through his holy prophets long ago.

<sup>71</sup>Now we will be saved from our enemies and from all who hate us.

<sup>72</sup>He has been merciful to our ancestors by remembering his sacred covenant—

<sup>73</sup>the covenant he swore with an oath to our ancestor Abraham.

<sup>74</sup>We have been rescued from our enemies
so we can serve God without fear,

<sup>75</sup>in holiness and righteousness for as long as we live.

<sup>76</sup>“And you, my little son, will be called the prophet of the Most High, because you will prepare the way for the Lord.

<sup>77</sup>You will tell his people how to find salvation through forgiveness of their sins.

the morning light from heaven is about to break upon us,*

<sup>79</sup>to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, and to guide us to the path of peace.”

<sup>80</sup>John grew up and became strong in spirit. And he lived in the wilderness until he began his public ministry to Israel.

Luke 2

The Birth of Jesus

<sup>6</sup>And while they were there, the time came for her baby to be born. <sup>7</sup>She gave birth to her first child, a son. She wrapped him snugly in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no lodging available for them.

The Shepherds and Angels

<sup>8</sup>That night there were shepherds staying in the fields nearby, guarding their flocks of sheep. <sup>9</sup>Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared among them, and the radiance of the Lord's glory surrounded them. They were terrified, <sup>10</sup>but the angel reassured them. "Don't be afraid!" he said. "I bring you good news that will bring great joy to all people. <sup>11</sup>The Savior—yes, the Messiah, the Lord—has been born today in Bethlehem, the city of David! <sup>12</sup>And you will recognize him by this sign: You will find a baby wrapped snugly in strips of cloth, lying in a manger.”

<sup>13</sup>Suddenly, the angel was joined by a vast host of others—the armies of heaven—praising God and saying,

<sup>14</sup>“Glory to God in highest heaven, and peace on earth to those with whom God is pleased.”

<sup>15</sup>When the angels had returned to heaven, the shepherds said to each other, “Let’s go to Bethlehem! Let’s see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about.”

<sup>16</sup>They hurried to the village and found Mary and Joseph. And there was the baby, lying in the manger. <sup>17</sup>After seeing him, the shepherds told everyone what had happened and what the angel had said to them about this child. <sup>18</sup>All who heard the shepherds’ story were astonished, <sup>19</sup>but Mary kept all these things in her heart and thought about them often. <sup>20</sup>The shepherds went back to their flocks, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen. It was just as the angel had told them.

Jesus Is Presented in the Temple

<sup>21</sup>Eight days later, when the baby was circumcised, he was named Jesus, the name given him by the angel even before he was conceived.

<sup>22</sup>Then it was time for their purification offering, as required by the law of Moses after the birth of a child; so his parents took him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord. <sup>23</sup>The law of the Lord says, “If a woman’s first child is a boy, he must be dedicated to the LORD.”* <sup>24</sup>So they offered the sacrifice required in the law of the Lord—“either a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons.”*

The Prophecy of Simeon

<sup>25</sup>At that time there was a man in Jerusalem named Simeon. He was righteous and devout and was eagerly waiting for the Messiah to come and rescue Israel. The Holy Spirit was upon him<sup>26</sup>and had revealed to him that he would not die until he had seen the Lord’s Messiah. <sup>27</sup>That day the Spirit led him to the Temple. So when Mary and Joseph came to present the baby Jesus to the Lord as the law required,<sup>28</sup>Simeon was there. He took the child in his arms and praised God, saying, as you have promised.

<sup>30</sup>I have seen your salvation,

and he is the glory of your people Israel!”

<sup>33</sup>Jesus’ parents were amazed at what was being said about him. <sup>34</sup>Then Simeon blessed them, and he said to Mary, the baby’s mother, “This child is destined to cause many in Israel to fall, but he will be a joy to many others. He has been sent as a sign from God, but many will oppose him. <sup>35</sup>As a result, the deepest thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your very soul.”

The Prophecy of Anna

<sup>36</sup>Anna, a prophet, was also there in the Temple. She was the daughter of Phanuel from the tribe of Asher, and she was very old. Her husband died when they had been married only seven years. <sup>37</sup>Then she lived as a widow to the age of eighty-four.* She never left the Temple but stayed there day and night, worshiping God with fasting and prayer. <sup>38</sup>She came along just as Simeon was talking with Mary and Joseph, and she began praising God. She talked about the child to everyone who had been waiting expectantly for God to rescue Jerusalem.

<sup>39</sup>When Jesus’ parents had fulfilled all the requirements of the law of the Lord, they returned home to Nazareth in Galilee. <sup>40</sup>There the child grew up healthy and strong. He was filled with wisdom, and God’s favor was on him.

Jesus Speaks with the Teachers

<sup>41</sup>Every year Jesus’ parents went to Jerusalem for the Passover festival. <sup>42</sup>When Jesus was twelve years old, they attended the festival as usual. <sup>43</sup>After the celebration was over, they started home to Nazareth, but Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents didn’t miss him at first, <sup>44</sup>because they assumed he was among the other travelers. But when he didn’t show up that evening, they started looking for him among their relatives and friends.

<sup>45</sup>When they couldn’t find him, they went back to Jerusalem to search for him there. <sup>46</sup>Three days later they finally discovered him in the Temple, sitting among the religious teachers, listening to them and asking questions.<sup>47</sup> All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers.

<sup>48</sup>His parents didn't know what to think. "Son," his mother said to him, "why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been frantic, searching for you everywhere."

<sup>49</sup>"But why did you need to search?" he asked. "Didn't you know that I must be in my Father's house?" *<sup>50</sup> But they didn't understand what he meant.

What the Bible Says about

Independence

<sup>51</sup>Then he returned to Nazareth with them and was obedient to them. And his mother stored all these things in her heart.

52 Jesus grew in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and all the people.

Luke 3

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

<sup>1</sup>It was now the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius, the Roman emperor. Pontius Pilate was governor over Judea; Herod Antipas was ruler* over Galilee; his brother Philip was ruler* over Iturea and Traconitis; Lysanias was ruler over Abilene. <sup>2</sup>Annas and Caiaphas were the high priests. At this time a message from God came to John son of Zechariah, who was living in the wilderness. <sup>3</sup>Then John went from place to place on both sides of the Jordan River, preaching that people should be baptized to show that they had repented of their sins and turned to God to be forgiven. <sup>4</sup>Isaiah had spoken of John when he said, “He is a voice shouting in the wilderness,

‘Prepare the way for the LORD’s coming!

Clear the road for him!

<sup>5</sup>The valleys will be filled, and the mountains and hills made level.

The curves will be straightened, and the rough places made smooth.

<sup>6</sup>And then all people will see the salvation sent from God.’”*

<sup>7</sup>When the crowds came to John for baptism, he said, “You brood of snakes! Who warned you to flee God’s coming wrath? <sup>8</sup>Prove by the way you live that you have repented of your sins and turned to God. Don't just say to each other, 'We're safe, for we are descendants of Abraham.' That means nothing, for I tell you, God can create children of Abraham from these very stones. <sup>9</sup>Even now the ax of God's judgment is poised, ready to sever the roots of the trees. Yes, every tree that does not produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown into the fire."

<sup>11</sup>John replied, "If you have two shirts, give one to the poor. If you have food, share it with those who are hungry."

<sup>12</sup>Even corrupt tax collectors came to be baptized and asked, "Teacher, what should we do?"

<sup>14</sup>"What should we do?" asked some soldiers.

John replied, "Don't extort money or make false accusations. And be content with your pay."

<sup>15</sup>Everyone was expecting the Messiah to come soon, and they were eager to know whether John might be the Messiah.

<sup>16</sup>John answered their questions by saying, "I baptize you with water; but someone is coming soon who is greater than I am—so much greater that I'm not even worthy to be his slave and untie the straps of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire." <sup>17</sup>He is ready to separate the chaff from the wheat with his winnowing fork. Then he will clean up the threshing area, gathering the wheat into his barn but burning the chaff with never-ending fire." <sup>18</sup>John used many such warnings as he announced the Good News to the people.

<sup>19</sup>John also publicly criticized Herod Antipas, the ruler of Galilee,* for marrying Herodias, his brother's wife, and for many other wrongs he had done.<sup>20</sup>So Herod put John in prison, adding this sin to his many others.

The Baptism of Jesus

<sup>21</sup>One day when the crowds were being baptized, Jesus himself was baptized. As he was praying, the heavens opened,<sup>22</sup>and the Holy Spirit, in bodily form, descended on him like a dove. And a voice from heaven said, "You are my dearly loved Son, and you bring me great joy.*"

The Ancestors of Jesus

<sup>23</sup>Jesus was about thirty years old when he began his public ministry.

Jesus was known as the son of Joseph.

Luke 4

The Temptation of Jesus

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan River. He was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, *<sup>2</sup> where he was tempted by the devil for forty days. Jesus ate nothing all that time and became very hungry.

<sup>3</sup> Then the devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become a loaf of bread.”

<sup>5</sup> Then the devil took him up and revealed to him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. <sup>6</sup> “I will give you the glory of these kingdoms and authority over them,” the devil said, “because they are mine to give to anyone I please. <sup>7</sup> I will give it all to you if you will worship me.”

<sup>8</sup> Jesus replied, “The Scriptures say,

‘You must worship the LORD your God and serve only him.’ *”

<sup>9</sup> Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, to the highest point of the Temple, and said, “If you are the Son of God, jump off!

<sup>10</sup> For the Scriptures say,

‘He will order his angels to protect and guard you.

so you won't even hurt your foot on a stone. ’*’

<sup>12</sup>Jesus responded, “The Scriptures also say, ‘You must not test the LORD your God.’ ’*’”

<sup>13</sup>When the devil had finished tempting Jesus, he left him until the next opportunity came.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

<sup>14</sup>Then Jesus returned to Galilee, filled with the Holy Spirit's power. Reports about him spread quickly through the whole region. <sup>15</sup>He taught regularly in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

<sup>16</sup>When he came to the village of Nazareth, his boyhood home, he went as usual to the synagogue on the Sabbath and stood up to read the Scriptures. <sup>17</sup>The scroll of Isaiah the prophet was handed to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where this was written:

<sup>18</sup>“The Spirit of the LORD is upon me, for he has anointed me to bring Good News to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim that captives will be released, that the blind will see, that the oppressed will be set free,
<sup>19</sup>and that the time of the LORD's favor has come. ’*’”

<sup>20</sup>He rolled up the scroll, handed it back to the attendant, and sat down. All eyes in the synagogue looked at him intently.

<sup>21</sup>Then he began to speak to them. “The Scripture you’ve just heard has been fulfilled this very day!”

<sup>22</sup>Everyone spoke well of him and was amazed by the gracious words that came from his lips. “How can this be?” they asked. “Isn’t this Joseph’s son?”

<sup>23</sup>Then he said, “You will undoubtedly quote me this proverb: ‘Physician, heal yourself’—meaning, ‘Do miracles here in your hometown like those you did in Capernaum.’” <sup>24</sup>But I tell you the truth, no prophet is accepted in his own hometown.

<sup>25</sup>“Certainly there were many needy widows in Israel in Elijah’s time, when the heavens were closed for three and a half years, and a severe famine devastated the land. <sup>26</sup>Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them. He was sent instead to a foreigner—a widow of Zarephath in the land of Sidon. <sup>27</sup>And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, but the only one healed was Naaman, a Syrian.”

<sup>28</sup> When they heard this, the people in the synagogue were furious. <sup>29</sup>Jumping up, they mobbed him and forced him to the edge of the hill on which the town was built. They intended to push him over the cliff, <sup>30</sup>but he passed right through the crowd and went on his way.

Jesus Casts Out a Demon

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus went to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and taught there in the synagogue every Sabbath day. <sup>32</sup>There, too, the people were amazed at his teaching, for he spoke with authority.

a demon—an evil* spirit—began shouting at Jesus, <sup>34</sup>“Go away! Why are you interfering with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!”

<sup>35</sup>Jesus cut him short. “Be quiet! Come out of the man,” he ordered. At that, the demon threw the man to the floor as the crowd watched; then it came out of him without hurting him further.

<sup>36</sup>Amazed, the people exclaimed, “What authority and power this man’s words possess! Even evil spirits obey him, and they flee at his command!” <sup>37</sup>The news about Jesus spread through every village in the entire region.

Jesus Heals Many People

<sup>38</sup>After leaving the synagogue that day, Jesus went to Simon’s home, where he found Simon’s mother-in-law very sick with a high fever. “Please heal her,” everyone begged. <sup>39</sup>Standing at her bedside, he rebuked the fever, and it left her. And she got up at once and prepared a meal for them.

<sup>40</sup>As the sun went down that evening, people throughout the village brought sick family members to Jesus. No matter what their diseases were, the touch of his hand healed every one.

<sup>41</sup>Many were possessed by demons; and the demons came out at his command, shouting, “You are the Son of God!” But because they knew he was the Messiah, he rebuked them and refused to let them speak.

Jesus Continues to Preach

<sup>42</sup>Early the next morning Jesus went out to an isolated place. The crowds searched everywhere for him, and when they finally found him, they begged him not to leave them. <sup>43</sup>But he replied, “I must preach the Good News of the Kingdom of God in other towns, too, because that is why I was sent.” <sup>44</sup>So he continued to travel around, preaching in synagogues throughout Judea.*

The First Disciples

<sup>5</sup>"Master," Simon replied, "we worked hard all last night and didn't catch a thing. But if you say so, I'll let the nets down again." <sup>6</sup>And this time their nets were so full of fish they began to tear! <sup>7</sup>A shout for help brought their partners in the other boat, and soon both boats were filled with fish and on the verge of sinking.

<sup>8</sup>When Simon Peter realized what had happened, he fell to his knees before Jesus and said, "Oh, Lord, please leave me—I'm too much of a sinner to be around you." <sup>9</sup>For he was awestruck by the number of fish they had caught, as were the others with him. <sup>10</sup>His partners, James and John, the sons of Zebedee, were also amazed.

Jesus replied to Simon, "Don't be afraid! From now on you'll be fishing for people!”<sup>11</sup> And as soon as they landed, they left everything and followed Jesus.

Jesus Heals a Man with Leprosy

<sup>12</sup>In one of the villages, Jesus met a man with an advanced case of leprosy. When the man saw Jesus, he bowed with his face to the ground, begging to be healed. “Lord,” he said, “if you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean.”

<sup>13</sup>Jesus reached out and touched him. “I am willing,” he said. “Be healed!” And instantly the leprosy disappeared. <sup>14</sup>Then Jesus instructed him not to tell anyone what had happened. He said, “Go to the priest and let him examine you. Take along the offering required in the law of Moses for those who have been healed of leprosy.* This will be a public testimony that you have been cleansed.”

<sup>15</sup>But despite Jesus’ instructions, the report of his power spread even faster, and vast crowds came to hear him preach and to be healed of their diseases. <sup>16</sup>But Jesus often withdrew to the wilderness for prayer.

Jesus Heals a Paralyzed Man

<sup>17</sup>One day while Jesus was teaching, some Pharisees and teachers of religious law were sitting nearby. (It seemed that these men showed up from every village in all Galilee and Judea, as well as from Jerusalem.) And the Lord’s healing power was strongly with Jesus.

<sup>18</sup>Some men came carrying a paralyzed man on a sleeping mat. They tried to take him inside to Jesus, <sup>19</sup>but they couldn’t reach him because of the crowd. So they went up to the roof and took off some tiles. Then they lowered the sick man on his mat down into the crowd, right in front of Jesus. <sup>20</sup>Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the man, “Young man, your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>21</sup>But the Pharisees and teachers of religious law said to themselves, “Who does he think he is? That’s blasphemy! Only God can forgive sins!”

<sup>22</sup>Jesus knew what they were thinking, so he asked them, “Why do you question this in your hearts? <sup>23</sup>Is it easier to say ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or ‘Stand up and walk’? <sup>24</sup>So I will prove to you that the Son of Man* has the authority on earth to forgive sins.” Then Jesus turned to the paralyzed man and said, “Stand up, pick up your mat, and go home!”

<sup>25</sup>And immediately, as everyone watched, the man jumped up, picked up his mat, and went home praising God. <sup>26</sup>Everyone was gripped with great wonder and awe, and they praised God, exclaiming, “We have seen amazing things today!”

Jesus Calls Levi (Matthew)

<sup>27</sup>Later, as Jesus left the town, he saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at his tax collector’s booth. “Follow me and be my disciple,” Jesus said to him. <sup>28</sup>So Levi got up, left everything, and followed him.

<sup>29</sup>Later, Levi held a banquet in his home with Jesus as the guest of honor. Many of Levi’s fellow tax collectors and other guests also ate with them. <sup>30</sup> But the Pharisees and their teachers of religious law complained bitterly to Jesus’ disciples, “Why do you eat and drink with such scum?*

<sup>31</sup>Jesus answered them, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor —sick people do. <sup>32</sup>I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners and need to repent.”

A Discussion about Fasting

<sup>33</sup>One day some people said to Jesus, “John the Baptist’s disciples fast and pray regularly, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees. Why are your disciples always eating and drinking?”

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus gave them this illustration: “No one tears a piece of cloth from a new garment and uses it to patch an old garment. For then the new garment would be ruined, and the new patch wouldn’t even match the old garment.

A Discussion about the Sabbath

<sup>1</sup>One Sabbath day as Jesus was walking through some grainfields, his disciples broke off heads of grain, rubbed off the husks in their hands, and ate the grain. <sup>2</sup>But some Pharisees said, “Why are you breaking the law by harvesting grain on the Sabbath?”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus replied, “Haven’t you read in the Scriptures what David did when he and his companions were hungry? <sup>4</sup>He went into the house of God and broke the law by eating the sacred loaves of bread that only the priests can eat. He also gave some to his companions.” <sup>5</sup>And Jesus added, “The Son of Man* is Lord, even over the Sabbath.”

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

<sup>6</sup>On another Sabbath day, a man with a deformed right hand was in the synagogue while Jesus was teaching. <sup>7</sup>The teachers of religious law and the Pharisees watched Jesus closely. If he healed the man’s hand, they planned to accuse him of working on the Sabbath.

<sup>8</sup>But Jesus knew their thoughts. He said to the man with the deformed hand, “Come and stand in front of everyone.” So the man came forward. <sup>9</sup>Then Jesus said to his critics, “I have a question for you. Does the law permit good deeds on the Sabbath, or is it a day for doing evil? Is this a day to save life or to destroy it?”

<sup>10</sup>He looked around at them one by one and then said to the man, “Hold out your hand.” So the man held out his hand, and it was restored! <sup>11</sup>At this, the enemies of Jesus were wild with rage and began to discuss what to do with him.

Jesus Chooses the Twelve Apostles

<sup>12</sup> One day soon afterward Jesus went up on a mountain to pray, and he prayed to God all night. <sup>13</sup>At daybreak he called together all of his disciples and chose twelve of them to be apostles. Here are their names:

Andrew (Peter’s brother),

James,

John,

Philip,

Bartholomew,

<sup>15</sup>Matthew,

Thomas,

James (son of Alphaeus),

Simon (who was called the zealot),

Judas Iscariot (who later betrayed him).

WHAT A CREW

The original twelve disciples of Jesus were a colorful collection. Here's the roster.

name	also called	personality	occupation
Andrew	brother of Simon Peter	Friendly, good networker	Fisherman
James	"the shorter," son of Alphaeus	(no clues given)	??
James	son of Zebedee, brother of John, "Son of Thunder"	Ambitious?	Fisherman
John	son of Zebedee, brother of James, "Son of Thunder"	Lots of heart	Fisherman
Judas	Thaddeus, son of James	Thoughtful (see John 14:22)	??
Judas	Iscaiot, i.e., "from Kerioth"; thus, the only disciple not from Galilee	Scheming and calculating, a thief	??
Matthew	Levi	Mathematical	Tax collector
Nathanael	Bartholomew	Pure-hearted	??
Phillip	??	Practical, realistic	??
Simon	Peter, brother of Andrew	Brash, spirited, hard worker	Fisherman
Thomas	Didymus, i.e., "the twin"	Careful, questioning	??

Crowds Follow Jesus

<sup>17</sup>When they came down from the mountain, the disciples stood with Jesus on a large, level area, surrounded by many of his followers and by the crowds. There were people from all over Judea and from Jerusalem and from as far north as the seacoasts of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>18</sup>They had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those troubled by evil* spirits were healed. <sup>19</sup>Everyone tried to touch him, because healing power went out from him, and he healed everyone.

The Beatitudes

<sup>20</sup> Then Jesus turned to his disciples and said, “God blesses you who are poor, for the Kingdom of God is yours.

<sup>21</sup> God blesses you who are hungry now, for you will be satisfied.

God blesses you who weep now, for in due time you will laugh.

<sup>22</sup> What blessings await you when people hate you and exclude you and mock you and curse you as evil because you follow the Son of Man. <sup>23</sup> When that happens, be happy! Yes, leap for joy! For a great reward awaits you in heaven. And remember, their ancestors treated the ancient prophets that same way.

Sorrows Foretold

<sup>24</sup> “What sorrow awaits you who are rich, for you have your only happiness now.

<sup>25</sup> What sorrow awaits you who are fat and prosperous now, for a time of awful hunger awaits you.

What sorrow awaits you who laugh now, for your laughing will turn to mourning and sorrow.

<sup>26</sup>What sorrow awaits you who are praised by the crowds, for their ancestors also praised false prophets.

Love for Enemies

<sup>27</sup>“But to you who are willing to listen, I say, love your enemies! Do good to those who hate you. <sup>28</sup>Bless those who curse you. Pray for those who hurt you. <sup>29</sup>If someone slaps you on one cheek, offer the other cheek also. If someone demands your coat, offer your shirt also. <sup>30</sup>Give to anyone who asks; and when things are taken away from you, don’t try to get them back. <sup>31</sup>Do to others as you would like them to do to you.

<sup>32</sup>“If you love only those who love you, why should you get credit for that? Even sinners love those who love them! <sup>33</sup>And if you do good only to those who do good to you, why should you get credit? Even sinners do that much! <sup>34</sup>And if you lend money only to those who can repay you, why should you get credit? Even sinners will lend to other sinners for a full return.

<sup>35</sup>“Love your enemies! Do good to them. Lend to them without expecting to be repaid. Then your reward from heaven will be very great, and you will truly be acting as children of the Most High, for he is kind to those who are unthankful and wicked. <sup>36</sup>You must be compassionate, just as your Father is compassionate.

Do Not Judge Others

<sup>37</sup>“Do not judge others, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn others, or it will all come back against you. Forgive others, and you will be forgiven. <sup>38</sup>Give, and you will receive.

Your gift will return to you in full—pressed down, shaken together to make room for more, running over, and poured into your lap. The amount you give will determine the amount you get back.*”

The Tree and Its Fruit

Building on a Solid Foundation

<sup>46</sup>“So why do you keep calling me ‘Lord, Lord!’ when you don’t do what I say? <sup>47</sup>I will show you what it’s like when someone comes to me, listens to my teaching, and then follows it. <sup>48</sup>It is like a person building a house who digs deep and lays the foundation on solid rock. When the floodwaters rise and break against that house, it stands firm because it is well built. <sup>49</sup>But anyone who hears and doesn't obey is like a person who builds a house without a foundation. When the floods sweep down against that house, it will collapse into a heap of ruins.”

The Faith of a Roman Officer

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had finished saying all this to the people, he returned to Capernaum. <sup>2</sup>At that time the highly valued slave of a Roman officer* was sick and near death. <sup>3</sup>When the officer heard about Jesus, he sent some respected Jewish elders to ask him to come and heal his slave. <sup>4</sup>So they earnestly begged Jesus to help the man. “If anyone deserves your help, he does,” they said, <sup>5</sup>“for he loves the Jewish people and even built a synagogue for us.”

<sup>9</sup>When Jesus heard this, he was amazed. Turning to the crowd that was following him, he said, “I tell you, I haven’t seen faith like this in all Israel!” <sup>10</sup>And when the officer’s friends returned to his house, they found the slave completely healed.

Jesus Raises a Widow's Son

11 Soon afterward Jesus went with his disciples to the village of Nain, and a large crowd followed him. <sup>12</sup>A funeral procession was coming out as he approached the village gate. The young man who had died was a widow's only son, and a large crowd from the village was with her. <sup>13</sup>When the Lord saw her, his heart overflowed with compassion. "Don't cry!" he said. <sup>14</sup>Then he walked over to the coffin and touched it, and the bearers stopped. "Young man," he said, "I tell you, get up." <sup>15</sup>Then the dead boy sat up and began to talk! And Jesus gave him back to his mother.

<sup>16</sup>Great fear swept the crowd, and they praised God, saying, "A mighty prophet has risen among us," and "God has visited his people today." <sup>17</sup>And the news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and the surrounding countryside.

Jesus and John the Baptist

18 The disciples of John the Baptist told John about everything Jesus was doing. So John called for two of his disciples, <sup>19</sup>and he sent them to the Lord to ask him, "Are you the Messiah we've been expecting * or should we keep looking for someone else?"

Healing a Widow's Grief

<sup>20</sup>John's two disciples found Jesus and said to him, "John the Baptist sent us to ask, 'Are you the Messiah we've been expecting, or should we keep looking for someone else?”

<sup>21</sup>At that very time, Jesus cured many people of their diseases, illnesses, and evil spirits, and he restored sight to many who were blind. <sup>22</sup>Then he told John’s disciples, “Go back to John and tell him what you have seen and heard—the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised to life, and the Good News is being preached to the poor. <sup>23</sup>And tell him, ‘God blesses those who do not turn away because of me.’”

<sup>24</sup>After John’s disciples left, Jesus began talking about him to the crowds. “What kind of man did you go into the wilderness to see? Was he a weak reed, swayed by every breath of wind? <sup>25</sup>Or were you expecting to see a man dressed in expensive clothes? No, people who wear beautiful clothes and live in luxury are found in palaces. <sup>26</sup>Were you looking for a prophet? Yes, and he is more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup>John is the man to whom the Scriptures refer when they say,

‘Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, and he will prepare your way before you.’”

<sup>28</sup>I tell you, of all who have ever lived, none is greater than John. Yet even the least person in the Kingdom of God is greater than he is!”

<sup>29</sup>When they heard this, all the people—even the tax collectors—agreed that God’s way was right, for they had been baptized by John. <sup>30</sup>But the Pharisees and experts in religious law rejected God’s plan for them, for they had refused

John's baptism.

<sup>31</sup>“To what can I compare the people of this generation?” Jesus asked. “How can I describe them? <sup>32</sup>They are like children playing a game in the public square. They complain to their friends,

‘We played wedding songs, and you didn’t dance,
so we played funeral songs,
and you didn’t weep.’

<sup>34</sup>The Son of Man,* on the other hand, feasts and drinks, and you say, ‘He’s a glutton and a drunkard, and a friend of tax collectors and other sinners!’ <sup>35</sup>But wisdom is shown to be right by the lives of those who follow it.*”

Jesus Anointed by a Sinful Woman

<sup>36</sup>One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to have dinner with him, so Jesus went to his home and sat down to eat.* <sup>37</sup>When a certain immoral woman from that city heard he was eating there, she brought a beautiful alabaster jar filled with expensive perfume.

<sup>39</sup>When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, “If this man were a prophet, he would know what kind of woman is touching him. She's a sinner!"

<sup>40</sup>Then Jesus answered his thoughts. "Simon," he said to the Pharisee, "I have something to say to you."

"Go ahead, Teacher," Simon replied.

<sup>41</sup>Then Jesus told him this story: "A man loaned money to two people—500 pieces of silver* to one and 50 pieces to the other. <sup>42</sup>But neither of them could repay him, so he kindly forgave them both, canceling their debts. Who do you suppose loved him more after that?"

"That's right," Jesus said. <sup>44</sup>Then he turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Look at this woman kneeling here. When I entered your home, you didn't offer me water to wash the dust from my feet, but she has washed them with her tears and wiped them with her hair. <sup>45</sup>You didn't greet me with a kiss, but from the time I first came in, she has not stopped kissing my feet. <sup>46</sup>You neglected the courtesy of olive oil to anoint my head, but she has anointed my feet with rare perfume.

<sup>47</sup>"I tell you, her sins—and they are many—have been forgiven, so she has shown me much love. But a person who is forgiven little shows only little love." <sup>48</sup>Then Jesus said to the woman, "Your sins are forgiven."

<sup>50</sup>And Jesus said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

Extravagant Love

Luke 8

Women Who Followed Jesus

<sup>1</sup>Soon afterward Jesus began a tour of the nearby towns and villages, preaching and announcing the Good News about the Kingdom of God. He took his twelve disciples with him, <sup>2</sup>along with some women who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases. Among them were Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons; <sup>3</sup>Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's business manager; Susanna; and many others who were contributing from their own resources to support Jesus and his disciples.

Parable of the Farmer Scattering Seed

replied, “You are permitted to understand the secrets * of the Kingdom of God. But I use parables to teach the others so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled:

‘When they look, they won’t really see.
When they hear, they won’t understand.’*

<sup>11</sup>“This is the meaning of the parable: The seed is God’s word. <sup>12</sup>The seeds that fell on the footpath represent those who hear the message, only to have the devil come and take it away from their hearts and prevent them from believing and being saved. <sup>13</sup>The seeds on the rocky soil represent those who hear the message and receive it with joy. But since they don’t have deep roots, they believe for a while, then they fall away when they face temptation. <sup>14</sup>The seeds that fell among the thorns represent those who hear the message, but all too quickly the message is crowded out by the cares and riches and pleasures of this life. And so they never grow into maturity. <sup>15</sup>And the seeds that fell on the good soil represent honest, good-hearted people who hear God’s word, cling to it, and patiently produce a huge harvest.

Parable of the Lamp

<sup>16</sup> “No one lights a lamp and then covers it with a bowl or hides it under a bed. A lamp is placed on a stand, where its light can be seen by all who enter the house. <sup>17</sup>For all that is secret will eventually be brought into the open, and everything that is concealed will be brought to light and made known to all.

<sup>18</sup>“So pay attention to how you hear. To those who listen to my teaching, more understanding will be given. But for those who are not listening, even what they think they understand will be taken away from them.”

The True Family of Jesus

<sup>19</sup>Then Jesus’ mother and brothers came to see him, but they couldn’t get to him because of the crowd. <sup>20</sup>Someone told Jesus, “Your mother and your brothers are outside, and they want to see you.”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus replied, “My mother and my brothers are all those who hear God’s word and obey it.”

Jesus Calms the Storm

<sup>22</sup>One day Jesus said to his disciples, “Let’s cross to the other side of the lake.” So they got into a boat and started out. <sup>23</sup>As they sailed across, Jesus settled down for a nap. But soon a fierce storm came down on the lake. The boat was filling with water, and they were in real danger.

<sup>24</sup>The disciples went and woke him up, shouting, “Master, Master, we’re going to drown!”

When Jesus woke up, he rebuked the wind and the raging waves. Suddenly the storm stopped and all was calm. <sup>25</sup>Then he asked them, “Where is your faith?”

The disciples were terrified and amazed. “Who is this man?” They asked each other. “When he gives a command, even the wind and waves obey him!”

Jesus Heals a Demon-Possessed Man

<sup>26</sup> So they arrived in the region of the Gerasenes, across the lake from Galilee. <sup>27</sup> As Jesus was climbing out of the boat, a man who was possessed by demons came out to meet him. For a long time he had been homeless and naked, living in a cemetery outside the town.

<sup>28</sup> As soon as he saw Jesus, he shrieked and fell down in front of him. Then he screamed, “Why are you interfering with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? Please, I beg you, don’t torture me!” <sup>29</sup> For Jesus had already commanded the evil spirit to come out of him. This spirit had often taken control of the man. Even when he was placed under guard and put in chains and shackles, he simply broke them and rushed out into the wilderness, completely under the demon’s power.

“Legion,” he replied, for he was filled with many demons.

<sup>32</sup> There happened to be a large herd of pigs feeding on the hillside nearby, and the demons begged him to let them enter into the pigs.

So Jesus gave them permission. <sup>33</sup> Then the demons came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the entire herd plunged down the steep hillside into the lake and drowned.

<sup>34</sup> When the herdsmen saw it, they fled to the nearby town and the surrounding countryside, spreading the news as they ran. <sup>35</sup> People rushed out to see what had happened. A crowd soon gathered around Jesus, and they saw the man who had been freed from the demons. He was sitting at Jesus' feet, fully clothed and perfectly sane, and they were all afraid.<sup>36</sup> Then those who had seen what happened told the others how the demon-possessed man had been healed.<sup>37</sup> And all the people in the region of the Gerasenes begged Jesus to go away and leave them alone, for a great wave of fear swept over them.

So Jesus returned to the boat and left, crossing back to the other side of the lake.<sup>38</sup> The man who had been freed from the demons begged to go with him. But Jesus sent him home, saying,<sup>39</sup> "No, go back to your family, and tell them everything God has done for you." So he went all through the town proclaiming the great things Jesus had done for him.

Jesus Heals in Response to Faith

<sup>40</sup>On the other side of the lake the crowds welcomed Jesus, because they had been waiting for him.<sup>41</sup> Then a man named Jairus, a leader of the local synagogue, came and fell at Jesus' feet, pleading with him to come home with him.<sup>42</sup> His only daughter,* who was about twelve years old, was dying.

As Jesus went with him, he was surrounded by the crowds.<sup>43</sup> A woman in the crowd had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding,* and she could find no cure.<sup>44</sup> Coming up behind Jesus, she touched the fringe of his robe. Immediately, the bleeding stopped.

<sup>45</sup>"Who touched me?" Jesus asked.

Everyone denied it, and Peter said, "Master, this whole crowd is pressing up against you."

<sup>46</sup>But Jesus said, "Someone deliberately touched me, for I felt healing power go out from me.” <sup>47</sup>When the woman realized that she could not stay hidden, she began to tremble and fell to her knees in front of him. The whole crowd heard her explain why she had touched him and that she had been immediately healed. <sup>48</sup>“Daughter,” he said to her, “your faith has made you well. Go in peace.”

<sup>50</sup>But when Jesus heard what had happened, he said to Jairus, “Don’t be afraid. Just have faith, and she will be healed.”

<sup>51</sup>When they arrived at the house, Jesus wouldn’t let anyone go in with him except Peter, John, James, and the little girl’s father and mother. <sup>52</sup>The house was filled with people weeping and wailing, but he said, “Stop the weeping! She isn’t dead; she’s only asleep.”

<sup>53</sup>But the crowd laughed at him because they all knew she had died. <sup>54</sup>Then Jesus took her by the hand and said in a loud voice, “My child, get up!” <sup>55</sup>And at that moment her life* returned, and she immediately stood up! Then Jesus told them to give her something to eat. <sup>56</sup>Her parents were overwhelmed, but Jesus insisted that they not tell anyone what had happened.

Luke 9

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve Disciples

<sup>1</sup>One day Jesus called together his twelve disciples* and gave them power and authority to cast out all demons and to heal all diseases. <sup>2</sup>Then he sent them out to tell everyone about the Kingdom of God and to heal the sick. <sup>3</sup>“Take nothing for your journey,” he instructed them. “Don’t take a walking stick, a traveler’s bag, food, money,* or even a change of clothes. <sup>4</sup>Wherever you go, stay in the same house until you leave town. <sup>5</sup>And if a town refuses to welcome you, shake its dust from your feet as you leave to show that you have abandoned those people to their fate.”

Herod Antipas

Herod's Confusion

<sup>7</sup>When Herod Antipas, the ruler of Galilee,* heard about everything Jesus was doing, he was puzzled. Some were saying that John the Baptist had been raised from the dead. <sup>8</sup>Others thought Jesus was Elijah or one of the other prophets risen from the dead.

<sup>9</sup>“I beheaded John,” Herod said, “so who is this man about whom I hear such stories?” And he kept trying to see him.

Jesus Feeds Five Thousand

<sup>10</sup> When the apostles returned, they told Jesus everything they had done. Then he slipped quietly away with them toward the town of Bethsaida. <sup>11</sup>But the crowds found out where he was going, and they followed him. He welcomed them and taught them about the Kingdom of God, and he healed those who were sick.

<sup>12</sup>Late in the afternoon the twelve disciples came to him and said, “Send the crowds away to the nearby villages and farms, so they can find food and lodging for the night. There is nothing to eat here in this remote place.”

“But we have only five loaves of bread and two fish,” they answered. “Or are you expecting us to go and buy enough food for this whole crowd?” <sup>14</sup>For there were about 5,000 men there.

Jesus replied, “Tell them to sit down in groups of about fifty each.” <sup>15</sup>So the people all sat down. <sup>16</sup>Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them.

Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he kept giving the bread and fish to the disciples so they could distribute it to the people. <sup>17</sup>They all ate as much as they wanted, and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftovers!

Peter's Declaration about Jesus

<sup>18</sup>One day Jesus left the crowds to pray alone. Only his disciples were with him, and he asked them, "Who do people say I am?"

<sup>19</sup>"Well," they replied, "some say John the Baptist, some say Elijah, and others say you are one of the other ancient prophets risen from the dead."

<sup>20</sup>Then he asked them, "But who do you say I am?"

Peter replied, "You are the Messiah* sent from God!"

Jesus Predicts His Death

<sup>21</sup>Jesus warned his disciples not to tell anyone who he was.

<sup>22</sup>"The Son of Man* must suffer many terrible things," he said. "He will be rejected by the elders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He will be killed, but on the third day he will be raised from the dead."

<sup>23</sup> Then he said to the crowd, "If any of you wants to be my follower, you must turn from your selfish ways, take up your cross daily, and follow me. <sup>24</sup>If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake, you will save it. <sup>25</sup>And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but are yourself lost or destroyed? <sup>26</sup>If anyone is ashamed of me and my message, the Son of Man will be ashamed of that person when he returns in his glory and in the glory of the Father and the holy angels. <sup>27</sup>I tell you the truth, some standing here right now will not die before they see the Kingdom of God.”

The Transfiguration

<sup>28</sup>About eight days later Jesus took Peter, John, and James up on a mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup>And as he was praying, the appearance of his face was transformed, and his clothes became dazzling white. <sup>30</sup>Suddenly, two men, Moses and Elijah, appeared and began talking with Jesus. <sup>31</sup>They were glorious to see. And they were speaking about his exodus from this world, which was about to be fulfilled in Jerusalem.

<sup>32</sup>Peter and the others had fallen asleep. When they woke up, they saw Jesus’ glory and the two men standing with him. <sup>33</sup>As Moses and Elijah were starting to leave, Peter, not even knowing what he was saying, blurted out, “Master, it’s wonderful for us to be here! Let’s make three shelters as memorials*—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

<sup>35</sup>Then a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, my Chosen One.* Listen to him.” <sup>36</sup>When the voice finished, Jesus was there alone. They didn’t tell anyone at that time what they had seen.

Jesus Heals a Demon-Possessed Boy

<sup>37</sup>The next day, after they had come down the mountain, a large crowd met Jesus.<sup>38</sup> A man in the crowd called out to him, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, my only child. <sup>39</sup>An evil spirit keeps seizing him, making him scream. It throws him into convulsions so that he foams at the mouth. It batters him and hardly ever leaves him alone. <sup>40</sup>I begged your disciples to cast out the spirit, but they couldn’t do it.”

<sup>41</sup>Jesus said, “You faithless and corrupt people! How long must I be with you and put up with you?” Then he said to the man, “Bring your son here.”

<sup>42</sup>As the boy came forward, the demon knocked him to the ground and threw him into a violent convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the evil* spirit and healed the boy. Then he gave him back to his father. <sup>43</sup>Awe gripped the people as they saw this majestic display of God’s power.

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

While everyone was marveling at everything he was doing, Jesus said to his disciples, <sup>44</sup>“Listen to me and remember what I say. The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of his enemies.” <sup>45</sup>But they didn’t know what he meant. Its significance was hidden from them, so they couldn’t understand it, and they were afraid to ask him about it.

The Greatest in the Kingdom

<sup>46</sup>Then his disciples began arguing about which of them was the greatest. <sup>47</sup>But Jesus knew their thoughts, so he brought a little child to his side. <sup>48</sup>Then he said to them, “Anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf* welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me also welcomes my Father who sent me. Whoever is the least among you is the greatest.”

Using the Name of Jesus

<sup>49</sup>John said to Jesus, “Master, we saw someone using your name to cast out demons, but we told him to stop because he isn’t in our group.”

<sup>50</sup>But Jesus said, “Don’t stop him! Anyone who is not against you is for you.”

Opposition from Samaritans

The Cost of Following Jesus

<sup>57</sup>As they were walking along, someone said to Jesus, “I will follow you wherever you go.”

<sup>58</sup>But Jesus replied, “Foxes have dens to live in, and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has no place even to lay his head.”

<sup>59</sup>He said to another person, “Come, follow me.”

The man agreed, but he said, “Lord, first let me return home and bury my father.”

<sup>61</sup>Another said, “Yes, Lord, I will follow you, but first let me say good-bye to my family.”

<sup>62</sup>But Jesus told him, “Anyone who puts a hand to the plow and then looks back is not fit for the Kingdom of God.”

Luke 10

Jesus Sends Out His Disciples

<sup>1</sup>The Lord now chose seventy-two* other disciples and sent them ahead in pairs to all the towns and places he planned to visit. <sup>2</sup>These were his instructions to them: “The harvest is great, but the workers are few. So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask him to send more workers into his fields. <sup>3</sup>Now go, and remember that I am sending you out as lambs among wolves. <sup>4</sup>Don’t take any money with you, nor a traveler’s bag, nor an extra pair of sandals. And don’t stop to greet anyone on the road.

<sup>5</sup>“Whenever you enter someone’s home, first say, ‘May God’s peace be on this house.’ <sup>6</sup>If those who live there are peaceful, the blessing will stand; if they are not, the blessing will return to you. <sup>7</sup>Don’t move around from home to home. Stay in one place, eating and drinking what they provide. Don’t hesitate to accept hospitality, because those who work deserve their pay.

<sup>8</sup>“If you enter a town and it welcomes you, eat whatever is set before you. <sup>9</sup>Heal the sick, and tell them, ‘The Kingdom of God is near you now.’ <sup>10</sup> But if a town refuses to welcome you, go out into its streets and say, <sup>11</sup>‘We wipe even the dust of your town from our feet to show that we have abandoned you to your fate. And know this—the Kingdom of God is near!’ <sup>12</sup>I assure you, even wicked Sodom will be better off than such a town on judgment day.

<sup>13</sup>“What sorrow awaits you, Korazin and Bethsaida! For if the miracles I did in you had been done in wicked Tyre and Sidon, their people would have repented of their sins long ago, clothing themselves in burlap and throwing ashes on their heads to show their remorse. <sup>14</sup>Yes, Tyre and Sidon will be better off on judgment day than you. <sup>15</sup>And you people of Capernaum, will you be honored in heaven? No, you will go down to the place of the dead.*”

<sup>16</sup>Then he said to the disciples, “Anyone who accepts your message is also accepting me. And anyone who rejects you is rejecting me. And anyone who rejects me is rejecting God, who sent me.”

<sup>17</sup>When the seventy-two disciples returned, they joyfully reported to him, “Lord, even the demons obey us when we use your name!”

<sup>18</sup>“Yes,” he told them, “I saw Satan fall from heaven like lightning! <sup>19</sup>Look, I have given you authority over all the power of the enemy, and you can walk among snakes and scorpions and crush them. Nothing will injure you. <sup>20</sup>But don’t rejoice because evil spirits obey you; rejoice because your names are registered in heaven.”

Jesus’ Prayer of Thanksgiving

<sup>21</sup> At that same time Jesus was filled with the joy of the Holy Spirit, and he said, “O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, thank you for hiding these things from those who think themselves wise and clever, and for revealing them to the childlike. Yes, Father, it pleased you to do it this way.

<sup>22</sup>“My Father has entrusted everything to me. No one truly knows the Son except the Father, and no one truly knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.”

<sup>23</sup>Then when they were alone, he turned to the disciples and said, “Blessed are the eyes that see what you have seen. <sup>24</sup>I tell you, many prophets and kings longed to see what you see, but they didn’t see it. And they longed to hear what you hear, but they didn’t hear it.”

The Most Important Commandment

<sup>25</sup> One day an expert in religious law stood up to test Jesus by asking him this question: “Teacher, what should I do to inherit eternal life?”

<sup>27</sup>The man answered, “‘You must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your strength, and all your mind.’ And, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’”*

<sup>29</sup>The man wanted to justify his actions, so he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

Parable of the Good Samaritan

<sup>30</sup>Jesus replied with a story: “A Jewish man was traveling from Jerusalem down to Jericho, and he was attacked by bandits. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him up, and left him half dead beside the road.

<sup>31</sup>“By chance a priest came along. But when he saw the man lying there, he crossed to the other side of the road and passed him by. <sup>32</sup>A Temple assistant * walked over and looked at him lying there, but he also passed by on the other side.

<sup>33</sup>“Then a despised Samaritan came along, and when he saw the man, he felt compassion for him. <sup>34</sup>Going over to him, the Samaritan soothed his wounds with olive oil and wine and bandaged them. Then he put the man on his own donkey and took him to an inn, where he took care of him. <sup>35</sup>The next day he handed the innkeeper two silver coins,* telling him, ‘Take care of this man. If his bill runs higher than this, I’ll pay you the next time I’m here.’

<sup>36</sup>“Now which of these three would you say was a neighbor to the man who was attacked by bandits?” Jesus asked.

Then Jesus said, “Yes, now go and do the same.”

Jesus Visits Martha and Mary

<sup>41</sup>But the Lord said to her, “My dear Martha, you are worried and upset over all these details! <sup>42</sup>There is only one thing worth being concerned about. Mary has discovered it, and it will not be taken away from her.”

Luke 11

Teaching about Prayer

<sup>1</sup>Once Jesus was in a certain place praying. As he finished, one of his disciples came to him and said, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.”

<sup>2</sup>Jesus said, “This is how you should pray: * “Father, may your name be kept holy.

May your Kingdom come soon.

<sup>3</sup>Give us each day the food we need, *

4 and forgive us our sins,

as we forgive those who sin against us.

And don’t let us yield to temptation. *”

<sup>5</sup>Then, teaching them more about prayer, he used this story: “Suppose you went to a friend’s house at midnight, wanting to borrow three loaves of bread. You say to him, <sup>6</sup>‘A friend of mine has just arrived for a visit, and I have nothing for him to eat.’ <sup>7</sup>And suppose he calls out from his bedroom, ‘Don’t bother me. The door is locked for the night, and my family and I are all in bed. I can’t help you.’ <sup>8</sup> But I tell you this—though he won’t do it for friendship’s sake, if you keep knocking long enough, he will get up and give you whatever you need because of your shameless persistence. *

<sup>9</sup>“And so I tell you, keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. <sup>10</sup>For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

<sup>11</sup>“You fathers—if your children ask* for a fish, do you give them a snake instead? <sup>12</sup>Or if they ask for an egg, do you give them a scorpion? Of course not! <sup>13</sup>So if you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him.”

Jesus and the Prince of Demons

<sup>14</sup> One day Jesus cast out a demon from a man who couldn't speak, and when the demon was gone, the man began to speak. The crowds were amazed, <sup>15</sup>but some of them said, “No wonder he can cast out demons. He gets his power from Satan,* the prince of demons.” <sup>16</sup>Others, trying to test Jesus, demanded that he show them a miraculous sign from heaven to prove his authority.

<sup>17</sup>He knew their thoughts, so he said, “Any kingdom divided by civil war is doomed. A family splintered by feuding will fall apart. <sup>18</sup>You say I am empowered by Satan. But if Satan is divided and fighting against himself, how can his kingdom survive? <sup>19</sup>And if I am empowered by Satan, what about your own exorcists? They cast out demons, too, so they will condemn you for what you have said. <sup>20</sup>But if I am casting out demons by the power of God,* then the Kingdom of God has arrived among you. <sup>21</sup>For when a strong man like Satan is fully armed and guards his palace, his possessions are safe—<sup>22</sup>until someone even stronger attacks and overpowers him, strips him of his weapons, and carries off his belongings.

<sup>23</sup>“Anyone who isn’t with me opposes me, and anyone who isn’t working with me is actually working against me.

<sup>27</sup>As he was speaking, a woman in the crowd called out, “God bless your mother—the womb from which you came, and the breasts that nursed you!”

<sup>28</sup>Jesus replied, “But even more blessed are all who hear the word of God and put it into practice.”

The Sign of Jonah

<sup>29</sup>As the crowd pressed in on Jesus, he said, “This evil generation keeps asking me to show them a miraculous sign. But the only sign I will give them is the sign of Jonah. <sup>30</sup>What happened to him was a sign to the people of Nineveh that God had sent him. What happens to the Son of Man* will be a sign to these people that he was sent by God.

<sup>31</sup>“The queen of Sheba* will stand up against this generation on judgment day and condemn it, for she came from a distant land to hear the wisdom of Solomon. Now someone greater than Solomon is here—but you refuse to listen.<sup>32</sup> The people of Nineveh will also stand up against this generation on judgment day and condemn it, for they repented of their sins at the preaching of Jonah. Now someone greater than Jonah is here—but you refuse to repent.

Receiving the Light

<sup>33</sup>“No one lights a lamp and then hides it or puts it under a basket.* Instead, a lamp is placed on a stand, where its light can be seen by all who enter the house.

<sup>34</sup>“Your eye is a lamp that provides light for your body. When your eye is good, your whole body is filled with light. But when it is bad, your body is filled with darkness.<sup>35</sup> Make sure that the light you think you have is not actually darkness.<sup>36</sup> If you are filled with light, with no dark corners, then your whole life will be radiant, as though a floodlight were filling you with light.”

Jesus Criticizes the Religious Leaders

<sup>37</sup>As Jesus was speaking, one of the Pharisees invited him home for a meal. So he went in and took his place at the table.*

<sup>38</sup>His host was amazed to see that he sat down to eat without first performing the hand-washing ceremony required by Jewish custom.<sup>39</sup> Then the Lord said to him, “You Pharisees are so careful to clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but inside you are filthy—full of greed and wickedness!<sup>40</sup> Fools! Didn’t God make the inside as well as the outside?<sup>41</sup> So clean the inside by giving gifts to the poor, and you will be clean all

<sup>42</sup>“What sorrow awaits you Pharisees! For you are careful to tithe even the tiniest income from your herb gardens,* but you ignore justice and the love of God. You should tithe, yes, but do not neglect the more important things.

<sup>43</sup>“What sorrow awaits you Pharisees! For you love to sit in the seats of honor in the synagogues and receive respectful greetings as you walk in the marketplaces. <sup>44</sup>Yes, what sorrow awaits you! For you are like hidden graves in a field. People walk over them without knowing the corruption they are stepping on.”

<sup>45</sup>“Teacher,” said an expert in religious law, “you have insulted us, too, in what you just said.”

<sup>46</sup>“Yes,” said Jesus, “what sorrow also awaits you experts in religious law! For you crush people with unbearable religious demands, and you never lift a finger to ease the burden. <sup>47</sup>What sorrow awaits you! For you build monuments for the prophets your own ancestors killed long ago. <sup>48</sup>But in fact, you stand as witnesses who agree with what your ancestors did. They killed the prophets, and you join in their crime by building the monuments! <sup>49</sup>This is what God in his wisdom said about you:‘I will send prophets and apostles to them, but they will kill some and persecute the others.’

<sup>50</sup>“As a result, this generation will be held responsible for the murder of all God’s prophets from the creation of the world—<sup>51</sup>from the murder of Abel to the murder of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, it will certainly be charged against this generation.

<sup>52</sup>“What sorrow awaits you experts in religious law! For you remove the key to knowledge from the people. You don’t enter the Kingdom yourselves, and you prevent others from entering.”

<sup>53</sup>As Jesus was leaving, the teachers of religious law and the Pharisees became hostile and tried to provoke him with many questions. <sup>54</sup>They wanted to trap him into saying something they could use against him.

A Warning against Hypocrisy

<sup>1</sup>Meanwhile, the crowds grew until thousands were milling about and stepping on each other. Jesus turned first to his disciples and warned them, “Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees—their hypocrisy. <sup>2</sup>The time is coming when everything that is covered up will be revealed, and all that is secret will be made known to all. <sup>3</sup>Whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered behind closed doors will be shouted from the housetops for all to hear!

<sup>4</sup>“Dear friends, don’t be afraid of those who want to kill your body; they cannot do any more to you after that. <sup>5</sup>But I’ll tell you whom to fear. Fear God, who has the power to kill you and then throw you into hell.* Yes, he’s the one to fear.

<sup>6</sup>“What is the price of five sparrows—two copper coins*? Yet God does not forget a single one of them. <sup>7</sup>And the very hairs on your head are all numbered. So don’t be afraid; you are more valuable to God than a whole flock of sparrows.

<sup>8</sup>“I tell you the truth, everyone who acknowledges me publicly here on earth, the Son of Man* will also acknowledge in the presence of God’s angels. <sup>9</sup>But anyone who denies me here on earth will be denied before God’s angels. <sup>10</sup>Anyone who speaks against the Son of Man can be forgiven, but anyone who blasphemes the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup>“And when you are brought to trial in the synagogues and before rulers and authorities, don’t worry about how to defend yourself or what to say, <sup>12</sup>for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that time what needs to be said.”

Parable of the Rich Fool

<sup>13</sup> Then someone called from the crowd, “Teacher, please tell my brother to divide our father’s estate with me.”

<sup>14</sup> Jesus replied, “Friend, who made me a judge over you to decide such things as that?” <sup>15</sup> Then he said, “Beware! Guard against every kind of greed. Life is not measured by how much you own.”

<sup>16</sup> Then he told them a story: “A rich man had a fertile farm that produced fine crops. <sup>17</sup> He said to himself, ‘What should I do? I don’t have room for all my crops.’ <sup>18</sup> Then he said, ‘I know! I’ll tear down my barns and build bigger ones. Then I’ll have room enough to store all my wheat and other goods. <sup>19</sup> And I’ll sit back and say to myself, “My friend, you have enough stored away for years to come. Now take it easy! Eat, drink, and be merry!”’

<sup>20</sup> “But God said to him, ‘You fool! You will die this very night. Then who will get everything you worked for?’

<sup>21</sup> “Yes, a person is a fool to store up earthly wealth but not have a rich relationship with God.”

Teaching about Money and Possessions

<sup>22</sup> Then, turning to his disciples, Jesus said, “That is why I tell you not to worry about everyday life—whether you have enough food to eat or enough clothes to wear. <sup>23</sup>For life is more than food, and your body more than clothing. <sup>24</sup>Look at the ravens. They don't plant or harvest or store food in barns, for God feeds them. And you are far more valuable to him than any birds! <sup>25</sup>Can all your worries add a single moment to your life? <sup>26</sup>And if worry can't accomplish a little thing like that, what's the use of worrying over bigger things?

<sup>27</sup>“Look at the lilies and how they grow. They don't work or make their clothing, yet Solomon in all his glory was not dressed as beautifully as they are. <sup>28</sup>And if God cares so wonderfully for flowers that are here today and thrown into the fire tomorrow, he will certainly care for you. Why do you have so little faith?

<sup>32</sup> “So don't be afraid, little flock. For it gives your Father great happiness to give you the Kingdom.

<sup>33</sup>“Sell your possessions and give to those in need. This will store up treasure for you in heaven! And the purses of heaven never get old or develop holes. Your treasure will be safe; no thief can steal it and no moth can destroy it. <sup>34</sup>Wherever your treasure is, there the desires of your heart will also be.

Be Ready for the Lord's Coming

though you were waiting for your master to return from the wedding feast. Then you will be ready to open the door and let him in the moment he arrives and knocks. <sup>37</sup>The servants who are ready and waiting for his return will be rewarded. I tell you the truth, he himself will seat them, put on an apron, and serve them as they sit and eat! <sup>38</sup>He may come in the middle of the night or just before dawn.* But whenever he comes, he will reward the servants who are ready.

<sup>39</sup>“Understand this: If a homeowner knew exactly when a burglar was coming, he would not permit his house to be broken into. <sup>40</sup>You also must be ready all the time, for the Son of Man will come when least expected.”

<sup>42</sup>And the Lord replied, “A faithful, sensible servant is one to whom the master can give the responsibility of managing his other household servants and feeding them. <sup>43</sup>If the master returns and finds that the servant has done a good job, there will be a reward. <sup>44</sup>I tell you the truth, the master will put that servant in charge of all he owns. <sup>45</sup>But what if the servant thinks, ‘My master won’t be back for a while,’ and he begins beating the other servants, partying, and getting drunk? <sup>46</sup>The master will return unannounced and unexpected, and he will cut the servant in pieces and banish him with the unfaithful.

<sup>47</sup>“And a servant who knows what the master wants, but isn’t prepared and doesn’t carry out those instructions, will be severely punished. <sup>48</sup>But someone who does not know, and then does something wrong, will be punished only lightly.

When someone has been given much, much will be required in return; and when someone has been entrusted with much, even more will be required.

Jesus Causes Division

<sup>49</sup>“I have come to set the world on fire, and I wish it were already burning! <sup>50</sup>I have a terrible baptism of suffering ahead of me, and I am under a heavy burden until it is accomplished. <sup>51</sup>Do you think I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I have come to divide people against each other! <sup>52</sup>From now on families will be split apart, three in favor of me, and two against—or two in favor and three against.

<sup>53</sup>“Father will be divided against son and son against father;
mother against daughter
and daughter against mother;
and mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.”*<sup>54</sup>

<sup>54</sup>Then Jesus turned to the crowd and said, “When you see clouds beginning to form in the west, you say, ‘Here comes a shower.’ And you are right. <sup>55</sup>When the south wind blows, you say, ‘Today will be a scorcher.’ And it is. <sup>56</sup>You fools! You know how to interpret the weather signs of the earth and sky, but you don’t know how to interpret the present times.

settle the matter before you get there. Otherwise, your accuser may drag you before the judge, who will hand you over to an officer, who will throw you into prison. <sup>59</sup>And if that happens, you won't be free again until you have paid the very last penny.*”

Luke 13

A Call to Repentance

<sup>1</sup>About this time Jesus was informed that Pilate had murdered some people from Galilee as they were offering sacrifices at the Temple. <sup>2</sup>“Do you think those Galileans were worse sinners than all the other people from Galilee?” Jesus asked. “Is that why they suffered? <sup>3</sup>Not at all! And you will perish, too, unless you repent of your sins and turn to God. <sup>4</sup>And what about the eighteen people who died when the tower in Siloam fell on them? Were they the worst sinners in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup>No, and I tell you again that unless you repent, you will perish, too.”

Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

<sup>6</sup>Then Jesus told this story: “A man planted a fig tree in his garden and came again and again to see if there was any fruit on it, but he was always disappointed. <sup>7</sup>Finally, he said to his gardener, ‘I’ve waited three years, and there hasn’t been a single fig! Cut it down. It’s just taking up space in the garden.’

<sup>8</sup>“The gardener answered, ‘Sir, give it one more chance. Leave it another year, and I’ll give it special attention and plenty of fertilizer. <sup>9</sup>If we get figs next year, fine. If not, then you can cut it down.’”

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

<sup>10</sup> One Sabbath day as Jesus was teaching in a synagogue, <sup>11</sup>he saw a woman who had been crippled by an evil spirit. She had been bent double for eighteen years and was unable to stand up straight. <sup>12</sup>When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, “Dear woman, you are healed of your sickness!” <sup>13</sup>Then he touched her, and instantly she could stand straight. How she praised God!

<sup>14</sup>But the leader in charge of the synagogue was indignant that Jesus had healed her on the Sabbath day. “There are six days of the week for working,” he said to the crowd. “Come on those days to be healed, not on the Sabbath.”

<sup>15</sup>But the Lord replied, “You hypocrites! Each of you works on the Sabbath day! Don’t you untie your ox or your donkey from its stall on the Sabbath and lead it out for water? <sup>16</sup>This dear woman, a daughter of Abraham, has been held in bondage by Satan for eighteen years. Isn’t it right that she be released, even on the Sabbath?”

<sup>17</sup>This shamed his enemies, but all the people rejoiced at the wonderful things he did.

A Woman’s Need or Man’s Laws?

Parable of the Mustard Seed

<sup>18</sup>Then Jesus said, “What is the Kingdom of God like? How can I illustrate it? <sup>19</sup>It is like a tiny mustard seed that a man planted in a garden; it grows and becomes a tree, and the birds make nests in its branches.”

Parable of the Yeast

<sup>20</sup>He also asked, “What else is the Kingdom of God like? <sup>21</sup>It is like the yeast a woman used in making bread. Even though she put only a little yeast in three measures of flour, it permeated every part of the dough.”

The Narrow Door

<sup>22</sup> Jesus went through the towns and villages, teaching as he went, always pressing on toward Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup>Someone asked him, “Lord, will only a few be saved?”

He replied, <sup>24</sup>“Work hard to enter the narrow door to God’s Kingdom, for many will try to enter but will fail. <sup>25</sup>When the master of the house has locked the door, it will be too late. You will stand outside knocking and pleading, ‘Lord, open the door for us!’ But he will reply, ‘I don’t know you or where you come from.’ <sup>26</sup>Then you will say, ‘But we ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.’ <sup>27</sup>And he will reply, ‘I tell you, I don’t know you or where you come from. Get away from me, all you who do evil.’

<sup>28</sup>“There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, for you will see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the Kingdom of God, but you will be thrown out. <sup>29</sup>And people will come from all over the world—from east and west, north and south—to take their places in the Kingdom of God. <sup>30</sup>And note this: Some who seem least important now will be the greatest then, and some who are the greatest now will be least important then.*”

Jesus Grieves over Jerusalem

<sup>31</sup>At that time some Pharisees said to him, “Get away from here if you want to live! Herod Antipas wants to kill you!”

<sup>32</sup>Jesus replied, “Go tell that fox that I will keep on casting out demons and healing people today and tomorrow; and the third day I will accomplish my purpose. <sup>33</sup>Yes, today, tomorrow, and the next day I must proceed on my way. For it wouldn’t do for a prophet of God to be killed except in Jerusalem!

<sup>34</sup>“O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones God’s messengers! How often I have wanted to gather your children together as a hen protects her chicks beneath her wings, but you wouldn’t let me. <sup>35</sup>And now, look, your house is abandoned. And you will never see me again until you say, ‘Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!’*”

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

<sup>1</sup>One Sabbath day Jesus went to eat dinner in the home of a leader of the Pharisees, and the people were watching him closely. <sup>2</sup>There was a man there whose arms and legs were swollen.* <sup>3</sup>Jesus asked the Pharisees and experts in religious law, “Is it permitted in the law to heal people on the Sabbath day, or not?” <sup>4</sup>When they refused to answer, Jesus touched the sick man and healed him and sent him away. <sup>5</sup>Then he turned to them and said, “Which of you doesn’t work on the Sabbath? If your son* or your cow falls into a pit, don’t you rush to get him out?” <sup>6</sup>Again they could not answer.

Jesus Teaches about Humility

<sup>7</sup>When Jesus noticed that all who had come to the dinner were trying to sit in the seats of honor near the head of the table, he gave them this advice: <sup>8</sup>“When you are invited to a wedding feast, don’t sit in the seat of honor. What if someone who is more distinguished than you has also been invited? <sup>9</sup>The host will come and say, ‘Give this person your seat.’ Then you will be embarrassed, and you will have to take whatever seat is left at the foot of the table!

<sup>10</sup>“Instead, take the lowest place at the foot of the table. Then when your host sees you, he will come and say, ‘Friend, we have a better place for you!’ Then you will be honored in front of all the other guests. <sup>11</sup>For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

<sup>12</sup>Then he turned to his host. “When you put on a luncheon or a banquet,” he said, “don’t invite your friends, brothers, relatives, and rich neighbors. For they will invite you back, and that will be your only reward. <sup>13</sup>Instead, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. <sup>14</sup>Then at the resurrection of the righteous, God will reward you for inviting those who could not repay you.”

Parable of the Great Feast

<sup>15</sup>Hearing this, a man sitting at the table with Jesus exclaimed, “What a blessing it will be to attend a banquet* in the Kingdom of God!”

<sup>16</sup>Jesus replied with this story: “A man prepared a great feast and sent out many invitations. <sup>17</sup>When the banquet was ready, he sent his servant to tell the guests, ‘Come, the banquet is ready.’ <sup>18</sup>But they all began making excuses. One said, ‘I have just bought a field and must inspect it. Please excuse me.’ <sup>19</sup>Another said, ‘I have just bought five pairs of oxen, and I want to try them out. Please excuse me.’ <sup>20</sup>Another said, ‘I now have a wife, so I can’t come.’

<sup>21</sup>“The servant returned and told his master what they had said. His master was furious and said, ‘Go quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and invite the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.’ <sup>22</sup>After the servant had done this, he reported, ‘There is still room for more.’ <sup>23</sup>So his master said, ‘Go out into the country lanes and behind the hedges and urge anyone you find to come, so that the house will be full. <sup>24</sup>For none of those I first invited will get even the smallest taste of my banquet.’”

The Cost of Being a Disciple

<sup>25</sup>A large crowd was following Jesus. He turned around and said to them, <sup>26</sup>“If you want to be my disciple, you must hate everyone else by comparison—your father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, even your own life. Otherwise, you cannot be my disciple. <sup>27</sup>And if you do not carry your own cross and follow me, you cannot be my disciple.

soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown away. Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand!”

Luke 15

Parable of the Lost Sheep

<sup>1</sup> Tax collectors and other notorious sinners often came to listen to Jesus teach. <sup>2</sup>This made the Pharisees and teachers of religious law complain that he was associating with such sinful people—even eating with them!

<sup>3</sup> So Jesus told them this story: <sup>4</sup>“If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them gets lost, what will he do? Won’t he leave the ninety-nine others in the wilderness and go to search for the one that is lost until he finds it? <sup>5</sup>And when he has found it, he will joyfully carry it home on his shoulders. <sup>6</sup>When he arrives, he will call together his friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.’ <sup>7</sup>In the same way, there is more joy in heaven over one lost sinner who repents and returns to God than over ninety-nine others who are righteous and haven’t strayed away!

Parable of the Lost Coin

<sup>8</sup>“Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins* and loses one. Won’t she light a lamp and sweep the entire house and search carefully until she finds it? <sup>9</sup>And when she finds it, she will call in her friends and neighbors and say, ‘Rejoice with me because I have found my lost coin.’ <sup>10</sup>In the same way, there is joy in the presence of God’s angels when even one sinner repents.”

Parable of the Lost Son

<sup>11</sup> To illustrate the point further, Jesus told them this story: “A man had two sons. <sup>12</sup>The younger son told his father, ‘I want my share of your estate now before you die.’ So his father agreed to divide his wealth between his sons.

<sup>13</sup>“A few days later this younger son packed all his belongings and moved to a distant land, and there he wasted all his money in wild living. <sup>14</sup>About the time his money ran out, a great famine swept over the land, and he began to starve. <sup>15</sup>He persuaded a local farmer to hire him, and the man sent him into his fields to feed the pigs. <sup>16</sup>The young man became so hungry that even the pods he was feeding the pigs looked good to him. But no one gave him anything.

<sup>17</sup>“When he finally came to his senses, he said to himself, ‘At home even the hired servants have food enough to spare, and here I am dying of hunger! <sup>18</sup>I will go home to my father and say, “Father, I have sinned against both heaven and you, <sup>19</sup>and I am no longer worthy of being called your son. Please take me on as a hired servant.”’

<sup>20</sup>“So he returned home to his father. And while he was still a long way off, his father saw him coming. Filled with love and compassion, he ran to his son, embraced him, and kissed him. <sup>21</sup>His son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against both heaven and you, and I am no longer worthy of being called your son.*’

<sup>22</sup>“But his father said to the servants, ‘Quick! Bring the finest robe in the house and put it on him. Get a ring for his finger and sandals for his feet. <sup>23</sup>And kill the calf we have been fattening.

We must celebrate with a feast, <sup>24</sup>for this son of mine was dead and has now returned to life. He was lost, but now he is found.’ So the party began.

<sup>25</sup>“Meanwhile, the older son was in the fields working. When he returned home, he heard music and dancing in the house, <sup>26</sup>and he asked one of the servants what was going on. <sup>27</sup>‘Your brother is back,’ he was told, ‘and your father has killed the fattened calf. We are celebrating because of his safe return.’

<sup>28</sup>“The older brother was angry and wouldn’t go in. His father came out and begged him, <sup>29</sup>but he replied, ‘All these years I’ve slaved for you and never once refused to do a single thing you told me to. And in all that time you never gave me even one young goat for a feast with my friends. <sup>30</sup>Yet when this son of yours comes back after squandering your money on prostitutes, you celebrate by killing the fattened calf!’

<sup>31</sup>“His father said to him, ‘Look, dear son, you have always stayed by me, and everything I have is yours. <sup>32</sup>We had to celebrate this happy day. For your brother was dead and has come back to life! He was lost, but now he is found!’”

Parable of the Shrewd Manager

<sup>1</sup> Jesus told this story to his disciples: “There was a certain rich man who had a manager handling his affairs. One day a report came that the manager was wasting his employer’s money. <sup>2</sup>So the employer called him in and said, ‘What’s this I hear about you? Get your report in order, because you are going to be fired.’

<sup>3</sup>“The manager thought to himself, ‘Now what? My boss has fired me. I don’t have the strength to dig ditches, and I’m too proud to beg. <sup>4</sup>Ah, I know how to ensure that I’ll have plenty of friends who will give me a home when I am fired.’

<sup>5</sup>“So he invited each person who owed money to his employer to come and discuss the situation. He asked the first one, ‘How much do you owe him?’ <sup>6</sup>The man replied, ‘I owe him 800 gallons of olive oil.’ So the manager told him, ‘Take the bill and quickly change it to 400 gallons.*’

<sup>7</sup>“And how much do you owe my employer?’ he asked the next man. ‘I owe him 1,000 bushels of wheat,’ was the reply. ‘Here,’ the manager said, ‘take the bill and change it to 800 bushels.*’

<sup>8</sup>“The rich man had to admire the dishonest rascal for being so shrewd. And it is true that the children of this world are more shrewd in dealing with the world around them than are the children of the light. <sup>9</sup>Here’s the lesson: Use your worldly resources to benefit others and make friends. Then, when your earthly possessions are gone, they will welcome you to an eternal home.*

<sup>10</sup>“If you are faithful in little things, you will be faithful in large ones. But if you are dishonest in little things, you won’t be honest with greater responsibilities. <sup>11</sup>And if you are untrustworthy about worldly wealth, who will trust you with the true riches of heaven? <sup>12</sup>And if you are not faithful with other people’s things, why should you be trusted with things of your own?

<sup>13</sup>“No one can serve two masters. For you will hate one and love the other; you will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.”

<sup>14</sup>The Pharisees, who dearly loved their money, heard all this and scoffed at him. <sup>15</sup>Then he said to them, “You like to appear righteous in public, but God knows your hearts. What this world honors is detestable in the sight of God.

<sup>16</sup>“Until John the Baptist, the law of Moses and the messages of the prophets were your guides. But now the Good News of the Kingdom of God is preached, and everyone is eager to get in.* <sup>17</sup>But that doesn’t mean that the law has lost its force. It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the smallest point of God’s law to be overturned.

Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said, “There was a certain rich man who was splendidly clothed in purple and fine linen and who lived each day in luxury. <sup>20</sup>At his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus who was covered with sores. <sup>21</sup>As Lazarus lay there longing for scraps from the rich man’s table, the dogs would come and lick his open sores.

<sup>22</sup>“Finally, the poor man died and was carried by the angels to be with Abraham.* The rich man also died and was buried, <sup>23</sup>and his soul went to the place of the dead.* There, in torment, he saw Abraham in the far distance with Lazarus at his side.

<sup>24</sup>“The rich man shouted, ‘Father Abraham, have some pity! Send Lazarus over here to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue. I am in anguish in these flames.’

<sup>27</sup>“Then the rich man said, ‘Please, Father Abraham, at least send him to my father’s home. <sup>28</sup>For I have five brothers, and I want him to warn them so they don’t end up in this place of torment.’

<sup>29</sup>“But Abraham said, ‘Moses and the prophets have warned them. Your brothers can read what they wrote.’

<sup>30</sup>“The rich man replied, ‘No, Father Abraham! But if someone is sent to them from the dead, then they will repent of their sins and turn to God.’

<sup>31</sup>“But Abraham said, ‘If they won’t listen to Moses and the prophets, they won’t listen even if someone rises from the dead.’”

Luke 17

Teachings about Forgiveness and Faith

<sup>1</sup> One day Jesus said to his disciples, “There will always be temptations to sin, but what sorrow awaits the person who does the tempting! <sup>2</sup>It would be better to be thrown into the sea with a millstone hung around your neck than to cause one of these little ones to fall into sin. <sup>3</sup>So watch yourselves!

“If another believer* sins, rebuke that person; then if there is repentance, forgive. <sup>4</sup>Even if that person wrongs you seven times a day and each time turns again and asks forgiveness, you must forgive.”

<sup>6</sup>The Lord answered, “If you had faith even as small as a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘May you be uprooted and thrown into the sea,’ and it would obey you!

<sup>7</sup>“When a servant comes in from plowing or taking care of sheep, does his master say, ‘Come in and eat with me’? <sup>8</sup>No, he says, ‘Prepare my meal, put on your apron, and serve me while I eat. Then you can eat later.’ <sup>9</sup>And does the master thank the servant for doing what he was told to do? Of course not. <sup>10</sup>In the same way, when you obey me you should say, ‘We are unworthy servants who have simply done our duty.’”

Ten Healed of Leprosy

<sup>14</sup>He looked at them and said, “Go show yourselves to the priests.”* And as they went, they were cleansed of their leprosy.

<sup>15</sup>One of them, when he saw that he was healed, came back to Jesus, shouting, “Praise God!” <sup>16</sup>He fell to the ground at Jesus’ feet, thanking him for what he had done. This man was a Samaritan.

<sup>17</sup>Jesus asked, “Didn’t I heal ten men? Where are the other nine?” <sup>18</sup>Has no one returned to give glory to God except this foreigner?” <sup>19</sup>And Jesus said to the man, “Stand up and go. Your faith has healed you.*”

The Coming of the Kingdom

<sup>20</sup>One day the Pharisees asked Jesus, “When will the Kingdom of God come?”

Jesus replied, “The Kingdom of God can’t be detected by visible signs.* <sup>21</sup>You won’t be able to say, ‘Here it is!’ or ‘It’s over there!’ For the Kingdom of God is already among you.*”

<sup>22</sup>Then he said to his disciples, “The time is coming when you will long to see the day when the Son of Man returns,* but you won’t see it. <sup>23</sup>People will tell you, ‘Look, there is the Son of Man,’ or ‘Here he is,’ but don’t go out and follow them. <sup>24</sup>For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other, so it will be on the day when the Son of Man comes. <sup>25</sup>But first the Son of Man must suffer terribly* and be rejected by this generation.

<sup>26</sup>“When the Son of Man returns, it will be like it was in Noah’s day. <sup>27</sup>In those days, the people enjoyed banquets and parties and weddings right up to the time Noah entered his boat and the flood came and destroyed them all.

<sup>28</sup>“And the world will be as it was in the days of Lot. People went about their daily business—eating and drinking, buying and selling, farming and building—<sup>29</sup>until the morning Lot left Sodom. Then fire and burning sulfur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all. <sup>30</sup>Yes, it will be ‘business as usual’ right up to the day when the Son of Man is revealed. <sup>31</sup>On that day a person out on the deck of a roof must not go down into the house to pack. A person out in the field must not return home. <sup>32</sup>Remember what happened to Lot’s wife! <sup>33</sup>If you cling to your life, you will lose it, and if you let your life go, you will save it. <sup>34</sup>That night two people will be asleep in one bed; one will be taken, the other left. <sup>35</sup>Two women will be grinding flour together at the mill; one will be taken, the other left.*”

Jesus replied, “Just as the gathering of vultures shows there is a carcass nearby, so these signs indicate that the end is near.”*

Luke 18

Parable of the Persistent Widow

<sup>1</sup> One day Jesus told his disciples a story to show that they should always pray and never give up. <sup>2</sup>“There was a judge in a certain city,” he said, “who neither feared God nor cared about people. <sup>3</sup>A widow of that city came to him repeatedly, saying, ‘Give me justice in this dispute with my enemy.’ <sup>4</sup>The judge ignored her for a while, but finally he said to himself, ‘I don’t fear God or care about people, <sup>5</sup>but this woman is driving me crazy. I’m going to see that she gets justice, because she is wearing me out with her constant requests!’”

<sup>6</sup>Then the Lord said, “Learn a lesson from this unjust judge. <sup>7</sup>Even he rendered a just decision in the end. So don’t you think God will surely give justice to his chosen people who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off? <sup>8</sup>I tell you, he will grant justice to them quickly! But when the Son of Man* returns, how many will he find on the earth who have faith?”

She Got What She Wanted

Parable of the Pharisee and Tax Collector

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesus told this story to some who had great confidence in their own righteousness and scorned everyone else: <sup>10</sup> “Two men went to the Temple to pray. One was a Pharisee, and the other was a despised tax collector. <sup>11</sup> The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed this prayer*: ‘I thank you, God, that I am not a sinner like everyone else. For I don’t cheat, I don’t sin, and I don’t commit adultery. I’m certainly not like that tax collector! <sup>12</sup> I fast twice a week, and I give you a tenth of my income.’

<sup>13</sup> “But the tax collector stood at a distance and dared not even lift his eyes to heaven as he prayed. Instead, he beat his chest in sorrow, saying, ‘O God, be merciful to me, for I am a sinner.’ <sup>14</sup> I tell you, this sinner, not the Pharisee, returned home justified before God. For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

Jesus Blesses the Children

<sup>15</sup> One day some parents brought their little children to Jesus so he could touch and bless them. But when the disciples saw this, they scolded the parents for bothering him.

<sup>16</sup> Then Jesus called for the children and said to the disciples, “Let the children come to me. Don’t stop them! For the Kingdom of God belongs to those who are like these children. <sup>17</sup> I tell you the truth, anyone who doesn’t receive the Kingdom of God like a child will never enter it.”

The Rich Man

<sup>18</sup> Once a religious leader asked Jesus this question: “Good Teacher, what should I do to inherit eternal life?”

<sup>19</sup>“Why do you call me good?” Jesus asked him. “Only God is truly good. <sup>20</sup>But to answer your question, you know the commandments: ‘You must not commit adultery. You must not murder. You must not steal. You must not testify falsely. Honor your father and mother.’*”

<sup>22</sup>When Jesus heard his answer, he said, “There is still one thing you haven’t done. Sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

<sup>24</sup>When Jesus saw this,* he said, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the Kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup>In fact, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God!”

<sup>29</sup>“Yes,” Jesus replied, “and I assure you that everyone who has given up house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the Kingdom of God, <sup>30</sup>will be repaid many times over in this life, and will have eternal life in the world to come.”

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

<sup>31</sup> Taking the twelve disciples aside, Jesus said, “Listen, we’re going up to Jerusalem, where all the predictions of the prophets concerning the Son of Man will come true. <sup>32</sup>He will be handed over to the Romans,* and he will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit upon. <sup>33</sup>They will flog him with a whip and kill him, but on the third day he will rise again.”

<sup>34</sup>But they didn’t understand any of this. The significance of his words was hidden from them, and they failed to grasp what he was talking about.

Jesus Heals a Blind Beggar

<sup>35</sup>As Jesus approached Jericho, a blind beggar was sitting beside the road. <sup>36</sup>When he heard the noise of a crowd going past, he asked what was happening. <sup>37</sup>They told him that Jesus the Nazarene* was going by. <sup>38</sup>So he began shouting, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

But he only shouted louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>40</sup> When Jesus heard him, he stopped and ordered that the man be brought to him. As the man came near, Jesus asked him, <sup>41</sup>“What do you want me to do for you?”

“Lord,” he said, “I want to see!”

<sup>42</sup>And Jesus said, “All right, receive your sight! Your faith has healed you.” <sup>43</sup>Instantly the man could see, and he followed Jesus, praising God. And all who saw it praised God, too.

Luke 19

Jesus and Zacchaeus

<sup>2</sup>There was a man there named Zacchaeus. He was the chief tax collector in the region, and he had become very rich. <sup>3</sup>He tried to get a look at Jesus, but he was too short to see over the crowd. <sup>4</sup>So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree beside the road, for Jesus was going to pass that way.

<sup>5</sup>When Jesus came by, he looked up at Zacchaeus and called him by name. “Zacchaeus!” he said. “Quick, come down! I must be a guest in your home today.”

<sup>6</sup>Zacchaeus quickly climbed down and took Jesus to his house in great excitement and joy. <sup>7</sup>But the people were displeased. “He has gone to be the guest of a notorious sinner,” they grumbled.

<sup>8</sup>Meanwhile, Zacchaeus stood before the Lord and said, “I will give half my wealth to the poor, Lord, and if I have cheated people on their taxes, I will give them back four times as much!”

<sup>9</sup> Jesus responded, “Salvation has come to this home today, for this man has shown himself to be a true son of Abraham.

Parable of the Ten Servants

<sup>11</sup> The crowd was listening to everything Jesus said. And because he was nearing Jerusalem, he told them a story to correct the impression that the Kingdom of God would begin right away. <sup>12</sup>He said, “A nobleman was called away to a distant empire to be crowned king and then return. <sup>13</sup>Before he left, he called together ten of his servants and divided among them ten pounds of silver,* saying, ‘Invest this for me while I am gone.’ <sup>14</sup>But his people hated him and sent a delegation after him to say, ‘We do not want him to be our king.’

<sup>17</sup>“‘Well done!’ the king exclaimed. ‘You are a good servant. You have been faithful with the little I entrusted to you, so you will be governor of ten cities as your reward.’

<sup>18</sup>“The next servant reported, ‘Master, I invested your money and made five times the original amount.’

<sup>22</sup>“‘You wicked servant!’ the king roared. ‘Your own words condemn you. If you knew that I’m a hard man who takes what isn’t mine and harvests crops I didn’t plant, <sup>23</sup>why didn’t you deposit my money in the bank? At least I could have gotten some interest on it.’

<sup>25</sup>“‘But, master,’ they said, ‘he already has ten pounds!’

<sup>26</sup>“‘Yes,’ the king replied, ‘and to those who use well what they are given, even more will be given. But from those who do nothing, even what little they have will be taken away. <sup>27</sup>And as for these enemies of mine who didn’t want me to be their king—bring them in and execute them right here in front of me.’”

Jesus’ Triumphant Entry

<sup>28</sup>After telling this story, Jesus went on toward Jerusalem, walking ahead of his disciples. <sup>29</sup>As he came to the towns of Bethphage and Bethany on the Mount of Olives, he sent two disciples ahead. <sup>30</sup>“Go into that village over there,” he told them. “As you enter it, you will see a young donkey tied there that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. <sup>31</sup>If anyone asks, ‘Why are you untying that colt?’ just say, ‘The Lord needs it.’”

<sup>32</sup>So they went and found the colt, just as Jesus had said.

<sup>33</sup>And sure enough, as they were untying it, the owners asked them, “Why are you untying that colt?”

<sup>34</sup>And the disciples simply replied, “The Lord needs it.” <sup>35</sup>So they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their garments over it for him to ride on.

the road ahead of him. <sup>37</sup>When he reached the place where the road started down the Mount of Olives, all of his followers began to shout and sing as they walked along, praising God for all the wonderful miracles they had seen.

<sup>38</sup>“Blessings on the King who comes in the name of the LORD! Peace in heaven, and glory in highest heaven!”*
  

<sup>39</sup>But some of the Pharisees among the crowd said, “Teacher, rebuke your followers for saying things like that!”

<sup>40</sup>He replied, “If they kept quiet, the stones along the road would burst into cheers!”

Jesus Weeps over Jerusalem

<sup>41</sup>But as he came closer to Jerusalem and saw the city ahead, he began to weep. <sup>42</sup>“How I wish today that you of all people would understand the way to peace. But now it is too late, and peace is hidden from your eyes. <sup>43</sup>Before long your enemies will build ramparts against your walls and encircle you and close in on you from every side. <sup>44</sup>They will crush you into the ground, and your children with you. Your enemies will not leave a single stone in place, because you did not accept your opportunity for salvation.”

Jesus Clears the Temple

45 Then Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out the people selling animals for sacrifices. <sup>46</sup>He said to them, “The Scriptures declare, ‘My Temple will be a house of prayer,’ but you have turned it into a den of thieves.”*

<sup>47</sup>After that, he taught daily in the Temple, but the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the other leaders of the people began planning how to kill him. <sup>48</sup>But they could think of nothing, because all the people hung on every word he said.

Luke 20

The Authority of Jesus Challenged

<sup>1</sup>One day as Jesus was teaching the people and preaching the Good News in the Temple, the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders came up to him. <sup>2</sup>They demanded, “By what authority are you doing all these things? Who gave you the right?”

<sup>3</sup>“Let me ask you a question first,” he replied. <sup>4</sup>“Did John’s authority to baptize come from heaven, or was it merely human?”

<sup>5</sup>They talked it over among themselves. “If we say it was from heaven, he will ask why we didn’t believe John. <sup>6</sup>But if we say it was merely human, the people will stone us because they are convinced John was a prophet.” <sup>7</sup>So they finally replied that they didn’t know.

<sup>8</sup>And Jesus responded, “Then I won’t tell you by what authority I do these things.”

Parable of the Evil Farmers

<sup>9</sup> Now Jesus turned to the people again and told them this story: “A man planted a vineyard, leased it to tenant farmers, and moved to another country to live for several years. <sup>10</sup>At the time of the grape harvest, he sent one of his servants to collect his share of the crop. But the farmers attacked the servant, beat him up, and sent him back empty-handed. <sup>11</sup>So the owner sent another servant, but they also insulted him, beat him up, and sent him away empty-handed. <sup>12</sup>A third man was sent, and they wounded him and chased him away.

<sup>13</sup>“What will I do?” the owner asked himself. ‘I know! I’ll send my cherished son. Surely they will respect him.’

<sup>14</sup>“But when the tenant farmers saw his son, they said to each other, ‘Here comes the heir to this estate. Let’s kill him and get the estate for ourselves!’ <sup>15</sup>So they dragged him out of the vineyard and murdered him.

“What do you suppose the owner of the vineyard will do to them?” Jesus asked. <sup>16</sup>“I’ll tell you—he will come and kill those farmers and lease the vineyard to others.”

“How terrible that such a thing should ever happen,” his listeners protested.

<sup>17</sup>Jesus looked at them and said, “Then what does this Scripture mean?

‘The stone that the builders rejected has now become the cornerstone.’*

<sup>18</sup>Everyone who stumbles over that stone will be broken to pieces, and it will crush anyone it falls on.”

<sup>19</sup>The teachers of religious law and the leading priests wanted to arrest Jesus immediately because they realized he was telling the story against them—they were the wicked farmers. But they were afraid of the people’s reaction.

Taxes for Caesar

<sup>20</sup>Watching for their opportunity, the leaders sent spies pretending to be honest men. They tried to get Jesus to say something that could be reported to the Roman governor so he would arrest Jesus. <sup>21</sup>“Teacher,” they said, “we know that you speak and teach what is right and are not influenced by what others think. You teach the way of God truthfully. <sup>22</sup>Now tell us—is it right for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

“Caesar’s,” they replied.

<sup>25</sup>“Well then,” he said, “give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God.”

<sup>26</sup>So they failed to trap him by what he said in front of the people. Instead, they were amazed by his answer, and they became silent.

Discussion about Resurrection

<sup>27</sup>Then Jesus was approached by some Sadducees—religious leaders who say there is no resurrection from the dead. <sup>28</sup>They posed this question: “Teacher, Moses gave us a law that if a man dies, leaving a wife but no children, his brother should marry the widow and have a child who will carry on the brother’s name.* <sup>29</sup>Well, suppose there were seven brothers. The oldest one married and then died without children. <sup>30</sup>So the second brother married the widow, but he also died. <sup>31</sup>Then the third brother married her. This continued with all seven of them, who died without children. <sup>32</sup>Finally, the woman also died. <sup>33</sup>So tell us, whose wife will she be in the resurrection?

For all seven were married to her!”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus replied, “Marriage is for people here on earth. <sup>35</sup>But in the age to come, those worthy of being raised from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage. <sup>36</sup>And they will never die again. In this respect they will be like angels. They are children of God and children of the resurrection.

<sup>37</sup>“But now, as to whether the dead will be raised—even Moses proved this when he wrote about the burning bush. Long after Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had died, he referred to the Lord* as ‘the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’* <sup>38</sup>So he is the God of the living, not the dead, for they are all alive to him.”

<sup>39</sup>“Well said, Teacher!” remarked some of the teachers of religious law who were standing there. <sup>40</sup>And then no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Whose Son Is the Messiah?

<sup>41</sup>Then Jesus presented them with a question. “Why is it,” he asked, “that the Messiah is said to be the son of David? <sup>42</sup>For David himself wrote in the book of Psalms:

‘The LORD said to my Lord,
Sit in the place of honor at my right hand
<sup>43</sup>until I humble your enemies, making them a footstool under your feet.’*

<sup>45</sup>Then, with the crowds listening, he turned to his disciples and said, <sup>46</sup>“Beware of these teachers of religious law! For they like to parade around in flowing robes and love to receive respectful greetings as they walk in the marketplaces. And how they love the seats of honor in the synagogues and the head table at banquets. <sup>47</sup>Yet they shamelessly cheat widows out of their property and then pretend to be pious by making long prayers in public. Because of this, they will be severely punished.”

Luke 21

The Widow's Offering

<sup>1</sup> While Jesus was in the Temple, he watched the rich people dropping their gifts in the collection box. <sup>2</sup>Then a poor widow came by and dropped in two small coins.*

<sup>3</sup>“I tell you the truth,” Jesus said, “this poor widow has given more than all the rest of them. <sup>4</sup>For they have given a tiny part of their surplus, but she, poor as she is, has given everything she has.”

Jesus Foretells the Future

<sup>5</sup>Some of his disciples began talking about the majestic stonework of the Temple and the memorial decorations on the walls. But Jesus said, <sup>6</sup>“The time is coming when all these things will be completely demolished. Not one stone will be left on top of another!”

<sup>7</sup>“Teacher,” they asked, “when will all this happen? What sign will show us that these things are about to take place?”

<sup>8</sup>He replied, “Don’t let anyone mislead you, for many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Messiah,’* and saying, ‘The time has come!’ But don’t believe them. <sup>9</sup>And when you hear of wars and insurrections, don’t panic. Yes, these things must take place first, but the end won’t follow immediately.”

<sup>10</sup>Then he added, “Nation will go to war against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. <sup>11</sup>There will be great earthquakes, and there will be famines and plagues in many lands, and there will be terrifying things and great miraculous signs from heaven.

<sup>12</sup>“But before all this occurs, there will be a time of great persecution. You will be dragged into synagogues and prisons, and you will stand trial before kings and governors because you are my followers. <sup>13</sup>But this will be your opportunity to tell them about me.* <sup>14</sup>So don’t worry in advance about how to answer the charges against you, <sup>15</sup>for I will give you the right words and such wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to reply or refute you! <sup>16</sup>Even those closest to you—your parents, brothers, relatives, and friends—will betray you. They will even kill some of you. <sup>17</sup>And everyone will hate you because you are my followers.* <sup>18</sup>But not a hair of your head will perish! <sup>19</sup>By standing firm, you will win your souls.

<sup>20</sup>“And when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then you will know that the time of its destruction has arrived. <sup>21</sup>Then those in Judea must flee to the hills. Those in Jerusalem must get out, and those out in the country should not return to the city. <sup>22</sup>For there will be days of God’s vengeance, and the prophetic words of the Scriptures will be fulfilled. <sup>23</sup>How terrible it will be for pregnant women and for nursing mothers in those days. For there will be disaster in the land and great anger against this people. <sup>24</sup>They will be killed by the sword or sent away as captives to all the nations of the world. And Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles until the period of the Gentiles comes to an end.

<sup>25</sup>“And there will be strange signs in the sun, moon, and stars. And here on earth the nations will be in turmoil, perplexed by the roaring seas and strange tides. <sup>26</sup>People will be terrified at what they see coming upon the earth, for the powers in the heavens will be shaken. <sup>27</sup>Then everyone will see the Son of Man* coming on a cloud with power and great glory.* <sup>28</sup>So when all these things begin to happen, stand and look up, for your salvation is near!”

<sup>29</sup>Then he gave them this illustration: “Notice the fig tree, or any other tree. <sup>30</sup>When the leaves come out, you know without being told that summer is near. <sup>31</sup>In the same way, when you see all these things taking place, you can know that the Kingdom of God is near. <sup>32</sup>I tell you the truth, this generation will not pass from the scene until all these things have taken place. <sup>33</sup>Heaven and earth will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

<sup>37</sup>Every day Jesus went to the Temple to teach, and each evening he returned to spend the night on the Mount of Olives. <sup>38</sup>The crowds gathered at the Temple early each morning to hear him.

Luke 22

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

<sup>1</sup>The Festival of Unleavened Bread, which is also called Passover, was approaching. <sup>2</sup>The leading priests and teachers of religious law were plotting how to kill Jesus, but they were afraid of the people's reaction.

<sup>3</sup>Then Satan entered into Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve disciples, <sup>4</sup>and he went to the leading priests and captains of the Temple guard to discuss the best way to betray Jesus to them. <sup>5</sup>They were delighted, and they promised to give him money. <sup>6</sup>So he agreed and began looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus so they could arrest him when the crowds weren't around.

The Last Supper

<sup>7</sup>Now the Festival of Unleavened Bread arrived, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed. <sup>8</sup>Jesus sent Peter and John ahead and said, "Go and prepare the Passover meal, so we can eat it together."

<sup>9</sup>"Where do you want us to prepare it?" they asked him.

<sup>10</sup>He replied, "As soon as you enter Jerusalem, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him. At the house he enters, <sup>11</sup>say to the owner, 'The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?' <sup>12</sup>He will take you upstairs to a large room that is already set up. That is where you should prepare our meal.”

<sup>13</sup>They went off to the city and found everything just as Jesus had said, and they prepared the Passover meal there.

<sup>14</sup>When the time came, Jesus and the apostles sat down together at the table.* <sup>15</sup>Jesus said, “I have been very eager to eat this Passover meal with you before my suffering begins.

<sup>16</sup>For I tell you now that I won’t eat this meal again until its meaning is fulfilled in the Kingdom of God.”

<sup>17</sup>Then he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to God for it. Then he said, “Take this and share it among yourselves. <sup>18</sup>For I will not drink wine again until the Kingdom of God has come.”

<sup>19</sup>He took some bread and gave thanks to God for it. Then he broke it in pieces and gave it to the disciples, saying, “This is my body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me.”

<sup>20</sup>After supper he took another cup of wine and said, “This cup is the new covenant between God and his people—an agreement confirmed with my blood, which is poured out as a sacrifice for you.*

<sup>21</sup>“But here at this table, sitting among us as a friend, is the man who will betray me. <sup>22</sup>For it has been determined that the Son of Man* must die. But what sorrow awaits the one who betrays him.” <sup>23</sup>The disciples began to ask each other which of them would ever do such a thing.

<sup>24</sup>Then they began to argue among themselves about who would be the greatest among them. <sup>25</sup>Jesus told them, “In this world the kings and great men lord it over their people, yet they are called ‘friends of the people.’ <sup>26</sup>But among you it will be different. Those who are the greatest among you should take the lowest rank, and the leader should be like a servant. <sup>27</sup>Who is more important, the one who sits at the table or the one who serves? The one who sits at the table, of course. But not here! For I am among you as one who serves.

<sup>28</sup>“You have stayed with me in my time of trial. <sup>29</sup>And just as my Father has granted me a Kingdom, I now grant you the right <sup>30</sup>to eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom. And you will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

<sup>31</sup> “Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift each of you like wheat. <sup>32</sup>But I have pleaded in prayer for you, Simon, that your faith should not fail. So when you have repented and turned to me again, strengthen your brothers.”

<sup>33</sup>Peter said, “Lord, I am ready to go to prison with you, and even to die with you.”

<sup>34</sup>But Jesus said, “Peter, let me tell you something. Before the rooster crows tomorrow morning, you will deny three times that you even know me.”

<sup>35</sup>Then Jesus asked them, “When I sent you out to preach the Good News and you did not have money, a traveler's bag, or an extra pair of sandals, did you need anything?”

“No,” they replied.

<sup>36</sup>“But now,” he said, “take your money and a traveler's bag. And if you don't have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one! <sup>37</sup>For the time has come for this prophecy about me to be fulfilled: ‘He was counted among the rebels.’* *Yes, everything written about me by the prophets will come true.”

“That’s enough,” he said.

Jesus Prays on the Mount of Olives

<sup>39</sup> Then, accompanied by the disciples, Jesus left the upstairs room and went as usual to the Mount of Olives. <sup>40</sup>There he told them, “Pray that you will not give in to temptation.”

<sup>45</sup>At last he stood up again and returned to the disciples, only to find them asleep, exhausted from grief. <sup>46</sup>“Why are you sleeping?” he asked them. “Get up and pray, so that you will not give in to temptation.”

Jesus Is Betrayed and Arrested

<sup>47</sup>But even as Jesus said this, a crowd approached, led by Judas, one of the twelve disciples. Judas walked over to Jesus to greet him with a kiss. <sup>48</sup>But Jesus said, “Judas, would you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?”

<sup>49</sup>When the other disciples saw what was about to happen, they exclaimed, “Lord, should we fight? We brought the swords!” <sup>50</sup>And one of them struck at the high priest’s slave,

<sup>51</sup>But Jesus said, “No more of this.” And he touched the man’s ear and healed him.

<sup>52</sup>Then Jesus spoke to the leading priests, the captains of the Temple guard, and the elders who had come for him. “Am I some dangerous revolutionary,” he asked, “that you come with swords and clubs to arrest me? <sup>53</sup>Why didn’t you arrest me in the Temple? I was there every day. But this is your moment, the time when the power of darkness reigns.”

Peter Denies Jesus

<sup>54</sup> So they arrested him and led him to the high priest’s home. And Peter followed at a distance. <sup>55</sup>The guards lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat around it, and Peter joined them there. <sup>56</sup>A servant girl noticed him in the firelight and began staring at him. Finally she said, “This man was one of Jesus’ followers!”

<sup>57</sup>But Peter denied it. “Woman,” he said, “I don’t even know him!”

“No, man, I’m not!” Peter retorted.

<sup>60</sup>But Peter said, “Man, I don’t know what you are talking about.” And immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster crowed.

Suddenly, the Lord's words flashed through Peter's mind: "Before the rooster crows tomorrow morning, you will deny three times that you even know me." <sup>62</sup>And Peter left the courtyard, weeping bitterly.

<sup>63</sup>The guards in charge of Jesus began mocking and beating him. <sup>64</sup>They blindfolded him and said, "Prophecy to us! Who hit you that time?" <sup>65</sup>And they hurled all sorts of terrible insults at him.

Jesus before the Council

<sup>66</sup>At daybreak all the elders of the people assembled, including the leading priests and the teachers of religious law. Jesus was led before this high council, *<sup>67</sup>and they said, "Tell us, are you the Messiah?"

But he replied, "If I tell you, you won't believe me. <sup>68</sup>And if I ask you a question, you won't answer. <sup>69</sup>But from now on the Son of Man will be seated in the place of power at God's right hand. *"

<sup>70</sup>They all shouted, "So, are you claiming to be the Son of God?"

And he replied, "You say that I am."

<sup>71</sup>"Why do we need other witnesses?" they said. "We ourselves heard him say it."

Luke 23

Jesus' Trial before Pilate

<sup>1</sup>Then the entire council took Jesus to Pilate, the Roman governor. <sup>2</sup>They began to state their case: "This man has been leading our people astray by telling them not to pay their taxes to the Roman government and by claiming he is the Messiah, a king."

<sup>3</sup>So Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

Jesus replied, "You have said it."

<sup>4</sup>Pilate turned to the leading priests and to the crowd and said, "I find nothing wrong with this man!"

<sup>5</sup>Then they became insistent. "But he is causing riots by his teaching wherever he goes—all over Judea, from Galilee to Jerusalem!"

<sup>6</sup>"Oh, is he a Galilean?" Pilate asked. <sup>7</sup>When they said that he was, Pilate sent him to Herod Antipas, because Galilee was under Herod's jurisdiction, and Herod happened to be in Jerusalem at the time.

<sup>8</sup>Herod was delighted at the opportunity to see Jesus, because he had heard about him and had been hoping for a long time to see him perform a miracle. <sup>9</sup>He asked Jesus question after question, but Jesus refused to answer. <sup>10</sup>Meanwhile, the leading priests and the teachers of religious law stood there shouting their accusations. <sup>11</sup>Then Herod and his soldiers began mocking and ridiculing Jesus. Finally, they put a royal robe on him and sent him back to Pilate.<sup>12</sup>(Herod and Pilate, who had been enemies before, became friends that day.)

<sup>13</sup> Then Pilate called together the leading priests and other religious leaders, along with the people,<sup>14</sup> and he announced his verdict. “You brought this man to me, accusing him of leading a revolt. I have examined him thoroughly on this point in your presence and find him innocent.<sup>15</sup> Herod came to the same conclusion and sent him back to us. Nothing this man has done calls for the death penalty.<sup>16</sup> So I will have him flogged, and then I will release him.”*

<sup>18</sup> Then a mighty roar rose from the crowd, and with one voice they shouted, “Kill him, and release Barabbas to us!”

<sup>19</sup>(Barabbas was in prison for taking part in an insurrection in Jerusalem against the government, and for murder.)<sup>20</sup> Pilate argued with them, because he wanted to release Jesus.<sup>21</sup> But they kept shouting, “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

<sup>22</sup> For the third time he demanded, “Why? What crime has he committed? I have found no reason to sentence him to death. So I will have him flogged, and then I will release him.”

<sup>23</sup> But the mob shouted louder and louder, demanding that Jesus be crucified, and their voices prevailed.<sup>24</sup> So Pilate sentenced Jesus to die as they demanded.<sup>25</sup> As they had requested, he released Barabbas, the man in prison for insurrection and murder. But he turned Jesus over to them to do as they wished.

The Crucifixion

<sup>26</sup>As they led Jesus away, a man named Simon, who was from Cyrene,* happened to be coming in from the countryside. The soldiers seized him and put the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus. <sup>27</sup>A large crowd trailed behind, including many grief-stricken women. <sup>28</sup>But Jesus turned and said to them, “Daughters of Jerusalem, don’t weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. <sup>29</sup>For the days are coming when they will say, ‘Fortunate indeed are the women who are childless, the wombs that have not borne a child and the breasts that have never nursed.’ <sup>30</sup>People will beg the mountains, ‘Fall on us,’ and plead with the hills, ‘Bury us.’* <sup>31</sup>For if these things are done when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?*

<sup>32</sup>Two others, both criminals, were led out to be executed with him. <sup>33</sup>When they came to a place called The Skull,* they nailed him to the cross. And the criminals were also crucified—one on his right and one on his left.

<sup>35</sup>The crowd watched and the leaders scoffed. “He saved others,” they said, “let him save himself if he is really God’s Messiah, the Chosen One.” <sup>36</sup>The soldiers mocked him, too, by offering him a drink of sour wine. <sup>37</sup>They called out to him, “If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!” <sup>38</sup>A sign was fastened above him with these words: “This is the King of the Jews.”

you're the Messiah, are you? Prove it by saving yourself—and us, too, while you're at it!"

<sup>40</sup> But the other criminal protested, "Don't you fear God even when you have been sentenced to die? <sup>41</sup>We deserve to die for our crimes, but this man hasn't done anything wrong." <sup>42</sup> Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your Kingdom."

<sup>43</sup> And Jesus replied, "I assure you, today you will be with me in paradise."

The Death of Jesus

<sup>44</sup> By this time it was about noon, and darkness fell across the whole land until three o'clock. <sup>45</sup> The light from the sun was gone. And suddenly, the curtain in the sanctuary of the Temple was torn down the middle. <sup>46</sup> Then Jesus shouted, "Father, I entrust my spirit into your hands!" * And with those words he breathed his last.

The Burial of Jesus

<sup>50</sup> Now there was a good and righteous man named Joseph. He was a member of the Jewish high council, <sup>51</sup> but he had not agreed with the decision and actions of the other religious leaders. He was from the town of Arimathea in Judea, and he was waiting for the Kingdom of God to come.<sup>52</sup> He went to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body.<sup>53</sup> Then he took the body down from the cross and wrapped it in a long sheet of linen cloth and laid it in a new tomb that had been carved out of rock.<sup>54</sup> This was done late on Friday afternoon, the day of preparation,* as the Sabbath was about to begin.

<sup>55</sup>As his body was taken away, the women from Galilee followed and saw the tomb where his body was placed.<sup>56</sup> Then they went home and prepared spices and ointments to anoint his body. But by the time they were finished the Sabbath had begun, so they rested as required by the law.

Luke 24

The Resurrection

<sup>1</sup> But very early on Sunday morning* the women went to the tomb, taking the spices they had prepared. <sup>2</sup>They found that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance. <sup>3</sup>So they went in, but they didn't find the body of the Lord Jesus. <sup>4</sup>As they stood there puzzled, two men suddenly appeared to them, clothed in dazzling robes.

<sup>5</sup>The women were terrified and bowed with their faces to the ground. Then the men asked, "Why are you looking among the dead for someone who is alive? <sup>6</sup>He isn't here! He is risen from the dead! Remember what he told you back in Galilee, <sup>7</sup>that the Son of Man* must be betrayed into the hands of sinful men and be crucified, and that he would rise again on the third day."

<sup>8</sup>Then they remembered that he had said this. <sup>9</sup>So they rushed back from the tomb to tell his eleven disciples—and everyone else—what had happened. <sup>10</sup>It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and several other women who told the apostles what had happened. <sup>11</sup>But the story sounded like nonsense to the men, so they didn't believe it. <sup>12</sup>However, Peter jumped up and ran to the tomb to look. Stooping, he peered in and saw the empty linen wrappings; then he went home again, wondering what had happened.

The Walk to Emmaus

<sup>13</sup> That same day two of Jesus' followers were walking to the village of Emmaus, seven miles from Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>As they walked along they were talking about everything that had happened. <sup>15</sup>As they talked and discussed these things, Jesus himself suddenly came and began walking with them. <sup>16</sup>But God kept them from recognizing him.

They stopped short, sadness written across their faces. <sup>18</sup>Then one of them, Cleopas, replied, "You must be the only person in Jerusalem who hasn't heard about all the things that have happened there the last few days."

"The things that happened to Jesus, the man from Nazareth," they said. "He was a prophet who did powerful miracles, and he was a mighty teacher in the eyes of God and all the people. <sup>20</sup>But our leading priests and other religious leaders handed him over to be condemned to death, and they crucified him. <sup>21</sup>We had hoped he was the Messiah who had come to rescue Israel. This all happened three days ago.

<sup>22</sup>"Then some women from our group of his followers were at his tomb early this morning, and they came back with an amazing report. <sup>23</sup>They said his body was missing, and they had seen angels who told them Jesus is alive! <sup>24</sup>Some of our men ran out to see, and sure enough, his body was gone, just as the women had said."

so hard to believe all that the prophets wrote in the Scriptures. <sup>26</sup>Wasn't it clearly predicted that the Messiah would have to suffer all these things before entering his glory?" <sup>27</sup>Then Jesus took them through the writings of Moses and all the prophets, explaining from all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.

<sup>32</sup>They said to each other, "Didn't our hearts burn within us as he talked with us on the road and explained the Scriptures to us?" <sup>33</sup>And within the hour they were on their way back to Jerusalem. There they found the eleven disciples and the others who had gathered with them, <sup>34</sup>who said, "The Lord has really risen! He appeared to Peter. *"

Jesus Appears to the Disciples

<sup>35</sup>Then the two from Emmaus told their story of how Jesus had appeared to them as they were walking along the road, and how they had recognized him as he was breaking the bread. <sup>36</sup>And just as they were telling about it, Jesus himself was suddenly standing there among them. "Peace be with you," he said. <sup>37</sup>But the whole group was startled and frightened, thinking they were seeing a ghost!

filled with doubt? <sup>39</sup>Look at my hands. Look at my feet. You can see that it's really me. Touch me and make sure that I am not a ghost, because ghosts don't have bodies, as you see that I do.” <sup>40</sup>As he spoke, he showed them his hands and his feet.

<sup>41</sup>Still they stood there in disbelief, filled with joy and wonder. Then he asked them, “Do you have anything here to eat?”

<sup>44</sup>Then he said, “When I was with you before, I told you that everything written about me in the law of Moses and the prophets and in the Psalms must be fulfilled.” <sup>45</sup>Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. <sup>46</sup>And he said, “Yes, it was written long ago that the Messiah would suffer and die and rise from the dead on the third day. <sup>47</sup>It was also written that this message would be proclaimed in the authority of his name to all the nations,* beginning in Jerusalem: ‘There is forgiveness of sins for all who repent.’

<sup>49</sup>“And now I will send the Holy Spirit, just as my Father promised. But stay here in the city until the Holy Spirit comes and fills you with power from heaven.”

The Ascension

<sup>50</sup>Then Jesus led them to Bethany, and lifting his hands to heaven, he blessed them. <sup>51</sup>While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up to heaven. <sup>52</sup>So they worshiped him and then returned to Jerusalem filled with great joy. <sup>53</sup>And they spent all of their time in the Temple, praising God.

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

This biography of Jesus is different from the others. Rather than trying to be comprehensive, this Gospel highlights a series of profound vignettes in the life of Christ.

WHO WROTE IT?

The apostle John.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

Tradition says John wrote later than the other three Gospel authors, after A.D. 85. Some recent scholars, however, have proposed a much earlier date, between A.D. 50 and 70.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

At the beginning of the new era that started with Jesus.

THE BREAKDOWN

Chapter 1: The beginning of Jesus' ministry

Chapter 2: Jesus performs his first miracle at a wedding, then clears the Temple

Chapter 3: Jesus meets a Jewish scholar

Chapter 4: Jesus meets an outcast woman

Chapter 5: Jesus meets a lifelong cripple

Chapter 6: Jesus feeds a crowd; walks on water

Chapters 7–10: Jewish leaders harass Jesus

Chapter 11: Jesus raises Lazarus from the grave

Chapters 12–19: Jesus' last week

Chapter 20: Jesus' resurrection

Chapter 21: Jesus' final appearances

KEY CONCEPTS

“The Word” (This term is unique to John in referring to Jesus)

“I am _____” (This phrase appears several times, each pointing to a characteristic of Jesus that shows he is the Son of God)

“The disciple whom Jesus loved” (John's euphemism for himself)

SCORECARD

JESUS: The number one personality in the book

JOHN THE BAPTIST: Desert preacher

THE DISCIPLES: Jesus' closest friends

PONTIUS PILATE: Roman governor of Judea who sentenced Jesus to death

READING TIME

IN HOURS

WORTH MEMORIZING

As in all four Gospels, the options for memorization in John are virtually endless. Here are some of the premium passages (key lines only; see references for full text):

1:1-3

In the beginning the Word already existed. . . .

3:16-17

For God loved the world so much that he gave his one and only Son. . . .

6:35

“I am the bread of life. . . .”

8:12

“I am the light of the world. . . .”

8:31-32

“You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. . . .”

10:11

“I am the good shepherd. . . .”

11:25-26

“I am the resurrection and the life. . . .”

14:6

“I am the way, the truth, and the life. . . .”

15:5

“I am the vine; you are the branches. . . .”

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

UNQUESTIONABLE EVIDENCE.

Men often demand facts, evidence, proof. This book is written specifically for those types of readers. John expects us to read his book as if we were investigators doing research. He systematically presents evidence about who Jesus is. But he wants us to go one step further; he wants us to commit our lives to Jesus. In the final analysis, we can't sit on the fence; we can't keep our options open forever. The decision is ours to make.

Prologue: Christ, the Eternal Word

The Word was with God, and the Word was God.

and nothing was created except through him.

and his life brought light to everyone.

and the darkness can never extinguish it.*

<sup>10</sup>He came into the very world he created, but the world didn't recognize him. <sup>11</sup>He came to his own people, and even they rejected him. <sup>12</sup>But to all who believed him and accepted him, he gave the right to become children of God. <sup>13</sup>They are reborn—not with a physical birth resulting from human passion or plan, but a birth that comes from God.

<sup>14</sup> So the Word became human* and made his home among us. He was full of unfailing love and faithfulness.* And we have seen his glory, the glory of the Father's one and only Son.

<sup>15</sup>John testified about him when he shouted to the crowds, “This is the one I was talking about when I said, ‘Someone is coming after me who is far greater than I am, for he existed long before me.’”

<sup>16</sup>From his abundance we have all received one gracious blessing after another.* <sup>17</sup>For the law was given through Moses, but God’s unfailing love and faithfulness came through Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup>No one has ever seen God. But the unique One, who is himself God,* is near to the Father’s heart. He has revealed God to us.

The Testimony of John the Baptist

<sup>19</sup> This was John’s testimony when the Jewish leaders sent priests and Temple assistants* from Jerusalem to ask John, “Who are you?” <sup>20</sup>He came right out and said, “I am not the Messiah.”

<sup>21</sup> “Well then, who are you?” they asked. “Are you Elijah?”

“No,” he replied.

“Are you the Prophet we are expecting?”*

“No.”

<sup>22</sup>“Then who are you? We need an answer for those who sent us. What do you have to say about yourself?”

<sup>23</sup>John replied in the words of the prophet Isaiah:

“I am a voice shouting in the wilderness, ‘Clear the way for the LORD’s coming!’”*

<sup>24</sup>Then the Pharisees who had been sent <sup>25</sup>asked him, “If you aren't the Messiah or Elijah or the Prophet, what right do you have to baptize?"

Jesus, the Lamb of God

<sup>29</sup>The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!

<sup>30</sup>He is the one I was talking about when I said, 'A man is coming after me who is far greater than I am, for he existed long before me.' <sup>31</sup>I did not recognize him as the Messiah, but I have been baptizing with water so that he might be revealed to Israel."

<sup>32</sup>Then John testified, "I saw the Holy Spirit descending like a dove from heaven and resting upon him. <sup>33</sup>I didn't know he was the one, but when God sent me to baptize with water, he told me, 'The one on whom you see the Spirit descend and rest is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' <sup>34</sup>I saw this happen to Jesus, so I testify that he is the Chosen One of God. *"

The First Disciples

declared, “Look! There is the Lamb of God!” <sup>37</sup>When John’s two disciples heard this, they followed Jesus.

<sup>38</sup>Jesus looked around and saw them following. “What do you want?” he asked them.

They replied, “Rabbi” (which means “Teacher”), “where are you staying?”

<sup>39</sup>“Come and see,” he said. It was about four o’clock in the afternoon when they went with him to the place where he was staying, and they remained with him the rest of the day.

<sup>42</sup>Then Andrew brought Simon to meet Jesus. Looking intently at Simon, Jesus said, “Your name is Simon, son of John—but you will be called Cephas” (which means “Peter”*).

<sup>43</sup>The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, “Come, follow me.” <sup>44</sup>Philip was from Bethsaida, Andrew and Peter’s hometown.

<sup>45</sup>Philip went to look for Nathanael and told him, “We have found the very person Moses* and the prophets wrote about! His name is Jesus, the son of Joseph from Nazareth.”

“Come and see for yourself,” Philip replied.

<sup>48</sup>“How do you know about me?” Nathanael asked.

Jesus replied, “I could see you under the fig tree before Philip found you.”

<sup>49</sup>Then Nathanael exclaimed, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God—the King of Israel!”

<sup>50</sup>Jesus asked him, “Do you believe this just because I told you I had seen you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than this.” <sup>51</sup>Then he said, “I tell you the truth, you will all see heaven open and the angels of God going up and down on the Son of Man, the one who is the stairway between heaven and earth.*”

John 2

The Wedding at Cana

<sup>1</sup> The next day* there was a wedding celebration in the village of Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, <sup>2</sup>and Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the celebration. <sup>3</sup>The wine supply ran out during the festivities, so Jesus' mother told him, "They have no more wine."

<sup>4</sup>"Dear woman, that's not our problem," Jesus replied. "My time has not yet come."

<sup>7</sup>Jesus told the servants, "Fill the jars with water." When the jars had been filled, <sup>8</sup>he said, "Now dip some out, and take it to the master of ceremonies." So the servants followed his instructions.

<sup>9</sup>When the master of ceremonies tasted the water that was now wine, not knowing where it had come from (though, of course, the servants knew), he called the bridegroom over. <sup>10</sup>"A host always serves the best wine first," he said. "Then, when everyone has had a lot to drink, he brings out the less expensive wine. But you have kept the best until now!"

Jesus Clears the Temple

<sup>13</sup> It was nearly time for the Jewish Passover celebration, so Jesus went to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>In the Temple area he saw merchants selling cattle, sheep, and doves for sacrifices; he also saw dealers at tables exchanging foreign money. <sup>15</sup>Jesus made a whip from some ropes and chased them all out of the Temple. He drove out the sheep and cattle, scattered the money changers' coins over the floor, and turned over their tables. <sup>16</sup>Then, going over to the people who sold doves, he told them, "Get these things out of here. Stop turning my Father's house into a marketplace!"

<sup>18</sup>But the Jewish leaders demanded, "What are you doing? If God gave you authority to do this, show us a miraculous sign to prove it."

<sup>20</sup>"What!" they exclaimed. "It has taken forty-six years to build this Temple, and you can rebuild it in three days?" <sup>21</sup>But when Jesus said "this temple," he meant his own body. <sup>22</sup>After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered he had said this, and they believed both the Scriptures and what Jesus had said.

Jesus and Nicodemus

<sup>23</sup>Because of the miraculous signs Jesus did in Jerusalem at the Passover celebration, many began to trust in him. <sup>24</sup>But Jesus didn't trust them, because he knew human nature. <sup>25</sup>No one needed to tell him what mankind is really like.

Nicodemus

John 3

<sup>1</sup> There was a man named Nicodemus, a Jewish religious leader who was a Pharisee. <sup>2</sup>After dark one evening, he came to speak with Jesus. “Rabbi,” he said, “we all know that God has sent you to teach us. Your miraculous signs are evidence that God is with you.”

<sup>5</sup>Jesus replied, “I assure you, no one can enter the Kingdom of God without being born of water and the Spirit.* <sup>6</sup>Humans can reproduce only human life, but the Holy Spirit gives birth to spiritual life.* <sup>7</sup>So don’t be surprised when I say, ‘You* must be born again.’ <sup>8</sup>The wind blows wherever it wants. Just as you can hear the wind but can’t tell where it comes from or where it is going, so you can’t explain how people are born of the

<sup>10</sup>Jesus replied, “You are a respected Jewish teacher, and yet you don’t understand these things? <sup>11</sup>I assure you, we tell you what we know and have seen, and yet you won’t believe our testimony. <sup>12</sup>But if you don’t believe me when I tell you about earthly things, how can you possibly believe if I tell you about heavenly things? <sup>13</sup>No one has ever gone to heaven and returned. But the Son of Man* has come down from heaven. <sup>14</sup>And as Moses lifted up the bronze snake on a pole in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, <sup>15</sup>so that everyone who believes in him will have eternal life.*

<sup>16</sup>“For God loved the world so much that he gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life. <sup>17</sup>God sent his Son into the world not to judge the world, but to save the world through him.

<sup>18</sup>“There is no judgment against anyone who believes in him. But anyone who does not believe in him has already been judged for not believing in God’s one and only Son. <sup>19</sup>And the judgment is based on this fact: God’s light came into the world, but people loved the darkness more than the light, for their actions were evil. <sup>20</sup>All who do evil hate the light and refuse to go near it for fear their sins will be exposed. <sup>21</sup>But those who do what is right come to the light so others can see that they are doing what God wants.*”

John the Baptist Exalts Jesus

Judean countryside. Jesus spent some time with them there, baptizing people.

<sup>31</sup>"He has come from above and is greater than anyone else. We are of the earth, and we speak of earthly things, but he has come from heaven and is greater than anyone else.* <sup>32</sup>He testifies about what he has seen and heard, but how few believe what he tells them! <sup>33</sup>Anyone who accepts his testimony can affirm that God is true. <sup>34</sup>For he is sent by God. He speaks God's words, for God gives him the Spirit without limit. <sup>35</sup>The Father loves his Son and has put everything into his hands. <sup>36</sup>And anyone who believes in God's Son has eternal life. Anyone who doesn't obey the Son will never experience eternal life but remains under God's angry judgment."

John 4

Jesus and the Samaritan Woman

<sup>4</sup> He had to go through Samaria on the way. <sup>5</sup>Eventually he came to the Samaritan village of Sychar, near the field that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. <sup>6</sup>Jacob's well was there; and Jesus, tired from the long walk, sat wearily beside the well about noontime. <sup>7</sup>Soon a Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Please give me a drink." <sup>8</sup>He was alone at the time because his disciples had gone into the village to buy some food.

<sup>9</sup>The woman was surprised, for Jews refuse to have anything to do with Samaritans.* She said to Jesus, "You are a Jew, and I am a Samaritan woman. Why are you asking me for a drink?"

<sup>10</sup>Jesus replied, "If you only knew the gift God has for you and who you are speaking to, you would ask me, and I would give you living water."

<sup>11</sup>"But sir, you don't have a rope or a bucket," she said, "and this well is very deep. Where would you get this living water?"

<sup>13</sup>Jesus replied, “Anyone who drinks this water will soon become thirsty again. <sup>14</sup>But those who drink the water I give will never be thirsty again. It becomes a fresh, bubbling spring within them, giving them eternal life.”

<sup>15</sup>“Please, sir,” the woman said, “give me this water! Then I’ll never be thirsty again, and I won’t have to come here to get water.”

Jesus said, “You’re right! You don’t have a husband—<sup>18</sup>for you have had five husbands, and you aren’t even married to the man you’re living with now. You certainly spoke the truth!”

<sup>19</sup>“Sir,” the woman said, “you must be a prophet. <sup>20</sup>So tell me, why is it that you Jews insist that Jerusalem is the only place of worship, while we Samaritans claim it is here at Mount Gerizim,* where our ancestors worshiped?”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus replied, “Believe me, dear woman, the time is coming when it will no longer matter whether you worship the Father on this mountain or in Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup>You Samaritans know very little about the one you worship, while we Jews know all about him, for salvation comes through the Jews. <sup>23</sup>But the time is coming—indeed it’s here now—when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth. The Father is looking for those who will worship him that way. <sup>24</sup>For God is Spirit, so those who worship him must worship in spirit and in truth.”

<sup>25</sup>The woman said, “I know the Messiah is coming—the one who is called Christ. When he comes, he will explain everything to us.”

<sup>26</sup>Then Jesus told her, “I Am the Messiah!”*          

<sup>27</sup>Just then his disciples came back. They were shocked to find him talking to a woman, but none of them had the nerve to ask, “What do you want with her?” or “Why are you talking to her?” <sup>28</sup>The woman left her water jar beside the well and ran back to the village, telling everyone, <sup>29</sup>“Come and see a man who told me everything I ever did! Could he possibly be the Messiah?” <sup>30</sup>So the people came streaming from the village to see him.

<sup>34</sup>Then Jesus explained: “My nourishment comes from doing the will of God, who sent me, and from finishing his work. <sup>35</sup>You know the saying, ‘Four months between planting and harvest.’ But I say, wake up and look around. The fields are already ripe* for harvest. <sup>36</sup>The harvesters are paid good wages, and the fruit they harvest is people brought to eternal life. What joy awaits both the planter and the harvester alike! <sup>37</sup>You know the saying, ‘One plants and another harvests.’ And it’s true. <sup>38</sup>I sent you to harvest where you didn’t plant; others had already done the work, and now you will get to gather the harvest.”

A Bottomless Well

Many Samaritans Believe

<sup>39</sup> Many Samaritans from the village believed in Jesus because the woman had said, “He told me everything I ever did!”<sup>40</sup> When they came out to see him, they begged him to stay in their village. So he stayed for two days,<sup>41</sup> long enough for many more to hear his message and believe.<sup>42</sup> Then they said to the woman, “Now we believe, not just because of what you told us, but because we have heard him ourselves. Now we know that he is indeed the Savior of the world.”

Jesus Heals an Official's Son

<sup>43</sup> At the end of the two days, Jesus went on to Galilee.<sup>44</sup> He himself had said that a prophet is not honored in his own hometown.<sup>45</sup> Yet the Galileans welcomed him, for they had been in Jerusalem at the Passover celebration and had seen everything he did there.

<sup>46</sup> As he traveled through Galilee, he came to Cana, where he had turned the water into wine. There was a government official in nearby Capernaum whose son was very sick.<sup>47</sup> When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went and begged Jesus to come to Capernaum to heal his son, who was about to die.

And the man believed what Jesus said and started home.

<sup>51</sup>While the man was on his way, some of his servants met him with the news that his son was alive and well. <sup>52</sup>He asked them when the boy had begun to get better, and they replied, “Yesterday afternoon at one o’clock his fever suddenly disappeared!” <sup>53</sup>Then the father realized that that was the very time Jesus had told him, “Your son will live.” And he and his entire household believed in Jesus. <sup>54</sup>This was the second miraculous sign Jesus did in Galilee after coming from Judea.

Jesus Heals a Lame Man

<sup>7</sup>“I can’t, sir,” the sick man said, “for I have no one to put me into the pool when the water bubbles up. Someone else always gets there ahead of me.”

<sup>9</sup>Instantly, the man was healed! He rolled up his sleeping mat and began walking! But this miracle happened on the Sabbath, <sup>10</sup>so the Jewish leaders objected. They said to the man who was cured, “You can’t work on the Sabbath! The law doesn’t allow you to carry that sleeping mat!”

<sup>12</sup>“Who said such a thing as that?” they demanded.

<sup>13</sup>The man didn’t know, for Jesus had disappeared into the crowd. <sup>14</sup>But afterward Jesus found him in the Temple and told him, “Now you are well; so stop sinning, or something even worse may happen to you.” <sup>15</sup>Then the man went and told the Jewish leaders that it was Jesus who had healed him.

Jesus Claims to Be the Son of God

<sup>16</sup>So the Jewish leaders began harassing* Jesus for breaking the Sabbath rules. <sup>17</sup>But Jesus replied, “My Father is always working, and so am I.” <sup>18</sup>So the Jewish leaders tried all the harder to find a way to kill him. For he not only broke the Sabbath, he called God his Father, thereby making himself equal with God.

<sup>19</sup>So Jesus explained, “I tell you the truth, the Son can do nothing by himself. He does only what he sees the Father doing. Whatever the Father does, the Son also does. <sup>20</sup>For the Father loves the Son and shows him everything he is doing. In fact, the Father will show him how to do even greater works than healing this man. Then you will truly be astonished. <sup>21</sup>For just as the Father gives life to those he raises from the dead, so the Son gives life to anyone he wants. <sup>22</sup>In addition, the Father judges no one. Instead, he has given the Son absolute authority to judge, <sup>23</sup>so that everyone will honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Anyone who does not honor the Son is certainly not honoring the Father who sent him.

<sup>24</sup>“I tell you the truth, those who listen to my message and believe in God who sent me have eternal life. They will never be condemned for their sins, but they have already passed from death into life.

<sup>25</sup>“And I assure you that the time is coming, indeed it’s here now, when the dead will hear my voice—the voice of the Son of God. And those who listen will live. <sup>26</sup>The Father has life in himself, and he has granted that same life-giving power to his Son. <sup>27</sup>And he has given him authority to judge everyone because he is the Son of Man.* <sup>28</sup>Don't be so surprised! Indeed, the time is coming when all the dead in their graves will hear the voice of God's Son, <sup>29</sup>and they will rise again. Those who have done good will rise to experience eternal life, and those who have continued in evil will rise to experience judgment. <sup>30</sup>I can do nothing on my own. I judge as God tells me. Therefore, my judgment is just, because I carry out the will of the one who sent me, not my own will.

Witnesses to Jesus

<sup>31</sup>“If I were to testify on my own behalf, my testimony would not be valid. <sup>32</sup>But someone else is also testifying about me, and I assure you that everything he says about me is true. <sup>33</sup>In fact, you sent investigators to listen to John the Baptist, and his testimony about me was true. <sup>34</sup>Of course, I have no need of human witnesses, but I say these things so you might be saved. <sup>35</sup>John was like a burning and shining lamp, and you were excited for a while about his message. <sup>36</sup>But I have a greater witness than John—my teachings and my miracles. The Father gave me these works to accomplish, and they prove that he sent me. <sup>37</sup>And the Father who sent me has testified about me himself. You have never heard his voice or seen him face to face, <sup>38</sup>and you do not have his message in your hearts, because you do not believe me—the one he sent to you.

<sup>39</sup>“You search the Scriptures because you think they give you eternal life. But the Scriptures point to me! <sup>40</sup>Yet you refuse to come to me to receive this life.

41 “Your approval means nothing to me, <sup>42</sup>because I know you don’t have God’s love within you. <sup>43</sup>For I have come to you in my Father’s name, and you have rejected me. Yet if others come in their own name, you gladly welcome them. <sup>44</sup>No wonder you can’t believe! For you gladly honor each other, but you don’t care about the honor that comes from the one who alone is God.\*

<sup>45</sup>“Yet it isn’t I who will accuse you before the Father. Moses will accuse you! Yes, Moses, in whom you put your hopes. <sup>46</sup>If you really believed Moses, you would believe me, because he wrote about me. <sup>47</sup>But since you don’t believe what he wrote, how will you believe what I say?”

John 6

Jesus Feeds Five Thousand

<sup>7</sup>Philip replied, “Even if we worked for months, we wouldn’t have enough money* to feed them!”

<sup>10</sup>“Tell everyone to sit down,” Jesus said. So they all sat down on the grassy slopes. (The men alone numbered about 5,000.) <sup>11</sup>Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks to God, and distributed them to the people. Afterward he did the same with the fish. And they all ate as much as they wanted. <sup>12</sup>After everyone was full, Jesus told his disciples, “Now gather the leftovers, so that nothing is wasted.” <sup>13</sup>So they picked up the pieces and filled twelve baskets with scraps left by the people who had eaten from the five barley loaves.

<sup>14</sup>When the people saw him* do this miraculous sign, they exclaimed, “Surely, he is the Prophet we have been expecting!”* <sup>15</sup>When Jesus saw that they were ready to force him to be their king, he slipped away into the hills by himself.

Jesus Walks on Water

<sup>16</sup>That evening Jesus’ disciples went down to the shore to wait for him. <sup>17</sup>But as darkness fell and Jesus still hadn’t come back, they got into the boat and headed across the lake toward Capernaum. <sup>18</sup>Soon a gale swept down upon them, and the sea grew very rough. <sup>19</sup>They had rowed three or four miles* when suddenly they saw Jesus walking on the water toward the boat. They were terrified,<sup>20</sup>but he called out to them, “Don’t be afraid. I am here!*” <sup>21</sup>Then they were eager to let him in the boat, and immediately they arrived at their destination!

Jesus, the Bread of Life

<sup>22</sup>The next day the crowd that had stayed on the far shore saw that the disciples had taken the only boat, and they realized Jesus had not gone with them. <sup>23</sup>Several boats from Tiberias landed near the place where the Lord had blessed the bread and the people had eaten. <sup>24</sup>So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into the boats and went across to Capernaum to look for him. <sup>25</sup>They found him on the other side of the lake and asked, “Rabbi, when did you get here?”

<sup>26</sup>Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, you want to be with me because I fed you, not because you understood the miraculous signs.<sup>27</sup> But don't be so concerned about perishable things like food. Spend your energy seeking the eternal life that the Son of Man* can give you. For God the Father has given me the seal of his approval."

<sup>32</sup> Jesus said, "I tell you the truth, Moses didn't give you bread from heaven. My Father did. And now he offers you the true bread from heaven. <sup>33</sup> The true bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

<sup>35</sup> Jesus replied, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry again. Whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. <sup>36</sup> But you haven't believed in me even though you have seen me. <sup>37</sup> However, those the Father has given me will come to me, and I will never reject them. <sup>38</sup> For I have come down from heaven to do the will of God who sent me, not to do my own will. <sup>39</sup> And this is the will of God, that I should not lose even one of all those he has given me, but that I should raise them up at the last day. <sup>40</sup> For it is my Father's will that all who see his Son and believe in him should have eternal life. I will raise them up at the last day.”

<sup>41</sup>Then the people* began to murmur in disagreement because he had said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven.” <sup>42</sup>They said, “Isn’t this Jesus, the son of Joseph? We know his father and mother. How can he say, ‘I came down from heaven’?”

<sup>43</sup>But Jesus replied, “Stop complaining about what I said. <sup>44</sup>For no one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws them to me, and at the last day I will raise them up. <sup>45</sup>As it is written in the Scriptures,* ‘They will all be taught by God.’ Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me. <sup>46</sup>(Not that anyone has ever seen the Father; only I, who was sent from God, have seen him.)

<sup>52</sup>Then the people began arguing with each other about what he meant. “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?” they asked.

<sup>53</sup>So Jesus said again, “I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you cannot have eternal life within you. <sup>54</sup>But anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise that person at the last day. <sup>55</sup>For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. <sup>56</sup>Anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. <sup>57</sup>I live because of the living Father who sent me; in the same way, anyone who feeds on me will live because of me. <sup>58</sup>I am the true bread that came down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will not die as your ancestors did (even though they ate the manna) but will live forever.”

<sup>59</sup>He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

Many Disciples Desert Jesus

<sup>61</sup>Jesus was aware that his disciples were complaining, so he said to them, “Does this offend you? <sup>62</sup>Then what will you think if you see the Son of Man ascend to heaven again? <sup>63</sup>The Spirit alone gives eternal life. Human effort accomplishes nothing. And the very words I have spoken to you are spirit and life. <sup>64</sup>But some of you do not believe me.” (For Jesus knew from the beginning which ones didn’t believe, and he knew who would betray him.) <sup>65</sup>Then he said, “That is why I said that people can’t come to me unless the Father gives them to me.”

<sup>68</sup>Simon Peter replied, “Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words that give eternal life. <sup>69</sup>We believe, and we know you are the Holy One of God.*”

<sup>70</sup>Then Jesus said, “I chose the twelve of you, but one is a devil.” <sup>71</sup>He was speaking of Judas, son of Simon Iscariot, one of the Twelve, who would later betray him.

John 7

Jesus and His Brothers

<sup>1</sup>After this, Jesus traveled around Galilee. He wanted to stay out of Judea, where the Jewish leaders were plotting his death. <sup>2</sup>But soon it was time for the Jewish Festival of Shelters, <sup>3</sup>and Jesus' brothers said to him, "Leave here and go to Judea, where your followers can see your miracles! <sup>4</sup>You can't become famous if you hide like this! If you can do such wonderful things, show yourself to the world!" <sup>5</sup>For even his brothers didn't believe in him.

<sup>6</sup>Jesus replied, "Now is not the right time for me to go, but you can go anytime. <sup>7</sup>The world can't hate you, but it does hate me because I accuse it of doing evil. <sup>8</sup>You go on. I'm not going* to this festival, because my time has not yet come." <sup>9</sup>After saying these things, Jesus remained in Galilee.

Jesus Teaches Openly at the Temple

<sup>10</sup>But after his brothers left for the festival, Jesus also went, though secretly, staying out of public view. <sup>11</sup>The Jewish leaders tried to find him at the festival and kept asking if anyone had seen him. <sup>12</sup>There was a lot of grumbling about him among the crowds. Some argued, "He's a good man," but others said, "He's nothing but a fraud who deceives the people." <sup>13</sup>But no one had the courage to speak favorably about him in public, for they were afraid of getting in trouble with the Jewish leaders.

<sup>14</sup>Then, midway through the festival, Jesus went up to the Temple and began to teach. <sup>15</sup>The people* were surprised when they heard him. “How does he know so much when he hasn’t been trained?” they asked.

<sup>16</sup>So Jesus told them, “My message is not my own; it comes from God who sent me. <sup>17</sup>Anyone who wants to do the will of God will know whether my teaching is from God or is merely my own. <sup>18</sup>Those who speak for themselves want glory only for themselves, but a person who seeks to honor the one who sent him speaks truth, not lies. <sup>19</sup>Moses gave you the law, but none of you obeys it! In fact, you are trying to kill me.”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus replied, “I did one miracle on the Sabbath, and you were amazed. <sup>22</sup>But you work on the Sabbath, too, when you obey Moses’ law of circumcision. (Actually, this tradition of circumcision began with the patriarchs, long before the law of Moses.) <sup>23</sup>For if the correct time for circumcising your son falls on the Sabbath, you go ahead and do it so as not to break the law of Moses. So why should you be angry with me for healing a man on the Sabbath? <sup>24</sup>Look beneath the surface so you can judge correctly.”

Is Jesus the Messiah?

<sup>25</sup>Some of the people who lived in Jerusalem started to ask each other, “Isn’t this the man they are trying to kill? <sup>26</sup>But here he is, speaking in public, and they say nothing to him. Could our leaders possibly believe that he is the Messiah? <sup>27</sup>But how could he be? For we know where this man comes from. When the Messiah comes, he will simply appear; no one will know where he comes from.”

<sup>28</sup>While Jesus was teaching in the Temple, he called out, “Yes, you know me, and you know where I come from. But I’m not here on my own. The one who sent me is true, and you don’t know him. <sup>29</sup>But I know him because I come from him, and he sent me to you.” <sup>30</sup>Then the leaders tried to arrest him; but no one laid a hand on him, because his time* had not yet come.

<sup>31</sup>Many among the crowds at the Temple believed in him. “After all,” they said, “would you expect the Messiah to do more miraculous signs than this man has done?”

<sup>32</sup>When the Pharisees heard that the crowds were whispering such things, they and the leading priests sent Temple guards to arrest Jesus. <sup>33</sup>But Jesus told them, “I will be with you only a little longer. Then I will return to the one who sent me. <sup>34</sup>You will search for me but not find me. And you cannot go where I am going.”

<sup>35</sup>The Jewish leaders were puzzled by this statement. “Where is he planning to go?” they asked. “Is he thinking of leaving the country and going to the Jews in other lands?*” Maybe he will even teach the Greeks! <sup>36</sup>What does he mean when he says, ‘You will search for me but not find me,’ and ‘You cannot go where I am going’?”

Jesus Promises Living Water

<sup>37</sup> On the last day, the climax of the festival, Jesus stood and shouted to the crowds, “Anyone who is thirsty may come to me! <sup>38</sup>Anyone who believes in me may come and drink! For the Scriptures declare, ‘Rivers of living water will flow from his heart.’”* <sup>39</sup>(When he said “living water,” he was speaking of the Spirit, who would be given to everyone believing in him. But the Spirit had not yet been given,* because Jesus had not yet entered into his glory.)

Division and Unbelief

<sup>40</sup>When the crowds heard him say this, some of them declared, “Surely this man is the Prophet we’ve been expecting.”* <sup>41</sup>Others said, “He is the Messiah.” Still others said, “But he can’t be! Will the Messiah come from Galilee?” <sup>42</sup>For the Scriptures clearly state that the Messiah will be born of the royal line of David, in Bethlehem, the village where King David was born.”* <sup>43</sup>So the crowd was divided about him. <sup>44</sup>Some even wanted him arrested, but no one laid a hand on him.

<sup>45</sup>When the Temple guards returned without having arrested Jesus, the leading priests and Pharisees demanded, “Why didn’t you bring him in?”

hearing?” he asked.

<sup>52</sup>They replied, “Are you from Galilee, too? Search the Scriptures and see for yourself—no prophet ever comes * from Galilee!”

[The most ancient Greek manuscripts do not include John 7:53–8:11.]

<sup>53</sup>Then the meeting broke up, and everybody went home.

John 8

A Woman Caught in Adultery

<sup>1</sup> Jesus returned to the Mount of Olives, <sup>2</sup>but early the next morning he was back again at the Temple. A crowd soon gathered, and he sat down and taught them. <sup>3</sup>As he was speaking, the teachers of religious law and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in the act of adultery. They put her in front of the crowd.

<sup>4</sup>“Teacher,” they said to Jesus, “this woman was caught in the act of adultery. <sup>5</sup>The law of Moses says to stone her. What do you say?”

<sup>6</sup>They were trying to trap him into saying something they could use against him, but Jesus stooped down and wrote in the dust with his finger. <sup>7</sup>They kept demanding an answer, so he stood up again and said, “All right, but let the one who has never sinned throw the first stone!” <sup>8</sup>Then he stooped down again and wrote in the dust.

<sup>9</sup>When the accusers heard this, they slipped away one by one, beginning with the oldest, until only Jesus was left in the middle of the crowd with the woman. <sup>10</sup>Then Jesus stood up again and said to the woman, “Where are your accusers? Didn’t even one of them condemn you?”

And Jesus said, “Neither do I. Go and sin no more.”

Jesus, the Light of the World

<sup>12</sup> Jesus spoke to the people once more and said, “I am the light of the world. If you follow me, you won’t have to walk in darkness, because you will have the light that leads to life.”

<sup>14</sup> Jesus told them, “These claims are valid even though I make them about myself. For I know where I came from and where I am going, but you don’t know this about me. <sup>15</sup> You judge me by human standards, but I do not judge anyone.

<sup>16</sup> And if I did, my judgment would be correct in every respect because I am not alone. The Father* who sent me is with me.

<sup>17</sup> Your own law says that if two people agree about something, their witness is accepted as fact.* <sup>18</sup> I am one witness, and my Father who sent me is the other.”

<sup>19</sup> “Where is your father?” they asked.

Jesus answered, “Since you don’t know who I am, you don’t know who my Father is. If you knew me, you would also know my Father.” <sup>20</sup> Jesus made these statements while he was teaching in the section of the Temple known as the Treasury. But he was not arrested, because his time* had not yet come.

The Unbelieving People Warned

<sup>21</sup>Later Jesus said to them again, “I am going away. You will search for me but will die in your sin. You cannot come where I am going.”

<sup>22</sup>The people* asked, “Is he planning to commit suicide? What does he mean, ‘You cannot come where I am going’?”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus continued, “You are from below; I am from above. You belong to this world; I do not. <sup>24</sup>That is why I said that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I AM who I claim to be,* you will die in your sins.”

Jesus replied, “The one I have always claimed to be.* <sup>26</sup>I have much to say about you and much to condemn, but I won’t. For I say only what I have heard from the one who sent me, and he is completely truthful.” <sup>27</sup>But they still didn’t understand that he was talking about his Father.

<sup>28</sup>So Jesus said, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man on the cross, then you will understand that I AM he.* I do nothing on my own but say only what the Father taught me. <sup>29</sup>And the one who sent me is with me—he has not deserted me. For I always do what pleases him.” <sup>30</sup>Then many who heard him say these things believed in him.

Jesus and Abraham

<sup>31</sup>Jesus said to the people who believed in him, “You are truly my disciples if you remain faithful to my teachings. <sup>32</sup>And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

<sup>33</sup>“But we are descendants of Abraham,” they said. “We have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean, ‘You will be set free?’”

“No,” Jesus replied, “for if you were really the children of Abraham, you would follow his example.* <sup>40</sup>Instead, you are trying to kill me because I told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abraham never did such a thing. <sup>41</sup>No, you are imitating your real father.”

They replied, “We aren’t illegitimate children! God himself is our true Father.”

<sup>42</sup>Jesus told them, “If God were your Father, you would love me, because I have come to you from God. I am not here on my own, but he sent me. <sup>43</sup>Why can’t you understand what I am saying? It’s because you can’t even hear me! <sup>44</sup>For you are the children of your father the devil, and you love to do the evil things he does. He was a murderer from the beginning. He has always hated the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, it is consistent with his character; for he is a liar and the father of lies. <sup>45</sup>So when I tell the truth, you just naturally don’t believe me! <sup>46</sup>Which of you can truthfully accuse me of sin?

And since I am telling you the truth, why don't you believe me? <sup>47</sup>Anyone who belongs to God listens gladly to the words of God. But you don't listen because you don't belong to God."

<sup>48</sup>The people retorted, "You Samaritan devil! Didn't we say all along that you were possessed by a demon?"

<sup>49</sup>"No," Jesus said, "I have no demon in me. For I honor my Father—and you dishonor me. <sup>50</sup>And though I have no wish to glorify myself, God is going to glorify me. He is the true judge. <sup>51</sup>I tell you the truth, anyone who obeys my teaching will never die!"

<sup>52</sup>The people said, "Now we know you are possessed by a demon. Even Abraham and the prophets died, but you say, 'Anyone who obeys my teaching will never die!' <sup>53</sup>Are you greater than our father Abraham? He died, and so did the prophets. Who do you think you are?"

<sup>54</sup>Jesus answered, "If I want glory for myself, it doesn't count. But it is my Father who will glorify me. You say, 'He is our God,*' <sup>55</sup>but you don't even know him. I know him. If I said otherwise, I would be as great a liar as you! But I do know him and obey him. <sup>56</sup>Your father Abraham rejoiced as he looked forward to my coming. He saw it and was glad."

<sup>58</sup>Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth, before Abraham was even born, I AM!*" <sup>59</sup>At that point they picked up stones to throw at him. But Jesus was hidden from them and left the Temple.

John 9

Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind

<sup>1</sup> As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man who had been blind from birth. <sup>2</sup>“Rabbi,” his disciples asked him, “why was this man born blind? Was it because of his own sins or his parents’ sins?”

<sup>3</sup>“It was not because of his sins or his parents’ sins,” Jesus answered. “This happened so the power of God could be seen in him. <sup>4</sup>We must quickly carry out the tasks assigned us by the one who sent us.* The night is coming, and then no one can work. <sup>5</sup>But while I am here in the world, I am the light of the world.”

<sup>6</sup>Then he spit on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and spread the mud over the blind man’s eyes. <sup>7</sup>He told him, “Go wash yourself in the pool of Siloam” (Siloam means “sent”). So the man went and washed and came back seeing!

<sup>8</sup>His neighbors and others who knew him as a blind beggar asked each other, “Isn’t this the man who used to sit and beg?” <sup>9</sup>Some said he was, and others said, “No, he just looks like him!”

But the beggar kept saying, “Yes, I am the same one!”

<sup>10</sup>They asked, “Who healed you? What happened?”

<sup>11</sup>He told them, “The man they call Jesus made mud and spread it over my eyes and told me, ‘Go to the pool of Siloam and wash yourself.’ So I went and washed, and now I can see!”

<sup>12</sup>“Where is he now?” they asked.

“I don’t know,” he replied.

<sup>13</sup> Then they took the man who had been blind to the Pharisees, <sup>14</sup>because it was on the Sabbath that Jesus had made the mud and healed him. <sup>15</sup>The Pharisees asked the man all about it. So he told them, “He put the mud over my eyes, and when I washed it away, I could see!”

<sup>16</sup>Some of the Pharisees said, “This man Jesus is not from God, for he is working on the Sabbath.” Others said, “But how could an ordinary sinner do such miraculous signs?” So there was a deep division of opinion among them.

<sup>17</sup>Then the Pharisees again questioned the man who had been blind and demanded, “What’s your opinion about this man who healed you?”

The man replied, “I think he must be a prophet.”

<sup>18</sup>The Jewish leaders still refused to believe the man had been blind and could now see, so they called in his parents. <sup>19</sup>They asked them, “Is this your son? Was he born blind? If so, how can he now see?”

<sup>20</sup>His parents replied, “We know this is our son and that he was born blind, <sup>21</sup>but we don’t know how he can see or who healed him. Ask him. He is old enough to speak for himself.”

<sup>22</sup>His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders, who had announced that anyone saying Jesus was the Messiah would be expelled from the synagogue. <sup>23</sup>That’s why they said, “He is old enough. Ask him.”

<sup>24</sup>So for the second time they called in the man who had been blind and told him, “God should get the glory for this,* because we know this man Jesus is a sinner.”

<sup>25</sup>“I don’t know whether he is a sinner,” the man replied. “But I know this: I was blind, and now I can see!”

<sup>27</sup>“Look!” the man exclaimed. “I told you once. Didn’t you listen? Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples, too?”

<sup>28</sup>Then they cursed him and said, “You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses! <sup>29</sup>We know God spoke to Moses, but we don’t even know where this man comes from.”

<sup>30</sup>“Why, that’s very strange!” the man replied. “He healed my eyes, and yet you don’t know where he comes from? <sup>31</sup>We know that God doesn’t listen to sinners, but he is ready to hear those who worship him and do his will. <sup>32</sup>Ever since the world began, no one has been able to open the eyes of someone born blind. <sup>33</sup>If this man were not from God, he couldn’t have done it.”

<sup>34</sup>“You were born a total sinner!” they answered. “Are you trying to teach us?” And they threw him out of the synagogue.

Spiritual Blindness

<sup>35</sup>When Jesus heard what had happened, he found the man and asked, “Do you believe in the Son of Man? \*”

<sup>38</sup>“Yes, Lord, I believe!” the man said. And he worshiped

Jesus.

<sup>39</sup>Then Jesus told him, “I entered this world to render judgment—to give sight to the blind and to show those who think they see ” that they are blind.”

<sup>40</sup>Some Pharisees who were standing nearby heard him and asked, “Are you saying we’re blind?”

<sup>41</sup>“If you were blind, you wouldn’t be guilty,” Jesus replied. “But you remain guilty because you claim you can see.

John 10

The Good Shepherd and His Sheep

<sup>6</sup>Those who heard Jesus use this illustration didn’t understand what he meant, <sup>7</sup>so he explained it to them: “I tell you the truth, I am the gate for the sheep. <sup>8</sup>All who came before me* were thieves and robbers. But the true sheep did not listen to them. <sup>9</sup>Yes, I am the gate. Those who come in through me will be saved.* They will come and go freely and will find good pastures. <sup>10</sup>The thief’s purpose is to steal and kill and destroy. My purpose is to give them a rich and satisfying life.

<sup>11</sup>“I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd sacrifices his life for the sheep. <sup>12</sup>A hired hand will run when he sees a wolf coming. He will abandon the sheep because they don’t belong to him and he isn’t their shepherd. And so the wolf attacks them and scatters the flock. <sup>13</sup>The hired hand runs away because he's working only for the money and doesn't really care about the sheep.

<sup>14</sup>“I am the good shepherd; I know my own sheep, and they know me, <sup>15</sup>just as my Father knows me and I know the Father. So I sacrifice my life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup>I have other sheep, too, that are not in this sheepfold. I must bring them also. They will listen to my voice, and there will be one flock with one shepherd.

<sup>17</sup>“The Father loves me because I sacrifice my life so I may take it back again. <sup>18</sup>No one can take my life from me. I sacrifice it voluntarily. For I have the authority to lay it down when I want to and also to take it up again. For this is what my Father has commanded.”

<sup>19</sup>When he said these things, the people* were again divided in their opinions about him. <sup>20</sup>Some said, “He's demon possessed and out of his mind. Why listen to a man like that?”

