INTRODUCTION TO THE EVERY MAN'S BIBLE

You are holding in your hands the most important—and best-selling—book of all time. The Holy Bible is God's Word. It is how God chose to reveal himself to humanity. And we live in a time when we desperately need to hear what God has to say. Most important of all, the Bible tells the story of humanity's sin and God's incredible plan for redemption through his Son, Jesus Christ. We present this special edition of the Bible with the great hope that it will help you develop a fuller and more enriching relationship with Jesus.

Though God's Word is relevant to men and women of all ages, throughout all of history, the Every Man's Bible is intended for men. Men face different challenges than women do, and it is important for men to have a deep understanding of the Holy Scriptures. So the features and notes of this edition were written specifically for men. God created men and women with different strengths and different roles. Our desire in presenting the Every Man's Bible is that it will help you better understand God's general plan for masculinity as well as the special and unique role God has for you.

Book Introductions

A brief introduction precedes each book of the Bible. This feature will help you get acquainted with the writer, message, and purpose of the book. It also contains recommended verses to memorize and includes one or more “masculine perspectives”—short insights on the book you are about to read.

Study Notes

Short study notes interspersed throughout the Bible will help you gain a better perspective on a particular verse or passage.

Men, Women, and God

All men struggle in the area of relationships. This feature focuses on two of the most important relationships in every man's life: his relationship with God and his relationship with his wife—or with women in general.

Someone You Should Know

Have you ever wanted to meet one of your heroes from the Bible? This feature is your chance to do just that—get acquainted with one of the men whose stories are told in this book. You'll meet 94 men of renown. Some loved God and serve as role models for us; some didn't and, because of their lack of faith, can teach us valuable lessons about the importance of faith in our own lives.

What the Bible Says About . . .

What does the Bible have to say about ambition? What about drinking? Or sports? These 50 features will give you insight into the Bible's vital message on all kinds of topics for daily living.

Charts

The 44 charts were created from a uniquely male perspective and are designed to help you visualize important truths presented in God's Word.

Perspectives

All successful men understand the value of learning from others who have had similar experiences. This feature allows you to glean bits of insight from great men who have lived through many of the same issues and struggles that you face. Each of the 26 perspectives is tied to a Bible verse. Want a challenge? Try memorizing all the quotes, their source, and the verse they are identified with.

Personal Gold

This feature consists of "snapshots" taken from books that were written by Christian men about living the Christian life. It is one of the most exciting features in the Every Man's Bible. You may recognize many of these authors' names. Some of these men have already finished their earthly race; many others are still alive. All of them will help you as you continue in your quest to become the man God wants you to be.

What's the Point

One thing most men have in common is a desire to get right to the bottom of any issue. We want to get straight to the point. We like to know the bottom line. That's why you'll find a one-sentence summary of each book's message on the page following that book's introduction.

These features were designed to help guide you in your exciting journey through the most important book of all time. Our prayer is that the Every Man's Bible will serve as a tool to help you increase your knowledge of the Bible, deepen your relationship with those around you, and gain new insights into your life, your work, and your relationship with God.

INTRODUCTION TO THE NEW LIVING TRANSLATION

Translation Philosophy and Methodology

English Bible translations tend to be governed by one of two general translation theories. The first theory has been called “formal-equivalence,” “literal,” or “word-for-word” translation. According to this theory, the translator attempts to render each word of the original language into English and seeks to preserve the original syntax and sentence structure as much as possible in translation. The second theory has been called “dynamic-equivalence,” “functional-equivalence,” or “thought-for-thought” translation. The goal of this translation theory is to produce in English the closest natural equivalent of the message expressed by the original-language text, both in meaning and in style.

Both of these translation theories have their strengths. A formal-equivalence translation preserves aspects of the original text—including ancient idioms, term consistency, and original-language syntax—that are valuable for scholars and professional study. It allows a reader to trace formal elements of the original-language text through the English translation. A dynamic-equivalence translation, on the other hand, focuses on translating the message of the original-language text. It ensures that the meaning of the text is readily apparent to the contemporary reader. This allows the message to come through with immediacy, without requiring the reader to struggle with foreign idioms and awkward syntax. It also facilitates serious study of the text's message and clarity in both devotional and public reading.

The pure application of either of these translation philosophies would create translations at opposite ends of the translation spectrum. But in reality, all translations contain a mixture of these two philosophies. A purely formal-equivalence translation would be unintelligible in English, and a purely dynamic-equivalence translation would risk being unfaithful to the original. That is why translations shaped by dynamic-equivalence theory are usually quite literal when the original text is relatively clear, and the translations shaped by formal-equivalence theory are sometimes quite dynamic when the original text is obscure.

The translators of the New Living Translation set out to render the message of the original texts of Scripture into clear, contemporary English. As they did so, they kept the concerns of both formal-equivalence and dynamic-equivalence in mind. On the one hand, they translated as simply and literally as possible when that approach yielded an accurate, clear, and natural English text. Many words and phrases were rendered literally and consistently into English, preserving essential literary and rhetorical devices, ancient metaphors, and word choices that give structure to the text and provide echoes of meaning from one passage to the next.

On the other hand, the translators rendered the message more dynamically when the literal rendering was hard to understand, was misleading, or yielded archaic or foreign wording. They clarified difficult metaphors and terms to aid in the reader's understanding. The translators first struggled with the meaning of the words and phrases in the ancient context; then they rendered the message into clear, natural English. Their goal was to be both faithful to the ancient texts and eminently readable. The result is a translation that is both exegetically accurate and idiomatically powerful.

Translation Process and Team

To produce an accurate translation of the Bible into contemporary English, the translation team needed the skills necessary to enter into the thought patterns of the ancient authors and then to render their ideas, connotations, and effects into clear, contemporary English. To begin this process, qualified biblical scholars were needed to interpret the meaning of the original text and to check it against our base English translation. In order to guard against personal and theological biases, the scholars needed to represent a diverse group of evangelicals who would employ the best exegetical tools. Then to work alongside the scholars, skilled English stylists were needed to shape the text into clear, contemporary English.

With these concerns in mind, the Bible Translation Committee recruited teams of scholars that represented a broad spectrum of denominations, theological perspectives, and backgrounds within the worldwide evangelical community. (These scholars are listed at the end of this introduction.) Each book of the Bible was assigned to three different scholars with proven expertise in the book or group of books to be reviewed. Each of these scholars made a thorough review of a base translation and submitted suggested revisions to the appropriate Senior Translator. The Senior Translator then reviewed and summarized these suggestions and proposed a first-draft revision of the base text. This draft served as the basis for several additional phases of exegetical and stylistic committee review. Then the Bible Translation Committee jointly reviewed and approved every verse of the final translation.

Throughout the translation and editing process, the Senior Translators and their scholar teams were given a chance to review the editing done by the team of stylists. This ensured that exegetical errors would not be introduced late in the process and that the entire Bible Translation Committee was happy with the final result. By choosing a team of qualified scholars and skilled stylists and by setting up a process that allowed their interaction throughout the process, the New Living Translation has been refined to preserve the essential formal elements of the original biblical texts, while also creating a clear, understandable English text.

The New Living Translation was first published in 1996. Shortly after its initial publication, the Bible Translation Committee began a process of further committee review and translation refinement. The purpose of this continued revision was to increase the level of precision without sacrificing the text's easy-to-understand quality. This second-edition text was completed in 2004, and an additional update with minor changes was subsequently introduced in 2007. This printing of the New Living Translation reflects the updated 2007 text.

Written to Be Read Aloud

It is evident in Scripture that the biblical documents were written to be read aloud, often in public worship (see Nehemiah 8; Luke 4:16-20; 1 Timothy 4:13; Revelation 1:3). It is still the case today that more people will hear the Bible read aloud in church than are likely to read it for themselves. Therefore, a new translation must communicate with clarity and power when it is read publicly. Clarity was a primary goal for the NLT translators, not only to facilitate private reading and understanding, but also to ensure that it would be excellent for public reading and make an immediate and powerful impact on any listener.

The Texts behind the New Living Translation

The Old Testament translators used the Masoretic Text of the Hebrew Bible as represented in Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia (1977), with its extensive system of textual notes; this is an update of Rudolf Kittel's Biblia Hebraica (Stuttgart, 1937). The translators also further compared the Dead Sea Scrolls, the Septuagint and other Greek manuscripts, the Samaritan Pentateuch, the Syriac Peshitta, the Latin Vulgate, and any other versions or manuscripts that shed light on the meaning of difficult passages.

The New Testament translators used the two standard editions of the Greek New Testament: the Greek New Testament, published by the United Bible Societies (UBS, fourth revised edition, 1993), and Novum Testamentum Graece, edited by Nestle and Aland (NA, twenty-seventh edition, 1993). These two editions, which have the same text but differ in punctuation and textual notes, represent, for the most part, the best in modern textual scholarship. However, in cases where strong textual or other scholarly evidence supported the decision, the translators sometimes chose to differ from the UBS and NA Greek texts and followed variant readings found in other ancient witnesses. Significant textual variants of this sort are always noted in the textual notes of the New Living Translation.

Translation Issues

The translators have made a conscious effort to provide a text that can be easily understood by the typical reader of modern English. To this end, we sought to use only vocabulary and language structures in common use today. We avoided using language likely to become quickly dated or that reflects only a narrow subdialect of English, with the goal of making the New Living Translation as broadly useful and timeless as possible.

But our concern for readability goes beyond the concerns of vocabulary and sentence structure. We are also concerned about historical and cultural barriers to understanding the Bible, and we have sought to translate terms shrouded in history and culture in ways that can be immediately understood. To this end:

- We have converted ancient weights and measures (for example, “ephah” [a unit of dry volume] or “cubit” [a unit of length]) to modern English (American) equivalents, since the ancient measures are not generally meaningful to today’s readers. Then in the textual footnotes we offer the literal Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek measures, along with modern metric equivalents.

- Instead of translating ancient currency values literally, we have expressed them in common terms that communicate the message. For example, in the Old Testament, “ten shekels of silver” becomes “ten pieces of silver” to convey the intended message. In the New Testament, we have often translated the “denarius” as “the normal daily wage” to facilitate understanding. Then a footnote offers: “Greek a denarius, the payment for a full day’s wage.” In general, we give a clear English rendering and then state the literal Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek in a textual footnote.
- Since the names of Hebrew months are unknown to most contemporary readers, and since the Hebrew lunar calendar fluctuates from year to year in relation to the solar calendar used today, we have looked for clear ways to communicate the time of year the Hebrew months (such as Abib) refer to. When an expanded or interpretive rendering is given in the text, a textual note gives the literal rendering. Where it is possible to define a specific ancient date in terms of our modern calendar, we use modern dates in the text. A textual footnote then gives the literal Hebrew date and states the rationale for our rendering. For example, Ezra 6:15 pinpoints the date when the postexilic Temple was completed in Jerusalem: “the third day of the month Adar.” This was during the sixth year of King Darius’s reign (that is, 515 B.C.). We have translated that date as March 12, with a footnote giving the Hebrew and identifying the year as 515 B.C.
- Since ancient references to the time of day differ from our modern methods of denoting time, we have used renderings that are instantly understandable to the modern reader. Accordingly, we have rendered specific times of day by using approximate equivalents in terms of our common “o’clock” system. On occasion, translations such as “at dawn the next morning” or “as the sun was setting” have been used when the biblical reference is more general.

- When the meaning of a proper name (or a wordplay inherent in a proper name) is relevant to the message of the text, its meaning is often illuminated with a textual footnote. For example, in Exodus 2:10 the text reads: “The princess named him Moses, for she explained, ‘I lifted him out of the water.’” The accompanying footnote reads: “Moses sounds like a Hebrew term that means ‘to lift out.’”

Sometimes, when the actual meaning of a name is clear, that meaning is included in parentheses within the text itself. For example, the text at Genesis 16:11 reads: “You are to name him Ishmael (which means ‘God hears’), for the LORD has heard your cry of distress.” Since the original hearers and readers would have instantly understood the meaning of the name “Ishmael,” we have provided modern readers with the same information so they can experience the text in a similar way.

- Many words and phrases carry a great deal of cultural meaning that was obvious to the original readers but needs explanation in our own culture. For example, the phrase “they beat their breasts” (Luke 23:48) in ancient times meant that people were very upset, often in mourning. In our translation we chose to translate this phrase dynamically for clarity: “They went home in deep sorrow.”

Then we included a footnote with the literal Greek, which reads: “Greek went home beating their breasts.” In other similar cases, however, we have sometimes chosen to illuminate the existing literal expression to make it immediately understandable. For example, here we might have expanded the literal Greek phrase to read: “They went home beating their breasts in sorrow.” If we had done this, we would not have included a textual footnote, since the literal Greek clearly appears in translation.

- Metaphorical language is sometimes difficult for contemporary readers to understand, so at times we have chosen to translate or illuminate the meaning of a metaphor. For example, the ancient poet writes, “Your neck is like the tower of David” (Song of Songs 4:4). We have rendered it “Your neck is as beautiful as the tower of David” to clarify the intended positive meaning of the simile. Another example comes in Ecclesiastes 12:3, which can be literally rendered: “Remember him . . . when the grinding women cease because they are few, and the women who look through the windows see dimly.” We have rendered it: “Remember him before your teeth—your few remaining servants—stop grinding; and before your eyes—the women looking through the windows—see dimly.” We clarified such metaphors only when we believed a typical reader might be confused by the literal text.
- When the content of the original language text is poetic in character, we have rendered it in English poetic form. We sought to break lines in ways that clarify and highlight the relationships between phrases of the text. Hebrew poetry often uses parallelism, a literary form where a second phrase (or in some instances a third or fourth) echoes the initial phrase in some way. In Hebrew parallelism, the subsequent parallel phrases continue, while also furthering and sharpening, the thought expressed in the initial line or phrase. Whenever possible, we sought to represent these parallel phrases in natural poetic English.

- The Greek term hoi Ioudaioi is literally translated “the Jews” in many English translations. In the Gospel of John, however, this term doesn’t always refer to the Jewish people generally. In some contexts, it refers more particularly to the Jewish religious leaders. We have attempted to capture the meaning in these different contexts by using terms such as “the people” (with a footnote: Greek the Jewish people) or “the religious leaders,” where appropriate.
- One challenge we faced was how to translate accurately the ancient biblical text that was originally written in a context where male-oriented terms were used to refer to humanity generally. We needed to respect the nature of the ancient context while also trying to make the translation clear to a modern audience that tends to read male-oriented language as applying only to males. Often the original text, though using masculine nouns and pronouns, clearly intends that the message be applied to both men and women. A typical example is found in the New Testament letters, where the believers are called “brothers” (adelphoi). Yet it is clear from the content of these letters that they were addressed to all the believers—male and female. Thus, we have usually translated this Greek word as “brothers and sisters” in order to represent the historical situation more accurately.

We have also been sensitive to passages where the text applies generally to human beings or to the human condition. In some instances we have used plural pronouns (they, them) in place of the masculine singular (he, him). For example, a traditional rendering of Proverbs 22:6 is: “Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it.” We have rendered it: “Direct your children onto the right path, and when they are older, they will not leave it.” At times, we have also replaced third person pronouns with the second person to ensure clarity. A traditional rendering of Proverbs 26:27 is: “He who digs a pit will fall into it, and he who rolls a stone, it will come back on him.” We have rendered it: “If you set a trap for others, you will get caught in it yourself. If you roll a boulder down on others, it will crush you instead.”

We should emphasize, however, that all masculine nouns and pronouns used to represent God (for example, “Father”) have been maintained without exception. All decisions of this kind have been driven by the concern to reflect accurately the intended meaning of the original texts of Scripture.

Lexical Consistency in Terminology

For the sake of clarity, we have translated certain original-language terms consistently, especially within synoptic passages and for commonly repeated rhetorical phrases, and within certain word categories such as divine names and non-theological technical terminology (e.g., liturgical, legal, cultural, zoological, and botanical terms). For theological terms, we have allowed a greater semantic range of acceptable English words or phrases for a single Hebrew or Greek word. We have avoided some theological terms that are not readily understood by many modern readers. For example, we avoided using words such as “justification” and “sanctification,” which are carryovers from Latin translations. In place of these words, we have provided renderings such as “made right with God” and “made holy.”

The Spelling of Proper Names

Many individuals in the Bible, especially the Old Testament, are known by more than one name (e.g., Uzziah/Azariah). For the sake of clarity, we have tried to use a single spelling for any one individual, footnoting the literal spelling whenever we differ from it. This is especially helpful in delineating the kings of Israel and Judah. King Joash/Jehoash of Israel has been consistently called Jehoash, while King Joash/Jehoash of Judah is called Joash. A similar distinction has been used to distinguish between Joram/Jehoram of Israel and Joram/Jehoram of Judah. All such decisions were made with the goal of clarifying the text for the reader. When the ancient biblical writers clearly had a theological purpose in their choice of a variant name (e.g., Eshbaal/Ishbosheth), the different names have been maintained with an explanatory footnote.

For the names Jacob and Israel, which are used interchangeably for both the individual patriarch and the nation, we generally render it “Israel” when it refers to the nation and “Jacob” when it refers to the individual. When our rendering of the name differs from the underlying Hebrew text, we provide a textual footnote, which includes this explanation: “The names ‘Jacob’ and ‘Israel’ are often interchanged throughout the Old Testament, referring sometimes to the individual patriarch and sometimes to the nation.”

The Rendering of Divine Names

All appearances of 'el, 'elohim, or 'eloah have been translated “God,” except where the context demands the translation “god(s).” We have generally rendered the tetragrammaton (YHWH) consistently as “the LORD,” utilizing a form with small capitals that is common among English translations. This will distinguish it from the name 'adonai, which we render “Lord.” When 'adonai and YHWH appear together, we have rendered it “Sovereign LORD.” This also distinguishes 'adonai YHWH from cases where YHWH appears with 'elohim, which is rendered “LORD God.” When YH (the short form of YHWH) and YHWH appear together, we have rendered it “LORD GOD.” When YHWH appears with the term tseba'oth, we have rendered it “LORD of Heaven’s Armies” to translate the meaning of the name. In a few cases, we have utilized the transliteration, Yahweh, when the personal character of the name is being invoked in contrast to another divine name or the name of some other god (for example, see Exodus 3:15; 6:2-3).

In the New Testament, the Greek word christos has been translated as “Messiah” when the context assumes a Jewish audience. When a Gentile audience can be assumed, christos has been translated as “Christ.” The Greek word kurios is consistently translated “Lord,” except that it is translated “LORD” wherever the New Testament text explicitly quotes from the Old Testament, and the text there has it in small capitals.

Textual Footnotes

The New Living Translation provides several kinds of textual footnotes, all included within the study notes in this edition:

- When for the sake of clarity the NLT renders a difficult or potentially confusing phrase dynamically, we generally give the literal rendering in a textual footnote. This allows the reader to see the literal source of our dynamic rendering and how our translation relates to other more literal translations. These notes are prefaced with “literally.” For example, in Acts 2:42 we translated the literal “breaking of bread” (from the Greek) as “the Lord’s Supper” to clarify that this verse refers to the ceremonial practice of the church rather than just an ordinary meal. Then we attached a footnote to “the Lord’s Supper,” which reads: “Literally the breaking of bread.”
- Textual footnotes are also used to show alternative renderings, prefaced with the word “Or.” These normally occur for passages where an aspect of the meaning is debated. On occasion, we also provide notes on words or phrases that represent a departure from longstanding tradition. These notes are prefaced with “Traditionally rendered.” For example, the footnote to the translation

“serious skin disease” at Leviticus 13:2 says: “Traditionally rendered leprosy. The Hebrew word used throughout this passage is used to describe various skin diseases.”

- When our translators follow a textual variant that differs significantly from our standard Hebrew or Greek texts (listed earlier), we document that difference with a footnote. We also footnote cases when the NLT excludes a passage that is included in the Greek text known as the Textus Receptus (and familiar to readers through its translation in the King James Version). In such cases, we offer a translation of the excluded text in a footnote, even though it is generally recognized as a later addition to the Greek text and not part of the original Greek New Testament.
- All Old Testament passages that are quoted in the New Testament are identified by a textual footnote at the New Testament location. When the New Testament clearly quotes from the Greek translation of the Old Testament, and when it differs significantly in wording from the Hebrew text, we also place a textual footnote at the Old Testament location. This note includes a rendering of the Greek version, along with a cross-reference to the New Testament passage(s) where it is cited (for example, see notes on Proverbs 3:12; Psalms 8:2; 53:3).
- Some textual footnotes provide cultural and historical information on places, things, and people in the Bible that are probably obscure to modern readers. Such notes should aid the reader in understanding the message of the text. For example, in Acts 12:1, “King Herod” is named in this translation as “King Herod Agrippa” and is identified in a footnote as being “the nephew of Herod Antipas and a grandson of Herod the Great.”

- When the meaning of a proper name (or a wordplay inherent in a proper name) is relevant to the meaning of the text, it is either illuminated with a textual footnote or included within parentheses in the text itself. For example, the footnote concerning the name “Eve” at Genesis 3:20 reads: “Eve sounds like a Hebrew term that means ‘to give life.’” This wordplay in the Hebrew illuminates the meaning of the text, which goes on to say that Eve “would be the mother of all who live.”

Cross-References

There are a number of different cross-referencing tools that appear in New Living Translation Bibles, and they offer different levels of help in this regard. All straight-text Bibles include the standard set of textual footnotes that include cross-references connecting New Testament texts to their related Old Testament sources. (See more on this above.)

Many NLT Bibles include an additional short cross-reference system that sets key cross-references at the end of paragraphs and then marks the associated verses with a cross symbol. This space-efficient system, while not being obtrusive, offers many important key connections between passages. Larger study editions include a full-column cross-reference system. This system allows space for a more comprehensive listing of cross-references.

AS WE SUBMIT this translation for publication, we recognize that any translation of the Scriptures is subject to limitations and imperfections. Anyone who has attempted to communicate the richness of God's Word into another language will realize it is impossible to make a perfect translation. Recognizing these limitations, we sought God's guidance and wisdom throughout this project. Now we pray that he will accept our efforts and use this translation for the benefit of the church and of all people.

We pray that the New Living Translation will overcome some of the barriers of history, culture, and language that have kept people from reading and understanding God's Word. We hope that readers unfamiliar with the Bible will find the words clear and easy to understand and that readers well versed in the Scriptures will gain a fresh perspective. We pray that readers will gain insight and wisdom for living, but most of all that they will meet the God of the Bible and be forever changed by knowing him.

Abortion

God cares for the unborn (Exodus 21:22-25)

We should protect the helpless (Psalm 82:3-4)

Children are from God (Psalm 127:3)

God forms every child (Psalm 139:13-16)

God plans the future of every child (Jeremiah 1:5)

Abuse

God cares about minorities (Exodus 22:21)

God protects those who are helpless (Psalm 12:5)

Jesus was abused (Matthew 26:67-68)

Abuse has no place in family relationships (Ephesians 5:21–6:4)

Accountability

God will judge our work (2 Chronicles 19:5-10)

Sin has consequences (Ezekiel 18:20)

God will hold us accountable for our sin (Ezekiel 18:30)

We are accountable for every word that we speak (Matthew 12:36)

Confronting others with their sins should be done in private (Matthew 18:15)

We should hold each other accountable (Luke 17:3)

We are accountable for what we believe (John 3:18)

God holds Christians accountable (Romans 14:11-12)

God will reward Christians for their good deeds (1 Corinthians 3:8)

God will examine our actions (2 Corinthians 5:10)

Accusations

Satan accuses God's people of doing wrong (Zechariah 3:1)

Jesus was falsely accused (Matthew 26:59-60)

Christians' sins are forgiven (Colossians 1:22)

Accusations against church leaders must come from more than one person (1 Timothy 5:19)

Satan is known as the Accuser (Revelation 12:10)

Adolescence

Young people should worship God (1 Kings 18:12)

God can give hope to young people (Psalm 71:5)

Young people should remember God (Ecclesiastes 12:1)

Young people should be an example to others (1 Timothy 4:12)

Young people should run from their youthful lust (2 Timothy 2:22)

Adoption, Spiritual

God helps his children grow (Deuteronomy 8:5)

God's children should obey him (Deuteronomy 26:18)

God disciplines his children (2 Samuel 7:14)

Do not despise God's discipline (Proverbs 3:11-12)

God is our Father (Matthew 6:9)

Christians are God's children (John 1:12)

God's Spirit leads his children (Romans 8:14-17)

Christians should be separate from the world (2 Corinthians 6:17-18)

All of God's children are equal in God's eyes (Galatians 3:28)

God's children will receive a spiritual inheritance (Galatians 4:4-7)

God chose us to be his children (Ephesians 1:4-5)

Jesus is our spiritual brother (Hebrews 2:11)

Adultery

God forbids adultery (Exodus 20:14)

Adultery has consequences (Proverbs 6:26)

Adultery is foolish (Proverbs 6:32)

Adultery is disgusting to God (Jeremiah 7:9-10)

God considers lust as sinful as adultery (Matthew 5:27-28)

Divorce often leads to adultery (Mark 10:11-12)

God can forgive the adulterer (John 8:1-11)

Advice

Leaders should consider the advice of others (Exodus 18:13-26)

Older people often give wise advice (1 Kings 12:1-11)

Stay away from people who give wicked advice (Psalm 1:1)

God's advice is best (Psalm 73:24)

Wise people seek advice (Proverbs 1:5)

Advice helps provide success (Proverbs 11:14)

Foolish people do not listen to advice (Proverbs 12:15)

Give advice to those in need (1 Thessalonians 5:14)

Alcohol

Being controlled by alcohol is foolish (Proverbs 20:1)

Becoming drunk is sin (Romans 13:13-14)

God hates drunkenness (Galatians 5:19-21)

Church leaders should not be controlled by alcohol (Titus 1:7)

Angels

Angels carry out God's judgment (2 Samuel 24:16-17)

Angels serve God (Psalm 103:21)

Angels praise God (Psalm 148:2)

Angels are messengers (Daniel 4:17)

Angels protect God's people (Daniel 6:22)

Angels do not marry (Matthew 22:30)

Angels do not die (Luke 20:36)

Angels will be judged by people (1 Corinthians 6:3)

Satan disguises himself as an angel of light (2 Corinthians 11:14)

Angels encourage Christians (Hebrews 1:14)

Angels who sinned were thrown into hell (2 Peter 2:4)

Angels are holy (Jude 1:14)

Angels are in the presence of God (Revelation 4:8)

Angels should not be worshiped (Revelation 22:8-9)

Anger

Anger can lead to murder (Genesis 4:3-8)

Anger leads to evil actions (Psalm 37:8)

Showing anger is foolish (Proverbs 12:16)

Gentle words can soothe anger (Proverbs 15:1)

Being quick-tempered is foolish (Ecclesiastes 7:9)

God becomes angry when we are ruled by anger (Amos 1:11)

Anger is like murdering someone (Matthew 5:21-22)

Jesus grew angry at sin (John 2:13-17)

Anger can give Satan a place in your life (Ephesians 4:26-27)

Christians should get rid of anger (Colossians 3:8)

Leaders in the church should not be quick-tempered (Titus 1:7)

Be slow to become angry (James 1:19)

Antichrist

Many will claim to be God's messenger (Matthew 24:5)

Many will have miraculous powers (Matthew 24:24)

Many will claim to be Christ (Luke 21:8)

The Antichrist will be lawless and deceitful (2 Thessalonians 2:1-10)

There are many antichrists (1 John 2:18)

The Antichrist will oppose God (1 John 4:3)

The Antichrist will curse God (Revelation 13:1-8)

The Antichrist will be punished by God (Revelation 20:10)

Appearance

God is not impressed by someone's appearance (1 Samuel 16:7)

Physical beauty fades (Proverbs 31:30)

Do not worry about clothes (Matthew 6:25-34)

Appearances can be deceiving (Matthew 23:27)

Christians should care more about their spiritual welfare than their physical appearance (1 Timothy 2:9-10)

Do not judge others by their appearance (James 2:2-4)

Inner beauty is more important than physical beauty (1 Peter 3:1-6)

Arguments

Arguments can be avoided by using gentle words (Proverbs 15:1)

Loving arguments is a sin (Proverbs 17:19)

A fool is quick to argue (Proverbs 20:3)

Avoid becoming entangled in others' arguments (Proverbs 26:17)

Avoid arguing with a weak Christian (Romans 14:1)

We should avoid arguments (Philippians 2:14)

Arguments between Christians are useless (Titus 3:9)

Armor

Armor for physical battle (1 Samuel 17:38)

Soldiers need armor (Jeremiah 46:3-4)

Weapons cannot stop God's power (Ezekiel 38:4)

Spiritual armor prepares us for life (Romans 13:12)

Righteousness is a spiritual weapon (2 Corinthians 6:7)

God's weapons conquer Satan's strongholds (2 Corinthians 10:4)

Put on the armor of God (Ephesians 6:11-18)

Assurance

God always holds his children (Psalm 37:23-24)

God will never abandon his people (Psalm 138:8)

God's promises last forever (Jeremiah 32:40)

False assurance is dangerous (Luke 18:18-30)

We can be assured of eternal life (John 5:24)

God will not refuse any who come to him (John 6:37-40)

Our place in God's family is secure (John 10:27-28)

Christians have peace with God (Romans 5:1-5)

Nothing can separate us from God's love (Romans 8:35-39)

Salvation cannot be canceled (Romans 11:29)

Accountability should help others (Galatians 6:1)

Our salvation was guaranteed before Creation (Ephesians 1:4-5)

Assurance comes from faith (Ephesians 3:12)

God will guard what has been entrusted to him (2 Timothy 1:12)

Atonement

God required a perfect sacrifice (Exodus 12:5)

God required blood for our atonement (Leviticus 17:11)

Jesus paid for all of our sins (Isaiah 53:3-12)

Atonement is good news (Luke 4:18-19)

Jesus willingly died for our sins (John 10:17)

Christ secured salvation through his blood (Acts 20:28)

Jesus provided the atonement for sins (Romans 3:23-25)

Jesus' death purchased forgiveness (1 Corinthians 7:23)

Jesus died for sins (1 Corinthians 15:3)

Our atonement allows us to know God (Ephesians 2:13)

Jesus' death rescues us from eternal punishment (Colossians 1:13)

Christ's death purifies God's people (Titus 2:14)

Sin requires that a sacrifice be made (Hebrews 9:22)

Jesus' sacrifice was perfect (1 Peter 1:18-19)

Jesus took our punishment (1 Peter 2:21-24)

We cannot improve Jesus' sacrifice (1 Peter 3:18)

Attitude

Bad attitudes hurt our relationship with God (Genesis 4:6-7)

Bad attitudes lead to poor decisions (Numbers 14:1-4)

Always trust God for your life (Proverbs 29:25)

Choose a positive attitude (Habakkuk 3:17-19)

God will reward the meek (Matthew 5:5)

God gives Christians a new attitude (Philippians 1:20-25)

We should imitate Jesus' attitude (Philippians 2:5)

Christians should always rejoice (Philippians 4:4)

Never be anxious (Philippians 4:6-7)

Authority (see also Respect)

God will hold people in authority accountable for their actions (Daniel 4:31)

Jesus is the highest authority (Matthew 28:18)

God gave government its authority (John 19:11)

Christians should obey the government (Romans 13:1-2)

Parents are authorities to their children (Ephesians 6:1)

The Bible is our authority (2 Timothy 3:16)

Church leaders are authoritative (Hebrews 13:17)

Baptism

Baptism signifies repentance (Matthew 3:11)

All followers of Jesus should be baptized (Matthew 28:19)

Jesus was baptized (Mark 1:9)

Jesus baptizes with the Holy Spirit (John 1:32-33)

Baptism is closely linked with a changed life (Acts 2:38)

New Christians should be baptized (Acts 8:12-17)

Entire families of the early church were baptized (Acts 16:33-34)

Baptism initiates us into Christ (Romans 6:3-8)

Salvation is identified with baptism (1 Peter 3:21)

Belief

Believing God makes us righteous (Genesis 15:6)

Belief in God should be accompanied by action
(Deuteronomy 27:10)

Belief affects the way we live (Mark 1:15)

Right beliefs are important for salvation (Romans 10:9)

Believing is more than acknowledging (James 2:21)

Bible

The Bible is perfect (Psalm 18:30)

The Bible is true (Psalm 33:4)

The Bible will last forever (Psalm 119:89)

The Bible gives us wisdom (Psalm 119:99)

The Bible can be trusted (Psalm 119:138)

The Bible reveals the truth (Acts 18:28)

The Bible is holy (Romans 1:2)

God's Holy Spirit helps us understand the Bible (1 Corinthians 2:12-16)

The Bible is authoritative (Galatians 3:10)

The Bible is a Christian's spiritual weapon (Ephesians 6:17)

The Bible is inspired by God (2 Timothy 3:16)

The Bible judges our life (Hebrews 4:12)

The Bible helps us grow spiritually (1 Peter 2:2)

Birth

God is the Life-Giver (Genesis 2:7)

Children are a blessing from God (Psalm 127:3-5)

God carefully creates each person (Psalm 139:13-14)

God's Son was born (Isaiah 9:6)

God plans the lives of people before they are born (Jeremiah 1:5)

Jesus' birth (Luke 2:7)

God's children are reborn spiritually (John 1:12-13)

People must be reborn spiritually to enter heaven (John 3:3)

Blessing

God blesses those who obey him (Leviticus 26:3-5)

God blesses godly people (Psalm 5:12)

We are blessed when we worship God (Psalm 24:3-6)

Christians bless God through praise (Psalm 103:1)

God will bless those who fear him (Psalm 112:1-3)

God blesses us when we seek to please him (Matthew 6:33)

Christians should bless their enemies (Luke 6:28)

Salvation is our greatest blessing (Ephesians 1:3)

The Bible brings us blessing (James 1:25)

Blood

God hates the shedding of an innocent person's blood (Genesis 4:10)

Jesus' blood seals God's relationship with his people (Matthew 26:28)

Jesus' blood allows us to have access to God (Romans 5:8-9)

Christians are redeemed by Jesus' blood (Ephesians 1:5-7)

Blood is required for forgiveness (Hebrews 9:22)

Body of Christ

The body of Christ has been given many gifts (Romans 12:3-6)

There are many parts, but one body (1 Corinthians 12:12-13)

Christians make up the body of Christ (1 Corinthians 12:27)

Christians of different nationalities form one body (Ephesians 3:6)

There must be unity in the body of Christ (Ephesians 4:3)

Different members of the body help each other grow (Ephesians 4:11-12)

Jesus is the head of the body (Colossians 1:18)

Book of Life

God writes our names in his book (Psalm 87:6)

The names of Christians are in the Book of Life (Philippians 4:3)

Our names cannot be removed from the Book of Life (Revelation 3:5)

People whose names are not written in the Book of Life will experience God's wrath (Revelation 20:15)

Only those whose names are in God's Book will enter heaven (Revelation 21:27)

Bride

God's children should be as pure as a bride (Isaiah 49:18)

We should be devoted to God as a bride is to her husband (Jeremiah 2:2)

The church is the bride of Christ (2 Corinthians 11:2-3)

The bride of Christ will be presented to Christ (Revelation 19:7)

Business

God's people should be good workers (Genesis 31:42)

Work should not overrun your time with God (Exodus 16:23)

God gives you the ability to work (Exodus 35:30-31)

Workers should be trustworthy (Proverbs 25:13)

Do the best job you can (Ecclesiastes 9:10)

Work as though Jesus were your boss (Ephesians 6:6-7)

Christians should do their best at their job (Titus 2:9-10)

Caring

God cares for his people (Deuteronomy 7:9)

God cares for underprivileged people (Psalm 68:5)

Protect the needy (Psalm 82:3)

God's people should help the oppressed (Isaiah 1:17)

Care for your enemies (Luke 6:27)

God's people should care for the needy (Luke 14:13-14)

God cares for his children (Romans 1:6-7)

Treat parents with care (Ephesians 6:2)

Treat coworkers with care (Colossians 4:1)

Care for the elderly (1 Timothy 5:1-4)

Christians need to care for the needy (James 1:27)

Children

God tells children to honor their parents (Exodus 20:12)

Parents should teach their children to follow God
(Deuteronomy 6:6-7)

Christians are children of God (John 1:12)

Children of God should imitate God (Ephesians 5:1)

Parents should nurture their children (Ephesians 6:4)

The church should not allow immoral behavior by its members (Ephesians 5:3-4)

Christ is the head of the church (Colossians 1:18)

Many people groups form one universal church (Colossians 3:11)

Church leaders are qualified to lead by their character (Titus 1:6-9)

The church is made up of God's children (1 John 3:1)

The church is the bride of Christ (Revelation 19:7-8)

Comfort

Friends should comfort each other (Job 2:12-13)

God comforts us (Isaiah 40:1-11)

God promises to comfort those who mourn (Matthew 5:4)

God's Holy Spirit is our Comforter (John 14:16)

Jesus has overcome the world's troubles (John 16:33)

God comforts those who are hurting (2 Corinthians 1:3-11)

Christians should comfort each other (1 Thessalonians 4:18)

All pain will end (Revelation 21:3-4)

Complain

Bring your complaints to God (Psalm 142:1-2)

Christians should not complain to each other (Philippians 2:14)

People complain because they want their own way (Jude 1:16)

Compromise

Do not compromise your convictions (1 Kings 11:4)

Compromise can be wise (Matthew 5:25)

Compromise can divide our loyalty (Matthew 6:24)

Compromise can keep us from doing what is right (Mark 15:15)

Compromise can weaken faith (2 Corinthians 6:14-18)

Confession of Sin (see also Repentance)

Sin must be confessed (Leviticus 5:5)

God will restore those who turn away from evil (2 Chronicles 7:14)

Remorse accompanies confessing sin (Ezra 10:1)

God forgives confessed sins (Psalms 32:5)

Do not try to hide sin (Proverbs 28:13)

Confession of sin accompanies a changed lifestyle (2 Timothy 2:19)

God purifies those who confess their sin (1 John 1:9)

Conscience

Conscience moves us to turn from our mistakes (Proverbs 28:13)

We can suppress our conscience (Jonah 1:5)

The Holy Spirit can speak through our conscience (Romans 9:1)

Keep your conscience clear (1 Timothy 1:18-19)

Church leaders must have clear consciences (1 Timothy 3:9)

Consciences can be destroyed (1 Timothy 4:2)

Jesus' forgiveness clears our conscience (Hebrews 9:14)

A clear conscience helps us live a God-honoring life (1 Peter 3:16)

Courage

God gives us victory (Psalm 112:8)

Jesus' strength gives us courage (John 16:33)

Courage helps us boldly represent Christ (Acts 4:31)

Christians should be courageous (1 Corinthians 16:13)

Pray for courage (Ephesians 6:19-20)

God takes care of lonely people (Psalm 68:6)

Friends help in times of loneliness (Ecclesiastes 4:10-11)

God remains with us (Matthew 28:20)

Lord's Supper

Jesus celebrated the Lord's Supper with his disciples (Matthew 26:26-29)

Christians should be thankful for the Lord's Supper (1 Corinthians 10:16)

Christians who celebrate the Lord's Supper together should be unified (1 Corinthians 11:20-34)

Love

Love in marriage is strong (Song of Songs 8:6-7)

Love your enemies (Matthew 5:43-44)

Loving God is the most important command (Mark 12:29-30)

Christians must love each other (John 13:34)

We cannot be separated from Jesus' love (Romans 8:35-39)

Love must be genuine (Romans 12:9)

Love never quits (1 Corinthians 13:4-8)

God's love for us is beyond our understanding (Ephesians 3:18)

Love helps you look past offenses (1 Peter 4:8)

God is love (1 John 4:16)

We must be known for our love (2 John 1:5)

Loyalty

Friends are loyal (Proverbs 17:17)

We cannot divide our loyalty (Matthew 6:24)

There must be loyalty in marriage (Hebrews 13:4)

Lust

Lustful thoughts are sinful (Matthew 5:28)

Christians should not give in to lust (Colossians 3:5)

Christians should avoid lust (1 Thessalonians 4:3-5)

Godless people enjoy immorality (1 Peter 4:3)

Lying (see *Dishonesty*)

Marriage

God hates divorce (Malachi 2:16)

Two people become one through marriage (Mark 10:2-12)

Angels do not get married (Mark 12:25)

Married partners should meet each other's needs (1 Corinthians 7:2-5)

Married partners are united to each other for life (1 Corinthians 7:39)

A Christian wife can witness to her non-Christian husband (1 Peter 3:1-6)

Mercy

God requires that we show mercy (Micah 6:8)

People who show mercy to others will be rewarded (Matthew 5:7)

We should imitate God's mercy (Luke 6:36)

Jesus is merciful (1 Timothy 1:2)

Mercy is from God (2 Timothy 1:2)

The prophets prophesied about the Messiah (Genesis 3:15)

The Messiah's mother would be a virgin (Isaiah 7:14)

The Messiah would be great (Isaiah 9:6-7)

The Messiah would suffer (Isaiah 53:2-12)

The Messiah would heal broken lives (Isaiah 61:1-3)

The Messiah would be born in Bethlehem (Micah 5:2)

Jesus' disciples knew he was the Messiah (Mark 8:27-29)

The Messiah will come again (Mark 14:61-62)

Jesus claimed to be the Messiah (John 4:25-42)

The Messiah brings salvation (Hebrews 2:10)

Mind

Keep away from mental sins (Matthew 5:27-30)

A Christian's thoughts should be holy (Romans 12:2)

Our fellowship with God helps us make decisions (1 Corinthians 2:6-16)

Christians should please God with their thoughts (Philippians 4:8)

Money

Greed brings trouble (Proverbs 15:27)

Do not make money the most important part of your life (Matthew 6:19)

Money can distract people from God (Mark 10:17-24)

You cannot serve both God and money (Luke 16:13)

Christians should share their resources with those in need (Acts 2:42-45)

Christians should not be lovers of money (1 Timothy 3:3)

We should look to God for security, not money (1 Timothy 6:17-19)

Do not love money (Hebrews 13:5)

Be careful to treat rich and poor equally (James 2:1-9)

Murder

God has forbidden murder (Deuteronomy 5:17)

Hateful anger is the same in God's eyes as murder (Matthew 5:21-22)

Music

Music can be used to worship God (Exodus 15:1)

Music is useful to focus our attention on God (Psalm 81:1-2)

We should make music for God's glory (Colossians 3:16)

Obedience

Obedying is better than saying, “I’m sorry” (1 Samuel 15:22)

People who obey God’s Word will be blessed (Luke 11:28)

Christians should obey the government (Romans 13:1-4)

Children should obey their parents (Ephesians 6:1)

Christians obey God (1 John 2:3)

Pain

God cares for his people (Deuteronomy 7:9)

Friends should comfort each other (Job 2:12-13)

God comforts us in our darkest times (Job 35:10)

God watches over the weak (Psalm 12:5)

God comforts us (Isaiah 40:9-11)

God promises to comfort those who mourn (Matthew 5:4)

God's Holy Spirit is our Comforter (John 14:16)

Christians should comfort each other (1 Thessalonians 4:18)

All pain will end (Revelation 21:3-4)

Parents

Parents should teach children to follow God (Deuteronomy 6:6-7)

Parents should nurture their children (Ephesians 6:4)

Children must obey their parents (Colossians 3:20)

Patience

Be patient with God (Psalm 75:2)

Patience is valuable (Proverbs 25:15)

Patience is better than pride (Ecclesiastes 7:8)

Patience demonstrates love (1 Corinthians 13:4)

Patience is evidence of the Holy Spirit working in our lives

Be patient with each other (Ephesians 4:2)

Peace

Be full of peace (Psalm 34:14)

Jesus is known as the Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6-7)

Wicked people will not know peace (Isaiah 48:22)

We can have peace with God (Isaiah 53:5)

Make peace with others quickly (Matthew 5:23-26)

The peace Jesus gives is different than the world's peace
(John 14:27)

Jesus gives us peace (Romans 5:1)

Peace is evidence of the Holy Spirit working in our lives

We can have peace through prayer (Philippians 4:4-7)

Power

Christians receive power from the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:8)

The Bible is a powerful weapon (Ephesians 6:17)

Jesus is the greatest power (Hebrews 1:1-4)

Prayer can be powerful (James 5:16)

Christians have power to overcome the world (1 John 5:4-5)

Praise (see *Worship*)

Prayer

Ask God for help (Psalm 40:13)

God does not hear our prayers if we are purposely sinning
(Micah 3:4)

Prayer should not be a show (Matthew 6:6)

Jesus taught his disciples how to pray (Matthew 6:9-13)

Pray with an attitude of humility (Luke 18:9-14)

Pray in Jesus' name (John 16:23-24)

Pray all the time (Ephesians 6:18)

Pray without doubting (James 1:6)

Pray with the right motives (James 4:3)

Pray according to God's will (1 John 5:14-15)

Pride (see also Self-Esteem)

Pride leads to shame (Proverbs 11:2)

Pride leads to arguments (Proverbs 13:10)

Pride will be punished (Proverbs 16:5)

Pride ends in destruction (Proverbs 16:18)

Pride cuts us off from God and others (Luke 18:9-14)

There is no place for proud boasting in the Christian life (Romans 3:27)

God chose to reveal himself to the humble, not the proud (1 Corinthians 1:26-31)

Pride is not compatible with the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-26)

God opposes the proud (James 4:6)

Problems (see Stress, Suffering, Trials)

Procrastination

We must not procrastinate in choosing to serve the Lord
(Joshua 24:15)

God does not procrastinate (Habakkuk 2:3)

Those who procrastinate lose out (Luke 14:16-21)

Today is the day to be saved (2 Corinthians 6:2)

No one can procrastinate forever (Revelation 10:6)

Prophecy (see also Teaching)

Prophecy reveals a message from God (Deuteronomy 18:21-22)

False prophecy is not from God (Jeremiah 23:25-32)

Claiming to prophesy does not indicate salvation (Matthew 7:21-23)

The Holy Spirit allows believers to prophesy (Acts 2:17-18)

Prophecy is a spiritual gift (1 Corinthians 14:1-5)

We should listen to God's message (1 Thessalonians 5:20)

True prophets speak God's words (2 Peter 1:20-21)

Purity

Only God can make us pure (Psalm 51:1-10)

We can remain pure by following God's Word ( Psalm 119:1-20)

We cannot claim purity apart from God (Proverbs 20:9)

The pure in heart will see God (Matthew 5:8)

Purity begins in the heart (Matthew 5:27-30)

Outward purity cannot substitute for inner purity (Matthew 23:25-28)

Purity comes from God (John 17:17)

Purity ought to mark believers' lives (Ephesians 5:1-4)

Our minds should think about things that are pure (Philippians 4:8)

One day our purity will be like Christ's (1 John 3:1-3)

Questions

God may not always answer our questions (Job 42:1-3)

God welcomes our sincere questions (Luke 7:18-23)

We need not be afraid when questioned about our faith
(Luke 21:12-15)

We should be ready with answers when questioned about our faith (1 Peter 3:15)

Rapture (see *Second Coming of Christ*)

Relationships (see also Friendship, Marriage)

Our relationship with God is made possible through Jesus Christ (John 14:19-21)

Our relationships should not compromise our faith (2 Corinthians 6:14-18)

We are unified with all believers in God's family (Ephesians 2:21-22)

Our relationship with Christ is deep and abiding (2 Timothy 2:11-13)

Our relationship with Christ makes us children of God (1 John 3:1-3)

Repentance (see also Confession of Sin)

Repentance of sin opens the way for a relationship with God (Luke 3:7-8)

Unless we repent of our sins, we will perish (Luke 13:3-5)

Angels rejoice when a sinner repents (Luke 15:7)

Forgive those who repent of wrongs done to you (Luke 17:4)

Repentance is essential for the Holy Spirit to work (Acts 2:38)

God can use difficulties to encourage us to repent (2 Corinthians 7:9-10)

God would like everyone to repent and believe (2 Peter 3:9)

Reputation

A good reputation can be built by obeying God's Word
(Deuteronomy 4:1-14)

Integrity builds a good reputation (Ruth 2:1-13)

A bad reputation will follow you (Proverbs 25:9-10)

The Christians in Rome had a reputation for obedience
(Romans 16:19)

Guard your reputation (2 Corinthians 8:18-24)

Maintain a good reputation among non-Christians
(Colossians 4:5)

Respect (see also Authority)

God is worthy of our respect (Exodus 3:5)

Our parents are worthy of respect (Leviticus 19:3)

Those in authority should have our respect (1 Samuel 24:1-6)

Husbands and wives should respect each other (Ephesians 5:33)

Those in leadership should have respectful children (1 Timothy 3:4)

Show respect to all people (1 Peter 2:17)

Responsibility

Responsible people admit their wrongs (1 Chronicles 21:8)

Responsible people are faithful with what they have been given (Matthew 25:14-30)

People are responsible for their decision about Christ (John 3:18-19)

Responsible people know their abilities and limitations (Acts 6:1-7)

People are responsible for their own actions (James 1:13-15)

Rest

God gave us an example of and a command to rest (Genesis 2:3)

Rest is important for worship (Exodus 20:8)

God tells us to rest (Exodus 23:12)

Jesus promises to give us rest from our burdens (Matthew 11:28-30)

Rest is a gift of God (Hebrews 4:9-11)

Heaven will be a place of rest (Revelation 14:13)

Resurrection

Christ's resurrection is a historical fact (Matthew 28:5-10)

All people will be resurrected (John 5:24-30)

Jesus promised to raise his followers (John 6:38-40)

We know we will be resurrected (John 11:24-26)

We will experience resurrection (Romans 6:3-11)

Jesus' resurrection is the foundation of Christianity (1 Corinthians 15:12-21)

Our resurrected bodies will be eternal bodies (1 Corinthians 15:51-53)

Revenge

God's people should not seek revenge (Leviticus 19:18)

Do not pay back evil for evil (Proverbs 24:29)

Believers ought to resist revenge (Matthew 5:38-42)

Leave revenge in God's hands (Romans 12:19)

Desire for revenge is not compatible with the Christian life (1 Thessalonians 5:15)

Jesus is our example (1 Peter 2:21-23)

Righteous/ Righteousness

God is completely righteous (Isaiah 45:21-24)

We cannot attain righteousness on our own (Isaiah 64:6)

Human nature is the opposite of righteousness (Romans 3:10-18)

Righteousness is not attained by works (Romans 4:18-25)

Strict legalism cannot make us righteous (Galatians 3:11-21)

Our God-given righteousness is armor against Satan's attacks (Ephesians 6:14)

We become righteous through faith in Christ (Philippians 3:9)

Studying God's Word helps us grow in righteousness (2 Timothy 3:16)

Righteousness ought to characterize each believer's life (1 Peter 2:24)

Sadness (see Grief, Sorrow)

Salvation

Those who receive salvation become God's children (John 1:12-13)

Salvation is a work of the Holy Spirit in a person's life (John 3:1-16)

Belief and trust in Jesus Christ are the only way to be saved (John 14:6)

Salvation includes gaining a relationship with God (John 17:1-5)

Receiving salvation means we must turn from our sins (Acts 2:37-38)

Salvation cannot be earned; it is a gift of God (Romans 6:23)

Receiving salvation is simple and personal (Romans 10:8-10)

Salvation is by God's grace alone (Ephesians 2:1-9)

Salvation rescues us from Satan's dominion (Colossians 1:13-14)

Our salvation was obtained by Jesus' blood (1 Peter 1:18-19)

Satan (see also ***Demons***)

Satan is under God's authority (Job 1:6-12)

Satan will tempt Jesus' followers (Matthew 4:1-11)

Satan is completely evil (John 8:44)

Satan is the temporary ruler over this world (Ephesians 2:1-2)

Satan and his demons are spiritual (Ephesians 6:12)

Satan works through an army of demons (1 Timothy 4:1)

Believers have the authority to resist Satan (James 4:1-10)

Satan is an enemy to Christians (1 Peter 5:8)

Jesus destroyed Satan's work with his death on the cross (1 John 3:7-8)

Satan is a defeated enemy (Revelation 20:10)

Second Coming of Christ

We do not know when Jesus will return (Matthew 24:36)

Christ's return will be unmistakable (Mark 13:26-27)

Christ's return will be joyous for those who are ready (Luke 12:35-40)

The Second Coming will be a time of judgment on unbelievers (John 12:37-50)

At Christ's second coming we will be with him forever (John 14:1-3)

The promise of Christ's return (Acts 1:10-11)

Believers will be resurrected and given glorious bodies (1 Corinthians 15:51-57)

Christ's return will be visible and glorious (1 Thessalonians 4:16)

At Christ's return, Christians both dead and alive will rise to meet him (1 Thessalonians 4:16-17)

Continue to serve God as you await the Second Coming (1 Peter 4:7-8)

Patiently await Christ's return (2 Peter 3:8-13)

Jesus is coming soon (Revelation 22:20-21)

Self Esteem (see also Pride)

We are made in God's image (Genesis 1:26-27)

We are a little lower than the angels (Psalm 8:3-5)

God took special care to create us (Psalm 139:1-18)

We have been formed by God's loving hands (Isaiah 64:8)

We are of great value to God (Luke 12:4-12)

God gave his Son for us (John 3:16)

Our self-esteem is affected by our relationship with Christ
(Romans 12:1-8)

Our self-esteem is based on God's approval (2 Corinthians 10:12-18)

We should not overestimate ourselves (Galatians 6:3-5)

Sex

Sex is God's gift to married people (Proverbs 5:15-21)

Sex outside of marriage is foolish (Proverbs 6:23-35)

Sex within marriage is meant to be a delight (Song of Songs 4:1-16)

Sexual sin begins in the mind (Matthew 5:27-30)

Sex is a powerful bond not meant to be taken lightly (1 Corinthians 6:13-20)

Sexual immorality has no place among Christians (Ephesians 5:1-3)

We are to have nothing to do with sexual immorality (Colossians 3:5)

God wants us to live in holiness, not lustful passion (1 Thessalonians 4:1-8)

Sex in marriage is honorable and pure (Hebrews 13:4)

Sickness

God cares for the sick (Psalm 41:1-13)

A cheerful spirit can act as good medicine against sickness (Proverbs 17:22)

Jesus can heal sickness (Matthew 4:23-25)

Believers ought to have compassion on the sick (Matthew 25:34-40)

It is better to be physically crippled than spiritually crippled (Mark 9:43-48)

Paul had an infirmity that God would not remove (2 Corinthians 12:7-10)

Sin

Sin has consequences (Genesis 3:1-19)

God must punish sin (Exodus 32:34)

Our consciences can identify sin (2 Samuel 24:10-15)

We should humbly confess our sins to God (Ezra 9:5-15)

We should ask God to forgive our sins (Psalm 51:1-10)

Stay away from people who lead you to sin (Proverbs 1:10-19)

Sin begins in the mind (Matthew 5:27-28)

All people have sinned (Romans 3:23)

Sin leads to eternal death (Romans 6:23)

Jesus takes the penalty of our sin on himself (Romans 8:1-2)

Sin begins with temptation (James 1:15)

We can sin by avoiding something we should do (James 4:17)

God is willing to forgive our sins (1 John 1:8-9)

Singleness

Some people remain single to work for God's Kingdom
(Matthew 19:12)

Singleness is a gift from God (1 Corinthians 7:7-8)

Single people can serve God (1 Corinthians 7:25-31)

Single people have more time to focus on service for God (1 Corinthians 7:32-35)

Sorrow (see also Grief)

Sorrow is often a necessary part of repentance (Judges 2:4-5)

Weeping will be followed by joy (Psalm 30:5)

Jesus understands sorrow (Isaiah 53:3-9)

God promises comfort to those who experience sorrow (Matthew 5:4)

God may use sorrow to point out sin and draw us back to him (2 Corinthians 7:10-11)

We sorrow over believers who die, but one day we will meet again (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18)

Sorrow will not exist in God's Kingdom (Revelation 21:3-4)

Soul

People cannot destroy your soul (Matthew 10:28)

We are to love God with our whole being—heart, soul, and mind (Matthew 22:36-40)

It is of no value to gain the world but lose your soul (Mark 8:34-38)

We can place our soul under Christ's protection (John 10:27-29)

Believers are assured of immortality (1 Corinthians 15:46-53)

Spiritual Gifts

God expects us to use our gifts (Romans 12:3-8)

God gives us our spiritual gifts (1 Corinthians 12:4-11)

Spiritual gifts build up the body of Christ (Ephesians 4:11-13)

Spiritual gifts ought not be denied nor overemphasized (1 Thessalonians 5:19-22)

God distributes spiritual gifts according to his will (Hebrews 2:4)

Stress

Delegating work can alleviate stress (Exodus 18:13-26)

God is a refuge in times of stress (Psalm 62:1-8)

Pray to God in times of stress (Psalm 69:1-36)

Wait upon the Lord (Isaiah 40:30-31)

God is always with us (Romans 8:31-39)

God cares about our stress (2 Corinthians 4:8-12)

Don't let stress cause you to worry (Philippians 4:4-9)

Submission (see also Obedience)

Christ is our example of submission to the Father's will (Matthew 26:39, 42)

Following Christ requires submission to him (Luke 14:27)

God created lines of authority for harmonious relationships (1 Corinthians 11:2-16)

Marriage calls for mutual submission (Ephesians 5:21-33)

Submit to God (James 4:7-10)

Suffering (see also *Trial*s)

Those who suffer need encouragement (Job 16:1-6)

Christ's followers will face suffering (Matthew 16:21-26)

Our suffering helps us comfort others who are suffering (2 Corinthians 1:3-7)

Our suffering will end in glory (2 Corinthians 4:17-18)

Jesus can help us through suffering (Hebrews 2:11-18)

Christ showed how to handle suffering (1 Peter 2:21-24)

There will be no suffering in Christ's Kingdom (Revelation 21:4)

Teaching (see also Witnessing)

Parents must teach their children about the Lord
(Deuteronomy 6:4-9)

Believers teach each other (2 Timothy 2:2)

Qualities of a good teacher (2 Timothy 2:22-26)

Instruction to those who teach God's Word (Titus 2:1-15)

Temptation

Temptation comes from Satan (Genesis 3:1-6)

How to avoid temptation (Proverbs 7:1-5)

How to respond when tempted (Matthew 4:1-11)

God will provide a way of escape from every temptation (1 Corinthians 10:13)

Run from temptation (2 Timothy 2:22)

Christ can help us, for he, too, has faced temptation (Hebrews 4:15-16)

God never tempts people to sin (James 1:13-15)

Thankfulness

Thank the Lord because he is good (Psalm 107:1-3)

Be thankful for answers to prayer (Psalm 138:1-5)

Be thankful for salvation (Ephesians 2:4-10)

Our prayers should include words of thankfulness
(Philippians 4:6)

Our life should be characterized by thankfulness to God
(Colossians 3:15-17)

We are called to give thanks in all circumstances (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18)

Trials (see also Suffering)

Christ promises us rest from our trials (Matthew 11:28-30)

Jesus understands our struggles (John 15:18)

Have peace in trials (John 16:33)

Trials help us develop patience (Romans 5:1-5)

God knows what he is doing with our life (Romans 8:28)

Believers can expect to suffer for their faith (2 Corinthians 6:3-13)

Present trials fade in comparison to the joy of our relationship with Christ (Philippians 3:7-11)

God expects us to grow through our trials (James 1:2-4)

Trust (see *Faith*)

Truth

God wants us to be true and righteous (Psalm 51:1-6)

Truth never changes (Proverbs 12:19)

Truth sets us free (John 8:31-32)

Truth is found in Jesus Christ (John 14:6)

God's Word is truth (John 17:17)

We must not only believe the truth but also live by it (1 John 1:5-7)

Unbelievers

We must not imitate unbelievers (Psalm 26:5)

We must share the gospel with unbelievers (John 17:14-19)

Unbelievers do not belong to Christ (Romans 8:9)

We should avoid situations that force us to compromise our beliefs (2 Corinthians 6:14-18)

Unbelievers will not enter heaven (1 John 5:10-12)

Unity

Unity among believers pleases God (Psalm 133:1)

Christians are not supposed to live in isolation (John 17:11)

Unity includes bearing one another's joys and burdens (Romans 12:9-16)

Believers must seek unity in all essentials (1 Corinthians 1:10)

There can be great unity even in great diversity (Ephesians 4:3-13)

The love Christ commanded should create unity among believers (Philippians 1:3-11)

Unity ought to be a distinctive mark among Christians (Philippians 2:1-2)

Wisdom

The fear of God is the beginning of wisdom (Proverbs 1:7)

To find wisdom, first find God (Proverbs 2:6-12)

Wise people accept advice (Proverbs 13:10)

Wise people boast not in their wisdom but in knowing God (Jeremiah 9:23-24)

The wise understand God's ways and follow his guidance (Hosea 14:9)

Wise people build on the solid foundation of God and his Word (Matthew 7:24-27)

God's wisdom is different from the world's wisdom (1 Corinthians 2:1-16)

God will give us wisdom if we ask for it (James 1:5)

Witnessing (see also Evangelism, Teaching)

Bringing the good news of Christ is a wonderful privilege (Isaiah 52:7)

God's message will accomplish what he desires wherever it is spoken (Isaiah 55:10-11)

God holds us accountable for avoiding a chance to witness for him (Ezekiel 3:18-19)

Let your light shine (Matthew 5:14-16)

Jesus commanded all believers to witness (Matthew 28:16-20)

If we acknowledge our faith before people, Jesus will acknowledge us (Luke 12:8-9)

Christians are called to spread the gospel across the world (Acts 1:8)

We plant or water the seed of faith, but only God makes it grow (1 Corinthians 3:5-9)

God has entrusted us with the message we need to share with others (2 Corinthians 5:18-21)

Always be ready to tell what God has done for you (1 Peter 3:15)

Women

God's image is shared equally by women and men (Genesis 1:26-27)

Women should fulfill their responsibilities well (Proverbs 31:10-31)

Women and men are equal before God (Galatians 3:28)

The church should care for widows who have no relatives (1 Timothy 5:3-16)

Work

Hard work is honored by God (Genesis 31:38-42)

Use your skills to honor God (Exodus 36:1)

Hard work brings rewards (Proverbs 12:14)

Hard work helps supply basic needs (Proverbs 28:19)

Our work for God is never wasted (1 Corinthians 15:58)

All work should be done as though we are working for God
(Ephesians 6:5-9)

Worry (see Stress)

Worship (see also Church)

Worship is an encounter with the living and holy God (Exodus 3:1-6)

Worship is reserved for God alone (Exodus 34:14)

In worship, we ascribe to the Lord the glory due him (Psalms 29:1-2)

We can worship because of Christ's sacrifice on our behalf (Hebrews 10:1-10)

We should worship with reverence for God (Hebrews 12:28)

When we draw near to God, he draws near to us (James 4:8)

Youth (see Adolescence)

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

Firsts—the universe, people, families, nations. Genesis means “beginning,” and the book of Genesis is the foundation for the rest of the Bible.

WHO WROTE IT?

Christian and Jewish traditions say the author was Moses.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

This book covers from the beginning of time up through the 1400s B.C.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

At the head of the line, both historically and spiritually.

THE BREAKDOWN

Chapters 1–3: Creation; Adam and Eve; sin

Chapters 4–5: Genealogies

Chapters 6–9: Noah

Chapters 10–11: Growth of nations; Tower of Babel

Chapters 12–23: Abraham

Chapters 24–26: Abraham and Isaac

Chapters 27–36: Jacob

Chapters 37–50: Joseph

KEY CONCEPTS

The words This is the history of. . . are used often to mark off main sections of the book.

SCORECARD

ADAM: The first man

EVE: The first woman

CAIN: The first murderer

NOAH: God used him to save humans and animals.

ABRAHAM: God chose him to be the father of the Jewish people.

ISAAC: Abraham's son

JACOB: Isaac's son; his name was changed to Israel

JOSEPH: Jacob's favorite son; God used him to save Jacob's family from famine

WORTH MEMORIZING

THE BIBLE'S OPENING WORDS IN 1:1.

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

JOSEPH'S WORDS IN 50:20.

You intended to harm me, but God intended it all for good. He brought me to this position so I could save the lives of many people.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

WORK IS A GOOD THING.

God gave Adam an important job to do, and Adam did it well. It's no accident that men find fulfillment in their work; God designed it that way.

MARRIAGE IS A GOOD THING.

Adam was, in a sense, incomplete until God created Eve.

SIN IS A REALITY EVERYONE MUST FACE.

Since Adam and Eve sinned, we're all corrupted. This means we can't always trust our instincts about what's right and what's wrong. Instead, we need an independent moral rudder—God's Word.

The Account of Creation

<sup>1</sup> In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.* <sup>2</sup> The earth was formless and empty, and darkness covered the deep waters. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters.

<sup>3</sup>Then God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. <sup>4</sup>And God saw that the light was good. Then he separated the light from the darkness. <sup>5</sup>God called the light “day” and the darkness “night.”

And evening passed and morning came, marking the first day.

<sup>6</sup>Then God said, “Let there be a space between the waters, to separate the waters of the heavens from the waters of the earth.” <sup>7</sup>And that is what happened. God made this space to separate the waters of the earth from the waters of the heavens.

And evening passed and morning came, marking the second day.

<sup>9</sup>Then God said, “Let the waters beneath the sky flow together into one place, so dry ground may appear.” And that is what happened. <sup>10</sup>God called the dry ground “land” and the waters “seas.” And God saw that it was good. <sup>11</sup>Then God said, “Let the land sprout with vegetation—every sort of seed-bearing plant, and trees that grow seed-bearing fruit. These seeds will then produce the kinds of plants and trees from which they came.” And that is what happened. <sup>12</sup>The land produced vegetation—all sorts of seed-bearing plants, and trees with seed-bearing fruit. Their seeds produced plants and trees of the same kind. And God saw that it was good.

<sup>14</sup>Then God said, “Let lights appear in the sky to separate the day from the night. Let them be signs to mark the seasons, days, and years. <sup>15</sup>Let these lights in the sky shine down on the earth.” And that is what happened. <sup>16</sup>God made two great lights—the larger one to govern the day, and the smaller one to govern the night. He also made the stars. <sup>17</sup>God set these lights in the sky to light the earth, <sup>18</sup>to govern the day and night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good.

<sup>20</sup>Then God said, “Let the waters swarm with fish and other life. Let the skies be filled with birds of every kind.” <sup>21</sup>So God created great sea creatures and every living thing that scurries and swarms in the water, and every sort of bird—each producing offspring of the same kind. And God saw that it was good. <sup>22</sup>Then God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply. Let the fish fill the seas, and let the birds multiply on the earth.”

<sup>24</sup> Then God said, “Let the earth produce every sort of animal, each producing offspring of the same kind—livestock, small animals that scurry along the ground, and wild animals.” And that is what happened. <sup>25</sup>God made all sorts of wild animals, livestock, and small animals, each able to produce offspring of the same kind. And God saw that it was good.

<sup>26</sup> Then God said, “Let us make human beings* in our image, to be like us. They will reign over the fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, the livestock, all the wild animals on the earth, and the small animals that scurry along the ground.”

In the image of God he created them;
male and female he created them.

Making a Man and a Woman

<sup>28</sup>Then God blessed them and said, “Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the earth and govern it. Reign over the fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, and all the animals that scurry along the ground.”

Work

<sup>29</sup>Then God said, “Look! I have given you every seed-bearing plant throughout the earth and all the fruit trees for your food. <sup>30</sup>And I have given every green plant as food for all the wild animals, the birds in the sky, and the small animals that scurry along the ground—everything that has life.” And that is what happened.

<sup>31</sup>Then God looked over all he had made, and he saw that it was very good!

And evening passed and morning came, marking the sixth day.

Genesis 2

<sup>1</sup>So the creation of the heavens and the earth and everything in them was completed. <sup>2</sup>On the seventh day God had finished his work of creation, so he rested* from all his work. <sup>3</sup>And God blessed the seventh day and declared it holy, because it was the day when he rested from all his work of creation.

Personal Gold

Are We Having Fun Yet?

<sup>4</sup> This is the account of the creation of the heavens and the earth.

The Man and Woman in Eden

When the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, <sup>5</sup>neither wild plants nor grains were growing on the earth. For the LORD God had not yet sent rain to water the earth, and there were no people to cultivate the soil. <sup>6</sup>Instead, springs* came up from the ground and watered all the land. <sup>7</sup>Then the LORD God formed the man from the dust of the ground. He breathed the breath of life into the man's nostrils, and the man became a living person.

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD God planted a garden in Eden in the east, and there he placed the man he had made. <sup>9</sup>The LORD God made all sorts of trees grow up from the ground—trees that were beautiful and that produced delicious fruit. In the middle of the garden he placed the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

<sup>10</sup>A river flowed from the land of Eden, watering the garden and then dividing into four branches. <sup>11</sup>The first branch, called the Pishon, flowed around the entire land of Havilah, where gold is found. <sup>12</sup>The gold of that land is exceptionally pure; aromatic resin and onyx stone are also found there. <sup>13</sup>The second branch, called the Gihon, flowed around the entire land of Cush. <sup>14</sup>The third branch, called the Tigris, flowed east of the land of Asshur. The fourth branch is called the Euphrates.

Adam

<sup>15</sup>The LORD God placed the man in the Garden of Eden to tend and watch over it. <sup>16</sup>But the LORD God warned him, “You may freely eat the fruit of every tree in the garden—<sup>17</sup>except the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. If you eat its fruit, you are sure to die.”

<sup>18</sup>Then the LORD God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper who is just right for him.” <sup>19</sup>So the LORD God formed from the ground all the wild animals and all the birds of the sky. He brought them to the man* to see what he would call them, and the man chose a name for each one.

<sup>20</sup>He gave names to all the livestock, all the birds of the sky, and all the wild animals. But still there was no helper just right for him.

and flesh from my flesh!
She will be called ‘woman,’ because she was taken from ‘man.’”

<sup>24</sup>This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one.

<sup>25</sup>Now the man and his wife were both naked, but they felt no shame.

Naked and Unashamed

Genesis 3

The Man and Woman Sin

<sup>1</sup>The serpent was the shrewdest of all the wild animals the LORD God had made. One day he asked the woman, “Did God really say you must not eat the fruit from any of the trees in the garden?”

<sup>2</sup>“Of course we may eat fruit from the trees in the garden,” the woman replied. <sup>3</sup>“It’s only the fruit from the tree in the middle of the garden that we are not allowed to eat. God said, ‘You must not eat it or even touch it; if you do, you will die.’”

<sup>4</sup>“You won’t die!” the serpent replied to the woman. <sup>5</sup>“God knows that your eyes will be opened as soon as you eat it, and you will be like God, knowing both good and evil.”

<sup>6</sup>The woman was convinced. She saw that the tree was beautiful and its fruit looked delicious, and she wanted the wisdom it would give her. So she took some of the fruit and ate it. Then she gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it, too. <sup>7</sup>At that moment their eyes were opened, and they suddenly felt shame at their nakedness. So they sewed fig leaves together to cover themselves.

<sup>8</sup>When the cool evening breezes were blowing, the man* and his wife heard the LORD God walking about in the garden. So they hid from the LORD God among the trees. <sup>9</sup>Then the LORD God called to the man, “Where are you?”

<sup>10</sup>He replied, “I heard you walking in the garden, so I hid. I was afraid because I was naked.”

<sup>11</sup>“Who told you that you were naked?” the LORD God asked. “Have you eaten from the tree whose fruit I commanded you not to eat?”

<sup>12</sup>The man replied, “It was the woman you gave me who gave me the fruit, and I ate it.”

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD God asked the woman, “What have you done?”

Passing the Buck

“The serpent deceived me,” she replied. “That’s why I ate it.”

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD God said to the serpent, “Because you have done this, you are cursed more than all animals, domestic and wild.

You will crawl on your belly, groveling in the dust as long as you live.

<sup>15</sup> And I will cause hostility between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring.

He will strike* your head, and you will strike his heel.”

<sup>16</sup>Then he said to the woman,

“I will sharpen the pain of your pregnancy, and in pain you will give birth.

And you will desire to control your husband,

but he will rule over you.*”

<sup>17</sup>And to the man he said,

“Since you listened to your wife and ate from the tree whose fruit I commanded you not to eat, the ground is cursed because of you.
All your life you will struggle to scratch a living from it.

<sup>18</sup>It will grow thorns and thistles for you, though you will eat of its grains.

will you have food to eat until you return to the ground from which you were made.
For you were made from dust, and to dust you will return.”

Paradise Lost: God's Judgment

<sup>20</sup> Then the man—Adam—named his wife Eve, because she would be the mother of all who live.* <sup>21</sup>And the LORD God made clothing from animal skins for Adam and his wife.

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD God said, “Look, the human beings* have become like us, knowing both good and evil. What if they reach out, take fruit from the tree of life, and eat it? Then they will live forever!” <sup>23</sup>So the LORD God banished them from the Garden of Eden, and he sent Adam out to cultivate the ground from which he had been made. <sup>24</sup>After sending them out, the LORD God stationed mighty cherubim to the east of the Garden of Eden. And he placed a flaming sword that flashed back and forth to guard the way to the tree of life.

Cain

Genesis 4

Cain and Abel

When they grew up, Abel became a shepherd, while Cain cultivated the ground. <sup>3</sup>When it was time for the harvest, Cain presented some of his crops as a gift to the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Abel also brought a gift—the best of the firstborn lambs from his flock. The LORD accepted Abel and his gift, <sup>5</sup>but he did not accept Cain and his gift. This made Cain very angry, and he looked dejected.

<sup>6</sup>“Why are you so angry?” the LORD asked Cain. “Why do you look so dejected? <sup>7</sup>You will be accepted if you do what is right. But if you refuse to do what is right, then watch out! Sin is crouching at the door, eager to control you. But you must subdue it and be its master.”

“I don’t know,” Cain responded. “Am I my brother’s guardian?”

<sup>10</sup>But the LORD said, “What have you done? Listen! Your brother’s blood cries out to me from the ground! <sup>11</sup>Now you are cursed and banished from the ground, which has swallowed your brother’s blood. <sup>12</sup>No longer will the ground yield good crops for you, no matter how hard you work! From now on you will be a homeless wanderer on the earth.”

<sup>13</sup>Cain replied to the LORD, “My punishment* is too great for me to bear! <sup>14</sup>You have banished me from the land and from your presence; you have made me a homeless wanderer. Anyone who finds me will kill me!”

<sup>15</sup> The LORD replied, “No, for I will give a sevenfold punishment to anyone who kills you.” Then the LORD put a mark on Cain to warn anyone who might try to kill him. <sup>16</sup>So Cain left the LORD’s presence and settled in the land of Nod,* east of Eden.

The Descendants of Cain

which he named Enoch, after his son.<sup>18</sup> Enoch had a son named Irad. Irad became the father of* Mehujael. Mehujael became the father of Methushael. Methushael became the father of Lamech.

<sup>19</sup> Lamech married two women. The first was named Adah, and the second was Zillah.<sup>20</sup> Adah gave birth to Jabal, who was the first of those who raise livestock and live in tents.<sup>21</sup> His brother's name was Jubal, the first of all who play the harp and flute.<sup>22</sup> Lamech's other wife, Zillah, gave birth to a son named Tubal-cain. He became an expert in forging tools of bronze and iron. Tubal-cain had a sister named Naamah.<sup>23</sup> One day Lamech said to his wives, “Adah and Zillah, hear my voice;

listen to me, you wives of Lamech.
I have killed a man who attacked me, a young man who wounded me.

then the one who kills me will be punished seventy-seven times!”

The Birth of Seth

<sup>25</sup> Adam had sexual relations with his wife again, and she gave birth to another son. She named him Seth,* for she said, “God has granted me another son in place of Abel, whom Cain killed.”<sup>26</sup> When Seth grew up, he had a son and named him Enosh. At that time people first began to worship the LORD by name.

Genesis 5

The Descendants of Adam

<sup>1</sup> This is the written account of the descendants of Adam. When God created human beings,* he made them to be like himself. <sup>2</sup>He created them male and female, and he blessed them and called them “human.”

<sup>3</sup>When Adam was 130 years old, he became the father of a son who was just like him—in his very image. He named his son Seth. <sup>4</sup>After the birth of Seth, Adam lived another 800 years, and he had other sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup>Adam lived 930 years, and then he died.

<sup>6</sup>When Seth was 105 years old, he became the father of* Enosh. <sup>7</sup>After the birth of* Enosh, Seth lived another 807 years, and he had other sons and daughters. <sup>8</sup>Seth lived 912 years, and then he died.

<sup>9</sup>When Enosh was 90 years old, he became the father of Kenan. <sup>10</sup>After the birth of Kenan, Enosh lived another 815 years, and he had other sons and daughters. <sup>11</sup>Enosh lived 905 years, and then he died.

<sup>12</sup>When Kenan was 70 years old, he became the father of Mahalalel. <sup>13</sup>After the birth of Mahalalel, Kenan lived another 840 years, and he had other sons and daughters. <sup>14</sup>Kenan lived 910 years, and then he died.

Jared. <sup>16</sup>After the birth of Jared, Mahalalel lived another 830 years, and he had other sons and daughters. <sup>17</sup>Mahalalel lived 895 years, and then he died.

<sup>18</sup>When Jared was 162 years old, he became the father of Enoch. <sup>19</sup>After the birth of Enoch, Jared lived another 800 years, and he had other sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup>Jared lived 962 years, and then he died.

<sup>25</sup>When Methuselah was 187 years old, he became the father of Lamech. <sup>26</sup>After the birth of Lamech, Methuselah lived another 782 years, and he had other sons and daughters. <sup>27</sup>Methuselah lived 969 years, and then he died.

<sup>28</sup>When Lamech was 182 years old, he became the father of a son. <sup>29</sup>Lamech named his son Noah, for he said, “May he bring us relief* from our work and the painful labor of farming this ground that the LORD has cursed.” <sup>30</sup>After the birth of Noah, Lamech lived another 595 years, and he had other sons and daughters. <sup>31</sup>Lamech lived 777 years, and then he died.

<sup>32</sup>By the time Noah was 500 years old, he was the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Genesis 6

A World Gone Wrong

<sup>1</sup>Then the people began to multiply on the earth, and daughters were born to them. <sup>2</sup>The sons of God saw the beautiful women* and took any they wanted as their wives. <sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said, “My Spirit will not put up with* humans for such a long time, for they are only mortal flesh. In the future, their normal lifespan will be no more than 120 years.”

<sup>4</sup>In those days, and for some time after, giant Nephilites lived on the earth, for whenever the sons of God had intercourse with women, they gave birth to children who became the heroes and famous warriors of ancient times.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD observed the extent of human wickedness on the earth, and he saw that everything they thought or imagined was consistently and totally evil. <sup>6</sup>So the LORD was sorry he had ever made them and put them on the earth. It broke his heart. <sup>7</sup>And the LORD said, “I will wipe this human race I have created from the face of the earth. Yes, and I will destroy every living thing—all the people, the large animals, the small animals that scurry along the ground, and even the birds of the sky. I am sorry I ever made them.” <sup>8</sup>But Noah found favor with the LORD.

Noah

The Story of Noah

<sup>9</sup>This is the account of Noah and his family. Noah was a righteous man, the only blameless person living on earth at the time, and he walked in close fellowship with God. <sup>10</sup>Noah was the father of three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

<sup>11</sup>Now God saw that the earth had become corrupt and was filled with violence. <sup>12</sup>God observed all this corruption in the world, for everyone on earth was corrupt. <sup>13</sup>So God said to Noah, “I have decided to destroy all living creatures, for they have filled the earth with violence. Yes, I will wipe them all out along with the earth!

destroy every living thing that breathes. Everything on earth will die. <sup>18</sup>But I will confirm my covenant with you. So enter the boat—you and your wife and your sons and their wives. <sup>19</sup>Bring a pair of every kind of animal—a male and a female—into the boat with you to keep them alive during the flood. <sup>20</sup>Pairs of every kind of bird, and every kind of animal, and every kind of small animal that scurries along the ground, will come to you to be kept alive. <sup>21</sup>And be sure to take on board enough food for your family and for all the animals.”

22 So Noah did everything exactly as God had commanded him.

Genesis 7

The Flood Covers the Earth

<sup>1</sup>When everything was ready, the LORD said to Noah, “Go into the boat with all your family, for among all the people of the earth, I can see that you alone are righteous. <sup>2</sup>Take with you seven pairs—male and female—of each animal I have approved for eating and for sacrifice,* and take one pair of each of the others. <sup>3</sup>Also take seven pairs of every kind of bird. There must be a male and a female in each pair to ensure that all life will survive on the earth after the flood. <sup>4</sup>Seven days from now I will make the rains pour down on the earth. And it will rain for forty days and forty nights, until I have wiped from the earth all the living things I have created.”

<sup>6</sup>Noah was 600 years old when the flood covered the earth. <sup>7</sup>He went on board the boat to escape the flood—he and his wife and his sons and their wives. <sup>8</sup>With them were all the various kinds of animals—those approved for eating and for sacrifice and those that were not—along with all the birds and the small animals that scurry along the ground. <sup>9</sup>They entered the boat in pairs, male and female, just as God had commanded Noah. <sup>10</sup>After seven days, the waters of the flood came and covered the earth.

earth, and the rain fell in mighty torrents from the sky. <sup>12</sup>The rain continued to fall for forty days and forty nights.

<sup>14</sup>With them in the boat were pairs of every kind of animal—domestic and wild, large and small—along with birds of every kind. <sup>15</sup>Two by two they came into the boat, representing every living thing that breathes. <sup>16</sup>A male and female of each kind entered, just as God had commanded Noah. Then the LORD closed the door behind them.

The Flood Recedes

<sup>1</sup> But God remembered Noah and all the wild animals and livestock with him in the boat. He sent a wind to blow across the earth, and the floodwaters began to recede.<sup>2</sup>The underground waters stopped flowing, and the torrential rains from the sky were stopped.<sup>3</sup>So the floodwaters gradually receded from the earth. After 150 days,<sup>4</sup>exactly five months from the time the flood began,* the boat came to rest on the mountains of Ararat.<sup>5</sup>Two and a half months later,* as the waters continued to go down, other mountain peaks became visible.

<sup>6</sup>After another forty days, Noah opened the window he had made in the boat<sup>7</sup>and released a raven. The bird flew back and forth until the floodwaters on the earth had dried up.<sup>8</sup>He also released a dove to see if the water had receded and it could find dry ground.<sup>9</sup>But the dove could find no place to land because the water still covered the ground. So it returned to the boat, and Noah held out his hand and drew the dove back inside.<sup>10</sup>After waiting another seven days, Noah released the dove again.<sup>11</sup>This time the dove returned to him in the evening with a fresh olive leaf in its beak. Then Noah knew that the floodwaters were almost gone.<sup>12</sup>He waited another seven days and then released the dove again. This time it did not come back.

<sup>13</sup>Noah was now 601 years old. On the first day of the new year, ten and a half months after the flood began,* the floodwaters had almost dried up from the earth. Noah lifted back the covering of the boat and saw that the surface of the ground was drying. <sup>14</sup>Two more months went by,* and at last the earth was dry!

<sup>15</sup>Then God said to Noah, <sup>16</sup>“Leave the boat, all of you—you and your wife, and your sons and their wives. <sup>17</sup>Release all the animals—the birds, the livestock, and the small animals that scurry along the ground—so they can be fruitful and multiply throughout the earth.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and there he sacrificed as burnt offerings the animals and birds that had been approved for that purpose.* <sup>21</sup>And the LORD was pleased with the aroma of the sacrifice and said to himself, “I will never again curse the ground because of the human race, even though everything they think or imagine is bent toward evil from childhood. I will never again destroy all living things. <sup>22</sup>As long as the earth remains, there will be planting and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night.”

God Confirms His Covenant

<sup>1</sup> Then God blessed Noah and his sons and told them, “Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the earth. <sup>2</sup>All the animals of the earth, all the birds of the sky, all the small animals that scurry along the ground, and all the fish in the sea will look on you with fear and terror. I have placed them in your power. <sup>3</sup>I have given them to you for food, just as I have given you grain and vegetables. <sup>4</sup>But you must never eat any meat that still has the lifeblood in it.

<sup>5</sup>“And I will require the blood of anyone who takes another person’s life. If a wild animal kills a person, it must die. And anyone who murders a fellow human must die. <sup>6</sup>If anyone takes a human life, that person’s life will also be taken by human hands. For God made human beings* in his own image. <sup>7</sup>Now be fruitful and multiply, and repopulate the earth.”

<sup>8</sup>Then God told Noah and his sons, <sup>9</sup>“I hereby confirm my covenant with you and your descendants, <sup>10</sup>and with all the animals that were on the boat with you—the birds, the livestock, and all the wild animals—every living creature on earth. <sup>11</sup>Yes, I am confirming my covenant with you. Never again will floodwaters kill all living creatures; never again will a flood destroy the earth.”

<sup>12</sup>Then God said, “I am giving you a sign of my covenant with you and with all living creatures, for all generations to come. <sup>13</sup>I have placed my rainbow in the clouds. It is the sign of my covenant with you and with all the earth. <sup>14</sup>When I send clouds over the earth, the rainbow will appear in the clouds, <sup>15</sup>and I will remember my covenant with you and with all living creatures. Never again will the floodwaters destroy all life. <sup>16</sup>When I see the rainbow in the clouds, I will remember the eternal covenant between God and every living creature on earth.” <sup>17</sup>Then God said to Noah, “Yes, this rainbow is the sign of the covenant I am confirming with all the creatures on earth.”

Noah's Sons

<sup>18</sup>The sons of Noah who came out of the boat with their father were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. (Ham is the father of Canaan.) <sup>19</sup>From these three sons of Noah came all the people who now populate the earth.

<sup>20</sup>After the flood, Noah began to cultivate the ground, and he planted a vineyard. <sup>21</sup>One day he drank some wine he had made, and he became drunk and lay naked inside his tent. <sup>22</sup>Ham, the father of Canaan, saw that his father was naked and went outside and told his brothers. <sup>23</sup>Then Shem and Japheth took a robe, held it over their shoulders, and backed into the tent to cover their father. As they did this, they looked the other way so they would not see him naked.

“May Canaan be cursed!
May he be the lowest of servants to his relatives.”

<sup>26</sup>Then Noah said,

“May the LORD, the God of Shem, be blessed,
and may Canaan be his servant!

May Japheth share the prosperity of Shem,*
and may Canaan be his servant.”

Genesis 10

<sup>1</sup> This is the account of the families of Shem, Ham, and Japheth, the three sons of Noah. Many children were born to them after the great flood.

Descendants of Japheth

Descendants of Ham

<sup>8</sup>Cush was also the ancestor of Nimrod, who was the first heroic warrior on earth. <sup>9</sup>Since he was the greatest hunter in the world,* his name became proverbial. People would say, "This man is like Nimrod, the greatest hunter in the world." <sup>10</sup>He built his kingdom in the land of Babylonia,* with the cities of Babylon, Erech, Akkad, and Calneh.<sup>11</sup>From there he expanded his territory to Assyria,* building the cities of Nineveh, Rehoboth-ir, Calah,<sup>12</sup>and Resen (the great city located between Nineveh and Calah).

Descendants of Shem

<sup>21</sup>Sons were also born to Shem, the older brother of Japheth.* Shem was the ancestor of all the descendants of Eber.

Conclusion

<sup>32</sup>These are the clans that descended from Noah's sons, arranged by nation according to their lines of descent. All the nations of the earth descended from these clans after the great flood.

Genesis 11

The Tower of Babel

<sup>1</sup>At one time all the people of the world spoke the same language and used the same words. <sup>2</sup>As the people migrated to the east, they found a plain in the land of Babylonia* and settled there.

<sup>3</sup> They began saying to each other, “Let’s make bricks and harden them with fire.” (In this region bricks were used instead of stone, and tar was used for mortar.) <sup>4</sup>Then they said, “Come, let’s build a great city for ourselves with a tower that reaches into the sky. This will make us famous and keep us from being scattered all over the world.”

<sup>5</sup> But the LORD came down to look at the city and the tower the people were building. <sup>6</sup>“Look!” he said. “The people are united, and they all speak the same language. After this, nothing they set out to do will be impossible for them! <sup>7</sup>Come, let’s go down and confuse the people with different languages. Then they won’t be able to understand each other.”

<sup>8</sup>In that way, the LORD scattered them all over the world, and they stopped building the city. <sup>9</sup>That is why the city was called Babel,* because that is where the LORD confused the people with different languages. In this way he scattered them all over the world.

The Line of Descent from Shem to Abram

Two years after the great flood, when Shem was 100 years old, he became the father of * Arphaxad. <sup>11</sup>After the birth of * Arphaxad, Shem lived another 500 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>12</sup>When Arphaxad was 35 years old, he became the father of Shelah. <sup>13</sup>After the birth of Shelah, Arphaxad lived another 403 years and had other sons and daughters. *

<sup>14</sup>When Shelah was 30 years old, he became the father of Eber.

Nahor, and Haran.

The Family of Terah

<sup>27</sup>This is the account of Terah's family. Terah was the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran was the father of Lot.

<sup>28</sup>But Haran died in Ur of the Chaldeans, the land of his birth, while his father, Terah, was still living. <sup>29</sup>Meanwhile, Abram and Nahor both married. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah. (Milcah and her sister Iscah were daughters of Nahor's brother Haran.) <sup>30</sup>But Sarai was unable to become pregnant and had no children.

<sup>31</sup>One day Terah took his son Abram, his daughter-in-law Sarai (his son Abram's wife), and his grandson Lot (his son Haran's child) and moved away from Ur of the Chaldeans. He was headed for the land of Canaan, but they stopped at Haran and settled there. <sup>32</sup>Terah lived for 205 years * and died while still in Haran.

Genesis 12

The Call of Abram

<sup>1</sup>The LORD had said to Abram, “Leave your native country, your relatives, and your father’s family, and go to the land that I will show you. <sup>2</sup>I will make you into a great nation. I will bless you and make you famous, and you will be a blessing to others. <sup>3</sup>I will bless those who bless you and curse those who treat you with contempt. All the families on earth will be blessed through you.”

<sup>4</sup> So Abram departed as the LORD had instructed, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he left Haran. <sup>5</sup>He took his wife, Sarai, his nephew Lot, and all his wealth—his livestock and all the people he had taken into his household at Haran—and headed for the land of Canaan. When they arrived in Canaan, <sup>6</sup>Abram traveled through the land as far as Shechem. There he set up camp beside the oak of Moreh. At that time, the area was inhabited by Canaanites.

<sup>7</sup>Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, “I will give this land to your descendants *” And Abram built an altar there and dedicated it to the LORD, who had appeared to him. <sup>8</sup>After that, Abram traveled south and set up camp in the hill country, with Bethel to the west and Ai to the east. There he built another altar and dedicated it to the LORD, and he worshiped the LORD. <sup>9</sup>Then Abram continued traveling south by stages toward the Negev.

Abraham Didn't Stop to Ask Directions

Abram and Sarai in Egypt

<sup>10</sup> At that time a severe famine struck the land of Canaan, forcing Abram to go down to Egypt, where he lived as a foreigner. <sup>11</sup> As he was approaching the border of Egypt, Abram said to his wife, Sarai, “Look, you are a very beautiful woman. <sup>12</sup>When the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife. Let’s kill him; then we can have her!’ <sup>13</sup>So please tell them you are my sister. Then they will spare my life and treat me well because of their interest in you.”

male and female servants, and camels.

<sup>17</sup>But the LORD sent terrible plagues upon Pharaoh and his household because of Sarai, Abram's wife. <sup>18</sup>So Pharaoh summoned Abram and accused him sharply. "What have you done to me?" he demanded. "Why didn't you tell me she was your wife?" <sup>19</sup>Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' and allow me to take her as my wife? Now then, here is your wife. Take her and get out of here!" <sup>20</sup>Pharaoh ordered some of his men to escort them, and he sent Abram out of the country, along with his wife and all his possessions.

Genesis 13

Abram and Lot Separate

ABRAM HITS THE ROAD

Abram and his clan walked from Ur to Haran (600 miles), on to Canaan (400 miles), then down to Egypt (325 miles), and back to Canaan again. A comparable hike today:

<sup>5</sup> Lot, who was traveling with Abram, had also become very wealthy with flocks of sheep and goats, herds of cattle, and many tents. <sup>6</sup>But the land could not support both Abram and Lot with all their flocks and herds living so close together. <sup>7</sup>So disputes broke out between the herdsmen of Abram and Lot. (At that time Canaanites and Perizzites were also living in the land.)

<sup>8</sup>Finally Abram said to Lot, “Let’s not allow this conflict to come between us or our herdsmen. After all, we are close relatives! <sup>9</sup>The whole countryside is open to you. Take your choice of any section of the land you want, and we will separate. If you want the land to the left, then I’ll take the land on the right. If you prefer the land on the right, then I’ll go to the left.”

<sup>10</sup>Lot took a long look at the fertile plains of the Jordan Valley in the direction of Zoar. The whole area was well watered everywhere, like the garden of the LORD or the beautiful land of Egypt. (This was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.) <sup>11</sup>Lot chose for himself the whole Jordan Valley to the east of them. He went there with his flocks and servants and parted company with his uncle Abram. <sup>12</sup>So Abram settled in the land of Canaan, and Lot moved his tents to a place near Sodom and settled among the cities of the plain. <sup>13</sup>But the people of this area were extremely wicked and constantly sinned against the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>After Lot had gone, the LORD said to Abram, “Look as far as you can see in every direction—north and south, east and west. <sup>15</sup>I am giving all this land, as far as you can see, to you and your descendants* as a permanent possession. <sup>16</sup>And I will give you so many descendants that, like the dust of the earth, they cannot be counted! <sup>17</sup>Go and walk through the land in every direction, for I am giving it to you.”

<sup>18</sup>So Abram moved his camp to Hebron and settled near the oak grove belonging to Mamre. There he built another altar to the LORD.

Abram Rescues Lot

<sup>3</sup>This second group of kings joined forces in Siddim Valley (that is, the valley of the Dead Sea*). <sup>4</sup>For twelve years they had been subject to King Kedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled against him.

some fell into the tar pits, while the rest escaped into the mountains.<sup>11</sup>The victorious invaders then plundered Sodom and Gomorrah and headed for home, taking with them all the spoils of war and the food supplies.<sup>12</sup>They also captured Lot—Abram's nephew who lived in Sodom—and carried off everything he owned.

<sup>13</sup>But one of Lot's men escaped and reported everything to Abram the Hebrew, who was living near the oak grove belonging to Mamre the Amorite. Mamre and his relatives, Eshcol and Aner, were Abram's allies.

<sup>14</sup> When Abram heard that his nephew Lot had been captured, he mobilized the 318 trained men who had been born into his household. Then he pursued Kedorlaomer's army until he caught up with them at Dan.<sup>15</sup>There he divided his men and attacked during the night. Kedorlaomer's army fled, but Abram chased them as far as Hobah, north of Damascus.<sup>16</sup>Abram recovered all the goods that had been taken, and he brought back his nephew Lot with his possessions and all the women and other captives.

Melchizedek Blesses Abram

<sup>17</sup>After Abram returned from his victory over Kedorlaomer and all his allies, the king of Sodom went out to meet him in the valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley).

“Blessed be Abram by God Most High,
Creator of heaven and earth.

<sup>20</sup>And blessed be God Most High, who has defeated your enemies for you.”

Then Abram gave Melchizedek a tenth of all the goods he had recovered.

<sup>21</sup>The king of Sodom said to Abram, “Give back my people who were captured. But you may keep for yourself all the goods you have recovered.”

<sup>22</sup>Abram replied to the king of Sodom, “I solemnly swear to the LORD, God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth, <sup>23</sup>that I will not take so much as a single thread or sandal thong from what belongs to you. Otherwise you might say, ‘I am the one who made Abram rich.’ <sup>24</sup>I will accept only what my young warriors have already eaten, and I request that you give a fair share of the goods to my allies—Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre.”

Genesis 15

The LORD's Covenant Promise to Abram

<sup>1</sup>Some time later, the LORD spoke to Abram in a vision and said to him, “Do not be afraid, Abram, for I will protect you, and your reward will be great.”

<sup>2</sup>But Abram replied, “O Sovereign LORD, what good are all your blessings when I don’t even have a son? Since you’ve given me no children, Eliezer of Damascus, a servant in my household, will inherit all my wealth. <sup>3</sup>You have given me no descendants of my own, so one of my servants will be my heir.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to him, “No, your servant will not be your heir, for you will have a son of your own who will be your heir.” <sup>5</sup>Then the LORD took Abram outside and said to him, “Look up into the sky and count the stars if you can. That’s how many descendants you will have!”

<sup>7</sup>Then the LORD told him, “I am the LORD who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as your possession.”

<sup>9</sup>The LORD told him, “Bring me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon.”<sup>10</sup> So Abram presented all these to him and killed them. Then he cut each animal down the middle and laid the halves side by side; he did not, however, cut the birds in half.<sup>11</sup> Some vultures swooped down to eat the carcasses, but Abram chased them away.

<sup>12</sup> As the sun was going down, Abram fell into a deep sleep, and a terrifying darkness came down over him.<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD said to Abram, “You can be sure that your descendants will be strangers in a foreign land, where they will be oppressed as slaves for 400 years.<sup>14</sup> But I will punish the nation that enslaves them, and in the end they will come away with great wealth.<sup>15</sup> (As for you, you will die in peace and be buried at a ripe old age.)<sup>16</sup> After four generations your descendants will return here to this land, for the sins of the Amorites do not yet warrant their destruction.”

<sup>17</sup> After the sun went down and darkness fell, Abram saw a smoking firepot and a flaming torch pass between the halves of the carcasses.<sup>18</sup> So the LORD made a covenant with Abram that day and said, “I have given this land to your descendants, all the way from the border of Egypt* to the great Euphrates River—<sup>19</sup> the land now occupied by the Kenites, Kenizzites, Kadmonites,<sup>20</sup> Hittites, Perizzites, Rephaites,<sup>21</sup> Amorites, Canaanites, Girgashites, and Jebusites.”

The Birth of Ishmael

<sup>1</sup> Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had not been able to bear children for him. But she had an Egyptian servant named Hagar. <sup>2</sup> So Sarai said to Abram, "The LORD has prevented me from having children. Go and sleep with my servant. Perhaps I can have children through her." And Abram agreed with Sarai's proposal. <sup>3</sup> So Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar the Egyptian servant and gave her to Abram as a wife. (This happened ten years after Abram had settled in the land of Canaan.)

<sup>4</sup> So Abram had sexual relations with Hagar, and she became pregnant. But when Hagar knew she was pregnant, she began to treat her mistress, Sarai, with contempt. <sup>5</sup> Then Sarai said to Abram, "This is all your fault! I put my servant into your arms, but now that she's pregnant she treats me with contempt. The LORD will show who's wrong—you or me!"

<sup>6</sup> Abram replied, "Look, she is your servant, so deal with her as you see fit." Then Sarai treated Hagar so harshly that she finally ran away.

<sup>7</sup> The angel of the LORD found Hagar beside a spring of water in the wilderness, along the road to Shur. <sup>8</sup> The angel said to her, "Hagar, Sarai's servant, where have you come from, and where are you going?"

"I'm running away from my mistress, Sarai," she replied.

<sup>9</sup> The angel of the LORD said to her, "Return to your mistress, and submit to her authority.” <sup>10</sup>Then he added, “I will give you more descendants than you can count.”

<sup>11</sup>And the angel also said, “You are now pregnant and will give birth to a son. You are to name him Ishmael (which means ‘God hears’), for the LORD has heard your cry of distress. <sup>12</sup>This son of yours will be a wild man, as untamed as a wild donkey! He will raise his fist against everyone, and everyone will be against him. Yes, he will live in open hostility against all his relatives.”

<sup>13</sup>Thereafter, Hagar used another name to refer to the LORD, who had spoken to her. She said, “You are the God who sees me.”* She also said, “Have I truly seen the One who sees me?”

<sup>14</sup>So that well was named Beer-lahai-roi (which means “well of the Living One who sees me”). It can still be found between Kadesh and Bered.

<sup>15</sup>So Hagar gave Abram a son, and Abram named him Ishmael. <sup>16</sup>Abram was eighty-six years old when Ishmael was born.

Childless and Hopeless

Genesis 17

Abram Is Named Abraham

<sup>1</sup>When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to him and said, “I am El-Shaddai—‘God Almighty.’ Serve me faithfully and live a blameless life. <sup>2</sup>I will make a covenant with you, by which I will guarantee to give you countless descendants.”

<sup>3</sup>At this, Abram fell face down on the ground. Then God said to him, <sup>4</sup>“This is my covenant with you: I will make you the father of a multitude of nations! <sup>5</sup>What’s more, I am changing your name. It will no longer be Abram. Instead, you will be called Abraham,* for you will be the father of many nations. <sup>6</sup>I will make you extremely fruitful. Your descendants will become many nations, and kings will be among them!

<sup>7</sup>“I will confirm my covenant with you and your descendants* after you, from generation to generation. This is the everlasting covenant: I will always be your God and the God of your descendants after you. <sup>8</sup>And I will give the entire land of Canaan, where you now live as a foreigner, to you and your descendants. It will be their possession forever, and I will be their God.”

The Mark of the Covenant

<sup>9</sup> Then God said to Abraham, “Your responsibility is to obey the terms of the covenant. You and all your descendants have this continual responsibility. <sup>10</sup>This is the covenant that you and your descendants must keep: Each male among you must be circumcised. <sup>11</sup>You must cut off the flesh of your foreskin as a sign of the covenant between me and you. <sup>12</sup>From generation to generation, every male child must be circumcised on the eighth day after his birth. This applies not only to members of your family but also to the servants born in your household and the foreign-born servants whom you have purchased. <sup>13</sup>All must be circumcised. Your bodies will bear the mark of my everlasting covenant. <sup>14</sup>Any male who fails to be circumcised will be cut off from the covenant family for breaking the covenant.”

Sarai Is Named Sarah

<sup>15</sup>Then God said to Abraham, “Regarding Sarai, your wife—her name will no longer be Sarai. From now on her name will be Sarah.* <sup>16</sup>And I will bless her and give you a son from her! Yes, I will bless her richly, and she will become the mother of many nations. Kings of nations will be among her descendants.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Abraham bowed down to the ground, but he laughed to himself in disbelief. “How could I become a father at the age of 100?” he thought. “And how can Sarah have a baby when she is ninety years old?” <sup>18</sup>So Abraham said to God, “May Ishmael live under your special blessing!”

<sup>19</sup>But God replied, “No—Sarah, your wife, will give birth to a son for you. You will name him Isaac,* and I will confirm my covenant with him and his descendants as an everlasting covenant. <sup>20</sup>As for Ishmael, I will bless him also, just as you have asked. I will make him extremely fruitful and multiply his descendants. He will become the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.<sup>21</sup> But my covenant will be confirmed with Isaac, who will be born to you and Sarah about this time next year.”<sup>22</sup> When God had finished speaking, he left Abraham.

<sup>23</sup> On that very day Abraham took his son, Ishmael, and every male in his household, including those born there and those he had bought. Then he circumcised them, cutting off their foreskins, just as God had told him.<sup>24</sup> Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised,<sup>25</sup> and Ishmael, his son, was thirteen.<sup>26</sup> Both Abraham and his son, Ishmael, were circumcised on that same day,<sup>27</sup> along with all the other men and boys of the household, whether they were born there or bought as servants. All were circumcised with him.

A Son Is Promised to Sarah

<sup>1</sup> The LORD appeared again to Abraham near the oak grove belonging to Mamre. One day Abraham was sitting at the entrance to his tent during the hottest part of the day. <sup>2</sup>He looked up and noticed three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he ran to meet them and welcomed them, bowing low to the ground.

<sup>3</sup>“My lord,” he said, “if it pleases you, stop here for a while. <sup>4</sup>Rest in the shade of this tree while water is brought to wash your feet. <sup>5</sup>And since you’ve honored your servant with this visit, let me prepare some food to refresh you before you continue on your journey.”

<sup>6</sup>So Abraham ran back to the tent and said to Sarah, “Hurry! Get three large measures* of your best flour, knead it into dough, and bake some bread.” <sup>7</sup>Then Abraham ran out to the herd and chose a tender calf and gave it to his servant, who quickly prepared it. <sup>8</sup>When the food was ready, Abraham took some yogurt and milk and the roasted meat, and he served it to the men. As they ate, Abraham waited on them in the shade of the trees.

“She’s inside the tent,” Abraham replied.

<sup>10</sup>Then one of them said, “I will return to you about this time next year, and your wife, Sarah, will have a son!”

Sarah was listening to this conversation from the tent. <sup>11</sup>Abraham and Sarah were both very old by this time, and Sarah was long past the age of having children. <sup>12</sup>So she laughed silently to herself and said, “How could a worn-out woman like me enjoy such pleasure, especially when my master—my husband—is also so old?”

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh? Why did she say, ‘Can an old woman like me have a baby?’ <sup>14</sup>Is anything too hard for the LORD? I will return about this time next year, and Sarah will have a son.”

<sup>15</sup>Sarah was afraid, so she denied it, saying, “I didn’t laugh.” But the LORD said, “No, you did laugh.”

Abraham Intercedes for Sodom

<sup>16</sup>Then the men got up from their meal and looked out toward Sodom. As they left, Abraham went with them to send them on their way.

<sup>17</sup>“Should I hide my plan from Abraham?” the LORD asked. <sup>18</sup>“For Abraham will certainly become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed through him. <sup>19</sup>I have singled him out so that he will direct his sons and their families to keep the way of the LORD by doing what is right and just. Then I will do for Abraham all that I have promised.”

<sup>20</sup>So the LORD told Abraham, “I have heard a great outcry from Sodom and Gomorrah, because their sin is so flagrant. <sup>21</sup>I am going down to see if their actions are as wicked as I have heard. If not, I want to know.”

<sup>22</sup> The other men turned and headed toward Sodom, but the LORD remained with Abraham. <sup>23</sup> Abraham approached him and said, “Will you sweep away both the righteous and the wicked? <sup>24</sup> Suppose you find fifty righteous people living there in the city—will you still sweep it away and not spare it for their sakes? <sup>25</sup> Surely you wouldn’t do such a thing, destroying the righteous along with the wicked. Why, you would be treating the righteous and the wicked exactly the same! Surely you wouldn’t do that! Should not the Judge of all the earth do what is right?”

<sup>27</sup> Then Abraham spoke again. “Since I have begun, let me speak further to my Lord, even though I am but dust and ashes. <sup>28</sup> Suppose there are only forty-five righteous people rather than fifty? Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five?”

And the LORD said, “I will not destroy it if I find forty-five righteous people there.”

And the LORD replied, “I will not destroy it for the sake of the forty.”

<sup>30</sup> “Please don’t be angry, my Lord,” Abraham pleaded. “Let me speak—suppose only thirty righteous people are found?”

And the LORD replied, “I will not destroy it if I find thirty.”

<sup>31</sup> Then Abraham said, “Since I have dared to speak to the Lord, let me continue—suppose there are only twenty?”

And the LORD replied, “Then I will not destroy it for the sake of the twenty.”

<sup>32</sup>Finally, Abraham said, “Lord, please don’t be angry with me if I speak one more time. Suppose only ten are found there?”

And the LORD replied, “Then I will not destroy it for the sake of the ten.”

<sup>33</sup>When the LORD had finished his conversation with Abraham, he went on his way, and Abraham returned to his tent.

Sodom and Gomorrah Destroyed

<sup>1</sup>That evening the two angels came to the entrance of the city of Sodom. Lot was sitting there, and when he saw them, he stood up to meet them. Then he welcomed them and bowed with his face to the ground. <sup>2</sup>“My lords,” he said, “come to my home to wash your feet, and be my guests for the night. You may then get up early in the morning and be on your way again.”

“Where are the men who came to spend the night with you? Bring them out to us so we can have sex with them!”

<sup>6</sup>So Lot stepped outside to talk to them, shutting the door behind him. <sup>7</sup>“Please, my brothers,” he begged, “don’t do such a wicked thing. <sup>8</sup>Look, I have two virgin daughters. Let me bring them out to you, and you can do with them as you wish. But please, leave these men alone, for they are my guests and are under my protection.”

<sup>9</sup>“Stand back!” they shouted. “This fellow came to town as an outsider, and now he’s acting like our judge! We’ll treat you far worse than those other men!” And they lunged toward Lot to break down the door.

<sup>10</sup>But the two angels * reached out, pulled Lot into the house, and bolted the door. <sup>11</sup>Then they blinded all the men, young and old, who were at the door of the house, so they gave up trying to get inside.

<sup>12</sup>Meanwhile, the angels questioned Lot. “Do you have any other relatives here in the city?” they asked. “Get them out of this place—your sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or anyone else.

<sup>13</sup>For we are about to destroy this city completely. The outcry against this place is so great it has reached the LORD, and he has sent us to destroy it.”

<sup>14</sup>So Lot rushed out to tell his daughters’ fiancés, “Quick, get out of the city! The LORD is about to destroy it.” But the young men thought he was only joking.

<sup>15</sup>At dawn the next morning the angels became insistent. “Hurry,” they said to Lot. “Take your wife and your two daughters who are here. Get out right now, or you will be swept away in the destruction of the city!”

<sup>16</sup> When Lot still hesitated, the angels seized his hand and the hands of his wife and two daughters and rushed them to safety outside the city, for the LORD was merciful. <sup>17</sup> When they were safely out of the city, one of the angels ordered, “Run for your lives! And don’t look back or stop anywhere in the valley! Escape to the mountains, or you will be swept away!”

<sup>18</sup>“Oh no, my lord!” Lot begged. <sup>19</sup>“You have been so gracious to me and saved my life, and you have shown such great kindness. But I cannot go to the mountains. Disaster would catch up to me there, and I would soon die. <sup>20</sup>See, there is a small village nearby. Please let me go there instead; don’t you see how small it is? Then my life will be saved.”

<sup>21</sup>“All right,” the angel said, “I will grant your request. I will not destroy the little village. <sup>22</sup>But hurry! Escape to it, for I can do nothing until you arrive there.” (This explains why that village was known as Zoar, which means “little place.”)

<sup>23</sup> Lot reached the village just as the sun was rising over the horizon. <sup>24</sup> Then the LORD rained down fire and burning sulfur from the sky on Sodom and Gomorrah. <sup>25</sup> He utterly destroyed them, along with the other cities and villages of the plain, wiping out all the people and every bit of vegetation. <sup>26</sup> But Lot’s wife looked back as she was following behind him, and she turned into a pillar of salt.

<sup>27</sup> Abraham got up early that morning and hurried out to the place where he had stood in the LORD’s presence. <sup>28</sup> He looked out across the plain toward Sodom and Gomorrah and watched as columns of smoke rose from the cities like smoke from a furnace.

<sup>29</sup>But God had listened to Abraham's request and kept Lot safe, removing him from the disaster that engulfed the cities on the plain.

Lot and His Daughters

<sup>33</sup>So that night they got him drunk with wine, and the older daughter went in and had intercourse with her father. He was unaware of her lying down or getting up again.

<sup>34</sup>The next morning the older daughter said to her younger sister, "I had sex with our father last night. Let's get him drunk with wine again tonight, and you go in and have sex with him. That way we will preserve our family line through our father."

<sup>35</sup>So that night they got him drunk with wine again, and the younger daughter went in and had intercourse with him. As before, he was unaware of her lying down or getting up again.

their own father.<sup>37</sup>When the older daughter gave birth to a son, she named him Moab.* He became the ancestor of the nation now known as the Moabites.<sup>38</sup>When the younger daughter gave birth to a son, she named him Ben-ammi.* He became the ancestor of the nation now known as the Ammonites.

Genesis 20

Abraham Deceives Abimelech

<sup>1</sup> Abraham moved south to the Negev and lived for a while between Kadesh and Shur, and then he moved on to Gerar. While living there as a foreigner, <sup>2</sup>Abraham introduced his wife, Sarah, by saying, “She is my sister.” So King Abimelech of Gerar sent for Sarah and had her brought to him at his palace.

<sup>3</sup>But that night God came to Abimelech in a dream and told him, “You are a dead man, for that woman you have taken is already married!”

<sup>4</sup>But Abimelech had not slept with her yet, so he said, “Lord, will you destroy an innocent nation? <sup>5</sup>Didn’t Abraham tell me, ‘She is my sister’? And she herself said, ‘Yes, he is my brother.’ I acted in complete innocence! My hands are clean.”

<sup>6</sup>In the dream God responded, “Yes, I know you are innocent. That’s why I kept you from sinning against me, and why I did not let you touch her. <sup>7</sup>Now return the woman to her husband, and he will pray for you, for he is a prophet. Then you will live. But if you don’t return her to him, you can be sure that you and all your people will die.”

<sup>8</sup>Abimelech got up early the next morning and quickly called all his servants together. When he told them what had happened, his men were terrified. <sup>9</sup>Then Abimelech called for Abraham. “What have you done to us?” he demanded. “What crime have I committed that deserves treatment like this, making me and my kingdom guilty of this great sin? No one should ever do what you have done! <sup>10</sup>Whatever possessed you to do such a thing?"

<sup>11</sup>Abraham replied, "I thought, 'This is a godless place. They will want my wife and will kill me to get her.' <sup>12</sup>And she really is my sister, for we both have the same father, but different mothers. And I married her. <sup>13</sup>When God called me to leave my father's home and to travel from place to place, I told her, 'Do me a favor. Wherever we go, tell the people that I am your brother.'"

<sup>14</sup>Then Abimelech took some of his sheep and goats, cattle, and male and female servants, and he presented them to Abraham. He also returned his wife, Sarah, to him. <sup>15</sup>Then Abimelech said, "Look over my land and choose any place where you would like to live." <sup>16</sup>And he said to Sarah, "Look, I am giving your 'brother' 1,000 pieces of silver* in the presence of all these witnesses. This is to compensate you for any wrong I may have done to you. This will settle any claim against me, and your reputation is cleared."

<sup>17</sup>Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, his wife, and his female servants, so they could have children. <sup>18</sup>For the LORD had caused all the women to be infertile because of what happened with Abraham's wife, Sarah.

Isaac

Genesis 21

The Birth of Isaac

<sup>6</sup>And Sarah declared, “God has brought me laughter.* All who hear about this will laugh with me. <sup>7</sup>Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse a baby? Yet I have given Abraham a son in his old age!”

Hagar and Ishmael Are Sent Away

<sup>8</sup>When Isaac grew up and was about to be weaned, Abraham prepared a huge feast to celebrate the occasion.<sup>9</sup> But Sarah saw Ishmael—the son of Abraham and her Egyptian servant Hagar—making fun of her son, Isaac.*<sup>10</sup> So she turned to Abraham and demanded, “Get rid of that slave woman and her son. He is not going to share the inheritance with my son, Isaac. I won’t have it!”

<sup>11</sup>This upset Abraham very much because Ishmael was his son. <sup>12</sup>But God told Abraham, “Do not be upset over the boy and your servant. Do whatever Sarah tells you, for Isaac is the son through whom your descendants will be counted. <sup>13</sup>But I will also make a nation of the descendants of Hagar’s son because he is your son, too.”

<sup>14</sup>So Abraham got up early the next morning, prepared food and a container of water, and strapped them on Hagar’s shoulders. Then he sent her away with their son, and she wandered aimlessly in the wilderness of Beersheba.

<sup>15</sup>When the water was gone, she put the boy in the shade of a bush. <sup>16</sup>Then she went and sat down by herself about a hundred yards* away. “I don’t want to watch the boy die,” she said, as she burst into tears.

<sup>17</sup>But God heard the boy crying, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, “Hagar, what’s wrong? Do not be afraid! God has heard the boy crying as he lies there. <sup>18</sup>Go to him and comfort him, for I will make a great nation from his descendants.”

<sup>20</sup>And God was with the boy as he grew up in the wilderness. He became a skillful archer, <sup>21</sup>and he settled in the wilderness of Paran. His mother arranged for him to marry a woman from the land of Egypt.

Abraham's Covenant with Abimelech

<sup>22</sup>About this time, Abimelech came with Phicol, his army commander, to visit Abraham. "God is obviously with you, helping you in everything you do," Abimelech said. <sup>23</sup>"Swear to me in God's name that you will never deceive me, my children, or any of my descendants. I have been loyal to you, so now swear that you will be loyal to me and to this country where you are living as a foreigner."

<sup>27</sup>Abraham then gave some of his sheep, goats, and cattle to Abimelech, and they made a treaty. <sup>28</sup>But Abraham also took seven additional female lambs and set them off by themselves. <sup>29</sup>Abimelech asked, "Why have you set these seven apart from the others?"

<sup>30</sup>Abraham replied, "Please accept these seven lambs to show your agreement that I dug this well." <sup>31</sup>Then he named the place Beersheba (which means "well of the oath"), because that was where they had sworn the oath.

Genesis 22

Abraham's Faith Tested

"Yes," he replied. "Here I am."

<sup>2</sup> "Take your son, your only son—yes, Isaac, whom you love so much—and go to the land of Moriah. Go and sacrifice him as a burnt offering on one of the mountains, which I will show you."

<sup>3</sup> The next morning Abraham got up early. He saddled his donkey and took two of his servants with him, along with his son, Isaac. Then he chopped wood for a fire for a burnt offering and set out for the place God had told him about. <sup>4</sup> On the third day of their journey, Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance. <sup>5</sup> "Stay here with the donkey," Abraham told the servants. "The boy and I will travel a little farther. We will worship there, and then we will come right back."

<sup>6</sup> So Abraham placed the wood for the burnt offering on Isaac's shoulders, while he himself carried the fire and the knife. As the two of them walked on together, <sup>7</sup> Isaac turned to Abraham and said, "Father?"

"Yes, my son?" Abraham replied.

"We have the fire and the wood," the boy said, "but where is the sheep for the burnt offering?"

<sup>8</sup> "God will provide a sheep for the burnt offering, my son,"

Abraham answered. And they both walked on together.

<sup>9</sup>When they arrived at the place where God had told him to go, Abraham built an altar and arranged the wood on it. Then he tied his son, Isaac, and laid him on the altar on top of the wood. <sup>10</sup>And Abraham picked up the knife to kill his son as a sacrifice. <sup>11</sup>At that moment the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven, “Abraham! Abraham!”

“Yes,” Abraham replied. “Here I am!”

<sup>12</sup>“Don’t lay a hand on the boy!” the angel said. “Do not hurt him in any way, for now I know that you truly fear God. You have not withheld from me even your son, your only son.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Abraham looked up and saw a ram caught by its horns in a thicket. So he took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering in place of his son. <sup>14</sup>Abraham named the place Yahweh-Yireh (which means “the LORD will provide”). To this day, people still use that name as a proverb: “On the mountain of the LORD it will be provided.”

<sup>15</sup>Then the angel of the LORD called again to Abraham from heaven. <sup>16</sup>“This is what the LORD says: Because you have obeyed me and have not withheld even your son, your only son, I swear by my own name that <sup>17</sup>I will certainly bless you. I will multiply your descendants* beyond number, like the stars in the sky and the sand on the seashore. Your descendants will conquer the cities of their enemies. <sup>18</sup>And through your descendants all the nations of the earth will be blessed—all because you have obeyed me.”

The Toughest Sacrifice

<sup>19</sup>Then they returned to the servants and traveled back to Beersheba, where Abraham continued to live.

When Love of God and Love of Family Collide

Genesis 23

The Burial of Sarah

<sup>3</sup>Then, leaving her body, he said to the Hittite elders, <sup>4</sup>“Here I am, a stranger and a foreigner among you. Please sell me a piece of land so I can give my wife a proper burial.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Abraham bowed low before the Hittites <sup>8</sup>and said, “Since you are willing to help me in this way, be so kind as to ask Ephron son of Zohar <sup>9</sup>to let me buy his cave at Machpelah, down at the end of his field. I will pay the full price in the presence of witnesses, so I will have a permanent burial place for my family.”

<sup>10</sup>Ephron was sitting there among the others, and he answered Abraham as the others listened, speaking publicly before all the Hittite elders of the town. <sup>11</sup>“No, my lord,” he said to Abraham, “please listen to me. I will give you the field and the cave. Here in the presence of my people, I give it to you. Go and bury your dead.”

<sup>13</sup>and he replied to Ephron as everyone listened. “No, listen to me. I will buy it from you. Let me pay the full price for the field so I can bury my dead there.”

<sup>14</sup>Ephron answered Abraham, <sup>15</sup>“My lord, please listen to me. The land is worth 400 pieces* of silver, but what is that between friends? Go ahead and bury your dead.”

<sup>16</sup>So Abraham agreed to Ephron’s price and paid the amount he had suggested—400 pieces of silver, weighed according to the market standard. The Hittite elders witnessed the transaction.

<sup>17</sup>So Abraham bought the plot of land belonging to Ephron at Machpelah, near Mamre. This included the field itself, the cave that was in it, and all the surrounding trees. <sup>18</sup>It was transferred to Abraham as his permanent possession in the presence of the Hittite elders at the city gate. <sup>19</sup>Then Abraham buried his wife, Sarah, there in Canaan, in the cave of Machpelah, near Mamre (also called Hebron). <sup>20</sup>So the field and the cave were transferred from the Hittites to Abraham for use as a permanent burial place.

A Wife for Isaac

<sup>5</sup>The servant asked, “But what if I can’t find a young woman who is willing to travel so far from home? Should I then take Isaac there to live among your relatives in the land you came from?”

<sup>6</sup>“No!” Abraham responded. “Be careful never to take my son there. <sup>7</sup>For the LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father’s house and my native land, solemnly promised to give this land to my descendants.* He will send his angel ahead of you, and he will see to it that you find a wife there for my son. <sup>8</sup>If she is unwilling to come back with you, then you are free from this oath of mine. But under no circumstances are you to take my son there.”

distant Aram-naharaim. There he went to the town where Abraham's brother Nahor had settled. <sup>11</sup>He made the camels kneel beside a well just outside the town. It was evening, and the women were coming out to draw water.

<sup>18</sup>“Yes, my lord,” she answered, “have a drink.” And she quickly lowered her jug from her shoulder and gave him a drink. <sup>19</sup>When she had given him a drink, she said, “I'll draw water for your camels, too, until they have had enough to drink.” <sup>20</sup>So she quickly emptied her jug into the watering trough and ran back to the well to draw water for all his camels.

not the LORD had given him success in his mission.<sup>22</sup> Then at last, when the camels had finished drinking, he took out a gold ring for her nose and two large gold bracelets* for her wrists.

<sup>23</sup>“Whose daughter are you?” he asked. “And please tell me, would your father have any room to put us up for the night?”

<sup>24</sup>“I am the daughter of Bethuel,” she replied. “My grandparents are Nahor and Milcah.”<sup>25</sup> Yes, we have plenty of straw and feed for the camels, and we have room for guests.”

<sup>26</sup>The man bowed low and worshiped the LORD.<sup>27</sup> “Praise the LORD, the God of my master, Abraham,” he said. “The LORD has shown unfailing love and faithfulness to my master, for he has led me straight to my master’s relatives.”

<sup>32</sup>So the man went home with Laban, and Laban unloaded the camels, gave him straw for their bedding, fed them, and provided water for the man and the camel drivers to wash their feet.<sup>33</sup> Then food was served. But Abraham’s servant said, “I don’t want to eat until I have told you why I have come.”

<sup>34</sup>“I am Abraham’s servant,” he explained. <sup>35</sup>“And the LORD has greatly blessed my master; he has become a wealthy man. The LORD has given him flocks of sheep and goats, herds of cattle, a fortune in silver and gold, and many male and female servants and camels and donkeys.

<sup>36</sup>“When Sarah, my master’s wife, was very old, she gave birth to my master’s son, and my master has given him everything he owns. <sup>37</sup>And my master made me take an oath. He said, ‘Do not allow my son to marry one of these local Canaanite women. <sup>38</sup>Go instead to my father’s house, to my relatives, and find a wife there for my son.’

<sup>39</sup>“But I said to my master, ‘What if I can’t find a young woman who is willing to go back with me?’ <sup>40</sup>He responded, ‘The LORD, in whose presence I have lived, will send his angel with you and will make your mission successful. Yes, you must find a wife for my son from among my relatives, from my father’s family. <sup>41</sup>Then you will have fulfilled your obligation. But if you go to my relatives and they refuse to let her go with you, you will be free from my oath.’

<sup>42</sup>“So today when I came to the spring, I prayed this prayer: ‘O LORD, God of my master, Abraham, please give me success on this mission. <sup>43</sup>See, I am standing here beside this spring. This is my request. When a young woman comes to draw water, I will say to her, “Please give me a little drink of water from your jug.” <sup>44</sup>If she says, “Yes, have a drink, and I will draw water for your camels, too,” let her be the one you have selected to be the wife of my master’s son.’

coming out with her water jug on her shoulder. She went down to the spring and drew water. So I said to her, ‘Please give me a drink.’ <sup>46</sup>She quickly lowered her jug from her shoulder and said, ‘Yes, have a drink, and I will water your camels, too!’ So I drank, and then she watered the camels.

<sup>47</sup>“Then I asked, ‘Whose daughter are you?’ She replied, ‘I am the daughter of Bethuel, and my grandparents are Nahor and Milcah.’ So I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her wrists.

<sup>48</sup>“Then I bowed low and worshiped the LORD. I praised the LORD, the God of my master, Abraham, because he had led me straight to my master’s niece to be his son’s wife. <sup>49</sup>So tell me—will you or won’t you show unfailing love and faithfulness to my master? Please tell me yes or no, and then I’ll know what to do next.”

<sup>50</sup>Then Laban and Bethuel replied, “The LORD has obviously brought you here, so there is nothing we can say. <sup>51</sup>Here is Rebekah; take her and go. Yes, let her be the wife of your master’s son, as the LORD has directed.”

<sup>52</sup>When Abraham’s servant heard their answer, he bowed down to the ground and worshiped the LORD. <sup>53</sup>Then he brought out silver and gold jewelry and clothing and presented them to Rebekah. He also gave expensive presents to her brother and mother. <sup>54</sup>Then they ate their meal, and the servant and the men with him stayed there overnight.

But early the next morning, Abraham’s servant said, “Send me back to my master.”

her brother and mother said. “Then she can go.”

<sup>56</sup>But he said, “Don’t delay me. The LORD has made my mission successful; now send me back so I can return to my master.”

<sup>57</sup>“Well,” they said, “we’ll call Rebekah and ask her what she thinks.” <sup>58</sup>So they called Rebekah. “Are you willing to go with this man?” they asked her.

And she replied, “Yes, I will go.”

<sup>59</sup>So they said good-bye to Rebekah and sent her away with Abraham’s servant and his men. The woman who had been Rebekah’s childhood nurse went along with her. <sup>60</sup>They gave her this blessing as she parted:

“Our sister, may you become the mother of many millions!
May your descendants be strong and conquer the cities of their enemies.”

And he replied, “It is my master.” So Rebekah covered her face with her veil. <sup>66</sup>Then the servant told Isaac everything he had done.

<sup>67</sup> And Isaac brought Rebekah into his mother Sarah's tent, and she became his wife. He loved her deeply, and she was a special comfort to him after the death of his mother.

Genesis 25

The Death of Abraham

<sup>7</sup>Abraham lived for 175 years, <sup>8</sup>and he died at a ripe old age, having lived a long and satisfying life. He breathed his last and joined his ancestors in death. <sup>9</sup>His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, near Mamre, in the field of Ephron son of Zohar the Hittite. <sup>10</sup>This was the field Abraham had purchased from the Hittites and where he had buried his wife Sarah. <sup>11</sup>After Abraham's death, God blessed his son Isaac, who settled near Beer-lahai-roi in the Negev.

Ishmael's Descendants

oldest was Nebaioth, followed by Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,
Kedemah. <sup>16</sup>These twelve sons of Ishmael became the founders of twelve tribes named after them, listed according to the places they settled and camped. <sup>17</sup>Ishmael lived for 137 years.
Then he breathed his last and joined his ancestors in death.
<sup>18</sup>Ishmael's descendants occupied the region from Havilah to Shur, which is east of Egypt in the direction of Asshur. There they lived in open hostility toward all their relatives.*

The Births of Esau and Jacob

<sup>19</sup>This is the account of the family of Isaac, the son of Abraham. <sup>20</sup>When Isaac was forty years old, he married Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Paddanaram and the sister of Laban the Aramean.

Esau

<sup>21</sup>Isaac pleaded with the LORD on behalf of his wife, because she was unable to have children. The LORD answered Isaac's prayer, and Rebekah became pregnant with twins. <sup>22</sup>But the two children struggled with each other in her womb. So she went to ask the LORD about it. “Why is this happening to me?” she asked.

<sup>23</sup> And the LORD told her, “The sons in your womb will become two nations. From the very beginning, the two nations will be rivals. One nation will be stronger than the other; and your older son will serve your younger son.”

<sup>24</sup> And when the time came to give birth, Rebekah discovered that she did indeed have twins! <sup>25</sup> The first one was very red at birth and covered with thick hair like a fur coat. So they named him Esau. <sup>26</sup> Then the other twin was born with his hand grasping Esau’s heel. So they named him Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when the twins were born.

Esau Sells His Birthright

<sup>27</sup> As the boys grew up, Esau became a skillful hunter. He was an outdoorsman, but Jacob had a quiet temperament, preferring to stay at home. <sup>28</sup> Isaac loved Esau because he enjoyed eating the wild game Esau brought home, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

<sup>33</sup> But Jacob said, “First you must swear that your birthright is mine.” So Esau swore an oath, thereby selling all his rights as the firstborn to his brother, Jacob.

<sup>34</sup> Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and lentil stew. Esau ate the meal, then got up and left. He showed contempt for his rights as the firstborn.

Genesis 26

Isaac Deceives Abimelech

<sup>2</sup>The LORD appeared to Isaac and said, "Do not go down to Egypt, but do as I tell you. <sup>3</sup>Live here as a foreigner in this land, and I will be with you and bless you. I hereby confirm that I will give all these lands to you and your descendants,* just as I solemnly promised Abraham, your father. <sup>4</sup>I will cause your descendants to become as numerous as the stars of the sky, and I will give them all these lands. And through your descendants all the nations of the earth will be blessed. <sup>5</sup>I will do this because Abraham listened to me and obeyed all my requirements, commands, decrees, and instructions." <sup>6</sup>So Isaac stayed in Gerar.

<sup>7</sup>When the men who lived there asked Isaac about his wife, Rebekah, he said, "She is my sister." He was afraid to say, "She is my wife." He thought, "They will kill me to get her, because she is so beautiful." <sup>8</sup>But some time later, Abimelech, king of the Philistines, looked out his window and saw Isaac caressing Rebekah.

<sup>9</sup>Immediately, Abimelech called for Isaac and exclaimed, "She is obviously your wife! Why did you say, 'She is my sister'?"

"Because I was afraid someone would kill me to get her from me,” Isaac replied.

<sup>10</sup>“How could you do this to us?” Abimelech exclaimed. “One of my people might easily have taken your wife and slept with her, and you would have made us guilty of great sin.”

Conflict over Water Rights

<sup>12</sup>When Isaac planted his crops that year, he harvested a hundred times more grain than he planted, for the LORD blessed him. <sup>13</sup>He became a very rich man, and his wealth continued to grow. <sup>14</sup>He acquired so many flocks of sheep and goats, herds of cattle, and servants that the Philistines became jealous of him. <sup>15</sup>So the Philistines filled up all of Isaac’s wells with dirt. These were the wells that had been dug by the servants of his father, Abraham.

<sup>16</sup>Finally, Abimelech ordered Isaac to leave the country. “Go somewhere else,” he said, “for you have become too powerful for us.”

<sup>17</sup>So Isaac moved away to the Gerar Valley, where he set up their tents and settled down. <sup>18</sup>He reopened the wells his father had dug, which the Philistines had filled in after Abraham’s death. Isaac also restored the names Abraham had given them.

<sup>19</sup>Isaac’s servants also dug in the Gerar Valley and discovered a well of fresh water. <sup>20</sup>But then the shepherds from Gerar came and claimed the spring. “This is our water,” they said, and they argued over it with Isaac’s herdsmen. So Isaac named the well Esek (which means “argument”). <sup>21</sup>Isaac’s men then dug another well, but again there was a dispute over it. So Isaac named it Sitnah (which means “hostility”).<sup>22</sup> Abandoning that one, Isaac moved on and dug another well. This time there was no dispute over it, so Isaac named the place Rehoboth (which means “open space”), for he said, “At last the LORD has created enough space for us to prosper in this land.”

<sup>23</sup> From there Isaac moved to Beersheba,<sup>24</sup> where the LORD appeared to him on the night of his arrival. “I am the God of your father, Abraham,” he said. “Do not be afraid, for I am with you and will bless you. I will multiply your descendants, and they will become a great nation. I will do this because of my promise to Abraham, my servant.”<sup>25</sup> Then Isaac built an altar there and worshiped the LORD. He set up his camp at that place, and his servants dug another well.

Isaac’s Covenant with Abimelech

<sup>28</sup> They replied, “We can plainly see that the LORD is with you. So we want to enter into a sworn treaty with you. Let’s make a covenant.<sup>29</sup> Swear that you will not harm us, just as we have never troubled you. We have always treated you well, and we sent you away from us in peace. And now look how the LORD has blessed you!”

<sup>30</sup> So Isaac prepared a covenant feast to celebrate the treaty, and they ate and drank together.<sup>31</sup> Early the next morning, they each took a solemn oath not to interfere with each other. Then Isaac sent them home again, and they left him in peace.

<sup>32</sup>That very day Isaac's servants came and told him about a new well they had dug. "We've found water!" they exclaimed.

<sup>33</sup>So Isaac named the well Shibah (which means "oath"). And to this day the town that grew up there is called Beersheba (which means "well of the oath").

Genesis 27

Jacob Steals Esau's Blessing

<sup>1</sup> One day when Isaac was old and turning blind, he called for Esau, his older son, and said, “My son.”

“Yes, Father?” Esau replied.

<sup>2</sup> “I am an old man now,” Isaac said, “and I don’t know when I may die. <sup>3</sup>Take your bow and a quiver full of arrows, and go out into the open country to hunt some wild game for me. <sup>4</sup>Prepare my favorite dish, and bring it here for me to eat. Then I will pronounce the blessing that belongs to you, my firstborn son, before I die.”

<sup>5</sup> But Rebekah overheard what Isaac had said to his son Esau. So when Esau left to hunt for the wild game, <sup>6</sup>she said to her son Jacob, “Listen. I overheard your father say to Esau, <sup>7</sup>‘Bring me some wild game and prepare me a delicious meal. Then I will bless you in the LORD’s presence before I die.’ <sup>8</sup>Now, my son, listen to me. Do exactly as I tell you. <sup>9</sup>Go out to the flocks, and bring me two fine young goats. I'll use them to prepare your father's favorite dish. <sup>10</sup>Then take the food to your father so he can eat it and bless you before he dies."

<sup>11</sup>"But look," Jacob replied to Rebekah, "my brother, Esau, is a hairy man, and my skin is smooth. <sup>12</sup>What if my father touches me? He'll see that I'm trying to trick him, and then he'll curse me instead of blessing me."

<sup>13</sup>But his mother replied, "Then let the curse fall on me, my son! Just do what I tell you. Go out and get the goats for me!"

<sup>14</sup>So Jacob went out and got the young goats for his mother. Rebekah took them and prepared a delicious meal, just the way Isaac liked it. <sup>15</sup>Then she took Esau's favorite clothes, which were there in the house, and gave them to her younger son, Jacob. <sup>16</sup>She covered his arms and the smooth part of his neck with the skin of the young goats. <sup>17</sup>Then she gave Jacob the delicious meal, including freshly baked bread.

<sup>18</sup>So Jacob took the food to his father. "My father?" he said.

"Yes, my son," Isaac answered. "Who are you—Esau or Jacob?"

<sup>19</sup>Jacob replied, "It's Esau, your firstborn son. I've done as you told me. Here is the wild game. Now sit up and eat it so you can give me your blessing."

<sup>20</sup>Isaac asked, "How did you find it so quickly, my son?"

"The LORD your God put it in my path!" Jacob replied.

<sup>21</sup>Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Come closer so I can touch you and make sure that you really are Esau." <sup>22</sup>So Jacob went closer to his father, and Isaac touched him. "The voice is Jacob's, but the hands are Esau's," Isaac said. <sup>23</sup>But he did not recognize Jacob, because Jacob's hands felt hairy just like Esau's. So Isaac prepared to bless Jacob. <sup>24</sup>"But are you really my son Esau?" he asked.

"Yes, I am," Jacob replied.

<sup>25</sup>Then Isaac said, "Now, my son, bring me the wild game. Let me eat it, and then I will give you my blessing." So Jacob took the food to his father, and Isaac ate it. He also drank the wine that Jacob served him. <sup>26</sup>Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come a little closer and kiss me, my son."

<sup>27</sup>So Jacob went over and kissed him. And when Isaac caught the smell of his clothes, he was finally convinced, and he blessed his son. He said, "Ah! The smell of my son is like the smell of the outdoors, which the LORD has blessed!

and the richness of the earth, may God always give you abundant harvests of grain and bountiful new wine.

<sup>29</sup>May many nations become your servants, and may they bow down to you.
May you be the master over your brothers, and may your mother's sons bow down to you.
All who curse you will be cursed, and all who bless you will be blessed."

<sup>31</sup>Esau prepared a delicious meal and brought it to his father. Then he said, “Sit up, my father, and eat my wild game so you can give me your blessing.”

<sup>32</sup>But Isaac asked him, “Who are you?”

Esau replied, “It’s your son, your firstborn son, Esau.”

<sup>33</sup>Isaac began to tremble uncontrollably and said, “Then who just served me wild game? I have already eaten it, and I blessed him just before you came. And yes, that blessing must stand!”

<sup>34</sup>When Esau heard his father’s words, he let out a loud and bitter cry. “Oh my father, what about me? Bless me, too!” he begged.

<sup>35</sup>But Isaac said, “Your brother was here, and he tricked me. He has taken away your blessing.”

<sup>36</sup>Esau exclaimed, “No wonder his name is Jacob, for now he has cheated me twice.* First he took my rights as the firstborn, and now he has stolen my blessing. Oh, haven’t you saved even one blessing for me?”

<sup>37</sup>Isaac said to Esau, “I have made Jacob your master and have declared that all his brothers will be his servants. I have guaranteed him an abundance of grain and wine—what is left for me to give you, my son?”

<sup>38</sup>Esau pleaded, “But do you have only one blessing? Oh my father, bless me, too!” Then Esau broke down and wept.

“You will live away from the richness of the earth, and away from the dew of the heaven above.

<sup>40</sup>You will live by your sword, and you will serve your brother.

But when you decide to break free,
you will shake his yoke from your neck.”

Jacob Flees to Paddan-Aram

<sup>41</sup>From that time on, Esau hated Jacob because their father had given Jacob the blessing. And Esau began to scheme: “I will soon be mourning my father’s death. Then I will kill my brother, Jacob.”

<sup>42</sup>But Rebekah heard about Esau’s plans. So she sent for Jacob and told him, “Listen, Esau is consoling himself by plotting to kill you. <sup>43</sup>So listen carefully, my son. Get ready and flee to my brother, Laban, in Haran. <sup>44</sup>Stay there with him until your brother cools off. <sup>45</sup>When he calms down and forgets what you have done to him, I will send for you to come back. Why should I lose both of you in one day?”

A Botched Blessing

Genesis 28

<sup>1</sup>So Isaac called for Jacob, blessed him, and said, “You must not marry any of these Canaanite women. <sup>2</sup>Instead, go at once to Paddan-aram, to the house of your grandfather Bethuel, and marry one of your uncle Laban’s daughters. <sup>3</sup>May God Almighty* bless you and give you many children. And may your descendants multiply and become many nations! <sup>4</sup>May God pass on to you and your descendants* the blessings he promised to Abraham. May you own this land where you are now living as a foreigner, for God gave this land to Abraham.”

<sup>6</sup>Esau knew that his father, Isaac, had blessed Jacob and sent him to Paddan-aram to find a wife, and that he had warned Jacob, “You must not marry a Canaanite woman.” <sup>7</sup>He also knew that Jacob had obeyed his parents and gone to Paddan-aram. <sup>8</sup>It was now very clear to Esau that his father did not like the local Canaanite women. <sup>9</sup>So Esau visited his uncle Ishmael’s family and married one of Ishmael’s daughters, in addition to the wives he already had. His new wife’s name was Mahalath. She was the sister of Nebaioth and the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham’s son.

Jacob’s Dream at Bethel

<sup>13</sup>At the top of the stairway stood the LORD, and he said, “I am the LORD, the God of your grandfather Abraham, and the God of your father, Isaac. The ground you are lying on belongs to you. I am giving it to you and your descendants. <sup>14</sup>Your descendants will be as numerous as the dust of the earth! They will spread out in all directions—to the west and the east, to the north and the south. And all the families of the earth will be blessed through you and your descendants. <sup>15</sup>What’s more, I am with you, and I will protect you wherever you go. One day I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have finished giving you everything I have promised you.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, “Surely the LORD is in this place, and I wasn’t even aware of it!” <sup>17</sup>But he was also afraid and said, “What an awesome place this is! It is none other than the house of God, the very gateway to heaven!”

<sup>18</sup>The next morning Jacob got up very early. He took the stone he had rested his head against, and he set it upright as a memorial pillar. Then he poured olive oil over it. <sup>19</sup>He named that place Bethel (which means “house of God”), although it was previously called Luz.

<sup>20</sup>Then Jacob made this vow: “If God will indeed be with me and protect me on this journey, and if he will provide me with food and clothing, <sup>21</sup>and if I return safely to my father’s home, then the LORD will certainly be my God.<sup>22</sup> And this memorial pillar I have set up will become a place for worshiping God, and I will present to God a tenth of everything he gives me.”

Genesis 29

Jacob Arrives at Paddan-Aram

<sup>3</sup>It was the custom there to wait for all the flocks to arrive before removing the stone and watering the animals. Afterward the stone would be placed back over the mouth of the well.

“We are from Haran,” they answered.

<sup>5</sup>“Do you know a man there named Laban, the grandson of Nahor?” he asked.

“Yes, we do,” they replied.

<sup>6</sup>“Is he doing well?” Jacob asked.

<sup>8</sup>“We can’t water the animals until all the flocks have arrived,” they replied. “Then the shepherds move the stone from the mouth of the well, and we water all the sheep and goats.”

<sup>9</sup>Jacob was still talking with them when Rachel arrived with her father's flock, for she was a shepherd. <sup>10</sup>And because Rachel was his cousin—the daughter of Laban, his mother's brother—and because the sheep and goats belonged to his uncle Laban, Jacob went over to the well and moved the stone from its mouth and watered his uncle's flock. <sup>11</sup>Then Jacob kissed Rachel, and he wept aloud. <sup>12</sup>He explained to Rachel that he was her cousin on her father's side—the son of her aunt Rebekah. So Rachel quickly ran and told her father, Laban.

Laban

<sup>13</sup>As soon as Laban heard that his nephew Jacob had arrived, he ran out to meet him. He embraced and kissed him and brought him home. When Jacob had told him his story, <sup>14</sup>Laban exclaimed, “You really are my own flesh and blood!”

Jacob Marries Leah and Rachel

After Jacob had stayed with Laban for about a month, <sup>15</sup>Laban said to him, “You shouldn't work for me without pay just because we are relatives. Tell me how much your wages should

<sup>16</sup>Now Laban had two daughters. The older daughter was named Leah, and the younger one was Rachel. <sup>17</sup>There was no sparkle in Leah’s eyes,* but Rachel had a beautiful figure and a lovely face. <sup>18</sup>Since Jacob was in love with Rachel, he told her father, “I’ll work for you for seven years if you’ll give me Rachel, your younger daughter, as my wife.”

<sup>19</sup>“Agreed!” Laban replied. “I’d rather give her to you than to anyone else. Stay and work with me.” <sup>20</sup>So Jacob worked seven years to pay for Rachel. But his love for her was so strong that it seemed to him but a few days.

<sup>21</sup>Finally, the time came for him to marry her. “I have fulfilled my agreement,” Jacob said to Laban. “Now give me my wife so I can sleep with her.”

<sup>25</sup> But when Jacob woke up in the morning—it was Leah! “What have you done to me?” Jacob raged at Laban. “I worked seven years for Rachel! Why have you tricked me?”

<sup>28</sup>So Jacob agreed to work seven more years. A week after Jacob had married Leah, Laban gave him Rachel, too. <sup>29</sup>(Laban gave Rachel a servant, Bilhah, to be her maid.) <sup>30</sup>So Jacob slept with Rachel, too, and he loved her much more than Leah. He then stayed and worked for Laban the additional seven years.

Jacob's Many Children

<sup>31</sup>When the LORD saw that Leah was unloved, he enabled her to have children, but Rachel could not conceive.<sup>32</sup>So Leah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him Reuben,* for she said, “The LORD has noticed my misery, and now my husband will love me.”

<sup>33</sup>She soon became pregnant again and gave birth to another son. She named him Simeon,* for she said, “The LORD heard that I was unloved and has given me another son.”

<sup>34</sup>Then she became pregnant a third time and gave birth to another son. She named him Levi,* for she said, “Surely this time my husband will feel affection for me, since I have given him three sons!”

<sup>35</sup>Once again Leah became pregnant and gave birth to another son. She named him Judah,* for she said, “Now I will praise the LORD!” And then she stopped having children.

Genesis 30

<sup>1</sup>When Rachel saw that she wasn't having any children for Jacob, she became jealous of her sister. She pleaded with Jacob, "Give me children, or I'll die!"

<sup>2</sup>Then Jacob became furious with Rachel. "Am I God?" he asked. "He's the one who has kept you from having children!"

<sup>9</sup>Meanwhile, Leah realized that she wasn't getting pregnant anymore, so she took her servant, Zilpah, and gave her to Jacob as a wife. <sup>10</sup>Soon Zilpah presented him with a son. <sup>11</sup>Leah named him Gad,* for she said, "How fortunate I am!" <sup>12</sup>Then Zilpah gave Jacob a second son. <sup>13</sup>And Leah named him Asher,* for she said, "What joy is mine! Now the other women will celebrate with me."

<sup>14</sup>One day during the wheat harvest, Reuben found some mandrakes growing in a field and brought them to his mother, Leah. Rachel begged Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes.”

<sup>15</sup>But Leah angrily replied, “Wasn’t it enough that you stole my husband? Now will you steal my son’s mandrakes, too?”

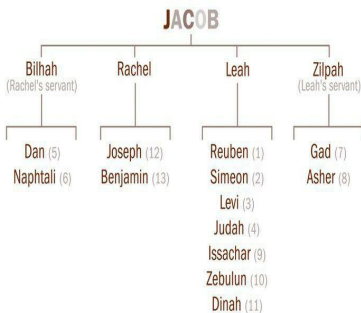

Rachel answered, “I will let Jacob sleep with you tonight if you give me some of the mandrakes.”

<sup>16</sup>So that evening, as Jacob was coming home from the fields, Leah went out to meet him. “You must come and sleep with me tonight!” she said. “I have paid for you with some mandrakes that my son found.” So that night he slept with Leah. <sup>17</sup>And God answered Leah’s prayers. She became pregnant again and gave birth to a fifth son for Jacob. <sup>18</sup>She named him Issachar,* for she said, “God has rewarded me for giving my servant to my husband as a wife.” <sup>19</sup>Then Leah became pregnant again and gave birth to a sixth son for Jacob. <sup>20</sup>She named him Zebulun,* for she said, “God has given me a good reward. Now my husband will treat me with respect, for I have given him six sons.” <sup>21</sup>Later she gave birth to a daughter and named her Dinah.

<sup>22</sup>Then God remembered Rachel’s plight and answered her prayers by enabling her to have children. <sup>23</sup>She became pregnant and gave birth to a son. “God has removed my disgrace,” she said. <sup>24</sup>And she named him Joseph,* for she said, “May the LORD add yet another son to my family.”

JACOB'S COMPLICATED BROOD

Numbers in (parentheses) show birth order:

Jacob's Wealth Increases

<sup>25</sup> Soon after Rachel had given birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, “Please release me so I can go home to my own country. <sup>26</sup>Let me take my wives and children, for I have earned them by serving you, and let me be on my way. You certainly know how hard I have worked for you.”

<sup>27</sup>“Please listen to me,” Laban replied. “I have become wealthy, for the LORD has blessed me because of you. <sup>28</sup>Tell me how much I owe you. Whatever it is, I’ll pay it.”

<sup>29</sup>Jacob replied, “You know how hard I’ve worked for you, and how your flocks and herds have grown under my care. <sup>30</sup>You had little indeed before I came, but your wealth has increased enormously. The LORD has blessed you through everything I’ve done. But now, what about me? When can I start providing for my own family?”

Jacob replied, “Don’t give me anything. Just do this one thing, and I’ll continue to tend and watch over your flocks. <sup>32</sup>Let me inspect your flocks today and remove all the sheep and goats that are speckled or spotted, along with all the black sheep. Give these to me as my wages. <sup>33</sup>In the future, when you check on the animals you have given me as my wages, you’ll see that I have been honest. If you find in my flock any goats without speckles or spots, or any sheep that are not black, you will know that I have stolen them from you.”

<sup>34</sup>“All right,” Laban replied. “It will be as you say.” <sup>35</sup>But that very day Laban went out and removed the male goats that were streaked and spotted, all the female goats that were speckled and spotted or had white patches, and all the black sheep. He placed them in the care of his own sons, <sup>36</sup>who took them a three-days’ journey from where Jacob was. Meanwhile, Jacob stayed and cared for the rest of Laban’s flock.

streaks on them.<sup>38</sup> Then he placed these peeled branches in the watering troughs where the flocks came to drink, for that was where they mated.<sup>39</sup> And when they mated in front of the white-streaked branches, they gave birth to young that were streaked, speckled, and spotted.<sup>40</sup> Jacob separated those lambs from Laban's flock. And at mating time he turned the flock to face Laban's animals that were streaked or black. This is how he built his own flock instead of increasing Laban's.

<sup>42</sup>But he didn't do this with the weaker ones, so the weaker lambs belonged to Laban, and the stronger ones were Jacob's.

<sup>43</sup>As a result, Jacob became very wealthy, with large flocks of sheep and goats, female and male servants, and many camels and donkeys.

Genesis 31

Jacob Flees from Laban

<sup>1</sup>But Jacob soon learned that Laban's sons were grumbling about him. "Jacob has robbed our father of everything!" they said. "He has gained all his wealth at our father's expense."

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your father and grandfather and to your relatives there, and I will be with you."

<sup>4</sup>So Jacob called Rachel and Leah out to the field where he was watching his flock. <sup>5</sup>He said to them, "I have noticed that your father's attitude toward me has changed. But the God of my father has been with me. <sup>6</sup>You know how hard I have worked for your father, <sup>7</sup>but he has cheated me, changing my wages ten times. But God has not allowed him to do me any harm. <sup>8</sup>For if he said, 'The speckled animals will be your wages,' the whole flock began to produce speckled young. And when he changed his mind and said, 'The striped animals will be your wages,' then the whole flock produced striped young. <sup>9</sup>In this way, God has taken your father's animals and given them to me.

<sup>10</sup>"One time during the mating season, I had a dream and saw that the male goats mating with the females were streaked, speckled, and spotted. <sup>11</sup>Then in my dream, the angel of God said to me, ‘Jacob!’ And I replied, ‘Yes, here I am.’

<sup>12</sup>“The angel said, ‘Look up, and you will see that only the streaked, speckled, and spotted males are mating with the females of your flock. For I have seen how Laban has treated you. <sup>13</sup>I am the God who appeared to you at Bethel,* the place where you anointed the pillar of stone and made your vow to me. Now get ready and leave this country and return to the land of your birth.””

<sup>14</sup> Rachel and Leah responded, “That’s fine with us! We won’t inherit any of our father’s wealth anyway. <sup>15</sup>He has reduced our rights to those of foreign women. And after he sold us, he wasted the money you paid him for us. <sup>16</sup>All the wealth God has given you from our father legally belongs to us and our children. So go ahead and do whatever God has told you.”

Laban Pursues Jacob

gathered a group of his relatives and set out in hot pursuit. He caught up with Jacob seven days later in the hill country of Gilead. <sup>24</sup>But the previous night God had appeared to Laban the Aramean in a dream and told him, “I’m warning you—leave Jacob alone!”

<sup>25</sup>Laban caught up with Jacob as he was camped in the hill country of Gilead, and he set up his camp not far from Jacob’s. <sup>26</sup>“What do you mean by deceiving me like this?” Laban demanded. “How dare you drag my daughters away like prisoners of war? <sup>27</sup>Why did you slip away secretly? Why did you deceive me? And why didn’t you say you wanted to leave? I would have given you a farewell feast, with singing and music, accompanied by tambourines and harps. <sup>28</sup>Why didn’t you let me kiss my daughters and grandchildren and tell them good-bye? You have acted very foolishly! <sup>29</sup>I could destroy you, but the God of your father appeared to me last night and warned me, ‘Leave Jacob alone!’ <sup>30</sup>I can understand your feeling that you must go, and your intense longing for your father’s home. But why have you stolen my gods?”

<sup>31</sup>“I rushed away because I was afraid,” Jacob answered. “I thought you would take your daughters from me by force. <sup>32</sup>But as for your gods, see if you can find them, and let the person who has taken them die! And if you find anything else that belongs to you, identify it before all these relatives of ours, and I will give it back!” But Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen the household idols.

<sup>33</sup>Laban went first into Jacob’s tent to search there, then into Leah’s, and then the tents of the two servant wives—but he found nothing. Finally, he went into Rachel's tent. <sup>34</sup>But Rachel had taken the household idols and hidden them in her camel saddle, and now she was sitting on them. When Laban had thoroughly searched her tent without finding them, <sup>35</sup>she said to her father, "Please, sir, forgive me if I don't get up for you. I'm having my monthly period." So Laban continued his search, but he could not find the household idols.

<sup>36</sup>Then Jacob became very angry, and he challenged Laban. "What's my crime?" he demanded. "What have I done wrong to make you chase after me as though I were a criminal? <sup>37</sup>You have rummaged through everything I own. Now show me what you found that belongs to you! Set it out here in front of us, before our relatives, for all to see. Let them judge between us!

<sup>38</sup>"For twenty years I have been with you, caring for your flocks. In all that time your sheep and goats never miscarried. In all those years I never used a single ram of yours for food. <sup>39</sup>If any were attacked and killed by wild animals, I never showed you the carcass and asked you to reduce the count of your flock. No, I took the loss myself! You made me pay for every stolen animal, whether it was taken in broad daylight or in the dark of night.

<sup>40</sup>"I worked for you through the scorching heat of the day and through cold and sleepless nights. <sup>41</sup>Yes, for twenty years I slaved in your house! I worked for fourteen years earning your two daughters, and then six more years for your flock. And you changed my wages ten times! <sup>42</sup>In fact, if the God of my father had not been on my side—the God of Abraham and the fearsome God of Isaac*—you would have sent me away empty-handed. But God has seen your abuse and my hard work. That is why he appeared to you last night and rebuked you!”

Jacob's Treaty with Laban

<sup>43</sup>Then Laban replied to Jacob, “These women are my daughters, these children are my grandchildren, and these flocks are my flocks—in fact, everything you see is mine. But what can I do now about my daughters and their children? <sup>44</sup>So come, let’s make a covenant, you and I, and it will be a witness to our commitment.”

<sup>45</sup>So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a monument. <sup>46</sup>Then he told his family members, “Gather some stones.” So they gathered stones and piled them in a heap. Then Jacob and Laban sat down beside the pile of stones to eat a covenant meal. <sup>47</sup>To commemorate the event, Laban called the place Jegar-sahadutha (which means “witness pile” in Aramaic), and Jacob called it Galeed (which means “witness pile” in Hebrew).

<sup>48</sup>Then Laban declared, “This pile of stones will stand as a witness to remind us of the covenant we have made today.” This explains why it was called Galeed—“Witness Pile.” <sup>49</sup> But it was also called Mizpah (which means “watchtower”), for Laban said, “May the LORD keep watch between us to make sure that we keep this covenant when we are out of each other’s sight. <sup>50</sup>If you mistreat my daughters or if you marry other wives, God will see it even if no one else does. He is a witness to this covenant between us.

monument I have set between us.<sup>52</sup> They stand between us as witnesses of our vows. I will never pass this pile of stones to harm you, and you must never pass these stones or this monument to harm me.<sup>53</sup> I call on the God of our ancestors—the God of your grandfather Abraham and the God of my grandfather Nahor—to serve as a judge between us.”

So Jacob took an oath before the fearsome God of his father, Isaac,* to respect the boundary line.<sup>54</sup> Then Jacob offered a sacrifice to God there on the mountain and invited everyone to a covenant feast. After they had eaten, they spent the night on the mountain.

<sup>55</sup>*Laban got up early the next morning, and he kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and blessed them. Then he left and returned home.

Genesis 32

<sup>1</sup>*As Jacob started on his way again, angels of God came to meet him. <sup>2</sup>When Jacob saw them, he exclaimed, “This is God’s camp!” So he named the place Mahanaim.*

Jacob Sends Gifts to Esau

<sup>3</sup> Then Jacob sent messengers ahead to his brother, Esau, who was living in the region of Seir in the land of Edom. <sup>4</sup>He told them, “Give this message to my master Esau: ‘Humble greetings from your servant Jacob. Until now I have been living with Uncle Laban, <sup>5</sup>and now I own cattle, donkeys, flocks of sheep and goats, and many servants, both men and women. I have sent these messengers to inform my lord of my coming, hoping that you will be friendly to me.’”

<sup>6</sup>After delivering the message, the messengers returned to Jacob and reported, “We met your brother, Esau, and he is already on his way to meet you—with an army of 400 men!” <sup>7</sup>Jacob was terrified at the news. He divided his household, along with the flocks and herds and camels, into two groups. <sup>8</sup>He thought, “If Esau meets one group and attacks it, perhaps the other group can escape.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Jacob prayed, “O God of my grandfather Abraham, and God of my father, Isaac—O LORD, you told me, ‘Return to your own land and to your relatives.’ And you promised me, ‘I will treat you kindly.’ <sup>10</sup>I am not worthy of all the unfailing love and faithfulness you have shown to me, your servant. When I left home and crossed the Jordan River, I owned nothing except a walking stick. Now my household fills two large camps! <sup>11</sup>O LORD, please rescue me from the hand of my brother, Esau. I am afraid that he is coming to attack me, along with my wives and children. <sup>12</sup>But you promised me, ‘I will surely treat you kindly, and I will multiply your descendants until they become as numerous as the sands along the seashore—too many to count.’”

<sup>19</sup>Jacob gave the same instructions to the second and third herdsmen and to all who followed behind the herds: “You must say the same thing to Esau when you meet him. <sup>20</sup>And be sure to say, ‘Look, your servant Jacob is right behind us.’”

Jacob thought, “I will try to appease him by sending gifts ahead of me. When I see him in person, perhaps he will be friendly to me.” <sup>21</sup>So the gifts were sent on ahead, while Jacob himself spent that night in the camp.

Jacob Wrestles with God

<sup>22</sup>During the night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two servant wives, and his eleven sons and crossed the Jabbok River with them. <sup>23</sup>After taking them to the other side, he sent over all his possessions.

<sup>24</sup>This left Jacob all alone in the camp, and a man came and wrestled with him until the dawn began to break. <sup>25</sup>When the man saw that he would not win the match, he touched Jacob’s hip and wrenched it out of its socket. <sup>26</sup>Then the man said, “Let me go, for the dawn is breaking!”

But Jacob said, “I will not let you go unless you bless me.”

<sup>27</sup>“What is your name?” the man asked.

He replied, “Jacob.”

<sup>28</sup>“Your name will no longer be Jacob,” the man told him. “From now on you will be called Israel,* because you have fought with God and with men and have won.”

<sup>29</sup>“Please tell me your name,” Jacob said.

“Why do you want to know my name?” the man replied. Then he blessed Jacob there.

<sup>30</sup>Jacob named the place Peniel (which means “face of God”), for he said, “I have seen God face to face, yet my life has been spared.” <sup>31</sup>The sun was rising as Jacob left Peniel,* and he was limping because of the injury to his hip. <sup>32</sup>(Even today the people of Israel don’t eat the tendon near the hip socket because of what happened that night when the man strained the tendon of Jacob's hip.)

Jacob and Esau Make Peace

“These are the children God has graciously given to me, your servant,” Jacob replied. <sup>6</sup>Then the servant wives came forward with their children and bowed before him. <sup>7</sup>Next came Leah with her children, and they bowed before him. Finally, Joseph and Rachel came forward and bowed before him.

<sup>8</sup>“And what were all the flocks and herds I met as I came?” Esau asked.

Jacob replied, “They are a gift, my lord, to ensure your friendship.”

<sup>10</sup>But Jacob insisted, “No, if I have found favor with you, please accept this gift from me. And what a relief to see your friendly smile. It is like seeing the face of God! <sup>11</sup>Please take this gift I have brought you, for God has been very gracious to me. I have more than enough.” And because Jacob insisted, Esau finally accepted the gift.

<sup>13</sup>But Jacob replied, “You can see, my lord, that some of the children are very young, and the flocks and herds have their young, too. If they are driven too hard, even for one day, all the animals could die. <sup>14</sup>Please, my lord, go ahead of your servant. We will follow slowly, at a pace that is comfortable for the livestock and the children. I will meet you at Seir.”

Jacob responded, “That’s not necessary. It’s enough that you’ve received me warmly, my lord!”

<sup>16</sup>So Esau turned around and started back to Seir that same day. <sup>17</sup>Jacob, on the other hand, traveled on to Succoth. There he built himself a house and made shelters for his livestock. That is why the place was named Succoth (which means “shelters”).

<sup>18</sup>Later, having traveled all the way from Paddan-aram, Jacob arrived safely at the town of Shechem, in the land of Canaan. There he set up camp outside the town. <sup>19</sup>Jacob bought the plot of land where he camped from the family of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for 100 pieces of silver.* <sup>20</sup>And there he built an altar and named it El-Elohe-Israel.*

Revenge against Shechem

<sup>5</sup>Soon Jacob heard that Shechem had defiled his daughter, Dinah. But since his sons were out in the fields herding his livestock, he said nothing until they returned. <sup>6</sup>Hamor, Shechem’s father, came to discuss the matter with Jacob. <sup>7</sup>Meanwhile, Jacob’s sons had come in from the field as soon as they heard what had happened. They were shocked and furious that their sister had been raped. Shechem had done a disgraceful thing against Jacob’s family, * something that should never be done.

<sup>8</sup>Hamor tried to speak with Jacob and his sons. “My son Shechem is truly in love with your daughter,” he said. “Please let him marry her. <sup>9</sup>In fact, let’s arrange other marriages, too. You give us your daughters for our sons, and we will give you our daughters for your sons. <sup>10</sup>And you may live among us; the land is open to you! Settle here and trade with us. And feel free to buy property in the area.”

brothers. “Please be kind to me, and let me marry her,” he begged. “I will give you whatever you ask.<sup>12</sup> No matter what dowry or gift you demand, I will gladly pay it—just give me the girl as my wife.”

<sup>21</sup>“These men are our friends,” they said. “Let’s invite them to live here among us and trade freely. Look, the land is large enough to hold them. We can take their daughters as wives and let them marry ours. <sup>22</sup>But they will consider staying here and becoming one people with us only if all of our men are circumcised, just as they are. <sup>23</sup>But if we do this, all their livestock and possessions will eventually be ours. Come, let’s agree to their terms and let them settle here among us.”

Shechem, and every male in the town was circumcised.<sup>25</sup> But three days later, when their wounds were still sore, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, who were Dinah's full brothers, took their swords and entered the town without opposition. Then they slaughtered every male there,<sup>26</sup> including Hamor and his son Shechem. They killed them with their swords, then took Dinah from Shechem's house and returned to their camp.

<sup>27</sup>Meanwhile, the rest of Jacob's sons arrived. Finding the men slaughtered, they plundered the town because their sister had been defiled there.<sup>28</sup> They seized all the flocks and herds and donkeys—everything they could lay their hands on, both inside the town and outside in the fields.<sup>29</sup> They looted all their wealth and plundered their houses. They also took all their little children and wives and led them away as captives.

<sup>30</sup>Afterward Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have ruined me! You've made me stink among all the people of this land—among all the Canaanites and Perizzites. We are so few that they will join forces and crush us. I will be ruined, and my entire household will be wiped out!"

Genesis 35

Jacob's Return to Bethel

<sup>1</sup>Then God said to Jacob, “Get ready and move to Bethel and settle there. Build an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you fled from your brother, Esau.”

<sup>2</sup>So Jacob told everyone in his household, “Get rid of all your pagan idols, purify yourselves, and put on clean clothing. <sup>3</sup>We are now going to Bethel, where I will build an altar to the God who answered my prayers when I was in distress. He has been with me wherever I have gone.”

<sup>4</sup>So they gave Jacob all their pagan idols and earrings, and he buried them under the great tree near Shechem. <sup>5</sup>As they set out, a terror from God spread over the people in all the towns of that area, so no one attacked Jacob's family.

<sup>6</sup>Eventually, Jacob and his household arrived at Luz (also called Bethel) in Canaan. <sup>7</sup>Jacob built an altar there and named the place El-bethel (which means “God of Bethel”), because God had appeared to him there when he was fleeing from his brother, Esau.

<sup>8</sup>Soon after this, Rebekah's old nurse, Deborah, died. She was buried beneath the oak tree in the valley below Bethel. Ever since, the tree has been called Allon-bacuth (which means “oak of weeping”).

<sup>9</sup>Now that Jacob had returned from Paddan-aram, God appeared to him again at Bethel. God blessed him, <sup>10</sup>saying,

“Your name is Jacob, but you will not be called Jacob any longer. From now on your name will be Israel.”* So God renamed him Israel.

<sup>11</sup>Then God said, “I am El-Shaddai—‘God Almighty.’ Be fruitful and multiply. You will become a great nation, even many nations. Kings will be among your descendants! <sup>12</sup>And I will give you the land I once gave to Abraham and Isaac. Yes, I will give it to you and your descendants after you.” <sup>13</sup>Then God went up from the place where he had spoken to Jacob.

<sup>14</sup>Jacob set up a stone pillar to mark the place where God had spoken to him. Then he poured wine over it as an offering to God and anointed the pillar with olive oil. <sup>15</sup>And Jacob named the place Bethel (which means “house of God”), because God had spoken to him there.

The Deaths of Rachel and Isaac

<sup>16</sup>Leaving Bethel, Jacob and his clan moved on toward Ephrath. But Rachel went into labor while they were still some distance away. Her labor pains were intense. <sup>17</sup>After a very hard delivery, the midwife finally exclaimed, “Don’t be afraid—you have another son!” <sup>18</sup>Rachel was about to die, but with her last breath she named the baby Ben-oni (which means “son of my sorrow”). The baby’s father, however, called him Benjamin (which means “son of my right hand”). <sup>19</sup>So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem). <sup>20</sup>Jacob set up a stone monument over Rachel’s grave, and it can be seen there to this day.

Reuben

These are the names of the twelve sons of Jacob:

These are the names of the sons who were born to Jacob at Paddan-aram.

<sup>27</sup>So Jacob returned to his father, Isaac, in Mamre, which is near Kiriath-arba (now called Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had both lived as foreigners.<sup>28</sup>Isaac lived for 180 years.

<sup>29</sup>Then he breathed his last and died at a ripe old age, joining his ancestors in death. And his sons, Esau and Jacob, buried him.

Genesis 36

Descendants of Esau

Eliphaz, gave birth to a son named Amalek. These are the descendants of Esau's wife Adah.

The descendants of Esau's oldest son, Eliphaz, became the leaders of the clans of Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, <sup>16</sup>Korah, Gatam, and Amalek. These are the clan leaders in the land of Edom who descended from Eliphaz. All these were descendants of Esau's wife Adah.

<sup>17</sup>The descendants of Esau's son Reuel became the leaders of the clans of Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These are the clan leaders in the land of Edom who descended from Reuel. All these were descendants of Esau's wife Basemath.

Original Peoples of Edom

<sup>20</sup>These are the names of the tribes that descended from Seir the Horite. They lived in the land of Edom: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, <sup>21</sup>Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These were the Horite clan leaders, the descendants of Seir, who lived in the land of Edom.

Rulers of Edom

<sup>31</sup>These are the kings who ruled in the land of Edom before any king ruled over the Israelites*:

<sup>39</sup>When Baal-hanan son of Acbor died, Hadad* became king in his place and ruled from the city of Pau. His wife was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred and granddaughter of Mezahab.

Joseph's Dreams

Joseph

<sup>2</sup> This is the account of Jacob and his family. When Joseph was seventeen years old, he often tended his father's flocks. He worked for his half brothers, the sons of his father's wives Bilhah and Zilpah. But Joseph reported to his father some of the bad things his brothers were doing.

<sup>5</sup>One night Joseph had a dream, and when he told his brothers about it, they hated him more than ever. <sup>6</sup>“Listen to this dream,” he said. <sup>7</sup>“We were out in the field, tying up bundles of grain. Suddenly my bundle stood up, and your bundles all gathered around and bowed low before mine!”

<sup>8</sup>His brothers responded, “So you think you will be our king, do you? Do you actually think you will reign over us?” And they hated him all the more because of his dreams and the way he talked about them.

<sup>9</sup>Soon Joseph had another dream, and again he told his brothers about it. “Listen, I have had another dream,” he said. “The sun, moon, and eleven stars bowed low before me!”

<sup>10</sup>This time he told the dream to his father as well as to his brothers, but his father scolded him. “What kind of dream is that?” he asked. “Will your mother and I and your brothers actually come and bow to the ground before you?” <sup>11</sup>But while his brothers were jealous of Joseph, his father wondered what the dreams meant.

<sup>12</sup>Soon after this, Joseph’s brothers went to pasture their father’s flocks at Shechem. <sup>13</sup>When they had been gone for some time, Jacob said to Joseph, “Your brothers are pasturing the sheep at Shechem. Get ready, and I will send you to them.”

<sup>14</sup>“Go and see how your brothers and the flocks are getting along,” Jacob said. “Then come back and bring me a report.” So Jacob sent him on his way, and Joseph traveled to Shechem from their home in the valley of Hebron.

<sup>15</sup>When he arrived there, a man from the area noticed him wandering around the countryside. “What are you looking for?” he asked.

<sup>16</sup>“I’m looking for my brothers,” Joseph replied. “Do you know where they are pasturing their sheep?”

<sup>17</sup>“Yes,” the man told him. “They have moved on from here, but I heard them say, ‘Let’s go on to Dothan.’” So Joseph followed his brothers to Dothan and found them there.

Joseph Sold into Slavery

<sup>18</sup>When Joseph’s brothers saw him coming, they recognized him in the distance. As he approached, they made plans to kill him. <sup>19</sup>“Here comes the dreamer!” they said. <sup>20</sup>“Come on, let’s kill him and throw him into one of these cisterns. We can tell our father, ‘A wild animal has eaten him.’ Then we’ll see what becomes of his dreams!”

<sup>21</sup>But when Reuben heard of their scheme, he came to Joseph’s rescue. “Let’s not kill him,” he said. <sup>22</sup>“Why should we shed any blood? Let’s just throw him into this empty cistern here in the wilderness. Then he’ll die without our laying a hand on him.” Reuben was secretly planning to rescue Joseph and return him to his father.

<sup>23</sup>So when Joseph arrived, his brothers ripped off the beautiful robe he was wearing. <sup>24</sup>Then they grabbed him and threw him into the cistern. Now the cistern was empty; there was no water in it. <sup>25</sup>Then, just as they were sitting down to eat, they looked up and saw a caravan of camels in the distance coming toward them. It was a group of Ishmaelite traders taking a load of gum, balm, and aromatic resin from Gilead down to Egypt.

<sup>26</sup>Judah said to his brothers, “What will we gain by killing our brother? We’d have to cover up the crime.* <sup>27</sup>Instead of hurting him, let’s sell him to those Ishmaelite traders. After all, he is our brother—our own flesh and blood!” And his brothers agreed. <sup>28</sup>So when the Ishmaelites, who were Midianite traders, came by, Joseph’s brothers pulled him out of the cistern and sold him to them for twenty pieces* of silver. And the traders took him to Egypt.

<sup>29</sup>Some time later, Reuben returned to get Joseph out of the cistern. When he discovered that Joseph was missing, he tore his clothes in grief. <sup>30</sup>Then he went back to his brothers and lamented, “The boy is gone! What will I do now?”

<sup>33</sup>Their father recognized it immediately. “Yes,” he said, “it is my son’s robe. A wild animal must have eaten him. Joseph has clearly been torn to pieces!” <sup>34</sup>Then Jacob tore his clothes and dressed himself in burlap. He mourned deeply for his son for a long time. <sup>35</sup>His family all tried to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. “I will go to my grave* mourning for my son,” he would say, and then he would weep.

Genesis 38

Judah and Tamar

<sup>6</sup>In the course of time, Judah arranged for his firstborn son, Er, to marry a young woman named Tamar. <sup>7</sup>But Er was a wicked man in the LORD's sight, so the LORD took his life. <sup>8</sup>Then Judah said to Er's brother Onan, "Go and marry Tamar, as our law requires of the brother of a man who has died. You must produce an heir for your brother."

<sup>9</sup>But Onan was not willing to have a child who would not be his own heir. So whenever he had intercourse with his brother's wife, he spilled the semen on the ground. This prevented her from having a child who would belong to his brother. <sup>10</sup>But the LORD considered it evil for Onan to deny a child to his dead brother. So the LORD took Onan's life, too.

From Onan to "Onanism"

<sup>11</sup>Then Judah said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, “Go back to your parents’ home and remain a widow until my son Shelah is old enough to marry you.” (But Judah didn’t really intend to do this because he was afraid Shelah would also die, like his two brothers.) So Tamar went back to live in her father’s home.

<sup>12</sup>Some years later Judah’s wife died. After the time of mourning was over, Judah and his friend Hirah the Adullamite went up to Timnah to supervise the shearing of his sheep. <sup>13</sup>Someone told Tamar, “Look, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep.”

<sup>14</sup>Tamar was aware that Shelah had grown up, but no arrangements had been made for her to come and marry him. So she changed out of her widow’s clothing and covered herself with a veil to disguise herself. Then she sat beside the road at the entrance to the village of Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah. <sup>15</sup>Judah noticed her and thought she was a prostitute, since she had covered her face. <sup>16</sup>So he stopped and propositioned her. “Let me have sex with you,” he said, not realizing that she was his own daughter-in-law.

“How much will you pay to have sex with me?” Tamar asked.

“But what will you give me to guarantee that you will send the goat?” she asked.

She answered, “Leave me your identification seal and its cord and the walking stick you are carrying.” So Judah gave them to her. Then he had intercourse with her, and she became pregnant. <sup>19</sup>Afterward she went back home, took off her veil, and put on her widow's clothing as usual.

<sup>20</sup>Later Judah asked his friend Hirah the Adullamite to take the young goat to the woman and to pick up the things he had given her as his guarantee. But Hirah couldn't find her. <sup>21</sup>So he asked the men who lived there, "Where can I find the shrine prostitute who was sitting beside the road at the entrance to Enaim?"

"We've never had a shrine prostitute here," they replied.

<sup>22</sup>So Hirah returned to Judah and told him, "I couldn't find her anywhere, and the men of the village claim they've never had a shrine prostitute there."

<sup>23</sup>"Then let her keep the things I gave her," Judah said. "I sent the young goat as we agreed, but you couldn't find her. We'd be the laughingstock of the village if we went back again to look for her."

<sup>24</sup>About three months later, Judah was told, "Tamar, your daughter-in-law, has acted like a prostitute. And now, because of this, she's pregnant."

"Bring her out, and let her be burned!" Judah demanded.

<sup>25</sup>But as they were taking her out to kill her, she sent this message to her father-in-law: "The man who owns these things made me pregnant. Look closely. Whose seal and cord and walking stick are these?"

<sup>26</sup>Judah recognized them immediately and said, "She is more righteous than I am, because I didn't arrange for her to marry my son Shelah." And Judah never slept with Tamar again.

discovered that she was carrying twins.<sup>28</sup> While she was in labor, one of the babies reached out his hand. The midwife grabbed it and tied a scarlet string around the child's wrist, announcing, "This one came out first."<sup>29</sup> But then he pulled back his hand, and out came his brother! "What!" the midwife exclaimed. "How did you break out first?" So he was named Perez.*<sup>30</sup> Then the baby with the scarlet string on his wrist was born, and he was named Zerah.*

Joseph in Potiphar's House

<sup>1</sup>When Joseph was taken to Egypt by the Ishmaelite traders, he was purchased by Potiphar, an Egyptian officer. Potiphar was captain of the guard for Pharaoh, the king of Egypt.

<sup>3</sup>Potiphar noticed this and realized that the LORD was with Joseph, giving him success in everything he did. <sup>4</sup>This pleased Potiphar, so he soon made Joseph his personal attendant. He put him in charge of his entire household and everything he owned. <sup>5</sup>From the day Joseph was put in charge of his master's household and property, the LORD began to bless Potiphar's household for Joseph's sake. All his household affairs ran smoothly, and his crops and livestock flourished. <sup>6</sup>So Potiphar gave Joseph complete administrative responsibility over everything he owned. With Joseph there, he didn't worry about a thing—except what kind of food to eat!

Joseph was a very handsome and well-built young man, <sup>7</sup>and Potiphar's wife soon began to look at him lustfully. "Come and sleep with me," she demanded.

<sup>8</sup>But Joseph refused. "Look," he told her, "my master trusts me with everything in his entire household. <sup>9</sup>No one here has more authority than I do. He has held back nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. How could I do such a wicked thing? It would be a great sin against God.”

<sup>10</sup>She kept putting pressure on Joseph day after day, but he refused to sleep with her, and he kept out of her way as much as possible. <sup>11</sup>One day, however, no one else was around when he went in to do his work. <sup>12</sup>She came and grabbed him by his cloak, demanding, “Come on, sleep with me!” Joseph tore himself away, but he left his cloak in her hand as he ran from the house.

