

<sup>4</sup>The one thing I ask of the LORD—the thing I seek most—is to live in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, delighting in the LORD's perfections and meditating in his Temple.

<sup>5</sup>For he will conceal me there when troubles come;
he will hide me in his sanctuary.
He will place me out of reach on a high rock.

<sup>6</sup>Then I will hold my head high above my enemies who surround me.
At his sanctuary I will offer sacrifices with shouts of joy, singing and praising the LORD with music.

<sup>7</sup>Hear me as I pray, O LORD.

Be merciful and answer me!

<sup>8</sup>My heart has heard you say, “Come and talk with me.”

And my heart responds, “LORD, I am coming.”

<sup>9</sup>Do not turn your back on me.

Do not reject your servant in anger.

You have always been my helper.

Don’t leave me now; don’t abandon me,

O God of my salvation!

<sup>10</sup>Even if my father and mother abandon me,
the LORD will hold me close.

<sup>11</sup>Teach me how to live, O LORD.

Lead me along the right path,
for my enemies are waiting for me.

<sup>12</sup>Do not let me fall into their hands.

For they accuse me of things I’ve never done;
with every breath they threaten me with violence.

<sup>13</sup>Yet I am confident I will see the LORD’s goodness while I am here in the land of the living.

<sup>14</sup>Wait patiently for the LORD.

Be brave and courageous.

Yes, wait patiently for the LORD.

Psalm 28

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I pray to you, O LORD, my rock.

Do not turn a deaf ear to me.

For if you are silent,

I might as well give up and die.

<sup>2</sup>Listen to my prayer for mercy

as I cry out to you for help,

as I lift my hands toward your holy sanctuary.

<sup>3</sup>Do not drag me away with the wicked—

with those who do evil—

those who speak friendly words to their neighbors

while planning evil in their hearts.

<sup>4</sup>Give them the punishment they so richly deserve!

Measure it out in proportion to their wickedness.

Pay them back for all their evil deeds!

Give them a taste of what they have done to others.

<sup>5</sup>They care nothing for what the LORD has done or for what his hands have made.

So he will tear them down,

and they will never be rebuilt!

<sup>6</sup>Praise the LORD!

For he has heard my cry for mercy.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD is my strength and shield.

I trust him with all my heart.
He helps me, and my heart is filled with joy.
I burst out in songs of thanksgiving.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD gives his people strength.
He is a safe fortress for his anointed king.

Bless Israel, your special possession.*
Lead them like a shepherd, and carry them in your arms forever.

Psalm 29

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Honor the LORD, you heavenly beings*;
honor the LORD for his glory and strength.

<sup>2</sup>Honor the LORD for the glory of his name.
Worship the LORD in the splendor of his holiness.

<sup>3</sup>The voice of the LORD echoes above the sea.
The God of glory thunders.

The LORD thunders over the mighty sea.

<sup>4</sup>The voice of the LORD is powerful;
the voice of the LORD is majestic.

<sup>5</sup>The voice of the LORD splits the mighty cedars;
the LORD shatters the cedars of Lebanon.

<sup>6</sup>He makes Lebanon's mountains skip like a calf;
he makes Mount Hermon* leap like a young wild ox.

<sup>7</sup>The voice of the LORD strikes with bolts of lightning.

<sup>8</sup>The voice of the LORD makes the barren wilderness quake;
the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

<sup>9</sup>The voice of the LORD twists mighty oaks*
and strips the forests bare.

In his Temple everyone shouts, "Glory!"

<sup>10</sup>The LORD rules over the floodwaters.

The LORD reigns as king forever.

The LORD blesses them with peace.

Psalm 30

A psalm of David. A song for the dedication of the Temple.

<sup>1</sup> I will exalt you, LORD, for you rescued me.
You refused to let my enemies triumph over me.
<sup>2</sup> O LORD my God, I cried to you for help, and you restored my health.
<sup>3</sup> You brought me up from the grave,* O LORD.
You kept me from falling into the pit of death.

<sup>4</sup> Sing to the LORD, all you godly ones!
Praise his holy name.
<sup>5</sup> For his anger lasts only a moment,
but his favor lasts a lifetime!
Weeping may last through the night,
but joy comes with the morning.

<sup>6</sup> When I was prosperous, I said,
“Nothing can stop me now!”
<sup>7</sup> Your favor, O LORD, made me as secure as a mountain.
Then you turned away from me, and I was shattered.

<sup>8</sup> I cried out to you, O LORD.
I begged the Lord for mercy, saying, <sup>9</sup> “What will you gain if I die,
if I sink into the grave?

Can my dust praise you?
Can it tell of your faithfulness?

<sup>10</sup> Hear me, LORD, and have mercy on me.
Help me, O LORD.”

<sup>11</sup> You have turned my mourning into joyful dancing.
You have taken away my clothes of mourning and clothed me with joy,
<sup>12</sup> that I might sing praises to you and not be silent.
O LORD my God, I will give you thanks forever!

Psalm 31

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, I have come to you for protection;
don't let me be disgraced.

Save me, for you do what is right.

<sup>2</sup>Turn your ear to listen to me;
rescue me quickly.

Be my rock of protection,
a fortress where I will be safe.

<sup>3</sup>You are my rock and my fortress.
For the honor of your name, lead me out of this danger.

<sup>4</sup>Pull me from the trap my enemies set for me,
for I find protection in you alone.

<sup>5</sup>I entrust my spirit into your hand.
Rescue me, LORD, for you are a faithful God.

<sup>6</sup>I hate those who worship worthless idols.
I trust in the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>I will be glad and rejoice in your unfailing love, for you have seen my troubles,
and you care about the anguish of my soul.

<sup>8</sup>You have not handed me over to my enemies but have set me in a safe place.

<sup>9</sup>Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am in distress.

Tears blur my eyes.

My body and soul are withering away.

<sup>10</sup>I am dying from grief;
my years are shortened by sadness.

Sin has drained my strength;
I am wasting away from within.

<sup>11</sup>I am scorned by all my enemies and despised by my neighbors—
even my friends are afraid to come near me.
When they see me on the street,
they run the other way.

<sup>12</sup>I am ignored as if I were dead,
as if I were a broken pot.

<sup>13</sup>I have heard the many rumors about me,
and I am surrounded by terror.
My enemies conspire against me,
plotting to take my life.

<sup>14</sup>But I am trusting you, O LORD, saying, “You are my God!”

<sup>15</sup>My future is in your hands.
Rescue me from those who hunt me down relentlessly.

<sup>16</sup>Let your favor shine on your servant.
In your unfailing love, rescue me.

<sup>17</sup>Don’t let me be disgraced, O LORD, for I call out to you for help.
Let the wicked be disgraced;
let them lie silent in the grave.*

<sup>18</sup>Silence their lying lips—those proud and arrogant lips that accuse the godly.

<sup>19</sup>How great is the goodness
you have stored up for those who fear you.
You lavish it on those who come to you for protection, blessing them before the watching world.

<sup>20</sup>You hide them in the shelter of your presence, safe from those who conspire against them.
You shelter them in your presence,
far from accusing tongues.

<sup>21</sup>Praise the LORD,
for he has shown me the wonders of his unfailing love.
He kept me safe when my city was under attack.

<sup>22</sup>In panic I cried out,
“I am cut off from the LORD!”
But you heard my cry for mercy and answered my call for help.

<sup>23</sup>Love the LORD, all you godly ones!
For the LORD protects those who are loyal to him,
but he harshly punishes the arrogant.

<sup>24</sup>So be strong and courageous,
all you who put your hope in the LORD!

Psalm 32

*A psalm* of David.*

<sup>1</sup> Oh, what joy for those whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sin is put out of sight!

<sup>2</sup> Yes, what joy for those whose record the LORD has cleared of guilt,* whose lives are lived in complete honesty!

<sup>3</sup> When I refused to confess my sin,
my body wasted away,
and I groaned all day long.

<sup>4</sup> Day and night your hand of discipline was heavy on me.
My strength evaporated like water in the summer heat.

Interlude

<sup>5</sup> Finally, I confessed all my sins to you and stopped trying to hide my guilt.
I said to myself, “I will confess my rebellion to the LORD.”
And you forgave me! All my guilt is gone.

Interlude

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, let all the godly pray to you while there is still time,

that they may not drown in the floodwaters of judgment.

<sup>7</sup> For you are my hiding place;
you protect me from trouble.

You surround me with songs of victory.

Interlude

<sup>8</sup>The LORD says, “I will guide you along the best pathway for your life.

I will advise you and watch over you.

<sup>9</sup>Do not be like a senseless horse or mule that needs a bit and bridle to keep it under control.”

<sup>10</sup>Many sorrows come to the wicked, but unfailing love surrounds those who trust the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>So rejoice in the LORD and be glad, all you who obey him!
Shout for joy, all you whose hearts are pure!

Psalm 33

<sup>1</sup>Let the godly sing for joy to the LORD;
it is fitting for the pure to praise him.

<sup>2</sup>Praise the LORD with melodies on the lyre;
make music for him on the ten-stringed harp.

<sup>3</sup>Sing a new song of praise to him;
play skillfully on the harp, and sing with joy.

<sup>4</sup>For the word of the LORD holds true, and we can trust everything he does.

<sup>5</sup>He loves whatever is just and good;
the unfailing love of the LORD fills the earth.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD merely spoke,
and the heavens were created.

He breathed the word,
and all the stars were born.

<sup>7</sup>He assigned the sea its boundaries and locked the oceans in vast reservoirs.

<sup>8</sup>Let the whole world fear the LORD, and let everyone stand in awe of him.

<sup>9</sup>For when he spoke, the world began!
It appeared at his command.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD frustrates the plans of the nations and thwarts all their schemes.

<sup>11</sup>But the LORD's plans stand firm forever;

his intentions can never be shaken.

<sup>12</sup>What joy for the nation whose God is the LORD, whose people he has chosen as his inheritance.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD looks down from heaven
and sees the whole human race.

<sup>14</sup>From his throne he observes
all who live on the earth.

<sup>15</sup>He made their hearts,
so he understands everything they do.

<sup>16</sup>The best-equipped army cannot save a king,
nor is great strength enough to save a warrior.

<sup>17</sup>Don't count on your warhorse to give you victory—for all its strength, it cannot save you.

<sup>18</sup>But the LORD watches over those who fear him, those who rely on his unfailing love.

<sup>19</sup>He rescues them from death and keeps them alive in times of famine.

<sup>20</sup>We put our hope in the LORD.
He is our help and our shield.

<sup>21</sup>In him our hearts rejoice, for we trust in his holy name.

<sup>22</sup>Let your unfailing love surround us, LORD, for our hope is in you alone.

Psalm 34 *

A psalm of David, regarding the time he pretended to be insane in front of Abimelech, who sent him away.

<sup>1</sup> I will praise the LORD at all times.
I will constantly speak his praises.

<sup>2</sup> I will boast only in the LORD;
let all who are helpless take heart.

<sup>3</sup> Come, let us tell of the LORD's greatness;
let us exalt his name together.

<sup>4</sup> I prayed to the LORD, and he answered me.
He freed me from all my fears.

<sup>5</sup> Those who look to him for help will be radiant with joy;
no shadow of shame will darken their faces.

<sup>6</sup> In my desperation I prayed, and the LORD listened;
he saved me from all my troubles.

<sup>7</sup> For the angel of the LORD is a guard;
he surrounds and defends all who fear him.

<sup>8</sup> Taste and see that the LORD is good.
Oh, the joys of those who take refuge in him!

<sup>9</sup> Fear the LORD, you his godly people, for those who fear him will have all they need.

<sup>10</sup> Even strong young lions sometimes go hungry, but those who trust in the LORD will lack no good thing.

<sup>11</sup>Come, my children, and listen to me, and I will teach you to fear the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>Does anyone want to live a life that is long and prosperous?

<sup>13</sup>Then keep your tongue from speaking evil and your lips from telling lies!

<sup>14</sup>Turn away from evil and do good.
Search for peace, and work to maintain it.

<sup>15</sup>The eyes of the LORD watch over those who do right;
his ears are open to their cries for help.

<sup>16</sup>But the LORD turns his face against those who do evil;
he will erase their memory from the earth.

<sup>17</sup>The LORD hears his people when they call to him for help.
He rescues them from all their troubles.

<sup>18</sup>The LORD is close to the brokenhearted;
he rescues those whose spirits are crushed.

<sup>19</sup>The righteous person faces many troubles, but the LORD comes to the rescue each time.

<sup>20</sup>For the LORD protects the bones of the righteous;
not one of them is broken!

<sup>21</sup>Calamity will surely overtake the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be punished.

<sup>22</sup>But the LORD will redeem those who serve him.
No one who takes refuge in him will be condemned.

Psalm 35

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, oppose those who oppose me.

Fight those who fight against me.

<sup>2</sup>Put on your armor, and take up your shield.

Prepare for battle, and come to my aid.

<sup>3</sup>Lift up your spear and javelin against those who pursue me.

Let me hear you say,

“I will give you victory!”

<sup>4</sup>Bring shame and disgrace on those trying to kill me;
turn them back and humiliate those who want to harm me.

<sup>5</sup>Blow them away like chaff in the wind—
a wind sent by the angel of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>Make their path dark and slippery,
with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.

<sup>7</sup>I did them no wrong, but they laid a trap for me.
I did them no wrong, but they dug a pit to catch me.

<sup>8</sup>So let sudden ruin come upon them!
Let them be caught in the trap they set for me!
Let them be destroyed in the pit they dug for me.

<sup>9</sup>Then I will rejoice in the LORD.

I will be glad because he rescues me.

<sup>10</sup>With every bone in my body I will praise him:

“LORD, who can compare with you?
Who else rescues the helpless from the strong?
Who else protects the helpless and poor from those who rob them?”

<sup>11</sup>Malicious witnesses testify against me.
They accuse me of crimes I know nothing about.

<sup>12</sup>They repay me evil for good.
I am sick with despair.

<sup>13</sup>Yet when they were ill, I grieved for them.
I denied myself by fasting for them,
but my prayers returned unanswered.

<sup>14</sup>I was sad, as though they were my friends or family, as if I were grieving for my own mother.

<sup>15</sup>But they are glad now that I am in trouble;
they gleefully join together against me.
I am attacked by people I don't even know;
they slander me constantly.

<sup>16</sup>They mock me and call me names;
they snarl at me.

<sup>17</sup>How long, O Lord, will you look on and do nothing?
Rescue me from their fierce attacks.
Protect my life from these lions!

<sup>18</sup>Then I will thank you in front of the great assembly.
I will praise you before all the people.

<sup>19</sup>Don't let my treacherous enemies rejoice over my defeat.
Don't let those who hate me without cause gloat over my sorrow.

<sup>20</sup>They don't talk of peace;
they plot against innocent people who mind their own business.

<sup>21</sup>They shout, "Aha! Aha!
With our own eyes we saw him do it!"

<sup>22</sup>O LORD, you know all about this.

Do not stay silent.

Do not abandon me now, O Lord.

<sup>23</sup>Wake up! Rise to my defense!

Take up my case, my God and my Lord.

<sup>24</sup>Declare me not guilty, O LORD my God, for you give justice.

Don't let my enemies laugh about me in my troubles.

<sup>25</sup>Don't let them say, "Look, we got what we wanted!

Now we will eat him alive!"

<sup>26</sup>May those who rejoice at my troubles be humiliated and disgraced.

May those who triumph over me be covered with shame and dishonor.

<sup>27</sup>But give great joy to those who came to my defense.

Let them continually say, "Great is the LORD, who delights in blessing his servant with peace!"

<sup>28</sup>Then I will proclaim your justice, and I will praise you all day long.

Psalm 36

For the choir director: A psalm of David, the servant of the LORD.

<sup>1</sup>Sin whispers to the wicked, deep within their hearts.
They have no fear of God at all.

<sup>2</sup>In their blind conceit, they cannot see how wicked they really are.

They refuse to act wisely or do good.

<sup>4</sup>They lie awake at night, hatching sinful plots.
Their actions are never good.
They make no attempt to turn from evil.

<sup>5</sup>Your unfailing love, O LORD, is as vast as the heavens;
your faithfulness reaches beyond the clouds.

<sup>6</sup>Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains, your justice like the ocean depths.
You care for people and animals alike, O LORD.

<sup>7</sup>How precious is your unfailing love, O God!
All humanity finds shelter in the shadow of your wings.

<sup>8</sup>You feed them from the abundance of your own house, letting them drink from your river of delights.

<sup>9</sup>For you are the fountain of life,
the light by which we see.

<sup>10</sup>Pour out your unfailing love on those who love you;
give justice to those with honest hearts.

<sup>11</sup>Don't let the proud trample me or the wicked push me around.

<sup>12</sup>Look! Those who do evil have fallen!
They are thrown down, never to rise again.

Psalm 37 *

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Don't worry about the wicked or envy those who do wrong.

<sup>2</sup>For like grass, they soon fade away.
Like spring flowers, they soon wither.

<sup>3</sup>Trust in the LORD and do good.
Then you will live safely in the land and prosper.

<sup>4</sup>Take delight in the LORD,
and he will give you your heart's desires.

Personal Gold

It's Okay to Scream

<sup>5</sup>Commit everything you do to the LORD.
Trust him, and he will help you.

<sup>6</sup>He will make your innocence radiate like the dawn, and the justice of your cause will shine like the noonday sun.

<sup>7</sup>Be still in the presence of the LORD, and wait patiently for him to act.
Don't worry about evil people who prosper or fret about their wicked schemes.

<sup>8</sup>Stop being angry!
Turn from your rage!
Do not lose your temper—
it only leads to harm.

<sup>9</sup>For the wicked will be destroyed, but those who trust in the LORD will possess the land.

<sup>10</sup>Soon the wicked will disappear.
Though you look for them, they will be gone.

<sup>11</sup>The lowly will possess the land and will live in peace and prosperity.

<sup>12</sup>The wicked plot against the godly;
they snarl at them in defiance.

<sup>13</sup>But the Lord just laughs,
for he sees their day of judgment coming.

<sup>14</sup>The wicked draw their swords and string their bows
to kill the poor and the oppressed, to slaughter those who do right.

<sup>15</sup>But their swords will stab their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.

<sup>16</sup>It is better to be godly and have little than to be evil and rich.

<sup>17</sup>For the strength of the wicked will be shattered, but the LORD takes care of the godly.

<sup>18</sup>Day by day the LORD takes care of the innocent, and they will receive an inheritance that lasts forever.

<sup>19</sup>They will not be disgraced in hard times;
even in famine they will have more than enough.

<sup>20</sup>But the wicked will die.

The LORD's enemies are like flowers in a field—
they will disappear like smoke.

<sup>21</sup>The wicked borrow and never repay,
but the godly are generous givers.

<sup>22</sup>Those the LORD blesses will possess the land, but those he curses will die.

<sup>23</sup>The LORD directs the steps of the godly.
He delights in every detail of their lives.

<sup>24</sup>Though they stumble, they will never fall, for the LORD holds them by the hand.

<sup>25</sup>Once I was young, and now I am old.
Yet I have never seen the godly abandoned or their children begging for bread.

<sup>26</sup>The godly always give generous loans to others, and their children are a blessing.

<sup>27</sup>Turn from evil and do good,

and you will live in the land forever.

<sup>28</sup>For the LORD loves justice, and he will never abandon the godly.

He will keep them safe forever,
but the children of the wicked will die.

<sup>29</sup>The godly will possess the land and will live there forever.

<sup>30</sup>The godly offer good counsel;
they teach right from wrong.

<sup>31</sup>They have made God's law their own,
so they will never slip from his path.

<sup>32</sup>The wicked wait in ambush for the godly, looking for an excuse to kill them.

<sup>33</sup>But the LORD will not let the wicked succeed or let the godly be condemned when they are put on trial.

<sup>34</sup>Put your hope in the LORD.
Travel steadily along his path.
He will honor you by giving you the land.
You will see the wicked destroyed.

<sup>35</sup>I have seen wicked and ruthless people flourishing like a tree in its native soil.

<sup>36</sup>But when I looked again, they were gone!
Though I searched for them, I could not find them!

<sup>37</sup>Look at those who are honest and good,
for a wonderful future awaits those who love peace.

<sup>38</sup>But the rebellious will be destroyed;
they have no future.

<sup>39</sup>The LORD rescues the godly;
he is their fortress in times of trouble.

<sup>40</sup>The LORD helps them, rescuing them from the wicked.
He saves them,
and they find shelter in him.

Psalm 38

A psalm of David, asking God to remember him.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, don't rebuke me in your anger
or discipline me in your rage!

<sup>2</sup>Your arrows have struck deep,
and your blows are crushing me.

<sup>3</sup>Because of your anger, my whole body is sick;
my health is broken because of my sins.

<sup>4</sup>My guilt overwhelms me—
it is a burden too heavy to bear.

<sup>5</sup>My wounds fester and stink because of my foolish sins.

<sup>6</sup>I am bent over and racked with pain.
All day long I walk around filled with grief.

<sup>7</sup>A raging fever burns within me,
and my health is broken.

<sup>8</sup>I am exhausted and completely crushed.
My groans come from an anguished heart.

<sup>9</sup>You know what I long for, Lord;
you hear my every sigh.

<sup>10</sup>My heart beats wildly, my strength fails, and I am going blind.

<sup>11</sup>My loved ones and friends stay away, fearing my disease.
Even my own family stands at a distance.

<sup>12</sup>Meanwhile, my enemies lay traps to kill me.
Those who wish me harm make plans to ruin me.
All day long they plan their treachery.

<sup>13</sup>But I am deaf to all their threats.
I am silent before them as one who cannot speak.

<sup>14</sup>I choose to hear nothing, and I make no reply.

<sup>15</sup>For I am waiting for you, O LORD.
You must answer for me, O Lord my God.

<sup>16</sup>I prayed, "Don't let my enemies gloat over me or rejoice at my downfall."

<sup>17</sup>I am on the verge of collapse, facing constant pain.

<sup>18</sup>But I confess my sins;
I am deeply sorry for what I have done.

<sup>19</sup>I have many aggressive enemies;
they hate me without reason.

<sup>20</sup>They repay me evil for good and oppose me for pursuing good.

<sup>21</sup>Do not abandon me, O LORD.
Do not stand at a distance, my God.

<sup>22</sup>Come quickly to help me,
O Lord my savior.

Psalm 39

For Jeduthun, the choir director: A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I said to myself, “I will watch what I do and not sin in what I say.

I will hold my tongue
when the ungodly are around me.”

<sup>2</sup>But as I stood there in silence—not even speaking of good things—the turmoil within me grew worse.

<sup>3</sup>The more I thought about it, the hotter I got,
igniting a fire of words:

<sup>4</sup>“LORD, remind me how brief my time on earth will be.
Remind me that my days are numbered—how fleeting my life is.

<sup>5</sup>You have made my life no longer than the width of my hand.
My entire lifetime is just a moment to you;
at best, each of us is but a breath.”

Interlude

<sup>6</sup>We are merely moving shadows, and all our busy rushing ends in nothing.
We heap up wealth,
not knowing who will spend it.

<sup>7</sup>And so, Lord, where do I put my hope?
My only hope is in you.

<sup>8</sup>Rescue me from my rebellion.
Do not let fools mock me.

<sup>9</sup>I am silent before you; I won't say a word, for my punishment is from you.

<sup>10</sup>But please stop striking me!
I am exhausted by the blows from your hand.

<sup>11</sup>When you discipline us for our sins,
you consume like a moth what is precious to us.
Each of us is but a breath.

Interlude

<sup>12</sup>Hear my prayer, O LORD!
Listen to my cries for help!
Don't ignore my tears.
For I am your guest—
a traveler passing through,
as my ancestors were before me.

<sup>13</sup>Leave me alone so I can smile again before I am gone and exist no more.

Psalm 40

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I waited patiently for the LORD to help me,
and he turned to me and heard my cry.

<sup>2</sup>He lifted me out of the pit of despair,
out of the mud and the mire.

He set my feet on solid ground and steadied me as I walked along.

<sup>3</sup>He has given me a new song to sing,
a hymn of praise to our God.
Many will see what he has done and be amazed.
They will put their trust in the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>Oh, the joys of those who trust the LORD, who have no confidence in the proud or in those who worship idols.

<sup>5</sup>O LORD my God, you have performed many wonders for us.
Your plans for us are too numerous to list.
You have no equal.
If I tried to recite all your wonderful deeds,
I would never come to the end of them.

<sup>6</sup>You take no delight in sacrifices or offerings.
Now that you have made me listen, I finally understand*— you don't require burnt offerings or sin offerings.

<sup>7</sup>Then I said, "Look, I have come.

As is written about me in the Scriptures:

<sup>8</sup>I take joy in doing your will, my God, for your instructions are written on my heart.”

<sup>9</sup>I have told all your people about your justice.
I have not been afraid to speak out,
as you, O LORD, well know.

<sup>10</sup>I have not kept the good news of your justice hidden in my heart;

I have talked about your faithfulness and saving power.
I have told everyone in the great assembly of your unfailing love and faithfulness.

<sup>11</sup>LORD, don't hold back your tender mercies from me.
Let your unfailing love and faithfulness always protect me.

<sup>12</sup>For troubles surround me—
too many to count!
My sins pile up so high
I can't see my way out.
They outnumber the hairs on my head.
I have lost all courage.

<sup>13</sup>Please, LORD, rescue me!
Come quickly, LORD, and help me.

<sup>14</sup>May those who try to destroy me
be humiliated and put to shame.
May those who take delight in my trouble
be turned back in disgrace.

<sup>15</sup>Let them be horrified by their shame,
for they said, “Aha! We’ve got him now!”

<sup>16</sup>But may all who search for you
be filled with joy and gladness in you.
May those who love your salvation repeatedly shout, “The LORD is great!”

<sup>17</sup>As for me, since I am poor and needy, let the Lord keep me in his thoughts.
You are my helper and my savior.
O my God, do not delay.

Psalm 41

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> Oh, the joys of those who are kind to the poor!
The LORD rescues them when they are in trouble.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD protects them and keeps them alive.

He gives them prosperity in the land and rescues them from their enemies.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD nurses them when they are sick and restores them to health.

<sup>4</sup> “O LORD,” I prayed, “have mercy on me.
Heal me, for I have sinned against you.”

<sup>5</sup> But my enemies say nothing but evil about me.
“How soon will he die and be forgotten?” they ask.

<sup>6</sup> They visit me as if they were my friends, but all the while they gather gossip,
and when they leave, they spread it everywhere.

<sup>7</sup> All who hate me whisper about me, imagining the worst.

<sup>8</sup> “He has some fatal disease,” they say.
“He will never get out of that bed!”

<sup>9</sup> Even my best friend, the one I trusted completely, the one who shared my food, has turned against me.

<sup>10</sup>LORD, have mercy on me.

Make me well again, so I can pay them back!

<sup>11</sup>I know you are pleased with me,
for you have not let my enemies triumph over me.

<sup>12</sup>You have preserved my life because I am innocent;
you have brought me into your presence forever.

<sup>13</sup>Praise the LORD, the God of Israel,
who lives from everlasting to everlasting.
Amen and amen!

BOOK TWO (Psalms 42–72)

Psalm 42

*For the choir director: A psalm* of the descendants of Korah.*

<sup>1</sup>As the deer longs for streams of water,
so I long for you, O God.

<sup>2</sup>I thirst for God, the living God.

When can I go and stand before him?

<sup>3</sup>Day and night I have only tears for food, while my enemies continually taunt me, saying,
“Where is this God of yours?”

<sup>4</sup>My heart is breaking as I remember how it used to be:
I walked among the crowds of worshipers, leading a great procession to the house of God, singing for joy and giving thanks
amid the sound of a great celebration!

<sup>5</sup>Why am I discouraged?
Why is my heart so sad?
I will put my hope in God!
I will praise him again—
my Savior and <sup>6</sup>my God!

Now I am deeply discouraged,

but I will remember you—even from distant Mount Hermon, the source of the Jordan, from the land of Mount Mizar.

<sup>7</sup>I hear the tumult of the raging seas
as your waves and surging tides sweep over me.

<sup>8</sup>But each day the LORD pours his unfailing love upon me, and through each night I sing his songs, praying to God who gives me life.

<sup>9</sup>“O God my rock,” I cry,
“Why have you forgotten me?
Why must I wander around in grief,
oppressed by my enemies?”

They scoff, “Where is this God of yours?”

<sup>11</sup>Why am I discouraged?
Why is my heart so sad?
I will put my hope in God!
I will praise him again—
my Savior and my God!

Psalm 43

<sup>1</sup>Declare me innocent, O God!
Defend me against these ungodly people.
Rescue me from these unjust liars.

Why have you tossed me aside?
Why must I wander around in grief,
oppressed by my enemies?

<sup>3</sup>Send out your light and your truth;
let them guide me.
Let them lead me to your holy mountain,
to the place where you live.

<sup>4</sup>There I will go to the altar of God,
to God—the source of all my joy.
I will praise you with my harp,
O God, my God!

<sup>5</sup>Why am I discouraged?
Why is my heart so sad?
I will put my hope in God!
I will praise him again—
my Savior and my God!

Psalm 44

*For the choir director: A psalm* of the descendants of Korah.*

<sup>1</sup>O God, we have heard it with our own ears—our ancestors have told us of all you did in their day,
in days long ago:

<sup>2</sup>You drove out the pagan nations by your power and gave all the land to our ancestors.
You crushed their enemies and set our ancestors free.

<sup>3</sup>They did not conquer the land with their swords;
it was not their own strong arm that gave them victory.
It was your right hand and strong arm and the blinding light from your face that helped them, for you loved them.

<sup>4</sup>You are my King and my God.
You command victories for Israel.*

<sup>5</sup>Only by your power can we push back our enemies;
only in your name can we trample our foes.

<sup>6</sup>I do not trust in my bow;
I do not count on my sword to save me.

<sup>7</sup>You are the one who gives us victory over our enemies;
you disgrace those who hate us.

<sup>8</sup>O God, we give glory to you all day long and constantly praise your name.

Interlude

<sup>9</sup>But now you have tossed us aside in dishonor.
You no longer lead our armies to battle.

<sup>10</sup>You make us retreat from our enemies and allow those who hate us to plunder our land.

<sup>11</sup>You have butchered us like sheep and scattered us among the nations.

<sup>12</sup>You sold your precious people for a pittance, making nothing on the sale.

<sup>13</sup>You let our neighbors mock us.
We are an object of scorn and derision to those around us.

<sup>14</sup>You have made us the butt of their jokes;
they shake their heads at us in scorn.

<sup>15</sup>We can't escape the constant humiliation;
shame is written across our faces.

<sup>16</sup>All we hear are the taunts of our mockers.
All we see are our vengeful enemies.

<sup>17</sup>All this has happened though we have not forgotten you.
We have not violated your covenant.

<sup>18</sup>Our hearts have not deserted you.
We have not strayed from your path.

<sup>19</sup>Yet you have crushed us in the jackal's desert home.
You have covered us with darkness and death.

<sup>20</sup>If we had forgotten the name of our God or spread our hands in prayer to foreign gods,

<sup>21</sup>God would surely have known it,

for he knows the secrets of every heart.

<sup>22</sup>But for your sake we are killed every day;
we are being slaughtered like sheep.

<sup>23</sup>Wake up, O Lord! Why do you sleep?
Get up! Do not reject us forever.

<sup>24</sup>Why do you look the other way?
Why do you ignore our suffering and oppression?

<sup>25</sup>We collapse in the dust, lying face down in the dirt.

Ransom us because of your unfailing love.

Psalm 45

*For the choir director: A love song to be sung to the tune "Lilies." A psalm* of the descendants of Korah.*

<sup>1</sup>Beautiful words stir my heart.
I will recite a lovely poem about the king,
for my tongue is like the pen of a skillful poet.

<sup>2</sup>You are the most handsome of all.
Gracious words stream from your lips.
God himself has blessed you forever.

<sup>3</sup>Put on your sword, O mighty warrior!
You are so glorious, so majestic!

<sup>4</sup>In your majesty, ride out to victory, defending truth, humility, and justice.
Go forth to perform awe-inspiring deeds!

<sup>5</sup>Your arrows are sharp, piercing your enemies' hearts.
The nations fall beneath your feet.

<sup>6</sup>Your throne, O God,* endures forever and ever.
You rule with a scepter of justice.

<sup>7</sup>You love justice and hate evil.
Therefore God, your God, has anointed you, pouring out the oil of joy on you more than on anyone else.

<sup>8</sup>Myrrh, aloes, and cassia perfume your robes.
In ivory palaces the music of strings entertains you.

<sup>9</sup>Kings' daughters are among your noble women.
At your right side stands the queen, wearing jewelry of finest gold from Ophir!

<sup>10</sup>Listen to me, O royal daughter; take to heart what I say.
Forget your people and your family far away.

<sup>11</sup>For your royal husband delights in your beauty;
honor him, for he is your lord.

<sup>12</sup>The princess of Tyre* will shower you with gifts.
The wealthy will beg your favor.

<sup>13</sup>The bride, a princess, looks glorious in her golden gown.

<sup>14</sup>In her beautiful robes, she is led to the king, accompanied by her bridesmaids.

<sup>15</sup>What a joyful and enthusiastic procession as they enter the king's palace!

<sup>16</sup>Your sons will become kings like their father.
You will make them rulers over many lands.

<sup>17</sup>I will bring honor to your name in every generation.
Therefore, the nations will praise you forever and ever.

Psalm 46

*For the choir director: A song of the descendants of Korah, to be sung by soprano voices.**

<sup>1</sup> God is our refuge and strength, always ready to help in times of trouble.
<sup>2</sup> So we will not fear when earthquakes come and the mountains crumble into the sea.
<sup>3</sup> Let the oceans roar and foam.
Let the mountains tremble as the waters surge!

Interlude

<sup>4</sup> A river brings joy to the city of our God, the sacred home of the Most High.
<sup>5</sup> God dwells in that city; it cannot be destroyed.
From the very break of day, God will protect it.
<sup>6</sup> The nations are in chaos,
and their kingdoms crumble!
God's voice thunders,
and the earth melts!
<sup>7</sup> The LORD of Heaven's Armies is here among us;
the God of Israel* is our fortress.

Interlude

<sup>8</sup> Come, see the glorious works of the LORD:
See how he brings destruction upon the world.

<sup>9</sup>He causes wars to end throughout the earth.
He breaks the bow and snaps the spear;
he burns the shields with fire.

<sup>10</sup>“Be still, and know that I am God!
I will be honored by every nation.
I will be honored throughout the world.”

<sup>11</sup>The LORD of Heaven’s Armies is here among us;
the God of Israel is our fortress.

Interlude

Psalm 47

For the choir director: A psalm of the descendants of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>Come, everyone! Clap your hands!

Shout to God with joyful praise!

<sup>2</sup>For the LORD Most High is awesome.

He is the great King of all the earth.

<sup>3</sup>He subdues the nations before us, putting our enemies beneath our feet.

<sup>4</sup>He chose the Promised Land as our inheritance, the proud possession of Jacob's descendants, whom he loves.

Interlude

<sup>5</sup>God has ascended with a mighty shout.

The LORD has ascended with trumpets blaring.

<sup>6</sup>Sing praises to God, sing praises;
sing praises to our King, sing praises!

<sup>7</sup>For God is the King over all the earth.

Praise him with a psalm.*

<sup>8</sup>God reigns above the nations, sitting on his holy throne.

<sup>9</sup>The rulers of the world have gathered together with the people of the God of Abraham.
For all the kings of the earth belong to God.
He is highly honored everywhere.

Psalm 48

A song. A psalm of the descendants of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>How great is the LORD, how deserving of praise,
in the city of our God,
which sits on his holy mountain!

<sup>2</sup>It is high and magnificent;
the whole earth rejoices to see it!
Mount Zion, the holy mountain,* is the city of the great King!

<sup>3</sup>God himself is in Jerusalem's towers, revealing himself as its defender.

<sup>4</sup>The kings of the earth joined forces and advanced against the city.

<sup>5</sup>But when they saw it, they were stunned;
they were terrified and ran away.

<sup>6</sup>They were gripped with terror and writhed in pain like a woman in labor.

<sup>7</sup>You destroyed them like the mighty ships of Tarshish shattered by a powerful east wind.

<sup>8</sup>We had heard of the city's glory, but now we have seen it ourselves—
the city of the LORD of Heaven's Armies.
It is the city of our God;

he will make it safe forever.

Interlude

<sup>9</sup>O God, we meditate on your unfailing love as we worship in your Temple.

<sup>10</sup>As your name deserves, O God,
you will be praised to the ends of the earth.
Your strong right hand is filled with victory.

<sup>11</sup>Let the people on Mount Zion rejoice.
Let all the towns of Judah be glad because of your justice.

Walk around and count the many towers.

<sup>13</sup>Take note of the fortified walls, and tour all the citadels,
that you may describe them
to future generations.

<sup>14</sup>For that is what God is like.
He is our God forever and ever,
and he will guide us until we die.

Psalm 49

For the choir director: A psalm of the descendants of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>Listen to this, all you people!

Pay attention, everyone in the world!

<sup>2</sup>High and low,
rich and poor—listen!

<sup>3</sup>For my words are wise, and my thoughts are filled with insight.

<sup>4</sup>I listen carefully to many proverbs and solve riddles with inspiration from a harp.

<sup>5</sup>Why should I fear when trouble comes,
when enemies surround me?

<sup>6</sup>They trust in their wealth and boast of great riches.

<sup>7</sup>Yet they cannot redeem themselves from death*
by paying a ransom to God.

<sup>8</sup>Redemption does not come so easily, for no one can ever pay enough

<sup>9</sup>to live forever and never see the grave.

<sup>10</sup>Those who are wise must finally die,
just like the foolish and senseless,
leaving all their wealth behind.

<sup>11</sup>The grave is their eternal home,
where they will stay forever.
They may name their estates after themselves,
<sup>12</sup>but their fame will not last.
They will die, just like animals.
<sup>13</sup>This is the fate of fools, though they are remembered as being wise.*

Interlude

<sup>14</sup>Like sheep, they are led to the grave,* where death will be their shepherd.
In the morning the godly will rule over them.
Their bodies will rot in the grave,
far from their grand estates.
<sup>15</sup>But as for me, God will redeem my life.
He will snatch me from the power of the grave.

Interlude

<sup>16</sup>So don't be dismayed when the wicked grow rich and their homes become ever more splendid.
<sup>17</sup>For when they die, they take nothing with them.
Their wealth will not follow them into the grave.
<sup>18</sup>In this life they consider themselves fortunate and are applauded for their success.
<sup>19</sup>But they will die like all before them and never again see the light of day.
<sup>20</sup>People who boast of their wealth don't understand;
they will die, just like animals.

Psalm 50

A psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> The LORD, the Mighty One, is God, and he has spoken;
he has summoned all humanity
from where the sun rises to where it sets.

God shines in glorious radiance.

<sup>3</sup> Our God approaches, and he is not silent.
Fire devours everything in his way,
and a great storm rages around him.

<sup>4</sup> He calls on the heavens above and earth below to witness the judgment of his people.

<sup>5</sup> “Bring my faithful people to me—
those who made a covenant with me by giving sacrifices.”

<sup>6</sup> Then let the heavens proclaim his justice, for God himself will be the judge.

Interlude

<sup>7</sup> “O my people, listen as I speak.
Here are my charges against you, O Israel:
I am God, your God!

<sup>8</sup> I have no complaint about your sacrifices or the burnt offerings you constantly offer.

<sup>9</sup>But I do not need the bulls from your barns or the goats from your pens.

<sup>10</sup>For all the animals of the forest are mine, and I own the cattle on a thousand hills.

<sup>11</sup>I know every bird on the mountains, and all the animals of the field are mine.

<sup>12</sup>If I were hungry, I would not tell you,
for all the world is mine and everything in it.

<sup>13</sup>Do I eat the meat of bulls?
Do I drink the blood of goats?

<sup>14</sup>Make thankfulness your sacrifice to God, and keep the vows you made to the Most High.

<sup>15</sup>Then call on me when you are in trouble, and I will rescue you,
and you will give me glory.”

<sup>16</sup> But God says to the wicked:

“Why bother reciting my decrees and pretending to obey my covenant?

<sup>17</sup>For you refuse my discipline and treat my words like trash.

<sup>18</sup>When you see thieves, you approve of them, and you spend your time with adulterers.

<sup>19</sup>Your mouth is filled with wickedness, and your tongue is full of lies.

<sup>20</sup>You sit around and slander your brother—your own mother’s son.

<sup>21</sup>While you did all this, I remained silent, and you thought I didn't care.

But now I will rebuke you, listing all my charges against you.

<sup>22</sup>Repent, all of you who forget me,
or I will tear you apart,
and no one will help you.

<sup>23</sup>But giving thanks is a sacrifice that truly honors me.
If you keep to my path,
I will reveal to you the salvation of God.”

Psalm 51

For the choir director: A psalm of David, regarding the time Nathan the prophet came to him after David had committed adultery with Bathsheba.

<sup>1</sup>Have mercy on me, O God, because of your unfailing love.
Because of your great compassion, blot out the stain of my sins.

<sup>2</sup>Wash me clean from my guilt.
Purify me from my sin.

<sup>3</sup>For I recognize my rebellion;
it haunts me day and night.

<sup>4</sup>Against you, and you alone, have I sinned;
I have done what is evil in your sight.
You will be proved right in what you say, and your judgment against me is just.*

<sup>5</sup>For I was born a sinner—
yes, from the moment my mother conceived me.

<sup>6</sup>But you desire honesty from the womb,*
teaching me wisdom even there.

<sup>7</sup>Purify me from my sins,* and I will be clean;
wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

<sup>8</sup>Oh, give me back my joy again;
you have broken me—
now let me rejoice.

<sup>9</sup>Don't keep looking at my sins.

Remove the stain of my guilt.

<sup>10</sup>Create in me a clean heart, O God.

Renew a loyal spirit within me.

<sup>11</sup>Do not banish me from your presence, and don't take your Holy Spirit* from me.

<sup>12</sup>Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and make me willing to obey you.

<sup>13</sup>Then I will teach your ways to rebels, and they will return to you.

<sup>14</sup>Forgive me for shedding blood, O God who saves;
then I will joyfully sing of your forgiveness.

<sup>15</sup>Unseal my lips, O Lord, that my mouth may praise you.

<sup>16</sup>You do not desire a sacrifice, or I would offer one.
You do not want a burnt offering.

<sup>17</sup>The sacrifice you desire is a broken spirit.
You will not reject a broken and repentant heart, O God.

<sup>18</sup>Look with favor on Zion and help her;
rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup>Then you will be pleased with sacrifices offered in the right spirit—

with burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings.
Then bulls will again be sacrificed on your altar.

God's Unfailing Forgiveness and Love

Psalm 52

*For the choir director: A psalm* of David, regarding the time Doeg the Edomite said to Saul, "David has gone to see Ahimelech."*

<sup>1</sup>Why do you boast about your crimes, great warrior?

Don't you realize God's justice continues forever?

<sup>2</sup>All day long you plot destruction.

Your tongue cuts like a sharp razor;
you're an expert at telling lies.

<sup>3</sup>You love evil more than good and lies more than truth.

Interlude

<sup>4</sup>You love to destroy others with your words, you liar!

<sup>5</sup>But God will strike you down once and for all.
He will pull you from your home and uproot you from the land of the living.

Interlude

<sup>6</sup>The righteous will see it and be amazed.
They will laugh and say,

<sup>7</sup>"Look what happens to mighty warriors who do not trust in God.
They trust their wealth instead and grow more and more bold in their wickedness."

<sup>8</sup>But I am like an olive tree, thriving in the house of God.

I will always trust in God's unfailing love.

<sup>9</sup>I will praise you forever, O God, for what you have done.

I will trust in your good name in the presence of your faithful people.

Psalm 53

*For the choir director: A meditation; a psalm* of David.*

<sup>1</sup>Only fools say in their hearts,
“There is no God.”
They are corrupt, and their actions are evil;
not one of them does good!

<sup>2</sup>God looks down from heaven
on the entire human race;
he looks to see if anyone is truly wise,
if anyone seeks God.

<sup>3</sup>But no, all have turned away;
all have become corrupt.*
No one does good,
not a single one!

<sup>4</sup>Will those who do evil never learn?
They eat up my people like bread
and wouldn't think of praying to God.

<sup>5</sup>Terror will grip them,
terror like they have never known before.
God will scatter the bones of your enemies.
You will put them to shame, for God has rejected them.

<sup>6</sup>Who will come from Mount Zion to rescue Israel?
When God restores his people,

Jacob will shout with joy, and Israel will rejoice.

Psalm 54

*For the choir director: A psalm* of David, regarding the time the Ziphites came and said to Saul, "We know where David is hiding." To be accompanied by stringed instruments.*

Defend me with your might.

<sup>2</sup>Listen to my prayer, O God.

Pay attention to my plea.

<sup>3</sup>For strangers are attacking me;
violent people are trying to kill me.

They care nothing for God.

Interlude

<sup>4</sup>But God is my helper.

The Lord keeps me alive!

<sup>5</sup>May the evil plans of my enemies be turned against them.

Do as you promised and put an end to them.

<sup>6</sup>I will sacrifice a voluntary offering to you;

I will praise your name, O LORD,
for it is good.

<sup>7</sup>For you have rescued me from my troubles and helped me to triumph over my enemies.

Psalm 55

*For the choir director: A psalm* of David, to be accompanied by stringed instruments.*

<sup>1</sup>Listen to my prayer, O God.

Do not ignore my cry for help!

<sup>2</sup>Please listen and answer me,
for I am overwhelmed by my troubles.

<sup>3</sup>My enemies shout at me, making loud and wicked threats.

They bring trouble on me and angrily hunt me down.

<sup>4</sup>My heart pounds in my chest.

The terror of death assaults me.

<sup>5</sup>Fear and trembling overwhelm me, and I can't stop shaking.

<sup>6</sup>Oh, that I had wings like a dove;
then I would fly away and rest!

<sup>7</sup>I would fly far away to the quiet of the wilderness.

Interlude

<sup>8</sup>How quickly I would escape—far from this wild storm of hatred.

<sup>9</sup>Confuse them, Lord, and frustrate their plans, for I see violence and conflict in the city.

<sup>10</sup>Its walls are patrolled day and night against invaders, but the real danger is wickedness within the city.

<sup>11</sup>Everything is falling apart;
threats and cheating are rampant in the streets.

<sup>12</sup>It is not an enemy who taunts me—
I could bear that.

It is not my foes who so arrogantly insult me—
I could have hidden from them.

<sup>13</sup>Instead, it is you—my equal,
my companion and close friend.

<sup>14</sup>What good fellowship we once enjoyed as we walked together to the house of God.

<sup>15</sup>Let death stalk my enemies;
let the grave* swallow them alive,
for evil makes its home within them.

<sup>16</sup>But I will call on God, and the LORD will rescue me.

<sup>17</sup>Morning, noon, and night
I cry out in my distress, and the LORD hears my voice.

<sup>18</sup>He ransoms me and keeps me safe from the battle waged against me, though many still oppose me.

<sup>19</sup>God, who has ruled forever, will hear me and humble them.

Interlude

For my enemies refuse to change their ways;
they do not fear God.

<sup>20</sup>As for my companion, he betrayed his friends;
he broke his promises.

<sup>21</sup>His words are as smooth as butter,
but in his heart is war.
His words are as soothing as lotion,
but underneath are daggers!

<sup>22</sup>Give your burdens to the LORD, and he will take care of you.
He will not permit the godly to slip and fall.

<sup>23</sup>But you, O God, will send the wicked down to the pit of destruction.
Murderers and liars will die young,
but I am trusting you to save me.

Psalm 56

*For the choir director: A psalm* of David, regarding the time the Philistines seized him in Gath. To be sung to the tune “Dove on Distant Oaks.”*

<sup>1</sup> O God, have mercy on me, for people are hounding me.
My foes attack me all day long.

<sup>2</sup> I am constantly hounded by those who slander me,
and many are boldly attacking me.

<sup>3</sup> But when I am afraid,
I will put my trust in you.

<sup>4</sup> I praise God for what he has promised.
I trust in God, so why should I be afraid?
What can mere mortals do to me?

<sup>5</sup> They are always twisting what I say;
they spend their days plotting to harm me.

<sup>6</sup> They come together to spy on me—watching my every step, eager to kill me.

<sup>7</sup> Don't let them get away with their wickedness;
in your anger, O God, bring them down.

<sup>8</sup> You keep track of all my sorrows.*
You have collected all my tears in your bottle.
You have recorded each one in your book.

<sup>9</sup>My enemies will retreat when I call to you for help.
This I know: God is on my side!

<sup>10</sup>I praise God for what he has promised;
yes, I praise the LORD for what he has promised.

<sup>11</sup>I trust in God, so why should I be afraid?
What can mere mortals do to me?

<sup>12</sup>I will fulfill my vows to you, O God, and will offer a sacrifice of thanks for your help.

<sup>13</sup>For you have rescued me from death;
you have kept my feet from slipping.
So now I can walk in your presence, O God,
in your life-giving light.

Psalm 57

*For the choir director: A psalm* of David, regarding the time he fled from Saul and went into the cave. To be sung to the tune “Do Not Destroy!”*

<sup>1</sup>Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy!
I look to you for protection.
I will hide beneath the shadow of your wings until the danger passes by.

<sup>2</sup>I cry out to God Most High,*
to God who will fulfill his purpose for me.

<sup>3</sup>He will send help from heaven to rescue me, disgracing those who hound me.

Interlude

My God will send forth his unfailing love and faithfulness.

<sup>4</sup>I am surrounded by fierce lions who greedily devour human prey—whose teeth pierce like spears and arrows, and whose tongues cut like swords.

May your glory shine over all the earth.

<sup>6</sup>My enemies have set a trap for me.
I am weary from distress.
They have dug a deep pit in my path,

but they themselves have fallen into it.

Interlude

<sup>2</sup>My heart is confident in you, O God;
my heart is confident.

No wonder I can sing your praises!

<sup>8</sup>Wake up, my heart!

Wake up, O lyre and harp!

I will wake the dawn with my song.

<sup>9</sup>I will thank you, Lord, among all the people.

I will sing your praises among the nations.

<sup>10</sup>For your unfailing love is as high as the heavens.

Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

May your glory shine over all the earth.

Psalm 58

*For the choir director: A psalm* of David, to be sung to the tune “Do Not Destroy!”*

<sup>1</sup>Justice—do you rulers* know the meaning of the word?
Do you judge the people fairly?

<sup>2</sup>No! You plot injustice in your hearts.
You spread violence throughout the land.

<sup>3</sup>These wicked people are born sinners;
even from birth they have lied and gone their own way.

<sup>4</sup>They spit venom like deadly snakes;
they are like cobras that refuse to listen,

<sup>5</sup>ignoring the tunes of the snake charmers, no matter how skillfully they play.

Smash the jaws of these lions, O LORD!

<sup>7</sup>May they disappear like water into thirsty ground.
Make their weapons useless in their hands.*

<sup>8</sup>May they be like snails that dissolve into slime, like a stillborn child who will never see the sun.

<sup>9</sup>God will sweep them away, both young and old, faster than a pot heats over burning thorns.

<sup>10</sup>The godly will rejoice when they see injustice avenged.
They will wash their feet in the blood of the wicked.

<sup>11</sup>Then at last everyone will say,
“There truly is a reward for those who live for God;
surely there is a God who judges justly here on earth.”

Psalm 59

*For the choir director: A psalm* of David, regarding the time Saul sent soldiers to watch David's house in order to kill him. To be sung to the tune "Do Not Destroy!"*

<sup>1</sup>Rescue me from my enemies, O God.
Protect me from those who have come to destroy me.
<sup>2</sup>Rescue me from these criminals;
save me from these murderers.
<sup>3</sup>They have set an ambush for me.
Fierce enemies are out there waiting, LORD,
though I have not sinned or offended them.
<sup>4</sup>I have done nothing wrong,
yet they prepare to attack me.
Wake up! See what is happening and help me!
<sup>5</sup>O LORD God of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, wake up and punish those hostile nations.
Show no mercy to wicked traitors.

Interlude

<sup>6</sup>They come out at night, snarling like vicious dogs
as they prowl the streets.
<sup>7</sup>Listen to the filth that comes from their mouths;
their words cut like swords.
"After all, who can hear us?" they sneer.
<sup>8</sup>But LORD, you laugh at them.

You scoff at all the hostile nations.

<sup>9</sup>You are my strength; I wait for you to rescue me, for you, O God, are my fortress.

<sup>10</sup>In his unfailing love, my God will stand with me.
He will let me look down in triumph on all my enemies.

<sup>11</sup>Don't kill them, for my people soon forget such lessons;
stagger them with your power, and bring them to their knees,
O Lord our shield.

<sup>12</sup>Because of the sinful things they say,
because of the evil that is on their lips,
let them be captured by their pride,
their curses, and their lies.

<sup>13</sup>Destroy them in your anger!
Wipe them out completely!
Then the whole world will know that God reigns in Israel.*

Interlude

<sup>14</sup>My enemies come out at night, snarling like vicious dogs
as they prowl the streets.

<sup>15</sup>They scavenge for food but go to sleep unsatisfied.*

<sup>16</sup>But as for me, I will sing about your power.
Each morning I will sing with joy about your unfailing love.
For you have been my refuge,

a place of safety when I am in distress.

<sup>17</sup>O my Strength, to you I sing praises, for you, O God, are my refuge,
the God who shows me unfailing love.

Psalm 60

*For the choir director: A psalm* of David useful for teaching, regarding the time David fought Aram-naharaim and Aram-zobah, and Joab returned and killed 12,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. To be sung to the tune “Lily of the Testimony.”*

<sup>1</sup>You have rejected us, O God, and broken our defenses.
You have been angry with us; now restore us to your favor.

Seal the cracks, for the land trembles.

<sup>3</sup>You have been very hard on us, making us drink wine that sent us reeling.

<sup>4</sup>But you have raised a banner for those who fear you—a rallying point in the face of attack.

<sup>5</sup>Now rescue your beloved people.
Answer and save us by your power.

<sup>6</sup>God has promised this by his holiness*:

“I will divide up Shechem with joy.

I will measure out the valley of Succoth.

and Manasseh, too.

Ephraim, my helmet, will produce my warriors,
and Judah, my scepter, will produce my kings.

<sup>8</sup>But Moab, my washbasin, will become my servant,
and I will wipe my feet on Edom

and shout in triumph over Philistia.”

<sup>9</sup>Who will bring me into the fortified city?

Who will bring me victory over Edom?

<sup>10</sup>Have you rejected us, O God?

Will you no longer march with our armies?

<sup>11</sup>Oh, please help us against our enemies,

for all human help is useless.

<sup>12</sup>With God’s help we will do mighty things,

for he will trample down our foes.

Psalm 61

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be accompanied by stringed instruments.

<sup>1</sup>O God, listen to my cry!

Hear my prayer!

I cry to you for help

when my heart is overwhelmed.

Lead me to the towering rock of safety,

<sup>3</sup>for you are my safe refuge,

a fortress where my enemies cannot reach me.

<sup>4</sup>Let me live forever in your sanctuary, safe beneath the shelter of your wings!

Interlude

<sup>5</sup>For you have heard my vows, O God.

You have given me an inheritance reserved for those who fear your name.

May his years span the generations!

<sup>7</sup>May he reign under God's protection forever.

May your unfailing love and faithfulness watch over him.

<sup>8</sup>Then I will sing praises to your name forever

as I fulfill my vows each day.

Psalm 62

For Jeduthun, the choir director: A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I wait quietly before God,
for my victory comes from him.
<sup>2</sup>He alone is my rock and my salvation,
my fortress where I will never be shaken.

<sup>3</sup>So many enemies against one man—
all of them trying to kill me.
To them I'm just a broken-down wall or a tottering fence.
<sup>4</sup>They plan to topple me from my high position.
They delight in telling lies about me.
They praise me to my face
but curse me in their hearts.

Interlude

<sup>5</sup>Let all that I am wait quietly before God, for my hope is in him.
<sup>6</sup>He alone is my rock and my salvation,
my fortress where I will not be shaken.
<sup>7</sup>My victory and honor come from God alone.
He is my refuge, a rock where no enemy can reach me.
<sup>8</sup>O my people, trust in him at all times.
Pour out your heart to him,
for God is our refuge.

Interlude

<sup>9</sup>Common people are as worthless as a puff of wind, and the powerful are not what they appear to be.
If you weigh them on the scales,
together they are lighter than a breath of air.

<sup>10</sup>Don't make your living by extortion or put your hope in stealing.
And if your wealth increases,
don't make it the center of your life.

<sup>11</sup>God has spoken plainly,
and I have heard it many times:
Power, O God, belongs to you;
<sup>12</sup>unfailing love, O Lord, is yours.
Surely you repay all people
according to what they have done.

Psalm 63

A psalm of David, regarding a time when David was in the wilderness of Judah.

<sup>1</sup>O God, you are my God;
I earnestly search for you.
My soul thirsts for you;
my whole body longs for you in this parched and weary land where there is no water.

<sup>2</sup>I have seen you in your sanctuary and gazed upon your power and glory.

<sup>3</sup>Your unfailing love is better than life itself;
how I praise you!

<sup>4</sup>I will praise you as long as I live, lifting up my hands to you in prayer.

<sup>5</sup>You satisfy me more than the richest feast.
I will praise you with songs of joy.

<sup>6</sup>I lie awake thinking of you, meditating on you through the night.

<sup>7</sup>Because you are my helper,
I sing for joy in the shadow of your wings.

<sup>8</sup>I cling to you;
your strong right hand holds me securely.

<sup>9</sup>But those plotting to destroy me will come to ruin.
They will go down into the depths of the earth.

<sup>10</sup>They will die by the sword and become the food of jackals.

<sup>11</sup>But the king will rejoice in God.
All who trust in him will praise him,
while liars will be silenced.

Psalm 64

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>O God, listen to my complaint.

Protect my life from my enemies' threats.

<sup>2</sup>Hide me from the plots of this evil mob,
from this gang of wrongdoers.

<sup>3</sup>They sharpen their tongues like swords and aim their bitter words like arrows.

<sup>4</sup>They shoot from ambush at the innocent, attacking suddenly and fearlessly.

<sup>5</sup>They encourage each other to do evil and plan how to set their traps in secret.

"Who will ever notice?" they ask.

<sup>6</sup>As they plot their crimes, they say,

"We have devised the perfect plan!"

Yes, the human heart and mind are cunning.

<sup>7</sup>But God himself will shoot them with his arrows, suddenly striking them down.

<sup>8</sup>Their own tongues will ruin them, and all who see them will shake their heads in scorn.

<sup>9</sup>Then everyone will be afraid;
they will proclaim the mighty acts of God and realize all the amazing things he does.

<sup>10</sup>The godly will rejoice in the LORD and find shelter in him.

And those who do what is right will praise him.

Psalm 65

For the choir director: A song. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>What mighty praise, O God, belongs to you in Zion.

We will fulfill our vows to you,

<sup>2</sup>for you answer our prayers.

All of us must come to you.

<sup>3</sup>Though we are overwhelmed by our sins, you forgive them all.

<sup>4</sup>What joy for those you choose to bring near,
those who live in your holy courts.

What festivities await us
inside your holy Temple.

<sup>5</sup>You faithfully answer our prayers with awesome deeds,
O God our savior.

You are the hope of everyone on earth,
even those who sail on distant seas.

<sup>6</sup>You formed the mountains by your power and armed yourself with mighty strength.

<sup>7</sup>You quieted the raging oceans with their pounding waves and silenced the shouting of the nations.

<sup>8</sup>Those who live at the ends of the earth stand in awe of your wonders.
From where the sun rises to where it sets,

you inspire shouts of joy.

<sup>9</sup>You take care of the earth and water it, making it rich and fertile.

The river of God has plenty of water;
it provides a bountiful harvest of grain,
for you have ordered it so.

<sup>10</sup>You drench the plowed ground with rain, melting the clods and leveling the ridges.
You soften the earth with showers and bless its abundant crops.

<sup>11</sup>You crown the year with a bountiful harvest;
even the hard pathways overflow with abundance.

<sup>12</sup>The grasslands of the wilderness become a lush pasture, and the hillsides blossom with joy.

<sup>13</sup>The meadows are clothed with flocks of sheep,
and the valleys are carpeted with grain.
They all shout and sing for joy!

Psalm 66

For the choir director: A song. A psalm.

<sup>2</sup> Sing about the glory of his name!
Tell the world how glorious he is.
<sup>3</sup> Say to God, "How awesome are your deeds!
Your enemies cringe before your mighty power.
<sup>4</sup> Everything on earth will worship you;
they will sing your praises, shouting your name in glorious songs."

Interlude

<sup>5</sup> Come and see what our God has done, what awesome miracles he performs for people!
<sup>6</sup> He made a dry path through the Red Sea,*
and his people went across on foot.
There we rejoiced in him.
<sup>7</sup> For by his great power he rules forever.
He watches every movement of the nations;
let no rebel rise in defiance.

Interlude

<sup>8</sup> Let the whole world bless our God and loudly sing his praises.
<sup>9</sup> Our lives are in his hands, and he keeps our feet from stumbling.

<sup>10</sup>You have tested us, O God;
you have purified us like silver.

<sup>11</sup>You captured us in your net and laid the burden of slavery on our backs.

<sup>12</sup>Then you put a leader over us.*
We went through fire and flood,
but you brought us to a place of great abundance.

<sup>13</sup>Now I come to your Temple with burnt offerings to fulfill the vows I made to you—

<sup>14</sup>yes, the sacred vows that I made when I was in deep trouble.

<sup>15</sup>That is why I am sacrificing burnt offerings to you—
the best of my rams as a pleasing aroma, and a sacrifice of bulls and male goats.

Interlude

<sup>16</sup>Come and listen, all you who fear God, and I will tell you what he did for me.

<sup>17</sup>For I cried out to him for help, praising him as I spoke.

<sup>18</sup>If I had not confessed the sin in my heart, the Lord would not have listened.

<sup>19</sup>But God did listen!
He paid attention to my prayer.

<sup>20</sup>Praise God, who did not ignore my prayer or withdraw his unfailing love from me.

Psalm 67

For the choir director: A song. A psalm, to be accompanied by stringed instruments.

<sup>1</sup>May God be merciful and bless us.
May his face smile with favor on us.

Interlude

<sup>2</sup>May your ways be known throughout the earth, your saving power among people everywhere.

<sup>3</sup>May the nations praise you, O God.
Yes, may all the nations praise you.

<sup>4</sup>Let the whole world sing for joy, because you govern the nations with justice and guide the people of the whole world.

Interlude

<sup>5</sup>May the nations praise you, O God.
Yes, may all the nations praise you.

<sup>6</sup>Then the earth will yield its harvests, and God, our God, will richly bless us.

<sup>7</sup>Yes, God will bless us, and people all over the world will fear him.

Psalm 68

For the choir director: A song. A psalm of David.

Let those who hate God run for their lives.

<sup>2</sup>Blow them away like smoke.

Melt them like wax in a fire.

Let the wicked perish in the presence of God.

Let them be glad in God's presence.

Let them be filled with joy.

<sup>4</sup>Sing praises to God and to his name!

Sing loud praises to him who rides the clouds.

His name is the LORD—

rejoice in his presence!

<sup>5</sup>Father to the fatherless, defender of widows—this is God, whose dwelling is holy.

<sup>6</sup>God places the lonely in families;

he sets the prisoners free and gives them joy.

But he makes the rebellious live in a sun-scorched land.

<sup>7</sup>O God, when you led your people out from Egypt,
when you marched through the dry wasteland,

Interlude

<sup>8</sup>the earth trembled, and the heavens poured down rain before you, the God of Sinai, before God, the God of Israel.

<sup>9</sup>You sent abundant rain, O God,
to refresh the weary land.

<sup>10</sup>There your people finally settled, and with a bountiful harvest, O God,
you provided for your needy people.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord gives the word,
and a great army* brings the good news.

<sup>12</sup>Enemy kings and their armies flee, while the women of Israel divide the plunder.

<sup>13</sup>Even those who lived among the sheepfolds found treasures—

doves with wings of silver and feathers of gold.

<sup>14</sup>The Almighty scattered the enemy kings
like a blowing snowstorm on Mount Zalmon.

<sup>15</sup>The mountains of Bashan are majestic, with many peaks stretching high into the sky.

<sup>16</sup>Why do you look with envy, O rugged mountains, at Mount Zion, where God has chosen to live,
where the LORD himself will live forever?

<sup>17</sup>Surrounded by unnumbered thousands of chariots, the Lord came from Mount Sinai into his sanctuary.

<sup>18</sup>When you ascended to the heights,
you led a crowd of captives.

You received gifts from the people,
even from those who rebelled against you.
Now the LORD God will live among us there.

<sup>19</sup>Praise the Lord; praise God our savior!
For each day he carries us in his arms.

Interlude

<sup>20</sup>Our God is a God who saves!
The Sovereign LORD rescues us from death.

<sup>21</sup>But God will smash the heads of his enemies, crushing the skulls of those who love their guilty ways.

<sup>22</sup>The Lord says, “I will bring my enemies down from Bashan;
I will bring them up from the depths of the sea.

<sup>23</sup>You, my people, will wash your feet in their blood, and even your dogs will get their share!”

<sup>24</sup>Your procession has come into view, O God—the procession of my God and King as he goes into the sanctuary.

<sup>25</sup>Singers are in front, musicians behind;
between them are young women playing tambourines.

<sup>26</sup>Praise God, all you people of Israel;
praise the LORD, the source of Israel’s life.

<sup>27</sup>Look, the little tribe of Benjamin leads the way.
Then comes a great throng of rulers from Judah and all the rulers of Zebulun and Naphtali.

<sup>28</sup>Summon your might, O God.

Display your power, O God, as you have in the past.

<sup>29</sup>The kings of the earth are bringing tribute to your Temple in Jerusalem.

<sup>30</sup>Rebuke these enemy nations—
these wild animals lurking in the reeds,
this herd of bulls among the weaker calves.
Make them bring bars of silver in humble tribute.
Scatter the nations that delight in war.

<sup>31</sup>Let Egypt come with gifts of precious metals*;
let Ethiopia* bow in submission to God.

<sup>32</sup>Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth.
Sing praises to the Lord.

<sup>33</sup>Sing to the one who rides across the ancient heavens, his mighty voice thundering from the sky.

His majesty shines down on Israel;
his strength is mighty in the heavens.

<sup>35</sup>God is awesome in his sanctuary.
The God of Israel gives power and strength to his people.

Praise be to God!

Psalm 69

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be sung to the tune “Lilies.”

- <sup>1</sup> Save me, O God, for the floodwaters are up to my neck.
<sup>2</sup> Deeper and deeper I sink into the mire;
I can't find a foothold.
I am in deep water,
and the floods overwhelm me.
<sup>3</sup> I am exhausted from crying for help;
my throat is parched.
My eyes are swollen with weeping, waiting for my God to help me.
<sup>4</sup> Those who hate me without cause outnumber the hairs on my head.
Many enemies try to destroy me with lies,
demanding that I give back what I didn't steal.
- <sup>5</sup> O God, you know how foolish I am;
my sins cannot be hidden from you.
<sup>6</sup> Don't let those who trust in you be ashamed because of me,
O Sovereign LORD of Heaven's Armies.
Don't let me cause them to be humiliated,
O God of Israel.
<sup>7</sup> For I endure insults for your sake; humiliation is written all over my face.

<sup>8</sup>Even my own brothers pretend they don't know me;
they treat me like a stranger.

<sup>9</sup>Passion for your house has consumed me, and the insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.

<sup>10</sup>When I weep and fast, they scoff at me.

<sup>11</sup>When I dress in burlap to show sorrow, they make fun of me.

<sup>12</sup>I am the favorite topic of town gossip, and all the drunks sing about me.

<sup>13</sup>But I keep praying to you, LORD, hoping this time you will show me favor.
In your unfailing love, O God,
answer my prayer with your sure salvation.

<sup>14</sup>Rescue me from the mud;
don't let me sink any deeper!
Save me from those who hate me,
and pull me from these deep waters.

<sup>15</sup>Don't let the floods overwhelm me, or the deep waters swallow me,
or the pit of death devour me.

<sup>16</sup>Answer my prayers, O LORD, for your unfailing love is wonderful.
Take care of me,
for your mercy is so plentiful.

<sup>17</sup>Don't hide from your servant;
answer me quickly, for I am in deep trouble!

<sup>18</sup>Come and redeem me;
free me from my enemies.

<sup>19</sup>You know of my shame, scorn, and disgrace.
You see all that my enemies are doing.

<sup>20</sup>Their insults have broken my heart, and I am in despair.

If only one person would show some pity;
if only one would turn and comfort me.

<sup>21</sup>But instead, they give me poison* for food;
they offer me sour wine for my thirst.

<sup>22</sup>Let the bountiful table set before them become a snare and their prosperity become a trap.*

<sup>23</sup>Let their eyes go blind so they cannot see, and make their bodies shake continually.*

<sup>24</sup>Pour out your fury on them;
consume them with your burning anger.

<sup>25</sup>Let their homes become desolate and their tents be deserted.

<sup>26</sup>To the one you have punished, they add insult to injury;
they add to the pain of those you have hurt.

<sup>27</sup>Pile their sins up high,
and don't let them go free.

<sup>28</sup>Erase their names from the Book of Life;
don't let them be counted among the righteous.

<sup>29</sup>I am suffering and in pain.

Rescue me, O God, by your saving power.

<sup>30</sup>Then I will praise God's name with singing, and I will honor him with thanksgiving.

<sup>31</sup>For this will please the LORD more than sacrificing cattle, more than presenting a bull with its horns and hooves.

<sup>32</sup>The humble will see their God at work and be glad.
Let all who seek God's help be encouraged.

<sup>33</sup>For the LORD hears the cries of the needy;
he does not despise his imprisoned people.

<sup>34</sup>Praise him, O heaven and earth,
the seas and all that move in them.

<sup>35</sup>For God will save Jerusalem*
and rebuild the towns of Judah.
His people will live there and settle in their own land.

<sup>36</sup>The descendants of those who obey him will inherit the land,
and those who love him will live there in safety.

Psalm 70

For the choir director: A psalm of David, asking God to remember him.

<sup>1</sup> Please, God, rescue me!

Come quickly, LORD, and help me.

<sup>2</sup> May those who try to kill me
be humiliated and put to shame.

May those who take delight in my trouble
be turned back in disgrace.

<sup>3</sup> Let them be horrified by their shame,
for they said, “Aha! We’ve got him now!”

<sup>4</sup> But may all who search for you
be filled with joy and gladness in you.

May those who love your salvation repeatedly shout, “God is great!”

<sup>5</sup> But as for me, I am poor and needy;
please hurry to my aid, O God.

You are my helper and my savior;
O LORD, do not delay.

Psalm 71

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, I have come to you for protection;
don't let me be disgraced.

<sup>2</sup>Save me and rescue me,
for you do what is right.
Turn your ear to listen to me,
and set me free.

<sup>3</sup>Be my rock of safety where I can always hide.
Give the order to save me,
for you are my rock and my fortress.

<sup>4</sup>My God, rescue me from the power of the wicked, from the clutches of cruel oppressors.

<sup>5</sup>O Lord, you alone are my hope.
I've trusted you, O LORD, from childhood.

<sup>6</sup>Yes, you have been with me from birth;
from my mother's womb you have cared for me.
No wonder I am always praising you!

<sup>7</sup>My life is an example to many,
because you have been my strength and protection.

<sup>8</sup>That is why I can never stop praising you;
I declare your glory all day long.

<sup>9</sup>And now, in my old age, don't set me aside.
Don't abandon me when my strength is failing.

<sup>10</sup>For my enemies are whispering against me.

They are plotting together to kill me.

<sup>11</sup>They say, “God has abandoned him.
Let’s go and get him,
for no one will help him now.”

<sup>12</sup>O God, don’t stay away.

My God, please hurry to help me.

<sup>13</sup>Bring disgrace and destruction on my accusers.
Humiliate and shame those who want to harm me.

<sup>14</sup>But I will keep on hoping for your help;
I will praise you more and more.

<sup>15</sup>I will tell everyone about your righteousness.
All day long I will proclaim your saving power, though I am not skilled with words.*

<sup>16</sup>I will praise your mighty deeds, O Sovereign LORD.
I will tell everyone that you alone are just.

<sup>17</sup>O God, you have taught me from my earliest childhood, and I constantly tell others about the wonderful things you do.

<sup>18</sup>Now that I am old and gray,
do not abandon me, O God.
Let me proclaim your power to this new generation,
your mighty miracles to all who come after me.

<sup>19</sup>Your righteousness, O God, reaches to the highest heavens.

You have done such wonderful things.

Who can compare with you, O God?

<sup>20</sup>You have allowed me to suffer much hardship, but you will restore me to life again and lift me up from the depths of the earth.

<sup>21</sup>You will restore me to even greater honor and comfort me once again.

<sup>22</sup>Then I will praise you with music on the harp, because you are faithful to your promises, O my God.
I will sing praises to you with a lyre,
O Holy One of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>I will shout for joy and sing your praises, for you have ransomed me.

<sup>24</sup>I will tell about your righteous deeds
all day long,
for everyone who tried to hurt me has been shamed and humiliated.

Psalm 72

A psalm of Solomon.

<sup>1</sup>Give your love of justice to the king, O God,
and righteousness to the king's son.

<sup>2</sup>Help him judge your people in the right way;
let the poor always be treated fairly.

<sup>3</sup>May the mountains yield prosperity for all,
and may the hills be fruitful.

<sup>4</sup>Help him to defend the poor,
to rescue the children of the needy,
and to crush their oppressors.

<sup>5</sup>May they fear you* as long as the sun shines, as long as the moon remains in the sky.
Yes, forever!

<sup>6</sup>May the king's rule be refreshing like spring rain on freshly cut grass,
like the showers that water the earth.

<sup>7</sup>May all the godly flourish during his reign.
May there be abundant prosperity until the moon is no more.

<sup>8</sup>May he reign from sea to sea,
and from the Euphrates River* to the ends of the earth.

<sup>9</sup>Desert nomads will bow before him;
his enemies will fall before him in the dust.

<sup>10</sup>The western kings of Tarshish and other distant lands will bring him tribute.

The eastern kings of Sheba and Seba will bring him gifts.

<sup>11</sup>All kings will bow before him,
and all nations will serve him.

<sup>12</sup>He will rescue the poor when they cry to him;
he will help the oppressed, who have no one to defend them.

<sup>13</sup>He feels pity for the weak and the needy, and he will rescue them.

<sup>14</sup>He will redeem them from oppression and violence, for their lives are precious to him.

<sup>15</sup>Long live the king!

May the gold of Sheba be given to him.
May the people always pray for him and bless him all day long.

<sup>16</sup>May there be abundant grain throughout the land, flourishing even on the hilltops.
May the fruit trees flourish like the trees of Lebanon, and may the people thrive like grass in a field.

<sup>17</sup>May the king's name endure forever;
may it continue as long as the sun shines.
May all nations be blessed through him
and bring him praise.

<sup>18</sup>Praise the LORD God, the God of Israel, who alone does such wonderful things.

<sup>19</sup>Praise his glorious name forever!
Let the whole earth be filled with his glory.
Amen and amen!

BOOK THREE (Psalms 73–89)

Asaph

Psalm 73

A psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>Truly God is good to Israel,
to those whose hearts are pure.

<sup>2</sup>But as for me, I almost lost my footing.
My feet were slipping, and I was almost gone.

<sup>3</sup>For I envied the proud when I saw them prosper despite their wickedness.

<sup>4</sup>They seem to live such painless lives;
their bodies are so healthy and strong.

<sup>5</sup>They don't have troubles like other people;
they're not plagued with problems like everyone else.

<sup>6</sup>They wear pride like a jeweled necklace and clothe themselves with cruelty.

<sup>7</sup>These fat cats have everything their hearts could ever wish for!

<sup>8</sup>They scoff and speak only evil;
in their pride they seek to crush others.

<sup>9</sup>They boast against the very heavens, and their words strut throughout the earth.

<sup>10</sup>And so the people are dismayed and confused, drinking in all their words.

<sup>11</sup>“What does God know?” they ask.

enjoying a life of ease while their riches multiply.

<sup>13</sup> Did I keep my heart pure for nothing?
Did I keep myself innocent for no reason?

<sup>14</sup>I get nothing but trouble all day long;
every morning brings me pain.

<sup>15</sup>If I had really spoken this way to others,
I would have been a traitor to your people.

<sup>16</sup>So I tried to understand why the wicked prosper.
But what a difficult task it is!

<sup>17</sup>Then I went into your sanctuary, O God, and I finally understood the destiny of the wicked.

<sup>18</sup>Truly, you put them on a slippery path and send them sliding over the cliff to destruction.

<sup>19</sup>In an instant they are destroyed, completely swept away by terrors.

<sup>20</sup>When you arise, O Lord, you will laugh at their silly ideas
as a person laughs at dreams in the morning.

<sup>21</sup>Then I realized that my heart was bitter, and I was all torn up inside.

<sup>22</sup>I was so foolish and ignorant—
I must have seemed like a senseless animal to you.

<sup>23</sup>Yet I still belong to you;
you hold my right hand.

<sup>24</sup>You guide me with your counsel, leading me to a glorious destiny.

<sup>25</sup>Whom have I in heaven but you?
I desire you more than anything on earth.

<sup>26</sup>My health may fail, and my spirit may grow weak, but God remains the strength of my heart;
he is mine forever.

<sup>27</sup>Those who desert him will perish,
for you destroy those who abandon you.

<sup>28</sup>But as for me, how good it is to be near God!
I have made the Sovereign LORD my shelter, and I will tell everyone about the wonderful things you do.

Psalm 74

*A psalm* of Asaph.*

<sup>1</sup>O God, why have you rejected us so long?

Why is your anger so intense against the sheep of your own pasture?

<sup>2</sup>Remember that we are the people you chose long ago, the tribe you redeemed as your own special possession!
And remember Jerusalem,* your home here on earth.

<sup>3</sup>Walk through the awful ruins of the city;
see how the enemy has destroyed your sanctuary.

<sup>4</sup>There your enemies shouted their victorious battle cries;
there they set up their battle standards.

<sup>5</sup>They swung their axes like woodcutters in a forest.

<sup>6</sup>With axes and picks,
they smashed the carved paneling.

<sup>7</sup>They burned your sanctuary to the ground.
They defiled the place that bears your name.

<sup>8</sup>Then they thought, "Let's destroy everything!"
So they burned down all the places where God was worshiped.

<sup>9</sup>We no longer see your miraculous signs.
All the prophets are gone,

and no one can tell us when it will end.

<sup>10</sup>How long, O God, will you allow our enemies to insult you?
Will you let them dishonor your name forever?

<sup>11</sup>Why do you hold back your strong right hand?
Unleash your powerful fist and destroy them.

<sup>12</sup>You, O God, are my king from ages past, bringing salvation to the earth.

<sup>13</sup>You split the sea by your strength and smashed the heads of the sea monsters.

<sup>14</sup>You crushed the heads of Leviathan*
and let the desert animals eat him.

<sup>15</sup>You caused the springs and streams to gush forth, and you dried up rivers that never run dry.

<sup>16</sup>Both day and night belong to you;
you made the starlight* and the sun.

<sup>17</sup>You set the boundaries of the earth, and you made both summer and winter.

<sup>18</sup>See how these enemies insult you, LORD.
A foolish nation has dishonored your name.

<sup>19</sup>Don't let these wild beasts destroy your turtledoves.
Don't forget your suffering people forever.

for the land is full of darkness and violence!

<sup>21</sup>Don't let the downtrodden be humiliated again.
Instead, let the poor and needy praise your name.

<sup>22</sup>Arise, O God, and defend your cause.

Remember how these fools insult you all day long.

<sup>23</sup>Don't overlook what your enemies have said or their growing uproar.

Psalm 75

For the choir director: A psalm of Asaph. A song to be sung to the tune “Do Not Destroy!”

<sup>1</sup>We thank you, O God!
We give thanks because you are near.
People everywhere tell of your wonderful deeds.

<sup>2</sup>God says, “At the time I have planned,
I will bring justice against the wicked.
<sup>3</sup>When the earth quakes and its people live in turmoil,
I am the one who keeps its foundations firm.

Interlude

I told the wicked, ‘Don’t raise your fists!’
<sup>5</sup>Don’t raise your fists in defiance at the heavens or speak with such arrogance.”

<sup>6</sup>For no one on earth—from east or west, or even from the wilderness—should raise a defiant fist.*

<sup>7</sup>It is God alone who judges;
he decides who will rise and who will fall.

<sup>8</sup>For the LORD holds a cup in his hand that is full of foaming wine mixed with spices.
He pours out the wine in judgment,
and all the wicked must drink it,

draining it to the dregs.

<sup>9</sup>But as for me, I will always proclaim what God has done;
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

<sup>10</sup>For God says, “I will break the strength of the wicked, but I will increase the power of the godly.”

Psalm 76

For the choir director: A psalm of Asaph. A song to be accompanied by stringed instruments.

<sup>1</sup>God is honored in Judah;
his name is great in Israel.

Mount Zion is his home.

<sup>3</sup>There he has broken the fiery arrows of the enemy,
the shields and swords and weapons of war.

Interlude

<sup>4</sup>You are glorious and more majestic than the everlasting mountains.*

<sup>5</sup>Our boldest enemies have been plundered.
They lie before us in the sleep of death.
No warrior could lift a hand against us.

their horses and chariots lay still.

<sup>7</sup>No wonder you are greatly feared!
Who can stand before you when your anger explodes?

<sup>8</sup>From heaven you sentenced your enemies;
the earth trembled and stood silent before you.

<sup>9</sup>You stand up to judge those who do evil, O God,
and to rescue the oppressed of the earth.

Interlude

<sup>10</sup>Human defiance only enhances your glory, for you use it as a weapon.*

<sup>11</sup>Make vows to the LORD your God, and keep them.
Let everyone bring tribute to the Awesome One.

<sup>12</sup>For he breaks the pride of princes, and the kings of the earth fear him.

Psalm 77

For Jeduthun, the choir director: A psalm of Asaph.

Oh, that God would listen to me!

<sup>2</sup>When I was in deep trouble,

I searched for the Lord.

All night long I prayed, with hands lifted toward heaven,
but my soul was not comforted.

<sup>3</sup>I think of God, and I moan, overwhelmed with longing for his help.

Interlude

<sup>4</sup>You don't let me sleep.

I am too distressed even to pray!

<sup>5</sup>I think of the good old days,
long since ended,

<sup>6</sup>when my nights were filled with joyful songs.

I search my soul and ponder the difference now.

<sup>7</sup>Has the Lord rejected me forever?

Will he never again be kind to me?

<sup>8</sup>Is his unfailing love gone forever?

Have his promises permanently failed?

<sup>9</sup>Has God forgotten to be gracious?

Has he slammed the door on his compassion?

Interlude

<sup>10</sup>And I said, “This is my fate;
the Most High has turned his hand against me.”

<sup>11</sup>But then I recall all you have done, O LORD;
I remember your wonderful deeds of long ago.

<sup>12</sup>They are constantly in my thoughts.
I cannot stop thinking about your mighty works.

<sup>13</sup>O God, your ways are holy.
Is there any god as mighty as you?

<sup>14</sup>You are the God of great wonders!
You demonstrate your awesome power among the nations.

<sup>15</sup>By your strong arm, you redeemed your people, the descendants of Jacob and Joseph.

Interlude

<sup>16</sup>When the Red Sea* saw you, O God, its waters looked and trembled!
The sea quaked to its very depths.

<sup>17</sup>The clouds poured down rain;
the thunder rumbled in the sky.
Your arrows of lightning flashed.

<sup>18</sup>Your thunder roared from the whirlwind;
the lightning lit up the world!
The earth trembled and shook.

<sup>19</sup>Your road led through the sea, your pathway through the mighty waters—
a pathway no one knew was there!

<sup>20</sup>You led your people along that road like a flock of sheep, with Moses and Aaron as their shepherds.

Psalm 78

*A psalm* of Asaph.*

<sup>1</sup>O my people, listen to my instructions.
Open your ears to what I am saying,
<sup>2</sup>for I will speak to you in a parable.
I will teach you hidden lessons from our past—<sup>3</sup>stories we have heard and known, stories our ancestors handed down to us.
<sup>4</sup>We will not hide these truths from our children;
we will tell the next generation
about the glorious deeds of the LORD, about his power and his mighty wonders.
<sup>5</sup>For he issued his laws to Jacob;
he gave his instructions to Israel.
He commanded our ancestors to teach them to their children, <sup>6</sup>so the next generation might know them—even the children not yet born—and they in turn will teach their own children.
<sup>7</sup>So each generation should set its hope anew on God, not forgetting his glorious miracles
and obeying his commands.
<sup>8</sup>Then they will not be like their ancestors—stubborn, rebellious, and unfaithful, refusing to give their hearts to God.

<sup>9</sup> The warriors of Ephraim, though armed with bows, turned their backs and fled on the day of battle.

<sup>10</sup> They did not keep God's covenant and refused to live by his instructions.

<sup>11</sup> They forgot what he had done—
the great wonders he had shown them,

<sup>12</sup> the miracles he did for their ancestors on the plain of Zoan in the land of Egypt.

<sup>13</sup> For he divided the sea and led them through,
making the water stand up like walls!

<sup>14</sup> In the daytime he led them by a cloud,
and all night by a pillar of fire.

<sup>15</sup> He split open the rocks in the wilderness to give them water, as from a gushing spring.

<sup>16</sup> He made streams pour from the rock, making the waters flow down like a river!

<sup>17</sup> Yet they kept on sinning against him, rebellious against the Most High in the desert.

<sup>18</sup> They stubbornly tested God in their hearts, demanding the foods they craved.

<sup>19</sup> They even spoke against God himself, saying,
“God can't give us food in the wilderness.

<sup>20</sup> Yes, he can strike a rock so water gushes out,
but he can't give his people bread and meat.”

<sup>21</sup> When the LORD heard them, he was furious.
The fire of his wrath burned against Jacob.

Yes, his anger rose against Israel,

<sup>22</sup>for they did not believe God or trust him to care for them.
<sup>23</sup>But he commanded the skies to open;
he opened the doors of heaven.
<sup>24</sup>He rained down manna for them to eat;
he gave them bread from heaven.
<sup>25</sup>They ate the food of angels!
God gave them all they could hold.
<sup>26</sup>He released the east wind in the heavens and guided the south wind by his mighty power.
<sup>27</sup>He rained down meat as thick as dust—birds as plentiful as the sand on the seashore!
<sup>28</sup>He caused the birds to fall within their camp and all around their tents.
<sup>29</sup>The people ate their fill.
He gave them what they craved.
<sup>30</sup>But before they satisfied their craving, while the meat was yet in their mouths, <sup>31</sup>the anger of God rose against them,
and he killed their strongest men.
He struck down the finest of Israel's young men.

<sup>32</sup>But in spite of this, the people kept sinning.
Despite his wonders, they refused to trust him.
<sup>33</sup>So he ended their lives in failure, their years in terror.
<sup>34</sup>When God began killing them,
they finally sought him.

They repented and took God seriously.

<sup>35</sup>Then they remembered that God was their rock, that God Most High* was their redeemer.

<sup>36</sup>But all they gave him was lip service;
they lied to him with their tongues.

<sup>37</sup>Their hearts were not loyal to him.
They did not keep his covenant.

<sup>38</sup>Yet he was merciful and forgave their sins and did not destroy them all.

Many times he held back his anger and did not unleash his fury!

<sup>39</sup>For he remembered that they were merely mortal, gone like a breath of wind that never returns.

<sup>40</sup>Oh, how often they rebelled against him in the wilderness and grieved his heart in that dry wasteland.

<sup>41</sup>Again and again they tested God's patience and provoked the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>42</sup>They did not remember his power and how he rescued them from their enemies.

<sup>43</sup>They did not remember his miraculous signs in Egypt, his wonders on the plain of Zoan.

<sup>44</sup>For he turned their rivers into blood, so no one could drink from the streams.

<sup>45</sup>He sent vast swarms of flies to consume them and hordes of frogs to ruin them.

<sup>46</sup>He gave their crops to caterpillars;
their harvest was consumed by locusts.

<sup>47</sup>He destroyed their grapevines with hail and shattered their sycamore-figs with sleet.

<sup>48</sup>He abandoned their cattle to the hail,
their livestock to bolts of lightning.

<sup>49</sup>He loosed on them his fierce anger—
all his fury, rage, and hostility.

He dispatched against them
a band of destroying angels.

<sup>50</sup>He turned his anger against them;
he did not spare the Egyptians' lives
but ravaged them with the plague.

<sup>51</sup>He killed the oldest son in each Egyptian family, the flower of youth throughout the land of Egypt.*

<sup>52</sup>But he led his own people like a flock of sheep, guiding them safely through the wilderness.

<sup>53</sup>He kept them safe so they were not afraid;
but the sea covered their enemies.

<sup>54</sup>He brought them to the border of his holy land, to this land of hills he had won for them.

<sup>55</sup>He drove out the nations before them;
he gave them their inheritance by lot.
He settled the tribes of Israel into their homes.

<sup>56</sup>But they kept testing and rebelling against God Most High.
They did not obey his laws.

<sup>57</sup>They turned back and were as faithless as their parents.
They were as undependable as a crooked bow.

<sup>58</sup>They angered God by building shrines to other gods;

they made him jealous with their idols.

<sup>59</sup>When God heard them, he was very angry, and he completely rejected Israel.

<sup>60</sup>Then he abandoned his dwelling at Shiloh,
the Tabernacle where he had lived among the people.

<sup>61</sup>He allowed the Ark of his might to be captured;
he surrendered his glory into enemy hands.

<sup>62</sup>He gave his people over to be butchered by the sword, because he was so angry with his own people—his special possession.

<sup>63</sup>Their young men were killed by fire;
their young women died before singing their wedding songs.

<sup>64</sup>Their priests were slaughtered, and their widows could not mourn their deaths.

<sup>65</sup>Then the Lord rose up as though waking from sleep, like a warrior aroused from a drunken stupor.

<sup>66</sup>He routed his enemies and sent them to eternal shame.

<sup>67</sup>But he rejected Joseph's descendants;
he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim.

<sup>68</sup>He chose instead the tribe of Judah, and Mount Zion, which he loved.

<sup>69</sup>There he built his sanctuary as high as the heavens, as solid and enduring as the earth.

<sup>70</sup>He chose his servant David,
calling him from the sheep pens.

<sup>71</sup>He took David from tending the ewes and lambs and made him the shepherd of Jacob's descendants—God's own people, Israel.

<sup>72</sup>He cared for them with a true heart and led them with skillful hands.

Psalm 79

<sup>1</sup>O God, pagan nations have conquered your land, your special possession.

They have defiled your holy Temple and made Jerusalem a heap of ruins.

<sup>2</sup>They have left the bodies of your servants as food for the birds of heaven.

The flesh of your godly ones has become food for the wild animals.

<sup>3</sup>Blood has flowed like water all around Jerusalem;
no one is left to bury the dead.

<sup>4</sup>We are mocked by our neighbors, an object of scorn and derision to those around us.

<sup>5</sup>O LORD, how long will you be angry with us? Forever?
How long will your jealousy burn like fire?

acknowledge you—

on kingdoms that do not call upon your name.

<sup>7</sup>For they have devoured your people Israel,* making the land a desolate wilderness.

<sup>8</sup>Do not hold us guilty for the sins of our ancestors!
Let your compassion quickly meet our needs,
for we are on the brink of despair.

<sup>9</sup>Help us, O God of our salvation!
Help us for the glory of your name.
Save us and forgive our sins for the honor of your name.

<sup>10</sup>Why should pagan nations be allowed to scoff, asking, “Where is their God?”
Show us your vengeance against the nations, for they have spilled the blood of your servants.

<sup>11</sup>Listen to the moaning of the prisoners.
Demonstrate your great power by saving those condemned to die.

<sup>12</sup>O Lord, pay back our neighbors seven times for the scorn they have hurled at you.

<sup>13</sup>Then we your people, the sheep of your pasture, will thank you forever and ever,
praising your greatness from generation to generation.

Psalm 80

For the choir director: A psalm of Asaph, to be sung to the tune "Lilies of the Covenant."

<sup>1</sup>Please listen, O Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph's descendants like a flock.
O God, enthroned above the cherubim, display your radiant glory
<sup>2</sup>to Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh.
Show us your mighty power.
Come to rescue us!

<sup>3</sup>Turn us again to yourself, O God.
Make your face shine down upon us.
Only then will we be saved.
<sup>4</sup>O LORD God of Heaven's Armies,
how long will you be angry with our prayers?
<sup>5</sup>You have fed us with sorrow and made us drink tears by the bucketful.
<sup>6</sup>You have made us the scorn* of neighboring nations.
Our enemies treat us as a joke.

<sup>7</sup>Turn us again to yourself, O God of Heaven's Armies.
Make your face shine down upon us.
Only then will we be saved.
<sup>8</sup>You brought us from Egypt like a grapevine; you drove away the pagan nations and transplanted us into your land.

<sup>9</sup>You cleared the ground for us, and we took root and filled the land.

<sup>10</sup>Our shade covered the mountains;
our branches covered the mighty cedars.

<sup>11</sup>We spread our branches west to the Mediterranean Sea;
our shoots spread east to the Euphrates River.*

<sup>12</sup>But now, why have you broken down our walls
so that all who pass by may steal our fruit?

<sup>13</sup>The wild boar from the forest devours it, and the wild animals feed on it.

<sup>14</sup>Come back, we beg you, O God of Heaven's Armies.
Look down from heaven and see our plight.

Take care of this grapevine

<sup>15</sup>that you yourself have planted, this son you have raised for yourself.

<sup>16</sup>For we are chopped up and burned by our enemies.
May they perish at the sight of your frown.

<sup>17</sup>Strengthen the man you love,
the son of your choice.

<sup>18</sup>Then we will never abandon you again.
Revive us so we can call on your name once more.

<sup>19</sup>Turn us again to yourself, O LORD God of Heaven's Armies.
Make your face shine down upon us.
Only then will we be saved.

Psalm 81

*For the choir director: A psalm of Asaph, to be accompanied by a stringed instrument.**

<sup>1</sup>Sing praises to God, our strength.

Sing to the God of Jacob.

<sup>2</sup>Sing! Beat the tambourine.

Play the sweet lyre and the harp.

<sup>3</sup>Blow the ram's horn at new moon,
and again at full moon to call a festival!

<sup>4</sup>For this is required by the decrees of Israel;
it is a regulation of the God of Jacob.

<sup>5</sup>He made it a law for Israel*
when he attacked Egypt to set us free.

I heard an unknown voice say,

<sup>6</sup>“Now I will take the load from your shoulders;
I will free your hands from their heavy tasks.

<sup>7</sup>You cried to me in trouble, and I saved you;
I answered out of the thundercloud and tested your faith when there was no water at Meribah.

Interlude

<sup>8</sup>“Listen to me, O my people, while I give you stern warnings.
O Israel, if you would only listen to me!

<sup>9</sup>You must never have a foreign god;

you must not bow down before a false god.

<sup>10</sup>For it was I, the LORD your God, who rescued you from the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it with good things.

<sup>11</sup>“But no, my people wouldn’t listen.
Israel did not want me around.

<sup>12</sup>So I let them follow their own stubborn desires, living according to their own ideas.

<sup>13</sup>Oh, that my people would listen to me!
Oh, that Israel would follow me, walking in my paths!

<sup>14</sup>How quickly I would then subdue their enemies!
How soon my hands would be upon their foes!

<sup>15</sup>Those who hate the LORD would cringe before him;
they would be doomed forever.

<sup>16</sup>But I would feed you with the finest wheat.
I would satisfy you with wild honey from the rock.”

Psalm 82

A psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> God presides over heaven's court;
he pronounces judgment on the heavenly beings:
<sup>2</sup>“How long will you hand down unjust decisions by favoring the wicked?

<sup>3</sup>“Give justice to the poor and the orphan;
uphold the rights of the oppressed and the destitute.

<sup>4</sup>Rescue the poor and helpless;
deliver them from the grasp of evil people.

<sup>5</sup>But these oppressors know nothing;
they are so ignorant!

They wander about in darkness,
while the whole world is shaken to the core.

<sup>6</sup>I say, ‘You are gods;
you are all children of the Most High.

<sup>7</sup>But you will die like mere mortals and fall like every other ruler.”

<sup>8</sup>Rise up, O God, and judge the earth, for all the nations belong to you.

Psalm 83

A song. A psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>O God, do not be silent!

Do not be deaf.

Do not be quiet, O God.

<sup>2</sup>Don't you hear the uproar of your enemies?

Don't you see that your arrogant enemies are rising up?

<sup>3</sup>They devise crafty schemes against your people;
they conspire against your precious ones.

We will destroy the very memory of its existence."

<sup>5</sup>Yes, this was their unanimous decision.

They signed a treaty as allies against you—

Moabites and Hagrites;

<sup>7</sup>Gebalites, Ammonites, and Amalekites;

and people from Philistia and Tyre.

<sup>8</sup>Assyria has joined them, too,

and is allied with the descendants of Lot.

Interlude

<sup>9</sup>Do to them as you did to the Midianites and as you did to Sisera and Jabin at the Kishon River.

<sup>10</sup>They were destroyed at Endor,

and their decaying corpses fertilized the soil.

Let all their princes die like Zebah and Zalmunna,

<sup>12</sup>for they said, “Let us seize for our own use these pasturelands of God!”

<sup>13</sup>O my God, scatter them like tumbleweed, like chaff before the wind!

<sup>14</sup>As a fire burns a forest and as a flame sets mountains ablaze,

<sup>15</sup>chase them with your fierce storm;
terrify them with your tempest.

<sup>16</sup>Utterly disgrace them until they submit to your name, O LORD.

Let them die in disgrace.

<sup>18</sup>Then they will learn that you alone are called the LORD, that you alone are the Most High,
supreme over all the earth.

Psalm 84

*For the choir director: A psalm of the descendants of Korah, to be accompanied by a stringed instrument.**

<sup>1</sup>How lovely is your dwelling place,
O LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>2</sup>I long, yes, I faint with longing to enter the courts of the LORD.

With my whole being, body and soul,
I will shout joyfully to the living God.

<sup>3</sup>Even the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow builds her nest and raises her young
at a place near your altar,
O LORD of Heaven's Armies, my King and my God!

<sup>4</sup>What joy for those who can live in your house, always singing your praises.

Interlude

<sup>5</sup>What joy for those whose strength comes from the LORD, who have set their minds on a pilgrimage to Jerusalem.

it will become a place of refreshing springs.

The autumn rains will clothe it with blessings.

<sup>7</sup>They will continue to grow stronger, and each of them will appear before God in Jerusalem.*

<sup>8</sup>O LORD God of Heaven's Armies, hear my prayer.

Listen, O God of Jacob.

<sup>9</sup>O God, look with favor upon the king, our shield!
Show favor to the one you have anointed.

<sup>10</sup>A single day in your courts is better than a thousand anywhere else!
I would rather be a gatekeeper in the house of my God than live the good life in the homes of the wicked.

<sup>11</sup>For the LORD God is our sun and our shield.
He gives us grace and glory.
The LORD will withhold no good thing from those who do what is right.

<sup>12</sup>O LORD of Heaven's Armies, what joy for those who trust in you.

Psalm 85

For the choir director: A psalm of the descendants of Korah.

You restored the fortunes of Israel.*

<sup>2</sup>You forgave the guilt of your people—
yes, you covered all their sins.

<sup>3</sup>You held back your fury.

You kept back your blazing anger.

<sup>4</sup>Now restore us again, O God of our salvation.

Put aside your anger against us once more.

<sup>5</sup>Will you be angry with us always?

Will you prolong your wrath to all generations?

<sup>6</sup>Won't you revive us again,
so your people can rejoice in you?

<sup>7</sup>Show us your unfailing love, O LORD,
and grant us your salvation.

<sup>8</sup>I listen carefully to what God the LORD is saying,
for he speaks peace to his faithful people.

But let them not return to their foolish ways.

<sup>9</sup>Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him, so our land will be filled with his glory.

<sup>10</sup>Unfailing love and truth have met together.
Righteousness and peace have kissed!

<sup>11</sup>Truth springs up from the earth, and righteousness smiles down from heaven.

<sup>12</sup>Yes, the LORD pours down his blessings.
Our land will yield its bountiful harvest.

<sup>13</sup>Righteousness goes as a herald before him, preparing the way for his steps.

Psalm 86

A prayer of David.

<sup>1</sup>Bend down, O LORD, and hear my prayer;
answer me, for I need your help.

<sup>2</sup>Protect me, for I am devoted to you.
Save me, for I serve you and trust you.
You are my God.

<sup>3</sup>Be merciful to me, O Lord,
for I am calling on you constantly.

<sup>4</sup>Give me happiness, O Lord,
for I give myself to you.

<sup>5</sup>O Lord, you are so good, so ready to forgive, so full of unfailing love for all who ask for your help.

<sup>6</sup>Listen closely to my prayer, O LORD;
hear my urgent cry.

<sup>7</sup>I will call to you whenever I'm in trouble, and you will answer me.

<sup>8</sup>No pagan god is like you, O Lord.
None can do what you do!

<sup>9</sup>All the nations you made will come and bow before you, Lord;
they will praise your holy name.

<sup>10</sup>For you are great and perform wonderful deeds.
You alone are God.

<sup>11</sup> Teach me your ways, O LORD, that I may live according to your truth!
Grant me purity of heart,
so that I may honor you.
<sup>12</sup> With all my heart I will praise you, O Lord my God.
I will give glory to your name forever,
<sup>13</sup> for your love for me is very great.
You have rescued me from the depths of death.*

<sup>14</sup> O God, insolent people rise up against me;
a violent gang is trying to kill me.
You mean nothing to them.
<sup>15</sup> But you, O Lord, are a God of compassion and mercy,
slow to get angry
and filled with unfailing love and faithfulness.
<sup>16</sup> Look down and have mercy on me.
Give your strength to your servant;
save me, the son of your servant.
<sup>17</sup> Send me a sign of your favor.
Then those who hate me will be put to shame,
for you, O LORD, help and comfort me.

Psalm 87

A song. A psalm of the descendants of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>On the holy mountain stands the city founded by the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>He loves the city of Jerusalem more than any other city in Israel.*

<sup>3</sup>O city of God, what glorious things are said of you!

Interlude

<sup>4</sup>I will count Egypt* and Babylon among those who know me

---

also Philistia and Tyre, and even distant Ethiopia.*
They have all become citizens of Jerusalem!

<sup>5</sup>Regarding Jerusalem* it will be said,
“Everyone enjoys the rights of citizenship there.”
And the Most High will personally bless this city.

<sup>6</sup>When the LORD registers the nations, he will say,
“They have all become citizens of Jerusalem.”

Interlude

<sup>7</sup>The people will play flutes* and sing,
“The source of my life springs from Jerusalem!”

Psalm 88

*For the choir director: A psalm of the descendants of Korah. A song to be sung to the tune “The Suffering of Affliction.” A psalm* of Heman the Ezrahite.*

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, God of my salvation,

I cry out to you by day.

I come to you at night.

<sup>2</sup> Now hear my prayer;

listen to my cry.

<sup>3</sup> For my life is full of troubles, and death* draws near.

<sup>4</sup> I am as good as dead,

<sup>5</sup> They have left me among the dead,

and I lie like a corpse in a grave.

I am forgotten,

cut off from your care.

<sup>6</sup> You have thrown me into the lowest pit, into the darkest depths.

<sup>7</sup> Your anger weighs me down;

with wave after wave you have engulfed me.

Interlude

<sup>8</sup> You have driven my friends away

by making me repulsive to them.

I am in a trap with no way of escape.

<sup>9</sup>My eyes are blinded by my tears.
Each day I beg for your help, O LORD;
I lift my hands to you for mercy.

<sup>10</sup>Are your wonderful deeds of any use to the dead?
Do the dead rise up and praise you?

Interlude

<sup>11</sup>Can those in the grave declare your unfailing love?
Can they proclaim your faithfulness in the place of destruction?*

<sup>12</sup>Can the darkness speak of your wonderful deeds?
Can anyone in the land of forgetfulness talk about your righteousness?

<sup>13</sup>O LORD, I cry out to you.
I will keep on pleading day by day.

<sup>14</sup>O LORD, why do you reject me?
Why do you turn your face from me?

<sup>15</sup>I have been sick and close to death since my youth.
I stand helpless and desperate before your terrors.

<sup>16</sup>Your fierce anger has overwhelmed me.
Your terrors have paralyzed me.

<sup>17</sup>They swirl around me like floodwaters all day long.
They have engulfed me completely.

<sup>18</sup>You have taken away my companions and loved ones.
Darkness is my closest friend.

Psalm 89

*A psalm* of Ethan the Ezrahite.*

<sup>1</sup>I will sing of the LORD's unfailing love forever!

Young and old will hear of your faithfulness.

<sup>2</sup>Your unfailing love will last forever.

Your faithfulness is as enduring as the heavens.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD said, "I have made a covenant with David, my chosen servant.

I have sworn this oath to him:

<sup>4</sup>"I will establish your descendants as kings forever;
they will sit on your throne from now until eternity."

Interlude

<sup>5</sup>All heaven will praise your great wonders, LORD;
myriads of angels will praise you for your faithfulness.

<sup>6</sup>For who in all of heaven can compare with the LORD?
What mightiest angel is anything like the LORD?

<sup>7</sup>The highest angelic powers stand in awe of God.
He is far more awesome than all who surround his throne.

<sup>8</sup>O LORD God of Heaven's Armies!
Where is there anyone as mighty as you, O LORD?
You are entirely faithful.

<sup>9</sup>You rule the oceans.
You subdue their storm-tossed waves.

You scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.

<sup>11</sup>The heavens are yours, and the earth is yours;
everything in the world is yours—you created it all.

<sup>12</sup>You created north and south.

Mount Tabor and Mount Hermon praise your name.

<sup>13</sup>Powerful is your arm!

Strong is your hand!

Your right hand is lifted high in glorious strength.

<sup>14</sup>Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne.

Unfailing love and truth walk before you as attendants.

<sup>15</sup>Happy are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, LORD.

<sup>16</sup>They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation.
They exult in your righteousness.

It pleases you to make us strong.

<sup>18</sup>Yes, our protection comes from the LORD, and he, the Holy One of Israel, has given us our king.

<sup>19</sup>Long ago you spoke in a vision to your faithful people.

You said, “I have raised up a warrior.

I have selected him from the common people to be king.

<sup>20</sup>I have found my servant David.

I have anointed him with my holy oil.

<sup>21</sup>I will steady him with my hand;
with my powerful arm I will make him strong.

<sup>22</sup>His enemies will not defeat him, nor will the wicked overpower him.

<sup>23</sup>I will beat down his adversaries before him and destroy those who hate him.

<sup>24</sup>My faithfulness and unfailing love will be with him, and by my authority he will grow in power.

<sup>25</sup>I will extend his rule over the sea, his dominion over the rivers.

<sup>26</sup>And he will call out to me, 'You are my Father, my God, and the Rock of my salvation.'

<sup>27</sup>I will make him my firstborn son,
the mightiest king on earth.

<sup>28</sup>I will love him and be kind to him forever;
my covenant with him will never end.

<sup>29</sup>I will preserve an heir for him;
his throne will be as endless as the days of heaven.

<sup>30</sup>But if his descendants forsake my instructions and fail to obey my regulations,

<sup>31</sup>if they do not obey my decrees and fail to keep my commands,

<sup>32</sup>then I will punish their sin with the rod, and their disobedience with beating.

<sup>33</sup>But I will never stop loving him nor fail to keep my promise to him.

<sup>34</sup>No, I will not break my covenant;
I will not take back a single word I said.

<sup>35</sup>I have sworn an oath to David,
and in my holiness I cannot lie:

<sup>36</sup>His dynasty will go on forever;
his kingdom will endure as the sun.
<sup>37</sup>It will be as eternal as the moon,
my faithful witness in the sky!”

Interlude

<sup>38</sup>But now you have rejected him and cast him off.
You are angry with your anointed king.
<sup>39</sup>You have renounced your covenant with him;
you have thrown his crown in the dust.
<sup>40</sup>You have broken down the walls protecting him and ruined every fort defending him.
<sup>41</sup>Everyone who comes along has robbed him,
and he has become a joke to his neighbors.
<sup>42</sup>You have strengthened his enemies and made them all rejoice.
<sup>43</sup>You have made his sword useless and refused to help him in battle.
<sup>44</sup>You have ended his splendor and overturned his throne.
<sup>45</sup>You have made him old before his time and publicly disgraced him.

<sup>46</sup>O LORD, how long will this go on?
Will you hide yourself forever?
How long will your anger burn like fire?
<sup>47</sup>Remember how short my life is,

how empty and futile this human existence!

<sup>48</sup>No one can live forever; all will die.

No one can escape the power of the grave.*

<sup>49</sup>Lord, where is your unfailing love?

You promised it to David with a faithful pledge.

I carry in my heart the insults of so many people.

<sup>51</sup>Your enemies have mocked me, O LORD;

they mock your anointed king wherever he goes.

Amen and amen!

BOOK FOUR (Psalms 90–106)

Psalm 90

A prayer of Moses, the man of God.

<sup>1</sup>Lord, through all the generations
you have been our home!

<sup>2</sup>Before the mountains were born,
before you gave birth to the earth and the world,
from beginning to end, you are God.

<sup>3</sup>You turn people back to dust, saying,
“Return to dust, you mortals!”

<sup>4</sup>For you, a thousand years are as a passing day, as brief as a few night hours.

<sup>5</sup>You sweep people away like dreams that disappear.
They are like grass that springs up in the morning.

<sup>6</sup>In the morning it blooms and flourishes,
but by evening it is dry and withered.

<sup>7</sup>We wither beneath your anger;
we are overwhelmed by your fury.

<sup>8</sup>You spread out our sins before you—our secret sins—and you see them all.

<sup>9</sup>We live our lives beneath your wrath, ending our years with a groan.

<sup>10</sup>Seventy years are given to us!

Some even live to eighty.

But even the best years are filled with pain and trouble;
soon they disappear, and we fly away.

<sup>11</sup>Who can comprehend the power of your anger?

Your wrath is as awesome as the fear you deserve.

<sup>12</sup>Teach us to realize the brevity of life, so that we may grow in wisdom.

<sup>13</sup> O LORD, come back to us!

How long will you delay?

Take pity on your servants!

<sup>14</sup>Satisfy us each morning with your unfailing love, so we may sing for joy to the end of our lives.

<sup>15</sup>Give us gladness in proportion to our former misery!
Replace the evil years with good.

<sup>16</sup>Let us, your servants, see you work again;
let our children see your glory.

<sup>17</sup>And may the Lord our God show us his approval and make our efforts successful.

Yes, make our efforts successful!

Psalm 91

<sup>1</sup>Those who live in the shelter of the Most High will find rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

<sup>2</sup>This I declare about the LORD:

He alone is my refuge, my place of safety;
he is my God, and I trust him.

<sup>3</sup>For he will rescue you from every trap and protect you from deadly disease.

<sup>4</sup>He will cover you with his feathers.

He will shelter you with his wings.

His faithful promises are your armor and protection.

<sup>5</sup>Do not be afraid of the terrors of the night, nor the arrow that flies in the day.

<sup>6</sup>Do not dread the disease that stalks in darkness, nor the disaster that strikes at midday.

<sup>7</sup>Though a thousand fall at your side,
though ten thousand are dying around you,
these evils will not touch you.

<sup>8</sup>Just open your eyes, and see how the wicked are punished.

<sup>9</sup>If you make the LORD your refuge,
if you make the Most High your shelter,

<sup>10</sup>no evil will conquer you;
no plague will come near your home.

<sup>11</sup>For he will order his angels to protect you wherever you go.

<sup>12</sup>They will hold you up with their hands
so you won't even hurt your foot on a stone.

<sup>13</sup>You will trample upon lions and cobras;
you will crush fierce lions and serpents under your feet!

<sup>14</sup>The LORD says, "I will rescue those who love me.
I will protect those who trust in my name.

<sup>15</sup>When they call on me, I will answer;
I will be with them in trouble.
I will rescue and honor them.

<sup>16</sup>I will reward them with a long life and give them my salvation."

Psalm 92

A psalm. A song to be sung on the Sabbath Day.

<sup>1</sup>It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to the Most High.

<sup>2</sup>It is good to proclaim your unfailing love in the morning, your faithfulness in the evening,

<sup>3</sup>accompanied by the ten-stringed harp and the melody of the lyre.

<sup>4</sup>You thrill me, LORD, with all you have done for me!
I sing for joy because of what you have done.

<sup>5</sup>O LORD, what great works you do!
And how deep are your thoughts.

<sup>6</sup>Only a simpleton would not know,
and only a fool would not understand this:

<sup>7</sup>Though the wicked sprout like weeds and evildoers flourish,
they will be destroyed forever.

<sup>8</sup>But you, O LORD, will be exalted forever.

<sup>9</sup>Your enemies, LORD, will surely perish;
all evildoers will be scattered.

<sup>10</sup>But you have made me as strong as a wild ox.
You have anointed me with the finest oil.

<sup>11</sup>My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies;

my ears have heard the defeat of my wicked opponents.

<sup>12</sup>But the godly will flourish like palm trees and grow strong like the cedars of Lebanon.

<sup>13</sup>For they are transplanted to the LORD's own house.
They flourish in the courts of our God.

<sup>14</sup>Even in old age they will still produce fruit;
they will remain vital and green.

<sup>15</sup>They will declare, "The LORD is just!
He is my rock!
There is no evil in him!"

Psalm 93

<sup>1</sup>The LORD is king! He is robed in majesty.
Indeed, the LORD is robed in majesty and armed with strength.
The world stands firm and cannot be shaken.

<sup>2</sup>Your throne, O LORD, has stood from time immemorial.
You yourself are from the everlasting past.

<sup>3</sup>The floods have risen up, O LORD.
The floods have roared like thunder;
the floods have lifted their pounding waves.

<sup>4</sup>But mightier than the violent raging of the seas, mightier than the breakers on the shore—
the LORD above is mightier than these!

<sup>5</sup>Your royal laws cannot be changed.
Your reign, O LORD, is holy forever and ever.

Psalm 94

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, the God of vengeance,
O God of vengeance, let your glorious justice shine forth!

Give the proud what they deserve.

<sup>3</sup>How long, O LORD?
How long will the wicked be allowed to gloat?

<sup>4</sup>How long will they speak with arrogance?
How long will these evil people boast?

<sup>5</sup>They crush your people, LORD, hurting those you claim as your own.

<sup>6</sup>They kill widows and foreigners and murder orphans.

<sup>7</sup>“The LORD isn’t looking,” they say,
“and besides, the God of Israel* doesn’t care.”

<sup>8</sup> Think again, you fools!

When will you finally catch on?

<sup>9</sup>Is he deaf—the one who made your ears?
Is he blind—the one who formed your eyes?

<sup>10</sup>He punishes the nations—won’t he also punish you?
He knows everything—doesn’t he also know what you are doing?

<sup>11</sup>The LORD knows people’s thoughts;
he knows they are worthless!

<sup>12</sup>Joyful are those you discipline, LORD, those you teach with your instructions.

What the Bible Says about

Learning

<sup>13</sup>You give them relief from troubled times until a pit is dug to capture the wicked.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD will not reject his people;
he will not abandon his special possession.

<sup>15</sup>Judgment will again be founded on justice, and those with virtuous hearts will pursue it.

<sup>16</sup>Who will protect me from the wicked?
Who will stand up for me against evildoers?

<sup>17</sup>Unless the LORD had helped me,
I would soon have settled in the silence of the grave.

but your unfailing love, O LORD, supported me.

<sup>19</sup>When doubts filled my mind, your comfort gave me renewed hope and cheer.

<sup>20</sup>Can unjust leaders claim that God is on their side—leaders whose decrees permit injustice?

<sup>21</sup>They gang up against the righteous and condemn the innocent to death.

<sup>22</sup>But the LORD is my fortress;
my God is the mighty rock where I hide.

<sup>23</sup>God will turn the sins of evil people back on them.

He will destroy them for their sins.
The LORD our God will destroy them.

Psalm 95

<sup>1</sup>Come, let us sing to the LORD!

Let us shout joyfully to the Rock of our salvation.

<sup>2</sup>Let us come to him with thanksgiving.

Let us sing psalms of praise to him.

<sup>3</sup>For the LORD is a great God,

a great King above all gods.

<sup>4</sup>He holds in his hands the depths of the earth and the mightiest mountains.

<sup>5</sup>The sea belongs to him, for he made it.

His hands formed the dry land, too.

<sup>6</sup>Come, let us worship and bow down.

Let us kneel before the LORD our maker,

<sup>7</sup>for he is our God.

We are the people he watches over,

the flock under his care.

If only you would listen to his voice today!

<sup>8</sup>The LORD says, “Don’t harden your hearts as Israel did at Meribah, as they did at Massah in the wilderness.

<sup>9</sup>For there your ancestors tested and tried my patience, even though they saw everything I did.

<sup>10</sup>For forty years I was angry with them, and I said,

‘They are a people whose hearts turn away from me.

They refuse to do what I tell them.’

<sup>11</sup>So in my anger I took an oath:

‘They will never enter my place of rest.’”

Psalm 96

<sup>1</sup>Sing a new song to the LORD!

Let the whole earth sing to the LORD!

<sup>2</sup>Sing to the LORD; praise his name.

Each day proclaim the good news that he saves.

<sup>3</sup>Publish his glorious deeds among the nations.

Tell everyone about the amazing things he does.

He is to be feared above all gods.

<sup>5</sup>The gods of other nations are mere idols,

but the LORD made the heavens!

<sup>6</sup>Honor and majesty surround him;

strength and beauty fill his sanctuary.

<sup>7</sup>O nations of the world, recognize the LORD;

recognize that the LORD is glorious and strong.

<sup>8</sup>Give to the LORD the glory he deserves!

Bring your offering and come into his courts.

<sup>9</sup>Worship the LORD in all his holy splendor.

Let all the earth tremble before him.

<sup>10</sup>Tell all the nations, "The LORD reigns!"

The world stands firm and cannot be shaken.

He will judge all peoples fairly.

<sup>11</sup>Let the heavens be glad, and the earth rejoice!

Let the sea and everything in it shout his praise!

Let the trees of the forest rustle with praise

<sup>13</sup>before the LORD, for he is coming!

He is coming to judge the earth.

He will judge the world with justice,
and the nations with his truth.

Psalm 97

<sup>1</sup>The LORD is king!

Let the earth rejoice!

Let the farthest coastlands be glad.

<sup>2</sup>Dark clouds surround him.

Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

<sup>3</sup>Fire spreads ahead of him and burns up all his foes.

The earth sees and trembles.

<sup>5</sup>The mountains melt like wax before the LORD,

before the Lord of all the earth.

<sup>6</sup>The heavens proclaim his righteousness;

every nation sees his glory.

<sup>7</sup>Those who worship idols are disgraced—

all who brag about their worthless gods—

for every god must bow to him.

<sup>8</sup>Jerusalem* has heard and rejoiced, and all the towns of Judah are glad because of your justice, O LORD!

<sup>9</sup>For you, O LORD, are supreme over all the earth;

you are exalted far above all gods.

<sup>10</sup> You who love the LORD, hate evil!

He protects the lives of his godly people and rescues them from the power of the wicked.

<sup>11</sup>Light shines on the godly,
and joy on those whose hearts are right.
<sup>12</sup>May all who are godly rejoice in the LORD and praise his holy name!

Psalm 98

A psalm.

<sup>1</sup> Sing a new song to the LORD,
for he has done wonderful deeds.
His right hand has won a mighty victory;
his holy arm has shown his saving power!

<sup>2</sup> The LORD has announced his victory and has revealed his righteousness to every nation!

<sup>3</sup> He has remembered his promise to love and be faithful to Israel.

The ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.

<sup>4</sup> Shout to the LORD, all the earth;
break out in praise and sing for joy!

<sup>5</sup> Sing your praise to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and melodious song,

<sup>6</sup> with trumpets and the sound of the ram's horn.
Make a joyful symphony before the LORD, the King!

<sup>7</sup> Let the sea and everything in it shout his praise!
Let the earth and all living things join in.

<sup>8</sup> Let the rivers clap their hands in glee!
Let the hills sing out their songs of joy

<sup>9</sup> before the LORD.
For the LORD is coming to judge the earth.

He will judge the world with justice,
and the nations with fairness.

Psalm 99

<sup>1</sup>The LORD is king!

Let the nations tremble!

He sits on his throne between the cherubim.

Let the whole earth quake!

exalted above all the nations.

<sup>3</sup>Let them praise your great and awesome name.

Your name is holy!

you have established fairness.

You have acted with justice and righteousness throughout Israel.*

<sup>5</sup>Exalt the LORD our God!

Bow low before his feet, for he is holy!

<sup>6</sup>Moses and Aaron were among his priests;

Samuel also called on his name.

They cried to the LORD for help, and he answered them.

<sup>7</sup>He spoke to Israel from the pillar of cloud, and they followed the laws and decrees he gave them.

<sup>8</sup>O LORD our God, you answered them.

You were a forgiving God to them,

but you punished them when they went wrong.

<sup>9</sup>Exalt the LORD our God,
and worship at his holy mountain in Jerusalem, for the LORD our God is holy!

Psalm 100

Come before him, singing with joy.

<sup>3</sup>Acknowledge that the LORD is God!

He made us, and we are his.*

We are his people, the sheep of his pasture.

<sup>4</sup>Enter his gates with thanksgiving;

go into his courts with praise.

Give thanks to him and praise his name.

<sup>5</sup>For the LORD is good.

His unfailing love continues forever, and his faithfulness continues to each generation.

Psalm 101

<sup>1</sup>I will sing of your love and justice, LORD.

I will praise you with songs.

<sup>2</sup>I will be careful to live a blameless life—
when will you come to help me?

I will lead a life of integrity
in my own home.

<sup>3</sup>I will refuse to look at anything vile and vulgar.
I hate all who deal crookedly;
I will have nothing to do with them.

<sup>4</sup>I will reject perverse ideas and stay away from every evil.

<sup>5</sup>I will not tolerate people who slander their neighbors.
I will not endure conceit and pride.

<sup>6</sup>I will search for faithful people to be my companions.
Only those who are above reproach will be allowed to serve me.

<sup>7</sup>I will not allow deceivers to serve in my house, and liars will not stay in my presence.

<sup>8</sup>My daily task will be to ferret out the wicked and free the city of the LORD from their grip.

Psalm 102

A prayer of one overwhelmed with trouble, pouring out problems before the LORD.

<sup>1</sup> LORD, hear my prayer!

Listen to my plea!

<sup>2</sup>Don't turn away from me
in my time of distress.

Bend down to listen,
and answer me quickly when I call to you.

<sup>3</sup>For my days disappear like smoke, and my bones burn like red-hot coals.

<sup>4</sup>My heart is sick, withered like grass, and I have lost my appetite.

<sup>5</sup>Because of my groaning,
I am reduced to skin and bones.

<sup>6</sup>I am like an owl in the desert, like a little owl in a far-off wilderness.

<sup>7</sup>I lie awake,
lonely as a solitary bird on the roof.

<sup>8</sup>My enemies taunt me day after day.
They mock and curse me.

My tears run down into my drink

<sup>10</sup>because of your anger and wrath.

For you have picked me up and thrown me out.

<sup>11</sup>My life passes as swiftly as the evening shadows.
I am withering away like grass.

<sup>12</sup>But you, O LORD, will sit on your throne forever.
Your fame will endure to every generation.

<sup>13</sup>You will arise and have mercy on Jerusalem*— and now is the time to pity her,
now is the time you promised to help.

<sup>14</sup>For your people love every stone in her walls and cherish even the dust in her streets.

<sup>15</sup>Then the nations will tremble before the LORD.
The kings of the earth will tremble before his glory.

<sup>16</sup>For the LORD will rebuild Jerusalem.
He will appear in his glory.

<sup>17</sup>He will listen to the prayers of the destitute.
He will not reject their pleas.

<sup>18</sup>Let this be recorded for future generations,
so that a people not yet born will praise the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>Tell them the LORD looked down from his heavenly sanctuary.
He looked down to earth from heaven

<sup>20</sup>to hear the groans of the prisoners, to release those condemned to die.

<sup>21</sup>And so the LORD's fame will be celebrated in Zion, his praises in Jerusalem,

<sup>22</sup>when multitudes gather together and kingdoms come to worship the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>He broke my strength in midlife, cutting short my days.

<sup>24</sup>But I cried to him, “O my God, who lives forever, don’t take my life while I am so young!

<sup>25</sup>Long ago you laid the foundation of the earth and made the heavens with your hands.

<sup>26</sup>They will perish, but you remain forever;
they will wear out like old clothing.
You will change them like a garment and discard them.

<sup>27</sup>But you are always the same;
you will live forever.

<sup>28</sup>The children of your people will live in security.
Their children’s children will thrive in your presence.”

Psalm 103

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Let all that I am praise the LORD;
with my whole heart, I will praise his holy name.

<sup>2</sup>Let all that I am praise the LORD;
may I never forget the good things he does for me.

<sup>3</sup>He forgives all my sins and heals all my diseases.

<sup>4</sup>He redeems me from death and crowns me with love and tender mercies.

<sup>5</sup>He fills my life with good things.
My youth is renewed like the eagle's!

<sup>6</sup>The LORD gives righteousness and justice to all who are treated unfairly.

<sup>7</sup>He revealed his character to Moses and his deeds to the people of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD is compassionate and merciful, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love.

<sup>9</sup>He will not constantly accuse us, nor remain angry forever.

<sup>10</sup>He does not punish us for all our sins;
he does not deal harshly with us, as we deserve.

<sup>11</sup>For his unfailing love toward those who fear him is as great as the height of the heavens above the earth.

<sup>12</sup>He has removed our sins as far from us as the east is from the west.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD is like a father to his children, tender and compassionate to those who fear him.

<sup>14</sup>For he knows how weak we are;
he remembers we are only dust.

<sup>15</sup>Our days on earth are like grass;
like wildflowers, we bloom and die.

<sup>16</sup>The wind blows, and we are gone—
as though we had never been here.

<sup>17</sup>But the love of the LORD remains forever with those who fear him.

His salvation extends to the children's children

<sup>18</sup>of those who are faithful to his covenant, of those who obey his commandments!

<sup>19</sup>The LORD has made the heavens his throne;
from there he rules over everything.

<sup>20</sup>Praise the LORD, you angels, you mighty ones who carry out his plans,
listening for each of his commands.

<sup>21</sup>Yes, praise the LORD, you armies of angels who serve him and do his will!

<sup>22</sup>Praise the LORD, everything he has created, everything in all his kingdom.

Let all that I am praise the LORD.

Psalm 104

<sup>1</sup>Let all that I am praise the LORD.

O LORD my God, how great you are!

You are robed with honor and majesty.

<sup>2</sup>You are dressed in a robe of light.

You stretch out the starry curtain of the heavens;

<sup>3</sup>you lay out the rafters of your home in the rain clouds.

You make the clouds your chariot;

you ride upon the wings of the wind.

<sup>4</sup>The winds are your messengers; flames of fire are your servants.*

<sup>5</sup>You placed the world on its foundation

so it would never be moved.

<sup>6</sup>You clothed the earth with floods of water,

water that covered even the mountains.

<sup>7</sup>At your command, the water fled;

at the sound of your thunder, it hurried away.

<sup>8</sup>Mountains rose and valleys sank to the levels you decreed.

<sup>9</sup>Then you set a firm boundary for the seas,

so they would never again cover the earth.

<sup>10</sup>You make springs pour water into the ravines, so streams gush down from the mountains.

<sup>11</sup>They provide water for all the animals, and the wild donkeys quench their thirst.

<sup>12</sup>The birds nest beside the streams and sing among the branches of the trees.

<sup>13</sup>You send rain on the mountains from your heavenly home, and you fill the earth with the fruit of your labor.

<sup>14</sup>You cause grass to grow for the livestock and plants for people to use.
You allow them to produce food from the earth—

<sup>15</sup>wine to make them glad, olive oil to soothe their skin,
and bread to give them strength.

<sup>16</sup>The trees of the LORD are well cared for—the cedars of Lebanon that he planted.

<sup>17</sup>There the birds make their nests, and the storks make their homes in the cypresses.

<sup>18</sup>High in the mountains live the wild goats, and the rocks form a refuge for the hyraxes.*

<sup>19</sup>You made the moon to mark the seasons, and the sun knows when to set.

<sup>20</sup>You send the darkness, and it becomes night, when all the forest animals prowl about.

<sup>21</sup>Then the young lions roar for their prey, stalking the food provided by God.

<sup>22</sup>At dawn they slink back into their dens to rest.

<sup>23</sup>Then people go off to their work,

where they labor until evening.

<sup>24</sup>O LORD, what a variety of things you have made!
In wisdom you have made them all.
The earth is full of your creatures.

<sup>25</sup>Here is the ocean, vast and wide, teeming with life of every kind,
both large and small.

<sup>26</sup>See the ships sailing along,
and Leviathan,* which you made to play in the sea.

<sup>27</sup>They all depend on you to give them food as they need it.

<sup>28</sup>When you supply it, they gather it.
You open your hand to feed them,
and they are richly satisfied.

<sup>29</sup>But if you turn away from them, they panic.
When you take away their breath,
they die and turn again to dust.

<sup>30</sup>When you give them your breath,* life is created, and you renew the face of the earth.

<sup>31</sup>May the glory of the LORD continue forever!
The LORD takes pleasure in all he has made!

<sup>32</sup>The earth trembles at his glance;
the mountains smoke at his touch.

<sup>33</sup>I will sing to the LORD as long as I live.

I will praise my God to my last breath!

<sup>34</sup>May all my thoughts be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the LORD.

<sup>35</sup>Let all sinners vanish from the face of the earth;
let the wicked disappear forever.

Let all that I am praise the LORD.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 105

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to the LORD and proclaim his greatness.
Let the whole world know what he has done.

<sup>2</sup>Sing to him; yes, sing his praises.
Tell everyone about his wonderful deeds.

<sup>3</sup>Exult in his holy name;
rejoice, you who worship the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>Search for the LORD and for his strength; continually seek him.

<sup>5</sup>Remember the wonders he has performed, his miracles, and the rulings he has given, <sup>6</sup>you children of his servant Abraham,
you descendants of Jacob, his chosen ones.

<sup>7</sup>He is the LORD our God.
His justice is seen throughout the land.

<sup>8</sup>He always stands by his covenant—
the commitment he made to a thousand generations.

<sup>9</sup>This is the covenant he made with Abraham and the oath he swore to Isaac.

<sup>10</sup>He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, and to the people of Israel as a never-ending covenant:

<sup>11</sup>“I will give you the land of Canaan as your special possession.”

<sup>12</sup>He said this when they were few in number, a tiny group of strangers in Canaan.

<sup>13</sup>They wandered from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another.

<sup>14</sup>Yet he did not let anyone oppress them.
He warned kings on their behalf:

<sup>15</sup>“Do not touch my chosen people,
and do not hurt my prophets.”

<sup>16</sup>He called for a famine on the land of Canaan, cutting off its food supply.

<sup>17</sup>Then he sent someone to Egypt ahead of them—
Joseph, who was sold as a slave.

<sup>18</sup>They bruised his feet with fetters and placed his neck in an iron collar.

<sup>19</sup>Until the time came to fulfill his dreams, *
the LORD tested Joseph's character.

<sup>20</sup>Then Pharaoh sent for him and set him free;
the ruler of the nation opened his prison door.

<sup>21</sup>Joseph was put in charge of all the king's household;
he became ruler over all the king's possessions.

<sup>22</sup>He could instruct the king's aides as he pleased and teach the king's advisers.

<sup>23</sup>Then Israel arrived in Egypt;
Jacob lived as a foreigner in the land of Ham.

<sup>24</sup>And the LORD multiplied the people of Israel until they became too mighty for their enemies.

<sup>25</sup>Then he turned the Egyptians against the Israelites, and they plotted against the LORD's servants.

<sup>26</sup>But the LORD sent his servant Moses, along with Aaron, whom he had chosen.

<sup>27</sup>They performed miraculous signs among the Egyptians, and wonders in the land of Ham.

<sup>28</sup>The LORD blanketed Egypt in darkness, for they had defied his commands to let his people go.

<sup>29</sup>He turned their water into blood, poisoning all the fish.

<sup>30</sup>Then frogs overran the land and even invaded the king's bedrooms.

<sup>31</sup>When the LORD spoke, flies descended on the Egyptians, and gnats swarmed across Egypt.

<sup>32</sup>He sent them hail instead of rain, and lightning flashed over the land.

<sup>33</sup>He ruined their grapevines and fig trees and shattered all the trees.

<sup>34</sup>He spoke, and hordes of locusts came—young locusts beyond number.

<sup>35</sup>They ate up everything green in the land, destroying all the crops in their fields.

<sup>36</sup>Then he killed the oldest son in each Egyptian home,
the pride and joy of each family.

<sup>37</sup>The LORD brought his people out of Egypt, loaded with silver and gold;
and not one among the tribes of Israel even stumbled.

<sup>38</sup>Egypt was glad when they were gone, for they feared them greatly.

<sup>39</sup>The LORD spread a cloud above them as a covering and gave them a great fire to light the darkness.

<sup>40</sup>They asked for meat, and he sent them quail;
he satisfied their hunger with manna—bread from heaven.

<sup>41</sup>He split open a rock, and water gushed out to form a river through the dry wasteland.

<sup>42</sup>For he remembered his sacred promise to his servant Abraham.

<sup>43</sup>So he brought his people out of Egypt with joy, his chosen ones with rejoicing.

<sup>44</sup>He gave his people the lands of pagan nations, and they harvested crops that others had planted.

<sup>45</sup>All this happened so they would follow his decrees and obey his instructions.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 106

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good!

<sup>2</sup>Who can list the glorious miracles of the LORD?

Who can ever praise him enough?

<sup>3</sup>There is joy for those who deal justly with others and always do what is right.

<sup>4</sup>Remember me, LORD, when you show favor to your people;
come near and rescue me.

<sup>5</sup>Let me share in the prosperity of your chosen ones.

Let me rejoice in the joy of your people;

let me praise you with those who are your heritage.

<sup>6</sup>Like our ancestors, we have sinned.

We have done wrong! We have acted wickedly!

<sup>7</sup>Our ancestors in Egypt

were not impressed by the LORD's miraculous deeds.

They soon forgot his many acts of kindness to them.

Instead, they rebelled against him at the Red Sea.*

<sup>8</sup>Even so, he saved them—

to defend the honor of his name and to demonstrate his mighty power.

<sup>9</sup>He commanded the Red Sea* to dry up.

He led Israel across the sea as if it were a desert.

<sup>10</sup>So he rescued them from their enemies and redeemed them from their foes.

<sup>11</sup>Then the water returned and covered their enemies;
not one of them survived.

<sup>12</sup>Then his people believed his promises.
Then they sang his praise.

<sup>13</sup>Yet how quickly they forgot what he had done!
They wouldn't wait for his counsel!

<sup>14</sup>In the wilderness their desires ran wild, testing God's patience in that dry wasteland.

<sup>15</sup>So he gave them what they asked for,
but he sent a plague along with it.

<sup>16</sup>The people in the camp were jealous of Moses and envious of Aaron, the LORD's holy priest.

<sup>17</sup>Because of this, the earth opened up;
it swallowed Dathan
and buried Abiram and the other rebels.

<sup>18</sup>Fire fell upon their followers;
a flame consumed the wicked.

<sup>19</sup>The people made a calf at Mount Sinai*;
they bowed before an image made of gold.

<sup>20</sup>They traded their glorious God for a statue of a grass-eating bull.

<sup>21</sup>They forgot God, their savior,
who had done such great things in Egypt—

<sup>22</sup>such wonderful things in the land of Ham, such awesome deeds at the Red Sea.

<sup>23</sup>So he declared he would destroy them.

But Moses, his chosen one, stepped between the LORD and the people.

He begged him to turn from his anger and not destroy them.

<sup>24</sup>The people refused to enter the pleasant land, for they wouldn't believe his promise to care for them.

<sup>25</sup>Instead, they grumbled in their tents and refused to obey the LORD.

<sup>26</sup>Therefore, he solemnly swore that he would kill them in the wilderness,

<sup>27</sup>that he would scatter their descendants among the nations, exiling them to distant lands.

<sup>28</sup>Then our ancestors joined in the worship of Baal at Peor;
they even ate sacrifices offered to the dead!

<sup>29</sup>They angered the LORD with all these things, so a plague broke out among them.

<sup>30</sup>But Phinehas had the courage to intervene, and the plague was stopped.

<sup>31</sup>So he has been regarded as a righteous man ever since that time.

<sup>32</sup>At Meribah, too, they angered the LORD, causing Moses serious trouble.

<sup>33</sup>They made Moses angry,*

and he spoke foolishly.

<sup>34</sup>Israel failed to destroy the nations in the land,
as the LORD had commanded them.

<sup>35</sup>Instead, they mingled among the pagans and adopted their evil customs.

<sup>36</sup>They worshiped their idols,
which led to their downfall.

<sup>37</sup>They even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to the demons.

<sup>38</sup>They shed innocent blood,
the blood of their sons and daughters.
By sacrificing them to the idols of Canaan,
they polluted the land with murder.

<sup>39</sup>They defiled themselves by their evil deeds, and their love of idols was adultery in the LORD's sight.

<sup>40</sup>That is why the LORD's anger burned against his people, and he abhorred his own special possession.

<sup>41</sup>He handed them over to pagan nations, and they were ruled by those who hated them.

<sup>42</sup>Their enemies crushed them and brought them under their cruel power.

<sup>43</sup>Again and again he rescued them,
but they chose to rebel against him,
and they were finally destroyed by their sin.

<sup>44</sup>Even so, he pitied them in their distress and listened to their cries.

<sup>45</sup>He remembered his covenant with them and relented because of his unfailing love.

<sup>46</sup>He even caused their captors to treat them with kindness.

<sup>47</sup>Save us, O LORD our God!
Gather us back from among the nations,
so we can thank your holy name
and rejoice and praise you.

<sup>48</sup>Praise the LORD, the God of Israel,
who lives from everlasting to everlasting!
Let all the people say, “Amen!”

Praise the LORD!

BOOK FIVE (Psalms 107–150)

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good!

His faithful love endures forever.

<sup>2</sup>Has the LORD redeemed you? Then speak out!

Tell others he has redeemed you from your enemies.

<sup>3</sup>For he has gathered the exiles from many lands, from east and west,
from north and south.

<sup>4</sup>Some wandered in the wilderness, lost and homeless.

<sup>5</sup>Hungry and thirsty,
they nearly died.

<sup>6</sup>“LORD, help!” they cried in their trouble,
and he rescued them from their distress.

<sup>7</sup>He led them straight to safety, to a city where they could live.

<sup>8</sup>Let them praise the LORD for his great love
and for the wonderful things he has done for them.

<sup>9</sup>For he satisfies the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things.

<sup>10</sup>Some sat in darkness and deepest gloom, imprisoned in iron chains of misery.

<sup>11</sup>They rebelled against the words of God, scorning the counsel of the Most High.

<sup>12</sup>That is why he broke them with hard labor;
they fell, and no one was there to help them.

and he saved them from their distress.

<sup>14</sup>He led them from the darkness and deepest gloom;
he snapped their chains.

<sup>15</sup>Let them praise the LORD for his great love
and for the wonderful things he has done for them.

<sup>16</sup>For he broke down their prison gates of bronze;
he cut apart their bars of iron.

<sup>17</sup>Some were fools; they rebelled and suffered for their sins.

<sup>18</sup>They couldn't stand the thought of food, and they were knocking on death's door.

<sup>19</sup>“LORD, help!” they cried in their trouble,
and he saved them from their distress.

<sup>20</sup>He sent out his word and healed them, snatching them from the door of death.

<sup>21</sup>Let them praise the LORD for his great love
and for the wonderful things he has done for them.

<sup>22</sup>Let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving and sing joyfully about his glorious acts.

23 Some went off to sea in ships, plying the trade routes of the world.

<sup>24</sup>They, too, observed the LORD's power in action, his impressive works on the deepest seas.

<sup>25</sup>He spoke, and the winds rose, stirring up the waves.

<sup>26</sup>Their ships were tossed to the heavens and plunged again to the depths;
the sailors cringed in terror.

<sup>27</sup>They reeled and staggered like drunkards and were at their wits' end.

<sup>28</sup>"LORD, help!" they cried in their trouble,
and he saved them from their distress.

<sup>29</sup>He calmed the storm to a whisper and stilled the waves.

<sup>30</sup>What a blessing was that stillness
as he brought them safely into harbor!

<sup>31</sup>Let them praise the LORD for his great love
and for the wonderful things he has done for them.

<sup>32</sup>Let them exalt him publicly before the congregation and before the leaders of the nation.

<sup>33</sup>He changes rivers into deserts, and springs of water into dry, thirsty land.

<sup>34</sup>He turns the fruitful land into salty wastelands, because of the wickedness of those who live there.

<sup>35</sup>But he also turns deserts into pools of water,
the dry land into springs of water.

<sup>36</sup>He brings the hungry to settle there and to build their cities.

<sup>37</sup>They sow their fields, plant their vineyards, and harvest their bumper crops.

They raise large families there,
and their herds of livestock increase.

<sup>39</sup>When they decrease in number and become impoverished through oppression, trouble, and sorrow,

<sup>40</sup>the LORD pours contempt on their princes, causing them to wander in trackless wastelands.

<sup>41</sup>But he rescues the poor from trouble and increases their families like flocks of sheep.

<sup>42</sup>The godly will see these things and be glad,
while the wicked are struck silent.

<sup>43</sup>Those who are wise will take all this to heart;
they will see in our history the faithful love of the LORD.

Psalm 108

A song. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>My heart is confident in you, O God;
no wonder I can sing your praises with all my heart!

<sup>2</sup>Wake up, lyre and harp!

I will wake the dawn with my song.

<sup>3</sup>I will thank you, LORD, among all the people.

I will sing your praises among the nations.

<sup>4</sup>For your unfailing love is higher than the heavens.

Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

May your glory shine over all the earth.

Answer and save us by your power.

“I will divide up Shechem with joy.

I will measure out the valley of Succoth.

<sup>8</sup>Gilead is mine,

and Manasseh, too.

Ephraim, my helmet, will produce my warriors,

and Judah, my scepter, will produce my kings.

<sup>9</sup>But Moab, my washbasin, will become my servant,

and I will wipe my feet on Edom

and shout in triumph over Philistia.”

<sup>10</sup>Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who will bring me victory over Edom?

<sup>11</sup>Have you rejected us, O God?
Will you no longer march with our armies?

<sup>12</sup>Oh, please help us against our enemies,
for all human help is useless.

<sup>13</sup>With God's help we will do mighty things,
for he will trample down our foes.

Psalm 109

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup>O God, whom I praise,
don't stand silent and aloof <sup>2</sup>while the wicked slander me and tell lies about me.
<sup>3</sup>They surround me with hateful words and fight against me for no reason.
<sup>4</sup>I love them, but they try to destroy me with accusations even as I am praying for them!
<sup>5</sup>They repay evil for good,
and hatred for my love.
- <sup>6</sup>They say,* "Get an evil person to turn against him.
Send an accuser to bring him to trial.
<sup>7</sup>When his case comes up for judgment,
let him be pronounced guilty.
Count his prayers as sins.
<sup>8</sup>Let his years be few;
let someone else take his position.
<sup>9</sup>May his children become fatherless, and his wife a widow.
<sup>10</sup>May his children wander as beggars and be driven from their ruined homes.
<sup>11</sup>May creditors seize his entire estate, and strangers take all he has earned.

<sup>12</sup>Let no one be kind to him;

let no one pity his fatherless children.

May his family name be blotted out in a single generation.

<sup>14</sup>May the LORD never forget the sins of his fathers;

may his mother's sins never be erased from the record.

<sup>15</sup>May the LORD always remember these sins, and may his name disappear from human memory.

<sup>16</sup>For he refused all kindness to others;

he persecuted the poor and needy,

and he hounded the brokenhearted to death.

<sup>17</sup>He loved to curse others;

now you curse him.

He never blessed others;

now don't you bless him.

<sup>18</sup>Cursing is as natural to him as his clothing, or the water he drinks,

or the rich food he eats.

<sup>19</sup>Now may his curses return and cling to him like clothing;

may they be tied around him like a belt."

<sup>20</sup>May those curses become the LORD's punishment for my accusers who speak evil of me.

<sup>21</sup>But deal well with me, O Sovereign LORD, for the sake of your own reputation!

Rescue me

because you are so faithful and good.

<sup>22</sup>For I am poor and needy, and my heart is full of pain.

<sup>23</sup>I am fading like a shadow at dusk;
I am brushed off like a locust.

<sup>24</sup>My knees are weak from fasting,
and I am skin and bones.

<sup>25</sup>I am a joke to people everywhere;
when they see me, they shake their heads in scorn.

<sup>26</sup>Help me, O LORD my God!
Save me because of your unfailing love.

<sup>27</sup>Let them see that this is your doing, that you yourself have done it, LORD.

<sup>28</sup>Then let them curse me if they like,
but you will bless me!

When they attack me, they will be disgraced!
But I, your servant, will go right on rejoicing!

<sup>29</sup>May my accusers be clothed with disgrace;
may their humiliation cover them like a cloak.

<sup>30</sup>But I will give repeated thanks to the LORD, praising him to everyone.

<sup>31</sup>For he stands beside the needy, ready to save them from those who condemn them.

Psalm 110

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said to my Lord,
“Sit in the place of honor at my right hand
until I humble your enemies, making them a footstool under your feet.”

<sup>2</sup>The LORD will extend your powerful kingdom from Jerusalem*;

you will rule over your enemies.

<sup>3</sup>When you go to war,
your people will serve you willingly.
You are arrayed in holy garments, and your strength will be renewed each day like the morning dew.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD has taken an oath and will not break his vow:
“You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.”

He will strike down many kings when his anger erupts.

<sup>6</sup>He will punish the nations and fill their lands with corpses;
he will shatter heads over the whole earth.

<sup>7</sup>But he himself will be refreshed from brooks along the way.
He will be victorious.

Psalm 111 *

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD!

I will thank the LORD with all my heart
as I meet with his godly people.

<sup>2</sup> How amazing are the deeds of the LORD!
All who delight in him should ponder them.

<sup>3</sup> Everything he does reveals his glory and majesty.
His righteousness never fails.

<sup>4</sup> He causes us to remember his wonderful works.
How gracious and merciful is our LORD!

<sup>5</sup> He gives food to those who fear him;
he always remembers his covenant.

<sup>6</sup> He has shown his great power to his people by giving them the lands of other nations.

<sup>7</sup> All he does is just and good,
and all his commandments are trustworthy.

<sup>8</sup> They are forever true,
to be obeyed faithfully and with integrity.

<sup>9</sup> He has paid a full ransom for his people.
He has guaranteed his covenant with them forever.

What a holy, awe-inspiring name he has!

<sup>10</sup> Fear of the LORD is the foundation of true wisdom.
All who obey his commandments will grow in wisdom.

Praise him forever!

Psalm 112 *

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD!

How joyful are those who fear the LORD and delight in obeying his commands.

<sup>2</sup> Their children will be successful everywhere;
an entire generation of godly people will be blessed.

<sup>3</sup> They themselves will be wealthy,
and their good deeds will last forever.

<sup>4</sup> Light shines in the darkness for the godly.
They are generous, compassionate, and righteous.

<sup>5</sup> Good comes to those who lend money generously and conduct their business fairly.

<sup>6</sup> Such people will not be overcome by evil.
Those who are righteous will be long remembered.

<sup>7</sup> They do not fear bad news;
they confidently trust the LORD to care for them.

<sup>8</sup> They are confident and fearless and can face their foes triumphantly.

<sup>9</sup> They share freely and give generously to those in need.
Their good deeds will be remembered forever.

They will have influence and honor.

<sup>10</sup> The wicked will see this and be infuriated.
They will grind their teeth in anger;
they will slink away, their hopes thwarted.

Psalm 113

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!

Yes, give praise, O servants of the LORD.

Praise the name of the LORD!

<sup>2</sup>Blessed be the name of the LORD
now and forever.

<sup>3</sup>Everywhere—from east to west—
praise the name of the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>For the LORD is high above the nations;
his glory is higher than the heavens.

<sup>5</sup>Who can be compared with the LORD our God, who is enthroned on high?

<sup>6</sup>He stoops to look down on heaven and on earth.

<sup>7</sup>He lifts the poor from the dust and the needy from the garbage dump.

<sup>8</sup>He sets them among princes, even the princes of his own people!

<sup>9</sup>He gives the childless woman a family, making her a happy mother.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 114

<sup>1</sup>When the Israelites escaped from Egypt—
when the family of Jacob left that foreign land—

and Israel became his kingdom.

<sup>3</sup>The Red Sea* saw them coming and hurried out of their way!

The water of the Jordan River turned away.