<sup>21</sup>Others said, “This doesn't sound like a man possessed by a demon! Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”

Jesus Claims to Be the Son of God

<sup>22</sup>It was now winter, and Jesus was in Jerusalem at the time of Hanukkah, the Festival of Dedication. <sup>23</sup>He was in the Temple, walking through the section known as Solomon's Colonnade.

<sup>24</sup>The people surrounded him and asked, “How long are you going to keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus replied, “I have already told you, and you don't believe me. The proof is the work I do in my Father's name.

<sup>26</sup>But you don't believe me because you are not my sheep. <sup>27</sup>My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. <sup>28</sup>I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one can snatch them away from me, <sup>29</sup>for my Father has given them to me, and he is more powerful than anyone else.* No one can snatch them from the Father's hand. <sup>30</sup>The Father and I are one."

<sup>34</sup>Jesus replied, "It is written in your own Scriptures* that God said to certain leaders of the people, 'I say, you are gods!'<sup>35</sup> And you know that the Scriptures cannot be altered. So if those people who received God's message were called 'gods,' <sup>36</sup>why do you call it blasphemy when I say, 'I am the Son of God'? After all, the Father set me apart and sent me into the world. <sup>37</sup>Don't believe me unless I carry out my Father's work. <sup>38</sup>But if I do his work, believe in the evidence of the miraculous works I have done, even if you don't believe me. Then you will know and understand that the Father is in me, and I am in the Father."

<sup>39</sup>Once again they tried to arrest him, but he got away and left them. <sup>40</sup>He went beyond the Jordan River near the place where John was first baptizing and stayed there awhile. <sup>41</sup>And many followed him. "John didn't perform miraculous signs," they remarked to one another, "but everything he said about this man has come true.”<sup>42</sup> And many who were there believed in Jesus.

John 11

The Raising of Lazarus

<sup>4</sup>But when Jesus heard about it he said, "Lazarus's sickness will not end in death. No, it happened for the glory of God so that the Son of God will receive glory from this." <sup>5</sup>So although Jesus loved Martha, Mary, and Lazarus, <sup>6</sup>he stayed where he was for the next two days. <sup>7</sup>Finally, he said to his disciples, "Let's go back to Judea."

<sup>8</sup>But his disciples objected. "Rabbi," they said, "only a few days ago the people* in Judea were trying to stone you. Are you going there again?"

<sup>9</sup>Jesus replied, "There are twelve hours of daylight every day. During the day people can walk safely. They can see because they have the light of this world. <sup>10</sup>But at night there is danger of stumbling because they have no light." <sup>11</sup>Then he said, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but now I will go and wake him up."

<sup>12</sup>The disciples said, "Lord, if he is sleeping, he will soon get better!" <sup>13</sup>They thought Jesus meant Lazarus was simply sleeping, but Jesus meant Lazarus had died.

<sup>14</sup>So he told them plainly, “Lazarus is dead. <sup>15</sup>And for your sakes, I’m glad I wasn’t there, for now you will really believe. Come, let’s go see him.”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus told her, “I am the resurrection and the life.* Anyone who believes in me will live, even after dying. <sup>26</sup>Everyone who lives in me and believes in me will never ever die. Do you believe this, Martha?”

<sup>27</sup>“Yes, Lord,” she told him. “I have always believed you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who has come into the world from God.” <sup>28</sup>Then she returned to Mary. She called Mary aside from the mourners and told her, “The Teacher is here and wants to see you.” <sup>29</sup>So Mary immediately went to him.

<sup>30</sup>Jesus had stayed outside the village, at the place where Martha met him. <sup>31</sup>When the people who were at the house consoling Mary saw her leave so hastily, they assumed she was going to Lazarus's grave to weep. So they followed her there. <sup>32</sup>When Mary arrived and saw Jesus, she fell at his feet and said, "Lord, if only you had been here, my brother would not have died."

<sup>33</sup>When Jesus saw her weeping and saw the other people wailing with her, a deep anger welled up within him,* and he was deeply troubled. <sup>34</sup>"Where have you put him?" he asked them.

They told him, "Lord, come and see." <sup>35</sup>Then Jesus wept. <sup>36</sup>The people who were standing nearby said, "See how much he loved him!" <sup>37</sup>But some said, "This man healed a blind man. Couldn't he have kept Lazarus from dying?"

But Martha, the dead man's sister, protested, "Lord, he has been dead for four days. The smell will be terrible."

<sup>40</sup>Jesus responded, "Didn't I tell you that you would see God's glory if you believe?" <sup>41</sup>So they rolled the stone aside. Then Jesus looked up to heaven and said, "Father, thank you for hearing me. <sup>42</sup>You always hear me, but I said it out loud for the sake of all these people standing here, so that they will believe you sent me." <sup>43</sup>Then Jesus shouted, "Lazarus, come out!" <sup>44</sup>And the dead man came out, his hands and feet bound in graveclothes, his face wrapped in a headcloth. Jesus told them, “Unwrap him and let him go!”

The Plot to Kill Jesus

<sup>45</sup>Many of the people who were with Mary believed in Jesus when they saw this happen. <sup>46</sup>But some went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. <sup>47</sup>Then the leading priests and Pharisees called the high council* together. “What are we going to do?” they asked each other. “This man certainly performs many miraculous signs. <sup>48</sup>If we allow him to go on like this, soon everyone will believe in him. Then the Roman army will come and destroy both our Temple* and our nation.”

<sup>49</sup>Caiaphas, who was high priest at that time,* said, “You don’t know what you’re talking about! <sup>50</sup>You don’t realize that it’s better for you that one man should die for the people than for the whole nation to be destroyed.”

<sup>51</sup>He did not say this on his own; as high priest at that time he was led to prophesy that Jesus would die for the entire nation. <sup>52</sup>And not only for that nation, but to bring together and unite all the children of God scattered around the world.

<sup>53</sup>So from that time on, the Jewish leaders began to plot Jesus’ death. <sup>54</sup>As a result, Jesus stopped his public ministry among the people and left Jerusalem. He went to a place near the wilderness, to the village of Ephraim, and stayed there with his disciples.

<sup>55</sup>It was now almost time for the Jewish Passover celebration, and many people from all over the country arrived in Jerusalem several days early so they could go through the purification ceremony before Passover began. <sup>56</sup>They kept looking for Jesus, but as they stood around in the Temple, they said to each other, “What do you think? He won’t come for Passover, will he?” <sup>57</sup>Meanwhile, the leading priests and Pharisees had publicly ordered that anyone seeing Jesus must report it immediately so they could arrest him.

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

<sup>1</sup> Six days before the Passover celebration began, Jesus arrived in Bethany, the home of Lazarus—the man he had raised from the dead. <sup>2</sup>A dinner was prepared in Jesus’ honor. Martha served, and Lazarus was among those who ate* with him. <sup>3</sup>Then Mary took a twelve-ounce jar* of expensive perfume made from essence of nard, and she anointed Jesus’ feet with it, wiping his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance.

<sup>4</sup>But Judas Iscariot, the disciple who would soon betray him, said, <sup>5</sup>“That perfume was worth a year’s wages.* It should have been sold and the money given to the poor.” <sup>6</sup>Not that he cared for the poor—he was a thief, and since he was in charge of the disciples’ money, he often stole some for himself.

<sup>7</sup>Jesus replied, “Leave her alone. She did this in preparation for my burial. <sup>8</sup>You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me.”

<sup>9</sup>When all the people* heard of Jesus’ arrival, they flocked to see him and also to see Lazarus, the man Jesus had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup>Then the leading priests decided to kill Lazarus, too, <sup>11</sup>for it was because of him that many of the people had deserted them* and believed in Jesus.

Jesus’ Triumphant Entry

<sup>12</sup> The next day, the news that Jesus was on the way to Jerusalem swept through the city. A large crowd of Passover visitors <sup>13</sup>took palm branches and went down the road to meet him. They shouted, “Praise God! *

Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!

Hail to the King of Israel!” *

<sup>15</sup>“Don’t be afraid, people of Jerusalem. *

Look, your King is coming, riding on a donkey’s colt.” *

<sup>16</sup>His disciples didn’t understand at the time that this was a fulfillment of prophecy. But after Jesus entered into his glory, they remembered what had happened and realized that these things had been written about him.

<sup>17</sup>Many in the crowd had seen Jesus call Lazarus from the tomb, raising him from the dead, and they were telling others * about it. <sup>18</sup>That was the reason so many went out to meet him—because they had heard about this miraculous sign. <sup>19</sup>Then the Pharisees said to each other, “There’s nothing we can do. Look, everyone * has gone after him!”

Andrew

Jesus Predicts His Death

<sup>20</sup>Some Greeks who had come to Jerusalem for the Passover celebration <sup>21</sup>paid a visit to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee. They said, “Sir, we want to meet Jesus.” <sup>22</sup>Philip told Andrew about it, and they went together to ask Jesus.

<sup>23</sup>Jesus replied, “Now the time has come for the Son of Man* to enter into his glory. <sup>24</sup>I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat is planted in the soil and dies, it remains alone. But its death will produce many new kernels—a plentiful harvest of new lives. <sup>25</sup>Those who love their life in this world will lose it. Those who care nothing for their life in this world will keep it for eternity. <sup>26</sup>Anyone who wants to be my disciple must follow me, because my servants must be where I am. And the Father will honor anyone who serves me.

<sup>27</sup>“Now my soul is deeply troubled. Should I pray, ‘Father, save me from this hour’? But this is the very reason I came!

Then a voice spoke from heaven, saying, “I have already brought glory to my name, and I will do so again.”<sup>29</sup> When the crowd heard the voice, some thought it was thunder, while others declared an angel had spoken to him.

<sup>30</sup>Then Jesus told them, “The voice was for your benefit, not mine.”<sup>31</sup> The time for judging this world has come, when Satan, the ruler of this world, will be cast out.<sup>32</sup> And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself.”<sup>33</sup> He said this to indicate how he was going to die.

<sup>34</sup>The crowd responded, “We understood from Scripture* that the Messiah would live forever. How can you say the Son of Man will die? Just who is this Son of Man, anyway?”

<sup>35</sup>Jesus replied, “My light will shine for you just a little longer. Walk in the light while you can, so the darkness will not overtake you. Those who walk in the darkness cannot see where they are going.”<sup>36</sup> Put your trust in the light while there is still time; then you will become children of the light.”

After saying these things, Jesus went away and was hidden from them.

The Unbelief of the People

<sup>37</sup>But despite all the miraculous signs Jesus had done, most of the people still did not believe in him.<sup>38</sup> This is exactly what Isaiah the prophet had predicted:

“LORD, who has believed our message?

To whom has the LORD revealed his powerful arm?”*  

<sup>39</sup>But the people couldn’t believe, for as Isaiah also said, <sup>40</sup>“The Lord has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts—so that their eyes cannot see,

and their hearts cannot understand,
and they cannot turn to me
and have me heal them.”*
u

<sup>41</sup>Isaiah was referring to Jesus when he said this, because he saw the future and spoke of the Messiah’s glory. 42 Many people did believe in him, however, including some of the Jewish leaders. But they wouldn’t admit it for fear that the Pharisees would expel them from the synagogue. <sup>43</sup>For they loved human praise more than the praise of God.

<sup>44</sup>Jesus shouted to the crowds, “If you trust me, you are trusting not only me, but also God who sent me. <sup>45</sup>For when you see me, you are seeing the one who sent me. <sup>46</sup>I have come as a light to shine in this dark world, so that all who put their trust in me will no longer remain in the dark. <sup>47</sup>I will not judge those who hear me but don’t obey me, for I have come to save the world and not to judge it. <sup>48</sup>But all who reject me and my message will be judged on the day of judgment by the truth I have spoken. <sup>49</sup>I don’t speak on my own authority. The Father who sent me has commanded me what to say and how to say it. <sup>50</sup>And I know his commands lead to eternal life; so I say whatever the Father tells me to say.”

John 13

Jesus Washes His Disciples' Feet

<sup>1</sup> Before the Passover celebration, Jesus knew that his hour had come to leave this world and return to his Father. He had loved his disciples during his ministry on earth, and now he loved them to the very end.* <sup>2</sup>It was time for supper, and the devil had already prompted Judas,* son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. <sup>3</sup>Jesus knew that the Father had given him authority over everything and that he had come from God and would return to God. <sup>4</sup>So he got up from the table, took off his robe, wrapped a towel around his waist, <sup>5</sup>and poured water into a basin. Then he began to wash the disciples' feet, drying them with the towel he had around him.

<sup>6</sup>When Jesus came to Simon Peter, Peter said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

<sup>7</sup>Jesus replied, "You don't understand now what I am doing, but someday you will."

<sup>8</sup>"No," Peter protested, "you will never ever wash my feet!"

Jesus replied, "Unless I wash you, you won't belong to me."

<sup>9</sup>Simon Peter exclaimed, "Then wash my hands and head as well, Lord, not just my feet!"

<sup>10</sup>Jesus replied, "A person who has bathed all over does not need to wash, except for the feet,* to be entirely clean. And you disciples are clean, but not all of you." <sup>11</sup>For Jesus knew who would betray him. That is what he meant when he said,

“Not all of you are clean.”

<sup>12</sup>After washing their feet, he put on his robe again and sat down and asked, “Do you understand what I was doing? <sup>13</sup>You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and you are right, because that’s what I am. <sup>14</sup>And since I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash each other’s feet. <sup>15</sup>I have given you an example to follow. Do as I have done to you. <sup>16</sup>I tell you the truth, slaves are not greater than their master. Nor is the messenger more important than the one who sends the message. <sup>17</sup>Now that you know these things, God will bless you for doing them.

Jesus Predicts His Betrayal

<sup>18</sup>“I am not saying these things to all of you; I know the ones I have chosen. But this fulfills the Scripture that says, ‘The one who eats my food has turned against me.’* <sup>19</sup>I tell you this beforehand, so that when it happens you will believe that I AM the Messiah.* <sup>20</sup>I tell you the truth, anyone who welcomes my messenger is welcoming me, and anyone who welcomes me is welcoming the Father who sent me.”

<sup>21</sup>Now Jesus was deeply troubled,* and he exclaimed, “I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me!”

dip in the bowl.” And when he had dipped it, he gave it to Judas, son of Simon Iscariot. <sup>27</sup>When Judas had eaten the bread, Satan entered into him. Then Jesus told him, “Hurry and do what you’re going to do.” <sup>28</sup>None of the others at the table knew what Jesus meant. <sup>29</sup>Since Judas was their treasurer, some thought Jesus was telling him to go and pay for the food or to give some money to the poor. <sup>30</sup>So Judas left at once, going out into the night.

Jesus Predicts Peter’s Denial

<sup>31</sup>As soon as Judas left the room, Jesus said, “The time has come for the Son of Man* to enter into his glory, and God will be glorified because of him. <sup>32</sup>And since God receives glory because of the Son,* he will soon give glory to the Son. <sup>33</sup>Dear children, I will be with you only a little longer. And as I told the Jewish leaders, you will search for me, but you can’t come where I am going. <sup>34</sup>So now I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. <sup>35</sup>Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples.”

And Jesus replied, “You can’t go with me now, but you will follow me later.”

<sup>37</sup>“But why can’t I come now, Lord?” he asked. “I’m ready to die for you.”

<sup>38</sup>Jesus answered, “Die for me? I tell you the truth, Peter—before the rooster crows tomorrow morning, you will deny three times that you even know me.

John 14

Jesus, the Way to the Father

<sup>1</sup>“Don’t let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, and trust also in me. <sup>2</sup>There is more than enough room in my Father’s home. * If this were not so, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? * <sup>3</sup>When everything is ready, I will come and get you, so that you will always be with me where I am. <sup>4</sup>And you know the way to where I am going.”

<sup>5</sup>“No, we don’t know, Lord,” Thomas said. “We have no idea where you are going, so how can we know the way?”

<sup>6</sup>Jesus told him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me. <sup>7</sup>If you had really known me, you would know who my Father is. * From now on, you do know him and have seen him!”

<sup>8</sup>Philip said, “Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.”

<sup>9</sup>Jesus replied, “Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and yet you still don’t know who I am? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father! So why are you asking me to show him to you? <sup>10</sup>Don’t you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words I speak are not my own, but my Father who lives in me does his work through me. <sup>11</sup>Just believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me. Or at least believe because of the work you have seen me do.

<sup>12</sup>“I tell you the truth, anyone who believes in me will do the same works I have done, and even greater works, because I am going to be with the Father. <sup>13</sup>You can ask for anything in my name, and I will do it, so that the Son can bring glory to the Father. <sup>14</sup>Yes, ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it!

Jesus Promises the Holy Spirit

<sup>15</sup>“If you love me, obey me my commandments. <sup>16</sup>And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, who will never leave you. <sup>17</sup>He is the Holy Spirit, who leads into all truth. The world cannot receive him, because it isn’t looking for him and doesn’t recognize him. But you know him, because he lives with you now and later will be in you. <sup>18</sup>No, I will not abandon you as orphans—I will come to you. <sup>19</sup>Soon the world will no longer see me, but you will see me. Since I live, you also will live. <sup>20</sup>When I am raised to life again, you will know that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. <sup>21</sup>Those who accept my commandments and obey them are the ones who love me. And because they love me, my Father will love them. And I will love them and reveal myself to each of them.”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus replied, “All who love me will do what I say. My Father will love them, and we will come and make our home with each of them. <sup>24</sup>Anyone who doesn’t love me will not obey me. And remember, my words are not my own. What I am telling you is from the Father who sent me. <sup>25</sup>I am telling you these things now while I am still with you. <sup>26</sup>But when the Father sends the Advocate as my representative—that is, the Holy Spirit—he will teach you everything and will remind you of everything I have told you.

<sup>27</sup> “I am leaving you with a gift—peace of mind and heart. And the peace I give is a gift the world cannot give. So don’t be troubled or afraid. <sup>28</sup>Remember what I told you: I am going away, but I will come back to you again. If you really loved me, you would be happy that I am going to the Father, who is greater than I am. <sup>29</sup>I have told you these things before they happen so that when they do happen, you will believe.

<sup>30</sup>“I don’t have much more time to talk to you, because the ruler of this world approaches. He has no power over me, <sup>31</sup>but I will do what the Father requires of me, so that the world will know that I love the Father. Come, let’s be going.

John 15

Jesus, the True Vine

<sup>1</sup> “I am the true grapevine, and my Father is the gardener. <sup>2</sup>He cuts off every branch of mine that doesn’t produce fruit, and he prunes the branches that do bear fruit so they will produce even more. <sup>3</sup>You have already been pruned and purified by the message I have given you. <sup>4</sup>Remain in me, and I will remain in you. For a branch cannot produce fruit if it is severed from the vine, and you cannot be fruitful unless you remain in me.

<sup>5</sup>“Yes, I am the vine; you are the branches. Those who remain in me, and I in them, will produce much fruit. For apart from me you can do nothing. <sup>6</sup>Anyone who does not remain in me is thrown away like a useless branch and withers. Such branches are gathered into a pile to be burned. <sup>7</sup>But if you remain in me and my words remain in you, you may ask for anything you want, and it will be granted! <sup>8</sup>When you produce much fruit, you are my true disciples. This brings great glory to my Father.

PERSPECTIVES

I am the true grapevine, and my Father is the gardener. He cuts off every branch of mine that doesn’t produce fruit, and he prunes the branches that do bear fruit so they will produce even more. . . . Yes, I am the vine; you are the branches. Those who remain in me, and I in them, will produce much fruit. For apart from me you can do nothing.

JOHN 15:1-2, 5

The man who concentrates on the root system of his life is going to bear fruit upward, but if he concentrates on the eye-appealing foliage he may end up a rootless failure.

<sup>9</sup> “I have loved you even as the Father has loved me. Remain in my love. <sup>10</sup>When you obey my commandments, you remain in my love, just as I obey my Father’s commandments and remain in his love. <sup>11</sup>I have told you these things so that you will be filled with my joy. Yes, your joy will overflow! <sup>12</sup>This is my commandment: Love each other in the same way I have loved you. <sup>13</sup>There is no greater love than to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. <sup>14</sup>You are my friends if you do what I command. <sup>15</sup>I no longer call you slaves, because a master doesn’t confide in his slaves. Now you are my friends, since I have told you everything the Father told me. <sup>16</sup>You didn’t choose me. I chose you. I appointed you to go and produce lasting fruit, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask for, using my name. <sup>17</sup>This is my command: Love each other.

The World’s Hatred

<sup>18</sup>“If the world hates you, remember that it hated me first. <sup>19</sup>The world would love you as one of its own if you belonged to it, but you are no longer part of the world. I chose you to come out of the world, so it hates you. <sup>20</sup>Do you remember what I told you? ‘A slave is not greater than the master.’ Since they persecuted me, naturally they will persecute you. And if they had listened to me, they would listen to you. <sup>21</sup>They will do all this to you because of me, for they have rejected the one who sent me. <sup>22</sup>They would not be guilty if I had not come and spoken to them. But now they have no excuse for their sin. <sup>23</sup>Anyone who hates me also hates my Father. <sup>24</sup>If I hadn’t done such miraculous signs among them that no one else could do, they would not be guilty. But as it is, they have seen everything I did, yet they still hate me and my Father. <sup>25</sup>This fulfills what is written in their Scriptures*: ‘They hated me without cause.’

<sup>26</sup>“But I will send you the Advocate*—the Spirit of truth. He will come to you from the Father and will testify all about me. <sup>27</sup>And you must also testify about me because you have been with me from the beginning of my ministry.

John 16

<sup>1</sup>“I have told you these things so that you won’t abandon your faith. <sup>2</sup>For you will be expelled from the synagogues, and the time is coming when those who kill you will think they are doing a holy service for God. <sup>3</sup>This is because they have never known the Father or me. <sup>4</sup>Yes, I’m telling you these things now, so that when they happen, you will remember my warning. I didn’t tell you earlier because I was going to be with you for a while longer.

The Work of the Holy Spirit

<sup>5</sup>“But now I am going away to the one who sent me, and not one of you is asking where I am going. <sup>6</sup>Instead, you grieve because of what I’ve told you. <sup>7</sup>But in fact, it is best for you that I go away, because if I don’t, the Advocate * won’t come. If I do go away, then I will send him to you. <sup>8</sup>And when he comes, he will convict the world of its sin, and of God’s righteousness, and of the coming judgment. <sup>9</sup>The world’s sin is that it refuses to believe in me. <sup>10</sup>Righteousness is available because I go to the Father, and you will see me no more. <sup>11</sup>Judgment will come because the ruler of this world has already been judged.

<sup>12</sup>“There is so much more I want to tell you, but you can’t bear it now. <sup>13</sup>When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own but will tell you what he has heard. He will tell you about the future. <sup>14</sup>He will bring me glory by telling you whatever he receives from me.

<sup>15</sup>All that belongs to the Father is mine; this is why I said, ‘The Spirit will tell you whatever he receives from me.’

Sadness Will Be Turned to Joy

<sup>16</sup>“In a little while you won’t see me anymore. But a little while after that, you will see me again.”

<sup>17</sup>Some of the disciples asked each other, “What does he mean when he says, ‘In a little while you won’t see me, but then you will see me,’ and ‘I am going to the Father’?” <sup>18</sup>And what does he mean by ‘a little while’? We don’t understand.”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus realized they wanted to ask him about it, so he said, “Are you asking yourselves what I meant? I said in a little while you won’t see me, but a little while after that you will see me again. <sup>20</sup>I tell you the truth, you will weep and mourn over what is going to happen to me, but the world will rejoice. You will grieve, but your grief will suddenly turn to wonderful joy.

<sup>21</sup>It will be like a woman suffering the pains of labor. When her child is born, her anguish gives way to joy because she has brought a new baby into the world. <sup>22</sup>So you have sorrow now, but I will see you again; then you will rejoice, and no one can rob you of that joy. <sup>23</sup>At that time you won’t need to ask me for anything. I tell you the truth, you will ask the Father directly, and he will grant your request because you use my name.

<sup>24</sup>You haven’t done this before. Ask, using my name, and you will receive, and you will have abundant joy.

<sup>25</sup>“I have spoken of these matters in figures of speech, but soon I will stop speaking figuratively and will tell you plainly all about the Father. <sup>26</sup>Then you will ask in my name. I'm not saying I will ask the Father on your behalf, <sup>27</sup>for the Father himself loves you dearly because you love me and believe that I came from God.* <sup>28</sup>Yes, I came from the Father into the world, and now I will leave the world and return to the Father.”

<sup>29</sup>Then his disciples said, “At last you are speaking plainly and not figuratively. <sup>30</sup>Now we understand that you know everything, and there's no need to question you. From this we believe that you came from God.”

<sup>31</sup>Jesus asked, “Do you finally believe? <sup>32</sup>But the time is coming—indeed it's here now—when you will be scattered, each one going his own way, leaving me alone. Yet I am not alone because the Father is with me. <sup>33</sup>I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world.”

John 17

The Prayer of Jesus

<sup>1</sup>After saying all these things, Jesus looked up to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son so he can give glory back to you. <sup>2</sup>For you have given him authority over everyone. He gives eternal life to each one you have given him. <sup>3</sup>And this is the way to have eternal life—to know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, the one you sent to earth. <sup>4</sup>I brought glory to you here on earth by completing the work you gave me to do. <sup>5</sup>Now, Father, bring me into the glory we shared before the world began.

<sup>6</sup>“I have revealed you* to the ones you gave me from this world. They were always yours. You gave them to me, and they have kept your word. <sup>7</sup>Now they know that everything I have is a gift from you, <sup>8</sup>for I have passed on to them the message you gave me. They accepted it and know that I came from you, and they believe you sent me.

<sup>9</sup>“My prayer is not for the world, but for those you have given me, because they belong to you. <sup>10</sup>All who are mine belong to you, and you have given them to me, so they bring me glory. <sup>11</sup>Now I am departing from the world; they are staying in this world, but I am coming to you. Holy Father, you have given me your name;* now protect them by the power of your name so that they will be united just as we are. <sup>12</sup>During my time here, I protected them by the power of the name you gave me.* I guarded them so that not one was lost, except the one headed for destruction, as the Scriptures foretold.

<sup>13</sup>“Now I am coming to you. I told them many things while I was with them in this world so they would be filled with my joy. <sup>14</sup>I have given them your word. And the world hates them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. <sup>15</sup>I’m not asking you to take them out of the world, but to keep them safe from the evil one. <sup>16</sup>They do not belong to this world any more than I do. <sup>17</sup>Make them holy by your truth; teach them your word, which is truth. <sup>18</sup>Just as you sent me into the world, I am sending them into the world. <sup>19</sup>And I give myself as a holy sacrifice for them so they can be made holy by your truth.

<sup>20</sup>“I am praying not only for these disciples but also for all who will ever believe in me through their message. <sup>21</sup>I pray that they will all be one, just as you and I are one—as you are in me, Father, and I am in you. And may they be in us so that the world will believe you sent me.

<sup>22</sup>“I have given them the glory you gave me, so they may be one as we are one. <sup>23</sup>I am in them and you are in me. May they experience such perfect unity that the world will know that you sent me and that you love them as much as you love me. <sup>24</sup>Father, I want these whom you have given me to be with me where I am. Then they can see all the glory you gave me because you loved me even before the world began!

<sup>25</sup>“O righteous Father, the world doesn’t know you, but I do; and these disciples know you sent me. <sup>26</sup>I have revealed you to them, and I will continue to do so. Then your love for me will be in them, and I will be in them.”

John 18

Jesus Is Betrayed and Arrested

<sup>4</sup>Jesus fully realized all that was going to happen to him, so he stepped forward to meet them. “Who are you looking for?” he asked.

“I AM he,”* Jesus said. (Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them.) <sup>6</sup>As Jesus said “I AM he,” they all drew back and fell to the ground! <sup>7</sup>Once more he asked them, “Who are you looking for?”

And again they replied, “Jesus the Nazarene.”

<sup>8</sup>“I told you that I AM he,” Jesus said. “And since I am the one you want, let these others go.” <sup>9</sup>He did this to fulfill his own statement: “I did not lose a single one of those you have given me.”*

<sup>10</sup>Then Simon Peter drew a sword and slashed off the right ear of Malchus, the high priest’s slave. <sup>11</sup>But Jesus said to Peter, “Put your sword back into its sheath. Shall I not drink from the cup of suffering the Father has given me?”

Jesus at the High Priest's House

<sup>12</sup>So the soldiers, their commanding officer, and the Temple guards arrested Jesus and tied him up. <sup>13</sup>First they took him to Annas, the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest at that time.* <sup>14</sup>Caiaphas was the one who had told the other Jewish leaders, “It’s better that one man should die for the people.”

Peter's First Denial

<sup>15</sup>Simon Peter followed Jesus, as did another of the disciples. That other disciple was acquainted with the high priest, so he was allowed to enter the high priest's courtyard with Jesus. <sup>16</sup>Peter had to stay outside the gate. Then the disciple who knew the high priest spoke to the woman watching at the gate, and she let Peter in. <sup>17</sup>The woman asked Peter, “You’re not one of that man’s disciples, are you?”

“No,” he said, “I am not.”

<sup>18</sup>Because it was cold, the household servants and the guards had made a charcoal fire. They stood around it, warming themselves, and Peter stood with them, warming himself.

The High Priest Questions Jesus

<sup>19</sup>Inside, the high priest began asking Jesus about his followers and what he had been teaching them. <sup>20</sup>Jesus replied, “Everyone knows what I teach. I have preached regularly in the synagogues and the Temple, where the people* gather. I have not spoken in secret. <sup>21</sup>Why are you asking me this question? Ask those who heard me. They know what I said.”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus replied, “If I said anything wrong, you must prove it. But if I’m speaking the truth, why are you beating me?”

<sup>24</sup>Then Annas bound Jesus and sent him to Caiaphas, the high priest.

Peter’s Second and Third Denials

<sup>25</sup>Meanwhile, as Simon Peter was standing by the fire warming himself, they asked him again, “You’re not one of his disciples, are you?”

He denied it, saying, “No, I am not.”

<sup>26</sup>But one of the household slaves of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, “Didn’t I see you out there in the olive grove with Jesus?” <sup>27</sup>Again Peter denied it. And immediately a rooster crowed.

Jesus’ Trial before Pilate

<sup>28</sup>Jesus’ trial before Caiaphas ended in the early hours of the morning. Then he was taken to the headquarters of the Roman governor.* His accusers didn’t go inside because it would defile them, and they wouldn’t be allowed to celebrate the Passover. <sup>29</sup>So Pilate, the governor, went out to them and asked, “What is your charge against this man?”

<sup>30</sup>“We wouldn’t have handed him over to you if he weren’t a criminal!” they retorted.

<sup>31</sup>“Then take him away and judge him by your own law,” Pilate told them.

“Only the Romans are permitted to execute someone,” the Jewish leaders replied. <sup>32</sup>(This fulfilled Jesus’ prediction about the way he would die. \*)

<sup>33</sup>Then Pilate went back into his headquarters and called for Jesus to be brought to him. “Are you the king of the Jews?” he asked him.

<sup>34</sup>Jesus replied, “Is this your own question, or did others tell you about me?”

<sup>35</sup>“Am I a Jew?” Pilate retorted. “Your own people and their leading priests brought you to me for trial. Why? What have you done?”

<sup>36</sup>Jesus answered, “My Kingdom is not an earthly kingdom. If it were, my followers would fight to keep me from being handed over to the Jewish leaders. But my Kingdom is not of this world.”

<sup>37</sup>Pilate said, “So you are a king?”

Jesus responded, “You say I am a king. Actually, I was born and came into the world to testify to the truth. All who love the truth recognize that what I say is true.”

<sup>38</sup>“What is truth?” Pilate asked. Then he went out again to the people and told them, “He is not guilty of any crime. <sup>39</sup>But you have a custom of asking me to release one prisoner each year at Passover. Would you like me to release this ‘King of the Jews’?”

Barabbas!” (Barabbas was a revolutionary.)

John 19

Jesus Sentenced to Death

<sup>4</sup> Pilate went outside again and said to the people, “I am going to bring him out to you now, but understand clearly that I find him not guilty.” <sup>5</sup> Then Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said, “Look, here is the man!”

<sup>6</sup> When they saw him, the leading priests and Temple guards began shouting, “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

<sup>7</sup> The Jewish leaders replied, “By our law he ought to die because he called himself the Son of God.”

<sup>8</sup> When Pilate heard this, he was more frightened than ever. <sup>9</sup> He took Jesus back into the headquarters* again and asked him, “Where are you from?” But Jesus gave no answer. <sup>10</sup> “Why don’t you talk to me?” Pilate demanded. “Don’t you realize that I have the power to release you or crucify you?”

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus said, “You would have no power over me at all unless it were given to you from above. So the one who handed me over to you has the greater sin.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Pilate tried to release him, but the Jewish leaders shouted, “If you release this man, you are no ‘friend of Caesar.’* Anyone who declares himself a king is a rebel against Caesar.”

<sup>13</sup>When they said this, Pilate brought Jesus out to them again. Then Pilate sat down on the judgment seat on the platform that is called the Stone Pavement (in Hebrew, Gabbatha). <sup>14</sup>It was now about noon on the day of preparation for the Passover. And Pilate said to the people,* “Look, here is your king!”

“What? Crucify your king?” Pilate asked.

<sup>16</sup>Then Pilate turned Jesus over to them to be crucified.

The Crucifixion

So they took Jesus away. <sup>17</sup>Carrying the cross by himself, he went to the place called Place of the Skull (in Hebrew, Golgotha). <sup>18</sup>There they nailed him to the cross. Two others were crucified with him, one on either side, with Jesus between them. <sup>19</sup>And Pilate posted a sign on the cross that read, “Jesus of Nazareth,* the King of the Jews.” <sup>20</sup>The place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and the sign was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek, so that many people could read it.

<sup>21</sup>Then the leading priests objected and said to Pilate, “Change it from ‘The King of the Jews’ to ‘He said, I am King

<sup>23</sup>When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they divided his clothes among the four of them. They also took his robe, but it was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom. <sup>24</sup>So they said, “Rather than tearing it apart, let’s throw dice* for it.” This fulfilled the Scripture that says, “They divided my garments among themselves and threw dice for my clothing.”* So that is what they did.

John

<sup>25</sup>Standing near the cross were Jesus’ mother, and his mother’s sister, Mary (the wife of Clopas), and Mary Magdalene. <sup>26</sup>When Jesus saw his mother standing there beside the disciple he loved, he said to her, “Dear woman, here is your son.” <sup>27</sup>And he said to this disciple, “Here is your mother.” And from then on this disciple took her into his home.

A Son and a Mother

The Death of Jesus

<sup>28</sup> Jesus knew that his mission was now finished, and to fulfill Scripture he said, “I am thirsty.”* <sup>29</sup>A jar of sour wine was sitting there, so they soaked a sponge in it, put it on a hyssop branch, and held it up to his lips. <sup>30</sup>When Jesus had tasted it, he said, “It is finished!” Then he bowed his head and released his spirit.

<sup>31</sup>It was the day of preparation, and the Jewish leaders didn’t want the bodies hanging there the next day, which was the Sabbath (and a very special Sabbath, because it was the Passover). So they asked Pilate to hasten their deaths by ordering that their legs be broken. Then their bodies could be taken down. <sup>32</sup>So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the two men crucified with Jesus. <sup>33</sup>But when they came to Jesus, they saw that he was already dead, so they didn’t break his legs. <sup>34</sup>One of the soldiers, however, pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water flowed out. <sup>35</sup>(This report is from an eyewitness giving an accurate account. He speaks the truth so that you also can believe.)* <sup>36</sup>These things happened in fulfillment of the Scriptures that say, “Not one of his bones will be broken,”* <sup>37</sup>and “They will look on the one they pierced.”*

The Burial of Jesus

<sup>38</sup>Afterward Joseph of Arimathea, who had been a secret disciple of Jesus (because he feared the Jewish leaders), asked Pilate for permission to take down Jesus’ body. When Pilate gave permission, Joseph came and took the body away. <sup>39</sup>With him came Nicodemus, the man who had come to Jesus at night. He brought about seventy-five pounds* of perfumed ointment made from myrrh and aloes. <sup>40</sup>Following Jewish burial custom, they wrapped Jesus' body with the spices in long sheets of linen cloth. <sup>41</sup>The place of crucifixion was near a garden, where there was a new tomb, never used before. <sup>42</sup>And so, because it was the day of preparation for the Jewish Passover* and since the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there.

John 20

The Resurrection

<sup>1</sup>Early on Sunday morning,* while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and found that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance. <sup>2</sup>She ran and found Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved. She said, “They have taken the Lord’s body out of the tomb, and we don’t know where they have put him!”

<sup>3</sup>Peter and the other disciple started out for the tomb. <sup>4</sup>They were both running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. <sup>5</sup>He stooped and looked in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he didn’t go in. <sup>6</sup>Then Simon Peter arrived and went inside. He also noticed the linen wrappings lying there, <sup>7</sup>while the cloth that had covered Jesus’ head was folded up and lying apart from the other wrappings. <sup>8</sup>Then the disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in, and he saw and believed—<sup>9</sup>for until then they still hadn’t understood the Scriptures that said Jesus must rise from the dead. <sup>10</sup>Then they went home.

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

<sup>11</sup> Mary was standing outside the tomb crying, and as she wept, she stooped and looked in. <sup>12</sup>She saw two white-robed angels, one sitting at the head and the other at the foot of the place where the body of Jesus had been lying. <sup>13</sup>“Dear woman, why are you crying?” the angels asked her.

“Because they have taken away my Lord,” she replied, “and I don’t know where they have put him.”

<sup>14</sup>She turned to leave and saw someone standing there. It was Jesus, but she didn’t recognize him. <sup>15</sup>“Dear woman, why are you crying?” Jesus asked her. “Who are you looking for?”

She thought he was the gardener. “Sir,” she said, “if you have taken him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will go and get him.”

<sup>16</sup>“Mary!” Jesus said.

She turned to him and cried out, “Rabboni!” (which is Hebrew for “Teacher”).

<sup>17</sup>“Don’t cling to me,” Jesus said, “for I haven’t yet ascended to the Father. But go find my brothers and tell them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’”

<sup>18</sup>Mary Magdalene found the disciples and told them, “I have seen the Lord!” Then she gave them his message.

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

<sup>19</sup>That Sunday evening* the disciples were meeting behind locked doors because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders. Suddenly, Jesus was standing there among them! “Peace be with you,” he said. <sup>20</sup>As he spoke, he showed them the wounds in his hands and his side. They were filled with joy when they saw the Lord! <sup>21</sup>Again he said, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I am sending you.” <sup>22</sup>Then he breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup>If you forgive anyone's sins, they are forgiven. If you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven."

Jesus Appears to Thomas

But he replied, "I won't believe it unless I see the nail wounds in his hands, put my fingers into them, and place my hand into the wound in his side."

<sup>26</sup>Eight days later the disciples were together again, and this time Thomas was with them. The doors were locked; but suddenly, as before, Jesus was standing among them. "Peace be with you," he said.<sup>27</sup>Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and look at my hands. Put your hand into the wound in my side. Don't be faithless any longer. Believe!"

Thomas

<sup>28</sup>"My Lord and my God!" Thomas exclaimed.

<sup>29</sup>Then Jesus told him, "You believe because you have seen me. Blessed are those who believe without seeing me.”

BACK AGAIN!

At first, people were skeptical about the resurrection rumors. But as the “Jesus sightings” kept piling up, the evidence proved overwhelming.

Purpose of the Book

<sup>30</sup>The disciples saw Jesus do many other miraculous signs in addition to the ones recorded in this book. <sup>31</sup>But these are written so that you may continue to believe* that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing in him you will have life by the power of his name.

John 21

Epilogue: Jesus Appears to Seven Disciples

<sup>1</sup> Later, Jesus appeared again to the disciples beside the Sea of Galilee.* This is how it happened. <sup>2</sup> Several of the disciples were there—Simon Peter, Thomas (nicknamed the Twin),* Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples.

“We’ll come, too,” they all said. So they went out in the boat, but they caught nothing all night.

<sup>4</sup> At dawn Jesus was standing on the beach, but the disciples couldn’t see who he was. <sup>5</sup> He called out, “Fellows,* have you caught any fish?”

“No,” they replied.

<sup>6</sup> Then he said, “Throw out your net on the right-hand side of the boat, and you’ll get some!” So they did, and they couldn’t haul in the net because there were so many fish in it.

<sup>7</sup> Then the disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, “It’s the Lord!” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his tunic (for he had stripped for work), jumped into the water, and headed to shore. <sup>8</sup> The others stayed with the boat and pulled the loaded net to the shore, for they were only about a hundred yards* from shore. <sup>9</sup> When they got there, they found breakfast waiting for them—fish cooking over a charcoal fire, and some bread.

<sup>11</sup>So Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore. There were 153 large fish, and yet the net hadn’t torn.

<sup>12</sup>“Now come and have some breakfast!” Jesus said. None of the disciples dared to ask him, “Who are you?” They knew it was the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Then Jesus served them the bread and the fish.
<sup>14</sup>This was the third time Jesus had appeared to his disciples since he had been raised from the dead.

15 After breakfast Jesus asked Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these? *”

“Yes, Lord,” Peter replied, “you know I love you.”

“Then feed my lambs,” Jesus told him.

<sup>16</sup>Jesus repeated the question: “Simon son of John, do you love me?”

“Yes, Lord,” Peter said, “you know I love you.”

“Then take care of my sheep,” Jesus said.

<sup>17</sup>A third time he asked him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?”

Peter was hurt that Jesus asked the question a third time. He said, “Lord, you know everything. You know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Then feed my sheep.

<sup>18</sup>“I tell you the truth, when you were young, you were able to do as you liked; you dressed yourself and went wherever you wanted to go. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and others * will dress you and take you where you don’t want to go.” <sup>19</sup>Jesus said this to let him know by what kind of death he would glorify God. Then Jesus told him, “Follow me.”

<sup>20</sup> Peter turned around and saw behind them the disciple Jesus loved—the one who had leaned over to Jesus during supper and asked, “Lord, who will betray you?” <sup>21</sup>Peter asked Jesus, “What about him, Lord?”

<sup>22</sup>Jesus replied, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you? As for you, follow me.” <sup>23</sup>So the rumor spread among the community of believers* that this disciple wouldn’t die. But that isn’t what Jesus said at all. He only said, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you?”

<sup>24</sup>This disciple is the one who testifies to these events and has recorded them here. And we know that his account of these things is accurate.

<sup>25</sup>Jesus also did many other things. If they were all written down, I suppose the whole world could not contain the books that would be written.

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

Acts shows the Christian church's explosion across the Mediterranean region.

WHO WROTE IT?

Luke. He addressed it to Theophilus, as he did the Gospel of Luke.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

The book covers a period of about 30 years, from the ascension of Jesus to the early 60s A.D.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

Acts begins with the ascension of Jesus and continues through the growth of the early church.

THE BREAKDOWN

WORTH MEMORIZING

1:8

You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.

2:38

Peter replied, “Each of you must repent of your sins and turn to God, and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. Then you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.”

4:12

There is salvation in no one else! God has given no other name under heaven by which we must be saved.

Acts 1

The Promise of the Holy Spirit

1 In my first book* I told you, Theophilus, about everything Jesus began to do and teach <sup>2</sup>until the day he was taken up to heaven after giving his chosen apostles further instructions through the Holy Spirit.<sup>3</sup> During the forty days after his crucifixion, he appeared to the apostles from time to time, and he proved to them in many ways that he was actually alive. And he talked to them about the Kingdom of God.

<sup>4</sup>Once when he was eating with them, he commanded them, “Do not leave Jerusalem until the Father sends you the gift he promised, as I told you before. <sup>5</sup>John baptized with water, but in just a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

The Ascension of Jesus

<sup>6</sup> So when the apostles were with Jesus, they kept asking him, “Lord, has the time come for you to free Israel and restore our kingdom?”

<sup>7</sup>He replied, “The Father alone has the authority to set those dates and times, and they are not for you to know. <sup>8</sup>But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

<sup>9</sup>After saying this, he was taken up into a cloud while they were watching, and they could no longer see him. <sup>10</sup>As they strained to see him rising into heaven, two white-robed men suddenly stood among them. <sup>11</sup>“Men of Galilee,” they said, “why are you standing here staring into heaven? Jesus has been taken from you into heaven, but someday he will return from heaven in the same way you saw him go!”

Matthias Replaces Judas

<sup>12</sup>Then the apostles returned to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, a distance of half a mile.* <sup>13</sup>When they arrived, they went to the upstairs room of the house where they were staying.

Here are the names of those who were present: Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James (son of Alphaeus), Simon (the Zealot), and Judas (son of James). <sup>14</sup>They all met together and were constantly united in prayer, along with Mary the mother of Jesus, several other women, and the brothers of Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>During this time, when about 120 believers* were together in one place, Peter stood up and addressed them. <sup>16</sup>“Brothers,” he said, “the Scriptures had to be fulfilled concerning Judas, who guided those who arrested Jesus. This was predicted long ago by the Holy Spirit, speaking through King David. <sup>17</sup>Judas was one of us and shared in the ministry with us.”

<sup>20</sup>Peter continued, “This was written in the book of Psalms, where it says, ‘Let his home become desolate, with no one living in it.’ It also says, ‘Let someone else take his position.’*

<sup>21</sup>“So now we must choose a replacement for Judas from among the men who were with us the entire time we were traveling with the Lord Jesus—<sup>22</sup>from the time he was baptized by John until the day he was taken from us. Whoever is chosen will join us as a witness of Jesus' resurrection."

<sup>23</sup>So they nominated two men: Joseph called Barsabbas (also known as Justus) and Matthias. <sup>24</sup>Then they all prayed, "O Lord, you know every heart. Show us which of these men you have chosen <sup>25</sup>as an apostle to replace Judas in this ministry, for he has deserted us and gone where he belongs." <sup>26</sup>Then they cast lots, and Matthias was selected to become an apostle with the other eleven.

Acts 2

The Holy Spirit Comes

<sup>1</sup> On the day of Pentecost* all the believers were meeting together in one place. <sup>2</sup>Suddenly, there was a sound from heaven like the roaring of a mighty windstorm, and it filled the house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup>Then, what looked like flames or tongues of fire appeared and settled on each of them. <sup>4</sup>And everyone present was filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in other languages,* as the Holy Spirit gave them this ability.

<sup>5</sup> At that time there were devout Jews from every nation living in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>When they heard the loud noise, everyone came running, and they were bewildered to hear their own languages being spoken by the believers.

Peter Preaches to the Crowd

<sup>14</sup>Then Peter stepped forward with the eleven other apostles and shouted to the crowd, “Listen carefully, all of you, fellow Jews and residents of Jerusalem! Make no mistake about this. <sup>15</sup>These people are not drunk, as some of you are assuming. Nine o’clock in the morning is much too early for that. <sup>16</sup>No, what you see was predicted long ago by the prophet Joel:

<sup>17</sup>‘In the last days,’ God says,
‘I will pour out my Spirit upon all people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy.
Your young men will see visions, and your old men will dream dreams.

<sup>18</sup>In those days I will pour out my Spirit even on my servants—men and women alike—and they will prophesy.

<sup>19</sup>And I will cause wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below—blood and fire and clouds of smoke.

<sup>20</sup>The sun will become dark, and the moon will turn blood red before that great and glorious day of the LORD arrives.

<sup>21</sup>But everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved. ’*

<sup>22</sup>“People of Israel, listen! God publicly endorsed Jesus the Nazarene* by doing powerful miracles, wonders, and signs through him, as you well know. <sup>23</sup>But God knew what would happen, and his prearranged plan was carried out when Jesus was betrayed. With the help of lawless Gentiles, you nailed him to a cross and killed him. <sup>24</sup>But God released him from the horrors of death and raised him back to life, for death could not keep him in its grip. <sup>25</sup>King David said this about him:

‘I see that the LORD is always with me.

I will not be shaken, for he is right beside me.

<sup>26</sup>No wonder my heart is glad,
and my tongue shouts his praises!
My body rests in hope.

<sup>27</sup>For you will not leave my soul among the dead* or allow your Holy One to rot in the grave.

<sup>28</sup>You have shown me the way of life, and you will fill me with the joy of your presence.’*

<sup>29</sup>“Dear brothers, think about this! You can be sure that the patriarch David wasn’t referring to himself, for he died and was buried, and his tomb is still here among us. <sup>30</sup>But he was a prophet, and he knew God had promised with an oath that one of David’s own descendants would sit on his throne. <sup>31</sup>David was looking into the future and speaking of the Messiah’s resurrection. He was saying that God would not leave him among the dead or allow his body to rot in the grave.

<sup>32</sup>“God raised Jesus from the dead, and we are all witnesses of this. <sup>33</sup>Now he is exalted to the place of highest honor in heaven, at God's right hand. And the Father, as he had promised, gave him the Holy Spirit to pour out upon us, just as you see and hear today. <sup>34</sup>For David himself never ascended into heaven, yet he said,

'The LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit in the place of honor at my right hand <sup>35</sup>until I humble your enemies, making them a footstool under your feet.'"*

<sup>36</sup>"So let everyone in Israel know for certain that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, to be both Lord and Messiah!"

<sup>37</sup>Peter's words pierced their hearts, and they said to him and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?"

<sup>38</sup>Peter replied, "Each of you must repent of your sins and turn to God, and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. Then you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. <sup>39</sup>This promise is to you, and to your children, and even to the Gentiles*—all who have been called by the Lord our God." <sup>40</sup>Then Peter continued preaching for a long time, strongly urging all his listeners, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation!"

<sup>41</sup>Those who believed what Peter said were baptized and added to the church that day—about 3,000 in all.

The Believers Form a Community

teaching, and to fellowship, and to sharing in meals (including the Lord's Supper*), and to prayer.

<sup>43</sup>A deep sense of awe came over them all, and the apostles performed many miraculous signs and wonders. <sup>44</sup>And all the believers met together in one place and shared everything they had. <sup>45</sup>They sold their property and possessions and shared the money with those in need. <sup>46</sup>They worshiped together at the Temple each day, met in homes for the Lord's Supper, and shared their meals with great joy and generosity*—<sup>47</sup>all the while praising God and enjoying the goodwill of all the people. And each day the Lord added to their fellowship those who were being saved.

Acts 3

Peter Heals a Crippled Beggar

<sup>1</sup> Peter and John went to the Temple one afternoon to take part in the three o'clock prayer service. <sup>2</sup>As they approached the Temple, a man lame from birth was being carried in. Each day he was put beside the Temple gate, the one called the Beautiful Gate, so he could beg from the people going into the Temple. <sup>3</sup>When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for some money.

<sup>4</sup>Peter and John looked at him intently, and Peter said, "Look at us!" <sup>5</sup>The lame man looked at them eagerly, expecting some money. <sup>6</sup>But Peter said, "I don't have any silver or gold for you. But I'll give you what I have. In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, * get up and * walk!"

<sup>7</sup>Then Peter took the lame man by the right hand and helped him up. And as he did, the man's feet and ankles were instantly healed and strengthened. <sup>8</sup>He jumped up, stood on his feet, and began to walk! Then, walking, leaping, and praising God, he went into the Temple with them.

<sup>9</sup>All the people saw him walking and heard him praising God. <sup>10</sup>When they realized he was the lame beggar they had seen so often at the Beautiful Gate, they were absolutely astounded! <sup>11</sup>They all rushed out in amazement to Solomon's Colonnade, where the man was holding tightly to Peter and John.

Peter Preaches in the Temple

<sup>12</sup>Peter saw his opportunity and addressed the crowd. “People of Israel,” he said, “what is so surprising about this? And why stare at us as though we had made this man walk by our own power or godliness? <sup>13</sup>For it is the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—the God of all our ancestors—who has brought glory to his servant Jesus by doing this. This is the same Jesus whom you handed over and rejected before Pilate, despite Pilate’s decision to release him. <sup>14</sup>You rejected this holy, righteous one and instead demanded the release of a murderer. <sup>15</sup>You killed the author of life, but God raised him from the dead. And we are witnesses of this fact!

<sup>16</sup>“Through faith in the name of Jesus, this man was healed—and you know how crippled he was before. Faith in Jesus’ name has healed him before your very eyes.

<sup>17</sup>“Friends, * I realize that what you and your leaders did to Jesus was done in ignorance. <sup>18</sup>But God was fulfilling what all the prophets had foretold about the Messiah—that he must suffer these things. <sup>19</sup>Now repent of your sins and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped away. <sup>20</sup>Then times of refreshment will come from the presence of the Lord, and he will again send you Jesus, your appointed Messiah. <sup>21</sup>For he must remain in heaven until the time for the final restoration of all things, as God promised long ago through his holy prophets. <sup>22</sup>Moses said, ‘The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from among your own people. Listen carefully to everything he tells you.’ * <sup>23</sup>Then Moses said, ‘Anyone who will not listen to that Prophet will be completely cut off from God's people.'*

<sup>24</sup>“Starting with Samuel, every prophet spoke about what is happening today. <sup>25</sup>You are the children of those prophets, and you are included in the covenant God promised to your ancestors. For God said to Abraham, ‘Through your descendants* all the families on earth will be blessed.’ <sup>26</sup>When God raised up his servant, Jesus, he sent him first to you people of Israel, to bless you by turning each of you back from your sinful ways.”

Acts 4

Peter and John before the Council

<sup>1</sup> While Peter and John were speaking to the people, they were confronted by the priests, the captain of the Temple guard, and some of the Sadducees. <sup>2</sup>These leaders were very disturbed that Peter and John were teaching the people that through Jesus there is a resurrection of the dead. <sup>3</sup>They arrested them and, since it was already evening, put them in jail until morning. <sup>4</sup>But many of the people who heard their message believed it, so the number of believers now totaled about 5,000 men, not counting women and children.*

<sup>8</sup>Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers and elders of our people, <sup>9</sup>are we being questioned today because we’ve done a good deed for a crippled man? Do you want to know how he was healed? <sup>10</sup>Let me clearly state to all of you and to all the people of Israel that he was healed by the powerful name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene,* the man you crucified but whom God raised from the dead. <sup>11</sup>For Jesus is the one referred to in the Scriptures, where it says,

‘The stone that you builders rejected has now become the cornerstone.’*

<sup>12</sup>There is salvation in no one else! God has given no other name under heaven by which we must be saved.”

<sup>13</sup>The members of the council were amazed when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, for they could see that they were ordinary men with no special training in the Scriptures. They also recognized them as men who had been with Jesus.

<sup>14</sup>But since they could see the man who had been healed standing right there among them, there was nothing the council could say. <sup>15</sup>So they ordered Peter and John out of the council chamber* and conferred among themselves.

<sup>16</sup>“What should we do with these men?” they asked each other. “We can’t deny that they have performed a miraculous sign, and everybody in Jerusalem knows about it. <sup>17</sup>But to keep them from spreading their propaganda any further, we must warn them not to speak to anyone in Jesus’ name again.” <sup>18</sup>So they called the apostles back in and commanded them never again to speak or teach in the name of Jesus.

<sup>21</sup>The council then threatened them further, but they finally let them go because they didn’t know how to punish them without starting a riot. For everyone was praising God <sup>22</sup>for this miraculous sign—the healing of a man who had been lame for more than forty years.

The Believers Pray for Courage

<sup>23</sup>As soon as they were freed, Peter and John returned to the other believers and told them what the leading priests and elders had said. <sup>24</sup>When they heard the report, all the believers lifted their voices together in prayer to God: “O Sovereign Lord, Creator of heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them—<sup>25</sup>you spoke long ago by the Holy Spirit through our ancestor David, your servant, saying, ‘Why were the nations so angry?

Why did they waste their time with futile plans?

<sup>26</sup>The kings of the earth prepared for battle;

the rulers gathered together

and against his Messiah.’*<sup>27</sup>

<sup>27</sup>“In fact, this has happened here in this very city! For Herod Antipas, Pontius Pilate the governor, the Gentiles, and the people of Israel were all united against Jesus, your holy servant, whom you anointed. <sup>28</sup>But everything they did was determined beforehand according to your will. <sup>29</sup>And now, O Lord, hear their threats, and give us, your servants, great boldness in preaching your word. <sup>30</sup>Stretch out your hand with healing power; may miraculous signs and wonders be done through the name of your holy servant Jesus.”

<sup>31</sup>After this prayer, the meeting place shook, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit. Then they preached the word of God with boldness.

The Believers Share Their Possessions

<sup>32</sup>All the believers were united in heart and mind. And they felt that what they owned was not their own, so they shared everything they had. <sup>33</sup>The apostles testified powerfully to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and God's great blessing was upon them all. <sup>34</sup>There were no needy people among them, because those who owned land or houses would sell them <sup>35</sup>and bring the money to the apostles to give to those in need.

<sup>36</sup>For instance, there was Joseph, the one the apostles nicknamed Barnabas (which means "Son of Encouragement"). He was from the tribe of Levi and came from the island of Cyprus. <sup>37</sup>He sold a field he owned and brought the money to the apostles.

Ananias of Jerusalem

Acts 5

Ananias and Sapphira

<sup>3</sup>Then Peter said, "Ananias, why have you let Satan fill your heart? You lied to the Holy Spirit, and you kept some of the money for yourself. <sup>4</sup>The property was yours to sell or not sell, as you wished. And after selling it, the money was also yours to give away. How could you do a thing like this? You weren't lying to us but to God!"

PERSPECTIVES

Then Peter said, “Ananias, why have you let Satan fill your heart? You lied to the Holy Spirit, and you kept some of the money for yourself. The property was yours to sell or not sell, as you wished. And after selling it, the money was also yours to give away. How could you do a thing like this? You weren’t lying to us but to God!”

ACTS 5:3-4

Get to know two things about a man—how he earns his money and how he spends it—and you have the clue to his character, for you have a search light that shows up the inmost recesses of his soul. You know all you need to know about his standards, his motives, his driving desires, and his real religion.

ROBERT J. MCCracken (1904–1973), NEW YORK CITY MINISTER

<sup>5</sup>As soon as Ananias heard these words, he fell to the floor and died. Everyone who heard about it was terrified. <sup>6</sup>Then some young men got up, wrapped him in a sheet, and took him out and buried him.

<sup>7</sup>About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. <sup>8</sup>Peter asked her, “Was this the price you and your husband received for your land?”

“Yes,” she replied, “that was the price.”

<sup>9</sup>And Peter said, “How could the two of you even think of conspiring to test the Spirit of the Lord like this? The young men who buried your husband are just outside the door, and they will carry you out, too.”

<sup>10</sup>Instantly, she fell to the floor and died. When the young men came in and saw that she was dead, they carried her out and buried her beside her husband. <sup>11</sup>Great fear gripped the entire church and everyone else who heard what had happened.

A Crooked Partnership

The Apostles Heal Many

<sup>12</sup> The apostles were performing many miraculous signs and wonders among the people. And all the believers were meeting regularly at the Temple in the area known as Solomon’s Colonnade. <sup>13</sup>But no one else dared to join them, even though all the people had high regard for them. <sup>14</sup>Yet more and more people believed and were brought to the Lord—crowds of both men and women. <sup>15</sup>As a result of the apostles’ work, sick people were brought out into the streets on beds and mats so that Peter’s shadow might fall across some of them as he went by. <sup>16</sup>Crowds came from the villages around Jerusalem, bringing their sick and those possessed by evil* spirits, and they were all healed.

The Apostles Meet Opposition

<sup>21</sup>So at daybreak the apostles entered the Temple, as they were told, and immediately began teaching.

When the high priest and his officials arrived, they convened the high council*—the full assembly of the elders of Israel. Then they sent for the apostles to be brought from the jail for trial. <sup>22</sup>But when the Temple guards went to the jail, the men were gone. So they returned to the council and reported, <sup>23</sup>“The jail was securely locked, with the guards standing outside, but when we opened the gates, no one was there!”

<sup>29</sup>But Peter and the apostles replied, “We must obey God rather than any human authority. <sup>30</sup>The God of our ancestors raised Jesus from the dead after you killed him by hanging him on a cross.* <sup>31</sup>Then God put him in the place of honor at his right hand as Prince and Savior. He did this so the people of Israel would repent of their sins and be forgiven. <sup>32</sup>We are witnesses of these things and so is the Holy Spirit, who is given by God to those who obey him.”

Gamaliel

<sup>33</sup>When they heard this, the high council was furious and decided to kill them. <sup>34</sup>But one member, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, who was an expert in religious law and respected by all the people, stood up and ordered that the men be sent outside the council chamber for a while. <sup>35</sup>Then he said to his colleagues, “Men of Israel, take care what you are planning to do to these men! <sup>36</sup>Some time ago there was that fellow Theudas, who pretended to be someone great. About 400 others joined him, but he was killed, and all his followers went their various ways. The whole movement came to nothing.

<sup>37</sup>After him, at the time of the census, there was Judas of Galilee. He got people to follow him, but he was killed, too, and all his followers were scattered.

<sup>38</sup>“So my advice is, leave these men alone. Let them go. If they are planning and doing these things merely on their own, it will soon be overthrown. <sup>39</sup>But if it is from God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You may even find yourselves fighting against God!”

<sup>40</sup>The others accepted his advice. They called in the apostles and had them flogged. Then they ordered them never again to speak in the name of Jesus, and they let them go.

<sup>42</sup>And every day, in the Temple and from house to house, they continued to teach and preach this message: “Jesus is the Messiah.”

Acts 6

Seven Men Chosen to Serve

<sup>1</sup> But as the believers* rapidly multiplied, there were rumblings of discontent. The Greek-speaking believers complained about the Hebrew-speaking believers, saying that their widows were being discriminated against in the daily distribution of food.

<sup>2</sup> So the Twelve called a meeting of all the believers. They said, “We apostles should spend our time teaching the word of God, not running a food program.<sup>3</sup> And so, brothers, select seven men who are well respected and are full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will give them this responsibility.<sup>4</sup> Then we apostles can spend our time in prayer and teaching the word.”

<sup>7</sup> So God’s message continued to spread. The number of believers greatly increased in Jerusalem, and many of the Jewish priests were converted, too.

Stephen Is Arrested

<sup>8</sup> Stephen, a man full of God’s grace and power, performed amazing miracles and signs among the people.<sup>9</sup> But one day some men from the Synagogue of Freed Slaves, as it was called, started to debate with him. They were Jews from Cyrene, Alexandria, Cilicia, and the province of Asia. <sup>10</sup>None of them could stand against the wisdom and the Spirit with which Stephen spoke.

<sup>11</sup>So they persuaded some men to lie about Stephen, saying, “We heard him blaspheme Moses, and even God.” <sup>12</sup>This roused the people, the elders, and the teachers of religious law. So they arrested Stephen and brought him before the high council.*

<sup>13</sup>The lying witnesses said, “This man is always speaking against the holy Temple and against the law of Moses. <sup>14</sup>We have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth* will destroy the Temple and change the customs Moses handed down to us.”

<sup>15</sup>At this point everyone in the high council stared at Stephen, because his face became as bright as an angel’s.

Stephen

Acts 7

Stephen Addresses the Council

<sup>2</sup> This was Stephen’s reply: “Brothers and fathers, listen to me. Our glorious God appeared to our ancestor Abraham in Mesopotamia before he settled in Haran.* <sup>3</sup> God told him, ‘Leave your native land and your relatives, and come into the land that I will show you.’* <sup>4</sup> So Abraham left the land of the Chaldeans and lived in Haran until his father died. Then God brought him here to the land where you now live.

<sup>5</sup> “But God gave him no inheritance here, not even one square foot of land. God did promise, however, that eventually the whole land would belong to Abraham and his descendants—even though he had no children yet. <sup>6</sup> God also told him that his descendants would live in a foreign land, where they would be oppressed as slaves for 400 years. <sup>7</sup>“But I will punish the nation that enslaves them,” God said, “and in the end they will come out and worship me here in this place.”*

<sup>8</sup>“God also gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision at that time. So when Abraham became the father of Isaac, he circumcised him on the eighth day. And the practice was continued when Isaac became the father of Jacob, and when Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs of the Israelite nation.

<sup>9</sup>“These patriarchs were jealous of their brother Joseph, and they sold him to be a slave in Egypt. But God was with him <sup>10</sup>and rescued him from all his troubles. And God gave him favor before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. God also gave Joseph unusual wisdom, so that Pharaoh appointed him governor over all of Egypt and put him in charge of the palace.

<sup>11</sup>“But a famine came upon Egypt and Canaan. There was great misery, and our ancestors ran out of food. <sup>12</sup>Jacob heard that there was still grain in Egypt, so he sent his sons—our ancestors—to buy some. <sup>13</sup>The second time they went, Joseph revealed his identity to his brothers,* and they were introduced to Pharaoh. <sup>14</sup>Then Joseph sent for his father, Jacob, and all his relatives to come to Egypt, seventy-five persons in all. <sup>15</sup>So Jacob went to Egypt. He died there, as did our ancestors. <sup>16</sup>Their bodies were taken to Shechem and buried in the tomb Abraham had bought for a certain price from Hamor’s sons in Shechem.

<sup>17</sup>“As the time drew near when God would fulfill his promise to Abraham, the number of our people in Egypt greatly increased.<sup>18</sup> But then a new king came to the throne of Egypt who knew nothing about Joseph.<sup>19</sup> This king exploited our people and oppressed them, forcing parents to abandon their newborn babies so they would die.

<sup>20</sup>“At that time Moses was born—a beautiful child in God’s eyes. His parents cared for him at home for three months.<sup>21</sup> When they had to abandon him, Pharaoh’s daughter adopted him and raised him as her own son.<sup>22</sup> Moses was taught all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was powerful in both speech and action.

<sup>26</sup>“The next day he visited them again and saw two men of Israel fighting. He tried to be a peacemaker. ‘Men,’ he said, ‘you are brothers. Why are you fighting each other?’

<sup>27</sup>“But the man in the wrong pushed Moses aside. ‘Who made you a ruler and judge over us?’ he asked.<sup>28</sup> ‘Are you going to kill me as you killed that Egyptian yesterday?’<sup>29</sup> When Moses heard that, he fled the country and lived as a foreigner in the land of Midian. There his two sons were born.

<sup>30</sup>“Forty years later, in the desert near Mount Sinai, an angel appeared to Moses in the flame of a burning bush.<sup>31</sup> When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight. As he went to take a closer look, the voice of the LORD called out to him,<sup>32</sup> ‘I am the God of your ancestors—the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.’ Moses shook with terror and did not dare to look.

<sup>33</sup>“Then the LORD said to him, ‘Take off your sandals, for you are standing on holy ground.’ <sup>34</sup>I have certainly seen the oppression of my people in Egypt. I have heard their groans and have come down to rescue them. Now go, for I am sending you back to Egypt.’*

<sup>35</sup>“So God sent back the same man his people had previously rejected when they demanded, ‘Who made you a ruler and judge over us?’ Through the angel who appeared to him in the burning bush, God sent Moses to be their ruler and savior. <sup>36</sup>And by means of many wonders and miraculous signs, he led them out of Egypt, through the Red Sea, and through the wilderness for forty years.

<sup>38</sup>Moses was with our ancestors, the assembly of God’s people in the wilderness, when the angel spoke to him at Mount Sinai. And there Moses received life-giving words to pass on to us.*

<sup>39</sup>“But our ancestors refused to listen to Moses. They rejected him and wanted to return to Egypt. <sup>40</sup>They told Aaron, ‘Make us some gods who can lead us, for we don’t know what has become of this Moses, who brought us out of Egypt.’ <sup>41</sup>So they made an idol shaped like a calf, and they sacrificed to it and celebrated over this thing they had made. <sup>42</sup>Then God turned away from them and abandoned them to serve the stars of heaven as their gods! In the book of the prophets it is written,

‘Was it to me you were bringing sacrifices and offerings during those forty years in the wilderness, Israel?

<sup>43</sup>No, you carried your pagan gods—the shrine of Molech, the star of your god Rephan, and the images you made to worship them. So I will send you into exile as far away as Babylon.’*
  

<sup>46</sup>“David found favor with God and asked for the privilege of building a permanent Temple for the God of Jacob.*<sup>47</sup>But it was Solomon who actually built it.<sup>48</sup>However, the Most High doesn’t live in temples made by human hands. As the prophet says, and the earth is my footstool.

Could you build me a temple as good as that?’
asks the LORD.

‘Could you build me such a resting place?

<sup>51</sup> “You stubborn people! You are heathen * at heart and deaf to the truth. Must you forever resist the Holy Spirit? That’s what your ancestors did, and so do you! <sup>52</sup> Name one prophet your ancestors didn’t persecute! They even killed the ones who predicted the coming of the Righteous One—the Messiah whom you betrayed and murdered. <sup>53</sup> You deliberately disobeyed God’s law, even though you received it from the hands of angels.”

Acts 8

<sup>1</sup> Saul was one of the witnesses, and he agreed completely with the killing of Stephen.

Persecution Scatters the Believers

A great wave of persecution began that day, sweeping over the church in Jerusalem; and all the believers except the apostles were scattered through the regions of Judea and Samaria.<sup>2</sup>(Some devout men came and buried Stephen with great mourning.)<sup>3</sup>But Saul was going everywhere to destroy the church. He went from house to house, dragging out both men and women to throw them into prison.

Philip Preaches in Samaria

<sup>4</sup> But the believers who were scattered preached the Good News about Jesus wherever they went.<sup>5</sup>Philip, for example, went to the city of Samaria and told the people there about the Messiah.<sup>6</sup>Crowds listened intently to Philip because they were eager to hear his message and see the miraculous signs he did.<sup>7</sup>Many evil* spirits were cast out, screaming as they left their victims. And many who had been paralyzed or lame were healed.<sup>8</sup>So there was great joy in that city.

<sup>9</sup> A man named Simon had been a sorcerer there for many years, amazing the people of Samaria and claiming to be someone great.<sup>10</sup>Everyone, from the least to the greatest, often spoke of him as “the Great One—the Power of God.”<sup>11</sup>They listened closely to him because for a long time he had astounded them with his magic.

<sup>12</sup>But now the people believed Philip's message of Good News concerning the Kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ. As a result, many men and women were baptized.

<sup>13</sup>Then Simon himself believed and was baptized. He began following Philip wherever he went, and he was amazed by the signs and great miracles Philip performed.

<sup>14</sup>When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that the people of Samaria had accepted God's message, they sent Peter and John there. <sup>15</sup>As soon as they arrived, they prayed for these new believers to receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>16</sup>The Holy Spirit had not yet come upon any of them, for they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>17</sup>Then Peter and John laid their hands upon these believers, and they received the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup> When Simon saw that the Spirit was given when the apostles laid their hands on people, he offered them money to buy this power. <sup>19</sup>"Let me have this power, too," he exclaimed, "so that when I lay my hands on people, they will receive the Holy Spirit!"

<sup>24</sup>"Pray to the Lord for me," Simon exclaimed, "that these terrible things you've said won't happen to me!"

<sup>25</sup>After testifying and preaching the word of the Lord in Samaria, Peter and John returned to Jerusalem. And they stopped in many Samaritan villages along the way to preach the Good News.

Philip the Evangelist

Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch

<sup>26</sup> As for Philip, an angel of the Lord said to him, “Go south * down the desert road that runs from Jerusalem to Gaza.” <sup>27</sup>So he started out, and he met the treasurer of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under the Kandake, the queen of Ethiopia. The eunuch had gone to Jerusalem to worship, <sup>28</sup>and he was now returning. Seated in his carriage, he was reading aloud from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

<sup>31</sup>The man replied, “How can I, unless someone instructs me?” And he urged Philip to come up into the carriage and sit with him.

<sup>32</sup>The passage of Scripture he had been reading was this:

“He was led like a sheep to the slaughter.
And as a lamb is silent before the shearers,
he did not open his mouth.

<sup>33</sup>He was humiliated and received no justice.
Who can speak of his descendants?
For his life was taken from the earth.”*

<sup>34</sup>The eunuch asked Philip, “Tell me, was the prophet talking about himself or someone else?” <sup>35</sup>So beginning with this same Scripture, Philip told him the Good News about Jesus.

<sup>36</sup>As they rode along, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, “Look! There’s some water! Why can’t I be baptized?”* <sup>38</sup>He ordered the carriage to stop, and they went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

<sup>39</sup>When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away. The eunuch never saw him again but went on his way rejoicing. <sup>40</sup>Meanwhile, Philip found himself farther north at the town of Azotus. He preached the Good News there and in every town along the way until he came to Caesarea.

Saul's Conversion

<sup>1</sup>Meanwhile, Saul was uttering threats with every breath and was eager to kill the Lord's followers.* So he went to the high priest.<sup>2</sup>He requested letters addressed to the synagogues in Damascus, asking for their cooperation in the arrest of any followers of the Way he found there. He wanted to bring them—both men and women—back to Jerusalem in chains.

<sup>3</sup>As he was approaching Damascus on this mission, a light from heaven suddenly shone down around him.<sup>4</sup>He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul! Saul! Why are you persecuting me?"

And the voice replied, "I am Jesus, the one you are persecuting!"<sup>6</sup>Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

<sup>7</sup>The men with Saul stood speechless, for they heard the sound of someone's voice but saw no one!<sup>8</sup>Saul picked himself up off the ground, but when he opened his eyes he was blind. So his companions led him by the hand to Damascus.

<sup>9</sup>He remained there blind for three days and did not eat or drink.

Ananias of Damascus

<sup>10</sup> Now there was a believer* in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord spoke to him in a vision, calling, “Ananias!”

“Yes, Lord!” he replied.

<sup>11</sup> The Lord said, “Go over to Straight Street, to the house of Judas. When you get there, ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul. He is praying to me right now. <sup>12</sup> I have shown him a vision of a man named Ananias coming in and laying hands on him so he can see again.”

<sup>13</sup> “But Lord,” exclaimed Ananias, “I’ve heard many people talk about the terrible things this man has done to the believers* in Jerusalem! <sup>14</sup> And he is authorized by the leading priests to arrest everyone who calls upon your name.”

<sup>15</sup> But the Lord said, “Go, for Saul is my chosen instrument to take my message to the Gentiles and to kings, as well as to the people of Israel. <sup>16</sup> And I will show him how much he must suffer for my name’s sake.”

<sup>17</sup> So Ananias went and found Saul. He laid his hands on him and said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road, has sent me so that you might regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.”<sup>18</sup>Instantly something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he got up and was baptized.<sup>19</sup>Afterward he ate some food and regained his strength.

Saul in Damascus and Jerusalem

Saul stayed with the believers* in Damascus for a few days.<sup>20</sup> And immediately he began preaching about Jesus in the synagogues, saying, “He is indeed the Son of God!”

<sup>21</sup>All who heard him were amazed. “Isn’t this the same man who caused such devastation among Jesus’ followers in Jerusalem?” they asked. “And didn’t he come here to arrest them and take them in chains to the leading priests?”

<sup>26</sup>When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to meet with the believers, but they were all afraid of him. They did not believe he had truly become a believer!<sup>27</sup>Then Barnabas brought him to the apostles and told them how Saul had seen the Lord on the way to Damascus and how the Lord had spoken to Saul. He also told them that Saul had preached boldly in the name of Jesus in Damascus.

<sup>28</sup>So Saul stayed with the apostles and went all around Jerusalem with them, preaching boldly in the name of the Lord. <sup>29</sup>He debated with some Greek-speaking Jews, but they tried to murder him. <sup>30</sup>When the believers* heard about this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him away to Tarsus, his hometown.

<sup>31</sup>The church then had peace throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria, and it became stronger as the believers lived in the fear of the Lord. And with the encouragement of the Holy Spirit, it also grew in numbers.

Peter Heals Aeneas and Raises Dorcas

<sup>32</sup>Meanwhile, Peter traveled from place to place, and he came down to visit the believers in the town of Lydda. <sup>33</sup>There he met a man named Aeneas, who had been paralyzed and bedridden for eight years. <sup>34</sup>Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you! Get up, and roll up your sleeping mat!” And he was healed instantly. <sup>35</sup>Then the whole population of Lydda and Sharon saw Aeneas walking around, and they turned to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup> There was a believer in Joppa named Tabitha (which in Greek is Dorcas*). She was always doing kind things for others and helping the poor. <sup>37</sup>About this time she became ill and died. Her body was washed for burial and laid in an upstairs room. <sup>38</sup>But the believers had heard that Peter was nearby at Lydda, so they sent two men to beg him, “Please come as soon as possible!”

they took him to the upstairs room. The room was filled with widows who were weeping and showing him the coats and other clothes Dorcas had made for them.<sup>40</sup> But Peter asked them all to leave the room; then he knelt and prayed. Turning to the body he said, “Get up, Tabitha.” And she opened her eyes! When she saw Peter, she sat up! <sup>41</sup>He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then he called in the widows and all the believers, and he presented her to them alive.

Cornelius

Acts 10

Cornelius Calls for Peter

<sup>1</sup>In Caesarea there lived a Roman army officer* named Cornelius, who was a captain of the Italian Regiment. <sup>2</sup>He was a devout, God-fearing man, as was everyone in his household. He gave generously to the poor and prayed regularly to God. <sup>3</sup>One afternoon about three o'clock, he had a vision in which he saw an angel of God coming toward him. "Cornelius!" the angel said.

And the angel replied, "Your prayers and gifts to the poor have been received by God as an offering! <sup>5</sup>Now send some men to Joppa, and summon a man named Simon Peter. <sup>6</sup>He is staying with Simon, a tanner who lives near the seashore."

<sup>7</sup>As soon as the angel was gone, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier, one of his personal attendants.<sup>8</sup>He told them what had happened and sent them off to Joppa.

Peter Visits Cornelius

<sup>9</sup> The next day as Cornelius's messengers were nearing the town, Peter went up on the flat roof to pray. It was about noon,<sup>10</sup>and he was hungry. But while a meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance.<sup>11</sup>He saw the sky open, and something like a large sheet was let down by its four corners.<sup>12</sup>In the sheet were all sorts of animals, reptiles, and birds.<sup>13</sup>Then a voice said to him, "Get up, Peter; kill and eat them."

<sup>14</sup>"No, Lord," Peter declared. "I have never eaten anything that our Jewish laws have declared impure and unclean.*"

<sup>15</sup>But the voice spoke again: "Do not call something unclean if God has made it clean."<sup>16</sup>The same vision was repeated three times. Then the sheet was suddenly pulled up to heaven.

<sup>19</sup>Meanwhile, as Peter was puzzling over the vision, the Holy Spirit said to him, "Three men have come looking for you."<sup>20</sup>Get up, go downstairs, and go with them without hesitation. Don't worry, for I have sent them."

<sup>21</sup> So Peter went down and said, "I'm the man you are looking for. Why have you come?"

is a devout and God-fearing man, well respected by all the Jews. A holy angel instructed him to summon you to his house so that he can hear your message.”<sup>23</sup> So Peter invited the men to stay for the night. The next day he went with them, accompanied by some of the brothers from Joppa.

<sup>28</sup>Peter told them, “You know it is against our laws for a Jewish man to enter a Gentile home like this or to associate with you. But God has shown me that I should no longer think of anyone as impure or unclean.”<sup>29</sup> So I came without objection as soon as I was sent for. Now tell me why you sent for me.”

<sup>30</sup>Cornelius replied, “Four days ago I was praying in my house about this same time, three o’clock in the afternoon. Suddenly, a man in dazzling clothes was standing in front of me.”<sup>31</sup> He told me, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your gifts to the poor have been noticed by God!’<sup>32</sup> Now send messengers to Joppa, and summon a man named Simon Peter. He is staying in the home of Simon, a tanner who lives near the seashore.’<sup>33</sup> So I sent for you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now we are all here, waiting before God to hear the message the Lord has given you.”

The Gentiles Hear the Good News

<sup>34</sup>Then Peter replied, “I see very clearly that God shows no favoritism. <sup>35</sup>In every nation he accepts those who fear him and do what is right. <sup>36</sup>This is the message of Good News for the people of Israel—that there is peace with God through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all. <sup>37</sup>You know what happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee, after John began preaching his message of baptism. <sup>38</sup>And you know that God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. Then Jesus went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

<sup>39</sup>“And we apostles are witnesses of all he did throughout Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a cross,* <sup>40</sup>but God raised him to life on the third day. Then God allowed him to appear, <sup>41</sup>not to the general public,* but to us whom God had chosen in advance to be his witnesses. We were those who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. <sup>42</sup>And he ordered us to preach everywhere and to testify that Jesus is the one appointed by God to be the judge of all—the living and the dead. <sup>43</sup>He is the one all the prophets testified about, saying that everyone who believes in him will have their sins forgiven through his name.”

The Gentiles Receive the Holy Spirit

<sup>44</sup>Even as Peter was saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the message. <sup>45</sup>The Jewish believers* who came with Peter were amazed that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out on the Gentiles, too. <sup>46</sup>For they heard them speaking in other tongues* and praising God.

Then Peter asked,<sup>47</sup>“Can anyone object to their being baptized, now that they have received the Holy Spirit just as we did?”<sup>48</sup>So he gave orders for them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Afterward Cornelius asked him to stay with them for several days.

Acts 11

Peter Explains His Actions

<sup>1</sup> Soon the news reached the apostles and other believers* in Judea that the Gentiles had received the word of God. <sup>2</sup>But when Peter arrived back in Jerusalem, the Jewish believers* criticized him. <sup>3</sup>“You entered the home of Gentiles* and even ate with them!” they said.

<sup>4</sup>Then Peter told them exactly what had happened. <sup>5</sup>“I was in the town of Joppa,” he said, “and while I was praying, I went into a trance and saw a vision. Something like a large sheet was let down by its four corners from the sky. And it came right down to me. <sup>6</sup>When I looked inside the sheet, I saw all sorts of tame and wild animals, reptiles, and birds. <sup>7</sup>And I heard a voice say, ‘Get up, Peter; kill and eat them.’

<sup>8</sup>“No, Lord,’ I replied. ‘I have never eaten anything that our Jewish laws have declared impure or unclean.*’ <sup>9</sup>“But the voice from heaven spoke again: ‘Do not call something unclean if God has made it clean.’ <sup>10</sup>This happened three times before the sheet and all it contained was pulled back up to heaven.

<sup>11</sup>“Just then three men who had been sent from Caesarea arrived at the house where we were staying. <sup>12</sup>The Holy Spirit told me to go with them and not to worry that they were Gentiles. These six brothers here accompanied me, and we soon entered the home of the man who had sent for us. <sup>13</sup>He told us how an angel had appeared to him in his home and had told him, ‘Send messengers to Joppa, and summon a man named Simon Peter. <sup>14</sup>He will tell you how you and everyone in your household can be saved!’

<sup>15</sup>“As I began to speak,” Peter continued, “the Holy Spirit fell on them, just as he fell on us at the beginning. <sup>16</sup>Then I thought of the Lord’s words when he said, ‘John baptized with * water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’ <sup>17</sup>And since God gave these Gentiles the same gift he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to stand in God’s way?”

<sup>18</sup>When the others heard this, they stopped objecting and began praising God. They said, “We can see that God has also given the Gentiles the privilege of repenting of their sins and receiving eternal life.”

The Church in Antioch of Syria

<sup>19</sup>Meanwhile, the believers who had been scattered during the persecution after Stephen’s death traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch of Syria. They preached the word of God, but only to Jews. <sup>20</sup>However, some of the believers who went to Antioch from Cyprus and Cyrene began preaching to the Gentiles * about the Lord Jesus. <sup>21</sup>The power of the Lord was with them, and a large number of these Gentiles believed and turned to the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>When the church at Jerusalem heard what had happened, they sent Barnabas to Antioch. <sup>23</sup>When he arrived and saw this evidence of God’s blessing, he was filled with joy, and he encouraged the believers to stay true to the Lord. <sup>24</sup>Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and strong in faith. And many people were brought to the Lord.

<sup>25</sup>Then Barnabas went on to Tarsus to look for Saul. <sup>26</sup>When he found him, he brought him back to Antioch. Both of them stayed there with the church for a full year, teaching large crowds of people. (It was at Antioch that the believers * were first called Christians.)

James Is Killed and Peter Is Imprisoned

Peter's Miraculous Escape from Prison

<sup>6</sup> The night before Peter was to be placed on trial, he was asleep, fastened with two chains between two soldiers. Others stood guard at the prison gate.<sup>7</sup> Suddenly, there was a bright light in the cell, and an angel of the Lord stood before Peter. The angel struck him on the side to awaken him and said, "Quick! Get up!" And the chains fell off his wrists.<sup>8</sup> Then the angel told him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." And he did. "Now put on your coat and follow me," the angel ordered.

<sup>9</sup> So Peter left the cell, following the angel. But all the time he thought it was a vision. He didn't realize it was actually happening.<sup>10</sup> They passed the first and second guard posts and came to the iron gate leading to the city, and this opened for them all by itself. So they passed through and started walking down the street, and then the angel suddenly left him.

<sup>11</sup>Peter finally came to his senses. “It’s really true!” he said. “The Lord has sent his angel and saved me from Herod and from what the Jewish leaders* had planned to do to me!”

<sup>12</sup>When he realized this, he went to the home of Mary, the mother of John Mark, where many were gathered for prayer.

<sup>13</sup>He knocked at the door in the gate, and a servant girl named Rhoda came to open it. <sup>14</sup>When she recognized Peter’s voice, she was so overjoyed that, instead of opening the door, she ran back inside and told everyone, “Peter is standing at the door!”

<sup>16</sup>Meanwhile, Peter continued knocking. When they finally opened the door and saw him, they were amazed. <sup>17</sup>He motioned for them to quiet down and told them how the Lord had led him out of prison. “Tell James and the other brothers what happened,” he said. And then he went to another place.

Herod Agrippa

The Death of Herod Agrippa

<sup>20</sup>Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. So they sent a delegation to make peace with him because their cities were dependent upon Herod's country for food. The delegates won the support of Blastus, Herod's personal assistant,<sup>21</sup>and an appointment with Herod was granted. When the day arrived, Herod put on his royal robes, sat on his throne, and made a speech to them.<sup>22</sup>The people gave him a great ovation, shouting, "It's the voice of a god, not of a man!"

<sup>23</sup>Instantly, an angel of the Lord struck Herod with a sickness, because he accepted the people's worship instead of giving the glory to God. So he was consumed with worms and died.

Acts 13

Barnabas and Saul Are Commissioned

Paul’s First Missionary Journey

<sup>4</sup>So Barnabas and Saul were sent out by the Holy Spirit. They went down to the seaport of Seleucia and then sailed for the island of Cyprus. <sup>5</sup>There, in the town of Salamis, they went to the Jewish synagogues and preached the word of God. John Mark went with them as their assistant.

<sup>6</sup>Afterward they traveled from town to town across the entire island until finally they reached Paphos, where they met a Jewish sorcerer, a false prophet named Bar-Jesus. <sup>7</sup>He had attached himself to the governor, Sergius Paulus, who was an intelligent man. The governor invited Barnabas and Saul to visit him, for he wanted to hear the word of God. <sup>8</sup>But Elymas, the sorcerer (as his name means in Greek), interfered and urged the governor to pay no attention to what Barnabas and Saul said. He was trying to keep the governor from believing.

<sup>9</sup>Saul, also known as Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit, and he looked the sorcerer in the eye. <sup>10</sup>Then he said, “You son of the devil, full of every sort of deceit and fraud, and enemy of all that is good! Will you never stop perverting the true ways of the Lord? <sup>11</sup>Watch now, for the Lord has laid his hand of punishment upon you, and you will be struck blind. You will not see the sunlight for some time.” Instantly mist and darkness came over the man’s eyes, and he began groping around begging for someone to take his hand and lead him.

<sup>12</sup>When the governor saw what had happened, he became a believer, for he was astonished at the teaching about the Lord.

John Mark

Paul Preaches in Antioch of Pisidia

13 Paul and his companions then left Paphos by ship for Pamphylia, landing at the port town of Perga. There John Mark left them and returned to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>But Paul and Barnabas traveled inland to Antioch of Pisidia. \*

On the Sabbath they went to the synagogue for the services.
<sup>15</sup>After the usual readings from the books of Moses* and the prophets, those in charge of the service sent them this message: “Brothers, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, come and give it.”

<sup>16</sup>So Paul stood, lifted his hand to quiet them, and started speaking. “Men of Israel,” he said, “and you God-fearing Gentiles, listen to me.

<sup>17</sup>“The God of this nation of Israel chose our ancestors and made them multiply and grow strong during their stay in Egypt. Then with a powerful arm he led them out of their slavery. <sup>18</sup>He put up with them* through forty years of wandering in the wilderness. <sup>19</sup>Then he destroyed seven nations in Canaan and gave their land to Israel as an inheritance. <sup>20</sup>All this took about 450 years.

“After that, God gave them judges to rule until the time of Samuel the prophet. <sup>21</sup>Then the people begged for a king, and God gave them Saul son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, who reigned for forty years. <sup>22</sup>But God removed Saul and replaced him with David, a man about whom God said, ‘I have found David son of Jesse, a man after my own heart. He will do everything I want him to do.’*

even worthy to be his slave and untie the sandals on his feet.’

<sup>26</sup>“Brothers—you sons of Abraham, and also you God-fearing Gentiles—this message of salvation has been sent to us! <sup>27</sup>The people in Jerusalem and their leaders did not recognize Jesus as the one the prophets had spoken about. Instead, they condemned him, and in doing this they fulfilled the prophets’ words that are read every Sabbath. <sup>28</sup>They found no legal reason to execute him, but they asked Pilate to have him killed anyway.

<sup>29</sup>“When they had done all that the prophecies said about him, they took him down from the cross* and placed him in a tomb. <sup>30</sup>But God raised him from the dead! <sup>31</sup>And over a period of many days he appeared to those who had gone with him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now his witnesses to the people of Israel.

<sup>32</sup>“And now we are here to bring you this Good News. The promise was made to our ancestors, <sup>33</sup>and God has now fulfilled it for us, their descendants, by raising Jesus. This is what the second psalm says about Jesus:

‘You are my Son.

Today I have become your Father.*’

<sup>34</sup>For God had promised to raise him from the dead, not leaving him to rot in the grave. He said, ‘I will give you the sacred blessings I promised to David.’* <sup>35</sup>Another psalm explains it more fully: ‘You will not allow your Holy One to rot in the grave.’* <sup>36</sup>This is not a reference to David, for after David had done the will of God in his own generation, he died and was buried with his ancestors, and his body decayed. <sup>37</sup>No, it was a reference to someone else—someone whom God raised and whose body did not decay.

<sup>38</sup>*“Brothers, listen! We are here to proclaim that through this man Jesus there is forgiveness for your sins. <sup>39</sup>Everyone who believes in him is declared right with God—something the law of Moses could never do. <sup>40</sup>Be careful! Don’t let the prophets’ words apply to you. For they said,

be amazed and die!
For I am doing something in your own day, something you wouldn’t believe even if someone told you about it.”*

<sup>42</sup>As Paul and Barnabas left the synagogue that day, the people begged them to speak about these things again the next week. <sup>43</sup>Many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, and the two men urged them to continue to rely on the grace of God.

Paul Turns to the Gentiles

<sup>44</sup>The following week almost the entire city turned out to hear them preach the word of the Lord. <sup>45</sup>But when some of the Jews saw the crowds, they were jealous; so they slandered Paul and argued against whatever he said.

was necessary that we first preach the word of God to you Jews. But since you have rejected it and judged yourselves unworthy of eternal life, we will offer it to the Gentiles. <sup>47</sup>For the Lord gave us this command when he said, ‘I have made you a light to the Gentiles, to bring salvation to the farthest corners of the earth.’*”

<sup>48</sup>When the Gentiles heard this, they were very glad and thanked the Lord for his message; and all who were chosen for eternal life became believers. <sup>49</sup>So the Lord’s message spread throughout that region.

<sup>50</sup>Then the Jews stirred up the influential religious women and the leaders of the city, and they incited a mob against Paul and Barnabas and ran them out of town. <sup>51</sup>So they shook the dust from their feet as a sign of rejection and went to the town of Iconium. <sup>52</sup>And the believers* were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Acts 14

Paul and Barnabas in Iconium

<sup>1</sup>The same thing happened in Iconium.* Paul and Barnabas went to the Jewish synagogue and preached with such power that a great number of both Jews and Greeks became believers.

<sup>3</sup>But the apostles stayed there a long time, preaching boldly about the grace of the Lord. And the Lord proved their message was true by giving them power to do miraculous signs and wonders. <sup>4</sup>But the people of the town were divided in their opinion about them. Some sided with the Jews, and some with the apostles.

<sup>5</sup>Then a mob of Gentiles and Jews, along with their leaders, decided to attack and stone them. <sup>6</sup>When the apostles learned of it, they fled to the region of Lycaonia—to the towns of Lystra and Derbe and the surrounding area. <sup>7</sup>And there they preached the Good News.

Paul and Barnabas in Lystra and Derbe

<sup>8</sup>While they were at Lystra, Paul and Barnabas came upon a man with crippled feet. He had been that way from birth, so he had never walked. He was sitting <sup>9</sup>and listening as Paul preached. Looking straight at him, Paul realized he had faith to be healed. <sup>10</sup>So Paul called to him in a loud voice, "Stand up!"

And the man jumped to his feet and started walking.

<sup>11</sup>When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they shouted in their local dialect, “These men are gods in human form!” <sup>12</sup>They decided that Barnabas was the Greek god Zeus and that Paul was Hermes, since he was the chief speaker. <sup>13</sup>Now the temple of Zeus was located just outside the town. So the priest of the temple and the crowd brought bulls and wreaths of flowers to the town gates, and they prepared to offer sacrifices to the apostles.

<sup>14</sup>But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard what was happening, they tore their clothing in dismay and ran out among the people, shouting, <sup>15</sup>“Friends,* why are you doing this? We are merely human beings—just like you! We have come to bring you the Good News that you should turn from these worthless things and turn to the living God, who made heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them. <sup>16</sup>In the past he permitted all the nations to go their own ways, <sup>17</sup>but he never left them without evidence of himself and his goodness. For instance, he sends you rain and good crops and gives you food and joyful hearts.” <sup>18</sup>But even with these words, Paul and Barnabas could scarcely restrain the people from sacrificing to them.

<sup>19</sup>Then some Jews arrived from Antioch and Iconium and won the crowds to their side. They stoned Paul and dragged him out of town, thinking he was dead. <sup>20</sup>But as the believers* gathered around him, he got up and went back into the town. The next day he left with Barnabas for Derbe.

Paul and Barnabas Return to Antioch of Syria

<sup>21</sup>After preaching the Good News in Derbe and making many disciples, Paul and Barnabas returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch of Pisidia, <sup>22</sup>where they strengthened the believers. They encouraged them to continue in the faith, reminding them that we must suffer many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God. <sup>23</sup>Paul and Barnabas also appointed elders in every church. With prayer and fasting, they turned the elders over to the care of the Lord, in whom they had put their trust. <sup>24</sup>Then they traveled back through Pisidia to Pamphylia. <sup>25</sup>They preached the word in Perga, then went down to Attalia.

<sup>26</sup>Finally, they returned by ship to Antioch of Syria, where their journey had begun. The believers there had entrusted them to the grace of God to do the work they had now completed. <sup>27</sup>Upon arriving in Antioch, they called the church together and reported everything God had done through them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles, too.

<sup>28</sup>And they stayed there with the believers for a long time.

Acts 15

The Council at Jerusalem

<sup>4</sup>When they arrived in Jerusalem, Barnabas and Paul were welcomed by the whole church, including the apostles and elders. They reported everything God had done through them. <sup>5</sup>But then some of the believers who belonged to the sect of the Pharisees stood up and insisted, “The Gentile converts must be circumcised and required to follow the law of Moses.”

<sup>6</sup>So the apostles and elders met together to resolve this issue. <sup>7</sup>At the meeting, after a long discussion, Peter stood and addressed them as follows: “Brothers, you all know that God chose me from among you some time ago to preach to the Gentiles so that they could hear the Good News and believe. <sup>8</sup>God knows people’s hearts, and he confirmed that he accepts Gentiles by giving them the Holy Spirit, just as he did to us.

<sup>9</sup>He made no distinction between us and them, for he cleansed their hearts through faith. <sup>10</sup>So why are you now challenging God by burdening the Gentile believers* with a yoke that neither we nor our ancestors were able to bear? <sup>11</sup>We believe that we are all saved the same way, by the undeserved grace of the Lord Jesus.”

<sup>12</sup>Everyone listened quietly as Barnabas and Paul told about the miraculous signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles.

<sup>13</sup>When they had finished, James stood and said, “Brothers, listen to me. <sup>14</sup>Peter* has told you about the time God first visited the Gentiles to take from them a people for himself. <sup>15</sup>And this conversion of Gentiles is exactly what the prophets predicted. As it is written:

<sup>16</sup>“Afterward I will return and restore the fallen house* of David.

I will rebuild its ruins and restore it,

<sup>17</sup>so that the rest of humanity might seek the LORD, including the Gentiles—
all those I have called to be mine.

The LORD has spoken—

<sup>18</sup>he who made these things known so long ago.’*

<sup>19</sup>“And so my judgment is that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to God. <sup>20</sup>Instead, we should write and tell them to abstain from eating food offered to idols, from sexual immorality, from eating the meat of strangled animals, and from consuming blood. <sup>21</sup>For these laws of Moses have been preached in Jewish synagogues in every city on every Sabbath for many generations.”

The Letter for Gentile Believers

<sup>22</sup>Then the apostles and elders together with the whole church in Jerusalem chose delegates, and they sent them to Antioch of Syria with Paul and Barnabas to report on this decision. The men chosen were two of the church leaders*—Judas (also called Barsabbas) and Silas. <sup>23</sup>This is the letter they took with them:

“This letter is from the apostles and elders, your brothers in Jerusalem. It is written to the Gentile believers in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia. Greetings!

<sup>24</sup>“We understand that some men from here have troubled you and upset you with their teaching, but we did not send them! <sup>25</sup>So we decided, having come to complete agreement, to send you official representatives, along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup>who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup>We are sending Judas and Silas to confirm what we have decided concerning your question.

<sup>28</sup>“For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay no greater burden on you than these few requirements: <sup>29</sup>You must abstain from eating food offered to idols, from consuming blood or the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality. If you do this, you will do well. Farewell.”

<sup>30</sup>The messengers went at once to Antioch, where they called a general meeting of the believers and delivered the letter.
<sup>31</sup>And there was great joy throughout the church that day as they read this encouraging message.

<sup>32</sup>Then Judas and Silas, both being prophets, spoke at length to the believers, encouraging and strengthening their faith.
<sup>33</sup>They stayed for a while, and then the believers sent them back to the church in Jerusalem with a blessing of peace.*
<sup>35</sup>Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch. They and many others taught and preached the word of the Lord there.

Barnabas

Paul and Barnabas Separate

<sup>36</sup>After some time Paul said to Barnabas, “Let’s go back and visit each city where we previously preached the word of the Lord, to see how the new believers are doing.”<sup>37</sup> Barnabas agreed and wanted to take along John Mark.<sup>38</sup> But Paul disagreed strongly, since John Mark had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not continued with them in their work.<sup>39</sup> Their disagreement was so sharp that they separated. Barnabas took John Mark with him and sailed for Cyprus.<sup>40</sup> Paul chose Silas, and as he left, the believers entrusted him to the Lord’s gracious care.<sup>41</sup> Then he traveled throughout Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches there.

Paul's Second Missionary Journey

<sup>1</sup> Paul went first to Derbe and then to Lystra, where there was a young disciple named Timothy. His mother was a Jewish believer, but his father was a Greek. <sup>2</sup>Timothy was well thought of by the believers* in Lystra and Iconium, <sup>3</sup>so Paul wanted him to join them on their journey. In deference to the Jews of the area, he arranged for Timothy to be circumcised before they left, for everyone knew that his father was a Greek. <sup>4</sup>Then they went from town to town, instructing the believers to follow the decisions made by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>So the churches were strengthened in their faith and grew larger every day.

A Call from Macedonia

<sup>6</sup>Next Paul and Silas traveled through the area of Phrygia and Galatia, because the Holy Spirit had prevented them from preaching the word in the province of Asia at that time. <sup>7</sup>Then coming to the borders of Mysia, they headed north for the province of Bithynia,* but again the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them to go there. <sup>8</sup>So instead, they went on through Mysia to the seaport of Troas.

<sup>9</sup>That night Paul had a vision: A man from Macedonia in northern Greece was standing there, pleading with him, "Come over to Macedonia and help us!" <sup>10</sup>So we* decided to leave for Macedonia at once, having concluded that God was calling us to preach the Good News there.

Lydia of Philippi Believes in Jesus

<sup>11</sup>We boarded a boat at Troas and sailed straight across to the island of Samothrace, and the next day we landed at Neapolis. <sup>12</sup>From there we reached Philippi, a major city of that district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. And we stayed there several days.

<sup>13</sup>On the Sabbath we went a little way outside the city to a riverbank, where we thought people would be meeting for prayer, and we sat down to speak with some women who had gathered there. <sup>14</sup>One of them was Lydia from Thyatira, a merchant of expensive purple cloth, who worshiped God. As she listened to us, the Lord opened her heart, and she accepted what Paul was saying. <sup>15</sup>She was baptized along with other members of her household, and she asked us to be her guests. “If you agree that I am a true believer in the Lord,” she said, “come and stay at my home.” And she urged us until we agreed.

Paul and Silas in Prison

<sup>16</sup>One day as we were going down to the place of prayer, we met a demon-possessed slave girl. She was a fortune-teller who earned a lot of money for her masters. <sup>17</sup>She followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, “These men are servants of the Most High God, and they have come to tell you how to be saved.”

that he turned and said to the demon within her, “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.” And instantly it left her.

<sup>25</sup>Around midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening. <sup>26</sup>Suddenly, there was a massive earthquake, and the prison was shaken to its foundations. All the doors immediately flew open, and the chains of every prisoner fell off! <sup>27</sup>The jailer woke up to see the prison doors wide open. He assumed the prisoners had escaped, so he drew his sword to kill himself. <sup>28</sup>But Paul shouted to him, “Stop! Don’t kill yourself! We are all here!”

<sup>29</sup>The jailer called for lights and ran to the dungeon and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. <sup>30</sup>Then he brought them out and asked, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

<sup>31</sup>They replied, “Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, along with everyone in your household.” <sup>32</sup>And they shared the word of the Lord with him and with all who lived in his household. <sup>33</sup>Even at that hour of the night, the jailer cared for them and washed their wounds. Then he and everyone in his household were immediately baptized. <sup>34</sup>He brought them into his house and set a meal before them, and he and his entire household rejoiced because they all believed in God.

<sup>35</sup>The next morning the city officials sent the police to tell the jailer, “Let those men go!” <sup>36</sup>So the jailer told Paul, “The city officials have said you and Silas are free to leave. Go in peace.”

<sup>37</sup>But Paul replied, “They have publicly beaten us without a trial and put us in prison—and we are Roman citizens. So now they want us to leave secretly? Certainly not! Let them come themselves to release us!”

<sup>38</sup>When the police reported this, the city officials were alarmed to learn that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens. <sup>39</sup>So they came to the jail and apologized to them. Then they brought them out and begged them to leave the city. <sup>40</sup>When Paul and Silas left the prison, they returned to the home of Lydia. There they met with the believers and encouraged them once more. Then they left town.

Paul Preaches in Thessalonica

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Silas then traveled through the towns of Amphipolis and Apollonia and came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. <sup>2</sup>As was Paul's custom, he went to the synagogue service, and for three Sabbaths in a row he used the Scriptures to reason with the people. <sup>3</sup>He explained the prophecies and proved that the Messiah must suffer and rise from the dead. He said, "This Jesus I'm telling you about is the Messiah." <sup>4</sup>Some of the Jews who listened were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, along with many God-fearing Greek men and quite a few prominent women.*

<sup>5</sup>But some of the Jews were jealous, so they gathered some troublemakers from the marketplace to form a mob and start a riot. They attacked the home of Jason, searching for Paul and Silas so they could drag them out to the crowd.* <sup>6</sup>Not finding them there, they dragged out Jason and some of the other believers* instead and took them before the city council. "Paul and Silas have caused trouble all over the world," they shouted, "and now they are here disturbing our city, too." <sup>7</sup>And Jason has welcomed them into his home. They are all guilty of treason against Caesar, for they profess allegiance to another king, named Jesus."

<sup>8</sup>The people of the city, as well as the city council, were thrown into turmoil by these reports. <sup>9</sup>So the officials forced Jason and the other believers to post bond, and then they released them.

Paul and Silas in Berea

<sup>10</sup> That very night the believers sent Paul and Silas to Berea. When they arrived there, they went to the Jewish synagogue. <sup>11</sup> And the people of Berea were more open-minded than those in Thessalonica, and they listened eagerly to Paul's message. They searched the Scriptures day after day to see if Paul and Silas were teaching the truth. <sup>12</sup> As a result, many Jews believed, as did many of the prominent Greek women and men.

<sup>13</sup> But when some Jews in Thessalonica learned that Paul was preaching the word of God in Berea, they went there and stirred up trouble. <sup>14</sup> The believers acted at once, sending Paul on to the coast, while Silas and Timothy remained behind. <sup>15</sup> Those escorting Paul went with him all the way to Athens; then they returned to Berea with instructions for Silas and Timothy to hurry and join him.

Paul Preaches in Athens

<sup>16</sup> While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was deeply troubled by all the idols he saw everywhere in the city. <sup>17</sup> He went to the synagogue to reason with the Jews and the God-fearing Gentiles, and he spoke daily in the public square to all who happened to be there.

<sup>18</sup> He also had a debate with some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers. When he told them about Jesus and his resurrection, they said, "What's this babblers trying to say with these strange ideas he's picked up?" Others said, "He seems to be preaching about some foreign gods."

<sup>19</sup>Then they took him to the high council of the city.* "Come and tell us about this new teaching," they said. <sup>20</sup>"You are saying some rather strange things, and we want to know what it's all about." <sup>21</sup>(It should be explained that all the Athenians as well as the foreigners in Athens seemed to spend all their time discussing the latest ideas.)

<sup>22</sup>So Paul, standing before the council,* addressed them as follows: "Men of Athens, I notice that you are very religious in every way, <sup>23</sup>for as I was walking along I saw your many shrines. And one of your altars had this inscription on it: 'To an Unknown God.' This God, whom you worship without knowing, is the one I'm telling you about.

<sup>24</sup>"He is the God who made the world and everything in it. Since he is Lord of heaven and earth, he doesn't live in man-made temples, <sup>25</sup>and human hands can't serve his needs—for he has no needs. He himself gives life and breath to everything, and he satisfies every need. <sup>26</sup>From one man* he created all the nations throughout the whole earth. He decided beforehand when they should rise and fall, and he determined their boundaries.

<sup>27</sup>"His purpose was for the nations to seek after God and perhaps feel their way toward him and find him—though he is not far from any one of us. <sup>28</sup>For in him we live and move and exist. As some of your* own poets have said, 'We are his offspring.' <sup>29</sup>And since this is true, we shouldn't think of God as an idol designed by craftsmen from gold or silver or stone.

<sup>30</sup>“God overlooked people’s ignorance about these things in earlier times, but now he commands everyone everywhere to repent of their sins and turn to him. <sup>31</sup>For he has set a day for judging the world with justice by the man he has appointed, and he proved to everyone who this is by raising him from the dead.”

<sup>32</sup>When they heard Paul speak about the resurrection of the dead, some laughed in contempt, but others said, “We want to hear more about this later.” <sup>33</sup>That ended Paul’s discussion with them, <sup>34</sup>but some joined him and became believers. Among them were Dionysius, a member of the council,* a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Paul Meets Priscilla and Aquila in Corinth

<sup>7</sup>Then he left and went to the home of Titius Justus, a Gentile who worshiped God and lived next door to the synagogue. <sup>8</sup>Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, and everyone in his household believed in the Lord. Many others in Corinth also heard Paul, became believers, and were baptized.

<sup>9</sup>One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision and told him, “Don’t be afraid! Speak out! Don’t be silent! <sup>10</sup>For I am with you, and no one will attack and harm you, for many people in this city belong to me.” <sup>11</sup>So Paul stayed there for the next year and a half, teaching the word of God.

<sup>14</sup>But just as Paul started to make his defense, Gallio turned to Paul’s accusers and said, “Listen, you Jews, if this were a case involving some wrongdoing or a serious crime, I would have a reason to accept your case. <sup>15</sup>But since it is merely a question of words and names and your Jewish law, take care of it yourselves. I refuse to judge such matters.” <sup>16</sup>And he threw them out of the courtroom.

Paul Returns to Antioch of Syria

<sup>18</sup>Paul stayed in Corinth for some time after that, then said good-bye to the brothers and sisters* and went to nearby Cenchrea. There he shaved his head according to Jewish custom, marking the end of a vow. Then he set sail for Syria, taking Priscilla and Aquila with him.

<sup>19</sup>They stopped first at the port of Ephesus, where Paul left the others behind. While he was there, he went to the synagogue to reason with the Jews. <sup>20</sup>They asked him to stay longer, but he declined. <sup>21</sup>As he left, however, he said, “I will come back later,* God willing.” Then he set sail from Ephesus.

up and visited the church at Jerusalem* and then went back to Antioch.

Apollos Instructed at Ephesus

<sup>24</sup>Meanwhile, a Jew named Apollos, an eloquent speaker who knew the Scriptures well, had arrived in Ephesus from Alexandria in Egypt. <sup>25</sup>He had been taught the way of the Lord, and he taught others about Jesus with an enthusiastic spirit* and with accuracy. However, he knew only about John's baptism. <sup>26</sup>When Priscilla and Aquila heard him preaching boldly in the synagogue, they took him aside and explained the way of God even more accurately.

A Movement for Everyone

<sup>27</sup>Apollos had been thinking about going to Achaia, and the brothers and sisters in Ephesus encouraged him to go. They wrote to the believers in Achaia, asking them to welcome him. When he arrived there, he proved to be of great benefit to those who, by God's grace, had believed. <sup>28</sup>He refuted the Jews with powerful arguments in public debate. Using the Scriptures, he explained to them that Jesus was the Messiah.

Acts 19

Paul's Third Missionary Journey

<sup>1</sup>While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul traveled through the interior regions until he reached Ephesus, on the coast, where he found several believers.* <sup>2</sup>“Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?” he asked them.

“No,” they replied, “we haven’t even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

<sup>3</sup>“Then what baptism did you experience?” he asked.

And they replied, “The baptism of John.”

<sup>4</sup>Paul said, “John’s baptism called for repentance from sin. But John himself told the people to believe in the one who would come later, meaning Jesus.”

<sup>5</sup>As soon as they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup>Then when Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke in other tongues* and prophesied. <sup>7</sup>There were about twelve men in all.

Paul Ministers in Ephesus

<sup>8</sup>Then Paul went to the synagogue and preached boldly for the next three months, arguing persuasively about the Kingdom of God. <sup>9</sup>But some became stubborn, rejecting his message and publicly speaking against the Way. So Paul left the synagogue and took the believers with him. Then he held daily discussions at the lecture hall of Tyrannus. <sup>10</sup>This went on for the next two years, so that people throughout the province of Asia—both Jews and Greeks—heard the word of the Lord.

<sup>11</sup> God gave Paul the power to perform unusual miracles. <sup>12</sup>When handkerchiefs or aprons that had merely touched his skin were placed on sick people, they were healed of their diseases, and evil spirits were expelled.

<sup>17</sup>The story of what happened spread quickly all through Ephesus, to Jews and Greeks alike. A solemn fear descended on the city, and the name of the Lord Jesus was greatly honored. <sup>18</sup>Many who became believers confessed their sinful practices. <sup>19</sup>A number of them who had been practicing sorcery brought their incantation books and burned them at a public bonfire. The value of the books was several million dollars.* <sup>20</sup>So the message about the Lord spread widely and had a powerful effect.

<sup>21</sup>Afterward Paul felt compelled by the Spirit* to go over to Macedonia and Achaia before going to Jerusalem. “And after that,” he said, “I must go on to Rome!” <sup>22</sup>He sent his two assistants, Timothy and Erastus, ahead to Macedonia while he stayed awhile longer in the province of Asia.

The Riot in Ephesus

<sup>23</sup>About that time, serious trouble developed in Ephesus concerning the Way. <sup>24</sup>It began with Demetrius, a silversmith who had a large business manufacturing silver shrines of the Greek goddess Artemis.* He kept many craftsmen busy. <sup>25</sup>He called them together, along with others employed in similar trades, and addressed them as follows: “Gentlemen, you know that our wealth comes from this business. <sup>26</sup>But as you have seen and heard, this man Paul has persuaded many people that handmade gods aren’t really gods at all. And he’s done this not only here in Ephesus but throughout the entire province!

<sup>27</sup>Of course, I’m not just talking about the loss of public respect for our business. I’m also concerned that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will lose its influence and that Artemis—this magnificent goddess worshiped throughout the province of Asia and all around the world—will be robbed of her great prestige!”

some another. Everything was in confusion. In fact, most of them didn't even know why they were there.<sup>33</sup> The Jews in the crowd pushed Alexander forward and told him to explain the situation. He motioned for silence and tried to speak.<sup>34</sup> But when the crowd realized he was a Jew, they started shouting again and kept it up for about two hours: "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians! Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

<sup>35</sup>At last the mayor was able to quiet them down enough to speak. "Citizens of Ephesus," he said. "Everyone knows that Ephesus is the official guardian of the temple of the great Artemis, whose image fell down to us from heaven.<sup>36</sup> Since this is an undeniable fact, you should stay calm and not do anything rash.<sup>37</sup> You have brought these men here, but they have stolen nothing from the temple and have not spoken against our goddess.

<sup>38</sup>"If Demetrius and the craftsmen have a case against them, the courts are in session and the officials can hear the case at once. Let them make formal charges.<sup>39</sup> And if there are complaints about other matters, they can be settled in a legal assembly.<sup>40</sup> I am afraid we are in danger of being charged with rioting by the Roman government, since there is no cause for all this commotion. And if Rome demands an explanation, we won't know what to say."<sup>41</sup>* Then he dismissed them, and they dispersed.

Paul Goes to Macedonia and Greece

<sup>1</sup> When the uproar was over, Paul sent for the believers* and encouraged them. Then he said good-bye and left for Macedonia. <sup>2</sup>While there, he encouraged the believers in all the towns he passed through. Then he traveled down to Greece, <sup>3</sup>where he stayed for three months. He was preparing to sail back to Syria when he discovered a plot by some Jews against his life, so he decided to return through Macedonia.

<sup>4</sup>Several men were traveling with him. They were Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Berea; Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica; Gaius from Derbe; Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia. <sup>5</sup>They went on ahead and waited for us at Troas. <sup>6</sup>After the Passover* ended, we boarded a ship at Philippi in Macedonia and five days later joined them in Troas, where we stayed a week.

Paul's Final Visit to Troas

<sup>7</sup> On the first day of the week, we gathered with the local believers to share in the Lord's Supper.* Paul was preaching to them, and since he was leaving the next day, he kept talking until midnight. <sup>8</sup>The upstairs room where we met was lighted with many flickering lamps. <sup>9</sup>As Paul spoke on and on, a young man named Eutychus, sitting on the windowsill, became very drowsy. Finally, he fell sound asleep and dropped three stories to his death below. <sup>10</sup>Paul went down, bent over him, and took him into his arms. “Don’t worry,” he said, “he’s alive!” <sup>11</sup>Then they all went back upstairs, shared in the Lord’s Supper, * and ate together. Paul continued talking to them until dawn, and then he left. <sup>12</sup>Meanwhile, the young man was taken home unhurt, and everyone was greatly relieved.

Paul Meets the Ephesian Elders

<sup>13</sup>Paul went by land to Assos, where he had arranged for us to join him, while we traveled by ship. <sup>14</sup>He joined us there, and we sailed together to Mitylene. <sup>15</sup>The next day we sailed past the island of Kios. The following day we crossed to the island of Samos, and * a day later we arrived at Miletus.

<sup>16</sup>Paul had decided to sail on past Ephesus, for he didn’t want to spend any more time in the province of Asia. He was hurrying to get to Jerusalem, if possible, in time for the Festival of Pentecost. <sup>17</sup>But when we landed at Miletus, he sent a message to the elders of the church at Ephesus, asking them to come and meet him.

<sup>18</sup>When they arrived he declared, “You know that from the day I set foot in the province of Asia until now <sup>19</sup>I have done the Lord’s work humbly and with many tears. I have endured the trials that came to me from the plots of the Jews. <sup>20</sup>I never shrank back from telling you what you needed to hear, either publicly or in your homes. <sup>21</sup>I have had one message for Jews and Greeks alike—the necessity of repenting from sin and turning to God, and of having faith in our Lord Jesus.

22 “And now I am bound by the Spirit * to go to Jerusalem. I don't know what awaits me,<sup>23</sup> except that the Holy Spirit tells me in city after city that jail and suffering lie ahead.<sup>24</sup> But my life is worth nothing to me unless I use it for finishing the work assigned me by the Lord Jesus—the work of telling others the Good News about the wonderful grace of God.

<sup>25</sup>“And now I know that none of you to whom I have preached the Kingdom will ever see me again.<sup>26</sup> I declare today that I have been faithful. If anyone suffers eternal death, it's not my fault.*<sup>27</sup> for I didn't shrink from declaring all that God wants you to know.

<sup>28</sup>“So guard yourselves and God's people. Feed and shepherd God's flock—his church, purchased with his own blood*—over which the Holy Spirit has appointed you as elders.*<sup>29</sup> I know that false teachers, like vicious wolves, will come in among you after I leave, not sparing the flock.<sup>30</sup> Even some men from your own group will rise up and distort the truth in order to draw a following.<sup>31</sup> Watch out! Remember the three years I was with you—my constant watch and care over you night and day, and my many tears for you.

<sup>32</sup>“And now I entrust you to God and the message of his grace that is able to build you up and give you an inheritance with all those he has set apart for himself.

<sup>33</sup>“I have never coveted anyone's silver or gold or fine clothes.<sup>34</sup> You know that these hands of mine have worked to supply my own needs and even the needs of those who were with me.<sup>35</sup> And I have been a constant example of how you can help those in need by working hard. You should remember the words of the Lord Jesus: ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

<sup>36</sup>When he had finished speaking, he knelt and prayed with them. <sup>37</sup>They all cried as they embraced and kissed him good-bye. <sup>38</sup>They were sad most of all because he had said that they would never see him again. Then they escorted him down to the ship.

Acts 21

Paul's Journey to Jerusalem

<sup>4</sup>We went ashore, found the local believers,* and stayed with them a week. These believers prophesied through the Holy Spirit that Paul should not go on to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>When we returned to the ship at the end of the week, the entire congregation, including women* and children, left the city and came down to the shore with us. There we knelt, prayed, <sup>6</sup>and said our farewells. Then we went aboard, and they returned home.

<sup>7</sup>The next stop after leaving Tyre was Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and sisters* and stayed for one day. <sup>8</sup>The next day we went on to Caesarea and stayed at the home of Philip the Evangelist, one of the seven men who had been chosen to distribute food. <sup>9</sup>He had four unmarried daughters who had the gift of prophecy.

<sup>10</sup>Several days later a man named Agabus, who also had the gift of prophecy, arrived from Judea. <sup>11</sup>He came over, took Paul's belt, and bound his own feet and hands with it. Then he said, “The Holy Spirit declares, ‘So shall the owner of this belt be bound by the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem and turned over to the Gentiles.’” <sup>12</sup>When we heard this, we and the local believers all begged Paul not to go on to Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>But he said, “Why all this weeping? You are breaking my heart! I am ready not only to be jailed at Jerusalem but even to die for the sake of the Lord Jesus.” <sup>14</sup>When it was clear that we couldn’t persuade him, we gave up and said, “The Lord’s will be done.”

Paul Arrives at Jerusalem

<sup>18</sup>The next day Paul went with us to meet with James, and all the elders of the Jerusalem church were present. <sup>19</sup>After greeting them, Paul gave a detailed account of the things God had accomplished among the Gentiles through his ministry.

<sup>20</sup>After hearing this, they praised God. And then they said, “You know, dear brother, how many thousands of Jews have also believed, and they all follow the law of Moses very seriously. <sup>21</sup>But the Jewish believers here in Jerusalem have been told that you are teaching all the Jews who live among the Gentiles to turn their backs on the laws of Moses. They’ve heard that you teach them not to circumcise their children or follow other Jewish customs. <sup>22</sup>What should we do? They will certainly hear that you have come.

<sup>23</sup>“Here’s what we want you to do. We have four men here who have completed their vow. <sup>24</sup>Go with them to the Temple and join them in the purification ceremony, paying for them to have their heads ritually shaved. Then everyone will know that the rumors are all false and that you yourself observe the Jewish laws.

<sup>25</sup>“As for the Gentile believers, they should do what we already told them in a letter: They should abstain from eating food offered to idols, from consuming blood or the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality.”

Paul Is Arrested

<sup>26</sup>So Paul went to the Temple the next day with the other men. They had already started the purification ritual, so he publicly announced the date when their vows would end and sacrifices would be offered for each of them.

<sup>27</sup>The seven days were almost ended when some Jews from the province of Asia saw Paul in the Temple and roused a mob against him. They grabbed him, <sup>28</sup>yelling, “Men of Israel, help us! This is the man who preaches against our people everywhere and tells everybody to disobey the Jewish laws. He speaks against the Temple—and even defiles this holy place by bringing in Gentiles.*” <sup>29</sup>(For earlier that day they had seen him in the city with Trophimus, a Gentile from Ephesus,* and they assumed Paul had taken him into the Temple.)

Temple, and immediately the gates were closed behind him. <sup>31</sup>As they were trying to kill him, word reached the commander of the Roman regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. <sup>32</sup>He immediately called out his soldiers and officers* and ran down among the crowd. When the mob saw the commander and the troops coming, they stopped beating Paul.

<sup>33</sup>Then the commander arrested him and ordered him bound with two chains. He asked the crowd who he was and what he had done. <sup>34</sup>Some shouted one thing and some another. Since he couldn't find out the truth in all the uproar and confusion, he ordered that Paul be taken to the fortress. <sup>35</sup>As Paul reached the stairs, the mob grew so violent the soldiers had to lift him to their shoulders to protect him. <sup>36</sup>And the crowd followed behind, shouting, "Kill him, kill him!"

Paul Speaks to the Crowd

<sup>37</sup>As Paul was about to be taken inside, he said to the commander, "May I have a word with you?"

"Do you know Greek?" the commander asked, surprised. <sup>38</sup>"Aren't you the Egyptian who led a rebellion some time ago and took 4,000 members of the Assassins out into the desert?"

<sup>39</sup>"No," Paul replied, "I am a Jew and a citizen of Tarsus in Cilicia, which is an important city. Please, let me talk to these people." <sup>40</sup>The commander agreed, so Paul stood on the stairs and motioned to the people to be quiet. Soon a deep silence enveloped the crowd, and he addressed them in their own language, Aramaic.*

Acts 22

<sup>1</sup> “Brothers and esteemed fathers,” Paul said, “listen to me as I offer my defense.” <sup>2</sup>When they heard him speaking in their own language,* the silence was even greater.

<sup>3</sup>Then Paul said, “I am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, and I was brought up and educated here in Jerusalem under Gamaliel. As his student, I was carefully trained in our Jewish laws and customs. I became very zealous to honor God in everything I did, just like all of you today. <sup>4</sup>And I persecuted the followers of the Way, hounding some to death, arresting both men and women and throwing them in prison. <sup>5</sup>The high priest and the whole council of elders can testify that this is so. For I received letters from them to our Jewish brothers in Damascus, authorizing me to bring the Christians from there to Jerusalem, in chains, to be punished.

<sup>6</sup>“As I was on the road, approaching Damascus about noon, a very bright light from heaven suddenly shone down around me. <sup>7</sup>I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’

“And the voice replied, ‘I am Jesus the Nazarene,* the one you are persecuting.’ <sup>9</sup>The people with me saw the light but didn’t understand the voice speaking to me.

<sup>10</sup>“I asked, ‘What should I do, Lord?’

“And the Lord told me, ‘Get up and go into Damascus, and there you will be told everything you are to do.’

<sup>11</sup>“I was blinded by the intense light and had to be led by the hand to Damascus by my companions. <sup>12</sup>A man named Ananias lived there. He was a godly man, deeply devoted to the law, and well regarded by all the Jews of Damascus. <sup>13</sup>He came and stood beside me and said, ‘Brother Saul, regain your sight.’ And that very moment I could see him!

<sup>14</sup>“Then he told me, ‘The God of our ancestors has chosen you to know his will and to see the Righteous One and hear him speak. <sup>15</sup>For you are to be his witness, telling everyone what you have seen and heard. <sup>16</sup>What are you waiting for? Get up and be baptized. Have your sins washed away by calling on the name of the Lord.’

<sup>17</sup>“After I returned to Jerusalem, I was praying in the Temple and fell into a trance. <sup>18</sup>I saw a vision of Jesus* saying to me, ‘Hurry! Leave Jerusalem, for the people here won’t accept your testimony about me.’

<sup>19</sup>“‘But Lord,’ I argued, ‘they certainly know that in every synagogue I imprisoned and beat those who believed in you. <sup>20</sup>And I was in complete agreement when your witness Stephen was killed. I stood by and kept the coats they took off when they stoned him.’

<sup>21</sup>“‘But the Lord said to me, ‘Go, for I will send you far away to the Gentiles!’”

<sup>22</sup>The crowd listened until Paul said that word. Then they all began to shout, “Away with such a fellow! He isn’t fit to live!” <sup>23</sup>They yelled, threw off their coats, and tossed handfuls of dust into the air.

Paul Reveals His Roman Citizenship

<sup>24</sup>The commander brought Paul inside and ordered him lashed with whips to make him confess his crime. He wanted to find out why the crowd had become so furious. <sup>25</sup>When they tied Paul down to lash him, Paul said to the officer* standing there, “Is it legal for you to whip a Roman citizen who hasn’t even been tried?”

<sup>26</sup>When the officer heard this, he went to the commander and asked, “What are you doing? This man is a Roman citizen!”

<sup>27</sup>So the commander went over and asked Paul, “Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?”

“Yes, I certainly am,” Paul replied.

<sup>28</sup>“I am, too,” the commander muttered, “and it cost me plenty!”

Paul answered, “But I am a citizen by birth!”

<sup>29</sup>The soldiers who were about to interrogate Paul quickly withdrew when they heard he was a Roman citizen, and the commander was frightened because he had ordered him bound and whipped.

Paul before the High Council

<sup>30</sup>The next day the commander ordered the leading priests into session with the Jewish high council.* He wanted to find out what the trouble was all about, so he released Paul to have him stand before them.

<sup>2</sup>Instantly Ananias the high priest commanded those close to Paul to slap him on the mouth. <sup>3</sup>But Paul said to him, “God will slap you, you corrupt hypocrite!*_ What kind of judge are you to break the law yourself by ordering me struck like that?”

<sup>5</sup>“I’m sorry, brothers. I didn’t realize he was the high priest,” Paul replied, “for the Scriptures say, ‘You must not speak evil of any of your rulers.’*_”

<sup>6</sup>Paul realized that some members of the high council were Sadducees and some were Pharisees, so he shouted, “Brothers, I am a Pharisee, as were my ancestors! And I am on trial because my hope is in the resurrection of the dead!”

<sup>7</sup>This divided the council—the Pharisees against the Sadducees—<sup>8</sup>for the Sadducees say there is no resurrection or angels or spirits, but the Pharisees believe in all of these. <sup>9</sup>So there was a great uproar. Some of the teachers of religious law who were Pharisees jumped up and began to argue forcefully. “We see nothing wrong with him,” they shouted. “Perhaps a spirit or an angel spoke to him.” <sup>10</sup>As the conflict grew more violent, the commander was afraid they would tear Paul apart. So he ordered his soldiers to go and rescue him by force and take him back to the fortress.

<sup>11</sup>That night the Lord appeared to Paul and said, “Be encouraged, Paul. Just as you have been a witness to me here in Jerusalem, you must preach the Good News in Rome as well.”

The Plan to Kill Paul

<sup>12</sup>The next morning a group of Jews* got together and bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul. <sup>13</sup>There were more than forty of them in the conspiracy. <sup>14</sup>They went to the leading priests and elders and told them, “We have bound ourselves with an oath to eat nothing until we have killed Paul. <sup>15</sup>So you and the high council should ask the commander to bring Paul back to the council again. Pretend you want to examine his case more fully. We will kill him on the way.”

<sup>16</sup>But Paul’s nephew—his sister’s son—heard of their plan and went to the fortress and told Paul. <sup>17</sup>Paul called for one of the Roman officers* and said, “Take this young man to the commander. He has something important to tell him.”

<sup>18</sup>So the officer did, explaining, “Paul, the prisoner, called me over and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you.”

<sup>19</sup>The commander took his hand, led him aside, and asked, “What is it you want to tell me?”

<sup>20</sup>Paul’s nephew told him, “Some Jews are going to ask you to bring Paul before the high council tomorrow, pretending they want to get some more information. <sup>21</sup>But don’t do it! There are more than forty men hiding along the way ready to ambush him. They have vowed not to eat or drink anything until they have killed him. They are ready now, just waiting for your consent.”

Paul Is Sent to Caesarea

<sup>23</sup>Then the commander called two of his officers and ordered, “Get 200 soldiers ready to leave for Caesarea at nine o’clock tonight. Also take 200 spearmen and 70 mounted troops.

<sup>27</sup>“This man was seized by some Jews, and they were about to kill him when I arrived with the troops. When I learned that he was a Roman citizen, I removed him to safety. <sup>28</sup>Then I took him to their high council to try to learn the basis of the accusations against him. <sup>29</sup>I soon discovered the charge was something regarding their religious law—certainly nothing worthy of imprisonment or death. <sup>30</sup>But when I was informed of a plot to kill him, I immediately sent him on to you. I have told his accusers to bring their charges before you.”

<sup>31</sup>So that night, as ordered, the soldiers took Paul as far as Antipatris. <sup>32</sup>They returned to the fortress the next morning, while the mounted troops took him on to Caesarea.<sup>33</sup> When they arrived in Caesarea, they presented Paul and the letter to Governor Felix.<sup>34</sup> He read it and then asked Paul what province he was from. “Cilicia,” Paul answered.

<sup>35</sup>“I will hear your case myself when your accusers arrive,” the governor told him. Then the governor ordered him kept in the prison at Herod’s headquarters.*

Acts 24

Paul Appears before Felix

“You have provided a long period of peace for us Jews and with foresight have enacted reforms for us. <sup>3</sup>For all of this, Your Excellency, we are very grateful to you. <sup>4</sup>But I don’t want to bore you, so please give me your attention for only a moment. <sup>5</sup>We have found this man to be a troublemaker who is constantly stirring up riots among the Jews all over the world. He is a ringleader of the cult known as the Nazarenes. <sup>6</sup>Furthermore, he was trying to desecrate the Temple when we arrested him.* <sup>8</sup>You can find out the truth of our accusations by examining him yourself.” <sup>9</sup>Then the other Jews chimed in, declaring that everything Tertullus said was true.

<sup>10</sup>The governor then motioned for Paul to speak. Paul said, “I know, sir, that you have been a judge of Jewish affairs for many years, so I gladly present my defense before you. <sup>11</sup>You can quickly discover that I arrived in Jerusalem no more than twelve days ago to worship at the Temple. <sup>12</sup>My accusers never found me arguing with anyone in the Temple, nor stirring up a riot in any synagogue or on the streets of the city. <sup>13</sup>These men cannot prove the things they accuse me of doing.

<sup>14</sup>“But I admit that I follow the Way, which they call a cult. I worship the God of our ancestors, and I firmly believe the Jewish law and everything written in the prophets. <sup>15</sup>I have the same hope in God that these men have, that he will raise both the righteous and the unrighteous. <sup>16</sup>Because of this, I always try to maintain a clear conscience before God and all people.

<sup>17</sup>“After several years away, I returned to Jerusalem with money to aid my people and to offer sacrifices to God. <sup>18</sup>My accusers saw me in the Temple as I was completing a purification ceremony. There was no crowd around me and no rioting. <sup>19</sup>But some Jews from the province of Asia were there—and they ought to be here to bring charges if they have anything against me! <sup>20</sup>Ask these men here what crime the Jewish high council* found me guilty of, <sup>21</sup>except for the one time I shouted out, ‘I am on trial before you today because I believe in the resurrection of the dead!’”

<sup>22</sup>At that point Felix, who was quite familiar with the Way, adjourned the hearing and said, “Wait until Lysias, the garrison commander, arrives. Then I will decide the case.” <sup>23</sup>He ordered an officer* to keep Paul in custody but to give him some freedom and allow his friends to visit him and take care of his needs.

<sup>24</sup>A few days later Felix came back with his wife, Drusilla, who was Jewish. Sending for Paul, they listened as he told them about faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>25</sup>As he reasoned with them about righteousness and self-control and the coming day of judgment, Felix became frightened. “Go away for now,” he replied. “When it is more convenient, I’ll call for you again.” <sup>26</sup>

He also hoped that Paul would bribe him, so he sent for him quite often and talked with him.

<sup>27</sup>After two years went by in this way, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus. And because Felix wanted to gain favor with the Jewish people, he left Paul in prison.

Acts 25

Paul Appears before Festus

<sup>6</sup>About eight or ten days later Festus returned to Caesarea, and on the following day he took his seat in court and ordered that Paul be brought in. <sup>7</sup>When Paul arrived, the Jewish leaders from Jerusalem gathered around and made many serious accusations they couldn’t prove.

<sup>8</sup>Paul denied the charges. “I am not guilty of any crime against the Jewish laws or the Temple or the Roman government,” he said.

<sup>9</sup>Then Festus, wanting to please the Jews, asked him, “Are you willing to go to Jerusalem and stand trial before me there?”

<sup>10</sup>But Paul replied, “No! This is the official Roman court, so I ought to be tried right here. You know very well I am not guilty of harming the Jews. <sup>11</sup>If I have done something worthy of death, I don’t refuse to die. But if I am innocent, no one has a right to turn me over to these men to kill me. I appeal to Caesar!”

<sup>12</sup>Festus conferred with his advisers and then replied, “Very well! You have appealed to Caesar, and to Caesar you will go!”

<sup>17</sup>“When his accusers came here for the trial, I didn’t delay. I called the case the very next day and ordered Paul brought in.

<sup>18</sup>But the accusations made against him weren’t any of the crimes I expected. <sup>19</sup>Instead, it was something about their religion and a dead man named Jesus, who Paul insists is alive.

<sup>20</sup>I was at a loss to know how to investigate these things, so I asked him whether he would be willing to stand trial on these charges in Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>But Paul appealed to have his case decided by the emperor. So I ordered that he be held in custody until I could arrange to send him to Caesar.”

And Festus replied, “You will—tomorrow!”

Paul Speaks to Agrippa

with great pomp, accompanied by military officers and prominent men of the city. Festus ordered that Paul be brought in.<sup>24</sup> Then Festus said, “King Agrippa and all who are here, this is the man whose death is demanded by all the Jews, both here and in Jerusalem.<sup>25</sup> But in my opinion he has done nothing deserving death. However, since he appealed his case to the emperor, I have decided to send him to Rome.

<sup>26</sup>“But what shall I write the emperor? For there is no clear charge against him. So I have brought him before all of you, and especially you, King Agrippa, so that after we examine him, I might have something to write.<sup>27</sup> For it makes no sense to send a prisoner to the emperor without specifying the charges against him!”

So Paul, gesturing with his hand, started his defense: <sup>2</sup>“I am fortunate, King Agrippa, that you are the one hearing my defense today against all these accusations made by the Jewish leaders, <sup>3</sup>for I know you are an expert on all Jewish customs and controversies. Now please listen to me patiently!

<sup>4</sup>“As the Jewish leaders are well aware, I was given a thorough Jewish training from my earliest childhood among my own people and in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>If they would admit it, they know that I have been a member of the Pharisees, the strictest sect of our religion. <sup>6</sup>Now I am on trial because of my hope in the fulfillment of God’s promise made to our ancestors. <sup>7</sup>In fact, that is why the twelve tribes of Israel zealously worship God night and day, and they share the same hope I have. Yet, Your Majesty, they accuse me for having this hope! <sup>8</sup>Why does it seem incredible to any of you that God can raise the dead?

<sup>9</sup>“I used to believe that I ought to do everything I could to oppose the very name of Jesus the Nazarene.* <sup>10</sup>Indeed, I did just that in Jerusalem. Authorized by the leading priests, I caused many believers* there to be sent to prison. And I cast my vote against them when they were condemned to death. <sup>11</sup>Many times I had them punished in the synagogues to get them to curse Jesus.* I was so violently opposed to them that I even chased them down in foreign cities.

the authority and commission of the leading priests. <sup>13</sup>About noon, Your Majesty, as I was on the road, a light from heaven brighter than the sun shone down on me and my companions. <sup>14</sup>We all fell down, and I heard a voice saying to me in Aramaic, * ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is useless for you to fight against my will.*’

“And the Lord replied, ‘I am Jesus, the one you are persecuting. <sup>16</sup>Now get to your feet! For I have appeared to you to appoint you as my servant and witness. You are to tell the world what you have seen and what I will show you in the future. <sup>17</sup>And I will rescue you from both your own people and the Gentiles. Yes, I am sending you to the Gentiles <sup>18</sup>to open their eyes, so they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God. Then they will receive forgiveness for their sins and be given a place among God’s people, who are set apart by faith in me.’

<sup>19</sup>“And so, King Agrippa, I obeyed that vision from heaven. <sup>20</sup>I preached first to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem and throughout all Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that all must repent of their sins and turn to God—and prove they have changed by the good things they do. <sup>21</sup>Some Jews arrested me in the Temple for preaching this, and they tried to kill me. <sup>22</sup>But God has protected me right up to this present time so I can testify to everyone, from the least to the greatest. I teach nothing except what the prophets and Moses said would happen—<sup>23</sup>that the Messiah would suffer and be the first to rise from the dead, and in this way announce God’s light to

<sup>24</sup> Suddenly, Festus shouted, “Paul, you are insane. Too much study has made you crazy!”

<sup>25</sup> But Paul replied, “I am not insane, Most Excellent Festus. What I am saying is the sober truth. <sup>26</sup> And King Agrippa knows about these things. I speak boldly, for I am sure these events are all familiar to him, for they were not done in a corner! <sup>27</sup> King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you do ___”

<sup>29</sup> Paul replied, “Whether quickly or not, I pray to God that both you and everyone here in this audience might become the same as I am, except for these chains.”

<sup>32</sup> And Agrippa said to Festus, “He could have been set free if he hadn’t appealed to Caesar.”

Acts 27

Paul Sails for Rome

<sup>1</sup> When the time came, we set sail for Italy. Paul and several other prisoners were placed in the custody of a Roman officer* named Julius, a captain of the Imperial Regiment. <sup>2</sup>Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, was also with us. We left on a ship whose home port was Adramyttium on the northwest coast of the province of Asia;* it was scheduled to make several stops at ports along the coast of the province.

<sup>3</sup>The next day when we docked at Sidon, Julius was very kind to Paul and let him go ashore to visit with friends so they could provide for his needs. <sup>4</sup>Putting out to sea from there, we encountered strong headwinds that made it difficult to keep the ship on course, so we sailed north of Cyprus between the island and the mainland. <sup>5</sup>Keeping to the open sea, we passed along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, landing at Myra, in the province of Lycia. <sup>6</sup>There the commanding officer found an Egyptian ship from Alexandria that was bound for Italy, and he put us on board.

<sup>7</sup>We had several days of slow sailing, and after great difficulty we finally neared Cnidus. But the wind was against us, so we sailed across to Crete and along the sheltered coast of the island, past the cape of Salmone. <sup>8</sup>We struggled along the coast with great difficulty and finally arrived at Fair Havens, near the town of Lasea. <sup>9</sup>We had lost a lot of time. The weather was becoming dangerous for sea travel because it was so late in the fall,* and Paul spoke to the ship's officers about it.

<sup>10</sup>“Men,” he said, “I believe there is trouble ahead if we go on—shipwreck, loss of cargo, and danger to our lives as well.”

<sup>11</sup>But the officer in charge of the prisoners listened more to the ship's captain and the owner than to Paul. <sup>12</sup>And since Fair Havens was an exposed harbor—a poor place to spend the winter—most of the crew wanted to go on to Phoenix, farther up the coast of Crete, and spend the winter there. Phoenix was a good harbor with only a southwest and northwest exposure.

The Storm at Sea

<sup>13</sup>When a light wind began blowing from the south, the sailors thought they could make it. So they pulled up anchor and sailed close to the shore of Crete. <sup>14</sup>But the weather changed abruptly, and a wind of typhoon strength (called a “northeaster”) burst across the island and blew us out to sea. <sup>15</sup>The sailors couldn't turn the ship into the wind, so they gave up and let it run before the gale.

<sup>16</sup>We sailed along the sheltered side of a small island named Cauda,* where with great difficulty we hoisted aboard the lifeboat being towed behind us. <sup>17</sup>Then the sailors bound ropes around the hull of the ship to strengthen it. They were afraid of being driven across to the sandbars of Syrtis off the African coast, so they lowered the sea anchor to slow the ship and were driven before the wind.

ship, the crew began throwing the cargo overboard.<sup>19</sup>The following day they even took some of the ship's gear and threw it overboard.<sup>20</sup>The terrible storm raged for many days, blotting out the sun and the stars, until at last all hope was gone.

<sup>21</sup>No one had eaten for a long time. Finally, Paul called the crew together and said, "Men, you should have listened to me in the first place and not left Crete. You would have avoided all this damage and loss."<sup>22</sup>But take courage! None of you will lose your lives, even though the ship will go down.<sup>23</sup>For last night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood beside me,<sup>24</sup>and he said, 'Don't be afraid, Paul, for you will surely stand trial before Caesar! What's more, God in his goodness has granted safety to everyone sailing with you.'<sup>25</sup>So take courage! For I believe God. It will be just as he said.<sup>26</sup>But we will be shipwrecked on an island."

The Shipwreck

<sup>27</sup>About midnight on the fourteenth night of the storm, as we were being driven across the Sea of Adria,* the sailors sensed land was near.<sup>28</sup>They dropped a weighted line and found that the water was 120 feet deep. But a little later they measured again and found it was only 90 feet deep.*<sup>29</sup>At this rate they were afraid we would soon be driven against the rocks along the shore, so they threw out four anchors from the back of the ship and prayed for daylight.

<sup>30</sup>Then the sailors tried to abandon the ship; they lowered the lifeboat as though they were going to put out anchors from the front of the ship. <sup>31</sup>But Paul said to the commanding officer and the soldiers, “You will all die unless the sailors stay aboard.” <sup>32</sup>So the soldiers cut the ropes to the lifeboat and let it drift away.

<sup>33</sup>Just as day was dawning, Paul urged everyone to eat. “You have been so worried that you haven’t touched food for two weeks,” he said. <sup>34</sup>“Please eat something now for your own good. For not a hair of your heads will perish.” <sup>35</sup>Then he took some bread, gave thanks to God before them all, and broke off a piece and ate it. <sup>36</sup>Then everyone was encouraged and began to eat—<sup>37</sup>all 276 of us who were on board. <sup>38</sup>After eating, the crew lightened the ship further by throwing the cargo of wheat overboard.

<sup>39</sup>When morning dawned, they didn’t recognize the coastline, but they saw a bay with a beach and wondered if they could get to shore by running the ship aground. <sup>40</sup>So they cut off the anchors and left them in the sea. Then they lowered the rudders, raised the foresail, and headed toward shore. <sup>41</sup>But they hit a shoal and ran the ship aground too soon. The bow of the ship stuck fast, while the stern was repeatedly smashed by the force of the waves and began to break apart.

<sup>42</sup>The soldiers wanted to kill the prisoners to make sure they didn’t swim ashore and escape. <sup>43</sup>But the commanding officer wanted to spare Paul, so he didn’t let them carry out their plan. Then he ordered all who could swim to jump overboard first and make for land. <sup>44</sup>The others held on to planks or debris from the broken ship. * So everyone escaped safely to shore.

Acts 28

Paul on the Island of Malta

<sup>1</sup> Once we were safe on shore, we learned that we were on the island of Malta. <sup>2</sup>The people of the island were very kind to us. It was cold and rainy, so they built a fire on the shore to welcome us.

<sup>3</sup>As Paul gathered an armful of sticks and was laying them on the fire, a poisonous snake, driven out by the heat, bit him on the hand. <sup>4</sup>The people of the island saw it hanging from his hand and said to each other, “A murderer, no doubt! Though he escaped the sea, justice will not permit him to live.” <sup>5</sup>But Paul shook off the snake into the fire and was unharmed. <sup>6</sup>The people waited for him to swell up or suddenly drop dead. But when they had waited a long time and saw that he wasn’t harmed, they changed their minds and decided he was a god.

<sup>7</sup>Near the shore where we landed was an estate belonging to Publius, the chief official of the island. He welcomed us and treated us kindly for three days. <sup>8</sup>As it happened, Publius’s father was ill with fever and dysentery. Paul went in and prayed for him, and laying his hands on him, he healed him. <sup>9</sup>Then all the other sick people on the island came and were healed. <sup>10</sup>As a result we were showered with honors, and when the time came to sail, people supplied us with everything we would need for the trip.

HEALING FOR WHOM?

Christians frequently asked God to heal their physical problems—and they should (see James 5:14-16). But in the days of the early church, healing often played an evangelistic role, getting the attention of unbelievers.

Paul Arrives at Rome

<sup>11</sup>It was three months after the shipwreck that we set sail on another ship that had wintered at the island—an Alexandrian ship with the twin gods* as its figurehead. <sup>12</sup>Our first stop was Syracuse,* where we stayed three days. <sup>13</sup>From there we sailed across to Rhegium.* A day later a south wind began blowing, so the following day we sailed up the coast to Puteoli. <sup>14</sup>There we found some believers,* who invited us to spend a week with them. And so we came to Rome.

<sup>15</sup>The brothers and sisters* in Rome had heard we were coming, and they came to meet us at the Forum* on the Appian Way. Others joined us at The Three Taverns. * When Paul saw them, he was encouraged and thanked God.

<sup>16</sup>When we arrived in Rome, Paul was permitted to have his own private lodging, though he was guarded by a soldier.

Paul Preaches at Rome under Guard

<sup>23</sup>So a time was set, and on that day a large number of people came to Paul's lodging. He explained and testified about the Kingdom of God and tried to persuade them about Jesus from the Scriptures. Using the law of Moses and the books of the prophets, he spoke to them from morning until evening. <sup>24</sup>Some were persuaded by the things he said, but others did not believe. <sup>25</sup>And after they had argued back and forth among themselves, they left with this final word from Paul: "The Holy Spirit was right when he said to your ancestors through Isaiah the prophet,

When you hear what I say,
you will not understand.

When you see what I do,
you will not comprehend.

<sup>27</sup>For the hearts of these people are hardened, and their ears cannot hear,
and they have closed their eyes—
so their eyes cannot see,
and their ears cannot hear,
and their hearts cannot understand,
and they cannot turn to me
and let me heal them."*

<sup>28</sup>So I want you to know that this salvation from God has also been offered to the Gentiles, and they will accept it."*

expense.* He welcomed all who visited him,<sup>31</sup> boldly proclaiming the Kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ. And no one tried to stop him.

WORTH MEMORIZING

3:23-24

Everyone has sinned; we all fall short of God's glorious standard. Yet God, with undeserved kindness, declares that we are righteous. He did this through Christ Jesus when he freed us from the penalty for our sins.

6:23

The wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life through Christ Jesus our Lord.

8:28

God causes everything to work together for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose for them.

8:38-39

I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow—not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. No power in the sky above or in the earth below—indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord.

10:9-10

If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For it is by believing in your heart that you are made right with God, and it is by confessing with your mouth that you are saved.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

JUSTIFICATION.

What's the real score with God? Where do you and I stand? Will we make heaven, or not? This book lays out all the facts on what it takes to be acceptable to a holy God.

Romans 1

Greetings from Paul

<sup>6</sup>And you are included among those Gentiles who have been called to belong to Jesus Christ. <sup>7</sup>I am writing to all of you in Rome who are loved by God and are called to be his own holy people.

May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

God's Good News

<sup>8</sup>Let me say first that I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith in him is being talked about all over the world. <sup>9</sup>God knows how often I pray for you. Day and night I bring you and your needs in prayer to God, whom I serve with all my heart* by spreading the Good News about his Son.

<sup>10</sup>One of the things I always pray for is the opportunity, God willing, to come at last to see you. <sup>11</sup>For I long to visit you so I can bring you some spiritual gift that will help you grow strong in the Lord. <sup>12</sup>When we get together, I want to encourage you in your faith, but I also want to be encouraged by yours.

<sup>13</sup>I want you to know, dear brothers and sisters,* that I planned many times to visit you, but I was prevented until now. I want to work among you and see spiritual fruit, just as I have seen among other Gentiles. <sup>14</sup>For I have a great sense of obligation to people in both the civilized world and the rest of the world,* to the educated and uneducated alike. <sup>15</sup>So I am eager to come to you in Rome, too, to preach the Good News.

<sup>16</sup>For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes—the Jew first and also the Gentile.* <sup>17</sup>This Good News tells us how God makes us right in his sight. This is accomplished from start to finish by faith. As the Scriptures say, “It is through faith that a righteous person has life.”*

God's Anger at Sin

<sup>19</sup>They know the truth about God because he has made it obvious to them. <sup>20</sup>For ever since the world was created, people have seen the earth and sky. Through everything God made, they can clearly see his invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature. So they have no excuse for not knowing God.

<sup>21</sup>Yes, they knew God, but they wouldn't worship him as God or even give him thanks. And they began to think up foolish ideas of what God was like. As a result, their minds became dark and confused. <sup>22</sup>Claiming to be wise, they instead became utter fools. <sup>23</sup>And instead of worshiping the glorious, ever-living God, they worshiped idols made to look like mere people and birds and animals and reptiles.

<sup>24</sup>So God abandoned them to do whatever shameful things their hearts desired. As a result, they did vile and degrading things with each other's bodies. <sup>25</sup>They traded the truth about God for a lie. So they worshiped and served the things God created instead of the Creator himself, who is worthy of eternal praise! Amen. <sup>26</sup>That is why God abandoned them to their shameful desires. Even the women turned against the natural way to have sex and instead indulged in sex with each other. <sup>27</sup>And the men, instead of having normal sexual relations with women, burned with lust for each other. Men did shameful things with other men, and as a result of this sin, they suffered within themselves the penalty they deserved.

<sup>28</sup>Since they thought it foolish to acknowledge God, he abandoned them to their foolish thinking and let them do things that should never be done. <sup>29</sup>Their lives became full of every kind of wickedness, sin, greed, hate, envy, murder, quarreling, deception, malicious behavior, and gossip. <sup>30</sup>They are backstabbers, haters of God, insolent, proud, and boastful. They invent new ways of sinning, and they disobey their parents. <sup>31</sup>They refuse to understand, break their promises, are heartless, and have no mercy. <sup>32</sup>They know God's justice requires that those who do these things deserve to die, yet they do them anyway. Worse yet, they encourage others to do them, too.