<sup>13</sup>When she saw that she was holding his cloak and he had fled, <sup>14</sup>she called out to her servants. Soon all the men came running. “Look!” she said. “My husband has brought this Hebrew slave here to make fools of us! He came into my room to rape me, but I screamed. <sup>15</sup>When he heard me scream, he ran outside and got away, but he left his cloak behind with me.”

<sup>16</sup>She kept the cloak with her until her husband came home. <sup>17</sup>Then she told him her story. “That Hebrew slave you’ve brought into our house tried to come in and fool around with me,” she said. <sup>18</sup>“But when I screamed, he ran outside, leaving his cloak with me!”

Joseph Put in Prison

<sup>19</sup>Potiphar was furious when he heard his wife’s story about how Joseph had treated her. <sup>20</sup>So he took Joseph and threw him into the prison where the king’s prisoners were held, and there he remained. <sup>21</sup>But the LORD was with Joseph in the prison and showed him his faithful love. And the LORD made Joseph a favorite with the prison warden. <sup>22</sup>Before long, the warden put Joseph in charge of all the other prisoners and over everything that happened in the prison.<sup>23</sup>The warden had no more worries, because Joseph took care of everything. The LORD was with him and caused everything he did to succeed.

Genesis 40

Joseph Interprets Two Dreams

<sup>5</sup>While they were in prison, Pharaoh's cupbearer and baker each had a dream one night, and each dream had its own meaning. <sup>6</sup>When Joseph saw them the next morning, he noticed that they both looked upset. <sup>7</sup>"Why do you look so worried today?" he asked them.

<sup>8</sup>And they replied, "We both had dreams last night, but no one can tell us what they mean."

"Interpreting dreams is God's business," Joseph replied. "Go ahead and tell me your dreams."

<sup>9</sup>So the chief cupbearer told Joseph his dream first. "In my dream," he said, "I saw a grapevine in front of me. <sup>10</sup>The vine had three branches that began to bud and blossom, and soon it produced clusters of ripe grapes. <sup>11</sup>I was holding Pharaoh's wine cup in my hand, so I took a cluster of grapes and squeezed the juice into the cup. Then I placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand."

branches represent three days. <sup>13</sup>Within three days Pharaoh will lift you up and restore you to your position as his chief cupbearer. <sup>14</sup>And please remember me and do me a favor when things go well for you. Mention me to Pharaoh, so he might let me out of this place. <sup>15</sup>For I was kidnapped from my homeland, the land of the Hebrews, and now I'm here in prison, but I did nothing to deserve it."

<sup>16</sup>When the chief baker saw that Joseph had given the first dream such a positive interpretation, he said to Joseph, "I had a dream, too. In my dream there were three baskets of white pastries stacked on my head. <sup>17</sup>The top basket contained all kinds of pastries for Pharaoh, but the birds came and ate them from the basket on my head."

<sup>18</sup>"This is what the dream means," Joseph told him. "The three baskets also represent three days. <sup>19</sup>Three days from now Pharaoh will lift you up and impale your body on a pole. Then birds will come and peck away at your flesh."

<sup>20</sup>Pharaoh's birthday came three days later, and he prepared a banquet for all his officials and staff. He summoned* his chief cupbearer and chief baker to join the other officials. <sup>21</sup>He then restored the chief cupbearer to his former position, so he could again hand Pharaoh his cup. <sup>22</sup>But Pharaoh impaled the chief baker, just as Joseph had predicted when he interpreted his dream. <sup>23</sup>Pharaoh's chief cupbearer, however, forgot all about Joseph, never giving him another thought.

Pharaoh

Genesis 41

Pharaoh's Dreams

<sup>1</sup>Two full years later, Pharaoh dreamed that he was standing on the bank of the Nile River. <sup>2</sup>In his dream he saw seven fat, healthy cows come up out of the river and begin grazing in the marsh grass. <sup>3</sup>Then he saw seven more cows come up behind them from the Nile, but these were scrawny and thin. These cows stood beside the fat cows on the riverbank. <sup>4</sup>Then the scrawny, thin cows ate the seven healthy, fat cows! At this point in the dream, Pharaoh woke up.

<sup>5</sup>But he fell asleep again and had a second dream. This time he saw seven heads of grain, plump and beautiful, growing on a single stalk. <sup>6</sup>Then seven more heads of grain appeared, but these were shriveled and withered by the east wind. <sup>7</sup>And these thin heads swallowed up the seven plump, well-formed heads! Then Pharaoh woke up again and realized it was a dream.

<sup>8</sup>The next morning Pharaoh was very disturbed by the dreams. So he called for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. When Pharaoh told them his dreams, not one of them could tell him what they meant.

<sup>9</sup>Finally, the king's chief cupbearer spoke up. "Today I have been reminded of my failure," he told Pharaoh. <sup>10</sup>"Some time ago, you were angry with the chief baker and me, and you imprisoned us in the palace of the captain of the guard. <sup>11</sup>One night the chief baker and I each had a dream, and each dream had its own meaning. <sup>12</sup>There was a young Hebrew man with us in the prison who was a slave of the captain of the guard. We told him our dreams, and he told us what each of our dreams meant. <sup>13</sup>And everything happened just as he had predicted. I was restored to my position as cupbearer, and the chief baker was executed and impaled on a pole."

<sup>14</sup>Pharaoh sent for Joseph at once, and he was quickly brought from the prison. After he shaved and changed his clothes, he went in and stood before Pharaoh. <sup>15</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I had a dream last night, and no one here can tell me what it means. But I have heard that when you hear about a dream you can interpret it."

<sup>16</sup>"It is beyond my power to do this," Joseph replied. "But God can tell you what it means and set you at ease."

<sup>17</sup>So Pharaoh told Joseph his dream. "In my dream," he said, "I was standing on the bank of the Nile River, <sup>18</sup>and I saw seven fat, healthy cows come up out of the river and begin grazing in the marsh grass. <sup>19</sup>But then I saw seven sick-looking cows, scrawny and thin, come up after them. I've never seen such sorry-looking animals in all the land of Egypt.<sup>20</sup> These thin, scrawny cows ate the seven fat cows.<sup>21</sup> But afterward you wouldn't have known it, for they were still as thin and scrawny as before! Then I woke up.

<sup>28</sup>“This will happen just as I have described it, for God has revealed to Pharaoh in advance what he is about to do.<sup>29</sup> The next seven years will be a period of great prosperity throughout the land of Egypt.<sup>30</sup> But afterward there will be seven years of famine so great that all the prosperity will be forgotten in Egypt. Famine will destroy the land.<sup>31</sup> This famine will be so severe that even the memory of the good years will be erased.<sup>32</sup> As for having two similar dreams, it means that these events have been decreed by God, and he will soon make them happen.

Joseph Made Ruler of Egypt

<sup>37</sup>Joseph’s suggestions were well received by Pharaoh and his officials. <sup>38</sup>So Pharaoh asked his officials, “Can we find anyone else like this man so obviously filled with the spirit of God?”

<sup>39</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Since God has revealed the meaning of the dreams to you, clearly no one else is as intelligent or wise as you are. <sup>40</sup>You will be in charge of my court, and all my people will take orders from you. Only I, sitting on my throne, will have a rank higher than yours.”

<sup>41</sup>Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I hereby put you in charge of the entire land of Egypt.” <sup>42</sup>Then Pharaoh removed his signet ring from his hand and placed it on Joseph’s finger. He dressed him in fine linen clothing and hung a gold chain around his neck. <sup>43</sup>Then he had Joseph ride in the chariot reserved for his second-in-command. And wherever Joseph went, the command was shouted, “Kneel down!” So Pharaoh put Joseph in charge of all Egypt.<sup>44</sup> And Pharaoh said to him, “I am Pharaoh, but no one will lift a hand or foot in the entire land of Egypt without your approval.”

<sup>45</sup>Then Pharaoh gave Joseph a new Egyptian name, Zaphenath-paneah.* He also gave him a wife, whose name was Asenath. She was the daughter of Potiphera, the priest of On.* So Joseph took charge of the entire land of Egypt.<sup>46</sup> He was thirty years old when he began serving in the court of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. And when Joseph left Pharaoh’s presence, he inspected the entire land of Egypt.

<sup>50</sup>During this time, before the first of the famine years, two sons were born to Joseph and his wife, Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, the priest of On.<sup>51</sup> Joseph named his older son Manasseh,* for he said, “God has made me forget all my troubles and everyone in my father’s family.”<sup>52</sup> Joseph named his second son Ephraim,* for he said, “God has made me fruitful in this land of my grief.”

<sup>53</sup>At last the seven years of bumper crops throughout the land of Egypt came to an end.<sup>54</sup> Then the seven years of famine began, just as Joseph had predicted. The famine also struck all the surrounding countries, but throughout Egypt there was plenty of food.<sup>55</sup> Eventually, however, the famine spread throughout the land of Egypt as well. And when the people cried out to Pharaoh for food, he told them, “Go to Joseph, and do whatever he tells you.”<sup>56</sup> So with severe famine everywhere, Joseph opened up the storehouses and distributed grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe throughout the land of Egypt.<sup>57</sup> And people from all around came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph because the famine was severe throughout the world.

Genesis 42

Joseph's Brothers Go to Egypt

<sup>1</sup>When Jacob heard that grain was available in Egypt, he said to his sons, “Why are you standing around looking at one another? <sup>2</sup>I have heard there is grain in Egypt. Go down there, and buy enough grain to keep us alive. Otherwise we’ll die.”

<sup>3</sup>So Joseph’s ten older brothers went down to Egypt to buy grain. <sup>4</sup>But Jacob wouldn’t let Joseph’s younger brother, Benjamin, go with them, for fear some harm might come to him. <sup>5</sup>So Jacob’s * sons arrived in Egypt along with others to buy food, for the famine was in Canaan as well.

<sup>6</sup>Since Joseph was governor of all Egypt and in charge of selling grain to all the people, it was to him that his brothers came. When they arrived, they bowed before him with their faces to the ground. <sup>7</sup>Joseph recognized his brothers instantly, but he pretended to be a stranger and spoke harshly to them. “Where are you from?” he demanded.

<sup>8</sup>Although Joseph recognized his brothers, they didn’t recognize him. <sup>9</sup>And he remembered the dreams he’d had about them many years before. He said to them, “You are spies! You have come to see how vulnerable our land has become.”

<sup>10</sup>“No, my lord!” they exclaimed. “Your servants have simply come to buy food. <sup>11</sup>We are all brothers—members of the same family. We are honest men, sir! We are not spies!”

<sup>12</sup>“Yes, you are!” Joseph insisted. “You have come to see how vulnerable our land has become.”

<sup>13</sup>“Sir,” they said, “there are actually twelve of us. We, your servants, are all brothers, sons of a man living in the land of Canaan. Our youngest brother is back there with our father right now, and one of our brothers is no longer with us.”

<sup>14</sup>But Joseph insisted, “As I said, you are spies! <sup>15</sup>This is how I will test your story. I swear by the life of Pharaoh that you will never leave Egypt unless your youngest brother comes here!

<sup>16</sup>One of you must go and get your brother. I’ll keep the rest of you here in prison. Then we’ll find out whether or not your story is true. By the life of Pharaoh, if it turns out that you don’t have a younger brother, then I’ll know you are spies.”

<sup>17</sup>So Joseph put them all in prison for three days. <sup>18</sup>On the third day Joseph said to them, “I am a God-fearing man. If you do as I say, you will live. <sup>19</sup>If you really are honest men, choose one of your brothers to remain in prison. The rest of you may go home with grain for your starving families. <sup>20</sup>But you must bring your youngest brother back to me. This will prove that you are telling the truth, and you will not die.” To this they agreed.

<sup>21</sup>Speaking among themselves, they said, “Clearly we are being punished because of what we did to Joseph long ago. We saw his anguish when he pleaded for his life, but we wouldn’t listen. That’s why we’re in this trouble.”

<sup>22</sup>“Didn’t I tell you not to sin against the boy?” Reuben asked. “But you wouldn’t listen. And now we have to answer for his blood!”

<sup>23</sup>Of course, they didn’t know that Joseph understood them, for he had been speaking to them through an interpreter. <sup>24</sup>Now he turned away from them and began to weep. When he regained his composure, he spoke to them again. Then he chose Simeon from among them and had him tied up right before their eyes.

<sup>25</sup>Joseph then ordered his servants to fill the men’s sacks with grain, but he also gave secret instructions to return each brother’s payment at the top of his sack. He also gave them supplies for their journey home. <sup>26</sup>So the brothers loaded their donkeys with the grain and headed for home.

<sup>29</sup>When the brothers came to their father, Jacob, in the land of Canaan, they told him everything that had happened to them. <sup>30</sup>“The man who is governor of the land spoke very harshly to us,” they told him. “He accused us of being spies scouting the land. <sup>31</sup>But we said, ‘We are honest men, not spies. <sup>32</sup>We are twelve brothers, sons of one father. One brother is no longer with us, and the youngest is at home with our father in the land of Canaan.’

<sup>33</sup>“Then the man who is governor of the land told us, ‘This is how I will find out if you are honest men. Leave one of your brothers here with me, and take grain for your starving families and go on home.<sup>34</sup> But you must bring your youngest brother back to me. Then I will know you are honest men and not spies. Then I will give you back your brother, and you may trade freely in the land.”

<sup>35</sup>As they emptied out their sacks, there in each man’s sack was the bag of money he had paid for the grain! The brothers and their father were terrified when they saw the bags of money.<sup>36</sup> Jacob exclaimed, “You are robbing me of my children! Joseph is gone! Simeon is gone! And now you want to take Benjamin, too. Everything is going against me!”

<sup>37</sup>Then Reuben said to his father, “You may kill my two sons if I don’t bring Benjamin back to you. I’ll be responsible for him, and I promise to bring him back.”

<sup>38</sup>But Jacob replied, “My son will not go down with you. His brother Joseph is dead, and he is all I have left. If anything should happen to him on your journey, you would send this grieving, white-haired man to his grave.*”

Genesis 43

The Brothers Return to Egypt

<sup>3</sup>But Judah said, “The man was serious when he warned us, ‘You won’t see my face again unless your brother is with you.’ <sup>4</sup>If you send Benjamin with us, we will go down and buy more food. <sup>5</sup>But if you don’t let Benjamin go, we won’t go either. Remember, the man said, ‘You won’t see my face again unless your brother is with you.’”

<sup>6</sup>“Why were you so cruel to me?” Jacob* moaned. “Why did you tell him you had another brother?”

<sup>7</sup>“The man kept asking us questions about our family,” they replied. “He asked, ‘Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?’ So we answered his questions. How could we know he would say, ‘Bring your brother down here?’”

<sup>8</sup>Judah said to his father, “Send the boy with me, and we will be on our way. Otherwise we will all die of starvation—and not only we, but you and our little ones. <sup>9</sup>I personally guarantee his safety. You may hold me responsible if I don’t bring him back to you. Then let me bear the blame forever. <sup>10</sup>If we hadn’t wasted all this time, we could have gone and returned twice by now.”

avoided, then at least do this. Pack your bags with the best products of this land. Take them down to the man as gifts—balm, honey, gum, aromatic resin, pistachio nuts, and almonds.<sup>12</sup> Also take double the money that was put back in your sacks, as it was probably someone's mistake.<sup>13</sup> Then take your brother, and go back to the man.<sup>14</sup> May God Almighty* give you mercy as you go before the man, so that he will release Simeon and let Benjamin return. But if I must lose my children, so be it."

<sup>15</sup>So the men packed Jacob's gifts and double the money and headed off with Benjamin. They finally arrived in Egypt and presented themselves to Joseph.<sup>16</sup> When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the manager of his household, "These men will eat with me this noon. Take them inside the palace. Then go slaughter an animal, and prepare a big feast."<sup>17</sup> So the man did as Joseph told him and took them into Joseph's palace.

<sup>18</sup>The brothers were terrified when they saw that they were being taken into Joseph's house. "It's because of the money someone put in our sacks last time we were here," they said. "He plans to pretend that we stole it. Then he will seize us, make us slaves, and take our donkeys."

A Feast at Joseph's Palace

<sup>19</sup>The brothers approached the manager of Joseph's household and spoke to him at the entrance to the palace.<sup>20</sup> "Sir," they said, "we came to Egypt once before to buy food."<sup>21</sup> But as we were returning home, we stopped for the night and opened our sacks. Then we discovered that each man's money—the exact amount paid—was in the top of his sack! Here it is; we have brought it back with us.<sup>22</sup> We also have additional money to buy more food. We have no idea who put our money in our sacks.”

<sup>23</sup>“Relax. Don't be afraid,” the household manager told them. “Your God, the God of your father, must have put this treasure into your sacks. I know I received your payment.” Then he released Simeon and brought him out to them.

<sup>24</sup>The manager then led the men into Joseph's palace. He gave them water to wash their feet and provided food for their donkeys.<sup>25</sup> They were told they would be eating there, so they prepared their gifts for Joseph's arrival at noon.

<sup>26</sup>When Joseph came home, they gave him the gifts they had brought him, then bowed low to the ground before him.<sup>27</sup> After greeting them, he asked, “How is your father, the old man you spoke about? Is he still alive?”

<sup>28</sup>“Yes,” they replied. “Our father, your servant, is alive and well.” And they bowed low again.

<sup>29</sup>Then Joseph looked at his brother Benjamin, the son of his own mother. “Is this your youngest brother, the one you told me about?” Joseph asked. “May God be gracious to you, my son.”<sup>30</sup> Then Joseph hurried from the room because he was overcome with emotion for his brother. He went into his private room, where he broke down and wept.<sup>31</sup> After washing his face, he came back out, keeping himself under control. Then he ordered, “Bring out the food!”

brothers were served at a separate table. The Egyptians who ate with Joseph sat at their own table, because Egyptians despise Hebrews and refuse to eat with them.<sup>33</sup> Joseph told each of his brothers where to sit, and to their amazement, he seated them according to age, from oldest to youngest.<sup>34</sup> And Joseph filled their plates with food from his own table, giving Benjamin five times as much as he gave the others. So they feasted and drank freely with him.

Joseph's Silver Cup

<sup>3</sup>The brothers were up at dawn and were sent on their journey with their loaded donkeys. <sup>4</sup>But when they had gone only a short distance and were barely out of the city, Joseph said to his palace manager, “Chase after them and stop them. When you catch up with them, ask them, ‘Why have you repaid my kindness with such evil? <sup>5</sup>Why have you stolen my master’s silver cup,* which he uses to predict the future? What a wicked thing you have done!’”

<sup>6</sup>When the palace manager caught up with the men, he spoke to them as he had been instructed.

<sup>7</sup>“What are you talking about?” the brothers responded. “We are your servants and would never do such a thing! <sup>8</sup>Didn’t we return the money we found in our sacks? We brought it back all the way from the land of Canaan. Why would we steal silver or gold from your master’s house? <sup>9</sup>If you find his cup with any one of us, let that man die. And all the rest of us, my lord, will be your slaves.”

<sup>10</sup>“That’s fair,” the man replied. “But only the one who stole the cup will be my slave. The rest of you may go free.”

<sup>14</sup>Joseph was still in his palace when Judah and his brothers arrived, and they fell to the ground before him. <sup>15</sup>“What have you done?” Joseph demanded. “Don’t you know that a man like me can predict the future?”

<sup>16</sup>Judah answered, “Oh, my lord, what can we say to you? How can we explain this? How can we prove our innocence? God is punishing us for our sins. My lord, we have all returned to be your slaves—all of us, not just our brother who had your cup in his sack.”

<sup>17</sup>“No,” Joseph said. “I would never do such a thing! Only the man who stole the cup will be my slave. The rest of you may go back to your father in peace.”

Judah Speaks for His Brothers

<sup>18</sup> Then Judah stepped forward and said, “Please, my lord, let your servant say just one word to you. Please, do not be angry with me, even though you are as powerful as Pharaoh himself.

<sup>19</sup>“My lord, previously you asked us, your servants, ‘Do you have a father or a brother?’ <sup>20</sup>And we responded, ‘Yes, my lord, we have a father who is an old man, and his youngest son is a child of his old age. His full brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother's children, and his father loves him very much.'

<sup>21</sup>"And you said to us, 'Bring him here so I can see him with my own eyes.' <sup>22</sup>But we said to you, 'My lord, the boy cannot leave his father, for his father would die.' <sup>23</sup>But you told us, 'Unless your youngest brother comes with you, you will never see my face again.'

<sup>24</sup>"So we returned to your servant, our father, and told him what you had said. <sup>25</sup>Later, when he said, 'Go back again and buy us more food,' <sup>26</sup>we replied, 'We can't go unless you let our youngest brother go with us. We'll never get to see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.'

<sup>27</sup>"Then my father said to us, 'As you know, my wife had two sons, <sup>28</sup>and one of them went away and never returned. Doubtless he was torn to pieces by some wild animal. I have never seen him since. <sup>29</sup>Now if you take his brother away from me, and any harm comes to him, you will send this grieving, white-haired man to his grave.*'

<sup>30</sup>"And now, my lord, I cannot go back to my father without the boy. Our father's life is bound up in the boy's life. <sup>31</sup>If he sees that the boy is not with us, our father will die. We, your servants, will indeed be responsible for sending that grieving, white-haired man to his grave. <sup>32</sup>My lord, I guaranteed to my father that I would take care of the boy. I told him, 'If I don't bring him back to you, I will bear the blame forever.'

<sup>33</sup>"So please, my lord, let me stay here as a slave instead of the boy, and let the boy return with his brothers. <sup>34</sup>For how can I return to my father if the boy is not with me? I couldn't bear to see the anguish this would cause my father!”

Genesis 45

Joseph Reveals His Identity

<sup>1</sup> Joseph could stand it no longer. There were many people in the room, and he said to his attendants, “Out, all of you!” So he was alone with his brothers when he told them who he was. <sup>2</sup>Then he broke down and wept. He wept so loudly the Egyptians could hear him, and word of it quickly carried to Pharaoh’s palace.

<sup>3</sup> “I am Joseph!” he said to his brothers. “Is my father still alive?” But his brothers were speechless! They were stunned to realize that Joseph was standing there in front of them. <sup>4</sup>“Please, come closer,” he said to them. So they came closer. And he said again, “I am Joseph, your brother, whom you sold into slavery in Egypt. <sup>5</sup>But don’t be upset, and don’t be angry with yourselves for selling me to this place. It was God who sent me here ahead of you to preserve your lives. <sup>6</sup>This famine that has ravaged the land for two years will last five more years, and there will be neither plowing nor harvesting. <sup>7</sup>God has sent me ahead of you to keep you and your families alive and to preserve many survivors.* <sup>8</sup>So it was God who sent me here, not you! And he is the one who made me an adviser* to Pharaoh—the manager of his entire palace and the governor of all Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>“Now hurry back to my father and tell him, ‘This is what your son Joseph says: God has made me master over all the land of Egypt. So come down to me immediately! <sup>10</sup>You can live in the region of Goshen, where you can be near me with all your children and grandchildren, your flocks and herds, and everything you own. <sup>11</sup>I will take care of you there, for there are still five years of famine ahead of us. Otherwise you, your household, and all your animals will starve.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Joseph added, “Look! You can see for yourselves, and so can my brother Benjamin, that I really am Joseph! <sup>13</sup>Go tell my father of my honored position here in Egypt. Describe for him everything you have seen, and then bring my father here quickly.” <sup>14</sup>Weeping with joy, he embraced Benjamin, and Benjamin did the same. <sup>15</sup>Then Joseph kissed each of his brothers and wept over them, and after that they began talking freely with him.

Pharaoh Invites Jacob to Egypt

<sup>16</sup>The news soon reached Pharaoh’s palace: “Joseph’s brothers have arrived!” Pharaoh and his officials were all delighted to hear this.

<sup>17</sup>Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Tell your brothers, ‘This is what you must do: Load your pack animals, and hurry back to the land of Canaan. <sup>18</sup>Then get your father and all of your families, and return here to me. I will give you the very best land in Egypt, and you will eat from the best that the land produces.’”

<sup>19</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Tell your brothers, ‘Take wagons from the land of Egypt to carry your little children and your wives, and bring your father here. <sup>20</sup>Don’t worry about your personal belongings, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.”

<sup>21</sup>So the sons of Jacob* did as they were told. Joseph provided them with wagons, as Pharaoh had commanded, and he gave them supplies for the journey. <sup>22</sup>And he gave each of them new clothes—but to Benjamin he gave five changes of clothes and 300 pieces* of silver. <sup>23</sup>He also sent his father ten male donkeys loaded with the finest products of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and other supplies he would need on his journey.

<sup>26</sup>“Joseph is still alive!” they told him. “And he is governor of all the land of Egypt!” Jacob was stunned at the news—he couldn’t believe it. <sup>27</sup>But when they repeated to Jacob everything Joseph had told them, and when he saw the wagons Joseph had sent to carry him, their father’s spirits revived.

<sup>28</sup>Then Jacob exclaimed, “It must be true! My son Joseph is alive! I must go and see him before I die.”

Genesis 46

Jacob's Journey to Egypt

<sup>1</sup> So Jacob* set out for Egypt with all his possessions. And when he came to Beersheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father, Isaac. <sup>2</sup>During the night God spoke to him in a vision. “Jacob! Jacob!” he called.

“Here I am,” Jacob replied.

<sup>3</sup>“I am God,* the God of your father,” the voice said. “Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for there I will make your family into a great nation. <sup>4</sup>I will go with you down to Egypt, and I will bring you back again. You will die in Egypt, but Joseph will be with you to close your eyes.”

<sup>5</sup>So Jacob left Beersheba, and his sons took him to Egypt. They carried him and their little ones and their wives in the wagons Pharaoh had provided for them. <sup>6</sup>They also took all their livestock and all the personal belongings they had acquired in the land of Canaan. So Jacob and his entire family went to Egypt—<sup>7</sup>sons and grandsons, daughters and granddaughters—all his descendants.

<sup>8</sup>These are the names of the descendants of Israel—the sons of Jacob—who went to Egypt:

Reuben was Jacob's oldest son. <sup>9</sup>The sons of Reuben were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

and Shaul. (Shaul's mother was a Canaanite woman.)

<sup>12</sup>The sons of Judah were Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah (though Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan). The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

<sup>15</sup>These were the sons of Leah and Jacob who were born in Paddan-aram, in addition to their daughter, Dinah. The number of Jacob's descendants (male and female) through Leah was thirty-three.

<sup>27</sup>In addition, Joseph had two sons* who were born in Egypt. So altogether, there were seventy* members of Jacob's family in the land of Egypt.

Jacob's Family Arrives in Goshen

<sup>28</sup>As they neared their destination, Jacob sent Judah ahead to meet Joseph and get directions to the region of Goshen. And when they finally arrived there, <sup>29</sup>Joseph prepared his chariot and traveled to Goshen to meet his father, Jacob. When Joseph arrived, he embraced his father and wept, holding him for a long time. <sup>30</sup>Finally, Jacob said to Joseph, "Now I am ready to die, since I have seen your face again and know you are still alive."

<sup>31</sup>And Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's entire family, "I will go to Pharaoh and tell him, 'My brothers and my father's entire family have come to me from the land of Canaan.

<sup>32</sup>These men are shepherds, and they raise livestock. They have brought with them their flocks and herds and everything they own.’”

<sup>33</sup>Then he said, “When Pharaoh calls for you and asks you about your occupation, <sup>34</sup>you must tell him, ‘We, your servants, have raised livestock all our lives, as our ancestors have always done.’ When you tell him this, he will let you live here in the region of Goshen, for the Egyptians despise shepherds.”

Genesis 47

Jacob Blesses Pharaoh

<sup>1</sup>Then Joseph went to see Pharaoh and told him, “My father and my brothers have arrived from the land of Canaan. They have come with all their flocks and herds and possessions, and they are now in the region of Goshen.”

<sup>2</sup>Joseph took five of his brothers with him and presented them to Pharaoh. <sup>3</sup>And Pharaoh asked the brothers, “What is your occupation?”

They replied, “We, your servants, are shepherds, just like our ancestors. <sup>4</sup>We have come to live here in Egypt for a while, for there is no pasture for our flocks in Canaan. The famine is very severe there. So please, we request permission to live in the region of Goshen.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Now that your father and brothers have joined you here, <sup>6</sup>choose any place in the entire land of Egypt for them to live. Give them the best land of Egypt. Let them live in the region of Goshen. And if any of them have special skills, put them in charge of my livestock, too.”

<sup>9</sup>Jacob replied, “I have traveled this earth for 130 hard years. But my life has been short compared to the lives of my ancestors.”<sup>10</sup> Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh again before leaving his court.

<sup>11</sup> So Joseph assigned the best land of Egypt—the region of Rameses—to his father and his brothers, and he settled them there, just as Pharaoh had commanded. <sup>12</sup> And Joseph provided food for his father and his brothers in amounts appropriate to the number of their dependents, including the smallest children.

Joseph's Leadership in the Famine

<sup>13</sup> Meanwhile, the famine became so severe that all the food was used up, and people were starving throughout the lands of Egypt and Canaan. <sup>14</sup> By selling grain to the people, Joseph eventually collected all the money in Egypt and Canaan, and he put the money in Pharaoh's treasury. <sup>15</sup> When the people of Egypt and Canaan ran out of money, all the Egyptians came to Joseph. “Our money is gone!” they cried. “But please give us food, or we will die before your very eyes!”

<sup>16</sup> Joseph replied, “Since your money is gone, bring me your livestock. I will give you food in exchange for your livestock.”

<sup>17</sup> So they brought their livestock to Joseph in exchange for food. In exchange for their horses, flocks of sheep and goats, herds of cattle, and donkeys, Joseph provided them with food for another year.

<sup>18</sup> But that year ended, and the next year they came again and said, “We cannot hide the truth from you, my lord. Our money is gone, and all our livestock and cattle are yours. We have nothing left to give but our bodies and our land. <sup>19</sup> Why should we die before your very eyes? Buy us and our land in exchange for food; we offer our land and ourselves as slaves for Pharaoh. Just give us grain so we may live and not die, and so the land does not become empty and desolate.”

<sup>20</sup>So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh. All the Egyptians sold him their fields because the famine was so severe, and soon all the land belonged to Pharaoh. <sup>21</sup>As for the people, he made them all slaves, * from one end of Egypt to the other. <sup>22</sup>The only land he did not buy was the land belonging to the priests. They received an allotment of food directly from Pharaoh, so they didn't need to sell their land.

<sup>23</sup>Then Joseph said to the people, “Look, today I have bought you and your land for Pharaoh. I will provide you with seed so you can plant the fields. <sup>24</sup>Then when you harvest it, one-fifth of your crop will belong to Pharaoh. You may keep the remaining four-fifths as seed for your fields and as food for you, your households, and your little ones.”

<sup>25</sup>“You have saved our lives!” they exclaimed. “May it please you, my lord, to let us be Pharaoh's servants.” <sup>26</sup>Joseph then issued a decree still in effect in the land of Egypt, that Pharaoh should receive one-fifth of all the crops grown on his land. Only the land belonging to the priests was not given to Pharaoh.

<sup>27</sup>Meanwhile, the people of Israel settled in the region of Goshen in Egypt. There they acquired property, and they were fruitful, and their population grew rapidly. <sup>28</sup>Jacob lived for seventeen years after his arrival in Egypt, so he lived 147 years in all.

<sup>29</sup>As the time of his death drew near, Jacob* called for his son Joseph and said to him, “Please do me this favor. Put your hand under my thigh and swear that you will treat me with unfailing love by honoring this last request: Do not bury me in Egypt. <sup>30</sup>When I die, please take my body out of Egypt and bury me with my ancestors.”

So Joseph promised, “I will do as you ask.”

<sup>31</sup>“Swear that you will do it,” Jacob insisted. So Joseph gave his oath, and Jacob bowed humbly at the head of his bed.*

Genesis 48

Jacob Blesses Manasseh and Ephraim

<sup>1</sup> One day not long after this, word came to Joseph, “Your father is failing rapidly.” So Joseph went to visit his father, and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

<sup>2</sup>When Joseph arrived, Jacob was told, “Your son Joseph has come to see you.” So Jacob* gathered his strength and sat up in his bed.

<sup>3</sup>Jacob said to Joseph, “God Almighty* appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me. <sup>4</sup>He said to me, ‘I will make you fruitful, and I will multiply your descendants. I will make you a multitude of nations. And I will give this land of Canaan to your descendants* after you as an everlasting possession.’

<sup>5</sup>“Now I am claiming as my own sons these two boys of yours, Ephraim and Manasseh, who were born here in the land of Egypt before I arrived. They will be my sons, just as Reuben and Simeon are. <sup>6</sup>But any children born to you in the future will be your own, and they will inherit land within the territories of their brothers Ephraim and Manasseh.

<sup>7</sup>“Long ago, as I was returning from Paddan-aram, Rachel died in the land of Canaan. We were still on the way, some distance from Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem). So with great sorrow I buried her there beside the road to Ephrath.”

sons?” he asked.

And Jacob said, “Bring them closer to me, so I can bless them.”

<sup>10</sup>Jacob was half blind because of his age and could hardly see. So Joseph brought the boys close to him, and Jacob kissed and embraced them. <sup>11</sup>Then Jacob said to Joseph, “I never thought I would see your face again, but now God has let me see your children, too!”

and my father, Isaac, walked—the God who has been my shepherd all my life, to this very day,

<sup>16</sup>the Angel who has redeemed me from all harm—may he bless these boys.

May they preserve my name and the names of Abraham and Isaac.

And may their descendants multiply greatly throughout the earth.”

<sup>19</sup>But his father refused. “I know, my son; I know,” he replied. “Manasseh will also become a great people, but his younger brother will become even greater. And his descendants will become a multitude of nations.”

<sup>20</sup>So Jacob blessed the boys that day with this blessing: “The people of Israel will use your names when they give a blessing. They will say, ‘May God make you as prosperous as Ephraim and Manasseh.’” In this way, Jacob put Ephraim ahead of Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup>Then Jacob said to Joseph, “Look, I am about to die, but God will be with you and will take you back to Canaan, the land of your ancestors. <sup>22</sup>And beyond what I have given your brothers, I am giving you an extra portion of the land* that I took from the Amorites with my sword and bow.”

Genesis 49

Jacob's Last Words to His Sons

<sup>1</sup>Then Jacob called together all his sons and said, “Gather around me, and I will tell you what will happen to each of you in the days to come.

listen to Israel, your father.

<sup>3</sup>“Reuben, you are my firstborn, my strength, the child of my vigorous youth.
You are first in rank and first in power.

<sup>4</sup>But you are as unruly as a flood, and you will be first no longer.
For you went to bed with my wife;
you defiled my marriage couch.

<sup>5</sup>“Simeon and Levi are two of a kind;
their weapons are instruments of violence.

<sup>6</sup>May I never join in their meetings;
may I never be a party to their plans.
For in their anger they murdered men, and they crippled oxen just for sport.

<sup>7</sup>A curse on their anger, for it is fierce;
a curse on their wrath, for it is cruel.
I will scatter them among the descendants of Jacob;

I will disperse them throughout Israel.

<sup>8</sup>“Judah, your brothers will praise you.
You will grasp your enemies by the neck.
All your relatives will bow before you.

<sup>9</sup>Judah, my son, is a young lion that has finished eating its prey.
Like a lion he crouches and lies down;
like a lioness—who dares to rouse him?

<sup>10</sup>The scepter will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler’s staff from his descendants,* until the coming of the one to whom it belongs,* the one whom all nations will honor.

the colt of his donkey to a choice vine.
He washes his clothes in wine, his robes in the blood of grapes.

<sup>12</sup>His eyes are darker than wine, and his teeth are whiter than milk.

<sup>13</sup>“Zebulun will settle by the seashore and will be a harbor for ships;
his borders will extend to Sidon.

<sup>14</sup>“Issachar is a sturdy donkey, resting between two saddlepacks.*

<sup>15</sup>When he sees how good the countryside is and how pleasant the land, he will bend his shoulder to the load and submit himself to hard labor.

<sup>16</sup>“Dan will govern his people, like any other tribe in Israel.

<sup>17</sup>Dan will be a snake beside the road, a poisonous viper along the path that bites the horse’s hooves so its rider is thrown off.

<sup>18</sup>I trust in you for salvation, O LORD!

<sup>19</sup>“Gad will be attacked by marauding bands, but he will attack them when they retreat.

<sup>20</sup>“Asher will dine on rich foods and produce food fit for kings.

that bears beautiful fawns.

<sup>22</sup>“Joseph is the foal of a wild donkey, the foal of a wild donkey at a spring—
one of the wild donkeys on the ridge.*

<sup>23</sup>Archers attacked him savagely;
they shot at him and harassed him.

and his arms were strengthened by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, by the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel.

<sup>25</sup>May the God of your father help you;
may the Almighty bless you with the blessings of the heavens above, and blessings of the watery depths below,
and blessings of the breasts and womb.

<sup>26</sup>May the blessings of your father surpass the blessings of the ancient mountains,* reaching to the heights of the eternal hills.
May these blessings rest on the head of Joseph, who is a prince among his brothers.

devouring his enemies in the morning and dividing his plunder in the evening.”

<sup>28</sup>These are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father said as he told his sons good-bye. He blessed each one with an appropriate message.

Jacob's Death and Burial

<sup>29</sup>Then Jacob instructed them, “Soon I will die and join my ancestors. Bury me with my father and grandfather in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite.”<sup>30</sup>This is the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre in Canaan, that Abraham bought from Ephron the Hittite as a permanent burial site.<sup>31</sup>There Abraham and his wife Sarah are buried. There Isaac and his wife, Rebekah, are buried. And there I buried Leah.<sup>32</sup>It is the plot of land and the cave that my grandfather Abraham bought from the Hittites.”

<sup>33</sup>When Jacob had finished this charge to his sons, he drew his feet into the bed, breathed his last, and joined his ancestors in death.

Genesis 50

<sup>1</sup>Joseph threw himself on his father and wept over him and kissed him. <sup>2</sup>Then Joseph told the physicians who served him to embalm his father's body; so Jacob* was embalmed. <sup>3</sup>The embalming process took the usual forty days. And the Egyptians mourned his death for seventy days.

<sup>4</sup>When the period of mourning was over, Joseph approached Pharaoh's advisers and said, "Please do me this favor and speak to Pharaoh on my behalf. <sup>5</sup>Tell him that my father made me swear an oath. He said to me, 'Listen, I am about to die. Take my body back to the land of Canaan, and bury me in the tomb I prepared for myself.' So please allow me to go and bury my father. After his burial, I will return without delay."

<sup>6</sup>Pharaoh agreed to Joseph's request. "Go and bury your father, as he made you promise," he said. <sup>7</sup>So Joseph went up to bury his father. He was accompanied by all of Pharaoh's officials, all the senior members of Pharaoh's household, and all the senior officers of Egypt. <sup>8</sup>Joseph also took his entire household and his brothers and their households. But they left their little children and flocks and herds in the land of Goshen. <sup>9</sup>A great number of chariots and charioteers accompanied Joseph.

mourning at the threshing floor of Atad. Then they renamed that place (which is near the Jordan) Abel-mizraim,* for they said, “This is a place of deep mourning for these Egyptians.”

<sup>12</sup>So Jacob’s sons did as he had commanded them. <sup>13</sup>They carried his body to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre. This is the cave that Abraham had bought as a permanent burial site from Ephron the Hittite.

Joseph Reassures His Brothers

<sup>14</sup>After burying Jacob, Joseph returned to Egypt with his brothers and all who had accompanied him to his father’s burial. <sup>15</sup>But now that their father was dead, Joseph’s brothers became fearful. “Now Joseph will show his anger and pay us back for all the wrong we did to him,” they said.

<sup>16</sup>So they sent this message to Joseph: “Before your father died, he instructed us <sup>17</sup>to say to you: ‘Please forgive your brothers for the great wrong they did to you—for their sin in treating you so cruelly.’ So we, the servants of the God of your father, beg you to forgive our sin.” When Joseph received the message, he broke down and wept. <sup>18</sup>Then his brothers came and threw themselves down before Joseph. “Look, we are your slaves!” they said.

<sup>19</sup>But Joseph replied, “Don’t be afraid of me. Am I God, that I can punish you? <sup>20</sup>You intended to harm me, but God intended it all for good. He brought me to this position so I could save the lives of many people. <sup>21</sup>No, don’t be afraid. I will continue to take care of you and your children.” So he reassured them by speaking kindly to them.

The Death of Joseph

<sup>22</sup>So Joseph and his brothers and their families continued to live in Egypt. Joseph lived to the age of 110. <sup>23</sup>He lived to see three generations of descendants of his son Ephraim, and he lived to see the birth of the children of Manasseh's son Makir, whom he claimed as his own.*

<sup>24</sup>“Soon I will die,” Joseph told his brothers, “but God will surely come to help you and lead you out of this land of Egypt. He will bring you back to the land he solemnly promised to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.”

<sup>25</sup>Then Joseph made the sons of Israel swear an oath, and he said, “When God comes to help you and lead you back, you must take my bones with you.” <sup>26</sup>So Joseph died at the age of 110. The Egyptians embalmed him, and his body was placed in a coffin in Egypt.

20:1-17

(This is for the ambitious— it’s the Ten Commandments.)

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

We understand the need for rules in sports, laws in society, and operating instructions for tools and machines. But very often we are tempted to think that when it comes to our private life, we can pretty much do what we want. The Ten Commandments remind us that we’re made to operate according to rules that God set up. When we violate those rules, we hurt ourselves and others.

WE WERE MADE TO LIVE IN FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD.

Though we sometimes feel we're all alone in this world, God doesn't want us to live like that. He has made it possible for us to have a relationship with him. That's where we find true fulfillment in life.

Exodus 1

The Israelites in Egypt

<sup>6</sup>In time, Joseph and all of his brothers died, ending that entire generation. <sup>7</sup>But their descendants, the Israelites, had many children and grandchildren. In fact, they multiplied so greatly that they became extremely powerful and filled the land.

Pharaoh

<sup>8</sup> Eventually, a new king came to power in Egypt who knew nothing about Joseph or what he had done. <sup>9</sup>He said to his people, “Look, the people of Israel now outnumber us and are stronger than we are. <sup>10</sup>We must make a plan to keep them from growing even more. If we don't, and if war breaks out, they will join our enemies and fight against us. Then they will escape from the country.*”

<sup>11</sup>So the Egyptians made the Israelites their slaves. They appointed brutal slave drivers over them, hoping to wear them down with crushing labor. They forced them to build the cities of Pithom and Rameses as supply centers for the king. <sup>12</sup>But the more the Egyptians oppressed them, the more the Israelites multiplied and spread, and the more alarmed the Egyptians became. <sup>13</sup>So the Egyptians worked the people of Israel without mercy. <sup>14</sup>They made their lives bitter, forcing them to mix mortar and make bricks and do all the work in the fields. They were ruthless in all their demands.

<sup>15</sup>Then Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, gave this order to the Hebrew midwives, Shiphrah and Puah: <sup>16</sup>“When you help the Hebrew women as they give birth, watch as they deliver.* If the baby is a boy, kill him; if it is a girl, let her live.” <sup>17</sup>But because the midwives feared God, they refused to obey the king's orders. They allowed the boys to live, too.

<sup>18</sup>So the king of Egypt called for the midwives. “Why have you done this?” he demanded. “Why have you allowed the boys to live?”

<sup>19</sup>“The Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women,” the midwives replied. “They are more vigorous and have their babies so quickly that we cannot get there in time.”

<sup>20</sup>So God was good to the midwives, and the Israelites continued to multiply, growing more and more powerful. <sup>21</sup>And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families of their own.

22 Then Pharaoh gave this order to all his people: “Throw every newborn Hebrew boy into the Nile River. But you may let the girls live.”

Exodus 2

The Birth of Moses

<sup>1</sup>About this time, a man and woman from the tribe of Levi got married. <sup>2</sup>The woman became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She saw that he was a special baby and kept him hidden for three months. <sup>3</sup>But when she could no longer hide him, she got a basket made of papyrus reeds and waterproofed it with tar and pitch. She put the baby in the basket and laid it among the reeds along the bank of the Nile River. <sup>4</sup>The baby's sister then stood at a distance, watching to see what would happen to him.

<sup>5</sup>Soon Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe in the river, and her attendants walked along the riverbank. When the princess saw the basket among the reeds, she sent her maid to get it for her. <sup>6</sup>When the princess opened it, she saw the baby. The little boy was crying, and she felt sorry for him. "This must be one of the Hebrew children,” she said.

<sup>7</sup>Then the baby’s sister approached the princess. “Should I go and find one of the Hebrew women to nurse the baby for you?” she asked.

<sup>9</sup>“Take this baby and nurse him for me,” the princess told the baby’s mother. “I will pay you for your help.” So the woman took her baby home and nursed him.

<sup>10</sup>Later, when the boy was older, his mother brought him back to Pharaoh’s daughter, who adopted him as her own son. The princess named him Moses, * for she explained, “I lifted him out of the water.”

Moses Escapes to Midian

<sup>11</sup>Many years later, when Moses had grown up, he went out to visit his own people, the Hebrews, and he saw how hard they were forced to work. During his visit, he saw an Egyptian beating one of his fellow Hebrews. <sup>12</sup>After looking in all directions to make sure no one was watching, Moses killed the Egyptian and hid the body in the sand.

<sup>13</sup>The next day, when Moses went out to visit his people again, he saw two Hebrew men fighting. “Why are you beating up your friend?” Moses said to the one who had started the fight.

<sup>14</sup>The man replied, “Who appointed you to be our prince and judge? Are you going to kill me as you killed that Egyptian yesterday?”

Then Moses was afraid, thinking, “Everyone knows what I did.” <sup>15</sup>And sure enough, Pharaoh heard what had happened, and he tried to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh and went to live in the land of Midian.

When Moses arrived in Midian, he sat down beside a well. <sup>16</sup>Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters who came as usual to draw water and fill the water troughs for their father’s flocks. <sup>17</sup>But some other shepherds came and chased them away. So Moses jumped up and rescued the girls from the shepherds. Then he drew water for their flocks.

<sup>21</sup>Moses accepted the invitation, and he settled there with him. In time, Reuel gave Moses his daughter Zipporah to be his wife. <sup>22</sup>Later she gave birth to a son, and Moses named him Gershom,* for he explained, “I have been a foreigner in a foreign land.”

<sup>23</sup>Years passed, and the king of Egypt died. But the Israelites continued to groan under their burden of slavery. They cried out for help, and their cry rose up to God. <sup>24</sup>God heard their groaning, and he remembered his covenant promise to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>25</sup>He looked down on the people of Israel and knew it was time to act.*

Exodus 3

Moses and the Burning Bush

<sup>1</sup>One day Moses was tending the flock of his father-in-law, Jethro,* the priest of Midian. He led the flock far into the wilderness and came to Sinai,* the mountain of God. <sup>2</sup>There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a blazing fire from the middle of a bush. Moses stared in amazement. Though the bush was engulfed in flames, it didn't burn up. <sup>3</sup>"This is amazing," Moses said to himself. "Why isn't that bush burning up? I must go see it."

<sup>4</sup>When the LORD saw Moses coming to take a closer look, God called to him from the middle of the bush, "Moses! Moses!"

"Here I am!" Moses replied.

<sup>5</sup>"Do not come any closer," the LORD warned. "Take off your sandals, for you are standing on holy ground. <sup>6</sup>I am the God of your father*—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." When Moses heard this, he covered his face because he was afraid to look at God.

<sup>7</sup>Then the LORD told him, "I have certainly seen the oppression of my people in Egypt. I have heard their cries of distress because of their harsh slave drivers. Yes, I am aware of their suffering. <sup>8</sup>So I have come down to rescue them from the power of the Egyptians and lead them out of Egypt into their own fertile and spacious land. It is a land flowing with milk and honey—the land where the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites now live.<sup>9</sup> Look! The cry of the people of Israel has reached me, and I have seen how harshly the Egyptians abuse them.<sup>10</sup> Now go, for I am sending you to Pharaoh. You must lead my people Israel out of Egypt.”

<sup>11</sup>But Moses protested to God, “Who am I to appear before Pharaoh? Who am I to lead the people of Israel out of Egypt?”

<sup>12</sup>God answered, “I will be with you. And this is your sign that I am the one who has sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will worship God at this very mountain.”

<sup>13</sup>But Moses protested, “If I go to the people of Israel and tell them, ‘The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,’ they will ask me, ‘What is his name?’ Then what should I tell them?”

<sup>14</sup>God replied to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.* Say this to the people of Israel: I AM has sent me to you.” <sup>15</sup>God also said to Moses, “Say this to the people of Israel: Yahweh,* the God of your ancestors—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob—has sent me to you.

This is my eternal name, my name to remember for all generations.

<sup>16</sup>“Now go and call together all the elders of Israel. Tell them, ‘The LORD, the God of your ancestors—the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—has appeared to me. He told me, “I have been watching closely, and I see how the Egyptians are treating you.”<sup>17</sup>I have promised to rescue you from your oppression in Egypt. I will lead you to a land flowing with milk and honey—the land where the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites now live.”

<sup>18</sup>“The elders of Israel will accept your message. Then you and the elders must go to the king of Egypt and tell him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. So please let us take a three-day journey into the wilderness to offer sacrifices to the LORD, our God.’

<sup>19</sup>“But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go unless a mighty hand forces him.* <sup>20</sup>So I will raise my hand and strike the Egyptians, performing all kinds of miracles among them. Then at last he will let you go. <sup>21</sup>And I will cause the Egyptians to look favorably on you. They will give you gifts when you go so you will not leave empty-handed. <sup>22</sup>Every Israelite woman will ask for articles of silver and gold and fine clothing from her Egyptian neighbors and from the foreign women in their houses. You will dress your sons and daughters with these, stripping the Egyptians of their wealth.”

Exodus 4

Signs of the LORD's Power

<sup>1</sup> But Moses protested again, “What if they won’t believe me or listen to me? What if they say, ‘The LORD never appeared to you’?”

<sup>2</sup> Then the LORD asked him, “What is that in your hand?”

<sup>3</sup> “Throw it down on the ground,” the LORD told him. So Moses threw down the staff, and it turned into a snake! Moses jumped back.

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD told him, “Reach out and grab its tail.” So Moses reached out and grabbed it, and it turned back into a shepherd’s staff in his hand.

<sup>5</sup> “Perform this sign,” the LORD told him. “Then they will believe that the LORD, the God of their ancestors—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob—really has appeared to you.”

<sup>6</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Now put your hand inside your cloak.” So Moses put his hand inside his cloak, and when he took it out again, his hand was white as snow with a severe skin disease.* <sup>7</sup> “Now put your hand back into your cloak,” the LORD said. So Moses put his hand back in, and when he took it out again, it was as healthy as the rest of his body.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “If they do not believe you and are not convinced by the first miraculous sign, they will be convinced by the second sign. <sup>9</sup>And if they don't believe you or listen to you even after these two signs, then take some water from the Nile River and pour it out on the dry ground. When you do, the water from the Nile will turn to blood on the ground."

<sup>10</sup> But Moses pleaded with the LORD, "O Lord, I'm not very good with words. I never have been, and I'm not now, even though you have spoken to me. I get tongue-tied, and my words get tangled."

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD asked Moses, "Who makes a person's mouth? Who decides whether people speak or do not speak, hear or do not hear, see or do not see? Is it not I, the LORD? <sup>12</sup>Now go! I will be with you as you speak, and I will instruct you in what to say."

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD became angry with Moses. "All right," he said. "What about your brother, Aaron the Levite? I know he speaks well. And look! He is on his way to meet you now. He will be delighted to see you. <sup>15</sup>Talk to him, and put the words in his mouth. I will be with both of you as you speak, and I will instruct you both in what to do. <sup>16</sup>Aaron will be your spokesman to the people. He will be your mouthpiece, and you will stand in the place of God for him, telling him what to say. <sup>17</sup>And take your shepherd's staff with you, and use it to perform the miraculous signs I have shown you."

THE RELUCTANT CANDIDATE

Moses put up five excuses to avoid becoming Israel's deliverer. God had an answer for every one.

Moses	God
1 Who, me? I'm nobody. (3:11)	I'll go with you.
2 People will ask me hard questions like, "So who is this God who sent you?" (3:13)	Tell them my special name: I AM.
3 Nobody's going to listen to me. (4:1)	Here are two miracles to get their attention. . . .
4 I'm a lousy public speaker. (4:10)	Who made your mouth in the first place? I did!
5 C'mon—just send somebody else. (4:13)	Okay, you can communicate through your brother, Aaron. Now, that's enough—get moving!

Moses Returns to Egypt

<sup>18</sup>So Moses went back home to Jethro, his father-in-law. "Please let me return to my relatives in Egypt," Moses said. "I don't even know if they are still alive."

"Go in peace," Jethro replied.

Egypt, for all those who wanted to kill you have died.”

<sup>20</sup>So Moses took his wife and sons, put them on a donkey, and headed back to the land of Egypt. In his hand he carried the staff of God.

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD told Moses, “When you arrive back in Egypt, go to Pharaoh and perform all the miracles I have empowered you to do. But I will harden his heart so he will refuse to let the people go. <sup>22</sup>Then you will tell him, ‘This is what the LORD says: Israel is my firstborn son. <sup>23</sup>I commanded you, “Let my son go, so he can worship me.” But since you have refused, I will now kill your firstborn son!’”

<sup>24</sup>On the way to Egypt, at a place where Moses and his family had stopped for the night, the LORD confronted him and was about to kill him. <sup>25</sup>But Moses’ wife, Zipporah, took a flint knife and circumcised her son. She touched his feet* with the foreskin and said, “Now you are a bridegroom of blood to me.” <sup>26</sup>(When she said “a bridegroom of blood,” she was referring to the circumcision.) After that, the LORD left him alone.

<sup>27</sup>Now the LORD had said to Aaron, “Go out into the wilderness to meet Moses.” So Aaron went and met Moses at the mountain of God, and he embraced him. <sup>28</sup>Moses then told Aaron everything the LORD had commanded him to say. And he told him about the miraculous signs the LORD had commanded him to perform.

<sup>29</sup>Then Moses and Aaron returned to Egypt and called all the elders of Israel together. <sup>30</sup>Aaron told them everything the LORD had told Moses, and Moses performed the miraculous signs as they watched. <sup>31</sup>Then the people of Israel were convinced that the LORD had sent Moses and Aaron. When they heard that the LORD was concerned about them and had seen their misery, they bowed down and worshiped.

Exodus 5

Moses and Aaron Speak to Pharaoh

<sup>1</sup>After this presentation to Israel's leaders, Moses and Aaron went and spoke to Pharaoh. They told him, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Let my people go so they may hold a festival in my honor in the wilderness."

<sup>2</sup>"Is that so?" retorted Pharaoh. "And who is the LORD? Why should I listen to him and let Israel go? I don't know the LORD, and I will not let Israel go."

<sup>3</sup>But Aaron and Moses persisted. "The God of the Hebrews has met with us," they declared. "So let us take a three-day journey into the wilderness so we can offer sacrifices to the LORD our God. If we don't, he will kill us with a plague or with the sword."

<sup>5</sup>Look, there are many of your people in the land, and you are stopping them from their work."

Making Bricks without Straw

<sup>6</sup>That same day Pharaoh sent this order to the Egyptian slave drivers and the Israelite foremen: <sup>7</sup>"Do not supply any more straw for making bricks. Make the people get it themselves!"
<sup>8</sup>But still require them to make the same number of bricks as before. Don't reduce the quota. They are lazy. That's why they are crying out, ‘Let us go and offer sacrifices to our God.’

<sup>9</sup>Load them down with more work. Make them sweat! That will teach them to listen to lies!”

<sup>10</sup> So the slave drivers and foremen went out and told the people: “This is what Pharaoh says: I will not provide any more straw for you. <sup>11</sup>Go and get it yourselves. Find it wherever you can. But you must produce just as many bricks as before!” <sup>12</sup>So the people scattered throughout the land of Egypt in search of stubble to use as straw.

<sup>13</sup>Meanwhile, the Egyptian slave drivers continued to push hard. “Meet your daily quota of bricks, just as you did when we provided you with straw!” they demanded. <sup>14</sup>Then they whipped the Israelite foremen they had put in charge of the work crews. “Why haven’t you met your quotas either yesterday or today?” they demanded.

<sup>15</sup>So the Israelite foremen went to Pharaoh and pleaded with him. “Please don’t treat your servants like this,” they begged. <sup>16</sup>“We are given no straw, but the slave drivers still demand, ‘Make bricks!’ We are being beaten, but it isn’t our fault! Your own people are to blame!”

<sup>17</sup>But Pharaoh shouted, “You’re just lazy! Lazy! That’s why you’re saying, ‘Let us go and offer sacrifices to the LORD.’” <sup>18</sup>Now get back to work! No straw will be given to you, but you must still produce the full quota of bricks.”

<sup>19</sup>The Israelite foremen could see that they were in serious trouble when they were told, “You must not reduce the number of bricks you make each day.” <sup>20</sup>As they left Pharaoh’s court, they confronted Moses and Aaron, who were waiting outside for them. <sup>21</sup>The foremen said to them, “May the LORD judge and punish you for making us stink before Pharaoh and his officials. You have put a sword into their hands, an excuse to kill us!”

<sup>22</sup> Then Moses went back to the LORD and protested, “Why have you brought all this trouble on your own people, Lord? Why did you send me? <sup>23</sup>Ever since I came to Pharaoh as your spokesman, he has been even more brutal to your people. And you have done nothing to rescue them!”

Exodus 6

Promises of Deliverance

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD told Moses, “Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh. When he feels the force of my strong hand, he will let the people go. In fact, he will force them to leave his land!”

<sup>2</sup>And God said to Moses, “I am Yahweh—‘the LORD.’* <sup>3</sup>I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob as El-Shaddai—‘God Almighty’*—but I did not reveal my name, Yahweh, to them. <sup>4</sup>And I reaffirmed my covenant with them. Under its terms, I promised to give them the land of Canaan, where they were living as foreigners. <sup>5</sup>You can be sure that I have heard the groans of the people of Israel, who are now slaves to the Egyptians. And I am well aware of my covenant with them.

<sup>6</sup>“Therefore, say to the people of Israel: ‘I am the LORD. I will free you from your oppression and will rescue you from your slavery in Egypt. I will redeem you with a powerful arm and great acts of judgment. <sup>7</sup>I will claim you as my own people, and I will be your God. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God who has freed you from your oppression in Egypt. <sup>8</sup>I will bring you into the land I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I will give it to you as your very own possession. I am the LORD!’”

<sup>9</sup>So Moses told the people of Israel what the LORD had said, but they refused to listen anymore. They had become too discouraged by the brutality of their slavery.

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>11</sup>“Go back to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and tell him to let the people of Israel leave his country.”

<sup>12</sup>“But LORD!” Moses objected. “My own people won’t listen to me anymore. How can I expect Pharaoh to listen? I’m such a clumsy speaker! *”

<sup>13</sup>But the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron and gave them orders for the Israelites and for Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. The LORD commanded Moses and Aaron to lead the people of Israel out of Egypt.

The Ancestors of Moses and Aaron

The sons of Reuben, Israel’s oldest son, were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. Their descendants became the clans of Reuben.

These are the clans of the Levites, as listed in their family records.

These are the ancestors of the Levite families, listed according to their clans.

<sup>26</sup>The Aaron and Moses named in this list are the same ones to whom the LORD said, "Lead the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt like an army." <sup>27</sup>It was Moses and Aaron who spoke to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, about leading the people of Israel out of Egypt.

<sup>28</sup>When the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, <sup>29</sup>he said to him, "I am the LORD! Tell Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, everything I am telling you." <sup>30</sup>But Moses argued with the LORD, saying, "I can't do it! I'm such a clumsy speaker! Why should Pharaoh listen to me?"

Exodus 7

Aaron's Staff Becomes a Serpent

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pay close attention to this. I will make you seem like God to Pharaoh, and your brother, Aaron, will be your prophet. <sup>2</sup> Tell Aaron everything I command you, and Aaron must command Pharaoh to let the people of Israel leave his country. <sup>3</sup> But I will make Pharaoh’s heart stubborn so I can multiply my miraculous signs and wonders in the land of Egypt. <sup>4</sup> Even then Pharaoh will refuse to listen to you. So I will bring down my fist on Egypt. Then I will rescue my forces—my people, the Israelites—from the land of Egypt with great acts of judgment. <sup>5</sup> When I raise my powerful hand and bring out the Israelites, the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>6</sup> So Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD had commanded them. <sup>7</sup> Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron was eighty-three when they made their demands to Pharaoh.

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>9</sup> “Pharaoh will demand, ‘Show me a miracle.’ When he does this, say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and throw it down in front of Pharaoh, and it will become a serpent.*’”

<sup>10</sup> So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did what the LORD had commanded them. Aaron threw down his staff before Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a serpent! <sup>11</sup> Then Pharaoh called in his own wise men and sorcerers, and these Egyptian magicians did the same thing with their magic. <sup>12</sup>They threw down their staffs, which also became serpents! But then Aaron's staff swallowed up their staffs. <sup>13</sup>Pharaoh's heart, however, remained hard. He still refused to listen, just as the LORD had predicted.

A Plague of Blood

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is stubborn,* and he still refuses to let the people go. <sup>15</sup>So go to Pharaoh in the morning as he goes down to the river. Stand on the bank of the Nile and meet him there. Be sure to take along the staff that turned into a snake. <sup>16</sup>Then announce to him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to tell you, “Let my people go, so they can worship me in the wilderness.” Until now, you have refused to listen to him. <sup>17</sup>So this is what the LORD says: “I will show you that I am the LORD.” Look! I will strike the water of the Nile with this staff in my hand, and the river will turn to blood. <sup>18</sup>The fish in it will die, and the river will stink. The Egyptians will not be able to drink any water from the Nile.”’

<sup>19</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses: “Tell Aaron, ‘Take your staff and raise your hand over the waters of Egypt—all its rivers, canals, ponds, and all the reservoirs. Turn all the water to blood. Everywhere in Egypt the water will turn to blood, even the water stored in wooden bowls and stone pots.”’ became so foul that the Egyptians couldn't drink it. There was blood everywhere throughout the land of Egypt. <sup>22</sup>But again the magicians of Egypt used their magic, and they, too, turned water into blood. So Pharaoh's heart remained hard. He refused to listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had predicted. <sup>23</sup>Pharaoh returned to his palace and put the whole thing out of his mind. <sup>24</sup>Then all the Egyptians dug along the riverbank to find drinking water, for they couldn't drink the water from the Nile.

<sup>20</sup>So Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD commanded them. As Pharaoh and all of his officials watched, Aaron raised his staff and struck the water of the Nile. Suddenly, the whole river turned to blood! <sup>21</sup>The fish in the river died, and the water

Exodus 8

A Plague of Frogs

<sup>1</sup>*Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go back to Pharaoh and announce to him, ‘This is what the LORD says: Let my people go, so they can worship me. <sup>2</sup>If you refuse to let them go, I will send a plague of frogs across your entire land. <sup>3</sup>The Nile River will swarm with frogs. They will come up out of the river and into your palace, even into your bedroom and onto your bed! They will enter the houses of your officials and your people. They will even jump into your ovens and your kneading bowls. <sup>4</sup>Frogs will jump on you, your people, and all your officials.’”

<sup>5</sup>*Then the LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron, ‘Raise the staff in your hand over all the rivers, canals, and ponds of Egypt, and bring up frogs over all the land.’” <sup>6</sup>So Aaron raised his hand over the waters of Egypt, and frogs came up and covered the whole land! <sup>7</sup>But the magicians were able to do the same thing with their magic. They, too, caused frogs to come up on the land of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup>Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and begged, “Plead with the LORD to take the frogs away from me and my people. I will let your people go, so they can offer sacrifices to the LORD.”

<sup>9</sup>“You set the time!” Moses replied. “Tell me when you want me to pray for you, your officials, and your people. Then you and your houses will be rid of the frogs. They will remain only in the Nile River.”

“All right,” Moses replied, “it will be as you have said. Then you will know that there is no one like the LORD our God. <sup>11</sup>The frogs will leave you and your houses, your officials, and your people. They will remain only in the Nile River.”

<sup>12</sup>So Moses and Aaron left Pharaoh’s palace, and Moses cried out to the LORD about the frogs he had inflicted on Pharaoh. <sup>13</sup>And the LORD did just what Moses had predicted. The frogs in the houses, the courtyards, and the fields all died. <sup>14</sup>The Egyptians piled them into great heaps, and a terrible stench filled the land. <sup>15</sup>But when Pharaoh saw that relief had come, he became stubborn.* He refused to listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had predicted.

A Plague of Gnats

<sup>16</sup>So the LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron, ‘Raise your staff and strike the ground. The dust will turn into swarms of gnats throughout the land of Egypt.’” <sup>17</sup>So Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD had commanded them. When Aaron raised his hand and struck the ground with his staff, gnats infested the entire land, covering the Egyptians and their animals. All the dust in the land of Egypt turned into gnats. <sup>18</sup>Pharaoh’s magicians tried to do the same thing with their secret arts, but this time they failed. And the gnats covered everyone, people and animals alike.

<sup>19</sup>“This is the finger of God!” the magicians exclaimed to Pharaoh. But Pharaoh’s heart remained hard. He wouldn’t listen to them, just as the LORD had predicted.

A Plague of Flies

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD told Moses, “Get up early in the morning and stand in Pharaoh’s way as he goes down to the river. Say to him, ‘This is what the LORD says: Let my people go, so they can worship me. <sup>21</sup>If you refuse, then I will send swarms of flies on you, your officials, your people, and all the houses. The Egyptian homes will be filled with flies, and the ground will be covered with them. <sup>22</sup>But this time I will spare the region of Goshen, where my people live. No flies will be found there. Then you will know that I am the LORD and that I am present even in the heart of your land. <sup>23</sup>I will make a clear distinction between* my people and your people. This miraculous sign will happen tomorrow.’”

<sup>24</sup> And the LORD did just as he had said. A thick swarm of flies filled Pharaoh’s palace and the houses of his officials. The whole land of Egypt was thrown into chaos by the flies.

<sup>26</sup> But Moses replied, “That wouldn’t be right. The Egyptians detest the sacrifices that we offer to the LORD our God. Look, if we offer our sacrifices here where the Egyptians can see us, they will stone us. <sup>27</sup>We must take a three-day trip into the wilderness to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God, just as he has commanded us.”

the wilderness to offer sacrifices to the LORD your God. But don't go too far away. Now hurry and pray for me."

<sup>29</sup>Moses answered, "As soon as I leave you, I will pray to the LORD, and tomorrow the swarms of flies will disappear from you and your officials and all your people. But I am warning you, Pharaoh, don't lie to us again and refuse to let the people go to sacrifice to the LORD."

<sup>30</sup>So Moses left Pharaoh's palace and pleaded with the LORD to remove all the flies. <sup>31</sup>And the LORD did as Moses asked and caused the swarms of flies to disappear from Pharaoh, his officials, and his people. Not a single fly remained. <sup>32</sup>But Pharaoh again became stubborn and refused to let the people go.

A Plague against Livestock

<sup>1</sup>“Go back to Pharaoh,” the LORD commanded Moses. “Tell him, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: Let my people go, so they can worship me. <sup>2</sup>If you continue to hold them and refuse to let them go, <sup>3</sup>the hand of the LORD will strike all your livestock—your horses, donkeys, camels, cattle, sheep, and goats—with a deadly plague. <sup>4</sup>But the LORD will again make a distinction between the livestock of the Israelites and that of the Egyptians. Not a single one of Israel’s animals will die! <sup>5</sup>The LORD has already set the time for the plague to begin. He has declared that he will strike the land tomorrow.’”

<sup>6</sup>And the LORD did just as he had said. The next morning all the livestock of the Egyptians died, but the Israelites didn’t lose a single animal. <sup>7</sup>Pharaoh sent his officials to investigate, and they discovered that the Israelites had not lost a single animal! But even so, Pharaoh’s heart remained stubborn,* and he still refused to let the people go.

A Plague of Festering Boils

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take handfuls of soot from a brick kiln, and have Moses toss it into the air while Pharaoh watches. <sup>9</sup>The ashes will spread like fine dust over the whole land of Egypt, causing festering boils to break out on people and animals throughout the land.”

<sup>10</sup>So they took soot from a brick kiln and went and stood before Pharaoh. As Pharaoh watched, Moses threw the soot into the air, and boils broke out on people and animals alike. <sup>11</sup>Even the magicians were unable to stand before Moses, because the boils had broken out on them and all the Egyptians. <sup>12</sup>But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and just as the LORD had predicted to Moses, Pharaoh refused to listen.

A Plague of Hail

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, "Get up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh. Tell him, 'This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: Let my people go, so they can worship me. <sup>14</sup>If you don't, I will send more plagues on you* and your officials and your people. Then you will know that there is no one like me in all the earth. <sup>15</sup>By now I could have lifted my hand and struck you and your people with a plague to wipe you off the face of the earth. <sup>16</sup>But I have spared you for a purpose—to show you my power* and to spread my fame throughout the earth. <sup>17</sup>But you still lord it over my people and refuse to let them go. <sup>18</sup>So tomorrow at this time I will send a hailstorm more devastating than any in all the history of Egypt. <sup>19</sup>Quick! Order your livestock and servants to come in from the fields to find shelter. Any person or animal left outside will die when the hail falls.'"

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Lift your hand toward the sky so hail may fall on the people, the livestock, and all the plants throughout the land of Egypt.”

<sup>23</sup>So Moses lifted his staff toward the sky, and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and lightning flashed toward the earth. The LORD sent a tremendous hailstorm against all the land of Egypt.

<sup>27</sup>Then Pharaoh quickly summoned Moses and Aaron. “This time I have sinned,” he confessed. “The LORD is the righteous one, and my people and I are wrong. <sup>28</sup>Please beg the LORD to end this terrifying thunder and hail. We’ve had enough. I will let you go; you don’t need to stay any longer.”

<sup>29</sup>“All right,” Moses replied. “As soon as I leave the city, I will lift my hands and pray to the LORD. Then the thunder and hail will stop, and you will know that the earth belongs to the LORD. <sup>30</sup>But I know that you and your officials still do not fear the LORD God.”

<sup>31</sup>(All the flax and barley were ruined by the hail, because the barley had formed heads and the flax was budding. <sup>32</sup>But the wheat and the emmer wheat were spared, because they had not yet sprouted from the ground.)

stopped, and the downpour ceased.<sup>34</sup> But when Pharaoh saw that the rain, hail, and thunder had stopped, he and his officials sinned again, and Pharaoh again became stubborn.*<sup>35</sup> Because his heart was hard, Pharaoh refused to let the people leave, just as the LORD had predicted through Moses.

Exodus 10

A Plague of Locusts

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Return to Pharaoh and make your demands again. I have made him and his officials stubborn* so I can display my miraculous signs among them. <sup>2</sup> I’ve also done it so you can tell your children and grandchildren about how I made a mockery of the Egyptians and about the signs I displayed among them—and so you will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>3</sup> So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, “This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: How long will you refuse to submit to me? Let my people go, so they can worship me. <sup>4</sup> If you refuse, watch out! For tomorrow I will bring a swarm of locusts on your country. <sup>5</sup> They will cover the land so that you won’t be able to see the ground. They will devour what little is left of your crops after the hailstorm, including all the trees growing in the fields. <sup>6</sup> They will overrun your palaces and the homes of your officials and all the houses in Egypt. Never in the history of Egypt have your ancestors seen a plague like this one!” And with that, Moses turned and left Pharaoh.

<sup>7</sup> Pharaoh’s officials now came to Pharaoh and appealed to him. “How long will you let this man hold us hostage? Let the men go to worship the LORD their God! Don’t you realize that Egypt lies in ruins?”

<sup>8</sup>So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. “All right,” he told them, “go and worship the LORD your God. But who exactly will be going with you?”

<sup>9</sup>Moses replied, “We will all go—young and old, our sons and daughters, and our flocks and herds. We must all join together in celebrating a festival to the LORD.”

<sup>10</sup>Pharaoh retorted, “The LORD will certainly need to be with you if I let you take your little ones! I can see through your evil plan. <sup>11</sup>Never! Only the men may go and worship the LORD, since that is what you requested.” And Pharaoh threw them out of the palace.

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Raise your hand over the land of Egypt to bring on the locusts. Let them cover the land and devour every plant that survived the hailstorm.”

<sup>13</sup>So Moses raised his staff over Egypt, and the LORD caused an east wind to blow over the land all that day and through the night. When morning arrived, the east wind had brought the locusts. <sup>14</sup>And the locusts swarmed over the whole land of Egypt, settling in dense swarms from one end of the country to the other. It was the worst locust plague in Egyptian history, and there has never been another one like it. <sup>15</sup>For the locusts covered the whole country and darkened the land. They devoured every plant in the fields and all the fruit on the trees that had survived the hailstorm. Not a single leaf was left on the trees and plants throughout the land of Egypt.

LORD your God to take away this death from me.”

<sup>19</sup>The LORD responded by shifting the wind, and the strong west wind blew the locusts into the Red Sea.* Not a single locust remained in all the land of Egypt.<sup>20</sup>But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart again, so he refused to let the people go.

A Plague of Darkness

<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Lift your hand toward heaven, and the land of Egypt will be covered with a darkness so thick you can feel it.” <sup>22</sup>So Moses lifted his hand to the sky, and a deep darkness covered the entire land of Egypt for three days. <sup>23</sup>During all that time the people could not see each other, and no one moved. But there was light as usual where the people of Israel lived.

<sup>24</sup>Finally, Pharaoh called for Moses. “Go and worship the LORD,” he said. “But leave your flocks and herds here. You may even take your little ones with you.”

<sup>27</sup>But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart once more, and he would not let them go. <sup>28</sup>“Get out of here!” Pharaoh shouted at Moses. “I’m warning you. Never come back to see me again!

The day you see my face, you will die!”

<sup>29</sup>“Very well,” Moses replied. “I will never see your face again.”

Exodus 11

Death for Egypt's Firstborn

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, "I will strike Pharaoh and the land of Egypt with one more blow. After that, Pharaoh will let you leave this country. In fact, he will be so eager to get rid of you that he will force you all to leave. <sup>2</sup>Tell all the Israelite men and women to ask their Egyptian neighbors for articles of silver and gold." <sup>3</sup>(Now the LORD had caused the Egyptians to look favorably on the people of Israel. And Moses was considered a very great man in the land of Egypt, respected by Pharaoh's officials and the Egyptian people alike.)

<sup>4</sup> Moses had announced to Pharaoh, "This is what the LORD says: At midnight tonight I will pass through the heart of Egypt. <sup>5</sup>All the firstborn sons will die in every family in Egypt, from the oldest son of Pharaoh, who sits on his throne, to the oldest son of his lowliest servant girl who grinds the flour. Even the firstborn of all the livestock will die. <sup>6</sup>Then a loud wail will rise throughout the land of Egypt, a wail like no one has heard before or will ever hear again. <sup>7</sup>But among the Israelites it will be so peaceful that not even a dog will bark. Then you will know that the LORD makes a distinction between the Egyptians and the Israelites. <sup>8</sup>All the officials of Egypt will run to me and fall to the ground before me. 'Please leave!' they will beg. 'Hurry! And take all your followers with you.' Only then will I go!" Then, burning with anger, Moses left Pharaoh.

<sup>9</sup>Now the LORD had told Moses earlier, “Pharaoh will not listen to you, but then I will do even more mighty miracles in the land of Egypt.” <sup>10</sup>Moses and Aaron performed these miracles in Pharaoh’s presence, but the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he wouldn’t let the Israelites leave the country.

The First Passover

<sup>1</sup> While the Israelites were still in the land of Egypt, the LORD gave the following instructions to Moses and Aaron: <sup>2</sup>“From now on, this month will be the first month of the year for you. <sup>3</sup> Announce to the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each family must choose a lamb or a young goat for a sacrifice, one animal for each household. <sup>4</sup> If a family is too small to eat a whole animal, let them share with another family in the neighborhood. Divide the animal according to the size of each family and how much they can eat. <sup>5</sup> The animal you select must be a one-year-old male, either a sheep or a goat, with no defects.

<sup>6</sup>“Take special care of this chosen animal until the evening of the fourteenth day of this first month. Then the whole assembly of the community of Israel must slaughter their lamb or young goat at twilight. <sup>7</sup> They are to take some of the blood and smear it on the sides and top of the doorframes of the houses where they eat the animal. <sup>8</sup> That same night they must roast the meat over a fire and eat it along with bitter salad greens and bread made without yeast. <sup>9</sup> Do not eat any of the meat raw or boiled in water. The whole animal—including the head, legs, and internal organs—must be roasted over a fire. <sup>10</sup> Do not leave any of it until the next morning. Burn whatever is not eaten before morning.

<sup>11</sup>“These are your instructions for eating this meal: Be fully dressed,* wear your sandals, and carry your walking stick in your hand. Eat the meal with urgency, for this is the LORD’s Passover. <sup>12</sup>On that night I will pass through the land of Egypt and strike down every firstborn son and firstborn male animal in the land of Egypt. I will execute judgment against all the gods of Egypt, for I am the LORD! <sup>13</sup>But the blood on your doorposts will serve as a sign, marking the houses where you are staying. When I see the blood, I will pass over you. This plague of death will not touch you when I strike the land of Egypt.

<sup>14</sup>“This is a day to remember. Each year, from generation to generation, you must celebrate it as a special festival to the LORD. This is a law for all time. <sup>15</sup>For seven days the bread you eat must be made without yeast. On the first day of the festival, remove every trace of yeast from your homes. Anyone who eats bread made with yeast during the seven days of the festival will be cut off from the community of Israel. <sup>16</sup>On the first day of the festival and again on the seventh day, all the people must observe an official day for holy assembly. No work of any kind may be done on these days except in the preparation of food.

<sup>17</sup>“Celebrate this Festival of Unleavened Bread, for it will remind you that I brought your forces out of the land of Egypt on this very day. This festival will be a permanent law for you; celebrate this day from generation to generation. <sup>18</sup>The bread you eat must be made without yeast from the evening of the fourteenth day of the first month until the evening of the twenty-first day of that month.<sup>19</sup> During those seven days, there must be no trace of yeast in your homes. Anyone who eats anything made with yeast during this week will be cut off from the community of Israel. These regulations apply both to the foreigners living among you and to the native-born Israelites.<sup>20</sup> During those days you must not eat anything made with yeast. Wherever you live, eat only bread made without yeast.”

<sup>21</sup> Then Moses called all the elders of Israel together and said to them, “Go, pick out a lamb or young goat for each of your families, and slaughter the Passover animal.<sup>22</sup> Drain the blood into a basin. Then take a bundle of hyssop branches and dip it into the blood. Brush the hyssop across the top and sides of the doorframes of your houses. And no one may go out through the door until morning.<sup>23</sup> For the LORD will pass through the land to strike down the Egyptians. But when he sees the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe, the LORD will pass over your home. He will not permit his death angel to enter your house and strike you down.

<sup>24</sup> “Remember, these instructions are a permanent law that you and your descendants must observe forever.<sup>25</sup> When you enter the land the LORD has promised to give you, you will continue to observe this ceremony.<sup>26</sup> Then your children will ask, ‘What does this ceremony mean?’<sup>27</sup> And you will reply, ‘It is the Passover sacrifice to the LORD, for he passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt. And though he struck the Egyptians, he spared our families.’” When Moses had finished speaking, all the people bowed down to the ground and worshiped.

<sup>28</sup> So the people of Israel did just as the LORD had commanded through Moses and Aaron. <sup>29</sup> And that night at midnight, the LORD struck down all the firstborn sons in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn son of Pharaoh, who sat on his throne, to the firstborn son of the prisoner in the dungeon. Even the firstborn of their livestock were killed. <sup>30</sup> Pharaoh and all his officials and all the people of Egypt woke up during the night, and loud wailing was heard throughout the land of Egypt. There was not a single house where someone had not died.

Israel's Exodus from Egypt

<sup>31</sup> Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron during the night. “Get out!” he ordered. “Leave my people—and take the rest of the Israelites with you! Go and worship the LORD as you have requested. <sup>32</sup> Take your flocks and herds, as you said, and be gone. Go, but bless me as you leave.” <sup>33</sup> All the Egyptians urged the people of Israel to get out of the land as quickly as possible, for they thought, “We will all die!”

<sup>34</sup> The Israelites took their bread dough before yeast was added. They wrapped their kneading boards in their cloaks and carried them on their shoulders. <sup>35</sup> And the people of Israel did as Moses had instructed; they asked the Egyptians for clothing and articles of silver and gold. <sup>36</sup> The LORD caused the Egyptians to look favorably on the Israelites, and they gave the Israelites whatever they asked for. So they stripped the Egyptians of their wealth!

Succoth. There were about 600,000 men,* plus all the women and children.<sup>38</sup> A rabble of non-Israelites went with them, along with great flocks and herds of livestock.<sup>39</sup> For bread they baked flat cakes from the dough without yeast they had brought from Egypt. It was made without yeast because the people were driven out of Egypt in such a hurry that they had no time to prepare the bread or other food.

Instructions for the Passover

<sup>43</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "These are the instructions for the festival of Passover. No outsiders are allowed to eat the Passover meal.<sup>44</sup> But any slave who has been purchased may eat it if he has been circumcised.<sup>45</sup> Temporary residents and hired servants may not eat it.<sup>46</sup> Each Passover lamb must be eaten in one house. Do not carry any of its meat outside, and do not break any of its bones.<sup>47</sup> The whole community of Israel must celebrate this Passover festival.

<sup>48</sup>"If there are foreigners living among you who want to celebrate the LORD's Passover, let all their males be circumcised. Only then may they celebrate the Passover with you like any native-born Israelite. But no uncircumcised male may ever eat the Passover meal.<sup>49</sup> This instruction applies to everyone, whether a native-born Israelite or a foreigner living among you.”

<sup>50</sup>So all the people of Israel followed all the LORD’s commands to Moses and Aaron. <sup>51</sup>On that very day the LORD brought the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt like an army.

Exodus 13

Dedication of the Firstborn

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Dedicate to me every firstborn among the Israelites. The first offspring to be born, of both humans and animals, belongs to me.”

<sup>3</sup>So Moses said to the people, “This is a day to remember forever—the day you left Egypt, the place of your slavery. Today the LORD has brought you out by the power of his mighty hand. (Remember, eat no food containing yeast.) <sup>4</sup>On this day in early spring, in the month of Abib, * you have been set free. <sup>5</sup>You must celebrate this event in this month each year after the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Hivites, and Jebusites. (He swore to your ancestors that he would give you this land—a land flowing with milk and honey.) <sup>6</sup>For seven days the bread you eat must be made without yeast. Then on the seventh day, celebrate a feast to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>Eat bread without yeast during those seven days. In fact, there must be no yeast bread or any yeast at all found within the borders of your land during this time.

<sup>8</sup>“On the seventh day you must explain to your children, ‘I am celebrating what the LORD did for me when I left Egypt.’

<sup>9</sup>This annual festival will be a visible sign to you, like a mark branded on your hand or your forehead. Let it remind you always to recite this teaching of the LORD: ‘With a strong hand, the LORD rescued you from Egypt.’ * <sup>10</sup>So observe the decree of this festival at the appointed time each year.

<sup>11</sup>“This is what you must do when the LORD fulfills the promise he swore to you and to your ancestors. When he gives you the land where the Canaanites now live, <sup>12</sup>you must present all firstborn sons and firstborn male animals to the LORD, for they belong to him. <sup>13</sup>A firstborn donkey may be bought back from the LORD by presenting a lamb or young goat in its place. But if you do not buy it back, you must break its neck. However, you must buy back every firstborn son.

<sup>14</sup>“And in the future, your children will ask you, ‘What does all this mean?’ Then you will tell them, ‘With the power of his mighty hand, the LORD brought us out of Egypt, the place of our slavery. <sup>15</sup>Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, so the LORD killed all the firstborn males throughout the land of Egypt, both people and animals. That is why I now sacrifice all the firstborn males to the LORD—except that the firstborn sons are always bought back.’ <sup>16</sup>This ceremony will be like a mark branded on your hand or your forehead. It is a reminder that the power of the LORD’s mighty hand brought us out of Egypt.”

Israel's Wilderness Detour

<sup>17</sup> When Pharaoh finally let the people go, God did not lead them along the main road that runs through Philistine territory, even though that was the shortest route to the Promised Land. God said, “If the people are faced with a battle, they might change their minds and return to Egypt.” <sup>18</sup>So God led them in a roundabout way through the wilderness toward the Red Sea.*

<sup>19</sup> Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for Joseph had made the sons of Israel swear to do this. He said, “God will certainly come to help you. When he does, you must take my bones with you from this place.”

Exodus 14

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD gave these instructions to Moses: <sup>2</sup>“Order the Israelites to turn back and camp by Pi-hahiroth between Migdol and the sea. Camp there along the shore, across from Baal-zephon. <sup>3</sup>Then Pharaoh will think, ‘The Israelites are confused. They are trapped in the wilderness!’ <sup>4</sup>And once again I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and he will chase after you.* I have planned this in order to display my glory through Pharaoh and his whole army. After this the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD!” So the Israelites camped there as they were told.

The Egyptians Pursue Israel

<sup>5</sup> When word reached the king of Egypt that the Israelites had fled, Pharaoh and his officials changed their minds. “What have we done, letting all those Israelite slaves get away?” they asked. <sup>6</sup>So Pharaoh harnessed his chariot and called up his troops. <sup>7</sup>He took with him 600 of Egypt’s best chariots, along with the rest of the chariots of Egypt, each with its commander. <sup>8</sup>The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, so he chased after the people of Israel, who had left with fists raised in defiance. <sup>9</sup>The Egyptians chased after them with all the forces in Pharaoh’s army—all his horses and chariots, his charioteers, and his troops. The Egyptians caught up with the people of Israel as they were camped beside the shore near Pi-hahiroth, across from Baal-zephon.

<sup>10</sup>As Pharaoh approached, the people of Israel looked up and panicked when they saw the Egyptians overtaking them. They cried out to the LORD, <sup>11</sup>and they said to Moses, “Why did you bring us out here to die in the wilderness? Weren’t there enough graves for us in Egypt? What have you done to us? Why did you make us leave Egypt? <sup>12</sup>Didn’t we tell you this would happen while we were still in Egypt? We said, ‘Leave us alone! Let us be slaves to the Egyptians. It’s better to be a slave in Egypt than a corpse in the wilderness!’”

<sup>13</sup>But Moses told the people, “Don’t be afraid. Just stand still and watch the LORD rescue you today. The Egyptians you see today will never be seen again. <sup>14</sup>The LORD himself will fight for you. Just stay calm.”

Escape through the Red Sea

<sup>15</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Why are you crying out to me? Tell the people to get moving! <sup>16</sup>Pick up your staff and raise your hand over the sea. Divide the water so the Israelites can walk through the middle of the sea on dry ground. <sup>17</sup>And I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they will charge in after the Israelites. My great glory will be displayed through Pharaoh and his troops, his chariots, and his charioteers. <sup>18</sup>When my glory is displayed through them, all Egypt will see my glory and know that I am the LORD!”

<sup>19</sup>Then the angel of God, who had been leading the people of Israel, moved to the rear of the camp. The pillar of cloud also moved from the front and stood behind them. <sup>20</sup>The cloud settled between the Egyptian and Israelite camps. As darkness fell, the cloud turned to fire, lighting up the night. But the Egyptians and Israelites did not approach each other all night.

<sup>21</sup>Then Moses raised his hand over the sea, and the LORD opened up a path through the water with a strong east wind. The wind blew all that night, turning the seabed into dry land.

<sup>22</sup>So the people of Israel walked through the middle of the sea on dry ground, with walls of water on each side!

<sup>26</sup>When all the Israelites had reached the other side, the LORD said to Moses, "Raise your hand over the sea again. Then the waters will rush back and cover the Egyptians and their chariots and charioteers." <sup>27</sup>So as the sun began to rise, Moses raised his hand over the sea, and the water rushed back into its usual place. The Egyptians tried to escape, but the LORD swept them into the sea. <sup>28</sup>Then the waters returned and covered all the chariots and charioteers—the entire army of Pharaoh. Of all the Egyptians who had chased the Israelites into the sea, not a single one survived.

<sup>29</sup>But the people of Israel had walked through the middle of the sea on dry ground, as the water stood up like a wall on both sides. <sup>30</sup>That is how the LORD rescued Israel from the hand of the Egyptians that day. And the Israelites saw the bodies of the Egyptians washed up on the seashore.<sup>31</sup> When the people of Israel saw the mighty power that the LORD had unleashed against the Egyptians, they were filled with awe before him. They put their faith in the LORD and in his servant Moses.

Exodus 15

A Song of Deliverance

<sup>1</sup> Then Moses and the people of Israel sang this song to the LORD:

“I will sing to the LORD,
for he has triumphed gloriously;
he has hurled both horse and rider into the sea.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD is my strength and my song;
he has given me victory.

This is my God, and I will praise him—my father’s God, and I will exalt him!

<sup>3</sup>The LORD is a warrior;
Yahweh* is his name!

<sup>4</sup>Pharaoh’s chariots and army
he has hurled into the sea.
The finest of Pharaoh’s officers are drowned in the Red Sea.*

<sup>5</sup>The deep waters gushed over them;
they sank to the bottom like a stone.

is glorious in power.
Your right hand, O LORD, smashes the enemy.

<sup>7</sup>In the greatness of your majesty, you overthrow those who rise against you.
You unleash your blazing fury;
it consumes them like straw.
<sup>8</sup>At the blast of your breath,
the waters piled up!
The surging waters stood straight like a wall;
in the heart of the sea the deep waters became hard.

<sup>9</sup>“The enemy boasted, ‘I will chase them and catch up with them.
I will plunder them and consume them.
I will flash my sword;
my powerful hand will destroy them.’
<sup>10</sup>But you blew with your breath, and the sea covered them.
They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

<sup>11</sup>“Who is like you among the gods, O LORD—glorious in holiness, awesome in splendor, performing great wonders?

<sup>12</sup>You raised your right hand, and the earth swallowed our enemies.

<sup>13</sup>“With your unfailing love you lead
the people you have redeemed.

In your might, you guide them to your sacred home.

<sup>14</sup>The peoples hear and tremble;
anguish grips those who live in Philistia.

<sup>15</sup>The leaders of Edom are terrified;
the nobles of Moab tremble.

All who live in Canaan melt away;

<sup>16</sup>terror and dread fall upon them.

The power of your arm makes them lifeless as stone until your people pass by, O LORD, until the people you purchased pass by.

<sup>17</sup>You will bring them in and plant them on your own mountain—

the place, O LORD, reserved for your own dwelling, the sanctuary, O Lord, that your hands have established.

<sup>18</sup>The LORD will reign forever and ever!”

into the sea, the LORD brought the water crashing down on them. But the people of Israel had walked through the middle of the sea on dry ground!

and led all the women as they played their tambourines and danced. <sup>21</sup>And Miriam sang this song:

“Sing to the LORD,
for he has triumphed gloriously;

he has hurled both horse and rider into the sea.”

Bitter Water at Marah

<sup>22</sup>Then Moses led the people of Israel away from the Red Sea, and they moved out into the desert of Shur. They traveled in this desert for three days without finding any water. <sup>23</sup>When they came to the oasis of Marah, the water was too bitter to drink. So they called the place Marah (which means “bitter”).

<sup>24</sup>Then the people complained and turned against Moses. “What are we going to drink?” they demanded. <sup>25</sup>So Moses cried out to the LORD for help, and the LORD showed him a piece of wood. Moses threw it into the water, and this made the water good to drink.

It was there at Marah that the LORD set before them the following decree as a standard to test their faithfulness to him. <sup>26</sup>He said, “If you will listen carefully to the voice of the LORD your God and do what is right in his sight, obeying his commands and keeping all his decrees, then I will not make you suffer any of the diseases I sent on the Egyptians; for I am the LORD who heals you.”

Exodus 16

Manna and Quail from Heaven

<sup>1</sup> Then the whole community of Israel set out from Elim and journeyed into the wilderness of Sin,* between Elim and Mount Sinai. They arrived there on the fifteenth day of the second month, one month after leaving the land of Egypt.*

<sup>3</sup> “If only the LORD had killed us back in Egypt,” they moaned. “There we sat around pots filled with meat and ate all the bread we wanted. But now you have brought us into this wilderness to starve us all to death.”

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Look, I’m going to rain down food from heaven for you. Each day the people can go out and pick up as much food as they need for that day. I will test them in this to see whether or not they will follow my instructions.

<sup>5</sup> On the sixth day they will gather food, and when they prepare it, there will be twice as much as usual.”

<sup>6</sup> So Moses and Aaron said to all the people of Israel, “By evening you will realize it was the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>In the morning you will see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your complaints, which are against him, not against us. What have we done that you should complain about us?” <sup>8</sup> Then Moses added, “The LORD will give you meat to eat in the evening and bread to satisfy you in the morning, for he has heard all your complaints against him. What have we done? Yes, your complaints are against the LORD, not against us.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, “Announce this to the entire community of Israel: ‘Present yourselves before the LORD, for he has heard your complaining.’” <sup>10</sup>And as Aaron spoke to the whole community of Israel, they looked out toward the wilderness. There they could see the awesome glory of the LORD in the cloud.

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>12</sup>“I have heard the Israelites’ complaints. Now tell them, ‘In the evening you will have meat to eat, and in the morning you will have all the bread you want. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.’”

<sup>13</sup>That evening vast numbers of quail flew in and covered the camp. And the next morning the area around the camp was wet with dew. <sup>14</sup>When the dew evaporated, a flaky substance as fine as frost blanketed the ground. <sup>15</sup>The Israelites were puzzled when they saw it. “What is it?” they asked each other. They had no idea what it was.

And Moses told them, “It is the food the LORD has given you to eat. <sup>16</sup>These are the LORD’s instructions: Each household should gather as much as it needs. Pick up two quarts* for each person in your tent.”

<sup>17</sup>So the people of Israel did as they were told. Some gathered a lot, some only a little. <sup>18</sup>But when they measured it out,* everyone had just enough. Those who gathered a lot had nothing left over, and those who gathered only a little had enough. Each family had just what it needed.

<sup>19</sup>Then Moses told them, “Do not keep any of it until morning.” <sup>20</sup>But some of them didn’t listen and kept some of it until morning. But by then it was full of maggots and had a terrible smell. Moses was very angry with them.

<sup>21</sup>After this the people gathered the food morning by morning, each family according to its need. And as the sun became hot, the flakes they had not picked up melted and disappeared. <sup>22</sup>On the sixth day, they gathered twice as much as usual—four quarts* for each person instead of two. Then all the leaders of the community came and asked Moses for an explanation. <sup>23</sup>He told them, “This is what the LORD commanded: Tomorrow will be a day of complete rest, a holy Sabbath day set apart for the LORD. So bake or boil as much as you want today, and set aside what is left for tomorrow.”

<sup>24</sup>So they put some aside until morning, just as Moses had commanded. And in the morning the leftover food was wholesome and good, without maggots or odor. <sup>25</sup>Moses said, “Eat this food today, for today is a Sabbath day dedicated to the LORD. There will be no food on the ground today. <sup>26</sup>You may gather the food for six days, but the seventh day is the Sabbath. There will be no food on the ground that day.”

<sup>27</sup>Some of the people went out anyway on the seventh day, but they found no food. <sup>28</sup>The LORD asked Moses, “How long will these people refuse to obey my commands and instructions? <sup>29</sup>They must realize that the Sabbath is the LORD’s gift to you. That is why he gives you a two-day supply on the sixth day, so there will be enough for two days. On the Sabbath day you must each stay in your place. Do not go out to pick up food on the seventh day.” <sup>30</sup>So the people did not gather any food on the seventh day.

<sup>32</sup>Then Moses said, “This is what the LORD has commanded: Fill a two-quart container with manna to preserve it for your descendants. Then later generations will be able to see the food I gave you in the wilderness when I set you free from Egypt.”

<sup>33</sup>Moses said to Aaron, “Get a jar and fill it with two quarts of manna. Then put it in a sacred place before the LORD to preserve it for all future generations.” <sup>34</sup>Aaron did just as the LORD had commanded Moses. He eventually placed it in the Ark of the Covenant—in front of the stone tablets inscribed with the terms of the covenant.* <sup>35</sup>So the people of Israel ate manna for forty years until they arrived at the land where they would settle. They ate manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

Water from the Rock

<sup>1</sup>At the LORD's command, the whole community of Israel left the wilderness of Sin* and moved from place to place. Eventually they camped at Rephidim, but there was no water there for the people to drink.<sup>2</sup>So once more the people complained against Moses. "Give us water to drink!" they demanded.

"Quiet!" Moses replied. "Why are you complaining against me? And why are you testing the LORD?"

<sup>3</sup>But tormented by thirst, they continued to argue with Moses. "Why did you bring us out of Egypt? Are you trying to kill us, our children, and our livestock with thirst?"

<sup>4</sup>Then Moses cried out to the LORD, "What should I do with these people? They are ready to stone me!"

<sup>5</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Walk out in front of the people. Take your staff, the one you used when you struck the water of the Nile, and call some of the elders of Israel to join you. <sup>6</sup>I will stand before you on the rock at Mount Sinai.* Strike the rock, and water will come gushing out. Then the people will be able to drink." So Moses struck the rock as he was told, and water gushed out as the elders looked on.

<sup>7</sup>Moses named the place Massah (which means "test") and Meribah (which means "arguing") because the people of Israel argued with Moses and tested the LORD by saying, "Is the LORD here with us or not?"

Israel Defeats the Amalekites

<sup>8</sup> While the people of Israel were still at Rephidim, the warriors of Amalek attacked them. <sup>9</sup> Moses commanded Joshua, “Choose some men to go out and fight the army of Amalek for us. Tomorrow, I will stand at the top of the hill, holding the staff of God in my hand.”

<sup>10</sup> So Joshua did what Moses had commanded and fought the army of Amalek. Meanwhile, Moses, Aaron, and Hur climbed to the top of a nearby hill. <sup>11</sup> As long as Moses held up the staff in his hand, the Israelites had the advantage. But whenever he dropped his hand, the Amalekites gained the advantage. <sup>12</sup> Moses’ arms soon became so tired he could no longer hold them up. So Aaron and Hur found a stone for him to sit on. Then they stood on each side of Moses, holding up his hands. So his hands held steady until sunset. <sup>13</sup> As a result, Joshua overwhelmed the army of Amalek in battle.

<sup>14</sup> After the victory, the LORD instructed Moses, “Write this down on a scroll as a permanent reminder, and read it aloud to Joshua: I will erase the memory of Amalek from under heaven.”

<sup>15</sup> Moses built an altar there and named it Yahweh-Nissi (which means “the LORD is my banner”). <sup>16</sup> He said, “They have raised their fist against the LORD’s throne, so now * the LORD will be at war with Amalek generation after generation.”

Exodus 18

Jethro's Visit to Moses

<sup>1</sup>Moses' father-in-law, Jethro, the priest of Midian, heard about everything God had done for Moses and his people, the Israelites. He heard especially about how the LORD had rescued them from Egypt.

<sup>2</sup>Earlier, Moses had sent his wife, Zipporah, and his two sons back to Jethro, who had taken them in. <sup>3</sup>(Moses' first son was named Gershom,* for Moses had said when the boy was born, "I have been a foreigner in a foreign land.") <sup>4</sup>His second son was named Eliezer,* for Moses had said, "The God of my ancestors was my helper; he rescued me from the sword of Pharaoh.") <sup>5</sup>Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, now came to visit Moses in the wilderness. He brought Moses' wife and two sons with him, and they arrived while Moses and the people were camped near the mountain of God. <sup>6</sup>Jethro had sent a message to Moses, saying, "I, Jethro, your father-in-law, am coming to see you with your wife and your two sons."

<sup>7</sup>So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law. He bowed low and kissed him. They asked about each other's welfare and then went into Moses' tent. <sup>8</sup>Moses told his father-in-law everything the LORD had done to Pharaoh and Egypt on behalf of Israel. He also told about all the hardships they had experienced along the way and how the LORD had rescued his people from all their troubles. <sup>9</sup>Jethro was delighted when he heard about all the good things the LORD had done for Israel as he rescued them from the hand of the Egyptians.

<sup>10</sup>“Praise the LORD,” Jethro said, “for he has rescued you from the Egyptians and from Pharaoh. Yes, he has rescued Israel from the powerful hand of Egypt! <sup>11</sup>I know now that the LORD is greater than all other gods, because he rescued his people from the oppression of the proud Egyptians.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and sacrifices to God. Aaron and all the elders of Israel came out and joined him in a sacrificial meal in God’s presence.

Jethro’s Wise Advice

<sup>13</sup> The next day, Moses took his seat to hear the people’s disputes against each other. They waited before him from morning till evening.

<sup>14</sup>When Moses’ father-in-law saw all that Moses was doing for the people, he asked, “What are you really accomplishing here? Why are you trying to do all this alone while everyone stands around you from morning till evening?”

<sup>15</sup>Moses replied, “Because the people come to me to get a ruling from God. <sup>16</sup>When a dispute arises, they come to me, and I am the one who settles the case between the quarreling parties. I inform the people of God’s decrees and give them his instructions.”

<sup>17</sup>“This is not good!” Moses’ father-in-law exclaimed. <sup>18</sup>“You’re going to wear yourself out—and the people, too. This job is too heavy a burden for you to handle all by yourself. <sup>19</sup>Now listen to me, and let me give you a word of advice, and may God be with you. You should continue to be the people's representative before God, bringing their disputes to him.<sup>20</sup> Teach them God's decrees, and give them his instructions. Show them how to conduct their lives.<sup>21</sup> But select from all the people some capable, honest men who fear God and hate bribes. Appoint them as leaders over groups of one thousand, one hundred, fifty, and ten.<sup>22</sup> They should always be available to solve the people's common disputes, but have them bring the major cases to you. Let the leaders decide the smaller matters themselves. They will help you carry the load, making the task easier for you.<sup>23</sup> If you follow this advice, and if God commands you to do so, then you will be able to endure the pressures, and all these people will go home in peace."

<sup>24</sup>Moses listened to his father-in-law's advice and followed his suggestions.<sup>25</sup> He chose capable men from all over Israel and appointed them as leaders over the people. He put them in charge of groups of one thousand, one hundred, fifty, and ten.<sup>26</sup> These men were always available to solve the people's common disputes. They brought the major cases to Moses, but they took care of the smaller matters themselves.

What the Bible Says about

In-laws

<sup>27</sup>Soon after this, Moses said good-bye to his father-in-law, who returned to his own land.

Exodus 19

The LORD Reveals Himself at Sinai

<sup>3</sup>Then Moses climbed the mountain to appear before God. The LORD called to him from the mountain and said, “Give these instructions to the family of Jacob; announce it to the descendants of Israel: <sup>4</sup>‘You have seen what I did to the Egyptians. You know how I carried you on eagles’ wings and brought you to myself. <sup>5</sup>Now if you will obey me and keep my covenant, you will be my own special treasure from among all the peoples on earth; for all the earth belongs to me. <sup>6</sup>And you will be my kingdom of priests, my holy nation.’ This is the message you must give to the people of Israel.”

<sup>7</sup>So Moses returned from the mountain and called together the elders of the people and told them everything the LORD had commanded him. <sup>8</sup>And all the people responded together, “We will do everything the LORD has commanded.” So Moses brought the people’s answer back to the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “I will come to you in a thick cloud, Moses, so the people themselves can hear me when I speak with you. Then they will always trust you.”

Moses told the LORD what the people had said. <sup>10</sup>Then the LORD told Moses, “Go down and prepare the people for my arrival. Consecrate them today and tomorrow, and have them wash their clothing. <sup>11</sup>Be sure they are ready on the third day, for on that day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai as all the people watch. <sup>12</sup>Mark off a boundary all around the mountain. Warn the people, ‘Be careful! Do not go up on the mountain or even touch its boundaries. Anyone who touches the mountain will certainly be put to death. <sup>13</sup>No hand may touch the person or animal that crosses the boundary; instead, stone them or shoot them with arrows. They must be put to death.’ However, when the ram’s horn sounds a long blast, then the people may go up on the mountain.*”

<sup>14</sup>So Moses went down to the people. He consecrated them for worship, and they washed their clothes. <sup>15</sup>He told them, “Get ready for the third day, and until then abstain from having sexual intercourse.”

<sup>16</sup>On the morning of the third day, thunder roared and lightning flashed, and a dense cloud came down on the mountain. There was a long, loud blast from a ram’s horn, and all the people trembled. <sup>17</sup>Moses led them out from the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain. <sup>18</sup>All of Mount Sinai was covered with smoke because the LORD had descended on it in the form of fire. The smoke billowed into the sky like smoke from a brick kiln, and the whole mountain shook violently. <sup>19</sup>As the blast of the ram’s horn grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God thundered his reply. <sup>20</sup>The LORD came down on the top of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the top of the mountain. So Moses climbed the mountain.

<sup>21</sup>Then the LORD told Moses, “Go back down and warn the people not to break through the boundaries to see the LORD, or they will die. <sup>22</sup>Even the priests who regularly come near to the LORD must purify themselves so that the LORD does not break out and destroy them.”

<sup>23</sup>“But LORD,” Moses protested, “the people cannot come up to Mount Sinai. You already warned us. You told me, ‘Mark off a boundary all around the mountain to set it apart as holy.’”

<sup>24</sup>But the LORD said, “Go down and bring Aaron back up with you. In the meantime, do not let the priests or the people break through to approach the LORD, or he will break out and destroy them.”

<sup>25</sup>So Moses went down to the people and told them what the LORD had said.

Exodus 20

Ten Commandments for the Covenant Community

<sup>4</sup>“You must not make for yourself an idol of any kind or an image of anything in the heavens or on the earth or in the sea.

<sup>5</sup>You must not bow down to them or worship them, for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God who will not tolerate your affection for any other gods. I lay the sins of the parents upon their children; the entire family is affected—even children in the third and fourth generations of those who reject me. <sup>6</sup>But I lavish unfailing love for a thousand generations on those* who love me and obey my commands.

<sup>7</sup>“You must not misuse the name of the LORD your God. The LORD will not let you go unpunished if you misuse his name.

<sup>9</sup>You have six days each week for your ordinary work, <sup>10</sup>but the seventh day is a Sabbath day of rest dedicated to the LORD your God. On that day no one in your household may do any work. This includes you, your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, your livestock, and any foreigners living among you. <sup>11</sup>For in six days the LORD made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and everything in them; but on the seventh day he rested. That is why the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and set it apart as holy.

<sup>12</sup>“Honor your father and mother. Then you will live a long, full life in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>17</sup>“You must not covet your neighbor’s house. You must not covet your neighbor’s wife, male or female servant, ox or donkey, or anything else that belongs to your neighbor.”

God’s Top Ten Laws for Living

<sup>18</sup> When the people heard the thunder and the loud blast of the ram’s horn, and when they saw the flashes of lightning and the smoke billowing from the mountain, they stood at a distance, trembling with fear.

<sup>19</sup>And they said to Moses, “You speak to us, and we will listen. But don’t let God speak directly to us, or we will die!”

<sup>20</sup>“Don’t be afraid,” Moses answered them, “for God has come in this way to test you, and so that your fear of him will keep you from sinning!”

<sup>21</sup>As the people stood in the distance, Moses approached the dark cloud where God was.

Proper Use of Altars

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “Say this to the people of Israel: You saw for yourselves that I spoke to you from heaven.

<sup>23</sup>Remember, you must not make any idols of silver or gold to rival me.

<sup>24</sup>“Build for me an altar made of earth, and offer your sacrifices to me—your burnt offerings and peace offerings, your sheep and goats, and your cattle. Build my altar wherever I cause my name to be remembered, and I will come to you and bless you. <sup>25</sup>If you use stones to build my altar, use only natural, uncut stones. Do not shape the stones with a tool, for that would make the altar unfit for holy use. <sup>26</sup>And do not approach my altar by going up steps. If you do, someone might look up under your clothing and see your nakedness.

Exodus 21

Fair Treatment of Slaves

<sup>2</sup>“If you buy a Hebrew slave, he may serve for no more than six years. Set him free in the seventh year, and he will owe you nothing for his freedom. <sup>3</sup>If he was single when he became your slave, he shall leave single. But if he was married before he became a slave, then his wife must be freed with him.

<sup>4</sup>“If his master gave him a wife while he was a slave and they had sons or daughters, then only the man will be free in the seventh year, but his wife and children will still belong to his master. <sup>5</sup>But the slave may declare, ‘I love my master, my wife, and my children. I don’t want to go free.’ <sup>6</sup>If he does this, his master must present him before God. * Then his master must take him to the door or doorpost and publicly pierce his ear with an awl. After that, the slave will serve his master for life.

<sup>7</sup>“When a man sells his daughter as a slave, she will not be freed at the end of six years as the men are. <sup>8</sup>If she does not satisfy her owner, he must allow her to be bought back again. But he is not allowed to sell her to foreigners, since he is the one who broke the contract with her. <sup>9</sup>But if the slave’s owner arranges for her to marry his son, he may no longer treat her as a slave but as a daughter.

<sup>10</sup>“If a man who has married a slave wife takes another wife for himself, he must not neglect the rights of the first wife to food, clothing, and sexual intimacy. <sup>11</sup>If he fails in any of these three obligations, she may leave as a free woman without making any payment.

Cases of Personal Injury

<sup>12</sup>“Anyone who assaults and kills another person must be put to death. <sup>13</sup>But if it was simply an accident permitted by God, I will appoint a place of refuge where the slayer can run for safety. <sup>14</sup>However, if someone deliberately kills another person, then the slayer must be dragged even from my altar and be put to death.

<sup>18</sup>“Now suppose two men quarrel, and one hits the other with a stone or fist, and the injured person does not die but is confined to bed. <sup>19</sup>If he is later able to walk outside again, even with a crutch, the assailant will not be punished but must compensate his victim for lost wages and provide for his full recovery.

<sup>20</sup>“If a man beats his male or female slave with a club and the slave dies as a result, the owner must be punished. <sup>21</sup>But if the slave recovers within a day or two, then the owner shall not be punished, since the slave is his property.

they accidentally strike a pregnant woman so she gives birth prematurely.* If no further injury results, the man who struck the woman must pay the amount of compensation the woman's husband demands and the judges approve.<sup>23</sup> But if there is further injury, the punishment must match the injury: a life for a life,<sup>24</sup> an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot,<sup>25</sup> a burn for a burn, a wound for a wound, a bruise for a bruise.

<sup>26</sup>“If a man hits his male or female slave in the eye and the eye is blinded, he must let the slave go free to compensate for the eye.<sup>27</sup> And if a man knocks out the tooth of his male or female slave, he must let the slave go free to compensate for the tooth.

<sup>28</sup>“If an ox* gores a man or woman to death, the ox must be stoned, and its flesh may not be eaten. In such a case, however, the owner will not be held liable.<sup>29</sup> But suppose the ox had a reputation for goring, and the owner had been informed but failed to keep it under control. If the ox then kills someone, it must be stoned, and the owner must also be put to death.<sup>30</sup> However, the dead person's relatives may accept payment to compensate for the loss of life. The owner of the ox may redeem his life by paying whatever is demanded.

<sup>31</sup>“The same regulation applies if the ox gores a boy or a girl.<sup>32</sup> But if the ox gores a slave, either male or female, the animal's owner must pay the slave's owner thirty silver coins,* and the ox must be stoned.

<sup>33</sup>“Suppose someone digs or uncovers a pit and fails to cover it, and then an ox or a donkey falls into it.<sup>34</sup> The owner of the pit must pay full compensation to the owner of the animal, but then he gets to keep the dead animal.

<sup>35</sup>“If someone’s ox injures a neighbor’s ox and the injured ox dies, then the two owners must sell the live ox and divide the price equally between them. They must also divide the dead animal. <sup>36</sup>But if the ox had a reputation for goring, yet its owner failed to keep it under control, he must pay full compensation—a live ox for the dead one—but he may keep the dead ox.

Exodus 22

Protection of Property

<sup>1</sup>*“If someone steals an ox* or sheep and then kills or sells it, the thief must pay back five oxen for each ox stolen, and four sheep for each sheep stolen.

<sup>2</sup>*“If a thief is caught in the act of breaking into a house and is struck and killed in the process, the person who killed the thief is not guilty of murder. <sup>3</sup>But if it happens in daylight, the one who killed the thief is guilty of murder.

“A thief who is caught must pay in full for everything he stole. If he cannot pay, he must be sold as a slave to pay for his theft. <sup>4</sup>If someone steals an ox or a donkey or a sheep and it is found in the thief’s possession, then the thief must pay double the value of the stolen animal.

<sup>5</sup>“If an animal is grazing in a field or vineyard and the owner lets it stray into someone else’s field to graze, then the animal’s owner must pay compensation from the best of his own grain or grapes.

<sup>6</sup>“If you are burning thornbushes and the fire gets out of control and spreads into another person’s field, destroying the sheaves or the uncut grain or the whole crop, the one who started the fire must pay for the lost crop.

<sup>7</sup>“Suppose someone leaves money or goods with a neighbor for safekeeping, and they are stolen from the neighbor’s house. If the thief is caught, the compensation is double the value of what was stolen.<sup>8</sup> But if the thief is not caught, the neighbor must appear before God,* who will determine if he stole the property.

<sup>9</sup>“Suppose there is a dispute between two people who both claim to own a particular ox, donkey, sheep, article of clothing, or any lost property. Both parties must come before God, and the person whom God declares* guilty must pay double compensation to the other.

<sup>10</sup>“Now suppose someone leaves a donkey, ox, sheep, or any other animal with a neighbor for safekeeping, but it dies or is injured or gets away, and no one sees what happened. <sup>11</sup>The neighbor must then take an oath in the presence of the LORD. If the LORD confirms that the neighbor did not steal the property, the owner must accept the verdict, and no payment will be required. <sup>12</sup>But if the animal was indeed stolen, the guilty person must pay compensation to the owner. <sup>13</sup>If it was torn to pieces by a wild animal, the remains of the carcass must be shown as evidence, and no compensation will be required.

<sup>14</sup>“If someone borrows an animal from a neighbor and it is injured or dies when the owner is absent, the person who borrowed it must pay full compensation. <sup>15</sup>But if the owner was present, no compensation is required. And no compensation is required if the animal was rented, for this loss is covered by the rental fee.

Social Responsibility

<sup>16</sup>“If a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged to anyone and has sex with her, he must pay the customary bride price and marry her. <sup>17</sup>But if her father refuses to let him marry her, the man must still pay him an amount equal to the bride price of a virgin.

<sup>18</sup>“You must not allow a sorceress to live.

<sup>21</sup>“You must not mistreat or oppress foreigners in any way. Remember, you yourselves were once foreigners in the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup>“You must not exploit a widow or an orphan. <sup>23</sup>If you exploit them in any way and they cry out to me, then I will certainly hear their cry. <sup>24</sup>My anger will blaze against you, and I will kill you with the sword. Then your wives will be widows and your children fatherless.

<sup>25</sup>“If you lend money to any of my people who are in need, do not charge interest as a money lender would. <sup>26</sup>If you take your neighbor’s cloak as security for a loan, you must return it before sunset. <sup>27</sup>This coat may be the only blanket your neighbor has. How can a person sleep without it? If you do not return it and your neighbor cries out to me for help, then I will hear, for I am merciful.

<sup>29</sup>“You must not hold anything back when you give me offerings from your crops and your wine.

“You must give me your firstborn sons.

<sup>30</sup>“You must also give me the firstborn of your cattle, sheep, and goats. But leave the newborn animal with its mother for seven days; then give it to me on the eighth day.

<sup>31</sup>“You must be my holy people. Therefore, do not eat any animal that has been torn up and killed by wild animals. Throw it to the dogs.

Exodus 23

A Call for Justice

<sup>1</sup> “You must not pass along false rumors. You must not cooperate with evil people by lying on the witness stand.

<sup>2</sup>“You must not follow the crowd in doing wrong. When you are called to testify in a dispute, do not be swayed by the crowd to twist justice. <sup>3</sup>And do not slant your testimony in favor of a person just because that person is poor.

<sup>4</sup>“If you come upon your enemy’s ox or donkey that has strayed away, take it back to its owner. <sup>5</sup>If you see that the donkey of someone who hates you has collapsed under its load, do not walk by. Instead, stop and help.

<sup>7</sup>“Be sure never to charge anyone falsely with evil. Never sentence an innocent or blameless person to death, for I never declare a guilty person to be innocent.

<sup>8</sup>“Take no bribes, for a bribe makes you ignore something that you clearly see. A bribe makes even a righteous person twist the truth.

<sup>9</sup>“You must not oppress foreigners. You know what it’s like to be a foreigner, for you yourselves were once foreigners in the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> “Plant and harvest your crops for six years, <sup>11</sup>but let the land be renewed and lie uncultivated during the seventh year. Then let the poor among you harvest whatever grows on its own. Leave the rest for wild animals to eat. The same applies to your vineyards and olive groves.

<sup>12</sup>“You have six days each week for your ordinary work, but on the seventh day you must stop working. This gives your ox and your donkey a chance to rest. It also allows your slaves and the foreigners living among you to be refreshed.

<sup>13</sup>“Pay close attention to all my instructions. You must not call on the name of any other gods. Do not even speak their names.

Three Annual Festivals

<sup>14</sup>“Each year you must celebrate three festivals in my honor.

<sup>15</sup>First, celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread. For seven days the bread you eat must be made without yeast, just as I commanded you. Celebrate this festival annually at the appointed time in early spring, in the month of Abib,* for that is the anniversary of your departure from Egypt. No one may appear before me without an offering.

“Finally, celebrate the Festival of the Final Harvest* at the end of the harvest season, when you have harvested all the crops from your fields. <sup>17</sup>At these three times each year, every man in Israel must appear before the Sovereign, the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>“You must not offer the blood of my sacrificial offerings together with any baked goods containing yeast. And do not leave the fat from the festival offerings until the next morning.

<sup>19</sup>“As you harvest your crops, bring the very best of the first harvest to the house of the LORD your God.

“You must not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.

A Promise of the LORD’s Presence

<sup>20</sup> “See, I am sending an angel before you to protect you on your journey and lead you safely to the place I have prepared for you. <sup>21</sup>Pay close attention to him, and obey his instructions. Do not rebel against him, for he is my representative, and he will not forgive your rebellion. <sup>22</sup>But if you are careful to obey him, following all my instructions, then I will be an enemy to your enemies, and I will oppose those who oppose you. <sup>23</sup>For my angel will go before you and bring you into the land of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites, and Jebusites, so you may live there. And I will destroy them completely. <sup>24</sup>You must not worship the gods of these nations or serve them in any way or imitate their evil practices. Instead, you must utterly destroy them and smash their sacred pillars.

<sup>25</sup>“You must serve only the LORD your God. If you do, I* will bless you with food and water, and I will protect you from illness. <sup>26</sup>There will be no miscarriages or infertility in your land, and I will give you long, full lives.

<sup>27</sup>“I will send my terror ahead of you and create panic among all the people whose lands you invade. I will make all your enemies turn and run. <sup>28</sup>I will send terror* ahead of you to drive out the Hivites, Canaanites, and Hittites. <sup>29</sup>But I will not drive them out in a single year, because the land would become desolate and the wild animals would multiply and threaten you.

<sup>30</sup>I will drive them out a little at a time until your population has increased enough to take possession of the land.<sup>31</sup> And I will fix your boundaries from the Red Sea to the Mediterranean Sea,* and from the eastern wilderness to the Euphrates River.* I will hand over to you the people now living in the land, and you will drive them out ahead of you.

<sup>32</sup> “Make no treaties with them or their gods.<sup>33</sup> They must not live in your land, or they will cause you to sin against me. If you serve their gods, you will be caught in the trap of idolatry.”

Exodus 24

Israel Accepts the LORD's Covenant

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD instructed Moses: “Come up here to me, and bring along Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and seventy of Israel’s elders. All of you must worship from a distance. <sup>2</sup>Only Moses is allowed to come near to the LORD. The others must not come near, and none of the other people are allowed to climb up the mountain with him.”

<sup>3</sup>Then Moses went down to the people and repeated all the instructions and regulations the LORD had given him. All the people answered with one voice, “We will do everything the LORD has commanded.”

PERSPECTIVES

Then Moses went down to the people and repeated all the instructions and regulations the LORD had given him. All the people answered with one voice, “We will do everything the LORD has commanded.”

EXODUS 24:3

No man ever became great doing as he pleased. Little men do as they please—little nobodies. Great men submit themselves to the laws governing the realm of their greatness.

<sup>4</sup>Then Moses carefully wrote down all the LORD's instructions. Early the next morning Moses got up and built an altar at the foot of the mountain. He also set up twelve pillars, one for each of the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>5</sup>Then he sent some of the young Israelite men to present burnt offerings and to sacrifice bulls as peace offerings to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>Moses drained half the blood from these animals into basins. The other half he splattered against the altar.

<sup>7</sup>Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it aloud to the people. Again they all responded, "We will do everything the LORD has commanded. We will obey."

<sup>8</sup>Then Moses took the blood from the basins and splattered it over the people, declaring, "Look, this blood confirms the covenant the LORD has made with you in giving you these instructions."

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and the seventy elders of Israel climbed up the mountain. <sup>10</sup>There they saw the God of Israel. Under his feet there seemed to be a surface of brilliant blue lapis lazuli, as clear as the sky itself. <sup>11</sup>And though these nobles of Israel gazed upon God, he did not destroy them. In fact, they ate a covenant meal, eating and drinking in his presence!

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain. Stay there, and I will give you the tablets of stone on which I have inscribed the instructions and commands so you can teach the people.” <sup>13</sup>So Moses and his assistant Joshua set out, and Moses climbed up the mountain of God.

<sup>14</sup>Moses told the elders, “Stay here and wait for us until we come back. Aaron and Hur are here with you. If anyone has a dispute while I am gone, consult with them.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses climbed up the mountain, and the cloud covered it. <sup>16</sup>And the glory of the LORD settled down on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days. On the seventh day the LORD called to Moses from inside the cloud. <sup>17</sup>To the Israelites at the foot of the mountain, the glory of the LORD appeared at the summit like a consuming fire. <sup>18</sup>Then Moses disappeared into the cloud as he climbed higher up the mountain. He remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

Exodus 25

Offerings for the Tabernacle

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Tell the people of Israel to bring me their sacred offerings. Accept the contributions from all whose hearts are moved to offer them. <sup>3</sup>Here is a list of sacred offerings you may accept from them:

gold, silver, and bronze;

<sup>4</sup>blue, purple, and scarlet thread;
fine linen and goat hair for cloth;

<sup>5</sup>tanned ram skins and fine goatskin leather;
acacia wood;

<sup>6</sup>olive oil for the lamps;

spices for the anointing oil and the fragrant incense;

<sup>7</sup>onyx stones, and other gemstones to be set in the ephod and the priest’s chestpiece.

<sup>8</sup> “Have the people of Israel build me a holy sanctuary so I can live among them. <sup>9</sup>You must build this Tabernacle and its furnishings exactly according to the pattern I will show you.

Plans for the Ark of the Covenant

molding of gold all around it. <sup>12</sup>Cast four gold rings and attach them to its four feet, two rings on each side. <sup>13</sup>Make poles from acacia wood, and overlay them with gold. <sup>14</sup>Insert the poles into the rings at the sides of the Ark to carry it. <sup>15</sup>These carrying poles must stay inside the rings; never remove them. <sup>16</sup>When the Ark is finished, place inside it the stone tablets inscribed with the terms of the covenant,* which I will give to you.

<sup>17</sup>“Then make the Ark’s cover—the place of atonement—from pure gold. It must be 45 inches long and 27 inches wide.* <sup>18</sup>Then make two cherubim from hammered gold, and place them on the two ends of the atonement cover. <sup>19</sup>Mold the cherubim on each end of the atonement cover, making it all of one piece of gold. <sup>20</sup>The cherubim will face each other and look down on the atonement cover. With their wings spread above it, they will protect it. <sup>21</sup>Place inside the Ark the stone tablets inscribed with the terms of the covenant, which I will give to you. Then put the atonement cover on top of the Ark. <sup>22</sup>I will meet with you there and talk to you from above the atonement cover between the gold cherubim that hover over the Ark of the Covenant.* From there I will give you my commands for the people of Israel.

Plans for the Table

Plans for the Lampstand

<sup>31</sup>“Make a lampstand of pure, hammered gold. Make the entire lampstand and its decorations of one piece—the base, center stem, lamp cups, buds, and petals. <sup>32</sup>Make it with six branches going out from the center stem, three on each side. <sup>33</sup>Each of the six branches will have three lamp cups shaped like almond blossoms, complete with buds and petals. <sup>34</sup>Craft the center stem of the lampstand with four lamp cups shaped like almond blossoms, complete with buds and petals. <sup>35</sup>There will also be an almond bud beneath each pair of branches where the six branches extend from the center stem. <sup>36</sup>The almond buds and branches must all be of one piece with the center stem, and they must be hammered from pure gold. <sup>37</sup>Then make the seven lamps for the lampstand, and set them so they reflect their light forward. <sup>38</sup>The lamp snuffers and trays must also be made of pure gold. <sup>39</sup>You will need seventy-five pounds* of pure gold for the lampstand and its accessories.

Plans for the Tabernacle

<sup>3</sup>Join five of these curtains together to make one long curtain, then join the other five into a second long curtain. <sup>4</sup>Put loops of blue yarn along the edge of the last curtain in each set. <sup>5</sup>The fifty loops along the edge of one curtain are to match the fifty loops along the edge of the other curtain. <sup>6</sup>Then make fifty gold clasps and fasten the long curtains together with the clasps. In this way, the Tabernacle will be made of one continuous piece.

<sup>7</sup>“Make eleven curtains of goat-hair cloth to serve as a tent covering for the Tabernacle. <sup>8</sup>These eleven curtains must all be exactly the same size—45 feet long and 6 feet wide.* <sup>9</sup>Join five of these curtains together to make one long curtain, and join the other six into a second long curtain. Allow 3 feet of material from the second set of curtains to hang over the front* of the sacred tent. <sup>10</sup>Make fifty loops for one edge of each large curtain. <sup>11</sup>Then make fifty bronze clasps, and fasten the loops of the long curtains with the clasps. In this way, the tent covering will be made of one continuous piece. <sup>12</sup>The remaining 3 feet* of this tent covering will be left to hang over the back of the Tabernacle. <sup>13</sup>Allow 18 inches* of remaining material to hang down over each side, so the Tabernacle is completely covered. <sup>14</sup>Complete the tent covering with a protective layer of tanned ram skins and a layer of fine goatskin leather.

Exodus 27

Plans for the Altar of Burnt Offering

<sup>1</sup>“Using acacia wood, construct a square altar  $7\frac{1}{2}$  feet wide,  $7\frac{1}{2}$  feet long, and  $4\frac{1}{2}$  feet high.\* <sup>2</sup>Make horns for each of its four corners so that the horns and altar are all one piece. Overlay the altar with bronze. <sup>3</sup>Make ash buckets, shovels, basins, meat forks, and firepans, all of bronze. <sup>4</sup>Make a bronze grating for it, and attach four bronze rings at its four corners. <sup>5</sup>Install the grating halfway down the side of the altar, under the ledge. <sup>6</sup>For carrying the altar, make poles from acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze. <sup>7</sup>Insert the poles through the rings on the two sides of the altar. <sup>8</sup>The altar must be hollow, made from planks. Build it just as you were shown on the mountain.

Plans for the Courtyard

<sup>9</sup>“Then make the courtyard for the Tabernacle, enclosed with curtains made of finely woven linen. On the south side, make the curtains 150 feet long.* <sup>10</sup>They will be held up by twenty posts set securely in twenty bronze bases. Hang the curtains with silver hooks and rings. <sup>11</sup>Make the curtains the same on the north side—150 feet of curtains held up by twenty posts set securely in bronze bases. Hang the curtains with silver hooks and rings. <sup>12</sup>The curtains on the west end of the courtyard will be 75 feet long,* supported by ten posts set into ten bases. <sup>13</sup>The east end of the courtyard, the front, will also be 75 feet long. <sup>14</sup>The courtyard entrance will be on the east end, flanked by two curtains. The curtain on the right side will be 22½ feet long,* supported by three posts set into three bases. <sup>15</sup>The curtain on the left side will also be 22½ feet long, supported by three posts set into three bases.

<sup>16</sup>“For the entrance to the courtyard, make a curtain that is 30 feet long.* Make it from finely woven linen, and decorate it with beautiful embroidery in blue, purple, and scarlet thread. Support it with four posts, each securely set in its own base.

<sup>17</sup>All the posts around the courtyard must have silver rings and hooks and bronze bases. <sup>18</sup>So the entire courtyard will be 150 feet long and 75 feet wide, with curtain walls 7½ feet high,* made from finely woven linen. The bases for the posts will be made of bronze.

<sup>19</sup>“All the articles used in the rituals of the Tabernacle, including all the tent pegs used to support the Tabernacle and the courtyard curtains, must be made of bronze.

Light for the Tabernacle

<sup>20</sup> “Command the people of Israel to bring you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to keep the lamps burning continually. <sup>21</sup>The lampstand will stand in the Tabernacle, in front of the inner curtain that shields the Ark of the Covenant.* Aaron and his sons must keep the lamps burning in the LORD’s presence all night. This is a permanent law for the people of Israel, and it must be observed from generation to generation.

Exodus 28

Clothing for the Priests

<sup>1</sup>“Call for your brother, Aaron, and his sons, Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. Set them apart from the rest of the people of Israel so they may minister to me and be my priests. <sup>2</sup>Make sacred garments for Aaron that are glorious and beautiful. <sup>3</sup>Instruct all the skilled craftsmen whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom. Have them make garments for Aaron that will distinguish him as a priest set apart for my service. <sup>4</sup>These are the garments they are to make: a chestpiece, an ephod, a robe, a patterned tunic, a turban, and a sash. They are to make these sacred garments for your brother, Aaron, and his sons to wear when they serve me as priests. <sup>5</sup>So give them fine linen cloth, gold thread, and blue, purple, and scarlet thread.

Design of the Ephod

<sup>9</sup>“Take two onyx stones, and engrave on them the names of the tribes of Israel. <sup>10</sup>Six names will be on each stone, arranged in the order of the births of the original sons of Israel. <sup>11</sup>Engrave these names on the two stones in the same way a jeweler engraves a seal. Then mount the stones in settings of gold filigree. <sup>12</sup>Fasten the two stones on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod as a reminder that Aaron represents the people of Israel. Aaron will carry these names on his shoulders as a constant reminder whenever he goes before the LORD. <sup>13</sup>Make the settings of gold filigree, <sup>14</sup>then braid two cords of pure gold and attach them to the filigree settings on the shoulders of the ephod.

Design of the Chestpiece

<sup>15</sup>“Then, with great skill and care, make a chestpiece to be worn for seeking a decision from God.* Make it to match the ephod, using finely woven linen embroidered with gold and with blue, purple, and scarlet thread. <sup>16</sup>Make the chestpiece of a single piece of cloth folded to form a pouch nine inches* square. <sup>17</sup>Mount four rows of gemstones* on it. The first row will contain a red carnelian, a pale-green peridot, and an emerald. <sup>18</sup>The second row will contain a turquoise, a blue lapis lazuli, and a white moonstone. <sup>19</sup>The third row will contain an orange jacinth, an agate, and a purple amethyst. <sup>20</sup>The fourth row will contain a blue-green beryl, an onyx, and a green jasper. All these stones will be set in gold filigree. <sup>21</sup>Each stone will represent one of the twelve sons of Israel, and the name of that tribe will be engraved on it like a seal.

<sup>22</sup>“To attach the chestpiece to the ephod, make braided cords of pure gold thread. <sup>23</sup>Then make two gold rings and attach them to the top corners of the chestpiece.<sup>24</sup>Tie the two gold cords to the two rings on the chestpiece.<sup>25</sup>Tie the other ends of the cords to the gold settings on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod.<sup>26</sup>Then make two more gold rings and attach them to the inside edges of the chestpiece next to the ephod.<sup>27</sup>And make two more gold rings and attach them to the front of the ephod, below the shoulder-pieces, just above the knot where the decorative sash is fastened to the ephod.<sup>28</sup>Then attach the bottom rings of the chestpiece to the rings on the ephod with blue cords. This will hold the chestpiece securely to the ephod above the decorative sash.

<sup>29</sup> “In this way, Aaron will carry the names of the tribes of Israel on the sacred chestpiece* over his heart when he goes into the Holy Place. This will be a continual reminder that he represents the people when he comes before the LORD.<sup>30</sup>Insert the Urim and Thummim into the sacred chestpiece so they will be carried over Aaron’s heart when he goes into the LORD’s presence. In this way, Aaron will always carry over his heart the objects used to determine the LORD’s will for his people whenever he goes in before the LORD.

Additional Clothing for the Priests

alternate all around the hem.<sup>35</sup> Aaron will wear this robe whenever he ministers before the LORD, and the bells will tinkle as he goes in and out of the LORD's presence in the Holy Place. If he wears it, he will not die.

<sup>40</sup>“For Aaron's sons, make tunics, sashes, and special head coverings that are glorious and beautiful. <sup>41</sup>Clothe your brother, Aaron, and his sons with these garments, and then anoint and ordain them. Consecrate them so they can serve as my priests. <sup>42</sup>Also make linen undergarments for them, to be worn next to their bodies, reaching from their hips to their thighs. <sup>43</sup>These must be worn whenever Aaron and his sons enter the Tabernacle* or approach the altar in the Holy Place to perform their priestly duties. Then they will not incur guilt and die. This is a permanent law for Aaron and all his descendants after him.

Dedication of the Priests

altar with your finger, and pour out the rest at the base of the altar. <sup>13</sup>Take all the fat around the internal organs, the long lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat around them, and burn it all on the altar. <sup>14</sup>Then take the rest of the bull, including its hide, meat, and dung, and burn it outside the camp as a sin offering.

<sup>22</sup>“Since this is the ram for the ordination of Aaron and his sons, take the fat of the ram, including the fat of the broad tail, the fat around the internal organs, the long lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat around them, along with the right thigh. <sup>23</sup>Then take one round loaf of bread, one thin cake mixed with olive oil, and one wafer from the basket of bread without yeast that was placed in the LORD's presence. <sup>24</sup>Put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons to be lifted up as a special offering to the LORD. <sup>25</sup>Afterward take the various breads from their hands, and burn them on the altar along with the burnt offering. It is a pleasing aroma to the LORD, a special gift for him. <sup>26</sup>Then take the breast of Aaron's ordination ram, and lift it up in the LORD's presence as a special offering to him. Then keep it as your own portion.

<sup>27</sup>“Set aside the portions of the ordination ram that belong to Aaron and his sons. This includes the breast and the thigh that were lifted up before the LORD as a special offering. <sup>28</sup>In the future, whenever the people of Israel lift up a peace offering, a portion of it must be set aside for Aaron and his descendants. This is their permanent right, and it is a sacred offering from the Israelites to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>“Aaron's sacred garments must be preserved for his descendants who succeed him, and they will wear them when they are anointed and ordained. <sup>30</sup>The descendant who succeeds him as high priest will wear these clothes for seven days as he ministers in the Tabernacle and the Holy Place.

burned. It may not be eaten, for it is holy.

<sup>35</sup>“This is how you will ordain Aaron and his sons to their offices, just as I have commanded you. The ordination ceremony will go on for seven days. <sup>36</sup>Each day you must sacrifice a young bull as a sin offering to purify them, making them right with the LORD.* Afterward, cleanse the altar by purifying it*; make it holy by anointing it with oil. <sup>37</sup>Purify the altar, and consecrate it every day for seven days. After that, the altar will be absolutely holy, and whatever touches it will become holy.

<sup>42</sup>“These burnt offerings are to be made each day from generation to generation. Offer them in the LORD’s presence at the Tabernacle entrance; there I will meet with you and speak with you. <sup>43</sup>I will meet the people of Israel there, in the place made holy by my glorious presence. <sup>44</sup>Yes, I will consecrate the Tabernacle and the altar, and I will consecrate Aaron and his sons to serve me as priests. <sup>45</sup>Then I will live among the people of Israel and be their God, <sup>46</sup>and they will know that I am the LORD their God. I am the one who brought them out of the land of Egypt so that I could live among them. I am the LORD their God.

Exodus 30

Plans for the Incense Altar

<sup>7</sup>“Every morning when Aaron maintains the lamps, he must burn fragrant incense on the altar. <sup>8</sup>And each evening when he lights the lamps, he must again burn incense in the LORD’s presence. This must be done from generation to generation. <sup>9</sup>Do not offer any unholy incense on this altar, or any burnt offerings, grain offerings, or liquid offerings.

<sup>10</sup>“Once a year Aaron must purify* the altar by smearing its horns with blood from the offering made to purify the people from their sin. This will be a regular, annual event from generation to generation, for this is the LORD’s most holy altar.”

Money for the Tabernacle

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>12</sup>“Whenever you take a census of the people of Israel, each man who is counted must pay a ransom for himself to the LORD. Then no plague will strike the people as you count them. <sup>13</sup>Each person who is counted must give a small piece of silver as a sacred offering to the LORD. (This payment is half a shekel,* based on the sanctuary shekel, which equals twenty gerahs.) <sup>14</sup>All who have reached their twentieth birthday must give this sacred offering to the LORD. <sup>15</sup>When this offering is given to the LORD to purify your lives, making you right with him,* the rich must not give more than the specified amount, and the poor must not give less. <sup>16</sup>Receive this ransom money from the Israelites, and use it for the care of the Tabernacle.* It will bring the Israelites to the LORD’s attention, and it will purify your lives.”

Plans for the Washbasin

The Anointing Oil

<sup>30</sup>“Anoint Aaron and his sons also, consecrating them to serve me as priests. <sup>31</sup>And say to the people of Israel, ‘This holy anointing oil is reserved for me from generation to generation. <sup>32</sup>It must never be used to anoint anyone else, and you must never make any blend like it for yourselves. It is holy, and you must treat it as holy. <sup>33</sup>Anyone who makes a blend like it or anoints someone other than a priest will be cut off from the community.’”

The Incense

<sup>34</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Gather fragrant spices—resin droplets, mollusk shell, and galbanum—and mix these fragrant spices with pure frankincense, weighed out in equal amounts. <sup>35</sup>Using the usual techniques of the incense maker, blend the spices together and sprinkle them with salt to produce a pure and holy incense. <sup>36</sup>Grind some of the mixture into a very fine powder and put it in front of the Ark of the Covenant,* where I will meet with you in the Tabernacle. You must treat this incense as most holy. <sup>37</sup>Never use this formula to make this incense for yourselves. It is reserved for the LORD, and you must treat it as holy. <sup>38</sup>Anyone who makes incense like this for personal use will be cut off from the community.”

Craftsmen: Bezalel and Oholiab

<sup>6</sup>“And I have personally appointed Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, to be his assistant. Moreover, I have given special skill to all the gifted craftsmen so they can make all the things I have commanded you to make:

the Ark of the Covenant;*

the Ark’s cover—the place of atonement;

all the furnishings of the Tabernacle;

<sup>8</sup>the table and its utensils;

the pure gold lampstand with all its accessories;

the incense altar;

<sup>9</sup>the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils;

the washbasin with its stand;

<sup>10</sup>the beautifully stitched garments—the sacred garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments for his sons to wear as they minister as priests;

<sup>11</sup>the anointing oil;

the fragrant incense for the Holy Place.

The craftsmen must make everything as I have commanded you.”

Instructions for the Sabbath

<sup>12</sup>The LORD then gave these instructions to Moses: <sup>13</sup>“Tell the people of Israel: ‘Be careful to keep my Sabbath day, for the Sabbath is a sign of the covenant between me and you from generation to generation. It is given so you may know that I am the LORD, who makes you holy. <sup>14</sup>You must keep the Sabbath day, for it is a holy day for you. Anyone who desecrates it must be put to death; anyone who works on that day will be cut off from the community. <sup>15</sup>You have six days each week for your ordinary work, but the seventh day must be a Sabbath day of complete rest, a holy day dedicated to the LORD. Anyone who works on the Sabbath must be put to death. <sup>16</sup>The people of Israel must keep the Sabbath day by observing it from generation to generation. This is a covenant obligation for all time. <sup>17</sup>It is a permanent sign of my covenant with the people of Israel. For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, but on the seventh day he stopped working and was refreshed.”

<sup>18</sup>When the LORD finished speaking with Moses on Mount Sinai, he gave him the two stone tablets inscribed with the terms of the covenant,* written by the finger of God.

Exodus 32

The Gold Calf

<sup>1</sup> When the people saw how long it was taking Moses to come back down the mountain, they gathered around Aaron. “Come on,” they said, “make us some gods who can lead us. We don’t know what happened to this fellow Moses, who brought us here from the land of Egypt.”

<sup>2</sup> So Aaron said, “Take the gold rings from the ears of your wives and sons and daughters, and bring them to me.”

<sup>3</sup> All the people took the gold rings from their ears and brought them to Aaron. <sup>4</sup> Then Aaron took the gold, melted it down, and molded it into the shape of a calf. When the people saw it, they exclaimed, “O Israel, these are the gods who brought you out of the land of Egypt!”

<sup>5</sup> Aaron saw how excited the people were, so he built an altar in front of the calf. Then he announced, “Tomorrow will be a festival to the LORD!”

<sup>6</sup> The people got up early the next morning to sacrifice burnt offerings and peace offerings. After this, they celebrated with feasting and drinking, and they indulged in pagan revelry.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD told Moses, “Quick! Go down the mountain! Your people whom you brought from the land of Egypt have corrupted themselves. <sup>8</sup> How quickly they have turned away from the way I commanded them to live! They have melted down gold and made a calf, and they have bowed down and sacrificed to it. They are saying, ‘These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.’”

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said, “I have seen how stubborn and rebellious these people are. <sup>10</sup>Now leave me alone so my fierce anger can blaze against them, and I will destroy them. Then I will make you, Moses, into a great nation.”

<sup>11</sup>But Moses tried to pacify the LORD his God. “O LORD!” he said. “Why are you so angry with your own people whom you brought from the land of Egypt with such great power and such a strong hand? <sup>12</sup>Why let the Egyptians say, ‘Their God rescued them with the evil intention of slaughtering them in the mountains and wiping them from the face of the earth’? Turn away from your fierce anger. Change your mind about this terrible disaster you have threatened against your people!

<sup>13</sup>Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.* You bound yourself with an oath to them, saying, ‘I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars of heaven. And I will give them all of this land that I have promised to your descendants, and they will possess it forever.’”

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD changed his mind about the terrible disaster he had threatened to bring on his people.

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses turned and went down the mountain. He held in his hands the two stone tablets inscribed with the terms of the covenant.* They were inscribed on both sides, front and back. <sup>16</sup>These tablets were God’s work; the words on them were written by God himself.

<sup>17</sup>When Joshua heard the boisterous noise of the people shouting below them, he exclaimed to Moses, “It sounds like war in the camp!”

<sup>19</sup>When they came near the camp, Moses saw the calf and the dancing, and he burned with anger. He threw the stone tablets to the ground, smashing them at the foot of the mountain. <sup>20</sup>He took the calf they had made and burned it. Then he ground it into powder, threw it into the water, and forced the people to drink it.

<sup>22</sup>“Don’t get so upset, my lord,” Aaron replied. “You yourself know how evil these people are. <sup>23</sup>They said to me, ‘Make us gods who will lead us. We don’t know what happened to this fellow Moses, who brought us here from the land of Egypt.’ <sup>24</sup>So I told them, ‘Whoever has gold jewelry, take it off.’ When they brought it to me, I simply threw it into the fire—and out came this calf!”

<sup>25</sup>Moses saw that Aaron had let the people get completely out of control, much to the amusement of their enemies. <sup>26</sup>So he stood at the entrance to the camp and shouted, “All of you who are on the LORD’s side, come here and join me.” And all the Levites gathered around him.

<sup>27</sup>Moses told them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Each of you, take your swords and go back and forth from one end of the camp to the other. Kill everyone—even your brothers, friends, and neighbors.” <sup>28</sup>The Levites obeyed

Moses' command, and about 3,000 people died that day.

<sup>29</sup>Then Moses told the Levites, "Today you have ordained yourselves* for the service of the LORD, for you obeyed him even though it meant killing your own sons and brothers. Today you have earned a blessing."

Moses Intercedes for Israel

<sup>30</sup> The next day Moses said to the people, "You have committed a terrible sin, but I will go back up to the LORD on the mountain. Perhaps I will be able to obtain forgiveness* for your sin."

<sup>31</sup>So Moses returned to the LORD and said, "Oh, what a terrible sin these people have committed. They have made gods of gold for themselves. <sup>32</sup>But now, if you will only forgive their sin—but if not, erase my name from the record you have written!"

<sup>33</sup>But the LORD replied to Moses, "No, I will erase the name of everyone who has sinned against me. <sup>34</sup>Now go, lead the people to the place I told you about. Look! My angel will lead the way before you. And when I come to call the people to account, I will certainly hold them responsible for their sins."

<sup>35</sup>Then the LORD sent a great plague upon the people because they had worshiped the calf Aaron had made.

Party Animals

Exodus 33

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Get going, you and the people you brought up from the land of Egypt. Go up to the land I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I told them, ‘I will give this land to your descendants.’ <sup>2</sup>And I will send an angel before you to drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. <sup>3</sup>Go up to this land that flows with milk and honey. But I will not travel among you, for you are a stubborn and rebellious people. If I did, I would surely destroy you along the way.”

<sup>4</sup>When the people heard these stern words, they went into mourning and stopped wearing their jewelry and fine clothes. <sup>5</sup>For the LORD had told Moses to tell them, “You are a stubborn and rebellious people. If I were to travel with you for even a moment, I would destroy you. Remove your jewelry and fine clothes while I decide what to do with you.” <sup>6</sup>So from the time they left Mount Sinai,* the Israelites wore no more jewelry or fine clothes.

<sup>7</sup>It was Moses’ practice to take the Tent of Meeting* and set it up some distance from the camp. Everyone who wanted to make a request of the LORD would go to the Tent of Meeting outside the camp.

<sup>8</sup>Whenever Moses went out to the Tent of Meeting, all the people would get up and stand in the entrances of their own tents. They would all watch Moses until he disappeared inside. <sup>9</sup>As he went into the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down and hover at its entrance while the LORD spoke with Moses.

Moses Sees the LORD's Glory

<sup>12</sup>One day Moses said to the LORD, “You have been telling me, ‘Take these people up to the Promised Land.’ But you haven’t told me whom you will send with me. You have told me, ‘I know you by name, and I look favorably on you.’” <sup>13</sup>If it is true that you look favorably on me, let me know your ways so I may understand you more fully and continue to enjoy your favor. And remember that this nation is your very own people.”

<sup>14</sup>The LORD replied, “I will personally go with you, Moses, and I will give you rest—everything will be fine for you.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses said, “If you don’t personally go with us, don’t make us leave this place. <sup>16</sup>How will anyone know that you look favorably on me—on me and on your people—if you don’t go with us? For your presence among us sets your people and me apart from all other people on the earth.”

<sup>17</sup>The LORD replied to Moses, “I will indeed do what you have asked, for I look favorably on you, and I know you by name.”

<sup>19</sup>The LORD replied, “I will make all my goodness pass before you, and I will call out my name, Yahweh,* before you. For I will show mercy to anyone I choose, and I will show compassion to anyone I choose.<sup>20</sup>But you may not look directly at my face, for no one may see me and live.” <sup>21</sup>The LORD continued, “Look, stand near me on this rock. <sup>22</sup>As my glorious presence passes by, I will hide you in the crevice of the rock and cover you with my hand until I have passed by. <sup>23</sup>Then I will remove my hand and let you see me from behind. But my face will not be seen.”

A New Copy of the Covenant

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD told Moses, “Chisel out two stone tablets like the first ones. I will write on them the same words that were on the tablets you smashed. <sup>2</sup>Be ready in the morning to climb up Mount Sinai and present yourself to me on the top of the mountain. <sup>3</sup>No one else may come with you. In fact, no one is to appear anywhere on the mountain. Do not even let the flocks or herds graze near the mountain.”

<sup>4</sup>So Moses chiseled out two tablets of stone like the first ones. Early in the morning he climbed Mount Sinai as the LORD had commanded him, and he carried the two stone tablets in his hands.

“Yahweh! * The LORD!

The God of compassion and mercy!

I am slow to anger and filled with unfailing love and faithfulness.

<sup>7</sup>I lavish unfailing love to a thousand generations. *

I forgive iniquity, rebellion, and sin.

But I do not excuse the guilty.

I lay the sins of the parents upon their children and grandchildren;

the entire family is affected—even children in the third and fourth generations.”

What Kind of God Is He, Anyway?

<sup>8</sup>Moses immediately threw himself to the ground and worshiped. <sup>9</sup>And he said, “O Lord, if it is true that I have found favor with you, then please travel with us. Yes, this is a stubborn and rebellious people, but please forgive our iniquity and our sins. Claim us as your own special possession.”

<sup>10</sup>The LORD replied, “Listen, I am making a covenant with you in the presence of all your people. I will perform miracles that have never been performed anywhere in all the earth or in any nation. And all the people around you will see the power of the LORD—the awesome power I will display for you. <sup>11</sup>But listen carefully to everything I command you today. Then I will go ahead of you and drive out the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.

<sup>12</sup>“Be very careful never to make a treaty with the people who live in the land where you are going. If you do, you will follow their evil ways and be trapped. <sup>13</sup>Instead, you must break down their pagan altars, smash their sacred pillars, and cut down their Asherah poles. <sup>14</sup>You must worship no other gods, for the LORD, whose very name is Jealous, is a God who is jealous about his relationship with you.

living in the land. They lust after their gods, offering sacrifices to them. They will invite you to join them in their sacrificial meals, and you will go with them. <sup>16</sup>Then you will accept their daughters, who sacrifice to other gods, as wives for your sons. And they will seduce your sons to commit adultery against me by worshiping other gods. <sup>17</sup>You must not make any gods of molten metal for yourselves.

<sup>18</sup>“You must celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread. For seven days the bread you eat must be made without yeast, just as I commanded you. Celebrate this festival annually at the appointed time in early spring, in the month of Abib,* for that is the anniversary of your departure from Egypt.

<sup>19</sup>“The firstborn of every animal belongs to me, including the firstborn males from your herds of cattle and your flocks of sheep and goats. <sup>20</sup>A firstborn donkey may be bought back from the LORD by presenting a lamb or young goat in its place. But if you do not buy it back, you must break its neck. However, you must buy back every firstborn son.

“No one may appear before me without an offering.

<sup>21</sup>“You have six days each week for your ordinary work, but on the seventh day you must stop working, even during the seasons of plowing and harvest.

<sup>22</sup>“You must celebrate the Festival of Harvest* with the first crop of the wheat harvest, and celebrate the Festival of the Final Harvest* at the end of the harvest season. <sup>23</sup>Three times each year every man in Israel must appear before the Sovereign, the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>24</sup>I will drive out the other nations ahead of you and expand your territory, so no one will covet and conquer your land while you appear before the LORD your God three times each year.

<sup>25</sup>“You must not offer the blood of my sacrificial offerings together with any baked goods containing yeast. And none of the meat of the Passover sacrifice may be kept over until the next morning.

<sup>26</sup>“As you harvest your crops, bring the very best of the first harvest to the house of the LORD your God.

“You must not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

<sup>27</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write down all these instructions, for they represent the terms of the covenant I am making with you and with Israel.”

<sup>29</sup> When Moses came down Mount Sinai carrying the two stone tablets inscribed with the terms of the covenant,* he wasn’t aware that his face had become radiant because he had spoken to the LORD. <sup>30</sup>So when Aaron and the people of Israel saw the radiance of Moses’ face, they were afraid to come near him.

<sup>31</sup>But Moses called out to them and asked Aaron and all the leaders of the community to come over, and he talked with them. <sup>32</sup>Then all the people of Israel approached him, and Moses gave them all the instructions the LORD had given him on Mount Sinai. <sup>33</sup>When Moses finished speaking with them, he covered his face with a veil. <sup>34</sup>But whenever he went into the Tent of Meeting to speak with the LORD, he would remove the veil until he came out again. Then he would give the people whatever instructions the LORD had given him,<sup>35</sup> and the people of Israel would see the radiant glow of his face. So he would put the veil over his face until he returned to speak with the LORD.

Instructions for the Sabbath

<sup>1</sup>Then Moses called together the whole community of Israel and told them, “These are the instructions the LORD has commanded you to follow. <sup>2</sup>You have six days each week for your ordinary work, but the seventh day must be a Sabbath day of complete rest, a holy day dedicated to the LORD. Anyone who works on that day must be put to death. <sup>3</sup>You must not even light a fire in any of your homes on the Sabbath.”

Offerings for the Tabernacle

<sup>4</sup>Then Moses said to the whole community of Israel, “This is what the LORD has commanded: <sup>5</sup>Take a sacred offering for the LORD. Let those with generous hearts present the following gifts to the LORD:

gold, silver, and bronze;

<sup>6</sup>blue, purple, and scarlet thread;

fine linen and goat hair for cloth;

<sup>7</sup>tanned ram skins and fine goatskin leather;

acacia wood;

<sup>8</sup>olive oil for the lamps;

spices for the anointing oil and the fragrant incense;

<sup>9</sup>onyx stones, and other gemstones to be set in the ephod and the priest’s chestpiece.

<sup>10</sup>“Come, all of you who are gifted craftsmen. Construct everything that the LORD has commanded:

<sup>11</sup>the Tabernacle and its sacred tent, its covering, clasps, frames, crossbars, posts, and bases;

<sup>12</sup>the Ark and its carrying poles;
the Ark’s cover—the place of atonement;
the inner curtain to shield the Ark;

<sup>13</sup>the table, its carrying poles, and all its utensils;
the Bread of the Presence;

<sup>14</sup>for light, the lampstand, its accessories, the lamp cups, and the olive oil for lighting;

<sup>15</sup>the incense altar and its carrying poles;
the anointing oil and fragrant incense;
the curtain for the entrance of the Tabernacle;

<sup>16</sup>the altar of burnt offering;
the bronze grating of the altar and its carrying poles and utensils;

the washbasin with its stand;

<sup>17</sup>the curtains for the walls of the courtyard;
the posts and their bases;

the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard;

minister as priests.”

<sup>20</sup>So the whole community of Israel left Moses and returned to their tents. <sup>21</sup>All whose hearts were stirred and whose spirits were moved came and brought their sacred offerings to the LORD. They brought all the materials needed for the Tabernacle,* for the performance of its rituals, and for the sacred garments. <sup>22</sup>Both men and women came, all whose hearts were willing. They brought to the LORD their offerings of gold—brooches, earrings, rings from their fingers, and necklaces. They presented gold objects of every kind as a special offering to the LORD. <sup>23</sup>All those who owned the following items willingly brought them: blue, purple, and scarlet thread; fine linen and goat hair for cloth; and tanned ram skins and fine goatskin leather. <sup>24</sup>And all who had silver and bronze objects gave them as a sacred offering to the LORD. And those who had acacia wood brought it for use in the project.

<sup>25</sup>All the women who were skilled in sewing and spinning prepared blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine linen cloth. <sup>26</sup>All the women who were willing used their skills to spin the goat hair into yarn. <sup>27</sup>The leaders brought onyx stones and the special gemstones to be set in the ephod and the priest’s chestpiece. <sup>28</sup>They also brought spices and olive oil for the light, the anointing oil, and the fragrant incense. <sup>29</sup>So the people of Israel—every man and woman who was eager to help in the work the LORD had given them through Moses—brought their gifts and gave them freely to the LORD.

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses told the people of Israel, “The LORD has specifically chosen Bezalel son of Uri, grandson of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. <sup>31</sup>The LORD has filled Bezalel with the Spirit of God, giving him great wisdom, ability, and expertise in all kinds of crafts. <sup>32</sup>He is a master craftsman, expert in working with gold, silver, and bronze. <sup>33</sup>He is skilled in engraving and mounting gemstones and in carving wood. He is a master at every craft. <sup>34</sup>And the LORD has given both him and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, the ability to teach their skills to others. <sup>35</sup>The LORD has given them special skills as engravers, designers, embroiderers in blue, purple, and scarlet thread on fine linen cloth, and weavers. They excel as craftsmen and as designers.

Exodus 36

<sup>2</sup>So Moses summoned Bezalel and Oholiab and all the others who were specially gifted by the LORD and were eager to get to work. <sup>3</sup>Moses gave them the materials donated by the people of Israel as sacred offerings for the completion of the sanctuary. But the people continued to bring additional gifts each morning. <sup>4</sup>Finally the craftsmen who were working on the sanctuary left their work. <sup>5</sup>They went to Moses and reported, “The people have given more than enough materials to complete the job the LORD has commanded us to do!”

<sup>6</sup>So Moses gave the command, and this message was sent throughout the camp: “Men and women, don’t prepare any more gifts for the sanctuary. We have enough!” So the people stopped bringing their sacred offerings. <sup>7</sup>Their contributions were more than enough to complete the whole project.

Building the Tabernacle

<sup>8</sup>The skilled craftsmen made ten curtains of finely woven linen for the Tabernacle. Then Bezalel* decorated the curtains with blue, purple, and scarlet thread and with skillfully embroidered cherubim. <sup>9</sup>All ten curtains were exactly the same size—42 feet long and 6 feet wide.* <sup>10</sup>Five of these curtains were joined together to make one long curtain, and the other five were joined to make a second long curtain.<sup>11</sup>He made fifty loops of blue yarn and put them along the edge of the last curtain in each set.<sup>12</sup>The fifty loops along the edge of one curtain matched the fifty loops along the edge of the other curtain.<sup>13</sup>Then he made fifty gold clasps and fastened the long curtains together with the clasps. In this way, the Tabernacle was made of one continuous piece.

<sup>14</sup>He made eleven curtains of goat-hair cloth to serve as a tent covering for the Tabernacle.<sup>15</sup>These eleven curtains were all exactly the same size—45 feet long and 6 feet wide.*<sup>16</sup>Bezalel joined five of these curtains together to make one long curtain, and the other six were joined to make a second long curtain.<sup>17</sup>He made fifty loops for the edge of each large curtain.<sup>18</sup>He also made fifty bronze clasps to fasten the long curtains together. In this way, the tent covering was made of one continuous piece.<sup>19</sup>He completed the tent covering with a layer of tanned ram skins and a layer of fine goatskin leather.

additional frames to reinforce the rear corners of the Tabernacle.<sup>29</sup> These corner frames were matched at the bottom and firmly attached at the top with a single ring, forming a single corner unit. Both of these corner units were made the same way.<sup>30</sup> So there were eight frames at the rear of the Tabernacle, set in sixteen silver bases—two bases under each frame.

<sup>35</sup>For the inside of the Tabernacle, Bezalel made a special curtain of finely woven linen. He decorated it with blue, purple, and scarlet thread and with skillfully embroidered cherubim.<sup>36</sup> For the curtain, he made four posts of acacia wood and four gold hooks. He overlaid the posts with gold and set them in four silver bases.

<sup>37</sup>Then he made another curtain for the entrance to the sacred tent. He made it of finely woven linen and embroidered it with exquisite designs using blue, purple, and scarlet thread.<sup>38</sup> This curtain was hung on gold hooks attached to five posts. The posts with their decorated tops and hooks were overlaid with gold, and the five bases were cast from bronze.

Building the Ark of the Covenant

<sup>1</sup>Next Bezalel made the Ark of acacia wood—a sacred chest 45 inches long, 27 inches wide, and 27 inches high.* <sup>2</sup>He overlaid it inside and outside with pure gold, and he ran a molding of gold all around it. <sup>3</sup>He cast four gold rings and attached them to its four feet, two rings on each side. <sup>4</sup>Then he made poles from acacia wood and overlaid them with gold. <sup>5</sup>He inserted the poles into the rings at the sides of the Ark to carry it.

<sup>6</sup>Then he made the Ark's cover—the place of atonement—from pure gold. It was 45 inches long and 27 inches wide.* <sup>7</sup>He made two cherubim from hammered gold and placed them on the two ends of the atonement cover. <sup>8</sup>He molded the cherubim on each end of the atonement cover, making it all of one piece of gold. <sup>9</sup>The cherubim faced each other and looked down on the atonement cover. With their wings spread above it, they protected it.

Building the Table

<sup>10</sup>Then Bezalel* made the table of acacia wood, 36 inches long, 18 inches wide, and 27 inches high.* <sup>11</sup>He overlaid it with pure gold and ran a gold molding around the edge. <sup>12</sup>He decorated it with a 3-inch border* all around, and he ran a gold molding along the border. <sup>13</sup>Then he cast four gold rings for the table and attached them at the four corners next to the four legs.

<sup>14</sup>The rings were attached near the border to hold the poles that were used to carry the table. <sup>15</sup>He made these poles from acacia wood and overlaid them with gold. <sup>16</sup>Then he made special containers of pure gold for the table—bowls, pans, jars, and pitchers—to be used in pouring out liquid offerings.

Building the Lampstand

<sup>17</sup>Then Bezalel made the lampstand of pure, hammered gold. He made the entire lampstand and its decorations of one piece—the base, center stem, lamp cups, buds, and petals. <sup>18</sup>The lampstand had six branches going out from the center stem, three on each side. <sup>19</sup>Each of the six branches had three lamp cups shaped like almond blossoms, complete with buds and petals. <sup>20</sup>The center stem of the lampstand was crafted with four lamp cups shaped like almond blossoms, complete with buds and petals. <sup>21</sup>There was an almond bud beneath each pair of branches where the six branches extended from the center stem, all made of one piece. <sup>22</sup>The almond buds and branches were all of one piece with the center stem, and they were hammered from pure gold.

<sup>23</sup>He also made seven lamps for the lampstand, lamp snuffers, and trays, all of pure gold. <sup>24</sup>The entire lampstand, along with its accessories, was made from seventy-five pounds* of pure gold.

Building the Incense Altar

<sup>25</sup>Then Bezalel made the incense altar of acacia wood. It was 18 inches square and 36 inches high,* with horns at the corners carved from the same piece of wood as the altar itself. <sup>26</sup>He overlaid the top, sides, and horns of the altar with pure gold, and he ran a gold molding around the entire altar. <sup>27</sup>He made two gold rings and attached them on opposite sides of the altar below the gold molding to hold the carrying poles. <sup>28</sup>He made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

<sup>29</sup>Then he made the sacred anointing oil and the fragrant incense, using the techniques of a skilled incense maker.

Exodus 38

Building the Altar of Burnt Offering

<sup>1</sup>Next Bezalel* used acacia wood to construct the square altar of burnt offering. It was 7½ feet wide, 7½ feet long, and 4½ feet high.* <sup>2</sup>He made horns for each of its four corners so that the horns and altar were all one piece. He overlaid the altar with bronze. <sup>3</sup>Then he made all the altar utensils of bronze—the ash buckets, shovels, basins, meat forks, and firepans. <sup>4</sup>Next he made a bronze grating and installed it halfway down the side of the altar, under the ledge. <sup>5</sup>He cast four rings and attached them to the corners of the bronze grating to hold the carrying poles. <sup>6</sup>He made the poles from acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze. <sup>7</sup>He inserted the poles through the rings on the sides of the altar. The altar was hollow and was made from planks.

Building the Washbasin

Building the Courtyard

<sup>9</sup>Then Bezalel made the courtyard, which was enclosed with curtains made of finely woven linen. On the south side the curtains were 150 feet long.* <sup>10</sup>They were held up by twenty posts set securely in twenty bronze bases. He hung the curtains with silver hooks and rings.<sup>11</sup> He made a similar set of curtains for the north side—150 feet of curtains held up by twenty posts set securely in bronze bases. He hung the curtains with silver hooks and rings.<sup>12</sup> The curtains on the west end of the courtyard were 75 feet long,* hung with silver hooks and rings and supported by ten posts set into ten bases.<sup>13</sup> The east end, the front, was also 75 feet long.

<sup>18</sup>He made the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard of finely woven linen, and he decorated it with beautiful embroidery in blue, purple, and scarlet thread. It was 30 feet long, and its height was 7½ feet,* just like the curtains of the courtyard walls.<sup>19</sup> It was supported by four posts, each set securely in its own bronze base. The tops of the posts were overlaid with silver, and the hooks and rings were also made of silver.

Inventory of Materials

<sup>26</sup>This silver came from the tax collected from each man registered in the census. (The tax is one beka, which is half a shekel,* based on the sanctuary shekel.) The tax was collected from 603,550 men who had reached their twentieth birthday.

<sup>27</sup>The hundred bases for the frames of the sanctuary walls and for the posts supporting the inner curtain required 7,500 pounds of silver, about 75 pounds for each base.* <sup>28</sup>The remaining 45 pounds* of silver was used to make the hooks and rings and to overlay the tops of the posts.

<sup>29</sup>The people also brought as special offerings 5,310 pounds* of bronze, <sup>30</sup>which was used for casting the bases for the posts at the entrance to the Tabernacle, and for the bronze altar with its bronze grating and all the altar utensils.<sup>31</sup> Bronze was also used to make the bases for the posts that supported the curtains around the courtyard, the bases for the curtain at the entrance of the courtyard, and all the tent pegs for the Tabernacle and the courtyard.

Exodus 39

Clothing for the Priests

Making the Ephod

<sup>2</sup>Bezalel* made the ephod of finely woven linen and embroidered it with gold and with blue, purple, and scarlet thread. <sup>3</sup>He made gold thread by hammering out thin sheets of gold and cutting it into fine strands. With great skill and care, he worked it into the fine linen with the blue, purple, and scarlet thread.

Making the Chestpiece

<sup>8</sup>Bezalel made the chestpiece with great skill and care. He made it to match the ephod, using finely woven linen embroidered with gold and with blue, purple, and scarlet thread. <sup>9</sup>He made the chestpiece of a single piece of cloth folded to form a pouch nine inches* square. <sup>10</sup>They mounted four rows of gemstones* on it. The first row contained a red carnelian, a pale-green peridot, and an emerald. <sup>11</sup>The second row contained a turquoise, a blue lapis lazuli, and a white moonstone. <sup>12</sup>The third row contained an orange jacinth, an agate, and a purple amethyst. <sup>13</sup>The fourth row contained a blue-green beryl, an onyx, and a green jasper. All these stones were set in gold filigree. <sup>14</sup>Each stone represented one of the twelve sons of Israel, and the name of that tribe was engraved on it like a seal.

<sup>15</sup>To attach the chestpiece to the ephod, they made braided cords of pure gold thread. <sup>16</sup>They also made two settings of gold filigree and two gold rings and attached them to the top corners of the chestpiece. <sup>17</sup>They tied the two gold cords to the rings on the chestpiece. <sup>18</sup>They tied the other ends of the cords to the gold settings on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod. <sup>19</sup>Then they made two more gold rings and attached them to the inside edges of the chestpiece next to the ephod. <sup>20</sup>Then they made two more gold rings and attached them to the front of the ephod, below the shoulder-pieces, just above the knot where the decorative sash was fastened to the ephod. <sup>21</sup>They attached the bottom rings of the chestpiece to the rings on the ephod with blue cords. In this way, the chestpiece was held securely to the ephod above the decorative sash. All this was done just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Additional Clothing for the Priests

<sup>27</sup>They made tunics for Aaron and his sons from fine linen cloth. <sup>28</sup>The turban and the special head coverings were made of fine linen, and the undergarments were also made of finely woven linen. <sup>29</sup>The sashes were made of finely woven linen and embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet thread, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>30</sup>Finally, they made the sacred medallion—the badge of holiness—of pure gold. They engraved it like a seal with these words: HOLY TO THE LORD. <sup>31</sup>They attached the medallion with a blue cord to Aaron's turban, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Moses Inspects the Work

<sup>32</sup>And so at last the Tabernacle* was finished. The Israelites had done everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>33</sup> And they brought the entire Tabernacle to Moses:

the sacred tent with all its furnishings, clasps, frames, crossbars, posts, and bases;

<sup>34</sup>the tent coverings of tanned ram skins and fine goatskin leather;

the inner curtain to shield the Ark;

the Ark's cover—the place of atonement;

<sup>36</sup>the table and all its utensils;

the Bread of the Presence;

<sup>37</sup>the pure gold lampstand with its symmetrical lamp cups, all its accessories, and the olive oil for lighting;

<sup>38</sup>the gold altar;

the anointing oil and fragrant incense;

the curtain for the entrance of the sacred tent;

<sup>39</sup>the bronze altar;

the bronze grating and its carrying poles and utensils;

the washbasin with its stand;

<sup>40</sup>the curtains for the walls of the courtyard;

the posts and their bases;

the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard;

the ropes and tent pegs;

all the furnishings to be used in worship at the Tabernacle;

<sup>41</sup>the beautifully stitched garments for the priests to wear while ministering in the Holy Place—the sacred garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments for his sons to wear as they minister as priests.

<sup>42</sup>So the people of Israel followed all of the LORD's instructions to Moses. <sup>43</sup>Then Moses inspected all their work. When he found it had been done just as the LORD had commanded him, he blessed them.

Exodus 40

The Tabernacle Completed

<sup>9</sup>“Take the anointing oil and anoint the Tabernacle and all its furnishings to consecrate them and make them holy. <sup>10</sup>Anoint the altar of burnt offering and its utensils to consecrate them. Then the altar will become absolutely holy. <sup>11</sup>Next anoint the washbasin and its stand to consecrate them.

serve me as priests. With their anointing, Aaron's descendants are set apart for the priesthood forever, from generation to generation."

<sup>20</sup>He took the stone tablets inscribed with the terms of the covenant and placed them* inside the Ark. Then he attached the carrying poles to the Ark, and he set the Ark's cover—the place of atonement—on top of it. <sup>21</sup>Then he brought the Ark of the Covenant into the Tabernacle and hung the inner curtain to shield it from view, just as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>22</sup>Next Moses placed the table in the Tabernacle, along the north side of the Holy Place, just outside the inner curtain. <sup>23</sup>And he arranged the Bread of the Presence on the table before the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>24</sup>He set the lampstand in the Tabernacle across from the table on the south side of the Holy Place. <sup>25</sup>Then he lit the lamps in the LORD's presence, just as the LORD had commanded him. <sup>26</sup>He also placed the gold incense altar in the Tabernacle, in the Holy Place in front of the inner curtain. <sup>27</sup>On it he burned the fragrant incense, just as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>28</sup>He hung the curtain at the entrance of the Tabernacle, <sup>29</sup>and he placed the altar of burnt offering near the Tabernacle entrance. On it he offered a burnt offering and a grain offering, just as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>30</sup>Next Moses placed the washbasin between the Tabernacle and the altar. He filled it with water so the priests could wash themselves. <sup>31</sup>Moses and Aaron and Aaron's sons used water from it to wash their hands and feet. <sup>32</sup>Whenever they approached the altar and entered the Tabernacle, they washed themselves, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>33</sup>Then he hung the curtains forming the courtyard around the Tabernacle and the altar. And he set up the curtain at the entrance of the courtyard. So at last Moses finished the work.

The LORD's Glory Fills the Tabernacle

<sup>34</sup>Then the cloud covered the Tabernacle, and the glory of the LORD filled the Tabernacle. <sup>35</sup>Moses could no longer enter the Tabernacle because the cloud had settled down over it, and the glory of the LORD filled the Tabernacle.

<sup>36</sup>Now whenever the cloud lifted from the Tabernacle, the people of Israel would set out on their journey, following it. <sup>37</sup>But if the cloud did not rise, they remained where they were until it lifted. <sup>38</sup>The cloud of the LORD hovered over the Tabernacle during the day, and at night fire glowed inside the cloud so the whole family of Israel could see it. This continued throughout all their journeys.

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

God gives laws covering every aspect of life.

WHO WROTE IT?

Christian and Jewish traditions say the author was Moses.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

In the 1400s B.C.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

Leviticus contains the laws God gave his people while they were camped at Mount Sinai, shortly after Moses received the Ten Commandments.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

HOLINESS.

Members of a championship team stand out from the crowd. They see themselves differently, they act differently, they think differently. If we are God's people, we are called to the highest standard. We are not to be carried away by every new spiritual fad that comes along. Confident in who we are as God's people, we are to live a focused life, never settling for second best. That's what God expects of us.

Procedures for the Burnt Offering

<sup>1</sup>The LORD called to Moses from the Tabernacle* and said to him, <sup>2</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel. When you present an animal as an offering to the LORD, you may take it from your herd of cattle or your flock of sheep and goats.

<sup>3</sup>“If the animal you present as a burnt offering is from the herd, it must be a male with no defects. Bring it to the entrance of the Tabernacle so you* may be accepted by the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Lay your hand on the animal’s head, and the LORD will accept its death in your place to purify you, making you right with him.*

<sup>10</sup>“If the animal you present as a burnt offering is from the flock, it may be either a sheep or a goat, but it must be a male with no defects. <sup>11</sup>Slaughter the animal on the north side of the altar in the LORD’s presence, and Aaron’s sons, the priests, will splatter its blood against all sides of the altar. <sup>12</sup>Then cut the animal in pieces, and the priests will arrange the pieces of the offering, including the head and fat, on the wood burning on the altar. <sup>13</sup>But the internal organs and the legs must first be washed with water. Then the priest will burn the entire sacrifice on the altar as a burnt offering. It is a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>“If you present a bird as a burnt offering to the LORD, choose either a turtledove or a young pigeon. <sup>15</sup>The priest will take the bird to the altar, wring off its head, and burn it on the altar. But first he must drain its blood against the side of the altar. <sup>16</sup>The priest must also remove the crop and the feathers* and throw them in the ashes on the east side of the altar. <sup>17</sup>Then, grasping the bird by its wings, the priest will tear the bird open, but without tearing it apart. Then he will burn it as a burnt offering on the wood burning on the altar. It is a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 2

Procedures for the Grain Offering

<sup>1</sup> “When you present grain as an offering to the LORD, the offering must consist of choice flour. You are to pour olive oil on it, sprinkle it with frankincense,<sup>2</sup> and bring it to Aaron’s sons, the priests. The priest will scoop out a handful of the flour moistened with oil, together with all the frankincense, and burn this representative portion on the altar. It is a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD.<sup>3</sup> The rest of the grain offering will then be given to Aaron and his sons. This offering will be considered a most holy part of the special gifts presented to the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> “If your offering is a grain offering baked in an oven, it must be made of choice flour, but without any yeast. It may be presented in the form of thin cakes mixed with olive oil or wafers spread with olive oil.<sup>5</sup> If your grain offering is cooked on a griddle, it must be made of choice flour mixed with olive oil but without any yeast.<sup>6</sup> Break it in pieces and pour olive oil on it; it is a grain offering.<sup>7</sup> If your grain offering is prepared in a pan, it must be made of choice flour and olive oil.

<sup>8</sup> “No matter how a grain offering for the LORD has been prepared, bring it to the priest, who will present it at the altar.<sup>9</sup> The priest will take a representative portion of the grain offering and burn it on the altar. It is a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD.<sup>10</sup> The rest of the grain offering will then be given to Aaron and his sons as their food. This offering will be considered a most holy part of the special gifts presented to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>“Do not use yeast in preparing any of the grain offerings you present to the LORD, because no yeast or honey may be burned as a special gift presented to the LORD. <sup>12</sup>You may add yeast and honey to an offering of the first crops of your harvest, but these must never be offered on the altar as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>13</sup>Season all your grain offerings with salt to remind you of God’s eternal covenant. Never forget to add salt to your grain offerings.

<sup>14</sup>“If you present a grain offering to the LORD from the first portion of your harvest, bring fresh grain that is coarsely ground and roasted on a fire. <sup>15</sup>Put olive oil on this grain offering, and sprinkle it with frankincense. <sup>16</sup>The priest will take a representative portion of the grain moistened with oil, together with all the frankincense, and burn it as a special gift presented to the LORD.

Leviticus 3

Procedures for the Peace Offering

<sup>1</sup> “If you present an animal from the herd as a peace offering to the LORD, it may be a male or a female, but it must have no defects. <sup>2</sup>Lay your hand on the animal’s head, and slaughter it at the entrance of the Tabernacle.* Then Aaron’s sons, the priests, will splatter its blood against all sides of the altar. <sup>3</sup> The priest must present part of this peace offering as a special gift to the LORD. This includes all the fat around the internal organs, <sup>4</sup>the two kidneys and the fat around them near the loins, and the long lobe of the liver. These must be removed with the kidneys, <sup>5</sup>and Aaron’s sons will burn them on top of the burnt offering on the wood burning on the altar. It is a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> “If you present an animal from the flock as a peace offering to the LORD, it may be a male or a female, but it must have no defects. <sup>7</sup>If you present a sheep as your offering, bring it to the LORD, <sup>8</sup>lay your hand on its head, and slaughter it in front of the Tabernacle. Aaron’s sons will then splatter the sheep’s blood against all sides of the altar. <sup>9</sup>The priest must present the fat of this peace offering as a special gift to the LORD. This includes the fat of the broad tail cut off near the backbone, all the fat around the internal organs, <sup>10</sup>the two kidneys and the fat around them near the loins, and the long lobe of the liver. These must be removed with the kidneys, <sup>11</sup>and the priest will burn them on the altar. It is a special gift of food presented to the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>“If you present a goat as your offering, bring it to the LORD, <sup>13</sup>lay your hand on its head, and slaughter it in front of the Tabernacle. Aaron’s sons will then splatter the goat’s blood against all sides of the altar. <sup>14</sup>The priest must present part of this offering as a special gift to the LORD. This includes all the fat around the internal organs, <sup>15</sup>the two kidneys and the fat around them near the loins, and the long lobe of the liver. These must be removed with the kidneys, <sup>16</sup>and the priest will burn them on the altar. It is a special gift of food, a pleasing aroma to the LORD. All the fat belongs to the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>“You must never eat any fat or blood. This is a permanent law for you, and it must be observed from generation to generation, wherever you live.”