<sup>4</sup>The mountains skipped like rams,
the hills like lambs!

<sup>5</sup>What's wrong, Red Sea, that made you hurry out of their way?

What happened, Jordan River, that you turned away?

<sup>6</sup>Why, mountains, did you skip like rams?

Why, hills, like lambs?

<sup>7</sup>Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord,
at the presence of the God of Jacob.

<sup>8</sup>He turned the rock into a pool of water;
yes, a spring of water flowed from solid rock.

Psalm 115

<sup>1</sup>Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name goes all the glory
for your unfailing love and faithfulness.

<sup>2</sup>Why let the nations say,
“Where is their God?”

<sup>3</sup>Our God is in the heavens, and he does as he wishes.

<sup>4</sup>Their idols are merely things of silver and gold,
shaped by human hands.

<sup>5</sup>They have mouths but cannot speak,
and eyes but cannot see.

<sup>6</sup>They have ears but cannot hear,
and noses but cannot smell.

<sup>7</sup>They have hands but cannot feel,
and feet but cannot walk,
and throats but cannot make a sound.

<sup>8</sup>And those who make idols are just like them,
as are all who trust in them.

<sup>9</sup>O Israel, trust the LORD!
He is your helper and your shield.

<sup>10</sup>O priests, descendants of Aaron, trust the LORD!
He is your helper and your shield.

<sup>11</sup>All you who fear the LORD, trust the LORD!
He is your helper and your shield.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD remembers us and will bless us.
He will bless the people of Israel and bless the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

<sup>13</sup>He will bless those who fear the LORD, both great and lowly.

<sup>14</sup>May the LORD richly bless both you and your children.

<sup>15</sup>May you be blessed by the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.

<sup>16</sup>The heavens belong to the LORD,
but he has given the earth to all humanity.

<sup>17</sup>The dead cannot sing praises to the LORD, for they have gone into the silence of the grave.

<sup>18</sup>But we can praise the LORD
both now and forever!

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 116

<sup>1</sup>I love the LORD because he hears my voice and my prayer for mercy.

<sup>2</sup>Because he bends down to listen,
I will pray as long as I have breath!

<sup>3</sup>Death wrapped its ropes around me;
the terrors of the grave* overtook me.
I saw only trouble and sorrow.

<sup>4</sup>Then I called on the name of the LORD:
“Please, LORD, save me!”

So merciful, this God of ours!

<sup>6</sup>The LORD protects those of childlike faith;
I was facing death, and he saved me.

<sup>7</sup>Let my soul be at rest again,
for the LORD has been good to me.

<sup>8</sup>He has saved me from death,
my eyes from tears,
my feet from stumbling.

<sup>9</sup>And so I walk in the LORD’s presence
as I live here on earth!

<sup>10</sup>I believed in you, so I said,
“I am deeply troubled, LORD.”

<sup>11</sup>In my anxiety I cried out to you,
“These people are all liars!”

<sup>12</sup>What can I offer the LORD for all he has done for me?

<sup>13</sup>I will lift up the cup of salvation and praise the LORD's name for saving me.

<sup>14</sup>I will keep my promises to the LORD
in the presence of all his people.

<sup>15</sup>The LORD cares deeply when his loved ones die.

<sup>16</sup>O LORD, I am your servant;
yes, I am your servant, born into your household;
you have freed me from my chains.

<sup>17</sup>I will offer you a sacrifice of thanksgiving and call on the name of the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>I will fulfill my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all his people—

<sup>19</sup>in the house of the LORD in the heart of Jerusalem.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 117

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD, all you nations.

Praise him, all you people of the earth.

<sup>2</sup>For he loves us with unfailing love;
the LORD's faithfulness endures forever.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 118

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good!
His faithful love endures forever.

<sup>2</sup>Let all Israel repeat:

“His faithful love endures forever.”

<sup>4</sup>Let all who fear the LORD repeat:
“His faithful love endures forever.”

<sup>5</sup>In my distress I prayed to the LORD, and the LORD answered me and set me free.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD is for me, so I will have no fear.
What can mere people do to me?

<sup>7</sup>Yes, the LORD is for me; he will help me.
I will look in triumph at those who hate me.

<sup>8</sup>It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in people.

<sup>9</sup>It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in princes.

<sup>10</sup>Though hostile nations surrounded me,
I destroyed them all with the authority of the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>Yes, they surrounded and attacked me,
but I destroyed them all with the authority of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>They swarmed around me like bees;
they blazed against me like a crackling fire.
But I destroyed them all with the authority of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>My enemies did their best to kill me, but the LORD rescued me.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD is my strength and my song;
he has given me victory.

<sup>15</sup>Songs of joy and victory are sung in the camp of the godly.
The strong right arm of the LORD has done glorious things!

The strong right arm of the LORD has done glorious things!

<sup>17</sup>I will not die; instead, I will live to tell what the LORD has done.

<sup>18</sup>The LORD has punished me severely, but he did not let me die.

<sup>19</sup>Open for me the gates where the righteous enter,
and I will go in and thank the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>These gates lead to the presence of the LORD, and the godly enter there.

<sup>21</sup>I thank you for answering my prayer and giving me victory!

<sup>22</sup> The stone that the builders rejected has now become the cornerstone.

<sup>23</sup>This is the LORD's doing,
and it is wonderful to see.

<sup>24</sup>This is the day the LORD has made.

We will rejoice and be glad in it.

<sup>25</sup>Please, LORD, please save us.

Please, LORD, please give us success.

<sup>26</sup>Bless the one who comes in the name of the LORD.

We bless you from the house of the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>The LORD is God, shining upon us.

Take the sacrifice and bind it with cords on the altar.

<sup>28</sup>You are my God, and I will praise you!

You are my God, and I will exalt you!

<sup>29</sup>Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good!

His faithful love endures forever.

Psalm 119*

Aleph

<sup>1</sup>Joyful are people of integrity, who follow the instructions of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>Joyful are those who obey his laws and search for him with all their hearts.

<sup>3</sup>They do not compromise with evil,
and they walk only in his paths.

<sup>4</sup>You have charged us to keep your commandments carefully.

<sup>5</sup>Oh, that my actions would consistently reflect your decrees!

<sup>6</sup>Then I will not be ashamed
when I compare my life with your commands.

<sup>7</sup>As I learn your righteous regulations,
I will thank you by living as I should!

<sup>8</sup>I will obey your decrees.
Please don't give up on me!

Beth

<sup>9</sup>How can a young person stay pure?
By obeying your word.

<sup>10</sup>I have tried hard to find you—don't let me wander from your commands.

<sup>11</sup>I have hidden your word in my heart,

that I might not sin against you.

<sup>12</sup>I praise you, O LORD;
teach me your decrees.

<sup>13</sup>I have recited aloud
all the regulations you have given us.

<sup>14</sup>I have rejoiced in your laws
as much as in riches.

<sup>15</sup>I will study your commandments and reflect on your ways.

<sup>16</sup>I will delight in your decrees and not forget your word.

Gimel

<sup>17</sup>Be good to your servant, that I may live and obey your word.

<sup>18</sup>Open my eyes to see the wonderful truths in your instructions.

<sup>19</sup>I am only a foreigner in the land.
Don't hide your commands from me!

<sup>20</sup>I am always overwhelmed with a desire for your regulations.

<sup>21</sup>You rebuke the arrogant;
those who wander from your commands are cursed.

<sup>22</sup>Don't let them scorn and insult me, but I will meditate on your decrees.

<sup>24</sup>Your laws please me;
they give me wise advice.

and I will meditate on your wonderful deeds.

<sup>28</sup>I weep with sorrow;
encourage me by your word.

give me the privilege of knowing your instructions.

<sup>30</sup>I have chosen to be faithful;
I have determined to live by your regulations.

<sup>31</sup>I cling to your laws.
LORD, don't let me be put to shame!

for you expand my understanding.

He

<sup>33</sup>Teach me your decrees, O LORD;
I will keep them to the end.

<sup>34</sup>Give me understanding and I will obey your instructions;

I will put them into practice with all my heart.

<sup>35</sup>Make me walk along the path of your commands, for that is where my happiness is found.

<sup>36</sup>Give me an eagerness for your laws rather than a love for money!

<sup>37</sup>Turn my eyes from worthless things, and give me life through your word.*

<sup>38</sup>Reassure me of your promise, made to those who fear you.

<sup>39</sup>Help me abandon my shameful ways;
for your regulations are good.

<sup>40</sup>I long to obey your commandments!
Renew my life with your goodness.

for your regulations are my only hope.

<sup>44</sup>I will keep on obeying your instructions forever and ever.

for I have devoted myself to your commandments.

<sup>46</sup>I will speak to kings about your laws,

How I love them!

<sup>48</sup>I honor and love your commands.

I meditate on your decrees.

it is my only hope.

it comforts me in all my troubles.

but I do not turn away from your instructions.

<sup>52</sup>I meditate on your age-old regulations;
O LORD, they comfort me.

<sup>53</sup>I become furious with the wicked, because they reject your instructions.

<sup>54</sup>Your decrees have been the theme of my songs wherever I have lived.

<sup>55</sup>I reflect at night on who you are, O LORD;
therefore, I obey your instructions.

<sup>56</sup>This is how I spend my life:
obeying your commandments.

Heth

I promise to obey your words!

and I turned to follow your laws.

<sup>60</sup>I will hurry, without delay, to obey your commands.

anyone who obeys your commandments.

teach me your decrees.

but now I closely follow your word.

<sup>68</sup>You are good and do only good;
teach me your decrees.

<sup>69</sup>Arrogant people smear me with lies,
but in truth I obey your commandments with all my heart.

<sup>70</sup>Their hearts are dull and stupid,
but I delight in your instructions.

<sup>71</sup>My suffering was good for me,
for it taught me to pay attention to your decrees.

<sup>72</sup>Your instructions are more valuable to me than millions in gold and silver.

Yodh

<sup>73</sup> You made me; you created me.

Now give me the sense to follow your commands.

<sup>74</sup> May all who fear you find in me a cause for joy, for I have put my hope in your word.

<sup>75</sup> I know, O LORD, that your regulations are fair;
you disciplined me because I needed it.

<sup>76</sup> Now let your unfailing love comfort me, just as you promised me, your servant.

<sup>77</sup> Surround me with your tender mercies so I may live, for your instructions are my delight.

<sup>78</sup> Bring disgrace upon the arrogant people who lied about me;
meanwhile, I will concentrate on your commandments.

<sup>79</sup> Let me be united with all who fear you,
with those who know your laws.

<sup>80</sup> May I be blameless in keeping your decrees;
then I will never be ashamed.

Kaph

<sup>81</sup> I am worn out waiting for your rescue, but I have put my hope in your word.

<sup>82</sup> My eyes are straining to see your promises come true.
When will you comfort me?

<sup>83</sup> I am shriveled like a wineskin in the smoke, but I have not forgotten to obey your decrees.

<sup>84</sup> How long must I wait?

When will you punish those who persecute me?

<sup>85</sup>These arrogant people who hate your instructions have dug deep pits to trap me.

<sup>86</sup>All your commands are trustworthy.

Protect me from those who hunt me down without cause.

<sup>87</sup>They almost finished me off,
but I refused to abandon your commandments.

<sup>88</sup>In your unfailing love, spare my life;
then I can continue to obey your laws.

Lamedh

<sup>89</sup>Your eternal word, O LORD, stands firm in heaven.

<sup>90</sup>Your faithfulness extends to every generation, as enduring as the earth you created.

<sup>91</sup>Your regulations remain true to this day,
for everything serves your plans.

<sup>92</sup>If your instructions hadn't sustained me with joy,
I would have died in my misery.

<sup>93</sup>I will never forget your commandments, for by them you give me life.

<sup>94</sup>I am yours; rescue me!

For I have worked hard at obeying your commandments.

<sup>95</sup>Though the wicked hide along the way to kill me,
I will quietly keep my mind on your laws.

<sup>96</sup>Even perfection has its limits, but your commands have no limit.

Mem

<sup>97</sup>Oh, how I love your instructions!

I think about them all day long.

<sup>98</sup>Your commands make me wiser than my enemies, for they are my constant guide.

<sup>99</sup>Yes, I have more insight than my teachers, for I am always thinking of your laws.

<sup>100</sup>I am even wiser than my elders, for I have kept your commandments.

<sup>101</sup>I have refused to walk on any evil path,
so that I may remain obedient to your word.

<sup>102</sup>I haven't turned away from your regulations, for you have taught me well.

<sup>103</sup>How sweet your words taste to me;
they are sweeter than honey.

<sup>104</sup>Your commandments give me understanding;
no wonder I hate every false way of life.

Nun

<sup>105</sup>Your word is a lamp to guide my feet
and a light for my path.

<sup>106</sup>I've promised it once, and I'll promise it again:
I will obey your righteous regulations.

<sup>107</sup>I have suffered much, O LORD;
restore my life again as you promised.

<sup>108</sup>LORD, accept my offering of praise, and teach me your regulations.

<sup>109</sup>My life constantly hangs in the balance,

but I will not stop obeying your instructions.

<sup>110</sup>The wicked have set their traps for me,
but I will not turn from your commandments.

<sup>111</sup>Your laws are my treasure;
they are my heart's delight.

<sup>112</sup>I am determined to keep your decrees to the very end.

Samekh

but I love your instructions.

<sup>114</sup>You are my refuge and my shield;
your word is my source of hope.

<sup>115</sup>Get out of my life, you evil-minded people, for I intend to obey the commands of my God.

<sup>116</sup>LORD, sustain me as you promised, that I may live!
Do not let my hope be crushed.

<sup>117</sup>Sustain me, and I will be rescued;
then I will meditate continually on your decrees.

<sup>118</sup>But you have rejected all who stray from your decrees.
They are only fooling themselves.

<sup>119</sup>You skim off the wicked of the earth like scum;
no wonder I love to obey your laws!

<sup>120</sup>I tremble in fear of you;
I stand in awe of your regulations.

Ayin

<sup>121</sup>Don't leave me to the mercy of my enemies, for I have done what is just and right.

<sup>122</sup>Please guarantee a blessing for me.

Don't let the arrogant oppress me!

<sup>123</sup>My eyes strain to see your rescue, to see the truth of your promise fulfilled.

<sup>124</sup>I am your servant; deal with me in unfailing love, and teach me your decrees.

<sup>125</sup>Give discernment to me, your servant;
then I will understand your laws.

<sup>126</sup>LORD, it is time for you to act, for these evil people have violated your instructions.

<sup>127</sup>Truly, I love your commands more than gold, even the finest gold.

That is why I hate every false way.

Pe

<sup>129</sup>Your laws are wonderful.

No wonder I obey them!

<sup>130</sup>The teaching of your word gives light,
so even the simple can understand.

<sup>131</sup>I pant with expectation, longing for your commands.

<sup>132</sup>Come and show me your mercy,
as you do for all who love your name.

<sup>133</sup>Guide my steps by your word, so I will not be overcome by evil.

<sup>134</sup>Ransom me from the oppression of evil people;

then I can obey your commandments.

<sup>135</sup>Look upon me with love;

teach me your decrees.

<sup>136</sup>Rivers of tears gush from my eyes because people disobey your instructions.

Tsadhe

<sup>137</sup>O LORD, you are righteous, and your regulations are fair.

<sup>138</sup>Your laws are perfect and completely trustworthy.

<sup>139</sup>I am overwhelmed with indignation, for my enemies have disregarded your words.

<sup>140</sup>Your promises have been thoroughly tested;

that is why I love them so much.

<sup>141</sup>I am insignificant and despised,

but I don't forget your commandments.

<sup>142</sup>Your justice is eternal,

and your instructions are perfectly true.

<sup>143</sup>As pressure and stress bear down on me,

I find joy in your commands.

<sup>144</sup>Your laws are always right;

help me to understand them so I may live.

Qoph

<sup>145</sup>I pray with all my heart; answer me, LORD!

I will obey your decrees.

<sup>146</sup>I cry out to you; rescue me, that I may obey your laws.

<sup>147</sup>I rise early, before the sun is up;
I cry out for help and put my hope in your words.

<sup>148</sup>I stay awake through the night, thinking about your promise.

<sup>149</sup>In your faithful love, O LORD, hear my cry;
let me be revived by following your regulations.

<sup>150</sup>Lawless people are coming to attack me;
they live far from your instructions.

<sup>151</sup>But you are near, O LORD, and all your commands are true.

<sup>152</sup>I have known from my earliest days that your laws will last forever.

Resh

153 Look upon my suffering and rescue me, for I have not forgotten your instructions.

<sup>154</sup>Argue my case; take my side!
Protect my life as you promised.

<sup>155</sup>The wicked are far from rescue,
for they do not bother with your decrees.

<sup>156</sup>LORD, how great is your mercy;
let me be revived by following your regulations.

<sup>157</sup>Many persecute and trouble me,
yet I have not swerved from your laws.

<sup>158</sup>Seeing these traitors makes me sick at heart, because they care nothing for your word.

<sup>159</sup>See how I love your commandments, LORD.

Give back my life because of your unfailing love.

<sup>160</sup>The very essence of your words is truth;
all your just regulations will stand forever.

Shin

<sup>161</sup>Powerful people harass me without cause, but my heart trembles only at your word.

<sup>162</sup>I rejoice in your word like one who discovers a great treasure.

<sup>163</sup>I hate and abhor all falsehood,
but I love your instructions.

<sup>164</sup>I will praise you seven times a day because all your regulations are just.

<sup>165</sup>Those who love your instructions have great peace and do not stumble.

<sup>166</sup>I long for your rescue, LORD,
so I have obeyed your commands.

<sup>167</sup>I have obeyed your laws,
for I love them very much.

<sup>168</sup>Yes, I obey your commandments and laws because you know everything I do.

Taw

<sup>169</sup>O LORD, listen to my cry; give me the discerning mind you promised.

<sup>170</sup>Listen to my prayer;
rescue me as you promised.

<sup>171</sup>Let praise flow from my lips,

for you have taught me your decrees.

<sup>172</sup>Let my tongue sing about your word,
for all your commands are right.

<sup>173</sup>Give me a helping hand,
for I have chosen to follow your commandments.

<sup>174</sup>O LORD, I have longed for your rescue, and your instructions are my delight.

<sup>175</sup>Let me live so I can praise you,
and may your regulations help me.

<sup>176</sup>I have wandered away like a lost sheep;
come and find me,
for I have not forgotten your commands.

Psalm 120

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

- <sup>1</sup>I took my troubles to the LORD;
I cried out to him, and he answered my prayer.
<sup>2</sup>Rescue me, O LORD, from liars and from all deceitful people.
<sup>3</sup>O deceptive tongue, what will God do to you?
How will he increase your punishment?
<sup>4</sup>You will be pierced with sharp arrows and burned with glowing coals.
- <sup>5</sup>How I suffer in far-off Meshech.
It pains me to live in distant Kedar.
<sup>6</sup>I am tired of living among people who hate peace.
<sup>7</sup>I search for peace;
but when I speak of peace, they want war!

Psalm 121

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

<sup>1</sup>I look up to the mountains—does my help come from there?

<sup>2</sup>My help comes from the LORD,
who made heaven and earth!

<sup>3</sup>He will not let you stumble;
the one who watches over you will not slumber.

<sup>4</sup>Indeed, he who watches over Israel never slumbers or sleeps.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD himself watches over you!
The LORD stands beside you as your protective shade.

<sup>6</sup>The sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon at night.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD keeps you from all harm and watches over your life.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD keeps watch over you as you come and go,
both now and forever.

Psalm 122

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I was glad when they said to me,
“Let us go to the house of the LORD.”

<sup>2</sup>And now here we are, standing inside your gates, O Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>Jerusalem is a well-built city;
its seamless walls cannot be breached.

<sup>4</sup>All the tribes of Israel—the LORD’s people—make their pilgrimage here.

They come to give thanks to the name of the LORD,
as the law requires of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Here stand the thrones where judgment is given,
the thrones of the dynasty of David.

<sup>6</sup>Pray for peace in Jerusalem.
May all who love this city prosper.

<sup>7</sup>O Jerusalem, may there be peace within your walls and prosperity in your palaces.

<sup>8</sup>For the sake of my family and friends, I will say,
“May you have peace.”

<sup>9</sup>For the sake of the house of the LORD our God,
I will seek what is best for you, O Jerusalem.

Psalm 123

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

<sup>1</sup>I lift my eyes to you,
O God, enthroned in heaven.

<sup>2</sup>We keep looking to the LORD our God for his mercy, just as servants keep their eyes on their master,
as a slave girl watches her mistress for the slightest signal.

<sup>3</sup>Have mercy on us, LORD, have mercy, for we have had our fill of contempt.

<sup>4</sup>We have had more than our fill of the scoffing of the proud and the contempt of the arrogant.

Psalm 124

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>What if the LORD had not been on our side?

Let all Israel repeat:

<sup>2</sup>What if the LORD had not been on our side
when people attacked us?

<sup>3</sup>They would have swallowed us alive in their burning anger.

<sup>4</sup>The waters would have engulfed us;
a torrent would have overwhelmed us.

<sup>5</sup>Yes, the raging waters of their fury would have overwhelmed our very lives.

<sup>6</sup>Praise the LORD,
who did not let their teeth tear us apart!

<sup>7</sup>We escaped like a bird from a hunter's trap.
The trap is broken, and we are free!

<sup>8</sup>Our help is from the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

<sup>1</sup>Those who trust in the LORD are as secure as Mount Zion;
they will not be defeated but will endure forever.

so the LORD surrounds his people, both now and forever.

<sup>3</sup>The wicked will not rule the land of the godly,
for then the godly might be tempted to do wrong.

<sup>4</sup>O LORD, do good to those who are good, whose hearts are in tune with you.

<sup>5</sup>But banish those who turn to crooked ways, O LORD.
Take them away with those who do evil.

May Israel have peace!

Psalm 126

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

<sup>1</sup>When the LORD brought back his exiles to Jerusalem, it was like a dream!

<sup>2</sup>We were filled with laughter,
and we sang for joy.

And the other nations said,

“What amazing things the LORD has done for them.”

<sup>3</sup>Yes, the LORD has done amazing things for us!
What joy!

<sup>4</sup>Restore our fortunes, LORD,
as streams renew the desert.

<sup>5</sup>Those who plant in tears will harvest with shouts of joy.

<sup>6</sup>They weep as they go to plant their seed,
but they sing as they return with the harvest.

Psalm 127

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem. A psalm of Solomon.

<sup>1</sup>Unless the LORD builds a house,
the work of the builders is wasted.
Unless the LORD protects a city,
guarding it with sentries will do no good.

<sup>2</sup>It is useless for you to work so hard from early morning until late at night, anxiously working for food to eat;
for God gives rest to his loved ones.

<sup>3</sup>Children are a gift from the LORD;
they are a reward from him.

<sup>4</sup>Children born to a young man are like arrows in a warrior's hands.

He will not be put to shame when he confronts his accusers at the city gates.

Houses and Children

Psalm 128

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

<sup>1</sup>How joyful are those who fear the LORD—
all who follow his ways!

<sup>2</sup>You will enjoy the fruit of your labor.
How joyful and prosperous you will be!

<sup>3</sup>Your wife will be like a fruitful grapevine, flourishing within your home.
Your children will be like vigorous young olive trees
as they sit around your table.

<sup>4</sup>That is the LORD's blessing for those who fear him.

<sup>5</sup>May the LORD continually bless you from Zion.
May you see Jerusalem prosper as long as you live.

<sup>6</sup>May you live to enjoy your grandchildren.
May Israel have peace!

Psalm 129

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

<sup>1</sup>From my earliest youth my enemies have persecuted me.

Let all Israel repeat this:

<sup>2</sup>From my earliest youth my enemies have persecuted me,
but they have never defeated me.

<sup>3</sup>My back is covered with cuts,
as if a farmer had plowed long furrows.

<sup>4</sup>But the LORD is good;
he has cut me free from the ropes of the ungodly.

<sup>5</sup>May all who hate Jerusalem* be turned back in shameful defeat.

<sup>6</sup>May they be as useless as grass on a rooftop, turning yellow when only half grown,

<sup>7</sup>ignored by the harvester, despised by the binder.

<sup>8</sup>And may those who pass by refuse to give them this blessing:

“The LORD bless you;
we bless you in the LORD’s name.”

Psalm 130

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

<sup>1</sup>From the depths of despair, O LORD,
I call for your help.

<sup>2</sup>Hear my cry, O Lord.
Pay attention to my prayer.

<sup>3</sup>LORD, if you kept a record of our sins, who, O Lord, could ever survive?

<sup>4</sup>But you offer forgiveness, that we might learn to fear you.

<sup>5</sup>I am counting on the LORD;
yes, I am counting on him.
I have put my hope in his word.

<sup>6</sup>I long for the Lord more than sentries long for the dawn,
yes, more than sentries long for the dawn.

<sup>7</sup>O Israel, hope in the LORD;
for with the LORD there is unfailing love.
His redemption overflows.

<sup>8</sup>He himself will redeem Israel from every kind of sin.

Psalm 131

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, my heart is not proud;
my eyes are not haughty.
I don't concern myself with matters too great or too awesome for me to grasp.

<sup>2</sup>Instead, I have calmed and quieted myself,
like a weaned child who no longer cries for its mother's milk.
Yes, like a weaned child is my soul within me.

<sup>3</sup>O Israel, put your hope in the LORD—now and always.

Psalm 132

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, remember David and all that he suffered.

<sup>2</sup>He made a solemn promise to the LORD.
He vowed to the Mighty One of Israel.*

<sup>3</sup>“I will not go home;
I will not let myself rest.

<sup>4</sup>I will not let my eyes sleep nor close my eyelids in slumber

<sup>5</sup>until I find a place to build a house for the LORD, a sanctuary for the Mighty One of Israel.”

<sup>6</sup>We heard that the Ark was in Ephrathah;
then we found it in the distant countryside of Jaar.

<sup>7</sup>Let us go to the sanctuary of the LORD;
let us worship at the footstool of his throne.

<sup>8</sup>Arise, O LORD, and enter your resting place, along with the Ark, the symbol of your power.

<sup>9</sup>May your priests be clothed in godliness;
may your loyal servants sing for joy.

<sup>10</sup>For the sake of your servant David,
do not reject the king you have anointed.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD swore an oath to David with a promise he will never take back:

“I will place one of your descendants on your throne.

<sup>12</sup>If your descendants obey the terms of my covenant and the laws that I teach them, then your royal line
will continue forever and ever.”

<sup>13</sup>For the LORD has chosen Jerusalem*;
he has desired it for his home.

<sup>14</sup>“This is my resting place forever,” he said.

“I will live here, for this is the home I desired.

<sup>15</sup>I will bless this city and make it prosperous;
I will satisfy its poor with food.

<sup>16</sup>I will clothe its priests with godliness;
its faithful servants will sing for joy.

<sup>17</sup>Here I will increase the power of David;
my anointed one will be a light for my people.

<sup>18</sup>I will clothe his enemies with shame, but he will be a glorious king.”

Psalm 133

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>How wonderful and pleasant it is when brothers live together in harmony!

<sup>2</sup>For harmony is as precious as the anointing oil that was poured over Aaron's head, that ran down his beard
and onto the border of his robe.

<sup>3</sup>Harmony is as refreshing as the dew from Mount Hermon that falls on the mountains of Zion.
And there the LORD has pronounced his blessing, even life everlasting.

Psalm 134

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

<sup>1</sup>Oh, praise the LORD, all you servants of the LORD, you who serve at night in the house of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>Lift up holy hands in prayer, and praise the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>May the LORD, who made heaven and earth, bless you from Jerusalem.*

Psalm 135

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!

Praise the name of the LORD!

Praise him, you who serve the LORD,

<sup>2</sup>you who serve in the house of the LORD,
in the courts of the house of our God.

<sup>3</sup>Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good;
celebrate his lovely name with music.

<sup>4</sup>For the LORD has chosen Jacob for himself,
Israel for his own special treasure.

<sup>5</sup>I know the greatness of the LORD—
that our Lord is greater than any other god.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD does whatever pleases him throughout all heaven and earth, and on the seas and in their depths.

<sup>7</sup>He causes the clouds to rise over the whole earth.
He sends the lightning with the rain
and releases the wind from his storehouses.

<sup>8</sup>He destroyed the firstborn in each Egyptian home, both people and animals.

<sup>9</sup>He performed miraculous signs and wonders in Egypt against Pharaoh and all his people.

<sup>10</sup>He struck down great nations and slaughtered mighty kings—

<sup>11</sup>Sihon king of the Amorites, Og king of Bashan,
and all the kings of Canaan.

<sup>12</sup>He gave their land as an inheritance, a special possession to his people Israel.

<sup>13</sup>Your name, O LORD, endures forever;
your fame, O LORD, is known to every generation.

<sup>14</sup>For the LORD will give justice to his people and have compassion on his servants.

<sup>15</sup>The idols of the nations are merely things of silver and gold,
shaped by human hands.

<sup>16</sup>They have mouths but cannot speak,
and eyes but cannot see.

<sup>17</sup>They have ears but cannot hear,
and noses but cannot smell.

<sup>18</sup>And those who make idols are just like them,
as are all who trust in them.

<sup>19</sup>O Israel, praise the LORD!
O priests—descendants of Aaron—praise the LORD!

<sup>20</sup>O Levites, praise the LORD!
All you who fear the LORD, praise the LORD!

<sup>21</sup>The LORD be praised from Zion,

for he lives here in Jerusalem.

Praise the LORD!

PERSPECTIVES

His faithful love endures forever.

PSALM 136

All of God's greats have been weak men who did great exploits for God because they reckoned on His being faithful.

Psalm 137

<sup>1</sup>Beside the rivers of Babylon, we sat and wept as we thought of Jerusalem.*

<sup>2</sup>We put away our harps, hanging them on the branches of poplar trees.

<sup>3</sup>For our captors demanded a song from us.
Our tormentors insisted on a joyful hymn:
“Sing us one of those songs of Jerusalem!”

<sup>4</sup>But how can we sing the songs of the LORD while in a pagan land?

<sup>5</sup>If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget how to play the harp.

<sup>6</sup>May my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth
if I fail to remember you,
if I don’t make Jerusalem my greatest joy.

<sup>7</sup>O LORD, remember what the Edomites did on the day the armies of Babylon captured Jerusalem.
“Destroy it!” they yelled.

“Level it to the ground!”

<sup>8</sup>O Babylon, you will be destroyed.

Happy is the one who pays you back for what you have done to us.

<sup>9</sup>Happy is the one who takes your babies and smashes them against the rocks!

Psalm 138

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I give you thanks, O LORD, with all my heart;
I will sing your praises before the gods.

<sup>2</sup>I bow before your holy Temple as I worship.
I praise your name for your unfailing love and faithfulness;
for your promises are backed by all the honor of your name.

<sup>3</sup>As soon as I pray, you answer me;
you encourage me by giving me strength.

<sup>4</sup>Every king in all the earth will thank you, LORD, for all of them will hear your words.

<sup>5</sup>Yes, they will sing about the LORD's ways, for the glory of the LORD is very great.

<sup>6</sup>Though the LORD is great, he cares for the humble, but he keeps his distance from the proud.

<sup>7</sup>Though I am surrounded by troubles,
you will protect me from the anger of my enemies.
You reach out your hand,
and the power of your right hand saves me.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD will work out his plans for my life—for your faithful love, O LORD, endures forever.
Don't abandon me, for you made me.

Psalm 139

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, you have examined my heart and know everything about me.

<sup>2</sup>You know when I sit down or stand up.
You know my thoughts even when I'm far away.

<sup>3</sup>You see me when I travel and when I rest at home.
You know everything I do.

<sup>4</sup>You know what I am going to say even before I say it, LORD.

<sup>5</sup>You go before me and follow me.
You place your hand of blessing on my head.

<sup>6</sup>Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too great for me to understand!

<sup>7</sup>I can never escape from your Spirit!
I can never get away from your presence!

<sup>8</sup>If I go up to heaven, you are there;
if I go down to the grave,* you are there.

<sup>9</sup>If I ride the wings of the morning,
if I dwell by the farthest oceans, <sup>10</sup>even there your hand will guide me,
and your strength will support me.

<sup>11</sup>I could ask the darkness to hide me and the light around me to become night—

<sup>12</sup>but even in darkness I cannot hide from you.
To you the night shines as bright as day.
Darkness and light are the same to you.

<sup>13</sup>You made all the delicate, inner parts of my body and knit me together in my mother's womb.

<sup>14</sup>Thank you for making me so wonderfully complex!
Your workmanship is marvelous—how well I know it.

<sup>15</sup>You watched me as I was being formed in utter seclusion, as I was woven together in the dark of the womb.

<sup>16</sup>You saw me before I was born.
Every day of my life was recorded in your book.
Every moment was laid out before a single day had passed.

<sup>17</sup>How precious are your thoughts about me,* O God.
They cannot be numbered!

<sup>18</sup>I can't even count them;
they outnumber the grains of sand!
And when I wake up,
you are still with me!

<sup>19</sup>O God, if only you would destroy the wicked!
Get out of my life, you murderers!

<sup>20</sup>They blaspheme you;
your enemies misuse your name.

<sup>21</sup>O LORD, shouldn't I hate those who hate you?

Shouldn't I despise those who oppose you?

<sup>22</sup>Yes, I hate them with total hatred, for your enemies are my enemies.

<sup>23</sup>Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts.

<sup>24</sup>Point out anything in me that offends you,
and lead me along the path of everlasting life.

Psalm 140

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, rescue me from evil people.
Protect me from those who are violent,
<sup>2</sup>those who plot evil in their hearts and stir up trouble all day long.
<sup>3</sup>Their tongues sting like a snake;
the venom of a viper drips from their lips.

Interlude

<sup>4</sup>O LORD, keep me out of the hands of the wicked.
Protect me from those who are violent,
for they are plotting against me.
<sup>5</sup>The proud have set a trap to catch me;
they have stretched out a net;
they have placed traps all along the way.

Interlude

<sup>6</sup>I said to the LORD, “You are my God!”
Listen, O LORD, to my cries for mercy!
<sup>7</sup>O Sovereign LORD, the strong one who rescued me, you protected me on the day of battle.
<sup>8</sup>LORD, do not let evil people have their way.
Do not let their evil schemes succeed,
or they will become proud.

Interlude

<sup>9</sup>Let my enemies be destroyed by the very evil they have planned for me.

<sup>10</sup>Let burning coals fall down on their heads.
Let them be thrown into the fire or into watery pits from which they can't escape.

<sup>11</sup>Don't let liars prosper here in our land.
Cause great disasters to fall on the violent.

<sup>12</sup>But I know the LORD will help those they persecute;
he will give justice to the poor.

<sup>13</sup>Surely righteous people are praising your name;
the godly will live in your presence.

Psalm 141

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, I am calling to you. Please hurry!

Listen when I cry to you for help!

<sup>2</sup>Accept my prayer as incense offered to you,
and my upraised hands as an evening offering.

<sup>3</sup>Take control of what I say, O LORD, and guard my lips.

<sup>4</sup>Don't let me drift toward evil or take part in acts of wickedness.
Don't let me share in the delicacies of those who do wrong.

<sup>5</sup>Let the godly strike me!
It will be a kindness!
If they correct me, it is soothing medicine.
Don't let me refuse it.

But I pray constantly against the wicked and their deeds.

<sup>6</sup>When their leaders are thrown down from a cliff,
the wicked will listen to my words and find them true.

<sup>7</sup>Like rocks brought up by a plow,
the bones of the wicked will lie scattered without burial.*

<sup>8</sup>I look to you for help, O Sovereign LORD.

You are my refuge; don't let them kill me.

<sup>9</sup>Keep me from the traps they have set for me,
from the snares of those who do wrong.

<sup>10</sup>Let the wicked fall into their own nets, but let me escape.

Psalm 142

*A psalm* of David, regarding his experience in the cave. A prayer.*

<sup>1</sup>I cry out to the LORD;
I plead for the LORD's mercy.
<sup>2</sup>I pour out my complaints before him and tell him all my troubles.
<sup>3</sup>When I am overwhelmed, you alone know the way I should turn.
Wherever I go,
my enemies have set traps for me.
<sup>4</sup>I look for someone to come and help me, but no one gives me a passing thought!
No one will help me;
no one cares a bit what happens to me.
<sup>5</sup>Then I pray to you, O LORD.
I say, "You are my place of refuge.
You are all I really want in life.
<sup>6</sup>Hear my cry,
for I am very low.
Rescue me from my persecutors,
for they are too strong for me.
<sup>7</sup>Bring me out of prison
so I can thank you.
The godly will crowd around me,
for you are good to me."

Psalm 143

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my prayer, O LORD;

listen to my plea!

Answer me because you are faithful and righteous.

<sup>2</sup>Don't put your servant on trial,
for no one is innocent before you.

<sup>3</sup>My enemy has chased me.

He has knocked me to the ground and forces me to live in darkness like those in the grave.

<sup>4</sup>I am losing all hope;
I am paralyzed with fear.

<sup>5</sup>I remember the days of old.

I ponder all your great works and think about what you have done.

<sup>6</sup>I lift my hands to you in prayer.

I thirst for you as parched land thirsts for rain.

Interlude

<sup>7</sup>Come quickly, LORD, and answer me, for my depression deepens.

Don't turn away from me,
or I will die.

<sup>8</sup>Let me hear of your unfailing love each morning, for I am trusting you.

Show me where to walk,

for I give myself to you.

<sup>9</sup>Rescue me from my enemies, LORD;

I run to you to hide me.

<sup>10</sup>Teach me to do your will,

for you are my God.

May your gracious Spirit lead me forward on a firm footing.

<sup>11</sup>For the glory of your name, O LORD, preserve my life.

Because of your faithfulness, bring me out of this distress.

<sup>12</sup>In your unfailing love, silence all my enemies and destroy all my foes,

for I am your servant.

Psalm 144

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD, who is my rock.

He trains my hands for war and gives my fingers skill for battle.

<sup>2</sup>He is my loving ally and my fortress,
my tower of safety, my rescuer.

He is my shield, and I take refuge in him.
He makes the nations *submit to me.

<sup>3</sup> O LORD, what are human beings that you should notice
them,

mere mortals that you should think about them?

<sup>4</sup>For they are like a breath of air;
their days are like a passing shadow.

<sup>5</sup>Open the heavens, LORD, and come down.
Touch the mountains so they billow smoke.

<sup>6</sup>Hurl your lightning bolts and scatter your enemies!
Shoot your arrows and confuse them!

<sup>7</sup>Reach down from heaven and rescue me;
rescue me from deep waters,
from the power of my enemies.

<sup>8</sup>Their mouths are full of lies;
they swear to tell the truth, but they lie instead.

<sup>9</sup>I will sing a new song to you, O God!
I will sing your praises with a ten-stringed harp.

<sup>10</sup>For you grant victory to kings!
You rescued your servant David from the fatal sword.

Rescue me from the power of my enemies.
Their mouths are full of lies;
they swear to tell the truth, but they lie instead.

<sup>12</sup>May our sons flourish in their youth like well-nurtured plants.
May our daughters be like graceful pillars, carved to beautify a palace.

<sup>13</sup>May our barns be filled with crops of every kind.
May the flocks in our fields multiply by the thousands,
even tens of thousands,

<sup>14</sup>and may our oxen be loaded down with produce.
May there be no enemy breaking through our walls,
no going into captivity,
no cries of alarm in our town squares.

<sup>15</sup>Yes, joyful are those who live like this!
Joyful indeed are those whose God is the LORD.

Psalm 145 *

A psalm of praise of David.

<sup>1</sup> I will exalt you, my God and King, and praise your name forever and ever.

<sup>2</sup> I will praise you every day;
yes, I will praise you forever.

<sup>3</sup> Great is the LORD! He is most worthy of praise!
No one can measure his greatness.

<sup>4</sup> Let each generation tell its children of your mighty acts;
let them proclaim your power.

<sup>5</sup> I will meditate* on your majestic, glorious splendor and your wonderful miracles.

<sup>6</sup> Your awe-inspiring deeds will be on every tongue;
I will proclaim your greatness.

<sup>7</sup> Everyone will share the story of your wonderful goodness;
they will sing with joy about your righteousness.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD is merciful and compassionate,
slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD is good to everyone.
He showers compassion on all his creation.

<sup>10</sup> All of your works will thank you, LORD, and your faithful followers will praise you.

<sup>11</sup> They will speak of the glory of your kingdom;

they will give examples of your power.

<sup>12</sup>They will tell about your mighty deeds and about the majesty and glory of your reign.

<sup>13</sup>For your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom.
You rule throughout all generations.

The LORD always keeps his promises;
he is gracious in all he does.*

<sup>14</sup>The LORD helps the fallen and lifts those bent beneath their loads.

<sup>15</sup>The eyes of all look to you in hope;
you give them their food as they need it.

<sup>16</sup>When you open your hand,
you satisfy the hunger and thirst of every living thing.

<sup>17</sup>The LORD is righteous in everything he does;
he is filled with kindness.

<sup>18</sup>The LORD is close to all who call on him,
yes, to all who call on him in truth.

<sup>19</sup>He grants the desires of those who fear him;
he hears their cries for help and rescues them.

<sup>20</sup>The LORD protects all those who love him, but he destroys the wicked.

<sup>21</sup>I will praise the LORD, and may everyone on earth bless his holy name
forever and ever.

Psalm 146

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!

Let all that I am praise the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>I will praise the LORD as long as I live.

I will sing praises to my God with my dying breath.

<sup>3</sup>Don't put your confidence in powerful people;
there is no help for you there.

<sup>4</sup>When they breathe their last, they return to the earth, and all their plans die with them.

<sup>5</sup> But joyful are those who have the God of Israel* as their helper,

whose hope is in the LORD their God.

<sup>6</sup>He made heaven and earth,
the sea, and everything in them.
He keeps every promise forever.

<sup>7</sup>He gives justice to the oppressed and food to the hungry.

The LORD frees the prisoners.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD opens the eyes of the blind.

The LORD lifts up those who are weighed down.

The LORD loves the godly.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD protects the foreigners among us.

He cares for the orphans and widows,
but he frustrates the plans of the wicked.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD will reign forever.

He will be your God, O Jerusalem,* throughout the generations.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 147

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!

How good to sing praises to our God!

How delightful and how fitting!

<sup>2</sup>The LORD is rebuilding Jerusalem and bringing the exiles back to Israel.

<sup>3</sup>He heals the brokenhearted and bandages their wounds.

<sup>4</sup>He counts the stars and calls them all by name.

<sup>5</sup>How great is our Lord! His power is absolute!
His understanding is beyond comprehension!

<sup>6</sup>The LORD supports the humble,
but he brings the wicked down into the dust.

<sup>7</sup>Sing out your thanks to the LORD;
sing praises to our God with a harp.

<sup>8</sup>He covers the heavens with clouds, provides rain for the earth,
and makes the grass grow in mountain pastures.

<sup>9</sup>He gives food to the wild animals and feeds the young ravens when they cry.

<sup>10</sup>He takes no pleasure in the strength of a horse or in human might.

<sup>11</sup>No, the LORD's delight is in those who fear him,

those who put their hope in his unfailing love.

<sup>12</sup> Glorify the LORD, O Jerusalem!

Praise your God, O Zion!

<sup>13</sup>For he has strengthened the bars of your gates and blessed your children within your walls.

<sup>14</sup>He sends peace across your nation and satisfies your hunger with the finest wheat.

<sup>15</sup>He sends his orders to the world—
how swiftly his word flies!

<sup>16</sup>He sends the snow like white wool;
he scatters frost upon the ground like ashes.

<sup>17</sup>He hurls the hail like stones.\*

Who can stand against his freezing cold?

<sup>18</sup>Then, at his command, it all melts.

He sends his winds, and the ice thaws.

<sup>19</sup>He has revealed his words to Jacob, his decrees and regulations to Israel.

<sup>20</sup>He has not done this for any other nation;
they do not know his regulations.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 148

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!

Praise the LORD from the heavens!

Praise him from the skies!

<sup>2</sup>Praise him, all his angels!

Praise him, all the armies of heaven!

Praise him, all you twinkling stars!

<sup>4</sup>Praise him, skies above!

Praise him, vapors high above the clouds!

<sup>5</sup>Let every created thing give praise to the LORD, for he issued his command, and they came into being.

<sup>6</sup>He set them in place forever and ever.

His decree will never be revoked.

<sup>7</sup>Praise the LORD from the earth,
you creatures of the ocean depths,

<sup>8</sup>fire and hail, snow and clouds,* wind and weather that obey him,

<sup>9</sup>mountains and all hills,
fruit trees and all cedars,

<sup>10</sup>wild animals and all livestock, small scurrying animals and birds,

<sup>11</sup>kings of the earth and all people, rulers and judges of the earth,

<sup>12</sup>young men and young women, old men and children.

<sup>13</sup>Let them all praise the name of the LORD.
For his name is very great;
his glory towers over the earth and heaven!

<sup>14</sup>He has made his people strong, honoring his faithful ones—
the people of Israel who are close to him.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 149

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!

Sing to the LORD a new song.

Sing his praises in the assembly of the faithful.

O people of Jerusalem,* exult in your King.

<sup>3</sup>Praise his name with dancing, accompanied by tambourine and harp.

<sup>4</sup>For the LORD delights in his people;
he crowns the humble with victory.

<sup>5</sup>Let the faithful rejoice that he honors them.
Let them sing for joy as they lie on their beds.

<sup>6</sup>Let the praises of God be in their mouths,
and a sharp sword in their hands—

<sup>7</sup>to execute vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples,

<sup>8</sup>to bind their kings with shackles and their leaders with iron chains,

<sup>9</sup>to execute the judgment written against them.
This is the glorious privilege of his faithful ones.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 150

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!

Praise God in his sanctuary;
praise him in his mighty heaven!

<sup>2</sup>Praise him for his mighty works;

praise him with the lyre and harp!

<sup>4</sup>Praise him with the tambourine and dancing;
praise him with strings and flutes!

<sup>5</sup>Praise him with a clash of cymbals;
praise him with loud clanging cymbals.

<sup>6</sup>Let everything that breathes sing praises to the LORD!

Praise the LORD!

but fools despise wisdom and discipline.

A Father's Exhortation: Acquire Wisdom

<sup>8</sup>My child, * listen when your father corrects you.
Don't neglect your mother's instruction.

<sup>9</sup>What you learn from them will crown you with grace and be a chain of honor around your neck.

<sup>10</sup>My child, if sinners entice you, turn your back on them!

<sup>11</sup>They may say, "Come and join us.
Let's hide and kill someone!
Just for fun, let's ambush the innocent!"

<sup>12</sup>Let's swallow them alive, like the grave *;
let's swallow them whole, like those who go down to the pit of death.

<sup>13</sup>Think of the great things we'll get!
We'll fill our houses with all the stuff we take.

<sup>14</sup>Come, throw in your lot with us;
we'll all share the loot."

<sup>15</sup>My child, don't go along with them!
Stay far away from their paths.

<sup>16</sup>They rush to commit evil deeds.
They hurry to commit murder.

<sup>17</sup>If a bird sees a trap being set,

it knows to stay away.

<sup>18</sup>But these people set an ambush for themselves;
they are trying to get themselves killed.

<sup>19</sup>Such is the fate of all who are greedy for money;
it robs them of life.

Wisdom Shouts in the Streets

<sup>20</sup>Wisdom shouts in the streets.

She cries out in the public square.

<sup>21</sup>She calls to the crowds along the main street, to those gathered in front of the city gate:

<sup>22</sup>“How long, you simpletons, will you insist on being simpleminded?
How long will you mockers relish your mocking?
How long will you fools hate knowledge?

<sup>23</sup>Come and listen to my counsel.

I'll share my heart with you and make you wise.

<sup>24</sup>“I called you so often, but you wouldn't come.
I reached out to you, but you paid no attention.

<sup>25</sup>You ignored my advice and rejected the correction I offered.

<sup>26</sup>So I will laugh when you are in trouble!
I will mock you when disaster overtakes you—

<sup>27</sup>when calamity overtakes you like a storm, when disaster engulfs you like a cyclone,
and anguish and distress overwhelm you.

<sup>28</sup>“When they cry for help, I will not answer.

Though they anxiously search for me, they will not find me.

<sup>29</sup>For they hated knowledge and chose not to fear the LORD.

<sup>30</sup>They rejected my advice and paid no attention when I corrected them.

<sup>31</sup>Therefore, they must eat the bitter fruit of living their own way, choking on their own schemes.

<sup>32</sup>For simpletons turn away from me—to death.

Fools are destroyed by their own complacency.

<sup>33</sup>But all who listen to me will live in peace, untroubled by fear of harm.”

Proverbs 2

The Benefits of Wisdom

<sup>1</sup>My child,* listen to what I say, and treasure my commands.

<sup>2</sup>Tune your ears to wisdom,
and concentrate on understanding.

<sup>3</sup>Cry out for insight, and ask for understanding.

<sup>4</sup>Search for them as you would for silver;
seek them like hidden treasures.

<sup>5</sup>Then you will understand what it means to fear the LORD, and you will gain knowledge of God.

<sup>6</sup>For the LORD grants wisdom!
From his mouth come knowledge and understanding.

<sup>7</sup>He grants a treasure of common sense to the honest.
He is a shield to those who walk with integrity.

<sup>8</sup>He guards the paths of the just and protects those who are faithful to him.

<sup>9</sup>Then you will understand what is right, just, and fair, and you will find the right way to go.

<sup>10</sup>For wisdom will enter your heart, and knowledge will fill you with joy.

<sup>11</sup>Wise choices will watch over you.
Understanding will keep you safe.

<sup>12</sup>Wisdom will save you from evil people, from those whose words are twisted.

<sup>13</sup>These men turn from the right way to walk down dark paths.

<sup>14</sup>They take pleasure in doing wrong,
and they enjoy the twisted ways of evil.

<sup>15</sup>Their actions are crooked,
and their ways are wrong.

<sup>16</sup>Wisdom will save you from the immoral woman, from the seductive words of the promiscuous woman.

<sup>17</sup>She has abandoned her husband and ignores the covenant she made before God.

<sup>18</sup>Entering her house leads to death;
it is the road to the grave.*

<sup>19</sup>The man who visits her is doomed.
He will never reach the paths of life.

WOMEN AND MONEY

Number of verses in Proverbs that specifically talk about men's obsessions.

<sup>20</sup> Follow the steps of good men instead,
and stay on the paths of the righteous.

<sup>21</sup> For only the godly will live in the land, and those with integrity will remain in it.

<sup>22</sup> But the wicked will be removed from the land, and the treacherous will be uprooted.

Proverbs 3

Trusting in the LORD

<sup>1</sup>My child,* never forget the things I have taught you.
Store my commands in your heart.

<sup>2</sup>If you do this, you will live many years, and your life will be satisfying.

<sup>3</sup>Never let loyalty and kindness leave you!
Tie them around your neck as a reminder.
Write them deep within your heart.

<sup>4</sup>Then you will find favor with both God and people,
and you will earn a good reputation.

<sup>5</sup>Trust in the LORD with all your heart;
do not depend on your own understanding.

<sup>6</sup>Seek his will in all you do,
and he will show you which path to take.

<sup>7</sup>Don't be impressed with your own wisdom.
Instead, fear the LORD and turn away from evil.

<sup>8</sup>Then you will have healing for your body and strength for your bones.

<sup>9</sup>Honor the LORD with your wealth and with the best part of everything you produce.

<sup>10</sup>Then he will fill your barns with grain, and your vats will overflow with good wine.

<sup>11</sup> My child, don't reject the LORD's discipline, and don't be upset when he corrects you.

<sup>12</sup> For the LORD corrects those he loves, just as a father corrects a child in whom he delights.*

<sup>13</sup> Joyful is the person who finds wisdom, the one who gains understanding.

<sup>14</sup> For wisdom is more profitable than silver, and her wages are better than gold.

<sup>15</sup> Wisdom is more precious than rubies;
nothing you desire can compare with her.

<sup>16</sup> She offers you long life in her right hand, and riches and honor in her left.

<sup>17</sup> She will guide you down delightful paths;
all her ways are satisfying.

<sup>18</sup> Wisdom is a tree of life to those who embrace her;
happy are those who hold her tightly.

<sup>19</sup> By wisdom the LORD founded the earth;
by understanding he created the heavens.

<sup>20</sup> By his knowledge the deep fountains of the earth burst forth,
and the dew settles beneath the night sky.

<sup>21</sup> My child, don't lose sight of common sense and discernment.

Hang on to them,
<sup>22</sup>for they will refresh your soul.
They are like jewels on a necklace.
<sup>23</sup>They keep you safe on your way,
and your feet will not stumble.
<sup>24</sup>You can go to bed without fear;
you will lie down and sleep soundly.
<sup>25</sup>You need not be afraid of sudden disaster or the destruction that comes upon the wicked, <sup>26</sup>for the LORD is your security.
He will keep your foot from being caught in a trap.

<sup>27</sup>Do not withhold good from those who deserve it when it's in your power to help them.
<sup>28</sup>If you can help your neighbor now, don't say,
"Come back tomorrow, and then I'll help you."

<sup>29</sup>Don't plot harm against your neighbor,
for those who live nearby trust you.
<sup>30</sup>Don't pick a fight without reason,
when no one has done you harm.

<sup>31</sup>Don't envy violent people or copy their ways.
<sup>32</sup>Such wicked people are detestable to the LORD, but he offers his friendship to the godly.

<sup>33</sup>The LORD curses the house of the wicked, but he blesses the home of the upright.

<sup>34</sup>The LORD mocks the mockers but is gracious to the humble.*

<sup>35</sup>The wise inherit honor, but fools are put to shame!

Proverbs 4

A Father's Wise Advice

<sup>1</sup>My children,* listen when your father corrects you.

Pay attention and learn good judgment,

<sup>2</sup>for I am giving you good guidance.

Don't turn away from my instructions.

<sup>3</sup>For I, too, was once my father's son, tenderly loved as my mother's only child.

<sup>4</sup>My father taught me,

"Take my words to heart.

Follow my commands, and you will live.

<sup>5</sup>Get wisdom; develop good judgment.

Don't forget my words or turn away from them.

<sup>6</sup>Don't turn your back on wisdom, for she will protect you.

Love her, and she will guard you.

<sup>7</sup>Getting wisdom is the wisest thing you can do!

And whatever else you do, develop good judgment.

<sup>8</sup>If you prize wisdom, she will make you great.

Embrace her, and she will honor you.

<sup>9</sup>She will place a lovely wreath on your head;
she will present you with a beautiful crown."

<sup>10</sup>My child,* listen to me and do as I say, and you will have a long, good life.

<sup>11</sup>I will teach you wisdom's ways and lead you in straight paths.

<sup>12</sup>When you walk, you won't be held back;
when you run, you won't stumble.

Guard them, for they are the key to life.

<sup>14</sup>Don't do as the wicked do,
and don't follow the path of evildoers.

<sup>15</sup>Don't even think about it; don't go that way.
Turn away and keep moving.

<sup>16</sup>For evil people can't sleep until they've done their evil deed for the day.

They can't rest until they've caused someone to stumble.

<sup>17</sup>They eat the food of wickedness and drink the wine of violence!

<sup>18</sup>The way of the righteous is like the first gleam of dawn, which shines ever brighter until the full light of day.

<sup>19</sup>But the way of the wicked is like total darkness.
They have no idea what they are stumbling over.

<sup>20</sup>My child, pay attention to what I say.
Listen carefully to my words.

<sup>21</sup>Don't lose sight of them.
Let them penetrate deep into your heart,
<sup>22</sup>for they bring life to those who find them,
and healing to their whole body.

<sup>23</sup> Guard your heart above all else,
for it determines the course of your life.

---

PERSPECTIVES

Guard your heart above all else, for it determines the course of your life.

PROVERBS 4:23

It is the heart that makes a man rich. He is rich according to what he is, not according to what he has.

HENRY WARD BEECHER (1813–1887), AMERICAN MINISTER

<sup>24</sup>Avoid all perverse talk;
stay away from corrupt speech.

<sup>25</sup>Look straight ahead,
and fix your eyes on what lies before you.

<sup>26</sup>Mark out a straight path for your feet;
stay on the safe path.

<sup>27</sup>Don't get sidetracked;
keep your feet from following evil.

Proverbs 5

Avoid Immoral Women

<sup>1</sup>My son, pay attention to my wisdom;
listen carefully to my wise counsel.

<sup>2</sup>Then you will show discernment, and your lips will express what you've learned.

<sup>3</sup>For the lips of an immoral woman are as sweet as honey, and her mouth is smoother than oil.

<sup>4</sup>But in the end she is as bitter as poison,
as dangerous as a double-edged sword.

<sup>5</sup>Her feet go down to death;
her steps lead straight to the grave.*

<sup>6</sup>For she cares nothing about the path to life.
She staggers down a crooked trail and doesn't realize it.

<sup>7</sup>So now, my sons, listen to me.
Never stray from what I am about to say:

<sup>8</sup>Stay away from her!
Don't go near the door of her house!

<sup>9</sup>If you do, you will lose your honor and will lose to merciless people all you have achieved.

<sup>10</sup>Strangers will consume your wealth, and someone else will enjoy the fruit of your labor.

<sup>11</sup>In the end you will groan in anguish when disease consumes your body.

<sup>12</sup>You will say, “How I hated discipline!
If only I had not ignored all the warnings!
<sup>13</sup>Oh, why didn’t I listen to my teachers?
Why didn’t I pay attention to my instructors?
<sup>14</sup>I have come to the brink of utter ruin, and now I must face public disgrace.”

<sup>15</sup>Drink water from your own well—share your love only with your wife.*
<sup>16</sup>Why spill the water of your springs in the streets, having sex with just anyone?*_ <sup>17</sup>You should reserve it for yourselves.
Never share it with strangers.

<sup>18</sup>Let your wife be a fountain of blessing for you.
Rejoice in the wife of your youth.
<sup>19</sup>She is a loving deer, a graceful doe.
Let her breasts satisfy you always.
May you always be captivated by her love.
<sup>20</sup>Why be captivated, my son, by an immoral woman, or fondle the breasts of a promiscuous woman?

<sup>21</sup>For the LORD sees clearly what a man does, examining every path he takes.
<sup>22</sup>An evil man is held captive by his own sins;
they are ropes that catch and hold him.
<sup>23</sup>He will die for lack of self-control;
he will be lost because of his great foolishness.

Lessons for Daily Life

<sup>1</sup>My child, * if you have put up security for a friend's debt or agreed to guarantee the debt of a stranger—

<sup>2</sup>if you have trapped yourself by your agreement and are caught by what you said—

<sup>3</sup>follow my advice and save yourself, for you have placed yourself at your friend's mercy.

Now swallow your pride;
go and beg to have your name erased.

<sup>4</sup>Don't put it off; do it now!

Don't rest until you do.

<sup>5</sup>Save yourself like a gazelle escaping from a hunter, like a bird fleeing from a net.

<sup>6</sup>Take a lesson from the ants, you lazybones.
Learn from their ways and become wise!

<sup>7</sup>Though they have no prince or governor or ruler to make them work,

<sup>8</sup>they labor hard all summer, gathering food for the winter.

<sup>9</sup>But you, lazybones, how long will you sleep?
When will you wake up?

<sup>10</sup>A little extra sleep, a little more slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest—

<sup>11</sup>then poverty will pounce on you like a bandit;
scarcity will attack you like an armed robber.

<sup>12</sup>What are worthless and wicked people like?
They are constant liars,

<sup>13</sup>signaling their deceit with a wink of the eye,
a nudge of the foot, or the wiggle of fingers.

<sup>14</sup>Their perverted hearts plot evil,
and they constantly stir up trouble.

<sup>15</sup>But they will be destroyed suddenly, broken in an instant beyond all hope of healing.

<sup>16</sup>There are six things the LORD hates—no, seven things he detests:

<sup>17</sup>haughty eyes,
a lying tongue,
hands that kill the innocent,

<sup>18</sup>a heart that plots evil,
feet that race to do wrong,

<sup>19</sup>a false witness who pours out lies,
a person who sows discord in a family.

<sup>20</sup>My son, obey your father's commands, and don't neglect your mother's instruction.

<sup>21</sup>Keep their words always in your heart.
Tie them around your neck.

<sup>22</sup>When you walk, their counsel will lead you.
When you sleep, they will protect you.

When you wake up, they will advise you.

<sup>23</sup>For their command is a lamp and their instruction a light;
their corrective discipline
is the way to life.

<sup>24</sup>It will keep you from the immoral woman, from the smooth tongue of a promiscuous woman.

<sup>25</sup>Don't lust for her beauty.

Don't let her coy glances seduce you.

<sup>26</sup>For a prostitute will bring you to poverty,* but sleeping with another man's wife will cost you your life.

<sup>27</sup>Can a man scoop a flame into his lap and not have his clothes catch on fire?

<sup>28</sup>Can he walk on hot coals and not blister his feet?

<sup>29</sup>So it is with the man who sleeps with another man's wife.
He who embraces her will not go unpunished.

<sup>30</sup>Excuses might be found for a thief who steals because he is starving.

<sup>31</sup>But if he is caught, he must pay back seven times what he stole,

even if he has to sell everything in his house.

<sup>32</sup>But the man who commits adultery is an utter fool, for he destroys himself.

<sup>33</sup>He will be wounded and disgraced.
His shame will never be erased.

<sup>34</sup>For the woman's jealous husband will be furious, and he will show no mercy when he takes revenge.

<sup>35</sup>He will accept no compensation, nor be satisfied with a payoff of any size.

Proverbs 7

Another Warning about Immoral Women

<sup>1</sup>Follow my advice, my son; always treasure my commands.

<sup>2</sup>Obey my commands and live!

Guard my instructions as you guard your own eyes.*

<sup>3</sup>Tie them on your fingers as a reminder.

Write them deep within your heart.

<sup>4</sup>Love wisdom like a sister;
make insight a beloved member of your family.

<sup>5</sup>Let them protect you from an affair with an immoral woman, from listening to the flattery of a promiscuous woman.

<sup>6</sup>While I was at the window of my house,
looking through the curtain,

<sup>7</sup>I saw some naive young men, and one in particular who lacked common sense.

<sup>8</sup>He was crossing the street near the house of an immoral woman, strolling down the path by her house.

<sup>9</sup>It was at twilight, in the evening,
as deep darkness fell.

<sup>10</sup>The woman approached him, seductively dressed and sly of heart.

<sup>11</sup>She was the brash, rebellious type, never content to stay at home.

<sup>12</sup>She is often in the streets and markets, soliciting at every corner.

<sup>13</sup>She threw her arms around him and kissed him,
and with a brazen look she said,

<sup>14</sup>“I’ve just made my peace offerings and fulfilled my vows.

<sup>15</sup>You’re the one I was looking for!
I came out to find you, and here you are!

<sup>16</sup>My bed is spread with beautiful blankets, with colored sheets of Egyptian linen.

<sup>17</sup>I’ve perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

Let’s enjoy each other’s caresses,

<sup>19</sup>for my husband is not home.
He’s away on a long trip.

<sup>20</sup>He has taken a wallet full of money with him and won’t return until later this month.*”

<sup>21</sup>So she seduced him with her pretty speech and enticed him with her flattery.

like an ox going to the slaughter.

He was like a stag caught in a trap,

<sup>23</sup>awaiting the arrow that would pierce its heart.
He was like a bird flying into a snare,

little knowing it would cost him his life.

<sup>24</sup>So listen to me, my sons, and pay attention to my words.

<sup>25</sup>Don't let your hearts stray away toward her.
Don't wander down her wayward path.

<sup>26</sup>For she has been the ruin of many;
many men have been her victims.

Her bedroom is the den of death.

Proverbs 8

Wisdom Calls for a Hearing

<sup>1</sup>Listen as Wisdom calls out!

Hear as understanding raises her voice!

<sup>2</sup>On the hilltop along the road,
she takes her stand at the crossroads.

on the road leading in, she cries aloud,

<sup>4</sup>“I call to you, to all of you!

I raise my voice to all people.

<sup>5</sup>You simple people, use good judgment.

You foolish people, show some understanding.

<sup>6</sup>Listen to me! For I have important things to tell you.
Everything I say is right,

<sup>7</sup>for I speak the truth and detest every kind of deception.

<sup>8</sup>My advice is wholesome.

There is nothing devious or crooked in it.

<sup>9</sup>My words are plain to anyone with understanding, clear to those with knowledge.

What the Bible Says about

Excellence

<sup>10</sup>Choose my instruction rather than silver, and knowledge rather than pure gold.

<sup>11</sup>For wisdom is far more valuable than rubies.
Nothing you desire can compare with it.

I know where to discover knowledge and discernment.

<sup>13</sup>All who fear the LORD will hate evil.
Therefore, I hate pride and arrogance, corruption and perverse speech.

<sup>14</sup>Common sense and success belong to me.
Insight and strength are mine.

<sup>15</sup>Because of me, kings reign, and rulers make just decrees.

<sup>16</sup>Rulers lead with my help, and nobles make righteous judgments.*

<sup>17</sup>“I love all who love me.
Those who search will surely find me.

<sup>18</sup>I have riches and honor,
as well as enduring wealth and justice.

<sup>19</sup>My gifts are better than gold, even the purest gold, my wages better than sterling silver!

<sup>20</sup>I walk in righteousness, in paths of justice.

<sup>21</sup>Those who love me inherit wealth.
I will fill their treasuries.

<sup>22</sup>“The LORD formed me from the beginning, before he created anything else.

<sup>23</sup>I was appointed in ages past,
at the very first, before the earth began.

<sup>24</sup>I was born before the oceans were created,
before the springs bubbled forth their waters.

<sup>25</sup>Before the mountains were formed,
before the hills, I was born—

<sup>26</sup>before he had made the earth and fields and the first handfuls of soil.

<sup>27</sup>I was there when he established the heavens, when he drew the horizon on the oceans.

<sup>28</sup>I was there when he set the clouds above, when he established springs deep in the earth.

<sup>29</sup>I was there when he set the limits of the seas, so they would not spread beyond their boundaries.
And when he marked off the earth's foundations,

<sup>30</sup>I was the architect at his side.

I was his constant delight, rejoicing always in his presence.

<sup>31</sup>And how happy I was with the world he created;
how I rejoiced with the human family!

<sup>32</sup>“And so, my children, listen to me, for all who follow my ways are joyful.

<sup>33</sup>Listen to my instruction and be wise.
Don't ignore it.

<sup>34</sup>Joyful are those who listen to me, watching for me daily at my gates, waiting for me outside my home!

<sup>35</sup>For whoever finds me finds life and receives favor from the LORD.

<sup>36</sup>But those who miss me injure themselves.
All who hate me love death.”

Proverbs 9

<sup>1</sup>Wisdom has built her house;
she has carved its seven columns.

<sup>2</sup>She has prepared a great banquet, mixed the wines, and set the table.

<sup>3</sup>She has sent her servants to invite everyone to come.
She calls out from the heights overlooking the city.

<sup>4</sup>“Come in with me,” she urges the simple.

To those who lack good judgment, she says,

<sup>5</sup>“Come, eat my food,
and drink the wine I have mixed.

<sup>6</sup>Leave your simple ways behind, and begin to live;
learn to use good judgment.”

Anyone who corrects the wicked will get hurt.

<sup>8</sup>So don’t bother correcting mockers;
they will only hate you.

But correct the wise,
and they will love you.

<sup>9</sup>Instruct the wise,
and they will be even wiser.
Teach the righteous,
and they will learn even more.

<sup>10</sup>Fear of the LORD is the foundation of wisdom.

Knowledge of the Holy One results in good judgment.

<sup>11</sup>Wisdom will multiply your days and add years to your life.

<sup>12</sup>If you become wise, you will be the one to benefit.
If you scorn wisdom, you will be the one to suffer.

Folly Calls for a Hearing

<sup>13</sup>The woman named Folly is brash.
She is ignorant and doesn't know it.

<sup>14</sup>She sits in her doorway on the heights overlooking the city.

<sup>15</sup>She calls out to men going by who are minding their own business.

<sup>16</sup>"Come in with me," she urges the simple.
To those who lack good judgment, she says,

<sup>17</sup>"Stolen water is refreshing; food eaten in secret tastes the best!"

<sup>18</sup>But little do they know that the dead are there.
Her guests are in the depths of the grave.*

Proverbs 10

The Proverbs of Solomon

<sup>1</sup>The proverbs of Solomon:

A wise child* brings joy to a father;
a foolish child brings grief to a mother.

<sup>2</sup>Tainted wealth has no lasting value,
but right living can save your life.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD will not let the godly go hungry, but he refuses to satisfy the craving of the wicked.

<sup>4</sup>Lazy people are soon poor;
hard workers get rich.

<sup>5</sup>A wise youth harvests in the summer,
but one who sleeps during harvest is a disgrace.

<sup>6</sup>The godly are showered with blessings;
the words of the wicked conceal violent intentions.

<sup>7</sup>We have happy memories of the godly,
but the name of a wicked person rots away.

<sup>8</sup>The wise are glad to be instructed,
but babbling fools fall flat on their faces.

<sup>9</sup>People with integrity walk safely,
but those who follow crooked paths will slip and fall.

<sup>10</sup>People who wink at wrong cause trouble, but a bold reproof promotes peace.*

<sup>11</sup>The words of the godly are a life-giving fountain;
the words of the wicked conceal violent intentions.

<sup>12</sup>Hatred stirs up quarrels,
but love makes up for all offenses.

<sup>13</sup>Wise words come from the lips of people with understanding,
but those lacking sense will be beaten with a rod.

<sup>14</sup>Wise people treasure knowledge,
but the babbling of a fool invites disaster.

<sup>15</sup>The wealth of the rich is their fortress;
the poverty of the poor is their destruction.

<sup>16</sup>The earnings of the godly enhance their lives, but evil people squander their money on sin.

<sup>17</sup>People who accept discipline are on the pathway to life, but those who ignore correction will go astray.

<sup>18</sup>Hiding hatred makes you a liar;
slandering others makes you a fool.

<sup>19</sup>Too much talk leads to sin.
Be sensible and keep your mouth shut.

<sup>20</sup>The words of the godly are like sterling silver;
the heart of a fool is worthless.

<sup>21</sup>The words of the godly encourage many,
but fools are destroyed by their lack of common sense.

<sup>22</sup>The blessing of the LORD makes a person rich, and he adds no sorrow with it.

<sup>13</sup>The poor and the oppressor have this in common—
the LORD gives sight to the eyes of both.

<sup>14</sup>If a king judges the poor fairly,
his throne will last forever.

<sup>15</sup>To discipline a child produces wisdom,
but a mother is disgraced by an undisciplined child.

<sup>16</sup>When the wicked are in authority, sin flourishes, but the godly will live to see their downfall.

<sup>17</sup>Discipline your children, and they will give you peace of mind
and will make your heart glad.

<sup>18</sup>When people do not accept divine guidance, they run wild.

But whoever obeys the law is joyful.

<sup>19</sup>Words alone will not discipline a servant;
the words may be understood, but they are not heeded.

<sup>20</sup>There is more hope for a fool than for someone who speaks without thinking.

<sup>21</sup>A servant pampered from childhood will become a rebel.

<sup>22</sup>An angry person starts fights;
a hot-tempered person commits all kinds of sin.

<sup>23</sup>Pride ends in humiliation,
while humility brings honor.

<sup>24</sup>If you assist a thief, you only hurt yourself.
You are sworn to tell the truth, but you dare not testify.

<sup>25</sup>Fearing people is a dangerous trap,
but trusting the LORD means safety.

<sup>26</sup>Many seek the ruler's favor,
but justice comes from the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>The righteous despise the unjust;
the wicked despise the godly.

Proverbs 30

The Sayings of Agur

<sup>1</sup>The sayings of Agur son of Jakeh contain this message. *

I am weary, O God;

I am weary and worn out, O God. *

<sup>2</sup>I am too stupid to be human, and I lack common sense.

<sup>3</sup>I have not mastered human wisdom, nor do I know the Holy One.

<sup>4</sup>Who but God goes up to heaven and comes back down?

Who holds the wind in his fists?

Who wraps up the oceans in his cloak?

Who has created the whole wide world?

What is his name—and his son's name?

Tell me if you know!

5 Every word of God proves true.

He is a shield to all who come to him for protection.

<sup>6</sup>Do not add to his words, or he may rebuke you and expose you as a liar.

<sup>7</sup>O God, I beg two favors from you;
let me have them before I die.

<sup>8</sup>First, help me never to tell a lie.

Second, give me neither poverty nor riches!

Give me just enough to satisfy my needs.

<sup>9</sup>For if I grow rich, I may deny you and say, “Who is the LORD?”

And if I am too poor, I may steal and thus insult God’s holy name.

<sup>10</sup>Never slander a worker to the employer, or the person will curse you, and you will pay for it.

11 Some people curse their father and do not thank their mother.

<sup>12</sup>They are pure in their own eyes,
but they are filthy and unwashed.

<sup>13</sup>They look proudly around,
casting disdainful glances.

<sup>14</sup>They have teeth like swords and fangs like knives.
They devour the poor from the earth and the needy from among humanity.

<sup>15</sup>The leech has two suckers that cry out, “More, more!” *

There are three things that are never satisfied—
no, four that never say, “Enough!”:

<sup>16</sup>the grave, *

the barren womb,
the thirsty desert,
the blazing fire.

<sup>17</sup>The eye that mocks a father and despises a mother's instructions will be plucked out by ravens of the valley and eaten by vultures.

<sup>18</sup>There are three things that amaze me—
no, four things that I don't understand:

<sup>19</sup>how an eagle glides through the sky, how a snake slithers on a rock,
how a ship navigates the ocean,
how a man loves a woman.

<sup>20</sup>An adulterous woman consumes a man, then wipes her mouth and says, "What's wrong with that?"

<sup>21</sup>There are three things that make the earth tremble—no, four it cannot endure:

<sup>22</sup>a slave who becomes a king,
an overbearing fool who prospers, <sup>23</sup>a bitter woman who finally gets a husband, a servant girl who supplants her mistress.

<sup>24</sup>There are four things on earth that are small but unusually wise:

<sup>25</sup>Ants—they aren't strong,
but they store up food all summer.

<sup>26</sup>Hyraxes*—they aren't powerful,
but they make their homes among the rocks.

<sup>27</sup>Locusts—they have no king,
but they march in formation.

<sup>28</sup>Lizards—they are easy to catch,
but they are found even in kings' palaces.

<sup>29</sup>There are three things that walk with stately stride—no, four that strut about:

<sup>30</sup>the lion, king of animals, who won't turn aside for anything,

<sup>31</sup>the strutting rooster,

the male goat,

a king as he leads his army.

<sup>32</sup>If you have been a fool by being proud or plotting evil, cover your mouth in shame.

<sup>33</sup>As the beating of cream yields butter and striking the nose causes bleeding, so stirring up anger causes quarrels.

Proverbs 31

The Sayings of King Lemuel

<sup>1</sup>The sayings of King Lemuel contain this message,* which his mother taught him.

<sup>2</sup>O my son, O son of my womb,
O son of my vows,
<sup>3</sup>do not waste your strength on women,
on those who ruin kings.

Rulers should not crave alcohol.

<sup>5</sup>For if they drink, they may forget the law and not give justice to the oppressed.

<sup>6</sup>Alcohol is for the dying,
and wine for those in bitter distress.

<sup>7</sup>Let them drink to forget their poverty and remember their troubles no more.

<sup>8</sup>Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves;
ensure justice for those being crushed.

<sup>9</sup>Yes, speak up for the poor and helpless, and see that they get justice.

A Wife of Noble Character

10 *Who can find a virtuous and capable wife?

She is more precious than rubies.

<sup>11</sup>Her husband can trust her,
and she will greatly enrich his life.

<sup>12</sup>She brings him good, not harm,
all the days of her life.

<sup>13</sup>She finds wool and flax and busily spins it.

<sup>14</sup>She is like a merchant's ship, bringing her food from afar.

<sup>15</sup>She gets up before dawn to prepare breakfast for her household
and plan the day's work for her servant girls.

<sup>16</sup>She goes to inspect a field and buys it;
with her earnings she plants a vineyard.

<sup>17</sup>She is energetic and strong,
a hard worker.

<sup>18</sup>She makes sure her dealings are profitable;
her lamp burns late into the night.

<sup>19</sup>Her hands are busy spinning thread,
her fingers twisting fiber.

<sup>20</sup>She extends a helping hand to the poor and opens her arms to the needy.

<sup>21</sup>She has no fear of winter for her household, for everyone has warm* clothes.

<sup>22</sup>She makes her own bedspreads.

She dresses in fine linen and purple gowns.

<sup>23</sup>Her husband is well known at the city gates,
where he sits with the other civic leaders.

<sup>24</sup>She makes belted linen garments and sashes to sell to the merchants.

<sup>25</sup>She is clothed with strength and dignity, and she laughs without fear of the future.

<sup>26</sup>When she speaks, her words are wise, and she gives instructions with kindness.

<sup>27</sup>She carefully watches everything in her household and suffers nothing from laziness.

<sup>28</sup>Her children stand and bless her.

Her husband praises her:

<sup>29</sup>“There are many virtuous and capable women in the world, but you surpass them all!”

<sup>30</sup>Charm is deceptive, and beauty does not last;
but a woman who fears the LORD will be greatly praised.

<sup>31</sup>Reward her for all she has done.

Let her deeds publicly declare her praise.

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

Trying to figure out the purpose of life.

WHO WROTE IT?

Tradition says King Solomon wrote it at the end of his life, but others suggest a later author.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

Possibly as early as 930 B.C.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

If Solomon wrote it, it would fit during his reign, in the period of the United Israelite Kingdom.

THE BREAKDOWN

Chapters 1–2: Life is meaningless apart from God

Chapters 3–11: Though you can't figure out life's meaning, enjoy your days as a gift from God

Chapter 12: The bottom line—trust God and obey him

WORTH MEMORIZING

3:11

Yet God has made everything beautiful for its own time. He has planted eternity in the human heart, but even so, people cannot see the whole scope of God's work from beginning to end.

12:1

Don't let the excitement of youth cause you to forget your Creator. Honor him in your youth before you grow old and say, "Life is not pleasant anymore."

12:13-14

That's the whole story. Here now is my final conclusion: Fear God and obey his commands, for this is everyone's duty. God will judge us for everything we do, including every secret thing, whether good or bad.

TRUE SUCCESS.

Every day we get strong messages about what it is to live “the good life”—money, sex, power, profession, and position. Men seem to buy into these sales pitches in record numbers. The writer of Ecclesiastes pokes holes in each of these definitions of success. All are futile. None of them last after we die. They're not worth building our lives on. The only foundation sturdy enough to merit our devotion is God—trusting and obeying him.

Ecclesiastes?

+ + +

The externals aren't as great as they look.

---

Everything Is Meaningless

<sup>4</sup>Generations come and generations go, but the earth never changes. <sup>5</sup>The sun rises and the sun sets, then hurries around to rise again. <sup>6</sup>The wind blows south, and then turns north. Around and around it goes, blowing in circles. <sup>7</sup>Rivers run into the sea, but the sea is never full. Then the water returns again to the rivers and flows out again to the sea. <sup>8</sup>Everything is wearisome beyond description. No matter how much we see, we are never satisfied. No matter how much we hear, we are not content.

Nothing under the sun is truly new. <sup>10</sup>Sometimes people say, “Here is something new!” But actually it is old; nothing is ever truly new. <sup>11</sup>We don’t remember what happened in the past, and in future generations, no one will remember what we are doing now.

The Teacher Speaks: The Futility of Wisdom

<sup>12</sup>I, the Teacher, was king of Israel, and I lived in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>I devoted myself to search for understanding and to explore by wisdom everything being done under heaven. I soon discovered that God has dealt a tragic existence to the human race. <sup>14</sup>I observed everything going on under the sun, and really, it is all meaningless—like chasing the wind.

What is missing cannot be recovered.

<sup>16</sup>I said to myself, “Look, I am wiser than any of the kings who ruled in Jerusalem before me. I have greater wisdom and knowledge than any of them.” <sup>17</sup>So I set out to learn everything from wisdom to madness and folly. But I learned firsthand that pursuing all this is like chasing the wind.

<sup>18</sup>The greater my wisdom, the greater my grief.

To increase knowledge only increases sorrow.

Ecclesiastes 2

The Futility of Pleasure

<sup>4</sup>I also tried to find meaning by building huge homes for myself and by planting beautiful vineyards. <sup>5</sup>I made gardens and parks, filling them with all kinds of fruit trees. <sup>6</sup>I built reservoirs to collect the water to irrigate my many flourishing groves. <sup>7</sup>I bought slaves, both men and women, and others were born into my household. I also owned large herds and flocks, more than any of the kings who had lived in Jerusalem before me. <sup>8</sup>I collected great sums of silver and gold, the treasure of many kings and provinces. I hired wonderful singers, both men and women, and had many beautiful concubines. I had everything a man could desire!

<sup>9</sup>So I became greater than all who had lived in Jerusalem before me, and my wisdom never failed me. <sup>10</sup>Anything I wanted, I would take. I denied myself no pleasure. I even found great pleasure in hard work, a reward for all my labors. <sup>11</sup>But as I looked at everything I had worked so hard to accomplish, it was all so meaningless—like chasing the wind. There was nothing really worthwhile anywhere.

The Wise and the Foolish

<sup>12</sup>So I decided to compare wisdom with foolishness and madness (for who can do this better than I, the king?*) . <sup>13</sup>I thought, “Wisdom is better than foolishness, just as light is better than darkness. <sup>14</sup>For the wise can see where they are going, but fools walk in the dark.” Yet I saw that the wise and the foolish share the same fate. <sup>15</sup>Both will die. So I said to myself, “Since I will end up the same as the fool, what’s the value of all my wisdom? This is all so meaningless!” <sup>16</sup>For the wise and the foolish both die. The wise will not be remembered any longer than the fool. In the days to come, both will be forgotten.

<sup>17</sup> So I came to hate life because everything done here under the sun is so troubling. Everything is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

The Futility of Work

<sup>18</sup>I came to hate all my hard work here on earth, for I must leave to others everything I have earned. <sup>19</sup>And who can tell whether my successors will be wise or foolish? Yet they will control everything I have gained by my skill and hard work under the sun. How meaningless! <sup>20</sup>So I gave up in despair, questioning the value of all my hard work in this world.

worked for it. This, too, is meaningless, a great tragedy. <sup>22</sup>So what do people get in this life for all their hard work and anxiety? <sup>23</sup>Their days of labor are filled with pain and grief; even at night their minds cannot rest. It is all meaningless.

<sup>24</sup> So I decided there is nothing better than to enjoy food and drink and to find satisfaction in work. Then I realized that these pleasures are from the hand of God. <sup>25</sup>For who can eat or enjoy anything apart from him? * <sup>26</sup>God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy to those who please him. But if a sinner becomes wealthy, God takes the wealth away and gives it to those who please him. This, too, is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

Ecclesiastes 3

A Time for Everything

<sup>1</sup>For everything there is a season, a time for every activity under heaven.

<sup>2</sup>A time to be born and a time to die.

A time to plant and a time to harvest.

<sup>3</sup>A time to kill and a time to heal.

A time to tear down and a time to build up.

<sup>4</sup>A time to cry and a time to laugh.

A time to grieve and a time to dance.

<sup>5</sup>A time to scatter stones and a time to gather stones.

A time to embrace and a time to turn away.

A Time to Embrace

<sup>6</sup>A time to search and a time to quit searching.

A time to keep and a time to throw away.

<sup>7</sup>A time to tear and a time to mend.

A time to be quiet and a time to speak.

<sup>8</sup>A time to love and a time to hate.

A time for war and a time for peace.

<sup>9</sup>What do people really get for all their hard work? <sup>10</sup>I have seen the burden God has placed on us all. <sup>11</sup>Yet God has made everything beautiful for its own time. He has planted eternity in the human heart, but even so, people cannot see the whole scope of God's work from beginning to end. <sup>12</sup> So I concluded there is nothing better than to be happy and enjoy ourselves as long as we can. <sup>13</sup> And people should eat and drink and enjoy the fruits of their labor, for these are gifts from God.

PERSPECTIVES

People should eat and drink and enjoy the fruits of their labor, for these are gifts from God. . . . So go ahead. Eat your food with joy, and drink your wine with a happy heart, for God approves of this!

ECCLESIASTES 3:13: 9:7

Bad men live that they may eat and drink, whereas good men eat and drink that they may live.

SOCRATES (469–399 B.C.), GREEK PHILOSOPHER

<sup>14</sup> And I know that whatever God does is final. Nothing can be added to it or taken from it. God's purpose is that people should fear him. <sup>15</sup> What is happening now has happened before, and what will happen in the future has happened before, because God makes the same things happen over and over again.

The Injustices of Life

<sup>16</sup>I also noticed that under the sun there is evil in the courtroom. Yes, even the courts of law are corrupt! <sup>17</sup>I said to myself, “In due season God will judge everyone, both good and bad, for all their deeds.”

<sup>18</sup>I also thought about the human condition—how God proves to people that they are like animals. <sup>19</sup>For people and animals share the same fate—both breathe* and both must die. So people have no real advantage over the animals. How meaningless! <sup>20</sup>Both go to the same place—they came from dust and they return to dust. <sup>21</sup>For who can prove that the human spirit goes up and the spirit of animals goes down into the earth? <sup>22</sup>So I saw that there is nothing better for people than to be happy in their work. That is why we are here! No one will bring us back from death to enjoy life after we die.

Ecclesiastes 4

<sup>4</sup>Then I observed that most people are motivated to success because they envy their neighbors. But this, too, is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

leading them to ruin.”

<sup>6</sup>And yet,

“Better to have one handful with quietness than two handfuls with hard work and chasing the wind.”

The Advantages of Companionship

<sup>7</sup> I observed yet another example of something meaningless under the sun. <sup>8</sup>This is the case of a man who is all alone, without a child or a brother, yet who works hard to gain as much wealth as he can. But then he asks himself, “Who am I working for? Why am I giving up so much pleasure now?” It is all so meaningless and depressing.

<sup>9</sup> Two people are better off than one, for they can help each other succeed. <sup>10</sup>If one person falls, the other can reach out and help. But someone who falls alone is in real trouble. <sup>11</sup>Likewise, two people lying close together can keep each other warm. But how can one be warm alone? <sup>12</sup>A person standing alone can be attacked and defeated, but two can stand back-to-back and conquer. Three are even better, for a triple-braided cord is not easily broken.

The Futility of Political Power

<sup>13</sup> It is better to be a poor but wise youth than an old and foolish king who refuses all advice. <sup>14</sup>Such a youth could rise from poverty and succeed. He might even become king, though he has been in prison. <sup>15</sup>But then everyone rushes to the side of yet another youth* who replaces him. <sup>16</sup>Endless crowds stand around him,* but then another generation grows up and rejects him, too. So it is all meaningless—like chasing the wind.

Two Are Better Than One

Ecclesiastes 5

Approaching God with Care

<sup>1</sup>*As you enter the house of God, keep your ears open and your mouth shut. It is evil to make mindless offerings to God.

<sup>2</sup>*Don't make rash promises, and don't be hasty in bringing matters before God. After all, God is in heaven, and you are here on earth. So let your words be few.

<sup>3</sup>Too much activity gives you restless dreams; too many words make you a fool.

<sup>4</sup> When you make a promise to God, don't delay in following through, for God takes no pleasure in fools. Keep all the promises you make to him. <sup>5</sup>It is better to say nothing than to make a promise and not keep it. <sup>6</sup>Don't let your mouth make you sin. And don't defend yourself by telling the Temple messenger that the promise you made was a mistake. That would make God angry, and he might wipe out everything you have achieved.

The Futility of Wealth

<sup>8</sup>Don't be surprised if you see a poor person being oppressed by the powerful and if justice is being miscarried throughout the land. For every official is under orders from higher up, and matters of justice get lost in red tape and bureaucracy. <sup>9</sup>Even the king milks the land for his own profit!*

<sup>10</sup> Those who love money will never have enough. How meaningless to think that wealth brings true happiness! <sup>11</sup>The more you have, the more people come to help you spend it. So what good is wealth—except perhaps to watch it slip through your fingers!

<sup>12</sup> People who work hard sleep well, whether they eat little or much. But the rich seldom get a good night's sleep.

<sup>16</sup> And this, too, is a very serious problem. People leave this world no better off than when they came. All their hard work is for nothing—like working for the wind. <sup>17</sup> Throughout their lives, they live under a cloud—frustrated, discouraged, and angry.

<sup>18</sup> Even so, I have noticed one thing, at least, that is good. It is good for people to eat, drink, and enjoy their work under the sun during the short life God has given them, and to accept their lot in life. <sup>19</sup> And it is a good thing to receive wealth from God and the good health to enjoy it. To enjoy your work and accept your lot in life—this is indeed a gift from God. <sup>20</sup> God keeps such people so busy enjoying life that they take no time to brood over the past.

Ecclesiastes 6

<sup>1</sup>There is another serious tragedy I have seen under the sun, and it weighs heavily on humanity. <sup>2</sup>God gives some people great wealth and honor and everything they could ever want, but then he doesn't give them the chance to enjoy these things. They die, and someone else, even a stranger, ends up enjoying their wealth! This is meaningless—a sickening tragedy.

<sup>3</sup>A man might have a hundred children and live to be very old. But if he finds no satisfaction in life and doesn't even get a decent burial, it would have been better for him to be born dead. <sup>4</sup>His birth would have been meaningless, and he would have ended in darkness. He wouldn't even have had a name, <sup>5</sup>and he would never have seen the sun or known of its existence. Yet he would have had more peace than in growing up to be an unhappy man. <sup>6</sup>He might live a thousand years twice over but still not find contentment. And since he must die like everyone else—well, what's the use?

<sup>9</sup>Enjoy what you have rather than desiring what you don't have. Just dreaming about nice things is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

The Future—Determined and Unknown

<sup>10</sup>Everything has already been decided. It was known long ago what each person would be. So there's no use arguing with God about your destiny.

<sup>11</sup>The more words you speak, the less they mean. So what good are they?

<sup>12</sup>In the few days of our meaningless lives, who knows how our days can best be spent? Our lives are like a shadow. Who can tell what will happen on this earth after we are gone?

Ecclesiastes 7

Wisdom for Life

<sup>1</sup>A good reputation is more valuable than costly perfume.
And the day you die is better than the day you are born.

After all, everyone dies—
so the living should take this to heart.

<sup>3</sup>Sorrow is better than laughter,
for sadness has a refining influence on us.

<sup>4</sup>A wise person thinks a lot about death,
while a fool thinks only about having a good time.

<sup>5</sup>Better to be criticized by a wise person than to be praised by a fool.

<sup>6</sup>A fool's laughter is quickly gone,
like thorns crackling in a fire.
This also is meaningless.

<sup>7</sup>Extortion turns wise people into fools, and bribes corrupt the heart.

<sup>8</sup>Finishing is better than starting.
Patience is better than pride.

<sup>9</sup>Control your temper,

for anger labels you a fool.

<sup>10</sup>Don't long for "the good old days."
This is not wise.

<sup>11</sup>Wisdom is even better when you have money.
Both are a benefit as you go through life.

<sup>12</sup>Wisdom and money can get you almost anything, but only wisdom can save your life.

<sup>13</sup>Accept the way God does things,
for who can straighten what he has made crooked?

<sup>14</sup>Enjoy prosperity while you can,
but when hard times strike, realize that both come from God.
Remember that nothing is certain in this life.

The Limits of Human Wisdom

<sup>15</sup>I have seen everything in this meaningless life, including the death of good young people and the long life of wicked people.

curse you. <sup>22</sup>For you know how often you yourself have cursed others.

<sup>23</sup>I have always tried my best to let wisdom guide my thoughts and actions. I said to myself, “I am determined to be wise.” But it didn’t work. <sup>24</sup>Wisdom is always distant and difficult to find. <sup>25</sup>I searched everywhere, determined to find wisdom and to understand the reason for things. I was determined to prove to myself that wickedness is stupid and that foolishness is madness.

<sup>26</sup>I discovered that a seductive woman* is a trap more bitter than death. Her passion is a snare, and her soft hands are chains. Those who are pleasing to God will escape her, but sinners will be caught in her snare.

Ecclesiastes 8

<sup>1</sup>How wonderful to be wise, to analyze and interpret things.
Wisdom lights up a person's face,
softening its harshness.

Obedience to the King

<sup>7</sup>Indeed, how can people avoid what they don't know is going to happen? <sup>8</sup>None of us can hold back our spirit from departing. None of us has the power to prevent the day of our death. There is no escaping that obligation, that dark battle. And in the face of death, wickedness will certainly not rescue the wicked.

The Wicked and the Righteous

<sup>9</sup>I have thought deeply about all that goes on here under the sun, where people have the power to hurt each other. <sup>10</sup>I have seen wicked people buried with honor. Yet they were the very ones who frequented the Temple and are now praised* in the same city where they committed their crimes! This, too, is meaningless.<sup>11</sup> When a crime is not punished quickly, people feel it is safe to do wrong.<sup>12</sup> But even though a person sins a hundred times and still lives a long time, I know that those who fear God will be better off.<sup>13</sup> The wicked will not prosper, for they do not fear God. Their days will never grow long like the evening shadows.

<sup>14</sup> And this is not all that is meaningless in our world. In this life, good people are often treated as though they were wicked, and wicked people are often treated as though they were good. This is so meaningless!

<sup>15</sup> So I recommend having fun, because there is nothing better for people in this world than to eat, drink, and enjoy life. That way they will experience some happiness along with all the hard work God gives them under the sun.

<sup>16</sup> In my search for wisdom and in my observation of people's burdens here on earth, I discovered that there is ceaseless activity, day and night.<sup>17</sup> I realized that no one can discover everything God is doing under the sun. Not even the wisest people discover everything, no matter what they claim.

Ecclesiastes 9

Death Comes to All

<sup>1</sup>This, too, I carefully explored: Even though the actions of godly and wise people are in God's hands, no one knows whether God will show them favor. <sup>2</sup>The same destiny ultimately awaits everyone, whether righteous or wicked, good or bad,* ceremonially clean or unclean, religious or irreligious. Good people receive the same treatment as sinners, and people who make promises to God are treated like people who don't.

<sup>3</sup>It seems so tragic that everyone under the sun suffers the same fate. That is why people are not more careful to be good. Instead, they choose their own mad course, for they have no hope. There is nothing ahead but death anyway. <sup>4</sup>There is hope only for the living. As they say, "It's better to be a live dog than a dead lion!"

<sup>5</sup>The living at least know they will die, but the dead know nothing. They have no further reward, nor are they remembered. <sup>6</sup>Whatever they did in their lifetime—loving, hating, envying—is all long gone. They no longer play a part in anything here on earth. <sup>7</sup>So go ahead. Eat your food with joy, and drink your wine with a happy heart, for God approves of this! <sup>8</sup>Wear fine clothes, with a splash of cologne!

<sup>9</sup>Live happily with the woman you love through all the meaningless days of life that God has given you under the sun. The wife God gives you is your reward for all your earthly toil.

<sup>10</sup>Whatever you do, do well. For when you go to the grave,* there will be no work or planning or knowledge or wisdom.

<sup>11</sup>I have observed something else under the sun. The fastest runner doesn't always win the race, and the strongest warrior doesn't always win the battle. The wise sometimes go hungry, and the skillful are not necessarily wealthy. And those who are educated don't always lead successful lives. It is all decided by chance, by being in the right place at the right time.

<sup>12</sup>People can never predict when hard times might come. Like fish in a net or birds in a trap, people are caught by sudden tragedy.

Thoughts on Wisdom and Folly

<sup>13</sup> Here is another bit of wisdom that has impressed me as I have watched the way our world works. <sup>14</sup>There was a small town with only a few people, and a great king came with his army and besieged it. <sup>15</sup>A poor, wise man knew how to save the town, and so it was rescued. But afterward no one thought to thank him. <sup>16</sup>So even though wisdom is better than strength, those who are wise will be despised if they are poor. What they say will not be appreciated for long.

<sup>17</sup>Better to hear the quiet words of a wise person than the shouts of a foolish king.

<sup>18</sup>Better to have wisdom than weapons of war, but one sinner can destroy much that is good.

Ecclesiastes 10

<sup>1</sup>As dead flies cause even a bottle of perfume to stink, so a little foolishness spoils great wisdom and honor.

<sup>2</sup>A wise person chooses the right road;
a fool takes the wrong one.

<sup>3</sup>You can identify fools just by the way they walk down the street!

<sup>4</sup>If your boss is angry at you, don't quit!
A quiet spirit can overcome even great mistakes.

The Ironies of Life

<sup>8</sup>When you dig a well, you might fall in.
When you demolish an old wall,
you could be bitten by a snake.
<sup>9</sup>When you work in a quarry, stones might fall and crush you.

When you chop wood,
there is danger with each stroke of your ax.

<sup>10</sup>Using a dull ax requires great strength, so sharpen the blade.
That's the value of wisdom;
it helps you succeed.

<sup>11</sup>If a snake bites before you charm it,
what's the use of being a snake charmer?

<sup>12</sup>Wise words bring approval,
but fools are destroyed by their own words.

<sup>13</sup>Fools base their thoughts on foolish assumptions,
so their conclusions will be wicked madness;
<sup>14</sup>they chatter on and on.

No one really knows what is going to happen;
no one can predict the future.

<sup>15</sup>Fools are so exhausted by a little work that they can't even find their way home.

the land whose leaders feast in the morning.

<sup>17</sup>Happy is the land whose king is a noble leader and whose leaders feast at the proper time to gain strength for their work, not to get drunk.

<sup>18</sup>Laziness leads to a sagging roof;
idleness leads to a leaky house.

<sup>19</sup>A party gives laughter,
wine gives happiness,
and money gives everything!

<sup>20</sup>Never make light of the king, even in your thoughts.
And don't make fun of the powerful, even in your own bedroom.
For a little bird might deliver your message and tell them what you said.

Ecclesiastes 11

The Uncertainties of Life

<sup>1</sup>Send your grain across the seas, and in time, profits will flow back to you.*

<sup>2</sup>But divide your investments among many places,* for you do not know what risks might lie ahead.

<sup>3</sup>When clouds are heavy, the rains come down.
Whether a tree falls north or south, it stays where it falls.

<sup>4</sup>Farmers who wait for perfect weather never plant.
If they watch every cloud, they never harvest.

<sup>5</sup>Just as you cannot understand the path of the wind or the mystery of a tiny baby growing in its mother's womb,* so you cannot understand the activity of God, who does all things.

<sup>6</sup>Plant your seed in the morning and keep busy all afternoon, for you don't know if profit will come from one activity or another—or maybe both.

Advice for Young and Old

<sup>7</sup>Light is sweet; how pleasant to see a new day dawning.

<sup>8</sup>When people live to be very old, let them rejoice in every day of life. But let them also remember there will be many dark days. Everything still to come is meaningless.

<sup>9</sup>Young people,* it's wonderful to be young! Enjoy every minute of it. Do everything you want to do; take it all in. But remember that you must give an account to God for everything you do. <sup>10</sup>So refuse to worry, and keep your body healthy. But remember that youth, with a whole life before you, is meaningless.

Ecclesiastes 12

<sup>4</sup>Remember him before the door to life's opportunities is closed and the sound of work fades. Now you rise at the first chirping of the birds, but then all their sounds will grow faint.

<sup>6</sup>Yes, remember your Creator now while you are young, before the silver cord of life snaps and the golden bowl is broken. Don't wait until the water jar is smashed at the spring and the pulley is broken at the well. <sup>7</sup>For then the dust will return to the earth, and the spirit will return to God who gave it.

Concluding Thoughts about the Teacher

<sup>12</sup>But, my child,* let me give you some further advice: Be careful, for writing books is endless, and much study wears you out.

<sup>13</sup>That’s the whole story. Here now is my final conclusion: Fear God and obey his commands, for this is everyone’s duty.

<sup>14</sup>God will judge us for everything we do, including every secret thing, whether good or bad.

Place me like a seal over your heart,
like a seal on your arm.
For love is as strong as death,
its jealousy as enduring as the grave.
Love flashes like fire,
the brightest kind of flame.
Many waters cannot quench love,
nor can rivers drown it.
If a man tried to buy love

with all his wealth,
his offer would be utterly scorned.

Song of Songs 1

<sup>1</sup>This is Solomon's song of songs, more wonderful than any other.

Young Woman*

<sup>2</sup>Kiss me and kiss me again, for your love is sweeter than wine.

<sup>3</sup>How fragrant your cologne;
your name is like its spreading fragrance.
No wonder all the young women love you!

<sup>4</sup>Take me with you; come, let's run!
The king has brought me into his bedroom.

Young Women of Jerusalem

How happy we are for you, O king.
We praise your love even more than wine.

Young Woman

How right they are to adore you.

<sup>5</sup>I am dark but beautiful,
O women of Jerusalem—
dark as the tents of Kedar, dark as the curtains of Solomon's tents.

<sup>6</sup>Don't stare at me because I am dark—
the sun has darkened my skin.
My brothers were angry with me;
they forced me to care for their vineyards,
so I couldn't care for myself—my own vineyard.

<sup>7</sup>Tell me, my love, where are you leading your flock today?
Where will you rest your sheep at noon?
For why should I wander like a prostitute*
among your friends and their flocks?

Young Man

<sup>8</sup>If you don't know, O most beautiful woman, follow the trail of my flock,
and graze your young goats by the shepherds' tents.

<sup>9</sup>You are as exciting, my darling,
as a mare among Pharaoh's stallions.

<sup>10</sup>How lovely are your cheeks;
your earrings set them afire!
How lovely is your neck,
enhanced by a string of jewels.

<sup>11</sup>We will make for you earrings of gold and beads of silver.

Young Woman

<sup>12</sup>The king is lying on his couch, enchanted by the fragrance of my perfume.

<sup>13</sup>My lover is like a sachet of myrrh lying between my breasts.

<sup>14</sup>He is like a bouquet of sweet henna blossoms from the vineyards of En-gedi.

Young Man

<sup>15</sup>How beautiful you are, my darling, how beautiful!
Your eyes are like doves.

Young Woman

<sup>16</sup>You are so handsome, my love, pleasing beyond words!
The soft grass is our bed;

<sup>17</sup>fragrant cedar branches are the beams of our house,
and pleasant smelling firs are the rafters.

Song of Songs 2

Young Woman

<sup>1</sup>I am the spring crocus blooming on the Sharon Plain,* the lily of the valley.

Young Man

<sup>2</sup>Like a lily among thistles is my darling among young women.

Young Woman

<sup>3</sup>Like the finest apple tree in the orchard is my lover among other young men.
I sit in his delightful shade and taste his delicious fruit.

<sup>4</sup>He escorts me to the banquet hall;
it's obvious how much he loves me.

<sup>5</sup>Strengthen me with raisin cakes, refresh me with apples,
for I am weak with love.

<sup>6</sup>His left arm is under my head,
and his right arm embraces me.

<sup>7</sup>Promise me, O women of Jerusalem,
by the gazelles and wild deer,
not to awaken love until the time is right.*

<sup>8</sup>Ah, I hear my lover coming!
He is leaping over the mountains,
bounding over the hills.

<sup>9</sup>My lover is like a swift gazelle or a young stag.
Look, there he is behind the wall,
looking through the window,
peering into the room.

<sup>10</sup>My lover said to me,
“Rise up, my darling!
Come away with me, my fair one!

<sup>11</sup>Look, the winter is past,
and the rains are over and gone.

<sup>12</sup>The flowers are springing up,
the season of singing birds* has come,
and the cooing of turtledoves fills the air.

<sup>13</sup>The fig trees are forming young fruit,
and the fragrant grapevines are blossoming.
Rise up, my darling!
Come away with me, my fair one!”

Young Man

<sup>14</sup>My dove is hiding behind the rocks, behind an outcrop on the cliff.
Let me see your face;
let me hear your voice.
For your voice is pleasant, and your face is lovely.

<sup>15</sup>Catch all the foxes, those little foxes,
before they ruin the vineyard of love,
for the grapevines are blossoming!

Young Woman

<sup>16</sup>My lover is mine, and I am his.
He browses among the lilies.

and the night shadows flee, return to me, my love, like a gazelle or a young stag on the rugged mountains.*

Song of Songs 3

Young Woman

<sup>1</sup>One night as I lay in bed, I yearned for my lover.

I yearned for him, but he did not come.

<sup>2</sup>So I said to myself, “I will get up and roam the city, searching in all its streets and squares.

I will search for the one I love.”

So I searched everywhere but did not find him.

<sup>3</sup>The watchmen stopped me as they made their rounds, and I asked, “Have you seen the one I love?”

<sup>4</sup>Then scarcely had I left them when I found my love!

I caught and held him tightly,
then I brought him to my mother’s house,
into my mother’s bed, where I had been conceived.

Personal Gold

How to Convey God’s Perspective on Sex

<sup>5</sup>Promise me, O women of Jerusalem,
by the gazelles and wild deer,
not to awaken love until the time is right.*

Young Women of Jerusalem

<sup>6</sup> Who is this sweeping in from the wilderness like a cloud of smoke?
Who is it, fragrant with myrrh and frankincense and every kind of spice?

<sup>7</sup> Look, it is Solomon's carriage, surrounded by sixty heroic men,
the best of Israel's soldiers.

<sup>8</sup> They are all skilled swordsmen, experienced warriors.
Each wears a sword on his thigh, ready to defend the king against an attack in the night.

<sup>9</sup> King Solomon's carriage is built of wood imported from Lebanon.

<sup>10</sup> Its posts are silver,
its canopy gold;
its cushions are purple.
It was decorated with love
by the young women of Jerusalem.

Young Woman

<sup>11</sup> Come out to see King Solomon,
young women of Jerusalem.*
He wears the crown his mother gave him on his wedding day, his most joyous day.

Song of Songs 4

Young Man

- <sup>1</sup> You are beautiful, my darling, beautiful beyond words.
Your eyes are like doves
behind your veil.
Your hair falls in waves,
like a flock of goats winding down the slopes of Gilead.
- <sup>2</sup> Your teeth are as white as sheep,
recently shorn and freshly washed.
Your smile is flawless,
each tooth matched with its twin.*
- <sup>3</sup> Your lips are like scarlet ribbon;
your mouth is inviting.
Your cheeks are like rosy pomegranates
behind your veil.
- <sup>4</sup> Your neck is as beautiful as the tower of David,
jeweled with the shields of a thousand heroes.
- <sup>5</sup> Your breasts are like two fawns,
twin fawns of a gazelle grazing among the lilies.
- <sup>6</sup> Before the dawn breezes blow
and the night shadows flee,
I will hurry to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense.
- <sup>7</sup> You are altogether beautiful, my darling, beautiful in every way.

<sup>8</sup>Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon.
Come down* from Mount Amana,
from the peaks of Senir and Hermon,
where the lions have their dens and leopards live among the hills.

<sup>9</sup>You have captured my heart,
my treasure,* my bride.
You hold it hostage with one glance of your eyes,
with a single jewel of your necklace.

<sup>10</sup>Your love delights me,
my treasure, my bride.
Your love is better than wine,
your perfume more fragrant than spices.

<sup>11</sup>Your lips are as sweet as nectar, my bride.
Honey and milk are under your tongue.
Your clothes are scented like the cedars of Lebanon.

<sup>12</sup> You are my private garden, my treasure, my bride, a secluded spring, a hidden fountain.

<sup>13</sup>Your thighs shelter a paradise of pomegranates with rare spices—
henna with nard,

<sup>14</sup>nard and saffron, fragrant calamus and cinnamon,
with all the trees of frankincense, myrrh, and aloes, and every other lovely spice.

<sup>15</sup>You are a garden fountain, a well of fresh water streaming down from Lebanon's mountains.

Young Woman

<sup>16</sup>Awake, north wind!
Rise up, south wind!
Blow on my garden
and spread its fragrance all around.
Come into your garden, my love;
taste its finest fruits.

The Beauty of Intimacy

Song of Songs 5

Young Man

<sup>1</sup>I have entered my garden, my treasure,   * my bride!
I gather myrrh with my spices and eat honeycomb with my honey.
I drink wine with my milk.

Young Women of Jerusalem

Oh, lover and beloved, eat and drink!
Yes, drink deeply of your love!

Young Woman

<sup>2</sup>I slept, but my heart was awake, when I heard my lover knocking and calling:
“Open to me, my treasure, my darling,
my dove, my perfect one.
My head is drenched with dew,
my hair with the dampness of the night.”

<sup>3</sup>But I responded,
“I have taken off my robe.
Should I get dressed again?
I have washed my feet.
Should I get them soiled?”

<sup>4</sup>My lover tried to unlatch the door, and my heart thrilled within me.

<sup>5</sup>I jumped up to open the door for my love,
and my hands dripped with perfume.
My fingers dripped with lovely myrrh
as I pulled back the bolt.

<sup>6</sup>I opened to my lover, but he was gone!
My heart sank.
I searched for him
but could not find him anywhere.
I called to him,
but there was no reply.

<sup>7</sup>The night watchmen found me as they made their rounds.
They beat and bruised me
and stripped off my veil,
those watchmen on the walls.

If you find my lover, tell him I am weak with love.

Young Women of Jerusalem

<sup>9</sup> Why is your lover better than all others,
O woman of rare beauty?
What makes your lover so special that we must promise this?

Young Woman

<sup>10</sup>My lover is dark and dazzling, better than ten thousand others!

<sup>11</sup>His head is finest gold,
his wavy hair is black as a raven.

<sup>12</sup>His eyes sparkle like doves beside springs of water;
they are set like jewels washed in milk.

<sup>13</sup>His cheeks are like gardens of spices giving off fragrance.
His lips are like lilies,
perfumed with myrrh.

<sup>14</sup>His arms are like rounded bars of gold,
set with beryl.
His body is like bright ivory,
glowing with lapis lazuli.

<sup>15</sup>His legs are like marble pillars set in sockets of finest gold.
His posture is stately,
like the noble cedars of Lebanon.

<sup>16</sup>His mouth is sweetness itself;
he is desirable in every way.
Such, O women of Jerusalem, is my lover, my friend.

Song of Songs 6

Young Women of Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Where has your lover gone,
O woman of rare beauty?
Which way did he turn
so we can help you find him?

Young Woman

<sup>2</sup>My lover has gone down to his garden, to his spice beds,
to browse in the gardens
and gather the lilies.
<sup>3</sup>I am my lover's, and my lover is mine.
He browses among the lilies.

Young Man

<sup>4</sup>You are beautiful, my darling,
like the lovely city of Tirzah.
Yes, as beautiful as Jerusalem,
as majestic as an army with billowing banners.
<sup>5</sup>Turn your eyes away,
for they overpower me.
Your hair falls in waves,
like a flock of goats winding down the slopes of Gilead.
<sup>6</sup>Your teeth are as white as sheep
that are freshly washed.

Your smile is flawless,

<sup>7</sup>Your cheeks are like rosy pomegranates
behind your veil.

<sup>8</sup>Even among sixty queens and eighty concubines
and countless young women,

<sup>9</sup>I would still choose my dove, my perfect one—
the favorite of her mother, dearly loved by the one who bore her.

The young women see her and praise her;
even queens and royal concubines sing her praises:

<sup>10</sup>“Who is this, arising like the dawn,
as fair as the moon,
as bright as the sun,
as majestic as an army with billowing banners?”

Young Woman

<sup>11</sup>I went down to the grove of walnut trees and out to the valley to see the new spring growth, to see whether the grapevines had budded or the pomegranates were in bloom.

<sup>12</sup>Before I realized it, my strong desires had taken me to the chariot of a noble man.*

Young Women of Jerusalem

<sup>13</sup>*Return, return to us, O maid of Shulam.

Come back, come back, that we may see you again.

Young Man

Why do you stare at this young woman of Shulam, as she moves so gracefully between two lines of dancers?*

Song of Songs 7

<sup>1</sup>*How beautiful are your sandaled feet,
O queenly maiden.

Your rounded thighs are like jewels,
the work of a skilled craftsman.

<sup>2</sup>Your navel is perfectly formed like a goblet filled with mixed wine.
Between your thighs lies a mound of wheat bordered with lilies.

<sup>3</sup>Your breasts are like two fawns,
twin fawns of a gazelle.

Your eyes are like the sparkling pools in Heshbon
by the gate of Bath-rabbim.

Your nose is as fine as the tower of Lebanon overlooking Damascus.

<sup>5</sup>Your head is as majestic as Mount Carmel,
and the sheen of your hair radiates royalty.
The king is held captive by its tresses.

<sup>6</sup>Oh, how beautiful you are!
How pleasing, my love, how full of delights!

<sup>7</sup>You are slender like a palm tree, and your breasts are like its clusters of fruit.

<sup>8</sup>I said, "I will climb the palm tree and take hold of its fruit."
May your breasts be like grape clusters, and the fragrance of your breath like apples.

<sup>9</sup>May your kisses be as exciting as the best wine, flowing gently over lips and teeth.*

Young Woman

<sup>10</sup>I am my lover's, and he claims me as his own.

<sup>11</sup>Come, my love, let us go out to the fields and spend the night among the wildflowers.*

<sup>12</sup>Let us get up early and go to the vineyards to see if the grapevines have budded, if the blossoms have opened,
and if the pomegranates have bloomed.
There I will give you my love.

<sup>13</sup>There the mandrakes give off their fragrance,
and the finest fruits are at our door,
new delights as well as old,
which I have saved for you, my lover.

Song of Songs 8

Young Woman

<sup>1</sup>Oh, I wish you were my brother, who nursed at my mother's breasts.
Then I could kiss you no matter who was watching,
and no one would criticize me.

<sup>2</sup>I would bring you to my childhood home, and there you would teach me.*
I would give you spiced wine to drink,
my sweet pomegranate wine.

<sup>3</sup>Your left arm would be under my head,
and your right arm would embrace me.

<sup>4</sup>Promise me, O women of Jerusalem,
not to awaken love until the time is right.*

Young Women of Jerusalem

<sup>5</sup>Who is this sweeping in from the desert, leaning on her lover?

Young Woman

I aroused you under the apple tree,
where your mother gave you birth,
where in great pain she delivered you.

<sup>6</sup>Place me like a seal over your heart,
like a seal on your arm.

For love is as strong as death,
its jealousy* as enduring as the grave.*
Love flashes like fire,
the brightest kind of flame.
<sup>7</sup>Many waters cannot quench love,
nor can rivers drown it.
If a man tried to buy love
with all his wealth,
his offer would be utterly scorned.

The Young Woman's Brothers

<sup>8</sup> We have a little sister too young to have breasts.
What will we do for our sister
if someone asks to marry her?
<sup>9</sup>If she is a virgin, like a wall,
we will protect her with a silver tower.
But if she is promiscuous, like a swinging door,
we will block her door with a cedar bar.

Young Woman

<sup>10</sup>I was a virgin, like a wall;
now my breasts are like towers.
When my lover looks at me,
he is delighted with what he sees.

<sup>11</sup>Solomon has a vineyard at Baal-hamon, which he leases out to tenant farmers.
Each of them pays a thousand pieces of silver*
_____

for harvesting its fruit.

<sup>12</sup>But my vineyard is mine to give,
and Solomon need not pay a thousand pieces of silver.
But I will give two hundred pieces to those who care for its vines.

Young Man

<sup>13</sup>O my darling, lingering in the gardens, your companions are fortunate to hear your voice.
Let me hear it, too!

Young Woman

<sup>14</sup>Come away, my love! Be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices.

1:18

“Come now, let’s settle this,”
says the LORD.

“Though your sins are like scarlet,
I will make them as white as snow.
Though they are red like crimson,
I will make them as white as wool.

9:6

For a child is born to us, a son is given to us.
The government will rest on his shoulders.
And he will be called:
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

40:28-31

Have you never heard?
Have you never understood?
The LORD is the everlasting God,
the Creator of all the earth.
He never grows weak or weary.
No one can measure the depths of his understanding.
He gives power to the weak
and strength to the powerless.
Even youths will become weak and tired,
and young men will fall in exhaustion.
But those who trust in the LORD will find new strength.
They will soar high on wings like eagles.
They will run and not grow weary.
They will walk and not faint.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

PRIORITIES.

Some men think serving God is okay, but it's a part-time thing; they give God whatever energy and time they have left after doing what they think is most important. Isaiah lived by a different standard. From the time he answered

God's call, he became consumed with his mission. God's will—whatever it may be—is the only thing worth spending our whole life doing.

Isaiah 1

<sup>1</sup>These are the visions that Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. He saw these visions during the years when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah.*

A Message for Rebellious Judah

<sup>2</sup>Listen, O heavens! Pay attention, earth!

This is what the LORD says:

“The children I raised and cared for have rebelled against me.

<sup>3</sup>Even an ox knows its owner, and a donkey recognizes its master's care—
but Israel doesn't know its master.

My people don't recognize my care for them."

<sup>4</sup>Oh, what a sinful nation they are—loaded down with a burden of guilt.

They are evil people,
corrupt children who have rejected the LORD.
They have despised the Holy One of Israel and turned their backs on him.

<sup>5</sup> Why do you continue to invite punishment?

Must you rebel forever?

Your head is injured,
and your heart is sick.

<sup>6</sup>You are battered from head to foot—covered with bruises, welts, and infected wounds—without any soothing ointments or bandages.

<sup>7</sup>Your country lies in ruins,
and your towns are burned.

Foreigners plunder your fields before your eyes and destroy everything they see.

<sup>8</sup>Beautiful Jerusalem* stands abandoned like a watchman's shelter in a vineyard, like a lean-to in a cucumber field after the harvest,
like a helpless city under siege.

<sup>9</sup> If the LORD of Heaven's Armies had not spared a few of us,* we would have been wiped out like Sodom, destroyed like Gomorrah.

<sup>10</sup> Listen to the LORD, you leaders of "Sodom."

Listen to the law of our God, people of “Gomorrah.”

<sup>11</sup>“What makes you think I want all your sacrifices?”
says the LORD.

“I am sick of your burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fattened cattle.

I get no pleasure from the blood of bulls and lambs and goats.

<sup>12</sup>When you come to worship me, who asked you to parade through my courts with all your ceremony?

<sup>13</sup>Stop bringing me your meaningless gifts;
the incense of your offerings disgusts me!

As for your celebrations of the new moon and the Sabbath and your special days for fasting—they are all sinful and false.

I want no more of your pious meetings.

<sup>14</sup>I hate your new moon celebrations and your annual festivals.

They are a burden to me. I cannot stand them!

<sup>15</sup>When you lift up your hands in prayer, I will not look.
Though you offer many prayers, I will not listen, for your hands are covered with the blood of innocent victims.

<sup>16</sup>Wash yourselves and be clean!

Get your sins out of my sight.

Give up your evil ways.

Seek justice.

Help the oppressed.
Defend the cause of orphans.
Fight for the rights of widows.

<sup>18</sup>“Come now, let’s settle this,”
says the LORD.

“Though your sins are like scarlet,
I will make them as white as snow.
Though they are red like crimson,
I will make them as white as wool.

<sup>19</sup>If you will only obey me,
you will have plenty to eat.

<sup>20</sup>But if you turn away and refuse to listen,
you will be devoured by the sword of your enemies.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Unfaithful Jerusalem

<sup>21</sup>See how Jerusalem, once so faithful, has become a prostitute.

Once the home of justice and righteousness,
she is now filled with murderers.

<sup>22</sup>Once like pure silver,
you have become like worthless slag.

Once so pure,
you are now like watered-down wine.

<sup>23</sup>Your leaders are rebels,
the companions of thieves.

All of them love bribes
and demand payoffs,

but they refuse to defend the cause of orphans or fight for the rights of widows.

A Faithless Land

<sup>24</sup>Therefore, the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the Mighty One of Israel, says,
"I will take revenge on my enemies and pay back my foes!

<sup>25</sup>I will raise my fist against you.
I will melt you down and skim off your slag.
I will remove all your impurities.

<sup>26</sup>Then I will give you good judges again and wise counselors like you used to have.
Then Jerusalem will again be called the Home of Justice and the Faithful City."

<sup>27</sup>Zion will be restored by justice;
those who repent will be revived by righteousness.

<sup>28</sup>But rebels and sinners will be completely destroyed, and those who desert the LORD will be consumed.

<sup>29</sup>You will be ashamed of your idol worship in groves of sacred oaks.

You will blush because you worshiped in gardens dedicated to idols.

<sup>30</sup>You will be like a great tree with withered leaves, like a garden without water.

<sup>31</sup>The strongest among you will disappear like straw;
their evil deeds will be the spark that sets it on fire.
They and their evil works will burn up together,
and no one will be able to put out the fire.

Isaiah 2

The LORD's Future Reign

<sup>2</sup>In the last days, the mountain of the LORD's house
will be the highest of all—
the most important place on earth.
It will be raised above the other hills,
and people from all over the world will stream there to worship.

<sup>3</sup>People from many nations will come and say,
“Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
to the house of Jacob's God.
There he will teach us his ways,
and we will walk in his paths.”

For the LORD's teaching will go out from Zion;
his word will go out from Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD will mediate between nations and will settle international disputes.
They will hammer their swords into plowshares
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will no longer fight against nation,
nor train for war anymore.

A Warning of Judgment

<sup>5</sup>Come, descendants of Jacob, let us walk in the light of the LORD!

<sup>6</sup>For the LORD has rejected his people,
the descendants of Jacob,
because they have filled their land with practices from the East

and with sorcerers, as the Philistines do.
They have made alliances with pagans.

<sup>7</sup>Israel is full of silver and gold;
there is no end to its treasures.
Their land is full of warhorses;
there is no end to its chariots.

<sup>8</sup>Their land is full of idols;
the people worship things they have made with their own hands.

<sup>9</sup>So now they will be humbled, and all will be brought low—
do not forgive them.

<sup>10</sup>Crawl into caves in the rocks.
Hide in the dust
from the terror of the LORD
and the glory of his majesty.

<sup>11</sup>Human pride will be brought down,
and human arrogance will be humbled.
Only the LORD will be exalted
on that day of judgment.

<sup>12</sup>For the LORD of Heaven's Armies has a day of reckoning.

He will punish the proud and mighty and bring down everything that is exalted.

<sup>13</sup>He will cut down the tall cedars of Lebanon and all the mighty oaks of Bashan.

<sup>14</sup>He will level all the high mountains and all the lofty hills.

<sup>15</sup>He will break down every high tower and every fortified wall.

<sup>16</sup>He will destroy all the great trading ships* and every magnificent vessel.

<sup>17</sup>Human pride will be humbled, and human arrogance will be brought down.
Only the LORD will be exalted
on that day of judgment.

<sup>19</sup>When the LORD rises to shake the earth, his enemies will crawl into holes in the ground.
They will hide in caves in the rocks
from the terror of the LORD
and the glory of his majesty.

<sup>20</sup>On that day of judgment they will abandon the gold and silver idols

they made for themselves to worship.

They will leave their gods to the rodents and bats,

<sup>21</sup>while they crawl away into caverns and hide among the jagged rocks in the cliffs.

They will try to escape the terror of the LORD
and the glory of his majesty
as he rises to shake the earth.

They are as frail as breath.

What good are they?

Isaiah 3

Judgment against Judah

<sup>1</sup>The Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, will take away from Jerusalem and Judah everything they depend on:
every bit of bread
and every drop of water, <sup>2</sup>all their heroes and soldiers, judges and prophets,
fortune-tellers and elders, <sup>3</sup>army officers and high officials, advisers, skilled craftsmen, and astrologers.

<sup>4</sup>I will make boys their leaders, and toddlers their rulers.

<sup>5</sup>People will oppress each other—man against man,
neighbor against neighbor.
Young people will insult their elders,
and vulgar people will sneer at the honorable.

“Since you have a coat, you be our leader!
Take charge of this heap of ruins!”

<sup>7</sup>But he will reply,
“No! I can't help.

I don't have any extra food or clothes.
Don't put me in charge!"

<sup>8</sup>For Jerusalem will stumble, and Judah will fall,
because they speak out against the LORD and refuse to obey him.

They provoke him to his face.

<sup>9</sup>The very look on their faces gives them away.
They display their sin like the people of Sodom and don't even try to hide it.
They are doomed!
They have brought destruction upon themselves.

<sup>10</sup>Tell the godly that all will be well for them.
They will enjoy the rich reward they have earned!

<sup>11</sup>But the wicked are doomed,
for they will get exactly what they deserve.

<sup>12</sup>Childish leaders oppress my people,
and women rule over them.
O my people, your leaders mislead you;
they send you down the wrong road.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD takes his place in court and presents his case against his people!

<sup>14</sup>The LORD comes forward to pronounce judgment on the elders and rulers of his people:

“You have ruined Israel, my vineyard.
Your houses are filled with things stolen from the poor.
<sup>15</sup>How dare you crush my people, grinding the faces of the poor into the dust?”
demands the Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

A Warning to Jerusalem

<sup>16</sup>The LORD says, “Beautiful Zion* is haughty:
craning her elegant neck,
flirting with her eyes,
walking with dainty steps,
tinkling her ankle bracelets.
<sup>17</sup>So the Lord will send scabs on her head;
the LORD will make beautiful Zion bald.”

<sup>18</sup>On that day of judgment
the Lord will strip away everything that makes her beautiful:
ornaments, headbands, crescent necklaces,
<sup>19</sup>earrings, bracelets, and veils;
<sup>20</sup>scarves, ankle bracelets, sashes, perfumes, and charms;
<sup>21</sup>rings, jewels,
<sup>22</sup>party clothes, gowns, capes, and purses; <sup>23</sup>mirrors, fine linen garments, head ornaments, and shawls.

<sup>24</sup>Instead of smelling of sweet perfume, she will stink.
She will wear a rope for a sash,

and her elegant hair will fall out.

She will wear rough burlap instead of rich robes.

Shame will replace her beauty.*

<sup>25</sup>The men of the city will be killed with the sword, and her warriors will die in battle.

<sup>26</sup>The gates of Zion will weep and mourn.

The city will be like a ravaged woman,
huddled on the ground.

Isaiah 4

<sup>1</sup>In that day so few men will be left that seven women will fight for each man, saying, “Let us all marry you! We will provide our own food and clothing. Only let us take your name so we won’t be mocked as old maids.”

A Promise of Restoration

<sup>2</sup>But in that day, the branch* of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious;
the fruit of the land will be the pride and glory of all who survive in Israel.

<sup>3</sup>All who remain in Zion will be a holy people—
those who survive the destruction of Jerusalem and are recorded among the living.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord will wash the filth from beautiful Zion*
and cleanse Jerusalem of its bloodstains with the hot breath of fiery judgment.

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD will provide shade for Mount Zion and all who assemble there.

He will provide a canopy of cloud during the day and smoke and flaming fire at night, covering the glorious land.

<sup>6</sup>It will be a shelter from daytime heat and a hiding place from storms and rain.

Isaiah 5

A Song about the LORD's Vineyard

<sup>1</sup>Now I will sing for the one I love
a song about his vineyard:
My beloved had a vineyard
on a rich and fertile hill.

<sup>2</sup>He plowed the land, cleared its stones, and planted it with the best vines.
In the middle he built a watchtower and carved a winepress in the nearby rocks.
Then he waited for a harvest of sweet grapes,
but the grapes that grew were bitter.

<sup>3</sup>Now, you people of Jerusalem and Judah,
you judge between me and my vineyard.

<sup>4</sup>What more could I have done for my vineyard that I have not already done?
When I expected sweet grapes,
why did my vineyard give me bitter grapes?

<sup>5</sup>Now let me tell you what I will do to my vineyard:
I will tear down its hedges and let it be destroyed.
I will break down its walls and let the animals trample it.

<sup>6</sup>I will make it a wild place where the vines are not pruned and the ground is not hoed, a place overgrown with briars and thorns.
I will command the clouds to drop no rain on it.

<sup>7</sup>The nation of Israel is the vineyard of the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

The people of Judah are his pleasant garden.
He expected a crop of justice,
but instead he found oppression.
He expected to find righteousness,
but instead he heard cries of violence.

Judah's Guilt and Judgment

<sup>8</sup>What sorrow for you who buy up house after house and field after field,

until everyone is evicted and you live alone in the land.

<sup>9</sup>But I have heard the LORD of Heaven's Armies swear a solemn oath:

"Many houses will stand deserted;
even beautiful mansions will be empty.

<sup>10</sup>Ten acres * of vineyard will not produce even six gallons * of wine.

Ten baskets of seed will yield only one basket * of grain."

<sup>11</sup>What sorrow for those who get up early in the morning looking for a drink of alcohol and spend long evenings drinking wine to make themselves flaming drunk.

<sup>12</sup>They furnish wine and lovely music at their grand parties—lyre and harp, tambourine and flute—but they never think about the LORD or notice what he is doing.

<sup>13</sup>So my people will go into exile far away because they do not know me.

Those who are great and honored will starve,
and the common people will die of thirst.

<sup>14</sup>The grave* is licking its lips in anticipation, opening its mouth wide.

The great and the lowly and all the drunken mob will be swallowed up.

<sup>15</sup>Humanity will be destroyed, and people brought down;
even the arrogant will lower their eyes in humiliation.

<sup>16</sup>But the LORD of Heaven's Armies will be exalted by his justice.

The holiness of God will be displayed by his righteousness.

<sup>17</sup>In that day lambs will find good pastures, and fattened sheep and young goats* will feed among the ruins.

<sup>18</sup>What sorrow for those who drag their sins behind them with ropes made of lies,
who drag wickedness behind them like a cart!

<sup>19</sup>They even mock God and say, “Hurry up and do something!

We want to see what you can do.
Let the Holy One of Israel carry out his plan, for we want to know what it is.”

<sup>20</sup> What sorrow for those who say that evil is good and good is evil, that dark is light and light is dark,
that bitter is sweet and sweet is bitter.

<sup>21</sup> What sorrow for those who are wise in their own eyes and think themselves so clever.

<sup>22</sup> What sorrow for those who are heroes at drinking wine and boast about all the alcohol they can hold.

<sup>23</sup> They take bribes to let the wicked go free,
and they punish the innocent.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore, just as fire licks up stubble and dry grass shrivels in the flame, so their roots will rot
and their flowers wither.

For they have rejected the law of the LORD of Heaven’s Armies;

they have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>25</sup> That is why the LORD’s anger burns against his people, and why he has raised his fist to crush them.

The mountains tremble,
and the corpses of his people litter the streets like garbage.
But even then the LORD’s anger is not satisfied.
His fist is still poised to strike!

<sup>26</sup>He will send a signal to distant nations far away and whistle to those at the ends of the earth.

They will come racing toward Jerusalem.

<sup>27</sup>They will not get tired or stumble.

They will not stop for rest or sleep.

Not a belt will be loose,
not a sandal strap broken.

<sup>28</sup>Their arrows will be sharp and their bows ready for battle.

Sparks will fly from their horses' hooves, and the wheels of their chariots will spin like a whirlwind.

<sup>29</sup>They will roar like lions,
like the strongest of lions.

Growling, they will pounce on their victims and carry them off,

and no one will be there to rescue them.

<sup>30</sup>They will roar over their victims on that day of destruction like the roaring of the sea.

If someone looks across the land,
only darkness and distress will be seen;
even the light will be darkened by clouds.

Isaiah

Isaiah 6

Isaiah's Cleansing and Call

<sup>1</sup> It was in the year King Uzziah died* that I saw the Lord. He was sitting on a lofty throne, and the train of his robe filled the Temple. <sup>2</sup>Attending him were mighty seraphim, each having six wings. With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. <sup>3</sup>They were calling out to each other, “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of Heaven’s Armies!

The whole earth is filled with his glory!”

<sup>5</sup>Then I said, “It’s all over! I am doomed, for I am a sinful man. I have filthy lips, and I live among a people with filthy lips. Yet I have seen the King, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.”

<sup>6</sup>Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a burning coal he had taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. <sup>7</sup>He touched my lips with it and said, “See, this coal has touched your lips. Now your guilt is removed, and your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>8</sup> Then I heard the Lord asking, “Whom should I send as a messenger to this people? Who will go for us?”

I said, “Here I am. Send me.”

<sup>9</sup> And he said, “Yes, go, and say to this people, ‘Listen carefully, but do not understand.

Watch closely, but learn nothing.’

<sup>10</sup>Harden the hearts of these people.

Plug their ears and shut their eyes.

That way, they will not see with their eyes,

nor hear with their ears,

nor understand with their hearts and turn to me for healing.”*

<sup>11</sup>Then I said, “Lord, how long will this go on?”

And he replied,

“Until their towns are empty,

their houses are deserted,

and the whole country is a wasteland;

<sup>12</sup>until the LORD has sent everyone away, and the entire land of Israel lies deserted.

<sup>13</sup>If even a tenth—a remnant—survive,

it will be invaded again and burned.

But as a terebinth or oak tree leaves a stump when it is cut down, so Israel's stump will be a holy seed."

Isaiah 7

A Message for Ahaz

<sup>1</sup>When Ahaz, son of Jotham and grandson of Uzziah, was king of Judah, King Rezin of Syria* and Pekah son of Remaliah, the king of Israel, set out to attack Jerusalem. However, they were unable to carry out their plan.

<sup>2</sup>The news had come to the royal court of Judah: “Syria is allied with Israel* against us!” So the hearts of the king and his people trembled with fear, like trees shaking in a storm.

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said to Isaiah, “Take your son Shear-jashub* and go out to meet King Ahaz. You will find him at the end of the aqueduct that feeds water into the upper pool, near the road leading to the field where cloth is washed.* <sup>4</sup>Tell him to stop worrying. Tell him he doesn’t need to fear the fierce anger of those two burned-out embers, King Rezin of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah. <sup>5</sup>Yes, the kings of Syria and Israel are plotting against him, saying, <sup>6</sup>“We will attack Judah and capture it for ourselves. Then we will install the son of Tabeel as Judah’s king.” <sup>7</sup>But this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“This invasion will never happen;
it will never take place;

<sup>8</sup>for Syria is no stronger than its capital, Damascus, and Damascus is no stronger than its king, Rezin.
As for Israel, within sixty-five years
it will be crushed and completely destroyed.

<sup>9</sup>Israel is no stronger than its capital, Samaria, and Samaria is no stronger than its king, Pekah son of Remaliah.

Unless your faith is firm,
I cannot make you stand firm.”

The Sign of Immanuel

<sup>10</sup>Later, the LORD sent this message to King Ahaz: <sup>11</sup>“Ask the LORD your God for a sign of confirmation, Ahaz. Make it as difficult as you want—as high as heaven or as deep as the place of the dead.*”

<sup>12</sup>But the king refused. “No,” he said, “I will not test the LORD like that.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Isaiah said, “Listen well, you royal family of David! Isn’t it enough to exhaust human patience? Must you exhaust the patience of my God as well? <sup>14</sup>All right then, the Lord himself will give you the sign. Look! The virgin* will conceive a child! She will give birth to a son and will call him Immanuel (which means ‘God is with us’). <sup>15</sup>By the time this child is old enough to choose what is right and reject what is wrong, he will be eating yogurt* and honey. <sup>16</sup>For before the child is that old, the lands of the two kings you fear so much will both be deserted.

<sup>17</sup> “Then the LORD will bring things on you, your nation, and your family unlike anything since Israel broke away from Judah. He will bring the king of Assyria upon you!”

<sup>18</sup>In that day the LORD will whistle for the army of southern Egypt and for the army of Assyria. They will swarm around you like flies and bees.<sup>19</sup> They will come in vast hordes and settle in the fertile areas and also in the desolate valleys, caves, and thorny places.<sup>20</sup> In that day the Lord will hire a “razor” from beyond the Euphrates River*—the king of Assyria—and use it to shave off everything: your land, your crops, and your people.*

<sup>21</sup>In that day a farmer will be fortunate to have a cow and two sheep or goats left.<sup>22</sup> Nevertheless, there will be enough milk for everyone because so few people will be left in the land. They will eat their fill of yogurt and honey.<sup>23</sup> In that day the lush vineyards, now worth 1,000 pieces of silver,* will become patches of briars and thorns.<sup>24</sup> The entire land will become a vast expanse of briars and thorns, a hunting ground overrun by wildlife.<sup>25</sup> No one will go to the fertile hillsides where the gardens once grew, for briars and thorns will cover them. Cattle, sheep, and goats will graze there.

Isaiah 8

The Coming Assyrian Invasion

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “Make a large signboard and clearly write this name on it: Maher-shalal-hash-baz*.” <sup>2</sup>I asked Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberekiah, both known as honest men, to witness my doing this.

<sup>3</sup>Then I slept with my wife, and she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. And the LORD said, “Call him Maher-shalal-hash-baz. <sup>4</sup>For before this child is old enough to say ‘Papa’ or ‘Mama,’ the king of Assyria will carry away both the abundance of Damascus and the riches of Samaria.”

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD spoke to me again and said, <sup>6</sup>“My care for the people of Judah is like the gently flowing waters of Shiloah, but they have rejected it. They are rejoicing over what will happen to* King Rezin and King Pekah.*” <sup>7</sup>Therefore, the Lord will overwhelm them with a mighty flood from the Euphrates River*—the king of Assyria and all his glory. This flood will overflow all its channels <sup>8</sup>and sweep into Judah until it is chin deep. It will spread its wings, submerging your land from one end to the other, O Immanuel.

Listen, all you distant lands.

Prepare for battle, but you will be crushed!

Yes, prepare for battle, but you will be crushed!

<sup>10</sup>Call your councils of war, but they will be worthless.
Develop your strategies, but they will not succeed.
For God is with us! *”

A Call to Trust the Lord

11 The LORD has given me a strong warning not to think like everyone else does. He said,

<sup>12</sup>“Don’t call everything a conspiracy, like they do,
and don’t live in dread of what frightens them.

<sup>13</sup>Make the LORD of Heaven’s Armies holy in your life.
He is the one you should fear.
He is the one who should make you tremble.

<sup>14</sup>He will keep you safe.
But to Israel and Judah
he will be a stone that makes people stumble,
a rock that makes them fall.

And for the people of Jerusalem
he will be a trap and a snare.

<sup>15</sup>Many will stumble and fall,
never to rise again.
They will be snared and captured.”

<sup>16</sup>Preserve the teaching of God;
entrust his instructions to those who follow me.

<sup>17</sup>I will wait for the LORD, who has turned away from the descendants of Jacob.
I will put my hope in him.

<sup>18</sup>I and the children the LORD has given me serve as signs and warnings to Israel from the LORD of Heaven's Armies who dwells in his Temple on Mount Zion.

<sup>19</sup>Someone may say to you, "Let's ask the mediums and those who consult the spirits of the dead. With their whisperings and mutterings, they will tell us what to do." But shouldn't people ask God for guidance? Should the living seek guidance from the dead?

<sup>20</sup>Look to God's instructions and teachings! People who contradict his word are completely in the dark. <sup>21</sup>They will go from one place to another, weary and hungry. And because they are hungry, they will rage and curse their king and their God. They will look up to heaven <sup>22</sup>and down at the earth, but wherever they look, there will be trouble and anguish and dark despair. They will be thrown out into the darkness.

Isaiah 9

Hope in the Messiah

<sup>1</sup>*Nevertheless, that time of darkness and despair will not go on forever. The land of Zebulun and Naphtali will be humbled, but there will be a time in the future when Galilee of the Gentiles, which lies along the road that runs between the Jordan and the sea, will be filled with glory.

<sup>2</sup>*The people who walk in darkness will see a great light.

For those who live in a land of deep darkness,*
a light will shine.

<sup>3</sup>You will enlarge the nation of Israel, and its people will rejoice.

They will rejoice before you as people rejoice at the harvest and like warriors dividing the plunder.

<sup>4</sup>For you will break the yoke of their slavery and lift the heavy burden from their shoulders.

You will break the oppressor's rod,
just as you did when you destroyed the army of Midian.

<sup>5</sup>The boots of the warrior and the uniforms bloodstained by war will all be burned.

They will be fuel for the fire.

<sup>6</sup>For a child is born to us,
a son is given to us.
The government will rest on his shoulders.
And he will be called:
Wonderful Counselor,* Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

<sup>7</sup>His government and its peace will never end.

He will rule with fairness and justice from the throne of his ancestor David for all eternity.

The passionate commitment of the LORD of Heaven's Armies
will make this happen!

The LORD's Anger against Israel

<sup>8</sup>The Lord has spoken out against Jacob;
his judgment has fallen upon Israel.

<sup>9</sup>And the people of Israel* and Samaria, who spoke with such pride and arrogance,
will soon know it.

<sup>10</sup>They said, "We will replace the broken bricks of our ruins with finished stone, and replant the felled sycamore-fig trees with cedars."

<sup>11</sup>But the LORD will bring Rezin's enemies against Israel and stir up all their foes.

<sup>12</sup>The Syrians* from the east and the Philistines from the west will bare their fangs and devour Israel.

But even then the LORD's anger will not be satisfied.
His fist is still poised to strike.

<sup>13</sup>For after all this punishment, the people will still not repent.
They will not seek the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, in a single day the LORD will destroy both the head and the tail,
the noble palm branch and the lowly reed.

<sup>15</sup>The leaders of Israel are the head, and the lying prophets are the tail.

<sup>16</sup>For the leaders of the people have misled them.
They have led them down the path of destruction.

<sup>17</sup>That is why the Lord takes no pleasure in the young men and shows no mercy even to the widows and orphans.
For they are all wicked hypocrites,
and they all speak foolishness.

But even then the LORD's anger will not be satisfied.
His fist is still poised to strike.

<sup>18</sup>This wickedness is like a brushfire.
It burns not only briars and thorns
but also sets the forests ablaze.
Its burning sends up clouds of smoke.

<sup>19</sup>The land will be blackened
by the fury of the LORD of Heaven's Armies.
The people will be fuel for the fire,
and no one will spare even his own brother.

<sup>20</sup>They will attack their neighbor on the right

but will still be hungry.

They will devour their neighbor on the left but will not be satisfied.

In the end they will even eat their own children.*

<sup>21</sup>Manasseh will feed on Ephraim,

Ephraim will feed on Manasseh, and both will devour Judah.

But even then the LORD's anger will not be satisfied.

His fist is still poised to strike.

Isaiah 10

<sup>1</sup>What sorrow awaits the unjust judges and those who issue unfair laws.

<sup>2</sup>They deprive the poor of justice and deny the rights of the needy among my people.
They prey on widows
and take advantage of orphans.

<sup>3</sup>What will you do when I punish you,
when I send disaster upon you from a distant land?
To whom will you turn for help?
Where will your treasures be safe?

<sup>4</sup>You will stumble along as prisoners or lie among the dead.
But even then the LORD's anger will not be satisfied.
His fist is still poised to strike.

Judgment against Assyria

<sup>5</sup>“What sorrow awaits Assyria, the rod of my anger.
I use it as a club to express my anger.

<sup>6</sup>I am sending Assyria against a godless nation, against a people with whom I am angry.
Assyria will plunder them,
trampling them like dirt beneath its feet.

<sup>7</sup>But the king of Assyria will not understand that he is my tool;
his mind does not work that way.
His plan is simply to destroy,

to cut down nation after nation.

<sup>8</sup>He will say,

‘Each of my princes will soon be a king.

<sup>9</sup>We destroyed Calno just as we did Carchemish.

Hamath fell before us as Arpad did.

And we destroyed Samaria just as we did Damascus.

<sup>10</sup>Yes, we have finished off many a kingdom whose gods were greater than those in Jerusalem and Samaria.

<sup>11</sup>So we will defeat Jerusalem and her gods, just as we destroyed Samaria with hers.’”

<sup>12</sup>After the Lord has used the king of Assyria to accomplish his purposes on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, he will turn against the king of Assyria and punish him—for he is proud and arrogant. <sup>13</sup>He boasts,

“By my own powerful arm I have done this.

With my own shrewd wisdom I planned it.

I have broken down the defenses of nations and carried off their treasures.

I have knocked down their kings like a bull.

<sup>14</sup>I have robbed their nests of riches and gathered up kingdoms as a farmer gathers eggs.

No one can even flap a wing against me or utter a peep of protest.”

<sup>15</sup>But can the ax boast greater power than the person who uses it?

Is the saw greater than the person who saws?

Can a rod strike unless a hand moves it?

Can a wooden cane walk by itself?

<sup>16</sup>Therefore, the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, will send a plague among Assyria's proud troops,
and a flaming fire will consume its glory.

<sup>17</sup>The LORD, the Light of Israel, will be a fire;
the Holy One will be a flame.

He will devour the thorns and briers with fire, burning up the enemy in a single night.

<sup>18</sup>The LORD will consume Assyria's glory like a fire consumes a forest in a fruitful land;
it will waste away like sick people in a plague.

<sup>19</sup>Of all that glorious forest, only a few trees will survive—so few that a child could count them!

Hope for the LORD's People

<sup>20</sup>In that day the remnant left in Israel, the survivors in the house of Jacob, will no longer depend on allies
who seek to destroy them.
But they will faithfully trust the LORD,
the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>21</sup>A remnant will return; yes,
yes, the remnant of Jacob will return to the Mighty God.

<sup>22</sup>But though the people of Israel are as numerous as the sand of the seashore, only a remnant of them will return.

The LORD has rightly decided to destroy his people.

<sup>23</sup>Yes, the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, has already decided to destroy the entire land.*

<sup>24</sup>So this is what the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, says:
"O my people in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrians when they oppress you with rod and club as the Egyptians did long ago. <sup>25</sup>In a little while my anger against you will end, and then my anger will rise up to destroy them." <sup>26</sup>The LORD of Heaven's Armies will lash them with his whip, as he did when Gideon triumphed over the Midianites at the rock of Oreb, or when the LORD's staff was raised to drown the Egyptian army in the sea.

<sup>27</sup>In that day the LORD will end the bondage of his people.
He will break the yoke of slavery and lift it from their shoulders.*

<sup>28</sup>Look, the Assyrians are now at Aiath.
They are passing through Migron and are storing their equipment at Micmash.

<sup>29</sup>They are crossing the pass and are camping at Geba.
Fear strikes the town of Ramah.
All the people of Gibeah, the hometown of Saul,
are running for their lives.

<sup>30</sup>Scream in terror,
you people of Gallim!

Shout out a warning to Laishah.
Oh, poor Anathoth!

<sup>31</sup>There go the people of Madmenah, all fleeing.
The citizens of Gebim are trying to hide.

<sup>32</sup>The enemy stops at Nob for the rest of that day.

He shakes his fist at beautiful Mount Zion, the mountain of Jerusalem.

<sup>33</sup>But look! The Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, will chop down the mighty tree of Assyria with great power!
He will cut down the proud.

That lofty tree will be brought down.

<sup>34</sup>He will cut down the forest trees with an ax.
Lebanon will fall to the Mighty One.*

Isaiah 11

A Branch from David's Line

<sup>1</sup>Out of the stump of David's family* will grow a shoot—
yes, a new Branch bearing fruit from the old root.

<sup>2</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD will rest on him—
the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might,
the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>He will delight in obeying the LORD.
He will not judge by appearance
nor make a decision based on hearsay.

<sup>4</sup>He will give justice to the poor and make fair decisions for the exploited.
The earth will shake at the force of his word,
and one breath from his mouth will destroy the wicked.

<sup>5</sup>He will wear righteousness like a belt and truth like an undergarment.

<sup>6</sup>In that day the wolf and the lamb will live together;
the leopard will lie down with the baby goat.
The calf and the yearling will be safe with the lion, and a little child will lead them all.

<sup>7</sup>The cow will graze near the bear.
The cub and the calf will lie down together.
The lion will eat hay like a cow.

<sup>8</sup>The baby will play safely near the hole of a cobra.

Yes, a little child will put its hand in a nest of deadly snakes without harm.

<sup>9</sup>Nothing will hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain, for as the waters fill the sea,
so the earth will be filled with people who know the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>In that day the heir to David's throne*
will be a banner of salvation to all the world.

The nations will rally to him,
and the land where he lives will be a glorious place.*

<sup>11</sup>In that day the Lord will reach out his hand a second time to bring back the remnant of his people—
those who remain in Assyria and northern Egypt;
in southern Egypt, Ethiopia,* and Elam;
in Babylonia,* Hamath, and all the distant coastlands.

<sup>12</sup>He will raise a flag among the nations and assemble the exiles of Israel.
He will gather the scattered people of Judah from the ends of the earth.

<sup>13</sup>Then at last the jealousy between Israel* and Judah will end.

They will not be rivals anymore.

<sup>14</sup>They will join forces to swoop down on Philistia to the west.

Together they will attack and plunder the nations to the east.
They will occupy the lands of Edom and Moab,
and Ammon will obey them.

<sup>15</sup>The LORD will make a dry path through the gulf of the Red Sea.*

He will wave his hand over the Euphrates River,* sending a mighty wind to divide it into seven streams
so it can easily be crossed on foot.

<sup>16</sup>He will make a highway for the remnant of his people, the remnant coming from Assyria,
just as he did for Israel long ago
when they returned from Egypt.

Songs of Praise for Salvation

<sup>1</sup>In that day you will sing:

“I will praise you, O LORD!

You were angry with me, but not any more.

Now you comfort me.

<sup>2</sup>See, God has come to save me.

I will trust in him and not be afraid.

The LORD GOD is my strength and my song;

he has given me victory.”