Romans 2

God's Judgment of Sin

<sup>1</sup> You may think you can condemn such people, but you are just as bad, and you have no excuse! When you say they are wicked and should be punished, you are condemning yourself, for you who judge others do these very same things. <sup>2</sup>And we know that God, in his justice, will punish anyone who does such things. <sup>3</sup>Since you judge others for doing these things, why do you think you can avoid God's judgment when you do the same things? <sup>4</sup>Don't you see how wonderfully kind, tolerant, and patient God is with you? Does this mean nothing to you? Can't you see that his kindness is intended to turn you from your sin?

<sup>5</sup>But because you are stubborn and refuse to turn from your sin, you are storing up terrible punishment for yourself. For a day of anger is coming, when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. <sup>6</sup>He will judge everyone according to what they have done. <sup>7</sup>He will give eternal life to those who keep on doing good, seeking after the glory and honor and immortality that God offers. <sup>8</sup>But he will pour out his anger and wrath on those who live for themselves, who refuse to obey the truth and instead live lives of wickedness. <sup>9</sup>There will be trouble and calamity for everyone who keeps on doing what is evil—for the Jew first and also for the Gentile.* <sup>10</sup>But there will be glory and honor and peace from God for all who do good—for the Jew first and also for the Gentile. <sup>11</sup>For God does not show favoritism.

<sup>12</sup>When the Gentiles sin, they will be destroyed, even though they never had God's written law. And the Jews, who do have God's law, will be judged by that law when they fail to obey it.

<sup>13</sup>For merely listening to the law doesn't make us right with God. It is obeying the law that makes us right in his sight.

<sup>14</sup>Even Gentiles, who do not have God's written law, show that they know his law when they instinctively obey it, even without having heard it. <sup>15</sup>They demonstrate that God's law is written in their hearts, for their own conscience and thoughts either accuse them or tell them they are doing right. <sup>16</sup>And this is the message I proclaim—that the day is coming when God, through Christ Jesus, will judge everyone's secret life.

The Jews and the Law

<sup>17</sup>You who call yourselves Jews are relying on God's law, and you boast about your special relationship with him. <sup>18</sup>You know what he wants; you know what is right because you have been taught his law. <sup>19</sup>You are convinced that you are a guide for the blind and a light for people who are lost in darkness. <sup>20</sup>You think you can instruct the ignorant and teach children the ways of God. For you are certain that God's law gives you complete knowledge and truth.

<sup>21</sup>Well then, if you teach others, why don't you teach yourself? You tell others not to steal, but do you steal? <sup>22</sup>You say it is wrong to commit adultery, but do you commit adultery? You condemn idolatry, but do you use items stolen from pagan temples? *<sup>23</sup> You are so proud of knowing the law, but you dishonor God by breaking it.<sup>24</sup> No wonder the Scriptures say, “The Gentiles blaspheme the name of God because of you.” *

<sup>25</sup> The Jewish ceremony of circumcision has value only if you obey God’s law. But if you don’t obey God’s law, you are no better off than an uncircumcised Gentile.<sup>26</sup> And if the Gentiles obey God’s law, won’t God declare them to be his own people?<sup>27</sup> In fact, uncircumcised Gentiles who keep God’s law will condemn you Jews who are circumcised and possess God’s law but don’t obey it.

<sup>28</sup> For you are not a true Jew just because you were born of Jewish parents or because you have gone through the ceremony of circumcision.<sup>29</sup> No, a true Jew is one whose heart is right with God. And true circumcision is not merely obeying the letter of the law; rather, it is a change of heart produced by God’s Spirit. And a person with a changed heart seeks praise * from God, not from people.

Romans 3

God Remains Faithful

<sup>1</sup>Then what's the advantage of being a Jew? Is there any value in the ceremony of circumcision? <sup>2</sup>Yes, there are great benefits! First of all, the Jews were entrusted with the whole revelation of God.*

<sup>3</sup>True, some of them were unfaithful; but just because they were unfaithful, does that mean God will be unfaithful? <sup>4</sup>Of course not! Even if everyone else is a liar, God is true. As the Scriptures say about him,

“You will be proved right in what you say, and you will win your case in court.”*

<sup>5</sup>“But,” some might say, “our sinfulness serves a good purpose, for it helps people see how righteous God is. Isn't it unfair, then, for him to punish us?” (This is merely a human point of view.) <sup>6</sup>Of course not! If God were not entirely fair, how would he be qualified to judge the world? <sup>7</sup>“But,” someone might still argue, “how can God condemn me as a sinner if my dishonesty highlights his truthfulness and brings him more glory?” <sup>8</sup>And some people even slander us by claiming that we say, “The more we sin, the better it is!” Those who say such things deserve to be condemned.

All People Are Sinners

<sup>9</sup> Well then, should we conclude that we Jews are better than others? No, not at all, for we have already shown that all people, whether Jews or Gentiles, * are under the power of sin.

<sup>10</sup>As the Scriptures say,

“No one is righteous—not even one.

<sup>11</sup>No one is truly wise;
no one is seeking God.

<sup>12</sup>All have turned away;
all have become useless.

No one does good,
not a single one.”*

<sup>13</sup>“Their talk is foul, like the stench from an open grave.
Their tongues are filled with lies.”

<sup>19</sup>Obviously, the law applies to those to whom it was given, for its purpose is to keep people from having excuses, and to show that the entire world is guilty before God. <sup>20</sup>For no one can ever be made right with God by doing what the law commands. The law simply shows us how sinful we are.

Christ Took Our Punishment

<sup>21</sup> But now God has shown us a way to be made right with him without keeping the requirements of the law, as was promised in the writings of Moses* and the prophets long ago. <sup>22</sup>We are made right with God by placing our faith in Jesus Christ. And this is true for everyone who believes, no matter who we are.

<sup>23</sup>For everyone has sinned; we all fall short of God's glorious standard. <sup>24</sup>Yet God, with undeserved kindness, declares that we are righteous. He did this through Christ Jesus when he freed us from the penalty for our sins. <sup>25</sup>For God presented Jesus as the sacrifice for sin. People are made right with God when they believe that Jesus sacrificed his life, shedding his blood. This sacrifice shows that God was being fair when he held back and did not punish those who sinned in times past, <sup>26</sup>for he was looking ahead and including them in what he would do in this present time. God did this to demonstrate his righteousness, for he himself is fair and just, and he declares sinners to be right in his sight when they believe in Jesus.

<sup>27</sup> Can we boast, then, that we have done anything to be accepted by God? No, because our acquittal is not based on obeying the law. It is based on faith. <sup>28</sup>So we are made right with God through faith and not by obeying the law.

<sup>29</sup>After all, is God the God of the Jews only? Isn't he also the God of the Gentiles? Of course he is. <sup>30</sup>There is only one God, and he makes people right with himself only by faith, whether they are Jews or Gentiles.* <sup>31</sup>Well then, if we emphasize faith, does this mean that we can forget about the law? Of course not! In fact, only when we have faith do we truly fulfill the law.

Romans 4

The Faith of Abraham

<sup>1</sup> Abraham was, humanly speaking, the founder of our Jewish nation. What did he discover about being made right with God? <sup>2</sup>If his good deeds had made him acceptable to God, he would have had something to boast about. But that was not God's way. <sup>3</sup>For the Scriptures tell us, "Abraham believed God, and God counted him as righteous because of his faith."*

<sup>4</sup>When people work, their wages are not a gift, but something they have earned. <sup>5</sup>But people are counted as righteous, not because of their work, but because of their faith in God who forgives sinners. <sup>6</sup>David also spoke of this when he described the happiness of those who are declared righteous without working for it:

<sup>7</sup>"Oh, what joy for those whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sins are put out of sight.

<sup>8</sup>Yes, what joy for those whose record the LORD has cleared of sin."*

<sup>9</sup>Now, is this blessing only for the Jews, or is it also for uncircumcised Gentiles?* Well, we have been saying that Abraham was counted as righteous by God because of his faith. <sup>10</sup>But how did this happen? Was he counted as righteous only after he was circumcised, or was it before he was circumcised? Clearly, God accepted Abraham before he was circumcised!

<sup>11</sup>Circumcision was a sign that Abraham already had faith and that God had already accepted him and declared him to be righteous—even before he was circumcised. So Abraham is the spiritual father of those who have faith but have not been circumcised. They are counted as righteous because of their faith. <sup>12</sup>And Abraham is also the spiritual father of those who have been circumcised, but only if they have the same kind of faith Abraham had before he was circumcised.

<sup>13</sup>Clearly, God's promise to give the whole earth to Abraham and his descendants was based not on his obedience to God's law, but on a right relationship with God that comes by faith.

<sup>16</sup>So the promise is received by faith. It is given as a free gift. And we are all certain to receive it, whether or not we live according to the law of Moses, if we have faith like Abraham's. For Abraham is the father of all who believe. <sup>17</sup>That is what the Scriptures mean when God told him, "I have made you the father of many nations." \* This happened because Abraham believed in the God who brings the dead back to life and who creates new things out of nothing.

<sup>18</sup>Even when there was no reason for hope, Abraham kept hoping—believing that he would become the father of many nations. For God had said to him, “That’s how many descendants you will have!”* <sup>19</sup>And Abraham’s faith did not weaken, even though, at about 100 years of age, he figured his body was as good as dead—and so was Sarah’s womb.

<sup>20</sup>Abraham never wavered in believing God’s promise. In fact, his faith grew stronger, and in this he brought glory to God. <sup>21</sup>He was fully convinced that God is able to do whatever he promises. <sup>22</sup>And because of Abraham’s faith, God counted him as righteous. <sup>23</sup>And when God counted him as righteous, it wasn’t just for Abraham’s benefit. It was recorded <sup>24</sup>for our benefit, too, assuring us that God will also count us as righteous if we believe in him, the one who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead. <sup>25</sup>He was handed over to die because of our sins, and he was raised to life to make us right with God.

Faith Brings Joy

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we have been made right in God's sight by faith, we have peace with God because of what Jesus Christ our Lord has done for us. <sup>2</sup> Because of our faith, Christ has brought us into this place of undeserved privilege where we now stand, and we confidently and joyfully look forward to sharing God's glory.

<sup>3</sup> We can rejoice, too, when we run into problems and trials, for we know that they help us develop endurance. <sup>4</sup> And endurance develops strength of character, and character strengthens our confident hope of salvation. <sup>5</sup> And this hope will not lead to disappointment. For we know how dearly God loves us, because he has given us the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts with his love.

<sup>6</sup> When we were utterly helpless, Christ came at just the right time and died for us sinners. <sup>7</sup> Now, most people would not be willing to die for an upright person, though someone might perhaps be willing to die for a person who is especially good. <sup>8</sup> But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners. <sup>9</sup> And since we have been made right in God's sight by the blood of Christ, he will certainly save us from God's condemnation. <sup>10</sup> For since our friendship with God was restored by the death of his Son while we were still his enemies, we will certainly be saved through the life of his Son. <sup>11</sup>So now we can rejoice in our wonderful new relationship with God because our Lord Jesus Christ has made us friends of God.

Adam and Christ Contrasted

<sup>12</sup> When Adam sinned, sin entered the world. Adam's sin brought death, so death spread to everyone, for everyone sinned. <sup>13</sup>Yes, people sinned even before the law was given. But it was not counted as sin because there was not yet any law to break. <sup>14</sup>Still, everyone died—from the time of Adam to the time of Moses—even those who did not disobey an explicit commandment of God, as Adam did. Now Adam is a symbol, a representation of Christ, who was yet to come. <sup>15</sup> But there is a great difference between Adam's sin and God's gracious gift. For the sin of this one man, Adam, brought death to many. But even greater is God's wonderful grace and his gift of forgiveness to many through this other man, Jesus Christ. <sup>16</sup>And the result of God's gracious gift is very different from the result of that one man's sin. For Adam's sin led to condemnation, but God's free gift leads to our being made right with God, even though we are guilty of many sins. <sup>17</sup>For the sin of this one man, Adam, caused death to rule over many. But even greater is God's wonderful grace and his gift of righteousness, for all who receive it will live in triumph over sin and death through this one man, Jesus Christ.

person disobeyed God, many became sinners. But because one other person obeyed God, many will be made righteous.

<sup>20</sup>God's law was given so that all people could see how sinful they were. But as people sinned more and more, God's wonderful grace became more abundant. <sup>21</sup>So just as sin ruled over all people and brought them to death, now God's wonderful grace rules instead, giving us right standing with God and resulting in eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6

Sin's Power Is Broken

<sup>1</sup> Well then, should we keep on sinning so that God can show us more and more of his wonderful grace? <sup>2</sup> Of course not! Since we have died to sin, how can we continue to live in it? <sup>3</sup> Or have you forgotten that when we were joined with Christ Jesus in baptism, we joined him in his death? <sup>4</sup> For we died and were buried with Christ by baptism. And just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glorious power of the Father, now we also may live new lives.

<sup>5</sup> Since we have been united with him in his death, we will also be raised to life as he was. <sup>6</sup> We know that our old sinful selves were crucified with Christ so that sin might lose its power in our lives. We are no longer slaves to sin. <sup>7</sup> For when we died with Christ we were set free from the power of sin. <sup>8</sup> And since we died with Christ, we know we will also live with him. <sup>9</sup> We are sure of this because Christ was raised from the dead, and he will never die again. Death no longer has any power over him. <sup>10</sup> When he died, he died once to break the power of sin. But now that he lives, he lives for the glory of God. <sup>11</sup> So you also should consider yourselves to be dead to the power of sin and alive to God through Christ Jesus.

completely to God, for you were dead, but now you have new life. So use your whole body as an instrument to do what is right for the glory of God. <sup>14</sup>Sin is no longer your master, for you no longer live under the requirements of the law. Instead, you live under the freedom of God's grace.

<sup>15</sup>Well then, since God's grace has set us free from the law, does that mean we can go on sinning? Of course not! <sup>16</sup>Don't you realize that you become the slave of whatever you choose to obey? You can be a slave to sin, which leads to death, or you can choose to obey God, which leads to righteous living. <sup>17</sup>Thank God! Once you were slaves of sin, but now you wholeheartedly obey this teaching we have given you. <sup>18</sup>Now you are free from your slavery to sin, and you have become slaves to righteous living.

<sup>19</sup>Because of the weakness of your human nature, I am using the illustration of slavery to help you understand all this. Previously, you let yourselves be slaves to impurity and lawlessness, which led ever deeper into sin. Now you must give yourselves to be slaves to righteous living so that you will become holy.

<sup>20</sup>When you were slaves to sin, you were free from the obligation to do right. <sup>21</sup>And what was the result? You are now ashamed of the things you used to do, things that end in eternal doom. <sup>22</sup>But now you are free from the power of sin and have become slaves of God. Now you do those things that lead to holiness and result in eternal life. <sup>23</sup>For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life through Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 7

No Longer Bound to the Law

<sup>1</sup>Now, dear brothers and sisters*—you who are familiar with the law—don't you know that the law applies only while a person is living? <sup>2</sup>For example, when a woman marries, the law binds her to her husband as long as he is alive. But if he dies, the laws of marriage no longer apply to her. <sup>3</sup>So while her husband is alive, she would be committing adultery if she married another man. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law and does not commit adultery when she remarries.

<sup>4</sup>So, my dear brothers and sisters, this is the point: You died to the power of the law when you died with Christ. And now you are united with the one who was raised from the dead. As a result, we can produce a harvest of good deeds for God. <sup>5</sup>When we were controlled by our old nature,* sinful desires were at work within us, and the law aroused these evil desires that produced a harvest of sinful deeds, resulting in death. <sup>6</sup>But now we have been released from the law, for we died to it and are no longer captive to its power. Now we can serve God, not in the old way of obeying the letter of the law, but in the new way of living in the Spirit.

God's Law Reveals Our Sin

<sup>7</sup>Well then, am I suggesting that the law of God is sinful? Of course not! In fact, it was the law that showed me my sin. I would never have known that coveting is wrong if the law had not said, “You must not covet.”*<sup>8</sup> But sin used this command to arouse all kinds of covetous desires within me! If there were no law, sin would not have that power.<sup>9</sup> At one time I lived without understanding the law. But when I learned the command not to covet, for instance, the power of sin came to life,<sup>10</sup> and I died. So I discovered that the law’s commands, which were supposed to bring life, brought spiritual death instead.<sup>11</sup> Sin took advantage of those commands and deceived me; it used the commands to kill me.<sup>12</sup> But still, the law itself is holy, and its commands are holy and right and good.

<sup>13</sup> But how can that be? Did the law, which is good, cause my death? Of course not! Sin used what was good to bring about my condemnation to death. So we can see how terrible sin really is. It uses God’s good commands for its own evil purposes.

Struggling with Sin

<sup>14</sup> So the trouble is not with the law, for it is spiritual and good. The trouble is with me, for I am all too human, a slave to sin.<sup>15</sup> I don’t really understand myself, for I want to do what is right, but I don’t do it. Instead, I do what I hate.<sup>16</sup> But if I know that what I am doing is wrong, this shows that I agree that the law is good.<sup>17</sup> So I am not the one doing wrong; it is sin living in me that does it.

<sup>18</sup> And I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature.* I want to do what is right, but I can’t.<sup>19</sup> I want to do what is good, but I don’t. I don’t want to do what is wrong, but I do it anyway. <sup>20</sup>But if I do what I don't want to do, I am not really the one doing wrong; it is sin living in me that does it.

<sup>21</sup>I have discovered this principle of life—that when I want to do what is right, I inevitably do what is wrong. <sup>22</sup>I love God's law with all my heart. <sup>23</sup>But there is another power* within me that is at war with my mind. This power makes me a slave to the sin that is still within me. <sup>24</sup>Oh, what a miserable person I am! Who will free me from this life that is dominated by sin and death? <sup>25</sup>Thank God! The answer is in Jesus Christ our Lord. So you see how it is: In my mind I really want to obey God's law, but because of my sinful nature I am a slave to sin.

Romans 8

Life in the Spirit

<sup>1</sup> So now there is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup> And because you belong to him, the power* of the life-giving Spirit has freed you* from the power of sin that leads to death. <sup>3</sup> The law of Moses was unable to save us because of the weakness of our sinful nature.* So God did what the law could not do. He sent his own Son in a body like the bodies we sinners have. And in that body God declared an end to sin's control over us by giving his Son as a sacrifice for our sins. <sup>4</sup> He did this so that the just requirement of the law would be fully satisfied for us, who no longer follow our sinful nature but instead follow the Spirit.

<sup>5</sup> Those who are dominated by the sinful nature think about sinful things, but those who are controlled by the Holy Spirit think about things that please the Spirit. <sup>6</sup> So letting your sinful nature control your mind leads to death. But letting the Spirit control your mind leads to life and peace. <sup>7</sup> For the sinful nature is always hostile to God. It never did obey God's laws, and it never will. <sup>8</sup> That's why those who are still under the control of their sinful nature can never please God.

<sup>9</sup> But you are not controlled by your sinful nature. You are controlled by the Spirit if you have the Spirit of God living in you. (And remember that those who do not have the Spirit of Christ living in them do not belong to him at all.) <sup>10</sup> And Christ lives within you, so even though your body will die because of sin, the Spirit gives you life* because you have been made right with God. <sup>11</sup>The Spirit of God, who raised Jesus from the dead, lives in you. And just as God raised Christ Jesus from the dead, he will give life to your mortal bodies by this same Spirit living within you.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, dear brothers and sisters,* you have no obligation to do what your sinful nature urges you to do. <sup>13</sup>For if you live by its dictates, you will die. But if through the power of the Spirit you put to death the deeds of your sinful nature,* you will live. <sup>14</sup>For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children* of God.

<sup>15</sup>So you have not received a spirit that makes you fearful slaves. Instead, you received God's Spirit when he adopted you as his own children.* Now we call him, "Abba, Father."* <sup>16</sup>For his Spirit joins with our spirit to affirm that we are God's children. <sup>17</sup>And since we are his children, we are his heirs. In fact, together with Christ we are heirs of God's glory. But if we are to share his glory, we must also share his suffering.

The Future Glory

<sup>18</sup>Yet what we suffer now is nothing compared to the glory he will reveal to us later. <sup>19</sup>For all creation is waiting eagerly for that future day when God will reveal who his children really are. <sup>20</sup>Against its will, all creation was subjected to God's curse. But with eager hope, <sup>21</sup>the creation looks forward to the day when it will join God's children in glorious freedom from death and decay. <sup>22</sup>For we know that all creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time.<sup>23</sup> And we believers also groan, even though we have the Holy Spirit within us as a foretaste of future glory, for we long for our bodies to be released from sin and suffering. We, too, wait with eager hope for the day when God will give us our full rights as his adopted children,* including the new bodies he has promised us.<sup>24</sup> We were given this hope when we were saved. (If we already have something, we don't need to hope* for it.<sup>25</sup> But if we look forward to something we don't yet have, we must wait patiently and confidently.)

<sup>26</sup> And the Holy Spirit helps us in our weakness. For example, we don't know what God wants us to pray for. But the Holy Spirit prays for us with groanings that cannot be expressed in words.<sup>27</sup> And the Father who knows all hearts knows what the Spirit is saying, for the Spirit pleads for us believers* in harmony with God's own will.<sup>28</sup> And we know that God causes everything to work together* for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose for them.<sup>29</sup> For God knew his people in advance, and he chose them to become like his Son, so that his Son would be the firstborn* among many brothers and sisters.<sup>30</sup> And having chosen them, he called them to come to him. And having called them, he gave them right standing with himself. And having given them right standing, he gave them his glory.

Nothing Can Separate Us from God's Love

<sup>31</sup> What shall we say about such wonderful things as these? If God is for us, who can ever be against us? <sup>32</sup> Since he did not spare even his own Son but gave him up for us all, won't he also give us everything else? <sup>33</sup>Who dares accuse us whom God has chosen for his own? No one—for God himself has given us right standing with himself. <sup>34</sup>Who then will condemn us? No one—for Christ Jesus died for us and was raised to life for us, and he is sitting in the place of honor at God's right hand, pleading for us.

<sup>35</sup>Can anything ever separate us from Christ's love? Does it mean he no longer loves us if we have trouble or calamity, or are persecuted, or hungry, or destitute, or in danger, or threatened with death? <sup>36</sup>(As the Scriptures say, "For your sake we are killed every day; we are being slaughtered like sheep."*) <sup>37</sup>No, despite all these things, overwhelming victory is ours through Christ, who loved us.

God's Selection of Israel

<sup>1</sup>With Christ as my witness, I speak with utter truthfulness. My conscience and the Holy Spirit confirm it. <sup>2</sup>My heart is filled with bitter sorrow and unending grief<sup>3</sup> for my people, my Jewish brothers and sisters. * I would be willing to be forever cursed—cut off from Christ!—if that would save them. <sup>4</sup>They are the people of Israel, chosen to be God's adopted children. * God revealed his glory to them. He made covenants with them and gave them his law. He gave them the privilege of worshiping him and receiving his wonderful promises. <sup>5</sup>Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are their ancestors, and Christ himself was an Israelite as far as his human nature is concerned. And he is God, the one who rules over everything and is worthy of eternal praise! Amen. *

<sup>6</sup>Well then, has God failed to fulfill his promise to Israel? No, for not all who are born into the nation of Israel are truly members of God's people! <sup>7</sup>Being descendants of Abraham doesn't make them truly Abraham's children. For the Scriptures say, "Isaac is the son through whom your descendants will be counted," * though Abraham had other children, too. <sup>8</sup>This means that Abraham's physical descendants are not necessarily children of God. Only the children of the promise are considered to be Abraham's children. <sup>9</sup>For God had promised, "I will return about this time next year, and Sarah will have a son.”*

<sup>10</sup>This son was our ancestor Isaac. When he married Rebekah, she gave birth to twins.* <sup>11</sup>But before they were born, before they had done anything good or bad, she received a message from God. (This message shows that God chooses people according to his own purposes; <sup>12</sup>he calls people, but not according to their good or bad works.) She was told, “Your older son will serve your younger son.”* <sup>13</sup>In the words of the Scriptures, “I loved Jacob, but I rejected Esau.”*

<sup>14</sup>Are we saying, then, that God was unfair? Of course not! <sup>15</sup>For God said to Moses,

“I will show mercy to anyone I choose, and I will show compassion to anyone I choose.”*

<sup>16</sup>So it is God who decides to show mercy. We can neither choose it nor work for it.

<sup>17</sup>For the Scriptures say that God told Pharaoh, “I have appointed you for the very purpose of displaying my power in you and to spread my fame throughout the earth.”* <sup>18</sup>So you see, God chooses to show mercy to some, and he chooses to harden the hearts of others so they refuse to listen.

<sup>19</sup>Well then, you might say, “Why does God blame people for not responding? Haven’t they simply done what he makes them do?”

<sup>20</sup>No, don’t say that. Who are you, a mere human being, to argue with God? Should the thing that was created say to the one who created it, “Why have you made me like this?”

<sup>21</sup>When a potter makes jars out of clay, doesn't he have a right to use the same lump of clay to make one jar for decoration and another to throw garbage into? <sup>22</sup>In the same way, even though God has the right to show his anger and his power, he is very patient with those on whom his anger falls, who are destined for destruction. <sup>23</sup>He does this to make the riches of his glory shine even brighter on those to whom he shows mercy, who were prepared in advance for glory. <sup>24</sup>And we are among those whom he selected, both from the Jews and from the Gentiles.

“Those who were not my people,
I will now call my people.
And I will love those whom I did not love before.”*
          

<sup>26</sup>And,

“Then, at the place where they were told,
‘You are not my people,’ there they will be called ‘children of the living God.’”*
          

<sup>27</sup>And concerning Israel, Isaiah the prophet cried out, “Though the people of Israel are as numerous as the sand of the seashore, only a remnant will be saved.

<sup>28</sup>For the LORD will carry out his sentence upon the earth quickly and with finality.”*

<sup>29</sup>And Isaiah said the same thing in another place:

“If the LORD of Heaven’s Armies had not spared a few of our children, we would have been wiped out like Sodom, destroyed like Gomorrah.”*

Israel’s Unbelief

<sup>30</sup>What does all this mean? Even though the Gentiles were not trying to follow God’s standards, they were made right with God. And it was by faith that this took place. <sup>31</sup>But the people of Israel, who tried so hard to get right with God by keeping the law, never succeeded. <sup>32</sup>Why not? Because they were trying to get right with God by keeping the law* instead of by trusting in him. They stumbled over the great rock in their path. <sup>33</sup>God warned them of this in the Scriptures when he said, “I am placing a stone in Jerusalem* that makes people stumble, a rock that makes them fall.

But anyone who trusts in him will never be disgraced.”*

Romans 10

<sup>1</sup>Dear brothers and sisters, * the longing of my heart and my prayer to God is for the people of Israel to be saved. <sup>2</sup>I know what enthusiasm they have for God, but it is misdirected zeal. <sup>3</sup>For they don't understand God's way of making people right with himself. Refusing to accept God's way, they cling to their own way of getting right with God by trying to keep the law. <sup>4</sup>For Christ has already accomplished the purpose for which the law was given. * As a result, all who believe in him are made right with God.

Salvation Is for Everyone

<sup>5</sup>For Moses writes that the law's way of making a person right with God requires obedience to all of its commands. * <sup>6</sup>But faith's way of getting right with God says, "Don't say in your heart, 'Who will go up to heaven?'" (to bring Christ down to earth). <sup>7</sup>And don't say, 'Who will go down to the place of the dead?' (to bring Christ back to life again)." <sup>8</sup> In fact, it says,

"The message is very close at hand;
it is on your lips and in your heart." *

And that message is the very message about faith that we preach: <sup>9</sup>If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. <sup>10</sup>For it is by believing in your heart that you are made right with God, and it is by confessing with your mouth that you are saved. <sup>11</sup>As the Scriptures tell us, “Anyone who trusts in him will never be disgraced.”* <sup>12</sup>Jew and Gentile* are the same in this respect. They have the same Lord, who gives generously to all who call on him. <sup>13</sup>For “Everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved.”*

<sup>14</sup>But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in him? And how can they believe in him if they have never heard about him? And how can they hear about him unless someone tells them? <sup>15</sup>And how will anyone go and tell them without being sent? That is why the Scriptures say, “How beautiful are the feet of messengers who bring good news!”*

<sup>16</sup>But not everyone welcomes the Good News, for Isaiah the prophet said, “LORD, who has believed our message?”* <sup>17</sup>So faith comes from hearing, that is, hearing the Good News about Christ. <sup>18</sup>But I ask, have the people of Israel actually heard the message? Yes, they have:

“The message has gone throughout the earth, and the words to all the world.”*

<sup>19</sup>But I ask, did the people of Israel really understand? Yes, they did, for even in the time of Moses, God said,

“I will rouse your jealousy through people who are not even a nation.

I will provoke your anger through the foolish Gentiles.”*

<sup>20</sup>And later Isaiah spoke boldly for God, saying,

“I was found by people who were not looking for me.
I showed myself to those who were not asking for me.”*   

<sup>21</sup>But regarding Israel, God said,

“All day long I opened my arms to them, but they were disobedient and rebellious.”*

Romans 11

God's Mercy on Israel

<sup>1</sup> I ask, then, has God rejected his own people, the nation of Israel? Of course not! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham and a member of the tribe of Benjamin.

<sup>2</sup>No, God has not rejected his own people, whom he chose from the very beginning. Do you realize what the Scriptures say about this? Elijah the prophet complained to God about the people of Israel and said, <sup>3</sup>“LORD, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me, too.”*

<sup>4</sup>And do you remember God's reply? He said, “No, I have 7,000 others who have never bowed down to Baal!”*

<sup>5</sup>It is the same today, for a few of the people of Israel* have remained faithful because of God's grace—his undeserved kindness in choosing them.<sup>6</sup>And since it is through God's kindness, then it is not by their good works. For in that case, God's grace would not be what it really is—free and undeserved.

<sup>7</sup>So this is the situation: Most of the people of Israel have not found the favor of God they are looking for so earnestly. A few have—the ones God has chosen—but the hearts of the rest were hardened. <sup>8</sup>As the Scriptures say, “God has put them into a deep sleep.

To this day he has shut their eyes so they do not see,
and closed their ears so they do not hear.”*

<sup>9</sup>Likewise, David said,

“Let their bountiful table become a snare, a trap that makes them think all is well.
Let their blessings cause them to stumble, and let them get what they deserve.

<sup>10</sup>Let their eyes go blind so they cannot see, and let their backs be bent forever.”*

<sup>11</sup>Did God’s people stumble and fall beyond recovery? Of course not! They were disobedient, so God made salvation available to the Gentiles. But he wanted his own people to become jealous and claim it for themselves. <sup>12</sup>Now if the Gentiles were enriched because the people of Israel turned down God’s offer of salvation, think how much greater a blessing the world will share when they finally accept it.

Paul

<sup>13</sup>I am saying all this especially for you Gentiles. God has appointed me as the apostle to the Gentiles. I stress this, <sup>14</sup>for I want somehow to make the people of Israel jealous of what you Gentiles have, so I might save some of them. <sup>15</sup>For since their rejection meant that God offered salvation to the rest of the world, their acceptance will be even more wonderful. It will be life for those who were dead! <sup>16</sup>And since Abraham and the other patriarchs were holy, their descendants will also be holy—just as the entire batch of dough is holy because the portion given as an offering is holy. For if the roots of the tree are holy, the branches will be, too.

<sup>17</sup>But some of these branches from Abraham's tree—some of the people of Israel—have been broken off. And you Gentiles, who were branches from a wild olive tree, have been grafted in. So now you also receive the blessing God has promised Abraham and his children, sharing in the rich nourishment from the root of God's special olive tree. <sup>18</sup>But you must not brag about being grafted in to replace the branches that were broken off. You are just a branch, not the root.

<sup>19</sup>“Well,” you may say, “those branches were broken off to make room for me.” <sup>20</sup>Yes, but remember—those branches were broken off because they didn't believe in Christ, and you are there because you do believe. So don't think highly of yourself, but fear what could happen. <sup>21</sup>For if God did not spare the original branches, he won't* spare you either.

be cut off. <sup>23</sup>And if the people of Israel turn from their unbelief, they will be grafted in again, for God has the power to graft them back into the tree. <sup>24</sup>You, by nature, were a branch cut from a wild olive tree. So if God was willing to do something contrary to nature by grafting you into his cultivated tree, he will be far more eager to graft the original branches back into the tree where they belong.

God's Mercy Is for Everyone

<sup>25</sup>I want you to understand this mystery, dear brothers and sisters,* so that you will not feel proud about yourselves. Some of the people of Israel have hard hearts, but this will last only until the full number of Gentiles comes to Christ. <sup>26</sup>And so all Israel will be saved. As the Scriptures say, and he will turn Israel* away from ungodliness.

<sup>27</sup>And this is my covenant with them, that I will take away their sins.”*

<sup>28</sup>Many of the people of Israel are now enemies of the Good News, and this benefits you Gentiles. Yet they are still the people he loves because he chose their ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>29</sup>For God's gifts and his call can never be withdrawn. <sup>30</sup>Once, you Gentiles were rebels against God, but when the people of Israel rebelled against him, God was merciful to you instead. <sup>31</sup>Now they are the rebels, and God's mercy has come to you so that they, too, will share* in God's mercy. <sup>32</sup>For God has imprisoned everyone in disobedience so he could have mercy on everyone.

<sup>33</sup> Oh, how great are God's riches and wisdom and knowledge! How impossible it is for us to understand his decisions and his ways!

<sup>34</sup>For who can know the LORD's thoughts?
Who knows enough to give him advice?*

<sup>35</sup>And who has given him so much that he needs to pay it back?*

<sup>36</sup>For everything comes from him and exists by his power and is intended for his glory. All glory to him forever! Amen.

Romans 12

A Living Sacrifice to God

<sup>1</sup> And so, dear brothers and sisters, * I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all he has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind he will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship him. * <sup>2</sup> Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect.

<sup>3</sup> Because of the privilege and authority * God has given me, I give each of you this warning: Don't think you are better than you really are. Be honest in your evaluation of yourselves, measuring yourselves by the faith God has given us. * <sup>4</sup> Just as our bodies have many parts and each part has a special function, <sup>5</sup> so it is with Christ's body. We are many parts of one body, and we all belong to each other.

<sup>6</sup> In his grace, God has given us different gifts for doing certain things well. So if God has given you the ability to prophesy, speak out with as much faith as God has given you. <sup>7</sup> If your gift is serving others, serve them well. If you are a teacher, teach well. <sup>8</sup> If your gift is to encourage others, be encouraging. If it is giving, give generously. If God has given you leadership ability, take the responsibility seriously. And if you have a gift for showing kindness to others, do it gladly.

<sup>14</sup>Bless those who persecute you. Don't curse them; pray that God will bless them. <sup>15</sup>Be happy with those who are happy, and weep with those who weep. <sup>16</sup>Live in harmony with each other. Don't be too proud to enjoy the company of ordinary people. And don't think you know it all!

<sup>17</sup>Never pay back evil with more evil. Do things in such a way that everyone can see you are honorable. <sup>18</sup>Do all that you can to live in peace with everyone.

<sup>19</sup>Dear friends, never take revenge. Leave that to the righteous anger of God. For the Scriptures say,

"I will take revenge;
I will pay them back,"*
says the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>Instead,

"If your enemies are hungry, feed them.
If they are thirsty, give them something to drink.
In doing this, you will heap burning coals of shame on their heads.”*

Romans 13

Respect for Authority

<sup>1</sup> Everyone must submit to governing authorities. For all authority comes from God, and those in positions of authority have been placed there by God. <sup>2</sup>So anyone who rebels against authority is rebelling against what God has instituted, and they will be punished. <sup>3</sup>For the authorities do not strike fear in people who are doing right, but in those who are doing wrong. Would you like to live without fear of the authorities? Do what is right, and they will honor you. <sup>4</sup>The authorities are God's servants, sent for your good. But if you are doing wrong, of course you should be afraid, for they have the power to punish you. They are God's servants, sent for the very purpose of punishing those who do what is wrong. <sup>5</sup>So you must submit to them, not only to avoid punishment, but also to keep a clear conscience.

<sup>6</sup>Pay your taxes, too, for these same reasons. For government workers need to be paid. They are serving God in what they do. <sup>7</sup>Give to everyone what you owe them: Pay your taxes and government fees to those who collect them, and give respect and honor to those who are in authority.

Love Fulfills God's Requirements

<sup>8</sup> Owe nothing to anyone—except for your obligation to love one another. If you love your neighbor, you will fulfill the requirements of God's law. <sup>9</sup>For the commandments say, "You must not commit adultery. You must not murder. You must not steal. You must not covet." * These—and other such commandments—are summed up in this one commandment: "Love your neighbor as yourself." * <sup>10</sup>Love does no wrong to others, so love fulfills the requirements of God's law.

<sup>11</sup>This is all the more urgent, for you know how late it is; time is running out. Wake up, for our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. <sup>12</sup>The night is almost gone; the day of salvation will soon be here. So remove your dark deeds like dirty clothes, and put on the shining armor of right living. <sup>13</sup>Because we belong to the day, we must live decent lives for all to see. Don't participate in the darkness of wild parties and drunkenness, or in sexual promiscuity and immoral living, or in quarreling and jealousy. <sup>14</sup>Instead, clothe yourself with the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ. And don't let yourself think about ways to indulge your evil desires.

The Danger of Criticism

<sup>5</sup>In the same way, some think one day is more holy than another day, while others think every day is alike. You should each be fully convinced that whichever day you choose is acceptable. <sup>6</sup>Those who worship the Lord on a special day do it to honor him. Those who eat any kind of food do so to honor the Lord, since they give thanks to God before eating. And those who refuse to eat certain foods also want to please the Lord and give thanks to God. <sup>7</sup>For we don't live for ourselves or die for ourselves. <sup>8</sup>If we live, it's to honor the Lord. And if we die, it's to honor the Lord. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Christ died and rose again for this very purpose—to be Lord both of the living and of the dead.

look down on another believer? Remember, we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. <sup>11</sup>For the Scriptures say,

“‘As surely as I live,’ says the LORD, ‘every knee will bend to me, and every tongue will confess and give praise to God.’”

<sup>12</sup>Yes, each of us will give a personal account to God. <sup>13</sup>So let’s stop condemning each other. Decide instead to live in such a way that you will not cause another believer to stumble and fall.

<sup>14</sup>I know and am convinced on the authority of the Lord Jesus that no food, in and of itself, is wrong to eat. But if someone believes it is wrong, then for that person it is wrong.

<sup>15</sup>And if another believer is distressed by what you eat, you are not acting in love if you eat it. Don’t let your eating ruin someone for whom Christ died. <sup>16</sup>Then you will not be criticized for doing something you believe is good. <sup>17</sup>For the Kingdom of God is not a matter of what we eat or drink, but of living a life of goodness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup>If you serve Christ with this attitude, you will please God, and others will approve of you, too. <sup>19</sup>So then, let us aim for harmony in the church and try to build each other up.

wrong with what you are doing, but keep it between yourself and God. Blessed are those who don't feel guilty for doing something they have decided is right.<sup>23</sup> But if you have doubts about whether or not you should eat something, you are sinning if you go ahead and do it. For you are not following your convictions. If you do anything you believe is not right, you are sinning.

Living to Please Others

<sup>1</sup> We who are strong must be considerate of those who are sensitive about things like this. We must not just please ourselves. <sup>2</sup>We should help others do what is right and build them up in the Lord. <sup>3</sup>For even Christ didn't live to please himself. As the Scriptures say, "The insults of those who insult you, O God, have fallen on me."* <sup>4</sup>Such things were written in the Scriptures long ago to teach us. And the Scriptures give us hope and encouragement as we wait patiently for God's promises to be fulfilled.

<sup>5</sup>May God, who gives this patience and encouragement, help you live in complete harmony with each other, as is fitting for followers of Christ Jesus. <sup>6</sup>Then all of you can join together with one voice, giving praise and glory to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, accept each other just as Christ has accepted you so that God will be given glory. <sup>8</sup>Remember that Christ came as a servant to the Jews* to show that God is true to the promises he made to their ancestors. <sup>9</sup>He also came so that the Gentiles might give glory to God for his mercies to them. That is what the psalmist meant when he wrote:

"For this, I will praise you among the Gentiles;
I will sing praises to your name."*

<sup>10</sup>And in another place it is written, “Rejoice with his people, you Gentiles.”*
          

<sup>11</sup>And yet again,

“Praise the LORD, all you Gentiles.
Praise him, all you people of the earth.”*
          

<sup>12</sup>And in another place Isaiah said,

“The heir to David’s throne* will come, and he will rule over the Gentiles.
They will place their hope on him.”*
          

<sup>13</sup>I pray that God, the source of hope, will fill you completely with joy and peace because you trust in him. Then you will overflow with confident hope through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Paul’s Reason for Writing

<sup>14</sup>I am fully convinced, my dear brothers and sisters,* that you are full of goodness. You know these things so well you can teach each other all about them. <sup>15</sup>Even so, I have been bold enough to write about some of these points, knowing that all you need is this reminder. For by God’s grace, <sup>16</sup>I am a special messenger from Christ Jesus to you Gentiles. I bring you the Good News so that I might present you as an acceptable offering to God, made holy by the Holy Spirit.<sup>17</sup> So I have reason to be enthusiastic about all Christ Jesus has done through me in my service to God.<sup>18</sup> Yet I dare not boast about anything except what Christ has done through me, bringing the Gentiles to God by my message and by the way I worked among them.<sup>19</sup> They were convinced by the power of miraculous signs and wonders and by the power of God's Spirit.* In this way, I have fully presented the Good News of Christ from Jerusalem all the way to Illyricum.*

<sup>20</sup>My ambition has always been to preach the Good News where the name of Christ has never been heard, rather than where a church has already been started by someone else.<sup>21</sup> I have been following the plan spoken of in the Scriptures, where it says,

“Those who have never been told about him will see, and those who have never heard of him will understand.”*  

<sup>22</sup>In fact, my visit to you has been delayed so long because I have been preaching in these places.

Paul's Travel Plans

<sup>23</sup>But now I have finished my work in these regions, and after all these long years of waiting, I am eager to visit you.<sup>24</sup> I am planning to go to Spain, and when I do, I will stop off in Rome. And after I have enjoyed your fellowship for a little while, you can provide for my journey.

<sup>25</sup>But before I come, I must go to Jerusalem to take a gift to the believers* there. <sup>26</sup>For you see, the believers in Macedonia and Achaia* have eagerly taken up an offering for the poor among the believers in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>They were glad to do this because they feel they owe a real debt to them. Since the Gentiles received the spiritual blessings of the Good News from the believers in Jerusalem, they feel the least they can do in return is to help them financially. <sup>28</sup>As soon as I have delivered this money and completed this good deed of theirs, I will come to see you on my way to Spain. <sup>29</sup>And I am sure that when I come, Christ will richly bless our time together.

<sup>30</sup>Dear brothers and sisters, I urge you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to join in my struggle by praying to God for me. Do this because of your love for me, given to you by the Holy Spirit. <sup>31</sup>Pray that I will be rescued from those in Judea who refuse to obey God. Pray also that the believers there will be willing to accept the donation* I am taking to Jerusalem. <sup>32</sup>Then, by the will of God, I will be able to come to you with a joyful heart, and we will be an encouragement to each other.

Romans 16

Paul Greets His Friends

<sup>1</sup>I commend to you our sister Phoebe, who is a deacon in the church in Cenchrea. <sup>2</sup>Welcome her in the Lord as one who is worthy of honor among God's people. Help her in whatever she needs, for she has been helpful to many, and especially to me.

<sup>3</sup>Give my greetings to Priscilla and Aquila, my coworkers in the ministry of Christ Jesus. <sup>4</sup>In fact, they once risked their lives for me. I am thankful to them, and so are all the Gentile churches. <sup>5</sup>Also give my greetings to the church that meets in their home.

Greet my dear friend Epenetus. He was the first person from the province of Asia to become a follower of Christ. <sup>6</sup>Give my greetings to Mary, who has worked so hard for your benefit. <sup>7</sup>Greet Andronicus and Junia,* my fellow Jews,* who were in prison with me. They are highly respected among the apostles and became followers of Christ before I did. <sup>8</sup>Greet Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Greet Urbanus, our coworker in Christ, and my dear friend Stachys.

to dear Persis, who has worked so hard for the Lord.<sup>13</sup>Greet Rufus, whom the Lord picked out to be his very own; and also his dear mother, who has been a mother to me.

<sup>14</sup>Give my greetings to Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers and sisters* who meet with them.<sup>15</sup>Give my greetings to Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and to Olympas and all the believers* who meet with them.<sup>16</sup>Greet each other in Christian love.* All the churches of Christ send you their greetings.

Paul's Final Instructions

<sup>17</sup>And now I make one more appeal, my dear brothers and sisters. Watch out for people who cause divisions and upset people's faith by teaching things contrary to what you have been taught. Stay away from them.<sup>18</sup>Such people are not serving Christ our Lord; they are serving their own personal interests. By smooth talk and glowing words they deceive innocent people.<sup>19</sup>But everyone knows that you are obedient to the Lord. This makes me very happy. I want you to be wise in doing right and to stay innocent of any wrong.<sup>20</sup>The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. May the grace of our Lord Jesus* be with you.

<sup>23</sup>Gaius says hello to you. He is my host and also serves as host to the whole church. Erastus, the city treasurer, sends you his greetings, and so does our brother Quartus.*

A Roman Roll Call

<sup>25</sup>Now all glory to God, who is able to make you strong, just as my Good News says. This message about Jesus Christ has revealed his plan for you Gentiles, a plan kept secret from the beginning of time. <sup>26</sup>But now as the prophets* foretold and as the eternal God has commanded, this message is made known to all Gentiles everywhere, so that they too might believe and obey him. <sup>27</sup>All glory to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, forever. Amen.

WORTH MEMORIZING

6:18-20

Run from sexual sin! No other sin so clearly affects the body as this one does. For sexual immorality is a sin against your own body. Don't you realize that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who lives in you and was given to you by God? You do not belong to yourself, for God bought you with a high price. So you must honor God with your body.

10:13

The temptations in your life are no different from what others experience. And God is faithful. He will not allow the temptation to be more than you can stand. When you are tempted, he will show you a way out so that you can endure.

13:4-7

Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. It does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged. It does not rejoice about injustice but rejoices whenever the truth wins out. Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

HEEDING CLEAR TEACHING.

Paul gives clear, no-nonsense teaching about sexual immorality (6:12-20) and marriage (chapter 7). He uses athletic examples in 9:24-27. He also steers us through the difficult tension between our freedom and rights on one hand, and our responsibility for other people on the other.

1 Corinthians 1

Greetings from Paul

<sup>1</sup>This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from our brother Sosthenes.

<sup>2</sup>I am writing to God's church in Corinth,* to you who have been called by God to be his own holy people. He made you holy by means of Christ Jesus,* just as he did for all people everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours.

<sup>3</sup>May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Paul Gives Thanks to God

<sup>4</sup>I always thank my God for you and for the gracious gifts he has given you, now that you belong to Christ Jesus. <sup>5</sup>Through him, God has enriched your church in every way—with all of your eloquent words and all of your knowledge. <sup>6</sup>This confirms that what I told you about Christ is true. <sup>7</sup>Now you have every spiritual gift you need as you eagerly wait for the return of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>8</sup>He will keep you strong to the end so that you will be free from all blame on the day when our Lord Jesus Christ returns. <sup>9</sup>God will do this, for he is faithful to do what he says, and he has invited you into partnership with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Divisions in the Church

<sup>10</sup>I appeal to you, dear brothers and sisters, *by the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ, to live in harmony with each other. Let there be no divisions in the church. Rather, be of one mind, united in thought and purpose. <sup>11</sup>For some members of Chloe's household have told me about your quarrels, my dear brothers and sisters. <sup>12</sup>Some of you are saying, "I am a follower of Paul." Others are saying, "I follow Apollos," or "I follow Peter, *" or "I follow only Christ."

<sup>13</sup>Has Christ been divided into factions? Was I, Paul, crucified for you? Were any of you baptized in the name of Paul? Of course not! <sup>14</sup>I thank God that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius, <sup>15</sup>for now no one can say they were baptized in my name. <sup>16</sup>(Oh yes, I also baptized the household of Stephanas, but I don't remember baptizing anyone else.) <sup>17</sup>For Christ didn't send me to baptize, but to preach the Good News—and not with clever speech, for fear that the cross of Christ would lose its power.

SPLINTERED

Factions in the Corinthian church led to trouble—and a stern lecture from the apostle, starting in 1:10.

The Wisdom of God

<sup>18</sup> The message of the cross is foolish to those who are headed for destruction! But we who are being saved know it is the very power of God. <sup>19</sup>As the Scriptures say,

“I will destroy the wisdom of the wise and discard the intelligence of the intelligent.”*  

<sup>20</sup>So where does this leave the philosophers, the scholars, and the world’s brilliant debaters? God has made the wisdom of this world look foolish. <sup>21</sup>Since God in his wisdom saw to it that the world would never know him through human wisdom, he has used our foolish preaching to save those who believe. <sup>22</sup>It is foolish to the Jews, who ask for signs from heaven. And it is foolish to the Greeks, who seek human wisdom. <sup>23</sup>So when we preach that Christ was crucified, the Jews are offended and the Gentiles say it’s all nonsense.

<sup>24</sup>But to those called by God to salvation, both Jews and Gentiles,* Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God. <sup>25</sup>This foolish plan of God is wiser than the wisest of human plans, and God’s weakness is stronger than the greatest of human strength.

PERSPECTIVES

Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God. This foolish plan of God is wiser than the wisest of human plans, and God’s weakness is stronger than the greatest of human strength.

1 CORINTHIANS 1:24-25

A man has to squeeze past the cross to get into hell.

RICHARD C. HALVERSON (1916–1995), U.S. SENATE CHAPLAIN

<sup>26</sup> Remember, dear brothers and sisters, that few of you were wise in the world's eyes or powerful or wealthy* when God called you. <sup>27</sup>Instead, God chose things the world considers foolish in order to shame those who think they are wise. And he chose things that are powerless to shame those who are powerful. <sup>28</sup>God chose things despised by the world,* things counted as nothing at all, and used them to bring to nothing what the world considers important. <sup>29</sup>As a result, no one can ever boast in the presence of God.

<sup>30</sup>God has united you with Christ Jesus. For our benefit God made him to be wisdom itself. Christ made us right with God; he made us pure and holy, and he freed us from sin. <sup>31</sup>Therefore, as the Scriptures say, "If you want to boast, boast only about the LORD."*

1 Corinthians 2

Paul's Message of Wisdom

<sup>1</sup> When I first came to you, dear brothers and sisters, * I didn't use lofty words and impressive wisdom to tell you God's secret plan. * <sup>2</sup> For I decided that while I was with you I would forget everything except Jesus Christ, the one who was crucified. <sup>3</sup> I came to you in weakness—timid and trembling. <sup>4</sup> And my message and my preaching were very plain. Rather than using clever and persuasive speeches, I relied only on the power of the Holy Spirit. <sup>5</sup> I did this so you would trust not in human wisdom but in the power of God.

<sup>6</sup> Yet when I am among mature believers, I do speak with words of wisdom, but not the kind of wisdom that belongs to this world or to the rulers of this world, who are soon forgotten. <sup>7</sup> No, the wisdom we speak of is the mystery of God *—his plan that was previously hidden, even though he made it for our ultimate glory before the world began. <sup>8</sup> But the rulers of this world have not understood it; if they had, they would not have crucified our glorious Lord. <sup>9</sup> That is what the Scriptures mean when they say,

“No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined what God has prepared for those who love him.” *

<sup>10</sup>But* it was to us that God revealed these things by his Spirit. For his Spirit searches out everything and shows us God's deep secrets. <sup>11</sup>No one can know a person's thoughts except that person's own spirit, and no one can know God's thoughts except God's own Spirit. <sup>12</sup>And we have received God's Spirit (not the world's spirit), so we can know the wonderful things God has freely given us.

<sup>13</sup>When we tell you these things, we do not use words that come from human wisdom. Instead, we speak words given to us by the Spirit, using the Spirit's words to explain spiritual truths.* <sup>14</sup>But people who aren't spiritual* can't receive these truths from God's Spirit. It all sounds foolish to them and they can't understand it, for only those who are spiritual can understand what the Spirit means. <sup>15</sup>Those who are spiritual can evaluate all things, but they themselves cannot be evaluated by others. <sup>16</sup>For,

“Who can know the LORD's thoughts?

Who knows enough to teach him?”*

But we understand these things, for we have the mind of Christ.

1 Corinthians 3

Paul and Apollos, Servants of Christ

<sup>1</sup> Dear brothers and sisters,* when I was with you I couldn't talk to you as I would to spiritual people.* I had to talk as though you belonged to this world or as though you were infants in the Christian life.* <sup>2</sup>I had to feed you with milk, not with solid food, because you weren't ready for anything stronger. And you still aren't ready, <sup>3</sup>for you are still controlled by your sinful nature. You are jealous of one another and quarrel with each other. Doesn't that prove you are controlled by your sinful nature? Aren't you living like people of the world? <sup>4</sup>When one of you says, "I am a follower of Paul," and another says, "I follow Apollos," aren't you acting just like people of the world?

<sup>5</sup>After all, who is Apollos? Who is Paul? We are only God's servants through whom you believed the Good News. Each of us did the work the Lord gave us. <sup>6</sup>I planted the seed in your hearts, and Apollos watered it, but it was God who made it grow. <sup>7</sup>It's not important who does the planting, or who does the watering. What's important is that God makes the seed grow. <sup>8</sup>The one who plants and the one who waters work together with the same purpose. And both will be rewarded for their own hard work. <sup>9</sup>For we are both God's workers. And you are God's field. You are God's building.

like an expert builder. Now others are building on it. But whoever is building on this foundation must be very careful. <sup>11</sup>For no one can lay any foundation other than the one we already have—Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup>Anyone who builds on that foundation may use a variety of materials—gold, silver, jewels, wood, hay, or straw. <sup>13</sup>But on the judgment day, fire will reveal what kind of work each builder has done. The fire will show if a person's work has any value. <sup>14</sup>If the work survives, that builder will receive a reward. <sup>15</sup>But if the work is burned up, the builder will suffer great loss. The builder will be saved, but like someone barely escaping through a wall of flames.

<sup>16</sup>Don't you realize that all of you together are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God lives in you? <sup>17</sup>God will destroy anyone who destroys this temple. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

<sup>18</sup>Stop deceiving yourselves. If you think you are wise by this world's standards, you need to become a fool to be truly wise. <sup>19</sup>For the wisdom of this world is foolishness to God. As the Scriptures say,

“He traps the wise in the snare of their own cleverness.”*           

<sup>20</sup>And again,

“The LORD knows the thoughts of the wise; he knows they are worthless.”*

<sup>21</sup>So don't boast about following a particular human leader. For everything belongs to you—<sup>22</sup>whether Paul or Apollos or Peter,* or the world, or life and death, or the present and the future. Everything belongs to you, <sup>23</sup>and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

1 Corinthians 4

Paul's Relationship with the Corinthians

<sup>1</sup>So look at Apollos and me as mere servants of Christ who have been put in charge of explaining God's mysteries. <sup>2</sup>Now, a person who is put in charge as a manager must be faithful. <sup>3</sup>As for me, it matters very little how I might be evaluated by you or by any human authority. I don't even trust my own judgment on this point. <sup>4</sup>My conscience is clear, but that doesn't prove I'm right. It is the Lord himself who will examine me and decide.

<sup>5</sup>So don't make judgments about anyone ahead of time—before the Lord returns. For he will bring our darkest secrets to light and will reveal our private motives. Then God will give to each one whatever praise is due.

<sup>6</sup>Dear brothers and sisters, * I have used Apollos and myself to illustrate what I've been saying. If you pay attention to what I have quoted from the Scriptures, * you won't be proud of one of your leaders at the expense of another. <sup>7</sup>For what gives you the right to make such a judgment? What do you have that God hasn't given you? And if everything you have is from God, why boast as though it were not a gift?

<sup>8</sup>You think you already have everything you need. You think you are already rich. You have begun to reign in God's kingdom without us! I wish you really were reigning already, for then we would be reigning with you. <sup>9</sup>Instead, I sometimes think God has put us apostles on display, like prisoners of war at the end of a victor's parade, condemned to die. We have become a spectacle to the entire world—to people and angels alike.

<sup>10</sup>Our dedication to Christ makes us look like fools, but you claim to be so wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are so powerful! You are honored, but we are ridiculed. <sup>11</sup>Even now we go hungry and thirsty, and we don't have enough clothes to keep warm. We are often beaten and have no home. <sup>12</sup>We work wearily with our own hands to earn our living. We bless those who curse us. We are patient with those who abuse us. <sup>13</sup>We appeal gently when evil things are said about us. Yet we are treated like the world's garbage, like everybody's trash—right up to the present moment.

<sup>14</sup>I am not writing these things to shame you, but to warn you as my beloved children. <sup>15</sup>For even if you had ten thousand others to teach you about Christ, you have only one spiritual father. For I became your father in Christ Jesus when I preached the Good News to you. <sup>16</sup>So I urge you to imitate me.

<sup>17</sup>That's why I have sent Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind you of how I follow Christ Jesus, just as I teach in all the churches wherever I go.

<sup>18</sup>Some of you have become arrogant, thinking I will not visit you again. <sup>19</sup>But I will come—and soon—if the Lord lets me, and then I'll find out whether these arrogant people just give pretentious speeches or whether they really have God's power. <sup>20</sup>For the Kingdom of God is not just a lot of talk; it is living by God's power. <sup>21</sup>Which do you choose? Should I come with a rod to punish you, or should I come with love and a gentle spirit?

1 Corinthians 5

Paul Condemns Spiritual Pride

<sup>1</sup> I can hardly believe the report about the sexual immorality going on among you—something that even pagans don't do. I am told that a man in your church is living in sin with his stepmother.* <sup>2</sup>You are so proud of yourselves, but you should be mourning in sorrow and shame. And you should remove this man from your fellowship.

<sup>3</sup>Even though I am not with you in person, I am with you in the Spirit.* And as though I were there, I have already passed judgment on this man <sup>4</sup>in the name of the Lord Jesus. You must call a meeting of the church.* I will be present with you in spirit, and so will the power of our Lord Jesus. <sup>5</sup>Then you must throw this man out and hand him over to Satan so that his sinful nature will be destroyed* and he himself* will be saved on the day the Lord* returns.

<sup>9</sup> When I wrote to you before, I told you not to associate with people who indulge in sexual sin. <sup>10</sup>But I wasn't talking about unbelievers who indulge in sexual sin, or are greedy, or cheat people, or worship idols. You would have to leave this world to avoid people like that. <sup>11</sup>I meant that you are not to associate with anyone who claims to be a believer* yet indulges in sexual sin, or is greedy, or worships idols, or is abusive, or is a drunkard, or cheats people. Don't even eat with such people.

<sup>12</sup>It isn't my responsibility to judge outsiders, but it certainly is your responsibility to judge those inside the church who are sinning. <sup>13</sup>God will judge those on the outside; but as the Scriptures say, "You must remove the evil person from among you."*

Avoiding Lawsuits with Christians

<sup>1</sup> When one of you has a dispute with another believer, how dare you file a lawsuit and ask a secular court to decide the matter instead of taking it to other believers*! <sup>2</sup>Don't you realize that someday we believers will judge the world? And since you are going to judge the world, can't you decide even these little things among yourselves? <sup>3</sup>Don't you realize that we will judge angels? So you should surely be able to resolve ordinary disputes in this life. <sup>4</sup>If you have legal disputes about such matters, why go to outside judges who are not respected by the church? <sup>5</sup>I am saying this to shame you. Isn't there anyone in all the church who is wise enough to decide these issues? <sup>6</sup>But instead, one believer* sues another—right in front of unbelievers!

<sup>7</sup>Even to have such lawsuits with one another is a defeat for you. Why not just accept the injustice and leave it at that? Why not let yourselves be cheated? <sup>8</sup>Instead, you yourselves are the ones who do wrong and cheat even your fellow believers.*

<sup>9</sup>Don't you realize that those who do wrong will not inherit the Kingdom of God? Don't fool yourselves. Those who indulge in sexual sin, or who worship idols, or commit adultery, or are male prostitutes, or practice homosexuality,<sup>10</sup> or are thieves, or greedy people, or drunkards, or are abusive, or cheat people—none of these will inherit the Kingdom of God.

<sup>11</sup>Some of you were once like that. But you were cleansed; you were made holy; you were made right with God by calling on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

Avoiding Sexual Sin

<sup>12</sup>You say, “I am allowed to do anything”—but not everything is good for you. And even though “I am allowed to do anything,” I must not become a slave to anything. <sup>13</sup>You say, “Food was made for the stomach, and the stomach for food.” (This is true, though someday God will do away with both of them.) But you can’t say that our bodies were made for sexual immorality. They were made for the Lord, and the Lord cares about our bodies. <sup>14</sup>And God will raise us from the dead by his power, just as he raised our Lord from the dead.

<sup>15</sup>Don’t you realize that your bodies are actually parts of Christ? Should a man take his body, which is part of Christ, and join it to a prostitute? Never! <sup>16</sup>And don’t you realize that if a man joins himself to a prostitute, he becomes one body with her? For the Scriptures say, “The two are united into one.” *
<sup>17</sup>But the person who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with him.

<sup>18</sup>Run from sexual sin! No other sin so clearly affects the body as this one does. For sexual immorality is a sin against your own body. <sup>19</sup>Don’t you realize that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who lives in you and was given to you by God? You do not belong to yourself, <sup>20</sup>for God bought you with a high price. So you must honor God with your body.

1 Corinthians 7

Instruction on Marriage

<sup>1</sup>Now regarding the questions you asked in your letter. Yes, it is good to abstain from sexual relations.* <sup>2</sup>But because there is so much sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife, and each woman should have her own husband.

<sup>5</sup>Do not deprive each other of sexual relations, unless you both agree to refrain from sexual intimacy for a limited time so you can give yourselves more completely to prayer. Afterward, you should come together again so that Satan won't be able to tempt you because of your lack of self-control. <sup>6</sup>I say this as a concession, not as a command. <sup>7</sup>But I wish everyone were single, just as I am. Yet each person has a special gift from God, of one kind or another.

<sup>8</sup> So I say to those who aren't married and to widows—it's better to stay unmarried, just as I am. <sup>9</sup>But if they can't control themselves, they should go ahead and marry. It's better to marry than to burn with lust.

What the Bible Says about

Singleness

<sup>10</sup> But for those who are married, I have a command that comes not from me, but from the Lord.* A wife must not leave her husband. <sup>11</sup>But if she does leave him, let her remain single or else be reconciled to him. And the husband must not leave his wife.

<sup>12</sup>Now, I will speak to the rest of you, though I do not have a direct command from the Lord. If a Christian man* has a wife who is not a believer and she is willing to continue living with him, he must not leave her. <sup>13</sup>And if a Christian woman has a husband who is not a believer and he is willing to continue living with her, she must not leave him. <sup>14</sup>For the Christian wife brings holiness to her marriage, and the Christian husband* brings holiness to his marriage. Otherwise, your children would not be holy, but now they are holy. <sup>15</sup>(But if the husband or wife who isn't a believer insists on leaving, let them go. In such cases the Christian husband or wife* is no longer bound to the other, for God has called you* to live in peace.) <sup>16</sup>Don't you wives realize that your husbands might be saved because of you? And don't you husbands realize that your wives might be saved because of you?

<sup>17</sup>Each of you should continue to live in whatever situation the Lord has placed you, and remain as you were when God first called you. This is my rule for all the churches. <sup>18</sup>For instance, a man who was circumcised before he became a believer should not try to reverse it. And the man who was uncircumcised when he became a believer should not be circumcised now. <sup>19</sup>For it makes no difference whether or not a man has been circumcised. The important thing is to keep God's commandments.

<sup>20</sup> Yes, each of you should remain as you were when God called you. <sup>21</sup>Are you a slave? Don't let that worry you—but if you get a chance to be free, take it. <sup>22</sup>And remember, if you were a slave when the Lord called you, you are now free in the Lord. And if you were free when the Lord called you, you are now a slave of Christ. <sup>23</sup>God paid a high price for you, so don't be enslaved by the world. <sup>24</sup>Each of you, dear brothers and sisters, * should remain as you were when God first called you.

<sup>25</sup>Now regarding your question about the young women who are not yet married. I do not have a command from the Lord for them. But the Lord in his mercy has given me wisdom that can be trusted, and I will share it with you. <sup>26</sup>Because of the present crisis, * I think it is best to remain as you are. <sup>27</sup>If you have a wife, do not seek to end the marriage. If you do not have a wife, do not seek to get married. <sup>28</sup>But if you do get married, it is not a sin. And if a young woman gets married, it is not a sin. However, those who get married at this time will have troubles, and I am trying to spare you those problems.

<sup>29</sup>But let me say this, dear brothers and sisters: The time that remains is very short. So from now on, those with wives should not focus only on their marriage. <sup>30</sup>Those who weep or who rejoice or who buy things should not be absorbed by their weeping or their joy or their possessions. <sup>31</sup>Those who use the things of the world should not become attached to them. For this world as we know it will soon pass away.

<sup>32</sup>I want you to be free from the concerns of this life. An unmarried man can spend his time doing the Lord's work and thinking how to please him.<sup>33</sup> But a married man has to think about his earthly responsibilities and how to please his wife.<sup>34</sup> His interests are divided. In the same way, a woman who is no longer married or has never been married can be devoted to the Lord and holy in body and in spirit. But a married woman has to think about her earthly responsibilities and how to please her husband.<sup>35</sup> I am saying this for your benefit, not to place restrictions on you. I want you to do whatever will help you serve the Lord best, with as few distractions as possible.

<sup>36</sup> But if a man thinks that he's treating his fiancée improperly and will inevitably give in to his passion, let him marry her as he wishes. It is not a sin.<sup>37</sup> But if he has decided firmly not to marry and there is no urgency and he can control his passion, he does well not to marry.<sup>38</sup> So the person who marries his fiancée does well, and the person who doesn't marry does even better.

<sup>39</sup> A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives. If her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, but only if he loves the Lord.*<sup>40</sup> But in my opinion it would be better for her to stay single, and I think I am giving you counsel from God's Spirit when I say this.

Duties to Spouse and to God

1 Corinthians 8

Food Sacrificed to Idols

<sup>1</sup> Now regarding your question about food that has been offered to idols. Yes, we know that “we all have knowledge” about this issue. But while knowledge makes us feel important, it is love that strengthens the church. <sup>2</sup>Anyone who claims to know all the answers doesn’t really know very much. <sup>3</sup>But the person who loves God is the one whom God recognizes.*

<sup>4</sup>So, what about eating meat that has been offered to idols? Well, we all know that an idol is not really a god and that there is only one God. <sup>5</sup>There may be so-called gods both in heaven and on earth, and some people actually worship many gods and many lords. <sup>6</sup>But we know that there is only one God, the Father, who created everything, and we live for him. And there is only one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom God made everything and through whom we have been given life.

<sup>7</sup>However, not all believers know this. Some are accustomed to thinking of idols as being real, so when they eat food that has been offered to idols, they think of it as the worship of real gods, and their weak consciences are violated. <sup>8</sup>It’s true that we can’t win God’s approval by what we eat. We don’t lose anything if we don’t eat it, and we don’t gain anything if we do.

<sup>9</sup>But you must be careful so that your freedom does not cause others with a weaker conscience to stumble. <sup>10</sup> For if others see you—with your “superior knowledge”—eating in the temple of an idol, won’t they be encouraged to violate their conscience by eating food that has been offered to an idol? <sup>11</sup>So because of your superior knowledge, a weak believer* for whom Christ died will be destroyed. <sup>12</sup>And when you sin against other believers* by encouraging them to do something they believe is wrong, you are sinning against Christ. <sup>13</sup>So if what I eat causes another believer to sin, I will never eat meat again as long as I live—for I don’t want to cause another believer to stumble.

1 Corinthians 9

Paul Gives Up His Rights

<sup>1</sup>Am I not as free as anyone else? Am I not an apostle? Haven't I seen Jesus our Lord with my own eyes? Isn't it because of my work that you belong to the Lord? <sup>2</sup>Even if others think I am not an apostle, I certainly am to you. You yourselves are proof that I am the Lord's apostle.

<sup>3</sup>This is my answer to those who question my authority.* <sup>4</sup>Don't we have the right to live in your homes and share your meals? <sup>5</sup>Don't we have the right to bring a Christian wife with us as the other apostles and the Lord's brothers do, and as Peter* does? <sup>6</sup>Or is it only Barnabas and I who have to work to support ourselves?

<sup>7</sup>What soldier has to pay his own expenses? What farmer plants a vineyard and doesn't have the right to eat some of its fruit? What shepherd cares for a flock of sheep and isn't allowed to drink some of the milk? <sup>8</sup>Am I expressing merely a human opinion, or does the law say the same thing? <sup>9</sup>For the law of Moses says, "You must not muzzle an ox to keep it from eating as it treads out the grain."* Was God thinking only about oxen when he said this? <sup>10</sup>Wasn't he actually speaking to us? Yes, it was written for us, so that the one who plows and the one who threshes the grain might both expect a share of the harvest.

entitled to a harvest of physical food and drink? <sup>12</sup>If you support others who preach to you, shouldn't we have an even greater right to be supported? But we have never used this right. We would rather put up with anything than be an obstacle to the Good News about Christ.

<sup>13</sup>Don't you realize that those who work in the temple get their meals from the offerings brought to the temple? And those who serve at the altar get a share of the sacrificial offerings. <sup>14</sup>In the same way, the Lord ordered that those who preach the Good News should be supported by those who benefit from it. <sup>15</sup> Yet I have never used any of these rights. And I am not writing this to suggest that I want to start now. In fact, I would rather die than lose my right to boast about preaching without charge. <sup>16</sup>Yet preaching the Good News is not something I can boast about. I am compelled by God to do it. How terrible for me if I didn't preach the Good News!

<sup>17</sup>If I were doing this on my own initiative, I would deserve payment. But I have no choice, for God has given me this sacred trust. <sup>18</sup>What then is my pay? It is the opportunity to preach the Good News without charging anyone. That's why I never demand my rights when I preach the Good News.

<sup>19</sup>Even though I am a free man with no master, I have become a slave to all people to bring many to Christ. <sup>20</sup>When I was with the Jews, I lived like a Jew to bring the Jews to Christ. When I was with those who follow the Jewish law, I too lived under that law. Even though I am not subject to the law, I did this so I could bring to Christ those who are under the law. <sup>21</sup>When I am with the Gentiles who do not follow the Jewish law, * I too live apart from that law so I can bring them to Christ. But I do not ignore the law of God; I obey the law of Christ.

<sup>22</sup>When I am with those who are weak, I share their weakness, for I want to bring the weak to Christ. Yes, I try to find common ground with everyone, doing everything I can to save some.<sup>23</sup>I do everything to spread the Good News and share in its blessings.

<sup>24</sup>Don't you realize that in a race everyone runs, but only one person gets the prize? So run to win!<sup>25</sup>All athletes are disciplined in their training. They do it to win a prize that will fade away, but we do it for an eternal prize.<sup>26</sup>So I run with purpose in every step. I am not just shadowboxing.<sup>27</sup>I discipline my body like an athlete, training it to do what it should. Otherwise, I fear that after preaching to others I myself might be disqualified.

1 Corinthians 10

Lessons from Israel's Idolatry

<sup>1</sup> I don't want you to forget, dear brothers and sisters,* about our ancestors in the wilderness long ago. All of them were guided by a cloud that moved ahead of them, and all of them walked through the sea on dry ground. <sup>2</sup>In the cloud and in the sea, all of them were baptized as followers of Moses. <sup>3</sup>All of them ate the same spiritual food, <sup>4</sup>and all of them drank the same spiritual water. For they drank from the spiritual rock that traveled with them, and that rock was Christ. <sup>5</sup>Yet God was not pleased with most of them, and their bodies were scattered in the wilderness.

<sup>6</sup>These things happened as a warning to us, so that we would not crave evil things as they did, <sup>7</sup>or worship idols as some of them did. As the Scriptures say, "The people celebrated with feasting and drinking, and they indulged in pagan revelry."* <sup>8</sup>And we must not engage in sexual immorality as some of them did, causing 23,000 of them to die in one day.

<sup>9</sup>Nor should we put Christ* to the test, as some of them did and then died from snakebites. <sup>10</sup>And don't grumble as some of them did, and then were destroyed by the angel of death. <sup>11</sup>These things happened to them as examples for us. They were written down to warn us who live at the end of the age.

experience. And God is faithful. He will not allow the temptation to be more than you can stand. When you are tempted, he will show you a way out so that you can endure.

<sup>14</sup>So, my dear friends, flee from the worship of idols. <sup>15</sup>You are reasonable people. Decide for yourselves if what I am saying is true. <sup>16</sup>When we bless the cup at the Lord's Table, aren't we sharing in the blood of Christ? And when we break the bread, aren't we sharing in the body of Christ? <sup>17</sup>And though we are many, we all eat from one loaf of bread, showing that we are one body. <sup>18</sup>Think about the people of Israel. Weren't they united by eating the sacrifices at the altar?

<sup>19</sup>What am I trying to say? Am I saying that food offered to idols has some significance, or that idols are real gods? <sup>20</sup>No, not at all. I am saying that these sacrifices are offered to demons, not to God. And I don't want you to participate with demons. <sup>21</sup>You cannot drink from the cup of the Lord and from the cup of demons, too. You cannot eat at the Lord's Table and at the table of demons, too. <sup>22</sup>What? Do we dare to rouse the Lord's jealousy? Do you think we are stronger than he is?

<sup>23</sup> You say, "I am allowed to do anything" *—but not everything is good for you. You say, "I am allowed to do anything"—but not everything is beneficial. <sup>24</sup>Don't be concerned for your own good but for the good of others.

<sup>25</sup>So you may eat any meat that is sold in the marketplace without raising questions of conscience. <sup>26</sup>For "the earth is the LORD's, and everything in it." *

<sup>27</sup>If someone who isn't a believer asks you home for dinner, accept the invitation if you want to. Eat whatever is offered to you without raising questions of conscience.<sup>28</sup>(But suppose someone tells you, “This meat was offered to an idol.” Don’t eat it, out of consideration for the conscience of the one who told you.<sup>29</sup>It might not be a matter of conscience for you, but it is for the other person.) For why should my freedom be limited by what someone else thinks?<sup>30</sup>If I can thank God for the food and enjoy it, why should I be condemned for eating it?

<sup>31</sup>So whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God.<sup>32</sup>Don’t give offense to Jews or Gentiles* or the church of God.<sup>33</sup>I, too, try to please everyone in everything I do. I don’t just do what is best for me; I do what is best for others so that many may be saved.

<sup>11:1</sup> And you should imitate me, just as I imitate Christ.*

1 Corinthians 11

Instructions for Public Worship

<sup>2</sup>I am so glad that you always keep me in your thoughts, and that you are following the teachings I passed on to you. <sup>3</sup>But there is one thing I want you to know: The head of every man is Christ, the head of woman is man, and the head of Christ is God.* <sup>4</sup>A man dishonors his head* if he covers his head while praying or prophesying. <sup>5</sup>But a woman dishonors her head* if she prays or prophesies without a covering on her head, for this is the same as shaving her head. <sup>6</sup>Yes, if she refuses to wear a head covering, she should cut off all her hair! But since it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut or her head shaved, she should wear a covering.*

<sup>7</sup>A man should not wear anything on his head when worshiping, for man is made in God's image and reflects God's glory. And woman reflects man's glory. <sup>8</sup>For the first man didn't come from woman, but the first woman came from man. <sup>9</sup>And man was not made for woman, but woman was made for man. <sup>10</sup>For this reason, and because the angels are watching, a woman should wear a covering on her head to show she is under authority.*

<sup>11</sup>But among the Lord's people, women are not independent of men, and men are not independent of women. <sup>12</sup>For although the first woman came from man, every other man was born from a woman, and everything comes from God.

<sup>13</sup>Judge for yourselves. Is it right for a woman to pray to God in public without covering her head? <sup>14</sup>Isn't it obvious that it's disgraceful for a man to have long hair? <sup>15</sup>And isn't long hair a woman's pride and joy? For it has been given to her as a covering. <sup>16</sup>But if anyone wants to argue about this, I simply say that we have no other custom than this, and neither do God's other churches.

What to Wear on Sunday

Order at the Lord's Supper

<sup>17</sup> But in the following instructions, I cannot praise you. For it sounds as if more harm than good is done when you meet together. <sup>18</sup>First, I hear that there are divisions among you when you meet as a church, and to some extent I believe it. <sup>19</sup>But, of course, there must be divisions among you so that you who have God's approval will be recognized!

<sup>23</sup>For I pass on to you what I received from the Lord himself. On the night when he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread <sup>24</sup>and gave thanks to God for it. Then he broke it in pieces and said, “This is my body, which is given for you.* Do this to remember me.” <sup>25</sup>In the same way, he took the cup of wine after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant between God and his people—an agreement confirmed with my blood. Do this to remember me as often as you drink it.” <sup>26</sup>For every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are announcing the Lord’s death until he comes again.

<sup>27</sup>So anyone who eats this bread or drinks this cup of the Lord unworthily is guilty of sinning against* the body and blood of the Lord. <sup>28</sup>That is why you should examine yourself before eating the bread and drinking the cup. <sup>29</sup>For if you eat the bread or drink the cup without honoring the body of Christ,* you are eating and drinking God’s judgment upon yourself. <sup>30</sup>That is why many of you are weak and sick and some have even died.

<sup>31</sup>But if we would examine ourselves, we would not be judged by God in this way. <sup>32</sup>Yet when we are judged by the Lord, we are being disciplined so that we will not be condemned along with the world.

<sup>33</sup>So, my dear brothers and sisters,* when you gather for the Lord’s Supper, wait for each other. <sup>34</sup>If you are really hungry, eat at home so you won’t bring judgment upon yourselves when you meet together. I’ll give you instructions about the other matters after I arrive.

1 Corinthians 12

Spiritual Gifts

<sup>1</sup>Now, dear brothers and sisters,* regarding your question about the special abilities the Spirit gives us. I don't want you to misunderstand this. <sup>2</sup>You know that when you were still pagans, you were led astray and swept along in worshiping speechless idols. <sup>3</sup>So I want you to know that no one speaking by the Spirit of God will curse Jesus, and no one can say Jesus is Lord, except by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>4</sup> There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit is the source of them all. <sup>5</sup>There are different kinds of service, but we serve the same Lord. <sup>6</sup>God works in different ways, but it is the same God who does the work in all of us.

<sup>7</sup>A spiritual gift is given to each of us so we can help each other. <sup>8</sup>To one person the Spirit gives the ability to give wise advice*; to another the same Spirit gives a message of special knowledge.* <sup>9</sup>The same Spirit gives great faith to another, and to someone else the one Spirit gives the gift of healing. <sup>10</sup>He gives one person the power to perform miracles, and another the ability to prophesy. He gives someone else the ability to discern whether a message is from the Spirit of God or from another spirit. Still another person is given the ability to speak in unknown languages,* while another is given the ability to interpret what is being said. <sup>11</sup>It is the one and only Spirit who distributes all these gifts. He alone decides which gift each person should have.

One Body with Many Parts

<sup>12</sup>The human body has many parts, but the many parts make up one whole body. So it is with the body of Christ. <sup>13</sup>Some of us are Jews, some are Gentiles, some are slaves, and some are free. But we have all been baptized into one body by one Spirit, and we all share the same Spirit. *

<sup>14</sup>Yes, the body has many different parts, not just one part. <sup>15</sup>If the foot says, “I am not a part of the body because I am not a hand,” that does not make it any less a part of the body. <sup>16</sup>And if the ear says, “I am not part of the body because I am not an eye,” would that make it any less a part of the body? <sup>17</sup>If the whole body were an eye, how would you hear? Or if your whole body were an ear, how would you smell anything?

<sup>22</sup>In fact, some parts of the body that seem weakest and least important are actually the most necessary. <sup>23</sup>And the parts we regard as less honorable are those we clothe with the greatest care. So we carefully protect those parts that should not be seen, <sup>24</sup>while the more honorable parts do not require this special care. So God has put the body together such that extra honor and care are given to those parts that have less dignity.

members care for each other. <sup>26</sup>If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it, and if one part is honored, all the parts are glad.

<sup>27</sup>All of you together are Christ's body, and each of you is a part of it. <sup>28</sup>Here are some of the parts God has appointed for the church:

first are apostles,
second are prophets,
third are teachers,
then those who do miracles,
those who have the gift of healing,
those who can help others,
those who have the gift of leadership, those who speak in unknown languages.

<sup>29</sup>Are we all apostles? Are we all prophets? Are we all teachers? Do we all have the power to do miracles? <sup>30</sup>Do we all have the gift of healing? Do we all have the ability to speak in unknown languages? Do we all have the ability to interpret unknown languages? Of course not! <sup>31</sup> So you should earnestly desire the most helpful gifts.

But now let me show you a way of life that is best of all.

THE GIFT REGISTRY

In several places Paul and Peter write about “spiritual gifts” and give examples. Here’s an alphabetical list that combines all the gifts specifically tagged in the Greek text as charismata (literally, “grace-gifts”) from God.

Is this list exhaustive? Not necessarily, say many Bible scholars. But even so, it forms a bountiful registry on its own.

1 Corinthians 13

Love Is the Greatest

<sup>1</sup>If I could speak all the languages of earth and of angels, but didn't love others, I would only be a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. <sup>2</sup>If I had the gift of prophecy, and if I understood all of God's secret plans and possessed all knowledge, and if I had such faith that I could move mountains, but didn't love others, I would be nothing. <sup>3</sup>If I gave everything I have to the poor and even sacrificed my body, I could boast about it; * but if I didn't love others, I would have gained nothing.

<sup>8</sup>Prophecy and speaking in unknown languages * and special knowledge will become useless. But love will last forever! <sup>9</sup>Now our knowledge is partial and incomplete, and even the gift of prophecy reveals only part of the whole picture! <sup>10</sup>But when the time of perfection comes, these partial things will become useless.

<sup>11</sup>When I was a child, I spoke and thought and reasoned as a child. But when I grew up, I put away childish things. <sup>12</sup>Now we see things imperfectly, like puzzling reflections in a mirror, but then we will see everything with perfect clarity.* All that I know now is partial and incomplete, but then I will know everything completely, just as God now knows me completely.

<sup>13</sup>Three things will last forever—faith, hope, and love—and the greatest of these is love.

1 Corinthians 14

Tongues and Prophecy

<sup>1</sup>Let love be your highest goal! But you should also desire the special abilities the Spirit gives—especially the ability to prophesy. <sup>2</sup>For if you have the ability to speak in tongues,* you will be talking only to God, since people won't be able to understand you. You will be speaking by the power of the Spirit,* but it will all be mysterious. <sup>3</sup>But one who prophesies strengthens others, encourages them, and comforts them. <sup>4</sup>A person who speaks in tongues is strengthened personally, but one who speaks a word of prophecy strengthens the entire church.

<sup>5</sup>I wish you could all speak in tongues, but even more I wish you could all prophesy. For prophecy is greater than speaking in tongues, unless someone interprets what you are saying so that the whole church will be strengthened.

<sup>6</sup>Dear brothers and sisters,* if I should come to you speaking in an unknown language,* how would that help you? But if I bring you a revelation or some special knowledge or prophecy or teaching, that will be helpful. <sup>7</sup>Even lifeless instruments like the flute or the harp must play the notes clearly, or no one will recognize the melody. <sup>8</sup>And if the bugler doesn't sound a clear call, how will the soldiers know they are being called to battle?

<sup>9</sup>It's the same for you. If you speak to people in words they don't understand, how will they know what you are saying?

You might as well be talking into empty space.

<sup>10</sup>There are many different languages in the world, and every language has meaning. <sup>11</sup>But if I don't understand a language, I will be a foreigner to someone who speaks it, and the one who speaks it will be a foreigner to me. <sup>12</sup>And the same is true for you. Since you are so eager to have the special abilities the Spirit gives, seek those that will strengthen the whole church.

<sup>13</sup>So anyone who speaks in tongues should pray also for the ability to interpret what has been said. <sup>14</sup>For if I pray in tongues, my spirit is praying, but I don't understand what I am saying.

<sup>15</sup>Well then, what shall I do? I will pray in the spirit,* and I will also pray in words I understand. I will sing in the spirit, and I will also sing in words I understand. <sup>16</sup>For if you praise God only in the spirit, how can those who don't understand you praise God along with you? How can they join you in giving thanks when they don't understand what you are saying?

<sup>17</sup>You will be giving thanks very well, but it won't strengthen the people who hear you.

<sup>18</sup>I thank God that I speak in tongues more than any of you. <sup>19</sup>But in a church meeting I would rather speak five understandable words to help others than ten thousand words in an unknown language.

<sup>20</sup>Dear brothers and sisters, don't be childish in your understanding of these things. Be innocent as babies when it comes to evil, but be mature in understanding matters of this kind. <sup>21</sup>It is written in the Scriptures*:

“I will speak to my own people through strange languages and through the lips of foreigners.
But even then, they will not listen to me,”*
says the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>So you see that speaking in tongues is a sign, not for believers, but for unbelievers. Prophecy, however, is for the benefit of believers, not unbelievers. <sup>23</sup>Even so, if unbelievers or people who don’t understand these things come into your church meeting and hear everyone speaking in an unknown language, they will think you are crazy. <sup>24</sup>But if all of you are prophesying, and unbelievers or people who don’t understand these things come into your meeting, they will be convicted of sin and judged by what you say. <sup>25</sup>As they listen, their secret thoughts will be exposed, and they will fall to their knees and worship God, declaring, “God is truly here among you.”

A Call to Orderly Worship

<sup>26</sup>Well, my brothers and sisters, let’s summarize. When you meet together, one will sing, another will teach, another will tell some special revelation God has given, one will speak in tongues, and another will interpret what is said. But everything that is done must strengthen all of you.

<sup>27</sup>No more than two or three should speak in tongues. They must speak one at a time, and someone must interpret what they say. <sup>28</sup>But if no one is present who can interpret, they must be silent in your church meeting and speak in tongues to God privately.

<sup>29</sup>Let two or three people prophesy, and let the others evaluate what is said. <sup>30</sup>But if someone is prophesying and another person receives a revelation from the Lord, the one who is speaking must stop. <sup>31</sup>In this way, all who prophesy will have a turn to speak, one after the other, so that everyone will learn and be encouraged. <sup>32</sup>Remember that people who prophesy are in control of their spirit and can take turns. <sup>33</sup>For God is not a God of disorder but of peace, as in all the meetings of God's holy people.*

<sup>34</sup>Women should be silent during the church meetings. It is not proper for them to speak. They should be submissive, just as the law says. <sup>35</sup>If they have any questions, they should ask their husbands at home, for it is improper for women to speak in church meetings.*

<sup>36</sup>Or do you think God's word originated with you Corinthians? Are you the only ones to whom it was given? <sup>37</sup>If you claim to be a prophet or think you are spiritual, you should recognize that what I am saying is a command from the Lord himself. <sup>38</sup>But if you do not recognize this, you yourself will not be recognized.*

<sup>39</sup>So, my dear brothers and sisters, be eager to prophesy, and don't forbid speaking in tongues. <sup>40</sup>But be sure that everything is done properly and in order.

1 Corinthians 15

The Resurrection of Christ

<sup>1</sup>Let me now remind you, dear brothers and sisters,* of the Good News I preached to you before. You welcomed it then, and you still stand firm in it. <sup>2</sup>It is this Good News that saves you if you continue to believe the message I told you—unless, of course, you believed something that was never true in the first place.*

<sup>3</sup>I passed on to you what was most important and what had also been passed on to me. Christ died for our sins, just as the Scriptures said. <sup>4</sup>He was buried, and he was raised from the dead on the third day, just as the Scriptures said. <sup>5</sup>He was seen by Peter* and then by the Twelve. <sup>6</sup>After that, he was seen by more than 500 of his followers* at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. <sup>7</sup>Then he was seen by James and later by all the apostles. <sup>8</sup>Last of all, as though I had been born at the wrong time, I also saw him. <sup>9</sup>For I am the least of all the apostles. In fact, I'm not even worthy to be called an apostle after the way I persecuted God's church.

<sup>10</sup>But whatever I am now, it is all because God poured out his special favor on me—and not without results. For I have worked harder than any of the other apostles; yet it was not I but God who was working through me by his grace. <sup>11</sup>So it makes no difference whether I preach or they preach, for we all preach the same message you have already believed.

The Resurrection of the Dead

<sup>12</sup>But tell me this—since we preach that Christ rose from the dead, why are some of you saying there will be no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup>For if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised either. <sup>14</sup>And if Christ has not been raised, then all our preaching is useless, and your faith is useless. <sup>15</sup>And we apostles would all be lying about God—for we have said that God raised Christ from the grave. But that can't be true if there is no resurrection of the dead. <sup>16</sup>And if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised. <sup>17</sup>And if Christ has not been raised, then your faith is useless and you are still guilty of your sins. <sup>18</sup>In that case, all who have died believing in Christ are lost! <sup>19</sup>And if our hope in Christ is only for this life, we are more to be pitied than anyone in the world.

<sup>20</sup>But in fact, Christ has been raised from the dead. He is the first of a great harvest of all who have died.

<sup>21</sup>So you see, just as death came into the world through a man, now the resurrection from the dead has begun through another man. <sup>22</sup>Just as everyone dies because we all belong to Adam, everyone who belongs to Christ will be given new life. <sup>23</sup>But there is an order to this resurrection: Christ was raised as the first of the harvest; then all who belong to Christ will be raised when he comes back.

<sup>24</sup>After that the end will come, when he will turn the Kingdom over to God the Father, having destroyed every ruler and authority and power. <sup>25</sup>For Christ must reign until he humbles all his enemies beneath his feet.<sup>26</sup> And the last enemy to be destroyed is death.<sup>27</sup> For the Scriptures say, “God has put all things under his authority.”* (Of course, when it says “all things are under his authority,” that does not include God himself, who gave Christ his authority.)<sup>28</sup> Then, when all things are under his authority, the Son will put himself under God’s authority, so that God, who gave his Son authority over all things, will be utterly supreme over everything everywhere.

<sup>29</sup> If the dead will not be raised, what point is there in people being baptized for those who are dead? Why do it unless the dead will someday rise again?

<sup>30</sup> And why should we ourselves risk our lives hour by hour?<sup>31</sup> For I swear, dear brothers and sisters, that I face death daily. This is as certain as my pride in what Christ Jesus our Lord has done in you.<sup>32</sup> And what value was there in fighting wild beasts—those people of Ephesus*—if there will be no resurrection from the dead? And if there is no resurrection, “Let’s feast and drink, for tomorrow we die!”*<sup>33</sup> Don’t be fooled by those who say such things, for “bad company corrupts good character.”<sup>34</sup> Think carefully about what is right, and stop sinning. For to your shame I say that some of you don’t know God at all.

The Resurrection Body

<sup>35</sup> But someone may ask, “How will the dead be raised? What kind of bodies will they have?”<sup>36</sup> What a foolish question! When you put a seed into the ground, it doesn’t grow into a plant unless it dies first.<sup>37</sup> And what you put in the ground is not the plant that will grow, but only a bare seed of wheat or whatever you are planting.<sup>38</sup> Then God gives it the new body he wants it to have. A different plant grows from each kind of seed.<sup>39</sup> Similarly there are different kinds of flesh—one kind for humans, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish.

<sup>40</sup>There are also bodies in the heavens and bodies on the earth. The glory of the heavenly bodies is different from the glory of the earthly bodies.<sup>41</sup> The sun has one kind of glory, while the moon and stars each have another kind. And even the stars differ from each other in their glory.

<sup>42</sup>It is the same way with the resurrection of the dead. Our earthly bodies are planted in the ground when we die, but they will be raised to live forever.<sup>43</sup> Our bodies are buried in brokenness, but they will be raised in glory. They are buried in weakness, but they will be raised in strength.<sup>44</sup> They are buried as natural human bodies, but they will be raised as spiritual bodies. For just as there are natural bodies, there are also spiritual bodies.

<sup>45</sup>The Scriptures tell us, “The first man, Adam, became a living person.”* But the last Adam—that is, Christ—is a life-giving Spirit.<sup>46</sup> What comes first is the natural body, then the spiritual body comes later.<sup>47</sup> Adam, the first man, was made from the dust of the earth, while Christ, the second man, came from heaven.<sup>48</sup> Earthly people are like the earthly man, and heavenly people are like the heavenly man.<sup>49</sup> Just as we are now like the earthly man, we will someday be like* the heavenly man.

<sup>50</sup>What I am saying, dear brothers and sisters, is that our physical bodies cannot inherit the Kingdom of God. These dying bodies cannot inherit what will last forever.

<sup>51</sup>But let me reveal to you a wonderful secret. We will not all die, but we will all be transformed! <sup>52</sup>It will happen in a moment, in the blink of an eye, when the last trumpet is blown. For when the trumpet sounds, those who have died will be raised to live forever. And we who are living will also be transformed. <sup>53</sup>For our dying bodies must be transformed into bodies that will never die; our mortal bodies must be transformed into immortal bodies.

<sup>54</sup>Then, when our dying bodies have been transformed into bodies that will never die,* this Scripture will be fulfilled:

“Death is swallowed up in victory.*

<sup>55</sup>O death, where is your victory?

O death, where is your sting?*”

<sup>56</sup>For sin is the sting that results in death, and the law gives sin its power. <sup>57</sup>But thank God! He gives us victory over sin and death through our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>58</sup>So, my dear brothers and sisters, be strong and immovable. Always work enthusiastically for the Lord, for you know that nothing you do for the Lord is ever useless.

1 Corinthians 16

The Collection for Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Now regarding your question about the money being collected for God's people in Jerusalem. You should follow the same procedure I gave to the churches in Galatia. <sup>2</sup>On the first day of each week, you should each put aside a portion of the money you have earned. Don't wait until I get there and then try to collect it all at once. <sup>3</sup>When I come, I will write letters of recommendation for the messengers you choose to deliver your gift to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>And if it seems appropriate for me to go along, they can travel with me.

Paul's Final Instructions

<sup>5</sup>I am coming to visit you after I have been to Macedonia,* for I am planning to travel through Macedonia. <sup>6</sup>Perhaps I will stay awhile with you, possibly all winter, and then you can send me on my way to my next destination. <sup>7</sup>This time I don't want to make just a short visit and then go right on. I want to come and stay awhile, if the Lord will let me. <sup>8</sup>In the meantime, I will be staying here at Ephesus until the Festival of Pentecost. <sup>9</sup>There is a wide-open door for a great work here, although many oppose me.

<sup>10</sup>When Timothy comes, don't intimidate him. He is doing the Lord's work, just as I am. <sup>11</sup>Don't let anyone treat him with contempt. Send him on his way with your blessing when he returns to me. I expect him to come with the other believers.*

<sup>12</sup>Now about our brother Apollos—I urged him to visit you with the other believers, but he was not willing to go right now. He will see you later when he has the opportunity.

<sup>15</sup>You know that Stephanas and his household were the first of the harvest of believers in Greece,* and they are spending their lives in service to God's people. I urge you, dear brothers and sisters,* <sup>16</sup>to submit to them and others like them who serve with such devotion. <sup>17</sup>I am very glad that Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus have come here. They have been providing the help you weren't here to give me. <sup>18</sup>They have been a wonderful encouragement to me, as they have been to you. You must show your appreciation to all who serve so well.

Paul's Final Greetings

<sup>19</sup>The churches here in the province of Asia* send greetings in the Lord, as do Aquila and Priscilla* and all the others who gather in their home for church meetings. <sup>20</sup>All the brothers and sisters here send greetings to you. Greet each other with Christian love.*

1:3-4

All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is our merciful Father and the source of all comfort. He comforts us in all our troubles so that we can comfort others. When they are troubled, we will be able to give them the same comfort God has given us.

3:17-18

For the Lord is the Spirit, and wherever the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. So all of us who have had that veil removed can see and reflect the glory of the Lord. And the Lord—who is the Spirit—makes us more and more like him as we are changed into his glorious image.

TOUGH GOING.

Paul's toughness and endurance rival anything we can find in sports or the military. Just look at his never-give-up attitude (4:7-12), the hardships he went through (11:23-28), and his admissions of weakness (11:29-33; 12:7-11). He did all this out of sacrificial love for other Christians (4:15)—a world-class role model for all of us.

2 Corinthians 1

Greetings from Paul

<sup>1</sup> This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from our brother Timothy.

I am writing to God's church in Corinth and to all of his holy people throughout Greece.*

<sup>2</sup>May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

God Offers Comfort to All

<sup>3</sup>All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is our merciful Father and the source of all comfort. <sup>4</sup>He comforts us in all our troubles so that we can comfort others. When they are troubled, we will be able to give them the same comfort God has given us. <sup>5</sup>For the more we suffer for Christ, the more God will shower us with his comfort through Christ. <sup>6</sup>Even when we are weighed down with troubles, it is for your comfort and salvation! For when we ourselves are comforted, we will certainly comfort you. Then you can patiently endure the same things we suffer. <sup>7</sup>We are confident that as you share in our sufferings, you will also share in the comfort God gives us.

<sup>8</sup> We think you ought to know, dear brothers and sisters, * about the trouble we went through in the province of Asia. We were crushed and overwhelmed beyond our ability to endure, and we thought we would never live through it. <sup>9</sup>In fact, we expected to die. But as a result, we stopped relying on ourselves and learned to rely only on God, who raises the dead. <sup>10</sup>And he did rescue us from mortal danger, and he will rescue us again. We have placed our confidence in him, and he will continue to rescue us. <sup>11</sup> And you are helping us by praying for us. Then many people will give thanks because God has graciously answered so many prayers for our safety.

Paul's Change of Plans

<sup>12</sup>We can say with confidence and a clear conscience that we have lived with a God-given holiness * and sincerity in all our dealings. We have depended on God's grace, not on our own human wisdom. That is how we have conducted ourselves before the world, and especially toward you. <sup>13</sup>Our letters have been straightforward, and there is nothing written between the lines and nothing you can't understand. I hope someday you will fully understand us, <sup>14</sup>even if you don't understand us now. Then on the day when the Lord Jesus * returns, you will be proud of us in the same way we are proud of you.

<sup>15</sup>Since I was so sure of your understanding and trust, I wanted to give you a double blessing by visiting you twice —<sup>16</sup>first on my way to Macedonia and again when I returned from Macedonia.* Then you could send me on my way to Judea.

<sup>17</sup>You may be asking why I changed my plan. Do you think I make my plans carelessly? Do you think I am like people of the world who say “Yes” when they really mean “No”? <sup>18</sup>As surely as God is faithful, our word to you does not waver between “Yes” and “No.” <sup>19</sup>For Jesus Christ, the Son of God, does not waver between “Yes” and “No.” He is the one whom Silas,* Timothy, and I preached to you, and as God’s ultimate “Yes,” he always does what he says. <sup>20</sup>For all of God’s promises have been fulfilled in Christ with a resounding “Yes!” And through Christ, our “Amen” (which means “Yes”) ascends to God for his glory.

<sup>21</sup>It is God who enables us, along with you, to stand firm for Christ. He has commissioned us, <sup>22</sup>and he has identified us as his own by placing the Holy Spirit in our hearts as the first installment that guarantees everything he has promised us.

<sup>23</sup>Now I call upon God as my witness that I am telling the truth. The reason I didn’t return to Corinth was to spare you from a severe rebuke. <sup>24</sup>But that does not mean we want to dominate you by telling you how to put your faith into practice. We want to work together with you so you will be full of joy, for it is by your own faith that you stand firm.

2 Corinthians 2

<sup>1</sup>So I decided that I would not bring you grief with another painful visit. <sup>2</sup>For if I cause you grief, who will make me glad? Certainly not someone I have grieved. <sup>3</sup>That is why I wrote to you as I did, so that when I do come, I won't be grieved by the very ones who ought to give me the greatest joy. Surely you all know that my joy comes from your being joyful. <sup>4</sup>I wrote that letter in great anguish, with a troubled heart and many tears. I didn't want to grieve you, but I wanted to let you know how much love I have for you.

Forgiveness for the Sinner

<sup>5</sup>I am not overstating it when I say that the man who caused all the trouble hurt all of you more than he hurt me. <sup>6</sup>Most of you opposed him, and that was punishment enough. <sup>7</sup>Now, however, it is time to forgive and comfort him. Otherwise he may be overcome by discouragement. <sup>8</sup>So I urge you now to reaffirm your love for him.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote to you as I did to test you and see if you would fully comply with my instructions. <sup>10</sup>When you forgive this man, I forgive him, too. And when I forgive whatever needs to be forgiven, I do so with Christ's authority for your benefit, <sup>11</sup>so that Satan will not outsmart us. For we are familiar with his evil schemes.

<sup>12</sup>When I came to the city of Troas to preach the Good News of Christ, the Lord opened a door of opportunity for me. <sup>13</sup>But I had no peace of mind because my dear brother Titus hadn't yet arrived with a report from you. So I said good-bye and went on to Macedonia to find him.

Ministers of the New Covenant

<sup>14</sup> But thank God! He has made us his captives and continues to lead us along in Christ's triumphal procession. Now he uses us to spread the knowledge of Christ everywhere, like a sweet perfume. <sup>15</sup>Our lives are a Christ-like fragrance rising up to God. But this fragrance is perceived differently by those who are being saved and by those who are perishing. <sup>16</sup>To those who are perishing, we are a dreadful smell of death and doom. But to those who are being saved, we are a life-giving perfume. And who is adequate for such a task as this?

<sup>17</sup>You see, we are not like the many hucksters* who preach for personal profit. We preach the word of God with sincerity and with Christ's authority, knowing that God is watching us.

2 Corinthians 3

<sup>1</sup>Are we beginning to praise ourselves again? Are we like others, who need to bring you letters of recommendation, or who ask you to write such letters on their behalf? Surely not!

<sup>2</sup>The only letter of recommendation we need is you yourselves. Your lives are a letter written in our* hearts; everyone can read it and recognize our good work among you. <sup>3</sup>Clearly, you are a letter from Christ showing the result of our ministry among you. This “letter” is written not with pen and ink, but with the Spirit of the living God. It is carved not on tablets of stone, but on human hearts.

<sup>4</sup> We are confident of all this because of our great trust in God through Christ. <sup>5</sup>It is not that we think we are qualified to do anything on our own. Our qualification comes from God. <sup>6</sup> He has enabled us to be ministers of his new covenant. This is a covenant not of written laws, but of the Spirit. The old written covenant ends in death; but under the new covenant, the Spirit gives life.

The Glory of the New Covenant

<sup>7</sup>The old way,* with laws etched in stone, led to death, though it began with such glory that the people of Israel could not bear to look at Moses’ face. For his face shone with the glory of God, even though the brightness was already fading away.

<sup>8</sup>Shouldn’t we expect far greater glory under the new way, now that the Holy Spirit is giving life? <sup>9</sup>If the old way, which brings condemnation, was glorious, how much more glorious is the new way, which makes us right with God! <sup>10</sup>In fact, that first glory was not glorious at all compared with the overwhelming glory of the new way. <sup>11</sup>So if the old way, which has been replaced, was glorious, how much more glorious is the new, which remains forever!

<sup>12</sup>Since this new way gives us such confidence, we can be very bold. <sup>13</sup>We are not like Moses, who put a veil over his face so the people of Israel would not see the glory, even though it was destined to fade away. <sup>14</sup>But the people's minds were hardened, and to this day whenever the old covenant is being read, the same veil covers their minds so they cannot understand the truth. And this veil can be removed only by believing in Christ. <sup>15</sup>Yes, even today when they read Moses' writings, their hearts are covered with that veil, and they do not understand.

<sup>16</sup>But whenever someone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. <sup>17</sup>For the Lord is the Spirit, and wherever the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. <sup>18</sup>So all of us who have had that veil removed can see and reflect the glory of the Lord. And the Lord—who is the Spirit—makes us more and more like him as we are changed into his glorious image.

2 Corinthians 4

Treasure in Fragile Clay Jars

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, since God in his mercy has given us this new way,* we never give up. <sup>2</sup>We reject all shameful deeds and underhanded methods. We don't try to trick anyone or distort the word of God. We tell the truth before God, and all who are honest know this.

<sup>3</sup> If the Good News we preach is hidden behind a veil, it is hidden only from people who are perishing. <sup>4</sup>Satan, who is the god of this world, has blinded the minds of those who don't believe. They are unable to see the glorious light of the Good News. They don't understand this message about the glory of Christ, who is the exact likeness of God.

<sup>5</sup>You see, we don't go around preaching about ourselves. We preach that Jesus Christ is Lord, and we ourselves are your servants for Jesus' sake. <sup>6</sup>For God, who said, "Let there be light in the darkness," has made this light shine in our hearts so we could know the glory of God that is seen in the face of Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup>We now have this light shining in our hearts, but we ourselves are like fragile clay jars containing this great treasure.* This makes it clear that our great power is from God, not from ourselves.

<sup>8</sup> We are pressed on every side by troubles, but we are not crushed. We are perplexed, but not driven to despair. <sup>9</sup>We are hunted down, but never abandoned by God. We get knocked down, but we are not destroyed.<sup>10</sup>Through suffering, our bodies continue to share in the death of Jesus so that the life of Jesus may also be seen in our bodies.

<sup>11</sup>Yes, we live under constant danger of death because we serve Jesus, so that the life of Jesus will be evident in our dying bodies. <sup>12</sup>So we live in the face of death, but this has resulted in eternal life for you.

<sup>13</sup>But we continue to preach because we have the same kind of faith the psalmist had when he said, “I believed in God, so I spoke.”* <sup>14</sup>We know that God, who raised the Lord Jesus,* will also raise us with Jesus and present us to himself together with you. <sup>15</sup>All of this is for your benefit. And as God’s grace reaches more and more people, there will be great thanksgiving, and God will receive more and more glory.

<sup>16</sup> That is why we never give up. Though our bodies are dying, our spirits are* being renewed every day. <sup>17</sup>For our present troubles are small and won’t last very long. Yet they produce for us a glory that vastly outweighs them and will last forever! <sup>18</sup>So we don’t look at the troubles we can see now; rather, we fix our gaze on things that cannot be seen. For the things we see now will soon be gone, but the things we cannot see will last forever.

2 Corinthians 5

New Bodies

<sup>1</sup> For we know that when this earthly tent we live in is taken down (that is, when we die and leave this earthly body), we will have a house in heaven, an eternal body made for us by God himself and not by human hands. <sup>2</sup>We grow weary in our present bodies, and we long to put on our heavenly bodies like new clothing. <sup>3</sup>For we will put on heavenly bodies; we will not be spirits without bodies.* <sup>4</sup>While we live in these earthly bodies, we groan and sigh, but it's not that we want to die and get rid of these bodies that clothe us. Rather, we want to put on our new bodies so that these dying bodies will be swallowed up by life. <sup>5</sup>God himself has prepared us for this, and as a guarantee he has given us his Holy Spirit.

<sup>6</sup> So we are always confident, even though we know that as long as we live in these bodies we are not at home with the Lord. <sup>7</sup>For we live by believing and not by seeing. <sup>8</sup>Yes, we are fully confident, and we would rather be away from these earthly bodies, for then we will be at home with the Lord. <sup>9</sup>So whether we are here in this body or away from this body, our goal is to please him. <sup>10</sup> For we must all stand before Christ to be judged. We will each receive whatever we deserve for the good or evil we have done in this earthly body.

We Are God's Ambassadors

<sup>11</sup>Because we understand our fearful responsibility to the Lord, we work hard to persuade others. God knows we are sincere, and I hope you know this, too. <sup>12</sup>Are we commending ourselves to you again? No, we are giving you a reason to be proud of us,* so you can answer those who brag about having a spectacular ministry rather than having a sincere heart. <sup>13</sup>If it seems we are crazy, it is to bring glory to God. And if we are in our right minds, it is for your benefit. <sup>14</sup>Either way, Christ's love controls us.* Since we believe that Christ died for all, we also believe that we have all died to our old life.* <sup>15</sup>He died for everyone so that those who receive his new life will no longer live for themselves. Instead, they will live for Christ, who died and was raised for them.

<sup>16</sup>So we have stopped evaluating others from a human point of view. At one time we thought of Christ merely from a human point of view. How differently we know him now! <sup>17</sup>This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun!

<sup>18</sup>And all of this is a gift from God, who brought us back to himself through Christ. And God has given us this task of reconciling people to him. <sup>19</sup>For God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, no longer counting people's sins against them. And he gave us this wonderful message of reconciliation. <sup>20</sup>So we are Christ's ambassadors; God is making his appeal through us. We speak for Christ when we plead, "Come back to God!" <sup>21</sup>For God made Christ, who never sinned, to be the offering for our sin,* so that we could be made right with God through Christ.

2 Corinthians 6

<sup>1</sup>As God's partners,* we beg you not to accept this marvelous gift of God's kindness and then ignore it. <sup>2</sup>For God says,

“At just the right time, I heard you.

On the day of salvation, I helped you.”*

Indeed, the “right time” is now. Today is the day of salvation.

Paul's Hardships

<sup>3</sup> We live in such a way that no one will stumble because of us, and no one will find fault with our ministry. <sup>4</sup>In everything we do, we show that we are true ministers of God. We patiently endure troubles and hardships and calamities of every kind.

<sup>5</sup>We have been beaten, been put in prison, faced angry mobs, worked to exhaustion, endured sleepless nights, and gone without food. <sup>6</sup>We prove ourselves by our purity, our understanding, our patience, our kindness, by the Holy Spirit within us,* and by our sincere love. <sup>7</sup>We faithfully preach the truth. God's power is working in us. We use the weapons of righteousness in the right hand for attack and the left hand for defense. <sup>8</sup> We serve God whether people honor us or despise us, whether they slander us or praise us. We are honest, but they call us impostors. <sup>9</sup>We are ignored, even though we are well known. We live close to death, but we are still alive. We have been beaten, but we have not been killed. <sup>10</sup>Our hearts ache, but we always have joy. We are poor, but we give spiritual riches to others. We own nothing, and yet we have everything.

<sup>11</sup> Oh, dear Corinthian friends! We have spoken honestly with you, and our hearts are open to you. <sup>12</sup>There is no lack of love on our part, but you have withheld your love from us. <sup>13</sup>I am asking you to respond as if you were my own children. Open your hearts to us!

The Temple of the Living God

<sup>14</sup> Don't team up with those who are unbelievers. How can righteousness be a partner with wickedness? How can light live with darkness? <sup>15</sup>What harmony can there be between Christ and the devil*? How can a believer be a partner with an unbeliever? <sup>16</sup>And what union can there be between God's temple and idols? For we are the temple of the living God. As God said:

“I will live in them and walk among them.
I will be their God,
and they will be my people.*

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, come out from among unbelievers, and separate yourselves from them, says the LORD.
Don't touch their filthy things, and I will welcome you.*

<sup>18</sup>And I will be your Father, and you will be my sons and daughters, says the LORD Almighty.*”

men, women, & God

Unholy Alliances

2 Corinthians 7

<sup>1</sup>Because we have these promises, dear friends, let us cleanse ourselves from everything that can defile our body or spirit. And let us work toward complete holiness because we fear God.

<sup>2</sup>Please open your hearts to us. We have not done wrong to anyone, nor led anyone astray, nor taken advantage of anyone.

<sup>3</sup>I'm not saying this to condemn you. I said before that you are in our hearts, and we live or die together with you. <sup>4</sup>I have the highest confidence in you, and I take great pride in you. You have greatly encouraged me and made me happy despite all our troubles.

Paul's Joy at the Church's Repentance

<sup>5</sup>When we arrived in Macedonia, there was no rest for us. We faced conflict from every direction, with battles on the outside and fear on the inside. <sup>6</sup>But God, who encourages those who are discouraged, encouraged us by the arrival of Titus. <sup>7</sup>His presence was a joy, but so was the news he brought of the encouragement he received from you. When he told us how much you long to see me, and how sorry you are for what happened, and how loyal you are to me, I was filled with joy!

<sup>8</sup>I am not sorry that I sent that severe letter to you, though I was sorry at first, for I know it was painful to you for a little while. <sup>9</sup>Now I am glad I sent it, not because it hurt you, but because the pain caused you to repent and change your ways.

It was the kind of sorrow God wants his people to have, so you were not harmed by us in any way. <sup>10</sup>For the kind of sorrow God wants us to experience leads us away from sin and results in salvation. There's no regret for that kind of sorrow. But worldly sorrow, which lacks repentance, results in spiritual death.

<sup>11</sup> Just see what this godly sorrow produced in you! Such earnestness, such concern to clear yourselves, such indignation, such alarm, such longing to see me, such zeal, and such a readiness to punish wrong. You showed that you have done everything necessary to make things right. <sup>12</sup>My purpose, then, was not to write about who did the wrong or who was wronged. I wrote to you so that in the sight of God you could see for yourselves how loyal you are to us. <sup>13</sup>We have been greatly encouraged by this.

In addition to our own encouragement, we were especially delighted to see how happy Titus was about the way all of you welcomed him and set his mind* at ease. <sup>14</sup>I had told him how proud I was of you—and you didn't disappoint me. I have always told you the truth, and now my boasting to Titus has also proved true! <sup>15</sup> Now he cares for you more than ever when he remembers the way all of you obeyed him and welcomed him with such fear and deep respect. <sup>16</sup>I am very happy now because I have complete confidence in you.

2 Corinthians 8

A Call to Generous Giving

<sup>1</sup>Now I want you to know, dear brothers and sisters,* what God in his kindness has done through the churches in Macedonia.

<sup>2</sup>They are being tested by many troubles, and they are very poor. But they are also filled with abundant joy, which has overflowed in rich generosity.

<sup>3</sup>For I can testify that they gave not only what they could afford, but far more. And they did it of their own free will.

<sup>4</sup>They begged us again and again for the privilege of sharing in the gift for the believers in Jerusalem.* <sup>5</sup>They even did more than we had hoped, for their first action was to give themselves to the Lord and to us, just as God wanted them to do.

<sup>6</sup>So we have urged Titus, who encouraged your giving in the first place, to return to you and encourage you to finish this ministry of giving. <sup>7</sup>Since you excel in so many ways—in your faith, your gifted speakers, your knowledge, your enthusiasm, and your love from us*—I want you to excel also in this gracious act of giving.

<sup>8</sup>I am not commanding you to do this. But I am testing how genuine your love is by comparing it with the eagerness of the other churches.

<sup>9</sup> You know the generous grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. Though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty he could make you rich.

<sup>10</sup> Here is my advice: It would be good for you to finish what you started a year ago. Last year you were the first who wanted to give, and you were the first to begin doing it. <sup>11</sup>Now you should finish what you started. Let the eagerness you showed in the beginning be matched now by your giving. Give in proportion to what you have. <sup>12</sup>Whatever you give is acceptable if you give it eagerly. And give according to what you have, not what you don't have. <sup>13</sup>Of course, I don't mean your giving should make life easy for others and hard for yourselves. I only mean that there should be some equality. <sup>14</sup>Right now you have plenty and can help those who are in need. Later, they will have plenty and can share with you when you need it. In this way, things will be equal. <sup>15</sup>As the Scriptures say,

and those who gathered only a little had enough.”*

Titus and His Companions

<sup>16</sup>But thank God! He has given Titus the same enthusiasm for you that I have. <sup>17</sup>Titus welcomed our request that he visit you again. In fact, he himself was very eager to go and see you. <sup>18</sup>We are also sending another brother with Titus. All the churches praise him as a preacher of the Good News. <sup>19</sup>He was appointed by the churches to accompany us as we take the offering to Jerusalem*—a service that glorifies the Lord and shows our eagerness to help.

<sup>20</sup>We are traveling together to guard against any criticism for the way we are handling this generous gift. <sup>21</sup>We are careful to be honorable before the Lord, but we also want everyone else to see that we are honorable.

<sup>22</sup>We are also sending with them another of our brothers who has proven himself many times and has shown on many occasions how eager he is. He is now even more enthusiastic because of his great confidence in you. <sup>23</sup>If anyone asks about Titus, say that he is my partner who works with me to help you. And the brothers with him have been sent by the churches,* and they bring honor to Christ. <sup>24</sup>So show them your love, and prove to all the churches that our boasting about you is justified.

2 Corinthians 9

The Collection for Christians in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>I really don't need to write to you about this ministry of giving for the believers in Jerusalem.* <sup>2</sup>For I know how eager you are to help, and I have been boasting to the churches in Macedonia that you in Greece* were ready to send an offering a year ago. In fact, it was your enthusiasm that stirred up many of the Macedonian believers to begin giving.

<sup>3</sup>But I am sending these brothers to be sure you really are ready, as I have been telling them, and that your money is all collected. I don't want to be wrong in my boasting about you.

<sup>4</sup>We would be embarrassed—not to mention your own embarrassment—if some Macedonian believers came with me and found that you weren't ready after all I had told them! <sup>5</sup>So I thought I should send these brothers ahead of me to make sure the gift you promised is ready. But I want it to be a willing gift, not one given grudgingly.

<sup>6</sup>Remember this—a farmer who plants only a few seeds will get a small crop. But the one who plants generously will get a generous crop. <sup>7</sup>You must each decide in your heart how much to give. And don't give reluctantly or in response to pressure. "For God loves a person who gives cheerfully."* <sup>8</sup>And God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others. <sup>9</sup>As the Scriptures say,

PERSPECTIVES

“God loves a person who gives cheerfully.” And God will generously provide all you need.

2 CORINTHIANS 9:7-8

A man there was and they called him mad;

The more he gave, the more he had.

JOHN BUNYAN (1628–1688), AUTHOR OF THE PILGRIM’S PROGRESS

“They share freely and give generously to the poor.
Their good deeds will be remembered forever.”*

<sup>10</sup>For God is the one who provides seed for the farmer and then bread to eat. In the same way, he will provide and increase your resources and then produce a great harvest of generosity* in you.

<sup>11</sup>Yes, you will be enriched in every way so that you can always be generous. And when we take your gifts to those who need them, they will thank God. <sup>12</sup>So two good things will result from this ministry of giving—the needs of the believers in Jerusalem* will be met, and they will joyfully express their thanks to God.

<sup>13</sup>As a result of your ministry, they will give glory to God. For your generosity to them and to all believers will prove that you are obedient to the Good News of Christ. <sup>14</sup>And they will pray for you with deep affection because of the overflowing grace God has given to you. <sup>15</sup>Thank God for this gift* too wonderful for words!

2 Corinthians 10

Paul Defends His Authority

<sup>1</sup>Now I, Paul, appeal to you with the gentleness and kindness of Christ—though I realize you think I am timid in person and bold only when I write from far away. <sup>2</sup>Well, I am begging you now so that when I come I won't have to be bold with those who think we act from human motives.

<sup>3</sup>We are human, but we don't wage war as humans do. <sup>4*</sup>We use God's mighty weapons, not worldly weapons, to knock down the strongholds of human reasoning and to destroy false arguments. <sup>5</sup>We destroy every proud obstacle that keeps people from knowing God. We capture their rebellious thoughts and teach them to obey Christ. <sup>6</sup>And after you have become fully obedient, we will punish everyone who remains disobedient.

<sup>7</sup>Look at the obvious facts. *Those who say they belong to Christ must recognize that we belong to Christ as much as they do. <sup>8</sup>I may seem to be boasting too much about the authority given to us by the Lord. But our authority builds you up; it doesn't tear you down. So I will not be ashamed of using my authority.

<sup>9</sup>I'm not trying to frighten you by my letters. <sup>10</sup>For some say, "Paul's letters are demanding and forceful, but in person he is weak, and his speeches are worthless!" <sup>11</sup>Those people should realize that our actions when we arrive in person will be as forceful as what we say in our letters from far away.

<sup>12</sup>Oh, don't worry; we wouldn't dare say that we are as wonderful as these other men who tell you how important they are! But they are only comparing themselves with each other, using themselves as the standard of measurement. How ignorant!

<sup>13</sup>We will not boast about things done outside our area of authority. We will boast only about what has happened within the boundaries of the work God has given us, which includes our working with you. <sup>14</sup>We are not reaching beyond these boundaries when we claim authority over you, as if we had never visited you. For we were the first to travel all the way to Corinth with the Good News of Christ.

<sup>15</sup>Nor do we boast and claim credit for the work someone else has done. Instead, we hope that your faith will grow so that the boundaries of our work among you will be extended. <sup>16</sup>Then we will be able to go and preach the Good News in other places far beyond you, where no one else is working. Then there will be no question of our boasting about work done in someone else's territory. <sup>17</sup>As the Scriptures say, "If you want to boast, boast only about the LORD."*   

2 Corinthians 11

Paul and the False Apostles

<sup>1</sup>I hope you will put up with a little more of my foolishness. Please bear with me. <sup>2</sup>For I am jealous for you with the jealousy of God himself. I promised you as a pure bride* to one husband—Christ. <sup>3</sup>But I fear that somehow your pure and undivided devotion to Christ will be corrupted, just as Eve was deceived by the cunning ways of the serpent. <sup>4</sup>You happily put up with whatever anyone tells you, even if they preach a different Jesus than the one we preach, or a different kind of Spirit than the one you received, or a different kind of gospel than the one you believed.

<sup>5</sup>But I don't consider myself inferior in any way to these "super apostles" who teach such things. <sup>6</sup>I may be unskilled as a speaker, but I'm not lacking in knowledge. We have made this clear to you in every possible way.

<sup>7</sup>Was I wrong when I humbled myself and honored you by preaching God's Good News to you without expecting anything in return? <sup>8</sup>I "robbed" other churches by accepting their contributions so I could serve you at no cost. <sup>9</sup>And when I was with you and didn't have enough to live on, I did not become a financial burden to anyone. For the brothers who came from Macedonia brought me all that I needed. I have never been a burden to you, and I never will be. <sup>10</sup>As surely as the truth of Christ is in me, no one in all of Greece* will ever stop me from boasting about this. <sup>11</sup>Why? Because I don't love you? God knows that I do.

<sup>12</sup>But I will continue doing what I have always done. This will undercut those who are looking for an opportunity to boast that their work is just like ours. <sup>13</sup>These people are false apostles. They are deceitful workers who disguise themselves as apostles of Christ. <sup>14</sup>But I am not surprised! Even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light. <sup>15</sup>So it is no wonder that his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. In the end they will get the punishment their wicked deeds deserve.

Paul's Many Trials

<sup>16</sup>Again I say, don't think that I am a fool to talk like this. But even if you do, listen to me, as you would to a foolish person, while I also boast a little. <sup>17</sup>Such boasting is not from the Lord, but I am acting like a fool. <sup>18</sup>And since others boast about their human achievements, I will, too. <sup>19</sup>After all, you think you are so wise, but you enjoy putting up with fools! <sup>20</sup>You put up with it when someone enslaves you, takes everything you have, takes advantage of you, takes control of everything, and slaps you in the face. <sup>21</sup>I'm ashamed to say that we've been too "weak" to do that!

But whatever they dare to boast about—I'm talking like a fool again—I dare to boast about it, too. <sup>22</sup>Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I. <sup>23</sup>Are they servants of Christ? I know I sound like a madman, but I have served him far more! I have worked harder, been put in prison more often, been whipped times without number, and faced death again and again. <sup>24</sup>Five different times the Jewish leaders gave me thirty-nine lashes. <sup>25</sup>Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked. Once I spent a whole night and a day adrift at sea. <sup>26</sup>I have traveled on many long journeys. I have faced danger from rivers and from robbers. I have faced danger from my own people, the Jews, as well as from the Gentiles. I have faced danger in the cities, in the deserts, and on the seas. And I have faced danger from men who claim to be believers but are not. <sup>27</sup>I have worked hard and long, enduring many sleepless nights. I have been hungry and thirsty and have often gone without food. I have shivered in the cold, without enough clothing to keep me warm.

<sup>28</sup>Then, besides all this, I have the daily burden of my concern for all the churches. <sup>29</sup>Who is weak without my feeling that weakness? Who is led astray, and I do not burn with anger?

<sup>30</sup>If I must boast, I would rather boast about the things that show how weak I am. <sup>31</sup>God, the Father of our Lord Jesus, who is worthy of eternal praise, knows I am not lying. <sup>32</sup>When I was in Damascus, the governor under King Aretas kept guards at the city gates to catch me. <sup>33</sup>I had to be lowered in a basket through a window in the city wall to escape from him.

2 Corinthians 12

Paul's Vision and His Thorn in the Flesh

<sup>1</sup> This boasting will do no good, but I must go on. I will reluctantly tell about visions and revelations from the Lord. <sup>2</sup>I* was caught up to the third heaven fourteen years ago. Whether I was in my body or out of my body, I don't know—only God knows. <sup>3</sup>Yes, only God knows whether I was in my body or outside my body. But I do know <sup>4</sup>that I was caught up* to paradise and heard things so astounding that they cannot be expressed in words, things no human is allowed to tell.

<sup>5</sup>That experience is worth boasting about, but I'm not going to do it. I will boast only about my weaknesses. <sup>6</sup>If I wanted to boast, I would be no fool in doing so, because I would be telling the truth. But I won't do it, because I don't want anyone to give me credit beyond what they can see in my life or hear in my message, <sup>7</sup>even though I have received such wonderful revelations from God. So to keep me from becoming proud, I was given a thorn in my flesh, a messenger from Satan to torment me and keep me from becoming proud.

<sup>8</sup>Three different times I begged the Lord to take it away. <sup>9</sup>Each time he said, "My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness." So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me. <sup>10</sup>That's why I take pleasure in my weaknesses, and in the insults, hardships, persecutions, and troubles that I suffer for Christ. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Paul's Concern for the Corinthians

<sup>11</sup>You have made me act like a fool—boasting like this.* You ought to be writing commendations for me, for I am not at all inferior to these “super apostles,” even though I am nothing at all. <sup>12</sup>When I was with you, I certainly gave you proof that I am an apostle. For I patiently did many signs and wonders and miracles among you. <sup>13</sup>The only thing I failed to do, which I do in the other churches, was to become a financial burden to you. Please forgive me for this wrong!

<sup>14</sup>Now I am coming to you for the third time, and I will not be a burden to you. I don't want what you have—I want you. After all, children don't provide for their parents. Rather, parents provide for their children. <sup>15</sup>I will gladly spend myself and all I have for you, even though it seems that the more I love you, the less you love me.

<sup>16</sup>Some of you admit I was not a burden to you. But others still think I was sneaky and took advantage of you by trickery. <sup>17</sup>But how? Did any of the men I sent to you take advantage of you? <sup>18</sup>When I urged Titus to visit you and sent our other brother with him, did Titus take advantage of you? No! For we have the same spirit and walk in each other's steps, doing things the same way.

<sup>19</sup>Perhaps you think we're saying these things just to defend ourselves. No, we tell you this as Christ's servants, and with God as our witness. Everything we do, dear friends, is to strengthen you.<sup>20</sup>For I am afraid that when I come I won't like what I find, and you won't like my response. I am afraid that I will find quarreling, jealousy, anger, selfishness, slander, gossip, arrogance, and disorderly behavior.<sup>21</sup>Yes, I am afraid that when I come again, God will humble me in your presence. And I will be grieved because many of you have not given up your old sins. You have not repented of your impurity, sexual immorality, and eagerness for lustful pleasure.

2 Corinthians 13

Paul's Final Advice

<sup>1</sup>This is the third time I am coming to visit you (and as the Scriptures say, “The facts of every case must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses”*). <sup>2</sup>I have already warned those who had been sinning when I was there on my second visit. Now I again warn them and all others, just as I did before, that next time I will not spare them.

<sup>3</sup>I will give you all the proof you want that Christ speaks through me. Christ is not weak when he deals with you; he is powerful among you. <sup>4</sup>Although he was crucified in weakness, he now lives by the power of God. We, too, are weak, just as Christ was, but when we deal with you we will be alive with him and will have God’s power.

<sup>5</sup>Examine yourselves to see if your faith is genuine. Test yourselves. Surely you know that Jesus Christ is among you*; if not, you have failed the test of genuine faith. <sup>6</sup>As you test yourselves, I hope you will recognize that we have not failed the test of apostolic authority.

<sup>7</sup>We pray to God that you will not do what is wrong by refusing our correction. I hope we won’t need to demonstrate our authority when we arrive. Do the right thing before we come—even if that makes it look like we have failed to demonstrate our authority. <sup>8</sup>For we cannot oppose the truth, but must always stand for the truth. <sup>9</sup>We are glad to seem weak if it helps show that you are actually strong. We pray that you will become mature.

<sup>10</sup>I am writing this to you before I come, hoping that I won't need to deal severely with you when I do come. For I want to use the authority the Lord has given me to strengthen you, not to tear you down.

Paul's Final Greetings

<sup>11</sup> Dear brothers and sisters, * I close my letter with these last words: Be joyful. Grow to maturity. Encourage each other. Live in harmony and peace. Then the God of love and peace will be with you.

<sup>14</sup>* May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

False teachers were telling Christians that they were still bound by some of the Old Testament requirements. Paul wrote this letter to make it clear that salvation comes through faith in Jesus and not through obeying the law.

WHO WROTE IT?

The apostle Paul.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

Paul wrote Galatians around A.D. 50.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

This letter was written fairly early in Paul's ministry, not long after he preached in Galatia.

THE BREAKDOWN

Chapters 1–2: Paul's personal testimony

Chapters 3–4: Paul argues the issues of law and grace.

WORTH MEMORIZING

2:20

My old self has been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. So I live in this earthly body by trusting in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

3:27-28

All who have been united with Christ in baptism have put on Christ, like putting on new clothes. There is no longer Jew or Gentile, slave or free, male and female. For you are all one in Christ Jesus.

5:22-23

The Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives:

love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against these things!

6:1

Dear brothers and sisters, if another believer is overcome by some sin, you who are godly should gently and humbly help that person back onto the right path. And be careful not to fall into the same temptation yourself.

6:9

So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

LAW AND LIFE.

This book is especially helpful for the “tough” management types who want to live by rules and regulations. Law has its place, but the Christian life is a life of freedom and grace, depending on the Holy Spirit to bring change.

Galatians?

Galatians 1

Greetings from Paul

<sup>1</sup> This letter is from Paul, an apostle. I was not appointed by any group of people or any human authority, but by Jesus Christ himself and by God the Father, who raised Jesus from the dead.

<sup>2</sup> All the brothers and sisters* here join me in sending this letter to the churches of Galatia.

<sup>3</sup> May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ* give you grace and peace. <sup>4</sup> Jesus gave his life for our sins, just as God our Father planned, in order to rescue us from this evil world in which we live. <sup>5</sup> All glory to God forever and ever! Amen.

There Is Only One Good News

<sup>6</sup> I am shocked that you are turning away so soon from God, who called you to himself through the loving mercy of Christ.* You are following a different way that pretends to be the Good News <sup>7</sup> but is not the Good News at all. You are being fooled by those who deliberately twist the truth concerning Christ.

<sup>8</sup>Let God's curse fall on anyone, including us or even an angel from heaven, who preaches a different kind of Good News than the one we preached to you. <sup>9</sup>I say again what we have said before: If anyone preaches any other Good News than the one you welcomed, let that person be cursed.

<sup>10</sup>Obviously, I'm not trying to win the approval of people, but of God. If pleasing people were my goal, I would not be Christ's servant.

Paul's Message Comes from Christ

<sup>11</sup>Dear brothers and sisters, I want you to understand that the gospel message I preach is not based on mere human reasoning. <sup>12</sup>I received my message from no human source, and no one taught me. Instead, I received it by direct revelation from Jesus Christ.*

<sup>13</sup>You know what I was like when I followed the Jewish religion—how I violently persecuted God's church. I did my best to destroy it. <sup>14</sup>I was far ahead of my fellow Jews in my zeal for the traditions of my ancestors.

<sup>15</sup>But even before I was born, God chose me and called me by his marvelous grace. Then it pleased him <sup>16</sup>to reveal his Son to me* so that I would proclaim the Good News about Jesus to the Gentiles.

When this happened, I did not rush out to consult with any human being.* <sup>17</sup>Nor did I go up to Jerusalem to consult with those who were apostles before I was. Instead, I went away into Arabia, and later I returned to the city of Damascus.

<sup>18</sup>Then three years later I went to Jerusalem to get to know Peter,* and I stayed with him for fifteen days. <sup>19</sup>The only other apostle I met at that time was James, the Lord's brother. <sup>20</sup>I declare before God that what I am writing to you is not a lie.

<sup>21</sup>After that visit I went north into the provinces of Syria and Cilicia. <sup>22</sup>And still the Christians in the churches in Judea didn't know me personally. <sup>23</sup>All they knew was that people were saying, "The one who used to persecute us is now preaching the very faith he tried to destroy!" <sup>24</sup>And they praised God because of me.

Galatians 2

The Apostles Accept Paul

<sup>1</sup> Then fourteen years later I went back to Jerusalem again, this time with Barnabas; and Titus came along, too. <sup>2</sup>I went there because God revealed to me that I should go. While I was there I met privately with those considered to be leaders of the church and shared with them the message I had been preaching to the Gentiles. I wanted to make sure that we were in agreement, for fear that all my efforts had been wasted and I was running the race for nothing. <sup>3</sup>And they supported me and did not even demand that my companion Titus be circumcised, though he was a Gentile.*

<sup>4</sup>Even that question came up only because of some so-called Christians there—false ones, really*—who were secretly brought in. They sneaked in to spy on us and take away the freedom we have in Christ Jesus. They wanted to enslave us and force us to follow their Jewish regulations. <sup>5</sup>But we refused to give in to them for a single moment. We wanted to preserve the truth of the gospel message for you.

<sup>6</sup>And the leaders of the church had nothing to add to what I was preaching. (By the way, their reputation as great leaders made no difference to me, for God has no favorites.) <sup>7</sup>Instead, they saw that God had given me the responsibility of preaching the gospel to the Gentiles, just as he had given Peter the responsibility of preaching to the Jews. <sup>8</sup>For the same God who worked through Peter as the apostle to the Jews also worked through me as the apostle to the Gentiles.

<sup>9</sup>In fact, James, Peter,* and John, who were known as pillars of the church, recognized the gift God had given me, and they accepted Barnabas and me as their coworkers. They encouraged us to keep preaching to the Gentiles, while they continued their work with the Jews. <sup>10</sup>Their only suggestion was that we keep on helping the poor, which I have always been eager to do.

Paul Confronts Peter

<sup>11</sup>But when Peter came to Antioch, I had to oppose him to his face, for what he did was very wrong. <sup>12</sup>When he first arrived, he ate with the Gentile Christians, who were not circumcised. But afterward, when some friends of James came, Peter wouldn't eat with the Gentiles anymore. He was afraid of criticism from these people who insisted on the necessity of circumcision. <sup>13</sup>As a result, other Jewish Christians followed Peter's hypocrisy, and even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy.

<sup>14</sup>When I saw that they were not following the truth of the gospel message, I said to Peter in front of all the others, "Since you, a Jew by birth, have discarded the Jewish laws and are living like a Gentile, why are you now trying to make these Gentiles follow the Jewish traditions?"

<sup>15</sup>"You and I are Jews by birth, not 'sinners' like the Gentiles. <sup>16</sup>Yet we know that a person is made right with God by faith in Jesus Christ, not by obeying the law. And we have believed in Christ Jesus, so that we might be made right with God because of our faith in Christ, not because we have obeyed the law. For no one will ever be made right with God by obeying the law.”*

<sup>17</sup>But suppose we seek to be made right with God through faith in Christ and then we are found guilty because we have abandoned the law. Would that mean Christ has led us into sin? Absolutely not! <sup>18</sup>Rather, I am a sinner if I rebuild the old system of law I already tore down. <sup>19</sup>For when I tried to keep the law, it condemned me. So I died to the law—I stopped trying to meet all its requirements—so that I might live for God. <sup>20</sup>My old self has been crucified with Christ.* It is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. So I live in this earthly body by trusting in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. <sup>21</sup>I do not treat the grace of God as meaningless. For if keeping the law could make us right with God, then there was no need for Christ to die.

Galatians 3

The Law and Faith in Christ

<sup>1</sup> Oh, foolish Galatians! Who has cast an evil spell on you? For the meaning of Jesus Christ's death was made as clear to you as if you had seen a picture of his death on the cross. <sup>2</sup> Let me ask you this one question: Did you receive the Holy Spirit by obeying the law of Moses? Of course not! You received the Spirit because you believed the message you heard about Christ. <sup>3</sup> How foolish can you be? After starting your Christian lives in the Spirit, why are you now trying to become perfect by your own human effort? <sup>4</sup> Have you experienced* so much for nothing? Surely it was not in vain, was it?

<sup>5</sup> I ask you again, does God give you the Holy Spirit and work miracles among you because you obey the law? Of course not! It is because you believe the message you heard about Christ.

<sup>8</sup> What's more, the Scriptures looked forward to this time when God would declare the Gentiles to be righteous because of their faith. God proclaimed this good news to Abraham long ago when he said, "All nations will be blessed through you."*

<sup>9</sup> So all who put their faith in Christ share the same blessing Abraham received because of his faith.

God are under his curse, for the Scriptures say, “Cursed is everyone who does not observe and obey all the commands that are written in God’s Book of the Law.”*<sup>11</sup> So it is clear that no one can be made right with God by trying to keep the law. For the Scriptures say, “It is through faith that a righteous person has life.”*<sup>12</sup> This way of faith is very different from the way of law, which says, “It is through obeying the law that a person has life.”*

<sup>13</sup>But Christ has rescued us from the curse pronounced by the law. When he was hung on the cross, he took upon himself the curse for our wrongdoing. For it is written in the Scriptures, “Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree.”*<sup>14</sup> Through Christ Jesus, God has blessed the Gentiles with the same blessing he promised to Abraham, so that we who are believers might receive the promised* Holy Spirit through faith.

The Law and God’s Promise

<sup>15</sup>Dear brothers and sisters,* here’s an example from everyday life. Just as no one can set aside or amend an irrevocable agreement, so it is in this case.<sup>16</sup> God gave the promises to Abraham and his child.* And notice that the Scripture doesn’t say “to his children,*” as if it meant many descendants. Rather, it says “to his child”—and that, of course, means Christ.<sup>17</sup> This is what I am trying to say: The agreement God made with Abraham could not be canceled 430 years later when God gave the law to Moses. God would be breaking his promise.<sup>18</sup> For if the inheritance could be received by keeping the law, then it would not be the result of accepting God’s promise. But God graciously gave it to Abraham as a promise.

<sup>19</sup>Why, then, was the law given? It was given alongside the promise to show people their sins. But the law was designed to last only until the coming of the child who was promised. God gave his law through angels to Moses, who was the mediator between God and the people. <sup>20</sup>Now a mediator is helpful if more than one party must reach an agreement. But God, who is one, did not use a mediator when he gave his promise to Abraham.

<sup>21</sup>Is there a conflict, then, between God's law and God's promises? * Absolutely not! If the law could give us new life, we could be made right with God by obeying it. <sup>22</sup>But the Scriptures declare that we are all prisoners of sin, so we receive God's promise of freedom only by believing in Jesus Christ.

God's Children through Faith

<sup>23</sup>Before the way of faith in Christ was available to us, we were placed under guard by the law. We were kept in protective custody, so to speak, until the way of faith was revealed.

<sup>24</sup>Let me put it another way. The law was our guardian until Christ came; it protected us until we could be made right with God through faith. <sup>25</sup>And now that the way of faith has come, we no longer need the law as our guardian.

<sup>26</sup>For you are all children * of God through faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>27</sup>And all who have been united with Christ in baptism have put on Christ, like putting on new clothes. * <sup>28</sup>There is no longer Jew or Gentile, * slave or free, male and female. For you are all one in Christ Jesus. <sup>29</sup>And now that you belong to Christ, you are the true children* of Abraham. You are his heirs, and God's promise to Abraham belongs to you.

Outside the Boxes

Galatians 4

<sup>1</sup>Think of it this way. If a father dies and leaves an inheritance for his young children, those children are not much better off than slaves until they grow up, even though they actually own everything their father had. <sup>2</sup>They have to obey their guardians until they reach whatever age their father set. <sup>3</sup>And that's the way it was with us before Christ came. We were like children; we were slaves to the basic spiritual principles* of this world.

<sup>4</sup>But when the right time came, God sent his Son, born of a woman, subject to the law. <sup>5</sup>God sent him to buy freedom for us who were slaves to the law, so that he could adopt us as his very own children.* <sup>6</sup>And because we* are his children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, prompting us to call out, "Abba, Father."* <sup>7</sup>Now you are no longer a slave but God's own child.* And since you are his child, God has made you his heir.

Paul's Concern for the Galatians

<sup>8</sup> Before you Gentiles knew God, you were slaves to so-called gods that do not even exist. <sup>9</sup>So now that you know God (or should I say, now that God knows you), why do you want to go back again and become slaves once more to the weak and useless spiritual principles of this world? <sup>10</sup>You are trying to earn favor with God by observing certain days or months or seasons or years. <sup>11</sup>I fear for you. Perhaps all my hard work with you was for nothing. <sup>12</sup>Dear brothers and sisters,* I plead with you to live as I do in freedom from these things, for I have become like you Gentiles—free from those laws.

You did not mistreat me when I first preached to you. <sup>13</sup>Surely you remember that I was sick when I first brought you the Good News. <sup>14</sup>But even though my condition tempted you to reject me, you did not despise me or turn me away. No, you took me in and cared for me as though I were an angel from God or even Christ Jesus himself. <sup>15</sup>Where is that joyful and grateful spirit you felt then? I am sure you would have taken out your own eyes and given them to me if it had been possible. <sup>16</sup>Have I now become your enemy because I am telling you the truth?

<sup>17</sup> Those false teachers are so eager to win your favor, but their intentions are not good. They are trying to shut you off from me so that you will pay attention only to them. <sup>18</sup>If someone is eager to do good things for you, that's all right; but let them do it all the time, not just when I'm with you.

<sup>19</sup>Oh, my dear children! I feel as if I'm going through labor pains for you again, and they will continue until Christ is fully developed in your lives. <sup>20</sup>I wish I were with you right now so I could change my tone. But at this distance I don't know how else to help you.

Abraham's Two Children

<sup>21</sup>Tell me, you who want to live under the law, do you know what the law actually says? <sup>22</sup>The Scriptures say that Abraham had two sons, one from his slave wife and one from his freeborn wife.* <sup>23</sup>The son of the slave wife was born in a human attempt to bring about the fulfillment of God's promise. But the son of the freeborn wife was born as God's own fulfillment of his promise.

<sup>24</sup>These two women serve as an illustration of God's two covenants. The first woman, Hagar, represents Mount Sinai where people received the law that enslaved them. <sup>25</sup>And now Jerusalem is just like Mount Sinai in Arabia,* because she and her children live in slavery to the law. <sup>26</sup>But the other woman, Sarah, represents the heavenly Jerusalem. She is the free woman, and she is our mother. <sup>27</sup>As Isaiah said, “Rejoice, O childless woman, you who have never given birth!

Break into a joyful shout,
you who have never been in labor!
For the desolate woman now has more children than the woman who lives with her husband!”*

<sup>28</sup>And you, dear brothers and sisters, are children of the promise, just like Isaac. <sup>29</sup>But you are now being persecuted by those who want you to keep the law, just as Ishmael, the child born by human effort, persecuted Isaac, the child born by the power of the Spirit.

<sup>30</sup>But what do the Scriptures say about that? “Get rid of the slave and her son, for the son of the slave woman will not share the inheritance with the free woman's son.”* <sup>31</sup>So, dear brothers and sisters, we are not children of the slave woman; we are children of the free woman.

Galatians 5

Freedom in Christ

<sup>1</sup> So Christ has truly set us free. Now make sure that you stay free, and don't get tied up again in slavery to the law.

<sup>2</sup> Listen! I, Paul, tell you this: If you are counting on circumcision to make you right with God, then Christ will be of no benefit to you. <sup>3</sup> I'll say it again. If you are trying to find favor with God by being circumcised, you must obey every regulation in the whole law of Moses. <sup>4</sup> For if you are trying to make yourselves right with God by keeping the law, you have been cut off from Christ! You have fallen away from God's grace.

<sup>5</sup> But we who live by the Spirit eagerly wait to receive by faith the righteousness God has promised to us. <sup>6</sup> For when we place our faith in Christ Jesus, there is no benefit in being circumcised or being uncircumcised. What is important is faith expressing itself in love.

<sup>7</sup> You were running the race so well. Who has held you back from following the truth? <sup>8</sup> It certainly isn't God, for he is the one who called you to freedom. <sup>9</sup> This false teaching is like a little yeast that spreads through the whole batch of dough! <sup>10</sup> I am trusting the Lord to keep you from believing false teachings. God will judge that person, whoever he is, who has been confusing you.

<sup>11</sup> Dear brothers and sisters, * if I were still preaching that you must be circumcised—as some say I do—why am I still being persecuted? If I were no longer preaching salvation through the cross of Christ, no one would be offended. <sup>12</sup>I just wish that those troublemakers who want to mutilate you by circumcision would mutilate themselves. *

<sup>13</sup>For you have been called to live in freedom, my brothers and sisters. But don't use your freedom to satisfy your sinful nature. Instead, use your freedom to serve one another in love.

Living by the Spirit's Power

<sup>16</sup> So I say, let the Holy Spirit guide your lives. Then you won't be doing what your sinful nature craves. <sup>17</sup>The sinful nature wants to do evil, which is just the opposite of what the Spirit wants. And the Spirit gives us desires that are the opposite of what the sinful nature desires. These two forces are constantly fighting each other, so you are not free to carry out your good intentions. <sup>18</sup>But when you are directed by the Spirit, you are not under obligation to the law of Moses.

<sup>19</sup>When you follow the desires of your sinful nature, the results are very clear: sexual immorality, impurity, lustful pleasures, <sup>20</sup>idolatry, sorcery, hostility, quarreling, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambition, dissension, division, <sup>21</sup>envy, drunkenness, wild parties, and other sins like these. Let me tell you again, as I have before, that anyone living that sort of life will not inherit the Kingdom of God.

<sup>22</sup> But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup>gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against these things!

spotlight

OUTPUT A OR B?

Galatians 5 lists two kinds of “production”—what we can churn out by ourselves, and what the Holy Spirit can generate through us. Which sounds better?

from the sinful nature (5:19-21)	from the Holy Spirit (5:22-23)
» Sexual immorality	» Love
» Impure thoughts	» Joy
» Eagerness for lustful pleasure	» Peace
» Idolatry	» Patience
» Participation in demonic activities	» Kindness
» Hostility	» Goodness
» Quarreling	» Faithfulness
» Jealousy	» Gentleness
» Outbursts of anger	» Self-control
» Selfish ambition » Divisions
» The feeling that everyone is wrong except those in your own little group » Envy » Drunkenness » Wild parties

<sup>24</sup>Those who belong to Christ Jesus have nailed the passions and desires of their sinful nature to his cross and crucified them there. <sup>25</sup>Since we are living by the Spirit, let us follow the Spirit's leading in every part of our lives. <sup>26</sup>Let us not become conceited, or provoke one another, or be jealous of one another.

Galatians 6

We Harvest What We Plant

<sup>1</sup> Dear brothers and sisters, if another believer* is overcome by some sin, you who are godly* should gently and humbly help that person back onto the right path. And be careful not to fall into the same temptation yourself. <sup>2</sup>Share each other's burdens, and in this way obey the law of Christ. <sup>3</sup>If you think you are too important to help someone, you are only fooling yourself. You are not that important.

<sup>4</sup>Pay careful attention to your own work, for then you will get the satisfaction of a job well done, and you won't need to compare yourself to anyone else. <sup>5</sup>For we are each responsible for our own conduct.

<sup>6</sup>Those who are taught the word of God should provide for their teachers, sharing all good things with them.

<sup>7</sup>Don't be misled—you cannot mock the justice of God. You will always harvest what you plant. <sup>8</sup>Those who live only to satisfy their own sinful nature will harvest decay and death from that sinful nature. But those who live to please the Spirit will harvest everlasting life from the Spirit. <sup>9</sup>So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up. <sup>10</sup>Therefore, whenever we have the opportunity, we should do good to everyone—especially to those in the family of faith.

Paul's Final Advice

<sup>11</sup>NOTICE WHAT LARGE LETTERS I USE AS I WRITE THESE CLOSING WORDS IN MY OWN HANDWRITING.

<sup>12</sup>Those who are trying to force you to be circumcised want to look good to others. They don't want to be persecuted for teaching that the cross of Christ alone can save. <sup>13</sup>And even those who advocate circumcision don't keep the whole law themselves. They only want you to be circumcised so they can boast about it and claim you as their disciples.

<sup>14</sup>As for me, may I never boast about anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. Because of that cross, * my interest in this world has been crucified, and the world's interest in me has also died. <sup>15</sup>It doesn't matter whether we have been circumcised or not. What counts is whether we have been transformed into a new creation. <sup>16</sup>May God's peace and mercy be upon all who live by this principle; they are the new people of God. *

<sup>17</sup>From now on, don't let anyone trouble me with these things. For I bear on my body the scars that show I belong to Jesus.

<sup>18</sup>Dear brothers and sisters, * may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

2:8-10

God saved you by his grace when you believed. And you can't take credit for this; it is a gift from God. Salvation is not a reward for the good things we have done, so none of us can boast about it. For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago.

3:20

Now all glory to God, who is able, through his mighty power at work within us, to accomplish infinitely more than we might ask or think.

4:4-6

There is one body and one Spirit, just as you have been called to one glorious hope for the future. There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, and one God and Father, who is over all and in all and living through all.

Greetings from Paul

<sup>1</sup>This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus.

I am writing to God's holy people in Ephesus,* who are faithful followers of Christ Jesus.

<sup>2</sup>May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Spiritual Blessings

<sup>3</sup> All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ. <sup>4</sup>Even before he made the world, God loved us and chose us in Christ to be holy and without fault in his eyes. <sup>5</sup>God decided in advance to adopt us into his own family by bringing us to himself through Jesus Christ. This is what he wanted to do, and it gave him great pleasure. <sup>6</sup>So we praise God for the glorious grace he has poured out on us who belong to his dear Son. <sup>7</sup>* He is so rich in kindness and grace that he purchased our freedom with the blood of his Son and forgave our sins. <sup>8</sup>He has showered his kindness on us, along with all wisdom and understanding.