Leviticus 4

Procedures for the Sin Offering

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses,<sup>2</sup> “Give the following instructions to the people of Israel. This is how you are to deal with those who sin unintentionally by doing anything that violates one of the LORD’s commands.

<sup>3</sup> “If the high priest* sins, bringing guilt upon the entire community, he must give a sin offering for the sin he has committed. He must present to the LORD a young bull with no defects. <sup>4</sup>He must bring the bull to the LORD at the entrance of the Tabernacle,* lay his hand on the bull’s head, and slaughter it before the LORD. <sup>5</sup>The high priest will then take some of the bull’s blood into the Tabernacle, <sup>6</sup>dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD in front of the inner curtain of the sanctuary. <sup>7</sup>The priest will then put some of the blood on the horns of the altar for fragrant incense that stands in the LORD’s presence inside the Tabernacle. He will pour out the rest of the bull’s blood at the base of the altar for burnt offerings at the entrance of the Tabernacle. <sup>8</sup>Then the priest must remove all the fat of the bull to be offered as a sin offering. This includes all the fat around the internal organs, <sup>9</sup>the two kidneys and the fat around them near the loins, and the long lobe of the liver. He must remove these along with the kidneys, <sup>10</sup>just as he does with cattle offered as a peace offering, and burn them on the altar of burnt offerings. <sup>11</sup>But he must take whatever is left of the bull—its hide, meat, head, legs, internal organs, and dung—<sup>12</sup>and carry it away to a place outside the camp that is ceremonially clean, the place where the ashes are dumped. There, on the ash heap, he will burn it on a wood fire.

<sup>13</sup>“If the entire Israelite community sins by violating one of the LORD’s commands, but the people don’t realize it, they are still guilty. <sup>14</sup>When they become aware of their sin, the people must bring a young bull as an offering for their sin and present it before the Tabernacle. <sup>15</sup>The elders of the community must then lay their hands on the bull’s head and slaughter it before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>The high priest will then take some of the bull’s blood into the Tabernacle, <sup>17</sup>dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD in front of the inner curtain. <sup>18</sup>He will then put some of the blood on the horns of the altar for fragrant incense that stands in the LORD’s presence inside the Tabernacle. He will pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar for burnt offerings at the entrance of the Tabernacle. <sup>19</sup>Then the priest must remove all the animal’s fat and burn it on the altar, <sup>20</sup>just as he does with the bull offered as a sin offering for the high priest. Through this process, the priest will purify the people, making them right with the LORD,* and they will be forgiven. <sup>21</sup>Then the priest must take what is left of the bull and carry it outside the camp and burn it there, just as is done with the sin offering for the high priest. This offering is for the sin of the entire congregation of Israel.

guilty. <sup>23</sup>When he becomes aware of his sin, he must bring as his offering a male goat with no defects. <sup>24</sup>He must lay his hand on the goat's head and slaughter it at the place where burnt offerings are slaughtered before the LORD. This is an offering for his sin. <sup>25</sup>Then the priest will dip his finger in the blood of the sin offering and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings. He will pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. <sup>26</sup>Then he must burn all the goat's fat on the altar, just as he does with the peace offering. Through this process, the priest will purify the leader from his sin, making him right with the LORD, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>27</sup>“If any of the common people sin by violating one of the LORD's commands, but they don't realize it, they are still guilty. <sup>28</sup>When they become aware of their sin, they must bring as an offering for their sin a female goat with no defects. <sup>29</sup>They must lay a hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it at the place where burnt offerings are slaughtered. <sup>30</sup>Then the priest will dip his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings. He will pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. <sup>31</sup>Then he must remove all the goat's fat, just as he does with the fat of the peace offering. He will burn the fat on the altar, and it will be a pleasing aroma to the LORD. Through this process, the priest will purify the people, making them right with the LORD, and they will be forgiven.

<sup>32</sup>“If the people bring a sheep as their sin offering, it must be a female with no defects. <sup>33</sup>They must lay a hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it at the place where burnt offerings are slaughtered. <sup>34</sup>Then the priest will dip his finger in the blood of the sin offering and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings. He will pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. <sup>35</sup>Then he must remove all the sheep's fat, just as he does with the fat of a sheep presented as a peace offering. He will burn the fat on the altar on top of the special gifts presented to the LORD. Through this process, the priest will purify the people from their sin, making them right with the LORD, and they will be forgiven.

Leviticus 5

Sins Requiring a Sin Offering

<sup>1</sup>“If you are called to testify about something you have seen or that you know about, it is sinful to refuse to testify, and you will be punished for your sin.

<sup>2</sup>“Or suppose you unknowingly touch something that is ceremonially unclean, such as the carcass of an unclean animal. When you realize what you have done, you must admit your defilement and your guilt. This is true whether it is a wild animal, a domestic animal, or an animal that scurries along the ground.

<sup>3</sup>“Or suppose you unknowingly touch something that makes a person unclean. When you realize what you have done, you must admit your guilt.

<sup>4</sup>“Or suppose you make a foolish vow of any kind, whether its purpose is for good or for bad. When you realize its foolishness, you must admit your guilt.

<sup>7</sup>“But if you cannot afford to bring a sheep, you may bring to the LORD two turtledoves or two young pigeons as the penalty for your sin. One of the birds will be for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. <sup>8</sup>You must bring them to the priest, who will present the first bird as the sin offering. He will wring its neck but without severing its head from the body. <sup>9</sup>Then he will sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering against the sides of the altar, and the rest of the blood will be drained out at the base of the altar. This is an offering for sin. <sup>10</sup>The priest will then prepare the second bird as a burnt offering, following all the procedures that have been prescribed. Through this process the priest will purify you from your sin, making you right with the LORD, and you will be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup>“If you cannot afford to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, you may bring two quarts* of choice flour for your sin offering. Since it is an offering for sin, you must not moisten it with olive oil or put any frankincense on it. <sup>12</sup>Take the flour to the priest, who will scoop out a handful as a representative portion. He will burn it on the altar on top of the special gifts presented to the LORD. It is an offering for sin. <sup>13</sup>Through this process, the priest will purify those who are guilty of any of these sins, making them right with the LORD, and they will be forgiven. The rest of the flour will belong to the priest, just as with the grain offering.”

Procedures for the Guilt Offering

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>15</sup>“If one of you commits a sin by unintentionally defiling the LORD’s sacred property, you must bring a guilt offering to the LORD. The offering must be your own ram with no defects, or you may buy one of equal value with silver, as measured by the weight of the sanctuary shekel.* <sup>16</sup>You must make restitution for the sacred property you have harmed by paying for the loss, plus an additional 20 percent. When you give the payment to the priest, he will purify you with the ram sacrificed as a guilt offering, making you right with the LORD, and you will be forgiven.

<sup>17</sup>“Suppose you sin by violating one of the LORD’s commands. Even if you are unaware of what you have done, you are guilty and will be punished for your sin. <sup>18</sup>For a guilt offering, you must bring to the priest your own ram with no defects, or you may buy one of equal value. Through this process the priest will purify you from your unintentional sin, making you right with the LORD, and you will be forgiven. <sup>19</sup>This is a guilt offering, for you have been guilty of an offense against the LORD.”

Leviticus 6

Sins Requiring a Guilt Offering

<sup>1</sup>*Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Suppose one of you sins against your associate and is unfaithful to the LORD. Suppose you cheat in a deal involving a security deposit, or you steal or commit fraud, <sup>3</sup>or you find lost property and lie about it, or you lie while swearing to tell the truth, or you commit any other such sin. <sup>4</sup>If you have sinned in any of these ways, you are guilty. You must give back whatever you stole, or the money you took by extortion, or the security deposit, or the lost property you found, <sup>5</sup>or anything obtained by swearing falsely. You must make restitution by paying the full price plus an additional 20 percent to the person you have harmed. On the same day you must present a guilt offering. <sup>6</sup>As a guilt offering to the LORD, you must bring to the priest your own ram with no defects, or you may buy one of equal value. <sup>7</sup>Through this process, the priest will purify you before the LORD, making you right with him,* and you will be forgiven for any of these sins you have committed.”

Further Instructions for the Burnt Offering

morning, after the priest on duty has put on his official linen clothing and linen undergarments, he must clean out the ashes of the burnt offering and put them beside the altar. <sup>11</sup>Then he must take off these garments, change back into his regular clothes, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a place that is ceremonially clean. <sup>12</sup>Meanwhile, the fire on the altar must be kept burning; it must never go out. Each morning the priest will add fresh wood to the fire and arrange the burnt offering on it. He will then burn the fat of the peace offerings on it. <sup>13</sup>Remember, the fire must be kept burning on the altar at all times. It must never go out.

Further Instructions for the Grain Offering

<sup>14</sup>“These are the instructions regarding the grain offering. Aaron’s sons must present this offering to the LORD in front of the altar. <sup>15</sup>The priest on duty will take from the grain offering a handful of the choice flour moistened with olive oil, together with all the frankincense. He will burn this representative portion on the altar as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>16</sup>Aaron and his sons may eat the rest of the flour, but it must be baked without yeast and eaten in a sacred place within the courtyard of the Tabernacle.* <sup>17</sup>Remember, it must never be prepared with yeast. I have given it to the priests as their share of the special gifts presented to me. Like the sin offering and the guilt offering, it is most holy. <sup>18</sup>Any of Aaron’s male descendants may eat from the special gifts presented to the LORD. This is their permanent right from generation to generation. Anyone or anything that touches these offerings will become holy.”

Procedures for the Ordination Offering

<sup>19</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>20</sup>“On the day Aaron and his sons are anointed, they must present to the LORD a grain offering of two quarts* of choice flour, half to be offered in the morning and half to be offered in the evening. <sup>21</sup>It must be carefully mixed with olive oil and cooked on a griddle. Then slice* this grain offering and present it as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>22</sup>In each generation, the high priest* who succeeds Aaron must prepare this same offering. It belongs to the LORD and must be burned up completely. This is a permanent law. <sup>23</sup>All such grain offerings of a priest must be burned up entirely. None of it may be eaten.”

Further Instructions for the Sin Offering

<sup>24</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>25</sup>“Give Aaron and his sons the following instructions regarding the sin offering. The animal given as an offering for sin is a most holy offering, and it must be slaughtered in the LORD’s presence at the place where the burnt offerings are slaughtered. <sup>26</sup>The priest who offers the sacrifice as a sin offering must eat his portion in a sacred place within the courtyard of the Tabernacle. <sup>27</sup>Anyone or anything that touches the sacrificial meat will become holy. If any of the sacrificial blood spatters on a person’s clothing, the soiled garment must be washed in a sacred place. <sup>28</sup>If a clay pot is used to boil the sacrificial meat, it must then be broken. If a bronze pot is used, it must be scoured and thoroughly rinsed with water. <sup>29</sup>Any male from a priest’s family may eat from this offering; it is most holy.<sup>30</sup> But the offering for sin may not be eaten if its blood was brought into the Tabernacle as an offering for purification* in the Holy Place. It must be completely burned with fire.

Leviticus 7

Further Instructions for the Guilt Offering

<sup>1</sup>“These are the instructions for the guilt offering. It is most holy. <sup>2</sup>The animal sacrificed as a guilt offering must be slaughtered at the place where the burnt offerings are slaughtered, and its blood must be splattered against all sides of the altar. <sup>3</sup>The priest will then offer all its fat on the altar, including the fat of the broad tail, the fat around the internal organs, <sup>4</sup>the two kidneys and the fat around them near the loins, and the long lobe of the liver. These are to be removed with the kidneys, <sup>5</sup>and the priests will burn them on the altar as a special gift presented to the LORD. This is the guilt offering. <sup>6</sup>Any male from a priest’s family may eat the meat. It must be eaten in a sacred place, for it is most holy.

<sup>7</sup>“The same instructions apply to both the guilt offering and the sin offering. Both belong to the priest who uses them to purify someone, making that person right with the LORD.* <sup>8</sup>In the case of the burnt offering, the priest may keep the hide of the sacrificed animal. <sup>9</sup>Any grain offering that has been baked in an oven, prepared in a pan, or cooked on a griddle belongs to the priest who presents it. <sup>10</sup>All other grain offerings, whether made of dry flour or flour moistened with olive oil, are to be shared equally among all the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

Further Instructions for the Peace Offering

<sup>11</sup>“These are the instructions regarding the different kinds of peace offerings that may be presented to the LORD. <sup>12</sup> If you present your peace offering as an expression of thanksgiving, the usual animal sacrifice must be accompanied by various kinds of bread made without yeast—thin cakes mixed with olive oil, wafers spread with oil, and cakes made of choice flour mixed with olive oil. <sup>13</sup> This peace offering of thanksgiving must also be accompanied by loaves of bread made with yeast. <sup>14</sup> One of each kind of bread must be presented as a gift to the LORD. It will then belong to the priest who splatters the blood of the peace offering against the altar. <sup>15</sup> The meat of the peace offering of thanksgiving must be eaten on the same day it is offered. None of it may be saved for the next morning.

<sup>19</sup>“Meat that touches anything ceremonially unclean may not be eaten; it must be completely burned up. The rest of the meat may be eaten, but only by people who are ceremonially clean. <sup>20</sup> If you are ceremonially unclean and you eat meat from a peace offering that was presented to the LORD, you will be cut off from the community. <sup>21</sup>If you touch anything that is unclean (whether it is human defilement or an unclean animal or any other unclean, detestable thing) and then eat meat from a peace offering presented to the LORD, you will be cut off from the community.”

The Forbidden Blood and Fat

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>23</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel. You must never eat fat, whether from cattle, sheep, or goats. <sup>24</sup>The fat of an animal found dead or torn to pieces by wild animals must never be eaten, though it may be used for any other purpose. <sup>25</sup>Anyone who eats fat from an animal presented as a special gift to the LORD will be cut off from the community. <sup>26</sup>No matter where you live, you must never consume the blood of any bird or animal. <sup>27</sup>Anyone who consumes blood will be cut off from the community.”

A Portion for the Priests

<sup>28</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>29</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel. When you present a peace offering to the LORD, bring part of it as a gift to the LORD. <sup>30</sup>Present it to the LORD with your own hands as a special gift to the LORD. Bring the fat of the animal, together with the breast, and lift up the breast as a special offering to the LORD. <sup>31</sup>Then the priest will burn the fat on the altar, but the breast will belong to Aaron and his descendants. <sup>32</sup>Give the right thigh of your peace offering to the priest as a gift. <sup>33</sup>The right thigh must always be given to the priest who offers the blood and the fat of the peace offering.<sup>34</sup> For I have reserved the breast of the special offering and the right thigh of the sacred offering for the priests. It is the permanent right of Aaron and his descendants to share in the peace offerings brought by the people of Israel.<sup>35</sup> This is their rightful share. The special gifts presented to the LORD have been reserved for Aaron and his descendants from the time they were set apart to serve the LORD as priests.<sup>36</sup> On the day they were anointed, the LORD commanded the Israelites to give these portions to the priests as their permanent share from generation to generation.”

<sup>37</sup>These are the instructions for the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering, as well as the ordination offering and the peace offering.<sup>38</sup> The LORD gave these instructions to Moses on Mount Sinai when he commanded the Israelites to present their offerings to the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai.

Leviticus 8

Ordination of the Priests

<sup>10</sup> Then Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the Tabernacle and everything in it, making them holy. <sup>11</sup> He sprinkled the oil on the altar seven times, anointing it and all its utensils, as well as the washbasin and its stand, making them holy. <sup>12</sup> Then he poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head, anointing him and making him holy for his work. <sup>13</sup> Next

Moses presented Aaron's sons. He clothed them in their tunics, tied their sashes around them, and put their special head coverings on them, just as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>18</sup>Then Moses presented the ram for the burnt offering. Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the ram's head, <sup>19</sup>and Moses slaughtered it. Then Moses took the ram's blood and splattered it against all sides of the altar. <sup>20</sup>Then he cut the ram into pieces, and he burned the head, some of its pieces, and the fat on the altar. <sup>21</sup>After washing the internal organs and the legs with water, Moses burned the entire ram on the altar as a burnt offering. It was a pleasing aroma, a special gift presented to the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded him.

Moses presented Aaron's sons and applied some of the blood to the lobes of their right ears, the thumbs of their right hands, and the big toes of their right feet. He then splattered the rest of the blood against all sides of the altar.

<sup>25</sup>Next Moses took the fat, including the fat of the broad tail, the fat around the internal organs, the long lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat around them, along with the right thigh. <sup>26</sup>On top of these he placed a thin cake of bread made without yeast, a cake of bread mixed with olive oil, and a wafer spread with olive oil. All these were taken from the basket of bread made without yeast that was placed in the LORD's presence. <sup>27</sup>He put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons, and he lifted them up as a special offering to the LORD. <sup>28</sup>Moses then took all the offerings back from them and burned them on the altar on top of the burnt offering. This was the ordination offering. It was a pleasing aroma, a special gift presented to the LORD. <sup>29</sup>Then Moses took the breast and lifted it up as a special offering to the LORD. This was Moses' portion of the ram of ordination, just as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>30</sup>Next Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood that was on the altar, and he sprinkled them on Aaron and his garments and on his sons and their garments. In this way, he made Aaron and his sons and their garments holy.

<sup>31</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons, "Boil the remaining meat of the offerings at the Tabernacle entrance, and eat it there, along with the bread that is in the basket of offerings for the ordination, just as I commanded when I said, 'Aaron and his sons will eat it.' <sup>32</sup>Any meat or bread that is left over must then be burned up.<sup>33</sup> You must not leave the Tabernacle entrance for seven days, for that is when the ordination ceremony will be completed.<sup>34</sup> Everything we have done today was commanded by the LORD in order to purify you, making you right with him.*<sup>35</sup> Now stay at the entrance of the Tabernacle day and night for seven days, and do everything the LORD requires. If you fail to do this, you will die, for this is what the LORD has commanded.”<sup>36</sup> So Aaron and his sons did everything the LORD had commanded through Moses.

The Priests Begin Their Work

<sup>1</sup>After the ordination ceremony, on the eighth day, Moses called together Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel. <sup>2</sup>He said to Aaron, “Take a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, both without defects, and present them to the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Then tell the Israelites, ‘Take a male goat for a sin offering, and take a calf and a lamb, both a year old and without defects, for a burnt offering. <sup>4</sup>Also take a bull* and a ram for a peace offering and flour moistened with olive oil for a grain offering. Present all these offerings to the LORD because the LORD will appear to you today.’”

<sup>5</sup>So the people presented all these things at the entrance of the Tabernacle,* just as Moses had commanded. Then the whole community came forward and stood before the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And Moses said, “This is what the LORD has commanded you to do so that the glory of the LORD may appear to you.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, “Come to the altar and sacrifice your sin offering and your burnt offering to purify yourself and the people. Then present the offerings of the people to purify them, making them right with the LORD,* just as he has commanded.”

<sup>8</sup>So Aaron went to the altar and slaughtered the calf as a sin offering for himself. <sup>9</sup>His sons brought him the blood, and he dipped his finger in it and put it on the horns of the altar. He poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. <sup>10</sup>Then he burned on the altar the fat, the kidneys, and the long lobe of the liver from the sin offering, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>11</sup>The meat and the hide, however, he burned outside the camp.

<sup>15</sup>Next Aaron presented the offerings of the people. He slaughtered the people's goat and presented it as an offering for their sin, just as he had first done with the offering for his own sin. <sup>16</sup>Then he presented the burnt offering and sacrificed it in the prescribed way. <sup>17</sup>He also presented the grain offering, burning a handful of the flour mixture on the altar, in addition to the regular burnt offering for the morning.

<sup>18</sup>Then Aaron slaughtered the bull and the ram for the people's peace offering. His sons brought him the blood, and he splattered it against all sides of the altar. <sup>19</sup>Then he took the fat of the bull and the ram—the fat of the broad tail and from around the internal organs—along with the kidneys and the long lobes of the livers. <sup>20</sup>He placed these fat portions on top of the breasts of these animals and burned them on the altar. <sup>21</sup>Aaron then lifted up the breasts and right thighs as a special offering to the LORD, just as Moses had commanded.

<sup>22</sup>After that, Aaron raised his hands toward the people and blessed them. Then, after presenting the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offering, he stepped down from the altar. <sup>23</sup>Then Moses and Aaron went into the Tabernacle, and when they came back out, they blessed the people again, and the glory of the LORD appeared to the whole community. <sup>24</sup>Fire blazed forth from the LORD's presence and consumed the burnt offering and the fat on the altar. When the people saw this, they shouted with joy and fell face down on the ground.

Leviticus 10

The Sin of Nadab and Abihu

<sup>1</sup> Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu put coals of fire in their incense burners and sprinkled incense over them. In this way, they disobeyed the LORD by burning before him the wrong kind of fire, different than he had commanded. <sup>2</sup>So fire blazed forth from the LORD's presence and burned them up, and they died there before the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD meant when he said,

'I will display my holiness through those who come near me.
I will display my glory
before all the people.'"

And Aaron was silent.

<sup>4</sup>Then Moses called for Mishael and Elzaphan, Aaron's cousins, the sons of Aaron's uncle Uzziel. He said to them, "Come forward and carry away the bodies of your relatives from in front of the sanctuary to a place outside the camp." <sup>5</sup>So they came forward and picked them up by their garments and carried them out of the camp, just as Moses had commanded.

<sup>6</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Do not show grief by leaving your hair uncombed* or by tearing your clothes. If you do, you will die, and the LORD's anger will strike the whole community of Israel. However, the rest of the Israelites, your relatives, may mourn because of the LORD's fiery destruction of Nadab and Abihu. <sup>7</sup>But you must not leave the entrance of the Tabernacle* or you will die, for you have been anointed with the LORD's anointing oil." So they did as Moses commanded.

Instructions for Priestly Conduct

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD said to Aaron, <sup>9</sup>"You and your descendants must never drink wine or any other alcoholic drink before going into the Tabernacle. If you do, you will die. This is a permanent law for you, and it must be observed from generation to generation. <sup>10</sup>You must distinguish between what is sacred and what is common, between what is ceremonially unclean and what is clean. <sup>11</sup>And you must teach the Israelites all the decrees that the LORD has given them through Moses."

<sup>12</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron and his remaining sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, "Take what is left of the grain offering after a portion has been presented as a special gift to the LORD, and eat it beside the altar. Make sure it contains no yeast, for it is most holy. <sup>13</sup>You must eat it in a sacred place, for it has been given to you and your descendants as your portion of the special gifts presented to the LORD. These are the commands I have been given. <sup>14</sup>But the breast and thigh that were lifted up as a special offering may be eaten in any place that is ceremonially clean. These parts have been given to you and your descendants as your portion of the peace offerings presented by the people of Israel. <sup>15</sup>You must lift up the thigh and breast as a special offering to the LORD, along with the fat of the special gifts. These parts will belong to you and your descendants as your permanent right, just as the LORD has commanded.”

<sup>16</sup>Moses then asked them what had happened to the goat of the sin offering. When he discovered it had been burned up, he became very angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron’s remaining sons. <sup>17</sup>“Why didn’t you eat the sin offering in the sacred area?” he demanded. “It is a holy offering! The LORD has given it to you to remove the guilt of the community and to purify the people, making them right with the LORD.” <sup>18</sup>Since the animal’s blood was not brought into the Holy Place, you should have eaten the meat in the sacred area as I ordered you.”

<sup>19</sup>Then Aaron answered Moses, “Today my sons presented both their sin offering and their burnt offering to the LORD. And yet this tragedy has happened to me. If I had eaten the people’s sin offering on such a tragic day as this, would the LORD have been pleased?” <sup>20</sup>And when Moses heard this, he was satisfied.

Leviticus 11

Ceremonially Clean and Unclean Animals

“Of all the land animals, these are the ones you may use for food. <sup>3</sup>You may eat any animal that has completely split hooves and chews the cud. <sup>4</sup>You may not, however, eat the following animals* that have split hooves or that chew the cud, but not both. The camel chews the cud but does not have split hooves, so it is ceremonially unclean for you. <sup>5</sup>The hyrax* chews the cud but does not have split hooves, so it is unclean. <sup>6</sup>The hare chews the cud but does not have split hooves, so it is unclean. <sup>7</sup>The pig has evenly split hooves but does not chew the cud, so it is unclean. <sup>8</sup>You may not eat the meat of these animals or even touch their carcasses. They are ceremonially unclean for you.

<sup>9</sup>“Of all the marine animals, these are ones you may use for food. You may eat anything from the water if it has both fins and scales, whether taken from salt water or from streams. <sup>10</sup>But you must never eat animals from the sea or from rivers that do not have both fins and scales. They are detestable to you. This applies both to little creatures that live in shallow water and to all creatures that live in deep water. <sup>11</sup>They will always be detestable to you. You must never eat their meat or even touch their dead bodies. <sup>12</sup>Any marine animal that does not have both fins and scales is detestable to you.

<sup>20</sup>“You must not eat winged insects that walk along the ground; they are detestable to you. <sup>21</sup>You may, however, eat winged insects that walk along the ground and have jointed legs so they can jump. <sup>22</sup>The insects you are permitted to eat include all kinds of locusts, bald locusts, crickets, and grasshoppers. <sup>23</sup>All other winged insects that walk along the ground are detestable to you.

<sup>24</sup>“The following creatures will make you ceremonially unclean. If any of you touch their carcasses, you will be defiled until evening. <sup>25</sup>If you pick up their carcasses, you must wash your clothes, and you will remain defiled until evening.

<sup>26</sup>“Any animal that has split hooves that are not evenly divided or that does not chew the cud is unclean for you. If you touch the carcass of such an animal, you will be defiled. <sup>27</sup>Of the animals that walk on all fours, those that have paws are unclean. If you touch the carcass of such an animal, you will be defiled until evening. <sup>28</sup>If you pick up its carcass, you must wash your clothes, and you will remain defiled until evening. These animals are unclean for you.

are unclean for you: the mole rat, the rat, large lizards of all kinds,<sup>30</sup> the gecko, the monitor lizard, the common lizard, the sand lizard, and the chameleon.<sup>31</sup> All these small animals are unclean for you. If any of you touch the dead body of such an animal, you will be defiled until evening.<sup>32</sup> If such an animal dies and falls on something, that object will be unclean. This is true whether the object is made of wood, cloth, leather, or burlap. Whatever its use, you must dip it in water, and it will remain defiled until evening. After that, it will be ceremonially clean and may be used again.

<sup>33</sup>“If such an animal falls into a clay pot, everything in the pot will be defiled, and the pot must be smashed.<sup>34</sup> If the water from such a container spills on any food, the food will be defiled. And any beverage in such a container will be defiled.<sup>35</sup> Any object on which the carcass of such an animal falls will be defiled. If it is an oven or hearth, it must be destroyed, for it is defiled, and you must treat it accordingly.

<sup>36</sup>“However, if the carcass of such an animal falls into a spring or a cistern, the water will still be clean. But anyone who touches the carcass will be defiled.<sup>37</sup> If the carcass falls on seed grain to be planted in the field, the seed will still be considered clean.<sup>38</sup> But if the seed is wet when the carcass falls on it, the seed will be defiled.

<sup>39</sup>“If an animal you are permitted to eat dies and you touch its carcass, you will be defiled until evening.<sup>40</sup> If you eat any of its meat or carry away its carcass, you must wash your clothes, and you will remain defiled until evening.

detestable, and you must never eat them.<sup>42</sup> This includes all animals that slither along on their bellies, as well as those with four legs and those with many feet. All such animals that scurry along the ground are detestable, and you must never eat them.<sup>43</sup> Do not defile yourselves by touching them. You must not make yourselves ceremonially unclean because of them.<sup>44</sup> For I am the LORD your God. You must consecrate yourselves and be holy, because I am holy. So do not defile yourselves with any of these small animals that scurry along the ground.<sup>45</sup> For I, the LORD, am the one who brought you up from the land of Egypt, that I might be your God. Therefore, you must be holy because I am holy.

<sup>46</sup>“These are the instructions regarding land animals, birds, marine creatures, and animals that scurry along the ground.<sup>47</sup> By these instructions you will know what is unclean and clean, and which animals may be eaten and which may not be eaten.”

What the Bible Says about

Food

Leviticus 12

Purification after Childbirth

<sup>6</sup>“When the time of purification is completed for either a son or a daughter, the woman must bring a one-year-old lamb for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or turtledove for a purification offering. She must bring her offerings to the priest at the entrance of the Tabernacle.* <sup>7</sup>The priest will then present them to the LORD to purify her.* Then she will be ceremonially clean again after her bleeding at childbirth. These are the instructions for a woman after the birth of a son or a daughter.

<sup>8</sup>“If a woman cannot afford to bring a lamb, she must bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons. One will be for the burnt offering and the other for the purification offering. The priest will sacrifice them to purify her, and she will be ceremonially clean.”

Leviticus 13

Serious Skin Diseases

<sup>4</sup>“But if the affected area of the skin is only a white discoloration and does not appear to be more than skin-deep, and if the hair on the spot has not turned white, the priest will quarantine the person for seven days. <sup>5</sup>On the seventh day the priest will make another examination. If he finds the affected area has not changed and the problem has not spread on the skin, the priest will quarantine the person for seven more days. <sup>6</sup>On the seventh day the priest will make another examination. If he finds the affected area has faded and has not spread, the priest will pronounce the person ceremonially clean. It was only a rash. The person’s clothing must be washed, and the person will be ceremonially clean. <sup>7</sup>But if the rash continues to spread after the person has been examined by the priest and has been pronounced clean, the infected person must return to be examined again. <sup>8</sup>If the priest finds that the rash has spread, he must pronounce the person ceremonially unclean, for it is indeed a skin disease.

<sup>9</sup>“Anyone who develops a serious skin disease must go to the priest for an examination. <sup>10</sup>If the priest finds a white swelling on the skin, and some hair on the spot has turned white, and there is an open sore in the affected area, <sup>11</sup>it is a chronic skin disease, and the priest must pronounce the person ceremonially unclean. In such cases the person need not be quarantined, for it is obvious that the skin is defiled by the disease.

<sup>12</sup>“Now suppose the disease has spread all over the person’s skin, covering the body from head to foot. <sup>13</sup>When the priest examines the infected person and finds that the disease covers the entire body, he will pronounce the person ceremonially clean. Since the skin has turned completely white, the person is clean. <sup>14</sup>But if any open sores appear, the infected person will be pronounced ceremonially unclean. <sup>15</sup>The priest must make this pronouncement as soon as he sees an open sore, since open sores indicate the presence of a skin disease. <sup>16</sup>However, if the open sores heal and turn white like the rest of the skin, the person must return to the priest <sup>17</sup>for another examination. If the affected areas have indeed turned white, the priest will then pronounce the person ceremonially clean by declaring, ‘You are clean!’

<sup>18</sup>“If anyone has a boil on the skin that has started to heal, <sup>19</sup>but a white swelling or a reddish white spot develops in its place, that person must go to the priest to be examined. <sup>20</sup>If the priest examines it and finds it to be more than skin-deep, and if the hair in the affected area has turned white, the priest must pronounce the person ceremonially unclean. The boil has become a serious skin disease.<sup>21</sup> But if the priest finds no white hair on the affected area and the problem appears to be no more than skin-deep and has faded, the priest must quarantine the person for seven days.<sup>22</sup> If during that time the affected area spreads on the skin, the priest must pronounce the person ceremonially unclean, because it is a serious disease.<sup>23</sup> But if the area grows no larger and does not spread, it is merely the scar from the boil, and the priest will pronounce the person ceremonially clean.

<sup>24</sup>“If anyone has suffered a burn on the skin and the burned area changes color, becoming either reddish white or shiny white,<sup>25</sup> the priest must examine it. If he finds that the hair in the affected area has turned white and the problem appears to be more than skin-deep, a skin disease has broken out in the burn. The priest must then pronounce the person ceremonially unclean, for it is clearly a serious skin disease.<sup>26</sup> But if the priest finds no white hair on the affected area and the problem appears to be no more than skin-deep and has faded, the priest must quarantine the infected person for seven days.<sup>27</sup> On the seventh day the priest must examine the person again. If the affected area has spread on the skin, the priest must pronounce that person ceremonially unclean, for it is clearly a serious skin disease.<sup>28</sup> But if the affected area has not changed or spread on the skin and has faded, it is simply a swelling from the burn. The priest will then pronounce the person ceremonially clean, for it is only the scar from the burn.

or chin,<sup>30</sup> the priest must examine it. If he finds it is more than skin-deep and has fine yellow hair on it, the priest must pronounce the person ceremonially unclean. It is a scabby sore of the head or chin.<sup>31</sup> If the priest examines the scabby sore and finds that it is only skin-deep but there is no black hair on it, he must quarantine the person for seven days.<sup>32</sup> On the seventh day the priest must examine the sore again. If he finds that the scabby sore has not spread, and there is no yellow hair on it, and it appears to be only skin-deep,<sup>33</sup> the person must shave off all hair except the hair on the affected area. Then the priest must quarantine the person for another seven days.<sup>34</sup> On the seventh day he will examine the sore again. If it has not spread and appears to be no more than skin-deep, the priest will pronounce the person ceremonially clean. The person's clothing must be washed, and the person will be ceremonially clean.<sup>35</sup> But if the scabby sore begins to spread after the person is pronounced clean,<sup>36</sup> the priest must do another examination. If he finds that the sore has spread, the priest does not need to look for yellow hair. The infected person is ceremonially unclean.<sup>37</sup> But if the color of the scabby sore does not change and black hair has grown on it, it has healed. The priest will then pronounce the person ceremonially clean.

<sup>38</sup>“If anyone, either a man or woman, has shiny white patches on the skin,<sup>39</sup> the priest must examine the affected area. If he finds that the shiny patches are only pale white, this is a harmless skin rash, and the person is ceremonially clean.

<sup>40</sup>“If a man loses his hair and his head becomes bald, he is still ceremonially clean.<sup>41</sup> And if he loses hair on his forehead, he simply has a bald forehead; he is still clean.<sup>42</sup> However, if a reddish white sore appears on the bald area at the top or back of his head, this is a skin disease.<sup>43</sup> The priest must examine him, and if he finds swelling around the reddish white sore anywhere on the man's head and it looks like a skin disease,<sup>44</sup> the man is indeed infected with a skin disease and is unclean. The priest must pronounce him ceremonially unclean because of the sore on his head.

<sup>45</sup>“Those who suffer from a serious skin disease must tear their clothing and leave their hair uncombed.* They must cover their mouth and call out, ‘Unclean! Unclean!’<sup>46</sup> As long as the serious disease lasts, they will be ceremonially unclean. They must live in isolation in their place outside the camp.

Treatment of Contaminated Clothing

<sup>47</sup>“Now suppose mildew* contaminates some woolen or linen clothing,<sup>48</sup> woolen or linen fabric, the hide of an animal, or anything made of leather.<sup>49</sup> If the contaminated area in the clothing, the animal hide, the fabric, or the leather article has turned greenish or reddish, it is contaminated with mildew and must be shown to the priest.<sup>50</sup> After examining the affected spot, the priest will put the article in quarantine for seven days.<sup>51</sup> On the seventh day the priest must inspect it again. If the contaminated area has spread, the clothing or fabric or leather is clearly contaminated by a serious mildew and is ceremonially unclean.<sup>52</sup> The priest must burn the item—the clothing, the woolen or linen fabric, or piece of leather—for it has been contaminated by a serious mildew. It must be completely destroyed by fire.

<sup>53</sup>“But if the priest examines it and finds that the contaminated area has not spread in the clothing, the fabric, or the leather, <sup>54</sup>the priest will order the object to be washed and then quarantined for seven more days. <sup>55</sup>Then the priest must examine the object again. If he finds that the contaminated area has not changed color after being washed, even if it did not spread, the object is defiled. It must be completely burned up, whether the contaminated spot* is on the inside or outside.

<sup>56</sup>But if the priest examines it and finds that the contaminated area has faded after being washed, he must cut the spot from the clothing, the fabric, or the leather. <sup>57</sup>If the spot later reappears on the clothing, the fabric, or the leather article, the mildew is clearly spreading, and the contaminated object must be burned up. <sup>58</sup>But if the spot disappears from the clothing, the fabric, or the leather article after it has been washed, it must be washed again; then it will be ceremonially clean.

<sup>59</sup>“These are the instructions for dealing with mildew that contaminates woolen or linen clothing or fabric or anything made of leather. This is how the priest will determine whether these items are ceremonially clean or unclean.”

Leviticus 14

Cleansing from Skin Diseases

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“The following instructions are for those seeking ceremonial purification from a skin disease.* Those who have been healed must be brought to the priest, <sup>3</sup>who will examine them at a place outside the camp. If the priest finds that someone has been healed of a serious skin disease, <sup>4</sup>he will perform a purification ceremony, using two live birds that are ceremonially clean, a stick of cedar,* some scarlet yarn, and a hyssop branch. <sup>5</sup>The priest will order that one bird be slaughtered over a clay pot filled with fresh water. <sup>6</sup>He will take the live bird, the cedar stick, the scarlet yarn, and the hyssop branch, and dip them into the blood of the bird that was slaughtered over the fresh water. <sup>7</sup>The priest will then sprinkle the blood of the dead bird seven times on the person being purified of the skin disease. When the priest has purified the person, he will release the live bird in the open field to fly away.

<sup>10</sup>“On the eighth day each person being purified must bring two male lambs and a one-year-old female lamb, all with no defects, along with a grain offering of six quarts* of choice flour moistened with olive oil, and a cup* of olive oil. <sup>11</sup>Then the officiating priest will present that person for purification, along with the offerings, before the LORD at the entrance of the Tabernacle.* <sup>12</sup>The priest will take one of the male lambs and the olive oil and present them as a guilt offering, lifting them up as a special offering before the LORD. <sup>13</sup>He will then slaughter the male lamb in the sacred area where sin offerings and burnt offerings are slaughtered. As with the sin offering, the guilt offering belongs to the priest. It is a most holy offering. <sup>14</sup>The priest will then take some of the blood of the guilt offering and apply it to the lobe of the right ear, the thumb of the right hand, and the big toe of the right foot of the person being purified.

<sup>19</sup>“Then the priest must present the sin offering to purify the person who was cured of the skin disease. After that, the priest will slaughter the burnt offering <sup>20</sup>and offer it on the altar along with the grain offering. Through this process, the priest will purify the person who was healed, and the person will be ceremonially clean.

<sup>21</sup>“But anyone who is too poor and cannot afford these offerings may bring one male lamb for a guilt offering, to be lifted up as a special offering for purification. The person must also bring two quarts* of choice flour moistened with olive oil for the grain offering and a cup of olive oil. <sup>22</sup>The offering must also include two turtledoves or two young pigeons, whichever the person can afford. One of the pair must be used for the sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. <sup>23</sup>On the eighth day of the purification ceremony, the person being purified must bring the offerings to the priest in the LORD’s presence at the entrance of the Tabernacle. <sup>24</sup>The priest will take the lamb for the guilt offering, along with the olive oil, and lift them up as a special offering to the LORD. <sup>25</sup>Then the priest will slaughter the lamb for the guilt offering. He will take some of its blood and apply it to the lobe of the right ear, the thumb of the right hand, and the big toe of the right foot of the person being purified.

the LORD.

<sup>30</sup>“Then the priest will offer the two turtledoves or the two young pigeons, whichever the person can afford. <sup>31</sup>One of them is for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, to be presented along with the grain offering. Through this process, the priest will purify the person before the LORD. <sup>32</sup>These are the instructions for purification for those who have recovered from a serious skin disease but who cannot afford to bring the offerings normally required for the ceremony of purification.”

Treatment of Contaminated Houses

<sup>33</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>34</sup>“When you arrive in Canaan, the land I am giving you as your own possession, I may contaminate some of the houses in your land with mildew.* <sup>35</sup>The owner of such a house must then go to the priest and say, ‘It appears that my house has some kind of mildew.’ <sup>36</sup>Before the priest goes in to inspect the house, he must have the house emptied so nothing inside will be pronounced ceremonially unclean. <sup>37</sup>Then the priest will go in and examine the mildew on the walls. If he finds greenish or reddish streaks and the contamination appears to go deeper than the wall’s surface, <sup>38</sup>the priest will step outside the door and put the house in quarantine for seven days. <sup>39</sup>On the seventh day the priest must return for another inspection. If he finds that the mildew on the walls of the house has spread, <sup>40</sup>the priest must order that the stones from those areas be removed. The contaminated material will then be taken outside the town to an area designated as ceremonially unclean.<sup>41</sup>Next the inside walls of the entire house must be scraped thoroughly and the scrapings dumped in the unclean place outside the town.<sup>42</sup>Other stones will be brought in to replace the ones that were removed, and the walls will be replastered.

<sup>43</sup>“But if the mildew reappears after all the stones have been replaced and the house has been scraped and replastered,<sup>44</sup>the priest must return and inspect the house again. If he finds that the mildew has spread, the walls are clearly contaminated with a serious mildew, and the house is defiled.<sup>45</sup>It must be torn down, and all its stones, timbers, and plaster must be carried out of town to the place designated as ceremonially unclean.<sup>46</sup>Those who enter the house during the period of quarantine will be ceremonially unclean until evening,<sup>47</sup>and all who sleep or eat in the house must wash their clothing.

<sup>48</sup>“But if the priest returns for his inspection and finds that the mildew has not reappeared in the house after the fresh plastering, he will pronounce it clean because the mildew is clearly gone.<sup>49</sup>To purify the house the priest must take two birds, a stick of cedar, some scarlet yarn, and a hyssop branch.<sup>50</sup>He will slaughter one of the birds over a clay pot filled with fresh water.<sup>51</sup>He will take the cedar stick, the hyssop branch, the scarlet yarn, and the live bird, and dip them into the blood of the slaughtered bird and into the fresh water. Then he will sprinkle the house seven times.<sup>52</sup>When the priest has purified the house in exactly this way,<sup>53</sup>he will release the live bird in the open fields outside the town. Through this process, the priest will purify the house, and it will be ceremonially clean.

Leviticus 15

Bodily Discharges

“Any man who has a bodily discharge is ceremonially unclean. <sup>3</sup>This defilement is caused by his discharge, whether the discharge continues or stops. In either case the man is unclean. <sup>4</sup>Any bed on which the man with the discharge lies and anything on which he sits will be ceremonially unclean. <sup>5</sup>So if you touch the man’s bed, you must wash your clothes and bathe yourself in water, and you will remain unclean until evening. <sup>6</sup>If you sit where the man with the discharge has sat, you must wash your clothes and bathe yourself in water, and you will remain unclean until evening. <sup>7</sup>If you touch the man with the discharge, you must wash your clothes and bathe yourself in water, and you will remain unclean until evening. <sup>8</sup>If the man spits on you, you must wash your clothes and bathe yourself in water, and you will remain unclean until evening. <sup>9</sup>Any saddle blanket on which the man rides will be ceremonially unclean. <sup>10</sup>If you touch anything that was under the man, you will be unclean until evening. You must wash your clothes and bathe yourself in water, and you will remain unclean until evening. <sup>11</sup>If the man touches you without first rinsing his hands, you must wash your clothes and bathe yourself in water, and you will remain unclean until evening.

<sup>13</sup>“When the man with the discharge is healed, he must count off seven days for the period of purification. Then he must wash his clothes and bathe himself in fresh water, and he will be ceremonially clean. <sup>14</sup>On the eighth day he must get two turtledoves or two young pigeons and come before the LORD at the entrance of the Tabernacle* and give his offerings to the priest. <sup>15</sup>The priest will offer one bird for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. Through this process, the priest will purify* the man before the LORD for his discharge.

<sup>16</sup>“Whenever a man has an emission of semen, he must bathe his entire body in water, and he will remain ceremonially unclean until the next evening.* <sup>17</sup>Any clothing or leather with semen on it must be washed in water, and it will remain unclean until evening. <sup>18</sup>After a man and a woman have sexual intercourse, they must each bathe in water, and they will remain unclean until the next evening.

<sup>19</sup>“Whenever a woman has her menstrual period, she will be ceremonially unclean for seven days. Anyone who touches her during that time will be unclean until evening. <sup>20</sup>Anything on which the woman lies or sits during the time of her period will be unclean. <sup>21</sup>If any of you touch her bed, you must wash your clothes and bathe yourself in water, and you will remain unclean until evening. <sup>22</sup>If you touch any object she has sat on, you must wash your clothes and bathe yourself in water, and you will remain unclean until evening. <sup>23</sup>This includes her bed or any other object she has sat on; you will be unclean until evening if you touch it. <sup>24</sup>If a man has sexual intercourse with her and her blood touches him, her menstrual impurity will be transmitted to him. He will remain unclean for seven days, and any bed on which he lies will be unclean.

<sup>25</sup>“If a woman has a flow of blood for many days that is unrelated to her menstrual period, or if the blood continues beyond the normal period, she is ceremonially unclean. As during her menstrual period, the woman will be unclean as long as the discharge continues. <sup>26</sup>Any bed she lies on and any object she sits on during that time will be unclean, just as during her normal menstrual period. <sup>27</sup>If any of you touch these things, you will be ceremonially unclean. You must wash your clothes and bathe yourself in water, and you will remain unclean until evening.

<sup>28</sup>“When the woman’s bleeding stops, she must count off seven days. Then she will be ceremonially clean. <sup>29</sup>On the eighth day she must bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons and present them to the priest at the entrance of the Tabernacle. <sup>30</sup>The priest will offer one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. Through this process, the priest will purify her before the LORD for the ceremonial impurity caused by her bleeding.

<sup>31</sup>“This is how you will guard the people of Israel from ceremonial uncleanness. Otherwise they would die, for their impurity would defile my Tabernacle that stands among them.

applies to any man or woman who has a bodily discharge, and to a man who has sexual intercourse with a woman who is ceremonially unclean.”

Leviticus 16

The Day of Atonement

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of Aaron's two sons, who died after they entered the LORD's presence and burned the wrong kind of fire before him. <sup>2</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Warn your brother, Aaron, not to enter the Most Holy Place behind the inner curtain whenever he chooses; if he does, he will die. For the Ark's cover—the place of atonement—is there, and I myself am present in the cloud above the atonement cover.

<sup>3</sup>"When Aaron enters the sanctuary area, he must follow these instructions fully. He must bring a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering. <sup>4</sup>He must put on his linen tunic and the linen undergarments worn next to his body. He must tie the linen sash around his waist and put the linen turban on his head. These are sacred garments, so he must bathe himself in water before he puts them on. <sup>5</sup>Aaron must take from the community of Israel two male goats for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

Azazel.<sup>9</sup> Aaron will then present as a sin offering the goat chosen by lot for the LORD.<sup>10</sup> The other goat, the scapegoat chosen by lot to be sent away, will be kept alive, standing before the LORD. When it is sent away to Azazel in the wilderness, the people will be purified and made right with the LORD.*

<sup>11</sup>“Aaron will present his own bull as a sin offering to purify himself and his family, making them right with the LORD. After he has slaughtered the bull as a sin offering,<sup>12</sup> he will fill an incense burner with burning coals from the altar that stands before the LORD. Then he will take two handfuls of fragrant powdered incense and will carry the burner and the incense behind the inner curtain.<sup>13</sup> There in the LORD’s presence he will put the incense on the burning coals so that a cloud of incense will rise over the Ark’s cover—the place of atonement—that rests on the Ark of the Covenant.* If he follows these instructions, he will not die.<sup>14</sup> Then he must take some of the blood of the bull, dip his finger in it, and sprinkle it on the east side of the atonement cover. He must sprinkle blood seven times with his finger in front of the atonement cover.

<sup>15</sup>“Then Aaron must slaughter the first goat as a sin offering for the people and carry its blood behind the inner curtain. There he will sprinkle the goat’s blood over the atonement cover and in front of it, just as he did with the bull’s blood.<sup>16</sup> Through this process, he will purify* the Most Holy Place, and he will do the same for the entire Tabernacle, because of the defiling sin and rebellion of the Israelites.<sup>17</sup> No one else is allowed inside the Tabernacle when Aaron enters it for the purification ceremony in the Most Holy Place. No one may enter until he comes out again after purifying himself, his family, and all the congregation of Israel, making them right with the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>“Then Aaron will come out to purify the altar that stands before the LORD. He will do this by taking some of the blood from the bull and the goat and putting it on each of the horns of the altar. <sup>19</sup>Then he must sprinkle the blood with his finger seven times over the altar. In this way, he will cleanse it from Israel’s defilement and make it holy.

<sup>20</sup>“When Aaron has finished purifying the Most Holy Place and the Tabernacle and the altar, he must present the live goat. <sup>21</sup>He will lay both of his hands on the goat’s head and confess over it all the wickedness, rebellion, and sins of the people of Israel. In this way, he will transfer the people’s sins to the head of the goat. Then a man specially chosen for the task will drive the goat into the wilderness. <sup>22</sup> As the goat goes into the wilderness, it will carry all the people’s sins upon itself into a desolate land.

<sup>23</sup>“When Aaron goes back into the Tabernacle, he must take off the linen garments he was wearing when he entered the Most Holy Place, and he must leave the garments there. <sup>24</sup>Then he must bathe himself with water in a sacred place, put on his regular garments, and go out to sacrifice a burnt offering for himself and a burnt offering for the people. Through this process, he will purify himself and the people, making them right with the LORD. <sup>25</sup>He must then burn all the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

<sup>26</sup>“The man chosen to drive the scapegoat into the wilderness of Azazel must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water. Then he may return to the camp.

<sup>27</sup>“The bull and the goat presented as sin offerings, whose blood Aaron takes into the Most Holy Place for the purification ceremony, will be carried outside the camp. The animals’ hides, internal organs, and dung are all to be burned. <sup>28</sup>The man who burns them must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water before returning to the camp.

<sup>29</sup>“On the tenth day of the appointed month in early autumn,* you must deny yourselves.* Neither native-born Israelites nor foreigners living among you may do any kind of work. This is a permanent law for you. <sup>30</sup>On that day offerings of purification will be made for you,* and you will be purified in the LORD’s presence from all your sins. <sup>31</sup>It will be a Sabbath day of complete rest for you, and you must deny yourselves. This is a permanent law for you. <sup>32</sup>In future generations, the purification* ceremony will be performed by the priest who has been anointed and ordained to serve as high priest in place of his ancestor Aaron. He will put on the holy linen garments <sup>33</sup>and purify the Most Holy Place, the Tabernacle, the altar, the priests, and the entire congregation. <sup>34</sup>This is a permanent law for you, to purify the people of Israel from their sins, making them right with the LORD once each year.”

Moses followed all these instructions exactly as the LORD had commanded him.

Leviticus 17

Prohibitions against Eating Blood

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Give the following instructions to Aaron and his sons and all the people of Israel. This is what the LORD has commanded.

<sup>3</sup>“If any native Israelite sacrifices a bull* or a lamb or a goat anywhere inside or outside the camp <sup>4</sup>instead of bringing it to the entrance of the Tabernacle* to present it as an offering to the LORD, that person will be as guilty as a murderer.* Such a person has shed blood and will be cut off from the community.

<sup>5</sup>The purpose of this rule is to stop the Israelites from sacrificing animals in the open fields. It will ensure that they bring their sacrifices to the priest at the entrance of the Tabernacle, so he can present them to the LORD as peace offerings. <sup>6</sup>Then the priest will be able to splatter the blood against the LORD’s altar at the entrance of the Tabernacle, and he will burn the fat as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>The people must no longer be unfaithful to the LORD by offering sacrifices to the goat idols.* This is a permanent law for them, to be observed from generation to generation.

<sup>8</sup>“Give them this command as well. If any native Israelite or foreigner living among you offers a burnt offering or a sacrifice <sup>9</sup>but does not bring it to the entrance of the Tabernacle to offer it to the LORD, that person will be cut off from the community.

eats or drinks blood in any form, I will turn against that person and cut him off from the community of your people,<sup>11</sup> for the life of the body is in its blood. I have given you the blood on the altar to purify you, making you right with the LORD.* It is the blood, given in exchange for a life, that makes purification possible.<sup>12</sup> That is why I have said to the people of Israel, ‘You must never eat or drink blood—neither you nor the foreigners living among you.’

<sup>13</sup>“And if any native Israelite or foreigner living among you goes hunting and kills an animal or bird that is approved for eating, he must drain its blood and cover it with earth.<sup>14</sup> The life of every creature is in its blood. That is why I have said to the people of Israel, ‘You must never eat or drink blood, for the life of any creature is in its blood.’ So whoever consumes blood will be cut off from the community.

<sup>15</sup>“And if any native-born Israelites or foreigners eat the meat of an animal that died naturally or was torn up by wild animals, they must wash their clothes and bathe themselves in water. They will remain ceremonially unclean until evening, but then they will be clean.<sup>16</sup> But if they do not wash their clothes and bathe themselves, they will be punished for their sin.”

Leviticus 18

Forbidden Sexual Practices

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel. I am the LORD your God. <sup>3</sup>So do not act like the people in Egypt, where you used to live, or like the people of Canaan, where I am taking you. You must not imitate their way of life. <sup>4</sup>You must obey all my regulations and be careful to obey my decrees, for I am the LORD your God. <sup>5</sup>If you obey my decrees and my regulations, you will find life through them. I am the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> “You must never have sexual relations with a close relative, for I am the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> “Do not violate your father by having sexual relations with your mother. She is your mother; you must not have sexual relations with her.

<sup>9</sup> “Do not have sexual relations with your sister or half sister, whether she is your father’s daughter or your mother’s daughter, whether she was born into your household or someone else’s.

<sup>10</sup> “Do not have sexual relations with your granddaughter, whether she is your son’s daughter or your daughter’s daughter, for this would violate yourself.

daughter of any of your father's wives, for she is your sister.

OFF LIMITS

God didn't beat around the bush on which sexual partners were out of bounds. Here's his list from Leviticus 18.

A close relative..... (v. 6)	Your brother's wife ..... (v. 16)
Your mother ..... (v. 7)	Any two women in the same clan..... (v. 17)
Your stepmother..... (v. 8)	Your wife's sister..... (v. 18)
Your sister or half sister..... (v. 9, 11)	Any woman having her period.... (v. 19)
Your granddaughter ..... (v. 10)	Your neighbor's wife ..... (v. 20)
Your aunt..... (v. 12-14)	Any same-sex partner..... (v. 22)
Your daughter-in-law..... (v. 15)	Any animal..... (v. 23)

<sup>21</sup>“Do not permit any of your children to be offered as a sacrifice to Molech, for you must not bring shame on the name of your God. I am the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>“A man must not defile himself by having sex with an animal. And a woman must not offer herself to a male animal to have intercourse with it. This is a perverse act.

<sup>24</sup> “Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways, for the people I am driving out before you have defiled themselves in all these ways. <sup>25</sup>Because the entire land has become defiled, I am punishing the people who live there. I will cause the land to vomit them out. <sup>26</sup>You must obey all my decrees and regulations. You must not commit any of these detestable sins. This applies both to native-born Israelites and to the foreigners living among you.

<sup>27</sup>“All these detestable activities are practiced by the people of the land where I am taking you, and this is how the land has become defiled. <sup>28</sup>So do not defile the land and give it a reason to vomit you out, as it will vomit out the people who live there now. <sup>29</sup>Whoever commits any of these detestable sins will be cut off from the community of Israel. <sup>30</sup>So obey my instructions, and do not defile yourselves by committing any of these detestable practices that were committed by the people who lived in the land before you. I am the LORD your God.”

Leviticus 19

Holiness in Personal Conduct

<sup>1</sup> The LORD also said to Moses,<sup>2</sup>“Give the following instructions to the entire community of Israel. You must be holy because I, the LORD your God, am holy.

<sup>3</sup>“Each of you must show great respect for your mother and father, and you must always observe my Sabbath days of rest. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>4</sup>“Do not put your trust in idols or make metal images of gods for yourselves. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>5</sup>“When you sacrifice a peace offering to the LORD, offer it properly so you* will be accepted by God. <sup>6</sup>The sacrifice must be eaten on the same day you offer it or on the next day. Whatever is left over until the third day must be completely burned up. <sup>7</sup>If any of the sacrifice is eaten on the third day, it will be contaminated, and I will not accept it. <sup>8</sup>Anyone who eats it on the third day will be punished for defiling what is holy to the LORD and will be cut off from the community.

<sup>9</sup>“When you harvest the crops of your land, do not harvest the grain along the edges of your fields, and do not pick up what the harvesters drop. <sup>10</sup>It is the same with your grape crop—do not strip every last bunch of grapes from the vines, and do not pick up the grapes that fall to the ground. Leave them for the poor and the foreigners living among you. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>12</sup> “Do not bring shame on the name of your God by using it to swear falsely. I am the LORD.

“Do not make your hired workers wait until the next day to receive their pay.

<sup>14</sup> “Do not insult the deaf or cause the blind to stumble. You must fear your God; I am the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> “Do not twist justice in legal matters by favoring the poor or being partial to the rich and powerful. Always judge people fairly.

“Do not stand idly by when your neighbor’s life is threatened. I am the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> “Do not nurse hatred in your heart for any of your relatives.* Confront people directly so you will not be held guilty for their sin.

<sup>18</sup> “Do not seek revenge or bear a grudge against a fellow Israelite, but love your neighbor as yourself. I am the LORD.

<sup>19</sup> “You must obey all my decrees.

“Do not mate two different kinds of animals. Do not plant your field with two different kinds of seed. Do not wear clothing woven from two different kinds of thread.

<sup>20</sup> “If a man has sex with a slave girl whose freedom has never been purchased but who is committed to become another man’s wife, he must pay full compensation to her master. But since she is not a free woman, neither the man nor the woman will be put to death. <sup>21</sup>The man, however, must bring a ram as a guilt offering and present it to the LORD at the entrance of the Tabernacle.* <sup>22</sup>The priest will then purify him* before the LORD with the ram of the guilt offering, and the man's sin will be forgiven.

<sup>23</sup>“When you enter the land and plant fruit trees, leave the fruit unharvested for the first three years and consider it forbidden.* Do not eat it. <sup>24</sup>In the fourth year the entire crop must be consecrated to the LORD as a celebration of praise. <sup>25</sup>Finally, in the fifth year you may eat the fruit. If you follow this pattern, your harvest will increase. I am the LORD your God.

“Do not practice fortune-telling or witchcraft.

<sup>29</sup>“Do not defile your daughter by making her a prostitute, or the land will be filled with prostitution and wickedness.

<sup>30</sup>“Keep my Sabbath days of rest, and show reverence toward my sanctuary. I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>“Do not defile yourselves by turning to mediums or to those who consult the spirits of the dead. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>32</sup>“Stand up in the presence of the elderly, and show respect for the aged. Fear your God. I am the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>“Do not take advantage of foreigners who live among you in your land. <sup>34</sup>Treat them like native-born Israelites, and love them as you love yourself. Remember that you were once foreigners living in the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>35</sup>“Do not use dishonest standards when measuring length, weight, or volume. <sup>36</sup>Your scales and weights must be accurate. Your containers for measuring dry materials or liquids must be accurate.* I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>37</sup>“You must be careful to keep all of my decrees and regulations by putting them into practice. I am the LORD.”

Leviticus 20

Punishments for Disobedience

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Give the people of Israel these instructions, which apply both to native Israelites and to the foreigners living in Israel.

“If any of them offer their children as a sacrifice to Molech, they must be put to death. The people of the community must stone them to death. <sup>3</sup>I myself will turn against them and cut them off from the community, because they have defiled my sanctuary and brought shame on my holy name by offering their children to Molech. <sup>4</sup>And if the people of the community ignore those who offer their children to Molech and refuse to execute them, <sup>5</sup>I myself will turn against them and their families and will cut them off from the community. This will happen to all who commit spiritual prostitution by worshiping Molech.

<sup>6</sup>“I will also turn against those who commit spiritual prostitution by putting their trust in mediums or in those who consult the spirits of the dead. I will cut them off from the community. <sup>7</sup>So set yourselves apart to be holy, for I am the LORD your God. <sup>8</sup>Keep all my decrees by putting them into practice, for I am the LORD who makes you holy.

<sup>9</sup>“Anyone who dishonors * father or mother must be put to death. Such a person is guilty of a capital offense.

<sup>10</sup>“If a man commits adultery with his neighbor’s wife, both the man and the woman who have committed adultery must be put to death.

<sup>11</sup>“If a man violates his father by having sex with one of his father’s wives, both the man and the woman must be put to death, for they are guilty of a capital offense.

<sup>12</sup>“If a man has sex with his daughter-in-law, both must be put to death. They have committed a perverse act and are guilty of a capital offense.

<sup>13</sup>“If a man practices homosexuality, having sex with another man as with a woman, both men have committed a detestable act. They must both be put to death, for they are guilty of a capital offense.

<sup>14</sup>“If a man marries both a woman and her mother, he has committed a wicked act. The man and both women must be burned to death to wipe out such wickedness from among you.

<sup>15</sup>“If a man has sex with an animal, he must be put to death, and the animal must be killed.

<sup>16</sup>“If a woman presents herself to a male animal to have intercourse with it, she and the animal must both be put to death. You must kill both, for they are guilty of a capital offense.

<sup>17</sup>“If a man marries his sister, the daughter of either his father or his mother, and they have sexual relations, it is a shameful disgrace. They must be publicly cut off from the community. Since the man has violated his sister, he will be punished for his sin.

<sup>18</sup>“If a man has sexual relations with a woman during her menstrual period, both of them must be cut off from the community, for together they have exposed the source of her blood flow.

<sup>19</sup>“Do not have sexual relations with your aunt, whether your mother’s sister or your father’s sister. This would dishonor a close relative. Both parties are guilty and will be punished for their sin.

<sup>20</sup>“If a man has sex with his uncle’s wife, he has violated his uncle. Both the man and woman will be punished for their sin, and they will die childless.

<sup>21</sup>“If a man marries his brother’s wife, it is an act of impurity. He has violated his brother, and the guilty couple will remain childless.

<sup>22</sup>“You must keep all my decrees and regulations by putting them into practice; otherwise the land to which I am bringing you as your new home will vomit you out. <sup>23</sup>Do not live according to the customs of the people I am driving out before you. It is because they do these shameful things that I detest them. <sup>24</sup>But I have promised you, ‘You will possess their land because I will give it to you as your possession—a land flowing with milk and honey.’ I am the LORD your God, who has set you apart from all other people.

<sup>25</sup>“You must therefore make a distinction between ceremonially clean and unclean animals, and between clean and unclean birds. You must not defile yourselves by eating any unclean animal or bird or creature that scurries along the ground. I have identified them as being unclean for you. <sup>26</sup>You must be holy because I, the LORD, am holy. I have set you apart from all other people to be my very own.

consult the spirits of the dead must be put to death by stoning.
They are guilty of a capital offense.”

Leviticus 21

Instructions for the Priests

“A priest must not make himself ceremonially unclean by touching the dead body of a relative. <sup>2</sup>The only exceptions are his closest relatives—his mother or father, son or daughter, brother, <sup>3</sup>or his virgin sister who depends on him because she has no husband. <sup>4</sup>But a priest must not defile himself and make himself unclean for someone who is related to him only by marriage.

<sup>5</sup>“The priests must not shave their heads or trim their beards or cut their bodies. <sup>6</sup>They must be set apart as holy to their God and must never bring shame on the name of God. They must be holy, for they are the ones who present the special gifts to the LORD, gifts of food for their God.

<sup>7</sup>“Priests may not marry a woman defiled by prostitution, and they may not marry a woman who is divorced from her husband, for the priests are set apart as holy to their God. <sup>8</sup>You must treat them as holy because they offer up food to your God. You must consider them holy because I, the LORD, am holy, and I make you holy.

<sup>9</sup>“If a priest’s daughter defiles herself by becoming a prostitute, she also defiles her father’s holiness, and she must be burned to death.

<sup>10</sup>“The high priest has the highest rank of all the priests. The anointing oil has been poured on his head, and he has been ordained to wear the priestly garments. He must never leave his hair uncombed* or tear his clothing. <sup>11</sup>He must not defile himself by going near a dead body. He may not make himself ceremonially unclean even for his father or mother. <sup>12</sup>He must not defile the sanctuary of his God by leaving it to attend to a dead person, for he has been made holy by the anointing oil of his God. I am the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>“The high priest may marry only a virgin. <sup>14</sup>He may not marry a widow, a woman who is divorced, or a woman who has defiled herself by prostitution. She must be a virgin from his own clan, <sup>15</sup>so that he will not dishonor his descendants among his clan, for I am the LORD who makes him holy.”

<sup>16</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>17</sup>“Give the following instructions to Aaron: In all future generations, none of your descendants who has any defect will qualify to offer food to his God. <sup>18</sup>No one who has a defect qualifies, whether he is blind, lame, disfigured, deformed, <sup>19</sup>or has a broken foot or arm, <sup>20</sup>or is hunchbacked or dwarfed, or has a defective eye, or skin sores or scabs, or damaged testicles. <sup>21</sup>No descendant of Aaron who has a defect may approach the altar to present special gifts to the LORD. Since he has a defect, he may not approach the altar to offer food to his God. <sup>22</sup>However, he may eat from the food offered to God, including the holy offerings and the most holy offerings. <sup>23</sup>Yet because of his physical defect, he may not enter the room behind the inner curtain or approach the altar, for this would defile my holy places. I am the LORD who makes them holy.”

Leviticus 22

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Tell Aaron and his sons to be very careful with the sacred gifts that the Israelites set apart for me, so they do not bring shame on my holy name. I am the LORD.

“In all future generations, if any of your descendants is ceremonially unclean when he approaches the sacred offerings that the people of Israel consecrate to the LORD, he must be cut off from my presence. I am the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>“If any of Aaron’s descendants has a skin disease * or any kind of discharge that makes him ceremonially unclean, he may not eat from the sacred offerings until he has been pronounced clean. He also becomes unclean by touching a corpse, or by having an emission of semen, <sup>5</sup>or by touching a small animal that is unclean, or by touching someone who is ceremonially unclean for any reason. <sup>6</sup>The man who is defiled in any of these ways will remain unclean until evening. He may not eat from the sacred offerings until he has bathed himself in water. <sup>7</sup>When the sun goes down, he will be ceremonially clean again and may eat from the sacred offerings, for this is his food. <sup>8</sup>He may not eat an animal that has died a natural death or has been torn apart by wild animals, for this would defile him. I am the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“The priests must follow my instructions carefully. Otherwise they will be punished for their sin and will die for violating my instructions. I am the LORD who makes them holy.

<sup>10</sup>“No one outside a priest’s family may eat the sacred offerings. Even guests and hired workers in a priest’s home are not allowed to eat them. <sup>11</sup>However, if the priest buys a slave for himself, the slave may eat from the sacred offerings. And if his slaves have children, they also may share his food. <sup>12</sup>If a priest’s daughter marries someone outside the priestly family, she may no longer eat the sacred offerings. <sup>13</sup>But if she becomes a widow or is divorced and has no children to support her, and she returns to live in her father’s home as in her youth, she may eat her father’s food again. Otherwise, no one outside a priest’s family may eat the sacred offerings.

<sup>14</sup>“Any such person who eats the sacred offerings without realizing it must pay the priest for the amount eaten, plus an additional 20 percent. <sup>15</sup>The priests must not let the Israelites defile the sacred offerings brought to the LORD <sup>16</sup>by allowing unauthorized people to eat them. This would bring guilt upon them and require them to pay compensation. I am the LORD who makes them holy.”

Worthy and Unworthy Offerings

<sup>17</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, <sup>18</sup>“Give Aaron and his sons and all the Israelites these instructions, which apply both to native Israelites and to the foreigners living among you.

“If you present a gift as a burnt offering to the LORD, whether it is to fulfill a vow or is a voluntary offering, <sup>19</sup>you* will be accepted only if your offering is a male animal with no defects. It may be a bull, a ram, or a male goat. <sup>20</sup>Do not present an animal with defects, because the LORD will not accept it on your behalf.

<sup>21</sup>“If you present a peace offering to the LORD from the herd or the flock, whether it is to fulfill a vow or is a voluntary offering, you must offer a perfect animal. It may have no defect of any kind. <sup>22</sup>You must not offer an animal that is blind, crippled, or injured, or that has a wart, a skin sore, or scabs. Such animals must never be offered on the altar as special gifts to the LORD. <sup>23</sup>If a bull* or lamb has a leg that is too long or too short, it may be offered as a voluntary offering, but it may not be offered to fulfill a vow. <sup>24</sup>If an animal has damaged testicles or is castrated, you may not offer it to the LORD. You must never do this in your own land, <sup>25</sup>and you must not accept such an animal from foreigners and then offer it as a sacrifice to your God. Such animals will not be accepted on your behalf, for they are mutilated or defective.”

<sup>26</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, <sup>27</sup>“When a calf or lamb or goat is born, it must be left with its mother for seven days. From the eighth day on, it will be acceptable as a special gift to the LORD. <sup>28</sup>But you must not slaughter a mother animal and her offspring on the same day, whether from the herd or the flock. <sup>29</sup>When you bring a thanksgiving offering to the LORD, sacrifice it properly so you will be accepted. <sup>30</sup>Eat the entire sacrificial animal on the day it is presented. Do not leave any of it until the next morning. I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup> “You must faithfully keep all my commands by putting them into practice, for I am the LORD. <sup>32</sup>Do not bring shame on my holy name, for I will display my holiness among the people of Israel. I am the LORD who makes you holy. <sup>33</sup>It was I who rescued you from the land of Egypt, that I might be your God. I am the LORD.”

Leviticus 23

The Appointed Festivals

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel. These are the LORD’s appointed festivals, which you are to proclaim as official days for holy assembly.

PERSPECTIVES

The LORD said to Moses, “Give the following instructions to the people of Israel. These are the LORD’s appointed festivals, which you are to proclaim as official days for holy assembly.”

LEVITICUS 23:1-2

It is only when men begin to worship that they begin to grow.

CALVIN COOLIDGE (1872–1933), 30TH U.S. PRESIDENT

<sup>3</sup>“You have six days each week for your ordinary work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath day of complete rest, an official day for holy assembly. It is the LORD’s Sabbath day, and it must be observed wherever you live.

<sup>4</sup>“In addition to the Sabbath, these are the LORD’s appointed festivals, the official days for holy assembly that are to be celebrated at their proper times each year.

Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread

<sup>5</sup>“The LORD’s Passover begins at sundown on the fourteenth day of the first month.* <sup>6</sup>On the next day, the fifteenth day of the month, you must begin celebrating the Festival of Unleavened Bread. This festival to the LORD continues for seven days, and during that time the bread you eat must be made without yeast. <sup>7</sup>On the first day of the festival, all the people must stop their ordinary work and observe an official day for holy assembly. <sup>8</sup>For seven days you must present special gifts to the LORD. On the seventh day the people must again stop all their ordinary work to observe an official day for holy assembly.”

Celebration of First Harvest

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>10</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel. When you enter the land I am giving you and you harvest its first crops, bring the priest a bundle of grain from the first cutting of your grain harvest. <sup>11</sup>On the day after the Sabbath, the priest will lift it up before the LORD so it may be accepted on your behalf. <sup>12</sup>On that same day you must sacrifice a one-year-old male lamb with no defects as a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>13</sup>With it you must present a grain offering consisting of four quarts* of choice flour moistened with olive oil. It will be a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD. You must also offer one quart* of wine as a liquid offering. <sup>14</sup>Do not eat any bread or roasted grain or fresh kernels on that day until you bring this offering to your God. This is a permanent law for you, and it must be observed from generation to generation wherever you live.

The Festival of Harvest

<sup>15</sup>“From the day after the Sabbath—the day you bring the bundle of grain to be lifted up as a special offering—count off seven full weeks. <sup>16</sup>Keep counting until the day after the seventh Sabbath, fifty days later. Then present an offering of new grain to the LORD. <sup>17</sup>From wherever you live, bring two loaves of bread to be lifted up before the LORD as a special offering. Make these loaves from four quarts of choice flour, and bake them with yeast. They will be an offering to the LORD from the first of your crops. <sup>18</sup>Along with the bread, present seven one-year-old male lambs with no defects, one young bull, and two rams as burnt offerings to the LORD. These burnt offerings, together with the grain offerings and liquid offerings, will be a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>19</sup>Then you must offer one male goat as a sin offering and two one-year-old male lambs as a peace offering.

<sup>20</sup>“The priest will lift up the two lambs as a special offering to the LORD, together with the loaves representing the first of your crops. These offerings, which are holy to the LORD, belong to the priests. <sup>21</sup>That same day will be proclaimed an official day for holy assembly, a day on which you do no ordinary work.

This is a permanent law for you, and it must be observed from generation to generation wherever you live.*

<sup>22</sup>“When you harvest the crops of your land, do not harvest the grain along the edges of your fields, and do not pick up what the harvesters drop. Leave it for the poor and the foreigners living among you. I am the LORD your God.”

The Festival of Trumpets

<sup>23</sup>The LORD said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel. On the first day of the appointed month in early autumn,* you are to observe a day of complete rest. It will be an official day for holy assembly, a day commemorated with loud blasts of a trumpet. <sup>25</sup>You must do no ordinary work on that day. Instead, you are to present special gifts to the LORD.”

The Day of Atonement

<sup>26</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>27</sup>“Be careful to celebrate the Day of Atonement on the tenth day of that same month—nine days after the Festival of Trumpets.* You must observe it as an official day for holy assembly, a day to deny yourselves* and present special gifts to the LORD. <sup>28</sup>Do no work during that entire day because it is the Day of Atonement, when offerings of purification are made for you, making you right with* the LORD your God. <sup>29</sup>All who do not deny themselves that day will be cut off from God’s people. <sup>30</sup>And I will destroy anyone among you who does any work on that day. <sup>31</sup>You must not do any work at all! This is a permanent law for you, and it must be observed from generation to generation wherever you live.

<sup>32</sup>This will be a Sabbath day of complete rest for you, and on that day you must deny yourselves. This day of rest will begin at sundown on the ninth day of the month and extend until sundown on the tenth day.”

The Festival of Shelters

<sup>33</sup> And the LORD said to Moses, <sup>34</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel. Begin celebrating the Festival of Shelters* on the fifteenth day of the appointed month—five days after the Day of Atonement.* This festival to the LORD will last for seven days. <sup>35</sup>On the first day of the festival you must proclaim an official day for holy assembly, when you do no ordinary work. <sup>36</sup>For seven days you must present special gifts to the LORD. The eighth day is another holy day on which you present your special gifts to the LORD. This will be a solemn occasion, and no ordinary work may be done that day.

<sup>37</sup>(“These are the LORD’s appointed festivals. Celebrate them each year as official days for holy assembly by presenting special gifts to the LORD—burnt offerings, grain offerings, sacrifices, and liquid offerings—each on its proper day. <sup>38</sup>These festivals must be observed in addition to the LORD’s regular Sabbath days, and the offerings are in addition to your personal gifts, the offerings you give to fulfill your vows, and the voluntary offerings you present to the LORD.)

<sup>39</sup>“Remember that this seven-day festival to the LORD—the Festival of Shelters—begins on the fifteenth day of the appointed month,* after you have harvested all the produce of the land. The first day and the eighth day of the festival will be days of complete rest.<sup>40</sup> On the first day gather branches from magnificent trees*—palm fronds, boughs from leafy trees, and willows that grow by the streams. Then celebrate with joy before the LORD your God for seven days.<sup>41</sup> You must observe this festival to the LORD for seven days every year. This is a permanent law for you, and it must be observed in the appointed month* from generation to generation.<sup>42</sup> For seven days you must live outside in little shelters. All native-born Israelites must live in shelters.<sup>43</sup> This will remind each new generation of Israelites that I made their ancestors live in shelters when I rescued them from the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.”

Leviticus 24

Pure Oil and Holy Bread

An Example of Just Punishment

<sup>10</sup>One day a man who had an Israelite mother and an Egyptian father came out of his tent and got into a fight with one of the Israelite men. <sup>11</sup>During the fight, this son of an Israelite woman blasphemed the Name of the LORD* with a curse. So the man was brought to Moses for judgment. His mother was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri of the tribe of Dan. <sup>12</sup>They kept the man in custody until the LORD's will in the matter should become clear to them.

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>14</sup>“Take the blasphemer outside the camp, and tell all those who heard the curse to lay their hands on his head. Then let the entire community stone him to death. <sup>15</sup>Say to the people of Israel: Those who curse their God will be punished for their sin. <sup>16</sup>Anyone who blasphemes the Name of the LORD must be stoned to death by the whole community of Israel. Any native-born Israelite or foreigner among you who blasphemes the Name of the LORD must be put to death.

<sup>18</sup>“Anyone who kills another person's animal must pay for it in full—a live animal for the animal that was killed.

<sup>21</sup>“Whoever kills an animal must pay for it in full, but whoever kills another person must be put to death.

and to the foreigners living among you. I am the LORD your God.”

<sup>23</sup>After Moses gave all these instructions to the Israelites, they took the blasphemer outside the camp and stoned him to death. The Israelites did just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Sabbath Year

<sup>1</sup> While Moses was on Mount Sinai, the LORD said to him, <sup>2</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel. When you have entered the land I am giving you, the land itself must observe a Sabbath rest before the LORD every seventh year. <sup>3</sup>For six years you may plant your fields and prune your vineyards and harvest your crops, <sup>4</sup>but during the seventh year the land must have a Sabbath year of complete rest. It is the LORD’s Sabbath. Do not plant your fields or prune your vineyards during that year. <sup>5</sup>And don’t store away the crops that grow on their own or gather the grapes from your unpruned vines. The land must have a year of complete rest. <sup>6</sup>But you may eat whatever the land produces on its own during its Sabbath. This applies to you, your male and female servants, your hired workers, and the temporary residents who live with you. <sup>7</sup>Your livestock and the wild animals in your land will also be allowed to eat what the land produces.

The Year of Jubilee

<sup>8</sup> “In addition, you must count off seven Sabbath years, seven sets of seven years, adding up to forty-nine years in all. <sup>9</sup>Then on the Day of Atonement in the fiftieth year, * blow the ram’s horn loud and long throughout the land. <sup>10</sup>Set this year apart as holy, a time to proclaim freedom throughout the land for all who live there. It will be a jubilee year for you, when each of you may return to the land that belonged to your ancestors and return to your own clan. <sup>11</sup>This fiftieth year will be a jubilee for you. During that year you must not plant your fields or store away any of the crops that grow on their own, and don't gather the grapes from your unpruned vines. <sup>12</sup>It will be a jubilee year for you, and you must keep it holy. But you may eat whatever the land produces on its own. <sup>13</sup>In the Year of Jubilee each of you may return to the land that belonged to your ancestors.

<sup>14</sup>“When you make an agreement with your neighbor to buy or sell property, you must not take advantage of each other. <sup>15</sup>When you buy land from your neighbor, the price you pay must be based on the number of years since the last jubilee. The seller must set the price by taking into account the number of years remaining until the next Year of Jubilee. <sup>16</sup>The more years until the next jubilee, the higher the price; the fewer years, the lower the price. After all, the person selling the land is actually selling you a certain number of harvests. <sup>17</sup>Show your fear of God by not taking advantage of each other. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>18</sup>“If you want to live securely in the land, follow my decrees and obey my regulations. <sup>19</sup>Then the land will yield large crops, and you will eat your fill and live securely in it. <sup>20</sup>But you might ask, ‘What will we eat during the seventh year, since we are not allowed to plant or harvest crops that year?’ <sup>21</sup>Be assured that I will send my blessing for you in the sixth year, so the land will produce a crop large enough for three years. <sup>22</sup>When you plant your fields in the eighth year, you will still be eating from the large crop of the sixth year. In fact, you will still be eating from that large crop when the new crop is harvested in the ninth year.

Redemption of Property

<sup>23</sup>“The land must never be sold on a permanent basis, for the land belongs to me. You are only foreigners and tenant farmers working for me.

<sup>24</sup>“With every purchase of land you must grant the seller the right to buy it back. <sup>25</sup>If one of your fellow Israelites falls into poverty and is forced to sell some family land, then a close relative should buy it back for him. <sup>26</sup>If there is no close relative to buy the land, but the person who sold it gets enough money to buy it back, <sup>27</sup>he then has the right to redeem it from the one who bought it. The price of the land will be discounted according to the number of years until the next Year of Jubilee. In this way the original owner can then return to the land. <sup>28</sup>But if the original owner cannot afford to buy back the land, it will remain with the new owner until the next Year of Jubilee. In the jubilee year, the land must be returned to the original owners so they can return to their family land.

<sup>29</sup>“Anyone who sells a house inside a walled town has the right to buy it back for a full year after its sale. During that year, the seller retains the right to buy it back. <sup>30</sup>But if it is not bought back within a year, the sale of the house within the walled town cannot be reversed. It will become the permanent property of the buyer. It will not be returned to the original owner in the Year of Jubilee.<sup>31</sup> But a house in a village—a settlement without fortified walls—will be treated like property in the countryside. Such a house may be bought back at any time, and it must be returned to the original owner in the Year of Jubilee.

<sup>32</sup>“The Levites always have the right to buy back a house they have sold within the towns allotted to them.<sup>33</sup> And any property that is sold by the Levites—all houses within the Levitical towns—must be returned in the Year of Jubilee. After all, the houses in the towns reserved for the Levites are the only property they own in all Israel.<sup>34</sup> The open pastureland around the Levitical towns may never be sold. It is their permanent possession.

Redemption of the Poor and Enslaved

<sup>35</sup>“If one of your fellow Israelites falls into poverty and cannot support himself, support him as you would a foreigner or a temporary resident and allow him to live with you.<sup>36</sup> Do not charge interest or make a profit at his expense. Instead, show your fear of God by letting him live with you as your relative.<sup>37</sup> Remember, do not charge interest on money you lend him or make a profit on food you sell him.<sup>38</sup> I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

<sup>39</sup>“If one of your fellow Israelites falls into poverty and is forced to sell himself to you, do not treat him as a slave.<sup>40</sup> Treat him instead as a hired worker or as a temporary resident who lives with you, and he will serve you only until the Year of Jubilee.<sup>41</sup> At that time he and his children will no longer be obligated to you, and they will return to their clans and go back to the land originally allotted to their ancestors.<sup>42</sup> The people of Israel are my servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt, so they must never be sold as slaves.<sup>43</sup> Show your fear of God by not treating them harshly.

<sup>44</sup>“However, you may purchase male and female slaves from among the nations around you.<sup>45</sup> You may also purchase the children of temporary residents who live among you, including those who have been born in your land. You may treat them as your property,<sup>46</sup> passing them on to your children as a permanent inheritance. You may treat them as slaves, but you must never treat your fellow Israelites this way.

<sup>47</sup>“Suppose a foreigner or temporary resident becomes rich while living among you. If any of your fellow Israelites fall into poverty and are forced to sell themselves to such a foreigner or to a member of his family,<sup>48</sup> they still retain the right to be bought back, even after they have been purchased. They may be bought back by a brother,<sup>49</sup> an uncle, or a cousin. In fact, anyone from the extended family may buy them back. They may also redeem themselves if they have prospered.<sup>50</sup> They will negotiate the price of their freedom with the person who bought them. The price will be based on the number of years from the time they were sold until the next Year of Jubilee—whatever it would cost to hire a worker for that period of time.

<sup>51</sup>If many years still remain until the jubilee, they will repay the proper proportion of what they received when they sold themselves.<sup>52</sup> If only a few years remain until the Year of Jubilee, they will repay a small amount for their redemption.

<sup>53</sup>The foreigner must treat them as workers hired on a yearly basis. You must not allow a foreigner to treat any of your fellow Israelites harshly. <sup>54</sup>If any Israelites have not been bought back by the time the Year of Jubilee arrives, they and their children must be set free at that time. <sup>55</sup>For the people of Israel belong to me. They are my servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26

Blessings for Obedience

<sup>1</sup>“Do not make idols or set up carved images, or sacred pillars, or sculptured stones in your land so you may worship them. I am the LORD your God. <sup>2</sup>You must keep my Sabbath days of rest and show reverence for my sanctuary. I am the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>“If you follow my decrees and are careful to obey my commands, <sup>4</sup>I will send you the seasonal rains. The land will then yield its crops, and the trees of the field will produce their fruit. <sup>5</sup>Your threshing season will overlap with the grape harvest, and your grape harvest will overlap with the season of planting grain. You will eat your fill and live securely in your own land.

<sup>6</sup>“I will give you peace in the land, and you will be able to sleep with no cause for fear. I will rid the land of wild animals and keep your enemies out of your land. <sup>7</sup>In fact, you will chase down your enemies and slaughter them with your swords. <sup>8</sup>Five of you will chase a hundred, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand! All your enemies will fall beneath your sword.

<sup>9</sup>“I will look favorably upon you, making you fertile and multiplying your people. And I will fulfill my covenant with you. <sup>10</sup>You will have such a surplus of crops that you will need to clear out the old grain to make room for the new harvest! <sup>11</sup> I will live among you, and I will not despise you. <sup>12</sup>I will walk among you; I will be your God, and you will be my people. <sup>13</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt so you would no longer be their slaves. I broke the yoke of slavery from your neck so you can walk with your heads held high.

Punishments for Disobedience

<sup>14</sup> “However, if you do not listen to me or obey all these commands, <sup>15</sup>and if you break my covenant by rejecting my decrees, treating my regulations with contempt, and refusing to obey my commands, <sup>16</sup>I will punish you. I will bring sudden terrors upon you—wasting diseases and burning fevers that will cause your eyes to fail and your life to ebb away. You will plant your crops in vain because your enemies will eat them. <sup>17</sup>I will turn against you, and you will be defeated by your enemies. Those who hate you will rule over you, and you will run even when no one is chasing you!

<sup>18</sup>“And if, in spite of all this, you still disobey me, I will punish you seven times over for your sins. <sup>19</sup>I will break your proud spirit by making the skies as unyielding as iron and the earth as hard as bronze. <sup>20</sup>All your work will be for nothing, for your land will yield no crops, and your trees will bear no fruit.

<sup>21</sup>“If even then you remain hostile toward me and refuse to obey me, I will inflict disaster on you seven times over for your sins. <sup>22</sup>I will send wild animals that will rob you of your children and destroy your livestock. Your numbers will dwindle, and your roads will be deserted.

hostility toward me,<sup>24</sup> then I myself will be hostile toward you. I will personally strike you with calamity seven times over for your sins.<sup>25</sup> I will send armies against you to carry out the curse of the covenant you have broken. When you run to your towns for safety, I will send a plague to destroy you there, and you will be handed over to your enemies.<sup>26</sup> I will destroy your food supply, so that ten women will need only one oven to bake bread for their families. They will ration your food by weight, and though you have food to eat, you will not be satisfied.

<sup>27</sup>“If in spite of all this you still refuse to listen and still remain hostile toward me,<sup>28</sup> then I will give full vent to my hostility. I myself will punish you seven times over for your sins.<sup>29</sup> Then you will eat the flesh of your own sons and daughters.<sup>30</sup> I will destroy your pagan shrines and knock down your places of worship. I will leave your lifeless corpses piled on top of your lifeless idols,* and I will despise you.<sup>31</sup> I will make your cities desolate and destroy your places of pagan worship. I will take no pleasure in your offerings that should be a pleasing aroma to me.<sup>32</sup> Yes, I myself will devastate your land, and your enemies who come to occupy it will be appalled at what they see.<sup>33</sup> I will scatter you among the nations and bring out my sword against you. Your land will become desolate, and your cities will lie in ruins.<sup>34</sup> Then at last the land will enjoy its neglected Sabbath years as it lies desolate while you are in exile in the land of your enemies. Then the land will finally rest and enjoy the Sabbaths it missed.<sup>35</sup> As long as the land lies in ruins, it will enjoy the rest you never allowed it to take every seventh year while you lived in it.

<sup>36</sup>“And for those of you who survive, I will demoralize you in the land of your enemies. You will live in such fear that the sound of a leaf driven by the wind will send you fleeing. You will run as though fleeing from a sword, and you will fall even when no one pursues you. <sup>37</sup>Though no one is chasing you, you will stumble over each other as though fleeing from a sword. You will have no power to stand up against your enemies. <sup>38</sup>You will die among the foreign nations and be devoured in the land of your enemies. <sup>39</sup>Those of you who survive will waste away in your enemies’ lands because of their sins and the sins of their ancestors.

<sup>40</sup>“But at last my people will confess their sins and the sins of their ancestors for betraying me and being hostile toward me. <sup>41</sup>When I have turned their hostility back on them and brought them to the land of their enemies, then at last their stubborn hearts will be humbled, and they will pay for their sins. <sup>42</sup>Then I will remember my covenant with Jacob and my covenant with Isaac and my covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land. <sup>43</sup>For the land must be abandoned to enjoy its years of Sabbath rest as it lies deserted. At last the people will pay for their sins, for they have continually rejected my regulations and despised my decrees.

<sup>44</sup>“But despite all this, I will not utterly reject or despise them while they are in exile in the land of their enemies. I will not cancel my covenant with them by wiping them out, for I am the LORD their God. <sup>45</sup>For their sakes I will remember my ancient covenant with their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of all the nations, that I might be their God. I am the LORD.”

<sup>46</sup>These are the decrees, regulations, and instructions that the LORD gave through Moses on Mount Sinai as evidence of the relationship between himself and the Israelites.

Leviticus 27

Redemption of Gifts Offered to the LORD

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel. If anyone makes a special vow to dedicate someone to the LORD by paying the value of that person, <sup>3</sup>here is the scale of values to be used. A man between the ages of twenty and sixty is valued at fifty shekels* of silver, as measured by the sanctuary shekel. <sup>4</sup>A woman of that age is valued at thirty shekels* of silver. <sup>5</sup>A boy between the ages of five and twenty is valued at twenty shekels of silver; a girl of that age is valued at ten shekels* of silver. <sup>6</sup>A boy between the ages of one month and five years is valued at five shekels of silver; a girl of that age is valued at three shekels* of silver. <sup>7</sup>A man older than sixty is valued at fifteen shekels of silver; a woman of that age is valued at ten shekels* of silver. <sup>8</sup>If you desire to make such a vow but cannot afford to pay the required amount, take the person to the priest. He will determine the amount for you to pay based on what you can afford.

<sup>9</sup>“If your vow involves giving an animal that is acceptable as an offering to the LORD, any gift to the LORD will be considered holy. <sup>10</sup>You may not exchange or substitute it for another animal—neither a good animal for a bad one nor a bad animal for a good one. But if you do exchange one animal for another, then both the original animal and its substitute will be considered holy. <sup>11</sup>If your vow involves an unclean animal—one that is not acceptable as an offering to the LORD—then you must bring the animal to the priest. <sup>12</sup>He will assess its value, and his assessment will be final, whether high or low. <sup>13</sup>If you want to buy back the animal, you must pay the value set by the priest, plus 20 percent.

<sup>14</sup>“If someone dedicates a house to the LORD, the priest will come to assess its value. The priest’s assessment will be final, whether high or low. <sup>15</sup>If the person who dedicated the house wants to buy it back, he must pay the value set by the priest, plus 20 percent. Then the house will again be his.

<sup>16</sup>“If someone dedicates to the LORD a piece of his family property, its value will be assessed according to the amount of seed required to plant it—fifty shekels of silver for a field planted with five bushels of barley seed.* <sup>17</sup>If the field is dedicated to the LORD in the Year of Jubilee, then the entire assessment will apply. <sup>18</sup>But if the field is dedicated after the Year of Jubilee, the priest will assess the land’s value in proportion to the number of years left until the next Year of Jubilee. Its assessed value is reduced each year. <sup>19</sup>If the person who dedicated the field wants to buy it back, he must pay the value set by the priest, plus 20 percent. Then the field will again be legally his. <sup>20</sup>But if he does not want to buy it back, and it is sold to someone else, the field can no longer be bought back. <sup>21</sup>When the field is released in the Year of Jubilee, it will be holy, a field specially set apart* for the LORD. It will become the property of the priests.

but which is not part of his family property,<sup>23</sup> the priest will assess its value based on the number of years left until the next Year of Jubilee. On that day he must give the assessed value of the land as a sacred donation to the LORD.<sup>24</sup> In the Year of Jubilee the field must be returned to the person from whom he purchased it, the one who inherited it as family property.<sup>25</sup> (All the payments must be measured by the weight of the sanctuary shekel,* which equals twenty gerahs.)

<sup>26</sup>“You may not dedicate a firstborn animal to the LORD, for the firstborn of your cattle, sheep, and goats already belong to him.<sup>27</sup> However, you may buy back the firstborn of a ceremonially unclean animal by paying the priest’s assessment of its worth, plus 20 percent. If you do not buy it back, the priest will sell it at its assessed value.

<sup>28</sup>“However, anything specially set apart for the LORD—whether a person, an animal, or family property—must never be sold or bought back. Anything devoted in this way has been set apart as holy, and it belongs to the LORD.<sup>29</sup> No person specially set apart for destruction may be bought back. Such a person must be put to death.

<sup>30</sup>“One-tenth of the produce of the land, whether grain from the fields or fruit from the trees, belongs to the LORD and must be set apart to him as holy.<sup>31</sup> If you want to buy back the LORD’s tenth of the grain or fruit, you must pay its value, plus 20 percent.<sup>32</sup> Count off every tenth animal from your herds and flocks and set them apart for the LORD as holy.<sup>33</sup> You may not pick and choose between good and bad animals, and you may not substitute one for another. But if you do exchange one animal for another, then both the original animal and its substitute will be considered holy and cannot be bought back.”

<sup>34</sup>These are the commands that the LORD gave through Moses on Mount Sinai for the Israelites.

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

The Israelites wander in the wilderness for 40 years.

WHO WROTE IT?

Christian and Jewish traditions say the author was Moses.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

In the 1400s B.C.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

Numbers describes the events that took place just before and after the Lord commanded the Israelites to leave Mount Sinai and continues through their 40-year sentence of wandering in the wilderness.

May the LORD smile on you and be gracious to you.

May the LORD show you his favor and give you his peace.

23:19

God is not a man, so he does not lie.

He is not a human, so he does not change his mind.

Has he ever spoken and failed to act?

Has he ever promised and not carried it through?

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

THE NEED FOR ORDER.

Just as we need to be organized in our work, we need to be organized in our personal life. God is not a God of chaos but of stability.

WILLINGNESS TO TAKE RISKS.

When the spies returned, only Joshua and Caleb were willing to trust God and go forward; everyone else bailed out. Acting in faith is not recklessness. It's trusting God when we can't determine the outcome.

HANGING IN THROUGH THE TOUGH TIMES.

Forty years is a long time to be going nowhere. But the Israelites did it. And through that whole time, God continued to guide them and provide for them. Even though their tough times were their own fault, God didn't abandon them. That fact gave them the strength to go on.

Registration of Israel's Troops

<sup>1</sup>A year after Israel's departure from Egypt, the LORD spoke to Moses in the Tabernacle* in the wilderness of Sinai. On the first day of the second month* of that year he said, <sup>2</sup>“From the whole community of Israel, record the names of all the warriors by their clans and families. List all the men <sup>3</sup>twenty years old or older who are able to go to war. You and Aaron must register the troops, <sup>4</sup>and you will be assisted by one family leader from each tribe.

<sup>5</sup>“These are the tribes and the names of the leaders who will assist you:

Tribe

Leader

Elizur son of Shedeur

Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai

Nahshon son of Amminadab

<sup>7</sup> Judah
<sup>8</sup> Issachar	Nethanel son of Zuar
<sup>9</sup> Zebulun	Eliab son of Helon
<sup>10</sup> Ephraim son of Joseph	Elishama son of Ammihud
Manasseh son of Joseph	Gamaliel son of Pedahzur
<sup>13</sup> Asher	Pagiel son of Ocran

<sup>17</sup>So Moses and Aaron called together these chosen leaders, <sup>18</sup>and they assembled the whole community of Israel on that very day.* All the people were registered according to their ancestry by their clans and families. The men of Israel who were twenty years old or older were listed one by one, <sup>19</sup>just as the LORD had commanded Moses. So Moses recorded their names in the wilderness of Sinai.

<sup>20-21</sup>This is the number of men twenty years old or older who were able to go to war, as their names were listed in the records of their clans and families*:

Tribe	Number
Reuben (Jacob's* oldest son)	46,500

22-23	Simeon	59,300
24-25	Gad	45,650
26-27	Judah	74,600
28-29	Issachar	54,400
30-31	Zebulun	57,400
32-33	Ephraim son of Joseph	40,500
34-35	Manasseh son of Joseph	32,200
36-37	Benjamin	35,400
38-39	Dan	62,700
40-41	Asher	41,500
42-43	Naphtali	53,400

<sup>44</sup>These were the men registered by Moses and Aaron and the twelve leaders of Israel, all listed according to their ancestral descent. <sup>45</sup>They were registered by families—all the men of Israel who were twenty years old or older and able to go to war.

<sup>50</sup>Put the Levites in charge of the Tabernacle of the Covenant, * along with all its furnishings and equipment. They must carry the Tabernacle and all its furnishings as you travel, and they must take care of it and camp around it. <sup>51</sup>Whenever it is time for the Tabernacle to move, the Levites will take it down. And when it is time to stop, they will set it up again. But any unauthorized person who goes too near the Tabernacle must be put to death.<sup>52</sup> Each tribe of Israel will camp in a designated area with its own family banner.<sup>53</sup> But the Levites will camp around the Tabernacle of the Covenant to protect the community of Israel from the LORD's anger. The Levites are responsible to stand guard around the Tabernacle."

Numbers 2

Organization for Israel's Camp

<sup>2</sup>“When the Israelites set up camp, each tribe will be assigned its own area. The tribal divisions will camp beneath their family banners on all four sides of the Tabernacle,* but at some distance from it.

<sup>3-4</sup>“The divisions of Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun are to camp toward the sunrise on the east side of the Tabernacle, beneath their family banners. These are the names of the tribes, their leaders, and the numbers of their registered troops:

Tribe	Leader	Number
Judah	Nahshon son of Amminadab	74,600

<sup>9</sup>So the total of all the troops on Judah's side of the camp is 186,400. These three tribes are to lead the way whenever the Israelites travel to a new campsite.

<sup>10-11</sup>“The divisions of Reuben, Simeon, and Gad are to camp on the south side of the Tabernacle, beneath their family banners. These are the names of the tribes, their leaders, and the numbers of their registered troops:

Tribe	Leader	Number
Reuben	Elizur son of Shedeur	46,500
<sup>12-13</sup> Simeon	Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai	59,300

<sup>16</sup>So the total of all the troops on Reuben's side of the camp is 151,450. These three tribes will be second in line whenever the Israelites travel.

<sup>17</sup>“Then the Tabernacle, carried by the Levites, will set out from the middle of the camp. All the tribes are to travel in the same order that they camp, each in position under the appropriate family banner.

<sup>18-19</sup>“The divisions of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Benjamin are to camp on the west side of the Tabernacle, beneath their family banners. These are the names of the tribes, their leaders, and the numbers of their registered troops:

Tribe	Leader	Number
Ephraim	Elishama son of Ammihud	40,500

<sup>24</sup>So the total of all the troops on Ephraim's side of the camp is 108,100. These three tribes will be third in line whenever the Israelites travel.

<sup>25-26</sup>“The divisions of Dan, Asher, and Naphtali are to camp on the north side of the Tabernacle, beneath their family banners. These are the names of the tribes, their leaders, and the numbers of their registered troops:

Tribe	Leader	Number
Dan	Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai	62,700
<sup>27-28</sup> Asher	Pagiel son of Ocran	41,500

<sup>31</sup>So the total of all the troops on Dan’s side of the camp is 157,600. These three tribes will be last, marching under their banners whenever the Israelites travel.”

<sup>32</sup>In summary, the troops of Israel listed by their families totaled 603,550. <sup>33</sup>But as the LORD had commanded, the Levites were not included in this registration. <sup>34</sup>So the people of Israel did everything as the LORD had commanded Moses. Each clan and family set up camp and marched under their banners exactly as the LORD had instructed them.

Numbers 3

Levites Appointed for Service

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>6</sup>"Call forward the tribe of Levi, and present them to Aaron the priest to serve as his assistants. <sup>7</sup>They will serve Aaron and the whole community, performing their sacred duties in and around the Tabernacle.* <sup>8</sup>They will also maintain all the furnishings of the sacred tent,* serving in the Tabernacle on behalf of all the Israelites. <sup>9</sup>Assign the Levites to Aaron and his sons. They have been given from among all the people of Israel to serve as their assistants. <sup>10</sup>Appoint Aaron and his sons to carry out the duties of the priesthood. But any unauthorized person who goes too near the sanctuary must be put to death."

<sup>11</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, <sup>12</sup>"Look, I have chosen the Levites from among the Israelites to serve as substitutes for all the firstborn sons of the people of Israel. The Levites belong to me, <sup>13</sup>for all the firstborn males are mine. On the day I struck down all the firstborn sons of the Egyptians, I set apart for myself all the firstborn in Israel, both of people and of animals. They are mine; I am the LORD.”

Registration of the Levites

<sup>14</sup>The LORD spoke again to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai. He said, <sup>15</sup>“Record the names of the members of the tribe of Levi by their families and clans. List every male who is one month old or older.” <sup>16</sup>So Moses listed them, just as the LORD had commanded.

These were the Levite clans, listed according to their family groups.

<sup>27</sup>The descendants of Kohath were composed of the clans descended from Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. <sup>28</sup>There were 8,600* males one month old or older among these Kohathite clans. They were responsible for the care of the sanctuary,<sup>29</sup>and they were assigned the area south of the Tabernacle for their camp. <sup>30</sup>The leader of the Kohathite clans was Elizaphan son of Uzziel. <sup>31</sup>These four clans were responsible for the care of the Ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the various articles used in the sanctuary, the inner curtain, and all the equipment related to their use. <sup>32</sup>Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, was the chief administrator over all the Levites, with special responsibility for the oversight of the sanctuary.

<sup>33</sup>The descendants of Merari were composed of the clans descended from Mahli and Mushi. <sup>34</sup>There were 6,200 males one month old or older among these Merarite clans. <sup>35</sup>They were assigned the area north of the Tabernacle for their camp. The leader of the Merarite clans was Zuriel son of Abihail. <sup>36</sup>These two clans were responsible for the care of the frames supporting the Tabernacle, the crossbars, the pillars, the bases, and all the equipment related to their use. <sup>37</sup>They were also responsible for the posts of the courtyard and all their bases, pegs, and ropes.

<sup>38</sup>The area in front of the Tabernacle, in the east toward the sunrise,* was reserved for the tents of Moses and of Aaron and his sons, who had the final responsibility for the sanctuary on behalf of the people of Israel. Anyone other than a priest or Levite who went too near the sanctuary was to be put to death.

Redeeming the Firstborn Sons

<sup>40</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, "Now count all the firstborn sons in Israel who are one month old or older, and make a list of their names. <sup>41</sup>The Levites must be reserved for me as substitutes for the firstborn sons of Israel; I am the LORD. And the Levites' livestock must be reserved for me as substitutes for the firstborn livestock of the whole nation of Israel."

<sup>42</sup>So Moses counted the firstborn sons of the people of Israel, just as the LORD had commanded. <sup>43</sup>The number of firstborn sons who were one month old or older was 22,273.

<sup>44</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>45</sup>"Take the Levites as substitutes for the firstborn sons of the people of Israel. And take the livestock of the Levites as substitutes for the firstborn livestock of the people of Israel. The Levites belong to me; I am the LORD. <sup>46</sup>There are 273 more firstborn sons of Israel than there are Levites. To redeem these extra firstborn sons, <sup>47</sup>collect five pieces of silver* for each of them (each piece weighing the same as the sanctuary shekel, which equals twenty gerahs).

for the extra firstborn sons.”

<sup>49</sup>So Moses collected the silver for redeeming the firstborn sons of Israel who exceeded the number of Levites. <sup>50</sup>He collected 1,365 pieces of silver* on behalf of these firstborn sons of Israel (each piece weighing the same as the sanctuary shekel). <sup>51</sup>And Moses gave the silver for the redemption to Aaron and his sons, just as the LORD had commanded.

Numbers 4

Duties of the Kohathite Clan

<sup>7</sup>“Next they must spread a blue cloth over the table where the Bread of the Presence is displayed, and on the cloth they will place the bowls, pans, jars, pitchers, and the special bread. <sup>8</sup>They must spread a scarlet cloth over all of this, and finally a covering of fine goatskin leather on top of the scarlet cloth. Then they must insert the carrying poles into the table.

<sup>9</sup>“Next they must cover the lampstand with a blue cloth, along with its lamps, lamp snuffers, trays, and special jars of olive oil. <sup>10</sup>Then they must cover the lampstand and its accessories with fine goatskin leather and place the bundle on a carrying frame.

altar and cover this cloth with fine goatskin leather. Then they must attach the carrying poles to the altar.<sup>12</sup> They must take all the remaining furnishings of the sanctuary and wrap them in a blue cloth, cover them with fine goatskin leather, and place them on the carrying frame.

<sup>16</sup>“Eleazar son of Aaron the priest will be responsible for the oil of the lampstand, the fragrant incense, the daily grain offering, and the anointing oil. In fact, Eleazar will be responsible for the entire Tabernacle and everything in it, including the sanctuary and its furnishings.”

<sup>17</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron,<sup>18</sup>“Do not let the Kohathite clans be destroyed from among the Levites!<sup>19</sup> This is what you must do so they will live and not die when they approach the most sacred objects. Aaron and his sons must always go in with them and assign a specific duty or load to each person.<sup>20</sup> The Kohathites must never enter the sanctuary to look at the sacred objects for even a moment, or they will die.”

Duties of the Gershonite Clan

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, <sup>22</sup>“Record the names of the members of the clans and families of the Gershonite division of the tribe of Levi. <sup>23</sup>List all the men between the ages of thirty and fifty who are eligible to serve in the Tabernacle.

<sup>24</sup>“These Gershonite clans will be responsible for general service and carrying loads. <sup>25</sup>They must carry the curtains of the Tabernacle, the Tabernacle itself with its coverings, the outer covering of fine goatskin leather, and the curtain for the Tabernacle entrance. <sup>26</sup>They are also to carry the curtains for the courtyard walls that surround the Tabernacle and altar, the curtain across the courtyard entrance, the ropes, and all the equipment related to their use. The Gershonites are responsible for all these items. <sup>27</sup>Aaron and his sons will direct the Gershonites regarding all their duties, whether it involves moving the equipment or doing other work. They must assign the Gershonites responsibility for the loads they are to carry. <sup>28</sup>So these are the duties assigned to the Gershonite clans at the Tabernacle. They will be directly responsible to Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

Duties of the Merarite Clan

<sup>29</sup>“Now record the names of the members of the clans and families of the Merarite division of the tribe of Levi. <sup>30</sup>List all the men between the ages of thirty and fifty who are eligible to serve in the Tabernacle.

<sup>31</sup>“Their only duty at the Tabernacle will be to carry loads. They will carry the frames of the Tabernacle, the crossbars, the posts, and the bases; <sup>32</sup>also the posts for the courtyard walls with their bases, pegs, and ropes; and all the accessories and everything else related to their use. Assign the various loads to each man by name. <sup>33</sup>So these are the duties of the Merarite clans at the Tabernacle. They are directly responsible to Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.”

Summary of the Registration

<sup>34</sup>So Moses, Aaron, and the other leaders of the community listed the members of the Kohathite division by their clans and families. <sup>35</sup>The list included all the men between thirty and fifty years of age who were eligible for service in the Tabernacle, <sup>36</sup>and the total number came to 2,750. <sup>37</sup>So this was the total of all those from the Kohathite clans who were eligible to serve at the Tabernacle. Moses and Aaron listed them, just as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

<sup>38</sup>The Gershonite division was also listed by its clans and families. <sup>39</sup>The list included all the men between thirty and fifty years of age who were eligible for service in the Tabernacle, <sup>40</sup>and the total number came to 2,630. <sup>41</sup>So this was the total of all those from the Gershonite clans who were eligible to serve at the Tabernacle. Moses and Aaron listed them, just as the LORD had commanded.

<sup>42</sup>The Merarite division was also listed by its clans and families. <sup>43</sup>The list included all the men between thirty and fifty years of age who were eligible for service in the Tabernacle, <sup>44</sup>and the total number came to 3,200. <sup>45</sup>So this was the total of all those from the Merarite clans who were eligible for service. Moses and Aaron listed them, just as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

<sup>46</sup>So Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of Israel listed all the Levites by their clans and families. <sup>47</sup>All the men between thirty and fifty years of age who were eligible for service in the Tabernacle and for its transportation <sup>48</sup>numbered 8,580. <sup>49</sup>When their names were recorded, as the LORD had commanded through Moses, each man was assigned his task and told what to carry.

And so the registration was completed, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 5

Purity in Israel's Camp

<sup>1</sup>The LORD gave these instructions to Moses:<sup>2</sup>“Command the people of Israel to remove from the camp anyone who has a skin disease* or a discharge, or who has become ceremonially unclean by touching a dead person.<sup>3</sup>This command applies to men and women alike. Remove them so they will not defile the camp in which I live among them.”<sup>4</sup>So the Israelites did as the LORD had commanded Moses and removed such people from the camp.

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses,<sup>6</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel: If any of the people—men or women—betray the LORD by doing wrong to another person, they are guilty.<sup>7</sup>They must confess their sin and make full restitution for what they have done, adding an additional 20 percent and returning it to the person who was wronged.<sup>8</sup>But if the person who was wronged is dead, and there are no near relatives to whom restitution can be made, the payment belongs to the LORD and must be given to the priest. Those who are guilty must also bring a ram as a sacrifice, and they will be purified and made right with the LORD.*<sup>9</sup>All the sacred offerings that the Israelites bring to a priest will belong to him.<sup>10</sup>Each priest may keep all the sacred donations that he receives.”

Protecting Marital Faithfulness

“Suppose a man’s wife goes astray, and she is unfaithful to her husband <sup>13</sup>and has sex with another man, but neither her husband nor anyone else knows about it. She has defiled herself, even though there was no witness and she was not caught in the act. <sup>14</sup>If her husband becomes jealous and is suspicious of his wife and needs to know whether or not she has defiled herself, <sup>15</sup>the husband must bring his wife to the priest. He must also bring an offering of two quarts* of barley flour to be presented on her behalf. Do not mix it with olive oil or frankincense, for it is a jealousy offering—an offering to prove whether or not she is guilty.

<sup>16</sup>“The priest will then present her to stand trial before the LORD. <sup>17</sup>He must take some holy water in a clay jar and pour into it dust he has taken from the Tabernacle floor. <sup>18</sup>When the priest has presented the woman before the LORD, he must unbind her hair and place in her hands the offering of proof—the jealousy offering to determine whether her husband’s suspicions are justified. The priest will stand before her, holding the jar of bitter water that brings a curse to those who are guilty. <sup>19</sup>The priest will then put the woman under oath and say to her, ‘If no other man has had sex with you, and you have not gone astray and defiled yourself while under your husband’s authority, may you be immune from the effects of this bitter water that brings on the curse. <sup>20</sup>But if you have gone astray by being unfaithful to your husband, and have defiled yourself by having sex with another man—’

<sup>21</sup>“At this point the priest must put the woman under oath by saying, ‘May the people know that the LORD’s curse is upon you when he makes you infertile, causing your womb to shrivel* and your abdomen to swell. <sup>22</sup>Now may this water that brings the curse enter your body and cause your abdomen to swell and your womb to shrivel.*’ And the woman will be required to say, ‘Yes, let it be so.’ <sup>23</sup>And the priest will write these curses on a piece of leather and wash them off into the bitter water. <sup>24</sup>He will make the woman drink the bitter water that brings on the curse. When the water enters her body, it will cause bitter suffering if she is guilty.

<sup>25</sup>“The priest will take the jealousy offering from the woman’s hand, lift it up before the LORD, and carry it to the altar. <sup>26</sup>He will take a handful of the flour as a token portion and burn it on the altar, and he will require the woman to drink the water. <sup>27</sup>If she has defiled herself by being unfaithful to her husband, the water that brings on the curse will cause bitter suffering. Her abdomen will swell and her womb will shrink,* and her name will become a curse among her people. <sup>28</sup>But if she has not defiled herself and is pure, then she will be unharmed and will still be able to have children.

<sup>29</sup>“This is the ritual law for dealing with suspicion. If a woman goes astray and defiles herself while under her husband’s authority, <sup>30</sup>or if a man becomes jealous and is suspicious that his wife has been unfaithful, the husband must present his wife before the LORD, and the priest will apply this entire ritual law to her. <sup>31</sup>The husband will be innocent of any guilt in this matter, but his wife will be held accountable for her sin.”

Numbers 6

Nazirite Laws

“If any of the people, either men or women, take the special vow of a Nazirite, setting themselves apart to the LORD in a special way,<sup>3</sup> they must give up wine and other alcoholic drinks. They must not use vinegar made from wine or from other alcoholic drinks, they must not drink fresh grape juice, and they must not eat grapes or raisins.<sup>4</sup>As long as they are bound by their Nazirite vow, they are not allowed to eat or drink anything that comes from a grapevine—not even the grape seeds or skins.

<sup>5</sup> “They must never cut their hair throughout the time of their vow, for they are holy and set apart to the LORD. Until the time of their vow has been fulfilled, they must let their hair grow long.<sup>6</sup>And they must not go near a dead body during the entire period of their vow to the LORD.<sup>7</sup>Even if the dead person is their own father, mother, brother, or sister, they must not defile themselves, for the hair on their head is the symbol of their separation to God.<sup>8</sup>This requirement applies as long as they are set apart to the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“If someone falls dead beside them, the hair they have dedicated will be defiled. They must wait for seven days and then shave their heads. Then they will be cleansed from their defilement.<sup>10</sup> On the eighth day they must bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance of the Tabernacle.*<sup>11</sup> The priest will offer one of the birds for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. In this way, he will purify them* from the guilt they incurred through contact with the dead body. Then they must reaffirm their commitment and let their hair begin to grow again.<sup>12</sup> The days of their vow that were completed before their defilement no longer count. They must rededicate themselves to the LORD as a Nazirite for the full term of their vow, and each must bring a one-year-old male lamb for a guilt offering.

<sup>18</sup>“Then the Nazirites will shave their heads at the entrance of the Tabernacle. They will take the hair that had been dedicated and place it on the fire beneath the peace-offering sacrifice.

<sup>19</sup>After the Nazirite's head has been shaved, the priest will take for each of them the boiled shoulder of the ram, and he will take from the basket a cake and a wafer made without yeast. He will put them all into the Nazirite's hands. <sup>20</sup>Then the priest will lift them up as a special offering before the LORD. These are holy portions for the priest, along with the breast of the special offering and the thigh of the sacred offering that are lifted up before the LORD. After this ceremony the Nazirites may again drink wine.

<sup>21</sup>“This is the ritual law of the Nazirites, who vow to bring these offerings to the LORD. They may also bring additional offerings if they can afford it. And they must be careful to do whatever they vowed when they set themselves apart as Nazirites.”

The Priestly Blessing

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>23</sup>“Tell Aaron and his sons to bless the people of Israel with this special blessing:

<sup>24</sup> ‘May the LORD bless you and protect you.

<sup>25</sup>May the LORD smile on you and be gracious to you.

<sup>26</sup>May the LORD show you his favor
and give you his peace.’

<sup>27</sup>Whenever Aaron and his sons bless the people of Israel in my name, I myself will bless them.”

Numbers 7

Offerings of Dedication

<sup>1</sup> On the day Moses set up the Tabernacle, he anointed it and set it apart as holy. He also anointed and set apart all its furnishings and the altar with its utensils. <sup>2</sup> Then the leaders of Israel—the tribal leaders who had registered the troops—came and brought their offerings. <sup>3</sup> Together they brought six large wagons and twelve oxen. There was a wagon for every two leaders and an ox for each leader. They presented these to the LORD in front of the Tabernacle.

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>5</sup> “Receive their gifts, and use these oxen and wagons for transporting the Tabernacle.* Distribute them among the Levites according to the work they have to do.” <sup>6</sup> So Moses took the wagons and oxen and presented them to the Levites. <sup>7</sup> He gave two wagons and four oxen to the Gershonite division for their work, <sup>8</sup> and he gave four wagons and eight oxen to the Merarite division for their work. All their work was done under the leadership of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest. <sup>9</sup> But he gave none of the wagons or oxen to the Kohathite division, since they were required to carry the sacred objects of the Tabernacle on their shoulders.

<sup>10</sup> The leaders also presented dedication gifts for the altar at the time it was anointed. They each placed their gifts before the altar. <sup>11</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Let one leader bring his gift each day for the dedication of the altar.”

<sup>19</sup>His offering consisted of a silver platter weighing  $3\frac{1}{4}$  pounds and a silver basin weighing  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds (as measured by the weight of the sanctuary shekel). These were both filled with grain offerings of choice flour moistened with olive oil. <sup>20</sup>He also brought a gold container weighing four ounces, which was filled with incense. <sup>21</sup>He brought a young bull, a ram, and a one-year-old male lamb for a burnt offering, <sup>22</sup>and a male goat for a sin offering. <sup>23</sup>For a peace offering he brought two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs. This was the offering brought by Nethanel son of Zuar.

sin offering.<sup>35</sup>For a peace offering he brought two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs. This was the offering brought by Elizur son of Shedeur.

incense. <sup>45</sup>He brought a young bull, a ram, and a one-year-old male lamb for a burnt offering, <sup>46</sup>and a male goat for a sin offering. <sup>47</sup>For a peace offering he brought two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs. This was the offering brought by Eliasaph son of Deuel.

moistened with olive oil.<sup>56</sup>He also brought a gold container weighing four ounces, which was filled with incense.<sup>57</sup>He brought a young bull, a ram, and a one-year-old male lamb for a burnt offering,<sup>58</sup>and a male goat for a sin offering.<sup>59</sup>For a peace offering he brought two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs. This was the offering brought by Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

measured by the weight of the sanctuary shekel). These were both filled with grain offerings of choice flour moistened with olive oil.<sup>68</sup>He also brought a gold container weighing four ounces, which was filled with incense.<sup>69</sup>He brought a young bull, a ram, and a one-year-old male lamb for a burnt offering,<sup>70</sup>and a male goat for a sin offering.<sup>71</sup>For a peace offering he brought two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs. This was the offering brought by Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

<sup>84</sup>So this was the dedication offering brought by the leaders of Israel at the time the altar was anointed: twelve silver platters, twelve silver basins, and twelve gold incense containers.<sup>85</sup>Each silver platter weighed  $3\frac{1}{4}$  pounds, and each silver basin weighed  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds. The total weight of the silver was 60 pounds\* (as measured by the weight of the sanctuary shekel).<sup>86</sup>Each of the twelve gold containers that was filled with incense weighed four ounces (as measured by the weight of the sanctuary shekel). The total weight of the gold was three pounds.\*<sup>87</sup>Twelve young bulls, twelve rams, and twelve one-year-old male lambs were donated for the burnt offerings, along with their prescribed grain offerings. Twelve male goats were brought for the sin offerings.<sup>88</sup>Twenty-four bulls, sixty rams, sixty male goats, and sixty one-year-old male lambs were donated for the peace offerings. This was the dedication offering for the altar after it was anointed.

<sup>89</sup>Whenever Moses went into the Tabernacle to speak with the LORD, he heard the voice speaking to him from between the two cherubim above the Ark's cover—the place of atonement—that rests on the Ark of the Covenant.* The LORD spoke to him from there.

Numbers 8

Preparing the Lamps

The Levites Dedicated

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>6</sup>“Now set the Levites apart from the rest of the people of Israel and make them ceremonially clean. <sup>7</sup>Do this by sprinkling them with the water of purification, and have them shave their entire body and wash their clothing. Then they will be ceremonially clean. <sup>8</sup>Have them bring a young bull and a grain offering of choice flour moistened with olive oil, along with a second young bull for a sin offering. <sup>9</sup> Then assemble the whole community of Israel, and present the Levites at the entrance of the Tabernacle.* <sup>10</sup>When you present the Levites before the LORD, the people of Israel must lay their hands on them. <sup>11</sup>Raising his hands, Aaron must then present the Levites to the LORD as a special offering from the people of Israel, thus dedicating them to the LORD's service.

<sup>12</sup>“Next the Levites will lay their hands on the heads of the young bulls. Present one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to the LORD, to purify the Levites and make them right with the LORD.* <sup>13</sup>Then have the Levites stand in front of Aaron and his sons, and raise your hands and present them as a special offering to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>In this way, you will set the Levites apart from the rest of the people of Israel, and the Levites will belong to me. <sup>15</sup>After this, they may go into the Tabernacle to do their work, because you have purified them and presented them as a special offering.

<sup>16</sup>“Of all the people of Israel, the Levites are reserved for me. I have claimed them for myself in place of all the firstborn sons of the Israelites; I have taken the Levites as their substitutes. <sup>17</sup>For all the firstborn males among the people of Israel are mine, both of people and of animals. I set them apart for myself on the day I struck down all the firstborn sons of the Egyptians. <sup>18</sup>Yes, I have claimed the Levites in place of all the firstborn sons of Israel. <sup>19</sup>And of all the Israelites, I have assigned the Levites to Aaron and his sons. They will serve in the Tabernacle on behalf of the Israelites and make sacrifices to purify* the people so no plague will strike them when they approach the sanctuary.”

<sup>20</sup>So Moses, Aaron, and the whole community of Israel dedicated the Levites, carefully following all the LORD's instructions to Moses. <sup>21</sup>The Levites purified themselves from sin and washed their clothes, and Aaron lifted them up and presented them to the LORD as a special offering. He then offered a sacrifice to purify them and make them right with the LORD.*<sup>22</sup> After that the Levites went into the Tabernacle to perform their duties, assisting Aaron and his sons. So they carried out all the commands that the LORD gave Moses concerning the Levites.

Numbers 9

The Second Passover

<sup>4</sup>So Moses told the people to celebrate the Passover<sup>5</sup> in the wilderness of Sinai as twilight fell on the fourteenth day of the month. And they celebrated the festival there, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.<sup>6</sup> But some of the men had been ceremonially defiled by touching a dead body, so they could not celebrate the Passover that day. They came to Moses and Aaron that day<sup>7</sup> and said, “We have become ceremonially unclean by touching a dead body. But why should we be prevented from presenting the LORD's offering at the proper time with the rest of the Israelites?”

<sup>9</sup>This was the LORD's reply to Moses. <sup>10</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel: If any of the people now or in future generations are ceremonially unclean at Passover time because of touching a dead body, or if they are on a journey and cannot be present at the ceremony, they may still celebrate the LORD's Passover. <sup>11</sup>They must offer the Passover sacrifice one month later, at twilight on the fourteenth day of the second month.* They must eat the Passover lamb at that time with bitter salad greens and bread made without yeast. <sup>12</sup>They must not leave any of the lamb until the next morning, and they must not break any of its bones. They must follow all the normal regulations concerning the Passover.

<sup>13</sup>“But those who neglect to celebrate the Passover at the regular time, even though they are ceremonially clean and not away on a trip, will be cut off from the community of Israel. If they fail to present the LORD's offering at the proper time, they will suffer the consequences of their guilt. <sup>14</sup>And if foreigners living among you want to celebrate the Passover to the LORD, they must follow these same decrees and regulations. The same laws apply both to native-born Israelites and to the foreigners living among you.”

The Fiery Cloud

<sup>15</sup>On the day the Tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered it.* But from evening until morning the cloud over the Tabernacle looked like a pillar of fire. <sup>16</sup>This was the regular pattern—at night the cloud that covered the Tabernacle had the appearance of fire. <sup>17</sup>Whenever the cloud lifted from over the sacred tent, the people of Israel would break camp and follow it. And wherever the cloud settled, the people of Israel would set up camp. <sup>18</sup>In this way, they traveled and camped at the LORD's command wherever he told them to go. Then they remained in their camp as long as the cloud stayed over the Tabernacle. <sup>19</sup>If the cloud remained over the Tabernacle for a long time, the Israelites stayed and performed their duty to the LORD. <sup>20</sup>Sometimes the cloud would stay over the Tabernacle for only a few days, so the people would stay for only a few days, as the LORD commanded. Then at the LORD's command they would break camp and move on. <sup>21</sup>Sometimes the cloud stayed only overnight and lifted the next morning. But day or night, when the cloud lifted, the people broke camp and moved on. <sup>22</sup>Whether the cloud stayed above the Tabernacle for two days, a month, or a year, the people of Israel stayed in camp and did not move on. But as soon as it lifted, they broke camp and moved on. <sup>23</sup>So they camped or traveled at the LORD's command, and they did whatever the LORD told them through Moses.

The Silver Trumpets

<sup>5</sup>“When you sound the signal to move on, the tribes camped on the east side of the Tabernacle must break camp and move forward. <sup>6</sup>When you sound the signal a second time, the tribes camped on the south will follow. You must sound short blasts as the signal for moving on. <sup>7</sup>But when you call the people to an assembly, blow the trumpets with a different signal. <sup>8</sup>Only the priests, Aaron’s descendants, are allowed to blow the trumpets. This is a permanent law for you, to be observed from generation to generation.

<sup>9</sup>“When you arrive in your own land and go to war against your enemies who attack you, sound the alarm with the trumpets. Then the LORD your God will remember you and rescue you from your enemies. <sup>10</sup>Blow the trumpets in times of gladness, too, sounding them at your annual festivals and at the beginning of each month. And blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and peace offerings. The trumpets will remind the LORD your God of his covenant with you. I am the LORD your God.”

The Israelites Leave Sinai

<sup>11</sup>In the second year after Israel’s departure from Egypt—on the twentieth day of the second month*—the cloud lifted from the Tabernacle of the Covenant.* <sup>12</sup>So the Israelites set out from the wilderness of Sinai and traveled on from place to place until the cloud stopped in the wilderness of Paran.

<sup>13</sup>When the people set out for the first time, following the instructions the LORD had given through Moses, <sup>14</sup>Judah’s troops led the way. They marched behind their banner, and their leader was Nahshon son of Amminadab. <sup>15</sup>They were joined by the troops of the tribe of Issachar, led by Nethanel son of Zuar, <sup>16</sup>and the troops of the tribe of Zebulun, led by Eliab son of Helon.

<sup>23</sup>They were joined by the troops of the tribe of Manasseh, led by Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, <sup>24</sup>and the troops of the tribe of Benjamin, led by Abidan son of Gideoni.

<sup>25</sup>Dan's troops went last, marching behind their banner and serving as the rear guard for all the tribal camps. Their leader was Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai. <sup>26</sup>They were joined by the troops of the tribe of Asher, led by Pagiel son of Ocran, <sup>27</sup>and the troops of the tribe of Naphtali, led by Ahira son of Enan.

<sup>29</sup>One day Moses said to his brother-in-law, Hobab son of Reuel the Midianite, "We are on our way to the place the LORD promised us, for he said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us and we will treat you well, for the LORD has promised wonderful blessings for Israel!"

<sup>30</sup>But Hobab replied, "No, I will not go. I must return to my own land and family."

<sup>31</sup>"Please don't leave us," Moses pleaded. "You know the places in the wilderness where we should camp. Come, be our guide. <sup>32</sup>If you do, we'll share with you all the blessings the LORD gives us."

<sup>33</sup>They marched for three days after leaving the mountain of the LORD, with the Ark of the LORD's Covenant moving ahead of them to show them where to stop and rest. <sup>34</sup>As they moved on each day, the cloud of the LORD hovered over them. <sup>35</sup>And whenever the Ark set out, Moses would shout, "Arise, O LORD, and let your enemies be scattered! Let them flee before you!"

<sup>36</sup>And when the Ark was set down, he would say, "Return, O LORD, to the countless thousands of Israel!"

Numbers 11

The People Complain to Moses

<sup>1</sup> Soon the people began to complain about their hardship, and the LORD heard everything they said. Then the LORD's anger blazed against them, and he sent a fire to rage among them, and he destroyed some of the people in the outskirts of the camp.

<sup>2</sup> Then the people screamed to Moses for help, and when he prayed to the LORD, the fire stopped. <sup>3</sup> After that, the area was known as Taberah (which means "the place of burning"), because fire from the LORD had burned among them there.

<sup>4</sup> Then the foreign rabble who were traveling with the Israelites began to crave the good things of Egypt. And the people of Israel also began to complain. "Oh, for some meat!" they exclaimed. <sup>5</sup> "We remember the fish we used to eat for free in Egypt. And we had all the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions, and garlic we wanted. <sup>6</sup> But now our appetites are gone. All we ever see is this manna!"

<sup>7</sup> The manna looked like small coriander seeds, and it was pale yellow like gum resin. <sup>8</sup> The people would go out and gather it from the ground. They made flour by grinding it with hand mills or pounding it in mortars. Then they boiled it in a pot and made it into flat cakes. These cakes tasted like pastries baked with olive oil. <sup>9</sup> The manna came down on the camp with the dew during the night.

<sup>10</sup> Moses heard all the families standing in the doorways of their tents whining, and the LORD became extremely angry. Moses was also very aggravated. <sup>11</sup>And Moses said to the LORD, “Why are you treating me, your servant, so harshly? Have mercy on me! What did I do to deserve the burden of all these people? <sup>12</sup>Did I give birth to them? Did I bring them into the world? Why did you tell me to carry them in my arms like a mother carries a nursing baby? How can I carry them to the land you swore to give their ancestors? <sup>13</sup>Where am I supposed to get meat for all these people? They keep whining to me, saying, ‘Give us meat to eat!’ <sup>14</sup>I can’t carry all these people by myself! The load is far too heavy! <sup>15</sup>If this is how you intend to treat me, just go ahead and kill me. Do me a favor and spare me this misery!”

Moses Chooses Seventy Leaders

<sup>16</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Gather before me seventy men who are recognized as elders and leaders of Israel. Bring them to the Tabernacle* to stand there with you. <sup>17</sup>I will come down and talk to you there. I will take some of the Spirit that is upon you, and I will put the Spirit upon them also. They will bear the burden of the people along with you, so you will not have to carry it alone.

<sup>18</sup>“And say to the people, ‘Purify yourselves, for tomorrow you will have meat to eat. You were whining, and the LORD heard you when you cried, “Oh, for some meat! We were better off in Egypt!” Now the LORD will give you meat, and you will have to eat it. <sup>19</sup>And it won’t be for just a day or two, or for five or ten or even twenty. <sup>20</sup>You will eat it for a whole month until you gag and are sick of it. For you have rejected the LORD, who is here among you, and you have whined to him, saying, “Why did we ever leave Egypt?”’”

<sup>21</sup>But Moses responded to the LORD, “There are 600,000 foot soldiers here with me, and yet you say, ‘I will give them meat for a whole month!’ <sup>22</sup>Even if we butchered all our flocks and herds, would that satisfy them? Even if we caught all the fish in the sea, would that be enough?”

<sup>23</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Has my arm lost its power? Now you will see whether or not my word comes true!”

<sup>24</sup>So Moses went out and reported the LORD’s words to the people. He gathered the seventy elders and stationed them around the Tabernacle.* <sup>25</sup>And the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to Moses. Then he gave the seventy elders the same Spirit that was upon Moses. And when the Spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But this never happened again.

<sup>26</sup>Two men, Eldad and Medad, had stayed behind in the camp. They were listed among the elders, but they had not gone out to the Tabernacle. Yet the Spirit rested upon them as well, so they prophesied there in the camp. <sup>27</sup>A young man ran and reported to Moses, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp!”

<sup>28</sup>Joshua son of Nun, who had been Moses’ assistant since his youth, protested, “Moses, my master, make them stop!”

<sup>29</sup>But Moses replied, “Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all the LORD’s people were prophets and that the LORD would put his Spirit upon them all!” <sup>30</sup>Then Moses returned to the camp with the elders of Israel.

The LORD Sends Quail

<sup>31</sup>Now the LORD sent a wind that brought quail from the sea and let them fall all around the camp. For miles in every direction there were quail flying about three feet above the ground.*

<sup>32</sup>So the people went out and caught quail all that day and throughout the night and all the next day, too. No one gathered less than fifty bushels*! They spread the quail all around the camp to dry. <sup>33</sup>But while they were gorging themselves on the meat—while it was still in their mouths—the anger of the LORD blazed against the people, and he struck them with a severe plague. <sup>34</sup>So that place was called Kibroth-hattaavah (which means “graves of gluttony”) because there they buried the people who had craved meat from Egypt. <sup>35</sup>From Kibroth-hattaavah the Israelites traveled to Hazeroth, where they stayed for some time.

Numbers 12

The Complaints of Miriam and Aaron

<sup>1</sup>While they were at Hazeroth, Miriam and Aaron criticized Moses because he had married a Cushite woman. <sup>2</sup>They said, “Has the LORD spoken only through Moses? Hasn’t he spoken through us, too?” But the LORD heard them. <sup>3</sup>(Now Moses was very humble—more humble than any other person on earth.)

<sup>4</sup>So immediately the LORD called to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam and said, “Go out to the Tabernacle,* all three of you!” So the three of them went to the Tabernacle. <sup>5</sup>Then the LORD descended in the pillar of cloud and stood at the entrance of the Tabernacle.* “Aaron and Miriam!” he called, and they stepped forward. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD said to them, “Now listen to what I say:

“If there were prophets among you,
I, the LORD, would reveal myself in visions.
I would speak to them in dreams.

<sup>7</sup>But not with my servant Moses.
Of all my house, he is the one I trust.

<sup>8</sup>I speak to him face to face, clearly, and not in riddles!
He sees the LORD as he is.
So why were you not afraid to criticize my servant Moses?”

<sup>9</sup>The LORD was very angry with them, and he departed. <sup>10</sup>As the cloud moved from above the Tabernacle, there stood Miriam, her skin as white as snow from leprosy.* When Aaron saw what had happened to her, <sup>11</sup>he cried out to Moses, “Oh, my master! Please don’t punish us for this sin we have so foolishly committed. <sup>12</sup>Don’t let her be like a stillborn baby, already decayed at birth.”

<sup>13</sup>So Moses cried out to the LORD, “O God, I beg you, please heal her!”

<sup>14</sup>But the LORD said to Moses, “If her father had done nothing more than spit in her face, wouldn’t she be defiled for seven days? So keep her outside the camp for seven days, and after that she may be accepted back.”

<sup>15</sup>So Miriam was kept outside the camp for seven days, and the people waited until she was brought back before they traveled again. <sup>16</sup>Then they left Hazeroth and camped in the wilderness of Paran.

Twelve Scouts Explore Canaan

<sup>1</sup>The LORD now said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Send out men to explore the land of Canaan, the land I am giving to the Israelites. Send one leader from each of the twelve ancestral tribes.” <sup>3</sup>So Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He sent out twelve men, all tribal leaders of Israel, from their camp in the wilderness of Paran.

<sup>4</sup>These were the tribes and the names of their leaders:

Tribe	Leader
Reuben	Shammua son of Zaccur
<sup>5</sup> Simeon	Shaphat son of Hori
<sup>6</sup> Judah	Caleb son of Jephunneh
<sup>7</sup> Issachar	Igal son of Joseph
<sup>8</sup> Ephraim	Hoshea son of Nun
<sup>9</sup> Benjamin	Palti son of Raphu
<sup>10</sup> Zebulun	Gaddiel son of Sodi
<sup>12</sup> Dan	Ammiel son of Gemalli

<sup>17</sup>Moses gave the men these instructions as he sent them out to explore the land: “Go north through the Negev into the hill country. <sup>18</sup>See what the land is like, and find out whether the people living there are strong or weak, few or many. <sup>19</sup>See what kind of land they live in. Is it good or bad? Do their towns have walls, or are they unprotected like open camps? <sup>20</sup>Is the soil fertile or poor? Are there many trees? Do your best to bring back samples of the crops you see.” (It happened to be the season for harvesting the first ripe grapes.)

<sup>21</sup>So they went up and explored the land from the wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob, near Lebo-hamath. <sup>22</sup>Going north, they passed through the Negev and arrived at Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi—all descendants of Anak—lived. (The ancient town of Hebron was founded seven years before the Egyptian city of Zoan.) <sup>23</sup>When they came to the valley of Eshcol, they cut down a branch with a single cluster of grapes so large that it took two of them to carry it on a pole between them! They also brought back samples of the pomegranates and figs. <sup>24</sup>That place was called the valley of Eshcol (which means “cluster”), because of the cluster of grapes the Israelite men cut there.

The Scouting Report

Moses, Aaron, and the whole community of Israel at Kadesh in the wilderness of Paran. They reported to the whole community what they had seen and showed them the fruit they had taken from the land. <sup>27</sup>This was their report to Moses: “We entered the land you sent us to explore, and it is indeed a bountiful country—a land flowing with milk and honey. Here is the kind of fruit it produces. <sup>28</sup>But the people living there are powerful, and their towns are large and fortified. We even saw giants there, the descendants of Anak! <sup>29</sup>The Amalekites live in the Negev, and the Hittites, Jebusites, and Amorites live in the hill country. The Canaanites live along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea* and along the Jordan Valley.”

<sup>30</sup> But Caleb tried to quiet the people as they stood before Moses. “Let’s go at once to take the land,” he said. “We can certainly conquer it!”

<sup>31</sup>But the other men who had explored the land with him disagreed. “We can’t go up against them! They are stronger than we are!” <sup>32</sup>So they spread this bad report about the land among the Israelites: “The land we traveled through and explored will devour anyone who goes to live there. All the people we saw were huge. <sup>33</sup> We even saw giants* there, the descendants of Anak. Next to them we felt like grasshoppers, and that’s what they thought, too!”

OPINION POLL

Question: Should Israel tackle the tribes of Canaan, or not?

Sampling: 12 spies who've been there on reconnaissance.

Numbers 14

The People Rebel

<sup>1</sup>Then the whole community began weeping aloud, and they cried all night. <sup>2</sup>Their voices rose in a great chorus of protest against Moses and Aaron. “If only we had died in Egypt, or even here in the wilderness!” they complained. <sup>3</sup>“Why is the LORD taking us to this country only to have us die in battle? Our wives and our little ones will be carried off as plunder! Wouldn’t it be better for us to return to Egypt?” <sup>4</sup>Then they plotted among themselves, “Let’s choose a new leader and go back to Egypt!”

<sup>5</sup> Then Moses and Aaron fell face down on the ground before the whole community of Israel. <sup>6</sup>Two of the men who had explored the land, Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, tore their clothing. <sup>7</sup>They said to all the people of Israel, “The land we traveled through and explored is a wonderful land! <sup>8</sup>And if the LORD is pleased with us, he will bring us safely into that land and give it to us. It is a rich land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>9</sup>Do not rebel against the LORD, and don’t be afraid of the people of the land. They are only helpless prey to us! They have no protection, but the LORD is with us! Don’t be afraid of them!”

<sup>10</sup>But the whole community began to talk about stoning Joshua and Caleb. Then the glorious presence of the LORD appeared to all the Israelites at the Tabernacle.* <sup>11</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “How long will these people treat me with contempt? Will they never believe me, even after all the miraculous signs I have done among them? <sup>12</sup>I will disown them and destroy them with a plague. Then I will make you into a nation greater and mightier than they are!”

Moses Intercedes for the People

<sup>13</sup>But Moses objected. “What will the Egyptians think when they hear about it?” he asked the LORD. “They know full well the power you displayed in rescuing your people from Egypt.

<sup>14</sup>Now if you destroy them, the Egyptians will send a report to the inhabitants of this land, who have already heard that you live among your people. They know, LORD, that you have appeared to your people face to face and that your pillar of cloud hovers over them. They know that you go before them in the pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night. <sup>15</sup>Now if you slaughter all these people with a single blow, the nations that have heard of your fame will say, <sup>16</sup>“The LORD was not able to bring them into the land he swore to give them, so he killed them in the wilderness.”

<sup>17</sup>“Please, Lord, prove that your power is as great as you have claimed. For you said, <sup>18</sup>“The LORD is slow to anger and filled with unfailing love, forgiving every kind of sin and rebellion. But he does not excuse the guilty. He lays the sins of the parents upon their children; the entire family is affected—even children in the third and fourth generations.” <sup>19</sup>In keeping with your magnificent, unfailing love, please pardon the sins of this people, just as you have forgiven them ever since they left

<sup>20</sup>Then the LORD said, “I will pardon them as you have requested. <sup>21</sup>But as surely as I live, and as surely as the earth is filled with the LORD’s glory, <sup>22</sup>not one of these people will ever enter that land. They have all seen my glorious presence and the miraculous signs I performed both in Egypt and in the wilderness, but again and again they have tested me by refusing to listen to my voice. <sup>23</sup>They will never even see the land I swore to give their ancestors. None of those who have treated me with contempt will ever see it. <sup>24</sup> But my servant Caleb has a different attitude than the others have. He has remained loyal to me, so I will bring him into the land he explored. His descendants will possess their full share of that land. <sup>25</sup>Now turn around, and don’t go on toward the land where the Amalekites and Canaanites live. Tomorrow you must set out for the wilderness in the direction of the Red Sea. *”

The LORD Punishes the Israelites

<sup>26</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>27</sup>“How long must I put up with this wicked community and its complaints about me? Yes, I have heard the complaints the Israelites are making against me. <sup>28</sup>Now tell them this: ‘As surely as I live, declares the LORD, I will do to you the very things I heard you say. <sup>29</sup>You will all drop dead in this wilderness! Because you complained against me, every one of you who is twenty years old or older and was included in the registration will die. <sup>30</sup>You will not enter and occupy the land I swore to give you. The only exceptions will be Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

Personal Gold

An Attitude Adjustment from God

<sup>31</sup>“You said your children would be carried off as plunder. Well, I will bring them safely into the land, and they will enjoy what you have despised. <sup>32</sup>But as for you, you will drop dead in this wilderness. <sup>33</sup>And your children will be like shepherds, wandering in the wilderness for forty years. In this way, they will pay for your faithlessness, until the last of you lies dead in the wilderness.

<sup>34</sup> “Because your men explored the land for forty days, you must wander in the wilderness for forty years—a year for each day, suffering the consequences of your sins. Then you will discover what it is like to have me for an enemy.” <sup>35</sup>I, the LORD, have spoken! I will certainly do these things to every member of the community who has conspired against me. They will be destroyed here in this wilderness, and here they will die!”

<sup>39</sup>When Moses reported the LORD’s words to all the Israelites, the people were filled with grief. <sup>40</sup>Then they got up early the next morning and went to the top of the range of hills. “Let’s go,” they said. “We realize that we have sinned, but now we are ready to enter the land the LORD has promised us.”

<sup>41</sup>But Moses said, “Why are you now disobeying the LORD’s orders to return to the wilderness? It won’t work. <sup>42</sup>Do not go up into the land now. You will only be crushed by your enemies because the LORD is not with you. <sup>43</sup>When you face the Amalekites and Canaanites in battle, you will be slaughtered. The LORD will abandon you because you have abandoned the LORD.”

<sup>44</sup>But the people defiantly pushed ahead toward the hill country, even though neither Moses nor the Ark of the LORD’s Covenant left the camp. <sup>45</sup>Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in those hills came down and attacked them and chased them back as far as Hormah.

Numbers 15

Laws concerning Offerings

“When you finally settle in the land I am giving you, <sup>3</sup>you will offer special gifts as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. These gifts may take the form of a burnt offering, a sacrifice to fulfill a vow, a voluntary offering, or an offering at any of your annual festivals, and they may be taken from your herds of cattle or your flocks of sheep and goats. <sup>4</sup>When you present these offerings, you must also give the LORD a grain offering of two quarts* of choice flour mixed with one quart* of olive oil. <sup>5</sup>For each lamb offered as a burnt offering or a special sacrifice, you must also present one quart of wine as a liquid offering.

<sup>6</sup>“If the sacrifice is a ram, give a grain offering of four quarts* of choice flour mixed with a third of a gallon* of olive oil, <sup>7</sup>and give a third of a gallon of wine as a liquid offering. This will be a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>“When you present a young bull as a burnt offering or as a sacrifice to fulfill a vow or as a peace offering to the LORD, <sup>9</sup>you must also give a grain offering of six quarts* of choice flour mixed with two quarts* of olive oil, <sup>10</sup>and give two quarts of wine as a liquid offering. This will be a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

prepared in this way. <sup>12</sup>Follow these instructions with each offering you present. <sup>13</sup>All of you native-born Israelites must follow these instructions when you offer a special gift as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>And if any foreigners visit you or live among you and want to present a special gift as a pleasing aroma to the LORD, they must follow these same procedures. <sup>15</sup>Native-born Israelites and foreigners are equal before the LORD and are subject to the same decrees. This is a permanent law for you, to be observed from generation to generation. <sup>16</sup>The same instructions and regulations will apply both to you and to the foreigners living among you.”

“When you arrive in the land where I am taking you, <sup>19</sup>and you eat the crops that grow there, you must set some aside as a sacred offering to the LORD. <sup>20</sup>Present a cake from the first of the flour you grind, and set it aside as a sacred offering, as you do with the first grain from the threshing floor. <sup>21</sup>Throughout the generations to come, you are to present a sacred offering to the LORD each year from the first of your ground flour.

<sup>22</sup>“But suppose you unintentionally fail to carry out all these commands that the LORD has given you through Moses. <sup>23</sup>And suppose your descendants in the future fail to do everything the LORD has commanded through Moses. <sup>24</sup>If the mistake was made unintentionally, and the community was unaware of it, the whole community must present a young bull for a burnt offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. It must be offered along with its prescribed grain offering and liquid offering and with one male goat for a sin offering.<sup>25</sup>With it the priest will purify the whole community of Israel, making them right with the LORD,* and they will be forgiven. For it was an unintentional sin, and they have corrected it with their offerings to the LORD—the special gift and the sin offering.<sup>26</sup>The whole community of Israel will be forgiven, including the foreigners living among you, for all the people were involved in the sin.

<sup>27</sup>“If one individual commits an unintentional sin, the guilty person must bring a one-year-old female goat for a sin offering.<sup>28</sup>The priest will sacrifice it to purify* the guilty person before the LORD, and that person will be forgiven.<sup>29</sup>These same instructions apply both to native-born Israelites and to the foreigners living among you.

<sup>30</sup>“But those who brazenly violate the LORD’s will, whether native-born Israelites or foreigners, have blasphemed the LORD, and they must be cut off from the community.<sup>31</sup>Since they have treated the LORD’s word with contempt and deliberately disobeyed his command, they must be completely cut off and suffer the punishment for their guilt.”

Penalty for Breaking the Sabbath

<sup>32</sup>One day while the people of Israel were in the wilderness, they discovered a man gathering wood on the Sabbath day.

<sup>33</sup>The people who found him doing this took him before Moses, Aaron, and the rest of the community.<sup>34</sup>They held him in custody because they did not know what to do with him.

<sup>35</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “The man must be put to death! The whole community must stone him outside the camp.”<sup>36</sup>So the whole community took the man outside the camp and stoned him to death, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Tassels on Clothing

<sup>37</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses,<sup>38</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel: Throughout the generations to come you must make tassels for the hems of your clothing and attach them with a blue cord.<sup>39</sup>When you see the tassels, you will remember and obey all the commands of the LORD instead of following your own desires and defiling yourselves, as you are prone to do.<sup>40</sup>The tassels will help you remember that you must obey all my commands and be holy to your God.<sup>41</sup>I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt that I might be your God. I am the LORD your God!”

Korah

Korah's Rebellion

<sup>4</sup>When Moses heard what they were saying, he fell face down on the ground. <sup>5</sup>Then he said to Korah and his followers, “Tomorrow morning the LORD will show us who belongs to him* and who is holy. The LORD will allow only those whom he selects to enter his own presence. <sup>6</sup>Korah, you and all your followers must prepare your incense burners.<sup>7</sup>Light fires in them tomorrow, and burn incense before the LORD. Then we will see whom the LORD chooses as his holy one. You Levites are the ones who have gone too far!”

<sup>8</sup>Then Moses spoke again to Korah: “Now listen, you Levites!<sup>9</sup>Does it seem insignificant to you that the God of Israel has chosen you from among all the community of Israel to be near him so you can serve in the LORD’s Tabernacle and stand before the people to minister to them? <sup>10</sup>Korah, he has already given this special ministry to you and your fellow Levites. Are you now demanding the priesthood as well? <sup>11</sup>The LORD is the one you and your followers are really revolting against! For who is Aaron that you are complaining about him?”

<sup>12</sup>Then Moses summoned Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, but they replied, “We refuse to come before you! <sup>13</sup>Isn’t it enough that you brought us out of Egypt, a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us here in this wilderness, and that you now treat us like your subjects? <sup>14</sup>What’s more, you haven’t brought us into another land flowing with milk and honey. You haven’t given us a new homeland with fields and vineyards. Are you trying to fool these men? * We will not come.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses became very angry and said to the LORD, “Do not accept their grain offerings! I have not taken so much as a donkey from them, and I have never hurt a single one of them.”

<sup>16</sup>And Moses said to Korah, “You and all your followers must come here tomorrow and present yourselves before the LORD.

Aaron will also be here. <sup>17</sup>You and each of your 250 followers must prepare an incense burner and put incense on it, so you can all present them before the LORD. Aaron will also bring his incense burner.”

<sup>18</sup>So each of these men prepared an incense burner, lit the fire, and placed incense on it. Then they all stood at the entrance of the Tabernacle* with Moses and Aaron.

<sup>19</sup>Meanwhile, Korah had stirred up the entire community against Moses and Aaron, and they all gathered at the Tabernacle entrance. Then the glorious presence of the LORD appeared to the whole community, <sup>20</sup>and the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>21</sup>“Get away from all these people so that I may instantly destroy them!”

<sup>22</sup>But Moses and Aaron fell face down on the ground. “O God,” they pleaded, “you are the God who gives breath to all creatures. Must you be angry with all the people when only one man sins?”

<sup>25</sup>So Moses got up and rushed over to the tents of Dathan and Abiram, followed by the elders of Israel. <sup>26</sup>“Quick!” he told the people. “Get away from the tents of these wicked men, and don’t touch anything that belongs to them. If you do, you will be destroyed for their sins.” <sup>27</sup>So all the people stood back from the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. Then Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the entrances of their tents, together with their wives and children and little ones.

<sup>28</sup>And Moses said, “This is how you will know that the LORD has sent me to do all these things that I have done—for I have not done them on my own.<sup>29</sup> If these men die a natural death, or if nothing unusual happens, then the LORD has not sent me.<sup>30</sup> But if the LORD does something entirely new and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them and all their belongings, and they go down alive into the grave,* then you will know that these men have shown contempt for the LORD.”

<sup>31</sup>He had hardly finished speaking the words when the ground suddenly split open beneath them.<sup>32</sup> The earth opened its mouth and swallowed the men, along with their households and all their followers who were standing with them, and everything they owned.<sup>33</sup> So they went down alive into the grave, along with all their belongings. The earth closed over them, and they all vanished from among the people of Israel.<sup>34</sup> All the people around them fled when they heard their screams. “The earth will swallow us, too!” they cried.<sup>35</sup> Then fire blazed forth from the LORD and burned up the 250 men who were offering incense.

<sup>36</sup>*And the LORD said to Moses,<sup>37</sup> “Tell Eleazar son of Aaron the priest to pull all the incense burners from the fire, for they are holy. Also tell him to scatter the burning coals.<sup>38</sup> Take the incense burners of these men who have sinned at the cost of their lives, and hammer the metal into a thin sheet to overlay the altar. Since these burners were used in the LORD’s presence, they have become holy. Let them serve as a warning to the people of Israel.”

<sup>39</sup>So Eleazar the priest collected the 250 bronze incense burners that had been used by the men who died in the fire, and he hammered them into a thin sheet to overlay the altar.

<sup>40</sup>This would warn the Israelites that no unauthorized person—no one who was not a descendant of Aaron—should ever enter the LORD’s presence to burn incense. If anyone did, the same thing would happen to him as happened to Korah and his followers. So the LORD’s instructions to Moses were carried out.

<sup>41</sup>But the very next morning the whole community of Israel began muttering again against Moses and Aaron, saying, “You have killed the LORD’s people!” <sup>42</sup>As the community gathered to protest against Moses and Aaron, they turned toward the Tabernacle and saw that the cloud had covered it, and the glorious presence of the LORD appeared.

<sup>43</sup>Moses and Aaron came and stood in front of the Tabernacle, <sup>44</sup>and the LORD said to Moses, <sup>45</sup>“Get away from all these people so that I can instantly destroy them!” But Moses and Aaron fell face down on the ground.

<sup>46</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, “Quick, take an incense burner and place burning coals on it from the altar. Lay incense on it, and carry it out among the people to purify them and make them right with the LORD.* The LORD’s anger is blazing against them—the plague has already begun.”

<sup>47</sup>Aaron did as Moses told him and ran out among the people. The plague had already begun to strike down the people, but Aaron burned the incense and purified* the people. <sup>48</sup>He stood between the dead and the living, and the plague stopped. <sup>49</sup>But 14,700 people died in that plague, in addition to those who had died in the affair involving Korah.

Numbers 17

The Budding of Aaron's Staff

<sup>6</sup>So Moses gave the instructions to the people of Israel, and each of the twelve tribal leaders, including Aaron, brought Moses a staff. <sup>7</sup>Moses placed the staffs in the LORD’s presence in the Tabernacle of the Covenant.* <sup>8</sup>When he went into the Tabernacle of the Covenant the next day, he found that Aaron’s staff, representing the tribe of Levi, had sprouted, budded, blossomed, and produced ripe almonds!

<sup>9</sup>When Moses brought all the staffs out from the LORD’s presence, he showed them to the people. Each man claimed his own staff. <sup>10</sup>And the LORD said to Moses: “Place Aaron’s staff permanently before the Ark of the Covenant* to serve as a warning to rebels. This should put an end to their complaints against me and prevent any further deaths.” <sup>11</sup>So Moses did as the LORD commanded him.

<sup>12</sup>Then the people of Israel said to Moses, “Look, we are doomed! We are dead! We are ruined! <sup>13</sup>Everyone who even comes close to the Tabernacle of the LORD dies. Are we all doomed to die?”

Numbers 18

Duties of Priests and Levites

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Aaron: “You, your sons, and your relatives from the tribe of Levi will be held responsible for any offenses related to the sanctuary. But you and your sons alone will be held responsible for violations connected with the priesthood.

<sup>2</sup>“Bring your relatives of the tribe of Levi—your ancestral tribe—to assist you and your sons as you perform the sacred duties in front of the Tabernacle of the Covenant.* <sup>3</sup>But as the Levites go about all their assigned duties at the Tabernacle, they must be careful not to go near any of the sacred objects or the altar. If they do, both you and they will die. <sup>4</sup>The Levites must join you in fulfilling their responsibilities for the care and maintenance of the Tabernacle,* but no unauthorized person may assist you.

<sup>5</sup>“You yourselves must perform the sacred duties inside the sanctuary and at the altar. If you follow these instructions, the LORD’s anger will never again blaze against the people of Israel. <sup>6</sup>I myself have chosen your fellow Levites from among the Israelites to be your special assistants. They are a gift to you, dedicated to the LORD for service in the Tabernacle. <sup>7</sup>But you and your sons, the priests, must personally handle all the priestly rituals associated with the altar and with everything behind the inner curtain. I am giving you the priesthood as your special privilege of service. Any unauthorized person who comes too near the sanctuary will be put to death.”

Support for the Priests and Levites

<sup>8</sup>The LORD gave these further instructions to Aaron: “I myself have put you in charge of all the holy offerings that are brought to me by the people of Israel. I have given all these consecrated offerings to you and your sons as your permanent share. <sup>9</sup>You are allotted the portion of the most holy offerings that is not burned on the fire. This portion of all the most holy offerings—including the grain offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings—will be most holy, and it belongs to you and your sons. <sup>10</sup>You must eat it as a most holy offering. All the males may eat of it, and you must treat it as most holy.

<sup>11</sup>“All the sacred offerings and special offerings presented to me when the Israelites lift them up before the altar also belong to you. I have given them to you and to your sons and daughters as your permanent share. Any member of your family who is ceremonially clean may eat of these offerings.

<sup>12</sup>“I also give you the harvest gifts brought by the people as offerings to the LORD—the best of the olive oil, new wine, and grain. <sup>13</sup>All the first crops of their land that the people present to the LORD belong to you. Any member of your family who is ceremonially clean may eat this food.

<sup>14</sup>“Everything in Israel that is specially set apart for the LORD* also belongs to you.

<sup>15</sup>“The firstborn of every mother, whether human or animal, that is offered to the LORD will be yours. But you must always redeem your firstborn sons and the firstborn of ceremonially unclean animals. <sup>16</sup>Redeem them when they are one month old. The redemption price is five pieces of silver* (as measured by the weight of the sanctuary shekel, which equals twenty gerahs).

<sup>17</sup>“However, you may not redeem the firstborn of cattle, sheep, or goats. They are holy and have been set apart for the LORD. Sprinkle their blood on the altar, and burn their fat as a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>The meat of these animals will be yours, just like the breast and right thigh that are presented by lifting them up as a special offering before the altar. <sup>19</sup>Yes, I am giving you all these holy offerings that the people of Israel bring to the LORD. They are for you and your sons and daughters, to be eaten as your permanent share. This is an eternal and unbreakable covenant* between the LORD and you, and it also applies to your descendants.”

<sup>20</sup>And the LORD said to Aaron, “You priests will receive no allotment of land or share of property among the people of Israel. I am your share and your allotment. <sup>21</sup>As for the tribe of Levi, your relatives, I will compensate them for their service in the Tabernacle. Instead of an allotment of land, I will give them the tithes from the entire land of Israel.

<sup>22</sup>“From now on, no Israelites except priests or Levites may approach the Tabernacle. If they come too near, they will be judged guilty and will die. <sup>23</sup>Only the Levites may serve at the Tabernacle, and they will be held responsible for any offenses against it. This is a permanent law for you, to be observed from generation to generation. The Levites will receive no allotment of land among the Israelites, <sup>24</sup>because I have given them the Israelites' tithes, which have been presented as sacred offerings to the LORD. This will be the Levites' share. That is why I said they would receive no allotment of land among the Israelites."

<sup>25</sup>The LORD also told Moses, <sup>26</sup>"Give these instructions to the Levites: When you receive from the people of Israel the tithes I have assigned as your allotment, give a tenth of the tithes you receive—a tithe of the tithe—to the LORD as a sacred offering.

<sup>27</sup>The LORD will consider this offering to be your harvest offering, as though it were the first grain from your own threshing floor or wine from your own winepress. <sup>28</sup>You must present one-tenth of the tithe received from the Israelites as a sacred offering to the LORD. This is the LORD's sacred portion, and you must present it to Aaron the priest. <sup>29</sup>Be sure to give to the LORD the best portions of the gifts given to you.

<sup>30</sup>"Also, give these instructions to the Levites: When you present the best part as your offering, it will be considered as though it came from your own threshing floor or winepress.

<sup>31</sup>You Levites and your families may eat this food anywhere you wish, for it is your compensation for serving in the Tabernacle. <sup>32</sup>You will not be considered guilty for accepting the LORD's tithes if you give the best portion to the priests. But be careful not to treat the holy gifts of the people of Israel as though they were common. If you do, you will die."

Numbers 19

The Water of Purification

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>2</sup>“Here is another legal requirement commanded by the LORD: Tell the people of Israel to bring you a red heifer, a perfect animal that has no defects and has never been yoked to a plow. <sup>3</sup>Give it to Eleazar the priest, and it will be taken outside the camp and slaughtered in his presence. <sup>4</sup>Eleazar will take some of its blood on his finger and sprinkle it seven times toward the front of the Tabernacle.* <sup>5</sup>As Eleazar watches, the heifer must be burned—its hide, meat, blood, and dung. <sup>6</sup>Eleazar the priest must then take a stick of cedar,* a hyssop branch, and some scarlet yarn and throw them into the fire where the heifer is burning.

<sup>7</sup>“Then the priest must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water. Afterward he may return to the camp, though he will remain ceremonially unclean until evening. <sup>8</sup>The man who burns the animal must also wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and he, too, will remain unclean until evening. <sup>9</sup>Then someone who is ceremonially clean will gather up the ashes of the heifer and deposit them in a purified place outside the camp. They will be kept there for the community of Israel to use in the water for the purification ceremony. This ceremony is performed for the removal of sin. <sup>10</sup>The man who gathers up the ashes of the heifer must also wash his clothes, and he will remain ceremonially unclean until evening. This is a permanent law for the people of Israel and any foreigners who live among them.

<sup>11</sup>“All those who touch a dead human body will be ceremonially unclean for seven days. <sup>12</sup>They must purify themselves on the third and seventh days with the water of purification; then they will be purified. But if they do not do this on the third and seventh days, they will continue to be unclean even after the seventh day. <sup>13</sup>All those who touch a dead body and do not purify themselves in the proper way defile the LORD’s Tabernacle, and they will be cut off from the community of Israel. Since the water of purification was not sprinkled on them, their defilement continues.

<sup>14</sup>“This is the ritual law that applies when someone dies inside a tent: All those who enter that tent and those who were inside when the death occurred will be ceremonially unclean for seven days. <sup>15</sup>Any open container in the tent that was not covered with a lid is also defiled. <sup>16</sup>And if someone in an open field touches the corpse of someone who was killed with a sword or who died a natural death, or if someone touches a human bone or a grave, that person will be defiled for seven days.

<sup>17</sup>“To remove the defilement, put some of the ashes from the burnt purification offering in a jar, and pour fresh water over them. <sup>18</sup>Then someone who is ceremonially clean must take a hyssop branch and dip it into the water. That person must sprinkle the water on the tent, on all the furnishings in the tent, and on the people who were in the tent; also on the person who touched a human bone, or touched someone who was killed or who died naturally, or touched a grave. <sup>19</sup>On the third and seventh days the person who is ceremonially clean must sprinkle the water on those who are defiled. Then on the seventh day the people being cleansed must wash their clothes and bathe themselves, and that evening they will be cleansed of their defilement.

<sup>20</sup>“But those who become defiled and do not purify themselves will be cut off from the community, for they have defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. Since the water of purification has not been sprinkled on them, they remain defiled. <sup>21</sup>This is a permanent law for the people. Those who sprinkle the water of purification must afterward wash their clothes, and anyone who then touches the water used for purification will remain defiled until evening. <sup>22</sup>Anything and anyone that a defiled person touches will be ceremonially unclean until evening.”

Numbers 20

Moses Strikes the Rock

<sup>1</sup>In the first month of the year,* the whole community of Israel arrived in the wilderness of Zin and camped at Kadesh. While they were there, Miriam died and was buried.

<sup>2</sup> There was no water for the people to drink at that place, so they rebelled against Moses and Aaron. <sup>3</sup>The people blamed Moses and said, “If only we had died in the LORD’s presence with our brothers! <sup>4</sup>Why have you brought the congregation of the LORD’s people into this wilderness to die, along with all our livestock? <sup>5</sup>Why did you make us leave Egypt and bring us here to this terrible place? This land has no grain, no figs, no grapes, no pomegranates, and no water to drink!”

<sup>6</sup>Moses and Aaron turned away from the people and went to the entrance of the Tabernacle,* where they fell face down on the ground. Then the glorious presence of the LORD appeared to them, <sup>7</sup>and the LORD said to Moses, <sup>8</sup>“You and Aaron must take the staff and assemble the entire community. As the people watch, speak to the rock over there, and it will pour out its water. You will provide enough water from the rock to satisfy the whole community and their livestock.”

<sup>9</sup>So Moses did as he was told. He took the staff from the place where it was kept before the LORD. <sup>10</sup>Then he and Aaron summoned the people to come and gather at the rock. “Listen, you rebels!” he shouted. “Must we bring you water from this rock?” <sup>11</sup>Then Moses raised his hand and struck the rock twice with the staff, and water gushed out. So the entire community and their livestock drank their fill.

<sup>12</sup>But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Because you did not trust me enough to demonstrate my holiness to the people of Israel, you will not lead them into the land I am giving them!”

<sup>13</sup>This place was known as the waters of Meribah (which means “arguing”) because there the people of Israel argued with the LORD, and there he demonstrated his holiness among them.

Edom Refuses Israel Passage

<sup>14</sup>While Moses was at Kadesh, he sent ambassadors to the king of Edom with this message:

“This is what your relatives, the people of Israel, say: You know all the hardships we have been through. <sup>15</sup>Our ancestors went down to Egypt, and we lived there a long time, and we and our ancestors were brutally mistreated by the Egyptians. <sup>16</sup>But when we cried out to the LORD, he heard us and sent an angel who brought us out of Egypt. Now we are camped at Kadesh, a town on the border of your land. <sup>17</sup>Please let us travel through your land. We will be careful not to go through your fields and vineyards. We won’t even drink water from your wells. We will stay on the king’s road and never leave it until we have passed through your territory.”

<sup>18</sup>But the king of Edom said, “Stay out of my land, or I will meet you with an army!”

<sup>19</sup>The Israelites answered, “We will stay on the main road. If our livestock drink your water, we will pay for it. Just let us pass through your country. That’s all we ask.”

<sup>20</sup>But the king of Edom replied, “Stay out! You may not pass through our land.” With that he mobilized his army and marched out against them with an imposing force. <sup>21</sup>Because Edom refused to allow Israel to pass through their country, Israel was forced to turn around.

The Death of Aaron

<sup>22</sup>The whole community of Israel left Kadesh and arrived at Mount Hor. <sup>23</sup>There, on the border of the land of Edom, the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>24</sup>“The time has come for Aaron to join his ancestors in death. He will not enter the land I am giving the people of Israel, because the two of you rebelled against my instructions concerning the water at Meribah.

<sup>25</sup>Now take Aaron and his son Eleazar up Mount Hor. <sup>26</sup>There you will remove Aaron’s priestly garments and put them on Eleazar, his son. Aaron will die there and join his ancestors.”

<sup>28</sup>At the summit, Moses removed the priestly garments from Aaron and put them on Eleazar, Aaron’s son. Then Aaron died there on top of the mountain, and Moses and Eleazar went back down. <sup>29</sup>When the people realized that Aaron had died, all Israel mourned for him thirty days.

Numbers 21

Victory over the Canaanites

<sup>1</sup> The Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, heard that the Israelites were approaching on the road through Atharim. So he attacked the Israelites and took some of them as prisoners. <sup>2</sup>Then the people of Israel made this vow to the LORD: “If you will hand these people over to us, we will completely destroy* all their towns.” <sup>3</sup>The LORD heard the Israelites’ request and gave them victory over the Canaanites. The Israelites completely destroyed them and their towns, and the place has been called Hormah* ever since.

The Bronze Snake

<sup>4</sup> Then the people of Israel set out from Mount Hor, taking the road to the Red Sea* to go around the land of Edom. But the people grew impatient with the long journey, <sup>5</sup>and they began to speak against God and Moses. “Why have you brought us out of Egypt to die here in the wilderness?” they complained. “There is nothing to eat here and nothing to drink. And we hate this horrible manna!”

<sup>6</sup>So the LORD sent poisonous snakes among the people, and many were bitten and died. <sup>7</sup> Then the people came to Moses and cried out, “We have sinned by speaking against the LORD and against you. Pray that the LORD will take away the snakes.” So Moses prayed for the people.

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD told him, “Make a replica of a poisonous snake and attach it to a pole. All who are bitten will live if they simply look at it!” <sup>9</sup>So Moses made a snake out of bronze and attached it to a pole. Then anyone who was bitten by a snake could look at the bronze snake and be healed!

Israel’s Journey to Moab

<sup>11</sup>Then they went on to Iye-abarim, in the wilderness on the eastern border of Moab. <sup>12</sup>From there they traveled to the valley of Zered Brook and set up camp. <sup>13</sup>Then they moved out and camped on the far side of the Arnon River, in the wilderness adjacent to the territory of the Amorites. The Arnon is the boundary line between the Moabites and the Amorites.

<sup>14</sup>For this reason The Book of the Wars of the LORD speaks of “the town of Waheb in the area of Suphah, and the ravines of the Arnon River, <sup>15</sup>and the ravines that extend as far as the settlement of Ar on the border of Moab.”

<sup>16</sup>From there the Israelites traveled to Beer,* which is the well where the LORD said to Moses, “Assemble the people, and I will give them water.” <sup>17</sup>There the Israelites sang this song:

“Spring up, O well!

Yes, sing its praises!

<sup>18</sup>Sing of this well, which princes dug,
which great leaders hollowed out with their scepters and staffs.”

Then the Israelites left the wilderness and proceeded on through Mattanah,<sup>19</sup>Nahaliel, and Bamoth.<sup>20</sup>After that they went to the valley in Moab where Pisgah Peak overlooks the wasteland.*

Victory over Sihon and Og

<sup>22</sup>“Let us travel through your land. We will be careful not to go through your fields and vineyards. We won’t even drink water from your wells. We will stay on the king’s road until we have passed through your territory.”

<sup>25</sup>So Israel captured all the towns of the Amorites and settled in them, including the city of Heshbon and its surrounding villages. <sup>26</sup>Heshbon had been the capital of King Sihon of the Amorites. He had defeated a former Moabite king and seized all his land as far as the Arnon River. <sup>27</sup>Therefore, the ancient poets wrote this about him:

“Come to Heshbon and let it be rebuilt!

Let the city of Sihon be restored.

a blaze from the city of Sihon.

It burned the city of Ar in Moab;

it destroyed the rulers of the Arnon heights.

<sup>29</sup>What sorrow awaits you, O people of Moab!

You are finished, O worshipers of Chemosh!

Chemosh has left his sons as refugees, his daughters as captives of Sihon, the Amorite king.

<sup>30</sup>We have utterly destroyed them, from Heshbon to Dibon.

We have completely wiped them out as far away as Nophah and Medeba.*”

<sup>31</sup>So the people of Israel occupied the territory of the Amorites. <sup>32</sup>After Moses sent men to explore the Jazer area, they captured all the towns in the region and drove out the Amorites who lived there. <sup>33</sup>Then they turned and marched up the road to Bashan, but King Og of Bashan and all his people attacked them at Edrei. <sup>34</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Do not be afraid of him, for I have handed him over to you, along with all his people and his land. Do the same to him as you did to King Sihon of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon.” <sup>35</sup>And Israel killed King Og, his sons, and all his subjects; not a single survivor remained. Then Israel occupied their land.

Balaam

Numbers 22

Balak Sends for Balaam

<sup>1</sup> Then the people of Israel traveled to the plains of Moab and camped east of the Jordan River, across from Jericho. <sup>2</sup>Balak son of Zippor, the Moabite king, had seen everything the Israelites did to the Amorites. <sup>3</sup>And when the people of Moab saw how many Israelites there were, they were terrified. <sup>4</sup>The king of Moab said to the elders of Midian, “This mob will devour everything in sight, like an ox devours grass in the field!”

So Balak, king of Moab, <sup>5</sup>sent messengers to call Balaam son of Beor, who was living in his native land of Pethor* near the Euphrates River.* His message said:

“Look, a vast horde of people has arrived from Egypt. They cover the face of the earth and are threatening me.

<sup>6</sup>Please come and curse these people for me because they are too powerful for me. Then perhaps I will be able to conquer them and drive them from the land. I know that blessings fall on any people you bless, and curses fall on people you curse.”

<sup>7</sup>Balak’s messengers, who were elders of Moab and Midian, set out with money to pay Balaam to place a curse upon Israel.* They went to Balaam and delivered Balak’s message to him. <sup>8</sup>“Stay here overnight,” Balaam said. “In the morning I will tell you whatever the LORD directs me to say.” So the officials from Moab stayed there with Balaam.

<sup>9</sup>That night God came to Balaam and asked him, “Who are these men visiting you?”

<sup>10</sup>Balaam said to God, “Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent me this message: <sup>11</sup>‘Look, a vast horde of people has arrived from Egypt, and they cover the face of the earth. Come and curse these people for me. Then perhaps I will be able to stand up to them and drive them from the land.’”

<sup>12</sup>But God told Balaam, “Do not go with them. You are not to curse these people, for they have been blessed!”

<sup>13</sup>The next morning Balaam got up and told Balak’s officials, “Go on home! The LORD will not let me go with you.”

<sup>14</sup>So the Moabite officials returned to King Balak and reported, “Balaam refused to come with us.” <sup>15</sup>Then Balak tried again. This time he sent a larger number of even more distinguished officials than those he had sent the first time.

“This is what Balak son of Zippor says: Please don’t let anything stop you from coming to help me. <sup>17</sup>I will pay you very well and do whatever you tell me. Just come and curse these people for me!”

<sup>18</sup>But Balaam responded to Balak’s messengers, “Even if Balak were to give me his palace filled with silver and gold, I would be powerless to do anything against the will of the LORD my God. <sup>19</sup>But stay here one more night, and I will see if the LORD has anything else to say to me.”

<sup>20</sup>That night God came to Balaam and told him, “Since these men have come for you, get up and go with them. But do only what I tell you to do.”

Balaam and His Donkey

<sup>21</sup> So the next morning Balaam got up, saddled his donkey, and started off with the Moabite officials. <sup>22</sup>But God was angry that Balaam was going, so he sent the angel of the LORD to stand in the road to block his way. As Balaam and two servants were riding along, <sup>23</sup>Balaam’s donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road with a drawn sword in his hand. The donkey bolted off the road into a field, but Balaam beat it and turned it back onto the road. <sup>24</sup>Then the angel of the LORD stood at a place where the road narrowed between two vineyard walls. <sup>25</sup>When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, it tried to squeeze by and crushed Balaam’s foot against the wall. So Balaam beat the donkey again. <sup>26</sup>Then the angel of the LORD moved farther down the road and stood in a place too narrow for the donkey to get by at all.<sup>27</sup> This time when the donkey saw the angel, it lay down under Balaam. In a fit of rage Balaam beat the animal again with his staff.

<sup>28</sup>Then the LORD gave the donkey the ability to speak. “What have I done to you that deserves your beating me three times?” it asked Balaam.

<sup>29</sup>“You have made me look like a fool!” Balaam shouted. “If I had a sword with me, I would kill you!”

<sup>30</sup>“But I am the same donkey you have ridden all your life,” the donkey answered. “Have I ever done anything like this before?”

“No,” Balaam admitted.

<sup>31</sup>Then the LORD opened Balaam’s eyes, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the roadway with a drawn sword in his hand. Balaam bowed his head and fell face down on the ground before him.

<sup>32</sup>“Why did you beat your donkey those three times?” the angel of the LORD demanded. “Look, I have come to block your way because you are stubbornly resisting me.<sup>33</sup> Three times the donkey saw me and shied away; otherwise, I would certainly have killed you by now and spared the donkey.”

<sup>34</sup>Then Balaam confessed to the angel of the LORD, “I have sinned. I didn’t realize you were standing in the road to block my way. I will return home if you are against my going.”

<sup>35</sup>But the angel of the LORD told Balaam, “Go with these men, but say only what I tell you to say.” So Balaam went on with Balak’s officials.<sup>36</sup> When King Balak heard that Balaam was on the way, he went out to meet him at a Moabite town on the Arnon River at the farthest border of his land.

<sup>37</sup>“Didn’t I send you an urgent invitation? Why didn’t you come right away?” Balak asked Balaam. “Didn’t you believe me when I said I would reward you richly?”

<sup>38</sup>Balaam replied, “Look, now I have come, but I have no power to say whatever I want. I will speak only the message that God puts in my mouth.” <sup>39</sup>Then Balaam accompanied Balak to Kiriath-huzoth, <sup>40</sup>where the king sacrificed cattle and sheep. He sent portions of the meat to Balaam and the officials who were with him. <sup>41</sup>The next morning Balak took Balaam up to Bamoth-baal. From there he could see some of the people of Israel spread out below him.

Numbers 23

Balaam Blesses Israel

<sup>1</sup>Then Balaam said to King Balak, “Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven young bulls and seven rams for me to sacrifice.” <sup>2</sup>Balak followed his instructions, and the two of them sacrificed a young bull and a ram on each altar.

<sup>3</sup>Then Balaam said to Balak, “Stand here by your burnt offerings, and I will go to see if the LORD will respond to me. Then I will tell you whatever he reveals to me.” So Balaam went alone to the top of a bare hill, <sup>4</sup>and God met him there. Balaam said to him, “I have prepared seven altars and have sacrificed a young bull and a ram on each altar.”

<sup>5</sup>The LORD gave Balaam a message for King Balak. Then he said, “Go back to Balak and give him my message.”

“Balak summoned me to come from Aram;
the king of Moab brought me from the eastern hills.
‘Come,’ he said, ‘curse Jacob for me!
Come and announce Israel’s doom.’

<sup>8</sup>But how can I curse those whom God has not cursed?
How can I condemn those whom the LORD has not condemned?

<sup>9</sup>I see them from the cliff tops;

I watch them from the hills.

I see a people who live by themselves, set apart from other nations.

<sup>10</sup>Who can count Jacob's descendants, as numerous as dust?

Who can count even a fourth of Israel's people?

Let me die like the righteous;

let my life end like theirs."

<sup>11</sup>Then King Balak demanded of Balaam, "What have you done to me? I brought you to curse my enemies. Instead, you have blessed them!"

<sup>12</sup>But Balaam replied, "I will speak only the message that the LORD puts in my mouth."

Balaam's Second Message

<sup>13</sup>Then King Balak told him, "Come with me to another place. There you will see another part of the nation of Israel, but not all of them. Curse at least that many!" <sup>14</sup>So Balak took Balaam to the plateau of Zophim on Pisgah Peak. He built seven altars there and offered a young bull and a ram on each altar.

<sup>15</sup>Then Balaam said to the king, "Stand here by your burnt offerings while I go over there to meet the LORD."

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD met Balaam and gave him a message. Then he said, "Go back to Balak and give him my message."

burnt offerings with all the officials of Moab. “What did the LORD say?” Balak asked eagerly.

<sup>18</sup> This was the message Balaam delivered:

“Rise up, Balak, and listen!

Hear me, son of Zippor.

<sup>19</sup> God is not a man, so he does not lie.

He is not human, so he does not change his mind.

Has he ever spoken and failed to act?

Has he ever promised and not carried it through?

<sup>20</sup> Listen, I received a command to bless;

God has blessed, and I cannot reverse it!

<sup>21</sup> No misfortune is in his plan for Jacob;

no trouble is in store for Israel.

For the LORD their God is with them;

he has been proclaimed their king.