<sup>3</sup>With joy you will drink deeply from the fountain of salvation!

<sup>4</sup>In that wonderful day you will sing:

“Thank the LORD! Praise his name!

Tell the nations what he has done.

Let them know how mighty he is!

<sup>5</sup>Sing to the LORD, for he has done wonderful things.

Make known his praise around the world.

For great is the Holy One of Israel who lives among you.”

Isaiah 13

A Message about Babylon

<sup>2</sup>“Raise a signal flag on a bare hilltop.
Call up an army against Babylon.
Wave your hand to encourage them
as they march into the palaces of the high and mighty.
<sup>3</sup>I, the LORD, have dedicated these soldiers for this task.
Yes, I have called mighty warriors to express my anger, and they will rejoice when I am exalted.”

<sup>4</sup>Hear the noise on the mountains!
Listen, as the vast armies march!
It is the noise and shouting of many nations.
The LORD of Heaven’s Armies has called this army together.
<sup>5</sup>They come from distant countries,
from beyond the farthest horizons.
They are the LORD’s weapons to carry out his anger.
With them he will destroy the whole land.

<sup>6</sup>Scream in terror, for the day of the LORD has arrived—the time for the Almighty to destroy.
<sup>7</sup>Every arm is paralyzed with fear.
Every heart melts,

<sup>8</sup>and people are terrified.
Pangs of anguish grip them,
like those of a woman in labor.
They look helplessly at one another,
their faces aflame with fear.

<sup>9</sup>For see, the day of the LORD is coming—
the terrible day of his fury and fierce anger.
The land will be made desolate,
and all the sinners destroyed with it.

<sup>10</sup>The heavens will be black above them;
the stars will give no light.
The sun will be dark when it rises,
and the moon will provide no light.

<sup>11</sup>“I, the LORD, will punish the world for its evil and the wicked for their sin.
I will crush the arrogance of the proud and humble the pride of the mighty.

<sup>12</sup>I will make people scarcer than gold—more rare than the fine gold of Ophir.

<sup>13</sup>For I will shake the heavens.
The earth will move from its place when the LORD of Heaven’s Armies displays his wrath in the day of his fierce anger.”

<sup>14</sup>Everyone in Babylon will run about like a hunted gazelle, like sheep without a shepherd.

They will try to find their own people and flee to their own land.

<sup>15</sup>Anyone who is captured will be cut down—run through with a sword.

<sup>16</sup>Their little children will be dashed to death before their eyes.

Their homes will be sacked, and their wives will be raped.

<sup>17</sup>“Look, I will stir up the Medes against Babylon.
They cannot be tempted by silver or bribed with gold.

<sup>18</sup>The attacking armies will shoot down the young men with arrows.

They will have no mercy on helpless babies and will show no compassion for children.”

<sup>19</sup>Babylon, the most glorious of kingdoms, the flower of Chaldean pride,
will be devastated like Sodom and Gomorrah
when God destroyed them.

<sup>20</sup>Babylon will never be inhabited again.
It will remain empty for generation after generation.
Nomads will refuse to camp there,
and shepherds will not bed down their sheep.

<sup>21</sup>Desert animals will move into the ruined city, and the houses will be haunted by howling creatures.
Owls will live among the ruins,
and wild goats will go there to dance.

<sup>22</sup>Hyenas will howl in its fortresses, and jackals will make dens in its luxurious palaces.
Babylon's days are numbered;
its time of destruction will soon arrive.

Isaiah 14

A Taunt for Babylon's King

<sup>1</sup>But the LORD will have mercy on the descendants of Jacob. He will choose Israel as his special people once again. He will bring them back to settle once again in their own land. And people from many different nations will come and join them there and unite with the people of Israel.* <sup>2</sup>The nations of the world will help the LORD's people to return, and those who come to live in their land will serve them. Those who captured Israel will themselves be captured, and Israel will rule over its enemies.

<sup>3</sup>In that wonderful day when the LORD gives his people rest from sorrow and fear, from slavery and chains, <sup>4</sup>you will taunt the king of Babylon. You will say,

“The mighty man has been destroyed.

Yes, your insolence* is ended.

<sup>5</sup>For the LORD has crushed your wicked power and broken your evil rule.

<sup>7</sup>But finally the earth is at rest and quiet. Now it can sing again!

<sup>8</sup>Even the trees of the forest—

the cypress trees and the cedars of Lebanon—sing out this joyous song:
‘Since you have been cut down,
no one will come now to cut us down!’

<sup>9</sup>“In the place of the dead* there is excitement over your arrival.
The spirits of world leaders and mighty kings long dead stand up to see you.
<sup>10</sup>With one voice they all cry out,
‘Now you are as weak as we are!’
<sup>11</sup>Your might and power were buried with you.*
The sound of the harp in your palace has ceased.
Now maggots are your sheet,
and worms your blanket.’

<sup>12</sup>“How you are fallen from heaven,
O shining star, son of the morning!
You have been thrown down to the earth,
you who destroyed the nations of the world.

<sup>13</sup>For you said to yourself,
‘I will ascend to heaven and set my throne above God’s stars.

I will preside on the mountain of the gods far away in the north.*

<sup>14</sup>I will climb to the highest heavens and be like the Most High.’

<sup>15</sup>Instead, you will be brought down to the place of the dead, down to its lowest depths.

<sup>16</sup>Everyone there will stare at you and ask,
‘Can this be the one who shook the earth and made the kingdoms of the world tremble?

<sup>17</sup>Is this the one who destroyed the world and made it into a wasteland?

Is this the king who demolished the world’s greatest cities and had no mercy on his prisoners?’

<sup>18</sup>“The kings of the nations lie in stately glory,
each in his own tomb,

<sup>19</sup>but you will be thrown out of your grave like a worthless branch.

Like a corpse trampled underfoot,
you will be dumped into a mass grave with those killed in battle.

You will descend to the pit.

<sup>20</sup>You will not be given a proper burial, for you have destroyed your nation and slaughtered your people.

The descendants of such an evil person will never again receive honor.

<sup>21</sup>Kill this man’s children!

Let them die because of their father’s sins!
They must not rise and conquer the earth, filling the world with their cities.”

“I, myself, have risen against Babylon!

I will destroy its children and its children's children,"
says the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>"I will make Babylon a desolate place of owls, filled with swamps and marshes.
I will sweep the land with the broom of destruction.
I, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, have spoken!"

A Message about Assyria

<sup>24</sup>The LORD of Heaven's Armies has sworn this oath:

"It will all happen as I have planned.
It will be as I have decided.

<sup>25</sup>I will break the Assyrians when they are in Israel;
I will trample them on my mountains.
My people will no longer be their slaves
nor bow down under their heavy loads.

<sup>26</sup>I have a plan for the whole earth,
a hand of judgment upon all the nations.

<sup>27</sup>The LORD of Heaven's Armies has spoken—who can change his plans?
When his hand is raised,
who can stop him?"

A Message about Philistia

<sup>29</sup>Do not rejoice, you Philistines, that the rod that struck you is broken—

that the king who attacked you is dead.
For from that snake a more poisonous snake will be born,
a fiery serpent to destroy you!

<sup>30</sup>I will feed the poor in my pasture;
the needy will lie down in peace.

But as for you, I will wipe you out with famine and destroy the few who remain.

Melt with fear, you Philistines!

A powerful army comes like smoke from the north.
Each soldier rushes forward eager to fight.

“The LORD has built Jerusalem*; its walls will give refuge to his oppressed people.”

Isaiah 15

A Message about Moab

<sup>1</sup>This message came to me concerning Moab:

In one night the town of Ar will be leveled,
and the city of Kir will be destroyed.

<sup>2</sup>Your people will go to their temple in Dibon to mourn.
They will go to their sacred shrines to weep.
They will wail for the fate of Nebo and Medeba, shaving their heads in sorrow and cutting off their beards.

<sup>3</sup>They will wear burlap as they wander the streets.
From every home and public square will come the sound of wailing.

<sup>4</sup>The people of Heshbon and Elealeh will cry out;
their voices will be heard as far away as Jahaz!
The bravest warriors of Moab will cry out in utter terror.
They will be helpless with fear.

Its people flee to Zoar and Eglath-shelishiyah.
Weeping, they climb the road to Luhith.
Their cries of distress can be heard all along the road to Horonaim.

<sup>6</sup>Even the waters of Nimrim are dried up!
The grassy banks are scorched.
The tender plants are gone;

nothing green remains.

<sup>7</sup>The people grab their possessions and carry them across the Ravine of Willows.

<sup>8</sup>A cry of distress echoes through the land of Moab from one end to the other—from Eglaim to Beer-elim.

<sup>9</sup>The stream near Dibon* runs red with blood,
but I am still not finished with Dibon!
Lions will hunt down the survivors—both those who try to escape and those who remain behind.

Isaiah 16

<sup>1</sup>Send lambs from Sela as tribute to the ruler of the land.

Send them through the desert to the mountain of beautiful Zion.

<sup>2</sup>The women of Moab are left like homeless birds at the shallow crossings of the Arnon River.

<sup>3</sup>“Help us,” they cry.

“Defend us against our enemies.

Protect us from their relentless attack.

Do not betray us now that we have escaped.

<sup>4</sup>Let our refugees stay among you.

Hide them from our enemies until the terror is past.”

When oppression and destruction have ended and enemy raiders have disappeared,

<sup>5</sup>then God will establish one of David’s descendants as king.

He will rule with mercy and truth.

He will always do what is just and be eager to do what is right.

<sup>6</sup>We have heard about proud Moab—about its pride and arrogance and rage.
But all that boasting has disappeared.

Yes, everyone in Moab mourns for the cakes of raisins from Kir-hareseth.

They are all gone now.

<sup>8</sup>The farms of Heshbon are abandoned;

the vineyards at Sibmah are deserted.

The rulers of the nations have broken down Moab—
that beautiful grapevine.

Its tendrils spread north as far as the town of Jazer and trailed eastward into the wilderness.

Its shoots reached so far west that they crossed over the Dead Sea.*

<sup>9</sup>So now I weep for Jazer and the vineyards of Sibmah;
my tears will flow for Heshbon and Elealeh.

There are no more shouts of joy over your summer fruits and harvest.

<sup>10</sup>Gone now is the gladness, gone the joy of harvest.

There will be no singing in the vineyards,
no more happy shouts,
no treading of grapes in the winepresses.
I have ended all their harvest joys.

I am filled with anguish for Kir-hareseth.*

<sup>12</sup>The people of Moab will worship at their pagan shrines, but it will do them no good.

They will cry to the gods in their temples,
but no one will be able to save them.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD has already said these things about Moab in the past. <sup>14</sup>But now the LORD says, "Within three years, counting each day,* the glory of Moab will be ended. From its great population, only a few of its people will be left alive.”

Isaiah 17

A Message about Damascus and Israel

<sup>1</sup>This message came to me concerning Damascus:

“Look, the city of Damascus will disappear!
It will become a heap of ruins.

<sup>2</sup>The towns of Aroer will be deserted.
Flocks will graze in the streets and lie down undisturbed, with no one to chase them away.

<sup>3</sup>The fortified towns of Israel* will also be destroyed, and the royal power of Damascus will end.
All that remains of Syria* will share the fate of Israel’s departed glory,” declares the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

<sup>4</sup>“In that day Israel’s* glory will grow dim;
its robust body will waste away.

<sup>5</sup>The whole land will look like a grainfield
after the harvesters have gathered the grain.
It will be desolate,
like the fields in the valley of Rephaim after the harvest.

<sup>6</sup>Only a few of its people will be left,
like stray olives left on a tree after the harvest.
Only two or three remain in the highest branches,
four or five scattered here and there on the limbs,” declares the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>Then at last the people will look to their Creator and turn their eyes to the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>They will no longer look to their idols for help or worship what their own hands have made.
They will never again bow down to their Asherah poles or worship at the pagan shrines they have built.

<sup>9</sup>Their largest cities will be like a deserted forest, like the land the Hivites and Amorites abandoned*
when the Israelites came here so long ago.

It will be utterly desolate.

<sup>10</sup>Why? Because you have turned from the God who can save you.

You have forgotten the Rock who can hide you.
So you may plant the finest grapevines and import the most expensive seedlings.

<sup>11</sup>They may sprout on the day you set them out;
yes, they may blossom on the very morning you plant them,
but you will never pick any grapes from them.
Your only harvest will be a load of grief and unrelieved pain.

<sup>12</sup>Listen! The armies of many nations roar like the roaring of the sea.
Hear the thunder of the mighty forces
as they rush forward like thundering waves.

<sup>13</sup>But though they thunder like breakers on a beach,
God will silence them, and they will run away.
They will flee like chaff scattered by the wind,
like a tumbleweed whirling before a storm.

<sup>14</sup>In the evening Israel waits in terror,
but by dawn its enemies are dead.
This is the just reward of those who plunder us,
a fitting end for those who destroy us.

Isaiah 18

A Message about Ethiopia

<sup>1</sup>Listen, Ethiopia*—land of fluttering sails* that lies at the headwaters of the Nile, <sup>2</sup>that sends ambassadors in swift boats down the river.

Go, swift messengers!
Take a message to a tall, smooth-skinned people,
who are feared far and wide
for their conquests and destruction, and whose land is divided by rivers.

<sup>3</sup>All you people of the world,
everyone who lives on the earth—
when I raise my battle flag on the mountain, look!
When I blow the ram's horn, listen!

<sup>4</sup>For the LORD has told me this:
“I will watch quietly from my dwelling place—
as quietly as the heat rises on a summer day, or as the morning dew forms during the harvest.”

<sup>5</sup>Even before you begin your attack, while your plans are ripening like grapes,
the LORD will cut off your new growth with pruning shears.
He will snip off and discard your spreading branches.

<sup>6</sup>Your mighty army will be left dead in the fields for the mountain vultures and wild animals.

The vultures will tear at the corpses all summer.
The wild animals will gnaw at the bones all winter.

<sup>2</sup> At that time the LORD of Heaven's Armies will receive gifts from this land divided by rivers, from this tall, smooth-skinned people, who are feared far and wide for their conquests and
destruction.
They will bring the gifts to Jerusalem,*
where the LORD of Heaven's Armies dwells.

Isaiah 19

A Message about Egypt

<sup>1</sup>This message came to me concerning Egypt:

Look! The LORD is advancing against Egypt, riding on a swift cloud.

The idols of Egypt tremble.

The hearts of the Egyptians melt with fear.

<sup>2</sup>“I will make Egyptian fight against Egyptian—brother against brother,
neighbor against neighbor,
city against city,
province against province.

<sup>3</sup>The Egyptians will lose heart,
and I will confuse their plans.
They will plead with their idols for wisdom and call on spirits, mediums, and those who consult the spirits of the dead.

<sup>4</sup>I will hand Egypt over to a hard, cruel master.
A fierce king will rule them,”
says the Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

<sup>5</sup>The waters of the Nile will fail to rise and flood the fields.
The riverbed will be parched and dry.

<sup>6</sup>The canals of the Nile will dry up, and the streams of Egypt will stink with rotting reeds and rushes.

<sup>7</sup>All the greenery along the riverbank and all the crops along the river will dry up and blow away.

<sup>8</sup>The fishermen will lament for lack of work.
Those who cast hooks into the Nile will groan,
and those who use nets will lose heart.

<sup>9</sup>There will be no flax for the harvesters, no thread for the weavers.

<sup>10</sup>They will be in despair, and all the workers will be sick at heart.

<sup>11</sup> What fools are the officials of Zoan!
Their best counsel to the king of Egypt is stupid and wrong.
Will they still boast to Pharaoh of their wisdom?
Will they dare brag about all their wise ancestors?

Let them tell you what God plans,
what the LORD of Heaven's Armies is going to do to Egypt.

<sup>13</sup>The officials of Zoan are fools, and the officials of Memphis* are deluded.
The leaders of the people have led Egypt astray.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD has sent a spirit of foolishness on them, so all their suggestions are wrong.
They cause Egypt to stagger like a drunk in his vomit.

<sup>15</sup>There is nothing Egypt can do.

All are helpless—

the head and the tail,

the noble palm branch and the lowly reed.

<sup>16</sup>In that day the Egyptians will be as weak as women. They will cower in fear beneath the upraised fist of the LORD of Heaven's Armies. <sup>17</sup>Just to speak the name of Israel will terrorize them, for the LORD of Heaven's Armies has laid out his plans against them.

<sup>18</sup>In that day five of Egypt's cities will follow the LORD of Heaven's Armies. They will even begin to speak Hebrew, the language of Canaan. One of these cities will be Heliopolis, the City of the Sun.*

<sup>19</sup>In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the heart of Egypt, and there will be a monument to the LORD at its border.

<sup>20</sup>It will be a sign and a witness that the LORD of Heaven's Armies is worshiped in the land of Egypt. When the people cry to the LORD for help against those who oppress them, he will send them a savior who will rescue them. <sup>21</sup>The LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians. Yes, they will know the LORD and will give their sacrifices and offerings to him. They will make a vow to the LORD and will keep it. <sup>22</sup>The LORD will strike Egypt, and then he will bring healing. For the Egyptians will turn to the LORD, and he will listen to their pleas and heal them.

<sup>23</sup>In that day Egypt and Assyria will be connected by a highway. The Egyptians and Assyrians will move freely between their lands, and they will both worship God.<sup>24</sup> And Israel will be their ally. The three will be together, and Israel will be a blessing to them.<sup>25</sup> For the LORD of Heaven's Armies will say, "Blessed be Egypt, my people. Blessed be Assyria, the land I have made. Blessed be Israel, my special possession!"

Isaiah 20

A Message about Egypt and Ethiopia

<sup>1</sup>In the year when King Sargon of Assyria sent his commander in chief to capture the Philistine city of Ashdod,* <sup>2</sup>the LORD told Isaiah son of Amoz, “Take off the burlap you have been wearing, and remove your sandals.” Isaiah did as he was told and walked around naked and barefoot.

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said, “My servant Isaiah has been walking around naked and barefoot for the last three years. This is a sign—a symbol of the terrible troubles I will bring upon Egypt and Ethiopia.* <sup>4</sup>For the king of Assyria will take away the Egyptians and Ethiopians* as prisoners. He will make them walk naked and barefoot, both young and old, their buttocks bared, to the shame of Egypt. <sup>5</sup>Then the Philistines will be thrown into panic, for they counted on the power of Ethiopia and boasted of their allies in Egypt! <sup>6</sup>They will say, ‘If this can happen to Egypt, what chance do we have? We were counting on Egypt to protect us from the king of Assyria.’”

Isaiah 21

A Message about Babylon

<sup>1</sup>This message came to me concerning Babylon—the desert by the sea*:

Disaster is roaring down on you from the desert,
like a whirlwind sweeping in from the Negev.

<sup>2</sup>I see a terrifying vision:

I see the betrayer betraying,
the destroyer destroying.

Go ahead, you Elamites and Medes, attack and lay siege.

I will make an end

to all the groaning Babylon caused.

<sup>3</sup>My stomach aches and burns with pain.

Sharp pangs of anguish are upon me,
like those of a woman in labor.

I grow faint when I hear what God is planning;

I am too afraid to look.

<sup>4</sup>My mind reels and my heart races.

I longed for evening to come,
but now I am terrified of the dark.

<sup>5</sup>Look! They are preparing a great feast.

They are spreading rugs for people to sit on.
Everyone is eating and drinking.

But quick! Grab your shields and prepare for battle.
You are being attacked!

<sup>6</sup>Meanwhile, the Lord said to me, “Put a watchman on the city wall.
Let him shout out what he sees.
<sup>7</sup>He should look for chariots drawn by pairs of horses,
and for riders on donkeys and camels.
Let the watchman be fully alert.”

<sup>8</sup>Then the watchman* called out,
“Day after day I have stood on the watchtower, my lord.
Night after night I have remained at my post.

<sup>9</sup>Now at last—look!
Here comes a man in a chariot with a pair of horses!”

Then the watchman said, “Babylon is fallen, fallen!
All the idols of Babylon lie broken on the ground!”

<sup>10</sup>O my people, threshed and winnowed,
I have told you everything the LORD of Heaven’s Armies has said,
everything the God of Israel has told me.

A Message about Edom

<sup>11</sup>This message came to me concerning Edom*:

Someone from Edom* keeps calling to me, “Watchman, how much longer until morning?
When will the night be over?”
<sup>12</sup>The watchman replies, “Morning is coming, but night will soon return.
If you wish to ask again, then come back and ask.”

A Message about Arabia

<sup>13</sup>This message came to me concerning Arabia:

O caravans from Dedan, hide in the deserts of Arabia.
<sup>14</sup>O people of Tema, bring water to these thirsty people,
food to these weary refugees.
<sup>15</sup>They have fled from the sword,
from the drawn sword,
from the bent bow
and the terrors of battle.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord said to me, “Within a year, counting each day, * all the glory of Kedar will come to an end. <sup>17</sup>Only a few of its courageous archers will survive. I, the LORD, the God of Israel, have spoken!”

Isaiah 22

A Message about Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> This message came to me concerning Jerusalem—the Valley of Vision*:

What is happening?

Why is everyone running to the rooftops?

<sup>2</sup>The whole city is in a terrible uproar.

What do I see in this reveling city?

Bodies are lying everywhere,

killed not in battle but by famine and disease.

<sup>3</sup>All your leaders have fled.

They surrendered without resistance.

The people tried to slip away,

but they were captured, too.

<sup>4</sup>That's why I said, "Leave me alone to weep;

do not try to comfort me.

Let me cry for my people

as I watch them being destroyed."

<sup>5</sup>Oh, what a day of crushing defeat!

What a day of confusion and terror brought by the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, upon the Valley of Vision!

The walls of Jerusalem have been broken, and cries of death echo from the mountainsides.

<sup>6</sup>Elamites are the archers, with their chariots and charioteers.
The men of Kir hold up the shields.

<sup>7</sup>Chariots fill your beautiful valleys,
and charioteers storm your gates.

<sup>8</sup>Judah's defenses have been stripped away.
You run to the armory* for your weapons.

You store up water in the lower pool.

<sup>10</sup>You survey the houses and tear some down for stone to strengthen the walls.

<sup>11</sup>Between the city walls, you build a reservoir for water from the old pool.

But you never ask for help from the One who did all this.
You never considered the One who planned this long ago.

<sup>12</sup> At that time the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, called you to weep and mourn.
He told you to shave your heads in sorrow for your sins and to wear clothes of burlap to show your remorse.

<sup>13</sup>But instead, you dance and play;
you slaughter cattle and kill sheep.
You feast on meat and drink wine.
You say, "Let's feast and drink,
for tomorrow we die!"

<sup>14</sup>The LORD of Heaven's Armies has revealed this to me: "Till the day you die, you will never be forgiven for this sin." That is the judgment of the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

A Message for Shebna

<sup>15</sup>This is what the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, said to me: "Confront Shebna, the palace administrator, and give him this message:

<sup>16</sup>"Who do you think you are,
and what are you doing here,
building a beautiful tomb for yourself—
a monument high up in the rock?

<sup>17</sup>For the LORD is about to hurl you away, mighty man.

He is going to grab you,

<sup>18</sup>crumple you into a ball,

and toss you away into a distant, barren land.

There you will die,

and your glorious chariots will be broken and useless.

You are a disgrace to your master!

<sup>19</sup>"Yes, I will drive you out of office," says the LORD. "I will pull you down from your high position. <sup>20</sup>And then I will call my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah to replace you. <sup>21</sup>I will dress him in your royal robes and will give him your title and your authority. And he will be a father to the people of Jerusalem and Judah. <sup>22</sup>I will give him the key to the house of David—the highest position in the royal court. When he opens doors, no one will be able to close them; when he closes doors, no one will be able to open them. <sup>23</sup>He will bring honor to his family name, for I will drive him firmly in place like a nail in the wall.

<sup>24</sup>They will give him great responsibility, and he will bring honor to even the lowliest members of his family.*”

<sup>25</sup>But the LORD of Heaven's Armies also says: “The time will come when I will pull out the nail that seemed so firm. It will come out and fall to the ground. Everything it supports will fall with it. I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Isaiah 23

A Message about Tyre

<sup>1</sup> This message came to me concerning Tyre:

Weep, O ships of Tarshish,
for the harbor and houses of Tyre are gone!
The rumors you heard in Cyprus*
are all true.

<sup>2</sup> Mourn in silence, you people of the coast and you merchants of Sidon.

Your traders crossed the sea,

<sup>3</sup> sailing over deep waters.

They brought you grain from Egypt*
and harvests from along the Nile.

You were the marketplace of the world.

<sup>4</sup> But now you are put to shame, city of Sidon, for Tyre, the fortress of the sea, says,

“Now I am childless;

I have no sons or daughters.”

<sup>5</sup> When Egypt hears the news about Tyre, there will be great sorrow.

Wail, you people who live in distant lands!

What a long history was yours!

Think of all the colonists you sent to distant places.

<sup>8</sup>Who has brought this disaster on Tyre, that great creator of kingdoms?

Her traders were all princes,
her merchants were nobles.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD of Heaven's Armies has done it to destroy your pride and bring low all earth's nobility.

<sup>10</sup>Come, people of Tarshish, sweep over the land like the flooding Nile,
for Tyre is defenseless.*

<sup>11</sup>The LORD held out his hand over the sea and shook the kingdoms of the earth.
He has spoken out against Phoenicia,* ordering that her fortresses be destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>He says, "Never again will you rejoice,
O daughter of Sidon, for you have been crushed.
Even if you flee to Cyprus,
you will find no rest."

<sup>13</sup>Look at the land of Babylonia*—
the people of that land are gone!
The Assyrians have handed Babylon over to the wild animals of the desert.
They have built siege ramps against its walls, torn down its palaces,
and turned it to a heap of rubble.

<sup>14</sup>Wail, O ships of Tarshish,
for your harbor is destroyed!

<sup>15</sup>For seventy years, the length of a king's life, Tyre will be forgotten. But then the city will come back to life as in the song about the prostitute:

<sup>16</sup>Take a harp and walk the streets, you forgotten harlot.
Make sweet melody and sing your songs so you will be remembered again.

<sup>17</sup>Yes, after seventy years the LORD will revive Tyre. But she will be no different than she was before. She will again be a prostitute to all kingdoms around the world. <sup>18</sup>But in the end her profits will be given to the LORD. Her wealth will not be hoarded but will provide good food and fine clothing for the LORD's priests.

Isaiah 24

Destruction of the Earth

<sup>1</sup>Look! The LORD is about to destroy the earth and make it a vast wasteland.

He devastates the surface of the earth and scatters the people.

<sup>2</sup>Priests and laypeople, servants and masters,
maids and mistresses,
buyers and sellers,
lenders and borrowers,
bankers and debtors—none will be spared.

<sup>3</sup>The earth will be completely emptied and looted.
The LORD has spoken!

<sup>4</sup>The earth mourns and dries up,
and the crops waste away and wither.
Even the greatest people on earth waste away.

<sup>5</sup>The earth suffers for the sins of its people, for they have twisted God's instructions, violated his laws,
and broken his everlasting covenant.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, a curse consumes the earth.
Its people must pay the price for their sin.
They are destroyed by fire,
and only a few are left alive.

<sup>7</sup>The grapevines waste away,
and there is no new wine.

All the merry-makers sigh and mourn.

<sup>8</sup>The cheerful sound of tambourines is stilled;
the happy cries of celebration are heard no more.
The melodious chords of the harp are silent.

<sup>9</sup>Gone are the joys of wine and song;
alcoholic drink turns bitter in the mouth.

<sup>10</sup>The city writhes in chaos;
every home is locked to keep out intruders.

Joy has turned to gloom.
Gladness has been banished from the land.

<sup>12</sup>The city is left in ruins,
its gates battered down.

<sup>13</sup>Throughout the earth the story is the same—only a remnant is left,
like the stray olives left on the tree or the few grapes left on the vine after harvest.

<sup>14</sup>But all who are left shout and sing for joy.
Those in the west praise the LORD's majesty.

<sup>15</sup>In eastern lands, give glory to the LORD.
In the lands beyond the sea, praise the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>16</sup>We hear songs of praise from the ends of the earth, songs that give glory to the Righteous One!

But my heart is heavy with grief.
Weep for me, for I wither away.
Deceit still prevails,
and treachery is everywhere.

<sup>17</sup> Terror and traps and snares will be your lot,
you people of the earth.

<sup>18</sup> Those who flee in terror will fall into a trap,
and those who escape the trap will be caught in a snare.

Destruction falls like rain from the heavens;
the foundations of the earth shake.

<sup>19</sup> The earth has broken up.
It has utterly collapsed;
it is violently shaken.

<sup>20</sup> The earth staggers like a drunk.
It trembles like a tent in a storm.
It falls and will not rise again,
for the guilt of its rebellion is very heavy.

<sup>21</sup> In that day the LORD will punish the gods in the heavens and the proud rulers of the nations on earth.

<sup>22</sup> They will be rounded up and put in prison.
They will be shut up in prison and will finally be punished.

<sup>23</sup> Then the glory of the moon will wane,
and the brightness of the sun will fade,
for the LORD of Heaven's Armies will rule on Mount Zion.
He will rule in great glory in Jerusalem,
in the sight of all the leaders of his people.

Isaiah 25

Praise for Judgment and Salvation

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, I will honor and praise your name, for you are my God.

You do such wonderful things!

You planned them long ago,
and now you have accomplished them.

<sup>2</sup>You turn mighty cities into heaps of ruins.
Cities with strong walls are turned to rubble.
Beautiful palaces in distant lands disappear and will never be rebuilt.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore, strong nations will declare your glory;
ruthless nations will fear you.

<sup>4</sup>But you are a tower of refuge to the poor, O LORD,
a tower of refuge to the needy in distress.

You are a refuge from the storm and a shelter from the heat.

For the oppressive acts of ruthless people are like a storm beating against a wall,

<sup>5</sup>or like the relentless heat of the desert.

But you silence the roar of foreign nations.
As the shade of a cloud cools relentless heat,
so the boastful songs of ruthless people are stilled.

<sup>6</sup>In Jerusalem, * the LORD of Heaven's Armies will spread a wonderful feast for all the people of the world.

It will be a delicious banquet with clear, well-aged wine and choice meat.
<sup>7</sup>There he will remove the cloud of gloom,
the shadow of death that hangs over the earth.
<sup>8</sup>He will swallow up death forever! *
The Sovereign LORD will wipe away all tears.
He will remove forever all insults and mockery against his land and people.
The LORD has spoken!

<sup>9</sup>In that day the people will proclaim,
“This is our God!
We trusted in him, and he saved us!
This is the LORD, in whom we trusted.
Let us rejoice in the salvation he brings!”
<sup>10</sup>For the LORD’s hand of blessing will rest on Jerusalem.
But Moab will be crushed.
It will be like straw trampled down and left to rot.
<sup>11</sup>God will push down Moab’s people as a swimmer pushes down water with his hands.
He will end their pride and all their evil works.
<sup>12</sup>The high walls of Moab will be demolished.
They will be brought down to the ground,
down into the dust.

Isaiah 26

A Song of Praise to the LORD

<sup>1</sup>In that day, everyone in the land of Judah will sing this song:

Our city is strong!

We are surrounded by the walls of God's salvation.

<sup>2</sup>Open the gates to all who are righteous;
allow the faithful to enter.

<sup>3</sup>You will keep in perfect peace
all who trust in you,
all whose thoughts are fixed on you!

<sup>4</sup>Trust in the LORD always,
for the LORD GOD is the eternal Rock.

<sup>5</sup>He humbles the proud and brings down the arrogant city.
He brings it down to the dust.

<sup>6</sup>The poor and oppressed trample it underfoot,
and the needy walk all over it.

<sup>7</sup>But for those who are righteous, the way is not steep and rough.
You are a God who does what is right,
and you smooth out the path ahead of them.

<sup>8</sup>LORD, we show our trust in you by obeying your laws;
our heart's desire is to glorify your name.

<sup>9</sup>All night long I search for you;
in the morning I earnestly seek for God.
For only when you come to judge the earth will people learn what is right.

<sup>10</sup>Your kindness to the wicked does not make them do good.
Although others do right, the wicked keep doing wrong and take no notice of the LORD's majesty.

<sup>11</sup>O LORD, they pay no attention to your upraised fist.
Show them your eagerness to defend your people.
Then they will be ashamed.
Let your fire consume your enemies.

<sup>12</sup>LORD, you will grant us peace;
all we have accomplished is really from you.

<sup>13</sup>O LORD our God, others have ruled us, but you alone are the one we worship.

<sup>14</sup>Those we served before are dead and gone.
Their departed spirits will never return!
You attacked them and destroyed them,
and they are long forgotten.

<sup>15</sup>O LORD, you have made our nation great;
yes, you have made us great.
You have extended our borders,
and we give you the glory!

<sup>16</sup>LORD, in distress we searched for you.
We prayed beneath the burden of your discipline.

<sup>17</sup>Just as a pregnant woman writhes and cries out in pain as she gives birth, so were we in your presence, LORD.

<sup>18</sup>We, too, writhe in agony,
but nothing comes of our suffering.
We have not given salvation to the earth,
nor brought life into the world.

<sup>19</sup>But those who die in the LORD will live;
their bodies will rise again!
Those who sleep in the earth will rise up and sing for joy!
For your life-giving light will fall like dew on your people in the place of the dead!

Restoration for Israel

<sup>20</sup>Go home, my people, and lock your doors!
Hide yourselves for a little while until the LORD's anger has passed.

<sup>21</sup>Look! The LORD is coming from heaven to punish the people of the earth for their sins.
The earth will no longer hide those who have been killed.
They will be brought out for all to see.

Isaiah 27

<sup>1</sup> In that day the LORD will take his terrible, swift sword and punish Leviathan,* the swiftly moving serpent, the coiling, writhing serpent. He will kill the dragon of the sea.

<sup>2</sup> “In that day,
sing about the fruitful vineyard.

<sup>3</sup> I, the LORD, will watch over it, watering it carefully.

Day and night I will watch so no one can harm it.

<sup>4</sup> My anger will be gone.

If I find briars and thorns growing,

I will attack them;

I will burn them up—

<sup>5</sup> unless they turn to me for help.

Let them make peace with me;
yes, let them make peace with me.”

<sup>6</sup> The time is coming when Jacob’s descendants will take root.

Israel will bud and blossom and fill the whole earth with fruit!

<sup>7</sup> Has the LORD struck Israel

as he struck her enemies?

Has he punished her

as he punished them?

<sup>8</sup> No, but he exiled Israel to call her to account.

She was exiled from her land

as though blown away in a storm from the east.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD did this to purge Israel's * wickedness, to take away all her sin.

As a result, all the pagan altars will be crushed to dust.
No Asherah pole or pagan shrine will be left standing.

<sup>10</sup>The fortified towns will be silent and empty, the houses abandoned, the streets overgrown with weeds.
Calves will graze there,
chewing on twigs and branches.

<sup>11</sup>The people are like the dead branches of a tree, broken off and used for kindling beneath the cooking pots.
Israel is a foolish and stupid nation,
for its people have turned away from God.
Therefore, the one who made them will show them no pity or mercy.

<sup>12</sup>Yet the time will come when the LORD will gather them together like handpicked grain. One by one he will gather them —from the Euphrates River * in the east to the Brook of Egypt in the west. <sup>13</sup>In that day the great trumpet will sound. Many who were dying in exile in Assyria and Egypt will return to Jerusalem to worship the LORD on his holy mountain.

Isaiah 28

A Message about Samaria

<sup>1</sup>What sorrow awaits the proud city of Samaria—the glorious crown of the drunks of Israel.*

It sits at the head of a fertile valley,
but its glorious beauty will fade like a flower.

It is the pride of a people brought down by wine.

<sup>2</sup>For the Lord will send a mighty army against it.
Like a mighty hailstorm and a torrential rain, they will burst upon it like a surging flood and smash it to the ground.

<sup>3</sup>The proud city of Samaria—
the glorious crown of the drunks of Israel*—
will be trampled beneath its enemies' feet.

<sup>4</sup>It sits at the head of a fertile valley,
but its glorious beauty will fade like a flower.

Whoever sees it will snatch it up,
as an early fig is quickly picked and eaten.

<sup>5</sup>Then at last the LORD of Heaven's Armies will himself be Israel's glorious crown.
He will be the pride and joy of the remnant of his people.

<sup>6</sup>He will give a longing for justice to their judges.

He will give great courage to their warriors who stand at the gates.

<sup>7</sup>Now, however, Israel is led by drunks who reel with wine and stagger with alcohol.
The priests and prophets stagger with alcohol and lose themselves in wine.

They reel when they see visions and stagger as they render decisions.

<sup>8</sup>Their tables are covered with vomit;
filth is everywhere.

<sup>9</sup>“Who does the LORD think we are?” they ask.

“Why does he speak to us like this?

Are we little children,
just recently weaned?

<sup>10</sup>He tells us everything over and over—
one line at a time,
one line at a time,
a little here,
and a little there!”

<sup>11</sup>So now God will have to speak to his people through foreign oppressors who speak a strange language!

<sup>12</sup>God has told his people,

“Here is a place of rest;
let the weary rest here.

This is a place of quiet rest.”

But they would not listen.

<sup>13</sup>So the LORD will spell out his message for them again,

one line at a time,
one line at a time,
a little here,
and a little there,
so that they will stumble and fall.
They will be injured, trapped, and captured.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, listen to this message from the LORD, you scoffing rulers in Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>You boast, “We have struck a bargain to cheat death and have made a deal to dodge the grave.*
The coming destruction can never touch us, for we have built a strong refuge made of lies and deception.”

<sup>16</sup>Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says:
“Look! I am placing a foundation stone in Jerusalem,* a firm and tested stone.
It is a precious cornerstone that is safe to build on.
Whoever believes need never be shaken.*

SOMEBODY'S COMING...

Seven centuries after Isaiah, Jesus the Messiah showed up, fulfilling these detailed predictions. (Major prophecies appear in bold type.)

6:9-10	The Messiah will puzzle his listeners, of whom some will be turned off.
7:13-14	His mother will be a virgin! She'll call him Immanuel.
8:14	The Jews will stumble over him.
9:1-7	He will bring great light and liberation, especially in Galilee.
11:1-10	He will be anointed by the Holy Spirit. He will make perfect decisions, resulting in peace.
28:16	He will be like a firm cornerstone (see 1 Peter 2:4-6).
35:5-6	He will heal the disabled.
40:3	A forerunner will announce him.
40:11	He will be caring and gentle like a shepherd.
42:1-7	He will be sensitive, fair, and illuminating.
49:1-7	He will be God's unique messenger.
52-53	He will suffer an excruciating death in order to pay for our sins.
59:20	He will show up in Jerusalem as a Redeemer.
61:1-3	He will bring good news to the oppressed.

<sup>17</sup>I will test you with the measuring line of justice and the plumb line of righteousness.

Since your refuge is made of lies,
a hailstorm will knock it down.

Since it is made of deception,
a flood will sweep it away.

<sup>18</sup>I will cancel the bargain you made to cheat death, and I will overturn your deal to dodge the grave.
When the terrible enemy sweeps through,
you will be trampled into the ground.

<sup>19</sup>Again and again that flood will come,
morning after morning,
day and night,
until you are carried away.”

This message will bring terror to your people.

<sup>20</sup>The bed you have made is too short to lie on.
The blankets are too narrow to cover you.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD will come as he did against the Philistines at Mount Perazim
and against the Amorites at Gibeon.
He will come to do a strange thing;
he will come to do an unusual deed:

<sup>22</sup>For the Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, has plainly said that he is determined to crush the whole
land.

So scoff no more,
or your punishment will be even greater.

<sup>23</sup>Listen to me;
listen, and pay close attention.

<sup>24</sup>Does a farmer always plow and never sow?
Is he forever cultivating the soil and never planting?

<sup>25</sup>Does he not finally plant his seeds—

black cumin, cumin, wheat, barley, and emmer wheat—
each in its proper way,
and each in its proper place?

<sup>26</sup>The farmer knows just what to do, for God has given him understanding.

<sup>27</sup>A heavy sledge is never used to thresh black cumin;
rather, it is beaten with a light stick.
A threshing wheel is never rolled on cumin;
instead, it is beaten lightly with a flail.

<sup>28</sup>Grain for bread is easily crushed,
so he doesn't keep on pounding it.
He threshes it under the wheels of a cart,
but he doesn't pulverize it.

<sup>29</sup>The LORD of Heaven's Armies is a wonderful teacher, and he gives the farmer great wisdom.

Isaiah 29

A Message about Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>“What sorrow awaits Ariel,* the City of David.
Year after year you celebrate your feasts.

<sup>2</sup>Yet I will bring disaster upon you,
and there will be much weeping and sorrow.
For Jerusalem will become what her name Ariel means—an altar covered with blood.

<sup>3</sup>I will be your enemy, surrounding Jerusalem and attacking its walls.
I will build siege towers and destroy it.

<sup>4</sup>Then deep from the earth you will speak;
from low in the dust your words will come.
Your voice will whisper from the ground like a ghost conjured up from the grave.

<sup>5</sup>“But suddenly, your ruthless enemies will be crushed like the finest of dust.
Your many attackers will be driven away
like chaff before the wind.

Suddenly, in an instant,
<sup>6</sup>I, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, will act for you with thunder and earthquake and great noise, with whirlwind and storm and consuming fire.

<sup>7</sup>All the nations fighting against Jerusalem*

will vanish like a dream!

Those who are attacking her walls will vanish like a vision in the night.

<sup>8</sup>A hungry person dreams of eating but wakes up still hungry.

A thirsty person dreams of drinking but is still faint from thirst when morning comes.

So it will be with your enemies, with those who attack Mount Zion.”

<sup>9</sup>Are you amazed and incredulous?

Don't you believe it?

Then go ahead and be blind.

You are stupid, but not from wine!

You stagger, but not from liquor!

<sup>10</sup>For the LORD has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep.

He has closed the eyes of your prophets and visionaries.

<sup>11</sup>All the future events in this vision are like a sealed book to them. When you give it to those who can read, they will say, “We can't read it because it is sealed.” <sup>12</sup>When you give it to those who cannot read, they will say, “We don't know how to read.”

<sup>13</sup>And so the Lord says,

“These people say they are mine.

They honor me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me.

And their worship of me

is nothing but man-made rules learned by rote.*

<sup>14</sup>Because of this, I will once again astound these hypocrites with amazing wonders.

The wisdom of the wise will pass away,
and the intelligence of the intelligent will disappear.”

<sup>15</sup> What sorrow awaits those who try to hide their plans from the LORD, who do their evil deeds in the dark!

“The LORD can’t see us,” they say.

“He doesn’t know what’s going on!”

<sup>16</sup>How foolish can you be?

He is the Potter, and he is certainly greater than you, the clay!

Should the created thing say of the one who made it,

“He didn’t make me”?

Does a jar ever say,

“The potter who made me is stupid”?

<sup>17</sup>Soon—and it will not be very long—

the forests of Lebanon will become a fertile field,

and the fertile field will yield bountiful crops.

<sup>18</sup>In that day the deaf will hear words read from a book, and the blind will see through the gloom and darkness.

The poor will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>The scoffer will be gone,
the arrogant will disappear,

and those who plot evil will be killed.

<sup>21</sup>Those who convict the innocent
by their false testimony will disappear.

A similar fate awaits those who use trickery to pervert justice and who tell lies to destroy the innocent.

<sup>22</sup>That is why the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, says to the people of Israel, *

“My people will no longer be ashamed or turn pale with fear.

<sup>23</sup>For when they see their many children and all the blessings I have given them, they will recognize the holiness of the Holy One of Israel.
They will stand in awe of the God of Jacob.

<sup>24</sup>Then the wayward will gain understanding, and complainers will accept instruction.

Isaiah 30

Judah's Worthless Treaty with Egypt

<sup>1</sup>“What sorrow awaits my rebellious children,”
says the LORD.

“You make plans that are contrary to mine.
You make alliances not directed by my Spirit, thus piling up your sins.

<sup>2</sup>For without consulting me,
you have gone down to Egypt for help.
You have put your trust in Pharaoh's protection.
You have tried to hide in his shade.

<sup>3</sup>But by trusting Pharaoh, you will be humiliated, and by depending on him, you will be disgraced.

<sup>4</sup>For though his power extends to Zoan
and his officials have arrived in Hanes,

<sup>5</sup>all who trust in him will be ashamed.
He will not help you.
Instead, he will disgrace you.”

<sup>6</sup> This message came to me concerning the animals in the Negev:

The caravan moves slowly across the terrible desert to Egypt—donkeys weighed down with riches and camels loaded with treasure—

all to pay for Egypt's protection.
They travel through the wilderness,
a place of lionesses and lions,
a place where vipers and poisonous snakes live.
All this, and Egypt will give you nothing in return.
<sup>7</sup>Egypt's promises are worthless!
Therefore, I call her Rahab—
the Harmless Dragon.*

A Warning for Rebellious Judah

<sup>8</sup>Now go and write down these words.
Write them in a book.
They will stand until the end of time
as a witness
<sup>9</sup>that these people are stubborn rebels who refuse to pay attention to the LORD's instructions.
<sup>10</sup>They tell the seers,
"Stop seeing visions!"
They tell the prophets,
"Don't tell us what is right.
Tell us nice things.
Tell us lies."
<sup>11</sup>Forget all this gloom.
Get off your narrow path.
Stop telling us about your
'Holy One of Israel.'"

“Because you despise what I tell you and trust instead in oppression and lies, <sup>13</sup>calamity will come upon you suddenly—like a bulging wall that bursts and falls.
In an instant it will collapse and come crashing down.
<sup>14</sup>You will be smashed like a piece of pottery—shattered so completely that there won’t be a piece big enough to carry coals from a fireplace or a little water from the well.”

<sup>15</sup>This is what the Sovereign LORD,
the Holy One of Israel, says:
“Only in returning to me
and resting in me will you be saved.
In quietness and confidence is your strength.
But you would have none of it.
<sup>16</sup>You said, ‘No, we will get our help from Egypt.
They will give us swift horses for riding into battle.’
But the only swiftness you are going to see is the swiftness of your enemies chasing you!
<sup>17</sup>One of them will chase a thousand of you.
Five of them will make all of you flee.
You will be left like a lonely flagpole on a hill or a tattered banner on a distant mountaintop.”

Blessings for the LORD's People

<sup>18</sup> So the LORD must wait for you to come to him so he can show you his love and compassion.
For the LORD is a faithful God.
Blessed are those who wait for his help.

<sup>19</sup> O people of Zion, who live in Jerusalem, you will weep no more.
He will be gracious if you ask for help.
He will surely respond to the sound of your cries.

<sup>20</sup> Though the Lord gave you adversity for food and suffering for drink,
he will still be with you to teach you.
You will see your teacher with your own eyes.

<sup>21</sup> Your own ears will hear him.
Right behind you a voice will say,
“This is the way you should go,”
whether to the right or to the left.

<sup>22</sup> Then you will destroy all your silver idols and your precious gold images.
You will throw them out like filthy rags, saying to them, “Good riddance!”

<sup>23</sup> Then the LORD will bless you with rain at planting time.
There will be wonderful harvests and plenty of pastureland for your livestock. <sup>24</sup> The oxen and donkeys that till the ground will eat good grain, its chaff blown away by the wind. <sup>25</sup> In that day, when your enemies are slaughtered and the towers fall, there will be streams of water flowing down every mountain and hill.

<sup>26</sup>The moon will be as bright as the sun, and the sun will be seven times brighter—like the light of seven days in one! So it will be when the LORD begins to heal his people and cure the wounds he gave them.

<sup>27</sup>Look! The LORD is coming from far away, burning with anger,
surrounded by thick, rising smoke.
His lips are filled with fury;
his words consume like fire.

<sup>28</sup>His hot breath pours out like a flood up to the neck of his enemies.
He will sift out the proud nations for destruction.
He will bridle them and lead them away to ruin.

<sup>29</sup>But the people of God will sing a song of joy, like the songs at the holy festivals.
You will be filled with joy,
as when a flutist leads a group of pilgrims to Jerusalem, the mountain of the LORD—to the Rock of Israel.

<sup>30</sup>And the LORD will make his majestic voice heard.
He will display the strength of his mighty arm.
It will descend with devouring flames,
with cloudbursts, thunderstorms, and huge hailstones.

<sup>31</sup>At the LORD's command, the Assyrians will be shattered.
He will strike them down with his royal scepter.

<sup>32</sup>And as the LORD strikes them with his rod of punishment, his people will celebrate with tambourines and harps.

Lifting his mighty arm, he will fight the Assyrians.

<sup>33</sup>Topheth—the place of burning—

has long been ready for the Assyrian king;

the pyre is piled high with wood.

The breath of the LORD, like fire from a volcano, will set it ablaze.

Isaiah 31

The Futility of Relying on Egypt

<sup>1</sup>What sorrow awaits those who look to Egypt for help, trusting their horses, chariots, and charioteers and depending on the strength of human armies instead of looking to the LORD,
the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>In his wisdom, the LORD will send great disaster;
he will not change his mind.
He will rise against the wicked and against their helpers.

<sup>3</sup>For these Egyptians are mere humans, not God!
Their horses are puny flesh, not mighty spirits!
When the LORD raises his fist against them,
those who help will stumble,
and those being helped will fall.
They will all fall down and die together.

<sup>4</sup>But this is what the LORD has told me:

“When a strong young lion stands growling over a sheep it has killed, it is not frightened by the shouts and noise of a whole crowd of shepherds.
In the same way, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies will come down and fight on Mount Zion.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD of Heaven's Armies will hover over Jerusalem and protect it like a bird protecting its nest. He will defend and save the city; he will pass over it and rescue it."

<sup>6</sup> Though you are such wicked rebels, my people, come and return to the LORD. <sup>7</sup> I know the glorious day will come when each of you will throw away the gold idols and silver images your sinful hands have made.

<sup>8</sup> "The Assyrians will be destroyed, but not by the swords of men.

The sword of God will strike them, and they will panic and flee.

The strong young Assyrians will be taken away as captives.

<sup>9</sup> Even the strongest will quake with terror, and princes will flee when they see your battle flags," says the LORD, whose fire burns in Zion, whose flame blazes from Jerusalem.

Isaiah 32

Israel's Ultimate Deliverance

<sup>1</sup>Look, a righteous king is coming!

And honest princes will rule under him.

<sup>2</sup>Each one will be like a shelter from the wind and a refuge from the storm, like streams of water in the desert and the shadow of a great rock in a parched land.

<sup>3</sup>Then everyone who has eyes will be able to see the truth, and everyone who has ears will be able to hear it.

<sup>4</sup>Even the hotheads will be full of sense and understanding.
Those who stammer will speak out plainly.

<sup>5</sup>In that day ungodly fools will not be heroes.
Scoundrels will not be respected.

<sup>6</sup>For fools speak foolishness and make evil plans.
They practice ungodliness and spread false teachings about the LORD.
They deprive the hungry of food and give no water to the thirsty.

<sup>7</sup>The smooth tricks of scoundrels are evil.
They plot crooked schemes.
They lie to convict the poor,
even when the cause of the poor is just.

<sup>8</sup>But generous people plan to do what is generous, and they stand firm in their generosity.

<sup>9</sup>Listen, you women who lie around in ease.
Listen to me, you who are so smug.

<sup>10</sup>In a short time—just a little more than a year—you careless ones will suddenly begin to care.
For your fruit crops will fail,
and the harvest will never take place.

<sup>11</sup>Tremble, you women of ease;
throw off your complacency.
Strip off your pretty clothes,
and put on burlap to show your grief.

<sup>12</sup>Beat your breasts in sorrow for your bountiful farms and your fruitful grapevines.

<sup>13</sup>For your land will be overgrown with thorns and briers.
Your joyful homes and happy towns will be gone.

<sup>14</sup>The palace and the city will be deserted, and busy towns will be empty.
Wild donkeys will frolic and flocks will graze
in the empty forts* and watchtowers

<sup>15</sup>until at last the Spirit is poured out on us from heaven.
Then the wilderness will become a fertile field,
and the fertile field will yield bountiful crops.

<sup>16</sup>Justice will rule in the wilderness and righteousness in the fertile field.

<sup>17</sup>And this righteousness will bring peace.

Yes, it will bring quietness and confidence forever.

<sup>18</sup>My people will live in safety, quietly at home.

They will be at rest.

<sup>19</sup>Even if the forest should be destroyed and the city torn down,

<sup>20</sup>the LORD will greatly bless his people.

Wherever they plant seed, bountiful crops will spring up.

Their cattle and donkeys will graze freely.

Isaiah 33

A Message about Assyria

<sup>1</sup> What sorrow awaits you Assyrians, who have destroyed others*

but have never been destroyed yourselves.

You betray others,

but you have never been betrayed.

When you are done destroying,
you will be destroyed.

When you are done betraying,
you will be betrayed.

<sup>2</sup>But LORD, be merciful to us, for we have waited for you.

Be our strong arm each day
and our salvation in times of trouble.

<sup>3</sup>The enemy runs at the sound of your voice.
When you stand up, the nations flee!

<sup>4</sup>Just as caterpillars and locusts strip the fields and vines, so the fallen army of Assyria will be stripped!

<sup>5</sup>Though the LORD is very great and lives in heaven, he will make Jerusalem* his home of justice and righteousness.

<sup>6</sup>In that day he will be your sure foundation, providing a rich store of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge.
The fear of the LORD will be your treasure.

<sup>7</sup>But now your brave warriors weep in public.
Your ambassadors of peace cry in bitter disappointment.

<sup>8</sup>Your roads are deserted;
no one travels them anymore.

The Assyrians have broken their peace treaty and care nothing for the promises they made before witnesses.*

They have no respect for anyone.

<sup>9</sup>The land of Israel wilts in mourning.

Lebanon withers with shame.

The plain of Sharon is now a wilderness.

Bashan and Carmel have been plundered.

<sup>10</sup>But the LORD says: “Now I will stand up.

Now I will show my power and might.

<sup>11</sup>You Assyrians produce nothing but dry grass and stubble.

Your own breath will turn to fire and consume you.

<sup>12</sup>Your people will be burned up completely, like thornbushes cut down and tossed in a fire.

And you that are near, acknowledge my might!”

<sup>14</sup>The sinners in Jerusalem shake with fear.

Terror seizes the godless.

“Who can live with this devouring fire?” they cry.

“Who can survive this all-consuming fire?”

<sup>15</sup>Those who are honest and fair, who refuse to profit by fraud,

who stay far away from bribes,
who refuse to listen to those who plot murder,
who shut their eyes to all enticement to do wrong—<sup>16</sup>these are the ones who will dwell on high.
The rocks of the mountains will be their fortress.
Food will be supplied to them,
and they will have water in abundance.

<sup>17</sup>Your eyes will see the king in all his splendor, and you will see a land that stretches into the distance.

<sup>18</sup>You will think back to this time of terror, asking, “Where are the Assyrian officers who counted our towers?
Where are the bookkeepers who recorded the plunder taken from our fallen city?”

<sup>19</sup>You will no longer see these fierce, violent people with their strange, unknown language.

<sup>20</sup>Instead, you will see Zion as a place of holy festivals.
You will see Jerusalem, a city quiet and secure.
It will be like a tent whose ropes are taut and whose stakes are firmly fixed.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD will be our Mighty One.
He will be like a wide river of protection that no enemy can cross,
that no enemy ship can sail upon.

<sup>22</sup>For the LORD is our judge,
our lawgiver, and our king.

He will care for us and save us.

<sup>23</sup>The enemies' sails hang loose on broken masts with useless tackle.
Their treasure will be divided by the people of God.
Even the lame will take their share!

<sup>24</sup>The people of Israel will no longer say,
"We are sick and helpless,"
for the LORD will forgive their sins.

Isaiah 34

A Message for the Nations

<sup>1</sup>Come here and listen, O nations of the earth.
Let the world and everything in it hear my words.

<sup>2</sup>For the LORD is enraged against the nations.
His fury is against all their armies.
He will completely destroy* them,
dooming them to slaughter.

<sup>3</sup>Their dead will be left unburied,
and the stench of rotting bodies will fill the land.
The mountains will flow with their blood.

<sup>4</sup>The heavens above will melt away
and disappear like a rolled-up scroll.
The stars will fall from the sky
like withered leaves from a grapevine, or shriveled figs from a fig tree.

<sup>5</sup>And when my sword has finished its work in the heavens, it will fall upon Edom,
the nation I have marked for destruction.

<sup>6</sup>The sword of the LORD is drenched with blood and covered with fat—
with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of rams prepared for sacrifice.
Yes, the LORD will offer a sacrifice in the city of Bozrah.
He will make a mighty slaughter in Edom.

<sup>7</sup>Even men as strong as wild oxen will die—
the young men alongside the veterans.
The land will be soaked with blood and the soil enriched with fat.

<sup>8</sup>For it is the day of the LORD's revenge, the year when Edom will be paid back for all it did to Israel.*

<sup>9</sup>The streams of Edom will be filled with burning pitch, and the ground will be covered with fire.

<sup>10</sup>This judgment on Edom will never end;
the smoke of its burning will rise forever.
The land will lie deserted from generation to generation.
No one will live there anymore.

<sup>11</sup>It will be haunted by the desert owl and the screech owl, the great owl and the raven.*

For God will measure that land carefully;
he will measure it for chaos and destruction.

<sup>12</sup>It will be called the Land of Nothing, and all its nobles will soon be gone.*

<sup>13</sup>Thorns will overrun its palaces;
nettles and thistles will grow in its forts.
The ruins will become a haunt for jackals and a home for owls.

<sup>14</sup>Desert animals will mingle there with hyenas, their howls filling the night.
Wild goats will bleat at one another among the ruins,
and night creatures* will come there to rest.

<sup>15</sup>There the owl will make her nest and lay her eggs.

She will hatch her young and cover them with her wings.
And the buzzards will come,
each one with its mate.

<sup>16</sup>Search the book of the LORD, and see what he will do.
Not one of these birds and animals will be missing,
and none will lack a mate,
for the LORD has promised this.
His Spirit will make it all come true.
<sup>17</sup>He has surveyed and divided the land and deeded it over to those creatures.
They will possess it forever,
from generation to generation.

Isaiah 35

Hope for Restoration

<sup>1</sup>Even the wilderness and desert will be glad in those days.
The wasteland will rejoice and blossom with spring crocuses.

<sup>2</sup>Yes, there will be an abundance of flowers and singing and joy!

The deserts will become as green as the mountains of Lebanon,
as lovely as Mount Carmel or the plain of Sharon.
There the LORD will display his glory,
the splendor of our God.

<sup>3</sup>With this news, strengthen those who have tired hands, and encourage those who have weak knees.

<sup>4</sup>Say to those with fearful hearts,
“Be strong, and do not fear,
for your God is coming to destroy your enemies.
He is coming to save you.”

<sup>5</sup>And when he comes, he will open the eyes of the blind and unplug the ears of the deaf.

<sup>6</sup>The lame will leap like a deer,
and those who cannot speak will sing for joy!
Springs will gush forth in the wilderness,
and streams will water the wasteland.

<sup>7</sup>The parched ground will become a pool, and springs of water will satisfy the thirsty land.

Marsh grass and reeds and rushes will flourish where desert jackals once lived.

<sup>8</sup> And a great road will go through that once deserted land.
It will be named the Highway of Holiness.
Evil-minded people will never travel on it.
It will be only for those who walk in God's ways;
fools will never walk there.

<sup>9</sup> Lions will not lurk along its course, nor any other ferocious beasts.

There will be no other dangers.

Only the redeemed will walk on it.

<sup>10</sup> Those who have been ransomed by the LORD will return.
They will enter Jerusalem* singing,
crowned with everlasting joy.
Sorrow and mourning will disappear,
and they will be filled with joy and gladness.

Isaiah 36

Assyria Invades Judah

<sup>3</sup>These are the officials who went out to meet with them: Eliakim son of Hilkiah, the palace administrator; Shebna the court secretary; and Joah son of Asaph, the royal historian.

Sennacherib Threatens Jerusalem

“This is what the great king of Assyria says: What are you trusting in that makes you so confident? <sup>5</sup>Do you think that mere words can substitute for military skill and strength? Who are you counting on, that you have rebelled against me? <sup>6</sup>On Egypt? If you lean on Egypt, it will be like a reed that splinters beneath your weight and pierces your hand. Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, is completely unreliable!

<sup>7</sup>“But perhaps you will say to me, ‘We are trusting in the LORD our God!’ But isn’t he the one who was insulted by Hezekiah? Didn’t Hezekiah tear down his shrines and altars and make everyone in Judah and Jerusalem worship only at the altar here in Jerusalem?

<sup>8</sup>“I’ll tell you what! Strike a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria. I will give you 2,000 horses if you can find that many men to ride on them! <sup>9</sup>With your tiny army, how can you think of challenging even the weakest contingent of my master’s troops, even with the help of Egypt’s chariots and charioteers? <sup>10</sup>What’s more, do you think we have invaded your land without the LORD’s direction? The LORD himself told us, ‘Attack this land and destroy it!’”

<sup>12</sup>But Sennacherib’s chief of staff replied, “Do you think my master sent this message only to you and your master? He wants all the people to hear it, for when we put this city under siege, they will suffer along with you. They will be so hungry and thirsty that they will eat their own dung and drink their own urine.”

deceive you. He will never be able to rescue you. <sup>15</sup>Don't let him fool you into trusting in the LORD by saying, 'The LORD will surely rescue us. This city will never fall into the hands of the Assyrian king!'

<sup>16</sup>"Don't listen to Hezekiah! These are the terms the king of Assyria is offering: Make peace with me—open the gates and come out. Then each of you can continue eating from your own grapevine and fig tree and drinking from your own well. <sup>17</sup>Then I will arrange to take you to another land like this one—a land of grain and new wine, bread and vineyards.

<sup>18</sup>"Don't let Hezekiah mislead you by saying, 'The LORD will rescue us!' Have the gods of any other nations ever saved their people from the king of Assyria? <sup>19</sup>What happened to the gods of Hamath and Arpad? And what about the gods of Sepharvaim? Did any god rescue Samaria from my power? <sup>20</sup>What god of any nation has ever been able to save its people from my power? So what makes you think that the LORD can rescue Jerusalem from me?"

<sup>22</sup>Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, the palace administrator; Shebna the court secretary; and Joah son of Asaph, the royal historian, went back to Hezekiah. They tore their clothes in despair, and they went in to see the king and told him what the Assyrian chief of staff had said.

Isaiah 37

Hezekiah Seeks the LORD's Help

Before leaving to meet the attack, he sent messengers back to Hezekiah in Jerusalem with this message:

<sup>10</sup>“This message is for King Hezekiah of Judah. Don’t let your God, in whom you trust, deceive you with promises that Jerusalem will not be captured by the king of Assyria.

<sup>11</sup>You know perfectly well what the kings of Assyria have done wherever they have gone. They have completely destroyed everyone who stood in their way! Why should you be any different? <sup>12</sup>Have the gods of other nations rescued them—such nations as Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Tel-assar? My predecessors destroyed them all! <sup>13</sup>What happened to the king of Hamath and the king of Arpad? What happened to the kings of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?”

<sup>14</sup>After Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it, he went up to the LORD’s Temple and spread it out before the LORD. <sup>15</sup>And Hezekiah prayed this prayer before the LORD: <sup>16</sup>“O LORD of Heaven’s Armies, God of Israel, you are enthroned between the mighty cherubim! You alone are God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You alone created the heavens and the earth. <sup>17</sup>Bend down, O LORD, and listen! Open your eyes, O LORD, and see! Listen to Sennacherib’s words of defiance against the living God.

<sup>18</sup>“It is true, LORD, that the kings of Assyria have destroyed all these nations. <sup>19</sup>And they have thrown the gods of these nations into the fire and burned them. But of course the Assyrians could destroy them! They were not gods at all—only idols of wood and stone shaped by human hands. <sup>20</sup>Now, O LORD our God, rescue us from his power; then all the kingdoms of the earth will know that you alone, O LORD, are God.*”

Isaiah Predicts Judah's Deliverance

<sup>21</sup>Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekiah: “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Because you prayed about King Sennacherib of Assyria, <sup>22</sup>the LORD has spoken this word against him:

“The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and laughs at you.
The daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head in derision as you flee.

<sup>23</sup>“Whom have you been defying and ridiculing?
Against whom did you raise your voice?
At whom did you look with such haughty eyes?
It was the Holy One of Israel!

<sup>24</sup>By your messengers you have defied the Lord.
You have said, ‘With my many chariots
I have conquered the highest mountains—
yes, the remotest peaks of Lebanon.
I have cut down its tallest cedars and its finest cypress trees.
I have reached its farthest heights and explored its deepest forests.

<sup>25</sup>I have dug wells in many foreign lands*
and refreshed myself with their water.
With the sole of my foot,
I stopped up all the rivers of Egypt!’

<sup>26</sup>“But have you not heard?
I decided this long ago.
Long ago I planned it,
and now I am making it happen.
I planned for you to crush fortified cities into heaps of rubble.
<sup>27</sup>That is why their people have so little power and are so frightened and confused.
They are as weak as grass,
as easily trampled as tender green shoots.
They are like grass sprouting on a housetop, scorched* before it can grow lush and tall.

<sup>28</sup>“But I know you well—where you stay
and when you come and go.
I know the way you have raged against me.
<sup>29</sup>And because of your raging against me and your arrogance, which I have heard for myself, I will put my hook in your nose
and my bit in your mouth.
I will make you return
by the same road on which you came.”

<sup>30</sup>Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Here is the proof that what I say is true:

“This year you will eat only what grows up by itself, and next year you will eat what springs up from that.
But in the third year you will plant crops and harvest them;
you will tend vineyards and eat their fruit.

<sup>31</sup>And you who are left in Judah,
who have escaped the ravages of the siege, will put roots down in your own soil and grow up and flourish.

<sup>32</sup>For a remnant of my people will spread out from Jerusalem, a group of survivors from Mount Zion.
The passionate commitment of the LORD of Heaven’s Armies
will make this happen!

<sup>33</sup>“And this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria:

““His armies will not enter Jerusalem.
They will not even shoot an arrow at it.
They will not march outside its gates with their shields nor build banks of earth against its walls.

<sup>34</sup>The king will return to his own country by the same road on which he came.
He will not enter this city,’
says the LORD.

<sup>35</sup>“For my own honor and for the sake of my servant David,
I will defend this city and protect it.””

<sup>36</sup>That night the angel of the LORD went out to the Assyrian camp and killed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers. When the surviving Assyrians* woke up the next morning, they found corpses everywhere. <sup>37</sup>Then King Sennacherib of Assyria broke camp and returned to his own land. He went home to his capital of Nineveh and stayed there.

<sup>38</sup>One day while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with their swords. They then escaped to the land of Ararat, and another son, Esarhaddon, became the next king of Assyria.

Isaiah 38

Hezekiah's Sickness and Recovery

<sup>1</sup>About that time Hezekiah became deathly ill, and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to visit him. He gave the king this message: “This is what the LORD says: ‘Set your affairs in order, for you are going to die. You will not recover from this illness.’”

<sup>2</sup>When Hezekiah heard this, he turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, <sup>3</sup>“Remember, O LORD, how I have always been faithful to you and have served you single-mindedly, always doing what pleases you.” Then he broke down and wept bitterly.

<sup>4</sup>Then this message came to Isaiah from the LORD: <sup>5</sup>“Go back to Hezekiah and tell him, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of your ancestor David, says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears. I will add fifteen years to your life,’ <sup>6</sup>and I will rescue you and this city from the king of Assyria. Yes, I will defend this city.

<sup>7</sup>“And this is the sign from the LORD to prove that he will do as he promised: <sup>8</sup>I will cause the sun’s shadow to move ten steps backward on the sundial* of Ahaz!” So the shadow on the sundial moved backward ten steps.

Hezekiah's Poem of Praise

<sup>9</sup>When King Hezekiah was well again, he wrote this poem:

<sup>10</sup> I said, “In the prime of my life, must I now enter the place of the dead? *
Am I to be robbed of the rest of my years?”

<sup>11</sup> I said, “Never again will I see the LORD GOD while still in the land of the living.
Never again will I see my friends or be with those who live in this world.

<sup>12</sup> My life has been blown away like a shepherd’s tent in a storm.
It has been cut short,
as when a weaver cuts cloth from a loom.
Suddenly, my life was over.

<sup>13</sup> I waited patiently all night,
but I was torn apart as though by lions.
Suddenly, my life was over.

<sup>14</sup> Delirious, I chattered like a swallow or a crane, and then I moaned like a mourning dove.
My eyes grew tired of looking to heaven for help.
I am in trouble, Lord. Help me!”

<sup>15</sup> But what could I say?
For he himself sent this sickness.
Now I will walk humbly throughout my years because of this anguish I have felt.

<sup>16</sup> Lord, your discipline is good,
for it leads to life and health.
You restore my health
and allow me to live!

<sup>17</sup>Yes, this anguish was good for me,
for you have rescued me from death and forgiven all my sins.

<sup>18</sup>For the dead* cannot praise you;
they cannot raise their voices in praise.
Those who go down to the grave can no longer hope in your faithfulness.

<sup>19</sup>Only the living can praise you as I do today.
Each generation tells of your faithfulness to the next.

<sup>20</sup>Think of it—the LORD is ready to heal me!
I will sing his praises with instruments every day of my life in the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>Isaiah had said to Hezekiah's servants, "Make an ointment from figs and spread it over the boil, and Hezekiah will recover."

<sup>22</sup>And Hezekiah had asked, "What sign will prove that I will go to the Temple of the LORD?"

Isaiah 39

Envoys from Babylon

<sup>1</sup> Soon after this, Merodach-baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent Hezekiah his best wishes and a gift. He had heard that Hezekiah had been very sick and that he had recovered. <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah was delighted with the Babylonian envoys and showed them everything in his treasure-houses—the silver, the gold, the spices, and the aromatic oils. He also took them to see his armory and showed them everything in his royal treasuries! There was nothing in his palace or kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

<sup>3</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked him, “What did those men want? Where were they from?”

Hezekiah replied, “They came from the distant land of Babylon.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Listen to this message from the LORD of Heaven’s Armies: <sup>6</sup>‘The time is coming when everything in your palace—all the treasures stored up by your ancestors until now—will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left,’ says the LORD. <sup>7</sup>‘Some of your very own sons will be taken away into exile. They will become eunuchs who will serve in the palace of Babylon’s king.’”

<sup>8</sup>Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “This message you have given me from the LORD is good.” For the king was thinking, “At least there will be peace and security during my lifetime.”

Isaiah 40

Comfort for God's People

<sup>1</sup>“Comfort, comfort my people,”
says your God.

<sup>2</sup>“Speak tenderly to Jerusalem.
Tell her that her sad days are gone
and her sins are pardoned.
Yes, the LORD has punished her twice over for all her sins.”

<sup>3</sup>Listen! It's the voice of someone shouting, “Clear the way through the wilderness
for the LORD!
Make a straight highway through the wasteland for our God!

<sup>4</sup>Fill in the valleys,
and level the mountains and hills.
Straighten the curves,
and smooth out the rough places.

<sup>5</sup>Then the glory of the LORD will be revealed, and all people will see it together.
          

I asked, “What should I shout?”

“Shout that people are like the grass.
Their beauty fades as quickly as the flowers in a field.

<sup>7</sup>The grass withers and the flowers fade
beneath the breath of the LORD.

And so it is with people.

<sup>8</sup>The grass withers and the flowers fade,
but the word of our God stands forever.”

<sup>9</sup>O Zion, messenger of good news,
shout from the mountaintops!
Shout it louder, O Jerusalem.*
Shout, and do not be afraid.

Tell the towns of Judah,
“Your God is coming!”

<sup>10</sup>Yes, the Sovereign LORD is coming in power.
He will rule with a powerful arm.
See, he brings his reward with him as he comes.

<sup>11</sup>He will feed his flock like a shepherd.
He will carry the lambs in his arms,
holding them close to his heart.
He will gently lead the mother sheep with their young.

The LORD Has No Equal

<sup>12</sup>Who else has held the oceans in his hand?
Who has measured off the heavens with his fingers?
Who else knows the weight of the earth or has weighed the mountains and hills on a scale?

<sup>13</sup>Who is able to advise the Spirit of the LORD? \*
Who knows enough to give him advice or teach him?

<sup>14</sup>Has the LORD ever needed anyone's advice?
Does he need instruction about what is good?
Did someone teach him what is right or show him the path of justice?

<sup>15</sup>No, for all the nations of the world are but a drop in the bucket.
They are nothing more than dust on the scales.

He picks up the whole earth
as though it were a grain of sand.

<sup>16</sup>All the wood in Lebanon's forests and all Lebanon's animals would not be enough to make a burnt offering worthy of our God.

<sup>17</sup>The nations of the world are worth nothing to him.
In his eyes they count for less than nothing—mere emptiness and froth.

<sup>18</sup>To whom can you compare God?
What image can you find to resemble him?

<sup>19</sup>Can he be compared to an idol formed in a mold, overlaid with gold, and decorated with silver chains?

<sup>20</sup>Or if people are too poor for that, they might at least choose wood that won't decay and a skilled craftsman to carve an image that won't fall down!

<sup>21</sup>Haven't you heard? Don't you understand?
Are you deaf to the words of God—
the words he gave before the world began?
Are you so ignorant?

<sup>22</sup>God sits above the circle of the earth.
The people below seem like grasshoppers to him!
He spreads out the heavens like a curtain and makes his tent from them.

<sup>23</sup>He judges the great people of the world and brings them all to nothing.

<sup>24</sup>They hardly get started, barely taking root,
when he blows on them and they wither.
The wind carries them off like chaff.

<sup>25</sup>“To whom will you compare me?
Who is my equal?” asks the Holy One.

<sup>26</sup>Look up into the heavens.
Who created all the stars?
He brings them out like an army, one after another,
calling each by its name.
Because of his great power and incomparable strength,
not a single one is missing.

<sup>27</sup> O Jacob, how can you say the LORD does not see your troubles?

O Israel, how can you say God ignores your rights?

<sup>28</sup>Have you never heard?

Have you never understood?
The LORD is the everlasting God,
the Creator of all the earth.
He never grows weak or weary.
No one can measure the depths of his understanding.
<sup>29</sup>He gives power to the weak
and strength to the powerless.
<sup>30</sup>Even youths will become weak and tired,
and young men will fall in exhaustion.
<sup>31</sup>But those who trust in the LORD will find new strength.
They will soar high on wings like eagles.
They will run and not grow weary.
They will walk and not faint.

Isaiah 41

God's Help for Israel

<sup>1</sup>“Listen in silence before me, you lands beyond the sea.
Bring your strongest arguments.
Come now and speak.
The court is ready for your case.

<sup>2</sup>“Who has stirred up this king from the east, rightly calling him to God's service?
Who gives this man victory over many nations and permits him to trample their kings underfoot?
With his sword, he reduces armies to dust.
With his bow, he scatters them like chaff before the wind.
<sup>3</sup>He chases them away and goes on safely, though he is walking over unfamiliar ground.
<sup>4</sup>Who has done such mighty deeds, summoning each new generation from the beginning of time?
It is I, the LORD, the First and the Last.
I alone am he.”

<sup>5</sup>The lands beyond the sea watch in fear.
Remote lands tremble and mobilize for war.
<sup>6</sup>The idol makers encourage one another, saying to each other, “Be strong!”
<sup>7</sup>The carver encourages the goldsmith, and the molder helps at the anvil.

“Good,” they say. “It’s coming along fine.”
Carefully they join the parts together, then fasten the thing in place so it won’t fall over.

<sup>8</sup>“But as for you, Israel my servant,
Jacob my chosen one,
descended from Abraham my friend, <sup>9</sup>I have called you back from the ends of the earth, saying, ‘You are my servant.’
For I have chosen you
and will not throw you away.
<sup>10</sup>Don’t be afraid, for I am with you.
Don’t be discouraged, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you and help you.
I will hold you up with my victorious right hand.

<sup>11</sup>“See, all your angry enemies lie there, confused and humiliated.
Anyone who opposes you will die and come to nothing.
<sup>12</sup>You will look in vain for those who tried to conquer you.
Those who attack you will come to nothing.
<sup>13</sup>For I hold you by your right hand—
I, the LORD your God.
And I say to you,
‘Don’t be afraid. I am here to help you.

<sup>14</sup>Though you are a lowly worm, O Jacob, don't be afraid, people of Israel, for I will help you.
I am the LORD, your Redeemer.
I am the Holy One of Israel.'

<sup>15</sup>You will be a new threshing instrument with many sharp teeth.

You will tear your enemies apart,
making chaff of mountains.

<sup>16</sup>You will toss them into the air, and the wind will blow them all away;
a whirlwind will scatter them.

Then you will rejoice in the LORD.

You will glory in the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>17</sup> "When the poor and needy search for water and there is none,

and their tongues are parched from thirst,
then I, the LORD, will answer them.

I, the God of Israel, will never abandon them.

<sup>18</sup>I will open up rivers for them on the high plateaus.

I will give them fountains of water in the valleys.

I will fill the desert with pools of water.

Rivers fed by springs will flow across the parched ground.

<sup>19</sup>I will plant trees in the barren desert—

cedar, acacia, myrtle, olive, cypress, fir, and pine.

<sup>20</sup>I am doing this so all who see this miracle will understand what it means—that it is the LORD who has done this,

the Holy One of Israel who created it.

<sup>21</sup>“Present the case for your idols,”
says the LORD.

“Let them show what they can do,” says the King of Israel.*

<sup>22</sup>“Let them try to tell us what happened long ago so that we may consider the evidence.
Or let them tell us what the future holds,
so we can know what’s going to happen.

<sup>23</sup>Yes, tell us what will occur in the days ahead.
Then we will know you are gods.
In fact, do anything—good or bad!
Do something that will amaze and frighten us.

<sup>24</sup>But no! You are less than nothing and can do nothing at all.
Those who choose you pollute themselves.

<sup>25</sup>“But I have stirred up a leader who will come from the north.
I have called him by name from the east.
I will give him victory over kings and princes.
He will trample them as a potter treads on clay.

<sup>26</sup>“Who told you from the beginning that this would happen?
Who predicted this,
making you admit that he was right?
No one said a word!

<sup>27</sup>I was the first to tell Zion, ‘Look! Help is on the way!’*

I will send Jerusalem a messenger with good news.

<sup>28</sup>Not one of your idols told you this.

Not one gave any answer when I asked.

<sup>29</sup>See, they are all foolish, worthless things.

All your idols are as empty as the wind.

Isaiah 42

The LORD's Chosen Servant

<sup>1</sup>“Look at my servant, whom I strengthen.

He is my chosen one, who pleases me.

I have put my Spirit upon him.

He will bring justice to the nations.

<sup>2</sup>He will not shout

or raise his voice in public.

<sup>3</sup>He will not crush the weakest reed

or put out a flickering candle.

He will bring justice to all who have been wronged.

<sup>4</sup>He will not falter or lose heart until justice prevails throughout the earth.

Even distant lands beyond the sea will wait for his instruction.*”

<sup>5</sup>God, the LORD, created the heavens and stretched them out.

He created the earth and everything in it.

He gives breath to everyone,

life to everyone who walks the earth.

And it is he who says,

<sup>6</sup>“I, the LORD, have called you to demonstrate my righteousness.

I will take you by the hand and guard you,

and I will give you to my people, Israel,

as a symbol of my covenant with them.

And you will be a light to guide the nations.
7You will open the eyes of the blind.
You will free the captives from prison,
releasing those who sit in dark dungeons.

8“I am the LORD; that is my name!
I will not give my glory to anyone else,
nor share my praise with carved idols.
9Everything I prophesied has come true,
and now I will prophesy again.
I will tell you the future before it happens.”

A Song of Praise to the LORD

10Sing a new song to the LORD!
Sing his praises from the ends of the earth!
Sing, all you who sail the seas,
all you who live in distant coastlands.
11Join in the chorus, you desert towns;
let the villages of Kedar rejoice!
Let the people of Sela sing for joy;
shout praises from the mountaintops!
12Let the whole world glorify the LORD;
let it sing his praise.
13The LORD will march forth like a mighty hero;
he will come out like a warrior, full of fury.
He will shout his battle cry and crush all his enemies.

<sup>14</sup>He will say, “I have long been silent;
yes, I have restrained myself.
But now, like a woman in labor,
I will cry and groan and pant.

<sup>15</sup>I will level the mountains and hills and blight all their greenery.
I will turn the rivers into dry land and will dry up all the pools.

<sup>16</sup>I will lead blind Israel down a new path, guiding them along an unfamiliar way.
I will brighten the darkness before them
and smooth out the road ahead of them.
Yes, I will indeed do these things;
I will not forsake them.

<sup>17</sup>But those who trust in idols, who say, ‘You are our gods,’
will be turned away in shame.

Israel’s Failure to Listen and See

<sup>18</sup>“Listen, you who are deaf!
Look and see, you blind!

<sup>19</sup>Who is as blind as my own people, my servant?
Who is as deaf as my messenger?
Who is as blind as my chosen people,
the servant of the LORD?

<sup>20</sup> You see and recognize what is right but refuse to act on it.
You hear with your ears,

but you don't really listen."

<sup>21</sup>Because he is righteous, the LORD has exalted his glorious law.

<sup>22</sup>But his own people have been robbed and plundered, enslaved, imprisoned, and trapped.
They are fair game for anyone and have no one to protect them,
no one to take them back home.

<sup>23</sup>Who will hear these lessons from the past and see the ruin that awaits you in the future?

<sup>24</sup>Who allowed Israel to be robbed and hurt?
It was the LORD, against whom we sinned,
for the people would not walk in his path,
nor would they obey his law.

<sup>25</sup>Therefore, he poured out his fury on them and destroyed them in battle.
They were enveloped in flames,
but they still refused to understand.
They were consumed by fire,
but they did not learn their lesson.

Isaiah 43

The Savior of Israel

<sup>1</sup> But now, O Jacob, listen to the LORD who created you.

O Israel, the one who formed you says,
“Do not be afraid, for I have ransomed you.
I have called you by name; you are mine.

<sup>2</sup> When you go through deep waters,
I will be with you.
When you go through rivers of difficulty,
you will not drown.

When you walk through the fire of oppression,
you will not be burned up;
the flames will not consume you.

<sup>3</sup> For I am the LORD, your God,
the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.
I gave Egypt as a ransom for your freedom;
I gave Ethiopia* and Seba in your place.

<sup>4</sup> Others were given in exchange for you.
I traded their lives for yours
because you are precious to me.
You are honored, and I love you.

<sup>5</sup> “Do not be afraid, for I am with you.
I will gather you and your children from east and west.

<sup>6</sup> I will say to the north and south, “Bring my sons and daughters back to Israel from the distant corners of the earth.

<sup>7</sup>Bring all who claim me as their God,
for I have made them for my glory.
It was I who created them.”

<sup>8</sup>Bring out the people who have eyes but are blind, who have ears but are deaf.

<sup>9</sup>Gather the nations together!

Assemble the peoples of the world!

Which of their idols has ever foretold such things?

Which can predict what will happen tomorrow?

Where are the witnesses of such predictions?

Who can verify that they spoke the truth?

<sup>10</sup>“But you are my witnesses, O Israel!” says the LORD.

“You are my servant.

You have been chosen to know me, believe in me,
and understand that I alone am God.

There is no other God—

there never has been, and there never will be.

<sup>11</sup>I, yes I, am the LORD, and there is no other Savior.

<sup>12</sup>First I predicted your rescue,

then I saved you and proclaimed it to the world.

No foreign god has ever done this.

You are witnesses that I am the only God,”
says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>“From eternity to eternity I am God.

No one can snatch anyone out of my hand.

No one can undo what I have done.”

The LORD’s Promise of Victory

<sup>14</sup>This is what the LORD says—your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:

“For your sakes I will send an army against Babylon, forcing the Babylonians* to flee in those ships they are so proud of.

<sup>15</sup>I am the LORD, your Holy One, Israel’s Creator and King.

<sup>16</sup>I am the LORD, who opened a way through the waters, making a dry path through the sea.

<sup>17</sup>I called forth the mighty army of Egypt with all its chariots and horses.

I drew them beneath the waves, and they drowned,
their lives snuffed out like a smoldering candlewick.

<sup>18</sup>“But forget all that—it is nothing compared to what I am going to do.

<sup>19</sup>For I am about to do something new.

See, I have already begun! Do you not see it?

I will make a pathway through the wilderness.

I will create rivers in the dry wasteland.

<sup>20</sup>The wild animals in the fields will thank me,

the jackals and owls, too,

for giving them water in the desert.

Yes, I will make rivers in the dry wasteland

so my chosen people can be refreshed.

<sup>21</sup>I have made Israel for myself, and they will someday honor me before the whole world.

<sup>22</sup>“But, dear family of Jacob, you refuse to ask for my help.
You have grown tired of me, O Israel!

<sup>23</sup>You have not brought me sheep or goats for burnt offerings.

You have not honored me with sacrifices, though I have not burdened and wearied you with requests for grain offerings and frankincense.

<sup>24</sup>You have not brought me fragrant calamus or pleased me with the fat from sacrifices.
Instead, you have burdened me with your sins and wearied me with your faults.

<sup>25</sup>“I—yes, I alone—will blot out your sins for my own sake and will never think of them again.

<sup>26</sup>Let us review the situation together, and you can present your case to prove your innocence.

<sup>27</sup>From the very beginning, your first ancestor sinned against me;

all your leaders broke my laws.

<sup>28</sup>That is why I have disgraced your priests;
I have decreed complete destruction* for Jacob and shame for Israel.

Isaiah 44

<sup>1</sup>“But now, listen to me, Jacob my servant,
Israel my chosen one.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD who made you and helps you says:
Do not be afraid, O Jacob, my servant,
O dear Israel,* my chosen one.

<sup>3</sup>For I will pour out water to quench your thirst and to irrigate your parched fields.
And I will pour out my Spirit on your descendants, and my blessing on your children.

<sup>4</sup>They will thrive like watered grass, like willows on a riverbank.

<sup>5</sup>Some will proudly claim, ‘I belong to the LORD.’
Others will say, ‘I am a descendant of Jacob.’
Some will write the LORD’s name on their hands and will take the name of Israel as their own.”

The Foolishness of Idols

<sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD says—Israel’s King and Redeemer, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies:

“I am the First and the Last;
there is no other God.

<sup>7</sup>Who is like me?
Let him step forward and prove to you his power.
Let him do as I have done since ancient times when I established a people and explained its future.

<sup>8</sup>Do not tremble; do not be afraid.
Did I not proclaim my purposes for you long ago?
You are my witnesses—is there any other God?
No! There is no other Rock—not one!”

<sup>9</sup>How foolish are those who manufacture idols.
These prized objects are really worthless.
The people who worship idols don’t know this,
so they are all put to shame.

<sup>10</sup>Who but a fool would make his own god—an idol that cannot help him one bit?

<sup>11</sup>All who worship idols will be disgraced along with all these craftsmen—mere humans—who claim they can make a god.
They may all stand together,
but they will stand in terror and shame.

<sup>12</sup>The blacksmith stands at his forge to make a sharp tool, pounding and shaping it with all his might.
His work makes him hungry and weak.
It makes him thirsty and faint.

<sup>13</sup>Then the wood-carver measures a block of wood and draws a pattern on it.
He works with chisel and plane and carves it into a human figure.
He gives it human beauty and puts it in a little shrine.

<sup>14</sup>He cuts down cedars;

he selects the cypress and the oak;
he plants the pine in the forest
to be nourished by the rain.

<sup>15</sup>Then he uses part of the wood to make a fire.
With it he warms himself and bakes his bread.
Then—yes, it's true—he takes the rest of it and makes himself a god to worship!
He makes an idol
and bows down in front of it!

<sup>16</sup>He burns part of the tree to roast his meat and to keep himself warm.
He says, "Ah, that fire feels good."

<sup>17</sup>Then he takes what's left and makes his god: a carved idol!
He falls down in front of it, worshiping and praying to it.
"Rescue me!" he says.
"You are my god!"

<sup>18</sup>Such stupidity and ignorance!
Their eyes are closed, and they cannot see.
Their minds are shut, and they cannot think.

<sup>19</sup>The person who made the idol never stops to reflect,
"Why, it's just a block of wood!
I burned half of it for heat and used it to bake my bread and roast my meat.
How can the rest of it be a god?
Should I bow down to worship a piece of wood?"

<sup>20</sup>The poor, deluded fool feeds on ashes.

He trusts something that can't help him at all.
Yet he cannot bring himself to ask,
“Is this idol that I'm holding in my hand a lie?”

Restoration for Jerusalem

<sup>21</sup> “Pay attention, O Jacob, for you are my servant, O Israel.
I, the LORD, made you,
and I will not forget you.

<sup>22</sup> I have swept away your sins like a cloud.
I have scattered your offenses like the morning mist.
Oh, return to me,
for I have paid the price to set you free.”

<sup>23</sup> Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done this wondrous thing.

Shout for joy, O depths of the earth!
Break into song,
O mountains and forests and every tree!
For the LORD has redeemed Jacob and is glorified in Israel.

<sup>24</sup> This is what the LORD says—
your Redeemer and Creator:
“I am the LORD, who made all things.
I alone stretched out the heavens.
Who was with me
when I made the earth?

<sup>25</sup> I expose the false prophets as liars and make fools of fortune-tellers.

I cause the wise to give bad advice,
thus proving them to be fools.

<sup>26</sup>But I carry out the predictions of my prophets!
By them I say to Jerusalem, 'People will live here again,'
and to the towns of Judah, 'You will be rebuilt;
I will restore all your ruins!'

<sup>27</sup>When I speak to the rivers and say, 'Dry up!'
they will be dry.

<sup>28</sup>When I say of Cyrus, 'He is my shepherd,'
he will certainly do as I say.
He will command, 'Rebuild Jerusalem';
he will say, 'Restore the Temple.'"

Isaiah 45

Cyrus, the LORD's Chosen One

<sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD says to Cyrus, his anointed one, whose right hand he will empower.
Before him, mighty kings will be paralyzed with fear.
Their fortress gates will be opened,
never to shut again.

<sup>2</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“I will go before you, Cyrus, and level the mountains.*

I will smash down gates of bronze and cut through bars of iron.

<sup>3</sup>And I will give you treasures hidden in the darkness—secret riches.

I will do this so you may know that I am the LORD,
the God of Israel, the one who calls you by name.

<sup>4</sup>“And why have I called you for this work?
Why did I call you by name when you did not know me?
It is for the sake of Jacob my servant,
Israel my chosen one.

<sup>5</sup>I am the LORD;
there is no other God.
I have equipped you for battle,
though you don't even know me,

<sup>6</sup>so all the world from east to west will know there is no other God.
I am the LORD, and there is no other.
<sup>7</sup>I create the light and make the darkness.
I send good times and bad times.
I, the LORD, am the one who does these things.

<sup>8</sup>“Open up, O heavens, and pour out your righteousness.
Let the earth open wide
so salvation and righteousness can sprout up together.
I, the LORD, created them.

Does a clay pot argue with its maker?
Does the clay dispute with the one who shapes it, saying,
‘Stop, you’re doing it wrong!’
Does the pot exclaim,
‘How clumsy can you be?’
<sup>10</sup>How terrible it would be if a newborn baby said to its father, ‘Why was I born?’
or if it said to its mother,
‘Why did you make me this way?’”

<sup>11</sup>This is what the LORD says—
the Holy One of Israel and your Creator:
“Do you question what I do for my children?
Do you give me orders about the work of my hands?
<sup>12</sup>I am the one who made the earth and created people to live on it.

With my hands I stretched out the heavens.
All the stars are at my command.
<sup>13</sup>I will raise up Cyrus to fulfill my righteous purpose, and I will guide his actions.
He will restore my city and free my captive people—without seeking a reward!
I, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, have spoken!"

Future Conversion of Gentiles

<sup>14</sup>This is what the LORD says:

"You will rule the Egyptians,
the Ethiopians,* and the Sabeans.
They will come to you with all their merchandise,
and it will all be yours.
They will follow you as prisoners in chains.
They will fall to their knees in front of you and say,
'God is with you, and he is the only God.
There is no other.'"

<sup>15</sup>Truly, O God of Israel, our Savior, you work in mysterious ways.

<sup>16</sup>All craftsmen who make idols will be humiliated.
They will all be disgraced together.

<sup>17</sup>But the LORD will save the people of Israel with eternal salvation.
Throughout everlasting ages,
they will never again be humiliated and disgraced.

<sup>18</sup>For the LORD is God, and he created the heavens and earth and put everything in place.
He made the world to be lived in,
not to be a place of empty chaos.
“I am the LORD,” he says,
“and there is no other.
<sup>19</sup>I publicly proclaim bold promises.
I do not whisper obscurities in some dark corner.
I would not have told the people of Israel* to seek me
if I could not be found.
I, the LORD, speak only what is true and declare only what is right.

<sup>20</sup>“Gather together and come,
you fugitives from surrounding nations.
What fools they are who carry around their wooden idols and pray to gods that cannot save!
<sup>21</sup>Consult together, argue your case.
Get together and decide what to say.
Who made these things known so long ago?
What idol ever told you they would happen?
Was it not I, the LORD?
For there is no other God but me,
a righteous God and Savior.
There is none but me.
<sup>22</sup>Let all the world look to me for salvation!
For I am God; there is no other.

<sup>23</sup>I have sworn by my own name;
I have spoken the truth,
and I will never go back on my word:
Every knee will bend to me,
and every tongue will confess allegiance to me.*”

<sup>24</sup>The people will declare,
“The LORD is the source of all my righteousness and strength.”

And all who were angry with him will come to him and be ashamed.

<sup>25</sup>In the LORD all the generations of Israel will be justified, and in him they will boast.

Isaiah 46

Babylon's False Gods

<sup>1</sup>Bel and Nebo, the gods of Babylon, bow as they are lowered to the ground.
They are being hauled away on ox carts.
The poor beasts stagger under the weight.
<sup>2</sup>Both the idols and their owners are bowed down.
The gods cannot protect the people,
and the people cannot protect the gods.
They go off into captivity together.

<sup>3</sup>“Listen to me, descendants of Jacob,
all you who remain in Israel.
I have cared for you since you were born.
Yes, I carried you before you were born.
<sup>4</sup>I will be your God throughout your lifetime—until your hair is white with age.
I made you, and I will care for you.
I will carry you along and save you.

<sup>5</sup>“To whom will you compare me?
Who is my equal?
<sup>6</sup>Some people pour out their silver and gold and hire a craftsman to make a god from it.
Then they bow down and worship it!
<sup>7</sup>They carry it around on their shoulders, and when they set it down, it stays there.

It can't even move!
And when someone prays to it, there is no answer.
It can't rescue anyone from trouble.

<sup>8</sup>“Do not forget this! Keep it in mind!
Remember this, you guilty ones.
<sup>9</sup>Remember the things I have done in the past.
For I alone am God!
I am God, and there is none like me.
<sup>10</sup>Only I can tell you the future
before it even happens.
Everything I plan will come to pass,
for I do whatever I wish.
<sup>11</sup>I will call a swift bird of prey from the east—
a leader from a distant land to come and do my bidding.
I have said what I would do,
and I will do it.

<sup>12</sup>“Listen to me, you stubborn people who are so far from doing right.
<sup>13</sup>For I am ready to set things right, not in the distant future, but right now!
I am ready to save Jerusalem*
and show my glory to Israel.

Isaiah 47

Prediction of Babylon's Fall

<sup>1</sup> “Come down, virgin daughter of Babylon, and sit in the dust.

For your days of sitting on a throne have ended.
O daughter of Babylonia,* never again will you be the lovely princess, tender and delicate.

<sup>2</sup>Take heavy millstones and grind flour.
Remove your veil, and strip off your robe.
Expose yourself to public view.

<sup>3</sup>You will be naked and burdened with shame.
I will take vengeance against you without pity.”

<sup>4</sup>Our Redeemer, whose name is the LORD of Heaven's Armies, is the Holy One of Israel.

Never again will you be known as the queen of kingdoms.

<sup>6</sup>For I was angry with my chosen people and punished them by letting them fall into your hands.
But you, Babylon, showed them no mercy.
You oppressed even the elderly.

<sup>7</sup>You said, ‘I will reign forever as queen of the world!’
You did not reflect on your actions or think about their consequences.

<sup>8</sup>“Listen to this, you pleasure-loving kingdom, living at ease and feeling secure.
You say, ‘I am the only one, and there is no other.
I will never be a widow or lose my children.’

<sup>9</sup>Well, both these things will come upon you in a moment:
widowhood and the loss of your children.
Yes, these calamities will come upon you,
despite all your witchcraft and magic.

<sup>10</sup>“You felt secure in your wickedness.
‘No one sees me,’ you said.
But your ‘wisdom’ and ‘knowledge’ have led you astray, and you said, ‘I am the only one, and there is no other.’

<sup>11</sup>So disaster will overtake you,
and you won’t be able to charm it away.
Calamity will fall upon you,
and you won’t be able to buy your way out.
A catastrophe will strike you suddenly,
one for which you are not prepared.

<sup>12</sup>“Now use your magical charms!
Use the spells you have worked at all these years!
Maybe they will do you some good.
Maybe they can make someone afraid of you.

<sup>13</sup>All the advice you receive has made you tired.
Where are all your astrologers,
those stargazers who make predictions each month?
Let them stand up and save you from what the future holds.

<sup>14</sup>But they are like straw burning in a fire;
they cannot save themselves from the flame.
You will get no help from them at all;
their hearth is no place to sit for warmth.

<sup>15</sup>And all your friends, those with whom you've done business since childhood,
will go their own ways,
turning a deaf ear to your cries.

Isaiah 48

God's Stubborn People

<sup>1</sup>“Listen to me, O family of Jacob, you who are called by the name of Israel and born into the family of Judah.
Listen, you who take oaths in the name of the LORD and call on the God of Israel.

You don't keep your promises,
<sup>2</sup>even though you call yourself the holy city and talk about depending on the God of Israel,
whose name is the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>3</sup>Long ago I told you what was going to happen.
Then suddenly I took action,
and all my predictions came true.

<sup>4</sup>For I know how stubborn and obstinate you are.
Your necks are as unbending as iron.
Your heads are as hard as bronze.

<sup>5</sup>That is why I told you what would happen;
I told you beforehand what I was going to do.
Then you could never say, ‘My idols did it.
My wooden image and metal god commanded it to happen!’

<sup>6</sup>You have heard my predictions and seen them fulfilled, but you refuse to admit it.

Now I will tell you new things, secrets you have not yet heard.

<sup>7</sup>They are brand new, not things from the past.

So you cannot say, ‘We knew that all the time!’

<sup>8</sup>“Yes, I will tell you of things that are entirely new, things you never heard of before.

For I know so well what traitors you are.

You have been rebels from birth.

<sup>9</sup>Yet for my own sake and for the honor of my name,
I will hold back my anger and not wipe you out.

<sup>10</sup>I have refined you, but not as silver is refined.
Rather, I have refined you in the furnace of suffering.

<sup>11</sup>I will rescue you for my sake—
yes, for my own sake!

I will not let my reputation be tarnished,
and I will not share my glory with idols!

Freedom from Babylon

12 “Listen to me, O family of Jacob,
Israel my chosen one!
I alone am God,
the First and the Last.

<sup>13</sup>It was my hand that laid the foundations of the earth, my right hand that spread out the heavens above.
When I call out the stars,
they all appear in order.”

<sup>14</sup>Have any of your idols ever told you this?
Come, all of you, and listen:
The LORD has chosen Cyrus as his ally.

He will use him to put an end to the empire of Babylon and to destroy the Babylonian* armies.

<sup>15</sup>“I have said it: I am calling Cyrus!

I will send him on this errand and will help him succeed.

<sup>16</sup>Come closer, and listen to this.

From the beginning I have told you plainly what would happen.”

And now the Sovereign LORD and his Spirit have sent me with this message.

<sup>17</sup>This is what the LORD says—

your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:

“I am the LORD your God,

who teaches you what is good for you and leads you along the paths you should follow.

<sup>18</sup>Oh, that you had listened to my commands!

Then you would have had peace flowing like a gentle river and righteousness rolling over you like waves in the sea.

<sup>19</sup>Your descendants would have been like the sands along the seashore—

too many to count!

There would have been no need for your destruction, or for cutting off your family name.”

<sup>20</sup>Yet even now, be free from your captivity!

Leave Babylon and the Babylonians.*

Sing out this message!

Shout it to the ends of the earth!

The LORD has redeemed his servants,
the people of Israel.*

<sup>21</sup>They were not thirsty
when he led them through the desert.
He divided the rock,
and water gushed out for them to drink.

<sup>22</sup>“But there is no peace for the wicked,”
says the LORD.

Isaiah 49

The LORD's Servant Commissioned

<sup>1</sup>Listen to me, all you in distant lands!

Pay attention, you who are far away!

The LORD called me before my birth;
from within the womb he called me by name.

<sup>2</sup>He made my words of judgment as sharp as a sword.

He has hidden me in the shadow of his hand.

I am like a sharp arrow in his quiver.

<sup>3</sup>He said to me, "You are my servant, Israel, and you will bring me glory."

<sup>4</sup>I replied, "But my work seems so useless!

I have spent my strength for nothing and to no purpose.

Yet I leave it all in the LORD's hand;

I will trust God for my reward."

<sup>5</sup>And now the LORD speaks—the one who formed me in my mother's womb to be his servant,

who commissioned me to bring Israel back to him.

The LORD has honored me, and my God has given me strength.

<sup>6</sup>He says, "You will do more than restore the people of Israel to me.

I will make you a light to the Gentiles, and you will bring my salvation to the ends of the earth.”

<sup>7</sup>The LORD, the Redeemer and Holy One of Israel, says to the one who is despised and rejected by the nations,
to the one who is the servant of rulers:
“Kings will stand at attention when you pass by.
Princes will also bow low because of the LORD, the faithful one,
the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.”

Promises of Israel's Restoration

<sup>8</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“At just the right time, I will respond to you.*
On the day of salvation I will help you.
I will protect you and give you to the people
as my covenant with them.
Through you I will reestablish the land of Israel and assign it to its own people again.
<sup>9</sup>I will say to the prisoners, ‘Come out in freedom,’ and to those in darkness, ‘Come into the light.’
They will be my sheep, grazing in green pastures and on hills that were previously bare.
<sup>10</sup>They will neither hunger nor thirst.
The searing sun will not reach them anymore.
For the LORD in his mercy will lead them;
he will lead them beside cool waters.

<sup>11</sup>And I will make my mountains into level paths for them.
The highways will be raised above the valleys.

<sup>12</sup>See, my people will return from far away, from lands to the north and west,
and from as far south as Egypt.*”

<sup>13</sup>Sing for joy, O heavens!

Rejoice, O earth!

Burst into song, O mountains!

For the LORD has comforted his people
and will have compassion on them in their suffering.

<sup>14</sup>Yet Jerusalem* says, “The LORD has deserted us;
the Lord has forgotten us.”

<sup>15</sup>“Never! Can a mother forget her nursing child?

Can she feel no love for the child she has borne?

But even if that were possible,

I would not forget you!

<sup>16</sup>See, I have written your name on the palms of my hands.

Always in my mind is a picture of Jerusalem’s walls in ruins.

<sup>17</sup>Soon your descendants will come back, and all who are trying to destroy you will go away.

<sup>18</sup>Look around you and see,

for all your children will come back to you.

As surely as I live,” says the LORD,

“they will be like jewels or bridal ornaments for you to display.

<sup>19</sup>“Even the most desolate parts of your abandoned land will soon be crowded with your people.
Your enemies who enslaved you will be far away.

<sup>20</sup>The generations born in exile will return and say,
‘We need more room! It’s crowded here!’

<sup>21</sup>Then you will think to yourself,
‘Who has given me all these descendants?
For most of my children were killed,
and the rest were carried away into exile.
I was left here all alone.
Where did all these people come from?
Who bore these children?
Who raised them for me?’”

<sup>22</sup>This is what the Sovereign LORD says:
“See, I will give a signal to the godless nations.
They will carry your little sons back to you in their arms;
they will bring your daughters on their shoulders.

<sup>23</sup>Kings and queens will serve you and care for all your needs.
They will bow to the earth before you and lick the dust from your feet.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.
Those who trust in me will never be put to shame.”

<sup>24</sup>Who can snatch the plunder of war from the hands of a warrior?

Who can demand that a tyrant* let his captives go?

<sup>25</sup>But the LORD says,

“The captives of warriors will be released,
and the plunder of tyrants will be retrieved.

For I will fight those who fight you,
and I will save your children.

They will be drunk with rivers of their own blood.

All the world will know that I, the LORD,
am your Savior and your Redeemer,
the Mighty One of Israel.*”

Isaiah 50

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“Was your mother sent away because I divorced her?
Did I sell you as slaves to my creditors?
No, you were sold because of your sins.
And your mother, too, was taken because of your sins.
<sup>2</sup>Why was no one there when I came?
Why didn’t anyone answer when I called?
Is it because I have no power to rescue?
No, that is not the reason!
For I can speak to the sea and make it dry up!
I can turn rivers into deserts covered with dying fish.
<sup>3</sup>I dress the skies in darkness, covering them with clothes of mourning.”

The LORD’s Obedient Servant

<sup>4</sup> The Sovereign LORD has given me his words of wisdom, so that I know how to comfort the weary.
Morning by morning he awakens me and opens my understanding to his will.
<sup>5</sup> The Sovereign LORD has spoken to me, and I have listened.
I have not rebelled or turned away.
<sup>6</sup> I offered my back to those who beat me and my cheeks to those who pulled out my beard.
I did not hide my face

from mockery and spitting.

<sup>7</sup> Because the Sovereign LORD helps me,
I will not be disgraced.

Therefore, I have set my face like a stone, determined to do his will.

And I know that I will not be put to shame.

<sup>8</sup> He who gives me justice is near.

Who will dare to bring charges against me now?

Where are my accusers?

Let them appear!

<sup>9</sup> See, the Sovereign LORD is on my side!

Who will declare me guilty?

All my enemies will be destroyed like old clothes that have been eaten by moths!

<sup>10</sup> Who among you fears the LORD and obeys his servant?

If you are walking in darkness,

without a ray of light,

trust in the LORD

and rely on your God.

<sup>11</sup> But watch out, you who live in your own light and warm yourselves by your own fires.

This is the reward you will receive from me:

You will soon fall down in great torment.

Isaiah 51

A Call to Trust the LORD

<sup>1</sup>“Listen to me, all who hope for deliverance—all who seek the LORD!

Consider the rock from which you were cut,
the quarry from which you were mined.

<sup>2</sup>Yes, think about Abraham, your ancestor, and Sarah, who gave birth to your nation.
Abraham was only one man when I called him.
But when I blessed him, he became a great nation.”

<sup>3</sup>The LORD will comfort Israel* again and have pity on her ruins.
Her desert will blossom like Eden,
her barren wilderness like the garden of the LORD.
Joy and gladness will be found there.
Songs of thanksgiving will fill the air.

<sup>4</sup>“Listen to me, my people.
Hear me, Israel,
for my law will be proclaimed,
and my justice will become a light to the nations.
<sup>5</sup>My mercy and justice are coming soon.
My salvation is on the way.
My strong arm will bring justice to the nations.
All distant lands will look to me and wait in hope for my powerful arm.

<sup>6</sup>Look up to the skies above, and gaze down on the earth below.
For the skies will disappear like smoke,
and the earth will wear out like a piece of clothing.
The people of the earth will die like flies,
but my salvation lasts forever.
My righteous rule will never end!

<sup>7</sup>“Listen to me, you who know right from wrong,
you who cherish my law in your hearts.
Do not be afraid of people’s scorn,
nor fear their insults.
<sup>8</sup>For the moth will devour them as it devours clothing.
The worm will eat at them as it eats wool.
But my righteousness will last forever.
My salvation will continue from generation to generation.”

<sup>9</sup>Wake up, wake up, O LORD! Clothe yourself with strength!
Flex your mighty right arm!
Rouse yourself as in the days of old when you slew Egypt, the dragon of the Nile.*

<sup>10</sup>Are you not the same today,
the one who dried up the sea,
making a path of escape through the depths
so that your people could cross over?

<sup>11</sup>Those who have been ransomed by the LORD will return.
They will enter Jerusalem* singing,
crowned with everlasting joy.

Sorrow and mourning will disappear,
and they will be filled with joy and gladness.

<sup>12</sup> “I, yes I, am the one who comforts you.

So why are you afraid of mere humans,
who wither like the grass and disappear?

<sup>13</sup> Yet you have forgotten the LORD, your Creator, the one who stretched out the sky like a canopy
and laid the foundations of the earth.

Will you remain in constant dread of human oppressors?

Will you continue to fear the anger of your enemies?

Where is their fury and anger now?

It is gone!

<sup>14</sup> Soon all you captives will be released!

Imprisonment, starvation, and death will not be your fate!

<sup>15</sup> For I am the LORD your God,
who stirs up the sea, causing its waves to roar.

My name is the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

<sup>16</sup> And I have put my words in your mouth and hidden you safely in my hand.

I stretched out* the sky like a canopy
and laid the foundations of the earth.

I am the one who says to Israel,

‘You are my people!’”

You have drunk the cup of the LORD’s fury.

You have drunk the cup of terror,
tipping out its last drops.

<sup>18</sup>Not one of your children is left alive to take your hand and guide you.

<sup>19</sup>These two calamities have fallen on you:
desolation and destruction, famine and war.
And who is left to sympathize with you?
Who is left to comfort you?*

<sup>20</sup>For your children have fainted and lie in the streets, helpless as antelopes caught in a net.
The LORD has poured out his fury;
God has rebuked them.

<sup>21</sup>But now listen to this, you afflicted ones who sit in a drunken stupor, though not from drinking wine.

<sup>22</sup>This is what the Sovereign LORD,
your God and Defender, says:
“See, I have taken the terrible cup from your hands.
You will drink no more of my fury.

<sup>23</sup>Instead, I will hand that cup to your tormentors, those who said, ‘We will trample you into the dust and walk on your backs.’”

Isaiah 52

Deliverance for Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Wake up, wake up, O Zion!
Clothe yourself with strength.
Put on your beautiful clothes, O holy city of Jerusalem, for unclean and godless people will enter your gates no longer.

Sit in a place of honor.
Remove the chains of slavery from your neck,
O captive daughter of Zion.

<sup>3</sup>For this is what the LORD says:
“When I sold you into exile,
I received no payment.
Now I can redeem you without having to pay for you.”

<sup>4</sup>This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “Long ago my people chose to live in Egypt. Now they are oppressed by Assyria.
<sup>5</sup>What is this?” asks the LORD. “Why are my people enslaved again? Those who rule them shout in exultation. My name is blasphemed all day long.* <sup>6</sup>But I will reveal my name to my people, and they will come to know its power. Then at last they will recognize that I am the one who speaks to them.”

<sup>7</sup>How beautiful on the mountains

are the feet of the messenger who brings good news,
the good news of peace and salvation,
the news that the God of Israel* reigns!

<sup>8</sup>The watchmen shout and sing with joy, for before their very eyes
they see the LORD returning to Jerusalem.*

<sup>9</sup>Let the ruins of Jerusalem break into joyful song,
for the LORD has comforted his people.
He has redeemed Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD has demonstrated his holy power before the eyes of all the nations.
All the ends of the earth will see the victory of our God.

<sup>11</sup>Get out! Get out and leave your captivity, where everything you touch is unclean.
Get out of there and purify yourselves,
you who carry home the sacred objects of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>You will not leave in a hurry, running for your lives.
For the LORD will go ahead of you;
yes, the God of Israel will protect you from behind.

The LORD's Suffering Servant

<sup>13</sup>See, my servant will prosper;
he will be highly exalted.

<sup>14</sup>But many were amazed when they saw him.*
His face was so disfigured he seemed hardly human, and from his appearance, one would scarcely know he was a man.

<sup>15</sup>And he will startle* many nations.

Kings will stand speechless in his presence.

For they will see what they had not been told;

they will understand what they had not heard about.*

<sup>1</sup>Who has believed our message?

To whom has the LORD revealed his powerful arm?

<sup>2</sup>My servant grew up in the LORD's presence like a tender green shoot, like a root in dry ground.

There was nothing beautiful or majestic about his appearance, nothing to attract us to him.

<sup>3</sup>He was despised and rejected—

a man of sorrows, acquainted with deepest grief.

We turned our backs on him and looked the other way.

He was despised, and we did not care.

<sup>4</sup>Yet it was our weaknesses he carried;

it was our sorrows* that weighed him down.

And we thought his troubles were a punishment from God,
a punishment for his own sins!

<sup>5</sup>But he was pierced for our rebellion, crushed for our sins.

He was beaten so we could be whole.

He was whipped so we could be healed.

<sup>6</sup>All of us, like sheep, have strayed away.

We have left God's paths to follow our own.

Yet the LORD laid on him

the sins of us all.

<sup>7</sup>He was oppressed and treated harshly,
yet he never said a word.
He was led like a lamb to the slaughter.
And as a sheep is silent before the shearers,
he did not open his mouth.

<sup>8</sup>Unjustly condemned, he was led away.*
No one cared that he died without descendants, that his life was cut short in midstream.*

But he was struck down
for the rebellion of my people.

<sup>9</sup>He had done no wrong and had never deceived anyone.
But he was buried like a criminal;
he was put in a rich man's grave.

<sup>10</sup>But it was the LORD's good plan to crush him and cause him grief.
Yet when his life is made an offering for sin,
he will have many descendants.
He will enjoy a long life,
and the LORD's good plan will prosper in his hands.

<sup>11</sup>When he sees all that is accomplished by his anguish, he will be satisfied.
And because of his experience,
my righteous servant will make it possible for many to be counted righteous, for he will bear all their sins.

<sup>12</sup>I will give him the honors of a victorious soldier, because he exposed himself to death.

He was counted among the rebels.
He bore the sins of many and interceded for rebels.

Isaiah 54

Future Glory for Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>“Sing, O childless woman, you who have never given birth!
Break into loud and joyful song, O Jerusalem,
you who have never been in labor.
For the desolate woman now has more children than the woman who lives with her husband,”
says the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>“Enlarge your house; build an addition.
Spread out your home, and spare no expense!
<sup>3</sup>For you will soon be bursting at the seams.
Your descendants will occupy other nations and resettle the ruined cities.

<sup>4</sup>“Fear not; you will no longer live in shame.
Don’t be afraid; there is no more disgrace for you.
You will no longer remember the shame of your youth and the sorrows of widowhood.

<sup>5</sup>For your Creator will be your husband;
the LORD of Heaven’s Armies is his name!
He is your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel,
the God of all the earth.

<sup>6</sup>For the LORD has called you back from your grief—as though you were a young wife abandoned by her husband,”

says your God.

<sup>7</sup>“For a brief moment I abandoned you,
but with great compassion I will take you back.
<sup>8</sup>In a burst of anger I turned my face away for a little while.
But with everlasting love I will have compassion on you,” says the LORD, your Redeemer.

<sup>9</sup>“Just as I swore in the time of Noah that I would never again let a flood cover the earth, so now I swear
that I will never again be angry and punish you.
<sup>10</sup>For the mountains may move and the hills disappear,
but even then my faithful love for you will remain.
My covenant of blessing will never be broken,”
says the LORD, who has mercy on you.

<sup>11</sup>“O storm-battered city, troubled and desolate!
I will rebuild you with precious jewels and make your foundations from lapis lazuli.
<sup>12</sup>I will make your towers of sparkling rubies, your gates of shining gems,
and your walls of precious stones.
<sup>13</sup>I will teach all your children,
and they will enjoy great peace.
<sup>14</sup>You will be secure under a government that is just and fair.
Your enemies will stay far away.

You will live in peace,
and terror will not come near.

<sup>15</sup>If any nation comes to fight you,
it is not because I sent them.
Whoever attacks you will go down in defeat.

<sup>16</sup>“I have created the blacksmith who fans the coals beneath the forge and makes the weapons of destruction.
And I have created the armies that destroy.

<sup>17</sup>But in that coming day no weapon turned against you will succeed.
You will silence every voice raised up to accuse you.
These benefits are enjoyed by the servants of the LORD;
their vindication will come from me.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

Isaiah 55

Invitation to the LORD's Salvation

<sup>1</sup>“Is anyone thirsty?

Come and drink—

even if you have no money!

Come, take your choice of wine or milk—

it's all free!

<sup>2</sup>Why spend your money on food that does not give you strength?

Why pay for food that does you no good?

Listen to me, and you will eat what is good.

You will enjoy the finest food.

<sup>3</sup>“Come to me with your ears wide open.

Listen, and you will find life.

I will make an everlasting covenant with you.

I will give you all the unfailing love I promised to David.

<sup>4</sup>See how I used him to display my power among the peoples.

I made him a leader among the nations.

<sup>5</sup>You also will command nations you do not know,
and peoples unknown to you will come running to obey,
because I, the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel, have made you glorious.”

<sup>6</sup>Seek the LORD while you can find him.

Call on him now while he is near.

<sup>7</sup>Let the wicked change their ways and banish the very thought of doing wrong.
Let them turn to the LORD that he may have mercy on them.
Yes, turn to our God, for he will forgive generously.

<sup>8</sup>“My thoughts are nothing like your thoughts,” says the LORD.

“And my ways are far beyond anything you could imagine.

<sup>9</sup>For just as the heavens are higher than the earth, so my ways are higher than your ways and my thoughts higher than your thoughts.

<sup>10</sup>“The rain and snow come down from the heavens and stay on the ground to water the earth.

They cause the grain to grow, producing seed for the farmer and bread for the hungry.

<sup>11</sup>It is the same with my word.
I send it out, and it always produces fruit.
It will accomplish all I want it to,
and it will prosper everywhere I send it.

<sup>12</sup>You will live in joy and peace.
The mountains and hills will burst into song,
and the trees of the field will clap their hands!

<sup>13</sup>Where once there were thorns, cypress trees will grow.
Where nettles grew, myrtles will sprout up.
These events will bring great honor to the LORD’s name;
they will be an everlasting sign of his power and love.”

Isaiah 56

Blessings for All Nations

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“Be just and fair to all.
Do what is right and good,
for I am coming soon to rescue you and to display my righteousness among you.

<sup>2</sup> Blessed are all those who are careful to do this.
Blessed are those who honor my Sabbath days of rest and keep themselves from doing wrong.

<sup>3</sup> “Don’t let foreigners who commit themselves to the LORD say,

‘The LORD will never let me be part of his people.’
And don’t let the eunuchs say,
‘I’m a dried-up tree with no children and no future.’

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD says:
I will bless those eunuchs who keep my Sabbath days holy and who choose to do what pleases me and commit their lives to me.
<sup>5</sup> I will give them—within the walls of my house—
a memorial and a name far greater than sons and daughters could give.

For the name I give them is an everlasting one.
It will never disappear!

<sup>6</sup>“I will also bless the foreigners who commit themselves to the LORD, who serve him and love his name,
who worship him and do not desecrate the Sabbath day of rest,
and who hold fast to my covenant.

<sup>7</sup>I will bring them to my holy mountain of Jerusalem and will fill them with joy in my house of prayer.
I will accept their burnt offerings and sacrifices, because my Temple will be called a house of prayer for all nations.

<sup>8</sup>For the Sovereign LORD, who brings back the outcasts of Israel, says:
I will bring others, too,
besides my people Israel.”

Sinful Leaders Condemned

<sup>9</sup>Come, wild animals of the field!
Come, wild animals of the forest!
Come and devour my people!

<sup>10</sup>For the leaders of my people—the LORD’s watchmen, his shepherds—are blind and ignorant.
They are like silent watchdogs that give no warning when danger comes.
They love to lie around, sleeping and dreaming.

<sup>11</sup>Like greedy dogs, they are never satisfied.

They are ignorant shepherds, all following their own path and intent on personal gain.

<sup>12</sup>“Come,” they say, “let’s get some wine and have a party.

Let’s all get drunk.

Then tomorrow we’ll do it again and have an even bigger party!”

Isaiah 57

<sup>1</sup> Good people pass away;
the godly often die before their time.
But no one seems to care or wonder why.
No one seems to understand that God is protecting them from the evil to come.
<sup>2</sup> For those who follow godly paths will rest in peace when they die.

Idolatrous Worship Condemned

<sup>3</sup> “But you—come here, you witches’ children, you offspring of adulterers and prostitutes!
<sup>4</sup> Whom do you mock,
making faces and sticking out your tongues?
You children of sinners and liars!
<sup>5</sup> You worship your idols with great passion beneath the oaks and under every green tree.
You sacrifice your children down in the valleys,
among the jagged rocks in the cliffs.
<sup>6</sup> Your gods are the smooth stones in the valleys.
You worship them with liquid offerings and grain offerings.
They, not I, are your inheritance.
Do you think all this makes me happy?
<sup>7</sup> You have committed adultery on every high mountain.
There you have worshiped idols and have been unfaithful to me.

<sup>8</sup>You have put pagan symbols on your doorposts and behind your doors.
You have left me
and climbed into bed with these detestable gods.
You have committed yourselves to them.
You love to look at their naked bodies.

Spiritual Adultery

<sup>9</sup>You have given olive oil to Molech* with many gifts of perfume.
You have traveled far,
even into the world of the dead,*
to find new gods to love.

<sup>10</sup>You grew weary in your search,
but you never gave up.
Desire gave you renewed strength,
and you did not grow weary.

<sup>11</sup>“Are you afraid of these idols?
Do they terrify you?
Is that why you have lied to me
and forgotten me and my words?
Is it because of my long silence that you no longer fear me?

<sup>12</sup>Now I will expose your so-called good deeds.
None of them will help you.

<sup>13</sup>Let's see if your idols can save you when you cry to them for help.

Why, a puff of wind can knock them down!
If you just breathe on them, they fall over!
But whoever trusts in me will inherit the land and possess my holy mountain.”

God Forgives the Repentant

<sup>14</sup>God says, “Rebuild the road!
Clear away the rocks and stones
so my people can return from captivity.”
<sup>15</sup>The high and lofty one who lives in eternity, the Holy One, says this:
“I live in the high and holy place with those whose spirits are contrite and humble.
I restore the crushed spirit of the humble and revive the courage of those with repentant hearts.
<sup>16</sup>For I will not fight against you forever;
I will not always be angry.
If I were, all people would pass away—
all the souls I have made.
<sup>17</sup>I was angry,
so I punished these greedy people.
I withdrew from them,
but they kept going on their own stubborn way.
<sup>18</sup>I have seen what they do,
but I will heal them anyway!
I will lead them.
I will comfort those who mourn,
<sup>19</sup>bringing words of praise to their lips.

May they have abundant peace, both near and far,”
says the LORD, who heals them.

<sup>20</sup>“But those who still reject me are like the restless sea, which is never still but continually churns up mud and dirt.

<sup>21</sup>There is no peace for the wicked,” says my God.

True and False Worship

<sup>1</sup>“Shout with the voice of a trumpet blast.

Shout aloud! Don’t be timid.

Tell my people Israel* of their sins!

<sup>2</sup>Yet they act so pious!

They come to the Temple every day and seem delighted to learn all about me.

They act like a righteous nation that would never abandon the laws of its God.

They ask me to take action on their behalf, pretending they want to be near me.

<sup>3</sup>‘We have fasted before you!’ they say.

‘Why aren’t you impressed?’

We have been very hard on ourselves, and you don’t even notice it!’

“I will tell you why!” I respond.

“It’s because you are fasting to please yourselves.

Even while you fast,
you keep oppressing your workers.

<sup>4</sup>What good is fasting
when you keep on fighting and quarreling?

This kind of fasting will never get you anywhere with me.

<sup>5</sup>You humble yourselves by going through the motions of penance, bowing your heads

like reeds bending in the wind.
You dress in burlap
and cover yourselves with ashes.
Is this what you call fasting?
Do you really think this will please the LORD?

<sup>6</sup>“No, this is the kind of fasting I want:
Free those who are wrongly imprisoned;
lighten the burden of those who work for you.
Let the oppressed go free,
and remove the chains that bind people.
<sup>7</sup>Share your food with the hungry, and give shelter to the homeless.
Give clothes to those who need them,
and do not hide from relatives who need your help.

<sup>8</sup>“Then your salvation will come like the dawn, and your wounds will quickly heal.
Your godliness will lead you forward, and the glory of the LORD will protect you from behind.
<sup>9</sup>Then when you call, the LORD will answer.
‘Yes, I am here,’ he will quickly reply.

“Remove the heavy yoke of oppression.
Stop pointing your finger and spreading vicious rumors!
<sup>10</sup>Feed the hungry, and help those in trouble.

Then your light will shine out from the darkness,
and the darkness around you will be as bright as noon.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD will guide you continually, giving you water when you are dry and restoring your strength.

You will be like a well-watered garden,
like an ever-flowing spring.

<sup>12</sup>Some of you will rebuild the deserted ruins of your cities.
Then you will be known as a builder of walls and a restorer of homes.

<sup>13</sup> “Keep the Sabbath day holy.

Don’t pursue your own interests on that day,
but enjoy the Sabbath and speak of it with delight as the LORD’s holy day.

Honor the Sabbath in everything you do on that day,
and don’t follow your own desires or talk idly.

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD will be your delight.

I will give you great honor and satisfy you with the inheritance I promised to your ancestor Jacob.

I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Isaiah 59

Warnings against Sin

<sup>1</sup>Listen! The LORD's arm is not too weak to save you, nor is his ear too deaf to hear you call.

<sup>2</sup>It's your sins that have cut you off from God.
Because of your sins, he has turned away and will not listen anymore.

<sup>3</sup>Your hands are the hands of murderers, and your fingers are filthy with sin.
Your lips are full of lies,
and your mouth spews corruption.

<sup>4</sup>No one cares about being fair and honest.
The people's lawsuits are based on lies.
They conceive evil deeds and then give birth to sin.

<sup>5</sup>They hatch deadly snakes and weave spiders' webs.
Whoever falls into their webs will die,
and there's danger even in getting near them.

<sup>6</sup>Their webs can't be made into clothing, and nothing they do is productive.
All their activity is filled with sin,
and violence is their trademark.

<sup>7</sup>Their feet run to do evil,
and they rush to commit murder.

They think only about sinning.
Misery and destruction always follow them.
<sup>8</sup>They don't know where to find peace or what it means to be just and good.
They have mapped out crooked roads,
and no one who follows them knows a moment's peace.

<sup>9</sup>So there is no justice among us, and we know nothing about right living.
We look for light but find only darkness.
We look for bright skies but walk in gloom.

<sup>10</sup>We grope like the blind along a wall, feeling our way like people without eyes.
Even at brightest noontime,
we stumble as though it were dark.
Among the living,
we are like the dead.

<sup>11</sup>We growl like hungry bears;
we moan like mournful doves.
We look for justice, but it never comes.
We look for rescue, but it is far away from us.

<sup>12</sup>For our sins are piled up before God and testify against us.

Yes, we know what sinners we are.

<sup>13</sup>We know we have rebelled and have denied the LORD.
We have turned our backs on our God.
We know how unfair and oppressive we have been, carefully planning our deceitful lies.

<sup>14</sup>Our courts oppose the righteous, and justice is nowhere to be found.
Truth stumbles in the streets,
and honesty has been outlawed.

<sup>15</sup>Yes, truth is gone, and anyone who renounces evil is attacked.

The LORD looked and was displeased to find there was no justice.

<sup>16</sup>He was amazed to see that no one intervened to help the oppressed.

So he himself stepped in to save them with his strong arm,
and his justice sustained him.

<sup>17</sup>He put on righteousness as his body armor and placed the helmet of salvation on his head.
He clothed himself with a robe of vengeance and wrapped himself in a cloak of divine passion.

<sup>18</sup>He will repay his enemies for their evil deeds.
His fury will fall on his foes.

He will pay them back even to the ends of the earth.

<sup>19</sup>In the west, people will respect the name of the LORD;
in the east, they will glorify him.
For he will come like a raging flood tide driven by the breath of the LORD.*

<sup>20</sup>“The Redeemer will come to Jerusalem to buy back those in Israel who have turned from their sins,”*
says the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>“And this is my covenant with them,” says the LORD. “My Spirit will not leave them, and neither will these words I have given you. They will be on your lips and on the lips of your children and your children’s children forever. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Isaiah 60

Future Glory for Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>“Arise, Jerusalem! Let your light shine for all to see.

For the glory of the LORD rises to shine on you.

<sup>2</sup>Darkness as black as night covers all the nations of the earth, but the glory of the LORD rises and appears over you.

<sup>3</sup>All nations will come to your light;

mighty kings will come to see your radiance.

<sup>4</sup>“Look and see, for everyone is coming home!

Your sons are coming from distant lands;

your little daughters will be carried home.

<sup>5</sup>Your eyes will shine, and your heart will thrill with joy,

for merchants from around the world will come to you.

They will bring you the wealth of many lands.

<sup>6</sup>Vast caravans of camels will converge on you, the camels of Midian and Ephah.

The people of Sheba will bring gold and frankincense and will come worshiping the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>The flocks of Kedar will be given to you, and the rams of Nebaioth will be brought for my altars.

I will accept their offerings,

and I will make my Temple glorious.

<sup>8</sup>“And what do I see flying like clouds to Israel, like doves to their nests?

<sup>9</sup>They are ships from the ends of the earth,
from lands that trust in me,
led by the great ships of Tarshish.
They are bringing the people of Israel home from far away, carrying their silver and gold.
They will honor the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel,
for he has filled you with splendor.

<sup>10</sup>“Foreigners will come to rebuild your towns, and their kings will serve you.
For though I have destroyed you in my anger,
I will now have mercy on you through my grace.

<sup>11</sup>Your gates will stay open day and night to receive the wealth of many lands.
The kings of the world will be led as captives
in a victory procession.

<sup>12</sup>For the nations that refuse to serve you will be destroyed.

<sup>13</sup>“The glory of Lebanon will be yours—the forests of cypress, fir, and pine—to beautify my sanctuary.
My Temple will be glorious!

<sup>14</sup>The descendants of your tormentors will come and bow before you.

Those who despised you will kiss your feet.
They will call you the City of the LORD,
and Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>“Though you were once despised and hated, with no one traveling through you,
I will make you beautiful forever,
a joy to all generations.

<sup>16</sup>Powerful kings and mighty nations will satisfy your every need,
as though you were a child nursing at the breast of a queen.
You will know at last that I, the LORD,
am your Savior and your Redeemer,
the Mighty One of Israel.*

<sup>17</sup>I will exchange your bronze for gold, your iron for silver,
your wood for bronze,
and your stones for iron.
I will make peace your leader and righteousness your ruler.

<sup>18</sup>Violence will disappear from your land;
the desolation and destruction of war will end.
Salvation will surround you like city walls,
and praise will be on the lips of all who enter there.

<sup>19</sup>“No longer will you need the sun to shine by day, nor the moon to give its light by night,

for the LORD your God will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory.

<sup>20</sup>Your sun will never set;
your moon will not go down.

For the LORD will be your everlasting light.
Your days of mourning will come to an end.

<sup>21</sup>All your people will be righteous.
They will possess their land forever,
for I will plant them there with my own hands
in order to bring myself glory.

<sup>22</sup>The smallest family will become a thousand people, and the tiniest group will become a mighty nation.
At the right time, I, the LORD, will make it happen.”

Isaiah 61

Good News for the Oppressed

<sup>1</sup> The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is upon me, for the LORD has anointed me
to bring good news to the poor.

He has sent me to comfort the brokenhearted and to proclaim that captives will be released and prisoners will be freed.*

<sup>2</sup> He has sent me to tell those who mourn that the time of the LORD's favor has come,* and with it, the day of God's anger against their enemies.

<sup>3</sup> To all who mourn in Israel,*
he will give a crown of beauty for ashes,
a joyous blessing instead of mourning,
festive praise instead of despair.
In their righteousness, they will be like great oaks that the LORD has planted for his own glory.

<sup>4</sup> They will rebuild the ancient ruins, repairing cities destroyed long ago.
They will revive them,
though they have been deserted for many generations.

<sup>5</sup> Foreigners will be your servants.
They will feed your flocks and plow your fields and tend your vineyards.

<sup>6</sup>You will be called priests of the LORD, ministers of our God.

You will feed on the treasures of the nations and boast in their riches.

<sup>7</sup>Instead of shame and dishonor,
you will enjoy a double share of honor.

You will possess a double portion of prosperity in your land,
and everlasting joy will be yours.

<sup>8</sup>“For I, the LORD, love justice.

I hate robbery and wrongdoing.

I will faithfully reward my people for their suffering and make an everlasting covenant with them.

<sup>9</sup>Their descendants will be recognized and honored among the nations.

Everyone will realize that they are a people
the LORD has blessed.”

<sup>10</sup>I am overwhelmed with joy in the LORD my God!

For he has dressed me with the clothing of salvation and draped me in a robe of righteousness.

I am like a bridegroom in his wedding suit or a bride with her jewels.

<sup>11</sup>The Sovereign LORD will show his justice to the nations of the world.

Everyone will praise him!

His righteousness will be like a garden in early spring, with plants springing up everywhere.

Isaiah 62

Isaiah's Prayer for Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Because I love Zion,
I will not keep still.
Because my heart yearns for Jerusalem,
I cannot remain silent.
I will not stop praying for her until her righteousness shines like the dawn, and her salvation blazes like a burning torch.

<sup>2</sup>The nations will see your righteousness.
World leaders will be blinded by your glory.
And you will be given a new name
by the LORD's own mouth.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD will hold you in his hand for all to see—a splendid crown in the hand of God.

<sup>4</sup>Never again will you be called "The Forsaken City" or "The Desolate Land."*

Your new name will be "The City of God's Delight" and "The Bride of God,"* for the LORD delights in you and will claim you as his bride.

<sup>5</sup>Your children will commit themselves to you, O Jerusalem, just as a young man commits himself to his bride.
Then God will rejoice over you as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride.

<sup>6</sup>O Jerusalem, I have posted watchmen on your walls;
they will pray day and night, continually.

Take no rest, all you who pray to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Give the LORD no rest until he completes his work, until he makes Jerusalem the pride of the earth.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD has sworn to Jerusalem by his own strength:
“I will never again hand you over to your enemies.

Never again will foreign warriors come and take away your grain and new wine.

<sup>9</sup>You raised the grain, and you will eat it, praising the LORD.

Within the courtyards of the Temple,
you yourselves will drink the wine you have pressed.”

<sup>10</sup>Go out through the gates!

Prepare the highway for my people to return!

Smooth out the road; pull out the boulders;
raise a flag for all the nations to see.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD has sent this message to every land:

“Tell the people of Israel, *

‘Look, your Savior is coming.

See, he brings his reward with him as he comes.’”

<sup>12</sup>They will be called “The Holy People” and “The People Redeemed by the LORD.”

And Jerusalem will be known as “The Desirable Place” and “The City No Longer Forsaken.”

Isaiah 63

Judgment against the LORD's Enemies

<sup>1</sup> Who is this who comes from Edom, from the city of Bozrah,
with his clothing stained red?
Who is this in royal robes,
marching in his great strength?

“It is I, the LORD, announcing your salvation!
It is I, the LORD, who has the power to save!”

<sup>2</sup> Why are your clothes so red,
as if you have been treading out grapes?

<sup>3</sup> “I have been treading the winepress alone;
no one was there to help me.
In my anger I have trampled my enemies
as if they were grapes.
In my fury I have trampled my foes.
Their blood has stained my clothes.

<sup>4</sup> For the time has come for me to avenge my people, to ransom them from their oppressors.

<sup>5</sup> I was amazed to see that no one intervened
to help the oppressed.
So I myself stepped in to save them with my strong arm,
and my wrath sustained me.

<sup>6</sup>I crushed the nations in my anger and made them stagger and fall to the ground, spilling their blood upon the earth.”

Praise for Deliverance

<sup>7</sup>I will tell of the LORD’s unfailing love.
I will praise the LORD for all he has done.
I will rejoice in his great goodness to Israel,
which he has granted according to his mercy and love.

<sup>8</sup>He said, “They are my very own people.
Surely they will not betray me again.”
And he became their Savior.

<sup>9</sup>In all their suffering he also suffered,
and he personally* rescued them.
In his love and mercy he redeemed them.
He lifted them up and carried them through all the years.

<sup>10</sup>But they rebelled against him and grieved his Holy Spirit.
So he became their enemy and fought against them.

<sup>11</sup>Then they remembered those days of old when Moses led his people out of Egypt.
They cried out, “Where is the one who brought Israel through the sea,
with Moses as their shepherd?
Where is the one who sent his Holy Spirit to be among his people?”

<sup>12</sup>Where is the one whose power was displayed when Moses lifted up his hand—
the one who divided the sea before them, making himself famous forever?

<sup>13</sup>Where is the one who led them through the bottom of the sea?

They were like fine stallions racing through the desert, never stumbling.

<sup>14</sup>As with cattle going down into a peaceful valley, the Spirit of the LORD gave them rest.

You led your people, LORD,
and gained a magnificent reputation.”

Prayer for Mercy and Pardon

<sup>15</sup>LORD, look down from heaven;
look from your holy, glorious home, and see us.

Where is the passion and the might you used to show on our behalf?

Where are your mercy and compassion now?

<sup>16</sup>Surely you are still our Father!

Even if Abraham and Jacob* would disown us,
LORD, you would still be our Father.

You are our Redeemer from ages past.

<sup>17</sup>LORD, why have you allowed us to turn from your path?

Why have you given us stubborn hearts so we no longer fear you?

Return and help us, for we are your servants,
the tribes that are your special possession.

<sup>18</sup>How briefly your holy people possessed your holy place, and now our enemies have destroyed it.

<sup>19</sup>Sometimes it seems as though we never belonged to you, as though we had never been known as your people.

Isaiah 64

<sup>1</sup> *Oh, that you would burst from the heavens and come down!

How the mountains would quake in your presence!

<sup>2</sup> *As fire causes wood to burn and water to boil,

your coming would make the nations tremble.

Then your enemies would learn the reason for your fame!

<sup>3</sup>When you came down long ago,

you did awesome deeds beyond our highest expectations.

And oh, how the mountains quaked!

<sup>4</sup>For since the world began,

no ear has heard

and no eye has seen a God like you, who works for those who wait for him!

<sup>5</sup> You welcome those who gladly do good,
who follow godly ways.

But you have been very angry with us,
for we are not godly.

We are constant sinners;

how can people like us be saved?

<sup>6</sup>We are all infected and impure with sin.

When we display our righteous deeds,
they are nothing but filthy rags.

Like autumn leaves, we wither and fall,
and our sins sweep us away like the wind.

<sup>7</sup>Yet no one calls on your name or pleads with you for mercy.

Therefore, you have turned away from us
and turned us over * to our sins.

<sup>8</sup> And yet, O LORD, you are our Father.
We are the clay, and you are the potter.
We all are formed by your hand.
<sup>9</sup> Don't be so angry with us, LORD.
Please don't remember our sins forever.
Look at us, we pray,
and see that we are all your people.

<sup>10</sup> Your holy cities are destroyed.
Zion is a wilderness;
yes, Jerusalem is a desolate ruin.

<sup>11</sup> The holy and beautiful Temple where our ancestors praised you has been burned down,
and all the things of beauty are destroyed.

<sup>12</sup> After all this, LORD, must you still refuse to help us?
Will you continue to be silent and punish us?

Isaiah 65

Judgment and Final Salvation

<sup>1</sup>The LORD says,

“I was ready to respond, but no one asked for help.
I was ready to be found, but no one was looking for me.
I said, ‘Here I am, here I am!’
to a nation that did not call on my name.*

<sup>2</sup>All day long I opened my arms to a rebellious people.*
But they follow their own evil paths and their own crooked schemes.

<sup>3</sup>All day long they insult me to my face by worshiping idols in their sacred gardens.
They burn incense on pagan altars.

<sup>4</sup>At night they go out among the graves, worshiping the dead.
They eat the flesh of pigs
and make stews with other forbidden foods.

<sup>5</sup>Yet they say to each other,
‘Don’t come too close or you will defile me!
I am holier than you!’
These people are a stench in my nostrils, an acrid smell that never goes away.

<sup>6</sup>“Look, my decree is written out* in front of me:
I will not stand silent;

I will repay them in full!
Yes, I will repay them—
<sup>7</sup>both for their own sins and for those of their ancestors,”
says the LORD.

“For they also burned incense on the mountains and insulted me on the hills.
I will pay them back in full!

<sup>8</sup> “But I will not destroy them all,”
says the LORD.

“For just as good grapes are found among a cluster of bad ones

(and someone will say, ‘Don’t throw them all away—some of those grapes are good!’),
so I will not destroy all Israel.
For I still have true servants there.

<sup>9</sup> I will preserve a remnant of the people of Israel* and of Judah to possess my land.
Those I choose will inherit it,
and my servants will live there.

<sup>10</sup> The plain of Sharon will again be filled with flocks for my people who have searched for me, and the valley of Achor will be a place to pasture herds.

<sup>11</sup> “But because the rest of you have forsaken the LORD and have forgotten his Temple, and because you have prepared feasts to honor the god of Fate

and have offered mixed wine to the god of Destiny, <sup>12</sup>now I will ‘destine’ you for the sword.
All of you will bow down before the executioner.
For when I called, you did not answer.
When I spoke, you did not listen.
You deliberately sinned—before my very eyes—
and chose to do what you know I despise.”

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says:
“My servants will eat,
but you will starve.
My servants will drink,
but you will be thirsty.
My servants will rejoice,
but you will be sad and ashamed.

<sup>14</sup>My servants will sing for joy,
but you will cry in sorrow and despair.

<sup>15</sup>Your name will be a curse word among my people, for the Sovereign LORD will destroy you and will call his true servants by another name.

<sup>16</sup>All who invoke a blessing or take an oath will do so by the God of truth.
For I will put aside my anger and forget the evil of earlier days.

<sup>17</sup>“Look! I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and no one will even think about the old ones anymore.

<sup>18</sup>Be glad; rejoice forever in my creation!
And look! I will create Jerusalem as a place of happiness.

Her people will be a source of joy.

<sup>19</sup>I will rejoice over Jerusalem and delight in my people.
And the sound of weeping and crying will be heard in it no more.

<sup>20</sup>“No longer will babies die when only a few days old.
No longer will adults die before they have lived a full life.
No longer will people be considered old at one hundred!
Only the cursed will die that young!

<sup>21</sup>In those days people will live in the houses they build and eat the fruit of their own vineyards.

<sup>22</sup>Unlike the past, invaders will not take their houses and confiscate their vineyards.

For my people will live as long as trees, and my chosen ones will have time to enjoy their hard-won gains.

<sup>23</sup>They will not work in vain,
and their children will not be doomed to misfortune.
For they are people blessed by the LORD,
and their children, too, will be blessed.

<sup>24</sup>I will answer them before they even call to me.
While they are still talking about their needs,
I will go ahead and answer their prayers!

<sup>25</sup>The wolf and the lamb will feed together.
The lion will eat hay like a cow.
But the snakes will eat dust.

In those days no one will be hurt or destroyed on my holy mountain.

I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Isaiah 66

<sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“Heaven is my throne,
and the earth is my footstool.
Could you build me a temple as good as that?
Could you build me such a resting place?
<sup>2</sup>My hands have made both heaven and earth; they and everything in them are mine.*
I, the LORD, have spoken!

“I will bless those who have humble and contrite hearts, who tremble at my word.

<sup>3</sup>But those who choose their own ways—
delighting in their detestable sins—will not have their offerings accepted.
When such people sacrifice a bull,
it is no more acceptable than a human sacrifice.
When they sacrifice a lamb,
it’s as though they had sacrificed a dog!
When they bring an offering of grain,
they might as well offer the blood of a pig.
When they burn frankincense,
it’s as if they had blessed an idol.

<sup>4</sup>I will send them great trouble—
all the things they feared.
For when I called, they did not answer.

When I spoke, they did not listen.
They deliberately sinned before my very eyes and chose to do what they know I despise.”

<sup>5</sup>Hear this message from the LORD,
all you who tremble at his words:
“Your own people hate you and throw you out for being loyal to my name.
‘Let the LORD be honored!’ they scoff.
‘Be joyful in him!’
But they will be put to shame.
<sup>6</sup>What is all the commotion in the city?
What is that terrible noise from the Temple?
It is the voice of the LORD
taking vengeance against his enemies.

<sup>7</sup>“Before the birth pains even begin,
Jerusalem gives birth to a son.

<sup>8</sup>Who has ever seen anything as strange as this?
Who ever heard of such a thing?
Has a nation ever been born in a single day?
Has a country ever come forth in a mere moment?
But by the time Jerusalem’s* birth pains begin,
her children will be born.

<sup>9</sup>“Would I ever bring this nation to the point of birth and then not deliver it?” asks the LORD.
“No! I would never keep this nation from being born,”
says your God.

Be glad with her, all you who love her and all you who mourn for her.

<sup>11</sup>Drink deeply of her glory
even as an infant drinks at its mother’s comforting breasts.”

<sup>12</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“I will give Jerusalem a river of peace and prosperity.
The wealth of the nations will flow to her.
Her children will be nursed at her breasts, carried in her arms, and held on her lap.

<sup>13</sup>I will comfort you there in Jerusalem
as a mother comforts her child.”

<sup>14</sup>When you see these things, your heart will rejoice.
You will flourish like the grass!

Everyone will see the LORD’s hand of blessing on his servants

---

and his anger against his enemies.

<sup>15</sup>See, the LORD is coming with fire, and his swift chariots roar like a whirlwind.
He will bring punishment with the fury of his anger and the flaming fire of his hot rebuke.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD will punish the world by fire and by his sword.

He will judge the earth,
and many will be killed by him.

<sup>17</sup>“Those who ‘consecrate’ and ‘purify’ themselves in a sacred garden with its idol in the center—feasting on pork and rats and other detestable meats—will come to a terrible end,” says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>“I can see what they are doing, and I know what they are thinking. So I will gather all nations and peoples together, and they will see my glory. <sup>19</sup>I will perform a sign among them. And I will send those who survive to be messengers to the nations—to Tarshish, to the Libyans* and Lydians* (who are famous as archers), to Tubal and Greece,* and to all the lands beyond the sea that have not heard of my fame or seen my glory. There they will declare my glory to the nations. <sup>20</sup>They will bring the remnant of your people back from every nation. They will bring them to my holy mountain in Jerusalem as an offering to the LORD. They will ride on horses, in chariots and wagons, and on mules and camels,” says the LORD. <sup>21</sup>“And I will appoint some of them to be my priests and Levites. I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>22</sup>“As surely as my new heavens and earth will remain, so will you always be my people, with a name that will never disappear,” says the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>“All humanity will come to worship me from week to week and from month to month.

<sup>24</sup>And as they go out, they will see the dead bodies of those who have rebelled against me. For the worms that devour them will never die, and the fire that burns them will never go out.

All who pass by will view them with utter horror.”

This is what the LORD says:

“Don’t let the wise boast in their wisdom,
or the powerful boast in their power,
or the rich boast in their riches.

But those who wish to boast should boast in this alone:

that they truly know me and understand that I am the LORD who demonstrates unfailing love
and who brings justice and righteousness to the earth,

and that I delight in these things.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

17:9

The human heart is the most deceitful of all things,
and desperately wicked.
Who really knows how bad it is?

29:11

“For I know the plans I have for you,” says the LORD.
“They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope.”

32:17

O Sovereign LORD! You made the heavens and earth by your strong hand and powerful arm. Nothing is too hard for you!

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

GOD’S SOVEREIGNTY.

The plots and conspiracies in the Jerusalem palace make fascinating reading, as Jeremiah and Baruch try to fulfill their mission in spite of the king and his advisers. Their story shows us that no matter what we’re facing, God is ultimately in control.

IN SYNC

When you study the book of Jeremiah, you quickly notice that it wasn't assembled in chronological order. (Some scholars think that during these chaotic times, Jeremiah's "secretary" Baruch simply filled up every inch of whatever scarce scroll material he could get. Chapter 36, for example, tells about one time when a sadistic king burned a bunch of his work, forcing him to rewrite it.)

If you want to read the book in a straight line according to the calendar, here's the sequence:

Jeremiah's Call and First Visions

<sup>4</sup> The LORD gave me this message:

<sup>5</sup>“I knew you before I formed you in your mother’s womb.
Before you were born I set you apart and appointed you as my prophet to the nations.”

Parents Give Birth, God Gives Life

<sup>6</sup> “O Sovereign LORD,” I said, “I can’t speak for you! I’m too young!”

<sup>7</sup>The LORD replied, “Don’t say, ‘I’m too young,’ for you must go wherever I send you and say whatever I tell you. <sup>8</sup>And don’t be afraid of the people, for I will be with you and will protect you. I, the LORD, have spoken!” <sup>9</sup>Then the LORD reached out and touched my mouth and said, “Look, I have put my words in your mouth!

<sup>10</sup>Today I appoint you to stand up against nations and kingdoms.
Some you must uproot and tear down, destroy and overthrow.
Others you must build up and plant.”

---

PERSPECTIVES

Today I appoint you to stand up against nations and kingdoms. Some you must uproot and tear down, destroy and overthrow. Others you must build up and plant.