<sup>9</sup>God has now revealed to us his mysterious plan regarding Christ, a plan to fulfill his own good pleasure. <sup>10</sup>And this is the plan: At the right time he will bring everything together under the authority of Christ—everything in heaven and on earth. <sup>11</sup>Furthermore, because we are united with Christ, we have received an inheritance from God, <sup>12</sup>* for he chose us in advance, and he makes everything work out according to his plan.

<sup>13</sup>God's purpose was that we Jews who were the first to trust in Christ would bring praise and glory to God. <sup>14</sup>* And now you Gentiles have also heard the truth, the Good News that God saves you. And when you believed in Christ, he identified you as his own <sup>15</sup>* by giving you the Holy Spirit, whom he promised long ago. <sup>16</sup>The Spirit is God's guarantee that he will give us the inheritance he promised and that he has purchased us to be his own people. He did this so we would praise and glorify him.

Paul's Prayer for Spiritual Wisdom

<sup>17</sup>Ever since I first heard of your strong faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for God's people everywhere, <sup>18</sup>* <sup>19</sup>I have not stopped thanking God for you. I pray for you constantly, <sup>20</sup>asking God, the glorious Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, to give you spiritual wisdom <sup>21</sup>* and insight so that you might grow in your knowledge of God. <sup>22</sup>I pray that your hearts will be flooded with light so that you can understand the confident hope he has given to those he called—his holy people who are his rich and glorious inheritance.*

<sup>19</sup>I also pray that you will understand the incredible greatness of God's power for us who believe him. This is the same mighty power<sup>20</sup>that raised Christ from the dead and seated him in the place of honor at God's right hand in the heavenly realms.

<sup>21</sup>Now he is far above any ruler or authority or power or leader or anything else—not only in this world but also in the world to come. <sup>22</sup>God has put all things under the authority of Christ and has made him head over all things for the benefit of the church. <sup>23</sup>And the church is his body; it is made full and complete by Christ, who fills all things everywhere with himself.

Ephesians 2

Made Alive with Christ

<sup>1</sup> Once you were dead because of your disobedience and your many sins. <sup>2</sup> You used to live in sin, just like the rest of the world, obeying the devil—the commander of the powers in the unseen world. * He is the spirit at work in the hearts of those who refuse to obey God. <sup>3</sup> All of us used to live that way, following the passionate desires and inclinations of our sinful nature. By our very nature we were subject to God's anger, just like everyone else.

<sup>4</sup> But God is so rich in mercy, and he loved us so much, <sup>5</sup> that even though we were dead because of our sins, he gave us life when he raised Christ from the dead. (It is only by God's grace that you have been saved!) <sup>6</sup> For he raised us from the dead along with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ Jesus. <sup>7</sup> So God can point to us in all future ages as examples of the incredible wealth of his grace and kindness toward us, as shown in all he has done for us who are united with Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup> God saved you by his grace when you believed. And you can't take credit for this; it is a gift from God. <sup>9</sup> Salvation is not a reward for the good things we have done, so none of us can boast about it. <sup>10</sup> For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago.

Oneness and Peace in Christ

<sup>11</sup>Don't forget that you Gentiles used to be outsiders. You were called "uncircumcised heathens" by the Jews, who were proud of their circumcision, even though it affected only their bodies and not their hearts. <sup>12</sup>In those days you were living apart from Christ. You were excluded from citizenship among the people of Israel, and you did not know the covenant promises God had made to them. You lived in this world without God and without hope. <sup>13</sup>But now you have been united with Christ Jesus. Once you were far away from God, but now you have been brought near to him through the blood of Christ.

<sup>14</sup>For Christ himself has brought peace to us. He united Jews and Gentiles into one people when, in his own body on the cross, he broke down the wall of hostility that separated us. <sup>15</sup>He did this by ending the system of law with its commandments and regulations. He made peace between Jews and Gentiles by creating in himself one new people from the two groups. <sup>16</sup>Together as one body, Christ reconciled both groups to God by means of his death on the cross, and our hostility toward each other was put to death.

<sup>17</sup>He brought this Good News of peace to you Gentiles who were far away from him, and peace to the Jews who were near. <sup>18</sup>Now all of us can come to the Father through the same Holy Spirit because of what Christ has done for us.

A Temple for the Lord

<sup>19</sup>So now you Gentiles are no longer strangers and foreigners.

You are citizens along with all of God's holy people. You are members of God's family. <sup>20</sup>Together, we are his house, built on the foundation of the apostles and the prophets. And the cornerstone is Christ Jesus himself. <sup>21</sup>We are carefully joined together in him, becoming a holy temple for the Lord. <sup>22</sup>Through him you Gentiles are also being made part of this dwelling where God lives by his Spirit.

Ephesians 3

God's Mysterious Plan Revealed

<sup>1</sup> When I think of all this, I, Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus for the benefit of you Gentiles* . . . <sup>2</sup>assuming, by the way, that you know God gave me the special responsibility of extending his grace to you Gentiles. <sup>3</sup>As I briefly wrote earlier, God himself revealed his mysterious plan to me. <sup>4</sup>As you read what I have written, you will understand my insight into this plan regarding Christ. <sup>5</sup>God did not reveal it to previous generations, but now by his Spirit he has revealed it to his holy apostles and prophets.

<sup>6</sup>And this is God's plan: Both Gentiles and Jews who believe the Good News share equally in the riches inherited by God's children. Both are part of the same body, and both enjoy the promise of blessings because they belong to Christ Jesus.* <sup>7</sup>By God's grace and mighty power, I have been given the privilege of serving him by spreading this Good News.

<sup>8</sup>Though I am the least deserving of all God's people, he graciously gave me the privilege of telling the Gentiles about the endless treasures available to them in Christ. <sup>9</sup>I was chosen to explain to everyone* this mysterious plan that God, the Creator of all things, had kept secret from the beginning.

<sup>10</sup>God's purpose in all this was to use the church to display his wisdom in its rich variety to all the unseen rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. <sup>11</sup>This was his eternal plan, which he carried out through Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>12</sup>Because of Christ and our faith in him,* we can now come boldly and confidently into God's presence. <sup>13</sup>So please don't lose heart because of my trials here. I am suffering for you, so you should feel honored.

Paul's Prayer for Spiritual Growth

<sup>14</sup> When I think of all this, I fall to my knees and pray to the Father,* <sup>15</sup>the Creator of everything in heaven and on earth.* <sup>16</sup>I pray that from his glorious, unlimited resources he will empower you with inner strength through his Spirit. <sup>17</sup>Then Christ will make his home in your hearts as you trust in him. Your roots will grow down into God's love and keep you strong. <sup>18</sup>And may you have the power to understand, as all God's people should, how wide, how long, how high, and how deep his love is. <sup>19</sup>May you experience the love of Christ, though it is too great to understand fully. Then you will be made complete with all the fullness of life and power that comes from God.

<sup>20</sup>Now all glory to God, who is able, through his mighty power at work within us, to accomplish infinitely more than we might ask or think. <sup>21</sup>Glory to him in the church and in Christ Jesus through all generations forever and ever! Amen.

Ephesians 4

Unity in the Body

<sup>1</sup> Therefore I, a prisoner for serving the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of your calling, for you have been called by God.

<sup>2</sup> Always be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other, making allowance for each other's faults because of your love.

“When he ascended to the heights, he led a crowd of captives and gave gifts to his people.”*

<sup>9</sup>Notice that it says “he ascended.” This clearly means that Christ also descended to our lowly world.* <sup>10</sup>And the same one who descended is the one who ascended higher than all the heavens, so that he might fill the entire universe with himself.

<sup>11</sup>Now these are the gifts Christ gave to the church: the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, and the pastors and teachers.<sup>12</sup> Their responsibility is to equip God's people to do his work and build up the church, the body of Christ.<sup>13</sup> This will continue until we all come to such unity in our faith and knowledge of God's Son that we will be mature in the Lord, measuring up to the full and complete standard of Christ.

<sup>14</sup>Then we will no longer be immature like children. We won't be tossed and blown about by every wind of new teaching. We will not be influenced when people try to trick us with lies so clever they sound like the truth.<sup>15</sup> Instead, we will speak the truth in love, growing in every way more and more like Christ, who is the head of his body, the church.<sup>16</sup> He makes the whole body fit together perfectly. As each part does its own special work, it helps the other parts grow, so that the whole body is healthy and growing and full of love.

Living as Children of Light

<sup>17</sup>With the Lord's authority I say this: Live no longer as the Gentiles do, for they are hopelessly confused.<sup>18</sup> Their minds are full of darkness; they wander far from the life God gives because they have closed their minds and hardened their hearts against him.<sup>19</sup> They have no sense of shame. They live for lustful pleasure and eagerly practice every kind of impurity.

<sup>20</sup>But that isn't what you learned about Christ.<sup>21</sup> Since you have heard about Jesus and have learned the truth that comes from him,<sup>22</sup> throw off your old sinful nature and your former way of life, which is corrupted by lust and deception.<sup>23</sup> Instead, let the Spirit renew your thoughts and attitudes.<sup>24</sup> Put on your new nature, created to be like God—truly righteous and holy.

<sup>25</sup>So stop telling lies. Let us tell our neighbors the truth, for we are all parts of the same body. <sup>26</sup>And “don’t sin by letting anger control you.”* Don’t let the sun go down while you are still angry, <sup>27</sup>for anger gives a foothold to the devil.

<sup>28</sup>If you are a thief, quit stealing. Instead, use your hands for good hard work, and then give generously to others in need. <sup>29</sup>Don’t use foul or abusive language. Let everything you say be good and helpful, so that your words will be an encouragement to those who hear them.

<sup>30</sup>And do not bring sorrow to God’s Holy Spirit by the way you live. Remember, he has identified you as his own,* guaranteeing that you will be saved on the day of redemption.

<sup>31</sup>Get rid of all bitterness, rage, anger, harsh words, and slander, as well as all types of evil behavior. <sup>32</sup>Instead, be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God through Christ has forgiven you.

Ephesians 5

Living in the Light

<sup>1</sup> Imitate God, therefore, in everything you do, because you are his dear children. <sup>2</sup> Live a life filled with love, following the example of Christ. He loved us* and offered himself as a sacrifice for us, a pleasing aroma to God.

<sup>3</sup> Let there be no sexual immorality, impurity, or greed among you. Such sins have no place among God's people. <sup>4</sup> Obscene stories, foolish talk, and coarse jokes—these are not for you. Instead, let there be thankfulness to God. <sup>5</sup> You can be sure that no immoral, impure, or greedy person will inherit the Kingdom of Christ and of God. For a greedy person is an idolater, worshipping the things of this world.

<sup>6</sup> Don't be fooled by those who try to excuse these sins, for the anger of God will fall on all who disobey him. <sup>7</sup> Don't participate in the things these people do. <sup>8</sup> For once you were full of darkness, but now you have light from the Lord. So live as people of light! <sup>9</sup> For this light within you produces only what is good and right and true.

“Awake, O sleeper, rise up from the dead,
and Christ will give you light.”

Living by the Spirit's Power

<sup>15</sup>So be careful how you live. Don't live like fools, but like those who are wise. <sup>16</sup>Make the most of every opportunity in these evil days. <sup>17</sup>Don't act thoughtlessly, but understand what the Lord wants you to do. <sup>18</sup>Don't be drunk with wine, because that will ruin your life. Instead, be filled with the Holy Spirit, <sup>19</sup>singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, and making music to the Lord in your hearts. <sup>20</sup>And give thanks for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

**The Full Life**

Spirit-Guided Relationships: Wives and Husbands

loved the church. He gave up his life for her<sup>26</sup>to make her holy and clean, washed by the cleansing of God's word.*<sup>27</sup>He did this to present her to himself as a glorious church without a spot or wrinkle or any other blemish. Instead, she will be holy and without fault.<sup>28</sup>In the same way, husbands ought to love their wives as they love their own bodies. For a man who loves his wife actually shows love for himself.<sup>29</sup>No one hates his own body but feeds and cares for it, just as Christ cares for the church.<sup>30</sup>And we are members of his body.

<sup>31</sup>As the Scriptures say, "A man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one."*<sup>32</sup>This is a great mystery, but it is an illustration of the way Christ and the church are one.<sup>33</sup>So again I say, each man must love his wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

Ephesians 6

Children and Parents

<sup>1</sup> Children, obey your parents because you belong to the Lord,* for this is the right thing to do. <sup>2</sup>“Honor your father and mother.” This is the first commandment with a promise: <sup>3</sup>If you honor your father and mother, “things will go well for you, and you will have a long life on the earth.”*

<sup>4</sup>Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger by the way you treat them. Rather, bring them up with the discipline and instruction that comes from the Lord.

Slaves and Masters

<sup>5</sup>Slaves, obey your earthly masters with deep respect and fear. Serve them sincerely as you would serve Christ. <sup>6</sup>Try to please them all the time, not just when they are watching you. As slaves of Christ, do the will of God with all your heart. <sup>7</sup>Work with enthusiasm, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people. <sup>8</sup>Remember that the Lord will reward each one of us for the good we do, whether we are slaves or free.

<sup>9</sup>Masters, treat your slaves in the same way. Don’t threaten them; remember, you both have the same Master in heaven, and he has no favorites.

The Whole Armor of God

<sup>11</sup>Put on all of God's armor so that you will be able to stand firm against all strategies of the devil. <sup>12</sup>For we* are not fighting against flesh-and-blood enemies, but against evil rulers and authorities of the unseen world, against mighty powers in this dark world, and against evil spirits in the heavenly places.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, put on every piece of God's armor so you will be able to resist the enemy in the time of evil. Then after the battle you will still be standing firm. <sup>14</sup>Stand your ground, putting on the belt of truth and the body armor of God's righteousness.

<sup>15</sup>For shoes, put on the peace that comes from the Good News so that you will be fully prepared.* <sup>16</sup>In addition to all of these, hold up the shield of faith to stop the fiery arrows of the devil.*

<sup>17</sup>Put on salvation as your helmet, and take the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

<sup>18</sup>Pray in the Spirit at all times and on every occasion. Stay alert and be persistent in your prayers for all believers everywhere.*

<sup>19</sup>And pray for me, too. Ask God to give me the right words so I can boldly explain God's mysterious plan that the Good News is for Jews and Gentiles alike.* <sup>20</sup>I am in chains now, still preaching this message as God's ambassador. So pray that I will keep on speaking boldly for him, as I should.

Final Greetings

<sup>21</sup>To bring you up to date, Tychicus will give you a full report about what I am doing and how I am getting along. He is a beloved brother and faithful helper in the Lord's work. <sup>22</sup>I have sent him to you for this very purpose—to let you know how we are doing and to encourage you.

PAUL'S MAIN MEN

Paul, for all his brilliance, was not a lone-ranger apostle. He highly valued the contribution of at least 14 associates in the ministry.

WORTH MEMORIZING

1:6

God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns.

3:13-14

I focus on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, I press on to reach the end of the race and receive the heavenly prize for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling us.

Always be full of joy in the Lord. I say it again—rejoice! Let everyone see that you are considerate in all you do. Remember, the Lord is coming soon.

4:8-9

Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise. Keep putting into practice all you learned and received from me—everything you heard from me and saw me doing. Then the God of peace will be with you.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

FOCUSED ON NEEDS.

Notice the role models in this book. Timothy and Epaphroditus (2:19-30) are totally focused on the needs of others, not their own desires. Notice Paul himself (3:12-17), who doesn't claim perfection but is definitely making the main thing the main thing—enough that he invites others to imitate him.

Philippians 1

Greetings from Paul

I am writing to all of God's holy people in Philippi who belong to Christ Jesus, including the elders* and deacons.

<sup>2</sup>May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Paul's Thanksgiving and Prayer

<sup>3</sup>Every time I think of you, I give thanks to my God. <sup>4</sup>Whenever I pray, I make my requests for all of you with joy, <sup>5</sup>for you have been my partners in spreading the Good News about Christ from the time you first heard it until now. <sup>6</sup>And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns.

<sup>7</sup>So it is right that I should feel as I do about all of you, for you have a special place in my heart. You share with me the special favor of God, both in my imprisonment and in defending and confirming the truth of the Good News.<sup>8</sup> God knows how much I love you and long for you with the tender compassion of Christ Jesus.

<sup>9</sup>I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding.<sup>10</sup> For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return.<sup>11</sup> May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation—the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ*—for this will bring much glory and praise to God.

Paul's Joy That Christ Is Preached

<sup>12</sup> And I want you to know, my dear brothers and sisters,* that everything that has happened to me here has helped to spread the Good News.<sup>13</sup> For everyone here, including the whole palace guard,* knows that I am in chains because of Christ.<sup>14</sup> And because of my imprisonment, most of the believers* here have gained confidence and boldly speak God's message* without fear.

PERSPECTIVES

Everyone here, including the whole palace guard, knows that I am in chains because of Christ. And because of my imprisonment, most of the believers here have gained confidence and boldly speak God's message without fear.

PHILIPPIANS 1:13-14

A man can be as truly a saint in a factory as in a monastery, and there is as much need of him in the one as in the other.

<sup>15</sup>It's true that some are preaching out of jealousy and rivalry. But others preach about Christ with pure motives. <sup>16</sup>They preach because they love me, for they know I have been appointed to defend the Good News. <sup>17</sup>Those others do not have pure motives as they preach about Christ. They preach with selfish ambition, not sincerely, intending to make my chains more painful to me. <sup>18</sup>But that doesn't matter. Whether their motives are false or genuine, the message about Christ is being preached either way, so I rejoice. And I will continue to rejoice. <sup>19</sup>For I know that as you pray for me and the Spirit of Jesus Christ helps me, this will lead to my deliverance.

Paul's Life for Christ

<sup>20</sup>For I fully expect and hope that I will never be ashamed, but that I will continue to be bold for Christ, as I have been in the past. And I trust that my life will bring honor to Christ, whether

I live or die. <sup>21</sup>For to me, living means living for Christ, and dying is even better. <sup>22</sup>But if I live, I can do more fruitful work for Christ. So I really don't know which is better. <sup>23</sup>I'm torn between two desires: I long to go and be with Christ, which would be far better for me. <sup>24</sup>But for your sakes, it is better that I continue to live.

<sup>25</sup>Knowing this, I am convinced that I will remain alive so I can continue to help all of you grow and experience the joy of your faith. <sup>26</sup>And when I come to you again, you will have even more reason to take pride in Christ Jesus because of what he is doing through me.

Live as Citizens of Heaven

<sup>27</sup>Above all, you must live as citizens of heaven, conducting yourselves in a manner worthy of the Good News about Christ. Then, whether I come and see you again or only hear about you, I will know that you are standing together with one spirit and one purpose, fighting together for the faith, which is the Good News. <sup>28</sup>Don't be intimidated in any way by your enemies. This will be a sign to them that they are going to be destroyed, but that you are going to be saved, even by God himself. <sup>29</sup>For you have been given not only the privilege of trusting in Christ but also the privilege of suffering for him. <sup>30</sup>We are in this struggle together. You have seen my struggle in the past, and you know that I am still in the midst of it.

Philippians 2

Have the Attitude of Christ

<sup>1</sup> Is there any encouragement from belonging to Christ? Any comfort from his love? Any fellowship together in the Spirit? Are your hearts tender and compassionate? <sup>2</sup>Then make me truly happy by agreeing wholeheartedly with each other, loving one another, and working together with one mind and purpose.

<sup>5</sup> You must have the same attitude that Christ Jesus had.

<sup>6</sup>Though he was God,*
he did not think of equality with God
as something to cling to.

<sup>7</sup>Instead, he gave up his divine privileges*;
he took the humble position of a slave*
and was born as a human being.

When he appeared in human form,*
<sup>8</sup>he humbled himself in obedience to God and died a criminal's death on a cross.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, God elevated him to the place of highest honor and gave him the name above all other names,

<sup>10</sup>that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, <sup>11</sup>and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Shine Brightly for Christ

<sup>12</sup> Dear friends, you always followed my instructions when I was with you. And now that I am away, it is even more important. Work hard to show the results of your salvation, obeying God with deep reverence and fear. <sup>13</sup>For God is working in you, giving you the desire and the power to do what pleases him.

<sup>14</sup>Do everything without complaining and arguing, <sup>15</sup>so that no one can criticize you. Live clean, innocent lives as children of God, shining like bright lights in a world full of crooked and perverse people. <sup>16</sup>Hold firmly to the word of life; then, on the day of Christ's return, I will be proud that I did not run the race in vain and that my work was not useless. <sup>17</sup>But I will rejoice even if I lose my life, pouring it out like a liquid offering to God,* just like your faithful service is an offering to God. And I want all of you to share that joy. <sup>18</sup>Yes, you should rejoice, and I will share your joy.

Paul Commends Timothy

<sup>19</sup>If the Lord Jesus is willing, I hope to send Timothy to you soon for a visit. Then he can cheer me up by telling me how you are getting along. <sup>20</sup>I have no one else like Timothy, who genuinely cares about your welfare. <sup>21</sup>All the others care only for themselves and not for what matters to Jesus Christ.<sup>22</sup> But you know how Timothy has proved himself. Like a son with his father, he has served with me in preaching the Good News.<sup>23</sup> I hope to send him to you just as soon as I find out what is going to happen to me here.<sup>24</sup> And I have confidence from the Lord that I myself will come to see you soon.

Epaphroditus

Paul Commends Epaphroditus

<sup>25</sup> Meanwhile, I thought I should send Epaphroditus back to you. He is a true brother, coworker, and fellow soldier. And he was your messenger to help me in my need.<sup>26</sup> I am sending him because he has been longing to see you, and he was very distressed that you heard he was ill.<sup>27</sup> And he certainly was ill; in fact, he almost died. But God had mercy on him—and also on me, so that I would not have one sorrow after another.

<sup>28</sup> So I am all the more anxious to send him back to you, for I know you will be glad to see him, and then I will not be so worried about you.<sup>29</sup> Welcome him with Christian love* and with great joy, and give him the honor that people like him deserve.<sup>30</sup> For he risked his life for the work of Christ, and he was at the point of death while doing for me what you couldn't do from far away.

Philippians 3

The Priceless Value of Knowing Christ

<sup>1</sup>Whatever happens, my dear brothers and sisters,* rejoice in the Lord. I never get tired of telling you these things, and I do it to safeguard your faith.

<sup>2</sup> Watch out for those dogs, those people who do evil, those mutilators who say you must be circumcised to be saved. <sup>3</sup>For we who worship by the Spirit of God* are the ones who are truly circumcised. We rely on what Christ Jesus has done for us. We put no confidence in human effort, <sup>4</sup> though I could have confidence in my own effort if anyone could. Indeed, if others have reason for confidence in their own efforts, I have even more!

<sup>5</sup>I was circumcised when I was eight days old. I am a pure-blooded citizen of Israel and a member of the tribe of Benjamin—a real Hebrew if there ever was one! I was a member of the Pharisees, who demand the strictest obedience to the Jewish law. <sup>6</sup>I was so zealous that I harshly persecuted the church. And as for righteousness, I obeyed the law without fault.

<sup>7</sup>I once thought these things were valuable, but now I consider them worthless because of what Christ has done.

<sup>8</sup>Yes, everything else is worthless when compared with the infinite value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have discarded everything else, counting it all as garbage, so that I could gain Christ <sup>9</sup>and become one with him. I no longer count on my own righteousness through obeying the law; rather, I become righteous through faith in Christ.* For God's way of making us right with himself depends on faith.<sup>10</sup> I want to know Christ and experience the mighty power that raised him from the dead. I want to suffer with him, sharing in his death,<sup>11</sup> so that one way or another I will experience the resurrection from the dead!

Pressing toward the Goal

<sup>12</sup>I don't mean to say that I have already achieved these things or that I have already reached perfection. But I press on to possess that perfection for which Christ Jesus first possessed me.<sup>13</sup> No, dear brothers and sisters, I have not achieved it,* but I focus on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead,<sup>14</sup> I press on to reach the end of the race and receive the heavenly prize for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling us.

<sup>15</sup>Let all who are spiritually mature agree on these things. If you disagree on some point, I believe God will make it plain to you.<sup>16</sup> But we must hold on to the progress we have already made.

<sup>17</sup>Dear brothers and sisters, pattern your lives after mine, and learn from those who follow our example.<sup>18</sup> For I have told you often before, and I say it again with tears in my eyes, that there are many whose conduct shows they are really enemies of the cross of Christ.<sup>19</sup> They are headed for destruction. Their god is their appetite, they brag about shameful things, and they think only about this life here on earth.<sup>20</sup> But we are citizens of heaven, where the Lord Jesus Christ lives. And we are eagerly waiting for him to return as our Savior. <sup>21</sup>He will take our weak mortal bodies and change them into glorious bodies like his own, using the same power with which he will bring everything under his control.

Philippians 4

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters,* stay true to the Lord. I love you and long to see you, dear friends, for you are my joy and the crown I receive for my work.

Words of Encouragement

<sup>2</sup>Now I appeal to Euodia and Syntyche. Please, because you belong to the Lord, settle your disagreement. <sup>3</sup>And I ask you, my true partner,* to help these two women, for they worked hard with me in telling others the Good News. They worked along with Clement and the rest of my coworkers, whose names are written in the Book of Life.

<sup>4</sup> Always be full of joy in the Lord. I say it again—rejoice! <sup>5</sup>Let everyone see that you are considerate in all you do. Remember, the Lord is coming soon.

<sup>6</sup>Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. <sup>7</sup>Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup>And now, dear brothers and sisters, one final thing. Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise. <sup>9</sup>Keep putting into practice all you learned and received from me—everything you heard from me and saw me doing. Then the God of peace will be with you.

Paul's Thanks for Their Gifts

<sup>10</sup>How I praise the Lord that you are concerned about me again. I know you have always been concerned for me, but you didn't have the chance to help me. <sup>11</sup>Not that I was ever in need, for I have learned how to be content with whatever I have. <sup>12</sup>I know how to live on almost nothing or with everything. I have learned the secret of living in every situation, whether it is with a full stomach or empty, with plenty or little. <sup>13</sup>For I can do everything through Christ,* who gives me strength. <sup>14</sup>Even so, you have done well to share with me in my present difficulty.

<sup>15</sup>As you know, you Philippians were the only ones who gave me financial help when I first brought you the Good News and then traveled on from Macedonia. No other church did this. <sup>16</sup>Even when I was in Thessalonica you sent help more than once. <sup>17</sup>I don't say this because I want a gift from you. Rather, I want you to receive a reward for your kindness.

<sup>18</sup>At the moment I have all I need—and more! I am generously supplied with the gifts you sent me with Epaphroditus. They are a sweet-smelling sacrifice that is acceptable and pleasing to God. <sup>19</sup>And this same God who takes care of me will supply all your needs from his glorious riches, which have been given to us in Christ Jesus.

<sup>20</sup>Now all glory to God our Father forever and ever! Amen.

Paul's Final Greetings

<sup>21</sup>Give my greetings to each of God's holy people—all who belong to Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me send you their greetings.<sup>22</sup> And all the rest of God's people send you greetings, too, especially those in Caesar's household.

3:1-4

Since you have been raised to new life with Christ, set your sights on the realities of heaven, where Christ sits in the place of honor at God's right hand. Think about the things of heaven, not the things of earth. For you died to this life, and your real life is hidden with Christ in God. And when Christ, who is your life, is revealed to the whole world, you will share in all his glory.

3:23-24

Work willingly at whatever you do, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people. Remember that the Lord will give you an inheritance as your reward, and that the Master you are serving is Christ.

4:5-6

Live wisely among those who are not believers, and make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversation be gracious and attractive so that you will have the right response for everyone.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITY AND FAMILY.

Paul gives short, pointed orders to husbands (3:19) and fathers (3:21). We are to love our wives and to not treat them harshly. And we're not to aggravate our children so they won't become discouraged. The bottom line: What we do affects those closest to us. We need to take responsibility for our actions and also for the effects of those actions.

WHAT'S THE POINT OF Colossians?

+ + +

Christ is Number One— so live like it.

---

Colossians 1

Greetings from Paul

<sup>1</sup>This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from our brother Timothy.

<sup>2</sup>We are writing to God's holy people in the city of Colosse, who are faithful brothers and sisters* in Christ.

May God our Father give you grace and peace.

Paul's Thanksgiving and Prayer

<sup>3</sup>We always pray for you, and we give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>For we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and your love for all of God's people, <sup>5</sup>which come from your confident hope of what God has reserved for you in heaven. You have had this expectation ever since you first heard the truth of the Good News.

<sup>6</sup>This same Good News that came to you is going out all over the world. It is bearing fruit everywhere by changing lives, just as it changed your lives from the day you first heard and understood the truth about God's wonderful grace.

<sup>7</sup>You learned about the Good News from Epaphras, our beloved coworker. He is Christ's faithful servant, and he is helping us on your behalf.*<sup>8</sup>He has told us about the love for others that the Holy Spirit has given you.

<sup>9</sup>So we have not stopped praying for you since we first heard about you. We ask God to give you complete knowledge of his will and to give you spiritual wisdom and understanding.

<sup>10</sup>Then the way you live will always honor and please the Lord, and your lives will produce every kind of good fruit. All the while, you will grow as you learn to know God better and better.

<sup>11</sup>We also pray that you will be strengthened with all his glorious power so you will have all the endurance and patience you need. May you be filled with joy,*<sup>12</sup>always thanking the Father. He has enabled you to share in the inheritance that belongs to his people, who live in the light.<sup>13</sup>For he has rescued us from the kingdom of darkness and transferred us into the Kingdom of his dear Son,<sup>14</sup>who purchased our freedom* and forgave our sins.

Christ Is Supreme

<sup>15</sup>Christ is the visible image of the invisible God.

He existed before anything was created and is supreme over all creation,* <sup>16</sup>for through him God created everything in the heavenly realms and on earth.

He made the things we can see and the things we can't see—such as thrones, kingdoms, rulers, and authorities in the unseen world.

Everything was created through him and for him.

<sup>17</sup>He existed before anything else, and he holds all creation together.

<sup>18</sup>Christ is also the head of the church, which is his body.

He is the beginning,
supreme over all who rise from the dead.*

So he is first in everything.

<sup>19</sup>For God in all his fullness was pleased to live in Christ,

<sup>20</sup>and through him God reconciled everything to himself.

He made peace with everything in heaven and on earth
by means of Christ's blood on the cross.

<sup>21</sup>This includes you who were once far away from God. You were his enemies, separated from him by your evil thoughts and actions. <sup>22</sup>Yet now he has reconciled you to himself through the death of Christ in his physical body. As a result, he has brought you into his own presence, and you are holy and blameless as you stand before him without a single fault.

<sup>23</sup>But you must continue to believe this truth and stand firmly in it. Don't drift away from the assurance you received when you heard the Good News. The Good News has been preached all over the world, and I, Paul, have been appointed as God's servant to proclaim it.

Paul's Work for the Church

<sup>24</sup>I am glad when I suffer for you in my body, for I am participating in the sufferings of Christ that continue for his body, the church. <sup>25</sup>God has given me the responsibility of serving his church by proclaiming his entire message to you.

<sup>26</sup>This message was kept secret for centuries and generations past, but now it has been revealed to God's people. <sup>27</sup>For God wanted them to know that the riches and glory of Christ are for you Gentiles, too. And this is the secret: Christ lives in you. This gives you assurance of sharing his glory.

<sup>28</sup> So we tell others about Christ, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all the wisdom God has given us. We want to present them to God, perfect* in their relationship to Christ. <sup>29</sup>That's why I work and struggle so hard, depending on Christ's mighty power that works within me.

Colossians 2

<sup>1</sup>I want you to know how much I have agonized for you and for the church at Laodicea, and for many other believers who have never met me personally. <sup>2</sup>I want them to be encouraged and knit together by strong ties of love. I want them to have complete confidence that they understand God's mysterious plan, which is Christ himself. <sup>3</sup>In him lie hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

<sup>4</sup>I am telling you this so no one will deceive you with well-crafted arguments. <sup>5</sup>For though I am far away from you, my heart is with you. And I rejoice that you are living as you should and that your faith in Christ is strong.

Freedom from Rules and New Life in Christ

<sup>6</sup> And now, just as you accepted Christ Jesus as your Lord, you must continue to follow him. <sup>7</sup>Let your roots grow down into him, and let your lives be built on him. Then your faith will grow strong in the truth you were taught, and you will overflow with thankfulness.

<sup>8</sup>Don't let anyone capture you with empty philosophies and high-sounding nonsense that come from human thinking and from the spiritual powers* of this world, rather than from Christ. <sup>9</sup>For in Christ lives all the fullness of God in a human body.* <sup>10</sup>So you also are complete through your union with Christ, who is the head over every ruler and authority.

<sup>11</sup> When you came to Christ, you were "circumcised," but not by a physical procedure. Christ performed a spiritual circumcision—the cutting away of your sinful nature.* <sup>12</sup>For you were buried with Christ when you were baptized. And with him you were raised to new life because you trusted the mighty power of God, who raised Christ from the dead.

<sup>13</sup>You were dead because of your sins and because your sinful nature was not yet cut away. Then God made you alive with Christ, for he forgave all our sins. <sup>14</sup>He canceled the record of the charges against us and took it away by nailing it to the cross. <sup>15</sup>In this way, he disarmed* the spiritual rulers and authorities. He shamed them publicly by his victory over them on the cross.

<sup>16</sup>So don't let anyone condemn you for what you eat or drink, or for not celebrating certain holy days or new moon ceremonies or Sabbaths. <sup>17</sup>For these rules are only shadows of the reality yet to come. And Christ himself is that reality. <sup>18</sup>Don't let anyone condemn you by insisting on pious self-denial or the worship of angels,* saying they have had visions about these things. Their sinful minds have made them proud, <sup>19</sup>and they are not connected to Christ, the head of the body. For he holds the whole body together with its joints and ligaments, and it grows as God nourishes it.

<sup>20</sup>You have died with Christ, and he has set you free from the spiritual powers of this world. So why do you keep on following the rules of the world, such as, <sup>21</sup>“Don't handle! Don't taste! Don't touch!”? <sup>22</sup>Such rules are mere human teachings about things that deteriorate as we use them. <sup>23</sup>These rules may seem wise because they require strong devotion, pious self-denial, and severe bodily discipline. But they provide no help in conquering a person's evil desires.

Colossians 3

Living the New Life

<sup>1</sup> Since you have been raised to new life with Christ, set your sights on the realities of heaven, where Christ sits in the place of honor at God's right hand. <sup>2</sup> Think about the things of heaven, not the things of earth. <sup>3</sup> For you died to this life, and your real life is hidden with Christ in God. <sup>4</sup> And when Christ, who is your * life, is revealed to the whole world, you will share in all his glory.

<sup>5</sup> So put to death the sinful, earthly things lurking within you. Have nothing to do with sexual immorality, impurity, lust, and evil desires. Don't be greedy, for a greedy person is an idolater, worshiping the things of this world. <sup>6</sup> Because of these sins, the anger of God is coming * <sup>7</sup> You used to do these things when your life was still part of this world. <sup>8</sup> But now is the time to get rid of anger, rage, malicious behavior, slander, and dirty language. <sup>9</sup> Don't lie to each other, for you have stripped off your old sinful nature and all its wicked deeds. <sup>10</sup> Put on your new nature, and be renewed as you learn to know your Creator and become like him. <sup>11</sup> In this new life, it doesn't matter if you are a Jew or a Gentile, * circumcised or uncircumcised, barbaric, uncivilized, * slave, or free. Christ is all that matters, and he lives in all of us.

<sup>12</sup> Since God chose you to be the holy people he loves, you must clothe yourselves with tenderhearted mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. <sup>13</sup>Make allowance for each other's faults, and forgive anyone who offends you. Remember, the Lord forgave you, so you must forgive others. <sup>14</sup>Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds us all together in perfect harmony. <sup>15</sup>And let the peace that comes from Christ rule in your hearts. For as members of one body you are called to live in peace. And always be thankful.

<sup>16</sup>Let the message about Christ, in all its richness, fill your lives. Teach and counsel each other with all the wisdom he gives. Sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs to God with thankful hearts. <sup>17</sup>And whatever you do or say, do it as a representative of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through him to God the Father.

Instructions for Christian Households

<sup>18</sup>Wives, submit to your husbands, as is fitting for those who belong to the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything you do. Try to please them all the time, not just when they are watching you. Serve them sincerely because of your reverent fear of the Lord. <sup>23</sup>Work willingly at whatever you do, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people. <sup>24</sup>Remember that the Lord will give you an inheritance as your reward, and that the Master you are serving is Christ.* <sup>25</sup>But if you do what is wrong, you will be paid back for the wrong you have done. For God has no favorites.

Colossians 4

<sup>1</sup>Masters, be just and fair to your slaves. Remember that you also have a Master—in heaven.

An Encouragement for Prayer

<sup>2</sup>Devote yourselves to prayer with an alert mind and a thankful heart. <sup>3</sup>Pray for us, too, that God will give us many opportunities to speak about his mysterious plan concerning Christ. That is why I am here in chains. <sup>4</sup>Pray that I will proclaim this message as clearly as I should.

<sup>5</sup>Live wisely among those who are not believers, and make the most of every opportunity. <sup>6</sup>Let your conversation be gracious and attractive* so that you will have the right response for everyone.

Paul's Final Instructions and Greetings

<sup>7</sup>Tychicus will give you a full report about how I am getting along. He is a beloved brother and faithful helper who serves with me in the Lord's work. <sup>8</sup>I have sent him to you for this very purpose—to let you know how we are doing and to encourage you. <sup>9</sup>I am also sending Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, one of your own people. He and Tychicus will tell you everything that's happening here.

<sup>10</sup>Aristarchus, who is in prison with me, sends you his greetings, and so does Mark, Barnabas's cousin. As you were instructed before, make Mark welcome if he comes your way.

<sup>11</sup>Jesus (the one we call Justus) also sends his greetings. These are the only Jewish believers among my coworkers; they are working with me here for the Kingdom of God. And what a comfort they have been!

<sup>12</sup>Epaphras, a member of your own fellowship and a servant of Christ Jesus, sends you his greetings. He always prays earnestly for you, asking God to make you strong and perfect, fully confident that you are following the whole will of God. <sup>13</sup>I can assure you that he prays hard for you and also for the believers in Laodicea and Hierapolis.

<sup>14</sup>Luke, the beloved doctor, sends his greetings, and so does Demas. <sup>15</sup>Please give my greetings to our brothers and sisters* at Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church that meets in her house.

<sup>16</sup>After you have read this letter, pass it on to the church at Laodicea so they can read it, too. And you should read the letter I wrote to them.

Remember my chains.

May God’s grace be with you.

4:11-12

Make it your goal to live a quiet life, minding your own business and working with your hands, just as we instructed you before. Then people who are not Christians will respect the way you live, and you will not need to depend on others.

4:16-18

The Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the Christians who have died will rise from their graves. Then, together with them, we who are still alive and remain on the earth will be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Then we will be with the Lord forever. So encourage each other with these words.

5:15-18

See that no one pays back evil for evil, but always try to do good to each other and to all people.

Always be joyful. Never stop praying. Be thankful in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you who belong to Christ Jesus.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

USING YOUR HANDS.

Hard work is a virtue. People who make a splash and attract attention to themselves are not necessarily the most valuable. Paul praises those Christians who live quiet lives, mind their own business, and work with their hands.

1 Thessalonians 1

Greetings from Paul

We are writing to the church in Thessalonica, to you who belong to God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

May God give you grace and peace.

The Faith of the Thessalonian Believers

<sup>2</sup> We always thank God for all of you and pray for you constantly. <sup>3</sup>As we pray to our God and Father about you, we think of your faithful work, your loving deeds, and the enduring hope you have because of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup> We know, dear brothers and sisters,* that God loves you and has chosen you to be his own people. <sup>5</sup>For when we brought you the Good News, it was not only with words but also with power, for the Holy Spirit gave you full assurance* that what we said was true. And you know of our concern for you from the way we lived when we were with you.<sup>6</sup> So you received the message with joy from the Holy Spirit in spite of the severe suffering it brought you. In this way, you imitated both us and the Lord.<sup>7</sup> As a result, you have become an example to all the believers in Greece—throughout both Macedonia and Achaia.*

<sup>8</sup>And now the word of the Lord is ringing out from you to people everywhere, even beyond Macedonia and Achaia, for wherever we go we find people telling us about your faith in God. We don't need to tell them about it, <sup>9</sup>for they keep talking about the wonderful welcome you gave us and how you turned away from idols to serve the living and true God.<sup>10</sup> And they speak of how you are looking forward to the coming of God's Son from heaven—Jesus, whom God raised from the dead. He is the one who has rescued us from the terrors of the coming judgment.

Paul Remembers His Visit

<sup>1</sup>You yourselves know, dear brothers and sisters,* that our visit to you was not a failure. <sup>2</sup>You know how badly we had been treated at Philippi just before we came to you and how much we suffered there. Yet our God gave us the courage to declare his Good News to you boldly, in spite of great opposition. <sup>3</sup>So you can see we were not preaching with any deceit or impure motives or trickery.

<sup>4</sup>For we speak as messengers approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News. Our purpose is to please God, not people. He alone examines the motives of our hearts. <sup>5</sup>Never once did we try to win you with flattery, as you well know. And God is our witness that we were not pretending to be your friends just to get your money! <sup>6</sup>As for human praise, we have never sought it from you or anyone else.

<sup>7</sup>As apostles of Christ we certainly had a right to make some demands of you, but instead we were like children* among you. Or we were like a mother feeding and caring for her own children. <sup>8</sup>We loved you so much that we shared with you not only God's Good News but our own lives, too.

<sup>9</sup>Don't you remember, dear brothers and sisters, how hard we worked among you? Night and day we toiled to earn a living so that we would not be a burden to any of you as we preached God's Good News to you. <sup>10</sup>You yourselves are our witnesses —and so is God—that we were devout and honest and faultless toward all of you believers. <sup>11</sup>And you know that we treated each of you as a father treats his own children. <sup>12</sup>We pleaded with you, encouraged you, and urged you to live your lives in a way that God would consider worthy. For he called you to share in his Kingdom and glory.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, we never stop thanking God that when you received his message from us, you didn't think of our words as mere human ideas. You accepted what we said as the very word of God—which, of course, it is. And this word continues to work in you who believe.

<sup>14</sup>And then, dear brothers and sisters, you suffered persecution from your own countrymen. In this way, you imitated the believers in God's churches in Judea who, because of their belief in Christ Jesus, suffered from their own people, the Jews. <sup>15</sup>For some of the Jews killed the prophets, and some even killed the Lord Jesus. Now they have persecuted us, too. They fail to please God and work against all humanity <sup>16</sup>as they try to keep us from preaching the Good News of salvation to the Gentiles. By doing this, they continue to pile up their sins. But the anger of God has caught up with them at last.

Timothy's Good Report about the Church

<sup>17</sup>Dear brothers and sisters, after we were separated from you for a little while (though our hearts never left you), we tried very hard to come back because of our intense longing to see you again. <sup>18</sup>We wanted very much to come to you, and I, Paul, tried again and again, but Satan prevented us. <sup>19</sup>After all, what gives us hope and joy, and what will be our proud reward and crown as we stand before our Lord Jesus when he returns? It is you! <sup>20</sup>Yes, you are our pride and joy.

1 Thessalonians 3

<sup>1</sup> Finally, when we could stand it no longer, we decided to stay alone in Athens, <sup>2</sup>and we sent Timothy to visit you. He is our brother and God's coworker* in proclaiming the Good News of Christ. We sent him to strengthen you, to encourage you in your faith, <sup>3</sup>and to keep you from being shaken by the troubles you were going through. But you know that we are destined for such troubles. <sup>4</sup>Even while we were with you, we warned you that troubles would soon come—and they did, as you well know. <sup>5</sup>That is why, when I could bear it no longer, I sent Timothy to find out whether your faith was still strong. I was afraid that the tempter had gotten the best of you and that our work had been useless.

<sup>6</sup> But now Timothy has just returned, bringing us good news about your faith and love. He reports that you always remember our visit with joy and that you want to see us as much as we want to see you. <sup>7</sup>So we have been greatly encouraged in the midst of our troubles and suffering, dear brothers and sisters,* because you have remained strong in your faith. <sup>8</sup>It gives us new life to know that you are standing firm in the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>How we thank God for you! Because of you we have great joy as we enter God's presence. <sup>10</sup>Night and day we pray earnestly for you, asking God to let us see you again to fill the gaps in your faith.

<sup>11</sup> May God our Father and our Lord Jesus bring us to you very soon. <sup>12</sup>And may the Lord make your love for one another and for all people grow and overflow, just as our love for you overflows. <sup>13</sup>May he, as a result, make your hearts strong, blameless, and holy as you stand before God our Father when our Lord Jesus comes again with all his holy people. Amen.

1 Thessalonians 4

Live to Please God

<sup>1</sup>Finally, dear brothers and sisters,* we urge you in the name of the Lord Jesus to live in a way that pleases God, as we have taught you. You live this way already, and we encourage you to do so even more. <sup>2</sup>For you remember what we taught you by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>3</sup>God's will is for you to be holy, so stay away from all sexual sin. <sup>4</sup>Then each of you will control his own body* and live in holiness and honor—<sup>5</sup>not in lustful passion like the pagans who do not know God and his ways. <sup>6</sup>Never harm or cheat a Christian brother in this matter by violating his wife,* for the Lord avenges all such sins, as we have solemnly warned you before. <sup>7</sup>God has called us to live holy lives, not impure lives. <sup>8</sup>Therefore, anyone who refuses to live by these rules is not disobeying human teaching but is rejecting God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you.

What the Bible Says about

Sex

<sup>9</sup>But we don't need to write to you about the importance of loving each other,* for God himself has taught you to love one another. <sup>10</sup>Indeed, you already show your love for all the believers* throughout Macedonia. Even so, dear brothers and sisters, we urge you to love them even more.

<sup>11</sup>Make it your goal to live a quiet life, minding your own business and working with your hands, just as we instructed you before. <sup>12</sup>Then people who are not Christians will respect the way you live, and you will not need to depend on others.

The Hope of the Resurrection

<sup>13</sup>And now, dear brothers and sisters, we want you to know what will happen to the believers who have died* so you will not grieve like people who have no hope. <sup>14</sup>For since we believe that Jesus died and was raised to life again, we also believe that when Jesus returns, God will bring back with him the believers who have died.

<sup>15</sup>We tell you this directly from the Lord: We who are still living when the Lord returns will not meet him ahead of those who have died.* <sup>16</sup>For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the Christians who have died* will rise from their graves. <sup>17</sup>Then, together with them, we who are still alive and remain on the earth will be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Then we will be with the Lord forever. <sup>18</sup>So encourage each other with these words.

1 Thessalonians 5

<sup>1</sup> Now concerning how and when all this will happen, dear brothers and sisters, * we don't really need to write you. <sup>2</sup>For you know quite well that the day of the Lord's return will come unexpectedly, like a thief in the night. <sup>3</sup>When people are saying, "Everything is peaceful and secure," then disaster will fall on them as suddenly as a pregnant woman's labor pains begin. And there will be no escape.

<sup>4</sup>But you aren't in the dark about these things, dear brothers and sisters, and you won't be surprised when the day of the Lord comes like a thief. * <sup>5</sup>For you are all children of the light and of the day; we don't belong to darkness and night. <sup>6</sup>So be on your guard, not asleep like the others. Stay alert and be clearheaded. <sup>7</sup>Night is the time when people sleep and drinkers get drunk. <sup>8</sup>But let us who live in the light be clearheaded, protected by the armor of faith and love, and wearing as our helmet the confidence of our salvation.

<sup>9</sup>For God chose to save us through our Lord Jesus Christ, not to pour out his anger on us. <sup>10</sup>Christ died for us so that, whether we are dead or alive when he returns, we can live with him forever. <sup>11</sup>So encourage each other and build each other up, just as you are already doing.

Paul's Final Advice

<sup>12</sup>Dear brothers and sisters, honor those who are your leaders in the Lord's work. They work hard among you and give you spiritual guidance.<sup>13</sup> Show them great respect and wholehearted love because of their work. And live peacefully with each other.

<sup>14</sup> Brothers and sisters, we urge you to warn those who are lazy. Encourage those who are timid. Take tender care of those who are weak. Be patient with everyone.

Paul's Final Greetings

<sup>23</sup> Now may the God of peace make you holy in every way, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless until our Lord Jesus Christ comes again. <sup>24</sup> God will make this happen, for he who calls you is faithful.

<sup>25</sup> Dear brothers and sisters, pray for us.

<sup>27</sup> I command you in the name of the Lord to read this letter to all the brothers and sisters.

<sup>28</sup> May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Even while we were with you, we gave you this command: “Those unwilling to work will not get to eat.”

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

QUIET BUT STRONG.

Paul emphasizes quiet qualities, like standing firm (2:15), prayer (3:1), hard work (3:12), and doing good (3:13). In a world that often rewards flashy self-promotion, Christian men should distinguish themselves by quietly serving behind the scenes.

2 Thessalonians?

2 Thessalonians 1

Greetings from Paul

We are writing to the church in Thessalonica, to you who belong to God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup>May God our Father* and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Encouragement during Persecution

<sup>3</sup> Dear brothers and sisters,* we can't help but thank God for you, because your faith is flourishing and your love for one another is growing. <sup>4</sup>We proudly tell God's other churches about your endurance and faithfulness in all the persecutions and hardships you are suffering. <sup>5</sup> And God will use this persecution to show his justice and to make you worthy of his Kingdom, for which you are suffering. <sup>6</sup>In his justice he will pay back those who persecute you.

<sup>7</sup>And God will provide rest for you who are being persecuted and also for us when the Lord Jesus appears from heaven. He will come with his mighty angels,<sup>8</sup> in flaming fire, bringing judgment on those who don't know God and on those who refuse to obey the Good News of our Lord Jesus.<sup>9</sup> They will be punished with eternal destruction, forever separated from the Lord and from his glorious power.<sup>10</sup> When he comes on that day, he will receive glory from his holy people—praise from all who believe. And this includes you, for you believed what we told you about him.

<sup>11</sup>So we keep on praying for you, asking our God to enable you to live a life worthy of his call. May he give you the power to accomplish all the good things your faith prompts you to do.

<sup>12</sup>Then the name of our Lord Jesus will be honored because of the way you live, and you will be honored along with him. This is all made possible because of the grace of our God and Lord, Jesus Christ.*

2 Thessalonians 2

Events prior to the Lord's Second Coming

<sup>1</sup>Now, dear brothers and sisters,* let us clarify some things about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and how we will be gathered to meet him. <sup>2</sup>Don't be so easily shaken or alarmed by those who say that the day of the Lord has already begun. Don't believe them, even if they claim to have had a spiritual vision, a revelation, or a letter supposedly from us. <sup>3</sup> Don't be fooled by what they say. For that day will not come until there is a great rebellion against God and the man of lawlessness* is revealed—the one who brings destruction.* <sup>4</sup>He will exalt himself and defy everything that people call god and every object of worship. He will even sit in the temple of God, claiming that he himself is God.

<sup>5</sup>Don't you remember that I told you about all this when I was with you? <sup>6</sup>And you know what is holding him back, for he can be revealed only when his time comes. <sup>7</sup>For this lawlessness is already at work secretly, and it will remain secret until the one who is holding it back steps out of the way. <sup>8</sup>Then the man of lawlessness will be revealed, but the Lord Jesus will kill him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by the splendor of his coming.

<sup>9</sup>This man will come to do the work of Satan with counterfeit power and signs and miracles. <sup>10</sup>He will use every kind of evil deception to fool those on their way to destruction, because they refuse to love and accept the truth that would save them.

<sup>11</sup>So God will cause them to be greatly deceived, and they will believe these lies. <sup>12</sup>Then they will be condemned for enjoying evil rather than believing the truth.

Believers Should Stand Firm

<sup>13</sup>As for us, we can't help but thank God for you, dear brothers and sisters loved by the Lord. We are always thankful that God chose you to be among the first* to experience salvation—a salvation that came through the Spirit who makes you holy and through your belief in the truth. <sup>14</sup>He called you to salvation when we told you the Good News; now you can share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>15</sup> With all these things in mind, dear brothers and sisters, stand firm and keep a strong grip on the teaching we passed on to you both in person and by letter.

<sup>16</sup>Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and by his grace gave us eternal comfort and a wonderful hope, <sup>17</sup>comfort you and strengthen you in every good thing you do and say.

2 Thessalonians 3

Paul's Request for Prayer

<sup>1</sup> Finally, dear brothers and sisters, * we ask you to pray for us. Pray that the Lord's message will spread rapidly and be honored wherever it goes, just as when it came to you. <sup>2</sup> Pray, too, that we will be rescued from wicked and evil people, for not everyone is a believer. <sup>3</sup> But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one. * <sup>4</sup> And we are confident in the Lord that you are doing and will continue to do the things we commanded you. <sup>5</sup> May the Lord lead your hearts into a full understanding and expression of the love of God and the patient endurance that comes from Christ.

An Exhortation to Proper Living

<sup>6</sup> And now, dear brothers and sisters, we give you this command in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ: Stay away from all believers * who live idle lives and don't follow the tradition they received * from us. <sup>7</sup> For you know that you ought to imitate us. We were not idle when we were with you. <sup>8</sup> We never accepted food from anyone without paying for it. We worked hard day and night so we would not be a burden to any of you. <sup>9</sup> We certainly had the right to ask you to feed us, but we wanted to give you an example to follow. <sup>10</sup> Even while we were with you, we gave you this command: "Those unwilling to work will not get to eat."

<sup>11</sup> Yet we hear that some of you are living idle lives, refusing to work and meddling in other people's business. <sup>12</sup>We command such people and urge them in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ to settle down and work to earn their own living. <sup>13</sup>As for the rest of you, dear brothers and sisters, never get tired of doing good.

<sup>14</sup>Take note of those who refuse to obey what we say in this letter. Stay away from them so they will be ashamed. <sup>15</sup>Don't think of them as enemies, but warn them as you would a brother or sister.*

Paul's Final Greetings

<sup>16</sup>Now may the Lord of peace himself give you his peace at all times and in every situation. The Lord be with you all.

<sup>17</sup>HERE IS MY GREETING IN MY OWN HANDWRITING—PAUL. I DO THIS IN ALL MY LETTERS TO PROVE THEY ARE FROM ME.

<sup>18</sup>May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

2:5

There is only one God and one Mediator who can reconcile God and humanity—the man Christ Jesus.

4:8

Physical training is good, but training for godliness is much better, promising benefits in this life and in the life to come.

4:12

Don't let anyone think less of you because you are young. Be an example to all believers in what you say, in the way you live, in your love, your faith, and your purity.

6:6-10

True godliness with contentment is itself great wealth. After all, we brought nothing with us when we came into the world, and we can't take anything with us when we leave it. So if we have enough food and clothing, let us be content.

But people who long to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many foolish and harmful desires that plunge them into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. And some people, craving money, have wandered from the true faith and pierced themselves with many sorrows.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

SERVICE.

Paul's criteria for elders (3:1-7) would make an interesting checklist for any man. Notice the emphasis on character, reputation, and relationships. God wants us to lead by example and service instead of by "taking charge" or trying to control people.

1 Timothy?

Character is more important than talent.

1 Timothy 1

Greetings from Paul

<sup>1</sup>This letter is from Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus, appointed by the command of God our Savior and Christ Jesus, who gives us hope.

<sup>2</sup>I am writing to Timothy, my true son in the faith.

May God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord give you grace, mercy, and peace.

Warnings against False Teachings

<sup>3</sup> When I left for Macedonia, I urged you to stay there in Ephesus and stop those whose teaching is contrary to the truth. <sup>4</sup>Don't let them waste their time in endless discussion of myths and spiritual pedigrees. These things only lead to meaningless speculations,* which don't help people live a life of faith in God.*

Timothy

<sup>5</sup>The purpose of my instruction is that all believers would be filled with love that comes from a pure heart, a clear conscience, and genuine faith. <sup>6</sup>But some people have missed this whole point. They have turned away from these things and spend their time in meaningless discussions. <sup>7</sup>They want to be known as teachers of the law of Moses, but they don't know what they are talking about, even though they speak so confidently.

<sup>8</sup> We know that the law is good when used correctly. <sup>9</sup>For the law was not intended for people who do what is right. It is for people who are lawless and rebellious, who are ungodly and sinful, who consider nothing sacred and defile what is holy, who kill their father or mother or commit other murders. <sup>10</sup>The law is for people who are sexually immoral, or who practice homosexuality, or are slave traders, * liars, promise breakers, or who do anything else that contradicts the wholesome teaching <sup>11</sup>that comes from the glorious Good News entrusted to me by our blessed God.

Paul's Gratitude for God's Mercy

<sup>12</sup> I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength to do his work. He considered me trustworthy and appointed me to serve him, <sup>13</sup>even though I used to blaspheme the name of Christ. In my insolence, I persecuted his people. But God had mercy on me because I did it in ignorance and unbelief. <sup>14</sup>Oh, how generous and gracious our Lord was! He filled me with the faith and love that come from Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>This is a trustworthy saying, and everyone should accept it: "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners"—and I am the worst of them all. <sup>16</sup>But God had mercy on me so that Christ Jesus could use me as a prime example of his great patience with even the worst sinners. Then others will realize that they, too, can believe in him and receive eternal life. <sup>17</sup>All honor and glory to God forever and ever! He is the eternal King, the unseen one who never dies; he alone is God. Amen.

Timothy's Responsibility

<sup>18</sup> Timothy, my son, here are my instructions for you, based on the prophetic words spoken about you earlier. May they help you fight well in the Lord's battles. <sup>19</sup>Cling to your faith in Christ, and keep your conscience clear. For some people have deliberately violated their consciences; as a result, their faith has been shipwrecked. <sup>20</sup>Hymenaeus and Alexander are two examples. I threw them out and handed them over to Satan so they might learn not to blaspheme God.

1 Timothy 2

Instructions about Worship

<sup>1</sup> I urge you, first of all, to pray for all people. Ask God to help them; intercede on their behalf, and give thanks for them. <sup>2</sup> Pray this way for kings and all who are in authority so that we can live peaceful and quiet lives marked by godliness and dignity. <sup>3</sup> This is good and pleases God our Savior, <sup>4</sup> who wants everyone to be saved and to understand the truth. <sup>5</sup> For there is only one God and one Mediator who can reconcile God and humanity—the man Christ Jesus. <sup>6</sup> He gave his life to purchase freedom for everyone. This is the message God gave to the world at just the right time. <sup>7</sup> And I have been chosen as a preacher and apostle to teach the Gentiles this message about faith and truth. I'm not exaggerating—just telling the truth.

<sup>8</sup> In every place of worship, I want men to pray with holy hands lifted up to God, free from anger and controversy.

<sup>9</sup> And I want women to be modest in their appearance.* They should wear decent and appropriate clothing and not draw attention to themselves by the way they fix their hair or by wearing gold or pearls or expensive clothes. <sup>10</sup> For women who claim to be devoted to God should make themselves attractive by the good things they do.

<sup>11</sup> Women should learn quietly and submissively. <sup>12</sup> I do not let women teach men or have authority over them.* Let them listen quietly. <sup>13</sup> For God made Adam first, and afterward he made Eve.

<sup>14</sup>And it was not Adam who was deceived by Satan. The woman was deceived, and sin was the result. <sup>15</sup>But women will be saved through childbearing,* assuming they continue to live in faith, love, holiness, and modesty.

Men, Women, and Worship

1 Timothy 3

Leaders in the Church

<sup>1</sup> This is a trustworthy saying: “If someone aspires to be an elder,* he desires an honorable position.” <sup>2</sup>So an elder must be a man whose life is above reproach. He must be faithful to his wife.* He must exercise self-control, live wisely, and have a good reputation. He must enjoy having guests in his home, and he must be able to teach. <sup>3</sup>He must not be a heavy drinker* or be violent. He must be gentle, not quarrelsome, and not love money. <sup>4</sup>He must manage his own family well, having children who respect and obey him. <sup>5</sup>For if a man cannot manage his own household, how can he take care of God’s church?

<sup>6</sup>An elder must not be a new believer, because he might become proud, and the devil would cause him to fall.* <sup>7</sup>Also, people outside the church must speak well of him so that he will not be disgraced and fall into the devil’s trap.

<sup>8</sup>In the same way, deacons must be well respected and have integrity. They must not be heavy drinkers or dishonest with money. <sup>9</sup>They must be committed to the mystery of the faith now revealed and must live with a clear conscience. <sup>10</sup>Before they are appointed as deacons, let them be closely examined. If they pass the test, then let them serve as deacons.

<sup>11</sup>In the same way, their wives* must be respected and must not slander others. They must exercise self-control and be faithful in everything they do.

<sup>12</sup>A deacon must be faithful to his wife, and he must manage his children and household well. <sup>13</sup>Those who do well as deacons will be rewarded with respect from others and will have increased confidence in their faith in Christ Jesus.

The Not-So-Private Lives of Elders

JOB QUALIFICATIONS

If you're thinking of becoming an elder or a deacon, here are the requirements from 1 Timothy 3 and Titus 1. Notice: not much about skills, but a lot about character.

elders

- ✓ A life too good to criticize
- ✓ Faithful to his wife
- ✓ Self-controlled; disciplined
- ✓ Live wisely
- ✓ Good reputation, especially among non-Christians
- ✓ Enjoy having guests at home
- ✓ Able to teach
- ✓ No drinking problems
- ✓ Not violent
- ✓ Gentle; not arrogant
- ✓ Peace-loving
- ✓ Not money-hungry
- ✓ Good manager of family, kids
- ✓ Children must be believers, too (Titus 1:6)
- ✓ A track record in the faith
- ✓ Sense of fairness
- ✓ Strong, steadfast belief in the gospel

deacons

- ✓ Respected
- ✓ Have integrity
- ✓ No drinking problems
- ✓ Not money-hungry
- ✓ Committed to Christian doctrine
- ✓ A clear conscience
- ✓ Pre-tested in smaller responsibilities
- ✓ Faithful to his wife
- ✓ Good manager of family, kids

The Truths of Our Faith

<sup>14</sup>I am writing these things to you now, even though I hope to be with you soon, <sup>15</sup>so that if I am delayed, you will know how people must conduct themselves in the household of God. This is the church of the living God, which is the pillar and foundation of the truth.

<sup>16</sup>Without question, this is the great mystery of our faith*:

Christ* was revealed in a human body and vindicated by the Spirit.*

He was seen by angels and announced to the nations.

He was believed in throughout the world and taken to heaven in glory.

1 Timothy 4

Warnings against False Teachers

<sup>1</sup> Now the Holy Spirit tells us clearly that in the last times some will turn away from the true faith; they will follow deceptive spirits and teachings that come from demons. <sup>2</sup> These people are hypocrites and liars, and their consciences are dead.*

<sup>3</sup> They will say it is wrong to be married and wrong to eat certain foods. But God created those foods to be eaten with thanks by faithful people who know the truth. <sup>4</sup> Since everything God created is good, we should not reject any of it but receive it with thanks. <sup>5</sup> For we know it is made acceptable* by the word of God and prayer.

A Good Servant of Christ Jesus

<sup>6</sup> If you explain these things to the brothers and sisters,* Timothy, you will be a worthy servant of Christ Jesus, one who is nourished by the message of faith and the good teaching you have followed. <sup>7</sup> Do not waste time arguing over godless ideas and old wives' tales. Instead, train yourself to be godly.

<sup>8</sup> "Physical training is good, but training for godliness is much better, promising benefits in this life and in the life to come."

<sup>10</sup> This is why we work hard and continue to struggle,* for our hope is in the living God, who is the Savior of all people and particularly of all believers.

PERSPECTIVES

If you explain these things to the brothers and sisters, Timothy, you will be a worthy servant of Christ Jesus, one who is nourished by the message of faith and the good teaching you have followed.

1 TIMOTHY 4:6

One man cannot do it all, but one man with a lifetime can be enough of an example to have someone follow in his footsteps.

BOB PIERCE (1914–1978), FOUNDER OF WORLD VISION

<sup>11</sup> Teach these things and insist that everyone learn them. <sup>12</sup>Don't let anyone think less of you because you are young. Be an example to all believers in what you say, in the way you live, in your love, your faith, and your purity. <sup>13</sup>Until I get there, focus on reading the Scriptures to the church, encouraging the believers, and teaching them.

<sup>14</sup>Do not neglect the spiritual gift you received through the prophecy spoken over you when the elders of the church laid their hands on you. <sup>15</sup>Give your complete attention to these matters. Throw yourself into your tasks so that everyone will see your progress. <sup>16</sup>Keep a close watch on how you live and on your teaching. Stay true to what is right for the sake of your own salvation and the salvation of those who hear you.

1 Timothy 5

Advice about Widows, Elders, and Slaves

<sup>1</sup> Never speak harshly to an older man,* but appeal to him respectfully as you would to your own father. Talk to younger men as you would to your own brothers. <sup>2</sup>Treat older women as you would your mother, and treat younger women with all purity as you would your own sisters.

<sup>3</sup> Take care of* any widow who has no one else to care for her. <sup>4</sup>But if she has children or grandchildren, their first responsibility is to show godliness at home and repay their parents by taking care of them. This is something that pleases God.

<sup>5</sup>Now a true widow, a woman who is truly alone in this world, has placed her hope in God. She prays night and day, asking God for his help. <sup>6</sup>But the widow who lives only for pleasure is spiritually dead even while she lives. <sup>7</sup>Give these instructions to the church so that no one will be open to criticism.

<sup>8</sup>But those who won't care for their relatives, especially those in their own household, have denied the true faith. Such people are worse than unbelievers.

<sup>9</sup>A widow who is put on the list for support must be a woman who is at least sixty years old and was faithful to her husband.* <sup>10</sup>She must be well respected by everyone because of the good she has done. Has she brought up her children well? Has she been kind to strangers and served other believers humbly? * Has she helped those who are in trouble? Has she always been ready to do good?

<sup>11</sup>The younger widows should not be on the list, because their physical desires will overpower their devotion to Christ and they will want to remarry. <sup>12</sup>Then they would be guilty of breaking their previous pledge. <sup>13</sup>And if they are on the list, they will learn to be lazy and will spend their time gossiping from house to house, meddling in other people's business and talking about things they shouldn't. <sup>14</sup>So I advise these younger widows to marry again, have children, and take care of their own homes. Then the enemy will not be able to say anything against them. <sup>15</sup>For I am afraid that some of them have already gone astray and now follow Satan.

<sup>16</sup>If a woman who is a believer has relatives who are widows, she must take care of them and not put the responsibility on the church. Then the church can care for the widows who are truly alone.

Widows Revisited

<sup>17</sup>Elders who do their work well should be respected and paid well, * especially those who work hard at both preaching and teaching. <sup>18</sup>For the Scripture says, "You must not muzzle an ox to keep it from eating as it treads out the grain." And in another place, "Those who work deserve their pay!" *

<sup>19</sup>Do not listen to an accusation against an elder unless it is confirmed by two or three witnesses. <sup>20</sup>Those who sin should be reprimanded in front of the whole church; this will serve as a strong warning to others.

<sup>21</sup>I solemnly command you in the presence of God and Christ Jesus and the highest angels to obey these instructions without taking sides or showing favoritism to anyone.

<sup>22</sup>Never be in a hurry about appointing a church leader.* Do not share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure.

<sup>23</sup>Don't drink only water. You ought to drink a little wine for the sake of your stomach because you are sick so often.

<sup>24</sup> Remember, the sins of some people are obvious, leading them to certain judgment. But there are others whose sins will not be revealed until later. <sup>25</sup>In the same way, the good deeds of some people are obvious. And the good deeds done in secret will someday come to light.

1 Timothy 6

<sup>1</sup>All slaves should show full respect for their masters so they will not bring shame on the name of God and his teaching. <sup>2</sup>If the masters are believers, that is no excuse for being disrespectful. Those slaves should work all the harder because their efforts are helping other believers* who are well loved.

False Teaching and True Riches

Teach these things, Timothy, and encourage everyone to obey them. <sup>3</sup>Some people may contradict our teaching, but these are the wholesome teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ. These teachings promote a godly life. <sup>4</sup>Anyone who teaches something different is arrogant and lacks understanding. Such a person has an unhealthy desire to quibble over the meaning of words. This stirs up arguments ending in jealousy, division, slander, and evil suspicions. <sup>5</sup>These people always cause trouble. Their minds are corrupt, and they have turned their backs on the truth. To them, a show of godliness is just a way to become wealthy.

<sup>6</sup>Yet true godliness with contentment is itself great wealth. <sup>7</sup>After all, we brought nothing with us when we came into the world, and we can't take anything with us when we leave it. <sup>8</sup>So if we have enough food and clothing, let us be content.

<sup>9</sup>But people who long to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many foolish and harmful desires that plunge them into ruin and destruction. <sup>10</sup>For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. And some people, craving money, have wandered from the true faith and pierced themselves with many sorrows.

Paul's Final Instructions

<sup>11</sup>But you, Timothy, are a man of God; so run from all these evil things. Pursue righteousness and a godly life, along with faith, love, perseverance, and gentleness. <sup>12</sup>Fight the good fight for the true faith. Hold tightly to the eternal life to which God has called you, which you have confessed so well before many witnesses. <sup>13</sup>And I charge you before God, who gives life to all, and before Christ Jesus, who gave a good testimony before Pontius Pilate, <sup>14</sup>that you obey this command without wavering. Then no one can find fault with you from now until our Lord Jesus Christ comes again. <sup>15</sup>For at just the right time Christ will be revealed from heaven by the blessed and only almighty God, the King of all kings and Lord of all lords. <sup>16</sup>He alone can never die, and he lives in light so brilliant that no human can approach him. No human eye has ever seen him, nor ever will. All honor and power to him forever! Amen.

<sup>17</sup>Teach those who are rich in this world not to be proud and not to trust in their money, which is so unreliable. Their trust should be in God, who richly gives us all we need for our enjoyment. <sup>18</sup>Tell them to use their money to do good. They should be rich in good works and generous to those in need, always being ready to share with others. <sup>19</sup>By doing this they will be storing up their treasure as a good foundation for the future so that they may experience true life.

<sup>20</sup>Timothy, guard what God has entrusted to you. Avoid godless, foolish discussions with those who oppose you with their so-called knowledge. <sup>21</sup>Some people have wandered from the faith by following such foolishness.

May God's grace be with you all.

Paul uses several vivid word pictures (2:3-7) to communicate the discipline that the Christian life requires. We are to be tough and focused like soldiers, to compete according to the rules like athletes, and to work hard like farmers. Self-discipline makes a difference—in all of life.

Greetings from Paul

<sup>1</sup>This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus. I have been sent out to tell others about the life he has promised through faith in Christ Jesus.

<sup>2</sup>I am writing to Timothy, my dear son.

May God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord give you grace, mercy, and peace.

Encouragement to Be Faithful

<sup>3</sup>Timothy, I thank God for you—the God I serve with a clear conscience, just as my ancestors did. Night and day I constantly remember you in my prayers. <sup>4</sup>I long to see you again, for I remember your tears as we parted. And I will be filled with joy when we are together again.

<sup>5</sup>I remember your genuine faith, for you share the faith that first filled your grandmother Lois and your mother, Eunice.

And I know that same faith continues strong in you. <sup>6</sup>This is why I remind you to fan into flames the spiritual gift God gave you when I laid my hands on you. <sup>7</sup>For God has not given us a spirit of fear and timidity, but of power, love, and self-discipline.

<sup>8</sup>So never be ashamed to tell others about our Lord. And don't be ashamed of me, either, even though I'm in prison for him. With the strength God gives you, be ready to suffer with me for the sake of the Good News. <sup>9</sup>For God saved us and called us to live a holy life. He did this, not because we deserved it, but because that was his plan from before the beginning of time—to show us his grace through Christ Jesus. <sup>10</sup>And now he has made all of this plain to us by the appearing of Christ Jesus, our Savior. He broke the power of death and illuminated the way to life and immortality through the Good News. <sup>11</sup>And God chose me to be a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of this Good News.

<sup>12</sup>That is why I am suffering here in prison. But I am not ashamed of it, for I know the one in whom I trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard what I have entrusted to him* until the day of his return.

<sup>13</sup>Hold on to the pattern of wholesome teaching you learned from me—a pattern shaped by the faith and love that you have in Christ Jesus. <sup>14</sup>Through the power of the Holy Spirit who lives within us, carefully guard the precious truth that has been entrusted to you.

<sup>15</sup>As you know, everyone from the province of Asia has deserted me—even Phygelus and Hermogenes.

<sup>16</sup>May the Lord show special kindness to Onesiphorus and all his family because he often visited and encouraged me. He was never ashamed of me because I was in chains. <sup>17</sup>When he came to Rome, he searched everywhere until he found me. <sup>18</sup>May the Lord show him special kindness on the day of Christ's return. And you know very well how helpful he was in Ephesus.

2 Timothy 2

A Good Soldier of Christ Jesus

<sup>1</sup> Timothy, my dear son, be strong through the grace that God gives you in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>You have heard me teach things that have been confirmed by many reliable witnesses. Now teach these truths to other trustworthy people who will be able to pass them on to others.

<sup>8</sup>Always remember that Jesus Christ, a descendant of King David, was raised from the dead. This is the Good News I preach. <sup>9</sup>And because I preach this Good News, I am suffering and have been chained like a criminal. But the word of God cannot be chained. <sup>10</sup>So I am willing to endure anything if it will bring salvation and eternal glory in Christ Jesus to those God has chosen.

If we die with him,
we will also live with him.

<sup>12</sup>If we endure hardship, we will reign with him.
If we deny him,
he will deny us.

<sup>13</sup>If we are unfaithful, he remains faithful,
for he cannot deny who he is.

<sup>14</sup>Remind everyone about these things, and command them in God's presence to stop fighting over words. Such arguments are useless, and they can ruin those who hear them.

An Approved Worker

<sup>15</sup> Work hard so you can present yourself to God and receive his approval. Be a good worker, one who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly explains the word of truth. <sup>16</sup>Avoid worthless, foolish talk that only leads to more godless behavior. <sup>17</sup>This kind of talk spreads like cancer,* as in the case of Hymenaeus and Philetus. <sup>18</sup>They have left the path of truth, claiming that the resurrection of the dead has already occurred; in this way, they have turned some people away from the faith.

<sup>19</sup>But God's truth stands firm like a foundation stone with this inscription: "The LORD knows those who are his,"* and "All who belong to the LORD must turn away from evil."*

<sup>20</sup>In a wealthy home some utensils are made of gold and silver, and some are made of wood and clay. The expensive utensils are used for special occasions, and the cheap ones are for everyday use. <sup>21</sup>If you keep yourself pure, you will be a special utensil for honorable use. Your life will be clean, and you will be ready for the Master to use you for every good work.

22 Run from anything that stimulates youthful lusts. Instead, pursue righteous living, faithfulness, love, and peace. Enjoy the companionship of those who call on the Lord with pure hearts.

<sup>23</sup>Again I say, don't get involved in foolish, ignorant arguments that only start fights. <sup>24</sup>A servant of the Lord must not quarrel but must be kind to everyone, be able to teach, and be patient with difficult people. <sup>25</sup>Gently instruct those who oppose the truth. Perhaps God will change those people's hearts, and they will learn the truth. <sup>26</sup>Then they will come to their senses and escape from the devil's trap. For they have been held captive by him to do whatever he wants.

2 Timothy 3

The Dangers of the Last Days

<sup>1</sup> You should know this, Timothy, that in the last days there will be very difficult times. <sup>2</sup>For people will love only themselves and their money. They will be boastful and proud, scoffing at God, disobedient to their parents, and ungrateful. They will consider nothing sacred. <sup>3</sup>They will be unloving and unforgiving; they will slander others and have no self-control. They will be cruel and hate what is good. <sup>4</sup>They will betray their friends, be reckless, be puffed up with pride, and love pleasure rather than God. <sup>5</sup>They will act religious, but they will reject the power that could make them godly. Stay away from people like that!

<sup>6</sup>They are the kind who work their way into people's homes and win the confidence of *vulnerable women who are burdened with the guilt of sin and controlled by various desires. <sup>7</sup>(Such women are forever following new teachings, but they are never able to understand the truth.) <sup>8</sup>These teachers oppose the truth just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses. They have depraved minds and a counterfeit faith. <sup>9</sup>But they won't get away with this for long. Someday everyone will recognize what fools they are, just as with Jannes and Jambres.

Paul's Charge to Timothy

<sup>10</sup>But you, Timothy, certainly know what I teach, and how I live, and what my purpose in life is. You know my faith, my patience, my love, and my endurance. <sup>11</sup>You know how much persecution and suffering I have endured. You know all about how I was persecuted in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra—but the Lord rescued me from all of it. <sup>12</sup>Yes, and everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. <sup>13</sup>But evil people and impostors will flourish. They will deceive others and will themselves be deceived.

<sup>14</sup> But you must remain faithful to the things you have been taught. You know they are true, for you know you can trust those who taught you. <sup>15</sup>You have been taught the holy Scriptures from childhood, and they have given you the wisdom to receive the salvation that comes by trusting in Christ Jesus. <sup>16</sup>All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right. <sup>17</sup>God uses it to prepare and equip his people to do every good work.

What the Bible Says about

Rules

2 Timothy 4

<sup>1</sup> I solemnly urge you in the presence of God and Christ Jesus, who will someday judge the living and the dead when he appears to set up his Kingdom: <sup>2</sup>Preach the word of God. Be prepared, whether the time is favorable or not. Patiently correct, rebuke, and encourage your people with good teaching.

<sup>3</sup>For a time is coming when people will no longer listen to sound and wholesome teaching. They will follow their own desires and will look for teachers who will tell them whatever their itching ears want to hear. <sup>4</sup>They will reject the truth and chase after myths.

<sup>5</sup>But you should keep a clear mind in every situation. Don't be afraid of suffering for the Lord. Work at telling others the Good News, and fully carry out the ministry God has given you.

<sup>6</sup> As for me, my life has already been poured out as an offering to God. The time of my death is near. <sup>7</sup>I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful. <sup>8</sup>And now the prize awaits me—the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on the day of his return. And the prize is not just for me but for all who eagerly look forward to his appearing.

Demas

Paul's Final Words

<sup>9</sup>Timothy, please come as soon as you can. <sup>10</sup>Demas has deserted me because he loves the things of this life and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus has gone to Dalmatia. <sup>11</sup>Only Luke is with me. Bring Mark with you when you come, for he will be helpful to me in my ministry.

<sup>12</sup>I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. <sup>13</sup>When you come, be sure to bring the coat I left with Carpus at Troas. Also bring my books, and especially my papers.*

<sup>14</sup>Alexander the coppersmith did me much harm, but the Lord will judge him for what he has done. <sup>15</sup>Be careful of him, for he fought against everything we said.

<sup>16</sup>The first time I was brought before the judge, no one came with me. Everyone abandoned me. May it not be counted against them. <sup>17</sup>But the Lord stood with me and gave me strength so that I might preach the Good News in its entirety for all the Gentiles to hear. And he rescued me from certain death.* <sup>18</sup>Yes, and the Lord will deliver me from every evil attack and will bring me safely into his heavenly Kingdom. All glory to God forever and ever! Amen.

Paul's Final Greetings

<sup>21</sup>Do your best to get here before winter. Eubulus sends you greetings, and so do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers and sisters.*

<sup>22</sup>May the Lord be with your spirit. And may his grace be with all of you.

2:11-14

The grace of God has been revealed, bringing salvation to all people. And we are instructed to turn from godless living and sinful pleasures. We should live in this evil world with wisdom, righteousness, and devotion to God, while we look forward with hope to that wonderful day when the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, will be revealed. He gave his life to free us from every kind of sin, to cleanse us, and to make us his very own people, totally committed to doing good deeds.

3:4-7

When God our Savior revealed his kindness and love, he saved us, not because of the righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He washed away our sins, giving us a new birth and new life through the Holy Spirit. He generously poured out the Spirit upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior. Because of his grace he declared us righteous and gave us confidence that we will inherit eternal life.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

SELF-CONTROLLED LIFE.

Paul gives specific instructions for older men (2:2) and younger men (2:6-8). The bottom line for both groups is self-control. We are to lead by example, from a foundation of spiritual integrity.

Titus?

Titus 1

Greetings from Paul

<sup>1</sup>This letter is from Paul, a slave of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ. I have been sent to proclaim faith to* those God has chosen and to teach them to know the truth that shows them how to live godly lives. <sup>2</sup>This truth gives them confidence that they have eternal life, which God—who does not lie—promised them before the world began. <sup>3</sup>And now at just the right time he has revealed this message, which we announce to everyone. It is by the command of God our Savior that I have been entrusted with this work for him.

<sup>4</sup>I am writing to Titus, my true son in the faith that we share.

May God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior give you grace and peace.

Titus's Work in Crete

<sup>5</sup>I left you on the island of Crete so you could complete our work there and appoint elders in each town as I instructed you.

<sup>6</sup>An elder must live a blameless life. He must be faithful to his wife,* and his children must be believers who don't have a reputation for being wild or rebellious. <sup>7</sup>An elder* is a manager of God's household, so he must live a blameless life. He must not be arrogant or quick-tempered; he must not be a heavy drinker,* violent, or dishonest with money.

<sup>8</sup>Rather, he must enjoy having guests in his home, and he must love what is good. He must live wisely and be just. He must live a devout and disciplined life. <sup>9</sup>He must have a strong belief in the trustworthy message he was taught; then he will be able to encourage others with wholesome teaching and show those who oppose it where they are wrong.

<sup>10</sup>For there are many rebellious people who engage in useless talk and deceive others. This is especially true of those who insist on circumcision for salvation. <sup>11</sup>They must be silenced, because they are turning whole families away from the truth by their false teaching. And they do it only for money. <sup>12</sup>Even one of their own men, a prophet from Crete, has said about them, "The people of Crete are all liars, cruel animals, and lazy gluttons."* <sup>13</sup>This is true. So reprimand them sternly to make them strong in the faith. <sup>14</sup>They must stop listening to Jewish myths and the commands of people who have turned away from the truth.

<sup>15</sup>Everything is pure to those whose hearts are pure. But nothing is pure to those who are corrupt and unbelieving, because their minds and consciences are corrupted. <sup>16</sup>Such people claim they know God, but they deny him by the way they live. They are detestable and disobedient, worthless for doing anything good.

Titus 2

Promote Right Teaching

<sup>1</sup> As for you, Titus, promote the kind of living that reflects wholesome teaching. <sup>2</sup>Teach the older men to exercise self-control, to be worthy of respect, and to live wisely. They must have sound faith and be filled with love and patience.

<sup>3</sup>Similarly, teach the older women to live in a way that honors God. They must not slander others or be heavy drinkers.* Instead, they should teach others what is good. <sup>4</sup>These older women must train the younger women to love their husbands and their children, <sup>5</sup>to live wisely and be pure, to work in their homes,* to do good, and to be submissive to their husbands. Then they will not bring shame on the word of God.

<sup>6</sup> In the same way, encourage the young men to live wisely. <sup>7</sup>And you yourself must be an example to them by doing good works of every kind. Let everything you do reflect the integrity and seriousness of your teaching. <sup>8</sup>Teach the truth so that your teaching can't be criticized. Then those who oppose us will be ashamed and have nothing bad to say about us.

Getting Down to Practicality

<sup>9</sup>Slaves must always obey their masters and do their best to please them. They must not talk back <sup>10</sup>or steal, but must show themselves to be entirely trustworthy and good. Then they will make the teaching about God our Savior attractive in every way.

11 For the grace of God has been revealed, bringing salvation to all people. <sup>12</sup>And we are instructed to turn from godless living and sinful pleasures. We should live in this evil world with wisdom, righteousness, and devotion to God, <sup>13</sup>while we look forward with hope to that wonderful day when the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, will be revealed. <sup>14</sup>He gave his life to free us from every kind of sin, to cleanse us, and to make us his very own people, totally committed to doing good deeds.

<sup>15</sup>You must teach these things and encourage the believers to do them. You have the authority to correct them when necessary, so don't let anyone disregard what you say.

Titus 3

Do What Is Good

<sup>1</sup>Remind the believers to submit to the government and its officers. They should be obedient, always ready to do what is good. <sup>2</sup>They must not slander anyone and must avoid quarreling. Instead, they should be gentle and show true humility to everyone.

<sup>3</sup>Once we, too, were foolish and disobedient. We were misled and became slaves to many lusts and pleasures. Our lives were full of evil and envy, and we hated each other.

<sup>4</sup> But—“When God our Savior revealed his kindness and love, <sup>5</sup>he saved us, not because of the righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He washed away our sins, giving us a new birth and new life through the Holy Spirit.* <sup>6</sup>He generously poured out the Spirit upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior. <sup>7</sup>Because of his grace he declared us righteous and gave us confidence that we will inherit eternal life.” <sup>8</sup>This is a trustworthy saying, and I want you to insist on these teachings so that all who trust in God will devote themselves to doing good. These teachings are good and beneficial for everyone.

<sup>9</sup>Do not get involved in foolish discussions about spiritual pedigrees* or in quarrels and fights about obedience to Jewish laws. These things are useless and a waste of time. <sup>10</sup>If people are causing divisions among you, give a first and second warning. After that, have nothing more to do with them. <sup>11</sup>For people like that have turned away from the truth, and their own sins condemn them.

Paul's Final Remarks and Greetings

<sup>12</sup>I am planning to send either Artemas or Tychicus to you. As soon as one of them arrives, do your best to meet me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to stay there for the winter. <sup>13</sup>Do everything you can to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos with their trip. See that they are given everything they need. <sup>14</sup>Our people must learn to do good by meeting the urgent needs of others; then they will not be unproductive.

<sup>15</sup>Everybody here sends greetings. Please give my greetings to the believers—all who love us.

May God's grace be with you all.

Philemon

Paul's Thanksgiving and Prayer

<sup>4</sup>I always thank my God when I pray for you, Philemon, <sup>5</sup>because I keep hearing about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all of God's people. <sup>6</sup>And I am praying that you will put into action the generosity that comes from your faith as you understand and experience all the good things we have in Christ. <sup>7</sup>Your love has given me much joy and comfort, my brother, for your kindness has often refreshed the hearts of God's people.

Paul's Appeal for Onesimus

<sup>8</sup>That is why I am boldly asking a favor of you. I could demand it in the name of Christ because it is the right thing for you to do. <sup>9</sup>But because of our love, I prefer simply to ask you. Consider this as a request from me—Paul, an old man and now also a prisoner for the sake of Christ Jesus.*

<sup>10</sup>I appeal to you to show kindness to my child, Onesimus. I became his father in the faith while here in prison. <sup>11</sup>Onesimus* hasn't been of much use to you in the past, but now he is very useful to both of us. <sup>12</sup>I am sending him back to you, and with him comes my own heart.

<sup>13</sup>I wanted to keep him here with me while I am in these chains for preaching the Good News, and he would have helped me on your behalf. <sup>14</sup> But I didn't want to do anything without your consent. I wanted you to help because you were willing, not because you were forced. <sup>15</sup>It seems you lost Onesimus for a little while so that you could have him back forever. <sup>16</sup>He is no longer like a slave to you. He is more than a slave, for he is a beloved brother, especially to me. Now he will mean much more to you, both as a man and as a brother in the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. <sup>18</sup>If he has wronged you in any way or owes you anything, charge it to me. <sup>19</sup>I, PAUL, WRITE THIS WITH MY OWN HAND: I WILL REPAY IT. AND I WON'T MENTION THAT YOU OWE ME YOUR VERY SOUL!

<sup>20</sup>Yes, my brother, please do me this favor* for the Lord's sake. Give me this encouragement in Christ.

<sup>21</sup>I am confident as I write this letter that you will do what I ask and even more! <sup>22</sup>One more thing—please prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping that God will answer your prayers and let me return to you soon.

Paul's Final Greetings

<sup>23</sup>Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends you his greetings. <sup>24</sup>So do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my coworkers.

<sup>25</sup>May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

Hebrews was written to Jewish converts to reinforce their current faith in Christ and encourage them not to revert to their former religion. The overriding message of the book is that Jesus is superior to the Old Testament system of sacrifices for sin.

WHO WROTE IT?

We don't know. Probably not Paul (the style is quite different from all of Paul's letters). But the author was certainly highly educated, with a thorough knowledge of Jewish religious practices and the Old Testament.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

Because the sacrifices are described in the present tense, before the Jerusalem Temple was destroyed in A.D. 70.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

During the third or fourth decade after the early church began.

THE BREAKDOWN

WORTH MEMORIZING

4:12

The word of God is alive and powerful. It is sharper than the sharpest two-edged sword, cutting between soul and spirit, between joint and marrow. It exposes our innermost thoughts and desires.

4:15-16

This High Priest of ours understands our weaknesses, for he faced all of the same testings we do, yet he did not sin. So let us come boldly to the throne of our gracious God.

11:1

Faith is the confidence that what we hope for will actually happen; it gives us assurance about things we cannot see.

11:6

It is impossible to please God without faith. Anyone who wants to come to him must believe that God exists and that he rewards those who sincerely seek him.

12:1

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a huge crowd of witnesses to the life of faith, let us strip off every weight that slows us down, especially the sin that so easily trips us up. And let us run with endurance the race God has set before us.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

LIVING THE CHRISTIAN LIFE.

In chapter 12, the Christian life is compared to a race. Like athletes, we are to get rid of every unnecessary weight and keep focused on the finish line. The weight that holds us back is sin, and our focus should be Christ himself.

Hebrews 1

Jesus Christ Is God's Son

<sup>1</sup> Long ago God spoke many times and in many ways to our ancestors through the prophets. <sup>2</sup> And now in these final days, he has spoken to us through his Son. God promised everything to the Son as an inheritance, and through the Son he created the universe. <sup>3</sup> The Son radiates God's own glory and expresses the very character of God, and he sustains everything by the mighty power of his command. When he had cleansed us from our sins, he sat down in the place of honor at the right hand of the majestic God in heaven. <sup>4</sup> This shows that the Son is far greater than the angels, just as the name God gave him is greater than their names.

The Son Is Greater Than the Angels

<sup>5</sup> For God never said to any angel what he said to Jesus:

“You are my Son.
Today I have become your Father.*”  

God also said,

“I will be his Father, and he will be my Son.”*  

<sup>6</sup>And when he brought his supreme* Son into the world, God said,*  

“Let all of God’s angels worship him.”*  

<sup>7</sup>Regarding the angels, he says,

“He sends his angels like the winds, his servants like flames of fire.”*  

<sup>8</sup>But to the Son he says,

“Your throne, O God, endures forever and ever.
You rule with a scepter of justice.

<sup>9</sup>You love justice and hate evil.
Therefore, O God, your God has anointed you, pouring out the oil of joy on you more than on anyone else.”*  

<sup>10</sup>He also says to the Son,

“In the beginning, Lord, you laid the foundation of the earth and made the heavens with your hands.

<sup>11</sup>They will perish, but you remain forever.

They will wear out like old clothing.

<sup>12</sup>You will fold them up like a cloak and discard them like old clothing.

But you are always the same;

you will live forever.”*

<sup>13</sup>And God never said to any of the angels,

“Sit in the place of honor at my right hand until I humble your enemies,

making them a footstool under your feet.”*

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, angels are only servants—spirits sent to care for people who will inherit salvation.

Hebrews 2

A Warning against Drifting Away

<sup>1</sup> So we must listen very carefully to the truth we have heard, or we may drift away from it. <sup>2</sup>For the message God delivered through angels has always stood firm, and every violation of the law and every act of disobedience was punished. <sup>3</sup>So what makes us think we can escape if we ignore this great salvation that was first announced by the Lord Jesus himself and then delivered to us by those who heard him speak? <sup>4</sup>And God confirmed the message by giving signs and wonders and various miracles and gifts of the Holy Spirit whenever he chose.

Jesus, the Man

<sup>5</sup> And furthermore, it is not angels who will control the future world we are talking about. <sup>6</sup>For in one place the Scriptures say,

“What are mere mortals that you should think about them, or a son of man* that you should care for him?

<sup>7</sup>Yet you made them only a little lower than the angels and crowned them with glory and honor.*

Now when it says “all things,” it means nothing is left out. But we have not yet seen all things put under their authority.

<sup>9</sup>What we do see is Jesus, who was given a position “a little lower than the angels”; and because he suffered death for us, he is now “crowned with glory and honor.” Yes, by God’s grace, Jesus tasted death for everyone. <sup>10</sup>God, for whom and through whom everything was made, chose to bring many children into glory. And it was only right that he should make Jesus, through his suffering, a perfect leader, fit to bring them into their salvation.

<sup>11</sup>So now Jesus and the ones he makes holy have the same Father. That is why Jesus is not ashamed to call them his brothers and sisters.* <sup>12</sup>For he said to God,

“I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters.
I will praise you among your assembled people.”*

<sup>13</sup>He also said,

“I will put my trust in him,” that is, “I and the children God has given me.”*

<sup>14</sup>Because God’s children are human beings—made of flesh and blood—the Son also became flesh and blood. For only as a human being could he die, and only by dying could he break the power of the devil, who had* the power of death. <sup>15</sup>Only in this way could he set free all who have lived their lives as slaves to the fear of dying.

<sup>16</sup>We also know that the Son did not come to help angels; he came to help the descendants of Abraham. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, it was necessary for him to be made in every respect like us, his brothers and sisters,* so that he could be our merciful and faithful High Priest before God. Then he could offer a sacrifice that would take away the sins of the people.<sup>18</sup> Since he himself has gone through suffering and testing, he is able to help us when we are being tested.

Hebrews 3

Jesus Is Greater Than Moses

<sup>1</sup> And so, dear brothers and sisters who belong to God and * are partners with those called to heaven, think carefully about this Jesus whom we declare to be God's messenger * and High Priest. <sup>2</sup> For he was faithful to God, who appointed him, just as Moses served faithfully when he was entrusted with God's entire * house.

<sup>3</sup> But Jesus deserves far more glory than Moses, just as a person who builds a house deserves more praise than the house itself. <sup>4</sup> For every house has a builder, but the one who built everything is God.

<sup>5</sup> Moses was certainly faithful in God's house as a servant. His work was an illustration of the truths God would reveal later. <sup>6</sup> But Christ, as the Son, is in charge of God's entire house. And we are God's house, if we keep our courage and remain confident in our hope in Christ. *

<sup>7</sup> That is why the Holy Spirit says,

“Today when you hear his voice,
<sup>8</sup> don't harden your hearts
as Israel did when they rebelled, when they tested me in the wilderness.

<sup>9</sup> There your ancestors tested and tried my patience, even though they saw my miracles for forty years.

<sup>10</sup>So I was angry with them, and I said,
‘Their hearts always turn away from me.
They refuse to do what I tell them.’

<sup>11</sup>So in my anger I took an oath:
‘They will never enter my place of rest.’”*

<sup>12</sup>Be careful then, dear brothers and sisters.* Make sure that your own hearts are not evil and unbelieving, turning you away from the living God. <sup>13</sup>You must warn each other every day, while it is still “today,” so that none of you will be deceived by sin and hardened against God. <sup>14</sup>For if we are faithful to the end, trusting God just as firmly as when we first believed, we will share in all that belongs to Christ. <sup>15</sup>Remember what it says:

“Today when you hear his voice, don’t harden your hearts

<sup>16</sup>And who was it who rebelled against God, even though they heard his voice? Wasn’t it the people Moses led out of Egypt? <sup>17</sup>And who made God angry for forty years? Wasn’t it the people who sinned, whose corpses lay in the wilderness? <sup>18</sup>And to whom was God speaking when he took an oath that they would never enter his rest? Wasn’t it the people who disobeyed him? <sup>19</sup>So we see that because of their unbelief they were not able to enter his rest.

Hebrews 4

Promised Rest for God's People

<sup>1</sup> God's promise of entering his rest still stands, so we ought to tremble with fear that some of you might fail to experience it. <sup>2</sup>For this good news—that God has prepared this rest—has been announced to us just as it was to them. But it did them no good because they didn't share the faith of those who listened to God. <sup>3</sup>* For only we who believe can enter his rest. As for the others, God said,

“In my anger I took an oath:

even though this rest has been ready since he made the world.

<sup>4</sup> We know it is ready because of the place in the Scriptures where it mentions the seventh day: “On the seventh day God rested from all his work.”* <sup>5</sup>But in the other passage God said, “They will never enter my place of rest.”*   

<sup>6</sup>So God's rest is there for people to enter, but those who first heard this good news failed to enter because they disobeyed God. <sup>7</sup>So God set another time for entering his rest, and that time is today. God announced this through David much later in the words already quoted:

“Today when you hear his voice, don't harden your hearts.”*

<sup>8</sup>Now if Joshua had succeeded in giving them this rest, God would not have spoken about another day of rest still to come.

<sup>9</sup>So there is a special rest* still waiting for the people of God.

<sup>10</sup>For all who have entered into God's rest have rested from their labors, just as God did after creating the world. <sup>11</sup>So let us do our best to enter that rest. But if we disobey God, as the people of Israel did, we will fall.

<sup>12</sup>For the word of God is alive and powerful. It is sharper than the sharpest two-edged sword, cutting between soul and spirit, between joint and marrow. It exposes our innermost thoughts and desires. <sup>13</sup>Nothing in all creation is hidden from God. Everything is naked and exposed before his eyes, and he is the one to whom we are accountable.

Christ Is Our High Priest

<sup>14</sup>So then, since we have a great High Priest who has entered heaven, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to what we believe. <sup>15</sup>This High Priest of ours understands our weaknesses, for he faced all of the same testings we do, yet he did not sin. <sup>16</sup>So let us come boldly to the throne of our gracious God. There we will receive his mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it most.

Personal Gold

A Two-Way Conversation

Hebrews 5

<sup>1</sup>Every high priest is a man chosen to represent other people in their dealings with God. He presents their gifts to God and offers sacrifices for their sins. <sup>2</sup>And he is able to deal gently with ignorant and wayward people because he himself is subject to the same weaknesses. <sup>3</sup>That is why he must offer sacrifices for his own sins as well as theirs.

<sup>4</sup>And no one can become a high priest simply because he wants such an honor. He must be called by God for this work, just as Aaron was. <sup>5</sup>That is why Christ did not honor himself by assuming he could become High Priest. No, he was chosen by God, who said to him,

“You are my Son.

Today I have become your Father.*”

<sup>6</sup>And in another passage God said to him,

“You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.”*

<sup>7</sup>While Jesus was here on earth, he offered prayers and pleadings, with a loud cry and tears, to the one who could rescue him from death. And God heard his prayers because of his deep reverence for God. <sup>8</sup>Even though Jesus was God’s Son, he learned obedience from the things he suffered. <sup>9</sup>In this way, God qualified him as a perfect High Priest, and he became the source of eternal salvation for all those who obey him.

<sup>10</sup>And God designated him to be a High Priest in the order of Melchizedek.

A Call to Spiritual Growth

<sup>11</sup> There is much more we would like to say about this, but it is difficult to explain, especially since you are spiritually dull and don't seem to listen. <sup>12</sup> You have been believers so long now that you ought to be teaching others. Instead, you need someone to teach you again the basic things about God's word.* You are like babies who need milk and cannot eat solid food. <sup>13</sup> For someone who lives on milk is still an infant and doesn't know how to do what is right. <sup>14</sup> Solid food is for those who are mature, who through training have the skill to recognize the difference between right and wrong.

Hebrews 6

<sup>1</sup>So let us stop going over the basic teachings about Christ again and again. Let us go on instead and become mature in our understanding. Surely we don't need to start again with the fundamental importance of repenting from evil deeds* and placing our faith in God. <sup>2</sup>You don't need further instruction about baptisms, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. <sup>3</sup>And so, God willing, we will move forward to further understanding.

<sup>4</sup>For it is impossible to bring back to repentance those who were once enlightened—those who have experienced the good things of heaven and shared in the Holy Spirit, <sup>5</sup>who have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the power of the age to come—<sup>6</sup>and who then turn away from God. It is impossible to bring such people back to repentance; by rejecting the Son of God, they themselves are nailing him to the cross once again and holding him up to public shame.

<sup>7</sup>When the ground soaks up the falling rain and bears a good crop for the farmer, it has God's blessing. <sup>8</sup>But if a field bears thorns and thistles, it is useless. The farmer will soon condemn that field and burn it.

<sup>9</sup>Dear friends, even though we are talking this way, we really don't believe it applies to you. We are confident that you are meant for better things, things that come with salvation. <sup>10</sup>For God is not unjust. He will not forget how hard you have worked for him and how you have shown your love to him by caring for other believers,* as you still do. <sup>11</sup>Our great desire is that you will keep on loving others as long as life lasts, in order to make certain that what you hope for will come true. <sup>12</sup>Then you will not become spiritually dull and indifferent. Instead, you will follow the example of those who are going to inherit God's promises because of their faith and endurance.

God's Promises Bring Hope

<sup>13</sup> For example, there was God's promise to Abraham. Since there was no one greater to swear by, God took an oath in his own name, saying:

<sup>14</sup>“I will certainly bless you, and I will multiply your descendants beyond number.”*

<sup>15</sup>Then Abraham waited patiently, and he received what God had promised.

<sup>16</sup>Now when people take an oath, they call on someone greater than themselves to hold them to it. And without any question that oath is binding. <sup>17</sup>God also bound himself with an oath, so that those who received the promise could be perfectly sure that he would never change his mind. <sup>18</sup>So God has given both his promise and his oath. These two things are unchangeable because it is impossible for God to lie. Therefore, we who have fled to him for refuge can have great confidence as we hold to the hope that lies before us. <sup>19</sup>This hope is a strong and trustworthy anchor for our souls. It leads us through the curtain into God's inner sanctuary. <sup>20</sup>Jesus has already gone in there for us. He has become our eternal High Priest in the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7

Melchizedek Is Greater Than Abraham

<sup>1</sup> This Melchizedek was king of the city of Salem and also a priest of God Most High. When Abraham was returning home after winning a great battle against the kings, Melchizedek met him and blessed him. <sup>2</sup>Then Abraham took a tenth of all he had captured in battle and gave it to Melchizedek. The name Melchizedek means “king of justice,” and king of Salem means “king of peace.” <sup>3</sup>There is no record of his father or mother or any of his ancestors—no beginning or end to his life. He remains a priest forever, resembling the Son of God.

<sup>4</sup> Consider then how great this Melchizedek was. Even Abraham, the great patriarch of Israel, recognized this by giving him a tenth of what he had taken in battle. <sup>5</sup>Now the law of Moses required that the priests, who are descendants of Levi, must collect a tithe from the rest of the people of Israel,* who are also descendants of Abraham. <sup>6</sup>But Melchizedek, who was not a descendant of Levi, collected a tenth from Abraham. And Melchizedek placed a blessing upon Abraham, the one who had already received the promises of God. <sup>7</sup>And without question, the person who has the power to give a blessing is greater than the one who is blessed.

<sup>8</sup>The priests who collect tithes are men who die, so Melchizedek is greater than they are, because we are told that he lives on. <sup>9</sup>In addition, we might even say that these Levites

—the ones who collect the tithe—paid a tithe to Melchizedek when their ancestor Abraham paid a tithe to him.<sup>10</sup> For although Levi wasn't born yet, the seed from which he came was in Abraham's body when Melchizedek collected the tithe from him.

11 So if the priesthood of Levi, on which the law was based, could have achieved the perfection God intended, why did God need to establish a different priesthood, with a priest in the order of Melchizedek instead of the order of Levi and Aaron?*

<sup>12</sup>And if the priesthood is changed, the law must also be changed to permit it. <sup>13</sup>For the priest we are talking about belongs to a different tribe, whose members have never served at the altar as priests. <sup>14</sup>What I mean is, our Lord came from the tribe of Judah, and Moses never mentioned priests coming from that tribe.

Jesus Is like Melchizedek

<sup>15</sup>This change has been made very clear since a different priest, who is like Melchizedek, has appeared. <sup>16</sup>Jesus became a priest, not by meeting the physical requirement of belonging to the tribe of Levi, but by the power of a life that cannot be destroyed. <sup>17</sup>And the psalmist pointed this out when he prophesied,

“You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.”*

<sup>18</sup>Yes, the old requirement about the priesthood was set aside because it was weak and useless. <sup>19</sup>For the law never made anything perfect. But now we have confidence in a better hope, through which we draw near to God.

<sup>20</sup> This new system was established with a solemn oath. Aaron's descendants became priests without such an oath, <sup>21</sup>but there was an oath regarding Jesus. For God said to him,

“The LORD has taken an oath and will not break his vow:

‘You are a priest forever.’”*  

<sup>22</sup>Because of this oath, Jesus is the one who guarantees this better covenant with God.

<sup>23</sup>There were many priests under the old system, for death prevented them from remaining in office. <sup>24</sup>But because Jesus lives forever, his priesthood lasts forever. <sup>25</sup>Therefore he is able, once and forever, to save*   those who come to God through him. He lives forever to intercede with God on their behalf.

<sup>26</sup>He is the kind of high priest we need because he is holy and blameless, unstained by sin. He has been set apart from sinners and has been given the highest place of honor in heaven.*  

<sup>27</sup>Unlike those other high priests, he does not need to offer sacrifices every day. They did this for their own sins first and then for the sins of the people. But Jesus did this once for all when he offered himself as the sacrifice for the people's sins.

<sup>28</sup>The law appointed high priests who were limited by human weakness. But after the law was given, God appointed his Son with an oath, and his Son has been made the perfect High Priest forever.

Hebrews 8

Christ Is Our High Priest

<sup>1</sup> Here is the main point: We have a High Priest who sat down in the place of honor beside the throne of the majestic God in heaven. <sup>2</sup>There he ministers in the heavenly Tabernacle, * the true place of worship that was built by the Lord and not by human hands.

<sup>3</sup>And since every high priest is required to offer gifts and sacrifices, our High Priest must make an offering, too. <sup>4</sup>If he were here on earth, he would not even be a priest, since there already are priests who offer the gifts required by the law. <sup>5</sup>They serve in a system of worship that is only a copy, a shadow of the real one in heaven. For when Moses was getting ready to build the Tabernacle, God gave him this warning: “Be sure that you make everything according to the pattern I have shown you here on the mountain.” *

<sup>6</sup>But now Jesus, our High Priest, has been given a ministry that is far superior to the old priesthood, for he is the one who mediates for us a far better covenant with God, based on better promises.

<sup>7</sup> If the first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no need for a second covenant to replace it. <sup>8</sup>But when God found fault with the people, he said:

“The day is coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and Judah.

<sup>9</sup>This covenant will not be like the one I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand and led them out of the land of Egypt.
They did not remain faithful to my covenant,
so I turned my back on them, says the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> But this is the new covenant I will make with the people of Israel on that day, * says the LORD:
I will put my laws in their minds, and I will write them on their hearts.
I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

<sup>11</sup> And they will not need to teach their neighbors, nor will they need to teach their relatives, * saying, ‘You should know the LORD.’
For everyone, from the least to the greatest, will know me already.

<sup>12</sup> And I will forgive their wickedness, and I will never again remember their sins.” *

<sup>13</sup> When God speaks of a “new” covenant, it means he has made the first one obsolete. It is now out of date and will soon disappear.

Hebrews 9

Old Rules about Worship

<sup>1</sup> That first covenant between God and Israel had regulations for worship and a place of worship here on earth. <sup>2</sup>There were two rooms in that Tabernacle.* In the first room were a lampstand, a table, and sacred loaves of bread on the table. This room was called the Holy Place. <sup>3</sup>Then there was a curtain, and behind the curtain was the second room* called the Most Holy Place. <sup>4</sup>In that room were a gold incense altar and a wooden chest called the Ark of the Covenant, which was covered with gold on all sides. Inside the Ark were a gold jar containing manna, Aaron's staff that sprouted leaves, and the stone tablets of the covenant. <sup>5</sup>Above the Ark were the cherubim of divine glory, whose wings stretched out over the Ark's cover, the place of atonement. But we cannot explain these things in detail now.

<sup>6</sup>When these things were all in place, the priests regularly entered the first room* as they performed their religious duties. <sup>7</sup>But only the high priest ever entered the Most Holy Place, and only once a year. And he always offered blood for his own sins and for the sins the people had committed in ignorance. <sup>8</sup>By these regulations the Holy Spirit revealed that the entrance to the Most Holy Place was not freely open as long as the Tabernacle* and the system it represented were still in use.

gifts and sacrifices that the priests offer are not able to cleanse the consciences of the people who bring them.<sup>10</sup> For that old system deals only with food and drink and various cleansing ceremonies—physical regulations that were in effect only until a better system could be established.

Christ Is the Perfect Sacrifice

<sup>11</sup> So Christ has now become the High Priest over all the good things that have come.* He has entered that greater, more perfect Tabernacle in heaven, which was not made by human hands and is not part of this created world.<sup>12</sup> With his own blood—not the blood of goats and calves—he entered the Most Holy Place once for all time and secured our redemption forever.

<sup>13</sup> Under the old system, the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a young cow could cleanse people's bodies from ceremonial impurity.<sup>14</sup> Just think how much more the blood of Christ will purify our consciences from sinful deeds* so that we can worship the living God. For by the power of the eternal Spirit, Christ offered himself to God as a perfect sacrifice for our sins.<sup>15</sup> That is why he is the one who mediates a new covenant between God and people, so that all who are called can receive the eternal inheritance God has promised them. For Christ died to set them free from the penalty of the sins they had committed under that first covenant.

<sup>16</sup> Now when someone leaves a will,* it is necessary to prove that the person who made it is dead.*<sup>17</sup> The will goes into effect only after the person's death. While the person who made it is still alive, the will cannot be put into effect.

<sup>18</sup>That is why even the first covenant was put into effect with the blood of an animal. <sup>19</sup>For after Moses had read each of God's commandments to all the people, he took the blood of calves and goats,* along with water, and sprinkled both the book of God's law and all the people, using hyssop branches and scarlet wool. <sup>20</sup>Then he said, "This blood confirms the covenant God has made with you."* <sup>21</sup>And in the same way, he sprinkled blood on the Tabernacle and on everything used for worship. <sup>22</sup>In fact, according to the law of Moses, nearly everything was purified with blood. For without the shedding of blood, there is no forgiveness.

<sup>23</sup>That is why the Tabernacle and everything in it, which were copies of things in heaven, had to be purified by the blood of animals. But the real things in heaven had to be purified with far better sacrifices than the blood of animals.

<sup>24</sup>For Christ did not enter into a holy place made with human hands, which was only a copy of the true one in heaven. He entered into heaven itself to appear now before God on our behalf. <sup>25</sup>And he did not enter heaven to offer himself again and again, like the high priest here on earth who enters the Most Holy Place year after year with the blood of an animal. <sup>26</sup>If that had been necessary, Christ would have had to die again and again, ever since the world began. But now, once for all time, he has appeared at the end of the age* to remove sin by his own death as a sacrifice.

<sup>27</sup>And just as each person is destined to die once and after that comes judgment, <sup>28</sup>so also Christ died once for all time as a sacrifice to take away the sins of many people. He will come again, not to deal with our sins, but to bring salvation to all who are eagerly waiting for him.

Hebrews 10

Christ's Sacrifice Once for All

<sup>1</sup>The old system under the law of Moses was only a shadow, a dim preview of the good things to come, not the good things themselves. The sacrifices under that system were repeated again and again, year after year, but they were never able to provide perfect cleansing for those who came to worship. <sup>2</sup>If they could have provided perfect cleansing, the sacrifices would have stopped, for the worshipers would have been purified once for all time, and their feelings of guilt would have disappeared.

<sup>3</sup>But instead, those sacrifices actually reminded them of their sins year after year. <sup>4</sup>For it is not possible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins. <sup>5</sup>That is why, when Christ * came into the world, he said to God,

“You did not want animal sacrifices or sin offerings.

But you have given me a body to offer.

<sup>6</sup>You were not pleased with burnt offerings or other offerings for sin.

<sup>7</sup>Then I said, ‘Look, I have come to do your will, O God—as is written about me in the Scriptures.’”*

<sup>8</sup>First, Christ said, “You did not want animal sacrifices or sin offerings or burnt offerings or other offerings for sin, nor were you pleased with them” (though they are required by the law of Moses). <sup>9</sup>Then he said, “Look, I have come to do your will.” He cancels the first covenant in order to put the second into effect. <sup>10</sup>For God’s will was for us to be made holy by the sacrifice of the body of Jesus Christ, once for all time.

<sup>11</sup>Under the old covenant, the priest stands and ministers before the altar day after day, offering the same sacrifices again and again, which can never take away sins. <sup>12</sup>But our High Priest offered himself to God as a single sacrifice for sins, good for all time. Then he sat down in the place of honor at God’s right hand. <sup>13</sup>There he waits until his enemies are humbled and made a footstool under his feet. <sup>14</sup>For by that one offering he forever made perfect those who are being made holy.

<sup>15</sup>And the Holy Spirit also testifies that this is so. For he says, <sup>16</sup>“This is the new covenant I will make with my people on that day, * says the LORD:

I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds.” *

<sup>17</sup>Then he says,

“I will never again remember their sins and lawless deeds.” *

<sup>18</sup>And when sins have been forgiven, there is no need to offer any more sacrifices.

A Call to Persevere

<sup>19</sup> And so, dear brothers and sisters, * we can boldly enter heaven's Most Holy Place because of the blood of Jesus. <sup>20</sup>By his death, * Jesus opened a new and life-giving way through the curtain into the Most Holy Place. <sup>21</sup>And since we have a great High Priest who rules over God's house, <sup>22</sup>let us go right into the presence of God with sincere hearts fully trusting him. For our guilty consciences have been sprinkled with Christ's blood to make us clean, and our bodies have been washed with pure water.

<sup>23</sup>Let us hold tightly without wavering to the hope we affirm, for God can be trusted to keep his promise. <sup>24</sup>Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works. <sup>25</sup>And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of his return is drawing near.

<sup>26</sup> Dear friends, if we deliberately continue sinning after we have received knowledge of the truth, there is no longer any sacrifice that will cover these sins. <sup>27</sup>There is only the terrible expectation of God's judgment and the raging fire that will consume his enemies. <sup>28</sup>For anyone who refused to obey the law of Moses was put to death without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. <sup>29</sup>Just think how much worse the punishment will be for those who have trampled on the Son of God, and have treated the blood of the covenant, which made us holy, as if it were common and unholy, and have insulted and disdained the Holy Spirit who brings God's mercy to us.

<sup>30</sup>For we know the one who said,
“I will take revenge.
I will pay them back.”*  

He also said,

“The LORD will judge his own people.”*  

<sup>31</sup>It is a terrible thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

<sup>32</sup>Think back on those early days when you first learned about Christ.* Remember how you remained faithful even though it meant terrible suffering.<sup>33</sup>Sometimes you were exposed to public ridicule and were beaten, and sometimes you helped others who were suffering the same things.<sup>34</sup>You suffered along with those who were thrown into jail, and when all you owned was taken from you, you accepted it with joy. You knew there were better things waiting for you that will last forever.

<sup>35</sup>So do not throw away this confident trust in the Lord. Remember the great reward it brings you! <sup>36</sup>Patient endurance is what you need now, so that you will continue to do God’s will. Then you will receive all that he has promised.

<sup>37</sup>“For in just a little while, the Coming One will come and not delay.

<sup>38</sup>And my righteous ones will live by faith.*  
But I will take no pleasure in anyone who turns away.”*

<sup>39</sup>But we are not like those who turn away from God to their own destruction. We are the faithful ones, whose souls will be saved.

Hebrews 11

Great Examples of Faith

<sup>1</sup> Faith is the confidence that what we hope for will actually happen; it gives us assurance about things we cannot see.

<sup>3</sup>By faith we understand that the entire universe was formed at God's command, that what we now see did not come from anything that can be seen.

<sup>4</sup>It was by faith that Abel brought a more acceptable offering to God than Cain did. Abel's offering gave evidence that he was a righteous man, and God showed his approval of his gifts. Although Abel is long dead, he still speaks to us by his example of faith.

<sup>5</sup>It was by faith that Enoch was taken up to heaven without dying—"he disappeared, because God took him." * For before he was taken up, he was known as a person who pleased God.

<sup>6</sup>And it is impossible to please God without faith. Anyone who wants to come to him must believe that God exists and that he rewards those who sincerely seek him.

<sup>7</sup>It was by faith that Noah built a large boat to save his family from the flood. He obeyed God, who warned him about things that had never happened before. By his faith Noah condemned the rest of the world, and he received the righteousness that comes by faith.

<sup>8</sup> It was by faith that Abraham obeyed when God called him to leave home and go to another land that God would give him as his inheritance. He went without knowing where he was going. <sup>9</sup>And even when he reached the land God promised him, he lived there by faith—for he was like a foreigner, living in tents. And so did Isaac and Jacob, who inherited the same promise. <sup>10</sup>Abraham was confidently looking forward to a city with eternal foundations, a city designed and built by God.

<sup>11</sup>It was by faith that even Sarah was able to have a child, though she was barren and was too old. She believed* that God would keep his promise. <sup>12</sup>And so a whole nation came from this one man who was as good as dead—a nation with so many people that, like the stars in the sky and the sand on the seashore, there is no way to count them.

<sup>13</sup>All these people died still believing what God had promised them. They did not receive what was promised, but they saw it all from a distance and welcomed it. They agreed that they were foreigners and nomads here on earth. <sup>14</sup>Obviously people who say such things are looking forward to a country they can call their own. <sup>15</sup>If they had longed for the country they came from, they could have gone back. <sup>16</sup>But they were looking for a better place, a heavenly homeland. That is why God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

<sup>17</sup>It was by faith that Abraham offered Isaac as a sacrifice when God was testing him. Abraham, who had received God's promises, was ready to sacrifice his only son, Isaac, <sup>18</sup>even though God had told him, "Isaac is the son through whom your descendants will be counted."* <sup>19</sup>Abraham reasoned that if Isaac died, God was able to bring him back to life again. And in a sense, Abraham did receive his son back from the dead.

<sup>20</sup>It was by faith that Isaac promised blessings for the future to his sons, Jacob and Esau.

<sup>21</sup>It was by faith that Jacob, when he was old and dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons and bowed in worship as he leaned on his staff.

<sup>22</sup>It was by faith that Joseph, when he was about to die, said confidently that the people of Israel would leave Egypt. He even commanded them to take his bones with them when they left.

<sup>23</sup>It was by faith that Moses' parents hid him for three months when he was born. They saw that God had given them an unusual child, and they were not afraid to disobey the king's command.

<sup>24</sup>It was by faith that Moses, when he grew up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter. <sup>25</sup>He chose to share the oppression of God's people instead of enjoying the fleeting pleasures of sin. <sup>26</sup>He thought it was better to suffer for the sake of Christ than to own the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking ahead to his great reward. <sup>27</sup>It was by faith that Moses left the land of Egypt, not fearing the king's anger. He kept right on going because he kept his eyes on the one who is invisible. <sup>28</sup>It was by faith that Moses commanded the people of Israel to keep the Passover and to sprinkle blood on the doorposts so that the angel of death would not kill their firstborn sons.

<sup>29</sup>It was by faith that the people of Israel went right through the Red Sea as though they were on dry ground. But when the Egyptians tried to follow, they were all drowned.

<sup>30</sup>It was by faith that the people of Israel marched around Jericho for seven days, and the walls came crashing down.

<sup>31</sup>It was by faith that Rahab the prostitute was not destroyed with the people in her city who refused to obey God. For she had given a friendly welcome to the spies.

But others were tortured, refusing to turn from God in order to be set free. They placed their hope in a better life after the resurrection. <sup>36</sup>Some were jeered at, and their backs were cut open with whips. Others were chained in prisons. <sup>37</sup>Some died by stoning, some were sawed in half* and others were killed with the sword. Some went about wearing skins of sheep and goats, destitute and oppressed and mistreated. <sup>38</sup>They were too good for this world, wandering over deserts and mountains, hiding in caves and holes in the ground.

<sup>39</sup>All these people earned a good reputation because of their faith, yet none of them received all that God had promised.

<sup>40</sup>For God had something better in mind for us, so that they would not reach perfection without us.

Hebrews 12

God's Discipline Proves His Love

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a huge crowd of witnesses to the life of faith, let us strip off every weight that slows us down, especially the sin that so easily trips us up. And let us run with endurance the race God has set before us.

<sup>2</sup> We do this by keeping our eyes on Jesus, the champion who initiates and perfects our faith.* Because of the joy* awaiting him, he endured the cross, disregarding its shame. Now he is seated in the place of honor beside God's throne. <sup>3</sup> Think of all the hostility he endured from sinful people;* then you won't become weary and give up. <sup>4</sup> After all, you have not yet given your lives in your struggle against sin.

<sup>5</sup> And have you forgotten the encouraging words God spoke to you as his children? He said, “My child,* don't make light of the LORD's discipline, and don't give up when he corrects you.

<sup>6</sup> For the LORD disciplines those he loves, and he punishes each one he accepts as his child.”*

<sup>7</sup> As you endure this divine discipline, remember that God is treating you as his own children. Who ever heard of a child who is never disciplined by its father? <sup>8</sup> If God doesn't discipline you as he does all of his children, it means that you are illegitimate and are not really his children at all. <sup>9</sup>Since we respected our earthly fathers who disciplined us, shouldn't we submit even more to the discipline of the Father of our spirits, and live forever?*

<sup>10</sup>For our earthly fathers disciplined us for a few years, doing the best they knew how. But God's discipline is always good for us, so that we might share in his holiness. <sup>11</sup>No discipline is enjoyable while it is happening—it's painful! But afterward there will be a peaceful harvest of right living for those who are trained in this way.

<sup>12</sup>So take a new grip with your tired hands and strengthen your weak knees. <sup>13</sup>Mark out a straight path for your feet so that those who are weak and lame will not fall but become strong.

A Call to Listen to God

<sup>14</sup> Work at living in peace with everyone, and work at living a holy life, for those who are not holy will not see the Lord. <sup>15</sup> Look after each other so that none of you fails to receive the grace of God. Watch out that no poisonous root of bitterness grows up to trouble you, corrupting many. <sup>16</sup>Make sure that no one is immoral or godless like Esau, who traded his birthright as the firstborn son for a single meal. <sup>17</sup>You know that afterward, when he wanted his father's blessing, he was rejected. It was too late for repentance, even though he begged with bitter tears.

<sup>18</sup>You have not come to a physical mountain,* to a place of flaming fire, darkness, gloom, and whirlwind, as the Israelites did at Mount Sinai. <sup>19</sup>For they heard an awesome trumpet blast and a voice so terrible that they begged God to stop speaking. <sup>20</sup>They staggered back under God's command: "If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned to death."* <sup>21</sup>Moses himself was so frightened at the sight that he said, "I am terrified and trembling."*

<sup>22</sup>No, you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to countless thousands of angels in a joyful gathering. <sup>23</sup>You have come to the assembly of God's firstborn children, whose names are written in heaven. You have come to God himself, who is the judge over all things. You have come to the spirits of the righteous ones in heaven who have now been made perfect. <sup>24</sup>You have come to Jesus, the one who mediates the new covenant between God and people, and to the sprinkled blood, which speaks of forgiveness instead of crying out for vengeance like the blood of Abel.

<sup>25</sup>Be careful that you do not refuse to listen to the One who is speaking. For if the people of Israel did not escape when they refused to listen to Moses, the earthly messenger, we will certainly not escape if we reject the One who speaks to us from heaven! <sup>26</sup>When God spoke from Mount Sinai his voice shook the earth, but now he makes another promise: "Once again I will shake not only the earth but the heavens also."* <sup>27</sup>This means that all of creation will be shaken and removed, so that only unshakable things will remain.

<sup>28</sup>Since we are receiving a Kingdom that is unshakable, let us be thankful and please God by worshiping him with holy fear and awe.<sup>29</sup>For our God is a devouring fire.

Hebrews 13

Concluding Words

<sup>1</sup> Keep on loving each other as brothers and sisters. <sup>2</sup> Don't forget to show hospitality to strangers, for some who have done this have entertained angels without realizing it! <sup>3</sup> Remember those in prison, as if you were there yourself. Remember also those being mistreated, as if you felt their pain in your own bodies.

<sup>4</sup> Give honor to marriage, and remain faithful to one another in marriage. God will surely judge people who are immoral and those who commit adultery.

<sup>5</sup> Don't love money; be satisfied with what you have. For God has said,

“I will never fail you.
I will never abandon you.”*

<sup>6</sup> So we can say with confidence,

“The LORD is my helper,
so I will have no fear.
What can mere people do to me?”*

<sup>7</sup> Remember your leaders who taught you the word of God. Think of all the good that has come from their lives, and follow the example of their faith.

<sup>8</sup> Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. <sup>9</sup>So do not be attracted by strange, new ideas. Your strength comes from God's grace, not from rules about food, which don't help those who follow them.

<sup>10</sup>We have an altar from which the priests in the Tabernacle* have no right to eat. <sup>11</sup>Under the old system, the high priest brought the blood of animals into the Holy Place as a sacrifice for sin, and the bodies of the animals were burned outside the camp. <sup>12</sup>So also Jesus suffered and died outside the city gates to make his people holy by means of his own blood. <sup>13</sup>So let us go out to him, outside the camp, and bear the disgrace he bore. <sup>14</sup>For this world is not our permanent home; we are looking forward to a home yet to come.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore, let us offer through Jesus a continual sacrifice of praise to God, proclaiming our allegiance to his name. <sup>16</sup>And don't forget to do good and to share with those in need. These are the sacrifices that please God.

<sup>17</sup>Obey your spiritual leaders, and do what they say. Their work is to watch over your souls, and they are accountable to God. Give them reason to do this with joy and not with sorrow. That would certainly not be for your benefit.

<sup>18</sup>Pray for us, for our conscience is clear and we want to live honorably in everything we do. <sup>19</sup>And especially pray that I will be able to come back to you soon.

<sup>20</sup> Now may the God of peace—who brought up from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great Shepherd of the sheep, and ratified an eternal covenant with his blood—

<sup>21</sup>may he equip you with all you need for doing his will.

May he produce in you,* through the power of Jesus Christ, every good thing that is pleasing to him.
All glory to him forever and ever! Amen.

<sup>22</sup>I urge you, dear brothers and sisters,* to pay attention to what I have written in this brief exhortation.

<sup>23</sup>I want you to know that our brother Timothy has been released from jail. If he comes here soon, I will bring him with me to see you.

<sup>24</sup>Greet all your leaders and all the believers there.* The believers from Italy send you their greetings.

<sup>25</sup>May God's grace be with you all.

WORTH MEMORIZING

1:2-3

Dear brothers and sisters, when troubles come your way, consider it an opportunity for great joy. For you know that when your faith is tested, your endurance has a chance to grow.

1:17

Whatever is good and perfect comes down to us from God our Father, who created all the lights in the heavens. He never changes or casts a shifting shadow.

2:17

Faith by itself isn't enough. Unless it produces good deeds, it is dead and useless.

3:17

The wisdom from above is first of all pure. It is also peace loving, gentle at all times, and willing to yield to others. It is full of mercy and good deeds. It shows no favoritism and is always sincere.

5:16

Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

ORGANIZATION AND PLANNING.

James 4:13-16 is good advice for business planners—or any other planners, for that matter. It's easy to think we're really in charge, assuming that we can determine what will happen. James reminds us that God is sovereign. We must be humble enough to admit that our plans will come true only if God allows it.

Greetings from James

<sup>1</sup>This letter is from James, a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I am writing to the “twelve tribes”—Jewish believers scattered abroad.

Greetings!

Faith and Endurance

<sup>2</sup> Dear brothers and sisters, * when troubles come your way, consider it an opportunity for great joy. <sup>3</sup>For you know that when your faith is tested, your endurance has a chance to grow. <sup>4</sup>So let it grow, for when your endurance is fully developed, you will be perfect and complete, needing nothing.

PERSPECTIVES

When troubles come your way, consider it an opportunity for great joy. For you know that when your faith is tested, your endurance has a chance to grow. So let it grow, for when your endurance is fully developed, you will be perfect and complete, needing nothing.

JAMES 1:2-4

God may allow His servant to succeed when He has disciplined him to a point where he does not need to succeed to be happy. The man who is elated by success and is cast down by failure is still a carnal man. At best his fruit will have a worm in it.

A. W. TOZER (1897–1963), CANADIAN PASTOR AND AUTHOR

<sup>5</sup>If you need wisdom, ask our generous God, and he will give it to you. He will not rebuke you for asking. <sup>6</sup>But when you ask him, be sure that your faith is in God alone. Do not waver, for a person with divided loyalty is as unsettled as a wave of the sea that is blown and tossed by the wind. <sup>7</sup>Such people should not expect to receive anything from the Lord. <sup>8</sup>Their loyalty is divided between God and the world, and they are unstable in everything they do.

<sup>9</sup>Believers who are *poor have something to boast about, for God has honored them. <sup>10</sup>And those who are rich should boast that God has humbled them. They will fade away like a little flower in the field. <sup>11</sup>The hot sun rises and the grass withers; the little flower droops and falls, and its beauty fades away. In the same way, the rich will fade away with all of their achievements.

<sup>12</sup>God blesses those who patiently endure testing and temptation. Afterward they will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love him. <sup>13</sup>And remember, when you are being tempted, do not say, “God is tempting me.” God is never tempted to do wrong,* and he never tempts anyone else. <sup>14</sup>Temptation comes from our own desires, which entice us and drag us away. <sup>15</sup>These desires give birth to sinful actions. And when sin is allowed to grow, it gives birth to death.

<sup>16</sup>So don’t be misled, my dear brothers and sisters. <sup>17</sup>Whatever is good and perfect comes down to us from God our Father, who created all the lights in the heavens.* He never changes or casts a shifting shadow.* <sup>18</sup>He chose to give birth to us by giving us his true word. And we, out of all creation, became his prized possession.*

Listening and Doing

<sup>19</sup>Understand this, my dear brothers and sisters: You must all be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry. <sup>20</sup>Human anger* does not produce the righteousness* God desires. <sup>21</sup>So get rid of all the filth and evil in your lives, and humbly accept the word God has planted in your hearts, for it has the power to save your souls.

<sup>26</sup>If you claim to be religious but don't control your tongue, you are fooling yourself, and your religion is worthless. <sup>27</sup>Pure and genuine religion in the sight of God the Father means caring for orphans and widows in their distress and refusing to let the world corrupt you.

James 2

A Warning against Prejudice

<sup>1</sup> My dear brothers and sisters,* how can you claim to have faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ if you favor some people over others?

<sup>2</sup>For example, suppose someone comes into your meeting* dressed in fancy clothes and expensive jewelry, and another comes in who is poor and dressed in dirty clothes. <sup>3</sup>If you give special attention and a good seat to the rich person, but you say to the poor one, “You can stand over there, or else sit on the floor”—well, <sup>4</sup>doesn’t this discrimination show that your judgments are guided by evil motives?

<sup>5</sup>Listen to me, dear brothers and sisters. Hasn’t God chosen the poor in this world to be rich in faith? Aren’t they the ones who will inherit the Kingdom he promised to those who love him? <sup>6</sup>But you dishonor the poor! Isn’t it the rich who oppress you and drag you into court? <sup>7</sup>Aren’t they the ones who slander Jesus Christ, whose noble name* you bear?

<sup>8</sup>Yes indeed, it is good when you obey the royal law as found in the Scriptures: “Love your neighbor as yourself.”* <sup>9</sup>But if you favor some people over others, you are committing a sin. You are guilty of breaking the law.

<sup>10</sup>For the person who keeps all of the laws except one is as guilty as a person who has broken all of God’s laws. <sup>11</sup>For the same God who said, “You must not commit adultery,” also said,

“You must not murder.”* So if you murder someone but do not commit adultery, you have still broken the law.

<sup>12</sup>So whatever you say or whatever you do, remember that you will be judged by the law that sets you free. <sup>13</sup>There will be no mercy for those who have not shown mercy to others. But if you have been merciful, God will be merciful when he judges you.

Faith without Good Deeds Is Dead

<sup>14</sup> What good is it, dear brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but don’t show it by your actions? Can that kind of faith save anyone? <sup>15</sup>Suppose you see a brother or sister who has no food or clothing, <sup>16</sup>and you say, “Good-bye and have a good day; stay warm and eat well”—but then you don’t give that person any food or clothing. What good does that do?

<sup>17</sup>So you see, faith by itself isn’t enough. Unless it produces good deeds, it is dead and useless.

<sup>18</sup>Now someone may argue, “Some people have faith; others have good deeds.” But I say, “How can you show me your faith if you don’t have good deeds? I will show you my faith by my good deeds.”

<sup>19</sup>You say you have faith, for you believe that there is one God.* Good for you! Even the demons believe this, and they tremble in terror. <sup>20</sup>How foolish! Can’t you see that faith without good deeds is useless?

together. His actions made his faith complete.<sup>23</sup> And so it happened just as the Scriptures say: “Abraham believed God, and God counted him as righteous because of his faith.”* He was even called the friend of God.*<sup>24</sup> So you see, we are shown to be right with God by what we do, not by faith alone.

<sup>26</sup>Just as the body is dead without breath,* so also faith is dead without good works.

James 3

Controlling the Tongue

<sup>1</sup> Dear brothers and sisters, * not many of you should become teachers in the church, for we who teach will be judged more strictly. <sup>2</sup> Indeed, we all make many mistakes. For if we could control our tongues, we would be perfect and could also control ourselves in every other way.

But a tiny spark can set a great forest on fire. <sup>6</sup> And the tongue is a flame of fire. It is a whole world of wickedness, corrupting your entire body. It can set your whole life on fire, for it is set on fire by hell itself. *

<sup>7</sup> People can tame all kinds of animals, birds, reptiles, and fish, <sup>8</sup> but no one can tame the tongue. It is restless and evil, full of deadly poison. <sup>9</sup> Sometimes it praises our Lord and Father, and sometimes it curses those who have been made in the image of God. <sup>10</sup> And so blessing and cursing come pouring out of the same mouth. Surely, my brothers and sisters, this is not right! <sup>11</sup> Does a spring of water bubble out with both fresh water and bitter water? <sup>12</sup> Does a fig tree produce olives, or a grapevine produce figs? No, and you can't draw fresh water from a salty spring.*

True Wisdom Comes from God

<sup>13</sup>If you are wise and understand God's ways, prove it by living an honorable life, doing good works with the humility that comes from wisdom. <sup>14</sup>But if you are bitterly jealous and there is selfish ambition in your heart, don't cover up the truth with boasting and lying. <sup>15</sup>For jealousy and selfishness are not God's kind of wisdom. Such things are earthly, unspiritual, and demonic. <sup>16</sup>For wherever there is jealousy and selfish ambition, there you will find disorder and evil of every kind.

<sup>17</sup>But the wisdom from above is first of all pure. It is also peace loving, gentle at all times, and willing to yield to others. It is full of mercy and good deeds. It shows no favoritism and is always sincere. <sup>18</sup>And those who are peacemakers will plant seeds of peace and reap a harvest of righteousness.*

James 4

Drawing Close to God

<sup>1</sup> What is causing the quarrels and fights among you? Don't they come from the evil desires at war within you? <sup>2</sup>You want what you don't have, so you scheme and kill to get it. You are jealous of what others have, but you can't get it, so you fight and wage war to take it away from them. Yet you don't have what you want because you don't ask God for it. <sup>3</sup>And even when you ask, you don't get it because your motives are all wrong—you want only what will give you pleasure.

<sup>4</sup>You adulterers! * Don't you realize that friendship with the world makes you an enemy of God? I say it again: If you want to be a friend of the world, you make yourself an enemy of God. <sup>5</sup>What do you think the Scriptures mean when they say that the spirit God has placed within us is filled with envy? * <sup>6</sup> But he gives us even more grace to stand against such evil desires. As the Scriptures say,

“God opposes the proud but favors the humble.” *

James, the Lord's Brother

<sup>7</sup>So humble yourselves before God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. <sup>8</sup>Come close to God, and God will come close to you. Wash your hands, you sinners; purify your hearts, for your loyalty is divided between God and the world. <sup>9</sup>Let there be tears for what you have done. Let there be sorrow and deep grief. Let there be sadness instead of laughter, and gloom instead of joy. <sup>10</sup>Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up in honor.

Warning against Judging Others

<sup>11</sup> Don't speak evil against each other, dear brothers and sisters.* If you criticize and judge each other, then you are criticizing and judging God's law. But your job is to obey the law, not to judge whether it applies to you. <sup>12</sup>God alone, who gave the law, is the Judge. He alone has the power to save or to destroy. So what right do you have to judge your neighbor?

Warning about Self-Confidence

<sup>13</sup>Look here, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we are going to a certain town and will stay there a year. We will do business there and make a profit.” <sup>14</sup>How do you know what your life will be like tomorrow? Your life is like the morning fog—it’s here a little while, then it’s gone. <sup>15</sup>What you ought to say is, “If the Lord wants us to, we will live and do this or that.” <sup>16</sup>Otherwise you are boasting about your own plans, and all such boasting is evil.

<sup>17</sup>Remember, it is sin to know what you ought to do and then not do it.

James 5

Warning to the Rich

<sup>1</sup> Look here, you rich people: Weep and groan with anguish because of all the terrible troubles ahead of you. <sup>2</sup>Your wealth is rotting away, and your fine clothes are moth-eaten rags. <sup>3</sup>Your gold and silver have become worthless. The very wealth you were counting on will eat away your flesh like fire. This treasure you have accumulated will stand as evidence against you on the day of judgment. <sup>4</sup>For listen! Hear the cries of the field workers whom you have cheated of their pay. The wages you held back cry out against you. The cries of those who harvest your fields have reached the ears of the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>5</sup>You have spent your years on earth in luxury, satisfying your every desire. You have fattened yourselves for the day of slaughter. <sup>6</sup>You have condemned and killed innocent people,* who do not resist you.*

Patience and Endurance

<sup>7</sup> Dear brothers and sisters,* be patient as you wait for the Lord's return. Consider the farmers who patiently wait for the rains in the fall and in the spring. They eagerly look for the valuable harvest to ripen. <sup>8</sup>You, too, must be patient. Take courage, for the coming of the Lord is near.

<sup>9</sup>Don't grumble about each other, brothers and sisters, or you will be judged. For look—the Judge is standing at the door!

<sup>10</sup>For examples of patience in suffering, dear brothers and sisters, look at the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. <sup>11</sup>We give great honor to those who endure under suffering. For instance, you know about Job, a man of great endurance. You can see how the Lord was kind to him at the end, for the Lord is full of tenderness and mercy.

<sup>12</sup>But most of all, my brothers and sisters, never take an oath, by heaven or earth or anything else. Just say a simple yes or no, so that you will not sin and be condemned.

The Power of Prayer

<sup>13</sup>Are any of you suffering hardships? You should pray. Are any of you happy? You should sing praises. <sup>14</sup>Are any of you sick? You should call for the elders of the church to come and pray over you, anointing you with oil in the name of the Lord. <sup>15</sup>Such a prayer offered in faith will heal the sick, and the Lord will make you well. And if you have committed any sins, you will be forgiven.

<sup>16</sup>Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results. <sup>17</sup>Elijah was as human as we are, and yet when he prayed earnestly that no rain would fall, none fell for three and a half years! <sup>18</sup>Then, when he prayed again, the sky sent down rain and the earth began to yield its crops.

Restore Wandering Believers

<sup>19</sup>My dear brothers and sisters, if someone among you wanders away from the truth and is brought back, <sup>20</sup>you can be sure that whoever brings the sinner back will save that person from death and bring about the forgiveness of many sins.

WORTH MEMORIZING

2:11-12

Dear friends, I warn you as “temporary residents and foreigners” to keep away from worldly desires that wage war against your very souls. Be careful to live properly among your unbelieving neighbors. Then even if they accuse you of doing wrong, they will see your honorable behavior, and they will give honor to God when he judges the world.

3:15-16

You must worship Christ as Lord of your life. And if someone asks about your Christian hope, always be ready to explain it. But do this in a gentle and respectful way. Keep your conscience clear. Then if people speak against you, they will be ashamed when they see what a good life you live because you belong to Christ.

5:6-7

So humble yourselves under the mighty power of God, and at the right time he will lift you up in honor. Give all your worries and cares to God, for he cares about you.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

SUBMISSION.

Peter tells husbands to treat their wives with respect and understanding (3:7). If they don't, their prayers will be hindered. Also, elders are told to lead humbly, and young men are to submit to their leaders (5:1-5). In other words, the macho male who always has to be the boss is not our role model.

1 Peter 1

Greetings from Peter

I am writing to God's chosen people who are living as foreigners in the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia.* <sup>2</sup> God the Father knew you and chose you long ago, and his Spirit has made you holy. As a result, you have obeyed him and have been cleansed by the blood of Jesus Christ.

May God give you more and more grace and peace.

The Hope of Eternal Life

<sup>3</sup> All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. It is by his great mercy that we have been born again, because God raised Jesus Christ from the dead. Now we live with great expectation,<sup>4</sup> and we have a priceless inheritance—an inheritance that is kept in heaven for you, pure and undefiled, beyond the reach of change and decay.<sup>5</sup> And through your faith, God is protecting you by his power until you receive this salvation, which is ready to be revealed on the last day for all to see.

<sup>6</sup>So be truly glad.* There is wonderful joy ahead, even though you have to endure many trials for a little while.<sup>7</sup> These trials will show that your faith is genuine. It is being tested as fire tests and purifies gold—though your faith is far more precious than mere gold. So when your faith remains strong through many trials, it will bring you much praise and glory and honor on the day when Jesus Christ is revealed to the whole world.

<sup>8</sup>You love him even though you have never seen him. Though you do not see him now, you trust him; and you rejoice with a glorious, inexpressible joy.<sup>9</sup> The reward for trusting him will be the salvation of your souls.

PERSPECTIVES

You love him even though you have never seen him. Though you do not see him now, you trust him; and you rejoice with a glorious, inexpressible joy. The reward for trusting him will be the salvation of your souls.

1 PETER 1:8-9

A man can never be the same after hearing God's truth spoken in the power of God's Holy Spirit; he will either obey and go forward, or ignore and die a little.

<sup>10</sup> This salvation was something even the prophets wanted to know more about when they prophesied about this gracious salvation prepared for you. <sup>11</sup> They wondered what time or situation the Spirit of Christ within them was talking about when he told them in advance about Christ's suffering and his great glory afterward.

<sup>12</sup> They were told that their messages were not for themselves, but for you. And now this Good News has been announced to you by those who preached in the power of the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. It is all so wonderful that even the angels are eagerly watching these things happen.

A Call to Holy Living

<sup>13</sup> So think clearly and exercise self-control. Look forward to the gracious salvation that will come to you when Jesus Christ is revealed to the world. <sup>14</sup> So you must live as God's obedient children. Don't slip back into your old ways of living to satisfy your own desires. You didn't know any better then. <sup>15</sup> But now you must be holy in everything you do, just as God who chose you is holy. <sup>16</sup> For the Scriptures say, "You must be holy because I am holy."* has no favorites. He will judge or reward you according to what you do. So you must live in reverent fear of him during your time as “foreigners in the land.” <sup>18</sup>For you know that God paid a ransom to save you from the empty life you inherited from your ancestors. And the ransom he paid was not mere gold or silver. <sup>19</sup>It was the precious blood of Christ, the sinless, spotless Lamb of God. <sup>20</sup>God chose him as your ransom long before the world began, but he has now revealed him to you in these last days.

<sup>21</sup>Through Christ you have come to trust in God. And you have placed your faith and hope in God because he raised Christ from the dead and gave him great glory.

<sup>22</sup>You were cleansed from your sins when you obeyed the truth, so now you must show sincere love to each other as brothers and sisters. * Love each other deeply with all your heart. *

<sup>23</sup> For you have been born again, but not to a life that will quickly end. Your new life will last forever because it comes from the eternal, living word of God. <sup>24</sup>As the Scriptures say,

“People are like grass;
their beauty is like a flower in the field.
The grass withers and the flower fades.

<sup>25</sup>But the word of the Lord remains forever.” *

And that word is the Good News that was preached to you.

1 Peter 2

<sup>1</sup> So get rid of all evil behavior. Be done with all deceit, hypocrisy, jealousy, and all unkind speech. <sup>2</sup> Like newborn babies, you must crave pure spiritual milk so that you will grow into a full experience of salvation. Cry out for this nourishment, <sup>3</sup>now that you have had a taste of the Lord's kindness.

Living Stones for God's House

<sup>4</sup> You are coming to Christ, who is the living cornerstone of God's temple. He was rejected by people, but he was chosen by God for great honor.

<sup>5</sup>And you are living stones that God is building into his spiritual temple. What's more, you are his holy priests.*
Through the mediation of Jesus Christ, you offer spiritual sacrifices that please God. <sup>6</sup>As the Scriptures say,

"I am placing a cornerstone in Jerusalem,* chosen for great honor, and anyone who trusts in him
will never be disgraced."*

<sup>7</sup>Yes, you who trust him recognize the honor God has given him. But for those who reject him,

"The stone that the builders rejected has now become the cornerstone."*

<sup>8</sup>And,

“He is the stone that makes people stumble, the rock that makes them fall.”*  

They stumble because they do not obey God’s word, and so they meet the fate that was planned for them.

<sup>9</sup> But you are not like that, for you are a chosen people. You are royal priests,* a holy nation, God’s very own possession. As a result, you can show others the goodness of God, for he called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light.

<sup>10</sup>“Once you had no identity as a people;
now you are God’s people.
Once you received no mercy;
now you have received God’s mercy.”*  

<sup>11</sup> Dear friends, I warn you as “temporary residents and foreigners” to keep away from worldly desires that wage war against your very souls.<sup>12</sup> Be careful to live properly among your unbelieving neighbors. Then even if they accuse you of doing wrong, they will see your honorable behavior, and they will give honor to God when he judges the world.*  

Respecting People in Authority

<sup>13</sup>For the Lord’s sake, respect all human authority—whether the king as head of state,<sup>14</sup> or the officials he has appointed. For the king has sent them to punish those who do wrong and to honor those who do right.

<sup>15</sup> It is God's will that your honorable lives should silence those ignorant people who make foolish accusations against you. <sup>16</sup>For you are free, yet you are God's slaves, so don't use your freedom as an excuse to do evil. <sup>17</sup>Respect everyone, and love your Christian brothers and sisters.* Fear God, and respect the king.

Slaves

<sup>18</sup>You who are slaves must accept the authority of your masters with all respect.* Do what they tell you—not only if they are kind and reasonable, but even if they are cruel. <sup>19</sup>For God is pleased with you when you do what you know is right and patiently endure unfair treatment. <sup>20</sup>Of course, you get no credit for being patient if you are beaten for doing wrong. But if you suffer for doing good and endure it patiently, God is pleased with you.

<sup>21</sup> For God called you to do good, even if it means suffering, just as Christ suffered* for you. He is your example, and you must follow in his steps.

<sup>22</sup>He never sinned, nor ever deceived anyone.*

<sup>23</sup>He did not retaliate when he was insulted, nor threaten revenge when he suffered.
He left his case in the hands of God, who always judges fairly.

<sup>24</sup> He personally carried our sins in his body on the cross so that we can be dead to sin and live for what is right.

By his wounds
you are healed.

<sup>25</sup>Once you were like sheep who wandered away.

But now you have turned to your Shepherd, the Guardian of your souls.

1 Peter 3

Wives

<sup>1</sup>In the same way, you wives must accept the authority of your husbands. Then, even if some refuse to obey the Good News, your godly lives will speak to them without any words. They will be won over <sup>2</sup>by observing your pure and reverent lives.

<sup>3</sup>Don't be concerned about the outward beauty of fancy hairstyles, expensive jewelry, or beautiful clothes. <sup>4</sup>You should clothe yourselves instead with the beauty that comes from within, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is so precious to God. <sup>5</sup>This is how the holy women of old made themselves beautiful. They trusted God and accepted the authority of their husbands. <sup>6</sup>For instance, Sarah obeyed her husband, Abraham, and called him her master. You are her daughters when you do what is right without fear of what your husbands might do.

Husbands

<sup>7</sup>In the same way, you husbands must give honor to your wives. Treat your wife with understanding as you live together. She may be weaker than you are, but she is your equal partner in God's gift of new life. Treat her as you should so your prayers will not be hindered.

All Christians

<sup>8</sup> Finally, all of you should be of one mind. Sympathize with each other. Love each other as brothers and sisters. * Be tenderhearted, and keep a humble attitude. <sup>9</sup>Don't repay evil for evil. Don't retaliate with insults when people insult you. Instead, pay them back with a blessing. That is what God has called you to do, and he will bless you for it. <sup>10</sup>For the Scriptures say,

“If you want to enjoy life and see many happy days, keep your tongue from speaking evil and your lips from telling lies.

<sup>11</sup>Turn away from evil and do good.
Search for peace, and work to maintain it.

<sup>12</sup>The eyes of the Lord watch over those who do right, and his ears are open to their prayers.
But the Lord turns his face against those who do evil.”*

Suffering for Doing Good

<sup>13</sup> Now, who will want to harm you if you are eager to do good?

<sup>14</sup>But even if you suffer for doing what is right, God will reward you for it. So don't worry or be afraid of their threats. <sup>15</sup>Instead, you must worship Christ as Lord of your life. And if someone asks about your Christian hope, always be ready to explain it.

<sup>16</sup>But do this in a gentle and respectful way.* Keep your conscience clear. Then if people speak against you, they will be ashamed when they see what a good life you live because you belong to Christ. <sup>17</sup>Remember, it is better to suffer for doing good, if that is what God wants, than to suffer for doing wrong!

<sup>18</sup>Christ suffered* for our sins once for all time. He never sinned, but he died for sinners to bring you safely home to God. He suffered physical death, but he was raised to life in the Spirit.*

<sup>19</sup>So he went and preached to the spirits in prison—<sup>20</sup>those who disobeyed God long ago when God waited patiently while Noah was building his boat. Only eight people were saved from drowning in that terrible flood.* <sup>21</sup>And that water is a picture of baptism, which now saves you, not by removing dirt from your body, but as a response to God from* a clean conscience. It is effective because of the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

<sup>22</sup>Now Christ has gone to heaven. He is seated in the place of honor next to God, and all the angels and authorities and powers accept his authority.

1 Peter 4

Living for God

<sup>1</sup> So then, since Christ suffered physical pain, you must arm yourselves with the same attitude he had, and be ready to suffer, too. For if you have suffered physically for Christ, you have finished with sin.* <sup>2</sup>You won't spend the rest of your lives chasing your own desires, but you will be anxious to do the will of God. <sup>3</sup>You have had enough in the past of the evil things that godless people enjoy—their immorality and lust, their feasting and drunkenness and wild parties, and their terrible worship of idols.

<sup>4</sup>Of course, your former friends are surprised when you no longer plunge into the flood of wild and destructive things they do. So they slander you. <sup>5</sup>But remember that they will have to face God, who will judge everyone, both the living and the dead. <sup>6</sup>That is why the Good News was preached to those who are now dead*—so although they were destined to die like all people,* they now live forever with God in the Spirit.*

<sup>7</sup>The end of the world is coming soon. Therefore, be earnest and disciplined in your prayers. <sup>8</sup>Most important of all, continue to show deep love for each other, for love covers a multitude of sins. <sup>9</sup>Cheerfully share your home with those who need a meal or a place to stay.