<sup>22</sup> God brought them out of Egypt;

for them he is as strong as a wild ox.

no magic has any power against Israel.

For now it will be said of Jacob,

‘What wonders God has done for Israel!’

<sup>24</sup> These people rise up like a lioness, like a majestic lion rousing itself.

They refuse to rest until they have feasted on prey, drinking the blood of the slaughtered!”

<sup>25</sup>Then Balak said to Balaam, “Fine, but if you won’t curse them, at least don’t bless them!”

<sup>26</sup>But Balaam replied to Balak, “Didn’t I tell you that I can do only what the LORD tells me?”

Balaam’s Third Message

<sup>27</sup>Then King Balak said to Balaam, “Come, I will take you to one more place. Perhaps it will please God to let you curse them from there.”

<sup>28</sup>So Balak took Balaam to the top of Mount Peor, overlooking the wasteland.* <sup>29</sup>Balaam again told Balak, “Build me seven altars, and prepare seven young bulls and seven rams for me to sacrifice.” <sup>30</sup>So Balak did as Balaam ordered and offered a young bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 24

<sup>1</sup>By now Balaam realized that the LORD was determined to bless Israel, so he did not resort to divination as before. Instead, he turned and looked out toward the wilderness, <sup>2</sup>where he saw the people of Israel camped, tribe by tribe. Then the Spirit of God came upon him, <sup>3</sup>and this is the message he delivered:

“This is the message of Balaam son of Beor,
the message of the man whose eyes see clearly,
<sup>4</sup>the message of one who hears the words of God,
who sees a vision from the Almighty,
who bows down with eyes wide open:

<sup>5</sup>How beautiful are your tents, O Jacob;
how lovely are your homes, O Israel!

<sup>6</sup>They spread before me like palm groves, *
like gardens by the riverside.
They are like tall trees planted by the LORD, like cedars beside the waters.

<sup>7</sup>Water will flow from their buckets;
their offspring have all they need.
Their king will be greater than Agag;
their kingdom will be exalted.

<sup>8</sup>God brought them out of Egypt;
for them he is as strong as a wild ox.
He devours all the nations that oppose him, breaking their bones in pieces, shooting them with arrows.

<sup>9</sup>Like a lion, Israel crouches and lies down;
like a lioness, who dares to arouse her?
Blessed is everyone who blesses you, O Israel, and cursed is everyone who curses you.”

<sup>10</sup>King Balak flew into a rage against Balaam. He angrily clapped his hands and shouted, “I called you to curse my enemies! Instead, you have blessed them three times. <sup>11</sup>Now get out of here! Go back home! I promised to reward you richly, but the LORD has kept you from your reward.”

<sup>12</sup>Balaam told Balak, “Don’t you remember what I told your messengers? I said, <sup>13</sup>‘Even if Balak were to give me his palace filled with silver and gold, I would be powerless to do anything against the will of the LORD.’ I told you that I could say only what the LORD says! <sup>14</sup>Now I am returning to my own people. But first let me tell you what the Israelites will do to your people in the future.”

Balaam’s Final Messages

<sup>15</sup>This is the message Balaam delivered:

“This is the message of Balaam son of Beor,
the message of the man whose eyes see clearly,
<sup>16</sup>the message of one who hears the words of God, who has knowledge from the Most High,
who sees a vision from the Almighty,
who bows down with eyes wide open:
<sup>17</sup>I see him, but not here and now.

I perceive him, but far in the distant future.
A star will rise from Jacob;
a scepter will emerge from Israel.
It will crush the foreheads of Moab's people, cracking the skulls of the people of Sheth.

<sup>18</sup>Edom will be taken over,
and Seir, its enemy, will be conquered, while Israel marches on in triumph.

<sup>19</sup>A ruler will rise in Jacob who will destroy the survivors of Ir.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Balaam looked over toward the people of Amalek and delivered this message:

“Amalek was the greatest of nations, but its destiny is destruction!”

<sup>21</sup>Then he looked over toward the Kenites and delivered this message:

“Your home is secure;
your nest is set in the rocks.

<sup>22</sup>But the Kenites will be destroyed when Assyria* takes you captive.”

“Alas, who can survive unless God has willed it?

<sup>24</sup>Ships will come from the coasts of Cyprus*;
they will oppress Assyria and afflict Eber, but they, too, will be utterly destroyed.”

Numbers 25

Moab Seduces Israel

<sup>4</sup>The LORD issued the following command to Moses: "Seize all the ringleaders and execute them before the LORD in broad daylight, so his fierce anger will turn away from the people of Israel."

<sup>5</sup>So Moses ordered Israel's judges, "Each of you must put to death the men under your authority who have joined in worshipping Baal of Peor."

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>11</sup>“Phinehas son of Eleazar and grandson of Aaron the priest has turned my anger away from the Israelites by being as zealous among them as I was. So I stopped destroying all Israel as I had intended to do in my zealous anger. <sup>12</sup>Now tell him that I am making my special covenant of peace with him. <sup>13</sup>In this covenant, I give him and his descendants a permanent right to the priesthood, for in his zeal for me, his God, he purified the people of Israel, making them right with me.*”

<sup>16</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>17</sup>“Attack the Midianites and destroy them, <sup>18</sup>because they assaulted you with deceit and tricked you into worshipping Baal of Peor, and because of Cozbi, the daughter of a Midianite leader, who was killed at the time of the plague because of what happened at Peor.”

Sexual and Spiritual Seduction

Numbers 26

The Second Registration of Israel's Troops

<sup>1</sup>After the plague had ended, the LORD said to Moses and to Eleazar son of Aaron the priest, <sup>2</sup>“From the whole community of Israel, record the names of all the warriors by their families. List all the men twenty years old or older who are able to go to war.”

<sup>3</sup>So there on the plains of Moab beside the Jordan River, across from Jericho, Moses and Eleazar the priest issued these instructions to the leaders of Israel: <sup>4</sup>“List all the men of Israel twenty years old and older, just as the LORD commanded Moses.”

This is the record of all the descendants of Israel who came out of Egypt.

The Tribe of Reuben

The Hanochite clan, named after their ancestor Hanoch.

The Palluite clan, named after their ancestor Pallu.

The Carmite clan, named after their ancestor Carmi.

<sup>8</sup>Pallu was the ancestor of Eliab, <sup>9</sup>and Eliab was the father of Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. This Dathan and Abiram are the same community leaders who conspired with Korah against Moses and Aaron, rebelling against the LORD. <sup>10</sup>But the earth opened up its mouth and swallowed them with Korah, and fire devoured 250 of their followers. This served as a warning to the entire nation of Israel. <sup>11</sup>However, the sons of Korah did not die that day.

The Tribe of Simeon

<sup>12</sup>These were the clans descended from the sons of Simeon:

The Jemuelite clan, named after their ancestor Jemuel.*

The Jaminite clan, named after their ancestor Jamin.

The Jakinite clan, named after their ancestor Jakin.

The Shaulite clan, named after their ancestor Shaul.

<sup>14</sup>These were the clans of Simeon. Their registered troops numbered 22,200.

The Tribe of Gad

<sup>15</sup>These were the clans descended from the sons of Gad:

The Zephonite clan, named after their ancestor Zephon.

The Haggite clan, named after their ancestor Haggi.

The Shunite clan, named after their ancestor Shuni.

<sup>16</sup>The Oznite clan, named after their ancestor Ozni.

The Erite clan, named after their ancestor Eri.

The Arelite clan, named after their ancestor Areli.

<sup>18</sup>These were the clans of Gad. Their registered troops numbered 40,500.

The Tribe of Judah

<sup>19</sup>Judah had two sons, Er and Onan, who had died in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup>These were the clans descended from Judah's surviving sons:

The Shelanite clan, named after their ancestor Shelah.

The Perezite clan, named after their ancestor Perez.

The Zerahite clan, named after their ancestor Zerah.

<sup>21</sup>These were the subclans descended from the Perezites:

The Hezronites, named after their ancestor Hezron.

The Hamulites, named after their ancestor Hamul.

<sup>22</sup>These were the clans of Judah. Their registered troops numbered 76,500.

The Tribe of Issachar

<sup>23</sup>These were the clans descended from the sons of Issachar:

The Tolaite clan, named after their ancestor Tola.

The Puite clan, named after their ancestor Puah.*

<sup>24</sup>The Jashubite clan, named after their ancestor Jashub.

The Shimronite clan, named after their ancestor Shimron.

numbered 64,300.

The Tribe of Zebulun

<sup>26</sup>These were the clans descended from the sons of Zebulun:

The Seredite clan, named after their ancestor Sered.

The Elonite clan, named after their ancestor Elon.

The Jahleelite clan, named after their ancestor Jahleel.

<sup>27</sup>These were the clans of Zebulun. Their registered troops numbered 60,500.

The Tribe of Manasseh

The Makirite clan, named after their ancestor Makir.

The Gileadite clan, named after their ancestor Gilead, Makir's son.

<sup>30</sup>These were the subclans descended from the Gileadites:

The Iezerites, named after their ancestor Iezer.

The Helekites, named after their ancestor Helek.

The Shechemites, named after their ancestor Shechem.

The Hephherites, named after their ancestor Hephher.

but his daughters' names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.)

<sup>34</sup>These were the clans of Manasseh. Their registered troops numbered 52,700.

The Tribe of Ephraim

<sup>35</sup>These were the clans descended from the sons of Ephraim:
The Shuthelahite clan, named after their ancestor Shuthelah.
The Bekerite clan, named after their ancestor Beker.
The Tahanite clan, named after their ancestor Tahan.

<sup>36</sup>This was the subclan descended from the Shuthelahites:
The Eranites, named after their ancestor Eran.

<sup>37</sup>These were the clans of Ephraim. Their registered troops numbered 32,500.

These clans of Manasseh and Ephraim were all descendants of Joseph.

The Tribe of Benjamin

<sup>38</sup>These were the clans descended from the sons of Benjamin:
The Belaite clan, named after their ancestor Bela.
The Ashbelite clan, named after their ancestor Ashbel.
The Ahiramite clan, named after their ancestor Ahiram.

The Huphamite clan, named after their ancestor Hupham.

<sup>40</sup>These were the subclans descended from the Belaites:
The Ardites, named after their ancestor Ard.*
The Naamites, named after their ancestor Naaman.

<sup>41</sup>These were the clans of Benjamin. Their registered troops numbered 45,600.

The Tribe of Dan

<sup>42</sup>These were the clans descended from the sons of Dan:
The Shuhamite clan, named after their ancestor Shuham.

<sup>43</sup>These were the Shuhamite clans of Dan. Their registered troops numbered 64,400.

The Tribe of Asher

<sup>44</sup>These were the clans descended from the sons of Asher:
The Imnite clan, named after their ancestor Imnah.
The Ishvite clan, named after their ancestor Ishvi.
The Beriite clan, named after their ancestor Beriah.

<sup>45</sup>These were the subclans descended from the Beriites:
The Heberites, named after their ancestor Heber.
The Malkielites, named after their ancestor Malkiel.

<sup>46</sup>Asher also had a daughter named Serah.

numbered 53,400.

The Tribe of Naphtali

<sup>48</sup>These were the clans descended from the sons of Naphtali:

The Jahzeelite clan, named after their ancestor Jahzeel.

The Gunite clan, named after their ancestor Guni.

The Shillemite clan, named after their ancestor Shillem.

<sup>50</sup>These were the clans of Naphtali. Their registered troops numbered 45,400.

Results of the Registration

<sup>51</sup>In summary, the registered troops of all Israel numbered 601,730.

<sup>52</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>53</sup>“Divide the land among the tribes, and distribute the grants of land in proportion to the tribes’ populations, as indicated by the number of names on the list. <sup>54</sup>Give the larger tribes more land and the smaller tribes less land, each group receiving a grant in proportion to the size of its population. <sup>55</sup>But you must assign the land by lot, and give land to each ancestral tribe according to the number of names on the list. <sup>56</sup>Each grant of land must be assigned by lot among the larger and smaller tribal groups.”

The Tribe of Levi

<sup>57</sup>This is the record of the Levites who were counted according to their clans:

The Gershonite clan, named after their ancestor Gershon.
The Kohathite clan, named after their ancestor Kohath.
The Merarite clan, named after their ancestor Merari.

<sup>58</sup>The Libnites, the Hebronites, the Mahlites, the Mushites, and the Korahites were all subclans of the Levites.

Now Kohath was the ancestor of Amram, <sup>59</sup>and Amram's wife was named Jochebed. She also was a descendant of Levi, born among the Levites in the land of Egypt. Amram and Jochebed became the parents of Aaron, Moses, and their sister, Miriam.

<sup>61</sup>But Nadab and Abihu died when they burned before the LORD the wrong kind of fire, different than he had commanded.

<sup>62</sup>The men from the Levite clans who were one month old or older numbered 23,000. But the Levites were not included in the registration of the rest of the people of Israel because they were not given an allotment of land when it was divided among the Israelites.

<sup>63</sup>So these are the results of the registration of the people of Israel as conducted by Moses and Eleazar the priest on the plains of Moab beside the Jordan River, across from Jericho.

<sup>64</sup>Not one person on this list had been among those listed in the previous registration taken by Moses and Aaron in the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>65</sup>For the LORD had said of them, "They will all die in the wilderness." Not one of them survived except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

Numbers 27

The Daughters of Zelophehad

<sup>5</sup>So Moses brought their case before the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD replied to Moses, <sup>7</sup>“The claim of the daughters of Zelophehad is legitimate. You must give them a grant of land along with their father’s relatives. Assign them the property that would have been given to their father.

<sup>8</sup>“And give the following instructions to the people of Israel: If a man dies and has no son, then give his inheritance to his daughters. <sup>9</sup>And if he has no daughter either, transfer his inheritance to his brothers. <sup>10</sup>If he has no brothers, give his inheritance to his father’s brothers. <sup>11</sup>But if his father has no brothers, give his inheritance to the nearest relative in his clan. This is a legal requirement for the people of Israel, just as the LORD commanded Moses.”

Joshua Chosen to Lead Israel

<sup>12</sup>One day the LORD said to Moses, “Climb one of the mountains east of the river,* and look out over the land I have given the people of Israel. <sup>13</sup>After you have seen it, you will die like your brother, Aaron, <sup>14</sup>for you both rebelled against my instructions in the wilderness of Zin. When the people of Israel rebelled, you failed to demonstrate my holiness to them at the waters.” (These are the waters of Meribah at Kadesh* in the wilderness of Zin.)

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses said to the LORD, <sup>16</sup>“O LORD, you are the God who gives breath to all creatures. Please appoint a new man as leader for the community. <sup>17</sup>Give them someone who will guide them wherever they go and will lead them into battle, so the community of the LORD will not be like sheep without a shepherd.”

<sup>18</sup>The LORD replied, “Take Joshua son of Nun, who has the Spirit in him, and lay your hands on him. <sup>19</sup>Present him to Eleazar the priest before the whole community, and publicly commission him to lead the people. <sup>20</sup>Transfer some of your authority to him so the whole community of Israel will obey him. <sup>21</sup>When direction from the LORD is needed, Joshua will stand before Eleazar the priest, who will use the Urim—one of the sacred lots cast before the LORD—to determine his will. This is how Joshua and the rest of the community of Israel will determine everything they should do.”

<sup>22</sup>So Moses did as the LORD commanded. He presented Joshua to Eleazar the priest and the whole community.<sup>23</sup> Moses laid his hands on him and commissioned him to lead the people, just as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Numbers 28

The Daily Offerings

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Give these instructions to the people of Israel: The offerings you present as special gifts are a pleasing aroma to me; they are my food. See to it that they are brought at the appointed times and offered according to my instructions.

<sup>3</sup>“Say to the people: This is the special gift you must present to the LORD as your daily burnt offering. You must offer two one-year-old male lambs with no defects. <sup>4</sup>Sacrifice one lamb in the morning and the other in the evening. <sup>5</sup>With each lamb you must offer a grain offering of two quarts* of choice flour mixed with one quart* of pure oil of pressed olives. <sup>6</sup>This is the regular burnt offering instituted at Mount Sinai as a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>Along with it you must present the proper liquid offering of one quart of alcoholic drink with each lamb, poured out in the Holy Place as an offering to the LORD. <sup>8</sup>Offer the second lamb in the evening with the same grain offering and liquid offering. It, too, is a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

The Sabbath Offerings

<sup>9</sup>“On the Sabbath day, sacrifice two one-year-old male lambs with no defects. They must be accompanied by a grain offering of four quarts* of choice flour moistened with olive oil, and a liquid offering. <sup>10</sup>This is the burnt offering to be presented each Sabbath day, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its accompanying liquid offering.

The Monthly Offerings

<sup>11</sup>“On the first day of each month, present an extra burnt offering to the LORD of two young bulls, one ram, and seven one-year-old male lambs, all with no defects. <sup>12</sup>These must be accompanied by grain offerings of choice flour moistened with olive oil—six quarts* with each bull, four quarts with the ram, <sup>13</sup>and two quarts with each lamb. This burnt offering will be a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>You must also present a liquid offering with each sacrifice: two quarts* of wine for each bull, a third of a gallon* for the ram, and one quart* for each lamb. Present this monthly burnt offering on the first day of each month throughout the year.

<sup>15</sup>“On the first day of each month, you must also offer one male goat for a sin offering to the LORD. This is in addition to the regular burnt offering and its accompanying liquid offering.

Offerings for the Passover

<sup>16</sup>“On the fourteenth day of the first month,* you must celebrate the LORD’s Passover. <sup>17</sup>On the following day—the fifteenth day of the month—a joyous, seven-day festival will begin, but no bread made with yeast may be eaten. <sup>18</sup>The first day of the festival will be an official day for holy assembly, and no ordinary work may be done on that day. <sup>19</sup>As a special gift you must present a burnt offering to the LORD—two young bulls, one ram, and seven one-year-old male lambs, all with no defects.<sup>20</sup> These will be accompanied by grain offerings of choice flour moistened with olive oil—six quarts with each bull, four quarts with the ram,<sup>21</sup> and two quarts with each of the seven lambs.<sup>22</sup> You must also offer a male goat as a sin offering to purify yourselves and make yourselves right with the LORD.*<sup>23</sup> Present these offerings in addition to your regular morning burnt offering.<sup>24</sup> On each of the seven days of the festival, this is how you must prepare the food offering that is presented as a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD. These will be offered in addition to the regular burnt offerings and liquid offerings.<sup>25</sup> The seventh day of the festival will be another official day for holy assembly, and no ordinary work may be done on that day.

Offerings for the Festival of Harvest

<sup>26</sup>“At the Festival of Harvest,* when you present the first of your new grain to the LORD, you must call an official day for holy assembly, and you may do no ordinary work on that day.<sup>27</sup> Present a special burnt offering on that day as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. It will consist of two young bulls, one ram, and seven one-year-old male lambs.<sup>28</sup> These will be accompanied by grain offerings of choice flour moistened with olive oil—six quarts with each bull, four quarts with the ram,<sup>29</sup> and two quarts with each of the seven lambs.<sup>30</sup> Also, offer one male goat to purify yourselves and make yourselves right with the LORD.<sup>31</sup> Prepare these special burnt offerings, along with their liquid offerings, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its accompanying grain offering. Be sure that all the animals you sacrifice have no defects.

Numbers 29

Offerings for the Festival of Trumpets

<sup>1</sup>“Celebrate the Festival of Trumpets each year on the first day of the appointed month in early autumn.* You must call an official day for holy assembly, and you may do no ordinary work. <sup>2</sup>On that day you must present a burnt offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. It will consist of one young bull, one ram, and seven one-year-old male lambs, all with no defects. <sup>3</sup>These must be accompanied by grain offerings of choice flour moistened with olive oil—six quarts* with the bull, four quarts* with the ram, <sup>4</sup>and two quarts* with each of the seven lambs. <sup>5</sup>In addition, you must sacrifice a male goat as a sin offering to purify yourselves and make yourselves right with the LORD.* <sup>6</sup>These special sacrifices are in addition to your regular monthly and daily burnt offerings, and they must be given with their prescribed grain offerings and liquid offerings. These offerings are given as a special gift to the LORD, a pleasing aroma to him.

Offerings for the Day of Atonement

<sup>7</sup>“Ten days later, on the tenth day of the same month,* you must call another holy assembly. On that day, the Day of Atonement, the people must go without food and must do no ordinary work. <sup>8</sup>You must present a burnt offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. It will consist of one young bull, one ram, and seven one-year-old male lambs, all with no defects.<sup>9</sup> These offerings must be accompanied by the prescribed grain offerings of choice flour moistened with olive oil—six quarts of choice flour with the bull, four quarts of choice flour with the ram,<sup>10</sup> and two quarts of choice flour with each of the seven lambs.<sup>11</sup> You must also sacrifice one male goat for a sin offering. This is in addition to the sin offering of atonement and the regular daily burnt offering with its grain offering, and their accompanying liquid offerings.

Offerings for the Festival of Shelters

<sup>12</sup>“Five days later, on the fifteenth day of the same month,* you must call another holy assembly of all the people, and you may do no ordinary work on that day. It is the beginning of the Festival of Shelters,* a seven-day festival to the LORD.<sup>13</sup> On the first day of the festival, you must present a burnt offering as a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD. It will consist of thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen one-year-old male lambs, all with no defects.<sup>14</sup> Each of these offerings must be accompanied by a grain offering of choice flour moistened with olive oil—six quarts for each of the thirteen bulls, four quarts for each of the two rams,<sup>15</sup> and two quarts for each of the fourteen lambs.<sup>16</sup> You must also sacrifice a male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its accompanying grain offering and liquid offering.

rams, and lambs must be accompanied by its prescribed grain offering and liquid offering.<sup>19</sup> You must also sacrifice a male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its accompanying grain offering and liquid offering.

must be accompanied by its prescribed grain offering and liquid offering.<sup>31</sup> You must also sacrifice a male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its accompanying grain offering and liquid offering.

<sup>35</sup>“On the eighth day of the festival, proclaim another holy day. You must do no ordinary work on that day.<sup>36</sup> You must present a burnt offering as a special gift, a pleasing aroma to the LORD. It will consist of one young bull, one ram, and seven one-year-old male lambs, all with no defects.<sup>37</sup> Each of these offerings must be accompanied by its prescribed grain offering and liquid offering.<sup>38</sup> You must also sacrifice one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its accompanying grain offering and liquid offering.

<sup>39</sup>“You must present these offerings to the LORD at your annual festivals. These are in addition to the sacrifices and offerings you present in connection with vows, or as voluntary offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings, liquid offerings, or peace offerings.”

<sup>40</sup>* So Moses gave all of these instructions to the people of Israel as the LORD had commanded him.

Numbers 30

Laws concerning Vows

<sup>1</sup>*Then Moses summoned the leaders of the tribes of Israel and told them, “This is what the LORD has commanded: <sup>2</sup>A man who makes a vow to the LORD or makes a pledge under oath must never break it. He must do exactly what he said he would do.

<sup>3</sup>“If a young woman makes a vow to the LORD or a pledge under oath while she is still living at her father’s home, <sup>4</sup>and her father hears of the vow or pledge and does not object to it, then all her vows and pledges will stand. <sup>5</sup>But if her father refuses to let her fulfill the vow or pledge on the day he hears of it, then all her vows and pledges will become invalid. The LORD will forgive her because her father would not let her fulfill them.

<sup>6</sup>“Now suppose a young woman makes a vow or binds herself with an impulsive pledge and later marries. <sup>7</sup>If her husband learns of her vow or pledge and does not object on the day he hears of it, her vows and pledges will stand. <sup>8</sup>But if her husband refuses to accept her vow or impulsive pledge on the day he hears of it, he nullifies her commitments, and the LORD will forgive her. <sup>9</sup>If, however, a woman is a widow or is divorced, she must fulfill all her vows and pledges.

<sup>10</sup>“But suppose a woman is married and living in her husband’s home when she makes a vow or binds herself with a pledge. <sup>11</sup>If her husband hears of it and does not object to it, her vow or pledge will stand. <sup>12</sup>But if her husband refuses to accept it on the day he hears of it, her vow or pledge will be nullified, and the LORD will forgive her. <sup>13</sup>So her husband may either confirm or nullify any vows or pledges she makes to deny herself. <sup>14</sup>But if he does not object on the day he hears of it, then he is agreeing to all her vows and pledges. <sup>15</sup>If he waits more than a day and then tries to nullify a vow or pledge, he will be punished for her guilt.”

<sup>16</sup>These are the regulations the LORD gave Moses concerning relationships between a man and his wife, and between a father and a young daughter who still lives at home.

Numbers 31

Conquest of the Midianites

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“On behalf of the people of Israel, take revenge on the Midianites for leading them into idolatry. After that, you will die and join your ancestors.”

<sup>3</sup>So Moses said to the people, “Choose some men, and arm them to fight the LORD’s war of revenge against Midian. <sup>4</sup>From each tribe of Israel, send 1,000 men into battle.” <sup>5</sup>So they chose 1,000 men from each tribe of Israel, a total of 12,000 men armed for battle. <sup>6</sup>Then Moses sent them out, 1,000 men from each tribe, and Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest led them into battle. They carried along the holy objects of the sanctuary and the trumpets for sounding the charge. <sup>7</sup>They attacked Midian as the LORD had commanded Moses, and they killed all the men. <sup>8</sup>All five of the Midianite kings—Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba—died in the battle. They also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Israelite army captured the Midianite women and children and seized their cattle and flocks and all their wealth as plunder. <sup>10</sup>They burned all the towns and villages where the Midianites had lived. <sup>11</sup>After they had gathered the plunder and captives, both people and animals, <sup>12</sup>they brought them all to Moses and Eleazar the priest, and to the whole community of Israel, which was camped on the plains of Moab beside the Jordan River, across from Jericho. <sup>13</sup>Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the community went to meet them outside the camp. <sup>14</sup>But Moses was furious with all the generals and captains* who had returned from the battle.

<sup>15</sup>“Why have you let all the women live?” he demanded. <sup>16</sup>“These are the very ones who followed Balaam’s advice and caused the people of Israel to rebel against the LORD at Mount Peor. They are the ones who caused the plague to strike the LORD’s people. <sup>17</sup>So kill all the boys and all the women who have had intercourse with a man. <sup>18</sup>Only the young girls who are virgins may live; you may keep them for yourselves. <sup>19</sup>And all of you who have killed anyone or touched a dead body must stay outside the camp for seven days. You must purify yourselves and your captives on the third and seventh days. <sup>20</sup>Purify all your clothing, too, and everything made of leather, goat hair, or wood.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Eleazar the priest said to the men who were in the battle, “The LORD has given Moses this legal requirement: <sup>22</sup>Anything made of gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, or lead —<sup>23</sup>that is, all metals that do not burn—must be passed through fire in order to be made ceremonially pure. These metal objects must then be further purified with the water of purification. But everything that burns must be purified by the water alone. <sup>24</sup>On the seventh day you must wash your clothes and be purified. Then you may return to the camp.”

Division of the Plunder

<sup>25</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, <sup>26</sup>“You and Eleazar the priest and the family leaders of each tribe are to make a list of all the plunder taken in the battle, including the people and animals.

<sup>27</sup>Then divide the plunder into two parts, and give half to the men who fought the battle and half to the rest of the people.
<sup>28</sup>From the army's portion, first give the LORD his share of the plunder—one of every 500 of the prisoners and of the cattle, donkeys, sheep, and goats.
<sup>29</sup>Give this share of the army's half to Eleazar the priest as an offering to the LORD.
<sup>30</sup>From the half that belongs to the people of Israel, take one of every fifty of the prisoners and of the cattle, donkeys, sheep, goats, and other animals. Give this share to the Levites, who are in charge of maintaining the LORD's Tabernacle.”
<sup>31</sup>So Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>34</sup>61,000 donkeys,
<sup>35</sup>and 32,000 virgin girls.

<sup>37</sup>of which 675 were the LORD's share;
<sup>38</sup>36,000 cattle, of which 72 were the LORD's share;
<sup>40</sup>and 16,000 virgin girls, of whom 32 were the LORD's share.
<sup>41</sup>Moses gave all the LORD's share to Eleazar the priest, just as the LORD had directed him.

<sup>42</sup>Half of the plunder belonged to the people of Israel, and Moses separated it from the half belonging to the fighting men.
<sup>43</sup>It totaled 337,500 sheep and goats,
<sup>47</sup>From the half-share given to the people, Moses took one of every fifty prisoners and animals and gave them to the Levites, who maintained the LORD's Tabernacle. All this was done as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>48</sup>Then all the generals and captains came to Moses <sup>49</sup>and said, "We, your servants, have accounted for all the men who went out to battle under our command; not one of us is missing! <sup>50</sup>So we are presenting the items of gold we captured as an offering to the LORD from our share of the plunder—armbands, bracelets, rings, earrings, and necklaces. This will purify our lives before the LORD and make us right with him.*"

<sup>51</sup>So Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from all the military commanders—all kinds of jewelry and crafted objects. <sup>52</sup>In all, the gold that the generals and captains presented as a gift to the LORD weighed about 420 pounds.*

<sup>53</sup>All the fighting men had taken some of the plunder for themselves. <sup>54</sup>So Moses and Eleazar the priest accepted the gifts from the generals and captains and brought the gold to the Tabernacle* as a reminder to the LORD that the people of Israel belong to him.

Numbers 32

The Tribes East of the Jordan

<sup>1</sup>The tribes of Reuben and Gad owned vast numbers of livestock. So when they saw that the lands of Jazer and Gilead were ideally suited for their flocks and herds,<sup>2</sup>they came to Moses, Eleazar the priest, and the other leaders of the community. They said,<sup>3</sup>“Notice the towns of Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sibmah,* Nebo, and Beon.<sup>4</sup>The LORD has conquered this whole area for the community of Israel, and it is ideally suited for all our livestock. <sup>5</sup>If we have found favor with you, please let us have this land as our property instead of giving us land across the Jordan River.”

<sup>6</sup>“Do you intend to stay here while your brothers go across and do all the fighting?” Moses asked the men of Gad and Reuben. <sup>7</sup>“Why do you want to discourage the rest of the people of Israel from going across to the land the LORD has given them? <sup>8</sup>Your ancestors did the same thing when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to explore the land. <sup>9</sup>After they went up to the valley of Eshcol and explored the land, they discouraged the people of Israel from entering the land the LORD was giving them. <sup>10</sup>Then the LORD was very angry with them, and he vowed, <sup>11</sup>“Of all those I rescued from Egypt, no one who is twenty years old or older will ever see the land I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, for they have not obeyed me wholeheartedly. <sup>12</sup>The only exceptions are Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun, for they have wholeheartedly followed the LORD.<sup>7</sup>

<sup>13</sup>“The LORD was angry with Israel and made them wander in the wilderness for forty years until the entire generation that sinned in the LORD’s sight had died. <sup>14</sup>But here you are, a brood of sinners, doing exactly the same thing! You are making the LORD even angrier with Israel. <sup>15</sup>If you turn away from him like this and he abandons them again in the wilderness, you will be responsible for destroying this entire nation!”

<sup>16</sup>But they approached Moses and said, “We simply want to build pens for our livestock and fortified towns for our wives and children. <sup>17</sup>Then we will arm ourselves and lead our fellow Israelites into battle until we have brought them safely to their land. Meanwhile, our families will stay in the fortified towns we build here, so they will be safe from any attacks by the local people. <sup>18</sup>We will not return to our homes until all the people of Israel have received their portions of land. <sup>19</sup>But we do not claim any of the land on the other side of the Jordan. We would rather live here on the east side and accept this as our grant of land.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Moses said, “If you keep your word and arm yourselves for the LORD’s battles, <sup>21</sup>and if your troops cross the Jordan and keep fighting until the LORD has driven out his enemies, <sup>22</sup>then you may return when the LORD has conquered the land. You will have fulfilled your duty to the LORD and to the rest of the people of Israel. And the land on the east side of the Jordan will be your property from the LORD. <sup>23</sup>But if you fail to keep your word, then you will have sinned against the LORD, and you may be sure that your sin will find you out. <sup>24</sup>Go ahead and build towns for your families and pens for your flocks, but do everything you have promised.”

<sup>25</sup>Then the men of Gad and Reuben replied, “We, your servants, will follow your instructions exactly. <sup>26</sup>Our children, wives, flocks, and cattle will stay here in the towns of Gilead. <sup>27</sup>But all who are able to bear arms will cross over to fight for the LORD, just as you have said.”

<sup>28</sup>So Moses gave orders to Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders of the clans of Israel. <sup>29</sup>He said, “The men of Gad and Reuben who are armed for battle must cross the Jordan with you to fight for the LORD. If they do, give them the land of Gilead as their property when the land is conquered. <sup>30</sup>But if they refuse to arm themselves and cross over with you, then they must accept land with the rest of you in the land of Canaan.”

<sup>31</sup>The tribes of Gad and Reuben said again, “We are your servants, and we will do as the LORD has commanded! <sup>32</sup>We will cross the Jordan into Canaan fully armed to fight for the LORD, but our property will be here on this side of the Jordan.”

<sup>33</sup>So Moses assigned land to the tribes of Gad, Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph. He gave them the territory of King Sihon of the Amorites and the land of King Og of Bashan—the whole land with its cities and surrounding lands.

flocks.

<sup>39</sup>Then the descendants of Makir of the tribe of Manasseh went to Gilead and conquered it, and they drove out the Amorites living there. <sup>40</sup>So Moses gave Gilead to the Makirites, descendants of Manasseh, and they settled there. <sup>41</sup>The people of Jair, another clan of the tribe of Manasseh, captured many of the towns in Gilead and changed the name of that region to the Towns of Jair.* <sup>42</sup>Meanwhile, a man named Nobah captured the town of Kenath and its surrounding villages, and he renamed that area Nobah after himself.

Numbers 33

Remembering Israel's Journey

<sup>3</sup>They set out from the city of Rameses in early spring—on the fifteenth day of the first month*—on the morning after the first Passover celebration. The people of Israel left defiantly, in full view of all the Egyptians. <sup>4</sup>Meanwhile, the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn sons, whom the LORD had killed the night before. The LORD had defeated the gods of Egypt that night with great acts of judgment!

<sup>9</sup>They left Marah and camped at Elim, where there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees.

- <sup>10</sup>They left Elim and camped beside the Red Sea.*
- <sup>11</sup>They left the Red Sea and camped in the wilderness of Sin.*
- <sup>12</sup>They left the wilderness of Sin and camped at Dophkah.
- <sup>13</sup>They left Dophkah and camped at Alush.
- <sup>14</sup>They left Alush and camped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.
- <sup>15</sup>They left Rephidim and camped in the wilderness of Sinai.
- <sup>16</sup>They left the wilderness of Sinai and camped at Kibroth-hattaavah.
- <sup>17</sup>They left Kibroth-hattaavah and camped at Hazeroth.
- <sup>18</sup>They left Hazeroth and camped at Rithmah.
- <sup>19</sup>They left Rithmah and camped at Rimmon-perez.
- <sup>20</sup>They left Rimmon-perez and camped at Libnah.
- <sup>21</sup>They left Libnah and camped at Rissah.
- <sup>22</sup>They left Rissah and camped at Kehelathah.
- <sup>23</sup>They left Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher.
- <sup>24</sup>They left Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah.
- <sup>25</sup>They left Haradah and camped at Makheloth.
- <sup>26</sup>They left Makheloth and camped at Tahath.
- <sup>27</sup>They left Tahath and camped at Terah.
- <sup>28</sup>They left Terah and camped at Mithcah.
- <sup>29</sup>They left Mithcah and camped at Hashmonah.
- <sup>30</sup>They left Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.
- <sup>31</sup>They left Moseroth and camped at Bene-jaakan.
- <sup>32</sup>They left Bene-jaakan and camped at Hor-haggidgad.
- <sup>33</sup>They left Hor-haggidgad and camped at Jotbathah.
- <sup>34</sup>They left Jotbathah and camped at Abronah.

<sup>40</sup>At that time the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev in the land of Canaan, heard that the people of Israel were approaching his land.

<sup>50</sup> While they were camped near the Jordan River on the plains of Moab opposite Jericho, the LORD said to Moses, <sup>51</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel: When you cross the Jordan River into the land of Canaan, <sup>52</sup>you must drive out all the people living there. You must destroy all their carved and molten images and demolish all their pagan shrines. <sup>53</sup>Take possession of the land and settle in it, because I have given it to you to occupy. <sup>54</sup>You must distribute the land among the clans by sacred lot and in proportion to their size. A larger portion of land will be allotted to each of the larger clans, and a smaller portion will be allotted to each of the smaller clans. The decision of the sacred lot is final. In this way, the portions of land will be divided among your ancestral tribes. <sup>55</sup> But if you fail to drive out the people who live in the land, those who remain will be like splinters in your eyes and thorns in your sides. They will harass you in the land where you live. <sup>56</sup>And I will do to you what I had planned to do to them.”

Numbers 34

Boundaries of the Land

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Give these instructions to the Israelites: When you come into the land of Canaan, which I am giving you as your special possession, these will be the boundaries. <sup>3</sup>The southern portion of your country will extend from the wilderness of Zin, along the edge of Edom. The southern boundary will begin on the east at the Dead Sea.* <sup>4</sup>It will then run south past Scorpion Pass* in the direction of Zin. Its southernmost point will be Kadesh-barnea, from which it will go to Hazar-addar, and on to Azmon. <sup>5</sup>From Azmon the boundary will turn toward the Brook of Egypt and end at the Mediterranean Sea.*

<sup>6</sup>“Your western boundary will be the coastline of the Mediterranean Sea.

<sup>7</sup>“Your northern boundary will begin at the Mediterranean Sea and run east to Mount Hor, <sup>8</sup>then to Lebo-hamath, and on through Zedad <sup>9</sup>and Ziphron to Hazar-enan. This will be your northern boundary.

<sup>10</sup>“The eastern boundary will start at Hazar-enan and run south to Shepham, <sup>11</sup>then down to Riblah on the east side of Ain. From there the boundary will run down along the eastern edge of the Sea of Galilee,* <sup>12</sup>and then along the Jordan River to the Dead Sea. These are the boundaries of your land.”

homeland you are to divide among yourselves by sacred lot. The LORD has commanded that the land be divided among the nine and a half remaining tribes. <sup>14</sup>The families of the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh have already received their grants of land <sup>15</sup>on the east side of the Jordan River, across from Jericho toward the sunrise.”

Leaders to Divide the Land

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, <sup>17</sup>“Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun are the men designated to divide the grants of land among the people. <sup>18</sup>Enlist one leader from each tribe to help them with the task. <sup>19</sup>These are the tribes and the names of the leaders:

Tribe	Leader
Judah	Caleb son of Jephunneh
<sup>20</sup> Simeon	Shemuel son of Ammihud
<sup>21</sup> Benjamin	Elidad son of Kislón
<sup>22</sup> Dan	Bukki son of Jogli
<sup>23</sup> Manasseh son of Joseph	Hanniel son of Ephod
<sup>25</sup> Zebulun	Elizaphan son of Parnach

Numbers 35

Towns for the Levites

<sup>1</sup>While Israel was camped beside the Jordan on the plains of Moab across from Jericho, the LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Command the people of Israel to give to the Levites from their property certain towns to live in, along with the surrounding pasturelands. <sup>3</sup>These towns will be for the Levites to live in, and the surrounding lands will provide pasture for their cattle, flocks, and other livestock. <sup>4</sup>The pastureland assigned to the Levites around these towns will extend 1,500 feet* from the town walls in every direction. <sup>5</sup>Measure off 3,000 feet* outside the town walls in every direction—east, south, west, north—with the town at the center. This area will serve as the larger pastureland for the towns.

<sup>6</sup>“Six of the towns you give the Levites will be cities of refuge, where a person who has accidentally killed someone can flee for safety. In addition, give them forty-two other towns. <sup>7</sup>In all, forty-eight towns with the surrounding pastureland will be given to the Levites. <sup>8</sup>These towns will come from the property of the people of Israel. The larger tribes will give more towns to the Levites, while the smaller tribes will give fewer. Each tribe will give property in proportion to the size of its land.”

Cities of Refuge

<sup>9</sup> The LORD said to Moses, <sup>10</sup>“Give the following instructions to the people of Israel.

“When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>11</sup>designate cities of refuge to which people can flee if they have killed someone accidentally. <sup>12</sup>These cities will be places of protection from a dead person’s relatives who want to avenge the death. The slayer must not be put to death before being tried by the community. <sup>13</sup>Designate six cities of refuge for yourselves, <sup>14</sup>three on the east side of the Jordan River and three on the west in the land of Canaan. <sup>15</sup>These cities are for the protection of Israelites, foreigners living among you, and traveling merchants. Anyone who accidentally kills someone may flee there for safety.

<sup>16</sup>“But if someone strikes and kills another person with a piece of iron, it is murder, and the murderer must be executed. <sup>17</sup>Or if someone with a stone in his hand strikes and kills another person, it is murder, and the murderer must be put to death. <sup>18</sup>Or if someone strikes and kills another person with a wooden object, it is murder, and the murderer must be put to death. <sup>19</sup>The victim’s nearest relative is responsible for putting the murderer to death. When they meet, the avenger must put the murderer to death. <sup>20</sup>So if someone hates another person and pushes him or throws a dangerous object at him and he dies, it is murder. <sup>21</sup>Or if someone hates another person and hits him with a fist and he dies, it is murder. In such cases, the avenger must put the murderer to death when they meet.

unintentionally hits another person,<sup>23</sup> or accidentally drops a huge stone on someone, though they were not enemies, and the person dies.<sup>24</sup> If this should happen, the community must follow these regulations in making a judgment between the slayer and the avenger, the victim's nearest relative:<sup>25</sup> The community must protect the slayer from the avenger and must escort the slayer back to live in the city of refuge to which he fled. There he must remain until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with the sacred oil.

<sup>26</sup>“But if the slayer ever leaves the limits of the city of refuge,<sup>27</sup> and the avenger finds him outside the city and kills him, it will not be considered murder.<sup>28</sup> The slayer should have stayed inside the city of refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the death of the high priest, the slayer may return to his own property.<sup>29</sup> These are legal requirements for you to observe from generation to generation, wherever you may live.

<sup>30</sup>“All murderers must be put to death, but only if evidence is presented by more than one witness. No one may be put to death on the testimony of only one witness.<sup>31</sup> Also, you must never accept a ransom payment for the life of someone judged guilty of murder and subject to execution; murderers must always be put to death.<sup>32</sup> And never accept a ransom payment from someone who has fled to a city of refuge, allowing a slayer to return to his property before the death of the high priest.<sup>33</sup> This will ensure that the land where you live will not be polluted, for murder pollutes the land. And no sacrifice except the execution of the murderer can purify the land from murder.*

<sup>34</sup>You must not defile the land where you live, for I live there myself. I am the LORD, who lives among the people of Israel.”

Numbers 36

Women Who Inherit Property

<sup>1</sup>Then the heads of the clans of Gilead—descendants of Makir, son of Manasseh, son of Joseph—came to Moses and the family leaders of Israel with a petition. <sup>2</sup>They said, “Sir, the LORD instructed you to divide the land by sacred lot among the people of Israel. You were told by the LORD to give the grant of land owned by our brother Zelophehad to his daughters. <sup>3</sup>But if they marry men from another tribe, their grants of land will go with them to the tribe into which they marry. In this way, the total area of our tribal land will be reduced. <sup>4</sup>Then when the Year of Jubilee comes, their portion of land will be added to that of the new tribe, causing it to be lost forever to our ancestral tribe.”

keep its allotted portion of land.”

<sup>13</sup>These are the commands and regulations that the LORD gave to the people of Israel through Moses while they were camped on the plains of Moab beside the Jordan River across from Jericho.

WORTH MEMORIZING

6:4-7

Listen, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone.
And you must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your strength. And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today. Repeat them again and again to your children

7:9

Understand, therefore, that the LORD your God is indeed God. He is the faithful God who keeps his covenant for a thousand generations and lavishes his unfailing love on those who love him and obey his commands.

30:19

Today I have given you the choice between life and death, between blessings and curses. Now I call on heaven and earth to witness the choice you make. Oh, that you would choose life, so that you and your descendants might live!

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

UNDERSTANDING THE BIG PICTURE.

Here Moses gives background information and clear instructions so the people will succeed when they get to the Promised Land. This book is still relevant for us today. As we learn to look past the surface of the many laws and regulations in this book to see the reasons God instated them, our lives will be transformed by the incredible power of his love.

FAITHFULNESS BASED ON LOVE.

God took care of his people because he loved them and was committed to them. No matter how God's people disappointed him or turned against him, he kept on being faithful. We are to follow his example in our own relationships.

Introduction to Moses' First Address

<sup>1</sup> These are the words that Moses spoke to all the people of Israel while they were in the wilderness east of the Jordan River. They were camped in the Jordan Valley * near Suph, between Paran on one side and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Di-zahab on the other.

HOW LONG DID MOSES TALK?

Moses had a lot to say to the nation before he retired. If he spoke at an assumed rate of 170 words per minute, his speech would have taken approximately two and a half hours.

The Command to Leave Sinai

6 “When we were at Mount Sinai, the LORD our God said to us, ‘You have stayed at this mountain long enough. <sup>7</sup>It is time to break camp and move on. Go to the hill country of the Amorites and to all the neighboring regions—the Jordan Valley, the hill country, the western foothills,* the Negev, and the coastal plain. Go to the land of the Canaanites and to Lebanon, and all the way to the great Euphrates River. <sup>8</sup>Look, I am giving all this land to you! Go in and occupy it, for it is the land the LORD swore to give to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and to all their descendants.’”

Moses Appoints Leaders from Each Tribe

<sup>9</sup>Moses continued, “At that time I told you, ‘You are too great a burden for me to carry all by myself. <sup>10</sup>The LORD your God has increased your population, making you as numerous as the stars! <sup>11</sup>And may the LORD, the God of your ancestors, multiply you a thousand times more and bless you as he promised! <sup>12</sup>But you are such a heavy load to carry! How can I deal with all your problems and bickering? <sup>13</sup>Choose some well-respected men from each tribe who are known for their wisdom and understanding, and I will appoint them as your leaders.’

<sup>14</sup>“Then you responded, ‘Your plan is a good one.’ <sup>15</sup>So I took the wise and respected men you had selected from your tribes and appointed them to serve as judges and officials over you. Some were responsible for a thousand people, some for a hundred, some for fifty, and some for ten.

<sup>16</sup>“At that time I instructed the judges, ‘You must hear the cases of your fellow Israelites and the foreigners living among you. Be perfectly fair in your decisions <sup>17</sup>and impartial in your judgments. Hear the cases of those who are poor as well as those who are rich. Don’t be afraid of anyone’s anger, for the decision you make is God’s decision. Bring me any cases that are too difficult for you, and I will handle them.’

<sup>18</sup>“At that time I gave you instructions about everything you were to do.

Scouts Explore the Land

<sup>19</sup> “Then, just as the LORD our God commanded us, we left Mount Sinai and traveled through the great and terrifying wilderness, as you yourselves remember, and headed toward the hill country of the Amorites. When we arrived at Kadesh-barnea, <sup>20</sup>I said to you, ‘You have now reached the hill country of the Amorites that the LORD our God is giving us. <sup>21</sup>Look! He has placed the land in front of you. Go and occupy it as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has promised you. Don’t be afraid! Don’t be discouraged!’

<sup>22</sup>“But you all came to me and said, ‘First, let’s send out scouts to explore the land for us. They will advise us on the best route to take and which towns we should enter.’

<sup>23</sup>“This seemed like a good idea to me, so I chose twelve scouts, one from each of your tribes. <sup>24</sup>They headed for the hill country and came to the valley of Eshcol and explored it. <sup>25</sup>They picked some of its fruit and brought it back to us. And they reported, ‘The land the LORD our God has given us is indeed a good land.’

Israel’s Rebellion against the LORD

<sup>26</sup>“But you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God and refused to go in. <sup>27</sup>You complained in your tents and said, ‘The LORD must hate us. That’s why he has brought us here from Egypt—to hand us over to the Amorites to be slaughtered. <sup>28</sup>Where can we go? Our brothers have demoralized us with their report. They tell us, “The people of the land are taller and more powerful than we are, and their towns are large, with walls rising high into the sky! We even saw giants there—the descendants of Anak!”

<sup>29</sup>“But I said to you, ‘Don’t be shocked or afraid of them!’
<sup>30</sup>The LORD your God is going ahead of you. He will fight for you, just as you saw him do in Egypt. <sup>31</sup>And you saw how the LORD your God cared for you all along the way as you traveled through the wilderness, just as a father cares for his child. Now he has brought you to this place.’

<sup>32</sup>“But even after all he did, you refused to trust the LORD your God, <sup>33</sup>who goes before you looking for the best places to camp, guiding you with a pillar of fire by night and a pillar of cloud by day.

<sup>34</sup>“When the LORD heard your complaining, he became very angry. So he solemnly swore, <sup>35</sup>‘Not one of you from this wicked generation will live to see the good land I swore to give your ancestors, <sup>36</sup>except Caleb son of Jephunneh. He will see this land because he has followed the LORD completely. I will give to him and his descendants some of the very land he explored during his scouting mission.’

<sup>37</sup>“And the LORD was also angry with me because of you. He said to me, ‘Moses, not even you will enter the Promised Land!’
<sup>38</sup>Instead, your assistant, Joshua son of Nun, will lead the people into the land. Encourage him, for he will lead Israel as they take possession of it. <sup>39</sup>I will give the land to your little ones—your innocent children. You were afraid they would be captured, but they will be the ones who occupy it. <sup>40</sup>As for you, turn around now and go on back through the wilderness toward the Red Sea.*’

What the Bible Says about

Bosses

<sup>41</sup>“Then you confessed, ‘We have sinned against the LORD! We will go into the land and fight for it, as the LORD our God has commanded us.’ So your men strapped on their weapons, thinking it would be easy to attack the hill country.

<sup>42</sup>“But the LORD told me to tell you, ‘Do not attack, for I am not with you. If you go ahead on your own, you will be crushed by your enemies.’

<sup>43</sup>“This is what I told you, but you would not listen. Instead, you again rebelled against the LORD’s command and arrogantly went into the hill country to fight. <sup>44</sup>But the Amorites who lived there came out against you like a swarm of bees. They chased and battered you all the way from Seir to Hormah. <sup>45</sup>Then you returned and wept before the LORD, but he refused to listen. <sup>46</sup>So you stayed there at Kadesh for a long time.

Deuteronomy 2

Remembering Israel's Wanderings

<sup>1</sup>“Then we turned around and headed back across the wilderness toward the Red Sea,* just as the LORD had instructed me, and we wandered around in the region of Mount Seir for a long time.

<sup>2</sup>“Then at last the LORD said to me, <sup>3</sup>“You have been wandering around in this hill country long enough; turn to the north. <sup>4</sup>Give these orders to the people: “You will pass through the country belonging to your relatives the Edomites, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. The Edomites will feel threatened, so be careful. <sup>5</sup>Do not bother them, for I have given them all the hill country around Mount Seir as their property, and I will not give you even one square foot of their land. <sup>6</sup>If you need food to eat or water to drink, pay them for it. <sup>7</sup>For the LORD your God has blessed you in everything you have done. He has watched your every step through this great wilderness. During these forty years, the LORD your God has been with you, and you have lacked nothing.”

<sup>8</sup>“So we bypassed the territory of our relatives, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. We avoided the road through the Arabah Valley that comes up from Elath and Ezion-geber.

“Then as we turned north along the desert route through Moab, <sup>9</sup>the LORD warned us, ‘Do not bother the Moabites, the descendants of Lot, or start a war with them. I have given them Ar as their property, and I will not give you any of their land.”

<sup>10</sup>(A race of giants called the Emites had once lived in the area of Ar. They were as strong and numerous and tall as the Anakites, another race of giants. <sup>11</sup>Both the Emites and the Anakites are also known as the Rephaites, though the Moabites call them Emites. <sup>12</sup>In earlier times the Horites had lived in Seir, but they were driven out and displaced by the descendants of Esau, just as Israel drove out the people of Canaan when the LORD gave Israel their land.)

<sup>13</sup>Moses continued, “Then the LORD said to us, ‘Get moving. Cross the Zered Brook.’ So we crossed the brook.

<sup>14</sup> “Thirty-eight years passed from the time we first left Kadesh-barnea until we finally crossed the Zered Brook! By then, all the men old enough to fight in battle had died in the wilderness, as the LORD had vowed would happen. <sup>15</sup>The LORD struck them down until they had all been eliminated from the community.

<sup>20</sup>(That area was once considered the land of the Rephaites, who had lived there, though the Ammonites call them Zamzummites. <sup>21</sup>They were also as strong and numerous and tall as the Anakites. But the LORD destroyed them so the Ammonites could occupy their land. <sup>22</sup>He had done the same for the descendants of Esau who lived in Seir, for he destroyed the Horites so they could settle there in their place. The descendants of Esau live there to this day. <sup>23</sup>A similar thing happened when the Caphtorites from Crete* invaded and destroyed the Avvites, who had lived in villages in the area of Gaza.)

<sup>24</sup>Moses continued, “Then the LORD said, ‘Now get moving! Cross the Arnon Gorge. Look, I will hand over to you Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and I will give you his land. Attack him and begin to occupy the land. <sup>25</sup>Beginning today I will make people throughout the earth terrified because of you. When they hear reports about you, they will tremble with dread and fear.’”

Victory over Sihon of Heshbon

<sup>27</sup>‘Let us travel through your land. We will stay on the main road and won’t turn off into the fields on either side.

<sup>28</sup>Sell us food to eat and water to drink, and we will pay for it. All we want is permission to pass through your land.

<sup>29</sup>The descendants of Esau who live in Seir allowed us to go through their country, and so did the Moabites, who live in Ar. Let us pass through until we cross the Jordan into the land the LORD our God is giving us.’

<sup>30</sup>“But King Sihon of Heshbon refused to allow us to pass through, because the LORD your God made Sihon stubborn and defiant so he could help you defeat him, as he has now done.

<sup>31</sup>“Then the LORD said to me, ‘Look, I have begun to hand King Sihon and his land over to you. Begin now to conquer and occupy his land.’

<sup>32</sup>“Then King Sihon declared war on us and mobilized his forces at Jahaz. <sup>33</sup>But the LORD our God handed him over to us, and we crushed him, his sons, and all his people. <sup>34</sup>We conquered all his towns and completely destroyed* everyone—men, women, and children. Not a single person was spared. <sup>35</sup>We took all the livestock as plunder for ourselves, along with anything of value from the towns we ransacked.

<sup>36</sup>“The LORD our God also helped us conquer Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Gorge, and the town in the gorge, and the whole area as far as Gilead. No town had walls too strong for us. <sup>37</sup>However, we avoided the land of the Ammonites all along the Jabbok River and the towns in the hill country—all the places the LORD our God had commanded us to leave alone.

Deuteronomy 3

Victory over Og of Bashan

<sup>1</sup> “Next we turned and headed for the land of Bashan, where King Og and his entire army attacked us at Edrei. <sup>2</sup>But the LORD told me, ‘Do not be afraid of him, for I have given you victory over Og and his entire army, and I will give you all his land. Treat him just as you treated King Sihon of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon.’

<sup>3</sup>“So the LORD our God handed King Og and all his people over to us, and we killed them all. Not a single person survived. <sup>4</sup>We conquered all sixty of his towns—the entire Argob region in his kingdom of Bashan. Not a single town escaped our conquest. <sup>5</sup>These towns were all fortified with high walls and barred gates. We also took many unwalled villages at the same time. <sup>6</sup>We completely destroyed* the kingdom of Bashan, just as we had destroyed King Sihon of Heshbon. We destroyed all the people in every town we conquered—men, women, and children alike. <sup>7</sup>But we kept all the livestock for ourselves and took plunder from all the towns.

<sup>8</sup>“So we took the land of the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan River—all the way from the Arnon Gorge to Mount Hermon. <sup>9</sup>(Mount Hermon is called Sirion by the Sidonians, and the Amorites call it Senir.) <sup>10</sup>We had now conquered all the cities on the plateau and all Gilead and Bashan, as far as the towns of Salecah and Edrei, which were part of Og’s kingdom in Bashan. <sup>11</sup>(King Og of Bashan was the last survivor of the giant Rephaites. His bed was made of iron and was more than thirteen feet long and six feet wide.* It can still be seen in the Ammonite city of Rabbah.)

Land Division East of the Jordan

<sup>12</sup>“When we took possession of this land, I gave to the tribes of Reuben and Gad the territory beyond Aroer along the Arnon Gorge, plus half of the hill country of Gilead with its towns. <sup>13</sup>Then I gave the rest of Gilead and all of Bashan—Og’s former kingdom—to the half-tribe of Manasseh. (This entire Argob region of Bashan used to be known as the land of the Rephaites. <sup>14</sup>Jair, a leader from the tribe of Manasseh, conquered the whole Argob region in Bashan, all the way to the border of the Geshurites and Maacathites. Jair renamed this region after himself, calling it the Towns of Jair,* as it is still known today.) <sup>15</sup>I gave Gilead to the clan of Makir. <sup>16</sup>But I also gave part of Gilead to the tribes of Reuben and Gad. The area I gave them extended from the middle of the Arnon Gorge in the south to the Jabbok River on the Ammonite frontier. <sup>17</sup>They also received the Jordan Valley, all the way from the Sea of Galilee down to the Dead Sea,* with the Jordan River serving as the western boundary. To the east were the slopes of Pisgah.

<sup>18</sup>“At that time I gave this command to the tribes that would live east of the Jordan: ‘Although the LORD your God has given you this land as your property, all your fighting men must cross the Jordan ahead of your Israelite relatives, armed and ready to assist them.<sup>19</sup>Your wives, children, and numerous livestock, however, may stay behind in the towns I have given you.<sup>20</sup>When the LORD has given security to the rest of the Israelites, as he has to you, and when they occupy the land the LORD your God is giving them across the Jordan River, then you may all return here to the land I have given you.'

Moses Forbidden to Enter the Land

<sup>21</sup>'At that time I gave Joshua this charge: 'You have seen for yourself everything the LORD your God has done to these two kings. He will do the same to all the kingdoms on the west side of the Jordan.<sup>22</sup>Do not be afraid of the nations there, for the LORD your God will fight for you.'

<sup>23</sup>'At that time I pleaded with the LORD and said,<sup>24</sup>'O Sovereign LORD, you have only begun to show your greatness and the strength of your hand to me, your servant. Is there any god in heaven or on earth who can perform such great and mighty deeds as you do?'<sup>25</sup>Please let me cross the Jordan to see the wonderful land on the other side, the beautiful hill country and the Lebanon mountains.'

<sup>26</sup>'But the LORD was angry with me because of you, and he would not listen to me. 'That's enough!' he declared. 'Speak of it no more.'<sup>27</sup>But go up to Pisgah Peak, and look over the land in every direction. Take a good look, but you may not cross the Jordan River.<sup>28</sup>Instead, commission Joshua and encourage and strengthen him, for he will lead the people across the Jordan. He will give them all the land you now see before you as their possession.'<sup>29</sup>So we stayed in the valley near Beth-peor.

Deuteronomy 4

Moses Urges Israel to Obey

<sup>1</sup>“And now, Israel, listen carefully to these decrees and regulations that I am about to teach you. Obey them so that you may live, so you may enter and occupy the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, is giving you. <sup>2</sup>Do not add to or subtract from these commands I am giving you. Just obey the commands of the LORD your God that I am giving you.

<sup>3</sup>“You saw for yourself what the LORD did to you at Baal-peor. There the LORD your God destroyed everyone who had worshiped Baal, the god of Peor. <sup>4</sup>But all of you who were faithful to the LORD your God are still alive today—every one of you.

<sup>5</sup>“Look, I now teach you these decrees and regulations just as the LORD my God commanded me, so that you may obey them in the land you are about to enter and occupy. <sup>6</sup>Obey them completely, and you will display your wisdom and intelligence among the surrounding nations. When they hear all these decrees, they will exclaim, ‘How wise and prudent are the people of this great nation!’ <sup>7</sup>For what great nation has a god as near to them as the LORD our God is near to us whenever we call on him? <sup>8</sup>And what great nation has decrees and regulations as righteous and fair as this body of instructions that I am giving you today?

yourself have seen. Do not let these memories escape from your mind as long as you live! And be sure to pass them on to your children and grandchildren. <sup>10</sup>Never forget the day when you stood before the LORD your God at Mount Sinai,* where he told me, ‘Summon the people before me, and I will personally instruct them. Then they will learn to fear me as long as they live, and they will teach their children to fear me also.’

<sup>11</sup>“You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, while flames from the mountain shot into the sky. The mountain was shrouded in black clouds and deep darkness. <sup>12</sup>And the LORD spoke to you from the heart of the fire. You heard the sound of his words but didn’t see his form; there was only a voice. <sup>13</sup>He proclaimed his covenant—the Ten Commandments*—which he commanded you to keep, and which he wrote on two stone tablets. <sup>14</sup>It was at that time that the LORD commanded me to teach you his decrees and regulations so you would obey them in the land you are about to enter and occupy.

A Warning against Idolatry

<sup>15</sup>“But be very careful! You did not see the LORD’s form on the day he spoke to you from the heart of the fire at Mount Sinai. <sup>16</sup>So do not corrupt yourselves by making an idol in any form—whether of a man or a woman, <sup>17</sup>an animal on the ground, a bird in the sky, <sup>18</sup>a small animal that scurries along the ground, or a fish in the deepest sea. <sup>19</sup>And when you look up into the sky and see the sun, moon, and stars—all the forces of heaven—don’t be seduced into worshiping them. The LORD your God gave them to all the peoples of the earth. <sup>20</sup> Remember that the LORD rescued you from the iron-smelting furnace of Egypt in order to make you his very own people and his special possession, which is what you are today.

<sup>21</sup>“But the LORD was angry with me because of you. He vowed that I would not cross the Jordan River into the good land the LORD your God is giving you as your special possession. <sup>22</sup>You will cross the Jordan to occupy the land, but I will not. Instead, I will die here on the east side of the river. <sup>23</sup> So be careful not to break the covenant the LORD your God has made with you. Do not make idols of any shape or form, for the LORD your God has forbidden this. <sup>24</sup>The LORD your God is a devouring fire; he is a jealous God.

<sup>25</sup>“In the future, when you have children and grandchildren and have lived in the land a long time, do not corrupt yourselves by making idols of any kind. This is evil in the sight of the LORD your God and will arouse his anger.

<sup>26</sup>“Today I call on heaven and earth as witnesses against you. If you break my covenant, you will quickly disappear from the land you are crossing the Jordan to occupy. You will live there only a short time; then you will be utterly destroyed. <sup>27</sup>For the LORD will scatter you among the nations, where only a few of you will survive. <sup>28</sup>There, in a foreign land, you will worship idols made from wood and stone—gods that neither see nor hear nor eat nor smell. <sup>29</sup> But from there you will search again for the LORD your God. And if you search for him with all your heart and soul, you will find him.

things, you will finally return to the LORD your God and listen to what he tells you. <sup>31</sup>For the LORD your God is a merciful God; he will not abandon you or destroy you or forget the solemn covenant he made with your ancestors.

There Is Only One God

<sup>32</sup>“Now search all of history, from the time God created people on the earth until now, and search from one end of the heavens to the other. Has anything as great as this ever been seen or heard before? <sup>33</sup>Has any nation ever heard the voice of God* speaking from fire—as you did—and survived? <sup>34</sup> Has any other god dared to take a nation for himself out of another nation by means of trials, miraculous signs, wonders, war, a strong hand, a powerful arm, and terrifying acts? Yet that is what the LORD your God did for you in Egypt, right before your eyes.

<sup>35</sup>“He showed you these things so you would know that the LORD is God and there is no other. <sup>36</sup>He let you hear his voice from heaven so he could instruct you. He let you see his great fire here on earth so he could speak to you from it. <sup>37</sup>Because he loved your ancestors, he chose to bless their descendants, and he personally brought you out of Egypt with a great display of power. <sup>38</sup>He drove out nations far greater than you, so he could bring you in and give you their land as your special possession, as it is today.

<sup>39</sup>“So remember this and keep it firmly in mind: The LORD is God both in heaven and on earth, and there is no other. <sup>40</sup>If you obey all the decrees and commands I am giving you today, all will be well with you and your children. I am giving you these instructions so you will enjoy a long life in the land the LORD your God is giving you for all time.”

Eastern Cities of Refuge

<sup>41</sup>Then Moses set apart three cities of refuge east of the Jordan River. <sup>42</sup>Anyone who killed another person unintentionally, without previous hostility, could flee there to live in safety. <sup>43</sup>These were the cities: Bezer on the wilderness plateau for the tribe of Reuben; Ramoth in Gilead for the tribe of Gad; Golan in Bashan for the tribe of Manasseh.

Introduction to Moses' Second Address

<sup>44</sup>This is the body of instruction that Moses presented to the Israelites. <sup>45</sup>These are the laws, decrees, and regulations that Moses gave to the people of Israel when they left Egypt, <sup>46</sup>and as they camped in the valley near Beth-peor east of the Jordan River. (This land was formerly occupied by the Amorites under King Sihon, who ruled from Heshbon. But Moses and the Israelites destroyed him and his people when they came up from Egypt. <sup>47</sup>Israel took possession of his land and that of King Og of Bashan—the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan. <sup>48</sup>So Israel conquered the entire area from Aroer at the edge of the Arnon Gorge all the way to Mount Sirion,* also called Mount Hermon. <sup>49</sup>And they conquered the eastern bank of the Jordan River as far south as the Dead Sea,* below the slopes of Pisgah.)

Deuteronomy 5

Ten Commandments for the Covenant Community

<sup>1</sup>Moses called all the people of Israel together and said, “Listen carefully, Israel. Hear the decrees and regulations I am giving you today, so you may learn them and obey them!

<sup>6</sup>“I am the LORD your God, who rescued you from the land of Egypt, the place of your slavery.

<sup>7</sup>“You must not have any other god but me.

<sup>8</sup>“You must not make for yourself an idol of any kind, or an image of anything in the heavens or on the earth or in the sea.

<sup>9</sup>You must not bow down to them or worship them, for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God who will not tolerate your affection for any other gods. I lay the sins of the parents upon their children; the entire family is affected—even children in the third and fourth generations of those who reject me. <sup>10</sup>But I lavish unfailing love for a thousand generations on those* who love me and obey my commands.

11 “You must not misuse the name of the LORD your God. The LORD will not let you go unpunished if you misuse his name.

12 “Observe the Sabbath day by keeping it holy, as the LORD your God has commanded you. <sup>13</sup>You have six days each week for your ordinary work, <sup>14</sup>but the seventh day is a Sabbath day of rest dedicated to the LORD your God. On that day no one in your household may do any work. This includes you, your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, your oxen and donkeys and other livestock, and any foreigners living among you. All your male and female servants must rest as you do. <sup>15</sup>Remember that you were once slaves in Egypt, but the LORD your God brought you out with his strong hand and powerful arm. That is why the LORD your God has commanded you to rest on the Sabbath day.

<sup>16</sup>“Honor your father and mother, as the LORD your God commanded you. Then you will live a long, full life in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

21 “You must not covet your neighbor’s wife. You must not covet your neighbor’s house or land, male or female servant, ox or donkey, or anything else that belongs to your neighbor.

<sup>22</sup>“The LORD spoke these words to all of you assembled there at the foot of the mountain. He spoke with a loud voice from the heart of the fire, surrounded by clouds and deep darkness. This was all he said at that time, and he wrote his words on two stone tablets and gave them to me.

<sup>23</sup>“But when you heard the voice from the heart of the darkness, while the mountain was blazing with fire, all your tribal leaders and elders came to me. <sup>24</sup>They said, ‘Look, the LORD our God has shown us his glory and greatness, and we have heard his voice from the heart of the fire. Today we have seen that God can speak to us humans, and yet we live! <sup>25</sup>But now, why should we risk death again? If the LORD our God speaks to us again, we will certainly die and be consumed by this awesome fire. <sup>26</sup>Can any living thing hear the voice of the living God from the heart of the fire as we did and yet survive? <sup>27</sup>Go yourself and listen to what the LORD our God says. Then come and tell us everything he tells you, and we will listen and obey.’

<sup>28</sup>“The LORD heard the request you made to me. And he said, ‘I have heard what the people said to you, and they are right. <sup>29</sup>Oh, that they would always have hearts like this, that they might fear me and obey all my commands! If they did, they and their descendants would prosper forever. <sup>30</sup>Go and tell them, “Return to your tents.” <sup>31</sup>But you stand here with me so I can give you all my commands, decrees, and regulations. You must teach them to the people so they can obey them in the land I am giving them as their possession.’”

<sup>32</sup>So Moses told the people, “You must be careful to obey all the commands of the LORD your God, following his instructions in every detail. <sup>33</sup>Stay on the path that the LORD your God has commanded you to follow. Then you will live long and prosperous lives in the land you are about to enter and occupy.

Deuteronomy 6

A Call for Wholehearted Commitment

<sup>1</sup>“These are the commands, decrees, and regulations that the LORD your God commanded me to teach you. You must obey them in the land you are about to enter and occupy, <sup>2</sup>and you and your children and grandchildren must fear the LORD your God as long as you live. If you obey all his decrees and commands, you will enjoy a long life. <sup>3</sup>Listen closely, Israel, and be careful to obey. Then all will go well with you, and you will have many children in the land flowing with milk and honey, just as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, promised you.

<sup>4</sup>“Listen, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone.* <sup>5</sup> And you must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your strength. <sup>6</sup> And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today. <sup>7</sup> Repeat them again and again to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up. <sup>8</sup> Tie them to your hands and wear them on your forehead as reminders. <sup>9</sup> Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

<sup>10</sup> “The LORD your God will soon bring you into the land he swore to give you when he made a vow to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. It is a land with large, prosperous cities that you did not build.<sup>11</sup>The houses will be richly stocked with goods you did not produce. You will draw water from cisterns you did not dig, and you will eat from vineyards and olive trees you did not plant. When you have eaten your fill in this land,<sup>12</sup>be careful not to forget the LORD, who rescued you from slavery in the land of Egypt.<sup>13</sup>You must fear the LORD your God and serve him. When you take an oath, you must use only his name.

<sup>14</sup>“You must not worship any of the gods of neighboring nations,<sup>15</sup>for the LORD your God, who lives among you, is a jealous God. His anger will flare up against you, and he will wipe you from the face of the earth.<sup>16</sup>You must not test the LORD your God as you did when you complained at Massah.<sup>17</sup>You must diligently obey the commands of the LORD your God—all the laws and decrees he has given you.<sup>18</sup>Do what is right and good in the LORD’s sight, so all will go well with you. Then you will enter and occupy the good land that the LORD swore to give your ancestors.<sup>19</sup>You will drive out all the enemies living in the land, just as the LORD said you would.

<sup>20</sup>“In the future your children will ask you, ‘What is the meaning of these laws, decrees, and regulations that the LORD our God has commanded us to obey?’

<sup>21</sup>“Then you must tell them, ‘We were Pharaoh’s slaves in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with his strong hand.<sup>22</sup>The LORD did miraculous signs and wonders before our eyes, dealing terrifying blows against Egypt and Pharaoh and all his people.<sup>23</sup>He brought us out of Egypt so he could give us this land he had sworn to give our ancestors.<sup>24</sup>And the LORD our God commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear him so he can continue to bless us and preserve our lives, as he has done to this day.<sup>25</sup>For we will be counted as righteous when we obey all the commands the LORD our God has given us.’

Deuteronomy 7

The Privilege of Holiness

<sup>1</sup>“When the LORD your God brings you into the land you are about to enter and occupy, he will clear away many nations ahead of you: the Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. These seven nations are greater and more numerous than you. <sup>2</sup>When the LORD your God hands these nations over to you and you conquer them, you must completely destroy* them. Make no treaties with them and show them no mercy. <sup>3</sup>You must not intermarry with them. Do not let your daughters and sons marry their sons and daughters, <sup>4</sup>for they will lead your children away from me to worship other gods. Then the anger of the LORD will burn against you, and he will quickly destroy you. <sup>5</sup>This is what you must do. You must break down their pagan altars and shatter their sacred pillars. Cut down their Asherah poles and burn their idols. <sup>6</sup>For you are a holy people, who belong to the LORD your God. Of all the people on earth, the LORD your God has chosen you to be his own special treasure.

<sup>7</sup> “The LORD did not set his heart on you and choose you because you were more numerous than other nations, for you were the smallest of all nations! <sup>8</sup>Rather, it was simply that the LORD loves you, and he was keeping the oath he had sworn to your ancestors. That is why the LORD rescued you with such a strong hand from your slavery and from the oppressive hand of Pharaoh, king of Egypt.<sup>9</sup> Understand, therefore, that the LORD your God is indeed God. He is the faithful God who keeps his covenant for a thousand generations and lavishes his unfailing love on those who love him and obey his commands.<sup>10</sup> But he does not hesitate to punish and destroy those who reject him.<sup>11</sup> Therefore, you must obey all these commands, decrees, and regulations I am giving you today.

Personal Gold

Holding Back

<sup>12</sup>“If you listen to these regulations and faithfully obey them, the LORD your God will keep his covenant of unfailing love with you, as he promised with an oath to your ancestors.<sup>13</sup> He will love you and bless you, and he will give you many children. He will give fertility to your land and your animals. When you arrive in the land he swore to give your ancestors, you will have large harvests of grain, new wine, and olive oil, and great herds of cattle, sheep, and goats.<sup>14</sup> You will be blessed above all the nations of the earth. None of your men or women will be childless, and all your livestock will bear young.<sup>15</sup> And the LORD will protect you from all sickness. He will not let you suffer from the terrible diseases you knew in Egypt, but he will inflict them on all your enemies!

<sup>16</sup>“You must destroy all the nations the LORD your God hands over to you. Show them no mercy, and do not worship their gods, or they will trap you.<sup>17</sup> Perhaps you will think to yourselves, ‘How can we ever conquer these nations that are so much more powerful than we are?’<sup>18</sup> But don’t be afraid of them! Just remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all the land of Egypt.<sup>19</sup> Remember the great terrors the LORD your God sent against them. You saw it all with your own eyes! And remember the miraculous signs and wonders, and the strong hand and powerful arm with which he brought you out of Egypt. The LORD your God will use this same power against all the people you fear.<sup>20</sup> And then the LORD your God will send terror* to drive out the few survivors still hiding from you!

<sup>21</sup> “No, do not be afraid of those nations, for the LORD your God is among you, and he is a great and awesome God.<sup>22</sup> The LORD your God will drive those nations out ahead of you little by little. You will not clear them away all at once, otherwise the wild animals would multiply too quickly for you.<sup>23</sup> But the LORD your God will hand them over to you. He will throw them into complete confusion until they are destroyed.<sup>24</sup> He will put their kings in your power, and you will erase their names from the face of the earth. No one will be able to stand against you, and you will destroy them all.

<sup>25</sup> “You must burn their idols in fire, and you must not covet the silver or gold that covers them. You must not take it or it will become a trap to you, for it is detestable to the LORD your God.<sup>26</sup> Do not bring any detestable objects into your home, for then you will be destroyed, just like them. You must utterly detest such things, for they are set apart for destruction.

Deuteronomy 8

A Call to Remember and Obey

<sup>1</sup>“Be careful to obey all the commands I am giving you today. Then you will live and multiply, and you will enter and occupy the land the LORD swore to give your ancestors. <sup>2</sup> Remember how the LORD your God led you through the wilderness for these forty years, humbling you and testing you to prove your character, and to find out whether or not you would obey his commands. <sup>3</sup>Yes, he humbled you by letting you go hungry and then feeding you with manna, a food previously unknown to you and your ancestors. He did it to teach you that people do not live by bread alone; rather, we live by every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD. <sup>4</sup>For all these forty years your clothes didn’t wear out, and your feet didn’t blister or swell. <sup>5</sup>Think about it: Just as a parent disciplines a child, the LORD your God disciplines you for your own good.

<sup>6</sup>“So obey the commands of the LORD your God by walking in his ways and fearing him. <sup>7</sup>For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land of flowing streams and pools of water, with fountains and springs that gush out in the valleys and hills. <sup>8</sup>It is a land of wheat and barley; of grapevines, fig trees, and pomegranates; of olive oil and honey. <sup>9</sup>It is a land where food is plentiful and nothing is lacking. It is a land where iron is as common as stone, and copper is abundant in the hills.

your God for the good land he has given you.

<sup>11</sup>“But that is the time to be careful! Beware that in your plenty you do not forget the LORD your God and disobey his commands, regulations, and decrees that I am giving you today. <sup>12</sup>For when you have become full and prosperous and have built fine homes to live in, <sup>13</sup>and when your flocks and herds have become very large and your silver and gold have multiplied along with everything else, be careful! <sup>14</sup>Do not become proud at that time and forget the LORD your God, who rescued you from slavery in the land of Egypt. <sup>15</sup>Do not forget that he led you through the great and terrifying wilderness with its poisonous snakes and scorpions, where it was so hot and dry. He gave you water from the rock! <sup>16</sup> He fed you with manna in the wilderness, a food unknown to your ancestors. He did this to humble you and test you for your own good. <sup>17</sup>He did all this so you would never say to yourself, ‘I have achieved this wealth with my own strength and energy.’ <sup>18</sup>Remember the LORD your God. He is the one who gives you power to be successful, in order to fulfill the covenant he confirmed to your ancestors with an oath.

<sup>19</sup>“But I assure you of this: If you ever forget the LORD your God and follow other gods, worshiping and bowing down to them, you will certainly be destroyed. <sup>20</sup>Just as the LORD has destroyed other nations in your path, you also will be destroyed if you refuse to obey the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 9

Victory by God's Grace

<sup>1</sup>“Listen, O Israel! Today you are about to cross the Jordan River to take over the land belonging to nations much greater and more powerful than you. They live in cities with walls that reach to the sky! <sup>2</sup>The people are strong and tall—descendants of the famous Anakite giants. You’ve heard the saying, ‘Who can stand up to the Anakites?’” <sup>3</sup> But recognize today that the LORD your God is the one who will cross over ahead of you like a devouring fire to destroy them. He will subdue them so that you will quickly conquer them and drive them out, just as the LORD has promised.

<sup>4</sup>“After the LORD your God has done this for you, don’t say in your hearts, ‘The LORD has given us this land because we are such good people!’ No, it is because of the wickedness of the other nations that he is pushing them out of your way. <sup>5</sup>It is not because you are so good or have such integrity that you are about to occupy their land. The LORD your God will drive these nations out ahead of you only because of their wickedness, and to fulfill the oath he swore to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>6</sup>You must recognize that the LORD your God is not giving you this good land because you are good, for you are not—you are a stubborn people.

Remembering the Gold Calf

<sup>7</sup>“Remember and never forget how angry you made the LORD your God out in the wilderness. From the day you left Egypt until now, you have been constantly rebelling against him. <sup>8</sup>Even at Mount Sinai* you made the LORD so angry he was ready to destroy you. <sup>9</sup>This happened when I was on the mountain receiving the tablets of stone inscribed with the words of the covenant that the LORD had made with you. I was there for forty days and forty nights, and all that time I ate no food and drank no water. <sup>10</sup>The LORD gave me the two tablets on which God had written with his own finger all the words he had spoken to you from the heart of the fire when you were assembled at the mountain.

<sup>11</sup>“At the end of the forty days and nights, the LORD handed me the two stone tablets inscribed with the words of the covenant. <sup>12</sup>Then the LORD said to me, ‘Get up! Go down immediately, for the people you brought out of Egypt have corrupted themselves. How quickly they have turned away from the way I commanded them to live! They have melted gold and made an idol for themselves!’

<sup>13</sup>“The LORD also said to me, ‘I have seen how stubborn and rebellious these people are. <sup>14</sup>Leave me alone so I may destroy them and erase their name from under heaven. Then I will make a mighty nation of your descendants, a nation larger and more powerful than they are.’

<sup>15</sup>“So while the mountain was blazing with fire I turned and came down, holding in my hands the two stone tablets inscribed with the terms of the covenant. <sup>16</sup>There below me I could see that you had sinned against the LORD your God. You had melted gold and made a calf idol for yourselves. How quickly you had turned away from the path the LORD had commanded you to follow! <sup>17</sup>So I took the stone tablets and threw them to the ground, smashing them before your eyes.

<sup>18</sup>“Then, as before, I threw myself down before the LORD for forty days and nights. I ate no bread and drank no water because of the great sin you had committed by doing what the LORD hated, provoking him to anger. <sup>19</sup>I feared that the furious anger of the LORD, which turned him against you, would drive him to destroy you. But again he listened to me. <sup>20</sup>The LORD was so angry with Aaron that he wanted to destroy him, too. But I prayed for Aaron, and the LORD spared him. <sup>21</sup>I took your sin—the calf you had made—and I melted it down in the fire and ground it into fine dust. Then I threw the dust into the stream that flows down the mountain.

<sup>22</sup>“You also made the LORD angry at Taberah,* Massah,* and Kibroth-hattaavah.* <sup>23</sup>And at Kadesh-barnea the LORD sent you out with this command: ‘Go up and take over the land I have given you.’ But you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God and refused to put your trust in him or obey him. <sup>24</sup>Yes, you have been rebelling against the LORD as long as I have known you.

<sup>25</sup>“That is why I threw myself down before the LORD for forty days and nights—for the LORD said he would destroy you. <sup>26</sup>I prayed to the LORD and said, ‘O Sovereign LORD, do not destroy them. They are your own people. They are your special possession, whom you redeemed from Egypt by your mighty power and your strong hand. <sup>27</sup>Please overlook the stubbornness and the awful sin of these people, and remember instead your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>28</sup>If you destroy these people, the Egyptians will say, “The Israelites died because the LORD wasn’t able to bring them to the land he had promised to give them.” Or they might say, “He destroyed them because he hated them; he deliberately took them into the wilderness to slaughter them.” <sup>29</sup>But they are your people and your special possession, whom you brought out of Egypt by your great strength and powerful arm.’

Deuteronomy 10

A New Copy of the Covenant

<sup>1</sup> “At that time the LORD said to me, ‘Chisel out two stone tablets like the first ones. Also make a wooden Ark—a sacred chest to store them in. Come up to me on the mountain,<sup>2</sup> and I will write on the tablets the same words that were on the ones you smashed. Then place the tablets in the Ark.’

<sup>3</sup>“So I made an Ark of acacia wood and cut two stone tablets like the first two. Then I went up the mountain with the tablets in my hand.<sup>4</sup> Once again the LORD wrote the Ten Commandments* on the tablets and gave them to me. They were the same words the LORD had spoken to you from the heart of the fire on the day you were assembled at the foot of the mountain.<sup>5</sup> Then I turned and came down the mountain and placed the tablets in the Ark of the Covenant, which I had made, just as the LORD commanded me. And the tablets are still there in the Ark.”

<sup>6</sup>(The people of Israel set out from the wells of the people of Jaakan* and traveled to Moserah, where Aaron died and was buried. His son Eleazar ministered as high priest in his place.<sup>7</sup> Then they journeyed to Gudgodah, and from there to Jotbathah, a land with many brooks and streams.<sup>8</sup> At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the Ark of the LORD’s Covenant, and to stand before the LORD as his ministers, and to pronounce blessings in his name. These are their duties to this day. <sup>9</sup>That is why the Levites have no share of property or possession of land among the other Israelite tribes. The LORD himself is their special possession, as the LORD your God told them.)

<sup>10</sup>“As for me, I stayed on the mountain in the LORD’s presence for forty days and nights, as I had done the first time. And once again the LORD listened to my pleas and agreed not to destroy you. <sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to me, ‘Get up and resume the journey, and lead the people to the land I swore to give to their ancestors, so they may take possession of it.’

A Call to Love and Obedience

<sup>12</sup> “And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you? He requires only that you fear the LORD your God, and live in a way that pleases him, and love him and serve him with all your heart and soul. <sup>13</sup>And you must always obey the LORD’s commands and decrees that I am giving you today for your own good.

<sup>14</sup>“Look, the highest heavens and the earth and everything in it all belong to the LORD your God. <sup>15</sup>Yet the LORD chose your ancestors as the objects of his love. And he chose you, their descendants, above all other nations, as is evident today. <sup>16</sup>Therefore, change your hearts* and stop being stubborn.

<sup>17</sup>“For the LORD your God is the God of gods and Lord of lords. He is the great God, the mighty and awesome God, who shows no partiality and cannot be bribed. <sup>18</sup>He ensures that orphans and widows receive justice. He shows love to the foreigners living among you and gives them food and clothing.

<sup>19</sup>So you, too, must show love to foreigners, for you yourselves were once foreigners in the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>You must fear the LORD your God and worship him and cling to him. Your oaths must be in his name alone. <sup>21</sup>He alone is your God, the only one who is worthy of your praise, the one who has done these mighty miracles that you have seen with your own eyes. <sup>22</sup>When your ancestors went down into Egypt, there were only seventy of them. But now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars in the sky!

Deuteronomy 11

<sup>1</sup> “You must love the LORD your God and obey all his requirements, decrees, regulations, and commands. <sup>2</sup>Keep in mind that I am not talking now to your children, who have never experienced the discipline of the LORD your God or seen his greatness and his strong hand and powerful arm. <sup>3</sup>They didn’t see the miraculous signs and wonders he performed in Egypt against Pharaoh and all his land. <sup>4</sup>They didn’t see what the LORD did to the armies of Egypt and to their horses and chariots—how he drowned them in the Red Sea* as they were chasing you. He destroyed them, and they have not recovered to this very day!

<sup>5</sup>“Your children didn’t see how the LORD cared for you in the wilderness until you arrived here. <sup>6</sup>They didn’t see what he did to Dathan and Abiram (the sons of Eliab, a descendant of Reuben) when the earth opened its mouth in the Israelite camp and swallowed them, along with their households and tents and every living thing that belonged to them. <sup>7</sup>But you have seen the LORD perform all these mighty deeds with your own eyes!

The Blessings of Obedience

<sup>8</sup>“Therefore, be careful to obey every command I am giving you today, so you may have strength to go in and take over the land you are about to enter. <sup>9</sup>If you obey, you will enjoy a long life in the land the LORD swore to give to your ancestors and to you, their descendants—a land flowing with milk and honey!

<sup>10</sup>For the land you are about to enter and take over is not like the land of Egypt from which you came, where you planted your seed and made irrigation ditches with your foot as in a vegetable garden. <sup>11</sup>Rather, the land you will soon take over is a land of hills and valleys with plenty of rain—<sup>12</sup>a land that the LORD your God cares for. He watches over it through each season of the year!

<sup>13</sup>“If you carefully obey all the commands I am giving you today, and if you love the LORD your God and serve him with all your heart and soul, <sup>14</sup>then he will send the rains in their proper seasons—the early and late rains—so you can bring in your harvests of grain, new wine, and olive oil. <sup>15</sup>He will give you lush pastureland for your livestock, and you yourselves will have all you want to eat.

<sup>16</sup>“But be careful. Don’t let your heart be deceived so that you turn away from the LORD and serve and worship other gods. <sup>17</sup>If you do, the LORD’s anger will burn against you. He will shut up the sky and hold back the rain, and the ground will fail to produce its harvests. Then you will quickly die in that good land the LORD is giving you.

<sup>18</sup>“So commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these words of mine. Tie them to your hands and wear them on your forehead as reminders. <sup>19</sup>Teach them to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up. <sup>20</sup>Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates, <sup>21</sup>so that as long as the sky remains above the earth, you and your children may flourish in the land the LORD swore to give your ancestors.

<sup>22</sup>“Be careful to obey all these commands I am giving you. Show love to the LORD your God by walking in his ways and holding tightly to him. <sup>23</sup>Then the LORD will drive out all the nations ahead of you, though they are much greater and stronger than you, and you will take over their land. <sup>24</sup>Wherever you set foot, that land will be yours. Your frontiers will stretch from the wilderness in the south to Lebanon in the north, and from the Euphrates River in the east to the Mediterranean Sea in the west.* <sup>25</sup>No one will be able to stand against you, for the LORD your God will cause the people to fear and dread you, as he promised, wherever you go in the whole land.

PERSPECTIVES

Be careful to obey all these commands I am giving you. Show love to the LORD your God by walking in his ways and holding tightly to him.

DEUTERONOMY 11:22

Be such a man, and live such a life, that if every man were such as you, and every life such as yours, this earth would be God's paradise.

<sup>26</sup>“Look, today I am giving you the choice between a blessing and a curse! <sup>27</sup>You will be blessed if you obey the commands of the LORD your God that I am giving you today. <sup>28</sup>But you will be cursed if you reject the commands of the LORD your God and turn away from him and worship gods you have not known before.

<sup>29</sup>“When the LORD your God brings you into the land and helps you take possession of it, you must pronounce the blessing at Mount Gerizim and the curse at Mount Ebal. <sup>30</sup>(These two mountains are west of the Jordan River in the land of the Canaanites who live in the Jordan Valley, * near the town of Gilgal, not far from the oaks of Moreh.) <sup>31</sup>For you are about to cross the Jordan River to take over the land the LORD your God is giving you. When you take that land and are living in it, <sup>32</sup>you must be careful to obey all the decrees and regulations I am giving you today.

Deuteronomy 12

The LORD's Chosen Place for Worship

<sup>1</sup>“These are the decrees and regulations you must be careful to obey when you live in the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, is giving you. You must obey them as long as you live.

<sup>2</sup>“When you drive out the nations that live there, you must destroy all the places where they worship their gods—high on the mountains, up on the hills, and under every green tree. <sup>3</sup>Break down their altars and smash their sacred pillars. Burn their Asherah poles and cut down their carved idols. Completely erase the names of their gods!

<sup>4</sup>“Do not worship the LORD your God in the way these pagan peoples worship their gods. <sup>5</sup>Rather, you must seek the LORD your God at the place of worship he himself will choose from among all the tribes—the place where his name will be honored. <sup>6</sup>There you will bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, your sacred offerings, your offerings to fulfill a vow, your voluntary offerings, and your offerings of the firstborn animals of your herds and flocks. <sup>7</sup>There you and your families will feast in the presence of the LORD your God, and you will rejoice in all you have accomplished because the LORD your God has blessed you.

<sup>8</sup>“Your pattern of worship will change. Today all of you are doing as you please, <sup>9</sup>because you have not yet arrived at the place of rest, the land the LORD your God is giving you as your special possession.<sup>10</sup> But you will soon cross the Jordan River and live in the land the LORD your God is giving you. When he gives you rest from all your enemies and you're living safely in the land,<sup>11</sup> you must bring everything I command you—your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, your sacred offerings, and your offerings to fulfill a vow—to the designated place of worship, the place the LORD your God chooses for his name to be honored.

<sup>12</sup>“You must celebrate there in the presence of the LORD your God with your sons and daughters and all your servants. And remember to include the Levites who live in your towns, for they will receive no allotment of land among you.<sup>13</sup> Be careful not to sacrifice your burnt offerings just anywhere you like.<sup>14</sup> You may do so only at the place the LORD will choose within one of your tribal territories. There you must offer your burnt offerings and do everything I command you.

<sup>15</sup>“But you may butcher your animals and eat their meat in any town whenever you want. You may freely eat the animals with which the LORD your God blesses you. All of you, whether ceremonially clean or unclean, may eat that meat, just as you now eat gazelle and deer.<sup>16</sup> But you must not consume the blood. You must pour it out on the ground like water.

<sup>17</sup>“But you may not eat your offerings in your hometown—neither the tithe of your grain and new wine and olive oil, nor the firstborn of your flocks and herds, nor any offering to fulfill a vow, nor your voluntary offerings, nor your sacred offerings.

<sup>18</sup>“You must eat these in the presence of the LORD your God at the place he will choose. Eat them there with your children, your servants, and the Levites who live in your towns, celebrating in the presence of the LORD your God in all you do.<sup>19</sup> And be very careful never to neglect the Levites as long as you live in your land.

<sup>20</sup>“When the LORD your God expands your territory as he has promised, and you have the urge to eat meat, you may freely eat meat whenever you want.<sup>21</sup> It might happen that the designated place of worship—the place the LORD your God chooses for his name to be honored—is a long way from your home. If so, you may butcher any of the cattle, sheep, or goats the LORD has given you, and you may freely eat the meat in your hometown, as I have commanded you.<sup>22</sup> Anyone, whether ceremonially clean or unclean, may eat that meat, just as you do now with gazelle and deer.<sup>23</sup> But never consume the blood, for the blood is the life, and you must not consume the lifeblood with the meat.<sup>24</sup> Instead, pour out the blood on the ground like water.<sup>25</sup> Do not consume the blood, so that all may go well with you and your children after you, because you will be doing what pleases the LORD.

<sup>26</sup>“Take your sacred gifts and your offerings given to fulfill a vow to the place the LORD chooses.<sup>27</sup> You must offer the meat and blood of your burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD your God. The blood of your other sacrifices must be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God, but you may eat the meat.<sup>28</sup> Be careful to obey all my commands, so that all will go well with you and your children after you, because you will be doing what is good and pleasing to the LORD your God.

<sup>29</sup>“When the LORD your God goes ahead of you and destroys the nations and you drive them out and live in their land, <sup>30</sup>do not fall into the trap of following their customs and worshiping their gods. Do not inquire about their gods, saying, ‘How do these nations worship their gods? I want to follow their example.’ <sup>31</sup>You must not worship the LORD your God the way the other nations worship their gods, for they perform for their gods every detestable act that the LORD hates. They even burn their sons and daughters as sacrifices to their gods.

<sup>32</sup> * “So be careful to obey all the commands I give you. You must not add anything to them or subtract anything from them.

Deuteronomy 13

A Warning against Idolatry

<sup>1</sup> *<sup>1</sup>“Suppose there are prophets among you or those who dream dreams about the future, and they promise you signs or miracles,<sup>2</sup>and the predicted signs or miracles occur. If they then say, ‘Come, let us worship other gods’—gods you have not known before—<sup>3</sup>do not listen to them. The LORD your God is testing you to see if you truly love him with all your heart and soul.<sup>4</sup>Serve only the LORD your God and fear him alone. Obey his commands, listen to his voice, and cling to him.<sup>5</sup>The false prophets or visionaries who try to lead you astray must be put to death, for they encourage rebellion against the LORD your God, who redeemed you from slavery and brought you out of the land of Egypt. Since they try to lead you astray from the way the LORD your God commanded you to live, you must put them to death. In this way you will purge the evil from among you.

<sup>6</sup>“Suppose someone secretly entices you—even your brother, your son or daughter, your beloved wife, or your closest friend—and says, ‘Let us go worship other gods’—gods that neither you nor your ancestors have known.<sup>7</sup>They might suggest that you worship the gods of peoples who live nearby or who come from the ends of the earth.<sup>8</sup>But do not give in or listen. Have no pity, and do not spare or protect them.<sup>9</sup>You must put them to death! Strike the first blow yourself, and then all the people must join in. <sup>10</sup>Stone the guilty ones to death because they have tried to draw you away from the LORD your God, who rescued you from the land of Egypt, the place of slavery. <sup>11</sup>Then all Israel will hear about it and be afraid, and no one will act so wickedly again.

<sup>12</sup>“When you begin living in the towns the LORD your God is giving you, you may hear <sup>13</sup>that scoundrels among you are leading their fellow citizens astray by saying, ‘Let us go worship other gods’—gods you have not known before. <sup>14</sup>In such cases, you must examine the facts carefully. If you find that the report is true and such a detestable act has been committed among you, <sup>15</sup>you must attack that town and completely destroy* all its inhabitants, as well as all the livestock. <sup>16</sup>Then you must pile all the plunder in the middle of the open square and burn it. Burn the entire town as a burnt offering to the LORD your God. That town must remain a ruin forever; it may never be rebuilt. <sup>17</sup>Keep none of the plunder that has been set apart for destruction. Then the LORD will turn from his fierce anger and be merciful to you. He will have compassion on you and make you a large nation, just as he swore to your ancestors.

<sup>18</sup>“The LORD your God will be merciful only if you listen to his voice and keep all his commands that I am giving you today, doing what pleases him.

Deuteronomy 14

Ceremonially Clean and Unclean Animals

<sup>1</sup> “Since you are the people of the LORD your God, never cut yourselves or shave the hair above your foreheads in mourning for the dead. <sup>2</sup>You have been set apart as holy to the LORD your God, and he has chosen you from all the nations of the earth to be his own special treasure.

<sup>6</sup>“You may eat any animal that has completely split hooves and chews the cud, <sup>7</sup>but if the animal doesn’t have both, it may not be eaten. So you may not eat the camel, the hare, or the hyrax.* They chew the cud but do not have split hooves, so they are ceremonially unclean for you. <sup>8</sup>And you may not eat the pig. It has split hooves but does not chew the cud, so it is ceremonially unclean for you. You may not eat the meat of these animals or even touch their carcasses.

<sup>9</sup>“Of all the marine animals, you may eat whatever has both fins and scales. <sup>10</sup>You may not, however, eat marine animals that do not have both fins and scales. They are ceremonially unclean for you.

<sup>11</sup>“You may eat any bird that is ceremonially clean. <sup>12</sup>These are the birds you may not eat: the griffon vulture, the bearded vulture, the black vulture, <sup>13</sup>the kite, the falcon, buzzards of all kinds, <sup>14</sup>ravens of all kinds, <sup>15</sup>the eagle owl, the short-eared owl, the seagull, hawks of all kinds, <sup>16</sup>the little owl, the great owl, the barn owl, <sup>17</sup>the desert owl, the Egyptian vulture, the cormorant, <sup>18</sup>the stork, herons of all kinds, the hoopoe, and the bat.

<sup>19</sup>“All winged insects that walk along the ground are ceremonially unclean for you and may not be eaten. <sup>20</sup>But you may eat any winged bird or insect that is ceremonially clean.

<sup>21</sup>“You must not eat anything that has died a natural death. You may give it to a foreigner living in your town, or you may sell it to a stranger. But do not eat it yourselves, for you are set apart as holy to the LORD your God.

“You must not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.

The Giving of Tithes

<sup>22</sup>“You must set aside a tithe of your crops—one-tenth of all the crops you harvest each year. <sup>23</sup>Bring this tithe to the designated place of worship—the place the LORD your God chooses for his name to be honored—and eat it there in his presence. This applies to your tithes of grain, new wine, olive oil, and the firstborn males of your flocks and herds. Doing this will teach you always to fear the LORD your God.

<sup>24</sup>“Now when the LORD your God blesses you with a good harvest, the place of worship he chooses for his name to be honored might be too far for you to bring the tithe. <sup>25</sup>If so, you may sell the tithe portion of your crops and herds, put the money in a pouch, and go to the place the LORD your God has chosen. <sup>26</sup>When you arrive, you may use the money to buy any kind of food you want—cattle, sheep, goats, wine, or other alcoholic drink. Then feast there in the presence of the LORD your God and celebrate with your household.<sup>27</sup> And do not neglect the Levites in your town, for they will receive no allotment of land among you.

<sup>28</sup>“At the end of every third year, bring the entire tithe of that year’s harvest and store it in the nearest town.<sup>29</sup> Give it to the Levites, who will receive no allotment of land among you, as well as to the foreigners living among you, the orphans, and the widows in your towns, so they can eat and be satisfied. Then the LORD your God will bless you in all your work.

Deuteronomy 15

Release for Debtors

<sup>1</sup>“At the end of every seventh year you must cancel the debts of everyone who owes you money. <sup>2</sup>This is how it must be done. Everyone must cancel the loans they have made to their fellow Israelites. They must not demand payment from their neighbors or relatives, for the LORD’s time of release has arrived. <sup>3</sup>This release from debt, however, applies only to your fellow Israelites—not to the foreigners living among you.

<sup>4</sup>“There should be no poor among you, for the LORD your God will greatly bless you in the land he is giving you as a special possession. <sup>5</sup>You will receive this blessing if you are careful to obey all the commands of the LORD your God that I am giving you today. <sup>6</sup>The LORD your God will bless you as he has promised. You will lend money to many nations but will never need to borrow. You will rule many nations, but they will not rule over you.

<sup>7</sup>“But if there are any poor Israelites in your towns when you arrive in the land the LORD your God is giving you, do not be hardhearted or tightfisted toward them. <sup>8</sup>Instead, be generous and lend them whatever they need. <sup>9</sup>Do not be mean-spirited and refuse someone a loan because the year for canceling debts is close at hand. If you refuse to make the loan and the needy person cries out to the LORD, you will be considered guilty of sin. <sup>10</sup>Give generously to the poor, not grudgingly, for the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do. <sup>11</sup>There will always be some in the land who are poor. That is why I am commanding you to share freely with the poor and with other Israelites in need.

Release for Hebrew Slaves

<sup>12</sup>“If a fellow Hebrew sells himself or herself to be your servant* and serves you for six years, in the seventh year you must set that servant free.

<sup>13</sup>“When you release a male servant, do not send him away empty-handed. <sup>14</sup>Give him a generous farewell gift from your flock, your threshing floor, and your winepress. Share with him some of the bounty with which the LORD your God has blessed you. <sup>15</sup>Remember that you were once slaves in the land of Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you! That is why I am giving you this command.

<sup>16</sup>“But suppose your servant says, ‘I will not leave you,’ because he loves you and your family, and he has done well with you. <sup>17</sup>In that case, take an awl and push it through his earlobe into the door. After that, he will be your servant for life. And do the same for your female servants.

<sup>18</sup>“You must not consider it a hardship when you release your servants. Remember that for six years they have given you services worth double the wages of hired workers, and the LORD your God will bless you in all you do.

Sacrificing Firstborn Male Animals

<sup>19</sup>“You must set aside for the LORD your God all the firstborn males from your flocks and herds. Do not use the firstborn of your herds to work your fields, and do not shear the firstborn of your flocks. <sup>20</sup>Instead, you and your family must eat these animals in the presence of the LORD your God each year at the place he chooses. <sup>21</sup>But if this firstborn animal has any defect, such as lameness or blindness, or if anything else is wrong with it, you must not sacrifice it to the LORD your God. <sup>22</sup>Instead, use it for food for your family in your hometown. Anyone, whether ceremonially clean or unclean, may eat it, just as anyone may eat a gazelle or deer. <sup>23</sup>But you must not consume the blood. You must pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 16

Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread

<sup>1</sup> “In honor of the LORD your God, celebrate the Passover each year in the early spring, in the month of Abib,* for that was the month in which the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night. <sup>2</sup>Your Passover sacrifice may be from either the flock or the herd, and it must be sacrificed to the LORD your God at the designated place of worship—the place he chooses for his name to be honored. <sup>3</sup>Eat it with bread made without yeast. For seven days the bread you eat must be made without yeast, as when you escaped from Egypt in such a hurry. Eat this bread—the bread of suffering—so that as long as you live you will remember the day you departed from Egypt. <sup>4</sup>Let no yeast be found in any house throughout your land for those seven days. And when you sacrifice the Passover lamb on the evening of the first day, do not let any of the meat remain until the next morning.

<sup>5</sup> “You may not sacrifice the Passover in just any of the towns that the LORD your God is giving you. <sup>6</sup>You must offer it only at the designated place of worship—the place the LORD your God chooses for his name to be honored. Sacrifice it there in the evening as the sun goes down on the anniversary of your exodus from Egypt. <sup>7</sup>Roast the lamb and eat it in the place the LORD your God chooses. Then you may go back to your tents the next morning. <sup>8</sup>For the next six days you may not eat any bread made with yeast. On the seventh day proclaim another holy day in honor of the LORD your God, and no work may be done on that day.

The Festival of Harvest

<sup>9</sup>“Count off seven weeks from when you first begin to cut the grain at the time of harvest. <sup>10</sup>Then celebrate the Festival of Harvest* to honor the LORD your God. Bring him a voluntary offering in proportion to the blessings you have received from him. <sup>11</sup>This is a time to celebrate before the LORD your God at the designated place of worship he will choose for his name to be honored. Celebrate with your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, the Levites from your towns, and the foreigners, orphans, and widows who live among you. <sup>12</sup>Remember that you were once slaves in Egypt, so be careful to obey all these decrees.

The Festival of Shelters

<sup>13</sup>“You must observe the Festival of Shelters* for seven days at the end of the harvest season, after the grain has been threshed and the grapes have been pressed. <sup>14</sup>This festival will be a happy time of celebrating with your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, and the Levites, foreigners, orphans, and widows from your towns. <sup>15</sup>For seven days you must celebrate this festival to honor the LORD your God at the place he chooses, for it is he who blesses you with bountiful harvests and gives you success in all your work. This festival will be a time of great joy for all.

<sup>16</sup>“Each year every man in Israel must celebrate these three festivals: the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the Festival of Harvest, and the Festival of Shelters. On each of these occasions, all men must appear before the LORD your God at the place he chooses, but they must not appear before the LORD without a gift for him. <sup>17</sup>All must give as they are able, according to the blessings given to them by the LORD your God.

Justice for the People

<sup>18</sup>“Appoint judges and officials for yourselves from each of your tribes in all the towns the LORD your God is giving you. They must judge the people fairly. <sup>19</sup>You must never twist justice or show partiality. Never accept a bribe, for bribes blind the eyes of the wise and corrupt the decisions of the godly. <sup>20</sup>Let true justice prevail, so you may live and occupy the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>21</sup>“You must never set up a wooden Asherah pole beside the altar you build for the LORD your God. <sup>22</sup>And never set up sacred pillars for worship, for the LORD your God hates them.

Deuteronomy 17

<sup>1</sup>“Never sacrifice sick or defective cattle, sheep, or goats to the LORD your God, for he detests such gifts.

<sup>2</sup>“When you begin living in the towns the LORD your God is giving you, a man or woman among you might do evil in the sight of the LORD your God and violate the covenant.<sup>3</sup>For instance, they might serve other gods or worship the sun, the moon, or any of the stars—the forces of heaven—which I have strictly forbidden.<sup>4</sup>When you hear about it, investigate the matter thoroughly. If it is true that this detestable thing has been done in Israel,<sup>5</sup>then the man or woman who has committed such an evil act must be taken to the gates of the town and stoned to death.<sup>6</sup>But never put a person to death on the testimony of only one witness. There must always be two or three witnesses.<sup>7</sup>The witnesses must throw the first stones, and then all the people may join in. In this way, you will purge the evil from among you.

<sup>8</sup>“Suppose a case arises in a local court that is too hard for you to decide—for instance, whether someone is guilty of murder or only of manslaughter, or a difficult lawsuit, or a case involving different kinds of assault. Take such legal cases to the place the LORD your God will choose,<sup>9</sup>and present them to the Levitical priests or the judge on duty at that time. They will hear the case and declare the verdict.<sup>10</sup>You must carry out the verdict they announce and the sentence they prescribe at the place the LORD chooses. You must do exactly what they say.

<sup>11</sup>After they have interpreted the law and declared their verdict, the sentence they impose must be fully executed; do not modify it in any way. <sup>12</sup>Anyone arrogant enough to reject the verdict of the judge or of the priest who represents the LORD your God must die. In this way you will purge the evil from Israel. <sup>13</sup>Then everyone else will hear about it and be afraid to act so arrogantly.

Guidelines for a King

<sup>14</sup>“You are about to enter the land the LORD your God is giving you. When you take it over and settle there, you may think, ‘We should select a king to rule over us like the other nations around us.’ <sup>15</sup>If this happens, be sure to select as king the man the LORD your God chooses. You must appoint a fellow Israelite; he may not be a foreigner.

<sup>16</sup>“The king must not build up a large stable of horses for himself or send his people to Egypt to buy horses, for the LORD has told you, ‘You must never return to Egypt.’ <sup>17</sup>The king must not take many wives for himself, because they will turn his heart away from the LORD. And he must not accumulate large amounts of wealth in silver and gold for himself.

<sup>18</sup>“When he sits on the throne as king, he must copy for himself this body of instruction on a scroll in the presence of the Levitical priests. <sup>19</sup>He must always keep that copy with him and read it daily as long as he lives. That way he will learn to fear the LORD his God by obeying all the terms of these instructions and decrees. <sup>20</sup>This regular reading will prevent him from becoming proud and acting as if he is above his fellow citizens. It will also prevent him from turning away from these commands in the smallest way. And it will ensure that he and his descendants will reign for many generations in Israel.

Spotlight

5 MARKS OF A LEADER

Moses said that if the nation ever chose a king, they should look for five unique qualities. (A lot of Israel's future troubles came from ignoring this advice.)

- 1 Not a foreigner, i.e., someone out of touch with the people's history (17:15)
- 2 Not materialistic; not eager to build a personal fortune (17:16, 17b)
- 3 Not a "lady's man," a woman-chaser (17:17a)
- 4 Anchored in the Scripture, to the point of writing it out for himself (17:18-19)
- 5 Humble; not someone who "pulls rank" or considers himself a V.I.P. (17:20)

Deuteronomy 18

Gifts for the Priests and Levites

<sup>1</sup>“Remember that the Levitical priests—that is, the whole of the tribe of Levi—will receive no allotment of land among the other tribes in Israel. Instead, the priests and Levites will eat from the special gifts given to the LORD, for that is their share. <sup>2</sup>They will have no land of their own among the Israelites. The LORD himself is their special possession, just as he promised them.

<sup>3</sup>“These are the parts the priests may claim as their share from the cattle, sheep, and goats that the people bring as offerings: the shoulder, the cheeks, and the stomach. <sup>4</sup>You must also give to the priests the first share of the grain, the new wine, the olive oil, and the wool at shearing time. <sup>5</sup>For the LORD your God chose the tribe of Levi out of all your tribes to minister in the LORD’s name forever.

<sup>6</sup>“Suppose a Levite chooses to move from his town in Israel, wherever he is living, to the place the LORD chooses for worship. <sup>7</sup>He may minister there in the name of the LORD his God, just like all his fellow Levites who are serving the LORD there. <sup>8</sup>He may eat his share of the sacrifices and offerings, even if he also receives support from his family.

A Call to Holy Living

<sup>9</sup> “When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, be very careful not to imitate the detestable customs of the nations living there. <sup>10</sup>For example, never sacrifice your son or daughter as a burnt offering.* And do not let your people practice fortune-telling, or use sorcery, or interpret omens, or engage in witchcraft, <sup>11</sup>or cast spells, or function as mediums or psychics, or call forth the spirits of the dead. <sup>12</sup>Anyone who does these things is detestable to the LORD. It is because the other nations have done these detestable things that the LORD your God will drive them out ahead of you. <sup>13</sup>But you must be blameless before the LORD your God. <sup>14</sup>The nations you are about to displace consult sorcerers and fortune-tellers, but the LORD your God forbids you to do such things.”

True and False Prophets

<sup>15</sup>Moses continued, “The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your fellow Israelites. You must listen to him. <sup>16</sup>For this is what you yourselves requested of the LORD your God when you were assembled at Mount Sinai.* You said, ‘Don’t let us hear the voice of the LORD our God anymore or see this blazing fire, for we will die.’

<sup>17</sup>“Then the LORD said to me, ‘What they have said is right. <sup>18</sup>I will raise up a prophet like you from among their fellow Israelites. I will put my words in his mouth, and he will tell the people everything I command him. <sup>19</sup>I will personally deal with anyone who will not listen to the messages the prophet proclaims on my behalf. <sup>20</sup>But any prophet who falsely claims to speak in my name or who speaks in the name of another god must die.’

<sup>21</sup>“But you may wonder, ‘How will we know whether or not a prophecy is from the LORD? ' <sup>22</sup>If the prophet speaks in the LORD's name but his prediction does not happen or come true, you will know that the LORD did not give that message. That prophet has spoken without my authority and need not be feared.

Deuteronomy 19

Cities of Refuge

<sup>1</sup>“When the LORD your God destroys the nations whose land he is giving you, you will take over their land and settle in their towns and homes. <sup>2</sup>Then you must set apart three cities of refuge in the land the LORD your God is giving you. <sup>3</sup>Survey the territory,* and divide the land the LORD your God is giving you into three districts, with one of these cities in each district. Then anyone who has killed someone can flee to one of the cities of refuge for safety.

<sup>4</sup>“If someone kills another person unintentionally, without previous hostility, the slayer may flee to any of these cities to live in safety. <sup>5</sup>For example, suppose someone goes into the forest with a neighbor to cut wood. And suppose one of them swings an ax to chop down a tree, and the ax head flies off the handle, killing the other person. In such cases, the slayer may flee to one of the cities of refuge to live in safety.

<sup>6</sup>“If the distance to the nearest city of refuge is too far, an enraged avenger might be able to chase down and kill the person who caused the death. Then the slayer would die unfairly, since he had never shown hostility toward the person who died. <sup>7</sup>That is why I am commanding you to set aside three cities of refuge.

<sup>8</sup>“And if the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as he swore to your ancestors, and gives you all the land he promised them,<sup>9</sup> you must designate three additional cities of refuge. (He will give you this land if you are careful to obey all the commands I have given you—if you always love the LORD your God and walk in his ways.)<sup>10</sup> That way you will prevent the death of innocent people in the land the LORD your God is giving you as your special possession. You will not be held responsible for the death of innocent people.

<sup>11</sup>“But suppose someone is hostile toward a neighbor and deliberately ambushes and murders him and then flees to one of the cities of refuge.<sup>12</sup> In that case, the elders of the murderer’s hometown must send agents to the city of refuge to bring him back and hand him over to the dead person’s avenger to be put to death.<sup>13</sup> Do not feel sorry for that murderer! Purge from Israel the guilt of murdering innocent people; then all will go well with you.

Concern for Justice

<sup>14</sup> “When you arrive in the land the LORD your God is giving you as your special possession, you must never steal anyone’s land by moving the boundary markers your ancestors set up to mark their property.

<sup>15</sup>“You must not convict anyone of a crime on the testimony of only one witness. The facts of the case must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.

<sup>16</sup>“If a malicious witness comes forward and accuses someone of a crime,<sup>17</sup> then both the accuser and accused must appear before the LORD by coming to the priests and judges in office at that time.<sup>18</sup> The judges must investigate the case thoroughly. If the accuser has brought false charges against his fellow Israelite, <sup>19</sup>you must impose on the accuser the sentence he intended for the other person. In this way, you will purge such evil from among you. <sup>20</sup>Then the rest of the people will hear about it and be afraid to do such an evil thing. <sup>21</sup> You must show no pity for the guilty! Your rule should be life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Deuteronomy 20

Regulations concerning War

<sup>1</sup> “When you go out to fight your enemies and you face horses and chariots and an army greater than your own, do not be afraid. The LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, is with you! <sup>2</sup>When you prepare for battle, the priest must come forward to speak to the troops. <sup>3</sup>He will say to them, ‘Listen to me, all you men of Israel! Do not be afraid as you go out to fight your enemies today! Do not lose heart or panic or tremble before them. <sup>4</sup>For the LORD your God is going with you! He will fight for you against your enemies, and he will give you victory!’

<sup>5</sup> “Then the officers of the army must address the troops and say, ‘Has anyone here just built a new house but not yet dedicated it? If so, you may go home! You might be killed in the battle, and someone else would dedicate your house. <sup>6</sup>Has anyone here just planted a vineyard but not yet eaten any of its fruit? If so, you may go home! You might die in battle, and someone else would eat the first fruit. <sup>7</sup>Has anyone here just become engaged to a woman but not yet married her? Well, you may go home and get married! You might die in the battle, and someone else would marry her.’

<sup>8</sup> “Then the officers will also say, ‘Is anyone here afraid or worried? If you are, you may go home before you frighten anyone else.’ <sup>9</sup>When the officers have finished speaking to their troops, they will appoint the unit commanders.

<sup>10</sup>“As you approach a town to attack it, you must first offer its people terms for peace. <sup>11</sup>If they accept your terms and open the gates to you, then all the people inside will serve you in forced labor. <sup>12</sup>But if they refuse to make peace and prepare to fight, you must attack the town. <sup>13</sup>When the LORD your God hands the town over to you, use your swords to kill every man in the town. <sup>14</sup>But you may keep for yourselves all the women, children, livestock, and other plunder. You may enjoy the plunder from your enemies that the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>15</sup>“But these instructions apply only to distant towns, not to the towns of the nations in the land you will enter. <sup>16</sup>In those towns that the LORD your God is giving you as a special possession, destroy every living thing. <sup>17</sup>You must completely destroy* the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, just as the LORD your God has commanded you. <sup>18</sup>This will prevent the people of the land from teaching you to imitate their detestable customs in the worship of their gods, which would cause you to sin deeply against the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup>“When you are attacking a town and the war drags on, you must not cut down the trees with your axes. You may eat the fruit, but do not cut down the trees. Are the trees your enemies, that you should attack them? <sup>20</sup>You may only cut down trees that you know are not valuable for food. Use them to make the equipment you need to attack the enemy town until it falls.

Deuteronomy 21

Cleansing for Unsolved Murder

<sup>1</sup>“When you are in the land the LORD your God is giving you, someone may be found murdered in a field, and you don’t know who committed the murder. <sup>2</sup>In such a case, your elders and judges must measure the distance from the site of the crime to the nearby towns. <sup>3</sup>When the nearest town has been determined, that town’s elders must select from the herd a young cow that has never been trained or yoked to a plow. <sup>4</sup>They must lead it down to a valley that has not been plowed or planted and that has a stream running through it. There in the valley they must break the young cow’s neck. <sup>5</sup>Then the Levitical priests must step forward, for the LORD your God has chosen them to minister before him and to pronounce blessings in the LORD’s name. They are to decide all legal and criminal cases.

<sup>6</sup>“The elders of the town must wash their hands over the young cow whose neck was broken. <sup>7</sup>Then they must say, ‘Our hands did not shed this person’s blood, nor did we see it happen. <sup>8</sup>O LORD, forgive your people Israel whom you have redeemed. Do not charge your people with the guilt of murdering an innocent person.’ Then they will be absolved of the guilt of this person’s blood. <sup>9</sup>By following these instructions, you will do what is right in the LORD’s sight and will cleanse the guilt of murder from your community.

Marriage to a Captive Woman

<sup>10</sup>“Suppose you go out to war against your enemies and the LORD your God hands them over to you, and you take some of them as captives. <sup>11</sup>And suppose you see among the captives a beautiful woman, and you are attracted to her and want to marry her. <sup>12</sup>If this happens, you may take her to your home, where she must shave her head, cut her nails, <sup>13</sup>and change the clothes she was wearing when she was captured. She will stay in your home, but let her mourn for her father and mother for a full month. Then you may marry her, and you will be her husband and she will be your wife. <sup>14</sup>But if you marry her and she does not please you, you must let her go free. You may not sell her or treat her as a slave, for you have humiliated her.

Rights of the Firstborn

<sup>15</sup>“Suppose a man has two wives, but he loves one and not the other, and both have given him sons. And suppose the firstborn son is the son of the wife he does not love. <sup>16</sup>When the man divides his inheritance, he may not give the larger inheritance to his younger son, the son of the wife he loves, as if he were the firstborn son. <sup>17</sup>He must recognize the rights of his oldest son, the son of the wife he does not love, by giving him a double portion. He is the first son of his father’s virility, and the rights of the firstborn belong to him.

Dealing with a Rebellious Son

<sup>18</sup>“Suppose a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey his father or mother, even though they discipline him.

<sup>19</sup>In such a case, the father and mother must take the son to the elders as they hold court at the town gate. <sup>20</sup>The parents must say to the elders, ‘This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious and refuses to obey. He is a glutton and a drunkard.’ <sup>21</sup>Then all the men of his town must stone him to death. In this way, you will purge this evil from among you, and all Israel will hear about it and be afraid.

Various Regulations

<sup>22</sup>“If someone has committed a crime worthy of death and is executed and hung on a tree,* <sup>23</sup>the body must not remain hanging from the tree overnight. You must bury the body that same day, for anyone who is hung* is cursed in the sight of God. In this way, you will prevent the defilement of the land the LORD your God is giving you as your special possession.

Deuteronomy 22

<sup>1</sup>“If you see your neighbor’s ox or sheep or goat wandering away, don’t ignore your responsibility. * Take it back to its owner. <sup>2</sup>If its owner does not live nearby or you don’t know who the owner is, take it to your place and keep it until the owner comes looking for it. Then you must return it. <sup>3</sup>Do the same if you find your neighbor’s donkey, clothing, or anything else your neighbor loses. Don’t ignore your responsibility.

<sup>4</sup>“If you see that your neighbor’s donkey or ox has collapsed on the road, do not look the other way. Go and help your neighbor get it back on its feet!

<sup>5</sup>“A woman must not put on men’s clothing, and a man must not wear women’s clothing. Anyone who does this is detestable in the sight of the LORD your God.

<sup>6</sup>“If you happen to find a bird’s nest in a tree or on the ground, and there are young ones or eggs in it with the mother sitting in the nest, do not take the mother with the young. <sup>7</sup>You may take the young, but let the mother go, so that you may prosper and enjoy a long life.

<sup>8</sup>“When you build a new house, you must build a railing around the edge of its flat roof. That way you will not be considered guilty of murder if someone falls from the roof.

<sup>9</sup>“You must not plant any other crop between the rows of your vineyard. If you do, you are forbidden to use either the grapes from the vineyard or the other crop.

<sup>10</sup>“You must not plow with an ox and a donkey harnessed together.

<sup>11</sup>“You must not wear clothing made of wool and linen woven together.

<sup>12</sup>“You must put four tassels on the hem of the cloak with which you cover yourself—on the front, back, and sides.

Regulations for Sexual Purity

<sup>13</sup>“Suppose a man marries a woman, but after sleeping with her, he turns against her <sup>14</sup>and publicly accuses her of shameful conduct, saying, ‘When I married this woman, I discovered she was not a virgin.’ <sup>15</sup>Then the woman’s father and mother must bring the proof of her virginity to the elders as they hold court at the town gate. <sup>16</sup>Her father must say to them, ‘I gave my daughter to this man to be his wife, and now he has turned against her. <sup>17</sup>He has accused her of shameful conduct, saying, “I discovered that your daughter was not a virgin.” But here is the proof of my daughter’s virginity.’ Then they must spread her bed sheet before the elders. <sup>18</sup>The elders must then take the man and punish him. <sup>19</sup>They must also fine him 100 pieces of silver,* which he must pay to the woman’s father because he publicly accused a virgin of Israel of shameful conduct. The woman will then remain the man’s wife, and he may never divorce her.

<sup>20</sup>“But suppose the man’s accusations are true, and he can show that she was not a virgin. <sup>21</sup>The woman must be taken to the door of her father’s home, and there the men of the town must stone her to death, for she has committed a disgraceful crime in Israel by being promiscuous while living in her parents' home. In this way, you will purge this evil from among you.

<sup>22</sup>“If a man is discovered committing adultery, both he and the woman must die. In this way, you will purge Israel of such evil.

<sup>23</sup>“Suppose a man meets a young woman, a virgin who is engaged to be married, and he has sexual intercourse with her. If this happens within a town, <sup>24</sup>you must take both of them to the gates of that town and stone them to death. The woman is guilty because she did not scream for help. The man must die because he violated another man's wife. In this way, you will purge this evil from among you.

<sup>25</sup>“But if the man meets the engaged woman out in the country, and he rapes her, then only the man must die. <sup>26</sup>Do nothing to the young woman; she has committed no crime worthy of death. She is as innocent as a murder victim. <sup>27</sup>Since the man raped her out in the country, it must be assumed that she screamed, but there was no one to rescue her.

<sup>28</sup>“Suppose a man has intercourse with a young woman who is a virgin but is not engaged to be married. If they are discovered, <sup>29</sup>he must pay her father fifty pieces of silver.* Then he must marry the young woman because he violated her, and he may never divorce her as long as he lives.

<sup>30</sup>*“A man must not marry his father's former wife, for this would violate his father.

Deuteronomy 23

Regulations concerning Worship

<sup>1*</sup>“If a man’s testicles are crushed or his penis is cut off, he may not be admitted to the assembly of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>“If a person is illegitimate by birth, neither he nor his descendants for ten generations may be admitted to the assembly of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>“No Ammonite or Moabite or any of their descendants for ten generations may be admitted to the assembly of the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>These nations did not welcome you with food and water when you came out of Egypt. Instead, they hired Balaam son of Beor from Pethor in distant Aram-naharaim to curse you. <sup>5</sup>But the LORD your God refused to listen to Balaam. He turned the intended curse into a blessing because the LORD your God loves you. <sup>6</sup>As long as you live, you must never promote the welfare and prosperity of the Ammonites or Moabites.

<sup>7</sup>“Do not detest the Edomites or the Egyptians, because the Edomites are your relatives and you lived as foreigners among the Egyptians. <sup>8</sup>The third generation of Edomites and Egyptians may enter the assembly of the LORD.

Miscellaneous Regulations

<sup>9</sup>“When you go to war against your enemies, be sure to stay away from anything that is impure.

<sup>10</sup>“Any man who becomes ceremonially defiled because of a nocturnal emission must leave the camp and stay away all day.

<sup>11</sup>Toward evening he must bathe himself, and at sunset he may return to the camp.

<sup>12</sup>“You must have a designated area outside the camp where you can go to relieve yourself. <sup>13</sup>Each of you must have a spade as part of your equipment. Whenever you relieve yourself, dig a hole with the spade and cover the excrement. <sup>14</sup>The camp must be holy, for the LORD your God moves around in your camp to protect you and to defeat your enemies. He must not see any shameful thing among you, or he will turn away from you.

<sup>15</sup>“If slaves should escape from their masters and take refuge with you, you must not hand them over to their masters. <sup>16</sup>Let them live among you in any town they choose, and do not oppress them.

<sup>17</sup>“No Israelite, whether man or woman, may become a temple prostitute. <sup>18</sup>When you are bringing an offering to fulfill a vow, you must not bring to the house of the LORD your God any offering from the earnings of a prostitute, whether a man* or a woman, for both are detestable to the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup>“Do not charge interest on the loans you make to a fellow Israelite, whether you loan money, or food, or anything else. <sup>20</sup>You may charge interest to foreigners, but you may not charge interest to Israelites, so that the LORD your God may bless you in everything you do in the land you are about to enter and occupy.

<sup>21</sup>“When you make a vow to the LORD your God, be prompt in fulfilling whatever you promised him. For the LORD your God demands that you promptly fulfill all your vows, or you will be guilty of sin. <sup>22</sup>However, it is not a sin to refrain from making a vow. <sup>23</sup>But once you have voluntarily made a vow, be careful to fulfill your promise to the LORD your God.

<sup>24</sup>“When you enter your neighbor’s vineyard, you may eat your fill of grapes, but you must not carry any away in a basket. <sup>25</sup>And when you enter your neighbor’s field of grain, you may pluck the heads of grain with your hand, but you must not harvest it with a sickle.

Deuteronomy 24

<sup>5</sup>“A newly married man must not be drafted into the army or be given any other official responsibilities. He must be free to spend one year at home, bringing happiness to the wife he has married.

Putting the Honey in Honeymoon

<sup>6</sup>“It is wrong to take a set of millstones, or even just the upper millstone, as security for a loan, for the owner uses it to make a living.

<sup>7</sup>“If anyone kidnaps a fellow Israelite and treats him as a slave or sells him, the kidnapper must die. In this way, you will purge the evil from among you.

<sup>8</sup>“In all cases involving serious skin diseases, * be careful to follow the instructions of the Levitical priests; obey all the commands I have given them. <sup>9</sup>Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam as you were coming from Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>“If you lend anything to your neighbor, do not enter his house to pick up the item he is giving as security. <sup>11</sup>You must wait outside while he goes in and brings it out to you. <sup>12</sup>If your neighbor is poor and gives you his cloak as security for a loan, do not keep the cloak overnight. <sup>13</sup>Return the cloak to its owner by sunset so he can stay warm through the night and bless you, and the LORD your God will count you as righteous.

<sup>14</sup>“Never take advantage of poor and destitute laborers, whether they are fellow Israelites or foreigners living in your towns. <sup>15</sup>You must pay them their wages each day before sunset because they are poor and are counting on it. If you don’t, they might cry out to the LORD against you, and it would be counted against you as sin.

<sup>16</sup>“Parents must not be put to death for the sins of their children, nor children for the sins of their parents. Those deserving to die must be put to death for their own crimes.

<sup>17</sup>“True justice must be given to foreigners living among you and to orphans, and you must never accept a widow’s garment as security for her debt. <sup>18</sup>Always remember that you were slaves in Egypt and that the LORD your God redeemed you from your slavery. That is why I have given you this command.

<sup>19</sup>“When you are harvesting your crops and forget to bring in a bundle of grain from your field, don’t go back to get it. Leave it for the foreigners, orphans, and widows. Then the LORD your God will bless you in all you do. <sup>20</sup>When you beat the olives from your olive trees, don’t go over the boughs twice. Leave the remaining olives for the foreigners, orphans, and widows.

<sup>21</sup>When you gather the grapes in your vineyard, don't glean the vines after they are picked. Leave the remaining grapes for the foreigners, orphans, and widows. <sup>22</sup>Remember that you were slaves in the land of Egypt. That is why I am giving you this command.

Deuteronomy 25

<sup>1</sup>“Suppose two people take a dispute to court, and the judges declare that one is right and the other is wrong. <sup>2</sup>If the person in the wrong is sentenced to be flogged, the judge must command him to lie down and be beaten in his presence with the number of lashes appropriate to the crime. <sup>3</sup>But never give more than forty lashes; more than forty lashes would publicly humiliate your neighbor.

<sup>4</sup>“You must not muzzle an ox to keep it from eating as it treads out the grain.

<sup>5</sup>“If two brothers are living together on the same property and one of them dies without a son, his widow may not be married to anyone from outside the family. Instead, her husband’s brother should marry her and have intercourse with her to fulfill the duties of a brother-in-law. <sup>6</sup>The first son she bears to him will be considered the son of the dead brother, so that his name will not be forgotten in Israel.

<sup>7</sup>“But if the man refuses to marry his brother’s widow, she must go to the town gate and say to the elders assembled there, ‘My husband’s brother refuses to preserve his brother’s name in Israel—he refuses to fulfill the duties of a brother-in-law by marrying me.’ <sup>8</sup>The elders of the town will then summon him and talk with him. If he still refuses and says, ‘I don’t want to marry her,’ <sup>9</sup>the widow must walk over to him in the presence of the elders, pull his sandal from his foot, and spit in his face. Then she must declare, ‘This is what happens to a man who refuses to provide his brother with children.’ <sup>10</sup>Ever afterward in Israel his family will be referred to as ‘the family of the man whose sandal was pulled off’!

<sup>13</sup>“You must use accurate scales when you weigh out merchandise, <sup>14</sup>and you must use full and honest measures.

<sup>15</sup>Yes, always use honest weights and measures, so that you may enjoy a long life in the land the LORD your God is giving you. <sup>16</sup>All who cheat with dishonest weights and measures are detestable to the LORD your God.

<sup>17</sup>“Never forget what the Amalekites did to you as you came from Egypt. <sup>18</sup>They attacked you when you were exhausted and weary, and they struck down those who were straggling behind. They had no fear of God. <sup>19</sup>Therefore, when the LORD your God has given you rest from all your enemies in the land he is giving you as a special possession, you must destroy the Amalekites and erase their memory from under heaven. Never forget this!

Deuteronomy 26

Harvest Offerings and Tithes

<sup>1</sup>“When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you as a special possession and you have conquered it and settled there, <sup>2</sup>put some of the first produce from each crop you harvest into a basket and bring it to the designated place of worship—the place the LORD your God chooses for his name to be honored. <sup>3</sup>Go to the priest in charge at that time and say to him, ‘With this gift I acknowledge to the LORD your God that I have entered the land he swore to our ancestors he would give us.’ <sup>4</sup>The priest will then take the basket from your hand and set it before the altar of the LORD your God.

<sup>5</sup>“You must then say in the presence of the LORD your God, ‘My ancestor Jacob was a wandering Aramean who went to live as a foreigner in Egypt. His family arrived few in number, but in Egypt they became a large and mighty nation. <sup>6</sup>When the Egyptians oppressed and humiliated us by making us their slaves, <sup>7</sup>we cried out to the LORD, the God of our ancestors. He heard our cries and saw our hardship, toil, and oppression. <sup>8</sup>So the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a strong hand and powerful arm, with overwhelming terror, and with miraculous signs and wonders. <sup>9</sup>He brought us to this place and gave us this land flowing with milk and honey! <sup>10</sup>And now, O LORD, I have brought you the first portion of the harvest you have given me from the ground.’ Then place the produce before the LORD your God, and bow to the ground in worship before him.

<sup>11</sup>Afterward you may go and celebrate because of all the good things the LORD your God has given to you and your household. Remember to include the Levites and the foreigners living among you in the celebration.

<sup>12</sup>“Every third year you must offer a special tithe of your crops. In this year of the special tithe you must give your tithes to the Levites, foreigners, orphans, and widows, so that they will have enough to eat in your towns. <sup>13</sup>Then you must declare in the presence of the LORD your God, ‘I have taken the sacred gift from my house and have given it to the Levites, foreigners, orphans, and widows, just as you commanded me. I have not violated or forgotten any of your commands. <sup>14</sup>I have not eaten any of it while in mourning; I have not handled it while I was ceremonially unclean; and I have not offered any of it to the dead. I have obeyed the LORD my God and have done everything you commanded me. <sup>15</sup>Now look down from your holy dwelling place in heaven and bless your people Israel and the land you swore to our ancestors to give us—a land flowing with milk and honey.’

A Call to Obey the LORD’s Commands

<sup>16</sup>“Today the LORD your God has commanded you to obey all these decrees and regulations. So be careful to obey them wholeheartedly. <sup>17</sup>You have declared today that the LORD is your God. And you have promised to walk in his ways, and to obey his decrees, commands, and regulations, and to do everything he tells you. <sup>18</sup>The LORD has declared today that you are his people, his own special treasure, just as he promised, and that you must obey all his commands. <sup>19</sup>And if you do, he will set you high above all the other nations he has made. Then you will receive praise, honor, and renown. You will be a nation that is holy to the LORD your God, just as he promised.”

Deuteronomy 27

The Altar on Mount Ebal

<sup>1</sup>Then Moses and the leaders of Israel gave this charge to the people: “Obey all these commands that I am giving you today.

<sup>2</sup>When you cross the Jordan River and enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, set up some large stones and coat them with plaster. <sup>3</sup>Write this whole body of instruction on them when you cross the river to enter the land the LORD your God is giving you—a land flowing with milk and honey, just as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, promised you. <sup>4</sup>When you cross the Jordan, set up these stones at Mount Ebal and coat them with plaster, as I am commanding you today.

<sup>5</sup>“Then build an altar there to the LORD your God, using natural, uncut stones. You must not shape the stones with an iron tool. <sup>6</sup>Build the altar of uncut stones, and use it to offer burnt offerings to the LORD your God. <sup>7</sup>Also sacrifice peace offerings on it, and celebrate by feasting there before the LORD your God. <sup>8</sup>You must clearly write all these instructions on the stones coated with plaster.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses and the Levitical priests addressed all Israel as follows: “O Israel, be quiet and listen! Today you have become the people of the LORD your God. <sup>10</sup>So you must obey the LORD your God by keeping all these commands and decrees that I am giving you today.”

Curses from Mount Ebal

<sup>11</sup>That same day Moses also gave this charge to the people:

<sup>12</sup>“When you cross the Jordan River, the tribes of Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin must stand on Mount Gerizim to proclaim a blessing over the people. <sup>13</sup>And the tribes of Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali must stand on Mount Ebal to proclaim a curse.

<sup>14</sup>“Then the Levites will shout to all the people of Israel:

<sup>15</sup> ‘Cursed is anyone who carves or casts an idol and secretly sets it up. These idols, the work of craftsmen, are detestable to the LORD.’

And all the people will reply, ‘Amen.’

<sup>16</sup>‘Cursed is anyone who dishonors father or mother.’

<sup>17</sup>‘Cursed is anyone who steals property from a neighbor by moving a boundary marker.’

<sup>18</sup>‘Cursed is anyone who leads a blind person astray on the road.’

<sup>19</sup>‘Cursed is anyone who denies justice to foreigners, orphans, or widows.’

And all the people will reply, ‘Amen.’

<sup>20</sup>‘Cursed is anyone who has sexual intercourse with one of his father’s wives, for he has violated his father.’

And all the people will reply, ‘Amen.’

<sup>21</sup>‘Cursed is anyone who has sexual intercourse with an animal.’

<sup>22</sup>‘Cursed is anyone who has sexual intercourse with his sister, whether she is the daughter of his father or his mother.’

<sup>23</sup>‘Cursed is anyone who has sexual intercourse with his mother-in-law.’

<sup>24</sup>‘Cursed is anyone who attacks a neighbor in secret.’

<sup>25</sup>‘Cursed is anyone who accepts payment to kill an innocent person.’

And all the people will reply, ‘Amen.’

<sup>26</sup>‘Cursed is anyone who does not affirm and obey the terms of these instructions.’

And all the people will reply, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy 28

Blessings for Obedience

<sup>1</sup>“If you fully obey the LORD your God and carefully keep all his commands that I am giving you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations of the world.<sup>2</sup>You will experience all these blessings if you obey the LORD your God:

<sup>3</sup>Your towns and your fields
will be blessed.

<sup>4</sup>Your children and your crops
will be blessed.

The offspring of your herds and flocks
will be blessed.

<sup>5</sup>Your fruit baskets and breadboards
will be blessed.

<sup>6</sup>Wherever you go and whatever you do, you will be blessed.

<sup>7</sup>“The LORD will conquer your enemies when they attack you. They will attack you from one direction, but they will scatter from you in seven!

<sup>8</sup>“The LORD will guarantee a blessing on everything you do and will fill your storehouses with grain. The LORD your God will bless you in the land he is giving you.

<sup>9</sup>“If you obey the commands of the LORD your God and walk in his ways, the LORD will establish you as his holy people as he swore he would do. <sup>10</sup>Then all the nations of the world will see that you are a people claimed by the LORD, and they will stand in awe of you.

<sup>11</sup>“The LORD will give you prosperity in the land he swore to your ancestors to give you, blessing you with many children, numerous livestock, and abundant crops. <sup>12</sup>The LORD will send rain at the proper time from his rich treasury in the heavens and will bless all the work you do. You will lend to many nations, but you will never need to borrow from them. <sup>13</sup>If you listen to these commands of the LORD your God that I am giving you today, and if you carefully obey them, the LORD will make you the head and not the tail, and you will always be on top and never at the bottom. <sup>14</sup>You must not turn away from any of the commands I am giving you today, nor follow after other gods and worship them.

Curses for Disobedience

<sup>15</sup> “But if you refuse to listen to the LORD your God and do not obey all the commands and decrees I am giving you today, all these curses will come and overwhelm you:

<sup>16</sup>Your towns and your fields
will be cursed.

<sup>17</sup>Your fruit baskets and breadboards
will be cursed.

<sup>18</sup>Your children and your crops
will be cursed.

The offspring of your herds and flocks
will be cursed.

<sup>19</sup>Wherever you go and whatever you do,
you will be cursed.

<sup>20</sup>“The LORD himself will send on you curses, confusion, and frustration in everything you do, until at last you are completely destroyed for doing evil and abandoning me. <sup>21</sup>The LORD will afflict you with diseases until none of you are left in the land you are about to enter and occupy. <sup>22</sup>The LORD will strike you with wasting diseases, fever, and inflammation, with scorching heat and drought, and with blight and mildew. These disasters will pursue you until you die. <sup>23</sup>The skies above will be as unyielding as bronze, and the earth beneath will be as hard as iron. <sup>24</sup>The LORD will change the rain that falls on your land into powder, and dust will pour down from the sky until you are destroyed.

<sup>25</sup>“The LORD will cause you to be defeated by your enemies. You will attack your enemies from one direction, but you will scatter from them in seven! You will be an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>26</sup>Your corpses will be food for all the scavenging birds and wild animals, and no one will be there to chase them away.

<sup>27</sup>“The LORD will afflict you with the boils of Egypt and with tumors, scurvy, and the itch, from which you cannot be cured. <sup>28</sup>The LORD will strike you with madness, blindness, and panic. <sup>29</sup>You will grope around in broad daylight like a blind person groping in the darkness, but you will not find your way. You will be oppressed and robbed continually, and no one will come to save you.

<sup>30</sup>“You will be engaged to a woman, but another man will sleep with her. You will build a house, but someone else will live in it. You will plant a vineyard, but you will never enjoy its fruit. <sup>31</sup>Your ox will be butchered before your eyes, but you will not eat a single bite of the meat. Your donkey will be taken from you, never to be returned. Your sheep and goats will be given to your enemies, and no one will be there to help you. <sup>32</sup>You will watch as your sons and daughters are taken away as slaves. Your heart will break for them, but you won’t be able to help them. <sup>33</sup>A foreign nation you have never heard about will eat the crops you worked so hard to grow. You will suffer under constant oppression and harsh treatment. <sup>34</sup>You will go mad because of all the tragedy you see around you. <sup>35</sup>The LORD will cover your knees and legs with incurable boils. In fact, you will be covered from head to foot.

<sup>36</sup>“The LORD will exile you and your king to a nation unknown to you and your ancestors. There in exile you will worship gods of wood and stone! <sup>37</sup>You will become an object of horror, ridicule, and mockery among all the nations to which the LORD sends you.

<sup>38</sup>“You will plant much but harvest little, for locusts will eat your crops. <sup>39</sup>You will plant vineyards and care for them, but you will not drink the wine or eat the grapes, for worms will destroy the vines. <sup>40</sup>You will grow olive trees throughout your land, but you will never use the olive oil, for the fruit will drop before it ripens. <sup>41</sup>You will have sons and daughters, but you will lose them, for they will be led away into captivity. <sup>42</sup>Swarms of insects will destroy your trees and crops.

<sup>43</sup>“The foreigners living among you will become stronger and stronger, while you become weaker and weaker. <sup>44</sup>They will lend money to you, but you will not lend to them. They will be the head, and you will be the tail!

<sup>45</sup>“If you refuse to listen to the LORD your God and to obey the commands and decrees he has given you, all these curses will pursue and overtake you until you are destroyed. <sup>46</sup>These horrors will serve as a sign and warning among you and your descendants forever. <sup>47</sup>If you do not serve the LORD your God with joy and enthusiasm for the abundant benefits you have received, <sup>48</sup>you will serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you. You will be left hungry, thirsty, naked, and lacking in everything. The LORD will put an iron yoke on your neck, oppressing you harshly until he has destroyed you.

<sup>49</sup>“The LORD will bring a distant nation against you from the end of the earth, and it will swoop down on you like a vulture. It is a nation whose language you do not understand, <sup>50</sup>a fierce and heartless nation that shows no respect for the old and no pity for the young. <sup>51</sup>Its armies will devour your livestock and crops, and you will be destroyed. They will leave you no grain, new wine, olive oil, calves, or lambs, and you will starve to death. <sup>52</sup>They will attack your cities until all the fortified walls in your land—the walls you trusted to protect you—are knocked down. They will attack all the towns in the land the LORD your God has given you.

be so severe that you will eat the flesh of your own sons and daughters, whom the LORD your God has given you.<sup>54</sup> The most tenderhearted man among you will have no compassion for his own brother, his beloved wife, and his surviving children.<sup>55</sup> He will refuse to share with them the flesh he is devouring—the flesh of one of his own children—because he has nothing else to eat during the siege and terrible distress that your enemy will inflict on all your towns.<sup>56</sup> The most tender and delicate woman among you—so delicate she would not so much as touch the ground with her foot—will be selfish toward the husband she loves and toward her own son or daughter.<sup>57</sup> She will hide from them the afterbirth and the new baby she has borne, so that she herself can secretly eat them. She will have nothing else to eat during the siege and terrible distress that your enemy will inflict on all your towns.

to prosper and multiply, the LORD will find pleasure in destroying you. You will be torn from the land you are about to enter and occupy. <sup>64</sup>For the LORD will scatter you among all the nations from one end of the earth to the other. There you will worship foreign gods that neither you nor your ancestors have known, gods made of wood and stone! <sup>65</sup>There among those nations you will find no peace or place to rest. And the LORD will cause your heart to tremble, your eyesight to fail, and your soul to despair. <sup>66</sup> Your life will constantly hang in the balance. You will live night and day in fear, unsure if you will survive. <sup>67</sup>In the morning you will say, 'If only it were night!' And in the evening you will say, 'If only it were morning!' For you will be terrified by the awful horrors you see around you. <sup>68</sup>Then the LORD will send you back to Egypt in ships, to a destination I promised you would never see again. There you will offer to sell yourselves to your enemies as slaves, but no one will buy you."

Deuteronomy 29

<sup>1</sup>*These are the terms of the covenant the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites while they were in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant he had made with them at Mount Sinai.*

Moses Reviews the Covenant

<sup>2</sup>*Moses summoned all the Israelites and said to them, “You have seen with your own eyes everything the LORD did in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to his whole country—<sup>3</sup>all the great tests of strength, the miraculous signs, and the amazing wonders. <sup>4</sup>But to this day the LORD has not given you minds that understand, nor eyes that see, nor ears that hear! <sup>5</sup>For forty years I led you through the wilderness, yet your clothes and sandals did not wear out. <sup>6</sup>You ate no bread and drank no wine or other alcoholic drink, but he gave you food so you would know that he is the LORD your God.

<sup>7</sup>“When we came here, King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan came out to fight against us, but we defeated them. <sup>8</sup>We took their land and gave it to the tribes of Reuben and Gad and to the half-tribe of Manasseh as their grant of land.

<sup>9</sup>“Therefore, obey the terms of this covenant so that you will prosper in everything you do. <sup>10</sup>All of you—tribal leaders, elders, officers, all the men of Israel—are standing today in the presence of the LORD your God. <sup>11</sup>Your little ones and your wives are with you, as well as the foreigners living among you who chop your wood and carry your water. <sup>12</sup>You are standing here today to enter into the covenant of the LORD your God. The LORD is making this covenant, including the curses. <sup>13</sup>By entering into the covenant today, he will establish you as his people and confirm that he is your God, just as he promised you and as he swore to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

<sup>14</sup>“But you are not the only ones with whom I am making this covenant with its curses. <sup>15</sup>I am making this covenant both with you who stand here today in the presence of the LORD our God, and also with the future generations who are not standing here today.

<sup>16</sup>“You remember how we lived in the land of Egypt and how we traveled through the lands of enemy nations as we left. <sup>17</sup>You have seen their detestable practices and their idols* made of wood, stone, silver, and gold. <sup>18</sup>I am making this covenant with you so that no one among you—no man, woman, clan, or tribe—will turn away from the LORD our God to worship these gods of other nations, and so that no root among you bears bitter and poisonous fruit.

<sup>19</sup>“Those who hear the warnings of this curse should not congratulate themselves, thinking, ‘I am safe, even though I am following the desires of my own stubborn heart.’ This would lead to utter ruin! <sup>20</sup>The LORD will never pardon such people. Instead his anger and jealousy will burn against them. All the curses written in this book will come down on them, and the LORD will erase their names from under heaven. <sup>21</sup>The LORD will separate them from all the tribes of Israel, to pour out on them all the curses of the covenant recorded in this Book of Instruction.

<sup>22</sup>“Then the generations to come, both your own descendants and the foreigners who come from distant lands, will see the devastation of the land and the diseases the LORD inflicts on it. <sup>23</sup>They will exclaim, ‘The whole land is devastated by sulfur and salt. It is a wasteland with nothing planted and nothing growing, not even a blade of grass. It is like the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD destroyed in his intense anger.’

<sup>24</sup>“And all the surrounding nations will ask, ‘Why has the LORD done this to this land? Why was he so angry?’

<sup>25</sup>“And the answer will be, ‘This happened because the people of the land abandoned the covenant that the LORD, the God of their ancestors, made with them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt. <sup>26</sup>Instead, they turned away to serve and worship gods they had not known before, gods that were not from the LORD. <sup>27</sup>That is why the LORD’s anger has burned against this land, bringing down on it every curse recorded in this book. <sup>28</sup>In great anger and fury the LORD uprooted his people from their land and banished them to another land, where they still live today!’

<sup>29</sup> “The LORD our God has secrets known to no one. We are not accountable for them, but we and our children are accountable forever for all that he has revealed to us, so that we may obey all the terms of these instructions.

Deuteronomy 30

A Call to Return to the LORD

<sup>1</sup> “In the future, when you experience all these blessings and curses I have listed for you, and when you are living among the nations to which the LORD your God has exiled you, take to heart all these instructions. <sup>2</sup> If at that time you and your children return to the LORD your God, and if you obey with all your heart and all your soul all the commands I have given you today, <sup>3</sup> then the LORD your God will restore your fortunes. He will have mercy on you and gather you back from all the nations where he has scattered you. <sup>4</sup> Even though you are banished to the ends of the earth, the LORD your God will gather you from there and bring you back again. <sup>5</sup> The LORD your God will return you to the land that belonged to your ancestors, and you will possess that land again. Then he will make you even more prosperous and numerous than your ancestors!

<sup>6</sup> “The LORD your God will change your heart* and the hearts of all your descendants, so that you will love him with all your heart and soul and so you may live! <sup>7</sup> The LORD your God will inflict all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate and persecute you. <sup>8</sup> Then you will again obey the LORD and keep all his commands that I am giving you today.

<sup>9</sup> “The LORD your God will then make you successful in everything you do. He will give you many children and numerous livestock, and he will cause your fields to produce abundant harvests, for the LORD will again delight in being good to you as he was to your ancestors. <sup>10</sup>The LORD your God will delight in you if you obey his voice and keep the commands and decrees written in this Book of Instruction, and if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and soul.

The Choice of Life or Death

<sup>11</sup>“This command I am giving you today is not too difficult for you to understand, and it is not beyond your reach. <sup>12</sup>It is not kept in heaven, so distant that you must ask, ‘Who will go up to heaven and bring it down so we can hear it and obey?’ <sup>13</sup>It is not kept beyond the sea, so far away that you must ask, ‘Who will cross the sea to bring it to us so we can hear it and obey?’ <sup>14</sup>No, the message is very close at hand; it is on your lips and in your heart so that you can obey it.

<sup>15</sup>“Now listen! Today I am giving you a choice between life and death, between prosperity and disaster. <sup>16</sup>For I command you this day to love the LORD your God and to keep his commands, decrees, and regulations by walking in his ways. If you do this, you will live and multiply, and the LORD your God will bless you and the land you are about to enter and occupy.

<sup>17</sup>“But if your heart turns away and you refuse to listen, and if you are drawn away to serve and worship other gods, <sup>18</sup>then I warn you now that you will certainly be destroyed. You will not live a long, good life in the land you are crossing the Jordan to occupy.

<sup>19</sup>“Today I have given you the choice between life and death, between blessings and curses. Now I call on heaven and earth to witness the choice you make. Oh, that you would choose life, so that you and your descendants might live!

<sup>20</sup>You can make this choice by loving the LORD your God, obeying him, and committing yourself firmly to him. This * is the key to your life. And if you love and obey the LORD, you will live long in the land the LORD swore to give your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.”

Deuteronomy 31

Joshua Becomes Israel's Leader

<sup>1</sup>When Moses had finished giving these instructions* to all the people of Israel, <sup>2</sup>he said, “I am now 120 years old, and I am no longer able to lead you. The LORD has told me, ‘You will not cross the Jordan River.’” <sup>3</sup> But the LORD your God himself will cross over ahead of you. He will destroy the nations living there, and you will take possession of their land. Joshua will lead you across the river, just as the LORD promised.

<sup>4</sup>“The LORD will destroy the nations living in the land, just as he destroyed Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites. <sup>5</sup>The LORD will hand over to you the people who live there, and you must deal with them as I have commanded you. <sup>6</sup>So be strong and courageous! Do not be afraid and do not panic before them. For the LORD your God will personally go ahead of you. He will neither fail you nor abandon you.”

Joshua

<sup>7</sup>Then Moses called for Joshua, and as all Israel watched, he said to him, “Be strong and courageous! For you will lead these people into the land that the LORD swore to their ancestors he would give them. You are the one who will divide it among them as their grants of land.”<sup>8</sup>Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the LORD will personally go ahead of you. He will be with you; he will neither fail you nor abandon you.”

Public Reading of the Book of Instruction

<sup>9</sup>So Moses wrote this entire body of instruction in a book and gave it to the priests, who carried the Ark of the LORD’s Covenant, and to the elders of Israel. <sup>10</sup>Then Moses gave them this command: “At the end of every seventh year, the Year of Release, during the Festival of Shelters, <sup>11</sup>you must read this Book of Instruction to all the people of Israel when they assemble before the LORD your God at the place he chooses. <sup>12</sup>Call them all together—men, women, children, and the foreigners living in your towns—so they may hear this Book of Instruction and learn to fear the LORD your God and carefully obey all the terms of these instructions. <sup>13</sup>Do this so that your children who have not known these instructions will hear them and will learn to fear the LORD your God. Do this as long as you live in the land you are crossing the Jordan to occupy.”

Israel’s Disobedience Predicted

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “The time has come for you to die. Call Joshua and present yourselves at the Tabernacle, so that I may commission him there.” So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves at the Tabernacle. <sup>15</sup>And the LORD appeared to them in a pillar of cloud that stood at the entrance to the sacred tent.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “You are about to die and join your ancestors. After you are gone, these people will begin to worship foreign gods, the gods of the land where they are going. They will abandon me and break my covenant that I have made with them. <sup>17</sup>Then my anger will blaze forth against them. I will abandon them, hiding my face from them, and they will be devoured. Terrible trouble will come down on them, and on that day they will say, ‘These disasters have come down on us because God is no longer among us!’ <sup>18</sup>At that time I will hide my face from them on account of all the evil they commit by worshipping other gods.

<sup>19</sup>“So write down the words of this song, and teach it to the people of Israel. Help them learn it, so it may serve as a witness for me against them. <sup>20</sup>For I will bring them into the land I swore to give their ancestors—a land flowing with milk and honey. There they will become prosperous, eat all the food they want, and become fat. But they will begin to worship other gods; they will despise me and break my covenant. <sup>21</sup>And when great disasters come down on them, this song will stand as evidence against them, for it will never be forgotten by their descendants. I know the intentions of these people, even now before they have entered the land I swore to give them.”

<sup>22</sup>So that very day Moses wrote down the words of the song and taught it to the Israelites.

<sup>23</sup> Then the LORD commissioned Joshua son of Nun with these words: “Be strong and courageous, for you must bring the people of Israel into the land I swore to give them. I will be with you.”

<sup>24</sup>When Moses had finished writing this entire body of instruction in a book, <sup>25</sup>he gave this command to the Levites who carried the Ark of the LORD’s Covenant: <sup>26</sup>“Take this Book of Instruction and place it beside the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD your God, so it may remain there as a witness against the people of Israel. <sup>27</sup>For I know how rebellious and stubborn you are. Even now, while I am still alive and am here with you, you have rebelled against the LORD. How much more rebellious will you be after my death!

<sup>28</sup>“Now summon all the elders and officials of your tribes, so that I can speak to them directly and call heaven and earth to witness against them. <sup>29</sup>I know that after my death you will become utterly corrupt and will turn from the way I have commanded you to follow. In the days to come, disaster will come down on you, for you will do what is evil in the LORD’s sight, making him very angry with your actions.”

The Song of Moses

<sup>30</sup>So Moses recited this entire song publicly to the assembly of Israel:

Deuteronomy 32

<sup>1</sup>“Listen, O heavens, and I will speak!
Hear, O earth, the words that I say!

<sup>2</sup>Let my teaching fall on you like rain;
let my speech settle like dew.

Let my words fall like rain on tender grass, like gentle showers on young plants.

<sup>3</sup>I will proclaim the name of the LORD;
how glorious is our God!

<sup>4</sup>He is the Rock; his deeds are perfect.
Everything he does is just and fair.
He is a faithful God who does no wrong;
how just and upright he is!

<sup>5</sup>“But they have acted corruptly toward him;
when they act so perversely, are they really his children?*

They are a deceitful and twisted generation.

<sup>6</sup>Is this the way you repay the LORD, you foolish and senseless people?
Isn't he your Father who created you?
Has he not made you and established you?

<sup>7</sup>Remember the days of long ago;
think about the generations past.
Ask your father, and he will inform you.
Inquire of your elders, and they will tell you.

<sup>8</sup>When the Most High assigned lands to the nations, when he divided up the human race,

he established the boundaries of the peoples according to the number in his heavenly court.*

<sup>9</sup>“For the people of Israel belong to the LORD;
Jacob is his special possession.

<sup>10</sup>He found them in a desert land,
in an empty, howling wasteland.
He surrounded them and watched over them;
he guarded them as he would guard his own eyes.*

<sup>11</sup>Like an eagle that rouses her chicks and hovers over her young, so he spread his wings to take them up and carried them safely on his pinions.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD alone guided them;
they followed no foreign gods.

<sup>13</sup>He let them ride over the highlands and feast on the crops of the fields.
He nourished them with honey from the rock and olive oil from the stony ground.

<sup>14</sup>He fed them yogurt from the herd and milk from the flock, together with the fat of lambs.
He gave them choice rams from Bashan, and goats, together with the choicest wheat.
You drank the finest wine, made from the juice of grapes.

<sup>15</sup>“But Israel* soon became fat and unruly;
the people grew heavy, plump, and stuffed!
Then they abandoned the God who had made them;
they made light of the Rock of their salvation.

<sup>16</sup>They stirred up his jealousy by worshiping foreign gods;
they provoked his fury with detestable deeds.

<sup>17</sup>They offered sacrifices to demons, which are not God, to gods they had not known before,
to new gods only recently arrived,
to gods their ancestors had never feared.

<sup>18</sup>You neglected the Rock who had fathered you;
you forgot the God who had given you birth.

<sup>19</sup>“The LORD saw this and drew back, provoked to anger by his own sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup>He said, ‘I will abandon them;
then see what becomes of them.
For they are a twisted generation, children without integrity.

<sup>21</sup>They have roused my jealousy by worshiping things that are not God;

they have provoked my anger with their useless idols.

Now I will rouse their jealousy through people who are not even a people;

I will provoke their anger through the foolish Gentiles.

<sup>22</sup>For my anger blazes forth like fire and burns to the depths of the grave.*

It devours the earth and all its crops and ignites the foundations of the mountains.

<sup>23</sup>I will heap disasters upon them and shoot them down with my arrows.

<sup>24</sup>I will weaken them with famine, burning fever, and deadly disease.
I will send the fangs of wild beasts and poisonous snakes that glide in the dust.

<sup>25</sup>Outside, the sword will bring death, and inside, terror will strike both young men and young women, both infants and the aged.

<sup>26</sup>I would have annihilated them, wiping out even the memory of them.

<sup>27</sup>But I feared the taunt of Israel's enemy, who might misunderstand and say,
"Our own power has triumphed!
The LORD had nothing to do with this!"

<sup>28</sup>"But Israel is a senseless nation;
the people are foolish, without understanding.

<sup>29</sup>Oh, that they were wise and could understand this!
Oh, that they might know their fate!

<sup>30</sup>How could one person chase a thousand of them, and two people put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, unless the LORD had given them up?

<sup>31</sup>But the rock of our enemies is not like our Rock, as even they recognize.*

<sup>32</sup>Their vine grows from the vine of Sodom, from the vineyards of Gomorrah.

Their grapes are poison,
and their clusters are bitter.

<sup>33</sup>Their wine is the venom of serpents, the deadly poison of cobras.

<sup>34</sup>“The LORD says, ‘Am I not storing up these things, sealing them away in my treasury?’

<sup>35</sup>I will take revenge; I will pay them back.

In due time their feet will slip.

Their day of disaster will arrive, and their destiny will overtake them.’

<sup>36</sup>“Indeed, the LORD will give justice to his people, and he will change his mind about* his servants, when he sees their strength is gone and no one is left, slave or free.

<sup>37</sup>Then he will ask, ‘Where are their gods, the rocks they fled to for refuge?’

<sup>38</sup>Where now are those gods, who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their offerings?

Let those gods arise and help you!

Let them provide you with shelter!

<sup>39</sup>Look now; I myself am he!

There is no other god but me!

I am the one who kills and gives life;

I am the one who wounds and heals;
no one can be rescued from my powerful hand!

<sup>40</sup>Now I raise my hand to heaven and declare, “As surely as I live,

<sup>41</sup>when I sharpen my flashing sword and begin to carry out justice,
I will take revenge on my enemies and repay those who reject me.

<sup>42</sup>I will make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword will devour flesh—
the blood of the slaughtered and the captives, and the heads of the enemy leaders.”

<sup>43</sup>“Rejoice with him, you heavens, and let all of God’s angels worship him.*
Rejoice with his people, you nations, and let all the angels be strengthened in him.*
For he will avenge the blood of his servants;
he will take revenge against his enemies.
He will repay those who hate him*
and cleanse the land for his people.”

<sup>44</sup>So Moses came with Joshua* son of Nun and recited all the words of this song to the people.

<sup>45</sup>When Moses had finished reciting all these words to the people of Israel, <sup>46</sup>he added: “Take to heart all the words of warning I have given you today. Pass them on as a command to your children so they will obey every word of these instructions. <sup>47</sup>These instructions are not empty words—they are your life! By obeying them you will enjoy a long life in the land you will occupy when you cross the Jordan River.”

Moses’ Death Foretold

<sup>48</sup>That same day the LORD said to Moses, <sup>49</sup>“Go to Moab, to the mountains east of the river, * and climb Mount Nebo, which is across from Jericho. Look out across the land of Canaan, the land I am giving to the people of Israel as their own special possession. <sup>50</sup>Then you will die there on the mountain. You will join your ancestors, just as Aaron, your brother, died on Mount Hor and joined his ancestors. <sup>51</sup>For both of you betrayed me with the Israelites at the waters of Meribah at Kadesh * in the wilderness of Zin. You failed to demonstrate my holiness to the people of Israel there. <sup>52</sup>So you will see the land from a distance, but you may not enter the land I am giving to the people of Israel.”

Deuteronomy 33

Moses Blesses the People

<sup>1</sup>This is the blessing that Moses, the man of God, gave to the people of Israel before his death:

<sup>2</sup>“The LORD came from Mount Sinai and dawned upon us* from Mount Seir;
he shone forth from Mount Paran and came from Meribah-kadesh with flaming fire at his right hand.*

<sup>3</sup>Indeed, he loves his people;*
all his holy ones are in his hands.
They follow in his steps and accept his teaching.

<sup>4</sup>Moses gave us the LORD’s instruction, the special possession of the people of Israel.*

<sup>5</sup>The LORD became king in Israel*— when the leaders of the people assembled, when the tribes of Israel gathered as one.”

<sup>6</sup>Moses said this about the tribe of Reuben:*

“Let the tribe of Reuben live and not die out, though they are few in number.”

<sup>7</sup>Moses said this about the tribe of Judah:

“O LORD, hear the cry of Judah and bring them together as a people.
Give them strength to defend their cause;
help them against their enemies!”

<sup>8</sup>Moses said this about the tribe of Levi:

“O LORD, you have given your Thummim and Urim—the sacred lots—

to your faithful servants the Levites.*

You put them to the test at Massah and struggled with them at the waters of Meribah.

<sup>9</sup>The Levites obeyed your word and guarded your covenant.

They were more loyal to you than to their own parents.

They ignored their relatives and did not acknowledge their own children.

<sup>10</sup>They teach your regulations to Jacob; they give your instructions to Israel.

They present incense before you and offer whole burnt offerings on the altar.

<sup>11</sup>Bless the ministry of the Levites, O LORD, and accept all the work of their hands.
Hit their enemies where it hurts the most;
strike down their foes so they never rise again.”

<sup>12</sup>Moses said this about the tribe of Benjamin:

“The people of Benjamin are loved by the LORD and live in safety beside him.
He surrounds them continuously and preserves them from every harm.”

<sup>13</sup>Moses said this about the tribes of Joseph:

“May their land be blessed by the LORD with the precious gift of dew from the heavens and water from beneath the earth;
<sup>14</sup>with the rich fruit that grows in the sun, and the rich harvest produced each month;
<sup>15</sup>with the finest crops of the ancient mountains, and the abundance from the everlasting hills;
<sup>16</sup>with the best gifts of the earth and its bounty, and the favor of the one who appeared in the burning bush.
May these blessings rest on Joseph’s head, crowning the brow of the prince among his brothers.
<sup>17</sup>Joseph has the majesty of a young bull;
he has the horns of a wild ox.
He will gore distant nations, driving them to the ends of the earth.
This is my blessing for the multitudes of Ephraim and the thousands of Manasseh.”

“May the people of Zebulun prosper in their travels.

May the people of Issachar prosper at home in their tents.

<sup>19</sup>They summon the people to the mountain to offer proper sacrifices there.

They benefit from the riches of the sea and the hidden treasures in the sand.”

<sup>20</sup>Moses said this about the tribe of Gad:

“Blessed is the one who enlarges Gad’s territory!
Gad is poised there like a lion to tear off an arm or a head.

<sup>21</sup>The people of Gad took the best land for themselves;
a leader’s share was assigned to them.
When the leaders of the people were assembled, they carried out the LORD’s justice and obeyed his regulations for Israel.”

<sup>22</sup>Moses said this about the tribe of Dan:

“Dan is a lion’s cub,
leaping out from Bashan.”

<sup>23</sup>Moses said this about the tribe of Naphtali:

“O Naphtali, you are rich in favor and full of the LORD’s blessings;
may you possess the west and the south.”

<sup>24</sup>Moses said this about the tribe of Asher:

“May Asher be blessed above other sons;
may he be esteemed by his brothers;
may he bathe his feet in olive oil.

<sup>25</sup>May the bolts of your gates be of iron and bronze;
may you be secure all your days.”

<sup>26</sup>“There is no one like the God of Israel.*
He rides across the heavens to help you, across the skies in majestic splendor.

<sup>27</sup>The eternal God is your refuge, and his everlasting arms are under you.
He drives out the enemy before you;
he cries out, ‘Destroy them!’

<sup>28</sup>So Israel will live in safety, prosperous Jacob in security, in a land of grain and new wine,
while the heavens drop down dew.

<sup>29</sup>How blessed you are, O Israel!
Who else is like you, a people saved by the LORD?
He is your protecting shield and your triumphant sword!
Your enemies will cringe before you, and you will stomp on their backs!”

Deuteronomy 34

The Death of Moses

<sup>1</sup>Then Moses went up to Mount Nebo from the plains of Moab and climbed Pisgah Peak, which is across from Jericho. And the LORD showed him the whole land, from Gilead as far as Dan; <sup>2</sup>all the land of Naphtali; the land of Ephraim and Manasseh; all the land of Judah, extending to the Mediterranean Sea*; <sup>3</sup>the Negev; the Jordan Valley with Jericho—the city of palms—as far as Zoar. <sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “This is the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob when I said, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’ I have now allowed you to see it with your own eyes, but you will not enter the land.”

<sup>5</sup>So Moses, the servant of the LORD, died there in the land of Moab, just as the LORD had said. <sup>6</sup>The LORD buried him* in a valley near Beth-peor in Moab, but to this day no one knows the exact place. <sup>7</sup>Moses was 120 years old when he died, yet his eyesight was clear, and he was as strong as ever. <sup>8</sup>The people of Israel mourned for Moses on the plains of Moab for thirty days, until the customary period of mourning was over.

<sup>9</sup>Now Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him. So the people of Israel obeyed him, doing just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>10</sup>There has never been another prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face. <sup>11</sup>The LORD sent him to perform all the miraculous signs and wonders in the land of Egypt against Pharaoh, and all his servants, and his entire land.

<sup>12</sup>With mighty power, Moses performed terrifying acts in the sight of all Israel.

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

The Israelites conquer the Promised Land under Joshua's leadership.

WHO WROTE IT?

Christian and Jewish tradition say the author was Joshua, or that he arranged for it to be written.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

In the 1300s B.C.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

Joshua takes place after the death of Moses, as the people of Israel enter and begin to conquer the Promised Land.

THE BREAKDOWN

Chapter 1: Joshua assumes leadership of Israel

1:9

This is my command—be strong and courageous! Do not be afraid or discouraged. For the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.”

24:14-15

So fear the LORD and serve him wholeheartedly. Put away forever the idols your ancestors worshiped when they lived beyond the Euphrates River and in Egypt. Serve the LORD alone. But if you refuse to serve the LORD, then choose today whom you will serve. Would you prefer the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates? Or will it be the gods of the Amorites in whose land you now live? But as for me and my family, we will serve the LORD.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

LEADERSHIP.

Joshua is an excellent role model for us. His relationship with his people was based on his relationship with God. He wasn't shy about being in charge. But he wasn't in it for personal glory or power. God had placed him in that position, so he worked at it with all his strength.

DECISION.

Joshua led a focused life. When faced with choices, he didn't have to think about whether he would obey God. He'd already decided that long ago, and he didn't change his mind when challenges came. God wants us to be that focused today. He wants us to be able to say, from the depth of our hearts, "As for me and my family, we will serve the Lord."

The LORD's Charge to Joshua

to Joshua son of Nun, Moses' assistant. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Moses my servant is dead. Therefore, the time has come for you to lead these people, the Israelites, across the Jordan River into the land I am giving them. <sup>3</sup>I promise you what I promised Moses: ‘Wherever you set foot, you will be on land I have given you —<sup>4</sup>from the Negev wilderness in the south to the Lebanon mountains in the north, from the Euphrates River in the east to the Mediterranean Sea* in the west, including all the land of the Hittites.’ <sup>5</sup>No one will be able to stand against you as long as you live. For I will be with you as I was with Moses. I will not fail you or abandon you.

<sup>6</sup>“Be strong and courageous, for you are the one who will lead these people to possess all the land I swore to their ancestors I would give them. <sup>7</sup>Be strong and very courageous. Be careful to obey all the instructions Moses gave you. Do not deviate from them, turning either to the right or to the left. Then you will be successful in everything you do. <sup>8</sup>Study this Book of Instruction continually. Meditate on it day and night so you will be sure to obey everything written in it. Only then will you prosper and succeed in all you do. <sup>9</sup>This is my command—be strong and courageous! Do not be afraid or discouraged. For the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.”

What the Bible Says about

Courage

Joshua's Charge to the Israelites

the camp and tell the people to get their provisions ready. In three days you will cross the Jordan River and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Joshua called together the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. He told them, <sup>13</sup>“Remember what Moses, the servant of the LORD, commanded you: ‘The LORD your God is giving you a place of rest. He has given you this land.’ <sup>14</sup>Your wives, children, and livestock may remain here in the land Moses assigned to you on the east side of the Jordan River. But your strong warriors, fully armed, must lead the other tribes across the Jordan to help them conquer their territory. Stay with them <sup>15</sup>until the LORD gives them rest, as he has given you rest, and until they, too, possess the land the LORD your God is giving them. Only then may you return and settle here on the east side of the Jordan River in the land that Moses, the servant of the LORD, assigned to you.”

<sup>16</sup>They answered Joshua, “We will do whatever you command us, and we will go wherever you send us. <sup>17</sup>We will obey you just as we obeyed Moses. And may the LORD your God be with you as he was with Moses. <sup>18</sup>Anyone who rebels against your orders and does not obey your words and everything you command will be put to death. So be strong and courageous!”

Joshua 2

Rahab Protects the Spies

<sup>1</sup> Then Joshua secretly sent out two spies from the Israelite camp at Acacia Grove.* He instructed them, “Scout out the land on the other side of the Jordan River, especially around Jericho.” So the two men set out and came to the house of a prostitute named Rahab and stayed there that night.

<sup>2</sup>But someone told the king of Jericho, “Some Israelites have come here tonight to spy out the land.” <sup>3</sup>So the king of Jericho sent orders to Rahab: “Bring out the men who have come into your house, for they have come here to spy out the whole land.”

<sup>4</sup>Rahab had hidden the two men, but she replied, “Yes, the men were here earlier, but I didn’t know where they were from.

<sup>5</sup>They left the town at dusk, as the gates were about to close. I don’t know where they went. If you hurry, you can probably catch up with them.” <sup>6</sup>(Actually, she had taken them up to the roof and hidden them beneath bundles of flax she had laid out.)

<sup>8</sup> Before the spies went to sleep that night, Rahab went up on the roof to talk with them. <sup>9</sup>“I know the LORD has given you this land,” she told them. “We are all afraid of you. Everyone in the land is living in terror. <sup>10</sup>For we have heard how the LORD made a dry path for you through the Red Sea* when you left Egypt. And we know what you did to Sihon and Og, the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan River, whose people you completely destroyed.* <sup>11</sup>No wonder our hearts have melted in fear! No one has the courage to fight after hearing such things. For the LORD your God is the supreme God of the heavens above and the earth below.

<sup>12</sup>“Now swear to me by the LORD that you will be kind to me and my family since I have helped you. Give me some guarantee that <sup>13</sup>when Jericho is conquered, you will let me live, along with my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all their families.”

<sup>14</sup>“We offer our own lives as a guarantee for your safety,” the men agreed. “If you don’t betray us, we will keep our promise and be kind to you when the LORD gives us the land.”

<sup>15</sup> Then, since Rahab’s house was built into the town wall, she let them down by a rope through the window. <sup>16</sup>“Escape to the hill country,” she told them. “Hide there for three days from the men searching for you. Then, when they have returned, you can go on your way.”

<sup>17</sup>Before they left, the men told her, “We will be bound by the oath we have taken only if you follow these instructions. <sup>18</sup>When we come into the land, you must leave this scarlet rope hanging from the window through which you let us down. And all your family members—your father, mother, brothers, and all your relatives—must be here inside the house. <sup>19</sup>If they go out into the street and are killed, it will not be our fault. But if anyone lays a hand on people inside this house, we will accept the responsibility for their death. <sup>20</sup>If you betray us, however, we are not bound by this oath in any way.”

<sup>21</sup>“I accept your terms,” she replied. And she sent them on their way, leaving the scarlet rope hanging from the window.

<sup>22</sup>The spies went up into the hill country and stayed there three days. The men who were chasing them searched everywhere along the road, but they finally returned without success.

<sup>23</sup>Then the two spies came down from the hill country, crossed the Jordan River, and reported to Joshua all that had happened to them. <sup>24</sup>“The LORD has given us the whole land,” they said, “for all the people in the land are terrified of us.”

Joshua 3

The Israelites Cross the Jordan

<sup>6</sup> In the morning Joshua said to the priests, “Lift up the Ark of the Covenant and lead the people across the river.” And so they started out and went ahead of the people.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD told Joshua, “Today I will begin to make you a great leader in the eyes of all the Israelites. They will know that I am with you, just as I was with Moses. <sup>8</sup> Give this command to the priests who carry the Ark of the Covenant: ‘When you reach the banks of the Jordan River, take a few steps into the river and stop there.’”

<sup>9</sup> So Joshua told the Israelites, “Come and listen to what the LORD your God says. <sup>10</sup> Today you will know that the living God is among you. He will surely drive out the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and Jebusites ahead of you. <sup>11</sup>Look, the Ark of the Covenant, which belongs to the Lord of the whole earth, will lead you across the Jordan River!

<sup>12</sup>Now choose twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one from each tribe. <sup>13</sup>The priests will carry the Ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth. As soon as their feet touch the water, the flow of water will be cut off upstream, and the river will stand up like a wall.”

<sup>14</sup>So the people left their camp to cross the Jordan, and the priests who were carrying the Ark of the Covenant went ahead of them. <sup>15</sup>It was the harvest season, and the Jordan was overflowing its banks. But as soon as the feet of the priests who were carrying the Ark touched the water at the river's edge, <sup>16</sup>the water above that point began backing up a great distance away at a town called Adam, which is near Zarethan. And the water below that point flowed on to the Dead Sea* until the riverbed was dry. Then all the people crossed over near the town of Jericho.

<sup>17</sup>Meanwhile, the priests who were carrying the Ark of the LORD's Covenant stood on dry ground in the middle of the riverbed as the people passed by. They waited there until the whole nation of Israel had crossed the Jordan on dry ground.

Joshua 4

Memorials to the Jordan Crossing

<sup>4</sup> So Joshua called together the twelve men he had chosen—one from each of the tribes of Israel. <sup>5</sup> He told them, “Go into the middle of the Jordan, in front of the Ark of the LORD your God. Each of you must pick up one stone and carry it out on your shoulder—twelve stones in all, one for each of the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>6</sup> We will use these stones to build a memorial. In the future your children will ask you, ‘What do these stones mean?’ <sup>7</sup> Then you can tell them, ‘They remind us that the Jordan River stopped flowing when the Ark of the LORD’s Covenant went across.’ These stones will stand as a memorial among the people of Israel forever.”

<sup>8</sup> So the men did as Joshua had commanded them. They took twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan River, one for each tribe, just as the LORD had told Joshua. They carried them to the place where they camped for the night and constructed the memorial there.

<sup>9</sup> Joshua also set up another pile of twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, at the place where the priests who carried the Ark of the Covenant were standing. And they are there to this day.

<sup>10</sup>The priests who were carrying the Ark stood in the middle of the river until all of the LORD's commands that Moses had given to Joshua were carried out. Meanwhile, the people hurried across the riverbed. <sup>11</sup>And when everyone was safely on the other side, the priests crossed over with the Ark of the LORD as the people watched.

<sup>12</sup>The armed warriors from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh led the Israelites across the Jordan, just as Moses had directed. <sup>13</sup>These armed men—about 40,000 strong—were ready for battle, and the LORD was with them as they crossed over to the plains of Jericho.

<sup>14</sup>That day the LORD made Joshua a great leader in the eyes of all the Israelites, and for the rest of his life they revered him as much as they had revered Moses.

<sup>21</sup>Then Joshua said to the Israelites, “In the future your children will ask, ‘What do these stones mean?’” <sup>22</sup>Then you can tell them, ‘This is where the Israelites crossed the Jordan on dry ground.’ <sup>23</sup>For the LORD your God dried up the river right before your eyes, and he kept it dry until you were all across, just as he did at the Red Sea* when he dried it up until we had all crossed over. <sup>24</sup>He did this so all the nations of the earth might know that the LORD’s hand is powerful, and so you might fear the LORD your God forever.”