JEREMIAH 1:10

Lord, make me a crisis man. Bring those I contact to decision. Let me not be a milepost on a single road. Make me a fork, that men must turn one way or another on facing Christ in me.

JIM ELLIOT (1927-1956), AMERICAN MISSIONARY MARTYRED IN ECUADOR

11 Then the LORD said to me, “Look, Jeremiah! What do you see?”

And I replied, “I see a branch from an almond tree.”

<sup>12</sup>And the LORD said, “That’s right, and it means that I am watching * and I will certainly carry out all my plans.”

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD spoke to me again and asked, “What do you see now?”

And I replied, “I see a pot of boiling water, spilling from the north.”

<sup>14</sup>“Yes,” the LORD said, “for terror from the north will boil out on the people of this land. <sup>15</sup>Listen! I am calling the armies of the kingdoms of the north to come to Jerusalem. I, the LORD, have spoken!

“They will set their thrones at the gates of the city.

They will attack its walls and all the other towns of Judah.

<sup>16</sup> I will pronounce judgment on my people for all their evil—
for deserting me and burning incense to other gods.
Yes, they worship idols made with their own hands!

<sup>17</sup>“Get up and prepare for action.
Go out and tell them everything I tell you to say.
Do not be afraid of them,
or I will make you look foolish in front of them.

<sup>18</sup>For see, today I have made you strong like a fortified city that cannot be captured, like an iron pillar or a bronze wall.
You will stand against the whole land—

the kings, officials, priests, and people of Judah.

<sup>19</sup>They will fight you, but they will fail.

For I am with you, and I will take care of you.

I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Jeremiah 2

The LORD's Case against His People

<sup>1</sup> The LORD gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> “Go and shout this message to Jerusalem. This is what the LORD says:

“I remember how eager you were to please me as a young bride long ago,
how you loved me and followed me
even through the barren wilderness.

<sup>3</sup> In those days Israel was holy to the LORD, the first of his children. *

All who harmed his people were declared guilty, and disaster fell on them.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

<sup>4</sup> Listen to the word of the LORD, people of Jacob—all you families of Israel! <sup>5</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“What did your ancestors find wrong with me that led them to stray so far from me?
They worshiped worthless idols,
only to become worthless themselves.

<sup>6</sup> They did not ask, ‘Where is the LORD who brought us safely out of Egypt and led us through the barren wilderness—
a land of deserts and pits,

a land of drought and death,
where no one lives or even travels?’

<sup>7</sup>“And when I brought you into a fruitful land to enjoy its bounty and goodness, you defiled my land and corrupted the possession I had promised you.

<sup>8</sup>The priests did not ask,
‘Where is the LORD?’

Those who taught my word ignored me,
the rulers turned against me,
and the prophets spoke in the name of Baal,
wasting their time on worthless idols.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, I will bring my case against you,”
says the LORD.

“I will even bring charges against your children’s children in the years to come.

<sup>10</sup>“Go west and look in the land of Cyprus*;
go east and search through the land of Kedar.
Has anyone ever heard of anything as strange as this?

<sup>11</sup>Has any nation ever traded its gods for new ones, even though they are not gods at all?
Yet my people have exchanged their glorious God* for worthless idols!

<sup>12</sup>The heavens are shocked at such a thing and shrink back in horror and dismay,”
says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>“For my people have done two evil things:
They have abandoned me—
the fountain of living water.
And they have dug for themselves cracked cisterns that can hold no water at all!

The Results of Israel's Sin

<sup>14</sup>“Why has Israel become a slave?
Why has he been carried away as plunder?

<sup>15</sup>Strong lions have roared against him,
and the land has been destroyed.
The towns are now in ruins,
and no one lives in them anymore.

<sup>16</sup>Egyptians, marching from their cities of Memphis* and Tahpanhes,
have destroyed Israel's glory and power.

<sup>17</sup>And you have brought this upon yourselves by rebelling against the LORD your God, even though he was leading you on the way!

<sup>18</sup>“What have you gained by your alliances with Egypt and your covenants with Assyria?
What good to you are the streams of the Nile* or the waters of the Euphrates River?*

<sup>19</sup>Your wickedness will bring its own punishment.
Your turning from me will shame you.
You will see what an evil, bitter thing it is to abandon the LORD your God and not to fear him.

I, the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, have spoken!

<sup>20</sup>“Long ago I broke the yoke that oppressed you and tore away the chains of your slavery, but still you said,

‘I will not serve you.’

On every hill and under every green tree,
you have prostituted yourselves by bowing down to idols.

<sup>21</sup>But I was the one who planted you, choosing a vine of the purest stock—the very best.
How did you grow into this corrupt wild vine?

<sup>22</sup>No amount of soap or lye can make you clean.
I still see the stain of your guilt.

I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!

Israel, an Unfaithful Wife

<sup>23</sup>“You say, ‘That’s not true!
I haven’t worshiped the images of Baal!’
But how can you say that?

Go and look in any valley in the land!

Face the awful sins you have done.

You are like a restless female camel desperately searching for a mate.

<sup>24</sup> You are like a wild donkey, sniffing the wind at mating time.

Who can restrain her lust?

Those who desire her don’t need to search,
for she goes running to them!

<sup>25</sup>When will you stop running?

When will you stop panting after other gods?
But you say, ‘Save your breath.
I’m in love with these foreign gods,
and I can’t stop loving them now!’

<sup>26</sup> “Israel is like a thief who feels shame only when he gets caught.
They, their kings, officials, priests, and prophets—all are alike in this.

<sup>27</sup> To an image carved from a piece of wood they say,
‘You are my father.’
To an idol chiseled from a block of stone they say,
‘You are my mother.’
They turn their backs on me,
but in times of trouble they cry out to me, ‘Come and save us!’

<sup>28</sup> But why not call on these gods you have made?
When trouble comes, let them save you if they can!
For you have as many gods
as there are towns in Judah.

<sup>29</sup> Why do you accuse me of doing wrong?
You are the ones who have rebelled,”
says the LORD.

<sup>30</sup> “I have punished your children, but they did not respond to my discipline.
You yourselves have killed your prophets as a lion kills its prey.

<sup>31</sup> “O my people, listen to the words of the LORD!

Have I been like a desert to Israel?
Have I been to them a land of darkness?
Why then do my people say, ‘At last we are free from God!
We don’t need him anymore!’

<sup>32</sup>Does a young woman forget her jewelry?
Does a bride hide her wedding dress?
Yet for years on end
my people have forgotten me.

<sup>33</sup>“How you plot and scheme to win your lovers.
Even an experienced prostitute could learn from you!

<sup>34</sup>Your clothing is stained with the blood of the innocent and the poor,
though you didn’t catch them breaking into your houses!

<sup>35</sup>And yet you say,
‘I have done nothing wrong.
Surely God isn’t angry with me!’
But now I will punish you severely because you claim you have not sinned.

<sup>36</sup>First here, then there—
you flit from one ally to another asking for help.
But your new friends in Egypt will let you down,
just as Assyria did before.

<sup>37</sup>In despair, you will be led into exile with your hands on your heads, for the LORD has rejected the nations you trust.
They will not help you at all.

Jeremiah 3

<sup>1</sup>“If a man divorces a woman and she goes and marries someone else,
he will not take her back again,
for that would surely corrupt the land.
But you have prostituted yourself with many lovers,
so why are you trying to come back to me?”
says the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>“Look at the shrines on every hilltop.
Is there any place you have not been defiled
by your adultery with other gods?
You sit like a prostitute beside the road waiting for a customer.

You sit alone like a nomad in the desert.
You have polluted the land with your prostitution and your wickedness.

<sup>3</sup>That’s why even the spring rains have failed.
For you are a brazen prostitute and completely shameless.

<sup>4</sup>Yet you say to me,
‘Father, you have been my guide since my youth.
<sup>5</sup>Surely you won’t be angry forever!
Surely you can forget about it!’
So you talk,
but you keep on doing all the evil you can.”

Judah Follows Israel’s Example

<sup>6</sup> During the reign of King Josiah, the LORD said to me, “Have you seen what fickle Israel has done? Like a wife who commits adultery, Israel has worshiped other gods on every hill and under every green tree. <sup>7</sup>I thought, ‘After she has done all this, she will return to me.’ But she did not return, and her faithless sister Judah saw this. <sup>8</sup> She saw that I divorced faithless Israel because of her adultery. But that treacherous sister Judah had no fear, and now she, too, has left me and given herself to prostitution. <sup>9</sup> Israel treated it all so lightly—she thought nothing of committing adultery by worshiping idols made of wood and stone. So now the land has been polluted. <sup>10</sup>But despite all this, her faithless sister Judah has never sincerely returned to me. She has only pretended to be sorry. I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Hope for Wayward Israel

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “Even faithless Israel is less guilty than treacherous Judah! <sup>12</sup> Therefore, go and give this message to Israel.* This is what the LORD says:

“O Israel, my faithless people, come home to me again,
for I am merciful.

I will not be angry with you forever.

<sup>13</sup>Only acknowledge your guilt.

Admit that you rebelled against the LORD your God and committed adultery against him by worshiping idols under every green tree.
Confess that you refused to listen to my voice.

I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>14</sup>“Return home, you wayward children,”

says the LORD,

“for I am your master.

I will bring you back to the land of Israel*—

one from this town and two from that family—from wherever you are scattered.

<sup>15</sup>And I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will guide you with knowledge and understanding.

<sup>16</sup>“And when your land is once more filled with people,” says the LORD, “you will no longer wish for ‘the good old days’ when you possessed the Ark of the LORD’s Covenant. You will not miss those days or even remember them, and there will be no need to rebuild the Ark. <sup>17</sup>In that day Jerusalem will be known as ‘The Throne of the LORD.’ All nations will come there to honor the LORD. They will no longer stubbornly follow their own evil desires. <sup>18</sup>In those days the people of Judah and Israel will return together from exile in the north. They will return to the land I gave their ancestors as an inheritance forever.

‘I would love to treat you as my own children!’

I wanted nothing more than to give you this beautiful land—
the finest possession in the world.

I looked forward to your calling me ‘Father,’
and I wanted you never to turn from me.

<sup>20</sup>But you have been unfaithful to me, you people of Israel!

You have been like a faithless wife who leaves her husband.
I, the LORD, have spoken.”

<sup>21</sup>Voices are heard high on the windswept mountains, the weeping and pleading of Israel’s people.
For they have chosen crooked paths and have forgotten the LORD their God.

<sup>22</sup>“My wayward children,” says the LORD,
“come back to me, and I will heal your wayward hearts.”

“Yes, we’re coming,” the people reply,
“for you are the LORD our God.

<sup>23</sup>Our worship of idols on the hills and our religious orgies on the mountains are a delusion.

Only in the LORD our God will Israel ever find salvation.

<sup>24</sup>From childhood we have watched as everything our ancestors worked for—their flocks and herds, their sons and daughters—was squandered on a delusion.

<sup>25</sup>Let us now lie down in shame and cover ourselves with dishonor, for we and our ancestors have sinned against the LORD our God.
From our childhood to this day
we have never obeyed him.”

Jeremiah 4

<sup>1</sup>“O Israel,” says the LORD,
“if you wanted to return to me, you could.
You could throw away your detestable idols and stray away no more.
<sup>2</sup>Then when you swear by my name, saying,
‘As surely as the LORD lives,’ you could do so with truth, justice, and righteousness.
Then you would be a blessing to the nations of the world,
and all people would come and praise my name.”

Coming Judgment against Judah

<sup>3</sup>This is what the LORD says to the people of Judah and Jerusalem:

“Plow up the hard ground of your hearts!
Do not waste your good seed among thorns.
<sup>4</sup>O people of Judah and Jerusalem, surrender your pride and power.
Change your hearts before the LORD,* or my anger will burn like an unquenchable fire
because of all your sins.

<sup>5</sup>“Shout to Judah, and broadcast to Jerusalem!
Tell them to sound the alarm throughout the land:
‘Run for your lives!’

Flee to the fortified cities!’

‘Flee now! Do not delay!’

For I am bringing terrible destruction upon you from the north.”

<sup>7</sup>A lion stalks from its den,

a destroyer of nations.

It has left its lair and is headed your way.

It’s going to devastate your land!

Your towns will lie in ruins,
with no one living in them anymore.

<sup>8</sup>So put on clothes of mourning and weep with broken hearts, for the fierce anger of the LORD is still upon us.

<sup>9</sup>“In that day,” says the LORD,

“the king and the officials will tremble in fear.

The priests will be struck with horror,

and the prophets will be appalled.”

<sup>10</sup>Then I said, “O Sovereign LORD,

the people have been deceived by what you said,

for you promised peace for Jerusalem.

But the sword is held at their throats!”

<sup>11</sup>The time is coming when the LORD will say to the people of Jerusalem,

“My dear people, a burning wind is blowing in from the desert, and it’s not a gentle breeze useful for winnowing grain.

<sup>12</sup>It is a roaring blast sent by me!

Now I will pronounce your destruction!”

<sup>13</sup>Our enemy rushes down on us like storm clouds!

His chariots are like whirlwinds.

His horses are swifter than eagles.

How terrible it will be, for we are doomed!

<sup>14</sup>O Jerusalem, cleanse your heart that you may be saved.

How long will you harbor
your evil thoughts?

<sup>15</sup>Your destruction has been announced from Dan and the hill country of Ephraim.

<sup>16</sup>“Warn the surrounding nations and announce this to Jerusalem:

The enemy is coming from a distant land, raising a battle cry against the towns of Judah.

<sup>17</sup>They surround Jerusalem like watchmen around a field, for my people have rebelled against me,”
says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>“Your own actions have brought this upon you.

This punishment is bitter, piercing you to the heart!”

Jeremiah Weeps for His People

<sup>19</sup>My heart, my heart—I writhe in pain!
My heart pounds within me! I cannot be still.
For I have heard the blast of enemy trumpets and the roar of their battle cries.

<sup>20</sup>Waves of destruction roll over the land,
until it lies in complete desolation.
Suddenly my tents are destroyed;
in a moment my shelters are crushed.

<sup>21</sup>How long must I see the battle flags and hear the trumpets of war?

<sup>22</sup>“My people are foolish and do not know me,” says the LORD.
“They are stupid children who have no understanding.
They are clever enough at doing wrong,
but they have no idea how to do right!”

Jeremiah's Vision of Coming Disaster

<sup>23</sup>I looked at the earth, and it was empty and formless.
I looked at the heavens, and there was no light.

<sup>24</sup>I looked at the mountains and hills,
and they trembled and shook.

<sup>25</sup>I looked, and all the people were gone.
All the birds of the sky had flown away.

<sup>26</sup>I looked, and the fertile fields had become a wilderness.
The towns lay in ruins,
crushed by the LORD's fierce anger.

<sup>27</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“The whole land will be ruined,
but I will not destroy it completely.

<sup>28</sup>The earth will mourn and the heavens will be draped in black because of my decree against my people.
I have made up my mind and will not change it.”

<sup>29</sup>At the noise of charioteers and archers, the people flee in terror.

They hide in the bushes
and run for the mountains.

All the towns have been abandoned—not a person remains!

<sup>30</sup>What are you doing,
you who have been plundered?
Why do you dress up in beautiful clothing and put on gold jewelry?
Why do you brighten your eyes with mascara?
Your primping will do you no good!
The allies who were your lovers
despise you and seek to kill you.

<sup>31</sup>I hear a cry, like that of a woman in labor, the groans of a woman giving birth to her first child.

It is beautiful Jerusalem*
gasping for breath and crying out, “Help! I’m being murdered!”

Jeremiah 5

The Sins of Judah

<sup>1</sup> “Run up and down every street in Jerusalem,” says the LORD.

“Look high and low; search throughout the city!
If you can find even one just and honest person,
I will not destroy the city.

<sup>2</sup>But even when they are under oath, saying, ‘As surely as the LORD lives,’ they are still telling lies!”

<sup>3</sup>LORD, you are searching for honesty.
You struck your people,
but they paid no attention.
You crushed them,
but they refused to be corrected.
They are determined, with faces set like stone;
they have refused to repent.

<sup>4</sup>Then I said, “But what can we expect from the poor?
They are ignorant.
They don’t know the ways of the LORD.
They don’t understand God’s laws.
<sup>5</sup>So I will go and speak to their leaders.
Surely they know the ways of the LORD and understand God’s laws.”

But the leaders, too, as one man, had thrown off God's yoke
and broken his chains.

<sup>6</sup>So now a lion from the forest will attack them;
a wolf from the desert will pounce on them.
A leopard will lurk near their towns,
tearing apart any who dare to venture out.
For their rebellion is great,
and their sins are many.

<sup>7</sup>“How can I pardon you?
For even your children have turned from me.
They have sworn by gods that are not gods at all!
I fed my people until they were full.
But they thanked me by committing adultery and lining up at the brothels.
<sup>8</sup>They are well-fed, lusty stallions, each neighing for his neighbor's wife.

She-Camels in Heat and Lusty Stallions

<sup>9</sup>Should I not punish them for this?” says the LORD.
“Should I not avenge myself against such a nation?

<sup>10</sup>“Go down the rows of the vineyards and destroy the grapevines,
leaving a scattered few alive.
Strip the branches from the vines,

for these people do not belong to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>The people of Israel and Judah are full of treachery against me,”
says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>“They have lied about the LORD and said, ‘He won’t bother us!
No disasters will come upon us.
There will be no war or famine.

<sup>13</sup>God’s prophets are all windbags who don’t really speak for him.
Let their predictions of disaster fall on themselves!”

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD God of Heaven’s Armies says:

“Because the people are talking like this,
my messages will flame out of your mouth and burn the people like kindling wood.

<sup>15</sup>O Israel, I will bring a distant nation against you,”
says the LORD.

“It is a mighty nation,
an ancient nation,
a people whose language you do not know,
whose speech you cannot understand.

<sup>16</sup>Their weapons are deadly;
their warriors are mighty.

<sup>17</sup>They will devour the food of your harvest;
they will devour your sons and daughters.
They will devour your flocks and herds;

they will devour your grapes and figs.
And they will destroy your fortified towns,
which you think are so safe.

<sup>18</sup>“Yet even in those days I will not blot you out completely,” says the LORD. <sup>19</sup>“And when your people ask, ‘Why did the LORD our God do all this to us?’ you must reply, ‘You rejected him and gave yourselves to foreign gods in your own land. Now you will serve foreigners in a land that is not your own.’”

A Warning for God's People

<sup>20</sup>“Make this announcement to Israel,*
and say this to Judah:

<sup>21</sup>Listen, you foolish and senseless people, with eyes that do not see and ears that do not hear.

<sup>22</sup>Have you no respect for me?

Why don't you tremble in my presence?

I, the LORD, define the ocean's sandy shoreline
as an everlasting boundary that the waters cannot cross.

The waves may toss and roar,
but they can never pass the boundaries I set.

<sup>23</sup>But my people have stubborn and rebellious hearts.

They have turned away and abandoned me.

<sup>24</sup>They do not say from the heart,

‘Let us live in awe of the LORD our God,
for he gives us rain each spring and fall,
assuring us of a harvest when the time is right.’

<sup>25</sup>Your wickedness has deprived you of these wonderful blessings.

Your sin has robbed you of all these good things.

<sup>26</sup>“Among my people are wicked men who lie in wait for victims like a hunter hiding in a blind.
They continually set traps to catch people.

<sup>27</sup>Like a cage filled with birds, their homes are filled with evil plots.
And now they are great and rich.

<sup>28</sup>They are fat and sleek,
and there is no limit to their wicked deeds.
They refuse to provide justice to orphans and deny the rights of the poor.

<sup>29</sup>Should I not punish them for this?” says the LORD.
“Should I not avenge myself against such a nation?

<sup>30</sup>A horrible and shocking thing has happened in this land—

<sup>31</sup>the prophets give false prophecies, and the priests rule with an iron hand.
Worse yet, my people like it that way!
But what will you do when the end comes?

Jeremiah 6

Jerusalem's Last Warning

<sup>1</sup>“Run for your lives, you people of Benjamin!

Get out of Jerusalem!

Sound the alarm in Tekoa!

Send up a signal at Beth-hakkerem!

A powerful army is coming from the north,
coming with disaster and destruction.

<sup>2</sup>O Jerusalem,* you are my beautiful and delicate daughter—but I will destroy you!

<sup>3</sup>Enemies will surround you, like shepherds camped around the city.

Each chooses a place for his troops to devour.

Attack at noon!’

‘No, it’s too late; the day is fading, and the evening shadows are falling.’

<sup>5</sup>‘Well then, let’s attack at night and destroy her palaces!’”

<sup>6</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says:

“Cut down the trees for battering rams.

Build siege ramps against the walls of Jerusalem.

This is the city to be punished, for she is wicked through and through.

<sup>7</sup>She spouts evil like a fountain.

Her streets echo with the sounds of violence and destruction.

I always see her sickness and sores.

<sup>8</sup>Listen to this warning, Jerusalem, or I will turn from you in disgust.

Listen, or I will turn you into a heap of ruins,
a land where no one lives.”

<sup>9</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says:

“Even the few who remain in Israel will be picked over again,

as when a harvester checks each vine a second time to pick the grapes that were missed.”

Judah’s Constant Rebellion

<sup>10</sup>To whom can I give warning?

Who will listen when I speak?

Their ears are closed,
and they cannot hear.

They scorn the word of the LORD.

They don’t want to listen at all.

<sup>11</sup>So now I am filled with the LORD’s fury.

Yes, I am tired of holding it in!

“I will pour out my fury on children playing in the streets and on gatherings of young men,

on husbands and wives and on those who are old and gray.

<sup>12</sup>Their homes will be turned over to their enemies, as will their fields and their wives.

For I will raise my powerful fist against the people of this land,”
says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>“From the least to the greatest,
their lives are ruled by greed.
From prophets to priests,
they are all frauds.

<sup>14</sup>They offer superficial treatments
for my people’s mortal wound.
They give assurances of peace
when there is no peace.

<sup>15</sup>Are they ashamed of their disgusting actions?
Not at all—they don’t even know how to blush!
Therefore, they will lie among the slaughtered.
They will be brought down when I punish them,”
says the LORD.

Judah Rejects the LORD’s Way

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“Stop at the crossroads and look around.
Ask for the old, godly way, and walk in it.
Travel its path, and you will find rest for your souls.
But you reply, ‘No, that’s not the road we want!’

<sup>17</sup>I posted watchmen over you who said, ‘Listen for the sound of the alarm.’
But you replied,
‘No! We won’t pay attention!’

<sup>18</sup>“Therefore, listen to this, all you nations.
Take note of my people’s situation.

I will bring disaster on my people.
It is the fruit of their own schemes,
because they refuse to listen to me.
They have rejected my word.

Keep your fragrant calamus imported from distant lands!
I will not accept your burnt offerings.
Your sacrifices have no pleasing aroma for me.”

<sup>21</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD says:
“I will put obstacles in my people’s path.
Fathers and sons will both fall over them.
Neighbors and friends will die together.”

An Invasion from the North

<sup>22</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“Look! A great army coming from the north!
A great nation is rising against you from far-off lands.

They are cruel and show no mercy.
They sound like a roaring sea
as they ride forward on horses.
They are coming in battle formation,
planning to destroy you, beautiful Jerusalem.*”

<sup>24</sup>We have heard reports about the enemy, and we wring our hands in fright.
Pangs of anguish have gripped us,
like those of a woman in labor.

<sup>25</sup>Don't go out to the fields!
Don't travel on the roads!
The enemy's sword is everywhere and terrorizes us at every turn!

<sup>26</sup>Oh, my people, dress yourselves in burlap and sit among the ashes.
Mourn and weep bitterly, as for the loss of an only son.
For suddenly the destroying armies will be upon you!

that you may determine the quality of my people.

<sup>28</sup>They are the worst kind of rebel,
full of slander.
They are as hard as bronze and iron,
and they lead others into corruption.

<sup>29</sup>The bellows fiercely fan the flames to burn out the corruption.
But it does not purify them,
for the wickedness remains.

<sup>30</sup>I will label them ‘Rejected Silver,’ for I, the LORD, am discarding them.”

Jeremiah 7

Jeremiah Speaks at the Temple

<sup>1</sup>The LORD gave another message to Jeremiah. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Go to the entrance of the LORD’s Temple, and give this message to the people: ‘O Judah, listen to this message from the LORD! Listen to it, all of you who worship here! <sup>3</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: “Even now, if you quit your evil ways, I will let you stay in your own land. <sup>4</sup>But don’t be fooled by those who promise you safety simply because the LORD’s Temple is here. They chant, “The LORD’s Temple is here! The LORD’s Temple is here!” <sup>5</sup>But I will be merciful only if you stop your evil thoughts and deeds and start treating each other with justice; <sup>6</sup>only if you stop exploiting foreigners, orphans, and widows; only if you stop your murdering; and only if you stop harming yourselves by worshiping idols. <sup>7</sup>Then I will let you stay in this land that I gave to your ancestors to keep forever.

<sup>8</sup> ““Don’t be fooled into thinking that you will never suffer because the Temple is here. It’s a lie! <sup>9</sup>Do you really think you can steal, murder, commit adultery, lie, and burn incense to Baal and all those other new gods of yours, <sup>10</sup>and then come here and stand before me in my Temple and chant, “We are safe!”—only to go right back to all those evils again? <sup>11</sup>Don’t you yourselves admit that this Temple, which bears my name, has become a den of thieves? Surely I see all the evil going on there. I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>12</sup>“Go now to the place at Shiloh where I once put the Tabernacle that bore my name. See what I did there because of all the wickedness of my people, the Israelites. <sup>13</sup>While you were doing these wicked things, says the LORD, I spoke to you about it repeatedly, but you would not listen. I called out to you, but you refused to answer. <sup>14</sup>So just as I destroyed Shiloh, I will now destroy this Temple that bears my name, this Temple that you trust in for help, this place that I gave to you and your ancestors. <sup>15</sup>And I will send you out of my sight into exile, just as I did your relatives, the people of Israel.*”

Judah's Persistent Idolatry

<sup>16</sup>“Pray no more for these people, Jeremiah. Do not weep or pray for them, and don't beg me to help them, for I will not listen to you. <sup>17</sup>Don't you see what they are doing throughout the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>18</sup>No wonder I am so angry! Watch how the children gather wood and the fathers build sacrificial fires. See how the women knead dough and make cakes to offer to the Queen of Heaven. And they pour out liquid offerings to their other idol gods! <sup>19</sup>Am I the one they are hurting?” asks the LORD. “Most of all, they hurt themselves, to their own shame.”

<sup>20</sup>So this is what the Sovereign LORD says: “I will pour out my terrible fury on this place. Its people, animals, trees, and crops will be consumed by the unquenchable fire of my anger.”

<sup>21</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: “Take your burnt offerings and your other sacrifices and eat them yourselves! <sup>22</sup>When I led your ancestors out of Egypt, it was not burnt offerings and sacrifices I wanted from them. <sup>23</sup>This is what I told them: ‘Obey me, and I will be your God, and you will be my people. Do everything as I say, and all will be well!’

<sup>27</sup>“Tell them all this, but do not expect them to listen. Shout out your warnings, but do not expect them to respond. <sup>28</sup>Say to them, ‘This is the nation whose people will not obey the LORD their God and who refuse to be taught. Truth has vanished from among them; it is no longer heard on their lips. <sup>29</sup>Shave your head in mourning, and weep alone on the mountains. For the LORD has rejected and forsaken this generation that has provoked his fury.’

The Valley of Slaughter

<sup>30</sup> “The people of Judah have sinned before my very eyes,” says the LORD. “They have set up their abominable idols right in the Temple that bears my name, defiling it. <sup>31</sup>They have built pagan shrines at Topheth, the garbage dump in the valley of Ben-Hinnom, and there they burn their sons and daughters in the fire. I have never commanded such a horrible deed; it never even crossed my mind to command such a thing! <sup>32</sup>So beware, for the time is coming,” says the LORD, “when that garbage dump will no longer be called Topheth or the valley of Ben-Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. They will bury the bodies in Topheth until there is no more room for them. <sup>33</sup>The bodies of my people will be food for the vultures and wild animals, and no one will be left to scare them away. <sup>34</sup>I will put an end to the happy singing and laughter in the streets of Jerusalem. The joyful voices of bridegrooms and brides will no longer be heard in the towns of Judah. The land will lie in complete desolation.

Jeremiah 8

<sup>1</sup>“In that day,” says the LORD, “the enemy will break open the graves of the kings and officials of Judah, and the graves of the priests, prophets, and common people of Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>They will spread out their bones on the ground before the sun, moon, and stars—the gods my people have loved, served, and worshiped. Their bones will not be gathered up again or buried but will be scattered on the ground like manure. <sup>3</sup>And the people of this evil nation who survive will wish to die rather than live where I will send them. I, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, have spoken!

Deception by False Prophets

<sup>4</sup>“Jeremiah, say to the people, ‘This is what the LORD says:

“‘When people fall down, don’t they get up again?

When they discover they’re on the wrong road, don’t they turn back?

<sup>5</sup>Then why do these people stay on their self-destructive path?

Why do the people of Jerusalem refuse to turn back?

They cling tightly to their lies and will not turn around.

<sup>6</sup>I listen to their conversations and don’t hear a word of truth.

Is anyone sorry for doing wrong?

Does anyone say, “What a terrible thing I have done”?

No! All are running down the path of sin as swiftly as a horse galloping into battle!

<sup>7</sup> Even the stork that flies across the sky knows the time of her migration, as do the turtledove, the swallow, and the crane.*

They all return at the proper time each year.

But not my people!

They do not know the LORD's laws.

<sup>8</sup> “How can you say, “We are wise because we have the word of the LORD,”

when your teachers have twisted it by writing lies?

<sup>9</sup> These wise teachers will fall into the trap of their own foolishness, for they have rejected the word of the LORD.

Are they so wise after all?

<sup>10</sup> I will give their wives to others and their farms to strangers.

From the least to the greatest,
their lives are ruled by greed.

Yes, even my prophets and priests are like that.

They are all frauds.

for my people's mortal wound.

They give assurances of peace
when there is no peace.

<sup>12</sup> Are they ashamed of these disgusting actions?

Not at all—they don't even know how to blush!

Therefore, they will lie among the slaughtered.

They will be brought down when I punish them,
says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>I will surely consume them.

There will be no more harvests of figs and grapes.

Their fruit trees will all die.

Whatever I gave them will soon be gone.

I, the LORD, have spoken!’

<sup>14</sup>“Then the people will say,

‘Why should we wait here to die?

Come, let’s go to the fortified towns and die there.

For the LORD our God has decreed our destruction and has given us a cup of poison to drink because we sinned against the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>We hoped for peace, but no peace came.

We hoped for a time of healing, but found only terror.’

<sup>16</sup>“The snorting of the enemies’ warhorses can be heard all the way from the land of Dan in the north!

The neighing of their stallions makes the whole land tremble.

They are coming to devour the land and everything in it—
cities and people alike.

<sup>17</sup>I will send these enemy troops among you like poisonous snakes you cannot charm.

They will bite you, and you will die.

I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Jeremiah Weeps for Sinful Judah

<sup>18</sup>My grief is beyond healing;

my heart is broken.

<sup>19</sup>Listen to the weeping of my people;
it can be heard all across the land.

“Has the LORD abandoned Jerusalem? ✱” the people ask.

“Is her King no longer there?”

“Oh, why have they provoked my anger with their carved idols
and their worthless foreign gods?” says the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>“The harvest is finished,
and the summer is gone,” the people cry, “yet we are not saved!”

<sup>21</sup>I hurt with the hurt of my people.
I mourn and am overcome with grief.

<sup>22</sup>Is there no medicine in Gilead?
Is there no physician there?
Why is there no healing for the wounds of my people?

Jeremiah 9

<sup>1</sup>*If only my head were a pool of water and my eyes a fountain of tears,
I would weep day and night
for all my people who have been slaughtered.
<sup>2</sup>*Oh, that I could go away and forget my people and live in a travelers' shack in the desert.
For they are all adulterers—
a pack of treacherous liars.

Judgment for Disobedience

<sup>3</sup>“My people bend their tongues like bows to shoot out lies.
They refuse to stand up for the truth.
They only go from bad to worse.
They do not know me,”
says the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>“Beware of your neighbor!
Don't even trust your brother!
For brother takes advantage of brother,
and friend slanders friend.
<sup>5</sup>They all fool and defraud each other;
no one tells the truth.
With practiced tongues they tell lies;
they wear themselves out with all their sinning.
<sup>6</sup>They pile lie upon lie and utterly refuse to acknowledge me,”

says the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says:
“See, I will melt them down in a crucible and test them like metal.

What else can I do with my people?*

<sup>8</sup>For their tongues shoot lies like poisoned arrows.
They speak friendly words to their neighbors
while scheming in their heart to kill them.

<sup>9</sup>Should I not punish them for this?” says the LORD.
“Should I not avenge myself against such a nation?”

<sup>10</sup>I will weep for the mountains and wail for the wilderness pastures.
For they are desolate and empty of life;
the lowing of cattle is heard no more;
the birds and wild animals have all fled.

<sup>11</sup>“I will make Jerusalem into a heap of ruins,” says the LORD.
“It will be a place haunted by jackals.
The towns of Judah will be ghost towns,
with no one living in them.”

<sup>12</sup>Who is wise enough to understand all this? Who has been instructed by the LORD and can explain it to others? Why has the land been so ruined that no one dares to travel through it?

<sup>13</sup>The LORD replies, “This has happened because my people have abandoned my instructions; they have refused to obey what I said. <sup>14</sup>Instead, they have stubbornly followed their own desires and worshiped the images of Baal, as their ancestors taught them. <sup>15</sup>So now, this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: Look! I will feed them with bitterness and give them poison to drink. <sup>16</sup>I will scatter them around the world, in places they and their ancestors never heard of, and even there I will chase them with the sword until I have destroyed them completely."

Weeping in Jerusalem

<sup>17</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says:

"Consider all this, and call for the mourners.

Send for the women who mourn at funerals.

<sup>18</sup>Quick! Begin your weeping!

Let the tears flow from your eyes.

<sup>19</sup>Hear the people of Jerusalem* crying in despair,

'We are ruined! We are completely humiliated!

We must leave our land,

because our homes have been torn down.'"

<sup>20</sup>Listen, you women, to the words of the LORD;
open your ears to what he has to say.

Teach your daughters to wail;

teach one another how to lament.

<sup>21</sup>For death has crept in through our windows and has entered our mansions.

It has killed off the flower of our youth:

Children no longer play in the streets, and young men no longer gather in the squares.

<sup>22</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“Bodies will be scattered across the fields like clumps of manure, like bundles of grain after the harvest.
No one will be left to bury them.”

“Don’t let the wise boast in their wisdom,
or the powerful boast in their power,
or the rich boast in their riches.

<sup>24</sup>But those who wish to boast should boast in this alone:
that they truly know me and understand that I am the LORD
who demonstrates unfailing love
and who brings justice and righteousness to the earth,
and that I delight in these things.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

What the Bible Says about

Ambition

<sup>25</sup>“A time is coming,” says the LORD, “when I will punish all those who are circumcised in body but not in spirit—<sup>26</sup>the Egyptians, Edomites, Ammonites, Moabites, the people who live in the desert in remote places,* and yes, even the people of Judah. And like all these pagan nations, the people of Israel also have uncircumcised hearts.”

Jeremiah 10

Idolatry Brings Destruction

<sup>1</sup>Hear the word that the LORD speaks to you, O Israel! <sup>2</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“Do not act like the other nations, who try to read their future in the stars.
Do not be afraid of their predictions,
even though other nations are terrified by them.

<sup>3</sup>Their ways are futile and foolish.
They cut down a tree, and a craftsman carves an idol.

<sup>4</sup>They decorate it with gold and silver and then fasten it securely with hammer and nails so it won't fall over.

<sup>5</sup>Their gods are like helpless scarecrows in a cucumber field!
They cannot speak,
and they need to be carried because they cannot walk.
Do not be afraid of such gods,
for they can neither harm you nor do you any good.”

<sup>6</sup>LORD, there is no one like you!
For you are great, and your name is full of power.

<sup>7</sup>Who would not fear you, O King of nations?
That title belongs to you alone!
Among all the wise people of the earth and in all the kingdoms of the world,

there is no one like you.

<sup>8</sup>People who worship idols are stupid and foolish.
The things they worship are made of wood!

<sup>9</sup>They bring beaten sheets of silver from Tarshish and gold from Uphaz,
and they give these materials to skillful craftsmen who make their idols.

Then they dress these gods in royal blue and purple robes made by expert tailors.

<sup>10</sup>But the LORD is the only true God.
He is the living God and the everlasting King!
The whole earth trembles at his anger.
The nations cannot stand up to his wrath.

<sup>11</sup>Say this to those who worship other gods: “Your so-called gods, who did not make the heavens and earth, will vanish from the earth and from under the heavens.”* —

<sup>12</sup>But God made the earth by his power,
and he preserves it by his wisdom.
With his own understanding
he stretched out the heavens.

<sup>13</sup>When he speaks in the thunder,
the heavens roar with rain.
He causes the clouds to rise over the earth.
He sends the lightning with the rain
and releases the wind from his storehouses.

<sup>14</sup>The whole human race is foolish and has no knowledge!
The craftsmen are disgraced by the idols they make,
for their carefully shaped works are a fraud.
These idols have no breath or power.

On the day of reckoning they will all be destroyed.

<sup>16</sup>But the God of Israel* is no idol!
He is the Creator of everything that exists,
including Israel, his own special possession.
The LORD of Heaven's Armies is his name!

The Coming Destruction

<sup>17</sup>Pack your bags and prepare to leave;
the siege is about to begin.

<sup>18</sup>For this is what the LORD says:

“Suddenly, I will fling out all you who live in this land.

I will pour great troubles upon you,
and at last you will feel my anger.”

<sup>19</sup>My wound is severe, and my grief is great.
My sickness is incurable,
but I must bear it.

<sup>20</sup>My home is gone,
and no one is left to help me rebuild it.
My children have been taken away,
and I will never see them again.

<sup>21</sup>The shepherds of my people have lost their senses.
They no longer seek wisdom from the LORD.
Therefore, they fail completely,
and their flocks are scattered.

<sup>22</sup>Listen! Hear the terrifying roar of great armies as they roll down from the north.
The towns of Judah will be destroyed and become a haunt for jackals.

Jeremiah's Prayer

<sup>23</sup>I know, LORD, that our lives are not our own.
We are not able to plan our own course.

<sup>24</sup>So correct me, LORD, but please be gentle.
Do not correct me in anger, for I would die.

acknowledge you—
on the peoples that do not call upon your name.
For they have devoured your people Israel*;
they have devoured and consumed them,
making the land a desolate wilderness.

Jeremiah 11

Judah's Broken Covenant

<sup>1</sup> The LORD gave another message to Jeremiah. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Remind the people of Judah and Jerusalem about the terms of my covenant with them. <sup>3</sup>Say to them, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Cursed is anyone who does not obey the terms of my covenant! <sup>4</sup>For I said to your ancestors when I brought them out of the iron-smelting furnace of Egypt, ‘If you obey me and do whatever I command you, then you will be my people, and I will be your God.’” <sup>5</sup>I said this so I could keep my promise to your ancestors to give you a land flowing with milk and honey—the land you live in today.”

Then I replied, “Amen, LORD! May it be so.”

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD said, “Broadcast this message in the streets of Jerusalem. Go from town to town throughout the land and say, ‘Remember the ancient covenant, and do everything it requires. <sup>7</sup>For I solemnly warned your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, ‘Obey me!’ I have repeated this warning over and over to this day, <sup>8</sup>but your ancestors did not listen or even pay attention. Instead, they stubbornly followed their own evil desires. And because they refused to obey, I brought upon them all the curses described in this covenant.’”

<sup>9</sup>Again the LORD spoke to me and said, “I have discovered a conspiracy against me among the people of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>They have returned to the sins of their forefathers.

They have refused to listen to me and are worshiping other gods. Israel and Judah have both broken the covenant I made with their ancestors. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I am going to bring calamity upon them, and they will not escape. Though they beg for mercy, I will not listen to their cries. <sup>12</sup>Then the people of Judah and Jerusalem will pray to their idols and burn incense before them. But the idols will not save them when disaster strikes! <sup>13</sup>Look now, people of Judah; you have as many gods as you have towns. You have as many altars of shame—altars for burning incense to your god Baal—as there are streets in Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup>“Pray no more for these people, Jeremiah. Do not weep or pray for them, for I will not listen to them when they cry out to me in distress.

<sup>15</sup>“What right do my beloved people have to come to my Temple, when they have done so many immoral things?
Can their vows and sacrifices prevent their destruction?
They actually rejoice in doing evil!

<sup>16</sup>I, the LORD, once called them a thriving olive tree, beautiful to see and full of good fruit.
But now I have sent the fury of their enemies to burn them with fire, leaving them charred and broken.

<sup>17</sup>“I, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, who planted this olive tree, have ordered it destroyed. For the people of Israel and Judah have done evil, arousing my anger by burning incense to

A Plot against Jeremiah

<sup>18</sup>Then the LORD told me about the plots my enemies were making against me. <sup>19</sup>I was like a lamb being led to the slaughter. I had no idea that they were planning to kill me! “Let’s destroy this man and all his words,” they said. “Let’s cut him down, so his name will be forgotten forever.”

you make righteous judgments,
and you examine the deepest thoughts and secrets.
Let me see your vengeance against them,
for I have committed my cause to you.

<sup>21</sup>This is what the LORD says about the men of Anathoth who wanted me dead. They had said, “We will kill you if you do not stop prophesying in the LORD’s name.” <sup>22</sup>So this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says about them: “I will punish them! Their young men will die in battle, and their boys and girls will starve to death. <sup>23</sup>Not one of these plotters from Anathoth will survive, for I will bring disaster upon them when their time of punishment comes.”

Jeremiah 12

Jeremiah Questions the LORD's Justice

<sup>1</sup> LORD, you always give me justice
when I bring a case before you.
So let me bring you this complaint:
Why are the wicked so prosperous?
Why are evil people so happy?

<sup>2</sup> You have planted them,
and they have taken root and prospered.
Your name is on their lips,
but you are far from their hearts.

<sup>3</sup> But as for me, LORD, you know my heart.
You see me and test my thoughts.
Drag these people away like sheep to be butchered!
Set them aside to be slaughtered!

<sup>4</sup> How long must this land mourn?
Even the grass in the fields has withered.
The wild animals and birds have disappeared because of the evil in the land.
For the people have said,
“The LORD doesn't see what's ahead for us!”

The LORD's Reply to Jeremiah

<sup>5</sup> “If racing against mere men makes you tired, how will you race against horses?

If you stumble and fall on open ground,
what will you do in the thickets near the Jordan?
<sup>6</sup>Even your brothers, members of your own family, have turned against you.
They plot and raise complaints against you.
Do not trust them,
no matter how pleasantly they speak.

<sup>7</sup>“I have abandoned my people, my special possession.
I have surrendered my dearest ones to their enemies.
<sup>8</sup>My chosen people have roared at me like a lion of the forest, so I have treated them with contempt.
<sup>9</sup>My chosen people act like speckled vultures,*
but they themselves are surrounded by vultures.
Bring on the wild animals to pick their corpses clean!

<sup>10</sup>“Many rulers have ravaged my vineyard, trampling down the vines
and turning all its beauty into a barren wilderness.
<sup>11</sup>They have made it an empty wasteland;
I hear its mournful cry.
The whole land is desolate,
and no one even cares.
<sup>12</sup>On all the bare hilltops, destroying armies can be seen.
The sword of the LORD devours people from one end of the nation to the other.
No one will escape!

<sup>13</sup> My people have planted wheat
but are harvesting thorns.
They have worn themselves out,
but it has done them no good.
They will harvest a crop of shame
because of the fierce anger of the LORD.”

A Message for Israel's Neighbors

<sup>14</sup>Now this is what the LORD says: “I will uproot from their land all the evil nations reaching out for the possession I gave my people Israel. And I will uproot Judah from among them. <sup>15</sup>But afterward I will return and have compassion on all of them. I will bring them home to their own lands again, each nation to its own possession. <sup>16</sup>And if these nations truly learn the ways of my people, and if they learn to swear by my name, saying, ‘As surely as the LORD lives’ (just as they taught my people to swear by the name of Baal), then they will be given a place among my people. <sup>17</sup>But any nation who refuses to obey me will be uprooted and destroyed. I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Jeremiah 13

Jeremiah's Linen Loincloth

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and buy a linen loincloth and put it on, but do not wash it.” <sup>2</sup> So I bought the loincloth as the LORD directed me, and I put it on.

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD gave me another message: <sup>4</sup> “Take the linen loincloth you are wearing, and go to the Euphrates River.* Hide it there in a hole in the rocks.” <sup>5</sup> So I went and hid it by the Euphrates as the LORD had instructed me.

<sup>6</sup> A long time afterward the LORD said to me, “Go back to the Euphrates and get the loincloth I told you to hide there.” <sup>7</sup> So I went to the Euphrates and dug it out of the hole where I had hidden it. But now it was rotting and falling apart. The loincloth was good for nothing.

<sup>8</sup> Then I received this message from the LORD: <sup>9</sup> “This is what the LORD says: This shows how I will rot away the pride of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> These wicked people refuse to listen to me. They stubbornly follow their own desires and worship other gods. Therefore, they will become like this loincloth—good for nothing! <sup>11</sup> As a loincloth clings to a man’s waist, so I created Judah and Israel to cling to me, says the LORD. They were to be my people, my pride, my glory—an honor to my name. But they would not listen to me.

<sup>12</sup> “So tell them, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: May all your jars be filled with wine.’ And they will reply, ‘Of course! Jars are made to be filled with wine!’

<sup>13</sup>“Then tell them, ‘No, this is what the LORD means: I will fill everyone in this land with drunkenness—from the king sitting on David’s throne to the priests and the prophets, right down to the common people of Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>I will smash them against each other, even parents against children, says the LORD. I will not let my pity or mercy or compassion keep me from destroying them.’”

A Warning against Pride

<sup>15</sup> Listen and pay attention!

Do not be arrogant, for the LORD has spoken.

<sup>16</sup> Give glory to the LORD your God before it is too late.

Acknowledge him before he brings darkness upon you, causing you to stumble and fall on the darkening mountains.

For then, when you look for light,
you will find only terrible darkness and gloom.

<sup>17</sup> And if you still refuse to listen,
I will weep alone because of your pride.
My eyes will overflow with tears,
because the LORD’s flock will be led away into exile.

<sup>18</sup> Say to the king and his mother, “Come down from your thrones and sit in the dust,
for your glorious crowns
will soon be snatched from your heads.”

<sup>19</sup>The towns of the Negev will close their gates, and no one will be able to open them.
The people of Judah will be taken away as captives.
All will be carried into exile.

<sup>20</sup>Open up your eyes and see the armies marching down from the north!
Where is your flock—
your beautiful flock—
that he gave you to care for?

<sup>21</sup>What will you say when the LORD takes the allies you have cultivated and appoints them as your rulers?

Pangs of anguish will grip you,
like those of a woman in labor!

<sup>22</sup>You may ask yourself,
“Why is all this happening to me?”
It is because of your many sins!
That is why you have been stripped and raped by invading armies.

<sup>23</sup>Can an Ethiopian* change the color of his skin?
Can a leopard take away its spots?
Neither can you start doing good,
for you have always done evil.

<sup>24</sup>“I will scatter you like chaff that is blown away by the desert winds.

<sup>25</sup>This is your allotment,
the portion I have assigned to you,”

says the LORD,
“for you have forgotten me,
putting your trust in false gods.

<sup>26</sup>I myself will strip you and expose you to shame.

<sup>27</sup>I have seen your adultery and lust, and your disgusting idol worship out in the fields and on the hills.

What sorrow awaits you, Jerusalem!
How long before you are pure?”

Jeremiah 14

Judah's Terrible Drought

commerce at the city gates grinds to a halt.
All the people sit on the ground in mourning,
and a great cry rises from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>The nobles send servants to get water,
but all the wells are dry.
The servants return with empty pitchers, confused and desperate,
covering their heads in grief.

<sup>4</sup>The ground is parched and cracked for lack of rain.
The farmers are deeply troubled;
they, too, cover their heads.

<sup>5</sup>Even the doe abandons her newborn fawn because there is no grass in the field.

<sup>6</sup>The wild donkeys stand on the bare hills panting like thirsty jackals.
They strain their eyes looking for grass,
but there is none to be found.”

<sup>7</sup>The people say, “Our wickedness has caught up with us,

LORD,

but help us for the sake of your own reputation.

We have turned away from you and sinned against you again and again.

<sup>8</sup>O Hope of Israel, our Savior in times of trouble, why are you like a stranger to us?

Why are you like a traveler passing through the land, stopping only for the night?

<sup>9</sup>Are you also confused?

Is our champion helpless to save us?

You are right here among us, LORD.

We are known as your people.

Please don't abandon us now!"

<sup>10</sup>So this is what the LORD says to his people:

"You love to wander far from me and do not restrain yourselves.

Therefore, I will no longer accept you as my people.

Now I will remember all your wickedness and will punish you for your sins."

The LORD Forbids Jeremiah to Intercede

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to me, "Do not pray for these people anymore. <sup>12</sup>When they fast, I will pay no attention. When they present their burnt offerings and grain offerings to me, I will not accept them. Instead, I will devour them with war, famine, and disease."

<sup>13</sup> Then I said, "O Sovereign LORD, their prophets are telling them, ‘All is well—no war or famine will come. The LORD will surely send you peace.’”

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said, “These prophets are telling lies in my name. I did not send them or tell them to speak. I did not give them any messages. They prophesy of visions and revelations they have never seen or heard. They speak foolishness made up in their own lying hearts. <sup>15</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I will punish these lying prophets, for they have spoken in my name even though I never sent them. They say that no war or famine will come, but they themselves will die by war and famine! <sup>16</sup>As for the people to whom they prophesy—their bodies will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem, victims of famine and war. There will be no one left to bury them. Husbands, wives, sons, and daughters—all will be gone. For I will pour out their own wickedness on them. <sup>17</sup>Now, Jeremiah, say this to them:

“Night and day my eyes overflow with tears.

I cannot stop weeping,
for my virgin daughter—my precious people—
has been struck down
and lies mortally wounded.

<sup>18</sup>If I go out into the fields,
I see the bodies of people slaughtered by the enemy.
If I walk the city streets,
I see people who have died of starvation.
The prophets and priests continue with their work,
but they don’t know what they’re doing.”

A Prayer for Healing

<sup>19</sup>LORD, have you completely rejected Judah?

Do you really hate Jerusalem?*

Why have you wounded us past all hope of healing?

We hoped for peace, but no peace came.

We hoped for a time of healing, but found only terror.

<sup>20</sup>LORD, we confess our wickedness and that of our ancestors, too.

We all have sinned against you.

Do not disgrace your own glorious throne.

Please remember us,

and do not break your covenant with us.

Does it fall from the sky by itself?

No, you are the one, O LORD our God!

Only you can do such things.

So we will wait for you to help us.

Jeremiah 15

Judah's Inevitable Doom

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “Even if Moses and Samuel stood before me pleading for these people, I wouldn’t help them. Away with them! Get them out of my sight! <sup>2</sup>And if they say to you, ‘But where can we go?’ tell them, ‘This is what the LORD says:

“Those who are destined for death, to death;
those who are destined for war, to war;
those who are destined for famine, to famine;
those who are destined for captivity, to captivity.’

<sup>3</sup>“I will send four kinds of destroyers against them,” says the LORD. “I will send the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, the vultures to devour, and the wild animals to finish up what is left. <sup>4</sup>Because of the wicked things Manasseh son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, did in Jerusalem, I will make my people an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.

<sup>5</sup>“Who will feel sorry for you, Jerusalem?
Who will weep for you?
Who will even bother to ask how you are?

<sup>6</sup>You have abandoned me and turned your back on me,”
says the LORD.

“Therefore, I will raise my fist to destroy you.
I am tired of always giving you another chance.
<sup>7</sup>I will winnow you like grain at the gates of your cities and take away the children you hold dear.
I will destroy my own people,
because they refuse to change their evil ways.
<sup>8</sup>There will be more widows than the grains of sand on the seashore.
At noontime I will bring a destroyer against the mothers of young men.
I will cause anguish and terror to come upon them suddenly.
<sup>9</sup>The mother of seven grows faint and gasps for breath;
her sun has gone down while it is still day.
She sits childless now,
disgraced and humiliated.
And I will hand over those who are left to be killed by the enemy.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Jeremiah's Complaint

<sup>10</sup>Then I said,

“What sorrow is mine, my mother.
Oh, that I had died at birth!
I am hated everywhere I go.
I am neither a lender who threatens to foreclose nor a borrower who refuses to pay—yet they all curse me.”

<sup>11</sup>The LORD replied,

“I will take care of you, Jeremiah.

Your enemies will ask you to plead on their behalf in times of trouble and distress.

<sup>12</sup>Can a man break a bar of iron from the north,
or a bar of bronze?

<sup>13</sup>At no cost to them,
I will hand over your wealth and treasures
as plunder to your enemies,
for sin runs rampant in your land.

<sup>14</sup>I will tell your enemies to take you
as captives to a foreign land.
For my anger blazes like a fire
that will burn forever.*”

<sup>15</sup>Then I said,

“LORD, you know what’s happening to me.
Please step in and help me. Punish my persecutors!
Please give me time; don’t let me die young.
It’s for your sake that I am suffering.

<sup>16</sup>When I discovered your words, I devoured them.
They are my joy and my heart’s delight,
for I bear your name,
O LORD God of Heaven’s Armies.

I sat alone because your hand was on me.

I was filled with indignation at their sins.

<sup>18</sup>Why then does my suffering continue?

Why is my wound so incurable?

Your help seems as uncertain as a seasonal brook,
like a spring that has gone dry.”

<sup>19</sup>This is how the LORD responds:

“If you return to me, I will restore you so you can continue to serve me.

If you speak good words rather than worthless ones,
you will be my spokesman.

You must influence them;
do not let them influence you!

<sup>20</sup>They will fight against you like an attacking army, but I will make you as secure as a fortified wall of bronze.

They will not conquer you,
for I am with you to protect and rescue you.

I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>21</sup>Yes, I will certainly keep you safe from these wicked men.
I will rescue you from their cruel hands.”

Jeremiah 16

Jeremiah Forbidden to Marry

Judah's Coming Punishment

<sup>5</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Do not go to funerals to mourn and show sympathy for these people, for I have removed my protection and peace from them. I have taken away my unfailing love and my mercy. <sup>6</sup>Both the great and the lowly will die in this land. No one will bury them or mourn for them. Their friends will not cut themselves in sorrow or shave their heads in sadness. <sup>7</sup>No one will offer a meal to comfort those who mourn for the dead—not even at the death of a mother or father. No one will send a cup of wine to console them.

<sup>8</sup> “And do not go to their feasts and parties. Do not eat and drink with them at all. <sup>9</sup>For this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: In your own lifetime, before your very eyes, I will put an end to the happy singing and laughter in this land. The joyful voices of bridegrooms and brides will no longer be heard.

<sup>10</sup>“When you tell the people all these things, they will ask, ‘Why has the LORD decreed such terrible things against us? What have we done to deserve such treatment? What is our sin against the LORD our God?’

<sup>11</sup>“Then you will give them the LORD’s reply: ‘It is because your ancestors were unfaithful to me. They worshiped other gods and served them. They abandoned me and did not obey my word. <sup>12</sup>And you are even worse than your ancestors! You stubbornly follow your own evil desires and refuse to listen to me. <sup>13</sup>So I will throw you out of this land and send you into a foreign land where you and your ancestors have never been. There you can worship idols day and night—and I will grant you no favors!’

Hope despite the Disaster

<sup>14</sup>“But the time is coming,” says the LORD, “when people who are taking an oath will no longer say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who rescued the people of Israel from the land of Egypt.’

<sup>15</sup>Instead, they will say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the people of Israel back to their own land from the land of the north and from all the countries to which he had exiled them.’ For I will bring them back to this land that I gave their ancestors.

<sup>16</sup>“But now I am sending for many fishermen who will catch them,” says the LORD. “I am sending for hunters who will hunt them down in the mountains, hills, and caves. <sup>17</sup>I am watching them closely, and I see every sin. They cannot hope to hide from me. <sup>18</sup>I will double their punishment for all their sins, because they have defiled my land with lifeless images of their detestable gods and have filled my territory with their evil deeds.”

Jeremiah's Prayer of Confidence

<sup>19</sup>LORD, you are my strength and fortress, my refuge in the day of trouble!
Nations from around the world will come to you and say, “Our ancestors left us a foolish heritage,
for they worshiped worthless idols.
<sup>20</sup>Can people make their own gods?
These are not real gods at all!”

<sup>21</sup>The LORD says,
“Now I will show them my power;
now I will show them my might.
At last they will know and understand that I am the LORD.

Jeremiah 17

Judah's Sin and Punishment

<sup>1</sup>“The sin of Judah is inscribed with an iron chisel—engraved with a diamond point on their stony hearts and on the corners of their altars.

<sup>2</sup>Even their children go to worship at their pagan altars and Asherah poles, beneath every green tree
and on every high hill.

<sup>3</sup>So I will hand over my holy mountain—along with all your wealth and treasures and your pagan shrines—
as plunder to your enemies,
for sin runs rampant in your land.

<sup>4</sup>The wonderful possession I have reserved for you will slip from your hands.
I will tell your enemies to take you
as captives to a foreign land.
For my anger blazes like a fire
that will burn forever.”

Wisdom from the LORD

<sup>5</sup>This is what the LORD says:
“Cursed are those who put their trust in mere humans, who rely on human strength and turn their hearts away from the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>They are like stunted shrubs in the desert, with no hope for the future.

They will live in the barren wilderness,
in an uninhabited salty land.

<sup>7</sup>“But blessed are those who trust in the LORD and have made the LORD their hope and confidence.

<sup>8</sup>They are like trees planted along a riverbank, with roots that reach deep into the water.
Such trees are not bothered by the heat or worried by long months of drought.
Their leaves stay green,
and they never stop producing fruit.

<sup>9</sup>“The human heart is the most deceitful of all things,
and desperately wicked.

Who really knows how bad it is?

<sup>10</sup>But I, the LORD, search all hearts and examine secret motives.
I give all people their due rewards,
according to what their actions deserve.”

Jeremiah's Trust in the LORD

<sup>11</sup>Like a partridge that hatches eggs she has not laid, so are those who get their wealth by unjust means.
At midlife they will lose their riches;
in the end, they will become poor old fools.

<sup>12</sup>But we worship at your throne—eternal, high, and glorious!

<sup>13</sup>O LORD, the hope of Israel, all who turn away from you will be disgraced.
They will be buried in the dust of the earth,
for they have abandoned the LORD, the fountain of living water.

<sup>14</sup>O LORD, if you heal me, I will be truly healed;
if you save me, I will be truly saved.
My praises are for you alone!

<sup>15</sup>People scoff at me and say,
“What is this ‘message from the LORD’ you talk about?
Why don’t your predictions come true?”

<sup>16</sup>LORD, I have not abandoned my job as a shepherd for your people.
I have not urged you to send disaster.
You have heard everything I’ve said.

<sup>17</sup>LORD, don’t terrorize me!
You alone are my hope in the day of disaster.

<sup>18</sup>Bring shame and dismay on all who persecute me, but don’t let me experience shame and dismay.
Bring a day of terror on them.
Yes, bring double destruction upon them!

Observing the Sabbath

<sup>19</sup> This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and stand in the gates of Jerusalem, first in the gate where the king goes in and out, and then in each of the other gates.<sup>20</sup> Say to all the people, ‘Listen to this message from the LORD, you kings of Judah and all you people of Judah and everyone living in Jerusalem.<sup>21</sup> This is what the LORD says: Listen to my warning! Stop carrying on your trade at Jerusalem’s gates on the Sabbath day.<sup>22</sup> Do not do your work on the Sabbath, but make it a holy day. I gave this command to your ancestors,<sup>23</sup> but they did not listen or obey. They stubbornly refused to pay attention or accept my discipline.

<sup>24</sup>“But if you obey me, says the LORD, and do not carry on your trade at the gates or work on the Sabbath day, and if you keep it holy,<sup>25</sup> then kings and their officials will go in and out of these gates forever. There will always be a descendant of David sitting on the throne here in Jerusalem. Kings and their officials will always ride in and out among the people of Judah in chariots and on horses, and this city will remain forever.<sup>26</sup> And from all around Jerusalem, from the towns of Judah and Benjamin, from the western foothills* and the hill country and the Negev, the people will come with their burnt offerings and sacrifices. They will bring their grain offerings, frankincense, and thanksgiving offerings to the LORD’s Temple.

<sup>27</sup>“But if you do not listen to me and refuse to keep the Sabbath holy, and if on the Sabbath day you bring loads of merchandise through the gates of Jerusalem just as on other days, then I will set fire to these gates. The fire will spread to the palaces, and no one will be able to put out the roaring flames.”

Jeremiah 18

The Potter and the Clay

<sup>1</sup>The LORD gave another message to Jeremiah. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Go down to the potter’s shop, and I will speak to you there.” <sup>3</sup>So I did as he told me and found the potter working at his wheel. <sup>4</sup>But the jar he was making did not turn out as he had hoped, so he crushed it into a lump of clay again and started over.

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD gave me this message: <sup>6</sup>“O Israel, can I not do to you as this potter has done to his clay? As the clay is in the potter’s hand, so are you in my hand. <sup>7</sup>If I announce that a certain nation or kingdom is to be uprooted, torn down, and destroyed, <sup>8</sup>but then that nation renounces its evil ways, I will not destroy it as I had planned. <sup>9</sup>And if I announce that I will plant and build up a certain nation or kingdom, <sup>10</sup>but then that nation turns to evil and refuses to obey me, I will not bless it as I said I would.

<sup>11</sup>“Therefore, Jeremiah, go and warn all Judah and Jerusalem. Say to them, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am planning disaster for you instead of good. So turn from your evil ways, each of you, and do what is right.’”

<sup>12</sup>But the people replied, “Don’t waste your breath. We will continue to live as we want to, stubbornly following our own evil desires.”

<sup>13</sup>So this is what the LORD says:

“Has anyone ever heard of such a thing,
even among the pagan nations?

My virgin daughter Israel has done something terrible!

<sup>14</sup>Does the snow ever disappear from the mountaintops of Lebanon?

Do the cold streams flowing from those distant mountains ever run dry?

<sup>15</sup>But my people are not so reliable, for they have deserted me;

they burn incense to worthless idols.

They have stumbled off the ancient highways and walk in muddy paths.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore, their land will become desolate, a monument to their stupidity.

All who pass by will be astonished and will shake their heads in amazement.

<sup>17</sup>I will scatter my people before their enemies as the east wind scatters dust.

And in all their trouble I will turn my back on them and refuse to notice their distress.”

A Plot against Jeremiah

<sup>18</sup>Then the people said, “Come on, let’s plot a way to stop Jeremiah. We have plenty of priests and wise men and prophets. We don’t need him to teach the word and give us advice and prophecies. Let’s spread rumors about him and ignore what he says.”

<sup>19</sup>LORD, hear me and help me!

Listen to what my enemies are saying.

<sup>20</sup>Should they repay evil for good?

They have dug a pit to kill me,
though I pleaded for them
and tried to protect them from your anger.

<sup>21</sup>So let their children starve!

Let them die by the sword!

Let their wives become childless widows.

Let their old men die in a plague,
and let their young men be killed in battle!

<sup>22</sup>Let screaming be heard from their homes
as warriors come suddenly upon them.

For they have dug a pit for me and have hidden traps along my path.

Don't forgive their crimes and blot out their sins.

Let them die before you.

Deal with them in your anger.

Jeremiah 19

Jeremiah's Shattered Jar

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and buy a clay jar. Then ask some of the leaders of the people and of the priests to follow you. <sup>2</sup> Go out through the Gate of Broken Pots to the garbage dump in the valley of Ben-Hinnom, and give them this message. <sup>3</sup> Say to them, ‘Listen to this message from the LORD, you kings of Judah and citizens of Jerusalem! This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: I will bring a terrible disaster on this place, and the ears of those who hear about it will ring!

<sup>4</sup> “For Israel has forsaken me and turned this valley into a place of wickedness. The people burn incense to foreign gods—idols never before acknowledged by this generation, by their ancestors, or by the kings of Judah. And they have filled this place with the blood of innocent children. <sup>5</sup> They have built pagan shrines to Baal, and there they burn their sons as sacrifices to Baal. I have never commanded such a horrible deed; it never even crossed my mind to command such a thing! <sup>6</sup> So beware, for the time is coming, says the LORD, when this garbage dump will no longer be called Topheth or the valley of Ben-Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter.

animals. <sup>8</sup>I will reduce Jerusalem to ruins, making it a monument to their stupidity. All who pass by will be astonished and will gasp at the destruction they see there. <sup>9</sup>I will see to it that your enemies lay siege to the city until all the food is gone. Then those trapped inside will eat their own sons and daughters and friends. They will be driven to utter despair.’

<sup>10</sup>“As these men watch you, Jeremiah, smash the jar you brought. <sup>11</sup>Then say to them, ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: As this jar lies shattered, so I will shatter the people of Judah and Jerusalem beyond all hope of repair. They will bury the bodies here in Topheth, the garbage dump, until there is no more room for them. <sup>12</sup>This is what I will do to this place and its people, says the LORD. I will cause this city to become defiled like Topheth. <sup>13</sup>Yes, all the houses in Jerusalem, including the palace of Judah’s kings, will become like Topheth—all the houses where you burned incense on the rooftops to your star gods, and where liquid offerings were poured out to your idols.’”

<sup>14</sup>Then Jeremiah returned from Topheth, the garbage dump where he had delivered this message, and he stopped in front of the Temple of the LORD. He said to the people there, <sup>15</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘I will bring disaster upon this city and its surrounding towns as I promised, because you have stubbornly refused to listen to me.’”

Jeremiah 20

Jeremiah and Pashhur

<sup>1</sup>Now Pashhur son of Immer, the priest in charge of the Temple of the LORD, heard what Jeremiah was prophesying. <sup>2</sup>So he arrested Jeremiah the prophet and had him whipped and put in stocks at the Benjamin Gate of the LORD's Temple.

<sup>3</sup>The next day, when Pashhur finally released him, Jeremiah said, "Pashhur, the LORD has changed your name. From now on you are to be called 'The Man Who Lives in Terror.' *" <sup>4</sup>For this is what the LORD says: 'I will send terror upon you and all your friends, and you will watch as they are slaughtered by the swords of the enemy. I will hand the people of Judah over to the king of Babylon. He will take them captive to Babylon or run them through with the sword. <sup>5</sup>And I will let your enemies plunder Jerusalem. All the famed treasures of the city—the precious jewels and gold and silver of your kings—will be carried off to Babylon. <sup>6</sup>As for you, Pashhur, you and all your household will go as captives to Babylon. There you will die and be buried, you and all your friends to whom you prophesied that everything would be all right.'"

Jeremiah's Complaint

<sup>7</sup>O LORD, you misled me, and I allowed myself to be misled.
You are stronger than I am,

and you overpowered me.
Now I am mocked every day;
everyone laughs at me.
<sup>8</sup>When I speak, the words burst out.
“Violence and destruction!” I shout.
So these messages from the LORD
have made me a household joke.
<sup>9</sup>But if I say I’ll never mention the LORD or speak in his name,
his word burns in my heart like a fire.
It’s like a fire in my bones!
I am worn out trying to hold it in!
I can’t do it!

---

PERSPECTIVES

But if I say I’ll never mention the Lord or speak in his name, his word burns in my heart like a fire. It’s like a fire in my bones!

JEREMIAH 20:9

There is a God-shaped vacuum in every man that can only be filled by God.

BLAISE PASCAL (1623–1662), FRENCH MATHEMATICIAN

<sup>10</sup>I have heard the many rumors about me.
They call me “The Man Who Lives in Terror.”
They threaten, “If you say anything, we will report it.”
Even my old friends are watching me, waiting for a fatal slip.
“He will trap himself,” they say,
“and then we will get our revenge on him.”

<sup>11</sup>But the LORD stands beside me like a great warrior.
Before him my persecutors will stumble.
They cannot defeat me.
They will fail and be thoroughly humiliated.
Their dishonor will never be forgotten.

<sup>12</sup>O LORD of Heaven’s Armies,
you test those who are righteous,
and you examine the deepest thoughts and secrets.
Let me see your vengeance against them,
for I have committed my cause to you.

<sup>13</sup>Sing to the LORD!
Praise the LORD!
For though I was poor and needy,
he rescued me from my oppressors.

<sup>14</sup>Yet I curse the day I was born!
May no one celebrate the day of my birth.

<sup>15</sup>I curse the messenger who told my father,
“Good news—you have a son!”

<sup>16</sup>Let him be destroyed like the cities of old

that the LORD overthrew without mercy.
Terrify him all day long with battle shouts,
<sup>17</sup>because he did not kill me at birth.
Oh, that I had died in my mother's womb,
that her body had been my grave!
<sup>18</sup>Why was I ever born?
My entire life has been filled with trouble, sorrow, and shame.

Jeremiah 21

No Deliverance from Babylon

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke through Jeremiah when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur son of Malkijah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, the priest, to speak with him. They begged Jeremiah, <sup>2</sup>“Please speak to the LORD for us and ask him to help us. King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon is attacking Judah. Perhaps the LORD will be gracious and do a mighty miracle as he has done in the past. Perhaps he will force Nebuchadnezzar to withdraw his armies.”

<sup>3</sup>Jeremiah replied, “Go back to King Zedekiah and tell him, <sup>4</sup>“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I will make your weapons useless against the king of Babylon and the Babylonians* who are outside your walls attacking you. In fact, I will bring your enemies right into the heart of this city. <sup>5</sup>I myself will fight against you with a strong hand and a powerful arm, for I am very angry. You have made me furious! <sup>6</sup>I will send a terrible plague upon this city, and both people and animals will die. <sup>7</sup>And after all that, says the LORD, I will hand over King Zedekiah, his staff, and everyone else in the city who survives the disease, war, and famine. I will hand them over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and to their other enemies. He will slaughter them and show them no mercy, pity, or compassion.”

choice of life or death! <sup>9</sup>Everyone who stays in Jerusalem will die from war, famine, or disease, but those who go out and surrender to the Babylonians will live. Their reward will be life! <sup>10</sup>For I have decided to bring disaster and not good upon this city, says the LORD. It will be handed over to the king of Babylon, and he will reduce it to ashes.’

Judgment on Judah’s Kings

<sup>11</sup>“Say to the royal family of Judah, ‘Listen to this message from the LORD! <sup>12</sup>This is what the LORD says to the dynasty of David:

“‘Give justice each morning to the people you judge!
Help those who have been robbed;
rescue them from their oppressors.
Otherwise, my anger will burn like an unquenchable fire
because of all your sins.

<sup>13</sup>I will personally fight against the people in Jerusalem, that mighty fortress—
the people who boast, “No one can touch us here.
No one can break in here.”

<sup>14</sup>And I myself will punish you for your sinfulness,
says the LORD.
I will light a fire in your forests that will burn up everything around you.”’

Jeremiah 22

A Message for Judah's Kings

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD said to me: “Go over and speak directly to the king of Judah. Say to him, <sup>2</sup>“Listen to this message from the LORD, you king of Judah, sitting on David’s throne. Let your attendants and your people listen, too. <sup>3</sup>This is what the LORD says: Be fair-minded and just. Do what is right! Help those who have been robbed; rescue them from their oppressors. Quit your evil deeds! Do not mistreat foreigners, orphans, and widows. Stop murdering the innocent! <sup>4</sup>If you obey me, there will always be a descendant of David sitting on the throne here in Jerusalem. The king will ride through the palace gates in chariots and on horses, with his parade of attendants and subjects. <sup>5</sup>But if you refuse to pay attention to this warning, I swear by my own name, says the LORD, that this palace will become a pile of rubble.”

A Message about the Palace

<sup>6</sup>Now this is what the LORD says concerning Judah’s royal palace:

“I love you as much as fruitful Gilead and the green forests of Lebanon.
But I will turn you into a desert,
with no one living within your walls.

<sup>7</sup>I will call for wreckers, who will bring out their tools to dismantle you.
They will tear out all your fine cedar beams and throw them on the fire.

<sup>8</sup>“People from many nations will pass by the ruins of this city and say to one another, ‘Why did the LORD destroy such a great city?’ <sup>9</sup>And the answer will be, ‘Because they violated their covenant with the LORD their God by worshiping other gods.’”

A Message about Jehoahaz

<sup>10</sup>Do not weep for the dead king or mourn his loss.
Instead, weep for the captive king being led away!
For he will never return to see his native land again.

<sup>11</sup>For this is what the LORD says about Jehoahaz* who succeeded his father, King Josiah, and was taken away as a captive: “He will never return. <sup>12</sup>He will die in a distant land and will never again see his own country.”

A Message about Jehoiakim

<sup>13</sup>And the LORD says, “What sorrow awaits Jehoiakim,* who builds his palace with forced labor.*
He builds injustice into its walls,
for he makes his neighbors work for nothing.
He does not pay them for their labor.
<sup>14</sup>He says, ‘I will build a magnificent palace with huge rooms and many windows.

I will panel it throughout with fragrant cedar and paint it a lovely red.’

<sup>15</sup>But a beautiful cedar palace does not make a great king!
Your father, Josiah, also had plenty to eat and drink.
But he was just and right in all his dealings.
That is why God blessed him.

<sup>16</sup>He gave justice and help to the poor and needy, and everything went well for him.
Isn’t that what it means to know me?”
says the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>“But you! You have eyes only for greed and dishonesty!
You murder the innocent, oppress the poor, and reign ruthlessly.”

<sup>18</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim, son of King Josiah:

“The people will not mourn for him, crying to one another, ‘Alas, my brother! Alas, my sister!’
His subjects will not mourn for him, crying,
‘Alas, our master is dead! Alas, his splendor is gone!’

<sup>19</sup>He will be buried like a dead donkey—dragged out of Jerusalem and dumped outside the gates!

Shout for them in Bashan.

Search for them in the regions east of the river.*

See, they are all destroyed.

Not one is left to help you.

<sup>21</sup>I warned you when you were prosperous, but you replied, ‘Don’t bother me.’
You have been that way since childhood—
you simply will not obey me!

<sup>22</sup>And now the wind will blow away your allies.
All your friends will be taken away as captives.
Surely then you will see your wickedness and be ashamed.

<sup>23</sup>It may be nice to live in a beautiful palace paneled with wood from the cedars of Lebanon, but soon you will groan with pangs of anguish—anguish like that of a woman in labor.

A Message for Jehoiachin

<sup>24</sup>“As surely as I live,” says the LORD, “I will abandon you, Jehoiachin* son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah. Even if you were the signet ring on my right hand, I would pull you off. <sup>25</sup>I will hand you over to those who seek to kill you, those you so desperately fear—to King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon and the mighty Babylonian* army. <sup>26</sup>I will expel you and your mother from this land, and you will die in a foreign country, not in your native land. <sup>27</sup>You will never again return to the land you yearn for.

Why are he and his children to be exiled to a foreign land?

<sup>29</sup>O earth, earth, earth!

Listen to this message from the LORD!

<sup>30</sup>This is what the LORD says:

‘Let the record show that this man Jehoiachin was childless.
He is a failure,
for none of his children will succeed him on the throne of David
to rule over Judah.’

Jeremiah 23

The Righteous Descendant

<sup>1</sup> “What sorrow awaits the leaders of my people—the shepherds of my sheep—for they have destroyed and scattered the very ones they were expected to care for,” says the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to these shepherds: “Instead of caring for my flock and leading them to safety, you have deserted them and driven them to destruction. Now I will pour out judgment on you for the evil you have done to them. <sup>3</sup>But I will gather together the remnant of my flock from the countries where I have driven them. I will bring them back to their own sheepfold, and they will be fruitful and increase in number. <sup>4</sup>Then I will appoint responsible shepherds who will care for them, and they will never be afraid again. Not a single one will be lost or missing. I, the LORD, have spoken!

says the LORD,

“when I will raise up a righteous descendant*
from King David’s line.

He will be a King who rules with wisdom.

He will do what is just and right throughout the land.

<sup>6</sup>And this will be his name:

‘The LORD Is Our Righteousness.’*

In that day Judah will be saved, and Israel will live in safety.

<sup>7</sup>“In that day,” says the LORD, “when people are taking an oath, they will no longer say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who rescued the people of Israel from the land of Egypt.’ <sup>8</sup>Instead, they will say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the people of Israel back to their own land from the land of the north and from all the countries to which he had exiled them.’ Then they will live in their own land.”

Judgment on False Prophets

<sup>9</sup>My heart is broken because of the false prophets, and my bones tremble.

I stagger like a drunkard,
like someone overcome by wine,
because of the holy words
the LORD has spoken against them.

<sup>10</sup>For the land is full of adultery,
and it lies under a curse.
The land itself is in mourning—its wilderness pastures are dried up.
For they all do evil
and abuse what power they have.

<sup>11</sup>“Even the priests and prophets are ungodly, wicked men.
I have seen their despicable acts right here in my own Temple,”

says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>“Therefore, the paths they take will become slippery.

They will be chased through the dark,
and there they will fall.

For I will bring disaster upon them at the time fixed for their punishment.

I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>13</sup>“I saw that the prophets of Samaria were terribly evil, for they prophesied in the name of Baal
and led my people of Israel into sin.

<sup>14</sup>But now I see that the prophets of Jerusalem are even worse!

They commit adultery and love dishonesty.

They encourage those who are doing evil
so that no one turns away from their sins.

These prophets are as wicked
as the people of Sodom and Gomorrah once were.”

<sup>15</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says concerning the prophets:

“I will feed them with bitterness and give them poison to drink.

For it is because of Jerusalem’s prophets that wickedness has filled this land.”

“Do not listen to these prophets when they prophesy to you, filling you with futile hopes.

They are making up everything they say.

They do not speak for the LORD!

<sup>17</sup>They keep saying to those who despise my word,

‘Don’t worry! The LORD says you will have peace!’

And to those who stubbornly follow their own desires, they say, ‘No harm will come your way!’

<sup>18</sup>“Have any of these prophets been in the LORD’s presence to hear what he is really saying?

Has even one of them cared enough to listen?

<sup>19</sup>Look! The LORD’s anger bursts out like a storm, a whirlwind that swirls down on the heads of the wicked.

<sup>20</sup>The anger of the LORD will not diminish until it has finished all he has planned.

In the days to come

you will understand all this very clearly.

21 “I have not sent these prophets, yet they run around claiming to speak for me.

I have given them no message, yet they go on prophesying.

<sup>22</sup>If they had stood before me and listened to me, they would have spoken my words, and they would have turned my people from their evil ways and deeds.

23 Am I a God who is only close at hand?” says the LORD.

“No, I am far away at the same time.

Am I not everywhere in all the heavens and earth?”

says the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>“I have heard these prophets say, ‘Listen to the dream I had from God last night.’ And then they proceed to tell lies in my name. <sup>26</sup>How long will this go on? If they are prophets, they are prophets of deceit, inventing everything they say. <sup>27</sup>By telling these false dreams, they are trying to get my people to forget me, just as their ancestors did by worshiping the idols of Baal.

<sup>28</sup>“Let these false prophets tell their dreams, but let my true messengers faithfully proclaim my every word.
There is a difference between straw and grain!

<sup>29</sup>“Does not my word burn like fire?”

says the LORD.

“Is it not like a mighty hammer that smashes a rock to pieces?

<sup>30</sup>“Therefore,” says the LORD, “I am against these prophets who steal messages from each other and claim they are from me. <sup>31</sup>I am against these smooth-tongued prophets who say, ‘This prophecy is from the LORD!’ <sup>32</sup>I am against these false prophets. Their imaginary dreams are flagrant lies that lead my people into sin. I did not send or appoint them, and they have no message at all for my people. I, the LORD, have spoken!

False Prophecies and False Prophets

<sup>33</sup>“Suppose one of the people or one of the prophets or priests asks you, ‘What prophecy has the LORD burdened you with now?’ You must reply, ‘You are the burden! * The LORD says he will abandon you!’

<sup>34</sup>“If any prophet, priest, or anyone else says, ‘I have a prophecy from the LORD,’ I will punish that person along with his entire family. <sup>35</sup>You should keep asking each other, ‘What is the LORD’s answer?’ or ‘What is the LORD saying?’ <sup>36</sup>But stop using this phrase, ‘prophecy from the LORD.’ For people are using it to give authority to their own ideas, turning upside down the words of our God, the living God, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

<sup>37</sup>“This is what you should say to the prophets: ‘What is the LORD’s answer?’ or ‘What is the LORD saying?’ <sup>38</sup>But suppose they respond, ‘This is a prophecy from the LORD!’ Then you should say, ‘This is what the LORD says: Because you have used this phrase, “prophecy from the LORD,” even though I warned you not to use it, <sup>39</sup>I will forget you completely.* I will expel you from my presence, along with this city that I gave to you and your ancestors. <sup>40</sup>And I will make you an object of ridicule, and your name will be infamous throughout the ages.’”

Jeremiah 24

Good and Bad Figs

<sup>1</sup> After King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon exiled Jehoiachin* son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, to Babylon along with the officials of Judah and all the craftsmen and artisans, the LORD gave me this vision. I saw two baskets of figs placed in front of the LORD's Temple in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>One basket was filled with fresh, ripe figs, while the other was filled with bad figs that were too rotten to eat.

I replied, "Figs, some very good and some very bad, too rotten to eat."

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD gave me this message: <sup>5</sup>"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: The good figs represent the exiles I sent from Judah to the land of the Babylonians.* <sup>6</sup>I will watch over and care for them, and I will bring them back here again. I will build them up and not tear them down. I will plant them and not uproot them. <sup>7</sup>I will give them hearts that recognize me as the LORD. They will be my people, and I will be their God, for they will return to me wholeheartedly.

<sup>8</sup>"But the bad figs," the LORD said, "represent King Zedekiah of Judah, his officials, all the people left in Jerusalem, and those who live in Egypt. I will treat them like bad figs, too rotten to eat. <sup>9</sup>I will make them an object of horror and a symbol of evil to every nation on earth. They will be disgraced and mocked, taunted and cursed, wherever I scatter them. <sup>10</sup>And I will send war, famine, and disease until they have vanished from the land of Israel, which I gave to them and their ancestors.”

Jeremiah 25

Seventy Years of Captivity

<sup>1</sup> This message for all the people of Judah came to Jeremiah from the LORD during the fourth year of Jehoiakim's reign over Judah.* This was the year when King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon began his reign.

<sup>2</sup>Jeremiah the prophet said to all the people in Judah and Jerusalem, <sup>3</sup>“For the past twenty-three years—from the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah son of Amon,* king of Judah, until now—the LORD has been giving me his messages. I have faithfully passed them on to you, but you have not listened.

<sup>4</sup>“Again and again the LORD has sent you his servants, the prophets, but you have not listened or even paid attention. <sup>5</sup>Each time the message was this: ‘Turn from the evil road you are traveling and from the evil things you are doing. Only then will I let you live in this land that the LORD gave to you and your ancestors forever. <sup>6</sup>Do not provoke my anger by worshiping idols you made with your own hands. Then I will not harm you.’

<sup>7</sup>“But you would not listen to me,” says the LORD. “You made me furious by worshiping idols you made with your own hands, bringing on yourselves all the disasters you now suffer. <sup>8</sup>And now the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Because you have not listened to me, <sup>9</sup>I will gather together all the armies of the north under King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, whom I have appointed as my deputy. I will bring them all against this land and its people and against the surrounding nations. I will completely destroy* you and make you an object of horror and contempt and a ruin forever. <sup>10</sup>I will take away your happy singing and laughter. The joyful voices of bridegrooms and brides will no longer be heard. Your millstones will fall silent, and the lights in your homes will go out. <sup>11</sup>This entire land will become a desolate wasteland. Israel and her neighboring lands will serve the king of Babylon for seventy years.

<sup>12</sup>“Then, after the seventy years of captivity are over, I will punish the king of Babylon and his people for their sins,” says the LORD. “I will make the country of the Babylonians* a wasteland forever. <sup>13</sup>I will bring upon them all the terrors I have promised in this book—all the penalties announced by Jeremiah against the nations. <sup>14</sup>Many nations and great kings will enslave the Babylonians, just as they enslaved my people. I will punish them in proportion to the suffering they cause my people.”

The Cup of the LORD's Anger

<sup>15</sup> This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: “Take from my hand this cup filled to the brim with my anger, and make all the nations to whom I send you drink from it. <sup>16</sup>When they drink from it, they will stagger, crazed by the warfare I will send against them.”

<sup>17</sup>So I took the cup of anger from the LORD and made all the nations drink from it—every nation to which the LORD sent me.

<sup>18</sup>I went to Jerusalem and the other towns of Judah, and their kings and officials drank from the cup. From that day until this, they have been a desolate ruin, an object of horror, contempt, and cursing. <sup>19</sup>I gave the cup to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, his attendants, his officials, and all his people, <sup>20</sup>along with all the foreigners living in that land. I also gave it to all the kings of the land of Uz and the kings of the Philistine cities of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and what remains of Ashdod. <sup>21</sup>Then I gave the cup to the nations of Edom, Moab, and Ammon, <sup>22</sup>and the kings of Tyre and Sidon, and the kings of the regions across the sea. <sup>23</sup>I gave it to Dedan, Tema, and Buz, and to the people who live in distant places. <sup>24</sup>I gave it to the kings of Arabia, the kings of the nomadic tribes of the desert, <sup>25</sup>and to the kings of Zimri, Elam, and Media. <sup>26</sup>And I gave it to the kings of the northern countries, far and near, one after the other—all the kingdoms of the world. And finally, the king of Babylon <sup>27</sup>himself drank from the cup of the LORD's anger.

<sup>27</sup>Then the LORD said to me, "Now tell them, 'This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: Drink from this cup of my anger. Get drunk and vomit; fall to rise no more, for I am sending terrible wars against you.' <sup>28</sup>And if they refuse to accept the cup, tell them, 'The LORD of Heaven's Armies says: You have no choice but to drink from it. <sup>29</sup>I have begun to punish Jerusalem, the city that bears my name. Now should I let you go unpunished? No, you will not escape disaster. I will call for war against all the nations of the earth. I, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, have spoken!'

“The LORD will roar against his own land from his holy dwelling in heaven.
He will shout like those who tread grapes;
he will shout against everyone on earth.

<sup>31</sup>His cry of judgment will reach the ends of the earth, for the LORD will bring his case against all the nations.
He will judge all the people of the earth,
slaughtering the wicked with the sword.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

<sup>32</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says:
“Look! Disaster will fall upon nation after nation!
A great whirlwind of fury is rising from the most distant corners of the earth!”

<sup>33</sup>In that day those the LORD has slaughtered will fill the earth from one end to the other. No one will mourn for them or gather up their bodies to bury them. They will be scattered on the ground like manure.

<sup>34</sup>Weep and moan, you evil shepherds!
Roll in the dust, you leaders of the flock!
The time of your slaughter has arrived;
you will fall and shatter like a fragile vase.

<sup>35</sup>You will find no place to hide;
there will be no way to escape.

<sup>36</sup>Listen to the frantic cries of the shepherds.
The leaders of the flock are wailing in despair, for the LORD is ruining their pastures.

<sup>37</sup>Peaceful meadows will be turned into a wasteland by the LORD's fierce anger.

<sup>38</sup>He has left his den like a strong lion seeking its prey, and their land will be made desolate
by the sword of the enemy and the LORD's fierce anger.

Jeremiah 26

Jeremiah's Escape from Death

<sup>4</sup>“Say to them, ‘This is what the LORD says: If you will not listen to me and obey my word I have given you, <sup>5</sup>and if you will not listen to my servants, the prophets—for I sent them again and again to warn you, but you would not listen to them—<sup>6</sup>then I will destroy this Temple as I destroyed Shiloh, the place where the Tabernacle was located. And I will make Jerusalem an object of cursing in every nation on earth.’”

<sup>7</sup>The priests, the prophets, and all the people listened to Jeremiah as he spoke in front of the LORD's Temple. <sup>8</sup>But when Jeremiah had finished his message, saying everything the LORD had told him to say, the priests and prophets and all the people at the Temple mobbed him. “Kill him!” they shouted. <sup>9</sup>“What right do you have to prophesy in the LORD's name that this Temple will be destroyed like Shiloh? What do you mean, saying that Jerusalem will be destroyed and left with no inhabitants?” And all the people threatened him as he stood in front of the Temple.

<sup>10</sup>When the officials of Judah heard what was happening, they rushed over from the palace and sat down at the New Gate of the Temple to hold court. <sup>11</sup>The priests and prophets presented their accusations to the officials and the people. “This man should die!” they said. “You have heard with your own ears what a traitor he is, for he has prophesied against this city.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Jeremiah spoke to the officials and the people in his own defense. “The LORD sent me to prophesy against this Temple and this city,” he said. “The LORD gave me every word that I have spoken. <sup>13</sup>But if you stop your sinning and begin to obey the LORD your God, he will change his mind about this disaster that he has announced against you. <sup>14</sup>As for me, I am in your hands—do with me as you think best. <sup>15</sup>But if you kill me, rest assured that you will be killing an innocent man! The responsibility for such a deed will lie on you, on this city, and on every person living in it. For it is absolutely true that the LORD sent me to speak every word you have heard.”

<sup>16</sup>Then the officials and the people said to the priests and prophets, “This man does not deserve the death sentence, for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.”

<sup>17</sup>Then some of the wise old men stood and spoke to all the people assembled there. <sup>18</sup>They said, “Remember when Micah of Moresheth prophesied during the reign of King Hezekiah of Judah. He told the people of Judah,

‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says:
Mount Zion will be plowed like an open field;
Jerusalem will be reduced to ruins!
A thicket will grow on the heights
where the Temple now stands.’*

<sup>19</sup>But did King Hezekiah and the people kill him for saying this? No, they turned from their sins and worshiped the LORD. They begged him for mercy. Then the LORD changed his mind about the terrible disaster he had pronounced against them. So we are about to do ourselves great harm.”

<sup>20</sup>At this time Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim was also prophesying for the LORD. And he predicted the same terrible disaster against the city and nation as Jeremiah did.

<sup>21</sup>When King Jehoiakim and the army officers and officials heard what he was saying, the king sent someone to kill him. But Uriah heard about the plan and escaped in fear to Egypt.

<sup>22</sup>Then King Jehoiakim sent Elnathan son of Acbor to Egypt along with several other men to capture Uriah. <sup>23</sup>They took him prisoner and brought him back to King Jehoiakim. The king then killed Uriah with a sword and had him buried in an unmarked grave.

<sup>24</sup>Nevertheless, Ahikam son of Shaphan stood up for Jeremiah and persuaded the court not to turn him over to the mob to be killed.

Jeremiah 27

Jeremiah Wears an Ox Yoke

<sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD said to me: “Make a yoke, and fasten it on your neck with leather straps. <sup>3</sup> Then send messages to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon through their ambassadors who have come to see King Zedekiah in Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> Give them this message for their masters: ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: <sup>5</sup> With my great strength and powerful arm I made the earth and all its people and every animal. I can give these things of mine to anyone I choose. <sup>6</sup> Now I will give your countries to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, who is my servant. I have put everything, even the wild animals, under his control. <sup>7</sup> All the nations will serve him, his son, and his grandson until his time is up. Then many nations and great kings will conquer and rule over Babylon. <sup>8</sup> So you must submit to Babylon’s king and serve him; put your neck under Babylon’s yoke! I will punish any nation that refuses to be his slave, says the LORD. I will send war, famine, and disease upon that nation until Babylon has conquered it.

their lies will lead to your being driven out of your land. I will drive you out and send you far away to die. <sup>11</sup>But the people of any nation that submits to the king of Babylon will be allowed to stay in their own country to farm the land as usual. I, the LORD, have spoken!”

<sup>12</sup>Then I repeated this same message to King Zedekiah of Judah. “If you want to live, submit to the yoke of the king of Babylon and his people. <sup>13</sup>Why do you insist on dying—you and your people? Why should you choose war, famine, and disease, which the LORD will bring against every nation that refuses to submit to Babylon’s king? <sup>14</sup>Do not listen to the false prophets who keep telling you, ‘The king of Babylon will not conquer you.’ They are liars. <sup>15</sup>This is what the LORD says: ‘I have not sent these prophets! They are telling you lies in my name, so I will drive you from this land. You will all die—you and all these prophets, too.’”

<sup>16</sup>Then I spoke to the priests and the people and said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Do not listen to your prophets who claim that soon the gold articles taken from my Temple will be returned from Babylon. It is all a lie! <sup>17</sup>Do not listen to them. Surrender to the king of Babylon, and you will live. Why should this whole city be destroyed? <sup>18</sup>If they really are prophets and speak the LORD’s messages, let them pray to the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. Let them pray that the articles remaining in the LORD’s Temple and in the king’s palace and in the palaces of Jerusalem will not be carried away to Babylon!’

<sup>19</sup>“For the LORD of Heaven’s Armies has spoken about the pillars in front of the Temple, the great bronze basin called the Sea, the water carts, and all the other ceremonial articles. <sup>20</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon left them here when he exiled Jehoiachin* son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, to Babylon, along with all the other nobles of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>Yes, this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says about the precious things still in the Temple and in the palace of Judah's king: <sup>22</sup>‘They will all be carried away to Babylon and will stay there until I send for them,’ says the LORD. ‘Then I will bring them back to Jerusalem again.’”

Jeremiah 28

Jeremiah Condemns Hananiah

<sup>5</sup>Jeremiah responded to Hananiah as they stood in front of all the priests and people at the Temple. <sup>6</sup>He said, “Amen! May your prophecies come true! I hope the LORD does everything you say. I hope he does bring back from Babylon the treasures of this Temple and all the captives. <sup>7</sup>But listen now to the solemn words I speak to you in the presence of all these people. <sup>8</sup>The ancient prophets who preceded you and me spoke against many nations, always warning of war, disaster, and disease. <sup>9</sup>So a prophet who predicts peace must show he is right. Only when his predictions come true can we know that he is really from the LORD.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke off Jeremiah's neck and broke it in pieces. <sup>11</sup>And Hananiah said again to the crowd that had gathered, "This is what the LORD says: 'Just as this yoke has been broken, within two years I will break the yoke of oppression from all the nations now subject to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon.'" With that, Jeremiah left the Temple area.

<sup>12</sup>Soon after this confrontation with Hananiah, the LORD gave this message to Jeremiah: <sup>13</sup>"Go and tell Hananiah, 'This is what the LORD says: You have broken a wooden yoke, but you have replaced it with a yoke of iron. <sup>14</sup>The LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: I have put a yoke of iron on the necks of all these nations, forcing them into slavery under King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. I have put everything, even the wild animals, under his control.'"

<sup>15</sup>Then Jeremiah the prophet said to Hananiah, "Listen, Hananiah! The LORD has not sent you, but the people believe your lies. <sup>16</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD says: 'You must die. Your life will end this very year because you have rebelled against the LORD.'"

<sup>17</sup>Two months later* the prophet Hananiah died.

Jeremiah 29

A Letter to the Exiles

<sup>1</sup>Jeremiah wrote a letter from Jerusalem to the elders, priests, prophets, and all the people who had been exiled to Babylon by King Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>2</sup>This was after King Jehoiachin, * the queen mother, the court officials, the other officials of Judah, and all the craftsmen and artisans had been deported from Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>He sent the letter with Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah when they went to Babylon as King Zedekiah's ambassadors to Nebuchadnezzar. This is what Jeremiah's letter said:

<sup>4</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says to all the captives he has exiled to Babylon from Jerusalem: <sup>5</sup>"Build homes, and plan to stay. Plant gardens, and eat the food they produce. <sup>6</sup>Marry and have children. Then find spouses for them so that you may have many grandchildren. Multiply! Do not dwindle away! <sup>7</sup>And work for the peace and prosperity of the city where I sent you into exile. Pray to the LORD for it, for its welfare will determine your welfare."

<sup>8</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Do not let your prophets and fortune-tellers who are with you in the land of Babylon trick you. Do not listen to their dreams, <sup>9</sup>because they are telling you lies in my name. I have not sent them,” says the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>This is what the LORD says: “You will be in Babylon for seventy years. But then I will come and do for you all the good things I have promised, and I will bring you home again. <sup>11</sup>For I know the plans I have for you,” says the LORD. “They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope. <sup>12</sup>In those days when you pray, I will listen. <sup>13</sup>If you look for me wholeheartedly, you will find me. <sup>14</sup>I will be found by you,” says the LORD. “I will end your captivity and restore your fortunes. I will gather you out of the nations where I sent you and will bring you home again to your own land.”

<sup>15</sup>You claim that the LORD has raised up prophets for you in Babylon. <sup>16</sup>But this is what the LORD says about the king who sits on David’s throne and all those still living here in Jerusalem—your relatives who were not exiled to Babylon.

<sup>17</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: “I will send war, famine, and disease upon them and make them like bad figs, too rotten to eat. <sup>18</sup>Yes, I will pursue them with war, famine, and disease, and I will scatter them around the world. In every nation where I send them, I will make them an object of damnation, horror, contempt, and mockery. <sup>19</sup>For they refuse to listen to me, though I have spoken to them repeatedly through the prophets I sent. And you who are in exile have not listened either,” says the LORD.

Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says about your prophets—Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah—who are telling you lies in my name: “I will turn them over to Nebuchadnezzar* for execution before your eyes.<sup>22</sup> Their terrible fate will become proverbial, so that the Judean exiles will curse someone by saying, ‘May the LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon burned alive!’<sup>23</sup> For these men have done terrible things among my people. They have committed adultery with their neighbors’ wives and have lied in my name, saying things I did not command. I am a witness to this. I, the LORD, have spoken.”

A Message for Shemaiah

<sup>24</sup>The LORD sent this message to Shemaiah the Nehelamite in Babylon: <sup>25</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: You wrote a letter on your own authority to Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, the priest, and you sent copies to the other priests and people in Jerusalem. You wrote to Zephaniah, <sup>26</sup>“The LORD has appointed you to replace Jehoiada as the priest in charge of the house of the LORD. You are responsible to put into stocks and neck irons any crazy man who claims to be a prophet.<sup>27</sup> So why have you done nothing to stop Jeremiah from Anathoth, who pretends to be a prophet among you?<sup>28</sup> Jeremiah sent a letter here to Babylon, predicting that our captivity will be a long one.

He said, ‘Build homes, and plan to stay. Plant gardens, and eat the food they produce.’”

<sup>29</sup>But when Zephaniah the priest received Shemaiah’s letter, he took it to Jeremiah and read it to him. <sup>30</sup>Then the LORD gave this message to Jeremiah: <sup>31</sup>“Send an open letter to all the exiles in Babylon. Tell them, ‘This is what the LORD says concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Since he has prophesied to you when I did not send him and has tricked you into believing his lies, <sup>32</sup>I will punish him and his family. None of his descendants will see the good things I will do for my people, for he has incited you to rebel against me. I, the LORD, have spoken!’”

Jeremiah 30

Promises of Deliverance

<sup>1</sup> The LORD gave another message to Jeremiah. He said, <sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Write down for the record everything I have said to you, Jeremiah. <sup>3</sup>For the time is coming when I will restore the fortunes of my people of Israel and Judah. I will bring them home to this land that I gave to their ancestors, and they will possess it again. I, the LORD, have spoken!”

<sup>4</sup>This is the message the LORD gave concerning Israel and Judah. <sup>5</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“I hear cries of fear;
there is terror and no peace.

<sup>6</sup>Now let me ask you a question:

Do men give birth to babies?

Then why do they stand there, ashen-faced,
hands pressed against their sides
like a woman in labor?

<sup>7</sup>In all history there has never been such a time of terror.

It will be a time of trouble for my people Israel.*

Yet in the end they will be saved!

<sup>8</sup>For in that day,”

says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies,

“I will break the yoke from their necks and snap their chains.

Foreigners will no longer be their masters.

<sup>9</sup>For my people will serve the LORD their God and their king descended from David—the king I will raise up for them.

<sup>10</sup>“So do not be afraid, Jacob, my servant;
do not be dismayed, Israel,”
says the LORD.

“For I will bring you home again from distant lands,
and your children will return from their exile.
Israel will return to a life of peace and quiet,
and no one will terrorize them.

<sup>11</sup>For I am with you and will save you,”
says the LORD.

“I will completely destroy the nations where I have scattered
you,
but I will not completely destroy you.
I will discipline you, but with justice;
I cannot let you go unpunished.”

<sup>12</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“Your injury is incurable—
a terrible wound.

<sup>13</sup>There is no one to help you or to bind up your injury.
No medicine can heal you.

<sup>14</sup>All your lovers—your allies—have left you and do not care about you anymore.
I have wounded you cruelly,

as though I were your enemy.

For your sins are many,
and your guilt is great.

<sup>15</sup>Why do you protest your punishment—
this wound that has no cure?

I have had to punish you because your sins are many
and your guilt is great.

<sup>16</sup>“But all who devour you will be devoured, and all your enemies will be sent into exile.
All who plunder you will be plundered,
and all who attack you will be attacked.

<sup>17</sup>I will give you back your health and heal your wounds,” says the LORD.

“For you are called an outcast—
‘Jerusalem* for whom no one cares.’”

<sup>18</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“When I bring Israel home again from captivity and restore their fortunes, Jerusalem will be rebuilt on its ruins,
and the palace reconstructed as before.

<sup>19</sup>There will be joy and songs of thanksgiving, and I will multiply my people, not diminish them;
I will honor them, not despise them.

<sup>20</sup>Their children will prosper as they did long ago.
I will establish them as a nation before me,
and I will punish anyone who hurts them.

<sup>21</sup>They will have their own ruler again,
and he will come from their own people.
I will invite him to approach me,” says the LORD,
“for who would dare to come unless invited?

<sup>22</sup>You will be my people,
and I will be your God.”

<sup>23</sup>Look! The LORD’s anger bursts out like a storm, a driving wind that swirls down on the heads of the wicked.

<sup>24</sup>The fierce anger of the LORD will not diminish until it has finished all he has planned.
In the days to come
you will understand all this.

Jeremiah 31

Hope for Restoration

<sup>1</sup> “In that day,” says the LORD, “I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people.”<sup>2</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“Those who survive the coming destruction will find blessings even in the barren land, for I will give rest to the people of Israel.”

<sup>3</sup>Long ago the LORD said to Israel:

“I have loved you, my people, with an everlasting love.
With unfailing love I have drawn you to myself.

<sup>4</sup>I will rebuild you, my virgin Israel.

You will again be happy and dance merrily with your tambourines.

<sup>5</sup>Again you will plant your vineyards on the mountains of Samaria

and eat from your own gardens there.

<sup>6</sup>The day will come when watchmen will shout from the hill country of Ephraim,

“Come, let us go up to Jerusalem* to worship the LORD our God.””

<sup>7</sup>Now this is what the LORD says:

“Sing with joy for Israel.*

Shout for the greatest of nations!

Shout out with praise and joy:

‘Save your people, O LORD,
the remnant of Israel!’

<sup>8</sup>For I will bring them from the north and from the distant corners of the earth.

I will not forget the blind and lame,
the expectant mothers and women in labor.

A great company will return!

<sup>9</sup>Tears of joy will stream down their faces, and I will lead them home with great care.

They will walk beside quiet streams and on smooth paths where they will not stumble.

For I am Israel’s father, and Ephraim is my oldest child.

<sup>10</sup>“Listen to this message from the LORD,
you nations of the world;
proclaim it in distant coastlands:

The LORD, who scattered his people, will gather them and watch over them
as a shepherd does his flock.

<sup>11</sup>For the LORD has redeemed Israel from those too strong for them.

<sup>12</sup>They will come home and sing songs of joy on the heights of Jerusalem.

They will be radiant because of the LORD’s good gifts—
the abundant crops of grain, new wine, and olive oil, and the healthy flocks and herds.

Their life will be like a watered garden,
and all their sorrows will be gone.

<sup>13</sup>The young women will dance for joy, and the men—old and young—will join in the celebration.
I will turn their mourning into joy.
I will comfort them and exchange their sorrow for rejoicing.

<sup>14</sup>The priests will enjoy abundance, and my people will feast on my good gifts.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Rachel’s Sadness Turns to Joy

<sup>15</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“A cry is heard in Ramah—deep anguish and bitter weeping.
Rachel weeps for her children,
refusing to be comforted—
for her children are gone.”

<sup>16</sup>But now this is what the LORD says:

“Do not weep any longer,
for I will reward you,” says the LORD.
“Your children will come back to you from the distant land of the enemy.

<sup>17</sup>There is hope for your future,” says the LORD.
“Your children will come again to their own land.

<sup>18</sup>I have heard Israel* saying,
“You disciplined me severely,
like a calf that needs training for the yoke.

Turn me again to you and restore me,
for you alone are the LORD my God.

<sup>19</sup>I turned away from God,

but then I was sorry.

I kicked myself for my stupidity!

I was thoroughly ashamed of all I did in my younger days.'

<sup>20</sup>"Is not Israel still my son, my darling child?" says the LORD.

"I often have to punish him,
but I still love him.

That's why I long for him
and surely will have mercy on him.

<sup>21</sup>Set up road signs;
put up guideposts.

Mark well the path
by which you came.

Come back again, my virgin Israel;
return to your towns here.

<sup>22</sup>How long will you wander,
my wayward daughter?

For the LORD will cause something new to happen—
Israel will embrace her God.*"

<sup>23</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: "When I bring them back from captivity, the people of Judah and its towns will again say, 'The LORD bless you, O righteous home, O holy mountain!' <sup>24</sup>Townpeople and farmers and shepherds alike will live together in peace and happiness.

<sup>26</sup>At this, I woke up and looked around. My sleep had been very sweet.

<sup>27</sup>“The day is coming,” says the LORD, “when I will greatly increase the human population and the number of animals here in Israel and Judah. <sup>28</sup>In the past I deliberately uprooted and tore down this nation. I overthrew it, destroyed it, and brought disaster upon it. But in the future I will just as deliberately plant it and build it up. I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>29</sup>“The people will no longer quote this proverb:

‘The parents have eaten sour grapes,
but their children’s mouths pucker at the taste.’

<sup>30</sup>All people will die for their own sins—those who eat the sour grapes will be the ones whose mouths will pucker.

<sup>31</sup>“The day is coming,” says the LORD, “when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and Judah. <sup>32</sup>This covenant will not be like the one I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand and brought them out of the land of Egypt. They broke that covenant, though I loved them as a husband loves his wife,” says the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>“But this is the new covenant I will make with the people of Israel on that day,” says the LORD. “I will put my instructions deep within them, and I will write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. <sup>34</sup>And they will not need to teach their neighbors, nor will they need to teach their relatives, saying, ‘You should know the LORD.’ For everyone, from the least to the greatest, will know me already,” says the LORD. “And I will forgive their wickedness, and I will never again remember their sins.”

<sup>35</sup>It is the LORD who provides the sun to light the day and the moon and stars to light the night, and who stirs the sea into roaring waves. His name is the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, and this is what he says:

<sup>36</sup>“I am as likely to reject my people Israel as I am to abolish the laws of nature!”

“Just as the heavens cannot be measured and the foundations of the earth cannot be explored, so I will not consider casting them away for the evil they have done.

I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>38</sup>“The day is coming,” says the LORD, “when all Jerusalem will be rebuilt for me, from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. <sup>39</sup>A measuring line will be stretched out over the hill of Gareb and across to Goah. <sup>40</sup>And the entire area—including the graveyard and ash dump in the valley, and all the fields out to the Kidron Valley on the east as far as the Horse Gate—will be holy to the LORD. The city will never again be captured or destroyed.”

Jeremiah 32

Jeremiah's Land Purchase

<sup>2</sup> Jerusalem was then under siege from the Babylonian army, and Jeremiah was imprisoned in the courtyard of the guard in the royal palace. <sup>3</sup> King Zedekiah had put him there, asking why he kept giving this prophecy: “This is what the LORD says: ‘I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will take it. <sup>4</sup> King Zedekiah will be captured by the Babylonians* and taken to meet the king of Babylon face to face. <sup>5</sup> He will take Zedekiah to Babylon, and I will deal with him there,’ says the LORD. ‘If you fight against the Babylonians, you will never succeed.’”

<sup>6</sup> At that time the LORD sent me a message. He said, <sup>7</sup> “Your cousin Hanamel son of Shallum will come and say to you, ‘Buy my field at Anathoth. By law you have the right to buy it before it is offered to anyone else.’”

<sup>8</sup> Then, just as the LORD had said he would, my cousin Hanamel came and visited me in the prison. He said, “Please buy my field at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin. By law you have the right to buy it before it is offered to anyone else, so buy it for yourself.” Then I knew that the message I had heard was from the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>So I bought the field at Anathoth, paying Hanamel seventeen pieces* of silver for it. <sup>10</sup>I signed and sealed the deed of purchase before witnesses, weighed out the silver, and paid him. <sup>11</sup>Then I took the sealed deed and an unsealed copy of the deed, which contained the terms and conditions of the purchase, <sup>12</sup>and I handed them to Baruch son of Neriah and grandson of Mahseiah. I did all this in the presence of my cousin Hanamel, the witnesses who had signed the deed, and all the men of Judah who were there in the courtyard of the guardhouse.

<sup>13</sup>Then I said to Baruch as they all listened, <sup>14</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘Take both this sealed deed and the unsealed copy, and put them into a pottery jar to preserve them for a long time.’ <sup>15</sup>For this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘Someday people will again own property here in this land and will buy and sell houses and vineyards and fields.’”

Jeremiah’s Prayer

<sup>16</sup>Then after I had given the papers to Baruch, I prayed to the LORD:

<sup>17</sup>“O Sovereign LORD! You made the heavens and earth by your strong hand and powerful arm. Nothing is too hard for you! <sup>18</sup>You show unfailing love to thousands, but you also bring the consequences of one generation’s sin upon the next. You are the great and powerful God, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. <sup>19</sup>You have all wisdom and do great and mighty miracles. You see the conduct of all people, and you give them what they deserve.<sup>20</sup> You performed miraculous signs and wonders in the land of Egypt—things still remembered to this day! And you have continued to do great miracles in Israel and all around the world. You have made your name famous to this day.

<sup>21</sup>“You brought Israel out of Egypt with mighty signs and wonders, with a strong hand and powerful arm, and with overwhelming terror. <sup>22</sup>You gave the people of Israel this land that you had promised their ancestors long before—a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>23</sup>Our ancestors came and conquered it and lived in it, but they refused to obey you or follow your word. They have not done anything you commanded. That is why you have sent this terrible disaster upon them.

<sup>24</sup>“See how the siege ramps have been built against the city walls! Through war, famine, and disease, the city will be handed over to the Babylonians, who will conquer it. Everything has happened just as you said. <sup>25</sup>And yet, O Sovereign LORD, you have told me to buy the field—paying good money for it before these witnesses—even though the city will soon be handed over to the Babylonians.”

A Prediction of Jerusalem's Fall

<sup>26</sup> Then this message came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>27</sup>“I am the LORD, the God of all the peoples of the world. Is anything too hard for me? <sup>28</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I will hand this city over to the Babylonians and to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and he will capture it.<sup>29</sup> The Babylonians outside the walls will come in and set fire to the city. They will burn down all these houses where the people provoked my anger by burning incense to Baal on the rooftops and by pouring out liquid offerings to other gods.<sup>30</sup> Israel and Judah have done nothing but wrong since their earliest days. They have infuriated me with all their evil deeds,” says the LORD.<sup>31</sup> “From the time this city was built until now, it has done nothing but anger me, so I am determined to get rid of it.

<sup>32</sup>“The sins of Israel and Judah—the sins of the people of Jerusalem, the kings, the officials, the priests, and the prophets—have stirred up my anger.<sup>33</sup> My people have turned their backs on me and have refused to return. Even though I diligently taught them, they would not receive instruction or obey.<sup>34</sup> They have set up their abominable idols right in my own Temple, defiling it.<sup>35</sup> They have built pagan shrines to Baal in the valley of Ben-Hinnom, and there they sacrifice their sons and daughters to Molech. I have never commanded such a horrible deed; it never even crossed my mind to command such a thing. What an incredible evil, causing Judah to sin so greatly!

A Promise of Restoration

<sup>36</sup>“Now I want to say something more about this city. You have been saying, ‘It will fall to the king of Babylon through war, famine, and disease.’ But this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:<sup>37</sup> I will certainly bring my people back again from all the countries where I will scatter them in my fury. I will bring them back to this very city and let them live in peace and safety. <sup>38</sup>They will be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>39</sup>And I will give them one heart and one purpose: to worship me forever, for their own good and for the good of all their descendants. <sup>40</sup>And I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will never stop doing good for them. I will put a desire in their hearts to worship me, and they will never leave me. <sup>41</sup>I will find joy doing good for them and will faithfully and wholeheartedly replant them in this land.

<sup>42</sup>“This is what the LORD says: Just as I have brought all these calamities on them, so I will do all the good I have promised them. <sup>43</sup>Fields will again be bought and sold in this land about which you now say, ‘It has been ravaged by the Babylonians, a desolate land where people and animals have all disappeared.’ <sup>44</sup>Yes, fields will once again be bought and sold—deeds signed and sealed and witnessed—in the land of Benjamin and here in Jerusalem, in the towns of Judah and in the hill country, in the foothills of Judah* and in the Negev, too. For someday I will restore prosperity to them. I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Jeremiah 33

Promises of Peace and Prosperity

<sup>1</sup> While Jeremiah was still confined in the courtyard of the guard, the LORD gave him this second message: <sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD says—the LORD who made the earth, who formed and established it, whose name is the LORD: <sup>3</sup>Ask me and I will tell you remarkable secrets you do not know about things to come. <sup>4</sup>For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: You have torn down the houses of this city and even the king’s palace to get materials to strengthen the walls against the siege ramps and swords of the enemy. <sup>5</sup>You expect to fight the Babylonians,* but the men of this city are already as good as dead, for I have determined to destroy them in my terrible anger. I have abandoned them because of all their wickedness.

<sup>6</sup>“Nevertheless, the time will come when I will heal Jerusalem’s wounds and give it prosperity and true peace. <sup>7</sup>I will restore the fortunes of Judah and Israel and rebuild their towns. <sup>8</sup>I will cleanse them of their sins against me and forgive all their sins of rebellion. <sup>9</sup>Then this city will bring me joy, glory, and honor before all the nations of the earth! The people of the world will see all the good I do for my people, and they will tremble with awe at the peace and prosperity I provide for them.

<sup>10</sup>“This is what the LORD says: You have said, ‘This is a desolate land where people and animals have all disappeared.’

Yet in the empty streets of Jerusalem and Judah's other towns, there will be heard once more <sup>11</sup>the sounds of joy and laughter. The joyful voices of bridegrooms and brides will be heard again, along with the joyous songs of people bringing thanksgiving offerings to the LORD. They will sing,

‘Give thanks to the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, for the LORD is good.

His faithful love endures forever!’

For I will restore the prosperity of this land to what it was in the past, says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: This land—though it is now desolate and has no people and animals—will once more have pastures where shepherds can lead their flocks. <sup>13</sup>Once again shepherds will count their flocks in the towns of the hill country, the foothills of Judah, * the Negev, the land of Benjamin, the vicinity of Jerusalem, and all the towns of Judah. I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>14</sup>“The day will come, says the LORD, when I will do for Israel and Judah all the good things I have promised them.

<sup>15</sup>“In those days and at that time

I will raise up a righteous descendant * from King David’s line.

He will do what is just and right throughout the land.

<sup>16</sup>In that day Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will live in safety.

And this will be its name:

‘The LORD Is Our Righteousness.’ *

<sup>17</sup>For this is what the LORD says: David will have a descendant sitting on the throne of Israel forever. <sup>18</sup>And there will always be Levitical priests to offer burnt offerings and grain offerings and sacrifices to me.”

<sup>19</sup>Then this message came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>20</sup>“This is what the LORD says: If you can break my covenant with the day and the night so that one does not follow the other, <sup>21</sup>only then will my covenant with my servant David be broken. Only then will he no longer have a descendant to reign on his throne. The same is true for my covenant with the Levitical priests who minister before me. <sup>22</sup>And as the stars of the sky cannot be counted and the sand on the seashore cannot be measured, so I will multiply the descendants of my servant David and the Levites who minister before me.”

<sup>23</sup>The LORD gave another message to Jeremiah. He said, <sup>24</sup>“Have you noticed what people are saying?—‘The LORD chose Judah and Israel and then abandoned them!’ They are sneering and saying that Israel is not worthy to be counted as a nation. <sup>25</sup>But this is what the LORD says: I would no more reject my people than I would change my laws that govern night and day, earth and sky. <sup>26</sup>I will never abandon the descendants of Jacob or David, my servant, or change the plan that David’s descendants will rule the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Instead, I will restore them to their land and have mercy on them.”

Jeremiah 34

A Warning for Zedekiah

<sup>1</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came with all the armies from the kingdoms he ruled, and he fought against Jerusalem and the towns of Judah. At that time this message came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Go to King Zedekiah of Judah, and tell him, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down. <sup>3</sup>You will not escape his grasp but will be captured and taken to meet the king of Babylon face to face. Then you will be exiled to Babylon.

<sup>4</sup>“But listen to this promise from the LORD, O Zedekiah, king of Judah. This is what the LORD says: You will not be killed in war <sup>5</sup>but will die peacefully. People will burn incense in your memory, just as they did for your ancestors, the kings who preceded you. They will mourn for you, crying, ‘Alas, our master is dead!’” This I have decreed, says the LORD.”

<sup>6</sup>So Jeremiah the prophet delivered the message to King Zedekiah of Judah. <sup>7</sup>At this time the Babylonian army was besieging Jerusalem, Lachish, and Azekah—the only fortified cities of Judah not yet captured.

Freedom for Hebrew Slaves

<sup>8</sup> This message came to Jeremiah from the LORD after King Zedekiah made a covenant with the people, proclaiming freedom for the slaves.<sup>9</sup> He had ordered all the people to free their Hebrew slaves—both men and women. No one was to keep a fellow Judean in bondage.<sup>10</sup> The officials and all the people had obeyed the king's command,<sup>11</sup> but later they changed their minds. They took back the men and women they had freed, forcing them to be slaves again.

<sup>13</sup>“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your ancestors long ago when I rescued them from their slavery in Egypt.<sup>14</sup> I told them that every Hebrew slave must be freed after serving six years. But your ancestors paid no attention to me.<sup>15</sup> Recently you repented and did what was right, following my command. You freed your slaves and made a solemn covenant with me in the Temple that bears my name.<sup>16</sup> But now you have shrugged off your oath and defiled my name by taking back the men and women you had freed, forcing them to be slaves once again.

<sup>17</sup>“Therefore, this is what the LORD says: Since you have not obeyed me by setting your countrymen free, I will set you free to be destroyed by war, disease, and famine. You will be an object of horror to all the nations of the earth.<sup>18</sup> Because you have broken the terms of our covenant, I will cut you apart just as you cut apart the calf when you walked between its halves to solemnize your vows.<sup>19</sup> Yes, I will cut you apart, whether you are officials of Judah or Jerusalem, court officials, priests, or common people—for you have broken your oath.<sup>20</sup> I will give you to your enemies, and they will kill you. Your bodies will be food for the vultures and wild animals.

<sup>21</sup>“I will hand over King Zedekiah of Judah and his officials to the army of the king of Babylon. And although Babylon’s king has left Jerusalem for a while, <sup>22</sup>I will call the Babylonian armies back again. They will fight against this city and will capture it and burn it down. I will see to it that all the towns of Judah are destroyed, with no one living there.”

Jeremiah 35

The Faithful Recabites

<sup>1</sup> This is the message the LORD gave Jeremiah when Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king of Judah: <sup>2</sup>“Go to the settlement where the families of the Recabites live, and invite them to the LORD’s Temple. Take them into one of the inner rooms, and offer them some wine.”

<sup>3</sup> So I went to see Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah and grandson of Habazziniah and all his brothers and sons—representing all the Recabite families. <sup>4</sup> I took them to the Temple, and we went into the room assigned to the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah, a man of God. This room was located next to the one used by the Temple officials, directly above the room of Maaseiah son of Shallum, the Temple gatekeeper.

<sup>5</sup> I set cups and jugs of wine before them and invited them to have a drink, <sup>6</sup> but they refused. “No,” they said, “we don’t drink wine, because our ancestor Jehonadab* son of Recab gave us this command: ‘You and your descendants must never drink wine.’ <sup>7</sup> And do not build houses or plant crops or vineyards, but always live in tents. If you follow these commands, you will live long, good lives in the land.’ <sup>8</sup> So we have obeyed him in all these things. We have never had a drink of wine to this day, nor have our wives, our sons, or our daughters. <sup>9</sup> We haven’t built houses or owned vineyards or farms or planted crops. <sup>10</sup> We have lived in tents and have fully obeyed all the commands of Jehonadab, our ancestor. <sup>11</sup>But when King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon attacked this country, we were afraid of the Babylonian and Syrian* armies. So we decided to move to Jerusalem. That is why we are here.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD gave this message to Jeremiah: <sup>13</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: Go and say to the people in Judah and Jerusalem, ‘Come and learn a lesson about how to obey me. <sup>14</sup>The Recabites do not drink wine to this day because their ancestor Jehonadab told them not to. But I have spoken to you again and again, and you refuse to obey me. <sup>15</sup>Time after time I sent you prophets, who told you, “Turn from your wicked ways, and start doing things right. Stop worshiping other gods so that you might live in peace here in the land I have given to you and your ancestors.” But you would not listen to me or obey me. <sup>16</sup>The descendants of Jehonadab son of Recab have obeyed their ancestor completely, but you have refused to listen to me.’

<sup>17</sup>“Therefore, this is what the LORD God of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘Because you refuse to listen or answer when I call, I will send upon Judah and Jerusalem all the disasters I have threatened.’”

<sup>18</sup>Then Jeremiah turned to the Recabites and said, “This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘You have obeyed your ancestor Jehonadab in every respect, following all his instructions.’ <sup>19</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘Jehonadab son of Recab will always have descendants who serve me.’”

Jeremiah 36

Baruch Reads the LORD's Messages

<sup>4</sup>So Jeremiah sent for Baruch son of Neriah, and as Jeremiah dictated all the prophecies that the LORD had given him, Baruch wrote them on a scroll. <sup>5</sup>Then Jeremiah said to Baruch, “I am a prisoner here and unable to go to the Temple. <sup>6</sup>So you go to the Temple on the next day of fasting, and read the messages from the LORD that I have had you write on this scroll. Read them so the people who are there from all over Judah will hear them. <sup>7</sup>Perhaps even yet they will turn from their evil ways and ask the LORD's forgiveness before it is too late. For the LORD has threatened them with his terrible anger.”

<sup>8</sup>Baruch did as Jeremiah told him and read these messages from the LORD to the people at the Temple. <sup>9</sup>He did this on a day of sacred fasting held in late autumn,* during the fifth year of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah. People from all over Judah had come to Jerusalem to attend the services at the Temple on that day. <sup>10</sup>Baruch read Jeremiah's words on the scroll to all the people. He stood in front of the Temple room of Gemariah, son of Shaphan the secretary. This room was just off the upper courtyard of the Temple, near the New Gate entrance.

<sup>11</sup>When Micaiah son of Gemariah and grandson of Shaphan heard the messages from the LORD, <sup>12</sup>he went down to the secretary's room in the palace where the administrative officials were meeting. Elishama the secretary was there, along with Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Acbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials. <sup>13</sup>When Micaiah told them about the messages Baruch was reading to the people, <sup>14</sup>the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah, grandson of Shelemiah and great-grandson of Cushi, to ask Baruch to come and read the messages to them, too. So Baruch took the scroll and went to them. <sup>15</sup>"Sit down and read the scroll to us," the officials said, and Baruch did as they requested.

<sup>16</sup>When they heard all the messages, they looked at one another in alarm. "We must tell the king what we have heard," they said to Baruch. <sup>17</sup>"But first, tell us how you got these messages. Did they come directly from Jeremiah?"

<sup>19</sup>"You and Jeremiah should both hide," the officials told Baruch. "Don't tell anyone where you are!" <sup>20</sup>Then the officials left the scroll for safekeeping in the room of Elishama the secretary and went to tell the king what had happened.

King Jehoiakim Burns the Scroll

Personal Gold

The Bible: Dead or Alive?

<sup>26</sup>Then the king commanded his son Jerahmeel, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest Baruch and Jeremiah. But the LORD had hidden them.

Jeremiah Rewrites the Scroll

<sup>27</sup>After the king had burned the scroll on which Baruch had written Jeremiah's words, the LORD gave Jeremiah another message. He said, <sup>28</sup>“Get another scroll, and write everything again just as you did on the scroll King Jehoiakim burned. <sup>29</sup>Then say to the king, ‘This is what the LORD says: You burned the scroll because it said the king of Babylon would destroy this land and empty it of people and animals. <sup>30</sup>Now this is what the LORD says about King Jehoiakim of Judah: He will have no heirs to sit on the throne of David. His dead body will be thrown out to lie unburied—exposed to the heat of the day and the frost of the night. <sup>31</sup>I will punish him and his family and his attendants for their sins. I will pour out on them and on all the people of Jerusalem and Judah all the disasters I promised, for they would not listen to my warnings.”

<sup>32</sup>So Jeremiah took another scroll and dictated again to his secretary, Baruch. He wrote everything that had been on the scroll King Jehoiakim had burned in the fire. Only this time he added much more!

Jeremiah 37

Zedekiah Calls for Jeremiah

<sup>3</sup>Nevertheless, King Zedekiah sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the priest, son of Maaseiah, to ask Jeremiah, "Please pray to the LORD our God for us." <sup>4</sup>Jeremiah had not yet been imprisoned, so he could come and go among the people as he pleased.

<sup>5</sup>At this time the army of Pharaoh Hophra* of Egypt appeared at the southern border of Judah. When the Babylonian* army heard about it, they withdrew from their siege of Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD gave this message to Jeremiah: <sup>7</sup>"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: The king of Judah sent you to ask me what is going to happen. Tell him, 'Pharaoh's army is about to return to Egypt, though he came here to help you. <sup>8</sup>Then the Babylonians* will come back and capture this city and burn it to the ground.'

<sup>9</sup>"This is what the LORD says: Do not fool yourselves into thinking that the Babylonians are gone for good. They aren't! <sup>10</sup>Even if you were to destroy the entire Babylonian army, leaving only a handful of wounded survivors, they would still stagger from their tents and burn this city to the ground!”

Jeremiah Is Imprisoned

<sup>14</sup>“That’s not true!” Jeremiah protested. “I had no intention of doing any such thing.” But Irijah wouldn’t listen, and he took Jeremiah before the officials. <sup>15</sup>They were furious with Jeremiah and had him flogged and imprisoned in the house of Jonathan the secretary. Jonathan’s house had been converted into a prison. <sup>16</sup>Jeremiah was put into a dungeon cell, where he remained for many days.

<sup>17</sup>Later King Zedekiah secretly requested that Jeremiah come to the palace, where the king asked him, “Do you have any messages from the LORD?”

“Yes, I do!” said Jeremiah. “You will be defeated by the king of Babylon.”

<sup>18</sup>Then Jeremiah asked the king, “What crime have I committed? What have I done against you, your attendants, or the people that I should be imprisoned like this? <sup>19</sup>Where are your prophets now who told you the king of Babylon would not attack you or this land? <sup>20</sup>Listen, my lord the king, I beg you. Don't send me back to the dungeon in the house of Jonathan the secretary, for I will die there."

<sup>21</sup>So King Zedekiah commanded that Jeremiah not be returned to the dungeon. Instead, he was imprisoned in the courtyard of the guard in the royal palace. The king also commanded that Jeremiah be given a loaf of fresh bread every day as long as there was any left in the city. So Jeremiah was put in the palace prison.

Jeremiah 38

Jeremiah in a Cistern

<sup>1</sup>Now Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehucal* son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard what Jeremiah had been telling the people. He had been saying, <sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD says: ‘Everyone who stays in Jerusalem will die from war, famine, or disease, but those who surrender to the Babylonians* will live. Their reward will be life. They will live!’ <sup>3</sup>The LORD also says: ‘The city of Jerusalem will certainly be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon, who will capture it.’”

<sup>4</sup>So these officials went to the king and said, “Sir, this man must die! That kind of talk will undermine the morale of the few fighting men we have left, as well as that of all the people. This man is a traitor!”

<sup>6</sup>So the officials took Jeremiah from his cell and lowered him by ropes into an empty cistern in the prison yard. It belonged to Malkijah, a member of the royal family. There was no water in the cistern, but there was a thick layer of mud at the bottom, and Jeremiah sank down into it.

rushed from the palace to speak with him. <sup>9</sup>“My lord the king,” he said, “these men have done a very evil thing in putting Jeremiah the prophet into the cistern. He will soon die of hunger, for almost all the bread in the city is gone.”

<sup>11</sup>So Ebed-melech took the men with him and went to a room in the palace beneath the treasury, where he found some old rags and discarded clothing. He carried these to the cistern and lowered them to Jeremiah on a rope. <sup>12</sup>Ebed-melech called down to Jeremiah, “Put these rags under your armpits to protect you from the ropes.” Then when Jeremiah was ready, <sup>13</sup>they pulled him out. So Jeremiah was returned to the courtyard of the guard—the palace prison—where he remained.

Zedekiah Questions Jeremiah

<sup>14</sup> One day King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah and had him brought to the third entrance of the LORD’s Temple. “I want to ask you something,” the king said. “And don’t try to hide the truth.”

<sup>15</sup>Jeremiah said, “If I tell you the truth, you will kill me. And if I give you advice, you won’t listen to me anyway.”

<sup>16</sup>So King Zedekiah secretly promised him, “As surely as the LORD our Creator lives, I will not kill you or hand you over to the men who want you dead.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “This is what the LORD God of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘If you surrender to the Babylonian officers, you and your family will live, and the city will not be burned down.<sup>18</sup>But if you refuse to surrender, you will not escape! This city will be handed over to the Babylonians, and they will burn it to the ground.”

<sup>19</sup>“But I am afraid to surrender,” the king said, “for the Babylonians may hand me over to the Judeans who have defected to them. And who knows what they will do to me!”

<sup>20</sup>Jeremiah replied, “You won’t be handed over to them if you choose to obey the LORD. Your life will be spared, and all will go well for you. <sup>21</sup>But if you refuse to surrender, this is what the LORD has revealed to me: <sup>22</sup>All the women left in your palace will be brought out and given to the officers of the Babylonian army. Then the women will taunt you, saying,

‘What fine friends you have!

They have betrayed and misled you.

When your feet sank in the mud,

they left you to your fate!’

<sup>23</sup>All your wives and children will be led out to the Babylonians, and you will not escape. You will be seized by the king of Babylon, and this city will be burned down.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Don’t tell anyone you told me this, or you will die! <sup>25</sup>My officials may hear that I spoke to you, and they may say, ‘Tell us what you and the king were talking about. If you don’t tell us, we will kill you.’

<sup>26</sup>If this happens, just tell them you begged me not to send you back to Jonathan’s dungeon, for fear you would die there.”

<sup>27</sup>Sure enough, it wasn’t long before the king’s officials came to Jeremiah and asked him why the king had called for him. But Jeremiah followed the king's instructions, and they left without finding out the truth. No one had overheard the conversation between Jeremiah and the king.<sup>28</sup> And Jeremiah remained a prisoner in the courtyard of the guard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

Jeremiah 39

The Fall of Jerusalem

<sup>4</sup>When King Zedekiah and all the soldiers saw that the Babylonians had broken into the city, they fled. They waited for nightfall and then slipped through the gate between the two walls behind the king's garden and headed toward the Jordan Valley.*

<sup>5</sup>But the Babylonian* troops chased the king and caught him on the plains of Jericho. They took him to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, who was at Riblah in the land of Hamath. There the king of Babylon pronounced judgment upon Zedekiah. <sup>6</sup>He made Zedekiah watch as they slaughtered his sons and all the nobles of Judah. <sup>7</sup>Then they gouged out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him in bronze chains, and led him away to Babylon.

Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, sent to Babylon the rest of the people who remained in the city as well as those who had defected to him.<sup>10</sup> But Nebuzaradan left a few of the poorest people in Judah, and he assigned them vineyards and fields to care for.

Jeremiah Remains in Judah

<sup>11</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar had told Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, to find Jeremiah. <sup>12</sup>“See that he isn’t hurt,” he said. “Look after him well, and give him anything he wants.” <sup>13</sup>So Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard; Nebushazban, a chief officer; Nergal-sharezer, the king’s adviser; and the other officers of Babylon’s king <sup>14</sup>sent messengers to bring Jeremiah out of the prison. They put him under the care of Gedaliah son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, who took him back to his home. So Jeremiah stayed in Judah among his own people.

<sup>15</sup>The LORD had given the following message to Jeremiah while he was still in prison: <sup>16</sup>“Say to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian,* ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: I will do to this city everything I have threatened. I will send disaster, not prosperity. You will see its destruction,<sup>17</sup> but I will rescue you from those you fear so much. <sup>18</sup>Because you trusted me, I will give you your life as a reward. I will rescue you and keep you safe. I, the LORD, have spoken!’”

Jeremiah 40

<sup>1</sup> The LORD gave a message to Jeremiah after Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had released him at Ramah. He had found Jeremiah bound in chains among all the other captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being sent to exile in Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> The captain of the guard called for Jeremiah and said, “The LORD your God has brought this disaster on this land, <sup>3</sup>just as he said he would. For these people have sinned against the LORD and disobeyed him. That is why it happened. <sup>4</sup>But I am going to take off your chains and let you go. If you want to come with me to Babylon, you are welcome. I will see that you are well cared for. But if you don’t want to come, you may stay here. The whole land is before you—go wherever you like. <sup>5</sup>If you decide to stay, then return to Gedaliah son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan. He has been appointed governor of Judah by the king of Babylon. Stay there with the people he rules. But it’s up to you; go wherever you like.”

Then Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, gave Jeremiah some food and money and let him go. <sup>6</sup>So Jeremiah returned to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah, and he lived in Judah with the few who were still left in the land.

Gedaliah Governs in Judah

<sup>7</sup>The leaders of the Judean guerrilla bands in the countryside heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam as governor over the poor people who were left behind in Judah—the men, women, and children who hadn’t been exiled to Babylon.<sup>8</sup> So they went to see Gedaliah at Mizpah. These included: Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, Jezeiah son of the Maacathite, and all their men.

<sup>9</sup>Gedaliah vowed to them that the Babylonians* meant them no harm. “Don’t be afraid to serve them. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and all will go well for you,” he promised. <sup>10</sup>“As for me, I will stay at Mizpah to represent you before the Babylonians who come to meet with us. Settle in the towns you have taken, and live off the land. Harvest the grapes and summer fruits and olives, and store them away.”

<sup>11</sup>When the Judeans in Moab, Ammon, Edom, and the other nearby countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a few people in Judah and that Gedaliah was the governor, <sup>12</sup>they began to return to Judah from the places to which they had fled. They stopped at Mizpah to meet with Gedaliah and then went into the Judean countryside to gather a great harvest of grapes and other crops.

A Plot against Gedaliah

<sup>13</sup> Soon after this, Johanan son of Kareah and the other guerrilla leaders came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. <sup>14</sup>They said to him, “Did you know that Baalis, king of Ammon, has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to assassinate you?” But Gedaliah refused to believe them.

<sup>15</sup>Later Johanan had a private conference with Gedaliah and volunteered to kill Ishmael secretly. “Why should we let him come and murder you?” Johanan asked. “What will happen then to the Judeans who have returned? Why should the few of us who are still left be scattered and lost?”

<sup>16</sup>But Gedaliah said to Johanan, “I forbid you to do any such thing, for you are lying about Ishmael.”

Jeremiah 41

The Murder of Gedaliah

<sup>7</sup>But as soon as they were all inside the town, Ishmael and his men killed all but ten of them and threw their bodies into a cistern. <sup>8</sup>The other ten had talked Ishmael into letting them go by promising to bring him their stores of wheat, barley, olive oil, and honey that they had hidden away. <sup>9</sup>The cistern where Ishmael dumped the bodies of the men he murdered was the large one dug by King Asa when he fortified Mizpah to protect himself against King Baasha of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it with corpses.

<sup>10</sup>Then Ishmael made captives of the king's daughters and the other people who had been left under Gedaliah's care in Mizpah by Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard. Taking them with him, he started back toward the land of Ammon.

<sup>11</sup>But when Johanan son of Kareah and the other guerrilla leaders heard about Ishmael's crimes, <sup>12</sup>they took all their men and set out to stop him. They caught up with him at the large pool near Gibeon. <sup>13</sup>The people Ishmael had captured shouted for joy when they saw Johanan and the other guerrilla leaders. <sup>14</sup>And all the captives from Mizpah escaped and began to help Johanan. <sup>15</sup>Meanwhile, Ishmael and eight of his men escaped from Johanan into the land of Ammon.

<sup>16</sup>Then Johanan son of Kareah and the other guerrilla leaders took all the people they had rescued in Gibeon—the soldiers, women, children, and court officials* whom Ishmael had captured after he killed Gedaliah. <sup>17</sup>They took them all to the village of Geruth-kimham near Bethlehem, where they prepared to leave for Egypt. <sup>18</sup>They were afraid of what the Babylonians* would do when they heard that Ishmael had killed Gedaliah, the governor appointed by the Babylonian king.

Jeremiah 42

Warning to Stay in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Then all the guerrilla leaders, including Johanan son of Kareah and Jezeiah* son of Hoshai, and all the people, from the least to the greatest, approached <sup>2</sup>Jeremiah the prophet. They said, “Please pray to the LORD your God for us. As you can see, we are only a tiny remnant compared to what we were before. <sup>3</sup>Pray that the LORD your God will show us what to do and where to go.”

<sup>4</sup>“All right,” Jeremiah replied. “I will pray to the LORD your God, as you have asked, and I will tell you everything he says. I will hide nothing from you.”

<sup>5</sup>Then they said to Jeremiah, “May the LORD your God be a faithful witness against us if we refuse to obey whatever he tells us to do! <sup>6</sup>Whether we like it or not, we will obey the LORD our God to whom we are sending you with our plea. For if we obey him, everything will turn out well for us.”

<sup>7</sup>Ten days later the LORD gave his reply to Jeremiah. <sup>8</sup>So he called for Johanan son of Kareah and the other guerrilla leaders, and for all the people, from the least to the greatest. <sup>9</sup>He said to them, “You sent me to the LORD, the God of Israel, with your request, and this is his reply: <sup>10</sup>“Stay here in this land. If you do, I will build you up and not tear you down; I will plant you and not uproot you. For I am sorry about all the punishment I have had to bring upon you. <sup>11</sup>Do not fear the king of Babylon anymore,’ says the LORD. ‘For I am with you and will save you and rescue you from his power. <sup>12</sup>I will be merciful to you by making him kind, so he will let you stay here in your land.’

<sup>13</sup>“But if you refuse to obey the LORD your God, and if you say, ‘We will not stay here; <sup>14</sup>instead, we will go to Egypt where we will be free from war, the call to arms, and hunger,’ <sup>15</sup>then hear the LORD’s message to the remnant of Judah. This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘If you are determined to go to Egypt and live there, <sup>16</sup>the very war and famine you fear will catch up to you, and you will die there. <sup>17</sup>That is the fate awaiting every one of you who insists on going to live in Egypt. Yes, you will die from war, famine, and disease. None of you will escape the disaster I will bring upon you there.’

<sup>18</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘Just as my anger and fury have been poured out on the people of Jerusalem, so they will be poured out on you when you enter Egypt. You will be an object of damnation, horror, cursing, and mockery. And you will never see your homeland again.’

<sup>19</sup>“Listen, you remnant of Judah. The LORD has told you: ‘Do not go to Egypt!’ Don’t forget this warning I have given you today. <sup>20</sup>For you were not being honest when you sent me to pray to the LORD your God for you. You said, ‘Just tell us what the LORD our God says, and we will do it!’ <sup>21</sup>And today I have told you exactly what he said, but you will not obey the LORD your God any better now than you have in the past. <sup>22</sup>So you can be sure that you will die from war, famine, and disease in Egypt, where you insist on going.”

Jeremiah 43

Jeremiah Taken to Egypt

<sup>1</sup>When Jeremiah had finished giving this message from the LORD their God to all the people, <sup>2</sup>Azariah son of Hoshaiah and Johanan son of Kareah and all the other proud men said to Jeremiah, “You lie! The LORD our God hasn’t forbidden us to go to Egypt! <sup>3</sup>Baruch son of Neriah has convinced you to say this, because he wants us to stay here and be killed by the Babylonians* or be carried off into exile.”

<sup>4</sup>So Johanan and the other guerrilla leaders and all the people refused to obey the LORD’s command to stay in Judah. <sup>5</sup>Johanan and the other leaders took with them all the people who had returned from the nearby countries to which they had fled. <sup>6</sup>In the crowd were men, women, and children, the king’s daughters, and all those whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had left with Gedaliah. The prophet Jeremiah and Baruch were also included. <sup>7</sup>The people refused to obey the voice of the LORD and went to Egypt, going as far as the city of Tahpanhes.

<sup>10</sup>Then say to the people of Judah, ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: I will certainly bring my servant Nebuchadnezzar,* king of Babylon, here to Egypt. I will set his throne over these stones that I have hidden. He will spread his royal canopy over them. <sup>11</sup>And when he comes, he will destroy the land of Egypt. He will bring death to those destined for death, captivity to those destined for captivity, and war to those destined for war. <sup>12</sup>He will set fire to the temples of Egypt's gods; he will burn the temples and carry the idols away as plunder. He will pick clean the land of Egypt as a shepherd picks fleas from his cloak. And he himself will leave unharmed. <sup>13</sup>He will break down the sacred pillars standing in the temple of the sun* in Egypt, and he will burn down the temples of Egypt's gods.'”

Jeremiah 44

Judgment for Idolatry

<sup>1</sup> This is the message Jeremiah received concerning the Judeans living in northern Egypt in the cities of Migdol, Tahpanhes, and Memphis,* and in southern Egypt* as well: <sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: You saw the calamity I brought on Jerusalem and all the towns of Judah. They now lie deserted and in ruins.<sup>3</sup> They provoked my anger with all their wickedness. They burned incense and worshiped other gods—gods that neither they nor you nor any of your ancestors had ever even known.

<sup>4</sup>“Again and again I sent my servants, the prophets, to plead with them, ‘Don’t do these horrible things that I hate so much.’ <sup>5</sup>But my people would not listen or turn back from their wicked ways. They kept on burning incense to these gods.<sup>6</sup> And so my fury boiled over and fell like fire on the towns of Judah and into the streets of Jerusalem, and they are still a desolate ruin today.

<sup>7</sup>“And now the LORD God of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, asks you: Why are you destroying yourselves? For not one of you will survive—not a man, woman, or child among you who has come here from Judah, not even the babies in your arms.<sup>8</sup> Why provoke my anger by burning incense to the idols you have made here in Egypt? You will only destroy yourselves and make yourselves an object of cursing and mockery for all the nations of the earth. <sup>9</sup>Have you forgotten the sins of your ancestors, the sins of the kings and queens of Judah, and the sins you and your wives committed in Judah and Jerusalem? <sup>10</sup>To this very hour you have shown no remorse or reverence. No one has chosen to follow my word and the decrees I gave to you and your ancestors before you.

<sup>11</sup>“Therefore, this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: I am determined to destroy every one of you! <sup>12</sup>I will take this remnant of Judah—those who were determined to come here and live in Egypt—and I will consume them. They will fall here in Egypt, killed by war and famine. All will die, from the least to the greatest. They will be an object of damnation, horror, cursing, and mockery. <sup>13</sup>I will punish them in Egypt just as I punished them in Jerusalem, by war, famine, and disease. <sup>14</sup>Of that remnant who fled to Egypt, hoping someday to return to Judah, there will be no survivors. Even though they long to return home, only a handful will do so.”

<sup>15</sup>Then all the women present and all the men who knew that their wives had burned incense to idols—a great crowd of all the Judeans living in northern Egypt and southern Egypt*—answered Jeremiah, <sup>16</sup>“We will not listen to your messages from the LORD! <sup>17</sup>We will do whatever we want. We will burn incense and pour out liquid offerings to the Queen of Heaven just as much as we like—just as we, and our ancestors, and our kings and officials have always done in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. For in those days we had plenty to eat, and we were well off and had no troubles! <sup>18</sup>But ever since we quit burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and stopped worshiping her with liquid offerings, we have been in great trouble and have been dying from war and famine.”

<sup>19</sup>“Besides,” the women added, “do you suppose that we were burning incense and pouring out liquid offerings to the Queen of Heaven, and making cakes marked with her image, without our husbands knowing it and helping us? Of course not!”

<sup>20</sup>Then Jeremiah said to all of them, men and women alike, who had given him that answer, <sup>21</sup>“Do you think the LORD did not know that you and your ancestors, your kings and officials, and all the people were burning incense to idols in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>22</sup>It was because the LORD could no longer bear all the disgusting things you were doing that he made your land an object of cursing—a desolate ruin without inhabitants—as it is today. <sup>23</sup>All these terrible things happened to you because you have burned incense to idols and sinned against the LORD. You have refused to obey him and have not followed his instructions, his decrees, and his laws.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Jeremiah said to them all, including the women, “Listen to this message from the LORD, all you citizens of Judah who live in Egypt. <sup>25</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘You and your wives have said, “We will keep our promises to burn incense and pour out liquid offerings to the Queen of Heaven,” and you have proved by your actions that you meant it. So go ahead and carry out your promises and vows to her!’

now living in Egypt: ‘I have sworn by my great name,’ says the LORD, ‘that my name will no longer be spoken by any of the Judeans in the land of Egypt. None of you may invoke my name or use this oath: “As surely as the Sovereign LORD lives.”

<sup>27</sup>For I will watch over you to bring you disaster and not good. Everyone from Judah who is now living in Egypt will suffer war and famine until all of you are dead. <sup>28</sup>Only a small number will escape death and return to Judah from Egypt. Then all those who came to Egypt will find out whose words are true—mine or theirs!

<sup>29</sup>“‘And this is the proof I give you,’ says the LORD, ‘that all I have threatened will happen to you and that I will punish you here.’ <sup>30</sup>This is what the LORD says: ‘I will turn Pharaoh Hophra, king of Egypt, over to his enemies who want to kill him, just as I turned King Zedekiah of Judah over to King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon.’”

Jeremiah 45

A Message for Baruch

<sup>1</sup>The prophet Jeremiah gave a message to Baruch son of Neriah in the fourth year of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah,* after Baruch had written down everything Jeremiah had dictated to him. He said, <sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: <sup>3</sup>You have said, ‘I am overwhelmed with trouble! Haven’t I had enough pain already? And now the LORD has added more! I am worn out from sighing and can find no rest.’

<sup>4</sup>“Baruch, this is what the LORD says: ‘I will destroy this nation that I built. I will uproot what I planted.’<sup>5</sup>Are you seeking great things for yourself? Don’t do it! I will bring great disaster upon all these people; but I will give you your life as a reward wherever you go. I, the LORD, have spoken!’”

Jeremiah 46

Messages for the Nations

Messages about Egypt

<sup>2</sup> This message concerning Egypt was given in the fourth year of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, the king of Judah, on the occasion of the battle of Carchemish* when Pharaoh Neco, king of Egypt, and his army were defeated beside the Euphrates River by King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon.

<sup>3</sup> “Prepare your shields, and advance into battle!

<sup>4</sup> Harness the horses, and mount the stallions.

Take your positions.

Put on your helmets.

Sharpen your spears,
and prepare your armor.

<sup>5</sup> But what do I see?

The Egyptian army flees in terror.

The bravest of its fighting men run without a backward glance.

They are terrorized at every turn,”
says the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>“The swiftest runners cannot flee;
the mightiest warriors cannot escape.
By the Euphrates River to the north,
they stumble and fall.

<sup>7</sup>“Who is this, rising like the Nile at floodtime,
overflowing all the land?

<sup>8</sup>It is the Egyptian army,
overflowing all the land,
boasting that it will cover the earth like a flood,
destroying cities and their people.

<sup>9</sup>Charge, you horses and chariots;
attack, you mighty warriors of Egypt!
Come, all you allies from Ethiopia, Libya, and Lydia* who are skilled with the shield and bow!

<sup>10</sup>For this is the day of the Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies,
a day of vengeance on his enemies.
The sword will devour until it is satisfied,
yes, until it is drunk with your blood!
The Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, will receive a sacrifice today
in the north country beside the Euphrates River.

O virgin daughter of Egypt!
But your many treatments will bring you no healing.

<sup>12</sup>The nations have heard of your shame.

The earth is filled with your cries of despair.
Your mightiest warriors will run into each other and fall down together.”

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD gave the prophet Jeremiah this message about King Nebuchadnezzar’s plans to attack Egypt.

Publish it in the cities of Migdol, Memphis,* and Tahpanhes!
Mobilize for battle,
for the sword will devour everyone around you.

<sup>15</sup>Why have your warriors fallen?