<sup>10</sup> God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another. <sup>11</sup>Do you have the gift of speaking? Then speak as though God himself were speaking through you. Do you have the gift of helping others? Do it with all the strength and energy that God supplies. Then everything you do will bring glory to God through Jesus Christ. All glory and power to him forever and ever! Amen.

Suffering for Being a Christian

<sup>12</sup> Dear friends, don't be surprised at the fiery trials you are going through, as if something strange were happening to you. <sup>13</sup>Instead, be very glad—for these trials make you partners with Christ in his suffering, so that you will have the wonderful joy of seeing his glory when it is revealed to all the world.

<sup>14</sup> So be happy when you are insulted for being a Christian,* for then the glorious Spirit of God* rests upon you.* <sup>15</sup>If you suffer, however, it must not be for murder, stealing, making trouble, or prying into other people's affairs. <sup>16</sup>But it is no shame to suffer for being a Christian. Praise God for the privilege of being called by his name! <sup>17</sup>For the time has come for judgment, and it must begin with God's household. And if judgment begins with us, what terrible fate awaits those who have never obeyed God's Good News? <sup>18</sup>And also,

“If the righteous are barely saved, what will happen to godless sinners?”*<sub>—</sub>

<sup>19</sup> So if you are suffering in a manner that pleases God, keep on doing what is right, and trust your lives to the God who created you, for he will never fail you.

1 Peter 5

Advice for Elders and Young Men

<sup>1</sup> And now, a word to you who are elders in the churches. I, too, am an elder and a witness to the sufferings of Christ. And I, too, will share in his glory when he is revealed to the whole world. As a fellow elder, I appeal to you: <sup>2</sup>Care for the flock that God has entrusted to you. Watch over it willingly, not grudgingly—not for what you will get out of it, but because you are eager to serve God. <sup>3</sup>Don't lord it over the people assigned to your care, but lead them by your own good example. <sup>4</sup>And when the Great Shepherd appears, you will receive a crown of never-ending glory and honor.

<sup>5</sup>In the same way, you younger men must accept the authority of the elders. And all of you, serve each other in humility, for “God opposes the proud but favors the humble.”*

<sup>6</sup>So humble yourselves under the mighty power of God, and at the right time he will lift you up in honor. <sup>7</sup>Give all your worries and cares to God, for he cares about you.

<sup>8</sup> Stay alert! Watch out for your great enemy, the devil. He prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour. <sup>9</sup>Stand firm against him, and be strong in your faith.

Remember that your Christian brothers and sisters* all over the world are going through the same kind of suffering you are.

<sup>10</sup>In his kindness God called you to share in his eternal glory by means of Christ Jesus. So after you have suffered a little while, he will restore, support, and strengthen you, and he will place you on a firm foundation. <sup>11</sup>All power to him forever! Amen.

Peter's Final Greetings

<sup>12</sup>I have written and sent this short letter to you with the help of Silas,* whom I commend to you as a faithful brother. My purpose in writing is to encourage you and assure you that what you are experiencing is truly part of God's grace for you. Stand firm in this grace.

<sup>13</sup>Your sister church here in Babylon* sends you greetings, and so does my son Mark. <sup>14</sup>Greet each other with Christian love.*

Peace be with all of you who are in Christ.

1:5-7

Supplement your faith with a generous provision of moral excellence, and moral excellence with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with patient endurance, and patient endurance with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love for everyone.

1:20-21

Above all, you must realize that no prophecy in Scripture ever came from the prophet's own understanding, or from human initiative. No, those prophets were moved by the Holy Spirit, and they spoke from God.

3:8-9

You must not forget this one thing, dear friends: A day is like a thousand years to the Lord, and a thousand years is like a day. The Lord isn't really being slow about his promise, as some people think. No, he is being patient for your sake. He does not want anyone to be destroyed, but wants everyone to repent.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

FAITHFULNESS.

Peter mentions two Old Testament men—Noah and Lot—who were spared from the destruction around them because they were faithful to God (2:4-9). If these men were able to resist the pressure to conform, surely God can give us the strength to be faithful also.

Greetings from Peter

I am writing to you who share the same precious faith we have. This faith was given to you because of the justice and fairness* of Jesus Christ, our God and Savior.

<sup>2</sup> May God give you more and more grace and peace as you grow in your knowledge of God and Jesus our Lord.

Growing in Faith

<sup>3</sup> By his divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life. We have received all of this by coming to know him, the one who called us to himself by means of his marvelous glory and excellence.<sup>4</sup> And because of his glory and excellence, he has given us great and precious promises. These are the promises that enable you to share his divine nature and escape the world's corruption caused by human desires.

<sup>8</sup>The more you grow like this, the more productive and useful you will be in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>9</sup> But those who fail to develop in this way are shortsighted or blind, forgetting that they have been cleansed from their old sins.

<sup>10</sup>So, dear brothers and sisters,* work hard to prove that you really are among those God has called and chosen. Do these things, and you will never fall away. <sup>11</sup>Then God will give you a grand entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Paying Attention to Scripture

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, I will always remind you about these things—even though you already know them and are standing firm in the truth you have been taught. <sup>13</sup>And it is only right that I should keep on reminding you as long as I live.* <sup>14</sup>For our Lord Jesus Christ has shown me that I must soon leave this earthly life,* <sup>15</sup>so I will work hard to make sure you always remember these things after I am gone.

<sup>16</sup>For we were not making up clever stories when we told you about the powerful coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. We saw his majestic splendor with our own eyes <sup>17</sup>when he received honor and glory from God the Father. The voice from the majestic glory of God said to him, “This is my dearly loved Son, who brings me great joy.”*<sup>18</sup> We ourselves heard that voice from heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.

<sup>19</sup> Because of that experience, we have even greater confidence in the message proclaimed by the prophets. You must pay close attention to what they wrote, for their words are like a lamp shining in a dark place—until the Day dawns, and Christ the Morning Star shines* in your hearts.<sup>20</sup> Above all, you must realize that no prophecy in Scripture ever came from the prophet’s own understanding,*<sup>21</sup> or from human initiative. No, those prophets were moved by the Holy Spirit, and they spoke from God.

The Danger of False Teachers

<sup>1</sup> But there were also false prophets in Israel, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will cleverly teach destructive heresies and even deny the Master who bought them. In this way, they will bring sudden destruction on themselves. <sup>2</sup> Many will follow their evil teaching and shameful immorality. And because of these teachers, the way of truth will be slandered. <sup>3</sup> In their greed they will make up clever lies to get hold of your money. But God condemned them long ago, and their destruction will not be delayed.

<sup>4</sup> For God did not spare even the angels who sinned. He threw them into hell,* in gloomy pits of darkness,* where they are being held until the day of judgment. <sup>5</sup> And God did not spare the ancient world—except for Noah and the seven others in his family. Noah warned the world of God's righteous judgment. So God protected Noah when he destroyed the world of ungodly people with a vast flood. <sup>6</sup> Later, God condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah and turned them into heaps of ashes. He made them an example of what will happen to ungodly people. <sup>7</sup> But God also rescued Lot out of Sodom because he was a righteous man who was sick of the shameful immorality of the wicked people around him. <sup>8</sup> Yes, Lot was a righteous man who was tormented in his soul by the wickedness he saw and heard day after day. <sup>9</sup> So you see, the Lord knows how to rescue godly people from their trials, even while keeping the wicked under punishment until the day of final judgment. <sup>10</sup>He is especially hard on those who follow their own twisted sexual desire, and who despise authority.

These people are proud and arrogant, daring even to scoff at supernatural beings* without so much as trembling. <sup>11</sup>But the angels, who are far greater in power and strength, do not dare to bring from the Lord* a charge of blasphemy against those supernatural beings.

<sup>12</sup>These false teachers are like unthinking animals, creatures of instinct, born to be caught and destroyed. They scoff at things they do not understand, and like animals, they will be destroyed. <sup>13</sup>Their destruction is their reward for the harm they have done. They love to indulge in evil pleasures in broad daylight. They are a disgrace and a stain among you. They delight in deception* even as they eat with you in your fellowship meals. <sup>14</sup>They commit adultery with their eyes, and their desire for sin is never satisfied. They lure unstable people into sin, and they are well trained in greed. They live under God's curse. <sup>15</sup>They have wandered off the right road and followed the footsteps of Balaam son of Beor,* who loved to earn money by doing wrong. <sup>16</sup>But Balaam was stopped from his mad course when his donkey rebuked him with a human voice.

<sup>17</sup>These people are as useless as dried-up springs or as mist blown away by the wind. They are doomed to blackest darkness. <sup>18</sup>They brag about themselves with empty, foolish boasting. With an appeal to twisted sexual desires, they lure back into sin those who have barely escaped from a lifestyle of deception.<sup>19</sup> They promise freedom, but they themselves are slaves of sin and corruption. For you are a slave to whatever controls you.<sup>20</sup> And when people escape from the wickedness of the world by knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and then get tangled up and enslaved by sin again, they are worse off than before.<sup>21</sup> It would be better if they had never known the way to righteousness than to know it and then reject the command they were given to live a holy life.<sup>22</sup> They prove the truth of this proverb: “A dog returns to its vomit.”* And another says, “A washed pig returns to the mud.”

2 Peter 3

The Day of the Lord Is Coming

<sup>1</sup>This is my second letter to you, dear friends, and in both of them I have tried to stimulate your wholesome thinking and refresh your memory. <sup>2</sup>I want you to remember what the holy prophets said long ago and what our Lord and Savior commanded through your apostles.

<sup>3</sup>Most importantly, I want to remind you that in the last days scoffers will come, mocking the truth and following their own desires. <sup>4</sup>They will say, “What happened to the promise that Jesus is coming again? From before the times of our ancestors, everything has remained the same since the world was first created.”

<sup>5</sup>They deliberately forget that God made the heavens by the word of his command, and he brought the earth out from the water and surrounded it with water. <sup>6</sup>Then he used the water to destroy the ancient world with a mighty flood. <sup>7</sup>And by the same word, the present heavens and earth have been stored up for fire. They are being kept for the day of judgment, when ungodly people will be destroyed.

<sup>8</sup>But you must not forget this one thing, dear friends: A day is like a thousand years to the Lord, and a thousand years is like a day. <sup>9</sup>The Lord isn’t really being slow about his promise, as some people think. No, he is being patient for your sake. He does not want anyone to be destroyed, but wants everyone to repent. <sup>10</sup>But the day of the Lord will come as unexpectedly as a thief. Then the heavens will pass away with a terrible noise, and the very elements themselves will disappear in fire, and the earth and everything on it will be found to deserve judgment.*

<sup>11</sup>Since everything around us is going to be destroyed like this, what holy and godly lives you should live, <sup>12</sup>looking forward to the day of God and hurrying it along. On that day, he will set the heavens on fire, and the elements will melt away in the flames. <sup>13</sup>But we are looking forward to the new heavens and new earth he has promised, a world filled with God's righteousness.

<sup>14</sup>And so, dear friends, while you are waiting for these things to happen, make every effort to be found living peaceful lives that are pure and blameless in his sight.

What the Bible Says about

Shame

<sup>15</sup>And remember, our Lord's patience gives people time to be saved. This is what our beloved brother Paul also wrote to you with the wisdom God gave him—<sup>16</sup>speaking of these things in all of his letters. Some of his comments are hard to understand, and those who are ignorant and unstable have twisted his letters to mean something quite different, just as they do with other parts of Scripture. And this will result in their destruction.

Peter's Final Words

<sup>17</sup>I am warning you ahead of time, dear friends. Be on guard so that you will not be carried away by the errors of these wicked people and lose your own secure footing.<sup>18</sup> Rather, you must grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

All glory to him, both now and forever! Amen.

WORTH MEMORIZING

1:8-9

If we claim we have no sin, we are only fooling ourselves and not living in the truth. But if we confess our sins to him, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all wickedness.

3:16

We know what real love is because Jesus gave up his life for us. So we also ought to give up our lives for our brothers and sisters.

4:7-8

Dear friends, let us continue to love one another, for love comes from God. Anyone who loves is a child of God and knows God. But anyone who does not love does not know God, for God is love.

4:19

We love each other because he loved us first.

5:13-15

I have written this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know you have eternal life. And we are confident that he hears us whenever we ask for anything that pleases him. And since we know he hears us when we make our requests, we also know that he will give us what we ask for.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

STAY ON GUARD.

John identifies three types of sin we need to guard against: “a craving for physical pleasure, a craving for everything we see, and pride in our achievements and possessions ” (2:16). Take a look at magazines, commercials, and movies aimed at men, and you’ll find a deliberate appeal to one of these three temptations. John’s warning is as timely now as it was when he wrote it.

1 John 1

Introduction

<sup>1</sup>We proclaim to you the one who existed from the beginning, \* whom we have heard and seen. We saw him with our own eyes and touched him with our own hands. He is the Word of life.

<sup>2</sup>This one who is life itself was revealed to us, and we have seen him. And now we testify and proclaim to you that he is the one who is eternal life. He was with the Father, and then he was revealed to us. <sup>3</sup>We proclaim to you what we ourselves have actually seen and heard so that you may have fellowship with us. And our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>We are writing these things so that you may fully share our joy. \*

Living in the Light

§ This is the message we heard from Jesus \* and now declare to you: God is light, and there is no darkness in him at all. <sup>6</sup>So we are lying if we say we have fellowship with God but go on living in spiritual darkness; we are not practicing the truth.<sup>7</sup> But if we are living in the light, as God is in the light, then we have fellowship with each other, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, cleanses us from all sin.

<sup>8</sup> If we claim we have no sin, we are only fooling ourselves and not living in the truth.<sup>9</sup> But if we confess our sins to him, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all wickedness.<sup>10</sup> If we claim we have not sinned, we are calling God a liar and showing that his word has no place in our hearts.

1 John 2

<sup>1</sup> My dear children, I am writing this to you so that you will not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate who pleads our case before the Father. He is Jesus Christ, the one who is truly righteous. <sup>2</sup>He himself is the sacrifice that atones for our sins—and not only our sins but the sins of all the world.

<sup>3</sup> And we can be sure that we know him if we obey his commandments. <sup>4</sup>If someone claims, “I know God,” but doesn’t obey God’s commandments, that person is a liar and is not living in the truth. <sup>5</sup>But those who obey God’s word truly show how completely they love him. That is how we know we are living in him. <sup>6</sup>Those who say they live in God should live their lives as Jesus did.

A New Commandment

<sup>7</sup> Dear friends, I am not writing a new commandment for you; rather it is an old one you have had from the very beginning. This old commandment—to love one another—is the same message you heard before. <sup>8</sup>Yet it is also new. Jesus lived the truth of this commandment, and you also are living it. For the darkness is disappearing, and the true light is already shining.

<sup>9</sup>If anyone claims, “I am living in the light,” but hates a Christian brother or sister,* that person is still living in darkness. <sup>10</sup>Anyone who loves another brother or sister* is living in the light and does not cause others to stumble. <sup>11</sup>But anyone who hates another brother or sister is still living and walking in darkness. Such a person does not know the way to go, having been blinded by the darkness.

<sup>12</sup>I am writing to you who are God's children because your sins have been forgiven through Jesus.*

<sup>13</sup>I am writing to you who are mature in the faith*
because you know Christ, who existed from the beginning.
I am writing to you who are young in the faith because you have won your battle with the evil one.

<sup>14</sup>I have written to you who are God's children because you know the Father.
I have written to you who are mature in the faith
because you know Christ, who existed from the beginning.
I have written to you who are young in the faith because you are strong.
God's word lives in your hearts, and you have won your battle with the evil one.

Do Not Love This World

<sup>15</sup>Do not love this world nor the things it offers you, for when you love the world, you do not have the love of the Father in you. <sup>16</sup>For the world offers only a craving for physical pleasure, a craving for everything we see, and pride in our achievements and possessions. These are not from the Father, but are from this world. <sup>17</sup>And this world is fading away, along with everything that people crave. But anyone who does what pleases God will live forever.

Warning about Antichrists

<sup>18</sup> Dear children, the last hour is here. You have heard that the Antichrist is coming, and already many such antichrists have appeared. From this we know that the last hour has come. <sup>19</sup>These people left our churches, but they never really belonged with us; otherwise they would have stayed with us. When they left, it proved that they did not belong with us.

<sup>20</sup>But you are not like that, for the Holy One has given you his Spirit,* and all of you know the truth. <sup>21</sup>So I am writing to you not because you don't know the truth but because you know the difference between truth and lies. <sup>22</sup>And who is a liar? Anyone who says that Jesus is not the Christ.* Anyone who denies the Father and the Son is an antichrist.* <sup>23</sup>Anyone who denies the Son doesn't have the Father, either. But anyone who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

<sup>24</sup> So you must remain faithful to what you have been taught from the beginning. If you do, you will remain in fellowship with the Son and with the Father. <sup>25</sup>And in this fellowship we enjoy the eternal life he promised us.

<sup>26</sup>I am writing these things to warn you about those who want to lead you astray. <sup>27</sup>But you have received the Holy Spirit,* and he lives within you, so you don't need anyone to teach you what is true. For the Spirit* teaches you everything you need to know, and what he teaches is true—it is not a lie. So just as he has taught you, remain in fellowship with Christ.

Living as Children of God

<sup>28</sup> And now, dear children, remain in fellowship with Christ so that when he returns, you will be full of courage and not shrink back from him in shame.

<sup>29</sup>Since we know that Christ is righteous, we also know that all who do what is right are God's children.

1 John 3

<sup>1</sup>See how very much our Father loves us, for he calls us his children, and that is what we are! But the people who belong to this world don't recognize that we are God's children because they don't know him. <sup>2</sup>Dear friends, we are already God's children, but he has not yet shown us what we will be like when Christ appears. But we do know that we will be like him, for we will see him as he really is. <sup>3</sup>And all who have this eager expectation will keep themselves pure, just as he is pure.

<sup>4</sup> Everyone who sins is breaking God's law, for all sin is contrary to the law of God. <sup>5</sup>And you know that Jesus came to take away our sins, and there is no sin in him. <sup>6</sup>Anyone who continues to live in him will not sin. But anyone who keeps on sinning does not know him or understand who he is.

<sup>7</sup>Dear children, don't let anyone deceive you about this: When people do what is right, it shows that they are righteous, even as Christ is righteous. <sup>8</sup>But when people keep on sinning, it shows that they belong to the devil, who has been sinning since the beginning. But the Son of God came to destroy the works of the devil. <sup>9</sup>Those who have been born into God's family do not make a practice of sinning, because God's life* is in them. So they can't keep on sinning, because they are children of God. <sup>10</sup> So now we can tell who are children of God and who are children of the devil. Anyone who does not live righteously and does not love other believers* does not belong to God.

Love One Another

<sup>11</sup>This is the message you have heard from the beginning: We should love one another. <sup>12</sup>We must not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and killed his brother. And why did he kill him? Because Cain had been doing what was evil, and his brother had been doing what was righteous. <sup>13</sup>So don't be surprised, dear brothers and sisters, * if the world hates you.

<sup>14</sup>If we love our Christian brothers and sisters, * it proves that we have passed from death to life. But a person who has no love is still dead. <sup>15</sup>Anyone who hates another brother or sister * is really a murderer at heart. And you know that murderers don't have eternal life within them.

<sup>16</sup>We know what real love is because Jesus gave up his life for us. So we also ought to give up our lives for our brothers and sisters. <sup>17</sup>If someone has enough money to live well and sees a brother or sister * in need but shows no compassion—how can God's love be in that person?

<sup>18</sup>Dear children, let's not merely say that we love each other; let us show the truth by our actions. <sup>19</sup>Our actions will show that we belong to the truth, so we will be confident when we stand before God. <sup>20</sup>Even if we feel guilty, God is greater than our feelings, and he knows everything.

<sup>21</sup>Dear friends, if we don't feel guilty, we can come to God with bold confidence. <sup>22</sup>And we will receive from him whatever we ask because we obey him and do the things that please him.

<sup>23</sup>And this is his commandment: We must believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as he commanded us.<sup>24</sup> Those who obey God's commandments remain in fellowship with him, and he with them. And we know he lives in us because the Spirit he gave us lives in us.

1 John 4

Discerning False Prophets

<sup>1</sup> Dear friends, do not believe everyone who claims to speak by the Spirit. You must test them to see if the spirit they have comes from God. For there are many false prophets in the world. <sup>2</sup>This is how we know if they have the Spirit of God: If a person claiming to be a prophet* acknowledges that Jesus Christ came in a real body, that person has the Spirit of God. <sup>3</sup>But if someone claims to be a prophet and does not acknowledge the truth about Jesus, that person is not from God. Such a person has the spirit of the Antichrist, which you heard is coming into the world and indeed is already here.

Image

<sup>4</sup>But you belong to God, my dear children. You have already won a victory over those people, because the Spirit who lives in you is greater than the spirit who lives in the world. <sup>5</sup>Those people belong to this world, so they speak from the world's viewpoint, and the world listens to them. <sup>6</sup>But we belong to God, and those who know God listen to us. If they do not belong to God, they do not listen to us. That is how we know if someone has the Spirit of truth or the spirit of deception.

Loving One Another

<sup>7</sup> Dear friends, let us continue to love one another, for love comes from God. Anyone who loves is a child of God and knows God. <sup>8</sup>But anyone who does not love does not know God, for God is love.

<sup>9</sup>God showed how much he loved us by sending his one and only Son into the world so that we might have eternal life through him. <sup>10</sup>This is real love—not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins.

<sup>11</sup>Dear friends, since God loved us that much, we surely ought to love each other. <sup>12</sup>No one has ever seen God. But if we love each other, God lives in us, and his love is brought to full expression in us.

<sup>13</sup>And God has given us his Spirit as proof that we live in him and he in us. <sup>14</sup>Furthermore, we have seen with our own eyes and now testify that the Father sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. <sup>15</sup>All who confess that Jesus is the Son of God have God living in them, and they live in God. <sup>16</sup>We know how much God loves us, and we have put our trust in his love.

God is love, and all who live in love live in God, and God lives in them. <sup>17</sup>And as we live in God, our love grows more perfect. So we will not be afraid on the day of judgment, but we can face him with confidence because we live like Jesus here in this world.

<sup>18</sup>Such love has no fear, because perfect love expels all fear. If we are afraid, it is for fear of punishment, and this shows that we have not fully experienced his perfect love. <sup>19</sup>We love each other* because he loved us first.

<sup>20</sup>If someone says, “I love God,” but hates a Christian brother or sister,* that person is a liar; for if we don’t love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we cannot see? <sup>21</sup>And he has given us this command: Those who love God must also love their Christian brothers and sisters.*

Faith in the Son of God

<sup>1</sup>Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ* has become a child of God. And everyone who loves the Father loves his children, too. <sup>2</sup>We know we love God's children if we love God and obey his commandments. <sup>3</sup>Loving God means keeping his commandments, and his commandments are not burdensome. <sup>4</sup>For every child of God defeats this evil world, and we achieve this victory through our faith. <sup>5</sup>And who can win this battle against the world? Only those who believe that Jesus is the Son of God.

<sup>6</sup>And Jesus Christ was revealed as God's Son by his baptism in water and by shedding his blood on the cross*—not by water only, but by water and blood. And the Spirit, who is truth, confirms it with his testimony. <sup>7</sup>So we have these three witnesses*—<sup>8</sup>the Spirit, the water, and the blood—and all three agree. <sup>9</sup>Since we believe human testimony, surely we can believe the greater testimony that comes from God. And God has testified about his Son. <sup>10</sup>All who believe in the Son of God know in their hearts that this testimony is true. Those who don't believe this are actually calling God a liar because they don't believe what God has testified about his Son.

<sup>11</sup>And this is what God has testified: He has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. <sup>12</sup>Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have God's Son does not have life.

Conclusion

<sup>13</sup>I have written this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know you have eternal life. <sup>14</sup>And we are confident that he hears us whenever we ask for anything that pleases him. <sup>15</sup>And since we know he hears us when we make our requests, we also know that he will give us what we ask for.

<sup>16</sup>If you see a Christian brother or sister* sinning in a way that does not lead to death, you should pray, and God will give that person life. But there is a sin that leads to death, and I am not saying you should pray for those who commit it. <sup>17</sup>All wicked actions are sin, but not every sin leads to death.

<sup>18</sup>We know that God's children do not make a practice of sinning, for God's Son holds them securely, and the evil one cannot touch them. <sup>19</sup>We know that we are children of God and that the world around us is under the control of the evil one.

<sup>20</sup>And we know that the Son of God has come, and he has given us understanding so that we can know the true God.* And now we live in fellowship with the true God because we live in fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ. He is the only true God, and he is eternal life.

<sup>21</sup>Dear children, keep away from anything that might take God's place in your hearts.*

Greetings

I am writing to the chosen lady and to her children,* whom I love in the truth—as does everyone else who knows the truth—<sup>2</sup>because the truth lives in us and will be with us forever.

<sup>3</sup>Grace, mercy, and peace, which come from God the Father and from Jesus Christ—the Son of the Father—will continue to be with us who live in truth and love.

Live in the Truth

<sup>4</sup>How happy I was to meet some of your children and find them living according to the truth, just as the Father commanded.

<sup>5</sup>I am writing to remind you, dear friends,* that we should love one another. This is not a new commandment, but one we have had from the beginning. <sup>6</sup>Love means doing what God has commanded us, and he has commanded us to love one another, just as you heard from the beginning.

world. They deny that Jesus Christ came* in a real body. Such a person is a deceiver and an antichrist.<sup>8</sup> Watch out that you do not lose what we* have worked so hard to achieve. Be diligent so that you receive your full reward.<sup>9</sup> Anyone who wanders away from this teaching has no relationship with God. But anyone who remains in the teaching of Christ has a relationship with both the Father and the Son.

<sup>10</sup> If anyone comes to your meeting and does not teach the truth about Christ, don't invite that person into your home or give any kind of encouragement.<sup>11</sup> Anyone who encourages such people becomes a partner in their evil work.

Conclusion

<sup>12</sup> I have much more to say to you, but I don't want to do it with paper and ink. For I hope to visit you soon and talk with you face to face. Then our joy will be complete.

ROLE MODELS.

It matters whom we choose to look up to and emulate. John advises Gaius to follow the example of Demetrius—not Diotrephes. The truth is that we become like the people we admire.

3 John?

Be a gracious, yet discerning, host.

Greetings

I am writing to Gaius, my dear friend, whom I love in the truth.

<sup>2</sup>Dear friend, I hope all is well with you and that you are as healthy in body as you are strong in spirit. <sup>3</sup>Some of the traveling teachers* recently returned and made me very happy by telling me about your faithfulness and that you are living according to the truth. <sup>4</sup>I could have no greater joy than to hear that my children are following the truth.

Caring for the Lord's Workers

<sup>5</sup> Dear friend, you are being faithful to God when you care for the traveling teachers who pass through, even though they are strangers to you. <sup>6</sup>They have told the church here of your loving friendship. Please continue providing for such teachers in a manner that pleases God. <sup>7</sup>For they are traveling for the Lord,* and they accept nothing from people who are not believers.* <sup>8</sup>So we ourselves should support them so that we can be their partners as they teach the truth.

Diotrephes

<sup>9</sup> I wrote to the church about this, but Diotrephes, who loves to be the leader, refuses to have anything to do with us. <sup>10</sup> When I come, I will report some of the things he is doing and the evil accusations he is making against us. Not only does he refuse to welcome the traveling teachers, he also tells others not to help them. And when they do help, he puts them out of the church.

<sup>11</sup> Dear friend, don't let this bad example influence you. Follow only what is good. Remember that those who do good prove that they are God's children, and those who do evil prove that they do not know God.*

<sup>12</sup> Everyone speaks highly of Demetrius, as does the truth itself. We ourselves can say the same for him, and you know we speak the truth.

Conclusion

<sup>13</sup> I have much more to say to you, but I don't want to write it with pen and ink. <sup>14</sup> For I hope to see you soon, and then we will talk face to face.

<sup>15</sup>*Peace be with you.

Your friends here send you their greetings. Please give my personal greetings to each of our friends there.

WHAT'S THIS BOOK ABOUT?

Jude wrote to warn Christians—in blunt language—about false teachers who were already within the church.

WHO WROTE IT?

Jude, a brother of James and, therefore, a brother of Jesus.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

Not known; probably after A.D. 65.

WHERE DOES THIS BOOK FIT?

Sometime in the first century—it's hard to be more specific.

Holy faith

SCORECARD

JUDE: the writer

MICHAEL: the archangel

MOSES: Israel's deliverer

CAIN: oldest son of Adam and Eve, who murdered his brother

BALAAM: tricky prophet during the time of the Exodus

ENOCH: ancient patriarch whom God so appreciated he took him directly to heaven without dying.

WORTH MEMORIZING

1:20-21

You, dear friends, must build each other up in your most holy faith, pray in the power of the Holy Spirit, and await the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will bring you eternal life. In this way, you will keep yourselves safe in God's love.

THE MASCULINE PERSPECTIVE

DISCERNMENT.

There's a time for talk, and there's a time for action. God gave Jude the wisdom to know that the situation was critical. Still, while taking action, we need to show the Spirit of Christ in all things.

WHAT'S THE POINT OF Jude?

+ + +

Don't put up with sloppy teaching.

Greetings from Jude

I am writing to all who have been called by God the Father, who loves you and keeps you safe in the care of Jesus Christ.*

<sup>2</sup>May God give you more and more mercy, peace, and love.

The Danger of False Teachers

<sup>3</sup> Dear friends, I had been eagerly planning to write to you about the salvation we all share. But now I find that I must write about something else, urging you to defend the faith that God has entrusted once for all time to his holy people.<sup>4</sup>I say this because some ungodly people have wormed their way into your churches, saying that God's marvelous grace allows us to live immoral lives. The condemnation of such people was recorded long ago, for they have denied our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

<sup>5</sup>So I want to remind you, though you already know these things, that Jesus* first rescued the nation of Israel from Egypt, but later he destroyed those who did not remain faithful.<sup>6</sup> And I remind you of the angels who did not stay within the limits of authority God gave them but left the place where they belonged. God has kept them securely chained in prisons of darkness, waiting for the great day of judgment.<sup>7</sup> And don't forget Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighboring towns, which were filled with immorality and every kind of sexual perversion. Those cities were destroyed by fire and serve as a warning of the eternal fire of God's judgment.

<sup>8</sup>In the same way, these people—who claim authority from their dreams—live immoral lives, defy authority, and scoff at supernatural beings.*<sup>9</sup> But even Michael, one of the mightiest of the angels,* did not dare accuse the devil of blasphemy, but simply said, “The Lord rebuke you!” (This took place when Michael was arguing with the devil about Moses' body.)<sup>10</sup> But these people scoff at things they do not understand. Like unthinking animals, they do whatever their instincts tell them, and so they bring about their own destruction.<sup>11</sup> What sorrow awaits them! For they follow in the footsteps of Cain, who killed his brother. Like Balaam, they deceive people for money. And like Korah, they perish in their rebellion.

<sup>12</sup>When these people eat with you in your fellowship meals commemorating the Lord's love, they are like dangerous reefs that can shipwreck you.* They are like shameless shepherds who care only for themselves. They are like clouds blowing over the land without giving any rain. They are like trees in autumn that are doubly dead, for they bear no fruit and have been pulled up by the roots.<sup>13</sup> They are like wild waves of the sea, churning up the foam of their shameful deeds. They are like wandering stars, doomed forever to blackest darkness.

<sup>14</sup> Enoch, who lived in the seventh generation after Adam, prophesied about these people. He said, “Listen! The Lord is coming with countless thousands of his holy ones <sup>15</sup>to execute judgment on the people of the world. He will convict every person of all the ungodly things they have done and for all the insults that ungodly sinners have spoken against him.”*

<sup>16</sup>These people are grumblers and complainers, living only to satisfy their desires. They brag loudly about themselves, and they flatter others to get what they want.

A Call to Remain Faithful

<sup>17</sup> But you, my dear friends, must remember what the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ said. <sup>18</sup>They told you that in the last times there would be scoffers whose purpose in life is to satisfy their ungodly desires. <sup>19</sup>These people are the ones who are creating divisions among you. They follow their natural instincts because they do not have God’s Spirit in them.

<sup>20</sup>But you, dear friends, must build each other up in your most holy faith, pray in the power of the Holy Spirit,* <sup>21</sup>and await the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will bring you eternal life. In this way, you will keep yourselves safe in God’s love.

<sup>22</sup>And you must show mercy to* those whose faith is wavering. <sup>23</sup>Rescue others by snatching them from the flames of judgment. Show mercy to still others,* but do so with great caution, hating the sins that contaminate their lives.*

A Prayer of Praise

<sup>24</sup>Now all glory to God, who is able to keep you from falling away and will bring you with great joy into his glorious presence without a single fault. <sup>25</sup>All glory to him who alone is God, our Savior through Jesus Christ our Lord. All glory, majesty, power, and authority are his before all time, and in the present, and beyond all time! Amen.

DON'T MESS WITH GOD.

Talk about high action—this book is as vivid and violent as a science-fiction thriller. That's because it represents the battle of the ages: God vs. evil. His conquest is worth our greatest applause.

Revelation 1

Prologue

<sup>1</sup> This is a revelation from* Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants the events that must soon* take place. He sent an angel to present this revelation to his servant John,<sup>2</sup> who faithfully reported everything he saw. This is his report of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> God blesses the one who reads the words of this prophecy to the church, and he blesses all who listen to its message and obey what it says, for the time is near.

John's Greeting to the Seven Churches

<sup>4</sup> This letter is from John to the seven churches in the province of Asia.*

Grace and peace to you from the one who is, who always was, and who is still to come; from the sevenfold Spirit* before his throne; <sup>5</sup>and from Jesus Christ. He is the faithful witness to these things, the first to rise from the dead, and the ruler of all the kings of the world.

All glory to him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by shedding his blood for us. <sup>6</sup>He has made us a Kingdom of priests for God his Father. All glory and power to him forever and ever! Amen.

<sup>7</sup>Look! He comes with the clouds of heaven.

And everyone will see him—even those who pierced him.

And all the nations of the world will mourn for him.

Yes! Amen!

<sup>8</sup>“I am the Alpha and the Omega—the beginning and the end,” *says the Lord God. “I am the one who is, who always was, and who is still to come—the Almighty One.”

Vision of the Son of Man

<sup>9</sup>I, John, am your brother and your partner in suffering and in God’s Kingdom and in the patient endurance to which Jesus calls us. I was exiled to the island of Patmos for preaching the word of God and for my testimony about Jesus. <sup>10</sup>It was the Lord’s Day, and I was worshiping in the Spirit. *Suddenly, I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet blast. <sup>11</sup>It said, “Write in a book *everything you see, and send it to the seven churches in the cities of Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea.”

<sup>12</sup>When I turned to see who was speaking to me, I saw seven gold lampstands. <sup>13</sup>And standing in the middle of the lampstands was someone like the Son of Man.* He was wearing a long robe with a gold sash across his chest. <sup>14</sup>His head and his hair were white like wool, as white as snow. And his eyes were like flames of fire. <sup>15</sup>His feet were like polished bronze refined in a furnace, and his voice thundered like mighty ocean waves. <sup>16</sup>He held seven stars in his right hand, and a sharp two-edged sword came from his mouth. And his face was like the sun in all its brilliance.

<sup>17</sup>When I saw him, I fell at his feet as if I were dead. But he laid his right hand on me and said, “Don’t be afraid! I am the First and the Last. <sup>18</sup>I am the living one. I died, but look—I am alive forever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and the grave.*

<sup>19</sup>“Write down what you have seen—both the things that are now happening and the things that will happen.* <sup>20</sup>This is the meaning of the mystery of the seven stars you saw in my right hand and the seven gold lampstands: The seven stars are the angels* of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

Revelation 2

The Message to the Church in Ephesus

<sup>1</sup>“Write this letter to the angel* of the church in Ephesus. This is the message from the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand, the one who walks among the seven gold lampstands:

<sup>2</sup>“I know all the things you do. I have seen your hard work and your patient endurance. I know you don’t tolerate evil people. You have examined the claims of those who say they are apostles but are not. You have discovered they are liars. <sup>3</sup>You have patiently suffered for me without quitting.

<sup>4</sup>“But I have this complaint against you. You don’t love me or each other as you did at first! <sup>5</sup>Look how far you have fallen! Turn back to me and do the works you did at first. If you don’t repent, I will come and remove your lampstand from its place among the churches. <sup>6</sup>But this is in your favor: You hate the evil deeds of the Nicolaitans, just as I do.

<sup>7</sup>“Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches. To everyone who is victorious I will give fruit from the tree of life in the paradise of God.

The Message to the Church in Smyrna

<sup>8</sup>“Write this letter to the angel of the church in Smyrna. This is the message from the one who is the First and the Last, who was dead but is now alive:

<sup>9</sup>“I know about your suffering and your poverty—but you are rich! I know the blasphemy of those opposing you. They say they are Jews, but they are not, because their synagogue belongs to Satan. <sup>10</sup>Don’t be afraid of what you are about to suffer. The devil will throw some of you into prison to test you. You will suffer for ten days. But if you remain faithful even when facing death, I will give you the crown of life.

<sup>11</sup>“Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches. Whoever is victorious will not be harmed by the second death.

The Message to the Church in Pergamum

<sup>12</sup>“Write this letter to the angel of the church in Pergamum. This is the message from the one with the sharp two-edged sword:

<sup>13</sup>“I know that you live in the city where Satan has his throne, yet you have remained loyal to me. You refused to deny me even when Antipas, my faithful witness, was martyred among you there in Satan’s city.

<sup>14</sup>“But I have a few complaints against you. You tolerate some among you whose teaching is like that of Balaam, who showed Balak how to trip up the people of Israel. He taught them to sin by eating food offered to idols and by committing sexual sin. <sup>15</sup>In a similar way, you have some Nicolaitans among you who follow the same teaching. <sup>16</sup>Repent of your sin, or I will come to you suddenly and fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

<sup>17</sup>“Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches. To everyone who is victorious I will give some of the manna that has been hidden away in heaven. And I will give to each one a white stone, and on the stone will be engraved a new name that no one understands except the one who receives it.

The Message to the Church in Thyatira

<sup>18</sup>“Write this letter to the angel of the church in Thyatira. This is the message from the Son of God, whose eyes are like flames of fire, whose feet are like polished bronze:

<sup>19</sup>“I know all the things you do. I have seen your love, your faith, your service, and your patient endurance. And I can see your constant improvement in all these things.

<sup>20</sup>“But I have this complaint against you. You are permitting that woman—that Jezebel who calls herself a prophet—to lead my servants astray. She teaches them to commit sexual sin and to eat food offered to idols. <sup>21</sup>I gave her time to repent, but she does not want to turn away from her immorality.

<sup>22</sup>“Therefore, I will throw her on a bed of suffering,* and those who commit adultery with her will suffer greatly unless they repent and turn away from her evil deeds. <sup>23</sup>I will strike her children dead. Then all the churches will know that I am the one who searches out the thoughts and intentions of every person. And I will give to each of you whatever you deserve.

<sup>24</sup>“But I also have a message for the rest of you in Thyatira who have not followed this false teaching (‘deeper truths,’ as they call them—depths of Satan, actually). I will ask nothing more of you <sup>25</sup>except that you hold tightly to what you have until I come. <sup>26</sup>To all who are victorious, who obey me to the very end,

To them I will give authority over all the nations.

<sup>28</sup>They will have the same authority I received from my Father, and I will also give them the morning star!

<sup>29</sup>“Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches.

Revelation 3

The Message to the Church in Sardis

<sup>1</sup>“Write this letter to the angel* of the church in Sardis. This is the message from the one who has the sevenfold Spirit* of God and the seven stars:

“I know all the things you do, and that you have a reputation for being alive—but you are dead. <sup>2</sup>Wake up! Strengthen what little remains, for even what is left is almost dead. I find that your actions do not meet the requirements of my God. <sup>3</sup>Go back to what you heard and believed at first; hold to it firmly. Repent and turn to me again. If you don’t wake up, I will come to you suddenly, as unexpected as a thief.

<sup>4</sup>“Yet there are some in the church in Sardis who have not soiled their clothes with evil. They will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. <sup>5</sup>All who are victorious will be clothed in white. I will never erase their names from the Book of Life, but I will announce before my Father and his angels that they are mine.

<sup>6</sup>“Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches.

The Message to the Church in Philadelphia

<sup>7</sup>“Write this letter to the angel of the church in Philadelphia.

This is the message from the one who is holy and true, the one who has the key of David.
What he opens, no one can close;
and what he closes, no one can open:*

<sup>8</sup>“I know all the things you do, and I have opened a door for you that no one can close. You have little strength, yet you obeyed my word and did not deny me. <sup>9</sup>Look, I will force those who belong to Satan’s synagogue—those liars who say they are Jews but are not—to come and bow down at your feet. They will acknowledge that you are the ones I love.

<sup>10</sup>“Because you have obeyed my command to persevere, I will protect you from the great time of testing that will come upon the whole world to test those who belong to this world. <sup>11</sup>I am coming soon.* Hold on to what you have, so that no one will take away your crown. <sup>12</sup>All who are victorious will become pillars in the Temple of my God, and they will never have to leave it. And I will write on them the name of my God, and they will be citizens in the city of my God—the new Jerusalem that comes down from heaven from my God. And I will also write on them my new name.

<sup>13</sup>“Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches.

The Message to the Church in Laodicea

<sup>14</sup>“Write this letter to the angel of the church in Laodicea. This is the message from the one who is the Amen—the faithful and true witness, the beginning* of God’s new creation:

<sup>15</sup>“I know all the things you do, that you are neither hot nor cold. I wish that you were one or the other! <sup>16</sup>But since you are like lukewarm water, neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth! <sup>17</sup>You say, ‘I am rich. I have everything I want. I don’t need a thing!’ And you don’t realize that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked. <sup>18</sup>So I advise you to buy gold from me—gold that has been purified by fire. Then you will be rich. Also buy white garments from me so you will not be shamed by your nakedness, and ointment for your eyes so you will be able to see. <sup>19</sup>I correct and discipline everyone I love. So be diligent and turn from your indifference.

<sup>20</sup>“Look! I stand at the door and knock. If you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in, and we will share a meal together as friends. <sup>21</sup>Those who are victorious will sit with me on my throne, just as I was victorious and sat with my Father on his throne.

<sup>22</sup>“Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches.”

SEVEN CHURCHES

All seven of the churches addressed by John were within 120 miles of each other. The area is part of southwest Turkey today.

Revelation 4

Worship in Heaven

<sup>1</sup> Then as I looked, I saw a door standing open in heaven, and the same voice I had heard before spoke to me like a trumpet blast. The voice said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after this.” <sup>2</sup>And instantly I was in the Spirit,* and I saw a throne in heaven and someone sitting on it. <sup>3</sup>The one sitting on the throne was as brilliant as gemstones—like jasper and carnelian. And the glow of an emerald circled his throne like a rainbow. <sup>4</sup>Twenty-four thrones surrounded him, and twenty-four elders sat on them. They were all clothed in white and had gold crowns on their heads. <sup>5</sup>From the throne came flashes of lightning and the rumble of thunder. And in front of the throne were seven torches with burning flames. This is the sevenfold Spirit* of God. <sup>6</sup>In front of the throne was a shiny sea of glass, sparkling like crystal.

In the center and around the throne were four living beings, each covered with eyes, front and back. <sup>7</sup>The first of these living beings was like a lion; the second was like an ox; the third had a human face; and the fourth was like an eagle in flight. <sup>8</sup> Each of these living beings had six wings, and their wings were covered all over with eyes, inside and out. Day after day and night after night they keep on saying,

“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God, the Almighty—the one who always was, who is, and who is still to come.”

<sup>9</sup>Whenever the living beings give glory and honor and thanks to the one sitting on the throne (the one who lives forever and ever), <sup>10</sup>the twenty-four elders fall down and worship the one sitting on the throne (the one who lives forever and ever). And they lay their crowns before the throne and say,

<sup>11</sup>“You are worthy, O Lord our God, to receive glory and honor and power.
For you created all things, and they exist because you created what you pleased.”

Revelation 5

The Lamb Opens the Scroll

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw a scroll* in the right hand of the one who was sitting on the throne. There was writing on the inside and the outside of the scroll, and it was sealed with seven seals. <sup>2</sup> And I saw a strong angel, who shouted with a loud voice: “Who is worthy to break the seals on this scroll and open it?” <sup>3</sup> But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll and read it.

<sup>4</sup> Then I began to weep bitterly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll and read it. <sup>5</sup> But one of the twenty-four elders said to me, “Stop weeping! Look, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the heir to David’s throne,* has won the victory. He is worthy to open the scroll and its seven seals.”

<sup>6</sup> Then I saw a Lamb that looked as if it had been slaughtered, but it was now standing between the throne and the four living beings and among the twenty-four elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which represent the sevenfold Spirit* of God that is sent out into every part of the earth. <sup>7</sup> He stepped forward and took the scroll from the right hand of the one sitting on the throne. <sup>8</sup> And when he took the scroll, the four living beings and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp, and they held gold bowls filled with incense, which are the prayers of God’s people. <sup>9</sup> And they sang a new song with these words:

“You are worthy to take the scroll and break its seals and open it.
For you were slaughtered, and your blood has ransomed people for God
from every tribe and language and people and nation.
<sup>10</sup>And you have caused them to become a Kingdom of priests for our God.
And they will reign* on the earth.”

<sup>11</sup> Then I looked again, and I heard the voices of thousands and millions of angels around the throne and of the living beings and the elders. <sup>12</sup>And they sang in a mighty chorus:

“Worthy is the Lamb who was slaughtered—to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing.”

<sup>13</sup>And then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea. They sang:

“Blessing and honor and glory and power belong to the one sitting on the throne and to the Lamb forever and ever.”

<sup>14</sup>And the four living beings said, “Amen!” And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped the Lamb.

Revelation 6

The Lamb Breaks the First Six Seals

<sup>3</sup>When the Lamb broke the second seal, I heard the second living being say, “Come!” <sup>4</sup>Then another horse appeared, a red one. Its rider was given a mighty sword and the authority to take peace from the earth. And there was war and slaughter everywhere.

<sup>5</sup>When the Lamb broke the third seal, I heard the third living being say, “Come!” I looked up and saw a black horse, and its rider was holding a pair of scales in his hand. <sup>6</sup>And I heard a voice from among the four living beings say, “A loaf of wheat bread or three loaves of barley will cost a day’s pay.* And don’t waste* the olive oil and wine.”

<sup>7</sup>When the Lamb broke the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living being say, “Come!” <sup>8</sup>I looked up and saw a horse whose color was pale green. Its rider was named Death, and his companion was the Grave.* These two were given authority over one-fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword and famine and disease* and wild animals.

<sup>9</sup> When the Lamb broke the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of all who had been martyred for the word of God and for being faithful in their testimony. <sup>10</sup>They shouted to the Lord and said, “O Sovereign Lord, holy and true, how long before you judge the people who belong to this world and avenge our blood for what they have done to us?” <sup>11</sup>Then a white robe was given to each of them. And they were told to rest a little longer until the full number of their brothers and sisters*—their fellow servants of Jesus who were to be martyred—had joined them.

<sup>12</sup> I watched as the Lamb broke the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became as dark as black cloth, and the moon became as red as blood. <sup>13</sup>Then the stars of the sky fell to the earth like green figs falling from a tree shaken by a strong wind. <sup>14</sup>The sky was rolled up like a scroll, and all of the mountains and islands were moved from their places.

<sup>15</sup>Then everyone—the kings of the earth, the rulers, the generals, the wealthy, the powerful, and every slave and free person—all hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains. <sup>16</sup>And they cried to the mountains and the rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of the one who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb.” <sup>17</sup>For the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to survive?”

Revelation 7

God's People Will Be Preserved

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds so they did not blow on the earth or the sea, or even on any tree. <sup>2</sup>And I saw another angel coming up from the east, carrying the seal of the living God. And he shouted to those four angels, who had been given power to harm land and sea, <sup>3</sup>“Wait! Don’t harm the land or the sea or the trees until we have placed the seal of God on the foreheads of his servants.”

<sup>4</sup>And I heard how many were marked with the seal of God—144,000 were sealed from all the tribes of Israel:

<sup>5</sup> from Judah	12,000
from Reuben	12,000
from Gad	12,000
<sup>6</sup> from Asher	12,000 from Naphtali	12,000
from Manasseh	12,000
<sup>7</sup> from Simeon	12,000 from Levi	12,000
from Issachar	12,000
<sup>8</sup> from Zebulun	12,000

from Joseph	12,000
from Benjamin	12,000

Praise from the Great Crowd

<sup>9</sup> After this I saw a vast crowd, too great to count, from every nation and tribe and people and language, standing in front of the throne and before the Lamb. They were clothed in white robes and held palm branches in their hands. <sup>10</sup> And they were shouting with a great roar, “Salvation comes from our God who sits on the throne and from the Lamb!”

PERSPECTIVES

After this I saw a vast crowd, too great to count, from every nation and tribe and people and language, standing in front of the throne and before the Lamb. They were clothed in white robes and held palm branches in their hands. And they were shouting with a great roar, “Salvation comes from our God who sits on the throne and from the Lamb!”

REVELATION 7:9-10

If I had 300 men who feared nothing but God, hated nothing but sin, and were determined to know nothing among men but Jesus Christ and Him crucified, I would set the world on fire.

JOHN WESLEY (1703–1791), BRITISH EVANGELIST AND FOUNDER OF THE METHODIST MOVEMENT

<sup>11</sup>And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living beings. And they fell before the throne with their faces to the ground and worshiped God. <sup>12</sup>They sang, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and strength belong to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

<sup>13</sup>Then one of the twenty-four elders asked me, “Who are these who are clothed in white? Where did they come from?”

<sup>14</sup>And I said to him, “Sir, you are the one who knows.”

Then he said to me, “These are the ones who died in * the great tribulation. * They have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb and made them white.

15 “That is why they stand in front of God’s throne and serve him day and night in his Temple.
And he who sits on the throne will give them shelter.

<sup>16</sup>They will never again be hungry or thirsty; they will never be scorched by the heat of the sun.

<sup>17</sup>For the Lamb on the throne* will be their Shepherd.

He will lead them to springs of life-giving water.

And God will wipe every tear from their eyes.”

Revelation 8

The Lamb Breaks the Seventh Seal

<sup>1</sup> When the Lamb broke the seventh seal on the scroll,* there was silence throughout heaven for about half an hour. <sup>2</sup>I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and they were given seven trumpets.

<sup>3</sup>Then another angel with a gold incense burner came and stood at the altar. And a great amount of incense was given to him to mix with the prayers of God's people as an offering on the gold altar before the throne. <sup>4</sup>The smoke of the incense, mixed with the prayers of God's holy people, ascended up to God from the altar where the angel had poured them out. <sup>5</sup>Then the angel filled the incense burner with fire from the altar and threw it down upon the earth; and thunder crashed, lightning flashed, and there was a terrible earthquake.

The First Four Trumpets

<sup>6</sup> Then the seven angels with the seven trumpets prepared to blow their mighty blasts.

<sup>7</sup>The first angel blew his trumpet, and hail and fire mixed with blood were thrown down on the earth. One-third of the earth was set on fire, one-third of the trees were burned, and all the green grass was burned.

<sup>8</sup>Then the second angel blew his trumpet, and a great mountain of fire was thrown into the sea. One-third of the water in the sea became blood,<sup>9</sup> one-third of all things living in the sea died, and one-third of all the ships on the sea were destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>Then the third angel blew his trumpet, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch. It fell on one-third of the rivers and on the springs of water. <sup>11</sup>The name of the star was Bitterness.* It made one-third of the water bitter, and many people died from drinking the bitter water.

<sup>12</sup>Then the fourth angel blew his trumpet, and one-third of the sun was struck, and one-third of the moon, and one-third of the stars, and they became dark. And one-third of the day was dark, and also one-third of the night.

<sup>13</sup>Then I looked, and I heard a single eagle crying loudly as it flew through the air, "Terror, terror, terror to all who belong to this world because of what will happen when the last three angels blow their trumpets."

Revelation 9

The Fifth Trumpet Brings the First Terror

<sup>1</sup> Then the fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen to earth from the sky, and he was given the key to the shaft of the bottomless pit.* <sup>2</sup>When he opened it, smoke poured out as though from a huge furnace, and the sunlight and air turned dark from the smoke.

<sup>3</sup>Then locusts came from the smoke and descended on the earth, and they were given power to sting like scorpions. <sup>4</sup>They were told not to harm the grass or plants or trees, but only the people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>They were told not to kill them but to torture them for five months with pain like the pain of a scorpion sting. <sup>6</sup>In those days people will seek death but will not find it. They will long to die, but death will flee from them!

<sup>12</sup> The first terror is past, but look, two more terrors are coming!

The Sixth Trumpet Brings the Second Terror

<sup>13</sup>Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice speaking from the four horns of the gold altar that stands in the presence of God. <sup>14</sup>And the voice said to the sixth angel who held the trumpet, “Release the four angels who are bound at the great Euphrates River.” <sup>15</sup>Then the four angels who had been prepared for this hour and day and month and year were turned loose to kill one-third of all the people on earth. <sup>16</sup>I heard the size of their army, which was 200 million mounted troops.

<sup>17</sup>And in my vision, I saw the horses and the riders sitting on them. The riders wore armor that was fiery red and dark blue and yellow. The horses had heads like lions, and fire and smoke and burning sulfur billowed from their mouths. <sup>18</sup>One-third of all the people on earth were killed by these three plagues—by the fire and smoke and burning sulfur that came from the mouths of the horses. <sup>19</sup>Their power was in their mouths and in their tails. For their tails had heads like snakes, with the power to injure people.

<sup>20</sup>But the people who did not die in these plagues still refused to repent of their evil deeds and turn to God. They continued to worship demons and idols made of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood—idols that can neither see nor hear nor walk!

<sup>21</sup>And they did not repent of their murders or their witchcraft or their sexual immorality or their thefts.

Revelation 10

The Angel and the Small Scroll

<sup>4</sup>When the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write. But I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Keep secret* what the seven thunders said, and do not write it down.”

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand toward heaven. <sup>6</sup>He swore an oath in the name of the one who lives forever and ever, who created the heavens and everything in them, the earth and everything in it, and the sea and everything in it. He said, “There will be no more delay. <sup>7</sup>When the seventh angel blows his trumpet, God’s mysterious plan will be fulfilled. It will happen just as he announced it to his servants the prophets.”

<sup>8</sup> Then the voice from heaven spoke to me again: “Go and take the open scroll from the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.”

<sup>9</sup>So I went to the angel and told him to give me the small scroll. “Yes, take it and eat it,” he said. “It will be sweet as honey in your mouth, but it will turn sour in your stomach!”

<sup>10</sup>So I took the small scroll from the hand of the angel, and I ate it! It was sweet in my mouth, but when I swallowed it, it turned sour in my stomach.

Revelation 11

The Two Witnesses

<sup>1</sup> Then I was given a measuring stick, and I was told, “Go and measure the Temple of God and the altar, and count the number of worshipers. <sup>2</sup>But do not measure the outer courtyard, for it has been turned over to the nations. They will trample the holy city for 42 months. <sup>3</sup>And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will be clothed in burlap and will prophesy during those 1,260 days.”

<sup>7</sup>When they complete their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the bottomless pit* will declare war against them, and he will conquer them and kill them. <sup>8</sup>And their bodies will lie in the main street of Jerusalem,* the city that is figuratively called “Sodom” and “Egypt,” the city where their Lord was crucified. <sup>9</sup>And for three and a half days, all peoples, tribes, languages, and nations will stare at their bodies. No one will be allowed to bury them. <sup>10</sup>All the people who belong to this world will gloat over them and give presents to each other to celebrate the death of the two prophets who had tormented them.

<sup>11</sup>But after three and a half days, God breathed life into them, and they stood up! Terror struck all who were staring at them.

<sup>12</sup>Then a loud voice from heaven called to the two prophets, “Come up here!” And they rose to heaven in a cloud as their enemies watched.

<sup>13</sup>At the same time there was a terrible earthquake that destroyed a tenth of the city. Seven thousand people died in that earthquake, and everyone else was terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

<sup>14</sup>The second terror is past, but look, the third terror is coming quickly.

The Seventh Trumpet Brings the Third Terror

<sup>15</sup> Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices shouting in heaven:

“The world has now become the Kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ,* and he will reign forever and ever.”

<sup>16</sup>The twenty-four elders sitting on their thrones before God fell with their faces to the ground and worshiped him. <sup>17</sup>And they said,

“We give thanks to you, Lord God, the Almighty, the one who is and who always was,

for now you have assumed your great power and have begun to reign.

<sup>18</sup>The nations were filled with wrath, but now the time of your wrath has come.

It is time to judge the dead and reward your servants the prophets, as well as your holy people,
and all who fear your name,
from the least to the greatest.

It is time to destroy all who have caused destruction on the earth.”

<sup>19</sup>Then, in heaven, the Temple of God was opened and the Ark of his covenant could be seen inside the Temple. Lightning flashed, thunder crashed and roared, and there was an earthquake and a terrible hailstorm.

Revelation 12

The Woman and the Dragon

<sup>1</sup> Then I witnessed in heaven an event of great significance. I saw a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon beneath her feet, and a crown of twelve stars on her head.<sup>2</sup> She was pregnant, and she cried out because of her labor pains and the agony of giving birth.

<sup>3</sup> Then I witnessed in heaven another significant event. I saw a large red dragon with seven heads and ten horns, with seven crowns on his heads.<sup>4</sup> His tail swept away one-third of the stars in the sky, and he threw them to the earth. He stood in front of the woman as she was about to give birth, ready to devour her baby as soon as it was born.

<sup>5</sup> She gave birth to a son who was to rule all nations with an iron rod. And her child was snatched away from the dragon and was caught up to God and to his throne.<sup>6</sup> And the woman fled into the wilderness, where God had prepared a place to care for her for 1,260 days.

<sup>7</sup> Then there was war in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon and his angels.<sup>8</sup> And the dragon lost the battle, and he and his angels were forced out of heaven.<sup>9</sup> This great dragon—the ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, the one deceiving the whole world—was thrown down to the earth with all his angels.

<sup>10</sup> Then I heard a loud voice shouting across the heavens,

“It has come at last—salvation and power
and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ.*
For the accuser of our brothers and sisters* has been thrown down to earth—the one who accuses them before our God day and night.

<sup>11</sup>And they have defeated him by the blood of the Lamb and by their testimony.
And they did not love their lives so much that they were afraid to die.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, rejoice, O heavens!
And you who live in the heavens, rejoice!
But terror will come on the earth and the sea, for the devil has come down to you in great anger, knowing that he has little time.”

<sup>13</sup>When the dragon realized that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child. <sup>14</sup>But she was given two wings like those of a great eagle so she could fly to the place prepared for her in the wilderness. There she would be cared for and protected from the dragon* for a time, times, and half a time.

<sup>15</sup>Then the dragon tried to drown the woman with a flood of water that flowed from his mouth. <sup>16</sup>But the earth helped her by opening its mouth and swallowing the river that gushed out from the mouth of the dragon. <sup>17</sup>And the dragon was angry at the woman and declared war against the rest of her children—all who keep God's commandments and maintain their testimony for Jesus.

Revelation 13

The Beast out of the Sea

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw a beast rising up out of the sea. It had seven heads and ten horns, with ten crowns on its horns. And written on each head were names that blasphemed God. <sup>2</sup>This beast looked like a leopard, but it had the feet of a bear and the mouth of a lion! And the dragon gave the beast his own power and throne and great authority.

<sup>3</sup>I saw that one of the heads of the beast seemed wounded beyond recovery—but the fatal wound was healed! The whole world marveled at this miracle and gave allegiance to the beast. <sup>4</sup>They worshiped the dragon for giving the beast such power, and they also worshiped the beast. “Who is as great as the beast?” they exclaimed. “Who is able to fight against him?”

<sup>5</sup>Then the beast was allowed to speak great blasphemies against God. And he was given authority to do whatever he wanted for forty-two months. <sup>6</sup>And he spoke terrible words of blasphemy against God, slandering his name and his dwelling—that is, those who dwell in heaven.* <sup>7</sup>And the beast was allowed to wage war against God’s holy people and to conquer them. And he was given authority to rule over every tribe and people and language and nation. <sup>8</sup>And all the people who belong to this world worshiped the beast. They are the ones whose names were not written in the Book of Life before the world was made—the Book that belongs to the Lamb who was slaughtered.*

<sup>9</sup>Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand.

<sup>10</sup>Anyone who is destined for prison will be taken to prison.
Anyone destined to die by the sword will die by the sword.

This means that God's holy people must endure persecution patiently and remain faithful.

The Beast out of the Earth

<sup>11</sup>Then I saw another beast come up out of the earth. He had two horns like those of a lamb, but he spoke with the voice of a dragon. <sup>12</sup>He exercised all the authority of the first beast. And he required all the earth and its people to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound had been healed. <sup>13</sup>He did astounding miracles, even making fire flash down to earth from the sky while everyone was watching. <sup>14</sup>And with all the miracles he was allowed to perform on behalf of the first beast, he deceived all the people who belong to this world. He ordered the people to make a great statue of the first beast, who was fatally wounded and then came back to life. <sup>15</sup>He was then permitted to give life to this statue so that it could speak. Then the statue of the beast commanded that anyone refusing to worship it must die.

and slave—to be given a mark on the right hand or on the forehead. <sup>17</sup>And no one could buy or sell anything without that mark, which was either the name of the beast or the number representing his name. <sup>18</sup>Wisdom is needed here. Let the one with understanding solve the meaning of the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. * His number is 666. *

Revelation 14

The Lamb and the 144,000

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him were 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads. <sup>2</sup>And I heard a sound from heaven like the roar of mighty ocean waves or the rolling of loud thunder. It was like the sound of many harpists playing together.

<sup>3</sup>This great choir sang a wonderful new song in front of the throne of God and before the four living beings and the twenty-four elders. No one could learn this song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. <sup>4</sup>They have kept themselves as pure as virgins,* following the Lamb wherever he goes. They have been purchased from among the people on the earth as a special offering* to God and to the Lamb. <sup>5</sup>They have told no lies; they are without blame.

The Three Angels

<sup>6</sup>And I saw another angel flying through the sky, carrying the eternal Good News to proclaim to the people who belong to this world—to every nation, tribe, language, and people. <sup>7</sup>“Fear God,” he shouted. “Give glory to him. For the time has come when he will sit as judge. Worship him who made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and all the springs of water.”

<sup>8</sup>Then another angel followed him through the sky, shouting, “Babylon is fallen—that great city is fallen—because she made all the nations of the world drink the wine of her passionate immorality.”

<sup>9</sup>Then a third angel followed them, shouting, “Anyone who worships the beast and his statue or who accepts his mark on the forehead or on the hand <sup>10</sup>must drink the wine of God’s anger. It has been poured full strength into God’s cup of wrath. And they will be tormented with fire and burning sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and the Lamb. <sup>11</sup>The smoke of their torment will rise forever and ever, and they will have no relief day or night, for they have worshiped the beast and his statue and have accepted the mark of his name.”

<sup>13</sup>And I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Write this down: Blessed are those who die in the Lord from now on. Yes, says the Spirit, they are blessed indeed, for they will rest from their hard work; for their good deeds follow them!”

The Harvest of the Earth

<sup>14</sup>Then I saw a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was someone like the Son of Man.* He had a gold crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand.

<sup>15</sup>Then another angel came from the Temple and shouted to the one sitting on the cloud, “Swing the sickle, for the time of harvest has come; the crop on earth is ripe.” <sup>16</sup>So the one sitting on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the whole earth was harvested.

<sup>17</sup>After that, another angel came from the Temple in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle. <sup>18</sup>Then another angel, who had power to destroy with fire, came from the altar. He shouted to the angel with the sharp sickle, “Swing your sickle now to gather the clusters of grapes from the vines of the earth, for they are ripe for judgment.” <sup>19</sup>So the angel swung his sickle over the earth and loaded the grapes into the great winepress of God’s wrath. <sup>20</sup>The grapes were trampled in the winepress outside the city, and blood flowed from the winepress in a stream about 180 miles* long and as high as a horse’s bridle.

Revelation 15

The Song of Moses and of the Lamb

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw in heaven another marvelous event of great significance. Seven angels were holding the seven last plagues, which would bring God's wrath to completion. <sup>2</sup>I saw before me what seemed to be a glass sea mixed with fire. And on it stood all the people who had been victorious over the beast and his statue and the number representing his name. They were all holding harps that God had given them. <sup>3</sup>And they were singing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb:

“Great and marvelous are your works,
O Lord God, the Almighty.
Just and true are your ways,
O King of the nations.*
<sup>4</sup>Who will not fear you, Lord, and glorify your name?
For you alone are holy.
All nations will come and worship before you, for your righteous deeds have been revealed.”

The Seven Bowls of the Seven Plagues

<sup>5</sup>Then I looked and saw that the Temple in heaven, God's Tabernacle, was thrown wide open. <sup>6</sup>The seven angels who were holding the seven plagues came out of the Temple. They were clothed in spotless white linen* with gold sashes across their chests. <sup>7</sup>Then one of the four living beings handed each of the seven angels a gold bowl filled with the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. <sup>8</sup>The Temple was filled with smoke from God's glory and power. No one could enter the Temple until the seven angels had completed pouring out the seven plagues.

Revelation 16

<sup>1</sup>Then I heard a mighty voice from the Temple say to the seven angels, “Go your ways and pour out on the earth the seven bowls containing God’s wrath.”

<sup>3</sup>Then the second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it became like the blood of a corpse. And everything in the sea died.

<sup>4</sup>Then the third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs, and they became blood. <sup>5</sup>And I heard the angel who had authority over all water saying,

“You are just, O Holy One, who is and who always was, because you have sent these judgments.

<sup>6</sup>Since they shed the blood of your holy people and your prophets, you have given them blood to drink. It is their just reward.”

<sup>7</sup>And I heard a voice from the altar * saying,

“Yes, O Lord God, the Almighty, your judgments are true and just.”

<sup>8</sup>Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, causing it to scorch everyone with its fire.<sup>9</sup> Everyone was burned by this blast of heat, and they cursed the name of God, who had control over all these plagues. They did not repent of their sins and turn to God and give him glory.

<sup>10</sup>Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was plunged into darkness. His subjects ground their teeth in anguish,<sup>11</sup> and they cursed the God of heaven for their pains and sores. But they did not repent of their evil deeds and turn to God.

<sup>12</sup>Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great Euphrates River, and it dried up so that the kings from the east could march their armies toward the west without hindrance.

<sup>13</sup>And I saw three evil* spirits that looked like frogs leap from the mouths of the dragon, the beast, and the false prophet.

<sup>14</sup>They are demonic spirits who work miracles and go out to all the rulers of the world to gather them for battle against the Lord on that great judgment day of God the Almighty.

<sup>15</sup>“Look, I will come as unexpectedly as a thief! Blessed are all who are watching for me, who keep their clothing ready so they will not have to walk around naked and ashamed.”

<sup>17</sup>Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air. And a mighty shout came from the throne in the Temple, saying, “It is finished!”<sup>18</sup> Then the thunder crashed and rolled, and lightning flashed. And a great earthquake struck—the worst since people were placed on the earth. <sup>19</sup>The great city of Babylon split into three sections, and the cities of many nations fell into heaps of rubble. So God remembered all of Babylon's sins, and he made her drink the cup that was filled with the wine of his fierce wrath. <sup>20</sup>And every island disappeared, and all the mountains were leveled. <sup>21</sup>There was a terrible hailstorm, and hailstones weighing as much as seventy-five pounds* fell from the sky onto the people below. They cursed God because of the terrible plague of the hailstorm.

Revelation 17

The Great Prostitute

<sup>1</sup>One of the seven angels who had poured out the seven bowls came over and spoke to me. “Come with me,” he said, “and I will show you the judgment that is going to come on the great prostitute, who rules over many waters. <sup>2</sup>The kings of the world have committed adultery with her, and the people who belong to this world have been made drunk by the wine of her immorality.”

<sup>3</sup>So the angel took me in the Spirit* into the wilderness. There I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that had seven heads and ten horns, and blasphemies against God were written all over it. <sup>4</sup>The woman wore purple and scarlet clothing and beautiful jewelry made of gold and precious gems and pearls. In her hand she held a gold goblet full of obscenities and the impurities of her immorality. <sup>5</sup>A mysterious name was written on her forehead: “Babylon the Great, Mother of All Prostitutes and Obscenities in the World.” <sup>6</sup>I could see that she was drunk—drunk with the blood of God’s holy people who were witnesses for Jesus. I stared at her in complete amazement.

<sup>7</sup>“Why are you so amazed?” the angel asked. “I will tell you the mystery of this woman and of the beast with seven heads and ten horns on which she sits. <sup>8</sup>The beast you saw was once alive but isn’t now. And yet he will soon come up out of the bottomless pit* and go to eternal destruction. And the people who belong to this world, whose names were not written in the Book of Life before the world was made, will be amazed at the reappearance of this beast who had died.

<sup>9</sup>“This calls for a mind with understanding: The seven heads of the beast represent the seven hills where the woman rules. They also represent seven kings. <sup>10</sup>Five kings have already fallen, the sixth now reigns, and the seventh is yet to come, but his reign will be brief.

<sup>11</sup>“The scarlet beast that was, but is no longer, is the eighth king. He is like the other seven, and he, too, is headed for destruction. <sup>12</sup>The ten horns of the beast are ten kings who have not yet risen to power. They will be appointed to their kingdoms for one brief moment to reign with the beast. <sup>13</sup>They will all agree to give him their power and authority. <sup>14</sup>Together they will go to war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will defeat them because he is Lord of all lords and King of all kings. And his called and chosen and faithful ones will be with him.”

<sup>15</sup>Then the angel said to me, “The waters where the prostitute is ruling represent masses of people of every nation and language. <sup>16</sup>The scarlet beast and his ten horns all hate the prostitute. They will strip her naked, eat her flesh, and burn her remains with fire. <sup>17</sup>For God has put a plan into their minds, a plan that will carry out his purposes. They will agree to give their authority to the scarlet beast, and so the words of God will be fulfilled. <sup>18</sup>And this woman you saw in your vision represents the great city that rules over the kings of the world.”

Revelation 18

The Fall of Babylon

<sup>1</sup>After all this I saw another angel come down from heaven with great authority, and the earth grew bright with his splendor.

<sup>2</sup>He gave a mighty shout:

“Babylon is fallen—that great city is fallen!
She has become a home for demons.
She is a hideout for every foul* spirit,
a hideout for every foul vulture and every foul and dreadful animal.*

<sup>3</sup>For all the nations have fallen* because of the wine of her passionate immorality.
The kings of the world have committed adultery with her.
Because of her desires for extravagant luxury,
the merchants of the world have grown rich.”

<sup>4</sup>Then I heard another voice calling from heaven, “Come away from her, my people.

Do not take part in her sins, or you will be punished with her.

<sup>5</sup>For her sins are piled as high as heaven, and God remembers her evil deeds.

<sup>6</sup>Do to her as she has done to others.

Double her penalty* for all her evil deeds.
She brewed a cup of terror for others,
so brew twice as much* for her.

<sup>7</sup>She glorified herself and lived in luxury, so match it now with torment and sorrow.

She boasted in her heart,
'I am queen on my throne.

I am no helpless widow, and I have no reason to mourn.'

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, these plagues will overtake her in a single day—death and mourning and famine.

She will be completely consumed by fire,
for the Lord God who judges her is mighty."

<sup>9</sup>And the kings of the world who committed adultery with her and enjoyed her great luxury will mourn for her as they see the smoke rising from her charred remains. <sup>10</sup>They will stand at a distance, terrified by her great torment. They will cry out,

"How terrible, how terrible for you,
O Babylon, you great city!
In a single moment
God's judgment came on you."

<sup>11</sup>The merchants of the world will weep and mourn for her, for there is no one left to buy their goods. <sup>12</sup>She bought great quantities of gold, silver, jewels, and pearls; fine linen, purple, silk, and scarlet cloth; things made of fragrant thiyne wood, ivory goods, and objects made of expensive wood; and bronze, iron, and marble. <sup>13</sup>She also bought cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle, sheep, horses, chariots, and bodies—that is, human slaves.

<sup>14</sup>“The fancy things you loved so much are gone,” they cry.

“All your luxuries and splendor are gone forever, never to be yours again.”

<sup>15</sup>The merchants who became wealthy by selling her these things will stand at a distance, terrified by her great torment. They will weep and cry out, <sup>16</sup>“How terrible, how terrible for that great city!

She was clothed in finest purple and scarlet linens, decked out with gold and precious stones and pearls!

<sup>17</sup>In a single moment all the wealth of the city is gone!”

And all the captains of the merchant ships and their passengers and sailors and crews will stand at a distance.

<sup>18</sup>They will cry out as they watch the smoke ascend, and they will say, “Where is there another city as great as this?” <sup>19</sup>And they will weep and throw dust on their heads to show their grief. And they will cry out, “How terrible, how terrible for that great city!

The shipowners became wealthy by transporting her great wealth on the seas.

In a single moment it is all gone.”

<sup>20</sup>Rejoice over her fate, O heaven and people of God and apostles and prophets!
For at last God has judged her for your sakes.

<sup>21</sup>Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a huge millstone. He threw it into the ocean and shouted,

“Just like this, the great city Babylon will be thrown down with violence and will never be found again.

<sup>22</sup>The sound of harps, singers, flutes, and trumpets will never be heard in you again.
No craftsmen and no trades will ever be found in you again.
The sound of the mill
will never be heard in you again.

<sup>23</sup>The light of a lamp will never shine in you again.
The happy voices of brides and grooms will never be heard in you again.

For your merchants were the greatest in the world, and you deceived the nations with your sorceries.

<sup>24</sup>In your* streets flowed the blood of the prophets and of God’s holy people and the blood of people slaughtered all over the world.”

Revelation 19

Songs of Victory in Heaven

<sup>1</sup>After this, I heard what sounded like a vast crowd in heaven shouting,

“Praise the LORD!*

Salvation and glory and power belong to our God.

<sup>2</sup>His judgments are true and just.

He has punished the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her immorality.
He has avenged the murder of his servants.”

<sup>3</sup>And again their voices rang out:

“Praise the LORD!

The smoke from that city ascends forever and ever!”

<sup>4</sup>Then the twenty-four elders and the four living beings fell down and worshiped God, who was sitting on the throne. They cried out, “Amen! Praise the LORD!”

<sup>5</sup>And from the throne came a voice that said, “Praise our God,

all his servants,
all who fear him,
from the least to the greatest.”

<sup>6</sup> Then I heard again what sounded like the shout of a vast crowd or the roar of mighty ocean waves or the crash of loud thunder:

“Praise the LORD!

For the Lord our God, * the Almighty, reigns.

<sup>7</sup> Let us be glad and rejoice, and let us give honor to him.

For the time has come for the wedding feast of the Lamb, and his bride has prepared herself.

<sup>8</sup> She has been given the finest of pure white linen to wear.”

For the fine linen represents the good deeds of God’s holy people.

<sup>9</sup> And the angel said to me, “Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding feast of the Lamb.” And he added, “These are true words that come from God.”

<sup>10</sup> Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said, “No, don’t worship me. I am a servant of God, just like you and your brothers and sisters * who testify about their faith in Jesus. Worship only God. For the essence of prophecy is to give a clear witness for Jesus. *”

The Rider on the White Horse

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw heaven opened, and a white horse was standing there. Its rider was named Faithful and True, for he judges fairly and wages a righteous war. <sup>12</sup> His eyes were like flames of fire, and on his head were many crowns. A name was written on him that no one understood except himself.<sup>13</sup> He wore a robe dipped in blood, and his title was the Word of God.<sup>14</sup> The armies of heaven, dressed in the finest of pure white linen, followed him on white horses.<sup>15</sup> From his mouth came a sharp sword to strike down the nations. He will rule them with an iron rod. He will release the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty, like juice flowing from a winepress.<sup>16</sup> On his robe at his thigh* was written this title: King of all kings and Lord of all lords.

<sup>19</sup>Then I saw the beast and the kings of the world and their armies gathered together to fight against the one sitting on the horse and his army.<sup>20</sup> And the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who did mighty miracles on behalf of the beast—miracles that deceived all who had accepted the mark of the beast and who worshiped his statue. Both the beast and his false prophet were thrown alive into the fiery lake of burning sulfur.<sup>21</sup> Their entire army was killed by the sharp sword that came from the mouth of the one riding the white horse. And the vultures all gorged themselves on the dead bodies.

The Thousand Years

<sup>1</sup>Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven with the key to the bottomless pit* and a heavy chain in his hand. <sup>2</sup>He seized the dragon—that old serpent, who is the devil, Satan—and bound him in chains for a thousand years. <sup>3</sup>The angel threw him into the bottomless pit, which he then shut and locked so Satan could not deceive the nations anymore until the thousand years were finished. Afterward he must be released for a little while.

<sup>4</sup>Then I saw thrones, and the people sitting on them had been given the authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their testimony about Jesus and for proclaiming the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or his statue, nor accepted his mark on their foreheads or their hands. They all came to life again, and they reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

What the Bible Says about

Taking Risks

<sup>5</sup>This is the first resurrection. (The rest of the dead did not come back to life until the thousand years had ended.) <sup>6</sup>Blessed and holy are those who share in the first resurrection. For them the second death holds no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with him a thousand years.

The Defeat of Satan

<sup>7</sup>When the thousand years come to an end, Satan will be let out of his prison. <sup>8</sup>He will go out to deceive the nations—called Gog and Magog—in every corner of the earth. He will gather them together for battle—a mighty army, as numberless as sand along the seashore. <sup>9</sup>And I saw them as they went up on the broad plain of the earth and surrounded God's people and the beloved city. But fire from heaven came down on the attacking armies and consumed them.

<sup>10</sup>Then the devil, who had deceived them, was thrown into the fiery lake of burning sulfur, joining the beast and the false prophet. There they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

The Final Judgment

<sup>11</sup>And I saw a great white throne and the one sitting on it. The earth and sky fled from his presence, but they found no place to hide. <sup>12</sup>I saw the dead, both great and small, standing before God's throne. And the books were opened, including the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to what they had done, as recorded in the books. <sup>13</sup>The sea gave up its dead, and death and the grave* gave up their dead. And all were judged according to their deeds. <sup>14</sup>Then death and the grave were thrown into the lake of fire. This lake of fire is the second death. <sup>15</sup>And anyone whose name was not found recorded in the Book of Life was thrown into the lake of fire.

Revelation 21

The New Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the old heaven and the old earth had disappeared. And the sea was also gone.

<sup>2</sup> And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven like a bride beautifully dressed for her husband.

<sup>3</sup> I heard a loud shout from the throne, saying, “Look, God’s home is now among his people! He will live with them, and they will be his people. God himself will be with them.*” <sup>4</sup> He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain. All these things are gone forever.”

<sup>5</sup> And the one sitting on the throne said, “Look, I am making everything new!” And then he said to me, “Write this down, for what I tell you is trustworthy and true.” <sup>6</sup> And he also said, “It is finished! I am the Alpha and the Omega—the Beginning and the End. To all who are thirsty I will give freely from the springs of the water of life.” <sup>7</sup> All who are victorious will inherit all these blessings, and I will be their God, and they will be my children.

<sup>8</sup> “But cowards, unbelievers, the corrupt, murderers, the immoral, those who practice witchcraft, idol worshipers, and all liars—their fate is in the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death.”

Insiders and Outsiders

<sup>9</sup>Then one of the seven angels who held the seven bowls containing the seven last plagues came and said to me, “Come with me! I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.”

<sup>10</sup>So he took me in the Spirit* to a great, high mountain, and he showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God. <sup>11</sup>It shone with the glory of God and sparkled like a precious stone—like jasper as clear as crystal. <sup>12</sup>The city wall was broad and high, with twelve gates guarded by twelve angels. And the names of the twelve tribes of Israel were written on the gates. <sup>13</sup>There were three gates on each side—east, north, south, and west. <sup>14</sup>The wall of the city had twelve foundation stones, and on them were written the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup>The angel who talked to me held in his hand a gold measuring stick to measure the city, its gates, and its wall. <sup>16</sup>When he measured it, he found it was a square, as wide as it was long. In fact, its length and width and height were each 1,400 miles.* <sup>17</sup>Then he measured the walls and found them to be 216 feet thick* (according to the human standard used by the angel).

<sup>18</sup>The wall was made of jasper, and the city was pure gold, as clear as glass. <sup>19</sup>The wall of the city was built on foundation stones inlaid with twelve precious stones:* the first was jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald, <sup>20</sup>the fifth onyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst.

<sup>21</sup>The twelve gates were made of pearls—each gate from a single pearl! And the main street was pure gold, as clear as glass.

<sup>22</sup>I saw no temple in the city, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. <sup>23</sup>And the city has no need of sun or moon, for the glory of God illuminates the city, and the Lamb is its light. <sup>24</sup>The nations will walk in its light, and the kings of the world will enter the city in all their glory. <sup>25</sup>Its gates will never be closed at the end of day because there is no night there. <sup>26</sup>And all the nations will bring their glory and honor into the city. <sup>27</sup>Nothing evil* will be allowed to enter, nor anyone who practices shameful idolatry and dishonesty—but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

Revelation 22

<sup>1</sup> Then the angel showed me a river with the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb. <sup>2</sup>It flowed down the center of the main street. On each side of the river grew a tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, * with a fresh crop each month. The leaves were used for medicine to heal the nations.

<sup>3</sup>No longer will there be a curse upon anything. For the throne of God and of the Lamb will be there, and his servants will worship him. <sup>4</sup>And they will see his face, and his name will be written on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>And there will be no night there—no need for lamps or sun—for the Lord God will shine on them. And they will reign forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup>Then the angel said to me, “Everything you have heard and seen is trustworthy and true. The Lord God, who inspires his prophets, * has sent his angel to tell his servants what will happen soon. *”

Jesus Is Coming

<sup>7</sup>“Look, I am coming soon! Blessed are those who obey the words of prophecy written in this book. *”

<sup>8</sup>I, John, am the one who heard and saw all these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed them to me. <sup>9</sup>But he said, “No, don’t worship me. I am a servant of God, just like you and your brothers the prophets, as well as all who obey what is written in this book. Worship only God!”

<sup>10</sup>Then he instructed me, “Do not seal up the prophetic words in this book, for the time is near. <sup>11</sup>Let the one who is doing harm continue to do harm; let the one who is vile continue to be vile; let the one who is righteous continue to live righteously; let the one who is holy continue to be holy.”

<sup>14</sup>Blessed are those who wash their robes. They will be permitted to enter through the gates of the city and eat the fruit from the tree of life. <sup>15</sup>Outside the city are the dogs—the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idol worshipers, and all who love to live a lie.

<sup>16</sup>“I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give you this message for the churches. I am both the source of David and the heir to his throne. * I am the bright morning star.”

<sup>17</sup>The Spirit and the bride say, “Come.” Let anyone who hears this say, “Come.” Let anyone who is thirsty come. Let anyone who desires drink freely from the water of life. <sup>18</sup>And I solemnly declare to everyone who hears the words of prophecy written in this book: If anyone adds anything to what is written here, God will add to that person the plagues described in this book.

<sup>19</sup>And if anyone removes any of the words from this book of prophecy, God will remove that person's share in the tree of life and in the holy city that are described in this book.

<sup>20</sup> He who is the faithful witness to all these things says, "Yes, I am coming soon!"

Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!

Making a Man and a Woman

Genesis 1:27 and 2:15-25

GOD MADE EVERYTHING in the cosmos, from the microscopic amoeba and tiny insects to the vast planets and galaxies. But his work wasn't done until he had designed his most amazing creatures.

The first two chapters of Genesis give us two slightly different descriptions of the process God used to create humanity.

The sound bite-sized Genesis 1 account tells us that people were created in God's own image. That doesn't mean humans are gods, but it does mean we have some of the Creator's characteristics—including our own kind of God-given creativity.

The longer Genesis 2 account provides more details about God's creation of Adam and Eve; Adam came first, and one of his ribs was used in the later creation of Eve.

People have argued about the Genesis creation stories for centuries. Skeptical scientists say the Bible is riddled with errors, but theologians say Genesis was never intended to be a science book.

Feminists and traditionalists have also fought bitter battles over these two brief passages. Feminists prefer Genesis 1, which supports their claims of gender equality, while those who support male leadership in the home and society prefer Genesis 2, which suggests women may have been dependent on men from the beginning of time.

These passages won't settle the raging scientific and moral debates, but they do make one thing perfectly clear: God created both the male and female and declared them “very good” (1:31).

Adam was pretty pleased, too. “At last!” he exclaimed when he first saw Eve (2:23).

Naked and Unashamed

Genesis 2:25

THE EARLY DAYS in the Garden of Eden were a time of innocence and joy for humanity's first husband and wife. Wouldn't it be nice if we could bottle some of their happiness and pour it all over our own sex-saturated, love-starved world?

Here's how British thinker C.S. Lewis once described the problem of runaway sexual appetites:

“You can get a large audience together for a strip-tease act.

Now suppose you came to a country where you could fill a theater by simply bringing a covered plate onto the stage and then slowly lifting the cover so as to let everyone see, just before the lights went out, that it contained a mutton chop or a bit of bacon, would you not think that in that country something had gone wrong with the appetite for food? And would not anyone who had grown up in a different world think there was something equally queer about the state of the sex instinct among us?"

That was half a century ago. Today, sex is sold on videos, DVDs, and the Internet, where anyone can view material once considered illegal or unthinkable.

Sex is the means by which humans and other creatures reproduce. But it's obvious that when God designed human sexuality, he added lots of interesting extra features. That's because there's more to human sexuality than breeding.

God created sex as a means for a man and a woman to experience a kind of soul-to-soul intimacy that can't be known any other way. Sex was also designed to make men and women praise God.

For Adam and Eve, sexuality was innocent and joyful. What would it take for us to experience sex in that way today?

In the center, the text "men, women, & God" is written in a serif font. "men," is in a dark brown color, while "women, & God" is in a lighter, greyish-brown color.

Passing the Buck

Genesis 3:8-13

THIRTY YEARS AGO, the conversation went like this:

“Tommy, where’s your math assignment?”

“Uh, I think my dog ate it.”

Today, it may be more like this:

“Honey, where are the car keys?”

“Uh, I think the baby must have hidden them somewhere.”

Passing the buck has been a popular guy tradition for a long time. In fact, the origins of buck passing go back to the dawn of human history. Adam, the first man God created, was also the first man to avoid taking responsibility for his failures.

After God created the earth, he told Adam and Eve not to eat the fruit from the tree in the middle of the garden. “If you eat its fruit, you are sure to die,” said God (2:17).

But the serpent enticed Eve into eating the fruit. Then Eve persuaded Adam. This was the beginning of sin and disobedience on earth. Theologians call this event the Fall.

When God asked what happened, he was given history’s first buck-passing session.

“Eve gave it to me,” said Adam.

“The serpent deceived me,” said Eve.

We can only imagine what might have happened if Adam had said, “God, I confess. I messed up. I’m sorry.”

He didn’t, and he paid the price. So do we.

Abraham Didn’t Stop to Ask Directions

Genesis 12:1-9

GOD GAVE ABRAHAM an unusual assignment: “Leave your native country, your relatives, and your father’s family, and go to the land that I will show you” (12:1).

Abraham (who was going by the name Abram at the time) didn’t wait around for God to give him a detailed map and itinerary. And back then, they didn’t have GPS technology to pinpoint their location.

Instead, Abraham told his wife and family to pack up and hit the road without asking for further directions. “Abraham departed as the LORD had instructed him,” says Genesis 12:4.

For centuries, women have been criticizing men who set out on a trip without consulting a map and refuse to stop and ask for help. Is it possible that this near-universal male trait is ancient Abraham’s legacy to modern man?

Perhaps, but there’s a bigger message to be found by examining Abraham’s travel habits. More than anything else, he took God at his word. He believed God, and he based his life on that belief.

That's why the writer of the New Testament book of Hebrews praises Abraham as a model of faith. "It was by faith that Abraham obeyed when God called him to leave home and go to another land that God would give him as his inheritance. He went without knowing where he was going" (Hebrews 11:8).

That doesn't mean women are always wrong when they ask men if they know where they're going. But there may be times in a man's life when he must follow God into uncharted territory.

Childless and Hopeless

Genesis 16 and 19:30-38

GOD MADE A solemn promise to Abraham and Sarah that he would give them a child. He promised that their descendants would be as numerous as the stars in the sky.

But by the time Abraham and Sarah had reached the age for rocking chairs and walkers, they still hadn't been given a child.

Like many contemporary couples who experience difficulty conceiving, Abraham and Sarah probably went through their share of sadness, suffering, and self-doubts. Had God really promised them a child? If so, whose fault was it that no child had come?

Their disappointment happened a few thousand years before the development of modern scientific methods that can help infertility, so they continued worrying and fretting.

Then Sarah decided to take matters into her own hands. She had Abraham sleep with her servant Hagar, who gave birth to a son named Ishmael. By the time Abraham and Sarah's own son, Isaac, was born a few years later, this family's storyline was already more complicated than a soap opera.

Today, Jews consider themselves descendants of Isaac, while Arabs consider themselves descendants of Ishmael. Some have suggested that today's geopolitical tensions stretch back to Sarah's impatience to have a child.

You would think this experience would serve as a lesson. But some of Abraham's family members made similar errors later on. Jacob's wives convinced him to sleep with their servants to produce children, and his family became so dysfunctional that eventually ten of his sons sold their brother Joseph into slavery. Lot's daughters became so desperate for children that they slept with their own father, producing two more ethnic groups that tormented the people of Israel for centuries.

It is dangerous to lose faith in God and take matters into our own hands.

Vegas in the Middle East

Genesis 18:17–19:29

TAKE THE WORST of gambling-obsessed Las Vegas, drug-crazed Amsterdam, and the sex-crazed red-light district of Bangkok. Now roll them all together. That will approximate the reputation of Sodom and Gomorrah.

God himself had taken note of the rumors about how bad things were. “I have heard a great outcry from Sodom and Gomorrah, because their sin is so flagrant” (18:20).

Things got so bad that God decided to take action against the cities. Abraham pleaded with God to halt his plans as long as 50 righteous men could be found in these evil cities. Then Abraham and God negotiated, bringing the final number down to 10.

As chapter 19 shows, Abraham was being overly optimistic in hoping that 10 righteous men might be found in Sodom and Gomorrah. When God sent two angels to inspect the city of Sodom, Abraham’s nephew Lot asked them to stay in his house for the night. A rowdy gang (19:4 says “all the men of Sodom, young and old”) gathered outside the house and demanded that Lot bring out his guests so the mob could have sex with them. (This is where we get the term sodomy.) Lot had the decency to protect his guests, but his despicable response was to offer the men his daughters instead!

God had now had enough. He bombarded Sodom and Gomorrah with fire and sulfur, reducing these evil cities to piles of smoldering ash.

God mercifully allowed Lot and his family to escape the destruction, but they were reluctant to leave. Finally, the angels had to take their hands and all but drag them out of the city to safety. As they fled across the desert, Lot's wife wanted to take one last look back—even though she had been commanded not to. She knew she would miss her old home. As soon as she turned back to look, she turned into a pillar of salt.

Even an evil culture can feel like home to folks who grow accustomed to it.

Take My Wife, Please!

Genesis 12:10-20 and chapter 20

JEWISH COMEDIAN Henny Youngman got his start during the vaudeville era, but he managed to survive and thrive in the age of TV, thanks to his fast-paced delivery and his corny jokes, many of them about his wife.

“My wife told me the car wasn’t running well,” he said.

“There was water in the carburetor. I asked where the car was and she told me in the lake.”

Youngman may be best known for his famous oneliner, “Take my wife, please!”

“I take my wife everywhere,” he said, “but she keeps finding her way back.”

Abraham wasn’t trying to be funny when he said something similar to the king of Egypt. The results may seem funny now, but they could have been tragic.

Traveling through Egypt, Abraham grew afraid that the Egyptians would kill him so they could take his beautiful wife, Sarah. To avoid this, Abraham told people that Sarah was his sister. The plan backfired when Pharaoh saw Sarah and decided he wanted her for the royal harem. God straightened things out by sending a plague to Pharaoh’s household.

Abraham later played a similar trick on a king named Abimelech, with near-disastrous results.

It took Abraham a while to learn how to care for his wife. Wives deserve to be honored and respected—especially in dangerous situations. You certainly don’t try to survive by splitting up. Stick together no matter what. And by the way, telling jokes about your wife is not a good way to begin!

When Love of God and Love of Family Collide

Genesis 22:1-19

PROMISE KEEPERS and Focus on the Family tell men that to love God means to love your family. But what if duties to God and family collide?

They did for Abraham, who struggled with this disturbing dilemma nearly four millennia ago. Things didn't turn out like anybody expected.

Abraham had already demonstrated his deep faith in God. When God called him and told him to set out for a distant land, Abraham went, even though he didn't know exactly where he was going.

Years later, Abraham endured an even more difficult crucible of faith when God once again called him, delivering one of the most disturbing commands in the entire Bible: "Take your son, your only son—yes, Isaac, whom you love so much—and . . . sacrifice him as a burnt offering."

The passage doesn't record Abraham's inner torment at receiving this command. We aren't told whether or not Abraham talked to Sarah, who had waited so long to give her husband a son. All we get is this simple report: "The next morning Abraham got up early [and] saddled his donkey."

He took Isaac with him. He also took a knife. He chopped some wood for the fire and ascended the mountain God had told him would be the site of the sacrifice.

But then, just when Abraham's hand was poised to kill Isaac, God intervened. “Don’t lay a hand on the boy!” Abraham was freed from his horrible predicament. Imagine his joy as he untied his son!

For his willingness to obey God no matter what the cost, Abraham was richly blessed.

Shopping for a Wife

Genesis 24

WHEN IT WAS time for Abraham to find a wife for his son Isaac, he went to some extraordinary measures. Abraham didn’t want his son to marry one of the local Canaanite girls; he wanted a woman from his homeland. More important, he wanted the woman God had planned. So Abraham sent his chief servant to the watering hole back home. This wasn’t a seedy tavern with sticky beer on the floor and stale smoke in the air. It was an actual watering hole where locals brought their containers and camels.

Abraham’s servant knew the importance of finding just the right woman for his master’s son to marry. So he prayed this prayer: “O LORD, God of my master, . . . give me success on this mission. . . .”

To make sure he would find the right wife, the servant set up a unique test. He would ask one of the women for water, and if she gave some to him and also offered to water his camels, he would know she was the one.

Soon, a beautiful young woman named Rebekah came along. She passed the test with flying colors. But one thing still needed to happen before wedding bells could ring.

The servant journeyed with Rebekah to meet Bethuel, her father. He told Bethuel the whole story and asked if he would permit Rebekah to marry Isaac. “Please tell me yes or no, and then I’ll know what to do next.”

After Bethuel gave his enthusiastic blessing, Rebekah left her home and traveled with Abraham’s servant back to Canaan to marry Isaac.

Maybe more marriages would last longer today if men and women sought God’s will for their lives and tried to work things out in advance with their future in-laws.

A Botched Blessing

Genesis 27

IN ANCIENT TIMES, people didn’t invest in mutual funds, 401(k) plans, or trust funds. Instead, their wealth was their land, farms, and animals, all of which was passed along from father to son.

When Isaac had reached advanced senior citizen status, he had gone blind. He knew it was time to give his blessing to Esau, his firstborn son. So he told Esau to fix a meal for him and prepare to receive his blessing.

But Isaac's wife, Rebekah, helped play a cruel trick on Isaac. She conspired with Jacob to steal Esau's blessing. They even devised an elaborate costume that would make Isaac think he was blessing Esau, who had much more hair than his brother.

While Esau was out hunting for game to prepare for his father's meal, Jacob donned his costume and went in to see Isaac with a meal his mother had prepared. After Isaac ate the meal, he blessed Jacob, giving him the right to inherit the family's wealth.

When Esau arrived a short time later seeking the blessing that was rightfully his, Isaac realized his mistake. "O my father, what about me? Bless me, too!" pleaded Esau. But it was too late. Isaac could not give a second blessing.

Today, the tradition of giving blessings is less common than it was in Isaac's day, but children still compete with each other for their parents' care and affection. Perhaps it would be best if parents blessed all their children, lavishing care and concern on them without distinction.

And families would certainly be happier and healthier if husbands and wives worked together instead of trying to trick each other. Hoodwinking your spouse is a sure way to turn a good situation bad and make a bad situation worse.

From Onan to “Onanism”

Genesis 38:6-10

FOR YEARS, preachers who wanted to scare young men away from masturbation would turn to an obscure Old Testament figure named Onan, who spilled his semen on the ground and died because of it.

Most teenagers aren't biblical scholars. Few can read Hebrew. And fewer still are brave enough or stupid enough to disagree with preachers. So when they heard that God zapped someone for masturbating, they took it at face value.

But anyone who carefully examines this passage will quickly discover that it isn't talking about masturbation.

Onan had an older brother named Er, who had died. Judah, their father, instructed Onan to marry Er's widow, Tamar, so she could have a son to serve as Er's heir. But Onan didn't like the plan and so intentionally avoided impregnating Tamar. His disobedience of Judah's command offended God, who took Onan's life.

Somehow, out of this complex, ancient story, Onan became a modern-day poster boy for the dangers of masturbation, a subject that isn't specifically addressed anywhere in the Bible.

There are plenty of reasons for being cautious about masturbation. For one thing, a man who focuses on self-gratification may develop an inability to provide pleasure to his wife, which is part of the purpose God had in mind when he designed human sexuality. Further, some men's hunger for sexual gratification leads them into pornography, sexual addictions, and various ways of acting out their sexual fantasies.

Onan did a bad thing, and he was punished for it. But his sin wasn't the thing he's long been blamed for. Masturbation may not be advisable, but it's not a mortal sin.

Too Hot to Handle

Genesis 39

JOSEPH WAS the kind of good-looking guy who created ripples whenever he walked into a room. Men like Joseph face temptations that don't typically afflict the rest of us, especially when there's a sexually aggressive woman on the prowl.

Joseph had been sold into slavery by his insanely jealous brothers. Soon, he became a slave in the house of Potiphar, a powerful Egyptian military officer who served the all-powerful Pharaoh.

Before long, Potiphar's wife took a liking to Joseph and tried to lure him into her bed. Joseph, a righteous guy and diligent worker, resisted her.

“It would be a great sin against God,” he told her. But she kept after him anyway.

One day, the two were alone in the house. Potiphar’s wife used this opportunity to approach Joseph once again. He resisted her, as usual, but she grabbed his shirt as he ran out the door. Before Joseph knew it, he was charged with attempted rape and thrown into prison.

The workplace today, as in Joseph’s time, puts us in close proximity to women, not all of whom have pure intentions. While we can take certain precautions in scheduling our meetings and business travel, temptations may arise in spite of us. In such a moment, too many men have rationalized, “Well, hey, she was coming on to me, and what was I supposed to do? I’m a guy, you know.”

That’s no excuse. The story of Joseph teaches us that responsibility for moral integrity is still ours, regardless of what an aggressive woman does, or says afterward. Run as fast as you can, and if you get ridiculed or lied about later, so be it. No potential consequence of avoiding sin will ever be as bad as the consequence for giving in.

The First Family Squabbles

Genesis 4:1-12 and chapters 37-45

YOU MAY THINK you've seen major emotional meltdowns in your family, but your clan's squabbles are no match for the dysfunction and despair found in Old Testament accounts of some of the most famous biblical families.

Adam and Eve probably thought their sons Cain and Abel would be two bouncing bundles of joy. But that's not how things turned out.

Abel, a shepherd, wanted to honor God by giving him the best of his flock. Cain, a farmer, gave God a sacrifice of crops. For some reason that isn't entirely clear, God accepted Abel's gift but rejected Cain's. Perhaps Cain's motives were impure. Whatever the reason for God's decision, the important thing is what happened next. When God made it known that he had accepted Abel's sacrifice but rejected Cain's, Cain murdered his brother. Adam and Eve thus suffered the pain of burying their own child.

Things didn't go any better for Joseph, one of Jacob's sons and a great-grandson of Abraham. Joseph was an unusually gifted young man: good looking, intelligent, spiritually mature, and well organized. His jealous brothers grew resentful in the shadow of the superstar Joseph and hatched an evil plot. They sold Joseph into slavery and made it look like he had been murdered.

Genesis devotes numerous chapters (37-45) to this astounding story. Joseph suffered greatly, but God ultimately made him one of the most powerful men in the world. In his position of power, Joseph was able to help the very brothers who had treated him so cruelly.

There's no cardboard cut-out pattern for the families we find in the Bible. Some were happy, while others were miserable. Some found healing and redemption, while others self-destructed.

There's not necessarily any comfort to be found in the pain of others. But the next time your kids are going ballistic, remember that family squabbles have been raging for a very, very long time.

God's Top Ten Laws for Living

Exodus 20:1-17

AGES BEFORE LATE-NIGHT TV host David Letterman popularized his humorous “Top Ten List,” God gave humanity his top guidelines for living: the Ten Commandments.

Emphasizing the importance of putting God first in all areas of life, these laws cover everything from idolatry to theft to murder. Not surprisingly, two of the ten give God's views on how the sexes should relate to one another.

The seventh commandment says, “You must not commit adultery.” God created men and women as sexual beings meant to enjoy the deepest forms of sexual intimacy. But the Bible makes it clear that sexual intimacy is to exist only in the context of a lifelong, faithful, monogamous relationship. Scripture is rife with examples of how sex outside of marriage can contaminate and ultimately destroy every area of our lives.

The tenth commandment tells us not to covet (be envious of) things that belong to other people, including their houses, oxen, or donkeys (perhaps we could substitute more contemporary modes of transportation, such as our neighbor's late-model BMW). High on the list we see, “You must not covet your neighbor's wife." Here again, because we are sexual beings, God specifically applies the commandment to sexuality.

Over the centuries, some have complained that the Ten Commandments are too negative ("Do not do this") instead of positive ("Do this"). Others have suggested that God seems preoccupied with sex. But considering the many ways inappropriate sexual relationships can complicate our lives, God's instructions regarding adultery and covetousness are appropriate and necessary. He's not trying to squelch our fun; he's trying to cut down on our heartache.

Party Animals

Exodus 32

NEWS REPORTS frequently describe high-energy gatherings called raves, which attract thousands of young people with their alluring mix of music, lights, intoxicants, and dancing.

Though raves garnered renewed popularity in recent years, they are nothing new. In Exodus 32, thousands of Israelites enjoyed their very own rave.

Moses had gone up Mount Sinai to meet with God. When he was gone longer than expected, the people cast off their inhibitions and threw a wild party, asking Aaron, Moses' brother, to make them an idol. Men and women worked together on the project. Aaron and other craftsmen melted down jewelry and carefully formed a golden calf. Then the people ate, drank, and “indulged in pagan revelry” (32:6).

But their rave was short-lived. God told Moses to hurry back down Mount Sinai. When Moses saw what was going on, he was furious. He angrily threw down the two tablets on which God had personally inscribed the Ten Commandments (the first of which prohibits idolatry). The tablets were destroyed, as was God’s patience with his sinful people.

At Moses’ plea, God did not completely destroy the Israelites for their sin, but there was still a terrible price to be paid: the Levites, God’s special servants, were sent through the crowd to kill around 3,000 of the offenders.

Perhaps the reason the Israelites became party animals can be found in their unresolved frustrations with God. After being saved from bondage in Egypt, they had endured months of hard travel, boring food, and uncertainty about where they were going. In spite of Moses’ repeated exhortations, they refused to put their faith solely in the God who had liberated them.

Today, many believers harbor hidden frustrations about their lives. The best thing to do with these feelings is to confess them to God. Don’t let them simmer until they spill over into behavior you will later regret.

Pure in God's Sight

Leviticus 15

MANY CHAPTERS OF Leviticus give instructions concerning rituals of purification. Today, we still deal with many of these same issues under the label of “personal hygiene.”

Leviticus 15 talks quite bluntly about various bodily fluids. Men were considered “unclean” (at least in a ceremonial sense) after a discharge of semen or other emissions (this may have referred to problems related to venereal diseases).

Women were considered “unclean” during and after a discharge of blood, whether due to childbirth, their monthly period, or some other type of bleeding. They were to bathe and make specified sacrifices before being “clean” once again.

Neither men nor women were allowed inside the Tabernacle, God's tent of meeting, when “unclean.”

Today, people in most parts of the world have much greater access to clean water and hygienic procedures than people did during the time of ancient Israel. So what's the relevance of these lengthy passages for us?

For one thing, God still cares deeply about all aspects of our lives, physical as well as spiritual. He created both our bodies and souls, and he wants us to honor him with both.

Second, it is ironic to note that in these modern times, despite our medical advancement, sexual fluids seem to be the cause of more suffering and trauma than we ever expected. From genital herpes to chlamydia to AIDS, our world is being ravaged. Perhaps God's detailed regulations regarding physical cleanliness weren't such a bad idea after all.

It's not that God considers human sexuality "dirty." After all, God created sex! But he knows how easy it is to spread disease if sex is used in ways he didn't intend.

Keeping Sex Sacred

Leviticus 18; Deuteronomy 22:13-30

WHEN GOD GAVE Israel the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20), two of the laws focused on sexual temptations—the seventh (adultery) and tenth (coveting your neighbor's wife, otherwise known as lust).

But humans are inventive, and in the years following Sinai, the Israelites devised new and varied ways of turning God's sacred gift of sex into an occasion for selfishness, abuse, and exploitation. The passages in Leviticus 18 and Deuteronomy 22 are God's catalog of sexual sins.

“You must never have sexual relations with a close relative,” says God (Leviticus 18:6). And in case the command is too difficult to grasp, he provides a detailed list of who is out of bounds: mothers, sisters, daughters, aunts, and daughters-in-law. Also forbidden is having sex with both a woman and her daughter.

The prohibitions are not just related to incest. Homosexuality and bestiality are also expressly forbidden.

All of this says that God made sex for very specific purposes: the continuation of the race, and pleasure and intimacy between husbands and wives.

But Leviticus 18:1-5 underscores another reason God was so concerned about what his people did with their bodies. He had called the Israelites to be his special people. As a result, they were not to engage in the sins so common among the Egyptians, Canaanites, and others who didn't know or obey God. The Israelites were to be unique.

People who follow God today are still called to live on a higher moral level. As these passages clearly point out, keeping control of our sexuality is one very important way to be set apart.

Meddling in the Family Business

Numbers 12

WHEN THEY WERE liberated from Egypt after so many long, grinding years of captivity, the Israelites were happy to be on their own. But after a year of wandering through the deserts of the Middle East, they began to complain.

It was easy to find things to gripe about. Some complained about the itinerary. Others complained about the steady diet of manna. Still others grumbled about the water quality.

For Miriam and Aaron, Moses' two siblings, an easy target for discontent was Moses' wife. They didn't like the fact that he had married a foreign woman. Their criticism of their younger brother represents one of the human race's earliest recorded cases of family meddling.

Miriam and Aaron even managed to put a spiritual veneer on top of their observations. "Has the LORD spoken only through Moses?" they asked. "Hasn't he spoken through us, too?"

The pair received an unexpected answer when God called them to task. "Aaron and Miriam!" he called out, demanding that they report immediately to the Tabernacle.

God explained that Moses enjoyed a unique and privileged relationship with him. “I speak to him face to face,” said God. “So why were you not afraid to criticize my servant Moses?” God then punished Miriam’s meddling by striking her with an advanced case of leprosy.

Moses begged God to heal his sister, and God reduced the sentence: Miriam would not die of her disease, but she would be banished from the community for a week.

The punishment turned out not to be as severe as it could have been. But the lesson was clear. Apparently, cheap-shot remarks about family members are more serious to God than many of us thought.

Sexual and Spiritual Seduction

Numbers 25

IF THERE’S ONE simple lesson we can find in Numbers 25, it’s that people’s romantic involvement can impair their judgment, leading them into compromising situations they never would have imagined.

The word seduce usually refers to sexual temptation. But the Bible contains many stories about people who were tempted in another way: spiritually. The concept of faithfulness can be applied both to our spouse and our God.

The Israelites were camping at Acacia when some of the men wandered off to have sex with local Moabite women—a direct violation of God’s command. Soon after, the Israelites were joining the Moabites in their idolatry, worshiping foreign gods like Baal—pale and evil imitations of the Almighty Creator of the universe.

From the moment he created the human race, God knew we had a weakness for both sexual and spiritual infidelity. Although the two don’t always go together, in this case one led directly to the other.

One of the Israelite men even brought a Midianite woman back to his tent for more frolic. One of the young priests showed what God thought of this by killing both the man and the woman with a single thrust of his spear. Then God commanded the Israelites to attack the Midianites for deceitfully convincing them to worship foreign gods.

God created men and women to love and honor him. He also gave us the ability to love one another through the gift of sexuality. We don’t always use these gifts wisely, and when we trip up, there are immense consequences. But if we seek faithfulness—both in our walk with God and in our sexuality—we will bring beauty and life to our world instead of ugliness and death.

Putting the Honey in Honeymoon

Deuteronomy 24:5

ONE OF THE biggest problems couples face today is busyness. Husbands and wives are constantly on the go, moving so fast they can hardly breathe.

Hidden away in the big book of Deuteronomy is one brief verse with a stark, almost preposterous remedy for this problem. Deuteronomy 24:5 says a newly married man should be given a year of freedom from work and military service so he can devote himself solely to “bringing happiness to the wife he has married.”

Immediately, we say, “That’s impossible. How would the bills get paid?” Apparently the Israelites planned ahead, saving up for the expenses to come.

Wouldn’t it be nice if today’s newlyweds followed this Scripture? Too often, brides and grooms are so harried over wedding plans and travel arrangements for far-flung family members that their special day is the cause of as much exhaustion as joy. Then, after the wedding, an all-too-brief honeymoon is followed by a quick return to “normal” life, which means both husband and wife are back to their demanding jobs. Soon, the cares and concerns of life threaten to strangle the love and affection that marriage was intended to foster.

Instead of rejecting God's regulation here as impractical and crazy, let's stop to appreciate his goal: making time to concentrate on building a love that will last. Perhaps that's worth extra effort after all.

The Virtuous Hooker

Joshua 2

OVER THE CENTURIES, an amazing variety of colorful characters have played important roles in God's redemptive drama. One of them was a prostitute named Rahab, who provided much-needed help to Joshua and the Israelites on their way into the Promised Land.

Joshua had sent two men to the city of Jericho to gather intelligence. When their reconnaissance mission grew dangerous, the spies hid out at the house of Rahab, who had heard rumors about Israel and Israel's God.

"We are all afraid of you," she told the men, recounting how God had saved the Israelites from Pharaoh and guided their path ever since. "The LORD your God is the supreme God of the heavens above and the earth below."

Soon the king of Jericho heard about the infiltrators and sent agents to Rahab's house to find them. But Rahab hid the spies on her roof and then lied to the king's men, saying that the two Israelites had left long ago. "If you hurry, you can probably catch up with them."

Then she let the men down through a window in the city wall so they could go out and continue their mission.

Prostitutes with hearts of gold have been a staple of novels and movies for centuries. The reality, of course, is that sex workers are normally a rough bunch. In the face of nightly exploitation and abuse, they develop a hardness of soul.

Rahab, however, showed that her heart was open to God. Unlike others in Jericho, who merely saw the Israelites as military opponents, Rahab perceived a people who had been uniquely chosen by God. She chose to help them at great personal risk.

For this, she was given a place in the ancestry of the Messiah (see Matthew 1:5) and a citation in the Faith Hall of Fame (see Hebrews 11:31). Rahab rose above her trade to set a new mark of usefulness and purpose.

My Family Will Serve the Lord

Joshua 24:15

JOSHUA HAD DONE WELL. He had served God and his people, leading the Israelites across the Jordan River and into the Promised Land God had said they would inhabit.

But now he was getting on in years. Death was at the door. And like many Old Testament patriarchs, he gathered his energy to deliver a final farewell address. The final two chapters of Joshua record his challenging words.

Joshua began by reviewing Israel's history. Time and time again, God had taken care of his people. And time and time again, the people had turned away from God and disobeyed him.

Then the aged leader challenged his listeners to recommit themselves to living the kind of life God demands of them. "Fear the LORD and serve him wholeheartedly," he said.

But Joshua had been around long enough to know that not everyone who heard him would follow his suggestion.

"Choose today whom you will serve," he said. Then he told the crowd about the choice he and the members of his household would be making: "As for me and my family, we will serve the LORD."

Today, many of us wish our entire country would follow God's laws. Wouldn't it be nice if schools taught children to honor God, and our laws directed us to live in a godly manner?

But that's not the way things always turn out. People who follow God often feel that their faithfulness to his commands demands that they stand apart from the crowd. Declaring undying obedience to God often means declaring yourself out of the mainstream.

Despite your best efforts, you may not be able to interest your neighbors in your faith or convince your city council to honor God. But at least you and your family can serve the Lord with all your hearts.

men, women, & God

A Woman Shall Lead Them

Judges 4-5

MALES LEAD MOST of the world's major corporations, governments, and religious organizations. Many people think that's the way it should be.

But the fourth and fifth chapters of Judges show that women can be powerful leaders, too, particularly if God calls and empowers them.

In Deborah's time, people voluntarily came to her to settle their disputes (4:5). They trusted her wisdom to cut through the arguing and settle on a fair judgment. They listened to her prophecies and accepted them as the true word of the Lord. When the time came for someone to step up and confront the Canaanite oppressors, God spoke through Deborah and instructed a man named Barak to gather an army. Barak agreed—but only on the condition that Deborah stay close by, even on the battlefield. (There seems not to have been much debate in Deborah's day about whether women should fight in the military!) The Lord honored this arrangement and gave Israel a dramatic victory.

Interestingly, Deborah wasn't the only woman turning the tide of history that day. Jael, wife of a nomadic herdsman, hospitably welcomed the enemy leader Sisera into her tent, only to drive a nail through his temple while he dozed, making the Israelite victory complete.

What should we take away from this account? God wants us to see that some qualities are more important than gender. Both men and women can be used by God. Both can relate to him and discern his will. Both can help resolve a conflict or make a tough decision.

And both can acknowledge that God is the supreme leader of all.

A Treacherous Woman

Judges 16:4-22

SAMSON AND DELILAH certainly qualify as one of history's all-time dysfunctional couples.

Samson had already “been around” before meeting Delilah. An earlier marriage of his had crashed in a week (see 14:8-20), and thereafter, he had been known to visit prostitutes (see 16:1-3). But he really lost all control when he fell in love with Delilah. His emotions swept away all caution. After some prodding and manipulation, he told Delilah the secret of his amazing strength. Soon she pulled off a sting operation that left him powerless.

Scripture warns us not to trust our emotions, but we often ignore that instruction when it comes to matters of the romantic heart. We just can't believe that the gorgeous object of our affection would ever succumb to selfishness. Surely good intentions and good sense will prevail!

Lust is a powerful force, and believe it or not, many women—and men, too—are skilled in the art of manipulation. Humans are sinful beings, and without guidance from above, the dance of romance tends to lead toward sin.

We tell ourselves that God is the giver of our emotions and sexual desire. While this is true, God didn't intend love between a man and a woman to result in blindness, either literally or figuratively. We are to bring all relationships, romantic and otherwise, under the guidance and will of God's good care. Meanwhile, be cautious. Never forget that romantic love can be fertile ground for sin.

Hear Her Tears

1 Samuel 1:1-20

TALK ABOUT BEING INSENSITIVE! Elkanah may take the prize for the least caring husband in the Bible. His wife Hannah had been childless for many years and often wept about her predicament. Elkanah's reaction was to get logical: “‘Why are you crying, Hannah?’ Elkanah would ask. ‘Why aren’t you eating? Why be downhearted just because you have no children? You have me—isn’t that better than having ten sons?’” (1:8).

The official name for that kind of comment is “clueless.”

One day Hannah went to the Tabernacle and cried out to the Lord in silent anguish, her lips mouthing her words of prayer. That’s when the second clumsy male showed up in her life. Eli, the priest, watched her for a while and decided she must be intoxicated. “ ‘Must you come here drunk?’ he demanded. ‘Throw away your wine!’” (1:14).

In Israel during Hannah’s time, a barren woman suffered public humiliation and disgrace. Being childless today doesn’t carry the same stigma, but the pain and anguish are still real, and they often go unrecognized by the men in a woman’s life.

Women agonize over childlessness while their men basically “don’t get it.”

The same holds true for stresses other than infertility.

Men won’t always understand why a woman is upset, but they certainly need to understand that she is upset. Ignoring the pain of another person just deepens the pain and opens the floodgates for more tears.

It is far better for a husband to engage a hurting spouse in a tender way. Ask questions. Listen. Respond with words that convey interest in her feelings. And don’t try to come up with solutions to dry up her tears. She doesn’t need “Mr. Fix-It.” She needs a loving partner who truly cares.

The Green-Eyed Monster

1 Samuel 18

JEALOUSY IS A green-eyed monster that can devour everything in its path. One of its primary victims is relationships. Love and trust are easily destroyed when jealousy rears its ugly head.

An example of the monster’s impact can be seen in the relationship between David and Saul. Over time, their complex but strong bond of affection became poisoned by jealousy.

The resulting fallout produced insanity and attempted murders.

Things had started out well. Early in Saul's reign as Israel's first king, he seemed a wise and stable ruler. One of his best moves was to make David a commander of his army. David succeeded in this position of power and prominence.

For a while, Saul and David enjoyed each other's success. But in time, David's achievements became more celebrated than those of his master. A major turning point came when women from the local towns began to sing:

“Saul has killed his thousands, and David his ten thousands!” (18:7)

That did it for Saul. From that time on, the green-eyed monster began to growl. The very next day, Saul experienced one of his many mood swings (influenced, we are told in 18:10, by a “tormenting spirit”). David tried to calm him with music, but Saul responded by whipping a spear at his chest. Fortunately, David jumped aside in time to avoid a painful death.

Jealousy eventually turned to paranoia. But not even with a campaign of animosity and another murder attempt could Saul slow David's ascent to power as the future king of Israel. Poor Saul was unable to enjoy his successor's happiness. Instead, he went to his grave—by his own hand—an angry, haunted man.

Listen to the Woman

1 Samuel 25

NABAL WAS A ROUGH, cranky businessman. The Bible describes him as “crude and mean” (25:3). He had been treated well by David, but when David’s representatives paid a visit and asked for a favor, Nabal insulted them so badly that David planned an attack.

Seeing the pending disaster, Nabal’s wife, Abigail, hurried to intercept David and show proper appreciation. She was gracious and hospitable, even bringing food. She complimented David and smoothed his ruffled feathers.

Her actions saved the day—though, as it turned out, Nabal didn’t benefit from them for long. When he heard from his wife how close he had come to death by David’s hand, Nabal suffered a sudden stroke. Ten days later he was dead, and Abigail went on to become David’s wife.

Sometimes it seems manly to be firm and resolute. But a spiritual leader can turn into a dictator if he routinely ignores his wife’s insights. Women often do seem to have intuition about what lies beneath the surface of a person’s actions.

Abigail worked overtime to heal the breach between Nabal and David. She believed she could halt the ominous events headed toward Nabal and his community. She met with David and appealed to his reason—his stomach.

Her words about her husband were honest. He was “wicked,” “ill-tempered,” and “a fool” (v. 25). Her honesty actually protected Nabal from David’s wrath. David, in turn, took a moment to think about his actions and agreed that what she said had merit. “Thank God for your good sense!” he said (v. 33).

It takes a lot of maturity and humility for a man to accept advice and change his mind, especially if advised to do so by a woman. But women often seem to be able to smooth over the problems caused by male anger and pride.

Witchy Ways

1 Samuel 28

SOMETIMES PEOPLE WANT to know what God is up to, but they can’t seem to wait for him to reveal it. Instead of letting God work out his plans on his own timetable, they consult other sources. They’re desperate to unravel the mysteries of life.

And there are always people—called “mediums”—who are willing to help them, usually in exchange for a fee. Starting in the 1970s, television became a popular way for mediums to advertise and demonstrate their “skills.” Today, TV ads for psychics are rampant, even during prime time.

Using TV to spread psychic messages may be new, but the practice of occultic (or “hidden”) techniques is ancient. In his law, God forbade his followers to consult sorcerers or mediums (Deuteronomy 18:10); instead, they were to rely and wait on him.

In obedience to God’s command, King Saul had outlawed mediums in Israel. But curiosity and desperation eventually got the better of him. He felt his kingdom slipping from his grasp, and he wanted someone to calm his fears.

So he sought out a medium known as the witch of Endor and asked her to call on the spirit of the deceased Samuel. When she did, the message wasn’t quite what Saul had in mind. Saul learned that his army would suffer a humiliating defeat the next day.

Most mediums are fakes, using elaborate tricks to get people to believe they have special powers. But some really do communicate with the spiritual world. In any case, God’s prohibition on consulting mediums remains in effect. We are called to believe and trust God—and let it go at that—rather than messing around with astrology charts, tea leaves, Ouija boards, or the words of witches.

Dancing for God

2 Samuel 6:12-23

ANCIENT ISRAEL DIDN'T have the dizzying variety of religious traditions we know today, but even then, different people developed their own unique approaches to praising God. King David was the kind of person who wore his emotions on his sleeve. He didn't hide his feelings behind a stony face or bury them under complex utterances.

His expression showed how he felt, and his words were a direct line to his heart. (That's why we like his psalms so much. It's all right there on the surface—his anger and his sorrow, as well as his love and passion for God.)

David was particularly excited the day the Ark of the Covenant was returned to Jerusalem, and he showed his feelings. After offering a burnt sacrifice to God, he danced a little jig to express his joy.

His wife Michal was not impressed. She despised David for his free and easy expression of devotion. "How distinguished the king of Israel looked today," she snapped at her husband, "shamelessly exposing himself to the servant girls like any vulgar person might do!" (6:20)

David's response to his sarcastic wife was classic: "I celebrate before the LORD. Yes, and I am willing to look even more foolish than this, even to be humiliated in my own eyes!" (6:21, 22).

Perhaps all of us could learn to worship in ways that put more emphasis on what God thinks than what uptight onlookers might say.

A Deadly Affair

2 Samuel 11-12

TODAY'S MOVIES AND tabloids would have loved this political sex scandal.

King David saw a woman, Bathsheba, taking a bath and got turned on. He had her invited to the palace, where he took advantage of her. When it turned out that a baby was on the way, David had all kinds of problems to solve.

His attempts kept making matters worse. First he called the woman's husband home from the battlefield, thinking that if Uriah slept with his wife, he might think the child was his own. When after several attempts that tactic didn't work, David took another route and simply had Uriah killed. Then he married Bathsheba himself.

David paid for this debacle with family trouble for the rest of his life. As God said, “From this time on, your family will live by the sword because you have despised me by taking Uriah’s wife to be your own” (12:10).

Everyone faces temptation, but David fed his temptation. The New Testament teaches, “When you are tempted, [God] will show you a way out so that you can endure” (1 Corinthians 10:13). So why did David fall to temptation?

It seems that David’s temptation began when he was alone. He didn’t take the “way out” that God provided. He didn’t turn from gazing at Bathsheba. He didn’t think through his actions, motivations, or consequences.

Today, Bathsheba is waiting for us on the Internet, on TV, in movies, on the pages of magazines, and, it seems, just about anywhere else we might turn. Many men, in the privacy of their own offices or dens or hotel rooms on business trips, click their way toward disaster, thinking all the while that it will be harmless or that somehow their actions won’t have real consequences.

But yielding to temptation is never harmless, and consequences are ultimately severe. If we don’t promptly take the “way out” at the onset, the result can be devastating.

Too Much of a Good Thing?

1 Kings 11:1-13

MARRIAGE IS A GOOD THING—but Solomon went overboard with his 700 wives and 300 concubines. Deuteronomy 17:17 specifically says, “The king must not take many wives for himself, because they will lead him away from the LORD.” In time, his many women took his heart away from God, which led to the loss of his kingdom.

Solomon’s dalliance with the pagan gods of his harem stirred the anger of the one true God. Solomon even built shrines to foreign gods on the Mount of Olives. He added multiple shrines in his home for his foreign wives (11:7-8). In so doing, he doomed his dynasty.

His example forces the question: What do we love more than God? What captivates our senses and turns us away from seeking the Lord? Solomon certainly lived in a world of excess. He amassed wealth and pleasures beyond what most of us could even imagine. Ultimately, they turned his heart away from God.

Today, we may not collect hundreds of wives, but we have our own excesses. We live in the most prosperous consumer culture in history. We have access to everything from expensive gadgets to massive mansions that shout pride and success.

In relationships we feed one another with desire for more and more things. Even though our excesses seem less offensive than collecting wives, they can still steal our hearts away from the one God who deserves and demands our focus.

Jezebel's Juicy Plot

1 Kings 21

KING AHAB DOESN'T seem to have had the “killer instinct” much prized by some business executives. But he did have a wife who didn't hesitate to go for the jugular. When Ahab dithered about using his royal power to grab a prized piece of real estate, Jezebel took care of business for him.

In the ancient Middle East, land was an incredibly important possession. Property belonged to one family for generations. Leviticus 25 says that the land must be returned to the original owner in the year of Jubilee—even if the land was bought. That's part of why a man named Naboth loved his vineyard so much.

There was just one problem. Naboth's vineyard was right next door to King Ahab's palace in Jezreel. Like many powerful men would do in a similar situation, Ahab offered Naboth a deal: money, or an even better property in another location. But devotion to blood and land won out, and Naboth refused.

King Ahab sulked and moped until Jezebel, his crafty wife, decided to take matters into her own hands. She had Naboth framed for blasphemy and stoned to death. Then it was easy for the king to take over the land.

But before he did so, God stepped in to restore order, commanding Ahab to halt his predatory tactics. "Wasn't it enough that you killed Naboth?" asked Elijah, God's spokesman. "Must you rob him, too?" (21:19). Then God promised a bloody death for Ahab because of his evil actions.

It's good when husbands and wives want to help each other, but not down a path of wickedness, greed, and injustice. Sometimes, the much-prized "killer instinct" can be deadly.

God's Love for Widows

1 Kings 17 and 2 Kings 4

IN BIBLE TIMES, widows were especially vulnerable. Women had no resources or recourse when their husbands died. They went from being completely protected and provided for to being completely on their own, often out on the dusty roads.

Maybe that's why God took a special interest in them and asks us to do the same.

The widow of 1 Kings 17 was on the edge of starvation. But Elijah told her of God's promised provision. She apparently believed this too-good-to-be-true pronouncement, because she did what Elijah asked. As a result, she and her son enjoyed many days of sufficient food. Later on, Elijah even restored the boy's life when he died from an illness.

Second Kings 4 tells of another godly widow living on the edge financially. When the prophet Elisha told the poor woman to gather jars and fill them with olive oil, she complied, even though she had only a few drops of oil on hand. After the olive oil multiplied into many jars, the widow sold them and had money for the future.

Perhaps the evident truth in these two stories is that God cares for the most endangered in a society. Who among us today is vulnerable and in need? Modern widows often have survivor benefits from their husband's pension plans, but many don't—or they may need emotional support to help them through their grief. And what about others in the church or community who have fallen on bad times?

God is watching out for them—and watching to see if we care.

The Shame of Bloody Hands

1 Chronicles 22

WHY DO MANY GUYS like movies with bloody fights, noisy explosions, and chase scenes, while many women prefer films about romance and relationships? Why is it that most men cheer when two chunky football players collide and collapse to the ground, while most women wince and turn away?

It can be risky to generalize about the genders, but men and women seem to have different attitudes toward violence. According to this ancient story about King David, men's taste for violence even worries God at times.

David had a brilliant career as a fighter and commander. His most celebrated battle was the day he knocked off the giant Goliath. King Saul then appointed him to command Israel's army. Subsequently, David led massive battles that resulted in the deaths of thousands.

His military victories made him famous, but they also disqualified him from building God's Temple:

"You have killed many men in the battles you have fought," said God. "And since you have shed so much blood in my sight, you will not be the one to build a Temple to honor my name” (22:8).

Some people argue that the God of the Old Testament is cruel and violent, citing the many bloody battles he commissioned Israel to engage in. But in this passage, God shows his distaste for carnage and death.

A sobering thought to all who relish violence today.

men, women, & God

A Meeting of Intellectual Equals

2 Chronicles 9:1-12

EVEN AT A TIME when men ruled much of the earth, the queen of Sheba demonstrated that women were capable of ruling large lands and deserved men's respect.

The queen had power and money. Legend says she was also incredibly beautiful. But this passage focuses on her brains: "When the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame, she came to Jerusalem to test him with hard questions" (9:1). The queen had such a powerful intellectual curiosity that she made a 1500-mile trip to Israel to interrogate Solomon.

"When she met with Solomon, she talked with him about everything she had on her mind. Solomon had answers for all her questions; nothing was too hard for him to explain to her" (9:1, 2).

Solomon had more women than we can imagine to entertain him. Yet when he was with this queen, he wasn't focusing on her looks. Apparently her conversation was engaging and interesting for the wisest man on earth.

Sometimes husbands and wives can lapse into bland rhetoric, deadening the vitality of a marriage. Busyness and differing interests can lead to rote comments and responses with little real exchange of ideas.

We don't need the wisdom of Solomon or the riches of Sheba to become partners who engage one another's minds on a high and respectful level.

Two Women, Opposite Results

2 Chronicles 22:10-12

AFTER MILLENNIA of human history, we still haven't learned to avoid gender stereotypes. Some men say that all women are overly emotional and irrational. Other men say all women are calm and compassionate.

As this passage in 2 Chronicles shows, however, both stereotypes are inaccurate. While some women (just like some men) are crazy and out of control, others are paragons of virtue who help keep the world on track.

Athaliah was the mother of Ahaziah, the king of Judah. Ahaziah was one in a series of evil kings. Athaliah and others persuaded him to do wrong. As a result, God punished him, and he was killed.

When Athaliah learned that her son was dead, she lost it and set out to kill Judah's entire royal family. She wanted to eliminate all contenders for the throne. She might have succeeded in her horrible plot if it hadn't been for another woman named Jehosheba.

Jehosheba was the sister of Ahaziah, the dead king. When she learned of the enraged woman's plot, she snatched one of her little nephews away to safety. His name was Joash, who would later become king, rule for 40 years, and repair the Temple in Jerusalem.

One woman was overly emotional and violent. The other was calm and committed. Two women produced two entirely different sets of results.

Stay away from gender stereotypes. They're a sure way to prove yourself wrong!

A Woman Who Spoke for God

2 Chronicles 34:22-33

THE BIBLE SHOWCASES plenty of male prophets such as Elijah, Isaiah, Ezekiel, and Daniel. But this brief passage from the time of King Josiah describes the influence of a female prophet named Huldah. God spoke to her just as he did to male prophets, and the king took her message to heart.

Why did God speak through a woman? It wasn't a case of no males being available. Historians note that Jeremiah was certainly in active ministry at this time, and perhaps others were as well. Still, for some reason, Huldah got the king's call.

In the process of remodeling the Temple, an old scroll was uncovered. It turned out to be all or part of the book of Deuteronomy, filled with commandments from God. King Josiah had not been following many of these commandments because he had not heard all of them. He was very distressed to learn of his unwitting disobedience and sent some of his top men to investigate just how much trouble the nation might be in.

The men went to Huldah without hesitation. They didn't have a debate on her integrity or authenticity. She was known to speak prophetic words with the confidence of God-given authority.

As God had already said through the prophet Joel 200 years before Huldah's time, "I will pour out my Spirit upon all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy. . . . I will pour out my Spirit even on servants—men and women alike" (Joel 2:28, 29).

God's words are available to everyone. Men and women can both learn, discern, grow, provoke, and encourage each other in what God has to say to us today.

men, women, & God

Marriages of Convenience

Ezra 9–10

IT'S BEEN SAID that when a man marries a woman, he marries her family, too. In the case of ancient Israel, people married not only families but those families' gods.

After a terrible period of captivity in Babylon, the Jewish people returned to Palestine. One day a religious scholar named Ezra arrived. Ezra committed himself to obeying the will of God and teaching others.

That brought up the thorny topic of intermarriage. When the Jews returned to Palestine, God had commanded them to remain separate from the other people in order to maintain the purity of their devotion to God. God's desire for his people not to intermarry was not a racial or ethnic matter but a spiritual one.

But the people didn't obey. They married Egyptians, Canaanites, Hittites, Moabites, and people from other surrounding nations—and they assimilated their pagan gods. The worst offenders were Jewish rulers and priests.

As a result, Israel once again fell on hard times. Ezra was forced to his knees, where he prayed to God: "Once again we have ignored your commands! Your servants the prophets warned us that the land we would possess was totally defiled by the detestable practices of the people living there. . . . Now we are being punished because of our wickedness and our great guilt” (Ezra 9:10-11, 13).

Ezra’s prayer was heartfelt. He wept. He threw himself to the ground in front of the Temple. And in time, his honesty with God inspired others. The people gathered and confessed their sins. The leaders devised a plan to atone for the sins of marrying the pagan neighbors and adopting their gods.

God’s people promised that in the future they would take more care, knowing that when they married they were marrying into a religious culture as well as a family.

More Than Good Looks

Book of Esther

ESTHER WAS A beautiful young woman whose good looks caught the eye of King Xerxes of Persia. After Xerxes deposed his queen, he chose Esther to be her successor.

Later, Esther's older cousin Mordecai learned of a palace plot to kill all the Jews living in Persia. Esther stepped across a protocol line to ask the king for mercy, risking her life. Her bravery during a time of crisis demonstrated that in addition to outer beauty, Esther possessed considerable inner strength.

The book of Esther reads like a movie script: Young woman taken into the king's harem wins his favor because of her beauty and is transformed from innocent, powerless sex object into strategizing, powerful savior of her people.

But Esther's transformation didn't happen overnight or without internal change. When she felt weak, her cousin Mordecai challenged her: "Who can say but that you have been elevated to the palace for just such a time as this?" (4:14).

This comment must have moved her to action. In the end, her initiative and bravery made all the difference.

Change and growth are necessary parts of life. In our own day, a wife can change for seemingly unknown reasons. Husbands may be surprised, as Xerxes no doubt was, or even suspicious. They may wonder what happened to the sweet, young thing they married.

When you see changes in your wife, it's a good idea to find out what is really happening. Rather than dismissing the differences, make an effort to discover how this "new woman" may in fact have something very important to contribute.

The Argument

Job 2:9-10

THE FIRST VERSE OF JOB describes a man who was “blameless, a man of complete integrity. He feared God and stayed away from evil.” Then, without knowing the behind-the-scenes reasons, he was hit with a vicious test.

He lost everything—wealth, children, even the ability to have a close relationship with his wife. It is difficult for most of us to even imagine Job’s agony. To add to his misery, his wife taunted him: “Are you still trying to maintain your integrity? Curse God and die.” Now there’s a word of comfort!

Communication between husband and wife is key to a fruitful marriage, but poor communication can lead to disagreements that grow into arguments, resentment, and anger. Both partners feel justified in sounding off.

In all fairness to Job’s wife, her agony was unfathomable, and she undoubtedly spoke out of sheer pain and frustration. After all, she had suffered the same losses as Job. All of her children died in what seemed like a freak accident, and the wealth that Job and his family enjoyed vanished in an instant.

But while we shouldn’t be too quick to pass judgment on Job's wife, we should realize that her agony doesn't excuse her harsh words. Job's response to his wife's words was tough but fair: "You talk like a godless woman. Should we accept only good things from the hand of God and never anything bad?" (2:9).

Perhaps the most remarkable line in the whole dialogue comes at the end: "In all this, Job said nothing wrong" (2:10). He had put God first, and he had spoken firmly and truthfully to his wife. He reminded her—and us—of a spiritual truth: Just because we know and love God does not mean we will never experience trouble.

When Loved Ones Turn Away

Job 19:13-27

AS IF IT WEREN'T TERRIBLE ENOUGH that Job lost everything he had, he also had to face rejection by everyone he held dear. This passage is Job's roll call of all the people who have withdrawn physically and emotionally from him, as if his calamities were contagious. He can't find a sympathetic response from a single relative, neighbor, friend, or servant.

Even those who are left in his family despise him: "My breath is repulsive to my wife," Job laments. "I am loathsome to my own family” (19:17). He is truly alone in his agony.

One of the benefits of a good marriage is the solidarity of two people against the world. There is comfort in being fully known and fully accepted. But Job’s wife turns away.

Amazingly, Job’s response to all this rejection is to remain faithful to God. “I know that my Redeemer lives,” he says (19:25). God’s presence is so penetrating in Job’s damaged life that he can still conclude that God lives and redeems his own.

At the end of this passage, Job focuses on seeing God. He moves from feeling deserted to talking about God’s faithfulness.

How difficult it is when, in the midst of painful circumstances, those who are closest fail to offer strength and an encouraging perspective. But when no one seems to care or hear our pleas, we can still say of God, “I will see him for myself. Yes, I will see him with my own eyes. I am overwhelmed at the thought!” (19:27).

The Danger of Lust

Job 31:1-12

JOB SPENDS THE FIRST 12 verses of chapter 31 professing his innocence in the area of lust. He first mentions general desires (“if my heart has lusted for what my eyes have seen,” verse 7), then specifically talks about the lust of a man for a woman.

The concluding two verses of this passage boldly say, “For lust is a shameful sin, a crime that should be punished. It is a devastating fire that destroys to hell. It would wipe out everything I own.”

Some men try to defend their mental playground to God. After all, they reason, who does it hurt if lustful thoughts remain just that? If I take no action, what is the harm in a little sexual fantasy now and again?

But sexual lust is deceptive and powerful. It teases with delightful images that reveal none of the damage done to a relationship. When these thoughts are entertained, they draw the thinker deeper and deeper into the seductive realm of sin.

Jesus said in Matthew 5:28, “Anyone who even looks at a woman with lust in his eye has already committed adultery with her in his heart.” Harsh words! But lust is not just a matter of the mind wandering in forbidden pastures. It invades the very center of our souls.

Job’s cries are an indictment of a sin that is so accepted today it is difficult to diagnose. We need to heed his warning and make sure our thoughts are innocent.

God's Unfailing Forgiveness and Love

Psalm 51

DAVID IS BIGGER THAN LIFE—yet he's also very human. He's both a man after God's own heart and a big-time sinner. This psalm was written by David after Nathan the prophet confronted him about his sin with Bathsheba.

You remember, of course, that David not only lusted, but he followed through on his thoughts by getting Bathsheba pregnant and then having her husband killed. What a guy. When we read similar accounts of people today, “man after God's own heart” is not typically the first phrase that springs to mind.

So why do we think so highly of David even though he was so obviously imperfect? Because David is a shining example of a man who committed heinous sins and yet was forgiven and loved by God. The condition of David's heart, revealed in this Psalm, shows us how he really felt about his sin.

David made no excuses. “I recognize my shameful deeds—they haunt me day and night.” He admitted his deeds are “evil.” He knew that God wants “honesty.” He asked God to “purify” him. He brought his “broken and repentant heart” to God for forgiveness and healing.

David's relationship with God is his primary concern in this psalm. Certainly in these circumstances it would have been natural for David to focus on saving his reputation. But David knew that his first priority must be coming into the presence of God.

This does not negate the need to restore human relationships, but it puts the importance of our relationship with God before everything else. And the way we come before God matters. He wants honesty, not excuses. He demands repentance and a desire to be restored into a loving relationship with him. He cannot forgive and heal us until we come clean with him. He already knows our hearts, but he wants us to come humbly and contritely to him, open ourselves to his scrutiny, and trust in his care for us.

Pathway to Purity

Psalm 119:9-16

THIS PASSAGE STARTS OUT WITH A QUESTION: “How can a young person stay pure?”

The answers in the following verses are relevant and profitable for young and old alike. Purity isn't something you learn once and then never again have to think about. We are constantly bombarded with temptations toward impure thoughts and actions. Even the slightest slipup can infiltrate and harm our relationships.

So how can one stay pure? Look at the list of helpful guidelines in this passage:

Obey God's Word.
Follow its rules.
Hide God's Word in your heart.
Learn God's principles.
Recite his laws aloud.
Rejoice in God's decrees.
Study his commandments.
Reflect on his ways.
Delight in his principles.
Remember his Word.

Perhaps the most crucial task in the list is "reflecting." Of course we need to study and learn and memorize before we can reflect. But it's reflection that drives God's Word ever deeper into our hearts.

The tyranny of our days is busyness. We fly from one task to the next. We take in information at a rate beyond what we can absorb. So often we fail to manage life and instead allow life to simply happen to us. And along the way, impurity sneaks in.

If we really want to be the men God wants us to be, we must take time to really think about his Word, to reflect on what it means to us individually. This is not an easy task. In our busy lives, it's difficult to find time even to accomplish all of our day-to-day activities. But without taking the time to reflect on God's Word, our lives will never produce the purity God desires.

Houses and Children

Psalm 127

THIS PSALM BEGINS with the importance of a strong foundation for a family. “Unless the LORD builds a house, the work of the builders is useless” (127:1). The “house” the family lives in is the environment in which the members relate. If that environment is not built upon fellowship with the Lord, family members will suffer. If our homes are filled with strife, anger, and selfishness, all our work toward a happy, loving family will be in vain. We need God at the center of our families as well as our individual lives.

The second portion of this psalm tells us that children are a gift from the Lord. Granted, kids may not seem that way in certain moments, like when you're tense, irritated, or exhausted. But in fact, they are a marvelous creation that God has given us to bless our lives and stretch our souls.

It is interesting that this psalm speaks first about the “house” we inhabit and then the blessings of children. That’s probably intentional: First build your marriage relationship with God as the master architect, then begin to raise a family. Give your children the benefit of an atmosphere already filled with God’s love and provision.

Straight Talk about Adultery

Proverbs 5

TALK ABOUT BLUNT! This chapter definitely doesn't beat around the bush. The consequences of cheating on your wife are enough to scare any man: "You will lose your honor and hand over to merciless people everything you have achieved in life. Strangers will obtain your wealth, and someone else will enjoy the fruit of your labor. Afterward you will groan in anguish when disease consumes your body" (5:9-11).

Maybe you know guys who have strayed, and none of this happened to them. Many people today think that marriages come and go, with little damage to show for it.

But behind closed doors, adultery causes tremendous damage to a relationship. The betrayal also filters down and hurts the children of that union.

The advice in this passage to the man tempted by a woman other than his wife is simple: "Run from her!" (5:8). We are given a way to escape; don't ignore it. This is clear advice on how to get out of a bad situation before it even starts.

Is it okay to have lunch with a female coworker? What about working together on a project past quitting time? Be honest as you evaluate what is going on in your mind and heart. If temptation lurks around the corner . . . run!

Instead, go flirt with your wife. That's exactly what verses 15-19 are describing—in fairly explicit language. When you're tempted by sex outside of marriage, remember that “the LORD sees clearly what a man does, examining every path he takes” (5:21).

Safety against Seduction

Proverbs 7

SOLOMON WAS A WISE MAN who knew more than most people about wily women. He spent much of Proverbs warning about immoral, adulterous women and telling how to avoid their tricks.

In this chapter, he paints a memorable picture of what happens when a “simpleminded young man” wanders into the sights of a seductress who is hunting for a new victim to exploit. The scene resembles a nature film where the slow-moving ox is overtaken and brought down by a faster, more aggressive lion. Solomon even says the man fell for the woman “like an ox going to the slaughter.”

The fellow made a number of mistakes that led to his downfall. For one thing, he walked near the woman's house as the light of day was fading. People can sin in daylight or darkness, but sexual temptations often seem more potent under the cover of night.

The woman approached him and wrapped her arms around him as she purred her invitation. It's a spiel she had practiced many times. But to the ox-like man, her words seemed new and exciting.

"He was like a bird flying into a snare," says Solomon.

This is not to say that all women are so aggressive; nor is it a suggestion that all women should be avoided. In fact, chapter 31 of Proverbs is devoted to a beautiful portrait of the ultimate wife. But while God created our desire for the opposite sex and meant it for good in the context of marriage, that desire is powerful and can be dangerous.

As this wise man tells us, it's up to men to figure out which woman would make the best lifetime wife, lover, mother, and friend. Those who don't know how to distinguish one from the other will be vulnerable to the wiles of seduction.

men, women, & God

It's a Good Thing

Proverbs 18:22

SOLOMON SPENDS A LOT OF TIME warning us about the many serious problems men can experience when they hang around with the wrong kind of women. So it seems only fair that he discuss the other part of the equation as well: the joys and blessings that can come when a man marries the right woman.

In 15 simple words, the wise man spells out the earthly and spiritual benefits of marrying well: “The man who finds a wife finds a treasure and receives favor from the LORD.”

During certain periods in church history, marriage didn’t get the credit it deserved. Some in the church stressed self-denial and celibacy over wedded bliss. Those stern believers thought it better to avoid all pleasure, particularly the pleasures of sexual union. For centuries, some Christians taught that the Genesis account of the Garden of Eden showed that women were the sole cause of human sin—and should therefore be avoided at all costs.

In recent years, Christians have worked overtime to set the record straight. Marriage not only breaks down the isolation and loneliness that can make life miserable, but it brings a special kind of joy and fulfillment that isn’t available in any other relationship.

Marriage brings a balance to life. As Solomon says, being married to the right wife is a very good thing. A healthy marriage—with all its ups and downs—is a blessing from the Lord.

Finding the Right Wife

Proverbs 11:22; 21:19; 25:24

HOW DOES A MAN KNOW which woman might make the ideal partner? Solomon had wisdom to spare on this important topic. And even though he wrote his proverbs thousands of years ago, his advice is relevant today.

In 11:22 he says, “A woman who is beautiful but lacks discretion is like a gold ring in a pig’s snout.” The language is harsh, but the lesson is important. Physical beauty is wonderful, but outward appearances are often a poor guide to what a person is like on the inside. In this case, a lack of discretion (a term that can also be translated as “prudence,” “good judgment,” “practicality,” or “decorum”) makes a woman who is merely outwardly attractive seem piggish.

In 21:19, Solomon talks about a “crabby” and “complaining” wife. Psychiatry hasn’t been able to tell us why some people are optimists while others are pessimists, but everyone can agree that life is happier when a partner is able to see the positive side of things rather than always focusing on the negative.

Proverbs 25:24, which combines aspects of the previous two proverbs, says: “It is better to live alone in the corner of an attic than with a contentious wife in a lovely home.” In this case, an argumentative wife, even when offset by a beautiful house, makes life so miserable that it would be better to live alone.

Solomon isn’t saying that men should divorce wives who have these characteristics. Instead, he is warning those who aren’t yet married to think about long-term compatibility. When you live with the same woman for decades—which is what newly married people commit to—superficial attractions may prove insufficient in the long run.

The Ultimate Wife

Proverbs 31

IF YOU’VE EVER TRIED TO IMAGINE the ultimate wife, your fantasy may have combined the physique of a Hollywood starlet, the wealth of a successful stockbroker, and the housekeeping and cooking skills of dear old Mom.

King Lemuel, on the other hand, wasn’t prone to flights of fantasy. In this description of the ultimate wife, he paints a picture of a woman who excels at practical skills.

And surprisingly, his perfect wife is a strong, successful woman. Instead of focusing on superficial attractions that can fade over time, the writer concentrates on the unchanging, internal characteristics that make a woman virtuous and noble.

This ultimate wife is trustworthy. She helps her husband in what he does, and she enriches their married life.

She's a sharp businesswoman who works hard, knows a bargain when she sees one, and uses her many skills to make her family happy and healthy. She gets up early in the morning, works into the night, and feeds her family while negotiating complex real estate deals.

She cares for her family's physical needs, but she also cares about those outside her home, extending compassion to those less fortunate than she is.

And all the while, she has the internal character that her children and husband praise: strength, dignity, wisdom, and a sense of humor.

According to King Lemuel, the perfect wife isn't a showpiece fashion plate or a meek and timid servant. Instead, she's a strong, industrious woman who brings a touch of grace to all she does.

A Time to Embrace

Ecclesiastes 3:5

IN THE CHAOTIC 1960s, when young people were tuning in, turning on, and dropping out, a band named the Byrds produced a number one hit entitled “Turn! Turn! Turn!” The music was written by folk singer Pete Seeger, but the lyrics came straight from the third chapter of Ecclesiastes.

“To everything—turn, turn, turn,” sang the band in harmony over the strumming of 12-string guitars. “There is a season—turn, turn, turn. And a time to every purpose under heaven.”

Living and dying. Killing and healing. Grieving and dancing. Planting and harvesting. Tearing down and building up. Many of the high points and low points of human life were covered in this popular song, which brought an ancient, biblical perspective to a time of great turmoil and strife.

Among the aspects of life Solomon mentioned in his brief poem was a curious line about love. This ancient wise man said: “A time to embrace and a time to turn away.”

Solomon didn’t explain when a man and woman should embrace, or when they should refrain. But the poem indicates that life is full of surprises, and the male-female relationship has to adapt if it is to survive.

Today, the pressures of work, illness, or absence due to travel may prevent husbands and wives from physically expressing their love. But a temporary break from physical intimacy won't destroy a strong relationship so long as there is also plenty of time in the long run for the couple to embrace.

Two Are Better Than One

Ecclesiastes 4

THINGS LOOK PRETTY BAD to the writer of this passage. He looks at the world around him and declares that “most fortunate of all are those who were never born” (v. 3).

We might be able to relate to this bleak outlook. The news we see each night on our television is not hopeful. War, starvation, economic troubles—it all looks pretty grim.

This side of heaven, though, we will survive with greater joy if we are not alone. A few verses later, the writer of Ecclesiastes arrives at this conclusion: “Two people are better off than one, for they can help each other succeed. If one person falls, the other can reach out and help. But someone who falls alone is in real trouble.” (vv. 9-10).

Left to our own devices without an intimate loved one, we can quickly spiral down into self-pity. It is difficult to talk ourselves out of a down mood alone. We see life only from our own perspective.

But with a loved one we can hear comforting words and advice that lifts us. When we pity ourselves, we have someone to point out the blessings that really are present in our lives.

Some people are called to lead a single life. For them, God usually provides a close friend of the same gender to serve as a confidant and encourager, like Barnabas was to the apostle Paul. But for most of us, God's ultimate gift of partnership is marriage, and God's blessings found in marriage far outweigh going it alone.

The Beauty of Intimacy

Song of Songs 4

FOR CENTURIES, WELL-MEANING CHRISTIANS misunderstood Solomon's Song of Songs. They assumed that God disliked the human body (even though he had carefully created it in the first place), so they shied away from the obvious sexuality of this short book.