Joshua 5

<sup>1</sup> When all the Amorite kings west of the Jordan and all the Canaanite kings who lived along the Mediterranean coast* heard how the LORD had dried up the Jordan River so the people of Israel could cross, they lost heart and were paralyzed with fear because of them.

Israel Reestablishes Covenant Ceremonies

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Today I have rolled away the shame of your slavery in Egypt.” So that place has been called Gilgal* to this day.

<sup>10</sup> While the Israelites were camped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, they celebrated Passover on the evening of the fourteenth day of the first month.* <sup>11</sup>The very next day they began to eat unleavened bread and roasted grain harvested from the land. <sup>12</sup>No manna appeared on the day they first ate from the crops of the land, and it was never seen again. So from that time on the Israelites ate from the crops of Canaan.

The LORD’s Commander Confronts Joshua

<sup>13</sup> When Joshua was near the town of Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with sword in hand. Joshua went up to him and demanded, “Are you friend or foe?”

At this, Joshua fell with his face to the ground in reverence. “I am at your command,” Joshua said. “What do you want your servant to do?”

<sup>15</sup>The commander of the LORD’s army replied, “Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy.” And Joshua did as he was told.

Joshua 6

The Fall of Jericho

<sup>1</sup> Now the gates of Jericho were tightly shut because the people were afraid of the Israelites. No one was allowed to go out or in. <sup>2</sup>But the LORD said to Joshua, “I have given you Jericho, its king, and all its strong warriors. <sup>3</sup>You and your fighting men should march around the town once a day for six days. <sup>4</sup>Seven priests will walk ahead of the Ark, each carrying a ram’s horn. On the seventh day you are to march around the town seven times, with the priests blowing the horns. <sup>5</sup>When you hear the priests give one long blast on the rams’ horns, have all the people shout as loud as they can. Then the walls of the town will collapse, and the people can charge straight into the town.”

<sup>8</sup>After Joshua spoke to the people, the seven priests with the rams’ horns started marching in the presence of the LORD, blowing the horns as they marched. And the Ark of the LORD’s Covenant followed behind them. <sup>9</sup>Some of the armed men marched in front of the priests with the horns and some behind the Ark, with the priests continually blowing the horns. <sup>10</sup>“Do not shout; do not even talk,” Joshua commanded. “Not a single word from any of you until I tell you to shout. Then shout!” <sup>11</sup>So the Ark of the LORD was carried around the town once that day, and then everyone returned to spend the night in the camp.

<sup>12</sup>Joshua got up early the next morning, and the priests again carried the Ark of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>The seven priests with the rams’ horns marched in front of the Ark of the LORD, blowing their horns. Again the armed men marched both in front of the priests with the horns and behind the Ark of the LORD. All this time the priests were blowing their horns. <sup>14</sup>On the second day they again marched around the town once and returned to the camp. They followed this pattern for six days.

<sup>15</sup>On the seventh day the Israelites got up at dawn and marched around the town as they had done before. But this time they went around the town seven times. <sup>16</sup>The seventh time around, as the priests sounded the long blast on their horns, Joshua commanded the people, “Shout! For the LORD has given you the town! <sup>17</sup>Jericho and everything in it must be completely destroyed* as an offering to the LORD. Only Rahab the prostitute and the others in her house will be spared, for she protected our spies.

<sup>18</sup>“Do not take any of the things set apart for destruction, or you yourselves will be completely destroyed, and you will bring trouble on the camp of Israel. <sup>19</sup>Everything made from silver, gold, bronze, or iron is sacred to the LORD and must be brought into his treasury.”

<sup>20</sup>When the people heard the sound of the rams’ horns, they shouted as loud as they could. Suddenly, the walls of Jericho collapsed, and the Israelites charged straight into the town and captured it. <sup>21</sup>They completely destroyed everything in it with their swords—men and women, young and old, cattle, sheep, goats, and donkeys.

<sup>22</sup> Meanwhile, Joshua said to the two spies, “Keep your promise. Go to the prostitute’s house and bring her out, along with all her family.”

<sup>23</sup> The men who had been spies went in and brought out Rahab, her father, mother, brothers, and all the other relatives who were with her. They moved her whole family to a safe place near the camp of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> Then the Israelites burned the town and everything in it. Only the things made from silver, gold, bronze, or iron were kept for the treasury of the LORD’s house. <sup>25</sup> So Joshua spared Rahab the prostitute and her relatives who were with her in the house, because she had hidden the spies Joshua sent to Jericho. And she lives among the Israelites to this day.

“May the curse of the LORD fall on anyone who tries to rebuild the town of Jericho.
At the cost of his firstborn son,
he will lay its foundation.
At the cost of his youngest son,
he will set up its gates.”

<sup>27</sup> So the LORD was with Joshua, and his reputation spread throughout the land.

Joshua 7

Ai Defeats the Israelites

<sup>1</sup> But Israel violated the instructions about the things set apart for the LORD.* A man named Achan had stolen some of these dedicated things, so the LORD was very angry with the Israelites. Achan was the son of Carmi, a descendant of Zimri* son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah.

<sup>2</sup> Joshua sent some of his men from Jericho to spy out the town of Ai, east of Bethel, near Beth-aven. <sup>3</sup> When they returned, they told Joshua, “There’s no need for all of us to go up there; it won’t take more than two or three thousand men to attack Ai. Since there are so few of them, don’t make all our people struggle to go up there.”

<sup>4</sup> So approximately 3,000 warriors were sent, but they were soundly defeated. The men of Ai <sup>5</sup> chased the Israelites from the town gate as far as the quarries,* and they killed about thirty-six who were retreating down the slope. The Israelites were paralyzed with fear at this turn of events, and their courage melted away.

<sup>6</sup> Joshua and the elders of Israel tore their clothing in dismay, threw dust on their heads, and bowed face down to the ground before the Ark of the LORD until evening. <sup>7</sup> Then Joshua cried out, “Oh, Sovereign LORD, why did you bring us across the Jordan River if you are going to let the Amorites kill us? If only we had been content to stay on the other side! <sup>8</sup> Lord, what can

I say now that Israel has fled from its enemies? <sup>9</sup>For when the Canaanites and all the other people living in the land hear about it, they will surround us and wipe our name off the face of the earth. And then what will happen to the honor of your great name?”

<sup>10</sup> But the LORD said to Joshua, “Get up! Why are you lying on your face like this? <sup>11</sup>Israel has sinned and broken my covenant! They have stolen some of the things that I commanded must be set apart for me. And they have not only stolen them but have lied about it and hidden the things among their own belongings. <sup>12</sup>That is why the Israelites are running from their enemies in defeat. For now Israel itself has been set apart for destruction. I will not remain with you any longer unless you destroy the things among you that were set apart for destruction.

<sup>13</sup>“Get up! Command the people to purify themselves in preparation for tomorrow. For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Hidden among you, O Israel, are things set apart for the LORD. You will never defeat your enemies until you remove these things from among you.

<sup>14</sup>“In the morning you must present yourselves by tribes, and the LORD will point out the tribe to which the guilty man belongs. That tribe must come forward with its clans, and the LORD will point out the guilty clan. That clan will then come forward, and the LORD will point out the guilty family. Finally, each member of the guilty family must come forward one by one. <sup>15</sup>The one who has stolen what was set apart for destruction will himself be burned with fire, along with everything he has, for he has broken the covenant of the LORD and has done a horrible thing in Israel.”

Achan's Sin

<sup>16</sup>Early the next morning Joshua brought the tribes of Israel before the LORD, and the tribe of Judah was singled out. <sup>17</sup>Then the clans of Judah came forward, and the clan of Zerah was singled out. Then the families of Zerah came forward, and the family of Zimri was singled out. <sup>18</sup>Every member of Zimri's family was brought forward person by person, and Achan was singled out.

<sup>19</sup>Then Joshua said to Achan, “My son, give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, by telling the truth. Make your confession and tell me what you have done. Don't hide it from me.”

<sup>20</sup>Achan replied, “It is true! I have sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>21</sup>Among the plunder I saw a beautiful robe from Babylon,* 200 silver coins,* and a bar of gold weighing more than a pound.* I wanted them so much that I took them. They are hidden in the ground beneath my tent, with the silver buried deeper than the rest.”

<sup>22</sup>So Joshua sent some men to make a search. They ran to the tent and found the stolen goods hidden there, just as Achan had said, with the silver buried beneath the rest. <sup>23</sup>They took the things from the tent and brought them to Joshua and all the Israelites. Then they laid them on the ground in the presence of the LORD.

<sup>24</sup>Then Joshua and all the Israelites took Achan, the silver, the robe, the bar of gold, his sons, daughters, cattle, donkeys, sheep, goats, tent, and everything he had, and they brought them to the valley of Achor. <sup>25</sup>Then Joshua said to Achan, “Why have you brought trouble on us? The LORD will now bring trouble on you.” And all the Israelites stoned Achan and his family and burned their bodies. <sup>26</sup>They piled a great heap of stones over Achan, which remains to this day. That is why the place has been called the Valley of Trouble* ever since. So the LORD was no longer angry.

Joshua 8

The Israelites Defeat Ai

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid or discouraged. Take all your fighting men and attack Ai, for I have given you the king of Ai, his people, his town, and his land. <sup>2</sup>You will destroy them as you destroyed Jericho and its king. But this time you may keep the plunder and the livestock for yourselves. Set an ambush behind the town.”

<sup>9</sup> So they left and went to the place of ambush between Bethel and the west side of Ai. But Joshua remained among the people in the camp that night. <sup>10</sup> Early the next morning Joshua roused his men and started toward Ai, accompanied by the elders of Israel. <sup>11</sup> All the fighting men who were with Joshua marched in front of the town and camped on the north side of Ai, with a valley between them and the town.<sup>12</sup> That night Joshua sent 5,000 men to lie in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the town.<sup>13</sup> So they stationed the main army north of the town and the ambush west of the town. Joshua himself spent that night in the valley.

<sup>14</sup>When the king of Ai saw the Israelites across the valley, he and all his army hurried out early in the morning and attacked the Israelites at a place overlooking the Jordan Valley.* But he didn't realize there was an ambush behind the town.<sup>15</sup> Joshua and the Israelite army fled toward the wilderness as though they were badly beaten.<sup>16</sup> Then all the men in the town were called out to chase after them. In this way, they were lured away from the town.<sup>17</sup> There was not a man left in Ai or Bethel* who did not chase after the Israelites, and the town was left wide open.

<sup>18</sup>Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Point the spear in your hand toward Ai, for I will hand the town over to you." Joshua did as he was commanded.<sup>19</sup> As soon as Joshua gave this signal, all the men in ambush jumped up from their position and poured into the town. They quickly captured it and set it on fire.

<sup>20</sup>When the men of Ai looked behind them, smoke from the town was filling the sky, and they had nowhere to go. For the Israelites who had fled in the direction of the wilderness now turned on their pursuers.<sup>21</sup> When Joshua and all the other Israelites saw that the ambush had succeeded and that smoke was rising from the town, they turned and attacked the men of Ai.<sup>22</sup> Meanwhile, the Israelites who were inside the town came out and attacked the enemy from the rear. So the men of Ai were caught in the middle, with Israelite fighters on both sides. Israel attacked them, and not a single person survived or escaped.<sup>23</sup> Only the king of Ai was taken alive and brought to Joshua.

<sup>24</sup> When the Israelite army finished chasing and killing all the men of Ai in the open fields, they went back and finished off everyone inside.<sup>25</sup> So the entire population of Ai, including men and women, was wiped out that day—12,000 in all.<sup>26</sup> For Joshua kept holding out his spear until everyone who had lived in Ai was completely destroyed.*<sup>27</sup> Only the livestock and the treasures of the town were not destroyed, for the Israelites kept these as plunder for themselves, as the LORD had commanded Joshua.<sup>28</sup> So Joshua burned the town of Ai,* and it became a permanent mound of ruins, desolate to this very day.

<sup>29</sup> Joshua impaled the king of Ai on a sharpened pole and left him there until evening. At sunset the Israelites took down the body, as Joshua commanded, and threw it in front of the town gate. They piled a great heap of stones over him that can still be seen today.

The LORD's Covenant Renewed

<sup>30</sup> Then Joshua built an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, on Mount Ebal.<sup>31</sup> He followed the commands that Moses the LORD's servant had written in the Book of Instruction: "Make me an altar from stones that are uncut and have not been shaped with iron tools."* Then on the altar they presented burnt offerings and peace offerings to the LORD. <sup>32</sup>And as the Israelites watched, Joshua copied onto the stones of the altar* the instructions Moses had given them.

<sup>33</sup>Then all the Israelites—foreigners and native-born alike—along with the elders, officers, and judges, were divided into two groups. One group stood in front of Mount Gerizim, the other in front of Mount Ebal. Each group faced the other, and between them stood the Levitical priests carrying the Ark of the LORD's Covenant. This was all done according to the commands that Moses, the servant of the LORD, had previously given for blessing the people of Israel.

<sup>34</sup>Joshua then read to them all the blessings and curses Moses had written in the Book of Instruction. <sup>35</sup>Every word of every command that Moses had ever given was read to the entire assembly of Israel, including the women and children and the foreigners who lived among them.

Joshua 9

The Gibeonites Deceive Israel

<sup>7</sup> The Israelites replied to these Hivites, “How do we know you don’t live nearby? For if you do, we cannot make a treaty with you.”

<sup>8</sup> They replied, “We are your servants.”

“But who are you?” Joshua demanded. “Where do you come from?”

<sup>9</sup> They answered, “Your servants have come from a very distant country. We have heard of the might of the LORD your God and of all he did in Egypt. <sup>10</sup>We have also heard what he did to the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan River—King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan (who lived in Ashtaroth). <sup>11</sup>So our elders and all our people instructed us, ‘Take supplies for a long journey. Go meet with the people of Israel and tell them, “We are your servants; please make a treaty with us.”’

<sup>12</sup>“This bread was hot from the ovens when we left our homes. But now, as you can see, it is dry and moldy. <sup>13</sup>These wineskins were new when we filled them, but now they are old and split open. And our clothing and sandals are worn out from our very long journey.”

<sup>14</sup>So the Israelites examined their food, but they did not consult the LORD. <sup>15</sup>Then Joshua made a peace treaty with them and guaranteed their safety, and the leaders of the community ratified their agreement with a binding oath.

<sup>16</sup>Three days after making the treaty, they learned that these people actually lived nearby! <sup>17</sup>The Israelites set out at once to investigate and reached their towns in three days. The names of these towns were Gibeon, Kephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-jearim. <sup>18</sup>But the Israelites did not attack the towns, for the Israelite leaders had made a vow to them in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

The people of Israel grumbled against their leaders because of the treaty. <sup>19</sup>But the leaders replied, “Since we have sworn an oath in the presence of the LORD, the God of Israel, we cannot touch them. <sup>20</sup>This is what we must do. We must let them live, for divine anger would come upon us if we broke our oath.<sup>21</sup>Let them live.” So they made them woodcutters and water carriers for the entire community, as the Israelite leaders directed.

<sup>22</sup>Joshua called together the Gibeonites and said, “Why did you lie to us? Why did you say that you live in a distant land when you live right here among us? <sup>23</sup>May you be cursed! From now on you will always be servants who cut wood and carry water for the house of my God.”

<sup>24</sup>They replied, “We did it because we—your servants—were clearly told that the LORD your God commanded his servant Moses to give you this entire land and to destroy all the people living in it. So we feared greatly for our lives because of you. That is why we have done this.”<sup>25</sup>Now we are at your mercy—do to us whatever you think is right.”

<sup>26</sup>So Joshua did not allow the people of Israel to kill them.
<sup>27</sup>But that day he made the Gibeonites the woodcutters and water carriers for the community of Israel and for the altar of the LORD—wherever the LORD would choose to build it. And that is what they do to this day.

Joshua 10

Israel Defeats the Southern Armies

<sup>1</sup> Adoni-zedek, king of Jerusalem, heard that Joshua had captured and completely destroyed* Ai and killed its king, just as he had destroyed the town of Jericho and killed its king. He also learned that the Gibeonites had made peace with Israel and were now their allies.<sup>2</sup>He and his people became very afraid when they heard all this because Gibeon was a large town—as large as the royal cities and larger than Ai. And the Gibeonite men were strong warriors.

<sup>3</sup>So King Adoni-zedek of Jerusalem sent messengers to several other kings: Hoham of Hebron, Piram of Jarmuth, Japhia of Lachish, and Debir of Eglon. <sup>4</sup>“Come and help me destroy Gibeon,” he urged them, “for they have made peace with Joshua and the people of Israel.” <sup>5</sup>So these five Amorite kings combined their armies for a united attack. They moved all their troops into place and attacked Gibeon.

<sup>6</sup>The men of Gibeon quickly sent messengers to Joshua at his camp in Gilgal. “Don’t abandon your servants now!” they pleaded. “Come at once! Save us! Help us! For all the Amorite kings who live in the hill country have joined forces to attack us.”

<sup>7</sup>So Joshua and his entire army, including his best warriors, left Gilgal and set out for Gibeon. <sup>8</sup>“Do not be afraid of them,” the LORD said to Joshua, “for I have given you victory over them. Not a single one of them will be able to stand up to you.”

<sup>9</sup>Joshua traveled all night from Gilgal and took the Amorite armies by surprise. <sup>10</sup>The LORD threw them into a panic, and the Israelites slaughtered great numbers of them at Gibeon. Then the Israelites chased the enemy along the road to Beth-horon, killing them all along the way to Azekah and Makkedah. <sup>11</sup>As the Amorites retreated down the road from Beth-horon, the LORD destroyed them with a terrible hailstorm from heaven that continued until they reached Azekah. The hail killed more of the enemy than the Israelites killed with the sword.

<sup>12</sup> On the day the LORD gave the Israelites victory over the Amorites, Joshua prayed to the LORD in front of all the people of Israel. He said, “Let the sun stand still over Gibeon, and the moon over the valley of Aijalon.”

<sup>13</sup>So the sun stood still and the moon stayed in place until the nation of Israel had defeated its enemies.

Is this event not recorded in The Book of Jashar*? The sun stayed in the middle of the sky, and it did not set as on a normal day.* <sup>14</sup>There has never been a day like this one before or since, when the LORD answered such a prayer. Surely the LORD fought for Israel that day!

Joshua Kills the Five Southern Kings

<sup>20</sup>So Joshua and the Israelite army continued the slaughter and completely crushed the enemy. They totally wiped out the five armies except for a tiny remnant that managed to reach their fortified towns. <sup>21</sup>Then the Israelites returned safely to Joshua in the camp at Makkedah. After that, no one dared to speak even a word against Israel.

<sup>22</sup>Then Joshua said, “Remove the rocks covering the opening of the cave, and bring the five kings to me.” <sup>23</sup>So they brought the five kings out of the cave—the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon. <sup>24</sup>When they brought them out, Joshua told the commanders of his army, “Come and put your feet on the kings’ necks.” And they did as they were told.

<sup>25</sup>“Don’t ever be afraid or discouraged,” Joshua told his men. “Be strong and courageous, for the LORD is going to do this to all of your enemies.” <sup>26</sup>Then Joshua killed each of the five kings and impaled them on five sharpened poles, where they hung until evening.

<sup>27</sup>As the sun was going down, Joshua gave instructions for the bodies of the kings to be taken down from the poles and thrown into the cave where they had been hiding. Then they covered the opening of the cave with a pile of large rocks, which remains to this very day.

Israel Destroys the Southern Towns

<sup>28</sup>That same day Joshua captured and destroyed the town of Makkedah. He killed everyone in it, including the king, leaving no survivors. He destroyed them all, and he killed the king of Makkedah as he had killed the king of Jericho. <sup>29</sup>Then Joshua and the Israelites went to Libnah and attacked it. <sup>30</sup>There, too, the LORD gave them the town and its king. He killed everyone in it, leaving no survivors. Then Joshua killed the king of Libnah as he had killed the king of Jericho.

<sup>34</sup>Then Joshua and the Israelite army went on to Eglon and attacked it. <sup>35</sup>They captured it that day and killed everyone in it. He completely destroyed everyone, just as he had done at Lachish. <sup>36</sup>From Eglon, Joshua and the Israelite army went up to Hebron and attacked it. <sup>37</sup>They captured the town and killed everyone in it, including its king, leaving no survivors. They did the same thing to all of its surrounding villages. And just as he had done at Eglon, he completely destroyed the entire population.

<sup>38</sup>Then Joshua and the Israelites turned back and attacked Debir. <sup>39</sup>He captured the town, its king, and all of its surrounding villages. He completely destroyed everyone in it, leaving no survivors. He did to Debir and its king just what he had done to Hebron and to Libnah and its king.

<sup>40</sup>So Joshua conquered the whole region—the kings and people of the hill country, the Negev, the western foothills, \* and the mountain slopes. He completely destroyed everyone in the land, leaving no survivors, just as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded. <sup>41</sup>Joshua slaughtered them from Kadesh-barnea to Gaza and from the region around the town of Goshen up to Gibeon. <sup>42</sup>Joshua conquered all these kings and their land in a single campaign, for the LORD, the God of Israel, was fighting for his people.

Joshua 11

Israel Defeats the Northern Armies

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid of them. By this time tomorrow I will hand all of them over to Israel as dead men. Then you must cripple their horses and burn their chariots.”

<sup>7</sup>So Joshua and all his fighting men traveled to the water near Merom and attacked suddenly. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD gave them victory over their enemies. The Israelites chased them as far as Greater Sidon and Misrephoth-maim, and eastward into the valley of Mizpah, until not one enemy warrior was left alive.

<sup>9</sup>Then Joshua crippled the horses and burned all the chariots, as the LORD had instructed.

<sup>10</sup>Joshua then turned back and captured Hazor and killed its king. (Hazor had at one time been the capital of all these kingdoms.) <sup>11</sup>The Israelites completely destroyed* every living thing in the city, leaving no survivors. Not a single person was spared. And then Joshua burned the city.

<sup>12</sup>Joshua slaughtered all the other kings and their people, completely destroying them, just as Moses, the servant of the LORD, had commanded. <sup>13</sup>But the Israelites did not burn any of the towns built on mounds except Hazor, which Joshua burned. <sup>14</sup>And the Israelites took all the plunder and livestock of the ravaged towns for themselves. But they killed all the people, leaving no survivors. <sup>15</sup>As the LORD had commanded his servant Moses, so Moses commanded Joshua. And Joshua did as he was told, carefully obeying all the commands that the LORD had given to Moses.

<sup>16</sup> So Joshua conquered the entire region—the hill country, the entire Negev, the whole area around the town of Goshen, the western foothills, the Jordan Valley,* the mountains of Israel, and the Galilean foothills. <sup>17</sup>The Israelite territory now extended all the way from Mount Halak, which leads up to Seir in the south, as far north as Baal-gad at the foot of Mount Hermon in the valley of Lebanon. Joshua killed all the kings of those territories, <sup>18</sup>waging war for a long time to accomplish this. <sup>19</sup>No one in this region made peace with the Israelites except the Hivites of Gibeon. All the others were defeated. <sup>20</sup>For the LORD hardened their hearts and caused them to fight the Israelites. So they were completely destroyed without mercy, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>21</sup>During this period Joshua destroyed all the descendants of Anak, who lived in the hill country of Hebron, Debir, Anab, and the entire hill country of Judah and Israel. He killed them all and completely destroyed their towns.<sup>22</sup>None of the descendants of Anak were left in all the land of Israel, though some still remained in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod.

<sup>23</sup>So Joshua took control of the entire land, just as the LORD had instructed Moses. He gave it to the people of Israel as their special possession, dividing the land among the tribes. So the land finally had rest from war.

CONQUEST OF CANAAN

1 First battle of the conquest:

The fall of Jericho (Joshua 6)

2 Second battle of the conquest:

Achan's sin and Ai's fall (Joshua 7-8)

3 Third battle of the conquest:

Gibeon's deceit and the fall of the Southern kings (Joshua 9-10)

4 Fourth battle of the conquest:

The fall of the Northern kings (Joshua 11)

Joshua 12

Kings Defeated East of the Jordan

<sup>1</sup> These are the kings east of the Jordan River who had been killed by the Israelites and whose land was taken. Their territory extended from the Arnon Gorge to Mount Hermon and included all the land east of the Jordan Valley.*

<sup>4</sup>King Og of Bashan, the last of the Rephaites, lived at Ashtaroth and Edrei. <sup>5</sup>He ruled a territory stretching from Mount Hermon to Salecah in the north and to all of Bashan in the east, and westward to the borders of the kingdoms of Geshur and Maacah. This territory included the northern half of Gilead, as far as the boundary of King Sihon of Heshbon.

<sup>6</sup>Moses, the servant of the LORD, and the Israelites had destroyed the people of King Sihon and King Og. And Moses gave their land as a possession to the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Kings Defeated West of the Jordan

<sup>7</sup>The following is a list of the kings that Joshua and the Israelite armies defeated on the west side of the Jordan, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, which leads up to Seir. (Joshua gave this land to the tribes of Israel as their possession, <sup>8</sup>including the hill country, the western foothills,* the Jordan Valley, the mountain slopes, the Judean wilderness, and the Negev. The people who lived in this region were the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.) These are the kings Israel defeated:

The king of Ai, near Bethel

<sup>10</sup>The king of Jerusalem

The king of Hebron

The king of Lachish

<sup>12</sup>The king of Eglon

The king of Gezer

<sup>13</sup>The king of Debir

The king of Geder

<sup>14</sup>The king of Hormah

The king of Arad

<sup>15</sup>The king of Libnah

The king of Adullam

<sup>16</sup>The king of Makkedah

The king of Bethel

The king of Hopher

<sup>18</sup>The king of Aphek

The king of Lasharon

<sup>19</sup>The king of Madon

The king of Hazor

<sup>20</sup>The king of Shimron-meron

The king of Acshaph

<sup>21</sup>The king of Taanach

The king of Megiddo

<sup>22</sup>The king of Kedesh

The king of Jokneam in Carmel

<sup>23</sup>The king of Dor in the town of Naphoth-dor*

The king of Goyim in Gilgal*

<sup>24</sup>The king of Tirzah.

In all, thirty-one kings were defeated.

Joshua 13

The Land Yet to Be Conquered

<sup>1</sup> When Joshua was an old man, the LORD said to him, “You are growing old, and much land remains to be conquered. <sup>2</sup>This is the territory that remains: all the regions of the Philistines and the Geshurites, <sup>3</sup>and the larger territory of the Canaanites, extending from the stream of Shihor on the border of Egypt, northward to the boundary of Ekron. It includes the territory of the five Philistine rulers of Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron. The land of the Avvites <sup>4</sup>in the south also remains to be conquered. In the north, the following area has not yet been conquered: all the land of the Canaanites, including Mearah (which belongs to the Sidonians), stretching northward to Aphek on the border of the Amorites; <sup>5</sup>the land of the Gebalites and all of the Lebanon mountain area to the east, from Baal-gad below Mount Hermon to Lebo-hamath; <sup>6</sup>and all the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, including all the land of the Sidonians.

“I myself will drive these people out of the land ahead of the Israelites. So be sure to give this land to Israel as a special possession, just as I have commanded you. <sup>7</sup>Include all this territory as Israel’s possession when you divide this land among the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh.”

The Land Divided East of the Jordan

<sup>8</sup> Half the tribe of Manasseh and the tribes of Reuben and Gad had already received their grants of land on the east side of the Jordan, for Moses, the servant of the LORD, had previously assigned this land to them.

<sup>9</sup>Their territory extended from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Gorge (including the town in the middle of the gorge) to the plain beyond Medeba, as far as Dibon. <sup>10</sup>It also included all the towns of King Sihon of the Amorites, who had reigned in Heshbon, and extended as far as the borders of Ammon. <sup>11</sup>It included Gilead, the territory of the kingdoms of Geshur and Maacah, all of Mount Hermon, all of Bashan as far as Salecah, <sup>12</sup>and all the territory of King Og of Bashan, who had reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei. King Og was the last of the Rephaites, for Moses had attacked them and driven them out. <sup>13</sup>But the Israelites failed to drive out the people of Geshur and Maacah, so they continue to live among the Israelites to this day.

An Allotment for the Tribe of Levi

<sup>14</sup>Moses did not assign any allotment of land to the tribe of Levi. Instead, as the LORD had promised them, their allotment came from the offerings burned on the altar to the LORD, the God of Israel.

The Land Given to the Tribe of Reuben

<sup>21</sup>The land of Reuben also included all the towns of the plain and the entire kingdom of Sihon. Sihon was the Amorite king who had reigned in Heshbon and was killed by Moses along with the leaders of Midian—Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba—princes living in the region who were allied with Sihon. <sup>22</sup>The Israelites had also killed Balaam son of Beor, who used magic to tell the future. <sup>23</sup>The Jordan River marked the western boundary for the tribe of Reuben. The towns and their surrounding villages in this area were given as a homeland to the clans of the tribe of Reuben.

The Land Given to the Tribe of Gad

mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the territory of Lo-debar.* <sup>27</sup>In the valley were Beth-haram, Beth-nimrah, Succoth, Zaphon, and the rest of the kingdom of King Sihon of Heshbon. The western boundary ran along the Jordan River, extended as far north as the tip of the Sea of Galilee,* and then turned eastward. <sup>28</sup>The towns and their surrounding villages in this area were given as a homeland to the clans of the tribe of Gad.

The Land Given to the Half-Tribe of Manasseh

<sup>29</sup>Moses had assigned the following area to the clans of the half-tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>30</sup>Their territory extended from Mahanaim, including all of Bashan, all the former kingdom of King Og, and the sixty towns of Jair in Bashan. <sup>31</sup>It also included half of Gilead and King Og's royal cities of Ashtaroth and Edrei. All this was given to the clans of the descendants of Makir, who was Manasseh's son.

<sup>32</sup>These are the allotments Moses had made while he was on the plains of Moab, across the Jordan River, east of Jericho. <sup>33</sup>But Moses gave no allotment of land to the tribe of Levi, for the LORD, the God of Israel, had promised that he himself would be their allotment.

Joshua 14

The Land Divided West of the Jordan

<sup>1</sup> The remaining tribes of Israel received land in Canaan as allotted by Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the tribal leaders. <sup>2</sup>These nine and a half tribes received their grants of land by means of sacred lots, in accordance with the LORD's command through Moses. <sup>3</sup>Moses had already given a grant of land to the two and a half tribes on the east side of the Jordan River, but he had given the Levites no such allotment. <sup>4</sup>The descendants of Joseph had become two separate tribes—Manasseh and Ephraim. And the Levites were given no land at all, only towns to live in with surrounding pasturelands for their livestock and all their possessions. <sup>5</sup>So the land was distributed in strict accordance with the LORD's commands to Moses.

Caleb

Caleb Requests His Land

<sup>6</sup> A delegation from the tribe of Judah, led by Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, came to Joshua at Gilgal. Caleb said to Joshua, “Remember what the LORD said to Moses, the man of God, about you and me when we were at Kadesh-barnea. <sup>7</sup>I was forty years old when Moses, the servant of the LORD, sent me from Kadesh-barnea to explore the land of Canaan. I returned and gave an honest report, <sup>8</sup>but my brothers who went with me frightened the people from entering the Promised Land. For my part, I wholeheartedly followed the LORD my God. <sup>9</sup>So that day Moses solemnly promised me, ‘The land of Canaan on which you were just walking will be your grant of land and that of your descendants forever, because you wholeheartedly followed the LORD my God.’

<sup>10</sup>“Now, as you can see, the LORD has kept me alive and well as he promised for all these forty-five years since Moses made this promise—even while Israel wandered in the wilderness. Today I am eighty-five years old. <sup>11</sup>I am as strong now as I was when Moses sent me on that journey, and I can still travel and fight as well as I could then. <sup>12</sup>So give me the hill country that the LORD promised me. You will remember that as scouts we found the descendants of Anak living there in great, walled towns. But if the LORD is with me, I will drive them out of the land, just as the LORD said.”

<sup>13</sup>So Joshua blessed Caleb son of Jephunneh and gave Hebron to him as his portion of land. <sup>14</sup>Hebron still belongs to the descendants of Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite because he wholeheartedly followed the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>15</sup>(Previously Hebron had been called Kiriath-arba. It had been named after Arba, a great hero of the descendants of Anak.) And the land had rest from war.

Joshua 15

The Land Given to the Tribe of Judah

<sup>2</sup>The southern boundary began at the south bay of the Dead Sea,* <sup>3</sup>ran south of Scorpion Pass* into the wilderness of Zin, and then went south of Kadesh-barnea to Hezron. Then it went up to Addar, where it turned toward Karka.<sup>4</sup>From there it passed to Azmon until it finally reached the Brook of Egypt, which it followed to the Mediterranean Sea.* This was their* southern boundary.

The northern boundary began at the bay where the Jordan River empties into the Dead Sea,<sup>6</sup>went up from there to Beth-hoglah, then proceeded north of Beth-arabah to the Stone of Bohan. (Bohan was Reuben's son.)

<sup>7</sup>From that point it went through the valley of Achor to Debir, turning north toward Gilgal, which is across from the slopes of Adummim on the south side of the valley. From there the boundary extended to the springs at En-shemesh and on to En-rogel.<sup>8</sup>The boundary then passed through the valley of Ben-Hinnom, along the southern slopes of the Jebusites, where the city of Jerusalem is located. Then it went west to the top of the mountain above the valley of Hinnom, and on up to the northern end of the valley of Rephaim.<sup>9</sup>From there the boundary extended from the top of the mountain to the spring at the waters of Nephtoah,* and from there to the towns on Mount Ephron. Then it turned toward Baalah (that is, Kiriath-jearim).<sup>10</sup>The boundary circled west of Baalah to Mount Seir, passed along to the town of Kesalon on the northern slope of Mount Jearim, and went down to Beth-shemesh and on to Timnah.<sup>11</sup>The boundary then proceeded to the slope of the hill north of Ekron, where it turned toward Shikkeron and Mount Baalah. It passed Jabneel and ended at the Mediterranean Sea.

These are the boundaries for the clans of the tribe of Judah.

The Land Given to Caleb

<sup>13</sup>The LORD commanded Joshua to assign some of Judah's territory to Caleb son of Jephunneh. So Caleb was given the town of Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), which had been named after Anak's ancestor.<sup>14</sup>Caleb drove out the three groups of Anakites—the descendants of Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmi, the sons of Anak.

<sup>15</sup>From there he went to fight against the people living in the town of Debir (formerly called Kiriath-sepher). <sup>16</sup>Caleb said, “I will give my daughter Acsah in marriage to the one who attacks and captures Kiriath-sepher.” <sup>17</sup>Othniel, the son of Caleb’s brother Kenaz, was the one who conquered it, so Acsah became Othniel’s wife.

<sup>18</sup>When Acsah married Othniel, she urged him* to ask her father for a field. As she got down off her donkey, Caleb asked her, “What’s the matter?”

<sup>19</sup>She said, “Give me another gift. You have already given me land in the Negev; now please give me springs of water, too.” So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

The Towns Allotted to Judah

ten towns with their surrounding villages.

<sup>61</sup>In the wilderness there were the towns of Beth-arabah, Middin, Secacah, <sup>62</sup>Nibshan, the City of Salt, and En-gedi—six towns with their surrounding villages.

<sup>63</sup>But the tribe of Judah could not drive out the Jebusites, who lived in the city of Jerusalem, so the Jebusites live there among the people of Judah to this day.

Joshua 16

The Land Given to Ephraim and West Manasseh

<sup>4</sup>This was the homeland allocated to the families of Joseph's sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

The Land Given to Ephraim

The boundary of their homeland began at Ataroth-addar in the east. From there it ran to Upper Beth-horon, <sup>6</sup>then on to the Mediterranean Sea. From Micmethath on the north, the boundary curved eastward past Taanath-shiloh to the east of Janoah. <sup>7</sup>From Janoah it turned southward to Ataroth and Naarah, touched Jericho, and ended at the Jordan River. <sup>8</sup>From Tappuah the boundary extended westward, following the Kanah Ravine to the Mediterranean Sea. This is the homeland allocated to the clans of the tribe of Ephraim.

<sup>9</sup>In addition, some towns with their surrounding villages in the territory allocated to the half-tribe of Manasseh were set aside for the tribe of Ephraim.<sup>10</sup>They did not drive the Canaanites out of Gezer, however, so the people of Gezer live as slaves among the people of Ephraim to this day.

Joshua 17

The Land Given to West Manasseh

<sup>1</sup> The next allotment of land was given to the half-tribe of Manasseh, the descendants of Joseph's older son. Makir, the firstborn son of Manasseh, was the father of Gilead. Because his descendants were experienced soldiers, the regions of Gilead and Bashan on the east side of the Jordan had already been given to them. <sup>2</sup>So the allotment on the west side of the Jordan was for the remaining families within the clans of the tribe of Manasseh: Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher, and Shemida. These clans represent the male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph.

<sup>3</sup>However, Zelophehad, a descendant of Hepher son of Gilead, son of Makir, son of Manasseh, had no sons. He had only daughters, whose names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>4</sup>These women came to Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the Israelite leaders and said, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us a grant of land along with the men of our tribe."

So Joshua gave them a grant of land along with their uncles, as the LORD had commanded. <sup>5</sup>As a result, Manasseh's total allocation came to ten parcels of land, in addition to the land of Gilead and Bashan across the Jordan River, <sup>6</sup>because the female descendants of Manasseh received a grant of land along with the male descendants. (The land of Gilead was given to the rest of the male descendants of Manasseh.)

<sup>7</sup>The boundary of the tribe of Manasseh extended from the border of Asher to Micmethath, near Shechem. Then the boundary went south from Micmethath to the settlement near the spring of Tappuah. <sup>8</sup>The land surrounding Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but the town of Tappuah itself, on the border of Manasseh's territory, belonged to the tribe of Ephraim. <sup>9</sup>From the spring of Tappuah, the boundary of Manasseh followed the Kanah Ravine to the Mediterranean Sea.* Several towns south of the ravine were inside Manasseh's territory, but they actually belonged to the tribe of Ephraim. <sup>10</sup>In general, however, the land south of the ravine belonged to Ephraim, and the land north of the ravine belonged to Manasseh. Manasseh's boundary ran along the northern side of the ravine and ended at the Mediterranean Sea. North of Manasseh was the territory of Asher, and to the east was the territory of Issachar.

<sup>12</sup>But the descendants of Manasseh were unable to occupy these towns. They could not drive out the Canaanites who continued to live there. <sup>13</sup>Later, however, when the Israelites became strong enough, they forced the Canaanites to work as slaves. But they did not drive them out of the land.

<sup>14</sup> The descendants of Joseph came to Joshua and asked, “Why have you given us only one portion of land as our homeland when the LORD has blessed us with so many people?”

<sup>15</sup> Joshua replied, “If there are so many of you, and if the hill country of Ephraim is not large enough for you, clear out land for yourselves in the forest where the Perizzites and Rephaites live.”

<sup>16</sup> The descendants of Joseph responded, “It’s true that the hill country is not large enough for us. But all the Canaanites in the lowlands have iron chariots, both those in Beth-shan and its surrounding settlements and those in the valley of Jezreel. They are too strong for us.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Joshua said to the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh, the descendants of Joseph, “Since you are so large and strong, you will be given more than one portion. <sup>18</sup> The forests of the hill country will be yours as well. Clear as much of the land as you wish, and take possession of its farthest corners. And you will drive out the Canaanites from the valleys, too, even though they are strong and have iron chariots.”

Joshua 18

The Allotments of the Remaining Land

<sup>1</sup> Now that the land was under Israelite control, the entire community of Israel gathered at Shiloh and set up the Tabernacle.* <sup>2</sup>But there remained seven tribes who had not yet been allotted their grants of land.

<sup>3</sup>Then Joshua asked them, “How long are you going to wait before taking possession of the remaining land the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has given to you? <sup>4</sup>Select three men from each tribe, and I will send them out to explore the land and map it out. They will then return to me with a written report of their proposed divisions of their new homeland. <sup>5</sup>Let them divide the land into seven sections, excluding Judah’s territory in the south and Joseph’s territory in the north. <sup>6</sup>And when you record the seven divisions of the land and bring them to me, I will cast sacred lots in the presence of the LORD our God to assign land to each tribe.

<sup>7</sup>“The Levites, however, will not receive any allotment of land. Their role as priests of the LORD is their allotment. And the tribes of Gad, Reuben, and the half-tribe of Manasseh won’t receive any more land, for they have already received their grant of land, which Moses, the servant of the LORD, gave them on the east side of the Jordan River.”

<sup>8</sup>As the men started on their way to map out the land, Joshua commanded them, “Go and explore the land and write a description of it. Then return to me, and I will assign the land to the tribes by casting sacred lots here in the presence of the LORD at Shiloh.”<sup>9</sup>The men did as they were told and mapped the entire territory into seven sections, listing the towns in each section. They made a written record and then returned to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh.<sup>10</sup>And there at Shiloh, Joshua cast sacred lots in the presence of the LORD to determine which tribe should have each section.

The Land Given to Benjamin

<sup>11</sup>The first allotment of land went to the clans of the tribe of Benjamin. It lay between the territory assigned to the tribes of Judah and Joseph.

<sup>12</sup>The northern boundary of Benjamin’s land began at the Jordan River, went north of the slope of Jericho, then west through the hill country and the wilderness of Beth-aven.

<sup>13</sup>From there the boundary went south to Luz (that is, Bethel) and proceeded down to Ataroth-addar on the hill that lies south of Lower Beth-horon.

<sup>14</sup>The boundary then made a turn and swung south along the western edge of the hill facing Beth-horon, ending at the village of Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim), a town belonging to the tribe of Judah. This was the western boundary.

<sup>15</sup>The southern boundary began at the outskirts of Kiriath-jearim. From that western point it ran* to the spring at the waters of Nephtoah,*<sup>16</sup> and down to the base of the mountain beside the valley of Ben-Hinnom, at the northern end of the valley of Rephaim. From there it went down the valley of Hinnom, crossing south of the slope where the Jebusites lived, and continued down to En-rogel.<sup>17</sup> From En-rogel the boundary proceeded in a northerly direction and came to En-shemesh and on to Geliloth (which is across from the slopes of Adummim). Then it went down to the Stone of Bohan. (Bohan was Reuben's son.)<sup>18</sup> From there it passed along the north side of the slope overlooking the Jordan Valley.* The border then went down into the valley,<sup>19</sup> ran past the north slope of Beth-hoglah, and ended at the north bay of the Dead Sea,* which is the southern end of the Jordan River. This was the southern boundary.

These were the boundaries of the homeland allocated to the clans of the tribe of Benjamin.

The Towns Given to Benjamin

Jericho, Beth-hoglah, Emek-keziz,<sup>22</sup> Beth-arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,<sup>23</sup> Avvim, Parah, Ophrah,<sup>24</sup> Kepharammoni, Ophni, and Geba—twelve towns with their surrounding villages.<sup>25</sup> Also Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth,<sup>26</sup> Mizpah, Kephirah, Mozah,<sup>27</sup> Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah,

This was the homeland allocated to the clans of the tribe of Benjamin.

Joshua 19

The Land Given to Simeon

This was the homeland allocated to the clans of the tribe of Simeon. <sup>9</sup>Their allocation of land came from part of what had been given to Judah because Judah's territory was too large for them. So the tribe of Simeon received an allocation within the territory of Judah.

The Land Given to Zebulun

<sup>10</sup>The third allotment of land went to the clans of the tribe of Zebulun.

The boundary of Zebulun's homeland started at Sarid.

<sup>11</sup>From there it went west, going past Maralah, touching Dabbesheth, and proceeding to the brook east of Jokneam. <sup>12</sup>In the other direction, the boundary went east from Sarid to the border of Kisloth-tabor, and from there to Daberath and up to Japhia. <sup>13</sup>Then it continued east to Gath-hepher, Eth-kazin, and Rimmon and turned toward Neah. <sup>14</sup>The northern boundary of Zebulun passed Hannathon and ended at the valley of Iphtah-el. <sup>15</sup>The towns in these areas included Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem—twelve towns with their surrounding villages.

The Land Given to Issachar

included these towns and their surrounding villages.

The Land Given to Asher

<sup>25</sup>Its boundaries included these towns: Helkath, Hali, Beten, Acshaph, <sup>26</sup>Allammelech, Amad, and Mishal. The boundary on the west touched Carmel and Shihor-libnath, <sup>27</sup>then it turned east toward Beth-dagon, and ran as far as Zebulun in the valley of Iphtah-el, going north to Beth-emek and Neiel. It then continued north to Cabul, <sup>28</sup>Abdon,* Rehob, Hammon, Kanah, and as far as Greater Sidon. <sup>29</sup>Then the boundary turned toward Ramah and the fortress of Tyre, where it turned toward Hosah and came to the Mediterranean Sea.* The territory also included Mehebel, Aczib, <sup>30</sup>Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob—twenty-two towns with their surrounding villages.

The Land Given to Naphtali

<sup>32</sup>The sixth allotment of land went to the clans of the tribe of Naphtali.

and as far as Lakkum, ending at the Jordan River.<sup>34</sup> The western boundary ran past Aznoth-tabor, then to Hukkok, and touched the border of Zebulun in the south, the border of Asher on the west, and the Jordan River* on the east.<sup>35</sup> The fortified towns included in this territory were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Kinnereth,<sup>36</sup> Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,<sup>37</sup> Kedesh, Edrei, En-hazor,<sup>38</sup> Yiron, Migdal-el, Horem, Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh—nineteen towns with their surrounding villages.

The Land Given to Dan

<sup>47</sup>But the tribe of Dan had trouble taking possession of their land,* so they attacked the town of Laish.* They captured it, slaughtered its people, and settled there. They renamed the town Dan after their ancestor.

<sup>48</sup>The homeland allocated to the clans of the tribe of Dan included these towns and their surrounding villages.

The Land Given to Joshua

<sup>49</sup>After all the land was divided among the tribes, the Israelites gave a piece of land to Joshua as his allocation. <sup>50</sup>For the LORD had said he could have any town he wanted. He chose Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim. He rebuilt the town and lived there.

<sup>51</sup>These are the territories that Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the tribal leaders allocated as grants of land to the tribes of Israel by casting sacred lots in the presence of the LORD at the entrance of the Tabernacle* at Shiloh. So the division of the land was completed.

Joshua 20

The Cities of Refuge

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, <sup>2</sup>“Now tell the Israelites to designate the cities of refuge, as I instructed Moses. <sup>3</sup>Anyone who kills another person accidentally and unintentionally can run to one of these cities; they will be places of refuge from relatives seeking revenge for the person who was killed.

<sup>4</sup>“Upon reaching one of these cities, the one who caused the death will appear before the elders at the city gate and present his case. They must allow him to enter the city and give him a place to live among them. <sup>5</sup>If the relatives of the victim come to avenge the killing, the leaders must not release the slayer to them, for he killed the other person unintentionally and without previous hostility. <sup>6</sup>But the slayer must stay in that city and be tried by the local assembly, which will render a judgment. And he must continue to live in that city until the death of the high priest who was in office at the time of the accident. After that, he is free to return to his own home in the town from which he fled.”

<sup>7</sup>The following cities were designated as cities of refuge: Kedesh of Galilee, in the hill country of Naphtali; Shechem, in the hill country of Ephraim; and Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), in the hill country of Judah. <sup>8</sup>On the east side of the Jordan River, across from Jericho, the following cities were designated: Bezer, in the wilderness plain of the tribe of Reuben; Ramoth in Gilead, in the territory of the tribe of Gad; and Golan in Bashan, in the land of the tribe of Manasseh.<sup>9</sup>These cities were set apart for all the Israelites as well as the foreigners living among them. Anyone who accidentally killed another person could take refuge in one of these cities. In this way, they could escape being killed in revenge prior to standing trial before the local assembly.

Joshua 21

The Towns Given to the Levites

<sup>1</sup> Then the leaders of the tribe of Levi came to consult with Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders of the other tribes of Israel. <sup>2</sup>They came to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan and said, “The LORD commanded Moses to give us towns to live in and pasturelands for our livestock.” <sup>3</sup>So by the command of the LORD the people of Israel gave the Levites the following towns and pasturelands out of their own grants of land.

<sup>4</sup>The descendants of Aaron, who were members of the Kohathite clan within the tribe of Levi, were allotted thirteen towns that were originally assigned to the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin. <sup>5</sup>The other families of the Kohathite clan were allotted ten towns from the tribes of Ephraim, Dan, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>8</sup>So the Israelites obeyed the LORD’s command to Moses and assigned these towns and pasturelands to the Levites by casting sacred lots.

Judah and Simeon <sup>10</sup>to the descendants of Aaron, who were members of the Kohathite clan within the tribe of Levi, since the sacred lot fell to them first: <sup>11</sup>Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), in the hill country of Judah, along with its surrounding pasturelands. (Arba was an ancestor of Anak.) <sup>12</sup>But the open fields beyond the town and the surrounding villages were given to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his possession.

pasturelands were given to the rest of the Kohathite clan.

<sup>27</sup>The descendants of Gershon, another clan within the tribe of Levi, received the following towns with their pasturelands from the half-tribe of Manasseh: Golan in Bashan (a city of refuge for those who accidentally killed someone) and Beshterah—two towns.

<sup>32</sup>From the tribe of Naphtali they received the following towns with their pasturelands: Kedesh in Galilee (a city of refuge for those who accidentally killed someone), Hammothdor, and Kartan—three towns. <sup>33</sup>So in all, thirteen towns with their pasturelands were allotted to the clan of Gershon.

<sup>43</sup>So the LORD gave to Israel all the land he had sworn to give their ancestors, and they took possession of it and settled there. <sup>44</sup>And the LORD gave them rest on every side, just as he had solemnly promised their ancestors. None of their enemies could stand against them, for the LORD helped them conquer all their enemies. <sup>45</sup>Not a single one of all the good promises the LORD had given to the family of Israel was left unfulfilled; everything he had spoken came true.

Joshua 22

The Eastern Tribes Return Home

<sup>1</sup> Then Joshua called together the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. <sup>2</sup>He told them, “You have done as Moses, the servant of the LORD, commanded you, and you have obeyed every order I have given you. <sup>3</sup>During all this time you have not deserted the other tribes. You have been careful to obey the commands of the LORD your God right up to the present day. <sup>4</sup>And now the LORD your God has given the other tribes rest, as he promised them. So go back home to the land that Moses, the servant of the LORD, gave you as your possession on the east side of the Jordan River. <sup>5</sup>But be very careful to obey all the commands and the instructions that Moses gave to you. Love the LORD your God, walk in all his ways, obey his commands, hold firmly to him, and serve him with all your heart and all your soul.” <sup>6</sup>So Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went home.

<sup>7</sup>Moses had given the land of Bashan, east of the Jordan River, to the half-tribe of Manasseh. (The other half of the tribe was given land west of the Jordan.) As Joshua sent them away and blessed them, <sup>8</sup>he said to them, “Go back to your homes with the great wealth you have taken from your enemies—the vast herds of livestock, the silver, gold, bronze, and iron, and the large supply of clothing. Share the plunder with your relatives.”

<sup>9</sup>So the men of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh left the rest of Israel at Shiloh in the land of Canaan. They started the journey back to their own land of Gilead, the territory that belonged to them according to the LORD's command through Moses.

The Eastern Tribes Build an Altar

<sup>10</sup>But while they were still in Canaan, and when they came to a place called Geliloth* near the Jordan River, the men of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh stopped to build a large and imposing altar.

<sup>11</sup>The rest of Israel heard that the people of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh had built an altar at Geliloth at the edge of the land of Canaan, on the west side of the Jordan River. <sup>12</sup>So the whole community of Israel gathered at Shiloh and prepared to go to war against them. <sup>13</sup>First, however, they sent a delegation led by Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, to talk with the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. <sup>14</sup>In this delegation were ten leaders of Israel, one from each of the ten tribes, and each the head of his family within the clans of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>When they arrived in the land of Gilead, they said to the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, <sup>16</sup>“The whole community of the LORD demands to know why you are betraying the God of Israel. How could you turn away from the LORD and build an altar for yourselves in rebellion against him? <sup>17</sup>Was our sin at Peor not enough? To this day we are not fully cleansed of it, even after the plague that struck the entire community of the LORD. <sup>18</sup>And yet today you are turning away from following the LORD. If you rebel against the LORD today, he will be angry with all of us tomorrow.

<sup>19</sup>“If you need the altar because the land you possess is defiled, then join us in the LORD’s land, where the Tabernacle of the LORD is situated, and share our land with us. But do not rebel against the LORD or against us by building an altar other than the one true altar of the LORD our God. <sup>20</sup>Didn’t divine anger fall on the entire community of Israel when Achan, a member of the clan of Zerah, sinned by stealing the things set apart for the LORD*? He was not the only one who died because of his sin.”

<sup>21</sup> Then the people of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered the heads of the clans of Israel: <sup>22</sup>“The LORD, the Mighty One, is God! The LORD, the Mighty One, is God! He knows the truth, and may Israel know it, too! We have not built the altar in treacherous rebellion against the LORD. If we have done so, do not spare our lives this day. <sup>23</sup>If we have built an altar for ourselves to turn away from the LORD or to offer burnt offerings or grain offerings or peace offerings, may the LORD himself punish us.

<sup>24</sup>“The truth is, we have built this altar because we fear that in the future your descendants will say to ours, ‘What right do you have to worship the LORD, the God of Israel? <sup>25</sup>The LORD has placed the Jordan River as a barrier between our people and you people of Reuben and Gad. You have no claim to the LORD.’ So your descendants may prevent our descendants from worshipping the LORD.

<sup>26</sup>“So we decided to build the altar, not for burnt offerings or sacrifices,<sup>27</sup> but as a memorial. It will remind our descendants and your descendants that we, too, have the right to worship the LORD at his sanctuary with our burnt offerings, sacrifices, and peace offerings. Then your descendants will not be able to say to ours, ‘You have no claim to the LORD.’

<sup>28</sup>“If they say this, our descendants can reply, ‘Look at this copy of the LORD’s altar that our ancestors made. It is not for burnt offerings or sacrifices; it is a reminder of the relationship both of us have with the LORD.’<sup>29</sup> Far be it from us to rebel against the LORD or turn away from him by building our own altar for burnt offerings, grain offerings, or sacrifices. Only the altar of the LORD our God that stands in front of the Tabernacle may be used for that purpose.”

<sup>30</sup> When Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the community—the heads of the clans of Israel—heard this from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, they were satisfied. <sup>31</sup>Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, replied to them, “Today we know the LORD is among us because you have not committed this treachery against the LORD as we thought. Instead, you have rescued Israel from being destroyed by the hand of the LORD.”

<sup>32</sup> Then Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, and the other leaders left the tribes of Reuben and Gad in Gilead and returned to the land of Canaan to tell the Israelites what had happened. <sup>33</sup> And all the Israelites were satisfied and praised God and spoke no more of war against Reuben and Gad.

for they said, “It is a witness between us and them that the LORD is our God, too.”

Joshua 23

Joshua's Final Words to Israel

<sup>1</sup>The years passed, and the LORD had given the people of Israel rest from all their enemies. Joshua, who was now very old, <sup>2</sup>called together all the elders, leaders, judges, and officers of Israel. He said to them, “I am now a very old man. <sup>3</sup>You have seen everything the LORD your God has done for you during my lifetime. The LORD your God has fought for you against your enemies. <sup>4</sup>I have allotted to you as your homeland all the land of the nations yet unconquered, as well as the land of those we have already conquered—from the Jordan River to the Mediterranean Sea* in the west. <sup>5</sup>This land will be yours, for the LORD your God will himself drive out all the people living there now. You will take possession of their land, just as the LORD your God promised you.

<sup>6</sup>“So be very careful to follow everything Moses wrote in the Book of Instruction. Do not deviate from it, turning either to the right or to the left. <sup>7</sup>Make sure you do not associate with the other people still remaining in the land. Do not even mention the names of their gods, much less swear by them or serve them or worship them. <sup>8</sup>Rather, cling tightly to the LORD your God as you have done until now.

<sup>9</sup>“For the LORD has driven out great and powerful nations for you, and no one has yet been able to defeat you. <sup>10</sup>Each one of you will put to flight a thousand of the enemy, for the LORD your God fights for you, just as he has promised. <sup>11</sup>So be very careful to love the LORD your God.

<sup>12</sup>“But if you turn away from him and cling to the customs of the survivors of these nations remaining among you, and if you intermarry with them, <sup>13</sup>then know for certain that the LORD your God will no longer drive them out of your land. Instead, they will be a snare and a trap to you, a whip for your backs and thorny brambles in your eyes, and you will vanish from this good land the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>14</sup> “Soon I will die, going the way of everything on earth. Deep in your hearts you know that every promise of the LORD your God has come true. Not a single one has failed! <sup>15</sup>But as surely as the LORD your God has given you the good things he promised, he will also bring disaster on you if you disobey him. He will completely destroy you from this good land he has given you. <sup>16</sup>If you break the covenant of the LORD your God by worshiping and serving other gods, his anger will burn against you, and you will quickly vanish from the good land he has given you.”

Joshua 24

The LORD's Covenant Renewed

<sup>1</sup> Then Joshua summoned all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, including their elders, leaders, judges, and officers. So they came and presented themselves to God.

<sup>2</sup> Joshua said to the people, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Long ago your ancestors, including Terah, the father of Abraham and Nahor, lived beyond the Euphrates River,* and they worshiped other gods.<sup>3</sup> But I took your ancestor Abraham from the land beyond the Euphrates and led him into the land of Canaan. I gave him many descendants through his son Isaac.<sup>4</sup> To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. To Esau I gave the mountains of Seir, while Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> “Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I brought terrible plagues on Egypt; and afterward I brought you out as a free people.<sup>6</sup> But when your ancestors arrived at the Red Sea,* the Egyptians chased after you with chariots and charioteers.<sup>7</sup> When your ancestors cried out to the LORD, I put darkness between you and the Egyptians. I brought the sea crashing down on the Egyptians, drowning them. With your very own eyes you saw what I did. Then you lived in the wilderness for many years.

<sup>8</sup> “Finally, I brought you into the land of the Amorites on the east side of the Jordan. They fought against you, but I destroyed them before you. I gave you victory over them, and you took possession of their land.<sup>9</sup> Then Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, started a war against Israel. He summoned Balaam son of Beor to curse you,<sup>10</sup> but I would not listen to him. Instead, I made Balaam bless you, and so I rescued you from Balak.

<sup>11</sup>“When you crossed the Jordan River and came to Jericho, the men of Jericho fought against you, as did the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. But I gave you victory over them.<sup>12</sup> And I sent terror* ahead of you to drive out the two kings of the Amorites. It was not your swords or bows that brought you victory.<sup>13</sup> I gave you land you had not worked on, and I gave you towns you did not build—the towns where you are now living. I gave you vineyards and olive groves for food, though you did not plant them.

<sup>14</sup>“So fear the LORD and serve him wholeheartedly. Put away forever the idols your ancestors worshiped when they lived beyond the Euphrates River and in Egypt. Serve the LORD alone.<sup>15</sup> But if you refuse to serve the LORD, then choose today whom you will serve. Would you prefer the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates? Or will it be the gods of the Amorites in whose land you now live? But as for me and my family, we will serve the LORD.”

My Family Will Serve the Lord

<sup>16</sup>The people replied, “We would never abandon the LORD and serve other gods.<sup>17</sup>For the LORD our God is the one who rescued us and our ancestors from slavery in the land of Egypt. He performed mighty miracles before our very eyes. As we traveled through the wilderness among our enemies, he preserved us.<sup>18</sup>It was the LORD who drove out the Amorites and the other nations living here in the land. So we, too, will serve the LORD, for he alone is our God.”

<sup>19</sup>Then Joshua warned the people, “You are not able to serve the LORD, for he is a holy and jealous God. He will not forgive your rebellion and your sins.<sup>20</sup>If you abandon the LORD and serve other gods, he will turn against you and destroy you, even though he has been so good to you.”

<sup>21</sup>But the people answered Joshua, “No, we will serve the LORD!”

<sup>22</sup>“You are a witness to your own decision,” Joshua said. “You have chosen to serve the LORD.”

“Yes,” they replied, “we are witnesses to what we have said.”

<sup>23</sup>“All right then,” Joshua said, “destroy the idols among you, and turn your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel.”

<sup>24</sup>The people said to Joshua, “We will serve the LORD our God. We will obey him alone.”

<sup>25</sup>So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day at Shechem, committing them to follow the decrees and regulations of the LORD. <sup>26</sup>Joshua recorded these things in the Book of God’s Instructions. As a reminder of their agreement, he took a huge stone and rolled it beneath the terebinth tree beside the Tabernacle of the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>Joshua said to all the people, “This stone has heard everything the LORD said to us. It will be a witness to testify against you if you go back on your word to God.”

<sup>28</sup>Then Joshua sent all the people away to their own homelands.

Leaders Buried in the Promised Land

<sup>29</sup>After this, Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of 110. <sup>30</sup>They buried him in the land he had been allocated, at Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

<sup>31</sup>The people of Israel served the LORD throughout the lifetime of Joshua and of the elders who outlived him—those who had personally experienced all that the LORD had done for Israel.

<sup>32</sup>The bones of Joseph, which the Israelites had brought along with them when they left Egypt, were buried at Shechem, in the parcel of ground Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor for 100 pieces of silver.* This land was located in the territory allotted to the descendants of Joseph.

<sup>33</sup>Eleazar son of Aaron also died. He was buried in the hill country of Ephraim, in the town of Gibeah, which had been given to his son Phinehas.

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

Cycles of disobedience, conquest by other nations, then dramatic deliverances.

WHO WROTE IT?

Christian and Jewish traditions say the author was Samuel; it was probably written during David's reign.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

In the 1300s to the 1100s B.C.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

The period of the judges begins a generation after the people of Israel settled in the Promised Land and spans roughly 200 years.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

FOLLOWING GOD ISN'T SUPPOSED TO BE EASY.

In the book of Judges we see God's people facing immense challenges and surviving through tough conditions. God used fighters to lead his people. The judges weren't afraid to get their hands dirty.

NEED FOR DETERMINATION AND CONSISTENCY.

While many of us want to "keep our options open" and not be too committed to one thing, the book of Judges shows the consequences of failing to commit to God. Partial loyalty and partial obedience to God end up hurting everyone in the long run. The satisfying life is focused on one goal: living for the Lord.

Judges 1

Judah and Simeon Conquer the Land

<sup>3</sup> The men of Judah said to their relatives from the tribe of Simeon, “Join with us to fight against the Canaanites living in the territory allotted to us. Then we will help you conquer your territory.” So the men of Simeon went with Judah.

<sup>4</sup> When the men of Judah attacked, the LORD gave them victory over the Canaanites and Perizzites, and they killed 10,000 enemy warriors at the town of Bezek. <sup>5</sup> While at Bezek they encountered King Adoni-bezek and fought against him, and the Canaanites and Perizzites were defeated. <sup>6</sup> Adoni-bezek escaped, but the Israelites soon captured him and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

thumbs and big toes cut off, eating scraps from under my table. Now God has paid me back for what I did to them.” They took him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

<sup>8</sup>The men of Judah attacked Jerusalem and captured it, killing all its people and setting the city on fire. <sup>9</sup>Then they went down to fight the Canaanites living in the hill country, the Negev, and the western foothills.* <sup>10</sup>Judah marched against the Canaanites in Hebron (formerly called Kiriath-arba), defeating the forces of Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai.

<sup>11</sup>From there they went to fight against the people living in the town of Debir (formerly called Kiriath-sepher). <sup>12</sup>Caleb said, “I will give my daughter Acsah in marriage to the one who attacks and captures Kiriath-sepher.” <sup>13</sup>Othniel, the son of Caleb’s younger brother, Kenaz, was the one who conquered it, so Acsah became Othniel’s wife.

<sup>14</sup>When Acsah married Othniel, she urged him* to ask her father for a field. As she got down off her donkey, Caleb asked her, “What’s the matter?”

<sup>15</sup>She said, “Let me have another gift. You have already given me land in the Negev; now please give me springs of water, too.” So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

<sup>16</sup>When the tribe of Judah left Jericho—the city of palms—the Kenites, who were descendants of Moses’ father-in-law, traveled with them into the wilderness of Judah. They settled among the people there, near the town of Arad in the Negev.

<sup>17</sup>Then Judah joined with Simeon to fight against the Canaanites living in Zephath, and they completely destroyed* the town. So the town was named Hormah.* <sup>18</sup>In addition, Judah captured the towns of Gaza, Ashkelon, and Ekron, along with their surrounding territories.

Israel Fails to Conquer the Land

<sup>19</sup> The LORD was with the people of Judah, and they took possession of the hill country. But they failed to drive out the people living in the plains, who had iron chariots. <sup>20</sup>The town of Hebron was given to Caleb as Moses had promised. And Caleb drove out the people living there, who were descendants of the three sons of Anak.

<sup>21</sup>The tribe of Benjamin, however, failed to drive out the Jebusites, who were living in Jerusalem. So to this day the Jebusites live in Jerusalem among the people of Benjamin.

<sup>22</sup>The descendants of Joseph attacked the town of Bethel, and the LORD was with them. <sup>23</sup>They sent men to scout out Bethel (formerly known as Luz). <sup>24</sup>They confronted a man coming out of the town and said to him, "Show us a way into the town, and we will have mercy on you." <sup>25</sup>So he showed them a way in, and they killed everyone in the town except that man and his family. <sup>26</sup>Later the man moved to the land of the Hittites, where he built a town. He named it Luz, which is its name to this day.

<sup>27</sup>The tribe of Manasseh failed to drive out the people living in Beth-shan, *Taanach, Dor, Ibleam, Megiddo, and all their surrounding settlements, because the Canaanites were determined to stay in that region. <sup>28</sup>When the Israelites grew stronger, they forced the Canaanites to work as slaves, but they never did drive them completely out of the land.

<sup>29</sup>The tribe of Ephraim failed to drive out the Canaanites living in Gezer, so the Canaanites continued to live there among them.

<sup>30</sup>The tribe of Zebulun failed to drive out the residents of Kitron and Nahalol, so the Canaanites continued to live among them. But the Canaanites were forced to work as slaves for the people of Zebulun.

<sup>31</sup>The tribe of Asher failed to drive out the residents of Acco, Sidon, Ahlab, Aczib, Helbah, Aphik, and Rehob. <sup>32</sup>Instead, the people of Asher moved in among the Canaanites, who controlled the land, for they failed to drive them out.

<sup>33</sup>Likewise, the tribe of Naphtali failed to drive out the residents of Beth-shemesh and Beth-anath. Instead, they moved in among the Canaanites, who controlled the land. Nevertheless, the people of Beth-shemesh and Beth-anath were forced to work as slaves for the people of Naphtali.

<sup>34</sup>As for the tribe of Dan, the Amorites forced them back into the hill country and would not let them come down into the plains. <sup>35</sup>The Amorites were determined to stay in Mount Heres, Aijalon, and Shaalbim, but when the descendants of Joseph became stronger, they forced the Amorites to work as slaves. <sup>36</sup>The boundary of the Amorites ran from Scorpion Pass* to Sela and continued upward from there.

Judges 2

The LORD's Messenger Comes to Bokim

<sup>1</sup> The angel of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bokim and said to the Israelites, “I brought you out of Egypt into this land that I swore to give your ancestors, and I said I would never break my covenant with you. <sup>2</sup>For your part, you were not to make any covenants with the people living in this land; instead, you were to destroy their altars. But you disobeyed my command. Why did you do this? <sup>3</sup>So now I declare that I will no longer drive out the people living in your land. They will be thorns in your sides,* and their gods will be a constant temptation to you.”

<sup>4</sup>When the angel of the LORD finished speaking to all the Israelites, the people wept loudly. <sup>5</sup>So they called the place Bokim (which means “weeping”), and they offered sacrifices there to the LORD.

What the Bible Says about

Guilt

The Death of Joshua

<sup>6</sup>After Joshua sent the people away, each of the tribes left to take possession of the land allotted to them. <sup>7</sup>And the Israelites served the LORD throughout the lifetime of Joshua and the leaders who outlived him—those who had seen all the great things the LORD had done for Israel.

<sup>8</sup>Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of 110. <sup>9</sup>They buried him in the land he had been allocated, at Timnath-serah* in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

Israel Disobeys the LORD

<sup>10</sup>After that generation died, another generation grew up who did not acknowledge the LORD or remember the mighty things he had done for Israel.

<sup>11</sup>The Israelites did evil in the LORD's sight and served the images of Baal. <sup>12</sup>They abandoned the LORD, the God of their ancestors, who had brought them out of Egypt. They went after other gods, worshiping the gods of the people around them. And they angered the LORD. <sup>13</sup>They abandoned the LORD to serve Baal and the images of Ashtoreth. <sup>14</sup>This made the LORD burn with anger against Israel, so he handed them over to raiders who stole their possessions. He turned them over to their enemies all around, and they were no longer able to resist them. <sup>15</sup>Every time Israel went out to battle, the LORD fought against them, causing them to be defeated, just as he had warned. And the people were in great distress.

The LORD Rescues His People

<sup>16</sup>Then the LORD raised up judges to rescue the Israelites from their attackers. <sup>17</sup>Yet Israel did not listen to the judges but prostituted themselves by worshiping other gods. How quickly they turned away from the path of their ancestors, who had walked in obedience to the LORD's commands.

<sup>18</sup>Whenever the LORD raised up a judge over Israel, he was with that judge and rescued the people from their enemies throughout the judge's lifetime. For the LORD took pity on his people, who were burdened by oppression and suffering. <sup>19</sup>But when the judge died, the people returned to their corrupt ways, behaving worse than those who had lived before them. They went after other gods, serving and worshiping them. And they refused to give up their evil practices and stubborn ways.

<sup>20</sup>So the LORD burned with anger against Israel. He said, "Because these people have violated my covenant, which I made with their ancestors, and have ignored my commands, <sup>21</sup>I will no longer drive out the nations that Joshua left unconquered when he died. <sup>22</sup>I did this to test Israel—to see whether or not they would follow the ways of the LORD as their ancestors did." <sup>23</sup>That is why the LORD left those nations in place. He did not quickly drive them out or allow Joshua to conquer them all.

The Nations Left in Canaan

<sup>1</sup>These are the nations that the LORD left in the land to test those Israelites who had not experienced the wars of Canaan.

<sup>5</sup>So the people of Israel lived among the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, <sup>6</sup>and they intermarried with them. Israelite sons married their daughters, and Israelite daughters were given in marriage to their sons. And the Israelites served their gods.

Othniel Becomes Israel's Judge

<sup>7</sup>The Israelites did evil in the LORD's sight. They forgot about the LORD their God, and they served the images of Baal and the Asherah poles. <sup>8</sup>Then the LORD burned with anger against Israel, and he turned them over to King Cushan-rishathaim of Aram-naharaim.* And the Israelites served Cushan-rishathaim for eight years.

<sup>9</sup>But when the people of Israel cried out to the LORD for help, the LORD raised up a rescuer to save them. His name was Othniel, the son of Caleb's younger brother, Kenaz. <sup>10</sup>The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he became Israel's judge. He went to war against King Cushan-rishathaim of Aram, and the LORD gave Othniel victory over him. <sup>11</sup>So there was peace in the land for forty years. Then Othniel son of Kenaz died.

Ehud Becomes Israel's Judge

<sup>12</sup>Once again the Israelites did evil in the LORD's sight, and the LORD gave King Eglon of Moab control over Israel because of their evil. <sup>13</sup>Eglon enlisted the Ammonites and Amalekites as allies, and then he went out and defeated Israel, taking possession of Jericho, the city of palms. <sup>14</sup>And the Israelites served Eglon of Moab for eighteen years.

<sup>15</sup>But when the people of Israel cried out to the LORD for help, the LORD again raised up a rescuer to save them. His name was Ehud son of Gera, a left-handed man of the tribe of Benjamin. The Israelites sent Ehud to deliver their tribute money to King Eglon of Moab. <sup>16</sup>So Ehud made a double-edged dagger that was about a foot* long, and he strapped it to his right thigh, keeping it hidden under his clothing. <sup>17</sup>He brought the tribute money to Eglon, who was very fat.

<sup>18</sup>After delivering the payment, Ehud started home with those who had helped carry the tribute. <sup>19</sup>But when Ehud reached the stone idols near Gilgal, he turned back. He came to Eglon and said, "I have a secret message for you."

So the king commanded his servants, "Be quiet!" and he sent them all out of the room.

<sup>23</sup>Then Ehud closed and locked the doors of the room and escaped down the latrine.*

<sup>24</sup>After Ehud was gone, the king's servants returned and found the doors to the upstairs room locked. They thought he might be using the latrine in the room,<sup>25</sup>so they waited. But when the king didn't come out after a long delay, they became concerned and got a key. And when they opened the doors, they found their master dead on the floor.

<sup>26</sup>While the servants were waiting, Ehud escaped, passing the stone idols on his way to Seirah. <sup>27</sup>When he arrived in the hill country of Ephraim, Ehud sounded a call to arms. Then he led a band of Israelites down from the hills.

<sup>28</sup>"Follow me," he said, "for the LORD has given you victory over Moab your enemy." So they followed him. And the Israelites took control of the shallow crossings of the Jordan River across from Moab, preventing anyone from crossing.

<sup>29</sup>They attacked the Moabites and killed about 10,000 of their strongest and most able-bodied warriors. Not one of them escaped. <sup>30</sup>So Moab was conquered by Israel that day, and there was peace in the land for eighty years.

Shamgar Becomes Israel's Judge

Judges 4

Deborah Becomes Israel's Judge

<sup>1</sup>After Ehud's death, the Israelites again did evil in the LORD's sight. <sup>2</sup>So the LORD turned them over to King Jabin of Hazor, a Canaanite king. The commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-haggoyim. <sup>3</sup>Sisera, who had 900 iron chariots, ruthlessly oppressed the Israelites for twenty years. Then the people of Israel cried out to the LORD for help.

<sup>4</sup> Deborah, the wife of Lappidoth, was a prophet who was judging Israel at that time. <sup>5</sup>She would sit under the Palm of Deborah, between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites would go to her for judgment. <sup>6</sup>One day she sent for Barak son of Abinoam, who lived in Kedesh in the land of Naphtali. She said to him, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, commands you: Call out 10,000 warriors from the tribes of Naphtali and Zebulun at Mount Tabor. <sup>7</sup>And I will call out Sisera, commander of Jabin's army, along with his chariots and warriors, to the Kishon River. There I will give you victory over him."

Barak

<sup>8</sup>Barak told her, “I will go, but only if you go with me.”

<sup>9</sup>“Very well,” she replied, “I will go with you. But you will receive no honor in this venture, for the LORD’s victory over Sisera will be at the hands of a woman.” So Deborah went with Barak to Kedesh. <sup>10</sup>At Kedesh, Barak called together the tribes of Zebulun and Naphtali, and 10,000 warriors went up with him. Deborah also went with him.

<sup>12</sup>When Sisera was told that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor, <sup>13</sup>he called for all 900 of his iron chariots and all of his warriors, and they marched from Harosheth-haggoyim to the Kishon River.

<sup>14</sup>Then Deborah said to Barak, “Get ready! This is the day the LORD will give you victory over Sisera, for the LORD is marching ahead of you.” So Barak led his 10,000 warriors down the slopes of Mount Tabor into battle. <sup>15</sup>When Barak attacked, the LORD threw Sisera and all his chariots and warriors into a panic. Sisera leaped down from his chariot and escaped on foot.<sup>16</sup> Then Barak chased the chariots and the enemy army all the way to Harosheth-haggoyim, killing all of Sisera's warriors. Not a single one was left alive.

<sup>17</sup>Meanwhile, Sisera ran to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, because Heber's family was on friendly terms with King Jabin of Hazor. <sup>18</sup>Jael went out to meet Sisera and said to him, "Come into my tent, sir. Come in. Don't be afraid." So he went into her tent, and she covered him with a blanket.

<sup>19</sup>"Please give me some water," he said. "I'm thirsty." So she gave him some milk from a leather bag and covered him again.

<sup>20</sup>"Stand at the door of the tent," he told her. "If anybody comes and asks you if there is anyone here, say no."

<sup>21</sup>But when Sisera fell asleep from exhaustion, Jael quietly crept up to him with a hammer and tent peg in her hand. Then she drove the tent peg through his temple and into the ground, and so he died.

<sup>22</sup>When Barak came looking for Sisera, Jael went out to meet him. She said, "Come, and I will show you the man you are looking for." So he followed her into the tent and found Sisera lying there dead, with the tent peg through his temple.

<sup>23</sup>So on that day Israel saw God defeat Jabin, the Canaanite king. <sup>24</sup>And from that time on Israel became stronger and stronger against King Jabin until they finally destroyed him.

Judges 5

The Song of Deborah

and the people gladly followed.
Praise the LORD!

<sup>3</sup>“Listen, you kings!
Pay attention, you mighty rulers!
For I will sing to the LORD.
I will make music to the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>“LORD, when you set out from Seir and marched across the fields of Edom, the earth trembled,
and the cloudy skies poured down rain.
<sup>5</sup>The mountains quaked in the presence of the LORD, the God of Mount Sinai—in the presence of the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>“In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, and in the days of Jael, people avoided the main roads, and travelers stayed on winding pathways.

<sup>7</sup> There were few people left in the villages of Israel*— until Deborah arose as a mother for Israel.

<sup>8</sup> When Israel chose new gods, war erupted at the city gates.
Yet not a shield or spear could be seen among forty thousand warriors in Israel!

<sup>9</sup> My heart is with the commanders of Israel, with those who volunteered for war.
Praise the LORD!

<sup>10</sup> “Consider this, you who ride on fine donkeys, you who sit on fancy saddle blankets, and you who walk along the road.

<sup>11</sup> Listen to the village musicians*
gathered at the watering holes.
They recount the righteous victories of the LORD and the victories of his villagers in Israel.
Then the people of the LORD marched down to the city gates.

<sup>12</sup> “Wake up, Deborah, wake up!
Wake up, wake up, and sing a song!
Arise, Barak!
Lead your captives away, son of Abinoam!

<sup>13</sup> “Down from Tabor marched the few against the nobles.
The people of the LORD marched down against mighty warriors.

<sup>14</sup>They came down from Ephraim—a land that once belonged to the Amalekites;
they followed you, Benjamin, with your troops.
From Makir the commanders marched down;
from Zebulun came those who carry a commander's staff.

They followed Barak, rushing into the valley.
But in the tribe of Reuben
there was great indecision.

<sup>16</sup>Why did you sit at home among the sheepfolds—to hear the shepherds whistle for their flocks?
Yes, in the tribe of Reuben
there was great indecision.

<sup>17</sup>Gilead remained east of the Jordan.
And why did Dan stay home?
Asher sat unmoved at the seashore, remaining in his harbors.

<sup>18</sup>But Zebulun risked his life, as did Naphtali, on the heights of the battlefield.

<sup>19</sup>“The kings of Canaan came and fought, at Taanach near Megiddo's springs, but they carried off no silver treasures.

<sup>20</sup>The stars fought from heaven.
The stars in their orbits fought against Sisera.

that ancient torrent, the Kishon.
March on with courage, my soul!

<sup>22</sup>Then the horses' hooves hammered the ground, the galloping, galloping of Sisera's mighty steeds.

<sup>23</sup>'Let the people of Meroz be cursed,' said the angel of the LORD.

'Let them be utterly cursed, because they did not come to help the LORD—to help the LORD against the mighty warriors.'

<sup>24</sup>'Most blessed among women is Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite.
May she be blessed above all women who live in tents.

<sup>25</sup>Sisera asked for water,
and she gave him milk.
In a bowl fit for nobles,
she brought him yogurt.

and with her right hand for the workman's hammer.
She struck Sisera with the hammer, crushing his head.
With a shattering blow, she pierced his temples.

<sup>27</sup>He sank, he fell,
he lay still at her feet.
And where he sank,
there he died.

<sup>28</sup>'From the window Sisera's mother looked out.
Through the window she watched for his return, saying,
'Why is his chariot so long in coming?
Why don't we hear the sound of chariot wheels?'

<sup>29</sup>“Her wise women answer, and she repeats these words to herself:
<sup>30</sup>“They must be dividing the captured plunder—with a woman or two for every man.
There will be colorful robes for Sisera, and colorful, embroidered robes for me.
Yes, the plunder will include colorful robes embroidered on both sides.’

<sup>31</sup>“LORD, may all your enemies die like Sisera!
But may those who love you rise like the sun in all its power!”

Then there was peace in the land for forty years.

Gideon

Gideon Becomes Israel's Judge

<sup>1</sup>The Israelites did evil in the LORD's sight. So the LORD handed them over to the Midianites for seven years. <sup>2</sup>The Midianites were so cruel that the Israelites made hiding places for themselves in the mountains, caves, and strongholds. <sup>3</sup>Whenever the Israelites planted their crops, marauders from Midian, Amalek, and the people of the east would attack Israel, <sup>4</sup>camping in the land and destroying crops as far away as Gaza. They left the Israelites with nothing to eat, taking all the sheep, goats, cattle, and donkeys. <sup>5</sup>These enemy hordes, coming with their livestock and tents, were as thick as locusts; they arrived on droves of camels too numerous to count. And they stayed until the land was stripped bare. <sup>6</sup>So Israel was reduced to starvation by the Midianites. Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD for help.

<sup>7</sup>When they cried out to the LORD because of Midian, <sup>8</sup>the LORD sent a prophet to the Israelites. He said, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I brought you up out of slavery in Egypt. <sup>9</sup>I rescued you from the Egyptians and from all who oppressed you. I drove out your enemies and gave you their land. <sup>10</sup>I told you, ‘I am the LORD your God. You must not worship the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you now live.’ But you have not listened to me.”

<sup>13</sup>“Sir,” Gideon replied, “if the LORD is with us, why has all this happened to us? And where are all the miracles our ancestors told us about? Didn’t they say, ‘The LORD brought us up out of Egypt’? But now the LORD has abandoned us and handed us over to the Midianites.”

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD turned to him and said, “Go with the strength you have, and rescue Israel from the Midianites. I am sending you!”

<sup>15</sup>“But Lord,” Gideon replied, “how can I rescue Israel? My clan is the weakest in the whole tribe of Manasseh, and I am the least in my entire family!”

<sup>16</sup>The LORD said to him, “I will be with you. And you will destroy the Midianites as if you were fighting against one man.”

<sup>17</sup>Gideon replied, “If you are truly going to help me, show me a sign to prove that it is really the LORD speaking to me. <sup>18</sup>Don’t go away until I come back and bring my offering to you.”

He answered, “I will stay here until you return.”

<sup>19</sup>Gideon hurried home. He cooked a young goat, and with a basket* of flour he baked some bread without yeast. Then, carrying the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot, he brought them out and presented them to the angel, who was under the great tree.

<sup>20</sup>The angel of God said to him, “Place the meat and the unleavened bread on this rock, and pour the broth over it.” And Gideon did as he was told. <sup>21</sup>Then the angel of the LORD touched the meat and bread with the tip of the staff in his hand, and fire flamed up from the rock and consumed all he had brought. And the angel of the LORD disappeared.

<sup>22</sup> When Gideon realized that it was the angel of the LORD, he cried out, “Oh, Sovereign LORD, I’m doomed! I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face!”

<sup>23</sup>“It is all right,” the LORD replied. “Do not be afraid. You will not die.” <sup>24</sup>And Gideon built an altar to the LORD there and named it Yahweh-Shalom (which means “the LORD is peace”). The altar remains in Ophrah in the land of the clan of Abiezer to this day.

<sup>25</sup>That night the LORD said to Gideon, “Take the second bull from your father’s herd, the one that is seven years old. Pull down your father’s altar to Baal, and cut down the Asherah pole standing beside it. <sup>26</sup>Then build an altar to the LORD your God here on this hilltop sanctuary, laying the stones carefully.

Sacrifice the bull as a burnt offering on the altar, using as fuel the wood of the Asherah pole you cut down.”

<sup>27</sup>So Gideon took ten of his servants and did as the LORD had commanded. But he did it at night because he was afraid of the other members of his father’s household and the people of the town.

<sup>28</sup>Early the next morning, as the people of the town began to stir, someone discovered that the altar of Baal had been broken down and that the Asherah pole beside it had been cut down. In their place a new altar had been built, and on it were the remains of the bull that had been sacrificed. <sup>29</sup>The people said to each other, “Who did this?” And after asking around and making a careful search, they learned that it was Gideon, the son of Joash.

<sup>30</sup>“Bring out your son,” the men of the town demanded of Joash. “He must die for destroying the altar of Baal and for cutting down the Asherah pole.”

<sup>31</sup>But Joash shouted to the mob that confronted him, “Why are you defending Baal? Will you argue his case? Whoever pleads his case will be put to death by morning! If Baal truly is a god, let him defend himself and destroy the one who broke down his altar!” <sup>32</sup>From then on Gideon was called Jerub-baal, which means “Let Baal defend himself,” because he broke down Baal’s altar.

Gideon Asks for a Sign

<sup>33</sup>Soon afterward the armies of Midian, Amalek, and the people of the east formed an alliance against Israel and crossed the Jordan, camping in the valley of Jezreel. <sup>34</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD took possession of Gideon. He blew a ram's horn as a call to arms, and the men of the clan of Abiezer came to him. <sup>35</sup>He also sent messengers throughout Manasseh, Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, summoning their warriors, and all of them responded.

<sup>36</sup>Then Gideon said to God, "If you are truly going to use me to rescue Israel as you promised, <sup>37</sup>prove it to me in this way. I will put a wool fleece on the threshing floor tonight. If the fleece is wet with dew in the morning but the ground is dry, then I will know that you are going to help me rescue Israel as you promised." <sup>38</sup>And that is just what happened. When Gideon got up early the next morning, he squeezed the fleece and wrung out a whole bowlful of water.

<sup>39</sup>Then Gideon said to God, "Please don't be angry with me, but let me make one more request. Let me use the fleece for one more test. This time let the fleece remain dry while the ground around it is wet with dew." <sup>40</sup>So that night God did as Gideon asked. The fleece was dry in the morning, but the ground was covered with dew.

Judges 7

Gideon Defeats the Midianites

<sup>1</sup> So Jerub-baal (that is, Gideon) and his army got up early and went as far as the spring of Harod. The armies of Midian were camped north of them in the valley near the hill of Moreh. <sup>2</sup>The LORD said to Gideon, “You have too many warriors with you. If I let all of you fight the Midianites, the Israelites will boast to me that they saved themselves by their own strength. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, tell the people, ‘Whoever is timid or afraid may leave this mountain* and go home.’” So 22,000 of them went home, leaving only 10,000 who were willing to fight.

<sup>4</sup> But the LORD told Gideon, “There are still too many! Bring them down to the spring, and I will test them to determine who will go with you and who will not.” <sup>5</sup>When Gideon took his warriors down to the water, the LORD told him, “Divide the men into two groups. In one group put all those who cup water in their hands and lap it up with their tongues like dogs. In the other group put all those who kneel down and drink with their mouths in the stream.” <sup>6</sup>Only 300 of the men drank from their hands. All the others got down on their knees and drank with their mouths in the stream.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD told Gideon, “With these 300 men I will rescue you and give you victory over the Midianites. Send all the others home.” <sup>8</sup> So Gideon collected the provisions and rams’ horns of the other warriors and sent them home. But he kept the 300 men with him.

The Midianite camp was in the valley just below Gideon. <sup>9</sup>That night the LORD said, “Get up! Go down into the Midianite camp, for I have given you victory over them! <sup>10</sup>But if you are afraid to attack, go down to the camp with your servant Purah. <sup>11</sup>Listen to what the Midianites are saying, and you will be greatly encouraged. Then you will be eager to attack.”

So Gideon took Purah and went down to the edge of the enemy camp. <sup>12</sup>The armies of Midian, Amalek, and the people of the east had settled in the valley like a swarm of locusts. Their camels were like grains of sand on the seashore—too many to count! <sup>13</sup>Gideon crept up just as a man was telling his companion about a dream. The man said, “I had this dream, and in my dream a loaf of barley bread came tumbling down into the Midianite camp. It hit a tent, turned it over, and knocked it flat!”

<sup>14</sup>His companion answered, “Your dream can mean only one thing—God has given Gideon son of Joash, the Israelite, victory over Midian and all its allies!”

<sup>15</sup>When Gideon heard the dream and its interpretation, he bowed in worship before the LORD.* Then he returned to the Israelite camp and shouted, “Get up! For the LORD has given you victory over the Midianite hordes!” <sup>16</sup>He divided the 300 men into three groups and gave each man a ram’s horn and a clay jar with a torch in it.

<sup>17</sup>Then he said to them, “Keep your eyes on me. When I come to the edge of the camp, do just as I do. <sup>18</sup>As soon as I and those with me blow the rams’ horns, blow your horns, too, all around the entire camp, and shout, ‘For the LORD and for Gideon!’”

<sup>19</sup>It was just after midnight,* after the changing of the guard, when Gideon and the 100 men with him reached the edge of the Midianite camp. Suddenly, they blew the rams’ horns and broke their clay jars.<sup>20</sup>Then all three groups blew their horns and broke their jars. They held the blazing torches in their left hands and the horns in their right hands, and they all shouted, “A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!”

<sup>21</sup>Each man stood at his position around the camp and watched as all the Midianites rushed around in a panic, shouting as they ran to escape.<sup>22</sup>When the 300 Israelites blew their rams’ horns, the LORD caused the warriors in the camp to fight against each other with their swords. Those who were not killed fled to places as far away as Beth-shittah near Zererah and to the border of Abel-meholah near Tabbath.

So all the men of Ephraim did as they were told.<sup>25</sup>They captured Oreb and Zeeb, the two Midianite commanders, killing Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb. And they continued to chase the Midianites. Afterward the Israelites brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon, who was by the Jordan River.

What the Bible Says about
Leadership and Influence

Judges 8

Gideon Kills Zebah and Zalmunna

<sup>1</sup>Then the people of Ephraim asked Gideon, “Why have you treated us this way? Why didn’t you send for us when you first went out to fight the Midianites?” And they argued heatedly with Gideon.

<sup>2</sup>But Gideon replied, “What have I accomplished compared to you? Aren’t even the leftover grapes of Ephraim’s harvest better than the entire crop of my little clan of Abiezer? <sup>3</sup>God gave you victory over Oreb and Zeeb, the commanders of the Midianite army. What have I accomplished compared to that?” When the men of Ephraim heard Gideon’s answer, their anger subsided.

<sup>4</sup>Gideon then crossed the Jordan River with his 300 men, and though exhausted, they continued to chase the enemy. <sup>5</sup>When they reached Succoth, Gideon asked the leaders of the town, “Please give my warriors some food. They are very tired. I am chasing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.”

<sup>7</sup>So Gideon said, “After the LORD gives me victory over Zebah and Zalmunna, I will return and tear your flesh with the thorns and briars from the wilderness.”

<sup>8</sup>From there Gideon went up to Peniel* and again asked for food, but he got the same answer. <sup>9</sup>So he said to the people of Peniel, “After I return in victory, I will tear down this tower.”

<sup>10</sup>By this time Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with 15,000 warriors—all that remained of the allied armies of the east, for 120,000 had already been killed. <sup>11</sup>Gideon circled around by the caravan route east of Nobah and Jogbehah, taking the Midianite army by surprise. <sup>12</sup>Zebah and Zalmunna, the two Midianite kings, fled, but Gideon chased them down and captured all their warriors.

<sup>13</sup>After this, Gideon returned from the battle by way of Heres Pass. <sup>14</sup>There he captured a young man from Succoth and demanded that he write down the names of all the seventy-seven officials and elders in the town. <sup>15</sup>Gideon then returned to Succoth and said to the leaders, “Here are Zebah and Zalmunna. When we were here before, you taunted me, saying, ‘Catch Zebah and Zalmunna first, and then we will feed your exhausted army.’” <sup>16</sup>Then Gideon took the elders of the town and taught them a lesson, punishing them with thorns and briers from the wilderness. <sup>17</sup>He also tore down the tower of Peniel and killed all the men in the town.

“Like you,” they replied. “They all had the look of a king’s son.”

<sup>19</sup>“They were my brothers, the sons of my own mother!” Gideon exclaimed. “As surely as the LORD lives, I wouldn’t kill you if you hadn’t killed them.”

<sup>20</sup>Turning to Jether, his oldest son, he said, “Kill them!” But Jether did not draw his sword, for he was only a boy and was afraid.

<sup>21</sup>Then Zebah and Zalmunna said to Gideon, “Be a man! Kill us yourself!” So Gideon killed them both and took the royal ornaments from the necks of their camels.

Gideon’s Sacred Ephod

<sup>22</sup>Then the Israelites said to Gideon, “Be our ruler! You and your son and your grandson will be our rulers, for you have rescued us from Midian.”

<sup>23</sup>But Gideon replied, “I will not rule over you, nor will my son. The LORD will rule over you! <sup>24</sup>However, I do have one request—that each of you give me an earring from the plunder you collected from your fallen enemies.” (The enemies, being Ishmaelites, all wore gold earrings.)

<sup>25</sup>“Gladly!” they replied. They spread out a cloak, and each one threw in a gold earring he had gathered from the plunder. <sup>26</sup>The weight of the gold earrings was forty-three pounds,* not including the royal ornaments and pendants, the purple clothing worn by the kings of Midian, or the chains around the necks of their camels.

<sup>27</sup>Gideon made a sacred ephod from the gold and put it in Ophrah, his hometown. But soon all the Israelites prostituted themselves by worshiping it, and it became a trap for Gideon and his family.

<sup>28</sup>That is the story of how the people of Israel defeated Midian, which never recovered. Throughout the rest of Gideon’s lifetime—about forty years—there was peace in the land.

<sup>29</sup>Then Gideon* son of Joash returned home.<sup>30</sup>He had seventy sons born to him, for he had many wives.<sup>31</sup>He also had a concubine in Shechem, who gave birth to a son, whom he named Abimelech.<sup>32</sup>Gideon died when he was very old, and he was buried in the grave of his father, Joash, at Ophrah in the land of the clan of Abiezer.

<sup>33</sup>As soon as Gideon died, the Israelites prostituted themselves by worshiping the images of Baal, making Baal-berith their god.<sup>34</sup>They forgot the LORD their God, who had rescued them from all their enemies surrounding them.<sup>35</sup>Nor did they show any loyalty to the family of Jerub-baal (that is, Gideon), despite all the good he had done for Israel.

Judges 9

Abimelech Rules over Shechem

<sup>1</sup> One day Gideon's * son Abimelech went to Shechem to visit his uncles—his mother's brothers. He said to them and to the rest of his mother's family, <sup>2</sup>“Ask the leading citizens of Shechem whether they want to be ruled by all seventy of Gideon's sons or by one man. And remember that I am your own flesh and blood!”

<sup>3</sup> So Abimelech's uncles gave his message to all the citizens of Shechem on his behalf. And after listening to this proposal, the people of Shechem decided in favor of Abimelech because he was their relative. <sup>4</sup> They gave him seventy silver coins from the temple of Baal-berith, which he used to hire some reckless troublemakers who agreed to follow him. <sup>5</sup> He went to his father's home at Ophrah, and there, on one stone, they killed all seventy of his half brothers, the sons of Gideon. * But the youngest brother, Jotham, escaped and hid.

<sup>6</sup> Then all the leading citizens of Shechem and Beth-millo called a meeting under the oak beside the pillar * at Shechem and made Abimelech their king.

Jotham's Parable

<sup>7</sup> When Jotham heard about this, he climbed to the top of Mount Gerizim and shouted, “Listen to me, citizens of Shechem!

Listen to me if you want God to listen to you!

<sup>8</sup>Once upon a time the trees decided to choose a king.
First they said to the olive tree,
‘Be our king!’

<sup>9</sup>But the olive tree refused, saying, ‘Should I quit producing the olive oil that blesses both God and people, just to wave back and forth over the trees?’

<sup>10</sup>“Then they said to the fig tree,
‘You be our king!’

<sup>11</sup>But the fig tree also refused, saying, ‘Should I quit producing my sweet fruit
just to wave back and forth over the trees?’

<sup>12</sup>“Then they said to the grapevine,
‘You be our king!’

<sup>13</sup>But the grapevine also refused, saying, ‘Should I quit producing the wine that cheers both God and people,
just to wave back and forth over the trees?’

<sup>14</sup>“Then all the trees finally turned to the thornbush and said, ‘Come, you be our king!’

<sup>15</sup>And the thornbush replied to the trees,
‘If you truly want to make me your king, come and take shelter in my shade.

If not, let fire come out from me and devour the cedars of Lebanon.”

<sup>16</sup>Jotham continued, “Now make sure you have acted honorably and in good faith by making Abimelech your king, and that you have done right by Gideon and all of his descendants. Have you treated him with the honor he deserves for all he accomplished? <sup>17</sup>For he fought for you and risked his life when he rescued you from the Midianites. <sup>18</sup>But today you have revolted against my father and his descendants, killing his seventy sons on one stone. And you have chosen his slave woman’s son, Abimelech, to be your king just because he is your relative.

<sup>19</sup>“If you have acted honorably and in good faith toward Gideon and his descendants today, then may you find joy in Abimelech, and may he find joy in you. <sup>20</sup>But if you have not acted in good faith, then may fire come out from Abimelech and devour the leading citizens of Shechem and Beth-millo; and may fire come out from the citizens of Shechem and Beth-millo and devour Abimelech!”

<sup>21</sup>Then Jotham escaped and lived in Beer because he was afraid of his brother Abimelech.

Shechem Rebels against Abimelech

<sup>22</sup>After Abimelech had ruled over Israel for three years, <sup>23</sup>God sent a spirit that stirred up trouble between Abimelech and the leading citizens of Shechem, and they revolted. <sup>24</sup>God was punishing Abimelech for murdering Gideon’s seventy sons, and the citizens of Shechem for supporting him in this treachery of murdering his brothers.<sup>25</sup>The citizens of Shechem set an ambush for Abimelech on the hilltops and robbed everyone who passed that way. But someone warned Abimelech about their plot.

<sup>26</sup>One day Gaal son of Ebed moved to Shechem with his brothers and gained the confidence of the leading citizens of Shechem.<sup>27</sup>During the annual harvest festival at Shechem, held in the temple of the local god, the wine flowed freely, and everyone began cursing Abimelech.<sup>28</sup>“Who is Abimelech?” Gaal shouted. “He’s not a true son of Shechem,* so why should we be his servants? He’s merely the son of Gideon, and this Zebul is merely his deputy. Serve the true sons of Hamor, the founder of Shechem. Why should we serve Abimelech?”<sup>29</sup>If I were in charge here, I would get rid of Abimelech. I would say* to him, ‘Get some soldiers, and come out and fight!’”

<sup>30</sup>But when Zebul, the leader of the city, heard what Gaal was saying, he was furious.<sup>31</sup>He sent messengers to Abimelech in Arumah,* telling him, “Gaal son of Ebed and his brothers have come to live in Shechem, and now they are inciting the city to rebel against you.<sup>32</sup>Come by night with an army and hide out in the fields.<sup>33</sup>In the morning, as soon as it is daylight, attack the city. When Gaal and those who are with him come out against you, you can do with them as you wish.”

<sup>34</sup>So Abimelech and all his men went by night and split into four groups, stationing themselves around Shechem.<sup>35</sup>Gaal was standing at the city gates when Abimelech and his army came out of hiding.<sup>36</sup>When Gaal saw them, he said to Zebul,

“Look, there are people coming down from the hilltops!”

Zebul replied, “It’s just the shadows on the hills that look like men.”

<sup>37</sup>But again Gaal said, “No, people are coming down from the hills.* And another group is coming down the road past the Diviners’ Oak.*”

<sup>38</sup>Then Zebul turned on him and asked, “Now where is that big mouth of yours? Wasn’t it you that said, ‘Who is Abimelech, and why should we be his servants?’ The men you mocked are right outside the city! Go out and fight them!”

<sup>39</sup>So Gaal led the leading citizens of Shechem into battle against Abimelech. <sup>40</sup>But Abimelech chased him, and many of Shechem’s men were wounded and fell along the road as they retreated to the city gate. <sup>41</sup>Abimelech returned to Arumah, and Zebul drove Gaal and his brothers out of Shechem.

<sup>42</sup>The next day the people of Shechem went out into the fields to battle. When Abimelech heard about it, <sup>43</sup>he divided his men into three groups and set an ambush in the fields. When Abimelech saw the people coming out of the city, he and his men jumped up from their hiding places and attacked them. <sup>44</sup>Abimelech and his group stormed the city gate to keep the men of Shechem from getting back in, while Abimelech’s other two groups cut them down in the fields. <sup>45</sup>The battle went on all day before Abimelech finally captured the city. He killed the people, leveled the city, and scattered salt all over the ground.

<sup>46</sup>When the leading citizens who lived in the tower of Shechem heard what had happened, they ran and hid in the temple of Baal-berith.* <sup>47</sup>Someone reported to Abimelech that the citizens had gathered in the temple,<sup>48</sup>so he led his forces to Mount Zalmon. He took an ax and chopped some branches from a tree, then put them on his shoulder. “Quick, do as I have done!” he told his men.<sup>49</sup>So each of them cut down some branches, following Abimelech’s example. They piled the branches against the walls of the temple and set them on fire. So all the people who had lived in the tower of Shechem died—about 1,000 men and women.

<sup>50</sup>Then Abimelech attacked the town of Thebez and captured it.<sup>51</sup>But there was a strong tower inside the town, and all the men and women—the entire population—fled to it. They barricaded themselves in and climbed up to the roof of the tower.<sup>52</sup>Abimelech followed them to attack the tower. But as he prepared to set fire to the entrance,<sup>53</sup>a woman on the roof dropped a millstone that landed on Abimelech’s head and crushed his skull.

<sup>54</sup>He quickly said to his young armor bearer, “Draw your sword and kill me! Don’t let it be said that a woman killed Abimelech!” So the young man ran him through with his sword, and he died.<sup>55</sup>When Abimelech’s men saw that he was dead, they disbanded and returned to their homes.

<sup>56</sup>In this way, God punished Abimelech for the evil he had done against his father by murdering his seventy brothers.<sup>57</sup>God also punished the men of Shechem for all their evil. So the curse of Jotham son of Gideon was fulfilled.

Judges 10

Tola Becomes Israel's Judge

<sup>1</sup> After Abimelech died, Tola son of Puah, son of Dodo, was the next person to rescue Israel. He was from the tribe of Issachar but lived in the town of Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim. <sup>2</sup>He judged Israel for twenty-three years. When he died, he was buried in Shamir.

Jair Becomes Israel's Judge

<sup>3</sup>After Tola died, Jair from Gilead judged Israel for twenty-two years. <sup>4</sup>His thirty sons rode around on thirty donkeys, and they owned thirty towns in the land of Gilead, which are still called the Towns of Jair.* <sup>5</sup>When Jair died, he was buried in Kamon.

The Ammonites Oppress Israel

<sup>6</sup>Again the Israelites did evil in the LORD's sight. They served the images of Baal and Ashtoreth, and the gods of Aram, Sidon, Moab, Ammon, and Philistia. They abandoned the LORD and no longer served him at all. <sup>7</sup>So the LORD burned with anger against Israel, and he turned them over to the Philistines and the Ammonites, <sup>8</sup>who began to oppress them that year. For eighteen years they oppressed all the Israelites east of the Jordan River in the land of the Amorites (that is, in Gilead). <sup>9</sup>The Ammonites also crossed to the west side of the Jordan and attacked Judah, Benjamin, and Ephraim.

The Israelites were in great distress. <sup>10</sup>Finally, they cried out to the LORD for help, saying, “We have sinned against you because we have abandoned you as our God and have served the images of Baal.”

<sup>11</sup>The LORD replied, “Did I not rescue you from the Egyptians, the Amorites, the Ammonites, the Philistines, <sup>12</sup>the Sidonians, the Amalekites, and the Maonites? When they oppressed you, you cried out to me for help, and I rescued you. <sup>13</sup>Yet you have abandoned me and served other gods. So I will not rescue you anymore. <sup>14</sup>Go and cry out to the gods you have chosen! Let them rescue you in your hour of distress!”

<sup>15</sup>But the Israelites pleaded with the LORD and said, “We have sinned. Punish us as you see fit, only rescue us today from our enemies.” <sup>16</sup>Then the Israelites put aside their foreign gods and served the LORD. And he was grieved by their misery.

<sup>17</sup>At that time the armies of Ammon had gathered for war and were camped in Gilead, and the people of Israel assembled and camped at Mizpah. <sup>18</sup>The leaders of Gilead said to each other, “Whoever attacks the Ammonites first will become ruler over all the people of Gilead.”

Jephthah

Judges 11

Jephthah Becomes Israel's Judge

<sup>1</sup> Now Jephthah of Gilead was a great warrior. He was the son of Gilead, but his mother was a prostitute. <sup>2</sup>Gilead's wife also had several sons, and when these half brothers grew up, they chased Jephthah off the land. "You will not get any of our father's inheritance," they said, "for you are the son of a prostitute." <sup>3</sup>So Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob. Soon he had a band of worthless rebels following him.

<sup>4</sup>At about this time, the Ammonites began their war against Israel. <sup>5</sup>When the Ammonites attacked, the elders of Gilead sent for Jephthah in the land of Tob. The elders said, <sup>6</sup>"Come and be our commander! Help us fight the Ammonites!"

<sup>7</sup>But Jephthah said to them, "Aren't you the ones who hated me and drove me from my father's house? Why do you come to me now when you're in trouble?"

<sup>8</sup>"Because we need you," the elders replied. "If you lead us in battle against the Ammonites, we will make you ruler over all the people of Gilead."

<sup>9</sup>Jephthah said to the elders, "Let me get this straight. If I come with you and if the LORD gives me victory over the Ammonites, will you really make me ruler over all the people?"

<sup>10</sup>"The LORD is our witness," the elders replied. "We promise to do whatever you say."

<sup>11</sup>So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him their ruler and commander of the army. At Mizpah, in the presence of the LORD, Jephthah repeated what he had said to the elders.

<sup>12</sup> Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of Ammon, asking, "Why have you come out to fight against my land?"

<sup>13</sup>The king of Ammon answered Jephthah's messengers, "When the Israelites came out of Egypt, they stole my land from the Arnon River to the Jabbok River and all the way to the Jordan. Now then, give back the land peaceably."

<sup>15</sup>"This is what Jephthah says: Israel did not steal any land from Moab or Ammon. <sup>16</sup>When the people of Israel arrived at Kadesh on their journey from Egypt after crossing the Red Sea,* <sup>17</sup>they sent messengers to the king of Edom asking for permission to pass through his land. But their request was denied. Then they asked the king of Moab for similar permission, but he wouldn't let them pass through either. So the people of Israel stayed in Kadesh.

<sup>18</sup>“Finally, they went around Edom and Moab through the wilderness. They traveled along Moab’s eastern border and camped on the other side of the Arnon River. But they never once crossed the Arnon River into Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab.

<sup>23</sup>“So you see, it was the LORD, the God of Israel, who took away the land from the Amorites and gave it to Israel. Why, then, should we give it back to you? <sup>24</sup>You keep whatever your god Chemosh gives you, and we will keep whatever the LORD our God gives us. <sup>25</sup>Are you any better than Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he try to make a case against Israel for disputed land? Did he go to war against them?

<sup>26</sup>“Israel has been living here for 300 years, inhabiting Heshbon and its surrounding settlements, all the way to Aroer and its settlements, and in all the towns along the Amnon River. Why have you made no effort to recover it before now? <sup>27</sup>Therefore, I have not sinned against you. Rather, you have wronged me by attacking me. Let the LORD, who is judge, decide today which of us is right—Israel or Ammon.”

Jephthah’s Vow

<sup>29</sup>At that time the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he went throughout the land of Gilead and Manasseh, including Mizpah in Gilead, and from there he led an army against the Ammonites. <sup>30</sup>And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD. He said, “If you give me victory over the Ammonites, <sup>31</sup>I will give to the LORD whatever comes out of my house to meet me when I return in triumph. I will sacrifice it as a burnt offering.”

<sup>32</sup>So Jephthah led his army against the Ammonites, and the LORD gave him victory. <sup>33</sup>He crushed the Ammonites, devastating about twenty towns from Aroer to an area near Minnith and as far away as Abel-keramim. In this way Israel defeated the Ammonites.

<sup>34</sup>When Jephthah returned home to Mizpah, his daughter came out to meet him, playing on a tambourine and dancing for joy. She was his one and only child; he had no other sons or daughters. <sup>35</sup>When he saw her, he tore his clothes in anguish. “Oh, my daughter!” he cried out. “You have completely destroyed me! You've brought disaster on me! For I have made a vow to the LORD, and I cannot take it back."

<sup>36</sup>And she said, "Father, if you have made a vow to the LORD, you must do to me what you have vowed, for the LORD has given you a great victory over your enemies, the Ammonites.

<sup>37</sup>But first let me do this one thing: Let me go up and roam in the hills and weep with my friends for two months, because I will die a virgin."

<sup>38</sup>"You may go," Jephthah said. And he sent her away for two months. She and her friends went into the hills and wept because she would never have children. <sup>39</sup>When she returned home, her father kept the vow he had made, and she died a virgin.

So it has become a custom in Israel<sup>40</sup> for young Israelite women to go away for four days each year to lament the fate of Jephthah's daughter.

Judges 12

Ephraim Fights with Jephthah

<sup>1</sup> Then the people of Ephraim mobilized an army and crossed over the Jordan River to Zaphon. They sent this message to Jephthah: “Why didn’t you call for us to help you fight against the Ammonites? We are going to burn down your house with you in it!”

<sup>2</sup>Jephthah replied, “I summoned you at the beginning of the dispute, but you refused to come! You failed to help us in our struggle against Ammon. <sup>3</sup>So when I realized you weren’t coming, I risked my life and went to battle without you, and the LORD gave me victory over the Ammonites. So why have you now come to fight me?”

<sup>5</sup>Jephthah captured the shallow crossings of the Jordan River, and whenever a fugitive from Ephraim tried to go back across, the men of Gilead would challenge him. “Are you a member of the tribe of Ephraim?” they would ask. If the man said, “No, I’m not,” <sup>6</sup>they would tell him to say “Shibboleth.” If he was from Ephraim, he would say “Sibboleth,” because people from Ephraim cannot pronounce the word correctly. Then they would take him and kill him at the shallow crossings of the Jordan. In all, 42,000 Ephraimites were killed at that time.

<sup>7</sup>Jephthah judged Israel for six years. When he died, he was buried in one of the towns of Gilead.

Ibzan Becomes Israel's Judge

<sup>8</sup>After Jephthah died, Ibzan from Bethlehem judged Israel. <sup>9</sup>He had thirty sons and thirty daughters. He sent his daughters to marry men outside his clan, and he brought in thirty young women from outside his clan to marry his sons. Ibzan judged Israel for seven years. <sup>10</sup>When he died, he was buried at Bethlehem.

Elon Becomes Israel's Judge

<sup>11</sup>After Ibzan died, Elon from the tribe of Zebulun judged Israel for ten years. <sup>12</sup>When he died, he was buried at Aijalon in Zebulun.

Abdon Becomes Israel's Judge

<sup>13</sup>After Elon died, Abdon son of Hillel, from Pirathon, judged Israel. <sup>14</sup>He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy donkeys. He judged Israel for eight years. <sup>15</sup>When he died, he was buried at Pirathon in Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

Judges 13

The Birth of Samson

<sup>1</sup>Again the Israelites did evil in the LORD's sight, so the LORD handed them over to the Philistines, who oppressed them for forty years.

<sup>2</sup>In those days a man named Manoah from the tribe of Dan lived in the town of Zorah. His wife was unable to become pregnant, and they had no children. <sup>3</sup>The angel of the LORD appeared to Manoah's wife and said, "Even though you have been unable to have children, you will soon become pregnant and give birth to a son. <sup>4</sup>So be careful; you must not drink wine or any other alcoholic drink nor eat any forbidden food.* <sup>5</sup>You will become pregnant and give birth to a son, and his hair must never be cut. For he will be dedicated to God as a Nazirite from birth. He will begin to rescue Israel from the Philistines."

appeared to me! He looked like one of God's angels, terrifying to see. I didn't ask where he was from, and he didn't tell me his name.<sup>7</sup> But he told me, 'You will become pregnant and give birth to a son. You must not drink wine or any other alcoholic drink nor eat any forbidden food. For your son will be dedicated to God as a Nazirite from the moment of his birth until the day of his death.'

<sup>8</sup>Then Manoah prayed to the LORD, saying, "Lord, please let the man of God come back to us again and give us more instructions about this son who is to be born."

<sup>9</sup>God answered Manoah's prayer, and the angel of God appeared once again to his wife as she was sitting in the field. But her husband, Manoah, was not with her.<sup>10</sup> So she quickly ran and told her husband, "The man who appeared to me the other day is here again!"

<sup>11</sup>Manoah ran back with his wife and asked, "Are you the man who spoke to my wife the other day?"

"Yes," he replied, "I am."

<sup>12</sup>So Manoah asked him, "When your words come true, what kind of rules should govern the boy's life and work?"

<sup>15</sup> Then Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "Please stay here until we can prepare a young goat for you to eat."

<sup>16</sup>"I will stay," the angel of the LORD replied, "but I will not eat anything. However, you may prepare a burnt offering as a sacrifice to the LORD.” (Manoah didn’t realize it was the angel of the LORD.)

<sup>17</sup>Then Manoah asked the angel of the LORD, “What is your name? For when all this comes true, we want to honor you.”

<sup>18</sup>“Why do you ask my name?” the angel of the LORD replied. “It is too wonderful for you to understand.”

<sup>19</sup>Then Manoah took a young goat and a grain offering and offered it on a rock as a sacrifice to the LORD. And as Manoah and his wife watched, the LORD did an amazing thing. <sup>20</sup>As the flames from the altar shot up toward the sky, the angel of the LORD ascended in the fire. When Manoah and his wife saw this, they fell with their faces to the ground.

<sup>21</sup>The angel did not appear again to Manoah and his wife. Manoah finally realized it was the angel of the LORD, <sup>22</sup>and he said to his wife, “We will certainly die, for we have seen God!”

<sup>23</sup>But his wife said, “If the LORD were going to kill us, he wouldn’t have accepted our burnt offering and grain offering. He wouldn’t have appeared to us and told us this wonderful thing and done these miracles.”

<sup>24</sup>When her son was born, she named him Samson. And the LORD blessed him as he grew up. <sup>25</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him while he lived in Mahaneh-dan, which is located between the towns of Zorah and Eshtaol.

Judges 14

Samson's Riddle

<sup>3</sup>His father and mother objected. “Isn’t there even one woman in our tribe or among all the Israelites you could marry?” they asked. “Why must you go to the pagan Philistines to find a wife?”

But Samson told his father, “Get her for me! She looks good to me.” <sup>4</sup>His father and mother didn’t realize the LORD was at work in this, creating an opportunity to work against the Philistines, who ruled over Israel at that time.

<sup>5</sup>As Samson and his parents were going down to Timnah, a young lion suddenly attacked Samson near the vineyards of Timnah. <sup>6</sup>At that moment the Spirit of the LORD came powerfully upon him, and he ripped the lion’s jaws apart with his bare hands. He did it as easily as if it were a young goat. But he didn’t tell his father or mother about it. <sup>7</sup>When Samson arrived in Timnah, he talked with the woman and was very pleased with her.

<sup>8</sup>Later, when he returned to Timnah for the wedding, he turned off the path to look at the carcass of the lion. And he found that a swarm of bees had made some honey in the carcass. <sup>9</sup>He scooped some of the honey into his hands and ate it along the way. He also gave some to his father and mother, and they ate it. But he didn't tell them he had taken the honey from the carcass of the lion.

<sup>10</sup> As his father was making final arrangements for the marriage, Samson threw a party at Timnah, as was the custom for elite young men. <sup>11</sup>When the bride's parents* saw him, they selected thirty young men from the town to be his companions.

<sup>12</sup>Samson said to them, "Let me tell you a riddle. If you solve my riddle during these seven days of the celebration, I will give you thirty fine linen robes and thirty sets of festive clothing. <sup>13</sup>But if you can't solve it, then you must give me thirty fine linen robes and thirty sets of festive clothing."

"All right," they agreed, "let's hear your riddle."

<sup>14</sup>So he said:

"Out of the one who eats came something to eat;
out of the strong came something sweet."

Three days later they were still trying to figure it out. <sup>15</sup>On the fourth* day they said to Samson's wife, "Entice your husband to explain the riddle for us, or we will burn down your father's house with you in it. Did you invite us to this party just to make us poor?"

<sup>16</sup>So Samson's wife came to him in tears and said, "You don't love me; you hate me! You have given my people a riddle, but you haven't told me the answer."

"I haven't even given the answer to my father or mother," he replied. “Why should I tell you?” <sup>17</sup>So she cried whenever she was with him and kept it up for the rest of the celebration. At last, on the seventh day he told her the answer because she was tormenting him with her nagging. Then she explained the riddle to the young men.

<sup>18</sup>So before sunset of the seventh day, the men of the town came to Samson with their answer:

“What is sweeter than honey?
What is stronger than a lion?”

Samson replied, “If you hadn’t plowed with my heifer, you wouldn’t have solved my riddle!”

<sup>19</sup> Then the Spirit of the LORD came powerfully upon him. He went down to the town of Ashkelon, killed thirty men, took their belongings, and gave their clothing to the men who had solved his riddle. But Samson was furious about what had happened, and he went back home to live with his father and mother. <sup>20</sup>So his wife was given in marriage to the man who had been Samson’s best man at the wedding.

Judges 15

Samson's Vengeance on the Philistines

<sup>1</sup> Later on, during the wheat harvest, Samson took a young goat as a present to his wife. He said, "I'm going into my wife's room to sleep with her," but her father wouldn't let him in.

<sup>2</sup> "I truly thought you must hate her," her father explained, "so I gave her in marriage to your best man. But look, her younger sister is even more beautiful than she is. Marry her instead."

<sup>3</sup> Samson said, "This time I cannot be blamed for everything I am going to do to you Philistines." <sup>4</sup> Then he went out and caught 300 foxes. He tied their tails together in pairs, and he fastened a torch to each pair of tails. <sup>5</sup> Then he lit the torches and let the foxes run through the grain fields of the Philistines. He burned all their grain to the ground, including the sheaves and the uncut grain. He also destroyed their vineyards and olive groves.

"Samson," was the reply, "because his father-in-law from Timnah gave Samson's wife to be married to his best man." So the Philistines went and got the woman and her father and burned them to death.

<sup>7</sup> "Because you did this," Samson vowed, "I won't rest until I take my revenge on you!" <sup>8</sup> So he attacked the Philistines with great fury and killed many of them. Then he went to live in a cave in the rock of Etam.

<sup>9</sup>The Philistines retaliated by setting up camp in Judah and spreading out near the town of Lehi. <sup>10</sup>The men of Judah asked the Philistines, “Why are you attacking us?”

The Philistines replied, “We’ve come to capture Samson. We’ve come to pay him back for what he did to us.”

<sup>11</sup>So 3,000 men of Judah went down to get Samson at the cave in the rock of Etam. They said to Samson, “Don’t you realize the Philistines rule over us? What are you doing to us?”

But Samson replied, “I only did to them what they did to me.”

<sup>12</sup>But the men of Judah told him, “We have come to tie you up and hand you over to the Philistines.”

“All right,” Samson said. “But promise that you won’t kill me yourselves.”

<sup>13</sup>“We will only tie you up and hand you over to the Philistines,” they replied. “We won’t kill you.” So they tied him up with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

<sup>14</sup>As Samson arrived at Lehi, the Philistines came shouting in triumph. But the Spirit of the LORD came powerfully upon Samson, and he snapped the ropes on his arms as if they were burnt strands of flax, and they fell from his wrists. <sup>15</sup>Then he found the jawbone of a recently killed donkey. He picked it up and killed 1,000 Philistines with it. <sup>16</sup>Then Samson said,

“With the jawbone of a donkey,
I’ve piled them in heaps!
With the jawbone of a donkey,
I’ve killed a thousand men!”

<sup>17</sup>When he finished his boasting, he threw away the jawbone; and the place was named Jawbone Hill.*

<sup>18</sup>Samson was now very thirsty, and he cried out to the LORD, “You have accomplished this great victory by the strength of your servant. Must I now die of thirst and fall into the hands of these pagans?” <sup>19</sup>So God caused water to gush out of a hollow in the ground at Lehi, and Samson was revived as he drank. Then he named that place “The Spring of the One Who Cried Out,”* and it is still in Lehi to this day.

<sup>20</sup>Samson judged Israel for twenty years during the period when the Philistines dominated the land.

What the Bible Says about
Resentment and Bitterness

Judges 16

Samson Carries Away Gaza's Gates

<sup>1</sup> One day Samson went to the Philistine town of Gaza and spent the night with a prostitute.<sup>2</sup> Word soon spread* that Samson was there, so the men of Gaza gathered together and waited all night at the town gates. They kept quiet during the night, saying to themselves, “When the light of morning comes, we will kill him.”

<sup>3</sup> But Samson stayed in bed only until midnight. Then he got up, took hold of the doors of the town gate, including the two posts, and lifted them up, bar and all. He put them on his shoulders and carried them all the way to the top of the hill across from Hebron.

Samson and Delilah

<sup>4</sup> Some time later Samson fell in love with a woman named Delilah, who lived in the valley of Sorek.<sup>5</sup> The rulers of the Philistines went to her and said, “Entice Samson to tell you what makes him so strong and how he can be overpowered and tied up securely. Then each of us will give you 1,100 pieces* of silver.”

<sup>6</sup> So Delilah said to Samson, “Please tell me what makes you so strong and what it would take to tie you up securely.”

<sup>7</sup> Samson replied, “If I were tied up with seven new bowstrings that have not yet been dried, I would become as weak as anyone else.”

<sup>8</sup>So the Philistine rulers brought Delilah seven new bowstrings, and she tied Samson up with them.<sup>9</sup>She had hidden some men in one of the inner rooms of her house, and she cried out, “Samson! The Philistines have come to capture you!” But Samson snapped the bowstrings as a piece of string snaps when it is burned by a fire. So the secret of his strength was not discovered.

<sup>10</sup>Afterward Delilah said to him, “You’ve been making fun of me and telling me lies! Now please tell me how you can be tied up securely.”

<sup>11</sup>Samson replied, “If I were tied up with brand-new ropes that had never been used, I would become as weak as anyone else.”

<sup>12</sup>So Delilah took new ropes and tied him up with them. The men were hiding in the inner room as before, and again Delilah cried out, “Samson! The Philistines have come to capture you!” But again Samson snapped the ropes from his arms as if they were thread.

<sup>13</sup>Then Delilah said, “You’ve been making fun of me and telling me lies! Now tell me how you can be tied up securely.”

Samson replied, “If you were to weave the seven braids of my hair into the fabric on your loom and tighten it with the loom shuttle, I would become as weak as anyone else.”

So while he slept, Delilah wove the seven braids of his hair into the fabric.<sup>14</sup>Then she tightened it with the loom shuttle.* Again she cried out, “Samson! The Philistines have come to capture you!” But Samson woke up, pulled back the loom shuttle, and yanked his hair away from the loom and the fabric.

<sup>15</sup>Then Delilah pouted, “How can you tell me, ‘I love you,’ when you don’t share your secrets with me? You’ve made fun of me three times now, and you still haven’t told me what makes you so strong!” <sup>16</sup>She tormented him with her nagging day after day until he was sick to death of it.

<sup>17</sup>Finally, Samson shared his secret with her. “My hair has never been cut,” he confessed, “for I was dedicated to God as a Nazirite from birth. If my head were shaved, my strength would leave me, and I would become as weak as anyone else.”

<sup>18</sup>Delilah realized he had finally told her the truth, so she sent for the Philistine rulers. “Come back one more time,” she said, “for he has finally told me his secret.” So the Philistine rulers returned with the money in their hands. <sup>19</sup>Delilah lulled Samson to sleep with his head in her lap, and then she called in a man to shave off the seven locks of his hair. In this way she began to bring him down,* and his strength left him.

<sup>20</sup>Then she cried out, “Samson! The Philistines have come to capture you!”

When he woke up, he thought, “I will do as before and shake myself free.” But he didn’t realize the LORD had left him.

<sup>21</sup>So the Philistines captured him and gouged out his eyes. They took him to Gaza, where he was bound with bronze chains and forced to grind grain in the prison.

Samson's Final Victory

<sup>23</sup>The Philistine rulers held a great festival, offering sacrifices and praising their god, Dagon. They said, "Our god has given us victory over our enemy Samson!"

<sup>24</sup>When the people saw him, they praised their god, saying, "Our god has delivered our enemy to us! The one who killed so many of us is now in our power!"

<sup>25</sup>Half drunk by now, the people demanded, "Bring out Samson so he can amuse us!" So he was brought from the prison to amuse them, and they had him stand between the pillars supporting the roof.

<sup>26</sup>Samson said to the young servant who was leading him by the hand, "Place my hands against the pillars that hold up the temple. I want to rest against them." <sup>27</sup>Now the temple was completely filled with people. All the Philistine rulers were there, and there were about 3,000 men and women on the roof who were watching as Samson amused them.

<sup>28</sup>Then Samson prayed to the LORD, "Sovereign LORD, remember me again. O God, please strengthen me just one more time. With one blow let me pay back the Philistines for the loss of my two eyes." <sup>29</sup>Then Samson put his hands on the two center pillars that held up the temple. Pushing against them with both hands, <sup>30</sup>he prayed, "Let me die with the Philistines." And the temple crashed down on the Philistine rulers and all the people. So he killed more people when he died than he had during his entire lifetime.

<sup>31</sup>Later his brothers and other relatives went down to get his body. They took him back home and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol, where his father, Manoah, was buried. Samson had judged Israel for twenty years.

DOWN & UP & DOWN AGAIN

Nine times in this book, a strong leader ("judge") led the Israelite people to freedom and godliness . . . only to have them regress after awhile.

Judges 17

Micah's Idols

<sup>1</sup> There was a man named Micah, who lived in the hill country of Ephraim. <sup>2</sup>One day he said to his mother, “I heard you place a curse on the person who stole 1,100 pieces* of silver from you. Well, I have the money. I was the one who took it.”

“The LORD bless you for admitting it,” his mother replied. <sup>3</sup>He returned the money to her, and she said, “I now dedicate these silver coins to the LORD. In honor of my son, I will have an image carved and an idol cast.”

<sup>4</sup>So when he returned the money to his mother, she took 200 silver coins and gave them to a silversmith, who made them into an image and an idol. And these were placed in Micah's house. <sup>5</sup>Micah set up a shrine for the idol, and he made a sacred ephod and some household idols. Then he installed one of his sons as his personal priest.

<sup>6</sup>In those days Israel had no king; all the people did whatever seemed right in their own eyes.

<sup>7</sup>One day a young Levite, who had been living in Bethlehem in Judah, arrived in that area. <sup>8</sup>He had left Bethlehem in search of another place to live, and as he traveled, he came to the hill country of Ephraim. He happened to stop at Micah's house as he was traveling through. <sup>9</sup>“Where are you from?” Micah asked him.

He replied, “I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am looking for a place to live.”

<sup>10</sup>“Stay here with me,” Micah said, “and you can be a father and priest to me. I will give you ten pieces* of silver a year, plus a change of clothes and your food.” <sup>11</sup>The Levite agreed to this, and the young man became like one of Micah’s sons.

<sup>12</sup>So Micah installed the Levite as his personal priest, and he lived in Micah’s house. <sup>13</sup>“I know the LORD will bless me now,” Micah said, “because I have a Levite serving as my priest.”

Judges 18

Idolatry in the Tribe of Dan

<sup>1</sup> Now in those days Israel had no king. And the tribe of Dan was trying to find a place where they could settle, for they had not yet moved into the land assigned to them when the land was divided among the tribes of Israel. <sup>2</sup> So the men of Dan chose from their clans five capable warriors from the towns of Zorah and Eshtaol to scout out a land for them to settle in.

When these warriors arrived in the hill country of Ephraim, they came to Micah's house and spent the night there. <sup>3</sup> While at Micah's house, they recognized the young Levite's accent, so they went over and asked him, "Who brought you here, and what are you doing in this place? Why are you here?" <sup>4</sup> He told them about his agreement with Micah and that he had been hired as Micah's personal priest.

<sup>5</sup> Then they said, "Ask God whether or not our journey will be successful."

<sup>7</sup> So the five men went on to the town of Laish, where they noticed the people living carefree lives, like the Sidonians; they were peaceful and secure.* The people were also wealthy because their land was very fertile. And they lived a great distance from Sidon and had no allies nearby.

<sup>8</sup> When the men returned to Zorah and Eshtaol, their relatives asked them, “What did you find?”

<sup>9</sup>The men replied, “Come on, let’s attack them! We have seen the land, and it is very good. What are you waiting for? Don’t hesitate to go and take possession of it. <sup>10</sup>When you get there, you will find the people living carefree lives. God has given us a spacious and fertile land, lacking in nothing!”

<sup>11</sup>So 600 men from the tribe of Dan, armed with weapons of war, set out from Zorah and Eshtaol. <sup>12</sup>They camped at a place west of Kiriath-jearim in Judah, which is called Mahaneh-dan* to this day. <sup>13</sup>Then they went on from there into the hill country of Ephraim and came to the house of Micah.

<sup>14</sup>The five men who had scouted out the land around Laish explained to the others, “These buildings contain a sacred ephod, as well as some household idols, a carved image, and a cast idol. What do you think you should do?” <sup>15</sup>Then the five men turned off the road and went over to Micah’s house, where the young Levite lived, and greeted him kindly. <sup>16</sup>As the 600 armed warriors from the tribe of Dan stood at the entrance of the gate, <sup>17</sup>the five scouts entered the shrine and removed the carved image, the sacred ephod, the household idols, and the cast idol. Meanwhile, the priest was standing at the gate with the 600 armed warriors.

<sup>18</sup>When the priest saw the men carrying all the sacred objects out of Micah’s shrine, he said, “What are you doing?”

<sup>19</sup>“Be quiet and come with us,” they said. “Be a father and priest to all of us. Isn’t it better to be a priest for an entire tribe and clan of Israel than for the household of just one man?”

<sup>20</sup>The young priest was quite happy to go with them, so he took along the sacred ephod, the household idols, and the carved image.<sup>21</sup> They turned and started on their way again, placing their children, livestock, and possessions in front of them.

<sup>22</sup> When the people from the tribe of Dan were quite a distance from Micah's house, the people who lived near Micah came chasing after them.<sup>23</sup> They were shouting as they caught up with them. The men of Dan turned around and said to Micah, "What's the matter? Why have you called these men together and chased after us like this?"

<sup>25</sup> The men of Dan said, "Watch what you say! There are some short-tempered men around here who might get angry and kill you and your family."<sup>26</sup> So the men of Dan continued on their way. When Micah saw that there were too many of them for him to attack, he turned around and went home.

<sup>27</sup> Then, with Micah's idols and his priest, the men of Dan came to the town of Laish, whose people were peaceful and secure. They attacked with swords and burned the town to the ground.<sup>28</sup> There was no one to rescue the people, for they lived a great distance from Sidon and had no allies nearby. This happened in the valley near Beth-rehob.

Then the people of the tribe of Dan rebuilt the town and lived there.<sup>29</sup> They renamed the town Dan after their ancestor, Israel's son, but it had originally been called Laish.

Jonathan son of Gershom, son of Moses,<sup>31</sup> as their priest. This family continued as priests for the tribe of Dan until the Exile.

Judges 19

The Levite and His Concubine

<sup>1</sup>Now in those days Israel had no king. There was a man from the tribe of Levi living in a remote area of the hill country of Ephraim. One day he brought home a woman from Bethlehem in Judah to be his concubine. <sup>2</sup>But she became angry with him* and returned to her father's home in Bethlehem.

After about four months, <sup>3</sup>her husband set out for Bethlehem to speak personally to her and persuade her to come back. He took with him a servant and a pair of donkeys. When he arrived at* her father's house, her father saw him and welcomed him. <sup>4</sup>Her father urged him to stay awhile, so he stayed three days, eating, drinking, and sleeping there.

<sup>5</sup>On the fourth day the man was up early, ready to leave, but the woman's father said to his son-in-law, "Have something to eat before you go." <sup>6</sup>So the two men sat down together and had something to eat and drink. Then the woman's father said, "Please stay another night and enjoy yourself." <sup>7</sup>The man got up to leave, but his father-in-law kept urging him to stay, so he finally gave in and stayed the night.

<sup>8</sup>On the morning of the fifth day he was up early again, ready to leave, and again the woman's father said, "Have something to eat; then you can leave later this afternoon." So they had another day of feasting. <sup>9</sup>Later, as the man and his concubine and servant were preparing to leave, his father-in-law said,

“Look, it’s almost evening. Stay the night and enjoy yourself. Tomorrow you can get up early and be on your way.”

<sup>10</sup>But this time the man was determined to leave. So he took his two saddled donkeys and his concubine and headed in the direction of Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). <sup>11</sup>It was late in the day when they neared Jebus, and the man’s servant said to him, “Let’s stop at this Jebusite town and spend the night there.”

<sup>12</sup>“No,” his master said, “we can’t stay in this foreign town where there are no Israelites. Instead, we will go on to Gibeah.

<sup>13</sup>Come on, let’s try to get as far as Gibeah or Ramah, and we’ll spend the night in one of those towns.” <sup>14</sup>So they went on. The sun was setting as they came to Gibeah, a town in the land of Benjamin, <sup>15</sup>so they stopped there to spend the night. They rested in the town square, but no one took them in for the night.

<sup>16</sup>That evening an old man came home from his work in the fields. He was from the hill country of Ephraim, but he was living in Gibeah, where the people were from the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>17</sup>When he saw the travelers sitting in the town square, he asked them where they were from and where they were going.

<sup>18</sup>“We have been in Bethlehem in Judah,” the man replied. “We are on our way to a remote area in the hill country of Ephraim, which is my home. I traveled to Bethlehem, and now I’m returning home.* <sup>19</sup>But no one has taken us in for the night, even though we have everything we need. We have straw and feed for our donkeys and plenty of bread and wine for ourselves.”

<sup>20</sup>“You are welcome to stay with me,” the old man said. “I will give you anything you might need. But whatever you do, don’t spend the night in the square.” <sup>21</sup>So he took them home with him and fed the donkeys. After they washed their feet, they ate and drank together.

<sup>22</sup>While they were enjoying themselves, a crowd of troublemakers from the town surrounded the house. They began beating at the door and shouting to the old man, “Bring out the man who is staying with you so we can have sex with him.”

<sup>27</sup>When her husband opened the door to leave, there lay his concubine with her hands on the threshold. <sup>28</sup>He said, “Get up! Let’s go!” But there was no answer. * So he put her body on his donkey and took her home.

body into twelve pieces. Then he sent one piece to each tribe throughout all the territory of Israel.

<sup>30</sup>Everyone who saw it said, “Such a horrible crime has not been committed in all the time since Israel left Egypt. Think about it! What are we going to do? Who’s going to speak up?”

Judges 20

Israel's War with Benjamin

<sup>1</sup>Then all the Israelites were united as one man, from Dan in the north to Beersheba in the south, including those from across the Jordan in the land of Gilead. The entire community assembled in the presence of the LORD at Mizpah. <sup>2</sup>The leaders of all the people and all the tribes of Israel—400,000 warriors armed with swords—took their positions in the assembly of the people of God. <sup>3</sup>(Word soon reached the land of Benjamin that the other tribes had gone up to Mizpah.) The Israelites then asked how this terrible crime had happened.

<sup>4</sup>The Levite, the husband of the woman who had been murdered, said, “My concubine and I came to spend the night in Gibeah, a town that belongs to the people of Benjamin. <sup>5</sup>That night some of the leading citizens of Gibeah surrounded the house, planning to kill me, and they raped my concubine until she was dead. <sup>6</sup>So I cut her body into twelve pieces and sent the pieces throughout the territory assigned to Israel, for these men have committed a terrible and shameful crime. <sup>7</sup>Now then, all of you—the entire community of Israel—must decide here and now what should be done about this!”

<sup>8</sup>And all the people rose to their feet in unison and declared, “None of us will return home! No, not even one of us! <sup>9</sup>Instead, this is what we will do to Gibeah; we will draw lots to decide who will attack it. <sup>10</sup>One-tenth of the men* from each tribe will be chosen to supply the warriors with food, and the rest of us will take revenge on Gibeah* of Benjamin for this shameful thing they have done in Israel.” <sup>11</sup>So all the Israelites were completely united, and they gathered together to attack the town.

<sup>12</sup>The Israelites sent messengers to the tribe of Benjamin, saying, “What a terrible thing has been done among you! <sup>13</sup>Give up those evil men, those troublemakers from Gibeah, so we can execute them and purge Israel of this evil.”

But the people of Benjamin would not listen. <sup>14</sup>Instead, they came from their towns and gathered at Gibeah to fight the Israelites. <sup>15</sup>In all, 26,000 of their warriors armed with swords arrived in Gibeah to join the 700 elite troops who lived there. <sup>16</sup>Among Benjamin’s elite troops, 700 were left-handed, and each of them could sling a rock and hit a target within a hairsbreadth without missing. <sup>17</sup>Israel had 400,000 experienced soldiers armed with swords, not counting Benjamin’s warriors.

<sup>18</sup>Before the battle the Israelites went to Bethel and asked God, “Which tribe should go first to attack the people of Benjamin?”

The LORD answered, “Judah is to go first.”

<sup>22</sup>But the Israelites encouraged each other and took their positions again at the same place they had fought the previous day. <sup>23</sup>For they had gone up to Bethel and wept in the presence of the LORD until evening. They had asked the LORD, “Should we fight against our relatives from Benjamin again?”

And the LORD had said, “Go out and fight against them.”

<sup>24</sup>So the next day they went out again to fight against the men of Benjamin, <sup>25</sup>but the men of Benjamin killed another 18,000 Israelites, all of whom were experienced with the sword.

<sup>26</sup> Then all the Israelites went up to Bethel and wept in the presence of the LORD and fasted until evening. They also brought burnt offerings and peace offerings to the LORD. <sup>27</sup>The Israelites went up seeking direction from the LORD. (In those days the Ark of the Covenant of God was in Bethel, <sup>28</sup>and Phinehas son of Eleazar and grandson of Aaron was the priest.) The Israelites asked the LORD, “Should we fight against our relatives from Benjamin again, or should we stop?”

The LORD said, “Go! Tomorrow I will hand them over to you.”

<sup>29</sup>So the Israelites set an ambush all around Gibeah. <sup>30</sup>They went out on the third day and took their positions at the same place as before. <sup>31</sup>When the men of Benjamin came out to attack, they were drawn away from the town. And as they had done before, they began to kill the Israelites. About thirty Israelites died in the open fields and along the roads, one leading to Bethel and the other leading back to Gibeah.

<sup>32</sup>Then the warriors of Benjamin shouted, “We’re defeating them as we did before!” But the Israelites had planned in advance to run away so that the men of Benjamin would chase them along the roads and be drawn away from the town.

tamar, they turned and took up their positions. Meanwhile, the Israelites hiding in ambush to the west* of Gibeah jumped up to fight.<sup>34</sup> There were 10,000 elite Israelite troops who advanced against Gibeah. The fighting was so heavy that Benjamin didn't realize the impending disaster.<sup>35</sup> So the LORD helped Israel defeat Benjamin, and that day the Israelites killed 25,100 of Benjamin's warriors, all of whom were experienced swordsmen.<sup>36</sup> Then the men of Benjamin saw that they were beaten.

The Israelites had retreated from Benjamin's warriors in order to give those hiding in ambush more room to maneuver against Gibeah.<sup>37</sup> Then those who were hiding rushed in from all sides and killed everyone in the town.<sup>38</sup> They had arranged to send up a large cloud of smoke from the town as a signal.<sup>39</sup> When the Israelites saw the smoke, they turned and attacked Benjamin's warriors.

By that time Benjamin's warriors had killed about thirty Israelites, and they shouted, "We're defeating them as we did in the first battle!"<sup>40</sup> But when the warriors of Benjamin looked behind them and saw the smoke rising into the sky from every part of the town,<sup>41</sup> the men of Israel turned and attacked. At this point the men of Benjamin became terrified, because they realized disaster was close at hand.<sup>42</sup> So they turned around and fled before the Israelites toward the wilderness. But they couldn't escape the battle, and the people who came out of the nearby towns were also killed.*<sup>43</sup> The Israelites surrounded the men of Benjamin and chased them relentlessly, finally overtaking them east of Gibeah.*<sup>44</sup> That day 18,000 of Benjamin's strongest warriors died in battle. <sup>45</sup>The survivors fled into the wilderness toward the rock of Rimmon, but Israel killed 5,000 of them along the road. They continued the chase until they had killed another 2,000 near Gidom.

<sup>46</sup>So that day the tribe of Benjamin lost 25,000 strong warriors armed with swords, <sup>47</sup>leaving only 600 men who escaped to the rock of Rimmon, where they lived for four months. <sup>48</sup>And the Israelites returned and slaughtered every living thing in all the towns—the people, the livestock, and everything they found. They also burned down all the towns they came to.

Judges 21

Israel Provides Wives for Benjamin

<sup>2</sup> Now the people went to Bethel and sat in the presence of God until evening, weeping loudly and bitterly. <sup>3</sup>“O LORD, God of Israel,” they cried out, “why has this happened in Israel? Now one of our tribes is missing from Israel!”

<sup>4</sup> Early the next morning the people built an altar and presented their burnt offerings and peace offerings on it. <sup>5</sup> Then they said, “Who among the tribes of Israel did not join us at Mizpah when we held our assembly in the presence of the LORD?” At that time they had taken a solemn oath in the LORD’s presence, vowing that anyone who refused to come would be put to death.

<sup>6</sup> The Israelites felt sorry for their brother Benjamin and said, “Today one of the tribes of Israel has been cut off. <sup>7</sup> How can we find wives for the few who remain, since we have sworn by the LORD not to give them our daughters in marriage?”

<sup>8</sup> So they asked, “Who among the tribes of Israel did not join us at Mizpah when we assembled in the presence of the LORD?” And they discovered that no one from Jabesh-gilead had attended the assembly. <sup>9</sup> For after they counted all the people, no one from Jabesh-gilead was present.

Jabesh-gilead with orders to kill everyone there, including women and children. <sup>11</sup>“This is what you are to do,” they said. “Completely destroy* all the males and every woman who is not a virgin.” <sup>12</sup>Among the residents of Jabesh-gilead they found 400 young virgins who had never slept with a man, and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh in the land of Canaan.

<sup>13</sup>The Israelite assembly sent a peace delegation to the remaining people of Benjamin who were living at the rock of Rimmon. <sup>14</sup>Then the men of Benjamin returned to their homes, and the 400 women of Jabesh-gilead who had been spared were given to them as wives. But there were not enough women for all of them.

<sup>15</sup>The people felt sorry for Benjamin because the LORD had made this gap among the tribes of Israel. <sup>16</sup>So the elders of the assembly asked, “How can we find wives for the few who remain, since the women of the tribe of Benjamin are dead? <sup>17</sup>There must be heirs for the survivors so that an entire tribe of Israel is not wiped out. <sup>18</sup>But we cannot give them our own daughters in marriage because we have sworn with a solemn oath that anyone who does this will fall under God’s curse.”

us in protest, we will tell them, ‘Please be sympathetic. Let them have your daughters, for we didn’t find wives for all of them when we destroyed Jabesh-gilead. And you are not guilty of breaking the vow since you did not actually give your daughters to them in marriage.’”

<sup>23</sup>So the men of Benjamin did as they were told. Each man caught one of the women as she danced in the celebration and carried her off to be his wife. They returned to their own land, and they rebuilt their towns and lived in them.

<sup>24</sup>Then the people of Israel departed by tribes and families, and they returned to their own homes.

<sup>25</sup>In those days Israel had no king; all the people did whatever seemed right in their own eyes.

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

The huge impact that loyalty, kindness, and love can have on us and the people around us.

WHO WROTE IT?

We don't know, but it was probably written after David became king, since he's mentioned in the last sentence of the book.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

Sometime between 1300 and 1100 B.C.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

The story of Ruth takes place during the period of the judges.

THE BREAKDOWN

Chapter 1: Naomi, her husband, and their two sons go to Moab because of a famine in Israel. The sons marry local women. After Naomi's husband and both sons die, she decides to return to Israel. Ruth, one of her daughters-in-law, decides to stick with her.

Chapter 2: Ruth and Boaz are attracted to each other.

Chapter 3: Boaz decides to act.

Chapter 4: Boaz marries Ruth. Their great-grandson is David, Israel's greatest king.

KEY CONCEPT

In ancient Israel, a family redeemer was a person who was in a position to help a relative who had fallen on hard times. It might involve buying back family land that had been sold to pay debts, or even marrying a relative's widow. Boaz and Naomi were relatives. By marrying Ruth, Boaz was saving, or redeeming, her and her family.

SCORECARD

RUTH: a young woman from Moab

NAOMI: Ruth's mother-in-law

BOAZ: the man who marries Ruth after her first husband dies

READING TIME

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

HEROISM.

God didn't ask Boaz to be a hero, but just to do what he knew was right. In the same way, God is asking us today to fulfill the responsibilities he has given us. When we do, we can have a huge impact on our immediate families as well as future generations.

Elimelech Moves His Family to Moab

<sup>4</sup>The two sons married Moabite women. One married a woman named Orpah, and the other a woman named Ruth. But about ten years later, <sup>5</sup>both Mahlon and Kilion died. This left Naomi alone, without her two sons or her husband.

Naomi and Ruth Return

<sup>6</sup> Then Naomi heard in Moab that the LORD had blessed his people in Judah by giving them good crops again. So Naomi and her daughters-in-law got ready to leave Moab to return to her homeland. <sup>7</sup>With her two daughters-in-law she set out from the place where she had been living, and they took the road that would lead them back to Judah.

<sup>8</sup>But on the way, Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, “Go back to your mothers’ homes. And may the LORD reward you for your kindness to your husbands and to me. <sup>9</sup>May the LORD bless you with the security of another marriage.” Then she kissed them good-bye, and they all broke down and wept.

<sup>10</sup>“No,” they said. “We want to go with you to your people.”

<sup>11</sup>But Naomi replied, “Why should you go on with me? Can I still give birth to other sons who could grow up to be your husbands? <sup>12</sup>No, my daughters, return to your parents’ homes, for I am too old to marry again. And even if it were possible, and I were to get married tonight and bear sons, then what? <sup>13</sup>Would you wait for them to grow up and refuse to marry someone else? No, of course not, my daughters! Things are far more bitter for me than for you, because the LORD himself has raised his fist against me.”

<sup>14</sup>And again they wept together, and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law good-bye. But Ruth clung tightly to Naomi. <sup>15</sup>“Look,” Naomi said to her, “your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods. You should do the same.”

<sup>16</sup> But Ruth replied, “Don’t ask me to leave you and turn back. Wherever you go, I will go; wherever you live, I will live. Your people will be my people, and your God will be my God. <sup>17</sup>Wherever you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD punish me severely if I allow anything but death to separate us!”<sup>18</sup> When Naomi saw that Ruth was determined to go with her, she said nothing more.

<sup>19</sup>So the two of them continued on their journey. When they came to Bethlehem, the entire town was excited by their arrival. “Is it really Naomi?” the women asked.

<sup>20</sup>“Don’t call me Naomi,” she responded. “Instead, call me Mara,* for the Almighty has made life very bitter for me. <sup>21</sup>I went away full, but the LORD has brought me home empty. Why call me Naomi when the LORD has caused me to suffer* and the Almighty has sent such tragedy upon me?”

Boaz

Ruth 2

Ruth Works in Boaz's Field

<sup>1</sup> Now there was a wealthy and influential man in Bethlehem named Boaz, who was a relative of Naomi's husband, Elimelech.

<sup>2</sup>One day Ruth the Moabite said to Naomi, "Let me go out into the harvest fields to pick up the stalks of grain left behind by anyone who is kind enough to let me do it."

Naomi replied, "All right, my daughter, go ahead." <sup>3</sup>So Ruth went out to gather grain behind the harvesters. And as it happened, she found herself working in a field that belonged to Boaz, the relative of her father-in-law, Elimelech.

<sup>4</sup> While she was there, Boaz arrived from Bethlehem and greeted the harvesters. "The LORD be with you!" he said.

"The LORD bless you!" the harvesters replied.

<sup>5</sup>Then Boaz asked his foreman, "Who is that young woman over there? Who does she belong to?”

<sup>6</sup>And the foreman replied, “She is the young woman from Moab who came back with Naomi. <sup>7</sup>She asked me this morning if she could gather grain behind the harvesters. She has been hard at work ever since, except for a few minutes’ rest in the shelter.”

<sup>8</sup>Boaz went over and said to Ruth, “Listen, my daughter. Stay right here with us when you gather grain; don’t go to any other fields. Stay right behind the young women working in my field. <sup>9</sup>See which part of the field they are harvesting, and then follow them. I have warned the young men not to treat you roughly. And when you are thirsty, help yourself to the water they have drawn from the well.”

<sup>10</sup>Ruth fell at his feet and thanked him warmly. “What have I done to deserve such kindness?” she asked. “I am only a foreigner.”

<sup>11</sup>“Yes, I know,” Boaz replied. “But I also know about everything you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband. I have heard how you left your father and mother and your own land to live here among complete strangers. <sup>12</sup>May the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge, reward you fully for what you have done.”

<sup>13</sup>“I hope I continue to please you, sir,” she replied. “You have comforted me by speaking so kindly to me, even though I am not one of your workers.”

<sup>14</sup>At mealtime Boaz called to her, “Come over here, and help yourself to some food. You can dip your bread in the sour wine.” So she sat with his harvesters, and Boaz gave her some roasted grain to eat. She ate all she wanted and still had some left over.

<sup>15</sup>When Ruth went back to work again, Boaz ordered his young men, “Let her gather grain right among the sheaves without stopping her. <sup>16</sup>And pull out some heads of barley from the bundles and drop them on purpose for her. Let her pick them up, and don’t give her a hard time!”

<sup>17</sup>So Ruth gathered barley there all day, and when she beat out the grain that evening, it filled an entire basket.* <sup>18</sup>She carried it back into town and showed it to her mother-in-law. Ruth also gave her the roasted grain that was left over from her meal.

<sup>19</sup>“Where did you gather all this grain today?” Naomi asked. “Where did you work? May the LORD bless the one who helped you!”

So Ruth told her mother-in-law about the man in whose field she had worked. She said, “The man I worked with today is named Boaz.”

<sup>20</sup>“May the LORD bless him!” Naomi told her daughter-in-law. “He is showing his kindness to us as well as to your dead husband.* That man is one of our closest relatives, one of our family redeemers.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Ruth* said, “What’s more, Boaz even told me to come back and stay with his harvesters until the entire harvest is completed.”

<sup>22</sup>“Good!” Naomi exclaimed. “Do as he said, my daughter. Stay with his young women right through the whole harvest.

You might be harassed in other fields, but you'll be safe with him."

<sup>23</sup>So Ruth worked alongside the women in Boaz's fields and gathered grain with them until the end of the barley harvest. Then she continued working with them through the wheat harvest in early summer. And all the while she lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth 3

Ruth at the Threshing Floor

<sup>1</sup> One day Naomi said to Ruth, “My daughter, it’s time that I found a permanent home for you, so that you will be provided for. <sup>2</sup>Boaz is a close relative of ours, and he’s been very kind by letting you gather grain with his young women. Tonight he will be winnowing barley at the threshing floor. <sup>3</sup>Now do as I tell you—take a bath and put on perfume and dress in your nicest clothes. Then go to the threshing floor, but don’t let Boaz see you until he has finished eating and drinking. <sup>4</sup>Be sure to notice where he lies down; then go and uncover his feet and lie down there. He will tell you what to do.”

<sup>5</sup>“I will do everything you say,” Ruth replied. <sup>6</sup> So she went down to the threshing floor that night and followed the instructions of her mother-in-law.

<sup>7</sup>After Boaz had finished eating and drinking and was in good spirits, he lay down at the far end of the pile of grain and went to sleep. Then Ruth came quietly, uncovered his feet, and lay down. <sup>8</sup>Around midnight Boaz suddenly woke up and turned over. He was surprised to find a woman lying at his feet! <sup>9</sup>“Who are you?” he asked.

“I am your servant Ruth,” she replied. “Spread the corner of your covering over me, for you are my family redeemer.”

<sup>10</sup>“The LORD bless you, my daughter!” Boaz exclaimed. “You are showing even more family loyalty now than you did before, for you have not gone after a younger man, whether rich or poor. <sup>11</sup>Now don't worry about a thing, my daughter. I will do what is necessary, for everyone in town knows you are a virtuous woman. <sup>12</sup>But while it's true that I am one of your family redeemers, there is another man who is more closely related to you than I am. <sup>13</sup>Stay here tonight, and in the morning I will talk to him. If he is willing to redeem you, very well. Let him marry you. But if he is not willing, then as surely as the LORD lives, I will redeem you myself! Now lie down here until morning."

<sup>14</sup>So Ruth lay at Boaz's feet until the morning, but she got up before it was light enough for people to recognize each other. For Boaz had said, "No one must know that a woman was here at the threshing floor." <sup>15</sup> Then Boaz said to her, "Bring your cloak and spread it out." He measured six scoops* of barley into the cloak and placed it on her back. Then he* returned to the town.

<sup>16</sup>When Ruth went back to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked, "What happened, my daughter?"

Ruth told Naomi everything Boaz had done for her, <sup>17</sup>and she added, "He gave me these six scoops of barley and said, 'Don't go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.'"

<sup>18</sup>Then Naomi said to her, "Just be patient, my daughter, until we hear what happens. The man won't rest until he has settled things today."

Ruth 4

Boaz Marries Ruth

<sup>1</sup> Boaz went to the town gate and took a seat there. Just then the family redeemer he had mentioned came by, so Boaz called out to him, “Come over here and sit down, friend. I want to talk to you.” So they sat down together. <sup>2</sup>Then Boaz called ten leaders from the town and asked them to sit as witnesses. <sup>3</sup>And Boaz said to the family redeemer, “You know Naomi, who came back from Moab. She is selling the land that belonged to our relative Elimelech. <sup>4</sup>I thought I should speak to you about it so that you can redeem it if you wish. If you want the land, then buy it here in the presence of these witnesses. But if you don’t want it, let me know right away, because I am next in line to redeem it after you.”

The man replied, “All right, I’ll redeem it.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Boaz told him, “Of course, your purchase of the land from Naomi also requires that you marry Ruth, the Moabite widow. That way she can have children who will carry on her husband’s name and keep the land in the family.”

“Then I can’t redeem it,” the family redeemer replied, “because this might endanger my own estate. You redeem the land; I cannot do it.”

<sup>7</sup>Now in those days it was the custom in Israel for anyone transferring a right of purchase to remove his sandal and hand it to the other party. This publicly validated the transaction.

<sup>8</sup>So the other family redeemer drew off his sandal as he said to Boaz, “You buy the land.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Boaz said to the elders and to the crowd standing around, “You are witnesses that today I have bought from Naomi all the property of Elimelech, Kilion, and Mahlon. <sup>10</sup>And with the land I have acquired Ruth, the Moabite widow of Mahlon, to be my wife. This way she can have a son to carry on the family name of her dead husband and to inherit the family property here in his hometown. You are all witnesses today.”

<sup>11</sup>Then the elders and all the people standing in the gate replied, “We are witnesses! May the LORD make this woman who is coming into your home like Rachel and Leah, from whom all the nation of Israel descended! May you prosper in Ephrathah and be famous in Bethlehem. <sup>12</sup>And may the LORD give you descendants by this young woman who will be like those of our ancestor Perez, the son of Tamar and Judah.”

The Descendants of Boaz

<sup>13</sup>So Boaz took Ruth into his home, and she became his wife. When he slept with her, the LORD enabled her to become pregnant, and she gave birth to a son. <sup>14</sup>Then the women of the town said to Naomi, “Praise the LORD, who has now provided a redeemer for your family! May this child be famous in Israel. <sup>15</sup>May he restore your youth and care for you in your old age. For he is the son of your daughter-in-law who loves you and has been better to you than seven sons!”

<sup>16</sup>Naomi took the baby and cuddled him to her breast. And she cared for him as if he were her own. <sup>17</sup>The neighbor women said, “Now at last Naomi has a son again!” And they named him Obed. He became the father of Jesse and the grandfather of David.

<sup>18</sup> This is the genealogical record of their ancestor Perez:

Perez was the father of Hezron.

<sup>19</sup>Hezron was the father of Ram.

Ram was the father of Amminadab.

<sup>20</sup>Amminadab was the father of Nahshon.

Nahshon was the father of Salmon.*

<sup>21</sup>Salmon was the father of Boaz.

Boaz was the father of Obed.

<sup>22</sup>Obed was the father of Jesse.

Jesse was the father of David.

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

Power—how to use it, how not to use it.

WHO WROTE IT?

We don't know for sure, but it was probably a court official or someone who had access to official historical records. (Could the author have been Samuel? Probably not. For one thing, he dies in chapter 25.)

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

Between 1100 and 1000 B.C.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

After the period of the judges, at the beginning of Israel's monarchy.

THE BREAKDOWN

Chapters 1–3: Samuel is born and called to be a prophet

Chapters 4–7: The Ark of the Covenant is captured and then brought back to Israel

Chapters 8–11: Israel asks for a king and gets one

Chapters 12–15: Saul's failure

Chapter 16: David is anointed king

Chapters 17–20: David's popularity and Saul's jealousy grow

Chapters 21–30: David on the run from Saul Chapter 31: Saul's last battle

KEY CONCEPTS

King

Repentance

Obedience

SCORECARD

SAMUEL: God's prophet, who anointed God's choice to be king

SAUL: Israel's first king

JONATHAN: David's best friend and heir to Saul's throne

DAVID: The one Samuel anointed to succeed Saul as king

WORTH MEMORIZING

12:23-24

As for me, I will certainly not sin against the LORD by ending my prayers for you. And I will continue to teach you what is good and right. But be sure to fear the LORD and faithfully serve him.

15:22-23

But Samuel replied, “What is more pleasing to the LORD: your burnt offerings and sacrifices or your obedience to his voice? Listen! Obedience is far better than sacrifice, and submission is better than offering the fat of rams. Rebellion is as sinful as witchcraft, and stubbornness as bad as worshiping idols.”

16:7

But the LORD said to Samuel, “Don’t judge by his appearance or height, for I have rejected him. The LORD doesn’t see things the way you see them. People judge by outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.”

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

ROLE MODELS.

Some were positive, some were negative. Samuel faithfully delivered God’s Word, even when it was unpopular. Saul started out well, but arrogance led to his downfall. David’s dependence on God made him an honorable warrior and a great king.

1 Samuel 1

Elkanah and His Family

<sup>1</sup> There was a man named Elkanah who lived in Ramah in the region of Zuph* in the hill country of Ephraim. He was the son of Jeroham, son of Elihu, son of Tohu, son of Zuph, of Ephraim.<sup>2</sup> Elkanah had two wives, Hannah and Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah did not.

<sup>3</sup> Each year Elkanah would travel to Shiloh to worship and sacrifice to the LORD of Heaven's Armies at the Tabernacle. The priests of the LORD at that time were the two sons of Eli—Hophni and Phinehas.<sup>4</sup> On the days Elkanah presented his sacrifice, he would give portions of the meat to Peninnah and each of her children.<sup>5</sup> And though he loved Hannah, he would give her only one choice portion* because the LORD had given her no children.<sup>6</sup> So Peninnah would taunt Hannah and make fun of her because the LORD had kept her from having children.<sup>7</sup> Year after year it was the same—Peninnah would taunt Hannah as they went to the Tabernacle.* Each time, Hannah would be reduced to tears and would not even eat.

aren't you eating? Why be downhearted just because you have no children? You have me—isn't that better than having ten sons?"

Hannah's Prayer for a Son

<sup>9</sup> Once after a sacrificial meal at Shiloh, Hannah got up and went to pray. Eli the priest was sitting at his customary place beside the entrance of the Tabernacle.* <sup>10</sup>Hannah was in deep anguish, crying bitterly as she prayed to the LORD. <sup>11</sup>And she made this vow: "O LORD of Heaven's Armies, if you will look upon my sorrow and answer my prayer and give me a son, then I will give him back to you. He will be yours for his entire lifetime, and as a sign that he has been dedicated to the LORD, his hair will never be cut.*"

<sup>12</sup> As she was praying to the LORD, Eli watched her. <sup>13</sup>Seeing her lips moving but hearing no sound, he thought she had been drinking. <sup>14</sup>"Must you come here drunk?" he demanded. "Throw away your wine!"

<sup>15</sup>"Oh no, sir!" she replied. "I haven't been drinking wine or anything stronger. But I am very discouraged, and I was pouring out my heart to the LORD. <sup>16</sup>Don't think I am a wicked woman! For I have been praying out of great anguish and sorrow."

<sup>17</sup>"In that case," Eli said, "go in peace! May the God of Israel grant the request you have asked of him."

<sup>18</sup>"Oh, thank you, sir!" she exclaimed. Then she went back and began to eat again, and she was no longer sad.

Samuel

Samuel's Birth and Dedication

<sup>19</sup> The entire family got up early the next morning and went to worship the LORD once more. Then they returned home to Ramah. When Elkanah slept with Hannah, the LORD remembered her plea,<sup>20</sup> and in due time she gave birth to a son. She named him Samuel,* for she said, “I asked the LORD for him.”

Hear Her Tears

<sup>21</sup> The next year Elkanah and his family went on their annual trip to offer a sacrifice to the LORD. <sup>22</sup> But Hannah did not go. She told her husband, “Wait until the boy is weaned. Then I will take him to the Tabernacle and leave him there with the LORD permanently.*”

<sup>23</sup> “Whatever you think is best,” Elkanah agreed. “Stay here for now, and may the LORD help you keep your promise.” So she stayed home and nursed the boy until he was weaned.

<sup>24</sup> When the child was weaned, Hannah took him to the Tabernacle in Shiloh. They brought along a three-year-old bull* for the sacrifice and a basket* of flour and some wine. <sup>25</sup>After sacrificing the bull, they brought the boy to Eli. <sup>26</sup>“Sir, do you remember me?” Hannah asked. “I am the woman who stood here several years ago praying to the LORD. <sup>27</sup>I asked the LORD to give me this boy, and he has granted my request. <sup>28</sup>Now I am giving him to the LORD, and he will belong to the LORD his whole life.” And they* worshiped the LORD there.

1 Samuel 2

Hannah's Prayer of Praise

<sup>1</sup> Then Hannah prayed:

“My heart rejoices in the LORD!
The LORD has made me strong.*
Now I have an answer for my enemies;
I rejoice because you rescued me.
<sup>2</sup>No one is holy like the LORD!
There is no one besides you;
there is no Rock like our God.

<sup>3</sup>“Stop acting so proud and haughty!
Don't speak with such arrogance!
For the LORD is a God who knows what you have done;
he will judge your actions.

<sup>4</sup> The bow of the mighty is now broken, and those who stumbled are now strong.

<sup>5</sup> Those who were well fed are now starving, and those who were starving are now full.
The childless woman now has seven children, and the woman with many children wastes away.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD gives both death and life;
he brings some down to the grave* but raises others up.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD makes some poor and others rich;
he brings some down and lifts others up.

<sup>8</sup>He lifts the poor from the dust and the needy from the garbage dump.
He sets them among princes, placing them in seats of honor.
For all the earth is the LORD's,
and he has set the world in order.

<sup>9</sup>“He will protect his faithful ones, but the wicked will disappear in darkness.
No one will succeed by strength alone.
<sup>10</sup>Those who fight against the LORD will be shattered.
He thunders against them from heaven;
the LORD judges throughout the earth.
He gives power to his king;
he increases the strength* of his anointed one.”

What the Bible Says about
Praying

<sup>11</sup>Then Elkanah returned home to Ramah without Samuel.
And the boy served the LORD by assisting Eli the priest.

Eli's Wicked Sons

<sup>12</sup> Now the sons of Eli were scoundrels who had no respect for the LORD <sup>13</sup>or for their duties as priests. Whenever anyone offered a sacrifice, Eli's sons would send over a servant with a three-pronged fork. While the meat of the sacrificed animal was still boiling, <sup>14</sup>the servant would stick the fork into the pot and demand that whatever it brought up be given to Eli's sons. All the Israelites who came to worship at Shiloh were treated this way. <sup>15</sup>Sometimes the servant would come even before the animal's fat had been burned on the altar. He would demand raw meat before it had been boiled so that it could be used for roasting.

<sup>16</sup>The man offering the sacrifice might reply, "Take as much as you want, but the fat must be burned first." Then the servant would demand, "No, give it to me now, or I'll take it by force." <sup>17</sup>So the sin of these young men was very serious in the LORD's sight, for they treated the LORD's offerings with contempt.

<sup>18</sup>But Samuel, though he was only a boy, served the LORD. He wore a linen garment like that of a priest.* <sup>19</sup>Each year his mother made a small coat for him and brought it to him when she came with her husband for the sacrifice. <sup>20</sup>Before they returned home, Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife and say, "May the LORD give you other children to take the place of this one she gave to the LORD.*" <sup>21</sup>And the LORD gave Hannah three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile, Samuel grew up in the presence of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>Now Eli was very old, but he was aware of what his sons were doing to the people of Israel. He knew, for instance, that his sons were seducing the young women who assisted at the entrance of the Tabernacle.* <sup>23</sup>Eli said to them, "I have been hearing reports from all the people about the wicked things you are doing. Why do you keep sinning? <sup>24</sup>You must stop, my sons! The reports I hear among the LORD's people are not good.

<sup>25</sup>If someone sins against another person, God* can mediate for the guilty party. But if someone sins against the LORD, who can intercede?" But Eli's sons wouldn't listen to their father, for the LORD was already planning to put them to death.

<sup>26</sup>Meanwhile, the boy Samuel grew taller and grew in favor with the LORD and with the people.

A Warning for Eli's Family

<sup>27</sup>One day a man of God came to Eli and gave him this message from the LORD: "I revealed myself* to your ancestors when the people of Israel were slaves in Egypt. <sup>28</sup>I chose your ancestor Aaron* from among all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer sacrifices on my altar, to burn incense, and to wear the priestly vest* as he served me. And I assigned the sacrificial offerings to you priests. <sup>29</sup>So why do you scorn my sacrifices and offerings? Why do you give your sons more honor than you give me—for you and they have become fat from the best offerings of my people Israel!

<sup>30</sup>"Therefore, the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I promised that your branch of the tribe of Levi* would always be my priests. But I will honor those who honor me, and I will despise those who think lightly of me. <sup>31</sup>The time is coming when I will put an end to your family, so it will no longer serve as my priests. All the members of your family will die before their time. None will reach old age. <sup>32</sup>You will watch with envy as I pour out prosperity on the people of Israel. But no members of your family will ever live out their days. <sup>33</sup>Those who survive will live in sadness and grief, and their children will die a violent death.*<sup>34</sup> And to prove that what I have said will come true, I will cause your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, to die on the same day!

<sup>35</sup>“Then I will raise up a faithful priest who will serve me and do what I desire. I will establish his family, and they will be priests to my anointed kings forever.<sup>36</sup> Then all of your surviving family will bow before him, begging for money and food. ‘Please,’ they will say, ‘give us jobs among the priests so we will have enough to eat.’”

1 Samuel 3

The LORD Speaks to Samuel

<sup>1</sup> Meanwhile, the boy Samuel served the LORD by assisting Eli. Now in those days messages from the LORD were very rare, and visions were quite uncommon.

<sup>2</sup> One night Eli, who was almost blind by now, had gone to bed. <sup>3</sup> The lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was sleeping in the Tabernacle* near the Ark of God. <sup>4</sup> Suddenly the LORD called out, “Samuel!”

“Yes?” Samuel replied. “What is it?” <sup>5</sup> He got up and ran to Eli. “Here I am. Did you call me?”

“I didn’t call you,” Eli replied. “Go back to bed.” So he did.

<sup>6</sup> Then the LORD called out again, “Samuel!”

Again Samuel got up and went to Eli. “Here I am. Did you call me?”

“I didn’t call you, my son,” Eli said. “Go back to bed.”

<sup>7</sup> Samuel did not yet know the LORD because he had never had a message from the LORD before. <sup>8</sup> So the LORD called a third time, and once more Samuel got up and went to Eli. “Here I am. Did you call me?”

Then Eli realized it was the LORD who was calling the boy. <sup>9</sup> So he said to Samuel, “Go and lie down again, and if someone calls again, say, ‘Speak, LORD, your servant is listening.’” So Samuel went back to bed.

<sup>10</sup> And the LORD came and called as before, “Samuel! Samuel!”

And Samuel replied, “Speak, your servant is listening.”

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to Samuel, “I am about to do a shocking thing in Israel. <sup>12</sup>I am going to carry out all my threats against Eli and his family, from beginning to end. <sup>13</sup>I have warned him that judgment is coming upon his family forever, because his sons are blaspheming God* and he hasn’t disciplined them. <sup>14</sup>So I have vowed that the sins of Eli and his sons will never be forgiven by sacrifices or offerings.”

Samuel Speaks for the LORD

<sup>15</sup>Samuel stayed in bed until morning, then got up and opened the doors of the Tabernacle* as usual. He was afraid to tell Eli what the LORD had said to him. <sup>16</sup> But Eli called out to him, “Samuel, my son.”

“Here I am,” Samuel replied.

<sup>17</sup>“What did the LORD say to you? Tell me everything. And may God strike you and even kill you if you hide anything from me!” <sup>18</sup>So Samuel told Eli everything; he didn’t hold anything back. “It is the LORD’s will,” Eli replied. “Let him do what he thinks best.”

<sup>19</sup>As Samuel grew up, the LORD was with him, and everything Samuel said proved to be reliable. <sup>20</sup>And all Israel, from Dan in the north to Beersheba in the south, knew that Samuel was confirmed as a prophet of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>The LORD continued to appear at Shiloh and gave messages to Samuel there at the Tabernacle.

1 Samuel 4

The Philistines Capture the Ark

<sup>1</sup>And Samuel's words went out to all the people of Israel.* At that time Israel was at war with the Philistines. The Israelite army was camped near Ebenezer, and the Philistines were at Aphek. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines attacked and defeated the army of Israel, killing 4,000 men. <sup>3</sup>After the battle was over, the troops retreated to their camp, and the elders of Israel asked, "Why did the LORD allow us to be defeated by the Philistines?" Then they said, "Let's bring the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD from Shiloh. If we carry it into battle with us, it* will save us from our enemies."

<sup>4</sup>So they sent men to Shiloh to bring the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD of Heaven's Armies, who is enthroned between the cherubim. Hophni and Phinehas, the sons of Eli, were also there with the Ark of the Covenant of God. <sup>5</sup>When all the Israelites saw the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD coming into the camp, their shout of joy was so loud it made the ground shake!

<sup>6</sup>"What's going on?" the Philistines asked. "What's all the shouting about in the Hebrew camp?" When they were told it was because the Ark of the LORD had arrived, <sup>7</sup>they panicked. "The gods have* come into their camp!" they cried. "This is a disaster! We have never had to face anything like this before! <sup>8</sup>Help! Who can save us from these mighty gods of Israel?"

They are the same gods who destroyed the Egyptians with plagues when Israel was in the wilderness.<sup>9</sup> Fight as never before, Philistines! If you don't, we will become the Hebrews' slaves just as they have been ours! Stand up like men and fight!"

<sup>10</sup>So the Philistines fought desperately, and Israel was defeated again. The slaughter was great; 30,000 Israelite soldiers died that day. The survivors turned and fled to their tents.<sup>11</sup> The Ark of God was captured, and Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli, were killed.

The Death of Eli

The messenger rushed over to Eli,<sup>15</sup> who was ninety-eight years old and blind.<sup>16</sup> He said to Eli, "I have just come from the battlefield—I was there this very day."

"What happened, my son?" Eli demanded.

<sup>17</sup>"Israel has been defeated by the Philistines," the messenger replied. "The people have been slaughtered, and your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were also killed. And the Ark of God has been captured."

<sup>18</sup>When the messenger mentioned what had happened to the Ark of God, Eli fell backward from his seat beside the gate. He broke his neck and died, for he was old and overweight. He had been Israel's judge for forty years.

<sup>19</sup>Eli's daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant and near her time of delivery. When she heard that the Ark of God had been captured and that her father-in-law and husband were dead, she went into labor and gave birth. <sup>20</sup>She died in childbirth, but before she passed away the midwives tried to encourage her. "Don't be afraid," they said. "You have a baby boy!" But she did not answer or pay attention to them.

<sup>21</sup>She named the child Ichabod (which means "Where is the glory?"), for she said, "Israel's glory is gone." She named him this because the Ark of God had been captured and because her father-in-law and husband were dead. <sup>22</sup>Then she said, "The glory has departed from Israel, for the Ark of God has been captured."

1 Samuel 5

The Ark in Philistia

<sup>1</sup> After the Philistines captured the Ark of God, they took it from the battleground at Ebenezer to the town of Ashdod. <sup>2</sup>They carried the Ark of God into the temple of Dagon and placed it beside an idol of Dagon. <sup>3</sup>But when the citizens of Ashdod went to see it the next morning, Dagon had fallen with his face to the ground in front of the Ark of the LORD! So they took Dagon and put him in his place again. <sup>4</sup>But the next morning the same thing happened—Dagon had fallen face down before the Ark of the LORD again. This time his head and hands had broken off and were lying in the doorway. Only the trunk of his body was left intact. <sup>5</sup>That is why to this day neither the priests of Dagon nor anyone who enters the temple of Dagon in Ashdod will step on its threshold.

<sup>6</sup> Then the LORD's heavy hand struck the people of Ashdod and the nearby villages with a plague of tumors.* <sup>7</sup>When the people realized what was happening, they cried out, "We can't keep the Ark of the God of Israel here any longer! He is against us! We will all be destroyed along with Dagon, our god." <sup>8</sup>So they called together the rulers of the Philistine towns and asked, "What should we do with the Ark of the God of Israel?"

The rulers discussed it and replied, "Move it to the town of Gath." So they moved the Ark of the God of Israel to Gath. <sup>9</sup>But when the Ark arrived at Gath, the LORD's heavy hand fell on its men, young and old; he struck them with a plague of tumors, and there was a great panic.

<sup>10</sup>So they sent the Ark of God to the town of Ekron, but when the people of Ekron saw it coming they cried out, “They are bringing the Ark of the God of Israel here to kill us, too!” <sup>11</sup>The people summoned the Philistine rulers again and begged them, “Please send the Ark of the God of Israel back to its own country, or it * will kill us all.” For the deadly plague from God had already begun, and great fear was sweeping across the town. <sup>12</sup>Those who didn’t die were afflicted with tumors; and the cry from the town rose to heaven.

1 Samuel 6

The Philistines Return the Ark

<sup>1</sup>The Ark of the LORD remained in Philistine territory seven months in all. <sup>2</sup>Then the Philistines called in their priests and diviners and asked them, “What should we do about the Ark of the LORD? Tell us how to return it to its own country.”

<sup>3</sup>“Send the Ark of the God of Israel back with a gift,” they were told. “Send a guilt offering so the plague will stop. Then, if you are healed, you will know it was his hand that caused the plague.”

<sup>4</sup>“What sort of guilt offering should we send?” they asked.

And they were told, “Since the plague has struck both you and your five rulers, make five gold tumors and five gold rats, just like those that have ravaged your land. <sup>5</sup>Make these things to show honor to the God of Israel. Perhaps then he will stop afflicting you, your gods, and your land. <sup>6</sup>Don’t be stubborn and rebellious as Pharaoh and the Egyptians were. By the time God was finished with them, they were eager to let Israel go.

<sup>7</sup>“Now build a new cart, and find two cows that have just given birth to calves. Make sure the cows have never been yoked to a cart. Hitch the cows to the cart, but shut their calves away from them in a pen. <sup>8</sup>Put the Ark of the LORD on the cart, and beside it place a chest containing the gold rats and gold tumors you are sending as a guilt offering. Then let the cows go wherever they want. <sup>9</sup>If they cross the border of our land and go to Beth-shemesh, we will know it was the LORD who brought this great disaster upon us. If they don't, we will know it was not his hand that caused the plague. It came simply by chance."

<sup>10</sup>So these instructions were carried out. Two cows were hitched to the cart, and their newborn calves were shut up in a pen. <sup>11</sup>Then the Ark of the LORD and the chest containing the gold rats and gold tumors were placed on the cart. <sup>12</sup>And sure enough, without veering off in other directions, the cows went straight along the road toward Beth-shemesh, lowing as they went. The Philistine rulers followed them as far as the border of Beth-shemesh.

<sup>13</sup>The people of Beth-shemesh were harvesting wheat in the valley, and when they saw the Ark, they were overjoyed! <sup>14</sup>The cart came into the field of a man named Joshua and stopped beside a large rock. So the people broke up the wood of the cart for a fire and killed the cows and sacrificed them to the LORD as a burnt offering. <sup>15</sup>Several men of the tribe of Levi lifted the Ark of the LORD and the chest containing the gold rats and gold tumors from the cart and placed them on the large rock. Many sacrifices and burnt offerings were offered to the LORD that day by the people of Beth-shemesh. <sup>16</sup>The five Philistine rulers watched all this and then returned to Ekron that same day.

<sup>17</sup>The five gold tumors sent by the Philistines as a guilt offering to the LORD were gifts from the rulers of Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron. <sup>18</sup>The five gold rats represented the five Philistine towns and their surrounding villages, which were controlled by the five rulers. The large rock at Beth-shemesh, where they set the Ark of the LORD, still stands in the field of Joshua as a witness to what happened there.

The Ark Moved to Kiriath-Jearim

<sup>19</sup> But the LORD killed seventy men* from Beth-shemesh because they looked into the Ark of the LORD. And the people mourned greatly because of what the LORD had done. <sup>20</sup>“Who is able to stand in the presence of the LORD, this holy God?” they cried out. “Where can we send the Ark from here?”

<sup>21</sup>So they sent messengers to the people at Kiriath-jearim and told them, “The Philistines have returned the Ark of the LORD. Come here and get it!”