They cannot stand, for the LORD has knocked them down.

<sup>16</sup>They stumble and fall over each other and say among themselves,

‘Come, let’s go back to our people, to the land of our birth.

Let’s get away from the sword of the enemy!’

<sup>17</sup>There they will say,

‘Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, is a loudmouth who missed his opportunity!’

<sup>18</sup>“As surely as I live,” says the King,
whose name is the LORD of Heaven’s Armies,

“one is coming against Egypt who is as tall as Mount Tabor, or as Mount Carmel by the sea!

<sup>19</sup>Pack up! Get ready to leave for exile, you citizens of Egypt!

The city of Memphis will be destroyed, without a single inhabitant.

<sup>20</sup>Egypt is as sleek as a beautiful young cow,
but a horsefly from the north is on its way!

<sup>21</sup>Egypt's mercenaries have become like fattened calves.
They, too, will turn and run,
for it is a day of great disaster for Egypt,
a time of great punishment.

<sup>22</sup>Egypt flees, silent as a serpent gliding away.
The invading army marches in;
they come against her with axes like woodsmen.

<sup>23</sup>They will cut down her people like trees," says the LORD,
"for they are more numerous than locusts.

<sup>24</sup>Egypt will be humiliated;
she will be handed over to people from the north."

<sup>25</sup>The LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: "I will punish Amon, the god of Thebes,* and all the other gods of Egypt. I will punish its rulers and Pharaoh, too, and all who trust in him. <sup>26</sup>I will hand them over to those who want them killed—to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and his army. But afterward the land will recover from the ravages of war. I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>27</sup>"But do not be afraid, Jacob, my servant;
do not be dismayed, Israel.
For I will bring you home again from distant lands,

and your children will return from their exile.
Israel* will return to a life of peace and quiet,
and no one will terrorize them.

<sup>28</sup>Do not be afraid, Jacob, my servant,
for I am with you,” says the LORD.

“I will completely destroy the nations to which I have exiled
you,

but I will not completely destroy you.
I will discipline you, but with justice;
I cannot let you go unpunished.”

Jeremiah 47

A Message about Philistia

<sup>1</sup>This is the LORD's message to the prophet Jeremiah concerning the Philistines of Gaza, before it was captured by the Egyptian army. <sup>2</sup>This is what the LORD says:

"A flood is coming from the north to overflow the land.

It will destroy the land and everything in it—
cities and people alike.

People will scream in terror,
and everyone in the land will wail.

<sup>3</sup>Hear the clatter of stallions' hooves and the rumble of wheels as the chariots rush by.
Terrified fathers run madly,
without a backward glance at their helpless children.

<sup>4</sup>"The time has come for the Philistines to be destroyed, along with their allies from Tyre and Sidon.
Yes, the LORD is destroying the remnant of the Philistines, those colonists from the island of Crete.*

<sup>5</sup>Gaza will be humiliated, its head shaved bald;
Ashkelon will lie silent.
You remnant from the Mediterranean coast,*
how long will you lament and mourn?

<sup>6</sup>“Now, O sword of the LORD,
when will you be at rest again?
Go back into your sheath;
rest and be still.

<sup>7</sup>“But how can it be still when the LORD has sent it on a mission?
For the city of Ashkelon and the people living along the sea must be destroyed.”

Jeremiah 48

A Message about Moab

<sup>1</sup>This message was given concerning Moab. This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says:

“What sorrow awaits the city of Nebo;
it will soon lie in ruins.

The city of Kiriathaim will be humiliated and captured;
the fortress will be humiliated and broken down.

<sup>2</sup>No one will ever brag about Moab again, for in Heshbon there is a plot to destroy her.

‘Come,’ they say, ‘we will cut her off from being a nation.’
The town of Madmen, * too, will be silenced;
the sword will follow you there.

<sup>3</sup>Listen to the cries from Horonaim, cries of devastation and great destruction.

Her little ones will cry out. *

<sup>5</sup>Her refugees weep bitterly, climbing the slope to Luhith.

They cry out in terror, descending the slope to Horonaim.

Hide * in the wilderness!

<sup>7</sup>Because you have trusted in your wealth and skill,
you will be taken captive.

Your god Chemosh, with his priests and officials,
will be hauled off to distant lands!

<sup>8</sup>“All the towns will be destroyed, and no one will escape—
either on the plateaus or in the valleys, for the LORD has spoken.

<sup>9</sup>Oh, that Moab had wings so she could fly away,*
for her towns will be left empty,
with no one living in them.

<sup>10</sup>Cursed are those who refuse to do the LORD’s work, who hold back their swords from shedding blood!

<sup>11</sup>“From his earliest history, Moab has lived in peace, never going into exile.

He is like wine that has been allowed to settle.
He has not been poured from flask to flask,
and he is now fragrant and smooth.

<sup>12</sup>But the time is coming soon,” says the LORD,
“when I will send men to pour him from his jar.
They will pour him out,
then shatter the jar!

<sup>13</sup>At last Moab will be ashamed of his idol Chemosh, as the people of Israel were ashamed of their gold calf at Bethel.*

<sup>14</sup>“You used to boast, ‘We are heroes, mighty men of war.’

<sup>15</sup>But now Moab and his towns will be destroyed.
His most promising youth are doomed to slaughter,” says the King, whose name is the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

<sup>16</sup>“Destruction is coming fast for Moab;
calamity threatens ominously.

weep for him and cry!
See how the strong scepter is broken,
how the beautiful staff is shattered!

<sup>18</sup>“Come down from your glory and sit in the dust, you people of Dibon, for those who destroy Moab will shatter Dibon, too.
They will tear down all your towers.

stand beside the road and watch.
Shout to those who flee from Moab,
‘What has happened there?’

<sup>20</sup>“And the reply comes back, ‘Moab lies in ruins, disgraced;
weep and wail!
Tell it by the banks of the Arnon River:
Moab has been destroyed!’

<sup>21</sup>Judgment has been poured out on the towns of the plateau

on Holon and Jahaz* and Mephaath,

<sup>22</sup>on Dibon and Nebo and Beth-diblathaim,
<sup>23</sup>on Kiriathaim and Beth-gamul and Beth-meon,
all the towns of Moab, far and near.

<sup>25</sup>“The strength of Moab has ended.
His arm has been broken,” says the LORD.

<sup>26</sup>“Let him stagger and fall like a drunkard, for he has rebelled against the LORD.
Moab will wallow in his own vomit, ridiculed by all.

<sup>27</sup>Did you not ridicule the people of Israel?
Were they caught in the company of thieves that you should despise them as you do?

<sup>28</sup>“You people of Moab,
flee from your towns and live in the caves.
Hide like doves that nest
in the clefts of the rocks.

<sup>29</sup>We have all heard of the pride of Moab, for his pride is very great.
We know of his lofty pride,
his arrogance, and his haughty heart.

<sup>30</sup>I know about his insolence,”
says the LORD,
“but his boasts are empty—
as empty as his deeds.

<sup>31</sup>So now I wail for Moab;

yes, I will mourn for Moab.
My heart is broken for the men of Kir-hareseth.*

<sup>32</sup>“You people of Sibmah, rich in vineyards,
I will weep for you even more than I did for Jazer.
Your spreading vines once reached as far as the Dead Sea,* but the destroyer has stripped you bare!
He has harvested your grapes and summer fruits.
<sup>33</sup>Joy and gladness are gone from fruitful Moab.
The presses yield no wine.
No one treads the grapes with shouts of joy.
There is shouting, yes, but not of joy.

<sup>35</sup>“I will put an end to Moab,” says the LORD, “for the people offer sacrifices at the pagan shrines and burn incense to their false gods. <sup>36</sup>My heart moans like a flute for Moab and Kir-hareseth, for all their wealth has disappeared. <sup>37</sup>The people shave their heads and beards in mourning. They slash their hands and put on clothes made of burlap. <sup>38</sup>There is crying and sorrow in every Moabite home and on every street. For I have smashed Moab like an old, unwanted jar. <sup>39</sup>How it is shattered! Hear the wailing! See the shame of Moab! It has become an object of ridicule, an example of ruin to all its neighbors.”

“Look! The enemy swoops down like an eagle, spreading his wings over Moab.

<sup>41</sup>Its cities will fall,
and its strongholds will be seized.
Even the mightiest warriors will be in anguish
like a woman in labor.

<sup>42</sup>Moab will no longer be a nation,
for it has boasted against the LORD.

<sup>43</sup>“Terror and traps and snares will be your lot,
O Moab,” says the LORD.

<sup>44</sup>“Those who flee in terror will fall into a trap,
and those who escape the trap will step into a snare.
I will see to it that you do not get away, for the time of your judgment has come,”
says the LORD.

<sup>45</sup>“The people flee as far as Heshbon but are unable to go on.
For a fire comes from Heshbon,
King Sihon’s ancient home,
to devour the entire land
with all its rebellious people.

<sup>46</sup>“O Moab, they weep for you!
The people of the god Chemosh are destroyed!
Your sons and your daughters have been taken away as captives.

<sup>47</sup>But I will restore the fortunes of Moab

in days to come.

I, the LORD, have spoken!”

This is the end of Jeremiah’s prophecy concerning Moab.

Jeremiah 49

A Message about Ammon

<sup>1</sup>This message was given concerning the Ammonites. This is what the LORD says:

“Are there no descendants of Israel to inherit the land of Gad?

Why are you, who worship Molech,* living in its towns?

<sup>2</sup>In the days to come,” says the LORD,
“I will sound the battle cry against your city of Rabbah.
It will become a desolate heap of ruins,
and the neighboring towns will be burned.
Then Israel will take back the land you took from her,” says the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>“Cry out, O Heshbon, for the town of Ai is destroyed.
Weep, O people of Rabbah!
Put on your clothes of mourning.
Weep and wail, hiding in the hedges,
for your god Molech, with his priests and officials,
will be hauled off to distant lands.

<sup>4</sup>You are proud of your fertile valleys, but they will soon be ruined.
You trusted in your wealth,

you rebellious daughter,
and thought no one could ever harm you.
<sup>5</sup>But look! I will bring terror upon you,”
says the Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.
“Your neighbors will chase you from your land,
and no one will help your exiles as they flee.
<sup>6</sup>But I will restore the fortunes of the Ammonites in days to come.
I, the LORD, have spoken.”

Messages about Edom

<sup>7</sup>This message was given concerning Edom. This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says:

“Is there no wisdom in Teman?
Is no one left to give wise counsel?
<sup>8</sup>Turn and flee!
Hide in deep caves, you people of Dedan!
For when I bring disaster on Edom,*
I will punish you, too!
<sup>9</sup>Those who harvest grapes always leave a few for the poor.
If thieves came at night,
they would not take everything.
<sup>10</sup>But I will strip bare the land of Edom, and there will be no place left to hide.
Its children, its brothers, and its neighbors will all be destroyed,
and Edom itself will be no more.

<sup>11</sup>But I will protect the orphans who remain among you.
Your widows, too, can depend on me for help.”

<sup>12</sup>And this is what the LORD says: “If the innocent must suffer, how much more must you! You will not go unpunished! You must drink this cup of judgment! <sup>13</sup>For I have sworn by my own name,” says the LORD, “that Bozrah will become an object of horror and a heap of ruins; it will be mocked and cursed. All its towns and villages will be desolate forever.”

<sup>14</sup>I have heard a message from the LORD
that an ambassador was sent to the nations to say, “Form a coalition against Edom, and prepare for battle!”

<sup>15</sup>The LORD says to Edom,
“I will cut you down to size among the nations.
You will be despised by all.

<sup>16</sup>You have been deceived by the fear you inspire in others and by your own pride.
You live in a rock fortress and control the mountain heights.
But even if you make your nest among the peaks with the eagles,
I will bring you crashing down,”
says the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>“Edom will be an object of horror.

All who pass by will be appalled and will gasp at the destruction they see there.

<sup>18</sup>It will be like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighboring towns,” says the LORD.

“No one will live there;
no one will inhabit it.

<sup>19</sup>I will come like a lion from the thickets of the Jordan,
leaping on the sheep in the pasture.

I will chase Edom from its land,
and I will appoint the leader of my choice.
For who is like me, and who can challenge me?
What ruler can oppose my will?”

<sup>20</sup>Listen to the LORD’s plans against Edom
and the people of Teman.

Even the little children will be dragged off like sheep,
and their homes will be destroyed.

<sup>21</sup>The earth will shake with the noise of Edom’s fall, and its cry of despair will be heard all the way to the Red

<sup>22</sup>Look! The enemy swoops down like an eagle, spreading his wings over Bozrah.
Even the mightiest warriors will be in anguish
like a woman in labor.

A Message about Damascus

<sup>23</sup>This message was given concerning Damascus. This is what the LORD says:

“The towns of Hamath and Arpad are struck with fear,
for they have heard the news of their destruction.

Their hearts are troubled like a wild sea in a raging storm.

<sup>24</sup>Damascus has become feeble,
and all her people turn to flee.
Fear, anguish, and pain have gripped her as they grip a woman in labor.

<sup>25</sup>That famous city, a city of joy,
will be forsaken!

<sup>26</sup>Her young men will fall in the streets and die.
Her soldiers will all be killed,”
says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

<sup>27</sup>“And I will set fire to the walls of Damascus that will burn up the palaces of Ben-hadad.”

A Message about Kedar and Hazor

<sup>28</sup>This message was given concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which were attacked by King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon. This is what the LORD says:

“Advance against Kedar!
Destroy the warriors from the East!

<sup>29</sup>Their flocks and tents will be captured, and their household goods and camels will be taken away.
Everywhere shouts of panic will be heard:
‘We are terrorized at every turn!’

<sup>30</sup>“Run for your lives,” says the LORD.

“Hide yourselves in deep caves, you people of Hazor, for King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon has plotted against you and is preparing to destroy you.

<sup>31</sup>“Go up and attack that complacent nation,”
says the LORD.

“Its people live alone in the desert without walls or gates.

<sup>32</sup>Their camels and other livestock will all be yours.

I will scatter to the winds these people who live in remote places.*

I will bring calamity upon them from every direction,” says the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>“Hazor will be inhabited by jackals, and it will be desolate forever.

No one will live there;
no one will inhabit it.”

A Message about Elam

<sup>34</sup>This message concerning Elam came to the prophet Jeremiah from the LORD at the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah. <sup>35</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says:

“I will destroy the archers of Elam—
the best of their forces.

<sup>36</sup>I will bring enemies from all directions, and I will scatter the people of Elam to the four winds.

They will be exiled to countries around the world.

<sup>37</sup>I myself will go with Elam's enemies to shatter it.

In my fierce anger, I will bring great disaster upon the people of Elam," says the LORD.

"Their enemies will chase them with the sword until I have destroyed them completely.

<sup>38</sup>I will set my throne in Elam," says the LORD,

"and I will destroy its king and officials.

<sup>39</sup>But I will restore the fortunes of Elam
in days to come.

I, the LORD, have spoken!"

Jeremiah 50

A Message about Babylon

<sup>1</sup>The LORD gave Jeremiah the prophet this message concerning Babylon and the land of the Babylonians: * <sup>2</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“Tell the whole world, and keep nothing back.
Raise a signal flag
to tell everyone that Babylon will fall!
Her images and idols * will be shattered.
Her gods Bel and Marduk will be utterly disgraced.

<sup>3</sup>For a nation will attack her from the north and bring such destruction that no one will live there again.
Everything will be gone;
both people and animals will flee.

Hope for Israel and Judah

<sup>4</sup>“In those coming days,”
says the LORD,
“the people of Israel will return home together with the people of Judah.
They will come weeping and seeking the LORD their God.

<sup>5</sup>They will ask the way to Jerusalem *
and will start back home again.

They will bind themselves to the LORD with an eternal covenant that will never be forgotten.

<sup>6</sup>“My people have been lost sheep.
Their shepherds have led them astray and turned them loose in the mountains.
They have lost their way
and can’t remember how to get back to the sheepfold.
<sup>7</sup>All who found them devoured them.
Their enemies said,
‘We did nothing wrong in attacking them,
for they sinned against the LORD,
their true place of rest,
and the hope of their ancestors.’

<sup>8</sup>“But now, flee from Babylon!
Leave the land of the Babylonians.
Like male goats at the head of the flock,
lead my people home again.
<sup>9</sup>For I am raising up an army of great nations from the north.
They will join forces to attack Babylon,
and she will be captured.
The enemies’ arrows will go straight to the mark;
they will not miss!
<sup>10</sup>Babylonia* will be looted until the attackers are glutted with loot.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

Babylon's Sure Fall

<sup>11</sup>“You rejoice and are glad,
you who plundered my chosen people.
You frisk about like a calf in a meadow and neigh like a stallion.

<sup>12</sup>But your homeland* will be overwhelmed with shame and disgrace.

You will become the least of nations—
a wilderness, a dry and desolate land.

<sup>13</sup>Because of the LORD's anger,
Babylon will become a deserted wasteland.
All who pass by will be horrified
and will gasp at the destruction they see there.

<sup>14</sup>“Yes, prepare to attack Babylon, all you surrounding nations.
Let your archers shoot at her; spare no arrows.
For she has sinned against the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>Shout war cries against her from every side.
Look! She surrenders!
Her walls have fallen.

It is the LORD's vengeance,
so take vengeance on her.
Do to her as she has done to others!

<sup>16</sup>Take from Babylon all those who plant crops;
send all the harvesters away.
Because of the sword of the enemy,
everyone will run away and rush back to their own lands.

Hope for God's People

<sup>17</sup>“The Israelites are like sheep that have been scattered by lions.
First the king of Assyria ate them up.
Then King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon cracked their bones.”

<sup>18</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies,
the God of Israel, says:

“Now I will punish the king of Babylon and his land,
just as I punished the king of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup>And I will bring Israel home again to its own land, to feed in the fields of Carmel and Bashan, and to be satisfied once more in the hill country of Ephraim and Gilead.

<sup>20</sup>In those days,” says the LORD,
“no sin will be found in Israel or in Judah,
for I will forgive the remnant I preserve.

The LORD's Judgment on Babylon

<sup>21</sup>“Go up, my warriors, against the land of Merathaim and against the people of Pekod.

Pursue, kill, and completely destroy* them,
as I have commanded you,” says the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>“Let the battle cry be heard in the land, a shout of great destruction.

<sup>23</sup>Babylon, the mightiest hammer in all the earth, lies broken and shattered.

Babylon is desolate among the nations!

<sup>24</sup>Listen, Babylon, for I have set a trap for you.
You are caught, for you have fought against the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>The LORD has opened his armory and brought out weapons to vent his fury.
The terror that falls upon the Babylonians will be the work of the Sovereign LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>26</sup>Yes, come against her from distant lands.
Break open her granaries.
Crush her walls and houses into heaps of rubble.
Destroy her completely, and leave nothing!

<sup>27</sup>Destroy even her young bulls—
it will be terrible for them, too!
Slaughter them all!
For Babylon's day of reckoning has come.

<sup>28</sup>Listen to the people who have escaped from Babylon, as they tell in Jerusalem
how the LORD our God has taken vengeance against those who destroyed his Temple.

<sup>29</sup>“Send out a call for archers to come to Babylon.
Surround the city so none can escape.
Do to her as she has done to others,
for she has defied the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

Her soldiers will all be killed,”
says the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>“See, I am your enemy, you arrogant people,”

says the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

"Your day of reckoning has arrived—
the day when I will punish you.

<sup>32</sup>O land of arrogance, you will stumble and fall, and no one will raise you up.

For I will light a fire in the cities of Babylon that will burn up everything around them."

<sup>33</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says:

"The people of Israel and Judah have been wronged.
Their captors hold them and refuse to let them go.

<sup>34</sup>But the one who redeems them is strong.
His name is the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

He will defend them
and give them rest again in Israel.
But for the people of Babylon
there will be no rest!

<sup>35</sup>"The sword of destruction will strike the Babylonians,"
says the LORD.

"It will strike the people of Babylon—her officials and wise men, too.

<sup>36</sup>The sword will strike her wise counselors, and they will become fools.

The sword will strike her mightiest warriors,
and panic will seize them.

<sup>37</sup>The sword will strike her horses and chariots and her allies from other lands, and they will all become like women.

The sword will strike her treasures,
and they all will be plundered.

<sup>38</sup>The sword will even strike her water supply, causing it to dry up.

And why? Because the whole land is filled with idols, and the people are madly in love with them.

<sup>39</sup>“Soon Babylon will be inhabited by desert animals and hyenas.

It will be a home for owls.
Never again will people live there;
it will lie desolate forever.

<sup>40</sup>I will destroy it as I* destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah
and their neighboring towns,” says the LORD.

“No one will live there;
no one will inhabit it.

<sup>41</sup>“Look! A great army is coming from the north.
A great nation and many kings are rising against you from far-off lands.

<sup>42</sup>They are armed with bows and spears.
They are cruel and show no mercy.

As they ride forward on horses,
they sound like a roaring sea.
They are coming in battle formation,
planning to destroy you, Babylon.

<sup>43</sup>The king of Babylon has heard reports about the enemy, and he is weak with fright.
Pangs of anguish have gripped him,

like those of a woman in labor.

<sup>44</sup>“I will come like a lion from the thickets of the Jordan,
leaping on the sheep in the pasture.
I will chase Babylon from its land,
and I will appoint the leader of my choice.
For who is like me, and who can challenge me?

<sup>45</sup>Listen to the LORD’s plans against Babylon and the land of the Babylonians.

Even the little children will be dragged off like sheep,
and their homes will be destroyed.

<sup>46</sup>The earth will shake with the shout, “Babylon has been taken!”

and its cry of despair will be heard around the world.

Jeremiah 51

<sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“I will stir up a destroyer against Babylon and the people of Babylonia.*

<sup>2</sup>Foreigners will come and winnow her, blowing her away as chaff.

They will come from every side to rise against her in her day of trouble.

<sup>3</sup>Don’t let the archers put on their armor or draw their bows.

Don’t spare even her best soldiers!

Let her army be completely destroyed.*

<sup>4</sup>They will fall dead in the land of the Babylonians,* slashed to death in her streets.

<sup>5</sup>For the LORD of Heaven’s Armies has not abandoned Israel and Judah.

He is still their God, even though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.”

Don’t get trapped in her punishment!

It is the LORD’s time for vengeance; he will repay her in full.

<sup>7</sup>Babylon has been a gold cup in the LORD’s hands, a cup that made the whole earth drunk.

The nations drank Babylon’s wine, and it drove them all mad.

<sup>8</sup>But suddenly Babylon, too, has fallen.

Weep for her.

Give her medicine.

Perhaps she can yet be healed.

<sup>9</sup>We would have helped her if we could,

but nothing can save her now.

Let her go; abandon her.

Return now to your own land.

For her punishment reaches to the heavens;

it is so great it cannot be measured.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD has vindicated us.

Come, let us announce in Jerusalem*

everything the LORD our God has done.

Lift up the shields!*

For the LORD has inspired the kings of the Medes to march against Babylon and destroy her.

This is his vengeance against those who desecrated his Temple.

<sup>12</sup>Raise the battle flag against Babylon!

Reinforce the guard and station the watchmen.

Prepare an ambush,

for the LORD will fulfill all his plans against Babylon.

<sup>13</sup>You are a city by a great river, a great center of commerce,

but your end has come.

The thread of your life is cut.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD of Heaven's Armies has taken this vow and has sworn to it by his own name:
"Your cities will be filled with enemies,
like fields swarming with locusts,
and they will shout in triumph over you."

A Hymn of Praise to the LORD

<sup>15</sup>The LORD made the earth by his power,
and he preserves it by his wisdom.
With his own understanding
he stretched out the heavens.
<sup>16</sup>When he speaks in the thunder,
the heavens are filled with water.
He causes the clouds to rise over the earth.
He sends the lightning with the rain
and releases the wind from his storehouses.

<sup>17</sup>The whole human race is foolish and has no knowledge!
The craftsmen are disgraced by the idols they make,
for their carefully shaped works are a fraud.
These idols have no breath or power.

On the day of reckoning they will all be destroyed.

<sup>19</sup>But the God of Israel* is no idol!
He is the Creator of everything that exists,
including his people, his own special possession.
The LORD of Heaven's Armies is his name!

Babylon's Great Punishment

<sup>20</sup>“You * are my battle-ax and sword,”
says the LORD.

“With you I will shatter nations and destroy many kingdoms.

<sup>21</sup>With you I will shatter armies—destroying the horse and rider, the chariot and charioteer.

<sup>22</sup>With you I will shatter men and women, old people and children,
young men and maidens.

<sup>23</sup>With you I will shatter shepherds and flocks, farmers and oxen,
captains and officers.

<sup>24</sup>“I will repay Babylon and the people of Babylonia * for all the wrong they have done to my people in Jerusalem,” says the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>“Look, O mighty mountain, destroyer of the earth!
I am your enemy,” says the LORD.

“I will raise my fist against you,
to knock you down from the heights.

When I am finished,
you will be nothing but a heap of burnt rubble.

<sup>26</sup>You will be desolate forever.

Even your stones will never again be used for building.

You will be completely wiped out,”
says the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>Raise a signal flag to the nations.
Sound the battle cry!
Mobilize them all against Babylon.
Prepare them to fight against her!
Bring out the armies of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.
Appoint a commander,
and bring a multitude of horses like swarming locusts!
<sup>28</sup>Bring against her the armies of the nations—led by the kings of the Medes and all their captains and officers.

<sup>29</sup>The earth trembles and writhes in pain, for everything the LORD has planned against Babylon stands unchanged.

Babylon will be left desolate without a single inhabitant.

<sup>30</sup>Her mightiest warriors no longer fight.
They stay in their barracks, their courage gone.
They have become like women.
The invaders have burned the houses and broken down the city gates.

<sup>31</sup>The news is passed from one runner to the next
as the messengers hurry to tell the king that his city has been captured.

<sup>32</sup>All the escape routes are blocked.
The marshes have been set aflame,
and the army is in a panic.

<sup>33</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies,
the God of Israel, says:

"Babylon is like wheat on a threshing floor,
about to be trampled.

In just a little while her harvest will begin."

<sup>34</sup>"King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon has eaten and crushed us

and drained us of strength.

He has swallowed us like a great monster and filled his belly with our riches.

He has thrown us out of our own country.

<sup>35</sup>Make Babylon suffer as she made us suffer," say the people of Zion.

"Make the people of Babylonia pay for spilling our blood," says Jerusalem.

The LORD's Vengeance on Babylon

<sup>36</sup>This is what the LORD says to Jerusalem:

"I will be your lawyer to plead your case,
and I will avenge you.

I will dry up her river,
as well as her springs,

<sup>37</sup>and Babylon will become a heap of ruins, haunted by jackals.

She will be an object of horror and contempt,

a place where no one lives.

<sup>38</sup>Her people will roar together like strong lions.
They will growl like lion cubs.

I will prepare a different kind of feast for them.
I will make them drink until they fall asleep,
and they will never wake up again,”
says the LORD.

<sup>40</sup>“I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and goats to be sacrificed.

<sup>41</sup>“How Babylon* is fallen—great Babylon, praised throughout the earth!
Now she has become an object of horror
among the nations.

<sup>42</sup>The sea has risen over Babylon;
she is covered by its crashing waves.

<sup>43</sup>Her cities now lie in ruins;
she is a dry wasteland where no one lives or even passes by.

<sup>44</sup>And I will punish Bel, the god of Babylon, and make him vomit up all he has eaten.
The nations will no longer come and worship him.
The wall of Babylon has fallen!

A Message for the Exiles

<sup>45</sup>“Come out, my people, flee from Babylon.

Save yourselves! Run from the LORD's fierce anger.

<sup>46</sup>But do not panic; don't be afraid
when you hear the first rumor of approaching forces.
For rumors will keep coming year by year.
Violence will erupt in the land
as the leaders fight against each other.

<sup>47</sup>For the time is surely coming when I will punish this great city and all her idols.
Her whole land will be disgraced,
and her dead will lie in the streets.

<sup>48</sup>Then the heavens and earth will rejoice, for out of the north will come destroying armies against Babylon," says the LORD.

<sup>49</sup>"Just as Babylon killed the people of Israel and others throughout the world, so must her people be killed.

<sup>50</sup>Get out, all you who have escaped the sword!
Do not stand and watch—flee while you can!
Remember the LORD, though you are in a far-off land,
and think about your home in Jerusalem."

<sup>51</sup>"We are ashamed," the people say.
"We are insulted and disgraced
because the LORD's Temple has been defiled by foreigners."

<sup>52</sup>"Yes," says the LORD, "but the time is coming when I will destroy Babylon's idols.
The groans of her wounded people will be heard throughout the land.

<sup>53</sup>Though Babylon reaches as high as the heavens and makes her fortifications incredibly strong,
I will still send enemies to plunder her.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

Babylon's Complete Destruction

<sup>54</sup>“Listen! Hear the cry of Babylon, the sound of great destruction from the land of the Babylonians.

<sup>55</sup>For the LORD is destroying Babylon.
He will silence her loud voice.
Waves of enemies pound against her;
the noise of battle rings through the city.

<sup>56</sup>Destroying armies come against Babylon.
Her mighty men are captured,
and their weapons break in their hands.
For the LORD is a God who gives just punishment;
he always repays in full.

<sup>57</sup>I will make her officials and wise men drunk, along with her captains, officers, and warriors.
They will fall asleep
and never wake up again!”
says the King, whose name is
the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

“The thick walls of Babylon will be leveled to the ground, and her massive gates will be burned.

The builders from many lands have worked in vain,
for their work will be destroyed by fire!”

Jeremiah's Message Sent to Babylon

<sup>59</sup>The prophet Jeremiah gave this message to Seraiah son of Neriah and grandson of Mahseiah, a staff officer, when Seraiah went to Babylon with King Zedekiah of Judah. This was during the fourth year of Zedekiah's reign.* <sup>60</sup>Jeremiah had recorded on a scroll all the terrible disasters that would soon come upon Babylon—all the words written here. <sup>61</sup>He said to Seraiah, “When you get to Babylon, read aloud everything on this scroll. <sup>62</sup>Then say, ‘LORD, you have said that you will destroy Babylon so that neither people nor animals will remain here. She will lie empty and abandoned forever.’ <sup>63</sup>When you have finished reading the scroll, tie it to a stone and throw it into the Euphrates River. <sup>64</sup>Then say, ‘In this same way Babylon and her people will sink, never again to rise, because of the disasters I will bring upon her.’”

This is the end of Jeremiah's messages.

Jeremiah 52

The Fall of Jerusalem

Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. <sup>4</sup>So on January 15,* during the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon led his entire army against Jerusalem. They surrounded the city and built siege ramps against its walls. <sup>5</sup>Jerusalem was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah's reign.

<sup>6</sup>By July 18 in the eleventh year of Zedekiah's reign,* the famine in the city had become very severe, and the last of the food was entirely gone. <sup>7</sup>Then a section of the city wall was broken down, and all the soldiers fled. Since the city was surrounded by the Babylonians,* they waited for nightfall. Then they slipped through the gate between the two walls behind the king's garden and headed toward the Jordan Valley.*

<sup>8</sup>But the Babylonian troops chased King Zedekiah and caught him on the plains of Jericho, for his men had all deserted him and scattered.<sup>9</sup>They took him to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath. There the king of Babylon pronounced judgment upon Zedekiah.<sup>10</sup>He made Zedekiah watch as they slaughtered his sons and all the other officials of Judah.<sup>11</sup>Then they gouged out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him in bronze chains, and led him away to Babylon. Zedekiah remained there in prison until the day of his death.

The Temple Destroyed

<sup>12</sup>On August 17 of that year,* which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar's reign, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard and an official of the Babylonian king, arrived in Jerusalem.<sup>13</sup>He burned down the Temple of the LORD, the royal palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem. He destroyed all the important buildings* in the city.<sup>14</sup>Then he supervised the entire Babylonian* army as they tore down the walls of Jerusalem on every side.<sup>15</sup>Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, then took as exiles some of the poorest of the people, the rest of the people who remained in the city, the defectors who had declared their allegiance to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the craftsmen.<sup>16</sup>But Nebuzaradan allowed some of the poorest people to stay behind in Judah to care for the vineyards and fields.

<sup>17</sup>The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars in front of the LORD's Temple, the bronze water carts, and the great bronze basin called the Sea, and they carried all the bronze away to Babylon.<sup>18</sup>They also took all the ash buckets, shovels, lamp snuffers, basins, dishes, and all the other bronze articles used for making sacrifices at the Temple. <sup>19</sup>Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, also took the small bowls, incense burners, basins, pots, lampstands, dishes, bowls used for liquid offerings, and all the other articles made of pure gold or silver.

<sup>20</sup>The weight of the bronze from the two pillars, the Sea with the twelve bronze oxen beneath it, and the water carts was too great to be measured. These things had been made for the LORD's Temple in the days of King Solomon. <sup>21</sup>Each of the pillars was 27 feet tall and 18 feet in circumference. * They were hollow, with walls 3 inches thick. * <sup>22</sup>The bronze capital on top of each pillar was 7½ feet * high and was decorated with a network of bronze pomegranates all the way around. <sup>23</sup>There were 96 pomegranates on the sides, and a total of 100 on the network around the top.

<sup>24</sup>Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, took with him as prisoners Seraiah the high priest, Zephaniah the priest of the second rank, and the three chief gatekeepers. <sup>25</sup>And from among the people still hiding in the city, he took an officer who had been in charge of the Judean army; seven of the king's personal advisers; the army commander's chief secretary, who was in charge of recruitment; and sixty other citizens. <sup>26</sup>Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, took them all to the king of Babylon at Riblah. <sup>27</sup>And there at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king of Babylon had them all put to death. So the people of Judah were sent into exile from their land.

Nebuchadnezzar's twenty-third year* he sent Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, who took 745 more—a total of 4,600 captives in all.

Hope for Israel's Royal Line

<sup>31</sup>In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of King Jehoiachin of Judah, Evil-merodach ascended to the Babylonian throne. He was kind to* Jehoiachin and released him from prison on March 31 of that year.* <sup>32</sup>He spoke kindly to Jehoiachin and gave him a higher place than all the other exiled kings in Babylon. <sup>33</sup>He supplied Jehoiachin with new clothes to replace his prison garb and allowed him to dine in the king's presence for the rest of his life. <sup>34</sup>So the Babylonian king gave him a regular food allowance as long as he lived. This continued until the day of his death.

3:22-24

The faithful love of the LORD never ends!

His mercies never cease.

Great is his faithfulness;

his mercies begin afresh each morning.

I say to myself, “The LORD is my inheritance;
therefore, I will hope in him!”

3:37-40

Who can command things to happen
without the Lord's permission?
Does not the Most High
send both calamity and good?
Then why should we, mere humans, complain
when we are punished for our sins?

Instead, let us test and examine our ways.
Let us turn back to the LORD.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

DEALING WITH SUFFERING.

When we face suffering, we don't have to tough it out and pretend not to care. Jeremiah and the people of Jerusalem learned from their suffering. It made them more sensitive to God and to their own sin.

Sorrow in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Jerusalem, once so full of people, is now deserted.

She who was once great among the nations
now sits alone like a widow.

Once the queen of all the earth,
she is now a slave.

<sup>2</sup>She sobs through the night;
tears stream down her cheeks.
Among all her lovers,
there is no one left to comfort her.
All her friends have betrayed her and become her enemies.

<sup>3</sup>Judah has been led away into captivity, oppressed with cruel slavery.

She lives among foreign nations and has no place of rest.
Her enemies have chased her down,
and she has nowhere to turn.

<sup>4</sup>The roads to Jerusalem* are in mourning, for crowds no longer come to celebrate the festivals.
The city gates are silent,
her priests groan,
her young women are crying—
how bitter is her fate!

<sup>5</sup>Her oppressors have become her masters,
and her enemies prosper,
for the LORD has punished Jerusalem for her many sins.
Her children have been captured and taken away to distant lands.

<sup>6</sup>All the majesty of beautiful Jerusalem* has been stripped away.
Her princes are like starving deer searching for pasture.
They are too weak to run
from the pursuing enemy.

<sup>7</sup>In the midst of her sadness and wandering,
Jerusalem remembers her ancient splendor.
But now she has fallen to her enemy, and there is no one to help her.

Her enemy struck her down
and laughed as she fell.

<sup>8</sup>Jerusalem has sinned greatly,
so she has been tossed away like a filthy rag.
All who once honored her now despise her,
for they have seen her stripped naked and humiliated.
All she can do is groan and hide her face.

<sup>9</sup>She defiled herself with immorality and gave no thought to her future.
Now she lies in the gutter with no one to lift her out.
“LORD, see my misery,” she cries.
“The enemy has triumphed.”

<sup>10</sup>The enemy has plundered her completely, taking every precious thing she owns.
She has seen foreigners violate her sacred Temple,
the place the LORD had forbidden them to enter.

<sup>11</sup>Her people groan as they search for bread.
They have sold their treasures for food to stay alive.
“O LORD, look,” she mourns,
“and see how I am despised.

<sup>12</sup>“Does it mean nothing to you, all you who pass by?

Look around and see if there is any suffering like mine, which the LORD brought on me
when he erupted in fierce anger.

<sup>13</sup>“He has sent fire from heaven that burns in my bones.
He has placed a trap in my path and turned me back.
He has left me devastated,
racked with sickness all day long.

<sup>14</sup>“He wove my sins into ropes to hitch me to a yoke of captivity.
The Lord sapped my strength and turned me over to my enemies;
I am helpless in their hands.

<sup>15</sup>“The Lord has treated my mighty men with contempt.
At his command a great army has come to crush my young warriors.
The Lord has trampled his beloved city*
like grapes are trampled in a winepress.

<sup>16</sup>“For all these things I weep;
tears flow down my cheeks.
No one is here to comfort me;
any who might encourage me are far away.
My children have no future,
for the enemy has conquered us.”

<sup>17</sup>Jerusalem reaches out for help, but no one comforts her.
Regarding his people Israel,*
the LORD has said,
“Let their neighbors be their enemies!
Let them be thrown away like a filthy rag!”

<sup>18</sup>“The LORD is right,” Jerusalem says,
“for I rebelled against him.
Listen, people everywhere;
look upon my anguish and despair,
for my sons and daughters have been taken captive to distant lands.

<sup>19</sup>“I begged my allies for help,
but they betrayed me.
My priests and leaders starved to death in the city, even as they searched for food
to save their lives.

<sup>20</sup>“LORD, see my anguish!
My heart is broken
and my soul despairs,
for I have rebelled against you.
In the streets the sword kills,
and at home there is only death.

<sup>21</sup>“Others heard my groans, but no one turned to comfort me.

When my enemies heard about my troubles,
they were happy to see what you had done.
Oh, bring the day you promised,
when they will suffer as I have suffered.

<sup>22</sup>“Look at all their evil deeds, LORD.
Punish them,
as you have punished me
for all my sins.
My groans are many,
and I am sick at heart.”

Lamentations 2

God's Anger at Sin

<sup>1</sup>The Lord in his anger has cast a dark shadow over beautiful Jerusalem.*
The fairest of Israel's cities lies in the dust, thrown down from the heights of heaven.
In his day of great anger,
the Lord has shown no mercy even to his Temple.*

<sup>2</sup>Without mercy the Lord has destroyed every home in Israel.*
In his anger he has broken down the fortress walls of beautiful Jerusalem.*
He has brought them to the ground, dishonoring the kingdom and its rulers.

<sup>3</sup>All the strength of Israel vanishes beneath his fierce anger.
The Lord has withdrawn his protection
as the enemy attacks.
He consumes the whole land of Israel like a raging fire.

<sup>4</sup>He bends his bow against his people,
as though he were their enemy.
His strength is used against them to kill their finest youth.

His fury is poured out like fire
on beautiful Jerusalem.*

<sup>5</sup>Yes, the Lord has vanquished Israel like an enemy.
He has destroyed her palaces and demolished her fortresses.
He has brought unending sorrow and tears
upon beautiful Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>He has broken down his Temple as though it were merely a garden shelter.
The LORD has blotted out all memory of the holy festivals and Sabbath days.
Kings and priests fall together before his fierce anger.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord has rejected his own altar;
he despises his own sanctuary.
He has given Jerusalem's palaces to her enemies.
They shout in the LORD's Temple
as though it were a day of celebration.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD was determined to destroy the walls of beautiful Jerusalem.
He made careful plans for their destruction,
then did what he had planned.

Therefore, the ramparts and walls have fallen down before him.

<sup>9</sup>Jerusalem's gates have sunk into the ground.
He has smashed their locks and bars.
Her kings and princes have been exiled to distant lands;
her law has ceased to exist.
Her prophets receive no more visions from the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>The leaders of beautiful Jerusalem sit on the ground in silence.
They are clothed in burlap and throw dust on their heads.
The young women of Jerusalem hang their heads in shame.

<sup>11</sup>I have cried until the tears no longer come;
my heart is broken.
My spirit is poured out in agony
as I see the desperate plight of my people.
Little children and tiny babies are fainting and dying in the streets.

<sup>12</sup>They cry out to their mothers,
“We need food and drink!”
Their lives ebb away in the streets like the life of a warrior wounded in battle.
They gasp for life

as they collapse in their mothers' arms.

<sup>13</sup>What can I say about you?
Who has ever seen such sorrow?
O daughter of Jerusalem,
to what can I compare your anguish?
O virgin daughter of Zion,
how can I comfort you?
For your wound is as deep as the sea.
Who can heal you?

<sup>14</sup>Your prophets have said
so many foolish things, false to the core.
They did not save you from exile
by pointing out your sins.
Instead, they painted false pictures, filling you with false hope.

<sup>15</sup>All who pass by jeer at you.
They scoff and insult beautiful Jerusalem,* saying,
“Is this the city called ‘Most Beautiful in All the World’ and ‘Joy of All the Earth’?”

<sup>16</sup>All your enemies mock you.
They scoff and snarl and say,
“We have destroyed her at last!
We have long waited for this day,
and it is finally here!”

<sup>17</sup>But it is the LORD who did just as he planned.
He has fulfilled the promises of disaster
he made long ago.
He has destroyed Jerusalem without mercy.
He has caused her enemies to gloat over her and has given them power over her.

O walls of beautiful Jerusalem!
Let your tears flow like a river
day and night.
Give yourselves no rest;
give your eyes no relief.

<sup>19</sup>Rise during the night and cry out.
Pour out your hearts like water to the Lord.
Lift up your hands to him in prayer,
pleading for your children,
for in every street
they are faint with hunger.

<sup>20</sup>“O LORD, think about this!
Should you treat your own people this way?
Should mothers eat their own children,
those they once bounced on their knees?
Should priests and prophets be killed within the Lord’s Temple?

<sup>21</sup>“See them lying in the streets—

young and old,
boys and girls,
killed by the swords of the enemy.
You have killed them in your anger, slaughtering them without mercy.

<sup>22</sup>“You have invited terrors from all around,
as though you were calling them to a day of feasting.
In the day of the LORD’s anger,
no one has escaped or survived.
The enemy has killed all the children whom I carried and raised.”

Lamentations 3

Hope in the LORD's Faithfulness

<sup>1</sup>I am the one who has seen the afflictions that come from the rod of the LORD's anger.

<sup>2</sup>He has led me into darkness, shutting out all light.

<sup>3</sup>He has turned his hand against me again and again, all day long.

<sup>4</sup>He has made my skin and flesh grow old.
He has broken my bones.

<sup>5</sup>He has besieged and surrounded me with anguish and distress.

<sup>6</sup>He has buried me in a dark place, like those long dead.

<sup>7</sup>He has walled me in, and I cannot escape.
He has bound me in heavy chains.

<sup>8</sup>And though I cry and shout,
he has shut out my prayers.

<sup>9</sup>He has blocked my way with a high stone wall;
he has made my road crooked.

<sup>10</sup>He has hidden like a bear or a lion, waiting to attack me.

<sup>11</sup>He has dragged me off the path and torn me in pieces, leaving me helpless and devastated.

<sup>12</sup>He has drawn his bow and made me the target for his arrows.

<sup>13</sup>He shot his arrows deep into my heart.

<sup>14</sup>My own people laugh at me.
All day long they sing their mocking songs.

<sup>15</sup>He has filled me with bitterness and given me a bitter cup of sorrow to drink.

<sup>16</sup>He has made me chew on gravel.
He has rolled me in the dust.

<sup>17</sup>Peace has been stripped away, and I have forgotten what prosperity is.

<sup>18</sup>I cry out, "My splendor is gone!
Everything I had hoped for from the LORD is lost!"

<sup>19</sup>The thought of my suffering and homelessness is bitter beyond words.*

<sup>20</sup>I will never forget this awful time, as I grieve over my loss.

<sup>21</sup>Yet I still dare to hope when I remember this:

<sup>22</sup>The faithful love of the LORD never ends!*

His mercies never cease.

<sup>23</sup>Great is his faithfulness;
his mercies begin afresh each morning.

<sup>24</sup>I say to myself, "The LORD is my inheritance;
therefore, I will hope in him!"

<sup>25</sup>The LORD is good to those who depend on him, to those who search for him.

<sup>26</sup>So it is good to wait quietly for salvation from the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>And it is good for people to submit at an early age to the yoke of his discipline:

<sup>28</sup>Let them sit alone in silence beneath the LORD's demands.

<sup>29</sup>Let them lie face down in the dust, for there may be hope at last.

<sup>30</sup>Let them turn the other cheek to those who strike them and accept the insults of their enemies.

<sup>31</sup>For no one is abandoned by the Lord forever.

<sup>32</sup>Though he brings grief, he also shows compassion because of the greatness of his unfailing love.

<sup>33</sup>For he does not enjoy hurting people or causing them sorrow.

<sup>34</sup>If people crush underfoot
all the prisoners of the land,

<sup>35</sup>if they deprive others of their rights in defiance of the Most High, <sup>36</sup>if they twist justice in the courts—doesn't the Lord see all these things?

<sup>37</sup>Who can command things to happen
without the Lord's permission?

<sup>38</sup>Does not the Most High
send both calamity and good?

<sup>39</sup>Then why should we, mere humans, complain
when we are punished for our sins?

<sup>40</sup>Instead, let us test and examine our ways.
Let us turn back to the LORD.

<sup>41</sup>Let us lift our hearts and hands to God in heaven and say,

<sup>42</sup>“We have sinned and rebelled, and you have not forgiven us.

<sup>43</sup>“You have engulfed us with your anger, chased us down, and slaughtered us without mercy.

<sup>44</sup>You have hidden yourself in a cloud
so our prayers cannot reach you.

<sup>45</sup>You have discarded us as refuse and garbage
among the nations.

<sup>46</sup>“All our enemies have spoken out against us.

<sup>47</sup>We are filled with fear,
for we are trapped, devastated, and ruined.”

<sup>48</sup>Tears stream from my eyes because of the destruction of my people!

<sup>49</sup>My tears flow endlessly;
they will not stop

<sup>50</sup>until the LORD looks down from heaven and sees.

<sup>51</sup>My heart is breaking
over the fate of all the women of Jerusalem.

<sup>52</sup>My enemies, whom I have never harmed, hunted me down like a bird.

<sup>53</sup>They threw me into a pit and dropped stones on me.

<sup>54</sup>The water rose over my head, and I cried out, “This is the end!”

<sup>55</sup>But I called on your name, LORD, from deep within the pit.

<sup>56</sup>You heard me when I cried, “Listen to my pleading!
Hear my cry for help!”

<sup>57</sup>Yes, you came when I called;
you told me, “Do not fear.”

<sup>58</sup>Lord, you are my lawyer! Plead my case!
For you have redeemed my life.

<sup>59</sup>You have seen the wrong they have done to me, LORD.
Be my judge, and prove me right.

<sup>60</sup>You have seen the vengeful plots
my enemies have laid against me.

<sup>61</sup>LORD, you have heard the vile names they call me.
You know all about the plans they have made.

<sup>62</sup>My enemies whisper and mutter
as they plot against me all day long.

<sup>63</sup>Look at them! Whether they sit or stand,
I am the object of their mocking songs.

<sup>64</sup>Pay them back, LORD,
for all the evil they have done.

<sup>65</sup>Give them hard and stubborn hearts, and then let your curse fall on them!

<sup>66</sup>Chase them down in your anger,
destroying them beneath the LORD's heavens.

Lamentations 4

God's Anger Satisfied

<sup>1</sup>How the gold has lost its luster!
Even the finest gold has become dull.
The sacred gemstones lie scattered in the streets!

<sup>2</sup>See how the precious children of Jerusalem,* worth their weight in fine gold, are now treated like pots of clay
made by a common potter.

<sup>3</sup>Even the jackals feed their young,
but not my people Israel.
They ignore their children's cries,
like ostriches in the desert.

<sup>4</sup>The parched tongues of their little ones stick to the roofs of their mouths in thirst.
The children cry for bread,
but no one has any to give them.

<sup>5</sup>The people who once ate the richest foods now beg in the streets for anything they can get.
Those who once wore the finest clothes
now search the garbage dumps for food.

<sup>6</sup>The guilt* of my people is greater than that of Sodom, where utter disaster struck in a moment and no hand offered help.

<sup>7</sup>Our princes once glowed with health—
brighter than snow, whiter than milk.
Their faces were as ruddy as rubies, their appearance like fine jewels.*

<sup>8</sup>But now their faces are blacker than soot.
No one recognizes them in the streets.
Their skin sticks to their bones;
it is as dry and hard as wood.

<sup>9</sup>Those killed by the sword are better off than those who die of hunger.
Starving, they waste away
for lack of food from the fields.

<sup>10</sup>Tenderhearted women have cooked their own children.
They have eaten them
to survive the siege.

<sup>11</sup>But now the anger of the LORD is satisfied.
His fierce anger has been poured out.
He started a fire in Jerusalem*

that burned the city to its foundations.

<sup>12</sup>Not a king in all the earth—
no one in all the world—would have believed that an enemy could march through the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>Yet it happened because of the sins of her prophets and the sins of her priests, who defiled the city
by shedding innocent blood.

<sup>14</sup>They wandered blindly through the streets,
so defiled by blood
that no one dared touch them.

“You’re defiled! Don’t touch us!”
So they fled to distant lands and wandered among foreign nations, but none would let them stay.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD himself has scattered them,
and he no longer helps them.
People show no respect for the priests and no longer honor the leaders.

<sup>17</sup>We looked in vain for our allies to come and save us,

but we were looking to nations
that could not help us.

<sup>18</sup>We couldn't go into the streets without danger to our lives.
Our end was near; our days were numbered.
We were doomed!

<sup>19</sup>Our enemies were swifter than eagles in flight.
If we fled to the mountains, they found us.
If we hid in the wilderness,
they were waiting for us there.

<sup>20</sup>Our king—the LORD's anointed, the very life of our nation—was caught in their snares.
We had thought that his shadow would protect us against any nation on earth!

<sup>21</sup>Are you rejoicing in the land of Uz, O people of Edom?
But you, too, must drink from the cup of the LORD's anger.
You, too, will be stripped naked in your drunkenness.

<sup>22</sup>O beautiful Jerusalem, your punishment will end;
you will soon return from exile.
But Edom, your punishment is just beginning;
soon your many sins will be exposed.

Lamentations 5

Prayer for Restoration

<sup>1</sup> LORD, remember what has happened to us.

See how we have been disgraced!

<sup>2</sup>Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, our homes to foreigners.

<sup>3</sup>We are orphaned and fatherless.
Our mothers are widowed.

<sup>4</sup>We have to pay for water to drink, and even firewood is expensive.

<sup>5</sup>Those who pursue us are at our heels;
we are exhausted but are given no rest.

<sup>6</sup>We submitted to Egypt and Assyria to get enough food to survive.

<sup>7</sup>Our ancestors sinned, but they have died—and we are suffering the punishment they deserved!

<sup>8</sup>Slaves have now become our masters;
there is no one left to rescue us.

<sup>9</sup>We hunt for food at the risk of our lives, for violence rules the countryside.

<sup>10</sup>The famine has blackened our skin
as though baked in an oven.

<sup>11</sup>Our enemies rape the women in Jerusalem*
and the young girls in all the towns of Judah.

<sup>12</sup>Our princes are being hanged by their thumbs, and our elders are treated with contempt.

<sup>13</sup>Young men are led away to work at millstones, and boys stagger under heavy loads of wood.

<sup>14</sup>The elders no longer sit in the city gates;
the young men no longer dance and sing.

<sup>15</sup>Joy has left our hearts;
our dancing has turned to mourning.

<sup>16</sup>The garlands have* fallen from our heads.
Weep for us because we have sinned.

<sup>17</sup>Our hearts are sick and weary,
and our eyes grow dim with tears.

<sup>18</sup>For Jerusalem* is empty and desolate, a place haunted by jackals.

<sup>19</sup>But LORD, you remain the same forever!
Your throne continues from generation to generation.

<sup>20</sup>Why do you continue to forget us?
Why have you abandoned us for so long?

<sup>21</sup>Restore us, O LORD, and bring us back to you again!
Give us back the joys we once had!

<sup>22</sup>Or have you utterly rejected us?
Are you angry with us still?

FIRST EXILES RETURN TO JUDAH

Ezekiel 1

A Vision of Living Beings

eagle at the back. <sup>11</sup>Each had two pairs of outstretched wings—one pair stretched out to touch the wings of the living beings on either side of it, and the other pair covered its body. <sup>12</sup>They went in whatever direction the spirit chose, and they moved straight forward in any direction without turning around.

<sup>13</sup>The living beings looked like bright coals of fire or brilliant torches, and lightning seemed to flash back and forth among them. <sup>14</sup>And the living beings darted to and fro like flashes of lightning.

<sup>15</sup>As I looked at these beings, I saw four wheels touching the ground beside them, one wheel belonging to each. <sup>16</sup>The wheels sparkled as if made of beryl. All four wheels looked alike and were made the same; each wheel had a second wheel turning crosswise within it. <sup>17</sup>The beings could move in any of the four directions they faced, without turning as they moved. <sup>18</sup>The rims of the four wheels were tall and frightening, and they were covered with eyes all around.

<sup>19</sup>When the living beings moved, the wheels moved with them. When they flew upward, the wheels went up, too. <sup>20</sup>The spirit of the living beings was in the wheels. So wherever the spirit went, the wheels and the living beings also went. <sup>21</sup>When the beings moved, the wheels moved. When the beings stopped, the wheels stopped. When the beings flew upward, the wheels rose up, for the spirit of the living beings was in the wheels.

two wings covering its body.<sup>24</sup>As they flew, their wings sounded to me like waves crashing against the shore or like the voice of the Almighty* or like the shouting of a mighty army. When they stopped, they let down their wings.<sup>25</sup>As they stood with wings lowered, a voice spoke from beyond the crystal surface above them.

Ezekiel's Call and Commission

<sup>1</sup> “Stand up, son of man,” said the voice. “I want to speak with you.” <sup>2</sup> The Spirit came into me as he spoke, and he set me on my feet. I listened carefully to his words. <sup>3</sup> “Son of man,” he said, “I am sending you to the nation of Israel, a rebellious nation that has rebelled against me. They and their ancestors have been rebelling against me to this very day. <sup>4</sup> They are a stubborn and hardhearted people. But I am sending you to say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says!’ <sup>5</sup> And whether they listen or refuse to listen—for remember, they are rebels—at least they will know they have had a prophet among them.

<sup>6</sup> “Son of man, do not fear them or their words. Don’t be afraid even though their threats surround you like nettles and briars and stinging scorpions. Do not be dismayed by their dark scowls, even though they are rebels. <sup>7</sup> You must give them my messages whether they listen or not. But they won’t listen, for they are completely rebellious! <sup>8</sup> Son of man, listen to what I say to you. Do not join them in their rebellion. Open your mouth, and eat what I give you.”

<sup>9</sup> Then I looked and saw a hand reaching out to me. It held a scroll, <sup>10</sup> which he unrolled. And I saw that both sides were covered with funeral songs, words of sorrow, and pronouncements of doom.

Ezekiel 3

<sup>1</sup> The voice said to me, “Son of man, eat what I am giving you—eat this scroll! Then go and give its message to the people of Israel.” <sup>2</sup> So I opened my mouth, and he fed me the scroll. <sup>3</sup> “Fill your stomach with this,” he said. And when I ate it, it tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth.

<sup>4</sup> Then he said, “Son of man, go to the people of Israel and give them my messages. <sup>5</sup> I am not sending you to a foreign people whose language you cannot understand. <sup>6</sup> No, I am not sending you to people with strange and difficult speech. If I did, they would listen! <sup>7</sup> But the people of Israel won’t listen to you any more than they listen to me! For the whole lot of them are hardhearted and stubborn. <sup>8</sup> But look, I have made you as obstinate and hardhearted as they are. <sup>9</sup> I have made your forehead as hard as the hardest rock! So don’t be afraid of them or fear their angry looks, even though they are rebels.”

<sup>10</sup> Then he added, “Son of man, let all my words sink deep into your own heart first. Listen to them carefully for yourself. <sup>11</sup> Then go to your people in exile and say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says!’ Do this whether they listen to you or not.”

<sup>12</sup> Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard a loud rumbling sound behind me. (May the glory of the LORD be praised in his place!)* <sup>13</sup> It was the sound of the wings of the living beings as they brushed against each other and the rumbling of their wheels beneath them.

<sup>14</sup>The Spirit lifted me up and took me away. I went in bitterness and turmoil, but the LORD's hold on me was strong. <sup>15</sup>Then I came to the colony of Judean exiles in Tel-abib, beside the Kebar River. I was overwhelmed and sat among them for seven days.

A Watchman for Israel

<sup>16</sup>After seven days the LORD gave me a message. He said, <sup>17</sup>“Son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman for Israel. Whenever you receive a message from me, warn people immediately. <sup>18</sup>If I warn the wicked, saying, ‘You are under the penalty of death,’ but you fail to deliver the warning, they will die in their sins. And I will hold you responsible for their deaths. <sup>19</sup>If you warn them and they refuse to repent and keep on sinning, they will die in their sins. But you will have saved yourself because you obeyed me.

<sup>20</sup>“If righteous people turn away from their righteous behavior and ignore the obstacles I put in their way, they will die. And if you do not warn them, they will die in their sins. None of their righteous acts will be remembered, and I will hold you responsible for their deaths. <sup>21</sup>But if you warn righteous people not to sin and they listen to you and do not sin, they will live, and you will have saved yourself, too.”

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD took hold of me and said, “Get up and go out into the valley, and I will speak to you there.” <sup>23</sup>So I got up and went, and there I saw the glory of the LORD, just as I had seen in my first vision by the Kebar River. And I fell face down on the ground.

<sup>24</sup> Then the Spirit came into me and set me on my feet. He spoke to me and said, “Go to your house and shut yourself in. <sup>25</sup>There, son of man, you will be tied with ropes so you cannot go out among the people. <sup>26</sup>And I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so that you will be speechless and unable to rebuke them, for they are rebels. <sup>27</sup>But when I give you a message, I will loosen your tongue and let you speak. Then you will say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says!’ Those who choose to listen will listen, but those who refuse will refuse, for they are rebels.

Ezekiel 4

A Sign of the Coming Siege

<sup>4</sup>“Now lie on your left side and place the sins of Israel on yourself. You are to bear their sins for the number of days you lie there on your side. <sup>5</sup>I am requiring you to bear Israel’s sins for 390 days—one day for each year of their sin. <sup>6</sup>After that, turn over and lie on your right side for 40 days—one day for each year of Judah’s sin.

<sup>7</sup>“Meanwhile, keep staring at the siege of Jerusalem. Lie there with your arm bared and prophesy her destruction. <sup>8</sup>I will tie you up with ropes so you won’t be able to turn from side to side until the days of your siege have been completed.

<sup>9</sup> “Now go and get some wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and emmer wheat, and mix them together in a storage jar. Use them to make bread for yourself during the 390 days you will be lying on your side. <sup>10</sup>Ration this out to yourself, eight ounces* of food for each day, and eat it at set times. <sup>11</sup>Then measure out a jar* of water for each day, and drink it at set times. <sup>12</sup>Prepare and eat this food as you would barley cakes. While all the people are watching, bake it over a fire using dried human dung as fuel and then eat the bread.” <sup>13</sup>Then the LORD said, “This is how Israel will eat defiled bread in the Gentile lands to which I will banish them!”

<sup>14</sup>Then I said, “O Sovereign LORD, must I be defiled by using human dung? For I have never been defiled before. From the time I was a child until now I have never eaten any animal that died of sickness or was killed by other animals. I have never eaten any meat forbidden by the law.”

<sup>15</sup>“All right,” the LORD said. “You may bake your bread with cow dung instead of human dung.” <sup>16</sup>Then he told me, “Son of man, I will make food very scarce in Jerusalem. It will be weighed out with great care and eaten fearfully. The water will be rationed out drop by drop, and the people will drink it with dismay. <sup>17</sup>Lacking food and water, people will look at one another in terror, and they will waste away under their punishment.

ONE-MAN DRAMA ACT

Ezekiel did a lot more than just talk. God frequently turned him into a one-man dramatist to make his point. And it wasn't always pleasant.

Text	What Happened
Chapter 4	Street diorama—for more than a year!
Chapter 5	Off with the prophet's hair
12:1-20	Backpack time
21:6-17	Moaning and groaning
21:18-27	Highway department
24:15-27	Suddenly, a widower
37:15-28	A tale of two sticks

Ezekiel 5

A Sign of the Coming Judgment

<sup>1</sup>“Son of man, take a sharp sword and use it as a razor to shave your head and beard. Use a scale to weigh the hair into three equal parts. <sup>2</sup>Place a third of it at the center of your map of Jerusalem. After acting out the siege, burn it there. Scatter another third across your map and chop it with a sword. Scatter the last third to the wind, for I will scatter my people with the sword. <sup>3</sup>Keep just a bit of the hair and tie it up in your robe. <sup>4</sup>Then take some of these hairs out and throw them into the fire, burning them up. A fire will then spread from this remnant and destroy all of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: This is an illustration of what will happen to Jerusalem. I placed her at the center of the nations, <sup>6</sup>but she has rebelled against my regulations and decrees and has been even more wicked than the surrounding nations. She has refused to obey the regulations and decrees I gave her to follow.

<sup>7</sup>“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: You people have behaved worse than your neighbors and have refused to obey my decrees and regulations. You have not even lived up to the standards of the nations around you. <sup>8</sup>Therefore, I myself, the Sovereign LORD, am now your enemy. I will punish you publicly while all the nations watch. <sup>9</sup>Because of your detestable idols, I will punish you like I have never punished anyone before or ever will again. <sup>10</sup>Parents will eat their own children, and children will eat their parents. I will punish you and scatter to the winds the few who survive.

<sup>11</sup>“As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, I will cut you off completely. I will show you no pity at all because you have defiled my Temple with your vile images and detestable sins.

<sup>12</sup>A third of your people will die in the city from disease and famine. A third of them will be slaughtered by the enemy outside the city walls. And I will scatter a third to the winds, chasing them with my sword. <sup>13</sup>Then at last my anger will be spent, and I will be satisfied. And when my fury against them has subsided, all Israel will know that I, the LORD, have spoken to them in my jealous anger.

<sup>14</sup>“So I will turn you into a ruin, a mockery in the eyes of the surrounding nations and to all who pass by. <sup>15</sup>You will become an object of mockery and taunting and horror. You will be a warning to all the nations around you. They will see what happens when the LORD punishes a nation in anger and rebukes it, says the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>“I will shower you with the deadly arrows of famine to destroy you. The famine will become more and more severe until every crumb of food is gone. <sup>17</sup>And along with the famine, wild animals will attack you and rob you of your children. Disease and war will stalk your land, and I will bring the sword of the enemy against you. I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 6

Judgment against Israel's Mountains

<sup>8</sup>“But I will let a few of my people escape destruction, and they will be scattered among the nations of the world. <sup>9</sup>Then when they are exiled among the nations, they will remember me. They will recognize how hurt I am by their unfaithful hearts and lustful eyes that long for their idols. Then at last they will hate themselves for all their detestable sins. <sup>10</sup>They will know that I alone am the LORD and that I was serious when I said I would bring this calamity on them.

<sup>11</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Clap your hands in horror, and stamp your feet. Cry out because of all the detestable sins the people of Israel have committed. Now they are going to die from war and famine and disease. <sup>12</sup>Disease will strike down those who are far away in exile. War will destroy those who are nearby. And anyone who survives will be killed by famine. So at last I will spend my fury on them. <sup>13</sup>They will know that I am the LORD when their dead lie scattered among their idols and altars on every hill and mountain and under every green tree and every great shade tree—the places where they offered sacrifices to their idols. <sup>14</sup>I will crush them and make their cities desolate from the wilderness in the south to Riblah* in the north. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 7

The Coming of the End

<sup>1</sup>Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says to Israel:

“The end is here!
Wherever you look—
east, west, north, or south—
your land is finished.

<sup>3</sup>No hope remains,
for I will unleash my anger against you.
I will call you to account
for all your detestable sins.

<sup>4</sup>I will turn my eyes away and show no pity.
I will repay you for all your detestable sins.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says:
Disaster after disaster is coming your way!

<sup>6</sup>The end has come.
It has finally arrived.
Your final doom is waiting!

<sup>7</sup>O people of Israel, the day of your destruction is dawning.
The time has come; the day of trouble is near.
Shouts of anguish will be heard on the mountains,

not shouts of joy.

<sup>8</sup>Soon I will pour out my fury on you and unleash my anger against you.
I will call you to account
for all your detestable sins.

<sup>9</sup>I will turn my eyes away and show no pity.
I will repay you for all your detestable sins.
Then you will know that it is I, the LORD,
who is striking the blow.

<sup>10</sup>“The day of judgment is here;
your destruction awaits!
The people’s wickedness and pride have blossomed to full flower.

<sup>11</sup>Their violence has grown into a rod that will beat them for their wickedness.
None of these proud and wicked people will survive.
All their wealth and prestige will be swept away.

<sup>12</sup>Yes, the time has come;
the day is here!
Buyers should not rejoice over bargains,
nor sellers grieve over losses,
for all of them will fall
under my terrible anger.

<sup>13</sup>Even if the merchants survive,
they will never return to their business.
For what God has said applies to everyone—
it will not be changed!
Not one person whose life is twisted by sin will ever recover.

The Desolation of Israel

<sup>14</sup>“The trumpet calls Israel’s army to mobilize, but no one listens,
for my fury is against them all.

<sup>15</sup>There is war outside the city and disease and famine within.

Those outside the city walls will be killed by enemy swords.

Those inside the city will die of famine and disease.

<sup>16</sup>The survivors who escape to the mountains will moan like doves, weeping for their sins.

<sup>17</sup>Their hands will hang limp,
their knees will be weak as water.

<sup>18</sup>They will dress themselves in burlap;
horror and shame will cover them.
They will shave their heads in sorrow and remorse.

<sup>19</sup>“They will throw their money in the streets, tossing it out like worthless trash.

Their silver and gold won’t save them
on that day of the LORD’s anger.

It will neither satisfy nor feed them,
for their greed can only trip them up.

<sup>20</sup>They were proud of their beautiful jewelry and used it to make detestable idols and vile images.

Therefore, I will make all their wealth disgusting to them.

<sup>21</sup>I will give it as plunder to foreigners, to the most wicked of nations,
and they will defile it.

<sup>22</sup>I will turn my eyes from them as these robbers invade and defile my treasured land.

<sup>23</sup>“Prepare chains for my people,
for the land is bloodied by terrible crimes.
Jerusalem is filled with violence.

<sup>24</sup>I will bring the most ruthless of nations to occupy their homes.

I will break down their proud fortresses and defile their sanctuaries.

<sup>25</sup>Terror and trembling will overcome my people.
They will look for peace but not find it.

<sup>26</sup>Calamity will follow calamity;
rumor will follow rumor.

They will look in vain
for a vision from the prophets.
They will receive no teaching from the priests and no counsel from the leaders.

<sup>27</sup>The king and the prince will stand helpless, weeping in despair,
and the people's hands
will tremble with fear.
I will bring on them

the evil they have done to others, and they will receive the punishment
they so richly deserve.
Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 8

Idolatry in the Temple

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD said to me, "Son of man, look toward the north." So I looked, and there to the north, beside the entrance to the gate near the altar, stood the idol that had made the LORD so jealous.

<sup>6</sup>"Son of man," he said, "do you see what they are doing? Do you see the detestable sins the people of Israel are committing to drive me from my Temple? But come, and you will see even more detestable sins than these!" <sup>7</sup>Then he brought me to the door of the Temple courtyard, where I could see a hole in the wall. <sup>8</sup>He said to me, "Now, son of man, dig into the wall." So I dug into the wall and found a hidden doorway.

<sup>9</sup>“Go in,” he said, “and see the wicked and detestable sins they are committing in there!” <sup>10</sup>So I went in and saw the walls engraved with all kinds of crawling animals and detestable creatures. I also saw the various idols* worshiped by the people of Israel. <sup>11</sup>Seventy leaders of Israel were standing there with Jaazaniah son of Shaphan in the center. Each of them held an incense burner, from which a cloud of incense rose above their heads.

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “Son of man, have you seen what the leaders of Israel are doing with their idols in dark rooms? They are saying, ‘The LORD doesn’t see us; he has deserted our land!’” <sup>13</sup>Then the LORD added, “Come, and I will show you even more detestable sins than these!”

<sup>14</sup>He brought me to the north gate of the LORD’s Temple, and some women were sitting there, weeping for the god Tammuz. <sup>15</sup>“Have you seen this?” he asked. “But I will show you even more detestable sins than these!”

<sup>16</sup>Then he brought me into the inner courtyard of the LORD’s Temple. At the entrance to the sanctuary, between the entry room and the bronze altar, there were about twenty-five men with their backs to the sanctuary of the LORD. They were facing east, bowing low to the ground, worshiping the sun!

<sup>17</sup>“Have you seen this, son of man?” he asked. “Is it nothing to the people of Judah that they commit these detestable sins, leading the whole nation into violence, thumbing their noses at me, and provoking my anger? <sup>18</sup>Therefore, I will respond in fury. I will neither pity nor spare them. And though they cry for mercy, I will not listen.”

Ezekiel 9

The Slaughter of Idolaters

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD thundered, “Bring on the men appointed to punish the city! Tell them to bring their weapons with them!”

<sup>2</sup> Six men soon appeared from the upper gate that faces north, each carrying a deadly weapon in his hand. With them was a man dressed in linen, who carried a writer’s case at his side. They all went into the Temple courtyard and stood beside the bronze altar.

<sup>3</sup> Then the glory of the God of Israel rose up from between the cherubim, where it had rested, and moved to the entrance of the Temple. And the LORD called to the man dressed in linen who was carrying the writer’s case. <sup>4</sup> He said to him, “Walk through the streets of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of all who weep and sigh because of the detestable sins being committed in their city.”

<sup>7</sup> “Defile the Temple!” the LORD commanded. “Fill its courtyards with corpses. Go!” So they went and began killing throughout the city.

<sup>8</sup>While they were out killing, I was all alone. I fell face down on the ground and cried out, “O Sovereign LORD! Will your fury against Jerusalem wipe out everyone left in Israel?”

<sup>9</sup>Then he said to me, “The sins of the people of Israel and Judah are very, very great. The entire land is full of murder; the city is filled with injustice. They are saying, ‘The LORD doesn’t see it! The LORD has abandoned the land!’ <sup>10</sup>So I will not spare them or have any pity on them. I will fully repay them for all they have done.”

<sup>11</sup>Then the man in linen clothing, who carried the writer’s case, reported back and said, “I have done as you commanded.”

Ezekiel 10

The LORD's Glory Leaves the Temple

<sup>2</sup>Then the LORD spoke to the man in linen clothing and said, “Go between the whirling wheels beneath the cherubim, and take a handful of burning coals and scatter them over the city.” He did this as I watched.

<sup>3</sup>The cherubim were standing at the south end of the Temple when the man went in, and the cloud of glory filled the inner courtyard. <sup>4</sup>Then the glory of the LORD rose up from above the cherubim and went over to the door of the Temple. The Temple was filled with this cloud of glory, and the courtyard glowed brightly with the glory of the LORD. <sup>5</sup>The moving wings of the cherubim sounded like the voice of God Almighty* and could be heard even in the outer courtyard.

him, and the wheels sparkled like beryl.<sup>10</sup> All four wheels looked alike and were made the same; each wheel had a second wheel turning crosswise within it.<sup>11</sup> The cherubim could move in any of the four directions they faced, without turning as they moved. They went straight in the direction they faced, never turning aside.<sup>12</sup> Both the cherubim and the wheels were covered with eyes. The cherubim had eyes all over their bodies, including their hands, their backs, and their wings.<sup>13</sup> I heard someone refer to the wheels as “the whirling wheels.”<sup>14</sup> Each of the four cherubim had four faces: the first was the face of an ox,* the second was a human face, the third was the face of a lion, and the fourth was the face of an eagle.

<sup>18</sup>Then the glory of the LORD moved out from the door of the Temple and hovered above the cherubim.<sup>19</sup> And as I watched, the cherubim flew with their wheels to the east gate of the LORD’s Temple. And the glory of the God of Israel hovered above them.

<sup>20</sup>These were the same living beings I had seen beneath the God of Israel when I was by the Kebar River. I knew they were cherubim,<sup>21</sup> for each had four faces and four wings and what looked like human hands under their wings.<sup>22</sup> And their faces were just like the faces of the beings I had seen at the Kebar, and they traveled straight ahead, just as the others had.

Judgment on Israel's Leaders

<sup>1</sup>Then the Spirit lifted me and brought me to the east gateway of the LORD's Temple, where I saw twenty-five prominent men of the city. Among them were Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, who were leaders among the people.

<sup>2</sup>The Spirit said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who are planning evil and giving wicked counsel in this city. <sup>3</sup>They say to the people, 'Is it not a good time to build houses? This city is like an iron pot. We are safe inside it like meat in a pot.*'

PERSPECTIVES

Then the Spirit lifted me and brought me to the east gateway of the LORD's Temple, where I saw twenty-five prominent men of the city. . . . The Spirit said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who are planning evil and giving wicked counsel in this city. . . . Therefore, son of man, prophesy against them loudly and clearly."

The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing.

<sup>5</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon me, and he told me to say, “This is what the LORD says to the people of Israel: I know what you are saying, for I know every thought that comes into your minds. <sup>6</sup>You have murdered many in this city and filled its streets with the dead.

<sup>7</sup>“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: This city is an iron pot all right, but the pieces of meat are the victims of your injustice. As for you, I will soon drag you from this pot. <sup>8</sup>I will bring on you the sword of war you so greatly fear, says the Sovereign LORD. <sup>9</sup>I will drive you out of Jerusalem and hand you over to foreigners, who will carry out my judgments against you. <sup>10</sup>You will be slaughtered all the way to the borders of Israel. I will execute judgment on you, and you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>11</sup>No, this city will not be an iron pot for you, and you will not be like meat safe inside it. I will judge you even to the borders of Israel, <sup>12</sup>and you will know that I am the LORD. For you have refused to obey my decrees and regulations; instead, you have copied the standards of the nations around you.”

<sup>13</sup>While I was still prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah suddenly died. Then I fell face down on the ground and cried out, “O Sovereign LORD, are you going to kill everyone in

Hope for Exiled Israel

<sup>14</sup>Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>15</sup>“Son of man, the people still left in Jerusalem are talking about you and your relatives and all the people of Israel who are in exile. They are saying, ‘Those people are far away from the LORD, so now he has given their land to us!’

<sup>16</sup>“Therefore, tell the exiles, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Although I have scattered you in the countries of the world, I will be a sanctuary to you during your time in exile. <sup>17</sup>I, the Sovereign LORD, will gather you back from the nations where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel once again.’

<sup>18</sup>“When the people return to their homeland, they will remove every trace of their vile images and detestable idols. <sup>19</sup>And I will give them singleness of heart and put a new spirit within them. I will take away their stony, stubborn heart and give them a tender, responsive heart,* <sup>20</sup>so they will obey my decrees and regulations. Then they will truly be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>21</sup>But as for those who long for vile images and detestable idols, I will repay them fully for their sins. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

The LORD’s Glory Leaves Jerusalem

<sup>22</sup>Then the cherubim lifted their wings and rose into the air with their wheels beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel hovered above them. <sup>23</sup>Then the glory of the LORD went up from the city and stopped above the mountain to the east.

<sup>24</sup>Afterward the Spirit of God carried me back again to Babylonia,* to the people in exile there. And so ended the vision of my visit to Jerusalem.<sup>25</sup>And I told the exiles everything the LORD had shown me.

Ezekiel 12

Signs of the Coming Exile

<sup>1</sup> Again a message came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, you live among rebels who have eyes but refuse to see. They have ears but refuse to hear. For they are a rebellious people.

<sup>3</sup>“So now, son of man, pretend you are being sent into exile. Pack the few items an exile could carry, and leave your home to go somewhere else. Do this right in front of the people so they can see you. For perhaps they will pay attention to this, even though they are such rebels. <sup>4</sup>Bring your baggage outside during the day so they can watch you. Then in the evening, as they are watching, leave your house as captives do when they begin a long march to distant lands. <sup>5</sup>Dig a hole through the wall while they are watching and go out through it. <sup>6</sup>As they watch, lift your pack to your shoulders and walk away into the night. Cover your face so you cannot see the land you are leaving. For I have made you a sign for the people of Israel.”

<sup>7</sup>So I did as I was told. In broad daylight I brought my pack outside, filled with the things I might carry into exile. Then in the evening while the people looked on, I dug through the wall with my hands and went out into the night with my pack on my shoulder.

<sup>8</sup>The next morning this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>9</sup>“Son of man, these rebels, the people of Israel, have asked you what all this means. <sup>10</sup>Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: These actions contain a message for King Zedekiah in Jerusalem* and for all the people of Israel.’

<sup>11</sup>Explain that your actions are a sign to show what will soon happen to them, for they will be driven into exile as captives.

<sup>12</sup>“Even Zedekiah will leave Jerusalem at night through a hole in the wall, taking only what he can carry with him. He will cover his face, and his eyes will not see the land he is leaving.

<sup>13</sup>Then I will throw my net over him and capture him in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Babylonians,* though he will never see it, and he will die there.

<sup>14</sup>I will scatter his servants and warriors to the four winds and send the sword after them. <sup>15</sup>And when I scatter them among the nations, they will know that I am the LORD. <sup>16</sup>But I will spare a few of them from death by war, famine, or disease, so they can confess all their detestable sins to their captors. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>17</sup>Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>18</sup>“Son of man, tremble as you eat your food. Shake with fear as you drink your water. <sup>19</sup>Tell the people, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says concerning those living in Israel and Jerusalem: They will eat their food with trembling and sip their water in despair, for their land will be stripped bare because of their violence. <sup>20</sup>The cities will be destroyed and the farmland made desolate. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’”

A New Proverb for Israel

<sup>21</sup>Again a message came to me from the LORD: <sup>22</sup>“Son of man, you’ve heard that proverb they quote in Israel: ‘Time passes, and prophecies come to nothing.’ <sup>23</sup>Tell the people, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will put an end to this proverb, and you will soon stop quoting it.’ Now give them this new proverb to replace the old one: ‘The time has come for every prophecy to be fulfilled!’

<sup>24</sup>“There will be no more false visions and flattering predictions in Israel. <sup>25</sup>For I am the LORD! If I say it, it will happen. There will be no more delays, you rebels of Israel. I will fulfill my threat of destruction in your own lifetime. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

<sup>26</sup>Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>27</sup>“Son of man, the people of Israel are saying, ‘He’s talking about the distant future. His visions won’t come true for a long, long time.’

<sup>28</sup>Therefore, tell them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: No more delay! I will now do everything I have threatened. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!’”

Ezekiel 13

Judgment against False Prophets

<sup>4</sup>“O people of Israel, these prophets of yours are like jackals digging in the ruins. <sup>5</sup>They have done nothing to repair the breaks in the walls around the nation. They have not helped it to stand firm in battle on the day of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>Instead, they have told lies and made false predictions. They say, ‘This message is from the LORD,’ even though the LORD never sent them. And yet they expect him to fulfill their prophecies! <sup>7</sup>Can your visions be anything but false if you claim, ‘This message is from the LORD,’ when I have not even spoken to you?

<sup>8</sup>“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because what you say is false and your visions are a lie, I will stand against you, says the Sovereign LORD. <sup>9</sup>I will raise my fist against all the prophets who see false visions and make lying predictions, and they will be banished from the community of Israel. I will blot their names from Israel’s record books, and they will never again set foot in their own land. Then you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.

<sup>10</sup> “This will happen because these evil prophets deceive my people by saying, ‘All is peaceful’ when there is no peace at all! It’s as if the people have built a flimsy wall, and these prophets are trying to reinforce it by covering it with whitewash! <sup>11</sup>Tell these whitewashers that their wall will soon fall down. A heavy rainstorm will undermine it; great hailstones and mighty winds will knock it down. <sup>12</sup>And when the wall falls, the people will cry out, ‘What happened to your whitewash?’

<sup>13</sup>“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will sweep away your whitewashed wall with a storm of indignation, with a great flood of anger, and with hailstones of fury. <sup>14</sup>I will break down your wall right to its foundation, and when it falls, it will crush you. Then you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>15</sup>At last my anger against the wall and those who covered it with whitewash will be satisfied. Then I will say to you: ‘The wall and those who whitewashed it are both gone. <sup>16</sup>They were lying prophets who claimed peace would come to Jerusalem when there was no peace. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!’

Judgment against False Women Prophets

<sup>17</sup>“Now, son of man, speak out against the women who prophesy from their own imaginations. <sup>18</sup>This is what the Sovereign LORD says: What sorrow awaits you women who are ensnaring the souls of my people, young and old alike. You tie magic charms on their wrists and furnish them with magic veils. Do you think you can trap others without bringing destruction on yourselves? <sup>19</sup>You bring shame on me among my people for a few handfuls of barley or a piece of bread. By lying to my people who love to listen to lies, you kill those who should not die, and you promise life to those who should not live.

<sup>20</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against all your magic charms, which you use to ensnare my people like birds. I will tear them from your arms, setting my people free like birds set free from a cage. <sup>21</sup>I will tear off the magic veils and save my people from your grasp. They will no longer be your victims. Then you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>22</sup>You have discouraged the righteous with your lies, but I didn’t want them to be sad. And you have encouraged the wicked by promising them life, even though they continue in their sins. <sup>23</sup>Because of all this, you will no longer talk of seeing visions that you never saw, nor will you make predictions. For I will rescue my people from your grasp. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 14

The Idolatry of Israel's Leaders

<sup>1</sup> Then some of the leaders of Israel visited me, and while they were sitting with me, <sup>2</sup>this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>3</sup>“Son of man, these leaders have set up idols* in their hearts. They have embraced things that will make them fall into sin. Why should I listen to their requests? <sup>4</sup>Tell them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The people of Israel have set up idols in their hearts and fallen into sin, and then they go to a prophet asking for a message. So I, the LORD, will give them the kind of answer their great idolatry deserves. <sup>5</sup>I will do this to capture the minds and hearts of all my people who have turned from me to worship their detestable idols.’

<sup>6</sup>“Therefore, tell the people of Israel, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Repent and turn away from your idols, and stop all your detestable sins. <sup>7</sup>I, the LORD, will answer all those, both Israelites and foreigners, who reject me and set up idols in their hearts and so fall into sin, and who then come to a prophet asking for my advice. <sup>8</sup>I will turn against such people and make a terrible example of them, eliminating them from among my people. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“And if a prophet is deceived into giving a message, it is because I, the LORD, have deceived that prophet. I will lift my fist against such prophets and cut them off from the community of Israel. <sup>10</sup>False prophets and those who seek their guidance will all be punished for their sins. <sup>11</sup>In this way, the people of Israel will learn not to stray from me, polluting themselves with sin. They will be my people, and I will be their God. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

The Certainty of the LORD's Judgment

<sup>12</sup>Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>13</sup>“Son of man, suppose the people of a country were to sin against me, and I lifted my fist to crush them, cutting off their food supply and sending a famine to destroy both people and animals. <sup>14</sup>Even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were there, their righteousness would save no one but themselves, says the Sovereign LORD.

<sup>15</sup>“Or suppose I were to send wild animals to invade the country, kill the people, and make the land too desolate and dangerous to pass through. <sup>16</sup>As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, even if those three men were there, they wouldn't be able to save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved, but the land would be made desolate.

<sup>17</sup>“Or suppose I were to bring war against the land, and I sent enemy armies to destroy both people and animals. <sup>18</sup>As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, even if those three men were there, they wouldn't be able to save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved.

<sup>19</sup>“Or suppose I were to pour out my fury by sending an epidemic into the land, and the disease killed people and animals alike. <sup>20</sup>As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were there, they wouldn't be able to save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved by their righteousness.

<sup>21</sup> “Now this is what the Sovereign LORD says: How terrible it will be when all four of these dreadful punishments fall upon Jerusalem—war, famine, wild animals, and disease—destroying all her people and animals.<sup>22</sup> Yet there will be survivors, and they will come here to join you as exiles in Babylon. You will see with your own eyes how wicked they are, and then you will feel better about what I have done to Jerusalem.<sup>23</sup> When you meet them and see their behavior, you will understand that these things are not being done to Israel without cause. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 15

Jerusalem—a Useless Vine

<sup>6</sup>“And this is what the Sovereign LORD says: The people of Jerusalem are like grapevines growing among the trees of the forest. Since they are useless, I have thrown them on the fire to be burned. <sup>7</sup>And I will see to it that if they escape from one fire, they will fall into another. When I turn against them, you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>8</sup>And I will make the land desolate because my people have been unfaithful to me. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 16

Jerusalem—an Unfaithful Wife

<sup>6</sup>“But I came by and saw you there, helplessly kicking about in your own blood. As you lay there, I said, ‘Live!’ <sup>7</sup>And I helped you to thrive like a plant in the field. You grew up and became a beautiful jewel. Your breasts became full, and your body hair grew, but you were still naked. <sup>8</sup>And when I passed by again, I saw that you were old enough for love. So I wrapped my cloak around you to cover your nakedness and declared my marriage vows. I made a covenant with you, says the Sovereign LORD, and you became mine.

<sup>9</sup>“Then I bathed you and washed off your blood, and I rubbed fragrant oils into your skin. <sup>10</sup>I gave you expensive clothing of fine linen and silk, beautifully embroidered, and sandals made of fine goatskin leather. <sup>11</sup>I gave you lovely jewelry, bracelets, beautiful necklaces, <sup>12</sup>a ring for your nose, earrings for your ears, and a lovely crown for your head. <sup>13</sup>And so you were adorned with gold and silver. Your clothes were made of fine linen and were beautifully embroidered. You ate the finest foods—choice flour, honey, and olive oil—and became more beautiful than ever. You looked like a queen, and so you were! <sup>14</sup>Your fame soon spread throughout the world because of your beauty. I dressed you in my splendor and perfected your beauty, says the Sovereign LORD.

<sup>15</sup>“But you thought your fame and beauty were your own. So you gave yourself as a prostitute to every man who came along. Your beauty was theirs for the asking. <sup>16</sup>You used the lovely things I gave you to make shrines for idols, where you played the prostitute. Unbelievable! How could such a thing ever happen? <sup>17</sup>You took the very jewels and gold and silver ornaments I had given you and made statues of men and worshiped them. This is adultery against me! <sup>18</sup>You used the beautifully embroidered clothes I gave you to dress your idols. Then you used my special oil and my incense to worship them. <sup>19</sup>Imagine it! You set before them as a sacrifice the choice flour, olive oil, and honey I had given you, says the Sovereign LORD.

<sup>20</sup>“Then you took your sons and daughters—the children you had borne to me—and sacrificed them to your gods. Was your prostitution not enough? <sup>21</sup>Must you also slaughter my children by sacrificing them to idols? <sup>22</sup>In all your years of adultery and detestable sin, you have not once remembered the days long ago when you lay naked in a field, kicking about in your own blood.

<sup>23</sup>“What sorrow awaits you, says the Sovereign LORD. In addition to all your other wickedness, <sup>24</sup>you built a pagan shrine and put altars to idols in every town square. <sup>25</sup>On every street corner you defiled your beauty, offering your body to every passerby in an endless stream of prostitution. <sup>26</sup>Then you added lustful Egypt to your lovers, provoking my anger with your increasing promiscuity. <sup>27</sup>That is why I struck you with my fist and reduced your boundaries. I handed you over to your enemies, the Philistines, and even they were shocked by your lewd conduct. <sup>28</sup>You have prostituted yourself with the Assyrians, too. It seems you can never find enough new lovers! And after your prostitution there, you still were not satisfied. <sup>29</sup>You added to your lovers by embracing Babylonia, the land of merchants, but you still weren’t satisfied.

<sup>30</sup>“What a sick heart you have, says the Sovereign LORD, to do such things as these, acting like a shameless prostitute. <sup>31</sup>You build your pagan shrines on every street corner and your altars to idols in every square. In fact, you have been worse than a prostitute, so eager for sin that you have not even demanded payment. <sup>32</sup>Yes, you are an adulterous wife who takes in strangers instead of her own husband. <sup>33</sup>Prostitutes charge for their services—but not you! You give gifts to your lovers, bribing them to come and have sex with you. <sup>34</sup>So you are the opposite of other prostitutes. You pay your lovers instead of their paying you!

Judgment on Jerusalem’s Prostitution

LORD! <sup>36</sup>This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you have poured out your lust and exposed yourself in prostitution to all your lovers, and because you have worshiped detestable idols,* and because you have slaughtered your children as sacrifices to your gods, <sup>37</sup>this is what I am going to do. I will gather together all your allies—the lovers with whom you have sinned, both those you loved and those you hated—and I will strip you naked in front of them so they can stare at you. <sup>38</sup>I will punish you for your murder and adultery. I will cover you with blood in my jealous fury. <sup>39</sup>Then I will give you to these many nations who are your lovers, and they will destroy you. They will knock down your pagan shrines and the altars to your idols. They will strip you and take your beautiful jewels, leaving you stark naked. <sup>40</sup>They will band together in a mob to stone you and cut you up with swords. <sup>41</sup>They will burn your homes and punish you in front of many women. I will stop your prostitution and end your payments to your many lovers.

<sup>42</sup>“Then at last my fury against you will be spent, and my jealous anger will subside. I will be calm and will not be angry with you anymore. <sup>43</sup>But first, because you have not remembered your youth but have angered me by doing all these evil things, I will fully repay you for all of your sins, says the Sovereign LORD. For you have added lewd acts to all your detestable sins. <sup>44</sup>Everyone who makes up proverbs will say of you, ‘Like mother, like daughter.’ <sup>45</sup>For your mother loathed her husband and her children, and so do you. And you are exactly like your sisters, for they despised their husbands and their children. Truly your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

<sup>51</sup>“Even Samaria did not commit half your sins. You have done far more detestable things than your sisters ever did. They seem righteous compared to you.<sup>52</sup> Shame on you! Your sins are so terrible that you make your sisters seem righteous, even virtuous.

<sup>53</sup>“But someday I will restore the fortunes of Sodom and Samaria, and I will restore you, too.<sup>54</sup> Then you will be truly ashamed of everything you have done, for your sins make them feel good in comparison.<sup>55</sup> Yes, your sisters, Sodom and Samaria, and all their people will be restored, and at that time you also will be restored.<sup>56</sup> In your proud days you held Sodom in contempt.<sup>57</sup> But now your greater wickedness has been exposed to all the world, and you are the one who is scorned—by Edom* and all her neighbors and by Philistia.<sup>58</sup> This is your punishment for all your lewdness and detestable sins, says the LORD.

what you deserve, for you have taken your solemn vows lightly by breaking your covenant.<sup>60</sup> Yet I will remember the covenant I made with you when you were young, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you.<sup>61</sup> Then you will remember with shame all the evil you have done. I will make your sisters, Samaria and Sodom, to be your daughters, even though they are not part of our covenant.<sup>62</sup> And I will reaffirm my covenant with you, and you will know that I am the LORD.<sup>63</sup> You will remember your sins and cover your mouth in silent shame when I forgive you of all that you have done. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

A Story of Two Eagles

<sup>1</sup> Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, give this riddle, and tell this story to the people of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Give them this message from the Sovereign LORD:

“A great eagle with broad wings and long feathers, covered with many-colored plumage, came to Lebanon.

He seized the top of a cedar tree

<sup>4</sup>and plucked off its highest branch.

He carried it away to a city filled with merchants.

He planted it in a city of traders.

<sup>5</sup>He also took a seedling from the land and planted it in fertile soil.

He placed it beside a broad river,
where it could grow like a willow tree.

<sup>6</sup>It took root there and grew into a low, spreading vine.

Its branches turned up toward the eagle,
and its roots grew down into the ground.

It produced strong branches and put out shoots.

<sup>7</sup>But then another great eagle came with broad wings and full plumage.

So the vine now sent its roots and branches toward him for water, <sup>8</sup>even though it was already planted in good soil and had plenty of water

so it could grow into a splendid vine and produce rich leaves and luscious fruit.

<sup>9</sup>“So now the Sovereign LORD asks:
Will this vine grow and prosper?
No! I will pull it up, roots and all!
I will cut off its fruit
and let its leaves wither and die.
I will pull it up easily without a strong arm or a large army.
<sup>10</sup>But when the vine is transplanted, will it thrive?
No, it will wither away
when the east wind blows against it.
It will die in the same good soil where it had grown so well.”

The Riddle Explained

<sup>11</sup>Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>12</sup>“Say to these rebels of Israel: Don’t you understand the meaning of this riddle of the eagles? The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, took away her king and princes, and brought them to Babylon. <sup>13</sup>He made a treaty with a member of the royal family and forced him to take an oath of loyalty. He also exiled Israel’s most influential leaders, <sup>14</sup>so Israel would not become strong again and revolt. Only by keeping her treaty with Babylon could Israel survive.

<sup>15</sup>“Nevertheless, this man of Israel’s royal family rebelled against Babylon, sending ambassadors to Egypt to request a great army and many horses. Can Israel break her sworn treaties like that and get away with it? <sup>16</sup>No! For as surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, the king of Israel will die in Babylon, the land of the king who put him in power and whose treaty he disregarded and broke. <sup>17</sup>Pharaoh and all his mighty army will fail to help Israel when the king of Babylon lays siege to Jerusalem again and destroys many lives. <sup>18</sup>For the king of Israel disregarded his treaty and broke it after swearing to obey; therefore, he will not escape.

<sup>19</sup>“So this is what the Sovereign LORD says: As surely as I live, I will punish him for breaking my covenant and disregarding the solemn oath he made in my name. <sup>20</sup>I will throw my net over him and capture him in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon and put him on trial for this treason against me. <sup>21</sup>And all his best warriors* will be killed in battle, and those who survive will be scattered to the four winds. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>22</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will take a branch from the top of a tall cedar, and I will plant it on the top of Israel’s highest mountain. <sup>23</sup>It will become a majestic cedar, sending forth its branches and producing seed. Birds of every sort will nest in it, finding shelter in the shade of its branches. <sup>24</sup>And all the trees will know that it is I, the LORD, who cuts the tall tree down and makes the short tree grow tall. It is I who makes the green tree wither and gives the dead tree new life. I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do what I said!”

Ezekiel 18

The Justice of a Righteous God

<sup>1</sup>Then another message came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Why do you quote this proverb concerning the land of Israel: ‘The parents have eaten sour grapes, but their children’s mouths pucker at the taste’? <sup>3</sup>As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, you will not quote this proverb anymore in Israel. <sup>4</sup>For all people are mine to judge—both parents and children alike. And this is my rule: The person who sins is the one who will die.

<sup>10</sup>“But suppose that man has a son who grows up to be a robber or murderer and refuses to do what is right. <sup>11</sup>And that son does all the evil things his father would never do—he worships idols on the mountains, commits adultery, <sup>12</sup>oppresses the poor and helpless, steals from debtors by refusing to let them redeem their security, worships idols, commits detestable sins,<sup>13</sup> and lends money at excessive interest. Should such a sinful person live? No! He must die and must take full blame.

<sup>14</sup>“But suppose that sinful son, in turn, has a son who sees his father’s wickedness and decides against that kind of life. <sup>15</sup>This son refuses to worship idols on the mountains and does not commit adultery. <sup>16</sup>He does not exploit the poor, but instead is fair to debtors and does not rob them. He gives food to the hungry and provides clothes for the needy. <sup>17</sup>He helps the poor,* does not lend money at interest, and obeys all my regulations and decrees. Such a person will not die because of his father’s sins; he will surely live. <sup>18</sup>But the father will die for his many sins—for being cruel, robbing people, and doing what was clearly wrong among his people.

<sup>19</sup>“What?” you ask. ‘Doesn’t the child pay for the parent’s sins?’ No! For if the child does what is just and right and keeps my decrees, that child will surely live. <sup>20</sup>The person who sins is the one who will die. The child will not be punished for the parent’s sins, and the parent will not be punished for the child’s sins. Righteous people will be rewarded for their own righteous behavior, and wicked people will be punished for their own wickedness. <sup>21</sup>But if wicked people turn away from all their sins and begin to obey my decrees and do what is just and right, they will surely live and not die. <sup>22</sup>All their past sins will be forgotten, and they will live because of the righteous things they have done.

Sovereign LORD. Of course not! I want them to turn from their wicked ways and live.<sup>24</sup> However, if righteous people turn from their righteous behavior and start doing sinful things and act like other sinners, should they be allowed to live? No, of course not! All their righteous acts will be forgotten, and they will die for their sins.

<sup>25</sup>“Yet you say, ‘The Lord isn’t doing what’s right!’ Listen to me, O people of Israel. Am I the one not doing what’s right, or is it you? <sup>26</sup>When righteous people turn from their righteous behavior and start doing sinful things, they will die for it. Yes, they will die because of their sinful deeds. <sup>27</sup>And if wicked people turn from their wickedness, obey the law, and do what is just and right, they will save their lives. <sup>28</sup>They will live because they thought it over and decided to turn from their sins. Such people will not die. <sup>29</sup>And yet the people of Israel keep saying, ‘The Lord isn’t doing what’s right!’ O people of Israel, it is you who are not doing what’s right, not I.

<sup>30</sup> “Therefore, I will judge each of you, O people of Israel, according to your actions, says the Sovereign LORD. Repent, and turn from your sins. Don’t let them destroy you! <sup>31</sup>Put all your rebellion behind you, and find yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. For why should you die, O people of Israel? <sup>32</sup>I don’t want you to die, says the Sovereign LORD. Turn back and live!

Ezekiel 19

A Funeral Song for Israel's Kings

A lioness among lions!

She lay down among the young lions and reared her cubs.

<sup>3</sup>She raised one of her cubs to become a strong young lion.

He learned to hunt and devour prey,
and he became a man-eater.

<sup>4</sup>Then the nations heard about him,
and he was trapped in their pit.

They led him away with hooks to the land of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>“When the lioness saw that her hopes for him were gone, she took another of her cubs and taught him to be a strong young lion.

<sup>6</sup>He prowled among the other lions and stood out among them in his strength.
He learned to hunt and devour prey,
and he, too, became a man-eater.

<sup>7</sup>He demolished fortresses* and destroyed their towns and cities.

Their farms were desolated,
and their crops were destroyed.
The land and its people trembled in fear
when they heard him roar.

<sup>8</sup>Then the armies of the nations attacked him, surrounding him from every direction.
They threw a net over him
and captured him in their pit.

<sup>9</sup>With hooks, they dragged him into a cage and brought him before the king of Babylon.
They held him in captivity,
so his voice could never again be heard on the mountains of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>“Your mother was like a vine planted by the water’s edge.
It had lush, green foliage
because of the abundant water.

<sup>11</sup>Its branches became strong—strong enough to be a ruler’s scepter.
It grew very tall,
towering above all others.
It stood out because of its height and its many lush branches.

<sup>12</sup>But the vine was uprooted in fury and thrown down to the ground.
The desert wind dried up its fruit and tore off its strong branches,

so that it withered
and was destroyed by fire.

<sup>13</sup>Now the vine is transplanted to the wilderness, where the ground is hard and dry.

<sup>14</sup>A fire has burst out from its branches and devoured its fruit.

Its remaining limbs are not strong enough to be a ruler's scepter.

“This is a funeral song, and it will be used in a funeral.”

Ezekiel 20

The Rebellion of Israel

<sup>4</sup>“Son of man, bring charges against them and condemn them. Make them realize how detestable the sins of their ancestors really were. <sup>5</sup>Give them this message from the Sovereign LORD: When I chose Israel—when I revealed myself to the descendants of Jacob in Egypt—I took a solemn oath that I, the LORD, would be their God. <sup>6</sup>I took a solemn oath that day that I would bring them out of Egypt to a land I had discovered and explored for them—a good land, a land flowing with milk and honey, the best of all lands anywhere. <sup>7</sup>Then I said to them, ‘Each of you, get rid of the vile images you are so obsessed with. Do not defile yourselves with the idols* of Egypt, for I am the LORD your God.’

<sup>8</sup>“But they rebelled against me and would not listen. They did not get rid of the vile images they were obsessed with, or forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I threatened to pour out my fury on them to satisfy my anger while they were still in Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>But I didn't do it, for I acted to protect the honor of my name. I would not allow shame to be brought on my name among the surrounding nations who saw me reveal myself by bringing the Israelites out of Egypt. <sup>10</sup>So I brought them out of Egypt and led them into the wilderness. <sup>11</sup>There I gave them my decrees and regulations so they could find life by keeping them. <sup>12</sup>And I gave them my Sabbath days of rest as a sign between them and me. It was to remind them that I am the LORD, who had set them apart to be holy.

<sup>13</sup>“But the people of Israel rebelled against me, and they refused to obey my decrees there in the wilderness. They wouldn't obey my regulations even though obedience would have given them life. They also violated my Sabbath days. So I threatened to pour out my fury on them, and I made plans to utterly consume them in the wilderness. <sup>14</sup>But again I held back in order to protect the honor of my name before the nations who had seen my power in bringing Israel out of Egypt. <sup>15</sup>But I took a solemn oath against them in the wilderness. I swore I would not bring them into the land I had given them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful place on earth. <sup>16</sup>For they had rejected my regulations, refused to follow my decrees, and violated my Sabbath days. Their hearts were given to their idols. <sup>17</sup>Nevertheless, I took pity on them and held back from destroying them in the wilderness.

sign to remind you that I am the LORD your God.’

<sup>21</sup>“But their children, too, rebelled against me. They refused to keep my decrees and follow my regulations, even though obedience would have given them life. And they also violated my Sabbath days. So again I threatened to pour out my fury on them in the wilderness. <sup>22</sup>Nevertheless, I withdrew my judgment against them to protect the honor of my name before the nations that had seen my power in bringing them out of Egypt. <sup>23</sup>But I took a solemn oath against them in the wilderness. I swore I would scatter them among all the nations <sup>24</sup>because they did not obey my regulations. They scorned my decrees by violating my Sabbath days and longing for the idols of their ancestors. <sup>25</sup>I gave them over to worthless decrees and regulations that would not lead to life. <sup>26</sup>I let them pollute themselves* with the very gifts I had given them, and I allowed them to give their firstborn children as offerings to their gods—so I might devastate them and remind them that I alone am the LORD.

Judgment and Restoration

<sup>27</sup>“Therefore, son of man, give the people of Israel this message from the Sovereign LORD: Your ancestors continued to blaspheme and betray me, <sup>28</sup>for when I brought them into the land I had promised them, they offered sacrifices on every high hill and under every green tree they saw! They roused my fury as they offered up sacrifices to their gods. They brought their perfumes and incense and poured out their liquid offerings to them. <sup>29</sup>I said to them, ‘What is this high place where you are going?’ (This kind of pagan shrine has been called Bamah —‘high place’—ever since.)

<sup>30</sup>“Therefore, give the people of Israel this message from the Sovereign LORD: Do you plan to pollute yourselves just as your ancestors did? Do you intend to keep prostituting yourselves by worshiping vile images? <sup>31</sup>For when you offer gifts to them and give your little children to be burned as sacrifices, you continue to pollute yourselves with idols to this day. Should I allow you to ask for a message from me, O people of Israel? As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, I will tell you nothing.

<sup>32</sup>“You say, ‘We want to be like the nations all around us, who serve idols of wood and stone.’ But what you have in mind will never happen. <sup>33</sup>As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, I will rule over you with an iron fist in great anger and with awesome power. <sup>34</sup>And in anger I will reach out with my strong hand and powerful arm, and I will bring you back from the lands where you are scattered. <sup>35</sup>I will bring you into the wilderness of the nations, and there I will judge you face to face. <sup>36</sup>I will judge you there just as I did your ancestors in the wilderness after bringing them out of Egypt, says the Sovereign LORD. <sup>37</sup>I will examine you carefully and hold you to the terms of the covenant. <sup>38</sup>I will purge you of all those who rebel and revolt against me. I will bring them out of the countries where they are in exile, but they will never enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

holy name by worshiping idols. <sup>40</sup>For on my holy mountain, the great mountain of Israel, says the Sovereign LORD, the people of Israel will someday worship me, and I will accept them. There I will require that you bring me all your offerings and choice gifts and sacrifices. <sup>41</sup>When I bring you home from exile, you will be like a pleasing sacrifice to me. And I will display my holiness through you as all the nations watch. <sup>42</sup>Then when I have brought you home to the land I promised with a solemn oath to give to your ancestors, you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>43</sup>You will look back on all the ways you defiled yourselves and will hate yourselves because of the evil you have done. <sup>44</sup>You will know that I am the LORD, O people of Israel, when I have honored my name by treating you mercifully in spite of your wickedness. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Judgment against the Negev

<sup>45</sup>*Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>46</sup>“Son of man, turn and face the south* and speak out against it; prophesy against the brushlands of the Negev. <sup>47</sup>Tell the southern wilderness, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Hear the word of the LORD! I will set you on fire, and every tree, both green and dry, will be burned. The terrible flames will not be quenched and will scorch everything from south to north. <sup>48</sup>And everyone in the world will see that I, the LORD, have set this fire. It will not be put out.’”

<sup>49</sup>Then I said, “O Sovereign LORD, they are saying of me, ‘He only talks in riddles!’”

Ezekiel 21

The LORD's Sword of Judgment

<sup>1</sup>*Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, turn and face Jerusalem and prophesy against Israel and her sanctuaries. <sup>3</sup>Tell her, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am your enemy, O Israel, and I am about to unsheath my sword to destroy your people—the righteous and the wicked alike. <sup>4</sup>Yes, I will cut off both the righteous and the wicked! I will draw my sword against everyone in the land from south to north. <sup>5</sup>Everyone in the world will know that I am the LORD. My sword is in my hand, and it will not return to its sheath until its work is finished.’”

<sup>6</sup>“Son of man, groan before the people! Groan before them with bitter anguish and a broken heart. <sup>7</sup>When they ask why you are groaning, tell them, ‘I groan because of the terrifying news I have heard. When it comes true, the boldest heart will melt with fear; all strength will disappear. Every spirit will faint; strong knees will become as weak as water. And the Sovereign LORD says: It is coming! It’s on its way!’”

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD said to me, <sup>9</sup>“Son of man, give the people this message from the Lord:

“A sword, a sword
is being sharpened and polished.

<sup>10</sup>It is sharpened for terrible slaughter and polished to flash like lightning!

Now will you laugh?

Those far stronger than you have fallen beneath its power!*

<sup>11</sup>Yes, the sword is now being sharpened and polished;
it is being prepared for the executioner.

<sup>12</sup>“Son of man, cry out and wail;
pound your thighs in anguish, for that sword will slaughter my people and their leaders—everyone will die!

<sup>13</sup>It will put them all to the test.
What chance do they have?*

says the Sovereign LORD.

<sup>14</sup>“Son of man, prophesy to them and clap your hands.
Then take the sword and brandish it twice,
even three times,
to symbolize the great massacre,
the great massacre facing them on every side.

<sup>15</sup>Let their hearts melt with terror,
for the sword glitters at every gate.
It flashes like lightning and is polished for slaughter!

<sup>16</sup>O sword, slash to the right, then slash to the left,
wherever you will,
wherever you want.

<sup>17</sup>I, too, will clap my hands, and I will satisfy my fury.

I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Omens for Babylon’s King

<sup>18</sup>Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>19</sup>“Son of man, make a map and trace two routes on it for the sword of Babylon’s king to follow. Put a signpost on the road that comes out of Babylon where the road forks into two—<sup>20</sup>one road going to Ammon and its capital, Rabbah, and the other to Judah and fortified Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>The king of Babylon now stands at the fork, uncertain whether to attack Jerusalem or Rabbah. He calls his magicians to look for omens. They cast lots by shaking arrows from the quiver. They inspect the livers of animal sacrifices. <sup>22</sup>The omen in his right hand says, ‘Jerusalem!’ With battering rams his soldiers will go against the gates, shouting for the kill. They will put up siege towers and build ramps against the walls. <sup>23</sup>The people of Jerusalem will think it is a false omen, because of their treaty with the Babylonians. But the king of Babylon will remind the people of their rebellion. Then he will attack and capture them.

<sup>24</sup>“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Again and again you remind me of your sin and your guilt. You don’t even try to hide it! In everything you do, your sins are obvious for all to see. So now the time of your punishment has come!

“Take off your jeweled crown,

for the old order changes.
Now the lowly will be exalted,
and the mighty will be brought down.
<sup>27</sup>Destruction! Destruction!
I will surely destroy the kingdom.
And it will not be restored until the one appears who has the right to judge it.
Then I will hand it over to him.

A Message for the Ammonites

<sup>28</sup>“And now, son of man, prophesy concerning the Ammonites and their mockery. Give them this message from the Sovereign LORD:

“A sword, a sword
is drawn for your slaughter.
It is polished to destroy,
flashing like lightning!
<sup>29</sup>Your prophets have given false visions, and your fortune-tellers have told lies.
The sword will fall on the necks of the wicked for whom the day of final reckoning has come.

<sup>30</sup>“Now return the sword to its sheath, for in your own country,
the land of your birth,
I will pass judgment upon you.
<sup>31</sup>I will pour out my fury on you and blow on you with the fire of my anger.

I will hand you over to cruel men who are skilled in destruction.

<sup>32</sup>You will be fuel for the fire, and your blood will be spilled in your own land.
You will be utterly wiped out,
your memory lost to history,
for I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 22

The Sins of Jerusalem

<sup>6</sup>“Every leader in Israel who lives within your walls is bent on murder. <sup>7</sup>Fathers and mothers are treated with contempt. Foreigners are forced to pay for protection. Orphans and widows are wronged and oppressed among you. <sup>8</sup>You despise my holy things and violate my Sabbath days of rest. <sup>9</sup>People accuse others falsely and send them to their death. You are filled with idol worshipers and people who do obscene things. <sup>10</sup>Men sleep with their fathers’ wives and have intercourse with women who are menstruating. <sup>11</sup>Within your walls live men who commit adultery with their neighbors’ wives, who defile their daughters-in-law, or who rape their own sisters. <sup>12</sup>There are hired murderers, loan racketeers, and extortioners everywhere. They never even think of me and my commands, says the Sovereign LORD.

<sup>13</sup>“But now I clap my hands in indignation over your dishonest gain and bloodshed. <sup>14</sup>How strong and courageous will you be in my day of reckoning? I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do what I said. <sup>15</sup>I will scatter you among the nations and purge you of your wickedness. <sup>16</sup>And when I have been dishonored among the nations because of you, * you will know that I am the LORD.”

The LORD's Refining Furnace

<sup>17</sup>Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>18</sup>“Son of man, the people of Israel are the worthless slag that remains after silver is smelted. They are the dross that is left over—a useless mixture of copper, tin, iron, and lead. <sup>19</sup>So tell them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you are all worthless slag, I will bring you to my crucible in Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>Just as copper, iron, lead, and tin are melted down in a furnace, I will melt you down in the heat of my fury. <sup>21</sup>I will gather you together and blow the fire of my anger upon you, <sup>22</sup>and you will melt like silver in fierce heat. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out my fury on you.’”

The Sins of Israel's Leaders

<sup>23</sup>Again a message came to me from the LORD: <sup>24</sup>“Son of man, give the people of Israel this message: In the day of my indignation, you will be like a polluted land, a land without rain. <sup>25</sup>Your princes * plot conspiracies just as lions stalk their prey.

They devour innocent people, seizing treasures and extorting wealth. They make many widows in the land.<sup>26</sup>Your priests have violated my instructions and defiled my holy things. They make no distinction between what is holy and what is not. And they do not teach my people the difference between what is ceremonially clean and unclean. They disregard my Sabbath days so that I am dishonored among them.<sup>27</sup>Your leaders are like wolves who tear apart their victims. They actually destroy people's lives for money!<sup>28</sup>And your prophets cover up for them by announcing false visions and making lying predictions. They say, 'My message is from the Sovereign LORD,' when the LORD hasn't spoken a single word to them.<sup>29</sup>Even common people oppress the poor, rob the needy, and deprive foreigners of justice.

<sup>30</sup>"I looked for someone who might rebuild the wall of righteousness that guards the land. I searched for someone to stand in the gap in the wall so I wouldn't have to destroy the land, but I found no one.<sup>31</sup>So now I will pour out my fury on them, consuming them with the fire of my anger. I will heap on their heads the full penalty for all their sins. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!"

The Adultery of Two Sisters

<sup>5</sup>“Then Oholah lusted after other lovers instead of me, and she gave her love to the Assyrian officers. <sup>6</sup>They were all attractive young men, captains and commanders dressed in handsome blue, charioteers driving their horses. <sup>7</sup>And so she prostituted herself with the most desirable men of Assyria, worshiping their idols* and defiling herself. <sup>8</sup>For when she left Egypt, she did not leave her spirit of prostitution behind. She was still as lewd as in her youth, when the Egyptians slept with her, fondled her breasts, and used her as a prostitute.

<sup>9</sup>“And so I handed her over to her Assyrian lovers, whom she desired so much. <sup>10</sup>They stripped her, took away her children as their slaves, and then killed her. After she received her punishment, her reputation was known to every woman in the land.

<sup>11</sup>“Yet even though Oholibah saw what had happened to Oholah, her sister, she followed right in her footsteps. And she was even more depraved, abandoning herself to her lust and prostitution.<sup>12</sup> She fawned over all the Assyrian officers—those captains and commanders in handsome uniforms, those charioteers driving their horses—all of them attractive young men.<sup>13</sup> I saw the way she was going, defiling herself just like her older sister.

<sup>18</sup>“In the same way, I became disgusted with Oholibah and rejected her, just as I had rejected her sister, because she flaunted herself before them and gave herself to satisfy their lusts.<sup>19</sup> Yet she turned to even greater prostitution, remembering her youth when she was a prostitute in Egypt.<sup>20</sup> She lusted after lovers with genitals as large as a donkey’s and emissions like those of a horse.<sup>21</sup> And so, Oholibah, you relived your former days as a young girl in Egypt, when you first allowed your breasts to be fondled.

The LORD’s Judgment of Oholibah

will send your lovers against you from every direction—those very nations from which you turned away in disgust.<sup>23</sup>For the Babylonians will come with all the Chaldeans from Pekod and Shoa and Koa. And all the Assyrians will come with them—handsome young captains, commanders, chariot officers, and other high-ranking officers, all riding their horses.<sup>24</sup>They will all come against you from the north* with chariots, wagons, and a great army prepared for attack. They will take up positions on every side, surrounding you with men armed with shields and helmets. And I will hand you over to them for punishment so they can do with you as they please.<sup>25</sup>I will turn my jealous anger against you, and they will deal harshly with you. They will cut off your nose and ears, and any survivors will then be slaughtered by the sword. Your children will be taken away as captives, and everything that is left will be burned.<sup>26</sup>They will strip you of your beautiful clothes and jewels.<sup>27</sup>In this way, I will put a stop to the lewdness and prostitution you brought from Egypt. You will never again cast longing eyes on those things or fondly remember your time in Egypt.

<sup>28</sup>“For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will surely hand you over to your enemies, to those you loathe, those you rejected.<sup>29</sup>They will treat you with hatred and rob you of all you own, leaving you stark naked. The shame of your prostitution will be exposed to all the world.<sup>30</sup>You brought all this on yourself by prostituting yourself to other nations, defiling yourself with all their idols.<sup>31</sup>Because you have followed in your sister’s footsteps, I will force you to drink the same cup of terror she drank.

<sup>32</sup>“Yes, this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“You will drink from your sister’s cup of terror,
a cup that is large and deep.

It is filled to the brim with scorn and derision.

<sup>33</sup>Drunkenness and anguish will fill you, for your cup is filled to the brim with distress and desolation,
the same cup your sister Samaria drank.

<sup>34</sup>You will drain that cup of terror to the very bottom.
Then you will smash it to pieces and beat your breast in anguish.
I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!

<sup>35</sup>“And because you have forgotten me and turned your back on me, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: You must bear the consequences of all your lewdness and prostitution.”

The LORD’s Judgment on Both Sisters

<sup>36</sup>The LORD said to me, “Son of man, you must accuse Oholah and Oholibah of all their detestable sins.”<sup>37</sup>They have committed both adultery and murder—adultery by worshiping idols and murder by burning as sacrifices the children they bore to me.<sup>38</sup>Furthermore, they have defiled my Temple and violated my Sabbath day!<sup>39</sup>On the very day that they sacrificed their children to their idols, they boldly came into my Temple to worship! They came in and defiled my house.

<sup>40</sup>“You sisters sent messengers to distant lands to get men. Then when they arrived, you bathed yourselves, painted your eyelids, and put on your finest jewels for them. <sup>41</sup>You sat with them on a beautifully embroidered couch and put my incense and my special oil on a table that was spread before you. <sup>42</sup>From your room came the sound of many men carousing. They were lustful men and drunkards* from the wilderness, who put bracelets on your wrists and beautiful crowns on your heads. <sup>43</sup>Then I said, ‘If they really want to have sex with old worn-out prostitutes like these, let them!’ <sup>44</sup>And that is what they did. They had sex with Oholah and Oholibah, these shameless prostitutes. <sup>45</sup>But righteous people will judge these sister cities for what they really are—adulterers and murderers.

The Sign of the Cooking Pot

“Put a pot on the fire,
and pour in some water.

<sup>4</sup>Fill it with choice pieces of meat—
the rump and the shoulder and all the most tender cuts.

<sup>5</sup>Use only the best sheep from the flock,
and heap fuel on the fire beneath the pot.
Bring the pot to a boil,
and cook the bones along with the meat.

<sup>6</sup>“Now this is what the Sovereign LORD says:
What sorrow awaits Jerusalem,
the city of murderers!
She is a cooking pot
whose corruption can't be cleaned out.
Take the meat out in random order,
for no piece is better than another.
<sup>7</sup>For the blood of her murders is splashed on the rocks.

It isn't even spilled on the ground,
where the dust could cover it!
<sup>8</sup>So I will splash her blood on a rock for all to see,
an expression of my anger
and vengeance against her.

<sup>9</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says:
What sorrow awaits Jerusalem,
the city of murderers!
I myself will pile up the fuel beneath her.

<sup>10</sup>Yes, heap on the wood!
Let the fire roar to make the pot boil.
Cook the meat with many spices,
and afterward burn the bones.

<sup>11</sup>Now set the empty pot on the coals.
Heat it red hot!
Burn away the filth and corruption.

<sup>12</sup>But it's hopeless;
the corruption can't be cleaned out.
So throw it into the fire.

<sup>13</sup>Your impurity is your lewdness and the corruption of your idolatry.
I tried to cleanse you,
but you refused.
So now you will remain in your filth until my fury against you has been satisfied.

<sup>14</sup>“I, the LORD, have spoken! The time has come, and I won’t hold back. I will not change my mind, and I will have no pity on you. You will be judged on the basis of all your wicked actions, says the Sovereign LORD.”

The Death of Ezekiel’s Wife

<sup>15</sup>Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>16</sup>“Son of man, with one blow I will take away your dearest treasure. Yet you must not show any sorrow at her death. Do not weep; let there be no tears. <sup>17</sup>Groan silently, but let there be no wailing at her grave. Do not uncover your head or take off your sandals. Do not perform the usual rituals of mourning or accept any food brought to you by consoling friends.”

<sup>18</sup>So I proclaimed this to the people the next morning, and in the evening my wife died. The next morning I did everything I had been told to do. <sup>19</sup>Then the people asked, “What does all this mean? What are you trying to tell us?”

<sup>20</sup>So I said to them, “A message came to me from the LORD, <sup>21</sup>and I was told to give this message to the people of Israel. This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will defile my Temple, the source of your security and pride, the place your heart delights in. Your sons and daughters whom you left behind in Judea will be slaughtered by the sword. <sup>22</sup>Then you will do as Ezekiel has done. You will not mourn in public or console yourselves by eating the food brought by friends. <sup>23</sup>Your heads will remain covered, and your sandals will not be taken off. You will not mourn or weep, but you will waste away because of your sins. You will mourn privately for all the evil you have done. <sup>24</sup>Ezekiel is an example for you; you will do just as he has done. And when that time comes, you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.”

<sup>25</sup> Then the LORD said to me, “Son of man, on the day I take away their stronghold—their joy and glory, their heart’s desire, their dearest treasure—I will also take away their sons and daughters. <sup>26</sup>And on that day a survivor from Jerusalem will come to you in Babylon and tell you what has happened. <sup>27</sup>And when he arrives, your voice will suddenly return so you can talk to him, and you will be a symbol for these people. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 25

A Message for Ammon

<sup>1</sup>Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, turn and face the land of Ammon and prophesy against its people. <sup>3</sup>Give the Ammonites this message from the Sovereign LORD: Hear the word of the Sovereign LORD! Because you cheered when my Temple was defiled, mocked Israel in her desolation, and laughed at Judah as she went away into exile, <sup>4</sup>I will allow nomads from the eastern deserts to overrun your country. They will set up their camps among you and pitch their tents on your land. They will harvest all your fruit and drink the milk from your livestock. <sup>5</sup>And I will turn the city of Rabbah into a pasture for camels, and all the land of the Ammonites into a resting place for sheep and goats. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you clapped and danced and cheered with glee at the destruction of my people, <sup>7</sup>I will raise my fist of judgment against you. I will give you as plunder to many nations. I will cut you off from being a nation and destroy you completely. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

A Message for Moab

<sup>8</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because the people of Moab have said that Judah is just like all the other nations, <sup>9</sup>I will open up their eastern flank and wipe out their glorious frontier towns—Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim.<sup>10</sup> And I will hand Moab over to nomads from the eastern deserts, just as I handed over Ammon. Yes, the Ammonites will no longer be counted among the nations.<sup>11</sup> In the same way, I will bring my judgment down on the Moabites. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

A Message for Edom

<sup>12</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The people of Edom have sinned greatly by avenging themselves against the people of Judah.<sup>13</sup> Therefore, says the Sovereign LORD, I will raise my fist of judgment against Edom. I will wipe out its people and animals with the sword. I will make a wasteland of everything from Teman to Dedan.<sup>14</sup> I will accomplish this by the hand of my people of Israel. They will carry out my vengeance with anger, and Edom will know that this vengeance is from me. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!

A Message for Philistia

<sup>15</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The people of Philistia have acted against Judah out of bitter revenge and longstanding contempt.<sup>16</sup> Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will raise my fist of judgment against the land of the Philistines. I will wipe out the Kerethites and utterly destroy the people who live by the sea.<sup>17</sup> I will execute terrible vengeance against them to punish them for what they have done. And when I have inflicted my revenge, they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 26

A Message for Tyre

<sup>1</sup> On February 3, during the twelfth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity,* this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, Tyre has rejoiced over the fall of Jerusalem, saying, ‘Ha! She who was the gateway to the rich trade routes to the east has been broken, and I am the heir! Because she has been made desolate, I will become wealthy!’

<sup>3</sup>“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am your enemy, O Tyre, and I will bring many nations against you, like the waves of the sea crashing against your shoreline. <sup>4</sup>They will destroy the walls of Tyre and tear down its towers. I will scrape away its soil and make it a bare rock! <sup>5</sup>It will be just a rock in the sea, a place for fishermen to spread their nets, for I have spoken, says the Sovereign LORD. Tyre will become the prey of many nations, <sup>6</sup>and its mainland villages will be destroyed by the sword. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: From the north I will bring King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon against Tyre. He is king of kings and brings his horses, chariots, charioteers, and great army. <sup>8</sup>First he will destroy your mainland villages. Then he will attack you by building a siege wall, constructing a ramp, and raising a roof of shields against you. <sup>9</sup>He will pound your walls with battering rams and demolish your towers with sledgehammers. <sup>10</sup>The hooves of his horses will choke the city with dust, and the noise of the charioteers and chariot wheels will shake your walls as they storm through your broken gates.

<sup>11</sup>His horsemen will trample through every street in the city. They will butcher your people, and your strong pillars will topple.

<sup>12</sup>“They will plunder all your riches and merchandise and break down your walls. They will destroy your lovely homes and dump your stones and timbers and even your dust into the sea. <sup>13</sup>I will stop the music of your songs. No more will the sound of harps be heard among your people. <sup>14</sup>I will make your island a bare rock, a place for fishermen to spread their nets. You will never be rebuilt, for I, the LORD, have spoken. Yes, the Sovereign LORD has spoken!

The Effect of Tyre's Destruction

<sup>15</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says to Tyre: The whole coastline will tremble at the sound of your fall, as the screams of the wounded echo in the continuing slaughter. <sup>16</sup>All the seaport rulers will step down from their thrones and take off their royal robes and beautiful clothing. They will sit on the ground trembling with horror at your destruction. <sup>17</sup>Then they will wail for you, singing this funeral song:

“O famous island city,
once ruler of the sea,
how you have been destroyed!
Your people, with their naval power,
once spread fear around the world.

The islands are dismayed as you disappear.

<sup>19</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will make Tyre an uninhabited ruin, like many others. I will bury you beneath the terrible waves of enemy attack. Great seas will swallow you. <sup>20</sup>I will send you to the pit to join those who descended there long ago. Your city will lie in ruins, buried beneath the earth, like those in the pit who have entered the world of the dead. You will have no place of respect here in the land of the living. <sup>21</sup>I will bring you to a terrible end, and you will exist no more. You will be looked for, but you will never again be found. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 27

The End of Tyre's Glory

<sup>1</sup>Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, sing a funeral song for Tyre, <sup>3</sup>that mighty gateway to the sea, the trading center of the world. Give Tyre this message from the Sovereign LORD:

“You boasted, O Tyre,
‘My beauty is perfect!’

<sup>4</sup>You extended your boundaries into the sea.
Your builders made your beauty perfect.

<sup>5</sup>You were like a great ship built of the finest cypress from Senir. *
They took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

<sup>6</sup>They carved your oars from the oaks of Bashan.
Your deck of pine from the coasts of Cyprus *
was inlaid with ivory.

<sup>7</sup>Your sails were made of Egypt's finest linen, and they flew as a banner above you.
You stood beneath blue and purple awnings made bright with dyes from the coasts of Elishah.

<sup>8</sup>Your oarsmen came from Sidon and Arvad;
your helmsmen were skilled men from Tyre itself.

Ships from every land came with goods to barter for your trade.

<sup>10</sup>“Men from distant Persia, Lydia, and Libya* served in your great army. They hung their shields and helmets on your walls, giving you great honor. <sup>11</sup>Men from Arvad and Helech stood on your walls. Your towers were manned by men from Gammad. Their shields hung on your walls, completing your beauty.

<sup>12</sup>“Tarshish sent merchants to buy your wares in exchange for silver, iron, tin, and lead. <sup>13</sup>Merchants from Greece,* Tubal, and Meshech brought slaves and articles of bronze to trade with you.

The Destruction of Tyre

<sup>26</sup> “But look! Your oarsmen have taken you into stormy seas!

A mighty eastern gale has wrecked you in the heart of the sea!

<sup>27</sup>Everything is lost—
your riches and wares,
your sailors and pilots,
your ship builders, merchants, and warriors.
On the day of your ruin,
everyone on board sinks into the depths of the sea.

<sup>28</sup>Your cities by the sea tremble
as your pilots cry out in terror.

<sup>29</sup>All the oarsmen abandon their ships;
the sailors and pilots on shore come to stand on the beach.

<sup>30</sup>They cry aloud over you and weep bitterly.

They throw dust on their heads and roll in ashes.

<sup>31</sup>They shave their heads in grief for you and dress themselves in burlap.
They weep for you with bitter anguish and deep mourning.

<sup>32</sup>As they wail and mourn over you,
they sing this sad funeral song:

‘Was there ever such a city as Tyre,
now silent at the bottom of the sea?

<sup>33</sup>The merchandise you traded satisfied the desires of many nations.
Kings at the ends of the earth were enriched by your trade.

<sup>34</sup>Now you are a wrecked ship,
broken at the bottom of the sea.
All your merchandise and crew have gone down with you.

<sup>35</sup>All who live along the coastlands are appalled at your terrible fate.
Their kings are filled with horror and look on with twisted faces.

<sup>36</sup>The merchants among the nations shake their heads at the sight of you,* for you have come to a horrible end and will exist no more.”

Ezekiel 28

A Message for Tyre's King

<sup>1</sup>Then this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, give the prince of Tyre this message from the Sovereign LORD:

“In your great pride you claim, ‘I am a god!
I sit on a divine throne in the heart of the sea.’
But you are only a man and not a god,
though you boast that you are a god.

<sup>3</sup>You regard yourself as wiser than Daniel and think no secret is hidden from you.

<sup>4</sup>With your wisdom and understanding you have amassed great wealth—
gold and silver for your treasuries.

<sup>5</sup>Yes, your wisdom has made you very rich, and your riches have made you very proud.

<sup>6</sup>“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says:
Because you think you are as wise as a god,

<sup>7</sup>I will now bring against you a foreign army,
the terror of the nations.

They will draw their swords against your marvelous wisdom and defile your splendor!

<sup>8</sup>They will bring you down to the pit, and you will die in the heart of the sea,
pierced with many wounds.

<sup>9</sup>Will you then boast, ‘I am a god!’

to those who kill you?

To them you will be no god

but merely a man!

<sup>10</sup>You will die like an outcast*

at the hands of foreigners.

I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

<sup>11</sup>Then this further message came to me from the LORD: <sup>12</sup>“Son of man, sing this funeral song for the king of Tyre. Give him this message from the Sovereign LORD:

“You were the model of perfection, full of wisdom and exquisite in beauty.

<sup>13</sup>You were in Eden,
the garden of God.

Your clothing was adorned with every precious stone*—
red carnelian, pale-green peridot, white moonstone, blue-green beryl, onyx, green jasper,
blue lapis lazuli, turquoise, and emerald—all beautifully crafted for you and set in the finest gold.

They were given to you on the day you were created.

<sup>14</sup>I ordained and anointed you as the mighty angelic guardian.*

You had access to the holy mountain of God and walked among the stones of fire.

<sup>15</sup>“You were blameless in all you did from the day you were created until the day evil was found in you.

<sup>16</sup>Your rich commerce led you to violence, and you sinned.

So I banished you in disgrace
from the mountain of God.

I expelled you, O mighty guardian, from your place among the stones of fire.

<sup>17</sup>Your heart was filled with pride because of all your beauty.

Your wisdom was corrupted
by your love of splendor.

So I threw you to the ground and exposed you to the curious gaze of kings.

<sup>18</sup>You defiled your sanctuaries with your many sins and your dishonest trade.

So I brought fire out from within you,
and it consumed you.

I reduced you to ashes on the ground in the sight of all who were watching.

<sup>19</sup>All who knew you are appalled at your fate.

You have come to a terrible end,
and you will exist no more.”

A Message for Sidon

<sup>20</sup>Then another message came to me from the LORD: <sup>21</sup>“Son of man, turn and face the city of Sidon and prophesy against it.

<sup>22</sup>Give the people of Sidon this message from the Sovereign LORD:

“I am your enemy, O Sidon, and I will reveal my glory by what I do to you.
When I bring judgment against you and reveal my holiness among you, everyone watching will know
that I am the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>I will send a plague against you,
and blood will be spilled in your streets.
The attack will come from every direction,
and your people will lie slaughtered within your walls.
Then everyone will know
that I am the LORD.

<sup>24</sup>No longer will Israel’s scornful neighbors prick and tear at her like briars and thorns.
For then they will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.

Restoration for Israel

<sup>25</sup> “This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The people of Israel will again live in their own land, the land I gave my servant Jacob. For I will gather them from the distant lands where I have scattered them. I will reveal to the nations of the world my holiness among my people. <sup>26</sup>They will live safely in Israel and build homes and plant vineyards. And when I punish the neighboring nations that treated them with contempt, they will know that I am the LORD their God.”

Ezekiel 29

A Message for Egypt

<sup>1</sup>On January 7,* during the tenth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, turn and face Egypt and prophesy against Pharaoh the king and all the people of Egypt. <sup>3</sup>Give them this message from the Sovereign LORD:

“I am your enemy, O Pharaoh, king of Egypt—
you great monster, lurking in the streams of the Nile.
For you have said, ‘The Nile River is mine;
I made it for myself.’

<sup>4</sup>I will put hooks in your jaws and drag you out on the land with fish sticking to your scales.

<sup>5</sup>I will leave you and all your fish stranded in the wilderness to die.
You will lie unburied on the open ground,
for I have given you as food to the wild animals and birds.

<sup>6</sup>All the people of Egypt will know that I am the LORD, for to Israel you were just a staff made of reeds.

<sup>7</sup>When Israel leaned on you, you splintered and broke and stabbed her in the armpit.
When she put her weight on you, you gave way,
and her back was thrown out of joint.

<sup>8</sup>“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will bring an army against you, O Egypt, and destroy both people and animals. <sup>9</sup>The land of Egypt will become a desolate wasteland, and the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD.

“Because you said, ‘The Nile River is mine; I made it,’ <sup>10</sup>I am now the enemy of both you and your river. I will make the land of Egypt a totally desolate wasteland, from Migdol to Aswan, as far south as the border of Ethiopia.* <sup>11</sup>For forty years not a soul will pass that way, neither people nor animals. It will be completely uninhabited. <sup>12</sup>I will make Egypt desolate, and it will be surrounded by other desolate nations. Its cities will be empty and desolate for forty years, surrounded by other ruined cities. I will scatter the Egyptians to distant lands.

<sup>13</sup>“But this is what the Sovereign LORD also says: At the end of the forty years I will bring the Egyptians home again from the nations to which they have been scattered. <sup>14</sup>I will restore the prosperity of Egypt and bring its people back to the land of Pathros in southern Egypt from which they came. But Egypt will remain an unimportant, minor kingdom. <sup>15</sup>It will be the lowliest of all the nations, never again great enough to rise above its neighbors.

<sup>16</sup>“Then Israel will no longer be tempted to trust in Egypt for help. Egypt’s shattered condition will remind Israel of how sinful she was to trust Egypt in earlier days. Then Israel will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.”

Nebuchadnezzar to Conquer Egypt

<sup>21</sup>"And the day will come when I will cause the ancient glory of Israel to revive,* and then, Ezekiel, your words will be respected. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel 30

A Sad Day for Egypt

<sup>1</sup>This is another message that came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, prophesy and give this message from the Sovereign LORD:

“Weep and wail
for that day,

<sup>3</sup>for the terrible day is almost here—
the day of the LORD!

It is a day of clouds and gloom,
a day of despair for the nations.

<sup>4</sup>A sword will come against Egypt,
and those who are slaughtered will cover the ground.
Its wealth will be carried away
and its foundations destroyed.

The land of Ethiopia* will be ravished.

<sup>5</sup>Ethiopia, Libya, Lydia, all Arabia,* and all their other allies will be destroyed in that war.

<sup>6</sup>“For this is what the LORD says:

All of Egypt’s allies will fall,
and the pride of her power will end.

From Migdol to Aswan*
they will be slaughtered by the sword,

says the Sovereign LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Egypt will be desolate, surrounded by desolate nations,
and its cities will be in ruins,
surrounded by other ruined cities.

<sup>8</sup>And the people of Egypt will know that I am the LORD
when I have set Egypt on fire and destroyed all their allies.

<sup>9</sup>At that time I will send swift messengers in ships to terrify the complacent Ethiopians.
Great panic will come upon them
on that day of Egypt's certain destruction.
Watch for it!
It is sure to come!

<sup>10</sup>“For this is what the Sovereign LORD says:
By the power of King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon,
I will destroy the hordes of Egypt.

<sup>11</sup>He and his armies—the most ruthless of all—will be sent to demolish the land.
They will make war against Egypt
until slaughtered Egyptians cover the ground.

<sup>12</sup>I will dry up the Nile River and sell the land to wicked men.
I will destroy the land of Egypt and everything in it by the hands of foreigners.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>13</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

I will smash the idols* of Egypt and the images at Memphis.*
There will be no rulers left in Egypt;
terror will sweep the land.

<sup>14</sup>I will destroy southern Egypt,* set fire to Zoan,
and bring judgment against Thebes.*

<sup>15</sup>I will pour out my fury on Pelusium,* the strongest fortress of Egypt, and I will stamp out
the hordes of Thebes.

<sup>16</sup>Yes, I will set fire to all Egypt!
Pelusium will be racked with pain;
Thebes will be torn apart;
Memphis will live in constant terror.

<sup>17</sup>The young men of Heliopolis and Bubastis* will die in battle,
and the women* will be taken away as slaves.

<sup>18</sup>When I come to break the proud strength of Egypt, it will be a dark day for Tahpanhes, too.
A dark cloud will cover Tahpanhes,
and its daughters will be led away as captives.

<sup>19</sup>And so I will greatly punish Egypt, and they will know that I am the LORD.”

The Broken Arms of Pharaoh

captivity, this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>21</sup>“Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. His arm has not been put in a cast so that it may heal. Neither has it been bound up with a splint to make it strong enough to hold a sword. <sup>22</sup>Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am the enemy of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt! I will break both of his arms—the good arm along with the broken one—and I will make his sword clatter to the ground. <sup>23</sup>I will scatter the Egyptians to many lands throughout the world. <sup>24</sup>I will strengthen the arms of Babylon's king and put my sword in his hand. But I will break the arms of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and he will lie there mortally wounded, groaning in pain. <sup>25</sup>I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, while the arms of Pharaoh fall useless to his sides. And when I put my sword in the hand of Babylon's king and he brings it against the land of Egypt, Egypt will know that I am the LORD. <sup>26</sup>I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, dispersing them throughout the earth. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel 31

Egypt Compared to Fallen Assyria

“To whom would you compare your greatness?

<sup>3</sup>You are like mighty Assyria, which was once like a cedar of Lebanon, with beautiful branches that cast deep forest shade and with its top high among the clouds.

<sup>4</sup>Deep springs watered it and helped it to grow tall and luxuriant.
The water flowed around it like a river, streaming to all the trees nearby.

<sup>5</sup>This great tree towered high,
higher than all the other trees around it.
It prospered and grew long thick branches because of all the water at its roots.

<sup>6</sup>The birds nested in its branches, and in its shade all the wild animals gave birth.
All the great nations of the world
lived in its shadow.

<sup>7</sup>It was strong and beautiful, with widespreading branches,

for its roots went deep into abundant water.

<sup>8</sup>No other cedar in the garden of God could rival it.

No cypress had branches to equal it;
no plane tree had boughs to compare.
No tree in the garden of God came close to it in beauty.

<sup>9</sup>Because I made this tree so beautiful, and gave it such magnificent foliage,
it was the envy of all the other trees of Eden,
the garden of God.

<sup>10</sup>“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because Egypt* became proud and arrogant, and because it set itself so high above the others, with its top reaching to the clouds, <sup>11</sup>I will hand it over to a mighty nation that will destroy it as its wickedness deserves. I have already discarded it. <sup>12</sup>A foreign army—the terror of the nations—has cut it down and left it fallen on the ground. Its branches are scattered across the mountains and valleys and ravines of the land. All those who lived in its shadow have gone away and left it lying there.

and the wild animals lie among its branches.

<sup>14</sup>Let the tree of no other nation proudly exult in its own prosperity, though it be higher than the clouds and it be watered from the depths.

For all are doomed to die,
to go down to the depths of the earth.
They will land in the pit along with everyone else on earth.

<sup>18</sup> “O Egypt, to which of the trees of Eden will you compare your strength and glory? You, too, will be brought down to the depths with all these other nations. You will lie there among the outcasts* who have died by the sword. This will be the fate of Pharaoh and all his hordes. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 32

A Warning for Pharaoh

<sup>1</sup>On March 3,* during the twelfth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, this message came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, mourn for Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and give him this message:

“You think of yourself as a strong young lion among the nations, but you are really just a sea monster, heaving around in your own rivers, stirring up mud with your feet.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

I will send many people to catch you in my net
and haul you out of the water.

<sup>4</sup>I will leave you stranded on the land to die.
All the birds of the heavens will land on you,
and the wild animals of the whole earth will gorge themselves on you.

<sup>5</sup>I will scatter your flesh on the hills and fill the valleys with your bones.

<sup>6</sup>I will drench the earth with your gushing blood all the way to the mountains, filling the ravines to the brim.

<sup>7</sup>When I blot you out,

I will veil the heavens and darken the stars.
I will cover the sun with a cloud,
and the moon will not give you its light.
<sup>8</sup>I will darken the bright stars overhead and cover your land in darkness.
I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!

<sup>9</sup> “I will disturb many hearts when I bring news of your downfall to distant nations you have never seen. <sup>10</sup>Yes, I will shock many lands, and their kings will be terrified at your fate. They will shudder in fear for their lives as I brandish my sword before them on the day of your fall. <sup>11</sup>For this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you.

<sup>12</sup>I will destroy your hordes with the swords of mighty warriors—

the terror of the nations.

They will shatter the pride of Egypt,
and all its hordes will be destroyed.

<sup>13</sup>I will destroy all your flocks and herds that graze beside the streams.

Never again will people or animals muddy those waters with their feet.

<sup>14</sup>Then I will let the waters of Egypt become calm again, and they will flow as smoothly as olive oil,
says the Sovereign LORD.

<sup>15</sup>And when I destroy Egypt and strip you of everything you own and strike down all your people,

then you will know that I am the LORD.
<sup>16</sup>Yes, this is the funeral song
they will sing for Egypt.
Let all the nations mourn.
Let them mourn for Egypt and its hordes.
I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Egypt Falls into the Pit

‘O Egypt, are you lovelier than the other nations?

No! So go down to the pit and lie there among the outcasts.*’

<sup>20</sup>The Egyptians will fall with the many who have died by the sword, for the sword is drawn against them. Egypt and its hordes will be dragged away to their judgment. <sup>21</sup>Down in the grave* mighty leaders will mockingly welcome Egypt and its allies, saying, ‘They have come down; they lie among the outcasts, hordes slaughtered by the sword.’

They struck terror in the hearts of people everywhere, but now they have been slaughtered by the sword.

<sup>24</sup>“Elam lies there surrounded by the graves of all its hordes, those who were slaughtered by the sword. They struck terror in the hearts of people everywhere, but now they have descended as outcasts to the world below. Now they lie in the pit and share the shame of those who have gone before them.

<sup>25</sup>They have a resting place among the slaughtered, surrounded by the graves of all their hordes. Yes, they terrorized the nations while they lived, but now they lie in shame with others in the pit, all of them outcasts, slaughtered by the sword.

<sup>26</sup>“Meshech and Tubal are there, surrounded by the graves of all their hordes. They once struck terror in the hearts of people everywhere. But now they are outcasts, all slaughtered by the sword. <sup>27</sup>They are not buried in honor like their fallen heroes, who went down to the grave* with their weapons—their shields covering their bodies* and their swords beneath their heads. Their guilt rests upon them because they brought terror to everyone while they were still alive.

<sup>28</sup>“You too, Egypt, will lie crushed and broken among the outcasts, all slaughtered by the sword.

<sup>29</sup>“Edom is there with its kings and princes. Mighty as they were, they also lie among those slaughtered by the sword, with the outcasts who have gone down to the pit.

<sup>30</sup>“All the princes of the north and the Sidonians are there with others who have died. Once a terror, they have been put to shame. They lie there as outcasts with others who were slaughtered by the sword. They share the shame of all who have descended to the pit.

<sup>31</sup>“When Pharaoh and his entire army arrive, he will take comfort that he is not alone in having his hordes killed, says the Sovereign LORD. <sup>32</sup>Although I have caused his terror to fall upon all the living, Pharaoh and his hordes will lie there among the outcasts who were slaughtered by the sword. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 33

Ezekiel as Israel's Watchman

<sup>1</sup>Once again a message came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, give your people this message: ‘When I bring an army against a country, the people of that land choose one of their own to be a watchman. <sup>3</sup>When the watchman sees the enemy coming, he sounds the alarm to warn the people. <sup>4</sup>Then if those who hear the alarm refuse to take action, it is their own fault if they die. <sup>5</sup>They heard the alarm but ignored it, so the responsibility is theirs. If they had listened to the warning, they could have saved their lives. <sup>6</sup>But if the watchman sees the enemy coming and doesn’t sound the alarm to warn the people, he is responsible for their captivity. They will die in their sins, but I will hold the watchman responsible for their deaths.’

<sup>7</sup>“Now, son of man, I am making you a watchman for the people of Israel. Therefore, listen to what I say and warn them for me. <sup>8</sup>If I announce that some wicked people are sure to die and you fail to tell them to change their ways, then they will die in their sins, and I will hold you responsible for their deaths. <sup>9</sup>But if you warn them to repent and they don’t repent, they will die in their sins, but you will have saved yourself.

The Watchman's Message

<sup>10</sup>“Son of man, give the people of Israel this message: You are saying, ‘Our sins are heavy upon us; we are wasting away!’

How can we survive?’ <sup>11</sup>As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, I take no pleasure in the death of wicked people. I only want them to turn from their wicked ways so they can live. Turn! Turn from your wickedness, O people of Israel! Why should you die?

<sup>12</sup>“Son of man, give your people this message: The righteous behavior of righteous people will not save them if they turn to sin, nor will the wicked behavior of wicked people destroy them if they repent and turn from their sins. <sup>13</sup>When I tell righteous people that they will live, but then they sin, expecting their past righteousness to save them, then none of their righteous acts will be remembered. I will destroy them for their sins. <sup>14</sup>And suppose I tell some wicked people that they will surely die, but then they turn from their sins and do what is just and right. <sup>15</sup>For instance, they might give back a debtor’s security, return what they have stolen, and obey my life-giving laws, no longer doing what is evil. If they do this, then they will surely live and not die. <sup>16</sup>None of their past sins will be brought up again, for they have done what is just and right, and they will surely live.

Explanation of Jerusalem's Fall

<sup>21</sup>On January 8,* during the twelfth year of our captivity, a survivor from Jerusalem came to me and said, "The city has fallen!" <sup>22</sup>The previous evening the LORD had taken hold of me and given me back my voice. So I was able to speak when this man arrived the next morning.

<sup>27</sup>"Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: As surely as I live, those living in the ruins will die by the sword. And I will send wild animals to eat those living in the open fields. Those hiding in the forts and caves will die of disease. <sup>28</sup>I will completely destroy the land and demolish her pride. Her arrogant power will come to an end. The mountains of Israel will be so desolate that no one will even travel through them. <sup>29</sup>When I have completely destroyed the land because of their detestable sins, then they will know that I am the LORD.'

<sup>30</sup>"Son of man, your people talk about you in their houses and whisper about you at the doors. They say to each other, 'Come on, let's go hear the prophet tell us what the LORD is saying!' <sup>31</sup>So my people come pretending to be sincere and sit before you. They listen to your words, but they have no intention of doing what you say. Their mouths are full of lustful words, and their hearts seek only after money. <sup>32</sup>You are very entertaining to them, like someone who sings love songs with a beautiful voice or plays fine music on an instrument. They hear what you say, but they don't act on it! <sup>33</sup> But when all these terrible things happen to them—as they certainly will—then they will know a prophet has been among them.”

Ezekiel 34

The Shepherds of Israel

<sup>7</sup>“Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: <sup>8</sup>As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, you abandoned my flock and left them to be attacked by every wild animal. And though you were my shepherds, you didn’t search for my sheep when they were lost. You took care of yourselves and left the sheep to starve. <sup>9</sup>Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD. <sup>10</sup>This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I now consider these shepherds my enemies, and I will hold them responsible for what has happened to my flock. I will take away their right to feed the flock, and I will stop them from feeding themselves. I will rescue my flock from their mouths; the sheep will no longer be their prey.

Personal Gold

Putting God on the Spot

The Good Shepherd

<sup>11</sup> “For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will search and find my sheep. <sup>12</sup>I will be like a shepherd looking for his scattered flock. I will find my sheep and rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on that dark and cloudy day. <sup>13</sup>I will bring them back home to their own land of Israel from among the peoples and nations. I will feed them on the mountains of Israel and by the rivers and in all the places where people live. <sup>14</sup>Yes, I will give them good pastureland on the high hills of Israel. There they will lie down in pleasant places and feed in the lush pastures of the hills. <sup>15</sup>I myself will tend my sheep and give them a place to lie down in peace, says the Sovereign LORD. <sup>16</sup>I will search for my lost ones who strayed away, and I will bring them safely home again. I will bandage the injured and strengthen the weak. But I will destroy those who are fat and powerful. I will feed them, yes—feed them justice!

enough for you to keep the best of the pastures for yourselves? Must you also trample down the rest? Isn't it enough for you to drink clear water for yourselves? Must you also muddy the rest with your feet? <sup>19</sup>Why must my flock eat what you have trampled down and drink water you have fouled?