Instead, they told generations of believers that the Song of Songs was allegorical—a symbolic description of humanity's relationship with a loving God. While there are some allegorical elements to Song of Songs, its primary function is not allegorical but romantic. These well-meaning leaders failed to see the book for what it is: a beautifully written and powerfully moving book about the glories of human love and sex.

Some of the song's wording may seem a little odd to us today. Would modern women like to be told that their teeth resemble shorn sheep, or that their hair looks like a flock of goats? But there's no mistaking that Solomon's song praises his wife's physical beauty, describing her eyes, lips, cheeks, neck, and breasts. He just expresses it with metaphors from the world of Middle Eastern agriculture.

The song also shows that sexual intimacy involves time for wooing. Instead of demanding quick sex from his wife, Solomon sings to her of her beauty in ways that make her want to share her body with him. After hearing his words, she says, “Come into your garden, my love; taste its finest fruits.” (v. 16).

Marriage is about much more than sex, of course. But couples who neglect their physical relationship are demeaning one of God’s greatest gifts and subjecting their marriage to tensions that will weaken its foundations.

“You are my private garden, my treasure, my bride,” sings Solomon (v. 12). His beautiful song shows that when a man and woman faithfully and devotedly love each other, true intimacy can blossom.

Enjoying Each Other

Song of Songs 7

ISN'T IT INTERESTING that in spite of our modern culture's saturation with sex—billboards, magazines, TV shows, the Internet—it seems that few people are sexually fulfilled? They try everything from sex manuals to pornography in an effort to indulge their lusts and still come away frustrated.

Maybe it's time to give an ear to God's advice on sex. Song of Songs provides insight that has stood the test of centuries.

In this chapter, we learn an important lesson: sexual love is the outgrowth of a stable and mature relationship where a premium is placed on skills like communication and on values like reciprocity.

So much of our contemporary approach to sex is characterized by selfishness and self-centeredness. But in this powerful chapter, Solomon and his wife take time to talk to one another, sharing their thoughts about each other in ways that express both tenderness and desire.

It's been said that conversation is the best aphrodisiac, and this passage certainly bears that out.

The "young man" (Solomon) lavishes his praise on the physical charms of the "young woman" (his wife). In language that might make some pornographers blush, he lovingly describes his bride's feet, thighs, navel, neck, head, and breasts. The woman responds with an affection born out of a growing love and intimacy. "The finest fruits are at our door, new delights as well as old, which I have saved for you, my lover" (v. 13).

Though Solomon speaks to us across thousands of years, his message is fresh and clear as he demonstrates that lifelong communication and intimacy can lead to deep sexual fulfillment.

A Faithless Land

Isaiah 1:21-23

SOMETIMES GOOD THINGS can turn bad through indifference and neglect. That's what happened to the city of Jerusalem.

Once hailed as God's shining jewel, the holy city became a place of despair and spiritual poverty. Contrasting then and now, Isaiah wrote that Jerusalem, once faithful, "has become a prostitute." Once just and righteous, the city "is now filled with murderers." Jerusalem's leaders are "rebels, the companions of thieves."

What transformed the city rulers into despicable despots? The main problem was failure to do what God commanded.

There are many ways to disobey God, and the leaders of Jerusalem probably found multiple ways to provoke God's wrath. But in this passage God chose to speak through Isaiah about one offense in particular: "All of them love bribes and demand payoffs, but they refuse to defend the cause of orphans or fight for the rights of widows."

In our age, the lure of money has brought down profit-hungry corporations. Greed has tarnished politicians who have let graft and corruption cloud their vision. The love of money is not a new problem. Executives have always found the temptations of wealth hard to resist.

And while Jerusalem's leaders were holding out their hands for cash, they were turning their backs on the city's most desperate women and children, who held out their hands for a coin or a piece of bread.

Money isn't evil in itself, but combined with power, the desire for money can bring out evil desires that lurk in people's hearts. If you want to avoid the problems that plagued Jerusalem, practice a godly stewardship of your financial resources and your authority. Don't just seek to furnish your own nest, but be on the lookout for others who need your help.

Spiritual Adultery

Isaiah 57:7-8

ONE OF THE BIBLE'S recurring themes is that God looks at the hearts of men and women just as much as he looks at their actions. And we see time and time again in Scripture that God finds plenty to look at in our hearts. People harbor hidden wishes of rebellion against God. Sure, they know that God is God and that they should obey him. But at the same time, they feel deep inside that life might really be better if God were out of the picture and they could live as they please.

The prophet Isaiah made an insightful observation about the heart in this passage. Condemning the people of Israel for their worship of other gods, he compared their idolatry to prostitution. “You have committed adultery on every high mountain,” he wrote, speaking the words God gave him. “There you have worshiped idols and have been unfaithful to me. . . . You have left me and climbed into bed with these detestable gods.”

Long after Isaiah’s time, Jesus spoke about the heart as the place where sinful actions are born and grow: “Anyone who even looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart” (Matthew 5:28).

Idolatry is like spiritual lust, and both lust and idolatry are attitudes that begin in the heart. Over time, the heart begins to act out these forbidden desires. When that happens, adultery is the result. Adultery can be sexual or spiritual. In either case, the problem begins long before the actual act is ever carried out.

If you want to guard your life and keep your actions pure, begin by guarding your heart. Even though it may not seem evident today, the unexamined desires that lurk in your heart will be the cause of many actions you take tomorrow.

Parents Give Birth, God Gives Life

Jeremiah 1:4-5

ON THE OPENING PAGE OF THIS BOOK, God gave his prophet a message: “I knew you before I formed you in your mother’s womb. Before you were born I set you apart and appointed you as my prophet to the nations” (1:5).

One important message in this passage is that the creation of life is glorious and mysterious. Humans have been blessed as participants in God’s design for the furthering of the human race. We give physical birth to children—but God gives life.

This passage also informs us that God sets certain people apart for his work in the world. Jeremiah became a great prophet to the people of Israel. His work was not easy. People often didn’t want to hear his messages. But he persevered and obeyed God.

Each of us is also called by God for specific work here on earth. We may not be recipients of proclamations the way Jeremiah was, but we have other assignments to fulfill.

One of our greatest blessings is the ability to understand our callings. We can go to the Bible and read God’s words for us. We can ascertain our spiritual gifts. We can talk and pray with our spouses and bring the blending of two lives into the work that God has called us to do.

We know that some assignments are not grand or glorious. Some are difficult. Some are painstakingly slow in producing fruit. But when we endeavor to live out these callings, we find God's blessing on all aspects of our lives.

She-Camels in Heat and Lusty Stallions

Jeremiah 2:23-24 and 5:8

AUTHOR FREDERICK BUECHNER once described lust as “the craving for salt of a man who is dying of thirst.”

Jeremiah, in describing the spiritual lusts of his day, thought things were so bad he could no longer speak in human terms. Instead, he compared people to animals. “You are like a restless female camel desperately searching for a mate” (2:23). And referring to people's uncontrollable sexual appetites, he thundered, “They are well-fed, lusty stallions, each neighing for his neighbor's wife” (5:8).

God loves all his creatures, but when people act like animals, something is out of balance. Both animals and people eat, sleep, seek shelter from the elements, and reproduce through sex. But God created humans different from animals. Psalms 8:5-7 captures this difference:

You made [human beings] only a little lower than God and crowned them with glory and honor.

You gave them charge of everything you made, putting all things under their authority—the flocks and the herds and all the wild animals.

Men and women were created to be higher and holier than the beasts of the field. God designed us to transcend our animal instincts so we could be truly human and worship him with all our hearts.

Don't let your animal nature overcome your God-given glory.
Let your spiritual and sexual appetites serve your higher nature, not your lower instincts.

Faithfulness to the Unfaithful

Hosea 3

HOSEA'S MARRIAGE to the prostitute Gomer was certainly unusual, but this ancient relationship has much to teach us about a modern problem: infidelity.

God often gave unusual assignments to his servants and spokespersons, but his command to Hosea was shocking: “Go and marry a prostitute,” God told Hosea. “This will illustrate how Israel has acted like a prostitute by turning against the LORD and worshiping other gods” (1:2).

Using Hosea’s marriage as a metaphor, God threatened to cut Israel off from his love and grace because of her infidelity: “I will not love her children, for they were conceived in prostitution. Their mother is a shameless prostitute and became pregnant in a shameful way” (2:4-5).

But God, being God, once again proclaimed his undying love for his people, commanding Hosea to rescue Gomer from her shame and love her with a selfless love. “Go and love your wife again, even though she commits adultery with another lover” (3:1).

Reading Hosea’s story, should we suppose that God wants all men to marry prostitutes? Certainly not. But Hosea does show that a husband can be faithful, even to an unfaithful wife. And at times, each relationship needs such selfless love.

Equal Opportunity

Joel 2:28-29

GOD ISN'T STINGY in his gifts. Nor does he pay much attention to the recipient's status or gender.

In this powerful passage, which found its fulfillment on the day of Pentecost described in Acts 2, Joel prophesied that God's Spirit would fall on all kinds of people, regardless of their station in life.

This must have been surprising for Joel's listeners, for in Old Testament times, societies were ordered around strict codes and conventions. Sons were typically valued much more than daughters, since they could work harder and could father future generations. Older children were valued above the younger, as they could care for other children. The firstborn son was especially valued and was given a larger share of inheritance than other children. Young men were to submit to their elders in the community. And free people, who could conduct business and other affairs, were seen as more valuable than slaves, who were often little more than human property.

But as Joel announced the pending arrival of the "great and terrible day of the LORD" (2:31), he also revealed that God would overturn these ancient customs. In the future, God promised through Joel, “I will pour out my Spirit upon all people.” Different roles would be given to both sons and daughters, the old and the young, but all would receive God’s blessings and have important work to do.

In this way God showed that he does not discriminate between people as we do, particularly when it comes to distributing his graces and gifts: “In those days I will pour out my Spirit even on servants—men and women alike” (2:29).

Joel couldn’t foresee what all this would mean. But he clearly saw that in God’s coming Kingdom, everyone—both men and women, regardless of status—would have an important role to play.

men, women, & God

A Warning against Oppression

Zechariah 7:8-10

IN THIS PASSAGE, the prophet Zechariah offers some generalized instructions for how we are to treat others (“Judge fairly” [\[7:9\]](#)). But he also gives a very specific command: “Do not oppress widows, orphans, foreigners, and the poor” (7:10).

To oppress means to take advantage of, to victimize. In ancient times as well as today, it is usually the strong and powerful who oppress the weak and powerless. In some cases, oppression involves racial or socioeconomic differences. Another kind of oppression involves men and women—particularly single women, who are all too often oppressed financially or sexually.

Zechariah specifically mentions widows as victims of oppression. The equivalent social status in our time is single moms. Currently, many single mothers are desperately trying to juggle the conflicting demands of parenting and providing. Whether they are single because of divorce or the death of a spouse, such women are very often vulnerable to abuse and injustice at the hands of their employers and other authorities in their lives.

If God had spelled out every kind of moral infraction in the Bible, it would be millions of pages long. Instead, he commands us to practice general fairness and honesty in all we do. And in those cases when we have power or authority over others, we must take extra care to make sure we treat them as God wants us to.

men, women, & God

What God Thinks of Divorce

Malachi 2:13-16

THERE ARE TWO WAYS to give a command. You can take the positive approach (“Follow God”), or you can spell out things to avoid (“Flee the devil”).

In this powerful passage in the final book of the Old Testament, God uses both approaches to communicate the sacredness of marriage. First, God’s prophet Malachi says positively, “What does [God] want? Godly children from your union. So guard your heart; remain loyal to the wife of your youth” (2:15).

Next, Malachi delivers the other side: “‘For I hate divorce!’ says the LORD, the God of Israel” (2:16). God knows that real contentment comes from the deep union of two souls, the kind found only within the security of an exclusive and lifelong commitment between a man and a woman. “Didn’t the LORD make you one with your wife?” asks Malachi (2:15).

Unfortunately, most of us have seen marriages with little evidence of such oneness. Today, divorce is increasingly common among both unchurched and church people.

But just because it’s common doesn’t mean it doesn’t matter.

Divorce saddens God.

Yes, he can forgive it. If he could repeatedly absolve the nation of Israel for its many sins over many centuries, he can forgive a husband and wife who have wrecked their marriage.

But he would much rather see commitments kept, loyalty honored, and the spiritual oneness of man and woman kept sacred.

men, women, & God

Fathers (and Mothers)

Matthew 1

EVERYONE EVER BORN had a human mother and father—with three notable exceptions. Adam and Eve were created by God, and Jesus was created by God working through a woman named Mary. The rest of us have ordinary biological parents.

In the opening chapter of the New Testament, dads get a lot more credit than moms. Matthew's goal is to show us that Jesus is the long-awaited Messiah, a direct descendent of generation after generation of godly men—from Abraham the patriarch to David, the King of Israel.

Along the way, Matthew mentions 42 fathers but only five mothers. Why?

Some critics of Christianity say this passage proves that the Bible is inherently sexist, favoring men over women, who are regarded as weak and sinful. The truth, however, is very different. The Bible was written in sexist times, but biblical writers rose above these cultural biases, giving women more attention than they got elsewhere.

The women mentioned here are a colorful group. Tamar (Genesis 38) got into a messy situation bearing her fatherinlaw's twins. Rahab (Joshua 2 and 6), a prostitute from an idolatrous tribe, chose to serve God. Ruth, a foreigner from Moab, was a faithful woman who has her own book of the Bible. And Bathsheba (2 Samuel 11-12; 1 Kings 1-2) so entranced King David that he invited her to spend the night and then murdered her husband.

The women aren't the only colorful characters in the genealogy. Glance through the names of the fathers, and you'll find characters from Bible stories you know—most of them unflattering in some way. The point in this chapter isn't to judge the shortcomings of Jesus' ancestors. Rather, Matthew is showing us that God chose and prepared a specific lineage for his Son. God used ordinary men—and women—to play important roles in the divine drama.

Adultery of the Heart

Matthew 5:27-28

ONE OF THE QUESTIONS religious leaders repeatedly threw at Jesus was “What about the Jewish law?” Jesus was proclaiming the Kingdom of God. What did this new Kingdom have to do with the old regime that had ruled Israel for centuries? Was Jesus claiming that his teachings should supersede the divinely ordained laws designed to hold Jewish society together?

This question persists even today. One theory says that the Old Testament is all about law and the New Testament is all about grace. That makes it easy to think Jesus brought a happy and painless religion of love, kindness, and “being as good as you can.”

But this is a gross oversimplification, as we see from Jesus’ comments about adultery.

According to the “law vs. grace” theory, the Old Testament would condemn the sin of adultery and the New Testament would teach forgiveness. But Jesus clearly shows a different angle. Instead of focusing on the outward sin of sleeping around, Jesus turns inward and shines a bright light on the human heart, where sin is conceived and developed. He knew that men don’t do what they haven’t first imagined or fantasized.

“Anyone who even looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart,” declares Jesus. Tell that to the guys ogling the latest Sports Illustrated swimsuit issue, or the far more explicit material on video, DVD, and the Internet.

Jesus wanted his new message of grace to help clean out our sinful hearts, not give us some kind of twisted rationale to keep on sinning.

On an Ordinary Day

Matthew 8:14-15

SOME BIBLICAL MIRACLES work great in movies. The Ten Commandments portrays the plagues against Egypt and the parting of the Red Sea. Jesus of Nazareth features dramatic moments in Jesus' life, like the time he fed the 5,000 and his death and resurrection.

But here in a passage so tiny and quiet that we almost overlook it, the miraculous and the mundane collide. Soon after delivering the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus was hanging out at Peter's place. This brief passage doesn't give us many details, but it doesn't seem unreasonable to assume that Peter's small house in the town of Capernaum was more or less like any normal house today: messy, active, and noisy—especially with Jesus there, drawing crowds.

We are told that Peter's mother-in-law was laid up with a fever. Jesus touched her hand and healed her.

Physical healing is always an event to take note of, and if this were in a movie, we would expect angels to hover overhead flapping their wings while the soundtrack's violins rise in a crescendo. Instead, the woman simply got up and began cooking.

Jesus didn't need a headline event to show his power and compassion. Perhaps he wanted to show us that God loves us not only in our "religious" moments but also when we're just hanging out in the family room.

Dance of Death

Matthew 14:1-12

HOW MANY CLASSIC LOVE SONGS have described the mesmerizing sight of a woman lost in a sensual dance? Whether it's the Twist or the Tango, the sight of a dancing beauty has long captivated men's hearts.

In this dark and depressing passage, a ruler becomes so entranced by his stepdaughter's moves that he makes a fateful promise he later regrets.

Herod Antipas was a morally conflicted man. His wife Herodias used to be married to his brother. But Herod's plans to marry her had been condemned by John the Baptist, and in response, Herod had thrown the holy man in jail. Herod might have killed John, but he was fearful that the people would riot, because they believed that God had blessed him.

That all changed the night of Herod's birthday bash. There was plenty of eating, drinking, and dancing. One particular dancer captured Herod's heart: the young, lissome Salome.

Swept up with delight, Herod promised to give the girl whatever she wanted. Herodias saw this as her chance, so she whispered into the ear of her daughter, who relayed the request to Herod: "I want the head of John the Baptist on a platter." Suddenly Herod found himself in a terrible bind. If he refused his stepdaughter's request, he would be seen as going back on his word. But if he gave her what she asked, he would be responsible for the death of an innocent man. As we know from reading Matthew, Herod decided that murder was the easier road.

Two lessons emerge from this sad tale. First, be careful what you promise, particularly when your brain has been commandeered by your desires. And second, if you're vulnerable to the wiles of gyrating women, you may want to steer clear of the dance floor.

A Loophole for Flawed Lovers

Matthew 19:1-12

EVERY YEAR AT TAX TIME, some people grow anxious. The most desperate (and least ethical) come up with "creative" accounting techniques to save a few bucks, exploiting loopholes in the tax law.

Overnight, the laundry room becomes a home office. The old jalopy that hasn't run too well in years becomes a company car.

If you've ever had your income tax papers audited or been called into a government office to explain your deductions, you can understand the feelings of those who asked Jesus about divorce. Originally hoping for an easy way out, they were shocked when he reinforced the strictest demands of Jewish law.

"Moses permitted divorce only as a concession to your hard hearts," said Jesus, "but it was not what God had originally intended" (19:8).

Jesus described God's plan from the beginning of time in language that is both simple and profound. God created male and female. And when the two are united in marriage, they are no longer two, but one. In some mysterious way, marriage and sexual union turns husband and wife into a new entity that is more than the sum of its parts.

No judge can separate what God has joined together, no matter how high-priced the attorneys, how liberal the divorce laws, or how culturally acceptable it is to get a divorce, or two, or more.

Jesus' teaching on divorce zeroes in on our sinful hearts. We can look all we want for an easier interpretation, but his words stand firm.

Can men and women be forgiven for forsaking their marriage vows? Yes. But before dismantling a marriage, men and women should consider the emotional and spiritual repercussions of going against God's plan.

A Mother's Misdirected Pride

Matthew 20:20-28

A MOTHER'S LOVE can be a wonderful thing. Children who grow up confident of Mom's affection and support have a secure foundation to sustain them when life grows nasty.

Some mothers go even further, teaching their children to not only believe in themselves, but to stand up for themselves and to fight for their supposed rights.

Apparently the mother of James and John was such a woman. We don't know her name, but we know her type: always fighting for her boys, making sure they get the best life has to offer.

Although she knelt respectfully before Jesus, this hard-charging mom knew exactly what she wanted when Jesus' heavenly kingdom arrived: one son sitting on Jesus' right and the other on his left.

Jesus rebuked the mother of James and John for her inappropriate request. "You don't know what you are asking!" he exclaimed.

Then Jesus offered a challenge to the boys: Could they endure the sufferings that were about to come? “Sure,” they quickly said.

When the other disciples heard what had happened, they were indignant, perhaps because they hadn’t thought of the idea first. Seizing the opportunity to teach an important lesson, Jesus turned everybody’s ideas of entitlement upside down. The first shall be last, he told them, and the last shall be first.

They didn’t like the lesson any more than we do. But it’s the truth, whether we’re trying to get the best seats in heaven or merely scrambling up the corporate ladder.

A Kingdom More Powerful than Blood

Mark 3:31-35

FAMILY IS IMPORTANT. Your family provides you with foundational relationships that under most circumstances will last your whole life. What's more, families are the primary institution for passing morals and values on to the young. If this process fails, children grow up without clear moral guidance. But here in a difficult passage, Jesus lets us know that as important as family is, it's not the most important thing of all.

It happened on a day when Jesus and his disciples were so besieged by crowds they didn't even have time to eat. Jesus' mother and brothers approached the house, but like fans arriving late to a sold-out concert, they couldn't get inside. So they passed word through the crowd that they would like to speak to him.

When Jesus learned of their presence, he asked provocatively, "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?" Then he looked at the crowd gathered around him and declared that they—those who did God's will—were his true family members!

This is just one of many occasions in the Gospels when Jesus shattered preconceived notions rather than endorsing the status quo. Yes, family is important, and Jesus certainly recognized that. Even as he was dying on the cross, Jesus made sure his mother would be cared for (John 19:26-27). But family isn't more important than the Kingdom. As always, God has something for us that's bigger and more radical than we could imagine on our own.

Jesus Feels Our Pain

Mark 5:21-43

A FATHER'S DESPERATE LOVE for his dying daughter and a woman's chronic suffering set the stage for two of Jesus' most personal miracles.

Jairus, a leader in a local synagogue, was one of many Jewish believers attracted to Jesus. He approached Jesus in the midst of a crowd and made an appeal for his ailing daughter: "Heal her so she can live" (5:23). Jesus started to go with Jairus, but the crowds interfered, making progress difficult.

In the crowd was another person in desperate need of Jesus' healing touch: a woman who had endured a hemorrhage for 12 years. Though worn down in body, she was determined to touch Jesus' robe, believing that the mere touch of his garment would be enough to heal her.

As it turned out, she was right. She grasped Jesus' robe, and the results were immediate. Her faith in Jesus' healing power was justified—she was healed! Jesus knew immediately that power had gone out from him, and when he sought out the frightened woman, he calmed her with his gentle love. “Daughter,” he said to her, “your faith has made you well.”

Meanwhile, Jairus's heart was broken. His daughter had died during the delay. But this was not the end of the story. “Just have faith,” said Jesus. When he got to Jairus's house, he raised the little girl from the dead.

Two wonderful truths about Jesus come to light through these two miracles. The fact that he felt healing power go out of him at the woman's touch demonstrates that he was not some kind of impersonal deity who dispensed miracles like a divine vending machine. Even though he was on his way to help a dying girl, he paused to touch the life of an unclean woman who had enough faith to reach out to the Savior. And taking time to attend personally to Jairus's need even in the midst of a thronging crowd shows his desire to reach out to individuals. Jesus Christ is never too busy to pay special attention to the pain of those who call on him.

Demons and Dogs

Mark 7:24-30

JESUS' ENCOUNTER with a Gentile woman contains two important lessons that will escape us unless we temporarily abandon our 21st-century assumptions and travel back in time to the culture of Jesus' day.

The first lesson involves the woman who approached Jesus, claiming that her daughter had been possessed by an evil spirit. Many psychiatrists today, of course, would dismiss her claim as a form of silly superstition. "Didn't belief in evil spirits disappear with burning witches and dowsing for water?" they would sneer.

But unlike these, Jesus saw our world for what it truly is: a combination of physical and spiritual forces that interact in mysterious but powerful ways.

The second lesson concerns Jesus' attitude toward Gentiles and his use of the phrase "throw it to the dogs." Why did Jesus compare Gentiles (non-Jews) with dogs? Was Jesus a racist? Absolutely not! The truth is much more complicated than that.

Jesus' initial calling was to the people of Israel, not to people outside the Jewish faith. But where most Jews would have dismissed out of hand any request from a Gentile woman, Jesus had compassion on her. Instead of brushing her off, Jesus tested her faith. He didn't close the door on her request but simply waited to see if she would aggressively open the door herself.

After seeing the woman's zeal for God, he replied, "Good answer!" He didn't reject her because of her ethnic origin or her gender. He responded to her humble plea by healing her daughter of the demonic possession that had afflicted her. In the end, she got exactly what she had been seeking from a merciful Savior. Today, non-Jews all over the world have hope in this same Savior, who came first to save the Jews but died so that all who believe in him might live.

A Marriage NOT Made in Heaven

Mark 12:18-27

THE SADDUCEES WERE a tricky bunch. They knew that Jesus was familiar with the Hebrew Scriptures. And they could plainly see he was popular with the masses. How, then, could they trip him up and expose him as a fraud?

The approach they chose was one that has been popular with tricksters for thousands of years: They asked a hypothetical question that was more complicated than it seemed.

Earlier they had asked a trick question about taxes. Jesus' wise answer was as slick as the question: Give to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's. This time the Sadducees asked Jesus a question about marriage in heaven.

Today, a woman who married seven brothers in succession as each of them died would likely become the subject of a criminal investigation. In Jesus' time, however, it was standard practice for a man to marry his brother's widow as a means of providing economic security for her. But the Sadducees' query wasn't really about marriage at all. Rather, since they didn't believe in the resurrection at all, they were trying to trigger a misstep in Jesus' theology.

Jesus gave a straightforward answer to the question: "When the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage" (12:25).

This answer may disappoint people hoping to be reunited with their spouse after death. But Jesus didn't say there wouldn't be a reunion. He merely stated that our relationships in heaven would be different from relationships on earth.

Meanwhile, his main point was expressed in verse 24: "Your mistake is that you don't know the Scriptures, and you don't know the power of God." In other words, the Sadducees were two-time losers. To understand and accept the resurrection they needed a far better grasp of the Bible, and they also needed to appreciate God's omnipotence.

Giving from the Heart

Mark 12:41-44

WEALTHY BUSINESS TYCOONS receive plenty of publicity for donating truckloads of money to worthy causes. But this powerful passage makes it clear that it isn't how much we give that counts but how much it costs.

Jesus did something in the Temple that perhaps you have wished to do in church at times. He sat near the collection box and watched how much money people dropped in.

Not surprisingly, some rich people donated large amounts. Then a poor widow caught his eye. We don't know much about this woman, but we do know that for most widows in Jesus' day, survival was a daily struggle. Whereas men could generally find gainful employment under most circumstances, women, because of the patriarchal structure of society, found it nearly impossible to do so. A woman who had lost her husband had lost her primary—and in many cases only—means of financial support.

It would have been understandable for a woman like this to conserve her resources. But she gave what little she had to God, and Jesus praised her for it.

Modern-day males may look at a passage like this one and scratch their heads, particularly if they're involved in fundraising for their church or ministry. Isn't raising money hard enough without Jesus telling people that the widow's small gift was better than the rich man's big donation?

But one lesson we hear repeatedly in the Gospels is that human ways are not God's ways. God doesn't want your money nearly as much as he wants your heart.

Faithful Mary

Luke 1:26-38

HOW WOULD YOU REACT if an angel dropped by for a visit? If something like the angel Gabriel's visit to Mary happened to us, we might think we'd blundered into an episode of "The X-Files." Mary was a good girl who was minding her own business when her life—and the direction of the entire human race—was forever changed by the appearance of the angel Gabriel.

Very often when angels appear in the Bible, the people who see them are terrified. Mary was no exception. After his initial greeting, the angel Gabriel said to Mary, "Don't be afraid." But the more Mary heard, the more confusing the angel's message became. God would visit her. She would become pregnant—even though she was a virgin. And this baby would somehow be the Son of God!

Yet despite her fear and confusion, this young woman responded in a way that demonstrated her absolute faith in God: "I am the Lord's servant. May everything you have said about me come true" (1:38).

Mary's faithful response should serve as a model for all of us. Just imagine the kind of results we might see if we always responded to God's initiatives with the kind of gracious acceptance and submission that Mary exhibited.

Healing a Widow's Grief

Luke 7:11-18

THE OLD TESTAMENT makes it clear that God has a special care and concern for widows. Commands to care for widows and treat them with respect are repeatedly expressed in Jewish law and in the pronouncements of the prophets.

Jesus could have preached hundreds of sermons on caring for widows. But here he decided to express his commitment by reaching out in love to one particular widow who had lost her only son.

Part of what makes this passage so unique is that the woman apparently never even approached Jesus with a request. Rather, Jesus came upon the funeral procession as he approached the tiny village of Nain.

Life had brought this poor woman more than her share of pain and suffering. First she had lost her husband. Now her only son had died. With the men in her life gone, she was now in danger of poverty and homelessness in addition to her loneliness and grief.

Jesus could see the pain that was tearing her heart in two. “When the Lord saw her, his heart overflowed with compassion” (7:13).

He didn’t wait for her to approach him. He went straight to her and comforted her. “Don’t cry!” he said. Then he walked over to the coffin and brought her dead son back to life.

The rest of us may not be able to perform miracles like this one. But we can be mindful of the widows among us and be compassionate to them in their suffering.

Extravagant Love

Luke 7:36-50

JESUS SAID MANY CRITICAL THINGS about Pharisees, but when a Pharisee named Simon invited him to his house for a meal, Jesus accepted. There was more going on here than a simple dinner, however. Simon was trying to figure out who Jesus really was. Then, suddenly, an “immoral woman” who had no such doubts expressed her love in the most personal of ways.

Simon didn’t like it when the woman—who was possibly guilty of sexual sins—crashed his party for Jesus. Simon didn’t want her in his house.

Simon was even less impressed by the extravagant means she used to shower Jesus with her affection. She wept, letting her tears fall on his feet. She kissed his feet with her lips. And she anointed his feet with expensive perfume.

Simon was disgusted, and he thought Jesus should be disgusted, too. When Jesus wasn't, Simon concluded in his own mind that Jesus wasn't really a godly prophet. If he were, he would have known how sinful this woman was and rejected her extravagant displays.

Reading Simon's mind, Jesus explained what was happening. He used an example the Pharisee could understand—money. As he told the story about two debtors who were forgiven, Jesus let Simon know that the sinful woman so despised by the Pharisees understood more about God's grace than Simon did.

The passage doesn't tell us what happened to Simon. We can hope that he realized the error of his hasty conclusion and turned from his sin in faith. More likely, based on what we know about other Pharisees, he remained too smug and self-assured to seek Jesus' forgiveness. But the woman went away full of faith and peace.

A Woman's Need or Man's Laws?

THE RELIGIOUS LEADERS of Jesus' day tried again and again to trick him into violating Jewish law. One test involved healing on the Sabbath.

Jesus was teaching in a synagogue when his gaze fell upon a crippled woman. She had been afflicted by evil spirits for 18 years and was unable to stand up straight. Jesus knew that his enemies would condemn healing on the Sabbath as illegal "work," but he also knew how much more God cared for people than for people's misinterpretation of his laws. Jesus considered the situation—a woman's need versus the laws of men. It was no contest. "Dear woman," he said, "you are healed of your sickness!"

It was time to address the criticisms of the "indignant" synagogue leader.

Jesus acknowledged that God had commanded his people to labor for six days and to rest on the Sabbath. But by "rest," did God really mean for his people to ignore the needs of those around them? Jesus made the answer clear with a question: "Don't you untie your ox or your donkey from its stall on the Sabbath and lead it out for water?"(13:15). The synagogue leader could say nothing in response, for his answer must have been affirmative. Then Jesus asked another rhetorical question: "This dear woman, a daughter of Abraham, has been held in bondage by Satan for eighteen years. Isn't it right that she be released, even on the Sabbath?" (13:16).

The leaders were such hard-core legalists, so narrow-minded about observing God's law and their additions to it, that they turned their backs on the love and mercy at the heart of God's original commands. It was a common fallacy in Jesus' day—and one many fall into in our own time as well.

The next time you're tempted to wield God's law like a hammer, consider the simple truth Jesus revealed to the uptight religious leaders that day.

She Got What She Wanted

Luke 18:1-8

WHEN JESUS WANTED to teach his disciples about the need for constant prayer, he used a concrete example we can all understand.

A widow who had been wronged decided to set things right, so she approached a local judge with her petition. The woman was most likely part of her town's impoverished underclass, while the judge was a member of the town elite. In addition to the inequality of her social status, there was the issue of gender. The widow was less likely to receive the judge's help simply because she was a woman. It would have been easy for the judge to ignore the woman—and at first, that's exactly what he did. After all, she had no social standing, and she was a woman—therefore not entitled to a hearing by the wicked judge's standards. But the widow was determined. Day after day she returned to ask the judge for justice until at last she wore the man down.

In our day, men often have more power than women. Whether in business, politics, or the administration of churches and ministries, men occupy most of the top spots, and women make do with the rest. Some might argue that God's designed roles for men and women mandate that men wield more authority. But no one could deny that God is displeased when women are unfairly discriminated against. In Jesus' day, gender-based disparities were even more pronounced than they are now.

Jesus used some of these inequalities to illustrate the differences between humans and God. He taught that God is the Creator, and we are mere creatures. There's no equality in this relationship, but God demolishes the gulf separating us from him by giving us the gift of prayer, which we can use to plead our case before his throne.

God is not like the wicked judge in this story. Because of his great love for us, he wants us to pray and promises to answer our petitions. But he wants us to persist in our requests just like the widow persisted with the judge. This doesn't mean that God will give us whatever we want just because we keep asking him. But it does mean that he will answer our requests when we ask him for justice and wisdom.

The next time you have a request for God, think of the persistent widow, and make your case with as much energy, constancy, and determination as she employed.

A Miracle for Mom

John 2:1-12

WE FIRST MET MARY as a virgin who received some shocking news: She would give birth to the Messiah. After making that important contribution, Mary pretty much stayed in the background of the New Testament.

But in this intriguing episode, she's back at center stage. The setting is a large wedding in the town of Cana. We aren't told who the bride and groom were, but we know that Mary had been invited, as had Jesus and his disciples.

Perhaps the crowd was bigger or thirstier than expected, or perhaps the wedding budget wasn't quite big enough. Whatever the reason, at some point during the multi-day wedding celebration, the wine ran out. Running out of wine would have been an embarrassment to the groom and a violation of the guests' expectations of hospitality. To Mary, who, as a guest at the celebration, probably knew the bride and groom, this seemed like just the kind of problem her son could remedy.

But Jesus disagreed. "My time has not yet come," he said (2:4).

Yet this mother was not dissuaded from her goal in the least. She could not have known for sure what Jesus would do, but she trusted him. She told the servants to be ready to assist Jesus. “Do whatever he tells you,” she instructed them (2:5). And Jesus turned the water in six big jars into wine.

Because of this miracle, John tells us, Jesus’ disciples believed in his true identity, perhaps for the first time. Would Jesus have done this if his mother hadn’t asked him? We don’t know for sure. But her influence certainly seems to have been at least one factor in Jesus’ decision to turn the water into wine. A mother’s persuasion can be a wonderful thing—particularly when her goal is to glorify God.

A Bottomless Well

John 4:1-34

THE SAMARITAN WOMAN didn’t expect anything out of the ordinary during her customary daily visit to the ancient well that served her family and animals. But when she met Jesus there, her whole life changed.

The well near Sychar had been in use for centuries—ever since the time of the Hebrew patriarch Jacob. Jesus stopped there this day for the most basic of reasons: He was tired and thirsty and wanted a drink.

When the woman approached the well, the expected reaction by a Jewish man would be to turn away and refuse to interact with her or even look at her. She was a Samaritan, a race hated by Jews because of their “half-breed” status and idol worship, and, as if that weren’t enough, it was against social norms for men and women to converse in public. But Jesus knew this was a golden opportunity for ministry. Instead of turning away, he asked her for a drink. The woman was astonished to have a man—a Jewish man—speak to her, but as their conversation developed, Jesus showed her that God’s love is greater than any human barrier, tradition, or prohibition.

Jesus explained to the woman that God’s Spirit is like living water and that anyone who drinks of it will never be thirsty again. He did not ignore or discount her checkered sexual history—but rather than crunching her into the dirt, he confronted her sins in a way that made her want to seek God’s forgiveness.

When the disciples found Jesus talking to the woman, they too were surprised. They needed to realize, as we all do, that neither gender, ethnicity, nor a sinful past can stand in the way of God’s grace.

Sins as Scarlet

John 8:1-11

IN NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE'S The Scarlet Letter, the adulteress Hester was required to wear a red letter A on her clothing to let fellow townspeople know of her sin and shame. But in this scene, the public condemnation for adultery went far beyond a small letter A.

You've got to hand it to the Pharisees. They were tough on sin. At least, they were tough on sins committed by others.

In this case, the target was a woman who had been caught in the act of adultery. The Pharisees brought the woman before Jesus and demanded that the penalty dictated by the Jewish law—death by stoning—be carried out.

The stage was set for another showdown in the ongoing series of encounters between Jesus and the religious leaders of his day. As usual, Jesus rose to the challenge, telling the Pharisees they could go ahead and stone the woman. But there was a catch: Jesus said the first stones should be thrown by those among the woman's accusers who had never sinned.

Talk about spoiling the party! All the righteous indignation and mob emotion that had been growing to a fever pitch was punctured by one simple statement. The Pharisees slunk away without casting a single stone.

Now that the woman's accusers had been dealt with, Jesus turned to the woman herself, who probably still wore the look of one facing execution. He was well aware of her sins. But he looked beyond her actions to her heart, which was hungry for salvation. He forgave the woman, commanding her to sin no more.

In our day, sexual sins continue to arouse the anger of men concerned about righteousness and obedience to God's law. It is important for us to be constantly on the lookout for sin in our own hearts, and we should gently point out sins that are evident in the lives of others. But in pursuing righteousness, we also need to remember grace and forgiveness, lest we wind up as self-deceived as the Pharisees.

A Family Blessing

John 11:1-44

WHEN JESUS BEGAN his public ministry at about age 30, he left the security of home for the uncertainties of life on the road. But during his itinerant ministry, there was one place he treasured: the little house in the village of Bethany that Martha, Mary, and Lazarus shared.

The three were siblings, and the closeness between them and Jesus was made plain when Lazarus died.

The two sisters had sent a message to Jesus that Lazarus was sick; but by the time Jesus arrived, Lazarus had died, and his sisters were mourning his death. They rushed out to meet him and expressed their frustration that he hadn't come earlier.

When Jesus saw how sad the sisters and the other mourners were, “a deep anger welled up within him, and he was deeply troubled” (11:33). Jesus must have been saddened not only by the grief all around him but also by the lack of faith he saw in those who claimed to believe in him. Even so, he knew that Lazarus's death was an opportunity to demonstrate his power over death and give the people yet another reason to believe in him.

Of all the nasty names his critics hurled at him, no one ever said Jesus was an “insensitive male.” He truly understood and related to people's deepest feelings. And more important, he understood people's deepest need—forgiveness of sin. Raising Lazarus was a mere taste of the glorious event that would occur only a few days later, when Jesus would himself rise from the grave after dying for the sins of the entire world.

A Son and a Mother

John 19:23-27

JESUS HAD MUCH ON HIS MIND as he hung dying on the cross. The pain was killing him—literally. He no doubt yearned to rejoin his heavenly Father. He knew that his job on earth was finished; he had accomplished everything his heavenly Father had ordained. Yet he was also aware of his disciples' shock. He was probably still stung with grief over Peter's denial and Judas's betrayal. Only God knows everything that went through his mind.

But one topic is clearly recorded. As Jesus looked down from the cross, he saw the need to do something about his grieving mother.

Referring to John, his beloved disciple, he said to his mother, "Dear woman, here is your son." He then made a similar statement to John: "Here is your mother." (Bible scholars assume that Mary's husband, Joseph, must have passed away by this time, and thus she needed assistance.)

Early in his ministry (Mark 3:31-35), Jesus had said his true family members were "anyone who does God's will." But here, near the end of his earthly life, his love and concern for his birth mother are apparent as well.

Sometimes, men get so enmeshed in the important work they are doing that they neglect their commitments to their loved ones. If anyone could have claimed that his ministry was the top priority, it would have been Jesus. But even in the middle of his most important act of ministry, even while enduring unspeakable physical and spiritual agony, Jesus cared enough about his mother to ensure that she would not be left vulnerable and alone. He charged his closest disciple with her care. May we, too, remember to care for our loved ones even while we carry out the other work God has given us to do.

A Crooked Partnership

Acts 5:1-11

HUSBANDS AND WIVES often disagree over money matters, so it's usually encouraging to see couples thinking alike on a financial plan. But in this shocking case from the earliest days of the Christian church, a man and wife who conspired to cheat God paid the ultimate price.

The church in the book of Acts was a radical group of Christians who were totally sold out to God. They were so committed to the community that they even pooled their financial resources into one big fund.

Ananias and his wife, Sapphira, were members of the church, and they agreed with this idea—at least publicly. But in private, their priorities were much different. As others in the church had done, they sold a piece of real estate and gave the proceeds to the apostles for distribution within the church. But instead of turning in the entire sum to the fellowship, the couple kept a portion for themselves while publicly claiming to have given the whole amount.

Peter, with the help of the Holy Spirit, spotted their dishonesty. When he saw Ananias, he confronted him with the truth. “You weren’t lying to us but to God!” he said (5:4). Within seconds, Ananias fell dead!

A few hours later, Sapphira showed up. When Peter questioned her, she kept up the ruse she and her husband had agreed upon. Peter charged her with “conspiring” with her husband against God, and Sapphira, too, died on the spot (5:9-10).

It’s good to see couples working together, but husbands and wives need to collaborate for good purposes, not evil ends. When they serve God together, their union is blessed. But when they conspire together in sin, their evil is multiplied.

A Movement for Everyone

Acts 18:1-3, 24-26; 21:8-9

IN THE EARLIEST DAYS of the Christian church, the body of Christ wasn’t governed by bureaucratic agencies in faraway cities. God-fearing people rolled up their sleeves and got to work.

Even more important, everyone’s contributions were accepted. It didn’t matter whether one was a Jew or Gentile, male or female. All that mattered was love for Jesus and a willingness to serve him with the whole heart.

One important couple who served the church in its formative days was Aquila and Priscilla. They were Jews who shared Paul's faith in God as well as his trade (they were tentmakers, or leatherworkers). Introduced here in Acts, they continue to pop up throughout the New Testament (see Romans 16:3, 1 Corinthians 16:19, and 2 Timothy 4:19).

Though Paul was single and taught that celibacy could be for some a better state for serving God than marriage, Aquila and Priscilla showed that it was possible to be married and to faithfully serve Christ at the same time. In their dedication to the cause of the gospel, this couple played a crucial role in tutoring a brilliant speaker named Apollos, and their home was used as a gathering place for believers. Interestingly, Priscilla's name is listed before her husband's four out of the six times the couple is mentioned, perhaps because of her integrity, character, or leadership role in the church.

And in Acts 21 we meet four young daughters of Philip the Evangelist. We know nothing about these young women except that they had "the gift of prophecy."

The early Christians understood that everyone who had received spiritual gifts was to use them in the service of the church. It did not matter if the person was male or female, married or single. Regardless of gender, social status, or occupation, all believers were expected to exercise their gifts to the glory of God.

Serving the Creature or the Creator?

Romans 1:18-32

PAUL BEGAN HIS AMAZING LETTER to the church in Rome by summarizing Christian theology in broad, bold strokes. Reduced to its simplest expression, the message of chapter 1 is this: God is God, and you're not. So worship God instead of yourself.

People who refuse to worship God lose their senses, Paul wrote, becoming foolish and confused. One of the ways this foolishness shows is in the area of sexuality. Specifically, Paul pointed out the sin of homosexual behavior, where women turn “against the natural way” by pursuing other women, and men do “shameful things with other men” (1:26, 27).

The problem begins with lust, something that Jesus condemned in Matthew 5 by equating it with adultery. Runaway sexual desire can combine with confusion and foolishness to produce homosexual sin. Uncontrolled sin becomes a tidal wave that washes over everything in its path, destroying God's moral boundaries.

In the last five verses of this opening chapter of Romans, Paul made it clear that God isn't concerned only with sexual sin. Once people give up on following God's will, they will be targets for all kinds of other sins: greed, hate, envy, murder, quarreling, and so on. In other words, there are many ways to sin. But all sins, including the sin of homosexual activity, have one thing in common: the choice to ignore God's ways and make up our own rules as we go along.

A Roman Roll Call

Romans 16:1-23

ROMANS IS OFTEN VIEWED as Paul's most powerful theological essay. But this document was originally a letter to the Christian community in Rome, and Paul spends the last chapter sending personal greetings. Many of the people Paul mentions are women.

First there's Phoebe, who is described as a deacon. Phoebe evidently made a name for herself by connecting wealthy donors with people like Paul, who needed financial support for his many lengthy missionary journeys.

Next come Priscilla and Aquila. As in Acts 18:26, the wife's name is listed first. This couple "risked their lives" for Paul, and he was thankful for their dedication.

Paul also greets a woman named Mary, followed by Junia, who Paul says is “highly respected among the apostles,” along with a man named Andronicus.

On and on Paul goes, thanking women such as Tryphena, Tryphosa, Persis, the mother of Rufus, then Julia, and the unnamed sister of Nereus.

What’s interesting about Paul’s Roman roll call is that it shows how important women were in the life of the early church. At a time when men dominated culture, and most institutions observed strict gender roles, the church welcomed women’s gifts.

Sex and the Sanctuary

1 Corinthians 5

CORINTH WAS A COSMOPOLITAN CITY known for its high finances and low morals—a tough place to be a faithful Christian. There were sexual problems even within the community of believers. “I am told that a man in your church is living in sin with his stepmother,” wrote Paul, confronting the sin of incest and adultery (5:1).

He challenged the Corinthians to practice church discipline by gathering to “throw this man out” of the fellowship (5:5). This may seem harsh and judgmental, but Paul said it was necessary to address flagrant sin in the church.

In our time, most churches hesitate to be this tough on their members. We’d rather launch public campaigns to curb society’s seemingly endless appetite for sexual sin. But, interestingly, Paul said sinful behavior is par for the course with unbelievers. “It isn’t my responsibility to judge outsiders,” he said (5:12). Meanwhile, the entire church should judge those within its midst who persist in blatant sin. “Don’t even eat with such people,” said Paul (5:11).

Paul’s goal was important: to preserve the purity of the church in a dark world. Even with such measures no church will be perfect. But with appropriate discipline, sin won't flourish as it did in Corinth.

Hitting Below the Belt

1 Corinthians 6:9-20

SOME CRITICS SAY that Christians are preoccupied with below-the-belt issues: promiscuity, homosexuality, abortion. In this powerful chapter, Paul explains that sexual sins involving the body are directly related to spiritual issues involving the soul.

The Corinthians seemed to hold a confused concept of spiritual freedom. They claimed that what they did with the physical body didn't really hurt the immortal soul. It's an intriguing argument—at least superficially. But Paul didn't buy it.

Paul compared people's hunger for sex with their hunger for food, arguing that those who are slaves to food misunderstand the purpose of the stomach. Those who are slaves to sex are equally confused.

When Paul talked about prostitutes, every citizen of Corinth understood. His main point, however, was something they may not have heard before. When you join yourself with a prostitute, the apostle explained, you make yourself one with her, thus sinning against the body, which is the “temple of the Holy Spirit” (6:19). In other words, what you do with your body does influence your soul. The two are related; physical sin corrupts the spiritual being.

Sexual sin matters. It's not that believers are sexually uptight. It's merely that we care about our souls and are well aware of the powerful impact sin has on both our physical and spiritual lives.

Duties to Spouse and to God

1 Corinthians 7

BEFORE A MAN AND A WOMAN SAY, “I do,” have they soberly assessed the requirements of marriage? For the apostle Paul, the wedding vow was more than a mere human commitment. It involved commitments to God.

In writing about marriage, Paul wanted to make sure husbands and wives understood what they were promising. He addressed a variety of issues, in some cases offering his own opinion, and in others articulating commands that came directly from God. Among his conclusions:

1. Marriage isn't about self-fulfillment; it's about sacrifice and service (7:3-5). In sex or in other matters, don't think about what you need; instead, let your spouse's needs take precedence.

2. Singleness is okay (7:1, 7-8). Paul preferred celibacy to marriage, and considered singleness a better state for serving God. Today some people see singleness as a curse, but Paul saw it as a potential blessing.

3. Commitment is important (7:10-16). If you've said, "I do," don't try switching to "I don't." Honor your vows by sticking with your spouse.

4. Consider the times and the seasons (7:17-38). In light of everything going on in the world as well as in your personal ministry as a Christian, does marriage actually make sense? Paul, though unmarried himself, knew that marriage tends to take away believers' already limited time to serve the Lord in the days leading up to his return. Marriage requires that spouses spend a significant amount of time and energy on each other. As a result, Paul counseled against getting married so that single men and women could spend all their time and energy serving God. If you are single today, twenty centuries after Paul penned this letter, the question of whether marriage is for you is still worth considering.

Paul's ultimate message to lovebirds is this: Marriage is serious. Don't take it lightly.

What to Wear on Sunday

1 Corinthians 11:3-16

THIS PASSAGE PUZZLES a lot of readers, both male and female. In order to properly understand Paul's instructions regarding public worship, we need to jump back to the Middle Eastern culture where Christianity was born. That culture had very strict guidelines about how men and women were to relate to each other. In some Jewish circles, a woman who appeared in public without her veil was a disgrace to her family and to herself. Such inappropriate behavior was seen as a reasonable cause for her husband to divorce her.

The Corinthian culture was far less structured. So Paul addressed gender-based questions about what was appropriate and what was not.

His instructions for women concerning head coverings and hair length are primarily cultural in nature, but they also raise important issues about male-female distinctions. It was important for women to show proper respect for their husbands and for God. Paul's central argument was that though men and women are dependent on one another (11:11-12), God created them differently and gave men a kind of spiritual preeminence (11:7-8).

What are we to make of these comments? We cannot just toss this passage out of the New Testament. Various Christian groups have come to various understandings—in many cases after heated discussions.

At the very least, we can affirm that there are important, God-given differences between men and women that should be honored. We can agree that Christians should respect some cultural conventions so as not to cause scandal. And we can take note of an important fact underlying Paul's instructions: women were allowed to pray or prophesy in the church just as men were (11:5). Our common ability to approach the throne of God is a privilege for which men and women alike should be grateful.

men, women, & God

Unholy Alliances

2 Corinthians 6:14-18

EVERY MILITARY COMMANDER knows the consequences that can arise from becoming too friendly with the enemy during times of war. In this important passage, Paul warned against fraternizing with the enemy in the war between good and evil.

“Don’t team up with those who are unbelievers,” he wrote (6:14). Many older Bible translations speak against being “unequally yoked”—a rendering most often applied to choosing a marriage partner. Paul’s words could also be applied to business partnerships and other relationships.

However, Paul didn’t mean that Christians should avoid all contact with unbelievers. For example, he says in 1 Corinthians 5:10 that it would be impossible to stay away from people who engage in sexual sin: “You would have to leave this world to avoid people like that.” What Paul is warning against is forming intimate alliances with people who do not share our love for Christ and our desire to serve God with our lives.

Whether in marriage or in business, there will be challenges enough without trying to navigate with a partner who has opposing views on good and evil—or whether there’s even such a thing as “good” or “evil.”

The Bible clearly commands us to love all people, just as God does. But it is imperative to avoid teaming up with those who oppose our most deeply cherished values.

men, women, & God

Outside the Boxes

JESUS OFFERS HUMANITY more than personal salvation. He came to usher in a new spiritual reality that would transform everything it touched. Paul gives us an inkling about this new reality in his letter to the Galatians.

In one of the most powerful passages in the New Testament, Paul wrote that all of us who have come to God through faith in Christ Jesus are “no longer Jew or Gentile, slave or free, male and female” (3:28).

We live at a time of quickly vanishing divisions between the sexes, yet tension between different races and between people of different faiths persists. The divisions of Paul’s day were in many cases even more extreme than they are today. The apostle wasn’t blind to the strife that existed all around him.

Instead, he looked beyond the culture to see the spiritual reality Christ had instituted with his death and resurrection. This new reality meant that we are first and foremost children of God. Every other identity we may hold pales in comparison to this transforming fact.

Yet in spite of the new reality in Christ, old divisions remain.

The Christians of Paul's day who lived as slaves could not deny that their lives were different from those of free citizens. Today, social and occupational divisions exist between genders, races, and nations. What should our response be to situations where women or minorities are being treated unjustly? What do we say to a culture that tends to accentuate differences and idolize individuality? Should we just shrug our shoulders and say, "Oh, well"? Certainly not! Instead, we should embrace the power of God's new spiritual reality that makes us all equal in his sight.

You Are Not Your Own

Ephesians 5:21-33

MARRIAGE INVOLVES HUNDREDS of small sacrifices. It interrupts your time and privacy. It means tolerating your spouse's imperfections. It includes giving up your own preferences so you and your partner can make choices together. It may even threaten your control of the television remote!

But what if you were told that these sacrifices didn't even begin to explain your role in marriage? Suppose someone said that the real prerequisite to success as a couple is crucifixion—giving up your very life for your spouse.

That's precisely what Paul conveys in this famous passage about the role of mutual submission in marriage. If your summary of marriage is enjoying plenty of home-cooked meals, getting a back rub whenever you want, and having a companion who will constantly cheer you on and even laugh at your miserable jokes, it's time for a reality check.

According to Paul, your primary role in your marriage is to give up your life for your wife. Explaining the instruction to “submit to one another” (5:21), he writes, “For husbands, this means love your wives, just as Christ loved the church. He gave up his life for her” (5:25). Does this sound like a demanding and all-consuming task? It is. But the best part is that your wife isn’t the only person in your relationship who will benefit from your sacrifice. Paul elaborated, “A man who loves his wife actually shows love for himself” (5:28).

Paul asked wives to make big sacrifices, too. But your task as a husband is not to evaluate how well your wife is living up to her end of the bargain. In fact, there’s no bargaining about it. Your responsibility is as simple as it is profound: Just as Christ gave his life for his bride, the church, you are called to lay down your life for your wife.

The Full Life

Ephesians 5:3-20

EVER SINCE GOD gave the Ten Commandments, some have been tempted to think he enjoys making people miserable and taking away their happiness by denying them earthly pleasures.

The truth is, God wants to give us something much better. But in order for us to receive it, we need to clear some room in our lives. Often, that means getting rid of sins or bad habits that are using up the space God wants to claim. Instead of filling our lives with sexual immorality, impurity, greed, and obscene stories (5:3-4), God wants us to be full of thankfulness. Instead of drunkenness (5:18), God wants us to be filled with the Holy Spirit.

Suppose you're walking along the beach and find an old treasure chest. But when you pry it open, it's full of sand, not gold coins. Now suppose someone else comes along and offers to give you as much gold as you can fit into the chest. Sounds great, right? Except for one problem: The chest is already full. In order to accept the gold, you'd have to dump out the sand. You'd need to make as much room as possible for the more valuable treasure. Unless you get rid of the sand, the chest will never hold anything of value.

The same goes for the sins in our lives—the sand in the treasure chest. They may provide temporary pleasure, but they won't deliver lasting fulfillment. Sexual promiscuity may provide an immediate thrill, but the long-term results are catastrophic—it will never provide real happiness. On the other hand, true love for another person and for God can fill us up to overflowing. Drunkenness provides a temporary giddiness or forgetfulness, but it's nothing like the true peace and joy that can come by knowing and loving God.

It's our choice. We can fill up our lives with whatever silly or sinful things we choose, or we can let God fill us up with the things that will bring ultimate fulfillment.

Men, Women, and Worship

1 Timothy 2:8-15

THINGS WEREN'T ALWAYS HAPPY for Timothy and the church he pastored in Ephesus. Here Paul lends him a hand by providing some wisdom and guidance for recurring problems.

Both men and women have problems that can interfere with their ability to worship. Paul instructs men who have indulged in anger and controversy to “pray with holy hands lifted up,” indicating a posture of love and submission. Women who have become preoccupied with their external appearance are told to dress more modestly.

When it comes to relations between women and men, Paul returns to the “preeminence” argument he made in 1 Corinthians 11. Apparently the women in Ephesus were causing problems not only with their dress but also with their behavior. Paul’s remedy was clear: Women should “listen quietly” to church teaching rather than trying to wield authority over men.

Many in the church today are divided over these instructions. Are these guidelines meant for all churches in all times, or only for the Ephesian context? Whatever your view, the overriding tone of this passage is that worship is supposed to be free of gender-based tension and distraction; we gather to focus on God alone.

The Not-So-Private Lives of Elders

1 Timothy 3:1-13

WHAT DOES IT TAKE to be a leader in God's church? How demanding should the expectations be?

Paul starts off his list of qualifications with a sobering requirement: "An elder must be a man whose life is above reproach " (3:2). He then goes straight to a person's private home and family life.

Paul's ideal elder sounds like the kind of person we would all like to know: self-controlled and wise, hospitable, not prone to drunkenness or fights. He is faithful to his wife; his children are respectful and well-mannered. He is gentle, not quarrelsome, and not caught up in greed and materialism.

In fact, many of Paul's requirements don't seem to have anything to do with how elders might run the business of the church. They have everything to do with how they run their households and their lives. Paul explains why such things matter: "If a man cannot manage his own household, how can he take care of God's church?" (3:5).

Apparently, there's no place for playacting in church leadership. This work belongs to people of integrity who have already passed life's most demanding test, the one closest to home.

men, women, & God

Widows Revisited

1 Timothy 5:1-16

THROUGHOUT THE OLD TESTAMENT, God often sized up a society by the way it treated widows. A king may have thought he had a strong army and a growing economy. But if his kingdom didn't protect its neediest and most vulnerable citizens, God gave it a failing grade.

The same holds true in the church today.

The first line of support for widows is their own family. But in cases where widows have no family members to care for them, or where families refuse to do so, the church must step in and provide.

Paul also tells Timothy to treat older men with consideration. "Appeal to him respectfully as you would to your own father" (5:1).

This passage makes some important points for our day. Age is to be respected. Older people don't always know better than young people, but they often do. Their accumulated wisdom can and should play an important role in the life of the church—if we will listen to what they have to say.

The church isn't some kind of otherworldly group. It is a community made up of real people that must make its spiritual values concrete in the real world. Caring for widows is one test of this commitment.

Getting Down to Practicality

Titus 2:1-8

PAUL'S SHORT LETTER TO TITUS, who pastored a church on the island of Crete, outlines the demands the gospel places on believers in various stages of life. The apostle is concerned that people live out what they've heard in church. He also cares about how the new Christian movement appears to outsiders in a religiously diverse culture.

Thus he instructs:

The older men are to be known for sound faith, love, patience and self-control. This will make them “worthy of respect,” Paul says.

The older women should likewise “live in a way that honors God” (2:3). Coarse talk and heavy drinking are out of the question. Rather, they should focus on teaching the younger women, giving them lessons in life that come from experience.

The young men (including Titus) are to live lives of integrity, seriousness, and wisdom. “Teach the truth so that your teaching can’t be criticized ” (2:8).

Paul's bottom line is to show that Christianity is not just some ethereal philosophy of the mind. It is a practical, personal faith that requires a difference in how we live our lives—regardless of age.

men, women, & God

Honor One Another

1 Peter 3:1-7

SOME MEN RELISH the first six verses of this passage. They cheer when Peter tells wives to behave respectfully toward their husbands.

The most important verse for male readers, however, is number 7. Here the apostle calls on men to treat their wives with honor and understanding. “Treat her as you should,” Peter says, “so your prayers will not be hindered.”

Of all the reasons given by Bible teachers and writers these days for unanswered prayer, this one doesn’t get much airtime. But there it is in black and white: Mistreating your wife can short out your heavenly connection.

Some women may not like Peter calling them “weaker.” Perhaps the burly fisherman was thinking only about who would struggle more to pull a dripping net full of fish out of the Sea of Galilee. But in the very same sentence he also declares that a wife is an “equal partner” in the Christian life, which was a radical statement of spiritual equality for Peter’s day and age.

So both spouses have food for thought in this section. Both may need to adjust their habits. God wants us both to submit to his direction, whether it's culturally "in" or not.

men, women, & God

Insiders and Outsiders

Revelation 21:5-8 and 22:14-15

THE BIBLE IS A BIG BOOK that covers everything from the beginning of the cosmos to the final scenes of heaven. It presents the drama of God's love for humanity and his efforts to redeem us.

But the men and women in the story don't always cooperate with God's grand plans. In an opening scene, Adam and Eve get dismissed from paradise in the Garden of Eden. Here in the closing scene, some men and women are found wanting when it comes time for God's final judgment.

An angel is taking John on a guided tour. The apostle sees the river of life that flows through the center of heaven, a place illuminated by the light of God and accompanied by the sounds of saints praising him.

Meanwhile, there's a group of people who don't get to enjoy heaven's glories. These are the "dogs," or opponents of God "who love to live a lie" (22:15). Among these outcasts are sorcerers, murderers, idol worshipers—and the sexually immoral.

Can a little extracurricular sex keep you out of heaven? Surely not, the modern mind would say. People who've "only" slept around a little shouldn't be lumped in with murderers and idolaters. But God has placed a premium on sexual faithfulness from the beginning of human history.

To us, immorality may seem like a lightweight sin. To God, on the other hand, any sin has the capacity to corrupt our souls and pollute God's creation.

Genesis 2:15–3:24

COMING IN

FIRST

The Bible fingers Adam as the one responsible for bringing sin and chaos into the world.

MOST OF THE TIME, it's good to come in first.

It feels great when you're the first with a creative solution to a tough problem.

It feels great when you're the first to taste some fabulous new dish.

It feels great when you're the first to explore new territory, to harvest a unique plant, to watch a sunset from a breathtakingly beautiful perch.

Adam, the first human being ever to open his eyes, experienced all of these firsts, as well as countless more. As the original representative of a new race, Adam became the first to hold a steady job (Genesis 2:15), to play the name game (2:19-20), to enjoy a dynamic relationship with God (2:15ff), and to get married (2:21-25). God had created Adam to reflect something of his own divine magnificence (1:26-27), and as a result, this first man and his wife enjoyed a unique role as rulers over every other creature living on earth (1:26). Had the Guinness Book of World Records existed in Adam's day, he would have filled it with a dazzling multitude of exploits.

Too bad he didn't stop while he was ahead.

Most of us would like to forget the one first for which Adam is most remembered. But we can't, since the results of that first continue to harass us to this day. Adam chose to disobey the explicit instructions of God—and as a consequence, he earned himself and his posterity the death penalty (2:16-17; 3:17-19).

While the Bible fingers Adam as the one responsible for bringing sin and chaos into the world, some guys would rather blame Eve, Adam's wife, who did in fact break God's command before her husband did. They wonder, Why does the Bible lay the fault squarely at Adam's feet? Scripture offers two primary answers: First, God gave his commandment directly to Adam, not to Eve; and second, while a devilish deception hoodwinked Eve into disobedience, Adam consciously and willingly decided to disobey (1 Timothy 2:14). For this reason, the apostle Paul says, "When Adam sinned, sin entered the world. Adam's sin brought death, so death spread to everyone, for everyone sinned" (Romans 5:12).

We'll never know what might have happened had Adam chosen God over sin. In the end, Adam returned to the ground from which he was taken after his death at a whopping 930 years of age (3:19; 5:5).

And yet, was it really "the end"? No. The Bible is nothing if not a book of hope, and it tells us of a "last Adam," Jesus Christ, who through a first of his own has undone for us what Adam did to us: "Just as everyone dies because we all belong to Adam, everyone who belongs to Christ will be given new life” (1 Corinthians 15:22). As “the first to rise from the dead,” Christ proclaims “light to Jews and Gentiles alike” (Acts 26:23)—a light that allows us, through faith in him, to enter a kind of life superior even to that which Adam forfeited so long ago.

TROUBLE IN

PARADISE

Cain hoped to impress God, but discovered that God cannot be bought.

A JOKE PRINTED in the St. Louis Pennant back in 1840 serves as the first known record of a phrase still in use today.

“Why have we every reason to believe that Adam and Eve were both rowdies?” asked the editors.

“Because . . . they both raised Cain.”

Today the phrase “raise Cain” means to cause a lot of trouble—as the biblical Cain surely did. This first human baby, the eldest child of Adam and Eve, grew up to become the world's first cold-blooded murderer (Genesis 4:1-8).

What drove Cain to kill his younger brother, Abel? Uncontrolled anger. And what caused his anger? The Bible gives a surprising answer: religion.

Scripture tells us that while Cain raised crops, his brother managed livestock. At some point both men wanted to offer the results of their labor as a sacrifice to God. But while God accepted Abel's offering, he rejected Cain's—an event that led directly to the world's first homicide.

Why did God reject Cain's sacrifice? Apparently it had little to do with the actual items offered. Rather, it came down to the watershed issue that always separates true religion from its deadly counterfeit: faith in God versus confidence in self. The book of Hebrews tells us that Abel offered a better sacrifice than Cain "by faith" (Hebrews 11:4). His genuine faith prompted him to give to God not second-rate leftovers but the very first and best of his flocks (Genesis 4:4). Cain, meanwhile, hoped to impress God and to earn divine favor with his own gifts, but discovered that God cannot be bought. The divine rejection made him so angry that he took out his rage on his brother, then lied about his crime (4:8-9).

Manmade religion—that is, trying to impress God by what we have done—always ends in disaster. We all have a choice when God warns us against trying to impress him with our puny efforts. Will we listen to him, trust him instead of trying to wow him, and do things his way? Or will we insist on our own plans, get angry when they don't work, blame God for our failures, and then strike out at others?

Make no mistake: We face this choice every day. The New Testament writer Jude warned his readers against following “in the footsteps of Cain” (Jude 1:11). He meant that we always face the temptation of choosing self-aggrandizing effort over genuine faith. Every one of us must repeatedly make scores of decisions about whether to trust God and follow his instructions, or depend on ourselves and our ability to get God to stand and applaud.

Some time before Cain struck down his brother, God advised him to do what was right and warned him that he stood in a precarious place. Cain ignored the warning and wound up a murderer. If we ignore similar warnings, do we really think we'll wind up any better?

THE POINT: Nothing impresses God except genuine faith.

A BRIGHT STAR IN A DARK SKY

Noah lived among a vile people, yet managed to resist their corrupt influences.

VIOLENCE IN THE STREETS. Corruption in the halls of power. Greed. Hatred. Debauchery. All in all, a stinking cesspool of evil and wickedness.

Welcome to the time of Noah.

We may bemoan the collapse of morality in our own age, and rightly so, but human society in Noah's time had so degenerated that God looked down and saw that "everything they thought or imagined was consistently and totally evil" (Genesis 6:5, emphasis added). Human behavior had so badly decayed that "the LORD was sorry he had ever made them and put them on the earth. It broke his heart" (6:6). And so the holy God of the universe decided to unleash a worldwide flood to wipe humanity from the face of the earth—all, that is, except for one exceptional man and his family. Scripture introduces him simply: But Noah found favor with the LORD (6:8).

In the middle of a violent, corrupt, and sordid society, what was different about Noah? The Bible describes three personal traits that set him apart:

He was "a righteous man."

He was "the only blameless person living on earth."

He "walked in close fellowship with God" (6:9).

When God told him to build an enormous ship in which his family and a pair of every kind of animal might safely ride out the flood—even though the gargantuan vessel would remain landlocked until the deluge came—Noah obeyed. "Noah did everything exactly as God had commanded him" (6:22),

Scripture says. Noah wasn't perfect; no one is. But because of his faith, God declared Noah righteous. The writer of Hebrews says, "It was by faith that Noah built a large boat to save his family from the flood. He obeyed God, who warned him about things that had never happened before. By his faith Noah condemned the rest of the world, and he received the righteousness that comes by faith" (Hebrews 11:7).

We can only imagine the ridicule and abuse that Noah endured before "the underground waters erupted from the earth, and the rain fell in mighty torrents from the sky" (Genesis 7:11). Noah lived among a vile people, yet he managed to resist their corrupt influence. How? By walking with God.

Noah's life was a wonderful example of the kind of life all believers are exhorted to live in 1 Peter 4:2-5:

You won't spend the rest of your lives chasing your own desires, but you will be anxious to do the will of God.

...

Of course, your former friends are surprised when you no longer plunge into the flood of wild and destructive things they do. So they slander you. But remember that they will have to face God, who will judge everyone, both the living and the dead.

In spite of his culture, Noah continued to walk with God.

Noah is an ancient role model for us, as through a living faith we strive to live "clean, innocent lives as children of God, shining like bright lights in a world full of crooked and perverse people" (Philippians 2:15).

LIVING BY

FAITH

Abraham is the chief biblical example of a man who banked his entire future on God's promises.

NO NAME IN THE OLD TESTAMENT shines more brightly than that of Abraham.

The apostle Paul referred to Abraham as “the spiritual father of those who have faith” (Romans 4:11). Hundreds of years after Abraham's death, Levite worship leaders lauded him as one who “had proved himself faithful” (Nehemiah 9:8). God himself called Abraham “my friend” (Isaiah 41:8).

Who was this man who willingly left a comfortable life to homestead in a strange land? And why did God promise to bless the whole world through him?

Abraham grew up in pagan Mesopotamia. During his early adult years, his father, Terah, took Abraham (then called Abram) and his young bride Sarai, westward toward Canaan. They got no farther than a town named Haran, however, and settled there, on the banks of a tributary of the Euphrates River.

Many years later, God called the 75-year-old Abraham to “Leave your native country, your relatives, and your father’s family, and go to the land that I will show you” (Genesis 12:1). Abraham immediately got up and “went without knowing where he was going” (Hebrews 11:8). Because Abraham trusted God and obeyed him, the Lord gave Abraham an astonishing promise that continues to bless and shape the world today:

“I will make you into a great nation. I will bless you and make you famous, and you will be a blessing to others. I will bless those who bless you and curse those who treat you with contempt. All the families on earth will be blessed through you” (12:2-3).

Despite Sarai’s inability to have children (11:30), God promised Abraham that his descendants would become as numerous as the stars in the night sky—and Abraham “believed the LORD, and the LORD declared him righteous because of his faith” (15:6). In this way Abraham became the chief biblical example of a man who banked his whole future on the Lord’s promises. In the apostle Paul’s words, Abraham “was fully convinced that God is able to do whatever he promises” (Romans 4:21).

Did this make him perfect? Did Abraham’s strong faith keep him from ever stepping out of God’s will? Far from it. The Bible forthrightly tells us, for example, that fear of a powerful ruler drove Abraham to lie about his relationship to his wife—not once, but twice (12:10-20; 20:1-18).

Abraham and his wife also struggled when God seemed to delay keeping his promise. After ten years went by and they still had no son, they agreed to “help God out” by using a surrogate mother named Hagar. Nine months later, Hagar gave birth to Ishmael, Abraham’s firstborn son—but it was not God’s intention to honor his promise in this way (16:1-16). Not until another 14 years passed did God enable Sarah to have a son, Isaac, and so the promised child was finally born to a man who “figured his body was as good as dead” (Romans 4:19).

Abraham, perhaps more than any other Old Testament figure, shows us what a life of faith looks like. When we live by faith, we “share the same blessing Abraham received because of his faith” (Galatians 3:9).

TOO CLOSE TO THE EDGE

There is a sad progression in Lot's fascination with living on the edge.

A LOT OF MEN today like to live on the edge. Tired of routine and bored with a seat-belted culture, they seek out the daring, the daunting, and the dangerous.

Lot would have felt right at home with guys like this. But when he applied this attitude to his spiritual life, he paid a tremendous price.

Lot grew up in the care of his grandfather, Terah, after his father died. When Terah moved his family to Haran, Lot went along, and when Abraham and Sarah left for the Promised Land, Lot accompanied them (Genesis 11:28, 31; 12:4).

Both Lot and Abraham prospered along the way, and soon Abraham had to say to his nephew, in essence, "Boy, this town ain't big enough for the both of us. Which way do you want to go?" (13:8-9). Lot looked over his options, then took his livestock in the direction of a town named Sodom.

Yes, that Sodom. As in, "Sodom and Gomorrah."

We notice a sad progression in Lot's fascination with living on the edge. At first he lives in tents outside the city. Then he owns a house inside the city walls. And before we know it, we see him sitting at the entrance to the city (19:1), an indication of Lot's importance and high status in the community. Lot seems to have embraced Sodom's evil culture—even though "the people of this area were extremely wicked and constantly sinned against the LORD" (13:13).

Eventually God decided to put an end to Sodom. He sent two angels to drag Lot and his family out of the doomed city. Lot tried to warn his two future sons-in-law of their peril, but they laughed at him and assumed he was joking. As zero hour approached, Lot hesitated and tried to delay his departure; finally, the angels literally grabbed his wrist and forced him to leave, along with his wife and two daughters. And even when the angels told him to flee to the mountains, Lot tried to negotiate a better deal: “I cannot go to the mountains. Disaster would catch up to me there. . . . See, there is a small village nearby. Please let me go there instead” (19:19, 20). During their flight, Lot’s wife disobeyed the angels’ instructions and looked back at the home they were leaving. Her refusal to let go of her life in sinful Sodom was instantly and severely punished as God turned her into a pillar of salt (19:26).

Soon after Sodom and Gomorrah went up in smoke, Lot took his two daughters to live in a cave. Shortly thereafter, the girls decide to carry on their family line. But with no other men around, they faithlessly chose to get Lot drunk and into bed with each of them. (You didn’t think the Bible would mention incest?) The girls gave birth to illegitimate sons who founded two nations, Moab and Ammon, which would ultimately harass Israel for centuries to come.

That’s what can happen when you live too fast and too dangerously. And keep in mind that Lot was a believer. Peter calls him “a righteous man who was sick of the shameful immorality of the wicked people around him” (2 Peter 2:7).

Even a man like Lot can be seduced by the flash and excitement of living on the edge. But beware! The drop-off may lie closer than you think.

NO WONDER

HE LAUGHS

Isaac continued the unbroken line that eventually led to Jesus Christ.

MIDDLE CHILDREN AREN'T the only ones who sometimes get overlooked. Middle patriarchs can suffer the same fate.

About two dozen times the Bible uses some form of the phrase, “the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.” Abraham we know fairly well, and Jacob we remember as the father of 12 sons who founded the 12 tribes of Israel. But Isaac? Isaac who?

That’s too bad, because in one sense, everything depends on Isaac.

Isaac was the only son of Abraham and Sarah, born miraculously to the couple when they were “too old” to have children. Abraham was 100 years old, and Sarah was only 10 years younger. In addition, Sarah had been barren (Genesis 17:17; Romans 4:19; Hebrews 11:11) her whole life. Yet God had promised the couple a son. And a son he gave them, despite their advanced years and despite their doubts (Genesis 17:17; 18:12).

Can you imagine being Isaac? From your earliest days, you hear over and over from your elderly parents how you are a living miracle. Your father tells you how God promised a son . . . yet waited a quarter of a century to fulfill his promise. Your mother tells you how both she and your dad chuckled in disbelief at God's announcement of your coming birth . . . and then how they both laughed tears of joy at your arrival. Even your name, Isaac, has meaning: "he laughs."

Then, after all of that, one day your aged father tells you to get prepared for a trip. You are going to a sacred place to make a sacrifice, he says. You notice that he seems especially troubled on this three-day journey, yet you mark it down as fatigue from the journey or just your imagination. And anyway, who are you, a mere boy, to question this venerable soul who receives promises direct from the lips of God? Still, it bothers you that he has not brought an animal to sacrifice, and you ask him about it. "God will provide a sheep for the burnt offering, my son," he replies, then goes silent (22:8).

You reach your destination. And your beloved father—the one who has told you again and again about your destiny and about his love for you—binds you with strong rope, places you on the altar he has built, and raises his knife above your chest! Then your terror changes to a tidal wave of relief when an unseen voice calls out from heaven, “Don’t lay a hand on the boy! . . . Do not hurt him in any way, for now I know that you truly fear God. You have not withheld from me even your son, your only son” (22:12).

Isaac, of course, lived to be 180 years old and fathered Jacob, thus continuing the unbroken line that eventually led to Jesus Christ. And because of Christ, the apostle Paul can say to us, “And you, dear brothers and sisters, are children of the promise, just like Isaac” (Galatians 4:28).

So with this kind of heritage, it probably wouldn’t bother Isaac too much that we sometimes forget his story. It would take a lot more than that to bother this son of promise whose name means “he laughs.”

THE POSTER CHILD FOR INSTANT GRATIFICATION

Esau’s life was a pattern of indifference to things that truly matter.

ESAU WOULD HAVE loved credit cards.

This expert hunter and man of the open country (Genesis 25:27) likely would not have blanched at the idea of mortgaging his future for the opportunity to grab a bunch of hunting gear and camping supplies now. As long as he could take his purchases home with him immediately, he'd think he'd made a good deal.

Scripture remembers Esau—the eldest of twin sons born to Isaac and Rebekah—chiefly as the foolish man who sold his birthright for a little bread and a bowl of lentil stew (Genesis 25:29-34). After coming home famished from a day on the range, Esau found his brother, Jacob, preparing a meal. He asked for some food, and Jacob agreed—on one condition: that Esau sell him his birthright. In ancient times, the family name and titles passed from the father to the eldest son; the birthright also endowed a man with a significant spiritual position. All this, Esau deemed less important than a full stomach. “Look, I’m dying of starvation!” he exaggerated. “What good is my birthright to me now?” (25:32). In recalling this story, the author of Hebrews calls Esau “godless” (Hebrews 12:16).

It may seem harsh to call a man “godless” just because he acted impulsively in a moment of acute hunger. But when we look a little further into Esau’s life, we begin to see a pattern of indifference to things that truly matter. Consider his marital life.

Like his father, Esau waited until age forty to marry. But unlike his father, he not only married outside of his own extended clan, he chose two brides from among the Hittites, a pagan people with zero regard for the God of Abraham. The Scripture says that his two unbelieving wives “made life miserable for Isaac and Rebekah” (26:35). Rebekah even told her husband, “I’m sick and tired of these local Hittite women! I would rather die than see Jacob marry one of them” (27:46).

Amazingly, for a long time Esau didn’t even notice his parents’ anguish. Only after Jacob moved away to find a wife among his mother’s clan did Esau recognize “that his father did not like the local Canaanite women” (28:8). And how did he try to “solve” the problem? He married yet another woman, this time from the descendants of Ishmael, Abraham’s son by Hagar!

Such a man should not expect great blessing from God—and in fact, Esau lost his father’s blessing when Jacob tricked him out of it (27:1-40). As a warning to us, the author of Hebrews writes, “Make sure that no one is immoral or godless like Esau, who traded his birthright as the firstborn son for a single meal. You know that afterward, when he wanted his father’s blessing, he was rejected. It was too late for repentance, even though he begged with bitter tears” (Hebrews 12:16-17).

The credit cards finally come due. When any of us choose the immediate over the significant, tears often result—but tears will never pay the bills.

THE ONLY LIFE WORTH LIVING

Jacob gradually traded his life of deceit for a commitment to seeking God.

PERHAPS IF MORE MEN became familiar with the life of Jacob, they'd gain a better perspective on what life with God really entails—both the highs and the lows.

On the high side, Jacob proves to us that God loves to shed his grace on the most undeserving. Think of it: God chose a man who was worthy of the lamentable name he was given (Jacob means “he deceives”) to build a nation God would call his own. God worked so tirelessly and graciously in Jacob's life that this man finally turned a corner, exchanging a career of deception for a life focused on the Lord. Through the family line of Jacob, Jesus Christ came into the world to become the Savior of all humanity.

On the down side, Jacob shows us that the methods God uses to turn us into godly men often cause tremendous pain. God demonstrates through Jacob that he cares far more about transforming us into people who resemble his Son than he does in making us comfortable.

Jacob entered this world grasping the heel of his older twin brother, Esau (Genesis 25:24-26). As a young adult, Jacob bought his brother's rights as firstborn (25:29-34), and then through trickery secured from his father a blessing that rightfully belonged to Esau (27:1-40). Fearing Esau's threats of vengeance, Jacob fled to the tents of his uncle Laban. In Laban Jacob found a man every bit as capable of deception and manipulation as he. Laban tricked Jacob into laboring for 14 years in exchange for the privilege of marrying his two daughters, Leah and Rachel. During his time with Laban, Jacob fathered 11 sons and a daughter and became quite wealthy.

When he finally left his uncle to return home, Jacob again resorted to deception in an attempt to avoid Laban's wrath (chapter 31). Finally, even though many years had passed since he had cheated Esau out of their father's blessing, Jacob still feared his brother. So he constructed an elaborate means of appeasing Esau, depending largely on bribery (32:1-21).

And then God stepped in.

In one of the stranger accounts of God's direct intervention, Jacob wrestled all night with someone he first considered only "a man" (32:24). Toward daybreak this man "touched Jacob's hip and wrenched it out of its socket" (32:25), leaving Jacob with a limp. Only after the man blessed him did Jacob realize his adversary's identity. He called the place of his wrestling match Peniel, meaning "face of God," and said, "I have seen God face to face, yet my life has been spared" (32:30).

From that moment on, Jacob's life started to change. He gradually traded his life of deceit for a commitment to seeking God. Jacob's struggles were far from over, but his struggles against God had come to an end.

Given this history, it seems fitting that God would change Jacob's name to Israel ("God fights," 32:28; 35:10). A life of faith is a life of struggle—but it's also the only life worth living.

LESSONS IN

IRONY

God began to cure Jacob's addiction to deception and cheating by forcing him to work for a man even more addicted.

SOMETIMES THE LORD shows a marvelous touch of irony. Take Laban as a case in point.

We first see Laban hurrying out to meet Abraham's faithful servant, who had come in search of a wife for Isaac (Genesis 24:28-51). Moments before, the servant had made contact with Rebekah, Laban's sister, and Laban wanted to show the visitor hospitality. The narrative suggests a close, loving relationship between Rebekah and Laban.

Many years later, Jacob, “the deceiver,” fled to his uncle Laban on the advice of his mother, Rebekah. Jacob immediately fell in love with the younger of Laban’s two daughters, Rachel, and agreed to work seven years in exchange for the right to marry her. Because of his love for her, those seven years flew by and “seemed to him but a few days” (29:20).

As the long-awaited wedding approached, Laban threw a big party for the bride and groom. “But that night, when it was dark, Laban took Leah to Jacob, and he slept with her” (29:23). In the pitch-blackness of a Middle Eastern tent, Jacob apparently did not realize the bait-and-switch—until the sun came up the next morning.

Jacob was understandably furious. “What have you done to me?” he demanded of Laban. “I worked seven years for Rachel! Why have you tricked me?” (29:25).

So the deceiver was deceived—and not for the last time.

Jacob agreed to work for Laban another seven years in return for Rachel’s hand in marriage, then stayed on still another six years to manage his uncle’s flocks. In that time Jacob grew to be a wealthy man—yet the working relationship grew more strained as the years went by. Laban’s attitude toward Jacob soured, and eventually Jacob decided to sneak back home. He explained his reasoning to his wives like this: “You know how hard I have worked for your father, but he has cheated me, changing my wages ten times” (31:6-7).

You can’t help but wonder if God decided to cure Jacob’s addiction to deception and cheating by forcing him to work for a man even more addicted. The ironic story reminds us of a verse written centuries afterwards: “They dig a pit to trap others, then fall into it themselves” (Psalm 7:15).

“You want to deceive and cheat?” God seemed to ask Jacob. “Fine—I’ll show you what it feels like to be repeatedly deceived and cheated.”

What can we learn from Laban? Perhaps the apostle Paul said it best: “The whole law can be summed up in this one command: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ But if you are always biting and devouring one another, watch out! Beware of destroying one another” (Galatians 5:14-15).

TURBULENT

WATERS

By failing to control his sexual urges, Reuben forfeited the high position that rightfully belonged to him.

IN MANY WAYS, Reuben seemed like the ideal firstborn son: strong, loyal, considerate, and a natural leader. Yet his failure in one area of his life—his sexual urges—cost him the high position that rightfully belonged to him.

Reuben was the son of Leah, Jacob's first wife. From the beginning Reuben gave his mother comfort in a difficult marriage (Reuben sounds like the Hebrew word for "he has seen my misery"). Reuben helped his mom by bringing her some aphrodisiac mandrake roots he had found in a field (Genesis 30:14).

Many years later, it was Reuben who prevented nine of his younger brothers from killing Joseph, Jacob's favorite son, when the boy came to visit his siblings in a remote area as they grazed the family's flocks; he didn't tell them that he hoped to rescue the boy and take him back to his father (37:22).

Unfortunately, he left the scene only to discover upon his return that his brothers had sold Joseph to a traveling band of slave traders. "The boy is gone!" he lamented. "What will I do now?" (37:30). When he felt no other option lay open to him, he agreed to go along with his brothers' plan to make it appear as though Joseph had been killed by a wild beast; that was the story he told his heartbroken father.

Jacob no doubt blamed Reuben, as his eldest, for the loss of Joseph. And he probably found it easier to blame him after what Reuben had done years before. Genesis puts it bluntly: "Reuben had intercourse with Bilhah, his father's concubine, and Jacob soon heard about it" (35:22).

While Jacob never formally punished Reuben for his illicit liaison, neither did he ever forget about it. Shortly before Jacob died, he pronounced a series of blessings and prophecies over each of his sons. As firstborn, Reuben might have expected to receive top honors. But listen to Jacob's words, prompted by God's own Spirit:

*Reuben, you are my firstborn, my strength. . . .
You are first in rank and first in power.
But you are as unruly as a flood,
and you will be first no longer.
For you went to bed with my wife;
you defiled my marriage couch. (49:3-4)*

Firstborn sons in the book of Genesis do not generally fare well. Cain murdered his brother, Abel. Ishmael lost his role of family leadership to his younger brother, Isaac. Esau sold his birthright to his younger twin, Jacob. And Reuben forfeited his place as leader of the clan to his brother, Judah, who received a remarkable prophecy regarding a distant descendant (49:8-12).

Thousands of years later, the apostle Paul would write, "Run from sexual sin! No other sin so clearly affects the body as this one does. For sexual immorality is a sin against your own body" (1 Corinthians 6:18). And sometimes, such a sin costs you a delightful role that could have been yours.

FAITHFUL DESPITE

HARDSHIPS

Joseph disproves the theory that nice things always happen to good little boys.

HAD YOU BEEN on the outside looking in, you might have completely misjudged Joseph's situation. You might have observed his sequence of extreme hardships and thought, A good-looking young man, sold into slavery by his brothers, tossed into prison on a bum charge, and forgotten for years by a man who promised to help him? Sounds like God's judgment to me!

Joseph's story disproves the theory that nice things always happen to good little boys. But his life also confirms that "God is not unjust. He will not forget how hard you have worked for him and how you have shown your love to him by caring for other believers, as you still do" (Hebrews 6:10).

Joseph grew up as the favored son of Jacob's 12 boys. Jacob even gave him an expensive robe that set him apart from his siblings (Genesis 37:3). As a teenager Joseph unwisely recounted to his family two dreams that seemed to place him in a position above them all—even his parents (37:1-11). Soon his brothers' jealousy turned into hatred.

Joseph's brothers seized him and sold him to slave traders (37:28). A rich Egyptian named Potiphar bought Joseph. Before long, Potiphar put him in charge of his estate (39:1-6). Joseph refused the sexual advances of Potiphar's wife, so she accused him of attempted rape. Furious, Potiphar threw Joseph into prison (39:7-20).

During his incarceration he won the favor of the warden and successfully interpreted the dreams of two of Pharaoh's jailed workers, correctly predicting that one would be executed and the other freed (40:1-22). The latter man promised to help Joseph upon his release, a pledge he promptly forgot (40:23). Not until two years later, when Pharaoh himself had a troubling dream, did the man remember Joseph. At last Joseph was able to win his own release from prison by correctly interpreting for the king the meaning of his dream (41:1-36).

Joseph told Pharaoh that his dream foretold a seven-year famine that would decimate the kingdom unless extra crops were stored up beforehand. The king was so impressed with Joseph that he put him in charge of the crop-storage program, making him second-in-command over the whole kingdom (41:39-57).

During the famine, Joseph's estranged brothers came to Egypt seeking food for their starving families. They did not recognize Joseph but he recognized them! Through a series of harrowing encounters, Joseph finally revealed his identity. With the secret out, his brothers immediately feared for their lives, terrified that Joseph might use his enormous power to exact revenge.

But Joseph knew that despite his hardships, God had been with him. He had remained faithful to the Lord so he could tell his trembling brothers, "Don't be afraid of me. Am I God, that I can punish you? You intended to harm me, but God intended it all for good. He brought me to this position so I could save the lives of many people” (50:19-20).

A MODEL OF # LEADERSHIP

Pharaoh knew that he lacked the ability to accomplish what Joseph could.

THE UNNAMED PHARAOH who ruled Egypt in the time of Joseph showed himself to be a terrific leader, one from whom we can learn several valuable lessons about how to effectively show the way to others. Note how he demonstrated effective leadership:

1. Pharaoh recognized a genuinely spiritual issue when he saw one.

Although so far as we know Pharaoh never personally trusted in the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, he did recognize the gravity and significance of a spiritual issue when it came to his attention. When he had a disturbing dream that he did not understand, he immediately called in expert help. While his usual spiritual advisers could offer no assistance, nevertheless he correctly identified his dream as an important spiritual concern (Genesis 41:1-13).

2. Pharaoh remained open to receiving help wherever he could get it.

Many leaders refuse to “stoop” to take help from those they consider inferior. But Pharaoh gladly accepted help from whom ever could give it, even a Hebrew slave (41:14-32).

3. Pharaoh quickly recognized talent and put it to use.

Some leaders feel threatened by men and women with obvious talent. But no sooner had Pharaoh met Joseph and heard his explanation of the dream than he said to his court, “Can we find anyone else like this man so obviously filled with the spirit of God?” (41:38). Without delay he named Joseph second-in-command of his empire, entrusting to him the details and the authority necessary to keep Egypt from ruin.

4. Pharaoh recognized his limitations.

Pharaoh knew that he could never accomplish what Joseph could. Not only did Pharaoh have no ability to interpret dreams, he also could not run the administration of a nationwide food assistance program nearly as effectively as could Joseph. So when his hungry people came to him during the famine to plead for food, he told them plainly, “Go to Joseph, and do whatever he tells you” (41:55).

5 .Pharaoh showed great gratitude to Joseph for his effective service.

Many leaders find it almost impossible to recognize the accomplishments of underlings, and certainly do not go out of their way to show their appreciation for a job well done. Pharaoh looked for ways to honor and thank Joseph for his effective service. When Joseph’s family arrived in Egypt from famine-plagued Canaan, Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Now that your father and brothers have joined you here, choose any place in the entire land of Egypt for them to live. Give them the best land of Egypt” (47:5-6, emphasis added).

Through his skillful and humble leadership, Pharaoh spared his people from starvation. In the process, he became more powerful than ever and assured his legacy for generations to come (47:14, 19-20).

THE CURSE OF A STUBBORN

HEART

If we continue to “harden our hearts” to the voice of God, he may eventually harden them for good.

MORE THAN ONE WIFE has complained about a stubborn husband, and more than one husband has taken it as a compliment. Yet stubbornness about the wrong things can carry chilling spiritual consequences.

Want an example? Meet one of the greatest villains of the Bible.

Most of us think of this man whenever we hear the word Pharaoh. The term was a title for the ruler of Egypt, like king, but it was also used as a proper name. In contrast to the wise and generous leader of Joseph’s era, the pharaoh who ruled during Moses’ lifetime nearly ruined his empire through arrogance and stubbornness.

The Bible tells us that the immediate predecessor to this ruler “knew nothing about Joseph or what he had done” (Exodus 1:8). Fearing that the Israelites, who lived in Egypt, would soon become too numerous to control, he forced them into slavery and eventually ordered them to kill their newborn sons (1:16-22). Moses escaped the slaughter but as an adult had to flee Egypt after killing a slave driver (2:12). During Moses' exile, the pharaoh died (2:23), and a new ruler ascended the throne.

When Moses was 80 years old and had been away from Egypt for 40 years, God commanded him to return to the land of his birth and tell Pharaoh to "let my people go" (5:1). Time after time, the king refused. Despite miraculous signs and weighty threats, "Pharaoh's heart remained hard" (7:22).

It troubles some readers that God declared, "I will harden [Pharaoh's] heart so he will refuse to let the people go" (4:21). If that's true, we reason, how can God blame the man for his stubborn actions?

But take a closer look at the whole story. God made good on his prediction only after Pharaoh repeatedly chose on his own to act stubbornly.

After the first plague (when the Nile's waters turned to blood), the Bible says, "Pharaoh's heart remained hard" (7:22). The same thing happened after the second plague (of frogs): "Pharaoh . . . became stubborn" (8:15). Again after the third plague (of gnats), "Pharaoh's heart remained hard" (8:19). After the fourth plague (of flies), "Pharaoh again became stubborn" (8:32). After the fifth plague (an animal epidemic), still his "heart remained stubborn" (9:7).

Only after the sixth plague, when boils tormented humans and beasts throughout Egypt, does the Bible say, "the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart" (9:12). And from then on, this stubborn man had passed the point of no return (9:34-35; 10:1, 20, 27; 11:10; 14:8).

Pharaoh demonstrates that stubbornness is a serious spiritual issue with enormous and even deadly ramifications. If we continue to harden our hearts to the voice of God, eventually he may harden them for good. As the Bible says, “Whoever stubbornly refuses to accept criticism will suddenly be destroyed beyond recovery” (Proverbs 29:1).

GOD’S LOVE

Moses demonstrated God’s demanding holiness, but he also demonstrated God’s amazing grace.

THE FIGURE OF MOSES towers over the landscape of the Bible like a colossus. Only the names Jesus and David appear more often in Scripture than his. So what makes him so special?

You could ponder how Moses’ mother spared his life by placing him in a reed basket and floating him down the Nile

River, where the pharaoh's daughter found him (Exodus 2:1-10). Moses' name recalls the moment when the princess lifted him out of the water; Moses sounds like the Hebrew for "to draw out."

Or you could mention how he spent the first 40 years of his life as a privileged scion of royalty, until the day he lost his temper and killed an Egyptian overseer who had abused a Hebrew slave. When his secret got out, Moses fled to a desert region called Midian (Exodus 2:11-15; Acts 7:23-29).

Or you could contemplate how Moses spent the next 40 years of his life in God's wilderness classroom, receiving a very different sort of education from the kind he had enjoyed in Pharaoh's palace. He married a local girl and started a family, far from the land of his childhood (2:21-22).

Or perhaps you remember the "burning bush incident," when Moses received a personal commission from God to rescue Israelites (3:1-4:17).

Then again, maybe you recall how God used Moses to send 10 fearsome plagues on Egypt to convince Pharaoh to "let my people go" (5:1-12:50); or how Moses held his staff over the Red Sea at God's command to open "a dry path through the sea" (Isaiah 43:16); or how he gave his nation God's holy laws (Exodus 19:1-20:17).

With all the staggering events of Moses' life, however, we should never forget that he was human. He often grew weary of his role and was repeatedly disgusted with his constantly complaining countrymen (see 5:22; 14:11-12; 15:24-25; 16:2-3; 17:2-4).

One day this revered lawgiver—who had urged his people to obey God wholeheartedly and who frequently reminded them of the consequences—disobeyed God. The Lord told Moses to “speak to the rock over there, and it will pour out its water.” But Moses, fed up with the Israelites’ constant rebellion, struck the rock with his staff in a fit of temper. Water did pour from the rock, relieving the thirsty people. But Moses had to live with the consequence. “Because you did not trust me enough to demonstrate my holiness to the people of Israel,” God told him, “you will not lead them into the land I am giving them” (Numbers 20:12). Moses died at the age of 120, just short of the borders of Canaan (Deuteronomy 34:7).

And yet, his story doesn’t end there. Moses exhibited God’s demanding holiness by giving Israel the law, but he also demonstrated God’s amazing grace. Centuries later, a living Moses was allowed to enter the Promised Land—when he and the prophet Elijah brought Jesus a touch of heaven just before our Savior began his march to the cross (Mark 9:2-4).

Colossal? Without a doubt. But Moses would gladly point you to the truly colossal: God’s boundless mercy and love.

THE

SELF-PROMOTER

Korah's inflated ego led him down several treacherous roads.

POSITIVE THINKING CAN be a tremendous force for good. But when it leads to unbridled self-promotion and a super-sized ego, it usually causes trouble—and sometimes it can kill. A man named Korah made this deadly discovery just a little too late.

As a member of the tribe of Levi, Korah had the honor of serving the Lord in the Tabernacle. According to God's law, only Levites had the authority to minister in this way. Yet as Korah watched Moses lead the Hebrew people and Aaron serve them as priest, he grew envious of their position. Apparently he started reasoning something like this:

You know what? I'm just as talented as these two. Maybe more! I have gifts of leadership, too. God doesn't love me any less than these men, and he's just as much with me as with them. What's more, I don't like how and where they're leading us. I think it's time for a change, and I think I'm just the guy to bring that change about!

So Korah conspired with two other leaders, Dathan and Abiram, to challenge the leadership team God had put in place (Numbers 16:1). These men convinced 250 other community leaders to join them in an attempted coup d'état. "You have gone too far!" they said to Moses and Aaron. "The whole community of Israel has been set apart by the LORD, and he is with all of us. What right do you have to act as though you are greater than the rest of the LORD's people?" (16:3).

Korah's stinging words reveal a man with a robust self-image. But they also reveal how his inflated ego had led him down several treacherous roads:

1. He thought of himself as holy; he discovered that God considered him wicked (16:26).

2. He thought he was rebuking Moses; he discovered he had actually despised God (16:30).

3. He thought he could promote himself; he discovered he had earned a permanent demotion (16:32).

4. He thought he could make the rules; he discovered that God reserves rule-making for himself (16:35).

5. He thought he could discern God's thoughts on his own; he discovered that God speaks to those he chooses (16:20, 23).

God responded to Korah's rebellion by opening up a sinkhole beneath his feet and sending him, along with his co-conspirators, "down alive into the grave, along with all their belongings. The earth closed over them, and they all vanished" (16:33). Immediately afterward the 250 community leaders who had joined their short-lived revolt perished in a blaze of heavenly fire (16:35).

This sad incident reminds us that God despises a self-important, self-promoting attitude. Life works much better for us if we heed the wise words of the apostle Peter: “So humble yourselves under the mighty power of God, and at the right time he will lift you up in honor” (1 Peter 5:6).

THE OLD TESTAMENT

JUDAS

Balaam let his greed be his motivation . . . all the way to his grave.

HE SPOKE ALL the right words. He made all the right sacrifices. He publicly stood up for the one, true God and refused to bad-mouth God’s people.

And for his glowing testimony, the Lord organized his death, along with many other enemies of God.

Surprised? You're not alone. The story of Balaam (Numbers 22–24) has perplexed Bible readers for centuries. On the one hand, Balaam seems like such a fine, clean-cut, upstanding citizen. God personally appears to him and gives him prophetic words to speak. The man repeatedly declares to anyone who will listen, “I will tell you whatever the LORD directs me to say” (22:8). Three times Balaam refuses to curse Israel, even though a wealthy and powerful king promises him a vast reward for doing so. Instead, Balaam blesses God's people.

So why does the Bible consistently portray him as a scoundrel? Why does it say that God “refused to listen to Balaam” (Deuteronomy 23:5), that Balaam “loved to earn money by doing wrong” (2 Peter 2:15), and that he would “deceive people for money” (Jude 1:11)? Why did God mark Balaam for death? And why does it use him as a prime example of someone whom Jesus Christ himself promises to “fight against . . . with the sword of my mouth” (Revelation 2:16)?

The answer emerges when you dig into Balaam's personal history. While on the outside he put on a good religious show, on the inside he reeked of pride, deception and greed. He ended up selling out God's people for a few lousy shekels. Call him the Old Testament Judas.

When King Balak of Moab saw Israel's multitudes marching past his threatened domain, he grew fearful. He knew he could never defeat such a vast army in battle, so he sent for an internationally famous magician named Balaam to curse the Israelites. Had Balaam really wanted to please God, he never would have agreed to meet with Balak in the first place. But when Balaam smelled the money, three times he tried to grant the wicked king his evil wish—and three times God “turned the intended curse into a blessing” (Deuteronomy 23:5).

But Balaam wanted that money! So with the direct route closed to him, he went underground. He secretly advised the Moabite women to seduce Israelite men and invite them to participate in their people’s pagan religious services (Numbers 25:1-3; 31:16; Revelation 2:14). His plan to seduce succeeded where his plan to curse had failed—and 24,000 Israelites died in a divinely sent plague as a result (Numbers 25:9).

Like Judas, who sold out his Master for thirty silver coins and betrayed him with a kiss, Balaam plotted against Israel for money and betrayed God’s people just moments after blessing them. In public, he did and said all the right things. But in private, he let greed dictate his actions. And so we read his biblical epitaph: They also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword (31:8).

In the end, Balaam earned his wages, all right. His paycheck sent him six feet under.

STOCKING UP ON

COURAGE

Joshua found the bulk of his courage through his close, growing relationship with God.

NO ONE GETS through life unscathed. Tough circumstances can erupt at any moment—from any direction. That’s why, from time to time, we can all use timely words that urge us to strength and courage. General Joshua, commander of Israel’s military forces during the conquest of Canaan, received encouragement from a number of sources, including God himself.

You might think that a burly professional soldier, trained from youth to be the personal assistant of the commander in chief (Exodus 17:9; 24:13; Numbers 11:28), would have no need of spirit-lifting words. Yet he did need them, and he received them often, especially as the time grew near for him to take over the leadership of the nation of Israel. Note who spoke the words of encouragement that Joshua so badly needed to hear:

1. Moses often helped Joshua to take heart. At least twice the Lord commanded Moses to “encourage” his young aide (Deuteronomy 1:38; 3:28). So Moses told Joshua, “Do not be afraid, . . . for the LORD your God will fight for you” (3:22). And later he repeated, “Be strong and courageous! . . . Do not be afraid or discouraged” (31:7, 8).

2. God urged Joshua to act bravely by trusting deeply. In an official commission to the general just before Israel entered the Promised Land, God told Joshua, “Be strong and courageous! Do not be afraid or discouraged. For the LORD your God is with you wherever you go” (Joshua 1:9).

3. The Israelites also joined the encouragement parade. After Joshua called the nation together to prepare to enter Canaan, the people replied, “So be strong and courageous!” (Joshua 1:18).

Every man needs large doses of both strength and courage, especially when preparing to tackle some daunting challenge. Joshua found the bulk of his courage through his close, growing relationship with God. He accompanied Moses to the top of Mount Sinai to receive God’s laws (Exodus 24:13). He remained in the Tabernacle after Moses met there with God (Exodus 33:11). The Spirit of God lived in Joshua (Numbers 27:18), and so he was “full of the spirit of wisdom” (34:9).

All of this fortified a man to whom God said, “No one will be able to stand against you as long as you live. For I will be with you as I was with Moses. I will not fail you or abandon you” (Joshua 1:5).

Before long, Joshua himself became a man of encouragement. After the campaign of occupation had begun, Joshua said to his men, “Don’t ever be afraid or discouraged, . . . for the LORD is going to do this to all of your enemies”—then he destroyed those whom God had marked for death (Joshua 10:25-26).

Learn how to give and receive encouragement. You'll find it's contagious.

A MAN OF WHOLEHEARTED

ACTION

Scripture repeatedly uses one word to describe Caleb: wholehearted.

HAD CALEB PLAYED FOOTBALL, he would have made a great fullback. Vince Lombardi, the legendary coach of the Green Bay Packers, would have loved him.

And the feeling would have been mutual. When Vince said, “Success demands singleness of purpose,” Caleb surely would have applauded. When the coach declared, “There’s only one way to succeed at anything, and that is to give it everything,” he would have stood up and shouted in agreement.

Scripture repeatedly uses one word to describe Caleb: wholehearted (Numbers 32:12; Joshua 14:9, 14). Caleb himself said that he strove to follow the Lord “completely” (Deuteronomy 1:36; Joshua 14:8). And it was that single-minded, wholehearted, full-steam-ahead approach that made Caleb succeed when a whole generation of his peers failed.

Caleb first comes to our attention as a 40-year-old spy. Moses picked Caleb, Joshua, and 10 others—one man for each of Israel's tribes—for a secret reconnaissance mission into Canaan. They were to “see what the land is like, and find out whether the people living there are strong or weak, few or many. See what kind of land they live in. Is it good or bad? . . .” (Numbers 13:18-20).

Several weeks later the spies returned and described the land as “a bountiful country—a land flowing with milk and honey” (Numbers 13:27). Yet 10 of the spies—all except Caleb and Joshua—balked. They spoke of giant men and fearsome fortresses so deadly that the land would “devour anyone who goes to live there” (Numbers 13:32). Through their toxic influence, “the whole community began weeping aloud, and they cried all night” (Numbers 14:1).

Caleb and Joshua tore their clothes in vigorous protest and pleaded with the people to move forward in faith. But they couldn't turn the tide that day. The people even talked of executing them—until God himself showed up, threatening to wipe out the entire nation because of their lack of faith. When Moses intervened, begging God to spare his people's lives, God rescinded the death penalty. But he promised that not one of the generation of Israelites that had left Egypt would ever set foot in the Promised Land—except Joshua and Caleb. And then he gave his view of Caleb: “But my servant Caleb has a different attitude than the others have. He has remained loyal to me, so I will bring him into the land he explored. His descendants will possess their full share of that land” (Numbers 14:24).

Forty-five years later, it happened. Caleb said to Joshua, the new leader of the nation, “Today I am eighty-five years old. I am as strong now as I was when Moses sent me on that journey, and I can still travel and fight as well as I could then. So give me the hill country that the LORD promised me. You will remember that as scouts we found the descendants of Anak living there in great, walled towns. But if the LORD is with me, I will drive them out of the land, just as the LORD said” (Joshua 14:10-12).

And that’s just what he did—an overpowering fullback bowling over huge linemen like they were daisies. Lombardi would have cheered.

Judges 4:8

IMPERFECT YET

FAITHFUL

He led a successful army but hesitated and missed the glory.

WHAT DOES IT TAKE to become a “man of faith”? A clerical collar? A perfect record? A life apart from the chaos and turmoil of life?

If that’s what you think, then think again. And learn something about genuine faith from an imperfect man named Barak.

Barak lived during the difficult time of the judges, after the death of Joshua but before the prophet Samuel and the kings of Israel came along. “In those days,” says the Bible, “all the people did whatever seemed right in their own eyes” (Judges 17:6). The Hebrew nation oscillated between outright rebellion against God and a forced submission to divine rule. Whenever they fell into a pattern of disobedience, God sent brutal pagan armies to beat them up until they cried out for relief. Then God would raise up a deliverer (called a “judge”) to lead the people back to godliness and victory. But after the judge’s death, the dreary cycle began all over again.

Barak grew to manhood after the death of a judge named Ehud. When the Israelites once more rejected God's commandments, "the LORD turned them over to King Jabin of Hazor, a Canaanite king" (4:2). Jabin's top general, Sisera, commanded an army of nine hundred iron chariots and "ruthlessly oppressed the Israelites for twenty years" (4:3). When the people of Israel finally cried out to God for deliverance, he provided them with a dynamic woman named Deborah as the new judge. She recruited Barak to assemble a large army to defeat Sisera. She even gave him a divine plan to accomplish the task. Yet Barak wavered.

"I will go," he said, "but only if you go with me." (4:8).

Doesn't sound much like mountain-moving faith, does it? Hardly the kind of response that would recommend you for the "Faith Hall of Fame."

And yet, there he is in Hebrews 11:32. "How much more do I need to say? It would take too long to recount the stories of the faith of Gideon, Barak. . . ."

Deborah told Barak that she would accompany him, but she warned that because of his reticence to move ahead on God's word alone, he would not gain any honor for the coming victory. Sure enough, the armies of Israel so smashed their enemies that "not a single one was left alive" (Judges 4:16). And yet Barak gained no glory for his overwhelming triumph; his enemy, Sisera, died not in battle but at the hands of a housewife named Jael (4:17-21). A post-victory song gives Barak only a couple of brief mentions, while Jael receives several stanzas lauding her bravery (ch. 5).

Could Barak have done better? Surely. Yet God accomplished great things through him and his faith, imperfect as both may have been.

Judges 6:1-40

UNLIKELY

HERO

Gideon didn't become a "mighty hero" overnight.

IF YOU EVER start to doubt God's patience with you, consider the life of Gideon.

During Gideon's youth, the pagan nation of Midian terrorized the Israelites, stealing their food and taking whatever else they wanted. One day Gideon was threshing wheat at the bottom of a winepress so the Midianites wouldn't see him. While he was working, the angel of the Lord met him and greeted him with a hearty "Mighty hero, the LORD is with you!" (Judges 6:12).

Gideon must have laughed. Me? A hero? Don't you see where I am? Don't you see what I'm doing? Don't you wonder why I'm down here in this hole, when the normal way to thresh wheat is up where the wind blows freely to get rid of the chaff? The angel's words seemed to mock him. Gideon reminded him that he was the youngest member of the weakest clan in the half-tribe of Manasseh (6:15).

And yet, God meant what the angel had said. He had a mission for Gideon: “Go with the strength you have, and rescue Israel from the Midianites.” And how was the young man to accomplish such an implausible feat? “I will be with you,” declared the Lord. “And you will destroy the Midianites as if you were fighting against one man” (6:14, 16).

God saw what Gideon could not see. He determined to lead the young man patiently to become what he never dreamed he could be.

Gideon didn't become a “mighty hero” right away. God first gave him a small but important task—destroying the town's altar to the god Baal. Gideon did as the Lord commanded, but at night to avoid being seen (6:25-27).

Then Gideon was ready for the second stage of his development. God filled Gideon with his Spirit and prompted him to call together an army to attack Midian (6:33-35). Yet Gideon still had doubts. Twice he asked God for an unusual sign to prove that he would, in fact, keep his previous promise. And twice the Lord showed Gideon that his word was true (6:36-40).

Finally the time came for Gideon and his army—32,000 soldiers in all—to attack the forces of Midian, a coalition 135,000 strong. Gideon had tested God, but now God would turn the tables and test Gideon. God told Gideon to send most of his troops home until those that remained numbered only 300. Why? “If I let all of you fight the Midianites,” God said, “the Israelites will boast to me that they saved themselves by their own strength” (7:2).

Gideon complied, and that night God made him into the “mighty hero” the angel had prophesied. Through one of the oddest battle plans ever conceived, the Lord routed the Midianites, ushering in about 40 years of peace, throughout the remainder of Gideon’s long life (8:28).

Centuries later, the apostle Paul wrote words that Gideon would no doubt echo: “God had mercy on me so that Christ Jesus could use me as a prime example of his great patience with even the worst sinners. Then others will realize that they, too, can believe in him and receive eternal life ” (1 Timothy 1:16).

WATCH YOUR MOUTH

God empowered Jephthah to fight effectively, but his daughter paid the price for his lack of faith.

MEN OF ACTION can get things done, but sometimes they also speak and act without thinking. In the heat of the moment they blurt out something—and afterward wish they hadn't.

A judge named Jephthah was a “great warrior.” When his half brothers drove him into exile because his mother was a despised prostitute (Judges 11:1), Jephthah fled to Tob, a desolate town some 15 miles east of Ramoth-gilead. There he collected a group of disgruntled rebels and adventurers.

When Israel's ancient antagonists, the Ammonites, began attacking Hebrew settlements, the besieged men came to Jephthah to ask him to lead their troops in a counteroffensive. Jephthah, still smarting from his brothers' rejection, said to them, “Aren't you the ones who hated me and drove me from my father's house? Why do you come to me now when you're in trouble?” (11:7).

The chastised men sidestepped that grudge from the past and promised to make Jephthah their ruler if he took up their cause. He did so and immediately tried to settle the dispute with the Ammonites through diplomatic means. When his efforts failed, war became inevitable. God was with Jephthah, and “the Spirit of the LORD came upon” him to empower him to fight effectively.

Then Jephthah did something rash and impulsive. He vowed that if the Lord would grant him victory, he would make a burnt sacrifice of the first thing that came out of his house after the battle.

Jephthah led his troops to an overwhelming victory that day. He went home in triumph—and the first thing out of the gate to congratulate him was not the random sheep or goat he had expected. To his horror, it was his only child, his teenage daughter.

Scholars have debated for centuries whether Jephthah actually took the life of his daughter, or whether she simply lived out her days as a virgin, thus blocking the continuation of Jephthah's line. Since we are told that “young Israelite women . . . go away for four days each year to lament the fate of Jephthah's daughter” (11:40), it seems likeliest that he did indeed take her life, even though the Mosaic Law expressly forbade any such pagan practice (Leviticus 18:21; Deuteronomy 12:31).

Perhaps Jesus had the sorrowful Jephthah in mind centuries later when he told his disciples, “Do not make any vows! . . . Just say a simple, ‘Yes, I will,’ or ‘No, I won’t.’ Anything beyond this is from the evil one” (Matthew 5:34, 37). In a similar manner James counsels us, “Never take an oath, by heaven or earth or anything else. Just say a simple yes or no, so that you will not sin and be condemned” (James 5:12).

Are you a man of action? Then take heed. Remember Jephthah and his foolish vow—and think before you speak.

APPETITES OUT OF CONTROL

What kind of winning record could Samson have amassed had he learned to control his appetites?

THE NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE has a message for ambitious coaches: Do you want to win? Then you first have to master yourself. In trying to explain why many ball clubs refuse to hire coaches with serious weight problems, one general manager asked, “How can you demand self-control from players when you don’t have it yourself?” The NFL wasn’t the first organization to espouse this principle; the need for self-control comes right out of the Bible.

If one man from the Old Testament shows how talent and promise go unfulfilled due to a lack of self-discipline, it has to be Samson.

Commonly known as the strongest man who ever lived, Samson received his awesome physical might from God so that he might liberate his fellow Israelites from the oppression of the Philistines. From birth Samson’s parents were instructed to rear him under the strict rules governing a “Nazirite”—someone whose life had been dedicated to God in a special way (Numbers 6:2-21; Judges 13:3-5, 13-14). The Bible says that Samson gained his great strength particularly through keeping a vow never to cut his hair (Judges 16:17).

Although from an early age Samson enjoyed a special touch from the Spirit of the Lord (13:25), he never mastered his raging appetites—and that neglect eventually led to his death. Consider four areas in which Samson lacked self-control.

Lust. When Samson saw a good-looking Philistine woman, he demanded that his parents arrange a marriage to her, despite their warnings (14:1-3). When the marriage didn't work out, he slept with both a prostitute (16:1) and a treacherous woman named Delilah (16:4).

Greed. Samson tried to use an unfair bet to force his fiancée's Philistine friends to enrich him with expensive clothing (14:11-14).

Anger. Samson frequently reacted to bad news by flying into a rage (14:19; 15:3-5).

Revenge. Samson lived—and died—for revenge. He loved to say things like “ I won't rest until I take my revenge on you!” (15:7, 11; 16:28).

Samson's lack of self-control eventually prompted him to tell Delilah the secret of his strength. She gave him over to his enemies for a bribe, and he wound up blind and in a Philistine prison (16:17-21). The saddest line in his whole story is this: “But he didn't realize the LORD had left him” (16:20).

In the end Samson died along with thousands of his taunting captors in a final act of revenge (16:28-30). He led Israel for 20 years (16:31). Imagine the winning record he could have amassed had he learned to control his appetites. What sort of greatness could he have achieved if only he had self-control?

We'll never know. But we do know that he proved true the statement of one ancient Greek philosopher: "No man is free who is not master of himself."

YOU'VE HEARD THE STORY countless times. The rich, older businessman. The gorgeous-but-penniless younger woman. One of two things usually happens: either the aging tycoon takes what he wants from the young beauty and discards her, or the scheming young gold digger uses all her wiles to extract millions for herself.

Except that it doesn't always happen this way. The story of Boaz and Ruth follows the now-familiar script through the introduction, but then it takes a sharp and refreshing turn.

Boaz and Ruth lived during the time of the judges, an unsettling era for ancient Israel in which lawlessness reigned and relationships between men and women could quickly spiral out of control (see, for example, Judges 19). Ruth had married a young Israelite then living with his parents in her native Moab.

When Ruth's husband and two sons died prematurely, her mother-in-law, Naomi, decided to return to Israel. Naomi urged Ruth to stay in her homeland, but Ruth refused, replying with some of the most famous words in the Old Testament: “Don’t ask me to leave you and turn back. Wherever you go, I will go; wherever you live, I will live. Your people will be my people, and your God will be my God” (Ruth 1:16).

Yet Ruth’s courageous decision to leave for Israel meant almost certain hardship for them both. In that day, unattached females enjoyed almost no legal protection, and a young foreign woman likely would have to endure all kinds of indignity. If some rich or powerful man wanted to take advantage of her, who would stop him?

One day the beautiful and vulnerable Ruth wandered into the fields of just such a rich and powerful landowner. The man immediately took notice of her and asked his foreman, “Who is that young woman over there?” (2:5).

Sounds familiar, right? But here the “typical” part of the story ends. Instead of taking advantage of a defenseless young woman, Boaz protected and provided for her. He saw to it that she received kid-glove treatment and even told her, “I have warned the young men not to treat you roughly” (2:9). When Ruth returned home with far more provision than expected and told Naomi that a man named Boaz had helped her, the older woman exclaimed, “Good!” Naomi described Boaz as a close relative and declared, “You might be harassed in other fields, but you’ll be safe with him” (2:22).

How right she was. Within a few months, God brought Boaz and Ruth together as husband and wife, and in time, blessed the couple with a son named Obed. The boy grew up to father his own son, Jesse, who in turn became the father of King David.

The kindness Boaz showed to a defenseless woman not only changed Naomi's bitter spiritual outlook (2:19-20) but also led to a reward beyond all imagining: Boaz became a direct ancestor of Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world.

NO TIMID

SOUL

The secret to Samuel's boldness lay in his unconditional obedience to God.

NO MAN WANTS to slither through life, constantly retreating from danger and slinking away at the first sign of a threat. We want to live with boldness and passion, facing down our fears and acting with courage and conviction.

The question is, how do you achieve such boldness? How do you build the kind of steel in your soul that permits you to stand tall in the storm?

Here's one suggestion: Take a clue from Samuel the prophet. This man faced down kings, cowed foreign armies, and inspired courage in the wavering hearts of his people throughout his long life. And how did he do it? His mother named the central reason even before her son could walk: "He will belong to the LORD his whole life" (1 Samuel 1:28).

The name Samuel sounds like the Hebrew for "asked of God," and that's what he was. His mother, who was barren, told God that if he would give her a son, she would "give him back to you. He will be yours for his entire lifetime” (1:11). The Lord gave her Samuel in response. In turn, Samuel’s parents placed Samuel into the custody of Eli the priest, in whose service “the boy served the LORD” and “grew up in the presence of the LORD” (2:11, 21). As he matured, Samuel “grew in favor with the LORD and with the people” (2:26). So seriously did Samuel take his relationship with God that the Lord himself called him a “faithful priest who will serve me and do what I desire” (2:35).

Right there we find the secret to Samuel’s boldness: unconditional obedience to God. Samuel developed amazing courage and strength because he tried to hear God’s words and obey them.

Is it any wonder, therefore, that Samuel could judge Israel for a whole lifetime (7:15)? Is it any wonder that Samuel could boldly condemn King Saul for the Hebrew monarch’s repeated failure to obey God’s clear instructions (13:8-10, 13-14; 15:9-26)? And is it any wonder that he could stand up to the rulers of Israel’s enemies, even slaying one himself as God commanded (15:32-33)?

Yet Samuel was hardly perfect. For one thing, it appears that he failed as a father. When he grew old and announced his intention to appoint his two eldest sons as judges to replace him, the people rejected his suggestion, for Samuel’s sons “were not like their father, for they were greedy for money. They accepted bribes and perverted justice” (8:3).

You might think Samuel would have learned a hard lesson from his mentor, the old priest Eli, whose own two wicked sons had died years earlier in an act of divine judgment (2:12-17, 22-25; 4:11). Yet somehow, this great man of God missed the lesson and made similar parenting errors with his own boys.

In spite of Samuel's imperfections, God used him mightily as a leader of his people. Today, God wants to use you. Remember: we find great boldness and courage not through strong family genes but through committing ourselves to obey God in whatever he says.

Do that, and you'll never have to worry about becoming a timid soul.

WHAT WENT WRONG?

Saul allowed his fear of others to overpower his trust in God and to sabotage a promising reign.

THE MAN HAD so much going for him that we wonder just what could have gone so badly wrong. Consider a few of his remarkable early advantages:

Born into a wealthy and influential family (1 Samuel 9:1)

Tall and handsome (9:2)

Chosen by God (9:16; 10:21, 24)

Had a heart changed by God (10:9)

Prophesied by God's Spirit (10:10)

Had many close, godly companions (10:26)

The Spirit of God came "mightily" upon him (11:6)

Acted mercifully in victory (11:13)

With all these physical and spiritual advantages, what turned the name of Saul into a synonym for "bad king"? How did he plunge from such a promising start to such a dreadful end (31:1-6)?

In many ways, Saul's fall from glory can be traced to a single problem that bedevils many men even today: fear of what others think. Two incidents in particular show how Saul allowed his fear of others (whether of his enemies or of his friends) to overpower his trust in God and to sabotage a promising reign.

First, Saul let his fear of a dangerous enemy lead him to disobey a clear instruction from God, making an inappropriate sacrifice before a major battle (13:8-10). The king then made matters worse by blaming his followers for his poor decision (13:11-12). His disobedience prompted the prophet Samuel to declare that God would soon raise someone else to Israel's throne, a man after God's own heart.

Second, Saul allowed fear of his own people's disapproval to nudge him to disobey yet another clear instruction from God, sparing the life of a man God had commanded him to kill (15:9). When Samuel confronted him about this second egregious instance of rebellion, Saul again blamed his men (15:21) and admitted that he acted out of fear (15:24). That same fearful nature prompted him to set up a monument to himself (15:12) and to beg Samuel to “honor me before the elders of my people and before Israel by coming back with me so that I may worship the LORD your God” (15:30).

Fear of others led directly to Saul’s ruin and to this sad Old Testament judgment: “Now the Spirit of the LORD had left Saul” (16:14). How much grief we could avoid by heeding the wise words of Scripture: “Fearing people is a dangerous trap, but to trust the LORD means safety” (Proverbs 29:25).

A BATTLE HE COULDN'T WIN

The God who created the universe with a single word of command could never be threatened by deaf and dumb idols.

THE “UNSINKABLE” *TITANIC sank. . . . The “unbeatable” Baltimore Colts lost Super Bowl III. . . . The “unbreakable” Nazi code was broken. . . . And the “unstoppable” Philistine champion, Goliath, was stopped dead in his tracks—literally.

These famous incidents not only prove the old saying “The bigger they are, the harder they fall.” They also demonstrate the stupidity of human arrogance.

We will forever link Goliath’s name to David, the Hebrew boy who against all expectations defeated his massive opponent. The Bible tells us that Goliath stood over nine feet tall, wore a helmet and armor that weighed about 125 pounds, and toted a spear with a shaft “as heavy and thick as a weaver’s beam,” tipped with a fifteen-pound iron head (1 Samuel 17:4-7). When Goliath’s assistant bore a huge shield in front of him, the man must have looked invincible. Goliath thought so, and so did the Israelite army.

For forty days, each morning and evening, Goliath taunted the Israelites and challenged any of them to come out and fight him, man to man. No one answered a word—until David.

While none of the seasoned Hebrew soldiers dared to fight Goliath, this teenage shepherd, armed only with a staff and a sling used for throwing rocks, accepted the challenge—and won. By rocketing a single stone toward the giant’s forehead, David toppled his arrogant enemy. And ever since then “a David-and-Goliath story” has meant the triumph of the little guy over the behemoth.

On one level, that's as it should be. On that day the puny did overcome the gargantuan. But on a higher, more important level, such an interpretation gets the story all wrong. In truth, the battle never was about David versus Goliath. Rather, it featured the omnipotent God of Israel versus the impotent little deities of the Philistines. There could be no upset; the God who created the universe with a single word could never be threatened by deaf and dumb idols made of cold, lifeless stone and wood.

So go ahead, Goliath. Boast all you want. Feel as confident as you please in all your strength and armor and training. Curse David as profanely as you know how, and taunt Israel as viciously as you can. But David knows the truth. The battle never comes down to him and you. You had foolishly made it a contest between your gods and David's God—and as David told you, “Today the LORD will conquer you” (17:46).

We must not ever forget that the battle is the Lord's ( 17:47). God delights in choosing “things that are powerless to shame those who are powerful” and to use “things counted as nothing by all . . . to bring to nothing what the world considers important.” Why? So that “no one can ever boast in the presence of God” (1 Corinthians 1:27-29).

Unsinkable? Nah. Unbeatable? No way. Unbreakable? Hardly. Unstoppable? Don't let the ground break your face, Goliath.

BEDROCK OF A STRONG FRIENDSHIP

The Lord can win a battle whether he has many warriors or only a few!

WHENEVER SOMEONE TALKS about great friendships in the Bible, the names of Jonathan and David always come up. No surprise there—Scripture tells us these two young men enjoyed “an immediate bond between them” (1 Samuel 18:1).

While the fact of their deep friendship gets a lot of ink, however, the basis for it receives too little attention. In fact, these two men did not become fast friends due to similar temperaments or compatible interests or because they were close in age. No, their friendship blossomed and grew because of something far deeper, stronger, and more solid. They built their remarkable relationship on a shared delight in God.

We see evidence of this common gladness in the Lord long before David and Jonathan meet one another. Jonathan was the son of King Saul. Once when the brutal Philistines gathered an enormous army to crush the Israelites, the people of God fled in fear—all except for Jonathan and his young armor bearer, who decided to mount an attack of their own against an enemy outpost. Listen to the way Jonathan justified his great risk: “Perhaps the LORD will help us, for nothing can hinder the LORD. He can win a battle whether he has many warriors or only a few!” (14:6). The Lord honored Jonathan’s bold faith and helped him start a major rout of Israel’s enemies.

Some months or years later, another Philistine force gathered to threaten Israel. A giant named Goliath challenged any Hebrew warrior to hand-to-hand combat—and no one in Saul’s army dared to accept the challenge. During this time, young David’s father sent him to the battle lines to get news from his older brothers and to deliver supplies. When David heard Goliath’s taunts, he reacted indignantly with words eerily similar to those of Jonathan. David approached the giant armed only with a shepherd’s sling, told him that he would die for his insolent threats, and declared that “everyone assembled here will know that the LORD rescues his people, but not with sword and spear. This is the LORD’s battle, and he will give you to us!” (17:47). And that is exactly what happened.

David and Jonathan met for the first time moments after Goliath’s defeat. On the spot Jonathan “made a solemn pact with David, because he loved him as he loved himself” (18:3). Their friendship grew through both good times and bad, but always their unique bond rested on the solid bedrock of their mutual delight in God. So the Bible tells us that, during one especially dark hour, “Jonathan went to find David and encouraged him to stay strong in his faith in God” (23:16).

That’s what the best friendships should always look like. Real friends do not merely enjoy shared hobbies or pursue similar interests. Each friend looks for ways to help the other “stay strong in his faith in God.”

TWO QUALITIES OF A SPIRITUAL STANDOUT

When confronted with sin, David confessed his fault, turned from his offense, and sought forgiveness.

YOU PROBABLY ALREADY know David as the greatest king of ancient Israel. You know that he was the author of dozens of psalms. You might know he was a talented singer and musician. He was all these things. But he was something else, too: the Bible tells us that David was a man after God’s own heart (1 Samuel 13:14).

What did David do that made him so special to God? Was he perfect, able to keep a total check on his baser urges? Hardly. David had an explosive temper and could act rashly (25:1-35).

He became a fierce warrior who never flinched at eliminating his enemies (2 Samuel 8:1-2).

And David also had quite an eye for the ladies. While most Bible readers know of his adultery with Bathsheba (2 Samuel 11), fewer recall that his first six sons were born to six different wives (2 Samuel 3:2-5).

What, then, made David a man after God's own heart? How did he become the apple of God's eye (Psalm 17:8)? Two things seem to stand out.

First, David loved the Lord with all his heart and always tried to put God first. Twice during the agonizing years when King Saul tried repeatedly to kill him, David had a golden opportunity to eliminate his tormentor. But he refused. Why? He explained: "The LORD forbid that I should . . . attack the LORD's anointed one, for the LORD himself has chosen him" (1 Samuel 24:6-12; also 26:11). David honored God above all, including himself.

Second, when confronted with sin, David habitually confessed his fault, turned from his offense, and sought forgiveness (1 Samuel 25:32-35; 2 Samuel 11:27-12:23; 2 Samuel 24:10-14). Unlike his predecessor, Saul—who typically denied his guilt and then blamed others for it when backed into a corner—David humbled himself and could say to God, "Against you, and you alone, have I sinned; I have done what is evil in your sight" (Psalm 51:4).

What made David a special man of God was a humble heart that freely admitted its faults and continually sought after God. Do you want to be a man after God's own heart? Then seek these two qualities in your life.

DOES GOOD ALWAYS WIN IN THE END?

Abner's unjust death illustrates that we live in a shattered world in which evil sometimes seems to win.

DO GOOD THINGS always happen to the good guys, and bad things always happen to the bad guys? Even if every event in life doesn't come out "fair," at least everything comes out right in the end, correct?

It all depends on what you mean by "the end." And a good man named Abner illustrates this unsettling fact.

Abner served for many years as the commander of the army under King Saul, his cousin (1 Samuel 14:50). He earned a wide reputation as a loyal and competent military leader, guiding Israel's army to many important victories. Saul trusted Abner and expected him to fulfill whatever tasks he gave him, whether gathering intelligence or developing effective battle tactics (1 Samuel 17:55).

On the day the Philistines killed Saul, Abner somehow escaped with his life (1 Samuel 31:1-6). He continued to show loyalty to his late king by serving his son Ishbosheth (2 Samuel 2:8-10). A sporadic war flared for years between David and the young king, and one day Abner reluctantly had to kill the brother of Joab, David's general. From that day on, Joab nursed a grudge against his rival (2:18-24).

Over time, "Abner became a powerful leader among those loyal to Saul" (3:6), but a personal disagreement with the new king prompted Abner to offer David a united kingdom (3:12). He traveled to meet with David in Joab's absence and the two leaders struck a deal. Yet when Joab returned and learned that Abner had visited the king and had been allowed to leave in safety, the still-bitter commander set off in hot pursuit of his hated rival. Under the pretext of furthering the meeting of the two sides for unification, Joab murdered Abner in cold blood (3:27, 30).

When David learned about the killing, he passionately repudiated the homicide and distanced himself from both Joab and his accomplice, his brother Abishai. The king demanded that a united Israel honor this assassinated hero and publicly declared at a state funeral, "Don't you realize that a great commander has fallen today in Israel?" (3:38).

Abner's unjust death illustrates that we live in a shattered world in which evil sometimes seems to win, and wrong may appear to get the last word. His murder followed by just a few years the undeserved death of the devout Jonathan, David's best friend, who died in battle at the side of his corrupt father. So we wonder: Why does God allow such atrocities?

While we can't know the answer for sure, we must remember that God's justice always prevails in the end. Even in the Old Testament, God promises that "those whose bodies lie dead and buried will rise up, some to everlasting life and some to shame and everlasting disgrace” (Daniel 12:2).

And that means that the story of Abner and Joab isn’t finished quite yet.

PAYBACK

TIME

Joab used guile and deceit to murder two men who challenged his power.

WHILE MANY MEN value ruthlessness in the boardroom and on the battlefield, God seems to take a much dimmer view of this so-called “virtue.” Take Joab for example.

Joab, David’s cousin, served for many years as the king’s military commander-in-chief. He successfully led Israel’s troops in countless battles and remained loyal to David throughout his long career. He became an expert at military tactics and ruthlessly destroyed David's enemies—as well as his own rivals.

While the Bible never condemns Joab for effectively carrying out his role as general of the army, it emphatically faults him for his ruthless treatment of personal adversaries. Twice in his lifetime, Joab used guile and deceit to murder men who threatened to challenge his power.

The first incident occurred after the death of Saul, Israel's first king. Abner, the commander of Saul's army, for a time supported one of Saul's sons as king. In a skirmish with Joab's troops, Abner reluctantly killed Joab's brother, Asahel. From that day on, Joab looked for vengeance (2 Samuel 2:18-23). Eventually Abner decided to switch his allegiance from Ishbosheth to David and entered into negotiations to unite the kingdom. That's when Joab went into action. He secretly summoned Abner to what the man thought were further negotiations—and instead treacherously knifed him to death. David loathed Joab's actions and publicly cursed him for it (3:28-29).

Many years later, after crushing Absalom's revolt, David tried to make a peace offering to the defeated side by making Amasa (who had commanded the army under Absalom) his own military commander. Yet even before the last skirmishes of the rebellion were completely extinguished, Joab again used deceit to eliminate this perceived threat. Pretending to greet Amasa warmly, Joab instead plunged a dagger into the man's abdomen (20:7-10).

While Joab became the commander of David's army once more, the king never forgave his cousin for his ruthlessness.

Just before he died, David told his handpicked successor, Solomon, “You know what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me when he murdered my two army commanders, Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. He pretended that it was an act of war, but it was done in a time of peace, staining his belt and sandals with innocent blood. Do with him what you think best, but don’t let him grow old and go to his grave in peace ” (1 Kings 2:5-6).

Solomon did not wait long to honor his father’s request. Shortly after David’s death, Solomon ordered Joab’s execution, explaining, “This will remove the guilt of Joab’s senseless murders from me and from my father’s family. The LORD will repay him for the murders of two men who were more righteous and better than he” (1 Kings 2:31-32).

Joab served David well as a military commander, but when he let his ruthless instincts get the better of him, he signed his own death warrant. As Isaiah says, “So the boastful songs of ruthless people are stilled” (Isaiah 25:5).

A FOX, NOT A

CHICKEN

Nathan paved the way for the king's genuine repentance.

IF YOU EVER need to confront a friend with something you know he doesn't want to hear, consider how the prophet Nathan handled a similar situation. Avoid the sledgehammer approach, and opt for a little creativity.

Suppose that for some time, you suspected something was wrong with one of your best friends. His slumped shoulders, quick temper, long naps—all conspired to suggest some hidden problem. And then you found out that your friend, a high-profile Christian, had secretly committed some terrible sin many months before. No one knew about it, and your friend was trying hard to carry on as though nothing had happened.

What would you do? How would you handle your dilemma?

Nathan, trusted prophet to King David, devised a strategy geared to his friend's best traits. He ran an end around rather than a plunge up the middle. Nathan knew his sovereign had a creative bent, so he told the king a compelling story. He knew David had a strong sense of justice, so Nathan made his story arouse that sense before David recognized himself in the crosshairs. Nathan knew the king had a soft spot in his heart for the weak and the oppressed, so he tapped into David's naturally protective nature. And he knew that his friend's early life as a shepherd still brought back warm memories, so he spoke about the sad plight of a little lamb.

So Nathan went to see the king. He told David about a rich and powerful tycoon with many sheep who stole and then slaughtered the beloved pet lamb of a poor man in order to feed an unexpected guest. David exploded in anger—just as Nathan had hoped—and vowed that the guilty man should die.

Then Nathan pointed his long finger at David and proclaimed, “You are that man!” (2 Samuel 12:7).

What could David say? He had just admitted his guilt before God’s prophet. Nathan then clearly described David’s adultery with Bathsheba and his subsequent cover-up attempts, including his successful scheme to murder Uriah, Bathsheba’s husband. Next he proclaimed that although God would not demand David’s life, as the Law usually required for such a sin (Exodus 21:23), the Lord would mete out a very painful and public punishment, including the death of the son David had lustfully fathered (2 Samuel 12:10-14).

How did David respond? The right way—with humility. He admitted his sin and sought God’s forgiveness.

Could Nathan have achieved the same results with a frontal assault? Would David have responded as well to a bald declaration of his guilt? Perhaps, but Nathan might just as easily have triggered David’s volatile temper. By using a little creativity and by first engaging David’s better side, Nathan paved the way for the king’s genuine repentance.

And did Nathan’s stratagem compromise the truth? Not one bit. Did it alienate the king? Just the opposite. So the next time a difficult confrontation looms in front of you, remember Nathan. And don’t be a chicken; be a fox instead.

2 Samuel 13:1-22

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN LOVE & LUST

Amnon's sin ignited a slow-burning fuse that eventually detonated a family time bomb.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE between love and lust? The answer makes a huge difference, as David's oldest son, Amnon, found out—only too late.

When Amnon, the oldest son of David and Ahinoam, grew to adulthood, he couldn't help but notice his beautiful half-sister Tamar, the daughter of David and Maacah. The more he looked, the more he wanted her. Soon he convinced himself that he had fallen madly in love with his lovely, young relative. He was so obsessed by her beauty that eventually he made himself sick. When his cousin, Jonadab, asked him to explain his odd affliction, he replied mournfully, "I am in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister" (2 Samuel 13:4).

Really? The events that soon followed revealed the disastrous error in his self-diagnosis.

Jonadab, “a very crafty friend,” according to the Bible, suggested to Amnon that he really did not have as hopeless a problem as he imagined. So long as Amnon already looked sick, why not go all out and appear deathly ill? Then when the king looked in on him, he could suggest that he’d feel much better if his father sent Tamar to fix him some dinner.

David, suspecting nothing, agreed to Amnon’s request. But when the young woman arrived, Amnon excused all his servants and quickly made it plain that she was the only dish on his menu.

Tamar tried to stop her half-brother from violating her, but he used his greater strength to overpower and rape her. And that’s when his “love” showed its true character.

“Get out of here!” he shouted at her. The Bible says that “suddenly Amnon’s love turned to hate, and he hated her even more than he had loved her” (13:14, 15).

Of course, Amnon’s vile behavior showed that he never loved Tamar at all. Love always wants the best for the beloved, while lust merely demands satisfaction for itself. In raping and then rejecting his half-sister, Amnon showed himself to be a lust-driven predator, not really in love at all.

Amnon’s sin ignited a slow-burning fuse that eventually detonated a family time bomb. Tamar’s brother Absalom “hated Amnon deeply because of what he had done to his sister” (13:22), and two years later he engineered his killing. A few years after that, Absalom led a rebellion against his father, whom he apparently never forgave for allowing his sister to be raped.

Never underestimate the enormous difference between lust and love! Do whatever it takes to distinguish between the two, and take great care to avoid the former and nurture the latter. Remember the apostle Paul's wise instruction: "God's will is for you to be holy, so stay away from all sexual sin. Then each of you will control his own body and live in holiness and honor—not in lustful passion like the pagans who do not know God and his ways" (1 Thessalonians 4:3-5).

A DARK PROPHECY

FULFILLED

For four years a still-bitter Absalom secretly undermined the king's authority while building his own popularity.

TAKE A DEVASTATINGLY handsome young prince, add a gallon of bitterness, a pound of cunning, and a dark prophecy of trouble, and what do you have? A recipe for civil war and an illfated usurper named Absalom.

Absalom was the third son of David, born to the king and a foreign wife from Geshur. It was said of Absalom that “Absalom was praised as the most handsome man in all Israel. He was flawless from head to foot” (2 Samuel 14:25).

When Absalom was a young man, David’s oldest son, Amnon, raped Tamar, Absalom’s lovely younger sister—and after that, things got really ugly. Absalom murdered Amnon; David banished Absalom for three years, then brought him back to Jerusalem but refused to see him for another two years. For four years after that a still-bitter Absalom secretly undermined the king’s authority while cunningly building his own popularity. In this way, the Bible says, Absalom “stole the hearts of all the people of Israel” (15:6).

As Absalom unleashed his quiet coup d’état, a host of friends and advisors encouraged him to even bolder moves. Even Ahithophel, formerly one of David’s trusted advisers, joined the conspirators. Soon David had to flee for his life, taking a small group of supporters with him into the desert (15:13-26).

At the advice of Ahithophel, Absalom publicly slept with ten of his father’s concubines, who were left in Jerusalem, in order to let everyone know there would be no truce with David. Next, Ahithophel urged the new king to take a large force into the wilderness to track down and kill his father. But Absalom instead took the advice of another adviser, who was secretly loyal to David, and delayed his attack. The postponement allowed David to prepare his troops for a successful counterattack.

Before the battle, David earnestly instructed his soldiers, “For my sake, deal gently with young Absalom” (18:5). But when Joab, David's longtime general, heard that the king's son had become hopelessly tangled in the branches of a tree, he rushed to the young man, thrust three daggers into his chest, and allowed ten armor bearers to finish him off (18:14-15).

Upon hearing the news, David wept inconsolably. "O my son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom!" he cried. "If only I had died instead of you! O Absalom, my son, my son" (18:33). It took a stern warning from Joab that the king risked alienating his remaining supporters before David ceased his mourning and went out to thank his men.

No doubt as David grimly greeted his supporters, he thought about the dark prophecy leveled against him after his affair with Bathsheba: "Because of what you have done, I will cause your own household to rebel against you. I will give your wives to another man before your very eyes, and he will go to bed with them in public view" (12:11).

The fact that the man in the prophecy turned out to be his own son had to hurt unbearably. Such is often the sting of sin.

DEATH BY

TONGUE

The ultimate victim of Shimei's runaway tongue was himself.

IT'S TOO BAD there were no psychologists practicing in Israel when Shimei was alive. Maybe one of them who specialized in reaching victims and perpetrators of verbal abuse could have counseled him and spared him his fate.

Shimei was definitely a perpetrator.

As a long-suffering relative of the deceased King Saul, Shimei took special delight when King David fled Jerusalem during the coup of his rebellious son Absalom. Shimei threw stones at the king and his entourage and let loose a barrage of curses. ““Get out of here, you murderer, you scoundrel!” he shouted at David. ‘The LORD is paying you back for all the bloodshed in Saul’s clan. You stole his throne, and now the LORD has given it to your son Absalom. At last you will taste some of your own medicine, for you are a murderer!’” (2 Samuel 16:7-8).

David’s angry cohorts asked for permission to behead the abusive man, but David ordered them to swallow their rage. “If the LORD has told him to curse me,” the retreating king said, “who are you to stop him?” (16:10). Meanwhile, Shimei shadowed the fleeing company, showering them with curses and stones and dust.

But how things changed in just a few weeks! After David’s forces crushed Absalom's revolt, Shimei hurried to become the first of the king's subjects to welcome the restored ruler back home. "My lord the king, please forgive me," pleaded Shimei. "Forget the terrible thing your servant did when you left Jerusalem. . . . I know how much I sinned. That is why I have come here today, the very first person in all Israel to greet my lord the king" (19:19-20). Again, one of David's hotheaded soldiers wanted to kill Shimei, but the king replied, "This is not a day for execution but for celebration!" (19:22).

Nevertheless, David seldom "just forgot" old scores. Years later as he lay near death, he instructed his successor, Solomon, to "remember Shimei . . . . He cursed me with a terrible curse as I was fleeing to Mahanaim. When he came down to meet me at the Jordan River, I swore by the LORD that I would not kill him. But that oath does not make him innocent. You are a wise man, and you will know how to arrange a bloody death for him" (1 Kings 2:8-9).

Indeed. Solomon later required Shimei to remain forever in Jerusalem. If Shimei were ever to leave the city, he would trigger his own capital punishment. "Your sentence is fair," Shimei replied. "I will do whatever my lord the king commands" (1 Kings 2:38).

But three years later, Shimei foolishly left the city to retrieve some runaway slaves—and Solomon heard about it. True to his word and to the oath Shimei himself took, the king immediately had him executed. The Bible adds one final postscript to the grim story: "So the kingdom was now firmly in Solomon's grip" (1 Kings 2:46).

The ultimate victim of Shimei's runaway tongue was himself.

1 Kings 3:1-4:32

KINGLY WISE BUT LIFE

FOOLISH

How could such a wise and successful ruler have torched his own country's future?

THE BIBLE REMEMBERS Solomon as the wisest man who ever lived. He began his reign by honoring God and serving others, and the Lord rewarded him with fabulous wealth, peaceful borders, and far-reaching fame. He wrote thousands of proverbs, composed over a thousand songs, and became an expert in both zoology and botany. Kings “from every nation sent their ambassadors to listen to the wisdom of Solomon” (1 Kings 4:34). Yet, with all these remarkable advantages, Solomon wound up a miserable failure who sowed the seeds of his nation's destruction. What happened?

Could it be that he failed to delegate enough authority and so bit off more than he could chew? No, for Solomon built an effective administration more efficient and practical than anything ever seen in Israel (4:1-19).

Could it be that he never heard from the God of his father, David, and so encouraged his people to abandon their commitment to the Lord? No, for God spoke personally to Solomon, and it was Solomon who built the magnificent Temple of God in Jerusalem, making it the solitary worship center for all Israel (5:1-6:37).

Could it be that Solomon neglected the army, or offended neighboring kings, or forgot about the common people, or overextended his resources? No to all of these explanations, for he built a huge army (10:26), signed treaties with rulers far and wide (9:16), made sure his people “were very contented, with plenty to eat and drink” (4:20), and continually added to his overflowing coffers (10:1-23).

What, then, led to his downfall? How could such a wise and successful ruler have torched his own country’s future? He did it the same way that many men today destroy their own homes: by forgetting that it takes a dynamic, day-by-day walk with God to maintain whatever good fortune the Lord brings us. Not even an extraordinary gift of divine wisdom—or any other great ability or talent—can, by itself, bring lasting success. He would have benefited from Deuteronomy 17:14-20—rules for a godly king to live by.

When Solomon began depending upon his gift of wisdom apart from a relationship with God, he started making all kinds of decisions that seemed prudent but actually sabotaged his reign. For example, the king married hundreds of foreign wives in an effort to secure beneficial treaties with his neighbors. Seems like a good move, right? But the Lord had clearly instructed his people not to intermarry with those nations—and these pagan women “turn[ed] his heart away from the LORD” (11:2-3).

By then, it was too late. Not even a rebuke from God caused Solomon to reform his ways. So God told him, “Since you have not kept my covenant and have disobeyed my decrees, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to one of your servants” (11:11).

What a waste—even with all that wisdom, Solomon foolishly forgot the most important thing of all.

1 Kings 12:1-20

HOW TO RIP APART A NATION

The people were ready for a break, and they hoped to get it from Solomon’s successor, Rehoboam.

NEVER DESPISE the counsel of those who have lived longer than you. King Rehoboam did, and it cost him five-sixths of his kingdom.

By the time King Solomon died, all Israel had grown weary. In his forty-year reign Solomon had expanded the nation’s borders, built the Temple and a magnificent palace, created a huge merchant navy, and developed prosperous trade routes to exotic nations.

But to accomplish all this, he had taxed the people heavily and had conscripted tens of thousands of men to serve in various posts in his government and military. The people were ready for a break, and they hoped to get it from Solomon's successor, his son Rehoboam.

Representatives from all twelve tribes of Israel gathered at the town of Shechem, about forty miles north of Jerusalem, to hold a coronation ceremony for the new king. But before the festivities began, they approached Rehoboam with one request: "Your father was a hard master. . . . Lighten the harsh labor demands and heavy taxes that your father imposed on us. Then we will be your loyal subjects" (1 Kings 12:4).

Unsure how to respond, Rehoboam asked for three days to deliberate their request. The people agreed, and Rehoboam sought out counsel. So far, so good.

First, he went to his elders, the men who had counseled Solomon. These men had seen close up how Solomon's policies had affected the people, and they had spent a lifetime gauging the effectiveness of such policies. They recognized the nation's fatigue and counseled Rehoboam to grant the people's request.

But the young king "rejected the advice of the older men" (12:8). He probably considered them worn-out relics of a bygone age. What could geriatrics like them possibly have to say to the young bucks of the future? So Rehoboam turned to his lifelong friends, men his own age.

They gave him quite different advice, counsel shaped not by the exhausted condition of the people but by the heady taste of fresh power. They suggested he tell the nation, “My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist! Yes, my father laid heavy burdens on you, but I’m going to make them even heavier!” (12:10-11).

Such haughty posturing appealed to the new king, and after three days he let loose on the waiting crowds. When they heard his words, ten of Israel’s tribes turned on their heels and rejected Rehoboam’s leadership. A short time later, when the rejected king sent the head of his national labor force to conscript young men from the ten rebellious tribes, they killed the man. Rehoboam fled to Jerusalem and tried to raise an army to fight the rebels, but a prophet of God told the soldiers to go home, since the rebellion was God’s doing (12:24).

Throughout Rehoboam’s seventeen-year reign, he carried on a running war with the breakaway tribes to the north. So perhaps it should not surprise us that when he died, no one is said to have mourned. He should have heeded his father’s proverb: “Pride leads to conflict; those who take advice are wise” (Proverbs 13:10).

someone you should know: jeroboam

A GREAT FOOL

Jeroboam appeared to make all the right moves, yet he chose precisely the most ruinous path possible.

A PERSON CAN be logically right, politically savvy, psychologically astute, sociologically perceptive, and religiously shrewd—and yet be disastrously wrong. Consider Jeroboam.

Jeroboam first appears in Scripture as an industrious young man whom King Solomon noticed for his ability to get things done. The king placed him in charge of a large workforce, and he thrived under the challenge (1 Kings 11:26-28). Then one day a prophet of God took Jeroboam aside and told him the Lord would use him to punish Solomon for his disobedience. After Solomon died, God would give Jeroboam sovereignty over ten of the twelve tribes of Israel.

Although the Bible does not explicitly say so, Solomon apparently heard about the prophecy, and he sought to kill Jeroboam before it could be fulfilled. But Jeroboam fled to Egypt, where he found asylum under the authority of Shishak the king.

When Solomon died, Jeroboam returned to Israel and immediately met with the national leadership. These men were only too glad to crown him king after the ten northern tribes loudly rejected the rule of Solomon's son Rehoboam.

But now Jeroboam had a problem. As a strong and effective leader, he knew how people thought. He knew how they tended to act in groups, how they responded to cultural influences, and how religious ritual and ceremony could be used to control their actions. And he deduced that if his people continued to travel to Jerusalem year after year to worship at Solomon's Temple, they might feel tempted to switch their political allegiances to the current ruler in Jerusalem, Rehoboam. This he dared not risk.

To keep his people at home and loyal to him, he forged two impressive idols and created for them inspiring worship centers in two strategic parts of his kingdom. "It is too much trouble for you to worship in Jerusalem," he declared. "Look, Israel, these are the gods who brought you out of Egypt" (12:28).

Jeroboam's moves made all kinds of sense. Logically, politically, psychologically, sociologically, and religiously, his actions seem correct—yet they led him and all of Israel down the most ruinous path possible. He could keep his subjects at home and loyal to him. He could better control his people's actions and further secure his own position. Best of all, his people bought it. They enthusiastically accepted the new arrangement and threw themselves into the new worship services. But they were courting spiritual disaster: "This became a great sin," the Bible says simply (12:30).

To solidify his hold on the people, Jeroboam began appointing whomever he wished as priests—regardless of their qualifications. This angered God even more and led directly to the destruction of Jeroboam's family line (13:34).