1 Samuel 7

<sup>1</sup>So the men of Kiriath-jearim came to get the Ark of the LORD. They took it to the hillside home of Abinadab and ordained Eleazar, his son, to be in charge of it. <sup>2</sup>The Ark remained in Kiriath-jearim for a long time—twenty years in all. During that time all Israel mourned because it seemed the LORD had abandoned them.

Samuel Leads Israel to Victory

<sup>3</sup> Then Samuel said to all the people of Israel, “If you are really serious about wanting to return to the LORD, get rid of your foreign gods and your images of Ashtoreth. Determine to obey only the LORD; then he will rescue you from the Philistines.” <sup>4</sup>So the Israelites got rid of their images of Baal and Ashtoreth and worshiped only the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>Then Samuel told them, “Gather all of Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray to the LORD for you.” <sup>6</sup>So they gathered at Mizpah and, in a great ceremony, drew water from a well and poured it out before the LORD. They also went without food all day and confessed that they had sinned against the LORD. (It was at Mizpah that Samuel became Israel’s judge.)

<sup>7</sup> When the Philistine rulers heard that Israel had gathered at Mizpah, they mobilized their army and advanced. The Israelites were badly frightened when they learned that the Philistines were approaching. <sup>8</sup>“Don’t stop pleading with the LORD our God to save us from the Philistines!” they begged Samuel. <sup>9</sup>So

Samuel took a young lamb and offered it to the LORD as a whole burnt offering. He pleaded with the LORD to help Israel, and the LORD answered him.

<sup>10</sup>Just as Samuel was sacrificing the burnt offering, the Philistines arrived to attack Israel. But the LORD spoke with a mighty voice of thunder from heaven that day, and the Philistines were thrown into such confusion that the Israelites defeated them. <sup>11</sup>The men of Israel chased them from Mizpah to a place below Beth-car, slaughtering them all along the way.

<sup>12</sup>Samuel then took a large stone and placed it between the towns of Mizpah and Jeshanah.* He named it Ebenezer (which means “the stone of help”), for he said, “Up to this point the LORD has helped us!”

<sup>13</sup>So the Philistines were subdued and didn’t invade Israel again for some time. And throughout Samuel’s lifetime, the LORD’s powerful hand was raised against the Philistines. <sup>14</sup>The Israelite villages near Ekron and Gath that the Philistines had captured were restored to Israel, along with the rest of the territory that the Philistines had taken. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites in those days.

<sup>15</sup>Samuel continued as Israel’s judge for the rest of his life. <sup>16</sup>Each year he traveled around, setting up his court first at Bethel, then at Gilgal, and then at Mizpah. He judged the people of Israel at each of these places. <sup>17</sup>Then he would return to his home at Ramah, and he would hear cases there, too. And Samuel built an altar to the LORD at Ramah.

1 Samuel 8

Israel Requests a King

<sup>1</sup>As Samuel grew old, he appointed his sons to be judges over Israel. <sup>2</sup>Joel and Abijah, his oldest sons, held court in Beersheba. <sup>3</sup>But they were not like their father, for they were greedy for money. They accepted bribes and perverted justice.

<sup>4</sup>Finally, all the elders of Israel met at Ramah to discuss the matter with Samuel. <sup>5</sup>“Look,” they told him, “you are now old, and your sons are not like you. Give us a king to judge us like all the other nations have.”

<sup>6</sup>Samuel was displeased with their request and went to the LORD for guidance. <sup>7</sup>“Do everything they say to you,” the LORD replied, “for it is me they are rejecting, not you. They don’t want me to be their king any longer. <sup>8</sup>Ever since I brought them from Egypt they have continually abandoned me and followed other gods. And now they are giving you the same treatment. <sup>9</sup>Do as they ask, but solemnly warn them about the way a king will reign over them.”

Samuel Warns against a Kingdom

<sup>10</sup>So Samuel passed on the LORD’s warning to the people who were asking him for a king. <sup>11</sup>“This is how a king will reign over you,” Samuel said. “The king will draft your sons and assign them to his chariots and his charioteers, making them run before his chariots. <sup>12</sup>Some will be generals and captains in his army,* some will be forced to plow in his fields and harvest his crops, and some will make his weapons and chariot equipment.

<sup>13</sup>The king will take your daughters from you and force them to cook and bake and make perfumes for him. <sup>14</sup>He will take away the best of your fields and vineyards and olive groves and give them to his own officials. <sup>15</sup>He will take a tenth of your grain and your grape harvest and distribute it among his officers and attendants. <sup>16</sup>He will take your male and female slaves and demand the finest of your cattle* and donkeys for his own use. <sup>17</sup>He will demand a tenth of your flocks, and you will be his slaves. <sup>18</sup>When that day comes, you will beg for relief from this king you are demanding, but then the LORD will not help you.”

<sup>19</sup>But the people refused to listen to Samuel’s warning. “Even so, we still want a king,” they said. <sup>20</sup>“We want to be like the nations around us. Our king will judge us and lead us into battle.”

<sup>21</sup>So Samuel repeated to the LORD what the people had said, <sup>22</sup>and the LORD replied, “Do as they say, and give them a king.” Then Samuel agreed and sent the people home.

1 Samuel 9

Saul Meets Samuel

<sup>1</sup>There was a wealthy, influential man named Kish from the tribe of Benjamin. He was the son of Abiel, son of Zeror, son of Becorath, son of Aphiah, of the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup> His son Saul was the most handsome man in Israel—head and shoulders taller than anyone else in the land.

<sup>3</sup>One day Kish's donkeys strayed away, and he told Saul, "Take a servant with you, and go look for the donkeys." <sup>4</sup>So Saul took one of the servants and traveled through the hill country of Ephraim, the land of Shalishah, the Shaalim area, and the entire land of Benjamin, but they couldn't find the donkeys anywhere.

<sup>5</sup>Finally, they entered the region of Zuph, and Saul said to his servant, "Let's go home. By now my father will be more worried about us than about the donkeys!"

<sup>6</sup>But the servant said, “I’ve just thought of something! There is a man of God who lives here in this town. He is held in high honor by all the people because everything he says comes true. Let’s go find him. Perhaps he can tell us which way to go.”

<sup>7</sup>“But we don’t have anything to offer him,” Saul replied. “Even our food is gone, and we don’t have a thing to give him.”

<sup>8</sup>“Well,” the servant said, “I have one small silver piece.* We can at least offer it to the man of God and see what happens!”
<sup>9</sup>(In those days if people wanted a message from God, they would say, “Let’s go and ask the seer,” for prophets used to be called seers.)

<sup>10</sup>“All right,” Saul agreed, “let’s try it!” So they started into the town where the man of God lived.

<sup>11</sup>As they were climbing the hill to the town, they met some young women coming out to draw water. So Saul and his servant asked, “Is the seer here today?”

<sup>12</sup>“Yes,” they replied. “Stay right on this road. He is at the town gates. He has just arrived to take part in a public sacrifice up at the place of worship. <sup>13</sup>Hurry and catch him before he goes up there to eat. The guests won’t begin eating until he arrives to bless the food.”

<sup>14</sup>So they entered the town, and as they passed through the gates, Samuel was coming out toward them to go up to the place of worship.

<sup>15</sup>Now the LORD had told Samuel the previous day, <sup>16</sup>“About this time tomorrow I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin. Anoint him to be the leader of my people, Israel. He will rescue them from the Philistines, for I have looked down on my people in mercy and have heard their cry.”

<sup>17</sup>When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said, “That’s the man I told you about! He will rule my people.”

<sup>18</sup>Just then Saul approached Samuel at the gateway and asked, “Can you please tell me where the seer’s house is?”

<sup>19</sup>“I am the seer!” Samuel replied. “Go up to the place of worship ahead of me. We will eat there together, and in the morning I’ll tell you what you want to know and send you on your way. <sup>20</sup>And don’t worry about those donkeys that were lost three days ago, for they have been found. And I am here to tell you that you and your family are the focus of all Israel’s hopes.”

<sup>21</sup>Saul replied, “But I’m only from the tribe of Benjamin, the smallest tribe in Israel, and my family is the least important of all the families of that tribe! Why are you talking like this to me?”

<sup>25</sup>When they came down from the place of worship and returned to town, Samuel took Saul up to the roof of the house and prepared a bed for him there.* <sup>26</sup>At daybreak the next morning, Samuel called to Saul, “Get up! It’s time you were on your way.” So Saul got ready, and he and Samuel left the house together. <sup>27</sup>When they reached the edge of town, Samuel told Saul to send his servant on ahead. After the servant was gone, Samuel said, “Stay here, for I have received a special message for you from God.”

1 Samuel 10

Samuel Anoints Saul as King

<sup>1</sup> Then Samuel took a flask of olive oil and poured it over Saul's head. He kissed Saul and said, "I am doing this because the LORD has appointed you to be the ruler over Israel, his special possession.*" <sup>2</sup> When you leave me today, you will see two men beside Rachel's tomb at Zelzah, on the border of Benjamin. They will tell you that the donkeys have been found and that your father has stopped worrying about them and is now worried about you. He is asking, 'Have you seen my son?'

<sup>3</sup> "When you get to the oak of Tabor, you will see three men coming toward you who are on their way to worship God at Bethel. One will be bringing three young goats, another will have three loaves of bread, and the third will be carrying a wineskin full of wine. <sup>4</sup> They will greet you and offer you two of the loaves, which you are to accept.

<sup>5</sup> "When you arrive at Gibeah of God,* where the garrison of the Philistines is located, you will meet a band of prophets coming down from the place of worship. They will be playing a harp, a tambourine, a flute, and a lyre, and they will be prophesying. <sup>6</sup> At that time the Spirit of the LORD will come powerfully upon you, and you will prophesy with them. You will be changed into a different person. <sup>7</sup> After these signs take place, do what must be done, for God is with you. <sup>8</sup> Then go down to Gilgal ahead of me. I will join you there to sacrifice burnt offerings and peace offerings. You must wait for seven days until I arrive and give you further instructions.”

Samuel's Signs Are Fulfilled

<sup>9</sup>As Saul turned and started to leave, God gave him a new heart, and all Samuel's signs were fulfilled that day. <sup>10</sup>When Saul and his servant arrived at Gibeah, they saw a group of prophets coming toward them. Then the Spirit of God came powerfully upon Saul, and he, too, began to prophesy. <sup>11</sup>When those who knew Saul heard about it, they exclaimed, “What? Is even Saul a prophet? How did the son of Kish become a prophet?”

<sup>12</sup>And one of those standing there said, “Can anyone become a prophet, no matter who his father is?”* So that is the origin of the saying “Is even Saul a prophet?”

<sup>13</sup>When Saul had finished prophesying, he went up to the place of worship. <sup>14</sup>“Where have you been?” Saul's uncle asked him and his servant.

“We were looking for the donkeys,” Saul replied, “but we couldn't find them. So we went to Samuel to ask him where they were.”

<sup>16</sup>“He told us that the donkeys had already been found,” Saul replied. But Saul didn't tell his uncle what Samuel said about the kingdom.

Saul Is Acclaimed King

<sup>17</sup>Later Samuel called all the people of Israel to meet before the LORD at Mizpah. <sup>18</sup>And he said, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has declared: I brought you from Egypt and rescued you from the Egyptians and from all of the nations that were oppressing you. <sup>19</sup>But though I have rescued you from your misery and distress, you have rejected your God today and have said, ‘No, we want a king instead!’ Now, therefore, present yourselves before the LORD by tribes and clans.”

<sup>20</sup>So Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel before the LORD, and the tribe of Benjamin was chosen by lot. <sup>21</sup>Then he brought each family of the tribe of Benjamin before the LORD, and the family of the Matrites was chosen. And finally Saul son of Kish was chosen from among them. But when they looked for him, he had disappeared! <sup>22</sup>So they asked the LORD, “Where is he?”

And the LORD replied, “He is hiding among the baggage.” <sup>23</sup>So they found him and brought him out, and he stood head and shoulders above anyone else.

<sup>24</sup>Then Samuel said to all the people, “This is the man the LORD has chosen as your king. No one in all Israel is like him!”

And all the people shouted, “Long live the king!”

<sup>25</sup>Then Samuel told the people what the rights and duties of a king were. He wrote them down on a scroll and placed it before the LORD. Then Samuel sent the people home again.

<sup>26</sup>When Saul returned to his home at Gibeah, a group of men whose hearts God had touched went with him. <sup>27</sup>But there were some scoundrels who complained, “How can this man save us?” And they scorned him and refused to bring him gifts. But Saul ignored them.

[Nahash, king of the Ammonites, had been grievously oppressing the people of Gad and Reuben who lived east of the Jordan River. He gouged out the right eye of each of the Israelites living there, and he didn't allow anyone to come and rescue them. In fact, of all the Israelites east of the Jordan, there wasn't a single one whose right eye Nahash had not gouged out. But there were 7,000 men who had escaped from the Ammonites, and they had settled in Jabesh-gilead.]*

1 Samuel 11

Saul Defeats the Ammonites

<sup>1</sup>About a month later,* King Nahash of Ammon led his army against the Israelite town of Jabesh-gilead. But all the citizens of Jabesh asked for peace. “Make a treaty with us, and we will be your servants,” they pleaded.

<sup>2</sup>“All right,” Nahash said, “but only on one condition. I will gouge out the right eye of every one of you as a disgrace to all Israel!”

<sup>3</sup>“Give us seven days to send messengers throughout Israel!” replied the elders of Jabesh. “If no one comes to save us, we will agree to your terms.”

<sup>4</sup>When the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and told the people about their plight, everyone broke into tears. <sup>5</sup>Saul had been plowing a field with his oxen, and when he returned to town, he asked, “What’s the matter? Why is everyone crying?” So they told him about the message from Jabesh.

<sup>6</sup>Then the Spirit of God came powerfully upon Saul, and he became very angry. <sup>7</sup>He took two oxen and cut them into pieces and sent the messengers to carry them throughout Israel with this message: “This is what will happen to the oxen of anyone who refuses to follow Saul and Samuel into battle!” And the LORD made the people afraid of Saul’s anger, and all of them came out together as one. <sup>8</sup>When Saul mobilized them at Bezek, he found that there were 300,000 men from Israel and 30,000* men from Judah.

<sup>9</sup>So Saul sent the messengers back to Jabesh-gilead to say, “We will rescue you by noontime tomorrow!” There was great joy throughout the town when that message arrived!

<sup>10</sup>The men of Jabesh then told their enemies, “Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you can do to us whatever you wish.” <sup>11</sup>But before dawn the next morning, Saul arrived, having divided his army into three detachments. He launched a surprise attack against the Ammonites and slaughtered them the whole morning. The remnant of their army was so badly scattered that no two of them were left together.

<sup>12</sup>Then the people exclaimed to Samuel, “Now where are those men who said, ‘Why should Saul rule over us?’ Bring them here, and we will kill them!”

<sup>13</sup> But Saul replied, “No one will be executed today, for today the LORD has rescued Israel!”

<sup>14</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, “Come, let us all go to Gilgal to renew the kingdom.” <sup>15</sup>So they all went to Gilgal, and in a solemn ceremony before the LORD they made Saul king. Then they offered peace offerings to the LORD, and Saul and all the Israelites were filled with joy.

1 Samuel 12

Samuel's Farewell Address

<sup>1</sup>Then Samuel addressed all Israel: "I have done as you asked and given you a king. <sup>2</sup>Your king is now your leader. I stand here before you—an old, gray-haired man—and my sons serve you. I have served as your leader from the time I was a boy to this very day. <sup>3</sup>Now testify against me in the presence of the LORD and before his anointed one. Whose ox or donkey have I stolen? Have I ever cheated any of you? Have I ever oppressed you? Have I ever taken a bribe and perverted justice? Tell me and I will make right whatever I have done wrong."

<sup>4</sup>"No," they replied, "you have never cheated or oppressed us, and you have never taken even a single bribe."

<sup>5</sup>"The LORD and his anointed one are my witnesses today," Samuel declared, "that my hands are clean."

"Yes, he is a witness," they replied.

<sup>6</sup>"It was the LORD who appointed Moses and Aaron," Samuel continued. "He brought your ancestors out of the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>Now stand here quietly before the LORD as I remind you of all the great things the LORD has done for you and your ancestors.

<sup>8</sup>"When the Israelites were* in Egypt and cried out to the LORD, he sent Moses and Aaron to rescue them from Egypt and to bring them into this land. <sup>9</sup>But the people soon forgot about the LORD their God, so he handed them over to Sisera, the commander of Hazor's army, and also to the Philistines and to the king of Moab, who fought against them.

<sup>10</sup>“Then they cried to the LORD again and confessed, ‘We have sinned by turning away from the LORD and worshiping the images of Baal and Ashtoreth. But we will worship you and you alone if you will rescue us from our enemies.’ <sup>11</sup>Then the LORD sent Gideon,* Bedan,* Jephthah, and Samuel* to save you, and you lived in safety.

<sup>12</sup>“But when you were afraid of Nahash, the king of Ammon, you came to me and said that you wanted a king to reign over you, even though the LORD your God was already your king. <sup>13</sup>All right, here is the king you have chosen. You asked for him, and the LORD has granted your request.

<sup>14</sup>“Now if you fear and worship the LORD and listen to his voice, and if you do not rebel against the LORD's commands, then both you and your king will show that you recognize the LORD as your God. <sup>15</sup>But if you rebel against the LORD's commands and refuse to listen to him, then his hand will be as heavy upon you as it was upon your ancestors.

<sup>16</sup>“Now stand here and see the great thing the LORD is about to do. <sup>17</sup>You know that it does not rain at this time of the year during the wheat harvest. I will ask the LORD to send thunder and rain today. Then you will realize how wicked you have been in asking the LORD for a king!”

<sup>18</sup>So Samuel called to the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day. And all the people were terrified of the LORD and of Samuel. <sup>19</sup>“Pray to the LORD your God for us, or we will die!”

they all said to Samuel. “For now we have added to our sins by asking for a king.”

<sup>20</sup> “Don’t be afraid,” Samuel reassured them. “You have certainly done wrong, but make sure now that you worship the LORD with all your heart, and don’t turn your back on him. <sup>21</sup>Don’t go back to worshiping worthless idols that cannot help or rescue you—they are totally useless! <sup>22</sup>The LORD will not abandon his people, because that would dishonor his great name. For it has pleased the LORD to make you his very own people.

<sup>23</sup> “As for me, I will certainly not sin against the LORD by ending my prayers for you. And I will continue to teach you what is good and right. <sup>24</sup>But be sure to fear the LORD and faithfully serve him. Think of all the wonderful things he has done for you. <sup>25</sup>But if you continue to sin, you and your king will be swept away.”

<sup>2</sup>Saul selected 3,000 special troops from the army of Israel and sent the rest of the men home. He took 2,000 of the chosen men with him to Micmash and the hill country of Bethel. The other 1,000 went with Saul's son Jonathan to Gibeah in the land of Benjamin.

<sup>3</sup>Soon after this, Jonathan attacked and defeated the garrison of Philistines at Geba. The news spread quickly among the Philistines. So Saul blew the ram's horn throughout the land, saying, "Hebrews, hear this! Rise up in revolt!" <sup>4</sup>All Israel heard the news that Saul had destroyed the Philistine garrison at Geba and that the Philistines now hated the Israelites more than ever. So the entire Israelite army was summoned to join Saul at Gilgal.

<sup>5</sup>The Philistines mustered a mighty army of 3,000* chariots, 6,000 charioteers, and as many warriors as the grains of sand on the seashore! They camped at Micmash east of Beth-aven. <sup>6</sup>The men of Israel saw what a tight spot they were in; and because they were hard pressed by the enemy, they tried to hide in caves, thickets, rocks, holes, and cisterns. <sup>7</sup>Some of them crossed the Jordan River and escaped into the land of Gad and Gilead.

Saul's Disobedience and Samuel's Rebuke

Meanwhile, Saul stayed at Gilgal, and his men were trembling with fear. <sup>8</sup>Saul waited there seven days for Samuel, as Samuel had instructed him earlier, but Samuel still didn't come. Saul realized that his troops were rapidly slipping away. <sup>9</sup>So he demanded, "Bring me the burnt offering and the peace offerings!" And Saul sacrificed the burnt offering himself.

<sup>10</sup>Just as Saul was finishing with the burnt offering, Samuel arrived. Saul went out to meet and welcome him, <sup>11</sup>but Samuel said, "What is this you have done?"

Saul replied, "I saw my men scattering from me, and you didn't arrive when you said you would, and the Philistines are at Micmash ready for battle. <sup>12</sup>So I said, 'The Philistines are ready to march against us at Gilgal, and I haven't even asked for the LORD's help!' So I felt compelled to offer the burnt offering myself before you came."

<sup>13</sup>"How foolish!" Samuel exclaimed. "You have not kept the command the LORD your God gave you. Had you kept it, the LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel forever. <sup>14</sup>But now your kingdom must end, for the LORD has sought out a man after his own heart. The LORD has already appointed him to be the leader of his people, because you have not kept the LORD's command."

Israel's Military Disadvantage

<sup>15</sup>Samuel then left Gilgal and went on his way, but the rest of the troops went with Saul to meet the army. They went up from Gilgal to Gibeah in the land of Benjamin.* When Saul counted the men who were still with him, he found only 600 were left!

<sup>19</sup>There were no blacksmiths in the land of Israel in those days. The Philistines wouldn't allow them for fear they would make swords and spears for the Hebrews. <sup>20</sup>So whenever the Israelites needed to sharpen their plowshares, picks, axes, or sickles,* they had to take them to a Philistine blacksmith.

<sup>21</sup>(The charges were as follows: a quarter of an ounce of silver* for sharpening a plowshare or a pick, and an eighth of an ounce* for sharpening an ax, a sickle, or an ox goad.) <sup>22</sup>So on the day of the battle none of the people of Israel had a sword or spear, except for Saul and Jonathan.

1 Samuel 14

Jonathan's Daring Plan

<sup>1</sup>One day Jonathan said to his armor bearer, "Come on, let's go over to where the Philistines have their outpost." But Jonathan did not tell his father what he was doing.

<sup>3</sup>Among Saul's men was Ahijah the priest, who was wearing the ephod, the priestly vest. Ahijah was the son of Ichabod's brother Ahitub, son of Phinehas, son of Eli, the priest of the LORD who had served at Shiloh.

No one realized that Jonathan had left the Israelite camp. <sup>4</sup>To reach the Philistine outpost, Jonathan had to go down between two rocky cliffs that were called Bozez and Seneh. <sup>5</sup>The cliff on the north was in front of Micmash, and the one on the south was in front of Geba. <sup>6</sup>"Let's go across to the outpost of those pagans," Jonathan said to his armor bearer. "Perhaps the LORD will help us, for nothing can hinder the LORD. He can win a battle whether he has many warriors or only a few!"

<sup>7</sup>"Do what you think is best," the armor bearer replied. "I'm with you completely, whatever you decide."

<sup>8</sup>"All right then," Jonathan told him. "We will cross over and let them see us. <sup>9</sup>If they say to us, 'Stay where you are or we'll kill you,' then we will stop and not go up to them. <sup>10</sup>But if they say, 'Come on up and fight,' then we will go up. That will be the LORD's sign that he will help us defeat them."

<sup>11</sup>When the Philistines saw them coming, they shouted, "Look! The Hebrews are crawling out of their holes!" <sup>12</sup>Then the men from the outpost shouted to Jonathan, "Come on up here, and we'll teach you a lesson!"

"Come on, climb right behind me," Jonathan said to his armor bearer, "for the LORD will help us defeat them!"

<sup>13</sup>So they climbed up using both hands and feet, and the Philistines fell before Jonathan, and his armor bearer killed those who came behind them. <sup>14</sup>They killed some twenty men in all, and their bodies were scattered over about half an acre.*

<sup>15</sup>Suddenly, panic broke out in the Philistine army, both in the camp and in the field, including even the outposts and raiding parties. And just then an earthquake struck, and everyone was terrified.

Israel Defeats the Philistines

<sup>16</sup>Saul's lookouts in Gibeah of Benjamin saw a strange sight—the vast army of Philistines began to melt away in every direction. <sup>17</sup>"Call the roll and find out who's missing," Saul ordered. And when they checked, they found that Jonathan and his armor bearer were gone.

<sup>18</sup>Then Saul shouted to Ahijah, "Bring the ephod here!" For at that time Ahijah was wearing the ephod in front of the Israelites.* <sup>19</sup> But while Saul was talking to the priest, the confusion in the Philistine camp grew louder and louder. So Saul said to the priest, "Never mind; let's get going!"* found the Philistines killing each other. There was terrible confusion everywhere.<sup>21</sup> Even the Hebrews who had previously gone over to the Philistine army revolted and joined in with Saul, Jonathan, and the rest of the Israelites.<sup>22</sup> Likewise, the men of Israel who were hiding in the hill country of Ephraim joined the chase when they saw the Philistines running away.<sup>23</sup> So the LORD saved Israel that day, and the battle continued to rage even beyond Beth-aven.

Saul's Foolish Oath

<sup>24</sup> Now the men of Israel were pressed to exhaustion that day, because Saul had placed them under an oath, saying, “Let a curse fall on anyone who eats before evening—before I have full revenge on my enemies.” So no one ate anything all day,<sup>25</sup> even though they had all found honeycomb on the ground in the forest.<sup>26</sup> They didn’t dare touch the honey because they all feared the oath they had taken.

<sup>27</sup> But Jonathan had not heard his father’s command, and he dipped the end of his stick into a piece of honeycomb and ate the honey. After he had eaten it, he felt refreshed.*<sup>28</sup> But one of the men saw him and said, “Your father made the army take a strict oath that anyone who eats food today will be cursed. That is why everyone is weary and faint.”

<sup>29</sup> “My father has made trouble for us all!” Jonathan exclaimed. “A command like that only hurts us. See how refreshed I am now that I have eaten this little bit of honey.<sup>30</sup> If the men had been allowed to eat freely from the food they found among our enemies, think how many more Philistines we could have killed!”

<sup>31</sup>They chased and killed the Philistines all day from Micmash to Aijalon, growing more and more faint. <sup>32</sup>That evening they rushed for the battle plunder and butchered the sheep, goats, cattle, and calves, but they ate them without draining the blood. <sup>33</sup>Someone reported to Saul, “Look, the men are sinning against the LORD by eating meat that still has blood in it.”

“That is very wrong,” Saul said. “Find a large stone and roll it over here. <sup>34</sup>Then go out among the troops and tell them, ‘Bring the cattle, sheep, and goats here to me. Kill them here, and drain the blood before you eat them. Do not sin against the LORD by eating meat with the blood still in it.’”

So that night all the troops brought their animals and slaughtered them there. <sup>35</sup>Then Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first of the altars he built to the LORD.

<sup>36</sup>Then Saul said, “Let’s chase the Philistines all night and plunder them until sunrise. Let’s destroy every last one of them.”

His men replied, “We’ll do whatever you think is best.”

But the priest said, “Let’s ask God first.”

<sup>37</sup>So Saul asked God, “Should we go after the Philistines? Will you help us defeat them?” But God made no reply that day.

<sup>38</sup>Then Saul said to the leaders, “Something’s wrong! I want all my army commanders to come here. We must find out what sin was committed today. <sup>39</sup>I vow by the name of the LORD who rescued Israel that the sinner will surely die, even if it is my own son Jonathan!” But no one would tell him what the trouble was.

<sup>40</sup>Then Saul said, “Jonathan and I will stand over here, and all of you stand over there.”

And the people responded to Saul, “Whatever you think is best.”

<sup>41</sup>Then Saul prayed, “O LORD, God of Israel, please show us who is guilty and who is innocent.*” Then they cast sacred lots, and Jonathan and Saul were chosen as the guilty ones, and the people were declared innocent.

<sup>42</sup>Then Saul said, “Now cast lots again and choose between me and Jonathan.” And Jonathan was shown to be the guilty one.

“I tasted a little honey,” Jonathan admitted. “It was only a little bit on the end of my stick. Does that deserve death?”

<sup>44</sup>“Yes, Jonathan,” Saul said, “you must die! May God strike me and even kill me if you do not die for this.”

<sup>45</sup>But the people broke in and said to Saul, “Jonathan has won this great victory for Israel. Should he die? Far from it! As surely as the LORD lives, not one hair on his head will be touched, for God helped him do a great deed today.” So the people rescued Jonathan, and he was not put to death.

<sup>46</sup>Then Saul called back the army from chasing the Philistines, and the Philistines returned home.

Saul's Military Successes

<sup>47</sup>Now when Saul had secured his grasp on Israel's throne, he fought against his enemies in every direction—against Moab, Ammon, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines. And wherever he turned, he was victorious.*<sup>48</sup> He performed great deeds and conquered the Amalekites, saving Israel from all those who had plundered them.

<sup>49</sup>Saul's sons included Jonathan, Ishbosheth,* and Malkishua. He also had two daughters: Merab, who was older, and Michal.<sup>50</sup> Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz. The commander of Saul's army was Abner, the son of Saul's uncle Ner. <sup>51</sup>Saul's father, Kish, and Abner's father, Ner, were both sons of Abiel.

<sup>52</sup>The Israelites fought constantly with the Philistines throughout Saul's lifetime. So whenever Saul observed a young man who was brave and strong, he drafted him into his army.

1 Samuel 15

Saul Destroys the Amalekites

<sup>1</sup>One day Samuel said to Saul, “It was the LORD who told me to anoint you as king of his people, Israel. Now listen to this message from the LORD! <sup>2</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies has declared: I have decided to settle accounts with the nation of Amalek for opposing Israel when they came from Egypt. <sup>3</sup>Now go and completely destroy* the entire Amalekite nation—men, women, children, babies, cattle, sheep, goats, camels, and donkeys.”

<sup>4</sup>So Saul mobilized his army at Telaim. There were 200,000 soldiers from Israel and 10,000 men from Judah. <sup>5</sup>Then Saul and his army went to a town of the Amalekites and lay in wait in the valley. <sup>6</sup>Saul sent this warning to the Kenites: “Move away from where the Amalekites live, or you will die with them. For you showed kindness to all the people of Israel when they came up from Egypt.” So the Kenites packed up and left.

<sup>7</sup>Then Saul slaughtered the Amalekites from Havilah all the way to Shur, east of Egypt. <sup>8</sup>He captured Agag, the Amalekite king, but completely destroyed everyone else. <sup>9</sup>Saul and his men spared Agag’s life and kept the best of the sheep and goats, the cattle, the fat calves, and the lambs—everything, in fact, that appealed to them. They destroyed only what was worthless or of poor quality.

The LORD Rejects Saul

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD said to Samuel, <sup>11</sup>“I am sorry that I ever made Saul king, for he has not been loyal to me and has refused to obey my command.” Samuel was so deeply moved when he heard this that he cried out to the LORD all night.

<sup>12</sup> Early the next morning Samuel went to find Saul. Someone told him, “Saul went to the town of Carmel to set up a monument to himself; then he went on to Gilgal.”

<sup>13</sup> When Samuel finally found him, Saul greeted him cheerfully. “May the LORD bless you,” he said. “I have carried out the LORD’s command!”

<sup>14</sup> “Then what is all the bleating of sheep and goats and the lowing of cattle I hear?” Samuel demanded.

<sup>15</sup> “It’s true that the army spared the best of the sheep, goats, and cattle,” Saul admitted. “But they are going to sacrifice them to the LORD your God. We have destroyed everything else.”

<sup>16</sup> Then Samuel said to Saul, “Stop! Listen to what the LORD told me last night!”

“What did he tell you?” Saul asked.

<sup>17</sup> And Samuel told him, “Although you may think little of yourself, are you not the leader of the tribes of Israel? The LORD has anointed you king of Israel. <sup>18</sup> And the LORD sent you on a mission and told you, ‘Go and completely destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, until they are all dead.’ <sup>19</sup> Why haven’t you obeyed the LORD? Why did you rush for the plunder and do what was evil in the LORD’s sight?”

<sup>20</sup> “But I did obey the LORD,” Saul insisted. “I carried out the mission he gave me. I brought back King Agag, but I destroyed everyone else. <sup>21</sup>Then my troops brought in the best of the sheep, goats, cattle, and plunder to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal.”

<sup>22</sup> But Samuel replied,

“What is more pleasing to the LORD:

your burnt offerings and sacrifices or your obedience to his voice?

Listen! Obedience is better than sacrifice, and submission is better than offering the fat of rams.

<sup>23</sup>Rebellion is as sinful as witchcraft, and stubbornness as bad as worshipping idols.

So because you have rejected the command of the LORD,

he has rejected you as king.”

Saul Pleads for Forgiveness

<sup>24</sup>Then Saul admitted to Samuel, “Yes, I have sinned. I have disobeyed your instructions and the LORD’s command, for I was afraid of the people and did what they demanded. <sup>25</sup>But now, please forgive my sin and come back with me so that I may worship the LORD.”

<sup>26</sup>But Samuel replied, “I will not go back with you! Since you have rejected the LORD’s command, he has rejected you as king of Israel.”

<sup>27</sup>As Samuel turned to go, Saul tried to hold him back and tore the hem of his robe. <sup>28</sup>And Samuel said to him, “The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today and has given it to someone else—one who is better than you. <sup>29</sup>And he who is the Glory of Israel will not lie, nor will he change his mind, for he is not human that he should change his mind!”

<sup>30</sup>Then Saul pleaded again, “I know I have sinned. But please, at least honor me before the elders of my people and before Israel by coming back with me so that I may worship the LORD your God.” <sup>31</sup>So Samuel finally agreed and went back with him, and Saul worshiped the LORD.

Samuel Executes King Agag

<sup>32</sup> Then Samuel said, “Bring King Agag to me.” Agag arrived full of hope, for he thought, “Surely the worst is over, and I have been spared!”* <sup>33</sup>But Samuel said, “As your sword has killed the sons of many mothers, now your mother will be childless.” And Samuel cut Agag to pieces before the LORD at Gilgal.

<sup>34</sup>Then Samuel went home to Ramah, and Saul returned to his house at Gibeah of Saul. <sup>35</sup>Samuel never went to meet with Saul again, but he mourned constantly for him. And the LORD was sorry he had ever made Saul king of Israel.

1 Samuel 16

Samuel Anoints David as King

<sup>1</sup> Now the LORD said to Samuel, “You have mourned long enough for Saul. I have rejected him as king of Israel, so fill your flask with olive oil and go to Bethlehem. Find a man named Jesse who lives there, for I have selected one of his sons to be my king.”

<sup>2</sup> But Samuel asked, “How can I do that? If Saul hears about it, he will kill me.”

“Take a heifer with you,” the LORD replied, “and say that you have come to make a sacrifice to the LORD. <sup>3</sup> Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you which of his sons to anoint for me.”

<sup>4</sup> So Samuel did as the LORD instructed. When he arrived at Bethlehem, the elders of the town came trembling to meet him. “What’s wrong?” they asked. “Do you come in peace?”

<sup>5</sup> “Yes,” Samuel replied. “I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Purify yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice.” Then Samuel performed the purification rite for Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice, too.

<sup>7</sup> But the LORD said to Samuel, “Don’t judge by his appearance or height, for I have rejected him. The LORD doesn’t see things the way you see them. People judge by outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.”

<sup>8</sup>Then Jesse told his son Abinadab to step forward and walk in front of Samuel. But Samuel said, “This is not the one the LORD has chosen.” <sup>9</sup>Next Jesse summoned Shimea,* but Samuel said, “Neither is this the one the LORD has chosen.” <sup>10</sup>In the same way all seven of Jesse’s sons were presented to Samuel. But Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen any of these.” <sup>11</sup>Then Samuel asked, “Are these all the sons you have?”

“There is still the youngest,” Jesse replied. “But he’s out in the fields watching the sheep and goats.”

“Send for him at once,” Samuel said. “We will not sit down to eat until he arrives.”

<sup>12</sup>So Jesse sent for him. He was dark and handsome, with beautiful eyes.

And the LORD said, “This is the one; anoint him.”

<sup>13</sup>So as David stood there among his brothers, Samuel took the flask of olive oil he had brought and anointed David with the oil. And the Spirit of the LORD came powerfully upon David from that day on. Then Samuel returned to Ramah.

David Serves in Saul’s Court

<sup>14</sup>Now the Spirit of the LORD had left Saul, and the LORD sent a tormenting spirit* that filled him with depression and fear.

<sup>15</sup>Some of Saul’s servants said to him, “A tormenting spirit from God is troubling you.” <sup>16</sup>Let us find a good musician to play the harp whenever the tormenting spirit troubles you. He will play soothing music, and you will soon be well again.”

and bring him here.”

<sup>18</sup>One of the servants said to Saul, “One of Jesse’s sons from Bethlehem is a talented harp player. Not only that—he is a brave warrior, a man of war, and has good judgment. He is also a fine-looking young man, and the LORD is with him.”

<sup>19</sup>So Saul sent messengers to Jesse to say, “Send me your son David, the shepherd.” <sup>20</sup>Jesse responded by sending David to Saul, along with a young goat, a donkey loaded with bread, and a wineskin full of wine.

<sup>21</sup>So David went to Saul and began serving him. Saul loved David very much, and David became his armor bearer.

<sup>22</sup>Then Saul sent word to Jesse asking, “Please let David remain in my service, for I am very pleased with him.”

<sup>23</sup>And whenever the tormenting spirit from God troubled Saul, David would play the harp. Then Saul would feel better, and the tormenting spirit would go away.

1 Samuel 17

Goliath Challenges the Israelites

Goliath

<sup>4</sup>Then Goliath, a Philistine champion from Gath, came out of the Philistine ranks to face the forces of Israel. He was over nine feet* tall! <sup>5</sup>He wore a bronze helmet, and his bronze coat of mail weighed 125 pounds.* <sup>6</sup>He also wore bronze leg armor, and he carried a bronze javelin on his shoulder. <sup>7</sup>The shaft of his spear was as heavy and thick as a weaver's beam, tipped with an iron spearhead that weighed 15 pounds.* His armor bearer walked ahead of him carrying a shield.

<sup>8</sup>Goliath stood and shouted a taunt across to the Israelites. “Why are you all coming out to fight?” he called. “I am the Philistine champion, but you are only the servants of Saul. Choose one man to come down here and fight me! <sup>9</sup>If he kills me, then we will be your slaves. But if I kill him, you will be our slaves! <sup>10</sup>I defy the armies of Israel today! Send me a man who will fight me!” <sup>11</sup>When Saul and the Israelites heard this, they were terrified and deeply shaken.

Jesse Sends David to Saul’s Camp

<sup>12</sup>Now David was the son of a man named Jesse, an Ephrathite from Bethlehem in the land of Judah. Jesse was an old man at that time, and he had eight sons. <sup>13</sup>Jesse’s three oldest sons—Eliab, Abinadab, and Shimea*—had already joined Saul’s army to fight the Philistines. <sup>14</sup>David was the youngest son. David’s three oldest brothers stayed with Saul’s army, <sup>15</sup>but David went back and forth so he could help his father with the sheep in Bethlehem.

<sup>16</sup>For forty days, every morning and evening, the Philistine champion strutted in front of the Israelite army.

<sup>17</sup>One day Jesse said to David, “Take this basket* of roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread, and carry them quickly to your brothers. <sup>18</sup>And give these ten cuts of cheese to their captain. See how your brothers are getting along, and bring back a report on how they are doing.*” <sup>19</sup>David’s brothers were with Saul and the Israelite army at the valley of Elah, fighting against the Philistines.

early the next morning with the gifts, as Jesse had directed him. He arrived at the camp just as the Israelite army was leaving for the battlefield with shouts and battle cries.<sup>21</sup> Soon the Israelite and Philistine forces stood facing each other, army against army.<sup>22</sup> David left his things with the keeper of supplies and hurried out to the ranks to greet his brothers.<sup>23</sup> As he was talking with them, Goliath, the Philistine champion from Gath, came out from the Philistine ranks. Then David heard him shout his usual taunt to the army of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>As soon as the Israelite army saw him, they began to run away in fright.<sup>25</sup> “Have you seen the giant?” the men asked. “He comes out each day to defy Israel. The king has offered a huge reward to anyone who kills him. He will give that man one of his daughters for a wife, and the man’s entire family will be exempted from paying taxes!”

<sup>26</sup>David asked the soldiers standing nearby, “What will a man get for killing this Philistine and ending his defiance of Israel? Who is this pagan Philistine anyway, that he is allowed to defy the armies of the living God?”

<sup>27</sup>And these men gave David the same reply. They said, “Yes, that is the reward for killing him.”

<sup>28</sup>But when David’s oldest brother, Eliab, heard David talking to the men, he was angry. “What are you doing around here anyway?” he demanded. “What about those few sheep you’re supposed to be taking care of? I know about your pride and deceit. You just want to see the battle!”

<sup>29</sup>“What have I done now?” David replied. “I was only asking a question!”<sup>30</sup> He walked over to some others and asked them the same thing and received the same answer. <sup>31</sup>Then David's question was reported to King Saul, and the king sent for him.

David Kills Goliath

<sup>33</sup>“Don't be ridiculous!” Saul replied. “There's no way you can fight this Philistine and possibly win! You're only a boy, and he's been a man of war since his youth.”

<sup>34</sup>But David persisted. “I have been taking care of my father's sheep and goats,” he said. “When a lion or a bear comes to steal a lamb from the flock, <sup>35</sup>I go after it with a club and rescue the lamb from its mouth. If the animal turns on me, I catch it by the jaw and club it to death. <sup>36</sup>I have done this to both lions and bears, and I'll do it to this pagan Philistine, too, for he has defied the armies of the living God! <sup>37</sup>The LORD who rescued me from the claws of the lion and the bear will rescue me from this Philistine!”

Saul finally consented. “All right, go ahead,” he said. “And may the LORD be with you!”

<sup>38</sup>Then Saul gave David his own armor—a bronze helmet and a coat of mail. <sup>39</sup>David put it on, strapped the sword over it, and took a step or two to see what it was like, for he had never worn such things before.

“I can't go in these,” he protested to Saul. “I'm not used to them.” So David took them off again. <sup>40</sup>He picked up five smooth stones from a stream and put them into his shepherd's bag. Then, armed only with his shepherd's staff and sling, he started across the valley to fight the Philistine.

<sup>45</sup>David replied to the Philistine, “You come to me with sword, spear, and javelin, but I come to you in the name of the LORD of Heaven’s Armies—the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. <sup>46</sup>Today the LORD will conquer you, and I will kill you and cut off your head. And then I will give the dead bodies of your men to the birds and wild animals, and the whole world will know that there is a God in Israel! <sup>47</sup>And everyone assembled here will know that the LORD rescues his people, but not with sword and spear. This is the LORD’s battle, and he will give you to us!”

<sup>48</sup>As Goliath moved closer to attack, David quickly ran out to meet him. <sup>49</sup>Reaching into his shepherd’s bag and taking out a stone, he hurled it with his sling and hit the Philistine in the forehead. The stone sank in, and Goliath stumbled and fell face down on the ground.

<sup>50</sup>So David triumphed over the Philistine with only a sling and a stone, for he had no sword. <sup>51</sup>Then David ran over and pulled Goliath’s sword from its sheath. David used it to kill him and cut off his head.

Israel Routs the Philistines

When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they turned and ran. <sup>52</sup>Then the men of Israel and Judah gave a great shout of triumph and rushed after the Philistines, chasing them as far as Gath* and the gates of Ekron. The bodies of the dead and wounded Philistines were strewn all along the road from Shaaraim, as far as Gath and Ekron. <sup>53</sup>Then the Israelite army returned and plundered the deserted Philistine camp. <sup>54</sup>(David took the Philistine's head to Jerusalem, but he stored the man's armor in his own tent.)

<sup>55</sup>As Saul watched David go out to fight the Philistine, he asked Abner, the commander of his army, "Abner, whose son is this young man?"

"I really don't know," Abner declared.

<sup>58</sup>"Tell me about your father, young man," Saul said.

And David replied, "His name is Jesse, and we live in Bethlehem."

Jonathan

1 Samuel 18

Saul Becomes Jealous of David

<sup>1</sup>After David had finished talking with Saul, he met Jonathan, the king's son. There was an immediate bond between them, for Jonathan loved David. <sup>2</sup>From that day on Saul kept David with him and wouldn't let him return home. <sup>3</sup>And Jonathan made a solemn pact with David, because he loved him as he loved himself. <sup>4</sup>Jonathan sealed the pact by taking off his robe and giving it to David, together with his tunic, sword, bow, and belt.

<sup>5</sup>Whatever Saul asked David to do, David did it successfully. So Saul made him a commander over the men of war, an appointment that was welcomed by the people and Saul's officers alike.

<sup>6</sup>When the victorious Israelite army was returning home after David had killed the Philistine, women from all the towns of Israel came out to meet King Saul. They sang and danced for joy with tambourines and cymbals.*<sup>7</sup> This was their song:

“Saul has killed his thousands,
and David his ten thousands!”

<sup>8</sup>This made Saul very angry. “What’s this?” he said. “They credit David with ten thousands and me with only thousands. Next they’ll be making him their king!”<sup>9</sup> So from that time on Saul kept a jealous eye on David.

<sup>10</sup>The very next day a tormenting spirit* from God overwhelmed Saul, and he began to rave in his house like a madman. David was playing the harp, as he did each day. But Saul had a spear in his hand,<sup>11</sup> and he suddenly hurled it at David, intending to pin him to the wall. But David escaped him twice.

<sup>12</sup>Saul was then afraid of David, for the LORD was with David and had turned away from Saul.<sup>13</sup> Finally, Saul sent him away and appointed him commander over 1,000 men, and David faithfully led his troops into battle.

<sup>14</sup>David continued to succeed in everything he did, for the LORD was with him.<sup>15</sup> When Saul recognized this, he became even more afraid of him.<sup>16</sup> But all Israel and Judah loved David because he was so successful at leading his troops into battle.

David Marries Saul’s Daughter

<sup>17</sup>One day Saul said to David, “I am ready to give you my older daughter, Merab, as your wife. But first you must prove yourself to be a real warrior by fighting the LORD's battles." For Saul thought, "I'll send him out against the Philistines and let them kill him rather than doing it myself."

<sup>18</sup>"Who am I, and what is my family in Israel that I should be the king's son-in-law?" David exclaimed. "My father's family is nothing!" <sup>19</sup>So* when the time came for Saul to give his daughter Merab in marriage to David, he gave her instead to Adriel, a man from Meholah.

<sup>20</sup>In the meantime, Saul's daughter Michal had fallen in love with David, and Saul was delighted when he heard about it.

<sup>21</sup>"Here's another chance to see him killed by the Philistines!" Saul said to himself. But to David he said, "Today you have a second chance to become my son-in-law!"

<sup>22</sup>Then Saul told his men to say to David, "The king really likes you, and so do we. Why don't you accept the king's offer and become his son-in-law?"

<sup>23</sup>When Saul's men said these things to David, he replied, "How can a poor man from a humble family afford the bride price for the daughter of a king?"

<sup>24</sup>When Saul's men reported this back to the king, <sup>25</sup>he told them, "Tell David that all I want for the bride price is 100 Philistine foreskins! Vengeance on my enemies is all I really want." But what Saul had in mind was that David would be killed in the fight.

<sup>26</sup>David was delighted to accept the offer. Before the time limit expired, <sup>27</sup>he and his men went out and killed 200 Philistines. Then David fulfilled the king's requirement by presenting all their foreskins to him. So Saul gave his daughter Michal to David to be his wife.

<sup>28</sup>When Saul realized that the LORD was with David and how much his daughter Michal loved him, <sup>29</sup>Saul became even more afraid of him, and he remained David's enemy for the rest of his life.

<sup>30</sup>Every time the commanders of the Philistines attacked, David was more successful against them than all the rest of Saul's officers. So David's name became very famous.

1 Samuel 19

Saul Tries to Kill David

<sup>4</sup>The next morning Jonathan spoke with his father about David, saying many good things about him. “The king must not sin against his servant David,” Jonathan said. “He’s never done anything to harm you. He has always helped you in any way he could. <sup>5</sup>Have you forgotten about the time he risked his life to kill the Philistine giant and how the LORD brought a great victory to all Israel as a result? You were certainly happy about it then. Why should you murder an innocent man like David? There is no reason for it at all!”

<sup>6</sup>So Saul listened to Jonathan and vowed, “As surely as the LORD lives, David will not be killed.”

<sup>7</sup>Afterward Jonathan called David and told him what had happened. Then he brought David to Saul, and David served in the court as before.

<sup>8</sup>War broke out again after that, and David led his troops against the Philistines. He attacked them with such fury that they all ran away.

<sup>9</sup>But one day when Saul was sitting at home, with spear in hand, the tormenting spirit* from the LORD suddenly came upon him again. As David played his harp, <sup>10</sup>Saul hurled his spear at David. But David dodged out of the way, and leaving the spear stuck in the wall, he fled and escaped into the night.

Michal Saves David's Life

<sup>11</sup>Then Saul sent troops to watch David's house. They were told to kill David when he came out the next morning. But Michal, David's wife, warned him, "If you don't escape tonight, you will be dead by morning." <sup>12</sup>So she helped him climb out through a window, and he fled and escaped. <sup>13</sup>Then she took an idol* and put it in his bed, covered it with blankets, and put a cushion of goat's hair at its head.

<sup>14</sup>When the troops came to arrest David, she told them he was sick and couldn't get out of bed.

<sup>15</sup>But Saul sent the troops back to get David. He ordered, "Bring him to me in his bed so I can kill him!" <sup>16</sup>But when they came to carry David out, they discovered that it was only an idol in the bed with a cushion of goat's hair at its head.

<sup>17</sup>"Why have you betrayed me like this and let my enemy escape?" Saul demanded of Michal.

"I had to," Michal replied. "He threatened to kill me if I didn't help him."

<sup>18</sup>So David escaped and went to Ramah to see Samuel, and he told him all that Saul had done to him. Then Samuel took David with him to live at Naioth. <sup>19</sup>When the report reached Saul that David was at Naioth in Ramah, <sup>20</sup>he sent troops to capture him. But when they arrived and saw Samuel leading a group of prophets who were prophesying, the Spirit of God came upon Saul's men, and they also began to prophesy. <sup>21</sup>When Saul heard what had happened, he sent other troops, but they, too, prophesied! The same thing happened a third time. <sup>22</sup>Finally, Saul himself went to Ramah and arrived at the great well in Secu. "Where are Samuel and David?" he demanded.

"They are at Naioth in Ramah," someone told him.

<sup>23</sup>But on the way to Naioth in Ramah the Spirit of God came even upon Saul, and he, too, began to prophesy all the way to Naioth! <sup>24</sup>He tore off his clothes and lay naked on the ground all day and all night, prophesying in the presence of Samuel. The people who were watching exclaimed, "What? Is even Saul a prophet?"

1 Samuel 20

Jonathan Helps David

<sup>1</sup>David now fled from Naioth in Ramah and found Jonathan. “What have I done?” he exclaimed. “What is my crime? How have I offended your father that he is so determined to kill me?”

<sup>2</sup>“That’s not true!” Jonathan protested. “You’re not going to die. He always tells me everything he’s going to do, even the little things. I know my father wouldn’t hide something like this from me. It just isn’t so!”

<sup>3</sup>Then David took an oath before Jonathan and said, “Your father knows perfectly well about our friendship, so he has said to himself, ‘I won’t tell Jonathan—why should I hurt him?’ But I swear to you that I am only a step away from death! I swear it by the LORD and by your own soul!”

<sup>5</sup>David replied, “Tomorrow we celebrate the new moon festival. I’ve always eaten with the king on this occasion, but tomorrow I’ll hide in the field and stay there until the evening of the third day. <sup>6</sup>If your father asks where I am, tell him I asked permission to go home to Bethlehem for an annual family sacrifice. <sup>7</sup>If he says, ‘Fine!’ you will know all is well. But if he is angry and loses his temper, you will know he is determined to kill me. <sup>8</sup>Show me this loyalty as my sworn friend—for we made a solemn pact before the LORD—or kill me yourself if I have sinned against your father. But please don't betray me to him!"

<sup>9</sup>"Never!" Jonathan exclaimed. "You know that if I had the slightest notion my father was planning to kill you, I would tell you at once."

<sup>10</sup>Then David asked, "How will I know whether or not your father is angry?"

<sup>11</sup>"Come out to the field with me," Jonathan replied. And they went out there together. <sup>12</sup>Then Jonathan told David, "I promise by the LORD, the God of Israel, that by this time tomorrow, or the next day at the latest, I will talk to my father and let you know at once how he feels about you. If he speaks favorably about you, I will let you know. <sup>13</sup>But if he is angry and wants you killed, may the LORD strike me and even kill me if I don't warn you so you can escape and live. May the LORD be with you as he used to be with my father. <sup>14</sup>And may you treat me with the faithful love of the LORD as long as I live. But if I die, <sup>15</sup>treat my family with this faithful love, even when the LORD destroys all your enemies from the face of the earth."

<sup>16</sup>So Jonathan made a solemn pact with David,* saying, "May the LORD destroy all your enemies!" <sup>17</sup>And Jonathan made David reaffirm his vow of friendship again, for Jonathan loved David as he loved himself.

<sup>18</sup>Then Jonathan said, "Tomorrow we celebrate the new moon festival. You will be missed when your place at the table is empty. <sup>19</sup>The day after tomorrow, toward evening, go to the place where you hid before, and wait there by the stone pile.*

<sup>20</sup>I will come out and shoot three arrows to the side of the stone pile as though I were shooting at a target. <sup>21</sup>Then I will send a boy to bring the arrows back. If you hear me tell him, ‘They’re on this side,’ then you will know, as surely as the LORD lives, that all is well, and there is no trouble. <sup>22</sup>But if I tell him, ‘Go farther—the arrows are still ahead of you,’ then it will mean that you must leave immediately, for the LORD is sending you away. <sup>23</sup>And may the LORD make us keep our promises to each other, for he has witnessed them.”

<sup>28</sup>Jonathan replied, “David earnestly asked me if he could go to Bethlehem. <sup>29</sup>He said, ‘Please let me go, for we are having a family sacrifice. My brother demanded that I be there. So please let me get away to see my brothers.’ That’s why he isn’t here at the king’s table.”

<sup>30</sup>Saul boiled with rage at Jonathan. “You stupid son of a whore!”* he swore at him. “Do you think I don’t know that you want him to be king in your place, shaming yourself and your mother? <sup>31</sup>As long as that son of Jesse is alive, you’ll never be king. Now go and get him so I can kill him!”

<sup>32</sup>“But why should he be put to death?” Jonathan asked his father. “What has he done?” <sup>33</sup>Then Saul hurled his spear at Jonathan, intending to kill him. So at last Jonathan realized that his father was really determined to kill David.

<sup>35</sup>The next morning, as agreed, Jonathan went out into the field and took a young boy with him to gather his arrows. <sup>36</sup>“Start running,” he told the boy, “so you can find the arrows as I shoot them.” So the boy ran, and Jonathan shot an arrow beyond him. <sup>37</sup>When the boy had almost reached the arrow, Jonathan shouted, “The arrow is still ahead of you. <sup>38</sup>Hurry, hurry, don’t wait.” So the boy quickly gathered up the arrows and ran back to his master. <sup>39</sup>He, of course, suspected nothing; only Jonathan and David understood the signal. <sup>40</sup>Then Jonathan gave his bow and arrows to the boy and told him to take them back to town.

<sup>41</sup>As soon as the boy was gone, David came out from where he had been hiding near the stone pile.* Then David bowed three times to Jonathan with his face to the ground. Both of them were in tears as they embraced each other and said good-bye, especially David.

<sup>42</sup>At last Jonathan said to David, “Go in peace, for we have sworn loyalty to each other in the LORD’s name. The LORD is the witness of a bond between us and our children forever.” Then David left, and Jonathan returned to the town.*

1 Samuel 21

David Runs from Saul

<sup>1</sup>*David went to the town of Nob to see Ahimelech the priest. Ahimelech trembled when he saw him. “Why are you alone?” he asked. “Why is no one with you?”

<sup>2</sup>“The king has sent me on a private matter,” David said. “He told me not to tell anyone why I am here. I have told my men where to meet me later. <sup>3</sup>Now, what is there to eat? Give me five loaves of bread or anything else you have.”

<sup>4</sup>“We don’t have any regular bread,” the priest replied. “But there is the holy bread, which you can have if your young men have not slept with any women recently.”

<sup>5</sup>“Don’t worry,” David replied. “I never allow my men to be with women when they are on a campaign. And since they stay clean even on ordinary trips, how much more on this one!”

<sup>6</sup>Since there was no other food available, the priest gave him the holy bread—the Bread of the Presence that was placed before the LORD in the Tabernacle. It had just been replaced that day with fresh bread.

<sup>7</sup>Now Doeg the Edomite, Saul’s chief herdsman, was there that day, having been detained before the LORD.*

<sup>8</sup>David asked Ahimelech, “Do you have a spear or sword? The king’s business was so urgent that I didn’t even have time to grab a weapon!”

<sup>9</sup>“I only have the sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the valley of Elah,” the priest replied. “It is wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. Take that if you want it, for there is nothing else here.”

“There is nothing like it!” David replied. “Give it to me!”

<sup>10</sup>So David escaped from Saul and went to King Achish of Gath. <sup>11</sup>But the officers of Achish were unhappy about his being there. “Isn’t this David, the king of the land?” they asked. “Isn’t he the one the people honor with dances, singing,

‘Saul has killed his thousands,
and David his ten thousands’?”

<sup>12</sup>David heard these comments and was very afraid of what King Achish of Gath might do to him. <sup>13</sup>So he pretended to be insane, scratching on doors and drooling down his beard.

<sup>14</sup>Finally, King Achish said to his men, “Must you bring me a madman? <sup>15</sup>We already have enough of them around here! Why should I let someone like this be my guest?”

1 Samuel 22

David at the Cave of Adullam

<sup>1</sup>So David left Gath and escaped to the cave of Adullam. Soon his brothers and all his other relatives joined him there. <sup>2</sup>Then others began coming—men who were in trouble or in debt or who were just discontented—until David was the captain of about 400 men.

<sup>3</sup>Later David went to Mizpeh in Moab, where he asked the king, “Please allow my father and mother to live here with you until I know what God is going to do for me.” <sup>4</sup>So David’s parents stayed in Moab with the king during the entire time David was living in his stronghold.

<sup>5</sup>One day the prophet Gad told David, “Leave the stronghold and return to the land of Judah.” So David went to the forest of Hereth.

<sup>7</sup>“Listen here, you men of Benjamin!” Saul shouted to his officers when he heard the news. “Has that son of Jesse promised every one of you fields and vineyards? Has he promised to make you all generals and captains in his army?*

<sup>8</sup>Is that why you have conspired against me? For not one of you told me when my own son made a solemn pact with the son of Jesse. You’re not even sorry for me. Think of it! My own son—encouraging him to kill me, as he is trying to do this very day!”

<sup>9</sup>Then Doeg the Edomite, who was standing there with Saul’s men, spoke up. “When I was at Nob,” he said, “I saw the son of Jesse talking to the priest, Ahimelech son of Ahitub.

<sup>10</sup>Ahimelech consulted the LORD for him. Then he gave him food and the sword of Goliath the Philistine.”

The Slaughter of the Priests

<sup>11</sup>King Saul immediately sent for Ahimelech and all his family, who served as priests at Nob. <sup>12</sup>When they arrived, Saul shouted at him, “Listen to me, you son of Ahitub!”

“What is it, my king?” Ahimelech asked.

<sup>13</sup>“Why have you and the son of Jesse conspired against me?” Saul demanded. “Why did you give him food and a sword? Why have you consulted God for him? Why have you encouraged him to kill me, as he is trying to do this very day?”

<sup>14</sup>“But sir,” Ahimelech replied, “is anyone among all your servants as faithful as David, your son-in-law? Why, he is the captain of your bodyguard and a highly honored member of your household! <sup>15</sup>This was certainly not the first time I had consulted God for him! May the king not accuse me and my family in this matter, for I knew nothing at all of any plot against you.”

<sup>16</sup>“You will surely die, Ahimelech, along with your entire family!” the king shouted. <sup>17</sup>And he ordered his bodyguards, “Kill these priests of the LORD, for they are allies and conspirators with David! They knew he was running away from me, but they didn't tell me!" But Saul's men refused to kill the LORD's priests.

<sup>18</sup>Then the king said to Doeg, "You do it." So Doeg the Edomite turned on them and killed them that day, eighty-five priests in all, still wearing their priestly garments. <sup>19</sup>Then he went to Nob, the town of the priests, and killed the priests' families—men and women, children and babies—and all the cattle, donkeys, sheep, and goats.

<sup>20</sup>Only Abiathar, one of the sons of Ahimelech, escaped and fled to David. <sup>21</sup>When he told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD, <sup>22</sup>David exclaimed, "I knew it! When I saw Doeg the Edomite there that day, I knew he was sure to tell Saul. Now I have caused the death of all your father's family. <sup>23</sup>Stay here with me, and don't be afraid. I will protect you with my own life, for the same person wants to kill us both."

1 Samuel 23

David Protects the Town of Keilah

<sup>1</sup> One day news came to David that the Philistines were at Keilah stealing grain from the threshing floors. <sup>2</sup>David asked the LORD, “Should I go and attack them?”

“Yes, go and save Keilah,” the LORD told him.

<sup>3</sup>But David’s men said, “We’re afraid even here in Judah. We certainly don’t want to go to Keilah to fight the whole Philistine army!”

<sup>4</sup>So David asked the LORD again, and again the LORD replied, “Go down to Keilah, for I will help you conquer the Philistines.”

<sup>5</sup>So David and his men went to Keilah. They slaughtered the Philistines and took all their livestock and rescued the people of Keilah. <sup>6</sup>Now when Abiathar son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, he brought the ephod with him.

<sup>7</sup>Saul soon learned that David was at Keilah. “Good!” he exclaimed. “We’ve got him now! God has handed him over to me, for he has trapped himself in a walled town!” <sup>8</sup>So Saul mobilized his entire army to march to Keilah and besiege David and his men.

<sup>9</sup>But David learned of Saul’s plan and told Abiathar the priest to bring the ephod and ask the LORD what he should do. <sup>10</sup>Then David prayed, “O LORD, God of Israel, I have heard that Saul is planning to come and destroy Keilah because I am here. <sup>11</sup>Will the leaders of Keilah betray me to him? * And will Saul actually come as I have heard? O LORD, God of Israel, please tell me.”

And the LORD said, “He will come.”

<sup>12</sup>Again David asked, “Will the leaders of Keilah betray me and my men to Saul?”

And the LORD replied, “Yes, they will betray you.”

David Hides in the Wilderness

<sup>13</sup>So David and his men—about 600 of them now—left Keilah and began roaming the countryside. Word soon reached Saul that David had escaped, so he didn’t go to Keilah after all. <sup>14</sup>David now stayed in the strongholds of the wilderness and in the hill country of Ziph. Saul hunted him day after day, but God didn’t let Saul find him.

<sup>15</sup>One day near Horesh, David received the news that Saul was on the way to Ziph to search for him and kill him. <sup>16</sup>Jonathan went to find David and encouraged him to stay strong in his faith in God. <sup>17</sup>“Don’t be afraid,” Jonathan reassured him. “My father will never find you! You are going to be the king of Israel, and I will be next to you, as my father, Saul, is well aware.” <sup>18</sup>So the two of them renewed their solemn pact before the LORD. Then Jonathan returned home, while David stayed at Horesh.

<sup>19</sup>But now the men of Ziph went to Saul in Gibeah and betrayed David to him. “We know where David is hiding,” they said. “He is in the strongholds of Horesh on the hill of Hakilah, which is in the southern part of Jeshimon.” <sup>20</sup>Come down whenever you’re ready, O king, and we will catch him and hand him over to you!”

<sup>21</sup>“The LORD bless you,” Saul said. “At last someone is concerned about me! <sup>22</sup>Go and check again to be sure of where he is staying and who has seen him there, for I know that he is very crafty. <sup>23</sup>Discover his hiding places, and come back when you are sure. Then I’ll go with you. And if he is in the area at all, I’ll track him down, even if I have to search every hiding place in Judah!” <sup>24</sup>So the men of Ziph returned home ahead of Saul.

Meanwhile, David and his men had moved into the wilderness of Maon in the Arabah Valley south of Jeshimon. <sup>25</sup>When David heard that Saul and his men were searching for him, he went even farther into the wilderness to the great rock, and he remained there in the wilderness of Maon. But Saul kept after him in the wilderness.

<sup>26</sup>Saul and David were now on opposite sides of a mountain. Just as Saul and his men began to close in on David and his men, <sup>27</sup>an urgent message reached Saul that the Philistines were raiding Israel again. <sup>28</sup>So Saul quit chasing David and returned to fight the Philistines. Ever since that time, the place where David was camped has been called the Rock of Escape.*

<sup>29</sup>*David then went to live in the strongholds of En-gedi.

David

1 Samuel 24

David Spares Saul's Life

<sup>1</sup>*After Saul returned from fighting the Philistines, he was told that David had gone into the wilderness of En-gedi. <sup>2</sup>So Saul chose 3,000 elite troops from all Israel and went to search for David and his men near the rocks of the wild goats.

<sup>3</sup>At the place where the road passes some sheepfolds, Saul went into a cave to relieve himself. But as it happened, David and his men were hiding farther back in that very cave!

<sup>4</sup>“Now’s your opportunity!” David’s men whispered to him. “Today the LORD is telling you, ‘I will certainly put your enemy into your power, to do with as you wish.’” So David crept forward and cut off a piece of the hem of Saul’s robe.

<sup>5</sup>But then David’s conscience began bothering him because he had cut Saul’s robe. <sup>6</sup>“The LORD knows I shouldn’t have done that to my lord the king,” he said to his men. “The LORD forbid that I should do this to my lord the king and attack the LORD's anointed one, for the LORD himself has chosen him." <sup>7</sup>So David restrained his men and did not let them kill Saul.

After Saul had left the cave and gone on his way, <sup>8</sup>David came out and shouted after him, "My lord the king!" And when Saul looked around, David bowed low before him.

<sup>9</sup>Then he shouted to Saul, "Why do you listen to the people who say I am trying to harm you? <sup>10</sup>This very day you can see with your own eyes it isn't true. For the LORD placed you at my mercy back there in the cave. Some of my men told me to kill you, but I spared you. For I said, 'I will never harm the king—he is the LORD's anointed one.' <sup>11</sup>Look, my father, at what I have in my hand. It is a piece of the hem of your robe! I cut it off, but I didn't kill you. This proves that I am not trying to harm you and that I have not sinned against you, even though you have been hunting for me to kill me.

<sup>12</sup>"May the LORD judge between us. Perhaps the LORD will punish you for what you are trying to do to me, but I will never harm you. <sup>13</sup>As that old proverb says, 'From evil people come evil deeds.' So you can be sure I will never harm you. <sup>14</sup>Who is the king of Israel trying to catch anyway? Should he spend his time chasing one who is as worthless as a dead dog or a single flea? <sup>15</sup>May the LORD therefore judge which of us is right and punish the guilty one. He is my advocate, and he will rescue me from your power!"

<sup>16</sup>When David had finished speaking, Saul called back, "Is that really you, my son David?" Then he began to cry. <sup>17</sup>And he said to David, "You are a better man than I am, for you have repaid me good for evil. <sup>18</sup>Yes, you have been amazingly kind to me today, for when the LORD put me in a place where you could have killed me, you didn't do it. <sup>19</sup>Who else would let his enemy get away when he had him in his power? May the LORD reward you well for the kindness you have shown me today. <sup>20</sup>And now I realize that you are surely going to be king, and that the kingdom of Israel will flourish under your rule. <sup>21</sup>Now swear to me by the LORD that when that happens you will not kill my family and destroy my line of descendants!"

<sup>22</sup>So David promised this to Saul with an oath. Then Saul went home, but David and his men went back to their stronghold.

The Death of Samuel

<sup>1</sup>Now Samuel died, and all Israel gathered for his funeral. They buried him at his house in Ramah.

Nabal Angers David

Then David moved down to the wilderness of Maon.* <sup>2</sup>There was a wealthy man from Maon who owned property near the town of Carmel. He had 3,000 sheep and 1,000 goats, and it was sheep-shearing time. <sup>3</sup>This man's name was Nabal, and his wife, Abigail, was a sensible and beautiful woman. But Nabal, a descendant of Caleb, was crude and mean in all his dealings.

<sup>4</sup>When David heard that Nabal was shearing his sheep, <sup>5</sup>he sent ten of his young men to Carmel with this message for Nabal: <sup>6</sup>"Peace and prosperity to you, your family, and everything you own! <sup>7</sup>I am told that it is sheep-shearing time. While your shepherds stayed among us near Carmel, we never harmed them, and nothing was ever stolen from them. <sup>8</sup>Ask your own men, and they will tell you this is true. So would you be kind to us, since we have come at a time of celebration? Please share any provisions you might have on hand with us and with your friend David." <sup>9</sup>David's young men gave this message to Nabal in David's name, and they waited for a reply.

<sup>10</sup>"Who is this fellow David?" Nabal sneered to the young men. "Who does this son of Jesse think he is? There are lots of servants these days who run away from their masters. <sup>11</sup>Should I take my bread and my water and my meat that I've slaughtered for my shearers and give it to a band of outlaws who come from who knows where?"

<sup>12</sup> So David's young men returned and told him what Nabal had said. <sup>13</sup>"Get your swords!" was David's reply as he strapped on his own. Then 400 men started off with David, and 200 remained behind to guard their equipment.

<sup>14</sup>Meanwhile, one of Nabal's servants went to Abigail and told her, "David sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master, but he screamed insults at them. <sup>15</sup>These men have been very good to us, and we never suffered any harm from them. Nothing was stolen from us the whole time they were with us. <sup>16</sup>In fact, day and night they were like a wall of protection to us and the sheep. <sup>17</sup>You need to know this and figure out what to do, for there is going to be trouble for our master and his whole family. He's so ill-tempered that no one can even talk to him!"

was lost or stolen. But he has repaid me evil for good. <sup>22</sup>May God strike me and kill me* if even one man of his household is still alive tomorrow morning!”

Abigail Intercedes for Nabal

<sup>23</sup>When Abigail saw David, she quickly got off her donkey and bowed low before him. <sup>24</sup>She fell at his feet and said, “I accept all blame in this matter, my lord. Please listen to what I have to say. <sup>25</sup>I know Nabal is a wicked and ill-tempered man; please don’t pay any attention to him. He is a fool, just as his name suggests.* But I never even saw the young men you sent.

<sup>26</sup>“Now, my lord, as surely as the LORD lives and you yourself live, since the LORD has kept you from murdering and taking vengeance into your own hands, let all your enemies and those who try to harm you be as cursed as Nabal is. <sup>27</sup>And here is a present that I, your servant, have brought to you and your young men. <sup>28</sup>Please forgive me if I have offended you in any way. The LORD will surely reward you with a lasting dynasty, for you are fighting the LORD’s battles. And you have not done wrong throughout your entire life.

<sup>29</sup>“Even when you are chased by those who seek to kill you, your life is safe in the care of the LORD your God, secure in his treasure pouch! But the lives of your enemies will disappear like stones shot from a sling! <sup>30</sup>When the LORD has done all he promised and has made you leader of Israel, <sup>31</sup>don’t let this be a blemish on your record. Then your conscience won’t have to bear the staggering burden of needless bloodshed and vengeance. And when the LORD has done these great things for you, please remember me, your servant!”

<sup>32</sup>David replied to Abigail, “Praise the LORD, the God of Israel, who has sent you to meet me today! <sup>33</sup>Thank God for your good sense! Bless you for keeping me from murder and from carrying out vengeance with my own hands. <sup>34</sup>For I swear by the LORD, the God of Israel, who has kept me from hurting you, that if you had not hurried out to meet me, not one of Nabal’s men would still be alive tomorrow morning.” <sup>35</sup>Then David accepted her present and told her, “Return home in peace. I have heard what you said. We will not kill your husband.”

<sup>36</sup> When Abigail arrived home, she found that Nabal was throwing a big party and was celebrating like a king. He was very drunk, so she didn’t tell him anything about her meeting with David until dawn the next day. <sup>37</sup>In the morning when Nabal was sober, his wife told him what had happened. As a result he had a stroke,* and he lay paralyzed on his bed like a stone. <sup>38</sup>About ten days later, the LORD struck him, and he died.

David Marries Abigail

<sup>39</sup>When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Praise the LORD, who has avenged the insult I received from Nabal and has kept me from doing it myself. Nabal has received the punishment for his sin.” Then David sent messengers to Abigail to ask her to become his wife.

<sup>40</sup>When the messengers arrived at Carmel, they told Abigail, “David has sent us to take you back to marry him.”

<sup>41</sup>She bowed low to the ground and responded, “I, your servant, would be happy to marry David. I would even be willing to become a slave, washing the feet of his servants!”

<sup>42</sup>Quickly getting ready, she took along five of her servant girls as attendants, mounted her donkey, and went with David’s messengers. And so she became his wife. <sup>43</sup>David also married Ahinoam from Jezreel, making both of them his wives. <sup>44</sup>Saul, meanwhile, had given his daughter Michal, David’s wife, to a man from Gallim named Palti son of Laish.

David Spares Saul Again

<sup>2</sup>So Saul took 3,000 of Israel’s elite troops and went to hunt him down in the wilderness of Ziph. <sup>3</sup>Saul camped along the road beside the hill of Hakilah, near Jeshimon, where David was hiding. When David learned that Saul had come after him into the wilderness, <sup>4</sup>he sent out spies to verify the report of Saul’s arrival.

<sup>5</sup>David slipped over to Saul’s camp one night to look around. Saul and Abner son of Ner, the commander of his army, were sleeping inside a ring formed by the slumbering warriors. <sup>6</sup>“Who will volunteer to go in there with me?” David asked Ahimelech the Hittite and Abishai son of Zeruiah, Joab’s brother.

“I’ll go with you,” Abishai replied. <sup>7</sup>So David and Abishai went right into Saul’s camp and found him asleep, with his spear stuck in the ground beside his head. Abner and the soldiers were lying asleep around him.

<sup>8</sup>“God has surely handed your enemy over to you this time!” Abishai whispered to David. “Let me pin him to the ground with one thrust of the spear; I won’t need to strike twice!”

<sup>9</sup>“No!” David said. “Don’t kill him. For who can remain innocent after attacking the LORD's anointed one? <sup>10</sup>Surely the LORD will strike Saul down someday, or he will die of old age or in battle. <sup>11</sup>The LORD forbid that I should kill the one he has anointed! But take his spear and that jug of water beside his head, and then let's get out of here!"

<sup>12</sup>So David took the spear and jug of water that were near Saul's head. Then he and Abishai got away without anyone seeing them or even waking up, because the LORD had put Saul's men into a deep sleep.

<sup>13</sup>David climbed the hill opposite the camp until he was at a safe distance. <sup>14</sup>Then he shouted down to the soldiers and to Abner son of Ner, "Wake up, Abner!"

"Who is it?" Abner demanded.

<sup>15</sup>"Well, Abner, you're a great man, aren't you?" David taunted. "Where in all Israel is there anyone as mighty? So why haven't you guarded your master the king when someone came to kill him? <sup>16</sup>This isn't good at all! I swear by the LORD that you and your men deserve to die, because you failed to protect your master, the LORD's anointed! Look around! Where are the king's spear and the jug of water that were beside his head?"

<sup>17</sup>Saul recognized David's voice and called out, "Is that you, my son David?"

And David replied, "Yes, my lord the king. <sup>18</sup>Why are you chasing me? What have I done? What is my crime? <sup>19</sup>But now let my lord the king listen to his servant. If the LORD has stirred you up against me, then let him accept my offering. But if this is simply a human scheme, then may those involved be cursed by the LORD. For they have driven me from my home, so I can no longer live among the LORD's people, and they have said, 'Go, worship pagan gods.' <sup>20</sup>Must I die on foreign soil, far from the presence of the LORD? Why has the king of Israel come out to search for a single flea? Why does he hunt me down like a partridge on the mountains?"

<sup>21</sup>Then Saul confessed, "I have sinned. Come back home, my son, and I will no longer try to harm you, for you valued my life today. I have been a fool and very, very wrong."

<sup>22</sup>"Here is your spear, O king," David replied. "Let one of your young men come over and get it. <sup>23</sup>The LORD gives his own reward for doing good and for being loyal, and I refused to kill you even when the LORD placed you in my power, for you are the LORD's anointed one. <sup>24</sup>Now may the LORD value my life, even as I have valued yours today. May he rescue me from all my troubles."

<sup>25</sup>And Saul said to David, "Blessings on you, my son David. You will do many heroic deeds, and you will surely succeed." Then David went away, and Saul returned home.

1 Samuel 27

David among the Philistines

<sup>1</sup> But David kept thinking to himself, “Someday Saul is going to get me. The best thing I can do is escape to the Philistines. Then Saul will stop hunting for me in Israelite territory, and I will finally be safe.”

<sup>5</sup> One day David said to Achish, “If it is all right with you, we would rather live in one of the country towns instead of here in the royal city.”

<sup>6</sup> So Achish gave him the town of Ziklag (which still belongs to the kings of Judah to this day), <sup>7</sup> and they lived there among the Philistines for a year and four months.

<sup>8</sup> David and his men spent their time raiding the Geshurites, the Gittites, and the Amalekites—people who had lived near Shur, toward the land of Egypt, since ancient times. <sup>9</sup> David did not leave one person alive in the villages he attacked. He took the sheep, goats, cattle, donkeys, camels, and clothing before returning home to see King Achish.

<sup>10</sup> “Where did you make your raid today?” Achish would ask.

And David would reply, “Against the south of Judah, the Jerahmeelites, and the Kenites.”

<sup>11</sup>No one was left alive to come to Gath and tell where he had really been. This happened again and again while he was living among the Philistines. <sup>12</sup>Achish believed David and thought to himself, “By now the people of Israel must hate him bitterly. Now he will have to stay here and serve me forever!”

1 Samuel 28

Saul Consults a Medium

<sup>1</sup> About that time the Philistines mustered their armies for another war with Israel. King Achish told David, “You and your men will be expected to join me in battle.”

<sup>2</sup> “Very well!” David agreed. “Now you will see for yourself what we can do.”

Then Achish told David, “I will make you my personal bodyguard for life.”

<sup>3</sup> Meanwhile, Samuel had died, and all Israel had mourned for him. He was buried in Ramah, his hometown. And Saul had banned from the land of Israel all mediums and those who consult the spirits of the dead.

<sup>6</sup> He asked the LORD what he should do, but the LORD refused to answer him, either by dreams or by sacred lots* or by the prophets. <sup>7</sup> Saul then said to his advisers, “Find a woman who is a medium, so I can go and ask her what to do.”

His advisers replied, “There is a medium at Endor.”

<sup>8</sup> So Saul disguised himself by wearing ordinary clothing instead of his royal robes. Then he went to the woman’s home at night, accompanied by two of his men.

“I have to talk to a man who has died,” he said. “Will you call up his spirit for me?”

<sup>9</sup>“Are you trying to get me killed?” the woman demanded. “You know that Saul has outlawed all the mediums and all who consult the spirits of the dead. Why are you setting a trap for me?”

<sup>10</sup>But Saul took an oath in the name of the LORD and promised, “As surely as the LORD lives, nothing bad will happen to you for doing this.”

<sup>11</sup>Finally, the woman said, “Well, whose spirit do you want me to call up?”

“Call up Samuel,” Saul replied.

“I see a god* coming up out of the earth,” she said.

“He is an old man wrapped in a robe,” she replied. Saul realized it was Samuel, and he fell to the ground before him.

<sup>15</sup>“Why have you disturbed me by calling me back?” Samuel asked Saul.

“Because I am in deep trouble,” Saul replied. “The Philistines are at war with me, and God has left me and won’t reply by prophets or dreams. So I have called for you to tell me what to do.”

<sup>16</sup>But Samuel replied, “Why ask me, since the LORD has left you and has become your enemy? <sup>17</sup>The LORD has done just as he said he would. He has torn the kingdom from you and given it to your rival, David. <sup>18</sup>The LORD has done this to you today because you refused to carry out his fierce anger against the Amalekites. <sup>19</sup>What's more, the LORD will hand you and the army of Israel over to the Philistines tomorrow, and you and your sons will be here with me. The LORD will bring down the entire army of Israel in defeat."

<sup>20</sup>Saul fell full length on the ground, paralyzed with fright because of Samuel's words. He was also faint with hunger, for he had eaten nothing all day and all night.

<sup>21</sup>When the woman saw how distraught he was, she said, "Sir, I obeyed your command at the risk of my life. <sup>22</sup>Now do what I say, and let me give you a little something to eat so you can regain your strength for the trip back."

<sup>23</sup>But Saul refused to eat anything. Then his advisers joined the woman in urging him to eat, so he finally yielded and got up from the ground and sat on the couch.

<sup>24</sup>The woman had been fattening a calf, so she hurried out and killed it. She took some flour, kneaded it into dough and baked unleavened bread. <sup>25</sup>She brought the meal to Saul and his advisers, and they ate it. Then they went out into the night.

1 Samuel 29

The Philistines Reject David

And Achish told them, “This is David, the servant of King Saul of Israel. He’s been with me for years, and I’ve never found a single fault in him from the day he arrived until today.”

<sup>4</sup>But the Philistine commanders were angry. “Send him back to the town you’ve given him!” they demanded. “He can’t go into the battle with us. What if he turns against us in battle and becomes our adversary? Is there any better way for him to reconcile himself with his master than by handing our heads over to him? <sup>5</sup>Isn’t this the same David about whom the women of Israel sing in their dances,

‘Saul has killed his thousands,
and David his ten thousands’?”

<sup>6</sup>So Achish finally summoned David and said to him, “I swear by the LORD that you have been a trustworthy ally. I think you should go with me into battle, for I’ve never found a single flaw in you from the day you arrived until today. But the other Philistine rulers won't hear of it. <sup>7</sup>Please don't upset them, but go back quietly."

<sup>8</sup>"What have I done to deserve this treatment?" David demanded. "What have you ever found in your servant, that I can't go and fight the enemies of my lord the king?"

<sup>9</sup>But Achish insisted, "As far as I'm concerned, you're as perfect as an angel of God. But the Philistine commanders are afraid to have you with them in the battle. <sup>10</sup>Now get up early in the morning, and leave with your men as soon as it gets light."

<sup>11</sup>So David and his men headed back into the land of the Philistines, while the Philistine army went on to Jezreel.

1 Samuel 30

David Destroys the Amalekites

<sup>1</sup> Three days later, when David and his men arrived home at their town of Ziklag, they found that the Amalekites had made a raid into the Negev and Ziklag; they had crushed Ziklag and burned it to the ground. <sup>2</sup>They had carried off the women and children and everyone else but without killing anyone.

<sup>3</sup>When David and his men saw the ruins and realized what had happened to their families, <sup>4</sup>they wept until they could weep no more. <sup>5</sup>David's two wives, Ahinoam from Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal from Carmel, were among those captured. <sup>6</sup>David was now in great danger because all his men were very bitter about losing their sons and daughters, and they began to talk of stoning him. But David found strength in the LORD his God.

<sup>7</sup>Then he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring me the ephod!" So Abiathar brought it. <sup>8</sup>Then David asked the LORD, "Should I chase after this band of raiders? Will I catch them?"

And the LORD told him, "Yes, go after them. You will surely recover everything that was taken from you!"

<sup>9</sup>So David and his 600 men set out, and they came to the brook Besor. <sup>10</sup>But 200 of the men were too exhausted to cross the brook, so David continued the pursuit with 400 men.

<sup>11</sup>Along the way they found an Egyptian man in a field and brought him to David. They gave him some bread to eat and water to drink. <sup>12</sup>They also gave him part of a fig cake and two clusters of raisins, for he hadn't had anything to eat or drink for three days and nights. Before long his strength returned.

<sup>13</sup>"To whom do you belong, and where do you come from?" David asked him.

"I am an Egyptian—the slave of an Amalekite," he replied. "My master abandoned me three days ago because I was sick. <sup>14</sup>We were on our way back from raiding the Kerethites in the Negev, the territory of Judah, and the land of Caleb, and we had just burned Ziklag."

<sup>15</sup>"Will you lead me to this band of raiders?" David asked.

The young man replied, "If you take an oath in God's name that you will not kill me or give me back to my master, then I will guide you to them."

<sup>16</sup>So he led David to them, and they found the Amalekites spread out across the fields, eating and drinking and dancing with joy because of the vast amount of plunder they had taken from the Philistines and the land of Judah. <sup>17</sup>David and his men rushed in among them and slaughtered them throughout that night and the entire next day until evening. None of the Amalekites escaped except 400 young men who fled on camels. <sup>18</sup>David got back everything the Amalekites had taken, and he rescued his two wives. <sup>19</sup>Nothing was missing: small or great, son or daughter, nor anything else that had been taken. David brought everything back. <sup>20</sup>He also recovered all the flocks and herds, and his men drove them ahead of the other livestock. "This plunder belongs to David!" they said.

the 200 men who had been left behind because they were too exhausted to go with him. They went out to meet David and his men, and David greeted them joyfully. <sup>22</sup>But some evil troublemakers among David's men said, "They didn't go with us, so they can't have any of the plunder we recovered. Give them their wives and children, and tell them to be gone."

<sup>23</sup>But David said, "No, my brothers! Don't be selfish with what the LORD has given us. He has kept us safe and helped us defeat the band of raiders that attacked us. <sup>24</sup>Who will listen when you talk like this? We share and share alike—those who go to battle and those who guard the equipment." <sup>25</sup>From then on David made this a decree and regulation for Israel, and it is still followed today.

<sup>26</sup>When he arrived at Ziklag, David sent part of the plunder to the elders of Judah, who were his friends. "Here is a present for you, taken from the LORD's enemies," he said.

1 Samuel 31

The Death of Saul

<sup>4</sup>Saul groaned to his armor bearer, “Take your sword and kill me before these pagan Philistines come to run me through and taunt and torture me.”

But his armor bearer was afraid and would not do it. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it. <sup>5</sup>When his armor bearer realized that Saul was dead, he fell on his own sword and died beside the king. <sup>6</sup>So Saul, his three sons, his armor bearer, and his troops all died together that same day.

<sup>7</sup>When the Israelites on the other side of the Jezreel Valley and beyond the Jordan saw that the Israelite army had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their towns and fled. So the Philistines moved in and occupied their towns.

<sup>8</sup>The next day, when the Philistines went out to strip the dead, they found the bodies of Saul and his three sons on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup>So they cut off Saul’s head and stripped off his armor. Then they proclaimed the good news of Saul’s death in their pagan temple and to the people throughout the land of Philistia.<sup>10</sup> They placed his armor in the temple of the Ashtoreths, and they fastened his body to the wall of the city of Beth-shan.

<sup>11</sup>But when the people of Jabesh-gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup>all their mighty warriors traveled through the night to Beth-shan and took the bodies of Saul and his sons down from the wall. They brought them to Jabesh, where they burned the bodies. <sup>13</sup>Then they took their bones and buried them beneath the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and they fasted for seven days.

David Learns of Saul's Death

<sup>1</sup>After the death of Saul, David returned from his victory over the Amalekites and spent two days in Ziklag. <sup>2</sup>On the third day a man arrived from Saul's army camp. He had torn his clothes and put dirt on his head to show that he was in mourning. He fell to the ground before David in deep respect.

<sup>3</sup>"Where have you come from?" David asked.

"I escaped from the Israelite camp," the man replied.

The man replied, "Our entire army fled from the battle. Many of the men are dead, and Saul and his son Jonathan are also dead."

<sup>5</sup>"How do you know Saul and Jonathan are dead?" David demanded of the young man.

<sup>6</sup>The man answered, "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa, and there was Saul leaning on his spear with the enemy chariots and charioteers closing in on him. <sup>7</sup>When he turned and saw me, he cried out for me to come to him. 'How can I help?' I asked him.

<sup>8</sup>“He responded, ‘Who are you?’

“‘I am an Amalekite,’ I told him.

<sup>9</sup>“Then he begged me, ‘Come over here and put me out of my misery, for I am in terrible pain and want to die.’

<sup>10</sup>“So I killed him,” the Amalekite told David, “for I knew he couldn’t live. Then I took his crown and his armband, and I have brought them here to you, my lord.”

<sup>11</sup> David and his men tore their clothes in sorrow when they heard the news. <sup>12</sup>They mourned and wept and fasted all day for Saul and his son Jonathan, and for the LORD’s army and the nation of Israel, because they had died by the sword that day.

<sup>13</sup>Then David said to the young man who had brought the news, “Where are you from?”

And he replied, “I am a foreigner, an Amalekite, who lives in your land.”

<sup>14</sup>“Why were you not afraid to kill the LORD’s anointed one?” David asked.

<sup>15</sup>Then David said to one of his men, “Kill him!” So the man thrust his sword into the Amalekite and killed him. <sup>16</sup>“You have condemned yourself,” David said, “for you yourself confessed that you killed the LORD’s anointed one.”

David’s Song for Saul and Jonathan

<sup>17</sup>Then David composed a funeral song for Saul and Jonathan, <sup>18</sup>and he commanded that it be taught to the people of Judah. It is known as the Song of the Bow, and it is recorded in The Book of Jashar.*

<sup>19</sup>Your pride and joy, O Israel, lies dead on the hills!
Oh, how the mighty heroes have fallen!

<sup>20</sup>Don't announce the news in Gath, don't proclaim it in the streets of Ashkelon, or the daughters of the Philistines will rejoice and the pagans will laugh in triumph.

<sup>21</sup>O mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew or rain upon you, nor fruitful fields producing offerings of grain.*
For there the shield of the mighty heroes was defiled;
the shield of Saul will no longer be anointed with oil.

<sup>22</sup>The bow of Jonathan was powerful, and the sword of Saul did its mighty work.
They shed the blood of their enemies and pierced the bodies of mighty heroes.

<sup>23</sup>How beloved and gracious were Saul and Jonathan!
They were together in life and in death.
They were swifter than eagles, stronger than lions.

<sup>24</sup>O women of Israel, weep for Saul, for he dressed you in luxurious scarlet clothing,
in garments decorated with gold.

<sup>25</sup>Oh, how the mighty heroes have fallen in battle!
Jonathan lies dead on the hills.

<sup>26</sup>How I weep for you, my brother Jonathan!

Oh, how much I loved you!
And your love for me was deep,
deeper than the love of women!

<sup>27</sup>Oh, how the mighty heroes have fallen!
Stripped of their weapons, they lie dead.

David Anointed King of Judah

<sup>1</sup>After this, David asked the LORD, “Should I move back to one of the towns of Judah?”

“Yes,” the LORD replied.

Then David asked, “Which town should I go to?”

“To Hebron,” the LORD answered.

<sup>2</sup>David’s two wives were Ahinoam from Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal from Carmel. So David and his wives <sup>3</sup>and his men and their families all moved to Judah, and they settled in the villages near Hebron. <sup>4</sup>Then the men of Judah came to David and anointed him king over the people of Judah.

When David heard that the men of Jabesh-gilead had buried Saul, <sup>5</sup>he sent them this message: “May the LORD bless you for being so loyal to your master Saul and giving him a decent burial. <sup>6</sup>May the LORD be loyal to you in return and reward you with his unfailing love! And I, too, will reward you for what you have done. <sup>7</sup>Now that Saul is dead, I ask you to be my strong and loyal subjects like the people of Judah, who have anointed me as their new king.”

Ishbosheth Proclaimed King of Israel

<sup>8</sup>But Abner son of Ner, the commander of Saul's army, had already gone to Mahanaim with Saul's son Ishbosheth.*

<sup>9</sup>There he proclaimed Ishbosheth king over Gilead, Jezreel, Ephraim, Benjamin, the land of the Ashurites, and all the rest of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he became king, and he ruled from Mahanaim for two years. Meanwhile, the people of Judah remained loyal to David.

<sup>11</sup>David made Hebron his capital, and he ruled as king of Judah for seven and a half years.

War between Israel and Judah

<sup>12</sup>One day Abner led Ishbosheth's troops from Mahanaim to Gibeon.<sup>13</sup>About the same time, Joab son of Zeruiah led David's troops out and met them at the pool of Gibeon. The two groups sat down there, facing each other from opposite sides of the pool.

<sup>14</sup>Then Abner suggested to Joab, “Let’s have a few of our warriors fight hand to hand here in front of us.”

“All right,” Joab agreed. <sup>15</sup>So twelve men were chosen to fight from each side—twelve men of Benjamin representing Ishbosheth son of Saul, and twelve representing David. <sup>16</sup>Each one grabbed his opponent by the hair and thrust his sword into the other’s side so that all of them died. So this place at Gibeon has been known ever since as the Field of Swords.*

<sup>17</sup>A fierce battle followed that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated by the forces of David.

The Death of Asahel

<sup>18</sup>Joab, Abishai, and Asahel—the three sons of Zeruiah—were among David’s forces that day. Asahel could run like a gazelle, <sup>19</sup>and he began chasing Abner. He pursued him relentlessly, not stopping for anything. <sup>20</sup>When Abner looked back and saw him coming, he called out, “Is that you, Asahel?”

“Yes, it is,” he replied.

<sup>22</sup>Again Abner shouted to him, “Get away from here! I don’t want to kill you. How could I ever face your brother Joab again?”

<sup>23</sup>But Asahel refused to turn back, so Abner thrust the butt end of his spear through Asahel’s stomach, and the spear came out through his back. He stumbled to the ground and died there. And everyone who came by that spot stopped and stood still when they saw Asahel lying there.

<sup>26</sup>Abner shouted down to Joab, "Must we always be killing each other? Don't you realize that bitterness is the only result? When will you call off your men from chasing their Israelite brothers?"

<sup>27</sup>Then Joab said, "God only knows what would have happened if you hadn't spoken, for we would have chased you all night if necessary." <sup>28</sup>So Joab blew the ram's horn, and his men stopped chasing the troops of Israel.

<sup>29</sup>All that night Abner and his men retreated through the Jordan Valley.* They crossed the Jordan River, traveling all through the morning,* and didn't stop until they arrived at Mahanaim.

<sup>30</sup>Meanwhile, Joab and his men also returned home. When Joab counted his casualties, he discovered that only 19 men were missing in addition to Asahel. <sup>31</sup>But 360 of Abner's men had been killed, all from the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>32</sup>Joab and his men took Asahel's body to Bethlehem and buried him there in his father's tomb. Then they traveled all night and reached Hebron at daybreak.

2 Samuel 3

<sup>1</sup>That was the beginning of a long war between those who were loyal to Saul and those loyal to David. As time passed David became stronger and stronger, while Saul's dynasty became weaker and weaker.

David's Sons Born in Hebron

<sup>2</sup>These are the sons who were born to David in Hebron:

The oldest was Amnon, whose mother was Ahinoam from Jezreel.

<sup>3</sup>The second was Daniel,* whose mother was Abigail, the widow of Nabal from Carmel.

The third was Absalom, whose mother was Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur.

<sup>4</sup>The fourth was Adonijah, whose mother was Haggith.

The fifth was Shephatiah, whose mother was Abital.

<sup>5</sup>The sixth was Ithream, whose mother was Eglah, David's wife.

These sons were all born to David in Hebron.

Abner Joins Forces with David

<sup>6</sup>As the war between the house of Saul and the house of David went on, Abner became a powerful leader among those loyal to Saul. <sup>7</sup>One day Ishbosheth,* Saul's son, accused Abner of sleeping with one of his father's concubines, a woman named Rizpah, daughter of Aiah.

<sup>8</sup>Abner was furious. "Am I some Judean dog to be kicked around like this?" he shouted. "After all I have done for your father, Saul, and his family and friends by not handing you over to David, is this my reward—that you find fault with me about this woman? <sup>9</sup>May God strike me and even kill me if I don't do everything I can to help David get what the LORD has promised him! <sup>10</sup>I'm going to take Saul's kingdom and give it to David. I will establish the throne of David over Israel as well as Judah, all the way from Dan in the north to Beersheba in the south." <sup>11</sup>Ishbosheth didn't dare say another word because he was afraid of what Abner might do.

<sup>12</sup>Then Abner sent messengers to David, saying, "Doesn't the entire land belong to you? Make a solemn pact with me, and I will help turn over all of Israel to you."

<sup>13</sup>"All right," David replied, "but I will not negotiate with you unless you bring back my wife Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come."

<sup>14</sup>David then sent this message to Ishbosheth, Saul's son: "Give me back my wife Michal, for I bought her with the lives* of 100 Philistines."

<sup>15</sup>So Ishbosheth took Michal away from her husband, Palti* son of Laish. <sup>16</sup>Palti followed along behind her as far as Bahurim, weeping as he went. Then Abner told him, "Go back home!" So Palti returned.

<sup>17</sup>Meanwhile, Abner had consulted with the elders of Israel. "For some time now," he told them, "you have wanted to make David your king. <sup>18</sup>Now is the time! For the LORD has said, ‘I have chosen David to save my people Israel from the hands of the Philistines and from all their other enemies.’” <sup>19</sup>Abner also spoke with the men of Benjamin. Then he went to Hebron to tell David that all the people of Israel and Benjamin had agreed to support him.

<sup>20</sup>When Abner and twenty of his men came to Hebron, David entertained them with a great feast. <sup>21</sup>Then Abner said to David, “Let me go and call an assembly of all Israel to support my lord the king. They will make a covenant with you to make you their king, and you will rule over everything your heart desires.” So David sent Abner safely on his way.

Joab Murders Abner

<sup>22</sup>But just after David had sent Abner away in safety, Joab and some of David’s troops returned from a raid, bringing much plunder with them. <sup>23</sup>When Joab arrived, he was told that Abner had just been there visiting the king and had been sent away in safety.

<sup>24</sup>Joab rushed to the king and demanded, “What have you done? What do you mean by letting Abner get away? <sup>25</sup>You know perfectly well that he came to spy on you and find out everything you’re doing!”

<sup>26</sup>Joab then left David and sent messengers to catch up with Abner, asking him to return. They found him at the well of Sirah and brought him back, though David knew nothing about it. <sup>27</sup>When Abner arrived back at Hebron, Joab took him aside at the gateway as if to speak with him privately. But then he stabbed Abner in the stomach and killed him in revenge for killing his brother Asahel.

Joab

<sup>28</sup>When David heard about it, he declared, “I vow by the LORD that I and my kingdom are forever innocent of this crime against Abner son of Ner. <sup>29</sup>Joab and his family are the guilty ones. May the family of Joab be cursed in every generation with a man who has open sores or leprosy* or who walks on crutches* or dies by the sword or begs for food!”

<sup>30</sup>So Joab and his brother Abishai killed Abner because Abner had killed their brother Asahel at the battle of Gibeon.

David Mourns Abner's Death

<sup>31</sup>Then David said to Joab and all those who were with him, “Tear your clothes and put on burlap. Mourn for Abner.” And King David himself walked behind the procession to the grave.

“Should Abner have died as fools die?

<sup>34</sup>Your hands were not bound;

your feet were not chained.

No, you were murdered—

the victim of a wicked plot.”

All the people wept again for Abner. <sup>35</sup>David had refused to eat anything on the day of the funeral, and now everyone begged him to eat. But David had made a vow, saying, “May God strike me and even kill me if I eat anything before sundown.”

<sup>36</sup>This pleased the people very much. In fact, everything the king did pleased them! <sup>37</sup>So everyone in Judah and all Israel understood that David was not responsible for Abner’s murder.

<sup>38</sup>Then King David said to his officials, “Don’t you realize that a great commander has fallen today in Israel? <sup>39</sup>And even though I am the anointed king, these two sons of Zeruiah—Joab and Abishai—are too strong for me to control. So may the LORD repay these evil men for their evil deeds.”

2 Samuel 4

The Murder of Ishbosheth

<sup>1</sup>When Ishbosheth,* Saul's son, heard about Abner's death at Hebron, he lost all courage, and all Israel became paralyzed with fear. <sup>2</sup>Now there were two brothers, Baanah and Recab, who were captains of Ishbosheth's raiding parties. They were sons of Rimmon, a member of the tribe of Benjamin who lived in Beeroth. The town of Beeroth is now part of Benjamin's territory <sup>3</sup>because the original people of Beeroth fled to Gittaim, where they still live as foreigners.

<sup>4</sup>(Saul's son Jonathan had a son named Mephibosheth,* who was crippled as a child. He was five years old when the report came from Jezreel that Saul and Jonathan had been killed in battle. When the child's nurse heard the news, she picked him up and fled. But as she hurried away, she dropped him, and he became crippled.)

<sup>5</sup>One day Recab and Baanah, the sons of Rimmon from Beeroth, went to Ishbosheth's house around noon as he was taking his midday rest. <sup>6</sup>The doorkeeper, who had been sifting wheat, became drowsy and fell asleep. So Recab and Baanah slipped past her.* <sup>7</sup>They went into the house and found Ishbosheth sleeping on his bed. They struck and killed him and cut off his head. Then, taking his head with them, they fled across the Jordan Valley* through the night. <sup>8</sup>When they arrived at Hebron, they presented Ishbosheth's head to David.

“Look!” they exclaimed to the king. “Here is the head of Ishbosheth, the son of your enemy Saul who tried to kill you. Today the LORD has given my lord the king revenge on Saul and his entire family!”

<sup>9</sup> But David said to Recab and Baanah, “The LORD, who saves me from all my enemies, is my witness. <sup>10</sup>Someone once told me, ‘Saul is dead,’ thinking he was bringing me good news. But I seized him and killed him at Ziklag. That’s the reward I gave him for his news! <sup>11</sup>How much more should I reward evil men who have killed an innocent man in his own house and on his own bed? Shouldn’t I hold you responsible for his blood and rid the earth of you?”

<sup>12</sup> So David ordered his young men to kill them, and they did. They cut off their hands and feet and hung their bodies beside the pool in Hebron. Then they took Ishbosheth’s head and buried it in Abner’s tomb in Hebron.

2 Samuel 5

David Becomes King of All Israel

<sup>1</sup>Then all the tribes of Israel went to David at Hebron and told him, “We are your own flesh and blood. <sup>2</sup>In the past,* when Saul was our king, you were the one who really led the forces of Israel. And the LORD told you, ‘You will be the shepherd of my people Israel. You will be Israel’s leader.’” <sup>3</sup>So there at Hebron, King David made a covenant before the LORD with all the elders of Israel. And they anointed him king of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in all. <sup>5</sup>He had reigned over Judah from Hebron for seven years and six months, and from Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah for thirty-three years.

David Captures Jerusalem

<sup>6</sup>David then led his men to Jerusalem to fight against the Jebusites, the original inhabitants of the land who were living there. The Jebusites taunted David, saying, “You’ll never get in here! Even the blind and lame could keep you out!” For the Jebusites thought they were safe. <sup>7</sup>But David captured the fortress of Zion, which is now called the City of David.

<sup>8</sup>On the day of the attack, David said to his troops, “I hate those ‘lame’ and ‘blind’ Jebusites.* Whoever attacks them should strike by going into the city through the water tunnel.*” That is the origin of the saying, “The blind and the lame may not enter the house.”*

<sup>9</sup>So David made the fortress his home, and he called it the City of David. He extended the city, starting at the supporting terraces* and working inward. <sup>10</sup>And David became more and more powerful, because the LORD God of Heaven’s Armies was with him.

<sup>11</sup>Then King Hiram of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar timber and carpenters and stonemasons, and they built David a palace. <sup>12</sup>And David realized that the LORD had confirmed him as king over Israel and had blessed his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.

David Conquers the Philistines

<sup>17</sup>When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king of Israel, they mobilized all their forces to capture him. But David was told they were coming, so he went into the stronghold. <sup>18</sup>The Philistines arrived and spread out across the valley of Rephaim. <sup>19</sup>So David asked the LORD, “Should I go out to fight the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?”

The LORD replied to David, “Yes, go ahead. I will certainly hand them over to you.”

<sup>20</sup>So David went to Baal-perazim and defeated the Philistines there. “The LORD did it!” David exclaimed. “He burst through my enemies like a raging flood!” So he named that place Baal-perazim (which means “the Lord who bursts through”). <sup>21</sup>The Philistines had abandoned their idols there, so David and his men confiscated them.

<sup>22</sup>But after a while the Philistines returned and again spread out across the valley of Rephaim. <sup>23</sup>And again David asked the LORD what to do. “Do not attack them straight on,” the LORD replied. “Instead, circle around behind and attack them near the poplar* trees. <sup>24</sup>When you hear a sound like marching feet in the tops of the poplar trees, be on the alert! That will be the signal that the LORD is moving ahead of you to strike down the Philistine army.” <sup>25</sup>So David did what the LORD commanded, and he struck down the Philistines all the way from Gibeon* to Gezer.

2 Samuel 6

Moving the Ark to Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Then David again gathered all the elite troops in Israel, 30,000 in all. <sup>2</sup> He led them to Baalah of Judah* to bring back the Ark of God, which bears the name of the LORD of Heaven's Armies,* who is enthroned between the cherubim. <sup>3</sup> They placed the Ark of God on a new cart and brought it from Abinadab's house, which was on a hill. Uzzah and Ahio, Abinadab's sons, were guiding the cart as it left the house, <sup>4</sup> carrying the Ark of God. Ahio walked in front of the Ark. <sup>5</sup> David and all the people of Israel were celebrating before the LORD, singing songs* and playing all kinds of musical instruments—lyres, harps, tambourines, castanets, and cymbals.

<sup>6</sup> But when they arrived at the threshing floor of Nacon, the oxen stumbled, and Uzzah reached out his hand and steadied the Ark of God. <sup>7</sup> Then the LORD's anger was aroused against Uzzah, and God struck him dead because of this.* So Uzzah died right there beside the Ark of God.

<sup>8</sup> David was angry because the LORD's anger had burst out against Uzzah. He named that place Perez-uzzah (which means "to burst out against Uzzah"), as it is still called today.

<sup>9</sup> David was now afraid of the LORD, and he asked, "How can I ever bring the Ark of the LORD back into my care?" <sup>10</sup> So David decided not to move the Ark of the LORD into the City of David. Instead, he took it to the house of Obed-edom of Gath. <sup>11</sup> The Ark of the LORD remained there in Obed-edom's house for three months, and the LORD blessed Obed-edom and his entire household.

<sup>12</sup> Then King David was told, "The LORD has blessed Obed-edom's household and everything he has because of the Ark of God." So David went there and brought the Ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the City of David with a great celebration. <sup>13</sup> After the men who were carrying the Ark of the LORD had gone six steps, David sacrificed a bull and a fattened calf. <sup>14</sup> And David danced before the LORD with all his might, wearing a priestly garment.* <sup>15</sup> So David and all the people of Israel brought up the Ark of the LORD with shouts of joy and the blowing of rams' horns.

Michal's Contempt for David

<sup>16</sup> But as the Ark of the LORD entered the City of David, Michal, the daughter of Saul, looked down from her window. When she saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, she was filled with contempt for him.

<sup>17</sup> They brought the Ark of the LORD and set it in its place inside the special tent David had prepared for it. And David sacrificed burnt offerings and peace offerings to the LORD. <sup>18</sup> When he had finished his sacrifices, David blessed the people in the name of the LORD of Heaven's Armies. <sup>19</sup> Then he gave to every Israelite man and woman in the crowd a loaf of bread, a cake of dates,* and a cake of raisins. Then all the people returned to their homes.

the daughter of Saul, came out to meet him. She said in disgust, “How distinguished the king of Israel looked today, shamelessly exposing himself to the servant girls like any vulgar person might do!”

<sup>21</sup>David retorted to Michal, “I was dancing before the LORD, who chose me above your father and all his family! He appointed me as the leader of Israel, the people of the LORD, so I celebrate before the LORD. <sup>22</sup>Yes, and I am willing to look even more foolish than this, even to be humiliated in my own eyes! But those servant girls you mentioned will indeed think I am distinguished!” <sup>23</sup>So Michal, the daughter of Saul, remained childless throughout her entire life.

2 Samuel 7

The LORD's Covenant Promise to David

<sup>1</sup>When King David was settled in his palace and the LORD had given him rest from all the surrounding enemies,<sup>2</sup>the king summoned Nathan the prophet. “Look,” David said, “I am living in a beautiful cedar palace,* but the Ark of God is out there in a tent!”

<sup>3</sup>Nathan replied to the king, “Go ahead and do whatever you have in mind, for the LORD is with you.”

<sup>4</sup>But that same night the LORD said to Nathan,

<sup>5</sup>“Go and tell my servant David, ‘This is what the LORD has declared: Are you the one to build a house for me to live in? <sup>6</sup>I have never lived in a house, from the day I brought the Israelites out of Egypt until this very day. I have always moved from one place to another with a tent and a Tabernacle as my dwelling. <sup>7</sup>Yet no matter where I have gone with the Israelites, I have never once complained to Israel’s tribal leaders, the shepherds of my people Israel. I have never asked them, ‘Why haven’t you built me a beautiful cedar house?’”

<sup>8</sup>“Now go and say to my servant David, ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies has declared: I took you from tending sheep in the pasture and selected you to be the leader of my people Israel.<sup>9</sup> I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have destroyed all your enemies before your eyes. Now I will make your name as famous as anyone who has ever lived on the earth! <sup>10</sup>And I will provide a homeland for my people Israel, planting them in a secure place where they will never be disturbed. Evil nations won't oppress them as they've done in the past, <sup>11</sup>starting from the time I appointed judges to rule my people Israel. And I will give you rest from all your enemies.

“Furthermore, the LORD declares that he will make a house for you—a dynasty of kings! <sup>12</sup>For when you die and are buried with your ancestors, I will raise up one of your descendants, your own offspring, and I will make his kingdom strong. <sup>13</sup>He is the one who will build a house—a temple—for my name. And I will secure his royal throne forever. <sup>14</sup>I will be his father, and he will be my son. If he sins, I will correct and discipline him with the rod, like any father would do. <sup>15</sup>But my favor will not be taken from him as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from your sight. <sup>16</sup>Your house and your kingdom will continue before me* for all time, and your throne will be secure forever.”

<sup>17</sup>So Nathan went back to David and told him everything the LORD had said in this vision.

David's Prayer of Thanks

<sup>18</sup>Then King David went in and sat before the LORD and prayed,

“Who am I, O Sovereign LORD, and what is my family, that you have brought me this far? <sup>19</sup>And now, Sovereign LORD, in addition to everything else, you speak of giving your servant a lasting dynasty! Do you deal with everyone this way, O Sovereign LORD?*

<sup>20</sup>“What more can I say to you? You know what your servant is really like, Sovereign LORD. <sup>21</sup>Because of your promise and according to your will, you have done all these great things and have made them known to your servant.

<sup>22</sup>“How great you are, O Sovereign LORD! There is no one like you. We have never even heard of another God like you! <sup>23</sup>What other nation on earth is like your people Israel? What other nation, O God, have you redeemed from slavery to be your own people? You made a great name for yourself when you redeemed your people from Egypt. You performed awesome miracles and drove out the nations and gods that stood in their way.* <sup>24</sup>You made Israel your very own people forever, and you, O LORD, became their God.

<sup>25</sup>“And now, O LORD God, I am your servant; do as you have promised concerning me and my family. Confirm it as a promise that will last forever. <sup>26</sup>And may your name be honored forever so that everyone will say, ‘The LORD of Heaven’s Armies is God over Israel!’ And may the house of your servant David continue before you forever.

<sup>27</sup> “O LORD of Heaven’s Armies, God of Israel, I have been bold enough to pray this prayer to you because you have revealed all this to your servant, saying, ‘I will build a house for you—a dynasty of kings!’<sup>28</sup>For you are God, O Sovereign LORD. Your words are truth, and you have promised these good things to your servant.<sup>29</sup>And now, may it please you to bless the house of your servant, so that it may continue forever before you. For you have spoken, and when you grant a blessing to your servant, O Sovereign LORD, it is an eternal blessing!”

2 Samuel 8

David's Military Victories

<sup>1</sup>After this, David defeated and subdued the Philistines by conquering Gath, their largest town.* <sup>2</sup>David also conquered the land of Moab. He made the people lie down on the ground in a row, and he measured them off in groups with a length of rope. He measured off two groups to be executed for every one group to be spared. The Moabites who were spared became David's subjects and paid him tribute money.

<sup>3</sup>David also destroyed the forces of Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah, when Hadadezer marched out to strengthen his control along the Euphrates River. <sup>4</sup>David captured 1,000 chariots, 7,000 charioteers,* and 20,000 foot soldiers. He crippled all the chariot horses except enough for 100 chariots.

<sup>5</sup>When Arameans from Damascus arrived to help King Hadadezer, David killed 22,000 of them. <sup>6</sup>Then he placed several army garrisons in Damascus, the Aramean capital, and the Arameans became David's subjects and paid him tribute money. So the LORD made David victorious wherever he went.

Hadadezer and Toi had been enemies and were often at war. Joram presented David with many gifts of silver, gold, and bronze.

<sup>11</sup>King David dedicated all these gifts to the LORD, as he did with the silver and gold from the other nations he had defeated—<sup>12</sup>from Edom,* Moab, Ammon, Philistia, and Amalek—and from Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

<sup>13</sup>So David became even more famous when he returned from destroying 18,000 Edomites* in the Valley of Salt. <sup>14</sup>He placed army garrisons throughout Edom, and all the Edomites became David's subjects. In fact, the LORD made David victorious wherever he went.

<sup>15</sup>So David reigned over all Israel and did what was just and right for all his people. <sup>16</sup>Joab son of Zeruiah was commander of the army. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the royal historian. <sup>17</sup>Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were the priests. Seraiah was the court secretary. <sup>18</sup>Benaiah son of Jehoiada was captain of the king's bodyguard.* And David's sons served as priestly leaders.*

David's Kindness to Mephibosheth

<sup>1</sup> One day David asked, "Is anyone in Saul's family still alive—anyone to whom I can show kindness for Jonathan's sake?"

<sup>2</sup> He summoned a man named Ziba, who had been one of Saul's servants. "Are you Ziba?" the king asked.

"Yes sir, I am," Ziba replied.

<sup>3</sup> The king then asked him, "Is anyone still alive from Saul's family? If so, I want to show God's kindness to them."

Ziba replied, "Yes, one of Jonathan's sons is still alive. He is crippled in both feet."

<sup>4</sup> "Where is he?" the king asked.

"In Lo-debar," Ziba told him, "at the home of Makir son of Ammiel."

<sup>5</sup> So David sent for him and brought him from Makir's home.

<sup>6</sup> His name was Mephibosheth*; he was Jonathan's son and Saul's grandson. When he came to David, he bowed low to the ground in deep respect. David said, "Greetings, Mephibosheth."

Mephibosheth replied, "I am your servant."

<sup>7</sup> "Don't be afraid!" David said. "I intend to show kindness to you because of my promise to your father, Jonathan. I will give you all the property that once belonged to your grandfather Saul, and you will eat here with me at the king's table!"

<sup>8</sup> Mephibosheth bowed respectfully and exclaimed, "Who is your servant, that you should show such kindness to a dead dog like me?”

<sup>9</sup>Then the king summoned Saul’s servant Ziba and said, “I have given your master’s grandson everything that belonged to Saul and his family. <sup>10</sup>You and your sons and servants are to farm the land for him to produce food for your master’s household.* But Mephibosheth, your master’s grandson, will eat here at my table.” (Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.)

<sup>11</sup>Ziba replied, “Yes, my lord the king; I am your servant, and I will do all that you have commanded.” And from that time on, Mephibosheth ate regularly at David’s table,* like one of the king’s own sons.

<sup>12</sup>Mephibosheth had a young son named Mica. From then on, all the members of Ziba’s household were Mephibosheth’s servants. <sup>13</sup>And Mephibosheth, who was crippled in both feet, lived in Jerusalem and ate regularly at the king’s table.

2 Samuel 10

David Defeats the Ammonites

<sup>1</sup> Some time after this, King Nahash* of the Ammonites died, and his son Hanun became king. <sup>2</sup>David said, “I am going to show loyalty to Hanun just as his father, Nahash, was always loyal to me.” So David sent ambassadors to express sympathy to Hanun about his father’s death.

But when David’s ambassadors arrived in the land of Ammon, <sup>3</sup>the Ammonite commanders said to Hanun, their master, “Do you really think these men are coming here to honor your father? No! David has sent them to spy out the city so they can come in and conquer it!” <sup>4</sup>So Hanun seized David’s ambassadors and shaved off half of each man’s beard, cut off their robes at the buttocks, and sent them back to David in shame.

<sup>5</sup>When David heard what had happened, he sent messengers to tell the men, “Stay at Jericho until your beards grow out, and then come back.” For they felt deep shame because of their appearance.

<sup>6</sup>When the people of Ammon realized how seriously they had angered David, they sent and hired 20,000 Aramean foot soldiers from the lands of Beth-rehob and Zobah, 1,000 from the king of Maacah, and 12,000 from the land of Tob. <sup>7</sup>When David heard about this, he sent Joab and all his warriors to fight them. <sup>8</sup>The Ammonite troops came out and drew up their battle lines at the entrance of the city gate, while the Arameans from Zobah and Rehob and the men from Tob and Maacah positioned themselves to fight in the open fields.

<sup>9</sup>When Joab saw that he would have to fight on both the front and the rear, he chose some of Israel's elite troops and placed them under his personal command to fight the Arameans in the fields. <sup>10</sup>He left the rest of the army under the command of his brother Abishai, who was to attack the Ammonites. <sup>11</sup>“If the Arameans are too strong for me, then come over and help me,” Joab told his brother. “And if the Ammonites are too strong for you, I will come and help you. <sup>12</sup>Be courageous! Let us fight bravely for our people and the cities of our God. May the LORD's will be done.”

<sup>13</sup>When Joab and his troops attacked, the Arameans began to run away. <sup>14</sup>And when the Ammonites saw the Arameans running, they ran from Abishai and retreated into the city. After the battle was over, Joab returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>The Arameans now realized that they were no match for Israel. So when they regrouped, <sup>16</sup>they were joined by additional Aramean troops summoned by Hadadezer from the other side of the Euphrates River. * These troops arrived at Helam under the command of Shobach, the commander of Hadadezer's forces.

<sup>17</sup>When David heard what was happening, he mobilized all Israel, crossed the Jordan River, and led the army to Helam. The Arameans positioned themselves in battle formation and fought against David. <sup>18</sup>But again the Arameans fled from the Israelites. This time David's forces killed 700 charioteers and 40,000 foot soldiers,* including Shobach, the commander of their army. <sup>19</sup>When all the kings allied with Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they surrendered to Israel and became their subjects. After that, the Arameans were afraid to help the Ammonites.

2 Samuel 11

David and Bathsheba

<sup>1</sup>In the spring of the year,* when kings normally go out to war, David sent Joab and the Israelite army to fight the Ammonites. They destroyed the Ammonite army and laid siege to the city of Rabbah. However, David stayed behind in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Late one afternoon, after his midday rest, David got out of bed and was walking on the roof of the palace. As he looked out over the city, he noticed a woman of unusual beauty taking a bath. <sup>3</sup>He sent someone to find out who she was, and he was told, “She is Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam and the wife of Uriah the Hittite.” <sup>4</sup>Then David sent messengers to get her; and when she came to the palace, he slept with her. She had just completed the purification rites after having her menstrual period. Then she returned home. <sup>5</sup>Later, when Bathsheba discovered that she was pregnant, she sent David a message, saying, “I’m pregnant.”

<sup>6</sup>Then David sent word to Joab: “Send me Uriah the Hittite.” So Joab sent him to David. <sup>7</sup>When Uriah arrived, David asked him how Joab and the army were getting along and how the war was progressing. <sup>8</sup>Then he told Uriah, “Go on home and relax.*” David even sent a gift to Uriah after he had left the palace. <sup>9</sup>But Uriah didn’t go home. He slept that night at the palace entrance with the king’s palace guard.

<sup>10</sup>When David heard that Uriah had not gone home, he summoned him and asked, “What’s the matter? Why didn’t you go home last night after being away for so long?”

<sup>11</sup>Uriah replied, “The Ark and the armies of Israel and Judah are living in tents,* and Joab and my master’s men are camping in the open fields. How could I go home to wine and dine and sleep with my wife? I swear that I would never do such a thing.”

<sup>12</sup>“Well, stay here today,” David told him, “and tomorrow you may return to the army.” So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day and the next. <sup>13</sup>Then David invited him to dinner and got him drunk. But even then he couldn’t get Uriah to go home to his wife. Again he slept at the palace entrance with the king’s palace guard.

David Arranges for Uriah’s Death

<sup>14</sup> So the next morning David wrote a letter to Joab and gave it to Uriah to deliver. <sup>15</sup>The letter instructed Joab, “Station Uriah on the front lines where the battle is fiercest. Then pull back so that he will be killed.” <sup>16</sup>So Joab assigned Uriah to a spot close to the city wall where he knew the enemy’s strongest men were fighting. <sup>17</sup>And when the enemy soldiers came out of the city to fight, Uriah the Hittite was killed along with several other Israelite soldiers.

DAVID, HOW COULD YOU?

Though he was a brilliant warrior and eloquent poet who loved God intensely, David made some big-time blunders in the later years of his life. Here's his rap sheet from 2 Samuel:

blunder	reference
Peeping Tom .....	2 Samuel 11:2-3
One-night stand.....	2 Samuel 11:4
Elaborate cover-up (that didn't work).....	2 Samuel 11:6-15
Hit job on the woman's innocent husband.....	2 Samuel 11:16-17
Failure to detect his firstborn son's problem with lust .....	2 Samuel 13:6-7
Worry for an alienated son, but no follow-through .....	2 Samuel 13:39; 14:28

<sup>18</sup>Then Joab sent a battle report to David. <sup>19</sup>He told his messenger, "Report all the news of the battle to the king. <sup>20</sup>But he might get angry and ask, 'Why did the troops go so close to the city? Didn't they know there would be shooting from the walls?' <sup>21</sup>Wasn't Abimelech son of Gideon * killed at Thebez by a woman who threw a millstone down on him from the wall? Why would you get so close to the wall?' Then tell him, 'Uriah the Hittite was killed, too.”

<sup>22</sup>So the messenger went to Jerusalem and gave a complete report to David. <sup>23</sup>“The enemy came out against us in the open fields,” he said. “And as we chased them back to the city gate, <sup>24</sup>the archers on the wall shot arrows at us. Some of the king’s men were killed, including Uriah the Hittite.”

<sup>25</sup>“Well, tell Joab not to be discouraged,” David said. “The sword devours this one today and that one tomorrow! Fight harder next time, and conquer the city!”

<sup>26</sup>When Uriah’s wife heard that her husband was dead, she mourned for him. <sup>27</sup>When the period of mourning was over, David sent for her and brought her to the palace, and she became one of his wives. Then she gave birth to a son. But the LORD was displeased with what David had done.

Nathan

2 Samuel 12

Nathan Rebukes David

Personal Gold

Cherishing Your Wife

<sup>5</sup>David was furious. “As surely as the LORD lives,” he vowed, “any man who would do such a thing deserves to die! <sup>6</sup>He must repay four lambs to the poor man for the one he stole and for having no pity.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Nathan said to David, “You are that man! The LORD, the God of Israel, says: I anointed you king of Israel and saved you from the power of Saul. <sup>8</sup>I gave you your master’s house and his wives and the kingdoms of Israel and Judah. And if that had not been enough, I would have given you much, much more. <sup>9</sup> Why, then, have you despised the word of the LORD and done this horrible deed? For you have murdered Uriah the Hittite with the sword of the Ammonites and stolen his wife. <sup>10</sup>From this time on, your family will live by the sword because you have despised me by taking Uriah’s wife to be your own.

<sup>11</sup>“This is what the LORD says: Because of what you have done, I will cause your own household to rebel against you. I will give your wives to another man before your very eyes, and he will go to bed with them in public view. <sup>12</sup>You did it secretly, but I will make this happen to you openly in the sight of all Israel.”

David Confesses His Guilt

Nathan replied, “Yes, but the LORD has forgiven you, and you won’t die for this sin. <sup>14</sup>Nevertheless, because you have shown utter contempt for the LORD* by doing this, your child will die.”

illness to the child of David and Uriah's wife. <sup>16</sup>David begged God to spare the child. He went without food and lay all night on the bare ground. <sup>17</sup>The elders of his household pleaded with him to get up and eat with them, but he refused.

<sup>18</sup>Then on the seventh day the child died. David's advisers were afraid to tell him. "He wouldn't listen to reason while the child was ill," they said. "What drastic thing will he do when we tell him the child is dead?"

<sup>19</sup>When David saw them whispering, he realized what had happened. "Is the child dead?" he asked.

"Yes," they replied, "he is dead."

<sup>20</sup>Then David got up from the ground, washed himself, put on lotions,* and changed his clothes. He went to the Tabernacle and worshiped the LORD. After that, he returned to the palace and was served food and ate.

<sup>21</sup>His advisers were amazed. "We don't understand you," they told him. "While the child was still living, you wept and refused to eat. But now that the child is dead, you have stopped your mourning and are eating again."

<sup>22</sup>David replied, "I fasted and wept while the child was alive, for I said, 'Perhaps the LORD will be gracious to me and let the child live.' <sup>23</sup>But why should I fast when he is dead? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him one day, but he cannot return to me."

<sup>24</sup>Then David comforted Bathsheba, his wife, and slept with her. She became pregnant and gave birth to a son, and David* named him Solomon. The LORD loved the child <sup>25</sup>and sent word through Nathan the prophet that they should name him

Jedidiah (which means “beloved of the LORD”), as the LORD had commanded.*

David Captures Rabbah

<sup>26</sup>Meanwhile, Joab was fighting against Rabbah, the capital of Ammon, and he captured the royal fortifications.* <sup>27</sup>Joab sent messengers to tell David, “I have fought against Rabbah and captured its water supply.* <sup>28</sup>Now bring the rest of the army and capture the city. Otherwise, I will capture it and get credit for the victory.”

<sup>29</sup> So David gathered the rest of the army and went to Rabbah, and he fought against it and captured it. <sup>30</sup>David removed the crown from the king’s head,* and it was placed on his own head. The crown was made of gold and set with gems, and it weighed seventy-five pounds.* David took a vast amount of plunder from the city. <sup>31</sup>He also made slaves of the people of Rabbah and forced them to labor with* saws, iron picks, and iron axes, and to work in the brick kilns.* That is how he dealt with the people of all the Ammonite towns. Then David and all the army returned to Jerusalem.

A Deadly Affair

Amnon

2 Samuel 13

The Rape of Tamar

<sup>1</sup> Now David's son Absalom had a beautiful sister named Tamar. And Amnon, her half brother, fell desperately in love with her. <sup>2</sup>Amnon became so obsessed with Tamar that he became ill. She was a virgin, and Amnon thought he could never have her.

<sup>3</sup>But Amnon had a very crafty friend—his cousin Jonadab. He was the son of David's brother Shimea. <sup>4</sup>* One day Jonadab said to Amnon, "What's the trouble? Why should the son of a king look so dejected morning after morning?"

So Amnon told him, "I am in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

<sup>5</sup>"Well," Jonadab said, "I'll tell you what to do. Go back to bed and pretend you are ill. When your father comes to see you, ask him to let Tamar come and prepare some food for you.

Tell him you'll feel better if she prepares it as you watch and feeds you with her own hands."

<sup>6</sup>So Amnon lay down and pretended to be sick. And when the king came to see him, Amnon asked him, "Please let my sister Tamar come and cook my favorite dish* as I watch. Then I can eat it from her own hands."<sup>7</sup>So David agreed and sent Tamar to Amnon's house to prepare some food for him.

<sup>8</sup>When Tamar arrived at Amnon's house, she went to the place where he was lying down so he could watch her mix some dough. Then she baked his favorite dish for him.<sup>9</sup>But when she set the serving tray before him, he refused to eat. "Everyone get out of here," Amnon told his servants. So they all left.

<sup>10</sup>Then he said to Tamar, "Now bring the food into my bedroom and feed it to me here." So Tamar took his favorite dish to him.<sup>11</sup>But as she was feeding him, he grabbed her and demanded, "Come to bed with me, my darling sister."

<sup>12</sup>"No, my brother!" she cried. "Don't be foolish! Don't do this to me! Such wicked things aren't done in Israel. <sup>13</sup> Where could I go in my shame? And you would be called one of the greatest fools in Israel. Please, just speak to the king about it, and he will let you marry me."

<sup>14</sup> But Amnon wouldn't listen to her, and since he was stronger than she was, he raped her.<sup>15</sup>Then suddenly Amnon's love turned to hate, and he hated her even more than he had loved her. "Get out of here!" he snarled at her.

<sup>16</sup>"No, no!" Tamar cried. "Sending me away now is worse than what you've already done to me."

But Amnon wouldn't listen to her. <sup>17</sup>He shouted for his servant and demanded, "Throw this woman out, and lock the door behind her!"

<sup>18</sup>So the servant put her out and locked the door behind her. She was wearing a long, beautiful robe,* as was the custom in those days for the king's virgin daughters. <sup>19</sup>But now Tamar tore her robe and put ashes on her head. And then, with her face in her hands, she went away crying.

<sup>20</sup> Her brother Absalom saw her and asked, "Is it true that Amnon has been with you? Well, my sister, keep quiet for now, since he's your brother. Don't you worry about it." So Tamar lived as a desolate woman in her brother Absalom's house.

<sup>21</sup> When King David heard what had happened, he was very angry.* <sup>22</sup>And though Absalom never spoke to Amnon about this, he hated Amnon deeply because of what he had done to his sister.

Absalom

Absalom's Revenge on Amnon

<sup>23</sup>Two years later, when Absalom's sheep were being sheared at Baal-hazor near Ephraim, Absalom invited all the king's sons to come to a feast. <sup>24</sup>He went to the king and said, "My sheep-shearers are now at work. Would the king and his servants please come to celebrate the occasion with me?"

<sup>25</sup>The king replied, "No, my son. If we all came, we would be too much of a burden on you." Absalom pressed him, but the king would not come, though he gave Absalom his blessing.

<sup>26</sup>"Well, then," Absalom said, "if you can't come, how about sending my brother Amnon with us?"

"Why Amnon?" the king asked. <sup>27</sup>But Absalom kept on pressing the king until he finally agreed to let all his sons attend, including Amnon. So Absalom prepared a feast fit for a king.*

<sup>28</sup>Absalom told his men, "Wait until Amnon gets drunk; then at my signal, kill him! Don't be afraid. I'm the one who has given the command. Take courage and do it!" <sup>29</sup>So at Absalom's signal they murdered Amnon. Then the other sons of the king jumped on their mules and fled.

<sup>30</sup>As they were on the way back to Jerusalem, this report reached David: "Absalom has killed all the king's sons; not one is left alive!" <sup>31</sup>The king got up, tore his robe, and threw himself on the ground. His advisers also tore their clothes in horror and sorrow.

<sup>32</sup>But just then Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimea, arrived and said, "No, don't believe that all the king's sons have been killed! It was only Amnon! Absalom has been plotting this ever since Amnon raped his sister Tamar. <sup>33</sup>No, my lord the king, your sons aren't all dead! It was only Ammon."

Then the watchman on the Jerusalem wall saw a great crowd coming down the hill on the road from the west. He ran to tell the king, "I see a crowd of people coming from the Horonaim road along the side of the hill."*

<sup>35</sup>"Look!" Jonadab told the king. "There they are now! The king's sons are coming, just as I said."

<sup>36</sup>They soon arrived, weeping and sobbing, and the king and all his servants wept bitterly with them. <sup>37</sup>And David mourned many days for his son Amnon.

Absalom fled to his grandfather, Talmai son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. <sup>38</sup>He stayed there in Geshur for three years.

<sup>39</sup>And King David,* now reconciled to Amnon's death, longed to be reunited with his son Absalom.*

What the Bible Says about

Pride

2 Samuel 14

Joab Arranges for Absalom's Return

<sup>1</sup> Joab realized how much the king longed to see Absalom. <sup>2</sup>So he sent for a woman from Tekoa who had a reputation for great wisdom. He said to her, “Pretend you are in mourning; wear mourning clothes and don’t put on lotions. <sup>3</sup>* Act like a woman who has been mourning for the dead for a long time. <sup>3</sup>Then go to the king and tell him the story I am about to tell you.” Then Joab told her what to say.

<sup>4</sup>When the woman from Tekoa approached the king, she bowed with her face to the ground in deep respect and cried out, “O king! Help me!”

“Alas, I am a widow!” she replied. “My husband is dead. <sup>6</sup>My two sons had a fight out in the field. And since no one was there to stop it, one of them was killed. <sup>7</sup>Now the rest of the family is demanding, ‘Let us have your son. We will execute him for murdering his brother. He doesn’t deserve to inherit his family’s property.’ They want to extinguish the only coal I have left, and my husband’s name and family will disappear from the face of the earth.”

<sup>8</sup>“Leave it to me,” the king told her. “Go home, and I’ll see to it that no one touches him.”

<sup>9</sup>“Oh, thank you, my lord the king,” the woman from Tekoa replied. “If you are criticized for helping me, let the blame fall on me and on my father's house, and let the king and his throne be innocent."

<sup>10</sup>"If anyone objects," the king said, "bring him to me. I can assure you he will never complain again!"

<sup>11</sup>Then she said, "Please swear to me by the LORD your God that you won't let anyone take vengeance against my son. I want no more bloodshed."

"As surely as the LORD lives," he replied, "not a hair on your son's head will be disturbed!"

<sup>12</sup>"Please allow me to ask one more thing of my lord the king," she said.

"Go ahead and speak," he responded.

<sup>13</sup>She replied, "Why don't you do as much for the people of God as you have promised to do for me? You have convicted yourself in making this decision, because you have refused to bring home your own banished son. <sup>14</sup>All of us must die eventually. Our lives are like water spilled out on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. But God does not just sweep life away; instead, he devises ways to bring us back when we have been separated from him.

<sup>15</sup>"I have come to plead with my lord the king because people have threatened me. I said to myself, 'Perhaps the king will listen to me <sup>16</sup>and rescue us from those who would cut us off from the inheritance* God has given us. <sup>17</sup>Yes, my lord the king will give us peace of mind again.' I know that you are like an angel of God in discerning good from evil. May the LORD your God be with you."

<sup>18</sup>"I must know one thing," the king replied, "and tell me the truth.”

“Yes, my lord the king,” she responded.

And the woman replied, “My lord the king, how can I deny it? Nobody can hide anything from you. Yes, Joab sent me and told me what to say. <sup>20</sup>He did it to place the matter before you in a different light. But you are as wise as an angel of God, and you understand everything that happens among us!”

<sup>22</sup>Joab bowed with his face to the ground in deep respect and said, “At last I know that I have gained your approval, my lord the king, for you have granted me this request!”

<sup>23</sup>Then Joab went to Geshur and brought Absalom back to Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup>But the king gave this order: “Absalom may go to his own house, but he must never come into my presence.” So Absalom did not see the king.

Absalom Reconciled to David

<sup>25</sup>Now Absalom was praised as the most handsome man in all Israel. He was flawless from head to foot. <sup>26</sup>He cut his hair only once a year, and then only because it was so heavy. When he weighed it out, it came to five pounds! <sup>27</sup>He had three sons and one daughter. His daughter’s name was Tamar, and she was very beautiful.

<sup>28</sup>Absalom lived in Jerusalem for two years, but he never got to see the king. <sup>29</sup>Then Absalom sent for Joab to ask him to intercede for him, but Joab refused to come. Absalom sent for him a second time, but again Joab refused to come.<sup>30</sup> So Absalom said to his servants, “Go and set fire to Joab’s barley field, the field next to mine.” So they set his field on fire, as Absalom had commanded.

<sup>31</sup>Then Joab came to Absalom at his house and demanded, “Why did your servants set my field on fire?”

<sup>32</sup>And Absalom replied, “Because I wanted you to ask the king why he brought me back from Geshur if he didn’t intend to see me. I might as well have stayed there. Let me see the king; if he finds me guilty of anything, then let him kill me.”

<sup>33</sup>So Joab told the king what Absalom had said. Then at last David summoned Absalom, who came and bowed low before the king, and the king kissed him.

2 Samuel 15

Absalom's Rebellion

<sup>1</sup>After this, Absalom bought a chariot and horses, and he hired fifty bodyguards to run ahead of him. <sup>2</sup>He got up early every morning and went out to the gate of the city. When people brought a case to the king for judgment, Absalom would ask where in Israel they were from, and they would tell him their tribe. <sup>3</sup>Then Absalom would say, “You’ve really got a strong case here! It’s too bad the king doesn’t have anyone to hear it. <sup>4</sup>I wish I were the judge. Then everyone could bring their cases to me for judgment, and I would give them justice!”

<sup>5</sup>When people tried to bow before him, Absalom wouldn’t let them. Instead, he took them by the hand and kissed them. <sup>6</sup>Absalom did this with everyone who came to the king for judgment, and so he stole the hearts of all the people of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>After four years, * Absalom said to the king, “Let me go to Hebron to offer a sacrifice to the LORD and fulfill a vow I made to him. <sup>8</sup>For while your servant was at Geshur in Aram, I promised to sacrifice to the LORD in Hebron * if he would bring me back to Jerusalem.”

So Absalom went to Hebron. <sup>10</sup>But while he was there, he sent secret messengers to all the tribes of Israel to stir up a rebellion against the king. “As soon as you hear the ram’s horn,” his message read, “you are to say, ‘Absalom has been crowned king in Hebron.”<sup>11</sup> He took 200 men from Jerusalem with him as guests, but they knew nothing of his intentions.<sup>12</sup> While Absalom was offering the sacrifices, he sent for Ahithophel, one of David’s counselors who lived in Giloh. Soon many others also joined Absalom, and the conspiracy gained momentum.

David Escapes from Jerusalem

<sup>13</sup>A messenger soon arrived in Jerusalem to tell David, “All Israel has joined Absalom in a conspiracy against you!”

<sup>14</sup>“Then we must flee at once, or it will be too late!” David urged his men. “Hurry! If we get out of the city before Absalom arrives, both we and the city of Jerusalem will be spared from disaster.”

<sup>19</sup> Then the king turned and said to Ittai, a leader of the men from Gath, “Why are you coming with us? Go on back to King Absalom, for you are a guest in Israel, a foreigner in exile. <sup>20</sup>You arrived only recently, and should I force you today to wander with us? I don’t even know where we will go. Go on back and take your kinsmen with you, and may the LORD show you his unfailing love and faithfulness *”

<sup>21</sup>But Ittai said to the king, “I vow by the LORD and by your own life that I will go wherever my lord the king goes, no matter what happens—whether it means life or death.”

<sup>22</sup>David replied, “All right, come with us.” So Ittai and all his men and their families went along.

<sup>23</sup>Everyone cried loudly as the king and his followers passed by. They crossed the Kidron Valley and then went out toward the wilderness.

<sup>24</sup>Zadok and all the Levites also came along, carrying the Ark of the Covenant of God. They set down the Ark of God, and Abiathar offered sacrifices * until everyone had passed out of the city.

<sup>25</sup>Then the king instructed Zadok to take the Ark of God back into the city. “If the LORD sees fit,” David said, “he will bring me back to see the Ark and the Tabernacle * again.” <sup>26</sup>But if he is through with me, then let him do what seems best to him.”

<sup>27</sup>The king also told Zadok the priest, “Look, * here is my plan. You and Abiathar * should return quietly to the city with your son Ahimaaz and Abiathar’s son Jonathan. <sup>28</sup>I will stop at the shallows of the Jordan River * and wait there for a report from you.” <sup>29</sup>So Zadok and Abiathar took the Ark of God back to the city and stayed there.

<sup>30</sup>David walked up the road to the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went. His head was covered and his feet were bare as a sign of mourning. And the people who were with him covered their heads and wept as they climbed the hill. <sup>31</sup>When someone told David that his adviser Ahithophel was now backing

Absalom, David prayed, “O LORD, let Ahithophel give Absalom foolish advice!”

<sup>32</sup>When David reached the summit of the Mount of Olives where people worshiped God, Hushai the Arkite was waiting there for him. Hushai had torn his clothing and put dirt on his head as a sign of mourning. <sup>33</sup>But David told him, “If you go with me, you will only be a burden. <sup>34</sup>Return to Jerusalem and tell Absalom, ‘I will now be your adviser, O king, just as I was your father’s adviser in the past.’ Then you can frustrate and counter Ahithophel’s advice. <sup>35</sup>Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, will be there. Tell them about the plans being made in the king’s palace, <sup>36</sup>and they will send their sons Ahimaaz and Jonathan to tell me what is going on.”

<sup>37</sup>So David’s friend Hushai returned to Jerusalem, getting there just as Absalom arrived.

2 Samuel 16

David and Ziba

<sup>1</sup>When David had gone a little beyond the summit of the Mount of Olives, Ziba, the servant of Mephibosheth,* was waiting there for him. He had two donkeys loaded with 200 loaves of bread, 100 clusters of raisins, 100 bunches of summer fruit, and a wineskin full of wine.

Ziba replied, “The donkeys are for the king’s people to ride on, and the bread and summer fruit are for the young men to eat. The wine is for those who become exhausted in the wilderness.”

“He stayed in Jerusalem,” Ziba replied. “He said, ‘Today I will get back the kingdom of my grandfather Saul.’”

“I bow before you,” Ziba replied. “May I always be pleasing to you, my lord the king.”

Shimei

Shimei Curses David

<sup>5</sup> As King David came to Bahurim, a man came out of the village cursing them. It was Shimei son of Gera, from the same clan as Saul's family. <sup>6</sup>He threw stones at the king and the king's officers and all the mighty warriors who surrounded him. <sup>7</sup>"Get out of here, you murderer, you scoundrel!" he shouted at David. <sup>8</sup>"The LORD is paying you back for all the bloodshed in Saul's clan. You stole his throne, and now the LORD has given it to your son Absalom. At last you will taste some of your own medicine, for you are a murderer!"

<sup>9</sup>"Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king?" Abishai son of Zeruiah demanded. "Let me go over and cut off his head!"

<sup>10</sup>"No!" the king said. "Who asked your opinion, you sons of Zeruiah! If the LORD has told him to curse me, who are you to stop him?"

<sup>11</sup>Then David said to Abishai and to all his servants, "My own son is trying to kill me. Doesn't this relative of Saul* have even more reason to do so? Leave him alone and let him curse, for the LORD has told him to do it. <sup>12</sup>And perhaps the LORD will see that I am being wronged and will bless me because of these curses today.” <sup>13</sup>So David and his men continued down the road, and Shimei kept pace with them on a nearby hillside, cursing as he went and throwing stones at David and tossing dust into the air.

<sup>14</sup>The king and all who were with him grew weary along the way, so they rested when they reached the Jordan River.*

Ahithophel Advises Absalom

<sup>15</sup>Meanwhile, Absalom and all the army of Israel arrived at Jerusalem, accompanied by Ahithophel. <sup>16</sup>When David’s friend Hushai the Arkite arrived, he went immediately to see Absalom. “Long live the king!” he exclaimed. “Long live the king!”

<sup>17</sup>“Is this the way you treat your friend David?” Absalom asked him. “Why aren’t you with him?”

<sup>18</sup>“I’m here because I belong to the man who is chosen by the LORD and by all the men of Israel,” Hushai replied. <sup>19</sup>“And anyway, why shouldn’t I serve you? Just as I was your father’s adviser, now I will be your adviser!”

<sup>20</sup>Then Absalom turned to Ahithophel and asked him, “What should I do next?”

<sup>21</sup>Ahithophel told him, “Go and sleep with your father’s concubines, for he has left them here to look after the palace. Then all Israel will know that you have insulted your father beyond hope of reconciliation, and they will throw their support to you.” <sup>22</sup>So they set up a tent on the palace roof where everyone could see it, and Absalom went in and had sex with his father's concubines.

<sup>23</sup>Absalom followed Ahithophel's advice, just as David had done. For every word Ahithophel spoke seemed as wise as though it had come directly from the mouth of God.

2 Samuel 17

<sup>1</sup>Now Ahithophel urged Absalom, “Let me choose 12,000 men to start out after David tonight. <sup>2</sup>I will catch up with him while he is weary and discouraged. He and his troops will panic, and everyone will run away. Then I will kill only the king, <sup>3</sup>and I will bring all the people back to you as a bride returns to her husband. After all, it is only one man’s life that you seek. * Then you will be at peace with all the people.” <sup>4</sup>This plan seemed good to Absalom and to all the elders of Israel.

Hushai Counters Ahithophel’s Advice

<sup>5</sup>But then Absalom said, “Bring in Hushai the Arkite. Let’s see what he thinks about this.” <sup>6</sup>When Hushai arrived, Absalom told him what Ahithophel had said. Then he asked, “What is your opinion? Should we follow Ahithophel’s advice? If not, what do you suggest?”

<sup>7</sup>“Well,” Hushai replied to Absalom, “this time Ahithophel has made a mistake. <sup>8</sup>You know your father and his men; they are mighty warriors. Right now they are as enraged as a mother bear who has been robbed of her cubs. And remember that your father is an experienced man of war. He won’t be spending the night among the troops. <sup>9</sup>He has probably already hidden in some pit or cave. And when he comes out and attacks and a few of your men fall, there will be panic among your troops, and the word will spread that Absalom’s men are being slaughtered. <sup>10</sup>Then even the bravest soldiers, though they have the heart of a lion, will be paralyzed with fear. For all Israel knows what a mighty warrior your father is and how courageous his men are.

<sup>11</sup>“I recommend that you mobilize the entire army of Israel, bringing them from as far away as Dan in the north and Beersheba in the south. That way you will have an army as numerous as the sand on the seashore. And I advise that you personally lead the troops. <sup>12</sup>When we find David, we’ll fall on him like dew that falls on the ground. Then neither he nor any of his men will be left alive. <sup>13</sup>And if David were to escape into some town, you will have all Israel there at your command. Then we can take ropes and drag the walls of the town into the nearest valley until every stone is torn down.”

<sup>14</sup> Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, “Hushai’s advice is better than Ahithophel’s.” For the LORD had determined to defeat the counsel of Ahithophel, which really was the better plan, so that he could bring disaster on Absalom!

Hushai Warns David to Escape

<sup>15</sup>Hushai told Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, what Ahithophel had said to Absalom and the elders of Israel and what he himself had advised instead. <sup>16</sup>“Quick!” he told them. “Find David and urge him not to stay at the shallows of the Jordan River* tonight. He must go across at once into the wilderness beyond. Otherwise he will die and his entire army with him.”

<sup>17</sup>Jonathan and Ahimaaz had been staying at En-rogel so as not to be seen entering and leaving the city. Arrangements had been made for a servant girl to bring them the message they were to take to King David.<sup>18</sup> But a boy spotted them at En-rogel, and he told Absalom about it. So they quickly escaped to Bahurim, where a man hid them down inside a well in his courtyard.<sup>19</sup> The man's wife put a cloth over the top of the well and scattered grain on it to dry in the sun; so no one suspected they were there.

<sup>20</sup>When Absalom's men arrived, they asked her, "Have you seen Ahimaaz and Jonathan?"

The woman replied, "They were here, but they crossed over the brook." Absalom's men looked for them without success and returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup>Then the two men crawled out of the well and hurried on to King David. "Quick!" they told him, "cross the Jordan tonight!" And they told him how Ahithophel had advised that he be captured and killed.<sup>22</sup> So David and all the people with him went across the Jordan River during the night, and they were all on the other bank before dawn.

<sup>23</sup>When Ahithophel realized that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey, went to his hometown, set his affairs in order, and hanged himself. He died there and was buried in the family tomb.

<sup>24</sup>David soon arrived at Mahanaim. By now, Absalom had mobilized the entire army of Israel and was leading his troops across the Jordan River.<sup>25</sup> Absalom had appointed Amasa as commander of his army, replacing Joab, who had been commander under David. (Amasa was Joab's cousin. His father was Jether,* an Ishmaelite.* His mother, Abigail daughter of Nahash, was the sister of Joab's mother, Zeruiah.) <sup>26</sup>Absalom and the Israelite army set up camp in the land of Gilead.

<sup>27</sup>When David arrived at Mahanaim, he was warmly greeted by Shobi son of Nahash, who came from Rabbah of the Ammonites, and by Makir son of Ammiel from Lo-debar, and by Barzillai of Gilead from Rogelim. <sup>28</sup>They brought sleeping mats, cooking pots, serving bowls, wheat and barley, flour and roasted grain, beans, lentils, <sup>29</sup>honey, butter, sheep, goats, and cheese for David and those who were with him. For they said, "You must all be very hungry and tired and thirsty after your long march through the wilderness."

2 Samuel 18

Absalom's Defeat and Death

<sup>1</sup>David now mustered the men who were with him and appointed generals and captains* to lead them. <sup>2</sup>He sent the troops out in three groups, placing one group under Joab, one under Joab's brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, and one under Ittai, the man from Gath. The king told his troops, "I am going out with you."

<sup>3</sup>But his men objected strongly. "You must not go," they urged. "If we have to turn and run—and even if half of us die—it will make no difference to Absalom's troops; they will be looking only for you. You are worth 10,000 of us,* and it is better that you stay here in the town and send help if we need it."

<sup>4</sup>"If you think that's the best plan, I'll do it," the king answered. So he stood alongside the gate of the town as all the troops marched out in groups of hundreds and of thousands.

<sup>5</sup>And the king gave this command to Joab, Abishai, and Ittai: "For my sake, deal gently with young Absalom." And all the troops heard the king give this order to his commanders.

<sup>6</sup>So the battle began in the forest of Ephraim, <sup>7</sup>and the Israelite troops were beaten back by David's men. There was a great slaughter that day, and 20,000 men laid down their lives. <sup>8</sup>The battle raged all across the countryside, and more men died because of the forest than were killed by the sword.

<sup>11</sup>"What?" Joab demanded. "You saw him there and didn't kill him? I would have rewarded you with ten pieces of silver* and a hero's belt!"

<sup>12</sup>"I would not kill the king's son for even a thousand pieces of silver.*" the man replied to Joab. "We all heard the king say to you and Abishai and Ittai, 'For my sake, please spare young Absalom.' <sup>13</sup>And if I had betrayed the king by killing his son—and the king would certainly find out who did it—you yourself would be the first to abandon me."

<sup>14</sup>"Enough of this nonsense," Joab said. Then he took three daggers and plunged them into Absalom's heart as he dangled, still alive, in the great tree. <sup>15</sup>Ten of Joab's young armor bearers then surrounded Absalom and killed him.

<sup>16</sup>Then Joab blew the ram's horn, and his men returned from chasing the army of Israel. <sup>17</sup>They threw Absalom's body into a deep pit in the forest and piled a great heap of stones over it. And all Israel fled to their homes.

<sup>18</sup>During his lifetime, Absalom had built a monument to himself in the King's Valley, for he said, "I have no son to carry on my name." He named the monument after himself, and it is known as Absalom's Monument to this day.

David Mourns Absalom's Death

<sup>19</sup>Then Zadok's son Ahimaaz said, "Let me run to the king with the good news that the LORD has rescued him from his enemies."

<sup>20</sup>"No," Joab told him, "it wouldn't be good news to the king that his son is dead. You can be my messenger another time, but not today."

"Why should you go, my son?" Joab replied. "There will be no reward for your news."

<sup>23</sup>"Yes, but let me go anyway," he begged.

Joab finally said, "All right, go ahead." So Ahimaaz took the less demanding route by way of the plain and ran to Mahanaim ahead of the Ethiopian.

<sup>24</sup>While David was sitting between the inner and outer gates of the town, the watchman climbed to the roof of the gateway by the wall. As he looked, he saw a lone man running toward them. <sup>25</sup>He shouted the news down to David, and the king replied, "If he is alone, he has news."

As the messenger came closer, <sup>26</sup>the watchman saw another man running toward them. He shouted down, "Here comes another one!"

The king replied, "He also will have news."

<sup>27</sup>"The first man runs like Ahimaaz son of Zadok," the watchman said.

“He is a good man and comes with good news,” the king replied.

<sup>28</sup>Then Ahimaaz cried out to the king, “Everything is all right!” He bowed before the king with his face to the ground and said, “Praise to the LORD your God, who has handed over the rebels who dared to stand against my lord the king.”

Ahimaaz replied, “When Joab told me to come, there was a lot of commotion. But I didn’t know what was happening.”

<sup>31</sup>Then the man from Ethiopia arrived and said, “I have good news for my lord the king. Today the LORD has rescued you from all those who rebelled against you.”

And the Ethiopian replied, “May all of your enemies, my lord the king, both now and in the future, share the fate of that young man!”

<sup>33</sup>*The king was overcome with emotion. He went up to the room over the gateway and burst into tears. And as he went, he cried, “O my son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! If only I had died instead of you! O Absalom, my son, my son.”

2 Samuel 19

Joab Rebukes the King

<sup>1</sup>*Word soon reached Joab that the king was weeping and mourning for Absalom. <sup>2</sup>As all the people heard of the king's deep grief for his son, the joy of that day's victory was turned into deep sadness. <sup>3</sup>They crept back into the town that day as though they were ashamed and had deserted in battle. <sup>4</sup>The king covered his face with his hands and kept on crying, "O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!"

<sup>5</sup> Then Joab went to the king's room and said to him, "We saved your life today and the lives of your sons, your daughters, and your wives and concubines. Yet you act like this, making us feel ashamed of ourselves. <sup>6</sup>You seem to love those who hate you and hate those who love you. You have made it clear today that your commanders and troops mean nothing to you. It seems that if Absalom had lived and all of us had died, you would be pleased. <sup>7</sup>Now go out there and congratulate your troops, for I swear by the LORD that if you don't go out, not a single one of them will remain here tonight. Then you will be worse off than ever before."

<sup>8</sup>So the king went out and took his seat at the town gate, and as the news spread throughout the town that he was there, everyone went to him.

Meanwhile, the Israelites who had supported Absalom fled to their homes. <sup>9</sup>And throughout all the tribes of Israel there was much discussion and argument going on. The people were saying, “The king rescued us from our enemies and saved us from the Philistines, but Absalom chased him out of the country. <sup>10</sup>Now Absalom, whom we anointed to rule over us, is dead. Why not ask David to come back and be our king again?”

<sup>11</sup>Then King David sent Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, to say to the elders of Judah, “Why are you the last ones to welcome back the king into his palace? For I have heard that all Israel is ready. <sup>12</sup>You are my relatives, my own tribe, my own flesh and blood! So why are you the last ones to welcome back the king?” <sup>13</sup>And David told them to tell Amasa, “Since you are my own flesh and blood, like Joab, may God strike me and even kill me if I do not appoint you as commander of my army in his place.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Amasa* convinced all the men of Judah, and they responded unanimously. They sent word to the king, “Return to us, and bring back all who are with you.”

David's Return to Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup>So the king started back to Jerusalem. And when he arrived at the Jordan River, the people of Judah came to Gilgal to meet him and escort him across the river. <sup>16</sup>Shimei son of Gera, the man from Bahurim in Benjamin, hurried across with the men of Judah to welcome King David. <sup>17</sup>A thousand other men from the tribe of Benjamin were with him, including Ziba, the chief servant of the house of Saul, and Ziba's fifteen sons and twenty servants. They rushed down to the Jordan to meet the king. <sup>18</sup> They crossed the shallows of the Jordan to bring the king's household across the river, helping him in every way they could.

David's Mercy to Shimei

As the king was about to cross the river, Shimei fell down before him. <sup>19</sup>“My lord the king, please forgive me,” he pleaded. “Forget the terrible thing your servant did when you left Jerusalem. May the king put it out of his mind. <sup>20</sup>I know how much I sinned. That is why I have come here today, the very first person in all Israel* to greet my lord the king.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Abishai son of Zeruiah said, “Shimei should die, for he cursed the LORD's anointed king!”

<sup>22</sup>“Who asked your opinion, you sons of Zeruiah!” David exclaimed. “Why have you become my adversary* today? This is not a day for execution but for celebration! Today I am once again the king of Israel!” <sup>23</sup>Then, turning to Shimei, David vowed, “Your life will be spared.”

David's Kindness to Mephibosheth

<sup>26</sup>Mephibosheth replied, “My lord the king, my servant Ziba deceived me. I told him, ‘Saddle my donkey* so I can go with the king.’ For as you know I am crippled. <sup>27</sup>Ziba has slandered me by saying that I refused to come. But I know that my lord the king is like an angel of God, so do what you think is best.

<sup>28</sup>All my relatives and I could expect only death from you, my lord, but instead you have honored me by allowing me to eat at your own table! What more can I ask?"

<sup>29</sup>"You've said enough," David replied. "I've decided that you and Ziba will divide your land equally between you."

<sup>30</sup>"Give him all of it," Mephibosheth said. "I am content just to have you safely back again, my lord the king!"

David's Kindness to Barzillai

<sup>31</sup>Barzillai of Gilead had come down from Rogelim to escort the king across the Jordan. <sup>32</sup>He was very old, about eighty, and very wealthy. He was the one who had provided food for the king during his stay in Mahanaim. <sup>33</sup>"Come across with me and live in Jerusalem," the king said to Barzillai. "I will take care of you there."

<sup>34</sup>"No," he replied, "I am far too old to go with the king to Jerusalem. <sup>35</sup>I am eighty years old today, and I can no longer enjoy anything. Food and wine are no longer tasty, and I cannot hear the singers as they sing. I would only be a burden to my lord the king. <sup>36</sup>Just to go across the Jordan River with the king is all the honor I need! <sup>37</sup>Then let me return again to die in my own town, where my father and mother are buried. But here is your servant, my son Kimham. Let him go with my lord the king and receive whatever you want to give him."

<sup>38</sup>"Good," the king agreed. "Kimham will go with me, and I will help him in any way you would like. And I will do for you anything you want.”<sup>39</sup> So all the people crossed the Jordan with the king. After David had blessed Barzillai and kissed him, Barzillai returned to his own home.

<sup>40</sup>The king then crossed over to Gilgal, taking Kimham with him. All the troops of Judah and half the troops of Israel escorted the king on his way.

An Argument over the King

<sup>41</sup>But all the men of Israel complained to the king, “The men of Judah stole the king and didn’t give us the honor of helping take you, your household, and all your men across the Jordan.”

<sup>42</sup>The men of Judah replied, “The king is one of our own kinsmen. Why should this make you angry? We haven’t eaten any of the king’s food or received any special favors!”

<sup>43</sup>“But there are ten tribes in Israel,” the others replied. “So we have ten times as much right to the king as you do. What right do you have to treat us with such contempt? Weren’t we the first to speak of bringing him back to be our king again?” The argument continued back and forth, and the men of Judah spoke even more harshly than the men of Israel.

2 Samuel 20

The Revolt of Sheba

<sup>1</sup>There happened to be a troublemaker there named Sheba son of Bicri, a man from the tribe of Benjamin. Sheba blew a ram's horn and began to chant:

“Down with the dynasty of David!
We have no interest in the son of Jesse.
Come on, you men of Israel, back to your homes!”

<sup>2</sup>So all the men of Israel deserted David and followed Sheba son of Bicri. But the men of Judah stayed with their king and escorted him from the Jordan River to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>When David came to his palace in Jerusalem, he took the ten concubines he had left to look after the palace and placed them in seclusion. Their needs were provided for, but he no longer slept with them. So each of them lived like a widow until she died.

<sup>4</sup>Then the king told Amasa, “Mobilize the army of Judah within three days, and report back at that time.” <sup>5</sup>So Amasa went out to notify Judah, but it took him longer than the time he had been given.

<sup>6</sup>Then David said to Abishai, “Sheba son of Bicri is going to hurt us more than Absalom did. Quick, take my troops and chase after him before he gets into a fortified town where we can't reach him."

<sup>9</sup>"How are you, my cousin?" Joab said and took him by the beard with his right hand as though to kiss him. <sup>10</sup>Amasa didn't notice the dagger in his left hand, and Joab stabbed him in the stomach with it so that his insides gushed out onto the ground. Joab did not need to strike again, and Amasa soon died. Joab and his brother Abishai left him lying there and continued after Sheba.

<sup>11</sup>One of Joab's young men shouted to Amasa's troops, "If you are for Joab and David, come and follow Joab." <sup>12</sup>But Amasa lay in his blood in the middle of the road, and Joab's man saw that everyone was stopping to stare at him. So he pulled him off the road into a field and threw a cloak over him. <sup>13</sup>With Amasa's body out of the way, everyone went on with Joab to capture Sheba son of Bicri.

to me, Joab. Come over here so I can talk to you.” <sup>17</sup>As he approached, the woman asked, “Are you Joab?”

“I am,” he replied.

So she said, “Listen carefully to your servant.”

“I’m listening,” he said.

<sup>18</sup>Then she continued, “There used to be a saying, ‘If you want to settle an argument, ask advice at the town of Abel.’ <sup>19</sup>I am one who is peace loving and faithful in Israel. But you are destroying an important town in Israel.* Why do you want to devour what belongs to the LORD?”

<sup>20</sup>And Joab replied, “Believe me, I don’t want to devour or destroy your town! <sup>21</sup>That’s not my purpose. All I want is a man named Sheba son of Bicri from the hill country of Ephraim, who has revolted against King David. If you hand over this one man to me, I will leave the town in peace.”

“All right,” the woman replied, “we will throw his head over the wall to you.” <sup>22</sup>Then the woman went to all the people with her wise advice, and they cut off Sheba’s head and threw it out to Joab. So he blew the ram’s horn and called his troops back from the attack. They all returned to their homes, and Joab returned to the king at Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup>Now Joab was the commander of the army of Israel. Benaiah son of Jehoiada was captain of the king’s bodyguard.

<sup>24</sup>Adoniram* was in charge of the labor force. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the royal historian. <sup>25</sup>Sheva was the court secretary. Zadok and Abiathar were the priests. <sup>26</sup>And Ira, a descendant of Jair, was David’s personal priest.

2 Samuel 21

David Avenges the Gibeonites

<sup>1</sup> There was a famine during David's reign that lasted for three years, so David asked the LORD about it. And the LORD said, "The famine has come because Saul and his family are guilty of murdering the Gibeonites."

<sup>2</sup> So the king summoned the Gibeonites. They were not part of Israel but were all that was left of the nation of the Amorites. The people of Israel had sworn not to kill them, but Saul, in his zeal for Israel and Judah, had tried to wipe them out. <sup>3</sup> David asked them, "What can I do for you? How can I make amends so that you will bless the LORD's people again?"

<sup>4</sup> "Well, money can't settle this matter between us and the family of Saul," the Gibeonites replied. "Neither can we demand the life of anyone in Israel."

"What can I do then?" David asked. "Just tell me and I will do it for you."

<sup>5</sup> Then they replied, "It was Saul who planned to destroy us, to keep us from having any place at all in the territory of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> So let seven of Saul's sons be handed over to us, and we will execute them before the LORD at Gibeon, on the mountain of the LORD. *"

"All right," the king said, "I will do it." <sup>7</sup> The king spared Jonathan's son Mephibosheth, * who was Saul's grandson, because of the oath David and Jonathan had sworn before the LORD. <sup>8</sup>But he gave them Saul's two sons Armoni and Mephibosheth, whose mother was Rizpah daughter of Aiah. He also gave them the five sons of Saul's daughter Merab, * the wife of Adriel son of Barzillai from Meholah. <sup>9</sup>The men of Gibeon executed them on the mountain before the LORD. So all seven of them died together at the beginning of the barley harvest.

<sup>10</sup>Then Rizpah daughter of Aiah, the mother of two of the men, spread burlap on a rock and stayed there the entire harvest season. She prevented the scavenger birds from tearing at their bodies during the day and stopped wild animals from eating them at night. <sup>11</sup>When David learned what Rizpah, Saul's concubine, had done, <sup>12</sup>he went to the people of Jabesh-gilead and retrieved the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan. (When the Philistines had killed Saul and Jonathan on Mount Gilboa, the people of Jabesh-gilead stole their bodies from the public square of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hung them.) <sup>13</sup>So David obtained the bones of Saul and Jonathan, as well as the bones of the men the Gibeonites had executed.

<sup>14</sup>Then the king ordered that they bury the bones in the tomb of Kish, Saul's father, at the town of Zela in the land of Benjamin. After that, God ended the famine in the land.

Battles against Philistine Giants

<sup>15</sup>Once again the Philistines were at war with Israel. And when David and his men were in the thick of battle, David became weak and exhausted. <sup>16</sup> Ishbi-benob was a descendant of the giants *; his bronze spearhead weighed more than seven pounds,* and he was armed with a new sword. He had cornered David and was about to kill him. <sup>17</sup>But Abishai son of Zeruiah came to David's rescue and killed the Philistine. Then David's men declared, "You are not going out to battle with us again! Why risk snuffing out the light of Israel?"

<sup>18</sup>After this, there was another battle against the Philistines at Gob. As they fought, Sibbecai from Hushah killed Saph, another descendant of the giants.

<sup>19</sup>During another battle at Gob, Elhanan son of Jair* from Bethlehem killed the brother of Goliath of Gath.* The handle of his spear was as thick as a weaver's beam!

<sup>22</sup>These four Philistines were descendants of the giants of Gath, but David and his warriors killed them.

2 Samuel 22

David's Song of Praise

<sup>1</sup>David sang this song to the LORD on the day the LORD rescued him from all his enemies and from Saul. <sup>2</sup>He sang:

“The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my savior;

<sup>3</sup>my God is my rock, in whom I find protection.

He is my shield, the power that saves me, and my place of safety.

He is my refuge, my savior,
the one who saves me from violence.

<sup>4</sup>I called on the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and he saved me from my enemies.

<sup>5</sup>“The waves of death overwhelmed me;
floods of destruction swept over me.

<sup>6</sup>The grave* wrapped its ropes around me;
death laid a trap in my path.

<sup>7</sup>But in my distress I cried out to the LORD;
yes, I cried to my God for help.

He heard me from his sanctuary;
my cry reached his ears.

<sup>8</sup>“Then the earth quaked and trembled.
The foundations of the heavens shook;

they quaked because of his anger.

<sup>9</sup>Smoke poured from his nostrils;
fierce flames leaped from his mouth.
Glowing coals blazed forth from him.

<sup>10</sup>He opened the heavens and came down;
dark storm clouds were beneath his feet.

<sup>11</sup>Mounted on a mighty angelic being, he flew, soaring on the wings of the wind.

<sup>12</sup>He shrouded himself in darkness, veiling his approach with dense rain clouds.

<sup>13</sup>A great brightness shone around him, and burning coals blazed forth.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD thundered from heaven;
the voice of the Most High resounded.

<sup>15</sup>He shot arrows and scattered his enemies;
his lightning flashed, and they were confused.

<sup>16</sup>Then at the command of the LORD,
at the blast of his breath,
the bottom of the sea could be seen,
and the foundations of the earth were laid bare.

17 “He reached down from heaven and rescued me;
he drew me out of deep waters.

<sup>18</sup>He rescued me from my powerful enemies, from those who hated me and were too strong for me.

<sup>19</sup>They attacked me at a moment when I was in distress, but the LORD supported me.

<sup>20</sup>He led me to a place of safety;

he rescued me because he delights in me.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD rewarded me for doing right;
he restored me because of my innocence.

<sup>22</sup>For I have kept the ways of the LORD;
I have not turned from my God to follow evil.

<sup>23</sup>I have followed all his regulations;
I have never abandoned his decrees.

<sup>24</sup>I am blameless before God;
I have kept myself from sin.

<sup>25</sup>The LORD rewarded me for doing right.
He has seen my innocence.

<sup>26</sup>“To the faithful you show yourself faithful;
to those with integrity you show integrity.

<sup>27</sup>To the pure you show yourself pure, but to the wicked you show yourself hostile.

<sup>28</sup>You rescue the humble, but your eyes watch the proud and humiliate them.

<sup>29</sup>O LORD, you are my lamp.
The LORD lights up my darkness.

<sup>30</sup>In your strength I can crush an army;
with my God I can scale any wall.

<sup>31</sup>“God’s way is perfect.
All the LORD’s promises prove true.
He is a shield for all who look to him for protection.

<sup>32</sup>For who is God except the LORD?
Who but our God is a solid rock?

<sup>33</sup>God is my strong fortress, and he makes my way perfect.

<sup>34</sup>He makes me as surefooted as a deer, enabling me to stand on mountain heights.

<sup>35</sup>He trains my hands for battle;
he strengthens my arm to draw a bronze bow.

<sup>36</sup>You have given me your shield of victory;
your help* has made me great.

<sup>37</sup>You have made a wide path for my feet to keep them from slipping.

<sup>38</sup>“I chased my enemies and destroyed them;
I did not stop until they were conquered.

<sup>39</sup>I consumed them;
I struck them down so they did not get up;
they fell beneath my feet.

<sup>40</sup>You have armed me with strength for the battle;
you have subdued my enemies under my feet.

<sup>41</sup>You placed my foot on their necks.
I have destroyed all who hated me.

<sup>42</sup>They looked for help, but no one came to their rescue.
They even cried to the LORD, but he refused to answer.

<sup>43</sup>I ground them as fine as the dust of the earth;
I trampled them* in the gutter like dirt.

<sup>44</sup>“You gave me victory over my accusers.
You preserved me as the ruler over nations;
people I don’t even know now serve me.

<sup>45</sup>Foreign nations cringe before me;
as soon as they hear of me, they submit.

<sup>46</sup>They all lose their courage and come trembling* from their strongholds.

<sup>47</sup>“The LORD lives! Praise to my Rock!
May God, the Rock of my salvation, be exalted!

<sup>48</sup>He is the God who pays back those who harm me;
he brings down the nations under me

<sup>49</sup>and delivers me from my enemies.

You hold me safe beyond the reach of my enemies;
you save me from violent opponents.

<sup>50</sup>For this, O LORD, I will praise you among the nations;
I will sing praises to your name.

<sup>51</sup>You give great victories to your king;
you show unfailing love to your anointed, to David and all his descendants forever.”

2 Samuel 23

David's Last Words

<sup>1</sup>These are the last words of David:

“David, the son of Jesse, speaks—
David, the man who was raised up so high,
David, the man anointed by the God of Jacob,
David, the sweet psalmist of Israel.*

<sup>2</sup>“The Spirit of the LORD speaks through me;
his words are upon my tongue.

<sup>3</sup>The God of Israel spoke.

The Rock of Israel said to me:

‘The one who rules righteously, who rules in the fear of God,

<sup>4</sup>is like the light of morning at sunrise, like a morning without clouds, like the gleaming of the sun
on new grass after rain.’

<sup>5</sup>“Is it not my family God has chosen?

Yes, he has made an everlasting covenant with me.

His agreement is arranged and guaranteed in every detail.

He will ensure my safety and success.

<sup>6</sup>But the godless are like thorns to be thrown away, for they tear the hand that touches them.

<sup>7</sup>One must use iron tools to chop them down;
they will be totally consumed by fire.”

David's Mightiest Warriors

<sup>8</sup>These are the names of David's mightiest warriors. The first was Jashobeam the Hacmonite,* who was leader of the Three*—the three mightiest warriors among David's men. He once used his spear to kill 800 enemy warriors in a single battle.*

<sup>9</sup>Next in rank among the Three was Eleazar son of Dodai, a descendant of Ahoah. Once Eleazar and David stood together against the Philistines when the entire Israelite army had fled. <sup>10</sup>He killed Philistines until his hand was too tired to lift his sword, and the LORD gave him a great victory that day. The rest of the army did not return until it was time to collect the plunder!

<sup>11</sup>Next in rank was Shammah son of Agee from Harar. One time the Philistines gathered at Lehi and attacked the Israelites in a field full of lentils. The Israelite army fled, <sup>12</sup>but Shammah* held his ground in the middle of the field and beat back the Philistines. So the LORD brought about a great victory.

<sup>13</sup>Once during the harvest, when David was at the cave of Adullam, the Philistine army was camped in the valley of Rephaim. The Three (who were among the Thirty—an elite group among David's fighting men) went down to meet him there. <sup>14</sup>David was staying in the stronghold at the time, and a Philistine detachment had occupied the town of Bethlehem.

love some of that good water from the well by the gate in Bethlehem.” <sup>16</sup>So the Three broke through the Philistine lines, drew some water from the well by the gate in Bethlehem, and brought it back to David. But he refused to drink it. Instead, he poured it out as an offering to the LORD. <sup>17</sup>“The LORD forbid that I should drink this!” he exclaimed. “This water is as precious as the blood of these men* who risked their lives to bring it to me.” So David did not drink it. These are examples of the exploits of the Three.

David's Thirty Mighty Men

<sup>18</sup>Abishai son of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab, was the leader of the Thirty.* He once used his spear to kill 300 enemy warriors in a single battle. It was by such feats that he became as famous as the Three. <sup>19</sup>Abishai was the most famous of the Thirty* and was their commander, though he was not one of the Three.

<sup>20</sup>There was also Benaiah son of Jehoiada, a valiant warrior* from Kabzeel. He did many heroic deeds, which included killing two champions* of Moab. Another time, on a snowy day, he chased a lion down into a pit and killed it. <sup>21</sup>Once, armed only with a club, he killed a great Egyptian warrior who was armed with a spear. Benaiah wrenched the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with it. <sup>22</sup>Deeds like these made Benaiah as famous as the Three mightiest warriors. <sup>23</sup>He was more honored than the other members of the Thirty, though he was not one of the Three. And David made him captain of his bodyguard.

Asahel, Joab's brother;
Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem;
<sup>25</sup>Shammah from Harod;
Elika from Harod;
<sup>26</sup>Helez from Pelon*;
Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa;
<sup>27</sup>Abiezer from Anathoth;
Sibbecai* from Hushah;
<sup>28</sup>Zalmon from Ahoah;
Maharai from Netophah;
<sup>29</sup>Heled* son of Baanah from Netophah;
Ithai* son of Ribai from Gibeah (in the land of Benjamin);
<sup>30</sup>Benaiah from Pirathon;
Hurai* from Nahale-gaash*;
<sup>31</sup>Abi-albon from Arabah;
Azmaveth from Bahurim;
<sup>32</sup>Eliabba from Shaalbon;
the sons of Jashen;
Jonathan <sup>33</sup>son of Shagee* from Harar;
Ahiam son of Sharar from Harar;
<sup>34</sup>Eliphelet son of Ahasbai from Maacah;
Eliam son of Ahithophel from Giloh;
<sup>35</sup>Hezro from Carmel;
Paarai from Arba;
<sup>36</sup>Igal son of Nathan from Zobah;
Bani from Gad;
<sup>37</sup>Zelek from Ammon;

Naharai from Beeroth, Joab's armor bearer;

<sup>38</sup>Ira from Jattir;

Gareb from Jattir;

<sup>39</sup>Uriah the Hittite.

There were thirty-seven in all.

2 Samuel 24

David Takes a Census

<sup>1</sup>Once again the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and he caused David to harm them by taking a census. “Go and count the people of Israel and Judah,” the LORD told him.

<sup>2</sup>So the king said to Joab and the commanders* of the army, “Take a census of all the tribes of Israel—from Dan in the north to Beersheba in the south—so I may know how many people there are.”

<sup>3</sup>But Joab replied to the king, “May the LORD your God let you live to see a hundred times as many people as there are now! But why, my lord the king, do you want to do this?”

<sup>4</sup>But the king insisted that they take the census, so Joab and the commanders of the army went out to count the people of Israel. <sup>5</sup>First they crossed the Jordan and camped at Aroer, south of the town in the valley, in the direction of Gad. Then they went on to Jazer, <sup>6</sup>then to Gilead in the land of Tahtimhodshi* and to Dan-jaan and around to Sidon. <sup>7</sup>Then they came to the fortress of Tyre, and all the towns of the Hivites and Canaanites. Finally, they went south to Judah* as far as Beersheba.

<sup>8</sup>Having gone through the entire land for nine months and twenty days, they returned to Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Joab reported the number of people to the king. There were 800,000 capable warriors in Israel who could handle a sword, and 500,000 in Judah.

Judgment for David's Sin

<sup>10</sup> But after he had taken the census, David's conscience began to bother him. And he said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly by taking this census. Please forgive my guilt, LORD, for doing this foolish thing."

<sup>11</sup> The next morning the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, who was David's seer. This was the message: <sup>12</sup>"Go and say to David, 'This is what the LORD says: I will give you three choices. Choose one of these punishments, and I will inflict it on you.'"

<sup>13</sup> So Gad came to David and asked him, "Will you choose three* years of famine throughout your land, three months of fleeing from your enemies, or three days of severe plague throughout your land? Think this over and decide what answer I should give the LORD who sent me."

<sup>14</sup> "I'm in a desperate situation!" David replied to Gad. "But let us fall into the hands of the LORD, for his mercy is great. Do not let me fall into human hands."

<sup>15</sup> So the LORD sent a plague upon Israel that morning, and it lasted for three days.* A total of 70,000 people died throughout the nation, from Dan in the north to Beersheba in the south. <sup>16</sup> But as the angel was preparing to destroy Jerusalem, the LORD relented and said to the death angel, "Stop! That is enough!" At that moment the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

<sup>17</sup> When David saw the angel, he said to the LORD, "I am the one who has sinned and done wrong! But these people are as innocent as sheep—what have they done? Let your anger fall against me and my family.”

David Builds an Altar

<sup>18</sup>That day Gad came to David and said to him, “Go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.”

<sup>19</sup>So David went up to do what the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>20</sup>When Araunah saw the king and his men coming toward him, he came and bowed before the king with his face to the ground.

<sup>21</sup>“Why have you come, my lord the king?” Araunah asked.

David replied, “I have come to buy your threshing floor and to build an altar to the LORD there, so that he will stop the plague.”

<sup>22</sup>“Take it, my lord the king, and use it as you wish,” Araunah said to David. “Here are oxen for the burnt offering, and you can use the threshing boards and oxyokes for wood to build a fire on the altar. <sup>23</sup>I will give it all to you, Your Majesty, and may the LORD your God accept your sacrifice.”

<sup>24</sup>But the king replied to Araunah, “No, I insist on buying it, for I will not present burnt offerings to the LORD my God that have cost me nothing.” So David paid him fifty pieces of silver* for the threshing floor and the oxen.