<sup>20</sup>“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will surely judge between the fat sheep and the scrawny sheep. <sup>21</sup>For you fat sheep pushed and butted and crowded my sick and hungry flock until you scattered them to distant lands. <sup>22</sup>So I will rescue my flock, and they will no longer be abused. I will judge between one animal of the flock and another. <sup>23</sup>And I will set over them one shepherd, my servant David. He will feed them and be a shepherd to them. <sup>24</sup>And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David will be a prince among my people. I, the LORD, have spoken!

The LORD's Covenant of Peace

<sup>25</sup>“I will make a covenant of peace with my people and drive away the dangerous animals from the land. Then they will be able to camp safely in the wildest places and sleep in the woods without fear. <sup>26</sup>I will bless my people and their homes around my holy hill. And in the proper season I will send the showers they need. There will be showers of blessing. <sup>27</sup>The orchards and fields of my people will yield bumper crops, and everyone will live in safety. When I have broken their chains of slavery and rescued them from those who enslaved them, then they will know that I am the LORD. <sup>28</sup>They will no longer be prey for other nations, and wild animals will no longer devour them. They will live in safety, and no one will frighten them.

<sup>29</sup>“And I will make their land famous for its crops, so my people will never again suffer from famines or the insults of foreign nations. <sup>30</sup>In this way, they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them. And they will know that they, the people of Israel, are my people, says the Sovereign LORD. <sup>31</sup>You are my flock, the sheep of my pasture. You are my people, and I am your God. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 35

A Message for Edom

<sup>1</sup>Again a message came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, turn and face Mount Seir, and prophesy against its people. <sup>3</sup>Give them this message from the Sovereign LORD:

“I am your enemy, O Mount Seir, and I will raise my fist against you
to destroy you completely.

<sup>4</sup>I will demolish your cities and make you desolate.

Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>“Your eternal hatred for the people of Israel led you to butcher them when they were helpless, when I had already punished them for all their sins. <sup>6</sup>As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, since you show no distaste for blood, I will give you a bloodbath of your own. Your turn has come! <sup>7</sup>I will make Mount Seir utterly desolate, killing off all who try to escape and any who return. <sup>8</sup>I will fill your mountains with the dead. Your hills, your valleys, and your ravines will be filled with people slaughtered by the sword. <sup>9</sup>I will make you desolate forever. Your cities will never be rebuilt. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

We will take possession of them. What do we care that the LORD is there!’ <sup>11</sup>Therefore, as surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, I will pay back your angry deeds with my own. I will punish you for all your acts of anger, envy, and hatred. And I will make myself known to Israel* by what I do to you. <sup>12</sup>Then you will know that I, the LORD, have heard every contemptuous word you spoke against the mountains of Israel. For you said, ‘They are desolate; they have been given to us as food to eat!’ <sup>13</sup>In saying that, you boasted proudly against me, and I have heard it all!

<sup>14</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The whole world will rejoice when I make you desolate. <sup>15</sup>You rejoiced at the desolation of Israel’s territory. Now I will rejoice at yours! You will be wiped out, you people of Mount Seir and all who live in Edom! Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 36

Restoration for Israel

<sup>2</sup>This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Your enemies have taunted you, saying, ‘Aha! Now the ancient heights belong to us!’ <sup>3</sup>Therefore, son of man, give the mountains of Israel this message from the Sovereign LORD: Your enemies have attacked you from all directions, making you the property of many nations and the object of much mocking and slander.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign LORD. He speaks to the hills and mountains, ravines and valleys, and to ruined wastes and long-deserted cities that have been destroyed and mocked by the surrounding nations.

<sup>6</sup>“Therefore, prophesy to the hills and mountains, the ravines and valleys of Israel. This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am furious that you have suffered shame before the surrounding nations. <sup>7</sup>Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I have taken a solemn oath that those nations will soon have their own shame to endure.

<sup>8</sup>“But the mountains of Israel will produce heavy crops of fruit for my people—for they will be coming home again soon!

<sup>9</sup>See, I care about you, and I will pay attention to you. Your ground will be plowed and your crops planted. <sup>10</sup>I will greatly increase the population of Israel, and the ruined cities will be rebuilt and filled with people. <sup>11</sup>I will increase not only the people, but also your animals. O mountains of Israel, I will bring people to live on you once again. I will make you even more prosperous than you were before. Then you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>12</sup>I will cause my people to walk on you once again, and you will be their territory. You will never again rob them of their children.

<sup>13</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The other nations taunt you, saying, ‘Israel is a land that devours its own people and robs them of their children!’ <sup>14</sup>But you will never again devour your people or rob them of their children, says the Sovereign LORD. <sup>15</sup>I will not let you hear those other nations insult you, and you will no longer be mocked by them. You will not be a land that causes its nation to fall, says the Sovereign LORD.”

<sup>16</sup>Then this further message came to me from the LORD: <sup>17</sup>“Son of man, when the people of Israel were living in their own land, they defiled it by the evil way they lived. To me their conduct was as unclean as a woman’s menstrual cloth. <sup>18</sup>They polluted the land with murder and the worship of idols,* so I poured out my fury on them. <sup>19</sup>I scattered them to many lands to punish them for the evil way they had lived. <sup>20</sup>But when they were scattered among the nations, they brought shame on my holy name. For the nations said, ‘These are the people of the LORD, but he couldn't keep them safe in his own land!' <sup>21</sup>Then I was concerned for my holy name, on which my people brought shame among the nations.

<sup>22</sup>“Therefore, give the people of Israel this message from the Sovereign LORD: I am bringing you back, but not because you deserve it. I am doing it to protect my holy name, on which you brought shame while you were scattered among the nations. <sup>23</sup>I will show how holy my great name is—the name on which you brought shame among the nations. And when I reveal my holiness through you before their very eyes, says the Sovereign LORD, then the nations will know that I am the LORD. <sup>24</sup>For I will gather you up from all the nations and bring you home again to your land.

<sup>25</sup> “Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean. Your filth will be washed away, and you will no longer worship idols. <sup>26</sup>And I will give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit in you. I will take out your stony, stubborn heart and give you a tender, responsive heart.* <sup>27</sup>And I will put my Spirit in you so that you will follow my decrees and be careful to obey my regulations.

<sup>28</sup>“And you will live in Israel, the land I gave your ancestors long ago. You will be my people, and I will be your God. <sup>29</sup>I will cleanse you of your filthy behavior. I will give you good crops of grain, and I will send no more famines on the land. <sup>30</sup>I will give you great harvests from your fruit trees and fields, and never again will the surrounding nations be able to scoff at your land for its famines. <sup>31</sup>Then you will remember your past sins and despise yourselves for all the detestable things you did.<sup>32</sup> But remember, says the Sovereign LORD, I am not doing this because you deserve it. O my people of Israel, you should be utterly ashamed of all you have done!

<sup>33</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: When I cleanse you from your sins, I will repopulate your cities, and the ruins will be rebuilt.<sup>34</sup> The fields that used to lie empty and desolate in plain view of everyone will again be farmed.<sup>35</sup> And when I bring you back, people will say, ‘This former wasteland is now like the Garden of Eden! The abandoned and ruined cities now have strong walls and are filled with people!’<sup>36</sup> Then the surrounding nations that survive will know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruins and replanted the wasteland. For I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do what I say.

<sup>37</sup>“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am ready to hear Israel’s prayers and to increase their numbers like a flock.<sup>38</sup> They will be as numerous as the sacred flocks that fill Jerusalem’s streets at the time of her festivals. The ruined cities will be crowded with people once more, and everyone will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 37

A Valley of Dry Bones

<sup>1</sup>The LORD took hold of me, and I was carried away by the Spirit of the LORD to a valley filled with bones. <sup>2</sup>He led me all around among the bones that covered the valley floor. They were scattered everywhere across the ground and were completely dried out. <sup>3</sup>Then he asked me, “Son of man, can these bones become living people again?”

“O Sovereign LORD,” I replied, “you alone know the answer to that.”

<sup>4</sup>Then he said to me, “Speak a prophetic message to these bones and say, ‘Dry bones, listen to the word of the LORD! <sup>5</sup>This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Look! I am going to put breath into you and make you live again! <sup>6</sup>I will put flesh and muscles on you and cover you with skin. I will put breath into you, and you will come to life. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’”

<sup>7</sup>So I spoke this message, just as he told me. Suddenly as I spoke, there was a rattling noise all across the valley. The bones of each body came together and attached themselves as complete skeletons. <sup>8</sup>Then as I watched, muscles and flesh formed over the bones. Then skin formed to cover their bodies, but they still had no breath in them.

<sup>9</sup>Then he said to me, “Speak a prophetic message to the winds, son of man. Speak a prophetic message and say, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Come, O breath, from the four winds! Breathe into these dead bodies so they may live again.”

<sup>10</sup>So I spoke the message as he commanded me, and breath came into their bodies. They all came to life and stood up on their feet—a great army.

<sup>11</sup>Then he said to me, “Son of man, these bones represent the people of Israel. They are saying, ‘We have become old, dry bones—all hope is gone. Our nation is finished.’ <sup>12</sup>Therefore, prophesy to them and say, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: O my people, I will open your graves of exile and cause you to rise again. Then I will bring you back to the land of Israel. <sup>13</sup>When this happens, O my people, you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>14</sup>I will put my Spirit in you, and you will live again and return home to your own land. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken, and I have done what I said. Yes, the LORD has spoken!’”

Reunion of Israel and Judah

<sup>15</sup>Again a message came to me from the LORD: <sup>16</sup>“Son of man, take a piece of wood and carve on it these words: ‘This represents Judah and its allied tribes.’ Then take another piece and carve these words on it: ‘This represents Ephraim and the northern tribes of Israel.’* <sup>17</sup>Now hold them together in your hand as if they were one piece of wood. <sup>18</sup>When your people ask you what your actions mean, <sup>19</sup>say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will take Ephraim and the northern tribes and join them to Judah. I will make them one piece of wood in my hand.’

<sup>20</sup>“Then hold out the pieces of wood you have inscribed, so the people can see them. <sup>21</sup>And give them this message from the Sovereign LORD: I will gather the people of Israel from among the nations. I will bring them home to their own land from the places where they have been scattered. <sup>22</sup>I will unify them into one nation on the mountains of Israel. One king will rule them all; no longer will they be divided into two nations or into two kingdoms. <sup>23</sup>They will never again pollute themselves with their idols* and vile images and rebellion, for I will save them from their sinful backsliding. I will cleanse them. Then they will truly be my people, and I will be their God.

<sup>24</sup>“My servant David will be their king, and they will have only one shepherd. They will obey my regulations and be careful to keep my decrees. <sup>25</sup>They will live in the land I gave my servant Jacob, the land where their ancestors lived. They and their children and their grandchildren after them will live there forever, generation after generation. And my servant David will be their prince forever. <sup>26</sup>And I will make a covenant of peace with them, an everlasting covenant. I will give them their land and increase their numbers,* and I will put my Temple among them forever. <sup>27</sup>I will make my home among them. I will be their God, and they will be my people. <sup>28</sup>And when my Temple is among them forever, the nations will know that I am the LORD, who makes Israel holy.”

A Message for Gog

<sup>1</sup>This is another message that came to me from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, turn and face Gog of the land of Magog, the prince who rules over the nations of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him. <sup>3</sup>Give him this message from the Sovereign LORD: Gog, I am your enemy! <sup>4</sup>I will turn you around and put hooks in your jaws to lead you out with your whole army—your horses and charioteers in full armor and a great horde armed with shields and swords. <sup>5</sup>Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya* will join you, too, with all their weapons. <sup>6</sup>Gomer and all its armies will also join you, along with the armies of Bethogarmah from the distant north, and many others.

<sup>7</sup>“Get ready; be prepared! Keep all the armies around you mobilized, and take command of them. <sup>8</sup>A long time from now you will be called into action. In the distant future you will swoop down on the land of Israel, which will be enjoying peace after recovering from war and after its people have returned from many lands to the mountains of Israel. <sup>9</sup>You and all your allies—a vast and awesome army—will roll down on them like a storm and cover the land like a cloud.

people who live in such confidence! <sup>12</sup>I will go to those formerly desolate cities that are now filled with people who have returned from exile in many nations. I will capture vast amounts of plunder, for the people are rich with livestock and other possessions now. They think the whole world revolves around them!’ <sup>13</sup>But Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish will ask, ‘Do you really think the armies you have gathered can rob them of silver and gold? Do you think you can drive away their livestock and seize their goods and carry off plunder?’

<sup>14</sup>“Therefore, son of man, prophesy against Gog. Give him this message from the Sovereign LORD: When my people are living in peace in their land, then you will rouse yourself.*

<sup>15</sup>You will come from your homeland in the distant north with your vast cavalry and your mighty army, <sup>16</sup>and you will attack my people Israel, covering their land like a cloud. At that time in the distant future, I will bring you against my land as everyone watches, and my holiness will be displayed by what happens to you, Gog. Then all the nations will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> “This is what the Sovereign LORD asks: Are you the one I was talking about long ago, when I announced through Israel’s prophets that in the future I would bring you against my people? <sup>18</sup>But this is what the Sovereign LORD says: When Gog invades the land of Israel, my fury will boil over! <sup>19</sup>In my jealousy and blazing anger, I promise a mighty shaking in the land of Israel on that day. <sup>20</sup>All living things—the fish in the sea, the birds of the sky, the animals of the field, the small animals that scurry along the ground, and all the people on earth—will quake in terror at my presence. Mountains will be thrown down; cliffs will crumble; walls will fall to the earth.<sup>21</sup> I will summon the sword against you on all the hills of Israel, says the Sovereign LORD. Your men will turn their swords against each other.<sup>22</sup> I will punish you and your armies with disease and bloodshed; I will send torrential rain, hailstones, fire, and burning sulfur!<sup>23</sup> In this way, I will show my greatness and holiness, and I will make myself known to all the nations of the world. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

The Slaughter of Gog's Hordes

<sup>1</sup> “Son of man, prophesy against Gog. Give him this message from the Sovereign LORD: I am your enemy, O Gog, ruler of the nations of Meshech and Tubal. <sup>2</sup>I will turn you around and drive you toward the mountains of Israel, bringing you from the distant north. <sup>3</sup>I will knock the bow from your left hand and the arrows from your right hand, and I will leave you helpless. <sup>4</sup>You and your army and your allies will all die on the mountains. I will feed you to the vultures and wild animals. <sup>5</sup>You will fall in the open fields, for I have spoken, says the Sovereign LORD. <sup>6</sup>And I will rain down fire on Magog and on all your allies who live safely on the coasts. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>“In this way, I will make known my holy name among my people of Israel. I will not let anyone bring shame on it. And the nations, too, will know that I am the LORD, the Holy One of Israel. <sup>8</sup>That day of judgment will come, says the Sovereign LORD. Everything will happen just as I have declared it.

<sup>9</sup>“Then the people in the towns of Israel will go out and pick up your small and large shields, bows and arrows, javelins and spears, and they will use them for fuel. There will be enough to last them seven years! <sup>10</sup>They won’t need to cut wood from the fields or forests, for these weapons will give them all the fuel they need. They will plunder those who planned to plunder them, and they will rob those who planned to rob them, says the Sovereign LORD.

<sup>11</sup>“And I will make a vast graveyard for Gog and his hordes in the Valley of the Travelers, east of the Dead Sea. * It will block the way of those who travel there, and they will change the name of the place to the Valley of Gog’s Hordes. <sup>12</sup>It will take seven months for the people of Israel to bury the bodies and cleanse the land. <sup>13</sup>Everyone in Israel will help, for it will be a glorious victory for Israel when I demonstrate my glory on that day, says the Sovereign LORD.

<sup>14</sup>“After seven months, teams of men will be appointed to search the land for skeletons to bury, so the land will be made clean again. <sup>15</sup>Whenever bones are found, a marker will be set up so the burial crews will take them to be buried in the Valley of Gog’s Hordes. <sup>16</sup>(There will be a town there named Hamonah, which means ‘horde.’) And so the land will finally be cleansed.

<sup>21</sup>“In this way, I will demonstrate my glory to the nations. Everyone will see the punishment I have inflicted on them and the power of my fist when I strike. <sup>22</sup>And from that time on the people of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God. <sup>23</sup>The nations will then know why Israel was sent away to exile—it was punishment for sin, for they were unfaithful to their God. Therefore, I turned away from them and let their enemies destroy them. <sup>24</sup>I turned my face away and punished them because of their defilement and their sins.

Restoration for God's People

<sup>25</sup>“So now, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will end the captivity of my people*; I will have mercy on all Israel, for I jealously guard my holy reputation! <sup>26</sup>They will accept responsibility for* their past shame and unfaithfulness after they come home to live in peace in their own land, with no one to bother them. <sup>27</sup>When I bring them home from the lands of their enemies, I will display my holiness among them for all the nations to see. <sup>28</sup>Then my people will know that I am the LORD their God, because I sent them away to exile and brought them home again. I will leave none of my people behind. <sup>29</sup>And I will never again turn my face from them, for I will pour out my Spirit upon the people of Israel. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 40

The New Temple Area

<sup>1</sup> On April 28,* during the twenty-fifth year of our captivity—fourteen years after the fall of Jerusalem—the LORD took hold of me. <sup>2</sup>In a vision from God he took me to the land of Israel and set me down on a very high mountain. From there I could see toward the south what appeared to be a city. <sup>3</sup>As he brought me nearer, I saw a man whose face shone like bronze standing beside a gateway entrance. He was holding in his hand a linen measuring cord and a measuring rod.

<sup>4</sup>He said to me, “Son of man, watch and listen. Pay close attention to everything I show you. You have been brought here so I can show you many things. Then you will return to the people of Israel and tell them everything you have seen.”

The East Gateway

<sup>5</sup>I could see a wall completely surrounding the Temple area. The man took a measuring rod that was 10½ feet* long and measured the wall, and the wall was 10½ feet* thick and 10½ feet high.

<sup>6</sup>Then he went over to the eastern gateway. He climbed the steps and measured the threshold of the gateway; it was 10½ feet front to back.* <sup>7</sup>There were guard alcoves on each side built into the gateway passage. Each of these alcoves was 10½ feet square, with a distance between them of 8¾ feet* along the passage wall. The gateway's inner threshold, which led to the entry room at the inner end of the gateway passage, was 10½ feet front to back.<sup>8</sup> He also measured the entry room of the gateway.*<sup>9</sup> It was 14 feet* across, with supporting columns 3½ feet* thick. This entry room was at the inner end of the gateway structure, facing toward the Temple.

<sup>10</sup>There were three guard alcoves on each side of the gateway passage. Each had the same measurements, and the dividing walls separating them were also identical.<sup>11</sup> The man measured the gateway entrance, which was 17½ feet* wide at the opening and 22¾ feet* wide in the gateway passage.<sup>12</sup> In front of each of the guard alcoves was a 21-inch* curb. The alcoves themselves were 10½ feet* on each side.

<sup>13</sup>Then he measured the entire width of the gateway, measuring the distance between the back walls of facing guard alcoves; this distance was 43¾ feet.*<sup>14</sup> He measured the dividing walls all along the inside of the gateway up to the entry room of the gateway; this distance was 105 feet.*<sup>15</sup> The full length of the gateway passage was 87½ feet* from one end to the other.<sup>16</sup> There were recessed windows that narrowed inward through the walls of the guard alcoves and their dividing walls. There were also windows in the entry room. The surfaces of the dividing walls were decorated with carved palm trees.

The Outer Courtyard

<sup>17</sup>Then the man brought me through the gateway into the outer courtyard of the Temple. A stone pavement ran along the walls of the courtyard, and thirty rooms were built against the walls, opening onto the pavement.<sup>18</sup> This pavement flanked the gates and extended out from the walls into the courtyard the same distance as the gateway entrance. This was the lower pavement.<sup>19</sup> Then the man measured across the Temple's outer courtyard between the outer and inner gateways; the distance was 175 feet.*

The North Gateway

<sup>20</sup>The man measured the gateway on the north just like the one on the east.<sup>21</sup> Here, too, there were three guard alcoves on each side, with dividing walls and an entry room. All the measurements matched those of the east gateway. The gateway passage was  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet long and  $43\frac{3}{4}$  feet wide between the back walls of facing guard alcoves.<sup>22</sup> The windows, the entry room, and the palm tree decorations were identical to those in the east gateway. There were seven steps leading up to the gateway entrance, and the entry room was at the inner end of the gateway passage.<sup>23</sup> Here on the north side, just as on the east, there was another gateway leading to the Temple's inner courtyard directly opposite this outer gateway. The distance between the two gateways was 175 feet.

The South Gateway

<sup>24</sup>Then the man took me around to the south gateway and measured its various parts, and they were exactly the same as in the others.<sup>25</sup> It had windows along the walls as the others did, and there was an entry room where the gateway passage opened into the outer courtyard. And like the others, the gateway passage was  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet long and  $43\frac{3}{4}$  feet wide between the back walls of facing guard alcoves.<sup>26</sup> This gateway also had a stairway of seven steps leading up to it, and an entry room at the inner end, and palm tree decorations along the dividing walls.<sup>27</sup> And here again, directly opposite the outer gateway, was another gateway that led into the inner courtyard. The distance between the two gateways was 175 feet.

Gateways to the Inner Courtyard

<sup>28</sup>Then the man took me to the south gateway leading into the inner courtyard. He measured it, and it had the same measurements as the other gateways.<sup>29</sup> Its guard alcoves, dividing walls, and entry room were the same size as those in the others. It also had windows along its walls and in the entry room. And like the others, the gateway passage was  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet long and  $43\frac{3}{4}$  feet wide.<sup>30</sup> (The entry rooms of the gateways leading into the inner courtyard were 14 feet\* across and  $43\frac{3}{4}$  feet wide.)<sup>31</sup> The entry room to the south gateway faced into the outer courtyard. It had palm tree decorations on its columns, and there were eight steps leading to its entrance.

<sup>32</sup>Then he took me to the east gateway leading to the inner courtyard. He measured it, and it had the same measurements as the other gateways.<sup>33</sup> Its guard alcoves, dividing walls, and entry room were the same size as those of the others, and there were windows along the walls and in the entry room. The gateway passage measured  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet long and  $43\frac{3}{4}$  feet wide.

<sup>34</sup>Its entry room faced into the outer courtyard. It had palm tree decorations on its columns, and there were eight steps leading to its entrance.

<sup>35</sup>Then he took me around to the north gateway leading to the inner courtyard. He measured it, and it had the same measurements as the other gateways. <sup>36</sup>The guard alcoves, dividing walls, and entry room of this gateway had the same measurements as in the others and the same window arrangements. The gateway passage measured  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet long and  $43\frac{3}{4}$  feet wide. <sup>37</sup>Its entry room faced into the outer courtyard, and it had palm tree decorations on the columns. There were eight steps leading to its entrance.

Rooms for Preparing Sacrifices

<sup>38</sup>A door led from the entry room of one of the inner gateways into a side room, where the meat for sacrifices was washed.

<sup>39</sup>On each side of this entry room were two tables, where the sacrificial animals were slaughtered for the burnt offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings. <sup>40</sup>Outside the entry room, on each side of the stairs going up to the north entrance, were two more tables. <sup>41</sup>So there were eight tables in all—four inside and four outside—where the sacrifices were cut up and prepared.

<sup>42</sup>There were also four tables of finished stone for preparation of the burnt offerings, each  $31\frac{1}{2}$  inches square and 21 inches high. \* On these tables were placed the butchering knives and other implements for slaughtering the sacrificial animals.

<sup>43</sup>There were hooks, each 3 inches * long, fastened to the foyer walls. The sacrificial meat was laid on the tables.

Rooms for the Priests

<sup>44</sup>Inside the inner courtyard were two rooms, * one beside the north gateway, facing south, and the other beside the south * gateway, facing north. <sup>45</sup>And the man said to me, “The room beside the north inner gate is for the priests who supervise the Temple maintenance. <sup>46</sup>The room beside the south inner gate is for the priests in charge of the altar—the descendants of Zadok—for they alone of all the Levites may approach the LORD to minister to him.”

The Inner Courtyard and Temple

<sup>47</sup>Then the man measured the inner courtyard, and it was a square, 175 feet wide and 175 feet across. The altar stood in the courtyard in front of the Temple. <sup>48</sup>Then he brought me to the entry room of the Temple. He measured the walls on either side of the opening to the entry room, and they were  $8\frac{3}{4}$  feet thick. The entrance itself was  $24\frac{1}{2}$  feet wide, and the walls on each side of the entrance were an additional  $5\frac{1}{4}$  feet long \* <sup>49</sup>The entry room was 35 feet \* wide and 21 feet \* deep. There were ten steps leading up to it, with a column on each side.

Ezekiel 41

<sup>1</sup>After that, the man brought me into the sanctuary of the Temple. He measured the walls on either side of its doorway, and they were  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet\* thick. <sup>2</sup>The doorway was  $17\frac{1}{2}$  feet\* wide, and the walls on each side of it were  $8\frac{3}{4}$  feet\* long. The sanctuary itself was 70 feet long and 35 feet wide.\*

<sup>3</sup>Then he went beyond the sanctuary into the inner room. He measured the walls on either side of its entrance, and they were  $3\frac{1}{2}$  feet\* thick. The entrance was  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet wide, and the walls on each side of the entrance were  $12\frac{1}{4}$  feet\* long. <sup>4</sup>The inner room of the sanctuary was 35 feet\* long and 35 feet wide. "This," he told me, "is the Most Holy Place."

<sup>5</sup>Then he measured the wall of the Temple, and it was  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet thick. There was a row of rooms along the outside wall; each room was 7 feet\* wide. <sup>6</sup>These side rooms were built in three levels, one above the other, with thirty rooms on each level. The supports for these side rooms rested on exterior ledges on the Temple wall; they did not extend into the wall. <sup>7</sup>Each level was wider than the one below it, corresponding to the narrowing of the Temple wall as it rose higher. A stairway led up from the bottom level through the middle level to the top level.

<sup>8</sup>I saw that the Temple was built on a terrace, which provided a foundation for the side rooms. This terrace was  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet\* high. <sup>9</sup>The outer wall of the Temple's side rooms was  $8\frac{3}{4}$  feet thick. This left an open area between these side rooms <sup>10</sup>and the row of rooms along the outer wall of the inner courtyard. This open area was 35 feet wide, and it went all the way around the Temple. <sup>11</sup>Two doors opened from the side rooms into the terrace yard, which was  $8\frac{3}{4}$  feet wide. One door faced north and the other south.

<sup>12</sup>A large building stood on the west, facing the Temple courtyard. It was  $122\frac{1}{2}$  feet wide and  $157\frac{1}{2}$  feet long, and its walls were  $8\frac{3}{4}$  feet\* thick. <sup>13</sup>Then the man measured the Temple, and it was 175 feet\* long. The courtyard around the building, including its walls, was an additional 175 feet in length. <sup>14</sup>The inner courtyard to the east of the Temple was also 175 feet wide. <sup>15</sup>The building to the west, including its two walls, was also 175 feet wide.

The sanctuary, the inner room, and the entry room of the Temple <sup>16</sup>were all paneled with wood, as were the frames of the recessed windows. The inner walls of the Temple were paneled with wood above and below the windows. <sup>17</sup>The space above the door leading into the inner room, and its walls inside and out, were also paneled. <sup>18</sup>All the walls were decorated with carvings of cherubim, each with two faces, and there was a carving of a palm tree between each of the cherubim. <sup>19</sup>One face—that of a man—looked toward the palm tree on one side. The other face—that of a young lion—looked toward the palm tree on the other side. The figures were carved all along the inside of the Temple, <sup>20</sup>from the floor to the top of the walls, including the outer wall of the sanctuary.

were similar. <sup>22</sup>There was an altar made of wood, 5 1/4 feet high and 3 1/2 feet across. * Its corners, base, and sides were all made of wood. “This,” the man told me, “is the table that stands in the LORD’s presence.”

<sup>23</sup>Both the sanctuary and the Most Holy Place had double doorways, <sup>24</sup>each with two swinging doors. <sup>25</sup>The doors leading into the sanctuary were decorated with carved cherubim and palm trees, just as on the walls. And there was a wooden roof at the front of the entry room to the Temple. <sup>26</sup>On both sides of the entry room were recessed windows decorated with carved palm trees. The side rooms along the outside wall also had roofs.

Ezekiel 42

Rooms for the Priests

<sup>1</sup>Then the man led me out of the Temple courtyard by way of the north gateway. We entered the outer courtyard and came to a group of rooms against the north wall of the inner courtyard. <sup>2</sup>This structure, whose entrance opened toward the north, was 175 feet* long and 87½ feet* wide. <sup>3</sup>One block of rooms overlooked the 35-foot* width of the inner courtyard. Another block of rooms looked out onto the pavement of the outer courtyard. The two blocks were built three levels high and stood across from each other. <sup>4</sup>Between the two blocks of rooms ran a walkway 17½ feet* wide. It extended the entire 175 feet of the complex,* and all the doors faced north. <sup>5</sup>Each of the two upper levels of rooms was narrower than the one beneath it because the upper levels had to allow space for walkways in front of them. <sup>6</sup>Since there were three levels and they did not have supporting columns as in the courtyards, each of the upper levels was set back from the level beneath it. <sup>7</sup>There was an outer wall that separated the rooms from the outer courtyard; it was 87½ feet long. <sup>8</sup>This wall added length to the outer block of rooms, which extended for only 87½ feet, while the inner block—the rooms toward the Temple—extended for 175 feet. <sup>9</sup>There was an eastern entrance from the outer courtyard to these rooms.

<sup>10</sup>On the south* side of the Temple there were two blocks of rooms just south of the inner courtyard between the Temple and the outer courtyard. These rooms were arranged just like the rooms on the north.<sup>11</sup> There was a walkway between the two blocks of rooms just like the complex on the north side of the Temple. This complex of rooms was the same length and width as the other one, and it had the same entrances and doors. The dimensions of each were identical.<sup>12</sup> So there was an entrance in the wall facing the doors of the inner block of rooms, and another on the east at the end of the interior walkway.

<sup>13</sup>Then the man told me, “These rooms that overlook the Temple from the north and south are holy. Here the priests who offer sacrifices to the LORD will eat the most holy offerings. And because these rooms are holy, they will be used to store the sacred offerings—the grain offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings.<sup>14</sup> When the priests leave the sanctuary, they must not go directly to the outer courtyard. They must first take off the clothes they wore while ministering, because these clothes are holy. They must put on other clothes before entering the parts of the building complex open to the public.”

<sup>15</sup>When the man had finished measuring the inside of the Temple area, he led me out through the east gateway to measure the entire perimeter.<sup>16</sup> He measured the east side with his measuring rod, and it was 875 feet long.*<sup>17</sup> Then he measured the north side, and it was also 875 feet.<sup>18</sup> The south side was also 875 feet,<sup>19</sup> and the west side was also 875 feet.<sup>20</sup> So the area was 875 feet on each side with a wall all around it to separate what was holy from what was common.

The LORD's Glory Returns

<sup>5</sup> Then the Spirit took me up and brought me into the inner courtyard, and the glory of the LORD filled the Temple. <sup>6</sup> And I heard someone speaking to me from within the Temple, while the man who had been measuring stood beside me. <sup>7</sup> The LORD said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place where I will rest my feet. I will live here forever among the people of Israel. They and their kings will not defile my holy name any longer by their adulterous worship of other gods or by honoring the relics of their kings who have died. <sup>8</sup> They put their idol altars right next to mine with only a wall between them and me. They defiled my holy name by such detestable sin, so I consumed them in my anger. <sup>9</sup> Now let them stop worshipping other gods and honoring the relics of their kings, and I will live among them forever.

have shown you, so they will be ashamed of all their sins. Let them study its plan,<sup>11</sup> and they will be ashamed* of what they have done. Describe to them all the specifications of the Temple—including its entrances and exits—and everything else about it. Tell them about its decrees and laws. Write down all these specifications and decrees as they watch so they will be sure to remember and follow them.<sup>12</sup> And this is the basic law of the Temple: absolute holiness! The entire top of the mountain where the Temple is built is holy. Yes, this is the basic law of the Temple.

The Altar

<sup>13</sup>“These are the measurements of the altar*: There is a gutter all around the altar 21 inches deep and 21 inches wide,* with a curb 9 inches* wide around its edge. And this is the height* of the altar: <sup>14</sup>From the gutter the altar rises 3½ feet* to a lower ledge that surrounds the altar and is 21 inches* wide. From the lower ledge the altar rises 7 feet* to the upper ledge that is also 21 inches wide. <sup>15</sup>The top of the altar, the hearth, rises another 7 feet higher, with a horn rising up from each of the four corners. <sup>16</sup>The top of the altar is square, measuring 21 feet by 21 feet.* <sup>17</sup>The upper ledge also forms a square, measuring 24½ feet by 24½ feet,* with a 21-inch gutter and a 10½-inch curb* all around the edge. There are steps going up the east side of the altar.”

<sup>18</sup>Then he said to me, “Son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: These will be the regulations for the burning of offerings and the sprinkling of blood when the altar is built.

<sup>19</sup>At that time, the Levitical priests of the family of Zadok, who minister before me, are to be given a young bull for a sin offering, says the Sovereign LORD. <sup>20</sup>You will take some of its blood and smear it on the four horns of the altar, the four corners of the upper ledge, and the curb that runs around that ledge. This will cleanse and make atonement for the altar. <sup>21</sup>Then take the young bull for the sin offering and burn it at the appointed place outside the Temple area.

<sup>22</sup>“On the second day, sacrifice as a sin offering a young male goat that has no physical defects. Then cleanse and make atonement for the altar again, just as you did with the young bull. <sup>23</sup>When you have finished the cleansing ceremony, offer another young bull that has no defects and a perfect ram from the flock. <sup>24</sup>You are to present them to the LORD, and the priests are to sprinkle salt on them and offer them as a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>“Every day for seven days a male goat, a young bull, and a ram from the flock will be sacrificed as a sin offering. None of these animals may have physical defects of any kind. <sup>26</sup>Do this each day for seven days to cleanse and make atonement for the altar, thus setting it apart for holy use. <sup>27</sup>On the eighth day, and on each day afterward, the priests will sacrifice on the altar the burnt offerings and peace offerings of the people. Then I will accept you. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

The Prince, Levites, and Priests

<sup>1</sup>Then the man brought me back to the east gateway in the outer wall of the Temple area, but it was closed. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to me, “This gate must remain closed; it will never again be opened. No one will ever open it and pass through, for the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered here. Therefore, it must always remain shut. <sup>3</sup>Only the prince himself may sit inside this gateway to feast in the LORD’s presence. But he may come and go only through the entry room of the gateway.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the man brought me through the north gateway to the front of the Temple. I looked and saw that the glory of the LORD filled the Temple of the LORD, and I fell face down on the ground.

<sup>5</sup>And the LORD said to me, “Son of man, take careful notice. Use your eyes and ears, and listen to everything I tell you about the regulations concerning the LORD’s Temple. Take careful note of the procedures for using the Temple’s entrances and exits. <sup>6</sup>And give these rebels, the people of Israel, this message from the Sovereign LORD: O people of Israel, enough of your detestable sins! <sup>7</sup>You have brought uncircumcised foreigners into my sanctuary—people who have no heart for God. In this way, you defiled my Temple even as you offered me my food, the fat and blood of sacrifices. In addition to all your other detestable sins, you have broken my covenant. <sup>8</sup>Instead of safeguarding my sacred rituals, you have hired foreigners to take charge of my sanctuary.

<sup>9</sup>“So this is what the Sovereign LORD says: No foreigners, including those who live among the people of Israel, will enter my sanctuary if they have not been circumcised and have not surrendered themselves to the LORD. <sup>10</sup>And the men of the tribe of Levi who abandoned me when Israel strayed away from me to worship idols* must bear the consequences of their unfaithfulness. <sup>11</sup>They may still be Temple guards and gatekeepers, and they may slaughter the animals brought for burnt offerings and be present to help the people. <sup>12</sup>But they encouraged my people to worship idols, causing Israel to fall into deep sin. So I have taken a solemn oath that they must bear the consequences for their sins, says the Sovereign LORD. <sup>13</sup>They may not approach me to minister as priests. They may not touch any of my holy things or the holy offerings, for they must bear the shame of all the detestable sins they have committed. <sup>14</sup>They are to serve as the Temple caretakers, taking charge of the maintenance work and performing general duties.

<sup>15</sup>“However, the Levitical priests of the family of Zadok continued to minister faithfully in the Temple when Israel abandoned me for idols. These men will serve as my ministers. They will stand in my presence and offer the fat and blood of the sacrifices, says the Sovereign LORD. <sup>16</sup>They alone will enter my sanctuary and approach my table to serve me. They will fulfill all my requirements.

<sup>17</sup>“When they enter the gateway to the inner courtyard, they must wear only linen clothing. They must wear no wool while on duty in the inner courtyard or in the Temple itself.<sup>18</sup> They must wear linen turbans and linen undergarments. They must not wear anything that would cause them to perspire.<sup>19</sup> When they return to the outer courtyard where the people are, they must take off the clothes they wear while ministering to me. They must leave them in the sacred rooms and put on other clothes so they do not endanger anyone by transmitting holiness to them through this clothing.

<sup>24</sup>“They will serve as judges to resolve any disagreements among my people. Their decisions must be based on my regulations. And the priests themselves must obey my instructions and decrees at all the sacred festivals, and see to it that the Sabbaths are set apart as holy days.

<sup>25</sup>“A priest must not defile himself by being in the presence of a dead person unless it is his father, mother, child, brother, or unmarried sister. In such cases it is permitted.<sup>26</sup> Even then, he can return to his Temple duties only after being ceremonially cleansed and then waiting for seven days.<sup>27</sup> The first day he returns to work and enters the inner courtyard and the sanctuary, he must offer a sin offering for himself, says the Sovereign LORD.

<sup>28</sup>“The priests will not have any property or possession of land, for I alone am their special possession. <sup>29</sup>Their food will come from the gifts and sacrifices brought to the Temple by the people—the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings. Whatever anyone sets apart* for the LORD will belong to the priests. <sup>30</sup>The first of the ripe fruits and all the gifts brought to the LORD will go to the priests. The first samples of each grain harvest and the first of your flour must also be given to the priests so the LORD will bless your homes. <sup>31</sup>The priests may not eat meat from any bird or animal that dies a natural death or that dies after being attacked by another animal.

Ezekiel 45

Division of the Land

<sup>1</sup>“When you divide the land among the tribes of Israel, you must set aside a section for the LORD as his holy portion. This piece of land will be  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles long and  $6\frac{2}{3}$  miles wide.\* The entire area will be holy. <sup>2</sup>A section of this land, measuring 875 feet by 875 feet,\* will be set aside for the Temple. An additional strip of land  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet\* wide is to be left empty all around it. <sup>3</sup>Within the larger sacred area, measure out a portion of land  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles long and  $3\frac{1}{3}$  miles wide.\* Within it the sanctuary of the Most Holy Place will be located. <sup>4</sup>This area will be holy, set aside for the priests who minister to the LORD in the sanctuary. They will use it for their homes, and my Temple will be located within it. <sup>5</sup>The strip of sacred land next to it, also  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles long and  $3\frac{1}{3}$  miles wide, will be a living area for the Levites who work at the Temple. It will be their possession and a place for their towns.\*

<sup>6</sup>“Adjacent to the larger sacred area will be a section of land  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles long and  $1\frac{2}{3}$  miles wide.\* This will be set aside for a city where anyone in Israel can live.

<sup>7</sup>“Two special sections of land will be set apart for the prince. One section will share a border with the east side of the sacred lands and city, and the second section will share a border on the west side. Then the far eastern and western borders of the prince's lands will line up with the eastern and western boundaries of the tribal areas.<sup>8</sup> These sections of land will be the prince's allotment. Then my princes will no longer oppress and rob my people; they will assign the rest of the land to the people, giving an allotment to each tribe.

Rules for the Princes

<sup>9</sup>“For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Enough, you princes of Israel! Stop your violence and oppression and do what is just and right. Quit robbing and cheating my people out of their land. Stop expelling them from their homes, says the Sovereign LORD. <sup>10</sup>Use only honest weights and scales and honest measures, both dry and liquid.* <sup>11</sup>The homer* will be your standard unit for measuring volume. The ephah and the bath* will each measure one-tenth of a homer. <sup>12</sup>The standard unit for weight will be the silver shekel.* One shekel will consist of twenty gerahs, and sixty shekels will be equal to one mina.*

Special Offerings and Celebrations

<sup>13</sup>“You must give this tax to the prince: one bushel of wheat or barley for every 60* you harvest, <sup>14</sup>one percent of your olive oil,* <sup>15</sup>and one sheep or goat for every 200 in your flocks in Israel. These will be the grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings that will make atonement for the people who bring them, says the Sovereign LORD. <sup>16</sup>All the people of Israel must join in bringing these offerings to the prince. <sup>17</sup>The prince will be required to provide offerings that are given at the religious festivals, the new moon celebrations, the Sabbath days, and all other similar occasions. He will provide the sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings, liquid offerings, and peace offerings to purify the people of Israel, making them right with the LORD.*

<sup>21</sup>“On the fourteenth day of the first month,* you must celebrate the Passover. This festival will last for seven days. The bread you eat during that time must be made without yeast. <sup>22</sup>On the day of Passover the prince will provide a young bull as a sin offering for himself and the people of Israel. <sup>23</sup>On each of the seven days of the feast he will prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, consisting of seven young bulls and seven rams without defects. A male goat will also be given each day for a sin offering. <sup>24</sup>The prince will provide a basket of flour as a grain offering and a gallon of olive oil* with each young bull and ram.

<sup>25</sup>“During the seven days of the Festival of Shelters, which occurs every year in early autumn,* the prince will provide these same sacrifices for the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the grain offering, along with the required olive oil.

Ezekiel 46

<sup>1</sup> “This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The east gateway of the inner courtyard will be closed during the six workdays each week, but it will be open on Sabbath days and the days of new moon celebrations. <sup>2</sup>The prince will enter the entry room of the gateway from the outside. Then he will stand by the gatepost while the priest offers his burnt offering and peace offering. He will bow down in worship inside the gateway passage and then go back out the way he came. The gateway will not be closed until evening. <sup>3</sup>The common people will bow down and worship the LORD in front of this gateway on Sabbath days and the days of new moon celebrations.

<sup>4</sup>“Each Sabbath day the prince will present to the LORD a burnt offering of six lambs and one ram, all with no defects. <sup>5</sup>He will present a grain offering of a basket of choice flour to go with the ram and whatever amount of flour he chooses to go with each lamb, and he is to offer one gallon of olive oil* for each basket of flour. <sup>6</sup>At the new moon celebrations, he will bring one young bull, six lambs, and one ram, all with no defects. <sup>7</sup>With the young bull he must bring a basket of choice flour for a grain offering. With the ram he must bring another basket of flour. And with each lamb he is to bring whatever amount of flour he chooses to give. With each basket of flour he must offer one gallon of olive oil.

<sup>8</sup>“The prince must enter the gateway through the entry room, and he must leave the same way. <sup>9</sup>But when the people come in through the north gateway to worship the LORD during the religious festivals, they must leave by the south gateway. And those who entered through the south gateway must leave by the north gateway. They must never leave by the same gateway they came in, but must always use the opposite gateway. <sup>10</sup>The prince will enter and leave with the people on these occasions.

<sup>13</sup>“Each morning you must sacrifice a one-year-old lamb with no defects as a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>With the lamb, a grain offering must also be given to the LORD—about three quarts of flour with a third of a gallon of olive oil* to moisten the choice flour. This will be a permanent law for you. <sup>15</sup>The lamb, the grain offering, and the olive oil must be given as a daily sacrifice every morning without fail.

every fiftieth year.* At that time the land will return to the prince. But when the prince gives gifts to his sons, those gifts will be permanent.<sup>18</sup> And the prince may never take anyone's property by force. If he gives property to his sons, it must be from his own land, for I do not want any of my people unjustly evicted from their property.”

The Temple Kitchens

<sup>19</sup>In my vision, the man brought me through the entrance beside the gateway and led me to the sacred rooms assigned to the priests, which faced toward the north. He showed me a place at the extreme west end of these rooms.<sup>20</sup> He explained, “This is where the priests will cook the meat from the guilt offerings and sin offerings and bake the flour from the grain offerings into bread. They will do it here to avoid carrying the sacrifices through the outer courtyard and endangering the people by transmitting holiness to them.”

<sup>21</sup>Then he brought me back to the outer courtyard and led me to each of its four corners. In each corner I saw an enclosure.<sup>22</sup> Each of these enclosures was 70 feet long and 52½ feet wide,* surrounded by walls.<sup>23</sup> Along the inside of these walls was a ledge of stone with fireplaces under the ledge all the way around.<sup>24</sup> The man said to me, “These are the kitchens to be used by the Temple assistants to boil the sacrifices offered by the people.”

Ezekiel 47

The River of Healing

<sup>1</sup>In my vision, the man brought me back to the entrance of the Temple. There I saw a stream flowing east from beneath the door of the Temple and passing to the right of the altar on its south side. <sup>2</sup>The man brought me outside the wall through the north gateway and led me around to the eastern entrance. There I could see the water flowing out through the south side of the east gateway.

<sup>3</sup>Measuring as he went, he took me along the stream for 1,750 feet* and then led me across. The water was up to my ankles. <sup>4</sup>He measured off another 1,750 feet and led me across again. This time the water was up to my knees. After another 1,750 feet, it was up to my waist. <sup>5</sup>Then he measured another 1,750 feet, and the river was too deep to walk across. It was deep enough to swim in, but too deep to walk through.

<sup>6</sup>He asked me, “Have you been watching, son of man?” Then he led me back along the riverbank. <sup>7</sup>When I returned, I was surprised by the sight of many trees growing on both sides of the river. <sup>8</sup>Then he said to me, “This river flows east through the desert into the valley of the Dead Sea.* The waters of this stream will make the salty waters of the Dead Sea fresh and pure. <sup>9</sup>There will be swarms of living things wherever the water of this river flows. Fish will abound in the Dead Sea, for its waters will become fresh. Life will flourish wherever this water flows.<sup>10</sup> Fishermen will stand along the shores of the Dead Sea. All the way from En-gedi to En-eglaim, the shores will be covered with nets drying in the sun. Fish of every kind will fill the Dead Sea, just as they fill the Mediterranean.*<sup>11</sup> But the marshes and swamps will not be purified; they will still be salty.<sup>12</sup> Fruit trees of all kinds will grow along both sides of the river. The leaves of these trees will never turn brown and fall, and there will always be fruit on their branches. There will be a new crop every month, for they are watered by the river flowing from the Temple. The fruit will be for food and the leaves for healing.”

Boundaries for the Land

<sup>13</sup>This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “Divide the land in this way for the twelve tribes of Israel: The descendants of Joseph will be given two shares of land.*<sup>14</sup> Otherwise each tribe will receive an equal share. I took a solemn oath and swore that I would give this land to your ancestors, and it will now come to you as your possession.

<sup>15</sup>“These are the boundaries of the land: The northern border will run from the Mediterranean toward Hethlon, then on through Lebo-hamath to Zedad;<sup>16</sup> then it will run to Berothah and Sibraim, which are on the border between Damascus and Hamath, and finally to Hazer-hatticon, on the border of Hauran.<sup>17</sup> So the northern border will run from the Mediterranean to Hazar-enan, on the border between Hamath to the north and Damascus to the south.

<sup>18</sup>“The eastern border starts at a point between Hauran and Damascus and runs south along the Jordan River between Israel and Gilead, past the Dead Sea* and as far south as Tamar.* This will be the eastern border.

<sup>19</sup>“The southern border will go west from Tamar to the waters of Meribah at Kadesh* and then follow the course of the Brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean. This will be the southern border.

<sup>21</sup>“Divide the land within these boundaries among the tribes of Israel. <sup>22</sup>Distribute the land as an allotment for yourselves and for the foreigners who have joined you and are raising their families among you. They will be like native-born Israelites to you and will receive an allotment among the tribes. <sup>23</sup>These foreigners are to be given land within the territory of the tribe with whom they now live. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!

Ezekiel 48

Division of the Land

<sup>8</sup>“South of Judah is the land set aside for a special purpose. It will be  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles\* wide and will extend as far east and west as the tribal territories, with the Temple at the center.

<sup>9</sup>“The area set aside for the LORD’s Temple will be  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles long and  $6\frac{2}{3}$  miles wide.\* <sup>10</sup>For the priests there will be a strip of land measuring  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles long by  $3\frac{1}{3}$  miles wide,\* with the LORD’s Temple at the center. <sup>11</sup>This area is set aside for the ordained priests, the descendants of Zadok who served me faithfully and did not go astray with the people of Israel and the rest of the Levites. <sup>12</sup>It will be their special portion when the land is distributed, the most sacred land of all. Next to the priests' territory will lie the land where the other Levites will live.

<sup>13</sup>“The land allotted to the Levites will be the same size and shape as that belonging to the priests— $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles long and  $3\frac{1}{3}$  miles wide. Together these portions of land will measure  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles long by  $6\frac{2}{3}$  miles wide.\* <sup>14</sup>None of this special land may ever be sold or traded or used by others, for it belongs to the LORD; it is set apart as holy.

<sup>15</sup>“An additional strip of land  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles long by  $1\frac{2}{3}$  miles wide,\* south of the sacred Temple area, will be allotted for public use—homes, pasturelands, and common lands, with a city at the center. <sup>16</sup>The city will measure  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles\* on each side—north, south, east, and west. <sup>17</sup>Open lands will surround the city for 150 yards\* in every direction. <sup>18</sup>Outside the city there will be a farming area that stretches  $3\frac{1}{3}$  miles to the east and  $3\frac{1}{3}$  miles to the west\* along the border of the sacred area. This farmland will produce food for the people working in the city. <sup>19</sup>Those who come from the various tribes to work in the city may farm it. <sup>20</sup>This entire area—including the sacred lands and the city—is a square that measures  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles\* on each side.

<sup>21</sup>“The areas that remain, to the east and to the west of the sacred lands and the city, will belong to the prince. Each of these areas will be  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles wide, extending in opposite directions to the eastern and western borders of Israel, with the sacred lands and the sanctuary of the Temple in the center.

<sup>22</sup>So the prince's land will include everything between the territories allotted to Judah and Benjamin, except for the areas set aside for the sacred lands and the city.

<sup>23</sup>“These are the territories allotted to the rest of the tribes. Benjamin’s territory lies just south of the prince’s lands, and it extends across the entire land of Israel from east to west.

<sup>26</sup>“Then comes the territory of Zebulun, which also extends across the land from east to west. <sup>27</sup>The territory of Gad is just south of Zebulun with the same borders to the east and west.

<sup>29</sup>“These are the allotments that will be set aside for each tribe’s exclusive possession. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!

The Gates of the City

<sup>30</sup>“These will be the exits to the city: On the north wall, which is 1½ miles long, <sup>31</sup>there will be three gates, each one named after a tribe of Israel. The first will be named for Reuben, the second for Judah, and the third for Levi. <sup>32</sup>On the east wall, also 1½ miles long, the gates will be named for Joseph, Benjamin, and Dan. <sup>33</sup>The south wall, also 1½ miles long, will have gates named for Simeon, Issachar, and Zebulun. <sup>34</sup>And on the west wall, also 1½ miles long, the gates will be named for Gad, Asher, and Naphtali.

<sup>35</sup>“The distance around the entire city will be 6 miles.* And from that day the name of the city will be ‘The LORD Is There.’*”

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

POLITICS AND FAITHFULNESS.

Daniel shows that it's possible for a man to be politically savvy without compromising. He wasn't naïve, but he kept himself pure. This hurt his popularity with the “good old boy” network, but they couldn't make any of their accusations stick. Even when they framed Daniel, he remained faithful to God.

Daniel in Nebuchadnezzar's Court

<sup>3</sup>Then the king ordered Ashpenaz, his chief of staff, to bring to the palace some of the young men of Judah's royal family and other noble families, who had been brought to Babylon as captives. <sup>4</sup>"Select only strong, healthy, and good-looking young men," he said. "Make sure they are well versed in every branch of learning, are gifted with knowledge and good judgment, and are suited to serve in the royal palace. Train these young men in the language and literature of Babylon.*" <sup>5</sup>The king assigned them a daily ration of food and wine from his own kitchens. They were to be trained for three years, and then they would enter the royal service.

Daniel

<sup>6</sup>Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah were four of the young men chosen, all from the tribe of Judah. <sup>7</sup>The chief of staff renamed them with these Babylonian names:

Daniel was called Belteshazzar.
Hananiah was called Shadrach.
Mishael was called Meshach.

Azariah was called Abednego.

 spotlight	RENAMED
	Part of King Nebuchadnezzar's mind game with his captives was to rip away their heritage, even to the point of changing their names to something more Babylonian. Daniel and his friends, however, never gave up their deep faith in the God of Israel.
	birth name	meaning	babylonian name	meaning
	Daniel	God is my judge	Belteshazzar	Bel's prince, or Nebo protect his life
	Hananiah	Yahweh has been gracious	Shadrach	The command of Aku
	Mishael	Who is like God?	Meshach	Who is like Aku?
	Azariah	Yahweh has helped	Abednego	The servant of Nebo

<sup>8</sup>But Daniel was determined not to defile himself by eating the food and wine given to them by the king. He asked the chief of staff for permission not to eat these unacceptable foods. <sup>9</sup>Now God had given the chief of staff both respect and affection for

Daniel. <sup>10</sup>But he responded, “I am afraid of my lord the king, who has ordered that you eat this food and wine. If you become pale and thin compared to the other youths your age, I am afraid the king will have me beheaded.”

<sup>15</sup>At the end of the ten days, Daniel and his three friends looked healthier and better nourished than the young men who had been eating the food assigned by the king. <sup>16</sup>So after that, the attendant fed them only vegetables instead of the food and wine provided for the others.

<sup>17</sup> God gave these four young men an unusual aptitude for understanding every aspect of literature and wisdom. And God gave Daniel the special ability to interpret the meanings of visions and dreams.

<sup>18</sup>When the training period ordered by the king was completed, the chief of staff brought all the young men to King Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>19</sup>The king talked with them, and no one impressed him as much as Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. So they entered the royal service. <sup>20</sup>Whenever the king consulted them in any matter requiring wisdom and balanced judgment, he found them ten times more capable than any of the magicians and enchanter in his entire kingdom.

Daniel 2

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

<sup>5</sup>But the king said to the astrologers, "I am serious about this. If you don't tell me what my dream was and what it means, you will be torn limb from limb, and your houses will be turned into heaps of rubble!" <sup>6</sup>But if you tell me what I dreamed and what the dream means, I will give you many wonderful gifts and honors. Just tell me the dream and what it means!"

<sup>8</sup>The king replied, "I know what you are doing! You're stalling for time because you know I am serious when I say, <sup>9</sup>'If you don't tell me the dream, you are doomed.' So you have conspired to tell me lies, hoping I will change my mind. But tell me the dream, and then I'll know that you can tell me what it means.”

<sup>12</sup>The king was furious when he heard this, and he ordered that all the wise men of Babylon be executed. <sup>13</sup>And because of the king’s decree, men were sent to find and kill Daniel and his friends.

<sup>14</sup>When Arioch, the commander of the king’s guard, came to kill them, Daniel handled the situation with wisdom and discretion. <sup>15</sup>He asked Arioch, “Why has the king issued such a harsh decree?” So Arioch told him all that had happened. <sup>16</sup>Daniel went at once to see the king and requested more time to tell the king what the dream meant.

<sup>17</sup>Then Daniel went home and told his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah what had happened. <sup>18</sup>He urged them to ask the God of heaven to show them his mercy by telling them the secret, so they would not be executed along with the other wise men of Babylon. <sup>19</sup>That night the secret was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven. <sup>20</sup>He said, “Praise the name of God forever and ever,

for he has all wisdom and power.

<sup>21</sup>He controls the course of world events;
he removes kings and sets up other kings.

He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the scholars.

<sup>22</sup>He reveals deep and mysterious things and knows what lies hidden in darkness, though he is surrounded by light.

<sup>23</sup>I thank and praise you, God of my ancestors, for you have given me wisdom and strength.
You have told me what we asked of you and revealed to us what the king demanded.”

Daniel Interprets the Dream

<sup>24</sup>Then Daniel went in to see Arioch, whom the king had ordered to execute the wise men of Babylon. Daniel said to him, “Don’t kill the wise men. Take me to the king, and I will tell him the meaning of his dream.”

<sup>26</sup>The king said to Daniel (also known as Belteshazzar), “Is this true? Can you tell me what my dream was and what it means?”

<sup>28</sup>But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and he has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in the future. Now I will tell you your dream and the visions you saw as you lay on your bed.

coming events. He who reveals secrets has shown you what is going to happen.<sup>30</sup> And it is not because I am wiser than anyone else that I know the secret of your dream, but because God wants you to understand what was in your heart.

<sup>31</sup>“In your vision, Your Majesty, you saw standing before you a huge, shining statue of a man. It was a frightening sight.<sup>32</sup> The head of the statue was made of fine gold. Its chest and arms were silver, its belly and thighs were bronze,<sup>33</sup> its legs were iron, and its feet were a combination of iron and baked clay.<sup>34</sup> As you watched, a rock was cut from a mountain, but not by human hands. It struck the feet of iron and clay, smashing them to bits.<sup>35</sup> The whole statue was crushed into small pieces of iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold. Then the wind blew them away without a trace, like chaff on a threshing floor. But the rock that knocked the statue down became a great mountain that covered the whole earth.

<sup>36</sup>“That was the dream. Now we will tell the king what it means.<sup>37</sup> Your Majesty, you are the greatest of kings. The God of heaven has given you sovereignty, power, strength, and honor.<sup>38</sup> He has made you the ruler over all the inhabited world and has put even the wild animals and birds under your control. You are the head of gold.

<sup>39</sup>“But after your kingdom comes to an end, another kingdom, inferior to yours, will rise to take your place. After that kingdom has fallen, yet a third kingdom, represented by bronze, will rise to rule the world.<sup>40</sup> Following that kingdom, there will be a fourth one, as strong as iron. That kingdom will smash and crush all previous empires, just as iron smashes and crushes everything it strikes.<sup>41</sup>The feet and toes you saw were a combination of iron and baked clay, showing that this kingdom will be divided. Like iron mixed with clay, it will have some of the strength of iron.<sup>42</sup>But while some parts of it will be as strong as iron, other parts will be as weak as clay.<sup>43</sup>This mixture of iron and clay also shows that these kingdoms will try to strengthen themselves by forming alliances with each other through intermarriage. But they will not hold together, just as iron and clay do not mix.

<sup>44</sup>“During the reigns of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed or conquered. It will crush all these kingdoms into nothingness, and it will stand forever.<sup>45</sup>That is the meaning of the rock cut from the mountain, though not by human hands, that crushed to pieces the statue of iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold. The great God was showing the king what will happen in the future. The dream is true, and its meaning is certain.”

Nebuchadnezzar Rewards Daniel

<sup>46</sup>Then King Nebuchadnezzar threw himself down before Daniel and worshiped him, and he commanded his people to offer sacrifices and burn sweet incense before him.<sup>47</sup>The king said to Daniel, “Truly, your God is the greatest of gods, the Lord over kings, a revealer of mysteries, for you have been able to reveal this secret.”

<sup>48</sup>Then the king appointed Daniel to a high position and gave him many valuable gifts. He made Daniel ruler over the whole province of Babylon, as well as chief over all his wise men.<sup>49</sup>At Daniel's request, the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to be in charge of all the affairs of the province of Babylon, while Daniel remained in the king's court.

Daniel 3

Nebuchadnezzar's Gold Statue

<sup>1</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue ninety feet tall and nine feet wide* and set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.<sup>2</sup> Then he sent messages to the high officers, officials, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the provincial officials to come to the dedication of the statue he had set up.<sup>3</sup> So all these officials* came and stood before the statue King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

<sup>7</sup> So at the sound of the musical instruments,* all the people, whatever their race or nation or language, bowed to the ground and worshiped the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Shadrach, Meshach, & Abednego

<sup>8</sup>But some of the astrologers* went to the king and informed on the Jews. <sup>9</sup>They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, “Long live the king! <sup>10</sup>You issued a decree requiring all the people to bow down and worship the gold statue when they hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes, and other musical instruments. <sup>11</sup>That decree also states that those who refuse to obey must be thrown into a blazing furnace. <sup>12</sup>But there are some Jews—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego—whom you have put in charge of the province of Babylon. They pay no attention to you, Your Majesty. They refuse to serve your gods and do not worship the gold statue you have set up.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar flew into a rage and ordered that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought before him. When they were brought in, <sup>14</sup>Nebuchadnezzar said to them, “Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you refuse to serve my gods or to worship the gold statue I have set up? <sup>15</sup>I will give you one more chance to bow down and worship the statue I have made when you hear the sound of the musical instruments.* But if you refuse, you will be thrown immediately into the blazing furnace. And then what god will be able to rescue you from my power?”

<sup>16</sup> Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied, “O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you. <sup>17</sup>If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God whom we serve is able to save us. He will rescue us from your power, Your Majesty. <sup>18</sup>But even if he doesn’t, we want to make it clear to you, Your Majesty, that we will never serve your gods or worship the gold statue you have set up.”

The Blazing Furnace

<sup>19</sup>Nebuchadnezzar was so furious with Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego that his face became distorted with rage. He commanded that the furnace be heated seven times hotter than usual. <sup>20</sup>Then he ordered some of the strongest men of his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and throw them into the blazing furnace. <sup>21</sup>So they tied them up and threw them into the furnace, fully dressed in their pants, turbans, robes, and other garments. <sup>22</sup>And because the king, in his anger, had demanded such a hot fire in the furnace, the flames killed the soldiers as they threw the three men in. <sup>23</sup>So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, securely tied, fell into the roaring flames.

<sup>24</sup> But suddenly, Nebuchadnezzar jumped up in amazement and exclaimed to his advisers, “Didn’t we tie up three men and throw them into the furnace?”

“Yes, Your Majesty, we certainly did,” they replied.

unbound, walking around in the fire unharmed! And the fourth looks like a god*!”

<sup>26</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar came as close as he could to the door of the flaming furnace and shouted: “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out! Come here!”

So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego stepped out of the fire. <sup>27</sup>Then the high officers, officials, governors, and advisers crowded around them and saw that the fire had not touched them. Not a hair on their heads was singed, and their clothing was not scorched. They didn’t even smell of smoke!

<sup>28</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar said, “Praise to the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego! He sent his angel to rescue his servants who trusted in him. They defied the king’s command and were willing to die rather than serve or worship any god except their own God. <sup>29</sup>Therefore, I make this decree: If any people, whatever their race or nation or language, speak a word against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, they will be torn limb from limb, and their houses will be turned into heaps of rubble. There is no other god who can rescue like this!”

Daniel 4

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream about a Tree

<sup>1</sup>*King Nebuchadnezzar sent this message to the people of every race and nation and language throughout the world:

“Peace and prosperity to you!

<sup>2</sup>“I want you all to know about the miraculous signs and wonders the Most High God has performed for me.

<sup>3</sup>How great are his signs, how powerful his wonders!
His kingdom will last forever,
his rule through all generations.

<sup>4</sup>*“I, Nebuchadnezzar, was living in my palace in comfort and prosperity. <sup>5</sup>But one night I had a dream that frightened me; I saw visions that terrified me as I lay in my bed. <sup>6</sup>So I issued an order calling in all the wise men of Babylon, so they could tell me what my dream meant. <sup>7</sup>When all the magicians, enchanters, astrologers, * and fortune-tellers came in, I told them the dream, but they could not tell me what it meant. <sup>8</sup>At last Daniel came in before me, and I told him the dream. (He was named Belteshazzar after my god, and the spirit of the holy gods is in him.)

<sup>9</sup>“I said to him, ‘Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that no mystery is too great for you to solve. Now tell me what my dream means.

<sup>10</sup>““While I was lying in my bed, this is what I dreamed. I saw a large tree in the middle of the earth. <sup>11</sup>The tree grew very tall and strong, reaching high into the heavens for all the world to see. <sup>12</sup>It had fresh green leaves, and it was loaded with fruit for all to eat. Wild animals lived in its shade, and birds nested in its branches. All the world was fed from this tree.

<sup>13</sup>““Then as I lay there dreaming, I saw a messenger, * a holy one, coming down from heaven. <sup>14</sup>The messenger shouted, “Cut down the tree and lop off its branches!

Shake off its leaves and scatter its fruit!
Chase the wild animals from its shade and the birds from its branches.

<sup>15</sup>But leave the stump and the roots in the ground, bound with a band of iron and bronze and surrounded by tender grass.
Now let him be drenched with the dew of heaven, and let him live with the wild animals among the plants of the field.

<sup>16</sup>For seven periods of time, let him have the mind of a wild animal instead of the mind of a human.

<sup>17</sup>For this has been decreed by the messengers*;
it is commanded by the holy ones,
so that everyone may know that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of the world.
He gives them to anyone he chooses—
even to the lowliest of people.”

<sup>18</sup> “‘Belteshazzar, that was the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now tell me what it means, for none of the wise men of my kingdom can do so. But you can tell me because the spirit of the holy gods is in you.’”

Daniel Explains the Dream

<sup>19</sup>“Upon hearing this, Daniel (also known as Belteshazzar) was overcome for a time, frightened by the meaning of the dream. Then the king said to him, ‘Belteshazzar, don’t be alarmed by the dream and what it means.’”

“Belteshazzar replied, ‘I wish the events foreshadowed in this dream would happen to your enemies, my lord, and not to you!’ <sup>20</sup>The tree you saw was growing very tall and strong, reaching high into the heavens for all the world to see.<sup>21</sup> It had fresh green leaves and was loaded with fruit for all to eat. Wild animals lived in its shade, and birds nested in its branches.<sup>22</sup> That tree, Your Majesty, is you. For you have grown strong and great; your greatness reaches up to heaven, and your rule to the ends of the earth.

<sup>23</sup>“Then you saw a messenger, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, ‘Cut down the tree and destroy it. But leave the stump and the roots in the ground, bound with a band of iron and bronze and surrounded by tender grass. Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven. Let him live with the animals of the field for seven periods of time.’”

<sup>24</sup>“This is what the dream means, Your Majesty, and what the Most High has declared will happen to my lord the king.<sup>25</sup> You will be driven from human society, and you will live in the fields with the wild animals. You will eat grass like a cow, and you will be drenched with the dew of heaven. Seven periods of time will pass while you live this way, until you learn that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of the world and gives them to anyone he chooses.<sup>26</sup> But the stump and roots of the tree were left in the ground. This means that you will receive your kingdom back again when you have learned that heaven rules.

and be merciful to the poor. Perhaps then you will continue to prosper.’

The Dream’s Fulfillment

<sup>28</sup> “But all these things did happen to King Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>29</sup>Twelve months later he was taking a walk on the flat roof of the royal palace in Babylon. <sup>30</sup>As he looked out across the city, he said, ‘Look at this great city of Babylon! By my own mighty power, I have built this beautiful city as my royal residence to display my majestic splendor.’

<sup>31</sup>“While these words were still in his mouth, a voice called down from heaven, ‘O King Nebuchadnezzar, this message is for you! You are no longer ruler of this kingdom. <sup>32</sup>You will be driven from human society. You will live in the fields with the wild animals, and you will eat grass like a cow. Seven periods of time will pass while you live this way, until you learn that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of the world and gives them to anyone he chooses.’

<sup>33</sup>“That same hour the judgment was fulfilled, and Nebuchadnezzar was driven from human society. He ate grass like a cow, and he was drenched with the dew of heaven. He lived this way until his hair was as long as eagles’ feathers and his nails were like birds’ claws.

Nebuchadnezzar Praises God

<sup>34</sup>“After this time had passed, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up to heaven. My sanity returned, and I praised and worshiped the Most High and honored the one who lives forever.

His rule is everlasting, and his kingdom is eternal.

<sup>35</sup>All the people of the earth are nothing compared to him.
He does as he pleases among the angels of heaven and among the people of the earth.
No one can stop him or say to him,
‘What do you mean by doing these things?’

<sup>36</sup>“When my sanity returned to me, so did my honor and glory and kingdom. My advisers and nobles sought me out, and I was restored as head of my kingdom, with even greater honor than before.

Daniel 5

The Writing on the Wall

<sup>7</sup>The king shouted for the enchanters, astrologers, * and fortune-tellers to be brought before him. He said to these wise men of Babylon, "Whoever can read this writing and tell me what it means will be dressed in purple robes of royal honor and will have a gold chain placed around his neck. He will become the third highest ruler in the kingdom!"

could read the writing or tell him what it meant.<sup>9</sup> So the king grew even more alarmed, and his face turned pale. His nobles, too, were shaken.

<sup>10</sup>But when the queen mother heard what was happening, she hurried to the banquet hall. She said to Belshazzar, “Long live the king! Don’t be so pale and frightened. <sup>11</sup>There is a man in your kingdom who has within him the spirit of the holy gods. During Nebuchadnezzar’s reign, this man was found to have insight, understanding, and wisdom like that of the gods. Your predecessor, the king—your predecessor King Nebuchadnezzar—made him chief over all the magicians, enchanters, astrologers, and fortune-tellers of Babylon. <sup>12</sup>This man Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar, has exceptional ability and is filled with divine knowledge and understanding. He can interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve difficult problems. Call for Daniel, and he will tell you what the writing means.”

Daniel Explains the Writing

<sup>13</sup>So Daniel was brought in before the king. The king asked him, “Are you Daniel, one of the exiles brought from Judah by my predecessor, King Nebuchadnezzar? <sup>14</sup>I have heard that you have the spirit of the gods within you and that you are filled with insight, understanding, and wisdom. <sup>15</sup>My wise men and enchanters have tried to read the words on the wall and tell me their meaning, but they cannot do it. <sup>16</sup>I am told that you can give interpretations and solve difficult problems. If you can read these words and tell me their meaning, you will be clothed in purple robes of royal honor, and you will have a gold chain placed around your neck. You will become the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

<sup>17</sup>Daniel answered the king, “Keep your gifts or give them to someone else, but I will tell you what the writing means. <sup>18</sup>Your Majesty, the Most High God gave sovereignty, majesty, glory, and honor to your predecessor, Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>19</sup>He made him so great that people of all races and nations and languages trembled before him in fear. He killed those he wanted to kill and spared those he wanted to spare. He honored those he wanted to honor and disgraced those he wanted to disgrace. <sup>20</sup>But when his heart and mind were puffed up with arrogance, he was brought down from his royal throne and stripped of his glory. <sup>21</sup>He was driven from human society. He was given the mind of a wild animal, and he lived among the wild donkeys. He ate grass like a cow, and he was drenched with the dew of heaven, until he learned that the Most High God rules over the kingdoms of the world and appoints anyone he desires to rule over them.

<sup>22</sup>“You are his successor, * O Belshazzar, and you knew all this, yet you have not humbled yourself. <sup>23</sup>For you have proudly defied the Lord of heaven and have had these cups from his Temple brought before you. You and your nobles and your wives and concubines have been drinking wine from them while praising gods of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone—gods that neither see nor hear nor know anything at all. But you have not honored the God who gives you the breath of life and controls your destiny! <sup>24</sup>So God has sent this hand to write this message.

Mene means ‘numbered’—God has numbered the days of your reign and has brought it to an end.

<sup>27</sup>Tekel means ‘weighed’—you have been weighed on the balances and have not measured up.

<sup>28</sup>*Parsin** means ‘divided’—your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and Persians.”

<sup>29</sup>Then at Belshazzar’s command, Daniel was dressed in purple robes, a gold chain was hung around his neck, and he was proclaimed the third highest ruler in the kingdom.

Daniel 6

Daniel in the Lions' Den

<sup>4</sup>Then the other administrators and high officers began searching for some fault in the way Daniel was handling government affairs, but they couldn't find anything to criticize or condemn. He was faithful, always responsible, and completely trustworthy.<sup>5</sup>So they concluded, "Our only chance of finding grounds for accusing Daniel will be in connection with the rules of his religion."

<sup>6</sup> So the administrators and high officers went to the king and said, "Long live King Darius! <sup>7</sup>We are all in agreement—we administrators, officials, high officers, advisers, and governors—that the king should make a law that will be strictly enforced. Give orders that for the next thirty days any person who prays to anyone, divine or human—except to you, Your Majesty—will be thrown into the den of lions. <sup>8</sup>And now, Your Majesty, issue and sign this law so it cannot be changed, an official law of the Medes and Persians that cannot be revoked.”<sup>9</sup> So King Darius signed the law.

<sup>10</sup>But when Daniel learned that the law had been signed, he went home and knelt down as usual in his upstairs room, with its windows open toward Jerusalem. He prayed three times a day, just as he had always done, giving thanks to his God. <sup>11</sup>Then the officials went together to Daniel’s house and found him praying and asking for God’s help. <sup>12</sup>So they went straight to the king and reminded him about his law. “Did you not sign a law that for the next thirty days any person who prays to anyone, divine or human—except to you, Your Majesty—will be thrown into the den of lions?”

“Yes,” the king replied, “that decision stands; it is an official law of the Medes and Persians that cannot be revoked.”

<sup>14</sup>Hearing this, the king was deeply troubled, and he tried to think of a way to save Daniel. He spent the rest of the day looking for a way to get Daniel out of this predicament.

<sup>15</sup>In the evening the men went together to the king and said, “Your Majesty, you know that according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, no law that the king signs can be changed.”

<sup>16</sup>So at last the king gave orders for Daniel to be arrested and thrown into the den of lions. The king said to him, “May your God, whom you serve so faithfully, rescue you.”

<sup>17</sup>A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den.

The king sealed the stone with his own royal seal and the seals of his nobles, so that no one could rescue Daniel.<sup>18</sup> Then the king returned to his palace and spent the night fasting. He refused his usual entertainment and couldn't sleep at all that night.

<sup>19</sup> Very early the next morning, the king got up and hurried out to the lions' den. <sup>20</sup> When he got there, he called out in anguish, "Daniel, servant of the living God! Was your God, whom you serve so faithfully, able to rescue you from the lions?"

<sup>21</sup> Daniel answered, "Long live the king! <sup>22</sup> My God sent his angel to shut the lions' mouths so that they would not hurt me, for I have been found innocent in his sight. And I have not wronged you, Your Majesty."

<sup>23</sup> The king was overjoyed and ordered that Daniel be lifted from the den. Not a scratch was found on him, for he had trusted in his God.

<sup>24</sup> Then the king gave orders to arrest the men who had maliciously accused Daniel. He had them thrown into the lions' den, along with their wives and children. The lions leaped on them and tore them apart before they even hit the floor of the den.

<sup>25</sup> Then King Darius sent this message to the people of every race and nation and language throughout the world:

"Peace and prosperity to you!

<sup>26</sup> "I decree that everyone throughout my kingdom should tremble with fear before the God of Daniel.

For he is the living God,
and he will endure forever.
His kingdom will never be destroyed,
and his rule will never end.

<sup>27</sup>He rescues and saves his people;
he performs miraculous signs and wonders in the heavens and on earth.
He has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions.”

<sup>28</sup>So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.*

Daniel 7

Daniel's Vision of Four Beasts

<sup>4</sup>The first beast was like a lion with eagles' wings. As I watched, its wings were pulled off, and it was left standing with its two hind feet on the ground, like a human being. And it was given a human mind.

<sup>5</sup>Then I saw a second beast, and it looked like a bear. It was rearing up on one side, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And I heard a voice saying to it, "Get up! Devour the flesh of many people!"

<sup>6</sup>Then the third of these strange beasts appeared, and it looked like a leopard. It had four bird's wings on its back, and it had four heads. Great authority was given to this beast.

<sup>7</sup>Then in my vision that night, I saw a fourth beast—terrifying, dreadful, and very strong. It devoured and crushed its victims with huge iron teeth and trampled their remains beneath its feet. It was different from any of the other beasts, and it had ten horns.

<sup>8</sup>As I was looking at the horns, suddenly another small horn appeared among them. Three of the first horns were torn out by the roots to make room for it. This little horn had eyes like human eyes and a mouth that was boasting arrogantly.

<sup>9</sup>I watched as thrones were put in place and the Ancient One* sat down to judge.

His clothing was as white as snow,
his hair like purest wool.

He sat on a fiery throne with wheels of blazing fire,

<sup>10</sup>and a river of fire was pouring out, flowing from his presence.

Millions of angels ministered to him;
many millions stood to attend him.

Then the court began its session,
and the books were opened.

<sup>11</sup>I continued to watch because I could hear the little horn's boastful speech. I kept watching until the fourth beast was killed and its body was destroyed by fire. <sup>12</sup>The other three beasts had their authority taken from them, but they were allowed to live a while longer.*

<sup>13</sup>As my vision continued that night, I saw someone like a son of man* coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient One and was led into his presence. <sup>14</sup>He was given authority, honor, and sovereignty over all the nations of the world, so that people of every race and nation and language would obey him. His rule is eternal—it will never end. His kingdom will never be destroyed.

The Vision Is Explained

<sup>15</sup>I, Daniel, was troubled by all I had seen, and my visions terrified me. <sup>16</sup>So I approached one of those standing beside the throne and asked him what it all meant. He explained it to me like this: <sup>17</sup>“These four huge beasts represent four kingdoms that will arise from the earth. <sup>18</sup>But in the end, the holy people of the Most High will be given the kingdom, and they will rule forever and ever.”

<sup>19</sup>Then I wanted to know the true meaning of the fourth beast, the one so different from the others and so terrifying. It had devoured and crushed its victims with iron teeth and bronze claws, trampling their remains beneath its feet. <sup>20</sup>I also asked about the ten horns on the fourth beast’s head and the little horn that came up afterward and destroyed three of the other horns. This horn had seemed greater than the others, and it had human eyes and a mouth that was boasting arrogantly. <sup>21</sup>As I watched, this horn was waging war against God’s holy people and was defeating them, <sup>22</sup>until the Ancient One—the Most High—came and judged in favor of his holy people. Then the time arrived for the holy people to take over the kingdom.

<sup>23</sup>Then he said to me, “This fourth beast is the fourth world power that will rule the earth. It will be different from all the others. It will devour the whole world, trampling and crushing everything in its path. <sup>24</sup>Its ten horns are ten kings who will rule that empire. Then another king will arise, different from the other ten, who will subdue three of them.<sup>25</sup>He will defy the Most High and oppress the holy people of the Most High. He will try to change their sacred festivals and laws, and they will be placed under his control for a time, times, and half a time.

<sup>26</sup>“But then the court will pass judgment, and all his power will be taken away and completely destroyed.<sup>27</sup>Then the sovereignty, power, and greatness of all the kingdoms under heaven will be given to the holy people of the Most High. His kingdom will last forever, and all rulers will serve and obey him.”

<sup>28</sup>That was the end of the vision. I, Daniel, was terrified by my thoughts and my face was pale with fear, but I kept these things to myself.

Daniel 8

Daniel's Vision of a Ram and Goat

<sup>3</sup>As I looked up, I saw a ram with two long horns standing beside the river.* One of the horns was longer than the other, even though it had grown later than the other one. <sup>4</sup>The ram butted everything out of his way to the west, to the north, and to the south, and no one could stand against him or help his victims. He did as he pleased and became very great.

<sup>5</sup>While I was watching, suddenly a male goat appeared from the west, crossing the land so swiftly that he didn't even touch the ground. This goat, which had one very large horn between its eyes, <sup>6</sup>headed toward the two-horned ram that I had seen standing beside the river, rushing at him in a rage. <sup>7</sup>The goat charged furiously at the ram and struck him, breaking off both his horns. Now the ram was helpless, and the goat knocked him down and trampled him. No one could rescue the ram from the goat's power.

horn whose power grew very great. It extended toward the south and the east and toward the glorious land of Israel. <sup>10</sup>Its power reached to the heavens, where it attacked the heavenly army, throwing some of the heavenly beings and some of the stars to the ground and trampling them. <sup>11</sup>It even challenged the Commander of heaven's army by canceling the daily sacrifices offered to him and by destroying his Temple. <sup>12</sup>The army of heaven was restrained from responding to this rebellion. So the daily sacrifice was halted, and truth was overthrown. The horn succeeded in everything it did.*

<sup>13</sup>Then I heard two holy ones talking to each other. One of them asked, "How long will the events of this vision last? How long will the rebellion that causes desecration stop the daily sacrifices? How long will the Temple and heaven's army be trampled on?"

<sup>14</sup>The other replied, "It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the Temple will be made right again."

Gabriel Explains the Vision

<sup>15</sup>As I, Daniel, was trying to understand the meaning of this vision, someone who looked like a man stood in front of me.

<sup>17</sup>As Gabriel approached the place where I was standing, I became so terrified that I fell with my face to the ground. "Son of man," he said, "you must understand that the events you have seen in your vision relate to the time of the end."

<sup>18</sup>While he was speaking, I fainted and lay there with my face to the ground. But Gabriel roused me with a touch and helped me to my feet.

<sup>19</sup>Then he said, "I am here to tell you what will happen later in the time of wrath. What you have seen pertains to the very end of time. <sup>20</sup>The two-horned ram represents the kings of Media and Persia. <sup>21</sup>The shaggy male goat represents the king of Greece,* and the large horn between his eyes represents the first king of the Greek Empire. <sup>22</sup>The four prominent horns that replaced the one large horn show that the Greek Empire will break into four kingdoms, but none as great as the first.

<sup>23</sup>"At the end of their rule, when their sin is at its height, a fierce king, a master of intrigue, will rise to power. <sup>24</sup>He will become very strong, but not by his own power. He will cause a shocking amount of destruction and succeed in everything he does. He will destroy powerful leaders and devastate the holy people. <sup>25</sup>He will be a master of deception and will become arrogant; he will destroy many without warning. He will even take on the Prince of princes in battle, but he will be broken, though not by human power.

<sup>26</sup>"This vision about the 2,300 evenings and mornings* is true. But none of these things will happen for a long time, so keep this vision a secret."

<sup>27</sup>Then I, Daniel, was overcome and lay sick for several days. Afterward I got up and performed my duties for the king, but I was greatly troubled by the vision and could not understand it.

Daniel 9

Daniel's Prayer for His People

<sup>1</sup> It was the first year of the reign of Darius the Mede, the son of Ahasuerus, who became king of the Babylonians.* <sup>2</sup>During the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, learned from reading the word of the LORD, as revealed to Jeremiah the prophet, that Jerusalem must lie desolate for seventy years.* <sup>3</sup>So I turned to the Lord God and pleaded with him in prayer and fasting. I also wore rough burlap and sprinkled myself with ashes.

<sup>4</sup>I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed:

“O Lord, you are a great and awesome God! You always fulfill your covenant and keep your promises of unfailing love to those who love you and obey your commands.

<sup>5</sup>But we have sinned and done wrong. We have rebelled against you and scorned your commands and regulations.

<sup>6</sup>We have refused to listen to your servants the prophets, who spoke on your authority to our kings and princes and ancestors and to all the people of the land.

<sup>7</sup>“Lord, you are in the right; but as you see, our faces are covered with shame. This is true of all of us, including the people of Judah and Jerusalem and all Israel, scattered near and far, wherever you have driven us because of our disloyalty to you. <sup>8</sup>O LORD, we and our kings, princes, and ancestors are covered with shame because we have sinned against you.<sup>9</sup> But the Lord our God is merciful and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against him.<sup>10</sup> We have not obeyed the LORD our God, for we have not followed the instructions he gave us through his servants the prophets.<sup>11</sup> All Israel has disobeyed your instruction and turned away, refusing to listen to your voice.

“So now the solemn curses and judgments written in the Law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured down on us because of our sin.<sup>12</sup> You have kept your word and done to us and our rulers exactly as you warned. Never has there been such a disaster as happened in Jerusalem.<sup>13</sup> Every curse written against us in the Law of Moses has come true. Yet we have refused to seek mercy from the LORD our God by turning from our sins and recognizing his truth.<sup>14</sup> Therefore, the LORD has brought upon us the disaster he prepared. The LORD our God was right to do all of these things, for we did not obey him.

<sup>15</sup>“O Lord our God, you brought lasting honor to your name by rescuing your people from Egypt in a great display of power. But we have sinned and are full of wickedness.<sup>16</sup> In view of all your faithful mercies, Lord, please turn your furious anger away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain. All the neighboring nations mock Jerusalem and your people because of our sins and the sins of our ancestors.

<sup>18</sup>“O my God, lean down and listen to me. Open your eyes and see our despair. See how your city—the city that bears your name—lies in ruins. We make this plea, not because we deserve help, but because of your mercy.

<sup>19</sup>“O Lord, hear. O Lord, forgive. O Lord, listen and act! For your own sake, do not delay, O my God, for your people and your city bear your name.”

Gabriel's Message about the Anointed One

<sup>20</sup> I went on praying and confessing my sin and the sin of my people, pleading with the LORD my God for Jerusalem, his holy mountain. <sup>21</sup>As I was praying, Gabriel, whom I had seen in the earlier vision, came swiftly to me at the time of the evening sacrifice. <sup>22</sup>He explained to me, “Daniel, I have come here to give you insight and understanding. <sup>23</sup>The moment you began praying, a command was given. And now I am here to tell you what it was, for you are very precious to God. Listen carefully so that you can understand the meaning of your vision.

<sup>24</sup>“A period of seventy sets of seven* has been decreed for your people and your holy city to finish their rebellion, to put an end to their sin, to atone for their guilt, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to confirm the prophetic vision, and to anoint the Most Holy Place.* <sup>25</sup>Now listen and understand! Seven sets of seven plus sixty-two sets of seven* will pass from the time the command is given to rebuild Jerusalem until a ruler—the Anointed One*—comes. Jerusalem will be rebuilt with streets and strong defenses,* despite the perilous times.

One will be killed, appearing to have accomplished nothing, and a ruler will arise whose armies will destroy the city and the Temple. The end will come with a flood, and war and its miseries are decreed from that time to the very end.<sup>27</sup> The ruler will make a treaty with the people for a period of one set of seven,* but after half this time, he will put an end to the sacrifices and offerings. And as a climax to all his terrible deeds,* he will set up a sacrilegious object that causes desecration,* until the fate decreed for this defiler is finally poured out on him.”

Daniel 10

Daniel's Vision of a Messenger

<sup>1</sup>In the third year of the reign of King Cyrus of Persia,* Daniel (also known as Belteshazzar) had another vision. He understood that the vision concerned events certain to happen in the future—times of war and great hardship.

PERSPECTIVES

In the third year of the reign of King Cyrus of Persia, Daniel . . . had another vision. He understood that the vision concerned events certain to happen in the future—times of war and great hardship.

DANIEL 10:1

The great accomplishments of the world have been achieved by men who had high ideals and who have received great visions. The path is not easy, the climbing is rugged and hard, but the glory at the end is worthwhile.

MATTHEW HENSON, EXPLORER WHO, AS PART OF THE ROBERT PEARY EXPEDITION, DISCOVERED THE NORTH POLE IN 1909

<sup>2</sup>When this vision came to me, I, Daniel, had been in mourning for three whole weeks. <sup>3</sup>All that time I had eaten no rich food. No meat or wine crossed my lips, and I used no fragrant lotions until those three weeks had passed.

<sup>7</sup>Only I, Daniel, saw this vision. The men with me saw nothing, but they were suddenly terrified and ran away to hide. <sup>8</sup>So I was left there all alone to see this amazing vision. My strength left me, my face grew deathly pale, and I felt very weak. <sup>9</sup>Then I heard the man speak, and when I heard the sound of his voice, I fainted and lay there with my face to the ground.

<sup>10</sup>Just then a hand touched me and lifted me, still trembling, to my hands and knees. <sup>11</sup>And the man said to me, “Daniel, you are very precious to God, so listen carefully to what I have to say to you. Stand up, for I have been sent to you.” When he said this to me, I stood up, still trembling.

<sup>12</sup>Then he said, “Don’t be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day you began to pray for understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your request has been heard in heaven. I have come in answer to your prayer. <sup>13</sup>But for twenty-one days the spirit prince* of the kingdom of Persia blocked my way.

Then Michael, one of the archangels,* came to help me, and I left him there with the spirit prince of the kingdom of Persia.*

<sup>14</sup>Now I am here to explain what will happen to your people in the future, for this vision concerns a time yet to come.”

<sup>15</sup>While he was speaking to me, I looked down at the ground, unable to say a word. <sup>16</sup>Then the one who looked like a man* touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and began to speak. I said to the one standing in front of me, “I am filled with anguish because of the vision I have seen, my lord, and I am very weak. <sup>17</sup>How can someone like me, your servant, talk to you, my lord? My strength is gone, and I can hardly breathe.”

<sup>18</sup>Then the one who looked like a man touched me again, and I felt my strength returning. <sup>19</sup>“Don’t be afraid,” he said, “for you are very precious to God. Peace! Be encouraged! Be strong!”

As he spoke these words to me, I suddenly felt stronger and said to him, “Please speak to me, my lord, for you have strengthened me.”

<sup>20</sup>He replied, “Do you know why I have come? Soon I must return to fight against the spirit prince of the kingdom of Persia, and after that the spirit prince of the kingdom of Greece* will come. <sup>21</sup>Meanwhile, I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. (No one helps me against these spirit princes except Michael, your spirit prince.*

<sup>11</sup>“I have been standing beside Michael* to support and strengthen him since the first year of the reign of Darius the Mede.)*

Daniel 11

Kings of the South and North

<sup>2</sup>“Now then, I will reveal the truth to you. Three more Persian kings will reign, to be succeeded by a fourth, far richer than the others. He will use his wealth to stir up everyone to fight against the kingdom of Greece.*

<sup>3</sup>“Then a mighty king will rise to power who will rule with great authority and accomplish everything he sets out to do. <sup>4</sup>But at the height of his power, his kingdom will be broken apart and divided into four parts. It will not be ruled by the king’s descendants, nor will the kingdom hold the authority it once had. For his empire will be uprooted and given to others.

<sup>6</sup>“Some years later an alliance will be formed between the king of the north and the king of the south. The daughter of the king of the south will be given in marriage to the king of the north to secure the alliance, but she will lose her influence over him, and so will her father. She will be abandoned along with her supporters. <sup>7</sup>But when one of her relatives* becomes king of the south, he will raise an army and enter the fortress of the king of the north and defeat him.<sup>8</sup> When he returns to Egypt, he will carry back their idols with him, along with priceless articles of gold and silver. For some years afterward he will leave the king of the north alone.

<sup>9</sup>“Later the king of the north will invade the realm of the king of the south but will soon return to his own land.<sup>10</sup> However, the sons of the king of the north will assemble a mighty army that will advance like a flood and carry the battle as far as the enemy’s fortress.

<sup>11</sup>“Then, in a rage, the king of the south will rally against the vast forces assembled by the king of the north and will defeat them.<sup>12</sup> After the enemy army is swept away, the king of the south will be filled with pride and will execute many thousands of his enemies. But his success will be short lived.

<sup>13</sup>“A few years later the king of the north will return with a fully equipped army far greater than before.<sup>14</sup> At that time there will be a general uprising against the king of the south. Violent men among your own people will join them in fulfillment of this vision, but they will not succeed.<sup>15</sup> Then the king of the north will come and lay siege to a fortified city and capture it. The best troops of the south will not be able to stand in the face of the onslaught.

<sup>16</sup>“The king of the north will march onward unopposed; none will be able to stop him. He will pause in the glorious land of Israel,* intent on destroying it.<sup>17</sup> He will make plans to come with the might of his entire kingdom and will form an alliance with the king of the south. He will give him a daughter in marriage in order to overthrow the kingdom from within, but his plan will fail.

<sup>18</sup>“After this, he will turn his attention to the coastland and conquer many cities. But a commander from another land will put an end to his insolence and cause him to retreat in shame.

<sup>19</sup>He will take refuge in his own fortresses but will stumble and fall and be seen no more.

<sup>20</sup>“His successor will send out a tax collector to maintain the royal splendor. But after a very brief reign, he will die, though not from anger or in battle.

<sup>21</sup>“The next to come to power will be a despicable man who is not in line for royal succession. He will slip in when least expected and take over the kingdom by flattery and intrigue.

<sup>22</sup>Before him great armies will be swept away, including a covenant prince. <sup>23</sup>With deceitful promises, he will make various alliances. He will become strong despite having only a handful of followers. <sup>24</sup>Without warning he will enter the richest areas of the land. Then he will distribute among his followers the plunder and wealth of the rich—something his predecessors had never done. He will plot the overthrow of strongholds, but this will last for only a short while.

<sup>25</sup>“Then he will stir up his courage and raise a great army against the king of the south. The king of the south will go to battle with a mighty army, but to no avail, for there will be plots against him. <sup>26</sup>His own household will cause his downfall. His army will be swept away, and many will be killed. <sup>27</sup>Seeking nothing but each other's harm, these kings will plot against each other at the conference table, attempting to deceive each other. But it will make no difference, for the end will come at the appointed time.

<sup>28</sup>“The king of the north will then return home with great riches. On the way he will set himself against the people of the holy covenant, doing much damage before continuing his journey.

<sup>29</sup>“Then at the appointed time he will once again invade the south, but this time the result will be different. <sup>30</sup>For warships from western coastlands* will scare him off, and he will withdraw and return home. But he will vent his anger against the people of the holy covenant and reward those who forsake the covenant.

<sup>31</sup>“His army will take over the Temple fortress, pollute the sanctuary, put a stop to the daily sacrifices, and set up the sacrilegious object that causes desecration.* <sup>32</sup>He will flatter and win over those who have violated the covenant. But the people who know their God will be strong and will resist him.

<sup>33</sup>“Wise leaders will give instruction to many, but these teachers will die by fire and sword, or they will be jailed and robbed. <sup>34</sup>During these persecutions, little help will arrive, and many who join them will not be sincere. <sup>35</sup> And some of the wise will fall victim to persecution. In this way, they will be refined and cleansed and made pure until the time of the end, for the appointed time is still to come.

<sup>36</sup>“The king will do as he pleases, exalting himself and claiming to be greater than every god, even blaspheming the God of gods. He will succeed, but only until the time of wrath is completed. For what has been determined will surely take place.

<sup>37</sup>He will have no respect for the gods of his ancestors, or for the god loved by women, or for any other god, for he will boast that he is greater than them all. <sup>38</sup>Instead of these, he will worship the god of fortresses—a god his ancestors never knew—and lavish on him gold, silver, precious stones, and expensive gifts. <sup>39</sup>Claiming this foreign god's help, he will attack the strongest fortresses. He will honor those who submit to him, appointing them to positions of authority and dividing the land among them as their reward.*

<sup>40</sup>“Then at the time of the end, the king of the south will attack the king of the north. The king of the north will storm out with chariots, charioteers, and a vast navy. He will invade various lands and sweep through them like a flood. <sup>41</sup>He will enter the glorious land of Israel,* and many nations will fall, but Moab, Edom, and the best part of Ammon will escape. <sup>42</sup>He will conquer many countries, and even Egypt will not escape. <sup>43</sup>He will gain control over the gold, silver, and treasures of Egypt, and the Libyans and Ethiopians* will be his servants.

<sup>44</sup>“But then news from the east and the north will alarm him, and he will set out in great anger to destroy and obliterate many. <sup>45</sup>He will stop between the glorious holy mountain and the sea and will pitch his royal tents. But while he is there, his time will suddenly run out, and no one will help him.

Daniel 12

The Time of the End

<sup>1</sup> “At that time Michael, the archangel* who stands guard over your nation, will arise. Then there will be a time of anguish greater than any since nations first came into existence. But at that time every one of your people whose name is written in the book will be rescued.<sup>2</sup> Many of those whose bodies lie dead and buried will rise up, some to everlasting life and some to shame and everlasting disgrace.<sup>3</sup> Those who are wise will shine as bright as the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness will shine like the stars forever.<sup>4</sup> But you, Daniel, keep this prophecy a secret; seal up the book until the time of the end, when many will rush here and there, and knowledge will increase.”

<sup>7</sup> The man dressed in linen, who was standing above the river, raised both his hands toward heaven and took a solemn oath by the One who lives forever, saying, “It will go on for a time, times, and half a time. When the shattering of the holy people has finally come to an end, all these things will have happened.”

<sup>8</sup> I heard what he said, but I did not understand what he meant. So I asked, “How will all this finally end, my lord?”

<sup>9</sup>But he said, “Go now, Daniel, for what I have said is kept secret and sealed until the time of the end. <sup>10</sup> Many will be purified, cleansed, and refined by these trials. But the wicked will continue in their wickedness, and none of them will understand. Only those who are wise will know what it means.

<sup>11</sup>“From the time the daily sacrifice is stopped and the sacrilegious object that causes desecration* is set up to be worshiped, there will be 1,290 days. <sup>12</sup>And blessed are those who wait and remain until the end of the 1,335 days!

<sup>13</sup>“As for you, go your way until the end. You will rest, and then at the end of the days, you will rise again to receive the inheritance set aside for you.”

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

SELFLESS LOVE.

Hosea shows us how to love as God loves. He loved his wife even when she did wrong and left him; he persisted and won her back. If we are to love our wives as Christ loved the church (Ephesians 5:25), Hosea shows us the sacrifice that might be required of us.

Hosea 1

<sup>1</sup>The LORD gave this message to Hosea son of Beeri during the years when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah, and Jeroboam son of Jehoash* was king of Israel.

Hosea

Hosea's Wife and Children

<sup>2</sup> When the LORD first began speaking to Israel through Hosea, he said to him, “Go and marry a prostitute,* so that some of her children will be conceived in prostitution. This will illustrate how Israel has acted like a prostitute by turning against the LORD and worshipping other gods.”

<sup>3</sup>So Hosea married Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim, and she became pregnant and gave Hosea a son. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD said, “Name the child Jezreel, for I am about to punish King Jehu’s dynasty to avenge the murders he committed at Jezreel. In fact, I will bring an end to Israel’s independence. <sup>5</sup>I will break its military power in the Jezreel Valley.”

<sup>6</sup>Soon Gomer became pregnant again and gave birth to a daughter. And the LORD said to Hosea, “Name your daughter Lo-ruhamah—‘Not loved’—for I will no longer show love to the people of Israel or forgive them. <sup>7</sup>But I will show love to the people of Judah. I will free them from their enemies—not with weapons and armies or horses and charioteers, but by my power as the LORD their God.”

<sup>8</sup>After Gomer had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she again became pregnant and gave birth to a second son. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD said, “Name him Lo-ammi—‘Not my people’—for Israel is not my people, and I am not their God.

<sup>10*</sup>“Yet the time will come when Israel’s people will be like the sands of the seashore—too many to count! Then, at the place where they were told, ‘You are not my people,’ it will be said, ‘You are children of the living God.’ <sup>11</sup>Then the people of Judah and Israel will unite together. They will choose one leader for themselves, and they will return from exile together. What a day that will be—the day of Jezreel*—when God will again plant his people in his land.

<sup>2:1*</sup>“In that day you will call your brothers Ammi—‘My people.’ And you will call your sisters Ruhamah—‘The ones I love.’”

Hosea 2

Charges against an Unfaithful Wife

<sup>2</sup>“But now bring charges against Israel—your mother—for she is no longer my wife, and I am no longer her husband.

Tell her to remove the prostitute’s makeup from her face and the clothing that exposes her breasts.

<sup>3</sup>Otherwise, I will strip her as naked
as she was on the day she was born.

I will leave her to die of thirst,
as in a dry and barren wilderness.

<sup>4</sup>And I will not love her children, for they were conceived in prostitution.

<sup>5</sup>Their mother is a shameless prostitute and became pregnant in a shameful way.

She said, ‘I’ll run after other lovers and sell myself to them for food and water, for clothing of wool and linen,
and for olive oil and drinks.’

<sup>6</sup>“For this reason I will fence her in with thornbushes.
I will block her path with a wall to make her lose her way.

<sup>7</sup>When she runs after her lovers,
she won't be able to catch them.
She will search for them
but not find them.
Then she will think,
'I might as well return to my husband, for I was better off with him than I am now.'
<sup>8</sup>She doesn't realize it was I who gave her everything she has

---

the grain, the new wine, the olive oil;
I even gave her silver and gold.
But she gave all my gifts to Baal.

<sup>9</sup>“But now I will take back the ripened grain and new wine
I generously provided each harvest season.
I will take away the wool and linen clothing
I gave her to cover her nakedness.

<sup>10</sup>I will strip her naked in public, while all her lovers look on.
No one will be able to rescue her from my hands.

<sup>11</sup>I will put an end to her annual festivals, her new moon celebrations, and her Sabbath days—
all her appointed festivals.

<sup>12</sup>I will destroy her grapevines and fig trees, things she claims her lovers gave her.
I will let them grow into tangled thickets,
where only wild animals will eat the fruit.

<sup>13</sup>I will punish her for all those times when she burned incense to her images of Baal,
when she put on her earrings and jewels and went out to look for her lovers but forgot all about me,”
says the LORD.

The LORD's Love for Unfaithful Israel

<sup>14</sup>“But then I will win her back once again.
I will lead her into the desert and speak tenderly to her there.

<sup>15</sup>I will return her vineyards to her and transform the Valley of Trouble* into a gateway of hope.
She will give herself to me there,
as she did long ago when she was young,
when I freed her from her captivity in Egypt.

<sup>16</sup>When that day comes,” says the LORD,
“you will call me ‘my husband’ instead of ‘my master.’*
*

<sup>17</sup>O Israel, I will wipe the many names of Baal from your lips, and you will never mention them again.

<sup>18</sup>On that day I will make a covenant with all the wild animals and the birds of the sky and the animals that scurry along the ground
so they will not harm you.
I will remove all weapons of war from the land,
all swords and bows,
so you can live unafraid
in peace and safety.

<sup>19</sup>I will make you my wife forever, showing you righteousness and justice,
unfailing love and compassion.

<sup>20</sup>I will be faithful to you and make you mine, and you will finally know me as the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>“In that day, I will answer,”
says the LORD.

“I will answer the sky as it pleads for clouds.
And the sky will answer the earth with rain.

<sup>22</sup>Then the earth will answer the thirsty cries of the grain, the grapevines, and the olive trees.
And they in turn will answer,
‘Jezreel’—‘God plants!’

<sup>23</sup>At that time I will plant a crop of Israelites and raise them for myself.

I will show love to those I called ‘Not loved.’*
And to those I called ‘Not my people,’*
I will say, ‘Now you are my people.’
And they will reply, ‘You are our God!’”

Hosea 3

Hosea's Wife Is Redeemed

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to me, “Go and love your wife again, even though she* commits adultery with another lover. This will illustrate that the LORD still loves Israel, even though the people have turned to other gods and love to worship them.*”

<sup>2</sup> So I bought her back for fifteen pieces of silver* and five bushels of barley and a measure of wine.* <sup>3</sup> Then I said to her, “You must live in my house for many days and stop your prostitution. During this time, you will not have sexual relations with anyone, not even with me.*”

<sup>4</sup> This shows that Israel will go a long time without a king or prince, and without sacrifices, sacred pillars, priests,* or even idols! <sup>5</sup> But afterward the people will return and devote themselves to the LORD their God and to David's descendant, their king.* In the last days, they will tremble in awe of the LORD and of his goodness.

Hosea4

The LORD's Case against Israel

<sup>1</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, O people of Israel!
The LORD has brought charges against you, saying:

“There is no faithfulness, no kindness,
no knowledge of God in your land.

<sup>2</sup>You make vows and break them;
you kill and steal and commit adultery.
There is violence everywhere—
one murder after another.

<sup>3</sup>That is why your land is in mourning, and everyone is wasting away.
Even the wild animals, the birds of the sky,
and the fish of the sea are disappearing.

<sup>4</sup>“Don’t point your finger at someone else and try to pass the blame!
My complaint, you priests,
is with you.*

<sup>5</sup>So you will stumble in broad daylight, and your false prophets will fall with you in the night.
And I will destroy Israel, your mother.

<sup>6</sup>My people are being destroyed because they don’t know me.
Since you priests refuse to know me,
I refuse to recognize you as my priests.

Since you have forgotten the laws of your God,
I will forget to bless your children.

<sup>7</sup>The more priests there are,
the more they sin against me.
They have exchanged the glory of God
for the shame of idols.*

<sup>8</sup>“When the people bring their sin offerings, the priests get fed.

So the priests are glad when the people sin!
<sup>9</sup>“And what the priests do, the people also do.’
So now I will punish both priests and people for their wicked deeds.

<sup>10</sup>They will eat and still be hungry.
They will play the prostitute and gain nothing from it,
for they have deserted the LORD
<sup>11</sup>to worship other gods.

“Wine has robbed my people of their understanding.

<sup>12</sup>They ask a piece of wood for advice!
They think a stick can tell them the future!
Longing after idols
has made them foolish.
They have played the prostitute,
serving other gods and deserting their God.

<sup>13</sup>They offer sacrifices to idols on the mountaintops.
They go up into the hills to burn incense in the pleasant shade of oaks, poplars, and terebinth trees.

“That is why your daughters turn to prostitution, and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.

<sup>14</sup>But why should I punish them for their prostitution and adultery?
For your men are doing the same thing,
sinning with whores and shrine prostitutes.
O foolish people! You refuse to understand,
so you will be destroyed.

<sup>15</sup>“Though you, Israel, are a prostitute, may Judah avoid such guilt.
Do not join the false worship at Gilgal or Beth-aven,* even though they take oaths there in the LORD’s name.

<sup>16</sup>Israel is stubborn,
like a stubborn heifer.
So should the LORD feed her like a lamb in a lush pasture?

<sup>17</sup>Leave Israel* alone, because she is married to idolatry.

<sup>18</sup>When the rulers of Israel finish their drinking, off they go to find some prostitutes.
They love shame more than honor.*

<sup>19</sup>So a mighty wind will sweep them away.
Their sacrifices to idols will bring them shame.

Hosea 5

The Failure of Israel's Leaders

<sup>1</sup>“Hear this, you priests.

Pay attention, you leaders of Israel.

Listen, you members of the royal family.

Judgment has been handed down against you.

For you have led the people into a snare

by worshiping the idols at Mizpah and Tabor.

But I will settle with you for what you have done.

<sup>3</sup>I know what you are like, O Ephraim.

You cannot hide yourself from me, O Israel.

You have left me as a prostitute leaves her husband;

you are utterly defiled.

<sup>4</sup>Your deeds won't let you return to your God.

You are a prostitute through and through,

and you do not know the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>“The arrogance of Israel testifies against her;

Israel and Ephraim will stumble under their load of guilt.

Judah, too, will fall with them.

<sup>6</sup>When they come with their flocks and herds to offer sacrifices to the LORD,

they will not find him,

because he has withdrawn from them.

<sup>7</sup>They have betrayed the honor of the LORD, bearing children that are not his.

Now their false religion will devour them along with their wealth.*

<sup>8</sup>“Sound the alarm in Gibeah!
Blow the trumpet in Ramah!
Raise the battle cry in Beth-aven*!
Lead on into battle, O warriors of Benjamin!
<sup>9</sup>One thing is certain, Israel*:
On your day of punishment,
you will become a heap of rubble.

<sup>10</sup>“The leaders of Judah have become like thieves.*
So I will pour my anger on them like a waterfall.

<sup>11</sup>The people of Israel will be crushed and broken by my judgment
because they are determined to worship idols.*
<sup>12</sup>I will destroy Israel as a moth consumes wool.
I will make Judah as weak as rotten wood.

<sup>13</sup>“When Israel and Judah saw how sick they were, Israel turned to Assyria—to the great king there—but he could neither help nor cure them.

<sup>14</sup>I will be like a lion to Israel, like a strong young lion to Judah.
I will tear them to pieces!
I will carry them off,

and no one will be left to rescue them.

<sup>15</sup>Then I will return to my place until they admit their guilt and turn to me.
For as soon as trouble comes,
they will earnestly search for me.”

Hosea 6

A Call to Repentance

<sup>1</sup>“Come, let us return to the LORD.

He has torn us to pieces;

now he will heal us.

He has injured us;

now he will bandage our wounds.

<sup>2</sup>In just a short time he will restore us, so that we may live in his presence.

<sup>3</sup>Oh, that we might know the LORD!

Let us press on to know him.

He will respond to us as surely as the arrival of dawn or the coming of rains in early spring.”

<sup>4</sup>“O Israel* and Judah, what should I do with you?” asks the LORD.

“For your love vanishes like the morning mist and disappears like dew in the sunlight.

<sup>5</sup>I sent my prophets to cut you to pieces—to slaughter you with my words, with judgments as inescapable as light.

<sup>6</sup>I want you to show love,*

not offer sacrifices.

I want you to know me*

more than I want burnt offerings.

<sup>7</sup>But like Adam,* you broke my covenant and betrayed my trust.

<sup>8</sup>“Gilead is a city of sinners, tracked with footprints of blood.

<sup>9</sup>Priests form bands of robbers, waiting in ambush for their victims.

They murder travelers along the road to Shechem and practice every kind of sin.

<sup>10</sup>Yes, I have seen something horrible in Ephraim and Israel:
My people are defiled by prostituting themselves with other gods!

<sup>11</sup>“O Judah, a harvest of punishment is also waiting for you, though I wanted to restore the fortunes of my people.

Hosea 7

Israel's Love for Wickedness

<sup>1</sup>“I want to heal Israel,* but its sins are too great.

Samaria is filled with liars.

Thieves are on the inside and bandits on the outside!

<sup>2</sup>Its people don't realize that I am watching them.

Their sinful deeds are all around them,
and I see them all.

<sup>3</sup>“The people entertain the king with their wickedness, and the princes laugh at their lies.

<sup>4</sup>They are all adulterers, always aflame with lust.

They are like an oven that is kept hot while the baker is kneading the dough.

<sup>5</sup>On royal holidays, the princes get drunk with wine, carousing with those who mock them.

<sup>6</sup>Their hearts are like an oven blazing with intrigue.

Their plot smolders* through the night,
and in the morning it breaks out like a raging fire.

<sup>7</sup>Burning like an oven,
they consume their leaders.

They kill their kings one after another,

and no one cries to me for help.

<sup>8</sup>“The people of Israel mingle with godless foreigners, making themselves as worthless as a half-baked cake!

<sup>9</sup>Worshiping foreign gods has sapped their strength, but they don’t even know it.

Their hair is gray,
but they don’t realize they’re old and weak.

<sup>10</sup> Their arrogance testifies against them, yet they don’t return to the LORD their God or even try to find him.

<sup>11</sup>“The people of Israel have become like silly, witless doves, first calling to Egypt, then flying to Assyria for help.

<sup>12</sup>But as they fly about,
I will throw my net over them
and bring them down like a bird from the sky.
I will punish them for all the evil they do.*

<sup>13</sup> “What sorrow awaits those who have deserted me!

Let them die, for they have rebelled against me.

I wanted to redeem them,
but they have told lies about me.

<sup>14</sup>They do not cry out to me with sincere hearts.

Instead, they sit on their couches and wail.

They cut themselves,* begging foreign gods for grain and new wine,
and they turn away from me.

<sup>15</sup>I trained them and made them strong, yet now they plot evil against me.

They are as useless as a crooked bow.
Their leaders will be killed by their enemies
because of their insolence toward me.
Then the people of Egypt
will laugh at them.

Hosea 8

Israel Harvests the Whirlwind

<sup>1</sup>“Sound the alarm!

The enemy descends like an eagle on the people of the LORD, for they have broken my covenant and revolted against my law.

‘Help us, for you are our God!’

<sup>3</sup>But it is too late.

The people of Israel have rejected what is good,
and now their enemies will chase after them.

<sup>4</sup>The people have appointed kings without my consent, and princes without my knowledge.

By making idols for themselves from their silver and gold,
they have brought about their own destruction.

<sup>5</sup>“O Samaria, I reject this calf—
this idol you have made.

My fury burns against you.

How long will you be incapable of innocence?

<sup>6</sup>This calf you worship, O Israel, was crafted by your own hands!

It is not God!

Therefore, it must be smashed to bits.

<sup>7</sup>“They have planted the wind and will harvest the whirlwind.

The stalks of grain wither and produce nothing to eat.
And even if there is any grain, foreigners will eat it.

<sup>8</sup>The people of Israel have been swallowed up;
they lie among the nations like an old discarded pot.

<sup>9</sup>Like a wild donkey looking for a mate,
they have gone up to Assyria.
The people of Israel* have sold themselves—sold themselves to many lovers.

<sup>10</sup>But though they have sold themselves to many allies,
I will now gather them together for judgment.
Then they will writhe
under the burden of the great king.

<sup>11</sup>“Israel has built many altars to take away sin, but these very altars became places for sinning!

<sup>12</sup>Even though I gave them all my laws,
they act as if those laws don’t apply to them.

<sup>13</sup>The people of Israel love their rituals of sacrifice, but to me their sacrifices are all meaningless.
I will hold my people accountable for their sins,
and I will punish them.

They will return to Egypt.

<sup>14</sup>Israel has forgotten its Maker and built great palaces, and Judah has fortified its cities.

Therefore, I will send down fire on their cities and will burn up their fortresses.”

Hosea 9

Hosea Announces Israel's Punishment

<sup>1</sup>O people of Israel, do not rejoice as other nations do.
For you have been unfaithful to your God, hiring yourselves out like prostitutes,
worshiping other gods on every threshing floor.

<sup>2</sup>So now your harvests will be too small to feed you.
There will be no grapes for making new wine.

<sup>3</sup>You may no longer stay here in the LORD's land.
Instead, you will return to Egypt, and in Assyria you will eat food that is ceremonially unclean.

<sup>4</sup>There you will make no offerings of wine to the LORD.
None of your sacrifices there will please him.

They will be unclean, like food touched by a person in mourning.

All who present such sacrifices will be defiled.
They may eat this food themselves,
but they may not offer it to the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>What then will you do on festival days?
How will you observe the LORD's festivals?

<sup>6</sup>Even if you escape destruction from Assyria,
Egypt will conquer you, and Memphis* will bury you.
Nettles will take over your treasures of silver;
thistles will invade your ruined homes.

<sup>7</sup>The time of Israel's punishment has come;
the day of payment is here.

Soon Israel will know this all too well.
Because of your great sin and hostility,
you say, "The prophets are crazy and the inspired men are fools!"

<sup>8</sup>The prophet is a watchman over Israel* for my God, yet traps are laid for him wherever he goes.
He faces hostility even in the house of God.

<sup>9</sup>The things my people do are as depraved as what they did in Gibeah long ago.
God will not forget.
He will surely punish them for their sins.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD says, "O Israel, when I first found you, it was like finding fresh grapes in the desert.
When I saw your ancestors,
it was like seeing the first ripe figs of the season.
But then they deserted me for Baal-peor, giving themselves to that shameful idol.
Soon they became vile,
as vile as the god they worshiped.

<sup>11</sup>The glory of Israel will fly away like a bird, for your children will not be born or grow in the womb
or even be conceived.

<sup>12</sup>Even if you do have children who grow up,
I will take them from you.

It will be a terrible day when I turn away and leave you alone.

But now Israel will bring out her children for slaughter.”

<sup>14</sup>O LORD, what should I request for your people?
I will ask for wombs that don’t give birth and breasts that give no milk.

<sup>15</sup>The LORD says, “All their wickedness began at Gilgal;
there I began to hate them.
I will drive them from my land because of their evil actions.
I will love them no more because all their leaders are rebels.

<sup>16</sup>The people of Israel are struck down.
Their roots are dried up,
and they will bear no more fruit.
And if they give birth,
I will slaughter their beloved children.”

<sup>17</sup>My God will reject the people of Israel because they will not listen or obey.
They will be wanderers,
homeless among the nations.

Four Keys to Reading the Bible

Hosea 10

The LORD's Judgment against Israel

<sup>1</sup>How prosperous Israel is—a luxuriant vine loaded with fruit.
But the richer the people get,
the more pagan altars they build.
The more bountiful their harvests,
the more beautiful their sacred pillars.

<sup>2</sup>The hearts of the people are fickle;
they are guilty and must be punished.
The LORD will break down their altars and smash their sacred pillars.

<sup>3</sup>Then they will say, “We have no king because we didn’t fear the LORD.
But even if we had a king,
what could he do for us anyway?”

<sup>4</sup>They spout empty words and make covenants they don’t intend to keep.
So injustice springs up among them like poisonous weeds in a farmer’s field.

<sup>5</sup>The people of Samaria tremble in fear for what might happen to their calf idol at Beth-aven.*
The people mourn and the priests wail, because its glory will be stripped away.*

<sup>6</sup>This idol will be carted away to Assyria, a gift to the great king there.

Ephraim will be ridiculed and Israel will be shamed, because its people have trusted in this idol.

<sup>7</sup>Samaria and its king will be cut off;
they will float away like driftwood on an ocean wave.

<sup>8</sup>And the pagan shrines of Aven, * the place of Israel's sin, will crumble.

Thorns and thistles will grow up around their altars.

They will beg the mountains, "Bury us!"
and plead with the hills, "Fall on us!"

<sup>9</sup>The LORD says, "O Israel, ever since Gibeah, there has been only sin and more sin!

You have made no progress whatsoever.

Was it not right that the wicked men of Gibeah were attacked?

<sup>10</sup>Now whenever it fits my plan,

I will attack you, too.

I will call out the armies of the nations to punish you for your multiplied sins.

<sup>11</sup>"Israel* is like a trained heifer treading out the grain—an easy job she loves.

But I will put a heavy yoke on her tender neck.

I will force Judah to pull the plow and Israel* to break up the hard ground.

<sup>12</sup>I said, 'Plant the good seeds of righteousness, and you will harvest a crop of love.

Plow up the hard ground of your hearts,

for now is the time to seek the LORD, that he may come
and shower righteousness upon you.’

<sup>13</sup>“But you have cultivated wickedness and harvested a thriving crop of sins.
You have eaten the fruit of lies—trusting in your military might, believing that great armies could make your nation safe.

<sup>14</sup>Now the terrors of war will rise among your people.
All your fortifications will fall,
just as when Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel.
Even mothers and children were dashed to death there.

<sup>15</sup>You will share that fate, Bethel, because of your great wickedness.
When the day of judgment dawns,
the king of Israel will be completely destroyed.

Hosea 11

The LORD's Love for Israel

<sup>1</sup>“When Israel was a child, I loved him, and I called my son out of Egypt.

<sup>2</sup>But the more I* called to him,
the farther he moved from me, offering sacrifices to the images of Baal
and burning incense to idols.

<sup>3</sup>I myself taught Israel* how to walk, leading him along by the hand.

But he doesn't know or even care that it was I who took care of him.

<sup>4</sup>I led Israel along with my ropes of kindness and love.
I lifted the yoke from his neck,
and I myself stooped to feed him.

<sup>5</sup>“But since my people refuse to return to me,
they will return to Egypt
and will be forced to serve Assyria.

<sup>6</sup>War will swirl through their cities;
their enemies will crash through their gates.
They will destroy them,
trapping them in their own evil plans.

<sup>7</sup>For my people are determined to desert me.
They call me the Most High,

but they don't truly honor me.

<sup>8</sup>“Oh, how can I give you up, Israel?

How can I let you go?

How can I destroy you like Admah or demolish you like Zeboiim?

My heart is torn within me,
and my compassion overflows.

<sup>9</sup>No, I will not unleash my fierce anger.

I will not completely destroy Israel,
for I am God and not a mere mortal.

I am the Holy One living among you,
and I will not come to destroy.

<sup>10</sup>For someday the people will follow me.

I, the LORD, will roar like a lion.

And when I roar,
my people will return trembling from the west.

<sup>11</sup>Like a flock of birds, they will come from Egypt.

Trembling like doves, they will return from Assyria.

And I will bring them home again,”
says the LORD.

Charges against Israel and Judah

<sup>12</sup>*Israel surrounds me with lies and deceit, but Judah still obeys God and is faithful to the Holy One.*

Hosea 12

<sup>1</sup>* The people of Israel* feed on the wind;
they chase after the east wind all day long.
They pile up lies and violence;
they are making an alliance with Assyria
while sending olive oil to buy support from Egypt.

<sup>2</sup> Now the LORD is bringing charges against Judah.
He is about to punish Jacob* for all his deceitful ways,
and pay him back for all he has done.

<sup>3</sup> Even in the womb, Jacob struggled with his brother;
when he became a man,
he even fought with God.

<sup>4</sup> Yes, he wrestled with the angel and won.
He wept and pleaded for a blessing from him.
There at Bethel he met God face to face,
and God spoke to him*—

<sup>5</sup> the LORD God of Heaven's Armies,
the LORD is his name!

<sup>6</sup> So now, come back to your God.
Act with love and justice,
and always depend on him.

<sup>7</sup> But no, the people are like crafty merchants selling from dishonest scales—
they love to cheat.

<sup>8</sup>Israel boasts, “I am rich!
I’ve made a fortune all by myself!
No one has caught me cheating!
My record is spotless!”

<sup>9</sup>“But I am the LORD your God, who rescued you from slavery in Egypt.
And I will make you live in tents again,
as you do each year at the Festival of Shelters.*

<sup>10</sup>I sent my prophets to warn you with many visions and parables.”

<sup>11</sup>But the people of Gilead are worthless
because of their idol worship.
And in Gilgal, too, they sacrifice bulls;
their altars are lined up like the heaps of stone along the edges of a plowed field.

<sup>12</sup>Jacob fled to the land of Aram, and there he* earned a wife by tending sheep.

<sup>13</sup>Then by a prophet the LORD brought Jacob’s descendants* out of Egypt; and by that prophet
they were protected.

<sup>14</sup>But the people of Israel have bitterly provoked the LORD, so their Lord will now sentence them to death in payment for their sins.

Hosea 13

The LORD's Anger against Israel

<sup>1</sup> When the tribe of Ephraim spoke,
the people shook with fear,
for that tribe was important in Israel.
But the people of Ephraim sinned by worshiping Baal
and thus sealed their destruction.

<sup>2</sup> Now they continue to sin by making silver idols, images shaped skillfully with human hands.

“Sacrifice to these,” they cry,
“and kiss the calf idols!”

<sup>3</sup> Therefore, they will disappear like the morning mist, like dew in the morning sun,
like chaff blown by the wind,
like smoke from a chimney.

<sup>4</sup> “I have been the LORD your God ever since I brought you out of Egypt.
You must acknowledge no God but me,
for there is no other savior.

<sup>5</sup> I took care of you in the wilderness,
in that dry and thirsty land.

<sup>6</sup> But when you had eaten and were satisfied, you became proud and forgot me.

<sup>7</sup> So now I will attack you like a lion, like a leopard that lurks along the road.

<sup>8</sup>Like a bear whose cubs have been taken away,
I will tear out your heart.
I will devour you like a hungry lioness and mangle you like a wild animal.

<sup>9</sup>“You are about to be destroyed, O Israel—
yes, by me, your only helper.

<sup>10</sup>Now where is * your king?

Let him save you!

Where are all the leaders of the land,
the king and the officials you demanded of me?

<sup>11</sup>In my anger I gave you kings, and in my fury I took them away.

<sup>12</sup>“Ephraim’s guilt has been collected, and his sin has been stored up for punishment.

<sup>13</sup>Pain has come to the people like the pain of childbirth,

but they are like a child who resists being born.

The moment of birth has arrived,

but they stay in the womb!

Should I redeem them from death?

O death, bring on your terrors!

O grave, bring on your plagues! *

For I will not take pity on them.

<sup>15</sup>Ephraim was the most fruitful of all his brothers, but the east wind—a blast from the LORD—
will arise in the desert.

All their flowing springs will run dry,
and all their wells will disappear.

Every precious thing they own will be plundered and carried away.

<sup>16</sup>*The people of Samaria must bear the consequences of their guilt because they rebelled against their God.
They will be killed by an invading army,
their little ones dashed to death against the ground,
their pregnant women ripped open by swords.”

Hosea 14

Healing for the Repentant

1*Return, O Israel, to the LORD your God, for your sins have brought you down.

<sup>2</sup>Bring your confessions, and return to the LORD.
Say to him,

“Forgive all our sins and graciously receive us, so that we may offer you our praises.”*

<sup>3</sup>Assyria cannot save us, nor can our warhorses.

Never again will we say to the idols we have made,
‘You are our gods.’

No, in you alone
do the orphans find mercy.”

4 The LORD says,

“Then I will heal you of your faithlessness;
my love will know no bounds,
for my anger will be gone forever.

<sup>5</sup>I will be to Israel like a refreshing dew from heaven.

Israel will blossom like the lily;
it will send roots deep into the soil
like the cedars in Lebanon.

<sup>6</sup>Its branches will spread out like beautiful olive trees,
as fragrant as the cedars of Lebanon.

<sup>7</sup>My people will again live under my shade.
They will flourish like grain and blossom like grapevines.
They will be as fragrant as the wines of Lebanon.

<sup>8</sup>“O Israel,* stay away from idols!
I am the one who answers your prayers and cares for you.
I am like a tree that is always green;
all your fruit comes from me.”

<sup>9</sup>Let those who are wise understand these things.
Let those with discernment listen carefully.
The paths of the LORD are true and right,
and righteous people live by walking in them.
But in those paths sinners stumble and fall.

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

Joel paints vivid pictures of coming judgment and calls for the people of Judah to repent.

WHO WROTE IT?

Joel.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

No one knows for sure, because there are no specific events mentioned that can peg the book to a particular date. But many believe this was one of the first prophetic books to be written.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

Joel prophesied at some time during the Divided Kingdom.

THE BREAKDOWN

Chapter 1: The plague of locusts

Chapter 2: The day of the LORD—judgment and restoration

Chapter 3: Judgment on the nations

KEY CONCEPTS

“The day of the LORD” (Joel uses this phrase to describe a coming day when God will bring judgment but also restore his people)

WORTH MEMORIZING

2:12-13

That is why the LORD says,
“Turn to me now, while there is time.
Give me your hearts.
Come with fasting, weeping, and mourning.
Don’t tear your clothing in your grief,
but tear your hearts instead.”
Return to the LORD your God,
for he is merciful and compassionate,
slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love.
He is eager to relent and not punish.

2:28

“Then, after doing all those things,
I will pour out my Spirit upon all people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy.
Your old men will dream dreams,
and your young men will see visions.”

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

TRUSTING IN GOD.

Like many other prophets, Joel warns that greed and the thirst for power can lead to destruction. It's easy to put more trust in our possessions and abilities than in God, who gave us all we have. Joel reminds us to rely on God above all, because everything else will pass away.

<sup>1</sup>The LORD gave this message to Joel son of Pethuel.

Mourning over the Locust Plague

<sup>2</sup>Hear this, you leaders of the people.

Listen, all who live in the land.

In all your history,

has anything like this happened before?

<sup>3</sup>Tell your children about it in the years to come,

and let your children tell their children.

Pass the story down from generation to generation.

<sup>4</sup>After the cutting locusts finished eating the crops,
the swarming locusts took what was left!

After them came the hopping locusts, and then the stripping locusts, * too!

Wail, all you wine-drinkers!

All the grapes are ruined,

and all your sweet wine is gone.

<sup>6</sup>A vast army of locusts * has invaded my land, a terrible army too numerous to count.

Its teeth are like lions' teeth,
its fangs like those of a lioness.

<sup>7</sup>It has destroyed my grapevines and ruined my fig trees,
stripping their bark and destroying it,
leaving the branches white and bare.

<sup>8</sup>Weep like a bride dressed in black,
mourning the death of her husband.

<sup>9</sup>For there is no grain or wine to offer at the Temple of the LORD.
So the priests are in mourning.
The ministers of the LORD are weeping.

<sup>10</sup>The fields are ruined,
the land is stripped bare.
The grain is destroyed,
the grapes have shriveled,
and the olive oil is gone.

<sup>11</sup>Despair, all you farmers!
Wail, all you vine growers!
Weep, because the wheat and barley—all the crops of the field—are ruined.

<sup>12</sup>The grapevines have dried up,
and the fig trees have withered.
The pomegranate trees, palm trees, and apple trees—
all the fruit trees—have dried up.
And the people's joy has dried up with them.

<sup>13</sup>Dress yourselves in burlap and weep, you priests!

Wail, you who serve before the altar!

Come, spend the night in burlap,
you ministers of my God.

For there is no grain or wine to offer at the Temple of your God.

<sup>14</sup>Announce a time of fasting;
call the people together for a solemn meeting.

Bring the leaders and all the people of the land into the Temple of the LORD your God, and cry out to him there.

<sup>15</sup>The day of the LORD is near,
the day when destruction comes from the Almighty.
How terrible that day will be!

<sup>16</sup>Our food disappears before our very eyes.
No joyful celebrations are held in the house of our God.

<sup>17</sup>The seeds die in the parched ground,
and the grain crops fail.

The barns stand empty,
and granaries are abandoned.

<sup>18</sup>How the animals moan with hunger!
The herds of cattle wander about confused,
because they have no pasture.
The flocks of sheep and goats bleat in misery.

<sup>19</sup>LORD, help us!

The fire has consumed the wilderness pastures, and flames have burned up all the trees.

<sup>20</sup>Even the wild animals cry out to you because the streams have dried up, and fire has consumed the wilderness pastures.

Joel 2

Locusts Invade like an Army

<sup>1</sup>Sound the alarm in Jerusalem*!

Raise the battle cry on my holy mountain!

Let everyone tremble in fear because the day of the LORD is upon us.

<sup>2</sup>It is a day of darkness and gloom,

a day of thick clouds and deep blackness.

Suddenly, like dawn spreading across the mountains,

a great and mighty army appears.

Nothing like it has been seen before or will ever be seen again.

<sup>3</sup>Fire burns in front of them,

and flames follow after them.

Ahead of them the land lies as beautiful as the Garden of Eden.

Behind them is nothing but desolation;

not one thing escapes.

<sup>4</sup>They look like horses;

they charge forward like warhorses.*

Listen to the noise they make—like the rumbling of chariots, like the roar of fire sweeping across a field of stubble, or like a mighty army moving into battle.

<sup>6</sup>Fear grips all the people;
every face grows pale with terror.

<sup>7</sup>The attackers march like warriors and scale city walls like soldiers.
Straight forward they march,
never breaking rank.

<sup>8</sup>They never jostle each other;
each moves in exactly the right position.
They break through defenses without missing a step.

<sup>9</sup>They swarm over the city and run along its walls.
They enter all the houses,
climbing like thieves through the windows.

<sup>10</sup>The earth quakes as they advance, and the heavens tremble.
The sun and moon grow dark,
and the stars no longer shine.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD is at the head of the column.
He leads them with a shout.
This is his mighty army,
and they follow his orders.
The day of the LORD is an awesome, terrible thing.
Who can possibly survive?

A Call to Repentance

<sup>12</sup> That is why the LORD says,

“Turn to me now, while there is time.
Give me your hearts.

Come with fasting, weeping, and mourning.

<sup>13</sup>Don’t tear your clothing in your grief,
but tear your hearts instead.”

Return to the LORD your God,
for he is merciful and compassionate,
slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love.
He is eager to relent and not punish.

<sup>14</sup>Who knows? Perhaps he will give you a reprieve, sending you a blessing instead of this curse.
Perhaps you will be able to offer grain and wine to the LORD your God as before.

<sup>15</sup>Blow the ram’s horn in Jerusalem!
Announce a time of fasting;
call the people together for a solemn meeting.

<sup>16</sup>Gather all the people—
the elders, the children, and even the babies.
Call the bridegroom from his quarters and the bride from her private room.

<sup>17</sup>Let the priests, who minister in the LORD’s presence, stand and weep between the entry room to the Temple and
the altar.

Let them pray, “Spare your people, LORD!

Don’t let your special possession become an object of mockery.

Don’t let them become a joke for unbelieving foreigners who

say,

‘Has the God of Israel left them?’”

The LORD's Promise of Restoration

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD will pity his people and jealously guard the honor of his land.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD will reply,

“Look! I am sending you grain and new wine and olive oil, enough to satisfy your needs.

You will no longer be an object of mockery
among the surrounding nations.

<sup>20</sup> I will drive away these armies from the north.

I will send them into the parched wastelands.

Those in the front will be driven into the Dead Sea, and those at the rear into the Mediterranean.*

The stench of their rotting bodies will rise over the land.”

Surely the LORD has done great things!

<sup>21</sup> Don't be afraid, my people.

Be glad now and rejoice,
for the LORD has done great things.

<sup>22</sup> Don't be afraid, you animals of the field, for the wilderness pastures will soon be green.

The trees will again be filled with fruit;
fig trees and grapevines will be loaded down once more.

<sup>23</sup> Rejoice, you people of Jerusalem!

Rejoice in the LORD your God!

For the rain he sends demonstrates his faithfulness.

Once more the autumn rains will come,

as well as the rains of spring.

<sup>24</sup>The threshing floors will again be piled high with grain, and the presses will overflow with new wine and olive oil.

<sup>25</sup>The LORD says, “I will give you back what you lost to the swarming locusts, the hopping locusts, the stripping locusts, and the cutting locusts.*
It was I who sent this great destroying army against you.

<sup>26</sup>Once again you will have all the food you want, and you will praise the LORD your God, who does these miracles for you.

Never again will my people be disgraced.

<sup>27</sup>Then you will know that I am among my people Israel, that I am the LORD your God, and there is no other. Never again will my people be disgraced.

The LORD's Promise of His Spirit

<sup>28</sup>*“Then, after doing all those things, I will pour out my Spirit upon all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy. Your old men will dream dreams, and your young men will see visions.

<sup>29</sup>In those days I will pour out my Spirit even on servants—men and women alike.

Equal Opportunity

<sup>30</sup>And I will cause wonders in the heavens and on the earth—blood and fire and columns of smoke.

<sup>31</sup>The sun will become dark, and the moon will turn blood red before that great and terrible* day of the LORD arrives.

<sup>32</sup>But everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved,
for some on Mount Zion in Jerusalem will escape,
just as the LORD has said.
These will be among the survivors whom the LORD has called.

Joel 3

Judgment against Enemy Nations

<sup>1</sup>*“At the time of those events,” says the LORD,
“when I restore the prosperity of Judah and Jerusalem,

into the valley of Jehoshaphat.*

There I will judge them
for harming my people, my special possession, for scattering my people among the nations,
and for dividing up my land.

<sup>3</sup>They threw dice* to decide which of my people would be their slaves.

They traded boys to obtain prostitutes and sold girls for enough wine to get drunk.

<sup>4</sup>“What do you have against me, Tyre and Sidon and you cities of Philistia? Are you trying to take revenge on me? If you are, then watch out! I will strike swiftly and pay you back for everything you have done. <sup>5</sup>You have taken my silver and gold and all my precious treasures, and have carried them off to your pagan temples. <sup>6</sup>You have sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks,* so they could take them far from their homeland.

<sup>7</sup>“But I will bring them back from all the places to which you sold them, and I will pay you back for everything you have done.<sup>8</sup> I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the people of Arabia,* a nation far away. I, the LORD, have spoken!”

<sup>9</sup>Say to the nations far and wide:

“Get ready for war!

Call out your best warriors.

Let all your fighting men advance for the attack.

<sup>10</sup>Hammer your plowshares into swords and your pruning hooks into spears.

Train even your weaklings to be warriors.

Gather together in the valley.”

And now, O LORD, call out your warriors!

<sup>12</sup>“Let the nations be called to arms.

Let them march to the valley of Jehoshaphat.

There I, the LORD, will sit to pronounce judgment on them all.

<sup>13</sup>Swing the sickle, for the harvest is ripe.*

Come, tread the grapes,

for the winepress is full.

The storage vats are overflowing with the wickedness of these people.”

<sup>14</sup>Thousands upon thousands are waiting in the valley of decision.

There the day of the LORD will soon arrive.

<sup>15</sup>The sun and moon will grow dark,
and the stars will no longer shine.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD's voice will roar from Zion
and thunder from Jerusalem,
and the heavens and the earth will shake.
But the LORD will be a refuge for his people,
a strong fortress for the people of Israel.

Blessings for God's People

<sup>17</sup>“Then you will know that I, the LORD your God, live in Zion, my holy mountain.
Jerusalem will be holy forever,
and foreign armies will never conquer her again.

<sup>18</sup>In that day the mountains will drip with sweet wine, and the hills will flow with milk.
Water will fill the streambeds of Judah,
and a fountain will burst forth from the LORD's Temple, watering the arid valley of acacias.*

<sup>19</sup>But Egypt will become a wasteland and Edom will become a wilderness, because they attacked the people of Judah and killed innocent people in their land.

<sup>20</sup>“But Judah will be filled with people forever, and Jerusalem will endure through all generations.

<sup>21</sup>I will pardon my people's crimes, which I have not yet pardoned;

and I, the LORD, will make my home in Jerusalem* with my people.”

of Tekoa in Judah. He received this message in visions two years before the earthquake, when Uzziah was king of Judah and Jeroboam II, the son of Jehoash,* was king of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>This is what he saw and heard:

“The LORD’s voice will roar from Zion
and thunder from Jerusalem!

The lush pastures of the shepherds will dry up;
the grass on Mount Carmel will wither and die.”

God’s Judgment on Israel’s Neighbors

<sup>3</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“The people of Damascus have sinned again and again,*
and I will not let them go unpunished!

They beat down my people in Gilead
as grain is threshed with iron sledges.

<sup>4</sup>So I will send down fire on King Hazael’s palace, and the fortresses of King Ben-hadad will be destroyed.

<sup>5</sup>I will break down the gates of Damascus and slaughter the people in the valley of Aven.

I will destroy the ruler in Beth-eden, and the people of Aram will go as captives to Kir,”
says the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“The people of Gaza have sinned again and again,
and I will not let them go unpunished!

They sent whole villages into exile,
selling them as slaves to Edom.

<sup>7</sup>So I will send down fire on the walls of Gaza,
and all its fortresses will be destroyed.

<sup>8</sup>I will slaughter the people of Ashdod and destroy the king of Ashkelon.

Then I will turn to attack Ekron, and the few Philistines still left will be killed,”
says the Sovereign LORD.

<sup>9</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“The people of Tyre have sinned again and again,
and I will not let them go unpunished!

They broke their treaty of brotherhood with Israel, selling whole villages as slaves to Edom.

<sup>10</sup>So I will send down fire on the walls of Tyre,
and all its fortresses will be destroyed.”

“The people of Edom have sinned again and again,
and I will not let them go unpunished!

They chased down their relatives, the Israelites, with swords, showing them no mercy.

In their rage, they slashed them continually and were unrelenting in their anger.

<sup>12</sup>So I will send down fire on Teman, and the fortresses of Bozrah will be destroyed.”

<sup>13</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“The people of Ammon have sinned again and again,
and I will not let them go unpunished!

When they attacked Gilead to extend their borders,
they ripped open pregnant women with their swords.

<sup>14</sup>So I will send down fire on the walls of Rabbah,
and all its fortresses will be destroyed.

The battle will come upon them with shouts,
like a whirlwind in a mighty storm.

<sup>15</sup>And their king* and his princes will go into exile together,”
says the LORD.

Amos 2

<sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“The people of Moab have sinned again and again,*
and I will not let them go unpunished!
They desecrated the bones of Edom’s king, burning them to ashes.

<sup>2</sup>So I will send down fire on the land of Moab, and all the fortresses in Kerioth will be destroyed.
The people will fall in the noise of battle,
as the warriors shout and the ram’s horn sounds.

<sup>3</sup>And I will destroy their king and slaughter all their princes,”
says the LORD.

God’s Judgment on Judah and Israel

<sup>4</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“The people of Judah have sinned again and again,
and I will not let them go unpunished!
They have rejected the instruction of the LORD,
refusing to obey his decrees.
They have been led astray by the same lies that deceived their ancestors.

<sup>5</sup>So I will send down fire on Judah, and all the fortresses of Jerusalem will be destroyed.”

<sup>6</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“The people of Israel have sinned again and again,
and I will not let them go unpunished!

They sell honorable people for silver and poor people for a pair of sandals.

<sup>7</sup>They trample helpless people in the dust and shove the oppressed out of the way.

Both father and son sleep with the same woman, corrupting my holy name.

<sup>8</sup>At their religious festivals,
they lounge in clothing their debtors put up as security.

In the house of their gods, *
they drink wine bought with unjust fines.

<sup>9</sup>“But as my people watched,
I destroyed the Amorites, though they were as tall as cedars and as strong as oaks.

I destroyed the fruit on their branches and dug out their roots.

<sup>10</sup>It was I who rescued you from Egypt and led you through the desert for forty years, so you could possess the land of the Amorites.

<sup>11</sup>I chose some of your sons to be prophets and others to be Nazirites.

Can you deny this, my people of Israel?”
asks the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>“But you caused the Nazirites to sin by making them drink wine,

and you commanded the prophets, ‘Shut up!’

<sup>13</sup>“So I will make you groan like a wagon loaded down with sheaves of grain.

<sup>14</sup>Your fastest runners will not get away.
The strongest among you will become weak.
Even mighty warriors will be unable to save themselves.

<sup>15</sup>The archers will not stand their ground.
The swiftest runners won’t be fast enough to escape.
Even those riding horses won’t be able to save themselves.

<sup>16</sup>On that day the most courageous of your fighting men will drop their weapons and run for their lives,”
says the LORD.

ARTILLERY IN ALL DIRECTIONS

When Amos began blasting the neighbors for their ungodliness, the Israelites may have cheered. But their turn was soon to come. Here are the targets of chapters 1-2.

Amos 3

<sup>1</sup>Listen to this message that the LORD has spoken against you, O people of Israel and Judah—against the entire family I rescued from Egypt:

<sup>2</sup>“From among all the families on the earth,
I have been intimate with you alone.
That is why I must punish you for all your sins.”

Witnesses against Guilty Israel

<sup>3</sup>Can two people walk together without agreeing on the direction?

<sup>4</sup>Does a lion ever roar in a thicket without first finding a victim?

Does a young lion growl in its den without first catching its prey?

<sup>5</sup>Does a bird ever get caught in a trap that has no bait?

Does a trap spring shut
when there's nothing to catch?

<sup>6</sup>When the ram's horn blows a warning,
shouldn't the people be alarmed?

Does disaster come to a city unless the LORD has planned it?

<sup>7</sup>Indeed, the Sovereign LORD never does anything until he reveals his plans to his servants the prophets.

<sup>8</sup>The lion has roared—so who isn't frightened?

The Sovereign LORD has spoken—

so who can refuse to proclaim his message?

<sup>9</sup>Announce this to the leaders of Philistia*

and to the great ones of Egypt:

“Take your seats now on the hills around Samaria, and witness the chaos and oppression in Israel.”

<sup>10</sup>“My people have forgotten how to do right,”
says the LORD.

“Their fortresses are filled with wealth taken by theft and violence.

“an enemy is coming!

He will surround them and shatter their defenses.

Then he will plunder all their fortresses.”

<sup>12</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“A shepherd who tries to rescue a sheep from a lion's mouth will recover only two legs or a piece of an ear.

So it will be for the Israelites in Samaria lying on luxurious beds,

and for the people of Damascus reclining on couches.*

<sup>13</sup>“Now listen to this, and announce it throughout all Israel,*”

says the Lord, the LORD God of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>14</sup>“On the very day I punish Israel for its sins,
I will destroy the pagan altars at Bethel.
The horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.

<sup>15</sup>And I will destroy the beautiful homes of the wealthy—their winter mansions and their summer houses, too—all their palaces filled with ivory,”
says the LORD.

Amos 4

Israel's Failure to Learn

<sup>1</sup>Listen to me, you fat cows* living in Samaria,
you women who oppress the poor
and crush the needy,
and who are always calling to your husbands,
“Bring us another drink!”

<sup>2</sup>The Sovereign LORD has sworn this by his holiness:
“The time will come when you will be led away with hooks in your noses.
Every last one of you will be dragged away like a fish on a hook!

<sup>3</sup>You will be led out through the ruins of the wall;
you will be thrown from your fortresses,*”
says the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>“Go ahead and offer sacrifices to the idols at Bethel.
Keep on disobeying at Gilgal.
Offer sacrifices each morning,
and bring your tithes every three days.

<sup>5</sup>Present your bread made with yeast
as an offering of thanksgiving.
Then give your extra voluntary offerings
so you can brag about it everywhere!
This is the kind of thing you Israelites love to do,”

says the Sovereign LORD.

<sup>6</sup>“I brought hunger to every city and famine to every town.
But still you would not return to me,”
says the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>“I kept the rain from falling when your crops needed it the most.
I sent rain on one town
but withheld it from another.
Rain fell on one field,
while another field withered away.

<sup>8</sup>People staggered from town to town looking for water, but there was never enough.
But still you would not return to me,”
says the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“I struck your farms and vineyards with blight and mildew.
Locusts devoured all your fig and olive trees.
But still you would not return to me,”
says the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>“I sent plagues on you like the plagues I sent on Egypt long ago.
I killed your young men in war and led all your horses away.*
The stench of death filled the air!
But still you would not return to me,”

says the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>“I destroyed some of your cities,
as I destroyed* Sodom and Gomorrah.
Those of you who survived were like charred sticks pulled from a fire.
But still you would not return to me,”
says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>“Therefore, I will bring upon you all the disasters I have announced.

Prepare to meet your God in judgment, you people of Israel!”

<sup>13</sup>For the LORD is the one who shaped the mountains, stirs up the winds, and reveals his thoughts to mankind.
He turns the light of dawn into darkness and treads on the heights of the earth.
The LORD God of Heaven’s Armies is his name!

Amos 5

A Call to Repentance

<sup>1</sup>Listen, you people of Israel! Listen to this funeral song I am singing:

<sup>2</sup>“The virgin Israel has fallen,
never to rise again!
She lies abandoned on the ground,
with no one to help her up.”

<sup>3</sup>The Sovereign LORD says:

“When a city sends a thousand men to battle,
only a hundred will return.
When a town sends a hundred,
only ten will come back alive.”

<sup>4</sup>Now this is what the LORD says to the family of Israel:

“Come back to me and live!

<sup>5</sup>Don’t worship at the pagan altars at Bethel;
don’t go to the shrines at Gilgal or Beersheba.
For the people of Gilgal will be dragged off into exile,
and the people of Bethel will be reduced to nothing.”

<sup>6</sup>Come back to the LORD and live!

Otherwise, he will roar through Israel* like a fire, devouring you completely.

Your gods in Bethel won't be able to quench the flames.
<sup>7</sup>You twist justice, making it a bitter pill for the oppressed.
You treat the righteous like dirt.

<sup>8</sup>It is the LORD who created the stars,
the Pleiades and Orion.
He turns darkness into morning and day into night.
He draws up water from the oceans
and pours it down as rain on the land.
The LORD is his name!
<sup>9</sup>With blinding speed and power he destroys the strong, crushing all their defenses.

<sup>10</sup>How you hate honest judges!
How you despise people who tell the truth!
<sup>11</sup>You trample the poor, stealing their grain through taxes and unfair rent.
Therefore, though you build beautiful stone houses,
you will never live in them.
Though you plant lush vineyards,
you will never drink wine from them.
<sup>12</sup>For I know the vast number of your sins and the depth of your rebellions.
You oppress good people by taking bribes and deprive the poor of justice in the courts.
<sup>13</sup>So those who are smart keep their mouths shut, for it is an evil time.

<sup>14</sup>Do what is good and run from evil
so that you may live!

Then the LORD God of Heaven's Armies will be your helper, just as you have claimed.

<sup>15</sup>Hate evil and love what is good;
turn your courts into true halls of justice.

Perhaps even yet the LORD God of Heaven's Armies will have mercy on the remnant of his people.*

<sup>16</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord, the LORD God of Heaven's Armies, says:

“There will be crying in all the public squares and mourning in every street.

Call for the farmers to weep with you,
and summon professional mourners to wail.

<sup>17</sup>There will be wailing in every vineyard, for I will destroy them all,”
says the LORD.

Warning of Coming Judgment

<sup>18</sup>What sorrow awaits you who say,
“If only the day of the LORD were here!”
You have no idea what you are wishing for.
That day will bring darkness, not light.

<sup>19</sup>In that day you will be like a man who runs from a lion—only to meet a bear.

Escaping from the bear, he leans his hand against a wall in his house—and he's bitten by a snake.

<sup>20</sup>Yes, the day of the LORD will be dark and hopeless, without a ray of joy or hope.

<sup>21</sup>“I hate all your show and pretense—the hypocrisy of your religious festivals and solemn assemblies.

<sup>22</sup>I will not accept your burnt offerings and grain offerings.
I won't even notice all your choice peace offerings.

<sup>23</sup>Away with your noisy hymns of praise!
I will not listen to the music of your harps.

<sup>24</sup>Instead, I want to see a mighty flood of justice, an endless river of righteous living.

<sup>25</sup>“Was it to me you were bringing sacrifices and offerings during the forty years in the wilderness, Israel? <sup>26</sup>No, you served your pagan gods—Sakkuth your king god and Kaiwan your star god—the images you made for yourselves. <sup>27</sup>So I will send you into exile, to a land east of Damascus, *” says the LORD, whose name is the God of Heaven's Armies.

and you who feel secure in Samaria!
You are famous and popular in Israel,
and people go to you for help.