Did Jeroboam's shrewd moves make sense? From a human perspective, yes. Yet because they conflicted with God's explicitly stated will, they amounted to pure folly—and that makes Jeroboam a great fool, not a great success.

THE HIGHS AND LOWS OF FAITH

The prophet Elijah knew very well the highs and lows of a life of faith.

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME you took a walk? Your trek probably took you over several kinds of terrain: some uphill, some downhill; some concrete, some gravel; one part with the wind at your back, and another with gusts blowing in your face. Not every piece of your walk felt exactly the same.

Maybe that's one reason why the Bible often refers to “walking” (sometimes translated “in close fellowship”) with God (Genesis 5:22, 23; 6:9; 2 Corinthians 6:16; Revelation 3:4). At times, the walk is exhilarating and pleasant, like marching down a gradual slope with the wind at your back. But other times can be discouraging and even nasty, like plodding up a steep hill with a howling gale fighting your every move.

The prophet Elijah knew very well the highs and lows of a life of faith, and his life illustrates for us how swiftly our walk with God can change.

Elijah suddenly appeared on the scene in 1 Kings 17, predicting that a severe drought would scorch Israel because of its sin and the sin of its king, Ahab. The drought would last three years and end only when Elijah gives the word.

At the end of the third year, Elijah challenged 450 prophets of Baal—the false god of Ahab—to a contest atop Mount Carmel. He invited them to sacrifice to their god, as he will to his. Then he proposed an interesting test: “The god who answers by setting fire to the wood,” he declared, “is the true God!” (1 Kings 18:24).

Every kid who ever attended Sunday school knows how the contest turned out. Baal remained silent and dead as stone (which he was), while the God of Elijah sent fire from heaven to burn up not only the prophet’s sacrifice, but also the wood, stone, and water used in the demonstration. The people fell on their faces when they witnessed the great miracle, and Elijah then executed every one of the false prophets. By any measure of success, this was a big one. Elijah was riding high!

But it didn’t last long.

As soon as Ahab’s wicked wife, Jezebel, found out what Elijah had done to her beloved pagan priests, she sent him a chilling message: “May the gods strike me and even kill me if by this time tomorrow I have not killed you just as you killed them” (19:2). Great fear seized Elijah, and he fled for his life.

He sank into a deep depression and told God, “I have had enough, LORD. . . . Take my life, for I am no better than my ancestors” (19:4).

Imagine! The same prophet who, just a few hours before, felt flush from a dramatic victory; the same man of God who faced down the king of Israel—fell into a spiritual tailspin after receiving a single threatening message from the queen.

We don’t have to wonder at Elijah’s stark turnaround, for we often experience spiritual reversals of our own. A genuine walk with God features all kinds of terrain—but the destination is well worth the trials along the way.

THE WIMP

“No one else so completely sold himself to what was evil in the LORD's sight—for his wife, Jezebel, influenced him" (1 Kings 21:25).

LONG BEFORE THE fictitious whaling captain in Melville's novel Moby Dick cried out, "There she blows!" there was a real man named Ahab, a king of Israel (the northern ten tribes, anyway) in the 800s B.C. He was nowhere near as determined as the scar-faced, peg-legged sea captain; in fact, he was sort of a wimp.

Ahab was the son of a strong, empire-building king (King Omri), and he married an evil and strong-minded woman, Jezebel. From there on, events pushed Ahab back and forth like the waves of the ocean. Jezebel wanted to build a temple to her false god Baal right in Israel's capital city. Ahab agreed. God sent a three-year drought, announced by the prophet Elijah, to try to get Ahab's attention.

When he finally met Elijah again under a broiling sun, the king tried to pass the buck. "So, is it really you, you troublemaker of Israel?" (1 Kings 18:17). The prophet immediately shot back, "You and your family are the troublemakers, for you have refused to obey the commands of the LORD and have worshiped the images of Baal instead" (18:18). Thus followed the showdown on Mount Carmel, which proved to be a huge embarrassment for Ahab and fatal for his 850 cult priests.

Did Ahab learn his lesson and turn to the Lord God for an implant of righteous backbone? No.

Even when the Lord used Ahab's army to inflict major damage on the evil Arameans next door (chapter 20), Ahab couldn't quite pull the trigger and put the enemy king away. Instead, he struck a treaty with him. A prophet came by to tell Ahab how dumb that was, and "the king of Israel went home to Samaria angry and sullen" (20:43).

Soon thereafter, he sank into downright childishness. He fixated on a certain piece of real estate he wanted but couldn't have, because it belonged to another family who wasn't interested in selling. Again, he moped. He even "went to bed with his face to the wall and refused to eat!" (21:4).

Jezebel, exasperated with her husband, knew how to fix this in short order. She framed the property owner with a charge of blasphemy, got him executed, and then with a smirk advised Ahab to help himself to the land.

Elijah, as you might predict, was not amused and thundered down with a dreadful prophecy: Ahab's dynasty would not last long, and in fact, every male descendant would die an untimely death. (This came true within 17 years.)

Ahab may have thought he was just going with the flow, but the Bible gives this stunning condemnation: "He did more to provoke the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, than any of the other kings of Israel before him" (16:33). His lack of courage and devotion to God were not just personal weaknesses; they became his doom.

THE STRAIGHT

SHOOTER

“As surely as the LORD lives, I will say only what the LORD tells me to say.”

DO YOU SPILL the bad news to the boss right away, or do you wait for him to discover it for himself?

Micaiah, an obscure prophet who shows up in only one chapter of the Old Testament (1 Kings 22), was already in big trouble with King Ahab. More than once, the weasel king had asked Micaiah for God’s opinion on something and then hadn’t liked what he’d heard. It is possible that King Ahab already had Micaiah arrested and locked up.

Then came the day that Ahab wanted to organize a war against his eastern neighbors, the Arameans. He began lining up a coalition. He persuaded his fellow Hebrew monarch to the south, King Jehoshaphat of Judah, to sign on.

As part of the pep rally, Ahab trotted out his court prophets to endorse the campaign. They basically fell all over each other telling Ahab how wonderful the effort would turn out. “Go right ahead!” they chirped. “The Lord will give the king victory!” (22:6).

Their kissing up was so obvious that the visiting Jehoshaphat grew skeptical. He asked if maybe the group couldn't hear from a prophet of the Lord, just to be on the safe side.

Ahab scowled. "There is one more man who could consult the LORD for us, but I hate him. He never prophesies anything but trouble for me! His name is Micaiah son of Imlah" (22:8).

Soon Micaiah was dragged into the king's presence. On the way to the palace, the messenger told him which way the wind was already blowing and advised him not to try to spit in the opposite direction. Was Micaiah tempted to go along? After all, this could be his ticket out of being jailed. Make the king happy today, and who knows how his fortunes might improve . . . ?

Micaiah uttered just one sentence: "As surely as the LORD lives, I will say only what the LORD tells me to say" (22:14).

And that's what he did. Unfortunately, the Lord's message was not what Ahab wanted to hear. Micaiah told the king that if he went to war, this would be the last battle he'd ever fight. He would come home in a body bag, so to speak.

Ahab blew up, of course. "Didn't I tell you?" he screeched. "He never prophesies anything but trouble for me" (22:18).

You might think that Micaiah would have kept quiet in healthy fear after the king's outburst. But no—he kept talking, embellishing his message of doom with details of a vision he had seen. One of the false prophets came over and slapped his face. Even that didn't stop Micaiah from calling it the way he saw it.

Within minutes, he was on his way to prison—with orders for a bread-and-water diet. But by the end of the week, Micaiah was alive, and Ahab was dead.

We don't know whatever happened to Micaiah—how long he stayed locked up, how long he lived. We don't know if anybody ever admitted that he had been right. But we do know that he did his job the way God wanted it done, regardless of the personal consequences.

TWICE THE POWER

Elisha performed exactly twice as many miracles as did his teacher, Elijah.

FOR A LONG TIME Elisha served the prophet Elijah as a personal assistant. He saw many miracles and naturally held the prophet in high esteem. Yet none of that stopped Elisha from making a bold request just before God took his mentor away.

“Let me inherit a double share of your spirit,” Elisha asked Elijah (2 Kings 2:9; see footnote).

“You have asked a difficult thing,” replied the startled Elijah. “If you see me when I am taken from you, then you will get your request. But if not, then you won’t” (2:10).

Moments later, Elisha witnessed a chariot and horses of fire descend from heaven to scoop up Elijah. His master was gone—but his bold request had been granted. He did receive a “double share” of Elijah’s spirit, just as Elijah had predicted. And in fact, the Bible records that Elisha performed twice as many miraculous deeds as did his teacher (chapters 2–11).

Consider some of the miracles of Elisha:

Elijah raised one dead boy to life; Elisha performed a similar miracle twice—the second time after he himself already had died! (4:32-35; 13:20-21).

Elisha miraculously multiplied 20 barley loaves to feed 100 men—a preview of the Lord Jesus’ miracles of the feeding of the 5,000 and the 4,000. Just like the Lord’s greater and later miracles, “there was plenty for all and some left over” (4:44).

Elisha anticipated another miracle of Jesus—the turning of water into wine (John 2)—by filling several large, empty jars with olive oil supplied from a single flask (4:2-7).

When an enemy king discovered that Elisha had been foiling his plans for invasion by revealing them ahead of time to the king of Israel, the ruler decided to go after Elisha instead. He sent his army to surround Elisha’s city—but Elisha told his servant, “There are more on our side than on theirs,” and in fact, “the hillside around Elisha was filled with horses and chariots of fire” (6:16-17).

Elisha performed many other wonders during his years of service as God’s prophet. He struck armies with blindness (6:18); he sweetened deadly waters and decontaminated poisonous stew (2:19-22; 4:38-41); he healed “incurable” diseases (4:18-35; 5:1-14).

Elisha never stopped serving God. Even as he lay sick “in his last illness,” he prophesied over the king of Israel, rebuking him for his lack of spiritual sensitivity (13:14-20). And even after Elisha died, God performed one last miracle through his prophet, as if to put his final stamp of approval on the man’s remarkable ministry.

The life of Elisha proves at least one thing: God loves to work through his people. If you want God to use you, try asking.

A COMMON SPIRITUAL

ERROR

Naaman assumed that God always did things in a big, showy way. He was about to be disappointed.

NAAMAN HAD A PROBLEM. A big one. Although the king he served held him in “high admiration” and although “the LORD had given Aram great victories” through his military expertise, this accomplished general suffered from a contagious skin disease that made most people gag (2 Kings 5:1). Had he lived in Israel, his medical condition would have disqualified him from serving in any governmental capacity (Leviticus 13:46).

One day a household servant girl who knew about the ministry of Elisha the prophet suggested that Naaman visit this great man of God to be cured of his disease. Naaman gained permission from his king to make a visit and quickly set off with exorbitant gifts—750 pounds of silver, 150 pounds of gold, and ten sets of clothing (2 Kings 5:5). He came to Israel with high hopes—and a common misunderstanding about how God usually works.

Naaman not only wanted to impress Elisha with his grand entourage of horses and chariots and fancy presents, but he expected to see some spectacular spiritual fireworks on his behalf. He'd heard the stories about Elisha's miracles, and he assumed that God always did things in a big, showy way.

He was about to be disappointed.

The prophet didn't even come out to greet him. Instead, he sent his servant to instruct the offended general to take himself and his entourage to the muddy Jordan River, some twenty-five miles away, and there take seven baths. Then, the servant said, he would be healed.

Naaman was insulted and furious. "I thought he would certainly come out to meet me!" he fumed. "I expected him to wave his hand over the leprosy and call on the name of the LORD his God and heal me!" (5:11).

As Naaman stormed away from the house, muttering how the rivers of his own land put the Jordan to shame, his fellow officers gently tried to show him another perspective. “Sir,” they said, “if the prophet had told you to do something very difficult, wouldn’t you have done it? So you should certainly obey him when he says simply, ‘Go and wash and be cured!’” (5:13).

When Naaman at last calmed down and took his officers’ sensible advice, he discovered that God’s word can be trusted—even if it seems to make little sense, even if it conflicts with common expectations. When he rose from the Jordan for the seventh time, “his skin became as healthy as the skin of a young child’s, and he was healed!” (5:14).

Naaman had to learn what we all have to learn: While God may choose to show his power through the spectacular and the showy, he may equally choose to work his wonders through the mundane and the ordinary. His actions are not bound by our expectations, and his manner of working always remains his choice.

He is God, after all.

A PRAGMATIC MAN OF

RELIGION

Jehu liked his religion fine—as long as it served his purposes.

RELIGION CAN MAKE a great-looking cloak. Clever men know how to put it on and appear devout and respectable, gaining a great deal of clout in the process. A man named Jehu knew this drill well.

Long before Jehu took the throne of Israel, God told the prophet Elijah to anoint him as king (1 Kings 19:16). The anointing apparently did not occur, however, until Elijah had disappeared from the scene; his successor, Elisha, arranged for the ceremony (2 Kings 9:1-10).

God told Jehu through an unnamed prophet that he was to wipe out the entire family of the wicked King Ahab—“every one of his male descendants, slave and free alike” (9:8). Jehu liked what he heard and immediately planned a series of lightning strikes aimed at securing his new position. (Beware the man who takes too much delight in carrying out divine judgment!)

First Jehu executed the reigning king of Israel, Joram, the son of Ahab (9:24). Then he had Joram's nephew, King Ahaziah of Judah, who had come to visit his uncle, killed (9:27-28). Next he ordered the killing of Jezebel, the queen mother (9:30-33) and then proceeded to systematically eliminate Ahab's seventy sons living in Samaria (10:6-8) as well as “all who were left of Ahab's relatives living in Jezreel and all his important officials, his personal friends, and his priests" (10:11).

But still he was not done. When his forces happened upon 42 relatives of King Ahaziah, who had not heard about the coup, he summarily executed them all (10:12-14). After nearly every one of these killings, Jehu cited an old prophecy of Elijah as justification for his action. And still he had not finished. He told a friend, "Now come with me, and see how devoted I am to the LORD" (10:16).

Through a ruse he gathered all the dedicated followers and priests of Baal—who, not coincidentally, were also loyal to Ahab and his family—into one location and slaughtered them all. When he had finished that bloody task, he razed the temple of Baal and thus "destroyed every trace of Baal worship from Israel" (10:28).

Devoted to the Lord? It seemed like it at first. Yet Jehu did not destroy the gold calves at Bethel and Dan and "did not obey the Law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He refused to turn from the sins that Jeroboam had led Israel to commit" (10:31).

Jehu liked his religion fine so long as it served his purposes. If he could use the prophets' declarations and God's Word to solidify his own power base, wonderful. But if that same faith called for him to dismantle a system he thought he could use to strengthen his political hand—namely, the gold calves set up far from Jerusalem that kept his people safely within their own borders—then forget it. His "devotion to the Lord" amounted to little more than a cloak—one that, unfortunately, still gets a lot of use.

MAKE FAITH

YOUR OWN

Jehoiada taught Joash the requirements of the Law and encouraged him to serve God wholeheartedly.

NOBODY CAN LIVE for long on the convictions of someone else, no matter how right those convictions are or how godly the other person is. If King Joash of Judah had learned that lesson, he might have avoided the catastrophe that eventually broke him.

Joash grew up in tragic circumstances. His father, King Ahaziah, died at the hands of Jehu when Joash was only about a year old. Immediately after hearing the news, Joash's wicked grandmother, Athaliah—a daughter of the vile King Ahab—set out to annihilate the entire royal line of Judah. Only through the brave action of his aunt, Jehosheba, did Joash escape the slaughter. She hid him and his nurse in a bedroom and then spirited him away to the Temple, where, with the help of her husband, Jehoiada the priest, she kept him hidden from Athaliah for six years.

Uncle Jehoiada loved God with all his heart and secretly built a strong coalition of forces to depose the usurper Athaliah. When he judged the time right, he skillfully masterminded the operation and successfully placed seven-year-old Joash on the throne, simultaneously executing the murderous queen (2 Chronicles 23:1-15).

Throughout his long life, Jehoiada taught Joash the requirements of the Law and encouraged him to serve God wholeheartedly. In fact, the Bible says that “Joash did what was pleasing in the LORD’s sight throughout the lifetime of Jehoiada the priest” (2 Chronicles 24:2), in particular “because Jehoiada the priest instructed him” (2 Kings 12:2). When he got older, Joash even spearheaded a desperately needed repair project for the Temple (2 Chronicles 24:4-14).

But how things changed once the godly Jehoiada died! Joash foolishly listened to the counsel of certain leaders, and together they “decided to abandon the Temple of the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and they worshiped Asherah poles and idols instead!” Even though the Lord “sent prophets to bring them back to him,” neither Joash nor his people would listen (2 Chronicles 24:18-19).

It got so bad that when Jehoiada’s son, Zechariah, stood up to rebuke the king and his people for their outrageous sin, Joash himself gave the order to stone Zechariah to death in the Temple courtyard. “That was how King Joash repaid Jehoiada for his loyalty—by killing his son,” Scripture solemnly concludes (2 Chronicles 24:22).

What happened? How could Joash fall so far, so fast? Apparently, he never made Jehoiada’s faith commitment his own. He admired, respected, and perhaps even loved the old priest. He wanted to please him. Therefore he honored Jehoiada’s God as long as the old man lived.

When the priest died, Joash’s loyalty to God also died, since he had never made a personal faith commitment. It was easy for him to switch allegiances when the movers and shakers suggested he adopt a more “contemporary” faith.

You can’t live off of another’s faith. You have to make it your own.

FROM OBSCURITY TO # FAME

Just who was this ancient man who has caused such a stir in the modern world?

HARDLY ANYONE PAID the slightest attention to this obscure character whose complete story gets told in two small verses in 1 Chronicles 4:9-10—until the publication of a slim book titled The Prayer of Jabez in 2000. Author Bruce Wilkinson told how a prayer that Jabez uttered thousands of years ago had revolutionized his own prayer life and could bring life and vitality to anyone who dared take the prayer seriously.

So, just who was this ancient man who has caused such a stir in the modern world? The Bible says almost nothing about him. It only calls Jabez “more honorable than any of his brothers” and reports that his mother named him Jabez because his birth had caused her so much suffering (his name sounds like a Hebrew word for “distress” or “pain”).

And then comes his prayer, a simple request that God honored:

*Oh, that you would bless me and expand my territory!
Please be with me in all that I do, and keep me from all trouble and pain!*

That's it. That's all we know about Jabez.

The book The Prayer of Jabez has generated a fair amount of discussion and argument regarding the merits of specific prayer. But beyond the controversy and whatever one may believe about the book, we can learn at least three lessons from Jabez and his now-famous prayer:

With God's help, you can overcome even a painful beginning to rise to the top.

God invites and encourages our prayers.

God loves to bless his children in ways they don't deserve.

If we use the example of Jabez to motivate us to pray and thus remain in close, personal contact with the gracious Lord of the universe, then we will honor the memory of this once-obscure man of the Bible. And in the process we will discover for ourselves the thrill of a living, dynamic relationship with God.

2 Chronicles 14:1-16:14

GREAT START, LAME FINISH

He grew a little too smart for his own good.

NOBODY HAD TO WONDER very long what kind of a king Asa was going to be when he rose to the Judean throne. He came right out of the gate showing his colors.

He sent wrecking crews to knock down the idols that had popped up around the country. He ordered the male prostitutes who hung around the shrines to go get decent jobs.

He repaired the Lord's altar in front of the Temple and called a national gathering to pledge to serve God faithfully. "They shouted out their oath of loyalty to the LORD with trumpets blaring and rams' horns sounding" (2 Chronicles 15:14).

Asa found out his grandmother had put up an Asherah pole, a particularly lewd fetish of paganism. He not only cut down the pole but also had the nerve to cut off the old lady's royal perks as queen mother. To put it bluntly, he dissed his own grandma.

When a vast army of Ethiopians came up from the south to attack him, he openly called out to God for help. Amazingly, Asa's army won the battle, though seriously outnumbered.

This man was definitely headed for the spiritual leadership hall of fame—until he grew a little too smart for his own good. Some 36 years into his reign, another army came threatening. Not as big a group as the Ethiopians, but still a problem.

But this time, instead of calling out to the Lord as before, Asa got clever with a scheme of his own. He bought the services of the neighboring Arameans, who rattled their sabers enough to scare off the attackers. Good enough, thought Asa. I solved that one.

Then a prophet showed up to say it hadn't been such a bright idea after all. "Because you have put your trust in the king of Aram instead of in the LORD your God, you missed your chance to destroy the army of the king of Aram" (16:7).

To make matters worse, the king, rather than humbling himself and apologizing to God for his independence, flew into a royal rage. He sent the prophet off to jail.

From then on, it was all downhill for Asa. As an old man, he developed a serious foot disease. "Yet even with the severity of his disease, he did not seek the LORD's help but turned only to his physicians" (16:12). The last picture we see of Asa is an old man hobbling around his palace, grimacing with every step, too stubborn to yield to the divine direction that had made him a great monarch in days gone by.

Asa's story is a warning to all of us who think we've been around the block enough times to know the way by ourselves. We forget that life is quite capable of throwing new challenges at us and that in the midst of life's storms, our best navigator is not us but God.

WHEN TOLERANCE GOES

TOO FAR

“Why should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD?”

HOW FAR IS TOO FAR in developing a friendship with a buddy whose lifestyle and faith oppose everything you stand for? When does legitimate tolerance cross over into an unacceptable endorsement? A celebrated king of Judah gives us some good clues.

Without question, the Bible depicts Jehoshaphat as a shining light in an often dark line of corrupt Hebrew kings. “He did what was pleasing in the LORD’s sight” (2 Chronicles 20:32). “He was deeply committed to the ways of the LORD” (17:6). Jehoshaphat encouraged his people “to return to the LORD” (19:4), he sent out Bible teachers throughout his land (17:7-9), he instructed the nation's judges to "remember that you do not judge to please people but to please the LORD" (19:6), and he told other leaders, "You must always act in the fear of the LORD" (19:9). Even a man of God who rebuked him also quickly added, "You have committed yourself to seeking God" (19:3).

When a colossal coalition of three large armies marched against Jerusalem, Jehoshaphat called all Judah to prayer and fasting and publicly confessed to God, "We are powerless against this mighty army that is about to attack us. We do not know what to do, but we are looking to you for help" (20:12)—and God miraculously intervened. Because of his godly actions the king became "more and more powerful" (17:12) and accumulated "great riches and high esteem" (18:1).

And yet—despite his personal piety, despite his efforts at national religious reform, despite his high standing even with someone as hard to impress as the prophet Elisha (2 Kings 3:14)—Jehoshaphat ultimately failed both his family and his kingdom. How? By cozying up to the evil King Ahab. Jehoshaphat not only willingly went to his pagan friend's aid in war (2 Chronicles 18:1-4), but he also tried to become a major business partner with Ahab's son (20:35-37), and even arranged for his own son to marry one of Ahab's daughters (18:1).

So when Jehoshaphat returned from the military campaign that took Ahab's life, a man of God said to him, "Why should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? . . . Because of what you have done, the LORD is very angry with you" (19:2).

That anger burned hotly against Jehoram, Jehoshaphat's successor and oldest son. This man "followed the example of the kings of Israel and was as wicked as King Ahab, for he had married one of Ahab's daughters" (21:6). To secure his throne he "killed all his brothers and some of the other leaders of Israel" (21:4). A few years later, God struck him with a severe intestinal disease that after two years "caused his bowels to come out, and he died in agony" (21:19). The Bible reports, "No one was sorry when he died" (21:20).

Tolerance may be a virtue, but endorsing sin never is—and the consequences of sin can last for generations.

THE PRIDE OF POWER

Uzziah apparently thought he had arrived at such a high level that he no longer needed to obey God's rules.

KING UZZIAH OF JUDAH provides a great example of how a talented man can sabotage his career by forgetting what really brought him his success.

Uzziah took the throne as a 16-year-old boy and ruled for 52 years, the second-longest reign of any king in the history of Judah or Israel. The Bible tells us that he “did what was pleasing in the LORD’s sight, just as his father, Amaziah, had done. . . . And as long as the king sought guidance from the LORD, God gave him success” (2 Chronicles 26:4-5).

In fact, Uzziah enjoyed one success after another. He subdued the Philistines, Israel’s ancient enemies, and with God’s help so thoroughly defeated several other troublesome foes that “his fame spread even to Egypt” (26:8).

The king strengthened the defenses of his capital city, built fortresses in outlying districts, vastly improved water supply systems throughout his kingdom, and indulged his love for agriculture by operating many farms and vineyards. He also built a large standing army comprised of well-equipped, professional soldiers, and brought in brilliant weapons specialists to design structures, mounted on the city’s walls, “to protect those who shot arrows and hurled large stones from the towers and the corners of the wall” (26:15).

No wonder the Bible says that the king’s “fame spread far and wide, for the LORD gave him marvelous help . . .” If only the sentence ended there!

But it doesn’t. It continues: “. . . and he became very powerful” (26:15). Why would the Lord stop helping Uzziah when he became powerful? Scripture provides the sad answer: “But when he had become powerful, he also became proud, which led to his downfall” (26:16).

Uzziah forgot that he owed all his success to the Lord. It was God who brought him his competent civic officials, qualified military commanders, and astute foreign policy advisers. Yet he began to think that he had achieved success all on his own.

Of course, he never verbalized it that way. He continued to attend worship services regularly and give God public credit for his achievements. But he revealed his true thoughts one day in the Temple.

Uzziah apparently thought he had arrived at such a high level that he no longer needed to obey God’s rules for worship. He arrogantly began to offer his own incense at the Temple altar, rather than allow the priests to do their designated job. When the priests objected, he reacted with fury and indignantly refused to stop—until God struck him with an ugly disease, right there in the house of God. The king’s anger immediately morphed to speechless terror, and the priests hustled him out of the building. “So King Uzziah had leprosy until the day he died,” says Scripture. “He lived in isolation in a separate house, for he was excluded from the Temple of the LORD” (26:21).

Never forget that whatever success God allows comes from him. If you ever begin to forget, pray that God will help you to recall just one name: Uzziah.

FORMULA FOR SUCCESS

“In all that he did . . . [he] sought his God wholeheartedly. As a result, he was very successful.”

HIS FATHER WAS A LOOT —so bad a king that when he died, they couldn’t force themselves to bury him in the royal cemetery.

But Hezekiah was determined to be different. He straightened up the Temple and sponsored a full-on Passover celebration. Idol worship was put to a quick halt.

Hezekiah’s life was a brilliant combination of complementary virtues. Ambition plus prayer. Deeds plus devotion. Action plus supplication. Not one or the other, but both. Second Chronicles 31:21 provides an apt summary: “In all that he did in the service of the Temple of God and in his efforts to follow God’s law and commands, Hezekiah sought his God wholeheartedly. As a result, he was very successful.”

The paragraphs immediately following that verse give a vivid example of Hezekiah’s approach to life. When the Assyrian king, Sennacherib, came threatening Jerusalem, Hezekiah sprang into a major mobilization. He called in his army corps of engineers and said, in essence, “Let’s cut off their water supply—literally. Let’s divert the Kidron Brook so it flows inside our city walls instead of outside, which will strand the Assyrians out there in the hot sun to bake.”

The Kidron Brook was an underground spring that emerged just outside the city wall. Hezekiah’s plan was to dig a tunnel so the spring would remain underground until it was safely inside the walls.

And that’s just what they did. If you go to Israel today, you can still see the water tunnel they chipped out of solid rock, six feet tall, one-third of a mile long, twisting down to end at a pool (known in the New Testament as the Pool of Siloam). Hezekiah’s men had no power tools, no jackhammers, no dynamite—their only technology was hard work with pickaxes and shovels. A true feat of heavy construction in ancient times.

And the Assyrians backed off!

Of course, they returned a while later, still bent on conquering Jerusalem. Now what was Hezekiah going to do?

“Then King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz cried out in prayer to God in heaven” (32:20). The king’s actual prayer is quoted in 2 Kings 19—“Bend down, O LORD, and listen! Open your eyes, O LORD, and see! Listen to Sennacherib’s words of defiance against the living God. . . . O LORD our God, rescue us from his power; then all the kingdoms of the earth will know that you alone, O LORD, are God” (2 Kings 19:16, 19).

Hezekiah never even had to pull out a sword. That very night, the Lord sent his angel to decimate the Assyrians in their tents; 185,000 troops never woke up the next morning.

Hezekiah's hard work and persistent prayer paid off. When a godly man works like crazy—and prays even harder—the combination can overcome even the worst assault.

EVIL, GRACE, AND

CONSEQUENCES

It seemed like the end of the road, a just finale for such a stubbornly evil man.

IF ANY HEBREW KING ever embodied pure, raw wickedness, it would be King Manasseh—and yet even this vile man found grace and forgiveness when he turned from his sin and sought the God of his fathers.

Manasseh became king of Judah at the age of 12 when his father, the good King Hezekiah, died. Apparently he learned nothing from his father's godly example, because once on the throne he worked hard to invent new ways to sin. He rebuilt the pagan shrines that Hezekiah had destroyed, worshiped the stars and sun and moon, set up idols throughout his kingdom, built pagan altars in the Temple courtyard and even carved an image of a female fertility goddess and set it up in the Temple itself.

Not content with these sins, Manasseh offered his sons as burnt offerings to foreign deities, practiced sorcery, divination, and witchcraft, and consulted with mediums and psychics (2 Chronicles 33:1-9). He also “murdered many innocent people until Jerusalem was filled from one end to the other with innocent blood” (2 Kings 21:16).

Although God sent prophet after prophet to warn Manasseh about the consequences of his reckless sins, the king paid them no attention. In fact, “the people refused to listen, and Manasseh led them to do even more evil than the pagan nations that the LORD had destroyed when the people of Israel entered the land” (2 Kings 21:9).

In the end, the Lord’s patience ran out. He sent the ruthless Assyrian army to attack Jerusalem, and “they took Manasseh prisoner. They put a ring through his nose, bound him in bronze chains, and led him away to Babylon” (2 Chronicles 33:11).

It seemed like the end of the road, a just finale for such a stubbornly evil man. Yet while Manasseh languished in prison far from home, his deep distress led him to repent. “Manasseh sought the LORD his God,” the Bible says, “and sincerely humbled himself before the God of his ancestors” (33:12).

But would that be enough? Hadn’t he sinned too much? Scripture answers with this: “And when he prayed, the LORD listened to him and was moved by his request. So the LORD brought Manasseh back to Jerusalem and to his kingdom. Then Manasseh finally realized that the LORD alone is God! ” (33:13).

Upon his return to Judah, the king tore down the pagan altars he had built and removed the idols he had set up. He also tried to encourage the people of Judah “to worship the LORD, the God of Israel” (33:16). However, his previous detestable behavior had etched patterns of sin too deeply into the national character. For most of his 55-year reign, Manasseh had led the way in wickedness, and now the “new” Manasseh found it impossible to bring his people to the same kind of repentance that he had experienced in Babylon. So while he found grace, most of his people preferred their sin—and would therefore face the dire consequences.

NOBODY

LIKE HIM

It was never enough for Josiah to nurture a private religious observance.

FOR DECADES his nation had largely turned its back on God. His grandfather had invented degenerate religious practices too depraved even for pagans. His father had picked up where his grandfather left off and was prevented from descending further only by his murder just two years into his reign.

Into such a wretched atmosphere young Josiah ascended the throne of Judah. No doubt the nation's few remaining worshipers of the Living God waited anxiously for the other shoe to drop. What horrors would this eight-year-old king attempt?

Surprisingly, none. In fact, Josiah defied all expectation and spearheaded an unprecedented national revival. "He did what was pleasing in the LORD's sight and followed the example of his ancestor David. He did not turn away from doing what was right" (2 Chronicles 34:2).

Eight years into his reign, Josiah "began to seek the God of his ancestor David" (34:3). Four years later, he began to travel the length and breadth of his kingdom to rid it of the pagan influences championed by his relatives. Six years after that, he turned his attention to the neglected Jerusalem Temple and commanded several of his aides to begin its restoration.

As these men went to work, one of them discovered an old scroll. It turned out to be a copy of the Book of the Law, the set of divine commands and instructions given centuries before through Moses, which had passed out of Judah's memory decades earlier. When an official read its contents to Josiah, the young king reacted with alarm and tore his clothes in despair, for he knew that his people had not fulfilled its instructions and had brazenly insulted the Lord (2 Kings 22:1).

Josiah urgently instructed his closest associates to ask God about the book. They quickly consulted a prophet named Huldah, who announced that God would certainly destroy Judah and Jerusalem for the people's long years of rebellion—but that because Josiah had humbled himself and repented, the Lord would not carry out his fierce judgment while the king lived (2 Kings 22:14-20).

From that point on, Josiah pursued his relationship to God with even greater zeal. He led a nationwide Passover celebration, the likes of which had not been seen “since the time of the prophet Samuel,” nearly 500 years before (2 Chronicles 35:18). Throughout the rest of his 31-year reign, Josiah put his faith fully into practice. It was never enough for him to nurture a private religious observance; he felt compelled to let his faith shape and color everything he did.

“Never before had there been a king like Josiah,” says the Bible, “who turned to the LORD with all his heart and soul and strength, obeying all the laws of Moses. And there has never been a king like him since” (2 Kings 23:25).

A SCRIBE OF

GRACE

Nearly every time that Ezra describes a ministry or personal triumph, he mentions grace as the underlying reason.

WHEN A PRIEST AND SCHOLAR named Ezra became convinced sometime around 458 B.C. that he should return to the ruined homeland of his people, he probably had no idea of the difficult task ahead. He knew only that God had touched his heart for the welfare of his homeland and that he had to do something about it.

Ezra could trace his lineage back 16 generations to the first high priest of Israel, Aaron himself (Ezra 7:1-5). While in exile, Ezra had applied himself to studying the Law of Moses and had developed a great burden to teach God's word to the small pockets of discouraged Hebrews who had returned to Judah.

While we might attribute Ezra's success to foresight, determination, good political connections, and grit, he consistently pointed to another source for his victories. We might not expect the source he names—especially since he lived in challenging Old Testament times, not exciting New Testament days. To what did Ezra attribute his ministry success?

Grace!

Nearly every time Ezra describes a ministry or personal triumph, he mentions grace as the underlying reason. Consider a few of the major milestones in his career:

Before Ezra set out from Persia on his mission, the mighty King Artaxerxes “gave him everything he asked for.” Why? Because “the gracious hand of the LORD his God was on him” (7:6).

Beyond the gifts and supplies, the scribe received tremendous honor—not only in the presence of the king, but also before the king’s counsel and all his leading princes. Why? Because “the gracious hand of the LORD my God was on me” (7:28).

Just before Ezra set out on his journey to Jerusalem, he felt disappointed that no Levites had joined his expedition. So he contacted some friends for their help, and soon a number of Levites showed up. Why? Because “the gracious hand of our God was on us” (8:18).

Ezra prayed for safe travel and protection from thieves, then instituted several practical safety measures. The result? “The gracious hand of our God protected us and saved us from enemies and bandits along the way” (8:31).

Even when Ezra discovered that many of his countrymen had married pagan wives and thus had broken God's law, he took refuge in grace. In a prayer of confession he said, "But now we have been given a brief moment of grace, for the LORD our God has allowed a few of us to survive as a remnant" (9:8).

You probably already know that grace is essential for salvation, but Ezra shows us that grace applies to other areas of our lives as well. And we need it more than we know.

A MAN OF PRAYER AND AMMUNITION

Nehemiah knew how to get things done and possessed a keen mind for practical issues.

NEHEMIAH MADE UP the second half of the dynamic duo that God used to encourage and organize the downtrodden Hebrews who had returned from exile. While Ezra the scribe focused on the spiritual needs of the repatriated Jews, Nehemiah concentrated on their physical and political requirements. He especially worked at rebuilding the ruined wall that had once protected Jerusalem.

Nehemiah gained permission from King Artaxerxes to return to and rebuild Jerusalem in 444 B.C. He had faithfully served as the king's cupbearer—a trusted personal adviser—and therefore had gained not only the king's permission but also a personal military escort, letters of introduction to local authorities, and a substantial amount of costly supplies.

Like Ezra, Nehemiah enjoyed a close walk with God. He also knew how to get things done and possessed a keen mind for practical issues. He quickly discovered that many of the non-Jewish residents of the land (peoples who had been transplanted there many years before by the conquering Assyrians) opposed his plans to rebuild. He instituted several strategies to overcome his enemies' hostility:

He assigned small groups of naturally related workers to labor on specific parts of the wall—often assigning families to workstations right next to their own homes (Nehemiah 3).

He led public prayer meetings to counter the ridicule and cruel mocking suffered by his colleagues (4:1-5).

He took extra protective measures when he heard of violent plots against the work, even assigning half of his men to round-the-clock guard duty (4:6-18). He would have understood and approved of the World War II chaplain's exhortation to "Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition."

He purposefully deprived himself of the comforts allowed him in his official capacity as governor, so that he might fully identify with his people and assure them of his wholehearted support (5:14-19).

He recognized treachery and countered dangerous plots with straightforward talk and behind-the-scenes prayer (6:10-14).

Through Nehemiah's visionary leadership and hardnosed example, the wall around Jerusalem went up in just 52 days. "When our enemies and the surrounding nations heard about it," Nehemiah reports, "they were frightened and humiliated.

They realized that this work had been done with the help of our God” (6:16).

Nehemiah never saw the slightest inconsistency between a strong faith and a practical, get-things-done attitude. He made frequent use of both prayer and ammunition, in that order. Whenever his fellow Jews started sliding toward discouragement, he found concrete ways to pick up their spirits and keep the work moving. And what kept him marching ahead? He gave that answer himself to an adversary who disingenuously requested a meeting: “I am doing a great work! I cannot stop to come and meet with you” (6:3).

someone you should know: mordecai

Esther 2:19-4:17

AS WARY AS A SNAKE

Mordecai no doubt prayed, but he also acted.

SEVERAL YEARS BEFORE HIS DEATH in 1988, radio Bible teacher J. Vernon McGee spoke with a man who held some extreme views on the sovereignty of God. The man declared that he trusted so deeply in God's control over all things that he believed he could walk out at rush hour in the middle of one of California's busiest roads, and if it wasn't his time to go, he'd remain completely safe. McGee immediately replied, "If you walk out into the middle of that street at rush hour, it will be your time to go!"

McGee and an Old Testament hero named Mordecai would have gotten along very well.

Mordecai is a key figure in the book of Esther, one of only two books in the Bible that doesn't explicitly mention God (the other is the Song of Solomon). Yet while God's name never appears in Esther, his providential control of events permeates every chapter in the book. Mordecai clearly believed in God's sovereignty, but he just as clearly believed in taking wise and appropriate action.

This fifth-century B.C. Jew lived in exile in Persia. He reared his cousin Esther as his own daughter when her parents died. As a beautiful young woman, Esther won an empire-wide beauty contest and eventually became the queen to King Xerxes—but Mordecai wisely instructed her not to reveal her nationality. In time, Mordecai (who didn't try to conceal his own heritage) learned of a plot to assassinate the king and reported it, thus preventing the murder.

Despite his loyalty, however, Mordecai soon gained a powerful enemy when he refused to bow down to the prime minister, a wicked man named Haman. As a pious Jew, Mordecai could not show a mere man such worshipful deference. But Mordecai's religious prohibitions made no difference to Haman. He plotted to exterminate not only Mordecai, but all Jews everywhere. He tricked the king into signing an order for genocide and then set the date, almost a year in the future.

What would you do if you were Mordecai? Would you just put the matter into God's gracious hands and do nothing but pray? Mordecai no doubt prayed, but he also used the tools in his own hands. He contacted Esther about intervening with the king, and when she expressed some reservations, he told her, "Don't think for a moment that you will escape there in the palace when all other Jews are killed. If you keep quiet at a time like this, deliverance for the Jews will arise from some other place, but you and your relatives will die. What's more, who can say but that you have been elevated to the palace for just such a time as this?" (Esther 4:13-14).

Mordecai's words moved Esther to action, and eventually the tables were violently turned, resulting not only in the deliverance of the Jews but also in the destruction of their enemies—including Haman.

So is God sovereign? You bet. But he also expects us to “be as wary as snakes” (Matthew 10:16).

Job oscillates between profound expressions of faith and sharp outbursts of exasperation.

SOMETIMES BELIEVERS GET NERVOUS when fellow believers who are suffering start sounding unspiritual. We worry that perhaps our friends are beginning to lose their faith—when, in fact, nothing of the sort is happening. Most often, godly people in pain speak out of their frustration and confusion while never losing sight of the ultimate source of comfort—just like Job.

For thousands of years, Bible readers have associated this name with suffering. Scripture describes him as “blameless, a man of complete integrity” who “feared God and stayed away from evil” (Job 1:1). Yet despite his personal godliness, a terrifying succession of events took Job’s children, his riches, his standing in the community, and finally his health. Even his wife encouraged him to “curse God and die.”

Yet Job replied, “You talk like a godless woman. Should we accept only good things from the hand of God and never anything bad?” And then the Bible adds, “So in all this, Job said nothing wrong” (2:10).

But as the days dragged on with no relief in sight and even Job’s friends started wondering aloud whether he had brought the calamity on himself through some secret sin, Job began to fret and stew and speak like . . . well, like someone in deep pain. He never came close to abandoning his faith in God, although sometimes it may have sounded like it.

Throughout the book, Job oscillates between profound expressions of faith and sharp outbursts of exasperation. Consider just a few of these flip-flops:

Faith: “The LORD gave me everything I had, and the LORD has taken it away. Praise the name of the LORD!” (1:21)

Exasperation: “Cursed be the day of my birth, and cursed be the night when I was conceived” (3:3).

Faith: “At least I can take comfort in this: Despite the pain, I have not denied the words of the Holy One” (6:10).

Exasperation: “All I want is a reasonable answer—then I will keep quiet. Tell me, what have I done wrong?” (6:24).

Faith: “But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, and that he will stand upon the earth at last. And after my body has decayed, yet in my body I will see God!” (19:25-26).

Exasperation: “I cry to you, O God, but you don’t answer me. I stand before you, and you don’t bother to look. You have become cruel toward me. You persecute me with your great power” (30:20-21).

Several times Job pleads for answers (13:3, 15; 23:3-7; 31:35-37), and several times he wishes for some kind of mediator to plead his case before God (9:33; 31:35; 33:23).

In the end, Job gets no answers but does get a renewed vision of God—and that is enough. His faith intact, Job once again experiences the blessing of God and lives to be “an old man who had lived a long, good life” (42:17).

Pain may change the vocabulary of faith, but it can’t eradicate its content.

“YOU HAD IT COMING”

Once the words began to flow, so did the foolishness.

JOB’S FRIENDS SPOKE their wisest words during the first seven days they spent with him. That’s when they shut their mouths and kept silent.

Once the words began to flow, so did the foolishness. Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar got stuck on a single track and couldn’t get off of it. Unfortunately, the four ugly lanes of this same track still wind their way through our thoughts.

UGLY LANE #1: Personal suffering always has a clear reason.

Eliphaz insisted, “Evil does not spring from the soil, and trouble does not sprout from the earth” (Job 5:6). If somebody’s life is messed up, then there is obviously a cause. After all, trouble doesn’t come out of nowhere.

UGLYLANE #2: Good guys always prosper.

“Stop and think!” Eliphaz told Job. “Does the innocent person perish? When has the upright person been destroyed?” (4:7). Bildad put it this way: “God will not reject a person of integrity, nor will he make evildoers prosper” (8:20). And Zophar got in his two cents as well: “If only you would prepare your heart and lift up your hands to [God] in prayer. . . . You will be protected and will rest in safety” (11:13-18). In other words, the righteous always receive their just rewards in this life.

UGLYLANE #3: Bad guys always roast.

Job’s three friends just knew that evil men got what they had coming, without exception. “Don’t you realize that ever since people were first placed on the earth,” asked Zophar, “the triumph of the wicked has been short-lived and the joy of the godless has been only temporary?” (20:4-5). Eliphaz agreed: “Wicked people are in pain throughout their lives,” he maintained (15:20). “The truth remains,” Bildad concluded, “that the light of the wicked will be snuffed out” (18:5). In other words, evil always gets judged in this life, long before death comes knocking.

UGLYLANE #4: If you suffer, you must have sinned.

“God is doubtless punishing you far less than you deserve,” Zophar lectured Job (11:6). “Your guilt has no limit!” shouted Eliphaz (22:5). “Your children obviously sinned against [God],” explained Bildad, “so their punishment was well deserved” (8:4).

How long Job had to endure such cruel comments, the book doesn’t say. But we do know how badly these men misrepresented the truth, for God himself told Eliphaz, “I am angry with you and with your two friends, for you have not been right in what you said about me, as my servant Job was” (42:7).

Do you have a friend who’s suffering? If so, be careful what you say to bring comfort or clarity. Make sure you don’t run along the ugly track of Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar. Keep in mind that your best guess as to the reason for your friend’s suffering is likely to be way off.

SONGS FOR THE AGES

Asaph proves that a faithful man can have a positive impact on his family for generations.

WHEN YOU THINK “MUSIC,” who comes to mind? Mozart? Bach? Goodman? Bachman Turner Overdrive? Sibelius? Sinatra?

You probably didn't name Asaph, but he would have been a worthy nominee. This ancient master of song bequeathed to the world not only his work but also a faithful group of musicians who long continued his legacy.

The Bible first mentions Asaph as “first assistant” to “Heman the musician.” King David assigned these Levites to “lead the music at the house of the LORD,” along with their sons (1 Chronicles 6:33-39). When the Ark of the Covenant moved to Jerusalem for the first time, Asaph was among those who sounded the bronze cymbals (1 Chronicles 15:19). Shortly after this event, Asaph got a promotion and became the leader of Israel's worship (16:5).

On at least one occasion, David gave a worship song he had written to Asaph and his team to perform (16:7). For many years Asaph “proclaim[ed] God’s messages to the accompaniment of harps, lyres, and cymbals” (25:1). He, his sons, and his associates “were all trained in making music before the LORD, and each of them—288 in all—was an accomplished musician” (25:7).

Yet Asaph was far more than a professional musician. Hundreds of years after Asaph’s death, Hezekiah, the fourteenth king of Judah, ordered his own worship leaders “to praise the LORD with the psalms of David and Asaph the seer” (2 Chronicles 29:30). Superscriptions in the Psalms name Asaph as the author of a dozen songs (50; 73–83), and yet at least three of the compositions (74; 79; 80) seem to have been written centuries later by his descendants. Apparently Asaph exerted such a strong influence that his music and message lived on long after his death.

Was this merely a pleasant but unintended side effect of a godly life? Hardly. Asaph intended for his influence to outlive him. Listen to part of one of his songs: “I will teach you hidden lessons from our past—stories we have heard and know, stories our ancestors handed down to us. We will not hide these truths from our children but will tell the next generation about the glorious deeds of the LORD. We will tell of his power and the mighty miracles he did . . . so each generation can set its hope anew on God” (Psalm 78:2-7).

Asaph warned his sons and fellow Israelites not to envy the prosperity of evil men, as he foolishly did at one time (Psalms 73). He extolled God’s power and majesty (Psalm 76) and cried out in deep pain for deliverance (Psalm 77). He sternly counseled his countrymen to avoid flirting with foreign gods (Psalm 81), rebuked unjust judges (Psalm 82), and pled for God to destroy Israel's enemies (Psalm 83).

Asaph left a tremendous legacy, not only of music but also of delight in God. He proves that a faithful man can have a positive impact on his family for generations.

someone you should know: isaiah

Isaiah 6:1-13

DON'T LOOK TO EGYPT

Too often we shake our heads at the foolishness of the Hebrew kings while at the same time imitating their errors.

ISAIAH, CONSIDERED BY MANY to be the greatest Old Testament prophet, had a long public ministry that spanned the reigns of at least four kings of Judah (Uzziah through Hezekiah, about 740–680 B.C.). Because Isaiah enjoyed such easy access to each of these rulers, some believe that royal blood coursed through his own veins.

Jewish tradition suggests that in the end, the wicked King Manasseh spilled Isaiah's blood by sawing him in two—a tradition some believe finds support in Hebrews 11:37. But no one knows for sure.

What made Isaiah so great? Like most of the prophets, Isaiah uncompromisingly called people to faith in “the Holy One of Israel” (one of his favorite names for God). He lived during a time of great material prosperity and greater spiritual apathy. Isaiah thundered against his countrymen's slide into spiritual decay and warned that God would never wink at their sin. He often spoke of coming judgment—Assyria for Israel and Babylon for Judah—but he also looked much further into the future. He prophesied that even through his judgment, God would preserve a remnant for himself and would ultimately bring his people back to the Promised Land.

Most significant of all, Isaiah proclaimed that one day God would send a Redeemer, the Messiah, who would lead his people into a time of unparalleled joy and health (Isaiah 52:13–53:12; 54).

Yet Isaiah spent much of his career speaking not of distant events, but warning of current temptations. Time after time he warned rulers not to look for political and military help from the major powers of the day, but to depend upon God for protection. “What sorrow awaits those who look to Egypt for help,” Isaiah declared, “trusting their horses, chariots, and charioteers and depending on the strength of human armies instead of looking to the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.” (31:1; see also 20:5-6; 30:1-7; 39:1-7).

Isaiah hated the thought that any true follower of God would intentionally turn from reliance on the Lord to look for help from more “tangible” and “practical” sources. Most of the kings of Judah rejected Isaiah’s advice, but his prophecies proved to be accurate nevertheless.

Too often we shake our heads at the foolishness of the Hebrew kings while at the same time imitating their errors. How easy to claim allegiance to God, even as we form partnerships and make alliances with ungodly sources in an effort to cover our backs.

Instead, we ought to act on the promise given through Isaiah: “Because the Sovereign LORD helps me, I will not be disgraced. Therefore, I have set my face like a stone, determined to do his will. And I know that I will not be put to shame. . . .

“Who among you fears the LORD and obeys his servant? If you are walking in darkness, without a ray of light, trust in the LORD and rely on your God” (Isaiah 50:7, 10).

That’s good advice for ancient kings—and for us! But God’s promises will do us good only if we act on his commands.

THE POINT: God calls us to rely on him alone.

someone you should know: jeremiah

Jeremiah 1:4-19

WHOSE WORD WILL STAND?

The people of Judah had slipped into a sickening state of spiritual rebellion.

THE PROPHET JEREMIAH had one of the toughest careers ever. From the very beginning, God declared, in essence, “You must repeat to these hardhearted people everything I say, but they will not listen to a single word. Everyone who hears you will hate you and try to harm you, but I’ll keep you alive—just so you can go on speaking and getting rejected in return” (see Jeremiah 1:17-19; 7:27).

The Lord told Jeremiah not to marry (16:1-2). Several times the Lord barred him from praying for the welfare of his countrymen (7:16; 11:14; 14:11), and he frequently brought the prophet to the point where he said things like, “My grief is beyond healing; my heart is broken. . . . I mourn and am overcome with grief” (8:18, 21). It’s not difficult to understand why Jeremiah is often referred to as “the weeping prophet.”

Jeremiah tried to resign from his calling but found it impossible to do so: “If I say I’ll never mention the LORD or speak in his name, his word burns in my heart like a fire. It's like a fire in my bones! I am worn out trying to hold it in!" (20:9).

It isn't easy to read Jeremiah's book in a single sitting, and its 52-chapter length isn't the main problem. Its unrelenting predictions of doom on an unrepentant people come down to this: You're going to die in horrible and ugly ways! While bright promises of a better future dot the book (for example, 30:1-11; 31:1-40; 33:3-26), Jeremiah spends most of his time declaring God's imminent judgment.

It's not that either God or Jeremiah delighted in gloom. Rather, the people of Judah had slipped into such spiritual rebellion that their attitude had become, "We will not listen to your messages from the LORD! We will do whatever we want. We will burn incense and pour out liquid offerings to the Queen of Heaven just as much as we like" (44:16-17).

What do you say to such hard hearts? How do you respond to such insolence? The Lord replied with a challenge: "You and your wives have said, 'We will keep our promises to burn incense and pour out liquid offerings to the Queen of Heaven,' and you have proved by your actions that you meant it. So go ahead and carry out your promises and vows to her!' But listen to this message from the LORD, all you Judeans now living in Egypt: . . . 'I will watch over you to bring you disaster and not good. . . . Only a small number will escape death and return to Judah from Egypt. Then all those who came to Egypt will find out whose words are true—mine or theirs!'" (44:25-28).

Sometimes the only way to respond to determined rebellion is with a promise of judgment. God was finished pleading with his people to change. Speaking through Jeremiah, he simply repeated for the record their sinful decisions, and then reminded them that he would certainly do what he had promised—judgment was on its way. Yet even in the midst of destruction, God was planning a means of redemption. God's judgment wouldn't last forever; after his punishment would come a time of reconciliation, first through restoration to the Promised Land, and ultimately through the person of Jesus Christ.

THE POINT: Determined rebellion calls for a tough response.

someone you should know: daniel

Daniel 1:6-21

THE SOURCE OF TRUE GREATNESS

Daniel constantly called attention to the sovereignty of God—and lived what he taught.

ASK A GROUP OF CHRISTIAN men to name their favorite Bible character, and chances are a healthy percentage will choose Daniel. It's not hard to see why.

Much like Joseph, who lived much earlier, Daniel rose from teen captivity to wield enormous influence in the greatest empire of his time. Over a remarkable 70-year career, Daniel stayed true to his Lord despite colossal pressures to switch spiritual allegiances. His enemies and friends alike took note of his unimpeachable character and devotion to God.

Ezekiel, Daniel's contemporary and fellow prophet, called special attention to his peer's righteousness and wisdom three times (Ezekiel 14:14, 20; 28:3). An angelic messenger likewise told Daniel three times how much God loved him (Daniel 9:23; 10:11, 19). By all accounts, we might aptly call Daniel "great."

But that's not how Daniel saw himself.

In contrast to the popular public figures of today, many of whom are full of themselves, Daniel's eyes remained riveted not to the mirror but to his Sovereign Lord. Despite receiving a series of lucid dreams, Daniel never forgot that only one Star blazed in the heavens, and only one King ruled the earth:

*Praise the name of God forever and ever, for he has all wisdom and power.
He controls the course of world events;
he removes kings and sets up other kings.
He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the scholars.
He reveals deep and mysterious things and knows what lies hidden in darkness, though he is surrounded by light (2:20-22).*

Daniel constantly called attention to the sovereignty and eternal rule of God. From the beginning of his career to its end, he staked both his life and his reputation on God's preeminence. Captivated by the majesty and glory of God, Daniel felt no need to promote himself or massage his public image.

He repeatedly refused to take any credit for his ability to interpret dreams and heavenly signs (1:17; 2:23, 30, 45; 5:17; 6:22).

He freely admitted his fears (7:15, 28; 8:18, 27; 10:8-9, 15-17).

He had no trouble admitting when he didn't understand (8:27; 12:8).

He strongly identified with his erring countrymen and confessed their sin as his own (9:1-20).

God used Daniel to show the world what lay in its future. Even Jesus Christ built his most famous prophetic utterance around a prediction of Daniel (Matthew 24:15). Daniel did not always understand the things God showed him, but he never lost sight of God's promise to him: "As for you, go your way until the end. You will rest, and then at the end of the days, you will rise again to receive the inheritance set aside for you" (12:13).

STANDING TALL IN A TIGHT SPOT

These three men found in God the strength they needed to risk their lives for him.

FOR DECADES SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS have told the story of the three Hebrew children who stood for God and got thrown into a fiery furnace—only to enjoy a miraculous rescue (Daniel 3).

Kids learn that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego—three young captives from Judah who served in the court of King Nebuchadnezzar—refused an order to bow down to a pagan image and so incurred the king’s white-hot wrath. Nebuchadnezzar ordered them bound, then tossed into a large, superheated oven. The intense heat killed the men who carried out the king’s orders but had no effect on the three, other than to burn away the ropes that bound them.

When the astonished king saw what had happened—and that a fourth figure who looked “like a god” walked among them—he told them to come out. They did so, unhurt and without a hint of smoke on them. Nebuchadnezzar promoted them all and issued a harsh decree prohibiting anyone in his kingdom from speaking a word against their God.

The story thrills children and adults alike. But what gave these three young men the courage to stand up for their beliefs? Where did they find the strength to risk their lives in a public show of loyalty to God? We find some important hints in what they said to the king before their ordeal.

“the God whom we serve...” (Daniel 3:17). This trio did not merely go to worship or occasionally read their Bibles. They made it a habit to serve God continually.

“...is able to save us” (3:17). Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego knew and loved a mighty Lord with infinite power.

“He will rescue us from your power” (3:17). They knew that power alone wouldn’t cut it—Nebuchadnezzar had that, and threatened to use it to kill them. But they expected that omnipotence, directed by infinite love, would change history.

“But even if he doesn’t...” (3:18). Daniel’s compatriots trusted their lives to a sovereign God. They expected him to act on their behalf, but they also knew that God has the right and the wisdom to move in ways he thinks best—which sometimes means he does what we don’t expect or desire. As Nebuchadnezzar himself would learn in a few years, God “does as he pleases among the angels of heaven and among the people of the earth. No one can stop him or say to him, ‘What do you mean by doing these things?’” (Daniel 4:35).

Do we want to stand tall for God when we land in a tight spot? Then we must learn well the lessons of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

WHEN PRIDE EATS

GRASS

It took insanity to teach Nebuchadnezzar humility.

WHAT DO YOU GET when you combine a hot temper, an inflated ego, a lack of conscience, and unlimited power? An ancient king of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar rose to power shortly after defeating the Egyptians in one of the most important battles of ancient history, then ruled the Babylonian empire for more than four decades, from 605 to 562 B.C. He reigned as the undisputed sovereign of a vast kingdom that dominated the ancient Near East. Looking back on the king's long rule, Daniel said of him that "people of all races and nations and languages trembled before him in fear. He killed those he wanted to kill and spared those he wanted to spare. He honored those he wanted to honor and disgraced those he wanted to disgrace" (Daniel 5:19).

God used Nebuchadnezzar to discipline the rebellious people of Judah through a series of devastating invasions, culminating in the destruction of Jerusalem and the razing of the Temple in 586 B.C. Babylonian troops slaughtered thousands of Hebrews and led away uncounted thousands of others into captivity.

In addition to his military conquests, Nebuchadnezzar made a name for himself through an impressive building program. His capital, Babylon, was already an ancient city by his time, but he greatly enlarged and beautified it, creating the most impressive metropolis on earth. The city covered about six square miles, featured 17 miles of double walls with eight main gates, and boasted a huge artificial lake designed for defense. Today, visitors still can gaze upon the ruins of the famous Ishtar Gate, adorned with colored bricks and raised images of bulls and lions and dragons. More than 50 temples dotted the city's interior, chief among them a ziggurat 130 yards square and seven stories high, with an altar at the top, some 300 feet from the ground.

One day as Nebuchadnezzar gazed out from his palace at all he had built, he exclaimed, "Look at this great city of Babylon! By my own mighty power, I have built this beautiful city as my royal residence to display my majestic splendor" (Daniel 4:30).

At that moment, the awesome judgment of God fell. Just as Daniel had predicted a year before, Nebuchadnezzar plunged into the chaos of insanity (for seven months or seven years; the Hebrew text is unclear). His symptoms—living with animals, eating grass, hair growing as long as eagles' feathers, and nails like birds' claws—describe a rare medical condition today identified as boanthropy, a mental illness in which the sufferer believes that he is an ox. God intended to teach the haughty king "that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of the world and gives them to anyone he chooses" (Daniel 4:25).

After hoofin' it with the heifers for the ordained time, Nebuchadnezzar finally regained his sanity—and a profound respect for a Ruler infinitely more powerful than himself. "His rule is everlasting," he declared, "and his kingdom is eternal. All the people of the earth are nothing compared to him" (Daniel 4:34-35). Perhaps most tellingly, the chastened king concluded that Almighty God "is able to humble the proud" (4:37).

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

God told Hosea to provide an object lesson for Israel by marrying a prostitute and having children with her.

ARE CHILDREN'S NAMES becoming increasingly odd? In the year 2000, the Social Security Administration reported that 298 girls received the name “Armani,” 117 boys got stuck with “Cannon,” and 241 boys and girls shall hereafter answer to the name “Sincere.” They were the lucky ones; others got stuck that year with “Gouda,” “Cappuccino,” and “Bologna.” Such news may make you recall the quip from H. L. Mencken half a century ago: “Nobody ever went broke underestimating the taste of the American public.”

Of course, this trend is not new. Old Testament prophets occasionally gave their children odd names not because of bad taste but in a serious attempt to shock their countrymen out of spiritual torpor.

Hosea, the only writing prophet from the northern kingdom of Israel, lived and ministered for nearly 40 years in the eighth century B.C., trying in vain to turn the hearts of his fellow Israelites back to God. Because Israel had run after pagan fertility deities such as Baal and Ashtaroth, God leveled this charge: “Wine has robbed my people of their understanding. They ask a piece of wood for advice! They think a stick can tell them the future! Longing after idols has made them foolish. They have played the prostitute, serving other gods and deserting their God” (Hosea 4:11-12).

To give this startling image even greater power, God told Hosea to provide an object lesson for the nation by marrying a prostitute and having children with her. This he did—and then named his offspring appropriately:

Jezreel: a son, named after the place where King Jehu had committed murder, and signifying the end of that ruler’s dynasty

Lo-ruhamah: a daughter, whose name means “not loved,” and signifying God’s declaration that “I will no longer show love to the people of Israel” (1:6)

Lo-ammi: a son, whose name means “not my people,” and signifying God’s rejection of his rebellious sons and daughters.

Some scholars believe that Hosea’s wife, Gomer, conceived the last two children on the side, providing the heartbroken prophet with a graphic illustration of his nation’s spiritual adultery. “I know what you are like, O Ephraim. You cannot hide yourself from me, O Israel,” said the Lord through Hosea. “You have left me as a prostitute leaves her husband; you are utterly defiled” (5:3).

Lo-ruhamah—not loved. . . . Lo-ammi—not my people. . . . Harsh names for a dark time. Harshest of all, the object lesson went unheeded, and the Assyrians overran Israel in 722 B.C., permanently carting away her people into exile. Thus Hosea’s final words in his book came literally true: “Sinners stumble and fall along the way” (14:9).

WHEN PROSPERITY

LIES

Amos didn't want to be called a prophet.

CALL AMOS A RABBLE-ROUSER. Call him a preacher of doom. Call him a fig-picking shepherd with judgment on his mind. Just don't call him a prophet (especially a career one).

"I'm not a professional prophet," Amos insisted. "I was never trained to be one. I'm just a shepherd, and I take care of sycamore-fig trees. But the LORD called me away from my flock and told me, 'Go and prophesy to my people in Israel'" (Amos 7:14-15).

So Amos did as he was told. He left his home and fields about 11 miles south of Jerusalem and traveled north to warn the people of the Northern Kingdom that their materialistic and idolatrous ways would earn them God's fierce judgment. The nation had settled into a period of extraordinary prosperity, thanks to the decline of their longtime antagonists, the Syrians.

With no more need to maintain a standing army, they funneled their resources into business pursuits, expanding their trade routes and reaping skyrocketing profits. Commoners enjoying new wealth began to build mansions formerly within reach of only the nobility. Archaeological digs of the time have unearthed many examples of the opulence Amos decried on God's behalf: "I will destroy the beautiful homes of the wealthy—their winter mansions and their summer houses, too—all their palaces filled with ivory" (3:15).

In place of empty religious shows and meaningless acts of piety, Amos demanded that God's people treat the poor with justice and the oppressed with mercy. "I want to see a mighty flood of justice," he proclaimed, "an endless river of righteous living" (5:24).

Naturally, the comfortable and the smug didn't take kindly to his message. "Get out of here, you prophet!" they demanded. "Go on back to the land of Judah, and earn your living by prophesying there! Don't bother us with your prophecies here in Bethel" (7:12-13).

But Amos kept on preaching, and the people refused to heed. How could such disaster ever strike us, they wondered, when we enjoy such tremendous prosperity? Didn't Elisha, some 40 years before, prophesy these good times (2 Kings 13:17-19)? And didn't Jonah reiterate them more recently (2 Kings 14:25)? They snickered at Amos.

The big surprise came in 722 B.C., when the savage Assyrian army tore through the complacency of Israel, torching her cities, slaughtering her soldiers, and carrying off into distant captivity the few dazed citizens who remained. And so were fulfilled the unwelcome but reliable predictions of a fig-picking shepherd: "The time will come when you will be led away with hooks in your noses. Every last one of you will be dragged away like a fish on a hook!” (4:2).

A professional prophet? No, indeed. Just a dead-on accurate one.

A PROPHET FEARFUL OF GRACE

Jonah wanted thunderbolts and earthquakes and locusts and rivers flowing with Assyrian blood.

WHEN WE THINK of the Old Testament prophets, images of judgment and doom come to mind. We envision bony fingers pointed accusingly at angry faces. We conjure up images of locusts and pestilence and marauding armies. And we imagine an angry God behind it all.

The prophet Jonah knew better. In fact, it was his preference for doom and judgment, combined with his knowledge of a loving and gracious God, that prompted him to flee what he saw as a loathsome assignment.

Jonah ministered after the time of Elisha and just before the prophets Amos and Hosea. He lived during an era of economic prosperity coupled with spiritual poverty, when the dominant military force in the ancient world was Assyria. When God called Jonah to preach repentance to the people of Nineveh, the capital city of Assyria, Jonah rebelled. It wasn't that he was afraid of the citizens of that evil city. Rather, he knew ahead of time what would happen if the people repented—and he decided to take steps to prevent God’s mercy.

Instead of heading northeast toward Nineveh, Jonah booked passage on a ship going west. When a terrific storm threatened to sink the ship, he instructed its sailors to toss him overboard. He wound up in the belly of a “great fish” for three days and nights. When he finally came to his senses at the bottom of the sea, he agreed to follow God’s directions. He made his way to Nineveh, where, just as Jonah had feared, his preaching led to a great revival.

God spared the city when its people repented . . . and Jonah sulked. This was exactly what he hadn’t wanted.

When God asked Jonah to explain his deep funk, the prophet replied, “Didn’t I say before I left home that you would do this, LORD? That is why I ran away to Tarshish! I knew that you are a merciful and compassionate God, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love. You are eager to turn back from destroying people” (4:2).

Jonah wanted an angry God. He wanted thunderbolts and earthquakes and locusts and rivers flowing with Assyrian blood. What he didn’t want was a God who loved to show mercy and grace to the most undeserving sinners the moment they repented of their evil ways.

Some people might scoff at the story of Jonah and call it religious myth. But Jesus Christ himself, on multiple occasions, endorsed it (Matthew 12:39-41; 16:4; Luke 11:32). His testimony about Jonah and his ministry shows that while the Bible never downplays the holiness and judgment of God, it loves to highlight his mercy and grace. It also reveals that, from the very beginning, God intended to shower his favor not only on the sons of Abraham, but on anyone—Assyrian, unspecified seamen, or others—who would acknowledge him as Lord and trust him for their future.

That remains the main story today.

THE MAN

GOD PICKED

Joseph leapt to do God's bidding in both the "small" stuff and the "big."

WHAT SORT OF MAN would God pick to rear his one-and-only Son, Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world? Would the man have to wield great influence? Amass tremendous political power? Accumulate fantastic riches?

No, no, and no. God's requirements came down to these two items:

He had to be a direct descendant of David (2 Samuel 7:16).

He had to follow directions.

Joseph, a Jewish carpenter, fit both requirements. He traced his lineage to his famous forebear, King David (Matthew 1:1-16; Luke 1:27), and he made it a habit to obey God in all matters, small or large.

Scripture doesn't tell us a lot about Joseph. He comes on the scene abruptly at the beginning of the gospel story. We learn he is a “good” man (Matthew 1:19) and that he works as a carpenter (Matthew 13:55). He plans to marry a young woman named Mary. But when he discovers that she is carrying someone else’s child, he decides to break the engagement quietly.

How did Joseph find out about the pregnancy? Did his fiancée tell him directly? Or did he hear the shocking news through friends or family? Did he wonder, Well, if God could send an angel to tell her, why couldn’t he bother to send one to tell me?

Whatever the case, he made up his mind to distance himself from Mary. And then a second shock took place: God did let Joseph in on the divine secret. An angel appeared in a dream and said, “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife. For the child within her was conceived by the Holy Spirit. And she will have a son, and you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins” (Matthew 1:20-22).

The angel offered no explanation. He gave no apology, no further instructions or communiqués of any kind—and yet Joseph hurried to comply with God’s command. He immediately took Mary home to be his wife and named her son Jesus the moment he was born.

At least three other times Joseph got instructions from an angel in a dream, and all three times he immediately complied (Matthew 2:13-15, 19-21, 22-23). Today’s readers might think, Hey, if I got a message from an angel, I’d listen, too. Really? Not everyone in the Bible did. The mighty King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon ignored the dream God sent him

(Daniel 4)—and wound up breakfasting with the bovines. The Roman governor of Jesus’ day, Pontius Pilate, ignored the dream God sent his wife (Matthew 27:19)—and ended up condemning to death the man God had sent to bring life. Joseph, however, leapt to do God’s bidding in both the “small” stuff (Luke 2:39, 41) and the “big.”

That’s the kind of man God looked for to rock his Son’s cradle. And it’s still the kind of man he seeks to rock the world.

someone you should know: peter

Matthew 16:13-19

FROM THE MOUNTAIN TO THE VALLEY

Throughout the Gospels, Peter continually bounces between spiritual highs and lows.

THROUGHOUT THE GOSPELS, the apostle Peter continually demonstrates how God loves to use ordinary humans to achieve heavenly goals. Consider just a few of Peter’s breathtaking ascents to the mountaintop and harrowing plunges to the valley floor.

When Jesus and his disciples visited the region of Caesarea Philippi, the Master asked, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” The disciples spoke of various opinions—none of them correct. But Peter called out, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.” Jesus commended Peter for his insight and prophesied that the church would be founded upon this very confession of faith (Matthew 16:13-19).
Summit!

One stormy night the disciples, rowing hard in their boat, saw Jesus walking on the water. They thought he was a ghost, but Jesus quickly set them straight. When Peter recovered his wits, he asked for permission to walk on the water. Jesus granted it (Matthew 14:22-29).
Summit!

But when Peter saw the angry waves and heard the wild wind, he doubted, and immediately he began to sink (Matthew 14:30-32). Valley!

Jesus took Peter, James, and John to the top of a mountain, where they saw his heavenly glory revealed. Moses and Elijah appeared with him (Mark 9:2-4). Summit!

Yet Peter was so stunned by the awesome display that he inappropriately offered to build each of the three a “memorial” (Mark 9:5-6). Valley!

On the night of Jesus’ arrest, Peter, after insisting that he would never abandon his Lord, denied three times that he even knew him (Matthew 26:31-35, 69-75). Valley!

But after Jesus' resurrection, Jesus and Peter shared a reconciliatory breakfast, and Jesus gave to Peter the opportunity to reaffirm his love for him three times (John 21:15-19). Summit!

On the day of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit came, Peter preached a mighty sermon that turned 3,000 to Christ (Acts 2). Summit!

Yet some time later, even after he was commissioned by God to bring the gospel to the Gentiles, Peter snubbed the Gentiles in favor of some legalistic Jewish Christians, which earned him a stiff rebuke from the apostle Paul (Galatians 2:11-16). Valley!

We all reach summits and hit valleys in our journey with Christ. The trick is not to try to camp on the mountain or to languish in the valley, but to keep moving forward—step by determined step—“until we all come to such unity in our faith and knowledge of God’s Son that we will be mature in the Lord, measuring up to the full and complete standard of Christ” (Ephesians 4:13).

“THE SON OF PERDITION”

“Perdition: n. 1. a state of final spiritual ruin; loss of the soul; damnation. 2. the future state of the wicked. 3. hell. 4. utter destruction or ruin.”<sup>1</sup>

Judas’s freefall began, not with some secret dalliance with the occult, but with a case of sticky fingers.

NO MATTER HOW you look at it, the name Jesus gave to Judas Iscariot in John 17:12 smells of smoke. The KJV translates the original Greek words this way: “the son of perdition.” The NLT renders the phrase, “the one headed for destruction.” But they amount to the same thing: catastrophic and total devastation.

How did one of the original twelve disciples get to personal obliteration?

The Gospels seem to indicate that Judas’s freefall began not with some secret dalliance with the occult or an overt play for power but with a bad case of sticky fingers. Greed started Judas on his swift ride to hell. John calls Judas “a thief,” explaining that “since he was in charge of the disciples’ money, he often stole some for himself” (John 12:6).

One evening at a dinner held in Jesus’ honor, a woman used an expensive jar of perfume to anoint the Master’s feet. Judas immediately led a chorus of protest. “What a waste!” he exclaimed, along with others. “It could have been sold for a high price and the money given to the poor” (Matthew 26:8-9). “Not that he cared for the poor,” John adds pointedly (John 12:6). Jesus made it clear to Judas and the rest of the disciples that criticizing the woman for showing love to her Lord was the wrong response.

Judas, perhaps seething over the public rebuke, “went to the leading priests and asked, ‘How much will you pay me to betray Jesus to you?’ And they gave him thirty pieces of silver. From that time on, Judas began looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus” (Matthew 26:14-16).

The chance came at the meal we know as the Last Supper. Satan entered Judas, and Jesus excused him from the table so that he could carry out his wicked plan, “going out into the night” (John 13:30).

The rest of the sordid story played out quickly. Judas led a group of Temple soldiers to the spot in the Garden of Gethsemane where he knew Jesus and the disciples would be. He identified Christ in the darkness by kissing him on the cheek. The soldiers and the rabble with them arrested the Lord and began the ordeal that would end in the Crucifixion.

When Judas realized that the enemies of Christ intended to kill him, he was “filled with remorse” (Matthew 27:3). He tried to return the blood money but was rebuffed by the corrupt priests. With all hope gone, he went to a field and hanged himself. Somehow his body fell to the ground and burst open, spilling his intestines (Matthew 27:4-5; Acts 1:18-19). And so, according to the remaining apostles, Judas went to “where he belongs” (Acts 1:25).

And where was that? See the definition above.

someone you should know: pontius pilate

Matthew 27:24

EXPEDIENCE OR JUSTICE?

Pilate was a man entirely secular, deeply skeptical, full of himself, and addicted to compromise rather than to justice.

FIAT JUSTITIA RUAT CAELUM insisted the Roman ideal: “Let justice be done, though the heavens fall.”

Pontius Pilate must have missed class that day. Pilate served as procurator of the Roman province of Judea for about ten years after his appointment in A.D. 26 by the Emperor Tiberius. Although he reported to governor Vitellius of Syria, in his realm he had virtually absolute authority—though not always used wisely.

According to secular history, Pilate once caused a riot in Jerusalem when he ordered legionnaires to bring emblems into the city that the Jews considered blasphemous. An earlier governor had made the same mistake, but when he realized his error, he immediately removed them. Not Pilate. He stubbornly insisted that the Jews get over their superstition and threatened them with death. When the protest leaders boldly invited him to execute them all, Pilate finally relented.

On another occasion Pilate took money from the Temple treasury to build an aqueduct. The Jews also considered this blasphemous, but Pilate ignored their objections. When the people rioted, Pilate sent in his troops, resulting in many deaths (this may be the incident mentioned in Luke 13:1-2).

The Gospels portray Pilate as a man entirely secular, deeply skeptical, full of himself, and addicted to expediency. He did not mind shedding innocent blood to maintain control.

Pilate faced an especially difficult dilemma when Jerusalem's religious leaders arrested Jesus and asked the governor to condemn him. Pilate quickly realized that they had no real case under Roman law. But he did not want another riot on his hands. When he found out Jesus was a citizen of Galilee, he shuffled him off to the visiting Herod (Luke 23:5-12).

Herod sent Jesus back, however, and Pilate had to make a decision: Would he follow the Roman code and see justice done? Or would he cave in to the demands of Christ's accusers and hand over an innocent man to death?

Pilate tried to wash his hands of the matter (Matthew 27:24), but he still had to decide. He ordered that Jesus Christ be tortured and then crucified.

Pilate's rule soon came to an abrupt end. In another hasty move, Pilate sent soldiers to stop what looked to him like a rebellion. Scores of Samaritans died in the attack, and when the survivors protested to Vitellius, the Syrian governor deposed Pilate and sent him back to Rome to answer for his actions. That's the last we know about the man who condemned Jesus to death.

The unfortunate career of Pontius Pilate should remind us all of an ancient dictum: "There is a path before each person that seems right, but it ends in death" (Proverbs 14:12). We can avoid Pilate's fate by choosing instead to walk the road laid out by God, "who teaches you what is good for you and leads you along the paths you should follow" (Isaiah 48:17).

Mark 15:42-47

SECRET NO

LONGER

In the end, Joseph just couldn't stand his own spineless silence.

IT CAN COST A LOT to come out publicly as a follower of Jesus Christ. You can lose your reputation, your influence, your status in the community, your wealth—and in some cases, maybe even your life. All those pressures can cause a man to keep quiet about his spiritual convictions.

Joseph of Arimathea knew all about such pressures—he let them control him. Not until the proverbial eleventh hour did he openly declare his loyalties—and finally open himself to freedom and joy—even in the midst of great difficulty.

The Bible doesn't tell us much, but what it does say leaves us with a lasting impression. Luke describes him as “a good and righteous man” from the town of Arimathea in Judea who for a long time had been waiting for the Kingdom of God (Luke 23:50-51). Matthew adds that Joseph was “a rich man” (Matthew 27:57). Mark remembers him as “an honored member of the high council,” the Sanhedrin (Mark 15:43). And John reveals that Joseph “had been a secret disciple of Jesus (because he feared the Jewish leaders)” (John 19:38).

Put it all together, and what do you have? An influential, wealthy, respected member of the religious establishment who knew that to reveal his real spiritual loyalties would be to forfeit all he had worked so hard to earn. So what did he do? He remained quiet. He laid low. He kept his mouth shut and pretended to be no different from his peers. It must have nearly killed him.

Even when the Sanhedrin put Jesus on trial and tried to convict him through a series of trumped-up charges and a parade of lying witnesses-for-hire, Joseph remained silent. Although “he had not agreed with the decision and actions of the other religious leaders” in condemning Jesus to death (Luke 23:51), he preferred to stay out of the limelight. That must have been even more difficult.

In the end, Joseph just couldn’t stand his own spineless silence. He shed his religious anonymity and made a bold statement of his faith in Christ. After the death of Jesus, Joseph “took a risk and went to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body” (Mark 15:43). And then, Joseph and his fellow colleague on the Sanhedrin, Nicodemus, stepped out of the dark and into the glare of public scrutiny. They prepared Jesus’ body for burial according to Jewish custom. Joseph placed the corpse in his own new tomb (Mark 15:46). When they had finished, he rolled a great stone across the tomb entrance, and he and his friend left (Matthew 27:60).

For Joseph to treat Jesus’ body with such respect was a direct contravention to the will of the rest of the Sanhedrin, who had worked the political system to ensure that Jesus was executed in the most disrespectful manner possible. We don't know what Joseph's actions cost him that day. The Gospels don't tell us whether the Sanhedrin retaliated, or if it did, what punishment it meted out. You can be sure, at least, that Joseph lost his favored standing.

Three days later, Joseph knew beyond all doubt that he had made the right choice. Do you think his loss of religious status mattered to him then?

someone you should know: zechariah the priest

Luke 1:5-25

DULL OLD

FAITHFUL

Zechariah discovered that God's ideas about who is "qualified" may be very different from our own.

NOTHING EXCITING EVER HAPPENED to Zechariah. Year after year, he functioned as a priest in the dusty hill country of Judea, where there wasn't much to do but look out the window and watch the sand blow. The one break in Zechariah's routine was when he went twice a year or so to Jerusalem for his group's rotation as Temple priests for the week. Then he headed back home for more of the same old schedule.

Zechariah's wife, Elizabeth, was about as unexciting as he was. They didn't even have children to liven things up. They had wanted to have a family, but . . . no such luck. Dark hair had now turned to gray. Elizabeth was well beyond her childbearing years. The aging couple had grown accustomed to the numbing regularity of life.

And then . . . during one of Zechariah's trips to the big city, while he was in the middle of conducting his well-memorized worship liturgy in the Temple, the angel Gabriel showed up!

Zechariah was terrified. The angel reassured him and told him that Elizabeth would soon have a baby, a boy who would “be great in the eyes of the Lord. . . . And he will turn many Israelites to the Lord their God. He will be a man with the spirit and power of Elijah” (Luke 1:15-17).

Zechariah should have responded to Gabriel’s announcement by either praising God or saying nothing at all. When he instead said he thought maybe the angel had gotten the wrong fellow, Gabriel drove home the point that it’s not real smart to belittle the Almighty’s ideas. As a result of his unbelief, Zechariah spent the next nine months unable to speak. (How he ever explained all this to Elizabeth when he got home, we’ll never know. Must have been a pretty long memo.)

In due time, Elizabeth miraculously conceived a child, just as the angel had promised. The town was no doubt shocked. Only Elizabeth seemed to take it in stride, saying, “How kind the Lord is! He has taken away my disgrace of having no children” (1:25).

Zechariah found out that day in the Temple that God sometimes has very different ideas from ours about who is qualified to play a role in his work. God wasn’t looking for the sharpest, most urbane, most virile young couple to raise the Messiah’s forerunner. He was quite content to use a small-town couple who were well past their prime. As is so often the case in Scripture, God was attracted not to self-assurance but to humble weakness.

WHEN DOUBTS FOLLOW

TROUBLE

When Herod jailed John for preaching against the king's public adultery, John's confidence waned.

THE MAN KNOWN AS John the Baptist was truly a remarkable person. Even before his conception, God announced the major role he would play in the drama of human history. An angel called him “great in the eyes of the Lord” and predicted he would “be a man with the spirit and power of Elijah” (Luke 1:15, 17). As an adult preacher he drew great crowds to the desert to hear his preaching as he prepared the way for the coming Messiah. Even Jesus Christ said of him, “I tell you the truth, of all who have ever lived, none is greater than John the Baptist” (Matthew 11:11).

And yet this national hero, this “miracle baby” of an elderly couple, this fiery preacher of repentance, this cousin of Jesus of Nazareth, almost succumbed to discouragement and doubt when severe trouble dogged his steps.

When John saw the Holy Spirit descend upon Jesus at his baptism, he had no doubt that Jesus was God's promised Messiah. God had previously revealed to him, "The one on whom you see the Spirit descend and rest is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit." John was confident enough to point Jesus out to his disciples, loudly declaring, "Look! There is the Lamb of God!" (John 1:33, 36).

Still, when Herod jailed John for preaching against the king's public adultery, John's confidence waned. He looked out from behind gray bars at the cruel faces of the guards he feared would soon execute him, and he grew discouraged, even depressed. Had he somehow gotten it all wrong?

He sent some of his disciples to ask Jesus a question full of doubt: "Are you the Messiah we've been expecting, or should we keep looking for someone else?" (Matthew 11:3).

Reading about John's unbelief, we might wish to rebuke him. We might scold him for his doubt in light of his miraculous birth and former confidence. Jesus did none of those things. Instead, this Savior, who would "not crush the weakest reed or put out a flickering candle" (Matthew 12:20), gently described all his ongoing miracles: the blind seeing, the lame walking, the deaf hearing, the dead rising, the poor hearing the Good News. He then told John's men to tell their discouraged leader, "God blesses those who do not turn away because of me" (Matthew 11:6).

Personal troubles have a way of causing the most resilient among us to doubt our calling, our faith, and our God. Thankfully, we have a Lord who "knows how weak we are; he remembers we are only dust" (Psalm 103:14). And, amazingly, he promises to bless us anyway.

someone you should know: herod antipas

Luke 9:7-9

JUST ANOTHER TYRANT

Antipas is probably best remembered for imprisoning and executing John the Baptist.

WHEN YOU READ SOMETHING about Herod during Jesus' adult life, you're reading about Herod Antipas, one of the infamous members of the Herodian royal dynasty.

Herod Antipas ruled as tetrarch (a secondary prince governing in a Roman province) over Galilee and Perea for some four decades. He was born around 20 B.C., the son of Herod the Great (the Herod at the time of Jesus' birth) and Malthace, a Samaritan woman. Antipas spent much of his rule building various cities. It is possible that Joseph, Jesus' earthly father, could have worked as a carpenter on one of Herod's building projects, Sepphoris. Nazareth lay only about four miles from Sepphoris, the largest city in Galilee.

In A.D. 6, Antipas traveled to Rome with a delegation in an effort to pry his older brother, Archelaus, from his position as governor of Judea. Antipas came away with the right to use the dynastic name Herod, which he knew would give him additional leverage among his subjects back home.

Antipas is probably best remembered for imprisoning and executing John the Baptist. In about A.D. 29, during a visit to his half brother, Philip, Antipas fell in love with Philip's wife, Herodias (who also happened to be a granddaughter of Herod the Great and a niece of both Philip and Antipas). Despite Old Testament commands to the contrary (Leviticus 18:16; 20:21), Antipas divorced his wife and married Herodias, thus earning John the Baptist's frequent and heated denunciations. Antipas imprisoned John to quiet his tongue, and Herodias eventually tricked her new husband into having John killed (Matthew 14:3-11). Because the people considered John a prophet, they never forgave Antipas.

When Antipas heard about the miracles of Jesus, he first wondered whether John had risen from the dead. Later he tried to get Jesus to leave his realm through a threat, delivered by the Pharisees, that he intended to kill the Lord (Luke 13:31). Jesus called Antipas "that fox" and, in essence, replied that the tetrarch held no power over him. He would do what he came to do, regardless of any royal threats.

In time, Antipas got to see for himself what this Jesus was all about. During a visit to Jerusalem, the Roman governor of Judea, Pilate, sent Jesus to Antipas in a futile effort to avoid having to decide Jesus' fate. Luke says that Antipas "was delighted at the opportunity to see Jesus, because he had heard about him and had been hoping for a long time to see him perform a miracle. He asked Jesus question after question, but Jesus refused to answer” (Luke 23:8-9). In the end, after mocking him, Antipas sent Jesus back to Pilate. Luke adds, “Herod and Pilate, who had been enemies before, became friends that day” (Luke 23:12).

The slimy Antipas lost his rule and his lands in A.D. 39 to his nephew, Herod Agrippa. The emperor exiled him to what is now France, and Antipas quickly disappeared from history, just one more tyrant who earned God’s judgment.

JESUS'

SELF-PORTRAIT

At least a dozen times Jesus gave us a memorable “hook” on which to hang a cherished picture of him.

WHAT MORE CAN BE SAID about Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world? Countless books and millions of words have described his miraculous birth, sinless life, death on a cross, resurrection from the dead, and ascension into heaven.

Without doubt, the best words about Jesus are the ones he spoke about himself. At least a dozen times, Jesus gave us a memorable “hook” on which to hang a cherished picture of him. Consider these 12 statements of Christ.

I am the bread of life (John 6:35, 48). Do you hunger for something to fill that empty place in your soul?

I am the light of the world (John 8:12; 9:5). Do you ever feel like you’re walking in pitch blackness? Do you long for a light to blaze a clear trail before you?

I am the gate (John 10:7, 9). Jesus described himself as the entrance to a sheepfold. We, his beloved sheep, have to go through him to find green pastures and safety.

I am the good shepherd (John 10:11, 14). When we feel lost, Jesus searches for us and finds us. When we wander away on purpose, he disciplines us, yet he never stops loving us. The apostle Peter especially delighted in this image, remembering his Lord as “the Great Shepherd” (1 Peter 5:4).

I am the resurrection and the life (John 11:25). Too many people settle for mere existence; Jesus conquered death and invites us to share in his victory.

I am the way, the truth, and the life (John 14:6). Do you want a close, intimate relationship with God? Develop a relationship with Jesus Christ. As his followers said, “There is salvation in no one else!” (Acts 4:12).

I am the true grapevine (John 15:1). Just as grapes must stay connected to the vine, so we find spiritual health only when we nurture our connection to Jesus.

I am the First and the Last (Revelation 1:17). Jesus created the world, and he will remake it into something new. Nothing was before him, and nothing will come after him.

I am the living one. I died, but look—I am alive forever and ever! (Revelation 1:18). How could death swallow up life? It couldn’t—at least, not in any final sense. Jesus is the proof.

I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End (Revelation 22:13). Alpha is the first letter in the Greek alphabet; omega is the last. Jesus is God, and he fills the universe—and our lives—from start to finish and beyond.

I am both the source of David and the heir to his throne (Revelation 22:16). Jesus once stumped some adversaries by asking how King David could use the word “Lord” to describe his son (Luke 20:41-44). As both Creator and descendant, Jesus himself was the answer to his own riddle.

I am the bright morning star (Revelation 22:16). Jesus Christ shines in our hearts, and when he returns to earth as he promised, he will bring his followers into an eternal, perfect day.

someone you should know: nicodemus

John 3:1-21

A JOURNEY OF # FAITH

The Lord's unexpected comment took the wind out of Nicodemus's sails, but still he wanted to understand.

FAITH CAN COME QUICKLY or it can come more gradually. Nicodemus was a man for whom faith came bit by bit.

This respected Pharisee enjoyed a lofty status as a member of the Sanhedrin, the highest legal authority among the Jews at the time of Jesus. The Pharisees were a strict group that emphasized keeping every detail of the Mosaic Law. They also observed hundreds of man-made traditions, considering them every bit as mandatory as the laws written by God through Moses. Unlike their more wealthy and secular counterparts, the Sadducees, the Pharisees believed in the supernatural and in the activity of angels. They also took great pride in their privileged status as “sons of Abraham,” often boasting in their racial heritage. As a member of this group, Nicodemus was an influential and well-regarded man who was respected as a teacher of the Law.

Yet Nicodemus needed more. So one dark night, he sought out a remarkable young rabbi named Jesus to hear his take on things. No doubt Nicodemus expected a dignified, astute discussion between two peers.

Jesus would have none of it. He immediately went after Nicodemus’s assumption that a pure Jewish lineage counted for something in God’s eyes. “I tell you the truth,” Jesus began, “unless you are born again, you cannot see the Kingdom of God” (John 3:3).

The Lord’s unexpected comment disoriented Nicodemus and took the wind out of his sails, but still he wanted to understand Jesus’ teaching. How could an elderly man be “born again”? In a few short minutes, Jesus helped Nicodemus see that spiritual birth counts for infinitely more than natural birth. While it doesn’t appear that Nicodemus fully accepted Jesus’ words that night, they did get him thinking.

Later, Nicodemus’s colleagues in the Sanhedrin grew concerned about Jesus’ mounting popularity. They sent Temple guards to arrest him, but the astonished guards returned empty-handed with the explanation, “We have never heard anyone speak like this!” (John 7:46). When the angry members rebuked the men, Nicodemus risked a hesitant defense of Christ. “Is it legal to convict a man before he is given a hearing?” (John 7:51). The leaders dismissed Nicodemus’s question, but Nicodemus had shown the clear direction of his spiritual journey.

Nicodemus shows up again after the crucifixion of Christ. When the disciples fled in fear, Nicodemus stepped out of the shadows and accompanied Joseph of Arimathea to ask Pilate for permission to give Jesus’ body a proper burial. Nicodemus brought about 75 pounds of ceremonial anointing materials and used long sheets of linen cloth to wrap these traditional spices around the corpse.

Nicodemus had to overcome misunderstanding, pride, and a longstanding commitment to tradition. But in the end, he unequivocally declared his belief in Jesus—even when all those who came to faith before him had disappeared.

A MAN OF

CONNECTIONS

Andrew knew how to make personal connections, and he loved bringing people to Jesus.

THE BIBLE NEVER SAYS that Andrew ever became a great evangelist. But we do know he continually brought people to Christ.

Confused? You needn't be.

Before he began to follow Jesus, Andrew was a disciple of John the Baptist. He and his more famous brother, Peter, made a living as fishermen. The two brothers owned a house (and probably a boat) in the seaside town of Capernaum (Mark 1:29). When Andrew's mentor, John, pointed to Jesus as the "Lamb of God," Andrew believed him and immediately followed Jesus and spent the better part of an afternoon listening to him (John 1:39-40). Afterward, Andrew went home and told his brother, "We have found the Messiah" (John 1:41). Before long, Jesus asked both Andrew and Peter to join his own discipleship band (Matthew 4:18-19).

The next time Andrew appears in the Gospel story, he's bringing a young boy to Jesus. A huge crowd had followed the Master to a remote place, apparently hoping to receive both spiritual and physical food. The disciples started worrying about how to feed them all. Jesus, knowing all the while what he was going to do, asked Philip, "Where can we buy bread to feed all these people?" Philip replied, quite accurately, "Even if we worked for months, we wouldn't have enough money to feed them!" (John 6:5-7). Andrew overheard the Savior's question and said, "There's a young boy here with five barley loaves and two fish" (6:9). Apparently he had already been networking the crowd. And Jesus used the boy's small gift to feed 5,000 hungry men—not counting women and children.

A little later, some foreigners who had come to Jerusalem for the Passover approached Philip with a request. "Sir," they said to him, "we want to meet Jesus." So Philip made a beeline for Andrew, the man who knew how to make personal connections. Together, Andrew and Philip approached Jesus with the appeal (John 12:20-22). Andrew seemed to do what came naturally to him—he brought people to Jesus so that they could see the glory of Christ for themselves.

We don't have any record of Andrew preaching a sermon (though he certainly might have). We don't have any report of him leading crowds of people to make decisions for Christ. But wherever Andrew went, he brought other people to Jesus. He may not have said a lot, but he knew how to point.

Whom in your sphere of influence are you pointing to Christ? Notice the question is not "To whom are you preaching?" People may or may not believe your words, but they will respond to the person of Jesus. If you truly believe that you have found the Messiah, as Andrew did, then whom do you know who could benefit from a personal encounter with Jesus Christ?

THE POINT: We should make pointing people to Christ our top priority.

FROM THUNDER TO LOVE

A combination of personal failures and his Master's stubborn grace began to transform a "Son of Thunder" into an "Apostle of Love."

TODAY WE KNOW JOHN as "the apostle of love," but he didn't start out that way. Had he not allowed Christ to soften his personality and temperament, history might have remembered him in a very different light.

Whenever the Gospels mention John, they usually tie him to his brother, James. The pair ran a fishing operation with their father, Zebedee. John was among the first disciples to hear and follow Jesus Christ (Matthew 4:21-22).

John tended to think in black and white with little gray, and he interpreted any slight as a personal attack. Early on, John's hot-blooded temperament prompted Jesus to give him and his brother the nickname Boanerges, "Sons of Thunder" (Mark 3:17).

As the time grew near for Jesus to die, the disciples' travel plans took them through Samaria. But when the Samaritans—who detested the Jews as much as the Jews hated them—heard that Jesus intended to visit Jerusalem, they refused to welcome him. When John and his brother learned of this slight, they snapped, “Lord, should we call down fire from heaven to burn them up?” John learned an important lesson that day when Jesus rebuked him for his hateful question (Luke 9:51-56).

At another time these “Sons of Thunder” approached Jesus privately and asked him for a favor: They wanted special seats of honor in the coming kingdom. When the other disciples heard about their secret request, they were less than impressed. Jesus used the ugly incident to teach his followers that honor and positions of spiritual leadership come through service, not through power plays or personal striving (Mark 10:35-45).

As John watched his Master live and work and minister over the course of three and a half years, he gradually changed. Being part of an inner circle of three (with Peter and James), John gained a special insight into the character of his Lord. He witnessed Jesus bring a dead girl back to life (Luke 8:49-56). He saw Jesus robed in light at the Mount of Transfiguration (Mark 9:2-13). And he joined Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane on the night of his Lord's arrest (even though he fell asleep when Jesus had asked him to pray . . .) (Mark 14:32-42).

By this time, John had softened considerably. A combination of personal failures and his Master's stubborn grace began to transform him. John was the only disciple who saw Christ's crucifixion—and it was John to whom Jesus gave the responsibility of caring for his grieving mother (John 19:25-27).

John is a perfect example of the power of Jesus Christ to change lives. This hardnosed, hot-tempered businessman became an example of grace and love—and eventually wrote five books of the New Testament. The next time you read 1 John, remember that a former “Son of Thunder” penned the compassionate words.

John 20:28

SHOW

ME

Jesus openly invited Thomas to step up and touch the scars of the Crucifixion.

THE WHOLE WORLD KNOWS HIM AS “Doubting Thomas”—but he wouldn’t have accepted that label at all. Neither would he have gone for “skeptic,” “cynic,” or “pessimist.” “I’m just a realist,” he probably would have protested.

Thomas connects with all of us who don't fall for rumors, who like to be sure of things before believing in them. His motto could have been, "Check it out." He would have made a good journalist or scientist or police officer. He didn't care for speculation; he wanted facts.

That's why, after Jesus' resurrection, Thomas didn't immediately believe the reports of the risen Lord. "After all," he might have said, "I've lived with these other 11 guys—well, 10 now—for more than three years. I know how some of them can get carried away." So when the other disciples told Thomas they had seen Jesus alive again, he wanted a little personal verification.

The fact that Thomas wasn't ready to believe in Jesus' resurrection meant that he, like the other disciples, hadn't truly heard what Jesus had said about his death. Yet when the resurrected Jesus showed up in the room with Thomas present, he neither scolded nor ignored his skeptical disciple. Apparently it was all right for Thomas to be a show-me guy. Jesus openly invited him to step up and touch the scars of the crucifixion. Put me to the test, he seemed to be saying. I can stand the scrutiny.

Jesus invited Thomas to believe in him once and for all. And Thomas responded with uncharacteristic emotion: "My Lord and my God!" he exclaimed (John 20:28).

Thomas loved Jesus fiercely. Toward the end of his ministry, Jesus headed for the last time in the direction of Jerusalem, the hotbed of his opposition. All the disciples were afraid, but Thomas was the guy who flatly said out loud what the others were too timid to express: “Let’s go, too—and die with Jesus” (John 11:16). Even though he could see that this trip was going to end in disaster for the Son of God, he wouldn’t abandon his Lord.

Thomas’s name shows up one more time in the New Testament, in the list of those who waited in the upper room for the empowering of the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:13). From that point on, he was as energized as anyone to spread the gospel. Tradition says he trekked more than 3,000 miles east to what is south India today, planting the first congregations in that faraway land. In fact, there’s a major Indian denomination that still bears his name: the Mar Thoma Church.

Jesus told Thomas that while he had believed on the basis of seeing evidence, other people in days to come would need to believe without visual proof—and would be blessed for doing so. That’s where we come in. We don’t get to see what Thomas and the others saw—at least physically. Our faith in the risen Christ must rest on a different kind of foundation.

THE HARD SIDE OF # GRACE

At that instant Ananias collapsed; he was dead before he hit the floor.

IF YOU'RE EVER TEMPTED to believe that the grace of God will protect you even while you're planning to sin, read about another man who made the same mistake—and paid for it with his life.

Ananias and his wife, Sapphira, had joined the church in Jerusalem. When fellow members started to sell pieces of property and hand over the proceeds to help some poorer members, Ananias decided to follow suit . . . almost. Apparently he wanted to be known as a generous man, without accepting the sacrifice necessary for such a reputation. So he and his wife hatched a foolish plan.

They decided to sell a piece of their property and give a portion of the proceeds, while claiming to have given every cent. Who would know the difference? They'd get their names engraved on a commemorative brick in the church lobby and still be able to spend the remaining funds on themselves. It seemed a clever idea.

But the Holy Spirit did not think it so clever. He never likes being lied to.

Ananias expected a thank you from Peter. What he got instead was a fatal rebuke. “Ananias,” Peter said, “why have you let Satan fill your heart? You lied to the Holy Spirit, and you kept some of the money for yourself. The property was yours to sell or not sell, as you wished. And after selling it, the money was also yours to give away. How could you do a thing like this? You weren’t lying to us but to God!” (Acts 5:3-4).

At that instant Ananias collapsed; he was dead before he hit the floor. People’s jaws hung open, and their hearts pounded as some young men tactfully took the corpse away. About three hours later, Sapphira came in, clueless as to what had just happened. Peter gave her a chance to retract the story and avoid the fate of her late husband. But she repeated Ananias’s lies—and the Holy Spirit repeated his holy judgment. She, too, instantly fell dead.

Again, all those present were terrified, and “great fear gripped the entire church and everyone else who heard what had happened” (Acts 5:11).

Why would Luke, the writer of Acts, tell such a grisly story? Why would God snuff out the lives of two of his children? The answer: God does not cease to be holy simply because he is also gracious and loving. We would do well to heed the words Peter wrote years later: “The time has come for judgment, and it must begin with God’s household. And if judgment begins with us, what terrible fate awaits those who have never obeyed God’s Good News ?” (1 Peter 4:17).

someone you should know: gamaliel

Acts 5:33-42

HOLD ON A MINUTE

Sometimes resolve is little more than hastiness.

MOST MEN LIKE to think of themselves as decisive, take-charge, no-hesitation types. They fancy themselves in the mold of Revolutionary War Captain John Paul Jones (“I wish to have no Connection with any Ship that does not Sail fast for I intend to go in harm’s way”), or Civil War Admiral David Glasgow Farragut (“Damn the torpedoes, full speed ahead!”).

Yet sometimes resolve is little more than hastiness. We blunder into hurtful situations that we could have avoided had we simply exercised a little more restraint. In this regard we could learn a lot from a man named Gamaliel.

He held an influential seat within the Sanhedrin, the ruling council of the Jewish nation. His followers called him “Rabban” rather than “Rabbi” (an Aramaic term of special respect meaning “our teacher” rather than the more common “my teacher”). He taught the apostle Paul (Acts 22:3). A short time after his death, one admirer wrote, “Since Rabban Gamaliel the Elder died, there has been no more reverence for the Law, and purity and abstinence died out at the same time.”<sup>1</sup>

As a leading Pharisee, Gamaliel knew the law backwards and forwards, and even counted the famous Hillel as a direct ancestor. Hillel had a gentler spirit than a rival teacher named Shammai. Perhaps this temperament took root in Gamaliel.

The New Testament introduces us to Gamaliel in Acts 5, when the apostles were dragged before the Sanhedrin to answer for preaching Christ’s resurrection, a banned doctrine. They reiterated their intent to preach in the name of Jesus—and even declared to the council, “The God of our ancestors raised Jesus from the dead after you killed him by hanging him on a cross” (Acts 5:30). Obviously, the council leaders were not thrilled with that and moved to execute them all.

Then Gamaliel spoke up.

“Men of Israel,” he began, using the formal mode of address, “take care what you are planning to do to these men!” He described two historical cases of rabble rousers who turned out not to be so dangerous after all, and then concluded, “So my advice is, leave these men alone. Let them go. If they are planning and doing these things merely on their own, it will soon be overthrown. But if it is from God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You may even find yourselves fighting against God!” (Acts 5:35, 38-39).

Gamaliel’s tempered advice won the day, and so God used a non-Christian to further the cause of Christ. In this way Gamaliel embodies an ancient bit of biblical wisdom: “Enthusiasm without knowledge is no good; haste makes mistakes” (Proverbs 19:2). Even gung-ho World War II General George S. Patton would have agreed. He said, “Take calculated risks. That is quite different from being rash.”

DYING FOR A PERSON

As Stephen lay dying, he followed the pattern set by the Lord he loved.

SOME TALK ABOUT the nobility of “dying for a cause.” They point to some hero who sacrificed his life for a movement or an ideal. Sometimes Christians do the same thing, pointing to brave martyrs who willingly spilled their blood to proclaim the Christian message. Very often they mention Stephen.

They shouldn't. Stephen didn't die for a cause or a movement. Only one thing prompted Stephen to sacrifice his life: love for his amazing Lord.

The Bible describes Stephen as a man full of faith, grace, spiritual power, and wisdom (Acts 6:5, 8, 10). The apostles appointed him to the original "board of deacons," a group of seven men charged with administering the church's care program for widows.

The longer Stephen pondered the significance of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection, the more he apparently came to see the logical consequences. In his preaching he emphasized a relationship to Christ rather than a commitment to religious forms or regulations. And in a time when the religious leaders valued man-made rules as much as or more than they valued God's law, his teachings very quickly got him into trouble.

While the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem had warned the apostles not to preach in Jesus' name and occasionally had them flogged, they hadn't yet begun any formal campaign to suppress the church as a whole. That all changed after Stephen began to preach.

The religious leaders saw Stephen's message as an attack against three "untouchable" precepts: the Mosaic law as God's highest revelation, the Temple as God's permanent residence on earth, and the land of Israel as God's sole place for earthly blessing. Stephen rejected these precepts and taught instead that Christ, not the Temple or Jerusalem, should be the central focus of faith.

His sermon in Acts 7 (the longest recorded monologue in the Bible) put the law, the land, and the Temple in a subservient role to Christ. Jesus is the highest revelation of God; Jesus is Lord over all the earth; and the faithful can worship Jesus anywhere. The leaders reacted in fury and immediately stoned Stephen to death.

As Stephen lay dying, he followed the pattern set by the Lord he loved. First, he prayed, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.” Then he added, “Lord, don’t charge them with this sin!” (Acts 7:59-60; compare with Jesus’ words in Luke 23:34, 46). A young Pharisee named Saul—who in time would become the apostle Paul—eagerly participated in Stephen’s murder. As Augustine would say centuries later, “If Stephen had not prayed, the Church would not have had Paul.”

Stephen’s dying prayer was lifted not in support of religion but in supplication to the Person he could already see welcoming him into the presence of God.

FLYING

HIGH

Philip was no religious superstar, yet he became one of the church's premiere evangelists.

CENTURIES BEFORE GENE RODDENBERRY created the world of Captain Kirk and Star Trek, a man named Philip found himself instantly transported from one location to another that was several miles away—all without the benefit of teleportation technology or chief engineers named Scotty.

Apparently, God wanted to get the business of evangelism moving.

Philip took his unusual ride immediately following an encounter with a visiting official from a distant court. The Holy Spirit had told Philip to “go south down the desert road that runs from Jerusalem to Gaza” (Acts 8:26). He didn't say why. And when Philip obeyed, he ran into the treasurer of Ethiopia on his way home after a pilgrimage to Jerusalem.

Philip noticed that the man, who may have been a convert to Judaism, was reading a passage from the prophet Isaiah. When Philip asked him if he understood it, the perplexed official replied, “How can I, unless someone instructs me?” (8:31). Philip could have nodded in sympathy and then been on his way. Instead, he followed the leading of the Holy Spirit; he hopped into the man's carriage and explained how several Old Testament passages point to the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. With his questions answered, the Ethiopian asked Philip to baptize him, and Philip obliged. Then, we're told, "when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away."

In other words, Philip vanished! The official "never saw him again but went on his way rejoicing" (8:39). Yet that's not quite the end of the story. "Meanwhile," Luke reports, "Philip found himself farther north at the town of Azotus" (8:40).

Why did God instantaneously "beam" Philip from a lonely desert road to a town about three miles inland? We can't be sure—maybe Philip's sudden disappearance confirmed for the foreigner the truth of the evangelist's words. Yet Luke seems to suggest that God acted as he did in order to spur the work of evangelism on. In Azotus, Philip "preached the Good News . . . and in every town along the way until he came to Caesarea" (8:40).

It's important to note that Philip was no religious superstar. He hadn't physically walked with Jesus, and no one listed him among the apostles. Yet because he was "well respected" and "full of the Spirit and wisdom" (Acts 6:3), he became one of the church's original seven deacons, charged with running a food program for disadvantaged believers. When he wasn't administering this program, he preached.

After Stephen's death, Philip went down to Samaria to preach, forming the core of a new church (Acts 8:4-13). Toward the end of the book of Acts, we find Philip back in Caesarea. By now he's officially "Philip the Evangelist" and has four unmarried daughters "who had the gift of prophecy" (Acts 21:8-9).

Philip never got transported—Star Trek style—somewhere else again, as far as we know. Yet for the rest of his life, he knew the truth: God will take the most extraordinary measures to get the Good News to those who need it.

YOU CAN'T BE SERIOUS!

Ananias obeyed without receiving a single promise of safety or one assurance of protection.

IMAGINE THAT THE CALENDAR on your wall reads “June 1943.” Further imagine that your name is Ingmar, that you are a Christian of Jewish descent, and that you have been hiding for months in the cold attic of a Norwegian friend who is trying to conceal you from the occupying Nazis. Finally, imagine that God wakes you late one night to give you the following instructions:

“Ingmar! Go to the house of Thorwald the mayor and ask for Adolf Hitler. He is praying to me right now. I have shown him a vision of a man named Ingmar coming in and laying his hands on him so that he can see again.”

How would you react? You’d probably argue with God?

“Now, wait just a minute, Lord! This madman has put the torch to all of Europe, and he’s bent on wiping out your people! I’ve heard that he’s come here specifically to round us up and ship us all off to Auschwitz!”

Who could blame you for your reactions? Surely not a man named Ananias. After all, he did get some divine instructions like those of the fictional Ingmar. And he did react in much the same way.

Try to put yourself in this frightened fellow’s first-century sandals. A violent leader named Saul had for many weeks been using Gestapo-like tactics to imprison (or worse) every believer in Christ that he could find. One day this belligerent persecutor announced his plans to visit Damascus, Ananias’s hometown, where he intended to continue his murderous work.

Ananias didn’t know it, but God had chosen Saul to become one of heaven’s most trusted ambassadors. To accomplish this remarkable transformation, the Lord knocked Saul to the ground with a brilliant pulse of light, blinding Saul and terrifying his stupefied companions. Not knowing what else to do, the stunned men brought their disabled leader into the city and left him at the house of a Jew.

Enter Ananias and God’s outlandish marching orders. You would surely have objected, too, had God told you to seek out Saul so he could regain his sight. If I obey, you might have thought, he’ll begin his reign of terror all over again!

But God knew Ananias. The Bible describes him as “a godly man . . . well regarded by all the Jews of Damascus” (Acts 22:12). When Ananias expressed concern about going and ministering to the feared persecutor of Christians, God simply said, “Go” (Acts 9:15). And Ananias went. He obeyed without receiving one assurance of protection. God told Ananias nothing but that he had chosen to use Saul to spread his Good News (Acts 9:15-16).

We don't know exactly how Ananias found the courage to overcome his most reasonable fears, but we can guess. Perhaps he heard some of God's ancient words ringing in his ears: “I, yes I, am the one who comforts you. So why are you afraid of mere humans?” (Isaiah 51:12). One thing we do know: Ananias did not allow his fear to overcome his obedience. And so he demonstrates even today how God delights in shrinking our biggest worries.

WELCOME,
GENTILES

Somewhere along the way Cornelius had grown disillusioned with the paganism of his ancestors and turned to the one true God.

IN THE EARLY CHURCH, the Gentiles conversion to Judaism question was causing discord. Some believed only Jews could be saved through Christ. Others thought that as long as Gentiles were circumcised, they'd be eligible for salvation. But the story of Cornelius shows the truth: God opened up the church to Gentiles without making them first convert to Judaism. Cornelius's salvation demonstrates the truth of Peter's statement: "God shows no favoritism. In every nation he accepts those who fear him and do what is right" (Acts 10:34-35).

But the story also raises several intriguing questions.

Cornelius was a centurion, a professional Roman soldier who commanded one hundred men. The rank of centurion was as high as an enlisted man could rise, so as a noncommissioned officer, Cornelius was at the height of his military career. Somewhere along the way he had grown disillusioned with paganism and turned to the one true God. Still, he never became a Jewish convert. Luke describes him as "a devout, God-fearing man. . . . He gave generously to the poor and prayed regularly to God" (Acts 10:2).

Being a good man didn't make him a Christian, though, so God took some amazing steps to bring Cornelius to faith in Christ.

One afternoon Cornelius had a vision in which an angel told him to send for a man named Peter. Cornelius complied at once. His associates located and brought back Simon Peter, who had seen a vision of his own (10:9-16). Peter told Cornelius and his household about the ministry of Jesus Christ—and immediately the Holy Spirit fell on the entire Gentile group. This led Peter and his astonished Jewish colleagues to the conclusion that “God has also given the Gentiles the privilege of repenting of their sins and receiving eternal life” (Acts 11:18).

The story of Cornelius raises several amazing points to ponder:

God picked a Roman army officer (remember, Roman soldiers crucified the Lord) to become the first Gentile convert to Christianity.

The angel who appeared to Cornelius could have just given him the gospel message directly, but he didn’t—Peter had to deliver it.

God gave Peter a perplexing series of images to decipher (10:17).

And even then, God didn’t tell Peter much in advance. He just instructed him to go with Cornelius’s men and see what would happen (10:19-20).

Apparently God wanted to open wide the doors of his church in an unforgettable way.

How many others like Cornelius are out there even today? And how might God want to use us to reach them?

Acts 12:20-23

A BANQUET FOR WORMS

Agrippa soon discovered that he could get popular approval by attacking Christians.

WHEN YOU WERE A KID, did you ever tell somebody to “go eat worms and die”? If you changed the words just a little, the expression would fit a vile king by the name of Herod Agrippa. This man didn’t eat worms—worms ate him.

Secular history identifies Agrippa as grandson of Herod the Great and son of Aristobulus, who was executed for treason in 7 B.C. Agrippa grew up in Rome, but huge personal debts forced him to leave in A.D. 23 and seek refuge with his uncle Antipas. But a quarrel with his uncle prompted Agrippa to return to Rome 13 years later. There he foolishly stated that he wished Gaius Caligula were emperor instead of Tiberius. Agrippa wound up in prison.

The following year Tiberius died. Caligula became emperor and sent Agrippa to rule territories northeast of Palestine under the title of king. Rome banished his uncle Antipas two years later and gave Agrippa the additional lands of Galilee and Perea. In another two years, Claudius became emperor and gave Judea and Samaria to Agrippa.

Now that Agrippa's kingdom was roughly the size of his famous grandfather's, he tried to win the favor of his subjects. He soon discovered that he could gain popular approval by attacking Christians. He started by arresting and executing the apostle James. Luke, the writer of Acts, noted that "when Herod saw how much this pleased the Jewish people, he also arrested Peter" (Acts 12:3-4), intending to try the church leader after the Passover feast. But God had other ideas and miraculously freed Peter from prison.

This may have unnerved Agrippa, for he quickly left for Caesarea. While he was there, a delegation from Tyre and Sidon came to make peace with him after a dispute. Luke wrote that Agrippa appeared before them in "royal robes" (Acts 12:21). The ancient historian Josephus wrote in his famous Jewish Antiquities that "Herod put on a garment made wholly of silver, and of a truly wonderful contexture, and came into the theater early in the morning; at which time the silver of his garment was illuminated by the fresh reflection of the sun's rays upon it. It shone out after a surprising manner, and was resplendent as to spread a horror over those that looked intently upon him. At that moment, his flatterers cried out . . . that he was a god."<sup>1</sup> If Herod had feared God, he would have rebuked his subjects for their blasphemy. Instead, he accepted their adoration. "Instantly, an angel of the Lord struck Herod with a sickness, because he accepted the people's worship instead of giving the glory to God. So he was consumed with worms and died" (Acts 12:23). It is believed that Agrippa may have been afflicted with intestinal roundworms, which can grow 10–16 inches in length by feeding on nutrients in the intestines. In A.D. 44, when Herod expired, no cure existed.

It's possible that Herod could have prevented his fate by giving glory to God alone. But Agrippa had rejected that course of action long before.

GIVE THE KID ANOTHER CHANCE?

He made the mistake of his life—but went on to play a vital role in the life of the church.

HE BEGAN WITH all the right connections. His mother was prominent in the Jerusalem church, their spacious home a meeting place for part of the huge congregation. The apostle Peter had come to their door first after his miraculous escape from prison (Acts 12).

His cousin was the gentle, respected Barnabas, donor of real-estate funds to the church, “a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and strong in faith” (Acts 11:24). Thus it was not a total surprise that when Barnabas and Paul were set apart by the Antioch believers for a historic new venture into the Mediterranean world, “John Mark went with them as their assistant” (Acts 13:5).

But somehow, during the next few weeks, all that changed. The Scriptures do not tell us why or how. Perhaps the crossing of the open water to Cyprus was frightening. Perhaps the young man was irritated at the secondary role that was falling to his relative as Paul’s ministry flourished. Whatever the cause, John Mark made the mistake of his life. He “left them and returned to Jerusalem” (Acts 13:13).

What he said before his departure we do not know. But we do know that he had seared his worthlessness into the memory of Paul. Two years later, when Paul and Barnabas began planning their second extended trip abroad, they argued over whether to include John Mark again. Barnabas wanted to take him along, but Paul flatly refused, citing the young man’s earlier desertion as reason to leave him behind. The two missionaries disagreed so strongly that they eventually split up; Barnabas took John Mark to Cyprus, and Paul replaced Barnabas with Silas.

After such a sharp rejection by the apostle Paul, was John Mark’s career doomed forever? Would the church ever give him another chance? Would God?

To find the answer, we must jump forward in time 15 years. Paul was now writing from a Roman prison. His traveling days were finished; he relied on his pen and his colleagues to carry out his ministry. He wrote:

“Aristarchus, who is in prison with me, sends you his greetings, and so does Mark, Barnabas’s cousin. And as you were instructed before, make Mark welcome if he comes your way” (Colossians 4:10).

Paul also sent this message to Philemon: “Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends you his greetings. So do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my coworkers” (Philemon 1:23-24).

And in Paul’s final note to Timothy, perhaps just weeks before his execution, he made this request: “Only Luke is with me. Bring Mark with you when you come, for he will be helpful to me in my ministry” (2 Timothy 4:11).

John Mark went from reject to valued ministry partner. What a transformation! But the greatest evidence of John Mark’s restoration was still to come. It was he—the formerly undependable one—who recorded one of the four Gospels, an exciting, action-packed account of the life of our Lord. His place in history is thus assured forever.

A MAN FOR OTHERS

Almost every time Barnabas appears in Scripture, he's helping or encouraging someone.

EVER HEAR OF MARTHA CANNARY? No? How about Bill Robinson? Vladimir Tepes?

Chances are, none of these names are familiar. But should someone mention Calamity Jane, Mr. Bojangles, or Dracula, you'd likely nod your head in recognition. Some nicknames "stick" because they more powerfully describe the person than does his or her given name.

So it was with Barnabas.

Most of us know a little about Barnabas. We know he took part in a missionary journey with Paul in the formative years of the church. We know he was a good guy. Luke called him "a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and strong in faith" (Acts 11:24).

But who remembers his real name—Joseph? Most likely we also forget that he "was from the tribe of Levi and came from the island of Cyprus" (Acts 4:36). We only recall him as a kind man who always looked for ways to encourage others. The apostles thought so, too—they named him Barnabas, which means, "Son of Encouragement."

Almost every time Barnabas appears in Scripture, he's helping or encouraging someone. On his first appearance, he's selling some property and giving the proceeds to the church to help those in economic need (4:37). On his second appearance, he's introducing Saul to the apostles—the same Saul who had been persecuting the church (Acts 9:27). In Acts 11 the apostles send Barnabas to encourage the fledgling church at Antioch, which he does (11:22). But when he sees the magnitude of the work, he leaves for Tarsus to look for Paul (previously Saul), thus encouraging him to get involved in the work (11:25). At the end of the chapter, Barnabas and Paul return to Jerusalem with a monetary gift from the believers in Antioch, again encouraging their brothers in the faith (11:30). Later on, when the two leave on a missionary journey, they encourage new believers in several towns and cities.

One time Barnabas and Paul even got into a heated argument over Barnabas's attempts to encourage his young cousin, John Mark. Barnabas wanted to take Mark along on the team's second missionary journey, even though the young man had deserted them the first time around. Paul disagreed, and the two of them ultimately decided to split and form two new missionary teams (Acts 15:39). Barnabas couldn't stand the thought of abandoning John Mark, regardless of what he had done.

Nicknames can count for a lot. We might have come to know this man as Joseph the Levite, or Joseph from Cyprus. Yet the Bible chooses to remember him as Barnabas, the Son of Encouragement. You might ask yourself, "What will I be remembered for?"

APOSTLE

EXTRAORDINAIRE

Paul saw himself as a man “chosen by the will of God,” sent for a specified purpose.

WHAT CAN BE SAID about the man God used to write one-fourth of the New Testament? How can one describe the church’s first great missionary? Perhaps the best descriptions of the apostle Paul can be found in the way he described his own role. Aside from the book of Acts, nearly everything we know about this apostle comes from his own letters to the churches he planted across Asia. Consider the following excerpts:

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus . . . (1 Timothy 1:1). Paul saw himself as a man “chosen by the will of God” (1 Corinthians 1:1), sent for a specified purpose, commissioned by Christ to broadcast the Good News. Immediately after his dramatic conversion, “he began preaching about Jesus in the synagogues, saying, ‘He is indeed the Son of God!’ ” (Acts 9:20). He continually risked his life in his apostolic labors (2 Corinthians 11:23-28) and organized churches throughout the Mediterranean world (Acts 14:23). God did many miracles through him (Acts 14:9; 28:8) and Paul wielded great influence, yet as he said to one church, “I want to use the authority the Lord has given me to strengthen you, not to tear you down” (2 Corinthians 13:10).

Apostle to the Gentiles . . . (Romans 11:13). A significant shift happens about midway through the book of Acts. Up to that point, the church had directed its evangelistic efforts primarily to Jews. But soon after the conversion of Paul, Gentiles increasingly became the focus of the church’s witness. Acts 13:9 subtly signals this shift. The verse begins, “Saul, also known as Paul . . .” Until that verse, Luke uses only the name “Saul” when referring to the converted persecutor; Saul was the name of Israel’s first king, and it remained popular among Jews in the first century. But from this point on, the Greek name dominates. Paul himself would write, “The same God who worked through Peter as the apostle to the Jews also worked through me as the apostle to the Gentiles” (Galatians 2:8).

“I am the least of all the apostles. In fact, I’m not even worthy to be called an apostle” (1 Corinthians 15:9). Paul could never forget that “I violently persecuted God’s church. I did my best to destroy it” (Galatians 1:13). It took a dramatic encounter on the road to Damascus to change the man’s spiritual direction. He never forgot the Lord’s question to him: “Saul! Saul! Why are you persecuting me?” (Acts 9:4). This is why Paul could label himself among “the worst sinners” (1 Timothy 1:16).

“I am not at all inferior to these ‘super apostles,’ even though I am nothing at all” (2 Corinthians 12:11). But don’t think Paul had an inferiority complex! Even while admitting his sinfulness, he could celebrate his apostleship. So it is no surprise to see him rejoicing in God's work in his life, saying, "If you want to boast, boast only about the LORD " (1 Corinthians 1:31).

RISKING IT

ALL

God calls us to put our trust in him and take a risk for his Kingdom.

“IF YOU’RE NOT LIVING ON THE EDGE, you’re taking up too much space.”

So goes an anonymous quote about risk-taking. It speaks real truth, relevant to today’s Christian men sitting in comfortable church pews. Yet its wise message often gets drowned out in the hum of a safety-obsessed, security-demanding world.

A man named Epaphroditus took chances for the sake of Christ. This member of the church in ancient Philippi delivered some funds and supplies to Paul while the apostle languished in a Roman jail. So far as we know, Epaphroditus did no preaching or teaching, no public evangelizing, no high-profile ministry during his trip to Rome. Yet he was committed to the work of Christ, and he expended a great deal of energy trying to meet the apostle’s needs. In the process, he came down with a serious illness. “In fact,” Paul wrote to the man’s home church, “he almost died” (Philippians 2:27).

If you had been Epaphroditus, would you have risked your life to become Paul’s errand-boy? Would you have chosen the dangers of a long and arduous trip merely to deliver some much-needed supplies? Or would you have stayed home and prayed that Paul’s stomach wouldn’t growl too loudly?

The apostle praised Epaphroditus to his friends and told them to “welcome him with Christian love and with great joy, and give him the honor that people like him deserve.” Why? Because “he risked his life for the work of Christ, and he was at the point of death while doing for me what you couldn’t do from far away” (Philippians 2:29-30, emphasis added).

Risk occurs only when the outcome remains in doubt, so the danger of an undesirable result always exists. Just ask Epaphroditus, who almost died because of his risk-taking. Not all risks bring honor to God. We need to take risks wisely. But God knows the end from the beginning, and he calls us to put our trust in him and take a risk for his Kingdom.

What risk are you taking? What risks do you plan to take? When?

“Don’t be afraid to take a big step,” said David Lloyd George, courageous prime minister of Great Britain through World War I. “You can’t cross a chasm in two small jumps.”

Epaphroditus would have agreed.

THE POINT: God rejoices when godly men take risks for him.

someone you should know: timothy

1 Timothy 1:7-8

TIMID BUT

FRUITFUL

Timothy struggled with fear and hesitation, so Paul admonished him to be bold for Christ.

TOO MANY OF US shrink back from ministry involvement because we tell ourselves we just don't have the right temperament. We hear of the fiery fisherman Peter or the bold apostle Paul and think, Hey, I'm nothing like that. I could never get up in front of three people to speak, let alone a crowd. I'll leave ministry to the professionals.

Yet God doesn't think this way. Consider Timothy "Exhibit A."

Timothy grew up in a mixed home. While his Jewish mother became a Christian, his Greek father apparently never came to faith. It appears that both Timothy and his mother accepted Christ during Paul's first missionary journey when the apostle visited their hometown, Lystra. On Paul's second trip through the area, he took note of Timothy, a young man "well thought of by the believers in Lystra and Iconium" (Acts 16:2). Paul and Timothy developed a close bond, and the apostle became the younger man's spiritual mentor.

From that time on, Timothy often accompanied Paul on his journeys, sometimes staying behind and sometimes working with others in “advance teams,” paving the way for Paul's arrival (Acts 17:14; 18:5; 19:22; 20:4). Paul grew to love this young man as if he were his own flesh and blood. He counted him a “fellow worker” (Romans 16:21) and “brother” (2 Corinthians 1:1); but more than that, he thought of Timothy as “my dear son” (2 Timothy 1:2), “my beloved and faithful child in the Lord” (1 Corinthians 4:17) and “my true son in the faith” (1 Timothy 1:2). And he could say, “I have no one else like Timothy, who genuinely cares about your welfare. . . . Timothy has proved himself. Like a son with his father, he has served with me in preaching the Good News” (Philippians 2:20, 22).

Yet Timothy was no Paul; Paul was an example and mentor for his son in the faith, but Timothy was not a mirror of Paul's strengths. Timothy struggled with fear and hesitation. So Paul admonished his timid protégé: “God has not given us a spirit of fear and timidity, but of power, love, and self-discipline. So never be ashamed to tell others about our Lord. And don't be ashamed of me, either, even though I'm in prison for him. With the strength God gives you, be ready to suffer with me for the sake of the Good News” (2 Timothy 1:7-8). The apostle instructed those who might be his hosts, “When Timothy comes, don't intimidate him. . . . Don't let anyone treat him with contempt” (1 Corinthians 16:10-11).

Timothy proves that God can and does use all kinds of temperaments in ministry. The big question for each of us is this: Do I want him to use me?

not human temperament.

2 Timothy 4:10

NOBODY LIKES A

DESERTER

By the time Paul landed in a Roman jail near the end of his life, Demas had disappeared.

IN 1812 NAPOLEON UNWISELY INVADED RUSSIA. When his subjects in France began objecting noisily to the campaign, he grew worried and rushed back home virtually unaccompanied, leaving his soldiers to fend for themselves. At a certain river crossing manned by a Russian ferryman, Napoleon anxiously inquired whether any deserters had come that way. “No,” the man sneered, “you are the first.”

No one likes a deserter. No one respects a deserter. The very word speaks of cowardice, disloyalty, and spinelessness. Deserters run away not only from battlefields but from all kinds of difficult situations—including the challenges of a walk of faith. Paul’s account of a man named Demas illustrates how some men allow “the good life” to turn them into deserters.

Demas started out well. He not only made a commitment to Christ, he followed up with practical acts of service. The apostle Paul called Demas a “coworker” (Philemon 1:24) and told one church that Demas sent them his greetings (Colossians 4:14). Demas apparently had joined the apostle in the hard work of spreading the gospel and had made himself a valuable asset to the cause of Christ.

But as time went on and the work became more difficult, something changed. By the time Paul landed in a Roman jail near the end of his life, Demas had disappeared. He turned tail and ran.

“Demas has deserted me,” the apostle wrote to his faithful friend, Timothy. For what cause? Did Demas fear for his life? Did he worry that he, too, might wind up in prison? Not exactly. Paul wrote that Demas had deserted him “because he loves the things of this life” (2 Timothy 4:10). Demas wasn’t running from danger; he was running toward the comfort offered by the world.

The apostle John had a few things to say to men like Demas. “Do not love this world nor the things it offers you,” he wrote, “for when you love the world, you do not have the love of the Father in you. For the world offers only a craving for physical pleasure, a craving for everything we see, and pride in our achievements and possessions. These are not from the Father, but are from this world. And this world is fading away, along with everything that people crave ” (1 John 2:15-17).

Jesus, too, commented on those of Demas’s ilk. He compared them to a well-seeded plot of ground that failed to produce a crop. All too quickly, he said, the Christian message in their lives gets “crowded out by the worries of this life and the lure of wealth” (Matthew 13:22). And so they desert.

No matter what the situation, nobody likes a deserter. And ironically, deserters always wind up losing in the end.

A BOLD

FAVOR

Philemon had every right under Roman law to beat or even execute his returned slave.

FORGIVENESS CAN COST A LOT. It might entail financial loss. It might involve emotional distress. It might mean swallowing a good chunk of pride. And yet God calls his people to forgive, as a well-off church leader named Philemon discovered.

Philemon apparently lived in Colosse, a small town on the Lycus River about 100 miles east of Ephesus. Once an important trading center, by the first century Colosse had declined in importance and size due to the growth of two neighboring cities, Laodicea and Hierapolis.

Philemon owned a home large enough to accommodate the Colossian church (1:2) and also owned slaves, as did others in the congregation (Colossians 4:1). One of his slaves, Onesimus (his name means “useful”), stole some items belonging to Philemon and ran away. Under Roman law, a runaway slave could be severely punished and even violently killed upon his recapture.

Philemon heard nothing about his runaway slave for some time . . . until he received a short, unexpected letter from the imprisoned apostle Paul. Not long before, Paul had led Philemon to faith in Christ (1:19), and so Philemon probably felt delighted to hear from his spiritual father.

Yet Paul wasn't writing merely to say hello. He informed Philemon that he had come into contact with Onesimus while in prison and had helped the runaway slave make a commitment to Christ. Now he was sending Onesimus back to his master, no longer as a slave, but as a "beloved brother" (1:16).

Paul had only one tiny request: "Show kindness to my child, Onesimus. I became his father in the faith while here in prison. Onesimus hasn't been of much use to you in the past, but now he is very useful to both of us. I am sending him back to you, and with him comes my own heart." (1:10-12).

In other words, Paul asked his friend to forgive Onesimus. Forgive him for running away. Forgive him for theft. Forgive him for disrupting the household.

The apostle wanted to tap the generosity and kindness of Philemon, even asking him to "welcome [Onesimus] as you would welcome me." Then, to show the seriousness of his request, Paul added, "If he has wronged you in any way or owes you anything, charge it to me" (1:17-18).

Philemon had a choice to make. He had every right under Roman law to beat or even execute his returned slave. He could take what Onesimus owed him out of the slave's hide. But Paul had asked him (not commanded him, though he pointed out in verse 8 that he could have) to forbear.

Forgiveness can be costly. It certainly was for Philemon. But when God gets involved, the payback far exceeds the expense.

KNEELING IN THE SHADOWS

“Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up in honor.” James 4:10

HE WAS ONE OF THE “LITTLE KIDS” in Joseph and Mary’s house, the brood that came along after the firstborn, Jesus. We wish we knew more about James’s early years. Did he get along with his older brother? What did he think about the getting-lost-at-the-temple escapade? How old was he when Jesus moved out on his own?

(Some have speculated, by the way, that James and the others weren’t really brothers of Jesus but rather cousins, or perhaps stepbrothers from an earlier marriage of Joseph’s. This makes it possible then to defend the idea that Mary had one and only one pregnancy in her lifetime. Granted, the range of the Greek word adelphos is wide enough to cover everything from “relative” to “good friend.” But there is nothing in the New Testament that suggests that James was anything other than a natural-born son of Mary just like Jesus.) What we do know for sure is that James and the rest of his brothers weren't too keen on Jesus' mission once he got rolling. They came to see him once (Mark 3:31) and hung around the edges of the crowd. But they "didn't believe in him" (John 7:5). In fact, they sarcastically egged him on to go make a spectacle of himself (John 7:3).

All that changed, however, when Jesus rose from the dead. He apparently had a "list" of people to see following the Resurrection, and James was on it (see 1 Corinthians 15:7). James became convinced that this brother he had grown up with, done chores with, gone to school with . . . was the Messiah, the Savior of the world.

Within a few years, James rose to become the presiding leader of the Jerusalem congregation, moderating a tough church council that debated whether Gentile Christians should be required to conform to Jewish law (see Acts 15). James, a devout Jew, said he thought Gentiles should not have to go through endless Jewish rituals in order to be accepted, and his diplomacy won the day. It was a watershed moment in the development of the young church.

Eventually, James wrote a letter to the churches across the Roman empire; we call it the Epistle of James. It was succinct, clear, and practical, with a call for faith to be backed up by action in our lives.

James was a quiet, brave man known for his integrity and devotion. This eventually got him killed; the Jewish high priest had him stoned in A.D. 61 or 62. A poignant picture has been passed down from Hegesippus, a second-century historian, that reveals something personal about James: "He was in the habit of entering alone into the temple, and was frequently found upon his knees begging forgiveness for the people, so that his knees became hard like those of a camel, in consequence of his constantly bending them in his worship of God.”

3 John 1:9-10

“ME FIRST”

COMES IN LAST

Diotrephes didn't want anyone encroaching on “his” authority.

A FEW YEARS AGO a college admissions officer had some difficult decisions to make. She stared at a tall pile of applications from highly qualified students, knowing that the university had room only for a small percentage of them. As she culled through the hopeful students' letters, one immediately stood out. She smiled broadly and put that student's application in her “accepted” file. What made the difference?

This student, almost alone among the applicants, described himself as a follower. He could lead, he said, but he didn't need to; he had no problem with taking a number two position.

“What would we do with a college full of leaders and no followers?” asked the beaming admissions officer.

Too bad Diotrephes didn't have the same attitude.

This man caused the apostle John some real heartache. He occupied a position of leadership in a church overseen by John, and once he tasted power, he wasn't interested in letting anyone else know the feeling. John had written to the church, asking it to take care of some traveling teachers and evangelists who intended to visit the area, but Diotrephes objected. He didn't want anyone encroaching on "his" authority. In his third short epistle, John described several unsavory traits about Diotrephes that had to be confronted: He loved to be the leader (1:9). Other translations say he loved "to be first" (NIV). He never bought into Jesus' idea of servant leadership. Instead, he operated under the philosophy of "my way or the highway."

He refused to acknowledge the authority of others (1:9). Diotrephes didn't merely like to be a leader; he insisted on being the only leader. His word had to rule not only supremely, but exclusively.

He spoke maliciously about other leaders (1:10). Not content to disregard the legitimate authority of others, he insisted on slandering them as well. He filled the church with nasty gossip and self-serving rumors.

He outlawed church hospitality and punished those who dared oppose his will (1:10). Diotrephes went beyond turning away the visiting teachers. He forbade the members of his church to host these men on their own. If they opened their homes anyway, he threw them out of the church.

Egocentric control freaks like Diotrephes may hold on to power for a while, but eventually they cause enough hurt that either they leave on their own or get asked to leave. We don't know what happened to Diotrephes or his church, but we do know that John pleaded with his good friends there not to follow the man's self-centered example (1:11). John would have agreed with the apostle Paul's guidance: "Don't be selfish; don't try to impress others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourselves " (Philippians 2:3).

That's good advice in any century.

GOD CREATED TIME

God said, “Let lights appear in the sky to separate the day from the night. Let them be signs to mark the seasons, days, and years.”

(Genesis 1:14)

GOD OUTLASTS TIME

You must not forget this one thing, dear friends: A day is like a thousand years to the Lord, and a thousand years is like a day.

(2 Peter 3:8)

GOD IS WITH US THROUGHOUT TIME

Lord, through all the generations you have been our home!

(Psalm 90:1)

[Jesus:] “And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

(Matthew 28:20)

OUR TIME IS LIMITED

Seventy years are given to us!
Some even live to eighty.
But even the best years are filled with pain and trouble;
soon they disappear, and we fly away.

(Psalm 90:10)

Teach us to realize the brevity of life,

What the Bible Says about in-laws

SOMETIMES THEY'RE WORTH LISTENING TO

Moses went out to meet his fatherin-law. He bowed low and kissed him. They asked about each other's welfare and then went into Moses' tent. Moses told his fatherin-law everything the LORD had done to Pharaoh and Egypt on behalf of Israel. He also told about all the hardships they had experienced along the way and how the LORD had rescued his people from all their troubles. Jethro was delighted. . . .

The next day, Moses took his seat to hear the people's disputes against each other. They waited before him from morning till evening. . . .

"This is not good!" Moses' fatherin-law exclaimed. "You're going to wear yourself out—and the people, too. This job is too heavy a burden for you to handle all by yourself. Now listen to me, and let me give you a word of advice, and may God be with you. . . ."

Moses listened to his fatherin-law's advice and followed his suggestions.

\(1 Samuel 26:23-25\)

THE GOSPEL SOMETIMES CAUSES CRACKS

[Jesus:] “Do you think I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I have come to divide people against each other! From now on families will be split apart, three in favor of me, and two against—or two in favor and three against.

‘Father will be divided against son
and son against father;
mother against daughter
and daughter against mother;
and mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.’”

\(Luke 12:51-53\)

What the Bible Says about food

THE OLD RESTRICTION DIET

These are the instructions regarding land animals, birds, marine creatures, and animals that scurry along the ground. By these instructions you will know what is unclean and clean, and which animals may be eaten and which may not be eaten.

\(Leviticus 11:46-47\)

And if any native Israelite or foreigner living among you eats or drinks blood in any form, I [God] will turn against that person and cut him off from the community of your people.

\(Leviticus 17:10\)

And so my judgment is that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to God. Instead, we should write and tell them to abstain from eating food offered to idols, from sexual immorality, from eating the meat of strangled animals, and from consuming blood.

\(Acts 15:19-20\)

THE NEW EVERYTHING DIET

Since everything God created is good, we should not reject any of it but receive it with thanks.

\(1 Timothy 4:4\)

DON'T OVERDO IT

Do not carouse with drunkards
or feast with gluttons,

for they are on their way to poverty,
and too much sleep clothes them in rags.

\(Proverbs 23:20-21\)

GOD IS THE CHEF

You cause grass to grow for the livestock and plants for people to use.
You allow them to produce food from the earth—wine to make them glad,
olive oil to soothe their skin,
and bread to give them strength.

\(Psalm 104:14-15\)

The eyes of all look to you in hope;
you give them their food as they need it.
When you open your hand,
you satisfy the hunger and thirst of every living thing.

\(Psalm 145:15-16\)

A GREAT GIFT

If you have food, share it with those who are hungry.

\(Luke 3:11\)

DON'T LIVE TO EAT

Their god is their appetite . . . they think only about this life here on earth.

\(Philippians 3:19\)

A rich man had a fertile farm that produced fine crops. He said to himself, “What should I do? I don’t have room for all my crops.” Then he said, “I know! I’ll tear down my barns and build bigger ones. Then I’ll have room enough to store all my wheat and other goods. And I'll sit back and say to myself, 'My friend, you have enough stored away for years to come. Now take it easy! Eat, drink, and be merry!'"

But God said to him, "You fool! You will die this very night. Then who will get everything you worked for?"

Yes, a person is a fool to store up earthly wealth but not have a rich relationship with God.

\(Luke 12:16-21\)

What the Bible Says about anger

ANGER IS CONTAGIOUS

Don't befriend angry people or associate with hot-tempered people, or you will learn to be like them
and endanger your soul.

(Proverbs 22:24-25)

A SLOW TRIGGER

Understand this, my dear brothers and sisters: You must all be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry. Human anger does not produce the righteousness God desires.

(James 1:19-20)

GETTING CONTROL

"Don't sin by letting anger control you." Don't let the sun go down while you are still angry, for anger gives a foothold to the devil.

(Ephesians 4:26-27)

Sensible people control their temper;
they earn respect by overlooking wrongs.

(Proverbs 19:11)

ANGER HAS CONSEQUENCES

Short-tempered people do foolish things, and schemers are hated.

People with understanding control their anger;
a hot temper shows great foolishness.

\(Proverbs 14:17, 29\)

A gentle answer deflects anger,
but harsh words make tempers flare.

A hot-tempered person starts fights;
a cool-tempered person stops them.

\(Proverbs 15:1, 18\)

An angry person starts fights;
a hot-tempered person commits all kinds of sin.

\(Proverbs 29:22\)

HOT TEMPER AREN'T COOL

A fool is quick-tempered, but a wise person stays calm when insulted.

\(Proverbs 12:16\)

ANGER IS DANGEROUS

[Jesus:] “You have heard that our ancestors were told, ‘You must not murder. If you commit murder, you are subject to judgment.’ But I say, if you are even angry with someone, you are subject to judgment! If you call someone an idiot, you are in danger of being brought before the court. And if you curse someone, you are in danger of the fires of hell.”

\(Matthew 5:21-22\)

What the Bible Says about getting old

AGING HAPPENS

Don't let the excitement of youth cause you to forget your Creator. Honor him in your youth before you grow old and say, "Life is not pleasant anymore." Remember him before the light of the sun, moon, and stars is dim to your old eyes, and rain clouds continually darken your sky. Remember him before your legs—the guards of your house—start to tremble; and before your shoulders—the strong men—stoop. Remember him before your teeth—your few remaining servants—stop grinding; and before your eyes—the women looking through the windows—see dimly.

Remember him before the door to life's opportunities is closed and the sound of work fades. Now you rise at the first chirping of the birds, but then all their sounds will grow faint.

Remember him before you become fearful of falling and worry about danger in the streets; before your hair turns white like an almond tree in bloom, and you drag along without energy like a dying grasshopper, and the caperberry no longer inspires sexual desire. Remember him before you near the grave, your everlasting home, when the mourners will weep at your funeral.

Yes, remember your Creator now while you are young, before the silver cord of life snaps and the golden bowl is broken.

Don't wait until the water jar is smashed at the spring and the pulley is broken at the well. For then the dust will return to the earth, and the spirit will return to God who gave it.

\(Ecclesiastes 12:1-7\)

SECRETS OF LONG LIFE

Does anyone want to live a life that is long and prosperous?
Then keep your tongue from speaking evil
and your lips from telling lies!
Turn away from evil and do good.
Search for peace, and work to maintain it.

\(Psalm 34:12-14\)

My child, never forget the things I have taught you.
Store my commands in your heart.
If you do this, you will live many years, and your life will be satisfying.

\(Proverbs 3:1-2\)

Fear of the LORD lengthens one's life, but the years of the wicked are cut short.

\(Proverbs 10:27\)

IT CAN BE FRIGHTENING

And now, in my old age, don't set me aside.
Don't abandon me when my strength is failing. . . .

Now that I am old and gray,
do not abandon me, O God.
Let me proclaim your power to this new generation, your mighty miracles to all who come after me.

\(Psalm 71:9, 18\)

OLD AGE CAN BE GREAT

Gray hair is a crown of glory;
it is gained by living a godly life.

\(Proverbs 16:31\)

EXAMPLES TO THE NEXT GENERATION

Teach the older men to exercise self-control, to be worthy of respect, and to live wisely. They must have sound faith and be filled with love and patience.

\(Titus 2:2\)

What the Bible Says about money

THE DOWNSIDE OF WEALTH

There is treasure in the house of the godly, but the earnings of the wicked bring trouble.

\(Proverbs 15:6\)

Greedy people try to get rich quick but don't realize they're headed for poverty.

\(Proverbs 28:22\)

Then Jesus said to his disciples, "I tell you the truth, it is very hard for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. I'll say it again—it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God!"

The disciples were astounded. "Then who in the world can be saved?" they asked.

Jesus looked at them intently and said, "Humanly speaking, it is impossible. But with God everything is possible."

\(Matthew 19:23-26\)

The seed that fell among the thorns represents others who hear God's word, but all too quickly the message is crowded out by the worries of this life, the lure of wealth, and the desire for other things, so no fruit is produced.

\(Mark 4:18-19\)

People who long to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many foolish and harmful desires that plunge them into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. And some people, craving money, have wandered from the true faith and pierced themselves with many sorrows.

\(1 Timothy 6:9-10\)

DON'T TRUST IT

No one can serve two masters. For you will hate one and love the other; you will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.

\(Luke 16:13\)

Trust in your money and down you go!
But the godly flourish like leaves in spring.

\(Proverbs 11:28\)

Don't wear yourself out trying to get rich.
Be wise enough to know when to quit.
In the blink of an eye wealth disappears, for it will sprout wings and fly away like an eagle.

\(Proverbs 23:4-5\)

Then he [Jesus] said, "Beware! Guard against every kind of greed. Life is not measured by how much you own."

\(Luke 12:15\)

LEARN TO BE CONTENT

I have learned how to be content with whatever I have. I know how to live on almost nothing or with everything. I have learned the secret of living in every situation, whether it is with a full stomach or empty, with plenty or little.

\(Philippians 4:11-12\)

USE YOUR MONEY FOR GOOD

Teach those who are rich in this world not to be proud and not to trust in their money, which is so unreliable. Their trust should be in God, who richly gives us all we need for our enjoyment. Tell them to use their money to do good. They should be rich in good works and generous to those in need, always being ready to share with others. By doing this they will be storing up their treasure as a good foundation for the future so that they may experience true life.

\(1 Timothy 6:17-19\)

THE GODLY PERSON IS TRULY RICH

It is better to be godly and have little than to be evil and rich.

\(Psalm 37:16\)

Better to have little, with fear for the LORD, than to have great treasure and inner turmoil.

\(Proverbs 15:16\)

Better to have little, with godliness, than to be rich and dishonest.

\(Proverbs 16:8\)

The blessing of the LORD makes a person rich, and he adds no sorrow with it.

\(Proverbs 10:22\)

TAKE CARE OF YOUR POSSESSIONS

Know the state of your flocks, and put your heart into caring for your herds,
for riches don't last forever, and the crown might not be passed to the next generation.
After the hay is harvested and the new crop appears and the mountain grasses are gathered in, your sheep will provide wool for clothing, and your goats will provide the price of a field.
And you will have enough goats' milk for yourself, your family, and your servant girls.

\(Proverbs 27:23-27\)

What the Bible Says about bosses

YOU'RE REALLY WORKING FOR CHRIST

Slaves, obey your earthly masters with deep respect and fear. Serve them sincerely as you would serve Christ. Try to please them all the time, not just when they are watching you. As slaves of Christ, do the will of God with all your heart. Work with enthusiasm, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people. Remember that the Lord will reward each one of us for the good we do, whether we are slaves or free.

\(Ephesians 6:5-8\)

Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything you do. Try to please them all the time, not just when they are watching you. Serve them sincerely because of your reverent fear of the Lord. Work willingly at whatever you do, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people. Remember that the Lord will give you an inheritance as your reward, and that the Master you are serving is Christ.

\(Colossians 3:22-24\)

BOSSSES SHOULD ENCOURAGE THEIR EMPLOYEES

[God to Moses:] “Your assistant, Joshua son of Nun, will lead the people into the land. Encourage him, for he will lead Israel as they take possession of it.”

\(Deuteronomy 1:38\)

IF YOUR BOSS IS A JERK

You who are slaves must accept the authority of your masters with all respect. Do what they tell you—not only if they are kind and reasonable, but even if they are cruel. For God is pleased with you when you do what you know is right and patiently endure unfair treatment. Of course, you get no credit for being patient if you are beaten for doing wrong. But if you suffer for doing good and endure it patiently, God is pleased with you.

\(1 Peter 2:18-20\)

MAKING AN IMPRESSION

All slaves should show full respect for their masters so they will not bring shame on the name of God and his teaching. If the masters are believers, that is no excuse for being disrespectful. Those slaves should work all the harder because their efforts are helping other believers who are well loved.

\(1 Timothy 6:1-2\)

Slaves must always obey their masters and do their best to please them. They must not talk back or steal, but must show themselves to be entirely trustworthy and good. Then they will make the teaching about God our Savior attractive in every way.

\(Titus 2:9-10\)

BOSSSES DON'T LIKE LAZY WORKERS

Lazy people irritate their employers, like vinegar to the teeth or smoke in the eyes.

\(Proverbs 10:26\)

What the Bible Says about courage

GOD DEMANDS COURAGE FROM HIS PEOPLE

This is my command—be strong and courageous! Do not be afraid or discouraged. For the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.

(Joshua 1:9)

FEAR ONLY GOD

Fearing people is a dangerous trap, but trusting the LORD means safety.

(Proverbs 29:25)

Make the LORD of Heaven's Armies holy in your life.

He is the one you should fear.

He is the one who should make you tremble.

(Isaiah 8:13)

[Jesus:] “Don’t be afraid of those who want to kill your body; they cannot touch your soul. Fear only God, who can destroy both soul and body in hell.”

(Matthew 10:28)

GODLY PEOPLE CAN BE BOLD

The wicked run away when no one is chasing them, but the godly are as bold as lions.

(Proverbs 28:1)

THREE BRAVE MEN

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied, “O

Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you. If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God whom we serve is able to save us. He will rescue us from your power, Your Majesty. But even if he doesn't, we want to make it clear to you, Your Majesty, that we will never serve your gods or worship the gold statue you have set up."

\(Daniel 3:16-18\)

STAND TALL

Don't be intimidated in any way by your enemies. This will be a sign to them that they are going to be destroyed, but that you are going to be saved, even by God himself.

\(Philippians 1:28\)

Be on guard. Stand firm in the faith. Be courageous. Be strong.

\(1 Corinthians 16:13\)

[God:] "I, yes I, am the one who comforts you.
So why are you afraid of mere humans, who wither like the grass and disappear?"

\(Isaiah 51:12\)

THE ULTIMATE SOURCE OF COURAGE

I prayed to the LORD, and he answered me.
He freed me from all my fears.

\(Psalm 34:4\)

The LORD is my light and my salvation—so why should I be afraid?
The LORD is my fortress, protecting me from danger,
so why should I tremble?

When evil people come to devour me, when my enemies and foes attack me,
they will stumble and fall.
Though a mighty army surrounds me,
my heart will not be afraid.
Even if I am attacked,
I will remain confident.

\(Psalm 27:1-3\)

What the Bible Says about guilt

WE FEEL GUILTY BECAUSE OF SIN

[Jesus:] “When [the Holy Spirit] comes, he will convict the world of its sin, and of God’s righteousness, and of the coming judgment.”