<sup>25</sup>David built an altar there to the LORD and sacrificed burnt offerings and peace offerings. And the LORD answered his prayer for the land, and the plague on Israel was stopped.

David in His Old Age

<sup>1</sup>King David was now very old, and no matter how many blankets covered him, he could not keep warm. <sup>2</sup>So his advisers told him, “Let us find a young virgin to wait on you and look after you, my lord. She will lie in your arms and keep you warm.”

<sup>3</sup>So they searched throughout the land of Israel for a beautiful girl, and they found Abishag from Shunem and brought her to the king. <sup>4</sup>The girl was very beautiful, and she looked after the king and took care of him. But the king had no sexual relations with her.

Adonijah Claims the Throne

<sup>5</sup>About that time David’s son Adonijah, whose mother was Haggith, began boasting, “I will make myself king.” So he provided himself with chariots and charioteers and recruited fifty men to run in front of him. <sup>6</sup>Now his father, King David, had never disciplined him at any time, even by asking, “Why are you doing that?” Adonijah had been born next after Absalom, and he was very handsome.

<sup>7</sup>Adonijah took Joab son of Zeruiah and Abiathar the priest into his confidence, and they agreed to help him become king.

<sup>8</sup>But Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and David’s personal bodyguard refused to support Adonijah.

<sup>9</sup>Adonijah went to the Stone of Zoheleth* near the spring of En-rogel, where he sacrificed sheep, cattle, and fattened calves. He invited all his brothers—the other sons of King David—and all the royal officials of Judah. <sup>10</sup>But he did not invite Nathan the prophet or Benaiah or the king’s bodyguard or his brother Solomon.

<sup>11</sup>Then Nathan went to Bathsheba, Solomon’s mother, and asked her, “Haven’t you heard that Haggith’s son, Adonijah, has made himself king, and our lord David doesn’t even know about it? <sup>12</sup>If you want to save your own life and the life of your son Solomon, follow my advice. <sup>13</sup>Go at once to King David and say to him, ‘My lord the king, didn’t you make a vow and say to me, “Your son Solomon will surely be the next king and will sit on my throne”? Why then has Adonijah become king?’ <sup>14</sup>And while you are still talking with him, I will come and confirm everything you have said.”

<sup>15</sup>So Bathsheba went into the king’s bedroom. (He was very old now, and Abishag was taking care of him.) <sup>16</sup>Bathsheba bowed down before the king.

“What can I do for you?” he asked her.

<sup>17</sup>She replied, “My lord, you made a vow before the LORD your God when you said to me, ‘Your son Solomon will surely be the next king and will sit on my throne.’”<sup>18</sup>But instead, Adonijah has made himself king, and my lord the king does not even know about it. <sup>19</sup>He has sacrificed many cattle, fattened calves, and sheep, and he has invited all the king’s sons to attend the celebration. He also invited Abiathar the priest and Joab, the commander of the army. But he did not invite your servant Solomon. <sup>20</sup>And now, my lord the king, all Israel is waiting for you to announce who will become king after you. <sup>21</sup>If you do not act, my son Solomon and I will be treated as criminals as soon as my lord the king has died.”

<sup>22</sup>While she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet arrived. <sup>23</sup>The king’s officials told him, “Nathan the prophet is here to see you.”

Nathan went in and bowed before the king with his face to the ground. <sup>24</sup>Nathan asked, “My lord the king, have you decided that Adonijah will be the next king and that he will sit on your throne?” <sup>25</sup>Today he has sacrificed many cattle, fattened calves, and sheep, and he has invited all the king’s sons to attend the celebration. He also invited the commanders of the army and Abiathar the priest. They are feasting and drinking with him and shouting, ‘Long live King Adonijah!’ <sup>26</sup>But he did not invite me or Zadok the priest or Benaiah or your servant Solomon. <sup>27</sup>Has my lord the king really done this without letting any of his officials know who should be the next king?”

David Makes Solomon King

<sup>28</sup> King David responded, “Call Bathsheba!” So she came back in and stood before the king. <sup>29</sup>And the king repeated his vow: “As surely as the LORD lives, who has rescued me from every danger, <sup>30</sup>your son Solomon will be the next king and will sit on my throne this very day, just as I vowed to you before the LORD, the God of Israel.”

<sup>31</sup>Then Bathsheba bowed down with her face to the ground before the king and exclaimed, “May my lord King David live forever!”

<sup>32</sup>Then King David ordered, “Call Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada.” When they came into the king’s presence, <sup>33</sup>the king said to them, “Take Solomon and my officials down to Gihon Spring. Solomon is to ride on my own mule. <sup>34</sup>Then Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet are to anoint him king over Israel. Blow the ram’s horn and shout, ‘Long live King Solomon!’ <sup>35</sup>Then escort him back here, and he will sit on my throne. He will succeed me as king, for I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and Judah.”

<sup>36</sup>“Amen!” Benaiah son of Jehoiada replied. “May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, decree that it happen. <sup>37</sup>And may the LORD be with Solomon as he has been with you, my lord the king, and may he make Solomon’s reign even greater than yours!”

<sup>38</sup>So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and the king’s bodyguard* took Solomon down to Gihon Spring, with Solomon riding on King David's own mule.

<sup>39</sup>There Zadok the priest took the flask of olive oil from the sacred tent and anointed Solomon with the oil. Then they sounded the ram's horn and all the people shouted, "Long live King Solomon!" <sup>40</sup>And all the people followed Solomon into Jerusalem, playing flutes and shouting for joy. The celebration was so joyous and noisy that the earth shook with the sound.

<sup>41</sup>Adonijah and his guests heard the celebrating and shouting just as they were finishing their banquet. When Joab heard the sound of the ram's horn, he asked, "What's going on? Why is the city in such an uproar?"

<sup>42</sup>And while he was still speaking, Jonathan son of Abiathar the priest arrived. "Come in," Adonijah said to him, "for you are a good man. You must have good news."

<sup>43</sup>"Not at all!" Jonathan replied. "Our lord King David has just declared Solomon king!" <sup>44</sup>The king sent him down to Gihon Spring with Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, protected by the king's bodyguard. They had him ride on the king's own mule, <sup>45</sup>and Zadok and Nathan have anointed him at Gihon Spring as the new king. They have just returned, and the whole city is celebrating and rejoicing. That's what all the noise is about. <sup>46</sup>What's more, Solomon is now sitting on the royal throne as king. <sup>47</sup>And all the royal officials have gone to King David and congratulated him, saying, 'May your God make Solomon's fame even greater than your own, and may Solomon's reign be even greater than yours!' Then the king bowed his head in worship as he lay in his bed, <sup>48</sup>and he said, 'Praise the LORD, the God of Israel, who today has chosen a successor to sit on my throne while I am still alive to see it.””

<sup>49</sup>Then all of Adonijah’s guests jumped up in panic from the banquet table and quickly scattered. <sup>50</sup>Adonijah was afraid of Solomon, so he rushed to the sacred tent and grabbed on to the horns of the altar. <sup>51</sup>Word soon reached Solomon that Adonijah had seized the horns of the altar in fear, and that he was pleading, “Let King Solomon swear today that he will not kill me!”

<sup>52</sup>Solomon replied, “If he proves himself to be loyal, not a hair on his head will be touched. But if he makes trouble, he will die.” <sup>53</sup>So King Solomon summoned Adonijah, and they brought him down from the altar. He came and bowed respectfully before King Solomon, who dismissed him, saying, “Go on home.”

1 Kings 2

David's Final Instructions to Solomon

<sup>2</sup>“I am going where everyone on earth must someday go. Take courage and be a man. <sup>3</sup>Observe the requirements of the LORD your God, and follow all his ways. Keep the decrees, commands, regulations, and laws written in the Law of Moses so that you will be successful in all you do and wherever you go. <sup>4</sup>If you do this, then the LORD will keep the promise he made to me. He told me, ‘If your descendants live as they should and follow me faithfully with all their heart and soul, one of them will always sit on the throne of Israel.’

<sup>5</sup>“And there is something else. You know what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me when he murdered my two army commanders, Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. He pretended that it was an act of war, but it was done in a time of peace,* staining his belt and sandals with innocent blood.* <sup>6</sup>Do with him what you think best, but don't let him grow old and go to his grave in peace.*

<sup>7</sup>“Be kind to the sons of Barzillai of Gilead. Make them permanent guests at your table, for they took care of me when I fled from your brother Absalom.

<sup>8</sup>“And remember Shimei son of Gera, the man from Bahurim in Benjamin. He cursed me with a terrible curse as I was fleeing to Mahanaim. When he came down to meet me at the Jordan River, I swore by the LORD that I would not kill him.<sup>9</sup> But that oath does not make him innocent. You are a wise man, and you will know how to arrange a bloody death for him.*”

<sup>10</sup>Then David died and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. <sup>11</sup>David had reigned over Israel for forty years, seven of them in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup>Solomon became king and sat on the throne of David his father, and his kingdom was firmly established.

Solomon Establishes His Rule

<sup>13</sup>One day Adonijah, whose mother was Haggith, came to see Bathsheba, Solomon’s mother. “Have you come with peaceful intentions?” she asked him.

“Yes,” he said, “I come in peace. <sup>14</sup>In fact, I have a favor to ask of you.”

“What is it?” she asked.

<sup>15</sup>He replied, “As you know, the kingdom was rightfully mine; all Israel wanted me to be the next king. But the tables were turned, and the kingdom went to my brother instead; for that is the way the LORD wanted it. <sup>16</sup>So now I have just one favor to ask of you. Please don’t turn me down.”

“What is it?” she asked.

<sup>17</sup>He replied, “Speak to King Solomon on my behalf, for I know he will do anything you request. Ask him to let me marry Abishag, the girl from Shunem.”

<sup>18</sup>“All right,” Bathsheba replied. “I will speak to the king for you.”

<sup>19</sup>So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak on Adonijah's behalf. The king rose from his throne to meet her, and he bowed down before her. When he sat down on his throne again, the king ordered that a throne be brought for his mother, and she sat at his right hand.

<sup>20</sup>"I have one small request to make of you," she said. "I hope you won't turn me down."

"What is it, my mother?" he asked. "You know I won't refuse you."

<sup>21</sup>"Then let your brother Adonijah marry Abishag, the girl from Shunem," she replied.

<sup>22</sup>"How can you possibly ask me to give Abishag to Adonijah?" King Solomon demanded. "You might as well ask me to give him the kingdom! You know that he is my older brother, and that he has Abiathar the priest and Joab son of Zeruiah on his side."

<sup>23</sup>Then King Solomon made a vow before the LORD: "May God strike me and even kill me if Adonijah has not sealed his fate with this request. <sup>24</sup>The LORD has confirmed me and placed me on the throne of my father, David; he has established my dynasty as he promised. So as surely as the LORD lives, Adonijah will die this very day!" <sup>25</sup>So King Solomon ordered Benaiah son of Jehoiada to execute him, and Adonijah was put to death.

<sup>26</sup>Then the king said to Abiathar the priest, "Go back to your home in Anathoth. You deserve to die, but I will not kill you now, because you carried the Ark of the Sovereign LORD for David my father and you shared all his hardships." <sup>27</sup>So Solomon deposed Abiathar from his position as priest of the LORD, thereby fulfilling the prophecy the LORD had given at Shiloh concerning the descendants of Eli.

<sup>28</sup>Joab had not joined Absalom's earlier rebellion, but he had joined Adonijah's rebellion. So when Joab heard about Adonijah's death, he ran to the sacred tent of the LORD and grabbed on to the horns of the altar. <sup>29</sup>When this was reported to King Solomon, he sent Benaiah son of Jehoiada to execute him.

<sup>30</sup>Benaiah went to the sacred tent of the LORD and said to Joab, "The king orders you to come out!"

But Joab answered, "No, I will die here."

So Benaiah returned to the king and told him what Joab had said.

<sup>31</sup>"Do as he said," the king replied. "Kill him there beside the altar and bury him. This will remove the guilt of Joab's senseless murders from me and from my father's family. <sup>32</sup>The LORD will repay him* for the murders of two men who were more righteous and better than he. For my father knew nothing about the deaths of Abner son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and of Amasa son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah. <sup>33</sup>May their blood be on Joab and his descendants forever, and may the LORD grant peace forever to David, his descendants, his dynasty, and his throne."

<sup>34</sup>So Benaiah son of Jehoiada returned to the sacred tent and killed Joab, and he was buried at his home in the wilderness. <sup>35</sup>Then the king appointed Benaiah to command the army in place of Joab, and he installed Zadok the priest to take the place of Abiathar.

<sup>36</sup>The king then sent for Shimei and told him, “Build a house here in Jerusalem and live there. But don’t step outside the city to go anywhere else. <sup>37</sup>On the day you so much as cross the Kidron Valley, you will surely die; and your blood will be on your own head.”

<sup>38</sup>Shimei replied, “Your sentence is fair; I will do whatever my lord the king commands.” So Shimei lived in Jerusalem for a long time.

<sup>39</sup>But three years later two of Shimei’s slaves ran away to King Achish son of Maacah of Gath. When Shimei learned where they were, <sup>40</sup>he saddled his donkey and went to Gath to search for them. When he found them, he brought them back to Jerusalem.

<sup>41</sup>Solomon heard that Shimei had left Jerusalem and had gone to Gath and returned. <sup>42</sup>So the king sent for Shimei and demanded, “Didn’t I make you swear by the LORD and warn you not to go anywhere else or you would surely die? And you replied, ‘The sentence is fair; I will do as you say.’ <sup>43</sup>Then why haven’t you kept your oath to the LORD and obeyed my command?”

<sup>44</sup>The king also said to Shimei, “You certainly remember all the wicked things you did to my father, David. May the LORD now bring that evil on your own head. <sup>45</sup>But may I, King Solomon, receive the LORD’s blessings, and may one of David’s descendants always sit on this throne in the presence of the LORD.” <sup>46</sup>Then, at the king’s command, Benaiah son of Jehoiada took Shimei outside and killed him.

So the kingdom was now firmly in Solomon's grip.

1 Kings 3

Solomon Asks for Wisdom

<sup>1</sup>Solomon made an alliance with Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and married one of his daughters. He brought her to live in the City of David until he could finish building his palace and the Temple of the LORD and the wall around the city. <sup>2</sup>At that time the people of Israel sacrificed their offerings at local places of worship, for a temple honoring the name of the LORD had not yet been built.

<sup>6</sup>Solomon replied, “You showed faithful love to your servant my father, David, because he was honest and true and faithful to you. And you have continued your faithful love to him today by giving him a son to sit on his throne.

<sup>7</sup>“Now, O LORD my God, you have made me king instead of my father, David, but I am like a little child who doesn’t know his way around. <sup>8</sup>And here I am in the midst of your own chosen people, a nation so great and numerous they cannot be counted! <sup>9</sup>Give me an understanding heart so that I can govern your people well and know the difference between right and wrong. For who by himself is able to govern this great people of yours?”

<sup>10</sup>The Lord was pleased that Solomon had asked for wisdom. <sup>11</sup>So God replied, “Because you have asked for wisdom in governing my people with justice and have not asked for a long life or wealth or the death of your enemies—<sup>12</sup>I will give you what you asked for! I will give you a wise and understanding heart such as no one else has had or ever will have! <sup>13</sup>And I will also give you what you did not ask for—riches and fame! No other king in all the world will be compared to you for the rest of your life! <sup>14</sup>And if you follow me and obey my decrees and my commands as your father, David, did, I will give you a long life.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Solomon woke up and realized it had been a dream. He returned to Jerusalem and stood before the Ark of the Lord’s Covenant, where he sacrificed burnt offerings and peace offerings. Then he invited all his officials to a great banquet.

Solomon Judges Wisely

<sup>16</sup>Some time later two prostitutes came to the king to have an argument settled. <sup>17</sup>“Please, my lord,” one of them began, “this woman and I live in the same house. I gave birth to a baby while she was with me in the house. <sup>18</sup>Three days later this woman also had a baby. We were alone; there were only two of us in the house.

<sup>19</sup>“But her baby died during the night when she rolled over on it. <sup>20</sup>Then she got up in the night and took my son from beside me while I was asleep. She laid her dead child in my arms and took mine to sleep beside her. <sup>21</sup>And in the morning when I tried to nurse my son, he was dead! But when I looked more closely in the morning light, I saw that it wasn’t my son at all.”

<sup>22</sup>Then the other woman interrupted, “It certainly was your son, and the living child is mine.”

“No,” the first woman said, “the living child is mine, and the dead one is yours.” And so they argued back and forth before the king.

<sup>23</sup>Then the king said, “Let’s get the facts straight. Both of you claim the living child is yours, and each says that the dead one belongs to the other. <sup>24</sup>All right, bring me a sword.” So a sword was brought to the king.

<sup>25</sup>Then he said, “Cut the living child in two, and give half to one woman and half to the other!”

<sup>26</sup>Then the woman who was the real mother of the living child, and who loved him very much, cried out, “Oh no, my lord! Give her the child—please do not kill him!”

But the other woman said, “All right, he will be neither yours nor mine; divide him between us!”

<sup>27</sup>Then the king said, “Do not kill the child, but give him to the woman who wants him to live, for she is his mother!”

<sup>28</sup>When all Israel heard the king’s decision, the people were in awe of the king, for they saw the wisdom God had given him for rendering justice.

1 Kings 4

Solomon's Officials and Governors

<sup>1</sup>King Solomon now ruled over all Israel, <sup>2</sup>and these were his high officials:

Azariah son of Zadok was the priest.

<sup>3</sup>Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, were court secretaries.

Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the royal historian.

<sup>4</sup>Benaiah son of Jehoiada was commander of the army.

Zadok and Abiathar were priests.

<sup>5</sup>Azariah son of Nathan was in charge of the district governors.

Zabud son of Nathan, a priest, was a trusted adviser to the king.

<sup>6</sup>Ahishar was manager of the palace property.

Adoniram son of Abda was in charge of the labor force.

<sup>7</sup>Solomon also had twelve district governors who were over all Israel. They were responsible for providing food for the king's household. Each of them arranged provisions for one month of the year. <sup>8</sup>These are the names of the twelve governors:

Ben-hur, in the hill country of Ephraim.

<sup>12</sup>Baana son of Ahilud, in Taanach and Megiddo, all of Beth-shan* near Zarethan below Jezreel, and all the territory from Beth-shan to Abel-meholah and over to Jokmeam.

<sup>13</sup>Ben-geber, in Ramoth-gilead, including the Towns of Jair (named for Jair of the tribe of Manasseh*) in Gilead, and in the Argob region of Bashan, including sixty large fortified towns with bronze bars on their gates.

<sup>19</sup>Geber son of Uri, in the land of Gilead,* including the territories of King Sihon of the Amorites and King Og of Bashan.

There was also one governor over the land of Judah.*

Solomon's Prosperity and Wisdom

<sup>20</sup>The people of Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They were very contented, with plenty to eat and drink. <sup>21</sup>*Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates River* in the north to the land of the Philistines and the border of Egypt in the south. The conquered peoples of those lands sent tribute money to Solomon and continued to serve him throughout his lifetime.

<sup>22</sup>The daily food requirements for Solomon's palace were 150 bushels of choice flour and 300 bushels of meal*; <sup>23</sup>also 10 oxen from the fattening pens, 20 pasture-fed cattle, 100 sheep or goats, as well as deer, gazelles, roe deer, and choice poultry.*

<sup>24</sup>Solomon's dominion extended over all the kingdoms west of the Euphrates River, from Tiphseh to Gaza. And there was peace on all his borders. <sup>25</sup>During the lifetime of Solomon, all of Judah and Israel lived in peace and safety. And from Dan in the north to Beersheba in the south, each family had its own home and garden.*

<sup>26</sup>Solomon had 4,000* stalls for his chariot horses, and he had 12,000 horses.*

<sup>27</sup>The district governors faithfully provided food for King Solomon and his court; each made sure nothing was lacking during the month assigned to him. <sup>28</sup>They also brought the necessary barley and straw for the royal horses in the stables.

<sup>29</sup>God gave Solomon very great wisdom and understanding, and knowledge as vast as the sands of the seashore. <sup>30</sup>In fact, his wisdom exceeded that of all the wise men of the East and the wise men of Egypt. <sup>31</sup>He was wiser than anyone else, including Ethan the Ezrahite and the sons of Mahol—Heman, Calcol, and Darda. His fame spread throughout all the surrounding nations. <sup>32</sup>He composed some 3,000 proverbs and wrote 1,005 songs.<sup>33</sup>He could speak with authority about all kinds of plants, from the great cedar of Lebanon to the tiny hyssop that grows from cracks in a wall. He could also speak about animals, birds, small creatures, and fish.<sup>34</sup>And kings from every nation sent their ambassadors to listen to the wisdom of Solomon.

1 Kings 5

Preparations for Building the Temple

<sup>1</sup>*King Hiram of Tyre had always been a loyal friend of David. When Hiram learned that David's son Solomon was the new king of Israel, he sent ambassadors to congratulate him.

<sup>3</sup>"You know that my father, David, was not able to build a Temple to honor the name of the LORD his God because of the many wars waged against him by surrounding nations. He could not build until the LORD gave him victory over all his enemies. <sup>4</sup>But now the LORD my God has given me peace on every side; I have no enemies, and all is well. <sup>5</sup>So I am planning to build a Temple to honor the name of the LORD my God, just as he had instructed my father, David. For the LORD told him, 'Your son, whom I will place on your throne, will build the Temple to honor my name.'

<sup>6</sup>"Therefore, please command that cedars from Lebanon be cut for me. Let my men work alongside yours, and I will pay your men whatever wages you ask. As you know, there is no one among us who can cut timber like you Sidonians!"

<sup>7</sup>When Hiram received Solomon's message, he was very pleased and said, "Praise the LORD today for giving David a wise son to be king of the great nation of Israel.”<sup>8</sup> Then he sent this reply to Solomon:

“I have received your message, and I will supply all the cedar and cypress timber you need.<sup>9</sup> My servants will bring the logs from the Lebanon mountains to the Mediterranean Sea* and make them into rafts and float them along the coast to whatever place you choose. Then we will break the rafts apart so you can carry the logs away. You can pay me by supplying me with food for my household.”

<sup>10</sup> So Hiram supplied as much cedar and cypress timber as Solomon desired.<sup>11</sup> In return, Solomon sent him an annual payment of 100,000 bushels* of wheat for his household and 110,000 gallons* of pure olive oil.<sup>12</sup> So the LORD gave wisdom to Solomon, just as he had promised. And Hiram and Solomon made a formal alliance of peace.

<sup>13</sup> Then King Solomon conscripted a labor force of 30,000 men from all Israel.<sup>14</sup> He sent them to Lebanon in shifts, 10,000 every month, so that each man would be one month in Lebanon and two months at home. Adoniram was in charge of this labor force.<sup>15</sup> Solomon also had 70,000 common laborers, 80,000 quarry workers in the hill country,<sup>16</sup> and 3,600* foremen to supervise the work.<sup>17</sup> At the king’s command, they quarried large blocks of high-quality stone and shaped them to make the foundation of the Temple.<sup>18</sup> Men from the city of Gebal helped Solomon’s and Hiram’s builders prepare the timber and stone for the Temple.

1 Kings 6

Solomon Builds the Temple

<sup>1</sup>It was in midspring, in the month of Ziv,* during the fourth year of Solomon's reign, that he began to construct the Temple of the LORD. This was 480 years after the people of Israel were rescued from their slavery in the land of Egypt.

<sup>2</sup>The Temple that King Solomon built for the LORD was 90 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 45 feet high.* <sup>3</sup>The entry room at the front of the Temple was 30 feet* wide, running across the entire width of the Temple. It projected outward 15 feet* from the front of the Temple. <sup>4</sup>Solomon also made narrow recessed windows throughout the Temple.

<sup>5</sup>He built a complex of rooms against the outer walls of the Temple, all the way around the sides and rear of the building.

<sup>6</sup>The complex was three stories high, the bottom floor being 7½ feet wide, the second floor 9 feet wide, and the top floor 10½ feet wide.* The rooms were connected to the walls of the Temple by beams resting on ledges built out from the wall. So the beams were not inserted into the walls themselves.

<sup>7</sup>The stones used in the construction of the Temple were finished at the quarry, so there was no sound of hammer, ax, or any other iron tool at the building site.

<sup>8</sup>The entrance to the bottom floor* was on the south side of the Temple. There were winding stairs going up to the second floor, and another flight of stairs between the second and third floors.<sup>9</sup> After completing the Temple structure, Solomon put in a ceiling made of cedar beams and planks.<sup>10</sup> As already stated, he built a complex of rooms on three sides of the building, attached to the Temple walls by cedar timbers. Each story of the complex was 7½ feet* high.

<sup>12</sup>“Concerning this Temple you are building, if you keep all my decrees and regulations and obey all my commands, I will fulfill through you the promise I made to your father, David.<sup>13</sup> I will live among the Israelites and will never abandon my people Israel.”

The Temple's Interior

<sup>14</sup>So Solomon finished building the Temple.<sup>15</sup> The entire inside, from floor to ceiling, was paneled with wood. He paneled the walls and ceilings with cedar, and he used planks of cypress for the floors.<sup>16</sup> He partitioned off an inner sanctuary—the Most Holy Place—at the far end of the Temple. It was 30 feet deep and was paneled with cedar from floor to ceiling.<sup>17</sup> The main room of the Temple, outside the Most Holy Place, was 60 feet* long.<sup>18</sup> Cedar paneling completely covered the stone walls throughout the Temple, and the paneling was decorated with carvings of gourds and open flowers.

<sup>19</sup>He prepared the inner sanctuary at the far end of the Temple, where the Ark of the LORD's Covenant would be placed.<sup>20</sup> This inner sanctuary was 30 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 30 feet high. He overlaid the inside with solid gold. He also overlaid the altar made of cedar.*<sup>21</sup> Then Solomon overlaid the rest of the Temple's interior with solid gold, and he made gold chains to protect the entrance* to the Most Holy Place.<sup>22</sup> So he finished overlaying the entire Temple with gold, including the altar that belonged to the Most Holy Place.

<sup>23</sup>He made two cherubim of wild olive\* wood, each 15 feet\* tall, and placed them in the inner sanctuary.<sup>24</sup> The wingspan of each of the cherubim was 15 feet, each wing being  $7\frac{1}{2}$  feet\* long.<sup>25</sup> The two cherubim were identical in shape and size;<sup>26</sup> each was 15 feet tall.<sup>27</sup> He placed them side by side in the inner sanctuary of the Temple. Their outspread wings reached from wall to wall, while their inner wings touched at the center of the room.<sup>28</sup> He overlaid the two cherubim with gold.

<sup>29</sup>He decorated all the walls of the inner sanctuary and the main room with carvings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers.<sup>30</sup> He overlaid the floor in both rooms with gold.

<sup>31</sup>For the entrance to the inner sanctuary, he made double doors of wild olive wood with five-sided doorposts.*<sup>32</sup> These double doors were decorated with carvings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers. The doors, including the decorations of cherubim and palm trees, were overlaid with gold.

<sup>33</sup>Then he made four-sided doorposts of wild olive wood for the entrance to the Temple.<sup>34</sup> There were two folding doors of cypress wood, and each door was hinged to fold back upon itself.<sup>35</sup> These doors were decorated with carvings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers—all overlaid evenly with gold.

<sup>36</sup>The walls of the inner courtyard were built so that there was one layer of cedar beams between every three layers of finished stone.

<sup>37</sup>The foundation of the LORD's Temple was laid in midspring, in the month of Ziv,* during the fourth year of Solomon's reign. <sup>38</sup>The entire building was completed in every detail by midautumn, in the month of Bul,* during the eleventh year of his reign. So it took seven years to build the Temple.

1 Kings 7

Solomon Builds His Palace

<sup>1</sup>Solomon also built a palace for himself, and it took him thirteen years to complete the construction.

<sup>2</sup>One of Solomon's buildings was called the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon. It was 150 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high.* There were four rows of cedar pillars, and great cedar beams rested on the pillars. <sup>3</sup>The hall had a cedar roof. Above the beams on the pillars were forty-five side rooms,* arranged in three tiers of fifteen each. <sup>4</sup>On each end of the long hall were three rows of windows facing each other. <sup>5</sup>All the doorways and doorposts* had rectangular frames and were arranged in sets of three, facing each other.

<sup>6</sup>Solomon also built the Hall of Pillars, which was 75 feet long and 45 feet wide.* There was a porch in front, along with a canopy supported by pillars.

<sup>7</sup>Solomon also built the throne room, known as the Hall of Justice, where he sat to hear legal matters. It was paneled with cedar from floor to ceiling.* <sup>8</sup>Solomon's living quarters surrounded a courtyard behind this hall, and they were constructed the same way. He also built similar living quarters for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had married.

<sup>9</sup>From foundation to eaves, all these buildings were built from huge blocks of high-quality stone, cut with saws and trimmed to exact measure on all sides. <sup>10</sup>Some of the huge foundation stones were 15 feet long, and some were 12 feet* long.<sup>11</sup>The blocks of high-quality stone used in the walls were also cut to measure, and cedar beams were also used.<sup>12</sup>The walls of the great courtyard were built so that there was one layer of cedar beams between every three layers of finished stone, just like the walls of the inner courtyard of the LORD's Temple with its entry room.

Furnishings for the Temple

<sup>13</sup>King Solomon then asked for a man named Hiram* to come from Tyre.<sup>14</sup>He was half Israelite, since his mother was a widow from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father had been a craftsman in bronze from Tyre. Hiram was extremely skillful and talented in any work in bronze, and he came to do all the metal work for King Solomon.

<sup>15</sup>Hiram cast two bronze pillars, each 27 feet tall and 18 feet in circumference.*<sup>16</sup>For the tops of the pillars he cast bronze capitals, each 7½ feet* tall.<sup>17</sup>Each capital was decorated with seven sets of latticework and interwoven chains.<sup>18</sup>He also encircled the latticework with two rows of pomegranates to decorate the capitals over the pillars.<sup>19</sup>The capitals on the columns inside the entry room were shaped like water lilies, and they were six feet* tall.<sup>20</sup>The capitals on the two pillars had 200 pomegranates in two rows around them, beside the rounded surface next to the latticework.<sup>21</sup>Hiram set the pillars at the entrance of the Temple, one toward the south and one toward the north. He named the one on the south Jakin, and the one on the north Boaz.*<sup>22</sup>The capitals on the pillars were shaped like water lilies. And so the work on the pillars was finished.

<sup>23</sup>Then Hiram cast a great round basin, 15 feet across from rim to rim, called the Sea. It was  $7\frac{1}{2}$  feet deep and about 45 feet in circumference.\* <sup>24</sup>It was encircled just below its rim by two rows of decorative gourds. There were about six gourds per foot\* all the way around, and they were cast as part of the basin.

<sup>25</sup>The Sea was placed on a base of twelve bronze oxen,* all facing outward. Three faced north, three faced west, three faced south, and three faced east, and the Sea rested on them. <sup>26</sup>The walls of the Sea were about three inches* thick, and its rim flared out like a cup and resembled a water lily blossom. It could hold about 11,000 gallons* of water.

<sup>27</sup>Hiram also made ten bronze water carts, each 6 feet long, 6 feet wide, and  $4\frac{1}{2}$  feet tall.\* <sup>28</sup>They were constructed with side panels braced with crossbars. <sup>29</sup>Both the panels and the crossbars were decorated with carved lions, oxen, and cherubim. Above and below the lions and oxen were wreath decorations. <sup>30</sup>Each of these carts had four bronze wheels and bronze axles. There were supporting posts for the bronze basins at the corners of the carts; these supports were decorated on each side with carvings of wreaths. <sup>31</sup>The top of each cart had a rounded frame for the basin. It projected  $1\frac{1}{2}$  feet\* above the cart's top like a round pedestal, and its opening was  $2\frac{1}{4}$  feet\* across; it was decorated on the outside with carvings of wreaths. The panels of the carts were square, not round. <sup>32</sup>Under the panels were four wheels that were connected to axles that had been cast as one unit with the cart.

The wheels were 2¼ feet in diameter<sup>33</sup> and were similar to chariot wheels. The axles, spokes, rims, and hubs were all cast from molten bronze.

<sup>34</sup>There were handles at each of the four corners of the carts, and these, too, were cast as one unit with the cart.<sup>35</sup> Around the top of each cart was a rim nine inches wide.* The corner supports and side panels were cast as one unit with the cart.

<sup>36</sup>Carvings of cherubim, lions, and palm trees decorated the panels and corner supports wherever there was room, and there were wreaths all around.<sup>37</sup> All ten water carts were the same size and were made alike, for each was cast from the same mold.

<sup>38</sup>Huram also made ten smaller bronze basins, one for each cart. Each basin was six feet across and could hold 220 gallons* of water.<sup>39</sup> He set five water carts on the south side of the Temple and five on the north side. The great bronze basin called the Sea was placed near the southeast corner of the Temple.<sup>40</sup> He also made the necessary washbasins, shovels, and bowls.

So at last Hiram completed everything King Solomon had assigned him to make for the Temple of the LORD:

<sup>41</sup>the two pillars;

the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;

the two networks of interwoven chains that decorated the capitals;

<sup>42</sup>the 400 pomegranates that hung from the chains on the capitals (two rows of pomegranates for each of the chain networks that decorated the capitals on top of the pillars); <sup>43</sup>the ten water carts holding the ten basins;

Huram made all these things of burnished bronze for the Temple of the LORD, just as King Solomon had directed. <sup>46</sup>The king had them cast in clay molds in the Jordan Valley between Succoth and Zarethan. <sup>47</sup>Solomon did not weigh all these things because there were so many; the weight of the bronze could not be measured.

<sup>48</sup>Solomon also made all the furnishings of the Temple of the LORD:

the gold altar;
the gold table for the Bread of the Presence; <sup>49</sup>the lampstands of solid gold, five on the south and five on the north, in front of the Most Holy Place;
the flower decorations, lamps, and tongs—all of gold; <sup>50</sup>the small bowls, lamp snuffers, bowls, dishes, and incense burners—all of solid gold;
the doors for the entrances to the Most Holy Place and the main room of the Temple, with their fronts overlaid with gold.

<sup>51</sup>So King Solomon finished all his work on the Temple of the LORD. Then he brought all the gifts his father, David, had dedicated—the silver, the gold, and the various articles—and he stored them in the treasuries of the LORD's Temple.

1 Kings 8

The Ark Brought to the Temple

<sup>1</sup>Solomon then summoned to Jerusalem the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes—the leaders of the ancestral families of the Israelites. They were to bring the Ark of the LORD's Covenant to the Temple from its location in the City of David, also known as Zion. <sup>2</sup>So all the men of Israel assembled before King Solomon at the annual Festival of Shelters, which is held in early autumn in the month of Ethanim.*

<sup>3</sup>When all the elders of Israel arrived, the priests picked up the Ark. <sup>4</sup>The priests and Levites brought up the Ark of the LORD along with the special tent* and all the sacred items that had been in it. <sup>5</sup>There, before the Ark, King Solomon and the entire community of Israel sacrificed so many sheep, goats, and cattle that no one could keep count!

<sup>6</sup>Then the priests carried the Ark of the LORD's Covenant into the inner sanctuary of the Temple—the Most Holy Place—and placed it beneath the wings of the cherubim. <sup>7</sup>The cherubim spread their wings over the Ark, forming a canopy over the Ark and its carrying poles. <sup>8</sup>These poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the Temple's main room—the Holy Place—but not from the outside. They are still there to this day. <sup>9</sup>Nothing was in the Ark except the two stone tablets that Moses had placed in it at Mount Sinai,* where the LORD made a covenant with the people of Israel when they left the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>When the priests came out of the Holy Place, a thick cloud filled the Temple of the LORD. <sup>11</sup>The priests could not continue their service because of the cloud, for the glorious presence of the LORD filled the Temple.

Solomon Praises the LORD

<sup>12</sup>Then Solomon prayed, “O LORD, you have said that you would live in a thick cloud of darkness. <sup>13</sup>Now I have built a glorious Temple for you, a place where you can live forever! <sup>14</sup>*”

<sup>14</sup>Then the king turned around to the entire community of Israel standing before him and gave this blessing: <sup>15</sup>“Praise the LORD, the God of Israel, who has kept the promise he made to my father, David. For he told my father, <sup>16</sup>‘From the day I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I have never chosen a city among any of the tribes of Israel as the place where a Temple should be built to honor my name. But I have chosen David to be king over my people Israel.’”

<sup>17</sup>Then Solomon said, “My father, David, wanted to build this Temple to honor the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>18</sup>But the LORD told him, ‘You wanted to build the Temple to honor my name. Your intention is good, <sup>19</sup>but you are not the one to do it. One of your own sons will build the Temple to honor me.’

<sup>20</sup>“And now the LORD has fulfilled the promise he made, for I have become king in my father’s place, and I now sit on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD promised. I have built this Temple to honor the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>21</sup>And I have prepared a place there for the Ark, which contains the covenant that the LORD made with our ancestors when he brought them out of Egypt.”

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

<sup>22</sup>Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the entire community of Israel. He lifted his hands toward heaven, <sup>23</sup>and he prayed,

“O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you in all of heaven above or on the earth below. You keep your covenant and show unfailing love to all who walk before you in wholehearted devotion. <sup>24</sup>You have kept your promise to your servant David, my father. You made that promise with your own mouth, and with your own hands you have fulfilled it today.

<sup>25</sup>“And now, O LORD, God of Israel, carry out the additional promise you made to your servant David, my father. For you said to him, ‘If your descendants guard their behavior and faithfully follow me as you have done, one of them will always sit on the throne of Israel.’ <sup>26</sup>Now, O God of Israel, fulfill this promise to your servant David, my father.

<sup>27</sup>“But will God really live on earth? Why, even the highest heavens cannot contain you. How much less this Temple I have built! <sup>28</sup>Nevertheless, listen to my prayer and my plea, O LORD my God. Hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is making to you today. <sup>29</sup>May you watch over this Temple night and day, this place where you have said, ‘My name will be there.’ May you always hear the prayers I make toward this place.<sup>30</sup> May you hear the humble and earnest requests from me and your people Israel when we pray toward this place. Yes, hear us from heaven where you live, and when you hear, forgive.

<sup>31</sup>“If someone wrongs another person and is required to take an oath of innocence in front of your altar in this Temple,<sup>32</sup> then hear from heaven and judge between your servants—the accuser and the accused. Punish the guilty as they deserve. Acquit the innocent because of their innocence.

<sup>33</sup>“If your people Israel are defeated by their enemies because they have sinned against you, and if they turn to you and acknowledge your name and pray to you here in this Temple,<sup>34</sup> then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel and return them to this land you gave their ancestors.

<sup>35</sup>“If the skies are shut up and there is no rain because your people have sinned against you, and if they pray toward this Temple and acknowledge your name and turn from their sins because you have punished them,<sup>36</sup> then hear from heaven and forgive the sins of your servants, your people Israel. Teach them to follow the right path, and send rain on your land that you have given to your people as their special possession.

<sup>37</sup>“If there is a famine in the land or a plague or crop disease or attacks of locusts or caterpillars, or if your people’s enemies are in the land besieging their towns—

whatever disaster or disease there is—<sup>38</sup>and if your people Israel pray about their troubles, raising their hands toward this Temple, <sup>39</sup>then hear from heaven where you live, and forgive. Give your people what their actions deserve, for you alone know each human heart. <sup>40</sup>Then they will fear you as long as they live in the land you gave to our ancestors.

<sup>41</sup>“In the future, foreigners who do not belong to your people Israel will hear of you. They will come from distant lands because of your name, <sup>42</sup>for they will hear of your great name and your strong hand and your powerful arm. And when they pray toward this Temple, <sup>43</sup>then hear from heaven where you live, and grant what they ask of you. In this way, all the people of the earth will come to know and fear you, just as your own people Israel do. They, too, will know that this Temple I have built honors your name.

<sup>44</sup>“If your people go out where you send them to fight their enemies, and if they pray to the LORD by turning toward this city you have chosen and toward this Temple I have built to honor your name, <sup>45</sup>then hear their prayers from heaven and uphold their cause.

<sup>46</sup>“If they sin against you—and who has never sinned?—you might become angry with them and let their enemies conquer them and take them captive to their land far away or near. <sup>47</sup>But in that land of exile, they might turn to you in repentance and pray, ‘We have sinned, done evil, and acted wickedly.’ <sup>48</sup>If they turn to you with their whole heart and soul in the land of their enemies and pray toward the land you gave to their ancestors—toward this city you have chosen, and toward this Temple I have built to honor your name—<sup>49</sup>then hear their prayers and their petition from heaven where you live, and uphold their cause. <sup>50</sup>Forgive your people who have sinned against you. Forgive all the offenses they have committed against you. Make their captors merciful to them, <sup>51</sup>for they are your people—your special possession—whom you brought out of the iron-smelting furnace of Egypt.

<sup>52</sup>“May your eyes be open to my requests and to the requests of your people Israel. May you hear and answer them whenever they cry out to you. <sup>53</sup>For when you brought our ancestors out of Egypt, O Sovereign LORD, you told your servant Moses that you had set Israel apart from all the nations of the earth to be your own special possession.”

The Dedication of the Temple

<sup>54</sup>When Solomon finished making these prayers and petitions to the LORD, he stood up in front of the altar of the LORD, where he had been kneeling with his hands raised toward heaven. <sup>55</sup>He stood and in a loud voice blessed the entire congregation of Israel:

<sup>56</sup>“Praise the LORD who has given rest to his people Israel, just as he promised. Not one word has failed of all the wonderful promises he gave through his servant Moses. <sup>57</sup>May the LORD our God be with us as he was with our ancestors; may he never leave us or abandon us. <sup>58</sup>May he give us the desire to do his will in everything and to obey all the commands, decrees, and regulations that he gave our ancestors.<sup>59</sup> And may these words that I have prayed in the presence of the LORD be before him constantly, day and night, so that the LORD our God may give justice to me and to his people Israel, according to each day's needs.<sup>60</sup> Then people all over the earth will know that the LORD alone is God and there is no other.<sup>61</sup> And may you be completely faithful to the LORD our God. May you always obey his decrees and commands, just as you are doing today."

<sup>62</sup>Then the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifices to the LORD. <sup>63</sup>Solomon offered to the LORD a peace offering of 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep and goats. And so the king and all the people of Israel dedicated the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>64</sup>That same day the king consecrated the central area of the courtyard in front of the LORD's Temple. He offered burnt offerings, grain offerings, and the fat of peace offerings there, because the bronze altar in the LORD's presence was too small to hold all the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

<sup>65</sup>Then Solomon and all Israel celebrated the Festival of Shelters* in the presence of the LORD our God. A large congregation had gathered from as far away as Lebo-hamath in the north and the Brook of Egypt in the south. The celebration went on for fourteen days in all—seven days for the dedication of the altar and seven days for the Festival of Shelters.*<sup>66</sup> After the festival was over,* Solomon sent the people home. They blessed the king and went to their homes joyful and glad because the LORD had been good to his servant David and to his people Israel.

1 Kings 9

The LORD's Response to Solomon

<sup>1</sup> So Solomon finished building the Temple of the LORD, as well as the royal palace. He completed everything he had planned to do. <sup>2</sup> Then the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time, as he had done before at Gibeon. <sup>3</sup> The LORD said to him,

“I have heard your prayer and your petition. I have set this Temple apart to be holy—this place you have built where my name will be honored forever. I will always watch over it, for it is dear to my heart.

<sup>4</sup> “As for you, if you will follow me with integrity and godliness, as David your father did, obeying all my commands, decrees, and regulations, <sup>5</sup> then I will establish the throne of your dynasty over Israel forever. For I made this promise to your father, David: ‘One of your descendants will always sit on the throne of Israel.’

<sup>6</sup> “But if you or your descendants abandon me and disobey the commands and decrees I have given you, and if you serve and worship other gods, <sup>7</sup> then I will uproot Israel from this land that I have given them. I will reject this Temple that I have made holy to honor my name. I will make Israel an object of mockery and ridicule among the nations. <sup>8</sup> And though this Temple is impressive now, all who pass by will be appalled and will shake their heads in amazement. They will ask, ‘Why did the LORD do such terrible things to this land and to this Temple?’

<sup>9</sup>“And the answer will be, ‘Because his people abandoned the LORD their God, who brought their ancestors out of Egypt, and they worshiped other gods instead and bowed down to them. That is why the LORD has brought all these disasters on them.’”

Solomon's Agreement with Hiram

<sup>10</sup>It took Solomon twenty years to build the LORD's Temple and his own royal palace. At the end of that time, <sup>11</sup>he gave twenty towns in the land of Galilee to King Hiram of Tyre. (Hiram had previously provided all the cedar and cypress timber and gold that Solomon had requested.) <sup>12</sup>But when Hiram came from Tyre to see the towns Solomon had given him, he was not at all pleased with them. <sup>13</sup>“What kind of towns are these, my brother?” he asked. So Hiram called that area Cabul (which means “worthless”), as it is still known today. <sup>14</sup>Nevertheless, Hiram paid* Solomon 9,000 pounds* of gold.

Solomon's Many Achievements

<sup>15</sup>This is the account of the forced labor that King Solomon conscripted to build the LORD's Temple, the royal palace, the supporting terraces,* the wall of Jerusalem, and the cities of Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer. <sup>16</sup>(Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, had attacked and captured Gezer, killing the Canaanite population and burning it down. He gave the city to his daughter as a wedding gift when she married Solomon. <sup>17</sup>So Solomon rebuilt the city of Gezer.) He also built up the towns of Lower Bethhoron,<sup>18</sup> Baalath, and Tamar* in the wilderness within his land.<sup>19</sup> He built towns as supply centers and constructed towns where his chariots and horses* could be stationed. He built everything he desired in Jerusalem and Lebanon and throughout his entire realm.

<sup>20</sup>There were still some people living in the land who were not Israelites, including Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.<sup>21</sup> These were descendants of the nations whom the people of Israel had not completely destroyed.* So Solomon conscripted them for his labor force, and they serve in the labor force to this day.<sup>22</sup> But Solomon did not conscript any of the Israelites for forced labor. Instead, he assigned them to serve as fighting men, government officials, officers and captains in his army, commanders of his chariots, and charioteers.<sup>23</sup> Solomon appointed 550 of them to supervise the people working on his various projects.

<sup>25</sup>Three times each year Solomon presented burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar he had built for the LORD. He also burned incense to the LORD. And so he finished the work of building the Temple.

1 Kings 10

Visit of the Queen of Sheba

<sup>1</sup>When the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame, which brought honor to the name of the LORD,* she came to test him with hard questions. <sup>2</sup>She arrived in Jerusalem with a large group of attendants and a great caravan of camels loaded with spices, large quantities of gold, and precious jewels. When she met with Solomon, she talked with him about everything she had on her mind. <sup>3</sup>Solomon had answers for all her questions; nothing was too hard for the king to explain to her. <sup>4</sup>When the queen of Sheba realized how very wise Solomon was, and when she saw the palace he had built, <sup>5</sup>she was overwhelmed. She was also amazed at the food on his tables, the organization of his officials and their splendid clothing, the cupbearers, and the burnt offerings Solomon made at the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>She exclaimed to the king, "Everything I heard in my country about your achievements* and wisdom is true! <sup>7</sup>I didn't believe what was said until I arrived here and saw it with my own eyes. In fact, I had not heard the half of it! Your wisdom and prosperity are far beyond what I was told. <sup>8</sup>How happy your people* must be! What a privilege for your officials to stand here day after day, listening to your wisdom! <sup>9</sup>Praise the LORD your God, who delights in you and has placed you on the throne of Israel. Because of the LORD's eternal love for Israel, he has made you king so you can rule with justice and righteousness.”

<sup>10</sup>Then she gave the king a gift of 9,000 pounds* of gold, great quantities of spices, and precious jewels. Never again were so many spices brought in as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

<sup>11</sup>(In addition, Hiram’s ships brought gold from Ophir, and they also brought rich cargoes of red sandalwood* and precious jewels. <sup>12</sup>The king used the sandalwood to make railings for the Temple of the LORD and the royal palace, and to construct lyres and harps for the musicians. Never before or since has there been such a supply of sandalwood.)

<sup>13</sup>King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba whatever she asked for, besides all the customary gifts he had so generously given. Then she and all her attendants returned to their own land.

Solomon’s Wealth and Splendor

<sup>14</sup>Each year Solomon received about 25 tons* of gold. <sup>15</sup>This did not include the additional revenue he received from merchants and traders, all the kings of Arabia, and the governors of the land.

<sup>16</sup>King Solomon made 200 large shields of hammered gold, each weighing more than fifteen pounds.* <sup>17</sup>He also made 300 smaller shields of hammered gold, each weighing nearly four pounds.* The king placed these shields in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.

<sup>18</sup>Then the king made a huge throne, decorated with ivory and overlaid with fine gold. <sup>19</sup>The throne had six steps and a rounded back. There were armrests on both sides of the seat, and the figure of a lion stood on each side of the throne.

<sup>20</sup>There were also twelve other lions, one standing on each end of the six steps. No other throne in all the world could be compared with it!

<sup>21</sup>All of King Solomon's drinking cups were solid gold, as were all the utensils in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon. They were not made of silver, for silver was considered worthless in Solomon's day!

<sup>22</sup>The king had a fleet of trading ships* that sailed with Hiram's fleet. Once every three years the ships returned, loaded with gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.*

<sup>23</sup>So King Solomon became richer and wiser than any other king on earth. <sup>24</sup>People from every nation came to consult him and to hear the wisdom God had given him. <sup>25</sup>Year after year everyone who visited brought him gifts of silver and gold, clothing, weapons, spices, horses, and mules.

<sup>26</sup>Solomon built up a huge force of chariots and horses.* He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses. He stationed some of them in the chariot cities and some near him in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>The king made silver as plentiful in Jerusalem as stone. And valuable cedar timber was as common as the sycamore-fig trees that grow in the foothills of Judah.* <sup>28</sup>Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt* and from Cilicia*; the king's traders acquired them from Cilicia at the standard price. <sup>29</sup>At that time chariots from Egypt could be purchased for 600 pieces of silver,* and horses for 150 pieces of silver.* They were then exported to the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

Solomon's Many Wives

<sup>1</sup> Now King Solomon loved many foreign women. Besides Pharaoh's daughter, he married women from Moab, Ammon, Edom, Sidon, and from among the Hittites. <sup>2</sup>The LORD had clearly instructed the people of Israel, "You must not marry them, because they will turn your hearts to their gods." Yet Solomon insisted on loving them anyway. <sup>3</sup>He had 700 wives of royal birth and 300 concubines. And in fact, they did turn his heart away from the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>In Solomon's old age, they turned his heart to worship other gods instead of being completely faithful to the LORD his God, as his father, David, had been. <sup>5</sup>Solomon worshiped Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, and Molech, * the detestable god of the Ammonites. <sup>6</sup>In this way, Solomon did what was evil in the LORD's sight; he refused to follow the LORD completely, as his father, David, had done.

<sup>7</sup>On the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem, * he even built a pagan shrine for Chemosh, the detestable god of Moab, and another for Molech, the detestable god of the Ammonites. <sup>8</sup>Solomon built such shrines for all his foreign wives to use for burning incense and sacrificing to their gods.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD was very angry with Solomon, for his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice. <sup>10</sup>He had warned Solomon specifically about worshiping other gods, but Solomon did not listen to the LORD'S command. <sup>11</sup>So now the LORD said to him, "Since you have not kept my covenant and have disobeyed my decrees, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to one of your servants. <sup>12</sup>But for the sake of your father, David, I will not do this while you are still alive. I will take the kingdom away from your son. <sup>13</sup>And even so, I will not take away the entire kingdom; I will let him be king of one tribe, for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, my chosen city."

Too Much of a Good Thing?

Solomon's Adversaries

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD raised up Hadad the Edomite, a member of Edom's royal family, to be Solomon's adversary. <sup>15</sup>Years before, David had defeated Edom. Joab, his army commander, had stayed to bury some of the Israelite soldiers who had died in battle. While there, they killed every male in Edom. <sup>16</sup>Joab and the army of Israel had stayed there for six months, killing them.

<sup>17</sup>But Hadad and a few of his father's royal officials escaped and headed for Egypt. (Hadad was just a boy at the time.) <sup>18</sup>They set out from Midian and went to Paran, where others joined them. Then they traveled to Egypt and went to Pharaoh, who gave them a home, food, and some land. <sup>19</sup>Pharaoh grew very fond of Hadad, and he gave him his wife's sister in marriage—the sister of Queen Tahpenes.<sup>20</sup> She bore him a son named Genubath. Tahpenes raised him* in Pharaoh's palace among Pharaoh's own sons.

<sup>21</sup>When the news reached Hadad in Egypt that David and his commander Joab were both dead, he said to Pharaoh, "Let me return to my own country."

<sup>22</sup>"Why?" Pharaoh asked him. "What do you lack here that makes you want to go home?"

"Nothing," he replied. "But even so, please let me return home."

Jeroboam Rebels against Solomon

<sup>26</sup> Another rebel leader was Jeroboam son of Nebat, one of Solomon's own officials. He came from the town of Zeredah in Ephraim, and his mother was Zeruah, a widow.

<sup>27</sup>This is the story behind his rebellion. Solomon was rebuilding the supporting terraces* and repairing the walls of the city of his father, David.<sup>28</sup> Jeroboam was a very capable young man, and when Solomon saw how industrious he was, he put him in charge of the labor force from the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh, the descendants of Joseph.

<sup>29</sup>One day as Jeroboam was leaving Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah from Shiloh met him along the way. Ahijah was wearing a new cloak. The two of them were alone in a field, <sup>30</sup>and Ahijah took hold of the new cloak he was wearing and tore it into twelve pieces. <sup>31</sup>Then he said to Jeroboam, “Take ten of these pieces, for this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘I am about to tear the kingdom from the hand of Solomon, and I will give ten of the tribes to you! <sup>32</sup>But I will leave him one tribe for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel. <sup>33</sup>For Solomon has* abandoned me and worshiped Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians; Chemosh, the god of Moab; and Molech, the god of the Ammonites. He has not followed my ways and done what is pleasing in my sight. He has not obeyed my decrees and regulations as David his father did.

<sup>34</sup>“But I will not take the entire kingdom from Solomon at this time. For the sake of my servant David, the one whom I chose and who obeyed my commands and decrees, I will keep Solomon as leader for the rest of his life. <sup>35</sup>But I will take the kingdom away from his son and give ten of the tribes to you. <sup>36</sup>His son will have one tribe so that the descendants of David my servant will continue to reign, shining like a lamp in Jerusalem, the city I have chosen to be the place for my name. <sup>37</sup>And I will place you on the throne of Israel, and you will rule over all that your heart desires. <sup>38</sup>If you listen to what I tell you and follow my ways and do whatever I consider to be right, and if you obey my decrees and commands, as my servant David did, then I will always be with you. I will establish an enduring dynasty for you as I did for David, and I will give Israel to you.<sup>39</sup>Because of Solomon's sin I will punish the descendants of David—though not forever.”

<sup>40</sup>Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam, but he fled to King Shishak of Egypt and stayed there until Solomon died.

Summary of Solomon's Reign

<sup>41</sup> The rest of the events in Solomon's reign, including all his deeds and his wisdom, are recorded in The Book of the Acts of Solomon.<sup>42</sup>Solomon ruled in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.<sup>43</sup>When he died, he was buried in the City of David, named for his father. Then his son Rehoboam became the next king.

Rehoboam

1 Kings 12

The Northern Tribes Revolt

<sup>1</sup>Rehoboam went to Shechem, where all Israel had gathered to make him king. <sup>2</sup>When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard of this, he returned from Egypt,* for he had fled to Egypt to escape from King Solomon. <sup>3</sup>The leaders of Israel summoned him, and Jeroboam and the whole assembly of Israel went to speak with Rehoboam. <sup>4</sup>“Your father was a hard master,” they said. “Lighten the harsh labor demands and heavy taxes that your father imposed on us. Then we will be your loyal subjects.”

<sup>5</sup>Rehoboam replied, “Give me three days to think this over. Then come back for my answer.” So the people went away.

<sup>6</sup> Then King Rehoboam discussed the matter with the older men who had counseled his father, Solomon. “What is your advice?” he asked. “How should I answer these people?”

<sup>7</sup>The older counselors replied, “If you are willing to be a servant to these people today and give them a favorable answer, they will always be your loyal subjects.”

<sup>8</sup>But Rehoboam rejected the advice of the older men and instead asked the opinion of the young men who had grown up with him and were now his advisers. <sup>9</sup>“What is your advice?” he asked them. “How should I answer these people who want me to lighten the burdens imposed by my father?”

<sup>10</sup>The young men replied, “This is what you should tell those complainers who want a lighter burden: ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist! <sup>11</sup>Yes, my father laid heavy burdens on you, but I’m going to make them even heavier! My father beat you with whips, but I will beat you with scorpions!’”

<sup>12</sup>Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to hear Rehoboam’s decision, just as the king had ordered. <sup>13</sup>But Rehoboam spoke harshly to the people, for he rejected the advice of the older counselors <sup>14</sup>and followed the counsel of his younger advisers. He told the people, “My father laid heavy burdens on you, but I’m going to make them even heavier! My father beat you with whips, but I will beat you with scorpions!”

<sup>15</sup> So the king paid no attention to the people. This turn of events was the will of the LORD, for it fulfilled the LORD’s message to Jeroboam son of Nebat through the prophet Ahijah from Shiloh.

<sup>16</sup>When all Israel realized that the king had refused to listen to them, they responded,

“Down with the dynasty of David!
We have no interest in the son of Jesse.
Back to your homes, O Israel!
Look out for your own house, O David!”

So the people of Israel returned home. <sup>17</sup>But Rehoboam continued to rule over the Israelites who lived in the towns of Judah.

<sup>18</sup>King Rehoboam sent Adoniram, * who was in charge of the labor force, to restore order, but the people of Israel stoned him to death. When this news reached King Rehoboam, he quickly jumped into his chariot and fled to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>And to this day the northern tribes of Israel have refused to be ruled by a descendant of David.

<sup>20</sup>When the people of Israel learned of Jeroboam's return from Egypt, they called an assembly and made him king over all Israel. So only the tribe of Judah remained loyal to the family of David.

A LOSE-LOSE SITUATION

When the mighty kingdom of David and Solomon split into two smaller states ("Israel" in the north, "Judah" in the south), both sides lost economically, militarily, and spiritually—a misfortune that has happened more than once in world history.

Shemaiah's Prophecy

<sup>21</sup>When Rehoboam arrived at Jerusalem, he mobilized the men of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin—180,000 select troops—to fight against the men of Israel and to restore the kingdom to himself.

<sup>22</sup>But God said to Shemaiah, the man of God, <sup>23</sup>“Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the people of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, <sup>24</sup>“This is what the LORD says: Do not fight against your relatives, the Israelites. Go back home, for what has happened is my doing!”” So they obeyed the message of the LORD and went home, as the LORD had commanded.

Jeroboam

Jeroboam Makes Gold Calves

<sup>25</sup>Jeroboam then built up the city of Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and it became his capital. Later he went and built up the town of Peniel.*

<sup>26</sup>Jeroboam thought to himself, “Unless I am careful, the kingdom will return to the dynasty of David. <sup>27</sup>When these people go to Jerusalem to offer sacrifices at the Temple of the LORD, they will again give their allegiance to King Rehoboam of Judah. They will kill me and make him their king instead.”

<sup>28</sup>So on the advice of his counselors, the king made two gold calves. He said to the people,* “It is too much trouble for you to worship in Jerusalem. Look, Israel, these are the gods who brought you out of Egypt!”

<sup>29</sup>He placed these calf idols in Bethel and in Dan—at either end of his kingdom.<sup>30</sup>But this became a great sin, for the people worshiped the idols, traveling as far north as Dan to worship the one there.

<sup>31</sup>Jeroboam also erected buildings at the pagan shrines and ordained priests from the common people—those who were not from the priestly tribe of Levi.<sup>32</sup>And Jeroboam instituted a religious festival in Bethel, held on the fifteenth day of the eighth month,* in imitation of the annual Festival of Shelters in Judah. There at Bethel he himself offered sacrifices to the calves he had made, and he appointed priests for the pagan shrines he had made.<sup>33</sup>So on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, a day that he himself had designated, Jeroboam offered sacrifices on the altar at Bethel. He instituted a religious festival for Israel, and he went up to the altar to burn incense.

A Prophet Denounces Jeroboam

<sup>1</sup>At the LORD's command, a man of God from Judah went to Bethel, arriving there just as Jeroboam was approaching the altar to burn incense. <sup>2</sup>Then at the LORD's command, he shouted, "O altar, altar! This is what the LORD says: A child named Josiah will be born into the dynasty of David. On you he will sacrifice the priests from the pagan shrines who come here to burn incense, and human bones will be burned on you." <sup>3</sup>That same day the man of God gave a sign to prove his message. He said, "The LORD has promised to give this sign: This altar will split apart, and its ashes will be poured out on the ground."

<sup>4</sup>When King Jeroboam heard the man of God speaking against the altar at Bethel, he pointed at him and shouted, "Seize that man!" But instantly the king's hand became paralyzed in that position, and he couldn't pull it back. <sup>5</sup>At the same time a wide crack appeared in the altar, and the ashes poured out, just as the man of God had predicted in his message from the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>The king cried out to the man of God, "Please ask the LORD your God to restore my hand again!" So the man of God prayed to the LORD, and the king's hand was restored and he could move it again.

<sup>7</sup>Then the king said to the man of God, "Come to the palace with me and have something to eat, and I will give you a gift."

<sup>8</sup>But the man of God said to the king, “Even if you gave me half of everything you own, I would not go with you. I would not eat or drink anything in this place. <sup>9</sup>For the LORD gave me this command: ‘You must not eat or drink anything while you are there, and do not return to Judah by the same way you came.’” <sup>10</sup>So he left Bethel and went home another way.

<sup>11</sup>As it happened, there was an old prophet living in Bethel, and his sons* came home and told him what the man of God had done in Bethel that day. They also told their father what the man had said to the king. <sup>12</sup>The old prophet asked them, “Which way did he go?” So they showed their father* which road the man of God had taken. <sup>13</sup>“Quick, saddle the donkey,” the old man said. So they saddled the donkey for him, and he mounted it.

<sup>14</sup>Then he rode after the man of God and found him sitting under a great tree. The old prophet asked him, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?”

“Yes, I am,” he replied.

<sup>15</sup>Then he said to the man of God, “Come home with me and eat some food.”

<sup>16</sup>“No, I cannot,” he replied. “I am not allowed to eat or drink anything here in this place. <sup>17</sup>For the LORD gave me this command: ‘You must not eat or drink anything while you are there, and do not return to Judah by the same way you came.’”

<sup>18</sup>But the old prophet answered, “I am a prophet, too, just as you are. And an angel gave me this command from the LORD: ‘Bring him home with you so he can have something to eat and drink.’” But the old man was lying to him. <sup>19</sup>So they went back together, and the man of God ate and drank at the prophet's home.

<sup>20</sup>Then while they were sitting at the table, a command from the LORD came to the old prophet. <sup>21</sup>He cried out to the man of God from Judah, "This is what the LORD says: You have defied the word of the LORD and have disobeyed the command the LORD your God gave you. <sup>22</sup>You came back to this place and ate and drank where he told you not to eat or drink. Because of this, your body will not be buried in the grave of your ancestors."

<sup>23</sup>After the man of God had finished eating and drinking, the old prophet saddled his own donkey for him, <sup>24</sup>and the man of God started off again. But as he was traveling along, a lion came out and killed him. His body lay there on the road, with the donkey and the lion standing beside it. <sup>25</sup>People who passed by saw the body lying in the road and the lion standing beside it, and they went and reported it in Bethel, where the old prophet lived.

<sup>26</sup>When the prophet heard the report, he said, "It is the man of God who disobeyed the LORD's command. The LORD has fulfilled his word by causing the lion to attack and kill him."

<sup>27</sup>Then the prophet said to his sons, "Saddle a donkey for me." So they saddled a donkey, <sup>28</sup>and he went out and found the body lying in the road. The donkey and lion were still standing there beside it, for the lion had not eaten the body nor attacked the donkey. <sup>29</sup>So the prophet laid the body of the man of God on the donkey and took it back to the town to mourn over him and bury him. <sup>30</sup>He laid the body in his own grave, crying out in grief, “Oh, my brother!”

<sup>31</sup>Afterward the prophet said to his sons, “When I die, bury me in the grave where the man of God is buried. Lay my bones beside his bones.”<sup>32</sup>For the message the LORD told him to proclaim against the altar in Bethel and against the pagan shrines in the towns of Samaria will certainly come true.”

<sup>33</sup> But even after this, Jeroboam did not turn from his evil ways. He continued to choose priests from the common people. He appointed anyone who wanted to become a priest for the pagan shrines.<sup>34</sup>This became a great sin and resulted in the utter destruction of Jeroboam’s dynasty from the face of the earth.

1 Kings 14

Ahijah's Prophecy against Jeroboam

<sup>1</sup> At that time Jeroboam's son Abijah became very sick. <sup>2</sup>So Jeroboam told his wife, "Disguise yourself so that no one will recognize you as my wife. Then go to the prophet Ahijah at Shiloh—the man who told me I would become king. <sup>3</sup>Take him a gift of ten loaves of bread, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and ask him what will happen to the boy."

<sup>4</sup>So Jeroboam's wife went to Ahijah's home at Shiloh. He was an old man now and could no longer see. <sup>5</sup>But the LORD had told Ahijah, "Jeroboam's wife will come here, pretending to be someone else. She will ask you about her son, for he is very sick. Give her the answer I give you."

<sup>6</sup>So when Ahijah heard her footsteps at the door, he called out, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam! Why are you pretending to be someone else?" Then he told her, "I have bad news for you. <sup>7</sup>Give your husband, Jeroboam, this message from the LORD, the God of Israel: 'I promoted you from the ranks of the common people and made you ruler over my people Israel. <sup>8</sup>I ripped the kingdom away from the family of David and gave it to you. But you have not been like my servant David, who obeyed my commands and followed me with all his heart and always did whatever I wanted. <sup>9</sup>You have done more evil than all who lived before you. You have made other gods for yourself and have made me furious with your gold calves. And since you have turned your back on me, <sup>10</sup>I will bring disaster on your dynasty and will destroy every one of your male descendants, slave and free alike, anywhere in Israel. I will burn up your royal dynasty as one burns up trash until it is all gone. <sup>11</sup>The members of Jeroboam's family who die in the city will be eaten by dogs, and those who die in the field will be eaten by vultures. I, the LORD, have spoken.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Ahijah said to Jeroboam's wife, “Go on home, and when you enter the city, the child will die. <sup>13</sup>All Israel will mourn for him and bury him. He is the only member of your family who will have a proper burial, for this child is the only good thing that the LORD, the God of Israel, sees in the entire family of Jeroboam.

<sup>14</sup>“In addition, the LORD will raise up a king over Israel who will destroy the family of Jeroboam. This will happen today, even now! <sup>15</sup>Then the LORD will shake Israel like a reed whipped about in a stream. He will uproot the people of Israel from this good land that he gave their ancestors and will scatter them beyond the Euphrates River,* for they have angered the LORD with the Asherah poles they have set up for worship. <sup>16</sup>He will abandon Israel because Jeroboam sinned and made Israel sin along with him.”

<sup>17</sup>So Jeroboam's wife returned to Tirzah, and the child died just as she walked through the door of her home. <sup>18</sup>And all Israel buried him and mourned for him, as the LORD had promised through the prophet Ahijah.

<sup>19</sup>The rest of the events in Jeroboam's reign, including all his wars and how he ruled, are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel. <sup>20</sup>Jeroboam reigned in Israel twenty-two years. When Jeroboam died, his son Nadab became the next king.

Rehoboam Rules in Judah

<sup>21</sup>Meanwhile, Rehoboam son of Solomon was king in Judah. He was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen from among all the tribes of Israel as the place to honor his name. Rehoboam's mother was Naamah, an Ammonite woman.

<sup>22</sup>During Rehoboam's reign, the people of Judah did what was evil in the LORD's sight, provoking his anger with their sin, for it was even worse than that of their ancestors. <sup>23</sup>For they also built for themselves pagan shrines and set up sacred pillars and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree. <sup>24</sup>There were even male and female shrine prostitutes throughout the land. The people imitated the detestable practices of the pagan nations the LORD had driven from the land ahead of the Israelites.

<sup>25</sup>In the fifth year of King Rehoboam's reign, King Shishak of Egypt came up and attacked Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>He ransacked the treasuries of the LORD's Temple and the royal palace; he stole everything, including all the gold shields Solomon had made. <sup>27</sup>King Rehoboam later replaced them with bronze shields as substitutes, and he entrusted them to the care of the commanders of the guard who protected the entrance to the royal palace. <sup>28</sup>Whenever the king went to the Temple of the LORD, the guards would also take the shields and then return them to the guardroom.

<sup>29</sup>The rest of the events in Rehoboam's reign and everything he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah. <sup>30</sup>There was constant war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. <sup>31</sup>When Rehoboam died, he was buried among his ancestors in the City of David. His mother was Naamah, an Ammonite woman. Then his son Abijam* became the next king.

1 Kings 15

Abijam Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Abijam* began to rule over Judah in the eighteenth year of Jeroboam's reign in Israel. <sup>2</sup>He reigned in Jerusalem three years. His mother was Maacah, the daughter of Absalom.*

<sup>3</sup>He committed the same sins as his father before him, and he was not faithful to the LORD his God, as his ancestor David had been. <sup>4</sup>But for David's sake, the LORD his God allowed his descendants to continue ruling, shining like a lamp, and he gave Abijam a son to rule after him in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>For David had done what was pleasing in the LORD's sight and had obeyed the LORD's commands throughout his life, except in the affair concerning Uriah the Hittite.

<sup>6</sup>There was war between Abijam and Jeroboam* throughout Abijam's reign. <sup>7</sup>The rest of the events in Abijam's reign and everything he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah. There was constant war between Abijam and Jeroboam. <sup>8</sup>When Abijam died, he was buried in the City of David. Then his son Asa became the next king.

Asa Rules in Judah

<sup>9</sup>Asa began to rule over Judah in the twentieth year of Jeroboam's reign in Israel. <sup>10</sup>He reigned in Jerusalem forty-one years. His grandmother* was Maacah, the daughter of Absalom.

<sup>11</sup>Asa did what was pleasing in the LORD's sight, as his ancestor David had done. <sup>12</sup>He banished the male and female shrine prostitutes from the land and got rid of all the idols* his ancestors had made. <sup>13</sup>He even deposed his grandmother Maacah from her position as queen mother because she had made an obscene Asherah pole. He cut down her obscene pole and burned it in the Kidron Valley. <sup>14</sup>Although the pagan shrines were not removed, Asa's heart remained completely faithful to the LORD throughout his life. <sup>15</sup>He brought into the Temple of the LORD the silver and gold and the various items that he and his father had dedicated.

<sup>16</sup>There was constant war between King Asa of Judah and King Baasha of Israel. <sup>17</sup>King Baasha of Israel invaded Judah and fortified Ramah in order to prevent anyone from entering or leaving King Asa's territory in Judah.

<sup>18</sup>Asa responded by removing all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of the Temple of the LORD and the royal palace. He sent it with some of his officials to Ben-hadad son of Tabrimmon, son of Hezion, the king of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus, along with this message:

<sup>19</sup>“Let there be a treaty* between you and me like the one between your father and my father. See, I am sending you a gift of silver and gold. Break your treaty with King Baasha of Israel so that he will leave me alone.”

<sup>20</sup>Ben-hadad agreed to King Asa's request and sent the commanders of his army to attack the towns of Israel. They conquered the towns of Ijon, Dan, Abel-beth-maacah, and all Kinnereth, and all the land of Naphtali.<sup>21</sup> As soon as Baasha of Israel heard what was happening, he abandoned his project of fortifying Ramah and withdrew to Tirzah.<sup>22</sup> Then King Asa sent an order throughout Judah, requiring that everyone, without exception, help to carry away the building stones and timbers that Baasha had been using to fortify Ramah. Asa used these materials to fortify the town of Geba in Benjamin and the town of Mizpah.

<sup>23</sup>The rest of the events in Asa's reign—the extent of his power, everything he did, and the names of the cities he built—are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah. In his old age his feet became diseased.<sup>24</sup> When Asa died, he was buried with his ancestors in the City of David.

Then Jehoshaphat, Asa's son, became the next king.

Nadab Rules in Israel

<sup>25</sup> Nadab son of Jeroboam began to rule over Israel in the second year of King Asa's reign in Judah. He reigned in Israel two years.<sup>26</sup> But he did what was evil in the LORD's sight and followed the example of his father, continuing the sins that Jeroboam had led Israel to commit.

<sup>27</sup> Then Baasha son of Ahijah, from the tribe of Issachar, plotted against Nadab and assassinated him while he and the Israelite army were laying siege to the Philistine town of Gibbethon.<sup>28</sup> Baasha killed Nadab in the third year of King Asa's reign in Judah, and he became the next king of Israel.

<sup>29</sup> He immediately slaughtered all the descendants of King

Jeroboam, so that not one of the royal family was left, just as the LORD had promised concerning Jeroboam by the prophet Ahijah from Shiloh.<sup>30</sup> This was done because Jeroboam had provoked the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, by the sins he had committed and the sins he had led Israel to commit.

<sup>31</sup>The rest of the events in Nadab's reign and everything he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel.

Baasha Rules in Israel

<sup>32</sup> There was constant war between King Asa of Judah and King Baasha of Israel.<sup>33</sup> Baasha son of Ahijah began to rule over all Israel in the third year of King Asa's reign in Judah. Baasha reigned in Tirzah twenty-four years.<sup>34</sup> But he did what was evil in the LORD's sight and followed the example of Jeroboam, continuing the sins that Jeroboam had led Israel to commit.

1 Kings 16

<sup>1</sup>This message from the LORD was delivered to King Baasha by the prophet Jehu son of Hanani: <sup>2</sup>“I lifted you out of the dust to make you ruler of my people Israel, but you have followed the evil example of Jeroboam. You have provoked my anger by causing my people Israel to sin. <sup>3</sup>So now I will destroy you and your family, just as I destroyed the descendants of Jeroboam son of Nebat. <sup>4</sup>The members of Baasha’s family who die in the city will be eaten by dogs, and those who die in the field will be eaten by vultures.”

<sup>5</sup>The rest of the events in Baasha’s reign and the extent of his power are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel. <sup>6</sup>When Baasha died, he was buried in Tirzah. Then his son Elah became the next king.

<sup>7</sup>The message from the LORD against Baasha and his family came through the prophet Jehu son of Hanani. It was delivered because Baasha had done what was evil in the LORD’s sight (just as the family of Jeroboam had done), and also because Baasha had destroyed the family of Jeroboam. The LORD’s anger was provoked by Baasha’s sins.

Elah Rules in Israel

<sup>8</sup>Elah son of Baasha began to rule over Israel in the twenty-sixth year of King Asa’s reign in Judah. He reigned in the city of Tirzah for two years.

<sup>9</sup>Then Zimri, who commanded half of the royal chariots, made plans to kill him. One day in Tirzah, Elah was getting drunk at the home of Arza, the supervisor of the palace. <sup>10</sup>Zimri walked in and struck him down and killed him. This happened in the twenty-seventh year of King Asa's reign in Judah. Then Zimri became the next king.

<sup>11</sup>Zimri immediately killed the entire royal family of Baasha, leaving him not even a single male child. He even destroyed distant relatives and friends. <sup>12</sup>So Zimri destroyed the dynasty of Baasha as the LORD had promised through the prophet Jehu. <sup>13</sup>This happened because of all the sins Baasha and his son Elah had committed, and because of the sins they led Israel to commit. They provoked the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, with their worthless idols.

<sup>14</sup>The rest of the events in Elah's reign and everything he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel.

Zimri Rules in Israel

<sup>15</sup>Zimri began to rule over Israel in the twenty-seventh year of King Asa's reign in Judah, but his reign in Tirzah lasted only seven days. The army of Israel was then attacking the Philistine town of Gibbethon. <sup>16</sup>When they heard that Zimri had committed treason and had assassinated the king, that very day they chose Omri, commander of the army, as the new king of Israel. <sup>17</sup>So Omri led the entire army of Israel up from Gibbethon to attack Tirzah, Israel's capital. <sup>18</sup>When Zimri saw that the city had been taken, he went into the citadel of the palace and burned it down over himself and died in the flames.

<sup>19</sup>For he, too, had done what was evil in the LORD's sight. He followed the example of Jeroboam in all the sins he had committed and led Israel to commit.

<sup>20</sup>The rest of the events in Zimri's reign and his conspiracy are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel.

Omri Rules in Israel

<sup>21</sup>But now the people of Israel were split into two factions. Half the people tried to make Tibni son of Ginath their king, while the other half supported Omri. <sup>22</sup>But Omri's supporters defeated the supporters of Tibni. So Tibni was killed, and Omri became the next king.

<sup>23</sup>Omri began to rule over Israel in the thirty-first year of King Asa's reign in Judah. He reigned twelve years in all, six of them in Tirzah. <sup>24</sup>Then Omri bought the hill now known as Samaria from its owner, Shemer, for 150 pounds of silver. * He built a city on it and called the city Samaria in honor of Shemer.

<sup>25</sup>But Omri did what was evil in the LORD's sight, even more than any of the kings before him. <sup>26</sup>He followed the example of Jeroboam son of Nebat in all the sins he had committed and led Israel to commit. The people provoked the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, with their worthless idols.

<sup>27</sup>The rest of the events in Omri's reign, the extent of his power, and everything he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel. <sup>28</sup>When Omri died, he was buried in Samaria. Then his son Ahab became the next king.

Ahab Rules in Israel

29 Ahab son of Omri began to rule over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of King Asa's reign in Judah. He reigned in Samaria twenty-two years. <sup>30</sup>But Ahab son of Omri did what was evil in the LORD's sight, even more than any of the kings before him. <sup>31</sup>And as though it were not enough to follow the example of Jeroboam, he married Jezebel, the daughter of King Ethbaal of the Sidonians, and he began to bow down in worship of Baal. <sup>32</sup>First Ahab built a temple and an altar for Baal in Samaria. <sup>33</sup>Then he set up an Asherah pole. He did more to provoke the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, than any of the other kings of Israel before him.

<sup>34</sup>It was during his reign that Hiel, a man from Bethel, rebuilt Jericho. When he laid its foundations, it cost him the life of his oldest son, Abiram. And when he completed it and set up its gates, it cost him the life of his youngest son, Segub.* This all happened according to the message from the LORD concerning Jericho spoken by Joshua son of Nun.

Elijah

1 Kings 17

Elijah Fed by Ravens

<sup>1</sup>Now Elijah, who was from Tishbe in Gilead, told King Ahab, “As surely as the LORD, the God of Israel, lives—the God I serve—there will be no dew or rain during the next few years until I give the word!”

<sup>2</sup>Then the LORD said to Elijah, <sup>3</sup>“Go to the east and hide by Kerith Brook, near where it enters the Jordan River. <sup>4</sup>Drink from the brook and eat what the ravens bring you, for I have commanded them to bring you food.”

<sup>5</sup>So Elijah did as the LORD told him and camped beside Kerith Brook, east of the Jordan. <sup>6</sup>The ravens brought him bread and meat each morning and evening, and he drank from the brook. <sup>7</sup>But after a while the brook dried up, for there was no rainfall anywhere in the land.

The Widow at Zarephath

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD said to Elijah, <sup>9</sup>“Go and live in the village of Zarephath, near the city of Sidon. I have instructed a widow there to feed you.”

<sup>10</sup> So he went to Zarephath. As he arrived at the gates of the village, he saw a widow gathering sticks, and he asked her, “Would you please bring me a little water in a cup?” <sup>11</sup> As she was going to get it, he called to her, “Bring me a bite of bread, too.”

<sup>12</sup> But she said, “I swear by the LORD your God that I don’t have a single piece of bread in the house. And I have only a handful of flour left in the jar and a little cooking oil in the bottom of the jug. I was just gathering a few sticks to cook this last meal, and then my son and I will die.”

<sup>13</sup> But Elijah said to her, “Don’t be afraid! Go ahead and do just what you’ve said, but make a little bread for me first. Then use what’s left to prepare a meal for yourself and your son.

<sup>14</sup> For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: There will always be flour and olive oil left in your containers until the time when the LORD sends rain and the crops grow again!”

<sup>15</sup> So she did as Elijah said, and she and Elijah and her family continued to eat for many days. <sup>16</sup> There was always enough flour and olive oil left in the containers, just as the LORD had promised through Elijah.

<sup>17</sup> Some time later the woman’s son became sick. He grew worse and worse, and finally he died. <sup>18</sup> Then she said to Elijah, “O man of God, what have you done to me? Have you come here to point out my sins and kill my son?”

<sup>19</sup>But Elijah replied, “Give me your son.” And he took the child’s body from her arms, carried him up the stairs to the room where he was staying, and laid the body on his bed. <sup>20</sup>Then Elijah cried out to the LORD, “O LORD my God, why have you brought tragedy to this widow who has opened her home to me, causing her son to die?”

<sup>21</sup>And he stretched himself out over the child three times and cried out to the LORD, “O LORD my God, please let this child’s life return to him.” <sup>22</sup>The LORD heard Elijah’s prayer, and the life of the child returned, and he revived! <sup>23</sup>Then Elijah brought him down from the upper room and gave him to his mother. “Look!” he said. “Your son is alive!”

<sup>24</sup>Then the woman told Elijah, “Now I know for sure that you are a man of God, and that the LORD truly speaks through you.”

1 Kings 18

The Contest on Mount Carmel

<sup>1</sup>Later on, in the third year of the drought, the LORD said to Elijah, “Go and present yourself to King Ahab. Tell him that I will soon send rain!” <sup>2</sup>So Elijah went to appear before Ahab.

Meanwhile, the famine had become very severe in Samaria. <sup>3</sup>So Ahab summoned Obadiah, who was in charge of the palace. (Obadiah was a devoted follower of the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Once when Jezebel had tried to kill all the LORD’s prophets, Obadiah had hidden 100 of them in two caves. He put fifty prophets in each cave and supplied them with food and water.) <sup>5</sup>Ahab said to Obadiah, “We must check every spring and valley in the land to see if we can find enough grass to save at least some of my horses and mules.” <sup>6</sup>So they divided the land between them. Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

<sup>7</sup>As Obadiah was walking along, he suddenly saw Elijah coming toward him. Obadiah recognized him at once and bowed low to the ground before him. “Is it really you, my lord Elijah?” he asked.

<sup>8</sup>“Yes, it is,” Elijah replied. “Now go and tell your master, ‘Elijah is here.’”

<sup>9</sup>“Oh, sir,” Obadiah protested, “what harm have I done to you that you are sending me to my death at the hands of Ahab?”

<sup>10</sup>For I swear by the LORD your God that the king has searched every nation and kingdom on earth from end to end to find you. And each time he was told, 'Elijah isn't here,' King Ahab forced the king of that nation to swear to the truth of his claim.

<sup>12</sup>But as soon as I leave you, the Spirit of the LORD will carry you away to who knows where. When Ahab comes and cannot find you, he will kill me. Yet I have been a true servant of the LORD all my life. <sup>13</sup>Has no one told you, my lord, about the time when Jezebel was trying to kill the LORD's prophets? I hid 100 of them in two caves and supplied them with food and water.

<sup>14</sup>And now you say, 'Go and tell your master, "Elijah is here."' Sir, if I do that, Ahab will certainly kill me."

<sup>15</sup>But Elijah said, "I swear by the LORD Almighty, in whose presence I stand, that I will present myself to Ahab this very day."

<sup>16</sup>So Obadiah went to tell Ahab that Elijah had come, and Ahab went out to meet Elijah. <sup>17</sup>When Ahab saw him, he exclaimed, "So, is it really you, you troublemaker of Israel?"

<sup>18</sup>"I have made no trouble for Israel," Elijah replied. "You and your family are the troublemakers, for you have refused to obey the commands of the LORD and have worshiped the images of Baal instead. <sup>19</sup>Now summon all Israel to join me at Mount Carmel, along with the 450 prophets of Baal and the 400 prophets of Asherah who are supported by Jezebel.*"

<sup>20</sup>So Ahab summoned all the people of Israel and the prophets to Mount Carmel. <sup>21</sup>Then Elijah stood in front of them and said, "How much longer will you waver, hobbling between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him! But if Baal is God, then follow him!” But the people were completely silent.

<sup>22</sup> Then Elijah said to them, “I am the only prophet of the LORD who is left, but Baal has 450 prophets. <sup>23</sup> Now bring two bulls. The prophets of Baal may choose whichever one they wish and cut it into pieces and lay it on the wood of their altar, but without setting fire to it. I will prepare the other bull and lay it on the wood on the altar, but not set fire to it. <sup>24</sup> Then call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD. The god who answers by setting fire to the wood is the true God!” And all the people agreed.

<sup>25</sup> Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “You go first, for there are many of you. Choose one of the bulls, and prepare it and call on the name of your god. But do not set fire to the wood.”

<sup>26</sup> So they prepared one of the bulls and placed it on the altar. Then they called on the name of Baal from morning until noontime, shouting, “O Baal, answer us!” But there was no reply of any kind. Then they danced, hobbling around the altar they had made.

<sup>27</sup> About noontime Elijah began mocking them. “You’ll have to shout louder,” he scoffed, “for surely he is a god! Perhaps he is daydreaming, or is relieving himself.* Or maybe he is away on a trip, or is asleep and needs to be wakened!”

<sup>28</sup> So they shouted louder, and following their normal custom, they cut themselves with knives and swords until the blood gushed out. <sup>29</sup> They raved all afternoon until the time of the evening sacrifice, but still there was no sound, no reply, no response.

<sup>30</sup>Then Elijah called to the people, “Come over here!” They all crowded around him as he repaired the altar of the LORD that had been torn down. <sup>31</sup>He took twelve stones, one to represent each of the tribes of Israel,* <sup>32</sup>and he used the stones to rebuild the altar in the name of the LORD. Then he dug a trench around the altar large enough to hold about three gallons.* <sup>33</sup>He piled wood on the altar, cut the bull into pieces, and laid the pieces on the wood.

Then he said, “Fill four large jars with water, and pour the water over the offering and the wood.”

<sup>34</sup>After they had done this, he said, “Do the same thing again!” And when they were finished, he said, “Now do it a third time!” So they did as he said, <sup>35</sup>and the water ran around the altar and even filled the trench.

<sup>36</sup>At the usual time for offering the evening sacrifice, Elijah the prophet walked up to the altar and prayed, “O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob,* prove today that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant. Prove that I have done all this at your command. <sup>37</sup>O LORD, answer me! Answer me so these people will know that you, O LORD, are God and that you have brought them back to yourself.”

<sup>38</sup>Immediately the fire of the LORD flashed down from heaven and burned up the young bull, the wood, the stones, and the dust. It even licked up all the water in the trench! <sup>39</sup>And when all the people saw it, they fell face down on the ground and cried out, “The LORD—he is God! Yes, the LORD is God!”

<sup>40</sup>Then Elijah commanded, “Seize all the prophets of Baal. Don’t let a single one escape!” So the people seized them all, and Elijah took them down to the Kishon Valley and killed them there.

Elijah Prays for Rain

<sup>41</sup>Then Elijah said to Ahab, “Go get something to eat and drink, for I hear a mighty rainstorm coming!”

<sup>42</sup>So Ahab went to eat and drink. But Elijah climbed to the top of Mount Carmel and bowed low to the ground and prayed with his face between his knees.

<sup>43</sup>Then he said to his servant, “Go and look out toward the sea.”

The servant went and looked, then returned to Elijah and said, “I didn’t see anything.”

Seven times Elijah told him to go and look. <sup>44</sup>Finally the seventh time, his servant told him, “I saw a little cloud about the size of a man’s hand rising from the sea.”

Then Elijah shouted, “Hurry to Ahab and tell him, ‘Climb into your chariot and go back home. If you don’t hurry, the rain will stop you!’”

<sup>46</sup>Then the LORD gave special strength to Elijah. He tucked his cloak into his belt* and ran ahead of Ahab’s chariot all the way to the entrance of Jezreel.

1 Kings 19

Elijah Flees to Sinai

<sup>1</sup> When Ahab got home, he told Jezebel everything Elijah had done, including the way he had killed all the prophets of Baal.

<sup>2</sup> So Jezebel sent this message to Elijah: “May the gods strike me and even kill me if by this time tomorrow I have not killed you just as you killed them.”

<sup>3</sup> Elijah was afraid and fled for his life. He went to Beersheba, a town in Judah, and he left his servant there. <sup>4</sup> Then he went on alone into the wilderness, traveling all day. He sat down under a solitary broom tree and prayed that he might die. “I have had enough, LORD,” he said. “Take my life, for I am no better than my ancestors who have already died.”

PERSPECTIVES

Elijah was afraid and fled for his life. . . . “I have had enough, LORD,” he said. “Take my life, for I am no better than my ancestors who have already died.”

1 KINGS 19:3-4

All the holy men seem to have gone off and died. There's no one left but us sinners to carry on the ministry.

<sup>5</sup> Then he lay down and slept under the broom tree. But as he was sleeping, an angel touched him and told him, “Get up and eat!” <sup>6</sup>He looked around and there beside his head was some bread baked on hot stones and a jar of water! So he ate and drank and lay down again.

<sup>7</sup> Then the angel of the LORD came again and touched him and said, “Get up and eat some more, or the journey ahead will be too much for you.”

<sup>8</sup> So he got up and ate and drank, and the food gave him enough strength to travel forty days and forty nights to Mount Sinai,* the mountain of God. <sup>9</sup> There he came to a cave, where he spent the night.

The LORD Speaks to Elijah

But the LORD said to him, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

<sup>10</sup> Elijah replied, “I have zealously served the LORD God Almighty. But the people of Israel have broken their covenant with you, torn down your altars, and killed every one of your prophets. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me, too.”

<sup>11</sup> “Go out and stand before me on the mountain,” the LORD told him. And as Elijah stood there, the LORD passed by, and a mighty windstorm hit the mountain. It was such a terrible blast that the rocks were torn loose, but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. <sup>12</sup>And after the earthquake there was a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire there was the sound of a gentle whisper. <sup>13</sup>When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his cloak and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave.

And a voice said, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

<sup>14</sup>He replied again, “I have zealously served the LORD God Almighty. But the people of Israel have broken their covenant with you, torn down your altars, and killed every one of your prophets. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me, too.”

<sup>15</sup>Then the LORD told him, “Go back the same way you came, and travel to the wilderness of Damascus. When you arrive there, anoint Hazael to be king of Aram. <sup>16</sup>Then anoint Jehu grandson of Nimshi* to be king of Israel, and anoint Elisha son of Shaphat from the town of Abel-meholah to replace you as my prophet. <sup>17</sup>Anyone who escapes from Hazael will be killed by Jehu, and those who escape Jehu will be killed by Elisha! <sup>18</sup>Yet I will preserve 7,000 others in Israel who have never bowed down to Baal or kissed him!”

The Call of Elisha

<sup>19</sup>So Elijah went and found Elisha son of Shaphat plowing a field. There were twelve teams of oxen in the field, and Elisha was plowing with the twelfth team. Elijah went over to him and threw his cloak across his shoulders and then walked away.

him, “First let me go and kiss my father and mother good-bye, and then I will go with you!”

Elijah replied, “Go on back, but think about what I have done to you.”

<sup>21</sup>So Elisha returned to his oxen and slaughtered them. He used the wood from the plow to build a fire to roast their flesh. He passed around the meat to the townspeople, and they all ate. Then he went with Elijah as his assistant.

1 Kings 20

Ben-Hadad Attacks Samaria

<sup>1</sup>About that time King Ben-hadad of Aram mobilized his army, supported by the chariots and horses of thirty-two allied kings. They went to besiege Samaria, the capital of Israel, and launched attacks against it. <sup>2</sup>Ben-hadad sent messengers into the city to relay this message to King Ahab of Israel: “This is what Ben-hadad says: <sup>3</sup>“Your silver and gold are mine, and so are your wives and the best of your children!””

<sup>5</sup>Soon Ben-hadad’s messengers returned again and said, “This is what Ben-hadad says: ‘I have already demanded that you give me your silver, gold, wives, and children. <sup>6</sup>But about this time tomorrow I will send my officials to search your palace and the homes of your people. They will take away everything you consider valuable!””

<sup>7</sup>Then Ahab summoned all the elders of the land and said to them, “Look how this man is stirring up trouble! I already agreed with his demand that I give him my wives and children and silver and gold.”

<sup>8</sup>“Don’t give in to any more demands,” all the elders and the people advised.

<sup>9</sup>So Ahab told the messengers from Ben-hadad, “Say this to my lord the king: ‘I will give you everything you asked for the first time, but I cannot accept this last demand of yours.” So the messengers returned to Ben-hadad with that response.

<sup>10</sup> Then Ben-hadad sent this message to Ahab: “May the gods strike me and even kill me if there remains enough dust from Samaria to provide even a handful for each of my soldiers.”

<sup>11</sup> The king of Israel sent back this answer: “A warrior putting on his sword for battle should not boast like a warrior who has already won.”

Ahab’s Victory over Ben-Hadad

<sup>13</sup> Then a certain prophet came to see King Ahab of Israel and told him, “This is what the LORD says: Do you see all these enemy forces? Today I will hand them all over to you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>14</sup> Ahab asked, “How will he do it?”

And the prophet replied, “This is what the LORD says: The troops of the provincial commanders will do it.”

“Should we attack first?” Ahab asked.

“Yes,” the prophet answered.

<sup>15</sup> So Ahab mustered the troops of the 232 provincial commanders. Then he called out the rest of the army of Israel, some 7,000 men. <sup>16</sup> About noontime, as Ben-hadad and the thirty-two allied kings were still in their tents drinking themselves into a stupor,<sup>17</sup>the troops of the provincial commanders marched out of the city as the first contingent.

As they approached, Ben-hadad's scouts reported to him, "Some troops are coming from Samaria."

<sup>18</sup>"Take them alive," Ben-hadad commanded, "whether they have come for peace or for war."

<sup>22</sup>Afterward the prophet said to King Ahab, "Get ready for another attack. Begin making plans now, for the king of Aram will come back next spring.*"

Ben-Hadad's Second Attack

<sup>23</sup>After their defeat, Ben-hadad's officers said to him, "The Israelite gods are gods of the hills; that is why they won. But we can beat them easily on the plains."<sup>24</sup>Only this time replace the kings with field commanders!<sup>25</sup>Recruit another army like the one you lost. Give us the same number of horses, chariots, and men, and we will fight against them on the plains. There's no doubt that we will beat them." So King Ben-hadad did as they suggested.

<sup>26</sup>The following spring he called up the Aramean army and marched out against Israel, this time at Aphek.<sup>27</sup>Israel then mustered its army, set up supply lines, and marched out for battle. But the Israelite army looked like two little flocks of goats in comparison to the vast Aramean forces that filled the countryside!

<sup>28</sup>Then the man of God went to the king of Israel and said, “This is what the LORD says: The Arameans have said, ‘The LORD is a god of the hills and not of the plains.’ So I will defeat this vast army for you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>29</sup>The two armies camped opposite each other for seven days, and on the seventh day the battle began. The Israelites killed 100,000 Aramean foot soldiers in one day. <sup>30</sup>The rest fled into the town of Aphek, but the wall fell on them and killed another 27,000. Ben-hadad fled into the town and hid in a secret room.

<sup>31</sup>Ben-hadad’s officers said to him, “Sir, we have heard that the kings of Israel are merciful. So let’s humble ourselves by wearing burlap around our waists and putting ropes on our heads, and surrender to the king of Israel. Then perhaps he will let you live.”

<sup>32</sup>So they put on burlap and ropes, and they went to the king of Israel and begged, “Your servant Ben-hadad says, ‘Please let me live!’”

The king of Israel responded, “Is he still alive? He is my brother!”

<sup>33</sup>The men took this as a good sign and quickly picked up on his words. “Yes,” they said, “your brother Ben-hadad!”

“Go and get him,” the king of Israel told them. And when Ben-hadad arrived, Ahab invited him up into his chariot.

<sup>34</sup>Ben-hadad told him, “I will give back the towns my father took from your father, and you may establish places of trade in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria.”

Then Ahab said, “I will release you under these conditions.” So they made a new treaty, and Ben-hadad was set free.

A Prophet Condemns Ahab

<sup>35</sup>Meanwhile, the LORD instructed one of the group of prophets to say to another man, “Hit me!” But the man refused to hit the prophet. <sup>36</sup>Then the prophet told him, “Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, a lion will kill you as soon as you leave me.” And when he had gone, a lion did attack and kill him.

<sup>37</sup>Then the prophet turned to another man and said, “Hit me!” So he struck the prophet and wounded him.

<sup>38</sup>The prophet placed a bandage over his eyes to disguise himself and then waited beside the road for the king. <sup>39</sup>As the king passed by, the prophet called out to him, “Sir, I was in the thick of battle, and suddenly a man brought me a prisoner. He said, ‘Guard this man; if for any reason he gets away, you will either die or pay a fine of seventy-five pounds* of silver!’ <sup>40</sup>But while I was busy doing something else, the prisoner disappeared!”

“Well, it’s your own fault,” the king replied. “You have brought the judgment on yourself.”

<sup>41</sup>Then the prophet quickly pulled the bandage from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets.

<sup>42</sup>The prophet said to him, “This is what the LORD says: Because you have spared the man I said must be destroyed,* now you must die in his place, and your people will die instead of his people.”<sup>43</sup> So the king of Israel went home to Samaria angry and sullen.

Naboth's Vineyard

<sup>1</sup>Now there was a man named Naboth, from Jezreel, who owned a vineyard in Jezreel beside the palace of King Ahab of Samaria. <sup>2</sup>One day Ahab said to Naboth, “Since your vineyard is so convenient to my palace, I would like to buy it to use as a vegetable garden. I will give you a better vineyard in exchange, or if you prefer, I will pay you for it.”

<sup>3</sup>But Naboth replied, “The LORD forbid that I should give you the inheritance that was passed down by my ancestors.”

<sup>4</sup>So Ahab went home angry and sullen because of Naboth's answer. The king went to bed with his face to the wall and refused to eat!

<sup>5</sup>“What's the matter?” his wife Jezebel asked him. “What's made you so upset that you're not eating?”

<sup>6</sup>“I asked Naboth to sell me his vineyard or trade it, but he refused!” Ahab told her.

<sup>7</sup>“Are you the king of Israel or not?” Jezebel demanded. “Get up and eat something, and don’t worry about it. I’ll get you Naboth’s vineyard!”

<sup>8</sup>So she wrote letters in Ahab’s name, sealed them with his seal, and sent them to the elders and other leaders of the town where Naboth lived. <sup>9</sup>In her letters she commanded: “Call the citizens together for fasting and prayer, and give Naboth a place of honor. <sup>10</sup>And then seat two scoundrels across from him who will accuse him of cursing God and the king. Then take him out and stone him to death.”

<sup>11</sup>So the elders and other town leaders followed the instructions Jezebel had written in the letters. <sup>12</sup>They called for a fast and put Naboth at a prominent place before the people. <sup>13</sup>Then the two scoundrels came and sat down across from him. And they accused Naboth before all the people, saying, “He cursed God and the king.” So he was dragged outside the town and stoned to death. <sup>14</sup>The town leaders then sent word to Jezebel, “Naboth has been stoned to death.”

<sup>15</sup>When Jezebel heard the news, she said to Ahab, “You know the vineyard Naboth wouldn’t sell you? Well, you can have it now! He’s dead!” <sup>16</sup>So Ahab immediately went down to the vineyard of Naboth to claim it.

<sup>17</sup>But the LORD said to Elijah,* <sup>18</sup>“Go down to meet King Ahab of Israel, who rules in Samaria. He will be at Naboth’s vineyard in Jezreel, claiming it for himself. <sup>19</sup>Give him this message: ‘This is what the LORD says: Wasn’t it enough that you killed Naboth? Must you rob him, too? Because you have done this, dogs will lick your blood at the very place where they licked the blood of Naboth!”

<sup>20</sup>“So, my enemy, you have found me!” Ahab exclaimed to Elijah.

“Yes,” Elijah answered, “I have come because you have sold yourself to what is evil in the LORD’s sight. <sup>21</sup>So now the LORD says, ‘I will bring disaster on you and consume you. I will destroy every one of your male descendants, slave and free alike, anywhere in Israel! <sup>22</sup>I am going to destroy your family as I did the family of Jeroboam son of Nebat and the family of Baasha son of Ahijah, for you have made me very angry and have led Israel into sin.’

<sup>23</sup>“And regarding Jezebel, the LORD says, ‘Dogs will eat Jezebel’s body at the plot of land in Jezreel.*’

<sup>24</sup>“The members of Ahab’s family who die in the city will be eaten by dogs, and those who die in the field will be eaten by vultures.”

<sup>25</sup>(No one else so completely sold himself to what was evil in the LORD’s sight as Ahab did under the influence of his wife Jezebel. <sup>26</sup>His worst outrage was worshipping idols* just as the Amorites had done—the people whom the LORD had driven out from the land ahead of the Israelites.)

<sup>27</sup>But when Ahab heard this message, he tore his clothing, dressed in burlap, and fasted. He even slept in burlap and went about in deep mourning.

<sup>28</sup>Then another message from the LORD came to Elijah: <sup>29</sup>“Do you see how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has done this, I will not do what I promised during his lifetime. It will happen to his sons; I will destroy his dynasty.”

Jezebel's Juicy Plot

1 Kings 22

Jehoshaphat and Ahab

<sup>1</sup>For three years there was no war between Aram and Israel.

<sup>2</sup>Then during the third year, King Jehoshaphat of Judah went to visit King Ahab of Israel. <sup>3</sup>During the visit, the king of Israel said to his officials, “Do you realize that the town of Ramoth-gilead belongs to us? And yet we’ve done nothing to recapture it from the king of Aram!”

<sup>4</sup>Then he turned to Jehoshaphat and asked, “Will you join me in battle to recover Ramoth-gilead?”

Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, “Why, of course! You and I are as one. My troops are your troops, and my horses are your horses.” <sup>5</sup>Then Jehoshaphat added, “But first let’s find out what the LORD says.”

<sup>6</sup>So the king of Israel summoned the prophets, about 400 of them, and asked them, “Should I go to war against Ramoth-gilead, or should I hold back?”

They all replied, “Yes, go right ahead! The Lord will give the king victory.”

<sup>7</sup>But Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there not also a prophet of the LORD here? We should ask him the same question.”

<sup>8</sup>The king of Israel replied to Jehoshaphat, “There is one more man who could consult the LORD for us, but I hate him. He never prophesies anything but trouble for me! His name is Micaiah son of Imlah.”

Jehoshaphat replied, “That’s not the way a king should talk! Let’s hear what he has to say.”

<sup>9</sup>So the king of Israel called one of his officials and said, “Quick! Bring Micaiah son of Imlah.”

Micaiah

Micaiah Prophesies against Ahab

<sup>10</sup>King Ahab of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah, dressed in their royal robes, were sitting on thrones at the threshing floor near the gate of Samaria. All of Ahab’s prophets were prophesying there in front of them. <sup>11</sup>One of them, Zedekiah son of Kenaanah, made some iron horns and proclaimed, “This is what the LORD says: With these horns you will gore the Arameans to death!”

<sup>12</sup>All the other prophets agreed. “Yes,” they said, “go up to Ramoth-gilead and be victorious, for the LORD will give the king victory!”

<sup>13</sup>Meanwhile, the messenger who went to get Micaiah said to him, “Look, all the prophets are promising victory for the king.

Be sure that you agree with them and promise success.”

<sup>14</sup>But Micaiah replied, “As surely as the LORD lives, I will say only what the LORD tells me to say.”

<sup>15</sup>When Micaiah arrived before the king, Ahab asked him, “Micaiah, should we go to war against Ramoth-gilead, or should we hold back?”

Micaiah replied sarcastically, “Yes, go up and be victorious, for the LORD will give the king victory!”

<sup>16</sup>But the king replied sharply, “How many times must I demand that you speak only the truth to me when you speak for the LORD?”

<sup>17</sup>Then Micaiah told him, “In a vision I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, like sheep without a shepherd. And the LORD said, ‘Their master has been killed.* Send them home in peace.’”

<sup>18</sup>“Didn’t I tell you?” the king of Israel exclaimed to Jehoshaphat. “He never prophesies anything but trouble for me.”

“There were many suggestions, <sup>21</sup>and finally a spirit approached the LORD and said, ‘I can do it!’

<sup>22</sup>“‘How will you do this?’ the LORD asked.

“And the spirit replied, ‘I will go out and inspire all of Ahab’s prophets to speak lies.’

“‘You will succeed,’ said the LORD. ‘Go ahead and do it.’

<sup>23</sup>“So you see, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of all your prophets. For the LORD has pronounced your doom.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah walked up to Micaiah and slapped him across the face. “Since when did the Spirit of the LORD leave me to speak to you?” he demanded.

<sup>25</sup>And Micaiah replied, “You will find out soon enough when you are trying to hide in some secret room!”

<sup>26</sup>“Arrest him!” the king of Israel ordered. “Take him back to Amon, the governor of the city, and to my son Joash. <sup>27</sup>Give them this order from the king: ‘Put this man in prison, and feed him nothing but bread and water until I return safely from the battle!’”

<sup>28</sup>But Micaiah replied, “If you return safely, it will mean that the LORD has not spoken through me!” Then he added to those standing around, “Everyone mark my words!”

The Death of Ahab

<sup>29</sup>So King Ahab of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah led their armies against Ramoth-gilead. <sup>30</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “As we go into battle, I will disguise myself so no one will recognize me, but you wear your royal robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

<sup>31</sup>Meanwhile, the king of Aram had issued these orders to his thirty-two chariot commanders: “Attack only the king of Israel. Don’t bother with anyone else!” <sup>32</sup>So when the Aramean chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat in his royal robes, they went after him. “There is the king of Israel!” they shouted. But when Jehoshaphat called out,<sup>33</sup>the chariot commanders realized he was not the king of Israel, and they stopped chasing him.

<sup>34</sup>An Aramean soldier, however, randomly shot an arrow at the Israelite troops and hit the king of Israel between the joints of his armor. “Turn the horses * and get me out of here!” Ahab groaned to the driver of his chariot. “I’m badly wounded!”

<sup>35</sup>The battle raged all that day, and the king remained propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans. The blood from his wound ran down to the floor of his chariot, and as evening arrived he died.<sup>36</sup>Just as the sun was setting, the cry ran through his troops: “We’re done for! Run for your lives!”

<sup>37</sup>So the king died, and his body was taken to Samaria and buried there.<sup>38</sup>Then his chariot was washed beside the pool of Samaria, and dogs came and licked his blood at the place where the prostitutes bathed,* just as the LORD had promised.

<sup>39</sup>The rest of the events in Ahab’s reign and everything he did, including the story of the ivory palace and the towns he built, are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel.<sup>40</sup>So Ahab died, and his son Ahaziah became the next king.

Jehoshaphat Rules in Judah

41 Jehoshaphat son of Asa began to rule over Judah in the fourth year of King Ahab’s reign in Israel. <sup>42</sup>Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-five years. His mother was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.

<sup>43</sup>Jehoshaphat was a good king, following the example of his father, Asa. He did what was pleasing in the LORD's sight. *During his reign, however, he failed to remove all the pagan shrines, and the people still offered sacrifices and burned incense there. <sup>44</sup>Jehoshaphat also made peace with the king of Israel.

<sup>45</sup>The rest of the events in Jehoshaphat's reign, the extent of his power, and the wars he waged are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah. <sup>46</sup>He banished from the land the rest of the male and female shrine prostitutes, who still continued their practices from the days of his father, Asa.

<sup>47</sup>(There was no king in Edom at that time, only a deputy.)

<sup>48</sup>Jehoshaphat also built a fleet of trading ships * to sail to Ophir for gold. But the ships never set sail, for they met with disaster in their home port of Ezion-geber. <sup>49</sup>At one time Ahaziah son of Ahab had proposed to Jehoshaphat, "Let my men sail with your men in the ships." But Jehoshaphat refused the request.

<sup>50</sup>When Jehoshaphat died, he was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. Then his son Jehoram became the next king.

Ahaziah Rules in Israel

<sup>51</sup>Ahaziah son of Ahab began to rule over Israel in the seventeenth year of King Jehoshaphat's reign in Judah. He reigned in Samaria two years. <sup>52</sup>But he did what was evil in the LORD's sight, following the example of his father and mother and the example of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had led Israel to sin.<sup>53</sup> He served Baal and worshiped him, provoking the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, just as his father had done.

Never before had there been a king like Josiah, who turned to the LORD with all his heart and soul and strength.

Elijah Confronts King Ahaziah

<sup>2</sup> One day Israel's new king, Ahaziah, fell through the latticework of an upper room at his palace in Samaria and was seriously injured. So he sent messengers to the temple of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, to ask whether he would recover.

<sup>3</sup>But the angel of the LORD told Elijah, who was from Tishbe, "Go and confront the messengers of the king of Samaria and ask them, 'Is there no God in Israel? Why are you going to Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, to ask whether the king will recover?' <sup>4</sup>Now, therefore, this is what the LORD says: You will never leave the bed you are lying on; you will surely die.'" So Elijah went to deliver the message.

<sup>5</sup> When the messengers returned to the king, he asked them, "Why have you returned so soon?"

<sup>6</sup>They replied, "A man came up to us and told us to go back to the king and give him this message. 'This is what the LORD says: Is there no God in Israel? Why are you sending men to Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, to ask whether you will recover? Therefore, because you have done this, you will never leave the bed you are lying on; you will surely die.'"

<sup>7</sup>"What sort of man was he?" the king demanded. "What did he look like?"

<sup>8</sup>They replied, "He was a hairy man,* and he wore a leather belt around his waist."

"Elijah from Tishbe!" the king exclaimed.

<sup>9</sup>Then he sent an army captain with fifty soldiers to arrest him. They found him sitting on top of a hill. The captain said to him, “Man of God, the king has commanded you to come down with us.”

<sup>10</sup>But Elijah replied to the captain, “If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and destroy you and your fifty men!” Then fire fell from heaven and killed them all.

<sup>11</sup>So the king sent another captain with fifty men. The captain said to him, “Man of God, the king demands that you come down at once.”

<sup>12</sup>Elijah replied, “If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and destroy you and your fifty men!” And again the fire of God fell from heaven and killed them all.

<sup>13</sup>Once more the king sent a third captain with fifty men. But this time the captain went up the hill and fell to his knees before Elijah. He pleaded with him, “O man of God, please spare my life and the lives of these, your fifty servants. <sup>14</sup>See how the fire from heaven came down and destroyed the first two groups. But now please spare my life!”

<sup>15</sup>Then the angel of the LORD said to Elijah, “Go down with him, and don’t be afraid of him.” So Elijah got up and went with him to the king.

<sup>16</sup>And Elijah said to the king, “This is what the LORD says: Why did you send messengers to Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, to ask whether you will recover? Is there no God in Israel to answer your question? Therefore, because you have done this, you will never leave the bed you are lying on; you will surely die.”

<sup>17</sup>So Ahaziah died, just as the LORD had promised through

Elijah. Since Ahaziah did not have a son to succeed him, his brother Joram* became the next king. This took place in the second year of the reign of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah.

<sup>18</sup>The rest of the events in Ahaziah's reign are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel.

2 Kings 2

Elijah Taken into Heaven

<sup>1</sup> When the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were traveling from Gilgal. <sup>2</sup>And Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here, for the LORD has told me to go to Bethel.”

But Elisha replied, “As surely as the LORD lives and you yourself live, I will never leave you!” So they went down together to Bethel.

<sup>3</sup>The group of prophets from Bethel came to Elisha and asked him, “Did you know that the LORD is going to take your master away from you today?”

“Of course I know,” Elisha answered. “But be quiet about it.”

<sup>4</sup>Then Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here, for the LORD has told me to go to Jericho.”

But Elisha replied again, “As surely as the LORD lives and you yourself live, I will never leave you.” So they went on together to Jericho.

<sup>5</sup>Then the group of prophets from Jericho came to Elisha and asked him, “Did you know that the LORD is going to take your master away from you today?”

“Of course I know,” Elisha answered. “But be quiet about it.”

<sup>6</sup>Then Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here, for the LORD has told me to go to the Jordan River.”

But again Elisha replied, “As surely as the LORD lives and you yourself live, I will never leave you.” So they went on together.

<sup>7</sup>Fifty men from the group of prophets also went and watched from a distance as Elijah and Elisha stopped beside the Jordan River. <sup>8</sup>Then Elijah folded his cloak together and struck the water with it. The river divided, and the two of them went across on dry ground!

Elisha

<sup>9</sup>When they came to the other side, Elijah said to Elisha, “Tell me what I can do for you before I am taken away.”

And Elisha replied, “Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit and become your successor.”

TWICE THE POWER

As the fiery Elijah prepared to leave this world, his mild-mannered assistant, Elisha, asked him for “a double share of your spirit” (2 Kings 2:9—see footnote). Surprisingly, he got his desire.

Elijah's miracles	Elisha's miracles (all in 2 Kings)
1 Called a three-year drought (1 Kings 17:1)	1 Split the Jordan River (2:14)
2 Multiplied a widow's pantry supply (1 Kings 17:15-16)	2 Purified a town's water supply (2:20-22)
3 Raised the widow's son back to life (1 Kings 17:19-22)	3 Called down instant judgment on an insolent gang (2:24)
4 Called down heavenly fire at Mount Carmel (1 Kings 18:36-38)	4 Provided enough water to satisfy three thirsty armies (3:14-20)
5 Unleashed a rainstorm to end the drought (1 Kings 18:41-46)	5 Multiplied a widow's oil supply to avoid bankruptcy (4:3-6)
6 Correctly predicted King Ahab's demise (1 Kings 21:17-24)	6 Correctly predicted a pregnancy (4:15-17)
7 Called down fire on King Ahaziah's first set of troops (2 Kings 1:10)	7 Raised a boy back to life (4:32-37)
8 Called down fire on King Ahaziah's second set of troops (2 Kings 1:11-12)	8 Stopped an epidemic of food poisoning (4:41)
9 Split the Jordan River (2 Kings 2:8)	9 Multiplied enough food for 100 men (4:43-44)
	10 Healed a Syrian general of a skin disease (5:10-14)
	11 Exposed his servant's secret greed and judged him (5:26-27)
	12 Made an ax head float (6:6)
	13 Struck Aramean invaders with blindness (6:18)
	14 Correctly predicted the arrival of a king's hatchet man (6:32-33)
	15 Correctly predicted the lifting of Samaria's siege-famine, as well as a doubter's ugly demise (7:1-2)
	16 Correctly predicted the death of King Ben-hadad and the political rise of Hazael (8:10-13)
	17 Correctly predicted the regime change led by Jehu (9:1-3)
	18 Correctly predicted King Jehoash's military successes against Aram (13:14-19)
	19 Raised a man from the dead—though dead himself! (13:20-21)

<sup>10</sup>“You have asked a difficult thing,” Elijah replied. “If you see me when I am taken from you, then you will get your request. But if not, then you won’t.”

<sup>11</sup>As they were walking along and talking, suddenly a chariot of fire appeared, drawn by horses of fire. It drove between the two men, separating them, and Elijah was carried by a whirlwind into heaven. <sup>12</sup>Elisha saw it and cried out, “My father! My father! I see the chariots and charioteers of Israel!” And as they disappeared from sight, Elisha tore his clothes in distress.

<sup>13</sup>Elisha picked up Elijah’s cloak, which had fallen when he was taken up. Then Elisha returned to the bank of the Jordan River. <sup>14</sup>He struck the water with Elijah’s cloak and cried out, “Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?” Then the river divided, and Elisha went across.

<sup>15</sup>When the group of prophets from Jericho saw from a distance what happened, they exclaimed, “Elijah’s spirit rests upon Elisha!” And they went to meet him and bowed to the ground before him. <sup>16</sup>“Sir,” they said, “just say the word and fifty of our strongest men will search the wilderness for your master. Perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has left him on some mountain or in some valley.”

“No,” Elisha said, “don’t send them.” <sup>17</sup>But they kept urging him until they shamed him into agreeing, and he finally said, “All right, send them.” So fifty men searched for three days but did not find Elijah. <sup>18</sup>Elisha was still at Jericho when they returned. “Didn’t I tell you not to go?” he asked.

Elisha's First Miracles

<sup>19</sup>One day the leaders of the town of Jericho visited Elisha. “We have a problem, my lord,” they told him. “This town is located in pleasant surroundings, as you can see. But the water is bad, and the land is unproductive.”

<sup>20</sup>Elisha said, “Bring me a new bowl with salt in it.” So they brought it to him. <sup>21</sup>Then he went out to the spring that supplied the town with water and threw the salt into it. And he said, “This is what the LORD says: I have purified this water. It will no longer cause death or infertility.*” <sup>22</sup>And the water has remained pure ever since, just as Elisha said.

<sup>23</sup>Elisha left Jericho and went up to Bethel. As he was walking along the road, a group of boys from the town began mocking and making fun of him. “Go away, baldy!” they chanted. “Go away, baldy!” <sup>24</sup>Elisha turned around and looked at them, and he cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of them. <sup>25</sup>From there Elisha went to Mount Carmel and finally returned to Samaria.

2 Kings 3

War between Israel and Moab

<sup>1</sup>Ahab's son Joram* began to rule over Israel in the eighteenth year of King Jehoshaphat's reign in Judah. He reigned in Samaria twelve years. <sup>2</sup>He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, but not to the same extent as his father and mother. He at least tore down the sacred pillar of Baal that his father had set up. <sup>3</sup>Nevertheless, he continued in the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had committed and led the people of Israel to commit.

<sup>4</sup>King Mesha of Moab was a sheep breeder. He used to pay the king of Israel an annual tribute of 100,000 lambs and the wool of 100,000 rams. <sup>5</sup>But after Ahab's death, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. <sup>6</sup>So King Joram promptly mustered the army of Israel and marched from Samaria. <sup>7</sup>On the way, he sent this message to King Jehoshaphat of Judah: "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you join me in battle against him?"

And Jehoshaphat replied, "Why, of course! You and I are as one. My troops are your troops, and my horses are your horses." <sup>8</sup>Then Jehoshaphat asked, "What route will we take?"

"We will attack from the wilderness of Edom," Joram replied.

<sup>9</sup>The king of Edom and his troops joined them, and all three armies traveled along a roundabout route through the wilderness for seven days. But there was no water for the men or their animals.

<sup>10</sup>“What should we do?” the king of Israel cried out. “The LORD has brought the three of us here to let the king of Moab defeat us.”

<sup>11</sup>But King Jehoshaphat of Judah asked, “Is there no prophet of the LORD with us? If there is, we can ask the LORD what to do through him.”

One of King Joram’s officers replied, “Elisha son of Shaphat is here. He used to be Elijah’s personal assistant.*”

<sup>12</sup>Jehoshaphat said, “Yes, the LORD speaks through him.” So the kings of Israel, Judah, and Edom went to consult with Elisha.

<sup>13</sup>“Why are you coming to me?”* Elisha asked the king of Israel. “Go to the pagan prophets of your father and mother!”

But King Joram of Israel said, “No! For it was the LORD who called us three kings here—only to be defeated by the king of Moab!”

<sup>14</sup>Elisha replied, “As surely as the LORD Almighty lives, whom I serve, I wouldn’t even bother with you except for my respect for King Jehoshaphat of Judah. <sup>15</sup>Now bring me someone who can play the harp.”

While the harp was being played, the power* of the LORD came upon Elisha, <sup>16</sup>and he said, “This is what the LORD says: This dry valley will be filled with pools of water! <sup>17</sup>You will see neither wind nor rain, says the LORD, but this valley will be filled with water. You will have plenty for yourselves and your cattle and other animals. <sup>18</sup>But this is only a simple thing for the LORD, for he will make you victorious over the army of Moab! <sup>19</sup>You will conquer the best of their towns, even the fortified ones.

You will cut down all their good trees, stop up all their springs, and ruin all their good land with stones.”

<sup>20</sup>The next day at about the time when the morning sacrifice was offered, water suddenly appeared! It was flowing from the direction of Edom, and soon there was water everywhere.

<sup>21</sup>Meanwhile, when the people of Moab heard about the three armies marching against them, they mobilized every man who was old enough to strap on a sword, and they stationed themselves along their border. <sup>22</sup>But when they got up the next morning, the sun was shining across the water, making it appear red to the Moabites—like blood. <sup>23</sup>“It’s blood!” the Moabites exclaimed. “The three armies must have attacked and killed each other! Let’s go, men of Moab, and collect the plunder!”

<sup>24</sup>But when the Moabites arrived at the Israelite camp, the army of Israel rushed out and attacked them until they turned and ran. The army of Israel chased them into the land of Moab, destroying everything as they went.* <sup>25</sup>They destroyed the towns, covered their good land with stones, stopped up all the springs, and cut down all the good trees. Finally, only Kir-hareseth and its stone walls were left, but men with slings surrounded and attacked it.

<sup>26</sup>When the king of Moab saw that he was losing the battle, he led 700 of his swordsmen in a desperate attempt to break through the enemy lines near the king of Edom, but they failed.

<sup>27</sup>Then the king of Moab took his oldest son, who would have been the next king, and sacrificed him as a burnt offering on the wall. So there was great anger against Israel,* and the Israelites withdrew and returned to their own land.

2 Kings 4

Elisha Helps a Poor Widow

<sup>1</sup> One day the widow of a member of the group of prophets came to Elisha and cried out, “My husband who served you is dead, and you know how he feared the LORD. But now a creditor has come, threatening to take my two sons as slaves.”

<sup>2</sup> “What can I do to help you?” Elisha asked. “Tell me, what do you have in the house?”

“Nothing at all, except a flask of olive oil,” she replied.

<sup>3</sup> And Elisha said, “Borrow as many empty jars as you can from your friends and neighbors. <sup>4</sup> Then go into your house with your sons and shut the door behind you. Pour olive oil from your flask into the jars, setting each one aside when it is filled.”

<sup>5</sup> So she did as she was told. Her sons kept bringing jars to her, and she filled one after another. <sup>6</sup> Soon every container was full to the brim!

“Bring me another jar,” she said to one of her sons.

“There aren’t any more!” he told her. And then the olive oil stopped flowing.

<sup>7</sup> When she told the man of God what had happened, he said to her, “Now sell the olive oil and pay your debts, and you and your sons can live on what is left over.”

Elisha and the Woman from Shunem

<sup>8</sup> One day Elisha went to the town of Shunem. A wealthy woman lived there, and she urged him to come to her home for a meal. After that, whenever he passed that way, he would stop there for something to eat.

<sup>9</sup>She said to her husband, “I am sure this man who stops in from time to time is a holy man of God. <sup>10</sup>Let’s build a small room for him on the roof and furnish it with a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp. Then he will have a place to stay whenever he comes by.”

<sup>11</sup>One day Elisha returned to Shunem, and he went up to this upper room to rest. <sup>12</sup>He said to his servant Gehazi, “Tell the woman from Shunem I want to speak to her.” When she appeared, <sup>13</sup>Elisha said to Gehazi, “Tell her, ‘We appreciate the kind concern you have shown us. What can we do for you? Can we put in a good word for you to the king or to the commander of the army?’”

“No,” she replied, “my family takes good care of me.”

<sup>14</sup>Later Elisha asked Gehazi, “What can we do for her?”

Gehazi replied, “She doesn’t have a son, and her husband is an old man.”

<sup>15</sup>“Call her back again,” Elisha told him. When the woman returned, Elisha said to her as she stood in the doorway, <sup>16</sup>“Next year at this time you will be holding a son in your arms!”

“No, my lord!” she cried. “O man of God, don’t deceive me and get my hopes up like that.”

<sup>17</sup>But sure enough, the woman soon became pregnant. And at that time the following year she had a son, just as Elisha had said.

<sup>18</sup>One day when her child was older, he went out to help his father, who was working with the harvesters. <sup>19</sup>Suddenly he cried out, “My head hurts! My head hurts!”

His father said to one of the servants, “Carry him home to his mother.”

<sup>20</sup>So the servant took him home, and his mother held him on her lap. But around noontime he died. <sup>21</sup>She carried him up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, then shut the door and left him there. <sup>22</sup>She sent a message to her husband: “Send one of the servants and a donkey so that I can hurry to the man of God and come right back.”

<sup>23</sup>“Why go today?” he asked. “It is neither a new moon festival nor a Sabbath.”

But she said, “It will be all right.”

<sup>24</sup>So she saddled the donkey and said to the servant, “Hurry! Don’t slow down unless I tell you to.”

<sup>25</sup>As she approached the man of God at Mount Carmel, Elisha saw her in the distance. He said to Gehazi, “Look, the woman from Shunem is coming. <sup>26</sup>Run out to meet her and ask her, ‘Is everything all right with you, your husband, and your child?’”

“Yes,” the woman told Gehazi, “everything is fine.”

<sup>27</sup>But when she came to the man of God at the mountain, she fell to the ground before him and caught hold of his feet. Gehazi began to push her away, but the man of God said, “Leave her alone. She is deeply troubled, but the LORD has not told me what it is.”

<sup>28</sup>Then she said, “Did I ask you for a son, my lord? And didn't I say, 'Don't deceive me and get my hopes up'?"

<sup>29</sup>Then Elisha said to Gehazi, "Get ready to travel*; take my staff and go! Don't talk to anyone along the way. Go quickly and lay the staff on the child's face."

<sup>30</sup>But the boy's mother said, "As surely as the LORD lives and you yourself live, I won't go home unless you go with me." So Elisha returned with her.

<sup>31</sup>Gehazi hurried on ahead and laid the staff on the child's face, but nothing happened. There was no sign of life. He returned to meet Elisha and told him, "The child is still dead."

<sup>32</sup>When Elisha arrived, the child was indeed dead, lying there on the prophet's bed. <sup>33</sup>He went in alone and shut the door behind him and prayed to the LORD. <sup>34</sup>Then he lay down on the child's body, placing his mouth on the child's mouth, his eyes on the child's eyes, and his hands on the child's hands. And as he stretched out on him, the child's body began to grow warm again! <sup>35</sup>Elisha got up, walked back and forth across the room once, and then stretched himself out again on the child. This time the boy sneezed seven times and opened his eyes!

<sup>36</sup>Then Elisha summoned Gehazi. "Call the child's mother!" he said. And when she came in, Elisha said, "Here, take your son!" <sup>37</sup>She fell at his feet and bowed before him, overwhelmed with gratitude. Then she took her son in her arms and carried him downstairs.

Miracles during a Famine

<sup>38</sup>Elisha now returned to Gilgal, and there was a famine in the land. One day as the group of prophets was seated before him, he said to his servant, “Put a large pot on the fire, and make some stew for the rest of the group.”

<sup>39</sup>One of the young men went out into the field to gather herbs and came back with a pocketful of wild gourds. He shredded them and put them into the pot without realizing they were poisonous. <sup>40</sup>Some of the stew was served to the men. But after they had eaten a bite or two they cried out, “Man of God, there’s poison in this stew!” So they would not eat it.

<sup>41</sup>Elisha said, “Bring me some flour.” Then he threw it into the pot and said, “Now it’s all right; go ahead and eat.” And then it did not harm them.

<sup>42</sup>One day a man from Baal-shalishah brought the man of God a sack of fresh grain and twenty loaves of barley bread made from the first grain of his harvest. Elisha said, “Give it to the people so they can eat.”

But Elisha repeated, “Give it to the people so they can eat, for this is what the LORD says: Everyone will eat, and there will even be some left over!” <sup>44</sup>And when they gave it to the people, there was plenty for all and some left over, just as the LORD had promised.

God's Love for Widows

Naaman

2 Kings 5

The Healing of Naaman

<sup>1</sup> The king of Aram had great admiration for Naaman, the commander of his army, because through him the LORD had given Aram great victories. But though Naaman was a mighty warrior, he suffered from leprosy.*

<sup>2</sup>At this time Aramean raiders had invaded the land of Israel, and among their captives was a young girl who had been given to Naaman's wife as a maid. <sup>3</sup>One day the girl said to her mistress, "I wish my master would go to see the prophet in Samaria. He would heal him of his leprosy."

<sup>4</sup>So Naaman told the king what the young girl from Israel had said. <sup>5</sup>"Go and visit the prophet," the king of Aram told him. "I will send a letter of introduction for you to take to the king of Israel." So Naaman started out, carrying as gifts 750 pounds of silver, 150 pounds of gold,* and ten sets of clothing. <sup>6</sup>The letter to the king of Israel said: “With this letter I present my servant Naaman. I want you to heal him of his leprosy.”

<sup>7</sup>When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes in dismay and said, “This man sends me a leper to heal! Am I God, that I can give life and take it away? I can see that he’s just trying to pick a fight with me.”

<sup>8</sup>But when Elisha, the man of God, heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes in dismay, he sent this message to him: “Why are you so upset? Send Naaman to me, and he will learn that there is a true prophet here in Israel.”

<sup>9</sup> So Naaman went with his horses and chariots and waited at the door of Elisha’s house. <sup>10</sup>But Elisha sent a messenger out to him with this message: “Go and wash yourself seven times in the Jordan River. Then your skin will be restored, and you will be healed of your leprosy.”

<sup>11</sup>But Naaman became angry and stalked away. “I thought he would certainly come out to meet me!” he said. “I expected him to wave his hand over the leprosy and call on the name of the LORD his God and heal me! <sup>12</sup>Aren’t the rivers of Damascus, the Abana and the Pharpar, better than any of the rivers of Israel? Why shouldn’t I wash in them and be healed?” So Naaman turned and went away in a rage.

<sup>13</sup>But his officers tried to reason with him and said, “Sir,* if the prophet had told you to do something very difficult, wouldn’t you have done it? So you should certainly obey him when he says simply, ‘Go and wash and be cured!’” <sup>14</sup>So Naaman went down to the Jordan River and dipped himself seven times, as the man of God had instructed him. And his skin became as healthy as the skin of a young child's, and he was healed!

<sup>15</sup>Then Naaman and his entire party went back to find the man of God. They stood before him, and Naaman said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the world except in Israel. So please accept a gift from your servant."

<sup>16</sup>But Elisha replied, "As surely as the LORD lives, whom I serve, I will not accept any gifts." And though Naaman urged him to take the gift, Elisha refused.

<sup>17</sup>Then Naaman said, "All right, but please allow me to load two of my mules with earth from this place, and I will take it back home with me. From now on I will never again offer burnt offerings or sacrifices to any other god except the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>However, may the LORD pardon me in this one thing: When my master the king goes into the temple of the god Rimmon to worship there and leans on my arm, may the LORD pardon me when I bow, too."

<sup>19</sup>"Go in peace," Elisha said. So Naaman started home again.

The Greed of Gehazi

<sup>20</sup> But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha, the man of God, said to himself, "My master should not have let this Aramean get away without accepting any of his gifts. As surely as the LORD lives, I will chase after him and get something from him." <sup>21</sup>So Gehazi set off after Naaman.

When Naaman saw Gehazi running after him, he climbed down from his chariot and went to meet him. "Is everything all right?" Naaman asked.

<sup>22</sup>“Yes,” Gehazi said, “but my master has sent me to tell you that two young prophets from the hill country of Ephraim have just arrived. He would like 75 pounds* of silver and two sets of clothing to give to them.”

<sup>23</sup>“By all means, take twice as much* silver,” Naaman insisted. He gave him two sets of clothing, tied up the money in two bags, and sent two of his servants to carry the gifts for Gehazi. <sup>24</sup>But when they arrived at the citadel,* Gehazi took the gifts from the servants and sent the men back. Then he went and hid the gifts inside the house.

<sup>25</sup>When he went in to his master, Elisha asked him, “Where have you been, Gehazi?”

“I haven’t been anywhere,” he replied.

<sup>26</sup>But Elisha asked him, “Don’t you realize that I was there in spirit when Naaman stepped down from his chariot to meet you? Is this the time to receive money and clothing, olive groves and vineyards, sheep and cattle, and male and female servants? <sup>27</sup>Because you have done this, you and your descendants will suffer from Naaman’s leprosy forever.” When Gehazi left the room, he was covered with leprosy; his skin was white as snow.

2 Kings 6

The Floating Ax Head

<sup>1</sup> One day the group of prophets came to Elisha and told him, “As you can see, this place where we meet with you is too small. <sup>2</sup>Let’s go down to the Jordan River, where there are plenty of logs. There we can build a new place for us to meet.”

“All right,” he told them, “go ahead.”

<sup>3</sup>“Please come with us,” someone suggested.

“I will,” he said. <sup>4</sup>So he went with them.

When they arrived at the Jordan, they began cutting down trees. <sup>5</sup>But as one of them was cutting a tree, his ax head fell into the river. “Oh, sir!” he cried. “It was a borrowed ax!”

<sup>6</sup>“Where did it fall?” the man of God asked. When he showed him the place, Elisha cut a stick and threw it into the water at that spot. Then the ax head floated to the surface. <sup>7</sup>“Grab it,” Elisha said. And the man reached out and grabbed it.

Elisha Traps the Arameans

<sup>8</sup>When the king of Aram was at war with Israel, he would confer with his officers and say, “We will mobilize our forces at such and such a place.”

<sup>9</sup>But immediately Elisha, the man of God, would warn the king of Israel, “Do not go near that place, for the Arameans are planning to mobilize their troops there.” <sup>10</sup>So the king of Israel would send word to the place indicated by the man of God.

Time and again Elisha warned the king, so that he would be on the alert there.

<sup>11</sup>The king of Aram became very upset over this. He called his officers together and demanded, “Which of you is the traitor? Who has been informing the king of Israel of my plans?”

<sup>12</sup>“It’s not us, my lord the king,” one of the officers replied. “Elisha, the prophet in Israel, tells the king of Israel even the words you speak in the privacy of your bedroom!”

<sup>13</sup>“Go and find out where he is,” the king commanded, “so I can send troops to seize him.”

And the report came back: “Elisha is at Dothan.” <sup>14</sup> So one night the king of Aram sent a great army with many chariots and horses to surround the city.

<sup>15</sup>When the servant of the man of God got up early the next morning and went outside, there were troops, horses, and chariots everywhere. “Oh, sir, what will we do now?” the young man cried to Elisha.

<sup>16</sup>“Don’t be afraid!” Elisha told him. “For there are more on our side than on theirs!” <sup>17</sup>Then Elisha prayed, “O LORD, open his eyes and let him see!” The LORD opened the young man’s eyes, and when he looked up, he saw that the hillside around Elisha was filled with horses and chariots of fire.

<sup>18</sup>As the Aramean army advanced toward him, Elisha prayed, “O LORD, please make them blind.” So the LORD struck them with blindness as Elisha had asked.

<sup>19</sup>Then Elisha went out and told them, “You have come the wrong way! This isn’t the right city! Follow me, and I will take you to the man you are looking for.” And he led them to the city of Samaria.

<sup>20</sup>As soon as they had entered Samaria, Elisha prayed, “O LORD, now open their eyes and let them see.” So the LORD opened their eyes, and they discovered that they were in the middle of Samaria.

<sup>21</sup>When the king of Israel saw them, he shouted to Elisha, “My father, should I kill them? Should I kill them?”

<sup>22</sup>“Of course not!” Elisha replied. “Do we kill prisoners of war? Give them food and drink and send them home again to their master.”

<sup>23</sup>So the king made a great feast for them and then sent them home to their master. After that, the Aramean raiders stayed away from the land of Israel.

Ben-Hadad Besieges Samaria

<sup>24</sup>Some time later, however, King Ben-hadad of Aram mustered his entire army and besieged Samaria. <sup>25</sup>As a result, there was a great famine in the city. The siege lasted so long that a donkey’s head sold for eighty pieces of silver, and a cup of dove’s dung sold for five pieces* of silver.

<sup>26</sup>One day as the king of Israel was walking along the wall of the city, a woman called to him, “Please help me, my lord the king!”

<sup>27</sup>He answered, “If the LORD doesn’t help you, what can I do? I have neither food from the threshing floor nor wine from the press to give you.” <sup>28</sup>But then the king asked, “What is the matter?”

She replied, “This woman said to me: ‘Come on, let’s eat your son today, then we will eat my son tomorrow.’ <sup>29</sup>So we cooked my son and ate him. Then the next day I said to her, ‘Kill your son so we can eat him,’ but she has hidden her son.”

<sup>30</sup>When the king heard this, he tore his clothes in despair. And as the king walked along the wall, the people could see that he was wearing burlap under his robe next to his skin. <sup>31</sup>“May God strike me and even kill me if I don’t separate Elisha’s head from his shoulders this very day,” the king vowed.

<sup>32</sup>Elisha was sitting in his house with the elders of Israel when the king sent a messenger to summon him. But before the messenger arrived, Elisha said to the elders, “A murderer has sent a man to cut off my head. When he arrives, shut the door and keep him out. We will soon hear his master’s steps following him.”

<sup>33</sup>While Elisha was still saying this, the messenger arrived. And the king* said, “All this misery is from the LORD! Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?”

2 Kings 7

<sup>1</sup> Elisha replied, “Listen to this message from the LORD! This is what the LORD says: By this time tomorrow in the markets of Samaria, five quarts of choice flour will cost only one piece of silver,* and ten quarts of barley grain will cost only one piece of silver.*”

<sup>2</sup> The officer assisting the king said to the man of God, “That couldn’t happen even if the LORD opened the windows of heaven!”

But Elisha replied, “You will see it happen with your own eyes, but you won’t be able to eat any of it!”

Lepers Visit the Enemy Camp

<sup>3</sup> Now there were four men with leprosy* sitting at the entrance of the city gates. “Why should we sit here waiting to die?” they asked each other. <sup>4</sup> “We will starve if we stay here, but with the famine in the city, we will starve if we go back there. So we might as well go out and surrender to the Aramean army. If they let us live, so much the better. But if they kill us, we would have died anyway.”

<sup>5</sup> So at twilight they set out for the camp of the Arameans. But when they came to the edge of the camp, no one was there! <sup>6</sup> For the Lord had caused the Aramean army to hear the clatter of speeding chariots and the galloping of horses and the sounds of a great army approaching. “The king of Israel has hired the Hittites and Egyptians* to attack us!” they cried to one another. <sup>7</sup> So they panicked and ran into the night, abandoning their tents, horses, donkeys, and everything else, as they fled for their lives.

<sup>8</sup>When the lepers arrived at the edge of the camp, they went into one tent after another, eating and drinking wine; and they carried off silver and gold and clothing and hid it. <sup>9</sup>Finally, they said to each other, “This is not right. This is a day of good news, and we aren’t sharing it with anyone! If we wait until morning, some calamity will certainly fall upon us. Come on, let’s go back and tell the people at the palace.”

<sup>10</sup>So they went back to the city and told the gatekeepers what had happened. “We went out to the Aramean camp,” they said, “and no one was there! The horses and donkeys were tethered and the tents were all in order, but there wasn’t a single person around!” <sup>11</sup>Then the gatekeepers shouted the news to the people in the palace.

Israel Plunders the Camp

<sup>12</sup>The king got out of bed in the middle of the night and told his officers, “I know what has happened. The Arameans know we are starving, so they have left their camp and have hidden in the fields. They are expecting us to leave the city, and then they will take us alive and capture the city.”

<sup>13</sup>One of his officers replied, “We had better send out scouts to check into this. Let them take five of the remaining horses. If something happens to them, it will be no worse than if they stay here and die with the rest of us.”

<sup>14</sup>So two chariots with horses were prepared, and the king sent scouts to see what had happened to the Aramean army.

<sup>15</sup>They went all the way to the Jordan River, following a trail of clothing and equipment that the Arameans had thrown away in their mad rush to escape. The scouts returned and told the king about it. <sup>16</sup>Then the people of Samaria rushed out and plundered the Aramean camp. So it was true that five quarts of choice flour were sold that day for one piece of silver, and ten quarts of barley grain were sold for one piece of silver, just as the LORD had promised. <sup>17</sup>The king appointed his officer to control the traffic at the gate, but he was knocked down and trampled to death as the people rushed out.

So everything happened exactly as the man of God had predicted when the king came to his house. <sup>18</sup>The man of God had said to the king, “By this time tomorrow in the markets of Samaria, five quarts of choice flour will cost one piece of silver, and ten quarts of barley grain will cost one piece of silver.”

<sup>19</sup>The king’s officer had replied, “That couldn’t happen even if the LORD opened the windows of heaven!” And the man of God had said, “You will see it happen with your own eyes, but you won’t be able to eat any of it!” <sup>20</sup>And so it was, for the people trampled him to death at the gate!

2 Kings 8

The Woman from Shunem Returns Home

<sup>1</sup>Elisha had told the woman whose son he had brought back to life, “Take your family and move to some other place, for the LORD has called for a famine on Israel that will last for seven years.” <sup>2</sup>So the woman did as the man of God instructed. She took her family and settled in the land of the Philistines for seven years.

<sup>3</sup>After the famine ended she returned from the land of the Philistines, and she went to see the king about getting back her house and land. <sup>4</sup>As she came in, the king was talking with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God. The king had just said, “Tell me some stories about the great things Elisha has done.” <sup>5</sup>And Gehazi was telling the king about the time Elisha had brought a boy back to life. At that very moment, the mother of the boy walked in to make her appeal to the king about her house and land.

“Look, my lord the king!” Gehazi exclaimed. “Here is the woman now, and this is her son—the very one Elisha brought back to life!”

<sup>6</sup>“Is this true?” the king asked her. And she told him the story. So he directed one of his officials to see that everything she had lost was restored to her, including the value of any crops that had been harvested during her absence.

Hazael Murders Ben-Hadad

<sup>7</sup> Elisha went to Damascus, the capital of Aram, where King Ben-hadad lay sick. When someone told the king that the man of God had come, <sup>8</sup>the king said to Hazael, “Take a gift to the man of God. Then tell him to ask the LORD, ‘Will I recover from this illness?’”

<sup>9</sup>So Hazael loaded down forty camels with the finest products of Damascus as a gift for Elisha. He went to him and said, “Your servant Ben-hadad, the king of Aram, has sent me to ask, ‘Will I recover from this illness?’”

<sup>10</sup>And Elisha replied, “Go and tell him, ‘You will surely recover.’ But actually the LORD has shown me that he will surely die!” <sup>11</sup>Elisha stared at Hazael* with a fixed gaze until Hazael became uneasy.* Then the man of God started weeping.

Elisha replied, “I know the terrible things you will do to the people of Israel. You will burn their fortified cities, kill their young men with the sword, dash their little children to the ground, and rip open their pregnant women!”

Elisha answered, “The LORD has shown me that you are going to be the king of Aram.”

<sup>14</sup>When Hazael left Elisha and went back, the king asked him, “What did Elisha tell you?”

And Hazael replied, “He told me that you will surely recover.”

<sup>15</sup>But the next day Hazael took a blanket, soaked it in water, and held it over the king’s face until he died. Then Hazael became the next king of Aram.

Jehoram Rules in Judah

<sup>16</sup>Jehoram son of King Jehoshaphat of Judah began to rule over Judah in the fifth year of the reign of Joram son of Ahab, king of Israel. <sup>17</sup>Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. <sup>18</sup>But Jehoram followed the example of the kings of Israel and was as wicked as King Ahab, for he had married one of Ahab's daughters. So Jehoram did what was evil in the LORD's sight. <sup>19</sup>But the LORD did not want to destroy Judah, for he had made a covenant with David and promised that his descendants would continue to rule, shining like a lamp forever.

<sup>20</sup>During Jehoram's reign, the Edomites revolted against Judah and crowned their own king. <sup>21</sup>So Jehoram* went with all his chariots to attack the town of Zair.* The Edomites surrounded him and his chariot commanders, but he went out at night and attacked them* under cover of darkness. But Jehoram's army deserted him and fled to their homes. <sup>22</sup>So Edom has been independent from Judah to this day. The town of Libnah also revolted about that same time.

<sup>23</sup>The rest of the events in Jehoram's reign and everything he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah. <sup>24</sup>When Jehoram died, he was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. Then his son Ahaziah became the next king.

Ahaziah Rules in Judah

<sup>25</sup>Ahaziah son of Jehoram began to rule over Judah in the twelfth year of the reign of Joram son of Ahab, king of Israel.

<sup>26</sup>Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem one year. His mother was Athaliah, a granddaughter of King Omri of Israel. <sup>27</sup>Ahaziah followed the evil example of King Ahab's family. He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, just as Ahab's family had done, for he was related by marriage to the family of Ahab.

<sup>28</sup>Ahaziah joined Joram son of Ahab, the king of Israel, in his war against King Hazael of Aram at Ramoth-gilead. When the Arameans wounded King Joram in the battle, <sup>29</sup>he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds he had received at Ramoth.* Because Joram was wounded, King Ahaziah of Judah went to Jezreel to visit him.

Jehu

2 Kings 9

Jehu Anointed King of Israel

<sup>1</sup> Meanwhile, Elisha the prophet had summoned a member of the group of prophets. “Get ready to travel,”* he told him, “and take this flask of olive oil with you. Go to Ramoth-gilead,<sup>2</sup> and find Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi. Call him into a private room away from his friends,<sup>3</sup> and pour the oil over his head. Say to him, ‘This is what the LORD says: I anoint you to be the king over Israel.’ Then open the door and run for your life!”

<sup>4</sup> So the young prophet did as he was told and went to Ramoth-gilead. <sup>5</sup> When he arrived there, he found Jehu sitting around with the other army officers. “I have a message for you, Commander,” he said.

“For which one of us?” Jehu asked.

“For you, Commander,” he replied.

<sup>6</sup>So Jehu left the others and went into the house. Then the young prophet poured the oil over Jehu's head and said, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I anoint you king over the LORD's people, Israel. <sup>7</sup>You are to destroy the family of Ahab, your master. In this way, I will avenge the murder of my prophets and all the LORD's servants who were killed by Jezebel. <sup>8</sup>The entire family of Ahab must be wiped out. I will destroy every one of his male descendants, slave and free alike, anywhere in Israel. <sup>9</sup>I will destroy the family of Ahab as I destroyed the families of Jeroboam son of Nebat and of Baasha son of Ahijah. <sup>10</sup>Dogs will eat Ahab's wife Jezebel at the plot of land in Jezreel, and no one will bury her." Then the young prophet opened the door and ran.

<sup>11</sup>Jehu went back to his fellow officers, and one of them asked him, "What did that madman want? Is everything all right?"

"You know how a man like that babbles on," Jehu replied.

<sup>12</sup>"You're hiding something," they said. "Tell us."

So Jehu told them, "He said to me, 'This is what the LORD says: I have anointed you to be king over Israel.'"

<sup>13</sup>Then they quickly spread out their cloaks on the bare steps and blew the ram's horn, shouting, "Jehu is king!"

Jehu Kills Joram and Ahaziah

<sup>14</sup>So Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi, led a conspiracy against King Joram. (Now Joram had been with the army at Ramoth-gilead, defending Israel against the forces of King Hazael of Aram. <sup>15</sup>But King Joram* was wounded in the fighting and returned to Jezreel to recover from his wounds.)

So Jehu told the men with him, “If you want me to be king, don’t let anyone leave town and go to Jezreel to report what we have done.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Jehu got into a chariot and rode to Jezreel to find King Joram, who was lying there wounded. King Ahaziah of Judah was there, too, for he had gone to visit him. <sup>17</sup>The watchman on the tower of Jezreel saw Jehu and his company approaching, so he shouted to Joram, “I see a company of troops coming!”

“Send out a rider to ask if they are coming in peace,” King Joram ordered.

<sup>18</sup>So a horseman went out to meet Jehu and said, “The king wants to know if you are coming in peace.”

Jehu replied, “What do you know about peace? Fall in behind me!”

The watchman called out to the king, “The messenger has met them, but he’s not returning.”

<sup>19</sup>So the king sent out a second horseman. He rode up to them and said, “The king wants to know if you come in peace.”

Again Jehu answered, “What do you know about peace? Fall in behind me!”

<sup>20</sup>The watchman exclaimed, “The messenger has met them, but he isn’t returning either! It must be Jehu son of Nimshi, for he’s driving like a madman.”

Then King Joram of Israel and King Ahaziah of Judah rode out in their chariots to meet Jehu. They met him at the plot of land that had belonged to Naboth of Jezreel. <sup>22</sup>King Joram demanded, “Do you come in peace, Jehu?”

Jehu replied, “How can there be peace as long as the idolatry and witchcraft of your mother, Jezebel, are all around us?”

<sup>23</sup>Then King Joram turned the horses around* and fled, shouting to King Ahaziah, “Treason, Ahaziah!” <sup>24</sup>But Jehu drew his bow and shot Joram between the shoulders. The arrow pierced his heart, and he sank down dead in his chariot.

<sup>25</sup>Jehu said to Bidkar, his officer, “Throw him into the plot of land that belonged to Naboth of Jezreel. Do you remember when you and I were riding along behind his father, Ahab? The LORD pronounced this message against him: <sup>26</sup>‘I solemnly swear that I will repay him here on this plot of land, says the LORD, for the murder of Naboth and his sons that I saw yesterday.’ So throw him out on Naboth’s property, just as the LORD said.”

<sup>27</sup>When King Ahaziah of Judah saw what was happening, he fled along the road to Beth-haggan. Jehu rode after him, shouting, “Shoot him, too!” So they shot Ahaziah in his chariot at the Ascent of Gur, near Ibleam. He was able to go on as far as Megiddo, but he died there. <sup>28</sup>His servants took him by chariot to Jerusalem, where they buried him with his ancestors in the City of David. <sup>29</sup>Ahaziah had become king over Judah in the eleventh year of the reign of Joram son of Ahab.

The Death of Jezebel

<sup>30</sup>When Jezebel, the queen mother, heard that Jehu had come to Jezreel, she painted her eyelids and fixed her hair and sat at a window. <sup>31</sup>When Jehu entered the gate of the palace, she shouted at him, “Have you come in peace, you murderer? You’re just like Zimri, who murdered his master!”*

“Who is on my side?” And two or three eunuchs looked out at him. <sup>33</sup>“Throw her down!” Jehu yelled. So they threw her out the window, and her blood splattered against the wall and on the horses. And Jehu trampled her body under his horses’ hooves.

<sup>34</sup>Then Jehu went into the palace and ate and drank. Afterward he said, “Someone go and bury this cursed woman, for she is the daughter of a king.” <sup>35</sup>But when they went out to bury her, they found only her skull, her feet, and her hands.

<sup>36</sup>When they returned and told Jehu, he stated, “This fulfills the message from the LORD, which he spoke through his servant Elijah from Tishbe: ‘At the plot of land in Jezreel, dogs will eat Jezebel’s body. <sup>37</sup>Her remains will be scattered like dung on the plot of land in Jezreel, so that no one will be able to recognize her.’”

2 Kings 10

Jehu Kills Ahab's Family

<sup>1</sup>Ahab had seventy sons living in the city of Samaria. So Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the elders and officials of the city,* and to the guardians of King Ahab's sons. He said, <sup>2</sup>"The king's sons are with you, and you have at your disposal chariots, horses, a fortified city, and weapons. As soon as you receive this letter, <sup>3</sup>select the best qualified of your master's sons to be your king, and prepare to fight for Ahab's dynasty."

<sup>4</sup>But they were paralyzed with fear and said, "We've seen that two kings couldn't stand against this man! What can we do?"

<sup>5</sup>So the palace and city administrators, together with the elders and the guardians of the king's sons, sent this message to Jehu: "We are your servants and will do anything you tell us. We will not make anyone king; do whatever you think is best."

<sup>6</sup>Jehu responded with a second letter: "If you are on my side and are going to obey me, bring the heads of your master's sons to me at Jezreel by this time tomorrow." Now the seventy sons of the king were being cared for by the leaders of Samaria, where they had been raised since childhood. <sup>7</sup>When the letter arrived, the leaders killed all seventy of the king's sons. They placed their heads in baskets and presented them to Jehu at Jezreel.

<sup>8</sup>A messenger went to Jehu and said, “They have brought the heads of the king’s sons.”

So Jehu ordered, “Pile them in two heaps at the entrance of the city gate, and leave them there until morning.”

<sup>9</sup>In the morning he went out and spoke to the crowd that had gathered around them. “You are not to blame,” he told them. “I am the one who conspired against my master and killed him. But who killed all these? <sup>10</sup>You can be sure that the message of the LORD that was spoken concerning Ahab’s family will not fail. The LORD declared through his servant Elijah that this would happen.” <sup>11</sup>Then Jehu killed all who were left of Ahab’s relatives living in Jezreel and all his important officials, his personal friends, and his priests. So Ahab was left without a single survivor.

<sup>12</sup>Then Jehu set out for Samaria. Along the way, while he was at Beth-eked of the Shepherds, <sup>13</sup>he met some relatives of King Ahaziah of Judah. “Who are you?” he asked them.

And they replied, “We are relatives of King Ahaziah. We are going to visit the sons of King Ahab and the sons of the queen mother.”

<sup>14</sup>“Take them alive!” Jehu shouted to his men. And they captured all forty-two of them and killed them at the well of Beth-eked. None of them escaped.

<sup>15</sup>When Jehu left there, he met Jehonadab son of Recab, who was coming to meet him. After they had greeted each other, Jehu said to him, “Are you as loyal to me as I am to you?”

“Yes, I am,” Jehonadab replied.

“If you are,” Jehu said, “then give me your hand.” So Jehonadab put out his hand, and Jehu helped him into the chariot. <sup>16</sup>Then Jehu said, “Now come with me, and see how devoted I am to the LORD.” So Jehonadab rode along with him.

<sup>17</sup>When Jehu arrived in Samaria, he killed everyone who was left there from Ahab’s family, just as the LORD had promised through Elijah.

Jehu Kills the Priests of Baal

<sup>18</sup>Then Jehu called a meeting of all the people of the city and said to them, “Ahab’s worship of Baal was nothing compared to the way I will worship him! <sup>19</sup>Therefore, summon all the prophets and worshipers of Baal, and call together all his priests. See to it that every one of them comes, for I am going to offer a great sacrifice to Baal. Anyone who fails to come will be put to death.” But Jehu’s cunning plan was to destroy all the worshipers of Baal.

<sup>20</sup>Then Jehu ordered, “Prepare a solemn assembly to worship Baal!” So they did. <sup>21</sup>He sent messengers throughout all Israel summoning those who worshiped Baal. They all came—not a single one remained behind—and they filled the temple of Baal from one end to the other. <sup>22</sup>And Jehu instructed the keeper of the wardrobe, “Be sure that every worshiper of Baal wears one of these robes.” So robes were given to them.

<sup>23</sup>Then Jehu went into the temple of Baal with Jehonadab son of Recab. Jehu said to the worshipers of Baal, “Make sure no one who worships the LORD is here—only those who worship Baal.” <sup>24</sup>So they were all inside the temple to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had stationed eighty of his men outside the building and had warned them, “If you let anyone escape, you will pay for it with your own life.”

<sup>25</sup>As soon as Jehu had finished sacrificing the burnt offering, he commanded his guards and officers, “Go in and kill all of them. Don’t let a single one escape!” So they killed them all with their swords, and the guards and officers dragged their bodies outside.* Then Jehu’s men went into the innermost fortress* of the temple of Baal. <sup>26</sup>They dragged out the sacred pillar* used in the worship of Baal and burned it. <sup>27</sup>They smashed the sacred pillar and wrecked the temple of Baal, converting it into a public toilet, as it remains to this day.

<sup>28</sup>In this way, Jehu destroyed every trace of Baal worship from Israel. <sup>29</sup>He did not, however, destroy the gold calves at Bethel and Dan, with which Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to sin.

<sup>30</sup>Nonetheless the LORD said to Jehu, “You have done well in following my instructions to destroy the family of Ahab. Therefore, your descendants will be kings of Israel down to the fourth generation.” <sup>31</sup>But Jehu did not obey the Law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He refused to turn from the sins that Jeroboam had led Israel to commit.

The Death of Jehu

<sup>32</sup>At about that time the LORD began to cut down the size of Israel’s territory. King Hazael conquered several sections of the country <sup>33</sup>east of the Jordan River, including all of Gilead, Gad, Reuben, and Manasseh. He conquered the area from the town of Aroer by the Arnon Gorge to as far north as Gilead and Bashan.

<sup>34</sup>The rest of the events in Jehu's reign—everything he did and all his achievements—are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>35</sup>When Jehu died, he was buried in Samaria. Then his son Jehoahaz became the next king. <sup>36</sup>In all, Jehu reigned over Israel from Samaria for twenty-eight years.

2 Kings 11

Queen Athaliah Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup> When Athaliah, the mother of King Ahaziah of Judah, learned that her son was dead, she began to destroy the rest of the royal family. <sup>2</sup> But Ahaziah's sister Jehosheba, the daughter of King Jehoram,* took Ahaziah's infant son, Joash, and stole him away from among the rest of the king's children, who were about to be killed. She put Joash and his nurse in a bedroom to hide him from Athaliah, so the child was not murdered. <sup>3</sup> Joash remained hidden in the Temple of the LORD for six years while Athaliah ruled over the land.

Revolt against Athaliah

<sup>4</sup> In the seventh year of Athaliah's reign, Jehoiada the priest summoned the commanders, the Carite mercenaries, and the palace guards to come to the Temple of the LORD. He made a solemn pact with them and made them swear an oath of loyalty there in the LORD's Temple; then he showed them the king's son.

<sup>5</sup> Jehoiada told them, "This is what you must do. A third of you who are on duty on the Sabbath are to guard the royal palace itself. <sup>6</sup> Another third of you are to stand guard at the Sur Gate. And the final third must stand guard behind the palace guard. These three groups will all guard the palace. <sup>7</sup> The other two units who are off duty on the Sabbath must stand guard for the king at the LORD's Temple. <sup>8</sup>Form a bodyguard around the king and keep your weapons in hand. Kill anyone who tries to break through. Stay with the king wherever he goes."

<sup>9</sup>So the commanders did everything as Jehoiada the priest ordered. The commanders took charge of the men reporting for duty that Sabbath, as well as those who were going off duty. They brought them all to Jehoiada the priest, <sup>10</sup>and he supplied them with the spears and small shields that had once belonged to King David and were stored in the Temple of the LORD. <sup>11</sup>The palace guards stationed themselves around the king, with their weapons ready. They formed a line from the south side of the Temple around to the north side and all around the altar.

<sup>12</sup>Then Jehoiada brought out Joash, the king's son, placed the crown on his head, and presented him with a copy of God's laws.* They anointed him and proclaimed him king, and everyone clapped their hands and shouted, "Long live the king!"

The Death of Athaliah

<sup>13</sup>When Athaliah heard all the noise made by the palace guards and the people, she hurried to the LORD's Temple to see what was happening. <sup>14</sup>When she arrived, she saw the newly crowned king standing in his place of authority by the pillar, as was the custom at times of coronation. The commanders and trumpeters were surrounding him, and people from all over the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. When Athaliah saw all this, she tore her clothes in despair and shouted, "Treason!

Treason!”

<sup>15</sup>Then Jehoiada the priest ordered the commanders who were in charge of the troops, “Take her to the soldiers in front of the Temple,* and kill anyone who tries to rescue her.” For the priest had said, “She must not be killed in the Temple of the LORD.” <sup>16</sup>So they seized her and led her out to the gate where horses enter the palace grounds, and she was killed there.

Jehoiada’s Religious Reforms

<sup>17</sup>Then Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people that they would be the LORD’s people. He also made a covenant between the king and the people. <sup>18</sup>And all the people of the land went over to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They demolished the altars and smashed the idols to pieces, and they killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars.

Jehoiada the priest stationed guards at the Temple of the LORD. <sup>19</sup>Then the commanders, the Carite mercenaries, the palace guards, and all the people of the land escorted the king from the Temple of the LORD. They went through the gate of the guards and into the palace, and the king took his seat on the royal throne. <sup>20</sup>So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was peaceful because Athaliah had been killed at the king’s palace.

<sup>21</sup>*Joash* was seven years old when he became king.

2 Kings 12

Joash Repairs the Temple

<sup>1</sup>*Joash* began to rule over Judah in the seventh year of King Jehu's reign in Israel. He reigned in Jerusalem forty years. His mother was Zibiah from Beersheba. <sup>2</sup>All his life Joash did what was pleasing in the LORD's sight because Jehoiada the priest instructed him. <sup>3</sup>Yet even so, he did not destroy the pagan shrines, and the people still offered sacrifices and burned incense there.

<sup>4</sup>One day King Joash said to the priests, "Collect all the money brought as a sacred offering to the LORD's Temple, whether it is a regular assessment, a payment of vows, or a voluntary gift. <sup>5</sup>Let the priests take some of that money to pay for whatever repairs are needed at the Temple."

<sup>6</sup>But by the twenty-third year of Joash's reign, the priests still had not repaired the Temple. <sup>7</sup>So King Joash called for Jehoiada and the other priests and asked them, “Why haven’t you repaired the Temple? Don’t use any more money for your own needs. From now on, it must all be spent on Temple repairs.”<sup>8</sup> So the priests agreed not to accept any more money from the people, and they also agreed to let others take responsibility for repairing the Temple.

<sup>9</sup>Then Jehoiada the priest bored a hole in the lid of a large chest and set it on the right-hand side of the altar at the entrance of the Temple of the LORD. The priests guarding the entrance put all of the people’s contributions into the chest.<sup>10</sup> Whenever the chest became full, the court secretary and the high priest counted the money that had been brought to the LORD’s Temple and put it into bags.<sup>11</sup> Then they gave the money to the construction supervisors, who used it to pay the people working on the LORD’s Temple—the carpenters, the builders,<sup>12</sup> the masons, and the stonecutters. They also used the money to buy the timber and the finished stone needed for repairing the LORD’s Temple, and they paid any other expenses related to the Temple’s restoration.

<sup>13</sup>The money brought to the Temple was not used for making silver bowls, lamp snuffers, basins, trumpets, or other articles of gold or silver for the Temple of the LORD.<sup>14</sup> It was paid to the workmen, who used it for the Temple repairs.<sup>15</sup> No accounting of this money was required from the construction supervisors, because they were honest and trustworthy men.<sup>16</sup> However, the money that was contributed for guilt offerings and sin offerings was not brought into the LORD’s Temple. It was given to the priests for their own use.

The End of Joash's Reign

<sup>17</sup> About this time King Hazael of Aram went to war against Gath and captured it. Then he turned to attack Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup> King Joash collected all the sacred objects that Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah, the previous kings of Judah, had dedicated, along with what he himself had dedicated. He sent them all to Hazael, along with all the gold in the treasuries of the LORD's Temple and the royal palace. So Hazael called off his attack on Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup> The rest of the events in Joash's reign and everything he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah.

<sup>20</sup> Joash's officers plotted against him and assassinated him at Beth-millo on the road to Silla. <sup>21</sup> The assassins were Jozacar* son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer—both trusted advisers. Joash was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. Then his son Amaziah became the next king.

2 Kings 13

Jehoahaz Rules in Israel

<sup>1</sup> Jehoahaz son of Jehu began to rule over Israel in the twenty-third year of King Joash's reign in Judah. He reigned in Samaria seventeen years. <sup>2</sup>But he did what was evil in the LORD's sight. He followed the example of Jeroboam son of Nebat, continuing the sins that Jeroboam had led Israel to commit. <sup>3</sup>So the LORD was very angry with Israel, and he allowed King Hazael of Aram and his son Ben-hadad to defeat them repeatedly.

<sup>4</sup>Then Jehoahaz prayed for the LORD's help, and the LORD heard his prayer, for he could see how severely the king of Aram was oppressing Israel. <sup>5</sup>So the LORD provided someone to rescue the Israelites from the tyranny of the Arameans. Then Israel lived in safety again as they had in former days.

<sup>6</sup>But they continued to sin, following the evil example of Jeroboam. They also allowed the Asherah pole in Samaria to remain standing. <sup>7</sup>Finally, Jehoahaz's army was reduced to 50 charioteers, 10 chariots, and 10,000 foot soldiers. The king of Aram had killed the others, trampling them like dust under his feet.

<sup>8</sup>The rest of the events in Jehoahaz's reign—everything he did and the extent of his power—are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel. <sup>2</sup> When Jehoahaz died, he was buried in Samaria. Then his son Jehoash* became the next king.

Jehoash Rules in Israel

<sup>10</sup>Jehoash son of Jehoahaz began to rule over Israel in the thirty-seventh year of King Joash's reign in Judah. He reigned in Samaria sixteen years. <sup>11</sup>But he did what was evil in the LORD's sight. He refused to turn from the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel to commit.

<sup>12</sup>The rest of the events in Jehoash's reign and everything he did, including the extent of his power and his war with King Amaziah of Judah, are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel. <sup>13</sup>When Jehoash died, he was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. Then his son Jeroboam II became the next king.

Elisha's Final Prophecy

<sup>14</sup>When Elisha was in his last illness, King Jehoash of Israel visited him and wept over him. "My father! My father! I see the chariots and charioteers of Israel!" he cried.

<sup>15</sup>Elisha told him, "Get a bow and some arrows." And the king did as he was told. <sup>16</sup>Elisha told him, "Put your hand on the bow," and Elisha laid his own hands on the king's hands.

<sup>17</sup>Then he commanded, "Open that eastern window," and he opened it. Then he said, "Shoot!" So he shot an arrow. Elisha proclaimed, "This is the LORD's arrow, an arrow of victory over Aram, for you will completely conquer the Arameans at Aphek."

<sup>18</sup>Then he said, "Now pick up the other arrows and strike them against the ground." So the king picked them up and struck the ground three times. <sup>19</sup>But the man of God was angry with him. “You should have struck the ground five or six times!” he exclaimed. “Then you would have beaten Aram until it was entirely destroyed. Now you will be victorious only three times.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Elisha died and was buried.

Groups of Moabite raiders used to invade the land each spring. <sup>21</sup>Once when some Israelites were burying a man, they spied a band of these raiders. So they hastily threw the corpse into the tomb of Elisha and fled. But as soon as the body touched Elisha’s bones, the dead man revived and jumped to his feet!

<sup>22</sup>King Hazael of Aram had oppressed Israel during the entire reign of King Jehoahaz. <sup>23</sup>But the LORD was gracious and merciful to the people of Israel, and they were not totally destroyed. He pitied them because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. And to this day he still has not completely destroyed them or banished them from his presence.

<sup>24</sup>King Hazael of Aram died, and his son Ben-hadad became the next king. <sup>25</sup>Then Jehoash son of Jehoahaz recaptured from Ben-hadad son of Hazael the towns that had been taken from Jehoash’s father, Jehoahaz. Jehoash defeated Ben-hadad on three occasions, and he recovered the Israelite towns.

2 Kings 14

Amaziah Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Amaziah son of Joash began to rule over Judah in the second year of the reign of King Jehoash* of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother was Jehoaddin from Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>Amaziah did what was pleasing in the LORD's sight, but not like his ancestor David. Instead, he followed the example of his father, Joash. <sup>4</sup>Amaziah did not destroy the pagan shrines, and the people still offered sacrifices and burned incense there.

<sup>5</sup>When Amaziah was well established as king, he executed the officials who had assassinated his father. <sup>6</sup>However, he did not kill the children of the assassins, for he obeyed the command of the LORD as written by Moses in the Book of the Law: "Parents must not be put to death for the sins of their children, nor children for the sins of their parents. Those deserving to die must be put to death for their own crimes."*

<sup>7</sup>Amaziah also killed 10,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. He also conquered Sela and changed its name to Joktheel, as it is called to this day.

<sup>8</sup>One day Amaziah sent messengers with this challenge to Israel's king Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz and grandson of Jehu: "Come and meet me in battle!"* with this story: “Out in the Lebanon mountains, a thistle sent a message to a mighty cedar tree: ‘Give your daughter in marriage to my son.’ But just then a wild animal of Lebanon came by and stepped on the thistle, crushing it!

<sup>10</sup>“You have indeed defeated Edom, and you are very proud of it. But be content with your victory and stay at home! Why stir up trouble that will only bring disaster on you and the people of Judah?”

<sup>12</sup>Judah was routed by the army of Israel, and its army scattered and fled for home. <sup>13</sup>King Jehoash of Israel captured Judah’s king, Amaziah son of Joash and grandson of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh. Then he marched to Jerusalem, where he demolished 600 feet* of Jerusalem’s wall, from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate. <sup>14</sup>He carried off all the gold and silver and all the articles from the Temple of the LORD. He also seized the treasures from the royal palace, along with hostages, and then returned to Samaria.

<sup>15</sup>The rest of the events in Jehoash’s reign and everything he did, including the extent of his power and his war with King Amaziah of Judah, are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel. <sup>16</sup>When Jehoash died, he was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. And his son Jeroboam II became the next king.

<sup>17</sup>King Amaziah of Judah lived for fifteen years after the death of King Jehoash of Israel. <sup>18</sup>The rest of the events in Amaziah's reign are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah.

<sup>19</sup>There was a conspiracy against Amaziah's life in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. But his enemies sent assassins after him, and they killed him there. <sup>20</sup>They brought his body back to Jerusalem on a horse, and he was buried with his ancestors in the City of David.

<sup>21</sup>All the people of Judah had crowned Amaziah's sixteen-year-old son, Uzziah,* as king in place of his father, Amaziah.

Jeroboam II Rules in Israel

<sup>23</sup>Jeroboam II, the son of Jehoash, began to rule over Israel in the fifteenth year of King Amaziah's reign in Judah. Jeroboam reigned in Samaria forty-one years. <sup>24</sup>He did what was evil in the LORD's sight. He refused to turn from the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel to commit. <sup>25</sup>Jeroboam II recovered the territories of Israel between Lebo-hamath and the Dead Sea,* just as the LORD, the God of Israel, had promised through Jonah son of Amittai, the prophet from Gath-hepher.

<sup>26</sup>For the LORD saw the bitter suffering of everyone in Israel, and that there was no one in Israel, slave or free, to help them.

<sup>27</sup>And because the LORD had not said he would blot out the name of Israel completely, he used Jeroboam II, the son of Jehoash, to save them.

<sup>28</sup>The rest of the events in the reign of Jeroboam II and everything he did—including the extent of his power, his wars, and how he recovered for Israel both Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah*—are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel.<sup>29</sup> When Jeroboam II died, he was buried in Samaria* with the kings of Israel. Then his son Zechariah became the next king.

2 Kings 15

Uzziah Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup> Uzziah* son of Amaziah began to rule over Judah in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of King Jeroboam II of Israel. <sup>2</sup>He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-two years. His mother was Jecoliah from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>He did what was pleasing in the LORD's sight, just as his father, Amaziah, had done. <sup>4</sup>But he did not destroy the pagan shrines, and the people still offered sacrifices and burned incense there. <sup>5</sup>The LORD struck the king with leprosy,* which lasted until the day he died. He lived in isolation in a separate house. The king's son Jotham was put in charge of the royal palace, and he governed the people of the land.

<sup>6</sup>The rest of the events in Uzziah's reign and everything he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah. <sup>7</sup>When Uzziah died, he was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. And his son Jotham became the next king.

Zechariah Rules in Israel

<sup>8</sup> Zechariah son of Jeroboam II began to rule over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of King Uzziah's reign in Judah. He reigned in Samaria six months. <sup>9</sup>Zechariah did what was evil in the LORD's sight, as his ancestors had done. He refused to turn from the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel to commit.<sup>10</sup>Then Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against Zechariah, assassinated him in public,* and became the next king.

<sup>11</sup>The rest of the events in Zechariah's reign are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel.<sup>12</sup>So the LORD's message to Jehu came true: "Your descendants will be kings of Israel down to the fourth generation."

Shallum Rules in Israel

<sup>13</sup>Shallum son of Jabesh began to rule over Israel in the thirty-ninth year of King Uzziah's reign in Judah. Shallum reigned in Samaria only one month.<sup>14</sup>Then Menahem son of Gadi went to Samaria from Tirzah and assassinated him, and he became the next king.

<sup>15</sup>The rest of the events in Shallum's reign, including his conspiracy, are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel.

Menahem Rules in Israel

<sup>16</sup>At that time Menahem destroyed the town of Tappuah* and all the surrounding countryside as far as Tirzah, because its citizens refused to surrender the town. He killed the entire population and ripped open the pregnant women.

<sup>17</sup>Menahem son of Gadi began to rule over Israel in the thirty-ninth year of King Uzziah's reign in Judah. He reigned in Samaria ten years.<sup>18</sup>But Menahem did what was evil in the LORD's sight. During his entire reign, he refused to turn from the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel to commit.

<sup>19</sup>Then King Tiglath-pileser* of Assyria invaded the land. But Menahem paid him thirty-seven tons* of silver to gain his support in tightening his grip on royal power. <sup>20</sup>Menahem extorted the money from the rich of Israel, demanding that each of them pay fifty pieces* of silver to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned from attacking Israel and did not stay in the land.

<sup>21</sup>The rest of the events in Menahem's reign and everything he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel. <sup>22</sup>When Menahem died, his son Pekahiah became the next king.

Pekahiah Rules in Israel

<sup>23</sup>Pekahiah son of Menahem began to rule over Israel in the fiftieth year of King Uzziah's reign in Judah. He reigned in Samaria two years. <sup>24</sup>But Pekahiah did what was evil in the LORD's sight. He refused to turn from the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel to commit.

<sup>25</sup>Then Pekah son of Remaliah, the commander of Pekahiah's army, conspired against him. With fifty men from Gilead, Pekah assassinated the king, along with Argob and Arieah, in the citadel of the palace at Samaria. And Pekah reigned in his place.

<sup>26</sup>The rest of the events in Pekahiah's reign and everything he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel.

Pekah Rules in Israel

<sup>27</sup>Pekah son of Remaliah began to rule over Israel in the fifty-second year of King Uzziah's reign in Judah. He reigned in Samaria twenty years.<sup>28</sup> But Pekah did what was evil in the LORD's sight. He refused to turn from the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel to commit.

<sup>29</sup>During Pekah's reign, King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria attacked Israel again, and he captured the towns of Ijon, Abel-beth-maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, and Hazor. He also conquered the regions of Gilead, Galilee, and all of Naphtali, and he took the people to Assyria as captives.<sup>30</sup> Then Hoshea son of Elah conspired against Pekah and assassinated him. He began to rule over Israel in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah.

<sup>31</sup>The rest of the events in Pekah's reign and everything he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel.

Jotham Rules in Judah

<sup>32</sup>Jotham son of Uzziah began to rule over Judah in the second year of King Pekah's reign in Israel.<sup>33</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. His mother was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.

<sup>34</sup>Jotham did what was pleasing in the LORD's sight. He did everything his father, Uzziah, had done.<sup>35</sup> But he did not destroy the pagan shrines, and the people still offered sacrifices and burned incense there. He rebuilt the upper gate of the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>36</sup>The rest of the events in Jotham's reign and everything he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah.<sup>37</sup> In those days the LORD began to send King Rezin of Aram and King Pekah of Israel to attack Judah. <sup>38</sup>When Jotham died, he was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. And his son Ahaz became the next king.

2 Kings 16

Ahaz Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup> Ahaz son of Jotham began to rule over Judah in the seventeenth year of King Pekah's reign in Israel. <sup>2</sup>Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. He did not do what was pleasing in the sight of the LORD his God, as his ancestor David had done. <sup>3</sup>Instead, he followed the example of the kings of Israel, even sacrificing his own son in the fire.* In this way, he followed the detestable practices of the pagan nations the LORD had driven from the land ahead of the Israelites. <sup>4</sup>He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the pagan shrines and on the hills and under every green tree.

<sup>5</sup> Then King Rezin of Aram and King Pekah of Israel came up to attack Jerusalem. They besieged Ahaz but could not conquer him. <sup>6</sup>At that time the king of Edom* recovered the town of Elath for Edom.* He drove out the people of Judah and sent Edomites* to live there, as they do to this day.

<sup>7</sup>King Ahaz sent messengers to King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria with this message: "I am your servant and your vassal.* Come up and rescue me from the attacking armies of Aram and Israel." <sup>8</sup>Then Ahaz took the silver and gold from the Temple of the LORD and the palace treasury and sent it as a payment to the Assyrian king. <sup>9</sup>So the king of Assyria attacked the Aramean capital of Damascus and led its population away as captives, resettling them in Kir. He also killed King Rezin.

<sup>10</sup>King Ahaz then went to Damascus to meet with King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria. While he was there, he took special note of the altar. Then he sent a model of the altar to Uriah the priest, along with its design in full detail. <sup>11</sup>Uriah followed the king's instructions and built an altar just like it, and it was ready before the king returned from Damascus. <sup>12</sup>When the king returned, he inspected the altar and made offerings on it. <sup>13</sup>He presented a burnt offering and a grain offering, he poured out a liquid offering, and he sprinkled the blood of peace offerings on the altar.

<sup>14</sup>Then King Ahaz removed the old bronze altar from its place in front of the LORD's Temple, between the entrance and the new altar, and placed it on the north side of the new altar. <sup>15</sup>He told Uriah the priest, "Use the new altar* for the morning sacrifices of burnt offering, the evening grain offering, the king's burnt offering and grain offering, and the burnt offerings of all the people, as well as their grain offerings and liquid offerings. Sprinkle the blood from all the burnt offerings and sacrifices on the new altar. The bronze altar will be for my personal use only." <sup>16</sup>Uriah the priest did just as King Ahaz commanded him.

<sup>17</sup>Then the king removed the side panels and basins from the portable water carts. He also removed the great bronze basin called the Sea from the backs of the bronze oxen and placed it on the stone pavement. <sup>18</sup>In deference to the king of Assyria, he also removed the canopy that had been constructed inside the palace for use on the Sabbath day,* as well as the king's outer entrance to the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>The rest of the events in Ahaz's reign and everything he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah. <sup>20</sup>When Ahaz died, he was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. Then his son Hezekiah became the next king.

2 Kings 17

Hoshea Rules in Israel

<sup>1</sup> Hoshea son of Elah began to rule over Israel in the twelfth year of King Ahaz's reign in Judah. He reigned in Samaria nine years. <sup>2</sup>He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, but not to the same extent as the kings of Israel who ruled before him.