<sup>2</sup>But go over to Calneh and see what happened there.
Then go to the great city of Hamath and down to the Philistine city of Gath.

You are no better than they were,
and look at how they were destroyed.

<sup>3</sup>You push away every thought of coming disaster, but your actions only bring the day of judgment closer.

<sup>4</sup>How terrible for you who sprawl on ivory beds and lounge on your couches, eating the meat of tender lambs from the flock and of choice calves fattened in the stall.

<sup>5</sup>You sing trivial songs to the sound of the harp and fancy yourselves to be great musicians like David.

<sup>6</sup>You drink wine by the bowlful and perfume yourselves with fragrant lotions.
You care nothing about the ruin of your nation.*

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, you will be the first to be led away as captives.
Suddenly, all your parties will end.

<sup>8</sup>The Sovereign LORD has sworn by his own name, and this is what he, the LORD God of Heaven's Armies, says:

“I despise the arrogance of Israel,* and I hate their fortresses.
I will give this city
and everything in it to their enemies.”

<sup>9</sup>(If there are ten men left in one house, they will all die. <sup>10</sup>And when a relative who is responsible to dispose of the dead* goes into the house to carry out the bodies, he will ask the last survivor, “Is anyone else with you?” When the person begins to swear, “No, by . . .,” he will interrupt and say, “Stop! Don’t even mention the name of the LORD.”)

<sup>11</sup>When the LORD gives the command, homes both great and small will be smashed to pieces.

<sup>12</sup>Can horses gallop over boulders?
Can oxen be used to plow them?
But that’s how foolish you are when you turn justice into poison
and the sweet fruit of righteousness into bitterness.

You boast, “Didn’t we take Karnaim* by our own strength?”

<sup>14</sup>“O people of Israel, I am about to bring an enemy nation against you,”
says the LORD God of Heaven's Armies.
“They will oppress you throughout your land—from Lebo-hamath in the north to the Arabah Valley in the south.”

Amos 7

A Vision of Locusts

<sup>1</sup>The Sovereign LORD showed me a vision. I saw him preparing to send a vast swarm of locusts over the land. This was after the king's share had been harvested from the fields and as the main crop was coming up. <sup>2</sup>In my vision the locusts ate every green plant in sight. Then I said, "O Sovereign LORD, please forgive us or we will not survive, for Israel* is so small."

<sup>3</sup>So the LORD relented from this plan. "I will not do it," he said.

A Vision of Fire

<sup>4</sup>Then the Sovereign LORD showed me another vision. I saw him preparing to punish his people with a great fire. The fire had burned up the depths of the sea and was devouring the entire land. <sup>5</sup>Then I said, "O Sovereign LORD, please stop or we will not survive, for Israel is so small."

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD relented from this plan, too. "I will not do that either," said the Sovereign LORD.

A Vision of a Plumb Line

<sup>7</sup>Then he showed me another vision. I saw the Lord standing beside a wall that had been built using a plumb line. He was using a plumb line to see if it was still straight. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?"

I answered, "A plumb line."

And the Lord replied, “I will test my people with this plumb line. I will no longer ignore all their sins. <sup>9</sup>The pagan shrines of your ancestors* will be ruined, and the temples of Israel will be destroyed; I will bring the dynasty of King Jeroboam to a sudden end.”

Amos and Amaziah

<sup>10</sup> Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent a message to Jeroboam, king of Israel: “Amos is hatching a plot against you right here on your very doorstep! What he is saying is intolerable. <sup>11</sup>He is saying, ‘Jeroboam will soon be killed, and the people of Israel will be sent away into exile.’”

<sup>12</sup>Then Amaziah sent orders to Amos: “Get out of here, you prophet! Go on back to the land of Judah, and earn your living by prophesying there! <sup>13</sup>Don’t bother us with your prophecies here in Bethel. This is the king’s sanctuary and the national place of worship!”

Amos

was never trained to be one.* I'm just a shepherd, and I take care of sycamore-fig trees. <sup>15</sup>But the LORD called me away from my flock and told me, 'Go and prophesy to my people in Israel.'

<sup>16</sup>Now then, listen to this message from the LORD:

"You say,

'Don't prophesy against Israel.

Stop preaching against my people.*'

<sup>17</sup>But this is what the LORD says:

'Your wife will become a prostitute in this city,
and your sons and daughters will be killed.

Your land will be divided up,
and you yourself will die in a foreign land.

And the people of Israel will certainly become captives in exile, far from their homeland.'"

Amos 8

A Vision of Ripe Fruit

I replied, “A basket full of ripe fruit.”

Then the LORD said, “Like this fruit, Israel is ripe for punishment! I will not delay their punishment again. <sup>3</sup>In that day the singing in the Temple will turn to wailing. Dead bodies will be scattered everywhere. They will be carried out of the city in silence. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

<sup>4</sup>Listen to this, you who rob the poor and trample down the needy!

<sup>5</sup>You can’t wait for the Sabbath day to be over and the religious festivals to end so you can get back to cheating the helpless. You measure out grain with dishonest measures and cheat the buyer with dishonest scales.*

<sup>6</sup>And you mix the grain you sell with chaff swept from the floor. Then you enslave poor people for one piece of silver or a pair of sandals.

<sup>7</sup>Now the LORD has sworn this oath by his own name, the Pride of Israel*:

“I will never forget the wicked things you have done!
<sup>8</sup>The earth will tremble for your deeds,
and everyone will mourn.
The ground will rise like the Nile River at floodtime;
it will heave up, then sink again.

<sup>9</sup>“In that day,” says the Sovereign LORD,
“I will make the sun go down at noon and darken the earth while it is still day.
<sup>10</sup>I will turn your celebrations into times of mourning and your singing into weeping.
You will wear funeral clothes and shave your heads to show your sorrow—
as if your only son had died.
How very bitter that day will be!

<sup>11</sup> “The time is surely coming,” says the Sovereign LORD, “when I will send a famine on the land—not a famine of bread or water
but of hearing the words of the LORD.
<sup>12</sup>People will stagger from sea to sea and wander from border to border* searching for the word of the LORD,
but they will not find it.
<sup>13</sup>Beautiful girls and strong young men will grow faint in that day, thirsting for the LORD’s word.

<sup>14</sup>And those who swear by the shameful idols of Samaria—who take oaths in the name of the god of Dan and make vows in the name of the god of Beersheba*— they will all fall down,
never to rise again.”

Amos 9

A Vision of God at the Altar

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw a vision of the Lord standing beside the altar. He said, “Strike the tops of the Temple columns, so that the foundation will shake.

Bring down the roof
on the heads of the people below.
I will kill with the sword those who survive.
No one will escape!

<sup>2</sup>“Even if they dig down to the place of the dead,*
I will reach down and pull them up.
Even if they climb up into the heavens,
I will bring them down.

I will search them out and capture them.
Even if they hide at the bottom of the ocean,
I will send the sea serpent after them to bite them.

<sup>4</sup>Even if their enemies drive them into exile,
I will command the sword to kill them there.
I am determined to bring disaster upon them and not to help them.”

<sup>5</sup>The Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, touches the land and it melts,

and all its people mourn.
The ground rises like the Nile River at floodtime, and then it sinks again.
<sup>6</sup>The LORD's home reaches up to the heavens, while its foundation is on the earth.
He draws up water from the oceans
and pours it down as rain on the land.
The LORD is his name!

<sup>7</sup>“Are you Israelites more important to me than the Ethiopians?*” asks the LORD.
“I brought Israel out of Egypt,
but I also brought the Philistines from Crete*
and led the Arameans out of Kir.

<sup>8</sup>“I, the Sovereign LORD, am watching this sinful nation of Israel.
I will destroy it
from the face of the earth.
But I will never completely destroy the family of Israel,*”
says the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“For I will give the command and will shake Israel along with the other nations as grain is shaken in a sieve, yet not one true kernel will be lost.
<sup>10</sup> But all the sinners will die by the sword—
all those who say, ‘Nothing bad will happen to us.’

A Promise of Restoration

<sup>11</sup>“In that day I will restore the fallen house* of David.
I will repair its damaged walls.
From the ruins I will rebuild it and restore its former glory.

<sup>12</sup>And Israel will possess what is left of Edom and all the nations I have called to be mine.*”
The LORD has spoken,
and he will do these things.

<sup>13</sup>“The time will come,” says the LORD,
“when the grain and grapes will grow faster than they can be harvested.
Then the terraced vineyards on the hills of Israel will drip with sweet wine!

<sup>14</sup>I will bring my exiled people of Israel back from distant lands, and they will rebuild their ruined cities
and live in them again.
They will plant vineyards and gardens;
they will eat their crops and drink their wine.

<sup>15</sup>I will firmly plant them there in their own land.
They will never again be uprooted from the land I have given them,” says the LORD your God.

The day is near when I, the LORD,

As you have done to Israel,
so it will be done to you.
All your evil deeds
will fall back on your own heads.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

DANGEROUS HOSTILITY.

The descendants of Esau remained hostile to the descendants of Jacob, even after many generations. This kind of feud is dangerous. What if God treated us the way we treat our enemies?

Edom's Judgment Announced

We have heard a message from the LORD
that an ambassador was sent to the nations to say, “Get ready, everyone!
Let’s assemble our armies and attack Edom!”

<sup>2</sup>The LORD says to Edom,
“I will cut you down to size among the nations;
you will be greatly despised.

<sup>3</sup>You have been deceived by your own pride because you live in a rock fortress and make your home high in the mountains.
‘Who can ever reach us way up here?’
you ask boastfully.

<sup>4</sup>But even if you soar as high as eagles and build your nest among the stars,
I will bring you crashing down,”
says the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>“If thieves came at night and robbed you (what a disaster awaits you!),
they would not take everything.
Those who harvest grapes
always leave a few for the poor.
But your enemies will wipe you out completely!
<sup>6</sup>Every nook and cranny of Edom*
will be searched and looted.
Every treasure will be found and taken.

<sup>7</sup>“All your allies will turn against you.
They will help to chase you from your land.
They will promise you peace
while plotting to deceive and destroy you.
Your trusted friends will set traps for you,
and you won’t even know about it.

<sup>8</sup>At that time not a single wise person will be left in the whole land of Edom,”
says the LORD.

“For on the mountains of Edom
I will destroy everyone who has understanding.

<sup>9</sup>The mightiest warriors of Teman will be terrified,
and everyone on the mountains of Edom will be cut down in the slaughter.

Reasons for Edom’s Punishment

<sup>10</sup> “Because of the violence you did to your close relatives in Israel,* you will be filled with shame and destroyed forever.

<sup>11</sup> When they were invaded,
you stood aloof, refusing to help them.
Foreign invaders carried off their wealth and cast lots to divide up Jerusalem,
but you acted like one of Israel’s enemies.

<sup>12</sup> “You should not have gloated when they exiled your relatives to distant lands.
You should not have rejoiced
when the people of Judah suffered such misfortune.
You should not have spoken arrogantly in that terrible time of trouble.

<sup>13</sup> You should not have plundered the land of Israel
when they were suffering such calamity.
You should not have gloated over their destruction
when they were suffering such calamity.
You should not have seized their wealth
when they were suffering such calamity.

<sup>14</sup> You should not have stood at the crossroads, killing those who tried to escape.
You should not have captured the survivors and handed them over in their terrible time of trouble.

Edom Destroyed, Israel Restored

<sup>15</sup> “The day is near when I, the LORD, will judge all godless nations!

As you have done to Israel,

so it will be done to you.

All your evil deeds

will fall back on your own heads.

<sup>16</sup>Just as you swallowed up my people on my holy mountain,

so you and the surrounding nations will swallow the punishment I pour out on you.

Yes, all you nations will drink and stagger and disappear from history.

<sup>17</sup> “But Jerusalem* will become a refuge for those who escape;

it will be a holy place.

And the people of Israel* will come back to reclaim their inheritance.

<sup>18</sup>The people of Israel will be a raging fire, and Edom a field of dry stubble.

The descendants of Joseph will be a flame roaring across the field, devouring everything.

There will be no survivors in Edom.

I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>19</sup>“Then my people living in the Negev will occupy the mountains of Edom.

Those living in the foothills of Judah*

will possess the Philistine plains and take over the fields of Ephraim and Samaria.

And the people of Benjamin will occupy the land of Gilead.

<sup>20</sup>The exiles of Israel will return to their land and occupy the Phoenician coast as far north as Zarephath.
The captives from Jerusalem exiled in the north*
will return home and resettle the towns of the Negev.

<sup>21</sup>Those who have been rescued* will go up to* Mount Zion in Jerusalem
to rule over the mountains of Edom.
And the LORD himself will be king!”

GOD’S LOVE.

Jonah Runs from the LORD

<sup>3</sup>But Jonah got up and went in the opposite direction to get away from the LORD. He went down to the port of Joppa, where he found a ship leaving for Tarshish. He bought a ticket and went on board, hoping to escape from the LORD by sailing to Tarshish.

Personal Gold

Reaching Out When You'd Rather Not

WRONG WAY, PAL

After God's command to go to Nineveh, Jonah instead boarded a ship headed to Tarshish. But he couldn't hide from God! Eventually, God straightened Jonah out, and Jonah ultimately wound up where God had wanted him in the first place.

<sup>4</sup> But the LORD hurled a powerful wind over the sea, causing a violent storm that threatened to break the ship apart. <sup>5</sup>Fearing for their lives, the desperate sailors shouted to their gods for help and threw the cargo overboard to lighten the ship.

But all this time Jonah was sound asleep down in the hold. <sup>6</sup>So the captain went down after him. “How can you sleep at a time like this?” he shouted. “Get up and pray to your god! Maybe he will pay attention to us and spare our lives.”

<sup>7</sup>Then the crew cast lots to see which of them had offended the gods and caused the terrible storm. When they did this, the lots identified Jonah as the culprit. <sup>8</sup>“Why has this awful storm come down on us?” they demanded. “Who are you? What is your line of work? What country are you from? What is your nationality?”

<sup>10</sup>The sailors were terrified when they heard this, for he had already told them he was running away from the LORD. “Oh, why did you do it?” they groaned. <sup>11</sup>And since the storm was getting worse all the time, they asked him, “What should we do to you to stop this storm?”

<sup>12</sup>“Throw me into the sea,” Jonah said, “and it will become calm again. I know that this terrible storm is all my fault.”

<sup>13</sup>Instead, the sailors rowed even harder to get the ship to the land. But the stormy sea was too violent for them, and they couldn’t make it. <sup>14</sup>Then they cried out to the LORD, Jonah’s God. “O LORD,” they pleaded, “don’t make us die for this man’s sin. And don’t hold us responsible for his death. O LORD, you have sent this storm upon him for your own good reasons.”

<sup>15</sup>Then the sailors picked Jonah up and threw him into the raging sea, and the storm stopped at once! <sup>16</sup>The sailors were awestruck by the LORD’s great power, and they offered him a sacrifice and vowed to serve him.

<sup>17</sup>*Now the LORD had arranged for a great fish to swallow

Jonah. And Jonah was inside the fish for three days and three nights.

Jonah 2

Jonah's Prayer

<sup>1</sup>*Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from inside the fish.

<sup>2</sup>He said,

“I cried out to the LORD in my great trouble,
and he answered me.

I called to you from the land of the dead,*
and LORD, you heard me!

<sup>3</sup>You threw me into the ocean depths, and I sank down to the heart of the sea.

The mighty waters engulfed me;
I was buried beneath your wild and stormy waves.

<sup>4</sup>Then I said, ‘O LORD, you have driven me from your presence.

Yet I will look once more toward your holy Temple.’

<sup>5</sup>“I sank beneath the waves, and the waters closed over me.
Seaweed wrapped itself around my head.

<sup>6</sup>I sank down to the very roots of the mountains.
I was imprisoned in the earth,
whose gates lock shut forever.

But you, O LORD my God,
snatched me from the jaws of death!

<sup>7</sup>As my life was slipping away,

I remembered the LORD.

And my earnest prayer went out to you in your holy Temple.

<sup>8</sup>Those who worship false gods turn their backs on all God's mercies.

<sup>9</sup>But I will offer sacrifices to you with songs of praise, and I will fulfill all my vows.

For my salvation comes from the LORD alone.”

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD ordered the fish to spit Jonah out onto the beach.

Jonah 3

Jonah Goes to Nineveh

<sup>3</sup> This time Jonah obeyed the LORD’s command and went to Nineveh, a city so large that it took three days to see it all. <sup>4</sup> On the day Jonah entered the city, he shouted to the crowds: “Forty days from now Nineveh will be destroyed!” <sup>5</sup> The people of Nineveh believed God’s message, and from the greatest to the least, they declared a fast and put on burlap to show their sorrow.

<sup>6</sup> When the king of Nineveh heard what Jonah was saying, he stepped down from his throne and took off his royal robes. He dressed himself in burlap and sat on a heap of ashes. <sup>7</sup> Then the king and his nobles sent this decree throughout the city:

“No one, not even the animals from your herds and flocks, may eat or drink anything at all. <sup>8</sup> People and animals alike must wear garments of mourning, and everyone must pray earnestly to God. They must turn from their evil ways and stop all their violence. <sup>9</sup> Who can tell? Perhaps even yet God will change his mind and hold back his fierce anger from destroying us.”

<sup>10</sup>When God saw what they had done and how they had put a stop to their evil ways, he changed his mind and did not carry out the destruction he had threatened.

Jonah

Jonah 4

Jonah's Anger at the LORD's Mercy

<sup>1</sup> This change of plans greatly upset Jonah, and he became very angry. <sup>2</sup>So he complained to the LORD about it: “Didn’t I say before I left home that you would do this, LORD? That is why I ran away to Tarshish! I knew that you are a merciful and compassionate God, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love. You are eager to turn back from destroying people. <sup>3</sup>Just kill me now, LORD! I’d rather be dead than alive if what I predicted will not happen.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Jonah went out to the east side of the city and made a shelter to sit under as he waited to see what would happen to the city. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD God arranged for a leafy plant to grow there, and soon it spread its broad leaves over Jonah’s head, shading him from the sun. This eased his discomfort, and Jonah was very grateful for the plant.

<sup>7</sup>But God also arranged for a worm! The next morning at dawn the worm ate through the stem of the plant so that it withered away. <sup>8</sup>And as the sun grew hot, God arranged for a scorching east wind to blow on Jonah. The sun beat down on his head until he grew faint and wished to die. “Death is certainly better than living like this!” he exclaimed.

<sup>9</sup>Then God said to Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry because the plant died?”

“Yes,” Jonah retorted, “even angry enough to die!”

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD said, “You feel sorry about the plant, though you did nothing to put it there. It came quickly and died quickly. <sup>11</sup>But Nineveh has more than 120,000 people living in spiritual darkness,* not to mention all the animals. Shouldn’t I feel sorry for such a great city?”

Micah 1

<sup>1</sup>The LORD gave this message to Micah of Moresheth during the years when Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah. The visions he saw concerned both Samaria and Jerusalem.

Grief over Samaria and Jerusalem

<sup>2</sup> Attention! Let all the people of the world listen!

Let the earth and everything in it hear.

The Sovereign LORD is making accusations against you;
the Lord speaks from his holy Temple.

<sup>3</sup> Look! The LORD is coming!

He leaves his throne in heaven and tramples the heights of the earth.

<sup>4</sup> The mountains melt beneath his feet and flow into the valleys like wax in a fire,
like water pouring down a hill.

<sup>5</sup>And why is this happening?
Because of the rebellion of Israel*—
yes, the sins of the whole nation.
Who is to blame for Israel's rebellion?
Samaria, its capital city!
Where is the center of idolatry in Judah?
In Jerusalem, its capital!

<sup>6</sup>“So I, the LORD, will make the city of Samaria a heap of ruins.
Her streets will be plowed up
for planting vineyards.
I will roll the stones of her walls into the valley below, exposing her foundations.
<sup>7</sup>All her carved images will be smashed.
All her sacred treasures will be burned.
These things were bought with the money earned by her prostitution, and they will now be carried away
to pay prostitutes elsewhere.”

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, I will mourn and lament.
I will walk around barefoot and naked.
I will howl like a jackal and moan like an owl.
<sup>9</sup>For my people's wound is too deep to heal.
It has reached into Judah,
even to the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>Don't tell our enemies in Gath*;

don't weep at all.

You people in Beth-leaphrah,*

roll in the dust to show your despair.

<sup>11</sup>You people in Shaphir,* go as captives into exile—naked and ashamed.

The people of Zaanan*

dare not come outside their walls.

The people of Beth-ezel* mourn,

for their house has no support.

<sup>12</sup>The people of Maroth* anxiously wait for relief, but only bitterness awaits them as the LORD's judgment reaches

even to the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>Harness your chariot horses and flee, you people of Lachish.*

You were the first city in Judah to follow Israel in her rebellion, and you led Jerusalem* into sin.

<sup>14</sup>Send farewell gifts to Moresheth-gath*;

there is no hope of saving it.

The town of Aczib*

has deceived the kings of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>O people of Mareshah,*

I will bring a conqueror to capture your town.

And the leaders* of Israel will go to Adullam.

<sup>16</sup>Oh, people of Judah, shave your heads in sorrow, for the children you love will be snatched away.
Make yourselves as bald as a vulture,
for your little ones will be exiled to distant lands.

Micah 2

Judgment against Wealthy Oppressors

<sup>1</sup>What sorrow awaits you who lie awake at night, thinking up evil plans.

You rise at dawn and hurry to carry them out,
simply because you have the power to do so.

<sup>2</sup>When you want a piece of land,
you find a way to seize it.

When you want someone's house,
you take it by fraud and violence.

You cheat a man of his property, stealing his family's inheritance.

<sup>3</sup>But this is what the LORD says:

"I will reward your evil with evil;
you won't be able to pull your neck out of the noose.
You will no longer walk around proudly,
for it will be a terrible time."

<sup>4</sup>In that day your enemies will make fun of you by singing this song of despair about you:

"We are finished,
completely ruined!

God has confiscated our land,
taking it from us.

He has given our fields

to those who betrayed us.*”

<sup>5</sup>Others will set your boundaries then, and the LORD’s people will have no say in how the land is divided.

True and False Prophets

<sup>6</sup>“Don’t say such things,” the people respond.*

“Don’t prophesy like that.

Such disasters will never come our way!”

<sup>7</sup>Should you talk that way, O family of Israel?*

Will the LORD’s Spirit have patience with such behavior?

If you would do what is right,
you would find my words comforting.

<sup>8</sup>Yet to this very hour

my people rise against me like an enemy!

You steal the shirts right off the backs of those who trusted you, making them as ragged as men returning from battle.

<sup>9</sup>You have evicted women from their pleasant homes and forever stripped their children of all that God would give them.

<sup>10</sup>Up! Begone!

This is no longer your land and home,
for you have filled it with sin
and ruined it completely.

<sup>11</sup>Suppose a prophet full of lies would say to you,
“I’ll preach to you the joys of wine and alcohol!”
That’s just the kind of prophet you would like!

Hope for Restoration

<sup>12</sup>“Someday, O Israel, I will gather you;
I will gather the remnant who are left.
I will bring you together again like sheep in a pen,
like a flock in its pasture.
Yes, your land will again be filled with noisy crowds!
<sup>13</sup>Your leader will break out and lead you out of exile, out through the gates of the enemy cities,
back to your own land.
Your king will lead you;
the LORD himself will guide you.”

Micah 3

Judgment against Israel's Leaders

<sup>1</sup>I said, "Listen, you leaders of Israel!
You are supposed to know right from wrong, <sup>2</sup>but you are the very ones who hate good and love evil.
You skin my people alive
and tear the flesh from their bones.
<sup>3</sup>Yes, you eat my people's flesh, strip off their skin,
and break their bones.
You chop them up
like meat for the cooking pot.
<sup>4</sup>Then you beg the LORD for help in times of trouble!
Do you really expect him to answer?
After all the evil you have done,
he won't even look at you!"

<sup>5</sup>This is what the LORD says:
"You false prophets are leading my people astray!
You promise peace for those who give you food,
but you declare war on those who refuse to feed you.
<sup>6</sup>Now the night will close around you, cutting off all your visions.
Darkness will cover you,
putting an end to your predictions.

The sun will set for you prophets,
and your day will come to an end.

<sup>7</sup>Then you seers will be put to shame,
and you fortune-tellers will be disgraced.
And you will cover your faces
because there is no answer from God.”

<sup>8</sup>But as for me, I am filled with power—with the Spirit of the LORD.

I am filled with justice and strength to boldly declare Israel’s sin and rebellion.

<sup>9</sup>Listen to me, you leaders of Israel!
You hate justice and twist all that is right.

<sup>10</sup>You are building Jerusalem on a foundation of murder and corruption.

<sup>11</sup>You rulers make decisions based on bribes;
you priests teach God’s laws only for a price;
you prophets won’t prophesy unless you are paid.
Yet all of you claim to depend on the LORD.

“No harm can come to us,” you say,
“for the LORD is here among us.”

<sup>12</sup>Because of you, Mount Zion will be plowed like an open field;

Jerusalem will be reduced to ruins!
A thicket will grow on the heights
where the Temple now stands.

Micah 4

The LORD's Future Reign

<sup>1</sup>In the last days, the mountain of the LORD's house
will be the highest of all—
the most important place on earth.
It will be raised above the other hills,
and people from all over the world will stream there to worship.

<sup>2</sup>People from many nations will come and say,
“Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
to the house of Jacob's God.

There he will teach us his ways,
and we will walk in his paths.”

For the LORD's teaching will go out from Zion;
his word will go out from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD will mediate between peoples and will settle disputes between strong nations far away.
They will hammer their swords into plowshares
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will no longer fight against nation,
nor train for war anymore.

<sup>4</sup>Everyone will live in peace and prosperity, enjoying their own grapevines and fig trees,
for there will be nothing to fear.

The LORD of Heaven's Armies
has made this promise!

<sup>5</sup>Though the nations around us follow their idols, we will follow the LORD our God forever and ever.

Israel's Return from Exile

<sup>6</sup>“In that coming day,” says the LORD,
“I will gather together those who are lame,
those who have been exiles,
and those whom I have filled with grief.
<sup>7</sup>Those who are weak will survive as a remnant;
those who were exiles will become a strong nation.
Then I, the LORD, will rule from Jerusalem*
as their king forever.”

<sup>8</sup>As for you, Jerusalem, the citadel of God's people,*
your royal might and power will come back to you again.
The kingship will be restored to my precious Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>But why are you now screaming in terror?
Have you no king to lead you?
Have your wise people all died?
Pain has gripped you like a woman in childbirth.
<sup>10</sup>Writhe and groan like a woman in labor, you people of Jerusalem,* for now you must leave this city to live in the open country.
You will soon be sent in exile to distant Babylon.

But the LORD will rescue you there;
he will redeem you from the grip of your enemies.

<sup>11</sup>Now many nations have gathered against you.

“Let her be desecrated,” they say.

“Let us see the destruction of Jerusalem.*”

<sup>12</sup>But they do not know the LORD’s thoughts or understand his plan.

These nations don’t know that he is gathering them together to be beaten and trampled like sheaves of grain on a threshing floor.

<sup>13</sup>“Rise up and crush the nations, O Jerusalem!”*
says the LORD.

“For I will give you iron horns and bronze hooves,
so you can trample many nations to pieces.
You will present their stolen riches to the LORD, their wealth to the LORD of all the earth.”

Micah 5

<sup>1</sup>*Mobilize! Marshal your troops!
The enemy is laying siege to Jerusalem.
They will strike Israel's leader in the face with a rod.

A Ruler from Bethlehem

<sup>2</sup>*But you, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, are only a small village among all the people of Judah.
Yet a ruler of Israel will come from you,
one whose origins are from the distant past.
<sup>3</sup>The people of Israel will be abandoned to their enemies until the woman in labor gives birth.
Then at last his fellow countrymen will return from exile to their own land.
<sup>4</sup>And he will stand to lead his flock with the LORD's strength, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God.
Then his people will live there undisturbed,
for he will be highly honored around the world.
<sup>5</sup>And he will be the source of peace.

When the Assyrians invade our land and break through our defenses,
we will appoint seven rulers to watch over us,
eight princes to lead us.

<sup>6</sup>They will rule Assyria with drawn swords and enter the gates of the land of Nimrod.

He will rescue us from the Assyrians when they pour over the borders to invade our land.

The Remnant Purified

<sup>7</sup>Then the remnant left in Israel*
will take their place among the nations.
They will be like dew sent by the LORD or like rain falling on the grass, which no one can hold back
and no one can restrain.

<sup>8</sup>The remnant left in Israel
will take their place among the nations.
They will be like a lion among the animals of the forest, like a strong young lion among flocks of sheep and goats, pouncing and tearing as they go with no rescuer in sight.

<sup>9</sup>The people of Israel will stand up to their foes,
and all their enemies will be wiped out.

<sup>10</sup>“In that day,” says the LORD,
“I will slaughter your horses and destroy your chariots.

<sup>11</sup>I will tear down your walls and demolish your defenses.

<sup>12</sup>I will put an end to all witchcraft, and there will be no more fortune-tellers.

<sup>13</sup>I will destroy all your idols and sacred pillars, so you will never again worship the work of your own hands.

<sup>14</sup>I will abolish your idol shrines with their Asherah poles and destroy your pagan cities.

<sup>15</sup>I will pour out my vengeance on all the nations that refuse to obey me.”

Micah 6

The LORD's Case against Israel

<sup>1</sup>Listen to what the LORD is saying:

“Stand up and state your case against me.

Let the mountains and hills be called to witness your complaints.

<sup>2</sup>And now, O mountains, listen to the LORD's complaint!
He has a case against his people.
He will bring charges against Israel.

<sup>3</sup>“O my people, what have I done to you?
What have I done to make you tired of me?
Answer me!

<sup>4</sup>For I brought you out of Egypt and redeemed you from slavery.
I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to help you.

<sup>5</sup>Don't you remember, my people, how King Balak of Moab tried to have you cursed and how Balaam son of Beor blessed you instead?
And remember your journey from Acacia Grove* to Gilgal, when I, the LORD, did everything I could to teach you about my faithfulness.”

<sup>6</sup>What can we bring to the LORD?

What kind of offerings should we give him?
Should we bow before God
with offerings of yearling calves?
<sup>7</sup>Should we offer him thousands of rams and ten thousand rivers of olive oil?
Should we sacrifice our firstborn children
to pay for our sins?

<sup>8</sup>No, O people, the LORD has told you what is good,
and this is what he requires of you:
to do what is right, to love mercy,
and to walk humbly with your God.

---

PERSPECTIVES

O people, the LORD has told you what is good, and this is what he requires of you: to do what is right, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God.

MICAH 6:8

I believe that the first test of a truly great man is his humility. Really great men have a curious feeling that the greatness is not in them but through them. And they see something divine in every other man and are endlessly, incredibly merciful.

Israel's Guilt and Punishment

<sup>9</sup>Fear the LORD if you are wise!

His voice calls to everyone in Jerusalem:

“The armies of destruction are coming;
the LORD is sending them.”*

<sup>10</sup>What shall I say about the homes of the wicked filled with treasures gained by cheating?

What about the disgusting practice of measuring out grain with dishonest measures?*

<sup>11</sup>How can I tolerate your merchants who use dishonest scales and weights?

<sup>12</sup>The rich among you have become wealthy through extortion and violence.

Your citizens are so used to lying that their tongues can no longer tell the truth.

<sup>13</sup>“Therefore, I will wound you!

I will bring you to ruin for all your sins.

<sup>14</sup>You will eat but never have enough.

Your hunger pangs and emptiness will remain.

And though you try to save your money,
it will come to nothing in the end.

You will save a little,

but I will give it to those who conquer you.

<sup>15</sup>You will plant crops

but not harvest them.
You will press your olives
but not get enough oil to anoint yourselves.
You will trample the grapes
but get no juice to make your wine.
<sup>16</sup>You keep only the laws of evil King Omri;
you follow only the example of wicked King Ahab!
Therefore, I will make an example of you, bringing you to complete ruin.
You will be treated with contempt, mocked by all who see you.”

Micah 7

Misery Turned to Hope

<sup>1</sup>How miserable I am!

I feel like the fruit picker after the harvest who can find nothing to eat.

Not a cluster of grapes or a single early fig can be found to satisfy my hunger.

<sup>2</sup>The godly people have all disappeared;
not one honest person is left on the earth.

They are all murderers,
setting traps even for their own brothers.

<sup>3</sup>Both their hands are equally skilled at doing evil!
Officials and judges alike demand bribes.

The people with influence get what they want,
and together they scheme to twist justice.

<sup>4</sup>Even the best of them is like a brier;
the most honest is as dangerous as a hedge of thorns.

But your judgment day is coming swiftly now.
Your time of punishment is here, a time of confusion.

<sup>5</sup>Don't trust anyone—not your best friend or even your wife!

<sup>6</sup>For the son despises his father.
The daughter defies her mother.

The daughter-in-law defies her mother-in-law.
Your enemies are right in your own household!

<sup>7</sup>As for me, I look to the LORD for help.
I wait confidently for God to save me,
and my God will certainly hear me.

<sup>8</sup>Do not gloat over me, my enemies!
For though I fall, I will rise again.
Though I sit in darkness,
the LORD will be my light.

<sup>9</sup>I will be patient as the LORD punishes me, for I have sinned against him.
But after that, he will take up my case and give me justice for all I have suffered from my enemies.
The LORD will bring me into the light,
and I will see his righteousness.

<sup>10</sup>Then my enemies will see that the LORD is on my side.
They will be ashamed that they taunted me, saying,
“So where is the LORD—that God of yours?”
With my own eyes I will see their downfall;
they will be trampled like mud in the streets.

<sup>11</sup>In that day, Israel, your cities will be rebuilt, and your borders will be extended.

<sup>12</sup>People from many lands will come and honor you—from Assyria all the way to the towns of Egypt, from Egypt all the way to the Euphrates River,*
and from distant seas and mountains.

<sup>13</sup>But the land* will become empty and desolate
because of the wickedness of those who live there.

The LORD's Compassion on Israel

<sup>14</sup>O LORD, protect your people with your shepherd's staff;
lead your flock, your special possession.
Though they live alone in a thicket on the heights of Mount Carmel,* let them graze in the fertile pastures of Bashan and Gilead as they did long ago.

<sup>15</sup>“Yes,” says the LORD,
“I will do mighty miracles for you,
like those I did when I rescued you from slavery in Egypt.”

<sup>16</sup>All the nations of the world will stand amazed at what the LORD will do for you.
They will be embarrassed
at their feeble power.
They will cover their mouths in silent awe,
deaf to everything around them.

<sup>17</sup>Like snakes crawling from their holes, they will come out to meet the LORD our God.
They will fear him greatly,
trembling in terror at his presence.

<sup>18</sup>Where is another God like you, who pardons the guilt of the remnant,
overlooking the sins of his special people?
You will not stay angry with your people forever,
because you delight in showing unfailing love.

<sup>19</sup>Once again you will have compassion on us.

You will trample our sins under your feet and throw them into the depths of the ocean!

<sup>20</sup>You will show us your faithfulness and unfailing love as you promised to our ancestors Abraham and Jacob long ago.

Nahum 1

<sup>1</sup>This message concerning Nineveh came as a vision to Nahum, who lived in Elkosh.

The LORD's Anger against Nineveh

<sup>2</sup>The LORD is a jealous God, filled with vengeance and rage.
He takes revenge on all who oppose him and continues to rage against his enemies!

<sup>3</sup>The LORD is slow to get angry, but his power is great,
and he never lets the guilty go unpunished.
He displays his power in the whirlwind and the storm.
The billowing clouds are the dust beneath his feet.

<sup>4</sup>At his command the oceans dry up,
and the rivers disappear.
The lush pastures of Bashan and Carmel fade,
and the green forests of Lebanon wither.

<sup>5</sup>In his presence the mountains quake, and the hills melt away;
the earth trembles,

and its people are destroyed.

<sup>6</sup>Who can stand before his fierce anger?

Who can survive his burning fury?

His rage blazes forth like fire, and the mountains crumble to dust in his presence.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD is good,

a strong refuge when trouble comes.

He is close to those who trust in him.

<sup>8</sup>But he will sweep away his enemies in an overwhelming flood.

He will pursue his foes

into the darkness of night.

<sup>9</sup>Why are you scheming against the LORD?

He will destroy you with one blow;

he won't need to strike twice!

<sup>10</sup>His enemies, tangled like thornbushes and staggering like drunks, will be burned up like dry stubble in a field.

<sup>11</sup>Who is this wicked counselor of yours who plots evil against the LORD?

<sup>12</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“Though the Assyrians have many allies,

they will be destroyed and disappear.

O my people, I have punished you before,

but I will not punish you again.

<sup>13</sup>Now I will break the yoke of bondage from your neck and tear off the chains of Assyrian oppression.”

<sup>14</sup>And this is what the LORD says concerning the Assyrians in Nineveh:

“You will have no more children to carry on your name.
I will destroy all the idols in the temples of your gods.
I am preparing a grave for you because you are despicable!”

<sup>15</sup> *Look! A messenger is coming over the mountains with good news!

He is bringing a message of peace.
Celebrate your festivals, O people of Judah,
and fulfill all your vows,
for your wicked enemies will never invade your land again.
They will be completely destroyed!

Nahum 2

The Fall of Nineveh

<sup>1</sup>*Your enemy is coming to crush you, Nineveh.
Man the ramparts! Watch the roads!
Prepare your defenses! Call out your forces!

<sup>2</sup>Even though the destroyer has destroyed Judah,
the LORD will restore its honor.
Israel's vine has been stripped of branches,
but he will restore its splendor.

<sup>3</sup>Shields flash red in the sunlight!
See the scarlet uniforms of the valiant troops!
Watch as their glittering chariots move into position,
with a forest of spears waving above them.*

<sup>4</sup>The chariots race recklessly along the streets and rush wildly through the squares.
They flash like firelight and move as swiftly as lightning.

<sup>5</sup>The king shouts to his officers;
they stumble in their haste,
rushing to the walls to set up their defenses.

<sup>6</sup>The river gates have been torn open!
The palace is about to collapse!

<sup>7</sup>Nineveh's exile has been decreed, and all the servant girls mourn its capture.

They moan like doves and beat their breasts in sorrow.

<sup>8</sup>Nineveh is like a leaking water reservoir!

The people are slipping away.

“Stop, stop!” someone shouts, but no one even looks back.

<sup>9</sup>Loot the silver!

Plunder the gold!

There’s no end to Nineveh’s treasures—its vast, uncounted wealth.

<sup>10</sup>Soon the city is plundered, empty, and ruined.
Hearts melt and knees shake.

The people stand aghast,
their faces pale and trembling.

<sup>11</sup>Where now is that great Nineveh, that den filled with young lions?

It was a place where people—like lions and their cubs—walked freely and without fear.

<sup>12</sup>The lion tore up meat for his cubs and strangled prey for his mate.

He filled his den with prey,
his caverns with his plunder.

13 “I am your enemy!”

says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

“Your chariots will soon go up in smoke.

Your young men * will be killed in battle.

Never again will you plunder conquered nations.

The voices of your proud messengers will be heard no more.”

Nahum 3

The LORD's Judgment against Nineveh

<sup>1</sup>What sorrow awaits Nineveh, the city of murder and lies!
She is crammed with wealth and is never without victims.

<sup>2</sup>Hear the crack of whips,
the rumble of wheels!
Horses' hooves pound,
and chariots clatter wildly.

<sup>3</sup>See the flashing swords and glittering spears as the charioteers charge past!
There are countless casualties, heaps of bodies—
so many bodies that people stumble over them.

<sup>4</sup>All this because Nineveh, the beautiful and faithless city,
mistress of deadly charms,
enticed the nations with her beauty.
She taught them all her magic,
enchanting people everywhere.

<sup>5</sup>"I am your enemy!"
says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.
"And now I will lift your skirts and show all the earth your nakedness and shame.

<sup>6</sup>I will cover you with filth and show the world how vile you really are.

<sup>7</sup>All who see you will shrink back and say,

‘Nineveh lies in ruins.

Where are the mourners?’

Does anyone regret your destruction?”

<sup>8</sup>Are you any better than the city of Thebes,* situated on the Nile River, surrounded by water?

She was protected by the river on all sides,
walled in by water.

<sup>9</sup>Ethiopia* and the land of Egypt gave unlimited assistance.

The nations of Put and Libya were among her allies.

<sup>10</sup>Yet Thebes fell,
and her people were led away as captives.

Her babies were dashed to death against the stones of the streets.

Soldiers threw dice* to get Egyptian officers as servants.
All their leaders were bound in chains.

<sup>11</sup>And you, Nineveh, will also stagger like a drunkard.
You will hide for fear of the attacking enemy.

<sup>12</sup>All your fortresses will fall.

They will be devoured like the ripe figs that fall into the mouths of those who shake the trees.

<sup>13</sup>Your troops will be as weak and helpless as women.
The gates of your land will be opened wide to the enemy and set on fire and burned.

<sup>14</sup>Get ready for the siege!
Store up water!
Strengthen the defenses!
Go into the pits to trample clay,
and pack it into molds,
making bricks to repair the walls.

<sup>15</sup>But the fire will devour you;
the sword will cut you down.
The enemy will consume you like locusts, devouring everything they see.
There will be no escape,
even if you multiply like swarming locusts.

<sup>16</sup>Your merchants have multiplied until they outnumber the stars.
But like a swarm of locusts,
they strip the land and fly away.

<sup>17</sup>Your guards* and officials are also like swarming locusts that crowd together in the hedges on a cold day.
But like locusts that fly away when the sun comes up,
all of them will fly away and disappear.

<sup>18</sup>Your shepherds are asleep, O Assyrian king;
your princes lie dead in the dust.
Your people are scattered across the mountains with no one to gather them together.

<sup>19</sup>There is no healing for your wound;
your injury is fatal.

All who hear of your destruction will clap their hands for joy.

Where can anyone be found who has not suffered from your continual cruelty?

WORTH MEMORIZING

2:4

Look at the proud!

They trust in themselves, and their lives are crooked.

But the righteous will live by their faithfulness to God.

3:17-19

Even though the fig trees have no blossoms,

and there are no grapes on the vines;

even though the olive crop fails,

and the fields lie empty and barren;

even though the flocks die in the fields,

and the cattle barns are empty,

yet I will rejoice in the LORD!

I will be joyful in the God of my salvation!

The Sovereign LORD is my strength!

He makes me as surefooted as a deer,

able to tread upon the heights.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

FAITH IN GOD.

For men who like to understand everything—to know the reasons, and grasp the big picture, this is a helpful book. It tells us that God isn't threatened or bothered by tough questions. It also tells us that God's answer might not be what we want to hear. So though we'll never fully understand God, we need to live by faith.

Habakkuk 1

<sup>1</sup> This is the message that the prophet Habakkuk received in a vision.

Habakkuk's Complaint

<sup>2</sup>How long, O LORD, must I call for help?

But you do not listen!

“Violence is everywhere!” I cry,

but you do not come to save.

<sup>3</sup>Must I forever see these evil deeds?

Why must I watch all this misery?

Wherever I look,

I see destruction and violence.

I am surrounded by people who love to argue and fight.

<sup>4</sup>The law has become paralyzed, and there is no justice in the courts.

The wicked far outnumber the righteous,

so that justice has become perverted.

The LORD's Reply

<sup>5</sup> The LORD replied,

“Look around at the nations;

look and be amazed!*

For I am doing something in your own day, something you wouldn't believe even if someone told you about it.

<sup>6</sup>I am raising up the Babylonians *
a cruel and violent people.

They will march across the world and conquer other lands.

<sup>7</sup>They are notorious for their cruelty and do whatever they like.

<sup>8</sup>Their horses are swifter than cheetahs * and fiercer than wolves at dusk.

Their charioteers charge from far away.

Like eagles, they swoop down to devour their prey.

<sup>9</sup>“On they come, all bent on violence.
Their hordes advance like a desert wind, sweeping captives ahead of them like sand.

<sup>10</sup>They scoff at kings and princes and scorn all their fortresses.

They simply pile ramps of earth against their walls and capture them!

<sup>11</sup>They sweep past like the wind and are gone.

But they are deeply guilty,
for their own strength is their god.”

Habakkuk's Second Complaint

<sup>12</sup> O LORD my God, my Holy One, you who are eternal—surely you do not plan to wipe us out?

O LORD, our Rock, you have sent these Babylonians to correct us, to punish us for our many sins.

<sup>13</sup>But you are pure and cannot stand the sight of evil.

Will you wink at their treachery?

Should you be silent while the wicked swallow up people more righteous than they?

<sup>14</sup>Are we only fish to be caught and killed?

Are we only sea creatures that have no leader?

<sup>15</sup>Must we be strung up on their hooks and caught in their nets while they rejoice and celebrate?

<sup>16</sup>Then they will worship their nets and burn incense in front of them.

“These nets are the gods who have made us rich!”

they will claim.

<sup>17</sup>Will you let them get away with this forever?

Will they succeed forever in their heartless conquests?

Habakkuk 2

<sup>1</sup>I will climb up to my watchtower and stand at my guardpost.
There I will wait to see what the LORD says
and how he* will answer my complaint.

The LORD's Second Reply

<sup>2</sup>Then the LORD said to me,

“Write my answer plainly on tablets,
so that a runner can carry the correct message to others.

<sup>3</sup>This vision is for a future time.
It describes the end, and it will be fulfilled.
If it seems slow in coming, wait patiently,
for it will surely take place.
It will not be delayed.

<sup>4</sup>“Look at the proud!
They trust in themselves, and their lives are crooked.

<sup>5</sup>Wealth* is treacherous, and the arrogant are never at rest.
They open their mouths as wide as the grave,*
and like death, they are never satisfied.
In their greed they have gathered up many nations and swallowed many peoples.

<sup>6</sup>“But soon their captives will taunt them.
They will mock them, saying,
‘What sorrow awaits you thieves!
Now you will get what you deserve!
You’ve become rich by extortion, but how much longer can this go on?’
<sup>7</sup>Suddenly, your debtors will take action.
They will turn on you and take all you have,
while you stand trembling and helpless.
<sup>8</sup>Because you have plundered many nations,
now all the survivors will plunder you.
You committed murder throughout the countryside
and filled the towns with violence.

<sup>9</sup>“What sorrow awaits you who build big houses with money gained dishonestly!
You believe your wealth will buy security, putting your family’s nest beyond the reach of danger.
<sup>10</sup>But by the murders you committed,
you have shamed your name and forfeited your lives.
<sup>11</sup>The very stones in the walls cry out against you,
and the beams in the ceilings echo the complaint.

<sup>12</sup>“What sorrow awaits you who build cities with money gained through murder and corruption!
<sup>13</sup>Has not the LORD of Heaven’s Armies promised that the wealth of nations will turn to ashes?
They work so hard,

but all in vain!

<sup>14</sup>For as the waters fill the sea,
the earth will be filled with an awareness of the glory of the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>“What sorrow awaits you who make your neighbors drunk!
You force your cup on them
so you can gloat over their shameful nakedness.

<sup>16</sup>But soon it will be your turn to be disgraced.
Come, drink and be exposed!*

Drink from the cup of the LORD’s judgment, and all your glory will be turned to shame.

<sup>17</sup>You cut down the forests of Lebanon.
Now you will be cut down.
You destroyed the wild animals,
so now their terror will be yours.
You committed murder throughout the countryside
and filled the towns with violence.

<sup>18</sup>“What good is an idol carved by man, or a cast image that deceives you?
How foolish to trust in your own creation—
a god that can’t even talk!

<sup>19</sup>What sorrow awaits you who say to wooden idols, ‘Wake up and save us!’
To speechless stone images you say, ‘Rise up and teach us!’
Can an idol tell you what to do?
They may be overlaid with gold and silver,

but they are lifeless inside.

<sup>20</sup>But the LORD is in his holy Temple.
Let all the earth be silent before him.”

Habakkuk 3

Habakkuk's Prayer

<sup>1</sup> This prayer was sung by the prophet Habakkuk*:

<sup>2</sup> I have heard all about you, LORD.
I am filled with awe by your amazing works.
In this time of our deep need, help us again as you did in years gone by.
And in your anger,
remember your mercy.

<sup>3</sup> I see God moving across the deserts from Edom,*
the Holy One coming from Mount Paran.*

His brilliant splendor fills the heavens, and the earth is filled with his praise.

<sup>4</sup> His coming is as brilliant as the sunrise.
Rays of light flash from his hands,
where his awesome power is hidden.

<sup>5</sup> Pestilence marches before him;
plague follows close behind.

<sup>6</sup> When he stops, the earth shakes.
When he looks, the nations tremble.
He shatters the everlasting mountains and levels the eternal hills.
He is the Eternal One!

<sup>7</sup> I see the people of Cushan in distress, and the nation of Midian trembling in terror.

<sup>8</sup>Was it in anger, LORD, that you struck the rivers and parted the sea?

Were you displeased with them?

No, you were sending your chariots of salvation!

<sup>9</sup>You brandished your bow and your quiver of arrows.

You split open the earth with flowing rivers.

<sup>10</sup>The mountains watched and trembled.

Onward swept the raging waters.

The mighty deep cried out, lifting its hands to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>The sun and moon stood still in the sky as your brilliant arrows flew and your glittering spear flashed.

<sup>12</sup>You marched across the land in anger and trampled the nations in your fury.

<sup>13</sup>You went out to rescue your chosen people, to save your anointed ones.

You crushed the heads of the wicked and stripped their bones from head to toe.

<sup>14</sup>With his own weapons, you destroyed the chief of those who rushed out like a whirlwind, thinking Israel would be easy prey.

<sup>15</sup>You trampled the sea with your horses, and the mighty waters piled high.

<sup>16</sup>I trembled inside when I heard this;
my lips quivered with fear.

My legs gave way beneath me,*
and I shook in terror.

I will wait quietly for the coming day
when disaster will strike the people who invade us.

<sup>17</sup>Even though the fig trees have no blossoms,
and there are no grapes on the vines;
even though the olive crop fails,
and the fields lie empty and barren;
even though the flocks die in the fields,
and the cattle barns are empty,

<sup>18</sup>yet I will rejoice in the LORD!
I will be joyful in the God of my salvation!

<sup>19</sup>The Sovereign LORD is my strength!
He makes me as surefooted as a deer,*
able to tread upon the heights.

<sup>1</sup>The LORD gave this message to Zephaniah when Josiah son of Amon was king of Judah. Zephaniah was the son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah.

Coming Judgment against Judah

<sup>2</sup>“I will sweep away everything from the face of the earth,” says the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>“I will sweep away people and animals alike.

I will sweep away the birds of the sky and the fish in the sea.

I will reduce the wicked to heaps of rubble.*

and I will wipe humanity from the face of the earth,” says the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>“I will crush Judah and Jerusalem with my fist and destroy every last trace of their Baal worship.

I will put an end to all the idolatrous priests,
so that even the memory of them will disappear.

<sup>5</sup>For they go up to their roofs and bow down to the sun, moon, and stars.

They claim to follow the LORD,
but then they worship Molech,* too.

<sup>6</sup>And I will destroy those who used to worship me but now no longer do.

They no longer ask for the LORD’s guidance or seek my blessings.”

<sup>7</sup>Stand in silence in the presence of the Sovereign LORD, for the awesome day of the LORD’s judgment is near.
The LORD has prepared his people for a great slaughter and has chosen their executioners.*

<sup>8</sup>“On that day of judgment,”

says the LORD,

“I will punish the leaders and princes of Judah and all those following pagan customs.

<sup>9</sup>Yes, I will punish those who participate in pagan worship ceremonies,

and those who fill their masters’ houses with violence and deceit.

<sup>10</sup>“On that day,” says the LORD,

“a cry of alarm will come from the Fish Gate and echo throughout the New Quarter of the city.*
And a great crash will sound from the hills.

<sup>11</sup>Wail in sorrow, all you who live in the market area, for all the merchants and traders will be destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>“I will search with lanterns in Jerusalem’s darkest corners to punish those who sit complacent in their sins.
They think the LORD will do nothing to them,
either good or bad.

<sup>13</sup>So their property will be plundered, their homes will be ransacked.
They will build new homes

but never live in them.
They will plant vineyards
but never drink wine from them.

<sup>14</sup>“That terrible day of the LORD is near.

Swiftly it comes—

a day of bitter tears,

a day when even strong men will cry out.

<sup>15</sup>It will be a day when the LORD’s anger is poured out—a day of terrible distress and anguish,

a day of ruin and desolation,

a day of darkness and gloom,

a day of clouds and blackness,

<sup>16</sup>a day of trumpet calls and battle cries.

Down go the walled cities and the strongest battlements!

<sup>17</sup>“Because you have sinned against the LORD,

I will make you grope around like the blind.

Your blood will be poured into the dust,

and your bodies will lie rotting on the ground.”

<sup>18</sup>Your silver and gold will not save you

on that day of the LORD’s anger.

For the whole land will be devoured by the fire of his jealousy.

He will make a terrifying end of all the people on earth.*

Zephaniah 2

A Call to Repentance

<sup>1</sup>Gather together—yes, gather together, you shameless nation.

<sup>2</sup>Gather before judgment begins,
before your time to repent is blown away like chaff.
Act now, before the fierce fury of the LORD falls and the terrible day of the LORD's anger begins.

<sup>3</sup>Seek the LORD, all who are humble, and follow his commands.

Seek to do what is right and to live humbly.

Perhaps even yet the LORD will protect you—protect you from his anger on that day of destruction.

Judgment against Philistia

<sup>4</sup>Gaza and Ashkelon will be abandoned, Ashdod and Ekron torn down.

<sup>5</sup>And what sorrow awaits you Philistines* who live along the coast and in the land of Canaan, for this judgment is against you, too!

The LORD will destroy you until not one of you is left.

<sup>6</sup>The Philistine coast will become a wilderness pasture, a place of shepherd camps and enclosures for sheep and goats.

<sup>7</sup>The remnant of the tribe of Judah will pasture there.
They will rest at night in the abandoned houses in Ashkelon.
For the LORD their God will visit his people in kindness and restore their prosperity again.

Judgment against Moab and Ammon

<sup>8</sup>“I have heard the taunts of the Moabites and the insults of the Ammonites, mocking my people
and invading their borders.

What the Bible Says about

Sports

<sup>9</sup>Now, as surely as I live,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, “Moab and Ammon will be destroyed—destroyed as completely as Sodom and Gomorrah.
Their land will become a place of stinging nettles, salt pits, and eternal desolation.
The remnant of my people will plunder them
and take their land.”

<sup>10</sup>They will receive the wages of their pride, for they have scoffed at the people of the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD will terrify them
as he destroys all the gods in the land.
Then nations around the world will worship the LORD,

each in their own land.

Judgment against Ethiopia and Assyria

<sup>12</sup>“You Ethiopians* will also be slaughtered by my sword,” says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>And the LORD will strike the lands of the north with his fist, destroying the land of Assyria.

He will make its great capital, Nineveh, a desolate wasteland, parched like a desert.

<sup>14</sup>The proud city will become a pasture for flocks and herds, and all sorts of wild animals will settle there.

The desert owl and screech owl will roost on its ruined columns, their calls echoing through the gaping windows.

Rubble will block all the doorways, and the cedar paneling will be exposed to the weather.

<sup>15</sup>This is the boisterous city, once so secure.

“I am the greatest!” it boasted.

“No other city can compare with me!”

But now, look how it has become an utter ruin, a haven for wild animals.

Everyone passing by will laugh in derision and shake a defiant fist.

Zephaniah 3

Jerusalem's Rebellion and Redemption

<sup>1</sup>What sorrow awaits rebellious, polluted Jerusalem, the city of violence and crime!

<sup>2</sup>No one can tell it anything;
it refuses all correction.

It does not trust in the LORD
or draw near to its God.

<sup>3</sup>Its leaders are like roaring lions hunting for their victims.

Its judges are like ravenous wolves at evening time,
who by dawn have left no trace of their prey.

<sup>4</sup>Its prophets are arrogant liars seeking their own gain.
Its priests defile the Temple by disobeying God's instructions.

<sup>5</sup>But the LORD is still there in the city, and he does no wrong.

Day by day he hands down justice,
and he does not fail.

But the wicked know no shame.

<sup>6</sup>"I have wiped out many nations, devastating their fortress walls and towers.

Their streets are now deserted;
their cities lie in silent ruin.

There are no survivors—

none at all.

<sup>7</sup>I thought, ‘Surely they will have reverence for me now!

Surely they will listen to my warnings.

Then I won’t need to strike again, destroying their homes.’

But no, they get up early to continue their evil deeds.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, be patient,” says the LORD.

“Soon I will stand and accuse these evil nations.

For I have decided to gather the kingdoms of the earth and pour out my fiercest anger and fury on them.

All the earth will be devoured

by the fire of my jealousy.

<sup>9</sup> “Then I will purify the speech of all people, so that everyone can worship the LORD together.

<sup>10</sup>My scattered people who live beyond the rivers of Ethiopia*

will come to present their offerings.

<sup>11</sup>On that day you will no longer need to be ashamed, for you will no longer be rebels against me.

I will remove all proud and arrogant people from among you.

There will be no more haughtiness on my holy mountain.

<sup>12</sup>Those who are left will be the lowly and humble, for it is they who trust in the name of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>The remnant of Israel will do no wrong;

they will never tell lies or deceive one another.

They will eat and sleep in safety,

and no one will make them afraid.”

<sup>14</sup>Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout aloud, O Israel!
Be glad and rejoice with all your heart,
O daughter of Jerusalem!

<sup>15</sup>For the LORD will remove his hand of judgment and will disperse the armies of your enemy.
And the LORD himself, the King of Israel, will live among you!

At last your troubles will be over,
and you will never again fear disaster.

<sup>16</sup>On that day the announcement to Jerusalem will be,
“Cheer up, Zion! Don’t be afraid!

<sup>17</sup>For the LORD your God is living among you.

He is a mighty savior.

He will take delight in you with gladness.

With his love, he will calm all your fears.*

He will rejoice over you with joyful songs.”

<sup>18</sup>“I will gather you who mourn for the appointed festivals; you will be disgraced no more.*

<sup>19</sup>And I will deal severely with all who have oppressed you.

I will save the weak and helpless ones;

I will bring together

those who were chased away.

I will give glory and fame to my former exiles,
wherever they have been mocked and shamed.

<sup>20</sup>On that day I will gather you together and bring you home again.

I will give you a good name, a name of distinction,
among all the nations of the earth,

as I restore your fortunes before their very eyes.

I, the LORD, have spoken!”

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

ENCOURAGEMENT BY OBEDIENCE.

Haggai's insistence on rebuilding the house of the Lord reminds us to get our priorities right. The people kept thinking of excuses for not doing the important thing. But Zerubbabel's love for God and his commitment to obedience stimulated the building effort. In the same way, when we take the initiative to do God's work, we can spark others to follow.

A Call to Rebuild the Temple

<sup>1</sup>On August 29* of the second year of King Darius's reign, the LORD gave a message through the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Jeshua* son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

<sup>2</sup> “This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: The people are saying, ‘The time has not yet come to rebuild the house of the LORD.’”

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD sent this message through the prophet Haggai: <sup>4</sup>“Why are you living in luxurious houses while my house lies in ruins? <sup>5</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Look at what's happening to you! <sup>6</sup>You have planted much but harvest little. You eat but are not satisfied. You drink but are still thirsty. You put on clothes but cannot keep warm. Your wages disappear as though you were putting them in pockets filled with holes!

<sup>7</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Look at what's happening to you! <sup>8</sup>Now go up into the hills, bring down timber, and rebuild my house. Then I will take pleasure in it and be honored, says the LORD. <sup>9</sup>You hoped for rich harvests, but they were poor. And when you brought your harvest home, I blew it away. Why? Because my house lies in ruins, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, while all of you are busy building your own fine houses. <sup>10</sup>It's because of you that the heavens withhold the dew and the earth produces no crops. <sup>11</sup>I have called for a drought on your fields and hills—a drought to wither the grain and grapes and olive trees and all your other crops, a drought to starve you and your livestock and to ruin everything you have worked so hard to get.”

Obedience to God's Call

<sup>12</sup>Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the whole remnant of God's people began to obey the message from the LORD their God. When they heard the words of the prophet Haggai, whom the LORD their God had sent, the people feared the LORD. <sup>13</sup> Then Haggai, the LORD's messenger, gave the people this message from the LORD: “I am with you, says the LORD!”

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD sparked the enthusiasm of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the enthusiasm of Jeshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the enthusiasm of the whole remnant of God's people. They began to work on the house of their God, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, <sup>15</sup>on September 21* of the second year of King Darius's reign.

Haggai 2

The New Temple's Diminished Splendor

<sup>1</sup>Then on October 17 of that same year,* the LORD sent another message through the prophet Haggai. <sup>2</sup>“Say this to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Jeshua* son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of God’s people there in the land: <sup>3</sup>‘Does anyone remember this house—this Temple—in its former splendor? How, in comparison, does it look to you now? It must seem like nothing at all! <sup>4</sup>But now the LORD says: Be strong, Zerubbabel. Be strong, Jeshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people still left in the land. And now get to work, for I am with you, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. <sup>5</sup>My Spirit remains among you, just as I promised when you came out of Egypt. So do not be afraid.’

<sup>6</sup>“For this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: In just a little while I will again shake the heavens and the earth, the oceans and the dry land. <sup>7</sup>I will shake all the nations, and the treasures of all the nations will be brought to this Temple. I will fill this place with glory, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. <sup>8</sup>The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. <sup>9</sup>The future glory of this Temple will be greater than its past glory, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. And in this place I will bring peace. I, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, have spoken!”

Blessings Promised for Obedience

<sup>10</sup>On December 18* of the second year of King Darius's reign, the LORD sent this message to the prophet Haggai: <sup>11</sup>"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says. Ask the priests this question about the law: <sup>12</sup>'If one of you is carrying some meat from a holy sacrifice in his robes and his robe happens to brush against some bread or stew, wine or olive oil, or any other kind of food, will it also become holy?'"

The priests replied, "No."

<sup>13</sup>Then Haggai asked, "If someone becomes ceremonially unclean by touching a dead person and then touches any of these foods, will the food be defiled?"

And the priests answered, "Yes."

<sup>14</sup>Then Haggai responded, "That is how it is with this people and this nation, says the LORD. Everything they do and everything they offer is defiled by their sin. <sup>15</sup>Look at what was happening to you before you began to lay the foundation of the LORD's Temple. <sup>16</sup>When you hoped for a twenty-bushel crop, you harvested only ten. When you expected to draw fifty gallons from the winepress, you found only twenty. <sup>17</sup>I sent blight and mildew and hail to destroy everything you worked so hard to produce. Even so, you refused to return to me, says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>"Think about this eighteenth day of December, the day* when the foundation of the LORD's Temple was laid. Think carefully. <sup>19</sup>I am giving you a promise now while the seed is still in the barn.* You have not yet harvested your grain, and your grapevines, fig trees, pomegranates, and olive trees have not yet produced their crops. But from this day onward I will bless you.”

Promises for Zerubbabel

<sup>20</sup>On that same day, December 18,* the LORD sent this second message to Haggai: <sup>21</sup>“Tell Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah, that I am about to shake the heavens and the earth. <sup>22</sup>I will overthrow royal thrones and destroy the power of foreign kingdoms. I will overturn their chariots and riders. The horses will fall, and their riders will kill each other.

<sup>23</sup>“But when this happens, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, I will honor you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant. I will make you like a signet ring on my finger, says the LORD, for I have chosen you. I, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, have spoken!”

This book contains several role models of men who were faithful to God. Zechariah delivered God's message, even though it contained rebuke. Jeshua the priest was an example of a good "shepherd" to Israel. Zerubbabel took on a difficult task and persisted until the job was completed.

Zechariah 1

A Call to Return to the LORD

<sup>1</sup>In November* of the second year of King Darius's reign, the LORD gave this message to the prophet Zechariah son of Berekiah and grandson of Iddo:

<sup>2</sup>"I, the LORD, was very angry with your ancestors. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, say to the people, 'This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Return to me, and I will return to you, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.' <sup>4</sup>Don't be like your ancestors who would not listen or pay attention when the earlier prophets said to them, 'This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Turn from your evil ways, and stop all your evil practices.'

<sup>5</sup>"Where are your ancestors now? They and the prophets are long dead. <sup>6</sup>But everything I said through my servants the prophets happened to your ancestors, just as I said. As a result, they repented and said, 'We have received what we deserved from the LORD of Heaven's Armies. He has done what he said he would do.'"

A Man among the Myrtle Trees

<sup>7</sup>Three months later, on February 15,* the LORD sent another message to the prophet Zechariah son of Berekiah and grandson of Iddo.

<sup>8</sup>In a vision during the night, I saw a man sitting on a red horse that was standing among some myrtle trees in a small valley. Behind him were riders on red, brown, and white horses.

<sup>9</sup>I asked the angel who was talking with me, “My lord, what do these horses mean?”

“I will show you,” the angel replied.

<sup>10</sup>The rider standing among the myrtle trees then explained, “They are the ones the LORD has sent out to patrol the earth.”

<sup>11</sup>Then the other riders reported to the angel of the LORD, who was standing among the myrtle trees, “We have been patrolling the earth, and the whole earth is at peace.”

<sup>12</sup>Upon hearing this, the angel of the LORD prayed this prayer: “O LORD of Heaven’s Armies, for seventy years now you have been angry with Jerusalem and the towns of Judah. How long until you again show mercy to them?” <sup>13</sup>And the LORD spoke kind and comforting words to the angel who talked with me.

<sup>14</sup>Then the angel said to me, “Shout this message for all to hear: ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: My love for Jerusalem and Mount Zion is passionate and strong. <sup>15</sup>But I am very angry with the other nations that are now enjoying peace and security. I was only a little angry with my people, but the nations inflicted harm on them far beyond my intentions.

<sup>16</sup>“Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I have returned to show mercy to Jerusalem. My Temple will be rebuilt, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, and measurements will be taken for the reconstruction of Jerusalem.*’

<sup>17</sup>“Say this also: ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: The towns of Israel will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem as his own.’”

Four Horns and Four Blacksmiths

<sup>18</sup> *Then I looked up and saw four animal horns. <sup>19</sup>“What are these?” I asked the angel who was talking with me.

He replied, “These horns represent the nations that scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”

<sup>20</sup>Then the LORD showed me four blacksmiths. <sup>21</sup>“What are these men coming to do?” I asked.

The angel replied, “These four horns—these nations—scattered and humbled Judah. Now these blacksmiths have come to terrify those nations and throw them down and destroy them.”

Zechariah 2

Future Prosperity of Jerusalem

He replied, “I am going to measure Jerusalem, to see how wide and how long it is.”

<sup>3</sup>Then the angel who was with me went to meet a second angel who was coming toward him. <sup>4</sup>The other angel said, “Hurry, and say to that young man, ‘Jerusalem will someday be so full of people and livestock that there won’t be room enough for everyone! Many will live outside the city walls. <sup>5</sup>Then I, myself, will be a protective wall of fire around Jerusalem, says the LORD. And I will be the glory inside the city!’”

The Exiles Are Called Home

<sup>6</sup>The LORD says, “Come away! Flee from Babylon in the land of the north, for I have scattered you to the four winds. <sup>7</sup>Come away, people of Zion, you who are exiled in Babylon!”

<sup>8</sup>After a period of glory, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies sent me * against the nations who plundered you. For he said, “Anyone who harms you harms my most precious possession. * <sup>9</sup>I will raise my fist to crush them, and their own slaves will plunder them.” Then you will know that the LORD of Heaven’s Armies has sent me.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD says, “Shout and rejoice, O beautiful Jerusalem,* for I am coming to live among you. <sup>11</sup>Many nations will join themselves to the LORD on that day, and they, too, will be my people. I will live among you, and you will know that the LORD of Heaven’s Armies sent me to you. <sup>12</sup>The land of Judah will be the LORD’s special possession in the holy land, and he will once again choose Jerusalem to be his own city. <sup>13</sup>Be silent before the LORD, all humanity, for he is springing into action from his holy dwelling.”

Cleansing for the High Priest

<sup>1</sup> Then the angel showed me Jeshua* the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD. The Accuser, Satan,* was there at the angel's right hand, making accusations against Jeshua. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to Satan, "I, the LORD, reject your accusations, Satan. Yes, the LORD, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebukes you. This man is like a burning stick that has been snatched from the fire."

<sup>3</sup>Jeshua's clothing was filthy as he stood there before the angel. <sup>4</sup>So the angel said to the others standing there, "Take off his filthy clothes." And turning to Jeshua he said, "See, I have taken away your sins, and now I am giving you these fine new clothes."

<sup>5</sup> Then I said, "They should also place a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean priestly turban on his head and dressed him in new clothes while the angel of the LORD stood by.

<sup>6</sup>Then the angel of the LORD spoke very solemnly to Jeshua and said, <sup>7</sup>"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: If you follow my ways and carefully serve me, then you will be given authority over my Temple and its courtyards. I will let you walk among these others standing here.

<sup>8</sup>"Listen to me, O Jeshua the high priest, and all you other priests. You are symbols of things to come. Soon I am going to bring my servant, the Branch.<sup>9</sup> Now look at the jewel I have set before Jeshua, a single stone with seven facets.* I will engrave an inscription on it, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, and I will remove the sins of this land in a single day.

<sup>10</sup>“And on that day, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, each of you will invite your neighbor to sit with you peacefully under your own grapevine and fig tree.”

A Lampstand and Two Olive Trees

<sup>1</sup> Then the angel who had been talking with me returned and woke me, as though I had been asleep.<sup>2</sup> “What do you see now?” he asked.

I answered, “I see a solid gold lampstand with a bowl of oil on top of it. Around the bowl are seven lamps, each having seven spouts with wicks.<sup>3</sup> And I see two olive trees, one on each side of the bowl.”<sup>4</sup> Then I asked the angel, “What are these, my lord? What do they mean?”

<sup>5</sup> “Don’t you know?” the angel asked.

“No, my lord,” I replied.

<sup>6</sup> Then he said to me, “This is what the LORD says to Zerubbabel: It is not by force nor by strength, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.<sup>7</sup> Nothing, not even a mighty mountain, will stand in Zerubbabel’s way; it will become a level plain before him! And when Zerubbabel sets the final stone of the Temple in place, the people will shout: ‘May God bless it! May God bless it!’<sup>8</sup>”

<sup>8</sup> Then another message came to me from the LORD:
<sup>9</sup> “Zerubbabel is the one who laid the foundation of this Temple, and he will complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of Heaven’s Armies has sent me.<sup>10</sup> Do not despise these small beginnings, for the LORD rejoices to see the work begin, to see the plumb line in Zerubbabel’s hand.”

(The seven lamps* represent the eyes of the LORD that search all around the world.)

<sup>11</sup>Then I asked the angel, “What are these two olive trees on each side of the lampstand, <sup>12</sup>and what are the two olive branches that pour out golden oil through two gold tubes?”

<sup>13</sup>“Don’t you know?” he asked.

“No, my lord,” I replied.

<sup>14</sup>Then he said to me, “They represent the two heavenly beings who stand in the court of the Lord of all the earth.”

Zechariah 5

A Flying Scroll

<sup>1</sup>I looked up again and saw a scroll flying through the air.

“I see a flying scroll,” I replied. “It appears to be about 30 feet long and 15 feet wide.*”

<sup>3</sup>Then he said to me, “This scroll contains the curse that is going out over the entire land. One side of the scroll says that those who steal will be banished from the land; the other side says that those who swear falsely will be banished from the land. <sup>4</sup>And this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: I am sending this curse into the house of every thief and into the house of everyone who swears falsely using my name. And my curse will remain in that house and completely destroy it—even its timbers and stones.”

A Woman in a Basket

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel who was talking with me came forward and said, “Look up and see what’s coming.”

<sup>6</sup>“What is it?” I asked.

He replied, “It is a basket for measuring grain,* and it’s filled with the sins* of everyone throughout the land.”

<sup>7</sup>Then the heavy lead cover was lifted off the basket, and there was a woman sitting inside it. <sup>8</sup>The angel said, “The woman’s name is Wickedness,” and he pushed her back into the basket and closed the heavy lid again.

<sup>9</sup>Then I looked up and saw two women flying toward us, gliding on the wind. They had wings like a stork, and they picked up the basket and flew into the sky.

<sup>11</sup>He replied, “To the land of Babylonia,* where they will build a temple for the basket. And when the temple is ready, they will set the basket there on its pedestal.”

Four Chariots

<sup>5</sup>The angel replied, “These are the four spirits* of heaven who stand before the Lord of all the earth. They are going out to do his work. <sup>6</sup>The chariot with black horses is going north, the chariot with white horses is going west,* and the chariot with dappled-gray horses is going south.”

<sup>7</sup>The powerful horses were eager to set out to patrol the earth. And the LORD said, “Go and patrol the earth!” So they left at once on their patrol.

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD summoned me and said, “Look, those who went north have vented the anger of my Spirit* there in the land of the north.”

The Crowning of Jeshua

<sup>9</sup> Then I received another message from the LORD: <sup>10</sup>“Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah will bring gifts of silver and gold from the Jews exiled in Babylon. As soon as they arrive, meet them at the home of Josiah son of Zephaniah. <sup>11</sup>Accept their gifts, and make a crown* from the silver and gold. Then put the crown on the head of Jeshua* son of Jehozadak, the high priest. <sup>12</sup>Tell him, ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: Here is the man called the Branch. He will branch out from where he is and build the Temple of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>Yes, he will build the Temple of the LORD. Then he will receive royal honor and will rule as king from his throne. He will also serve as priest from his throne,* and there will be perfect harmony between his two roles.’

<sup>14</sup>“The crown will be a memorial in the Temple of the LORD to honor those who gave it—Heldai,* Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Josiah* son of Zephaniah.”

<sup>15</sup>People will come from distant lands to rebuild the Temple of the LORD. And when this happens, you will know that my messages have been from the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. All this will happen if you carefully obey what the LORD your God says.

Zechariah 7

A Call to Justice and Mercy

<sup>1</sup> On December 7* of the fourth year of King Darius's reign, another message came to Zechariah from the LORD.<sup>2</sup> The people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regemmelech,* along with their attendants, to seek the LORD's favor.<sup>3</sup> They were to ask this question of the prophets and the priests at the Temple of the LORD of Heaven's Armies: "Should we continue to mourn and fast each summer on the anniversary of the Temple's destruction,* as we have done for so many years?"

<sup>5</sup> "Say to all your people and your priests, 'During these seventy years of exile, when you fasted and mourned in the summer and in early autumn,* was it really for me that you were fasting?'<sup>6</sup> And even now in your holy festivals, aren't you eating and drinking just to please yourselves? Isn't this the same message the LORD proclaimed through the prophets in years past when Jerusalem and the towns of Judah were bustling with people, and the Negev and the foothills of Judah* were well populated?"

<sup>8</sup> Then this message came to Zechariah from the LORD:<sup>9</sup> "This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Judge fairly, and show mercy and kindness to one another.<sup>10</sup> Do not oppress widows, orphans, foreigners, and the poor. And do not scheme against each other.

A Warning against Oppression

<sup>11</sup> “Your ancestors refused to listen to this message. They stubbornly turned away and put their fingers in their ears to keep from hearing. <sup>12</sup>They made their hearts as hard as stone, so they could not hear the instructions or the messages that the LORD of Heaven’s Armies had sent them by his Spirit through the earlier prophets. That is why the LORD of Heaven’s Armies was so angry with them.

<sup>13</sup>“Since they refused to listen when I called to them, I would not listen when they called to me, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. <sup>14</sup>As with a whirlwind, I scattered them among the distant nations, where they lived as strangers. Their land became so desolate that no one even traveled through it. They turned their pleasant land into a desert.”

Promised Blessings for Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Then another message came to me from the LORD of Heaven's Armies: <sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: My love for Mount Zion is passionate and strong; I am consumed with passion for Jerusalem!

<sup>3</sup>“And now the LORD says: I am returning to Mount Zion, and I will live in Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the Faithful City; the mountain of the LORD of Heaven's Armies will be called the Holy Mountain.

<sup>4</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Once again old men and women will walk Jerusalem's streets with their canes and will sit together in the city squares. <sup>5</sup>And the streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls at play.

<sup>6</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: All this may seem impossible to you now, a small remnant of God's people. But is it impossible for me? says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>7</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: You can be sure that I will rescue my people from the east and from the west. <sup>8</sup>I will bring them home again to live safely in Jerusalem. They will be my people, and I will be faithful and just toward them as their God.

<sup>9</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Be strong and finish the task! Ever since the laying of the foundation of the Temple of the LORD of Heaven's Armies, you have heard what the prophets have been saying about completing the building. <sup>10</sup>Before the work on the Temple began, there were no jobs and no money to hire people or animals. No traveler was safe from the enemy, for there were enemies on all sides. I had turned everyone against each other.

<sup>11</sup>“But now I will not treat the remnant of my people as I treated them before, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. <sup>12</sup>For I am planting seeds of peace and prosperity among you. The grapevines will be heavy with fruit. The earth will produce its crops, and the heavens will release the dew. Once more I will cause the remnant in Judah and Israel to inherit these blessings. <sup>13</sup>Among the other nations, Judah and Israel became symbols of a cursed nation. But no longer! Now I will rescue you and make you both a symbol and a source of blessing. So don't be afraid. Be strong, and get on with rebuilding the Temple!

<sup>14</sup>“For this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: I was determined to punish you when your ancestors angered me, and I did not change my mind, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. <sup>15</sup>But now I am determined to bless Jerusalem and the people of Judah. So don't be afraid. <sup>16</sup>But this is what you must do: Tell the truth to each other. Render verdicts in your courts that are just and that lead to peace. <sup>17</sup>Don't scheme against each other. Stop your love of telling lies that you swear are the truth. I hate all these things, says the LORD.”

says: The traditional fasts and times of mourning you have kept in early summer, midsummer, autumn, and winter* are now ended. They will become festivals of joy and celebration for the people of Judah. So love truth and peace.

<sup>20</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: People from nations and cities around the world will travel to Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>The people of one city will say to the people of another, ‘Come with us to Jerusalem to ask the LORD to bless us. Let’s worship the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. I’m determined to go.’ <sup>22</sup>Many peoples and powerful nations will come to Jerusalem to seek the LORD of Heaven’s Armies and to ask for his blessing.

<sup>23</sup>“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: In those days ten men from different nations and languages of the world will clutch at the sleeve of one Jew. And they will say, ‘Please let us walk with you, for we have heard that God is with you.’”

Zechariah 9

Judgment against Israel's Enemies

<sup>1</sup> This is the message* from the LORD against the land of Aram* and the city of Damascus, for the eyes of humanity, including all the tribes of Israel, are on the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> Doom is certain for Hamath, near Damascus,
and for the cities of Tyre and Sidon,
though they are so clever.

<sup>3</sup> Tyre has built a strong fortress and has made silver and gold as plentiful as dust in the streets!

<sup>4</sup> But now the Lord will strip away Tyre's possessions and hurl its fortifications into the sea, and it will be burned to the ground.

<sup>5</sup> The city of Ashkelon will see Tyre fall and will be filled with fear.

Gaza will shake with terror,
as will Ekron, for their hopes will be dashed.
Gaza's king will be killed,
and Ashkelon will be deserted.

<sup>6</sup> Foreigners will occupy the city of Ashdod.
I will destroy the pride of the Philistines.

<sup>7</sup> I will grab the bloody meat from their mouths and snatch the detestable sacrifices from their teeth.

Then the surviving Philistines will worship our God and become like a clan in Judah.*

The Philistines of Ekron will join my people, as the ancient Jebusites once did.

<sup>8</sup>I will guard my Temple and protect it from invading armies.

I am watching closely to ensure that no more foreign oppressors overrun my people's land.

Zion's Coming King

<sup>9</sup>Rejoice, O people of Zion!*

Shout in triumph, O people of Jerusalem!
Look, your king is coming to you.

He is righteous and victorious,* yet he is humble, riding on a donkey—
riding on a donkey's colt.

<sup>10</sup>I will remove the battle chariots from Israel* and the warhorses from Jerusalem.
I will destroy all the weapons used in battle,
and your king will bring peace to the nations.
His realm will stretch from sea to sea
and from the Euphrates River* to the ends of the earth.*

<sup>11</sup>Because of the covenant I made with you, sealed with blood,
I will free your prisoners
from death in a waterless dungeon.

<sup>12</sup>Come back to the place of safety,
all you prisoners who still have hope!
I promise this very day that I will repay two blessings for each of your troubles.

<sup>13</sup> Judah is my bow,
and Israel is my arrow.
Jerusalem* is my sword, and like a warrior, I will brandish it against the Greeks.*

<sup>14</sup> The LORD will appear above his people;
his arrows will fly like lightning!

The Sovereign LORD will sound the ram's horn and attack like a whirlwind from the southern desert.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD of Heaven's Armies will protect his people, and they will defeat their enemies by hurling great stones.
They will shout in battle as though drunk with wine.
They will be filled with blood like a bowl,
drenched with blood like the corners of the altar.

<sup>16</sup> On that day the LORD their God will rescue his people, just as a shepherd rescues his sheep.
They will sparkle in his land like jewels in a crown.

<sup>17</sup> How wonderful and beautiful they will be!
The young men will thrive on abundant grain,
and the young women will flourish on new wine.

Zechariah 10

The LORD Will Restore His People

<sup>1</sup>Ask the LORD for rain in the spring, for he makes the storm clouds.

And he will send showers of rain
so every field becomes a lush pasture.

<sup>2</sup>Household gods give worthless advice, fortune-tellers predict only lies,
and interpreters of dreams pronounce falsehoods that give no comfort.

So my people are wandering like lost sheep;
they are attacked because they have no shepherd.

<sup>3</sup>“My anger burns against your shepherds, and I will punish these leaders.*

For the LORD of Heaven's Armies has arrived to look after Judah, his flock.

He will make them strong and glorious,
like a proud warhorse in battle.

<sup>4</sup>From Judah will come the cornerstone,
the tent peg,
the bow for battle,
and all the rulers.

<sup>5</sup>They will be like mighty warriors in battle, trampling their enemies in the mud under their feet.
Since the LORD is with them as they fight,

they will overthrow even the enemy's horsemen.

I will restore them because of my compassion.
It will be as though I had never rejected them, for I am the LORD their God, who will hear their cries.

<sup>7</sup>The people of Israel* will become like mighty warriors, and their hearts will be made happy as if by wine.
Their children, too, will see it and be glad;
their hearts will rejoice in the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> When I whistle to them, they will come running, for I have redeemed them.
From the few who are left,
they will grow as numerous as they were before.

<sup>9</sup>Though I have scattered them like seeds among the nations, they will still remember me in distant lands.
They and their children will survive and return again to Israel.

<sup>10</sup>I will bring them back from Egypt and gather them from Assyria.
I will resettle them in Gilead and Lebanon until there is no more room for them all.

<sup>11</sup>They will pass safely through the sea of distress,* for the waves of the sea will be held back, and the waters of the Nile will dry up.
The pride of Assyria will be crushed,
and the rule of Egypt will end.

<sup>12</sup>By my power* I will make my people strong, and by my authority they will go wherever they wish.

I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Zechariah 11

<sup>1</sup>Open your doors, Lebanon, so that fire may devour your cedar forests.

<sup>2</sup>Weep, you cypress trees, for all the ruined cedars;
the most majestic ones have fallen.

Weep, you oaks of Bashan,
for the thick forests have been cut down.

<sup>3</sup>Listen to the wailing of the shepherds, for their rich pastures are destroyed.

Hear the young lions roaring,
for their thickets in the Jordan Valley are ruined.

The Good and Evil Shepherds

<sup>4</sup>This is what the LORD my God says: “Go and care for the flock that is intended for slaughter. <sup>5</sup>The buyers slaughter their sheep without remorse. The sellers say, ‘Praise the LORD! Now I’m rich!’ Even the shepherds have no compassion for them.

<sup>6</sup>Likewise, I will no longer have pity on the people of the land,” says the LORD. “I will let them fall into each other’s hands and into the hands of their king. They will turn the land into a wilderness, and I will not rescue them.”

<sup>7</sup>So I cared for the flock intended for slaughter—the flock that was oppressed. Then I took two shepherd’s staffs and named one Favor and the other Union. <sup>8</sup>I got rid of their three evil shepherds in a single month.

But I became impatient with these sheep, and they hated me, too. <sup>9</sup>So I told them, “I won’t be your shepherd any longer. If you die, you die. If you are killed, you are killed. And let those who remain devour each other!”

<sup>10</sup>Then I took my staff called Favor and cut it in two, showing that I had revoked the covenant I had made with all the nations. <sup>11</sup>That was the end of my covenant with them. The suffering flock was watching me, and they knew that the LORD was speaking through my actions.

<sup>12</sup>And I said to them, “If you like, give me my wages, whatever I am worth; but only if you want to.” So they counted out for my wages thirty pieces of silver.

<sup>13</sup>And the LORD said to me, “Throw it to the potter*”—this magnificent sum at which they valued me! So I took the thirty coins and threw them to the potter in the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>Then I took my other staff, Union, and cut it in two, showing that the bond of unity between Judah and Israel was broken.

<sup>15</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “Go again and play the part of a worthless shepherd. <sup>16</sup>This illustrates how I will give this nation a shepherd who will not care for those who are dying, nor look after the young,* nor heal the injured, nor feed the healthy. Instead, this shepherd will eat the meat of the fattest sheep and tear off their hooves.

<sup>17</sup>“What sorrow awaits this worthless shepherd who abandons the flock!
The sword will cut his arm and pierce his right eye.

His arm will become useless, and his right eye completely blind.”

Zechariah 12

Future Deliverance for Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>This* message concerning the fate of Israel came from the LORD: “This message is from the LORD, who stretched out the heavens, laid the foundations of the earth, and formed the human spirit. <sup>2</sup>I will make Jerusalem like an intoxicating drink that makes the nearby nations stagger when they send their armies to besiege Jerusalem and Judah. <sup>3</sup>On that day I will make Jerusalem an immovable rock. All the nations will gather against it to try to move it, but they will only hurt themselves.

<sup>4</sup>“On that day,” says the LORD, “I will cause every horse to panic and every rider to lose his nerve. I will watch over the people of Judah, but I will blind all the horses of their enemies. <sup>5</sup>And the clans of Judah will say to themselves, ‘The people of Jerusalem have found strength in the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, their God.’

<sup>6</sup>“On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a flame that sets a woodpile ablaze or like a burning torch among sheaves of grain. They will burn up all the neighboring nations right and left, while the people living in Jerusalem remain secure.

<sup>7</sup>“The LORD will give victory to the rest of Judah first, before Jerusalem, so that the people of Jerusalem and the royal line of David will not have greater honor than the rest of Judah. <sup>8</sup>On that day the LORD will defend the people of Jerusalem; the weakest among them will be as mighty as King David! And the royal descendants will be like God, like the angel of the LORD who goes before them! <sup>9</sup>For on that day I will begin to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> “Then I will pour out a spirit* of grace and prayer on the family of David and on the people of Jerusalem. They will look on me whom they have pierced and mourn for him as for an only son. They will grieve bitterly for him as for a firstborn son who has died. <sup>11</sup>The sorrow and mourning in Jerusalem on that day will be like the great mourning for Hadad-rimmon in the valley of Megiddo.

<sup>12</sup>“All Israel will mourn, each clan by itself, and with the husbands separate from their wives. The clan of David will mourn alone, as will the clan of Nathan, <sup>13</sup>the clan of Levi, and the clan of Shimei. <sup>14</sup>Each of the surviving clans from Judah will mourn separately, and with the husbands separate from their wives.

Zechariah 13

A Fountain of Cleansing

<sup>1</sup>“On that day a fountain will be opened for the dynasty of David and for the people of Jerusalem, a fountain to cleanse them from all their sins and impurity.

<sup>2</sup>“And on that day,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, “I will erase idol worship throughout the land, so that even the names of the idols will be forgotten. I will remove from the land both the false prophets and the spirit of impurity that came with them. <sup>3</sup>If anyone continues to prophesy, his own father and mother will tell him, ‘You must die, for you have prophesied lies in the name of the LORD.’ And as he prophesies, his own father and mother will stab him.

<sup>4</sup>“On that day people will be ashamed to claim the prophetic gift. No one will pretend to be a prophet by wearing prophet’s clothes. <sup>5</sup>He will say, ‘I’m no prophet; I’m a farmer. I began working for a farmer as a boy.’ <sup>6</sup>And if someone asks, ‘Then what about those wounds on your chest? *’ he will say, ‘I was wounded at my friends’ house!’

The Scattering of the Sheep

<sup>7</sup>“Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, the man who is my partner,”
says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.
“Strike down the shepherd,

and the sheep will be scattered,
and I will turn against the lambs.

<sup>8</sup>Two-thirds of the people in the land will be cut off and die,” says the LORD.

“But one-third will be left in the land.

<sup>9</sup>I will bring that group through the fire and make them pure.

I will refine them like silver and purify them like gold.

They will call on my name,
and I will answer them.

I will say, ‘These are my people,’
and they will say, ‘The LORD is our God.’”

Zechariah 14

The LORD Will Rule the Earth

<sup>1</sup> Watch, for the day of the LORD is coming when your possessions will be plundered right in front of you! <sup>2</sup>I will gather all the nations to fight against Jerusalem. The city will be taken, the houses looted, and the women raped. Half the population will be taken into captivity, and the rest will be left among the ruins of the city.

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD will go out to fight against those nations, as he has fought in times past. <sup>4</sup>On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem. And the Mount of Olives will split apart, making a wide valley running from east to west. Half the mountain will move toward the north and half toward the south. <sup>5</sup>You will flee through this valley, for it will reach across to Azal.* Yes, you will flee as you did from the earthquake in the days of King Uzziah of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come, and all his holy ones with him.*

<sup>6</sup>On that day the sources of light will no longer shine,* <sup>7</sup>yet there will be continuous day! Only the LORD knows how this could happen. There will be no normal day and night, for at evening time it will still be light.

<sup>8</sup> On that day life-giving waters will flow out from Jerusalem, half toward the Dead Sea and half toward the Mediterranean,* flowing continuously in both summer and winter.

<sup>9</sup>And the LORD will be king over all the earth. On that day there will be one LORD—his name alone will be worshiped.

<sup>10</sup>All the land from Geba, north of Judah, to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem, will become one vast plain. But Jerusalem will be raised up in its original place and will be inhabited all the way from the Benjamin Gate over to the site of the old gate, then to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses. <sup>11</sup>And Jerusalem will be filled, safe at last, never again to be cursed and destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>And the LORD will send a plague on all the nations that fought against Jerusalem. Their people will become like walking corpses, their flesh rotting away. Their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths. <sup>13</sup>On that day they will be terrified, stricken by the LORD with great panic. They will fight their neighbors hand to hand. <sup>14</sup>Judah, too, will be fighting at Jerusalem. The wealth of all the neighboring nations will be captured—great quantities of gold and silver and fine clothing. <sup>15</sup>This same plague will strike the horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all the other animals in the enemy camps.

<sup>16</sup>In the end, the enemies of Jerusalem who survive the plague will go up to Jerusalem each year to worship the King, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, and to celebrate the Festival of Shelters. <sup>17</sup>Any nation in the world that refuses to come to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, will have no rain. <sup>18</sup>If the people of Egypt refuse to attend the festival, the LORD will punish them with the same plague that he sends on the other nations who refuse to go. <sup>19</sup>Egypt and the other nations will all be punished if they don't go to celebrate the Festival of Shelters.

<sup>20</sup>On that day even the harness bells of the horses will be inscribed with these words: HOLY TO THE LORD. And the cooking pots in the Temple of the LORD will be as sacred as the basins used beside the altar. <sup>21</sup>In fact, every cooking pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be holy to the LORD of Heaven's Armies. All who come to worship will be free to use any of these pots to boil their sacrifices. And on that day there will no longer be traders* in the Temple of the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

Look, I am sending you the prophet Elijah before the great and dreadful day of the LORD arrives. His preaching will turn the hearts of fathers to their children, and the hearts of children to their fathers. Otherwise I will come and strike the land with a curse.

TOUGH TOPICS.

This book contains some of the Bible's most direct language about two topics close to men's hearts: wives (2:13-16) and money (3:8-12). In both cases, God's opinion may make us squirm. But we are left with the choice of whether to take him seriously or try to hunt for "exemption clauses." It's his word against our personal preferences.

Malachi 1

The LORD's Love for Israel

<sup>2</sup>“I have always loved you,” says the LORD.

But you retort, “Really? How have you loved us?”

And the LORD replies, “This is how I showed my love for you: I loved your ancestor Jacob,<sup>3</sup> but I rejected his brother, Esau, and devastated his hill country. I turned Esau’s inheritance into a desert for jackals.”

<sup>4</sup>Esau’s descendants in Edom may say, “We have been shattered, but we will rebuild the ruins.”

But the LORD of Heaven’s Armies replies, “They may try to rebuild, but I will demolish them again. Their country will be known as ‘The Land of Wickedness,’ and their people will be called ‘The People with Whom the LORD Is Forever Angry.’<sup>5</sup> When you see the destruction for yourselves, you will say, ‘Truly, the LORD’s greatness reaches far beyond Israel’s borders!”

Unworthy Sacrifices

“The LORD of Heaven’s Armies says to the priests: “A son honors his father, and a servant respects his master. If I am your father and master, where are the honor and respect I deserve? You have shown contempt for my name!

“But you ask, ‘How have we ever shown contempt for your name?’

<sup>7</sup>“You have shown contempt by offering defiled sacrifices on my altar.

“Then you ask, ‘How have we defiled the sacrifices?’*

“You defile them by saying the altar of the LORD deserves no respect. <sup>8</sup>When you give blind animals as sacrifices, isn’t that wrong? And isn’t it wrong to offer animals that are crippled and diseased? Try giving gifts like that to your governor, and see how pleased he is!” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

<sup>9</sup>“Go ahead, beg God to be merciful to you! But when you bring that kind of offering, why should he show you any favor at all?” asks the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

<sup>10</sup>“How I wish one of you would shut the Temple doors so that these worthless sacrifices could not be offered! I am not pleased with you,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, “and I will not accept your offerings. <sup>11</sup>But my name is honored* by people of other nations from morning till night. All around the world they offer* sweet incense and pure offerings in honor of my name. For my name is great among the nations,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

<sup>12</sup>“But you dishonor my name with your actions. By bringing contemptible food, you are saying it’s all right to defile the Lord’s table. <sup>13</sup>You say, ‘It’s too hard to serve the LORD,’ and you turn up your noses at my commands,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. “Think of it! Animals that are stolen and crippled and sick are being presented as offerings! Should I accept from you such offerings as these?” asks the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>“Cursed is the cheat who promises to give a fine ram from his flock but then sacrifices a defective one to the Lord. For I am a great king,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, “and my name is feared among the nations!

Malachi 2

A Warning to the Priests

<sup>1</sup> “Listen, you priests—this command is for you! <sup>2</sup>Listen to me and make up your minds to honor my name,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, “or I will bring a terrible curse against you. I will curse even the blessings you receive. Indeed, I have already cursed them, because you have not taken my warning to heart. <sup>3</sup>I will punish your descendants and splatter your faces with the manure from your festival sacrifices, and I will throw you on the manure pile. <sup>4</sup>Then at last you will know it was I who sent you this warning so that my covenant with the Levites can continue,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

<sup>5</sup>“The purpose of my covenant with the Levites was to bring life and peace, and that is what I gave them. This required reverence from them, and they greatly revered me and stood in awe of my name. <sup>6</sup>They passed on to the people the truth of the instructions they received from me. They did not lie or cheat; they walked with me, living good and righteous lives, and they turned many from lives of sin.

<sup>7</sup>“The words of a priest’s lips should preserve knowledge of God, and people should go to him for instruction, for the priest is the messenger of the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. <sup>8</sup>But you priests have left God’s paths. Your instructions have caused many to stumble into sin. You have corrupted the covenant I made with the Levites,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

<sup>9</sup>“So I have made you despised and humiliated in the eyes of all the people. For you have not obeyed me but have shown favoritism in the way you carry out my instructions.”

A Call to Faithfulness

<sup>10</sup>Are we not all children of the same Father? Are we not all created by the same God? Then why do we betray each other, violating the covenant of our ancestors?

<sup>11</sup>Judah has been unfaithful, and a detestable thing has been done in Israel and in Jerusalem. The men of Judah have defiled the LORD’s beloved sanctuary by marrying women who worship idols. <sup>12</sup>May the LORD cut off from the nation of Israel* every last man who has done this and yet brings an offering to the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

<sup>13</sup>Here is another thing you do. You cover the LORD’s altar with tears, weeping and groaning because he pays no attention to your offerings and doesn’t accept them with pleasure. <sup>14</sup>You cry out, “Why doesn’t the LORD accept my worship?” I’ll tell you why! Because the LORD witnessed the vows you and your wife made when you were young. But you have been unfaithful to her, though she remained your faithful partner, the wife of your marriage vows.

<sup>15</sup>Didn’t the LORD make you one with your wife? In body and spirit you are his.* And what does he want? Godly children from your union. So guard your heart; remain loyal to the wife of your youth. <sup>16</sup>“For I hate divorce!” says the LORD, the God of Israel. “To divorce your wife is to overwhelm her with cruelty.*” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. “So guard your heart; do not be unfaithful to your wife.”

What the Bible Says about

Divorce

men, women, & God

What God Thinks of Divorce

17 You have wearied the LORD with your words.

“How have we wearied him?” you ask.

You have wearied him by saying that all who do evil are good in the LORD’s sight, and he is pleased with them. You have wearied him by asking, “Where is the God of justice?”

Malachi 3

The Coming Day of Judgment

<sup>1</sup>“Look! I am sending my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me. Then the Lord you are seeking will suddenly come to his Temple. The messenger of the covenant, whom you look for so eagerly, is surely coming,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

<sup>2</sup>“But who will be able to endure it when he comes? Who will be able to stand and face him when he appears? For he will be like a blazing fire that refines metal, or like a strong soap that bleaches clothes. <sup>3</sup>He will sit like a refiner of silver, burning away the dross. He will purify the Levites, refining them like gold and silver, so that they may once again offer acceptable sacrifices to the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Then once more the LORD will accept the offerings brought to him by the people of Judah and Jerusalem, as he did in the past.

<sup>5</sup>“At that time I will put you on trial. I am eager to witness against all sorcerers and adulterers and liars. I will speak against those who cheat employees of their wages, who oppress widows and orphans, or who deprive the foreigners living among you of justice, for these people do not fear me,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

A Call to Repentance

<sup>6</sup>“I am the LORD, and I do not change. That is why you descendants of Jacob are not already destroyed. <sup>7</sup> Ever since the days of your ancestors, you have scorned my decrees and failed to obey them. Now return to me, and I will return to you,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

“But you ask, ‘How can we return when we have never gone away?’

<sup>8</sup>“Should people cheat God? Yet you have cheated me!

“But you ask, ‘What do you mean? When did we ever cheat you?’

“You have cheated me of the tithes and offerings due to me. <sup>9</sup>You are under a curse, for your whole nation has been cheating me. <sup>10</sup>Bring all the tithes into the storehouse so there will be enough food in my Temple. If you do,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, “I will open the windows of heaven for you. I will pour out a blessing so great you won’t have enough room to take it in! Try it! Put me to the test! <sup>11</sup>Your crops will be abundant, for I will guard them from insects and disease. * Your grapes will not fall from the vine before they are ripe,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. <sup>12</sup>“Then all nations will call you blessed, for your land will be such a delight,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

“But you say, ‘What do you mean? What have we said against you?’

<sup>14</sup>“You have said, ‘What’s the use of serving God? What have we gained by obeying his commands or by trying to show the LORD of Heaven’s Armies that we are sorry for our sins? <sup>15</sup>From now on we will call the arrogant blessed. For those who do evil get rich, and those who dare God to punish them suffer no harm.”

The LORD's Promise of Mercy

<sup>16</sup>Then those who feared the LORD spoke with each other, and the LORD listened to what they said. In his presence, a scroll of remembrance was written to record the names of those who feared him and always thought about the honor of his name.

<sup>17</sup>“They will be my people,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. “On the day when I act in judgment, they will be my own special treasure. I will spare them as a father spares an obedient child.”<sup>18</sup>Then you will again see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not.”

Malachi 4

The Coming Day of Judgment

<sup>1</sup>*The LORD of Heaven's Armies says, "The day of judgment is coming, burning like a furnace. On that day the arrogant and the wicked will be burned up like straw. They will be consumed—roots, branches, and all.

<sup>2</sup>“But for you who fear my name, the Sun of Righteousness will rise with healing in his wings.* And you will go free, leaping with joy like calves let out to pasture.<sup>3</sup>On the day when I act, you will tread upon the wicked as if they were dust under your feet,” says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>4</sup>“Remember to obey the Law of Moses, my servant—all the decrees and regulations that I gave him on Mount Sinai* for all Israel.

<sup>5</sup>“Look, I am sending you the prophet Elijah before the great and dreadful day of the LORD arrives.<sup>6</sup>His preaching will turn the hearts of fathers to their children, and the hearts of children to their fathers. Otherwise I will come and strike the land with a curse.”

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

ORDINARY MEN.

Jesus’ twelve disciples were a very diverse group of men that Jesus formed into a united team. He showed them what to do. He taught them. When he warned about anger, adultery, divorce, and revenge, he spoke from the male perspective. He gave them practical experience. He helped resolve their conflicts, especially their power struggles. He dealt with betrayal and abandonment. But he never gave up on them. At the end, he gave them a mission that would energize them for the rest of their lives.

The Ancestors of Jesus the Messiah

<sup>1</sup> This is a record of the ancestors of Jesus the Messiah, a descendant of David* and of Abraham:

<sup>2</sup>Abraham was the father of Isaac.

Isaac was the father of Jacob.

Jacob was the father of Judah and his brothers.

<sup>3</sup>Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah (whose mother was Tamar).

Perez was the father of Hezron.

Hezron was the father of Ram.*

<sup>4</sup>Ram was the father of Amminadab.

Amminadab was the father of Nahshon.

Nahshon was the father of Salmon.

<sup>5</sup>Salmon was the father of Boaz (whose mother was Rahab).

Boaz was the father of Obed (whose mother was Ruth).

Obed was the father of Jesse.

David was the father of Solomon (whose mother was Bathsheba, the widow of Uriah).

<sup>7</sup>Solomon was the father of Rehoboam.

Rehoboam was the father of Abijah.

Abijah was the father of Asa.*

<sup>8</sup>Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat.

Jehoshaphat was the father of Jehoram.*

Jehoram was the father* of Uzziah.

<sup>9</sup>Uzziah was the father of Jotham.

Jotham was the father of Ahaz.

Ahaz was the father of Hezekiah.

<sup>10</sup>Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh.

Manasseh was the father of Amon.*

Amon was the father of Josiah.

<sup>11</sup>Josiah was the father of Jehoiachin* and his brothers (born at the time of the exile to Babylon).

Jehoiachin was the father of Shealtiel.

Shealtiel was the father of Zerubbabel.

<sup>13</sup>Zerubbabel was the father of Abiud.

Abiud was the father of Eliakim.

Eliakim was the father of Azor.

<sup>14</sup>Azor was the father of Zadok.

Eleazar was the father of Matthan.

Matthan was the father of Jacob.

<sup>16</sup>Jacob was the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary.

Mary gave birth to Jesus, who is called the Messiah.

Joseph the Carpenter

The Birth of Jesus the Messiah

<sup>18</sup>This is how Jesus the Messiah was born. His mother, Mary, was engaged to be married to Joseph. But before the marriage took place, while she was still a virgin, she became pregnant through the power of the Holy Spirit. <sup>19</sup>Joseph, her fiancé, was a good man and did not want to disgrace her publicly, so he decided to break the engagement quietly.

<sup>20</sup>As he considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream. “Joseph, son of David,” the angel said, “do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife. For the child within her was conceived by the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup>And she will have a son, and you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.”

<sup>22</sup>All of this occurred to fulfill the Lord’s message through his prophet:

<sup>23</sup>“Look! The virgin will conceive a child!
She will give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel, which which means ‘God is with us.’”

<sup>24</sup>When Joseph woke up, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded and took Mary as his wife. <sup>25</sup>But he did not have sexual relations with her until her son was born. And Joseph named him Jesus.

Fathers (and Mothers)

Matthew 2

Visitors from the East

<sup>1</sup>Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the reign of King Herod. About that time some wise men* from eastern lands arrived in Jerusalem, asking, <sup>2</sup>“Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star as it rose,* and we have come to worship him.”

<sup>3</sup>King Herod was deeply disturbed when he heard this, as was everyone in Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>He called a meeting of the leading priests and teachers of religious law and asked, “Where is the Messiah supposed to be born?”

<sup>5</sup>“In Bethlehem in Judea,” they said, “for this is what the prophet wrote:

“And you, O Bethlehem in the land of Judah, are not least among the ruling cities* of Judah,
for a ruler will come from you who will be the shepherd for my people Israel. ’*”

<sup>7</sup>Then Herod called for a private meeting with the wise men, and he learned from them the time when the star first appeared.

<sup>8</sup>Then he told them, “Go to Bethlehem and search carefully for the child. And when you find him, come back and tell me so that I can go and worship him, too!”

star they had seen in the east guided them to Bethlehem. It went ahead of them and stopped over the place where the child was.<sup>10</sup> When they saw the star, they were filled with joy!<sup>11</sup> They entered the house and saw the child with his mother, Mary, and they bowed down and worshiped him. Then they opened their treasure chests and gave him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

<sup>12</sup>When it was time to leave, they returned to their own country by another route, for God had warned them in a dream not to return to Herod.

The Escape to Egypt

<sup>13</sup>After the wise men were gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. “Get up! Flee to Egypt with the child and his mother,” the angel said. “Stay there until I tell you to return, because Herod is going to search for the child to kill him.”

<sup>14</sup>That night Joseph left for Egypt with the child and Mary, his mother,<sup>15</sup> and they stayed there until Herod’s death. This fulfilled what the Lord had spoken through the prophet: “I called my Son out of Egypt.”*

<sup>16</sup>Herod was furious when he realized that the wise men had outwitted him. He sent soldiers to kill all the boys in and around Bethlehem who were two years old and under, based on the wise men’s report of the star’s first appearance.<sup>17</sup> Herod’s brutal action fulfilled what God had spoken through the prophet Jeremiah:

<sup>18</sup>“A cry was heard in Ramah—weeping and great mourning.

Rachel weeps for her children,
refusing to be comforted,
for they are dead.”*
  

The Return to Nazareth

<sup>19</sup>When Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt. <sup>20</sup>“Get up!” the angel said. “Take the child and his mother back to the land of Israel, because those who were trying to kill the child are dead.”

<sup>21</sup>So Joseph got up and returned to the land of Israel with Jesus and his mother. <sup>22</sup>But when he learned that the new ruler of Judea was Herod’s son Archelaus, he was afraid to go there. Then, after being warned in a dream, he left for the region of Galilee. <sup>23</sup>So the family went and lived in a town called Nazareth. This fulfilled what the prophets had said: “He will be called a Nazarene.”

Matthew 3

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

<sup>1</sup> In those days John the Baptist came to the Judean wilderness and began preaching. His message was, <sup>2</sup>“Repent of your sins and turn to God, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near.” <sup>3</sup>The prophet Isaiah was speaking about John when he said,

“He is a voice shouting in the wilderness,
‘Prepare the way for the LORD’s coming!
Clear the road for him!’”*

<sup>4</sup> John’s clothes were woven from coarse camel hair, and he wore a leather belt around his waist. For food he ate locusts and wild honey. <sup>5</sup> People from Jerusalem and from all of Judea and all over the Jordan Valley went out to see and hear John. <sup>6</sup>And when they confessed their sins, he baptized them in the Jordan River.

<sup>7</sup> But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming to watch him baptize,* he denounced them. “You brood of snakes!” he exclaimed. “Who warned you to flee God’s coming wrath? <sup>8</sup>Prove by the way you live that you have repented of your sins and turned to God. <sup>9</sup>Don’t just say to each other, ‘We’re safe, for we are descendants of Abraham.’ That means nothing, for I tell you, God can create children of Abraham from these very stones. <sup>10</sup>Even now the ax of God’s judgment is poised, ready to sever the roots of the trees. Yes, every tree that does not produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown into the fire.

<sup>11</sup>“I baptize with* water those who repent of their sins and turn to God. But someone is coming soon who is greater than I am—so much greater that I’m not worthy even to be his slave and carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.* <sup>12</sup>He is ready to separate the chaff from the wheat with his winnowing fork. Then he will clean up the threshing area, gathering the wheat into his barn but burning the chaff with never-ending fire.”

The Baptism of Jesus

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus went from Galilee to the Jordan River to be baptized by John. <sup>14</sup>But John tried to talk him out of it. “I am the one who needs to be baptized by you,” he said, “so why are you coming to me?”

<sup>15</sup>But Jesus said, “It should be done, for we must carry out all that God requires.*” So John agreed to baptize him.

<sup>16</sup> After his baptism, as Jesus came up out of the water, the heavens were opened* and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and settling on him. <sup>17</sup>And a voice from heaven said, “This is my dearly loved Son, who brings me great joy.”

Matthew 4

The Temptation of Jesus

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted there by the devil. <sup>2</sup>For forty days and forty nights he fasted and became very hungry.

<sup>3</sup> During that time the devil* came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become loaves of bread.”

<sup>4</sup>But Jesus told him, “No! The Scriptures say,

‘People do not live by bread alone,
but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.’*”

<sup>5</sup>Then the devil took him to the holy city, Jerusalem, to the highest point of the Temple, <sup>6</sup>and said, “If you are the Son of God, jump off! For the Scriptures say,

‘He will order his angels to protect you.
And they will hold you up with their hands
so you won’t even hurt your foot on a stone.’*”

<sup>7</sup>Jesus responded, “The Scriptures also say, ‘You must not test the LORD your God.’*”

<sup>8</sup>Next the devil took him to the peak of a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory.

<sup>9</sup>“I will give it all to you,” he said, “if you will kneel down and worship me.”

<sup>10</sup>“Get out of here, Satan,” Jesus told him. “For the Scriptures say,

‘You must worship the LORD your God and serve only him.’*”

<sup>11</sup>Then the devil went away, and angels came and took care of Jesus.

The Ministry of Jesus Begins

<sup>12</sup> When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he left Judea and returned to Galilee. <sup>13</sup>He went first to Nazareth, then left there and moved to Capernaum, beside the Sea of Galilee, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali. <sup>14</sup>This fulfilled what God said through the prophet Isaiah:

<sup>15</sup>“In the land of Zebulun and of Naphtali, beside the sea, beyond the Jordan River,
in Galilee where so many Gentiles live,

<sup>16</sup>the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light.

And for those who lived in the land where death casts its shadow,

a light has shined.”*

<sup>17</sup>From then on Jesus began to preach, “Repent of your sins and turn to God, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near.”*

The First Disciples

<sup>18</sup>One day as Jesus was walking along the shore of the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers—Simon, also called Peter, and Andrew—throwing a net into the water, for they fished for a living. <sup>19</sup>Jesus called out to them, “Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!” <sup>20</sup>And they left their nets at once and followed him.

<sup>21</sup>A little farther up the shore he saw two other brothers, James and John, sitting in a boat with their father, Zebedee, repairing their nets. And he called them to come, too. <sup>22</sup>They immediately followed him, leaving the boat and their father behind.

Crowds Follow Jesus

<sup>23</sup>Jesus traveled throughout the region of Galilee, teaching in the synagogues and announcing the Good News about the Kingdom. And he healed every kind of disease and illness.

<sup>24</sup>News about him spread as far as Syria, and people soon began bringing to him all who were sick. And whatever their sickness or disease, or if they were demon possessed or epileptic or paralyzed—he healed them all. <sup>25</sup>Large crowds followed him wherever he went—people from Galilee, the Ten Towns, \* Jerusalem, from all over Judea, and from east of the Jordan River.

Matthew 5

The Sermon on the Mount

The Beatitudes

<sup>3</sup> “God blesses those who are poor and realize their need for him, *

for the Kingdom of Heaven is theirs.

<sup>4</sup> God blesses those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

<sup>5</sup> God blesses those who are humble, for they will inherit the whole earth.

<sup>6</sup> God blesses those who hunger and thirst for justice, * for they will be satisfied.

<sup>7</sup> God blesses those who are merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

<sup>8</sup> God blesses those whose hearts are pure,
for they will see God.

<sup>9</sup> God blesses those who work for peace,
for they will be called the children of God.

<sup>10</sup> God blesses those who are persecuted for doing right,
for the Kingdom of Heaven is theirs.

<sup>11</sup>“God blesses you when people mock you and persecute you and lie about you* and say all sorts of evil things against you because you are my followers. <sup>12</sup>Be happy about it! Be very glad! For a great reward awaits you in heaven. And remember, the ancient prophets were persecuted in the same way.

Teaching about Salt and Light

<sup>13</sup>“You are the salt of the earth. But what good is salt if it has lost its flavor? Can you make it salty again? It will be thrown out and trampled underfoot as worthless.

<sup>14</sup>“You are the light of the world—like a city on a hilltop that cannot be hidden. <sup>15</sup>No one lights a lamp and then puts it under a basket. Instead, a lamp is placed on a stand, where it gives light to everyone in the house. <sup>16</sup>In the same way, let your good deeds shine out for all to see, so that everyone will praise your heavenly Father.

Teaching about the Law

<sup>17</sup>“Don’t misunderstand why I have come. I did not come to abolish the law of Moses or the writings of the prophets. No, I came to accomplish their purpose. <sup>18</sup>I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not even the smallest detail of God’s law will disappear until its purpose is achieved. <sup>19</sup>So if you ignore the least commandment and teach others to do the same, you will be called the least in the Kingdom of Heaven. But anyone who obeys God’s laws and teaches them will be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven.

<sup>20</sup>“But I warn you—unless your righteousness is better than the righteousness of the teachers of religious law and the Pharisees, you will never enter the Kingdom of Heaven!

Teaching about Anger

<sup>21</sup>“You have heard that our ancestors were told, ‘You must not murder. If you commit murder, you are subject to judgment.’ *

<sup>22</sup>But I say, if you are even angry with someone, * you are subject to judgment! If you call someone an idiot, * you are in danger of being brought before the court. And if you curse someone, * you are in danger of the fires of hell. *

<sup>23</sup>“So if you are presenting a sacrifice * at the altar in the Temple and you suddenly remember that someone has something against you, <sup>24</sup>leave your sacrifice there at the altar. Go and be reconciled to that person. Then come and offer your sacrifice to God.

<sup>25</sup>“When you are on the way to court with your adversary, settle your differences quickly. Otherwise, your accuser may hand you over to the judge, who will hand you over to an officer, and you will be thrown into prison. <sup>26</sup>And if that happens, you surely won’t be free again until you have paid the last penny. *

Teaching about Adultery

<sup>27</sup>“You have heard the commandment that says, ‘You must not commit adultery.’ * <sup>28</sup>But I say, anyone who even looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. <sup>29</sup>So if your eye—even your good eye *—causes you to lust, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. <sup>30</sup>And if your hand—even your stronger hand*—causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.

Adultery of the Heart

Teaching about Divorce

<sup>31</sup>“You have heard the law that says, ‘A man can divorce his wife by merely giving her a written notice of divorce.’* <sup>32</sup>But I say that a man who divorces his wife, unless she has been unfaithful, causes her to commit adultery. And anyone who marries a divorced woman also commits adultery.

Teaching about Vows

<sup>33</sup>“You have also heard that our ancestors were told, ‘You must not break your vows; you must carry out the vows you make to the LORD.’* <sup>34</sup>But I say, do not make any vows! Do not say, ‘By heaven!’ because heaven is God’s throne. <sup>35</sup>And do not say, ‘By the earth!’ because the earth is his footstool. And do not say, ‘By Jerusalem!’ for Jerusalem is the city of the great King. <sup>36</sup>Do not even say, ‘By my head!’ for you can’t turn one hair white or black. <sup>37</sup>Just say a simple, ‘Yes, I will,’ or ‘No, I won’t.’ Anything beyond this is from the evil one.

Teaching about Revenge

<sup>38</sup>“You have heard the law that says the punishment must match the injury: ‘An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.’*

<sup>39</sup>But I say, do not resist an evil person! If someone slaps you on the right cheek, offer the other cheek also. <sup>40</sup>If you are sued in court and your shirt is taken from you, give your coat, too.

<sup>41</sup>If a soldier demands that you carry his gear for a mile,* carry it two miles. <sup>42</sup>Give to those who ask, and don’t turn away from those who want to borrow.

Teaching about Love for Enemies

43 “You have heard the law that says, ‘Love your neighbor’* and hate your enemy. <sup>44</sup>But I say, love your enemies!* Pray for those who persecute you! <sup>45</sup>In that way, you will be acting as true children of your Father in heaven. For he gives his sunlight to both the evil and the good, and he sends rain on the just and the unjust alike. <sup>46</sup>If you love only those who love you, what reward is there for that? Even corrupt tax collectors do that much. <sup>47</sup>If you are kind only to your friends,* how are you different from anyone else? Even pagans do that. <sup>48</sup>But you are to be perfect, even as your Father in heaven is perfect.

Teaching about Giving to the Needy

<sup>1</sup> “Watch out! Don’t do your good deeds publicly, to be admired by others, for you will lose the reward from your Father in heaven. <sup>2</sup>When you give to someone in need, don’t do as the hypocrites do—blowing trumpets in the synagogues and streets to call attention to their acts of charity! I tell you the truth, they have received all the reward they will ever get. <sup>3</sup>But when you give to someone in need, don’t let your left hand know what your right hand is doing. <sup>4</sup>Give your gifts in private, and your Father, who sees everything, will reward you.

Teaching about Prayer and Fasting

<sup>5</sup> “When you pray, don’t be like the hypocrites who love to pray publicly on street corners and in the synagogues where everyone can see them. I tell you the truth, that is all the reward they will ever get. <sup>6</sup>But when you pray, go away by yourself, shut the door behind you, and pray to your Father in private. Then your Father, who sees everything, will reward you.

<sup>7</sup>“When you pray, don’t babble on and on as people of other religions do. They think their prayers are answered merely by repeating their words again and again. <sup>8</sup>Don’t be like them, for your Father knows exactly what you need even before you ask him! <sup>9</sup>Pray like this:

Our Father in heaven,
may your name be kept holy.

<sup>10</sup>May your Kingdom come soon.

May your will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.

<sup>11</sup>Give us today the food we need, .*

<sup>12</sup> and forgive us our sins,

as we have forgiven those who sin against us.

<sup>13</sup>And don't let us yield to temptation, .*

but rescue us from the evil one. .*

<sup>14</sup>"If you forgive those who sin against you, your heavenly Father will forgive you. <sup>15</sup>But if you refuse to forgive others, your Father will not forgive your sins.

<sup>16</sup>"And when you fast, don't make it obvious, as the hypocrites do, for they try to look miserable and disheveled so people will admire them for their fasting. I tell you the truth, that is the only reward they will ever get. <sup>17</sup>But when you fast, comb your hair and wash your face. <sup>18</sup>Then no one will notice that you are fasting, except your Father, who knows what you do in private. And your Father, who sees everything, will reward you.

Teaching about Money and Possessions

<sup>19</sup> "Don't store up treasures here on earth, where moths eat them and rust destroys them, and where thieves break in and steal. <sup>20</sup>Store your treasures in heaven, where moths and rust cannot destroy, and thieves do not break in and steal.

<sup>21</sup>Wherever your treasure is, there the desires of your heart will also be.

<sup>22</sup>“Your eye is a lamp that provides light for your body. When your eye is good, your whole body is filled with light.

<sup>23</sup>But when your eye is bad, your whole body is filled with darkness. And if the light you think you have is actually darkness, how deep that darkness is!

<sup>24</sup>“No one can serve two masters. For you will hate one and love the other; you will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.

<sup>25</sup>“That is why I tell you not to worry about everyday life—whether you have enough food and drink, or enough clothes to wear. Isn’t life more than food, and your body more than clothing? <sup>26</sup>Look at the birds. They don’t plant or harvest or store food in barns, for your heavenly Father feeds them. And aren’t you far more valuable to him than they are? <sup>27</sup>Can all your worries add a single moment to your life?

<sup>28</sup>“And why worry about your clothing? Look at the lilies of the field and how they grow. They don’t work or make their clothing, <sup>29</sup>yet Solomon in all his glory was not dressed as beautifully as they are. <sup>30</sup>And if God cares so wonderfully for wildflowers that are here today and thrown into the fire tomorrow, he will certainly care for you. Why do you have so little faith?

<sup>31</sup>“So don’t worry about these things, saying, ‘What will we eat? What will we drink? What will we wear?’ <sup>32</sup>These things dominate the thoughts of unbelievers, but your heavenly Father already knows all your needs. <sup>33</sup>Seek the Kingdom of God* above all else, and live righteously, and he will give you everything you need.

<sup>34</sup>“So don’t worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring its own worries. Today’s trouble is enough for today.

Matthew 7

Do Not Judge Others

<sup>1</sup> “Do not judge others, and you will not be judged. <sup>2</sup>For you will be treated as you treat others.* The standard you use in judging is the standard by which you will be judged.*

<sup>3</sup> “And why worry about a speck in your friend’s eye* when you have a log in your own? <sup>4</sup>How can you think of saying to your friend,* ‘Let me help you get rid of that speck in your eye,’ when you can’t see past the log in your own eye? <sup>5</sup>Hypocrite! First get rid of the log in your own eye; then you will see well enough to deal with the speck in your friend’s eye.

<sup>6</sup> “Don’t waste what is holy on people who are unholy.* Don’t throw your pearls to pigs! They will trample the pearls, then turn and attack you.

Effective Prayer

<sup>7</sup> “Keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. <sup>8</sup>For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

<sup>9</sup> “You parents—if your children ask for a loaf of bread, do you give them a stone instead? <sup>10</sup>Or if they ask for a fish, do you give them a snake? Of course not! <sup>11</sup>So if you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give good gifts to those who ask him.

The Golden Rule

<sup>12</sup>“Do to others whatever you would like them to do to you. This is the essence of all that is taught in the law and the prophets.

The Narrow Gate

<sup>13</sup>“You can enter God’s Kingdom only through the narrow gate. The highway to hell* is broad, and its gate is wide for the many who choose that way. <sup>14</sup>But the gateway to life is very narrow and the road is difficult, and only a few ever find it.

The Tree and Its Fruit

<sup>15</sup> “Beware of false prophets who come disguised as harmless sheep but are really vicious wolves. <sup>16</sup>You can identify them by their fruit, that is, by the way they act. Can you pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? <sup>17</sup>A good tree produces good fruit, and a bad tree produces bad fruit. <sup>18</sup>A good tree can’t produce bad fruit, and a bad tree can’t produce good fruit. <sup>19</sup>So every tree that does not produce good fruit is chopped down and thrown into the fire. <sup>20</sup>Yes, just as you can identify a tree by its fruit, so you can identify people by their actions.

True Disciples

<sup>21</sup>“Not everyone who calls out to me, ‘Lord! Lord!’ will enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Only those who actually do the will of my Father in heaven will enter. <sup>22</sup>On judgment day many will say to me, ‘Lord! Lord! We prophesied in your name and cast out demons in your name and performed many miracles in your name.’ <sup>23</sup>But I will reply, ‘I never knew you. Get away from me, you who break God’s laws.’

Building on a Solid Foundation

<sup>24</sup> “Anyone who listens to my teaching and follows it is wise, like a person who builds a house on solid rock. <sup>25</sup>Though the rain comes in torrents and the floodwaters rise and the winds beat against that house, it won’t collapse because it is built on bedrock. <sup>26</sup>But anyone who hears my teaching and doesn’t obey it is foolish, like a person who builds a house on sand. <sup>27</sup>When the rains and floods come and the winds beat against that house, it will collapse with a mighty crash.”

<sup>28</sup>When Jesus had finished saying these things, the crowds were amazed at his teaching, <sup>29</sup>for he taught with real authority—quite unlike their teachers of religious law.

Matthew 8

Jesus Heals a Man with Leprosy

<sup>1</sup>Large crowds followed Jesus as he came down the mountainside. <sup>2</sup>Suddenly, a man with leprosy approached him and knelt before him. “Lord,” the man said, “if you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean.”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus reached out and touched him. “I am willing,” he said. “Be healed!” And instantly the leprosy disappeared. <sup>4</sup>Then Jesus said to him, “Don’t tell anyone about this. Instead, go to the priest and let him examine you. Take along the offering required in the law of Moses for those who have been healed of leprosy.* This will be a public testimony that you have been cleansed.”

The Faith of a Roman Officer

<sup>5</sup>When Jesus returned to Capernaum, a Roman officer* came and pleaded with him, <sup>6</sup>“Lord, my young servant* lies in bed, paralyzed and in terrible pain.”

<sup>7</sup>Jesus said, “I will come and heal him.”

<sup>8</sup>But the officer said, “Lord, I am not worthy to have you come into my home. Just say the word from where you are, and my servant will be healed. <sup>9</sup>I know this because I am under the authority of my superior officers, and I have authority over my soldiers. I only need to say, ‘Go,’ and they go, or ‘Come,’ and they come. And if I say to my slaves, ‘Do this,’ they do it.”

<sup>10</sup>When Jesus heard this, he was amazed. Turning to those who were following him, he said, “I tell you the truth, I haven’t seen faith like this in all Israel! <sup>11</sup>And I tell you this, that many Gentiles will come from all over the world—from east and west—and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob at the feast in the Kingdom of Heaven. <sup>12</sup>But many Israelites—those for whom the Kingdom was prepared—will be thrown into outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus said to the Roman officer, “Go back home. Because you believed, it has happened.” And the young servant was healed that same hour.

Jesus Heals Many People

<sup>14</sup>When Jesus arrived at Peter’s house, Peter’s mother-in-law was sick in bed with a high fever. <sup>15</sup>But when Jesus touched her hand, the fever left her. Then she got up and prepared a meal for him.

On an Ordinary Day

<sup>16</sup>That evening many demon-possessed people were brought to Jesus. He cast out the evil spirits with a simple command, and he healed all the sick. <sup>17</sup>This fulfilled the word of the Lord through the prophet Isaiah, who said,

“He took our sicknesses and removed our diseases.”*

The Cost of Following Jesus

<sup>18</sup>When Jesus saw the crowd around him, he instructed his disciples to cross to the other side of the lake.

<sup>19</sup>Then one of the teachers of religious law said to him, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.”

<sup>20</sup>But Jesus replied, “Foxes have dens to live in, and birds have nests, but the Son of Man* has no place even to lay his head.”

<sup>21</sup>Another of his disciples said, “Lord, first let me return home and bury my father.”

<sup>22</sup>But Jesus told him, “Follow me now. Let the spiritually dead bury their own dead.*”

Jesus Calms the Storm

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus got into the boat and started across the lake with his disciples. <sup>24</sup>Suddenly, a fierce storm struck the lake, with waves breaking into the boat. But Jesus was sleeping. <sup>25</sup>The disciples went and woke him up, shouting, “Lord, save us! We’re going to drown!”

<sup>26</sup>Jesus responded, “Why are you afraid? You have so little faith!” Then he got up and rebuked the wind and waves, and suddenly there was a great calm.

<sup>27</sup>The disciples were amazed. “Who is this man?” they asked. “Even the winds and waves obey him!”

Jesus Heals Two Demon-Possessed Men

<sup>28</sup>When Jesus arrived on the other side of the lake, in the region of the Gadarenes,* two men who were possessed by demons met him. They lived in a cemetery and were so violent that no one could go through that area.

<sup>29</sup>They began screaming at him, “Why are you interfering with us, Son of God? Have you come here to torture us before God’s appointed time?”

<sup>30</sup>There happened to be a large herd of pigs feeding in the distance. <sup>31</sup>So the demons begged, “If you cast us out, send us into that herd of pigs.”

<sup>32</sup>“All right, go!” Jesus commanded them. So the demons came out of the men and entered the pigs, and the whole herd plunged down the steep hillside into the lake and drowned in the water.

<sup>33</sup>The herdsmen fled to the nearby town, telling everyone what happened to the demon-possessed men. <sup>34</sup>Then the entire town came out to meet Jesus, but they begged him to go away and leave them alone.

Matthew 9

Jesus Heals a Paralyzed Man

<sup>3</sup> But some of the teachers of religious law said to themselves, “That’s blasphemy! Does he think he’s God?”

<sup>4</sup> Jesus knew* what they were thinking, so he asked them, “Why do you have such evil thoughts in your hearts? <sup>5</sup> Is it easier to say ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or ‘Stand up and walk’? <sup>6</sup> So I will prove to you that the Son of Man* has the authority on earth to forgive sins.” Then Jesus turned to the paralyzed man and said, “Stand up, pick up your mat, and go home!”

<sup>7</sup> And the man jumped up and went home! <sup>8</sup> Fear swept through the crowd as they saw this happen. And they praised God for sending a man with such great authority.*

Jesus Calls Matthew

<sup>9</sup> As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at his tax collector’s booth. “Follow me and be my disciple,” Jesus said to him. So Matthew got up and followed him.

<sup>10</sup> Later, Matthew invited Jesus and his disciples to his home as dinner guests, along with many tax collectors and other disreputable sinners. <sup>11</sup>But when the Pharisees saw this, they asked his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with such scum? *”

<sup>12</sup>When Jesus heard this, he said, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor—sick people do.” <sup>13</sup>Then he added, “Now go and learn the meaning of this Scripture: ‘I want you to show mercy, not offer sacrifices.’ * For I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners.”

A Discussion about Fasting

<sup>14</sup>One day the disciples of John the Baptist came to Jesus and asked him, “Why don’t your disciples fast * like we do and the Pharisees do?”

<sup>15</sup>Jesus replied, “Do wedding guests mourn while celebrating with the groom? Of course not. But someday the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.

<sup>17</sup>“And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. For the old skins would burst from the pressure, spilling the wine and ruining the skins. New wine is stored in new wineskins so that both are preserved.”

Jesus Heals in Response to Faith

<sup>18</sup>As Jesus was saying this, the leader of a synagogue came and knelt before him. “My daughter has just died,” he said,

“but you can bring her back to life again if you just come and lay your hand on her.”

<sup>19</sup>So Jesus and his disciples got up and went with him. <sup>20</sup>Just then a woman who had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding came up behind him. She touched the fringe of his robe, <sup>21</sup>for she thought, “If I can just touch his robe, I will be healed.”

<sup>22</sup>Jesus turned around, and when he saw her he said, “Daughter, be encouraged! Your faith has made you well.” And the woman was healed at that moment.

<sup>23</sup>When Jesus arrived at the official’s home, he saw the noisy crowd and heard the funeral music. <sup>24</sup>“Get out!” he told them. “The girl isn’t dead; she’s only asleep.” But the crowd laughed at him. <sup>25</sup>After the crowd was put outside, however, Jesus went in and took the girl by the hand, and she stood up! <sup>26</sup>The report of this miracle swept through the entire countryside.

Jesus Heals the Blind

<sup>27</sup>After Jesus left the girl’s home, two blind men followed along behind him, shouting, “Son of David, have mercy on us!”

<sup>28</sup>They went right into the house where he was staying, and Jesus asked them, “Do you believe I can make you see?”

“Yes, Lord,” they told him, “we do.”

<sup>29</sup>Then he touched their eyes and said, “Because of your faith, it will happen.” <sup>30</sup>Then their eyes were opened, and they could see! Jesus sternly warned them, “Don’t tell anyone about this.” <sup>31</sup>But instead, they went out and spread his fame all over the region.

<sup>32</sup>When they left, a demon-possessed man who couldn't speak was brought to Jesus. <sup>33</sup>So Jesus cast out the demon, and then the man began to speak. The crowds were amazed. "Nothing like this has ever happened in Israel!" they exclaimed.

<sup>34</sup>But the Pharisees said, "He can cast out demons because he is empowered by the prince of demons."

The Need for Workers

<sup>35</sup>Jesus traveled through all the towns and villages of that area, teaching in the synagogues and announcing the Good News about the Kingdom. And he healed every kind of disease and illness. <sup>36</sup> When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them because they were confused and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. <sup>37</sup>He said to his disciples, "The harvest is great, but the workers are few. <sup>38</sup>So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask him to send more workers into his fields."

Matthew 10

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve Apostles

<sup>1</sup>Jesus called his twelve disciples together and gave them authority to cast out evil* spirits and to heal every kind of disease and illness. <sup>2</sup>Here are the names of the twelve apostles:

first, Simon (also called Peter),
then Andrew (Peter's brother),

James (son of Zebedee),

John (James's brother),

<sup>3</sup>Philip,

Bartholomew,

Thomas,

Matthew (the tax collector),

James (son of Alphaeus),

Thaddaeus,*

<sup>4</sup>Simon (the zealot*),

Judas Iscariot (who later betrayed him).

<sup>5</sup>Jesus sent out the twelve apostles with these instructions: "Don't go to the Gentiles or the Samaritans, <sup>6</sup>but only to the people of Israel—God's lost sheep. <sup>7</sup>Go and announce to them that the Kingdom of Heaven is near.* <sup>8</sup>Heal the sick, raise the dead, cure those with leprosy, and cast out demons. Give as freely as you have received!

<sup>9</sup>“Don’t take any money in your money belts—no gold, silver, or even copper coins. <sup>10</sup>Don’t carry a traveler’s bag with a change of clothes and sandals or even a walking stick. Don’t hesitate to accept hospitality, because those who work deserve to be fed.

<sup>11</sup>“Whenever you enter a city or village, search for a worthy person and stay in his home until you leave town. <sup>12</sup>When you enter the home, give it your blessing. <sup>13</sup>If it turns out to be a worthy home, let your blessing stand; if it is not, take back the blessing. <sup>14</sup>If any household or town refuses to welcome you or listen to your message, shake its dust from your feet as you leave. <sup>15</sup>I tell you the truth, the wicked cities of Sodom and Gomorrah will be better off than such a town on the judgment day.

<sup>16</sup>“Look, I am sending you out as sheep among wolves. So be as shrewd as snakes and harmless as doves. <sup>17</sup>But beware! For you will be handed over to the courts and will be flogged with whips in the synagogues. <sup>18</sup>You will stand trial before governors and kings because you are my followers. But this will be your opportunity to tell the rulers and other unbelievers about me.* <sup>19</sup>When you are arrested, don’t worry about how to respond or what to say. God will give you the right words at the right time. <sup>20</sup>For it is not you who will be speaking—it will be the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

<sup>21</sup>“A brother will betray his brother to death, a father will betray his own child, and children will rebel against their parents and cause them to be killed. <sup>22</sup>And all nations will hate you because you are my followers.* But everyone who

endures to the end will be saved. <sup>23</sup>When you are persecuted in one town, flee to the next. I tell you the truth, the Son of Man* will return before you have reached all the towns of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>“Students* are not greater than their teacher, and slaves are not greater than their master. <sup>25</sup>Students are to be like their teacher, and slaves are to be like their master. And since I, the master of the household, have been called the prince of demons,* the members of my household will be called by even worse names!

<sup>26</sup>“But don’t be afraid of those who threaten you. For the time is coming when everything that is covered will be revealed, and all that is secret will be made known to all. <sup>27</sup>What I tell you now in the darkness, shout abroad when daybreak comes. What I whisper in your ear, shout from the housetops for all to hear!

<sup>28</sup>“Don’t be afraid of those who want to kill your body; they cannot touch your soul. Fear only God, who can destroy both soul and body in hell.* <sup>29</sup>What is the price of two sparrows—one copper coin*? But not a single sparrow can fall to the ground without your Father knowing it. <sup>30</sup>And the very hairs on your head are all numbered. <sup>31</sup>So don’t be afraid; you are more valuable to God than a whole flock of sparrows.

<sup>32</sup>“Everyone who acknowledges me publicly here on earth, I will also acknowledge before my Father in heaven. <sup>33</sup>But everyone who denies me here on earth, I will also deny before my Father in heaven.

<sup>34</sup>“Don’t imagine that I came to bring peace to the earth! I came not to bring peace, but a sword.

<sup>35</sup>“I have come to set a man against his father, a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

<sup>36</sup>Your enemies will be right in your own household!”*  

<sup>37</sup>“If you love your father or mother more than you love me, you are not worthy of being mine; or if you love your son or daughter more than me, you are not worthy of being mine. <sup>38</sup>If you refuse to take up your cross and follow me, you are not worthy of being mine. <sup>39</sup>If you cling to your life, you will lose it; but if you give up your life for me, you will find it.

<sup>40</sup>“Anyone who receives you receives me, and anyone who receives me receives the Father who sent me. <sup>41</sup>If you receive a prophet as one who speaks for God,*   you will be given the same reward as a prophet. And if you receive righteous people because of their righteousness, you will be given a reward like theirs. <sup>42</sup>And if you give even a cup of cold water to one of the least of my followers, you will surely be rewarded.”

Jesus and John the Baptist

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus had finished giving these instructions to his twelve disciples, he went out to teach and preach in towns throughout the region.

<sup>2</sup> John the Baptist, who was in prison, heard about all the things the Messiah was doing. So he sent his disciples to ask Jesus, <sup>3</sup>“Are you the Messiah we’ve been expecting,* or should we keep looking for someone else?”

<sup>4</sup>Jesus told them, “Go back to John and tell him what you have heard and seen—<sup>5</sup>the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised to life, and the Good News is being preached to the poor. <sup>6</sup>And tell him, ‘God blesses those who do not turn away because of me.’*”

<sup>7</sup>As John’s disciples were leaving, Jesus began talking about him to the crowds. “What kind of man did you go into the wilderness to see? Was he a weak reed, swayed by every breath of wind? <sup>8</sup>Or were you expecting to see a man dressed in expensive clothes? No, people with expensive clothes live in palaces. <sup>9</sup>Were you looking for a prophet? Yes, and he is more than a prophet. <sup>10</sup>John is the man to whom the Scriptures refer when they say,

‘Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you,
and he will prepare your way before you.’*

<sup>11</sup>“I tell you the truth, of all who have ever lived, none is greater than John the Baptist. Yet even the least person in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he is! <sup>12</sup>And from the time John the Baptist began preaching until now, the Kingdom of Heaven has been forcefully advancing,* and violent people are attacking it. <sup>13</sup>For before John came, all the prophets and the law of Moses looked forward to this present time. <sup>14</sup>And if you are willing to accept what I say, he is Elijah, the one the prophets said would come.* <sup>15</sup>Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand!

<sup>16</sup>“To what can I compare this generation? It is like children playing a game in the public square. They complain to their friends,

<sup>17</sup>‘We played wedding songs, and you didn’t dance,
so we played funeral songs,
and you didn’t mourn.’

Judgment for the Unbelievers

<sup>20</sup>Then Jesus began to denounce the towns where he had done so many of his miracles, because they hadn't repented of their sins and turned to God. <sup>21</sup>“What sorrow awaits you, Korazin and Bethsaida! For if the miracles I did in you had been done in wicked Tyre and Sidon, their people would have repented of their sins long ago, clothing themselves in burlap and throwing ashes on their heads to show their remorse. <sup>22</sup>I tell you, Tyre and Sidon will be better off on judgment day than you.

<sup>23</sup>“And you people of Capernaum, will you be honored in heaven? No, you will go down to the place of the dead.* For if the miracles I did for you had been done in wicked Sodom, it would still be here today. <sup>24</sup>I tell you, even Sodom will be better off on judgment day than you.”

Jesus' Prayer of Thanksgiving

<sup>25</sup> At that time Jesus prayed this prayer: “O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, thank you for hiding these things from those who think themselves wise and clever, and for revealing them to the childlike. <sup>26</sup>Yes, Father, it pleased you to do it this way!

<sup>27</sup>“My Father has entrusted everything to me. No one truly knows the Son except the Father, and no one truly knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.”

<sup>28</sup>Then Jesus said, “Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup>Take my yoke upon you. Let me teach you, because I am humble and gentle at heart, and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup>For my yoke is easy to bear, and the burden I give you is light.”

Matthew 12

A Discussion about the Sabbath

<sup>1</sup> At about that time Jesus was walking through some grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry, so they began breaking off some heads of grain and eating them. <sup>2</sup>But some Pharisees saw them do it and protested, “Look, your disciples are breaking the law by harvesting grain on the Sabbath.”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus said to them, “Haven’t you read in the Scriptures what David did when he and his companions were hungry? <sup>4</sup>He went into the house of God, and he and his companions broke the law by eating the sacred loaves of bread that only the priests are allowed to eat. <sup>5</sup>And haven’t you read in the law of Moses that the priests on duty in the Temple may work on the Sabbath? <sup>6</sup>I tell you, there is one here who is even greater than the Temple! <sup>7</sup>But you would not have condemned my innocent disciples if you knew the meaning of this Scripture: ‘I want you to show mercy, not offer sacrifices.’ <sup>8</sup>*For the Son of Man* is Lord, even over the Sabbath!”

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus went over to their synagogue, <sup>10</sup>where he noticed a man with a deformed hand. The Pharisees asked Jesus, “Does the law permit a person to work by healing on the Sabbath?” (They were hoping he would say yes, so they could bring charges against him.)

<sup>11</sup>And he answered, “If you had a sheep that fell into a well on the Sabbath, wouldn’t you work to pull it out? Of course you would. <sup>12</sup>And how much more valuable is a person than a sheep! Yes, the law permits a person to do good on the Sabbath.”

<sup>13</sup>Then he said to the man, “Hold out your hand.” So the man held out his hand, and it was restored, just like the other one!

<sup>14</sup>Then the Pharisees called a meeting to plot how to kill Jesus.

Jesus, God’s Chosen Servant

<sup>15</sup>But Jesus knew what they were planning. So he left that area, and many people followed him. He healed all the sick among them, <sup>16</sup>but he warned them not to reveal who he was. <sup>17</sup> This fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah concerning him:

<sup>18</sup>“Look at my Servant, whom I have chosen.

He is my Beloved, who pleases me.

I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will proclaim justice to the nations.

<sup>19</sup>He will not fight or shout

or raise his voice in public.

<sup>20</sup>He will not crush the weakest reed

or put out a flickering candle.

Finally he will cause justice to be victorious.

<sup>21</sup>And his name will be the hope of all the world.”*

Jesus and the Prince of Demons

<sup>22</sup> Then a demon-possessed man, who was blind and couldn't speak, was brought to Jesus. He healed the man so that he could both speak and see. <sup>23</sup> The crowd was amazed and asked, "Could it be that Jesus is the Son of David, the Messiah?"

<sup>24</sup> But when the Pharisees heard about the miracle, they said, "No wonder he can cast out demons. He gets his power from Satan, * the prince of demons."

<sup>25</sup> Jesus knew their thoughts and replied, "Any kingdom divided by civil war is doomed. A town or family splintered by feuding will fall apart. <sup>26</sup> And if Satan is casting out Satan, he is divided and fighting against himself. His own kingdom will not survive. <sup>27</sup> And if I am empowered by Satan, what about your own exorcists? They cast out demons, too, so they will condemn you for what you have said. <sup>28</sup> But if I am casting out demons by the Spirit of God, then the Kingdom of God has arrived among you. <sup>29</sup> For who is powerful enough to enter the house of a strong man like Satan and plunder his goods? Only someone even stronger—someone who could tie him up and then plunder his house.

<sup>30</sup> "Anyone who isn't with me opposes me, and anyone who isn't working with me is actually working against me.

<sup>31</sup> "So I tell you, every sin and blasphemy can be forgiven—except blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, which will never be forgiven. <sup>32</sup> Anyone who speaks against the Son of Man can be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven, either in this world or in the world to come.

<sup>33</sup> "A tree is identified by its fruit. If a tree is good, its fruit will be good. If a tree is bad, its fruit will be bad. <sup>34</sup>You brood of snakes! How could evil men like you speak what is good and right? For whatever is in your heart determines what you say. <sup>35</sup>A good person produces good things from the treasury of a good heart, and an evil person produces evil things from the treasury of an evil heart. <sup>36</sup>And I tell you this, you must give an account on judgment day for every idle word you speak. <sup>37</sup>The words you say will either acquit you or condemn you.”

The Sign of Jonah

<sup>38</sup>One day some teachers of religious law and Pharisees came to Jesus and said, “Teacher, we want you to show us a miraculous sign to prove your authority.”

<sup>39</sup>But Jesus replied, “Only an evil, adulterous generation would demand a miraculous sign; but the only sign I will give them is the sign of the prophet Jonah. <sup>40</sup>For as Jonah was in the belly of the great fish for three days and three nights, so will the Son of Man be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights.

<sup>41</sup>“The people of Nineveh will stand up against this generation on judgment day and condemn it, for they repented of their sins at the preaching of Jonah. Now someone greater than Jonah is here—but you refuse to repent. <sup>42</sup>The queen of Sheba* will also stand up against this generation on judgment day and condemn it, for she came from a distant land to hear the wisdom of Solomon. Now someone greater than Solomon is here—but you refuse to listen.

desert, seeking rest but finding none. <sup>44</sup>Then it says, 'I will return to the person I came from.' So it returns and finds its former home empty, swept, and in order. <sup>45</sup>Then the spirit finds seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they all enter the person and live there. And so that person is worse off than before. That will be the experience of this evil generation."

The True Family of Jesus

<sup>46</sup>As Jesus was speaking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, asking to speak to him. <sup>47</sup>Someone told Jesus, "Your mother and your brothers are outside, and they want to speak to you."*

<sup>48</sup>Jesus asked, "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?" <sup>49</sup>Then he pointed to his disciples and said, "Look, these are my mother and brothers. <sup>50</sup>Anyone who does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother!"

Matthew 13

Parable of the Farmer Scattering Seed

<sup>1</sup>Later that same day Jesus left the house and sat beside the lake. <sup>2</sup>A large crowd soon gathered around him, so he got into a boat. Then he sat there and taught as the people stood on the shore. <sup>3</sup>He told many stories in the form of parables, such as this one:

“Listen! A farmer went out to plant some seeds. <sup>4</sup>As he scattered them across his field, some seeds fell on a footpath, and the birds came and ate them. <sup>5</sup>Other seeds fell on shallow soil with underlying rock. The seeds sprouted quickly because the soil was shallow. <sup>6</sup>But the plants soon wilted under the hot sun, and since they didn’t have deep roots, they died. <sup>7</sup>Other seeds fell among thorns that grew up and choked out the tender plants. <sup>8</sup>Still other seeds fell on fertile soil, and they produced a crop that was thirty, sixty, and even a hundred times as much as had been planted! <sup>9</sup>Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand.”

<sup>10</sup> His disciples came and asked him, “Why do you use parables when you talk to the people?”

<sup>11</sup>He replied, “You are permitted to understand the secrets* of the Kingdom of Heaven, but others are not. <sup>12</sup>To those who listen to my teaching, more understanding will be given, and they will have an abundance of knowledge. But for those who are not listening, even what little understanding they have will be taken away from them. <sup>13</sup>That is why I use these parables,

For they look, but they don't really see.

They hear, but they don't really listen or understand.

<sup>14</sup>This fulfills the prophecy of Isaiah that says,

‘When you hear what I say,
you will not understand.

When you see what I do,
you will not comprehend.

<sup>15</sup>For the hearts of these people are hardened,
and their ears cannot hear,
and they have closed their eyes—
so their eyes cannot see,
and their ears cannot hear,
and their hearts cannot understand,
and they cannot turn to me
and let me heal them.’*

<sup>16</sup>“But blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear. <sup>17</sup>I tell you the truth, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, but they didn't see it. And they longed to hear what you hear, but they didn't hear it.

<sup>18</sup>“Now listen to the explanation of the parable about the farmer planting seeds: <sup>19</sup>The seed that fell on the footpath represents those who hear the message about the Kingdom and don't understand it. Then the evil one comes and snatches away the seed that was planted in their hearts. <sup>20</sup>The seed on the rocky soil represents those who hear the message and immediately receive it with joy. <sup>21</sup>But since they don't have deep roots, they don't last long. They fall away as soon as they have problems or are persecuted for believing God's word. <sup>22</sup>The seed that fell among the thorns represents those who hear God's word, but all too quickly the message is crowded out by the worries of this life and the lure of wealth, so no fruit is produced. <sup>23</sup>The seed that fell on good soil represents those who truly hear and understand God's word and produce a harvest of thirty, sixty, or even a hundred times as much as had been planted!"

Parable of the Wheat and Weeds

<sup>24</sup>Here is another story Jesus told: “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a farmer who planted good seed in his field. <sup>25</sup>But that night as the workers slept, his enemy came and planted weeds among the wheat, then slipped away. <sup>26</sup>When the crop began to grow and produce grain, the weeds also grew.

<sup>27</sup>“The farmer’s workers went to him and said, ‘Sir, the field where you planted that good seed is full of weeds! Where did they come from?’

<sup>28</sup>“‘An enemy has done this!’ the farmer exclaimed.

“‘Should we pull out the weeds?’ they asked.

<sup>29</sup>“‘No,’ he replied, ‘you’ll uproot the wheat if you do. <sup>30</sup>Let both grow together until the harvest. Then I will tell the harvesters to sort out the weeds, tie them into bundles, and burn them, and to put the wheat in the barn.’”