(John 16:8)

My guilt overwhelms me—
it is a burden too heavy to bear.

(Psalm 38:4)

It was in the year King Uzziah died that I saw the Lord. He was sitting on a lofty throne, and the train of his robe filled the Temple. . . . Then I said, “It’s all over! I am doomed, for I am a sinful man. I have filthy lips, and I live among a people with filthy lips. Yet I have seen the King, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.”

(Isaiah 6:1, 5)

NOBODY’S INNOCENT

Everyone has sinned; we all fall short of God’s glorious standard.

(Romans 3:23)

HOW TO DEAL WITH GUILT

Against you, and you alone, have I sinned;
I have done what is evil in your sight.
You will be proved right in what you say,
and your judgment against me is just. . . .

Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and make me willing to obey you.

\(Psalm 51:4, 12\)

“O LORD,” I prayed, “have mercy on me.
Heal me, for I have sinned against you.”

\(Psalm 41:4\)

If we claim we have no sin, we are only fooling ourselves and not living in the truth. But if we confess our sins to him, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all wickedness. If we claim we have not sinned, we are calling God a liar and showing that his word has no place in our hearts.

\(1 John 1:8-10\)

THAT FREEDOM FEELING

Our actions will show that we belong to the truth, so we will be confident when we stand before God. Even if we feel guilty, God is greater than our feelings, and he knows everything.

\(1 John 3:19-20\)

God has united you with Christ Jesus. . . . Christ made us right with God; he made us pure and holy, and he freed us from sin.

\(1 Corinthians 1:30\)

GUILTY CONSCIENCE?

Remember, it is sin to know what you ought to do and then not do it.

\(James 4:17\)

Jonah got up and went in the opposite direction to get away from the LORD. . . . But the LORD hurled a powerful wind over the sea, causing a violent storm that threatened to break the ship apart. . . . But all this time Jonah was sound asleep down in the hold.

\(Jonah 1:3-5\)

WHAT HAPPENS IF WE DON'T DEAL WITH GUILT

“But those who still reject me are like the restless sea, which is never still but continually churns up mud and dirt.
There is no peace for the wicked,” says my God.

\(Isaiah 57:20-21\)

[God:] “The rich among you have become wealthy through extortion and violence.
Your citizens are so used to lying that their tongues can no longer tell the truth.

“Therefore, I will wound you!
I will bring you to ruin for all your sins.”

\(Micah 6:12-13\)

RIGHT AND WRONG

Even Gentiles, who do not have God's written law, show that they know his law when they instinctively obey it, even without having heard it. They demonstrate that God's law is written in their hearts, for their own conscience and thoughts either accuse them or tell them they are doing right.

\(Romans 2:14-15\)

[Job:] “Stop assuming my guilt, for I have done no wrong.
Do you think I am lying?
Don’t I know the difference between right and wrong?”

\(Job 6:29-30\)

So humble yourselves before God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Come close to God, and God will come close to you. Wash your hands, you sinners; purify your hearts, for your loyalty is divided between God and the world. Let there be tears for what you have done. Let there be sorrow and deep grief. Let there be sadness instead of laughter, and gloom instead of joy. Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up in honor.

\(James 4:7-10\)

HOW GUILTY?

The person who keeps all of the laws except one is as guilty as a person who has broken all of God’s laws.

\(James 2:10\)

What the Bible Says about leadership and influence

WE HAVE AN INFLUENCE

[Jesus:] “You are the salt of the earth. But what good is salt if it has lost its flavor? Can you make it salty again? It will be thrown out and trampled underfoot as worthless.

“You are the light of the world—like a city on a hilltop that cannot be hidden. No one lights a lamp and then puts it under a basket. Instead, a lamp is placed on a stand, where it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your good deeds shine out for all to see, so that everyone will praise your heavenly Father.”

\(Matthew 5:13-16\)

LEAD BY EXAMPLE

Do everything without complaining and arguing, so that no one can criticize you. Live clean, innocent lives as children of God, shining like bright lights in a world full of crooked and perverse people.

\(Philippians 2:14-15\)

Be careful to live properly among your unbelieving neighbors. Then even if they accuse you of doing wrong, they will see your honorable behavior, and they will give honor to God when he judges the world.

\(1 Peter 2:12\)

CHARACTER, THE #1 QUALIFICATION FOR LEADERS

So an elder must be a man whose life is above reproach. He must be faithful to his wife. He must exercise self-control, live wisely, and have a good reputation. He must enjoy having guests in his home, and he must be able to teach. He must not be a heavy drinker or be violent. He must be gentle, not quarrelsome, and not love money. He must manage his own family well, having children who respect and obey him. For if a man cannot manage his own household, how can he take care of God's church?

\(1 Timothy 3:2-5\)

In the same way, deacons must be well respected and have integrity. They must not be heavy drinkers or dishonest with money. They must be committed to the mystery of the faith now revealed and must live with a clear conscience. Before they are appointed as deacons, let them be closely examined. If they pass the test, then let them serve as deacons.

\(1 Timothy 3:8-10\)

THE RIPPLE EFFECT

So you received the message with joy from the Holy Spirit in spite of the severe suffering it brought you. In this way, you imitated both us and the Lord. As a result, you have become an example to all the believers in Greece—throughout both Macedonia and Achaia.

And now the word of the Lord is ringing out from you to people everywhere, even beyond Macedonia and Achaia, for wherever we go we find people telling us about your faith in God. We don't need to tell them about it.

\(1 Thessalonians 1:6-8\)

What the Bible Says about resentment and bitterness

GOD'S WAYS

[Job:] “Who am I, that I should try to answer God or even reason with him?

Even if I were right, I would have no defense. . . .

For he attacks me with a storm and repeatedly wounds me without cause.
He will not let me catch my breath, but fills me instead with bitter sorrows.”

(Job 9:14-15, 17-18)

REPLACE BITTERNESS

Get rid of all bitterness, rage, anger, harsh words, and slander, as well as all types of evil behavior. Instead, be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God through Christ has forgiven you.

(Ephesians 4:31-32)

DON'T LET BITTERNESS TAKE ROOT

Look after each other so that none of you fails to receive the grace of God. Watch out that no poisonous root of bitterness grows up to trouble you, corrupting many.

(Hebrews 12:15)

[Peter to Simon the sorcerer:] “Repent of your wickedness and pray to the Lord. Perhaps he will forgive your evil thoughts, for I can see that you are full of bitter jealousy and are held captive by sin.”

\(Acts 8:22-23\)

SOME SOURCES OF BITTERNESS

Foolish children bring grief to their father and bitterness to the one who gave them birth.

\(Proverbs 17:25\)

For the lips of an immoral woman are as sweet as honey, and her mouth is smoother than oil.

But in the end she is as bitter as poison,
as dangerous as a double-edged sword.

\(Proverbs 5:3-4\)

For I envied the proud when I saw them prosper despite their wickedness. . . .

Did I keep my heart pure for nothing?
Did I keep myself innocent for no reason? . . .

Then I realized that my heart was bitter, and I was all torn up inside.

\(Psalm 73:3, 13, 21\)

What the Bible Says about praying

PRAY ANYTIME

Pray in the Spirit at all times and on every occasion. Stay alert and be persistent in your prayers for all believers everywhere.

(Ephesians 6:18)

Devote yourselves to prayer with an alert mind and a thankful heart.

(Colossians 4:2)

In every place of worship, I want men to pray with holy hands lifted up to God, free from anger and controversy.

(1 Timothy 2:8)

So let us come boldly to the throne of our gracious God. There we will receive his mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it most.

(Hebrews 4:16)

GOD HEARS AND ANSWERS PRAYER

I love the LORD because he hears my voice and my prayer for mercy.

Because he bends down to listen,
I will pray as long as I have breath!

(Psalm 116:1-2)

JESUS TEACHES HOW TO PRAY

“When you pray, don’t be like the hypocrites who love to pray publicly on street corners and in the synagogues where everyone can see them. I tell you the truth, that is all the reward they will ever get. But when you pray, go away by yourself, shut the door behind you, and pray to your Father in private. Then your Father, who sees everything, will reward you.

“When you pray, don’t babble on and on as people of other religions do. They think their prayers are answered merely by repeating their words again and again. Don’t be like them, for your Father knows exactly what you need even before you ask him! Pray like this:

Our Father in heaven,
may your name be kept holy.
May your Kingdom come soon.
May your will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.
Give us today the food we need,
and forgive us our sins,
as we have forgiven those who sin against us.
And don’t let us yield to temptation, but rescue us from the evil one.”

\(Matthew 6:5-13\)

THE HOLY SPIRIT HELPS US PRAY

And the Holy Spirit helps us in our weakness. For example, we don’t know what God wants us to pray for. But the Holy Spirit prays for us with groanings that cannot be expressed in words.

\(Romans 8:26\)

PRAYER BENEFITS US

Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.

\(Philippians 4:6-7\)

If you need wisdom, ask our generous God, and he will give it to you. He will not rebuke you for asking. But when you ask him, be sure that your faith is in God alone. Do not waver, for a person with divided loyalty is as unsettled as a wave of the sea that is blown and tossed by the wind.

\(James 1:5-6\)

PRAYER IS A HEART-TO-HEART WITH GOD

My heart has heard you say, "Come and talk with me."

And my heart responds, "LORD, I am coming."

\(Psalm 27:8\)

REQUIREMENTS FOR PRAYER

Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results.

\(James 5:16\)

[Jesus:] "If you remain in me and my words remain in you, you may ask for anything you want, and it will be granted!"

\(John 15:7\)

The LORD is close to all who call on him, yes, to all who call on him in truth.

\(Psalm 145:18\)

PRAYER ACTUALLY WORKS

And we are confident that he hears us whenever we ask for anything that pleases him. And since we know he hears us when we make our requests, we also know that he will give us what we ask for.

\(1 John 5:14-15\)

GOD PROMISES TO ANSWER

Then if my people who are called by my name will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sins and restore their land.

\(2 Chronicles 7:14\)

KEEP ON PRAYING

[Jesus:] “Keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

“You parents—if your children ask for a loaf of bread, do you give them a stone instead? Or if they ask for a fish, do you give them a snake? Of course not! So if you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give good gifts to those who ask him.”

\(Matthew 7:7-11\)

What the Bible Says about pride

NO REASON FOR ARROGANCE

[Asaph:] “I warned the proud, ‘Stop your boasting!’

I told the wicked, ‘Don’t raise your fists!

Don’t raise your fists in defiance at the heavens or speak with such arrogance.”

For no one on earth—from east or west, or even from the wilderness—

should raise a defiant fist.

It is God alone who judges;

he decides who will rise and who will fall.

\(Psalm 75:4-7\)

What do you have that God hasn’t given you? And if everything you have is from God, why boast as though it were not a gift?

\(1 Corinthians 4:7\)

HOW GOD FEELS ABOUT IT

You rescue the humble,

but you humiliate the proud.

\(Psalm 18:27\)

Though the LORD is great, he cares for the humble, but he keeps his distance from the proud.

\(Psalm 138:6\)

The LORD tears down the house of the proud, but he protects the property of widows.

\(Proverbs 15:25\)

The LORD detests the proud;
they will surely be punished.

\(Proverbs 16:5\)

Haughty eyes, a proud heart, and evil actions are all sin.

\(Proverbs 21:4\)

THE EFFECTS OF PRIDE

Pride leads to disgrace, but with humility comes wisdom.

\(Proverbs 11:2\)

Pride leads to conflict;
those who take advice are wise.

\(Proverbs 13:10\)

Pride goes before destruction, and haughtiness before a fall.

\(Proverbs 16:18\)

Pride ends in humiliation, while humility brings honor.

\(Proverbs 29:23\)

PRIDE IN THE NAME OF GOD IS STILL PRIDE

[Jesus on the Pharisees:] “Everything they do is for show. On their arms they wear extra wide prayer boxes with Scripture verses inside, and they wear robes with extra long tassels. And they love to sit at the head table at banquets and in the seats of honor in the synagogues. They love to receive respectful greetings as they walk in the marketplaces, and to be called ‘Rabbi.’

“Don’t let anyone call you ‘Rabbi,’ for you have only one teacher, and all of you are equal as brothers and sisters. And don’t address anyone here on earth as ‘Father,’ for only God in heaven is your spiritual Father. And don’t let anyone call you ‘Teacher,’ for you have only one teacher, the Messiah. The greatest among you must be a servant. But those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

\(Matthew 23:5-12\)

What the Bible Says about power

GOD HAS ULTIMATE POWER

[King Jehoshaphat] prayed, “O LORD, God of our ancestors, you alone are the God who is in heaven. You are ruler of all the kingdoms of the earth. You are powerful and mighty; no one can stand against you!”

\(2 Chronicles 20:6\)

I also pray that you will understand the incredible greatness of God’s power for us who believe him. This is the same mighty power that raised Christ from the dead and seated him in the place of honor at God’s right hand in the heavenly realms. Now he is far above any ruler or authority or power or leader or anything else—not only in this world but also in the world to come.

\(Ephesians 1:19-21\)

POWER CAN BE MISUSED

I wrote to the church about this, but Diotrephes, who loves to be the leader, refuses to have anything to do with us. When I come, I will report some of the things he is doing and the evil accusations he is making against us. Not only does he refuse to welcome the traveling teachers, he also tells others not to help them. And when they do help, he puts them out of the church.

\(3 John 1:9-10\)

Those false teachers are so eager to win your favor, but their intentions are not good. They are trying to shut you off from me so that you will pay attention only to them.

\(Galatians 4:17\)

I am telling you this so no one will deceive you with well-crafted arguments.

\(Colossians 2:4\)

The wicked take secret bribes to pervert the course of justice.

\(Proverbs 17:23\)

A MATTER OF ATTITUDE

So Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers in this world lord it over their people, and officials flaunt their authority over those under them. But among you it will be different. Whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first among you must be the slave of everyone else. For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

\(Mark 10:42-45\)

HUMAN POWER COMES FROM GOD

Yet you made them only a little lower than God and crowned them with glory and honor.

\(Psalm 8:5\)

Then God blessed them and said, “Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the earth and govern it. Reign over the fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, and all the animals that scurry along the ground.”

\(Genesis 1:28\)

“Why don’t you talk to me?” Pilate demanded. “Don’t you realize that I have the power to release you or crucify you?”

Then Jesus said, “You would have no power over me at all unless it were given to you from above. So the one who handed me over to you has the greater sin.”

\(John 19:10-11\)

[God:] With my great strength and powerful arm I made the earth and all its people and every animal. I can give these things of mine to anyone I choose. Now I will give your countries to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, who is my servant. I have put everything, even the wild animals, under his control. All the nations will serve him, his son, and his grandson until his time is up. Then many nations and great kings will conquer and rule over Babylon.

\(Jeremiah 27:5-7\)

CONTROL YOURSELF FIRST

People can tame all kinds of animals, birds, reptiles, and fish, but no one can tame the tongue. It is restless and evil, full of deadly poison. Sometimes it praises our Lord and Father, and sometimes it curses those who have been made in the image of God. And so blessing and cursing come pouring out of the same mouth. Surely, my brothers and sisters, this is not right!

\(James 3:7-10\)

Supplement your faith with a generous provision of moral excellence, and moral excellence with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with patient endurance, and patient endurance with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love for everyone.

\(2 Peter 1:5-7\)

SUBMIT TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against these things!

What the Bible Says about comebacks

HANGING TOUGH

We are pressed on every side by troubles, but we are not crushed. We are perplexed, but not driven to despair. We are hunted down, but never abandoned by God. We get knocked down, but we are not destroyed. Through suffering, our bodies continue to share in the death of Jesus so that the life of Jesus may also be seen in our bodies.

That is why we never give up. Though our bodies are dying, our spirits are being renewed every day. For our present troubles are small and won't last very long. Yet they produce for us a glory that vastly outweighs them and will last forever! So we don't look at the troubles we can see now; rather, we fix our gaze on things that cannot be seen. For the things we see now will soon be gone, but the things we cannot see will last forever.

\(2 Corinthians 4:8-10, 16-18\)

[Jonathan to his armor bearer during reconnaissance:]
“Perhaps the LORD will help us, for nothing can hinder the LORD. He can win a battle whether he has many warriors or only a few!”

\(1 Samuel 14:6\)

HELP IS ON THE WAY

This is what the LORD says:

“Your injury is incurable—a terrible wound.

There is no one to help you or to bind up your injury.

No medicine can heal you.

All your lovers—your allies—have left you and do not care about you anymore. . . .

“[But in that coming day,] I will give you back your health and heal your wounds,” says the LORD.

\(Jeremiah 30:12-14, 17\)

The high and lofty one who lives in eternity,
the Holy One, says this:

“I live in the high and holy place with those whose spirits are contrite and humble.

I restore the crushed spirit of the humble
and revive the courage of those with repentant hearts.

For I will not fight against you forever;

I will not always be angry.

If I were, all people would pass away—all the souls I have made.

I was angry,
so I punished these greedy people.

I withdrew from them,
but they kept going on their own stubborn way.

I have seen what they do,
but I will heal them anyway!

I will lead them.

I will comfort those who mourn, bringing words of praise to their lips.”

\(Isaiah 57:15-19\)

REMIX TIME

I . . . found the potter working at his wheel. But the jar he was making did not turn out as he had hoped, so he crushed it into a lump of clay again and started over.

Then the LORD gave me this message: “O Israel, can I not do to you as this potter has done to his clay? As the clay is in the potter’s hand, so are you in my hand.”

\(Jeremiah 18:3-6\)

WHAT GOD THINKS OF “LOSERS”

God does not just sweep life away; instead, he devises ways to bring us back when we have been separated from him.

\(2 Samuel 14:14\)

[Regarding Jesus:] He will not shout or raise his voice in public.

He will not crush the weakest reed or put out a flickering candle.

\(Isaiah 42:2-3\)

“There is more joy in heaven over one lost sinner who repents and returns to God than over ninety-nine others who are righteous and haven’t strayed away!”

\(Luke 15:7\)

COME CLOSER ...

The LORD says,

“Turn to me now, while there is time.

Give me your hearts.
Come with fasting, weeping, and mourning.
Don't tear your clothing in your grief, but tear your hearts instead."
Return to the LORD your God, for he is merciful and compassionate, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love.
He is eager to relent and not punish.
Who knows? Perhaps he will give you a reprieve, sending you a blessing instead of this curse.

\(Joel 2:12-14\)

THE LONG VIEW

The LORD directs the steps of the godly.
He delights in every detail of their lives.
Though they stumble, they will never fall,
for the LORD holds them by the hand.

Once I was young, and now I am old.
Yet I have never seen the godly abandoned or their children begging for bread.

\(Psalm 37:23-25\)

In his kindness God called you to share in his eternal glory by means of Christ Jesus. So after you have suffered a little while, he will restore, support, and strengthen you, and he will place you on a firm foundation.

\(1 Peter 5:10\)

FOCUS FORWARD

I have not achieved [perfection], but I focus on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, I press on to reach the end of the race and receive the heavenly prize for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling us.

\(Philippians 3:13-14\)

What the Bible Says about consistency

GOD IS CONSISTENT

The LORD's plans stand firm forever; his intentions can never be shaken.

\(Psalm 33:11\)

"I am the LORD, and I do not change. That is why you descendants of Jacob are not already destroyed.

\(Malachi 3:6\)

Whatever is good and perfect comes down to us from God our Father, who created all the lights in the heavens. He never changes or casts a shifting shadow.

\(James 1:17\)

WALK YOUR TALK

[Jesus:] "The teachers of religious law and the Pharisees are the official interpreters of the law of Moses. So practice and obey whatever they tell you, but don't follow their example. For they don't practice what they teach.

\(Matthew 23:2-3\)

The LORD detests lying lips, but he delights in those who tell the truth.

\(Proverbs 12:22\)

GOD REQUIRES OUR CONSISTENT OBEDIENCE

Stay on the path that the LORD your God has commanded you to follow. Then you will live long and prosperous lives in the land you are about to enter and occupy.

\(Deuteronomy 5:33\)

The LORD was very angry with Solomon, for his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice. He had warned Solomon specifically about worshiping other gods, but Solomon did not listen to the LORD's command. So now the LORD said to him, "Since you have not kept my covenant and have disobeyed my decrees, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to one of your servants.

\(1 Kings 11:9-11\)

What the Bible Says about generosity

GOD GIVES US MONEY SO WE CAN HELP OTHERS

Tell them to use their money to do good. They should be rich in good works and generous to those in need, always being ready to share with others.

\(1 Timothy 6:18\)

A CHEERFUL ATTITUDE IS CONTAGIOUS

When we take your gifts to those who need them, they will thank God.

\(2 Corinthians 9:11\)

GENEROUS PEOPLE GET MAJOR BENEFITS

Oh, the joys of those who are kind to the poor!

The LORD rescues them when they are in trouble.

The LORD protects them and keeps them alive.

He gives them prosperity in the land and rescues them from their enemies.

The LORD nurses them when they are sick and restores them to health.

\(Psalm 41:1-3\); see also Psalms 112:5-9

The generous will prosper;
those who refresh others will themselves be refreshed.

\(Proverbs 11:25\)

If you help the poor, you are lending to the LORD—and he will repay you!

\(Proverbs 19:17\)

GIVE FROM THE HEART, NOT TO LOOK GOOD

Watch out! Don't do your good deeds publicly, to be admired by others, for you will lose the reward from your Father in heaven. When you give to someone in need, don't do as the hypocrites do—blowing trumpets in the synagogues and streets to call attention to their acts of charity! I tell you the truth, they have received all the reward they will ever get. But when you give to someone in need, don't let your left hand know what your right hand is doing. Give your gifts in private, and your Father, who sees everything, will reward you.

\(Matthew 6:1-4\)

ATTITUDE MATTERS

Don't give reluctantly or in response to pressure. "For God loves a person who gives cheerfully."

\(2 Corinthians 9:7\)

[Jesus to the rich young man:] "If you want to be perfect, go and sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me."

But when the young man heard this, he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

\(Matthew 19:21-22\)

HOW WE GIVE SHOWS HOW WE FEEL ABOUT GOD

[Jesus:] "When the Son of Man comes in his glory . . . then he will sit upon his glorious throne. . . . Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world. For I was hungry, and you fed me. I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink. . . .’

“Then these righteous ones will reply, ‘Lord, when did we ever see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you something to drink? . . .’ And the King will say, ‘I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me!’”

\(Matthew 25:31-40\)

If someone has enough money to live well and sees a brother or sister in need but shows no compassion—how can God’s love be in that person?

\(1 John 3:17\)

Those who oppress the poor insult their Maker, but helping the poor honors him.

\(Proverbs 14:31\)

You must each decide in your heart how much to give. . . . God will generously provide all you need.

\(2 Corinthians 9:7-8\)

GIVE GOD THE BEST, NOT LEFTOVERS

Honor the LORD with your wealth and with the best part of everything you produce.

\(Proverbs 3:9\)

Bring all the tithes into the storehouse. . . .

\(Malachi 3:10\)

On the first day of each week, you should each put aside a portion of the money you have earned [and save it for this offering].

\(1 Corinthians 16:2\)

HOW MUCH TO GIVE

Whatever you give is acceptable if you give it eagerly. And give according to what you have, not what you don't have. Of course, I don't mean your giving should make life easy for others and hard for yourselves.

\(2 Corinthians 8:12-13\)

What the Bible Says about perseverance

HANG ON TO THE TRUTH

But you must continue to believe this truth and stand firmly in it. Don't drift away from the assurance you received when you heard the Good News.

\(Colossians 1:23\)

With all these things in mind, dear brothers and sisters, stand firm and keep a strong grip on the teaching we passed on to you both in person and by letter.

\(2 Thessalonians 2:15\)

Hold on to the pattern of wholesome teaching you learned from me—a pattern shaped by the faith and love that you have in Christ Jesus.

\(2 Timothy 1:13\)

Let us hold tightly without wavering to the hope we affirm, for God can be trusted to keep his promise.

\(Hebrews 10:23\)

LIKE A SOLDIER

Endure suffering along with me, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

\(2 Timothy 2:3\)

TESTING BUILDS ENDURANCE

These trials will show that your faith is genuine. It is being tested as fire tests and purifies gold—though your faith is far more precious than mere gold. So when your faith remains strong through many trials, it will bring you much praise and glory and honor on the day when Jesus Christ is revealed to the whole world.

\(1 Peter 1:7\)

Dear brothers and sisters, when troubles come your way, consider it an opportunity for great joy. For you know that when your faith is tested, your endurance has a chance to grow.

\(James 1:2-3\)

LIKE A MARATHON RUNNER

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a huge crowd of witnesses to the life of faith, let us strip off every weight that slows us down, especially the sin that so easily trips us up. And let us run with endurance the race God has set before us. We do this by keeping our eyes on Jesus, the champion who initiates and perfects our faith. Because of the joy awaiting him, he endured the cross, disregarding its shame. Now he is seated in the place of honor beside God's throne. Think of all the hostility he endured from sinful people; then you won't become weary and give up.

\(Hebrews 12:1-3\)

KEEP RESISTING THE DEVIL

Be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on all of God's armor so that you will be able to stand firm against all strategies of the devil. For we are not fighting against flesh-and-blood enemies, but against evil rulers and authorities of the unseen world, against mighty powers in this dark world, and against evil spirits in the heavenly places.

Therefore, put on every piece of God's armor so you will be able to resist the enemy in the time of evil. Then after the battle you will still be standing firm. Stand your ground, putting on the belt of truth and the body armor of God's righteousness. For shoes, put on the peace that comes from the Good News so that you will be fully prepared. In addition to all of these, hold up the shield of faith to stop the fiery arrows of the devil. Put on salvation as your helmet, and take the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Pray in the Spirit at all times and on every occasion. Stay alert and be persistent in your prayers for all believers everywhere.

\(Ephesians 6:10-18\)

Stay alert! Watch out for your great enemy, the devil. He prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour. Stand firm against him, and be strong in your faith. Remember that your Christian brothers and sisters all over the world are going through the same kind of suffering you are.

\(1 Peter 5:8-9\)

KEEP DOING GOOD

So, my dear brothers and sisters, be strong and immovable. Always work enthusiastically for the Lord, for you know that nothing you do for the Lord is ever useless.

\(1 Corinthians 15:58\)

So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up.

\(Galatians 6:9\)

THE END IS IN SIGHT

For if we are faithful to the end, trusting God just as firmly as when we first believed, we will share in all that belongs to Christ.

\(Hebrews 3:14\)

And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns.

\(Philippians 1:6\)

A GROWTH PROCESS

And now, just as you accepted Christ Jesus as your Lord, you must continue to follow him. Let your roots grow down into him, and let your lives be built on him. Then your faith will grow strong in the truth you were taught, and you will overflow with thankfulness.

\(Colossians 2:6-7\)

What the Bible Says about failure

GOD CAN TURN FAILURE AROUND

So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me. That's why I take pleasure in my weaknesses, and in the insults, hardships, persecutions, and troubles that I suffer for Christ. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

\(2 Corinthians 12:9-10\)

My dear brothers and sisters, if someone among you wanders away from the truth and is brought back, you can be sure that whoever brings the sinner back will save that person from death and bring about the forgiveness of many sins.

\(James 5:19-20\)

Dear brothers and sisters, if another believer is overcome by some sin, you who are godly should gently and humbly help that person back onto the right path. And be careful not to fall into the same temptation yourself.

\(Galatians 6:1\)

WE'VE ALL FAILED

Everyone has sinned; we all fall short of God's glorious standard.

\(Romans 3:23\)

Don't you realize that those who do wrong will not inherit the Kingdom of God? Don't fool yourselves. Those who indulge in sexual sin, or who worship idols, or commit adultery, or are male prostitutes, or practice homosexuality, or are thieves, or greedy people, or drunkards, or are abusive, or cheat people—none of these will inherit the Kingdom of God. Some of you were once like that. But you were cleansed; you were made holy; you were made right with God by calling on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

\(1 Corinthians 6:9-11\)

FAILURE ISN'T THE END OF THE STORY

About an hour later someone else insisted, “This must be one of them, because he is a Galilean, too.”

But Peter said, “Man, I don’t know what you are talking about.” And immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster crowed.

At that moment the Lord turned and looked at Peter. Suddenly, the Lord’s words flashed through Peter’s mind: “Before the rooster crows tomorrow morning, you will deny three times that you even know me.” And Peter left the courtyard, weeping bitterly.

\(Luke 22:59-62\)

What the Bible Says about getting along with god

LIVING CONNECTED WITH GOD

[Jesus:] “Remain in me, and I will remain in you. For a branch cannot produce fruit if it is severed from the vine, and you cannot be fruitful unless you remain in me.

“Yes, I am the vine; you are the branches. Those who remain in me, and I in them, will produce much fruit. For apart from me you can do nothing.”

\(John 15:4-5\)

[Jesus:] “For where two or three gather together as my followers, I am there among them.”

\(Matthew 18:20\)

And this is his commandment: We must believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as he commanded us. Those who obey God’s commandments remain in fellowship with him, and he with them. And we know he lives in us because the Spirit he gave us lives in us.

\(1 John 3:23-24\)

TWO EXAMPLES OF PEOPLE WHO WERE CLOSE TO GOD

Enoch lived 365 years, walking in close fellowship with God. Then one day he disappeared, because God took him.

\(Genesis 5:23-24\)

This is the account of Noah and his family. Noah was a righteous man, the only blameless person living on earth at the time, and he walked in close fellowship with God.

\(Genesis 6:9\)

EVIDENCE OF CONNECTION

[Jesus:] “Not everyone who calls out to me, ‘Lord! Lord!’ will enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Only those who actually do the will of my Father in heaven will enter.”

\(Matthew 7:21\)

Then [Jesus] put a little child among them. Taking the child in his arms, he said to them, “Anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not only me but also my Father who sent me.”

\(Mark 9:36-37\)

[Jesus:] “When you obey my commandments, you remain in my love, just as I obey my Father’s commandments and remain in his love.”

\(John 15:10\)

The high and lofty one who lives in eternity,
the Holy One, says this:

“I live in the high and holy place
with those whose spirits are contrite and humble.
I restore the crushed spirit of the humble
and revive the courage of those with repentant hearts.”

\(Isaiah 57:15\)

Jesus replied, “All who love me will do what I say. My Father will love them, and we will come and make our home with each of them.”

\(John 14:23\)

What the Bible Says about weakness

PAIN IS NORMAL

[Jesus:] “Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world.”

\(John 16:33\)

GOD CAN BRING GOOD OUT OF SUFFERING

So to keep me from becoming proud, I was given a thorn in my flesh, a messenger from Satan to torment me and keep me from becoming proud.

Three different times I begged the Lord to take it away. Each time he said, “My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness.” So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me. That’s why I take pleasure in my weaknesses, and in the insults, hardships, persecutions, and troubles that I suffer for Christ. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

\(2 Corinthians 12:7-10\)

Dear brothers and sisters, when troubles come your way, consider it an opportunity for great joy. For you know that when your faith is tested, your endurance has a chance to grow. So let it grow, for when your endurance is fully developed, you will be perfect and complete, needing nothing.

\(James 1:2-4\)

NO SHAME IN ADMITTING WEAKNESS

Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am in distress.

Tears blur my eyes.

My body and soul are withering away.

I am dying from grief;

my years are shortened by sadness.

Sin has drained my strength;

I am wasting away from within.

\(Psalm 31:9-10\)

GOD HELPS US IN OUR WEAKNESS

Even when I walk through the darkest valley,

I will not be afraid,

for you are close beside me.

Your rod and your staff protect and comfort me.

\(Psalm 23:4\)

ATTITUDE MAKES A HUGE DIFFERENCE

A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a broken spirit saps a person's strength.

\(Proverbs 17:22\)

What the Bible Says about busyness

BUSY PEOPLE ARE USUALLY SUCCESSFUL

Lazy people are soon poor;
hard workers get rich.

\(Proverbs 10:4\)

A hard worker has plenty of food, but a person who chases fantasies has no sense.

\(Proverbs 12:11\)

Work hard and become a leader;
be lazy and become a slave.

\(Proverbs 12:24\)

Lazy people want much but get little, but those who work hard will prosper.

\(Proverbs 13:4\)

Work brings profit,
but mere talk leads to poverty!

\(Proverbs 14:23\)

Despite their desires, the lazy will come to ruin, for their hands refuse to work.

\(Proverbs 21:25\)

Fools fold their idle hands, leading them to ruin.

\(Ecclesiastes 4:5\)

BUT BEING BUSY ISN'T ENOUGH TO SATISFY

Enthusiasm without knowledge is no good;
haste makes mistakes.

\(Proverbs 19:2\)

As I looked at everything I had worked so hard to accomplish, it was all so meaningless—like chasing the wind.

\(Ecclesiastes 2:11\)

So what do people get in this life for all their hard work and anxiety? Their days of labor are filled with pain and grief; even at night their minds cannot rest. It is all meaningless.

\(Ecclesiastes 2:22-23\)

We are merely moving shadows, and all our busy rushing ends in nothing.
We heap up wealth,
not knowing who will spend it.

\(Psalm 39:6\)

WHAT SHOULD WE BE BUSY DOING?

Work hard so you can present yourself to God and receive his approval. Be a good worker, one who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly explains the word of truth.

\(2 Timothy 2:15\)

Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise.

\(Philippians 4:8\)

Always be joyful. Never stop praying. Be thankful in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you who belong to Christ Jesus.

\(1 Thessalonians 5:16-18\)

What the Bible Says about competition

COMPETITION: A PICTURE OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE

Don't you realize that in a race everyone runs, but only one person gets the prize? So run to win! All athletes are disciplined in their training. They do it to win a prize that will fade away, but we do it for an eternal prize. So I run with purpose in every step. I am not just shadowboxing. I discipline my body like an athlete, training it to do what it should. Otherwise, I fear that after preaching to others I myself might be disqualified.

\(1 Corinthians 9:24-27\)

Athletes cannot win the prize unless they follow the rules.

\(2 Timothy 2:5\)

I don't mean to say that I have already achieved these things or that I have already reached perfection. But I press on to possess that perfection for which Christ Jesus first possessed me. No, dear brothers and sisters, I have not achieved it, but I focus on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, I press on to reach the end of the race and receive the heavenly prize for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling us.

\(Philippians 3:12-14\)

COMPETITORS YOU DON'T WANT TO IMITATE

Then Absalom would say, "You've really got a strong case here! It's too bad the king doesn't have anyone to hear it. I wish I were the judge. Then everyone could bring their cases to me for judgment, and I would give them justice!"

\(2 Samuel 15:3-4\)

About that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Who is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?"

\(Matthew 18:1\)

I wrote to the church about this, but Diotrephes, who loves to be the leader, refuses to have anything to do with us.

\(3 John 1:9\)

When one of you says, "I am a follower of Paul," and another says, "I follow Apollos," aren't you acting just like people of the world?

\(1 Corinthians 3:4\)

THE ULTIMATE TROPHY

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful. And now the prize awaits me—the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on the day of his return. And the prize is not just for me but for all who eagerly look forward to his appearing.

\(2 Timothy 4:7-8\)

Work willingly at whatever you do, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people. Remember that the Lord will give you an inheritance as your reward, and that the Master you are serving is Christ.

\(Colossians 3:23-24\)

What the Bible Says about emotions

IT'S OKAY TO SHOW YOUR FEELINGS

Then Jesus wept.

\(John 11:35\)

Be happy with those who are happy, and weep with those who weep.

\(Romans 12:15\)

A cheerful look brings joy to the heart;
good news makes for good health.

\(Proverbs 15:30\)

How the king rejoices in your strength, O LORD!
He shouts with joy because you give him victory.

\(Psalm 21:1\)

Rejoice in the LORD and be glad, all you who obey him!
Shout for joy, all you whose hearts are pure!

\(Psalm 32:11\)

O God, you are my God;
I earnestly search for you.
My soul thirsts for you;
my whole body longs for you in this parched and weary land where there is no water.

\(Psalm 63:1\)

WORSHIP GOD EMOTIONALLY!

I will be filled with joy because of you.

I will sing praises to your name, O Most High.

\(Psalm 9:2\)

I love you, LORD;
you are my strength.

\(Psalm 18:1\)

Let the godly sing for joy to the LORD;
it is fitting for the pure to praise him.

\(Psalm 33:1\)

Come, everyone! Clap your hands!
Shout to God with joyful praise!

\(Psalm 47:1\)

With praise and thanks, they sang this song to the LORD:

“He is so good!
His faithful love for Israel endures forever!”

Then all the people gave a great shout, praising the LORD because the foundation of the LORD’s Temple had been laid.

But many of the older priests, Levites, and other leaders who had seen the first Temple wept aloud when they saw the new Temple’s foundation. The others, however, were shouting for joy. The joyful shouting and weeping mingled together in a loud noise that could be heard far in the distance.

\(Ezra 3:11-13\)

BEWARE OF UNCONTROLLED EMOTIONS

When it was time for the harvest, Cain presented some of his crops as a gift to the LORD. Abel also brought a gift—the best of the firstborn lambs from his flock. The LORD accepted Abel and his gift, but he did not accept Cain and his gift. This made Cain very angry, and he looked dejected. . . .

One day Cain suggested to his brother, “Let’s go out into the fields.” And while they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother, Abel, and killed him.

\(Genesis 4:3-5, 8\)

Saul had a spear in his hand, and he suddenly hurled it at David, intending to pin him to the wall. But David escaped him twice.

Saul was then afraid of David, for the LORD was with David and had turned away from Saul.

\(1 Samuel 18:10-12\)

Anger is cruel, and wrath is like a flood, but jealousy is even more dangerous.

\(Proverbs 27:4\)

MANAGE YOUR EMOTIONS

You have been called to live in freedom, my brothers and sisters. But don’t use your freedom to satisfy your sinful nature. Instead, use your freedom to serve one another in love. For the whole law can be summed up in this one command:

“Love your neighbor as yourself.” But if you are always biting and devouring one another, watch out! Beware of destroying one another.

(Galatians 5:13-15)

Avoiding a fight is a mark of honor;
only fools insist on quarreling.

(Proverbs 20:3)

May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing to you,
O LORD, my rock and my redeemer.

(Psalm 19:14)

Don't sin by letting anger control you.
Think about it overnight and remain silent.

(Psalm 4:4)

Guard your heart above all else, for it determines the course of your life.

(Proverbs 4:23)

What the Bible Says about learning

LEARNING IS HARD WORK

To learn, you must love discipline;
it is stupid to hate correction.

(Proverbs 12:1)

Only a fool despises a parent's discipline;
whoever learns from correction is wise.

(Proverbs 15:5)

Joyful are those you discipline, LORD, those you teach with your instructions.

(Psalm 94:12)

A GOOD THING

Leave your simple ways behind, and begin to live;
learn to use good judgment.

(Proverbs 9:6)

My child, listen when your father corrects you.

Don't neglect your mother's instruction.

What you learn from them will crown you with grace and be a chain of honor around your neck.

(Proverbs 1:8-9)

LEARNING REQUIRES THE RIGHT ATTITUDE

My words are plain to anyone with understanding,
clear to those with knowledge.

(Proverbs 8:9)

Instruct the wise,
and they will be even wiser.
Teach the righteous, and they will learn even more.

\(Proverbs 9:9\)

If you punish a mocker, the simpleminded become wise;
if you instruct the wise, they will be all the wiser.

\(Proverbs 21:11\)

Don't befriend angry people
or associate with hot-tempered people, or you will learn to be like them
and endanger your soul.

\(Proverbs 22:24-25\)

THE GREATEST INSTRUCTOR

Lead me by your truth and teach me, for you are the God who saves me.
All day long I put my hope in you.

\(Psalm 25:5\)

Teach me your ways, O LORD, that I may live according to your truth!
Grant me purity of heart,
so that I may honor you.

\(Psalm 86:11\)

Then Jesus said, "Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you. Let me teach you, because I am humble and gentle at heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy to bear, and the burden I give you is light.”

\(Matthew 11:28-30\)

What the Bible Says about drinking

IT CAN MAKE YOU STUPID

Wine produces mockers; alcohol leads to brawls.

Those led astray by drink cannot be wise.

(Proverbs 20:1)

Do not carouse with drunkards
or feast with gluttons,
for they are on their way to poverty,
and too much sleep clothes them in rags. . . .

Who has anguish? Who has sorrow?
Who is always fighting? Who is always complaining?
Who has unnecessary bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes?
It is the one who spends long hours in the taverns, trying out new drinks.

Don't gaze at the wine, seeing how red it is, how it sparkles in the cup, how smoothly it goes down.
For in the end it bites like a poisonous snake;
it stings like a viper.

You will see hallucinations, and you will say crazy things.

You will stagger like a sailor tossed at sea, clinging to a swaying mast.

And you will say, "They hit me, but I didn't feel it.
I didn't even know it when they beat me up.

When will I wake up so I can look for another drink?"

\(Proverbs 23:20-21, 29-35\)

IT CAN KEEP YOU FROM FUNCTIONING

It is not for kings, O Lemuel, to guzzle wine.

Rulers should not crave alcohol.

For if they drink, they may forget the law and not give justice to the oppressed.

\(Proverbs 31:4-5\)

A BETTER CHOICE

Because we belong to the day, we must live decent lives for all to see. Don't participate in the darkness of wild parties and drunkenness, or in sexual promiscuity and immoral living, or in quarreling and jealousy. Instead, clothe yourself with the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ. And don't let yourself think about ways to indulge your evil desires.

\(Romans 13:13-14\)

Don't be drunk with wine, because that will ruin your life. Instead, be filled with the Holy Spirit.

\(Ephesians 5:18\)

IT CAN LEAD YOU AWAY FROM GOD

What sorrow for those who get up early in the morning looking for a drink of alcohol and spend long evenings drinking wine to make themselves flaming drunk.

They furnish wine and lovely music at their grand parties—lyre and harp, tambourine and flute—but they never think about the LORD or notice what he is doing. . . .

What sorrow for those who are heroes at drinking wine and boast about all the alcohol they can hold.
They take bribes to let the wicked go free,
and they punish the innocent.

Therefore, just as fire licks up stubble and dry grass shrivels in the flame, so their roots will rot
and their flowers wither.

For they have rejected the law of the LORD of Heaven's Armies;
they have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

\(Isaiah 5:11-12, 22-24\)

What the Bible Says about excellence

GOD SETS A HIGH STANDARD

[Jesus:] “When someone has been given much, much will be required in return; and when someone has been entrusted with much, even more will be required.”

\(Luke 12:48\)

FOCUS ON WHAT'S IMPORTANT

For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return.

\(Philippians 1:10\)

Christ is all that matters, and he lives in all of us.

\(Colossians 3:11\)

TURN AWAY FROM EVERYTHING ELSE

I once thought these things were valuable, but now I consider them worthless because of what Christ has done. Yes, everything else is worthless when compared with the infinite value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have discarded everything else, counting it all as garbage, so that I could gain Christ and become one with him.

\(Philippians 3:7-9\)

EXCELLENCE COMES FROM WISDOM

Listen as Wisdom calls out!

Hear as understanding raises her voice! . . .

Listen to me! For I have important things to tell you.
Everything I say is right, for I speak the truth and detest every kind of deception.
My advice is wholesome.
There is nothing devious or crooked in it.
My words are plain to anyone with understanding,
clear to those with knowledge.

\(Proverbs 8:1, 6-9\)

THINK ABOUT WHAT IS EXCELLENT

And now, dear brothers and sisters, one final thing. Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise. Keep putting into practice all you learned and received from me—everything you heard from me and saw me doing. Then the God of peace will be with you.

\(Philippians 4:8-9\)

What the Bible Says about talk

WORDS SHOW THE REAL YOU

A good person produces good things from the treasury of a good heart, and an evil person produces evil things from the treasury of an evil heart. What you say flows from what is in your heart.

\(Luke 6:45\)

If you claim to be religious but don't control your tongue, you are fooling yourself, and your religion is worthless.

\(James 1:26\)

The lips of the godly speak helpful words, but the mouth of the wicked speaks perverse words.

\(Proverbs 10:32\)

THINK BEFORE YOU SPEAK

Understand this, my dear brothers and sisters: You must all be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry.

\(James 1:19\)

You must give an account on judgment day for every idle word you speak. The words you say will either acquit you or condemn you.

\(Matthew 12:36-37\)

Watch your tongue and keep your mouth shut, and you will stay out of trouble.

\(Proverbs 21:23\)

A truly wise person uses few words;
a person with understanding is even-tempered.

Even fools are thought wise when they keep silent;
with their mouths shut, they seem intelligent.

\(Proverbs 17:27-28\)

The heart of the godly thinks carefully before speaking;
the mouth of the wicked overflows with evil words.

\(Proverbs 15:28\)

WORDS HAVE AN EFFECT

Wise words satisfy like a good meal;
the right words bring satisfaction.

\(Proverbs 18:20\)

From a wise mind comes wise speech;
the words of the wise are persuasive.

Kind words are like honey—sweet to the soul and healthy for the body.

\(Proverbs 16:23-24\)

A gentle answer deflects anger,
but harsh words make tempers flare.

\(Proverbs 15:1\)

Gentle words are a tree of life;
a deceitful tongue crushes the spirit.

\(Proverbs 15:4\)

Wise words will win you a good meal, but treacherous people have an appetite for violence.

Those who control their tongue will have a long life;
opening your mouth can ruin everything.

\(Proverbs 13:2-3\)

Some people make cutting remarks, but the words of the wise bring healing.

\(Proverbs 12:18\)

GOOD TALK, BAD TALK

Let your conversation be gracious and attractive so that you will have the right response for everyone.

\(Colossians 4:6\)

So stop telling lies. Let us tell our neighbors the truth, for we are all parts of the same body.

\(Ephesians 4:25\)

Don't use foul or abusive language. Let everything you say be good and helpful, so that your words will be an encouragement to those who hear them.

\(Ephesians 4:29\)

Wise words are more valuable than much gold and many rubies.

\(Proverbs 20:15\)

A gossip goes around telling secrets, but those who are trustworthy can keep a confidence.

\(Proverbs 11:13\)

IT'S NOT EASY TO CONTROL YOUR TALK

Indeed, we all make many mistakes. For if we could control our tongues, we would be perfect and could also control ourselves in every other way.

We can make a large horse go wherever we want by means of a small bit in its mouth. And a small rudder makes a huge ship turn wherever the pilot chooses to go, even though the winds are strong. In the same way, the tongue is a small thing that makes grand speeches.

But a tiny spark can set a great forest on fire. And the tongue is a flame of fire. It is a whole world of wickedness, corrupting your entire body. It can set your whole life on fire, for it is set on fire by hell itself.

People can tame all kinds of animals, birds, reptiles, and fish, but no one can tame the tongue. It is restless and evil, full of deadly poison. Sometimes it praises our Lord and Father, and sometimes it curses those who have been made in the image of God. And so blessing and cursing come pouring out of the same mouth. Surely, my brothers and sisters, this is not right! Does a spring of water bubble out with both fresh water and bitter water? Does a fig tree produce olives, or a grapevine produce figs? No, and you can't draw fresh water from a salty spring.

\(James 3:2-12\)

BUT IT'S WORTH THE EFFORT

Does anyone want to live a life
that is long and prosperous?

Then keep your tongue from speaking evil
and your lips from telling lies!

Turn away from evil and do good.

Search for peace, and work to maintain it.

\(Psalm 34:12-14\)

What the Bible Says about obligation and duty

GOD EXPECTS OBEDIENCE

Listen, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone. And you must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your strength.

\(Deuteronomy 6:4-5\)

What does the LORD your God require of you? He requires only that you fear the LORD your God, and live in a way that pleases him, and love him and serve him with all your heart and soul. And you must always obey the LORD's commands and decrees that I am giving you today for your own good.

\(Deuteronomy 10:12-13\)

One of them, an expert in religious law, tried to trap him with this question: "Teacher, which is the most important commandment in the law of Moses?"

Jesus replied, "'You must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind.' This is the first and greatest commandment. A second is equally important: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' The entire law and all the demands of the prophets are based on these two commandments."

\(Matthew 22:35-40\)

Here now is my final conclusion: Fear God and obey his commands, for this is everyone's duty.

\(Ecclesiastes 12:13\)

CARE FOR OTHER PEOPLE

[Jesus:] "Do to others whatever you would like them to do to you. This is the essence of all that is taught in the law and the prophets."

\(Matthew 7:12\)

GOD PAYS ATTENTION

[Jesus:] "Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world. For I was hungry, and you fed me. I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink. I was a stranger, and you invited me into your home. I was naked, and you gave me clothing. I was sick, and you cared for me. I was in prison, and you visited me.'

"Then these righteous ones will reply, 'Lord, when did we ever see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you something to drink? Or a stranger and show you hospitality? Or naked and give you clothing? When did we ever see you sick or in prison and visit you?'

"And the King will say, 'I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me!'"

\(Matthew 25:34-40\)

What the Bible Says about wives

THANK GOD FOR YOUR WIFE

A worthy wife is a crown for her husband, but a disgraceful woman is like cancer in his bones.

(Proverbs 12:4)

The man who finds a wife finds a treasure, and he receives favor from the LORD.

(Proverbs 18:22)

Who can find a virtuous and capable wife?
She is more precious than rubies.
Her husband can trust her,
and she will greatly enrich his life.
She brings him good, not harm,
all the days of her life. . . .

Her children stand and bless her.
Her husband praises her:
“There are many virtuous and capable women in the world, but you surpass them all!”

Charm is deceptive, and beauty does not last;
but a woman who fears the LORD will be greatly praised.
Reward her for all she has done.
Let her deeds publicly declare her praise.

(Proverbs 31:10-12, 28-31)

GOD KNOWS WE NEED THEM

Then the LORD God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper who is just right for him.” . . .

So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep. While the man slept, the LORD God took out one of the man’s ribs and closed up the opening. Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib, and he brought her to the man.

“At last!” the man exclaimed.

“This one is bone from my bone,
and flesh from my flesh!
She will be called ‘woman,’
because she was taken from ‘man.’”

This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one.

\(Genesis 2:18, 21-24\)

YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD AFFECTS YOUR WIFE

How joyful are those who fear the LORD—all who follow his ways! . . .

Your wife will be like a fruitful grapevine, flourishing within your home.

\(Psalm 128:1, 3\)

AND THE WAY YOU TREAT YOUR WIFE AFFECTS YOUR

RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

In the same way, you husbands must give honor to your wives. Treat your wife with understanding as you live together. She may be weaker than you are, but she is your equal partner in God's gift of new life. Treat her as you should so your prayers will not be hindered.

\(1 Peter 3:7\)

What the Bible Says about being a husband

VALUE YOUR WIFE

The LORD God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper who is just right for him.”

So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep. While the man slept, the LORD God took out one of the man’s ribs and closed up the opening. Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib, and he brought her to the man.

“At last!” the man exclaimed.

“This one is bone from my bone,
and flesh from my flesh!
She will be called ‘woman,’
because she was taken from ‘man.’”

This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one.

(Genesis 2:18, 21-24)

HONOR YOUR WIFE

In the same way, you husbands must give honor to your wives. Treat your wife with understanding as you live together. She may be weaker than you are, but she is your equal partner in God's gift of new life. Treat her as you should so your prayers will not be hindered.

\(1 Peter 3:7\)

BE FAITHFUL TO YOUR WIFE

Drink water from your own well—

share your love only with your wife.

Why spill the water of your springs in the streets,
having sex with just anyone?

You should reserve it for yourselves.

Never share it with strangers.

\(Proverbs 5:15-17\)

LOVE LIKE CHRIST

Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ. . . .

For husbands, this means love your wives, just as Christ loved the church. He gave up his life for her to make her holy and clean, washed by the cleansing of God's word. . . .

In the same way, husbands ought to love their wives as they love their own bodies. For a man who loves his wife actually shows love for himself. No one hates his own body but feeds and cares for it, just as Christ cares for the church. And we are members of his body.

As the Scriptures say, "A man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one." This is a great mystery, but it is an illustration of the way Christ and the church are one.

\(Ephesians 5:21, 25-26, 28-32\)

ENJOY YOUR WIFE

Live happily with the woman you love through all the meaningless days of life that God has given you under the sun. The wife God gives you is your reward for all your earthly toil.

\(Ecclesiastes 9:9\)

Let your wife be a fountain of blessing for you.

Rejoice in the wife of your youth.

She is a loving deer, a graceful doe.

Let her breasts satisfy you always.

May you always be captivated by her love.

\(Proverbs 5:18-19\)

What the Bible Says about ambition

AMBITION CAN BE HAZARDOUS

Those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.

\(Matthew 23:12\)

What is causing the quarrels and fights among you? Don't they come from the evil desires at war within you? You want what you don't have, so you scheme and kill to get it. You are jealous of what others have, but you can't get it, so you fight and wage war to take it away from them. Yet you don't have what you want because you don't ask God for it. And even when you ask, you don't get it because your motives are all wrong—you want only what will give you pleasure.

\(James 4:1-3\)

SOME GOOD AMBITIONS

This is a trustworthy saying: “If someone aspires to be an elder, he desires an honorable position.”

\(1 Timothy 3:1\)

Make it your goal to live a quiet life, minding your own business and working with your hands, just as we instructed you before.

\(1 Thessalonians 4:11\)

AMBITION CAN COMPETE WITH GOD IN OUR LIVES

Don't be greedy, for a greedy person is an idolater, worshiping the things of this world.

\(Colossians 3:5\)

Do not love this world nor the things it offers you, for when you love the world, you do not have the love of the Father in you. For the world offers only a craving for physical pleasure, a craving for everything we see, and pride in our achievements and possessions. These are not from the Father, but are from this world. And this world is fading away, along with everything that people crave. But anyone who does what pleases God will live forever.

\(1 John 2:15-17\)

Jesus said to his disciples, “If any of you wants to be my follower, you must turn from your selfish ways, take up your cross, and follow me. If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake, you will save it. And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but lose your own soul? Is anything worth more than your soul?”

\(Matthew 16:24-26\)

RELIGIOUS AMBITION IS A PROBLEM, TOO

[Jesus on the Pharisees:] “Everything they do is for show. On their arms they wear extra wide prayer boxes with Scripture verses inside, and they wear robes with extra long tassels. And they love to sit at the head table at banquets and in the seats of honor in the synagogues. They love to receive respectful greetings as they walk in the marketplaces, and to be called ‘Rabbi.’”

\(Matthew 23:5-7\)

GOD DESERVES THE CREDIT

For no one on earth—from east or west, or even from the wilderness—
should raise a defiant fist.
It is God alone who judges;
he decides who will rise and who will fall.

\(Psalm 75:6-7\)

What do you have that God hasn't given you? And if everything you have is from God, why boast as though it were not a gift?

\(1 Corinthians 4:7\)

After the Lord has used the king of Assyria to accomplish his purposes on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, he will turn against the king of Assyria and punish him—for he is proud and arrogant. He boasts,

“By my own powerful arm I have done this.
With my own shrewd wisdom I planned it.
I have broken down the defenses of nations and carried off their treasures.
I have knocked down their kings like a bull.
I have robbed their nests of riches and gathered up kingdoms as a farmer gathers eggs.
No one can even flap a wing against me or utter a peep of protest.”

But can the ax boast greater power than the person who uses it?

Is the saw greater than the person who saws?
Can a rod strike unless a hand moves it?
Can a wooden cane walk by itself?

\(Isaiah 10:12-15\)

This is what the LORD says:

“Don’t let the wise boast in their wisdom, or the powerful boast in their power, or the rich boast in their riches.

But those who wish to boast should boast in this alone:

that they truly know me and understand that I am the LORD who demonstrates unfailing love and who brings justice and righteousness to the earth, and that I delight in these things.

I, the LORD, have spoken!”

\(Jeremiah 9:23-24\)

SOME BAD EXAMPLES

I wrote to the church about this, but Diotrephes, who loves to be the leader, refuses to have anything to do with us. When I come, I will report some of the things he is doing and the evil accusations he is making against us. Not only does he refuse to welcome the traveling teachers, he also tells others not to help them. And when they do help, he puts them out of the church.

\(3 John 1:9-10\)

[A prophecy regarding Satan:] “How you are fallen from heaven,

O shining star, son of the morning!

You have been thrown down to the earth,
you who destroyed the nations of the world.

For you said to yourself,

‘I will ascend to heaven and set my throne above God’s stars.

I will preside on the mountain of the gods far away in the north.

I will climb to the highest heavens and be like the Most High.’

Instead, you will be brought down to the place of the dead, down to its lowest depths.”

\(Isaiah 14:12-15\)

What the Bible Says about connecting with other men

IT'S A GOOD THING

How wonderful and pleasant it is when brothers live together in harmony!

\(Psalm 133:1\)

Two people are better off than one, for they can help each other succeed. If one person falls, the other can reach out and help. But someone who falls alone is in real trouble. Likewise, two people lying close together can keep each other warm. But how can one be warm alone? A person standing alone can be attacked and defeated, but two can stand back-to-back and conquer. Three are even better, for a triple-braided cord is not easily broken.

\(Ecclesiastes 4:9-12\)

Wounds from a sincere friend are better than many kisses from an enemy.

As iron sharpens iron,
so a friend sharpens a friend.

\(Proverbs 27:6, 17\)

There are “friends” who destroy each other, but a real friend sticks closer than a brother.

\(Proverbs 18:24\)

HOW TO BE A TRUE FRIEND

A friend is always loyal, and a brother is born to help in time of need.

\(Proverbs 17:17\)

Be happy with those who are happy, and weep with those who weep.

\(Romans 12:15\)

So encourage each other and build each other up, just as you are already doing.

\(1 Thessalonians 5:11\)

Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works. And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of his return is drawing near.

\(Hebrews 10:24-25\)

Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results.

\(James 5:16\)

Share each other's burdens, and in this way obey the law of Christ.

\(Galatians 6:2\)

EXAMPLES OF GODLY FRIENDSHIP

After David had finished talking with Saul, he met Jonathan, the king's son. There was an immediate bond between them, for Jonathan loved David. . . .

And Jonathan made a solemn pact with David, because he loved him as he loved himself. Jonathan sealed the pact by taking off his robe and giving it to David, together with his tunic, sword, bow, and belt.

\(1 Samuel 18:1, 3-4\)

So Jonathan made a solemn pact with David, saying, “May the LORD destroy all your enemies!” And Jonathan made David reaffirm his vow of friendship again, for Jonathan loved David as he loved himself.

\(1 Samuel 20:16-17\)

I have no one else like Timothy, who genuinely cares about your welfare. All the others care only for themselves and not for what matters to Jesus Christ. But you know how Timothy has proved himself. Like a son with his father, he has served with me in preaching the Good News.

\(Philippians 2:20-22\)

Meanwhile, I thought I should send Epaphroditus back to you. He is a true brother, coworker, and fellow soldier. And he was your messenger to help me in my need. I am sending him because he has been longing to see you, and he was very distressed that you heard he was ill. And he certainly was ill; in fact, he almost died. But God had mercy on him—and also on me, so that I would not have one sorrow after another.

\(Philippians 2:25-27\)

This letter is from John, the elder.

I am writing to Gaius, my dear friend, whom I love in the truth.

Dear friend, I hope all is well with you and that you are as healthy in body as you are strong in spirit. . . .

I have much more to say to you, but I don't want to write it with pen and ink. For I hope to see you soon, and then we will talk face to face.

\(3 John 1:1-2, 13-14\)

Before the Passover celebration, Jesus knew that his hour had come to leave this world and return to his Father. He had loved his disciples during his ministry on earth, and now he loved them to the very end. . . .

So he got up from the table, took off his robe, wrapped a towel around his waist, and poured water into a basin. Then he began to wash the disciples' feet, drying them with the towel he had around him.

\(John 13:1, 4-5\)

What the Bible Says about fathering

TEACH BY WORD AS WELL AS EXAMPLE

My child, listen when your father corrects you.

Don't neglect your mother's instruction.

\(Proverbs 1:8\)

Listen, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone. And you must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your strength. And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today. Repeat them again and again to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up. Tie them to your hands and wear them on your forehead as reminders. Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

\(Deuteronomy 6:4-9\)

For he issued his laws to Jacob;
he gave his instructions to Israel.
He commanded our ancestors to teach them to their children, so the next generation might know them—even the children not yet born—and they in turn will teach their own children.
So each generation should set its hope anew on God, not forgetting his glorious miracles and obeying his commands.

\(Psalm 78:5-7\)

[Paul to Timothy:] You must remain faithful to the things you have been taught. You know they are true, for you know you can trust those who taught you. You have been taught the holy Scriptures from childhood, and they have given you the wisdom to receive the salvation that comes by trusting in Christ Jesus.

\(2 Timothy 3:14-15\)

FIND THE BALANCE OF LOVE AND STRUCTURE

Fathers, do not aggravate your children, or they will become discouraged.

\(Colossians 3:21\)

Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger by the way you treat them. Rather, bring them up with the discipline and instruction that comes from the Lord.

\(Ephesians 6:4\)

Those who spare the rod of discipline hate their children.

Those who love their children care enough to discipline them.

\(Proverbs 13:24\)

GOD IS THE MODEL FATHER

When Israel was a child, I loved him, and I called my son out of Egypt.

But the more I called to him,
the farther he moved from me, offering sacrifices to the images of Baal

and burning incense to idols.
I myself taught Israel how to walk, leading him along by the hand.
But he doesn't know or even care that it was I who took care of him.
I led Israel along with my ropes of kindness and love.
I lifted the yoke from his neck,
and I myself stooped to feed him.

\(Hosea 11:1-4\)

The LORD is like a father to his children, tender and compassionate to those who fear him.

\(Psalm 103:13\)

You parents—if your children ask for a loaf of bread, do you give them a stone instead? Or if they ask for a fish, do you give them a snake? Of course not! So if you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give good gifts to those who ask him.

\(Matthew 7:9-11\)

He chose to give birth to us by giving us his true word. And we, out of all creation, became his prized possession.

\(James 1:18\)

My child, don't reject the LORD's discipline, and don't be upset when he corrects you.
For the LORD corrects those he loves, just as a father corrects a child in whom he delights.

\(Proverbs 3:11-12\)

THE PAYOFF

Direct your children onto the right path, and when they are older, they will not leave it.

\(Proverbs 22:6\)

Since we respected our earthly fathers who disciplined us, shouldn't we submit even more to the discipline of the Father of our spirits, and live forever?

For our earthly fathers disciplined us for a few years, doing the best they knew how. But God's discipline is always good for us, so that we might share in his holiness. No discipline is enjoyable while it is happening—it's painful! But afterward there will be a peaceful harvest of right living for those who are trained in this way.

\(Hebrews 12:9-11\)

What the Bible Says about women

GOD CREATED THEM

So God created human beings in his own image.

In the image of God he created them;

male and female he created them.

\(Genesis 1:27\)

For you are all children of God through faith in Christ Jesus. And all who have been united with Christ in baptism have put on Christ, like putting on new clothes. There is no longer Jew or Gentile, slave or free, male and female. For you are all one in Christ Jesus. And now that you belong to Christ, you are the true children of Abraham. You are his heirs, and God's promise to Abraham belongs to you.

JESUS DEPENDED ON THEIR SUPPORT

Soon afterward Jesus began a tour of the nearby towns and villages, preaching and announcing the Good News about the Kingdom of God. He took his twelve disciples with him, along with some women who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases. Among them were Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons; Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's business manager; Susanna; and many others who were contributing from their own resources to support Jesus and his disciples.

\(Luke 8:1-3\)

THEY'RE NOT IGNORANT

She is clothed with strength and dignity, and she laughs without fear of the future.
When she speaks, her words are wise, and she gives instructions with kindness.
She carefully watches everything in her household and suffers nothing from laziness.

Her children stand and bless her.

Her husband praises her:

“There are many virtuous and capable women in the world, but you surpass them all!”

\(Proverbs 31:25-29\)

COCKY MEN, BEWARE

Abimelech attacked the town of Thebez and captured it. But there was a strong tower inside the town, and all the men and women—the entire population—fled to it. They barricaded themselves in and climbed up to the roof of the tower. Abimelech followed them to attack the tower. But as he prepared to set fire to the entrance, a woman on the roof dropped a millstone that landed on Abimelech's head and crushed his skull.

He quickly said to his young armor bearer, “Draw your sword and kill me! Don't let it be said that a woman killed Abimelech!” So the young man ran him through with his sword, and he died.

\(Judges 9:50-54\)

What the Bible Says about marriage

HUSBANDS AND WIVES: SPIRITUAL PARTNERS

Don't team up with those who are unbelievers. How can righteousness be a partner with wickedness? How can light live with darkness? What harmony can there be between Christ and the devil? How can a believer be a partner with an unbeliever?

(2 Corinthians 6:14-15)

HUSBAND AND WIFE BELONG TO EACH OTHER SEXUALLY

The husband should fulfill his wife's sexual needs, and the wife should fulfill her husband's needs. The wife gives authority over her body to her husband, and the husband gives authority over his body to his wife.

Do not deprive each other of sexual relations.

(1 Corinthians 7:3-5)

Give honor to marriage, and remain faithful to one another in marriage. God will surely judge people who are immoral and those who commit adultery.

(Hebrews 13:4)

MARRIAGE CAN GUARD YOU AGAINST SEXUAL TEMPTATION

Drink water from your own well—
share your love only with your wife.

Why spill the water of your springs in the streets,
having sex with just anyone?

You should reserve it for yourselves.
Never share it with strangers.

Let your wife be a fountain of blessing for you.
Rejoice in the wife of your youth.
She is a loving deer, a graceful doe.
Let her breasts satisfy you always.
May you always be captivated by her love.

\(Proverbs 5:15-19\)

So I say to those who aren't married and to widows—it's better to stay unmarried, just as I am. But if they can't control themselves, they should go ahead and marry. It's better to marry than to burn with lust.

\(1 Corinthians 7:8-9\)

LOVE YOUR WIFE SACRIFICIALLY

Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ. . . .

For husbands, this means love your wives, just as Christ loved the church. He gave up his life for her to make her holy and clean, washed by the cleansing of God's word. He did this to present her to himself as a glorious church without a spot or wrinkle or any other blemish. Instead, she will be holy and without fault. In the same way, husbands ought to love their wives as they love their own bodies. For a man who loves his wife actually shows love for himself. No one hates his own body but feeds and cares for it, just as Christ cares for the church. And we are members of his body.

\(Ephesians 5:21, 25-30\)

What the Bible Says about sports

PLAY BY THE RULES

Athletes cannot win the prize unless they follow the rules.

\(2 Timothy 2:5\)

FOCUS ON THE GOAL

I don't mean to say that I have already achieved these things or that I have already reached perfection. But I press on to possess that perfection for which Christ Jesus first possessed me. No, dear brothers and sisters, I have not achieved it, but I focus on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, I press on to reach the end of the race and receive the heavenly prize for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling us.

\(Philippians 3:12-14\)

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful. And now the prize awaits me—the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on the day of his return. And the prize is not just for me but for all who eagerly look forward to his appearing.

\(2 Timothy 4:7-8\)

SELF-DISCIPLINE IS EVERYTHING

Don't you realize that in a race everyone runs, but only one person gets the prize? So run to win! All athletes are disciplined in their training. They do it to win a prize that will fade away, but we do it for an eternal prize. So I run with purpose in every step. I am not just shadowboxing. I discipline my body like an athlete, training it to do what it should. Otherwise, I fear that after preaching to others I myself might be disqualified.

\(1 Corinthians 9:24-27\)

Physical training is good, but training for godliness is much better, promising benefits in this life and in the life to come.

\(1 Timothy 4:8\)

What the Bible Says about divorce

DIVORCE WASN'T PART OF THE ORIGINAL PLAN

You cry out, “Why doesn’t the LORD accept my worship?” I’ll tell you why! Because the LORD witnessed the vows you and your wife made when you were young. But you have been unfaithful to her, though she remained your faithful partner, the wife of your marriage vows.

Didn’t the LORD make you one with your wife? In body and spirit you are his. And what does he want? Godly children from your union. So guard your heart; remain loyal to the wife of your youth. “For I hate divorce!” says the LORD, the God of Israel. “To divorce your wife is to overwhelm her with cruelty,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. “So guard your heart; do not be unfaithful to your wife.”

(Malachi 2:14-16)

A CONCESSION

Jesus replied, “Moses permitted divorce only as a concession to your hard hearts, but it was not what God had originally intended. And I tell you this, whoever divorces his wife and marries someone else commits adultery—unless his wife has been unfaithful.”

(Matthew 19:8-9)

[Jesus:] “You have heard the law that says, ‘A man can divorce his wife by merely giving her a written notice of divorce.’ But I say that a man who divorces his wife, unless she has been unfaithful, causes her to commit adultery. And anyone who marries a divorced woman also commits adultery.”

\(Matthew 5:31-32\)

MORE THAN A HUMAN ARRANGEMENT

Some Pharisees came and tried to trap him with this question: “Should a man be allowed to divorce his wife for just any reason?”

“Haven’t you read the Scriptures?” Jesus replied. “They record that from the beginning ‘God made them male and female.’ And he said, ‘This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one.’ Since they are no longer two but one, let no one split apart what God has joined together.”

\(Matthew 19:3-6\)

VALUES OF HOLDING STEADY

If a Christian man has a wife who is not a believer and she is willing to continue living with him, he must not leave her. And if a Christian woman has a husband who is not a believer and he is willing to continue living with her, she must not leave him. For the Christian wife brings holiness to her marriage, and the Christian husband brings holiness to his marriage. Otherwise, your children would not be holy, but now they are holy. (But if the husband or wife who isn’t a believer insists on leaving, let them go. In such cases the Christian husband or wife is no longer bound to the other, for God has called you to live in peace.) Don’t you wives realize that your husbands might be saved because of you? And don't you husbands realize that your wives might be saved because of you?

\(1 Corinthians 7:12-16\)

What the Bible Says about the future

GOD KNOWS IT—AND CONTROLS IT

My future is in your hands.

(Psalm 31:15)

Remember the things I have done in the past.

For I alone am God!

I am God, and there is none like me.

Only I can tell you the future before it even happens.

Everything I plan will come to pass,

for I do whatever I wish.

(Isaiah 46:9-10)

GOD REVEALS ONLY SOME TO US

The LORD our God has secrets known to no one. We are not accountable for them, but we and our children are accountable forever for all that he has revealed to us, so that we may obey all the terms of these instructions.

(Deuteronomy 29:29)

[Jesus on the Second Coming:] “However, no one knows the day or hour when these things will happen, not even the angels in heaven or the Son himself. Only the Father knows.”

(Matthew 24:36)

[Jesus to Peter:] “I tell you the truth, when you were young, you were able to do as you liked; you dressed yourself and went wherever you wanted to go. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and others will dress you and take you where you don't want to go." Jesus said this to let him know by what kind of death he would glorify God. Then Jesus told him, "Follow me."

Peter turned around and saw behind them the disciple Jesus loved—the one who had leaned over to Jesus during supper and asked, "Lord, who will betray you?" Peter asked Jesus, "What about him, Lord?"

Jesus replied, "If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you? As for you, follow me."

\(John 21:18-22\)

GOD REVEALS THE FUTURE SO WE'LL OBEY HIM IN THE PRESENT

God blesses the one who reads the words of this prophecy to the church, and he blesses all who listen to its message and obey what it says, for the time is near.

\(Revelation 1:3\)

Since everything around us is going to be destroyed like this, what holy and godly lives you should live. . . .

And so, dear friends, while you are waiting for these things to happen, make every effort to be found living peaceful lives that are pure and blameless in his sight.

\(2 Peter 3:11, 14\)

What the Bible Says about servanthood

THE GODLY LEADER IS A SERVANT

Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers in this world lord it over their people, and officials flaunt their authority over those under them. But among you it will be different. Whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first among you must become your slave. For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

\(Matthew 20:25-28\)

He sat down, called the twelve disciples over to him, and said, “Whoever wants to be first must take last place and be the servant of everyone else.”

\(Mark 9:35\)

WE SERVE BECAUSE JESUS SERVED US

We don't go around preaching about ourselves. We preach that Jesus Christ is Lord, and we ourselves are your servants for Jesus' sake.

\(2 Corinthians 4:5\)

Before the Passover celebration, Jesus knew that his hour had come to leave this world and return to his Father. He had loved his disciples during his ministry on earth, and now he loved them to the very end. . . . Jesus knew that the Father had given him authority over everything and that he had come from God and would return to God. So he got up from the table, took off his robe, wrapped a towel around his waist, and poured water into a basin. Then he began to wash the disciples' feet, drying them with the towel he had around him.

\(John 13:1-5\)

WORK FOR THE GOOD OF OTHERS

Don't be concerned for your own good but for the good of others.

\(1 Corinthians 10:24\)

We should help others do what is right and build them up in the Lord.

\(Romans 15:2\)

Therefore, whenever we have the opportunity, we should do good to everyone—especially to those in the family of faith.

\(Galatians 6:10\)

JESUS SHOWS US HOW IT'S DONE

You know the generous grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. Though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty he could make you rich.

\(2 Corinthians 8:9\)

After washing their feet, he put on his robe again and sat down and asked, "Do you understand what I was doing? You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and you are right, because that's what I am. And since I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash each other's feet. I have given you an example to follow. Do as I have done to you. I tell you the truth, slaves are not greater than their master. Nor is the messenger more important than the one who sends the message. Now that you know these things, God will bless you for doing them.”

\(John 13:12-17\)

SERVICE STARTS WITH GOD

Do not let any part of your body become an instrument of evil to serve sin. Instead, give yourselves completely to God, for you were dead, but now you have new life. So use your whole body as an instrument to do what is right for the glory of God. Sin is no longer your master. . . . Instead, you live under the freedom of God’s grace.

\(Romans 6:13-14\)

There are different kinds of service, but we serve the same Lord. God works in different ways, but it is the same God who does the work in all of us.

A spiritual gift is given to each of us so we can help each other.

\(1 Corinthians 12:5-7\)

[Joshua to the Israelites:] “Love the LORD your God, walk in all his ways, obey his commands, hold firmly to him, and serve him with all your heart and all your soul. . . .

“Fear the LORD and serve him wholeheartedly. . . . Choose today whom you will serve. . . . As for me and my family, we will serve the LORD.”

\(Joshua 22:5; 24:14-15\)

SUBMIT TO EACH OTHER, AS JESUS DID

And further, submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.

\(Ephesians 5:21\)

Don't be selfish; don't try to impress others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourselves. Don't look out only for your own interests, but take an interest in others, too.

You must have the same attitude that Christ Jesus had.

Though he was God,
he did not think of equality with God
as something to cling to.
Instead, he gave up his divine privileges;
he took the humble position of a slave
and was born as a human being.
When he appeared in human form,
he humbled himself in obedience to God
and died a criminal's death on a cross.

\(Philippians 2:3-8\)

What the Bible Says about independence

INDEPENDENCE INCREASES AS WE MATURE

His parents didn't know what to think. "Son," his mother said to him, "why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been frantic, searching for you everywhere."

"But why did you need to search?" he asked. "Didn't you know that I must be in my Father's house?"

\(Luke 2:48-49\)

Then we will no longer be immature like children. We won't be tossed and blown about by every wind of new teaching. We will not be influenced when people try to trick us with lies so clever they sound like the truth. Instead, we will speak the truth in love, growing in every way more and more like Christ, who is the head of his body, the church.

\(Ephesians 4:14-15\)

You have been believers so long now that you ought to be teaching others. Instead, you need someone to teach you again the basic things about God's word. You are like babies who need milk and cannot eat solid food. For someone who lives on milk is still an infant and doesn't know how to do what is right. Solid food is for those who are mature, who through training have the skill to recognize the difference between right and wrong.

\(Hebrews 5:12-14\)

BUT WE NEVER OUTGROW OUR DEPENDENCE ON GOD

Trust in the LORD with all your heart;
do not depend on your own understanding.
Seek his will in all you do,
and he will show you which path to take.

Don't be impressed with your own wisdom.
Instead, fear the LORD and turn away from evil.

\(Proverbs 3:5-7\)

If you need wisdom, ask our generous God, and he will give it to you. He will not rebuke you for asking.

\(James 1:5\)

Look here, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we are going to a certain town and will stay there a year. We will do business there and make a profit." How do you know what your life will be like tomorrow? Your life is like the morning fog—it's here a little while, then it's gone. What you ought to say is, "If the Lord wants us to, we will live and do this or that." Otherwise you are boasting about your own plans, and all such boasting is evil.

\(James 4:13-16\)

What the Bible Says about the gay life

HOMOSEXUAL ACTIVITY IS WRONG

That is why God abandoned them to their shameful desires. Even the women turned against the natural way to have sex and instead indulged in sex with each other. And the men, instead of having normal sexual relations with women, burned with lust for each other. Men did shameful things with other men, and as a result of this sin, they suffered within themselves the penalty they deserved.

Since they thought it foolish to acknowledge God, he abandoned them to their foolish thinking and let them do things that should never be done.

\(Romans 1:26-28\)

Do not practice homosexuality, having sex with another man as with a woman. It is a detestable sin.

\(Leviticus 18:22\)

TEMPTATION CAN BE CONQUERED

The temptations in your life are no different from what others experience. And God is faithful. He will not allow the temptation to be more than you can stand. When you are tempted, he will show you a way out so that you can endure.

\(1 Corinthians 10:13\)

GOD CAN FORGIVE THIS SIN

But if we confess our sins to him, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all wickedness.

\(1 John 1:9\)

BEHAVIOR CHANGE IS POSSIBLE

Don't you realize that those who do wrong will not inherit the Kingdom of God? Don't fool yourselves. Those who indulge in sexual sin, or who worship idols, or commit adultery, or are male prostitutes, or practice homosexuality, or are thieves, or greedy people, or drunkards, or are abusive, or cheat people—none of these will inherit the Kingdom of God. Some of you were once like that. But you were cleansed; you were made holy; you were made right with God by calling on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

\(1 Corinthians 6:9-11\)

AVOID TEMPTING SITUATIONS

Run from anything that stimulates youthful lusts. Instead, pursue righteous living, faithfulness, love, and peace. Enjoy the companionship of those who call on the Lord with pure hearts.

\(2 Timothy 2:22\)

What the Bible Says about singleness

NOT FOR EVERYONE

So I say to those who aren't married and to widows—it's better to stay unmarried, just as I am. But if they can't control themselves, they should go ahead and marry. It's better to marry than to burn with lust.

\(1 Corinthians 7:8-9\)

But if a man thinks that he's treating his fiancée improperly and will inevitably give in to his passion, let him marry her as he wishes. It is not a sin. But if he has decided firmly not to marry and there is no urgency and he can control his passion, he does well not to marry. So the person who marries his fiancée does well, and the person who doesn't marry does even better.

\(1 Corinthians 7:36-38\)

Jesus' disciples then said to him, "If this is the case, it is better not to marry!" . . .

[Jesus said:] "Some are born as eunuchs, some have been made eunuchs by others, and some choose not to marry for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven."

\(Matthew 19:10, 12\)

SINGleness IS ACTUALLY A GIFT

I wish everyone were single, just as I am. Yet each person has a special gift from God, of one kind or another.

ADVANTAGES TO BEING SINGLE

I want you to be free from the concerns of this life. An unmarried man can spend his time doing the Lord's work and thinking how to please him. But a married man has to think about his earthly responsibilities and how to please his wife. His interests are divided. In the same way, a woman who is no longer married or has never been married can be devoted to the Lord and holy in body and in spirit. But a married woman has to think about her earthly responsibilities and how to please her husband. I am saying this for your benefit, not to place restrictions on you. I want you to do whatever will help you serve the Lord best, with as few distractions as possible.

What the Bible Says about the church

ESTABLISHED BY CHRIST

[Jesus:] “Upon this rock I will build my church, and all the powers of hell will not conquer it.”

\(Matthew 16:18\)

CHRIST IS IN CHARGE

Christ is also the head of the church,
which is his body.

He is the beginning,
supreme over all who rise from the dead.

So he is first in everything.

\(Colossians 1:18\)

We will speak the truth in love, growing in every way more and more like Christ, who is the head of his body, the church. He makes the whole body fit together perfectly. As each part does its own special work, it helps the other parts grow, so that the whole body is healthy and growing and full of love.

\(Ephesians 4:15-16\)

IT'S LIKE A FAMILY

Therefore, whenever we have the opportunity, we should do good to everyone—especially to those in the family of faith.

\(Galatians 6:10\)

So now you Gentiles are no longer strangers and foreigners. You are citizens along with all of God's holy people. You are members of God's family.

\(Ephesians 2:19\)

But Christ, as the Son, is in charge of God's entire house. And we are God's house, if we keep our courage and remain confident in our hope in Christ.

\(Hebrews 3:6\)

A DIVERSE GROUP

The human body has many parts, but the many parts make up one whole body. So it is with the body of Christ. Some of us are Jews, some are Gentiles, some are slaves, and some are free. But we have all been baptized into one body by one Spirit, and we all share the same Spirit.

All of you together are Christ's body, and each of you is a part of it.

\(1 Corinthians 12:12-13, 27\)

In this new life, it doesn't matter if you are a Jew or a Gentile, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbaric, uncivilized, slave, or free. Christ is all that matters, and he lives in all of us.

\(Colossians 3:11\)

For you are all children of God through faith in Christ Jesus. And all who have been united with Christ in baptism have put on Christ, like putting on new clothes. There is no longer Jew or Gentile, slave or free, male and female. For you are all one in Christ Jesus.

IT'S LIKE A BUILDING

Together, we are his house, built on the foundation of the apostles and the prophets. And the cornerstone is Christ Jesus himself. We are carefully joined together in him, becoming a holy temple for the Lord. Through him you Gentiles are also being made part of this dwelling where God lives by his Spirit.

\(Ephesians 2:20-22\)

OTHER DESCRIPTIONS

And you are living stones that God is building into his spiritual temple. What's more, you are his holy priests. Through the mediation of Jesus Christ, you offer spiritual sacrifices that please God.

For you are a chosen people. You are royal priests, a holy nation, God's very own possession. As a result, you can show others the goodness of God, for he called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light.

\(1 Peter 2:5, 9\)

CHURCH: A PLACE FOR SHARING YOUR LIFE

And all the believers met together in one place and shared everything they had. They sold their property and possessions and shared the money with those in need. They worshiped together at the Temple each day, met in homes for the Lord's Supper, and shared their meals with great joy and generosity—all the while praising God and enjoying the goodwill of all the people. And each day the Lord added to their fellowship those who were being saved.

\(Acts 2:44-47\)

Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds us all together in perfect harmony. And let the peace that comes from Christ rule in your hearts. For as members of one body you are called to live in peace. And always be thankful.

\(Colossians 3:14-15\)

CHURCH: A PLACE TO GLORIFY GOD

Now all glory to God, who is able, through his mighty power at work within us, to accomplish infinitely more than we might ask or think. Glory to him in the church and in Christ Jesus through all generations forever and ever! Amen.

\(Ephesians 3:20-21\)

Oh, how great are God's riches and wisdom and knowledge! How impossible it is for us to understand his decisions and his ways!

For who can know the LORD's thoughts?
Who knows enough to give him advice?
And who has given him so much that he needs to pay it back?

For everything comes from him and exists by his power and is intended for his glory. All glory to him forever! Amen.

\(Romans 11:33-36\)

What the Bible Says about SEX

GOD DESIGNED US

So God created human beings in his own image.

In the image of God he created them;

male and female he created them.

\(Genesis 1:27\)

GOD INTENDED SEXUAL RELATIONS FOR MARRIAGE

Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib, and he brought her to the man.

“At last!” the man exclaimed.

“This one is bone from my bone,

and flesh from my flesh!

She will be called ‘woman,’

because she was taken from ‘man.’”

This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one.

\(Genesis 2:22-24\)

The husband should fulfill his wife’s sexual needs, and the wife should fulfill her husband’s needs. The wife gives authority over her body to her husband, and the husband gives authority over his body to his wife. Do not deprive each other of sexual relations.

\(1 Corinthians 7:3-5\)

Let your wife be a fountain of blessing for you.
Rejoice in the wife of your youth.
She is a loving deer, a graceful doe.
Let her breasts satisfy you always.
May you always be captivated by her love.

\(Proverbs 5:18-19\)

BEWARE OF LUST

Your eye is a lamp that provides light for your body. When your eye is good, your whole body is filled with light. But when it is bad, your body is filled with darkness. Make sure that the light you think you have is not actually darkness. If you are filled with light, with no dark corners, then your whole life will be radiant, as though a floodlight were filling you with light.

\(Luke 11:34-36\)

King Solomon loved many foreign women. Besides Pharaoh's daughter, he married women from Moab, Ammon, Edom, Sidon, and from among the Hittites. The LORD had clearly instructed the people of Israel, "You must not marry them, because they will turn your hearts to their gods." Yet Solomon insisted on loving them anyway. He had 700 wives of royal birth and 300 concubines. And in fact, they did turn his heart away from the LORD.

\(1 Kings 11:1-3\)

Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise.

\(Philippians 4:8\)

You must not covet your neighbor's wife.

\(Exodus 20:17\)

THERE'S NO SUCH THING AS CASUAL SEX

Don't you realize that your bodies are actually parts of Christ? Should a man take his body, which is part of Christ, and join it to a prostitute? Never! And don't you realize that if a man joins himself to a prostitute, he becomes one body with her? For the Scriptures say, "The two are united into one." But the person who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with him.

Run from sexual sin! No other sin so clearly affects the body as this one does. For sexual immorality is a sin against your own body. Don't you realize that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who lives in you and was given to you by God? You do not belong to yourself, for God bought you with a high price. So you must honor God with your body.

\(1 Corinthians 6:15-20\)

Can a man scoop a flame into his lap and not have his clothes catch on fire?

Can he walk on hot coals and not blister his feet?

So it is with the man who sleeps with another man's wife.

He who embraces her will not go unpunished.

But the man who commits adultery is an utter fool, for he destroys himself.

\(Proverbs 6:27-29, 32\)

For the lips of an immoral woman are as sweet as honey,
and her mouth is smoother than oil.
But in the end she is as bitter as poison,
as dangerous as a double-edged sword.
Her feet go down to death;
her steps lead straight to the grave.
For she cares nothing about the path to life.
She staggers down a crooked trail and doesn't realize it.

\(Proverbs 5:3-6\)

Let there be no sexual immorality, impurity, or greed among you. Such sins have no place among God's people.

\(Ephesians 5:3\)

AVOIDING SEXUAL SIN REQUIRES SELF-CONTROL

[Jesus:] "But I say, anyone who even looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart."

\(Matthew 5:28\)

She kept putting pressure on Joseph day after day, but he refused to sleep with her, and he kept out of her way as much as possible. One day, however, no one else was around when he went in to do his work. She came and grabbed him by his cloak, demanding, "Come on, sleep with me!" Joseph tore himself away, but he left his cloak in her hand as he ran from the house.

\(Genesis 39:10-12\)

God's will is for you to be holy, so stay away from all sexual sin. Then each of you will control his own body and live in holiness and honor—not in lustful passion like the pagans who do not know God and his ways.

\(1 Thessalonians 4:3-5\)

What the Bible Says about rules

GOD IS ORDERLY

Be sure that everything is done properly and in order.

\(1 Corinthians 14:40\)

RULES CAN BE ABUSED

Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples, “The teachers of religious law and the Pharisees are the official interpreters of the law of Moses. So practice and obey whatever they tell you, but don’t follow their example. For they don’t practice what they teach. They crush people with unbearable religious demands and never lift a finger to ease the burden.”

\(Matthew 23:1-4\)

Those who are trying to force you to be circumcised want to look good to others. They don’t want to be persecuted for teaching that the cross of Christ alone can save. And even those who advocate circumcision don’t keep the whole law themselves. They only want you to be circumcised so they can boast about it and claim you as their disciples.

HUMANITY NEEDS RULES

We know that the law is good when used correctly. For the law was not intended for people who do what is right. It is for people who are lawless and rebellious, who are ungodly and sinful, who consider nothing sacred and defile what is holy, who kill their father or mother or commit other murders.

\(1 Timothy 1:8-9\)

Let me put it another way. The law was our guardian until Christ came; it protected us until we could be made right with God through faith. And now that the way of faith has come, we no longer need the law as our guardian.

\(Galatians 3:24-25\)

All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right.

\(2 Timothy 3:16\)

GOD HAS STANDARDS

[Jesus:] “Those who accept my commandments and obey them are the ones who love me. And because they love me, my Father will love them. And I will love them and reveal myself to each of them.”

\(John 14:21\)

And we can be sure that we know him if we obey his commandments. If someone claims, “I know God,” but doesn’t obey God’s commandments, that person is a liar and is not living in the truth. But those who obey God’s word truly show how completely they love him. That is how we know we are living in him. Those who say they live in God should live their lives as Jesus did.

\(1 John 2:3-6\)

What the Bible Says about shame

WHERE SHAME BEGAN

The LORD God warned him, “You may freely eat the fruit of every tree in the garden—except the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. If you eat its fruit, you are sure to die.”

\(Genesis 2:16-17\)

The woman was convinced. She saw that the tree was beautiful and its fruit looked delicious, and she wanted the wisdom it would give her. So she took some of the fruit and ate it. Then she gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it, too. At that moment their eyes were opened, and they suddenly felt shame at their nakedness. So they sewed fig leaves together to cover themselves.

When the cool evening breezes were blowing, the man and his wife heard the LORD God walking about in the garden. So they hid from the LORD God among the trees. Then the LORD God called to the man, “Where are you?”

He replied, “I heard you walking in the garden, so I hid. I was afraid because I was naked.”

“Who told you that you were naked?” the LORD God asked. “Have you eaten from the tree whose fruit I commanded you not to eat?”

\(Genesis 3:6-11\)

DON'T BE ASHAMED OF YOUR FAITH

I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes—the Jew first and also the Gentile.

\(Romans 1:16\)

Never be ashamed to tell others about our Lord. And don't be ashamed of me, either, even though I'm in prison for him. With the strength God gives you, be ready to suffer with me for the sake of the Good News.

\(2 Timothy 1:8\)

[Jesus:] “If anyone is ashamed of me and my message, the Son of Man will be ashamed of that person when he returns in his glory and in the glory of the Father and the holy angels.”

\(Luke 9:26\)

LIVE ABOVE THE NEED FOR SHAME

And now, dear children, remain in fellowship with Christ so that when he returns, you will be full of courage and not shrink back from him in shame.

\(1 John 2:28\)

Be careful to live properly among your unbelieving neighbors. Then even if they accuse you of doing wrong, they will see your honorable behavior, and they will give honor to God when he judges the world.

\(1 Peter 2:12\)

I fully expect and hope that I will never be ashamed, but that I will continue to be bold for Christ, as I have been in the past. And I trust that my life will bring honor to Christ, whether I live or die.

\(Philippians 1:20\)

Do everything without complaining and arguing, so that no one can criticize you. Live clean, innocent lives as children of God, shining like bright lights in a world full of crooked and perverse people.

\(Philippians 2:14-15\)

Dear friends, while you are waiting for these things to happen, make every effort to be found living peaceful lives that are pure and blameless in his sight.

\(2 Peter 3:14\)

SOMETIMES, SHAME IS VALID

I can hardly believe the report about the sexual immorality going on among you—something that even pagans don't do. I am told that a man in your church is living in sin with his stepmother. You are so proud of yourselves, but you should be mourning in sorrow and shame. And you should remove this man from your fellowship.

\(1 Corinthians 5:1-2\)

What the Bible Says about image

APPEARANCES CAN BE DECEIVING

Dear friends, do not believe everyone who claims to speak by the Spirit. You must test them to see if the spirit they have comes from God. For there are many false prophets in the world.

\(1 John 4:1\)

[Jesus:] “What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you are so careful to clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but inside you are filthy—full of greed and self-indulgence! You blind Pharisee! First wash the inside of the cup and the dish, and then the outside will become clean, too.

“What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs—beautiful on the outside but filled on the inside with dead people’s bones and all sorts of impurity. Outwardly you look like righteous people, but inwardly your hearts are filled with hypocrisy and lawlessness.”

\(Matthew 23:25-28\)

These people are false apostles. They are deceitful workers who disguise themselves as apostles of Christ. But I am not surprised! Even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light. So it is no wonder that his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. In the end they will get the punishment their wicked deeds deserve.

\(2 Corinthians 11:13-15\)

GOD LOOKS INSIDE

The LORD said to Samuel, “Don’t judge by his appearance or height, for I have rejected him. The LORD doesn’t see things the way you see them. People judge by outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.”

\(1 Samuel 16:7\)

LOOKS DON'T LAST; CHARACTER DOES

Physical training is good, but training for godliness is much better, promising benefits in this life and in the life to come.

\(1 Timothy 4:8\)

Charm is deceptive, and beauty does not last;
but a woman who fears the LORD will be greatly praised.

Reward her for all she has done.

Let her deeds publicly declare her praise.

\(Proverbs 31:30-31\)

What the Bible Says about taking risks

PHYSICAL RISKS

But you, Timothy, certainly know what I teach, and how I live, and what my purpose in life is. You know my faith, my patience, my love, and my endurance. You know how much persecution and suffering I have endured. You know all about how I was persecuted in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra—but the Lord rescued me from all of it. Yes, and everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution.

\(2 Timothy 3:10-12\)

Don't be afraid of those who want to kill your body; they cannot touch your soul. Fear only God, who can destroy both soul and body in hell.

\(Matthew 10:28\)

SOCIAL RISKS

Of course, your former friends are surprised when you no longer plunge into the flood of wild and destructive things they do. So they slander you.

\(1 Peter 4:4\)

Even my best friend, the one I trusted completely, the one who shared my food, has turned against me.

\(Psalm 41:9\)

Students are not greater than their teacher, and slaves are not greater than their master. Students are to be like their teacher, and slaves are to be like their master. And since I, the master of the household, have been called the prince of demons, the members of my household will be called by even worse names!

\(Matthew 10:24-25\)

EMOTIONAL RISKS

Dear Corinthian friends! We have spoken honestly with you, and our hearts are open to you. There is no lack of love on our part, but you have withheld your love from us. I am asking you to respond as if you were my own children. Open your hearts to us!

\(2 Corinthians 6:11-13\)

We loved you so much that we shared with you not only God's Good News but our own lives, too.

\(1 Thessalonians 2:8\)

“You have heard the law that says, ‘Love your neighbor’ and hate your enemy. But I say, love your enemies! Pray for those who persecute you! In that way, you will be acting as true children of your Father in heaven. For he gives his sunlight to both the evil and the good, and he sends rain on the just and the unjust alike. If you love only those who love you, what reward is there for that? Even corrupt tax collectors do that much. If you are kind only to your friends, how are you different from anyone else? Even pagans do that. But you are to be perfect, even as your Father in heaven is perfect.”

\(Matthew 5:43-48\)

RISKING FOR GOD IS WORTH IT

So we live in the face of death, but this has resulted in eternal life for you. . . . All of this is for your benefit. And as God's grace reaches more and more people, there will be great thanksgiving, and God will receive more and more glory.

That is why we never give up. Though our bodies are dying, our spirits are being renewed every day. For our present troubles are small and won't last very long. Yet they produce for us a glory that vastly outweighs them and will last forever!

\(2 Corinthians 4:12, 15-17\)

Then I saw thrones, and the people sitting on them had been given the authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their testimony about Jesus and for proclaiming the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or his statue, nor accepted his mark on their foreheads or their hands. They all came to life again, and they reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

\(Revelation 20:4\)

[Jesus:] "Don't be afraid of those who want to kill your body; they cannot do any more to you after that."

\(Luke 12:4\)

BE CONFIDENT IN RISKY SITUATIONS

Can anything ever separate us from Christ's love? Does it mean he no longer loves us if we have trouble or calamity, or are persecuted, or hungry, or destitute, or in danger, or threatened with death? (As the Scriptures say, "For your sake we are killed every day; we are being slaughtered like sheep.") No, despite all these things, overwhelming victory is ours through Christ, who loved us.

And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow—not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. No power in the sky above or in the earth below—indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord.

\(Romans 8:35-39\)

Don't be afraid, for I am with you.

Don't be discouraged, for I am your God.

I will strengthen you and help you.

I will hold you up with my victorious right hand.

\(Isaiah 41:10\)

Be strong and courageous! Do not be afraid or discouraged. For the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.

ARE WE HAVING FUN YET?

Diversion, laughter, or recreation alone will not restore the soul in the way that we crave.

I get the feeling we are a tired generation. Evidence abounds in a multitude of articles about health problems related to overwork and exhaustion. Workaholism is a modern word. No matter how hard we are willing to work in our competitive world, there always seems to be someone willing to put in a few more hours than we are.

What is strange about our general fatigue is the fact that we are such a leisure-oriented society. We actually have what is called a leisure industry, and it is among the most profitable in our economy. Whole companies, organizations, and retail chain stores are committed to providing the goods with which people can pursue fun and good times.

We probably have more time for leisure than we ever had before. So why is there so much exhaustion and fatigue today? Is it real? Imagined? Or is the contemporary form of exhaustion evidence that we no longer understand genuine rest, which is different from the pursuit of leisure?

There is a biblical view of rest that needs to be uncovered and examined. In fact, the Bible reveals God Himself to be the first “rester.” “On the seventh day God had finished his work of creation, so he rested from all his work.” An even more enlightening comment is made by Moses in Exodus 31:17—“For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, but on the seventh day he stopped working and was refreshed.” The literal translation suggests the phrase “He refreshed himself.”

Does God indeed need to rest? Of course not! But did God choose to rest? Yes. Why? Because God subjected creation to a rhythm of rest and work that he revealed by observing the rhythm himself, as a precedent for everyone else. In this way, he showed us a key to order in our private worlds.

This rest was not meant to be a luxury, but rather a necessity for those who want to have growth and maturity. Since we have not understood that rest is a necessity, we have perverted its meaning, substituting for the rest that God first demonstrated things called leisure or amusement.

I am not by any means critical of the pursuit of fun-filled moments, diversion, laughter, or recreation. I am proposing that these alone will not restore the soul in the way that we crave. Although they may provide a sort of momentary rest for the body, they will not satisfy the deep need for rest within the private world.

THE TOUGHEST SACRIFICE

Isaac was never forsaken. Confused for a moment, but not forsaken. Jesus was forsaken.

“Abraham!” cried the heavens. “Abraham!”

“Yes, here I am,” the man replied, the knife shaking in his hand against the clear blue sky.

“Don’t lay a hand on the boy! Do not hurt him in any way, for now I know that you truly fear God. You have not withheld from me even your son, your only son.”

And in the thicket, they found a ram.

There was a ram for Abraham, but where was the ram for God? God’s Son was on a cross. Nailed to it. But there was no ram in the thicket this time. No other provision. This was it. This was the only Son God had, and this was what all the bloody sacrifices were all about. God saw to it that for other fathers there was a substitute. But when his time came, there was none. His Son was the Lamb, the ram caught in the thicket for you and for me.

No substitute for the substitute. Jesus had cried out to his Father the night before; he had pleaded for him to figure out another way to do this. But there was none. Abraham had the benefit of God standing over him ready to provide a ram at the proper time. God, in the same situation, had no God. He had only himself, and he had no choice but to plunge the knife and turn away. This was what had to be. He had already decided this before time began.

“My God, why? Why have you forsaken me?”

Jesus did not fare as well as Isaac. Isaac was never forsaken. Confused for a moment, but not forsaken. Jesus was forsaken. Abandoned. Cut off. Left alone among men to die a slow, painful, and humiliating death. There was no ram; he was the ram caught in the thicket of our sin.

Sacrifice is hard for me to understand. The essential sacrifice of Christ is a concept that has to come by faith. It is important to me because it is important to God. I will probably never understand it the way he does, but that does not matter. God didn't ask me to understand it. He only asked me to believe—to look upon him who was slain and believe.

There is one thing I do understand, however. I have a son about Isaac's age. I can think of nothing in this world that would be harder for me than to do what God asked of Abraham. Then I think of how God spared Abraham and went through it himself . . . on my behalf, and yours. Suddenly that love we talk and sing about becomes real—as real as Abraham's ram, waiting in the thicket to die.

WHAT KIND OF GOD IS HE, ANYWAY?

What we think God is like may not be who he actually is.

If we knew who God really is, we'd show him "a little more respect." The problem in the modern world is that too often there is an inadequate knowledge of God. There's a lot of speculation as to who God is and what he's like. But we need to operate on the basis of revelation, not speculation. It is one thing for us to express what we think God is like; it is an entirely different thing for us to recognize what God says he is like. Speculation at the expense of revelation leads only to mystification.

What better place to discover who God is than in his self-description? When talking to Moses on Mount Sinai, God described himself as: "The compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness, maintaining love to thousands, and forgiving wickedness, rebellion, and sin" (Exodus 34:6-7, NIV).

Isn't that wonderful? Isn't it exciting to know that God is compassionate and gracious and forgiving and slow to anger and faithful and loving and kind? But that's only part of the picture. For he went on to say, "Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished; he punishes the children and their children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation" (Exodus 34:7, NIV).

We must make sure that we have a well-rounded picture of who God is. God is fundamentally holy, good, just, right, and fair. If we contravene his laws, if we insult who he is, resist his guidance, and ignore his direction, then he must respond in a manner that is in keeping with his holy, just, right, and fair character. He must, if he is true to himself, deal with us in righteous judgment. Truly it is "a terrible thing to fall into the hands of the living God" (Hebrews 10:31).

But if we will admit that we were wrong and repent of what we have done, he will overwhelm us with his grace, loving kindness, and forgiveness.

JUST KIDDING, RIGHT?

Make no mistake about it, Jesus tells us with clarity through these haunting images, sin is more serious than you might have guessed.

Consider. It was Jesus who looked into the weathered eyes of several strong, bearded fishermen and said with a straight face,

So if your eye—even your good eye—causes you to lust, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. And if your hand—even your stronger hand—causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.

(Matthew 5:29-30)

Now most of us have been taught to dismiss this teaching because “Jesus didn’t literally mean we should pluck out our eyes.” Instead of bristling at this teaching, we calmly lay it aside.

“Jesus was just using hyperbole here. He didn’t really mean what he said.” Ah, hyperbole, what a calm, intelligent-sounding word. So we smile and move on to other, more sensible teachings of Jesus that he clearly did mean to say.

Just because Jesus may have not been “literal” in this teaching (that is, a correct application would not be to pluck out our eyes) does not mean that he didn’t intend to say precisely what he said here about eyes and hands and sin and such. In fact, we know that Jesus pronounced this teaching on more than one occasion (see Matthew 18:8–9).

So it turns out we didn’t just catch Jesus on a bad metaphor day. Here he is, later in the same Gospel account, looking into the eyes of those same rough fishermen and making the same point. This should catch our theological attention.

And by the way, why did he think it necessary to use such graphic imagery in the first place? Was he purposely trying to gross out his listeners? Or was gouging out one’s eye a less grotesque metaphor in Jesus’ day? (I don’t think so.)

I find genuine discomfort in his simple, graphic, repeating images. They haunt me. And perhaps that’s precisely what Jesus intended.

So I’ve wrestled with them. And I think they won. Through these haunting images, Jesus has spoken loudly and all too clearly to my soul. The strong message that has emerged to pin me is a simple one: SIN IS SERIOUS.

Jesus may not have been teaching us to pluck out our eyes literally, but he was definitely teaching us to take sin seriously.

We should choose to lose an eye rather than to sin. Wow.

AN ATTITUDE ADJUSTMENT FROM GOD

What would push God to such an extreme reaction?

You may be tempted to think that attitudes are not that important, that what really matters in life and to God is our actions, but if you did think that you would be wrong. Hidden in the Old Testament journey from Egypt to the Promised Land is the most radical thing God ever did until Christ and the cross. It's an action that settles once and for all where attitudes are on God's list of priorities for our lives.

The children of Israel left Egypt and journeyed to the very edge of the Promised Land, "the land flowing with milk and honey," as the Lord had called it, meaning that it was a very cool place to live in every way. There they were, finally ready to step into all the blessing and joy that God had promised—and God tells them they are not going in. In fact, He tells them that they must go back into the desert and stay there until everyone over the age of twenty has died.

God never gets angry without a good reason. He doesn't just "lose it" and then wonder what happened. So there must have been a very important lesson that such a radical move was intended to teach.

You say, "But God is a God of grace and compassion and loving-kindness. What would push Him to such extremes?" Well, you would think that there must have been sexual impurity. No mention of that. There must have been real serious alcohol abuse or maybe a sudden rash of divorces or idolatry. Or were they abusing their children or some other gross sin to have God react like this? Nope!

The problem was the people's "murmurings," as the old King James Version translates it (Numbers 14:27). Perhaps you remember from your high school English class the poetry term onomatopoeia. That's when a word sounds like what it is: drip, drip, drip; or swoosh; or yawn. Murmuring; that's what God hears. You almost feel like you're doing it when you're saying it! "Murmur, murmur, murmur." Well, if you would forgive the modern parlance, it makes God crazy! God absolutely hates that contrary, doubtful, rebellious attitude. He despises it. And He simply will not tolerate it.

The world is a very cold place and will do all it can to push and pressure you into a miserable attitude. There will always be enough injustice and irritation to keep you in the wilderness if you choose to murmur and complain and criticize and covet and doubt and rebel. On the flip side, though, life also has plenty of people and situations to generate thankfulness and love and faith and submission and contentment; attitudes that cause life to flow with the "milk and honey" of God's blessing and abiding presence. The choice is truly ours.

HOLDING BACK

Few things are more infectious than a godly lifestyle.

Years ago, when I was in the Marine Corps, they drilled into us, “You don’t salute the man, you salute the rank. If he is a major, even if he’s wasted, you salute him because of the rank—he’s a major.”

That’s what David was saying the day he caught his tormentor, King Saul, in a vulnerable spot (1 Samuel 24:1-7). “Saul is the anointed king! No matter how unfair he has been to me, I haven’t any business cutting off the corner of his robe.”

Verse 7 says, “So David restrained his men and did not let them kill Saul.”

I love this verse. Here we see a guy who did the right thing and brought a whole group with him. I have a feeling that David’s men didn’t just stand together and mildly say, “You think you should have done that?”

“No, I really don’t.”

“Well, we’ll really consider that, David.”

No, their dialogue must have been heated.

“Don’t be a fool, David!”

“Hey, listen man, this wasn’t right!”

“DAVID, the guy’s done everything but take your life.”

“Look, I can’t do it!”

Back and forth, back and forth they went, but David stood for a righteous principle until they were persuaded.

Remember this when you are hanging in the balance somewhere. Maybe in your profession. Maybe in the way you’ve begun to do your business. Perhaps in the way you’ve done your studies or carried on your lifestyle. You’ve kind of compromised and sort of waltzed along on very thin wires of rationalization, and you’ve begun to lean. And God says, “You have no business doing that. Get back where you belong.”

“Well, what’ll they think?”

Hey, who knows whom you could persuade if you walked with God? Few things are more infectious than a godly lifestyle. The people you rub shoulders with every day need that kind of challenge. Not prudish. Not preachy. Just crackerjack clean living. Just honest-to-goodness, bone-deep, nonhypocritical integrity. Authentic obedience to God.

IS IT ENOUGH TO SAY, “I WAS WRONG”?

Empathy cuts down the resistance between two hurt people.

How often have you sought forgiveness and said “I was wrong,” thinking that would take care of the problem? Perhaps the offended person appeared confused, leading you to think, Well, I said I was wrong. Shouldn't that be enough?

Just admitting our wrong behavior, however, doesn't cut it. We need to express our sorrow. The combination of these two elements leads people to sense the sincerity in our hearts. By expressing our sorrow, we can develop empathy for the other person. It builds bridges and helps to restore relationships.

Paul understood the expression of sorrow as he wrote:

I now rejoice, not that you were made sorrowful, but that you were made sorrowful to the point of repentance; for you were made sorrowful according to the will of God, in order that you might not suffer loss in anything through us. For the sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation; but the sorrow of the world produces death. (2 Corinthians 7:9-10, NASB)

As Paul said, if we're made sorrowful to the point of repentance, it's a healthy expression of our emotions that leads to healing in our relationships with the other person and with God. It also leads to empathy and a true sense of restoration.

Seeking to communicate with empathy allows the other person to feel heard. Empathy means "seeing the issue from the other person's perspective." It's like the old admonition to "walk a mile in the other person's shoes." Empathy diminishes the resistance between two hurt people, allowing communication to open up and self-protection to be quieted.

CHERISHING YOUR WIFE

She's to be cherished, not because of what she does for you, but because of her essence, her value to God as a child born in his image.

What does it mean to cherish? We needn't look further than the example of Uriah, David's loyal lieutenant. His cherishing heart toward his wife, Bathsheba, was transforming.

After David arranged for Uriah to be killed in battle, God sent his prophet Nathan to confront David with his sin. He used a dramatic word-picture:

“There were two men in a certain town. One was rich, and one was poor. The rich man owned a great many sheep and cattle. The poor man owned nothing but one little lamb he had bought. He raised that little lamb, and it grew up with his children. It ate from the man's own plate and drank from his cup. He cuddled it in his arms like a baby daughter. One day a guest arrived at the home of the rich man. But instead of killing an animal from his own flock or herd, he took the poor man's lamb and killed it and prepared it for his guest." (2 Samuel 12:1-4)

The rich man in the story represented David, who saw Bathsheba only as someone he could devour to satisfy his sexual longings. But Uriah, "the poor man," saw his "lamb" as the joy of his life, his pet to cherish, to put to sleep in his arms. Uriah had only one wife; a faithful man like him could have only one. His ewe lamb, Bathsheba, bounced and pranced and frolicked and laughed with him, bringing him great joy. . . .

Is your wife your little ewe lamb?

You may feel uncomfortable with that imagery, and maybe it sounds chauvinistic to you. We're certainly not using it to describe relative levels of strength or ability. . . .

The Bible uses the term to capture a heavenly message. As Bathsheba was precious to Uriah, your wife is your precious one, your only one. She lives with you and lies in your arms. She's to be cherished, not because of what she does for you, but because of her essence, her value to God as a child born in his image. You've been entrusted with the priceless essence of another human soul, so precious to God that at the foundation of the world he planned to pay his dearest price to buy her back again.

Regardless of the current rubble in your marriage or the list of unmet conditions, you owe God to cherish that essence. When you look deeply enough into your wife's eyes, past the pain and hurts and fights, you can still find that little ewe lamb gazing back, hoping all things and trusting all things.

WHAT'S BEHIND THE DOOR?

If decision-making were based entirely on open doors, people would not need a relationship with God; they could merely become “door watchers.”

Anyone who travels in Christian circles is likely to hear the phrase, “God opened a door for me to. . . .” It’s true. God does open doors of opportunity as he guides people. However, this matter of open and closed doors must be approached with caution because it is easily misunderstood. Many Christians base their decision-making on the “open door policy.” If the door of opportunity opens, they take that as God’s invitation to enter. For example, if someone is offered a promotion or a new job that includes a pay increase, they immediately assume God must be in it.

The problem with open doors is the emphasis is erroneously placed on the door rather than on God. Some people enter open doors under the mistaken assumption that God only allows good opportunities to come their way. Therefore, any good opportunity that comes along must be from God. Looking for open doors can appear easier than developing a relationship with God. Various opportunities, including questionable business opportunities and marriage proposals, can be treated as open doors. As you might imagine, this can often lead to disastrous results!

If decision-making were based entirely on open doors, people would not need a relationship with God; they could merely become “door watchers.” Moses saw an open door to deliver a Hebrew being oppressed by an Egyptian. He went through it, and it cost him forty years wandering in the wilderness (Exodus 2:11-15). King David stumbled through an open door to an improper relationship with Bathsheba, and his house was filled with violence and heartache for the rest of his life (2 Samuel 11). Conversely, David twice had the opportunity to murder King Saul. Doing so would have removed his greatest enemy and opened the door for his rightful place as king. Yet both times David wisely recognized the opportunity before him was not from God (1 Samuel 24; 26). Simply entering an open door without checking to see if God opened it can bring catastrophic consequences.

At times you may sense God saying you are to go in a particular direction in your life, but the “door” appears closed. It might be that someone is actively opposing you or seeking to prevent you from doing what God told you to do. The truth is no one can prevent you from obeying God’s will. The world may tell you the door is closed, but you never know that for sure until God says so. While it may appear a door of opportunity for a job or place of service has been closed to you, God promises that no one can close the door of access to his presence. As long as your access to God is intact, every resource of God remains available to you.

BLIND SPOTS

Sometimes you don't really know what you don't know.

While everybody has blind spots, few of us can name our own. That's why we need others around us to identify them and help us compensate for them. We ignore them at our own risk. The results can be similar to neglecting important instructions from our boss or dismissing a phone message from the IRS.

The truth is, some of us just don't want to see certain things. They make us uncomfortable, they cause us to squirm, they make us feel guilty—and so we block them out of our sight. What do we end up with? A blind spot. But does the thing we don't want to see go away? No. Can it still hurt us? Yes.

I've developed my own definition of a blind spot: You don't know what you don't know. Sometimes we don't see certain things simply because we don't know to look for them. They may, in fact, cause us tremendous problems, but if no one makes us aware of their presence, we'll continue to miss them—and they'll continue to hurt us.

Scripture addresses this idea of blind spots. The apostle Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 13:12, “Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known” (NIV). In other words, so long as we live in these old bodies on this old earth, we’ll suffer from faulty vision. The day is indeed coming when God will remove every one of our blind spots—but that day isn’t yet.

An Old Testament verse adds an intriguing perspective to this. “For God does speak—now one way, now another—though man may not perceive it,” says Job 33:14 (NIV). In order to catch everything that God wants to say to me, I find that I have to keep my head on a swivel. I have to keep my eyes and ears open at all times. I have to be listening and on alert everywhere I go, because God is liable to speak to me anywhere. God can speak through a circumstance, through a newspaper, through a fellow Christian, through his Word. Of course, when he speaks in a way other than through his Word, I always measure it by his Word. If I think the Lord will speak to me in only one or two ways—ways that meet my approval, of course—I’m sure to ruin my spiritual vision. I’ll walk around with enough blind spots to guarantee a brutal crash.

IT'S OKAY TO SCREAM

We have the perfect right to borrow language expressive of our own pain.

I grew up in a world full of psalms. When I was a boy, a small ceramic banner hanging on the living-room wall proclaimed, “Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart” (KJV). At Appleby Elementary School, every assembly program ended with the recitation of the last verse of the nineteenth psalm: “Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength and my redeemer” (KJV). A counted cross-stitch that came some years ago as a Christmas present also bears a message from the Psalms: “Shew me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths” (KJV).

We borrow words of consolation and encouragement from the Psalms, and that is good. But something has been overlooked. An element runs through the Psalms that we would not dream of nailing up on the living-room wall. I have never seen a decorative ceramic banner that reads, “You have thrust me down to the lowest pit, into the darkest depths.” I have never seen a pewter serving dish bearing the inscription, “Because of my groaning, I am reduced to skin and bones.” I have never seen a Sunday-school button with this wish for the wicked: “May they be like snails that dissolve into slime.” Nor do I ever expect to see them, even though these words, and many more like them, come straight from the Psalms.

The fierce psalms are in fact easier to find than the gentle ones, because there are so many more of them. They make up a major element for which fierce is exactly the right word. From these psalms, we have the perfect right to borrow language expressive of our own pain, when pain threatens to overcome us.

It is frequently the case that the gentle verses that adorn plaques and collector’s plates are the expressions of hope or trust, or the avowal of moral tractability, which are also a regular feature of the laments. The verse on your cross-stitch may indeed be from a lament—that is, from a psalm of rage and terror screamed into the wind.

To turn in your misery to the God who is the source of all things, even ultimately of your misery, and not only to turn to him but also to praise him with all your might until your might has drained away. That is what the psalms call us to do. That is not the complete biblical solution, but it is the beginning point of any solution. The psalms do not alone supply all we need to strive on against the icy wind. But they do fill us with strength and power for the moment of turning.

CHIPPING AWAY AT THE OLD BLOCK

Not all who bear Christ's name bear his image.

We're not sure what it means to be like Christ. We're not sure what it means to see with his eyes, to hear with his ears, to feel with his heart. I wonder myself sometimes. I wonder what it is like to will only one thing, not to have a distracted mind or a divided heart. To want only what the Father wants. To love only what the Father loves. To do only what I see the Father doing. To speak only what the Father has taught me. I wonder what it is like to empty myself the way Jesus did. To give myself the way he did. To sacrifice myself the way he did.

Until Christ returns to establish his kingdom on the earth, God is restoring his rule in this rebel world, a person at a time, a family at a time, a church at a time. For now, the rule of God rests on those who bear his image, those whose lives reflect his love, his wisdom, his understanding, his compassion, his forgiveness, his humility, his gentleness.

Of course, not all who bear Christ's name bear his image. There is a difference between being a Christian and being conformed to the image of Christ. Becoming a Christian happens when the stone, so to speak, is freed from the mountain. A number of things happen beforehand to prepare for that moment, such as the drilling of the holes and the hammering of the wedges, but eventually, one final fissure sets the stone free. It may be a shattering moment in which the final crack reverberates through the quarry. Or it may be a silent moment in which the final crack is so slight as to go unnoticed. Either way, there is a moment in time in which the stone is set free.

Free from the mountain, that is.

But not from itself.

Becoming conformed to the image of Christ is the process God uses to free the stone from the self. Paul describes the process in Romans 8:28-29:

And we know that God causes everything to work together for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose for them. For God knew his people in advance, and he chose them to become like his Son, so that his Son would be the firstborn, with many brothers and sisters.

God is using the circumstances of our lives, all the circumstances of our lives, as tools. He goes about his work the same way Michelangelo went about his. Within the rough-hewn stone of the self is trapped the image of Christ. To release the image, he chips away everything that isn't Jesus.

HOW TO CONVEY GOD'S PERSPECTIVE ON SEX

Anyone who questions whether sex is good is actually questioning God's goodness.

It is healthy for young people to study the Scriptures and gain a thorough understanding of God's perspective about sex. Such an understanding is essential for anyone who wants to say no to premarital sex.

God designed and created sex. It is not dirty or evil, and God is not down on sex. It is a carefully planned aspect of our humanness, intended for our benefit and God's glory. The Song of Solomon is not only a beautiful love story, it is also a wholesome sex manual. And the apostle Paul in the New Testament not only approves of sex between marriage partners, he also recommends it often. Anyone who questions whether sex is good is actually questioning God's goodness.

The best place for young people to learn God's perspective about sex is at home. Here are a few key elements about sex you should be sharing with your kids.

It is important for young people to feel good about being male and female and to accept their sexuality as a gift from God. The psalmist says, “Thank you for making me so wonderfully complex! Your workmanship is marvelous” (Psalm 139:14). The creation of the human body, with its sex drives and organs, is something to thank him for. There are no reasons to be ashamed. From the beginning, human sexuality is seen as a reflection of the character of God, and its existence is described as “very good.”

As you study God’s perspective on sex, three things become apparent:

1. God is pro-sex. He created sex, and he wants us to enjoy it to the fullest. If anyone has any doubts, read the Song of Solomon.
2. Sexual intercourse is intended for oneness. There is no expression of unity between a man and a woman that is more intimate than this. Oneness is one of the primary purposes of sex.
3. God designed sex for marriage—it is meant to take place between a husband and wife. Since oneness is the primary purpose for sexual intercourse, it is evident why God has restricted it to the context of marriage.

Marriage, in God’s plan, is the permanent bonding of two people. Paul uses the analogy of Christ and the church to provide a deeper understanding of that union (Ephesians 5:31-32). Based on that relationship, divorce is not an option for two believers. To a culture that lives for the moment and marries for the moment, the Christian concept of lifelong commitment to one person stands out in sharp contrast.

“DON’T WORRY, BE HAPPY”

No pills, no amount of sleep, no amount of time alone can heal a wounded spirit.

No place on earth is immune from natural disaster, disease, or human conflict. In the days of the prophets Jeremiah and Micah, false preachers were proclaiming a false peace, a man-made peace without God. They created a slogan, saying “Peace, peace” even in the face of dire circumstances and sin. Jeremiah said, “They dress the wound of my people as though it were not serious. ‘Peace, peace,’ they say” (Jeremiah 6:14, NIV).

God, however, declared that they were proclaiming peace “when there is no peace.” His judgment was sure: “ ‘They will fall among the fallen; they will be brought down when I punish them,’ says the LORD” (Jeremiah 6:14–15, NIV).

Things are no different today. There are many who assure those living lives contrary to God’s Word: “Don’t worry, everybody is doing this. God doesn’t really care about such minor things. After all, you’re not hurting anyone.” They are saying, in essence, “peace, peace” when there is no peace.

And God responds, “There is no peace for the rebellious person.” All sin is serious to God. Sin must never be trivialized by man-made justifications. Only God’s forgiveness can bring genuine peace.

The prophet Isaiah gave this word from the Lord:

“I have seen what they do, but I will heal them anyway! I will lead them. I will comfort those who mourn, bringing words of praise to their lips. May they have abundant peace, both near and far,” says the LORD, who heals them. “But those who still reject me are like the restless sea, which is never still but continually churns up mud and dirt. There is no peace for the wicked,” says my God (Isaiah 57:18-21).

Others offer a hollow solution to those who are undergoing great sorrow or pain, saying, “Don’t worry, this will pass. You’ll get over it.” They are saying, “Peace, peace.”

And God responds, “There is no peace.” No pills, no amount of sleep, no amount of time alone can heal a wounded spirit. Only God’s forgiveness, comfort, and mercy can heal a wounded spirit and restore genuine peace.

Jesus said clearly, “I am leaving you with a gift—peace of mind and heart. And the peace I give is a gift the world cannot give. So don’t be troubled or afraid ” (John 14:27). With these words Jesus described the root causes of worry and anxiety, which for all of us are fear and a troubled heart.

THE BIBLE: DEAD OR ALIVE?

When we read the Bible, the thoughts that spring into our mind are not always inspired by the Holy Spirit.

If the Bible is full of inspiring truth, spiritual revelation, penetrating insights, and even splashes of humor, why do many Christians complain that Bible reading is boring? Why do many believers skip it altogether or read only short passages before falling asleep at night?

We become bored when we get stuck for a long time in one place or when we're engaged in a repetitive activity. Long exposure to an environment where the setting is dreary (think doctor's office) and monotonous activities deprive our brains of the stimulation they need to stay engaged. As a result, boredom sets in.

This happens with Bible study. Imagine opening your Bible (yawn). You look at the same scenery once again, read the same stories and records of ancient history you've read dozens of times before, and you see them the same way you've always seen them. The problem is repetition: We read the same words and draw from them the same meaning and emphasis every time. Our familiar, assumed interpretations obscure any new insights that God might want to unveil. We assume we already know what a passage means, so when we read it again it sounds like the same old stuff.

Our understanding of the Bible is formed more than we know by Bible teachers who have impressed us with their authoritarian style. It's easy to assume that we don't need to hear the Bible's message for ourselves because someone has already told us all we need to know. But the result is a secondhand knowledge. When we read the Bible, the thoughts that spring into our mind are not always inspired by the Holy Spirit's speaking through the text; they are simply the lessons inherited from our favorite Bible teachers. When we study the Scriptures, we ought to be looking for something we missed in prior readings, something that was hidden from us but now is coming to light.

If we refuse to push ourselves to new understandings, we fail to hear a fresh and specific message from God. If we assume there is only one way to interpret a passage, then our real focus is on a human's interpretation rather than the biblical text itself. Sometimes listening to God in the Scripture means calling into question an earlier interpretation and looking for one that goes deeper.

PUTTING GOD ON THE SPOT

If God is going to do what he wants to do anyway, why do I need to pray?

I am often asked the question, “If God is going to do what he wants to do anyway, why do I need to pray?”

Answer: Because Scripture tells us that there are certain things God will not do apart from our prayers.

Don’t ask me to explain why God chose to do things this way. I just know that he did.

We do somewhat the same thing with our children. We want them to ask us for things that they need, because asking teaches them dependence. It teaches them that the good things of life don’t just materialize out of thin air, but are provided by someone who loves them. Asking also teaches our children gratitude, because they need to learn to say “Thank you” when they receive something. And asking gives our kids access to the good things we have for them.

One of the best examples of a believer approaching God in prayer is the prayer of the prophet Daniel (Daniel 9:1-19).

Daniel was reminding God of what he had said about Jerusalem and its people. He was holding God to his Word. Moses did the same thing when God announced he wanted to destroy Israel and start over with Moses (Exodus 32:10).

Moses went before the Lord and reminded him of three things (vv. 11-13). He reminded God that these were the people he had rescued from Egypt. Moses reminded God that if he destroyed the nation, the Egyptians would accuse God of doing evil.

And finally, Moses reminded God of his great promises to Abraham and his descendants. Then verse 14 says, “The Lord changed his mind.” God was still sovereign in this situation, but from our human standpoint the intercession of Moses caused God to change his plans.

Moses knew how to pray. He basically said, “God, if you do this, your name is going to look bad, and you will be embarrassed among the gods. God, it is in your best interest to preserve your people. You need to forgive your people.”

I call this putting God on the spot. Moses was able to do this in his prayer because he understood God’s nature. Moses appealed to God’s grace, knowing that his grace could overrule his wrath.

But Moses had to pray before God would relent. In his sovereignty, God decided that he would allow Moses’ prayer to “change his mind.”

We have the same privilege as Moses to hold God to his Word in prayer. It’s not a matter of his reluctance to fulfill his Word, but a test of our faith to believe and act on his Word.

FOUR KEYS TO READING THE BIBLE

Some books in Scripture have a richer vitamin content than others.

One: Before you open your Bible, remember you are in the presence of God. Remind yourself that God is the primary author of Scripture and that what you are seeking is the personal togetherness that you would hope for if you were opening a letter from someone you knew cared for you. Remember that and think of it consciously before you do anything else. Then ask God to speak to you, and make you listen, as you read.

Two: . . . All the Bible should be read, and read regularly. You and I should acquaint ourselves with the full landscape of Scripture and keep covering it backwards and forwards. Something like four chapters a day, I find, is a very good plan. It gets you through the whole Bible in approximately a year.

Three: Focus particularly on the richer books. This is quite distinct from point two. There are some books in Scripture which, as words from God to his people, have a richer vitamin content than others.

The four Gospels in which you see your Lord in action . . . are the most precious books in the world. They are the Bible books that ought to be read oftener than any others. I also think the Psalter ought to be read regularly, one or two psalms every day as a minimum. (Treat Psalm 119 as a cluster of twenty-two 8-verse psalms for this purpose.) . . . You should try to find the condition of heart in the Psalter that matches your own inner experience and make it your own day by day. . . . If you find the psalmists' exuberance, intensity, sudden shifts of theme, and utter lack of inhibitions too much for you at first, don't be discouraged. These men were more alive in themselves and in God than most of us are, and it takes time to catch up with them. . . .

Four: Linger in those books that have a special resonance with you individually. One book which I have found wonderfully enriching to read over and over is Paul's letter to the Romans. The way Paul strings things together is the model of what a systematic study of God's saving activity ought to be. It's all there. The fifth-century Bishop of Antioch, John Chrysostom, had somebody read the letter to the Romans aloud to him once every week. I can understand that.

So, to reiterate. Point one: come humbly into the presence of God. Point two: read all of Scripture generally. Point three: focus on the richer books—among which, it seems to me, the Gospels and the Psalms are especially significant. Point four: linger in those books that have a special resonance with you individually.

Jonah 1:1-3

REACHING OUT WHEN YOU'D RATHER NOT

How are people going to be saved if they don't have contact with someone who can tell them about the love of God?

Jonah didn't care about the Ninevites. He didn't care that Nineveh was a city of tens of thousands of people who were bound for hell. His procrastination and personal prejudice were stronger than any passion he had for the lost. In fact, judgment for Nineveh suited him just fine.

Have you ever felt that way about someone? Some of us may take perverse pleasure in knowing that people who really bother us may be going to hell. Certainly that is not the kind of attitude we should have as believers. The truth is, we all deserve to go to hell. We all deserve the judgment of God. Jesus didn't say to us as Christians, "Hate your enemies and hope judgment comes to them soon." He said, "You have heard that the law of Moses says, 'Love your neighbor' and hate your enemy. But I say, love your enemies! Pray for those who persecute you!” (Matthew 5:43-44).

Sometimes we Christians retreat into our own little ivory towers. We isolate ourselves from people who do not believe the same way we do. We don't want any contact with them out of fear that we might be contaminated. Here's the problem with that kind of attitude: How are they going to be saved if they don't have contact with someone who can tell them about the love of God? I'm not suggesting that God is somehow dependent on us. He can do the job fine without us. At the same time, he wants to use us as his instruments.

Paul asked a rhetorical question in the book of Romans: “But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in him? And how can they believe in him if they have never heard about him? And how can they hear about him unless someone tells them?” (Romans 10:14).

Jonah was God's child. He was a believer, albeit a wayward one, a disobedient one, at this time. But he was a believer, nonetheless. What does the Bible say about the way God deals with his children? It says, “For the Lord disciplines those he loves” (Hebrews 12:6). Because God loves us, He will seek to get our attention when we are going the wrong way.

We all know what that's like. When we cross the line, when we are about to do something we know is wrong, there is that little voice inside of us, that sense of conviction from the Holy Spirit, saying, “Don't do that; it's not right.”

WHAT PRICE AUTHORITY?

We have become self-absorbed, self-concerned, and self-consumed. We also have become supremely unhappy.

Selfishness is epidemic in our day. Our culture teaches us from our earliest days to look out for number one, to pamper ourselves, and to encourage self-actualization, self-awareness, and self-esteem. As a result, we have become self-absorbed, self-concerned, and self-consumed. We also have become supremely unhappy and unfulfilled. The reason, says psychologist Paul Kellerman, is that “the only path to genuine happiness and fulfillment is through service to others. It is only as we give ourselves away that we can truly discover ourselves.”

The whole of history contradicts our society’s emphasis on self-service and self-satisfaction. We can learn some great lessons about servanthood and significance by observing the lives and work of men and women who put the interests of others before their own, who put the safety of others before their own, and who put the happiness of others before their own. Compare the lives of men like George Washington, Patrick Henry, John Quincy Adams, Abraham Lincoln, and Teddy Roosevelt with our modern-day obsession with self. The enormous contrast quickly becomes clear.

Our contemporary culture beckons us to “find ourselves” by turning inward. It entices us to “satisfy ourselves” by “being true to ourselves.” But these heroes resisted the siren song of self-aggrandizement. They fought for justice, cared for the needy, worked for mercy, fed the hungry, and rescued the perishing. Their greatest accomplishments were the result of their servanthood—the key to significance, success, and even authority.

Sociologists have identified a link between social service and social authority. Whoever meets the needs of the people will gain the allegiance of the people. The administrators of many of our social service institutions understand this concept of social development very well. As a result of the entitlements they have bestowed on others, they have gained increasing authority.

But as Jesus taught his disciples, real authority comes when we humbly serve others:

In this world the kings and great men lord it over their people, yet they are called ‘friends of the people.’ But among you it will be different. Those who are the greatest among you should take the lowest rank, and the leader should be like a servant. Who is more important, the one who sits at the table or the one who serves? The one who sits at the table, of course. But not here! For I am among you as one who serves. (Luke 22:25-27)

Sadly, all too many of us have not fully grasped the link between charity, mercy, kindness, and authority. We have not fully understood that authority comes through service.

INTRODUCTIONS, PLEASE

We are not salesmen, but coworkers with God.

One of the greatest needs today is for “introducers”—people who know how to put others in touch with Jesus Christ. Much of the world is aware of him, but who is going to introduce them to him? Many of us teach Sunday school, take part in Bible study groups, live ethical lives—and all of this is important. But Jesus Christ is a living person, not a formula, activity, or organization. Sharing our faith ultimately means introducing persons to the Person.

Andrew, one of Jesus’ first band of twelve, was sort of nondescript, seldom mentioned except in a list with the other disciples. Interestingly, every time Andrew is mentioned by himself, he’s introducing others to Jesus. In John 1 we read that he brought his brother to Jesus; in John 12 he brought to Jesus some Greeks who wanted to meet him. But think what came out of those introductions: one of the greatest leaders in the New Testament—Simon Peter! One of the greatest statements Jesus ever made—when he saw the Greeks coming, he said, “And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself” (John 12:32).

Each of us ought to aspire to be an introducer like Andrew.

It is tremendous to realize that we are not salesmen but coworkers with God. He is the evangelist; we are the introducers. You and I cannot convert anyone, but God can use us to help lead people to him. Jesus said, “No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws them to me” (John 6:44).

Being an introducer requires a combination of humble patience and obedient expectancy. There is no more humbling experience than being on hand when God brings someone to himself. To see God creatively break into a life freshens my own spirit! It is like observing the birth of a child. As spiritual “midwives” we need to watch how God is leading someone to himself so we may aid him.

The key word here is faith. God is going to do his work in his way in his time and will use our witness as he wants. If we really believe this, we won’t manipulate people or play on their emotions. We won’t try to persuade people in any way that restricts their freedom. We won’t seduce people for Christ by getting them to make the right decision for the wrong reason. We will urge people lovingly, but we won’t push people who are not ready. We will watch for God’s moment. We will introduce everybody we can, but we will force no one.

CHECKUP FOR THE HEART

How did our hearts become such a toxic waste dump of personal and relational corruption?

The Pharisees of Jesus' day had mastered the act of external religion, while ignoring the fact that their hearts were far from pleasing to God. Since the heart is where God meets us and resides, nothing could have been more revolting to Christ.

This is why Christ spent much of his time exposing, sometimes with scathing words, the duplicity of these men's lives. He called their rigorous religious discipline a self-serving, public display of false piety, motivated by pride. He also decried their showy prayers (Luke 18:11), their religious works performed to be seen by men, their flashy giving, and their recitation of prayers for personal praise (Matthew 6:1-5). Christ knew that their righteousness was merely a platform for their pride, pursued so passionately that they added increasingly minute laws to appear all the more righteous (which, of course, brought them great pleasure). . . .

Our spiritual condition is measured first and foremost by our heart, not our habits. With the Pharisees listening closely, He told a crowd one day:

It is what comes from inside that defiles you. For from within, out of a person's heart, come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, envy, slander, pride, and foolishness. All these vile things come from within; they are what defile you. (Mark 7:20-23)

How did our hearts become such a toxic waste dump of personal and relational corruption? We know that we were created for a significance that finds its source in God. We also were given the intrinsic energies of pleasure, pride, and passion so that those compelling forces might drive us toward full satisfaction in an unhindered relationship with God, in whose image we were made. Originally, our significance was found in a relationship with him, our pleasure was in and from him, our pride was focused on him, and our passions longed for him. This stimulated our lips to praise and our hearts to humility. From such a platform we could spontaneously declare God's glory.

Then sin entered and ravaged the scene, leaving mankind dead to God. Sin separated us totally from the source of significance, and we were left to find it apart from God. In Scripture, this fallen state of our hearts is called the "flesh," and our misguided search for pleasure, pride, and passion is often described as our "lusts." Inevitably they lead us to sorrow and loss.

Our regret and loss occur because the mad search for significance can be satisfied only in the One who created us and offers us true satisfaction.

HEARING EVEN IF YOU CAN'T SEE

Jesus' presence with us is much greater than his words to us.

After his resurrection Jesus appeared to his disciples in visible form only on a very few occasions over a period of forty days. His main task as their teacher during these days was to accustom them to hearing him without seeing him. Thus it was “through the Holy Spirit” that he gave instructions to his apostles during this period (Acts 1:2, NRSV). He made himself visible to them just enough to give them confidence that it was he who was speaking in their hearts. This prepared them to continue their conversation with him after he no longer appeared to them visibly.

An instructive scene from these very important days of teaching is preserved in the last chapter of Luke's Gospel. Two of Jesus' heartbroken students were walking to Emmaus, a village about seven miles northwest of Jerusalem. He caught up with them in a visible form that they did not recognize, and he heard their sad story about what had happened to Jesus of Nazareth and about how, it seemed, all hope was now lost.

He responded by taking them through the Scriptures and showing them that what had happened to their Jesus was exactly what was to befall the Messiah that Israel hoped for. Then as they sat at supper with him, suddenly “their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight” (Luke 24:31, NRSV). But their recognition was much more than a visual recognition, and that was the whole point. They asked one another, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?” (Luke 24:32, NRSV).

He speaks with us in our heart, which burns from the characteristic impact of his word. His presence with us is, of course, much greater than his words to us. But it is turned into companionship only by the actual communications we have between us and him.

This companionship with Jesus is the form that Christian spirituality, as practiced through the ages, takes. Spiritual people are not those who engage in certain spiritual practices; they are those who draw their life from a conversational relationship with God. They do not live their lives merely in terms of the human order in the visible world; they have “a life beyond.”

Today we live on the Emmaus road, so to speak, with an intermittently burning heart. His word pours into our heart, energizing and directing our life in a way that cannot be accounted for in natural terms. My visible surroundings become, instead, God’s gift to me, where I am privileged to see the rule of heaven realized through my friendship with Jesus.

A TWO-WAY CONVERSATION

We think of prayer as talking to God, rarely stopping to wonder whether God might want to talk to us.

It's an honor to be able to speak to God. We don't have to go through a priest or a saint or any other intermediary. We don't have to follow any prescribed rituals. We don't have to wait for an appointment. Anywhere, anytime, under any circumstances, we can "come boldly to the throne of our gracious God. There we will receive his mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it most" (Hebrews 4:16).

It's ironic, though, that most of the time we think of prayer as talking to God, rarely stopping to wonder whether God might want to talk to us. But as I've studied prayer and prayed, I've sensed God saying, "If we enjoy a relationship, why are you doing all the talking? Let me get a word in somewhere!"

How does God speak to us? One way is through his Word. As we read it and meditate on it, he applies it to our lives. A familiar verse jumps off the page at us just when we need it. It seems to take on new meaning to fit our circumstances. The verse has not changed; it has always been part of God's Word. But the Holy Spirit gives it to us when it will help us the most.

Another way God speaks to us is through people. "I provide for you," he says, as a neighbor shows up with a casserole we had no time to cook or money to buy. "I care for you," he says, through the arms of a friend who understands our grief and seeks to console us. "I guide you," he says, through a counselor who points us to the path God has chosen for us.

A third way God speaks to us is through direct leadings of the Holy Spirit. This third Person of the Godhead is ready, willing and able to communicate with us. According to Scripture, he leads, rebukes, affirms, comforts and assures Christ's followers.

A lot of Christians, however, don't expect God to speak to them. By their actions you would expect that Jesus packed up and went back to heaven forty days after his resurrection and hasn't been heard from since. Though this attitude is common, it does not fit the picture of God painted throughout Scripture.

JUST A MINUTE . . .

Too easily a lifetime has passed and we've done little or nothing of eternal value.

How strict was Jesus on the issue of time-wasting? Consider this example:

He said to another person, "Come, follow me." The man agreed, but he said, "Lord, first let me return home and bury my father." But Jesus told him, "Let the spiritually dead bury their own dead! Your duty is to go and preach about the Kingdom of God." Another said, "Yes, Lord, I will follow you, but first let me say good-bye to my family." But Jesus told him, "Anyone who puts a hand to the plow and then looks back is not fit for the Kingdom of God." (Luke 9:59-62)

It seems like a stringent approach to young recruits, doesn't it? Shouldn't we take time out for funerals? Shouldn't we show our families the courtesy of checking in to tell them we're checking out?

Of course we should. Jesus' point is that we must keep in check our own tendency to put the big things aside for the little ones. It's what Charles Hummel called the "tyranny of the urgent"—putting the more important thing behind the more immediate thing. At any given moment we need to be aware of the wisest possible way to invest the moment we so briefly hold in our grasp. Too easily a lifetime has passed and we've done little or nothing of eternal value. Stop to attend that funeral and you'll find five different reasons to change your mind about following Jesus; check in with your family and you're liable to be talked out of your new resolution. Jesus is simply making the point that a commitment to him means a radical reprioritization of life's values—effective immediately.

I believe that sometimes God gives us explicit instructions for the moment. I know he does for me. I don't hear voices, but in the midst of all my busyness and distractions the still, small voice breaks through: Why don't you call this particular friend? Why don't you go to that particular place? I think it's common in the life of ministers. Sometimes I obey what I know to be the voice of God. Other times, to my shame, I let the moment get by; I tell God, in essence, "Let me go bury the dead first." And I know deep down that I've missed a divine appointment. It's an empty feeling to comprehend, much later, that you've missed something special God had for you to do.

We need to learn to hear his voice, particularly as it pertains to the immediate use of our time. If we could do that, even moderately well, the fruit of our lives would be orchards ample enough to feed the world.

Gen. 1:1

The Hebrew name for God that is used here, Elohim, demonstrates the enormity of God's power to transform lives. This name for God is in the plural form, signifying his strength and might. It also hints that God is in some sense plural—a community unto himself (see also 1:26; 3:22; 11:7). But though this name is plural, it is treated grammatically as singular, revealing God's unified and personal nature. He is omnipotent in power but personal in his touch. He is able and willing to provide the help we need.

Gen. 1:2

This verse describes the earth before it was shaped by God's creative hand. It was shapeless, chaotic, and dark. These three characteristics forebode nothing but trouble. But then we are told that “the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters.” This fourth characteristic is a source of hope and promises new life. The presence of the Holy Spirit was a necessary element in the events of all six days of creation. In the same way, his presence in our lives is necessary before any spiritual renewal can take place.

Gen. 1:24

The phrase “And that is what happened” (also in 1:9-11, 14-15) shows us that God's creative activity was done in complete conformity to the specifications he had originally intended. God accomplishes his will with certainty and precision. It should reassure us to know that God's good desires for us can be accomplished with the same certainty.

Gen. 1:26-27

People were created to be like God. Oceans of ink have been used attempting to explain what this means. One characteristic that all the writers agree upon is the ability of people to make moral decisions. We have the power of choice, and we are accountable to God and to others for the choices we make. To continue growing spiritually we must take responsibility for this aspect of God's nature that is alive and well in each of us.

Gen. 2:2-3

This is the first mention of Sabbath rest—one day of rest in seven. By his example, God encourages us to designate a portion of our lives to rest and spiritual rejuvenation. Without proper rest, it is very difficult to deal with the other matters in our lives and maintain the balance necessary to preserve spiritual gains.

Gen. 2:4

Here a new Hebrew name for God is introduced: “The Lord” (Yahweh). This is the personal name for God; it is his relationship name. It describes the God who chose Abram and established a covenant with him. It describes the God who chose to relate to the Israelites and make them his people. It is the name that reminds us that God wants to have a relationship with us.

Gen. 2:8-14

God provided a perfect environment for the first people. We often blame our outward circumstances for our difficulties. It is important to note here that in spite of their ideal surroundings, our first parents fell—they failed. Although the environment we live in can certainly add to our problems, it is never entirely at fault. We need to take responsibility for our own mistakes and failures.

Gen. 2:16-17

God forbade Adam and Eve to eat from a single tree. Why did he do this? Why didn't God create a world where people couldn't sin? Or why didn't he make people so they couldn't disobey his commands? The answer lies in the very nature of God. God is love and desires to have a loving relationship with his creatures. He wants us to respond to him with love in return. But a loving response is only possible when we have the choice to do otherwise. He wants us to obey because we love him, not because we have no other choice.

Gen. 3:1-5

The account here pictures for us the process of temptation. The serpent offered as a very attractive option something that had been forbidden by God. The serpent also caused Eve to doubt God and the truth of his Word. During the debate, Eve offered some halfhearted opposition, but her growing doubt in God weakened her resolve. In the end, she gave in. Satan strengthened his temptation by weakening Eve's faith in God. Staying close to God and preserving our faith in him will weaken the power of temptation in our life.

Gen. 3:10

Adam admitted that he was hiding from God. One of the terrible consequences of our sin is the isolation that results. We want to hide from other people; we want to hide from God. Our failures will always make us want to hide. But we must bring our sin out into the open; this will then bring us back into our relationships—with others and with God—which helps us preserve our spiritual gains.

Gen. 3:15

In his grace, God promised that the offspring of the woman would defeat Satan. He promised that he would take charge of the redemption of their lives and overcome the enemy. This is good news—the first mention of the gospel of grace that would eventually be fulfilled by the coming of Jesus, the Messiah.

Gen. 3:20

There was no reason for Adam and Eve to expect to live on after their failure. God had clearly stated that the consequences of their sin would be death (see 2:17). Yet Adam displayed his faith in our gracious God by naming his wife Eve, which sounds like a Hebrew word that means “to give life.” He believed that she would live to be the mother of the human race. Adam’s faith in God gave him hope for the future, even when his past gave him little reason to hope.

Gen. 4:4

Abel killed an innocent substitute as his offering, and God accepted his offering. Abel was obedient to God's instructions. Our relationship with God can be established by accepting God's gracious forgiveness and allowing the innocent sacrifice of his Son to stand in our place. Abel's sacrifice of one of his lambs was the second death mentioned in the Bible.

Gen. 4:6-8

When God rejected Cain's offering, Cain reacted first with disappointment, then with anger. God did not reject Cain for his strong feelings but offered him an opportunity for a new start. How sad that Cain refused this second chance and went out instead to kill his brother. We need to be careful when we face obstacles in life. We need to carefully weigh the strong feelings we encounter before acting on them. If we don't, we may be passing up an excellent opportunity for a fresh start. God is not put off by our strong feelings. Our spiritual renewal is based on God's grace, which always offers us an opportunity to begin again.

Gen. 4:15

The mark on Cain was not, as some have taught, a badge of guilt. It was a sign that God gave Cain for his protection. Even after Cain's great failure, God desired to protect him from harm. Many of us look back and marvel at how God protected us before we began seeking him. He wants us to be restored and often protects us in the midst of evil so that we are not destroyed. Even after our greatest failures, our gracious God desires only our healing and restoration.

Gen. 4:19-24

Some people insist that the human race is developing and becoming better and better. When we compare Lamech with his ancestor Cain, it is obvious that the trend has usually gone in the opposite direction. Without God's help, we only get worse. It is only by following God's plan and receiving his grace that we can hope to escape the natural slide toward pain and destruction.

Gen. 5:1-32

This chapter has often been called the obituary column. Its recurring refrain is, "And then he died." Although Adam's physical death did not occur on the day he sinned, it did eventually come. Adam had reestablished his relationship with God, but the physical consequences of his sin could not be avoided forever. We may hope that after reestablishing our relationship with God, our troubles will be over. But a relationship with God rarely frees us from the consequences of past sin. The consequences will catch up with us sooner or later. But if we suffer for past mistakes, we can know that God will be with us each step of the way.

Gen. 5:21-24

Little is said about the spiritual state of these patriarchs of the human race. But the account of Enoch's life provides us with a bright spot in this otherwise dismal chapter. Enoch was said to have "lived in close fellowship with God." His life should give us hope. He wasn't trapped by the mistakes or apathy of his peers and ancestors. Instead, he constantly walked with God.

Gen. 6:5-6

After years of patience, God saw that the human race still refused to live according to his plan. Here we see that things were getting worse, not better. This broke God's heart because of the great love he had for his creation. It should encourage us to know that God doesn't punish us simply out of anger. He loves us very much and desires that we should follow him.

Gen. 6:7

God promises to judge his fallen and sinful creation. Even though God is patient with us and gives us many chances to change our ways, we cannot act with impunity. God is righteous, and he judges sin.

Gen. 6:8-10

God did not destroy the righteous with the wicked. These verses are another statement of God's grace. God extended grace to Noah and his family. Noah knew Enoch's secret. He lived his life in constant fellowship with God. He broke the mold set by his ancestors and neighbors by drawing close to God. As a result, Noah lived through the Flood and became the second father of the human race.

Gen. 6:22

One has to wonder whether God's instructions made any sense to Noah. God told him to build a gigantic boat far from the nearest body of navigable water. But here we see that Noah was obedient even though God's instructions were hard to understand. This is one of the secrets of success in life. We may not understand how everything works, but we must always be faithful to do what God tells us to do. When we walk by faith as Noah did, God will watch over us.

Gen. 8:1

Noah had listened to God and obeyed all his requests. Now the boat was floating over the earth on the flood waters—not an ideal situation to be in. But God didn't forget about Noah. It is comforting to know that when we obey God, he will not forget us. He will stand by us until his plans for us are complete.

Gen. 9:1-17

Noah and his family were the only people left after the Flood. The comforts of civilization had been washed away. They had to start all over again. God gave Noah his special blessing and instituted a plan that, if followed, would result in a healthy society. God has given us his Word, which contains the ultimate blueprint for healthy living. And just as God gave the human race a new start with Noah, he can give each of us a new start, too.

Gen. 9:9-13

God assigned Noah the monumental task of rebuilding human society on earth. But God didn't just hand Noah the task and walk away. As we see in this passage, God gave Noah hope and set a rainbow in the sky as a seal of his promise. As we are rebuilding our lives in keeping with God's design, we can be sure that God will support us with his presence and promises. And we should keep an eye out for the “rainbows” along the way. God often leaves us signs to remind us of his loving presence and care.

Gen. 9:20-21

With all the talk of Noah’s righteousness and his fellowship with God, it is surprising to read that, by his choice, he fell prey to the excesses of alcohol. The account of Noah’s drunkenness and shame comes as a shock to the reader, but it is a reminder that even in ideal conditions it is easy for us to slip and fall. We can never relax and feel as if we have it made, for that is when we become most vulnerable to sin.

Gen. 10:1-32

This chapter is often called the Table of Nations. It is refreshing to realize that the God we worship is not a local deity. He is sovereign over all ethnic and language groups, nations, and political entities. The God who holds kings and empires in his hands surely has the power to hold us, too.

Gen. 11:3-4

Whatever else the Tower of Babel might have represented, it was a mighty monument to human pride. It was a symbol of man’s rebellion against the revealed will of God. This type of pride is always destructive to human community and to God’s plan of redemption.

Gen. 11:5-9

The Tower of Babel incident records the progression of broken communication that began back in the Garden of Eden. After sin entered the world, Adam and Eve began to hide the truth. They tried to blame each other and God for their mistakes, resulting in separation from God and barriers between that first couple. The sinful pride of the people of Babel caused another great rift in human communication. Numerous languages now divided them into various groups, making their cooperation difficult, if not impossible. But the story doesn't end there. God is in the business of restoring broken communication. He chose the nation of Israel and spoke to them, giving them his laws. His Son was born through this nation so he could speak to us and walk among us. And when the Holy Spirit came at Pentecost, the diversity of language was no longer a barrier to communication (Acts 2:5-12). Following God's plan enhances our communication with him and the people around us.

Gen. 12:4

This verse indicates the beginning of Abram's radical obedience to God. Having discovered God's will, Abram became willing to do what God's plan required of him. Our spiritual renewal begins when we learn to seek God's will and follow it without reservation.

Gen. 12:10

We may wonder what Abram expected the Promised Land to be like. In this passage, we see that he arrived to find the land ravaged by famine. It probably wasn't what he had expected or hoped for, but it was the place that God had intended for him