<sup>3</sup>King Shalmaneser of Assyria attacked King Hoshea, so Hoshea was forced to pay heavy tribute to Assyria. <sup>4</sup>But Hoshea stopped paying the annual tribute and conspired against the king of Assyria by asking King So of Egypt* to help him shake free of Assyria's power. When the king of Assyria discovered this treachery, he seized Hoshea and put him in prison.

Samaria Falls to Assyria

<sup>5</sup>Then the king of Assyria invaded the entire land, and for three years he besieged the city of Samaria. <sup>6</sup>Finally, in the ninth year of King Hoshea's reign, Samaria fell, and the people of Israel were exiled to Assyria. They were settled in colonies in Halah, along the banks of the Habor River in Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

<sup>7</sup>This disaster came upon the people of Israel because they worshiped other gods. They sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them safely out of Egypt and had rescued them from the power of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. <sup>8</sup>They had followed the practices of the pagan nations the LORD had driven from the land ahead of them, as well as the practices the kings of Israel had introduced.<sup>9</sup> The people of Israel had also secretly done many things that were not pleasing to the LORD their God. They built pagan shrines for themselves in all their towns, from the smallest outpost to the largest walled city.<sup>10</sup> They set up sacred pillars and Asherah poles at the top of every hill and under every green tree.<sup>11</sup> They offered sacrifices on all the hilltops, just like the nations the LORD had driven from the land ahead of them. So the people of Israel had done many evil things, arousing the LORD's anger.<sup>12</sup> Yes, they worshiped idols,* despite the LORD's specific and repeated warnings.

<sup>13</sup>Again and again the LORD had sent his prophets and seers to warn both Israel and Judah: "Turn from all your evil ways. Obey my commands and decrees—the entire law that I commanded your ancestors to obey, and that I gave you through my servants the prophets."

<sup>14</sup>But the Israelites would not listen. They were as stubborn as their ancestors who had refused to believe in the LORD their God.<sup>15</sup> They rejected his decrees and the covenant he had made with their ancestors, and they despised all his warnings. They worshiped worthless idols, so they became worthless themselves. They followed the example of the nations around them, disobeying the LORD's command not to imitate them.

<sup>16</sup>They rejected all the commands of the LORD their God and made two calves from metal. They set up an Asherah pole and worshiped Baal and all the forces of heaven.<sup>17</sup> They even sacrificed their own sons and daughters in the fire.* They consulted fortune-tellers and practiced sorcery and sold themselves to evil, arousing the LORD's anger.

<sup>18</sup>Because the LORD was very angry with Israel, he swept them away from his presence. Only the tribe of Judah remained in the land. <sup>19</sup>But even the people of Judah refused to obey the commands of the LORD their God, for they followed the evil practices that Israel had introduced. <sup>20</sup>The LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel. He punished them by handing them over to their attackers until he had banished Israel from his presence.

<sup>21</sup>For when the LORD* tore Israel away from the kingdom of David, they chose Jeroboam son of Nebat as their king. But Jeroboam drew Israel away from following the LORD and made them commit a great sin. <sup>22</sup>And the people of Israel persisted in all the evil ways of Jeroboam. They did not turn from these sins <sup>23</sup>until the LORD finally swept them away from his presence, just as all his prophets had warned. So Israel was exiled from their land to Assyria, where they remain to this day.

Foreigners Settle in Israel

<sup>24</sup>The king of Assyria transported groups of people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim and resettled them in the towns of Samaria, replacing the people of Israel. They took possession of Samaria and lived in its towns. <sup>25</sup>But since these foreign settlers did not worship the LORD when they first arrived, the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them.

<sup>26</sup>So a message was sent to the king of Assyria: "The people you have sent to live in the towns of Samaria do not know the religious customs of the God of the land. He has sent lions among them to destroy them because they have not worshiped him correctly.”

<sup>27</sup>The king of Assyria then commanded, “Send one of the exiled priests back to Samaria. Let him live there and teach the new residents the religious customs of the God of the land.”

<sup>28</sup>So one of the priests who had been exiled from Samaria returned to Bethel and taught the new residents how to worship the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>But these various groups of foreigners also continued to worship their own gods. In town after town where they lived, they placed their idols at the pagan shrines that the people of Samaria had built. <sup>30</sup>Those from Babylon worshiped idols of their god Succoth-benoth. Those from Cuthah worshiped their god Nergal. And those from Hamath worshiped Ashima. <sup>31</sup>The Avvites worshiped their gods Nibhaz and Tartak. And the people from Sepharvaim even burned their own children as sacrifices to their gods Adrammelech and Anammelech.

<sup>32</sup>These new residents worshiped the LORD, but they also appointed from among themselves all sorts of people as priests to offer sacrifices at their places of worship. <sup>33</sup>And though they worshiped the LORD, they continued to follow their own gods according to the religious customs of the nations from which they came. <sup>34</sup>And this is still going on today. They continue to follow their former practices instead of truly worshiping the LORD and obeying the decrees, regulations, instructions, and commands he gave the descendants of Jacob, whose name he changed to Israel.

<sup>35</sup>For the LORD had made a covenant with the descendants of Jacob and commanded them: “Do not worship any other gods or bow before them or serve them or offer sacrifices to them.

<sup>36</sup>But worship only the LORD, who brought you out of Egypt with great strength and a powerful arm. Bow down to him alone, and offer sacrifices only to him. <sup>37</sup>Be careful at all times to obey the decrees, regulations, instructions, and commands that he wrote for you. You must not worship other gods. <sup>38</sup>Do not forget the covenant I made with you, and do not worship other gods. <sup>39</sup>You must worship only the LORD your God. He is the one who will rescue you from all your enemies.”

<sup>40</sup>But the people would not listen and continued to follow their former practices. <sup>41</sup>So while these new residents worshiped the LORD, they also worshiped their idols. And to this day their descendants do the same.

2 Kings 18

Hezekiah Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup> Hezekiah son of Ahaz began to rule over Judah in the third year of King Hoshea's reign in Israel. <sup>2</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother was Abijah,* the daughter of Zechariah. <sup>3</sup>He did what was pleasing in the LORD's sight, just as his ancestor David had done. <sup>4</sup>He removed the pagan shrines, smashed the sacred pillars, and cut down the Asherah poles. He broke up the bronze serpent that Moses had made, because the people of Israel had been offering sacrifices to it. The bronze serpent was called Nehushtan.*

<sup>5</sup>Hezekiah trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel. There was no one like him among all the kings of Judah, either before or after his time. <sup>6</sup>He remained faithful to the LORD in everything, and he carefully obeyed all the commands the LORD had given Moses. <sup>7</sup>So the LORD was with him, and Hezekiah was successful in everything he did. He revolted against the king of Assyria and refused to pay him tribute. <sup>8</sup>He also conquered the Philistines as far distant as Gaza and its territory, from their smallest outpost to their largest walled city.

<sup>9</sup> During the fourth year of Hezekiah's reign, which was the seventh year of King Hoshea's reign in Israel, King Shalmaneser of Assyria attacked the city of Samaria and began a siege against it. <sup>10</sup>Three years later, during the sixth year of King Hezekiah's reign and the ninth year of King Hoshea's reign in Israel, Samaria fell.<sup>11</sup> At that time the king of Assyria exiled the Israelites to Assyria and placed them in colonies in Halah, along the banks of the Habor River in Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.<sup>12</sup> For they refused to listen to the LORD their God and obey him. Instead, they violated his covenant—all the laws that Moses the LORD's servant had commanded them to obey.

Assyria Invades Judah

<sup>13</sup>In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah's reign,* King Sennacherib of Assyria came to attack the fortified towns of Judah and conquered them.<sup>14</sup> King Hezekiah sent this message to the king of Assyria at Lachish: "I have done wrong. I will pay whatever tribute money you demand if you will only withdraw." The king of Assyria then demanded a settlement of more than eleven tons of silver and one ton of gold.*<sup>15</sup> To gather this amount, King Hezekiah used all the silver stored in the Temple of the LORD and in the palace treasury.<sup>16</sup> Hezekiah even stripped the gold from the doors of the LORD's Temple and from the doorposts he had overlaid with gold, and he gave it all to the Assyrian king.

<sup>17</sup> Nevertheless, the king of Assyria sent his commander in chief, his field commander, and his chief of staff* from Lachish with a huge army to confront King Hezekiah in Jerusalem. The Assyrians took up a position beside the aqueduct that feeds water into the upper pool, near the road leading to the field where cloth is washed.*<sup>18</sup> They summoned King Hezekiah, but the king sent these officials to meet with them: Eliakim son of Hilkiah, the palace administrator; Shebna the court secretary; and Joah son of Asaph, the royal historian.

Sennacherib Threatens Jerusalem

<sup>19</sup>Then the Assyrian king's chief of staff told them to give this message to Hezekiah:

“This is what the great king of Assyria says: What are you trusting in that makes you so confident? <sup>20</sup>Do you think that mere words can substitute for military skill and strength? Who are you counting on, that you have rebelled against me? <sup>21</sup>On Egypt? If you lean on Egypt, it will be like a reed that splinters beneath your weight and pierces your hand. Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, is completely unreliable!

<sup>22</sup>“But perhaps you will say to me, ‘We are trusting in the LORD our God!’ But isn’t he the one who was insulted by Hezekiah? Didn’t Hezekiah tear down his shrines and altars and make everyone in Judah and Jerusalem worship only at the altar here in Jerusalem?

<sup>23</sup>“I’ll tell you what! Strike a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria. I will give you 2,000 horses if you can find that many men to ride on them! <sup>24</sup>With your tiny army, how can you think of challenging even the weakest contingent of my master’s troops, even with the help of Egypt’s chariots and charioteers? <sup>25</sup>What’s more, do you think we have invaded your land without the LORD’s direction? The LORD himself told us, ‘Attack this land and destroy it!’”

<sup>26</sup>Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Shebna, and Joah said to the Assyrian chief of staff, “Please speak to us in Aramaic, for we understand it well. Don’t speak in Hebrew,* for the people on the wall will hear.”

<sup>27</sup>But Sennacherib’s chief of staff replied, “Do you think my master sent this message only to you and your master? He wants all the people to hear it, for when we put this city under siege, they will suffer along with you. They will be so hungry and thirsty that they will eat their own dung and drink their own urine.”

<sup>28</sup>Then the chief of staff stood and shouted in Hebrew to the people on the wall, “Listen to this message from the great king of Assyria! <sup>29</sup>This is what the king says: Don’t let Hezekiah deceive you. He will never be able to rescue you from my power. <sup>30</sup>Don’t let him fool you into trusting in the LORD by saying, ‘The LORD will surely rescue us. This city will never fall into the hands of the Assyrian king!’

<sup>31</sup>“Don’t listen to Hezekiah! These are the terms the king of Assyria is offering: Make peace with me—open the gates and come out. Then each of you can continue eating from your own grapevine and fig tree and drinking from your own well.

<sup>32</sup>Then I will arrange to take you to another land like this one—a land of grain and new wine, bread and vineyards, olive groves and honey. Choose life instead of death!

“Don’t listen to Hezekiah when he tries to mislead you by saying, ‘The LORD will rescue us!’ <sup>33</sup>Have the gods of any other nations ever saved their people from the king of Assyria? <sup>34</sup>What happened to the gods of Hamath and Arpad? And what about the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Did any god rescue Samaria from my power? <sup>35</sup>What god of any nation has ever been able to save its people from my power? So what makes you think that the LORD can rescue Jerusalem from me?”

<sup>36</sup>But the people were silent and did not utter a word because Hezekiah had commanded them, “Do not answer him.”

<sup>37</sup>Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, the palace administrator; Shebna the court secretary; and Joah son of Asaph, the royal historian, went back to Hezekiah. They tore their clothes in despair, and they went in to see the king and told him what the Assyrian chief of staff had said.

2 Kings 19

Hezekiah Seeks the LORD's Help

<sup>1</sup>When King Hezekiah heard their report, he tore his clothes and put on burlap and went into the Temple of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>And he sent Eliakim the palace administrator, Shebna the court secretary, and the leading priests, all dressed in burlap, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz. <sup>3</sup>They told him, “This is what King Hezekiah says: Today is a day of trouble, insults, and disgrace. It is like when a child is ready to be born, but the mother has no strength to deliver the baby. <sup>4</sup>But perhaps the LORD your God has heard the Assyrian chief of staff,* sent by the king to defy the living God, and will punish him for his words. Oh, pray for those of us who are left!”

<sup>9</sup>Soon afterward King Sennacherib received word that King Tirhakah of Ethiopia* was leading an army to fight against him.

Before leaving to meet the attack, he sent messengers back to Hezekiah in Jerusalem with this message:

<sup>10</sup>“This message is for King Hezekiah of Judah. Don’t let your God, in whom you trust, deceive you with promises that Jerusalem will not be captured by the king of Assyria.

<sup>11</sup>You know perfectly well what the kings of Assyria have done wherever they have gone. They have completely destroyed everyone who stood in their way! Why should you be any different? <sup>12</sup>Have the gods of other nations rescued them—such nations as Gozan, Haran, Rezep, and the people of Eden who were in Tel-assar? My predecessors destroyed them all! <sup>13</sup>What happened to the king of Hamath and the king of Arpad? What happened to the kings of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?”

<sup>14</sup>After Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it, he went up to the LORD’s Temple and spread it out before the LORD. <sup>15</sup>And Hezekiah prayed this prayer before the LORD: “O LORD, God of Israel, you are enthroned between the mighty cherubim! You alone are God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You alone created the heavens and the earth. <sup>16</sup>Bend down, O LORD, and listen! Open your eyes, O LORD, and see! Listen to Sennacherib’s words of defiance against the living God.

<sup>17</sup>“It is true, LORD, that the kings of Assyria have destroyed all these nations. <sup>18</sup>And they have thrown the gods of these nations into the fire and burned them. But of course the Assyrians could destroy them! They were not gods at all—only idols of wood and stone shaped by human hands. <sup>19</sup>Now, O LORD our God, rescue us from his power; then all the kingdoms of the earth will know that you alone, O LORD, are God.”

Isaiah Predicts Judah's Deliverance

<sup>20</sup>Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekiah: “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I have heard your prayer about King Sennacherib of Assyria. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD has spoken this word against him:

“The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and laughs at you.
The daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head in derision as you flee.

<sup>22</sup>“Whom have you been defying and ridiculing?
Against whom did you raise your voice?
At whom did you look with such haughty eyes?
It was the Holy One of Israel!

<sup>23</sup>By your messengers you have defied the Lord.
You have said, ‘With my many chariots
I have conquered the highest mountains—
yes, the remotest peaks of Lebanon.
I have cut down its tallest cedars and its finest cypress trees.
I have reached its farthest corners and explored its deepest forests.

<sup>24</sup>I have dug wells in many foreign lands and refreshed myself with their water.
With the sole of my foot
I stopped up all the rivers of Egypt!’

<sup>25</sup>“But have you not heard?
I decided this long ago.
Long ago I planned it,
and now I am making it happen.
I planned for you to crush fortified cities into heaps of rubble.
<sup>26</sup>That is why their people have so little power and are so frightened and confused.
They are as weak as grass, as easily trampled as tender green shoots.
They are like grass sprouting on a housetop, scorched before it can grow lush and tall.

<sup>27</sup>“But I know you well—where you stay and when you come and go.
I know the way you have raged against me.
<sup>28</sup>And because of your raging against me and your arrogance, which I have heard for myself, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth.
I will make you return
by the same road on which you came.”

<sup>29</sup>Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Here is the proof that what I say is true:

“This year you will eat only what grows up by itself, and next year you will eat what springs up from that.
But in the third year you will plant crops and harvest them;
you will tend vineyards and eat their fruit.

<sup>30</sup>And you who are left in Judah, who have escaped the ravages of the siege, will put roots down in your own soil and will grow up and flourish.

<sup>31</sup>For a remnant of my people will spread out from Jerusalem, a group of survivors from Mount Zion.

The passionate commitment of the LORD of Heaven’s Armies* will make this happen!

<sup>32</sup>“And this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria:

“His armies will not enter Jerusalem.
They will not even shoot an arrow at it.
They will not march outside its gates with their shields nor build banks of earth against its walls.

<sup>33</sup>The king will return to his own country by the same road on which he came.
He will not enter this city, says the LORD.

<sup>34</sup>For my own honor and for the sake of my servant David,
I will defend this city and protect it.”

<sup>35</sup>That night the angel of the LORD went out to the Assyrian camp and killed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers. When the surviving Assyrians* woke up the next morning, they found corpses everywhere. <sup>36</sup>Then King Sennacherib of Assyria broke camp and returned to his own land. He went home to his capital of Nineveh and stayed there.

<sup>37</sup>One day while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons* Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with their swords. They then escaped to the land of Ararat, and another son, Esarhaddon, became the next king of Assyria.

2 Kings 20

Hezekiah's Sickness and Recovery

<sup>1</sup>About that time Hezekiah became deathly ill, and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to visit him. He gave the king this message: "This is what the LORD says: Set your affairs in order, for you are going to die. You will not recover from this illness."

<sup>2</sup>When Hezekiah heard this, he turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, <sup>3</sup>"Remember, O LORD, how I have always been faithful to you and have served you single-mindedly, always doing what pleases you." Then he broke down and wept bitterly.

<sup>4</sup>But before Isaiah had left the middle courtyard,* this message came to him from the LORD: <sup>5</sup>"Go back to Hezekiah, the leader of my people. Tell him, 'This is what the LORD, the God of your ancestor David, says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears. I will heal you, and three days from now you will get out of bed and go to the Temple of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>I will add fifteen years to your life, and I will rescue you and this city from the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for my own honor and for the sake of my servant David.'"

<sup>7</sup>Then Isaiah said, "Make an ointment from figs." So Hezekiah's servants spread the ointment over the boil, and Hezekiah recovered!

<sup>8</sup>Meanwhile, Hezekiah had said to Isaiah, "What sign will the LORD give to prove that he will heal me and that I will go to the Temple of the LORD three days from now?”

<sup>9</sup>Isaiah replied, “This is the sign from the LORD to prove that he will do as he promised. Would you like the shadow on the sundial to go forward ten steps or backward ten steps?*

<sup>10</sup>“The shadow always moves forward,” Hezekiah replied, “so that would be easy. Make it go ten steps backward instead.”

<sup>11</sup>So Isaiah the prophet asked the LORD to do this, and he caused the shadow to move ten steps backward on the sundial* of Ahaz!

Envoys from Babylon

<sup>12</sup> Soon after this, Merodach-baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent Hezekiah his best wishes and a gift, for he had heard that Hezekiah had been very sick. <sup>13</sup>Hezekiah received the Babylonian envoys and showed them everything in his treasure-houses—the silver, the gold, the spices, and the aromatic oils. He also took them to see his armory and showed them everything in his royal treasuries! There was nothing in his palace or kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

<sup>14</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked him, “What did those men want? Where were they from?”

Hezekiah replied, “They came from the distant land of Babylon.”

“They saw everything,” Hezekiah replied. “I showed them everything I own—all my royal treasuries.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Listen to this message from the LORD: <sup>17</sup>The time is coming when everything in your palace

—all the treasures stored up by your ancestors until now—will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the LORD.
<sup>18</sup>Some of your very own sons will be taken away into exile. They will become eunuchs who will serve in the palace of Babylon’s king.”

<sup>19</sup>Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “This message you have given me from the LORD is good.” For the king was thinking, “At least there will be peace and security during my lifetime.”

<sup>20</sup>The rest of the events in Hezekiah’s reign, including the extent of his power and how he built a pool and dug a tunnel* to bring water into the city, are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah. <sup>21</sup>Hezekiah died, and his son Manasseh became the next king.

2 Kings 21

Manasseh Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-five years. His mother was Hephzibah. <sup>2</sup>He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, following the detestable practices of the pagan nations that the LORD had driven from the land ahead of the Israelites. <sup>3</sup>He rebuilt the pagan shrines his father, Hezekiah, had destroyed. He constructed altars for Baal and set up an Asherah pole, just as King Ahab of Israel had done. He also bowed before all the powers of the heavens and worshiped them.

<sup>4</sup>He built pagan altars in the Temple of the LORD, the place where the LORD had said, "My name will remain in Jerusalem forever." <sup>5</sup>He built these altars for all the powers of the heavens in both courtyards of the LORD's Temple. <sup>6</sup>Manasseh also sacrificed his own son in the fire.* He practiced sorcery and divination, and he consulted with mediums and psychics. He did much that was evil in the LORD's sight, arousing his anger.

<sup>7</sup>Manasseh even made a carved image of Asherah and set it up in the Temple, the very place where the LORD had told David and his son Solomon: "My name will be honored forever in this Temple and in Jerusalem—the city I have chosen from among all the tribes of Israel." <sup>8</sup>If the Israelites will be careful to obey my commands—all the laws my servant Moses gave them—I will not send them into exile from this land that I gave their ancestors.”<sup>9</sup> But the people refused to listen, and Manasseh led them to do even more evil than the pagan nations that the LORD had destroyed when the people of Israel entered the land.

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD said through his servants the prophets:
<sup>11</sup>“King Manasseh of Judah has done many detestable things. He is even more wicked than the Amorites, who lived in this land before Israel. He has caused the people of Judah to sin with his idols.*<sup>12</sup>So this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I will bring such disaster on Jerusalem and Judah that the ears of those who hear about it will tingle with horror.<sup>13</sup>I will judge Jerusalem by the same standard I used for Samaria and the same measure* I used for the family of Ahab. I will wipe away the people of Jerusalem as one wipes a dish and turns it upside down.<sup>14</sup>Then I will reject even the remnant of my own people who are left, and I will hand them over as plunder for their enemies.<sup>15</sup>For they have done great evil in my sight and have angered me ever since their ancestors came out of Egypt.”

<sup>16</sup>Manasseh also murdered many innocent people until Jerusalem was filled from one end to the other with innocent blood. This was in addition to the sin that he caused the people of Judah to commit, leading them to do evil in the LORD’s sight.

<sup>17</sup>The rest of the events in Manasseh’s reign and everything he did, including the sins he committed, are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah.<sup>18</sup>When Manasseh died, he was buried in the palace garden, the garden of Uzza. Then his son Amon became the next king.

Amon Rules in Judah

<sup>19</sup>Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem two years. His mother was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz from Jotbah. <sup>20</sup>He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, just as his father, Manasseh, had done. <sup>21</sup>He followed the example of his father, worshiping the same idols his father had worshiped. <sup>22</sup>He abandoned the LORD, the God of his ancestors, and he refused to follow the LORD's ways.

<sup>23</sup>Then Amon's own officials conspired against him and assassinated him in his palace. <sup>24</sup>But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against King Amon, and they made his son Josiah the next king.

<sup>25</sup>The rest of the events in Amon's reign and what he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah. <sup>26</sup>He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza. Then his son Josiah became the next king.

2 Kings 22

Josiah Rules in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-one years. His mother was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah from Bozkath. <sup>2</sup>He did what was pleasing in the LORD's sight and followed the example of his ancestor David. He did not turn away from doing what was right.

<sup>3</sup>In the eighteenth year of his reign, King Josiah sent Shaphan son of Azaliah and grandson of Meshullam, the court secretary, to the Temple of the LORD. He told him, <sup>4</sup>“Go to Hilkiah the high priest and have him count the money the gatekeepers have collected from the people at the LORD's Temple. <sup>5</sup>Entrust this money to the men assigned to supervise the Temple's restoration. Then they can use it to pay workers to repair the Temple of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>They will need to hire carpenters, builders, and masons. Also have them buy the timber and the finished stone needed to repair the Temple. <sup>7</sup>But don't require the construction supervisors to keep account of the money they receive, for they are honest and trustworthy men.”

Hilkiah Discovers God's Law

<sup>8</sup>Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the court secretary, “I have found the Book of the Law in the LORD's Temple!” Then Hilkiah gave the scroll to Shaphan, and he read it.

<sup>9</sup>Shaphan went to the king and reported, “Your officials have turned over the money collected at the Temple of the LORD to the workers and supervisors at the Temple.” <sup>10</sup>Shaphan also told the king, “Hilkiah the priest has given me a scroll.” So Shaphan read it to the king.

<sup>11</sup>When the king heard what was written in the Book of the Law, he tore his clothes in despair. <sup>12</sup>Then he gave these orders to Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Acbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the court secretary, and Asaiah the king’s personal adviser: <sup>13</sup>“Go to the Temple and speak to the LORD for me and for the people and for all Judah. Inquire about the words written in this scroll that has been found. For the LORD’s great anger is burning against us because our ancestors have not obeyed the words in this scroll. We have not been doing everything it says we must do.”

<sup>14</sup>So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Acbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to the New Quarter* of Jerusalem to consult with the prophet Huldah. She was the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, the keeper of the Temple wardrobe.

<sup>15</sup>She said to them, “The LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken! Go back and tell the man who sent you, <sup>16</sup>“This is what the LORD says: I am going to bring disaster on this city* and its people. All the words written in the scroll that the king of Judah has read will come true. <sup>17</sup>For my people have abandoned me and offered sacrifices to pagan gods, and I am very angry with them for everything they have done. My anger will burn against this place, and it will not be quenched.”

<sup>18</sup>“But go to the king of Judah who sent you to seek the LORD and tell him: ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the message you have just heard: <sup>19</sup>You were sorry and humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I said against this city and its people—that this land would be cursed and become desolate. You tore your clothing in despair and wept before me in repentance. And I have indeed heard you, says the LORD. <sup>20</sup>So I will not send the promised disaster until after you have died and been buried in peace. You will not see the disaster I am going to bring on this city.’”

So they took her message back to the king.

2 Kings 23

Josiah's Religious Reforms

<sup>1</sup> Then the king summoned all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>And the king went up to the Temple of the LORD with all the people of Judah and Jerusalem, along with the priests and the prophets—all the people from the least to the greatest. There the king read to them the entire Book of the Covenant that had been found in the LORD's Temple. <sup>3</sup>The king took his place of authority beside the pillar and renewed the covenant in the LORD's presence. He pledged to obey the LORD by keeping all his commands, laws, and decrees with all his heart and soul. In this way, he confirmed all the terms of the covenant that were written in the scroll, and all the people pledged themselves to the covenant.

<sup>4</sup>Then the king instructed Hilkiah the high priest and the priests of the second rank and the Temple gatekeepers to remove from the LORD's Temple all the articles that were used to worship Baal, Asherah, and all the powers of the heavens. The king had all these things burned outside Jerusalem on the terraces of the Kidron Valley, and he carried the ashes away to Bethel. <sup>5</sup>He did away with the idolatrous priests, who had been appointed by the previous kings of Judah, for they had offered sacrifices at the pagan shrines throughout Judah and even in the vicinity of Jerusalem. They had also offered sacrifices to Baal, and to the sun, the moon, the constellations, and to all the powers of the heavens. <sup>6</sup>The king removed the Asherah pole from the LORD's Temple and took it outside Jerusalem to the Kidron Valley, where he burned it. Then he ground the ashes of the pole to dust and threw the dust over the graves of the people.<sup>7</sup> He also tore down the living quarters of the male and female shrine prostitutes that were inside the Temple of the LORD, where the women wove coverings for the Asherah pole.

<sup>8</sup>Josiah brought to Jerusalem all the priests who were living in other towns of Judah. He also defiled the pagan shrines, where they had offered sacrifices—all the way from Geba to Beersheba. He destroyed the shrines at the entrance to the gate of Joshua, the governor of Jerusalem. This gate was located to the left of the city gate as one enters the city.<sup>9</sup> The priests who had served at the pagan shrines were not allowed* to serve at the LORD's altar in Jerusalem, but they were allowed to eat unleavened bread with the other priests.

<sup>10</sup>Then the king defiled the altar of Topheth in the valley of Ben-Hinnom, so no one could ever again use it to sacrifice a son or daughter in the fire* as an offering to Molech.<sup>11</sup> He removed from the entrance of the LORD's Temple the horse statues that the former kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun. They were near the quarters of Nathan-melech the eunuch, an officer of the court.* The king also burned the chariots dedicated to the sun.

<sup>12</sup>Josiah tore down the altars that the kings of Judah had built on the palace roof above the upper room of Ahaz. The king destroyed the altars that Manasseh had built in the two courtyards of the LORD's Temple. He smashed them to bits* and scattered the pieces in the Kidron Valley.<sup>13</sup> The king also desecrated the pagan shrines east of Jerusalem, to the south of the Mount of Corruption, where King Solomon of Israel had built shrines for Ashtoreth, the detestable goddess of the Sidonians; and for Chemosh, the detestable god of the Moabites; and for Molech,* the vile god of the Ammonites. <sup>14</sup>He smashed the sacred pillars and cut down the Asherah poles. Then he desecrated these places by scattering human bones over them.

<sup>15</sup>The king also tore down the altar at Bethel—the pagan shrine that Jeroboam son of Nebat had made when he caused Israel to sin. He burned down the shrine and ground it to dust, and he burned the Asherah pole. <sup>16</sup>Then Josiah turned around and noticed several tombs in the side of the hill. He ordered that the bones be brought out, and he burned them on the altar at Bethel to desecrate it. (This happened just as the LORD had promised through the man of God when Jeroboam stood beside the altar at the festival.) Then Josiah turned and looked up at the tomb of the man of God* who had predicted these things. <sup>17</sup>“What is that monument over there?” Josiah asked.

And the people of the town told him, “It is the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and predicted the very things that you have just done to the altar at Bethel!”

<sup>18</sup>Josiah replied, “Leave it alone. Don’t disturb his bones.” So they did not burn his bones or those of the old prophet from Samaria.

<sup>19</sup>Then Josiah demolished all the buildings at the pagan shrines in the towns of Samaria, just as he had done at Bethel. They had been built by the various kings of Israel and had made the LORD* very angry. <sup>20</sup>He executed the priests of the pagan shrines on their own altars, and he burned human bones on the altars to desecrate them. Finally, he returned to Jerusalem.

Josiah Celebrates Passover

<sup>21</sup>King Josiah then issued this order to all the people: “You must celebrate the Passover to the LORD your God, as required in this Book of the Covenant.” <sup>22</sup>There had not been a Passover celebration like that since the time when the judges ruled in Israel, nor throughout all the years of the kings of Israel and Judah. <sup>23</sup>This Passover was celebrated to the LORD in Jerusalem in the eighteenth year of King Josiah’s reign.

<sup>24</sup>Josiah also got rid of the mediums and psychics, the household gods, the idols,* and every other kind of detestable practice, both in Jerusalem and throughout the land of Judah. He did this in obedience to the laws written in the scroll that Hilkiah the priest had found in the LORD’s Temple. <sup>25</sup>Never before had there been a king like Josiah, who turned to the LORD with all his heart and soul and strength, obeying all the laws of Moses. And there has never been a king like him since.

<sup>26</sup>Even so, the LORD was very angry with Judah because of all the wicked things Manasseh had done to provoke him. <sup>27</sup>For the LORD said, “I will also banish Judah from my presence just as I have banished Israel. And I will reject my chosen city of Jerusalem and the Temple where my name was to be honored.”

<sup>28</sup>The rest of the events in Josiah’s reign and all his deeds are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah.

to the Euphrates River to help the king of Assyria. King Josiah and his army marched out to fight him,* but King Neco* killed him when they met at Megiddo.<sup>30</sup> Josiah's officers took his body back in a chariot from Megiddo to Jerusalem and buried him in his own tomb. Then the people of the land anointed Josiah's son Jehoahaz and made him the next king.

Jehoahaz Rules in Judah

<sup>31</sup>Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah.<sup>32</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, just as his ancestors had done.

<sup>33</sup>Pharaoh Neco put Jehoahaz in prison at Riblah in the land of Hamath to prevent him from ruling* in Jerusalem. He also demanded that Judah pay 7,500 pounds of silver and 75 pounds of gold* as tribute.

Jehoiakim Rules in Judah

<sup>34</sup>Pharaoh Neco then installed Eliakim, another of Josiah's sons, to reign in place of his father, and he changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. Jehoahaz was taken to Egypt as a prisoner, where he died.

<sup>35</sup>In order to get the silver and gold demanded as tribute by Pharaoh Neco, Jehoiakim collected a tax from the people of Judah, requiring them to pay in proportion to their wealth.

<sup>36</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. His mother was Zebidah, the daughter of Pedaiah from Rumah.<sup>37</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, just as his ancestors had done.

2 Kings 24

<sup>5</sup>The rest of the events in Jehoiakim's reign and all his deeds are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Judah. <sup>6</sup>When Jehoiakim died, his son Jehoiachin became the next king.

<sup>7</sup>The king of Egypt did not venture out of his country after that, for the king of Babylon captured the entire area formerly claimed by Egypt—from the Brook of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

Jehoiachin Rules in Judah

<sup>8</sup>Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan from Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Jehoiachin did what was evil in the LORD's sight, just as his father had done.

In the eighth year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, he took Jehoiachin prisoner. <sup>13</sup>As the LORD had said beforehand, Nebuchadnezzar carried away all the treasures from the LORD's Temple and the royal palace. He stripped away* all the gold objects that King Solomon of Israel had placed in the Temple. <sup>14</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar took all of Jerusalem captive, including all the commanders and the best of the soldiers, craftsmen, and artisans—10,000 in all. Only the poorest people were left in the land.

<sup>15</sup>Nebuchadnezzar led King Jehoiachin away as a captive to Babylon, along with the queen mother, his wives and officials, and all Jerusalem's elite. <sup>16</sup>He also exiled 7,000 of the best troops and 1,000 craftsmen and artisans, all of whom were strong and fit for war. <sup>17</sup>Then the king of Babylon installed Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's* uncle, as the next king, and he changed Mattaniah's name to Zedekiah.

Zedekiah Rules in Judah

<sup>18</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. His mother was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. <sup>19</sup>But Zedekiah did what was evil in the LORD's sight, just as Jehoiakim had done.<sup>20</sup> These things happened because of the LORD's anger against the people of Jerusalem and Judah, until he finally banished them from his presence and sent them into exile.

The Fall of Jerusalem

Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

2 Kings 25

<sup>3</sup>By July 18 in the eleventh year of Zedekiah's reign,* the famine in the city had become very severe, and the last of the food was entirely gone.<sup>4</sup>Then a section of the city wall was broken down, and all the soldiers fled. Since the city was surrounded by the Babylonians,* they waited for nightfall. Then they slipped through the gate between the two walls behind the king's garden and headed toward the Jordan Valley.*

<sup>5</sup>But the Babylonian* troops chased the king and caught him on the plains of Jericho, for his men had all deserted him and scattered.<sup>6</sup>They took him to the king of Babylon at Riblah, where they pronounced judgment upon Zedekiah.<sup>7</sup>They made Zedekiah watch as they slaughtered his sons. Then they gouged out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him in bronze chains, and led him away to Babylon.

The Temple Destroyed

<sup>8</sup>On August 14 of that year,* which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar's reign, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard and an official of the Babylonian king, arrived in Jerusalem.<sup>9</sup>He burned down the Temple of the LORD, the royal palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem. He destroyed all the important buildings* in the city.<sup>10</sup>Then he supervised the entire Babylonian army as they tore down the walls of Jerusalem on every side.<sup>11</sup>Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, then took as exiles the rest of the people who remained in the city, the defectors who had declared their allegiance to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the population.<sup>12</sup>But the captain of the guard allowed some of the poorest people to stay behind in Judah to care for the vineyards and fields.

<sup>13</sup>The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars in front of the LORD's Temple, the bronze water carts, and the great bronze basin called the Sea, and they carried all the bronze away to Babylon.<sup>14</sup>They also took all the ash buckets, shovels, lamp snuffers, dishes, and all the other bronze articles used for making sacrifices at the Temple.<sup>15</sup>Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, also took the incense burners and basins, and all the other articles made of pure gold or silver.

<sup>16</sup>The weight of the bronze from the two pillars, the Sea, and the water carts was too great to be measured. These things had been made for the LORD's Temple in the days of King Solomon.<sup>17</sup>Each of the pillars was 27 feet* tall. The bronze capital on top of each pillar was 7½ feet* high and was decorated with a network of bronze pomegranates all the way around.

<sup>18</sup>Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, took with him as prisoners Seraiah the high priest, Zephaniah the priest of the second rank, and the three chief gatekeepers.<sup>19</sup>And from among the people still hiding in the city, he took an officer who had been in charge of the Judean army; five of the king's personal advisers; the army commander's chief secretary, who was in charge of recruitment; and sixty other citizens.<sup>20</sup> Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, took them all to the king of Babylon at Riblah.<sup>21</sup> And there at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king of Babylon had them all put to death. So the people of Judah were sent into exile from their land.

Gedaliah Governs in Judah

<sup>22</sup>Then King Nebuchadnezzar appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan as governor over the people he had left in Judah.<sup>23</sup> When all the army commanders and their men learned that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah as governor, they went to see him at Mizpah. These included Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jezaniah* son of the Maacathite, and all their men.

<sup>24</sup>Gedaliah vowed to them that the Babylonian officials meant them no harm. "Don't be afraid of them. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and all will go well for you," he promised.

<sup>25</sup>But in midautumn of that year,* Ishmael son of Nethaniah and grandson of Elishama, who was of the royal family, went to Mizpah with ten men and killed Gedaliah. He also killed all the Judeans and Babylonians who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah.

<sup>26</sup>Then all the people of Judah, from the least to the greatest, as well as the army commanders, fled in panic to Egypt, for they were afraid of what the Babylonians would do to them.

Hope for Israel's Royal Line

<sup>27</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of King Jehoiachin of Judah, Evil-merodach ascended to the Babylonian throne. He was kind to *Jehoiachin and released him from prison on April 2 of that year. *<sup>28</sup> He spoke kindly to Jehoiachin and gave him a higher place than all the other exiled kings in Babylon. <sup>29</sup> He supplied Jehoiachin with new clothes to replace his prison garb and allowed him to dine in the king's presence for the rest of his life. <sup>30</sup> So the Babylonian king gave him a regular food allowance as long as he lived.

THE KINGDOM DIVIDES

1 Chronicles 1

From Adam to Noah's Sons

Descendants of Japheth

Descendants of Ham

<sup>9</sup>The descendants of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The descendants of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan. <sup>10</sup>Cush was also the ancestor of Nimrod, who was the first heroic warrior on earth.

Caphtorites, from whom the Philistines came.*

Descendants of Shem

<sup>17</sup>The descendants of Shem were Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud, and Aram.

The descendants of Aram were* Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash.*

<sup>18</sup>Arphaxad was the father of Shelah.

Shelah was the father of Eber.

<sup>19</sup>Eber had two sons. The first was named Peleg (which means "division"), for during his lifetime the people of the world were divided into different language groups. His brother's name was Joktan.

Descendants of Abraham

<sup>28</sup>The sons of Abraham were Isaac and Ishmael. <sup>29</sup>These are their genealogical records:

The sons of Ishmael were Nebaioth (the oldest), Kedar,

Adbeel, Mibsam,<sup>30</sup>Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, <sup>31</sup>Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. These were the sons of Ishmael.

<sup>32</sup>The sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine, were Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.
The sons of Jokshan were Sheba and Dedan.

<sup>33</sup>The sons of Midian were Ephah, Ephraim, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah.
All these were descendants of Abraham through his concubine Keturah.

Descendants of Isaac

<sup>34</sup>Abraham was the father of Isaac. The sons of Isaac were Esau and Israel.*

Descendants of Esau

<sup>35</sup>The sons of Esau were Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

<sup>36</sup>The descendants of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho,* Gatam, Kenaz, and Amalek, who was born to Timna.*

<sup>37</sup>The descendants of Reuel were Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.

Original Peoples of Edom

<sup>38</sup>The descendants of Seir were Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.

<sup>39</sup>The descendants of Lotan were Hori and Hemam.* Lotan's sister was named Timna.

<sup>40</sup>The descendants of Shobal were Alvan,* Manahath, Ebal, Shepho,* and Onam.

The descendants of Zibeon were Aiah and Anah.

<sup>41</sup>The son of Anah was Dishon.

The descendants of Dishan* were Uz and Aran.

Rulers of Edom

<sup>43</sup>These are the kings who ruled in the land of Edom before any king ruled over the Israelites*:

Bela son of Beor, who ruled from his city of Dinhabah.

<sup>44</sup>When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah became king in his place.

<sup>46</sup>When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad became king in his place and ruled from the city of Avith. He was the one who destroyed the Midianite army in the land of Moab.

<sup>47</sup>When Hadad died, Samlah from the city of Masrekah became king in his place.

<sup>50</sup>When Baal-hanan died, Hadad became king in his place and ruled from the city of Pau.* His wife was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred and granddaughter of Me-zahab. <sup>51</sup>Then Hadad died.

The clan leaders of Edom were Timna, Alvah,* Jetheth, <sup>52</sup>Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, <sup>53</sup>Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, <sup>54</sup>Magdiel, and Iram. These are the clan leaders of Edom.

1 Chronicles 2

Descendants of Israel

Descendants of Judah

<sup>3</sup>Judah had three sons from Bathshua, a Canaanite woman. Their names were Er, Onan, and Shelah. But the LORD saw that the oldest son, Er, was a wicked man, so he killed him. <sup>4</sup>Later Judah had twin sons from Tamar, his widowed daughter-in-law. Their names were Perez and Zerah. So Judah had five sons in all.

<sup>6</sup>The sons of Zerah were Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol, and Darda*—five in all.

<sup>7</sup>The son of Carmi (a descendant of Zimri) was Achan,* who brought disaster on Israel by taking plunder that had been set apart for the LORD.*

<sup>8</sup>The son of Ethan was Azariah.

From Judah's Grandson Hezron to David

<sup>10</sup>Ram was the father of Amminadab.

Amminadab was the father of Nahshon, a leader of Judah.

<sup>11</sup>Nahshon was the father of Salmon.*

Salmon was the father of Boaz.

<sup>12</sup>Boaz was the father of Obed.

Obed was the father of Jesse.

<sup>16</sup>Their sisters were named Zeruiah and Abigail. Zeruiah had three sons named Abishai, Joab, and Asahel.

<sup>17</sup>Abigail married a man named Jether, an Ishmaelite, and they had a son named Amasa.

Other Descendants of Hezron

<sup>18</sup>Hezron's son Caleb had sons from his wife Azubah and from Jerioth.* Her sons were named Jeshar, Shobab, and Ardon.

<sup>19</sup>After Azubah died, Caleb married Ephrathah,* and they had a son named Hur. <sup>20</sup>Hur was the father of Uri. Uri was the father of Bezalel.

<sup>21</sup>When Hezron was sixty years old, he married Gilead's sister, the daughter of Makir. They had a son named Segub. <sup>22</sup>Segub was the father of Jair, who ruled twenty-three towns in the land of Gilead. <sup>23</sup>(But Geshur and Aram captured the Towns of Jair* and also took Kenath and its sixty surrounding villages.) All these were descendants of Makir, the father of Gilead.

<sup>24</sup>Soon after Hezron died in the town of Caleb-ephrathah, his wife Abijah gave birth to a son named Ashhur (the father of* Tekoa).

Descendants of Hezron's Son Jerahmeel

<sup>25</sup>The sons of Jerahmeel, the oldest son of Hezron, were Ram (the firstborn), Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah. <sup>26</sup>Jerahmeel had a second wife named Atarah. She was the mother of Onam.

The sons of Shammai were Nadab and Abishur.

<sup>29</sup>The sons of Abishur and his wife Abihail were Ahban and Molid.

<sup>30</sup>The sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim. Seled died without children, <sup>31</sup>but Appaim had a son named Ishi. The son of Ishi was Sheshan. Sheshan had a descendant named Ahlai.

<sup>32</sup>The sons of Jada, Shammai's brother, were Jether and Jonathan. Jether died without children, <sup>33</sup>but Jonathan had two sons named Peleth and Zaza.

These were all descendants of Jerahmeel.

<sup>34</sup>Sheshan had no sons, though he did have daughters. He also had an Egyptian servant named Jarha. <sup>35</sup>Sheshan gave one of his daughters to be the wife of Jarha, and they had a son named Attai.

<sup>36</sup>Attai was the father of Nathan.

Nathan was the father of Zabad.

<sup>37</sup>Zabad was the father of Ephlal.

Ephlal was the father of Obed.

<sup>38</sup>Obed was the father of Jehu.

Jehu was the father of Azariah.

<sup>39</sup>Azariah was the father of Helez.

Helez was the father of Eleasah.

<sup>40</sup>Eleasah was the father of Sismai.

Sismai was the father of Shallum.

<sup>41</sup>Shallum was the father of Jekamiah.

Jekamiah was the father of Elishama.

Descendants of Hezron's Son Caleb

<sup>42</sup>The descendants of Caleb, the brother of Jerahmeel, included Mesha (the firstborn), who became the father of Ziph. Caleb's descendants also included the sons of Mareshah, the father of Hebron.*

<sup>43</sup>The sons of Hebron were Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema. <sup>44</sup>Shema was the father of Raham. Raham was the father of Jorkeam. Rekem was the father of Shammai. <sup>45</sup>The son of Shammai was Maon. Maon was the father of Beth-zur.

<sup>48</sup>Another of Caleb's concubines, Maacah, gave birth to Sheber and Tirhanah. <sup>49</sup>She also gave birth to Shaaph (the father of Madmannah) and Sheva (the father of Macbenah and Gibeai). Caleb also had a daughter named Acsah.

<sup>50</sup>These were all descendants of Caleb.

Descendants of Caleb's Son Hur

The sons of Hur, the oldest son of Caleb's wife Ephrathah, were Shobal (the founder of Kiriath-jearim), <sup>51</sup>Salma (the founder of Bethlehem), and Hareph (the founder of Bethgader).

<sup>52</sup>The descendants of Shobal (the founder of Kiriath-jearim) were Haroeh, half the Manahathites,<sup>53</sup>and the families of Kiriath-jearim—the Ithrites, Puthites, Shumathites, and Mishraites, from whom came the people of Zorah and Eshtaol.

<sup>54</sup>The descendants of Salma were the people of Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth-beth-joab, the other half of the Manahathites, the Zorites,<sup>55</sup>and the families of scribes living at Jabez—the Tirathites, Shimeathites, and Sucathites. All these were Kenites who descended from Hammath, the father of the family of Recab.*

1 Chronicles 3

Descendants of David

<sup>1</sup> These are the sons of David who were born in Hebron:

The oldest was Amnon, whose mother was Ahinoam from Jezreel.

The second was Daniel, whose mother was Abigail from Carmel.

<sup>2</sup> The third was Absalom, whose mother was Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur.

The fourth was Adonijah, whose mother was Haggith.

<sup>3</sup> The fifth was Shephatiah, whose mother was Abital.

The sixth was Ithream, whose mother was Eglah, David's wife.

<sup>4</sup> These six sons were born to David in Hebron, where he reigned seven and a half years.

Then David reigned another thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> These were the sons of David, not including his sons born to his concubines. Their sister was named Tamar.

Descendants of Solomon

<sup>15</sup>The sons of Josiah were Johanan (the oldest), Jehoiakim (the second), Zedekiah (the third), and Jehoahaz* (the fourth).

Descendants of Jehoiachin

<sup>19</sup>The sons of Pedaiah were Zerubbabel and Shimei. The sons of Zerubbabel were Meshullam and Hananiah. (Their sister was Shelomith.) <sup>20</sup>His five other sons were Hashubah, Ohel, Berekiah, Hasadiah, and Jushab-hesed.

<sup>21</sup>The sons of Hananiah were Pelatiah and Jeshaiah. Jeshaiah's son was Rephaiah. Rephaiah's son was Aman. Aman's son was Obadiah. Obadiah's son was Shecaniah.

<sup>22</sup>The descendants of Shecaniah were Shemaiah and his sons, Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat—six in all.

<sup>23</sup>The sons of Neariah were Elioenai, Hizkiah, and Azrikam—three in all.

<sup>24</sup>The sons of Elioenai were Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah, and Anani—seven in all.

1 Chronicles 4

Other Descendants of Judah

<sup>2</sup>Shobal's son Reaiah was the father of Jahath. Jahath was the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These were the families of the Zorathites.

<sup>3</sup>The descendants of * Etam were Jezreel, Ishma, Idbash, their sister Hazzelelponi, <sup>4</sup>Penuel (the father of * Gedor), and Ezer (the father of Hushah). These were the descendants of Hur (the firstborn of Ephrathah), the ancestor of Bethlehem.

<sup>5</sup>Ashhur (the father of Tekoa) had two wives, named Helah and Naarah. <sup>6</sup>Naarah gave birth to Ahuzzam, Hepher, Temeni, and Haahashtari. <sup>7</sup>Helah gave birth to Zereth, Izhar, * Ethnan, <sup>8</sup>and Koz, who became the ancestor of Anub, Zobebah, and all the families of Aharhel son of Harum.

Jabez

<sup>9</sup>There was a man named Jabez who was more honorable than any of his brothers. His mother named him Jabez* because his birth had been so painful. <sup>10</sup>He was the one who prayed to the God of Israel, “Oh, that you would bless me and expand my territory! Please be with me in all that I do, and keep me from all trouble and pain!” And God granted him his request.

<sup>11</sup>Kelub (the brother of Shuhah) was the father of Mehir. Mehir was the father of Eshton. <sup>12</sup>Eshton was the father of Bethrapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah. Tehinnah was the father of Irnahash. These were the descendants of Recah.

<sup>13</sup>The sons of Kenaz were Othniel and Seraiah. Othniel’s sons were Hathath and Meonothai.* <sup>14</sup>Meonothai was the father of Ophrah. Seraiah was the father of Joab, the founder of the Valley of Craftsmen,* so called because they were craftsmen.

<sup>15</sup>The sons of Caleb son of Jephunneh were Iru, Elah, and Naam. The son of Elah was Kenaz.

<sup>17</sup>The sons of Ezrah were Jether, Mered, Ephraim, and Jalon. One of Mered’s wives became* the mother of Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah (the father of Eshtemoa). <sup>18</sup>He married a woman from Judah, who became the mother of Jered (the father of Gedor), Heber (the father of Soco), and Jekuthiel (the father of Zanoah). Mered also married Bithia, a daughter of Pharaoh, and she bore him children.

<sup>19</sup>Hodiah’s wife was the sister of Naham. One of her sons was the father of Keilah the Garmite, and another was the father of Eshtemoa the Maacathite.

Tilon.

The descendants of Ishi were Zoheth and Ben-zoheth.

Descendants of Judah's Son Shelah

<sup>21</sup>Shelah was one of Judah's sons. The descendants of Shelah were Er (the father of Lecah); Laadah (the father of Mareshah); the families of linen workers at Beth-ashbea; <sup>22</sup>Jokim; the men of Cozeba; and Joash and Saraph, who ruled over Moab and Jashubi-lehem. These names all come from ancient records.

<sup>23</sup>They were the pottery makers who lived in Netaim and Gederah. They lived there and worked for the king.

Descendants of Simeon

<sup>27</sup>Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters, but none of his brothers had large families. So Simeon's tribe never grew as large as the tribe of Judah.

This was their territory, and these names are listed in their genealogical records.

<sup>38</sup>These were the names of some of the leaders of Simeon's wealthy clans. Their families grew, <sup>39</sup>and they traveled to the region of Gerar,* in the east part of the valley, seeking pastureland for their flocks. <sup>40</sup>They found lush pastures there, and the land was quiet and peaceful.

Some of Ham's descendants had been living in that region. <sup>41</sup>But during the reign of King Hezekiah of Judah, these leaders of Simeon invaded the region and completely destroyed* the homes of the descendants of Ham and of the Meunites. No trace of them remains today. They killed everyone who lived there and took the land for themselves, because they wanted its good pastureland for their flocks. <sup>42</sup>Five hundred of these invaders from the tribe of Simeon went to Mount Seir, led by Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel—all sons of Ishi. <sup>43</sup>They destroyed the few Amalekites who had survived, and they have lived there ever since.

1 Chronicles 5

Descendants of Reuben

The Reubenites lived in the area that stretches from Aroer to Nebo and Baal-meon. <sup>9</sup>And since they had so many livestock in the land of Gilead, they spread east toward the edge of the desert that stretches to the Euphrates River.

<sup>10</sup> During the reign of Saul, the Reubenites defeated the Hagrites in battle. Then they moved into the Hagrite settlements all along the eastern edge of Gilead.

Descendants of Gad

<sup>11</sup>Next to the Reubenites, the descendants of Gad lived in the land of Bashan as far east as Salecah. <sup>12</sup>Joel was the leader in the land of Bashan, and Shapham was second-in-command, followed by Janai and Shaphat.

<sup>13</sup>Their relatives, the leaders of seven other clans, were Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, and Eber. <sup>14</sup>These were all descendants of Abihail son of Huri, son of Jaroah, son of Gilead, son of Michael, son of Jeshishai, son of Jahdo, son of Buz. <sup>15</sup>Ahi son of Abdiel, son of Guni, was the leader of their clans.

<sup>16</sup>The Gadites lived in the land of Gilead, in Bashan and its villages, and throughout all the pasturelands of Sharon. <sup>17</sup>All of these were listed in the genealogical records during the days of King Jotham of Judah and King Jeroboam of Israel.

The Tribes East of the Jordan

<sup>18</sup>There were 44,760 capable warriors in the armies of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. They were all skilled in combat and armed with shields, swords, and bows. <sup>19</sup>They waged war against the Hagrites, the Jeturites, the Naphishites, and the Nodabites. <sup>20</sup>They cried out to God during the battle, and he answered their prayer because they trusted in him. So the Hagrites and all their allies were defeated. <sup>21</sup>The plunder taken from the Hagrites included 50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep and goats, 2,000 donkeys, and 100,000 captives.<sup>22</sup> Many of the Hagrites were killed in the battle because God was fighting against them. The people of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh lived in their land until they were taken into exile.

<sup>23</sup>The half-tribe of Manasseh was very large and spread through the land from Bashan to Baal-hermon, Senir, and Mount Hermon.<sup>24</sup> These were the leaders of their clans: Ephraim,* Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. These men had a great reputation as mighty warriors and leaders of their clans.

<sup>25</sup>But these tribes were unfaithful to the God of their ancestors. They worshiped the gods of the nations that God had destroyed.<sup>26</sup> So the God of Israel caused King Pul of Assyria (also known as Tiglath-pileser) to invade the land and take away the people of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh as captives. The Assyrians exiled them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and the Gozan River, where they remain to this day.

1 Chronicles 6

The Priestly Line

The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

<sup>4</sup>Eleazar was the father of Phinehas.
Phinehas was the father of Abishua.

<sup>5</sup>Abishua was the father of Bukki.
Bukki was the father of Uzzi.

<sup>6</sup>Uzzi was the father of Zerahiah.
Zerahiah was the father of Meraioth.

<sup>7</sup>Meraioth was the father of Amariah.
Amariah was the father of Ahitub.

<sup>8</sup>Ahitub was the father of Zadok.
Zadok was the father of Ahimaaz.

<sup>9</sup>Ahimaaz was the father of Azariah.
Azariah was the father of Johanan.

<sup>10</sup>Johanan was the father of Azariah, the high priest at the Temple* built by Solomon in Jerusalem.

<sup>11</sup>Azariah was the father of Amariah.
Amariah was the father of Ahitub.

<sup>12</sup>Ahitub was the father of Zadok.
Zadok was the father of Shallum.

<sup>13</sup>Shallum was the father of Hilkiah.

Hilkiah was the father of Azariah.

<sup>14</sup>Azariah was the father of Seraiah.

Seraiah was the father of Jehozadak, <sup>15</sup>who went into exile when the LORD sent the people of Judah and Jerusalem into captivity under Nebuchadnezzar.

The Levite Clans

The following were the Levite clans, listed according to their ancestral descent:

Uzzah, <sup>30</sup>Shimea, Haggiah, and Asaiah.

The Temple Musicians

<sup>31</sup>David assigned the following men to lead the music at the house of the LORD after the Ark was placed there. <sup>32</sup>They ministered with music at the Tabernacle* until Solomon built the Temple of the LORD in Jerusalem. They carried out their work, following all the regulations handed down to them.

<sup>48</sup>Their fellow Levites were appointed to various other tasks in the Tabernacle, the house of God.

Aaron's Descendants

presented the offerings on the altar of burnt offering and the altar of incense, and they performed all the other duties related to the Most Holy Place. They made atonement for Israel by doing everything that Moses, the servant of God, had commanded them.

Territory for the Levites

<sup>54</sup>This is a record of the towns and territory assigned by means of sacred lots to the descendants of Aaron, who were from the clan of Kohath. <sup>55</sup>This territory included Hebron and its surrounding pasturelands in Judah, <sup>56</sup>but the fields and outlying areas belonging to the city were given to Caleb son of Jephunneh. <sup>57</sup>So the descendants of Aaron were given the following towns, each with its pasturelands: Hebron (a city of refuge),* Libnah, Jattir, Eshtemoa, <sup>58</sup>Holon,* Debir, <sup>59</sup>Ain,* Juttah,* and Beth-shemesh. <sup>60</sup>And from the territory of Benjamin they were given Gibeon,* Geba, Alemeth, and Anathoth, each with its pasturelands. So thirteen towns were given to the descendants of Aaron. <sup>61</sup>The remaining descendants of Kohath received ten towns from the territory of the half-tribe of Manasseh by means of sacred lots.

<sup>64</sup>So the people of Israel assigned all these towns and pasturelands to the Levites. <sup>65</sup>The towns in the territories of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin, mentioned above, were assigned to them by means of sacred lots.

of Gad, they received Ramoth in Gilead, Mahanaim,<sup>81</sup> Heshbon, and Jazer, each with its pasturelands.

What the Bible Says about

Consistency

1 Chronicles 7

Descendants of Issachar

<sup>2</sup>The sons of Tola were Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam, and Shemuel. Each of them was the leader of an ancestral clan. At the time of King David, the total number of mighty warriors listed in the records of these clans was 22,600.

<sup>3</sup>The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah. The sons of Izrahiah were Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Isshiah. These five became the leaders of clans. <sup>4</sup>All of them had many wives and many sons, so the total number of men available for military service among their descendants was 36,000.

<sup>5</sup>The total number of mighty warriors from all the clans of the tribe of Issachar was 87,000. All of them were listed in their genealogical records.

Descendants of Benjamin

<sup>7</sup>The five sons of Bela were Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri. Each of them was the leader of an ancestral clan. The total number of mighty warriors from these clans was 22,034, as listed in their genealogical records.

<sup>8</sup>The sons of Beker were Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. <sup>9</sup>Each of them was the leader of an ancestral clan. The total number of mighty warriors and leaders from these clans was 20,200, as listed in their genealogical records.

<sup>10</sup>The son of Jediahel was Bilhan. The sons of Bilhan were Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Kenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Ahishahar. <sup>11</sup>Each of them was the leader of an ancestral clan. From these clans the total number of mighty warriors ready for war was 17,200.

<sup>12</sup>The sons of Ir were Shupim and Hupim. Hushim was the son of Aher.

Descendants of Naphtali

<sup>13</sup>The sons of Naphtali were Jahzeel,* Guni, Jezer, and Shilem.* They were all descendants of Jacob's concubine Bilhah.

Descendants of Manasseh

<sup>14</sup>The descendants of Manasseh through his Aramean concubine included Asriel. She also bore Makir, the father of Gilead. <sup>15</sup>Makir found wives for* Hupim and Shupim. Makir had a sister named Maacah. One of his descendants was Zelophehad, who had only daughters.

<sup>16</sup>Makir's wife, Maacah, gave birth to a son whom she named Peresh. His brother's name was Sheresh. The sons of Peresh were Ulam and Rakem. <sup>17</sup>The son of Ulam was Bedan. All these were considered Gileadites, descendants of Makir son of Manasseh.

Descendants of Ephraim

<sup>28</sup>The descendants of Ephraim lived in the territory that included Bethel and its surrounding towns to the south, Naaran to the east, Gezer and its villages to the west, and Shechem and its surrounding villages to the north as far as Ayyah and its towns. <sup>29</sup>Along the border of Manasseh were the towns of Beth-shan,* Taanach, Megiddo, Dor, and their surrounding villages. The descendants of Joseph son of Israel* lived in these towns.

Descendants of Asher

<sup>30</sup>The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, and Beriah. They had a sister named Serah.

<sup>31</sup>The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malkiel (the father of Birzaith).

<sup>32</sup>The sons of Heber were Japhlet, Shomer, and Hotham. They had a sister named Shua.

<sup>40</sup>Each of these descendants of Asher was the head of an ancestral clan. They were all select men—mighty warriors and outstanding leaders. The total number of men available for military service was 26,000, as listed in their genealogical records.

1 Chronicles 8

Descendants of Benjamin

<sup>1</sup> Benjamin's first son was Bela, the second was Ashbel, the third was Aharah, <sup>2</sup>the fourth was Nohah, and the fifth was Rapha.

<sup>6</sup>The sons of Ehud, leaders of the clans living at Geba, were exiled to Manahath. <sup>7</sup>Ehud's sons were Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera. Gera, who led them into exile, was the father of Uzza and Ahihud. *

<sup>11</sup>Shaharaim's wife Hushim had already given birth to Abitub and Elpaal. <sup>12</sup>The sons of Elpaal were Eber, Misham, Shemed (who built the towns of Ono and Lod and their nearby villages), <sup>13</sup>Beriah, and Shema. They were the leaders of the clans living in Aijalon, and they drove out the inhabitants of Gath.

<sup>28</sup>These were the leaders of the ancestral clans; they were listed in their genealogical records, and they all lived in Jerusalem.

The Family of Saul

<sup>29</sup>Jeiel* (the father of* Gibeon) lived in the town of Gibeon. His wife's name was Maacah, <sup>30</sup>and his oldest son was named Abdon. Jeiel's other sons were Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, * Nadab, <sup>31</sup>Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, * <sup>32</sup>and Mikloth, who was the father of Shimeam.* All these families lived near each other in Jerusalem.

<sup>33</sup>Ner was the father of Kish.

Kish was the father of Saul.

Saul was the father of Jonathan, Malkishua, Abinadab, and Eshbaal.

<sup>34</sup>Jonathan was the father of Merib-baal.

Merib-baal was the father of Micah.

<sup>35</sup>Micah was the father of Pithon, Melech, Tahrea,* and Ahaz.

<sup>36</sup>Ahaz was the father of Jadah.*

Jadah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri.

Zimri was the father of Moza.

<sup>37</sup>Moza was the father of Binea.

Binea was the father of Rephaiah.*
Rephaiah was the father of Eleasah.
Eleasah was the father of Azel.

<sup>38</sup>Azel had six sons: Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

<sup>39</sup>Azel's brother Eshek had three sons: the first was Ulam, the second was Jeush, and the third was Eliphelet. <sup>40</sup>Ulam's sons were all mighty warriors and expert archers. They had many sons and grandsons—150 in all.

All these were descendants of Benjamin.

1 Chronicles 9

<sup>1</sup> So all Israel was listed in the genealogical records in The Book of the Kings of Israel.

The Returning Exiles

The people of Judah were exiled to Babylon because they were unfaithful to the LORD. <sup>2</sup>The first of the exiles to return to their property in their former towns were priests, Levites, Temple servants, and other Israelites. <sup>3</sup>Some of the people from the tribes of Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh came and settled in Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>One family that returned was that of Uthai son of Ammihud, son of Omri, son of Imri, son of Bani, a descendant of Perez son of Judah.

<sup>6</sup>From the Zerahite clan, Jeuel returned with his relatives. In all, 690 families from the tribe of Judah returned.

<sup>7</sup>From the tribe of Benjamin came Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Hodaviah, son of Hassenuah; <sup>8</sup>Ibneiah son of Jeroham; Elah son of Uzzi, son of Micri; and Meshullam son of Shephatiah, son of Reuel, son of Ibrijah.

<sup>9</sup>These men were all leaders of clans, and they were listed in their genealogical records. In all, 956 families from the tribe of Benjamin returned.

The Returning Priests

<sup>10</sup>Among the priests who returned were Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jakin, <sup>11</sup>Azariah son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub. Azariah was the chief officer of the house of God.

<sup>12</sup>Other returning priests were Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pashhur, son of Malkijah, and Maasai son of Adiel, son of Jahzerah, son of Meshullam, son of Meshillemith, son of Immer.

<sup>13</sup>In all, 1,760 priests returned. They were heads of clans and very able men. They were responsible for ministering at the house of God.

The Returning Levites

<sup>14</sup>The Levites who returned were Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, a descendant of Merari;

<sup>15</sup>Bakbakkar; Heresh; Galal; Mattaniah son of Mica, son of Zicri, son of Asaph; <sup>16</sup>Obadiah son of Shemaiah, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun; and Berekiah son of Asa, son of Elkanah, who lived in the area of Netophah.

<sup>17</sup>The gatekeepers who returned were Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their relatives. Shallum was the chief gatekeeper.

<sup>18</sup>Prior to this time, they were responsible for the King's Gate on the east side. These men served as gatekeepers for the camps of the Levites. <sup>19</sup>Shallum was the son of Kore, a descendant of Abiasaph, * from the clan of Korah. He and his relatives, the Korahites, were responsible for guarding the entrance to the sanctuary, just as their ancestors had guarded the Tabernacle in the camp of the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>Phinehas son of Eleazar had been in charge of the gatekeepers in earlier times, and the LORD had been with him.<sup>21</sup>And later Zechariah son of Meshelemiah was responsible for guarding the entrance to the Tabernacle.*

<sup>22</sup>In all, there were 212 gatekeepers in those days, and they were listed according to the genealogies in their villages. David and Samuel the seer had appointed their ancestors because they were reliable men.<sup>23</sup>These gatekeepers and their descendants, by their divisions, were responsible for guarding the entrance to the house of the LORD when that house was a tent.<sup>24</sup>The gatekeepers were stationed on all four sides—east, west, north, and south.<sup>25</sup>Their relatives in the villages came regularly to share their duties for seven-day periods.

<sup>26</sup>The four chief gatekeepers, all Levites, were trusted officials, for they were responsible for the rooms and treasuries at the house of God.<sup>27</sup>They would spend the night around the house of God, since it was their duty to guard it and to open the gates every morning.

<sup>28</sup>Some of the gatekeepers were assigned to care for the various articles used in worship. They checked them in and out to avoid any loss.<sup>29</sup>Others were responsible for the furnishings, the items in the sanctuary, and the supplies, such as choice flour, wine, olive oil, frankincense, and spices.<sup>30</sup>But it was the priests who blended the spices.<sup>31</sup>Mattithiah, a Levite and the oldest son of Shallum the Korahite, was entrusted with baking the bread used in the offerings.<sup>32</sup> And some members of the clan of Kohath were in charge of preparing the bread to be set on the table each Sabbath day.

<sup>33</sup>The musicians, all prominent Levites, lived at the Temple. They were exempt from other responsibilities since they were on duty at all hours.<sup>34</sup> All these men lived in Jerusalem. They were the heads of Levite families and were listed as prominent leaders in their genealogical records.

King Saul's Family Tree

<sup>35</sup>Jeiel (the father of * Gibeon) lived in the town of Gibeon. His wife's name was Maacah,<sup>36</sup> and his oldest son was named Abdon. Jeiel's other sons were Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab,<sup>37</sup> Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth.<sup>38</sup> Mikloth was the father of Shimeam. All these families lived near each other in Jerusalem.

<sup>39</sup>Ner was the father of Kish.

Kish was the father of Saul.

Saul was the father of Jonathan, Malkishua, Abinadab, and Eshbaal.

<sup>40</sup>Jonathan was the father of Merib-baal.

Merib-baal was the father of Micah.

<sup>42</sup>Ahaz was the father of Jadah.*

Jadah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri.

Zimri was the father of Moza.

<sup>43</sup>Moza was the father of Binea.

Binea's son was Rephaiah.

Rephaiah's son was Eleasah.

Eleasah's son was Azel.

<sup>44</sup>Azel had six sons, whose names were Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

1 Chronicles 10

The Death of King Saul

<sup>1</sup> Now the Philistines attacked Israel, and the men of Israel fled before them. Many were slaughtered on the slopes of Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines closed in on Saul and his sons, and they killed three of his sons—Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malkishua. <sup>3</sup> The fighting grew very fierce around Saul, and the Philistine archers caught up with him and wounded him.

<sup>4</sup> Saul groaned to his armor bearer, “Take your sword and kill me before these pagan Philistines come to taunt and torture me.”

But his armor bearer was afraid and would not do it. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it. <sup>5</sup> When his armor bearer realized that Saul was dead, he fell on his own sword and died. <sup>6</sup> So Saul and his three sons died there together, bringing his dynasty to an end.

<sup>7</sup> When all the Israelites in the Jezreel Valley saw that their army had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their towns and fled. So the Philistines moved in and occupied their towns.

<sup>8</sup> The next day, when the Philistines went out to strip the dead, they found the bodies of Saul and his sons on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup> So they stripped off Saul’s armor and cut off his head. Then they proclaimed the good news of Saul’s death before their idols and to the people throughout the land of Philistia.

<sup>10</sup>They placed his armor in the temple of their gods, and they fastened his head to the temple of Dagon.

<sup>11</sup> But when everyone in Jabesh-gilead heard about everything the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup>all their mighty warriors brought the bodies of Saul and his sons back to Jabesh. Then they buried their bones beneath the great tree at Jabesh, and they fasted for seven days.

<sup>13</sup> So Saul died because he was unfaithful to the LORD. He failed to obey the LORD's command, and he even consulted a medium <sup>14</sup>instead of asking the LORD for guidance. So the LORD killed him and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse.

1 Chronicles 11

David Becomes King of All Israel

<sup>1</sup> Then all Israel gathered before David at Hebron and told him, “We are your own flesh and blood. <sup>2</sup>In the past,* even when Saul was king, you were the one who really led the forces of Israel. And the LORD your God told you, ‘You will be the shepherd of my people Israel. You will be the leader of my people Israel.’”

<sup>3</sup> So there at Hebron, David made a covenant before the LORD with all the elders of Israel. And they anointed him king of Israel, just as the LORD had promised through Samuel.

THE PLUS FACTOR

David was a bold and intelligent leader—no question about it. But behind the scenes, 1 Chronicles shows an extra dynamic that fueled his towering accomplishments.

"There at Hebron David made a covenant with the leaders of Israel before the Lord." 11:3

"David became more and more powerful, because the Lord Almighty was with him." 11:9

"David realized that the Lord had made him king over Israel and had made his kingdom very great for the sake of his people Israel." 14:2

"David now built several buildings for himself in the City of David. He also prepared a place for the Ark of God and set up a special tent there to shelter it." 15:1

"The Lord gave David victory wherever he went. . . . This was another example of how the Lord made David victorious wherever he went." 18:6, 13

"Every part of this plan,' David told Solomon, 'was given to me in writing from the hand of the Lord.'" 28:19

David Captures Jerusalem

<sup>4</sup> Then David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (or Jebus, as it used to be called), where the Jebusites, the original inhabitants of the land, were living.<sup>5</sup> The people of Jebus taunted David, saying, "You'll never get in here!" But David captured the fortress of Zion, which is now called the City of David.

<sup>6</sup>David had said to his troops, “Whoever is first to attack the Jebusites will become the commander of my armies!” And Joab, the son of David’s sister Zeruiah, was first to attack, so he became the commander of David’s armies.

<sup>7</sup>David made the fortress his home, and that is why it is called the City of David. <sup>8</sup>He extended the city from the supporting terraces* to the surrounding area, while Joab rebuilt the rest of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> And David became more and more powerful, because the LORD of Heaven’s Armies was with him.

David’s Mightiest Warriors

<sup>10</sup>These are the leaders of David’s mighty warriors. Together with all Israel, they decided to make David their king, just as the LORD had promised concerning Israel.

<sup>11</sup>Here is the record of David’s mightiest warriors: The first was Jashobeam the Hacmonite, who was leader of the Three—the mightiest warriors among David’s men.* He once used his spear to kill 300 enemy warriors in a single battle.

<sup>12</sup>Next in rank among the Three was Eleazar son of Dodai,* a descendant of Ahoah. <sup>13</sup>He was with David in the battle against the Philistines at Pas-dammim. The battle took place in a field full of barley, and the Israelite army fled. <sup>14</sup>But Eleazar and David* held their ground in the middle of the field and beat back the Philistines. So the LORD saved them by giving them a great victory.

<sup>15</sup>Once when David was at the rock near the cave of Adullam, the Philistine army was camped in the valley of Rephaim. The Three (who were among the Thirty—an elite group among David’s fighting men) went down to meet him there.<sup>16</sup> David was staying in the stronghold at the time, and a Philistine detachment had occupied the town of Bethlehem.

<sup>17</sup>David remarked longingly to his men, “Oh, how I would love some of that good water from the well by the gate in Bethlehem.”<sup>18</sup> So the Three broke through the Philistine lines, drew some water from the well by the gate in Bethlehem, and brought it back to David. But David refused to drink it. Instead, he poured it out as an offering to the LORD.<sup>19</sup> “God forbid that I should drink this!” he exclaimed. “This water is as precious as the blood of these men* who risked their lives to bring it to me.” So David did not drink it. These are examples of the exploits of the Three.

David’s Thirty Mighty Men

<sup>20</sup>Abishai, the brother of Joab, was the leader of the Thirty.* He once used his spear to kill 300 enemy warriors in a single battle. It was by such feats that he became as famous as the Three.

<sup>21</sup>Abishai was the most famous of the Thirty and was their commander, though he was not one of the Three.

<sup>22</sup>There was also Benaiah son of Jehoiada, a valiant warrior from Kabzeel. He did many heroic deeds, which included killing two champions* of Moab. Another time, on a snowy day, he chased a lion down into a pit and killed it.<sup>23</sup> Once, armed only with a club, he killed an Egyptian warrior who was 7½ feet* tall and whose spear was as thick as a weaver’s beam. Benaiah wrenched the spear from the Egyptian’s hand and killed him with it. <sup>24</sup>Deeds like these made Benaiah as famous as the three mightiest warriors. <sup>25</sup>He was more honored than the other members of the Thirty, though he was not one of the Three. And David made him captain of his bodyguard.

<sup>26</sup>David's mighty warriors also included:

Asahel, Joab's brother;

Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem;

<sup>27</sup>Shammah from Harod;*

Helez from Pelon;

<sup>28</sup>Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa;

Abiezer from Anathoth;

<sup>29</sup>Sibbecai from Hushah;

Zalmon* from Ahoah;

<sup>30</sup>Maharai from Netophah;

Heled son of Baanah from Netophah;

<sup>31</sup>Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah (in the land of Benjamin);

Benaiah from Pirathon;

<sup>32</sup>Hurai from near Nahale-gaash*;

Abi-albon* from Arabah;

<sup>33</sup>Azmaveth from Bahurim*;

Eliabba from Shaalbon;

<sup>34</sup>the sons of Jashen* from Gizon;

Jonathan son of Shagee from Harar;

<sup>35</sup>Ahiam son of Sharar* from Harar;

Eliphal son of Ur;

<sup>36</sup>Hepher from Mekerah;

Ahijah from Pelon;

<sup>37</sup>Hezro from Carmel;

Paarai* son of Ezbai;

<sup>38</sup>Joel, the brother of Nathan;

Mibhar son of Hagri;

<sup>39</sup>Zelek from Ammon;

Naharai from Beeroth, Joab's armor bearer;

<sup>40</sup>Ira from Jattir;

Gareb from Jattir;

<sup>41</sup>Uriah the Hittite;

Zabad son of Ahlai;

<sup>42</sup>Adina son of Shiza, the Reubenite leader who had thirty men with him;

Joshaphat from Mithna;

<sup>44</sup>Uzzia from Ashtaroth;

Shama and Jeiel, the sons of Hotham, from Aroer;

<sup>45</sup>Jediael son of Shimri;

Joha, his brother, from Tiz;

<sup>46</sup>Eliel from Mahavah;

Jeribai and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam;

Ithmah from Moab;

<sup>47</sup>Eliel and Obed;

Jaasiel from Zobah.*

1 Chronicles 12

Warriors Join David's Army

<sup>1</sup> The following men joined David at Ziklag while he was hiding from Saul son of Kish. They were among the warriors who fought beside David in battle. <sup>2</sup> All of them were expert archers, and they could shoot arrows or sling stones with their left hand as well as their right. They were all relatives of Saul from the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>3</sup> Their leader was Ahiezer son of Shemaah from Gibeah; his brother Joash was second-in-command. These were the other warriors:

Jeziel and Pelet, sons of Azmaveth;

Beracah;

Jehu from Anathoth;

<sup>4</sup> Ishmaiah from Gibeon, a famous warrior and leader among the Thirty;

*Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Jozabad from Gederah;

<sup>8</sup> Some brave and experienced warriors from the tribe of Gad also defected to David while he was at the stronghold in the wilderness. They were expert with both shield and spear, as fierce as lions and as swift as deer on the mountains.

<sup>9</sup>Ezer was their leader.

Obadiah was second.

Eliab was third.

<sup>10</sup>Mishmannah was fourth.

Jeremiah was fifth.

<sup>11</sup>Attai was sixth.

Eliel was seventh.

<sup>12</sup>Johanan was eighth.

Elzabad was ninth.

<sup>13</sup>Jeremiah was tenth.

Macbannai was eleventh.

<sup>14</sup>These warriors from Gad were army commanders. The weakest among them could take on a hundred regular troops, and the strongest could take on a thousand! <sup>15</sup>These were the men who crossed the Jordan River during its seasonal flooding at the beginning of the year and drove out all the people living in the lowlands on both the east and west banks.

<sup>16</sup> Others from Benjamin and Judah came to David at the stronghold. <sup>17</sup>David went out to meet them and said, "If you have come in peace to help me, we are friends. But if you have come to betray me to my enemies when I am innocent, then may the God of our ancestors see it and punish you."

<sup>18</sup> Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, the leader of the Thirty, and he said,

“We are yours, David!
We are on your side, son of Jesse.
Peace and prosperity be with you, and success to all who help you, for your God is the one who helps you.”

So David let them join him, and he made them officers over his troops.

<sup>19</sup>Some men from Manasseh defected from the Israelite army and joined David when he set out with the Philistines to fight against Saul. But as it turned out, the Philistine rulers refused to let David and his men go with them. After much discussion, they sent them back, for they said, “It will cost us our heads if David switches loyalties to Saul and turns against us.”

<sup>20</sup>Here is a list of the men from Manasseh who defected to David as he was returning to Ziklag: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai. Each commanded 1,000 troops from the tribe of Manasseh. <sup>21</sup>They helped David chase down bands of raiders, for they were all brave and able warriors who became commanders in his army. <sup>22</sup>Day after day more men joined David until he had a great army, like the army of God.

<sup>23</sup>These are the numbers of armed warriors who joined David at Hebron. They were all eager to see David become king instead of Saul, just as the LORD had promised.

<sup>24</sup>From the tribe of Judah, there were 6,800 warriors armed with shields and spears.

<sup>29</sup>From the tribe of Benjamin, Saul's relatives, there were 3,000 warriors. Most of the men from Benjamin had remained loyal to Saul until this time.

<sup>30</sup>From the tribe of Ephraim, there were 20,800 brave warriors, each highly respected in his own clan.

<sup>31</sup>From the half-tribe of Manasseh west of the Jordan, 18,000 men were designated by name to help David become king.

<sup>32</sup>From the tribe of Issachar, there were 200 leaders of the tribe with their relatives. All these men understood the signs of the times and knew the best course for Israel to take.

<sup>33</sup>From the tribe of Zebulun, there were 50,000 skilled warriors. They were fully armed and prepared for battle and completely loyal to David.

<sup>34</sup>From the tribe of Naphtali, there were 1,000 officers and 37,000 warriors armed with shields and spears.

<sup>35</sup>From the tribe of Dan, there were 28,600 warriors, all prepared for battle.

<sup>36</sup>From the tribe of Asher, there were 40,000 trained warriors, all prepared for battle.

<sup>37</sup>From the east side of the Jordan River—where the tribes of Reuben and Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh lived—there were 120,000 troops armed with every kind of weapon.

<sup>38</sup>All these men came in battle array to Hebron with the single purpose of making David the king over all Israel. In fact, everyone in Israel agreed that David should be their king.

<sup>39</sup>They feasted and drank with David for three days, for preparations had been made by their relatives for their arrival.

<sup>40</sup>And people from as far away as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali brought food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen. Vast supplies of flour, fig cakes, clusters of raisins, wine, olive oil, cattle, sheep, and goats were brought to the celebration. There was great joy throughout the land of Israel.

1 Chronicles 13

David Attempts to Move the Ark

<sup>1</sup> David consulted with all his officials, including the generals and captains of his army.* <sup>2</sup>Then he addressed the entire assembly of Israel as follows: “If you approve and if it is the will of the LORD our God, let us send messages to all the Israelites throughout the land, including the priests and Levites in their towns and pasturelands. Let us invite them to come and join us. <sup>3</sup>It is time to bring back the Ark of our God, for we neglected it during the reign of Saul.”

<sup>4</sup>The whole assembly agreed to this, for the people could see it was the right thing to do. <sup>5</sup>So David summoned all Israel, from the Shihor Brook of Egypt in the south all the way to the town of Lebo-hamath in the north, to join in bringing the Ark of God from Kiriath-jearim. <sup>6</sup>Then David and all Israel went to Baalah of Judah (also called Kiriath-jearim) to bring back the Ark of God, which bears the name* of the LORD who is enthroned between the cherubim. <sup>7</sup>They placed the Ark of God on a new cart and brought it from Abinadab’s house. Uzzah and Ahio were guiding the cart. <sup>8</sup>David and all Israel were celebrating before God with all their might, singing songs and playing all kinds of musical instruments—lyres, harps, tambourines, cymbals, and trumpets.

<sup>9</sup> But when they arrived at the threshing floor of Nacon,* the oxen stumbled, and Uzzah reached out his hand to steady the

Ark. <sup>10</sup>Then the LORD's anger was aroused against Uzzah, and he struck him dead because he had laid his hand on the Ark. So Uzzah died there in the presence of God.

<sup>11</sup>David was angry because the LORD's anger had burst out against Uzzah. He named that place Perez-uzzah (which means "to burst out against Uzzah"), as it is still called today.

<sup>12</sup>David was now afraid of God, and he asked, "How can I ever bring the Ark of God back into my care?" <sup>13</sup> So David did not move the Ark into the City of David. Instead, he took it to the house of Obed-edom of Gath. <sup>14</sup>The Ark of God remained there in Obed-edom's house for three months, and the LORD blessed the household of Obed-edom and everything he owned.

1 Chronicles 14

David's Palace and Family

<sup>1</sup> Then King Hiram of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar timber, and stonemasons and carpenters to build him a palace. <sup>2</sup> And David realized that the LORD had confirmed him as king over Israel and had greatly blessed his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.

David Conquers the Philistines

<sup>8</sup> When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, they mobilized all their forces to capture him. But David was told they were coming, so he marched out to meet them. <sup>9</sup> The Philistines arrived and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>10</sup> So David asked God, "Should I go out to fight the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?"

The LORD replied, "Yes, go ahead. I will hand them over to you."

<sup>11</sup> So David and his troops went up to Baal-perazim and defeated the Philistines there. "God did it!" David exclaimed. "He used me to burst through my enemies like a raging flood!"

So they named that place Baal-perazim (which means “the Lord who bursts through”). <sup>12</sup>The Philistines had abandoned their gods there, so David gave orders to burn them.

<sup>13</sup>But after a while the Philistines returned and raided the valley again. <sup>14</sup>And once again David asked God what to do. “Do not attack them straight on,” God replied. “Instead, circle around behind and attack them near the poplar* trees. <sup>15</sup>When you hear a sound like marching feet in the tops of the poplar trees, go out and attack! That will be the signal that God is moving ahead of you to strike down the Philistine army.” <sup>16</sup> So David did what God commanded, and they struck down the Philistine army all the way from Gibeon to Gezer.

<sup>17</sup>So David’s fame spread everywhere, and the LORD caused all the nations to fear David.

1 Chronicles 15

Preparing to Move the Ark

<sup>1</sup>David now built several buildings for himself in the City of David. He also prepared a place for the Ark of God and set up a special tent for it. <sup>2</sup>Then he commanded, “No one except the Levites may carry the Ark of God. The LORD has chosen them to carry the Ark of the LORD and to serve him forever.”

<sup>3</sup>Then David summoned all Israel to Jerusalem to bring the Ark of the LORD to the place he had prepared for it. <sup>4</sup>This is the number of the descendants of Aaron (the priests) and the Levites who were called together:

<sup>11</sup>Then David summoned the priests, Zadok and Abiathar, and these Levite leaders: Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab. <sup>12</sup>He said to them, “You are the leaders of the Levite families. You must purify yourselves and all your fellow Levites, so you can bring the Ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place I have prepared for it. <sup>13</sup>Because you Levites did not carry the Ark the first time, the anger of the LORD our God burst out against us. We failed to ask God how to move it properly.” <sup>14</sup>So the priests and the Levites purified themselves in order to bring the Ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>Then the Levites carried the Ark of God on their shoulders with its carrying poles, just as the LORD had instructed Moses.

<sup>16</sup>David also ordered the Levite leaders to appoint a choir of Levites who were singers and musicians to sing joyful songs to the accompaniment of harps, lyres, and cymbals. <sup>17</sup>So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel along with his fellow Levites: Asaph son of Berekiah, and Ethan son of Kushaiah from the clan of Merari. <sup>18</sup>The following men were chosen as their assistants: Zechariah, Jaaziel,* Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, and the gatekeepers—Obed-edom and Jeiel.

<sup>23</sup>Berekiah and Elkanah were chosen to guard* the Ark. <sup>24</sup>Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer—all of whom were priests—were chosen to blow the trumpets as they marched in front of the Ark of God. Obed-edom and Jehiah were chosen to guard the Ark.

Moving the Ark to Jerusalem

<sup>25</sup> Then David and the elders of Israel and the generals of the army* went to the house of Obed-edom to bring the Ark of the LORD's Covenant up to Jerusalem with a great celebration. <sup>26</sup> And because God was clearly helping the Levites as they carried the Ark of the LORD's Covenant, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams.

<sup>27</sup> David was dressed in a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who carried the Ark, and also the singers, and Kenaniah the choir leader. David was also wearing a priestly garment.* <sup>28</sup> So all Israel brought up the Ark of the LORD's Covenant with shouts of joy, the blowing of rams' horns and trumpets, the crashing of cymbals, and loud playing on harps and lyres.

<sup>29</sup> But as the Ark of the LORD's Covenant entered the City of David, Michal, the daughter of Saul, looked down from her window. When she saw King David skipping about and laughing with joy, she was filled with contempt for him.

1 Chronicles 16

<sup>1</sup> They brought the Ark of God and placed it inside the special tent David had prepared for it. And they presented burnt offerings and peace offerings to God. <sup>2</sup> When he had finished his sacrifices, David blessed the people in the name of the LORD. <sup>3</sup> Then he gave to every man and woman in all Israel a loaf of bread, a cake of dates,* and a cake of raisins.

<sup>4</sup> David appointed the following Levites to lead the people in worship before the Ark of the LORD—to invoke his blessings, to give thanks, and to praise the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>5</sup> Asaph, the leader of this group, sounded the cymbals. Second to him was Zechariah, followed by Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom, and Jeiel. They played the harps and lyres. <sup>6</sup> The priests, Benaiah and Jahaziel, played the trumpets regularly before the Ark of God's Covenant.

David's Song of Praise

<sup>7</sup> On that day David gave to Asaph and his fellow Levites this song of thanksgiving to the LORD:

<sup>8</sup> Give thanks to the LORD and proclaim his greatness.

Let the whole world know what he has done.

<sup>9</sup> Sing to him; yes, sing his praises.

Tell everyone about his wonderful deeds.

<sup>10</sup> Exult in his holy name;
rejoice, you who worship the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>Search for the LORD and for his strength; continually seek him.

<sup>12</sup>Remember the wonders he has performed, his miracles, and the rulings he has given,

<sup>13</sup>you children of his servant Israel, you descendants of Jacob, his chosen ones.

<sup>14</sup>He is the LORD our God.

His justice is seen throughout the land.

<sup>15</sup>Remember his covenant forever—
the commitment he made to a thousand generations.

<sup>16</sup>This is the covenant he made with Abraham and the oath he swore to Isaac.

<sup>17</sup>He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, and to the people of Israel as a never-ending covenant:

<sup>18</sup>“I will give you the land of Canaan as your special possession.”

<sup>19</sup>He said this when you were few in number, a tiny group of strangers in Canaan.

<sup>20</sup>They wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another.

<sup>21</sup>Yet he did not let anyone oppress them.
He warned kings on their behalf:

<sup>22</sup>“Do not touch my chosen people, and do not hurt my prophets.”

<sup>23</sup>Let the whole earth sing to the LORD!

Each day proclaim the good news that he saves.

<sup>24</sup>Publish his glorious deeds among the nations.

Tell everyone about the amazing things he does.

<sup>25</sup>Great is the LORD! He is most worthy of praise!

He is to be feared above all gods.

<sup>26</sup>The gods of other nations are mere idols, but the LORD made the heavens!

<sup>27</sup>Honor and majesty surround him; strength and joy fill his dwelling.

<sup>28</sup>O nations of the world, recognize the LORD, recognize that the LORD is glorious and strong.

<sup>29</sup>Give to the LORD the glory he deserves!

Bring your offering and come into his presence.

Worship the LORD in all his holy splendor.

<sup>30</sup>Let all the earth tremble before him.

The world stands firm and cannot be shaken.

<sup>31</sup>Let the heavens be glad, and the earth rejoice!

Tell all the nations, "The LORD reigns!"

<sup>32</sup>Let the sea and everything in it shout his praise!

Let the fields and their crops burst out with joy!

<sup>33</sup>Let the trees of the forest rustle with praise, for the LORD is coming to judge the earth.

<sup>34</sup>Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good!

His faithful love endures forever.

<sup>35</sup>Cry out, "Save us, O God of our salvation!"

Gather and rescue us from among the nations, so we can thank your holy name and rejoice and praise you.”

<sup>36</sup>Praise the LORD, the God of Israel, who lives from everlasting to everlasting!

And all the people shouted “Amen!” and praised the LORD.

Worship at Jerusalem and Gibeon

<sup>37</sup>David arranged for Asaph and his fellow Levites to serve regularly before the Ark of the LORD’s Covenant, doing whatever needed to be done each day. <sup>38</sup>This group included Obed-edom (son of Jeduthun), Hosah, and sixty-eight other Levites as gatekeepers.

<sup>40</sup>They sacrificed the regular burnt offerings to the LORD each morning and evening on the altar set aside for that purpose, obeying everything written in the Law of the LORD, as he had commanded Israel. <sup>41</sup>David also appointed Heman, Jeduthun, and the others chosen by name to give thanks to the LORD, for “his faithful love endures forever.” <sup>42</sup>They used their trumpets, cymbals, and other instruments to accompany their songs of praise to God.* And the sons of Jeduthun were appointed as gatekeepers.

<sup>43</sup>Then all the people returned to their homes, and David turned and went home to bless his own family.

Comebacks

1 Chronicles 17

The LORD's Covenant Promise to David

<sup>1</sup> When David was settled in his palace, he summoned Nathan the prophet. “Look,” David said, “I am living in a beautiful cedar palace,* but the Ark of the LORD’s Covenant is out there under a tent!”

<sup>2</sup> Nathan replied to David, “Do whatever you have in mind, for God is with you.”

<sup>3</sup> But that same night God said to Nathan,

<sup>4</sup>“Go and tell my servant David, ‘This is what the LORD has declared: You are not the one to build a house for me to live in. <sup>5</sup>I have never lived in a house, from the day I brought the Israelites out of Egypt until this very day. My home has always been a tent, moving from one place to another in a Tabernacle. <sup>6</sup>Yet no matter where I have gone with the Israelites, I have never once complained to Israel’s leaders,* the shepherds of my people. I have never asked them, ‘Why haven’t you built me a beautiful cedar house?’”

<sup>7</sup>“Now go and say to my servant David, ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies has declared: I took you from tending sheep in the pasture and selected you to be the leader of my people Israel. <sup>8</sup>I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have destroyed all your enemies before your eyes. Now I will make your name as famous as anyone who has ever lived on the earth!<sup>9</sup> And I will provide a homeland for my people Israel, planting them in a secure place where they will never be disturbed. Evil nations won't oppress them as they've done in the past,<sup>10</sup> starting from the time I appointed judges to rule my people Israel. And I will defeat all your enemies.

“Furthermore, I declare that the LORD will build a house for you—a dynasty of kings!<sup>11</sup> For when you die and join your ancestors, I will raise up one of your descendants, one of your sons, and I will make his kingdom strong.<sup>12</sup> He is the one who will build a house—a temple—for me. And I will secure his throne forever.<sup>13</sup> I will be his father, and he will be my son. I will never take my favor from him as I took it from the one who ruled before you.<sup>14</sup> I will confirm him as king over my house and my kingdom for all time, and his throne will be secure forever.”

<sup>15</sup>So Nathan went back to David and told him everything the LORD had said in this vision.

David's Prayer of Thanks

<sup>16</sup>Then King David went in and sat before the LORD and prayed,

“Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my family, that you have brought me this far? <sup>17</sup>And now, O God, in addition to everything else, you speak of giving your servant a lasting dynasty! You speak as though I were someone very great,* O LORD God!

<sup>18</sup>“What more can I say to you about the way you have honored me? You know what your servant is really like.

<sup>19</sup>For the sake of your servant, O LORD, and according to your will, you have done all these great things and have made them known.

<sup>20</sup>“O LORD, there is no one like you. We have never even heard of another God like you! <sup>21</sup>What other nation on earth is like your people Israel? What other nation, O God, have you redeemed from slavery to be your own people? You made a great name for yourself when you redeemed your people from Egypt. You performed awesome miracles and drove out the nations that stood in their way. <sup>22</sup>You chose Israel to be your very own people forever, and you, O LORD, became their God.

<sup>23</sup>“And now, O LORD, I am your servant; do as you have promised concerning me and my family. May it be a promise that will last forever. <sup>24</sup>And may your name be established and honored forever so that everyone will say, ‘The LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, is Israel’s God!’ And may the house of your servant David continue before you forever.

<sup>25</sup>“O my God, I have been bold enough to pray to you because you have revealed to your servant that you will build a house for him—a dynasty of kings! <sup>26</sup>For you are God, O LORD. And you have promised these good things to your servant. <sup>27</sup>And now, it has pleased you to bless the house of your servant, so that it will continue forever before you. For when you grant a blessing, O LORD, it is an eternal blessing!”

1 Chronicles 18

David's Military Victories

<sup>1</sup>After this, David defeated and subdued the Philistines by conquering Gath and its surrounding towns.<sup>2</sup>David also conquered the land of Moab, and the Moabites who were spared became David's subjects and paid him tribute money.

<sup>3</sup>David also destroyed the forces of Hadadezer, king of Zobah, as far as Hamath,* when Hadadezer marched out to strengthen his control along the Euphrates River.<sup>4</sup> David captured 1,000 chariots, 7,000 charioteers, and 20,000 foot soldiers. He crippled all the chariot horses except enough for 100 chariots.

<sup>5</sup>When Arameans from Damascus arrived to help King Hadadezer, David killed 22,000 of them.<sup>6</sup>Then he placed several army garrisons* in Damascus, the Aramean capital, and the Arameans became David's subjects and paid him tribute money. So the LORD made David victorious wherever he went.

<sup>7</sup>David brought the gold shields of Hadadezer's officers to Jerusalem,<sup>8</sup>along with a large amount of bronze from Hadadezer's towns of Tebah* and Cun. Later Solomon melted the bronze and molded it into the great bronze basin called the Sea, the pillars, and the various bronze articles used at the Temple.

<sup>9</sup>When King Toi* of Hamath heard that David had destroyed the entire army of King Hadadezer of Zobah,<sup>10</sup>he sent his son Joram* to congratulate King David for his successful campaign. Hadadezer and Toi had been enemies and were often at war. Joram presented David with many gifts of gold, silver, and bronze.

<sup>11</sup>King David dedicated all these gifts to the LORD, along with the silver and gold he had taken from the other nations—from Edom, Moab, Ammon, Philistia, and Amalek.

<sup>12</sup>Abishai son of Zeruiah destroyed 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. <sup>13</sup>He placed army garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became David's subjects. In fact, the LORD made David victorious wherever he went.

<sup>14</sup>So David reigned over all Israel and did what was just and right for all his people. <sup>15</sup>Joab son of Zeruiah was commander of the army. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the royal historian. <sup>16</sup>Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech* son of Abiathar were the priests. Seraiah* was the court secretary. <sup>17</sup>Benaiah son of Jehoiada was captain of the king's bodyguard.* And David's sons served as the king's chief assistants.

1 Chronicles 19

David Defeats the Ammonites

<sup>1</sup> Some time after this, King Nahash of the Ammonites died, and his son Hanun* became king. <sup>2</sup>David said, “I am going to show loyalty to Hanun because his father, Nahash, was always loyal to me.” So David sent messengers to express sympathy to Hanun about his father’s death.

But when David’s ambassadors arrived in the land of Ammon, <sup>3</sup>the Ammonite commanders said to Hanun, “Do you really think these men are coming here to honor your father? No! David has sent them to spy out the land so they can come in and conquer it!” <sup>4</sup>So Hanun seized David’s ambassadors and shaved them, cut off their robes at the buttocks, and sent them back to David in shame.

<sup>5</sup> When David heard what had happened to the men, he sent messengers to tell them, “Stay at Jericho until your beards grow out, and then come back.” For they felt deep shame because of their appearance.

<sup>6</sup>When the people of Ammon realized how seriously they had angered David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent 75,000 pounds* of silver to hire chariots and charioteers from Aram-naharaim, Aram-maacah, and Zobah. <sup>7</sup>They also hired 32,000 chariots and secured the support of the king of Maacah and his army. These forces camped at Medeba, where they were joined by the Ammonite troops that Hanun had recruited from his own towns.<sup>8</sup>When David heard about this, he sent Joab and all his warriors to fight them.<sup>9</sup>The Ammonite troops came out and drew up their battle lines at the entrance of the city, while the other kings positioned themselves to fight in the open fields.

<sup>10</sup>When Joab saw that he would have to fight on both the front and the rear, he chose some of Israel's elite troops and placed them under his personal command to fight the Arameans in the fields.<sup>11</sup>He left the rest of the army under the command of his brother Abishai, who was to attack the Ammonites.<sup>12</sup>“If the Arameans are too strong for me, then come over and help me,” Joab told his brother. “And if the Ammonites are too strong for you, I will help you.”<sup>13</sup> Be courageous! Let us fight bravely for our people and the cities of our God. May the LORD's will be done.”

<sup>14</sup>When Joab and his troops attacked, the Arameans began to run away.<sup>15</sup>And when the Ammonites saw the Arameans running, they also ran from Abishai and retreated into the city. Then Joab returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup>The Arameans now realized that they were no match for Israel, so they sent messengers and summoned additional Aramean troops from the other side of the Euphrates River.* These troops were under the command of Shobach,* the commander of Hadadezer's forces.

<sup>17</sup>When David heard what was happening, he mobilized all Israel, crossed the Jordan River, and positioned his troops in battle formation. Then David engaged the Arameans in battle, and they fought against him.<sup>18</sup>But again the Arameans fled from the Israelites. This time David's forces killed 7,000 charioteers and 40,000 foot soldiers, including Shobach, the commander of their army. <sup>19</sup>When Hadadezer's allies saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they surrendered to David and became his subjects. After that, the Arameans were no longer willing to help the Ammonites.

1 Chronicles 20

David Captures Rabbah

<sup>1</sup>In the spring of the year,* when kings normally go out to war, Joab led the Israelite army in successful attacks against the land of the Ammonites. In the process he laid siege to the city of Rabbah. However, David stayed behind in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>When David arrived at Rabbah, he removed the crown from the king's head,* and it was placed on his own head. The crown was made of gold and set with gems, and he found that it weighed seventy-five pounds.* David took a vast amount of plunder from the city. <sup>3</sup>He also made slaves of the people of Rabbah and forced them to labor with saws, iron picks, and iron axes.* That is how David dealt with the people of all the Ammonite towns. Then David and all the army returned to Jerusalem.

Battles against Philistine Giants

<sup>4</sup>After this, war broke out with the Philistines at Gezer. As they fought, Sibbecai from Hushah killed Saph,* a descendant of the giants,* and so the Philistines were subdued.

<sup>5</sup>During another battle with the Philistines, Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi, the brother of Goliath of Gath. The handle of Lahmi's spear was as thick as a weaver's beam!

<sup>6</sup>In another battle with the Philistines at Gath, they encountered a huge man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in all, who was also a descendant of the giants.<sup>7</sup>But when he defied and taunted Israel, he was killed by Jonathan, the son of David's brother Shimea.

<sup>8</sup>These Philistines were descendants of the giants of Gath, but David and his warriors killed them.

1 Chronicles 21

David Takes a Census

<sup>1</sup> Satan rose up against Israel and caused David to take a census of the people of Israel. <sup>2</sup>So David said to Joab and the commanders of the army, “Take a census of all the people of Israel—from Beersheba in the south to Dan in the north—and bring me a report so I may know how many there are.”

<sup>3</sup>But Joab replied, “May the LORD increase the number of his people a hundred times over! But why, my lord the king, do you want to do this? Are they not all your servants? Why must you cause Israel to sin?”

<sup>4</sup>But the king insisted that they take the census, so Joab traveled throughout all Israel to count the people. Then he returned to Jerusalem<sup>5</sup> and reported the number of people to David. There were 1,100,000 warriors in all Israel who could handle a sword, and 470,000 in Judah. <sup>6</sup>But Joab did not include the tribes of Levi and Benjamin in the census because he was so distressed at what the king had made him do.

Judgment for David's Sin

<sup>7</sup>God was very displeased with the census, and he punished Israel for it. <sup>8</sup>Then David said to God, “I have sinned greatly by taking this census. Please forgive my guilt for doing this foolish thing.”

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer. This was the message: <sup>10</sup>“Go and say to David, ‘This is what the LORD says: I will give you three choices. Choose one of these punishments, and I will inflict it on you.’”

<sup>11</sup>So Gad came to David and said, “These are the choices the LORD has given you. <sup>12</sup>You may choose three years of famine, three months of destruction by the sword of your enemies, or three days of severe plague as the angel of the LORD brings devastation throughout the land of Israel. Decide what answer I should give the LORD who sent me.”

<sup>13</sup>“I’m in a desperate situation!” David replied to Gad. “But let me fall into the hands of the LORD, for his mercy is very great. Do not let me fall into human hands.”

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD sent a plague upon Israel, and 70,000 people died as a result. <sup>15</sup>And God sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem. But just as the angel was preparing to destroy it, the LORD relented and said to the death angel, “Stop! That is enough!” At that moment the angel of the LORD was standing by the threshing floor of Araunah* the Jebusite.

<sup>16</sup>David looked up and saw the angel of the LORD standing between heaven and earth with his sword drawn, reaching out over Jerusalem. So David and the leaders of Israel put on burlap to show their deep distress and fell face down on the ground. <sup>17</sup>And David said to God, “I am the one who called for the census! I am the one who has sinned and done wrong! But these people are as innocent as sheep—what have they done? O LORD my God, let your anger fall against me and my family, but do not destroy your people.”

David Builds an Altar

<sup>18</sup>Then the angel of the LORD told Gad to instruct David to go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite. <sup>19</sup>So David went up to do what the LORD had commanded him through Gad. <sup>20</sup>Araunah, who was busy threshing wheat at the time, turned and saw the angel there. His four sons, who were with him, ran away and hid. <sup>21</sup>When Araunah saw David approaching, he left his threshing floor and bowed before David with his face to the ground.

<sup>22</sup>David said to Araunah, "Let me buy this threshing floor from you at its full price. Then I will build an altar to the LORD there, so that he will stop the plague."

<sup>23</sup>"Take it, my lord the king, and use it as you wish," Araunah said to David. "I will give the oxen for the burnt offerings, and the threshing boards for wood to build a fire on the altar, and the wheat for the grain offering. I will give it all to you."

<sup>24</sup>But King David replied to Araunah, "No, I insist on buying it for the full price. I will not take what is yours and give it to the LORD. I will not present burnt offerings that have cost me nothing!" <sup>25</sup>So David gave Araunah 600 pieces of gold* in payment for the threshing floor.

<sup>26</sup>David built an altar there to the LORD and sacrificed burnt offerings and peace offerings. And when David prayed, the LORD answered him by sending fire from heaven to burn up the offering on the altar. <sup>27</sup>Then the LORD spoke to the angel, who put the sword back into its sheath.

<sup>28</sup>When David saw that the LORD had answered his prayer, he offered sacrifices there at Araunah's threshing floor. <sup>29</sup>At that time the Tabernacle of the LORD and the altar of burnt offering that Moses had made in the wilderness were located at the place of worship in Gibeon.<sup>30</sup> But David was not able to go there to inquire of God, because he was terrified by the drawn sword of the angel of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 22

<sup>1</sup> Then David said, “This will be the location for the Temple of the LORD God and the place of the altar for Israel’s burnt offerings!”

Preparations for the Temple

<sup>2</sup> So David gave orders to call together the foreigners living in Israel, and he assigned them the task of preparing finished stone for building the Temple of God. <sup>3</sup> David provided large amounts of iron for the nails that would be needed for the doors in the gates and for the clamps, and he gave more bronze than could be weighed. <sup>4</sup> He also provided innumerable cedar logs, for the men of Tyre and Sidon had brought vast amounts of cedar to David.

<sup>5</sup> David said, “My son Solomon is still young and inexperienced. And since the Temple to be built for the LORD must be a magnificent structure, famous and glorious throughout the world, I will begin making preparations for it now.” So David collected vast amounts of building materials before his death.

<sup>6</sup> Then David sent for his son Solomon and instructed him to build a Temple for the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>7</sup> “My son, I wanted to build a Temple to honor the name of the LORD my God,” David told him. <sup>8</sup> “But the LORD said to me, ‘You have killed many men in the battles you have fought. And since you have shed so much blood in my sight, you will not be the one to build a Temple to honor my name. <sup>9</sup>But you will have a son who will be a man of peace. I will give him peace with his enemies in all the surrounding lands. His name will be Solomon,* and I will give peace and quiet to Israel during his reign. <sup>10</sup>He is the one who will build a Temple to honor my name. He will be my son, and I will be his father. And I will secure the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.’

<sup>11</sup>“Now, my son, may the LORD be with you and give you success as you follow his directions in building the Temple of the LORD your God. <sup>12</sup>And may the LORD give you wisdom and understanding, that you may obey the Law of the LORD your God as you rule over Israel. <sup>13</sup>For you will be successful if you carefully obey the decrees and regulations that the LORD gave to Israel through Moses. Be strong and courageous; do not be afraid or lose heart!

<sup>14</sup>“I have worked hard to provide materials for building the Temple of the LORD—nearly 4,000 tons of gold, 40,000 tons of silver,* and so much iron and bronze that it cannot be weighed. I have also gathered timber and stone for the walls, though you may need to add more. <sup>15</sup>You have a large number of skilled stonemasons and carpenters and craftsmen of every kind. <sup>16</sup>You have expert goldsmiths and silversmiths and workers of bronze and iron. Now begin the work, and may the LORD be with you!”

<sup>17</sup>Then David ordered all the leaders of Israel to assist Solomon in this project. <sup>18</sup>“The LORD your God is with you,” he declared. “He has given you peace with the surrounding nations. He has handed them over to me, and they are now subject to the LORD and his people. <sup>19</sup>Now seek the LORD your God with all your heart and soul. Build the sanctuary of the LORD God so that you can bring the Ark of the LORD's Covenant and the holy vessels of God into the Temple built to honor the LORD's name."

1 Chronicles 23

Duties of the Levites

<sup>1</sup> When David was an old man, he appointed his son Solomon to be king over Israel. <sup>2</sup>David summoned all the leaders of Israel, together with the priests and Levites. <sup>3</sup>All the Levites who were thirty years old or older were counted, and the total came to 38,000. <sup>4</sup>Then David said, “From all the Levites, 24,000 will supervise the work at the Temple of the LORD. Another 6,000 will serve as officials and judges. <sup>5</sup>Another 4,000 will work as gatekeepers, and 4,000 will praise the LORD with the musical instruments I have made.” <sup>6</sup>Then David divided the Levites into divisions named after the clans descended from the three sons of Levi—Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

The Gershonites

<sup>7</sup>The Gershonite family units were defined by their lines of descent from Libni* and Shimei, the sons of Gershon. <sup>8</sup>Three of the descendants of Libni were Jehiel (the family leader), Zetham, and Joel. <sup>9</sup>These were the leaders of the family of Libni.

Three of the descendants of Shimei were Shelomoth, Haziël, and Haran. <sup>10</sup>Four other descendants of Shimei were Jahath, Ziza,* Jeush, and Beriah. <sup>11</sup>Jahath was the family leader, and Ziza was next. Jeush and Beriah were counted as a single family because neither had many sons.

The Kohathites

<sup>13</sup>The sons of Amram were Aaron and Moses. Aaron and his descendants were set apart to dedicate the most holy things, to offer sacrifices in the LORD's presence, to serve the LORD, and to pronounce blessings in his name forever.

<sup>14</sup>As for Moses, the man of God, his sons were included with the tribe of Levi. <sup>15</sup>The sons of Moses were Gershom and Eliezer. <sup>16</sup>The descendants of Gershom included Shebuel, the family leader. <sup>17</sup>Eliezer had only one son, Rehabiah, the family leader. Rehabiah had numerous descendants.

The Merarites

The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and Kish. <sup>22</sup>Eleazar died with no sons, only daughters. His daughters married their cousins, the sons of Kish.

<sup>23</sup>Three of the descendants of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth.

<sup>24</sup>These were the descendants of Levi by clans, the leaders of their family groups, registered carefully by name. Each had to be twenty years old or older to qualify for service in the house of the LORD. <sup>25</sup>For David said, “The LORD, the God of Israel, has given us peace, and he will always live in Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>Now the Levites will no longer need to carry the Tabernacle and its furnishings from place to place.” <sup>27</sup>In accordance with David’s final instructions, all the Levites twenty years old or older were registered for service.

<sup>28</sup>The work of the Levites was to assist the priests, the descendants of Aaron, as they served at the house of the LORD. They also took care of the courtyards and side rooms, helped perform the ceremonies of purification, and served in many other ways in the house of God. <sup>29</sup>They were in charge of the sacred bread that was set out on the table, the choice flour for the grain offerings, the wafers made without yeast, the cakes cooked in olive oil, and the other mixed breads. They were also responsible to check all the weights and measures. <sup>30</sup>And each morning and evening they stood before the LORD to sing songs of thanks and praise to him. <sup>31</sup>They assisted with the burnt offerings that were presented to the LORD on Sabbath days, at new moon celebrations, and at all the appointed festivals. The required number of Levites served in the LORD’s presence at all times, following all the procedures they had been given.

<sup>32</sup>And so, under the supervision of the priests, the Levites watched over the Tabernacle and the Temple * and faithfully carried out their duties of service at the house of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 24

Duties of the Priests

<sup>1</sup>This is how Aaron's descendants, the priests, were divided into groups for service. The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. <sup>2</sup>But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and they had no sons. So only Eleazar and Ithamar were left to carry on as priests.

<sup>3</sup>With the help of Zadok, who was a descendant of Eleazar, and of Ahimelech, who was a descendant of Ithamar, David divided Aaron's descendants into groups according to their various duties. <sup>4</sup>Eleazar's descendants were divided into sixteen groups and Ithamar's into eight, for there were more family leaders among the descendants of Eleazar.

<sup>5</sup>All tasks were assigned to the various groups by means of sacred lots so that no preference would be shown, for there were many qualified officials serving God in the sanctuary from among the descendants of both Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>6</sup>Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, acted as secretary and wrote down the names and assignments in the presence of the king, the officials, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the family leaders of the priests and Levites. The descendants of Eleazar and Ithamar took turns casting lots.

The second lot fell to Jedaiah.

<sup>8</sup>The third lot fell to Harim.

The fourth lot fell to Seorim.

<sup>9</sup>The fifth lot fell to Malkijah.

The sixth lot fell to Mijamin.

<sup>10</sup>The seventh lot fell to Hakkoz.

The eighth lot fell to Abijah.

<sup>11</sup>The ninth lot fell to Jeshua.

The tenth lot fell to Shecaniah.

<sup>12</sup>The eleventh lot fell to Eliashib.

The twelfth lot fell to Jakim.

<sup>13</sup>The thirteenth lot fell to Huppah.

The fourteenth lot fell to Jeshebeab.

<sup>14</sup>The fifteenth lot fell to Bilgah.

The sixteenth lot fell to Immer.

<sup>15</sup>The seventeenth lot fell to Hezir.

The eighteenth lot fell to Happizzetz.

<sup>16</sup>The nineteenth lot fell to Pethahiah.

The twentieth lot fell to Jehezkel.

<sup>17</sup>The twenty-first lot fell to Jakin.

The twenty-second lot fell to Gamul.

<sup>18</sup>The twenty-third lot fell to Delaiah.

The twenty-fourth lot fell to Maaziah.

<sup>19</sup>Each group carried out its appointed duties in the house of the LORD according to the procedures established by their ancestor Aaron in obedience to the commands of the LORD, the God of Israel.

Family Leaders among the Levites

<sup>20</sup>These were the other family leaders descended from Levi:

From the descendants of Amram, the leader was Shebuel.*

From the descendants of Shebuel, the leader was Jehdeiah.

From the descendants of Shelomith, the leader was Jahath.

<sup>23</sup>From the descendants of Hebron, Jeriah was the leader,*
Amariah was second, Jahaziel was third, and Jekameam was fourth.

<sup>24</sup>From the descendants of Uzziel, the leader was Micah.

From the descendants of Micah, the leader was Shamir, <sup>25</sup>along with Isshiah, the brother of Micah.

From the descendants of Isshiah, the leader was Zechariah.

<sup>26</sup>From the descendants of Merari, the leaders were Mahli and Mushi.

From the descendants of Jaaziah, the leader was Beno.

These were the descendants of Levi in their various families.

<sup>31</sup>Like the descendants of Aaron, they were assigned to their duties by means of sacred lots, without regard to age or rank. Lots were drawn in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the family leaders of the priests and the Levites.

1 Chronicles 25

Duties of the Musicians

<sup>1</sup>David and the army commanders then appointed men from the families of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun to proclaim God's messages to the accompaniment of lyres, harps, and cymbals. Here is a list of their names and their work:

<sup>2</sup>From the sons of Asaph, there were Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asarelah. They worked under the direction of their father, Asaph, who proclaimed God's messages by the king's orders.

<sup>3</sup>From the sons of Jeduthun, there were Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiiah, Shimei,* Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six in all. They worked under the direction of their father, Jeduthun, who proclaimed God's messages to the accompaniment of the lyre, offering thanks and praise to the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>From the sons of Heman, there were Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shubael,* Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romanti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth. <sup>5</sup>All these were the sons of Heman, the king's seer, for God had honored him with fourteen sons and three daughters.

<sup>6</sup>All these men were under the direction of their fathers as they made music at the house of the LORD. Their responsibilities included the playing of cymbals, harps, and lyres at the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman reported directly to the king.<sup>7</sup> They and their families were all trained in making music before the LORD, and each of them—288 in all—was an accomplished musician.<sup>8</sup> The musicians were appointed to their term of service by means of sacred lots, without regard to whether they were young or old, teacher or student.

<sup>9</sup>The first lot fell to Joseph of the Asaph clan and twelve of his sons and relatives.*

The second lot fell to Gedaliah and twelve of his sons and relatives.

<sup>10</sup>The third lot fell to Zaccur and twelve of his sons and relatives.

<sup>17</sup>The tenth lot fell to Shimei and twelve of his sons and relatives.

relatives.

<sup>28</sup>The twenty-first lot fell to Hothir and twelve of his sons and relatives.

<sup>29</sup>The twenty-second lot fell to Giddalti and twelve of his sons and relatives.

<sup>30</sup>The twenty-third lot fell to Mahazioth and twelve of his sons and relatives.

<sup>31</sup>The twenty-fourth lot fell to Romanti-ezer and twelve of his sons and relatives.

1 Chronicles 26

Duties of the Gatekeepers

From the Korahites, there was Meshelemiah son of Kore, of the family of Abiasaph.* <sup>2</sup>The sons of Meshelemiah were Zechariah (the oldest), Jediahel (the second), Zebadiah (the third), Jathniel (the fourth), <sup>3</sup>Elam (the fifth), Jehohanan (the sixth), and Eliehoenai (the seventh).

<sup>4</sup>The sons of Obed-edom, also gatekeepers, were Shemaiah (the oldest), Jehozabad (the second), Joah (the third), Sacar (the fourth), Nethanel (the fifth), <sup>5</sup>Ammiel (the sixth), Issachar (the seventh), and Peullethai (the eighth). God had richly blessed Obed-edom.

<sup>6</sup>Obed-edom's son Shemaiah had sons with great ability who earned positions of great authority in the clan. <sup>7</sup>Their names were Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad. Their relatives, Elihu and Semakiah, were also very capable men.

<sup>8</sup>All of these descendants of Obed-edom, including their sons and grandsons—sixty-two of them in all—were very capable men, well qualified for their work.

<sup>9</sup>Meshelemiah's eighteen sons and relatives were also very capable men.

among his sons, though he was not the oldest.<sup>11</sup>His other sons included Hilkiah (the second), Tebaliah (the third), and Zechariah (the fourth). Hosah's sons and relatives, who served as gatekeepers, numbered thirteen in all.

<sup>12</sup>These divisions of the gatekeepers were named for their family leaders, and like the other Levites, they served at the house of the LORD.<sup>13</sup>They were assigned by families for guard duty at the various gates, without regard to age or training, for it was all decided by means of sacred lots.

<sup>14</sup>The responsibility for the east gate went to Meshelemiah* and his group. The north gate was assigned to his son Zechariah, a man of unusual wisdom.<sup>15</sup>The south gate went to Obed-edom, and his sons were put in charge of the storehouse.<sup>16</sup>Shuppim and Hosah were assigned the west gate and the gateway leading up to the Temple.* Guard duties were divided evenly.<sup>17</sup>Six Levites were assigned each day to the east gate, four to the north gate, four to the south gate, and two pairs at the storehouse.<sup>18</sup>Six were assigned each day to the west gate, four to the gateway leading up to the Temple, and two to the courtyard.*

<sup>19</sup>These were the divisions of the gatekeepers from the clans of Korah and Merari.

Treasurers and Other Officials

<sup>20</sup>Other Levites, led by Ahijah, were in charge of the treasuries of the house of God and the treasuries of the gifts dedicated to the LORD.<sup>21</sup>From the family of Libni* in the clan of Gershon, Jehiel* was the leader. <sup>22</sup>The sons of Jehiel, Zetham and his brother Joel, were in charge of the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

<sup>24</sup>From the clan of Amram, Shebuel was a descendant of Gershom son of Moses. He was the chief officer of the treasuries. <sup>25</sup>His relatives through Eliezer were Rehabiah, Jeshaiiah, Joram, Zicri, and Shelomoth.

<sup>26</sup>Shelomoth and his relatives were in charge of the treasuries containing the gifts that King David, the family leaders, and the generals and captains* and other officers of the army had dedicated to the LORD. <sup>27</sup>These men dedicated some of the plunder they had gained in battle to maintain the house of the LORD. <sup>28</sup>Shelomoth* and his relatives also cared for the gifts dedicated to the LORD by Samuel the seer, Saul son of Kish, Abner son of Ner, and Joab son of Zeruiah. All the other dedicated gifts were in their care, too.

<sup>29</sup>From the clan of Izhar came Kenaniah. He and his sons were given administrative responsibilities* over Israel as officials and judges.

<sup>30</sup>From the clan of Hebron came Hashabiah. He and his relatives—1,700 capable men—were put in charge of the Israelite lands west of the Jordan River. They were responsible for all matters related to the things of the LORD and the service of the king in that area.

<sup>31</sup>Also from the clan of Hebron came Jeriah,* who was the leader of the Hebronites according to the genealogical records. (In the fortieth year of David's reign, a search was made in the records, and capable men from the clan of Hebron were found at Jazer in the land of Gilead.)<sup>32</sup>There were 2,700 capable men among the relatives of Jeriah. King David sent them to the east side of the Jordan River and put them in charge of the tribes of Reuben and Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh. They were responsible for all matters related to God and to the king.

1 Chronicles 27

Military Commanders and Divisions

<sup>1</sup> This is the list of Israelite generals and captains,* and their officers, who served the king by supervising the army divisions that were on duty each month of the year. Each division served for one month and had 24,000 troops.

<sup>2</sup> Jashobeam son of Zabdiel was commander of the first division of 24,000 troops, which was on duty during the first month. <sup>3</sup> He was a descendant of Perez and was in charge of all the army officers for the first month.

<sup>4</sup> Dodai, a descendant of Ahoah, was commander of the second division of 24,000 troops, which was on duty during the second month. Mikloth was his chief officer.

<sup>5</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada the priest was commander of the third division of 24,000 troops, which was on duty during the third month. <sup>6</sup> This was the Benaiah who commanded David's elite military group known as the Thirty. His son Ammizabad was his chief officer.

<sup>7</sup> Asahel, the brother of Joab, was commander of the fourth division of 24,000 troops, which was on duty during the fourth month. Asahel was succeeded by his son Zebadiah.

<sup>8</sup> Shammah* the Izrahite was commander of the fifth division of 24,000 troops, which was on duty during the fifth month.

<sup>9</sup> Ira son of Ikkeish from Tekoa was commander of the sixth division of 24,000 troops, which was on duty during the sixth month.

<sup>10</sup>Helez, a descendant of Ephraim from Pelon, was commander of the seventh division of 24,000 troops, which was on duty during the seventh month.

<sup>11</sup>Sibbecai, a descendant of Zerah from Hushah, was commander of the eighth division of 24,000 troops, which was on duty during the eighth month.

<sup>12</sup>Abiezer from Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin was commander of the ninth division of 24,000 troops, which was on duty during the ninth month.

<sup>13</sup>Maharai, a descendant of Zerah from Netophah, was commander of the tenth division of 24,000 troops, which was on duty during the tenth month.

<sup>14</sup>Benaiah from Pirathon in Ephraim was commander of the eleventh division of 24,000 troops, which was on duty during the eleventh month.

<sup>15</sup>Heled,* a descendant of Othniel from Netophah, was commander of the twelfth division of 24,000 troops, which was on duty during the twelfth month.

Leaders of the Tribes

<sup>16</sup>The following were the tribes of Israel and their leaders:

Tribe

Reuben

Simeon

Leader

Eliezer son of Zicri

Shephatiah son of Maacah

<sup>17</sup> Levi Aaron (the priests)	Hashabiah son of Kemuel Zadok
<sup>18</sup> Judah	Elihu (a brother of David)
Issachar	Omri son of Michael
<sup>19</sup> Zebulun	Ishmaiah son of Obadiah
Naphtali	Jeremoth son of Azriel
<sup>20</sup> Ephraim	Hoshea son of Azaziah
Manasseh (west)	Joel son of Pedaiah
<sup>21</sup> Manasseh in Gilead (east)	Iddo son of Zechariah
Benjamin	Jaasiel son of Abner
<sup>22</sup> Dan	Azarel son of Jeroham

These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>When David took his census, he did not count those who were younger than twenty years of age, because the LORD had promised to make the Israelites as numerous as the stars in heaven. <sup>24</sup>Joab son of Zeruiah began the census but never finished it because the anger of God fell on Israel. The total number was never recorded in King David's official records.

Officials of David's Kingdom

<sup>25</sup>Azmaveth son of Adiel was in charge of the palace treasuries. Jonathan son of Uzziah was in charge of the regional treasuries throughout the towns, villages, and fortresses of Israel.

<sup>26</sup>Ezri son of Kelub was in charge of the field workers who farmed the king's lands.

<sup>27</sup>Shimei from Ramah was in charge of the king's vineyards. Zabdi from Shepham was responsible for the grapes and the supplies of wine.

<sup>28</sup>Baal-hanan from Geder was in charge of the king's olive groves and sycamore-fig trees in the foothills of Judah.*
Joash was responsible for the supplies of olive oil.

<sup>29</sup>Shitrai from Sharon was in charge of the cattle on the Sharon Plain.

Shaphat son of Adlai was responsible for the cattle in the valleys.

<sup>30</sup>Obil the Ishmaelite was in charge of the camels.

Jehdeiah from Meronoth was in charge of the donkeys.

<sup>31</sup>Jaziz the Hagrite was in charge of the king's flocks of sheep and goats.

All these officials were overseers of King David's property.

<sup>32</sup>Jonathan, David's uncle, was a wise counselor to the king, a man of great insight, and a scribe. Jehiel the Hacmonite was responsible for teaching the king's sons. <sup>33</sup>Ahithophel was the royal adviser. Hushai the Arkite was the king's friend.

<sup>34</sup>Ahithophel was succeeded by Jehoiada son of Benaiah and by Abiathar. Joab was commander of the king's army.

1 Chronicles 28

David's Instructions to Solomon

<sup>1</sup>David summoned all the officials of Israel to Jerusalem—the leaders of the tribes, the commanders of the army divisions, the other generals and captains,* the overseers of the royal property and livestock, the palace officials, the mighty men, and all the other brave warriors in the kingdom. <sup>2</sup>David rose to his feet and said: “My brothers and my people! It was my desire to build a temple where the Ark of the LORD’s Covenant, God’s footstool, could rest permanently. I made the necessary preparations for building it, <sup>3</sup>but God said to me, ‘You must not build a temple to honor my name, for you are a warrior and have shed much blood.’

<sup>4</sup>“Yet the LORD, the God of Israel, has chosen me from among all my father’s family to be king over Israel forever. For he has chosen the tribe of Judah to rule, and from among the families of Judah he chose my father’s family. And from among my father’s sons the LORD was pleased to make me king over all Israel. <sup>5</sup>And from among my sons—for the LORD has given me many—he chose Solomon to succeed me on the throne of Israel and to rule over the LORD’s kingdom. <sup>6</sup>He said to me, ‘Your son Solomon will build my Temple and its courtyards, for I have chosen him as my son, and I will be his father. <sup>7</sup>And if he continues to obey my commands and regulations as he does now, I will make his kingdom last forever.’

<sup>8</sup> “So now, with God as our witness, and in the sight of all Israel—the LORD’s assembly—I give you this charge. Be careful to obey all the commands of the LORD your God, so that you may continue to possess this good land and leave it to your children as a permanent inheritance.

<sup>9</sup>“And Solomon, my son, learn to know the God of your ancestors intimately. Worship and serve him with your whole heart and a willing mind. For the LORD sees every heart and knows every plan and thought. If you seek him, you will find him. But if you forsake him, he will reject you forever. <sup>10</sup>So take this seriously. The LORD has chosen you to build a Temple as his sanctuary. Be strong, and do the work.”

<sup>11</sup>Then David gave Solomon the plans for the Temple and its surroundings, including the entry room, the storerooms, the upstairs rooms, the inner rooms, and the inner sanctuary—which was the place of atonement. <sup>12</sup>David also gave Solomon all the plans he had in mind* for the courtyards of the LORD’s Temple, the outside rooms, the treasuries, and the rooms for the gifts dedicated to the LORD. <sup>13</sup>The king also gave Solomon the instructions concerning the work of the various divisions of priests and Levites in the Temple of the LORD. And he gave specifications for the items in the Temple that were to be used for worship.

<sup>14</sup>David gave instructions regarding how much gold and silver should be used to make the items needed for service. <sup>15</sup>He told Solomon the amount of gold needed for the gold lampstands and lamps, and the amount of silver for the silver lampstands and lamps, depending on how each would be used.

<sup>16</sup>He designated the amount of gold for the table on which the Bread of the Presence would be placed and the amount of silver for other tables.

<sup>17</sup>David also designated the amount of gold for the solid gold meat hooks used to handle the sacrificial meat and for the basins, pitchers, and dishes, as well as the amount of silver for every dish. <sup>18</sup>He designated the amount of refined gold for the altar of incense. Finally, he gave him a plan for the LORD's "chariot"—the gold cherubim* whose wings were stretched out over the Ark of the LORD's Covenant. <sup>19</sup> "Every part of this plan," David told Solomon, "was given to me in writing from the hand of the LORD.*"

<sup>20</sup>Then David continued, "Be strong and courageous, and do the work. Don't be afraid or discouraged, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you or forsake you. He will see to it that all the work related to the Temple of the LORD is finished correctly. <sup>21</sup>The various divisions of priests and Levites will serve in the Temple of God. Others with skills of every kind will volunteer, and the officials and the entire nation are at your command."

1 Chronicles 29

Gifts for Building the Temple

<sup>1</sup>Then King David turned to the entire assembly and said, “My son Solomon, whom God has clearly chosen as the next king of Israel, is still young and inexperienced. The work ahead of him is enormous, for the Temple he will build is not for mere mortals—it is for the LORD God himself! <sup>2</sup>Using every resource at my command, I have gathered as much as I could for building the Temple of my God. Now there is enough gold, silver, bronze, iron, and wood, as well as great quantities of onyx, other precious stones, costly jewels, and all kinds of fine stone and marble.

<sup>3</sup> “And now, because of my devotion to the Temple of my God, I am giving all of my own private treasures of gold and silver to help in the construction. This is in addition to the building materials I have already collected for his holy Temple. <sup>4</sup>I am donating more than 112 tons of gold* from Ophir and 262 tons of refined silver* to be used for overlaying the walls of the buildings <sup>5</sup>and for the other gold and silver work to be done by the craftsmen. Now then, who will follow my example and give offerings to the LORD today?”

<sup>6</sup>Then the family leaders, the leaders of the tribes of Israel, the generals and captains of the army,* and the king’s administrative officers all gave willingly. <sup>7</sup>For the construction of the Temple of God, they gave about 188 tons of gold,* 10,000 gold coins,* 375 tons of silver,* 675 tons of bronze,* and 3,750 tons of iron.* <sup>8</sup>They also contributed numerous precious stones, which were deposited in the treasury of the house of the LORD under the care of Jehiel, a descendant of Gershon. <sup>9</sup>The people rejoiced over the offerings, for they had given freely and wholeheartedly to the LORD, and King David was filled with joy.

David's Prayer of Praise

<sup>10</sup>Then David praised the LORD in the presence of the whole assembly:

“O LORD, the God of our ancestor Israel,* may you be praised forever and ever! <sup>11</sup>Yours, O LORD, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty. Everything in the heavens and on earth is yours, O LORD, and this is your kingdom. We adore you as the one who is over all things. <sup>12</sup>Wealth and honor come from you alone, for you rule over everything. Power and might are in your hand, and at your discretion people are made great and given strength.

<sup>13</sup>“O our God, we thank you and praise your glorious name! <sup>14</sup>But who am I, and who are my people, that we could give anything to you? Everything we have has come from you, and we give you only what you first gave us! <sup>15</sup>We are here for only a moment, visitors and strangers in the land as our ancestors were before us. Our days on earth are like a passing shadow, gone so soon without a trace.

<sup>16</sup>“O LORD our God, even this material we have gathered to build a Temple to honor your holy name comes from you! It all belongs to you! <sup>17</sup>I know, my God, that you examine our hearts and rejoice when you find integrity there. You know I have done all this with good motives, and I have watched your people offer their gifts willingly and joyously.

<sup>18</sup>“O LORD, the God of our ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, make your people always want to obey you. See to it that their love for you never changes. <sup>19</sup>Give my son Solomon the wholehearted desire to obey all your commands, laws, and decrees, and to do everything necessary to build this Temple, for which I have made these preparations.”

<sup>20</sup>Then David said to the whole assembly, “Give praise to the LORD your God!” And the entire assembly praised the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and they bowed low and knelt before the LORD and the king.

Solomon Named as King

<sup>21</sup>The next day they brought 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams, and 1,000 male lambs as burnt offerings to the LORD. They also brought liquid offerings and many other sacrifices on behalf of all Israel.

And again they crowned David’s son Solomon as their new king. They anointed him before the LORD as their leader, and they anointed Zadok as priest. <sup>23</sup>So Solomon took the throne of the LORD in place of his father, David, and he succeeded in everything, and all Israel obeyed him. <sup>24</sup>All the officials, the warriors, and the sons of King David pledged their loyalty to King Solomon. <sup>25</sup>And the LORD exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel, and he gave Solomon greater royal splendor than any king in Israel before him.

Summary of David's Reign

<sup>26</sup>So David son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. <sup>27</sup>He reigned over Israel for forty years, seven of them in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem. <sup>28</sup>He died at a ripe old age, having enjoyed long life, wealth, and honor. Then his son Solomon ruled in his place.

<sup>29</sup>All the events of King David's reign, from beginning to end, are written in The Record of Samuel the Seer, The Record of Nathan the Prophet, and The Record of Gad the Seer.

<sup>30</sup>These accounts include the mighty deeds of his reign and everything that happened to him and to Israel and to all the surrounding kingdoms.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

TRUE SUCCESS.

Because the wealthy and powerful seem to get the most media attention, many men begin to define success in terms of what will make them feel important. This book is a good corrective to that point of view. It presents a “hall of fame” and a “hall of shame” from God’s point of view.

Solomon Asks for Wisdom

<sup>1</sup> Solomon son of David took firm control of his kingdom, for the LORD his God was with him and made him very powerful.

generals and captains of the army,* the judges, and all the political and clan leaders.<sup>3</sup> Then he led the entire assembly to the place of worship in Gibeon, for God's Tabernacle* was located there. (This was the Tabernacle that Moses, the LORD's servant, had made in the wilderness.)

<sup>4</sup>David had already moved the Ark of God from Kiriath-jearim to the tent he had prepared for it in Jerusalem.<sup>5</sup> But the bronze altar made by Bezalel son of Uri and grandson of Hur was there* at Gibeon in front of the Tabernacle of the LORD. So Solomon and the people gathered in front of it to consult the LORD.*<sup>6</sup> There in front of the Tabernacle, Solomon went up to the bronze altar in the LORD's presence and sacrificed 1,000 burnt offerings on it.

<sup>7</sup> That night God appeared to Solomon and said, "What do you want? Ask, and I will give it to you!"

<sup>8</sup> Solomon replied to God, "You showed faithful love to David, my father, and now you have made me king in his place.<sup>9</sup> O LORD God, please continue to keep your promise to David my father, for you have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth!<sup>10</sup> Give me the wisdom and knowledge to lead them properly,* for who could possibly govern this great people of yours?"

<sup>11</sup> God said to Solomon, "Because your greatest desire is to help your people, and you did not ask for wealth, riches, fame, or even the death of your enemies or a long life, but rather you asked for wisdom and knowledge to properly govern my people—<sup>12</sup> I will certainly give you the wisdom and knowledge you requested. But I will also give you wealth, riches, and fame such as no other king has had before you or will ever have in the future!”

<sup>13</sup>Then Solomon returned to Jerusalem from the Tabernacle at the place of worship in Gibeon, and he reigned over Israel.

<sup>14</sup>Solomon built up a huge force of chariots and horses.* He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses. He stationed some of them in the chariot cities and some near him in Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>The king made silver and gold as plentiful in Jerusalem as stone. And valuable cedar timber was as common as the sycamore-fig trees that grow in the foothills of Judah.* <sup>16</sup>Solomon’s horses were imported from Egypt* and from Cilicia*; the king’s traders acquired them from Cilicia at the standard price. <sup>17</sup>At that time chariots from Egypt could be purchased for 600 pieces of silver,* and horses for 150 pieces of silver.* They were then exported to the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

2 Chronicles 2

Preparations for Building the Temple

<sup>1</sup>*Solomon decided to build a Temple to honor the name of the LORD, and also a royal palace for himself. <sup>2</sup>*He enlisted a force of 70,000 laborers, 80,000 men to quarry stone in the hill country, and 3,600 foremen.

“Send me cedar logs as you did for my father, David, when he was building his palace. <sup>4</sup>I am about to build a Temple to honor the name of the LORD my God. It will be a place set apart to burn fragrant incense before him, to display the special sacrificial bread, and to sacrifice burnt offerings each morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, at new moon celebrations, and at the other appointed festivals of the LORD our God. He has commanded Israel to do these things forever.

<sup>5</sup>“This must be a magnificent Temple because our God is greater than all other gods. <sup>6</sup>But who can really build him a worthy home? Not even the highest heavens can contain him! So who am I to consider building a Temple for him, except as a place to burn sacrifices to him?

<sup>7</sup>“So send me a master craftsman who can work with gold, silver, bronze, and iron, as well as with purple, scarlet, and blue cloth. He must be a skilled engraver who can work with the craftsmen of Judah and Jerusalem who were selected by my father, David.

<sup>8</sup>“Also send me cedar, cypress, and red sandalwood* logs from Lebanon, for I know that your men are without equal at cutting timber in Lebanon. I will send my men to help them. <sup>9</sup>An immense amount of timber will be needed, for the Temple I am going to build will be very large and magnificent. <sup>10</sup>In payment for your woodcutters, I will send 100,000 bushels of crushed wheat, 100,000 bushels of barley,* 110,000 gallons of wine, and 110,000 gallons of olive oil.*”

“It is because the LORD loves his people that he has made you their king! <sup>12</sup>Praise the LORD, the God of Israel, who made the heavens and the earth! He has given King David a wise son, gifted with skill and understanding, who will build a Temple for the LORD and a royal palace for himself.

<sup>13</sup>“I am sending you a master craftsman named Hiram-abi, who is extremely talented. <sup>14</sup>His mother is from the tribe of Dan in Israel, and his father is from Tyre. He is skillful at making things from gold, silver, bronze, and iron, and he also works with stone and wood. He can work with purple, blue, and scarlet cloth and fine linen. He is also an engraver and can follow any design given to him. He will work with your craftsmen and those appointed by my lord David, your father.

<sup>15</sup>“Send along the wheat, barley, olive oil, and wine that my lord has mentioned. <sup>16</sup>We will cut whatever timber you need from the Lebanon mountains and will float the logs in rafts down the coast of the Mediterranean Sea* to Joppa. From there you can transport the logs up to Jerusalem.”

<sup>17</sup>Solomon took a census of all foreigners in the land of Israel, like the census his father had taken, and he counted 153,600.

<sup>18</sup>He assigned 70,000 of them as common laborers, 80,000 as quarry workers in the hill country, and 3,600 as foremen.

2 Chronicles 3

Solomon Builds the Temple

<sup>1</sup>So Solomon began to build the Temple of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to David, his father. The Temple was built on the threshing floor of Araunah* the Jebusite, the site that David had selected.

<sup>3</sup>These are the dimensions Solomon used for the foundation of the Temple of God (using the old standard of measurement).* It was 90 feet long and 30 feet wide.* <sup>4</sup>The entry room at the front of the Temple was 30 feet* wide, running across the entire width of the Temple, and 30 feet* high. He overlaid the inside with pure gold.

<sup>5</sup>He paneled the main room of the Temple with cypress wood, overlaid it with fine gold, and decorated it with carvings of palm trees and chains. <sup>6</sup>He decorated the walls of the Temple with beautiful jewels and with gold from the land of Parvaim. <sup>7</sup>He overlaid the beams, thresholds, walls, and doors throughout the Temple with gold, and he carved figures of cherubim on the walls.

<sup>8</sup>He made the Most Holy Place 30 feet wide, corresponding to the width of the Temple, and 30 feet deep. He overlaid its interior with 23 tons* of fine gold. <sup>9</sup>The gold nails that were used weighed 20 ounces* each. He also overlaid the walls of the upper rooms with gold.

<sup>10</sup>He made two figures shaped like cherubim, overlaid them with gold, and placed them in the Most Holy Place. <sup>11</sup>The total wingspan of the two cherubim standing side by side was 30 feet. One wing of the first figure was  $7\frac{1}{2}$  feet\* long, and it touched the Temple wall. The other wing, also  $7\frac{1}{2}$  feet long, touched one of the wings of the second figure. <sup>12</sup>In the same way, the second figure had one wing  $7\frac{1}{2}$  feet long that touched the opposite wall. The other wing, also  $7\frac{1}{2}$  feet long, touched the wing of the first figure. <sup>13</sup>So the wingspan of the two cherubim side by side was 30 feet. They stood on their feet and faced out toward the main room of the Temple.

<sup>14</sup>Across the entrance of the Most Holy Place he hung a curtain made of fine linen, decorated with blue, purple, and scarlet thread and embroidered with figures of cherubim.

<sup>15</sup>For the front of the Temple, he made two pillars that were 27 feet\* tall, each topped by a capital extending upward another  $7\frac{1}{2}$  feet. <sup>16</sup>He made a network of interwoven chains and used them to decorate the tops of the pillars. He also made 100 decorative pomegranates and attached them to the chains. <sup>17</sup>Then he set up the two pillars at the entrance of the Temple, one to the south of the entrance and the other to the north. He named the one on the south Jakin, and the one on the north Boaz.\*

2 Chronicles 4

Furnishings for the Temple

<sup>1</sup> Solomon* also made a bronze altar 30 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 15 feet high.* <sup>2</sup> Then he cast a great round basin, 15 feet across from rim to rim, called the Sea. It was 7½ feet deep and about 45 feet in circumference.* <sup>3</sup> It was encircled just below its rim by two rows of figures that resembled oxen. There were about six oxen per foot* all the way around, and they were cast as part of the basin.

<sup>4</sup> The Sea was placed on a base of twelve bronze oxen, all facing outward. Three faced north, three faced west, three faced south, and three faced east, and the Sea rested on them.

<sup>5</sup> The walls of the Sea were about three inches* thick, and its rim flared out like a cup and resembled a water lily blossom. It could hold about 16,500 gallons* of water.

<sup>6</sup> He also made ten smaller basins for washing the utensils for the burnt offerings. He set five on the south side and five on the north. But the priests washed themselves in the Sea.

<sup>7</sup> He then cast ten gold lampstands according to the specifications that had been given, and he put them in the Temple. Five were placed against the south wall, and five were placed against the north wall.

<sup>8</sup> He also built ten tables and placed them in the Temple, five along the south wall and five along the north wall. Then he molded 100 gold basins.

<sup>9</sup>He then built a courtyard for the priests, and also the large outer courtyard. He made doors for the courtyard entrances and overlaid them with bronze. <sup>10</sup>The great bronze basin called the Sea was placed near the southeast corner of the Temple.

So at last Hiram-abi completed everything King Solomon had assigned him to make for the Temple of God:

<sup>12</sup>the two pillars;
the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;
the two networks of interwoven chains that decorated the capitals;

<sup>13</sup>the 400 pomegranates that hung from the chains on the capitals (two rows of pomegranates for each of the chain networks that decorated the capitals on top of the pillars);

<sup>14</sup>the water carts holding the basins;

Huram-abi made all these things of burnished bronze for the Temple of the LORD, just as King Solomon had directed. <sup>17</sup>The king had them cast in clay molds in the Jordan Valley between Succoth and Zarethan.* <sup>18</sup>Solomon used such great quantities of bronze that its weight could not be determined.

<sup>19</sup>Solomon also made all the furnishings for the Temple of God:

the gold altar;
the tables for the Bread of the Presence; <sup>20</sup> the lampstands and their lamps of solid gold, to burn in front of the Most Holy Place as prescribed; <sup>21</sup> the flower decorations, lamps, and tongs—all of the purest gold;
<sup>22</sup> the lamp snuffers, bowls, dishes, and incense burners—all of solid gold;
the doors for the entrances to the Most Holy Place and the main room of the Temple, overlaid with gold.

What the Bible Says about

Generosity

2 Chronicles 5

<sup>1</sup>So Solomon finished all his work on the Temple of the LORD. Then he brought all the gifts his father, David, had dedicated—the silver, the gold, and the various articles—and he stored them in the treasuries of the Temple of God.

The Ark Brought to the Temple

<sup>2</sup>Solomon then summoned to Jerusalem the elders of Israel and all the heads of tribes—the leaders of the ancestral families of Israel. They were to bring the Ark of the LORD's Covenant to the Temple from its location in the City of David, also known as Zion. <sup>3</sup>So all the men of Israel assembled before the king at the annual Festival of Shelters, which is held in early autumn.*

<sup>4</sup>When all the elders of Israel arrived, the Levites picked up the Ark. <sup>5</sup>The priests and Levites brought up the Ark along with the special tent* and all the sacred items that had been in it. <sup>6</sup>There, before the Ark, King Solomon and the entire community of Israel sacrificed so many sheep, goats, and cattle that no one could keep count!

<sup>7</sup>Then the priests carried the Ark of the LORD's Covenant into the inner sanctuary of the Temple—the Most Holy Place—and placed it beneath the wings of the cherubim. <sup>8</sup>The cherubim spread their wings over the Ark, forming a canopy over the Ark and its carrying poles. <sup>9</sup>These poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the Temple's main room—the Holy Place*—but not from the outside. They are still there to this day. <sup>10</sup>Nothing was in the Ark except the two stone tablets that Moses had placed in it at Mount Sinai,* where the LORD made a covenant with the people of Israel when they left Egypt.

<sup>11</sup>Then the priests left the Holy Place. All the priests who were present had purified themselves, whether or not they were on duty that day. <sup>12</sup>And the Levites who were musicians—Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and all their sons and brothers—were dressed in fine linen robes and stood at the east side of the altar playing cymbals, lyres, and harps. They were joined by 120 priests who were playing trumpets. <sup>13</sup>The trumpeters and singers performed together in unison to praise and give thanks to the LORD. Accompanied by trumpets, cymbals, and other instruments, they raised their voices and praised the LORD with these words:

“He is good!

His faithful love endures forever!”

At that moment a thick cloud filled the Temple of the LORD. <sup>14</sup>The priests could not continue their service because of the cloud, for the glorious presence of the LORD filled the Temple of God.

2 Chronicles 6

Solomon Praises the LORD

<sup>1</sup>Then Solomon prayed, “O LORD, you have said that you would live in a thick cloud of darkness. <sup>2</sup>Now I have built a glorious Temple for you, a place where you can live forever!”

<sup>3</sup>Then the king turned around to the entire community of Israel standing before him and gave this blessing: <sup>4</sup>“Praise the LORD, the God of Israel, who has kept the promise he made to my father, David. For he told my father, <sup>5</sup>‘From the day I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I have never chosen a city among any of the tribes of Israel as the place where a Temple should be built to honor my name. Nor have I chosen a king to lead my people Israel. <sup>6</sup>But now I have chosen Jerusalem as the place for my name to be honored, and I have chosen David to be king over my people Israel.’”

<sup>7</sup>Then Solomon said, “My father, David, wanted to build this Temple to honor the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>8</sup>But the LORD told him, ‘You wanted to build the Temple to honor my name. Your intention is good, <sup>9</sup>but you are not the one to do it. One of your own sons will build the Temple to honor me.’

<sup>10</sup>“And now the LORD has fulfilled the promise he made, for I have become king in my father’s place, and now I sit on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD promised. I have built this Temple to honor the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>11</sup>There I have placed the Ark, which contains the covenant that the LORD made with the people of Israel.”

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

<sup>12</sup>Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the entire community of Israel, and he lifted his hands in prayer. <sup>13</sup>Now Solomon had made a bronze platform 7½ feet long, 7½ feet wide, and 4½ feet high* and had placed it at the center of the Temple's outer courtyard. He stood on the platform, and then he knelt in front of the entire community of Israel and lifted his hands toward heaven. <sup>14</sup>He prayed,

“O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you in all of heaven and earth. You keep your covenant and show unfailing love to all who walk before you in wholehearted devotion. <sup>15</sup>You have kept your promise to your servant David, my father. You made that promise with your own mouth, and with your own hands you have fulfilled it today.

<sup>16</sup>“And now, O LORD, God of Israel, carry out the additional promise you made to your servant David, my father. For you said to him, ‘If your descendants guard their behavior and faithfully follow my Law as you have done, one of them will always sit on the throne of Israel.’ <sup>17</sup>Now, O LORD, God of Israel, fulfill this promise to your servant David.

<sup>18</sup>“But will God really live on earth among people? Why, even the highest heavens cannot contain you. How much less this Temple I have built! <sup>19</sup>Nevertheless, listen to my prayer and my plea, O LORD my God. Hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is making to you.<sup>20</sup> May you watch over this Temple day and night, this place where you have said you would put your name. May you always hear the prayers I make toward this place.<sup>21</sup> May you hear the humble and earnest requests from me and your people Israel when we pray toward this place. Yes, hear us from heaven where you live, and when you hear, forgive.

<sup>22</sup>“If someone wrongs another person and is required to take an oath of innocence in front of your altar at this Temple,<sup>23</sup> then hear from heaven and judge between your servants—the accuser and the accused. Pay back the guilty as they deserve. Acquit the innocent because of their innocence.

<sup>24</sup>“If your people Israel are defeated by their enemies because they have sinned against you, and if they turn back and acknowledge your name and pray to you here in this Temple,<sup>25</sup> then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel and return them to this land you gave to them and to their ancestors.

<sup>26</sup>“If the skies are shut up and there is no rain because your people have sinned against you, and if they pray toward this Temple and acknowledge your name and turn from their sins because you have punished them,<sup>27</sup> then hear from heaven and forgive the sins of your servants, your people Israel. Teach them to follow the right path, and send rain on your land that you have given to your people as their special possession.

<sup>28</sup>“If there is a famine in the land or a plague or crop disease or attacks of locusts or caterpillars, or if your people’s enemies are in the land besieging their towns—whatever disaster or disease there is—<sup>29</sup>and if your people Israel pray about their troubles or sorrow, raising their hands toward this Temple, <sup>30</sup>then hear from heaven where you live, and forgive. Give your people what their actions deserve, for you alone know each human heart. <sup>31</sup>Then they will fear you and walk in your ways as long as they live in the land you gave to our ancestors.

<sup>32</sup>“In the future, foreigners who do not belong to your people Israel will hear of you. They will come from distant lands when they hear of your great name and your strong hand and your powerful arm. And when they pray toward this Temple, <sup>33</sup>then hear from heaven where you live, and grant what they ask of you. In this way, all the people of the earth will come to know and fear you, just as your own people Israel do. They, too, will know that this Temple I have built honors your name.

<sup>34</sup>“If your people go out where you send them to fight their enemies, and if they pray to you by turning toward this city you have chosen and toward this Temple I have built to honor your name, <sup>35</sup>then hear their prayers from heaven and uphold their cause.

<sup>36</sup>“If they sin against you—and who has never sinned?—you might become angry with them and let their enemies conquer them and take them captive to a foreign land far away or near. <sup>37</sup>But in that land of exile, they might turn to you in repentance and pray, ‘We have sinned, done evil, and acted wickedly.’ <sup>38</sup>If they turn to you with their whole heart and soul in the land of their captivity and pray toward the land you gave to their ancestors—toward this city you have chosen, and toward this Temple I have built to honor your name—<sup>39</sup>then hear their prayers and their petitions from heaven where you live, and uphold their cause. Forgive your people who have sinned against you.

<sup>40</sup>“O my God, may your eyes be open and your ears attentive to all the prayers made to you in this place.

<sup>41</sup>“And now arise, O LORD God, and enter your resting place, along with the Ark, the symbol of your power.

May your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation; may your loyal servants rejoice in your goodness.

<sup>42</sup>O LORD God, do not reject the king you have anointed. Remember your unfailing love for your servant David.”

2 Chronicles 7

The Dedication of the Temple

<sup>1</sup> When Solomon finished praying, fire flashed down from heaven and burned up the burnt offerings and sacrifices, and the glorious presence of the LORD filled the Temple. <sup>2</sup>The priests could not enter the Temple of the LORD because the glorious presence of the LORD filled it. <sup>3</sup>When all the people of Israel saw the fire coming down and the glorious presence of the LORD filling the Temple, they fell face down on the ground and worshiped and praised the LORD, saying,

“He is good!

His faithful love endures forever!”

<sup>4</sup>Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices to the LORD. <sup>5</sup>King Solomon offered a sacrifice of 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep and goats. And so the king and all the people dedicated the Temple of God. <sup>6</sup>The priests took their assigned positions, and so did the Levites who were singing, “His faithful love endures forever!” They accompanied the singing with music from the instruments King David had made for praising the LORD. Across from the Levites, the priests blew the trumpets, while all Israel stood.

<sup>7</sup>Solomon then consecrated the central area of the courtyard in front of the LORD’s Temple. He offered burnt offerings and the fat of peace offerings there, because the bronze altar he had built could not hold all the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and sacrificial fat.

<sup>8</sup>For the next seven days Solomon and all Israel celebrated the Festival of Shelters.* A large congregation had gathered from as far away as Lebo-hamath in the north and the Brook of Egypt in the south.<sup>9</sup>On the eighth day they had a closing ceremony, for they had celebrated the dedication of the altar for seven days and the Festival of Shelters for seven days.<sup>10</sup>Then at the end of the celebration,* Solomon sent the people home. They were all joyful and glad because the LORD had been so good to David and to Solomon and to his people Israel.

The LORD's Response to Solomon

<sup>11</sup>So Solomon finished the Temple of the LORD, as well as the royal palace. He completed everything he had planned to do in the construction of the Temple and the palace.<sup>12</sup>Then one night the LORD appeared to Solomon and said,

“I have heard your prayer and have chosen this Temple as the place for making sacrifices.<sup>13</sup>At times I might shut up the heavens so that no rain falls, or command grasshoppers to devour your crops, or send plagues among you.<sup>14</sup> Then if my people who are called by my name will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sins and restore their land.<sup>15</sup>My eyes will be open and my ears attentive to every prayer made in this place.<sup>16</sup>For I have chosen this Temple and set it apart to be holy—a place where my name will be honored forever. I will always watch over it, for it is dear to my heart.

<sup>17</sup>“As for you, if you faithfully follow me as David your father did, obeying all my commands, decrees, and regulations,<sup>18</sup> then I will establish the throne of your dynasty. For I made this covenant with your father, David, when I said, ‘One of your descendants will always rule over Israel.’

<sup>19</sup>“But if you or your descendants abandon me and disobey the decrees and commands I have given you, and if you serve and worship other gods,<sup>20</sup> then I will uproot the people from this land that I have given them. I will reject this Temple that I have made holy to honor my name. I will make it an object of mockery and ridicule among the nations.<sup>21</sup> And though this Temple is impressive now, all who pass by will be appalled. They will ask, ‘Why did the LORD do such terrible things to this land and to this Temple?’

<sup>22</sup>“And the answer will be, ‘Because his people abandoned the LORD, the God of their ancestors, who brought them out of Egypt, and they worshiped other gods instead and bowed down to them. That is why he has brought all these disasters on them.’”

2 Chronicles 8

Solomon's Many Achievements

<sup>3</sup>Solomon also fought against the town of Hamath-zobah and conquered it. <sup>4</sup>He rebuilt Tadmor in the wilderness and built towns in the region of Hamath as supply centers. <sup>5</sup>He fortified the towns of Upper Beth-horon and Lower Beth-horon, rebuilding their walls and installing barred gates. <sup>6</sup>He also rebuilt Baalath and other supply centers and constructed towns where his chariots and horses* could be stationed. He built everything he desired in Jerusalem and Lebanon and throughout his entire realm.

<sup>7</sup>There were still some people living in the land who were not Israelites, including the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. <sup>8</sup>These were descendants of the nations whom the people of Israel had not destroyed. So Solomon conscripted them for his labor force, and they serve in the labor force to this day. <sup>9</sup>But Solomon did not conscript any of the Israelites for his labor force. Instead, he assigned them to serve as fighting men, officers in his army, commanders of his chariots, and charioteers. <sup>10</sup>King Solomon appointed 250 of them to supervise the people.

<sup>11</sup> Solomon moved his wife, Pharaoh's daughter, from the City of David to the new palace he had built for her. He said, "My wife must not live in King David's palace, for the Ark of the LORD has been there, and it is holy ground."

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon presented burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar he had built for him in front of the entry room of the Temple. <sup>13</sup> He offered the sacrifices for the Sabbaths, the new moon festivals, and the three annual festivals—the Passover celebration, the Festival of Harvest,* and the Festival of Shelters—as Moses had commanded.

<sup>14</sup> In assigning the priests to their duties, Solomon followed the regulations of his father, David. He also assigned the Levites to lead the people in praise and to assist the priests in their daily duties. And he assigned the gatekeepers to their gates by their divisions, following the commands of David, the man of God. <sup>15</sup> Solomon did not deviate in any way from David's commands concerning the priests and Levites and the treasures.

<sup>16</sup> So Solomon made sure that all the work related to building the Temple of the LORD was carried out, from the day its foundation was laid to the day of its completion.

<sup>17</sup> Later Solomon went to Ezion-geber and Elath,* ports along the shore of the Red Sea* in the land of Edom. <sup>18</sup> Hiram sent him ships commanded by his own officers and manned by experienced crews of sailors. These ships sailed to Ophir with Solomon's men and brought back to Solomon almost seventeen tons* of gold.

2 Chronicles 9

Visit of the Queen of Sheba

<sup>1</sup>When the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame, she came to Jerusalem to test him with hard questions. She arrived with a large group of attendants and a great caravan of camels loaded with spices, large quantities of gold, and precious jewels. When she met with Solomon, she talked with him about everything she had on her mind. <sup>2</sup>Solomon had answers for all her questions; nothing was too hard for him to explain to her. <sup>3</sup>When the queen of Sheba realized how wise Solomon was, and when she saw the palace he had built, <sup>4</sup>she was overwhelmed. She was also amazed at the food on his tables, the organization of his officials and their splendid clothing, the cupbearers and their robes, and the burnt offerings Solomon made at the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>She exclaimed to the king, "Everything I heard in my country about your achievements * and wisdom is true! <sup>6</sup>I didn't believe what was said until I arrived here and saw it with my own eyes. In fact, I had not heard the half of your great wisdom! It is far beyond what I was told. <sup>7</sup>How happy your people must be! What a privilege for your officials to stand here day after day, listening to your wisdom! <sup>8</sup>Praise the LORD your God, who delights in you and has placed you on the throne as king to rule for him. Because God loves Israel and desires this kingdom to last forever, he has made you king over them so you can rule with justice and righteousness.”

<sup>9</sup>Then she gave the king a gift of 9,000 pounds* of gold, great quantities of spices, and precious jewels. Never before had there been spices as fine as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

<sup>10</sup>(In addition, the crews of Hiram and Solomon brought gold from Ophir, and they also brought red sandalwood* and precious jewels. <sup>11</sup>The king used the sandalwood to make steps* for the Temple of the LORD and the royal palace, and to construct lyres and harps for the musicians. Never before had such beautiful things been seen in Judah.)

<sup>12</sup>King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba whatever she asked for—gifts of greater value than the gifts she had given him. Then she and all her attendants returned to their own land.

A Meeting of Intellectual Equals

Solomon's Wealth and Splendor

<sup>13</sup>Each year Solomon received about 25 tons* of gold. <sup>14</sup>This did not include the additional revenue he received from merchants and traders. All the kings of Arabia and the governors of the provinces also brought gold and silver to Solomon.

<sup>15</sup>King Solomon made 200 large shields of hammered gold, each weighing more than 15 pounds.* <sup>16</sup>He also made 300 smaller shields of hammered gold, each weighing more than 7½ pounds.* The king placed these shields in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.

<sup>17</sup>Then the king made a huge throne, decorated with ivory and overlaid with pure gold. <sup>18</sup>The throne had six steps, with a footstool of gold. There were armrests on both sides of the seat, and the figure of a lion stood on each side of the throne. <sup>19</sup>There were also twelve other lions, one standing on each end of the six steps. No other throne in all the world could be compared with it!

<sup>20</sup>All of King Solomon's drinking cups were solid gold, as were all the utensils in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon. They were not made of silver, for silver was considered worthless in Solomon's day!

<sup>21</sup>The king had a fleet of trading ships* manned by the sailors sent by Hiram.* Once every three years the ships returned, loaded with gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.*

<sup>22</sup>So King Solomon became richer and wiser than any other king on earth. <sup>23</sup>Kings from every nation came to consult him and to hear the wisdom God had given him. <sup>24</sup>Year after year everyone who visited brought him gifts of silver and gold, clothing, weapons, spices, horses, and mules.

<sup>25</sup>Solomon had 4,000 stalls for his horses and chariots, and he had 12,000 horses.* He stationed some of them in the chariot cities, and some near him in Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>He ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates River* in the north to the land of the Philistines and the border of Egypt in the south. <sup>27</sup>The king made silver as plentiful in Jerusalem as stone. And valuable cedar timber was as common as the sycamore-fig trees that grow in the foothills of Judah.* <sup>28</sup> Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt* and many other countries.

Summary of Solomon's Reign

<sup>29</sup>The rest of the events of Solomon's reign, from beginning to end, are recorded in The Record of Nathan the Prophet, and The Prophecy of Ahijah from Shiloh, and also in The Visions of Iddo the Seer, concerning Jeroboam son of Nebat.<sup>30</sup> Solomon ruled in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.<sup>31</sup> When he died, he was buried in the City of David, named for his father. Then his son Rehoboam became the next king.

2 Chronicles 10

The Northern Tribes Revolt

<sup>1</sup> Rehoboam went to Shechem, where all Israel had gathered to make him king. <sup>2</sup>When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard of this, he returned from Egypt, for he had fled to Egypt to escape from King Solomon. <sup>3</sup>The leaders of Israel summoned him, and Jeroboam and all Israel went to speak with Rehoboam. <sup>4</sup>“Your father was a hard master,” they said. “Lighten the harsh labor demands and heavy taxes that your father imposed on us. Then we will be your loyal subjects.”

<sup>5</sup>Rehoboam replied, “Come back in three days for my answer.” So the people went away.

<sup>6</sup>Then King Rehoboam discussed the matter with the older men who had counseled his father, Solomon. “What is your advice?” he asked. “How should I answer these people?”

<sup>7</sup>The older counselors replied, “If you are good to these people and do your best to please them and give them a favorable answer, they will always be your loyal subjects.”

<sup>8</sup>But Rehoboam rejected the advice of the older men and instead asked the opinion of the young men who had grown up with him and were now his advisers. <sup>9</sup>“What is your advice?” he asked them. “How should I answer these people who want me to lighten the burdens imposed by my father?”

<sup>10</sup>The young men replied, “This is what you should tell those complainers who want a lighter burden: ‘My little finger is thicker than my father's waist! <sup>11</sup>Yes, my father laid heavy burdens on you, but I'm going to make them even heavier! My father beat you with whips, but I will beat you with scorpions!"

<sup>12</sup>Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to hear Rehoboam's decision, just as the king had ordered. <sup>13</sup>But Rehoboam spoke harshly to them, for he rejected the advice of the older counselors <sup>14</sup>and followed the counsel of his younger advisers. He told the people, "My father laid* heavy burdens on you, but I'm going to make them even heavier! My father beat you with whips, but I will beat you with scorpions!"

<sup>15</sup> So the king paid no attention to the people. This turn of events was the will of God, for it fulfilled the LORD's message to Jeroboam son of Nebat through the prophet Ahijah from Shiloh.

<sup>16</sup>When all Israel realized* that the king had refused to listen to them, they responded,

"Down with the dynasty of David!
We have no interest in the son of Jesse.
Back to your homes, O Israel!
Look out for your own house, O David!"

So all the people of Israel returned home. <sup>17</sup>But Rehoboam continued to rule over the Israelites who lived in the towns of Judah.

<sup>18</sup>King Rehoboam sent Adoniram,* who was in charge of the labor force, to restore order, but the people of Israel stoned him to death. When this news reached King Rehoboam, he quickly jumped into his chariot and fled to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>And to this day the northern tribes of Israel have refused to be ruled by a descendant of David.

2 Chronicles 11

Shemaiah's Prophecy

<sup>1</sup> When Rehoboam arrived at Jerusalem, he mobilized the men of Judah and Benjamin—180,000 select troops—to fight against Israel and to restore the kingdom to himself.

<sup>2</sup> But the LORD said to Shemaiah, the man of God, <sup>3</sup>“Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the Israelites in Judah and Benjamin: <sup>4</sup>“This is what the LORD says: Do not fight against your relatives. Go back home, for what has happened is my doing!”” So they obeyed the message of the LORD and did not fight against Jeroboam.

Rehoboam Fortifies Judah

<sup>13</sup> But all the priests and Levites living among the northern tribes of Israel sided with Rehoboam. <sup>14</sup>The Levites even abandoned their pasturelands and property and moved to Judah and Jerusalem, because Jeroboam and his sons would not allow them to serve the LORD as priests.<sup>15</sup> Jeroboam appointed his own priests to serve at the pagan shrines, where they worshiped the goat and calf idols he had made.<sup>16</sup> From all the tribes of Israel, those who sincerely wanted to worship the LORD, the God of Israel, followed the Levites to Jerusalem, where they could offer sacrifices to the LORD, the God of their ancestors.<sup>17</sup> This strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and for three years they supported Rehoboam son of Solomon, for during those years they faithfully followed in the footsteps of David and Solomon.

Rehoboam's Family

<sup>18</sup>Rehoboam married his cousin Mahalath, the daughter of David's son Jerimoth and of Abihail, the daughter of Eliab son of Jesse.<sup>19</sup> Mahalath had three sons—Jeush, Shemariah, and Zaham.

<sup>20</sup>Later Rehoboam married another cousin, Maacah, the daughter of Absalom. Maacah gave birth to Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.<sup>21</sup> Rehoboam loved Maacah more than any of his other wives and concubines. In all, he had eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and they gave birth to twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

<sup>22</sup>Rehoboam appointed Maacah's son Abijah as leader among the princes, making it clear that he would be the next king.<sup>23</sup> Rehoboam also wisely gave responsibilities to his other sons and stationed some of them in the fortified towns throughout the land of Judah and Benjamin. He provided them with generous provisions, and he found many wives for them.

2 Chronicles 12

Egypt Invades Judah

<sup>1</sup> But when Rehoboam was firmly established and strong, he abandoned the Law of the LORD, and all Israel followed him in this sin. <sup>2</sup>Because they were unfaithful to the LORD, King Shishak of Egypt came up and attacked Jerusalem in the fifth year of King Rehoboam's reign. <sup>3</sup>He came with 1,200 chariots, 60,000 horses,* and a countless army of foot soldiers, including Libyans, Sukkites, and Ethiopians.* <sup>4</sup>Shishak conquered Judah's fortified towns and then advanced to attack Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> The prophet Shemaiah then met with Rehoboam and Judah's leaders, who had all fled to Jerusalem because of Shishak. Shemaiah told them, "This is what the LORD says: You have abandoned me, so I am abandoning you to Shishak."

<sup>6</sup>Then the leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, "The LORD is right in doing this to us!"

<sup>7</sup>When the LORD saw their change of heart, he gave this message to Shemaiah: "Since the people have humbled themselves, I will not completely destroy them and will soon give them some relief. I will not use Shishak to pour out my anger on Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>But they will become his subjects, so they will know the difference between serving me and serving earthly rulers."

<sup>9</sup>So King Shishak of Egypt came up and attacked Jerusalem.

He ransacked the treasuries of the LORD's Temple and the royal palace; he stole everything, including all the gold shields Solomon had made.<sup>10</sup> King Rehoboam later replaced them with bronze shields as substitutes, and he entrusted them to the care of the commanders of the guard who protected the entrance to the royal palace.<sup>11</sup> Whenever the king went to the Temple of the LORD, the guards would also take the shields and then return them to the guardroom.<sup>12</sup> Because Rehoboam humbled himself, the LORD's anger was turned away, and he did not destroy him completely. There were still some good things in the land of Judah.

Summary of Rehoboam's Reign

13 King Rehoboam firmly established himself in Jerusalem and continued to rule. He was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen from among all the tribes of Israel as the place to honor his name. Rehoboam's mother was Naamah, a woman from Ammon.<sup>14</sup> But he was an evil king, for he did not seek the LORD with all his heart.

King Zedekiah

"He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and he refused to humble himself in the presence of the prophet Jeremiah, who spoke for the LORD... Zedekiah was a hard and stubborn man, refusing to turn to the LORD, the God of Israel!" 36:12-13

<sup>15</sup>The rest of the events of Rehoboam's reign, from beginning to end, are recorded in The Record of Shemaiah the Prophet and The Record of Iddo the Seer, which are part of the genealogical record. Rehoboam and Jeroboam were continually at war with each other. <sup>16</sup>When Rehoboam died, he was buried in the City of David. Then his son Abijah became the next king.

2 Chronicles 13

Abijah's War with Jeroboam

<sup>1</sup> Abijah began to rule over Judah in the eighteenth year of Jeroboam's reign in Israel. <sup>2</sup>He reigned in Jerusalem three years. His mother was Maacah,* the daughter of Uriel from Gibeah.

Then war broke out between Abijah and Jeroboam. <sup>3</sup>Judah, led by King Abijah, fielded 400,000 select warriors, while Jeroboam mustered 800,000 select troops from Israel.

<sup>4</sup>When the army of Judah arrived in the hill country of Ephraim, Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim and shouted to Jeroboam and all Israel: "Listen to me! <sup>5</sup>Don't you realize that the LORD, the God of Israel, made a lasting covenant* with David, giving him and his descendants the throne of Israel forever? <sup>6</sup>Yet Jeroboam son of Nebat, a mere servant of David's son Solomon, rebelled against his master. <sup>7</sup>Then a whole gang of scoundrels joined him, defying Solomon's son Rehoboam when he was young and inexperienced and could not stand up to them.

<sup>8</sup>"Do you really think you can stand against the kingdom of the LORD that is led by the descendants of David? You may have a vast army, and you have those gold calves that Jeroboam made as your gods. <sup>9</sup>But you have chased away the priests of the LORD (the descendants of Aaron) and the Levites, and you have appointed your own priests, just like the pagan nations. You let anyone become a priest these days! Whoever comes to be dedicated with a young bull and seven rams can become a priest of these so-called gods of yours!

<sup>10</sup> “But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not abandoned him. Only the descendants of Aaron serve the LORD as priests, and the Levites alone may help them in their work.

<sup>11</sup>They present burnt offerings and fragrant incense to the LORD every morning and evening. They place the Bread of the Presence on the holy table, and they light the gold lampstand every evening. We are following the instructions of the LORD our God, but you have abandoned him. <sup>12</sup>So you see, God is with us. He is our leader. His priests blow their trumpets and lead us into battle against you. O people of Israel, do not fight against the LORD, the God of your ancestors, for you will not succeed!”

<sup>13</sup>Meanwhile, Jeroboam had secretly sent part of his army around behind the men of Judah to ambush them. <sup>14</sup>When Judah realized that they were being attacked from the front and the rear, they cried out to the LORD for help. Then the priests blew the trumpets, <sup>15</sup>and the men of Judah began to shout. At the sound of their battle cry, God defeated Jeroboam and all Israel and routed them before Abijah and the army of Judah.

<sup>16</sup>The Israelite army fled from Judah, and God handed them over to Judah in defeat. <sup>17</sup>Abijah and his army inflicted heavy losses on them; 500,000 of Israel’s select troops were killed that day. <sup>18</sup> So Judah defeated Israel on that occasion because they trusted in the LORD, the God of their ancestors. <sup>19</sup>Abijah and his army pursued Jeroboam’s troops and captured some of his towns, including Bethel, Jeshanah, and Ephron, along with their surrounding villages.

<sup>20</sup>So Jeroboam of Israel never regained his power during Abijah's lifetime, and finally the LORD struck him down and he died. <sup>21</sup>Meanwhile, Abijah of Judah grew more and more powerful. He married fourteen wives and had twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

<sup>22</sup>The rest of the events of Abijah's reign, including his words and deeds, are recorded in The Commentary of Iddo the Prophet.

Asa

2 Chronicles 14

Early Years of Asa's Reign

<sup>1</sup>*When Abijah died, he was buried in the City of David. Then his son Asa became the next king. There was peace in the land for ten years. <sup>2</sup>*Asa did what was pleasing and good in the sight of the LORD his God. <sup>3</sup>He removed the foreign altars and the pagan shrines. He smashed the sacred pillars and cut down the Asherah poles. <sup>4</sup>He commanded the people of Judah to seek the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and to obey his law and his commands. <sup>5</sup>Asa also removed the pagan shrines, as well as the incense altars from every one of Judah's towns. So Asa's kingdom enjoyed a period of peace. <sup>6</sup>During those peaceful years, he was able to build up the fortified towns throughout Judah. No one tried to make war against him at this time, for the LORD was giving him rest from his enemies.

<sup>7</sup>Asa told the people of Judah, "Let us build towns and fortify them with walls, towers, gates, and bars. The land is still ours because we sought the LORD our God, and he has given us peace on every side.” So they went ahead with these projects and brought them to completion.

<sup>8</sup>King Asa had an army of 300,000 warriors from the tribe of Judah, armed with large shields and spears. He also had an army of 280,000 warriors from the tribe of Benjamin, armed with small shields and bows. Both armies were composed of well-trained fighting men.

<sup>9</sup> Once an Ethiopian* named Zerah attacked Judah with an army of 1,000,000 men* and 300 chariots. They advanced to the town of Mareshah, <sup>10</sup>so Asa deployed his armies for battle in the valley north of Mareshah.* <sup>11</sup>Then Asa cried out to the LORD his God, “O LORD, no one but you can help the powerless against the mighty! Help us, O LORD our God, for we trust in you alone. It is in your name that we have come against this vast horde. O LORD, you are our God; do not let mere men prevail against you!”

<sup>12</sup>So the LORD defeated the Ethiopians* in the presence of Asa and the army of Judah, and the enemy fled. <sup>13</sup>Asa and his army pursued them as far as Gerar, and so many Ethiopians fell that they were unable to rally. They were destroyed by the LORD and his army, and the army of Judah carried off a vast amount of plunder.

<sup>14</sup>While they were at Gerar, they attacked all the towns in that area, and terror from the LORD came upon the people there. As a result, a vast amount of plunder was taken from these towns, too. <sup>15</sup>They also attacked the camps of herdsmen and captured many sheep, goats, and camels before finally returning to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 15

Asa's Religious Reforms

<sup>1</sup> Then the Spirit of God came upon Azariah son of Oded, <sup>2</sup>and he went out to meet King Asa as he was returning from the battle. "Listen to me, Asa!" he shouted. "Listen, all you people of Judah and Benjamin! The LORD will stay with you as long as you stay with him! Whenever you seek him, you will find him. But if you abandon him, he will abandon you. <sup>3</sup>For a long time Israel was without the true God, without a priest to teach them, and without the Law to instruct them. <sup>4</sup> But whenever they were in trouble and turned to the LORD, the God of Israel, and sought him out, they found him.

<sup>5</sup>"During those dark times, it was not safe to travel. Problems troubled the people of every land. <sup>6</sup>Nation fought against nation, and city against city, for God was troubling them with every kind of problem. <sup>7</sup>But as for you, be strong and courageous, for your work will be rewarded."

<sup>8</sup>When Asa heard this message from Azariah the prophet, *he took courage and removed all the detestable idols from the land of Judah and Benjamin and in the towns he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. And he repaired the altar of the LORD, which stood in front of the entry room of the LORD's Temple.

<sup>9</sup>Then Asa called together all the people of Judah and Benjamin, along with the people of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who had settled among them. For many from Israel had moved to Judah during Asa's reign when they saw that the LORD his God was with him. <sup>10</sup>The people gathered at Jerusalem in late spring* during the fifteenth year of Asa's reign.

<sup>11</sup>On that day they sacrificed to the LORD 700 cattle and 7,000 sheep and goats from the plunder they had taken in the battle.

<sup>12</sup>Then they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD, the God of their ancestors, with all their heart and soul. <sup>13</sup>They agreed that anyone who refused to seek the LORD, the God of Israel, would be put to death—whether young or old, man or woman.

<sup>14</sup>They shouted out their oath of loyalty to the LORD with trumpets blaring and rams' horns sounding. <sup>15</sup>All in Judah were happy about this covenant, for they had entered into it with all their heart. They earnestly sought after God, and they found him. And the LORD gave them rest from their enemies on every side.

<sup>16</sup>King Asa even deposed his grandmother* Maacah from her position as queen mother because she had made an obscene Asherah pole. He cut down her obscene pole, broke it up, and burned it in the Kidron Valley. <sup>17</sup>Although the pagan shrines were not removed from Israel, Asa's heart remained completely faithful throughout his life. <sup>18</sup>He brought into the Temple of God the silver and gold and the various items that he and his father had dedicated.

<sup>19</sup>So there was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

2 Chronicles 16

Final Years of Asa's Reign

<sup>1</sup>In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, King Baasha of Israel invaded Judah and fortified Ramah in order to prevent anyone from entering or leaving King Asa's territory in Judah.

<sup>2</sup>Asa responded by removing the silver and gold from the treasuries of the Temple of the LORD and the royal palace. He sent it to King Ben-hadad of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus, along with this message:

<sup>3</sup>“Let there be a treaty* between you and me like the one between your father and my father. See, I am sending you silver and gold. Break your treaty with King Baasha of Israel so that he will leave me alone.”

<sup>4</sup>Ben-hadad agreed to King Asa's request and sent the commanders of his army to attack the towns of Israel. They conquered the towns of Ijon, Dan, Abel-beth-maacah,* and all the store cities in Naphtali. <sup>5</sup>As soon as Baasha of Israel heard what was happening, he abandoned his project of fortifying Ramah and stopped all work on it. <sup>6</sup>Then King Asa called out all the men of Judah to carry away the building stones and timbers that Baasha had been using to fortify Ramah. Asa used these materials to fortify the towns of Geba and Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup>At that time Hanani the seer came to King Asa and told him, “Because you have put your trust in the king of Aram instead of in the LORD your God, you missed your chance to destroy the army of the king of Aram. <sup>8</sup>Don't you remember what happened to the Ethiopians* and Libyans and their vast army, with all of their chariots and charioteers?* At that time you relied on the LORD, and he handed them over to you. <sup>9</sup>The eyes of the LORD search the whole earth in order to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him. What a fool you have been! From now on you will be at war."

<sup>10</sup>Asa became so angry with Hanani for saying this that he threw him into prison and put him in stocks. At that time Asa also began to oppress some of his people.

Summary of Asa's Reign