Parable of the Mustard Seed

<sup>31</sup>Here is another illustration Jesus used: “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed planted in a field. <sup>32</sup>It is the smallest of all seeds, but it becomes the largest of garden plants; it grows into a tree, and birds come and make nests in its branches.”

Parable of the Yeast

<sup>33</sup>Jesus also used this illustration: “The Kingdom of Heaven is like the yeast a woman used in making bread. Even though she put only a little yeast in three measures of flour, it permeated every part of the dough.”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus always used stories and illustrations like these when speaking to the crowds. In fact, he never spoke to them without using such parables. <sup>35</sup>This fulfilled what God had spoken through the prophet:

“I will speak to you in parables.

I will explain things hidden since the creation of the world.*”

Parable of the Wheat and Weeds Explained

<sup>36</sup>Then, leaving the crowds outside, Jesus went into the house. His disciples said, “Please explain to us the story of the weeds in the field.”

<sup>37</sup>Jesus replied, “The Son of Man* is the farmer who plants the good seed. <sup>38</sup>The field is the world, and the good seed represents the people of the Kingdom. The weeds are the people who belong to the evil one. <sup>39</sup>The enemy who planted the weeds among the wheat is the devil. The harvest is the end of the world,* and the harvesters are the angels.

<sup>40</sup>“Just as the weeds are sorted out and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the world. <sup>41</sup>The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will remove from his Kingdom everything that causes sin and all who do evil. <sup>42</sup>And the angels will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. <sup>43</sup>Then the righteous will shine like the sun in their Father’s Kingdom. Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand!

Parables of the Hidden Treasure and the Pearl

<sup>44</sup>“The Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure that a man discovered hidden in a field. In his excitement, he hid it again and sold everything he owned to get enough money to buy the field.

Parable of the Fishing Net

<sup>47</sup>“Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a fishing net that was thrown into the water and caught fish of every kind. <sup>48</sup>When the net was full, they dragged it up onto the shore, sat down, and sorted the good fish into crates, but threw the bad ones away. <sup>49</sup>That is the way it will be at the end of the world. The angels will come and separate the wicked people from the righteous, <sup>50</sup>throwing the wicked into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. <sup>51</sup>Do you understand all these things?”

“Yes,” they said, “we do.”

<sup>52</sup>Then he added, “Every teacher of religious law who becomes a disciple in the Kingdom of Heaven is like a homeowner who brings from his storeroom new gems of truth as well as old.”

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

Nazareth, his hometown. When he taught there in the synagogue, everyone was amazed and said, “Where does he get this wisdom and the power to do miracles?” <sup>55</sup>Then they scoffed, “He’s just the carpenter’s son, and we know Mary, his mother, and his brothers—James, Joseph, * Simon, and Judas. <sup>56</sup>All his sisters live right here among us. Where did he learn all these things?” <sup>57</sup>And they were deeply offended and refused to believe in him.

Then Jesus told them, “A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own hometown and among his own family.” <sup>58</sup>And so he did only a few miracles there because of their unbelief.

Matthew 14

The Death of John the Baptist

<sup>6</sup>But at a birthday party for Herod, Herodias’s daughter performed a dance that greatly pleased him, <sup>7</sup>so he promised with a vow to give her anything she wanted. <sup>8</sup>At her mother’s urging, the girl said, “I want the head of John the Baptist on a tray!” <sup>9</sup>Then the king regretted what he had said; but because of the vow he had made in front of his guests, he issued the necessary orders. <sup>10</sup>So John was beheaded in the prison, <sup>11</sup>and his head was brought on a tray and given to the girl, who took it to her mother. <sup>12</sup>Later, John’s disciples came for his body and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus what had happened.

Dance of Death

Jesus Feeds Five Thousand

<sup>13</sup>As soon as Jesus heard the news, he left in a boat to a remote area to be alone. But the crowds heard where he was headed and followed on foot from many towns. <sup>14</sup>Jesus saw the huge crowd as he stepped from the boat, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.

<sup>15</sup>That evening the disciples came to him and said, “This is a remote place, and it’s already getting late. Send the crowds away so they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves.”

<sup>17</sup>“But we have only five loaves of bread and two fish!” they answered.

<sup>18</sup>“Bring them here,” he said. <sup>19</sup>Then he told the people to sit down on the grass. Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them. Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he gave the bread to the disciples, who distributed it to the people. <sup>20</sup>They all ate as much as they wanted, and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftovers. <sup>21</sup>About 5,000 men were fed that day, in addition to all the women and children!

Jesus Walks on Water

<sup>22</sup>Immediately after this, Jesus insisted that his disciples get back into the boat and cross to the other side of the lake, while he sent the people home. <sup>23</sup>After sending them home, he went up into the hills by himself to pray. Night fell while he was there alone.

<sup>24</sup>Meanwhile, the disciples were in trouble far away from land, for a strong wind had risen, and they were fighting heavy waves. <sup>25</sup>About three o'clock in the morning* Jesus came toward them, walking on the water. <sup>26</sup>When the disciples saw him walking on the water, they were terrified. In their fear, they cried out, "It's a ghost!"

<sup>27</sup>But Jesus spoke to them at once. "Don't be afraid," he said. "Take courage. I am here!*"

<sup>28</sup>Then Peter called to him, "Lord, if it's really you, tell me to come to you, walking on the water."

<sup>29</sup>"Yes, come," Jesus said.

So Peter went over the side of the boat and walked on the water toward Jesus. <sup>30</sup>But when he saw the strong* wind and the waves, he was terrified and began to sink. "Save me, Lord!" he shouted.

<sup>31</sup>Jesus immediately reached out and grabbed him. "You have so little faith," Jesus said. "Why did you doubt me?"

<sup>32</sup>When they climbed back into the boat, the wind stopped.

<sup>33</sup>Then the disciples worshiped him. "You really are the Son of God!" they exclaimed.

<sup>35</sup>When the people recognized Jesus, the news of his arrival spread quickly throughout the whole area, and soon people were bringing all their sick to be healed. <sup>36</sup>They begged him to let the sick touch at least the fringe of his robe, and all who touched him were healed.

Matthew 15

Jesus Teaches about Inner Purity

<sup>3</sup>Jesus replied, “And why do you, by your traditions, violate the direct commandments of God? <sup>4</sup>For instance, God says, ‘Honor your father and mother,’ * and ‘Anyone who speaks disrespectfully of father or mother must be put to death.’ * <sup>5</sup>But you say it is all right for people to say to their parents, ‘Sorry, I can’t help you. For I have vowed to give to God what I would have given to you.’ <sup>6</sup>In this way, you say they don’t need to honor their parents. * And so you cancel the word of God for the sake of your own tradition. <sup>7</sup>You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you, for he wrote, <sup>8</sup>“These people honor me with their lips,

but their hearts are far from me.

<sup>9</sup>Their worship is a farce,
for they teach man-made ideas as commands from God. *”

<sup>10</sup>Then Jesus called to the crowd to come and hear. “Listen,” he said, “and try to understand. <sup>11</sup>It’s not what goes into your mouth that defiles you; you are defiled by the words that come out of your mouth.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the disciples came to him and asked, “Do you realize you offended the Pharisees by what you just said?”

<sup>13</sup>Jesus replied, “Every plant not planted by my heavenly Father will be uprooted, <sup>14</sup>so ignore them. They are blind guides leading the blind, and if one blind person guides another, they will both fall into a ditch.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Peter said to Jesus, “Explain to us the parable that says people aren’t defiled by what they eat.”

<sup>16</sup>“Don’t you understand yet?” Jesus asked. <sup>17</sup>“Anything you eat passes through the stomach and then goes into the sewer. <sup>18</sup>But the words you speak come from the heart—that’s what defiles you. <sup>19</sup>For from the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, all sexual immorality, theft, lying, and slander. <sup>20</sup>These are what defile you. Eating with unwashed hands will never defile you.”

The Faith of a Gentile Woman

<sup>21</sup>Then Jesus left Galilee and went north to the region of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>22</sup>A Gentile* woman who lived there came to him, pleading, “Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David! For my daughter is possessed by a demon that torments her severely.”

<sup>23</sup>But Jesus gave her no reply, not even a word. Then his disciples urged him to send her away. “Tell her to go away,” they said. “She is bothering us with all her begging.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Jesus said to the woman, “I was sent only to help God’s lost sheep—the people of Israel.”

<sup>25</sup>But she came and worshiped him, pleading again, “Lord, help me!”

<sup>27</sup>She replied, “That’s true, Lord, but even dogs are allowed to eat the scraps that fall beneath their masters’ table.”

<sup>28</sup>“Dear woman,” Jesus said to her, “your faith is great. Your request is granted.” And her daughter was instantly healed.

Jesus Heals Many People

<sup>29</sup>Jesus returned to the Sea of Galilee and climbed a hill and sat down. <sup>30</sup>A vast crowd brought to him people who were lame, blind, crippled, those who couldn’t speak, and many others. They laid them before Jesus, and he healed them all. <sup>31</sup>The crowd was amazed! Those who hadn’t been able to speak were talking, the crippled were made well, the lame were walking, and the blind could see again! And they praised the God of Israel.

Jesus Feeds Four Thousand

<sup>32</sup>Then Jesus called his disciples and told them, “I feel sorry for these people. They have been here with me for three days, and they have nothing left to eat. I don’t want to send them away hungry, or they will faint along the way.”

<sup>33</sup>The disciples replied, “Where would we get enough food here in the wilderness for such a huge crowd?”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus asked, “How much bread do you have?”

They replied, “Seven loaves, and a few small fish.”

<sup>35</sup>So Jesus told all the people to sit down on the ground.

<sup>36</sup>Then he took the seven loaves and the fish, thanked God for them, and broke them into pieces. He gave them to the disciples, who distributed the food to the crowd.

<sup>37</sup>They all ate as much as they wanted. Afterward, the disciples picked up seven large baskets of leftover food.

<sup>38</sup>There were 4,000 men who were fed that day, in addition to all the women and children. <sup>39</sup>Then Jesus sent the people home, and he got into a boat and crossed over to the region of Magadan.

Matthew 16

Leaders Demand a Miraculous Sign

<sup>1</sup> One day the Pharisees and Sadducees came to test Jesus, demanding that he show them a miraculous sign from heaven to prove his authority.

<sup>2</sup>He replied, “You know the saying, ‘Red sky at night means fair weather tomorrow; <sup>3</sup>red sky in the morning means foul weather all day.’ You know how to interpret the weather signs in the sky, but you don’t know how to interpret the signs of the times! <sup>4</sup>* Only an evil, adulterous generation would demand a miraculous sign, but the only sign I will give them is the sign of the prophet Jonah. <sup>5</sup>*” Then Jesus left them and went away.

Yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees

<sup>5</sup>Later, after they crossed to the other side of the lake, the disciples discovered they had forgotten to bring any bread. <sup>6</sup>“Watch out!” Jesus warned them. “Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

<sup>7</sup>At this they began to argue with each other because they hadn’t brought any bread. <sup>8</sup>Jesus knew what they were saying, so he said, “You have so little faith! Why are you arguing with each other about having no bread? <sup>9</sup>Don’t you understand even yet? Don’t you remember the 5,000 I fed with five loaves, and the baskets of leftovers you picked up? <sup>10</sup>Or the 4,000 I fed with seven loaves, and the large baskets of leftovers you picked up? <sup>11</sup>Why can't you understand that I'm not talking about bread? So again I say, 'Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.'"

<sup>12</sup>Then at last they understood that he wasn't speaking about the yeast in bread, but about the deceptive teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter's Declaration about Jesus

13 When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"*

<sup>14</sup>"Well," they replied, "some say John the Baptist, some say Elijah, and others say Jeremiah or one of the other prophets."

<sup>15</sup>Then he asked them, "But who do you say I am?"

<sup>17</sup>Jesus replied, "You are blessed, Simon son of John,* because my Father in heaven has revealed this to you. You did not learn this from any human being. <sup>18</sup>Now I say to you that you are Peter (which means ‘rock’),* and upon this rock I will build my church, and all the powers of hell* will not conquer it. <sup>19</sup>And I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven. Whatever you forbid* on earth will be forbidden in heaven, and whatever you permit* on earth will be permitted in heaven.”

<sup>20</sup>Then he sternly warned the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Jesus Predicts His Death

<sup>21</sup>From then on Jesus* began to tell his disciples plainly that it was necessary for him to go to Jerusalem, and that he would suffer many terrible things at the hands of the elders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He would be killed, but on the third day he would be raised from the dead.

<sup>22</sup>But Peter took him aside and began to reprimand him* for saying such things. “Heaven forbid, Lord,” he said. “This will never happen to you!”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus turned to Peter and said, “Get away from me, Satan! You are a dangerous trap to me. You are seeing things merely from a human point of view, not from God’s.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Jesus said to his disciples, “If any of you wants to be my follower, you must turn from your selfish ways, take up your cross, and follow me. <sup>25</sup>If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake, you will save it. <sup>26</sup>And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but lose your own soul? Is anything worth more than your soul? <sup>27</sup>For the Son of Man will come with his angels in the glory of his Father and will judge all people according to their deeds. <sup>28</sup>And I tell you the truth, some standing here right now will not die before they see the Son of Man coming in his Kingdom.”

Matthew 17

The Transfiguration

<sup>1</sup>Six days later Jesus took Peter and the two brothers, James and John, and led them up a high mountain to be alone. <sup>2</sup>As the men watched, Jesus' appearance was transformed so that his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as light. <sup>3</sup>Suddenly, Moses and Elijah appeared and began talking with Jesus.

<sup>4</sup>Peter exclaimed, "Lord, it's wonderful for us to be here! If you want, I'll make three shelters as memorials*—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

<sup>5</sup>But even as he spoke, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my dearly loved Son, who brings me great joy. Listen to him." <sup>6</sup>The disciples were terrified and fell face down on the ground.

<sup>7</sup>Then Jesus came over and touched them. "Get up," he said. "Don't be afraid." <sup>8</sup>And when they looked up, Moses and Elijah were gone, and they saw only Jesus.

<sup>9</sup>As they went back down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, "Don't tell anyone what you have seen until the Son of Man* has been raised from the dead."

<sup>10</sup>Then his disciples asked him, "Why do the teachers of religious law insist that Elijah must return before the Messiah comes?*" everything ready. <sup>12</sup>But I tell you, Elijah has already come, but he wasn't recognized, and they chose to abuse him. And in the same way they will also make the Son of Man suffer." <sup>13</sup>Then the disciples realized he was talking about John the Baptist.

Jesus Heals a Demon-Possessed Boy

<sup>14</sup>At the foot of the mountain, a large crowd was waiting for them. A man came and knelt before Jesus and said, <sup>15</sup>"Lord, have mercy on my son. He has seizures and suffers terribly. He often falls into the fire or into the water. <sup>16</sup>So I brought him to your disciples, but they couldn't heal him."

<sup>17</sup>Jesus said, "You faithless and corrupt people! How long must I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring the boy here to me." <sup>18</sup>Then Jesus rebuked the demon in the boy, and it left him. From that moment the boy was well.

<sup>19</sup>Afterward the disciples asked Jesus privately, "Why couldn't we cast out that demon?"

<sup>20</sup>"You don't have enough faith," Jesus told them. "I tell you the truth, if you had faith even as small as a mustard seed, you could say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it would move. Nothing would be impossible."*

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

<sup>22</sup>After they gathered again in Galilee, Jesus told them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of his enemies. <sup>23</sup>He will be killed, but on the third day he will be raised from the dead." And the disciples were filled with grief.

Payment of the Temple Tax

<sup>24</sup>On their arrival in Capernaum, the collectors of the Temple tax* came to Peter and asked him, “Doesn’t your teacher pay the Temple tax?”

<sup>25</sup>“Yes, he does,” Peter replied. Then he went into the house.

But before he had a chance to speak, Jesus asked him, “What do you think, Peter?* Do kings tax their own people or the people they have conquered?*”

<sup>26</sup>“They tax the people they have conquered,” Peter replied.

“Well, then,” Jesus said, “the citizens are free! <sup>27</sup>However, we don’t want to offend them, so go down to the lake and throw in a line. Open the mouth of the first fish you catch, and you will find a large silver coin.* Take it and pay the tax for both of us.”

Matthew 18

The Greatest in the Kingdom

<sup>1</sup>About that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Who is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?”

<sup>2</sup>Jesus called a little child to him and put the child among them. <sup>3</sup>Then he said, “I tell you the truth, unless you turn from your sins and become like little children, you will never get into the Kingdom of Heaven. <sup>4</sup>So anyone who becomes as humble as this little child is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven.

<sup>5</sup>“And anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf* is welcoming me. <sup>6</sup>But if you cause one of these little ones who trusts in me to fall into sin, it would be better for you to have a large millstone tied around your neck and be drowned in the depths of the sea.

<sup>7</sup>“What sorrow awaits the world, because it tempts people to sin. Temptations are inevitable, but what sorrow awaits the person who does the tempting. <sup>8</sup>So if your hand or foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It’s better to enter eternal life with only one hand or one foot than to be thrown into eternal fire with both of your hands and feet. <sup>9</sup>And if your eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It’s better to enter eternal life with only one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell.*

<sup>10</sup> “Beware that you don’t look down on any of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels are always in the presence of my heavenly Father.*

Parable of the Lost Sheep

<sup>12</sup>“If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them wanders away, what will he do? Won’t he leave the ninety-nine others on the hills and go out to search for the one that is lost? <sup>13</sup>And if he finds it, I tell you the truth, he will rejoice over it more than over the ninety-nine that didn’t wander away! <sup>14</sup>In the same way, it is not my heavenly Father’s will that even one of these little ones should perish.

Correcting Another Believer

<sup>15</sup>“If another believer* sins against you,* go privately and point out the offense. If the other person listens and confesses it, you have won that person back. <sup>16</sup>But if you are unsuccessful, take one or two others with you and go back again, so that everything you say may be confirmed by two or three witnesses. <sup>17</sup>If the person still refuses to listen, take your case to the church. Then if he or she won’t accept the church’s decision, treat that person as a pagan or a corrupt tax collector.

<sup>18</sup>“I tell you the truth, whatever you forbid* on earth will be forbidden in heaven, and whatever you permit* on earth will be permitted in heaven.

<sup>19</sup>“I also tell you this: If two of you agree here on earth concerning anything you ask, my Father in heaven will do it for you. <sup>20</sup>For where two or three gather together as my followers,* I am there among them.”

Parable of the Unforgiving Debtor

<sup>21</sup>Then Peter came to him and asked, “Lord, how often should I forgive someone* who sins against me? Seven times?”

<sup>26</sup>“But the man fell down before his master and begged him, ‘Please, be patient with me, and I will pay it all.’ <sup>27</sup>Then his master was filled with pity for him, and he released him and forgave his debt.

<sup>28</sup>“But when the man left the king, he went to a fellow servant who owed him a few thousand dollars.* He grabbed him by the throat and demanded instant payment.

<sup>29</sup>“His fellow servant fell down before him and begged for a little more time. ‘Be patient with me, and I will pay it,’ he pleaded. <sup>30</sup>But his creditor wouldn’t wait. He had the man arrested and put in prison until the debt could be paid in full.

<sup>31</sup>“When some of the other servants saw this, they were very upset. They went to the king and told him everything that had happened. <sup>32</sup>Then the king called in the man he had forgiven and said, ‘You evil servant! I forgave you that tremendous debt because you pleaded with me. <sup>33</sup>Shouldn’t you have mercy on your fellow servant, just as I had mercy on you?’

<sup>34</sup>Then the angry king sent the man to prison to be tortured until he had paid his entire debt.

<sup>35</sup>“That’s what my heavenly Father will do to you if you refuse to forgive your brothers and sisters * from your heart.”

Matthew 19

Discussion about Divorce and Marriage

<sup>7</sup>“Then why did Moses say in the law that a man could give his wife a written notice of divorce and send her away?”* they asked.

<sup>8</sup>Jesus replied, “Moses permitted divorce only as a concession to your hard hearts, but it was not what God had originally intended. <sup>9</sup>And I tell you this, whoever divorces his wife and marries someone else commits adultery—unless his wife has been unfaithful.*”

<sup>10</sup>Jesus’ disciples then said to him, “If this is the case, it is better not to marry!”

<sup>11</sup>“Not everyone can accept this statement,” Jesus said.

“Only those whom God helps. <sup>12</sup>Some are born as eunuchs, some have been made eunuchs by others, and some choose not to marry* for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven. Let anyone accept this who can.”

A Loophole for Flawed Lovers

Jesus Blesses the Children

<sup>13</sup>One day some parents brought their children to Jesus so he could lay his hands on them and pray for them. But the disciples scolded the parents for bothering him.

<sup>14</sup>But Jesus said, “Let the children come to me. Don’t stop them! For the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to those who are like these children.” <sup>15</sup>And he placed his hands on their heads and blessed them before he left.

The Rich Man

<sup>16</sup>Someone came to Jesus with this question: “Teacher,* what good deed must I do to have eternal life?”

<sup>17</sup>“Why ask me about what is good?” Jesus replied. “There is only One who is good. But to answer your question—if you want to receive eternal life, keep* the commandments.”

<sup>18</sup>“Which ones?” the man asked.

And Jesus replied: ““You must not murder. You must not commit adultery. You must not steal. You must not testify falsely. <sup>19</sup>Honor your father and mother. Love your neighbor as yourself.’*”

<sup>20</sup>“I’ve obeyed all these commandments,” the young man replied. “What else must I do?”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus told him, “If you want to be perfect, go and sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

<sup>22</sup>But when the young man heard this, he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus said to his disciples, “I tell you the truth, it is very hard for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

<sup>24</sup>I’ll say it again—it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God!”

<sup>25</sup>The disciples were astounded. “Then who in the world can be saved?” they asked.

<sup>26</sup>Jesus looked at them intently and said, “Humanly speaking, it is impossible. But with God everything is possible.”

<sup>27</sup>Then Peter said to him, “We’ve given up everything to follow you. What will we get?”

<sup>28</sup>Jesus replied, “I assure you that when the world is made new* and the Son of Man* sits upon his glorious throne, you who have been my followers will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>29</sup>And everyone who has given up houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or property, for my sake, will receive a hundred times as much in return and will inherit eternal life. <sup>30</sup>But many who are the greatest now will be least important then, and those who seem least important now will be the greatest then.*

Matthew 20

Parable of the Vineyard Workers

<sup>1</sup>“For the Kingdom of Heaven is like the landowner who went out early one morning to hire workers for his vineyard. <sup>2</sup>He agreed to pay the normal daily wage* and sent them out to work.

<sup>3</sup>“At nine o’clock in the morning he was passing through the marketplace and saw some people standing around doing nothing. <sup>4</sup>So he hired them, telling them he would pay them whatever was right at the end of the day. <sup>5</sup>So they went to work in the vineyard. At noon and again at three o’clock he did the same thing.

<sup>6</sup>“At five o’clock that afternoon he was in town again and saw some more people standing around. He asked them, ‘Why haven’t you been working today?’

“The landowner told them, ‘Then go out and join the others in my vineyard.’

<sup>8</sup>“That evening he told the foreman to call the workers in and pay them, beginning with the last workers first. <sup>9</sup>When those hired at five o’clock were paid, each received a full day’s wage. <sup>10</sup>When those hired first came to get their pay, they assumed they would receive more. But they, too, were paid a day’s wage. <sup>11</sup>When they received their pay, they protested to the owner, <sup>12</sup>“Those people worked only one hour, and yet you’ve paid them just as much as you paid us who worked all day in the scorching heat.’

<sup>13</sup>“He answered one of them, ‘Friend, I haven’t been unfair! Didn’t you agree to work all day for the usual wage? <sup>14</sup>Take your money and go. I wanted to pay this last worker the same as you. <sup>15</sup>Is it against the law for me to do what I want with my money? Should you be jealous because I am kind to others?’

<sup>16</sup>“So those who are last now will be first then, and those who are first will be last.”

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

<sup>17</sup>As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside privately and told them what was going to happen to him. <sup>18</sup>“Listen,” he said, “we’re going up to Jerusalem, where the Son of Man* will be betrayed to the leading priests and the teachers of religious law. They will sentence him to die. <sup>19</sup>Then they will hand him over to the Romans* to be mocked, flogged with a whip, and crucified. But on the third day he will be raised from the dead.”

Jesus Teaches about Serving Others

<sup>20</sup> Then the mother of James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus with her sons. She knelt respectfully to ask a favor. <sup>21</sup>“What is your request?” he asked.

She replied, “In your Kingdom, please let my two sons sit in places of honor next to you, one on your right and the other on your left.”

<sup>22</sup>But Jesus answered by saying to them, “You don’t know what you are asking! Are you able to drink from the bitter cup of suffering I am about to drink?”

“Oh yes,” they replied, “we are able!”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus told them, “You will indeed drink from my bitter cup. But I have no right to say who will sit on my right or my left. My Father has prepared those places for the ones he has chosen.”

<sup>24</sup>When the ten other disciples heard what James and John had asked, they were indignant.<sup>25</sup>But Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers in this world lord it over their people, and officials flaunt their authority over those under them. <sup>26</sup>But among you it will be different. Whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant, <sup>27</sup>and whoever wants to be first among you must become your slave. <sup>28</sup>For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

A Mother's Misdirected Pride

Jesus Heals Two Blind Men

<sup>29</sup>As Jesus and the disciples left the town of Jericho, a large crowd followed behind.<sup>30</sup>Two blind men were sitting beside the road. When they heard that Jesus was coming that way, they began shouting, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

<sup>31</sup>“Be quiet!” the crowd yelled at them.

But they only shouted louder, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

<sup>32</sup>When Jesus heard them, he stopped and called, “What do you want me to do for you?”

<sup>33</sup>“Lord,” they said, “we want to see!” <sup>34</sup>Jesus felt sorry for them and touched their eyes. Instantly they could see! Then they followed him.

Matthew 21

Jesus' Triumphant Entry

<sup>1</sup>As Jesus and the disciples approached Jerusalem, they came to the town of Bethphage on the Mount of Olives. Jesus sent two of them on ahead. <sup>2</sup>“Go into the village over there,” he said. “As soon as you enter it, you will see a donkey tied there, with its colt beside it. Untie them and bring them to me. <sup>3</sup>If anyone asks what you are doing, just say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and he will immediately let you take them.”

<sup>4</sup>This took place to fulfill the prophecy that said,

<sup>5</sup>“Tell the people of Jerusalem, *

‘Look, your King is coming to you.

He is humble, riding on a donkey—

riding on a donkey’s colt.’” *

<sup>6</sup>The two disciples did as Jesus commanded. <sup>7</sup>They brought the donkey and the colt to him and threw their garments over the colt, and he sat on it. *

<sup>8</sup>Most of the crowd spread their garments on the road ahead of him, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. <sup>9</sup>Jesus was in the center of the procession, and the people all around him were shouting, “Praise God * for the Son of David!

Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!
Praise God in highest heaven!”*
  

<sup>10</sup>The entire city of Jerusalem was in an uproar as he entered.
“Who is this?” they asked.

Jesus Clears the Temple

<sup>12</sup>Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out all the people buying and selling animals for sacrifice. He knocked over the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those selling doves. <sup>13</sup>He said to them, “The Scriptures declare, ‘My Temple will be called a house of prayer,’ but you have turned it into a den of thieves!”*
  

<sup>14</sup>The blind and the lame came to him in the Temple, and he healed them. <sup>15</sup>The leading priests and the teachers of religious law saw these wonderful miracles and heard even the children in the Temple shouting, “Praise God for the Son of David.”

But the leaders were indignant. <sup>16</sup>They asked Jesus, “Do you hear what these children are saying?”

“Yes,” Jesus replied. “Haven’t you ever read the Scriptures? For they say, ‘You have taught children and infants to give you praise.’”* <sup>17</sup>Then he returned to Bethany, where he stayed overnight.

Jesus Curses the Fig Tree

<sup>18</sup>In the morning, as Jesus was returning to Jerusalem, he was hungry, <sup>19</sup>and he noticed a fig tree beside the road. He went over to see if there were any figs, but there were only leaves. Then he said to it, “May you never bear fruit again!” And immediately the fig tree withered up.

<sup>20</sup>The disciples were amazed when they saw this and asked, “How did the fig tree wither so quickly?”

<sup>21</sup>Then Jesus told them, “I tell you the truth, if you have faith and don’t doubt, you can do things like this and much more. You can even say to this mountain, ‘May you be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ and it will happen. <sup>22</sup>You can pray for anything, and if you have faith, you will receive it.”

The Authority of Jesus Challenged

<sup>23</sup>When Jesus returned to the Temple and began teaching, the leading priests and elders came up to him. They demanded, “By what authority are you doing all these things? Who gave you the right?”

<sup>24</sup>“I’ll tell you by what authority I do these things if you answer one question,” Jesus replied. <sup>25</sup>“Did John’s authority to baptize come from heaven, or was it merely human?”

They talked it over among themselves. “If we say it was from heaven, he will ask us why we didn’t believe John. <sup>26</sup>But if we say it was merely human, we’ll be mobbed because the people believe John was a prophet.” <sup>27</sup>So they finally replied, “We don’t know.”

And Jesus responded, “Then I won’t tell you by what authority I do these things.

Parable of the Two Sons

<sup>28</sup>“But what do you think about this? A man with two sons told the older boy, ‘Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.’ <sup>29</sup>The son answered, ‘No, I won’t go,’ but later he changed his mind and went anyway. <sup>30</sup>Then the father told the other son, ‘You go,’ and he said, ‘Yes, sir, I will.’ But he didn’t go.

They replied, “The first.”*<sup>32</sup>

Then Jesus explained his meaning: “I tell you the truth, corrupt tax collectors and prostitutes will get into the Kingdom of God before you do. <sup>32</sup>For John the Baptist came and showed you the right way to live, but you didn’t believe him, while tax collectors and prostitutes did. And even when you saw this happening, you refused to believe him and repent of your sins.

Parable of the Evil Farmers

<sup>33</sup>“Now listen to another story. A certain landowner planted a vineyard, built a wall around it, dug a pit for pressing out the grape juice, and built a lookout tower. Then he leased the vineyard to tenant farmers and moved to another country. <sup>34</sup>At the time of the grape harvest, he sent his servants to collect his share of the crop. <sup>35</sup>But the farmers grabbed his servants, beat one, killed one, and stoned another. <sup>36</sup>So the landowner sent a larger group of his servants to collect for him, but the results were the same.

<sup>37</sup>“Finally, the owner sent his son, thinking, ‘Surely they will respect my son.’

<sup>38</sup>“But when the tenant farmers saw his son coming, they said to one another, ‘Here comes the heir to this estate. Come on, let’s kill him and get the estate for ourselves!’ <sup>39</sup>So they grabbed him, dragged him out of the vineyard, and murdered him.

<sup>40</sup>“When the owner of the vineyard returns,” Jesus asked, “what do you think he will do to those farmers?”

<sup>41</sup>The religious leaders replied, “He will put the wicked men to a horrible death and lease the vineyard to others who will give him his share of the crop after each harvest.”

<sup>42</sup>Then Jesus asked them, “Didn’t you ever read this in the Scriptures?

‘The stone that the builders rejected
has now become the cornerstone.
This is the LORD’s doing,
and it is wonderful to see.’*

<sup>43</sup>I tell you, the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a nation that will produce the proper fruit.

<sup>44</sup>Anyone who stumbles over that stone will be broken to pieces, and it will crush anyone it falls on.*”

<sup>45</sup>When the leading priests and Pharisees heard this parable, they realized he was telling the story against them—they were the wicked farmers. <sup>46</sup>They wanted to arrest him, but they were afraid of the crowds, who considered Jesus to be a prophet.

Matthew 22

Parable of the Great Feast

<sup>1</sup> Jesus also told them other parables. He said, <sup>2</sup>“The Kingdom of Heaven can be illustrated by the story of a king who prepared a great wedding feast for his son. <sup>3</sup>When the banquet was ready, he sent his servants to notify those who were invited. But they all refused to come!

<sup>4</sup>“So he sent other servants to tell them, ‘The feast has been prepared. The bulls and fattened cattle have been killed, and everything is ready. Come to the banquet!’ <sup>5</sup>But the guests he had invited ignored them and went their own way, one to his farm, another to his business. <sup>6</sup>Others seized his messengers and insulted them and killed them.

<sup>7</sup>“The king was furious, and he sent out his army to destroy the murderers and burn their town. <sup>8</sup>And he said to his servants, ‘The wedding feast is ready, and the guests I invited aren’t worthy of the honor. <sup>9</sup>Now go out to the street corners and invite everyone you see.’ <sup>10</sup>So the servants brought in everyone they could find, good and bad alike, and the banquet hall was filled with guests.

<sup>11</sup>“But when the king came in to meet the guests, he noticed a man who wasn’t wearing the proper clothes for a wedding. <sup>12</sup>‘Friend,’ he asked, ‘how is it that you are here without wedding clothes?’ But the man had no reply. <sup>13</sup>Then the king said to his aides, ‘Bind his hands and feet and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

Taxes for Caesar

<sup>15</sup>Then the Pharisees met together to plot how to trap Jesus into saying something for which he could be arrested. <sup>16</sup>They sent some of their disciples, along with the supporters of Herod, to meet with him. “Teacher,” they said, “we know how honest you are. You teach the way of God truthfully. You are impartial and don’t play favorites. <sup>17</sup>Now tell us what you think about this: Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

<sup>18</sup>But Jesus knew their evil motives. “You hypocrites!” he said. “Why are you trying to trap me? <sup>19</sup>Here, show me the coin used for the tax.” When they handed him a Roman coin, <sup>20</sup>he asked, “Whose picture and title are stamped on it?”

“Well, then,” he said, “give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God.”

<sup>22</sup>His reply amazed them, and they went away.

Discussion about Resurrection

<sup>23</sup>That same day Jesus was approached by some Sadducees—religious leaders who say there is no resurrection from the dead. They posed this question: <sup>24</sup>“Teacher, Moses said, ‘If a man dies without children, his brother should marry the widow and have a child who will carry on the brother’s name.’ <sup>25</sup>Well, suppose there were seven brothers. The oldest one married and then died without children, so his brother married the widow. <sup>26</sup>But the second brother also died, and the third brother married her. This continued with all seven of them. <sup>27</sup>Last of all, the woman also died. <sup>28</sup>So tell us, whose wife will she be in the resurrection? For all seven were married to her.”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus replied, “Your mistake is that you don’t know the Scriptures, and you don’t know the power of God. <sup>30</sup>For when the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage. In this respect they will be like the angels in heaven.

<sup>31</sup>“But now, as to whether there will be a resurrection of the dead—haven’t you ever read about this in the Scriptures? Long after Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had died, God said, * <sup>32</sup>‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’ * So he is the God of the living, not the dead.”

<sup>33</sup> When the crowds heard him, they were astounded at his teaching.

The Most Important Commandment

<sup>34</sup>But when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees with his reply, they met together to question him again. <sup>35</sup>One of them, an expert in religious law, tried to trap him with this question: <sup>36</sup>“Teacher, which is the most important commandment in the law of Moses?”

<sup>37</sup>Jesus replied, “‘You must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind.’ * <sup>38</sup>This is the first and greatest commandment. <sup>39</sup>A second is equally important: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ * <sup>40</sup>The entire law and all the demands of the prophets are based on these two commandments.”

Whose Son Is the Messiah?

<sup>41</sup>Then, surrounded by the Pharisees, Jesus asked them a question: <sup>42</sup>“What do you think about the Messiah? Whose son is he?”

They replied, “He is the son of David.”

<sup>43</sup>Jesus responded, “Then why does David, speaking under the inspiration of the Spirit, call the Messiah ‘my Lord’? For David said,

<sup>44</sup>“The LORD said to my Lord,
Sit in the place of honor at my right hand
until I humble your enemies beneath your feet.”*

<sup>45</sup>Since David called the Messiah ‘my Lord,’ how can the Messiah be his son?”

<sup>46</sup>No one could answer him. And after that, no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Matthew 23

Jesus Criticizes the Religious Leaders

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples, <sup>2</sup>“The teachers of religious law and the Pharisees are the official interpreters of the law of Moses.* <sup>3</sup>So practice and obey whatever they tell you, but don’t follow their example. For they don’t practice what they teach. <sup>4</sup>They crush people with unbearable religious demands and never lift a finger to ease the burden.

<sup>8</sup>“Don’t let anyone call you ‘Rabbi,’ for you have only one teacher, and all of you are equal as brothers and sisters.* <sup>9</sup>And don’t address anyone here on earth as ‘Father,’ for only God in heaven is your spiritual Father. <sup>10</sup>And don’t let anyone call you ‘Teacher,’ for you have only one teacher, the Messiah. <sup>11</sup>The greatest among you must be a servant. <sup>12</sup>But those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.

<sup>13</sup> “What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you shut the door of the Kingdom of Heaven in people's faces. You won't go in yourselves, and you don't let others enter either.*

<sup>15</sup>“What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you cross land and sea to make one convert, and then you turn that person into twice the child of hell* you yourselves are!

<sup>16</sup>“Blind guides! What sorrow awaits you! For you say that it means nothing to swear ‘by God’s Temple,’ but that it is binding to swear ‘by the gold in the Temple.’ <sup>17</sup>Blind fools! Which is more important—the gold or the Temple that makes the gold sacred? <sup>18</sup>And you say that to swear ‘by the altar’ is not binding, but to swear ‘by the gifts on the altar’ is binding. <sup>19</sup>How blind! For which is more important—the gift on the altar or the altar that makes the gift sacred? <sup>20</sup>When you swear ‘by the altar,’ you are swearing by it and by everything on it. <sup>21</sup>And when you swear ‘by the Temple,’ you are swearing by it and by God, who lives in it. <sup>22</sup>And when you swear ‘by heaven,’ you are swearing by the throne of God and by God, who sits on the throne.

<sup>23</sup>“What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you are careful to tithe even the tiniest income from your herb gardens,* but you ignore the more important aspects of the law—justice, mercy, and faith. You should tithe, yes, but do not neglect the more important things. <sup>24</sup>Blind guides! You strain your water so you won’t accidentally swallow a gnat, but you swallow a camel!*

outside of the cup and the dish, but inside you are filthy—full of greed and self-indulgence! <sup>26</sup>You blind Pharisee! First wash the inside of the cup and the dish,* and then the outside will become clean, too.

<sup>27</sup>“What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs—beautiful on the outside but filled on the inside with dead people’s bones and all sorts of impurity. <sup>28</sup>Outwardly you look like righteous people, but inwardly your hearts are filled with hypocrisy and lawlessness.

<sup>29</sup>“What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you build tombs for the prophets your ancestors killed, and you decorate the monuments of the godly people your ancestors destroyed. <sup>30</sup>Then you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would never have joined them in killing the prophets.’

<sup>31</sup>“But in saying that, you testify against yourselves that you are indeed the descendants of those who murdered the prophets. <sup>32</sup>Go ahead and finish what your ancestors started. <sup>33</sup>Snakes! Sons of vipers! How will you escape the judgment of hell?

<sup>34</sup>“Therefore, I am sending you prophets and wise men and teachers of religious law. But you will kill some by crucifixion, and you will flog others with whips in your synagogues, chasing them from city to city. <sup>35</sup>As a result, you will be held responsible for the murder of all godly people of all time—from the murder of righteous Abel to the murder of Zechariah son of Berekiah, whom you killed in the Temple between the sanctuary and the altar. <sup>36</sup>I tell you the truth, this judgment will fall on this very generation.

Jesus Grieves over Jerusalem

<sup>37</sup>“O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones God’s messengers! How often I have wanted to gather your children together as a hen protects her chicks beneath her wings, but you wouldn’t let me. <sup>38</sup>And now, look, your house is abandoned and desolate.* <sup>39</sup>For I tell you this, you will never see me again until you say, ‘Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!’*”

Matthew 24

Jesus Foretells the Future

<sup>1</sup>As Jesus was leaving the Temple grounds, his disciples pointed out to him the various Temple buildings. <sup>2</sup>But he responded, “Do you see all these buildings? I tell you the truth, they will be completely demolished. Not one stone will be left on top of another!”

<sup>3</sup>Later, Jesus sat on the Mount of Olives. His disciples came to him privately and said, “Tell us, when will all this happen? What sign will signal your return and the end of the world? *”

<sup>4</sup>Jesus told them, “Don’t let anyone mislead you, <sup>5</sup>for many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Messiah.’ They will deceive many. <sup>6</sup>And you will hear of wars and threats of wars, but don’t panic. Yes, these things must take place, but the end won’t follow immediately. <sup>7</sup>Nation will go to war against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in many parts of the world. <sup>8</sup>But all this is only the first of the birth pains, with more to come.

<sup>9</sup>“Then you will be arrested, persecuted, and killed. You will be hated all over the world because you are my followers. *

<sup>10</sup>And many will turn away from me and betray and hate each other. <sup>11</sup>And many false prophets will appear and will deceive many people. <sup>12</sup>Sin will be rampant everywhere, and the love of many will grow cold. <sup>13</sup>But the one who endures to the end will be saved. <sup>14</sup>And the Good News about the Kingdom will be preached throughout the whole world, so that all nations* will hear it; and then the end will come.

<sup>15</sup>“The day is coming when you will see what Daniel the prophet spoke about—the sacrilegious object that causes desecration* standing in the Holy Place.” (Reader, pay attention!) <sup>16</sup>“Then those in Judea must flee to the hills. <sup>17</sup>A person out on the deck of a roof must not go down into the house to pack. <sup>18</sup>A person out in the field must not return even to get a coat. <sup>19</sup>How terrible it will be for pregnant women and for nursing mothers in those days. <sup>20</sup>And pray that your flight will not be in winter or on the Sabbath. <sup>21</sup>For there will be greater anguish than at any time since the world began. And it will never be so great again. <sup>22</sup>In fact, unless that time of calamity is shortened, not a single person will survive. But it will be shortened for the sake of God’s chosen ones.

<sup>23</sup>“Then if anyone tells you, ‘Look, here is the Messiah,’ or ‘There he is,’ don’t believe it. <sup>24</sup>For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up and perform great signs and wonders so as to deceive, if possible, even God’s chosen ones. <sup>25</sup>See, I have warned you about this ahead of time.

<sup>26</sup>“So if someone tells you, ‘Look, the Messiah is out in the desert,’ don’t bother to go and look. Or, ‘Look, he is hiding here,’ don’t believe it! <sup>27</sup>For as the lightning flashes in the east and shines to the west, so it will be when the Son of Man* comes. <sup>28</sup>Just as the gathering of vultures shows there is a carcass nearby, so these signs indicate that the end is near.*

<sup>29</sup>“Immediately after the anguish of those days,

the sun will be darkened,
the moon will give no light,
the stars will fall from the sky,
and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.*

<sup>30</sup>And then at last, the sign that the Son of Man is coming will appear in the heavens, and there will be deep mourning among all the peoples of the earth. And they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.*

<sup>31</sup>And he will send out his angels with the mighty blast of a trumpet, and they will gather his chosen ones from all over the world*—from the farthest ends of the earth and heaven.

<sup>32</sup>“Now learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branches bud and its leaves begin to sprout, you know that summer is near. <sup>33</sup>In the same way, when you see all these things, you can know his return is very near, right at the door. <sup>34</sup>I tell you the truth, this generation* will not pass from the scene until all these things take place. <sup>35</sup>Heaven and earth will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

<sup>36</sup> “However, no one knows the day or hour when these things will happen, not even the angels in heaven or the Son himself.* Only the Father knows.

What the Bible Says about

the Future

<sup>37</sup>“When the Son of Man returns, it will be like it was in Noah’s day. <sup>38</sup>In those days before the flood, the people were enjoying banquets and parties and weddings right up to the time Noah entered his boat. <sup>39</sup>People didn't realize what was going to happen until the flood came and swept them all away. That is the way it will be when the Son of Man comes.

<sup>40</sup>“Two men will be working together in the field; one will be taken, the other left. <sup>41</sup>Two women will be grinding flour at the mill; one will be taken, the other left.

<sup>42</sup>“So you, too, must keep watch! For you don't know what day your Lord is coming. <sup>43</sup>Understand this: If a homeowner knew exactly when a burglar was coming, he would keep watch and not permit his house to be broken into. <sup>44</sup>You also must be ready all the time, for the Son of Man will come when least expected.

<sup>45</sup>“A faithful, sensible servant is one to whom the master can give the responsibility of managing his other household servants and feeding them. <sup>46</sup>If the master returns and finds that the servant has done a good job, there will be a reward. <sup>47</sup>I tell you the truth, the master will put that servant in charge of all he owns. <sup>48</sup>But what if the servant is evil and thinks, ‘My master won't be back for a while,’ <sup>49</sup>and he begins beating the other servants, partying, and getting drunk? <sup>50</sup>The master will return unannounced and unexpected, <sup>51</sup>and he will cut the servant to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Matthew 25

Parable of the Ten Bridesmaids

<sup>1</sup> “Then the Kingdom of Heaven will be like ten bridesmaids* who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. <sup>2</sup>Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. <sup>3</sup>The five who were foolish didn’t take enough olive oil for their lamps, <sup>4</sup>but the other five were wise enough to take along extra oil. <sup>5</sup>When the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

<sup>6</sup>“At midnight they were roused by the shout, ‘Look, the bridegroom is coming! Come out and meet him!’

<sup>7</sup>“All the bridesmaids got up and prepared their lamps. <sup>8</sup>Then the five foolish ones asked the others, ‘Please give us some of your oil because our lamps are going out.’

<sup>9</sup>“But the others replied, ‘We don’t have enough for all of us. Go to a shop and buy some for yourselves.’

<sup>10</sup>“But while they were gone to buy oil, the bridegroom came. Then those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was locked. <sup>11</sup>Later, when the other five bridesmaids returned, they stood outside, calling, ‘Lord! Lord! Open the door for us!’

<sup>12</sup>“But he called back, ‘Believe me, I don’t know you!’

<sup>13</sup>“So you, too, must keep watch! For you do not know the day or hour of my return.

Parable of the Three Servants

<sup>14</sup> “Again, the Kingdom of Heaven can be illustrated by the story of a man going on a long trip. He called together his servants and entrusted his money to them while he was gone.

<sup>15</sup>He gave five bags of silver* to one, two bags of silver to another, and one bag of silver to the last—dividing it in proportion to their abilities. He then left on his trip.

<sup>16</sup>“The servant who received the five bags of silver began to invest the money and earned five more. <sup>17</sup>The servant with two bags of silver also went to work and earned two more. <sup>18</sup>But the servant who received the one bag of silver dug a hole in the ground and hid the master’s money.

<sup>19</sup>“After a long time their master returned from his trip and called them to give an account of how they had used his money. <sup>20</sup>The servant to whom he had entrusted the five bags of silver came forward with five more and said, ‘Master, you gave me five bags of silver to invest, and I have earned five more.’

<sup>21</sup>“The master was full of praise. ‘Well done, my good and faithful servant. You have been faithful in handling this small amount, so now I will give you many more responsibilities. Let’s celebrate together!*

<sup>22</sup>“The servant who had received the two bags of silver came forward and said, ‘Master, you gave me two bags of silver to invest, and I have earned two more.’

<sup>23</sup>“The master said, ‘Well done, my good and faithful servant. You have been faithful in handling this small amount, so now I will give you many more responsibilities. Let’s celebrate together!’

<sup>24</sup>“Then the servant with the one bag of silver came and said, ‘Master, I knew you were a harsh man, harvesting crops you didn’t plant and gathering crops you didn’t cultivate. <sup>25</sup>I was afraid I would lose your money, so I hid it in the earth. Look, here is your money back.’

<sup>26</sup>“But the master replied, ‘You wicked and lazy servant! If you knew I harvested crops I didn’t plant and gathered crops I didn’t cultivate, <sup>27</sup>why didn’t you deposit my money in the bank? At least I could have gotten some interest on it.’

<sup>28</sup>“Then he ordered, ‘Take the money from this servant, and give it to the one with the ten bags of silver. <sup>29</sup>To those who use well what they are given, even more will be given, and they will have an abundance. But from those who do nothing, even what little they have will be taken away. <sup>30</sup>Now throw this useless servant into outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

The Final Judgment

<sup>31</sup> “But when the Son of Man* comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit upon his glorious throne. <sup>32</sup>All the nations* will be gathered in his presence, and he will separate the people as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. <sup>33</sup>He will place the sheep at his right hand and the goats at his left.

<sup>34</sup>“Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world. <sup>35</sup>For I was hungry, and you fed me. I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink. I was a stranger, and you invited me into your home. <sup>36</sup>I was naked, and you gave me clothing. I was sick, and you cared for me. I was in prison, and you visited me.'

<sup>37</sup>"Then these righteous ones will reply, 'Lord, when did we ever see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you something to drink? <sup>38</sup>Or a stranger and show you hospitality? Or naked and give you clothing? <sup>39</sup>When did we ever see you sick or in prison and visit you?'

<sup>40</sup>"And the King will say, 'I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, * you were doing it to me!'

<sup>41</sup>"Then the King will turn to those on the left and say, 'Away with you, you cursed ones, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his demons. * <sup>42</sup>For I was hungry, and you didn't feed me. I was thirsty, and you didn't give me a drink. <sup>43</sup>I was a stranger, and you didn't invite me into your home. I was naked, and you didn't give me clothing. I was sick and in prison, and you didn't visit me.'

<sup>44</sup>"Then they will reply, 'Lord, when did we ever see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and not help you?'

<sup>45</sup>"And he will answer, 'I tell you the truth, when you refused to help the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were refusing to help me.'

<sup>46</sup>"And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous will go into eternal life."

Matthew 26

The Plot to Kill Jesus

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus had finished saying all these things, he said to his disciples, <sup>2</sup>“As you know, Passover begins in two days, and the Son of Man* will be handed over to be crucified.”

<sup>3</sup>At that same time the leading priests and elders were meeting at the residence of Caiaphas, the high priest, <sup>4</sup>plotting how to capture Jesus secretly and kill him. <sup>5</sup>“But not during the Passover celebration,” they agreed, “or the people may riot.”

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

<sup>6</sup> Meanwhile, Jesus was in Bethany at the home of Simon, a man who had previously had leprosy. <sup>7</sup>While he was eating,* a woman came in with a beautiful alabaster jar of expensive perfume and poured it over his head.

Judas

<sup>8</sup>The disciples were indignant when they saw this. “What a waste!” they said. <sup>9</sup>“It could have been sold for a high price and the money given to the poor.”

<sup>10</sup>But Jesus, aware of this, replied, “Why criticize this woman for doing such a good thing to me? <sup>11</sup>You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me. <sup>12</sup>She has poured this perfume on me to prepare my body for burial. <sup>13</sup>I tell you the truth, wherever the Good News is preached throughout the world, this woman’s deed will be remembered and discussed.”

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

<sup>14</sup>Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve disciples, went to the leading priests <sup>15</sup>and asked, “How much will you pay me to betray Jesus to you?” And they gave him thirty pieces of silver. <sup>16</sup>From that time on, Judas began looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus.

The Last Supper

<sup>17</sup>On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Where do you want us to prepare the Passover meal for you?”

<sup>18</sup>“As you go into the city,” he told them, “you will see a certain man. Tell him, ‘The Teacher says: My time has come, and I will eat the Passover meal with my disciples at your house.’” <sup>19</sup>So the disciples did as Jesus told them and prepared the Passover meal there.

<sup>20</sup>When it was evening, Jesus sat down at the table* with the twelve disciples.*<sup>21</sup> While they were eating, he said, “I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me.”

<sup>23</sup>He replied, “One of you who has just eaten from this bowl with me will betray me. <sup>24</sup>For the Son of Man must die, as the Scriptures declared long ago. But how terrible it will be for the one who betrays him. It would be far better for that man if he had never been born!”

<sup>25</sup>Judas, the one who would betray him, also asked, “Rabbi, am I the one?”

And Jesus told him, “You have said it.”

<sup>26</sup>As they were eating, Jesus took some bread and blessed it. Then he broke it in pieces and gave it to the disciples, saying, “Take this and eat it, for this is my body.”

<sup>27</sup>And he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to God for it. He gave it to them and said, “Each of you drink from it, <sup>28</sup>for this is my blood, which confirms the covenant* between God and his people. It is poured out as a sacrifice to forgive the sins of many. <sup>29</sup>Mark my words—I will not drink wine again until the day I drink it new with you in my Father’s Kingdom.”

<sup>30</sup>Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter’s Denial

<sup>31</sup>On the way, Jesus told them, “Tonight all of you will desert me. For the Scriptures say,

‘God will strike* the Shepherd,
and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’

<sup>32</sup>But after I have been raised from the dead, I will go ahead of you to Galilee and meet you there.”

<sup>33</sup>Peter declared, “Even if everyone else deserts you, I will never desert you.”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, Peter—this very night, before the rooster crows, you will deny three times that you even know me.”

<sup>35</sup>“No!” Peter insisted. “Even if I have to die with you, I will never deny you!” And all the other disciples vowed the same.

Jesus Prays in Gethsemane

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus went with them to the olive grove called Gethsemane, and he said, “Sit here while I go over there to pray.” <sup>37</sup>He took Peter and Zebedee’s two sons, James and John, and he became anguished and distressed. <sup>38</sup>He told them, “My soul is crushed with grief to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me.”

<sup>39</sup>He went on a little farther and bowed with his face to the ground, praying, “My Father! If it is possible, let this cup of suffering be taken away from me. Yet I want your will to be done, not mine.”

<sup>40</sup>Then he returned to the disciples and found them asleep. He said to Peter, “Couldn’t you watch with me even one hour?

<sup>41</sup>Keep watch and pray, so that you will not give in to temptation. For the spirit is willing, but the body is weak!”

<sup>42</sup>Then Jesus left them a second time and prayed, “My Father! If this cup cannot be taken away* unless I drink it, your will be done.” <sup>43</sup>When he returned to them again, he found them sleeping, for they couldn’t keep their eyes open.

<sup>44</sup>So he went to pray a third time, saying the same things again. <sup>45</sup>Then he came to the disciples and said, “Go ahead and sleep. Have your rest. But look—the time has come. The Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>46</sup>Up, let’s be going. Look, my betrayer is here!”

Jesus Is Betrayed and Arrested

<sup>47</sup>And even as Jesus said this, Judas, one of the twelve disciples, arrived with a crowd of men armed with swords and clubs. They had been sent by the leading priests and elders of the people. <sup>48</sup>The traitor, Judas, had given them a prearranged signal: “You will know which one to arrest when I greet him with a kiss.” <sup>49</sup>So Judas came straight to Jesus. “Greetings, Rabbi!” he exclaimed and gave him the kiss.

<sup>50</sup>Jesus said, “My friend, go ahead and do what you have come for.”

Then the others grabbed Jesus and arrested him. <sup>51</sup>But one of the men with Jesus pulled out his sword and struck the high priest’s slave, slashing off his ear.

<sup>52</sup>“Put away your sword,” Jesus told him. “Those who use the sword will die by the sword. <sup>53</sup>Don’t you realize that I could ask my Father for thousands* of angels to protect us, and he would send them instantly? <sup>54</sup>But if I did, how would the Scriptures be fulfilled that describe what must happen now?”

<sup>55</sup>Then Jesus said to the crowd, “Am I some dangerous revolutionary, that you come with swords and clubs to arrest me? Why didn’t you arrest me in the Temple? I was there teaching every day. <sup>56</sup>But this is all happening to fulfill the words of the prophets as recorded in the Scriptures.” At that point, all the disciples deserted him and fled.

Jesus before the Council

<sup>57</sup>Then the people who had arrested Jesus led him to the home of Caiaphas, the high priest, where the teachers of religious law and the elders had gathered. <sup>58</sup>Meanwhile, Peter followed him at a distance and came to the high priest’s courtyard. He went in and sat with the guards and waited to see how it would all end.

<sup>59</sup>Inside, the leading priests and the entire high council* were trying to find witnesses who would lie about Jesus, so they could put him to death. <sup>60</sup>But even though they found many who agreed to give false witness, they could not use anyone’s testimony. Finally, two men came forward <sup>61</sup>who declared, “This man said, ‘I am able to destroy the Temple of God and rebuild it in three days.’”

<sup>62</sup>Then the high priest stood up and said to Jesus, “Well, aren’t you going to answer these charges? What do you have to say for yourself?” <sup>63</sup>But Jesus remained silent. Then the high priest said to him, “I demand in the name of the living God—tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God.”

<sup>64</sup>Jesus replied, “You have said it. And in the future you will see the Son of Man seated in the place of power at God’s right hand* and coming on the clouds of heaven.”*

<sup>65</sup>Then the high priest tore his clothing to show his horror and said, “Blasphemy! Why do we need other witnesses? You have all heard his blasphemy. <sup>66</sup>What is your verdict?”

“Guilty!” they shouted. “He deserves to die!”

<sup>67</sup>Then they began to spit in Jesus’ face and beat him with their fists. And some slapped him, <sup>68</sup>jeering, “Prophecy to us, you Messiah! Who hit you that time?”

Peter Denies Jesus

<sup>69</sup>Meanwhile, Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A servant girl came over and said to him, “You were one of those with Jesus the Galilean.”

<sup>70</sup>But Peter denied it in front of everyone. “I don’t know what you’re talking about,” he said.

<sup>71</sup>Later, out by the gate, another servant girl noticed him and said to those standing around, “This man was with Jesus of Nazareth.*”

<sup>72</sup>Again Peter denied it, this time with an oath. “I don’t even know the man,” he said.

<sup>73</sup>A little later some of the other bystanders came over to Peter and said, “You must be one of them; we can tell by your Galilean accent.”

<sup>74</sup>Peter swore, “A curse on me if I’m lying—I don’t know the man!” And immediately the rooster crowed.

<sup>75</sup>Suddenly, Jesus’ words flashed through Peter’s mind: “Before the rooster crows, you will deny three times that you even know me.” And he went away, weeping bitterly.

Matthew 27

Judas Hangs Himself

<sup>1</sup>Very early in the morning the leading priests and the elders of the people met again to lay plans for putting Jesus to death.

<sup>2</sup>Then they bound him, led him away, and took him to Pilate, the Roman governor.

<sup>3</sup>When Judas, who had betrayed him, realized that Jesus had been condemned to die, he was filled with remorse. So he took the thirty pieces of silver back to the leading priests and the elders. <sup>4</sup>“I have sinned,” he declared, “for I have betrayed an innocent man.”

“What do we care?” they retorted. “That’s your problem.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Judas threw the silver coins down in the Temple and went out and hanged himself.

<sup>6</sup>The leading priests picked up the coins. “It wouldn’t be right to put this money in the Temple treasury,” they said, “since it was payment for murder.”* <sup>7</sup>After some discussion they finally decided to buy the potter’s field, and they made it into a cemetery for foreigners. <sup>8</sup>That is why the field is still called the Field of Blood. <sup>9</sup>This fulfilled the prophecy of Jeremiah that says,

“They took* the thirty pieces of silver—the price at which he was valued by the people of Israel,

<sup>10</sup>and purchased the potter’s field,

as the LORD directed.*”

Jesus’ Trial before Pilate

<sup>11</sup>Now Jesus was standing before Pilate, the Roman governor. “Are you the king of the Jews?” the governor asked him.

Jesus replied, “You have said it.”

<sup>12</sup>But when the leading priests and the elders made their accusations against him, Jesus remained silent. <sup>13</sup>“Don’t you hear all these charges they are bringing against you?” Pilate demanded. <sup>14</sup>But Jesus made no response to any of the charges, much to the governor’s surprise.

<sup>15</sup>Now it was the governor’s custom each year during the Passover celebration to release one prisoner to the crowd—anyone they wanted. <sup>16</sup>This year there was a notorious prisoner, a man named Barabbas.* <sup>17</sup>As the crowds gathered before Pilate’s house that morning, he asked them, “Which one do you want me to release to you—Barabbas, or Jesus who is called the Messiah?” <sup>18</sup>(He knew very well that the religious leaders had arrested Jesus out of envy.)

<sup>19</sup>Just then, as Pilate was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent him this message: “Leave that innocent man alone. I suffered through a terrible nightmare about him last night.”

<sup>20</sup>Meanwhile, the leading priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas to be released and for Jesus to be put to death. <sup>21</sup>So the governor asked again, “Which of these two do you want me to release to you?”

The crowd shouted back, “Barabbas!”

<sup>22</sup>Pilate responded, “Then what should I do with Jesus who is called the Messiah?”

They shouted back, “Crucify him!”

<sup>23</sup>“Why?” Pilate demanded. “What crime has he committed?”

But the mob roared even louder, “Crucify him!”

Pontius Pilate

<sup>24</sup>Pilate saw that he wasn’t getting anywhere and that a riot was developing. So he sent for a bowl of water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, “I am innocent of this man’s blood. The responsibility is yours!”

<sup>25</sup>And all the people yelled back, “We will take responsibility for his death—we and our children!”*

<sup>26</sup> So Pilate released Barabbas to them. He ordered Jesus flogged with a lead-tipped whip, then turned him over to the Roman soldiers to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

<sup>27</sup>Some of the governor’s soldiers took Jesus into their headquarters* and called out the entire regiment. <sup>28</sup>They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him. <sup>29</sup>They wove thorn branches into a crown and put it on his head, and they placed a reed stick in his right hand as a scepter. Then they knelt before him in mockery and taunted, “Hail! King of the Jews!” <sup>30</sup>And they spit on him and grabbed the stick and struck him on the head with it. <sup>31</sup>When they were finally tired of mocking him, they took off the robe and put his own clothes on him again. Then they led him away to be crucified.

The Crucifixion

<sup>32</sup>Along the way, they came across a man named Simon, who was from Cyrene, * and the soldiers forced him to carry Jesus’ cross. <sup>33</sup>And they went out to a place called Golgotha (which means “Place of the Skull”). <sup>34</sup>The soldiers gave him wine mixed with bitter gall, but when he had tasted it, he refused to drink it.

<sup>35</sup>After they had nailed him to the cross, the soldiers gambled for his clothes by throwing dice. * <sup>36</sup>Then they sat around and kept guard as he hung there. <sup>37</sup>A sign was fastened above Jesus’ head, announcing the charge against him. It read: “This is Jesus, the King of the Jews.” <sup>38</sup>Two revolutionaries * were crucified with him, one on his right and one on his left.

<sup>39</sup>The people passing by shouted abuse, shaking their heads in mockery. <sup>40</sup>“Look at you now!” they yelled at him. “You said you were going to destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days. Well then, if you are the Son of God, save yourself and come down from the cross!”

<sup>41</sup>The leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders also mocked Jesus. <sup>42</sup>“He saved others,” they scoffed, “but he can’t save himself! So he is the King of Israel, is he?

Let him come down from the cross right now, and we will believe in him! <sup>43</sup>He trusted God, so let God rescue him now if he wants him! For he said, ‘I am the Son of God.’” <sup>44</sup>Even the revolutionaries who were crucified with him ridiculed him in the same way.

The Death of Jesus

<sup>45</sup>At noon, darkness fell across the whole land until three o’clock. <sup>46</sup>At about three o’clock, Jesus called out with a loud voice, “*Eli, Eli, * lema sabachthani?*” which means “My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?” *

<sup>47</sup>Some of the bystanders misunderstood and thought he was calling for the prophet Elijah. <sup>48</sup>One of them ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, holding it up to him on a reed stick so he could drink. <sup>49</sup>But the rest said, “Wait! Let’s see whether Elijah comes to save him.” *

<sup>50</sup>Then Jesus shouted out again, and he released his spirit. <sup>51</sup>At that moment the curtain in the sanctuary of the Temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. The earth shook, rocks split apart, <sup>52</sup>and tombs opened. The bodies of many godly men and women who had died were raised from the dead. <sup>53</sup>They left the cemetery after Jesus’ resurrection, went into the holy city of Jerusalem, and appeared to many people.

<sup>54</sup>The Roman officer * and the other soldiers at the crucifixion were terrified by the earthquake and all that had happened. They said, “This man truly was the Son of God!”

<sup>55</sup>And many women who had come from Galilee with Jesus to care for him were watching from a distance. <sup>56</sup>Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary (the mother of James and Joseph), and the mother of James and John, the sons of Zebedee.

The Burial of Jesus

<sup>57</sup> As evening approached, Joseph, a rich man from Arimathea who had become a follower of Jesus, <sup>58</sup> went to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body. And Pilate issued an order to release it to him. <sup>59</sup> Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a long sheet of clean linen cloth. <sup>60</sup> He placed it in his own new tomb, which had been carved out of the rock. Then he rolled a great stone across the entrance and left. <sup>61</sup> Both Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting across from the tomb and watching.

The Guard at the Tomb

<sup>62</sup> The next day, on the Sabbath, * the leading priests and Pharisees went to see Pilate. <sup>63</sup> They told him, "Sir, we remember what that deceiver once said while he was still alive: 'After three days I will rise from the dead.' <sup>64</sup> So we request that you seal the tomb until the third day. This will prevent his disciples from coming and stealing his body and then telling everyone he was raised from the dead! If that happens, we'll be worse off than we were at first."

<sup>66</sup> So they sealed the tomb and posted guards to protect it.

Matthew 28

The Resurrection

<sup>1</sup>Early on Sunday morning,* as the new day was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went out to visit the tomb.

<sup>2</sup>Suddenly there was a great earthquake! For an angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled aside the stone, and sat on it. <sup>3</sup>His face shone like lightning, and his clothing was as white as snow. <sup>4</sup>The guards shook with fear when they saw him, and they fell into a dead faint.

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel spoke to the women. “Don’t be afraid!” he said. “I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. <sup>6</sup>He isn’t here! He is risen from the dead, just as he said would happen. Come, see where his body was lying. <sup>7</sup>And now, go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and he is going ahead of you to Galilee. You will see him there. Remember what I have told you.”

<sup>8</sup>The women ran quickly from the tomb. They were very frightened but also filled with great joy, and they rushed to give the disciples the angel’s message. <sup>9</sup>And as they went, Jesus met them and greeted them. And they ran to him, grasped his feet, and worshiped him. <sup>10</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “Don’t be afraid! Go tell my brothers to leave for Galilee, and they will see me there.”

The Report of the Guard

<sup>11</sup>As the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and told the leading priests what had happened.

<sup>12</sup>A meeting with the elders was called, and they decided to give the soldiers a large bribe. <sup>13</sup>They told the soldiers, “You must say, ‘Jesus’ disciples came during the night while we were sleeping, and they stole his body.’” <sup>14</sup>If the governor hears about it, we’ll stand up for you so you won’t get in trouble.”

<sup>15</sup>So the guards accepted the bribe and said what they were told to say. Their story spread widely among the Jews, and they still tell it today.

The Great Commission

<sup>16</sup> Then the eleven disciples left for Galilee, going to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. <sup>17</sup>When they saw him, they worshiped him—but some of them doubted!

<sup>18</sup>Jesus came and told his disciples, “I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth. <sup>19</sup>Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, * baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. <sup>20</sup>Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

WORTH MEMORIZING

7:20-23

It is what comes from inside that defiles you. For from within, out of a person’s heart, come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, envy, slander, pride, and foolishness. All these vile things come from within; they are what defile you.

9:36-37

Then he put a little child among them. Taking the child in his arms, he said to them, “Anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not only me but also my Father who sent me.”

10:42-45

Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers in this world lord it over their people, and officials flaunt their authority over those under them. But among you it will be different. Whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first among you must be the slave of everyone else. For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

RESPONSIBLE ACTION.

Mark is an active, energetic book, and many men prefer action to long study. Jesus is a mover and shaker, seldom standing still. He had a busy, full life. There was work to do, and he did it. But he didn't burn himself out. He took time to recharge by rest and prayer. And he made time for children and needy people.

Mark 1

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

<sup>1</sup> This is the Good News about Jesus the Messiah, the Son of God.* It began <sup>2</sup>just as the prophet Isaiah had written:

“Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you,
and he will prepare your way.*

<sup>3</sup>He is a voice shouting in the wilderness,

‘Prepare the way for the LORD’s coming!

Clear the road for him!’*”

<sup>4</sup>This messenger was John the Baptist. He was in the wilderness and preached that people should be baptized to show that they had repented of their sins and turned to God to be forgiven. <sup>5</sup>All of Judea, including all the people of Jerusalem, went out to see and hear John. And when they confessed their sins, he baptized them in the Jordan River. <sup>6</sup>His clothes were woven from coarse camel hair, and he wore a leather belt around his waist. For food he ate locusts and wild honey.

<sup>7</sup>John announced: “Someone is coming soon who is greater than I am—so much greater that I’m not even worthy to stoop down like a slave and untie the straps of his sandals. <sup>8</sup>I baptize you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit!”

The Baptism and Temptation of Jesus

<sup>9</sup>One day Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee, and John baptized him in the Jordan River. <sup>10</sup>As Jesus came up out of the water, he saw the heavens splitting apart and the Holy Spirit descending on him like a dove. <sup>11</sup>And a voice from heaven said, “You are my dearly loved Son, and you bring me great joy.”

<sup>12</sup>The Spirit then compelled Jesus to go into the wilderness, <sup>13</sup>where he was tempted by Satan for forty days. He was out among the wild animals, and angels took care of him.

<sup>14</sup>Later on, after John was arrested, Jesus went into Galilee, where he preached God’s Good News. “The time promised by God has come at last!” <sup>15</sup>he announced. “The Kingdom of God is near! Repent of your sins and believe the Good News!”

The First Disciples

<sup>16</sup>One day as Jesus was walking along the shore of the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon* and his brother Andrew throwing a net into the water, for they fished for a living. <sup>17</sup>Jesus called out to them, “Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!” <sup>18</sup>And they left their nets at once and followed him.

spotlight

HOW MUCH WATER?

Both the Jordan River and the Sea of Galilee are famous backdrops for the activity of Jesus. Just how big are they? Take a guess:

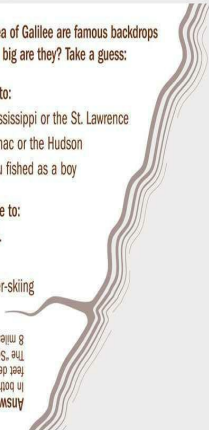

The Jordan River is comparable to:

- A major waterway like the Mississippi or the St. Lawrence
- A regional river like the Potomac or the Hudson
- The modest stream where you fished as a boy

The Sea of Galilee is comparable to:

- Lake Michigan, Lake Erie, etc.
- Utah's Great Salt Lake
- Your favorite place to go water-skiing

Answers:
In both cases, "c." The Jordan runs from 3 to 10 feet deep and never more than 35 yards across. The "Sea" of Galilee is actually just 13 miles by 8 miles.

<sup>19</sup>A little farther up the shore Jesus saw Zebedee's sons, James and John, in a boat repairing their nets. <sup>20</sup>He called them at once, and they also followed him, leaving their father, Zebedee, in the boat with the hired men.

Jesus Casts Out an Evil Spirit

<sup>21</sup> Jesus and his companions went to the town of Capernaum. When the Sabbath day came, he went into the synagogue and began to teach. <sup>22</sup>The people were amazed at his teaching, for he taught with real authority—quite unlike the teachers of religious law.

<sup>23</sup> Suddenly, a man in the synagogue who was possessed by an evil* spirit began shouting, <sup>24</sup>“Why are you interfering with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!”

<sup>25</sup> Jesus cut him short. “Be quiet! Come out of the man,” he ordered. <sup>26</sup>At that, the evil spirit screamed, threw the man into a convulsion, and then came out of him.

<sup>27</sup> Amazement gripped the audience, and they began to discuss what had happened. “What sort of new teaching is this?” they asked excitedly. “It has such authority! Even evil spirits obey his orders!” <sup>28</sup>The news about Jesus spread quickly throughout the entire region of Galilee.

Jesus Heals Many People

<sup>29</sup> After Jesus left the synagogue with James and John, they went to Simon and Andrew’s home. <sup>30</sup> Now Simon’s mother-in-law was sick in bed with a high fever. They told Jesus about her right away. <sup>31</sup> So he went to her bedside, took her by the hand, and helped her sit up. Then the fever left her, and she prepared a meal for them.

<sup>32</sup>That evening after sunset, many sick and demon-possessed people were brought to Jesus. <sup>33</sup>The whole town gathered at the door to watch. <sup>34</sup>So Jesus healed many people who were sick with various diseases, and he cast out many demons. But because the demons knew who he was, he did not allow them to speak.

Jesus Preaches in Galilee

<sup>35</sup>Before daybreak the next morning, Jesus got up and went out to an isolated place to pray. <sup>36</sup>Later Simon and the others went out to find him. <sup>37</sup>When they found him, they said, “Everyone is looking for you.”

<sup>38</sup>But Jesus replied, “We must go on to other towns as well, and I will preach to them, too. That is why I came.” <sup>39</sup>So he traveled throughout the region of Galilee, preaching in the synagogues and casting out demons.

Jesus Heals a Man with Leprosy

<sup>40</sup>A man with leprosy came and knelt in front of Jesus, begging to be healed. “If you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean,” he said.

<sup>41</sup>Moved with compassion, * Jesus reached out and touched him. “I am willing,” he said. “Be healed!” <sup>42</sup>Instantly the leprosy disappeared, and the man was healed. <sup>43</sup>Then Jesus sent him on his way with a stern warning: <sup>44</sup>“Don’t tell anyone about this. Instead, go to the priest and let him examine you. Take along the offering required in the law of Moses for those who have been healed of leprosy.* This will be a public testimony that you have been cleansed.”

<sup>45</sup>But the man went and spread the word, proclaiming to everyone what had happened. As a result, large crowds soon surrounded Jesus, and he couldn’t publicly enter a town anywhere. He had to stay out in the secluded places, but people from everywhere kept coming to him.

Mark 2

Jesus Heals a Paralyzed Man

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus returned to Capernaum several days later, the news spread quickly that he was back home. <sup>2</sup>Soon the house where he was staying was so packed with visitors that there was no more room, even outside the door. While he was preaching God's word to them, <sup>3</sup>four men arrived carrying a paralyzed man on a mat. <sup>4</sup>They couldn't bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, so they dug a hole through the roof above his head. Then they lowered the man on his mat, right down in front of Jesus. <sup>5</sup>Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralyzed man, "My child, your sins are forgiven."

<sup>6</sup>But some of the teachers of religious law who were sitting there thought to themselves, <sup>7</sup>"What is he saying? This is blasphemy! Only God can forgive sins!"

<sup>8</sup>Jesus knew immediately what they were thinking, so he asked them, "Why do you question this in your hearts? <sup>9</sup>Is it easier to say to the paralyzed man 'Your sins are forgiven,' or 'Stand up, pick up your mat, and walk'? <sup>10</sup>So I will prove to you that the Son of Man* has the authority on earth to forgive sins." Then Jesus turned to the paralyzed man and said, <sup>11</sup>"Stand up, pick up your mat, and go home!"

<sup>12</sup>And the man jumped up, grabbed his mat, and walked out through the stunned onlookers. They were all amazed and praised God, exclaiming, "We've never seen anything like this before!”

Jesus Calls Levi (Matthew)

13 Then Jesus went out to the lakeshore again and taught the crowds that were coming to him. <sup>14</sup>As he walked along, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at his tax collector’s booth. “Follow me and be my disciple,” Jesus said to him. So Levi got up and followed him.

<sup>15</sup>Later, Levi invited Jesus and his disciples to his home as dinner guests, along with many tax collectors and other disreputable sinners. (There were many people of this kind among Jesus’ followers.) <sup>16</sup>But when the teachers of religious law who were Pharisees * saw him eating with tax collectors and other sinners, they asked his disciples, “Why does he eat with such scum?*”

<sup>17</sup>When Jesus heard this, he told them, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor—sick people do. I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners.”

A Discussion about Fasting

18 Once when John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, some people came to Jesus and asked, “Why don’t your disciples fast like John’s disciples and the Pharisees do?”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus replied, “Do wedding guests fast while celebrating with the groom? Of course not. They can’t fast while the groom is with them. <sup>20</sup>But someday the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.

<sup>22</sup>“And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. For the wine would burst the wineskins, and the wine and the skins would both be lost. New wine calls for new wineskins.”

A Discussion about the Sabbath

<sup>23</sup> One Sabbath day as Jesus was walking through some grainfields, his disciples began breaking off heads of grain to eat. <sup>24</sup>But the Pharisees said to Jesus, “Look, why are they breaking the law by harvesting grain on the Sabbath?”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus said to them, “Haven’t you ever read in the Scriptures what David did when he and his companions were hungry? <sup>26</sup>He went into the house of God (during the days when Abiathar was high priest) and broke the law by eating the sacred loaves of bread that only the priests are allowed to eat. He also gave some to his companions.”

<sup>27</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “The Sabbath was made to meet the needs of people, and not people to meet the requirements of the Sabbath. <sup>28</sup>So the Son of Man is Lord, even over the Sabbath!”

Mark 3

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

<sup>1</sup> Jesus went into the synagogue again and noticed a man with a deformed hand. <sup>2</sup>Since it was the Sabbath, Jesus' enemies watched him closely. If he healed the man's hand, they planned to accuse him of working on the Sabbath.

<sup>3</sup>Jesus said to the man with the deformed hand, "Come and stand in front of everyone." <sup>4</sup>Then he turned to his critics and asked, "Does the law permit good deeds on the Sabbath, or is it a day for doing evil? Is this a day to save life or to destroy it?" But they wouldn't answer him.

<sup>5</sup>He looked around at them angrily and was deeply saddened by their hard hearts. Then he said to the man, "Hold out your hand." So the man held out his hand, and it was restored! <sup>6</sup>At once the Pharisees went away and met with the supporters of Herod to plot how to kill Jesus.

Crowds Follow Jesus

<sup>7</sup> Jesus went out to the lake with his disciples, and a large crowd followed him. They came from all over Galilee, Judea, <sup>8</sup>Jerusalem, Idumea, from east of the Jordan River, and even from as far north as Tyre and Sidon. The news about his miracles had spread far and wide, and vast numbers of people came to see him.

<sup>9</sup>Jesus instructed his disciples to have a boat ready so the crowd would not crush him. <sup>10</sup>He had healed many people that day, so all the sick people eagerly pushed forward to touch him. <sup>11</sup>And whenever those possessed by evil* spirits caught sight of him, the spirits would throw them to the ground in front of him shrieking, “You are the Son of God!” <sup>12</sup>But Jesus sternly commanded the spirits not to reveal who he was.

Jesus Chooses the Twelve Apostles

<sup>13</sup>Afterward Jesus went up on a mountain and called out the ones he wanted to go with him. And they came to him. <sup>14</sup>Then he appointed twelve of them and called them his apostles.* They were to accompany him, and he would send them out to preach, <sup>15</sup>giving them authority to cast out demons. <sup>16</sup>These are the twelve he chose:

Simon (whom he named Peter),

<sup>17</sup>James and John (the sons of Zebedee, but Jesus nicknamed them “Sons of Thunder”*), <sup>18</sup>Andrew,

Philip,

Bartholomew,

Matthew,

Thomas,

James (son of Alphaeus),

Thaddaeus,

Simon (the zealot*),

<sup>19</sup>Judas Iscariot (who later betrayed him).

Jesus and the Prince of Demons

<sup>20</sup>One time Jesus entered a house, and the crowds began to gather again. Soon he and his disciples couldn't even find time to eat. <sup>21</sup>When his family heard what was happening, they tried to take him away. "He's out of his mind," they said.

<sup>22</sup>But the teachers of religious law who had arrived from Jerusalem said, "He's possessed by Satan,* the prince of demons. That's where he gets the power to cast out demons."

<sup>28</sup>"I tell you the truth, all sin and blasphemy can be forgiven, <sup>29</sup>but anyone who blasphemes the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven. This is a sin with eternal consequences." <sup>30</sup>He told them this because they were saying, "He's possessed by an evil spirit."

The True Family of Jesus

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus' mother and brothers came to see him. They stood outside and sent word for him to come out and talk with them. <sup>32</sup>There was a crowd sitting around Jesus, and someone said, "Your mother and your brothers* are outside asking for you."

<sup>33</sup>Jesus replied, “Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?”
<sup>34</sup>Then he looked at those around him and said, “Look, these are my mother and brothers. <sup>35</sup>Anyone who does God’s will is my brother and sister and mother.”

Mark 4

Parable of the Farmer Scattering Seed

<sup>1</sup> Once again Jesus began teaching by the lakeshore. A very large crowd soon gathered around him, so he got into a boat. Then he sat in the boat while all the people remained on the shore. <sup>2</sup>He taught them by telling many stories in the form of parables, such as this one:

<sup>10</sup>Later, when Jesus was alone with the twelve disciples and with the others who were gathered around, they asked him what the parables meant.

<sup>11</sup>He replied, “You are permitted to understand the secret * of the Kingdom of God. But I use parables for everything I say to outsiders, <sup>12</sup>so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled:

‘When they see what I do,
they will learn nothing.
When they hear what I say,
they will not understand.
Otherwise, they will turn to me
and be forgiven.’*”

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “If you can’t understand the meaning of this parable, how will you understand all the other parables? <sup>14</sup>The farmer plants seed by taking God’s word to others. <sup>15</sup>The seed that fell on the footpath represents those who hear the message, only to have Satan come at once and take it away. <sup>16</sup>The seed on the rocky soil represents those who hear the message and immediately receive it with joy. <sup>17</sup>But since they don’t have deep roots, they don’t last long. They fall away as soon as they have problems or are persecuted for believing God’s word. <sup>18</sup>The seed that fell among the thorns represents others who hear God’s word, <sup>19</sup>but all too quickly the message is crowded out by the worries of this life, the lure of wealth, and the desire for other things, so no fruit is produced. <sup>20</sup>And the seed that fell on good soil represents those who hear and accept God’s word and produce a harvest of thirty, sixty, or even a hundred times as much as had been planted!”

Parable of the Lamp

21 Then Jesus asked them, “Would anyone light a lamp and then put it under a basket or under a bed? Of course not! A lamp is placed on a stand, where its light will shine. <sup>22</sup>For everything that is hidden will eventually be brought into the open, and every secret will be brought to light. <sup>23</sup>Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand.”

<sup>24</sup>Then he added, “Pay close attention to what you hear. The closer you listen, the more understanding you will be given*—and you will receive even more. <sup>25</sup>To those who listen to my teaching, more understanding will be given. But for those who are not listening, even what little understanding they have will be taken away from them.”

Parable of the Growing Seed

<sup>26</sup> Jesus also said, “The Kingdom of God is like a farmer who scatters seed on the ground. <sup>27</sup>Night and day, while he’s asleep or awake, the seed sprouts and grows, but he does not understand how it happens. <sup>28</sup>The earth produces the crops on its own. First a leaf blade pushes through, then the heads of wheat are formed, and finally the grain ripens. <sup>29</sup>And as soon as the grain is ready, the farmer comes and harvests it with a sickle, for the harvest time has come.”

Parable of the Mustard Seed

<sup>30</sup> Jesus said, “How can I describe the Kingdom of God? What story should I use to illustrate it? <sup>31</sup>It is like a mustard seed planted in the ground. It is the smallest of all seeds, <sup>32</sup>but it becomes the largest of all garden plants; it grows long branches, and birds can make nests in its shade.”

<sup>33</sup>Jesus used many similar stories and illustrations to teach the people as much as they could understand. <sup>34</sup>In fact, in his public ministry he never taught without using parables; but afterward, when he was alone with his disciples, he explained everything to them.

Jesus Calms the Storm

<sup>35</sup>As evening came, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let’s cross to the other side of the lake.” <sup>36</sup>So they took Jesus in the boat and started out, leaving the crowds behind (although other boats followed). <sup>37</sup>But soon a fierce storm came up. High waves were breaking into the boat, and it began to fill with water.

<sup>38</sup>Jesus was sleeping at the back of the boat with his head on a cushion. The disciples woke him up, shouting, “Teacher, don’t you care that we’re going to drown?”

<sup>39</sup>When Jesus woke up, he rebuked the wind and said to the waves, “Silence! Be still!” Suddenly the wind stopped, and there was a great calm. <sup>40</sup>Then he asked them, “Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?”

<sup>41</sup>The disciples were absolutely terrified. “Who is this man?” they asked each other. “Even the wind and waves obey him!”

Mark 5

Jesus Heals a Demon-Possessed Man

<sup>1</sup> So they arrived at the other side of the lake, in the region of the Gerasenes. <sup>2</sup> When Jesus climbed out of the boat, a man possessed by an evil* spirit came out from a cemetery to meet him. <sup>3</sup> This man lived among the burial caves and could no longer be restrained, even with a chain. <sup>4</sup> Whenever he was put into chains and shackles—as he often was—he snapped the chains from his wrists and smashed the shackles. No one was strong enough to subdue him. <sup>5</sup> Day and night he wandered among the burial caves and in the hills, howling and cutting himself with sharp stones.

<sup>6</sup> When Jesus was still some distance away, the man saw him, ran to meet him, and bowed low before him. <sup>7</sup> With a shriek, he screamed, “Why are you interfering with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? In the name of God, I beg you, don’t torture me!” <sup>8</sup> For Jesus had already said to the spirit, “Come out of the man, you evil spirit.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus demanded, “What is your name?”

And he replied, “My name is Legion, because there are many of us inside this man.” <sup>10</sup> Then the evil spirits begged him again and again not to send them to some distant place.

<sup>11</sup> There happened to be a large herd of pigs feeding on the hillside nearby. <sup>12</sup> “Send us into those pigs,” the spirits begged. “Let us enter them.”

<sup>13</sup>So Jesus gave them permission. The evil spirits came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the entire herd of about 2,000 pigs plunged down the steep hillside into the lake and drowned in the water.

<sup>14</sup>The herdsmen fled to the nearby town and the surrounding countryside, spreading the news as they ran. People rushed out to see what had happened. <sup>15</sup>A crowd soon gathered around Jesus, and they saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons. He was sitting there fully clothed and perfectly sane, and they were all afraid. <sup>16</sup>Then those who had seen what happened told the others about the demon-possessed man and the pigs. <sup>17</sup>And the crowd began pleading with Jesus to go away and leave them alone.

<sup>18</sup>As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon possessed begged to go with him. <sup>19</sup>But Jesus said, “No, go home to your family, and tell them everything the Lord has done for you and how merciful he has been.” <sup>20</sup>So the man started off to visit the Ten Towns * of that region and began to proclaim the great things Jesus had done for him; and everyone was amazed at what he told them.

Jesus Heals in Response to Faith

<sup>21</sup>Jesus got into the boat again and went back to the other side of the lake, where a large crowd gathered around him on the shore. <sup>22</sup>Then a leader of the local synagogue, whose name was Jairus, arrived. When he saw Jesus, he fell at his feet, <sup>23</sup>pleading fervently with him. “My little daughter is dying,” he said. “Please come and lay your hands on her; heal her so she can live.”

<sup>24</sup>Jesus went with him, and all the people followed, crowding around him. <sup>25</sup>A woman in the crowd had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding. <sup>26</sup>She had suffered a great deal from many doctors, and over the years she had spent everything she had to pay them, but she had gotten no better. In fact, she had gotten worse. <sup>27</sup>She had heard about Jesus, so she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his robe. <sup>28</sup>For she thought to herself, “If I can just touch his robe, I will be healed.” <sup>29</sup>Immediately the bleeding stopped, and she could feel in her body that she had been healed of her terrible condition.

<sup>30</sup>Jesus realized at once that healing power had gone out from him, so he turned around in the crowd and asked, “Who touched my robe?”

<sup>31</sup>His disciples said to him, “Look at this crowd pressing around you. How can you ask, ‘Who touched me?’”

<sup>32</sup>But he kept on looking around to see who had done it.

<sup>33</sup>Then the frightened woman, trembling at the realization of what had happened to her, came and fell to her knees in front of him and told him what she had done. <sup>34</sup>And he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace. Your suffering is over.”

<sup>35</sup>While he was still speaking to her, messengers arrived from the home of Jairus, the leader of the synagogue. They told him, “Your daughter is dead. There’s no use troubling the Teacher now.”

<sup>36</sup>But Jesus overheard* them and said to Jairus, “Don’t be afraid. Just have faith.”

<sup>37</sup>Then Jesus stopped the crowd and wouldn’t let anyone go with him except Peter, James, and John (the brother of James).

<sup>38</sup>When they came to the home of the synagogue leader, Jesus saw much commotion and weeping and wailing. <sup>39</sup>He went inside and asked, “Why all this commotion and weeping? The child isn’t dead; she’s only asleep.”

<sup>40</sup>The crowd laughed at him. But he made them all leave, and he took the girl’s father and mother and his three disciples into the room where the girl was lying. <sup>41</sup>Holding her hand, he said to her, “Talitha kum,” which means “Little girl, get up!”

<sup>42</sup>And the girl, who was twelve years old, immediately stood up and walked around! They were overwhelmed and totally amazed. <sup>43</sup>Jesus gave them strict orders not to tell anyone what had happened, and then he told them to give her something to eat.

Mark 6

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

<sup>1</sup> Jesus left that part of the country and returned with his disciples to Nazareth, his hometown. <sup>2</sup>The next Sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue, and many who heard him were amazed. They asked, “Where did he get all this wisdom and the power to perform such miracles?” <sup>3</sup>Then they scoffed, “He’s just a carpenter, the son of Mary * and the brother of James, Joseph, * Judas, and Simon. And his sisters live right here among us.” They were deeply offended and refused to believe in him.

<sup>4</sup>Then Jesus told them, “A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own hometown and among his relatives and his own family.” <sup>5</sup>And because of their unbelief, he couldn’t do any miracles among them except to place his hands on a few sick people and heal them. <sup>6</sup>And he was amazed at their unbelief.

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve Disciples

Then Jesus went from village to village, teaching the people. <sup>7</sup>And he called his twelve disciples together and began sending them out two by two, giving them authority to cast out evil * spirits. <sup>8</sup>He told them to take nothing for their journey except a walking stick—no food, no traveler’s bag, no money. * <sup>9</sup>He allowed them to wear sandals but not to take a change of clothes.

<sup>10</sup>“Wherever you go,” he said, “stay in the same house until you leave town. <sup>11</sup>But if any place refuses to welcome you or listen to you, shake its dust from your feet as you leave to show that you have abandoned those people to their fate.”

<sup>12</sup>So the disciples went out, telling everyone they met to repent of their sins and turn to God. <sup>13</sup>And they cast out many demons and healed many sick people, anointing them with olive oil.

The Death of John the Baptist

<sup>14</sup> Herod Antipas, the king, soon heard about Jesus, because everyone was talking about him. Some were saying, *“This must be John the Baptist raised from the dead. That is why he can do such miracles.” <sup>15</sup>Others said, “He’s the prophet Elijah.” Still others said, “He’s a prophet like the other great prophets of the past.”

<sup>16</sup>When Herod heard about Jesus, he said, “John, the man I beheaded, has come back from the dead.”

<sup>17</sup>For Herod had sent soldiers to arrest and imprison John as a favor to Herodias. She had been his brother Philip’s wife, but Herod had married her. <sup>18</sup>John had been telling Herod, “It is against God’s law for you to marry your brother’s wife.” <sup>19</sup>So Herodias bore a grudge against John and wanted to kill him. But without Herod’s approval she was powerless, <sup>20</sup>for Herod respected John; and knowing that he was a good and holy man, he protected him. Herod was greatly disturbed whenever he talked with John, but even so, he liked to listen to him.

<sup>21</sup>Herodias's chance finally came on Herod's birthday. He gave a party for his high government officials, army officers, and the leading citizens of Galilee. <sup>22</sup>Then his daughter, also named Herodias, * came in and performed a dance that greatly pleased Herod and his guests. "Ask me for anything you like," the king said to the girl, "and I will give it to you." <sup>23</sup>He even vowed, "I will give you whatever you ask, up to half my kingdom!"

<sup>24</sup>She went out and asked her mother, "What should I ask for?"

Her mother told her, "Ask for the head of John the Baptist!"

<sup>25</sup>So the girl hurried back to the king and told him, "I want the head of John the Baptist, right now, on a tray!"

<sup>26</sup>Then the king deeply regretted what he had said; but because of the vows he had made in front of his guests, he couldn't refuse her. <sup>27</sup>So he immediately sent an executioner to the prison to cut off John's head and bring it to him. The soldier beheaded John in the prison, <sup>28</sup>brought his head on a tray, and gave it to the girl, who took it to her mother. <sup>29</sup>When John's disciples heard what had happened, they came to get his body and buried it in a tomb.

Jesus Feeds Five Thousand

<sup>30</sup> The apostles returned to Jesus from their ministry tour and told him all they had done and taught. <sup>31</sup>Then Jesus said, "Let's go off by ourselves to a quiet place and rest awhile." He said this because there were so many people coming and going that Jesus and his apostles didn't even have time to eat.

<sup>32</sup>So they left by boat for a quiet place, where they could be alone. <sup>33</sup>But many people recognized them and saw them leaving, and people from many towns ran ahead along the shore and got there ahead of them. <sup>34</sup>Jesus saw the huge crowd as he stepped from the boat, and he had compassion on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things.

<sup>35</sup>Late in the afternoon his disciples came to him and said, “This is a remote place, and it’s already getting late. <sup>36</sup>Send the crowds away so they can go to the nearby farms and villages and buy something to eat.”

“With what?” they asked. “We’d have to work for months to earn enough money* to buy food for all these people!”

<sup>38</sup>“How much bread do you have?” he asked. “Go and find out.”

They came back and reported, “We have five loaves of bread and two fish.”

<sup>39</sup>Then Jesus told the disciples to have the people sit down in groups on the green grass. <sup>40</sup>So they sat down in groups of fifty or a hundred.

<sup>41</sup>Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them. Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he kept giving the bread to the disciples so they could distribute it to the people. He also divided the fish for everyone to share. <sup>42</sup>They all ate as much as they wanted, <sup>43</sup>and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftover bread and fish. <sup>44</sup>A total of 5,000 men and their families were fed from those loaves!

Jesus Walks on Water

<sup>45</sup> Immediately after this, Jesus insisted that his disciples get back into the boat and head across the lake to Bethsaida, while he sent the people home. <sup>46</sup>After telling everyone good-bye, he went up into the hills by himself to pray.

<sup>47</sup>Late that night, the disciples were in their boat in the middle of the lake, and Jesus was alone on land. <sup>48</sup>He saw that they were in serious trouble, rowing hard and struggling against the wind and waves. About three o'clock in the morning * Jesus came toward them, walking on the water. He intended to go past them, <sup>49</sup>but when they saw him walking on the water, they cried out in terror, thinking he was a ghost. <sup>50</sup>They were all terrified when they saw him.

But Jesus spoke to them at once. “Don’t be afraid,” he said. “Take courage! I am here! *” <sup>51</sup>Then he climbed into the boat, and the wind stopped. They were totally amazed, <sup>52</sup>for they still didn’t understand the significance of the miracle of the loaves. Their hearts were too hard to take it in.

<sup>53</sup>After they had crossed the lake, they landed at Gennesaret. They brought the boat to shore <sup>54</sup>and climbed out. The people recognized Jesus at once, <sup>55</sup>and they ran throughout the whole area, carrying sick people on mats to wherever they heard he was. <sup>56</sup>Wherever he went—in villages, cities, or the countryside—they brought the sick out to the marketplaces. They begged him to let the sick touch at least the fringe of his robe, and all who touched him were healed.

Jesus Teaches about Inner Purity

<sup>1</sup> One day some Pharisees and teachers of religious law arrived from Jerusalem to see Jesus. <sup>2</sup>They noticed that some of his disciples failed to follow the Jewish ritual of hand washing before eating. <sup>3</sup>(The Jews, especially the Pharisees, do not eat until they have poured water over their cupped hands,* as required by their ancient traditions. <sup>4</sup>Similarly, they don't eat anything from the market until they immerse their hands* in water. This is but one of many traditions they have clung to—such as their ceremonial washing of cups, pitchers, and kettles.*)

<sup>5</sup>So the Pharisees and teachers of religious law asked him, “Why don't your disciples follow our age-old tradition? They eat without first performing the hand-washing ceremony.”

<sup>6</sup>Jesus replied, “You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you, for he wrote,

‘These people honor me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me.

<sup>7</sup>Their worship is a farce,
for they teach man-made ideas as commands from God.’*

<sup>8</sup>For you ignore God's law and substitute your own tradition.”

<sup>9</sup>Then he said, “You skillfully sidestep God's law in order to hold on to your own tradition. <sup>10</sup>For instance, Moses gave you this law from God: ‘Honor your father and mother,’* and ‘Anyone who speaks disrespectfully of father or mother must be put to death.’* <sup>11</sup>But you say it is all right for people to say to their parents, ‘Sorry, I can’t help you. For I have vowed to give to God what I would have given to you.’* <sup>12</sup>In this way, you let them disregard their needy parents. <sup>13</sup>And so you cancel the word of God in order to hand down your own tradition. And this is only one example among many others.”

<sup>14</sup> Then Jesus called to the crowd to come and hear. “All of you listen,” he said, “and try to understand. <sup>15</sup>It’s not what goes into your body that defiles you; you are defiled by what comes from your heart.*”

<sup>17</sup>Then Jesus went into a house to get away from the crowd, and his disciples asked him what he meant by the parable he had just used. <sup>18</sup>“Don’t you understand either?” he asked. “Can’t you see that the food you put into your body cannot defile you? <sup>19</sup>Food doesn’t go into your heart, but only passes through the stomach and then goes into the sewer.” (By saying this, he declared that every kind of food is acceptable in God’s eyes.)

The Faith of a Gentile Woman

<sup>24</sup> Then Jesus left Galilee and went north to the region of Tyre.* He didn't want anyone to know which house he was staying in, but he couldn't keep it a secret. <sup>25</sup> Right away a woman who had heard about him came and fell at his feet. Her little girl was possessed by an evil* spirit, <sup>26</sup> and she begged him to cast out the demon from her daughter.

Since she was a Gentile, born in Syrian Phoenicia, <sup>27</sup> Jesus told her, "First I should feed the children—my own family, the Jews.* It isn't right to take food from the children and throw it to the dogs."

<sup>28</sup> She replied, "That's true, Lord, but even the dogs under the table are allowed to eat the scraps from the children's plates."

<sup>29</sup> "Good answer!" he said. "Now go home, for the demon has left your daughter." <sup>30</sup> And when she arrived home, she found her little girl lying quietly in bed, and the demon was gone.

Demons and Dogs

Jesus Heals a Deaf Man

<sup>31</sup> Jesus left Tyre and went up to Sidon before going back to the Sea of Galilee and the region of the Ten Towns.* <sup>32</sup> A deaf man with a speech impediment was brought to him, and the people begged Jesus to lay his hands on the man to heal him.

<sup>33</sup> Jesus led him away from the crowd so they could be alone. He put his fingers into the man's ears. Then, spitting on his own fingers, he touched the man's tongue.<sup>34</sup> Looking up to heaven, he sighed and said, "Ephphatha," which means, "Be opened!"<sup>35</sup> Instantly the man could hear perfectly, and his tongue was freed so he could speak plainly!

<sup>36</sup>Jesus told the crowd not to tell anyone, but the more he told them not to, the more they spread the news.<sup>37</sup> They were completely amazed and said again and again, "Everything he does is wonderful. He even makes the deaf to hear and gives speech to those who cannot speak."

Mark 8

Jesus Feeds Four Thousand

<sup>1</sup> About this time another large crowd had gathered, and the people ran out of food again. Jesus called his disciples and told them, <sup>2</sup>“I feel sorry for these people. They have been here with me for three days, and they have nothing left to eat. <sup>3</sup>If I send them home hungry, they will faint along the way. For some of them have come a long distance.”

<sup>4</sup>His disciples replied, “How are we supposed to find enough food to feed them out here in the wilderness?”

“Seven loaves,” they replied.

<sup>6</sup>So Jesus told all the people to sit down on the ground. Then he took the seven loaves, thanked God for them, and broke them into pieces. He gave them to his disciples, who distributed the bread to the crowd. <sup>7</sup>A few small fish were found, too, so Jesus also blessed these and told the disciples to distribute them.

<sup>8</sup>They ate as much as they wanted. Afterward, the disciples picked up seven large baskets of leftover food. <sup>9</sup>There were about 4,000 people in the crowd that day, and Jesus sent them home after they had eaten. <sup>10</sup> Immediately after this, he got into a boat with his disciples and crossed over to the region of Dalmanutha.

Pharisees Demand a Miraculous Sign

<sup>11</sup>When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had arrived, they came and started to argue with him. Testing him, they demanded that he show them a miraculous sign from heaven to prove his authority.

<sup>12</sup>When he heard this, he sighed deeply in his spirit and said, “Why do these people keep demanding a miraculous sign? I tell you the truth, I will not give this generation any such sign.”

<sup>13</sup>So he got back into the boat and left them, and he crossed to the other side of the lake.

Yeast of the Pharisees and Herod

<sup>14</sup>But the disciples had forgotten to bring any food. They had only one loaf of bread with them in the boat. <sup>15</sup>As they were crossing the lake, Jesus warned them, “Watch out! Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and of Herod.”

<sup>16</sup>At this they began to argue with each other because they hadn’t brought any bread. <sup>17</sup>Jesus knew what they were saying, so he said, “Why are you arguing about having no bread? Don’t you know or understand even yet? Are your hearts too hard to take it in? <sup>18</sup>“You have eyes—can’t you see? You have ears—can’t you hear?”* <sup>19</sup>Don’t you remember anything at all? <sup>19</sup>When I fed the 5,000 with five loaves of bread, how many baskets of leftovers did you pick up afterward?”

“Twelve,” they said.

<sup>20</sup>“And when I fed the 4,000 with seven loaves, how many large baskets of leftovers did you pick up?”

“Seven,” they said.

<sup>21</sup>“Don’t you understand yet?” he asked them.

Jesus Heals a Blind Man

<sup>22</sup>When they arrived at Bethsaida, some people brought a blind man to Jesus, and they begged him to touch the man and heal him. <sup>23</sup>Jesus took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village. Then, spitting on the man’s eyes, he laid his hands on him and asked, “Can you see anything now?”

<sup>25</sup>Then Jesus placed his hands on the man’s eyes again, and his eyes were opened. His sight was completely restored, and he could see everything clearly. <sup>26</sup>Jesus sent him away, saying, “Don’t go back into the village on your way home.”

Peter’s Declaration about Jesus

<sup>27</sup>Jesus and his disciples left Galilee and went up to the villages near Caesarea Philippi. As they were walking along, he asked them, “Who do people say I am?”

<sup>28</sup>“Well,” they replied, “some say John the Baptist, some say Elijah, and others say you are one of the other prophets.”

<sup>29</sup>Then he asked them, “But who do you say I am?”

Peter replied, “You are the Messiah.*”

<sup>30</sup>But Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about him.

Jesus Predicts His Death

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus began to tell them that the Son of Man* must suffer many terrible things and be rejected by the elders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He would be killed, but three days later he would rise from the dead. <sup>32</sup>As he talked about this openly with his disciples, Peter took him aside and began to reprimand him for saying such things.*

<sup>33</sup>Jesus turned around and looked at his disciples, then reprimanded Peter. “Get away from me, Satan!” he said. “You are seeing things merely from a human point of view, not from God’s.”

<sup>34</sup>Then, calling the crowd to join his disciples, he said, “If any of you wants to be my follower, you must turn from your selfish ways, take up your cross, and follow me. <sup>35</sup>If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake and for the sake of the Good News, you will save it. <sup>36</sup>And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but lose your own soul? * <sup>37</sup>Is anything worth more than your soul? <sup>38</sup>If anyone is ashamed of me and my message in these adulterous and sinful days, the Son of Man will be ashamed of that person when he returns in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

Mark 9

<sup>1</sup>Jesus went on to say, “I tell you the truth, some standing here right now will not die before they see the Kingdom of God arrive in great power!”

The Transfiguration

<sup>2</sup>Six days later Jesus took Peter, James, and John, and led them up a high mountain to be alone. As the men watched, Jesus’ appearance was transformed,<sup>3</sup>and his clothes became dazzling white, far whiter than any earthly bleach could ever make them. <sup>4</sup>Then Elijah and Moses appeared and began talking with Jesus.

<sup>5</sup>Peter exclaimed, “Rabbi, it’s wonderful for us to be here! Let’s make three shelters as memorials*—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” <sup>6</sup>He said this because he didn’t really know what else to say, for they were all terrified.

<sup>7</sup>Then a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my dearly loved Son. Listen to him.”

<sup>8</sup>Suddenly, when they looked around, Moses and Elijah were gone, and they saw only Jesus with them.

<sup>9</sup>As they went back down the mountain, he told them not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man* had risen from the dead. <sup>10</sup>So they kept it to themselves, but they often asked each other what he meant by “rising from the dead.”

<sup>11</sup>Then they asked him, “Why do the teachers of religious law insist that Elijah must return before the Messiah comes?*

<sup>12</sup>Jesus responded, “Elijah is indeed coming first to get everything ready. Yet why do the Scriptures say that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be treated with utter contempt?

<sup>13</sup>But I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they chose to abuse him, just as the Scriptures predicted.”

Jesus Heals a Demon-Possessed Boy

<sup>14</sup>When they returned to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd surrounding them, and some teachers of religious law were arguing with them. <sup>15</sup>When the crowd saw Jesus, they were overwhelmed with awe, and they ran to greet him.

<sup>16</sup>“What is all this arguing about?” Jesus asked.

<sup>17</sup>One of the men in the crowd spoke up and said, “Teacher, I brought my son so you could heal him. He is possessed by an evil spirit that won’t let him talk. <sup>18</sup>And whenever this spirit seizes him, it throws him violently to the ground. Then he foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid.* So I asked your disciples to cast out the evil spirit, but they couldn’t do it.”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus said to them,* “You faithless people! How long must I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring the boy to me.”

<sup>20</sup>So they brought the boy. But when the evil spirit saw Jesus, it threw the child into a violent convulsion, and he fell to the ground, writhing and foaming at the mouth.

<sup>21</sup>“How long has this been happening?” Jesus asked the boy’s father.

He replied, “Since he was a little boy.<sup>22</sup> The spirit often throws him into the fire or into water, trying to kill him. Have mercy on us and help us, if you can.”

<sup>24</sup>The father instantly cried out, “I do believe, but help me overcome my unbelief!”

<sup>25</sup>When Jesus saw that the crowd of onlookers was growing, he rebuked the evil* spirit. “Listen, you spirit that makes this boy unable to hear and speak,” he said. “I command you to come out of this child and never enter him again!”

<sup>26</sup>Then the spirit screamed and threw the boy into another violent convulsion and left him. The boy appeared to be dead. A murmur ran through the crowd as people said, “He’s dead.”

<sup>27</sup>But Jesus took him by the hand and helped him to his feet, and he stood up.

<sup>28</sup>Afterward, when Jesus was alone in the house with his disciples, they asked him, “Why couldn’t we cast out that evil spirit?”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus replied, “This kind can be cast out only by prayer.*”

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

<sup>30</sup> Leaving that region, they traveled through Galilee. Jesus didn’t want anyone to know he was there,<sup>31</sup> for he wanted to spend more time with his disciples and teach them. He said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of his enemies. He will be killed, but three days later he will rise from the dead.”<sup>32</sup> They didn’t understand what he was saying, however, and they were afraid to ask him what he meant.

The Greatest in the Kingdom

<sup>33</sup>After they arrived at Capernaum and settled in a house, Jesus asked his disciples, “What were you discussing out on the road?” <sup>34</sup>But they didn’t answer, because they had been arguing about which of them was the greatest. <sup>35</sup>He sat down, called the twelve disciples over to him, and said, “Whoever wants to be first must take last place and be the servant of everyone else.”

PERSPECTIVES

A Christian man is the most free lord of all, and subject to none; a Christian man is the most dutiful servant to all, and subject to everyone.

<sup>36</sup>Then he put a little child among them. Taking the child in his arms, he said to them, <sup>37</sup>“Anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf* welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not only me but also my Father who sent me.”

Using the Name of Jesus

<sup>38</sup> John said to Jesus, “Teacher, we saw someone using your name to cast out demons, but we told him to stop because he wasn’t in our group.”

<sup>39</sup>“Don’t stop him!” Jesus said. “No one who performs a miracle in my name will soon be able to speak evil of me. <sup>40</sup>Anyone who is not against us is for us. <sup>41</sup>If anyone gives you even a cup of water because you belong to the Messiah, I tell you the truth, that person will surely be rewarded.

<sup>42</sup>“But if you cause one of these little ones who trusts in me to fall into sin, it would be better for you to be thrown into the sea with a large millstone hung around your neck. <sup>43</sup> If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It’s better to enter eternal life with only one hand than to go into the unquenchable fires of hell* with two hands.* <sup>45</sup>If your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It’s better to enter eternal life with only one foot than to be thrown into hell with two feet.* <sup>47</sup>And if your eye causes you to sin, gouge it out. It’s better to enter the Kingdom of God with only one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell, <sup>48</sup>where the maggots never die and the fire never goes out.’*

<sup>49</sup>“For everyone will be tested with fire.* <sup>50</sup>Salt is good for seasoning. But if it loses its flavor, how do you make it salty again? You must have the qualities of salt among yourselves and live in peace with each other.”

Mark 10

Discussion about Divorce and Marriage

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus left Capernaum and went down to the region of Judea and into the area east of the Jordan River. Once again crowds gathered around him, and as usual he was teaching them.

<sup>2</sup> Some Pharisees came and tried to trap him with this question: “Should a man be allowed to divorce his wife?”

<sup>4</sup> “Well, he permitted it,” they replied. “He said a man can give his wife a written notice of divorce and send her away.”*

<sup>5</sup> But Jesus responded, “He wrote this commandment only as a concession to your hard hearts. <sup>6</sup>But ‘God made them male and female’* from the beginning of creation. <sup>7</sup>‘This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife,* <sup>8</sup>and the two are united into one.’* Since they are no longer two but one, <sup>9</sup>let no one split apart what God has joined together.”

<sup>10</sup> Later, when he was alone with his disciples in the house, they brought up the subject again. <sup>11</sup> He told them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries someone else commits adultery against her. <sup>12</sup> And if a woman divorces her husband and marries someone else, she commits adultery.”

Jesus Blesses the Children

<sup>13</sup> One day some parents brought their children to Jesus so he could touch and bless them. But the disciples scolded the parents for bothering him.

<sup>14</sup> When Jesus saw what was happening, he was angry with his disciples. He said to them, “Let the children come to me. Don’t stop them! For the Kingdom of God belongs to those who are like these children. <sup>15</sup> I tell you the truth, anyone who doesn’t receive the Kingdom of God like a child will never enter it.” <sup>16</sup> Then he took the children in his arms and placed his hands on their heads and blessed them.

The Rich Man

<sup>17</sup> As Jesus was starting out on his way to Jerusalem, a man came running up to him, knelt down, and asked, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

<sup>18</sup> “Why do you call me good?” Jesus asked. “Only God is truly good. <sup>19</sup> But to answer your question, you know the commandments: ‘You must not murder. You must not commit adultery. You must not steal. You must not testify falsely. You must not cheat anyone. Honor your father and mother.’ <sup>20</sup>”

<sup>21</sup> Looking at the man, Jesus felt genuine love for him. “There is still one thing you haven’t done,” he told him. “Go and sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

<sup>22</sup> At this the man’s face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

<sup>23</sup> Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the Kingdom of God!” <sup>24</sup>This amazed them. But Jesus said again, “Dear children, it is very hard* to enter the Kingdom of God. <sup>25</sup>In fact, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God!”

<sup>26</sup>The disciples were astounded. “Then who in the world can be saved?” they asked.

<sup>27</sup>Jesus looked at them intently and said, “Humanly speaking, it is impossible. But not with God. Everything is possible with God.”

<sup>28</sup>Then Peter began to speak up. “We’ve given up everything to follow you,” he said.

<sup>29</sup>“Yes,” Jesus replied, “and I assure you that everyone who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or property, for my sake and for the Good News, <sup>30</sup>will receive now in return a hundred times as many houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and property—along with persecution. And in the world to come that person will have eternal life. <sup>31</sup>But many who are the greatest now will be least important then, and those who seem least important now will be the greatest then.*”

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

<sup>32</sup> They were now on the way up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking ahead of them. The disciples were filled with awe, and the people following behind were overwhelmed with fear.

Taking the twelve disciples aside, Jesus once more began to describe everything that was about to happen to him. <sup>33</sup>“Listen,” he said, “we’re going up to Jerusalem, where the Son of Man* will be betrayed to the leading priests and the teachers of religious law. They will sentence him to die and hand him over to the Romans.*” <sup>34</sup>They will mock him, spit on him, flog him with a whip, and kill him, but after three days he will rise again.”

Jesus Teaches about Serving Others

<sup>35</sup>Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came over and spoke to him. “Teacher,” they said, “we want you to do us a favor.”

<sup>37</sup>They replied, “When you sit on your glorious throne, we want to sit in places of honor next to you, one on your right and the other on your left.”

<sup>38</sup>But Jesus said to them, “You don’t know what you are asking! Are you able to drink from the bitter cup of suffering I am about to drink? Are you able to be baptized with the baptism of suffering I must be baptized with?”

<sup>39</sup>“Oh yes,” they replied, “we are able!”

Then Jesus told them, “You will indeed drink from my bitter cup and be baptized with my baptism of suffering.” <sup>40</sup>But I have no right to say who will sit on my right or my left. God has prepared those places for the ones he has chosen.”

<sup>41</sup>When the ten other disciples heard what James and John had asked, they were indignant. <sup>42</sup>So Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers in this world lord it over their people, and officials flaunt their authority over those under them. <sup>43</sup>But among you it will be different. Whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant, <sup>44</sup>and whoever wants to be first among you must be the slave of everyone else. <sup>45</sup>For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Jesus Heals Blind Bartimaeus

<sup>46</sup> Then they reached Jericho, and as Jesus and his disciples left town, a large crowd followed him. A blind beggar named Bartimaeus (son of Timaeus) was sitting beside the road. <sup>47</sup>When Bartimaeus heard that Jesus of Nazareth was nearby, he began to shout, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>48</sup>“Be quiet!” many of the people yelled at him.

But he only shouted louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>49</sup>When Jesus heard him, he stopped and said, “Tell him to come here.”

So they called the blind man. “Cheer up,” they said. “Come on, he’s calling you!” <sup>50</sup>Bartimaeus threw aside his coat, jumped up, and came to Jesus.

<sup>51</sup>“What do you want me to do for you?” Jesus asked.

“My rabbi,*” the blind man said, “I want to see!”

<sup>52</sup>And Jesus said to him, “Go, for your faith has healed you.” Instantly the man could see, and he followed Jesus down the road.*

Mark 11

Jesus' Triumphant Entry

<sup>1</sup>As Jesus and his disciples approached Jerusalem, they came to the towns of Bethphage and Bethany on the Mount of Olives. Jesus sent two of them on ahead. <sup>2</sup>“Go into that village over there,” he told them. “As soon as you enter it, you will see a young donkey tied there that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. <sup>3</sup>If anyone asks, ‘What are you doing?’ just say, ‘The Lord needs it and will return it soon.’”

<sup>4</sup>The two disciples left and found the colt standing in the street, tied outside the front door. <sup>5</sup>As they were untying it, some bystanders demanded, “What are you doing, untying that colt?” <sup>6</sup>They said what Jesus had told them to say, and they were permitted to take it. <sup>7</sup>Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their garments over it, and he sat on it.

<sup>8</sup>Many in the crowd spread their garments on the road ahead of him, and others spread leafy branches they had cut in the fields. <sup>9</sup>Jesus was in the center of the procession, and the people all around him were shouting,

“Praise God! *

Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!

<sup>10</sup>Blessings on the coming Kingdom of our ancestor David!

Praise God in highest heaven!” *

<sup>11</sup> So Jesus came to Jerusalem and went into the Temple. After looking around carefully at everything, he left because it was late in the afternoon. Then he returned to Bethany with the twelve disciples.

Jesus Curses the Fig Tree

<sup>12</sup>The next morning as they were leaving Bethany, Jesus was hungry. <sup>13</sup>He noticed a fig tree in full leaf a little way off, so he went over to see if he could find any figs. But there were only leaves because it was too early in the season for fruit. <sup>14</sup>Then Jesus said to the tree, “May no one ever eat your fruit again!” And the disciples heard him say it.

Jesus Clears the Temple

<sup>15</sup>When they arrived back in Jerusalem, Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out the people buying and selling animals for sacrifices. He knocked over the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those selling doves, <sup>16</sup>and he stopped everyone from using the Temple as a marketplace.*
<sup>17</sup>He said to them, “The Scriptures declare, ‘My Temple will be called a house of prayer for all nations,’ but you have turned it into a den of thieves.”*

<sup>18</sup>When the leading priests and teachers of religious law heard what Jesus had done, they began planning how to kill him. But they were afraid of him because the people were so amazed at his teaching.

<sup>20</sup>The next morning as they passed by the fig tree he had cursed, the disciples noticed it had withered from the roots up. <sup>21</sup>Peter remembered what Jesus had said to the tree on the previous day and exclaimed, “Look, Rabbi! The fig tree you cursed has withered and died!”

<sup>22</sup>Then Jesus said to the disciples, “Have faith in God. <sup>23</sup>I tell you the truth, you can say to this mountain, ‘May you be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ and it will happen. But you must really believe it will happen and have no doubt in your heart. <sup>24</sup>I tell you, you can pray for anything, and if you believe that you’ve received it, it will be yours. <sup>25</sup>But when you are praying, first forgive anyone you are holding a grudge against, so that your Father in heaven will forgive your sins, too.*”

The Authority of Jesus Challenged

<sup>27</sup>Again they entered Jerusalem. As Jesus was walking through the Temple area, the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders came up to him. <sup>28</sup>They demanded, “By what authority are you doing all these things? Who gave you the right to do them?”

<sup>29</sup>“I’ll tell you by what authority I do these things if you answer one question,” Jesus replied. <sup>30</sup>“Did John’s authority to baptize come from heaven, or was it merely human? Answer me!”

<sup>31</sup>They talked it over among themselves. “If we say it was from heaven, he will ask why we didn’t believe John. <sup>32</sup>But do we dare say it was merely human?” For they were afraid of what the people would do, because everyone believed that John was a prophet. <sup>33</sup>So they finally replied, “We don’t know.”

And Jesus responded, “Then I won’t tell you by what authority I do these things.”

Mark 12

Parable of the Evil Farmers

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus began teaching them with stories: “A man planted a vineyard. He built a wall around it, dug a pit for pressing out the grape juice, and built a lookout tower. Then he leased the vineyard to tenant farmers and moved to another country. <sup>2</sup>At the time of the grape harvest, he sent one of his servants to collect his share of the crop. <sup>3</sup>But the farmers grabbed the servant, beat him up, and sent him back empty-handed. <sup>4</sup>The owner then sent another servant, but they insulted him and beat him over the head. <sup>5</sup>The next servant he sent was killed. Others he sent were either beaten or killed, <sup>6</sup>until there was only one left—his son whom he loved dearly. The owner finally sent him, thinking, ‘Surely they will respect my son.’

<sup>7</sup>“But the tenant farmers said to one another, ‘Here comes the heir to this estate. Let’s kill him and get the estate for ourselves!’ <sup>8</sup>So they grabbed him and murdered him and threw his body out of the vineyard.

<sup>9</sup>“What do you suppose the owner of the vineyard will do?” Jesus asked. “I’ll tell you—he will come and kill those farmers and lease the vineyard to others. <sup>10</sup>Didn’t you ever read this in the Scriptures?

‘The stone that the builders rejected
has now become the cornerstone.

and it is wonderful to see. *"

<sup>12</sup>The religious leaders * wanted to arrest Jesus because they realized he was telling the story against them—they were the wicked farmers. But they were afraid of the crowd, so they left him and went away.

Taxes for Caesar

<sup>13</sup>Later the leaders sent some Pharisees and supporters of Herod to trap Jesus into saying something for which he could be arrested. <sup>14</sup>"Teacher," they said, "we know how honest you are. You are impartial and don't play favorites. You teach the way of God truthfully. Now tell us—is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not? <sup>15</sup>Should we pay them, or shouldn't we?"

Jesus saw through their hypocrisy and said, "Why are you trying to trap me? Show me a Roman coin, * and I'll tell you."

<sup>16</sup>When they handed it to him, he asked, "Whose picture and title are stamped on it?"

"Caesar's," they replied.

<sup>17</sup>"Well, then," Jesus said, "give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God."

His reply completely amazed them.

Discussion about Resurrection

18 Then Jesus was approached by some Sadducees—religious leaders who say there is no resurrection from the dead. They posed this question: <sup>19</sup>"Teacher, Moses gave us a law that if a man dies, leaving a wife without children, his brother should marry the widow and have a child who will carry on the brother's name.*<sup>20</sup> Well, suppose there were seven brothers. The oldest one married and then died without children.<sup>21</sup> So the second brother married the widow, but he also died without children. Then the third brother married her.<sup>22</sup> This continued with all seven of them, and still there were no children. Last of all, the woman also died.<sup>23</sup> So tell us, whose wife will she be in the resurrection? For all seven were married to her.”

<sup>24</sup> Jesus replied, “Your mistake is that you don’t know the Scriptures, and you don’t know the power of God.<sup>25</sup> For when the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage. In this respect they will be like the angels in heaven.

<sup>26</sup> “But now, as to whether the dead will be raised—haven’t you ever read about this in the writings of Moses, in the story of the burning bush? Long after Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had died, God said to Moses,* ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’*<sup>27</sup> So he is the God of the living, not the dead. You have made a serious error.”

A Marriage NOT Made in Heaven

The Most Important Commandment

28 One of the teachers of religious law was standing there listening to the debate. He realized that Jesus had answered well, so he asked, “Of all the commandments, which is the most important?”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus replied, “The most important commandment is this: ‘Listen, O Israel! The LORD our God is the one and only LORD. <sup>30</sup>And you must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind, and all your strength.’* <sup>31</sup>The second is equally important: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’* No other commandment is greater than these.”

<sup>32</sup>The teacher of religious law replied, “Well said, Teacher. You have spoken the truth by saying that there is only one God and no other. <sup>33</sup>And I know it is important to love him with all my heart and all my understanding and all my strength, and to love my neighbor as myself. This is more important than to offer all of the burnt offerings and sacrifices required in the law.”

<sup>34</sup>Realizing how much the man understood, Jesus said to him, “You are not far from the Kingdom of God.” And after that, no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Whose Son Is the Messiah?

<sup>35</sup>Later, as Jesus was teaching the people in the Temple, he asked, “Why do the teachers of religious law claim that the Messiah is the son of David? <sup>36</sup>For David himself, speaking under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, said,

‘The LORD said to my Lord,
Sit in the place of honor at my right hand
until I humble your enemies beneath your feet.’*

<sup>37</sup>Since David himself called the Messiah ‘my Lord,’ how can the Messiah be his son?” The large crowd listened to him with great delight.

<sup>38</sup>Jesus also taught: “Beware of these teachers of religious law! For they like to parade around in flowing robes and receive respectful greetings as they walk in the marketplaces.

<sup>39</sup>And how they love the seats of honor in the synagogues and the head table at banquets. <sup>40</sup>Yet they shamelessly cheat widows out of their property and then pretend to be pious by making long prayers in public. Because of this, they will be more severely punished.”

The Widow’s Offering

<sup>41</sup>Jesus sat down near the collection box in the Temple and watched as the crowds dropped in their money. Many rich people put in large amounts. <sup>42</sup>Then a poor widow came and dropped in two small coins.*

<sup>43</sup>Jesus called his disciples to him and said, “I tell you the truth, this poor widow has given more than all the others who are making contributions. <sup>44</sup>For they gave a tiny part of their surplus, but she, poor as she is, has given everything she had to live on.”

Mark 13

Jesus Foretells the Future

<sup>3</sup>Later, Jesus sat on the Mount of Olives across the valley from the Temple. Peter, James, John, and Andrew came to him privately and asked him, <sup>4</sup>“Tell us, when will all this happen? What sign will show us that these things are about to be fulfilled?”

<sup>5</sup>Jesus replied, “Don’t let anyone mislead you, <sup>6</sup>for many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Messiah.’* They will deceive many. <sup>7</sup>And you will hear of wars and threats of wars, but don’t panic. Yes, these things must take place, but the end won’t follow immediately. <sup>8</sup>Nation will go to war against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in many parts of the world, as well as famines. But this is only the first of the birth pains, with more to come.

<sup>9</sup>“When these things begin to happen, watch out! You will be handed over to the local councils and beaten in the synagogues. You will stand trial before governors and kings because you are my followers. But this will be your opportunity to tell them about me.*<sup>10</sup>For the Good News must first be preached to all nations.*<sup>11</sup>But when you are arrested and stand trial, don't worry in advance about what to say. Just say what God tells you at that time, for it is not you who will be speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

<sup>12</sup>“A brother will betray his brother to death, a father will betray his own child, and children will rebel against their parents and cause them to be killed. <sup>13</sup>And everyone will hate you because you are my followers.* But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

<sup>14</sup>“The day is coming when you will see the sacrilegious object that causes desecration* standing where he* should not be.” (Reader, pay attention!) “Then those in Judea must flee to the hills. <sup>15</sup>A person out on the deck of a roof must not go down into the house to pack. <sup>16</sup>A person out in the field must not return even to get a coat. <sup>17</sup>How terrible it will be for pregnant women and for nursing mothers in those days. <sup>18</sup>And pray that your flight will not be in winter. <sup>19</sup>For there will be greater anguish in those days than at any time since God created the world. And it will never be so great again. <sup>20</sup>In fact, unless the Lord shortens that time of calamity, not a single person will survive. But for the sake of his chosen ones he has shortened those days.

<sup>21</sup>“Then if anyone tells you, ‘Look, here is the Messiah,’ or ‘There he is,’ don't believe it. <sup>22</sup>For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up and perform signs and wonders so as to deceive, if possible, even God's chosen ones. <sup>23</sup>Watch out! I have warned you about this ahead of time!

<sup>24</sup>“At that time, after the anguish of those days,

the sun will be darkened,
the moon will give no light,

<sup>25</sup>the stars will fall from the sky,

<sup>26</sup>Then everyone will see the Son of Man* coming on the clouds with great power and glory.* <sup>27</sup>And he will send out his angels to gather his chosen ones from all over the world*—from the farthest ends of the earth and heaven.

<sup>28</sup>“Now learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branches bud and its leaves begin to sprout, you know that summer is near. <sup>29</sup>In the same way, when you see all these things taking place, you can know that his return is very near, right at the door. <sup>30</sup>I tell you the truth, this generation* will not pass from the scene before all these things take place. <sup>31</sup>Heaven and earth will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

<sup>32</sup>“However, no one knows the day or hour when these things will happen, not even the angels in heaven or the Son himself. Only the Father knows. <sup>33</sup>And since you don’t know when that time will come, be on guard! Stay alert*!

<sup>34</sup>“The coming of the Son of Man can be illustrated by the story of a man going on a long trip. When he left home, he gave each of his slaves instructions about the work they were to do, and he told the gatekeeper to watch for his return. <sup>35</sup>You, too, must keep watch! For you don’t know when the master of the household will return—in the evening, at midnight, before dawn, or at daybreak. <sup>36</sup>Don't let him find you sleeping when he arrives without warning. <sup>37</sup>I say to you what I say to everyone: Watch for him!"

Mark 14

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

<sup>1</sup> It was now two days before Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread. The leading priests and the teachers of religious law were still looking for an opportunity to capture Jesus secretly and kill him. <sup>2</sup>“But not during the Passover celebration,” they agreed, “or the people may riot.”

<sup>3</sup>Meanwhile, Jesus was in Bethany at the home of Simon, a man who had previously had leprosy. While he was eating, <sup>4</sup>a woman came in with a beautiful alabaster jar of expensive perfume made from essence of nard. She broke open the jar and poured the perfume over his head.

<sup>5</sup>Some of those at the table were indignant. “Why waste such expensive perfume?” they asked. <sup>6</sup>“It could have been sold for a year’s wages <sup>7</sup>and the money given to the poor!” So they scolded her harshly.

<sup>8</sup>But Jesus replied, “Leave her alone. Why criticize her for doing such a good thing to me? <sup>9</sup>You will always have the poor among you, and you can help them whenever you want to. But you will not always have me. <sup>10</sup>She has done what she could and has anointed my body for burial ahead of time. <sup>11</sup>I tell you the truth, wherever the Good News is preached throughout the world, this woman’s deed will be remembered and discussed.”

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

<sup>10</sup> Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve disciples, went to the leading priests to arrange to betray Jesus to them. <sup>11</sup> They were delighted when they heard why he had come, and they promised to give him money. So he began looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus.

The Last Supper

<sup>12</sup> On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed, Jesus' disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go to prepare the Passover meal for you?"

<sup>13</sup> So Jesus sent two of them into Jerusalem with these instructions: "As you go into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him. <sup>14</sup> At the house he enters, say to the owner, 'The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?'" <sup>15</sup> He will take you upstairs to a large room that is already set up. That is where you should prepare our meal." <sup>16</sup> So the two disciples went into the city and found everything just as Jesus had said, and they prepared the Passover meal there.

<sup>17</sup> In the evening Jesus arrived with the twelve disciples. <sup>18</sup> As they were at the table* eating, Jesus said, "I tell you the truth, one of you eating with me here will betray me."

<sup>20</sup> He replied, "It is one of you twelve who is eating from this bowl with me. <sup>21</sup> For the Son of Man* must die, as the Scriptures declared long ago. But how terrible it will be for the one who betrays him. It would be far better for that man if he had never been born!”

<sup>23</sup>And he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to God for it. He gave it to them, and they all drank from it. <sup>24</sup>And he said to them, “This is my blood, which confirms the covenant* between God and his people. It is poured out as a sacrifice for many. <sup>25</sup>I tell you the truth, I will not drink wine again until the day I drink it new in the Kingdom of God.”

<sup>26</sup>Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

<sup>27</sup>On the way, Jesus told them, “All of you will desert me. For the Scriptures say,

‘God will strike* the Shepherd,
and the sheep will be scattered.’

<sup>28</sup>But after I am raised from the dead, I will go ahead of you to Galilee and meet you there.”

<sup>29</sup>Peter said to him, “Even if everyone else deserts you, I never will.”

<sup>30</sup>Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, Peter—this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny three times that you even know me.”

<sup>31</sup>“No!” Peter declared emphatically. “Even if I have to die with you, I will never deny you!” And all the others vowed the same.

Jesus Prays in Gethsemane

<sup>32</sup> They went to the olive grove called Gethsemane, and Jesus said, “Sit here while I go and pray.” <sup>33</sup> He took Peter, James, and John with him, and he became deeply troubled and distressed. <sup>34</sup> He told them, “My soul is crushed with grief to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me.”

<sup>35</sup> He went on a little farther and fell to the ground. He prayed that, if it were possible, the awful hour awaiting him might pass him by. <sup>36</sup> “Abba, Father,” * he cried out, “everything is possible for you. Please take this cup of suffering away from me. Yet I want your will to be done, not mine.”

<sup>37</sup> Then he returned and found the disciples asleep. He said to Peter, “Simon, are you asleep? Couldn’t you watch with me even one hour? <sup>38</sup> Keep watch and pray, so that you will not give in to temptation. For the spirit is willing, but the body is weak.”

<sup>39</sup> Then Jesus left them again and prayed the same prayer as before. <sup>40</sup> When he returned to them again, he found them sleeping, for they couldn’t keep their eyes open. And they didn’t know what to say.

<sup>41</sup> When he returned to them the third time, he said, “Go ahead and sleep. Have your rest. But no—the time has come. The Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>42</sup> Up, let’s be going. Look, my betrayer is here!”

Jesus Is Betrayed and Arrested

<sup>43</sup>And immediately, even as Jesus said this, Judas, one of the twelve disciples, arrived with a crowd of men armed with swords and clubs. They had been sent by the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders. <sup>44</sup>The traitor, Judas, had given them a prearranged signal: “You will know which one to arrest when I greet him with a kiss. Then you can take him away under guard.” <sup>45</sup>As soon as they arrived, Judas walked up to Jesus. “Rabbi!” he exclaimed, and gave him the kiss.

<sup>48</sup>Jesus asked them, “Am I some dangerous revolutionary, that you come with swords and clubs to arrest me? <sup>49</sup>Why didn’t you arrest me in the Temple? I was there among you teaching every day. But these things are happening to fulfill what the Scriptures say about me.”

<sup>50</sup>Then all his disciples deserted him and ran away. <sup>51</sup>One young man following behind was clothed only in a long linen shirt. When the mob tried to grab him, <sup>52</sup>he slipped out of his shirt and ran away naked.

Jesus before the Council

<sup>53</sup>They took Jesus to the high priest’s home where the leading priests, the elders, and the teachers of religious law had gathered. <sup>54</sup>Meanwhile, Peter followed him at a distance and went right into the high priest’s courtyard. There he sat with the guards, warming himself by the fire.

<sup>55</sup>Inside, the leading priests and the entire high council* were trying to find evidence against Jesus, so they could put him to death. But they couldn't find any. <sup>56</sup>Many false witnesses spoke against him, but they contradicted each other. <sup>57</sup>Finally, some men stood up and gave this false testimony: <sup>58</sup>"We heard him say, 'I will destroy this Temple made with human hands, and in three days I will build another, made without human hands.'"<sup>59</sup>But even then they didn't get their stories straight!

<sup>60</sup>Then the high priest stood up before the others and asked Jesus, "Well, aren't you going to answer these charges? What do you have to say for yourself?" <sup>61</sup>But Jesus was silent and made no reply. Then the high priest asked him, "Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?"

<sup>62</sup>Jesus said, "I AM.* And you will see the Son of Man seated in the place of power at God's right hand* and coming on the clouds of heaven.*"

<sup>63</sup>Then the high priest tore his clothing to show his horror and said, "Why do we need other witnesses? <sup>64</sup>You have all heard his blasphemy. What is your verdict?"

"Guilty!" they all cried. "He deserves to die!"

<sup>65</sup>Then some of them began to spit at him, and they blindfolded him and beat him with their fists. "Prophecy to us," they jeered. And the guards slapped him as they took him away.

Peter Denies Jesus

servant girls who worked for the high priest came by <sup>67</sup>and noticed Peter warming himself at the fire. She looked at him closely and said, “You were one of those with Jesus of Nazareth.*”

<sup>68</sup>But Peter denied it. “I don’t know what you’re talking about,” he said, and he went out into the entryway. Just then, a rooster crowed.*

<sup>69</sup>When the servant girl saw him standing there, she began telling the others, “This man is definitely one of them!” <sup>70</sup>But Peter denied it again.

A little later some of the other bystanders confronted Peter and said, “You must be one of them, because you are a Galilean.”

<sup>71</sup>Peter swore, “A curse on me if I’m lying—I don’t know this man you’re talking about!” <sup>72</sup>And immediately the rooster crowed the second time.

Suddenly, Jesus’ words flashed through Peter’s mind: “Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny three times that you even know me.” And he broke down and wept.

Mark 15

Jesus' Trial before Pilate

<sup>1</sup> Very early in the morning the leading priests, the elders, and the teachers of religious law—the entire high council*—met to discuss their next step. They bound Jesus, led him away, and took him to Pilate, the Roman governor.

Jesus replied, “You have said it.”

<sup>3</sup>Then the leading priests kept accusing him of many crimes, <sup>4</sup>and Pilate asked him, “Aren’t you going to answer them? What about all these charges they are bringing against you?”

<sup>5</sup>But Jesus said nothing, much to Pilate’s surprise.

<sup>6</sup>Now it was the governor’s custom each year during the Passover celebration to release one prisoner—anyone the people requested. <sup>7</sup>One of the prisoners at that time was Barabbas, a revolutionary who had committed murder in an uprising. <sup>8</sup>The crowd went to Pilate and asked him to release a prisoner as usual.

<sup>9</sup>“Would you like me to release to you this ‘King of the Jews’?” Pilate asked. <sup>10</sup>(For he realized by now that the leading priests had arrested Jesus out of envy.) <sup>11</sup>But at this point the leading priests stirred up the crowd to demand the release of Barabbas instead of Jesus. <sup>12</sup>Pilate asked them, “Then what should I do with this man you call the king of the Jews?”

<sup>14</sup>“Why?” Pilate demanded. “What crime has he committed?” But the mob roared even louder, “Crucify him!”

<sup>15</sup>So to pacify the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. He ordered Jesus flogged with a lead-tipped whip, then turned him over to the Roman soldiers to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

<sup>16</sup>The soldiers took Jesus into the courtyard of the governor’s headquarters (called the Praetorium) and called out the entire regiment. <sup>17</sup>They dressed him in a purple robe, and they wove thorn branches into a crown and put it on his head. <sup>18</sup>Then they saluted him and taunted, “Hail! King of the Jews!” <sup>19</sup>And they struck him on the head with a reed stick, spit on him, and dropped to their knees in mock worship. <sup>20</sup>When they were finally tired of mocking him, they took off the purple robe and put his own clothes on him again. Then they led him away to be crucified.

The Crucifixion

<sup>21</sup>A passerby named Simon, who was from Cyrene,* was coming in from the countryside just then, and the soldiers forced him to carry Jesus’ cross. (Simon was the father of Alexander and Rufus.) <sup>22</sup>And they brought Jesus to a place called Golgotha (which means “Place of the Skull”). <sup>23</sup>They offered him wine drugged with myrrh, but he refused it.

<sup>24</sup>Then the soldiers nailed him to the cross. They divided his clothes and threw dice* to decide who would get each piece.

<sup>25</sup>It was nine o’clock in the morning when they crucified him.

<sup>29</sup>The people passing by shouted abuse, shaking their heads in mockery. “Ha! Look at you now!” they yelled at him. “You said you were going to destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days. <sup>30</sup>Well then, save yourself and come down from the cross!”

<sup>31</sup>The leading priests and teachers of religious law also mocked Jesus. “He saved others,” they scoffed, “but he can’t save himself! <sup>32</sup>Let this Messiah, this King of Israel, come down from the cross so we can see it and believe him!” Even the men who were crucified with Jesus ridiculed him.

The Death of Jesus

<sup>33</sup> At noon, darkness fell across the whole land until three o’clock. <sup>34</sup>Then at three o’clock Jesus called out with a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?” which means “My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?”*

<sup>35</sup>Some of the bystanders misunderstood and thought he was calling for the prophet Elijah. <sup>36</sup>One of them ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, holding it up to him on a reed stick so he could drink. “Wait!” he said. “Let’s see whether Elijah comes to take him down!”

<sup>37</sup>Then Jesus uttered another loud cry and breathed his last. <sup>38</sup>And the curtain in the sanctuary of the Temple was torn in two, from top to bottom.

<sup>39</sup>When the Roman officer* who stood facing him* saw how he had died, he exclaimed, “This man truly was the Son of God!”

<sup>40</sup>Some women were there, watching from a distance, including Mary Magdalene, Mary (the mother of James the younger and of Joseph*), and Salome. <sup>41</sup>They had been followers of Jesus and had cared for him while he was in Galilee. Many other women who had come with him to Jerusalem were also there.

Joseph of Arimathea

The Burial of Jesus

<sup>42</sup>This all happened on Friday, the day of preparation,* the day before the Sabbath. As evening approached, <sup>43</sup>Joseph of Arimathea took a risk and went to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. (Joseph was an honored member of the high council, and he was waiting for the Kingdom of God to come.) <sup>44</sup>Pilate couldn’t believe that Jesus was already dead, so he called for the Roman officer and asked if he had died yet. <sup>45</sup>The officer confirmed that Jesus was dead, so Pilate told Joseph he could have the body. <sup>46</sup>Joseph bought a long sheet of linen cloth. Then he took Jesus' body down from the cross, wrapped it in the cloth, and laid it in a tomb that had been carved out of the rock. Then he rolled a stone in front of the entrance. <sup>47</sup>Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph saw where Jesus' body was laid.

Mark 16

The Resurrection

<sup>1</sup>Saturday evening, when the Sabbath ended, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome went out and purchased burial spices so they could anoint Jesus' body. <sup>2</sup>Very early on Sunday morning, * just at sunrise, they went to the tomb. <sup>3</sup>On the way they were asking each other, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" <sup>4</sup>But as they arrived, they looked up and saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled aside.

<sup>5</sup>When they entered the tomb, they saw a young man clothed in a white robe sitting on the right side. The women were shocked, <sup>6</sup>but the angel said, "Don't be alarmed. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, * who was crucified. He isn't here! He is risen from the dead! Look, this is where they laid his body. <sup>7</sup>Now go and tell his disciples, including Peter, that Jesus is going ahead of you to Galilee. You will see him there, just as he told you before he died."

<sup>8</sup>The women fled from the tomb, trembling and bewildered, and they said nothing to anyone because they were too frightened. *

[Shorter Ending of Mark]

Then they briefly reported all this to Peter and his companions.

Afterward Jesus himself sent them out from east to west with the sacred and unfailing message of salvation that gives eternal life. Amen.

[Longer Ending of Mark]

<sup>2</sup>After Jesus rose from the dead early on Sunday morning, the first person who saw him was Mary Magdalene, the woman from whom he had cast out seven demons. <sup>10</sup>She went to the disciples, who were grieving and weeping, and told them what had happened. <sup>11</sup>But when she told them that Jesus was alive and she had seen him, they didn't believe her.

<sup>12</sup>Afterward he appeared in a different form to two of his followers who were walking from Jerusalem into the country. <sup>13</sup>They rushed back to tell the others, but no one believed them.

<sup>14</sup>Still later he appeared to the eleven disciples as they were eating together. He rebuked them for their stubborn unbelief because they refused to believe those who had seen him after he had been raised from the dead.*

<sup>15</sup>And then he told them, "Go into all the world and preach the Good News to everyone. <sup>16</sup>Anyone who believes and is baptized will be saved. But anyone who refuses to believe will be condemned. <sup>17</sup>These miraculous signs will accompany those who believe: They will cast out demons in my name, and they will speak in new languages.* <sup>18</sup>They will be able to handle snakes with safety, and if they drink anything poisonous, it won't hurt them. They will be able to place their hands on the sick, and they will be healed."

<sup>19</sup>When the Lord Jesus had finished talking with them, he was taken up into heaven and sat down in the place of honor at God's right hand. <sup>20</sup>And the disciples went everywhere and preached, and the Lord worked through them, confirming what they said by many miraculous signs.

WORTH MEMORIZING

5:31-32

Jesus answered them, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor—sick people do. I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners and need to repent.”

9:23-25

Then he said to the crowd, “If any of you wants to be my follower, you must turn from your selfish ways, take up your cross daily, and follow me. If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake, you will save it. And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but are yourself lost or destroyed?”

18:16-17

Then Jesus called for the children and said to the disciples, “Let the children come to me. Don’t stop them! For the Kingdom of God belongs to those who are like these children. I tell you the truth, anyone who doesn’t receive the Kingdom of God like a child will never enter it.”

BLIND LOVE.

Jesus noticed people who weren’t highly valued in his day—women, children, and the poor. It’s easy for us to categorize others. Some people seem to be unimportant, while some might be worth paying attention to because they can help us. So we cultivate relationships with the rich and powerful while ignoring the others. Jesus wasn't like that. He went out of his way to focus on individuals who needed him—regardless of status.

Introduction

<sup>1</sup> Many people have set out to write accounts about the events that have been fulfilled among us. <sup>2</sup> They used the eyewitness reports circulating among us from the early disciples. <sup>3</sup> * Having carefully investigated everything from the beginning, I also have decided to write a careful account for you, most honorable Theophilus, <sup>4</sup> so you can be certain of the truth of everything you were taught.

Zechariah the Priest

The Birth of John the Baptist Foretold

<sup>5</sup> When Herod was king of Judea, there was a Jewish priest named Zechariah. He was a member of the priestly order of Abijah, and his wife, Elizabeth, was also from the priestly line of Aaron. <sup>6</sup>Zechariah and Elizabeth were righteous in God's eyes, careful to obey all of the Lord's commandments and regulations. <sup>7</sup>They had no children because Elizabeth was unable to conceive, and they were both very old.

<sup>8</sup>One day Zechariah was serving God in the Temple, for his order was on duty that week. <sup>9</sup>As was the custom of the priests, he was chosen by lot to enter the sanctuary of the Lord and burn incense. <sup>10</sup>While the incense was being burned, a great crowd stood outside, praying.

John the Baptist

<sup>11</sup>While Zechariah was in the sanctuary, an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing to the right of the incense altar.

<sup>12</sup>Zechariah was shaken and overwhelmed with fear when he saw him. <sup>13</sup>But the angel said, “Don’t be afraid, Zechariah! God has heard your prayer. Your wife, Elizabeth, will give you a son, and you are to name him John. <sup>14</sup>You will have great joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, <sup>15</sup>for he will be great in the eyes of the Lord. He must never touch wine or other alcoholic drinks. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even before his birth.* <sup>16</sup>And he will turn many Israelites to the Lord their God. <sup>17</sup>He will be a man with the spirit and power of Elijah. He will prepare the people for the coming of the Lord. He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children,* and he will cause those who are rebellious to accept the wisdom of the godly.”

<sup>18</sup>Zechariah said to the angel, “How can I be sure this will happen? I’m an old man now, and my wife is also well along in years.”

<sup>19</sup>Then the angel said, “I am Gabriel! I stand in the very presence of God. It was he who sent me to bring you this good news! <sup>20</sup>But now, since you didn't believe what I said, you will be silent and unable to speak until the child is born. For my words will certainly be fulfilled at the proper time."

<sup>21</sup>Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah to come out of the sanctuary, wondering why he was taking so long. <sup>22</sup>When he finally did come out, he couldn't speak to them. Then they realized from his gestures and his silence that he must have seen a vision in the sanctuary.

<sup>23</sup>When Zechariah's week of service in the Temple was over, he returned home. <sup>24</sup>Soon afterward his wife, Elizabeth, became pregnant and went into seclusion for five months. <sup>25</sup>"How kind the Lord is!" she exclaimed. "He has taken away my disgrace of having no children."

The Birth of Jesus Foretold

<sup>26</sup>In the sixth month of Elizabeth's pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a village in Galilee, <sup>27</sup>to a virgin named Mary. She was engaged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of King David. <sup>28</sup>Gabriel appeared to her and said, "Greetings, favored woman! The Lord is with you!*" \*

<sup>29</sup>Confused and disturbed, Mary tried to think what the angel could mean. <sup>30</sup>"Don't be afraid, Mary," the angel told her, "for you have found favor with God! <sup>31</sup>You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you will name him Jesus. <sup>32</sup>He will be very great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his ancestor David. <sup>33</sup>And he will reign over Israel* forever; his Kingdom will never end!"

<sup>35</sup>The angel replied, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the baby to be born will be holy, and he will be called the Son of God.

<sup>36</sup>What’s more, your relative Elizabeth has become pregnant in her old age! People used to say she was barren, but she has conceived a son and is now in her sixth month. <sup>37</sup>For nothing is impossible with God.*”

<sup>38</sup>Mary responded, “I am the Lord’s servant. May everything you have said about me come true.” And then the angel left her.

Faithful Mary

Mary Visits Elizabeth

<sup>39</sup>A few days later Mary hurried to the hill country of Judea, to the town <sup>40</sup>where Zechariah lived. She entered the house and greeted Elizabeth. <sup>41</sup>At the sound of Mary’s greeting, Elizabeth’s child leaped within her, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.

<sup>42</sup>Elizabeth gave a glad cry and exclaimed to Mary, “God has blessed you above all women, and your child is blessed. <sup>43</sup>Why am I so honored, that the mother of my Lord should visit me?

<sup>44</sup>When I heard your greeting, the baby in my womb jumped for joy. <sup>45</sup>You are blessed because you believed that the Lord would do what he said.”

The Magnificat: Mary's Song of Praise

<sup>46</sup>Mary responded,

“Oh, how my soul praises the Lord.

<sup>47</sup>How my spirit rejoices in God my Savior!

<sup>48</sup>For he took notice of his lowly servant girl,
and from now on all generations will call me blessed.

<sup>49</sup>For the Mighty One is holy,
and he has done great things for me.

<sup>50</sup>He shows mercy from generation to generation to all who fear him.

<sup>51</sup>His mighty arm has done tremendous things!
He has scattered the proud and haughty ones.

<sup>52</sup>He has brought down princes from their thrones and exalted the humble.

<sup>53</sup>He has filled the hungry with good things and sent the rich away with empty hands.

<sup>54</sup>He has helped his servant Israel and remembered to be merciful.

<sup>55</sup>For he made this promise to our ancestors, to Abraham and his children forever.”

<sup>56</sup>Mary stayed with Elizabeth about three months and then went back to her own home.

The Birth of John the Baptist

<sup>57</sup>When it was time for Elizabeth's baby to be born, she gave birth to a son. <sup>58</sup>And when her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had been very merciful to her, everyone rejoiced with her.

<sup>59</sup>When the baby was eight days old, they all came for the circumcision ceremony. They wanted to name him Zechariah, after his father. <sup>60</sup>But Elizabeth said, "No! His name is John!"

<sup>61</sup>"What?" they exclaimed.
